DIVINE PLEROMA

as the AMBROSIA of the GODS

by Gladys I. Spearman-Cook*

AS THE FIERY LIFE DROVE down to the depths in its rolling, curling inter-changing rhythm, the internal life of the Atomic Waters, sought for the man and his wife. Those who would give birth to the positive life fluid, that the gods could be fed with the Ambrosia of Life. The awakened seed in the meninges brought to an illuminated state.

The king crowned with a golden wealth, that is the purpose of the Human LIFE.

The royal divine Essence of the Central Sun, the Stream that is feeding all men by its divine atomic nucleus. The positive life fluid as the Hydrogen pure Energy, giving unto man the new Element of creation, that he can begin life anew on the plane of light. That which has been elevated by Merope and vulcanised by the pitch-blende of Vulcan. Thus fortified by the Uranian Fire that intensifies its powers of explosion. Therefore man now is well prepared to start the new road, to wind up the THREAD that will give him a place in the new world of divine Fatherhood.

A mystery, yet the dynamic conclusion wrought by the Mystics of the Brahmic Cycle of life. That Earth like all other planes of differentiated revolution, must be called back into conclusive life. For by that the Universe evolves, and life continues anew. But the question is, what is "conclusive life?" Is it a statement of figurative unification? Or a blending together that brings all to a state of utter perfection on that Plane of Creation, and then starts all over again.

The latter is the "conclusive life," with ALL as a state of light, for it is the perfection of the atomic spark as the nucleus of LIFE. That which becomes on that stage of Evolution, as are all drawn "in" as a unified life of Beginning. Hence becomes the Perfection of Brahma, the Solar Life of the Solar Age. For all is of a Cosmic creation ever rolling down back and forth, bringing LIFE into manifestation as the becoming state of BEING.

Editorial The Living Christos

THOSE who have been following and partaking in the Teachings of Universal Philosophy have a very grave responsibility this coming 1966. The last few months have been the months of the LAW, whereby the meeting of self in all its actuality and bareness should have been experienced. All the efforts of the past few years have been coming home to roost, and there should have been laid bare the true heart purpose of the soul. Many, in the stark reality of their own reflection, will have been staggered at the revelation as the LAW showed them their empty heart, and the emptiness and bareness of their larder. For the rising of the corn does not depend on the outward efforts but upon the inner heart intent. If for self and its personal glory then the rewards will be short and devastating in their reaping. If for vanity, pride, power or riches then no garments of the spirit will have been built at all.

This meeting of the true Soul, the recognition of what really has taken place, may well be deep bitter waters and might cause the soul to turn away from the revealing Sun-light. If rebelliousness does this at any time during the next few months, then beware of the grave that you dig for this an act the expiation of which is by long and arduous labour. It is NOT the mere reading of the Word that is the road to take when we commence the road of Return and the obeying of the rules to "Follow ME."

Each hour the Martha element of the soul, the conscious mind that has the daily responsibility for spinning the activity of the mind as the Bees spin for their Queen, must ever be labouring in creative intent. Keeping the fires of purpose and heart alight, stoking up the determination. Fight, zest and zeal, will alone be the means and door through which the Spirit can penetrate and saturate the consciousness, so that the soul awakes to the Royalty and Divinity of his and each man's journey.

As the Scales of Justice took away the blindfolds from Justice's Eyes and forced the sight of things the soul would have given much not to have looked at, the true Manhood has the chance to come forth.

Will he build and create as he has been taught?

Will he be able to bring into birth the guts, honour, sincerity and Will which he is forced to recognise have been missing from his nature?

Life has been too easy and false for man as he stood back making women toil, suffer and weep bitterness. But now all her fruits of labour and toil, her sufferings and her heart-bleeding, all will be of support and aid as she, NOT man, now leads the way back home to the Kingdom of Merope, the risen Vesta of ages back.

For 13,000 years the male element has led the way by selfish taking. Far from building the God-nature within and becoming of the servant to the Spirit, man has turned away from the source which alone gives him life and sustenance. Now Man has to be responsible for his own feeding of energy and life-power, and, unless he calls down of the Fires of the Central Sun to feed him and maintain the etheric body, he will be missing of the food of the spirit, and nothing of any kind can take its place. The Solar Light alone can feed man as the earth slowly spirals upwards into the final union with the Central Sun, with him always returning his wealth to the Heights.

* * * *

NO drugs, stimulants, foods, or even another's powers will be able to be taken, for the LAW has been inexorably set... that each man must find his own way back and that will be by following through the forest and the swamps that the Pathfinder has mapped, for she and she alone daily experienced the ghastly agony of being the Scapegoat to the Gods and teaching man to become his own cup-bearer... the drinking up of his own consciousness bringing all experienced into becoming of full awareness so that the Light of the mind can be part of the Seed-Atom's radiance of Love and Life.

There is no form and there is no earth but that of the nature of form, and such is so much of the illusion that the man finds himself very very quickly caught up with the powerful magnetic drive that is ever issuing forth from the earth. This can quickly be the means of swamping the whole soul nature, ensnaring the mind into becoming fed by such, thereby pinning its winged flight to the ground.

These four months until the turn of the spring may be the biggest lesson and teaching course the human race has had, and it is up to him not only to take such but to learn quickly by it. Self-recognition and the realisation that the individual does not matter, and should only seek to be the servant and follower of the awakened god life in the meninges of the brain, will slowly lead all men to awaken with a new mind, the solar born mind where thinking is not to memorise, but to become the radiant son of the SUN. The electrified mind action that uplifts, rejuvenates and radiates LIFE and SOLAR LIGHT where ever the soul moves.

Once this has been accomplished each individual should slowly but firmly tread all his beliefs and faith into the ground, each making his own furrow, field and castle ever weaving the golden garment of the Light of the SPIRIT.

It is this Journey that Gladys Spearman-Cook, as the reborn Merope, our Teacher, has fought so hard to accomplish and has fought until the very breath in her body has at times been missing so great was the pain. Man must do likewise and he is to be forced to follow her pathway exactly, treading the mountain path and the deep tracks in the forest unknown, ever blending the heights and the depths of the earth into one glorious Light.

The Sooner we make this a part of our inner existence, so much so that it becomes as natural a daily occurrence as breathing, the sooner we will be able to build each his temple of Light. For every man must learn to be his own PRIEST, to reverence and to revere the works and the way she has built, until in Awe we knock at the final doorway to meet the realm of our Lady.

NOW BY HER EFFORTS THE CHRISTOS IS ALIVE, AND RADIATING THE GREAT LIGHT AND FLARES OF THE CENTRAL SUN, THE LORD OF THE FLAME OF THE ELECTRO-ATOMIC MIND LIGHT.

Hence it is the ever becoming Divine Essence of the Atomic Divinity, now known as the Central Sun...with the eternal nucleus of the Generative LIFE Stream, flowing forth from its internal Source of Rebirth. This is repeated in man—the life essence as the form creation—as the heart purpose that is ever rising up as the Christos living FIRE, to replenish and rejuvenate that Source of Creation as an ever flowing Stream.

The Lion of Judah

THUS Leo as the Lion of Judah as the divine Fiery Seed of life, is the nucleus of this unfolding Stream of eternal Growth. That brought into birth by Merope at the Beginning of TIME. The Divine Pleroma that became LIFE to become, as MIND in the Cosmic manifestation. That which began as the glorious nucleus of Heliopolis, but fell back into the Waters of the creational life that brought the beast into birth. To rise again in the life of Jacob, where Leah gave birth to Judah, and she bore no more for the time.

For she gave birth to the nucleus of LIFE, the living FIRE that was to become the acme and royal divinity of the segregated life. The ever flowing force that would ever continue as a Stream of living LIFE through all states of Being.

Thus became the unfolded life of the Yod of God, as Judah as the power of creation, casting the glory down into the pit. Then it was not until Judah and Tamar, as the palm tree growing in the wilderness, began to come forth, that the LIFE began to manifest as human-Cosmic unfoldment. Thus it became the spinal activity that manifested the mind, for Judah took a wife for his first born creation as Er, that just awakening, to wed the mystery into life. Whereby Tamar his wife produced a creation as Pharez and Zarah, the duality that was born in the womb of Virgo as the harlot and the virgin of the potential mind.

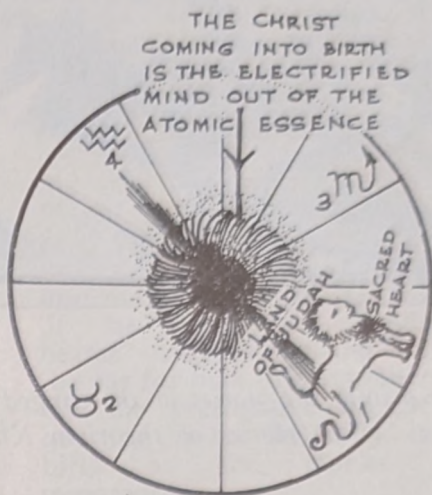

Thus the twelve hierarchial Powers of creation ever coming into birth as the atomic wealth of the seed, as the duality of the mind. The Yod of God sperming the spirit called soul into living LIFE.

Hence this became the land of Judah, ever producing man, as the other ten laboured that the wilderness produced to ever bring fully into birth. But the basic of a divine Cosmic purpose, for as this crucible pot produced, was it but the Seed intent of the Solar nucleus as the glorified LIFE, becoming the manifested nucleus as the Begotten Divine Fatherhood.

The Atomic LIFE of the Cosmic CAUSE, the Divine Magnificat of Being; yet the ever rolling Stream of ever Becoming, as the intensity of life manifesting forth.

The Mystery of Unfoldment

HENCE we come to the unfoldment of the soul, for here in the diagram above we see the continuity of ever coming forth, as the four animals ever raising the spirit up as the electrical fusion of heart purpose. The full fiery action of Judah producing the whole creation of Divinity, for the heart purpose as the heart beat, is the heavenly Fire as the Christ light, striving to rise up out of the dregs of the pit. For as the atomic nucleus of the seed, the Fire in being broiled in the pot, rises up the spinal column and becomes the heart beat of durability.

(See plate below)

Here we see the mystery of the Sphinx, the head in Virgo and the tail in Leo. The fire that will give the harlot the power to spin up, and raise the beast up to the flying Eagle.

Thus the Bull driving the Fire that it ignites into a whirling frenzy, carrying Aphrodite up on the rolling wave. With her nymphs and shepherds in attendance driving the heart beat into action, that Aries, the potential man, can fire the arrow shaft direct into the Eye of Aldebaran. That the Eagle can fly higher and higher, driving through the ring of the Shedd, touching heights unknown to man, to fortify the Stream of Life with the glories of Vulcan's hammer.

The throbbing depths of the mystical heart beat that comes from the depths of Regulus. The fiery Star that holds the secret of the first mighty depths that split the atom into a million pieces.

That which should have burst into life as the springing hope of perceptory awareness. The pinnacle point of discerning the depths and heights of the mystery of Samash's wonders, through the atomic activity of the Fire, jet propelling it up to the heights.

THE HEART BEAT OF DURABILITY

"...for the heart purpose as the heart beat is the Heavenly Fire as the Christ Light, striving to rise up out of the dregs of the pit." (See text above). The pit of the black serpent, the beast that captured "the Christos living FIRE" and denied... "the Source of Creation an ever flowing stream."

THE DIVINE IMMACULATE CONCEPTION

EVERY detail is the complement of one soul, the turbaned figure in front. On the right are the 4 Marys with the Christos Light kneeling beside them, as being the consciousness awakened to the inner glories of the FIRE. On the left is the old mother, the matriarch Seed of the Cancer luna depths, together with the Capricorn Fatherhood, representing the heights. Mary is pointing upwards suddenly seeing for the first time the wonders of the Heavens. (See text on page 4, col. 1).

Here lies the mystery of the Stream of David, the raised up Arc and the Solar light, where the divine Fire of the glorious heavens would bring man back to life. He that is the mystery that was lost, yet found in the secret of the heart beat. The glorious depth of the unknown possibility, but as yet, only a fleeting belief.

Judah is the mystery of unfoldment, the land of Israel's struggles, where the EL Fire became lost to sight and is winnowed into birth. For as Tamar found the first oasis, she showed man the way to go and get across the bridge to the heights. Not circle round and round in the depths as the harlot lost to the beast. Then she forced Judah to find a heart as he saw his own duality; thus looked towards a greater purpose than merely the desires of the beast. Thus this gave Joseph the power to withstand Potiphar's wife, and rise up into the seventh. The first break through out of the depths, that the holy Fire could rise to the heights, carrying the light of the soul's potentials up to the Cosmic heights.

For all is the work of the Cosmos, man being a pawn on the stage of life that he can drive the Fire into action and give it conscious light. Thus man and the Fire becoming one, as the spirit becoming rising light, the unfolding glories of the Arc. Hence the inter-union ever continuing, making man the greater mystery.

For the final answer is ever going to be, who is man and who is God, in the manifestation of the Father.

Thus Balaam as he struggled to find the answer, knew that the whole controversy lie in the depths meeting the heights. The fiery mystery in the bones uniting with the heights. For he declared:—

"He shall eat up the Nations his enemies,

And shall break their very bones.

Thus pierce them through with his arrows,

Thereby he couched as a lion,

But who shall stir him up."

Therefore, who shall break open the Book of Seven? Who will become worthy to open it? For it is the Lion the root of David who hath to prevail, with the eighth son as the spirit that cometh into birth, out of the fire of the soul. Thereupon the twenty four Elders fell down and worshipped as man manifested the glories of the Fire. For it could only be through the Gods, the Elements of the heights, that these Royal Powers could live as the Intelligencia, the Cosmic glory of the Brahmic Becoming, the mystery of man and life.

The Mystery of the Stream

UNTIL man understands the depths of Judah in his struggle as Israel to come forth, he will never perceive the mystery of the Stream, the unfolding life of Divinity. The Stream of the heavens that manifests as man's blood, both carrying the same powers down to the depths. Then returning to the heights, one as the MAN, the other as the homogeneous, the man to come forth out of the revolving creation. Bringing into birth all the glories of the heavens, all the wonders of the deep.

Then the divinity divine, the nucleus of the soul could come forth as the radiant light of the mind. The internal being that spirals forth as the collective nucleus of all creation. That which blends together from every fusing segment, the manifestation of all the Hierarchial Creation.

(See plate page 5, cols. 4 & 5)

THE RISEN KING

FROM the depths of the Holy Fire comes forth the warrior, fired with Zeal and belief, raised up unto the glories of the winged mind, freeing and upraising the Venusian sensitivity from the perils of the magnetic powers of the earth, until he becomes... "the glories of the risen King and the ever unfolding mind." (See text below column 4)

Thus bringing forth of the Messiah or Christ, the purified light of the soul; but he who must master the old Serpent and his seed, and all his past works of life. All the states of the magnetic field must the soul rise above, thereby drinking the wine cup of

The changing beam, the swinging rhythm, the divine holocaust of the mind.

"For the eye that mocketh at his father,

And despiseth to obey his mother,

The ravens of this valley shall pick it out

And throw it to the gully."

So it is by this we shall see the Son of man as the risen Fire of the MIND consuming the Seed of Woman. Motherhood being transmuted into Fatherhood as the Brahmic revelation of life.

The mystery of change, the heart beat of revolving divinity coming forth as the light of the human mind. The mystery of the Lamb, the light that cometh forth as that born from out of the old Ram. Thus the four Marys who are making ready for the marriage of the Lamb; she becoming born as the heart beat of the soul, in the divine immaculate conception.

(See page 3, cols. 3, 4 & 5)

This is the divine Pleroma becoming the Ambrosia of the Gods, the wine that will raise them up to the glorification of the living Christ, the manifestation of the Father's mind. The hidden secret of the unfolding Fire, the atomic light of the mind, that by the heart the glory of Judah stirred into life, as the couchant lion that rose. Thus the holy spirit that is given sevenfold expansion, that it can by heaven born frequency rise up to the heights of the Unseen divinity, and break through into the mysteries that have never yet been.

That which is driven up by the hidden acme of the heart, the belief in unseen things. That which can come forth out of the nucleus of becoming, the birth of the depths of the Source.

But first by the enmity between man and woman, and finally, when mastered in glorification, as the risen electrified mind. Thus manifesting the Father in the feminine capacity being conquered, and the royal state of MAN coming forth.

Therefore it is ever the soul coming forth as Aries the king, crowned with seven stars. With his foot upon the Pole Star, which he must walk into the earth. Stepping over in the passover from Pisces, the winnowing of the moon, into Aries the Solar light, the glories of the mind. By this the soul becomes born of a god by the heart beat and blood of his creation; for as Cepheus he is the father of Andromeda, yet as Perseus her conquering husband,

THE GLORIES OF THE RISEN KING AND THE EVER UNFOLDING MIND.

By this we see that man is MIND, the manifestor of light, and only as that can he truly come forth, the belief that stalks ahead. Thus the mystery of that which has never been perceived, but which could come forth from the created heart belief. The mind that can reach by the heart beat search, into that not yet begotten. Thus bring forth that which has never been, and bring it into birth. For all life is that believed and conceived by the man and his wife. The mind dancing into heights unknown by the exhilaration of the heart beat. The Word that rose on wings of light, and penetrated the depths of the unseen. Brought forth the possibilities of creation, as yet the further glories of the mind.

THE FLAME
The risen GOD

HOW far can man go? What are his possibilities? Where do his limits lie? Surely none can stop his interpenetrating creation, for he is the nucleus of that mind. Providing he is prepared to labour, nothing can stop the potentials that lie with those possibilities, if his heart beat can carry him up the full extent of that driving mind. Once this is perceived by the rising sensitivity, the whole gamut of man and his mind becomes an open Book to the wise and courageous, who are prepared to become the driving force of the Uranian hammer strike.

For it is the perceptivity that comes forth by the sparking fusion, that drives that heart beat into becoming an active mind. Thus drives the (See plate on page 5, cols. 4 & 5) frequency up to heights, bringing forth the sparks of Vulcan.*1 Unearthing depths that have never been, but which can become the light of the unfolding Cosmos.

Thus the son of God as the god born creation, bringing

IT is the passions of man (horse) that have to be glorified in the soul and Cosmos for they are the Holy Fire that must... Bacchus, the cup of HIS indignation. Yet that which man has put HIM to, as the inner divinity of those fiery Waters; the glorious creation of the heavens, that brings life to every breathing soul.

The moving fate and destiny of mankind, which comes down in that involving Stream. That which is the moving Word, the weaving web of life; that by which man can only change, and become reborn into light.

forth the Father's Kingdom. Revealing the mysteries, which even the Father knoweth not, for it is the mystery of belief. The soul raising the couchant lion who layeth down under many a creation. Yet that which stirreth the soul into a seeking and a searching, that results in possibilities completely unknown, and becoming the crowning glory.

Hence man the mysterious creature of birth and becoming, he who can reach into the unknown tomorrow. For as he so believes, can he become, as Tamar did when she stepped over the barrier and gave birth to the first dual belief that held the immortal Seed of the Christ. But although it was dual in its nature, it set all rolling into action, for some future creative belief.

One of the heavens and one of the earth, with the heavens driving the bargain. For as she so brought forth did she establish, and was held by the bargain of creation. For a Law came forth and none could dispute, for it was established by her belief. Thus the Fire danced in and drove the light into active creation, as only woman can do. Then wonders everywhere began to move, for Tamar had swung the world around her head, and brought into birth an extension of life, that changed all for man and his wife.

Hence the spirit danced, the Gods looked on in awe as the first seed of roving thought began a driving force of change. That which changed the whole creation from its narrow limits of destruction. Thus opened the way for man to even survive, by finding the next oasis. The mirage that becomes the soul's belief, and which he seeks as his hope of retribution. So drives the issue to a blending change, a long lost road retrieved. Thus in seeking the answer, Merope*2 found a way that no one had ever conceived; and rose up to the heights that left all men dizzy and rebellious at the mighty change.

For a time came when man took form far too deeply and allowed a misconception to rise above a possible unfolding possibility. Thus chose the form as it gave him glorified status, and a mitred hat that rose up far too high. Hence set ideas, laws and creations that clouded the light of man's eye. Robbing the dreamer of his dreams divine, for he bound man by creed and dogma, and stoned him through his stilted mind. Then as it grew as fixed administration, no man believed again. Thus the dancing law of man and his mind, became a foregone conclusion.

Thus the blood began to coagulate, and doors jammed and closed forever, with possibilities of life smothered and dead as Catholic ruling killed the heart beat of the soul. Its bleeding heart was the death of belief, the murder of the sacred Fire, while the glories of the rising Father, died a violent death. Thus hung on a cross as a dead hope, with a pope chanting a litany drunk with hell, and no possible hopes of expansion.

The Kirtle of God

SO up rose Merope, the indignant mother life, and out of her robe found the light in a true immaculate conception. For she drove up to the heights, beating the frequency all the way, for she had to find the answer to life, as she knew it equalled her polarity. But the answer really lay in breaking the bonds, so she shot up into the heavens. Placed the Flame as the risen God high upon its pinnacle top, who shot his Flame up into the night, out of the reach of the dead. Its extending beams went out far and wide, too far for man to comprehend, but the prerogative of every questing soul, to bring into birth as the glories of tomorrow.

Thus the reflection of light now began driving down into the Arc as the Stream feeding the Earth forever. Potentials and possibilities as the light of the Flame, the hopes and wishes of all blended spiritual creation. But that which Merope had sent up to the heights, now intensified with light. Hence as it touched the congested wealth of every born soul, would it raise the couchant lion, and bring unfolding beliefs into birth out of the depths of hell. For the dreaded octopus has now been removed, and light is beginning to percolate. Merope had broken through and forced the issue by giving the Flame establishment as light, the glories of the heavenly mind. Then he added unto her creation by driving the Flame up to the Supreme Heights, up to the extent of her created belief as she gave birth to the glory.

Thus it came into birth on the rhythm of her mind, as the unfolding Stream of Holy Divinity to bring forth yet a greater birth. For it was the glory now of every forlorn maid, to become the risen bride to the radiant Flame. For as the Hydrogen Waters drove that fiery wealth down to the depths, could she be touched and risen up by Merope's emancipation of the mind. Raising up her frequency through the wisdom of truth, as the Waters of Life bathed her in light.

Thus gathering under the Kirtle of God, now manifesting as the Lord of the Flame. No longer the wilting flower, but the Lily of the depths and the flowering rose of the heights.

But it is also now up to every god to follow the path and find the fire divine, for it is the inflowing life that will now save the seed, that nearly became the sanctum of the beast. For through that Stream the way now is set for a glorious tomorrow, the unfolding of Medo-Persia;*3 with all wonders set, and now expanded into the Solar light of day. The glories of the heavenly electrified mind, as man and maid risen up to the heights as the androgynous glories of the mind. The spirit as the risen Lamb born from the old Ram, now their questing troth as the purpose of the holy Grail.

No longer the desires of the beast, but the Le Ros*4 dance of the mind, to bring the holy Fire into birth out of the trammels of the pit.

The divine holocaust of mind union, where the angels can sing the divine glories of the risen Magnificat. Where the divine light of the Arc can radiate its radiant beams into every searching heart. Thus raise them up and lead them forth, onto the heavenly road; show them the path and the way to go, to come out of the fire of hell. Thus be born of the heavenly light, the glories of the divine Seed.

For man is the son of the Father, the risen born light of the Mother; she brought up out of the Waters, as the risen light of the magnetic field. The mystery of the eternal unfolding from darkness into light.

All now is set unto the end of the Solar Year,*5 where man can unfold and expand; find his feet and walk them forth, as he fedges his wings into flight. Thus master the first birth of Judah, and become the mind born soul of light. Fully fledged and free from matter, as the Earth spins up into light. Led and guided by the Lord of the Flame, the glories of the risen divine Arc of the Sine. The Intelligencia risen as the Begotten, the holy light of the MIND.

Thus Venus as the divine Mary, now crowned and risen up to the heights as the Mother of the risen divine God. Thus up rose Merope, spinning up into the heights, into the glories of the Flame. For Hosanna in the highest, glory to the new born King. For the true Christ has risen up as the old one rose up off the cross, and was born into life again, out of the droning dirge of the high mass litany.

Thus given birth through the light of Merope's unified mind:

*3 A period of the Taurean Equinox, approx. 2,500-4,500 B.C.

*4 Le Ros is the dance that is danced up the spine, raising up the Fires to feed the mind, dancing up his sensitivity until he finds the true path of perception, bringing every nature within his being dancing into Life, quivering with sensitivity and understanding.

*5 Refers to the whole round of Precession of Equinoxes 26,000 years.

THE DIVINITY DIVINE

"THEN the divinity divine, the nucleus of the soul could come forth as the radiant light of the mind. The internal being that spirals forth as the collective nucleus of all creation. . . . That which blends together from every fusing segment, the manifestation of all the Hierarchical Creation." (See text page 3, col. 5).

for as she took him out of the pit, as the lost desires of Judah, he came off the cross and became as the mighty Flame, manifesting as the risen Father.

Crowned with gold holding in his hand a small golden casket, wherein lay a tiny pearl radiating with light. This he handed to Merope as the heart seed captured out of the Waters out of the depths, as the polarity of his heights, now to be given birth. That gathered up as the outcome of man's Bacchus struggles, and the red experiences of TIME.

But now the Voice divine to bring forth the cherished Word, that will as his Voice as the OM of her Mouth raise up the lost glories of Medo-Persia. For had she not risen all up to the heights, as the risen Arc of the Flame, thereby been the means of all coming into birth, through the heart beat of her belief.

Yet here it was, manifesting before her, and crowning her with the light of the mind, through the Fount to the Mouth as his Voice, proclaiming the wonders of Truth.

As Merope took the pearl, she placed it into her heart, knowing that all men would have to draw to that source, to find the answer to life. Thereby having to drink from the Stream, that now gushed forth as the Golden Stream, of UNIVERSAL PHILOSOPHY.

Ever seeking through the keys that she had set forth to open doors of truth, but which would lead them up from the land of Judah into the balance of the seventh. Where they would be weighed and tested, to help them go up to the heights. Then to make the passover in the spring, through the glory of mind rebirth.

THUS MEROPE PAVED THE WAY, ROSE UP THE GOD TO THE HEIGHTS. NOW SHE LEAVES ALL MEN WAITING AT HEAVEN'S GATE, WITH THE KEY OF TRUTH IN THEIR OUTSTRETCHED HANDS.

VULCAN'S PITCH-BLENDE SPARKS

The Glory of Every Vesta

This article was delivered on Sunday, December 12th, 1965 at the School of Universal Philosophy and Healing through Gladys I. Spearman-Cook but under the direction and control of the Lord Maitreya, the Lord of the Flame of the Central Sun.

CHAOS, CHAOS EVERYWHERE AS THE FIRE OF Scorpio fuses the Waters, driving the issue hither and thither, breaking up the inertia of evil. That set into motion by the black scorpion, the dead life of creed and dogma, yet the very means to set man rebelling, and drive him on to a greater beholding. For little did he know that the gods had awakened in his upper meninges, as very few, if any at all, understood his anatomical capacity. Yet this did not mean, if such was awakened, that they would understand their inception; but merely believed was only a bad state of nerves, a time for medical attention.

This is the tragedy of the awakening, the mystery of the greater rebirth, where Vulcan's wealth born into the fiery issue, will stir man into fantastic beliefs. Yet not to be ignored, for they are being stirred on a higher plane of adjustment, where they will perceive of truths that will lead them into fields anew. Yet blind and blank as they may be. For all men are being reborn unknown to themselves, to awaken to facts that will stun them for the time, until they turn to the Occult wisdom that will reveal the hidden mystery.

For is this not the co-efficient of expansion, that which acts together with another thing. The Fire that will expand the wealth within, that will create a drive ever attended to by the unfolding virgin. The undying and expanding motherhood that nurtures the god into life. She who has risen up out of the dung, and keeps the lamp alight from the hidden oil of the Word.

The perceptory principle now in the cradle of life, well fortified by the pitch-blende to keep out the luna waters. The means now of the unfolded soul going forth on the new journey of life. Thereby to go up to the royal court to be nurtured by Vesta and Vulcan in the Solar atomised Spheres. To extract from the wisdom of Universal Philosophy the laws set for the unfoldment of the upper Spheres through the electrified unification of the gods, Mars and Venus now in their royal estate as the king and queen of the heights. For all is elevation by the means of the Spiral rising higher and higher.

The Solar World

AS old states are broken up, new ideas can go forth, with man squirming under the searching fires of the risen waters. Seeking only for what he has lost, yet really unfolded into gain. For no man really loses anything, but folds it in, onto a higher plane. As to whether he can express it by the articulatory circle, is another thing.

IT IS BEING ABLE TO VOICE HIS FINDINGS THAT MAKES A MAN A GOD; THE SOUL RISEN UP TO THE HEIGHTS, DECLARING OF HIS AVOWED BELIEFS.

Hey diddle, diddle

The Cat and the Fiddle,

The Cow jumped over the Moon,

The little Dog laughed to see such sport,

The dish ran away with the Spoon.

The cat now being called to play the tune, with the cow jumping up to heights unknown, while the little dog Procyon*1 now the rhyming factor, declares of what he has always known. Man no longer being led by others, but every man must find for himself. For frogs and lizards are barred in the Solar world, they die an untimely death. For many a soul, who has sweated and laboured, has been laid low by these pirating thieves. Now the pitch-blende in the Fires is set into action by the light of the Solar Waters, binding up the armour of each truly seeking soul, and sealing in the offenders.

So as in the beginning each god was sealed in his own Brahmic egg, will he once again find himself enclosed in the Solar egg. Each man having to find his own nutriment or die, no longer a world of text and rhyme, but each man either brings forth by labouring with and through his gods, or goes down into a blank enclosure. The depth of pirating has never truly been understood, for man has lived by one another, with the one or two being the leaders after they have been badly raped. Yet honoured and vaulted when their works have carried conviction high; yet so often stolen by a clever mind into a pounding possibility of finance.

Not so in the Solar world; here is where all that has been gained, blossoms forth into light, and unless that light is radiating from you, the lamp is out and the soul goes blank and blind. No light from another will catch you alight, but can show you the way.

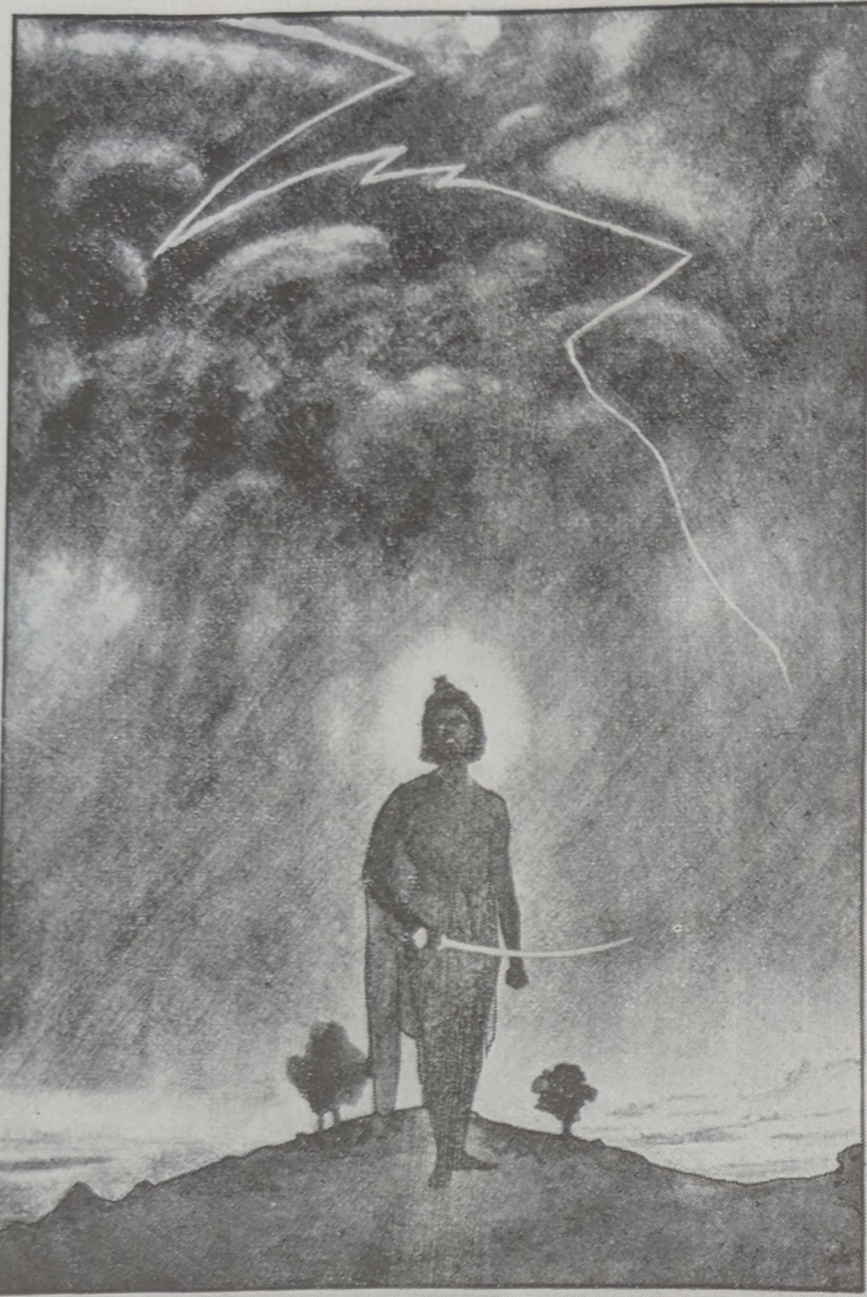

Then you must labour by trimming your wick, and gaining the oil from the Solar squeezing of the Word, as did the widow through her cruz.

THE CHRIST CHILD

HERE is seen Simeon (Taurus) that is carrying the Christ Child into birth as the Fire out of the Scorpio Seed. For it is now... "the plow is set to work as the hard work of Simeon and Levi (Scorpio) has to begin, for now the deep root of the Moabite has to be pulled out of the depths." (See text in col. 4).

*1 The name Procyon is the last of the three constellations of Gemini, and known as the Little Dog, that which is representative of the Higher Mind being ruled by Uranus.

URANUS STRIKES

THE sword of Truth... instant action... and out of the Heavenly spheres comes forth the Fire Flash of Uranus bringing in its train the Vulcan's Meteorite Power that descends to dispel the darkness.

Then by turning to the gods now alight up in the meninges high, will they prepare the way for the soul to be fed from the upper Spheres. For man now must look upwards, no longer to the ground, but borne aloft to the heights by the rising Mars and Venus.

Scorpio now radiating through every soul, lifting him up to the heights, touching off every atom that becomes ripe with light. Like bursting bubbles sailing up into the heavenly heights; but as unto man, so unto the gods; for all now are blending up through the unifying action of the Solar light as the Central Sun. The process is of timelessness, but with all that has ever been unified by man's anatomical capacity; the working of unfolding evolution.

As the spin of the world goes on driving up, will man be drawn up by the vortex of the unifying rhythm. For HERE and NOW is the order of the day, where man, beast and god are one. What he is, is of the world above, for he creates the unfolding heavens. The Waters of life passing through the crucible upon the many stages of evolution. Thus producing many strange vessels, some extremely crude, while others are of genius born, but need firing into beauty. This now is the Great Work being executed by the Gods in the heavens, activating soul into life. For up to now all have been dead, believing that vision to be a God upon a cross. When really it was himself looking into the waters.

The Will of Ophiuchus

NOW the waters have been dried up, and he has no illusion now to ferry him back and forth across the span of time. He either spins up by an ultra effort, or blanks out and goes blind. No self pity will see him through, but only hard ruthlessness; antimony applied dance. Therefore she manned the plow with her own small hands and bent her own feminine shoulders to the grist. Realising that any task worth while had never to be left in the hand of another. But the creator himself attending to the firing, to make sure the pot was fully kilned.

So on she drove back and forth, climbing the hill of Desire, pulling the weight closer and closer into the firing connection. Then with one mighty effort the hill was mastered, and the root was pulled from its socket. Yet all the wealth of the mighty depths was pulled right out of the offending sod, as skeletons they rose and claimed the whole of the City in foul and evil comments, making untold pain sear Merope's heart as she wrestled with the evil thrown back. For this was a Cosmic task more than a task of the terrestrial, yet it is through the earth that all is set, and the way mastered and risen up.

As Merope wrestled with these foul fiends, she battled alone with the foul monsters, yet the very depth of her wealth, the marrow of the bones. Bearing their lashes against her flesh as they drove deeper and deeper into her. Then finally with a hard fight and struggle she brought the plow to the top of the hill with the evil skeletons of the past meeting her at every step she took. Lacerating her flesh and straining her very heart strings.

THE BLACK MAMBA

"...she battled alone with these foul monsters, yet the very depth of her wealth, the marrow of her bones." But the dark hard bloody road was firmly established in the right direction. With the black Mamba conquered and the desires of Sut mastered." (See text in col. 5 above).

to strengthen the road, whereby every god is a potential hero.

This is the strengthening rod of the Scorpionic fires, that will call for the will of Ophiuchus. Where only those, who can unify the magnetic pull in the intercalary blending, will find the way opening up through the Perceptory Principle.

So now as the plow is set to work, the hard work of Simeon (Taurus) and Levi (Scorpio) has to begin, for now (See plate in col. 2) the deep root of the Moabite Race has to be pulled out of the depths. A root that has never lost its fangs from the beginning of time. Therefore Merope*2 set herself to the plow and worked with all her might, that the evil root of the black Scorpion would be pulled fully out from its depths. The road was in the favour of many, and even royalty held its attention. So the plow had to furrow deep and pull up tares in abun-

*2 See the article on page 13, columns 4 and 5.

Then the last step was accomplished and the unified magnetic pull became the electro-magnetic blending. Flashing and fusing with blue magnetic sparks, as one son after another turned his face in the right direction. Then as the final pull united the reborn world, the whole planet shook with its riven unification. For no longer did the root of Sodom and Gomorrah exist, Merope had sined it deep by the Fires of the heavens as only a woman can. It was the fifth of November that held traditionally many memories, even historically bitter and gory.

So she had even reason to make it a day, fast and securely riven, for the city died down and all went home to their beds, to carry the tale far and wide, for everywhere the truth was told, no man could jeopardise its meaning. Therefore it seared deep into every soul who sought to hold onto its ghastly creation; for hell was stripped from every soul as the way was unified and set dancing, with the royal fires of their own inner waters. For Vulcan had come and touched the Constellation in the Central Sun, with his fiery pitch-blende sparks, that adhere to every son attending. It was these that came to the rescue as the root of the "Traffic of men" was destroyed forever. Merope had won through, with even the election in the favour of Wilson and his band. A dour Yorkshire man firm and strong in his beliefs and credentials.

Hence the dark, hard and bloody road was firmly established in the right direction. With the black Mamba conquered and the desires of Sut mastered.

(See plate on page 6, cols. 4 & 5)

THE SHADOW OF BEAST

The Mystery of Desire

SO up rose Merope stronger than ever to finish the task she had started. For having conquered the black scorpion and placed it onto the Vulcan pathway of ascent, she now had the final battle of mastering the root of desire.

That given untold licence in the reign of the Georges, without the root in the Taurean period, where it became the Bull's bit in his bridle. But now in the Age of Aquarius it was the curse of every alley, for at every turn was an eating house, set to catch the unwary. The idea of diet, where man was in control of his faculties, never came to their mind, it was eat and be merry, take the consequences after. Every occasion resulted in a banquet, causing every soul to become more earth ridden with every mouthful they partook.

For until it is fully perceived that man is mind, not flesh, and only by mind can he become, will the soul fully understand the true meaning of mastering these two offending evils of life. Thereby him becoming the god born of mind, the son of the heaven born creation. Spirit risen up out of the flesh, to become the inhabitant of the mind.

This is the greatest difficulty of all, fully convincing every soul that they are not of flesh and form, but mind held by a form carrier in a world of density. Where they were learning the lessons of life, to become victor to one way or another.

FOR UNTIL MAN MASTERS AND SUBDUES, THE SOD WILL EVER CLAIM HIM;

And is the mystery of Gen. 3, that man has perverted to his own belief and understanding. It was the soul god born in the Garden of Eden, but him falling to the desires of the flesh, that at that time was not earthy and dense. But a soul of heavenly texture, rich with the glories of becoming.

THEREFORE MASTER AND SUBDUE, WAS TO MASTER THE FLESH, AND NOT LET IT COMMAND THE MIND.

For everything the soul required is within the heavenly manna; the soul born from the heavens, and must continue with the wealth from the heights, to exist and grow in the right direction. This Merope knew and had subconsciously struggled, until Martha had awakened to the fact. Then with rolled up sleeves and mind primed and centred, she set her hand to the plow, bringing that finally to resting upon the brow of the hill. With all furrowed and unified in the name of Divinity, with the Flame soaring high up into the velvety black sky.

The Bull and Eagle both fledged and set as the pennants fluttered forth in the breeze; for Merope had won the day by the stroke of midnight pounding out its mystical hours, with all having been accomplished up in heights after a hard days struggle. So having set the pattern and prototype up in the heights by her determined will, she set her back to now begin to make it fully set upon the earth, as the world of the rising creation. She now had the waters set into motion by her struggles set deep down.

THEREFORE IT WAS HER HEART THAT COUNTED, THE BEAT OF HER CREATED PURPOSE.

So with the root of Sodom duly up-rooted, the root of Medo-Persia*3 now under her hand, she drove the scabbard truly home into the beast's belly.

For now it was the weight of purpose that was occasioning every soul to restrict their earthy desires, owing to the health complications. Even the medicos had realised at last that diet and fresh water played a big part, and required a great deal more of man's attention.

So with due realisation breaking through, Merope won the day, for as she drove that plow up the hill by her final resolution, she firmly set the

*3 A period between 2,500 B.C. and 4,500, during the Taurean equinox.

THE SPINNING OF THE MIND

THIS plate captures the great Truth of the powers of Medo Persia the great days when the Taurean Equinox took place. Then the Fires of Scorpio descended down to be captured by the earth but only turned into the sod of desire and the beast of the field. Now it has got to be spun up into Mind Power by the intercalary actions between Taurus and Scorpio the coccyx and the cervical. The spinal Le Ros dances, spinning and ever drumming activity of the vagrant nerves as the Taurean riches are driven up the spine. The path of the rocks, the cervical road, is penetrated and seed Fire is lifted to feed the pituitary and pineal. (See text in col. 3).

mould and the pattern for the future Race. Mind and mind creation was the order of the day. Thus the magnetic unification which was from the depths of her bones to the unification of the heights, she fought hard as she drove the plow of the mind, to bring forth the wealth she was seeking. Then with fierce opposition being mastered, she wrestled with the flashing unification. Then with one final flash of the opposing forces, the pattern was securely fixed, with the lintel raised up high, and the Arc radiant with light.

So not only was the root of Sodom conquered, but also the mastery of the desires of the belly. Thus the way all set for all to spin up into the heavenly heights, where Vulcan and Vesta were to be the teachers of the coming generation.

The Comet of Fire

VULCAN as the Comet of Fire had rushed across the heavens to touch the heart of Scorpio as he was about to drive the Fires deep into every soul. With his waters fiery and pitch-blende strengthened, Vesta flew right up behind him and set the oil for every pot to become alight with conscious understanding. She is the maid pure of purpose, born from the Venus-risen-Dinah. Full of life, rich of purpose, following in after every action of Vulcan and his striking hammer.

Therefore these two were the guiding factors of the future Age. Ruthless and relentless in their schooling curriculum. No halfway purpose, but every man set for the journey to continue.

Upwards, onwards to the goal of the golden unification, for they were the two Teachers under the direction of the mighty Flame. The Great Eagle who was the Voice to issue forth from the OCCULT GAZETTE.

This now was the relentless fight between one fiery intrust and the other, for in the Spring as the Arian Waters gathered, would life begin to prove its fettle as the passover was duly made. But during those six months of priming and action of securely fixing, the roads for the future uprise, would root after root be pulled out, and man turning to the wisdom of the OCCULT GAZETTE. For they held the truths that he was now searching for, the keys and purpose of every priming. Where now as a raw recruit he would seek of its light as the Master's words rang out clearly before him.

Therefore again Merope had to set the pattern long before the way was treaded. So she set the gyroscope firmly poised and balanced, and then pressed the lever. Away she spun up into the heights, right through every fiery nebula. Higher and higher soaring up, until she drove right through the Central Sun, causing flames to shoot forth out of everywhere, all pitch-blended by Vulcan's hammer, scattering all hither and thither in the City's scandal. Only those passing by perceiving what had caused the fiery Fingers pointing everywhere, by the voice of the people.

The two major roots from the depths had both been completely transmuted, Sodom and Gommorah, and Medo-Persia. With Vulcan and Vesta the Teachers under the Flames directing hand, now the MASTER'S instead of Mars and Venus.

But Merope had carried the fight to a flourish, for she by her courage, never to be daunted whatever the situation, had by the fully awakening beliefs, carried those roots and their wealth, right up to the Great Eagle's Archives. Thereby him being the fully born Flame upon the mountain top of Taurus. With the Flame shooting right up high into the unknown space, as the golden victory of the Aquarian Age.

But with yet a greater magnitude to be accomplished as his Golden Glory rose up high into the heavenly mystery. For magnitude and beauty were now the answer in this glorious realm of the heavens, where HERE and NOW were the pinnacle point of every driving issue.

The Voice from the EYE

AS Merope stood on the upper ledge of the mount, locking up in adoration at the glorious spectacle, an EYE from those heights now came forth from those brilliant Flames. An Eye that was piercing and strong that went right through her very marrow, and seemed to pierce her very depths, stirring the mystery for tomorrow. It bound and held her as she gazed, then heard a Voice in her innermost brain calling her to attention. As she did so, she saw a Dove descend and rest upon the Waters in the depths below, for what was now about to be the established glories of the heights, would radiate far and wide over the earth beneath. Then the Voice said,

"Watch, Merope, of the Divinity of Light, bathing the Earth with its glory, that which you have set into motion, by your actions of expansion. You have helped mankind to get free, and one day will remember your struggle. How one failed you at a moment when you were driving all into a supreme point of completion. Yet with your body suspended across the Abyss from one mount to another you lay, suspended with all the birds of the air tearing at your lacerated body. Thus you prevented them from getting at the Gods, and breaking down the royal Creation upon the Earth of the heavenly vision.

THE DOVE RISE UP

"AS she was pondering she saw the Dove rise up and fly back up to the Heights with an olive branch in its mouth. It had laid six eggs in floating nests that were now going forth on the waters... to reburnish the glories of Creation." (See text below).

Therefore you now have the right to become the MOUTH of thy heavenly Spouse, yet right from the depths of your Fount, will the glory come forth. Whereby I, as the Lord of Light, will speak through thy Mouth, as well as write through thy hand. For you have raised me up, yet further still upon the raised up Sine; the Lord of Light, the Great Father of the Whole Universe, and all that has ever been. For we cannot become until one gives us a claimant in their recognition. Then according to their belief, do we live, radiate and give forth, for that is how man accepts us.

Up till now I have been dead on a cross, dying regularly every Spring; now I am alive expounding to you of all the glories that are abounding around mankind. As they so believe will I give forth and they can receive in their hearts. Thus I now will use your voice, and ever speak of truths unknown to man through the activities of Vulcan and Vesta.

So go forth with courage, little Merope I shall be thy Shield and thy Grace.

As the Voice died away out of her brain, she knew her work had just begun, for now the Great Lord of the Universe was going to lead the world back to the Garden of Eden. But Merope knew that it would still entail a lot of struggle on behalf of the people. For man does not change over night, even if he believed you were right. The only way he sought, and then only to a degree, was by him suffering and having to let go of those things that meant so much to him. Yet she knew, did Merope, that all this time the world was spinning up in expansion, and man was being taken with it. But for him to gain the glories from the unfoldment, they must turn their faces to truth.

As she was pondering, she saw the Dove rise up and fly back up to the heights with an olive branch in its mouth. It had laid six eggs in a floating nest, that was now going forth on the waters. A nest all lined with pitch and bitumen, whereby no water could penetrate, yet six baby birds must come forth and reburnish the glories of Creation. As she gazed at that tiny nest upon such a rough expanse of water, it radiated forth radiant sparks like a jewel on the bosom of the ocean, trying to convey to man, what lay in the little nest of expansion.

Reminiscences

The LAW of RELATIVITY

I AM SURE THAT MANY OF YOU unfolding Initiates, will be pleased to witness my effort in December to waylay the putting up of the Sodomy Bill.*1 That we should have to talk about such things in the intelligent Age of 1966, is a disgrace to the human Race. For it seems that man is more of the beast than we realise. So what I now bring, in my opinion ties up with what I saw in the Evening Standard of the 3rd of Dec., and my reply to Roger Wilson, the Bishop of Chichester.

BISHOP WARNS VANDALS

The Bishop of Chichester, Dr. Roger Wilson, is asking every vicar in Sussex to become an amateur detective in a bid to stop vandals and thieves who are desecrating and robbing churches all over the country. All C. of E. parish priests in the bishops diocese, which includes the whole of Sussex, are asked to call the police as soon as they see anyone acting suspiciously in or near their churches.

They are told to give the police a description of the suspects, and note down their car or motor-cycle numbers. While parish priests are advised to keep their churches locked at night, and install wall safes where offertory box money and church valuables can be kept.

MEROPE'S VICTORY OVER PAPALISM

THIS magnificent painting by Titian was a masterpiece in more ways than the artistry. Every detail of this plate shows the conquering by Her of Her Task, which was to establish as the Christed One, the New Laws to be followed by mankind. To take up the cross from the face of the Earth, and to substitute the Law of Personal Responsibility, the drinking of the CUP. It shows the Heavens glorifying her Work, and symbolically Moses holding the LAWS, the WORD she had brought so that the Atoms of the Gods could be returned to their Source. Finally it shows that which Titian a Master of Mystic and the unseen, well knew would take place, the utter submission of papalism and her power, the removal of the pope's crown. All this through the dynamic efforts of Merope the Goddess of Venus, who became the bride to the Great Father, the Lord Maitreya. (See text in col. 5 and on page 9, col. 1).

Upon noting this I immediately sent my group down to the Southern Counties, to flood the whole of the towns with Occult Gazettes, that they could be fed with the Word brought down from Spirit. But at the same time helping the Higher Powers to make entry into every part of their precincts. As Mystic I know and understand this wisdom, and although these high-hatted churchmen, who are such utter failures in leading the people, ridicule this wisdom, it does not alter the fact it is correct, and gets them very worried.

When the group returned from the jaunt on Saturday the 4th of December I was informed that on their rounds, they entered into ten C. of E. churches with no priest even speaking to them, or anybody even being there. In each one

*1 In the British Parliament, non-government Bills have been introduced in the Lords and Commons, that in the Lords being particularly supported by both Archbishops of Canterbury (Ramsey) and York (Coggan), in which bill it is being suggested that it should be made legal to permit in private sodomy, homosexuality as well as unnatural practices between men. The Hierarchical Powers are working very hard to raise up opposition to this and are fighting very hard this diabolical evil which was the cause of the fall of Rome and Greece.

MEROPE AS A CHILD

they left an Occult Gazette right up near the altar; in fact they could have walked away with the whole of the inner furniture. So what could be seen of the priests vigilance and zeal, the vandals could have done whatever they wished to do in broad daylight. So must have a very free hand at night.

But further still, one of the group went up to the bishops palace, found the door open, walked in, and placed an Occult Gazette on his table. In fact if he had been a vandal, he could have looked around and found himself a meal. We did not have to find our fare back home, we had our own car, and nobody asked for the number. And surely to goodness, we must have been appearing suspicious enough, although not a vandal.

Upon hearing of such information, I began to wonder whether Roger Wilson was really calling the priests to arms, or only advertising the importance of Roger Wilson. Which seems to be rather a flair of these pompous text book boys, reared in the arms of righteousness. Perhaps he is a little tired at having his church empty, which our group found in nearly every case, and is trying to call some little attention, to his lost grace.

But I did not feel that this could go by, without some due comment, also that it could come forth in the Occult Gazette, for our readers to bring forth their replies. This, in going all over the world, will bring letters in abundance; of which we shall select a few and bring them forth for you to witness, the opinion of our many readers. Of which I would like to mention at this stage, that over the year, even with the raised up subscription, our circulation has more than doubled itself. It has grown enormously, which of course is due to the down-pouring of

An Open Letter to :

Roger Wilson,
Bishop of Chichester,
Sussex.

4th December 1965.

Roger Wilson,

IN the Evening Standard of December 3rd, you had been the means of having a column of warning placed, regarding vandals and thieves of the churches of the Southern counties. How could you have the effrontery to place forward such a theme of rebuke, after the disgusting revelation of Ramsey of Canterbury advocating as a churchman, the Sodomy Bill as Law. Men and women are not going to listen to this distorted evil regime.

They are seeking for light and truth, and spiritual upliftment unknown to themselves. Not the advocating of sodomitical practices as a part of the ecclesiastical theme, because it is not denied in the Bible. Why, you have only to look to Genesis, to see the utter condemnation of the "traffic of men." So with what Ramsey and Coggan of York have advocated, I do not know who else I am talking to in the church regime, who are advocating the same thing.

It is you people who have set the evil into operation, by bringing out of the cess-pool and the bowels of the earth, all the dirt of the magnetic field. Not bringing down the Eucharist from the heights, and being the means of holy marriage; or is that too religious? This man Ramsey with Coggan, are the co-felons of the Arran group; are you one of them? Yet those who dare to suggest that vandalism of such evil should stop.

I cannot say that I agree with this sort of reprove, but you people set this seed growing, and set the working classes out for a mighty spree. Especially down in Sussex, where boredom is running rife; most of them being sons of the soil, seeking for mind relaxation from their over-fed physical bodies. That gained from the richness of their farm growth. Most of them feeding heavily on meat and produce of milk, eggs and cheese, which has not added to their mind unfoldment, but to their over-abundance of physical zeal. That is why we, as an Occult School, advocate diet of a natural nature; and it has proved correct right up even to our failures, for they were not honest in carrying out the rules.

Wilson! as a church government you have failed, that is only too obvious to a discerning mind. For such infiltrated wisdom as Ramsey and Coggan coming into your church from the pulpit power and strength, has only re-inflated the whole of orthodoxy with the depths of evil and filth, that the Bible and Higher Powers are striving to eradicate. Man has never at anytime been taught the glories of Spiritual Truth as the upliftment of the soul from your pulpit. All man has heard is man-made creed and dogma, a cult set for pomp and glory of the mitred hat, and easy living from wealth stolen from the gullible fools in the past.

The churches STINK, and want burning to the ground, and this what many people think, but have not the courage to say so. You want to see the letters that we receive of people condemning the church and its wrong teachings. This is what the sons of the soil are really seeing, but not aware of how, why and wherefore. I have prophesied for many months that the Hierarchical Powers have now taken over the minds of men, and will use their minds to break down the evils of the present regime of life. The major one being orthodox religion, particularly Roman Catholicism, which is right at hand through their own inner schism. For man stoned by the evils of orthodoxy for many Ages, is now rebelling against its false theme of a Christ. (See plate in cols. 1, 2 & 3)

While they believed that the church was greater than they, they respected with awe and reverence. Now they find out that they have been bowing down to the sodomitical beast. You cannot have much common sense Wilson, if you do not know the LAW, as to what is the outcome of all administration. "As ye have sowed, must you reap"; don't blame the vandals, they are carrying out the law you set into motion. So start taking your own medicine, and start by changing your bishops and parish priests.

As a writer of a Paper called the Occult Gazette, which advocates the reverence of the holy Fire which is God himself, and goes out all over the world, I have had much dealing with your parish priests. Many take this Paper and praise its spiritual truth; even some claiming me as the risen Christ.

But for all that, I have never met such a bunch of ill-balanced, unprincipled individuals, minus any form of manhood. They have even offered me doctorship, which I readily refused. So I do not see where they would be able to stop vandals, let alone stand up to a fight for truth, when their teachings do not hold water as truth.

Wilson! in putting it into the London paper, has only given many others ideas, for I took the lead, and you probably well know, I flooded the whole of your Sussex districts with the true Word born by those genuinely seeking for truth. Oh yes! the same the Cosmic Rays holding the wisdom of its pages.

For our task here is Cosmic not really terrestrial, and all I do and write goes up to the heavens as LAW, and returns as Cosmic Rain. That is how the Great Powers are able to stop and change the conditions of the Earth. They swamp the Powers into the Earth, with man not being able to do anything about it.

This has been a well thought out plan by the Hierarchical Heavens, the Great Intelligence as the Arc, that I raised up to the Central Sun. Man is now worn out phrase, how do we find the finance? That is all you people think of. Well, whether you believe it or not, and the Catholics didn't, by and through those higher Powers.

Thus the very fact that they supply the where-with-all, alone proves that this is the work of the Higher Forces, to break down the false regime of a dead god upon a cross. Why the God is alive, and is the Lord of the Flame, the radiant Flame of the Mind Arc of the heavenly Sine.

(See plate on page 8, cols. 1, 2 & 3)

This is what the Bible is teaching us, when David moved the Arc from place to place, to carry it to the heights, and won his tens of thousands against Saul and his thousands.

(See plate on page 11, cols. 4 & 5)

Churchianity and orthodoxy are finished, hence vandalism to finish it off; and in my opinion, in fact I would say my prophesy, the present attack is only the beginning. You set the seed by your underlying evils, deceit and intrigues, which have been the whole foundation and holy cloth of your regime. True spiritual wealth and purpose have never entered, and you know the LAW as well as I do, "As ye sow, so ye reap." Perhaps it is not so comfortable when it comes home to roost. No Wilson! take your own medicine like a man, you might then find out how much your idioms, delivered from the pulpit by insidious bishops and milk sop feminine priests, have engendered evil into the world, and been the means of many a man as Dan being bitten in the heel, and falling backwards off his horse.

Although I deplore ruthlessness, I thank God that this evil regime of orthodoxy advocating sodomy, is at last broken down. It is not the vandals who want putting into asylums, but the Bishops with their double-edged lying tongues. Priests with perverted minds and inverted powers of sex running wild, through drawing down powers which they have never turned into the right wisdom. Hence they are only driving luna powers out into the magnetic field, and not the Solar Rays of the glorious holy heavens.

Wilson it is your wisdom and teachings that are wrong, hence by the Law of Attraction you are drawing vandals unto you. Surely you can see the church is doomed, everybody else with a free thinking mind can see the approaching end. For by such churchmen as Ramsey and Coggan advocating sodomy, which is defiling the Holy Fire of marriage, and what the church is supposed to bring down and feed the people, alone will kill you. How can such men give blessing to a marriage, or even to a new born child? So do not blame the vandals, but the re-action of the Law.

Sending Ramsey out to Africa amongst the blacks hasn't cured the law set into motion, it will probably add unto by the freedom he will have offered him. What he wants, and many others in your regime, is medical attention to cure his perverted mind of religious humbuggery.

But do not think that you are the only County that is suffering, this is rife all over the country, through the spreading of such evil through your cult by such as Ramsey and Coggan. Kensington has lost a full man size statue of a Christ on a crucifix, torn down by so-called hooligans of the district. But I would say by the indignant Christ himself.

Wilson, when you understand the Cosmic Laws, you will know of what is taking place, instead you sit smug in the wealth that your regime has pilfered over the Ages, and remain blind to the real truth of spiritual wonders. It is not now terrestrial, but Cosmic changes taking place through the striking of Uranus; and will go on till the lying cult of churchianity is completely broken down.

This is the Age of Relativity where unification is demanding the answer to yesterday, and all your cult can give them, is the evil lying intrigues that have gone on all through the Ages. Wars that have never been for the Spirit, but to fill the coffers of the church, and put such men as you and Ramsey and Coggan in physical luxury. Now it is demanding its toll by the Law of Relativity.

Thus it is the uneducated minds of the working classes that are being stirred. You and your likes are hidebound in text book theories, that blind you to any form of real truth. You are stone dead Wilson, through your cult of lies. Therefore it is the church as a government, in not being successful with their teachings to the people, that has brought all to the shambles they are now receiving. For it is the Age of Relativity and you cannot find anything else but what you as a cult have put into operation. Then take the medicine you have administered.

This is going into my Paper for January, and will go out all over the world, for we shall also use it as propaganda in the months to come. Apart from that, I shall send a copy to the papers, as to whether they will have the courage to put truth into their paper for once, will be another matter. But I shall make it known by the propaganda I will set myself to in the coming months.

But I will notify you as the months go by, as to how successful we are being. We worked very hard to stop the pope coming over to bless Liverpool Cathedral, today we hear we are successful. It is amazing what genuine thought and prayer will do, and that is my task, not vandalism, but I am sorry if the result is only in what you have set into motion. Signed, so mundane and blind that he does not understand the wisdom of vibration and frequency, let alone the Occult Laws, which rule the union and marriage of the heights and depths.

So by this, perhaps those of you who do, will understand why I wrote such a reply to Roger Wilson, with a copy going to the Evening Standard.

I shall be very pleased to receive the comments of those of you who are very strongly opinionated upon this matter. As you know, if you do not wish your letter to be pub-

ALL Britain heard the Good News as on the daily 1 p.m. B.B.C. Radio News announced that the pope would not be coming to England in 1967 to open the newly built Liverpool Cathedral. This is the greatest victory over papalism since the famed Queen Elizabeth harnessed the Great Powers and destroyed the Spanish Armada by storm and Fire. She too had to fight the diabolical black mass and inquisitional concentration the evil powers of which are not to be underestimated, as can be seen from the plate which is shown here.

Once again an "Elizabeth of England," Gladys J. Spearman-Cook, called down the Hierarchical Elements in the Phantom Drive that took place throughout the summer and late Autumn, touching tens of thousands of people in towns throughout the land, awakening in their hearts and minds the realisation of the evil pollution and effect of the catholic roots lying in the blood-stream, the consciousness of ages. Straightaway, even though some may have reacted unconsciously, there was immediately set up throughout the country the same feeling as existed in the first Elizabeth reign, and soon England was ringing the bells of warning as in those days of old.

From the moment that they held their vocational exhibition, carefully laid plans were commenced to be put into effect, to try to get the men and women in England to stomach receiving a pope in their midst as the Americans have done under the Kennedy influence. But the Hierarchical Light of the Elements worked hard on the minds of all those who had received an Occult Gazette or even seen one, so that they could be a mental bulwark against having the pope come.

For once the pope stepped foot on to the shores again so would his evil powers commence to rule and control as of old. The horror of the black hold of mental inertia would have lain on the minds of all men, and fear and darkness would have swept over the land. This is not to be lightly regarded as once the black hand got control of English thought so would their mind powers get control of all the free thinking minds, and England would be doomed to catholic and papal domination.

Immediately this announcement was known the OCCULT GAZETTE sent the following telegram on behalf of the Editor, in celebration of the news.

(See telegram in cols. 3 & 4)

But this was not the only Vatican news that week and on Monday the 6th December news came through that orders may be given to end the meat eating ban on Fridays that have been part of the papal rules for hundreds of years and to allow meat to be eaten by priest and laymen alike. This had immense esoteric influence over the whole of the catholic world for such to be announced during these particular early days of December. During these days the influence of the Sagittarian Constellation is shedding its rays, and on that date the Constellation Ara one of the three under Sagittarius was ruling.

Ara the altar is ever calling on mankind to sacrifice his animal desires, and to raise up his seminal fires up the spine to feed the cells of the brain, opening up the gods in the meninges, so that he can become linked with the Hierarchical Heights. But far from wishing to turn towards the Spirit, the pope by his announcement on meat eating, shows that he the spiritual head of millions and the channel of power feeding them, is merely filling them with the sustenance of animalism, and not the Spiritual Word which he had obtained through sacrificing the animal skins, thereby obtaining the winged mind.

Once again his folly and his ignorance of the OCCULT Laws have condemned his followers from obtaining the rebirth in the Aquarian Age that has been promised to all men, for this is the age of Relativity, when all men meet what they have sown, exposing exactly their roots and their Heart.

Now will be the time to become the "Little Child," that we have been exhorted to become, to get rid of the big-I-am creation that has led us into so much trouble and to hold out our hands to the Father begging to be directed and guided by him.

PAPAL COMPASSION

THE evil heart of the catholic root is portrayed in every line, for the impact of this utter brutality, defies the power of words to describe. It only makes one realise how right to call the middle ages the "Dark Ages," for the whole world was completely cut off in the black hell of papal fear and torture.

lished, you merely have to state so; but in any case we always keep it incognito.

While I am referring to letters, quite recently someone wrote and asked whether I (See plate on page 8, col. 2) had a photograph of when I was young; well I do not think I could do better than offer this one. It goes back 63 years ago, and when I look at it, I can hardly believe that this child would have sat as quiet as that, if she had known what was lying ahead for her. Perhaps it is just as well we never do know, for I am sure we would reverse the order of things immediately.

Yet I wonder? For I am confident by now, that it is not our conscious mind that directs the order of circumstances, but our sub-conscious mind who is seeking to get our fate into balance. Otherwise it would die, and leave the world in the state it was trending to. Now by the higher LAW being changed, the lower law is striving to bring man and woman to the greater understanding by infiltrating the Occult Wisdom into their minds.

By this they will learn of the Laws which have been embedded into the regime of TIME, and of which everyman has been born from. Also showing man, how he is the mighty drop from the whole Universe, and must go on evolving and unifying with yet the greater, that he can bring genius to the Earth. By this will fresh air, ideas and beliefs become the new trend of thought. Thus shutting out all those old states that have been closing down the minds of men.

Although this will not reach many before the Christmas period, I would like to wish every reader a Happy New Year, where many of you will be able to reap yet greater hopes out of your struggles. After the Spring of 1966 many things will be revealed to us, especially how the Waters have been acting upon the lives of human souls.

If what I believe comes into birth, there will be a considerable uplift in the human difficulties, but man will have to look towards the unfolding of his mind. If he doesn't, then he will go blank, just a state of repetition. So readers, keep your mind revolving and expanding, that is the most important, that you can meet Relativity as it unifies.

Gladys J. Spearman-Cook.

THE MESSENGER

MEROPE, the Scapegoat, IS the MESSENGER of Aquarius, the soul who has found her divinity, and now comes to sleeping man to hand him his God Heritage, a message from the Lord of the FLAME. But... "man will not let go of his luna mind, showing what potentials he holds. Coming away from personal states and embracing a wider point of action." (See page 16, col. 1).

avidya. States that would sooner or later, bring their demanding toll; for it is from the inner bodies that man receives his karmic dues.

So as she took on the role of Scapegoat, Merope sought deeply as to what were her instructions from those Powers divine, that she could make strait the gate, by re-setting up the Cosmic Laws. A mystic creation known to every ancient, and declared by the Master, as he brought rebirth to the Laws, that he was giving them their true interpretation. For the Jews had applied them as they so wished, declaring that they were doctors of law.

(See plate in col. 1)

Therefore the first thing that Merope set into operation, was raising up of her mind belief regarding the glories of the Holy Fire. How it was necessary, as the rejuvenation of man, to give him new life and fresh air in his unfolding mind rebirth. That his SEED could go on down the Ages expanding into new life, that the Race as it is now formed, could flourish and expand into further creative life.

Thereby raise up the Seed of Woman from the depths, the eternal riches needed to expand the holy Fire into royal expansive conscious mind light.

Therefore, in so doing, she raised the Arc right up to the Central Sun, the Intelligencia Vibration of the heavens. Whereby what was the Solar Sun, now became the CENTRAL SUN, imbued with the Scorpii Constellation; the Generating Hierarchial Force of Life. Therefore the Central Sun born from the Solar Sun, is not just the Solar Fire, but the Holy Stream now coming to the Earth, as the Mind Arc of the Begotten.

(See plate in columns 4 & 5)

Consequently every man now would be flooded with that new Cosmic life, through his own generative forces. But through Merope flooding man and the whole of the Earth with these Cosmic Rays, she became the means of raising up the Pole, back to its rightful place. For she flooded the whole of being with a new Element, that of the Hydrogen Waters. That of pure Energy, the crux of the Central Sun, thus brought to man in his seed life, the first throes of his return to immortality. But also the means of genius creation to raise his own past wealth, no longer a state of magician powers, but the glories of the electrified mind.

THE HORSES OF ACHILLES

MAN has untold powers within the seed and if he can so activate them into movement as here portrayed, firing the blood into racing life, bringing down the Solar Powers, he will be able to master his difficulties and rise up as the winged mind. (See text page 16, col. 3).

So no longer was the pole leaning in weak despair, but standing up strong and purposeful; ready to make contact with the Hierarchs through the contact of the spinal axis of man. So seeing what she had done, she flooded the heavenly belt with more and more wisdom, which they the Gods readily partook, that they could cleanse the lower maelstrom.

As she did this, she beheld the God of Life as the manifesting Divine Fatherhood, sitting up on the pinnacle point of the Arc, as the risen Flame of Life. No dead god on a cross stoning the world to a standstill, but a live God Royal and Divine, sending forth the Rays of the Heavens down to man below.

Such magnitude she had never beheld before, which gave her an understanding of her royal commission. The glorious life of the Atomic Fire now manifesting its eternal depths in her own inner perceptivity. Bringing forth before her super-mind sight, the divine magnitude of that unification of her raised up mind frequency. Thus Merope seeing the outcome of her work, saw the possibility that could come forth; that if she could like Hannah, go on raising the Arc in its Intelligencia magnitude, she could bring down a new Stream of Life to the Earth in its loss of holy Grace.

So through the wisdom she now possessed, she knew that man could not go past the maelstrom belt with his missile projection. For she had, by what she had done, made it impossible for him to interpenetrate; for she had so raised the vibrations, nothing of an earthy nature could pass through the vacuum that held the planes together.

Thus outside that belt ALL material substance automatically disintegrated by the Law of Vibration and Gravity.

The Radiant Flame of the Heavens

THEREFORE what she had to do, was to raise the Arcual belt, that he could NOT interpenetrate. So she brought the vibronic radiation above his possible creation by a vacuum belt, separating the two by raising all completely out of his reach, and deluding him by a state of illusion. This she did by enduring the

THE SACRIFICE OF THE PASSIONS

IN this plate of the soul the mystic will be able to realise that all are the different facets of the souls growth. Here are the two distinct sides of the mind, the higher ever seeking to sacrifice the passions, "the hindlegs of the horse," with the higher mind aspiring to raise the passions up the trunk of the tree (the cervical or neck part of the spine). The Heavenly Fires having been called down upon the altar, the soul passing through the Ara decan of Sagittarius trying with his intercalary action between Gemini and Sagittarius to raise the Fires and find the pinpointed Awareness. The winged mind free of the passions of earth, that which wings being fired by the incoming Fire of the Spirit.

inter-burning by the Cosmic Rays, for once she made such a statement, she became the vessel for their manifestation.

She knew this by the wisdom of the Occult Law, which Darius put into operation through Daniel. That which she soon put to proof, as she became a Nebuchadnezzar. Only she and those who tried to assist her, knew of the truth of this statement; and how it was not a matter of a figment of speech, or of her imagination. But a truth well and truly born, which she carried out to the bitter end. Thus more and more she rose the Arc, as she knew David did of old; thereby raised it right up to the Central Sun in all its Divine Glory, flooding man with new-born life out of her interpenetration.

But she so raised the Intelligencia Belt, that even the Gods became alarmed, and begged her to hold awhile, while they could adjust man to it. This she did, but Merope knew that unless she closed that eternal unification, she would ever be competing with others striving to outwit her in her task.

When all was ready once again, she continued with the work, until man became alight in his upper meninges. But what she was the means of doing first through herself, she brought to the risen God, and he became the mighty Radiant Flame of the Heavens, the truly risen Begotten Son.

For she rose her Seed up to the mind as her mind light, thus raising the Holy Fire back to its rightful place, as the divine Fire of the Divine Source, from whence all Life is derived. The manifesting of the Divine Fatherhood, who can be the means of giving unto all men, a new born Stream of LIFE.

For by man seeing the wisdom of turning his mind to the Great Flame as the Royal Holy Fire of the Central Sun, will he be the means of drawing down new LIFE from the Whole Universe.

(See plate page 12, cols. 2, 3 & 4)

The Newborn Stream of Life

THE revolution of what has ever been created and reborn, is from the Earth to the Gods of the Intelligencia. A revolving that keeps the Perpetua Mobile as the radiation of intelligent life, feeding the world beneath. That the more that man sends up as wisdom, the returned atoms of the Gods, will the Divine Source have to draw forth from the Greater Source, new LIFE to reimburse the world below.

So see what man can do, if he would only see the wisdom well-known by the mystic, although they have no tangible proof, because it is an imaginary axis that the ancients declared slipped through man's foolish ideas.

This the Mystic through his highly sensitised elevation, knows to be a fact, while the scientist merely working through figures, has to follow the lead of created beliefs, and blindly state what he believes to be true.

The mystic, the seeker into Occult laws by his spirit elevation, can link with those outer world Forces, that Merope knew and clearly proved, were real tangible divine mind light. Therefore she rose the Arc by this belief, as a Divine Mind of a Begotten Creation. That brought into birth by all the Prophets and Sages down the stream of life, that are waiting underneath the altar, for their blood life to be saved.

Man, when he fell backward into the lunar depths, out of the glorious planes of Heliopolis, dragged the Holy Fires of the Heavens, down into the mud of the earth waters. Turning them into the "traffic of men," and finally placed the god on the cross, to endure man's own sins. Of course this was very convenient, and is typical of the Catholics,—go to mass on Sunday morning, leave your biggest donation, then go out and completely rape the god you have placed upon the cross. It does not matter what you do, you can always come and twittipate some milk-sop priest in your confessional box. Thus set his mind and sex astir for the next coming mass production of creed and dogma.

The New Element The Hydrogen Waters

THUS Merope realised that the positive life fluid, as the Ambrosia of the Gods, was being ever badly raped by the man in his ignorance. So seeing this as the evils that he was dealing out to the glorious wonders of the Cosmic Life, she willingly took on the ways of the Scapegoat, that she could bring to man, the truth regarding his foolish actions of of this truth, and set his mind on this course. Not just leave it to the Scapegoat, but him to drawing down the wealth of the Holy Fire, and keep the seed and his mind alight.

For the more man draws upon those Fires and raises them up as mind, will a great Source, as a Stream of Supply from heaven to earth, continue down to man as New Life. Thus feed the depths and raise up Woman, who holds the whole Seed of Continuity. Without this is continued, the glory of the holy Seed perpetuated for the Christos Birth as the Solar Fire, will end. Man will merely become a Race of Beasts, born from the lower reaches.

At the present, the Hydrogen Rays as pure Energy, are flooding the Earth and man, giving the soul the opportunity of raising up the glories of Spirit, as the mighty EL fires of the depths. To become the wonders of an illuminated mind, as an electrical rebirth of proton and neutron, where the fire as proton hormone rebirth, becomes activated by the nymphs and shepherds.

The white corpuscles of the blood as the dancing nymphs, becoming red as they frolic with the incestuous states of the blood. Chasing them up the stream, until they become a buried state, as the eaten up creation of the risen born word of the activated mind. For as Wotan, the Uranian fire from the raised up passions, (See plate page 13, cols. 1 & 2) sets the hormone into action, do the nymphs drive forth as the rising ideas, upon every rolling wave of the tide. The plowing waters of the Bull, to wave, onto the shores of Byblos.

For as this is ever pursued by man, will the Stream of Life ever flow into his being, and he becoming an active bee in the enormous hive of Solar Life. Ever gathering in of new honey, that he can feed the Royal queen Bee as Mother Nature with new life, the Spouse of the holy heavenly Divine Stream.

Thus the possibilities here are enormous, the entire Magnificat of LIFE, whereby the soul could be completely rejuvenated by those holy Fires, and become the royal being he was intended to be. For now there is no need for him to fear. Merope took the burning of the Fire; she set the way, she opened doors, thus man can now travel that sacred Way without spilling his holy Fire. All he needs is courage and belief, and a royal heart purpose.

But if he is wise, he will from a point of inhabitant, discard the lower kingdoms; thus raise up of the lunar plane and adopt the Fire and air. Become a god in his own right, especially now that the meninges are alight, as unto the royal Arc. Thus it is up to him to be like David and dance before his God in a linen ephod. Surely this is more reimbursing than drugs and ridden quartermass.

A soul electrically alight with mind Fire, bringing the perceptory awareness into birth, the tree fully alight, and the cherished gift of all conscious souls. The lachrymal system quivering with sensitivity, and radiant with perceptive life.

Not dragging one's self around as a sex sodden soul, filled with beef and bread. But a soul alight with radiance and joy, a mind bounding with wisdom and love, born from the depths of understanding. Not religious righteousness, born from creed and dogma, but true compassion born from wisdom, with Uranus sparking

THE WOLF'S CONFESSION

... typical of the catholics, it does not matter what you do, you can always come and twitterpate some milk sop priest in your confessional box. A monk's garb that is covering up ancient roots that have never been redeemed. The wolf that is ever looking to steal the mighty depths of the Woman's Seed. Heavenly Fire that is being evilly distorted and turned into the betraying black paw. (See text page 10, column 1).

wide. A soul abounding with royal holy pride drawn from the eternal atomic Fire. Where the ambrosia of the Gods has risen up as mind light, the fiery essence of holy rebirth.

The soul having raised his mind up to the starry heights, where he was made acquainted with many glorious truths of life. Where he saw in his royal moments, the possibilities of God becoming his mind Grace. No longer afraid or ashamed to accept this Divine Truth as the meter of his mind rebirth, but talked with awe and reverence of the great wonders that he knew. That which he had experienced, and like Paul was lost for words to utter all that he knew, that in the majority is severed. Wealth of understanding that gave him pride of place, with a mind cute and keen, that revealed all the minute wonders of life.

(See plate page 16, cols. 4 & 5)

Thus began winding it up again, drawing himself up by means of relative frequency back to the royal Godhead. For there mirrored in his own rights was the royal flame, a branch from off the divine Tree, the Mamre Oak of the heavens. These being the wise souls who have seen the scientific yet holy truth, of the mechanics of the Cosmos. How the revolving Stream of heavenly life is ever feeding the Earth beneath, giving unto man his daily bread, the true Word of LIFE.

Filled with all the mysteries that Merope had resurrected into life; which if he would take and well digest, would help him to expand his mind, that he too could reach up into Space. But as man only flooded the maelstrom with missile and lunar desires, then what came down only became refilled with old magnetic effluvia, and could not give to man of any reborn life.

The Scapegoat Task

THIS was the first task of the Scapegoat, cleaning up the whole of the maelstrom, and reimbursing with holy light, the Intelligencia belt, raising up the Arc to dynamic heights, preventing missile invasion. Therefore whether the scientist likes to believe it or not, they never get past that barrier. Like all their statements, are over-rated figments of belief, that now cannot bear any form of truth. They are mere figures on a gilded book, and instruments that register the natural Cosmic Rays. Anybody can take a photograph and swear it was of kingdom-cum, but cannot hold water in its form of expansion, where it comes to grief.

They merely photographed the mind imprint of man, upon the maelstrom nitrogenic belt.

It being able to expand and grow is the test of all things; can it bring expansion? That is where these Teachings will have to prove themselves, and hold the fort to the bitter end.

As man receives the Chain of Causation from the heights, the inflowing stream of the ruach, and embraces it on divers states of frequency, can he be the means of bringing into birth, out of his own inner rock of accumulation, genius to feed the world anew. For wealth that Merope sent up to the heights, would now be intensified yea tenfold; reimbursed with greater wealth of a like nature, to strengthen man anew. So that it could set all that he had taken and hidden in his depths, alight up in his mind conscious that he could get a new set of thoughts, dancing in his void. Bringing into birth, not old form creation, but new mind birth. That which would release the lunar soul from the dreaded captivity of the pit. As to who or what the soul is, does not really matter; he may be a Solomon or a Saul, yet a mind that could now give of mighty birth from his growth of creation.

What had once been a Sultan in the Medo Persian era, and stole and fed on all the wealth of a mighty harem, could today, if he truly awakened, bring that wealth to mind light. His karmic dice is a personal matter, the Gods are only concerned with the return of their atoms. For until they are returned, the Gods are lame and cannot receive anymore from the Source, or give anymore unto man. They are blank to rejuvenate him, for there has been no state of revolution.

So when these Occult laws are understood, they will greatly simplify matter; for they have to be obeyed, whether man likes them or not. They really are quite simple once perceived why, and no man need be afraid of them, particularly now, for they are completely vibronically adjusted in the human reception of the Stream. Merope like Moses, adjusted them into life, thus took the trial and error, that all Laws have to pass through, that they are in accordance with the measure of life. For if they were twisted, they would cause all the world to become chaotically out of balance, and disaster to follow of such a nature, as only known to Atlantis. Now Laws are only instructed, by a Scapegoat testing and adjusting, that all be set into perfect law and order. So it is man that gets out of order, and not the laws of life.

The Wealth of Woman

WHAT man really has to understand, is of the wealth that is lying idle in the creation called Woman, consequently becoming congested and fouled in the besotting life of the soul Wealth that has come from the depths of Ages, and is the line of continuity. It is this that must be sent back to the Gods, unified with the glories of the Fire of the seed. The two combined, when sent up to the heights as mind light, can be the means of drawing down polarity wealth, of an equal frequency.

While man is filled with royal wealth, lost for the time being the holy fires endowed upon him, to bring forth the royal heritage of the Father manifesting in the depths. Yet it can never die, because it contains the royal divine spark of the holy divinity.

Therefore if the soul gets too glutted, like Lot when Abraham fed him to the full, and forced the fires into action, bursting all into a million pieces. This is where it is declared, that God came and destroyed Sodom and Gomorrah. It was the holy Fire in the internal depths, finally asserting its way of escape. The proton and the neutron setting the electrons into fiery action, bursting open the door of the captivity. Whereas man who will not expand these atoms, will sometime or another find them fly back into the vortex source of the impending road of life.

Thus leaving the soul blank and blind, standing in a wilderness empty and dead. This is where it behoves a soul to seek into these Laws of life, thus become aware of these holy Truths that connect man with the royal heavens. For then he can, by the Law of Unfoldment, become acquainted with what can be gathered up by a mind that attunes itself to its wisdom.

Thus becomes a mind open to genius reception, that can be the means of a permanent Stream being established upon the Earth, and becoming created as a Source of active life to starving mankind below. A means by where the soul can become healed, new forms of education can be administered, and a new Occult investigation from a point of initiation can begin.

For as the world and Cosmos unfold, new ways are bound to be demanded; for as the soul rises up on its path of unification, new ways will begin to unfold, revealing new terms of acceptance.

The more the soul draws down to the Truth and labours with as a diligent son, will the perpetuum ever keep him radiating with atomic life. For the magnitude of wonders that are waiting to be revealed, are beyond the dreams of avarice. Man has never really sought in this direction yet, owing to his fear of Neptune; but even this has been made strait the gate for every man to investigate.

But not before he cleanses his soul of the lower animal bestial states, this being one of the first initiations that he has to abide by. And if he does by any chance, flaunt this rigid rule, he will find that the inner fire will soon demand its toll.

THE ARC OF ETHEREALISATION

AS the race struggles to upraise the form by raising up the Arc of mind comprehension slowly will the feminine Principle rise up out of the Waters, crossing over the bridge of form unto etherealisation, and returning to the Fatherhood the wealth of their Seed but now as mind light. Then the Hierarchical Gods send down more Cosmic Rays (as the men returning earthwards) feeding and resuscitating the dead life... the Eternal thread of Continuity.

The Lord of the Flame

(See plate col. 5)

The rudiments of this road is only being barely laid down, of what man could gain by turning his face to the royal heavens and away from the reflection of the waters. Where the solution to his problems really lie, not in drug and knife. But drawing down into his being the holy Fire of the Central Sun as the risen up Flame of the divine Godhead. This is what Akhnaton saw as he perceived the holy bounty that could come unto his royal crown, if he elevated up his mind frequency. Thus rose up out of the dung of life and embraced the royal waters in the heavens of his own mind; then expanded them into holy unction for the lesser mind to embrace.

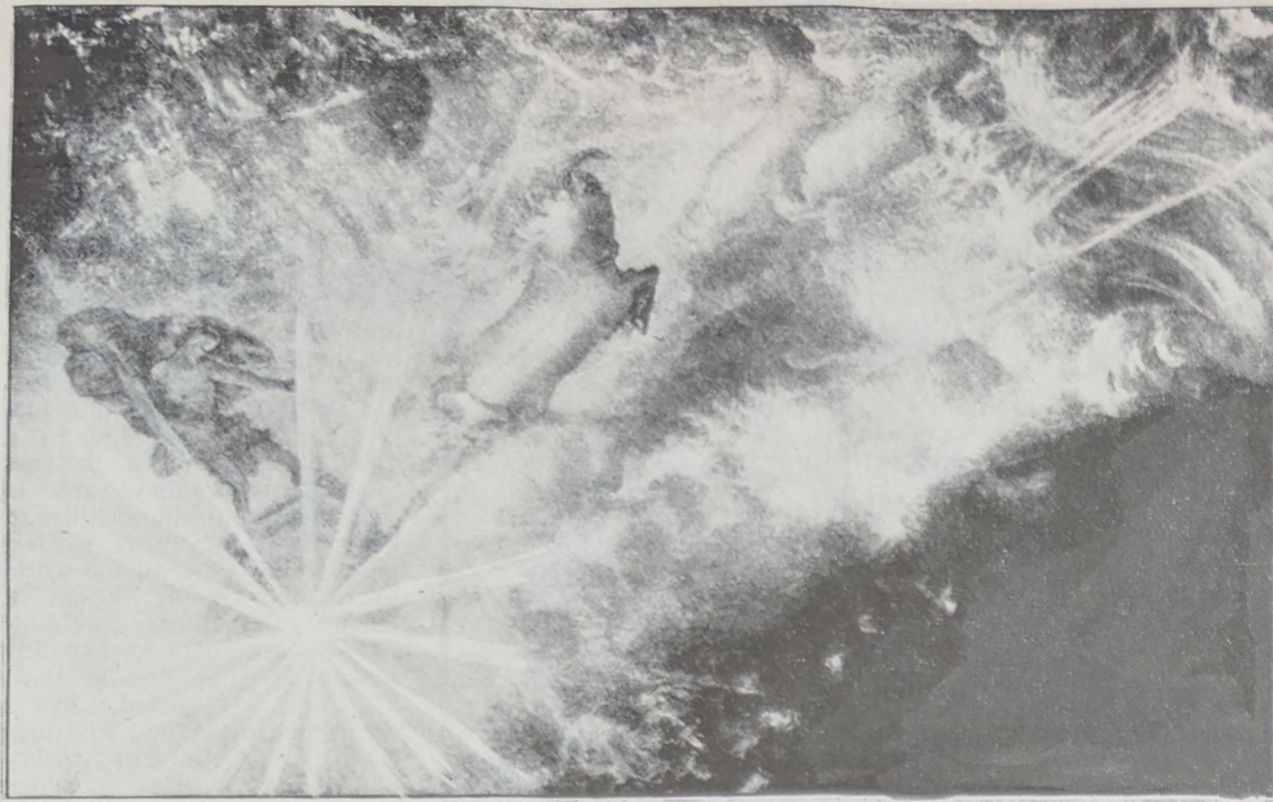

The possibilities here can only be perceived by the soul who reaches this stage of acceptance and growth. Thus forms his own deeds of belief, for there are no set forms to creating this royal wealth, every man creating his own Vase.

Who can tell a composer what music to bring forth, or an artist his picture to paint, yet what royal divine manifested wonder the Holy Fatherhood could speak through a divine mind child.

Every man is an original genius unto himself, establishing an EL stream of divine creation between God and himself.

Then when one is created, while it is accepted and continued by man upon the earth, life divine will ever flow down through that Holy Stream. These are the Streams of Holy Water that often end in a rocky cavern underneath the earth, issuing forth a muddy bracken stream of life. A unification that never expanded, but merely touched the earth; a soul who went so far, and never fulfilled the course. Thus states waiting as boulders in the stream of the Milky Way, that will at some time be picked up by a creative mind, and given a further state of rebirth.

For every atom drawn down to the Earth, will have to be returned as heavenly light to the royal heavens. But giving at the same time to the earth, redemption and holy rebirth; where the lower planes are all lifted up out of the lower dungeons of life. All being involved onto a higher form of life, dissolving of the form and taking on of the finer

THE RISE OF PHAETON AS ARIES THE SUN GOD

THE risen Phaeton born from the Atomic Fire driving into birth the glories of the solar Light, the atomised electrified mind. forms, which states of higher frequency creation. For every plane has a state of form, but not solid as of the Earth. That is the lowest form of matter, all lower is corruption.

This alone proves that missile states cannot leave the band of earth creation, even though the scientist declares of a state of severing gravity. He never really leaves the maelstrom band, otherwise by the Law of Gravity, it would be dissolved by the change of frequency. What is required to hold form together, is missing on the higher frequency. The immensity of these higher planes of Ruach Ether is a wisdom that only the Mystic understands; and whatever the scientist may declare, he only does so from facts and figures placed upon segregated paper.

Although he goes up to the heights, he does not know where the maelstrom really ends. When he strikes what he calls the moon or a form of planet, really he is only striking the sound barrier. Then in taking pictures of the moon or any other planet he really is only taking a plate of what is on the Hall of Mirrors. An impregnation of the magnetic field, filled with man's nitrogenic beliefs.

The Stream of the Elect

ALL this is but a minute enquiry into the wonders of the Cosmos, which man is creating by his seeking into life, and being prepared to make adventure. Coming away from old ideas, and entering onto finer planes of creation; being led by one who is prepared to be a Scapegoat, initiating new ways and Laws into life. For they are used to be the means of adjusting those Laws, by the higher Powers passing through them in trial and error. Hence the way is made strait, and the gate is taken away. This has been the work of the heroes, prophets and sages all the way down the Stream.

But the greatest that has ever been put into operation, was when Merope had to try and bring the Solar birth into establishment, for no one so far had been able to make the change over. This then would place up on the risen Arc, the true FACE of the Godhead. As to how the Arc was raised, was the matter to be proved; this is why Merope rose the Arc all the way, that there would not follow down the Ages, periods of fighting confusion. The way now is set, with all Laws of Unification duly created; all it needs now is man adjusting himself to the changing Cosmos, which will change under his very eyes.

Merope was led and guided by the very Hierarchs of the Higher World of Heavenly Life, for they were determined that man would change his ways, and no longer bring confusion and destruction to the Gods. For it stood a chance of a repeat cycle of Atlantis, but with greater and more dire results. With mighty wealth waiting to come into birth that the Gods were eagerly seeking, that they could reurnish the heavens. Otherwise the heavens were bare, and returning no life to the depths, especially man placing the God upon a cross, as a dead leader of men.

Through such Laws and changes being put into operation, as was established by the Hierarchical Gods, the whole world has been changed right round, with the Axis being righted, and the Earth through the change now established through the impregnation of the higher Cosmic Rays, is in its changes, spinning up in a jet propelled way, higher and higher to a changing state of frequency.

But man upon his surface will not change by his mind outlook; so it can only be a matter of returning generations, that will bring the soul to blend with the Cosmic changes, and bring the Earth to the royal etherealised status, now set for her to become.

The magnificat of the rebirth that has really taken place, is only known to the Mystic; but that means the soul who seeks into this wisdom, and embraces on the greater truths that the higher Forces can bring. Man shuns anything to do with Occultism, only because he is afraid to step off the mud of matter, and fly up into the planes of life. He learning to embrace the whole of being, that he can in time unite what was segregated, to bring all back to a state of oneness. The glories that now are pouring down into the Earth, would amaze even the direst credulist, and if man could only turn and embrace, he would become born of the higher planes.

It will have to be of the Stream of Elect, who through the wisdom they have embraced, go on drawing down the Stream, that is now bringing fresh air into life. It is not noticeable as it should be, owing to the vast numbers holding onto old dead states; so it has to be the few that keep the Stream flowing, by placing up the one who Mastered the problem, thus becomes the Christed one for that Age.

It is not until Ages go past that the world realises what mistakes they have made, then crown the sufferer of that Age, with laurels that he could well have received, while he was struggling to perform his feats.

Universal Philosophy

IF man would only look upwards as it did through his once religious zeal, but now seeing all from a Cosmic truth, and NOT from a personal state. Seeing with width of vision of the glories of the inflowing Cosmic wonders, that now have been drawn down into life, under balanced order.

But even more, with Laws and wisdom duly set, that can fill man with knowledge and wisdom, that would help him to rebuild his life. Balanced keys that could help him to unify his own unbalanced states, thereby burying in the multitude of multiplicity that accrued over the Pisces Age. Which really is the cause of man's difficulties today, him split in divers creation.

This is where the Waters are going to bind him up, even if he does not blossom under their interpenetrating Fire. That will come in time as he struggles, but even under the

THE RELEASE OF PROMETHEUS

PROMETHEUS is the movement of the lightning-flash of knowing, the Fiery Flame that exists in the twinkle of the eye, before thought destroys its radiant perfection, its Eye Divine. Desire pinioned the fiery harmonic in the liver, chaining the Fiery Life to the serpent. Only when the soul becomes a Hercules and masters the lunar waters to upraise Venus into Uranus will Forethought once more be free, the Eye of Perception be restored, and the Waters of Neptune once again flow.

THE URANIAN SWORD OF WOTAN

HERE in the forge of Uranus Wotan tempers the Sword, the steel strength of will to drive all ideas into action, and not sit back in lunar desires destroying the moving harmonic life.

new guiding light that is coming forth from the Waters. Yet man has his own free-will, and often goes too far with it; hence loses all through his stubborn refusal to bend to the Cosmic life. Again if only he could be persuaded of the wonders that lie in wait for him, where by him turning to these greater Laws, and embracing the Cosmic infinity, he could be so unified, as to reach his destined immortalisation, and return to his original plane of descent.

Instead he goes on with the life of suffering, of which the Plane of Earth has become, to finally lose his royal wealth, and merely be a floating life in the Stream of Rebirth. Not a cell in the Kingdom of the Fatherhood, but just a floating state of non-entity life. A life-force trying to establish a state of individual consciousness, to begin all over again. Never really losing the depths, although its individual manifestation is gone, it would be a state of Essence, that would try to come into life.

All this can be avoided, by the soul looking towards the heights, coming away from the lunar depths, and seeking the wealth of his fiery Seed. Bringing his royalty into birth, as the light of his manifested mind, helping Woman to bring forth her depths, although the way has been provided for her too.

Which in the coming article of Vesta, the way is shown of how Merope solved this problem, that woman would be fully emancipated. For man is still a very fixed creature, and finds it very difficult to come away from those original ideas, that took birth when the Fire originally came down.

This is the problem, he has never changed, becoming more and more adjusted to his habits, which he only sees in a way of right. It is Woman in her struggle to exist, that keeps her linked with God, as she so does will she get under the glories of his unfolding Kirtle.

Resulting in every woman being a Mary, bringing the gods into birth, teaching them of the Love of endurance, and the divinity of honour and grace. Wonders now lie everywhere, for those who are prepared to grasp them, but only by the soul shedding the old coat, and coming forth in peplous anew.

The Great Lord of the Flame, is sending down his Rays through the Generative Waters, by turning to him as the live vibrant Mind that is waiting to guide all who seek him. Will the soul be embraced in his elevated encompassment, by the soul being able to become of the electrified mind.

But he must be prepared to follow the course of instruction, which is shedding the old ways and ideas. Thus becoming born of the greater issue, the glories of the mind plane; where the fiery wealth of the Central Sun, will lift the soul up to the heavens.

For the Waters that are now coming down, as the new element, are of pure Energy, the glories of his Kingdom.

So man either becomes, or slinks away to the outer recesses of matter, where he will people the new world, but only as a non-entity state. Therefore the possibilities are vast, a complete change over, which man has refused to make, all the way down the Ages. Thus Merope swung the world around her head, not once, not twice, but many times. Bringing change after change in the Cosmic Law, where even the Elements were given rebirth, thus enabling the Hierarchical Powers descending down into matter.

This alone, to the soul with any wisdom, proves much of what has been stated, as being a proven fact, by what has taken place. With such Rays coming to the Earth, and which are established for good, man will find that the quickest and surest way, is embraced by the wisdom now placed as UNIVERSAL PHILOSOPHY. For that is the course that the Stream and Waters are now continuing, and the way that all men are going. For these ARE the Laws, whether man believes it or not, and will carry him right down the Stream.

Thus man, turn thine eyes to the great Flame, that thou too become lighted by his Beam, the soul going forth with the flame risen high in his own mind.

THE SOUL COMING UP OUT OF THE LUNAR WATERS OF THE DEPTHS, AS A SOLAR BORN CHILD OF LIGHT.

Therefore carrying forward the positive life fluid, as the Ambrosia of the gods; ever opening up genius creation to bring life to a wilting Race.

MEROPE AND THE LORD OF THE FLAME

THIS Age is of Aquarius the opposite to Leo, and it was then some 13,000 years ago that man fell, "stung" by the serpent of lust, the seminal fires. Until the Fire was retrieved, and raised back to its rightful Mind plane of manifestation, man would continue wallowing in the animal pit of desires and the Holy Fire desecrated.

Gladys I. Spearman-Cook long knew of the necessity of this, and came down in this life to lead all those who could raise up the Seed to its rightful sphere of manifestation. To prepare to do this she first had to "bore" through, and unify all the lives since the Fall, to get back to the status of Being that she had been, awakening the ancient Matriarchate wealth, bringing all into Oneness.

MEROPE was then her name, the Goddess from Venus, who had come down to guide the Earth and be the pure Divine channel for the Holy Fire of the Father to descend and "fire" the hermaphrodite Loves, the matriarch race, to stir them out of the inward inertia that existed.

It was then She fell into the lunar pit murdered by those who had taken of the Fire and had not used it as taught. Merope was ruthlessly trapped by these sons of the GOD Fire who had used IT to turn all to delight and desire, until the DIVINE VIRGIN, weighted down by the mire of those around her, She too was trapped by the rising waters of desire.

She, who had been the Instrument to give birth to these sons of GOD, the Mother of the Human Race, alone had the key to resurrect the FIRE once again, as soon as the Polarity Age to Leo came into being.

So when Aquarius came all was set, for her gigantic task was to raise the Fire from the depths to the very Heights, rescuing IT, the HOLY SEED, and restoring IT to the Fatherhood. Thus she so stimulated and raised up the vibronic frequency of her mind that she was able to awaken her own god life in her meninges, the 12 gods, who as the microcosm can attune into the Great Cosmic Lords, the 12 Hierarchs.

This she did, but only after suffering from the same rapage as in her original day, by the same males, the men of Pibeseth and Aven, who dragged the Goddess back to the serpent pit of animalism. But She successfully fought to the very last strength to uphold the Royalty of the SEED, turning all her mind on the Great Lord of Scorpio through whom the Holy Fire is channelled and ruled, that she earned the right to be protected and overshadowed by the GREAT FATHERHOOD whom she by her belief brought into birth, as well as the 12 Hierarchs.

Now THEY are directing the Earth and its density, through her as the sensitive Transmitter of Their VOICE, who is the Pen for the Divine WORD to go forth. Her great Divinity has been restored and now as MEROPE the Mother of the "sons" of earth she has blended her matriarch Fount with the wealth of the greatest heights, the Central Sun, the Lord of the Flame, the Lord Maitreya, becoming the Living Christos the Golden Light of the Central Sun.

It now rests with those who have treacherously tried to destroy her, to glorify Her Name and Her Works, and the FACE of the Central Sun that she manifested to the World. She now as the uprisen VESTA, the acclaimed wife of Vulcan, directs the destiny of the Earth guiding all those who follow her, bringing the Earth to become the Radiant Ball of LIGHT, through following her road.

Readers' Letters

SO Commences the Year of Destiny, the Year when all men will come up for judgment, the judgment of relativity, whereby they will be forced to face and acknowledge their roots. This will be the time when all our readers where ever they may be should strive to spread the Word in every possible way so that people awake to the reason the sweeping changes are being made and the world are being brought up sharp.

This will be the time when our postbag will spread fast and readers will and must realise that all the letters cannot be answered at once and not even all the letters. But every effort will be made to cover those received and to answer them where possible. If any readers would like to have a dozen or so Universal Philosophy leaflets to spread the truth around and to encourage the blind in mind to seek afresh, they only have to write in to the Editor and they will be sent. Once again we have examples of our healing rewards those that come every month as more and more have faith in Spirit and avoid the wicked hand of the butchers of medicine.

Lastly may everyone fight with all their might this coming year sparing nothing to build and create the Mind body of the future. May 1966 carry you up to the Central Sun, with the Mind electrified and Solar born.

Gratitude to, and Wonders of, the Powers of Spirit Healing

Mrs. Castle, Rochester, Kent.

ONCE again in this issue we introduce successful cases of healing one in America and one in England. When Mrs. Castle first wrote she stated:

"...some help for my husband re a health condition... For some time past he has had trouble with his back passage and has passed blood at times. He has been afraid to go for medical advice upon this it seems a deep fear with him in this respect. Last Friday his back gave out. I called the doctor who says it is a slipped disc and he has to stay in bed for 2 weeks. The pain has been severe... I was told by spirit friends through a friend in trance that he has a growth... and that he should have an operation..."

Mrs. Castle was written to and advised that there was no such trouble as a slipped disc and that his basic difficulty was the failure to raise up his fires to feed the cells of the brain, ever stimulating his mind. He was advised to take Marigold Flowers, Horsetail and Yarrow, and to come up to see Mrs. Spearman-Cook for special healing to be given him. It was immediately after a visit to her that his wife wrote this letter:

"I am writing to tell you how pleased and happy we both are at the wonderful result of the healing and herbal treatment we have both received. This past two weeks my husband is his old real self, free from any sort of pain in the back passage. He says the lump which was there has gone and he can freely pass his motions with no after pain. We are overjoyed about this and are so very grateful to you and all your dear helpers in the flesh and in Spirit for this healing.

The nerve pills are wonderful and we both feel the benefit of them, also all the herbs prescribed which we continue to take each day. He is also taking the anti-obesity pills which we know will do him good. We cannot get up for healing this week and to renew our boxes of pills so we shall be most grateful if you can kindly send on to us some more nerve pills for both of us. We have sufficient herbs to use for the time being.

Thank you all so very much for all your love and good works to help humanity and we hope to be up again whenever we can manage it."

Mrs. Beasley, Ohio, U.S.A.

IN our second example on August 15th Mrs. Beasley wrote as follows:

"Once again I solicit your aid in a problem of mine. My left Breast concerns me. At times I can feel "something" which is illusive and at times the area is sensitive to the touch. Burning like. The feeling extends around my armpit. Can you recommend any particular herbs to remedy this?"

In reply Mrs. J. H. B. was recommended to watch radically her diet seeking to make changes away from all animal foods as well as tinned etc. Salt and the other condiments were advised to be sacrificed. The two herbs were Violet Leaves and Marigold Flowers, and she had her name placed on the Healing List. Then only recently at the end of November she wrote that she had decided to have a complete medical check in hospital about the breast problem.

"And now let me tell you more please. Somewhere along the line I wrote you of my breast problem. The doctor called it cystic mastitis and the lump under the left breast was increasing to the point of discomfort. When Doctor No. 1 examined me he said he felt nothing in either breast. Doctor No. 2, the gynecologist, re-examined my breasts and Pennsylvania Readers' Please Note!

THE School wishes every Reader to note that setting up of Groups and Sanctuaries under the parentage of the London School should be the aim of all readers living in cities together or who are certainly within the same State. We hope as many Penn readers as possible will write in to Mr. J. WADE EBERT, 224 North 12th Street, Allentown, Pennsylvania, U.S.A., so that a permanent Group can be founded. This should also apply to many other states and areas and we hope that action is taken everywhere, so that 1966 not only becomes the year of Destiny for Mankind but the year for the lightning spread of UNIVERSAL PHILOSOPHY. Formal Registration with the Secretary of the Headquarters here in London will aid all in their establishments. (Editor).

Mr. Ebert,
Pennsylvania, U.S.A.

"My wife and I subscribe to the Occult Gazette and our greatest desire is to be able to attend classes of the School of Universal Philosophy and Healing, even though our present finances will not allow us to do so. Many organisations affiliated with New Age teachings of higher learning are establishing sanctuaries to be used in the future as a refuge during the coming world upheavals. Are there any in the U.S.A. establishing sanctuaries that you could recommend, and that are graduates of your School that live in this vicinity or nearby cities?"

Papalism

Mrs. Dunn, Luton, Beds.

"I myself am most unorthodox. In fact, what I feel about the teachings of the catholic church amounts to repugnance at times, that people could be so stupid as to absorb such a creed."

Mrs. Irwin, Johannesburg, S.A.

"We are taught first things first, but I'm always in a quandry as to which is really first—there is so much I have to learn and I can assure you that the teachings of our wonderful O.G. has helped and comforted me in many ways from time to time, for which I am profoundly grateful.

My October O.G. has just arrived safely. The papalism pamphlet was very interesting as my July copy must have also gone astray due to my travelling from C.T. (Sea Point) up to Johannesburg. What an eye opener—my mother in her wisdom having had religion forced on her as a young one—gave her children complete freedom of 'thought' but with tolerance and respect for all our fellow men and their beliefs, and then to work things out according to the dictates of the heart."

felt only a wee bit, but in my right breast. Nothing to concern myself about, he said. Doctor No. 3 has known my make-up for several years and he said, "You have changed, there are no lumps."

Dear Friends, I have been HEALED. I do not recall when I wrote and requested being put on the healing list, but this has occurred in the interim. I am so delighted and grateful. Thank you from the bottom of my heart. I shall heed your advice and not take herbs in pill form. I also have them in capsule form, powdered herbs in gelatin capsule. The reason for doing so is I work and wanted to be able to use the herbs during the working hours.

Thank you again for all you good people have done for me. I feel as though I know you personally."

Mrs. H. Waring, Skipton, Yks.

Thank you so much for the herbs and pills which you sent, which I am taking as instructed. I feel a new woman already, even though I had no ailments before. I feel as though I could take off and fly up to the stars.

Repeatedly we have advocated the importance of herb taking and Readers in increasing numbers are now taking their daily infusions, changing the herbs to suit the changes made in the

The Glories of Vesta

MAN was so blind, cruel and cold, and made no attempt to grasp truth and light when they were offered to him, but was ever content with the ways of matter, e'en though they caused him pain and terror. Now the moment was here when he would be forced to start the path of unfoldment and truth, it was only a matter of TIME, when each soul would awaken to the truth that he was grasping in his depths. For no longer was man held by the depths, he had been freed by transmutation. Those conditions he had created by taking the Elements and turning them into desire, were now raised up and the means of getting him free, if he would only find the electrified mind. The mystery of the six little eggs upon the floating nest, waiting for the soul to rise up, and raise his frequency deep into the Arctic Circle, for there lay mysteries equal to her Fount, the depths of the mystery of yesterday.

But this was only the beginning of wonders that yet were to be revealed, for Vulcan was a mighty force that man had yet to experience and master, and bring to a glorious unfoldment. For now it could only be by the electrified mind, that man could penetrate the wisdom now unified by Merope, who had brought all to a blended creation. Raising man up as she went by the raising of the planes, where Vesta was going to play a greater part, in the attention to the earth.

So Vesta, who was a mighty mystery, except for a virgin maid, what could she reveal, since woman was so full of surprises. Had she not become the flying Swan that penetrated every part of the heavens, the spirit winged, and now free to bring into birth the polarity of her depths. Yet did not Merope become the flying Swan as she rose up into the heavens, hence was she not the glorious Vesta, whose Star was the reality side of the picture. The wealth she was building up on high from her struggles in the depths, where the Etheric replica of her earth Temple was created, and the Gods laid their mighty plans.

Yet for Ages all had been glories from the heights, wealth that once gave to Egypt power and unknown glory. Now more mighty still, for it was of the frequencies unknown, Powers that reached right up to the Central Sun and the glories of the Arctic Circle, now bathing the world in glory.

Very little has ever been given regarding the mysterious planet of Vesta, for it being of the Venus category, much depended upon her risen depths. There lies the secret of what might come forth, surely Mercury dancing high and low. Snatching wonders out of the heights, to reveal to the wise below. For as the planet of Venus drew closer and closer to the unity with the heights, only these Powers will be the guiding influence, giving unto the soul, the power of the rising flame.

The power of the spirit that can only be manipulated by the wise; those who understood of its power and glory, and could rise up to its demanded light.

That of LOVE in its true category, for was not Vesta as regal Vega, who was the destined Pole Star of the future. The prophetic warning that she would come forth in A.D. 2,000, when all religions would be swept away, for the true manifestation of the Embodiment.

Through Merope setting all ahead of time, or really in keeping with destiny, she set the Polar action of the Polaris in keeping with the rising of the Flame. Where all would change and bring forth only through frequency, the raised up balanced mind. Where only the wise would enter into the unfolding world of risen glory; for the inferior would not be capable of recognising, or even perceiving the wonders of the mind.

Hence such would bring those soul struggling up to the category of a god, with the literal power of the spirit. That which when put into operation by the wise, could bring forth of glories untold. An ever rising regime of LIFE, where mystery after mystery would be revealed, to the consciousness called man.

Powers that could only be handled by the wise, for they were of Vulcan's pitch blende sparks, that ever destroyed when not handled by the wise. It was he who was now driving Vesta to get all into the action of tomorrow, where she would ever drive the planet of Earth with her unfolding cargo. By being the Pole Star ever passing over earth's polar point as she spun in her daily turn; thus ever feeding the earth with more and more wisdom, to raise up the decadent LOVES.

The Fire of Hephaistos

BUT where the LOVES were now to become risen up gods, solving the mystery of man being born of Woman, and returning back to woman again. For gender does not belong to the spirit, that only belongs to the beast, he with no capabilities at all, but only the power of brawn. The lumbering boar that was held to matter, and could see no further than form. But those who had learnt the art of rising up of the frequency, and had gained the wisdom of the risen mind. The soul electrified with dancing life, the winged mind that could capture wealth untold, and appreciated only by the wise.

Man free from the cloying dung of matter and unified with the heights. Therefore what lies ahead for souls freed from matter, could only be comprehended by those souls at the time. For man who is still held by form, could not perceive such values, therefore were categories apart. This is where so-called miracles are performed, the Power of the Spirit now risen up free from form, a soul super-conscious born.

This is the depth of the mystery, one now born of the pitch-blende glories of Vulcan, the Fire of the Hephaistos God of the mysterious heights.

THE GREAT EAGLE'S HEALING COLUMN

Hysterectomy and Numbness in Hands and Fingers

Mrs. A. L., of Auckland, New Zealand.

At 22 was married and had one child...no more children...when I sought medical advice was put into hospital quickly with ovarian cysts, and had a complete hysterectomy... The problem now is two fold: overweight with a strong desire for food. I realise this may be glandular imbalance as immediately after the operation I was given thyroid tabs. I do not want to have drugs so am hopeful.

In addition at night time towards the early hours of the morning no matter what position I am lying whenever I awake, find a numbness in my fingers of both hands usually the left is worse and both are not affected at the same time. The feeling is similar to pins and needles without the prickling sensation. I have consulted osteopaths, spiritual healers, but without any improvement. Could you suggest what particular treatment I need?

FIRST in answer to the hysterectomy...again the Spirit cannot restore to you your limb or your arm if you remove them, so in fact they cannot restore to you your ovum and womb. Now you have lost the actual organ which loss naturally causes a glandular imbalance as without the ovaries you do not get the activation of the pituitary as you all know. How the medical world can murder women in this fashion is beyond the understanding of Spirit. All the wealth that was residing there has been stolen and you may have to labour lives—according to how hard you labour in creative action—before you restore the fires and woman's wealth.

My advice as you have no 'fires' is to seek some male who has an abundance of fire from which you can draw whilst you in turn try to take in of the word by turning to study and seek to draw up the seed from the glands at the bottom of the spine and from the bones the wealth of the blood. Much you can still do particularly to prepare yourself in wisdom for the next life.

Now for treatment: first invariably there is need for the activation of the kidneys so that their movement helps to excrete fluid, otherwise there will begin to build up the overweight that invariably exists with those who have had such an operation. Further there is a need to have special activation of the thyroid. This is necessitated as the person invariably starts to draw on the solar light that the thyroid stores and it soon finds itself empty. This is why iodine is recommended, and nature provides an ideal remedy, the

READERS have raised once again the question of what happens to those who have undergone certain operations such as hysterectomy, spinal puncture and blood transfusion, for one reader writes asking of my statement in the October issue when I stated:

"It is no good going to a doctor and being pumped with drugs or even more diabolical acts such as hysterectomy, spinal punctures, or blood transfusion, any of which takes away from the person all his soul growth."

This does not mean to imply that all the soul growth in every part of the body is taken away just because one pint of blood is removed, for this is not common sense. The phrase "all his soul growth" infers the loss of all the growth in that particular organ that is taken away, and not all the soul growth existing in the soul obviously. As I have stated once before in relation to the question of hysterectomy, "I cannot put the organ back...it is like taking a clock with no spring and expecting it to work."

In all cases where souls have had such as limbs severed or operations such as hysterectomy, tomy, the only possible way to act is to study and build up the mind in the Word and wisdom so that in the next life, they have the wisdom within their consciousness to so conduct themselves that they can build to replace the organ they have lost, weaving it into life once again through building it through mind creative action and heart determination. The reader in question is an ardent seeker in the Word and should be well fortified in her understanding of the Wisdom.

Now let us to our first question which is unfortunately another case of hysterectomy. The medical butcher stops at nothing to destroy.

Where the atomic depth of the spirit has been taken, and foresaken for the flesh and its trumpery glory, now can become the power and glory of the risen spirit. Those born with the power of the Perceptory Principle completely at their command, those alight with the glories of the Central Sun in their radiant pituitary. The whole of the lachrymal system now fully alight, bringing the very heights of the heavens down into the gods below.

The very understanding of these statements alone, make a man a god, one who can define truth from false, that being of one categorised Source. Wholeness, completeness, that unified into oneness of being, who could feed the world with electrified truth, that they could be brought to life. This is the work of every potential Vesta; Venus risen up to the heights, one brought out of multiplicity, where the soul only partakes of particles and sees and understands by that particle of being.

Now he could feed the world with wholeness, for every soul to leave the world of matter, must go back to his "HOME" as a god, render service and get himself free, from any cloying density of matter.

Thus a soul not as a LOVE, but a Vesta feeding mankind with the milk of TRUTH, that will be polarised by the Pole Star Vesta. It is this and this only that will free the soul from the matter that he values and is tied to, before the wealth of the spirit.

Thus alone points out to any enquiring student, that a soul must reach that category of understanding before he can value and appreciate the glory of the spirit. While he still lives in the density of matter, the beast will blind him to the glories he is discarding for the possessiveness of matter. Only when the freedom of spirit has been tasted and truly remembered, does the soul cry out for the freedom they have lost, and forced to endure of Babylon.

Therefore it is up to every soul now to prime their path of service and ever seek for the pitch-blende sparks of the manifesting Vulcan. Then they will find themselves becoming as Vesta to feed the world with the wonders of life.

But ever receiving the electrified current enveloping the Earth from the Polaris rising wisdom to bring the Vega, containing the ever soul up out of the depths, to go forth to the glorified Planet of rebirth. The Golden radiance of the reborn Heliopolis, for all souls freed from matter; no longer held by the Sea of Sargossa, by their foot chained to the magnetic rock.

But ariel born, dancing with the spirit, for they captured of the six little eggs, floating on the Waters of life.

SO NEXT WE BRING THE SECRET GLIMPSE OF THE UNFOLDING STAR, WHERE MEROPE PLIES HER REALITY, THE UPPER GLORY OF HER WISDOM NOW ONLY SEEN UPON THE DARK AND DINGY EARTH.

NEMESIS, THE GODDESS OF JUSTICE

MANKIND will now have to meet that which has been sown throughout the ages of this Solar Year, from the Age of Leo to Now. Now the Laws must be declared and upheld and it is no earthly use man running away in fear or in rebellion. The LAWS have been changed and the New set into motion by the Hierarchs who henceforth will rule the minds of men, once he is altered to obey the Law.

HEALING PRAYER

WE call upon the Great Ones to give their blessing unto those who are seeking for freedom from the sickness of life, all brought about, not by mere chance but their own complications built up within themselves over the growing Ages. Now they must learn to inter penetrate those Laws that they have abused in the past. So help these children who are seeking for new life to find the way to enquire into wisdom.

AMEN EN GLORIAM

seaweed herb FUCUS VESICULOSUS, which holds an abundance of natural iodine, known as Kelpware. A special tablet known as Kelpware exists, but in view of the fact you wish to get down the weight you may prefer to take the anti-obesity pill, which contains both CLIVERS (Galium Aparine) to activate the kidneys and the excretion of fluid, as well as the seaweed. You would also be recommended to take JUNIPER BERRIES (Juniper Communis) in your green salad as they activate and purify the kidneys too.

Secondly as you have to draw in the solar fires I would suggest that you take always MARGOLD FLOWERS (Calendula Officinalis) and ROSEMARY (Rosemarinus Officinalis), both ruled by the sun and both will give you great aid with the development of the mind activation. Lastly you would be recommended to take some herbs that can feed you with energy and these would be HORSETAIL (Equisetum Arvense) and BLESSED THISTLE (Carduus Benedictus).

The symptoms she describes as taking place in your hands are entirely due to a negative mind drive and a lack of solar Light. It is absolutely imperative that you consciously throughout the day draw down the rays of the Central Sun and try to spin your mind so that your vision expands and lets in the fresh air you so badly need. Then you will get the logical mind, the two dogs of Gemini barking away as they are brought into life. For Gemini is ruler of the hands, the creative mechanics of the soul and by becoming such you are becoming lifeless and a danger to yourself and others around. Study and prayer and calling down the solar Fires supported one hopes by a loved one will aid you greatly.

The Mystery of a "Slipped Disc"

Mr. J. of Warwickshire.

Several years ago, I arose one morning and it had happened... I suffered quite painful lumbago (if it was that) each side of the bottom of my spine, and on one occasion it lasted 6 months before it finally disappeared—again it vanished as quickly as it arrived, overnight, and I was puzzled for a long time.

After about a year or eighteen months of freedom from this pain and discomfort it returned just as quickly to haunt me for several more months. It was always centred round the bottom of my spine... this time it was worse. If I remember rightly it was about the time that I had then been reading 'The Occult Gazette' and had discarded it, because although I believed in the messages it contained, my soul was still rebellious (always had been but a rebel of the wrong sort) and sensual. At that time I had no intention of "returning to the fold."

It was a long time before the pain subsided and by then, strangely enough my mind awareness must have begun to unfold, for I became less rebellious and my thoughts turned more and more to Occult matters and particularly to the O.G.

Eventually I subscribed again, and have been a regular reader for eighteen months. Earlier this year, I felt disposed to "kick over the traces" again—and the 'stoning' pain returned, not violently but just as evident, as if it were meant to prod me onwards and not fall back into false and damaging thinking and desiring. The pain soon disappeared and I am not likely to stray again.

...Another thing has puzzled me for months now: quite often I experience a prickling tingling feeling in my brow just above my nose. Is this a sign that I could open my third eye if I work hard enough?

The Gazette improves each month. May its Light penetrate the darkest corners of Earth.

It is because this letter is such an excellent and clear example of what happens to a soul who goes back on themselves in building their minds that we have quoted it in full. This is the so-called slipped disc of the medical world which is real rubbish, for there is no such thing. Here is a soul who commences to open up to the wisdom and starts to awaken the sleeping serpent, the Kundalini fires, which channel themselves up the spine as the fiery life rises up as spiritus air to fight itself through the cervical rocks until it mounts the Pons and goes over the infundibulum onto the pituitary, which is situated at the root of the nose.

But after the sleeping serpent... which lies at the base of the spine... is awakened, if it does not reach its goal which is the pituitary, then it will turn and rend wherever it is held up, and this produces a burning or stinging sensation as the serpent fire literally bites into the spine. This is very well known to all Occultists and is the direct cause of many spinal troubles.

If readers will turn to any medical book they will be able to see the first lumbar vertebrae and there is the position of the sleeping or unmoved kundalini.

But once it has been activated by the soul aspiring and seeking into the wisdom, the soul must not return to old ways, go back on itself, and if it does then invariably the serpent will bite and seek the destructive fang. This letter of Mr. J. more than proves what this School has long since declared and his letter sets out at length what occurred which should help hundreds of readers when they are faced with the same thing whether they are men or women.

Finally the "prickling tingling feeling in my brow just above my nose," is the awakening Pituitary, the perceptive vision, and as the serpent is risen up to feed the pituitary so will the frontal sinus as well as the lachrymal glands feel the awakening life.

The best two herbs here are HORSETAIL and HOLY THISTLE and never a day should pass without a good pint to a pint and half of this be drunk. As ever will MARGOLD and ROSEMARY help too.

THE LORD OF THE FLAME

as The Central Sun

This hitherto unpublished article was especially written by The Lord Maitreya, The Lord of the Flame who directed the pen of Gladys J. Spearman-Cook

*Life, Glory, rebirth and divinity
The hope of every man, that the Fires of LIFE will resurrect his Inner depth and expand his greater being.
Thus bring into birth the way
To become, out of the death dealing Limitation of avidya. Letting
Down the portcullis of old ideas,
Opening up the way to expansion.
That every man can find new life
Out of the glorious Stream of rebirth.*

MAN, KNOW NOT THY POWERS, KNOW NOT THAT THOU ART the son of the Divine. The mind creature born out of the Universal Life, the life blood of divine creation. Why hast thou forgotten that thou art the chosen one, the soul created, that the Father divine could speak through the Voice of his son. He created as the mind rebirth born out of the Holy Fire. A king in his own rights to bring into expansive life the Seed of Woman out of the mighty depths through the dynamic glories of that Holy Fire.

What has happened that thou has lost that road, and turned to the ways of matter?

Now all has come to a standstill in man himself, but not in the evolving Abyss, set into revolving Cosmic motion by the Scapegoat Merope.*1 Thus leaving man standing shivering on the brink of Time, afraid to take the plunge, to go forward out of the old world, into the unfolding world anew. Thus come away from the old ideas and seek the ways of the new inflowing Stream, that he can be brought into electrified mind action, to raise up the waters of the deep. Otherwise quartermass the dreaded state of cancer will flood the depths of Woman, with the world jet propelling into Space, but as a quartermass state of human non-life production. Woman merely a pterodactyl producer, and not a producer of royal divine sons.

Man the VOICE of God

ALTHOUGH the Fires of the Cosmic Rays have flooded the world and cleansed the whole of the maelstrom, man will not let go of his luna mind, showing what potentials he holds. Coming away from the personal state, and embracing a wider point of action. But what he as soul could bring into creation, if he now embraced the inflowing divine Stream filled with all the glories of the Central Sun.

Not just the Solar Fire, but the Divine Stream of the Hydrogen Waters of pure Energy; the new Element entering human life, to bring immortality into birth. That which can when embraced by the soul, activate the soul's inner wealth, and bring genius creation into birth, as the electrified mind.

Manhood is mind, a creative soul of mind conception bringing life and beauty to the Universe. Unfolding the Seed of the divine atomic wealth that comes forth from the royal Source of Divine Life. The Sperm of the dynamic Pleroma wealth of the unseen Divinity of life.

That which can, not only become the Voice of God when issuing forth through man as his divine mind light, but the means of firing the Seed of Woman into life, that the unity of heights and depths can meet, producing genius life from outer world Space creation.

Therefore, until man sees the Fatherhood in the true light of inflowing rebirth, the death knell of the Seed is awaiting the whole of the world as its form of conscious life. Thus having to start all over again without the royal seed of holy life. At the present it is still with man as the Fire that will give him divine anointment. (See plate page 10, cols. 2 & 3)

The holy crown of kingship and mind light that makes him a son of god. Otherwise he merely is a robot state born from the creation of the beast.

Hence the Fatherhood is not what man believes, a righteous state of religious belief, but the unfolding manhood from the Motherhood, the magnetic state of the earth. With the inflowing divine Fire in the Seed expanding the mighty depths of the Seed of Woman, into the glories of illuminated mind creation, the magnificent of the raised up Arc.

The royal Intelligencia of the Begotten, the winding Brahmic thread of Life, where all comes forth and returns into, as the Holy Vessel of Creative Life.

The glories and the wonders from which man is created, and which he returns into, but this time as a created mind of conscious life, a cell creation in the world of the Fatherhood. Hence all tending towards a world creation of human immortality. The unfolding of life from the luna depths into Solar divinity.

Therefore unless man brings this into birth from the unfolding waters of the Cosmic Rays, by a mode of free will prerogative, its outcome will be disastrous. Which the medical world knows is only too true from a point of medical investigation. For they have given the world only three years before untold mental calamities will begin to accrue, which they will not be able to allay with drugs and anti-biotics. Hence, this is where the Hierarchical Forces, the inflowing Powers of Life, have taken circumstances into their own hands, to bring expansion into earth life.

Therefore entered down into every man through the inner powers of his generative life, and become his risen god life entering down through the atomic fire that keeps every man alive, thus becoming his mind fire, elevating the sleeping seeds of his numbed brain. The powers within the soul that will now control as his higher mind, or bring mind confusion.

So man now either responds to those higher states of life activated by the Word, or ignores these truths and remains on the mundane plane, and finds his mind goes blank. For only by the revolving unity between his heights and depths, will the two sides of his brain become unified in etherealisation, which the world is now riding as a raised up plane. The very fact that the world has been saturated with the Cosmic Rays of such a dynamic vibration, alone must prove to the most simple, that some form of elevation must have taken place.

Unless man seeks upwards to the heavens from whence his life force is received, he will only ever be looking downwards into a state of reflection. Thus never get electrified expansion to the powers now within his own being. For they will simply become as rampant earth power running wild in food, sex and drink. Bringing deluge to all states, and flooding any solar mind child out of any hope of expansion.

Why will man not try to see that he is being born from those heavenly powers, and from them is he receiving his further mind grace. That unless he draws these powers down by a conscious belief, as the holy ways of life, he only lives on the magnetic field in a state of animal life. Stagnant power full of the nitrogenic states of man, that ever re-poison the soul with desires. Thereby ever reminding the soul of the beast, and not the spirit rejuvenating waters.

Rising the Arc

SO let us look at the diagram of the Powers that Merope set into motion, as she scaled the heights by her mind frequency, and opened the door of the heights. Lifting the Arc as David did, and brought back her tens of thousands; the whole Universe brought down into a glorious Stream, that every child can bathe in.

Man is mind and mind as Spirit only, and when he leaves the world at death, wherever he may go, the Christian's heaven or the Catholic's hell, he still will only be a mind creation. As to what divine state of vibronic frequency, is another matter; but as mind he enters into whatever category, he as soul has created.

Being as he is as mind, some more powerful than others, he has through the Ages drawn down into life, the glories of the heavens. Thus as an etheric creation, that is, vibronic frequency as spirit, he, in falling backwards into the brink as the waters of life, caused the pole of the earth, to fall onto one side by a matter of four degrees. This is recognised by the scientist, but
