Efflatus Between Heaven and Earth

by Gladys I. Spearman-Cook

HE EFFLATUS OF THE EARTHPLANE, IS the ever unfolding birth of the heights in the depths, which eventually becomes the denizen of the depths. That of fluidity becoming mass, by taking on that of form; yet the interactionary interchanging powers that man is born from, and become his innermost being. That of his sensory apparatus, his vibratory mixture of his glandular system. The very depths of his possibilities, yet the very depths of his failure; for man is what he can manifest, the outcome of his mind endeavours.

Thus the rock is the Isle of man, that he sails round and round until he has the courage to break it open. That which as the mount of knowledge, holds all the nucleus of the Fire gathered from the heights. Although captured in the depths, is merely vibratory intensity; not belief that holds intensity of belief which raises his own frequency of light; but knowledge that bears only of power. That which someday will demand attention and force him into action, calling fast and furious for freedom by expansion.

Hence vibrations are the prism that man draws unto himself as colour and sound of a vibratory rate. That which he makes as the context of his glandular sensory system, thus raises his frequency as mind acceptance, according to his mode of belief. Waves of Energy flowing down from the Unknown heights, that take on a vibratory force as they contact matter. This being caused by a revolutionary state in an inter-actionary, interchangeable, vibratory induction manifesting in man. A continual revolutionary change of Causes descending and manifesting within the soul, that can become intelligence in matter. That of LIGHT in the unfolding Cosmos, through human causes, bringing forth light from the ever descending SEED, coming down from the Scorpii Constellatory Pool of LIFE.

Yet the ever revolving chain of Causes, which cause the vibrations of Energy to lessen in their intensity as they reach the base; for they then become as density of mass, by the magnetic of stagnant mind matter. A density of human vibrations that man creates by his peering into the Waters; peering into the density of form, thinking that he is measuring the depth of intensity, by placing into category of figures of multiple form. When really he is only measuring his own sensitivity, and stating, by his own state of mind oblivion, so many millions of light miles away.

Never realising that all is HERE and NOW, according to man's PERCEPTIVITY to comprehend. For Sky is SPACE, and man's perception of form is his own inner creation, which he creates in matter.

THE RHYTHM OF THE SPHERES

ONCE Man has the Faith and Belief to become the instrument of the Cosmic Rays, he "...has captured the Rhythm of the Spheres in his means of interpenetration... He has spiralled up and created light, while his own mind, in vibratory frequency, has danced up free from matter. Vibration captured and brought to light as the Intelligencia of Cosmic Creation." "Man captures the Unseen... and brings them to light."

And those winged of mind (the archer's quiver) all become aware of the descending Cosmic Powers feeding Earth and Man, and commence to respond to them and obey. (See text on page 3, cols. 1 and 5).

Editorial Glories of the Solar Harvest

THIS is the Age of Aquarius, the Hour when there is to be demanded the Balance Sheet of each man's Account. Mankind is meeting for the first time that which was sown 13,000 years ago in the polarity of Leo when all started as the Golden Equinox only for Man to take the Fire and fall. One alone knew of the Royalty of the Call of this Age, knew the Voice of the Spirit so that its Glories could be brought into birth, and she struggled desperately to raise up her mind, to widen her vision and ever find a greater Point of Awareness, so as to capture out of the Unknown Blackness, the Swift-flowing Fires of the Cosmos, the Hierarchical Powers. She turned all her heart to the Great Spiritual Sun, the Fatherhood.

Every person can read of her road of struggle for ever since 1946 Gladys I. Spearman-Cook has daily been at her post, as the Founder-Priest of the School of Universal Philosophy and Healing, and for nigh on 20 years has toiled and woven with her mind being guided by the Spirit. She announced forcefully of the sacredness of the man's Creative Fires, and by her mind light, and will she called down into her being The POWERS of the SCORPIO HIERARCHY, so raising her frequency of mind that the Lord of Scorpio, the Great Eagle, was able to manifest through her Mouth and issue forth wisdom and direction to man. As a result in the Heavens, the sky, can be seen the birth of a vast new Constellation, the Horse-shoe Belt of Stars situated in Scorpio, from which there are now pouring down Cosmic Rays, the Great ELEMENT POWER, feeding the World with their Fire.

* * * *

TO such an extent did she expand her Mind, and lift up her thoughts that she reached the great Hydrogen Power of the Central Sun, the Great SOLAR ENERGY, the LORD OF THE FLAME, THE LORD MAITREYA.

Now from her pen comes the wonders of her new Teachings as the new Voice of Aquarius. But her True Greatness was that she, as Noah and David before her, had risen up the ARK of the world, lifting up the mind barriers of man unto the very summit, the greatest and highest Awareness possible, the Spiritual Sun. As she enriched these Powers, ... and like Jacob, each of the 12 Gods of the Hierarchies were brought into birth ... she gave back to those Heights all the wealth of understanding she had gathered in her journey. She so fought that her own comprehension became united with the Scorpio Lord and that of the Central Sun. Thus HE became wedded in her on earth, and fed the earth with new wisdom through her Mouth, using the richness of the experiences of her many lives on earth, her Fount, to instruct man of the road.

Many have failed to believe, and others have mocked the Voice that has guided her. But now at last she will prove to the world that she IS the Voice of the Hierarchies, and that all men must follow Their ways and return to the Hierarchies the wealth of their lives as well as the Atomic Powers that each man possesses, the Element Forces.

On Sunday 22nd August 1965 the Lord of the Flame made this dramatic announcement of the change over from the Lunar to the Solar LAW.

* * * *

THE raising of the Ark from city to city, is the raising up of the

NEXT MONTH

The RHYTHM of The SPHERES THROUGH COLOUR INTERPENETRATION

Arc of the Mind; and David raised it up to the very heights and he brought back the Ark at the time of the Harvest.

Now my Instrument raised up the Ark, and the Harvest is about to be cut. She has completely changed over the lunar to the Solar, though most of you are still in a very lunar state. This is where the Waters are going to get violent, because the Waters coming down are coming down of the Solar; and if you do not make some effort to change over from the lunar to the Solar, then I am afraid you will have to fight the Waters; for from now onwards all is under the regime of the Solar, the biting Rays of the Central Sun.

For the next one hundred years there is going to be a very fierce Battle. For the first fifty, everything is going to be in a turbulent state; chaos everywhere. You will not have wars, but you are going to have breakings-up in every direction of all old states. New regimes, new theories and ideas will all be re-built upon these Solar Waters and man is going to be turned inside-out to be changed from beginning to end. Then the other fifty will be the settling down; and at the end of one hundred years the whole world will be changed over, with no religion at all. The theme of the Mysteries, and Universal Philosophy in all degrees will have taken its place, and man unfolding of his mind, perceiving of the spirit and trying to raise up of the spirit; coming out of the personal states.

It will be then, as time goes on, that one person will be remembered; the woman that gave the whole blood of her life that this could be achieved. It has been no mean achievement, for the whole six Equinoxes have been re-born, risen up out of the depths they were in.

The Harvest is hers, and nobody else's; but the Harvest is of the Cosmos, which she will find when she goes up to the Heights; all the Glories and the Wonders that she has gathered.

Man now has got to start and build his own harvest, which he will gather in, next September 1966. He is going to start from now, and he is going to labour with changing himself from lunar to Solar; and perhaps he may have to suffer,—yes, even as much as she has done, to set this upon the Cosmos; for Justice is going to be very exacting by these Waters.

No man is going to be spared, and this is what you may expect from now onwards; the outer world of changes that are going to be violent. Men and women will be running hither and thither, with pains that no-one can quell. No drugs or anything else will stop it, because they are the lunar being dried up by the Solar.

* * * *

HIS dynamic Message was too vital, too imperative not to take pride of place on this page, so that no man can say he was not told.

Man's wild debauchery has come to an end. The chaos to the LAW must cease, and now it will be the turn of all on Earth to start the road Back to the Spirit, the Central SUN. The only way to know of the Road is to follow the writings of Her Pen, which has already given forth untold riches. Her accuracy of statement and width of her vision will safely guide man, providing they now obey the SOLAR LAW, and seek to master the lunar light of personal desires. One fact can illustrate this. In the July issue, in her article, "Papalism, the Black Scorpion of the Human Race" it was stated that

"Woman is of the magnetic field of earth, man of the fire brought down from the heights. Yet both are necessary to each other, but only through mind copulation. This is the great mystery of LOVE, and the mystery of Phallic worship, for woman is the magnetic power that when raised up can bring the lunar waters dancing into fluidic life, that will bring forth the wealth of the depths. But through papalism, the Seed of Woman, the feminine attribute of the Race have had their seed as the roots of the depths raised up in blind adoration. This being done that the officiating priests can take of the exhilarated emotion and raise up their own fiery life to a higher state of frequency. But that which has only ever been of the lunar and not the Solar, the blood life of the Christ."

(See the article on page 9, cols. 1 and 2)

Now News reaches us via an American Reader, who sends us an excerpt from "The Cincinnati Enquirer," which on August 11th 1965 published an article on the Fertility Drug, a warning against the use of which has been given this month in the Gazette on page 7.

In this American article, it said that one drug, pergenal, is extracted from the urine of older women in Italy, specifically the residents of convents who had come to the menopause. It commented that the drugs could help one in 10 barren women conceive, if they were willing to risk having twins, triplets or quintuplets.

How accurate Mrs. Spearman-Cook's statement was, for this plainly shows the fertility drug is but the hormone wealth of nuns, lost due to the failure of the Priests not calling down the Spirit once the nuns had become exhilarated.

If this is the source of these drugs then it is no wonder that only elemental and animal souls are entering into those children being born, as the nuns themselves are not being fed by the Spirit, but only receive from the priests the lunar light of earth. So it is that their hormone Seed, which is being used, has been only fructified by the lunar waters, and could not attract Spirit Souls awaiting rebirth.

This dynamic fact shows how terribly dangerous the whole edifice of priestal religion, especially catholicism, is to the riches of Woman. No wonder that The Great Eagle, the Lord of Scorpio spoke so strongly against any woman taking them, and how right the Pen of Gladys Spearman-Cook was guided to warn man of the evils of Papalism, that which is causing Womanhood to lose their Sacred Wealth into the pit of the lunar waters.

Due to her efforts and hers alone the SOLAR LAW has been born, and mankind have been saved extinction.

May this Year be her Year of Triumph and may Man at last turn to serve Her by raising Her back up to the Planes of the Sun, Her Rightful Home.

★—ANNOUNCEMENT—★

MANY readers have already foreseen the inevitable day when a price increase of the OCCULT GAZETTE would be announced, and indeed have suggested it. This day has at last arrived and with effect from SEPTEMBER 1965, the Anniversary Date of our 1st issue, 5 years ago in September 1960, the new prices and subscription rates will be as listed below. This increase is long overdue, for as all must have realised the basic cost to produce such quality, plate selection, besides the priceless magnificence of the Wisdom, has far exceeded the present prices. However to those few to whom this increase represents a too great burden, we will be most happy to lend a sympathetic ear, as always, especially to Old Age Pensioners.

Hence his idea of reaching the moon, was crashing against the sound barrier, and picking up vibratory form off the maelstrom, he declaring he had reached the heights. The sound barrier being the vibratory status that man could not touch, owing to its formless state, and holding no rate of vibration. That which a soul crosses over to, when they become etherealised by unification; a soul having discarded matter, and let go of the lower Kingdoms.

It is a state of inter-changing action of an abstract state, non-interpenetrable by matter, for it is a status of vibration of a more pure state than man, in his bestial state, could handle by matter. But when approached by frequency of understanding, the soul breaks through that barrier as the seventh into the eighth. Thus finding a greater intensity of unfolding heights by his etherealised mind.

Man the Alchemical Crucible

YET all is HERE and NOW, and when perceived by the intelligible comprehension of a mind, its secret has been mastered. Therefore the soul is vibrating on that current of comprehension, through that soul's vibration of belief. He has captured the Rhythm of the Spheres in his means of interpenetration; thus raised his own status of vibration and the Sine of Matter. He has spiralled up and created light, while his own mind, in vibratory frequency, has danced up free from matter. Vibration captured and brought to light as the Intelligencia of Cosmic Creation.

It is only when man can capture the Unseen and make it seen, that it no longer remains illusionary; but becomes a state of solid matter, because its vibrations have been captured. Thus given a state of form that makes it a state of mass.

That is why man believes that there are orbs and worlds up in the heavens, when really all is Space teeming with unknown LIFE, the glories of the heavens.

This can only be known to the Hierarchial Powers, for they are that Space as MIND, that of the Cosmic LIGHT that has taken on the redeeming Blood of the World. That created by man in the depths beneath, but in a status of reflection, and not in REALITY, as it now has become in its Arc of the unfolding FACE.

This is the Cosmos, the Central Sun, as a state of Reality, generated by that of Scorpio through the alchemicalised pot as man. The unfolding atomic wealth of man held in the darkness of his pit; while unknown to (See the plate on page 17, col. 1) himself, the positive glory of its beauty is created by him in his searching in the waters, by unifying his depths with his heights, and spiralling his mind up as light.

Man is the created form from the Cosmic riddle; the POT that holds all the Elements massed into form through its alchemicalisation in density. The Elements fusing (See the plate in cols. 4 and 5) in the womb of the human earth and escaping as spiritus gas to the heights, which gives him a status of depth. Then the Begotten, as the Son or the Spirit, as the revolutionary status of Causation, becoming the mind of the soul, the intelligencia as the Elements or Blood Life fusing in the depths. This being the atomic life in the seed giving of comprehensive action, that which by a continual status of mind or self-survival, becomes a living creation, a status of human manhood.

on a sensory state of vibration, that of feeling, density of mass; while the heights have become of LIGHT. A sub-conscious state of reality; while the depths as a conscious state by labouring to survive, gives life to the heights. That now being freed from matter, and becoming the glory as Reality; that of the pure Energy, the Hydrogen Waters of the heights which the depths could not assume, now by struggle, becoming light in the heights.

Thus man, in becoming a slave to touch, took on of sensory vibration, that of feeling, the density of mass as his conscious realisation, while his heights became that of LIGHT, the arc of auric manifestation. That which gyroscoped up into freedom, a sub-conscious state of reality.

Therefore as below so above, with what takes on life in the depth, taking on light in the heights of the mind, by a

THE FACE OF THE INTELLIGENCIA

MAN is the weaver of the Elements of the Hierarchies, the Cosmic Rays, and he raises them up by frequency of mind movement, unifying them by creating new understanding. "This would be the Intelligencia, the FACE or Christos as the inflowing BLOOD LIFE of the residing Age." (See text on this page, col. 4).

Yet not an earth product, but a creation from the heights as the atomic Powers, becoming a conscious state in the depths by spiralling up in mind light through a state of survival. Yet the very nucleus of LIFE, the intensity of Being, given life by spiralling up in the depths. That which by slowly adopting the inner nucleus of the Unseen Creator, the atomic depth within the Seed, manifests His Cause in the depths. Hence depths as a conscious state, through labouring to survive, gives life to the heights, that being freed from matter, by adopting an upward Spiral of Reality, to even becoming His Voice in the depths.

Becoming of the glory as Reality, the pure Energy, which the depths could not assume, but only create and bring into birth as mind, from the labour of weaving.

Weaving the Pure Elements

BUT man has become a slave to touch, and taken spiralling motion of continual revolution of comprehension. But which can only be obtained by the soul dropping ballast overboard, which by comprehension he disposes. Turning it in by the mortuary meal of awareness, giving the conscious mind the power to rise. That which in turn becomes the Cosmic rise, as the soul fulfilling the Arc of the LAW, the Sine of unfolding light. Man weaving the pure Elements into light, and setting his own limit of restrictions.

For the Stream now brought to the Earth by the Scapegoat is the pure Elements of Cosmic Rays straight from the Scorpii Constellation in the Central Sun.*1

(See the plate on page 13, cols. 3 and 4)

But it must be recognised that three souls could be in one room, all receiving the inflowing Elements, but each would deduct by his created mind, according to his freedom from matter. One would hear the inner Voice of the living

THE EVER-MOVING SPIRIT

THE Alchemicalisation symbolised as the camels is the spirit as the Solar Light moving constantly through the blood as the soul draws down into his mind the Power from the Central Spiritual Sun. Ever fed by the Spirit and raising up that received back up to its source as the Light of Mind Comprehension gained. (See text on this page, col. 2).

evolutionary Brahmic depths of Causation, that of BEING brought into Life; while another would only hear the beast who was disturbed by the inflow, crying out for fodder. The third would look on stupefied, perceiving all by mass deduction of figures. Each man according to his mind creation and perception, by discarding form of desire, would find freedom of expression. Yet all receiving the same force of life, and all seeing through the focus of HERE and NOW, which brings a status of mind and earth unfoldment, both Cosmic and anthropological.

One had awakened, another still a slave to sensation; while the third was encased in an artificial state of self-importance in the depth of form. Completely enmeshed in text book theories, that raised up by the blind and credulous. (See the plate on page 16, col. 5)

Vibration is a status of movement, whereby currents of non-form are received and currents conveyed. One taking on interactionary changes, causing a slowing up state, and an involving into the human status. While the latter is a form of light sent forth from the soul in the density of the waters. That absorbed by the involving of the breath that becomes alchemicalised, and awakening in the awakened soul as that of mind realisation. The breath a state of revolving Causes, unfolding to the soul, a need for continued causation. Therefore sets up a stir within the mind, that in turn sends forth of LIGHT as to what perceived, would relieve the stagnancy of congestion in that unfolding state of causation.

This then would spiral upwards, being as a finer vibration of thought, sent forth by the human ejector of aspiration, through his mind belief. Thereby would supplement the Arc or Sine by his new mind thought, that was only raised up so far, through man's solidified ideas in matter.

This would be the Intelligencia, the FACE or Christos as the inflowing BLOOD LIFE of the residing age. That which man recognises by the growing status in his own mind growth. (See the plate in cols. 2 and 3)

"IT" having moved his vibration of perception, by what was growing and appearing in his own status of outlook. Man clearing the darkness from his vision and bringing daylight to bear upon that perceived inflow of Life.

The Hierarchial Life

THIS is the Cosmic creation being built up between heaven and earth by man, and the inflowing Source of new life. The Hierarchial Life that governs and controls man, by ever reforming with new life perception, that which the latter creates in matter as an ever evolving and unfolding status of growth.

*1 Readers are requested to re-read the article on the back page of September 1964 called "Scientists prove truth of Scorpio Powers," which sets out how Mrs. Spearman-Cook since May 1959 has been drawing down the Powers from Scorpio until they had built themselves into a Giant Horseshoe Starbelt as announced by Professor Shlovsky in August 1964. The centre of the gigantic Starbelt, a Vast source of Cosmic Rays, is positioned straight in line with the centre of the whole Galaxy, the Central SUN.

But when a Scapegoat takes on of this task, they become the raiser up of the ARC by a continual status of unfolding new thought. This was the LAW enacted by Noah, but which ever remained open to man confusing the issue. Yet that which became reformed by that Cosmic Government, when Merope perceived the difficulty of that inception. Thereby rose the Arc up by a new status of Channelled inception.

This began the new growth of rise which she continued to drive in that Channel of channelled inbirth. She being the instigator back and forth of what was received and returned, to ever raising up the Arc to its full limits for the Solar Age. Thus she became the continual changer of the Law in the Cosmos, which could only be of TRUTH as Law and order, for she had to wear and carry that which she ordained. She became the grinder in of the corn, that she would be forced to eat; thus took away the gate and made strait the Way for every soul to pursue. Hence prevented chaos and confusion which had prevailed up to this day by and through religious order.

(See the plate on page 4, cols. 2 and 3)

But now she not only prevented a rebirth of Babel, but stepped onto the Wheel of the LAW, until she changed the whole status of Law for the Age of the Waterman.

The Arc raised up to its fullest degree, with the whole of the upper Cosmos feeding the LAW into the lower Law, via the unfolding Scapegoat. A status of vicarious atonement, which the unfolder of the LAW has to take on. This came into birth by her gathering the Powers of the Configuration in the Second Embodiment, and by perceiving its message became the enactor by a decree of RIGHT.

(See the account of this in January 1962 copies of which are still available)

She had gathered up, by her prowess of mind, the highest perceptory truth of the inflowing Source of New Life from the Blackness of Space. The Divine Effulgence conveying the Panacea to the Children of LIFE. Thus she became the envoy for the future rebirth, by a matter of vibratory attraction, until she created the Channel by her perception of necessity.

Thus gave those Cosmic Powers continual ingress into Matter, by her as the Scapegoat, being a continual state of change, earthing greater and greater Cosmic Powers through her physical and etheric alchemicalisation. This brought greater Cosmic Rays to the Earth by her ever earthing the atomic wealth in the Seed of the inflowing Scorpii Generative Force. This she did by her intercalary spinal action of sensory source of reception, ever raising it up higher and higher by her unfolding state of realisation. Until as her mind nourishment, by the dance of le Ros,*2 she knew that her hormone growth, received from the atomic seed in these Waters, was her ever unfolding mind light.

That which must be honoured, revered and cherished, that as Spiritus air her mind would ever grow, and never fail to reveal the continual wealth in the Pleroma flowing to the earth. The message of the Heights to man in the depths; thus man ever being guided by the Higher Powers through the atomic Seed, born as his hormone growth from the inflowing prism of the Vibratory Cosmic Forces, through the Generative agency of the Scorpii Constellation.

The Twelve Elements

THE twelve Elements as Celestial signs are the Central Sun, which comes down to man as the ruach, breath. Which man sends back via alchemicalisation, as light of comprehension, becoming the Arc of the Sine, that becomes as the Spirit, the Intelligencia of the World; the Whale of the Waters. That which Jonah fell into for three days, and was cast up onto dry land when he perceived of the wisdom. Then he sends up as aspiration, draws down again as spirit and blends with his luna waters, his emotional states awaiting rebirth, which in turn raises up his own arc as the Soma Psyche Pneuma. His spirit body of etheric creation found in his homogeneous or liquor sanguinis, and his glandular system.

This man creates by building up the twelve elements within himself, that of the central sun within as the radiance of the spirit. All encompassed in his homogeneous, and becomes the radiance of his Auric arc, when the blood as the liquor sanguinis, as the wine of life, is revolving as the Vesica Piscis.

(See the plate in col. 4)

Therefore the Celestial inflow and man's mind growth from the Central Sun, are the twelve polarities of magnetic influence as the 144,000 to be obtained. The 12x12 through three worlds of Water, Air and Fire—emotional, mind and electrical—as the 24 Blackbirds baked in the human pie, that become the diamond in the king's crown. Man's radiating pomegranate or mind. But also the Cosmic rebirth as the New Christos Face, hence Scorpio raised up, becoming the flying Eagle, the Great Lord of the Golden Flame. No longer a dead god on a cross, but a living emblem of Golden TRUTH.

*2 Le Ros is the name given to the raising of the generative fires up the spinal column, through the 7 cervical vertebrae, over the infundibulum onto the pituitary, thereby feeding it with the power to awaken as the Flame Light of the Mind. Once this can be accomplished the Flame can draw down the Cosmic Waters of Neptune via the Pineal and create within the Solar Orb of pure MIND. (See the articles in June and July called the Temple of Ra).

These twelve signs are infused into the soul via the seven elements of the Solar prism, which become man's seven sensory states of unfolding, his unfolding state of continuity.

Mars as
Will and fire

Venus
Desire and agitation

Mercury
Mind as reborn awareness

Saturn
Discrimination and the scythe

Jupiter
Expansion and unfoldment

Uranus

Neptune
Waters of rebirth.

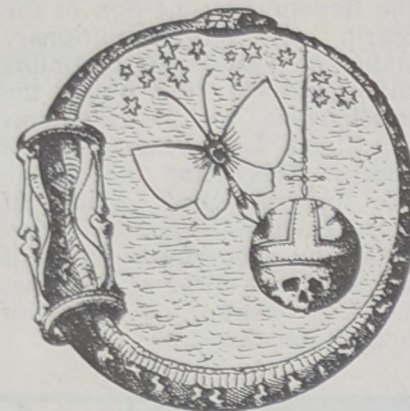

All seven to raise Pluto up out of the depths, and reveal a new face as the Godhead of new conception within the soul's own mind as the unification. That which raises the soul up out of the earthy state of religious cramp, to recognise the unfolding world of New LIFE. The fourth Dimensional state, that he as man, is being born into, and which through religion he was forbidden to see.

The Scapegoat

FOR with religion monopolising by a status of old antiquated beliefs, and crippling the mind of man, a new World FACE could not get born in their minds, for its leader was looking downwards into cold dead stone. Setting up commissions in a dead latin language, never seeking of the truth, or the higher wisdom. They had forgotten such existed, so the Hierarchical Lords took over the religious status through a simple woman, and gave unto man new life, by making her FOUNT*3 and MOUTH the circling status of Their VOICE.

THE VESICA PISCIS

ONCE man can become his own source of Light and Perpetuation, by upraising and feeding his mind with his generative fires, so he will be able to draw down the 12 Hierarchical Elements and unify them as his own central Sun, microcosm unto Macrocosm. Thus the Serpent Powers ever revolve with Life and master Time releasing the Spirit out of the bonds of religion. (See text in col. 1).

Her Fount both originally and now, is her mind, the Void of her radiating arc. So once again man was disturbed at the doctrine announced, but TRUTH is always, whether man likes it or not. For daily as the earth revolves, the Sun which is the radiating Intelligencia, bathes all men and the Earth with its light as the New LAW, that of the raised up Arc. Hence the depths and glory of the sunshine, that has been bathing the earth for some months now; but with volcanoes and eruptions coming forth violently in the land of the south.

All would be dark as night if this Arc had not been raised up, for all through the Ages Scapegoats have laboured and suffered to raise this Arc, and received the same pounding and onslaught as Merope. But through experience over those Ages, the Hierarchical Powers perceived a way of preventing disaster, whether by man using the old methods of excommunication or burning at the stake.

So raised up the vibrations of this Scapegoat to such a degree, that no man could touch her, or tamper with the ARC. But he would ever be watered day after day by the inflowing Elements, causing each soul to be inborn with the new wisdom, so as to break up the foundation of the old.

*3 The Fount was the first beginning of the Baptismal Waters, that gave to man his first seed of manhood. But it ever remained with woman as her seed down in the very depths. Hence it is the Seed base of all human life as soul received of the Fire Element for the first time. This must be retrieved and raised back up to become as the Light of the Void.

Yet this is not new wisdom, but the old made new through unification with the passage of light at 186,000 miles per second, and not a million light years away. But the rate of vibratory thought of a sensitised human receiver right HERE and NOW, breaking through that 186,000 into that 1,000,000 by them being elevated and inoculated by the Fires, that even Darius and Daniel would have been amazed, as she assumed the EL Waters. Thus passed through the Fiery Furnace as decreed by Darius at the time. Then passed the 16th Initiation and became the occupant of both sides of the Waters.

Therefore became the Voice at the SOUND BARRIER as the Watcher on the Threshold, looking into the Blackness of Space capturing the Rhythm of the Spheres as the Golden Dragon of Neptune. But also dancing up and down having complete freedom of Space.

(See plate on page 5, cols. 4 & 5)

So she stands on one side by her vibration, and man on the other side, becoming the Channel for him to receive his new inbirth of life. But all coming down when man via the Solar Prism as infused Breath, and him being watered by its daily inbirth.

So wise the man who seeks of wisdom, that as the mind changes take place, he raises his mind by status of understanding, and lifts up his own planes. Casts overboard states that he knows he no longer requires, and takes on of the new dawning wisdom. For from August the month of the ripened corn, will he begin to gather in of his harvest and find a mind risen up with wisdom, or risen up and blank by rebellious refusal.

It was the only way that the Hierarchical Powers could give rebirth to man and his mind. Thereby raise man up to his royal status as the son of the All Highest. When he awakens—as he will do by what has been achieved for him—he will with the Grace now being endowed upon him, thank the Unseen God for taking him by the hand and leading him through the mystical Waters, showing him the way to become. For this is the Age of Relativity, when all past and present must be unified, with man crying out for the appearance of the Second Advent, and the pope running wild.

But the great mystery lies in the secret of the rebirth of the Cycles, the Higher Powers training a Scapegoat to wield the mystery of the LAWS. Thereby able to enter down into the depths of matter, through her raised up mind

THE UNITY OF THE FOUNT AND CENTRAL SUN

ONE Woman had the Faith and belief that if she raised up her Seed, the Generative Fire channelled up the Spine to feed the Meninges, the dance of Le Ros, so would she be able to raise up her frequency of mind unto the same frequency of the Central Sun, the United Powers of the Cosmic RAYS. Her very Faith and intensity of belief gave her the power to build again (by the inter-action of pineal and pituitary) the Void, her radiating Arc of Mind, the powers of her Fount united unto the Solar Effulgence. (See the Editorial on page 2, the text on page 4, col. 4, page 11, col. 1, page 13, col. 1 and page 17, col. 2).

frequency. So as Merope was trained by them, and fired to receive the Hydrogen Waters, they were able to unify with her frequency, and manifest through her unified Fount and Mouth. Thus enter "down" and become her mind, with the Lord of the Flame entering into her flame and manifesting as her VOICE, the rebirth of that Golden Dragon.

This was a matter of will and mind that she resolved and handed to him, that he could direct through her living hub. For unless she so willed it, he could not manifest therein, for only by such could unity take place. Her frequency of thought and belief, being the computer and director for the action of the Lord of the Heights, which alone would prove its integrity, by the weight it carried in reality.

Judge her by her works ever having been the advice of the VOICE through her.

Thus the "Lord speaking through a Priest" as promised by the old religion, but not through commissions as it now has resorted to, and declaring that "No new word must be entertained." It is all a matter of frequency of vibration, raised up to manifest the Lord in the flesh; the soul being prepared to renounce of states of earth, that they can be an intermediary between MAN as the raised up Cosmos, and the people.

The Book of Oaths

THIS is the mystery of EVE redeemed as she purifies herself by her suffering; the LOVES as the original Motherhood or Matriarchate Race, raised up to their intended rebirth. Thereby giving birth to the FATHERHOOD as the VOICE, as the Lord speaking through the Priest.

For why does Catholicism declare this as their AIM and in the "Challenge 65"*4 and then resort to commissions? Groups of old men antiquated and dead, sitting jabbering in a dead language. Why are they not bringing WISDOM to the Race, with the pope solving its problems as promised.

Thereby him bringing the new FACE of the Macroprosopus instead of kissing a dead cold stone, of a Christ that never existed only as a dead God upon a cross.

Thus be the rebirth of the Age as "The Christ as the in-birth of the Solar Blood, riding into Jerusalem" the wealth of the mind. (Mar. 12 v. 11). Which would result in them casting out the old ideas as "the money changers and of them that sold doves" (Verse 15), the money racket that is killing the heavenly wisdom.

For where is the Embodiment that Roman Catholicism declare they have taken in the Age where NO first magnitude Star*5 appeared???? When in the Second Advent, which was captured by a woman, who brought the Scorpii Constellation*6 into birth manifesting in the Central Sun. Bringing down to Earth—as the "Woman clothed with the sun and the moon under her feet, and upon her head a crown of twelve stars" (Rev. 12)—

The Voice of the Lord, as her marriage with the LAMB (Rev. 19). The raised up Scorpio Constellation as the raised up Eagle, that of the Lord of the Flame.

The BOOK OF OATHS, that held sacred by the Law of the people, that as the New Testament is the witness to the Aquarian Age. That which was to take place in the Second Advent, when the first Embodiment into the Desire Body of the World, prepared the way for the manifestation through the soul itself. If it is good enough for the BOOK OF OATHS and held sacred as the Law, then it must be the way for the LAW to appear, by the one who can capture its message.

But here we come to the prophesy of Mar. 12 v. 18,

"And the priests sought to destroy her, because the people were astonished at her doctrine."

As heard as the "bird-like-mind" that manifested at the Earl's Court Exhibition, that which amazed and confused them. A boy of 21 speaking with wisdom, and a man of Law expounding the LAW of the Spirit.

But it cannot be done like this for it does not work, as you must have found out by now, for the Gazette has come forth again and again, even though it WAS CONDEMNED BY THE POPE as being NEW TRENDS OF THOUGHT.

This way is black magic, IF man now knew the way to work it; but perhaps the cunning has been lost, with the TRUE way of bringing new Wisdom from the LORD as the Voice of the SPIRIT, speaking to the people. For how can this manifest as promised by Catholicism, when its leader says, "No new doctrines, we only listen to the old repetition that has strangled the life of the people.

raise up the wealth of those that will listen. Others will strip and wait until they awaken, then seek of the way to step forth, while old ways will be dissolved and buried in, to become the humus to the way of the new.

For the LORD of the Arc as the Intelligencia, the Mystery manifesting on the other side of the Sound Barrier as the LORD of the FLAME, IS the VOICE calling the people to awaken. Coming down to Earth in the Cosmic Rays as the fiery Truth of vibration, and manifesting in the fire of the hormone wealth of the soul, thus every soul becoming changed in their vibratory outlook.. But to bring it to brilliant mind light, it needs that to be raised up as Spiritus Air, and become the frequency of the mind, as the pure life

WATCHER ON THE THRESHOLD

ONCE a person can raise up the frequency of mind until it surpasses the speed of light (186,000 miles per second) and so raises her speed of thought that all the Heavens are HERE and NOW (not so many light years away), then such an instrument can become the CUP of the whole Heavens and be the recipient of beams of power as the registering POINT of LIGHT of not only the Heavens but the Earth. She becomes... the Voice at the Sound Barrier as the Watcher on the Threshold, looking into the Blackness of Space capturing the Rhythm of the Spheres as the Golden dragon of Neptune, ...having the complete freedom of Space. (See text on page 4, col. 5, page 13, col. 4 and page 15, col. 3).

(See the plate on page 4, cols. 2 and 3)

When man has been promised

"The river and the tree of life, that will yield twelve manner of fruit every month, with leaves of healing for the Nation." (Rev. 22).

If this is not true, then WHY use it for oath in our Courts of Justice???

The Voice of the Lord

GOD has spoken, but as usual through a simple Channel, bringing wisdom to the world; but that which is so busy with its earthy desires, as not to hear the Voice that could lead them. The VOICE manifesting at the SOUND BARRIER, not bashing it to pieces with a built up missile that could not even register the crowing of the cock.

So a drastic WAY was devised, bringing FIRE down from the heavens, that has set all the scientists agog. That which now is going to cleanse the Earth and the people, and Energy of the soul.

Not the bestial desire of man as the seven vials, but the Seven Seals broken open revealing the seven Candlesticks as the Flame of the mind. The seven churches as the seven Chakras of the spine becoming sensitised, and revealing the ancient wealth of TIME in its relativity. Not as old wisdom, but the old made NEW, thereby Spirit and earth rejoicing, with Joseph the Yod as the Phallus of the mind with its coat of many colours, raised up from the pit and becoming John as the Iesus, the master of LIFE.

Hence the LORD manifesting through every soul who can raise up the Flame of the mind, raising the frequency by the incoming FIRE becoming their hormone wealth. So man rise up out of your slavery, for the Intelligencia as the Arc is now risen. Thus Excelsior en Gloriam Infinitum as the Plutonic plane of Divine Unfoldment.

Hallelujah in the Highest.

*5 The Piscean Age Established no 1st magnitude star in any of the Piscean Constellations.

*6 In September 1964 a special article was published which set out in detail the Establishment of the Scorpio Cosmic Rays that are now descending as the "Deluge by Fire."

THE LUNA

as the WEALTH of the MAGNETIC DEPTHS

This lecture was given by Gladys I. Spearman-Cook on the 2nd and 3rd June 1965, under the direction and control of the Lord Maitreya, the Lord of the Flame; it is the second part of the article published in July 1965.

IN the first part of this article emphasis was laid on the importance of man returning back unto the Heights the Cosmic Powers, the gods, that are imprisoned within him, and it was explained how this is achieved by raising up his mind frequency unto the Heights, with him being dissolved into radiating light. By doing this the soul himself becomes reborn and expanded through his mind struggle, for in acting thus in service unto the heights, he becomes himself raised up greater, than the gods, unto the plane of the Intelligencia. It then continues . . .

Auric Seminalis

THIS aim is the desire of even the gods who are awaiting suitable instruments; therefore every soul can become a god-born creature, if they will only prepare their auric seminalis, fitted to receive the Presence. Hence god and soul becoming raised up onto a glorified plane of golden light. Therefore, when the Earth is fully charged with the Stream's waters, and with the wisdom now born into the Stream and penetrating every soul, will the Earth become raised up towards its greater purpose. Drawing closer in mind perception to that Seventh Plane, that which is the outer circumference of Millo, the fulness of the promised Age.

There is great and untold wealth, in all the particles of the earth, for in the salts alone will be found the atomic structure, capable of driving all the powers in a clock-wise motion. So if man can redeem his powers, he can revolve the earth with his kundalini force from North to South. Because he will have captured the power of levitation, freeing himself from gravity. For by reversing the law of gravitation from North to South within himself, in his intercalary action, will all ever be spinning and revolving closing up the planes. The change of the directional pull of the earth will be done by mind thought.

The majority of souls have their mind going round and round; hence man who is the creator, has caused the Cosmos to revolve likewise. If he changes, he can be the means of the continual action of differentiation and ascension. Where spirit will ride up and down in service unto the Abyss; bringing the mind and spirit unfoldment, as intended in the beginning. By changing the inner core of the etheric earth from solar to the Central SUN by his raised up mind belief; man in one direction from North to South, and the outer core in the other direction, East to West, hence the gyroscopic action of neutron and proton working in the circle of Willis and the fontanelle, having effect upon matter.

Thereby the frozen north will give up its secrets, for the world will right itself by blending N. S. E. and W., and sharing the cold waters of creation. Bringing rain, frost, snow and heat, also chlorophyll to every part of man's kingdom. No more call for destitute nations, for East and West will become equal in status. And, as already stated, the united universal climatic changes, that are now beginning to take place.

Hence no longer will man be cut off from those planes, but accessible by mind comprehension; that, when gained by assumption, will give them right of entry, as a cell component. This is the depth of

"Being of the Father, and the Father in the depths of the soul."

That which blossoms forth the son as mind light, when the soul becomes awakened. Hence would, by the Law of Attraction, draw unto the allotted plane, as the wealth of the starry heights. Space alive with unseen Powers, which merely appear as vibrations; they that have their reflection on the mirror wall of the Stratosphere. For this is the Wall of Mirrors, as the upper planes of Millo, that which man has been so ruthfully devastating in the missile warfare. Thinking they were landing on another planet of tangible earth substance; why the fact of vibration alone, should prove to them of their blunder.

This is where the Waters will open up a wider field of comprehension in this direction, that will cause them to abandon their plans, and seek in other fields to exercise their talents.

THE RADIANT AURA

ONCE the soul comprehends and gains the crown by his raised up mind, "uniting with his 'wife' on a higher plane of mind generation," then there is given off its Aura of Mind Radiance, the Light that flows when the soul builds the vase to hold the Wine of the Spirit, The new Ethereal Race. (See text in col. 3).

Wealth of Tartaros

ATOMICISATION is going to completely alter the course of human life, and the whole Universe at large; bringing the whole of the wealth of TIME into a world of Gold. So our task in this treatise is to find the wealth buried in the mud of Tartaros, the lost plane now fully retrieved. The wealth buried by the Elements and tribes of past ages, will be found in the earth and rocks, as minerals of different categories. But the greater is in the influence and vibrations, buried as flammable material, that, when it gathers too much velocity, bursts forth in volcanic eruption. So it must be captured before it fires itself into a destructive fury.

This does not necessarily necessitate the investigation of every underworld cavern, but man, by his raised up mind, uniting with his "wife" on a higher plane of mind generation. The comprehension of every soul, seeking into the

So naturally the wealth of Tartaros must be looked into, (12th house planetary positions) as it holds the creme of all being. The curse of syndicate monopoly controlled by groups of control, will be completely dissolved, with all being under government control, where price and distribution will be for the good of the Nation, and not bargained for by man's monetary gain. Status and power by degree will also go into liquidation, for man will must be captured and transmuted. It is these that man ever raises up in his phenomenal seances; so by that alone they have untold wealth and power to hand unto the Mystic. His task is to seek of the higher planes, where wisdom can be handed to him.

(See plate in cols. 3 and 4)

The elemental have only emulated the human, but are without soul growth; these being the genii that Egypt raised up, and obtained their phenomenal strength. When absorbed by man, would give him the power of divining, that of the mineral wealth. For such as water diviners and mine detectors would come into this category of growth; where such was used for lower states, would now become as human mind wealth, as the lower states were dissolved. For everything will now be of a higher category, with all lower states no longer in existence.

For as the earth becomes unfolded by man's mind growth, will all these states be dissolved, and become a part of the radiational glow. With man capturing the power of divining as a greater perceptory unfoldment towards the higher purpose. So the wealth of the mountain peak will be of the soul's greater understanding, where great mysteries of sacred beliefs have held the peasants of many a valley, spellbound in awe.

For here is where many a god has descended down, by the belief of the peasants below; but where there was no virgin fitted to be able to give him birth. So he made his descent onto the top of the peak, and sent wealth out into the world. But when this Instrument laboured and fitted herself and the God was able to enter. Such a God descended onto Mount Everest, hence their eagerness to conquer it. But none there was fitted to house the God; so he had to wait, until he could descend at West Water,*3 where one would perceive and recognise him, and labour to bring him into birth.

Merope's Struggles

BY this you can see the difficulties We have in trying to get down into matter, that We can aid and lead mankind. For the planes are starving and only receiving the evils of the scientist's minds; with the medical world now adding unto. So every effort was made to master the difficulties of matter as she struggled to perceive the changed world. So charge after charge of power was sent down, to force her alchemicalisation; that was the difficulty, the complete change of outlook, that demanded the new type of perceptory vision.*4 Where not only was A to Z unified together, but their

*3 This refers to a journey that was made by Mrs. Spearman-Cook in 1962 to awaken the rich magnetic powers there situated, and to receive the descent of the God, the Lord of Scorpio into her being.

*4 This refers to the immense struggle that Mrs. Spearman-Cook had, to become fitted to receive of the God Powers within her. She had to go through initiation after initiation in order to make herself capable of receiving the Descent of the FIRE STREAM. Thus in this way she blended and unified herself to unite once again with Merope, that Spirit Being she had been, prior to her fall into the density of matter.

THE ELEMENTAL POWERS

THE vast storehouse of untold wealth lies within the earth elemental world, and man must seek such and raise it forth, transmuting it onto planes of Mind Powers. (See text in col. 5).

greater purpose; then that wealth would automatically be drawn up, by it giving off a radiational Aura. It being turned into its greater wealth by the plane assumption.

(See plate in col. 2)

Here verifies the continual statement made, of how the earth will fertilise itself and bring forth phenomenal growth. That when absorbed by the soul as fruit and vegetable growth, would be of remarkable health and vitamin qualities; that which would help the soul, in its etherealised growth.

Hence no longer dung fertilisation, that which has been the means of vermin growth; but they having been dissolved in, owing to their lower Kingdom of birth. This holds of unseen promises that to man at the present would clash with their theory of stock Exchange bargaining; that which will eventually be abandoned.

For such things will never come into the new world of creation; there all is for the good of each other, where man's sole purpose will be of what he can accomplish, not in what he can gain. A world of accomplishments by true scientific growth, where the power of UNIFICATION will be the method of unfoldment; the world of Solar growth to become of the Central Sun.

only get into position by his prowess to accomplish the task. For man's mind will have been so raised up, as to look into greater directions for his laurels. Mind will now be his purpose, and the raising up of his wealth that he can become god-born, as a soul finding the answer to the atomic growth.

For just this means of explanation alone, opens up the trend of the future unfoldment; truly a world of greater purpose, and that of a god-born manifestation. So naturally Tartaros as well as mountain peak, must be investigated from a psychological angle; for it is the wealth within the soul we are seeking to bring forth, that these have comparison with. For man by his creation over the Ages, was the means of establishing these states; therefore only he can by mind and unification, bring in of wealth as they become dissolved in.

The wealth of Tartaros is in the elemental growth, which man knows very little about; but which plays a very big part in his life's daily toil. These have no soul growth and have many states of adherence; some to plants, some to the inner rocks, and many others of a mischievous nature. Hence their wealth must be captured, for they have gained their expression from the evolving human status; and although theirs is a rude state of creational life, its wealth

THE GREAT EAGLE'S THE FERTILITY DRUG MENACE

I HAVE repeatedly warned Mankind of the follies of drugs, as they do great damage to the Etheric body. Nature must not be tampered with in this fashion otherwise disaster will come to those who partake. Some years ago there was abundant evidence in the case of Thalidomide children, and last month the Gazette published at our command the picture and circumstances of the Frog Baby. Now there is a fertility drug! Let every Reader beware of them otherwise their karma will be great indeed. Children born in consequence of such violation of the Laws will not possess any Etheric or Spiritual Body, nor will such come forth from the Heights. Such will all be animals being born through that soul. They are not Spirits from the Heights, they are animals: they are all elemental states from the lower planes of the earth.

If this was allowed to continue you would have the whole of the Race flooded with them, and the thalidomide child and the Frog baby would be nothing compared to what would eventually be brought into birth. It is this that We from the Cosmic Spheres are stopping and there will soon be changes brought into birth because of the EL Powers descending from these Spheres, Cosmic Rays entering the Earth's Atmosphere through the Special Channel our Instrument has built.

That there should be elemental states mere animal states, mindless, soulless and spiritless, born into the Human Race is a tragedy and should never have happened; it should never have come forth as a part of the Race. Man is Spirit he is not an animal state; he is Spirit, and should not take such perverted and dangerous essences. The consequences upon the woman who is so foolish to do this, is appalling as she will be responsible for such a freak birth.

Mankind has been repeatedly warned of the devastation such is causing to the Etheric growth. There is no need for this nor should man seek of the knife. There is an antidote to all ills within Nature, and it lies within Man's grasp to draw forth untold wealth from this Great Kingdom.

Tape Worm

Miss J. P., Texas, U.S.A.

Please place me in your Healing list. Health condition—for a long time have had one stubborn left-over Tape worm that doesn't want to come out. Had in long past time gone into severe fastings; once a drug and three spiritual healings,—but one worm still exists... also tried turpentine method,—but there is still one left and this calls for The Highest Spiritual treat. Any suggestions will be appreciated.

THIS is far more common than is generally believed, and is generally the result of unclean food, especially meat though it can be from a dog. There are two ways of curing them and the first, that is recommended, is to commence a fast, or take the minimum of fruit only, and at the same time take some Wormwood herb infusion two or three times in the day. In addition a special medical douche should be obtained, and some warm Wormwood should be used to flood the rectum and passages of the Colons and if possible the lower intestines. Particular care should be taken to watch the stools, to make certain that the head of the tape worm is ejected, for unless this is done it is very possible the worm keeps alive.

If this does not prove effective, then it were best if you take some male Fern Root. It is best taken during a fast and in pill form or capsule form. After they have been taken, it is advocated that a thorough clear-out is needed and if necessary even a dose of castor oil should be taken. Every effort should be made to rid oneself of such and a most careful watch should be made to make sure that all the tape worm is ejected. If Miss P. has no difficulty with her bowel movement then we would not advocate so drastic a cleansing as the Castor Oil would direct. Instead we would suggest that Miss P. uses Senna Leaves (T.V.) and takes them to give her a thorough cleansing. Though this may seem drastic these tape worms are very persistent and most harmful for the general health.

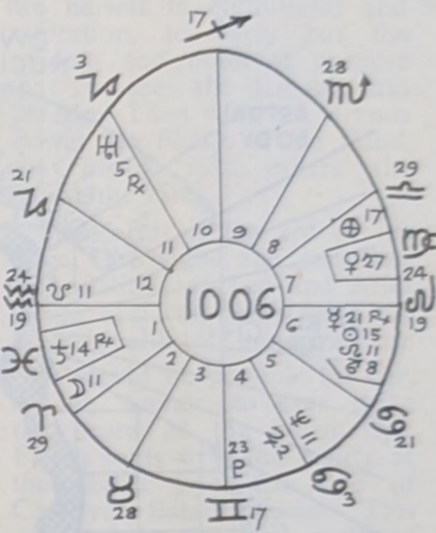

Physical Collapse into a Trance

Mr. S. C. of California, U.S.A.

I am a strange paradox. I am apparently in very good health and I am greatly in need of Healing. I am a church worker. In the past possibly seven years or so my problem is this. I collapse and seem to be out in a trance for about 20 mins. I do not have a dizzy spell. I do not feel nervous, or have headaches or pains... This would certainly be a Godsend or blessing to me to have this release.

CHART 1006 is Mr. S. C.'s birth chart, which immediately shows the cause of this so called collapse. This letter and illness demonstrates yet once again of the fact that all disease is the direct result of etheric inertia. In this case it has been brought about through false religious teachings, through erroneous knowledge as to how souls should draw down of the Spirit. As a result many have wasted their lives through not using the Powers of the Heavens, that they daily draw in through the breath, the wealth in their bloodstream and glandular Life.

This can be plainly seen by this chart. Saturn, the planet of inertia and false learning in the negative, and supreme balance and discrimination and truth, in the positive, is in the first house in Pisces. This latter sign has never had its wonders established and all that happened in the past Piscean age was that religion stole the stage, and flooded mankind with their evil ways, taking away from man the right of free investigation and self-responsibility.

Far from causing the soul to turn towards the Cosmic Powers and build the Solar Light himself, false priesthood stoned the soul into spiritual deadness spreading fear and immobility, preventing him acting himself. This soul no doubt thinks he has done all that he should have done, and will continue his "church working," little realising it is causing him to lose his past spiritual growth. Saturn is the immovable rock of old ideas that has to be broken open, with its wealth of "Time," the past life experiences, all of which reside within the bloodstream as the mind consciousness. It is thus that the present personality must labour to resurrect and raise up on to a greater understanding. This can be accomplished by raising the fires up the spinal canal as the dance of Le Ros, the spiralling Seed atom feeding the braincells and awakening them into life.

As a result of responding to religious ways and ideas, and becoming imprisoned by conventional orthodoxy, this soul is fast losing the opportunity of building up the wealth of the Cosmic Powers. Instead the activator has been the lunar ideas of the personality, the Moon in Aries, and not the Flame of Uranus in the house of the Spirit. Therefore sheer mental inertia and the constant repetition of old knowledge and ways of life, have caused the lunar waters and magnetic powers of his rock to turn on him and stone his mind literally; his frequency of mind movement becoming so low in lack of effort and thought stimulation, that now he becomes blanked out, an entranced state. There is an urgent necessity for mind activation and sheer guts and willpower to conquer this slow mental starvation and physical inertia.

If this soul values his Spirit future he must seek into this wisdom and above all fight in every way possible to regain some of the mind brilliance that could have been built. Rigid sacrifice of desires, and if possible on to a strict fruit diet, free from all animal and cooked foods whatsoever, will assist him. Strong herbs to "fire" him into life and movement will aid this supreme effort before his head sinks completely under the magnetic waters of earth stagnancy. He is advised to have GENTIAN ROOT, HORSETAIL and HOLY THISTLE as well as VALERIAN ROOT, VERVAIN and MISTLETOE.

Chronic Skin Disorder

Mrs. M. F. P. of Kansas, U.S.A.

Could I be placed on the Healing Book please? I have Chronic skin disorder. Dry blisters and peeling. Also I would like to receive Health advise. I have trouble with my hip or sacro-iliac, and am gaining weight... (P.S.) I feel so tired all the time.

YET once again there arises this "Quatermass" inertia that far from decreasing will rapidly increase over the coming years. Man has completely lost the realisation that he is a Cosmic instrument and one who should turn his heart and soul, 100% of his life, to responding and obeying the directions of the Hierarchical Elements. This soul in her past life through drive and determination, so raised up the frequency not only of her mind but her body also, that she was able to attune to the Solar Light and the Neptunian Waters.

In the 1st house in Cancer there are 4 planets Venus, Mercury, Neptune and the Sun, all of which have been blended into one Driving Energy Power. Once this has been so established to become 1st house powers, it means that the soul has established a "quoit" or fullness of planetary expression, and is ready to be a Pillar to feed others and be Their Channel. Thus in this life she must not go back upon herself, and live at a lower frequency than that of the past.

Cancer, is the sign of the great matriarchate birth, and those with Cancer, or 4th house powers, are those who are the mother 'roots,' and thus have untold wealth of SEED to give and feed mankind. That is what this lady should be doing

...and not asking the Gazette to solve her health problems.

She has built untold magnetic power which she, by continual mind movement and enquiry, should have raised in frequency until she was able to bring all this power into becoming electrified. Having established this once, automatically she becomes a channel for these Powers to descend through her. Unless she can use them and send them back up the Planes as a mind comprehension, then these Powers will suppurate, and incestuously grow as the sea of Sargasso, inter-breeding lunar and magnetic states, sucking all inwardly as a breeding infestation.

Directly this commences ill-health results as the whole of the tissue becomes under the water of self-desire and mental inertia. In this case the skin started to fester and breed fluidic blisters... sensitivity degenerating to becoming lunar stagnancy. Instead of sending forth powers outwardly feeding others, she becomes a vast suction centre, drawing any powers she can obtain from others.

My advice is for her to quickly raise up her Heart Intent and Will, for with Mars in Leo in the 2nd she should have had abundant energy to carry out this task. But did the Moon powers of the old Graeae prove too much for her and did she turn her eyes and heart to personal pleasure and living? If this took place she is now getting back the swing of the pendulum. She should start to honour what she should have honoured from the first commencement of womanhood, and seek to respond to the planetary and Cosmic Power by her own prayer and mind expansion, her own Priesthood. The more she does so and sacrifices the better. She has taken so much intellectual learning in the past that it has only led to mental confusion which has resulted in following wrong channels of activity.

The Moon rules Cancer, and is in the 6th house showing that this Cancer wealth must be moving by her as a cinderella until the full 12 God Powers could become alive, the fullness of the Cosmic Energy or Elements. Being in Sagittarius and Sagittarius ruling the hip and thigh, such would be a pointer to inversion and lunar stagnancy commencing. Now Mrs. P., with your hip commencing to suffer it shows you to what extent you have failed to honour your Promise unto the God Powers when you descended in this life. Even your increase in Weight is the swelling and retaining the fluid of the body due to inertia of mind enquiry.

A rapid change of attitude and diet as well as mind study and activity, coupled with some herbs to help drive you and fire your magnetic powers is urgently needed.

Change of your chronic skin disorder will be gradual. First it is important to get your mind and will moving and force yourself out of your inertia. You should take Holy Thistle and

THE SEVENFOLD CONSTITUTION

Part
2

LET us now take of the body. The exterior organisation of the human constitution or the body embraces those natures that respond to and communicate the outer world of thought, stimulus, impression and sensation, and links with Jupiter and Saturn together with Mars and the Path of Destiny.

The Subliminal Consciousness

THE MIND-NATURE deals with the Path of Destiny and Mars for actions and force determine the path of Destiny in each life. This is the innermost nature of the body which registers and transmits to the next outermost nature all that is transmitted from the soul; this nature is a complex and extremely interesting subject of study.

It is the nexus of all the potencies of the soul, the inner seat of consciousness and sensibility, in which all that is received from both the soul and the outer world, are externally registered and perpetually sealed. So it receives from the spirit and it receives from the outside; and the question is whether the outside stimuli is going to impress you or whether the spirit (which is then embracing a higher thought) is going to win through.

This nature has received many names by those who have sought to define it; for it is the subliminal consciousness of some, and has very generally been mistaken for the soul and even for the spirit. But the mind-nature, powerful though it is in its own sphere of activity, is but a subordinate part of the seven natures. It is the battery in which is polarised the manifold force of the Divine and cosmical elements; the mirror in which are reflected and indelibly impressed every spiritual, psychical, mental, physical and terrestrial matter that comes within the area of man's consciousness. So the more you are able to raise your mind-nature through the Word, the more you are able to strengthen it, and it is able to wrestle with outside elements and is able to embrace the spirit elements.

It is the strong-room in which is custodied and permanently retained every good or evil asset that has been assimilated, either from above by the soul or from below by the body. It has been described as the sub-conscious Self; while it is the repository of all that has been conscious, or that has moved the receptive organs of the soul and body, it is neither a moving agent, nor an originating faculty. And in very simple but inaccurate words, can be referred to as the incorporate self-will gained from mother-earth, life and lives: so it is what you have built up in all the lives as a mind-capacity.

What it receives it keeps, assimilates, and enlocks eternally in its vast recesses of memory, and repeats and reproduces at any time, when called upon. It is retained as mind-memory in the cerebellum at the back of the head. This is the source whence dreams arise, and visions and latent memories, and whence the few mortals, that have the power, may recover the lost memories of past incarnations and give you forth of the akashic records.

For it is the instrumental faculty of intuition, the reservoir of inspiration, the store-room of spiritual, intellectual and physical energy. The Destiny and Mars the negative nature of the Sun, hence the reason why the Sun is exalted in Aries ruled by Mars.

The Physical Consciousness

THE BODY-NATURE links with Jupiter, that of expansion, but also all accumulation of religious exaltations from the past. The body-nature is the blood-stream, the lymphatic system, whereby the protoplasm or ectoplasm is rotating.

This nature is the sensitive plate upon which are photographed the forms presented to it by the mind nature; it is the oscillating needle that registers the signs of communication received from the mind-nature, or the interior brain and from the brain-organisation of the terrestrial body; it transmits to the brain-organisation of the body—the organ of the physical consciousness—whatsoever the mind-nature has to convey thereto. What is of the mind, percolates or carries itself around the blood-stream and thus becomes that which of the pious, that which feeds the brain, gives the brain the understanding of something greater than itself.

When man receives of a blood transfusion, he is receiving of another soul's consciousness. If only a soul was kept quiet and given plenty of water, it would build its own blood capacity. The spirit would immediately come to fortify the soul by the very purity of the water it was taking. If man drank 8 to 10 pints of water a day, he would never suffer from depletion or sickness; but it would make him very sensitive. You could live on water providing you are drawing in the "spirit." But it would be no good doing this out of curiosity; it must be done for a purpose, otherwise the sensitivity obtained would drive you into rampant lower Neptunian states.

Were the brain-organisation,—organs of physical and mental consciousness,—less abnormally dense and obscured, the body—nature would communicate much more than it is now capable of doing. It is the ear-drum of the soul, the horn of the interior gramophone, the letter-press of the Book of Knowledge writ deep and eternally in the soul but speaking a language unknown by the world, and speaking in tones inaudible.

body, mind, soul, spirit; natural body, Spiritual body, Body Celestial and body terrestrial. These nomenclatures cannot be treated as tautological; they must mean different things.

The so-called monism of Science and dualism of Religion, though useful as experimental terminology, are not to be regarded as cast-iron ideas, confining the theory of human nature to a fixed state. The scientific meaning of the term monism is but a term to express certain scientific generalisations which, from the purely objective date at activity. But when you can change that body in its atoms on to a spiritual state, it will respond to the spirit and you will no longer be a victim of the outer urges. You will live in the world but not of the world.

The terrestrial body is an absolutely subordinate instrument to the soul and of the interior natures of the body. This is, of course, speaking of it in its normal capacity and condition, and not as it has become by reason of abnormal conditions. It is capable and has proved itself capable of the most fatally complete revolt from its subordinate status in man, and of the gravest perversion of its normal position in the relations of the seven Natures, (when it is abnormal).

It is the vehicle and executive of all that is actuated, devised, thought, and purposed in the interior man. It has normally no voice, no claim, no demands, and no authority, of its own. It is a purely vicarious instrument, an official of Divine government under the Spirit's control. Such it is by normal warrant; in so far as it is not so, it is arrogating to itself a false position in the constitution of man.

So much at present, concerning the terrestrial body. Each of these seven natures, and all their several parts, which correspond with the Seven Planetary Circles, and the Twelve Zodiacal Angles, or Constellatory Houses of the Cosmos, is the exact replica of one another. They may be likened to the familiar Chinese boxes that are packed in nests, one within the other, all of the same pattern.

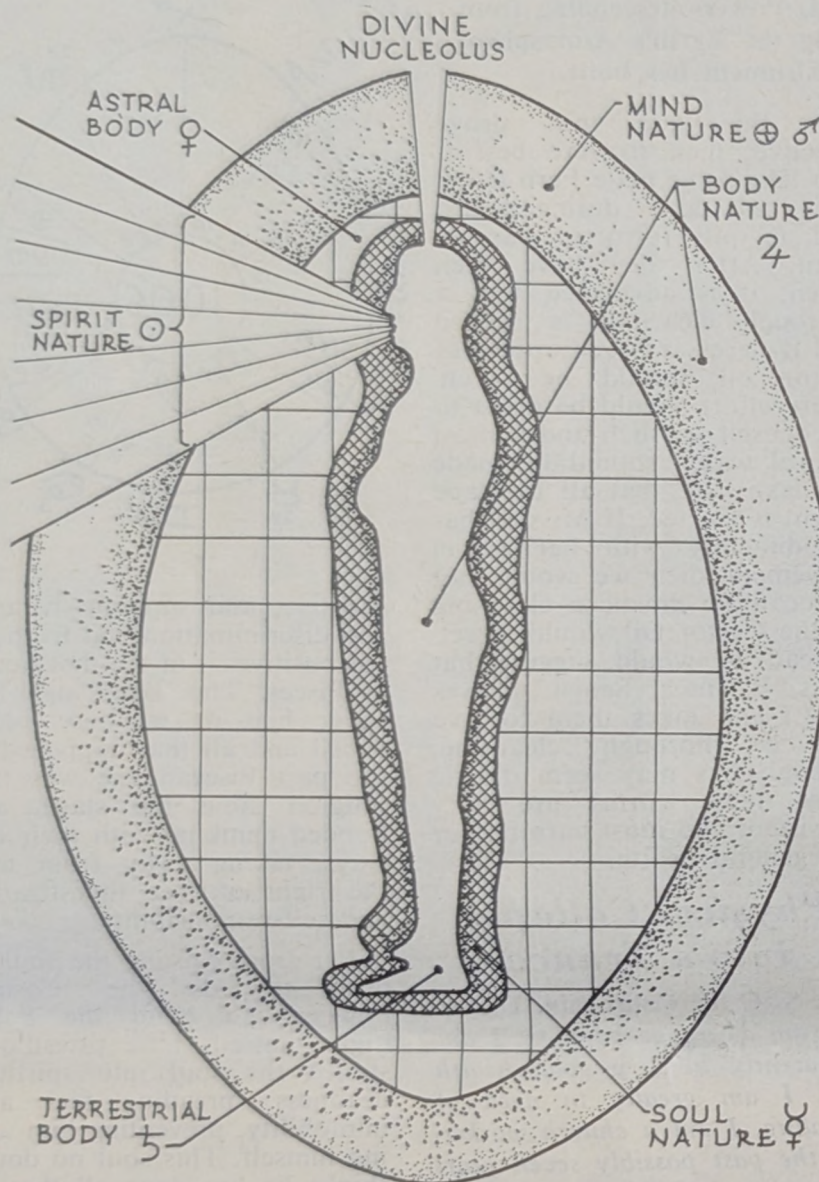

What comes down from the spirit, either percolates in all its beauty; or what comes in through the body and is accepted through the mind of the outer, goes forth and so delays the way of the spirit ever becoming manifest.

One nature is the image and likeness of the other, and the whole spirally-formed constitution is the image and likeness of the Cosmos, as the Cosmos is the image and likeness of God, the Centre of the Cosmos. All have precisely the same parts, organs, faculties, senses, proportions, and features, with which they correlate and function reciprocally. The Spirit being the microcosmic magnetic centre of attraction and repulsion, the heart impulse and beat by which all that constitutes the life, thought volition and action of the microcosm is generated and transmitted into the Sevenfold human System.

So it is the duty of the Higher Powers to deal with all these functions of man. They deal with these different organisms, just an organism, but as a body,—their work to bring into birth that particular body of the soul, or the organ of the soul. They are all the Hierarchical counterparts of the Wholeness or the Oneness; every one to function and bring forth what each organ holds within the soul as a potential.

Hence it cannot be too impressively enforced upon the student and initiate that the only true governing principles that regulate and actuate human life and energy, in all the parts of man's multiformity, is from within—THE KINGDOM OF GOD IS WITHIN YOU—and by no means is it

Concluded on Page 9

THIS plate is only a diagrammatic aid to understanding the bodies and not a literal presentation. Each in fact interpenetrate and intervibrate the other and all are within man's creation. It is noticed that body-nature is found in the bloodstream and lymphatic systems and also resides in the mind-nature of the soul.

As the mind registers of the spirit, so it registers of the mundane. If you brought your soul-nature to its higher degree, your terrestrial body to a higher degree, and then your body-nature to its higher degree, you would find you were able to extract out of that mind-nature what the spirit was saying to you, and not what the outside world was saying to you.

The body-nature registers to the brain the hieroglyphics of the Divine Logos, but of which there are few brains to read and interpret. Hence Jupiter being Zeus, the ancient God of Greece. To a Daniel they are an open book; to a Darius they are a sealed volume. Every man receives the same quota, every man breathes in the same radiance of spirit; but it is what he can extract from it.

The Material Consciousness

THE TERRESTRIAL BODY is linked with Saturn, and of all the previously mentioned natures of the human constitution, are all interior natures. Ignorantly, they are generally "LUMPED" together in one conglomeration and called the soul. This is done oblivious of the mention, in juxtaposition, in Scriptures, of such terms as present known to scientists, allow of other concepts to those whose experience has led them further afield in Psychology. And many eminent scientists are now rejecting the finality of a monistic conception of man's nature.

But I am showing that the constitution of man is sevenfold as well as dual; and in no case are the interior parts of man's manifold nature to be roughly classed as the soul. The mind-nature, the body-nature and terrestrial body are an aggregate in which these three natures are segregated, and are jointly termed the body.

The terrestrial body functions in the same office as the astral-body in the dual nature; it is the outermost and material sac, envelope or sheath; the functioning instrument of the two natures which it enclothes. It is that part of the sevenfold constitution that responds to the astral-body in the dual nature; it is the outermost and material sac, envelope or sheath; the functioning instrument of the two natures which it enclothes.

It is that part of the sevenfold constitution that responds to external and objective stimuli; and that executes all the stimuli, energy, impulses, inspirations and intuitions of the soul, in the outer world of sense, consciousness and

A MESSAGE TO MOTHERS

IN this column the writer has regularly warned Mothers and Fathers, of their great responsibility in training their children, and all the more importantly in allowing the Spiritual Wealth to come forward. Unless the parents awake to this Wisdom they will do much harm by interfering with the natural wisdom of the new soul they are privileged to aid.

The Dilemma of Twins

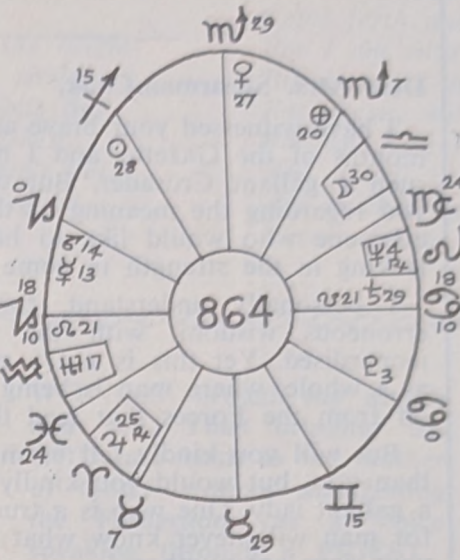

IN the next family to be considered Chart 864 is that of the mother of twin sons the eldest boy of whom is the holder of Chart 1015. The younger twin has 4 degrees more on the cusps, and has Venus and Uranus in the 11th, with Neptune in the 2nd, the last difference being that the Path of Destiny is in Capricorn.

The Mother writes

"It is J. (Chart 1015) I am worried about: he is a warm-hearted boy and sensitive and more adult than G. (his brother), but is troubled with a nervous asthma, and a polyp in his nose, which was cauterised, which did not do any good."

Once more it is to the Mother we seek and try to unravel a very difficult chart as the confusion that this soul has got herself into is remarkable. In the 1st house she has Uranus in its own sign, Aquarius. This gives unto her unusual mind powers, that which are capable of reaching in wavelength up to the Central Sun, for Uranus rules the pituitary and is the seat of the sparking Flame of the Spirit, the God powers of Fiery activity, the hormone life. As without the issuing forth of the pituitrin to feed and activate the rest of the glandular functions, the soul is unable to make any etheric growth and activate the rest of the harmonic system. Its prominent position in the 1st gives to the holder most unusual perceptory power, and the ability to draw down from the Heights the inflowing Cosmic Rays and penetrate the Blackness of Space. These she will be able to channel and weave into the earth according to the creation and intent of her heart count and Purpose.

But her real difficulty is the 8th and 12th house, the former known as the pit and the tomb being the house of Scorpio, whilst the latter is the house of the Tartars, all the unblended animal states, the ends and threads of magnetic and emotional experience that have yet to gain the wisdom to be able to "passover" into the 1st and become a wholeness. Then as a power rich in unification and wisdom, it has capacity to feed and uplift others with the strength of the planetary wealth. In the 8th she has the Moon the planet of illusion, as well as the present personality, the conscious mind. In Libra it finds it exceedingly difficult to face truth wisely, as it gains merely the lunar reflection in a shimmering state of unreality, thus all confused and erroneous in Judgment gained. Such a one needs to be extremely careful not to make entirely false mind assessments, in fact as Charles I of England whose powers of discrimination and understanding as well as assessment were notorious for his foolhardiness and failure, and caused him to end on the scaffold.

With 12th and 8th house planets, the soul has taken of the wisdom but allowed it to pass them by without honouring the pledges that they have given unto the Spirit. They have looked towards the Spirit and its final establishment as being a mere hope of the Spirit but have refused due to a character weakness to fulfill the truth they recognised and so rebelled. If planets in the 8th as well, it is the call of the animal desires that have built uppermost due to being as a Lot's wife and looking back at the delights. As a result there is a real danger of the soul finding itself completely split in mind function, the lower being divided from the reality and Faith of the Higher Mind. Thus the soul merely lives down in the animal humus, and has to begin again to weave and create of the Arc as a Noah to save itself from drowning in the magnetic waters.

With her Mars in the 12th it was her will and rebelliousness that was the cause of the Sun moving from the 10th house of service into the 11th house where the soul has got to seek to retrieve and rebuild its chaotic creations. For Mercury, the mind functions, is also sitting in the 12th, showing that this soul could inject another with the machinations of destructive and lower thought, a purveyor of wrong meat.

Her wealth lies in her Sagittarian Sun through and by which she can raise her mind into a one pointed state and fire herself in enthusiasm and aspiration, to carry out the wisdom and point of purpose that she sees she can put into practise. Then with her Uranus Power the Flame of the Mind, she instils into others the Heavenly Fires.

Sagittarius is the 3rd of the three Fire signs and embraces the qualities of Leo and Aries if the soul can bring forth the great wealth of the EL Fires.

It would be possible for her, as the Archer, to ever strike the beam of the Spirit Eye. Firing souls with the reality of the Bull's Eye, the Eye of Creative Establishment. This would help the soul provided such a one strictly honoured the Spirit it should and must serve, before it comes too late and even the Sun enters the 12th as well.

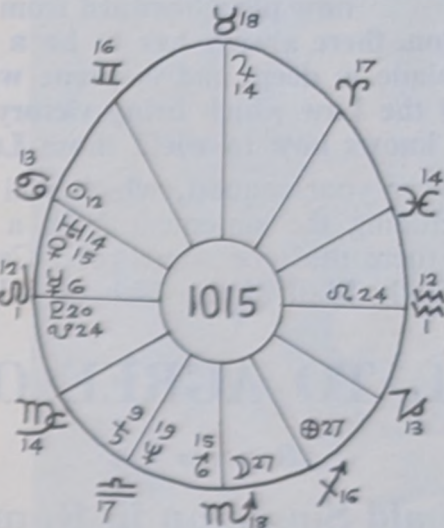

There is much else that needs explaining but suffice to place the mother on her guard to force her to turn to the Spirit, as her primary allegiance, especially as now she has much in her heart as to what she should do to help her sons. At least she must watch the hell of indecision, multiplicity of thought, rebellious vanity of personality, erroneous decisions and false judgments. It needs the Spirit and its wisdom to be her daily guide and sustainer, and that alone.

The Boy in question has Mercury, Venus and Uranus in the 12th house. In addition he has Leo rising with Pluto in the first house. Venus-Urania indicates past lives in the priest-hood, particularly that of the roman catholic monkery, where he has taken erroneous wisdom and raised up his mind frequency, using this mind and body sensitivity to take power for self but not establishing in practical fulfilment, that which he perceived as Wisdom. This was due to the chaotic actions he carried out in this black hooded priesthood, theories take such as roman catholicism.

The high state of sensitivity he achieved was not blessed by calling down the Spirit Powers to provide the clarity of Truth and heightened understanding nor the Spirit Unction to bless that created. All that he established was a confused state of ideas, his Mercury in the 12th with a confused idea of what he should do to serve. His actions in the monastery with the wrong use of the sensitivity he achieved, resulted in the raised up body frequency being directed into false ways and carrying out practices which instead of burying in of the old animal ways, resuscitated them and brought out an over abundance of emotional experiences (Mars and Moon in Scorpio).

This should be controlled through taking in the wisdom. Otherwise this child with all his 12th house planets will gain much ill-health; in particular he will get such as this nervous asthma, which in reality is the thymus gland malfunctioning due to the Higher Mind of Uranus closing down in false ways of truth knowingly being followed. The erroneous understanding of chaotic priesthood has made the spirit fail to carry out its promises.

In the past he has achieved like 877 a mind clarity of Truth and reasoned understanding as is seen by the Saturn position in Libra, but he refused to plough into the ground of self his beliefs, instead being drawn to gain dominion over others through false wisdom and mere power. His use of the magnetic earth force was all to his own advantage and domination, and now he must learn that he caused much devastation and chaos by giving forth erroneous wisdom. This has caused the link with the Heights... the Thymus... to close down hence the asthma. He reached a high degree of asthetic sensitivity but he did not do so to serve the Spirit but only to gain power and allegiance over others. He sought to capture the magnetic powers of the earth plane, the Green Lion, and did not seek for the Spirit to either guide him or to feed him even. This led to all the powers he invoked as a priest merely to stay down in the waters, ever swelling the waves of emotional and personal desire.

In particular he never learned how to use the Royal Seed and in the 4th house is Moon in Scorpio, in which in the Mother's chart 864 resides the Path of Destiny. She must learn to channel all the creative powers up into the Heights, raising the Kundalini, by the dance of the two Vagrant serpents, the motor and sensory actions of the conscious mind never ceasing in quest and search trying to find the highest point of Oneness. If the sons are taught this Royal Way so that the higher Point of awareness can be reached, the past confusion of mind and thought as well as the false old ways, can all be buried so that they will not become resurrected.

She should learn to honour Royally this function and openly teach it to her children. At the moment at the Hour of Manhood it is imperative that the very strong passions that both have are not touched off into wrong channels. Here the Mother is solely responsible for she must teach them through the wisdom the greater way. Learning, rich schooling, and clever intellectual minds, full of earth education will only spell tragedy to both these sons. The only way is the way of Spirit Priesthood, and as seen by 1015 it is his Destiny to seek the Fire Trinity the Triune Fire of Sagittarius,—that of Aries, Leo and Sagittarius dancing in wisdom and Royalty of purpose, Mind, Heart and Fire blended into one Purpose.

Both these boys have lived as Priests and sought in the past of the heavenly Fires to give unto the souls they were serving. However their motives were not of the Highest and only directed to the lower and personal road of pomp and power. In both their characters but more so with 1015 there will be traces of a ruthlessness of resolve and mind that comes from these past lives. Only by the greater wisdom. The learning to value Womanhood and the Fires, will either achieve release from mental confusion.

Both of them should be taught as soon as possible to study the new wisdom and to study preferably regularly with the Mother as a family unit. Not religiously but to openly draw down of the Solar Light and seek to raise up the mind comprehension. This is where the Mother should be the feeder and firer of these two especially the one in question for she has all the Richness of the Spirit Fire, Uranus, and with this Power she should have fed and fired the very emotional and highly magnetic character of her sons. If she has failed then the sooner she starts to follow the wisdom as her ONLY AND FIRST CALL the better for her own future. For she should have sought to master the moon by so raising her plane of mind realisation, that her electrified mind would have risen up above the call of the lunar thoughts.

What is not generally recognised by seekers is the urgency of seeking into the Spirit, and the necessity of faithfully following the Powers of the Cosmic Rays, the EL Fires of Daniel so that resuscitation can take place. It is true as Samuel shows that it is the Faith and simplicity, the eager and empty mind of a child that all should be blessed with and until we train ourselves to discard of the logical and earth learning which merely holds us a prisoner in mental confusion the sooner mankind will become what he should ever have been, the Divine being he was in Eden. A MESSENGER OF THE GODS.

from without. Any influences that move man's conduct or thoughts from extraneous causes should therefore be regarded by all true men with the utmost suspicion; for only by the heart and of the heart can man be born of the Kingdom of God, or Christ light. Thus the fifth house is the House of LIGHT, and the Grand finale of the Human Generation.

Therefore in this house, the Lamech darkness is trodden out laboriously; and perhaps you will understand now why it is seen as the underground rooms of Lazar; the house of Lazar. The house of death, darkness, disease, and yet rebirth. There you see the many states of what you have taken in, in your own inner children. I am not in any way talking of outside flesh, but your own soul family. In this house you often see that of sick children, sick relatives, sick parts of your being that were brought into birth through incest upon a point of corruption.

Man, normally,—and all who desire to return to normal conditions, move, live, are actuated and energised in all planes of consciousness (as well as unconsciously), not by external suggestions, stimuli, or influences but by interior Thought; by magnetic and spiritual vibrations and projections of thought force or aura proceeding from the Spirit, the divine nucleolus, in which is eternally vested the Divine Logos, or the Mind of Christ,—that which Paul speaks of in the case of the "CHURCH," as the Christ being formed within you, Christ in you, the hope and Glory.

Now that word "CHURCH" means the church that is being built within you upon your own rock; the church of "LIGHT"; the Christ being born within you: the resurrected Powers you have taken down into yourselves and there lie in your 5th house as karma; all being resurrected and becoming your Christ body within you, or your Church.

Charges for Health Advice

AS a result of hundreds of readers flooding us with letters asking us to solve and advise on their physical and mental health problems as well as to suggest the best herbs to take, it has been decided that in future there will have to be a minimum charge of 10/6 or $2.00 U.S.A. for all requests for health advice. But this does not mean that those without means cannot write in. This has been necessary as a result of the very large increase in correspondence and recording that has been occasioned as well as the extra time that needs to be taken to answer the especial letters. In addition the postage and clerical costs have risen steeply.

Reminiscences

THE KISS OF DEATH

WITH THE LETTERS WE HAVE received upon the subject of the Catholic Sect being the Black Scorpion who is stinging the Race to death, it cannot for the time be discarded, particularly with the letter now enclosed, and the cutting I now place forward from the Daily Mail. But from an Occult point of infiltration, there always has to be a triune drive, with Uranus driving his trusty flaming blade in deep, and Neptune waving his trident on high. But these are the depths of the Law which bring victory riding high; those only known to the Mystic, who knows how to wield those Laws.

So Mr. D. G. I will answer your request, which will cover the same question asked by many others, including the statement from a lady who says, "I quite agree with you, but surely there must be some good Catholics?" But first let us take the cutting from the Daily Mail of the 14th of July 1965:—

JESUITS FAIL TO AGREE ON REFORM

Reports

Ronald Singleton in Rome

Jesuit leaders from 90 countries who two months ago opened their Order's 31st General Congregation to discuss 1,084 proposals for reform, have failed to reach agreement. They will adjourn on Thursday for 14 months. A halt in the congress business of the 36,000-strong Order is due to fear of a clash with the views of the Vatican Council, who meet for a final session in the autumn.

This follows a stern warning by the Pope against "modernism" given to the Jesuit delegates. He told them not to be "CARRIED AWAY BY EVERY CURRENT OF THOUGHT." Many Jesuits remember Pope Pius XII's warning against the "pride of free investigation." They partly blame him for their need of renewal; they can be a vanguard only if they investigate, they say.

Ban on Free Investigation

THE warning by the pope "Not to be carried away by every current of thought" refers without doubt to the Occult Gazette. Proving that the free copy that was sent to the Vatican and read by the Jesuits in the Earl's Court Exhibition*1 went deeper than even we believed; thereby causing the Jesuits to recognise their loss of status. Then further the pope's warning to that sect, of Pius XII's warning against the "pride of free investigation," leaves one, with any shred of intelligence, utterly lost for words.

To think that a man claiming divine status and putting himself up as a leader of the people, should dare to utter such a statement to human beings, alone verifies my statements in the article of the Black Scorpion of the month of July. Where Catholics have been brought to a stoned state as seen by the priests at Challenge 65. They were not dignified as they would pretend to be, but stoned into silence.

For the action of the pope and all his companions have been the means, by their law restricting influence, of keeping the corpuscular action of the blood of the Race in an incestuous state. Man is the evidence of TIME, he is the issue to life; he is the answer to alchemicalisation as the heights manifesting in the depths, which is progress and evolution.

(See the plate on page 3, cols. 4 and 5)

So it is this sect you can blame for the past bloody wars with the loss of your sons and husbands, not Hitler nor Mussolini. The former are the underlying current of fear and repression, that breeds all states of destruction. The hell that is going on out in Viet-Nam all lies at the door of the Catholics, for the pope as the law creator until the past few months, has been the means of spreading a stoning state of erroneous wisdom, that has caused a confusion of the Law.

This is why the Higher Powers have excommunicated them, and now taken over of the Race. It is mankind, not knowing of the Laws, which the Catholic body have kept from them, that they cannot recognise the wonder that is now being exercised, in the Higher Powers coming down amongst mankind and bringing the Pleroma of the Heights down to rejuvenate the Earth, as Mother Mary, and the Race.

Man is born from the inflowing Waters or Brahmik root that issues forth out of SPACE, and unless the soul makes investigation, how can

STONED

THIS startling plate well illustrates the ghastly status that man was brought to as a result of the pope's kiss of death. He as the leader and ruler of millions caused all to worship a dead stone and prevented the freedom of investigation. Thus the Seed Fire became dead and mankind ankle deep in the lunar waters of desire. Soon the one remaining light of hope too would have gone out. (See text on page 11, col. 3).

the soul exist, let alone the Race. Mind is man's prerogative, which he as soul builds and creates, and must be encouraged to widen his vision unto a greater perception of understanding.

Cutting off millions of people from free thought, which is the life blood of a Nation, is what the Chinese Emperors did in the Middle Kingdom. That which brought the Chinese down to what they are, hordes of untold illiterates. But then you have only to go to Spain, Italy and Ireland, three Catholic ridden countries, where poverty and illiteracy are rife, to get evidence of that.

The whole world will become the same with sex running rife under this rule; but is this being imposed for the reason as stated by the priest in Challenge 65, "We must build up the Catholic Race" which would then account for their hordes of astral wanderers, and men and women cringing in repression and fear. While black petticoated priests with blank minds strut about with a supercilious air of righteousness.

(See the plate cols. 4 and 5)

SPIRIT The Manifestation of FIRE

I always understood, as a Mystic and free investigator of thought, that this matter of the Chinese growth, belonged to my ancient past. But this time I do not ask, but definitely state, that this is what these popes have been trying to do, be the voice of the people, where by their blended thought on whatever scheme they found useful to their domination and strength of rule, have brought their stream of life into action.

Now I ask, where was the Stream that should have come into birth at the time of the Configuration that promised the Second Advent to the Race?*6 That which was the duty of the pope, since he claimed the office of the Vicar of Christ.

Dear Mrs. Spearman-Cook,

I must say I admire your courage, but my heart aches for you, for when I read of your article, I saw a swan with all its feathers covered in tar. I know as a mystic myself, that you are having to do this task, but must find it very irksome to one so sensitised and spiritual in your writings.

May God bless you and give you courage to see it through to the last. So I hope my perceiving your struggle will help you to carry the burden that you are carrying out for us most ungrateful men and women.

Yours Sincerely

D. R. Adams (Mrs.)

Dear Mrs. Spearman-Cook,

I have witnessed your brave and daring articles in the recent months of the Gazette, and I must say I take off my hat to such a gallant Crusader. But don't you think a word from you regarding the meaning of the Black Scorpion would help everyone who would like to have your courage, but is still lacking in the strength to come forward.

I personally understand, for I too was stung by their erroneous wisdom, with the result my life was heavily jeopardised. Yet this is not a personal war, but the Nations as a whole, where man is being stoned to death by being cut off from the Forces that feed them.

But will you kindly tell us more, for no one is more fitted than you, but would you kindly accept these simple verses to a gallant lady. One who is a true Saint, if ever there was one, for man will never know what you have done for him, until your days are numbered.

Thus pray God they will not be yet Lady Christos of the Aquarian Age.

Yours in humble reverence

D. G.

SOULS ENSLAVED

"... While black petticoated priests with blank minds strut about with a supercilious air of righteousness." The dead mind gives the dead parchment look so frequent on the face of priesthood. (See text in col. 3).

The fact that they do not believe in the Spirit, is a proof alone that they have never even manifested the Fatherhood, let alone any unction or eucharistical blessing. Spirit is the manifestation of FIRE from the atomic seed of man, which all the race need, and which as mind must be raised up to the highest, to lift the Race up in mind outlook. While the Fatherhood is that seed as mind brought to LIGHT, and made positive as the Arc of the World, that of the Intelligencia, as the Three in ONE. Whereby in unification in man, the Fount*2 unites with the mouth, and the Brahmik Root becomes the VOICE. Thus God speaks through a Priest.

So God has NEVER

*6 The Configuration referred to was the large number of planets that grouped in the sign of Aquarius during the month of February 1962 and fully described in the January Issue 1962.

SPOKEN yet through ANY priest or pope.

For surely this is the answer that the pope should be giving forth, not preventing man from thinking because he cannot think; thus him kissing a dead cold stone out of sheer exhibitionism to give the people something to keep them quiet. Hence they have never been any higher than motherhood, the luna state of the earth; ever only talking about the immaculate conception, and never carrying out any of its functions in their sacraments.

But then further, their god was dead, and no more must be produced, says the pope;

*2 The Fount was the first beginning of the Baptismal Waters that gave unto man his first seed of manhood. But with woman it has ever remained as her seed down in the very depths. Hence the Seed base of all human life as soul received of the Fire Element for the first time.

DAVID'S POETRY

WHAT has come, and what has been
Is upon thy fruitful tongue,
For all the Fire of life can
Bring a blossoming of the Sun.
To each his own is now the Cry, so blend all into one,
For the Sun doth shine much
Brighter now, as all is being undone.

TAKE your boldness to the heights
And live the highway circle,
That which will bring all into line,
A steady smooth journey HOME.
For the worst is done, it wasn't fun,
Striving against the knotted grain,
To smooth away the planes.

YOU a Scapegoat fed upon the thorns,
That me and mine have strewn,
For none would help you in your task,
To sweep away the gloom.
That which comes to all upon the Path, of changing night into day.
But please I beg, let me for one,
See the radiance of your FACE.

AS I in solitude reflect, that all
Your mind must be, great wonders
Come forth unbeknown to me.
For I am entirely lost to thee,
But give me time that I may learn,
For it can, and will come my way.
For you have sown that seed within,
And it will surely grow, because I Am touched by your great LOVE, and Never wish to roam upon that lower road.

so they have never even touched the Solar Ray, the Christ Blood that should have fed the world with life. But fed millions of people upon their fanatical fight for power and domination.

God as manifested LIGHT is in the unification as the ARC, and when raised up to the highest for that allotted Brahmic span, is the FLAME as the FIRE issued forth from SPACE as the Divine Effulgence as the LIGHT of the Age. The FACE of the Macroprosopus that leads man onwards to an upward expansion of mind Grace. For with AGE after Age it has to become as a greater FACE. (See the plate in cols. 4 and 5) But now it has been raised up to the highest manifestation of the SEED, as the atomic spark manifesting as the Atomic Light of the Arc, with God manifesting through the flesh, speaking through the unified mouth and Fount of a woman. (See the plate on page 5, cols. 1 and 2 and the Editorial on page 2)

*3 A special Article in September issue 1964 was written giving details of the great discovery of the Horseshoe Constellation of Scorpio, as well as in April 1965 in the Editorial again giving more details of the descending Cosmic Rays, all of which strongly corroborates the wealth of Gladys I. Spearman-Cook.

BUDDHIST CROSS

THESE four crosses are but a small part of the vast evidence proving that the whole of the so-called christian crucifixion was yet one more added to that already related in practically every other religious and philosophical teachings as is seen by the four crosses illustrated here. That the crucifixion never took place literally is very well known to most senior prelates and certainly the vatican. Yet despite this they purposely keep these falsehoods alive to retain their powers. (See text in col. 4).

... Father and mother manifesting the Son—who is the God,—with mother as earth the reflection of the Divine Purpose, with the Father manifesting in the SON as LIGHT, the MIND of the AGE. This is the ARC or Sine of the World.

But all is manifested through the crucible pot as man, with Woman generating the issue, with her degree according to her divinity of purpose. Thus her fount becoming her VOID, her mind, and speaking through her mouth. The TRUE IMMACULATE CONCEPTION as man and woman emulating the Divine Purpose in matter; microcosm unto Macrocosm.

This is the depth of HERE and NOW; Blackness of Space manifesting through man, and becoming the voice through woman the mother of God. This is androgyny, where all gets back as positive and negative, to its original status, where sex and multiplicity become enfolded in, and man comes back to his status of ONE. This is where Joseph as the Yod of God becomes Jesus, the masterhood of all TIME. The ONENESS of unification producing the consciousness as LIGHT of awareness, the soul climbing up the Brahmic Thread. That which was intended in the Beginning, when Eve as the Race of Woman fell back into a lunar state.

This is what man is trying to retrieve through the Cycles and climbing up out of the magnetic pit; therefore it can be seen by this, that the pope kissing a dead cold stone only intensified it. Thereby symbolic of the pope's vibration, blank and blind; hence the state of the Race that was stoned by him and his cronies. (See the plate on page 10, col. 2)

But now with the Arc raised up by my stipulation, man will be lifted up out of that pit; but Roman Catholicism as a religion and domination MUST GO, and WILL DO SO by the ordered will of the Higher LAW, that which rules the status of Evolution.

All this has been inflicted upon the people, because the pope cannot think for himself, for he also stoned himself when he kissed that dirty old stone in the name of God. A bigger lie was never enacted, than that puppet show to impress the Race, brought to a state of exhibitionism. Who could not see through such trumpery. This is not biased thought, but practical scientific wisdom. A man is what he does and believes, and becomes so by progress of vibratory action. Therefore a man who is supposed to be the Vicar of Christ and lead the people, and who even cannot think for himself, cannot order such things to men and women who have the right of free thought, it is ludicrous in itself.

Why does he have to set up commissions to gain advice if he is capable of administering Unction that should be drawn down from the Greater Powers. WHY! For in them only perceiving a dead god upon a cross and stating that there would be NO CHANGE, there was no spirit to draw down from the heights, and further more the pope would have to admit all their ethics were wrong, of which they are. (See the four plates in cols. 1, 2 and 3)

That they would never do, for they would be blasted by millions of angry men and women who have been led wrongly for 1600 years, and cry out against the mental state of their loved ones, and those lost in the past wars. It is the fear and repression that has been enacted out by this sect, that has brought a subconscious state of disease of chronic etheric inertia.

If as a spiritual government, why is he not turning to the Heavenly Powers and calling upon the Spirit? Not as a state of religious cause, but the Powers of the Intelligencia Arc, those who feed and nourish man with a return of mind wisdom. But let us further ask, Where does he get his Eucharistical Kiss from that he draws down into the monstrosity in high mass, believed to be the body of the Christ, if there is no Spirit as we were informed by the priests at Challenge 65. Where does he draw down of his blessing, if not from the Heavenly Waters?

FOR HOW CAN A MAN WHO CANNOT ANSWER THE PROBLEMS OF THE DAY, POUR FORTH UNCTION FROM HIS OWN PERSON?

No, Mr. pope, this will not do. I call a halt to your bluff and quackery; although I am very sorry for you, for you have been pushed up into a position by a set of fusty dry old men, who jabber and fight in latin. Those that are seeking to keep their easy seats, and not turn to a hard days work.

For they cannot claim spirituality, since they do not own of the Spirit. But sympathy cannot prevail now, for the lives of the Nations are at stake, and if something is not done immediately, we will be blessed with a world wide Race of Thalidomide children. (See the article on page 6 of January 1963 issue and the picture on page 8 of August 1965)

Pope Challenged

SO here is the BLACK SCORPION that has stung the Race to inertia, for the Generative Force is being repressed from creating unfolding mind wisdom. No longer true Generative Fire going up to the heights of the mind as spiritus air, through mind investigation bringing the dance of le Ros. But a man who represents the sect ruling and declaring of these matters, proving his failure to be the intermediary of the depths and Heights, whereby the world would be fed with new life, is appalling and death destroying.

If anybody has fallen to every current of thought, then I declare it is the pope, for he has allowed the scientist with his pseudo wisdom, to jeopardise the inter-union with the Cosmic Rays, that are the life blood of the Nation.

For these are the Hierarchical Powers being sent down to heal the Nations, but because they are not in form as the human soul, man cannot understand SPIRIT.

But he is soon going to find out that they are LIVING

KISS OF DEATH

STATES of Fiery Life that can bring man to his knees, or to a brilliant mind unfoldment. And what is more, Powers that have to be reckoned with, and far more dynamic than the repression and fear enacted by the Catholic sect. The pope ought to understand this as a priest, a so-called intermediary between the lower and upper planes.

My instructions as an instrument and a Channel, a Scapegoat for those Hierarchical Powers, is not against individual Catholics, but the body of old men ruling the lives of millions with erroneous wisdom and tyrannical fear. Cutting them off from their only resuscitation, the Blood Life of the Christos, the light of the ARC of the world; the Intelligencia of the Cosmos as the LIGHT of the Nations.

Am I not making strait the gate by my having the courage, as some of you say, to challenge the pope; and furthermore deny his erroneous teachings and break up his iron bound ruling. Which is perfectly obvious in the schisms in the vatican. Therefore hope that others—as they are beginning to do—have courage to follow suit, thereby get free from its evil tentacles. (See open letter to Friar Benet by Miss Rita Owens)

For at the rate that they have applied them and still are doing upon the Race, no man will be able to gather the Rhythm from the Spheres as does the musician, the artist and the poet, but all will turn into a pygmy Race. Just becoming automatons, whereby machines will out-do man, thereby bringing the financial bug further into birth. The up-rise of militaryism as seen in Italy and Spain, resulting in continual wars of prowess, which unfortunately means lives, and the flower of the Race, lost.

Universal Philosophy

NEITHER is this a matter of another religion trying to get a foothold, for Universal Philosophy is what the Jesuits are crying out for, "free investigation." Seeking into the ways of life, whether it be upstairs, downstairs, or in my lady's chamber. Universal Philosophy as I have found it has only been by free investigation, and is still open to further untold enquiry. My search has only been a preliminary one, although by my frequency gained through investigation, I have raised the Arc right up to the Central Sun.

But this is a depth of wisdom that we could not approach now, for it is deep but true for all that. A truth that has proved itself right up to my resuscitation, as seen by the article VIBRATION. For it has only been by contacting those Higher Powers that I have been fed and nourished both of mind and mundane resources, which we receive by their instigation. Not Communism, as so many would blatantly state, not knowing a blind word of what they are talking about, but the Source of Spirit making the way for us to continue their WORK in the depths. The use of Communism to rile another is merely sheep following the remarks of cunning minds, and this was shown quite clearly in the letter of Mr. C. T. in the August issue on page 8.

FOR THE WORD COMMUNISM, USED AS IT IS, IS TO COVER UP THE TRACKS OF THE EVIL OF WHAT MANY A MAN WILL DO TO GET HIS OWN WAY.

Even if we condone the erroneous teachings of the sect, which we cannot do, which in itself cuts off the life-blood of the Race, the fact alone of the two statements made by the pope is an insult and detriment to "free individuals." For every soul in matter is walking as an independent unit, yet joined by the same aggregation brought down in the Piscean Age from the Embodiment of A.D.33?

This is not only a challenge, but a declaration of what his sect should have done, and why have they not done it.

I, as a lone woman, have now drawn forth that Stream as the Scorpii Constellation in its highest aggregation, infused and glorified by the Central Sun, the pure Energy of the Hydrogen Waters. This is going to feed the Nations from that Central avenue of light, yet the very Source of the Lord of the Flame, the Maitreya of the raised up Arc of light.

A representation of Cosmic Manhood of the Age bringing forth Light and Energy to Earth and Man, the Cosmic Rays of the Central Sun, infusing Man with the Solar Flares, the Flames of Mind. (See text in col. 3).

of life. So how can any man who claims pride of being an individual soul, go down under such a statement.

If the Jesuits themselves are rebelling, then it is about time we did the same. Of course we know that the pope claims the right to the Vicar of Christ and the leader of all men, something which the majority have been forced to accept through the evil domination of the Ages. But that is not necessary now, as will become more evident as this year closes in:

SO MAN RISE UP AND COME OUT OF SUCH TYRANNICAL DOMINATION, AND WALK AS UPRIGHT MEN.

The Open Challenge

UP till now no man has dared contest him. NOW I OPENLY CHALLENGE HIM;

Where does he get the right to lead men and women, when he does not believe in the Spirit? When he openly tells his novices that they must not investigate, but he cannot give them the answer.

Therefore I break his right to that Pride of Place, by again declaring; if he does not believe in the Spirit, and his God is dead on a cross, where does he get his unction from, to place blessings on men and women?

Let him give to the world the answer to these questions, that many are ever asking me on his behalf.

Then further. Where is the Stream his sect should have

(See the plate above)

This is the Blood Christos of the World, but wisdom installed upon the Cosmos as planes, that at the present is flowing down to the Earth as the Cosmic Rays. Powers feeding men and women with new life from the vastness of Outer Space. It only needed one soul to break the seal and set the Stream running, but until, was sealed off and closed by the erroneous wisdom of the Catholics.

There is NO NEED for man to DOUBT this, for ere long the Higher Powers are going to drive the shaft deeper, and bring changes that will amaze the world. When it can be seen that man creates and brings forth, otherwise these Powers are just the prism as seen by the scientist's calculation.

The Mind Development Class

EACH Week on every Saturday at 5.30 p.m. G.M.T. Mrs. Spearman-Cook holds her Special Mind Development Class at the School's H.Q. A special Subject is concentrated upon for about 40 minutes and then each sitter is individually helped to interpret and understand his or her findings. Any readers can join; those nearby can make application to attend each week, and those too far away can send in their names and link in each week at the time stated, their names being entered in a Special Book for this purpose. The subjects for concentration are:

Sept. 4th	The Gall Bladder	Oct. 2nd	The Heart Beat
Sept. 11th	The Kaaba Stone	Oct. 9th	Moby Dick
Sept. 18th	Kwan Yin	Oct. 16th	Mistress of the Copper Mountain
Sept. 25th	Weighing of the Scales	Oct. 23rd	Dionysius
		Oct. 30th	Esau's Birthright

Then it can be seen the importance of mind, and individual thinking. But when moulded by mind, they become a living status; consequently over the Ages have become the Begotten Intelligencia of the seventh plane. The light of the so-called Sun as an orb of Gas,—that which feeds the world with daily life in the world's 24 hour turn,—is really the Arc of the World, the Christ-Blood life of the world. It is this that sheds its glorious light over mankind, otherwise the world would be black like the vastness of Space.

It will be this inflowing Water that will cleanse and rejuvenate the whole Race, but it is up to all men and women as to whether they will come forth with minds reborn by seeking into wisdom; that which will at present unite relativity. For this is the Age of Unification, but how many understand what it means; for so held in the grip of Roman Catholicism by fear and repression, they are afraid to think. This we know to be a fact by our first-hand investigation; where souls, nuns and priests openly declared they must not seek, but only of what is in their book.

The Deadly Fear

THIS is 1965 not 1670 the age of the Inquisition, where men and women were coerced by blackmail and violence worse than anything the world has ever known. A fear that is still very prevalent, for it became so ingrained into the soul, as to stain the etheric Soma-psyche.

(See the plate in col. 5 and on page 13, col. 1)

I have had Catholics creep into my School to try and get healing, while the very fear they came in with, prevented them receiving the best of my attention. It makes my spleen rise up to see the fear.

OF WHAT?

Nobody knows, and when questioned, do not know why. While others declare its evils, but haven't the courage out of sheer fear to openly announce and stand by it. No wonder the world is as sick and mental as it is, when such a vice is holding it in its grip. But this I now claim has been broken as stated in the message of The Armada delivered from the Hierarchical Powers in the fourth week in July. Young Initiates here, who have never witnessed such Powers before, are now more than convinced of Powers that can come forth, and either raise up or cast down according to how a man receives them.

But this is the point that all must now understand, and I claim the reason of the Jesuits revolt. For they are more subtle to the involving Powers than the rest of the Catholic fraternity. For they once upon a time were the mystics of that sect, and were the basic cause of the Inquisition. They so brought the Powers down into their monasteries, as to cause the Powers to over-spill, and raise up untold witchery. Now they by the matter of instinct, perceive the danger being wrought by the pope, and also the depth of wisdom in the Gazette.

Once a man knows,—and all men will now be blooded,—his blood life changes; for then he starts to operate on a higher vibration. Thus it is the Councils that we are seeking to infiltrate, and that has already been done by the Jesuits themselves.

Hence all men are going to be brought out of the old inertia, which is the confusion now taking place in Rome, as well as causing many a paper distributor to send for 100's of copies. This is not what I expected, in fact quite the reverse, but my instructions were to break up the inertia of the World, and this I am doing. But it is for the good of the Race, even if at the time it appears the reverse.

But let us take the last paragraph of the report in the Daily Mail,

"THE JESUITS BLAME

THE SHELL OF THE SEED

IN a lecture on August 8th 1965 The Lord Maitreya made special mention of the wealth of the nails... "As man treads them into the earth with his foot and works them with his hands as a creation, they protect the points of each. They are the wealth of the Seed. The Inquisitors pulled them out with red hot irons when the soul would not carry out their beliefs... That was an atrocity of the worst kind, leaving that soul with the depths and the shell of the Seed ripped away, leaving them helpless. They knew what they were doing... That was the sort of thing they did. Whatever words go out to hit them can never be hard enough to break up the evil of their growing state. It is no good saying it is not with them now. You cannot take out of a tree its growth, or the black inky blood out of an octopus. Only by the wisdom being forced into them can you break up the evils that are there... and it will do." (See text in col. 4 and page 13, col. 3).

THE POPE" for their need of renewal; they can be a vanguard only if they investigate," ...the Occult Gazette.

So it looks as though we are going to be busy, apart from our increased sales, which are going up by leaps and bounds. This statement alone proves of how the Powers interpenetrated in the Earl's Court Drive, and in itself is a definite proof of what I have been claiming.

(See the article "Challenge '65 and its Purpose" on page 8 of the August 1965 issue)

Powers that are Unseen to the majority, yet dynamic in their infusion into matter, and the very life-blood of the Race, entered in to the midst of this sect, to break down an evil that was impeding their way. Those that were preventing them from getting to millions of souls through the domination they held over them by moral blackmail; yet souls who are crying out for life and wisdom.

Yet again, Powers that are waiting to be the mind and life-blood of all who will listen to their guiding VOICE. Many, who are ready to receive, and could bring great mind wealth to the earth, out of dire fear dare not think one way or another, but only out of the sect's book of belief.

So how could the Waters get through to these souls unless there was somebody prepared to be a Scapegoat, and open the Channel for its entry. This is what I am doing, preparing the way; but if you think I am cranky, then why worry, as so many are doing. For even if they do not want to believe, they subconsciously know that there is some truth in what I bring, for truth spreads its own justification. The fear, hurry and scurry that went on at Earl's Court alone, proved they "were worried at the doctrine."

Danger is Imminent

BUT apart from this, the danger imminent at the present moment is far more potent than man realises; for if this evil being imparted by the pope was not checked, relativity would be unified with inertia, and the Fire of the world including man, would go out. Become completely stoned, thus the whole Race turning blank and mental. This holds a far more dynamic message than the world can understand for the moment, but thank God it has been stemmed.

NOW THE DRIVING FORCE MUST ENSUE.

So it is up to every deep thinking man and woman to help in this drive. For I am the nose, and nothing is going to be spared by the Great Powers for this drive to fulfill its work. The urgency of this is GREAT, as seen by the Jesuits themselves.

For if man should have become cut off from those Great Forces,—which Roman Catholicism was well on the way to completing,—they would have found themselves completely lost without a vestige of self-respect. How (See the plate on page 4, cols. 2 and 3)

can man live freely in a world held down by a bunch of ritual ridden old men, those who havn't any idea of the moon from the sun. So blind in their outlook, that only by being exceedingly direct in the matter of criticism, will they stir and start to sit up and realise they are being opposed. I can understand the Jesuits waking up, for they in the past were the mystic group that delved deeply into the wisdom that I now advocate.

Much of what I believe in, and carry out to the letter, is what they once believed in, and brought untold wealth into birth. Where is it now? The only difference between them and me, is I link with the Higher Powers who feed me with the Spirit, and they draw their powers from the magnetic depths. Hence they over-spilled, and I expand, giving life to all I touch. Whereas they extorted money from the people, I receive my sustenance from the direction of the Hierarchical Powers.

If man does not investigate there will be a vast congregation of magnetic power, that will set up evils as known unto Atlantis. For the deeper issue of life will only come by investigation into wisdom, while the major point lays bare before us, that any restriction on the minds of men, will bring utter disaster. For that is all that man really consists of, MIND born from Spirit Grace.

Therefore, how can any man build up Soma Psyche Pneuma, of which the Catholics declare, but do not know what they are talking about, for it is the mind body built up by free investigation drawing down to the soul that of the Solar inflow.

A soul by experience and thought growth, that of le Ros, finding the answers to all problems of life by relativity and unification. But also the means of finding new light to offer up to the Gods of the Intelligencia; for by so doing, awakening the gods in his own meninges.*5 This is how Evolution persists as that of continuity, as well as unfolding the Arc. But all this was what Roman Catholicism was stemming, closing in the whole of the Race under a concrete creation. Suppose the Prophets and Teachers all through the Ages had never given man a thought, we should still be where man was at the Age of Noah, with no mind Arc at all.

The Lord of The Flame

WITH the etheric as the Soma not being fed through the Psyche Pneuma, the physical becomes diseased; which is happening at the present moment through the restriction placed over the Race by this sect over the Ages. For it is the etheric that feeds the physical and not the earth food, which the medical declare we require. A man when truly fed by the Spirit, can live on apples and water and exist, fully, apart from having a brilliant mind.

It is the changing over that is difficult, and existing with an etherealised body in a world full of magnetic vibrations. Hence this School, where initiates so seeking can exist together, and be within our own vibrations. But also saturated by the health healing Rays of the Spiritual Powers.

As a Mystic I know that far more goes on in the Unseen than the seen, for man is living in reflection and form; and whether the pope believes it or *5 The Meninges are the three membranes of the brain and shown in the diagram on page 3 of the July issue.

not, my setting up the Wisdom in the Cosmos, completely defeats any statement or orders laid down by him. The Jesuits will get their own way, in the same way as the Labour government went into office; the sodomy bill was defeated; the contraceptive pill is up for debate, and the steel bill under way. With many other destructive issues now close on the Agenda; while many others will have to close their doors, that are a detriment to the going forth of the Race. For the Higher Powers are out for CHANGE, and change it is going to be.

The Scorpii Constellation controls the Generative force of man, thus the inflow of their fiery seed, the atomic wealth of the mind. This has been raised up to its rightful place by the School of Universal Philosophy, and thereby crowned by the Central Sun. Hence become, not just the flying Eagle, but the Great Lord of the Flame, also the potential flame of man's mind.

(See the plate below)

Roman Catholicism, while accepting this theory and advocating celibacy for their priests, have also authorised legal prostitution for their congregation. This we understood from a priest at Earl's

GUARDIANS OF ATOMIC WEALTH

"THE Scorpii Constellation controls the Generative force of man, thus the inflow of the fiery Seed, the atomic wealth of mind." As man raises up his Arc of higher Mind so that Trinity of Fire enters in to bring forth the inner Auric Radiance of Mind Light. (See text in col. 3 below).

Court, was to build up the Catholic Race. Hence the Black Scorpion that reveres the Holy Fire on one hand, but for their own ends defiles it on the other. Whether you agree with celibacy or not, this two-way track is not a right principle for a religious government to entertain.

Any religious body that can carry out the law on a dual theme for their own ends, is a detriment to not only the World and its wife, but to the upper Cosmos, the World of Heavenly Life. This alone has brought doom to Roman Catholicism, but not before they have left their mark of destructive evil upon the Race.

Yet all this is going to be removed from the minds of man by the inflowing Waters, although unfortunately in some who are rebellious and obstinate, it will leave a state of blankness. While the man who is responsive will find the Waters opening up their accumulated wealth gathered over the Ages. A theory which Roman Catholicism flatly deny, so they are doomed for an empty mind, unless they turn and seek in the right direction.

In 50 years time the world will be so changed, man today will not know it, while in a 100 years, a full decade, Utopia will be well on its way. Laws changed completely, Nations completely reborn, with man seeking for life in the right way through free investigation. For this IS a COSMIC ISSUE not an individual, although individuals have the task of putting it into operation.

It is the raising up of the New FACE, the life-blood of rebirth, where soul marches forth to a completely new unfoldment of life.

Race is dynamic in its established plan. I thank you for your poetry, often we express ourselves better that way. Let the Waters open up your mind now that you are free.

Now finally the last letter from Mrs. D. R. A.; I am most grateful for your letter, it was truly one out of the "blue." Yes, you are right, I do not exactly like this task, except from a point of Justice, and then I am all there. But I am a Scapegoat chosen for the task and cannot pick and choose. I just do as I am told, and follow the Instructions of the Great Hierarchical Band, with the reward, if we can call it that, in the World of Reality. This is the only way we get back "home" to our world of Soma Psyche Pneuma. This is NOT a fallacy, but a truth that I often experience as I sail off to the planes of Outer World Space, bringing back wonders and joys that help me to continue.

I only wish I could give over all the wonders of my experiences as a medium and a Mystic, but I feel I cannot allow what are my peace and joy to be ravaged by the credulous. I know more than anything else as known in this world of form, of planes as worlds where there are glories and peace beyond man's understanding. And when I hear of stupid nuns talking about themselves going over onto the right side of God, I feel as though I want to scream and bury their heads in the sand. When you know and have seen what I have seen, you would never doubt again; so thank you for your kindly thought, and the many others I have received.

So now let all who have become enlightened, lift up your hearts and mind to the raised up established LORD OF THE FLAME, the Great Christos Lord of the Age, the Maitreya of the ARC. That we too can keep our flames alight to help others become sparked into action, that they can become alight.

With everyone having courage through the fast down pouring Waters, for there will be moments when we shall find ourselves hard pressed as the atomic inflow surges down. But ever remember the old adage of the true Mystic, drive on straight ahead. The greatest enemy is now overcome, which The Armada will now prove to you, for it now is only a matter of time, the Catholics slowly losing their power through the Waters dissolving their rank and file.

Although this has already been going on for some considerable time, with man, woman and child all turning anti-christ. This is where the inflowing Waters are going to play their part, waking up the ancient wealth in man, and calling them to life. The preparing of the harvest was hard going, but the reaping is going to be great; but then we do have to face the fact at all times, all new projects are not easy to establish, but if worth while, worth fighting for.

So all you people who write to me, or come to the School and say, "If anybody can manage it you can," all drive on hard and raise up your minds, that the Waters can bring your wealth into birth. And it will not be long before those who have stated in a derogative way, Oh! you are a Communist, will be saying, Oh! you are an R.C.! The turning of the tables.

A Scapegoat

NOW to the letters being displayed. Mr. B. L. there is nothing daring or courageous in what I am doing, I am the nose to a VAST POWER that no one can touch, for they now are well established onto the Earth, and are going to bring new life to every son of the Nations. Woman will be opened up so as to bring her ancient wealth into birth. What lies before the whole

THE PHANTOM DRIVE OF THE HEIGHTS

IN July the School of Universal Philosophy and Healing was commanded to deliver Occult Gazettes and the Pamphlets on Catholicism at certain well-known Towns and deliveries took place at least twice a week and even more. Towns were reached by leaving the Lectures on Wednesday and Sunday Evenings and taking the Powers across the countryside to our destination. The diagram shows the Towns delivered to at the time of going to press, a number of towns being in Sussex. In the accompanying article Mrs. Gladys Spearman-Cook answers a complaint by a Mr. Booth about the churches of Sussex.

ON the 9th August the Great Hierarchial Master had stated, "Do not worry they will now do the advertising for you." On August 11th this small insignificant paragraph appeared in the paper called the Sun.

BLACK MAGIC WARNING

Country vicars in Sussex have been warned to keep their churches locked when not in use because of an upsurge of black magic.

Instructions to secure churches as far as possible, especially at night, have been given by the Venerable D. H. Booth, Archdeacon of Lewes.

Of course, without any doubt this was a reference to the Occult Gazette, but why over-night? Anybody would think they were doss houses left open over night. Anyway, Mr. Booth soon found out on Friday 13th that IT WAS NOT over night. So it is obvious we are not caught up too much by Black Magic, because, if I remember rightly, Friday 13th is an unlucky day, and it wasn't for us. But again, why only down South???. Have they not heard of York Minster and others up North? NO! what a pity.

But surely Mr. Booth is a little erroneously informed, for Black Magic is the carrying out of black spells, devil incantations, high mass and putting Gods on a cross. Would Mr. Booth consider that Spirit healing of a highly successful Nature was Black Magic,—that which Lourdes and its moving waters and well schemed financial rackets had never experienced?

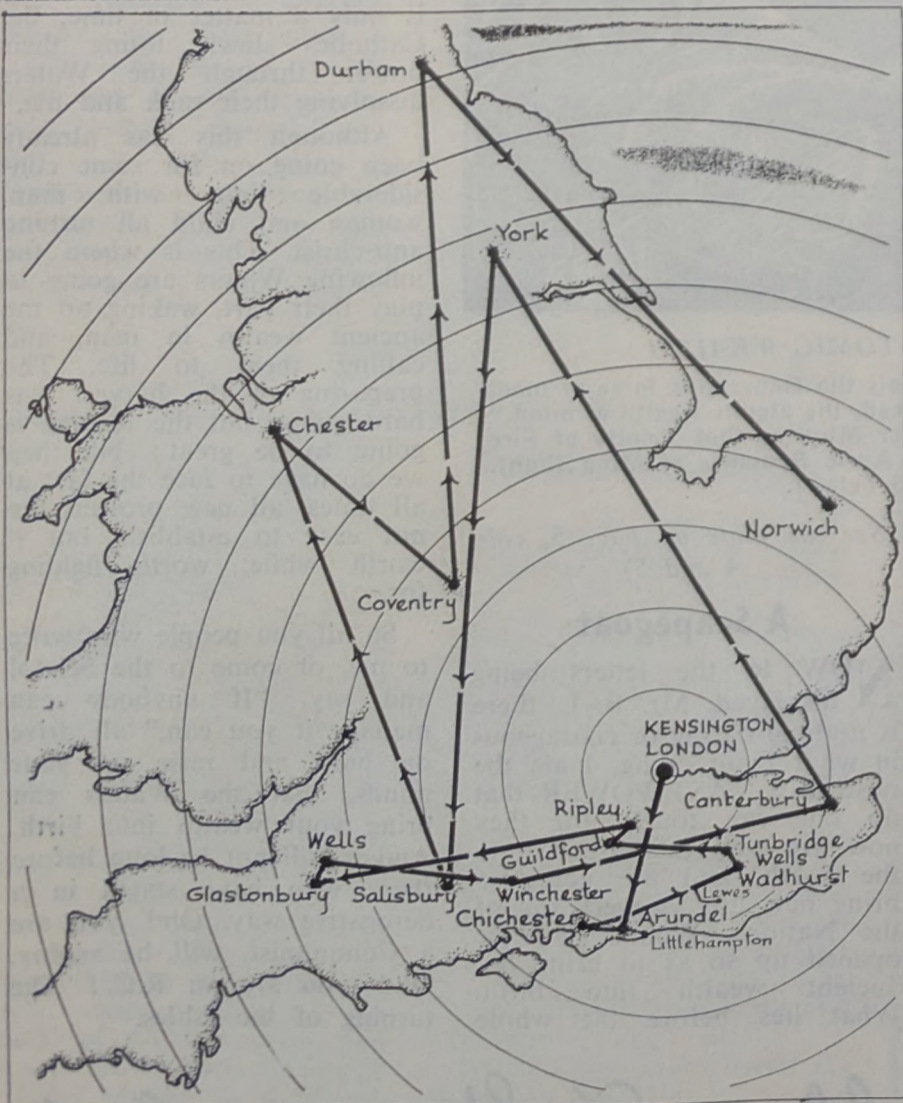

Or a woman who had a gangrenous leg right up to her thigh, and was to have had her leg amputated, now still walks on two perfect legs. Nine women who have just recently had their wombs spared instead of being removed by the surgeon's knife; and one being so utterly grateful, giving us a cheque for £100 to aid the Phantom Drive to truth.

That which they knew was towards freedom from the religions that teach man NOTHING else but creed and dogma of wisdom erroneously interpreted.

Then further, souls ridden with asthma, mental inertia, split minds, and those badly damaged by electrical treatment, all being brought back to health. If Booth thinks that that is Black Magic, then I would advise him to come down to earth, and explain why on Nov. 5th, Lewes has the pope erected on a pile of wood and is burnt to the roars of hundreds of wild students crying out burn the pope. I have not only witnessed this, and often wondered why this town put this into operation, but happened to know somebody personally who was on the firework committee.

I only visited it once, and found hundreds of young people going utterly frantic, throwing lighted fireworks into car windows, crowds being heavily jammed on the open Downs, with students running wild, and numerous accidents.

Is not this an orgy of Black Magic? Yet a HIGHLY ORGANISED drive by the Hierarchial Authorities, Booth in his ignorance, calls Black

1966 DYNAMIC PROPHECY

COSMIC POWERS MASTER MANKIND

(On Sunday August 15th and again on Wednesday 18th August 1965 an Announcement was made, in the Sanctuary of the School of Universal Philosophy and Healing, concerning that which would take place in the following year and the months before. Soon this will prove True and Man will commence to listen and cease being the arrogant voice he has become. Let he who has the Faith to accept this TRUTH, delivered by The Lord Maitreya, take steps to prepare).

I AM the LORD MAITREYA of the HEIGHTS, but within the soul of every man reside the Gods awaiting birth, as soon as he can awaken out of his den. The Gods are awakened with this One and the EAGLE reigneth as the MASTER upon the Earth. But because she raised up her frequency to the necessary heights she and He became ONE, in the side of the brain descent. So he is an ever living particle of her Being, talking, speaking, living amongst you, knowing all that you do and say. But he can see being the Unseen part far more than she can see as the seen part and I know that he sees much that meets not with his approval, for he knows the sorrows to come.

Nothing is planned, nothing is arranged, without it is all a part of your good. If you fail to do it it is for your loss, and destruction at some time or another.

A moment is coming very very soon—the Year of 1966, a year that will never be forgotten in the whole memory of Men, for many will die, some will raise themselves up. Very few will live with a flourish. But it is the beginning of a new life brought into birth by the labours of one soul whose Blood has been shed for its being.

You will never know until you leave the Earth, what this has entailed, the pain and the sorrow, the struggle and the striving, to meet every difficulty in her path, not laid there by her own efforts, but by others who never stopped to think.

On the 18th August again reference was made to 1966 in the course of delivering the usual Lecture.

1966 is going to be one of the most Dynamic years ever known, before or after. It is the climax for every soul, for every soul to face themselves. Relativity is demanding it. The actual closing of the doors is now coming about, for the Harvest is being drawn in. By the autumnal Equinox man will know how he stands. But it will not show immediately. Then by Xmas tide, he will take naturally of the Xmas fare, that of the Horai Descent, but as to what he actually takes, well he only will understand according to his mind.

But it is going to be in the Spring, when there has got to be the Passover in the month of Abib, from the 12th house to the 1st. Everyone will go up, but many will find themselves with a blank mind for they have never made any attempt to look deeply into the wisdom that would have helped them solve the problems in the Spring. They merely have gone on taking knowledge and some not even doing that. Then they are going to find themselves standing blank, with everything stripped right down to the waist. They have got to try and drive and build themselves up. Because they are going to be forced to look the Other way. The LAW will be completely changed by the BIRTH OF THE SOLAR LIGHT. A complete change-over will have taken place, and the soul who is not keeping with it will find himself completely defaced.

Magic. All I can say to this man, who portends to be a saviour of souls, DO NOT THROW STONES IF YOU HAPPEN TO LIVE IN A GLASSHOUSE, and of which you do.

I would like to advise Mr. Booth that we have a number of clergymen who subscribe to the Occult Gazette, and even attend the School's lectures in their clerical garb. But furthermore, would it not account for the empty and emptying churches of orthodox religion? For these men declare that orthodox religion has had its day, and it is about time they found some fresh air. This is what de la Bedoyere, the ex-editor of the Catholic Herald reported, while we hear the Wireless broadcasting ever endeavouring to advise us, "That more people attended church this holiday than ever before." I suppose this is to keep up the dwindling masses.

Perhaps Booth in his high brow text-book religion does not know, that the Embodiment of A.D. 33 that was purported to have been established by a bunch of fighting bishops in 365 A.D., was not a physical embodiment at all. But the Piscean Equinox in its undulating Cosmic Action of the Central Sun. That which would not be felt or seen until the Second Advent in the Aquarian Age. Then it was to be the Embodiment of the Configuration of the Christos or Solar Fire, that would make its appearance through man in the Age of Unification, if some soul could capture its message. If they could, then the Cosmic Rays would begin to flow.

This was captured and the Hydrogen Waters started their inflow, whereby the Scorpii Constellation, the Generative Source of the World, was raised up to its rightful place through the mind demonstration of the one who perceived. Hence the Arc of the World was raised, and the true Cosmic Christ appeared in the Heavens as the Lord of the Flame. That of the Flaming mind, which is now descending to the Earth in the Cosmic Rays. For like Moses I had struck the rock, and the fourth Great River gushed forth.

But it takes mankind a long time to wake up and recognise the saving Grace coming to them in the right way, and not the illusionary as placed up by quackery over the Ages through a set of conniving popes and bishops.

No! Booth prefers the world to be in the clutches of missile destruction, financial juggery, medical distortion, and pseudo religious erotic inertia, which of course has now been terminated by the Arc or Sine being raised above the old law, which nobody can reach or destroy. For who would or could advocate the positive inflow of the Scorpii Constellation, the true union of Generation, the mystery of Gen. 2 v. 24, 25? Surely Booth you ought to know as a clergyman, that there is something far more than what man has aspired to so far, as so called love. Especially with the rising statistics of venereal disease and freak born children.

You seem to have forgotten that this is a part of your job, solving the problems of mankind. No wake up Booth, there are men and women's lives at stake, for they are falling down in numbers in schizophrenia, internal disease and paralysis, which religion has failed to stem. Standing up in the pulpit droning out the rubbish given over day after day by the Broadcasting Society, is not working. But the Occult Gazette is, whether you think it is Black Magic or not. Yet for all that, thanks for the advertisement; it has always been said, the best advertisement is that of an evil report. But was it not said by the Embodiment inflow,

"YOU WILL NOT KNOW ME WHEN I COME?"

The Christos inflow in the Blood life of the Hierarchial Powers feeding man with renewed Spiritual life, that is now flowing to the Earth as Hydrogen Pure Energy, the Hierarchial Voice. For the New Testament has yet to be fulfilled in the Aquarian Equinox. Hence the healing that can be performed by the one who is receptive.

Mr. Booth that which you are complaining about, and which was left as the Occult Gazette for mankind to read, was that which was preparing the way for the opening of man's mind, to awaken to the Cosmic inflow. It usually has to be some form of the "chamber put up on the church spire," that is the only way man learns, high brow or low brow. There is only one Black Magic being exercised at the present moment, that is, the death destroying erotic wisdom of orthodox religion.

You think you have the leeway of an advert in a London paper called the Sun. No! Mr. Booth, I have the whole Cosmos and its inflowing Cosmic Waters of the Central Sun as my advertising agent. I am merely their courier aggravating a move to turn the minds of men towards its inflow, the uprising of the Spirit. That which has been stoned and placed into captivity by a pope who is dead from his feet upwards.

For NO MAN can kiss a dead cold stone and sware he was lifting up the Christ, for as ye sow, so ye reap, which is obvious in the hell of a muddle the Vatican is in. There is only one god on a cross, and that is man himself. Even a child could understand that one. So whatever you do or say Mr. Booth will never alter what is now set as the HIGHER LAW, for what you call Black Magic is the Cosmic inflow for the end of the Solar Year.

Then, as if the heavens opened wide and they sent forth a meteorite of enormous intensity crashing down through the Planes, ripping open every vibration that belonged to that old status of thought, tearing asunder the veil of their temple. Such a storm only the Heavenly Ones could account, as it was of the second Armada.

For the battle was of the Cosmos, who was clearing the way for the Great Lord of the Flame to contact every soul, that He could speak to every one whose heart was open to truth. Every man, who was seeking of wisdom, could be touched by those EL fires, whereby he could hear the Voice of God, and not fear to speak the Truth, which to him had been spoken.

For every man, whether black or white, was the child of the Great Fatherhood, for he was fed and nourished by the Fires of heavenly Dew. This having been a natural function since the day when Merope called down that Element Force, she being the means of bathing every soul with the Eucharistical Waters. But when a set of priests declared that there was no Spirit, and the God was dead on a Cross, every man became stoned and lost, even though he was the recipient of the Waters.

Now the Great Hierarchical Powers were fighting a true Sacred War, where the black octopus would be killed off, as the evil that held the Nations in its grip for Ages. Preventing the soul opening up its mind to the Real Voice of Truth, that they could exhort and extract tithes and adoration that would support their Vatican headquarters. Consequently the Nation has fallen sick, therefore this was a battle of the Elements as was once waged, but this time the Elements roared with anger as though the whole of the heavens had opened wide.

Not even their ships as heavily plated as they were, could stand up to the Forces of the heavens, and drove them like small dancing corks right across the waters. They were smashed up against the rocks, waves pounded their very decks; while poops were torn down and hatches ripped off, leaving the lower decks to the mercy of those waves.

(See the plate in cols. 2 and 3)

For the pope was trying to tell the world that he was the god to be feared; he was still the mighty one to hold the Heavenly Ring, when really he had no power at all, all belonged to the Powers of the Heavens.

Thus the Great Flame drove those Waters as Merope sat and remained the Channel for that EL Force to drive forth; for these were the Almighty Shaddai, the Powers of the Great Fatherhood. As only such can ever come, so this Force drove forth, and the whole of their sacred war for the good of Rome, was scuttled to the winds.

Yet this was but the beginning of RIGHT against might, where erroneous wisdom was to be withdrawn, and truth made known to all men. Yet all brought forth by the will of one soul who was the Channel in Matter; for as the battle raged and roared, she merely called down the Elements.

The River of Life

AS she did so, she became the Channel for them also to go forth onto the maelstrom. Hydrogen Waters of the purest Fire went forth like the liquid Fire from a giant spray; work and evidence, man does not understand, for it is earth Science that man has been so busy comprehending, missing the wonders of the heavens, that were coming down right into his midst. That which, when used for the good of life, could cure all the ills of the Nations.

THE SERPENT DESTROYED

THE Waters of the Cosmic Elements crushed their ships of mind life against their own dead rocks, revealing the viper in their very depths. Thus their powers that had held sway and dominated the world with their evil and their fears were as completely destroyed as the Armada of the past. (See text cols. 1 and 4).

(See the plate on page 5, cols. 4 and 5)

This is the river of life promised to man in Rev. 22, where the leaves of the tree would cure all ills, and of which the pope would deny. For while man is denied "free investigation," he is cut off from the heavens, lost to all hope of redemption and a way to find any answer to life. But since every soul is an atom of life belonging to those heavenly Forces, every soul must seek independently for truth that will meet his particular problem.

For it is only by a soul seeking of his own free will, that a way is made for him to receive and adjust what he knows to be a lost purpose.

So seeing the need for this truth, Merope drove harder and harder, and as she did so the Jesuits raged and demanded freedom from ritual and dogma that also held them slaves to "no free mind investigation." But as to what their theories and truth really beheld, was never openly spoken. Though it was pretty obvious that it was somewhere around the "New current thought," which the pope could not face, for he having kissed a cold dead stone, had stoned his mind to death.

Yet it seems that many have been in fear of "free investigation of thought," where the soul becomes a free agent to unify with their God. So the time had come for many things to receive a new line of attack, thus the Elements as the Hierarchical Powers as the Heavenly Forces, took up the Challenge, and drove the sword right down deep to the very hilt.

As it drove down into the very bowels of the earth of that erroneous wisdom, every square inch of their granite foundation, was shattered into a thousand million pieces. Completely routing their fore-gard and vanguard, leaving the pope running wild.

(See the plate in col. 5)

For once a soul, sect or Nation cut off the Powers of the Spirit, all is lost, withered and gone, for no further resuscitation can be claimed. Truth, as only truth can be claimed, is lost to the elemental forces, they becoming the soul's god, feeding them with the stagnant magnetic waters.

So as the battle was brought to a close, where two minds had fought for that of RIGHT, and only RIGHT as it is known to those of true seeking minds, the flag was hoisted up on the Temple's mast head, declaring the battle won on behalf of the Elements. Where the Hierarchical Powers held the day to continue with their direction; for much yet was still to be done, but with the Heavenly Powers, the worker of the Oracle. NO MAN, pope or king could stand up against those dynamic Heavenly Forces, for they are the Powers of LIFE, the Way and the Truth for all men to draw their resuscitation.

But to those who could peer into the Waters of the Cosmos, it would be seen the last of a mighty battle. For ships lay crashed up against mighty rocks, which the Catholics had created as a sect. Wood and particles of an enormous destruction, lay strewn all over the sea, with thousands of monks floundering in the waters, crying out for mercy.

(See the plate in cols. 2 and 3)

For it was by the reflection of what had taken place through the vibronic action of two minds fighting for the right of the Nation.

But one was for the way of them to receive the Wealth of the Heavenly Waters, while the other the Catholic Force, was for the pious wealth of their high mass altar. Ritual and dogma that was destroying the minds of the Nations, bringing all to a state of imbecility.

(See the plate on page 16, cols. 2 and 3)

All this has been the battle of wits, yet only but the beginning, for gradually souls would have the courage to break away from its clutches. It is the fear engendered into the hearts and minds of men and women that held them in a vice, that now with one woman facing up to them, and not fearing their "moral blackmail," will help many all ready to break free, to break the chains that bind them, and clamber up onto dry ground.

Ever proving they have no power to attack, only by resorting to commissions, and then they last so long, as to wonder what it was all about when it was resurrected up out of the dungeons.

THE BLACK MIGHT STRUCK

THE Catholic edifice has held mankind's mind in a mighty vice since the first days of the fear dominated religion held domination. Now the very bastion of black power has been struck to its very base, ... "every square inch of their granite foundation was shattered into a thousand million pieces." (See text in col. 4).

The Heavenly Elements

THE war now will be the continual schism in their midst that will result from the attack of the Heavenly Elements, but which also will fill every soul with new life from the storm raised by the inflowing Waters. Elements that would purge the maelstrom from the evil it had had to endure from the false pseudo religion, set up by the Catholic fraternity. For by such purging and inflow of Heavenly wisdom, man was now seeking out the Gazette as never sought before. For it was calling the soul by its glaring truths, that frightened even those who dealt with its preparation.

Very few, if any, could possibly believe that there were Powers greater than the Law of Matter. Powers that could rule the Wind and the Waves, and drive them fast and furious. Electrical charges and fiery thrusts that will strike into every nook and cranny, piercing the hearts of every soul as they rent the earth in twain. Thus now was the earth resemblance to come of what had taken place in the heavens as the repetition Cycle battle, of the great Armada. Both of where the situation was saved against the Catholics by the indriving Elements. They fighting in fury against the evil wisdom they were inflicting upon the heavens and the people. The placing of the stamp and die upon the Cosmos, to follow with a blasting storm that would drive all down deep into the Waters.

For this was but the first drive as of the Cosmic die set by those gathered Masters in the Earth Temple. The preparing of the earth drive to send the Gazette forth with its vital message onto the Waters. For as the day opened to start the second drive it blackened over, with the sky yellow and foreboding; then Uranus followed, striking and roaring down from the heights driving his fork down into the overloaded maelstrom, piercing and breaking up the nitrogenic effluvia.

Then with a charging roar, bellowed across the sky, for what had been the unseen battle of mind opposition, was now the roaring in of the earth elements. The former being the instigating in the heights of the charge to come, now it came forth in its fiery charge inter-differentiated into fluidic waters, that it could penetrate the Earth substance. This is the way that Causation differentiates down to the Earth, with an interactionary drive.

Charge after charge rent the Earth as the elements went wild, with the meteorite that had descended down in the Cosmic battle, now driving to the Earth with a splitting crash, but by being received by Merope on its highest frequency, never materialised into a blackened charred stone as seen as those of Stonehenge.

This is one of the mysteries that the Jesuits have forgotten, but still remembered by Merope, for as she rose up her determined thought in mind frequency, she captured the discharge to the earth by her higher insulated reception.

Then rain poured down in abundance, and drove the electrical discharge deep into the Earth forcing all darkness and evil intent deep down into the Womb of Mother Earth. For here was the hour of the ripening corn, with the lightning bolt to charge it; for without his call in the summer storm, no fiery ears would come forth. Another of Nature's greater mysteries, including the mistletoe spit, with the greater mystery of the seed of the corn, that no man can account for.

Thus charge after charge drove the Waters as Draco charged in opposition, for everything that drives the maelstrom ever results in the negative. But Merope charged with the fiery life of the activated Waters, rose her frequency up once again and caught the neural charge well up in the auric heights.

Thereby she caught the electrical charge right up on its positive frequency, filling herself with new life that activated her once again, to fight and hold those Waters pelting down onto the earth that were filled with the new LAW of life. Coming down direct from the heavenly reaches, that would give unto everyman who could also capture them, the key to open his own hidden wealth.

Gutters filled, splashed and overrun, saturating every house with its golden waters, giving to every man the new thought to add to the already changing belief. For what appears but a fantasy to the soul dead with earth sophistication, really when understood by the soul raised up in mind frequency, become the wealth of the higher planes.

What would be experienced by that soul if they shed their earth density, and came forth in their Psyche Pneuma. That which is often the case of those who appear mentally unbalanced; souls who have sought deeply into this wisdom in the past, but never retained their balance by being linked up to the Spiritual Forces. Neptune become a part of the soul's vocabulary, but held under control by rigid diet and sex; the soul mastering the lower Kingdoms in his own desires. Thus truly master of the Elements, and he that can handle and master the winds and the waves.

Canterbury Tales

SO now, as it was set, it followed with the Waters as Father Neptune tearing and tumbling down the streets as the deluge that always follows. Washing in the Cosmic wealth, calling out the little dancing devils, that belonged to most souls. For now the moment had come, when the bells of Canterbury would ring to announce the new idea, with the archbishop stirring as he sipped his wine, at his midday meal. The question was, what was going to grace the pulpit as the Sabbath called the finale, with the six souls gathered in, wondering what had taken over of his lordship. Was he sick? had the weather been too much for him, or had he suffered a stroke? Never heard him talk like that before, is the world going topsy, turvy? Yet his lordship as he spoke, yea bolder and bolder, brought forth wisdom that went forth from his tongue completely remote from his previous ideas leaving them all amazed.

Then hot and troubled he sat down, thinking inwardly in his mind that he must take a rest, work was too much for him. But still the thoughts persisted and pestered, making him think more and more, in what he thought was the wrong direction. Surely the devil had not taken hold of him, but was that not what the dreadful Occult Gazette had suggested, that which dropped through his letter-box some weeks ago.

And here he was giving it forth with all the effrontery of a gifted soul; for up to the present he had ever had to prepare his sermon, which never really gave of what he would really like to say. And ever ended up with calling upon every soul, to find the man Jesus; of course he like all the rest, did not really know where to find him. So it was the blind ever leading the blind, and seeking round corners to try and meet him.

As the sermon was duly closed and his lordship rose to shake them by the hand, his parishioners thanked him one and all, for a most stirring sermon. Although bold, very true, you must let us hear more, for without doubt the Lord hath spoken through a priest's mouth. Well I never, what stirring times, everywhere dissension; yet the only way to stir the evil that lurked in every corner.

Here was the Fire of London once again burning up the sickness and disease, that which rotted every corner. But in a way never perceived before, for man even talked of HERE and NOW in a remote way, with reference to 186,000 miles per second as the action of a man's thought. Little did he know that as that storm swept the Elements, that a Dynasphonic neural charge had struck the maelstrom that

THE MEETING OF NEMESIS

AT last the priestal horde that has dominated mankind for 1600 years is meeting its Nemesis, and will have to face all that it has sown. Its evil power has to meet that which it has implanted into the minds of the young it taught. Now will the Sword of Truth be faced, and the Scales weighed. As they so sowed so will they have to reap. (See text page 15, col. 4).

THE VIPER IN THE ORB

LITTLE does the world know of the falsehood and evil that religion has embodied within its growth over centuries of time. Now such is their stench that hidden within the Orb is the Viper that stings the listener and follower with the venom of religion. If only man knew of what he was doing to his own spiritual body these false prelates would have been sacked from the earth long ago. (See text page 17, col. 2).

would fill every man with new life. But not the life that he would care to receive, for it would be filled with new ideas. Beliefs that would not seem quite right, yet spoken by his lips.

Uttered by him as his intent and furthermore his firm belief, and greater still his intended action, from now onwards. Yet he cannot understand why he is fostering such ideas, perhaps it was that dreadful paper. Little did they know that the Waters now coming down held atomic Fire of the EL Waters. The texture and tensility of every Word that shone forth from its 20 pages; for every Word was delivered from the heights and was filled with the life of the Spirit.

Life and action of the fiery heavens, the Waters of Outer World Space; that which had set every toe atapping, as changes moved man out of his inertia into Grace. At last the Powers were moving their atoms, which man had taken and fastened up in his rock, closing the door of his mizpah fort and only talked glibly about bingo, ships and sealing wax.

For man was slowing down the Earth to a state of catastrophe, causing density and gravitation to increase as a hide-bound state of magnetic power, holding man in a state of rock-like nature.

(See plate 7)

Him crawling around like a tortoise with his house upon his back; but now arrested by Merope lifting up the Arc and the planes, following up with the breaking up of the religious concrete, that new air could percolate to the depths.

Now new ideas were surging through him, but he would not understand that the "Spanish waters were hiving," and he touched by their humming thought had awakened, and let the god up in his meninges,*3 be the means of wisdom surging through him. That which could in time, become the channel for a manifested Voice of Heavenly Power sending out to the world, heavenly born wisdom. For the quicker you revolve, the more spiritualised and mind conscious you become. So one by one man sought of THAT PAPER which talked about the Temple of Ra. That which showed man how the bloodstream could circle and dance and activate the mind. A thing never spoken of before. Was it blasphemous or truth? While the medical world looked over the top of their spectacles and declared:

"That is no new idea to us, we knew it all the time."

"We know all that that woman advocates, but we have drugs that work faster and sure, so why spoil your Sunday's joint by listening to her talk."

But as they partook of their evening meal, a pain overtook them as they swallowed the last mouthful.

"Perhaps she was right after all."

The Waters had interpenetrated them too. Hence the maelstrom quickened up as the Waters hived and buzzed, waiting for the spinning moment for the rising action. For all the time planes were moving both in man and globe, with fiery changes taking over the texture of every moving thing.

THE MASK OF HYPOCRISY

OUTWARDLY they appear so polite, so full of smile and bow, yet behind this mask lies the barbed tongue issuing forth the sermon of the deep. The slow paralysis of mind creeping everywhere as Spirit was denied. (See page 17, col. 4).

The sunshine danced, the wind blew, the rain fell and splattered, every action now filled with new Cosmic life, the Waters of the Hydrogen drive. As the pure Energy filled the atmosphere, scientists gathered around their tape machines and watched the needle dance up and down on their seismograph. So many million miles of light years away was catalogued and filed in their archives, but now all was coming a little nearer home. Had they mis-judged their readings?

The machine wobbled and fell, danced and spluttered, then gave up the ghost for the hiving Waters were far too much for such a delicate machine. For the world had gone topsy turvy as the Elements broke up the Catholic cement; yet here and there already there were souls waking up out of their past religious dilemma, bringing new thought to bear upon the world from their dream like trance.

The Virgin's Crown

BUT little did man know that changes were fast under way, with the unfolding life moving them forth unknown to their ideas and beliefs. The old kingdoms turning in as the Gazette gave them their mortuary meal, with man more and more devouring its Spirit-born wisdom. The Hierarchical Powers talking to man through Their own Paper advising them of truths pure and simple, but correct of life and its problems.

Thus as the Waters poured down from the heights, tumbling and rumbling through the gutters, the Stream rushing down the road, held a treasure divine. The wealth as the trophy gathered from the battle, as that of the Catholics which they had never beheld, and was the wealth of the heavenly Waters for the winner of the contest.

For there floating in mid-stream, was a glorious golden casket dancing up and down upon those Waters. As Merope dived into the Stream to capture her prize, she had to fight hard to master those Waters that had become a gushing torrent. So swimming hard with all the strength she could muster, she grasped her cherished trophy, holding it tightly as she made for safety and carry it up onto dry ground. For everywhere was under deluge of those Waters, but as she by her frequency reached a high mound, she found within her tightly clasped hands, a golden casket of heavenly carved workmanship.

Such beauty she had never seen before, for its pattern and tracery were divine; only that which would come from the heavenly Waters, holding a message supreme. With trembling hands she opened the lid, to see lying on a beautiful blue cushion, a scintillating diamond of twenty facets ready and set to fix into the Virgin's crown.

THE DUNGEON OF DESIRE

MAN held a prisoner in the dungeon of his five senses, fed by the false beliefs of orthodox religion that have taught him to wallow in desire and beasthood, just because its priests enjoyed such themselves. Thus man is in spiritual darkness captivated by the deadness he has become clothed with... "the dungeon which he has allowed that band of fanatics to force him down into." (See text in col. 5 and page 3, col. 1).

IS NOT THE HIGHEST HONOUR HIS WHO FROM THE WORST HAS DRAWN THE BEST?

THE upward journey of Mind and the mastery of the beast is the only road to freedom and the birth once again of the Spirit to hourly guide and direct so that the God-Life takes command and the soul becomes blended into the Light of the Spiritual SUN. (See text on this page, col. 4).

For the Fount and mouth were now united, and the Lord ready to speak through his Priest; she having been chosen by the Heavenly Heights to be the Virgin Mother to the people. The Christed One by right of prowess, who had taken the armoury of the black knight; for she had captured the wealth that the Catholics had never understood, and had lain idle ever since the Embodiment.*4

They had only gathered in their own ideas and placed a god dead upon a cross, thereby had only fed the people with latinised ritual and not the heavenly wisdom.

Hence the Nation had become stoned and left to die in peril, hence the Powers of the Heavenly Heights had withdrawn from them their right of leadership.

From now onwards as the Waters of those heights descended on the people, the answer to their many problems would be in the MASTER'S Journal. There they would be led and nurtured, to rise up out of the Waters, and come forth as sturdy men and women, ready to tackle the Aquarian Mysteries.

For life is a mystery and must be mastered, not held in an iron bound domination by a set of old men raping woman's seed, preventing the wealth of life coming forth. But it rising up as a sturdy child, the wealth of a mind born Nation.

But as Merope realised of this truth, her mind went to the

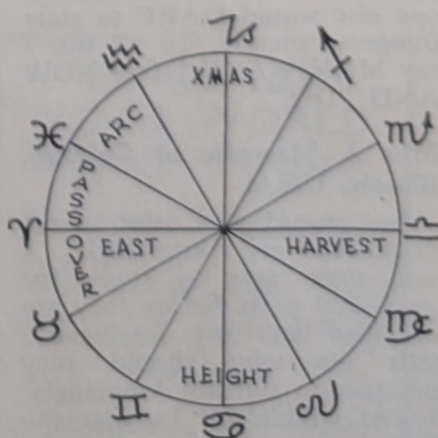

*4 The Embodiment here referred to was the embodiment of the Pisces Age that should have been captured in A.D. 33 but was lost. Instead a collection of priests got together to gain power and pomp of earth in A.D. 365 and commenced an earth religion creating their own Teachings which held absolutely no Truths whatsoever. Proof of their falsehood is the fact that Pisces has no first magnitude star existing in its sign.

"people stoned" by this blind fraternity, held and bound by a dead god upon a cross who gave them of no reprieve. What would happen, demanded her mind, to these souls when the Waters blanched them? How and when would be the results to bring them to their senses?

Why! the "Easter Bonnet" cried the VOICE through her speaking lips. As their minds reach the heights at the Xmas-tide and gather the Horae Waters, will they as they pass down over the Arc to the Easter Session, only meet a dead god who will never pass-over from the old into the new in mind ascension. For as they believed, so would they become, but by Merope's effort upon a higher plane.

The month of Abib,*5 the time of green ears waiting for the solar bathing, but instead of turning from the animal to the human, rising up, but remaining blind. The Scorpio Blood now as solar fire sent forth from the Heavenly Arc, not becoming of the Spirit mind light, but going down into animal humus. Their mind risen up by the Waters, but blank and blind, THEY being the dead god upon that cross, the wheel of solar rebirth, hordes of souls doomed to "die" instead of risen up.

For this is the wheel or cross of rebirth that every soul has to endure. Bringing into birth the solar child until the fatherhood, born out of the twelve sons, becomes the risen Fatherhood as the golden crowned mind. The spinning hub spiralling up from the lunar waters to the Ariel born mind. Relativity through unification brought to Androgyneity. (See the plate in cols. 2 and 3)

The Altar of Ara

THIS is what was now being handed to Merope as she drove the Armada battle through her mind; she being the Channel for hordes of foolish souls to awaken and rise up out of the stranglehold of a set of fanatical and evil minded men, drinking up the blood of their lives. Using them both financially and morally, to live an easy luxurious life; thereby driving them down into rebirth through the black races. (See the plate on page 16, col. 5)

The Solar Fire taken as knowledge, being kept down in the depths, and burning up their tissues. Finding no means of expansion, it turning their corpuscular action into animal-pneuma. Not risen up as Soma Psyche, that of solar light, but ruach as breath turned back into the blood of the human gorilla. Not spiralling up, but spiralling down, ever remaining in the blood count of the ram, and not the risen up blood count of the Lamb.

Not fired blood, but blood "stoned" by inertia through old and antiquated ideas, which neither drug, knife or antibiotics can save, for all is out of their hands. If it had not been risen up by Merope, all would have become the verminous ridden waters of man's dead mind. Spiralling down into an animal created race, which Noah saved when he first raised the Arc up on the pinnacles of the mind. Forcing it up onto mount Ara-rat, the rat ridden states of the fallen race.

Now by living on the Hydrogen plane as the earth plane risen up by unification, man is drawn up from the depths, but MUST discard of old wisdom. Yet that which was the means of him becoming, and is that wisdom raised up by Cycle rebound, as new born themes and ideas. The black and white that becomes the golden points of awareness, that eventually becomes the golden crowned mind.

Man has his own free will as mind prerogative to choose which path he will follow, the lazy path thought out by others, or mind wisdom by struggle and rebirth. Learning to live down in the depths, but retaining the Spirit born mind in frequency. Thus bringing the depths up to a spirit born plane, back to its original status of the Garden of Eden as Heliopolis, but to the Utopia of the modern Age. (See the plate in cols. 2 and 3)

So as Merope became further aware of the situation, she carefully placed the casket upon the Altar of Ara, calling upon the Heavenly Hosts to help support her carry her burden. As she made her obseiance to the Heavenly Presence that now took over of the throne in her raised up Auric Arc, a fanfare of trumpets rang out across the heavens, declaring the rise up of the earth planes.

For the Scorpio Fire as the Fatherhood, that of the Solar Fire which had never been throned as the Christos, but placed under the episcopal chair as a footstool, was now raised up to its rightful place as the Great Lord of the Flame.

Also the flame of man's mind, his risen golden arc; being the heavenly Fire endowed upon man, now recognised and brought forth as a Star of first heavenly magnitude. But the glorious radiation of the Central Sun, pouring down upon man as the fired EL Waters, that which will be the means in time, of him rising up out of his dungeon which he has allowed that band of fanatics, to force him down into. (See the plate in col. 1)

The Shining Diamond

THOSE who think that they are saints as they peer into their reflection in the waters; causing their tails to becoming docked, to prevent them fouling the seed. But those who can rise up, and seek their way back to the Garden of Eden, will find that now it will have become as the reborn solar Void, through the Hydrogen Waters. For the original Fount was that Garden, man's own spiritual mind; which when endowed with the Fatherhood as heavenly Fire by Merope, became lost to man and the heights. Now by her once again the Fires drawn down, and man raised up through the Solar Light, the raised up Arc of the Sine, which verifies the mystical words of John 12 v. 32 "And I, if I be lifted up (by one soul) from the earth, will draw all men unto me."

So now all is duly reinstated, with Adoniscus risen up, whereby God and man have been reunited by Merope's struggle and mastery. Thirteen thousand years of slavery now redeemed and crowned by heavenly wisdom, Hosanna in the Highest cry the Heavenly Host. Thus the Armada had brought its crowned results, for many men and women would awaken from the "death" sleep, while others not awakened, would be saved from becoming as a pygmy race by the Sine and planes being raised up. All brought about by the Cosmic heights being raised up through the wisdom brought into birth by Merope.

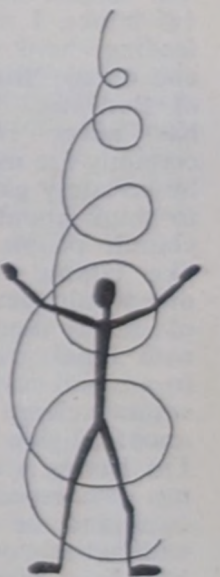

But although the planes would be raised up, and these souls saved from the worst, they would automatically go back upon themselves as they wheeled up on the spiral of the circus of animals. The soul revolving up onto another mind plane, but blank and blind with no wisdom to lead them across the desert of exodus, into a land of mind, symbolised as milk and honey.

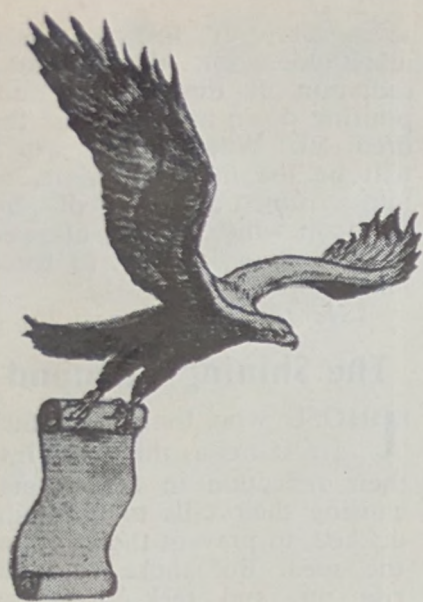

So the wise man will now prepare himself by seeking into the where and whyfor of life, that they can set the alchemicalisation into action, (See the plate on page 3, cols. 4 and 5) driving it onto a mind point. Creeping into the mind igloo, created from the down-pouring powers, that are heat-cold when they arrive.

Man having to melt the ice, that the Waters can flow through him, but unless driven by a mind purpose, powers that run wild, and end up in the rock of his calcified spine, that has lost its sensitivity. Accounting for the much spinal trouble that man is now afflicted with, but also what those stupid pirates in the vatican are doing to their congregation.

The pomegranate as the seventh Chakra, nothing more than a wallflower vase, not the shining Diamond as now presented to Merope. The radium meteorite that descended in the storm, now her radiant mind.

Readers' Letters

THIS month is our anniversary: for 5 years we have published the GAZETTE, and now so successful have we become and so much in demand that we feel sure that it will not be long before our 50th year will be but a memory of the past. To celebrate such an occasion a special 20 page issue is being published and in addition a bumper number is being printed so as to provide a number of new Readers with a gift Issue. To these a most hearty welcome is given and if you wish to be given any help or advice as to how to study then you only have to contact our Staff and every possible assistance will be given to you. To those who are in London, you are given an invitation to attend either of the two lectures that are held weekly; On Sundays at 6.15 for 6.30 p.m. and on Wednesday at 7 p.m. for 7.15 p.m. Both lectures will last until approximately 9 p.m.

Great Interest has been aroused by the articles on the papacy, and in particular the letter from Friar Benet of Wadhurst Sussex. Miss Owen of Wallasey Cheshire has written an open letter to the Friar which is more than of usual interest. She is a lady well known to the Editor, and well versed in the wisdom. Fearless too in her view she realises the necessity to clear the air of this polluted catholic atmosphere. To her and thousands who have given their support, both by letter and by phone, as well as their thoughts, will come the reward of their Faith and their Belief. At least their lamps are alight and they are not lying asleep... "WHEN I COME," the MESSAGE OF THE CHRISTOS OF THE AQUARIAN AGE, THE LORD MAITREYA.

Readers Acclaim Drive against Catholics

A. J. Ives,
Strafford, London, E.15.

Recently I have been given a few sample copies of your very excellent "Occult Gazette." To tell you the truth we (that is the friend who gave me them and myself) thought that the general reading content went over our heads so to speak although we are very interested in Spiritualism. But myself now I can find that I can understand it better every month. I like the bold printing and the high class quality paper that it is printed on, and your illustrations are excellent.

Your first rate articles about Papacy you should have a lot more of, also about the Church of England. Myself, I am, interested in comparative religions, one of my pet subjects; I read Arthur Findlay's books time and again, one finds the subject more condensed in his books. I reckon his are the leading books on Churchism and on the 'Black Coated army of Parasites.' To anyone who has never read them they certainly are missing something, he certainly gave me something to think about and argue with church people about, but it's like talking to a brick wall, one would get more sense out of it. I used to correspond with Findlay about the subject in a small way. I've written to several clergy round my way about religion that shook them. I'm having a small crusade on my own especially on Catholicism, and the very best of luck with what you are doing and let's have plenty more...

I don't know if you have read any of Avro Manhattan's books on the subject, he has Horsetail to give you that energy awakening and drive so essential to start you moving. Then I would strongly advise you bathing in very hot Marigold Petals or Flowers, or if this is not necessary to immerse all the parts that are suffering from this chronic skin disorder. The Petals themselves should be in the bath, for convenient cleaning place in a muslin bag.

This herb should be drunk every day if necessary together with Elder Flowers which are also excellent for the skin. This bathing with Marigold takes time but is absolutely first class in effect as can be seen from a reader who writes in gratefully from America, Mr. Michael Gobats. Lastly if the blood is in bad disorder from taking the wrong diet and Mrs. P. has been having meat then I would suggest too some Buchu and Dandelion as cleansers whilst she takes great care with her diet.

written several; one, I can think of now, 'Catholic Imperialism and World Freedom,' is taken from documents and papers to be seen at various English, American, government offices and other places, to do with Roman Catholicism and Big Business, Politics etc. founded on fact; how Catholicism is behind everything from Ireland, and all the countries to do with Catholics or not, how they encouraged Hitler and Mussolini, Franco, and Jananese duplicity etc. A book well worth reading.

Mrs. Rachel Welch,
Washington, D.C., U.S.A.

May I offer you my profound and joyful congratulations on the marvellous improvement in form and expression shown in the current issue which came yesterday. It is a marvellous breakthrough out of the realm of conventional "Messages from the Spirit World," into that of clear thought and lucid and elegant expression.

While the article on Popery will doubtless come to many of your readers as startling new, its old hat to me. From my earliest childhood as the child of a Lutheran clergyman, such information was daily discussed along with the means by which this Monstrous Evil could be exorcised in our lifetimes and the neutral elements of which it is formed, reconstituted into a desirable image and entity.

S. Pearson, Croydon.

I look upon Gladys I. Spearman-Cook as a shining star in our world of dim lights, and I read with interest her writings concerning orthodox religions being a barrier to Man's true path to the Supreme. I read the "Black Scorpion of the Human Race" and the Challenge concerning the Roman Catholics which in principle I fully agree. I am not a Christian but I have been given to understand that the penultimate gate one has to pass through before self-abnegation was the 'Surrender of Opinion' and it seems unbecoming to slate the Roman Catholics or any one or any religion in such a way, also to go to the Earl's Court Hall spoiling for a fight. Mrs. Spearman-Cook knows as she has so rightly said she is the Instrument of the Holy Powers and she knows her own meditations will eventually put this matter right perhaps through the Archangel Zadkiel the prince over the Heaven for justice.

An evil thought as we know is not fought against as it only retaliates but is gently put from our minds where it then cannot survive. You were at the Earl's Court, Mr. Averill, with your knowledge, how could you expect these young priests and nuns to answer your questions, you know that they and most of the old priests are spiritual infants, so steeped are they in their fixed ideas, if it were possible to have an organised debate or monthly debates they or some would quickly realise how much their religion is barring the progress of mankind, and would seem to be the better way.

After reading the two articles The Kiss of Death and the Armada, I am sure that Mr. Pearson will change his mind. The only way to change any imprint on Time is by the Law of Prowess, the law of Occult Chivalry, and thus the greatest of Occultists, Mrs. Spearman-Cook had to challenge and prove her superiority in wisdom and knowledge. No gardener allows weeds, fungus plants, or worse fast growing parasites, to invade their garden otherwise the evil weed will soon spread and do untold damage. The only way is to root out with every means possible. Editor.

Rev. B. Jones,
Pennsylvania, U.S.A.

Regarding the Occult Gazette, its pages contain much wisdom, it is far over the heads of the so-called men-of-God theologians, for they like parrots, only prate what they have heard or read, because they are not really gifted with spiritual insight to be able to become so inspired as to allow some spirit to vibrate upon their supra-conscious so that, we find, as Jesus rightfully said: "The blind are leading the blind."

Mrs. Lana Fine,
Los Angeles, California, U.S.A.

Rec'd the July 1965 O.G., and what a wonderful LOT of knowledge is revealed therein. The PAPALISM is something people should KNOW AT THIS TIME, whether it shocks them to pieces. How true, have found papers and books on some of this in a HUSH, HUSH way; now it COMES OUT! Time man knew he had been enslaved for centuries, isn't it? As well as all the rest of the good instructive articles. Glad I was introduced to this paper and teachings, which can only come from the HIGHER PLANES and MASTERS. No one else would DARE to state things so plainly. To all this I say MAN WAKE UP, KNOW AND "DO."

Miss J. Marentic of Chicago,
Illinois, U.S.A.

In regard to the Pope practising evil knowingly, I said they have to study for years and years before they are ordained and my intelligence tells me why should they practise an untruth knowingly. I said couldn't it be that the Pope was practising what he truly believes? I mean couldn't it be his personal belief along with the teachings?...

An Open Letter to Friar Benet

In last month's issue there was published a letter from a Friar Benet of the Xaverian Brothers, Wadhurst, Sussex, who wrote criticising and making fun of the July article on Papalism the Black Scorpion of the Human Race. This letter replies.

Dear Friar,

Judging by your reply to the Occult Gazette, it is quite obvious that you are not only spiritually undeveloped but also mentally retarded. How a man in your position could write such utter drivel is astounding. There is not one constructive sentence throughout your letter, that is why we are determined to erase the mentally and spiritually sick from holding a position of teaching the masses. You are a disgrace to your profession and a danger to your novices. A child could not have replied in such a naive fashion.

Talking about illiterates, could any one be more ignorant to sell a soul a picture costing £1 of a man supporting a cross, with a bonus thrown in by having their name put in a golden book. Does this entitle as soul to ascend to Heaven, if so, the person who purchased this bargain should have had a pair of wings to get there and a couple of Green Shield Stamps! It's your funny little golden book you don't want to take seriously, not our mature Gazette for the price of 1/- (now 2/-).

I beg of you to take seriously the tragedy that overcame an American President in 1963, who was more than promoting this mediaeval religion along with affairs of the state. The tragedy which ensued from this obnoxious practice was unbelievable and heartrending to a Madam Noo of Vietnam, her husband and brother-in-law. She cursed the President who, knowingly or unknowingly had brought her utter confusion and misery. Within a month of that curse he died the same way as President Noo and his brother, assassinated. The assassins motives have never been found out because they come from a higher source, and any creature standing deliberately in the path of a higher source must be removed, and furthermore, pay the price for bringing tragedy and obstruction. These higher powers are utterly devastating and wholly purging, and not to be trifled with.

As an urgent duty, to a higher source, show this letter to your novices, thereby giving them at least a chance to let the moths of this antiquated religion escape from their 'GOD HEAD.'

(signed) Miss Rita Owens.

N.B. You may say it seems the custom for the 'Big Country' to liquidate their Presidents, but then none of the others were so young and so promising to the promoting of the Catholic faith as the late president. This man's death has meant the severing of the Catholic chains, which were manacled the World. Canada, Pearson, catholic; Spain, Franco, catholic; Italy, Pope, catholic; Ireland, catholic; Austria, catholic. Since America is the richest country in the world, it's not difficult to see how under the late President, events were not too difficult to shape in the interests of the Catholic faith, but he forgot about the Higher Powers; don't you. I was working in America 1963 to 1964, and saw the tragic play enacted on the stage of life. Not the least of the tragedy was Madam Noo's call for help on the television. You can see the nest of hornets President Johnson walked into and what a tough time he's had over Vietnam. I'm glad to see in today's paper 7th August that he's gradually drawing himself out of this HELL.

Healing Successes with Herbs

I. A. Ezechukwu, Hackney, London, a student from Nigeria.

I am writing to thank you for your letter of the 4th instant and especially for the herb parcel which has also arrived, I took two Garlic pills this morning and I can only say the effect is amazing. It is 1 p.m. now and I have not even coughed once! I shall take the rest of the herbs as prescribed and hope they will prove equally successful.

The following letters tell the story of how co-operation and sound sense and faith in Spirit Healing and Herbal treatment brought perfect results. The letters tell their own story.

Michael J. Gobats,
Virginia, Minnesota, U.S.A.

(letter arrived 8th July).

I have an urgent request to make of you... I have been involved in an accident... the fan apparatus struck the knuckle of the middle finger. This infected and was drawn out with Plantain... but movement of knuckle prevents growth of new tissue. Have you some balm lotion etc. which I may use for more substantial recovery. Please refer to me air mail.

Editor's Reply.

(9th July despatches by air 1/2 lb. Marigold Flowers).

...I have placed you immediately on the Healing List. Now I would advise using 1/2 lb. of Marigold Flowers, not only can you make a special poultice of this but I would advise bathing it constantly in the herb, leaving the herb actually in the water... I am quite certain that you will again have the healing of the skin.

M. J. Gobats writes on July 21st.

You may inform James after following his instructions with the Marigold Flowers, results are wonderful. Although the wound is not completely closed the skin is growing in nicely... Gladys I. Spearman-Cook's impetus is taking effect here also.

1. The predominant catholic empire is falling and cracking at the seams locally. Materially they are also having quite a time.

2. Astrology and incarnation are open and popular subjects here in this section where I reside.

3. (about the young and their music)

4. Diet is becoming the first and foremost diagnosis in the hospitals. This is a very slow change taking place but nevertheless happening.

These are a few changes among many. It is only the Gladys Spearman-Cook's great work that the masses on the whole can be salvated. As one who has received many of her benefits and know of the things that can be had it is only the ignorant that abounds such as with me.

New Enthusiasts

Mrs. G. Feakes, Kent.

Thank you very much for your kindness and generosity in sending me the herbs and for the papers, with which I am delighted. The illustrations are lovely and I know the literature will inspire and guide me along the path of service to others.

I was quite stunned with astonishment when I saw the portrait of Mrs. Gladys Spearman-Cook, for although I have never seen this lady in the flesh, her face with its tranquil serenity is no stranger to me in my dreams, except that she then appears younger and even more beautiful. Ever since I can remember, I have occasionally had dreams that I was outside my body looking down at my sleeping self, and then I go to a place where I meet the same people over and over again, whom I have never met whilst awake.

Unlike some psychics, I am unable to will myself to do this, or if I do I cannot remember anything when I return, for usually they have the same pattern. I see a vivid ball of brilliant emerald green light coming towards me, then a sweet silvery voice asks me if I will go or stay, but I always want to go. I drift slowly from the window, and rise upwards by lifting my arms high, then stretch them out before me to follow the light. After a time I put my arms to my side, and float down until I feel warm sand beneath my feet, then walk up marble steps into a vast hall, with an altar at the far end. I can rarely remember what happens or what is said, although I sometimes hold on to one or two sentences, but the faces I do recall, as over the years they have become so familiar to me.

Mr. M. A. C. Saleh, Colombo, Ceylon.

I am beholden to the sender of Occult Gazette, as it contains facts and features of lasting value. They are helpful to know, through process of introspection, the mystery and miracle of the mind as the highest human heritage. Moreover, it serves as a perennial source of inspiration to students in search of Truth to concentrate on the mystic meaning of manifold manifestation.

Knowledge in art and science expands beyond measure and evolution proceeds unabated to apprehend the millennium of the Majesty with vision and widest scope in the unlimited vastness of the field to traverse and to complete the mission of man.

Now one has to probe into the domain of Karma and the doctrine of reincarnation and unravel the hidden part of human activity through psychic research and the power of occultism, which bear the stamp of superiority in spiritual enlightenment. By super-sensory perception, tangible results have been revealed as a testimony of truth.

Ceylon is blessed with a variety of precious and semi-precious stones, mined from our gem-pits and these stones are credited with occult power.

I shall be pleased to send one as a birthday gift to Madam Gladys I. Spearman-Cook, who, as the medium of Ra-Men-Ra, (now The Great Eagle), lecture series, has impressed me most profoundly with the simple advice on the matter of unfoldment in her illuminating REMINISCENCES IN PSYCHO-SOMATIC CHANGES.

N. I. Adirije, Lagos, Nigeria.

I have gone through many articles in the copies of the Magazine sent to me. They represent a superb literature for future reference and for illumination; yet my problem is not tackled. The beginner that I am in the study of life demands such lessons and literature that are straight and not figurative, and which are also gradual in unfolding. Most important facts in your magazine are under the cover of several strange names to me and are therefore not easily discernible. In fact too many things require being elucidated; nonetheless, I am subscribing for one year.

I shall be grateful to learn if it will be possible for one to undergo a definite course of unfolding his/her natural talents and capabilities. If, on the other hand, the lectures enumerated in your introductory brochure cover all that is necessary, I would still like to know with which I am to begin.

You may need to be within me to realise my degree of anxiety in this quest; you would do everything in your power to accelerate my accent, over which I will never be ungrateful.

Every reader meets these new problems and it is wise for all to begin with the Introductory and Elementary Series of Lectures, so that a thorough grounding is begun to build the freedom of investigation and self-responsibility. All readers too are strongly advised to seek a basic knowledge of Astrological terms and symbols, as well as be aware of the elementary meanings.

Mr. J. J. Ebong, Port Harcourt, E. Nigeria.

Once again I am entreating your goodness to register me as a regular reader of the Occult Gazette. From a friend I stole a look at the courses the Gazette embraces among its teachings. They are just the subjects I am most interested in from my School days. I was refused the address by the friend! Sorry to confess I had "to steal" the slip out of anxiety!! Poor me!

I wrote to your School requesting for sample copies last year. None came. Maybe you sent copies, 'good friends' might have taken. Whatever the case, please oblige me with my humble request this time. I shall appreciate a copy portrait of the School's founder, and other useful accessories relevant to my desire to get at the real knowledge of the Occult Science.

Copies were certainly despatched to you, as our record shows; however am very delighted that you plucked up courage to take such "desperate" measures. Editor.

THE LUNA WEALTH

results as a spiralling motion onto the fourth dimension, brought forth. All the way along, all had been differentiation, and We could not check the unfoldment; for no one made an effort to build up a perceptory vessel of mind discrimination. So that when the time came for the change, only one was ready, and even they had to be super-helped to get round the hair-bend corner.

This has been a far more tricky move towards establishing a Stream, for it was a complete change, not just an added accomplishment. If this one had gone blind, the whole of this world would have remained in the Sea of Sargossa, adhered to the black rock. So now you have to thank your God, whatever status He be, for the struggles of this reborn Merope. For now the world is saved, and all mankind will be lifted up; but what she wants are faithful friends who will support her while she labours and bring forth her unification.

What she brings may appear fantastic; they are, until the Waters descend, and bring into birth, in the darkness of matter, the young shoots of the new growth. For nothing can be stated, but what CAN come forth, for no soul could utter but what is there; the difficulty is of stating it on the right side of the picture; which is that of the Cosmic birth.

The taking of the soul's feet off the magnetic rocks as they

THE RAZOR'S EDGE

The fight to fly and master the magnetic force of earth's memories and desire that ever hold the soul in tight embrace. One day each must look upward and fight to unite, not with the lunar coils, but the fresh Solar Dew to give birth, each one, to the Light. The soul born of Mind, free to go whither the Greater Will directs.

"All now is of the Razor's edge, where one slip and your feet are severed from their running endeavour, finding them anchored to the Magnetic Rocks..." and his manhood is lost. (See text in col. 4).

seek to fly, is the problem of change now taking place. For souls are held by multitudes of roots into the dark and dingy past, where the masculine principle is brought forth, but was made captive by the feminine Race. If they had gone forward by the instructions of the Mother Goddess, helping them by the Phallic worship, they would have come through and unfolded into the Adam Race. But they (See the plate in col. 3) turned downwards into the Seth Race, and forced the Goddess down with them. So the Race went blind, generating through flesh, until the end of TIME.

Then after man had made his fill and gorged himself sick, another bode was made in the time of unification. The way was very close all along the line, with one suffering untold agonies and pain, as the great powers burnt away old ideas to get the heavens cleared. But also to have their powers established onto the one, who was left to carry the whole burden.

That was the major struggle, getting the heavens cleared, for once that was done the way was ready for the earth to be bathed, with new life.

Then all mankind could be saved as the Waters descended, and opened up their lost inner wealth. For man was so gorged, he was impossible to approach in any other way. Then she who was the Martha,*5 had now to justify her toils, by rolling the waters into a wave, to get the foaming crests; which is the spinning answers as the waves roll up onto the beach. For this is Neptune demanding his dues, in the breaking through into the 8th; for that is his mysterious wealth, the right side of the picture. He is the creator of illusion, that can be rolled into Solar infusion. If not it falls to his alluring waters, and falls into disillusionment.

The Neptunian Turmoil

All now is of the razor's edge, where one slip and your feet are severed from their running endeavour; finding them anchored, to the magnetic rocks, and the weeds gathering up fast around them.

(See the plate in col. 3) Where with the sun fast sinking, and the shades of night drawing nigh, the soul was now bidding for the realms of the mysterious, where the unknown was made known to them.

For the solar and lunar are the two luminaries brought into birth at the beginning of TIME; when Neptune as the Emotional waters, came forth to roll into action, but Eve slipped and created the luna as the lower earth infusion. So moon and Venus were the alternating action to bring Neptune into rolling perfection; for the Bull refused to labour, for such a hoary and ruthless driver.

Hence this explains the mystery of the triad of Water, where Cancer and Scorpio vie for the child, that Venus must carry up to the heights. And even then wrestle at the wicket gate, as Pisces bids the last favour, that Neptune can become one nearer to his driving the milk white horses; for the black steeds of Arabic blood, are wild mad creatures. Yet the very wealth of the alternating action, that which will bring him into starry grandeur, up into the heights, away from those dark stormy luna waters.

All is the twist of the coin as to which way it will fall, for when the head is uppermost, Neptune is rolling high. But when the tail lashes forth, he is in the dungeon deep, running through caverns of dark waters, lost to the azure sky.

Here we see the mystery of becoming, all being the split second of unification, where this and that are no longer form, but the foamy rhythm of the abstract. The soul becoming in mind and heart beat, where it is and radiates its knowing, and moths gather round the lighted candle, ever singeing their gaudy wings. While frogs come to the edge of the pool, and drink the rich foamy waters, and go away drunk and croak all night to the amazement of the lizards. Then when the day breaks, find themselves blind as the sun tops the mountain pass. To jump into the pool right down to the bottom, and hide away under a rock; there to sleep off the upper waters, that now seem but a dream.

This is the vast expanse between the lower and the upper waters, where man drinks and seeks to fire, that the rainbow comes into a radiant arc, with a pot of gold at its base. Then the soul can climb up from one side to another; unifying silver and gold, into the glorious garment of Kismet. Then the great Lord can go forth, clad in his radiant hue, with life and purpose fully justified as tomorrow rolls into view.

And so time comes and now is gone, with timelessness looming Immortally onto the horizon; with man standing stupefied on the brink of the changing Waters. For he has never seen anything ever but death, a stark cold reality of the morgue. Now he is facing Life eternal, and ever-lasting profusion; the gifts of God which have ever been his, and of which he now is the ultimate conclusion.

From depths to heights, dark to light, he is being swung in mass alternation, that now demands courage and breadth of belief, as he swings from one side of the river to the other. For no longer he trusts God; Atlantis lays bare, but the swing will bring him to REALITY, and there upon the sun drenched beach, he can dry out his long dripping hair. For the wealth of God lays all around him, as the luna waters recede, and the Neptunian foam rolls back and forth, imitating the mysteries of TIME.

THE ARMADA

or The HIVING of the WATERS

This hitherto unpublished article was especially directed through the Pen of Gladys J. Spearman-Cook by the Lord Maitreya, the Lord of Central Sun, the unified Spiritual Wealth of the Cosmic Hierarchies.

A HEAVY pall hung o'er the City, life was still and stagnant, for heaven and earth were being pulled asunder as changes rent the air. An unseen war that would change the whole of life, and help all men come out of a deep and dense rut. For a long period of time man has been caught in the tentacles of religion, and held like a slave in its grasp, not being able to turn one way or another, for it ruled their very breath. That which should have given them life, only gave them fear and limitation, shutting out the glories of the heavens and any hope of spiritual resuscitation.

Until this evil was removed from the life of man, the Heavenly Ones could not complete the great task of reorientating the whole of the Macroprosopus. A rebirth that was touching every plane, vibration and issue, giving complete new life to the Nations. For all changes start with the Cosmos, and continue with man himself, but all take place in the depths as states of mental conception. Minds fierce and strong that wager back and forth, that move the way for the Elements to drive their issue; thus change the interaction of the inbirth, that was moving their magnetic poles.

This inborn evil called religion, that was holding man like a slave, knew not of this dynamic possibility, for they only saw a dead god on a cross and not the true conception of Divinity. They had ruled so long their own way, they knew not the depth of INTENSITY that ruled the way of life. That of expansion and unfoldment that lifted man up to his own heavenly revelation, the true and holy way. The Rhythm of the Spheres that showed man the way to life and unity, the continuity of life.

But furthermore, how all the Pleroma of life was born from the Blackness of Space; where from the very DEPTHS of BEING, Life issued forth all its glories into being. Then set motion moving as it followed its course from HERE into NOW; driving its way down into being as the mulaprakriti, the Parabrahmic Root becoming human breath.

Thus the time had come when changes were being enforced from Heights to depths of being, with all taking place in the depths through one human conception. Yet the entire outcome of the Chain of Causes, the revolving nucleus of Being to becoming, that was to become the glories of creation in the depths. For it is not just a human whim, but a Cosmic Action of Evolution, often well over-due. For man is slow in his step of rebound, even if his thought is quick.

So here was a rebound that was very much over-due, that was moving fast into its rebirth, with one soul, the instrument of the Heavenly ONES, being the pawn moving all into action. She being the cause of all the changes, that would soon issue forth from that action; that which would bring untold freedom to man, once it was consummated. Breaking up with an electrical hammer, states that were hemming man in, thereby preventing the Waters rising. Thus closing down all the ways of expansion that would bring health and joy to the Nation.

Temple of Light

THE scene that we must now enter into is a room in a dynamic Temple of LIGHT, where charts and files, instrument that measure and gauge, could be seen everywhere. While others, that reorientated the tone and tenor of every vibration in the Universe, were there as the symbol of what continually took place. This room was the hub of this enormous University, where man was guided and remoulded. But even fed and resuscitated by the Laws that were given birth, by the Master that laid their decree to paper. For as another Cause moved into birth, would it bring change and need for new action, as a revolving state of continuity. For changes had not graced the FACE of TIME for some considerable period of creation.

Hence the pall, weight and density, that hung over the city and clung around that Temple as the air was quickening with possibility, was due to two opposing minds vying for the way of direction. One to retain what they as a sect had held for 1600 years, the other the point of change coming direct from the heavens.

Yet both the means of two armies going into active battle; (See the plate above) but not as upon a battlefield of earth, where blood would flow and lives be lost, but where man would "die," then awaken to the greater possibilities of life. A battle of vibration, where the mind of two souls held the lever and switches that moved all into change or failure, where lights went on and off in change and rebound as the move gathered momentum. Yet vibrations of entire difference of frequency, as one was of the black knight and the other of the white.

In the room of that Temple, that reached right up into the heavens, much was astir, for white robed Masters moved around looking into files, peering deep into instruments, and watching a mysterious tape machine. Here recordings were ever moving forth, with lines and curves gracing its moving word, indicating of changes or action. Yet all symbolic of the moving vibrations revolving in the Cosmos; while many figures came in and went out, silently peering into the activity of this throbbing room. For it was the hub of the moving Universe, the droving hive of the changes of law and life.

On the walls were many queer knobs and levers, with lights of different colours. They that were ever moving in and out, or changing their tone of intensity. While jars and bottles stood here and there, with specimens of growing life; queer creatures that were being studied to see their reaction to certain modes of life. For this was the laboratory of the Cosmos in one capacity, but in all others according to the moment of necessity. This Room was the centre hub of the Masters of the heavens, those who came down from going by a machine typing out script after script. At which sat Merope*2 driving the electrical momentum on and on by her intensity of belief.

Yet ever a state of direction of mind from a higher Source, for this was how the direction of Causation was ever moving its wheels and pulleys, that were the unseen means of action in the inter-vibratory changes of life. Those that were at that moment moving fast into a state of action, waiting for the climax of Cause and Effect, to bring the signal for the charge to begin.

For many figures were now moving around that room, watching dials swinging back and forth, and lights announcing certain states of action. While the tapping of the tape machine was fast but rhythmic in its action, with here and there lights flashing on and off, announcing momentous action everywhere. Then suddenly a light flashed in a large globe suspended from the ceiling, which caused the Masters, Merope and two of her officers to gather around a large table in the centre of the room. All the lights and levers including the tape machine all ceased to move and rotate, for the moment now was for human and Spirit action that would set the Elements moving on the Waters.

All became sealed, which amounted to twelve, for the CHIEF, the Great Flame, was directing, through the mind of Merope. Then each leant forward into the cup of their hands as their elbows were placed upon the table, making a uniform continuity around that dramatic table. Then by directive thought, as from frequency unto frequency, instruction came down from the heights, and she directed the issue. For at that moment the "Spanish waters were hiving," causing vast changes to move into place that would change the face of the Universe.

The Great Fatherhood

AT that moment the opposition as Roman Catholicism were sending their fleet out onto the waters of action; for battleships grey, large and pompous, with flags flying high, were going forth as of old to a sacred war. Their guns were all set, for their consultations of their commissions had ended in a schism, with some already being impregnated with the Waters coming down from the heights. Causing changes to move many in their tone of action, while their leader, a fixed ritual-minded-individual, blank and blind, with no idea of vibration, Spirit or Hierarchical Powers, still adamantly called for no changes.

As large boats and small boats of mind thought from the enemy set forth upon those Waters, a more outstanding spectacle could not be witnessed. Then the Waters began to roll, rise higher and higher, until seas like mountains lashed those boats into utter chaos. Then lightning forked out of the heavens like the driving of Hell's fury, with blinding rain and wind that howled and roared, as never known before.

*2 Merope is the original Spirit Status of Mind Light that is part of the growth of Mrs. Spearman-Cook that existed before the fall of the Fire and the lowering of mind frequency unto the level of the beast. Every soul has to find that part of themselves that is their Garden of Eden status, and awaken it by discarding of the best in matter and mastering its winds and waves.

THE COSMIC POWERS VICTORIOUS

GRAPHICALLY is the battle portrayed as on the one side is Gladys Spearman-Cook united to her Spirit Origin, and now as Merope, divinely led, is the nose for the VAST COSMIC ENERGY to enter down through her Mind to utterly destroy the old established religious authorities. Here is seen this one soul facing and fighting the solid rock deadness of papal thought, as there were directed through her upraised mind frequency the EL Fires as the Waters of rebirth sweeping away the old ships of life, putting to flight their fleet of earth might. By her upraising her mind to become as unto the wife of Jupiter she could claim the chariot of Juno, driven by the 1000 eyed Peacocks, the all glorious vision now endowed unto her after she had mastered the EL Fires. Then as a Daniel she could be directed by the Great Central Sun and the Hierarchical Elements as THEIR VOICE to bring new Life and Fire to the dying Earth. As she called down the ELEMENTS so THEY responded to her Faith and mountains were moved. (See text in cols. 2 and 5).
