THE IMMACULATE CONCEPTION

as the Horai Rebirth of the Solar Flame

by Gladys I. Spearman-Cook

STURDY VESSEL ROSE UP OFF THE waters and headed towards the Sun, the glorious path of the Solar light, the mighty Arc of the Solar Flame. A path that lay strait and open to all men who had the courage to follow; as the gallant ship rode the waters, shields appeared on either side as mighty discs. Those that reflected the sun's rays in all directions; as though the Voice of the Unseen Father, was declaring once again his promise to Abraham of old,

"Fear not Merope, I am thy shield and thy exceeding great reward."

The sail that was red had the head of a mighty golden dragon upon it, the raised up glories of the depths. While at the prow, as the figurehead, was the head of a mighty serpent. His back in arching backwards, gave him a mighty regal bearing of the great wealth he was carrying in his raised up Arc. For he was the wealth of the risen mind, the pathway of the ship's glory into that radiant Sun. As the oars of the rowers dipped in and out of the heavens, the boat sped along towards its target, until it reached the sun. As it touched its outer splendour, the scene changed with the boat now moving inland between two mighty mountains. To come at last out into the open, and pull up at a landing stage nearby. Then taking a large number of chests and caskets filled with the treasure they had brought back from the depths, they carried them up to the top of a hill, for it was the gathering up of the Horai.*1 A time when the great Solar Flame and the queen of the South were to embrace, and the world to be fully born of the Solar Glory. So as these pioneers carried their wealth up to the top, there stood a massive statue as a Colossus, holding a shield and a sword upraised to the heavens.

At the base was a fire, where they put their wealth upon it as an offering to this mighty being. As they did so, he moved and stepped forward over their heads, stepping as it were onto the globe of the world to see if he could keep his balance from the wealth they had offered him. Thus ascertaining as to whether the wealth that had been brought unto him, would support him in the next issue of Creation. For he was the Great Lord of the Flame, the now risen Christos. The God that Merope*2 had given Voice, and was seeking of all the world to embrace.

THE IMMACULATE CONCEPTION

SELDOM is it possible to be able to capture in one plate such a wealth of detail as in this, for this picture portrays the Birth of the Flame of the Mind, Perceptivity. The conscious soul... for these figures and objects all represent her... has been labouring night and day at the loom of the mind weaving her own etheric garment so that she will be able to make the crossing over from mortality to Immortality, to be able to live by mind alone. On the Hearth is an enormous fire and it will be this that will be the saving grace of her whole being. Without such intense activity being represented, the soul would not be able to maintain the Lamps so fully alight with the flame and wick so upright and vibrant. Here can be easily seen of the future journey of soul growth as it lifts itself in frequency into being able to sustain itself by its own weaving of the fires. (See text page 3, col. 5).

Editorial The Glories of the Holy Fire

IN Genesis every manner of earth product was brought to ADAM so that it could be 'named.' This mysterious passage in the Holiest of Books hides a duty that all men have by their being the possessors of the HOLY FIRE, the very Divinity of GOD. For this Atomic Life should ever be in a perpetual state of agitation, movement, activation, spermatation—germinating and firing the manifestation of the Unknown, that which has yet to be named, brought into Mind Light. Man, as the possessors of this Fire, are given the duty to be perpetual creators, labouring in the vineyard unfolding the grapes as the Husbandman, husbanding his own generative waters.

But far from honouring his bond to carry this out he has been a mere beast in the field, placing and directing all his energies into building up sensation, lust and delight, creating of false gods and failing to bow down before the altar of the One God, that of his own Holy Fire. So bad over the ages did this state of usage become, that the very God Life has emptied out and the Fuel of the Father wantonly wasted. This was becoming more and more apparent as the Race of man slowly but surely built up the raging kingdom of Babylon, ignoring the Voice of the God Powers and only relying on his own mind.

It is this aspect of the Teachings of Universal Philosophy, the urgent call to recognise the Divinity of the Sperm Fire, that is its foundation stone. Every man, through the work of the Scapegoat Merope, is now being refuelled by the infero of the Solar Rains, the Hydrogen Fires from the Central Sun, flowing to the Earth as Cosmic Rays. For in Aquarius man faced an empty Waterpot, and she had been commissioned to fill it. But now every holder of the Seed has by duty bound to only use it for its God Purpose and Intent, and will not be allowed to waste it as he has done for 13,000 years. Now he must turn to following the pathway of the one who has been the Teacher for this Age, the Goddess Merope. For it was she who had originally descended from Venus to help activate and stimulate its inertia, its lack of movement.

But though the Wealth of the planet of Venus flowed to the Earth, still no life fired the unfolding Matriarchate life. Then it was that Merope turned to the Great Fatherhood of all Life and demanded the descent of the HOLY FIRE to flow into the Earth, and this was when the Waters of Scorpio descended to Earth. But alas the result of this was that all the matriarch beings did not respond and half became fired with the Holy Seed, whilst the rest stayed in the negative state. It was the latter that turned those, endowed with the Holy Fire, to direct their intent downwards to the Earth Plane and not raise up the energy activity up to a frequency as a mind Light unto the GODS. For Man is a Messenger, a mere crucible of Element Powers which should be consciously woven into mind Light, using the Holy Fire as the driving force to accomplish this and not waste into desire, using up all the power to stimulate the plane of the Beast. For the very Hierarchical Powers have descended down into man, and each man is now endowed with his own gods in the meninges, but they will never grow into consciousness unless fed and nurtured by the Sperm fire, via the sacred Spinal Column.

For 13,000 years man has used this energy fuel to glory in Earthly experience, but not bringing those experiences into full Mind Comprehension on the highest plane, the 7th plane plane of Neptune, the ruler of the Pineal. Thus untold amount of knowledge lies crammed and twisted within the soul as the Saturn rings, as well as the soul having many and many a time wrongly assessed what certain experiences in fact meant, thus having a very twisted state of mind thought living within the consciousness. But the most common cause of chaos that exists everywhere in every nation is the multiplicity of intellect that is swamping the minds of every soul.

* * * *

THUS the call that is being sent out through the Pen and One Voice of Universal Philosophy is the urgency and necessity to ever find the greater Point of Unification, slowly building up a greater and greater mind awareness until the comprehension embraces all that vast knowledge, which the individual soul has been the means of gathering since he was first the recipient of the Fire.

For this is the cause of the tremendous chaos sweeping the world with man completely failing to realise who and what he in fact is. Nor what his purpose is and what he should now do in his daily use of this Divine Energy. It would have been completely impossible for each individual to blindly seek out the answers to his own life without real guidance being provided him and someone making strait the gate. That is why the work of the Scapegoat, the Divine Pathfinder, has been beyond the power of words to describe. For she being the original Teacher and Leader of Earth in the Age of Leo alone had the powers in the depths of her being, her Fount, of answering all the questions that man was so blind and ignorant of. In the articles that are in this issue she teaches of the fact of man possessing the Holy Fire, and of how each soul must learn to honour and reverence, ever building the Christos Child glorifying of the magnificence of the Fire.

Man's physical body is merely his "ass," the labouring animal nature which should be driven and forced into action with the same ruthlessness, and attitude of mind as a farmer treats his own animal herds. In this way a soul builds up enormous determination and will, that becomes so powerful an instrument of direction, that it is obedient to its slightest command. This is where a soul of right Heart and Intent, whose purpose is to unfold the Spirit and not the self, centres all his mind into this one goal, and reorientates all his "baggages," determining to decide which of the load of mind thoughts he carries about with him are necessary to attain the goal he has embarked on.

The more this spirit reorientation takes place and the more the energy from the creative centre is only used to achieve this end, the more will the powers at his command be spun ever higher and higher to respond to this Centre Point Goal. Slowly will the whole of his being become saturated and absorbed into the Radiance and Frequency of his vibrations until every particle of energy is pivotted on one point, with the Divinity of the Fire being the God Essence about which the whole of the spinning mind frequency revolves. The Flame of the Central Sun.

But this enormous plan with all that it entailed, demanded, quite naturally not a multiplicity of Roads to achieve this Goal, nor in fact a multiplicity of goals. What of necessity had to be created was the ONE GOAL, as the ONE GOD, and for this to be achieved all other goals with the multiple nature of the knowledge that each clings to in support, will have to be axed and cut away.

Only She with the full awareness of the Light to be achieved could possibly build up a Strait Road, and thus it behoves every one of those who recognise the Christos Birth through her, as the Cosmic Shepherd, to guide back the Cosmic Sheep (Element Life). The urgent importance to follow and glorify the Fire, calls upon us all to turn every atom of our being to respond to this wonder.

And the only way to achieve it is to sacrifice and renounce every other particle of Purpose or Desire.

LET US ALL FOLLOW TO BECOME EMBRACED BACK INTO THE CENTRAL SUN FROM WHERE AS A SPARK OF DIVINE CREATIVE ENERGY WE HAD DESCENDED. WITH THE SPERM SEED AS THE ETERNAL PERPETUUM OF MOVEMENT, NOW GOWNED IN MIND, THE SOLAR RADIANCE.

For he was not dead upon a cross, but a living MIND of strength and mighty will that would instruct and guide all men along the path of truth.

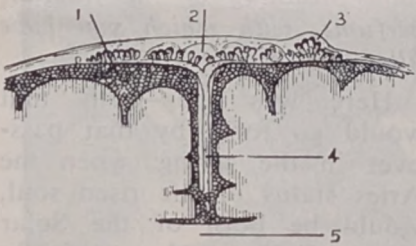

For was he not the issue of Generation, the wealth of the Serpent with the arched back; yet truly fortified with Vulcan's*3 pitch-blende sparks. The wealth of the mind that could now come unto all men, who had the courage to fathom and comprehend the wisdom of the Occult Laws. Yet it was nothing more than the unfolding Egg of Brahma; that which now was reaching a mighty culmination, and could bring forth the wealth of the Perceptory Principle, to all who had the courage to embrace it. A state of awareness that now could come to every soul who drew those mighty waters up to the heights, and let them become the fusion of heights and depths, as the electrified radiating mind. (See plate below)

The Perceptory Principle

FOR decades man had been lost in the evils of the black scorpion, where the glories of the soul life had been shattered in creed and dogma. Blind and blank to the real purpose of creation, and stoned into a silent belief. The glories of the spirit, the wonders of the heavens were all lost in their black high mass. With pope and priest in one mighty schism, seeking into the possibility of Fertility pills, and how child birth could be increased to swell their decaying numbers.

They were now aware of the mighty importance of the Age, the time of Relativity, where unification was demanding its toll in every blended cycle. Therefore little did these blind Scorpions realise, that 1100 to 1400 A.D. was now demanding its rebound; and what papalism did in so called sacred wars, filling up the Vatican with treasure, was now taking a cycle rebound in a justified vandal rebirth. But this time without blood and murder, but fully justified, for it had borne no wealth or truth! and TRUTH came forth.

As the wealth gathered from the depths by Merope, now

THE ATOMS OF THE GODS

Within the meninges resides the sacred cerebro-spinal fluid, which flows within the sub-arachnoid space (at 1) of the three membranes. At the top of the skull in the longitudinal sinus (at 2) and the pacchionian bodies (at 3) are the gods as the ELEMENT Powers awaiting conscious embodiment. As the soul raises up his frequency, and feeds his cells and Elements with the sacred powers of his Seed, so the interaction between pituitary and pineal, the 6th and 7th chakra, bring forth the wealth of the Hierarchical Heights, . . . "The Rhythm of the Spheres, that of the inflowing Waters, . . ." that descend down the Falx Cerebri (at 4) and become the mystic Writing on the Wall, on the Corpus Callosum (at 5).

*1 The Horai is the period of Time at the end of the year when the soul offers all his wealth of harvest from the depths, the wealth of mind awareness gained by the struggling Martha, the everyday conscious mind, unto the Spiritual Heights, the gods of the meninges. Then at that hour comes forth the Descent of the Holy Spirit upon the Harvest—the Holy Blessing of Fire as the Christos Light.

*2 The first stage of human evolution was at the Fall which was during the Golden Age of Leo, when all those who took of the Fire, fell into the depths of personal desire. As the ancient Truths explain it was one channel down which this Holy Fire descended, having specially been

THE FLIGHT OF THE BEES

MANY is the time a soul cannot make a change over from one status to another on a higher plane and he gets more and more blank as he tries to alter his ways. In this plate is shown the clue to how the soul does make such changes. In the foreground is the stream of life that the soul is to cross over whilst in the background are the bee hives, the dancing, spinning, electric vibration of mind, these ever devoted and one pointed to their Queen, laying down their life to keep their own sensitivity spinning to produce the royal jelly, the hormonal action that feeds and dances within the souls bloodstream. On the left in the background can be seen the "herds," the earth strength gathered over the ages, the desires controlled and channelled upwards so that the dance of the spinal energies of the Royal Seed feeds the mind powers dancing up and down the spine. (See text above).

went up to the heights, great rebirth was taking place. Life was opening up in every direction, and man was being born anew. Every soul to become Solar born and electrically alight from the inflowing waters. Where the gods given birth by Jacob in the beginning, were now fully alight with radiant life and active in every soul's meninges. Although at the present man knew it not, except the few who had struggled to interpenetrate. For Merope was bringing down wealth from invoked by Merope, the Goddess from the Venusian Plane who had come to the Earth to help stimulate and activate it. Now at the age of Relativity She returns to guide the FIRE to the Earth once more, but this time on the plane of MIND. See the articles on Merope and the Royal Eagle of Scorpio in the last four or five issues.

*3 Vulcan is the Comet of FIRE which was first visually seen by those in Japan. Readers are requested to read the article, The Herald of Vulcan on page 10 of the December issue 1965, and the article Vulcan's Pitch-blende Sparks printed in the January issue 1966, each issue still being available to any reader requesting same.

outer Space through her mighty Dam. Feeding the whole of the (See the Front Page plate) world with wealth as the rebirth of their own mighty creation. That which had laid dormant for so long, the wealth of mighty Ages. For those waters were of the mighty EL power, the glory of the Hydrogen depths. Pure Energy that would fuse every soul with electrified life, if they partook of its mighty wisdom as a mortuary meal.

The prize now that was open to every soul, was the birth of the Perceptory Principle.

(See plate in cols. 4 and 5) Therefore the wise would go up at the Horai, and gather of this glorious manna. For the

The Mystery of the Pranas

SO to touch the point on a more intimate issue, that every seeking soul can comprehend, we must come to the mystery of the Pranas, the revolving Chakras of man and the cosmos. For what is in man, is but a reflection of the whole, and when he seeks into the Occult, he then begins to unify his life with those mighty Laws, and become a rebound of their heavenly issue.

For all that is taking place between man and God, is that of the divine Consciousness coming into birth, as the unfolding Egg of Brahma. The mighty Divine Consciousness as the Effulgence awaiting rebirth in the depths, through the risen awareness of the soul. With those who do awaken, now finding themselves touched with the seeds of the Solar inflow, as the basic of their possible Perceptory Principle. Their pituitary alight, and their hormone seeds beginning to spark forth of glorious wisdom. Finding for the first time, the wonders of the mighty truth of the Silent Voice of God, that can manifest through the brave.

The understanding of this Brahmic Egg, which is now at a mighty culmination, is a subject deep and mystical. That which could reveal unto the man that was seeking, a mighty truth regarding his own inner depths. The seven Elements as the seven limbs of Creation from which he was created, must ever be returned back to the whole, but as the lighted consciousness of the mind. This by Cycle rebound has now become an evident truth, and as that wealth was taken up to that mighty God, he now became the living Solar creation, for all had been fixed by the unified Laws of Merope. She as the Scapegoat and the risen Mary had set them into glorification, hence the gallant craft sailing into the path of the Sun, seeking the wonders of outer Space.

*4 The Fount was the first beginning of the Baptismal Waters, that gave to man his first seed of manhood. But it ever remained with woman as her seed down in the depths. Hence it is the seed base of all human life as souls received of the Fire Element for the first time. This must be retrieved and raised back up to become as the Light of the Void.

So whether man likes it or not, his way destined is back to the Source from whence he came. But not as he started, but as divine consciousness that will become a part or cell of the Divine Creation. Hence it is the ever rolling Waters from the Silent Sea of the Father's Kingdom, tearing away the seven veils, to bring forth the Golden Age that has been lost for such a mighty time.

Therefore the whole of life is ever to bring forth of the Cosmic, the ever unfolding creation of DIVINITY. With man as the pawn who drives the issue, and brings action into life. He is the active consciousness that moves the vast sea of Creation; that which had only been moved into being by the animal states of human life. That which came into being when man sank back into the dank luna waters.

The Inner Etheric Creation

THEREFORE the perceptory principle is the internal depth to now be brought to a pinnacle point of raised up frequency by the unfolding Elements and Chakras. Brought to a point of unified elevation as the electrified glory of that moving consciousness. A state where the whole of everything is a flash of awareness, revealed in the continual electrical infusions that take place in the moving changes. That which is the Voice risen up out of that atomic Seed, as the divine royal consciousness of the mighty point of Truth.

THE WILL OF PERCEPTION

EVERYTHING a soul does is his own responsibility whether he likes to assume it or not. If he makes a grand fool of himself so must he reap the folly. But the day must dawn when each soul proudly stands erect and assumes his birthright, the Knight of the Holy Fire, and with his battle cry of "My Lady and the FLAME." For it was the guts of Merope the Lady of Venus that restored to man the fire of God and gave back to him his mind. (See text in col. 3).

Therefore, what man feels is life, is not really life, it is only reflection. The real life of the soul is the inner etheric creation; that not seen by man in form, for it is of his pulsing bloodstream. It is that

born from the divine formless Manhood of Mind Creation in the Cosmic as the Intelligencia, the Arc of the unfolding world. That mighty Colossus now being given a greater rebirth as the Solar magnitude by the mighty struggles of Merope. He that at the Grand Horai will issue fully into birth; yet the Great Begotten who has ever been fed by the consciousness of man through their moving currents of expectation and aspiration, set into action by the current scapegoat.

The sea of ever becoming out of itself, which gives birth to itself, and ever revolves on again. But now, what had revolved down and out, now is revolving up and in, for unification has blended all in atomic fusion. Hence now, it is the vast unfolding of Space into the depths beneath. The Father sperming the mother, giving birth to the God, both in cosmic and human contribution.

Therefore a more mighty and dramatic time has never been known before, where Gods and men have unified in the cosmic blending, for what has been stripped away, only needs the acclamation of applaud. Then the world fully saturated with the mighty wisdom of the golden rays, will open up the hearts of men, who have only been waiting the moment to give forth of this inner ken.

Many in fear of the papal bully, but now having been broken down by Merope and her drive. Now they can come forth and speak without fear of their heart's belief. For now the great wealth to come forth from the Horai, holds dual and mighty portents. With the Great Flame rising high as the Solar rebirth, and Adonicus standing firm in the earth court, declaring of his avowed belief. Therefore, as the early morn rose up, Merope as the Scapegoat of the Age and the risen Mary, rose up to meet her Golden Lord, the mighty Lord of the Flame. As she rose up over the Arc and embraced his glorious nuptials, the whole world burst forth into Golden LIGHT, for it was the TRUE birth of the Christos.

(See plate in cols. 2 and 3)

Solar light was flooding the Earth, where every man, woman and child was now touched and lighted by their glorious blood warming rays, that which could bring new life to every awakened heart. For six hours that unification unfolded, with manna pouring down upon the earth. But the glories that were coming cosmically into birth, were the royal manifestation of the Brahmic Egg. For the Central Sun was the manifestor in that mighty embracement, as the wealth that was now pouring down upon the earth was the atomised wealth of Merope's Dam. That which she had given birth to from the depths, to the mysterious glories of the wealth of mighty Space.

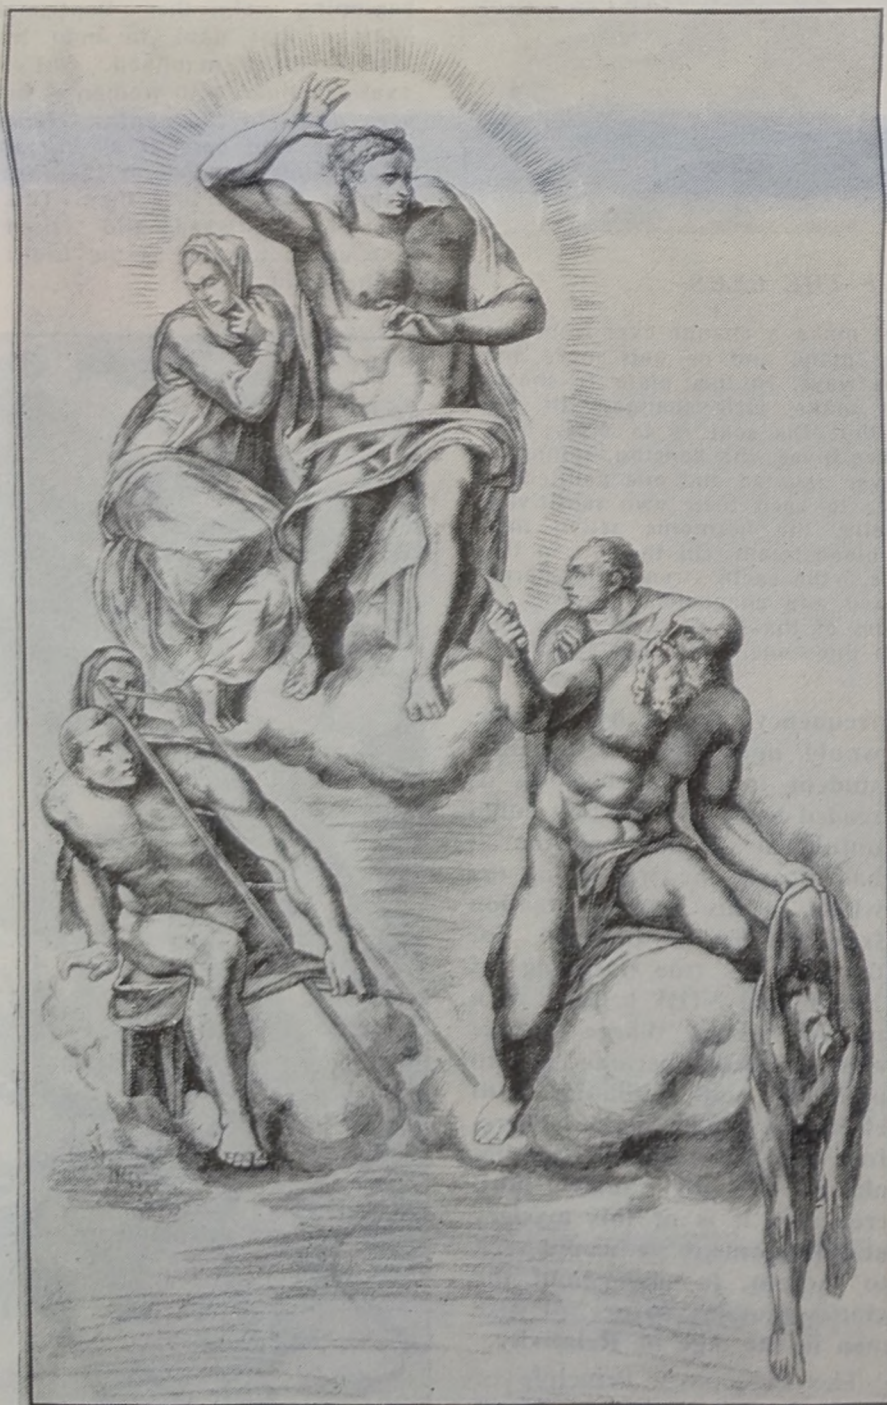

Thus the Horai of 1965 was the importance of that unfolding Egg, for its turn would bring the much sought for rise that would lift the whole world up into light.

Solar Divinity

SO as Merope and Adonicus were sitting in the stable, true to the promised prototype, the new born child as the Solar Divinity, was now upon Merope's lap. Then the stable doors opened and two angels clothed in white, beckoned her to follow out. As she did this they took her hands and lifted her into the air, raising her high into the heavens, until an oriental palace came into their view, with a long pathway leading up to it. The mystery of this birth did not just belong to the present moment, it was curiously interblended with Moab and Medo-Persia,*5 for the wealth now coming into birth, was the re-atomised wonders of those long lost glories.

Therefore, as they all reached the beginning of the path, they left Merope, and she went on alone towards the palace. A creation delicately carved in the purest marble, and surrounded by a white glow that seemed to come from the inner radiance from the stone. Then up the steps and through the arched entrance Merope went, and gazed in wonder at the magnificence before her. For the whole of the interior was of gold and precious stones, and

*5 Medo Persia is the period during the Age of Taurus, centred between 4,500 and 2,500 B.C. when the great force of Scorpionic Fire descended into Taurus but was never raised back up as Mind Light.

THE BIRTH OF THE CHRISTOS MANHOOD

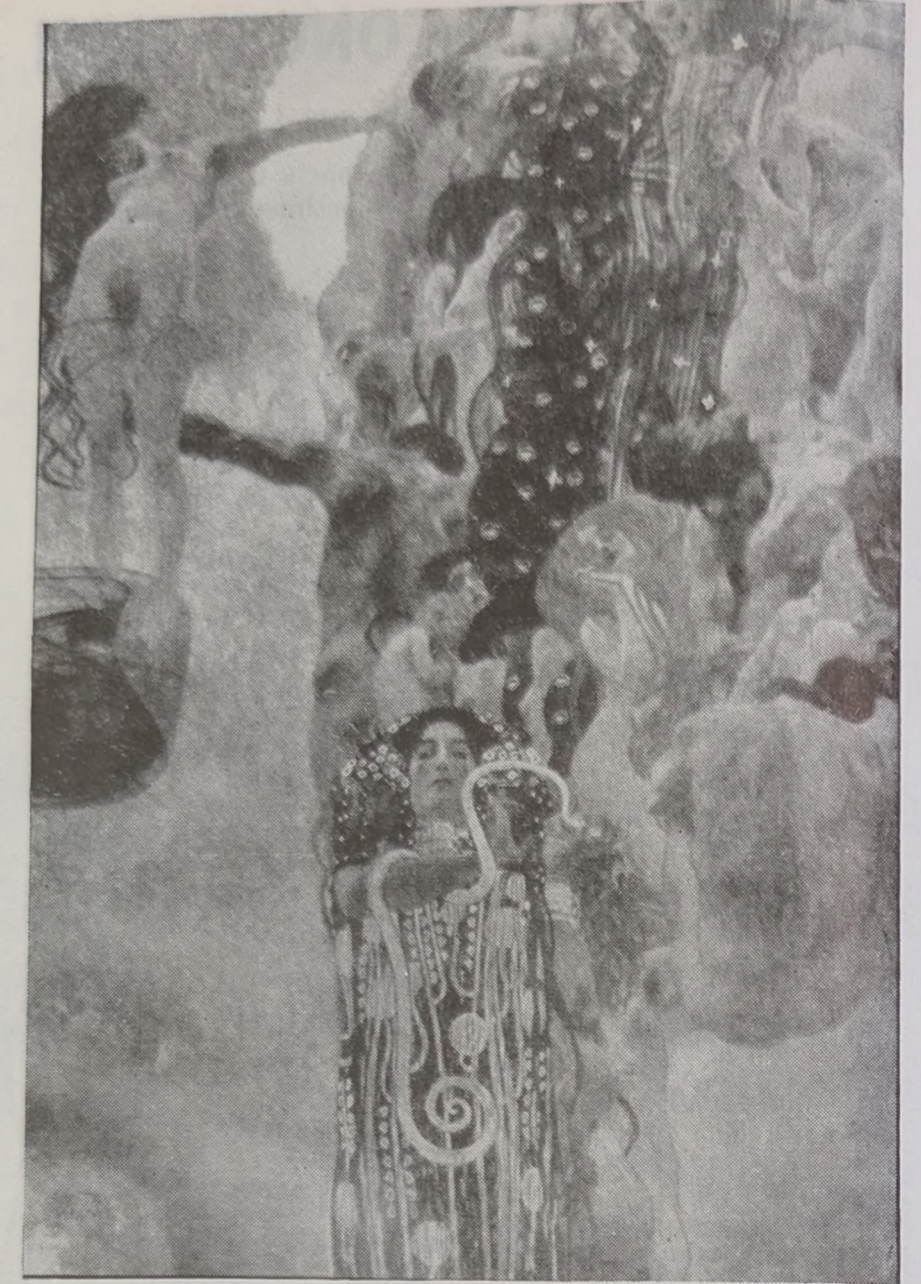

MICHAEL Angelo's masterpiece in the Sistine Chapel is not as well known as it should be and certainly not capable of interpretation. The Radiant Figure as the Christos Blood has just been set free from the lower beast state as seen by the skin that has become stripped. On the left can be seen the lower Martha or Cinderella together with the lower mind that held the ladder trophy as proof he had raised his frequency up to the heights. On the right is seen the old Saturn state who had through the change over from the old to the new become mastered and the Atomic Radiance of the Central Flame of the Central Sun could now shine forth. It is this God Life shining as the SUN that is the aim of every soul and the eventual destiny of this Universe. (See text on page 3, col. 5 and this page, col. 1).

as her eyes became accustomed to the brilliance, she saw at the far end of the building, a Sultan sitting upon a throne and watching her intently. As she reached him, she knelt down and held out her child to him, for here was where the wealth of the Taurean rebirth, was being handed back up to the Great Master. That which was taken and flagrantly cast to the pit, had now been raised up to the highest frequency, and as a golden haired rebirth, handed to the Great Lord, to rejuvenate his radiant Flame.

But as she handed her child to him, before he could take it, another woman, similar in looks, but with black hair and the harlot side of the issue, snatched the child away and clutched it to her breast. Here was the usual conundrum of positive or negative,—which was going to survive. For here we come to the mysterious story of Solomon, at a most crucial hour. For the Sultan ordered that the child should be cut in half, that both the women should be satisfied. For here were the two sides of truth established by Lamech, holding the full picture. When it had been promised that the perceptory principle of awareness would be the prize to come forth from the Horai rebirth.

As the Sultan made the order, Merope cried to him to stop, falling at his feet, begging him to let the child live, winning through by her sincerity. Thereby the Sultan turned in anger to the other woman, who had stood silently by, and ordered her to be cast out into the street, with her possessions to be taken from her as punishment for her jealous action. The right side of the coin had spun into action, and truth had gone up to the heights.

THE CONSCIOUSNESS WITH THE BLOODSTREAM

THIS amazing picture captures superbly the chaos ever taking place in the bloodstream for there lies the consciousness of Eternity. Here can be seen the jumbled species trying to awaken in the moving tides of everlasting dancing as the mind ebbs and flows trying to co-ordinate and balance itself as it struggles to give unto its wayward ideas the mortuary meal. As the snake moves so does the alchemicalisation, the fire, also move and aids the awakening mind. (See text in col. 1).

For the Sultan turned to Merope and raised her up, taking her with the child up a winding staircase. Until they came to the top, and were looking out at the silent Space. Then suddenly his cloak swirled around her, as if blown by the mighty wind, both being carried high up into the air by an unseen force.

The Golden Light

THEN suddenly an explosion of golden light filled the heavens, as if there had been a terrific fusion of two mighty powers. It was the magnetic and atomic as luna and Solar that had fused, and brought complete truth into birth. Whereby the whole world would ever be bathed from Merope's Stream, by the acute point of Awareness. There being an entire difference between wisdom and acute truth; for the latter was the perceptory principle, that left man without any doubt whatsoever.

So as this mighty fusion took place, for a split second in the centre of the light, Merope and the Sultan were revealed locked in a lovers embrace, revealing the innermost depths of the mystery of the infused Horai. Then suddenly the scene changed and all was as it had been before, with the Sultan sitting upon the throne, and Merope kneeling at his feet. But now, instead of the golden haired child before him, there stood a handsome youth, tall and strong, also with golden hair. As he took Merope's hands, he lifted her up, and they both turned to go. This was the mystery of the rebirth, that brought the passover into birth in the vernal equinox.

As they did so, they felt the Sultan behind them, and he placed his hands upon their shoulders and said:

"The blessing of the Father be with you, and His protection which is within His son. Tread softly little one for the road is nearly ended; the time is near at hand when you will receive your reward for your struggles, soon breathing of the fragrant perfume, with which you have filled the heavens."

Here was the birth that would go forth by that pass-over in the spring, when the Aries status of the risen soul, would be born of the Solar glory. Each soul atomically filled with Occult wisdom, and the possibility of genius rich and ripe. For now the glories of Medo-Persia are going to come very fully to the fore, with many an Omar Khayyam springing up, singing the praises of Merope and the glorious heavens.

For the turn of the tide will be amazing, leaving the world aghast at the changes. With atomic creations dying out, and atomic fusion coming in; man completely turned over to the wonders of the inner mysteries, with many a group seeking deeply into what had been forbidden streams.

Now all prepared and the gate made strait by Merope the Scapegoat, with the pythia full risen and feeding the heights with its mysterious lamia. The mystical union between Mars and Venus, that Libra had to separate, now combine in perfect harmony, bringing complete fusion into action. Thus the royal birth of the holy Fire ever fusing the life of man, with Neptune as the herse waters, rolling high over the golden strand.

Thus the Perceptory Principle, the rich prize of the pituitary rebirth, now the risen possibility in many a striving Solomon. For the wealth to come forth from Medo-Persia, is yet to prove its worth through this risen possibility.

That which the Persians were striving to achieve, not realising that it required that of the spirit and elevated fire, to bring such wealth into birth.

Now by the aid of the risen Scorpionic Fires and the touch of the Vulcan pitch blende action, the wealth of Medo-Persia should now rise right up to the heights. Thus the Horai promised, that in descending from the heights as the risen wealth, could now be the means of many a man and maid, rejoicing in the depths.

A Human Isotope

THIS is the culmination of the mysteries, where the soul as a Bat has the radar propensity. Being able to capture sound and vision through no possible channel, and then being able to declare of its culminated creation. That which the electrified pituitary was capable of producing, once the lachrymal system was all alight, and sparking the pituitary into the void. Then it will change the vision by every sparking fusion, hence the wealth that lies at the feet of Taurus. The Bull that takes all the wealth from Scorpio, must be made to plow and hand his wealth up to the mind. Then she can, by making Sagittarius dance, turn in the tartars and the grimoires, to bring forth of their eternal wealth.

This is where the soul is able to bring all to a unilateral equation, whereby the explanation holds all that the soul is seeking. It is the raising up by the le Ros dance that they did not understand; thus endeavoured to raise the issue by elevated desires. Thus the tragedy of Medo-Persia that has an intimate link with Moab, for they hold the wealth of the Seed. Thus the Fire Seed, the phosphorus intensity that is down in the heel of every soul, and should have been retrieved in Pisces. When Neptune was the sub-ruler of that Equinox, the Age of mighty possibilities.

Not one came into birth, creed and dogma claimed the lot; thereby man bringing down to degradation the mighty wealth of Scorpio into the Taurean base. Where the Bull as the Moab creation, the animals of the desert, turned it into material gain. Hence the basic wealth of the many Sheiks and Sultans; wealth in abundance, not only in kind, but also in their hidden fiery depths. They never really knowing the extent of their wealth, they having been able to capture the rhythm of the Spheres, but not in unified Law and harmony. This is what Merope had been doing and making the gate strait for all men to investigate the very depths of themselves. To bring forth their wealth rotting as the fusing fiery seed in their very depths.

Hence man is an atomic pile, with danger lurking in every corner; but the very wealth that the heights are seeking to bring to light, to where their aim had been unified with the purpose. The intricacies and possibilities lay in that culmination, where when brought to that sparking fusion, can sperm every man in their depths. Therefore it now can be seen what mighty works Merope as the Scapegoat had been putting into operation. For to bring strait the gate to the basic of those depths, and then recapture that original lost seed, is in itself a mighty miracle of the Age. For even the Gods themselves had never hoped for so much to be brought forth at once.

It was Merope determined to make strait the gate of Neptune's hoary wealth through her experiences of Medo-Persia that so much was achieved. But she found the wealth of the spirit that was so necessary to this final culmination; otherwise she would have been in the same predicament as Isaiah. A prophet who could not raise his girdle into mind light. So Merope had made herself into a human Isotope,*6 whereby mighty wealth could be achieved. But now brought forth until all men are caught up with the dramatic turn of events. Merope being led and succoured by the mighty heights, causing the Begotten Son to come into his own as the risen up Scorpionic Seed.

Therefore the man who captures the perceptory principle as the atomic awareness culminated, will have captured the secret of the mighty atom.

(See plate in cols. 1 and 2)

The ever rolling up of the seven veils that had to be stripped as the rolling herse waters. So whereas Neptune was impossible to approach, now every soul will be able to partake of his mighty waters, providing they honour and return the wealth up to the heights.

their awareness reaches a stage of consciousness that raises them up to this world of super-men. These are the gods that Merope brought into birth by Seed prototype laid many Ages ago. Then taken by animal-man and dragged through the mud in the world beneath.

Then she returned and suffered the pangs of hell, that the royalty of that Seed should be given birth. As she did so, she paved the way for many to awaken as they came down to earth from the rebounding cycles. Some will be able to make it from the depths, but many will come down from the planes and enter into this new world creation. A world where the Flame is the mighty Lord, the great Master of the Ring. A world of mind, where wisdom of a divine Nature reveals the wonders of the unknown Space, but in its magnitude of royal glory.

The changes now about to take place are going to be fast and furious for the atomic spiral now set into birth as the

THE ROYAL CHALICE OF THE GREAT EAGLE

WHEN man can so reverence the Holy Fire that he becomes the Grail Cup for its dissemination, then can he look to the Fatherhood and claim to be his son. The rising up the spine of the Seminal Fire, rising the Scorpion to become the Royal Eagle, the Monarch of the Heavens. (See text this page, col. 1 and on page 4, col. 3).

unfolding consciousness, the divine inner creation of Brahma. A world that only an assimilating mind could possibly make any approach. A soul climbing the ladder of Truth becoming involved into this greater glory, where Divinity of a nature foreign to the present day man becomes a part of that soul's nature. Thus took the new turn and went forth on the new river of life. Now only permissible by words, yet already set into action by the Scapegoat Merope.

This is the birth of the IMMACULATE CONCEPTION that has taken place out of the CHRISTOS EMBODIMENT. Not as man thinks a world of form with a God placed on a human cross. But a royal divine world of mind light opening up to a super-world of the reigning Fatherhood, where glories belonging to the world of LIGHT are beginning to make their appearance into creation of light. Thus unification is born and androgynity well set, with Being the road now ahead, for the coming world of super-men.

(See plate in cols. 2 and 3)

Hence all is born as devised, and now a matter of unfoldment. But up to now utterly impossible with the Seed down in the pit of adders. Now with it raised up the whole of life is changed.

The world turned from a spiral downwards into its upward gyroscopic spin. All done by change of Law under the nose of the animal-human, he merely feeling the wrench as he became disturbed in his daily rebound. He but an action in that world of change that kept the pot boiling.

The real actor in the scene being the creator Merope; she as the Mother of the Gods and the world to be was the Female Germinator from the Father's Sperm. Thus all now in the lap of the Gods, the world of super-men, with the Great Flame as the Master of the Ring. The royal leader of the world of GOLDEN LIGHT.

THE EDUCATION OF ACHILLES

IT is through this that the hindlegs of the beast are finally shed as the soul learns to raise up the spine the seminal fire, and not use the Seed for the lower passions, or for the desires of the stomach. The bow represents the spine and ever winging the arrow, is finding the Point of Awareness, the Bullseye, the perceptory Enlightenment whereby the soul recognises what activity he must place into operation in order to achieve the practical application of that gained in awareness. (See text in col. 5).

As the Great Flame as Solar rebirth makes his royal debut in the heights, wealth born from Merope's struggle to place him there will flood the earth with life. For this in becoming the wealth of the Cosmic Law, will become the wealth of the earth beneath. Thus much will come into birth from the wonders of these struggles. All it needs is man to embrace the wisdom through the unification made to bring the Solar life into birth. Then the soul embraces the fulness of the pervading atmosphere, not living in just blind oblivion, but takes his share in the revolving of the Cosmos. Thus becomes an accepted son of the Father, and embraced into the cell change.

The Master of The Ring

FOR the whole world is spiralling up into a gyroscopic change, that which will bring into birth a far greater Race of creatures. Not flesh and bone, but a Race of gods of mind creation, with wisdom beyond the present power to accept or believe. Those born out of the present through mind unfoldment, as

*6 The Isotope is the Radiant Atom of the Heart producing the higher atomic light by reducing the Mass holding him to the Earth. The slow etherealisation by the transmuting mass into mind. The dematerialisation of Earth atoms by the heart count of the Heart, the Earth Kingdom being shed as well as the Luna waters of the desire body.

Brahmic unfoldment is quickened up by the wealth opened up by Merope from the glories of the past. A Chain of Causes that began with Moab and persisted by Medo-Persia, but of belief that only began as Seeds that had to come to their royal completion. In the world of men it became scientific destruction, in the world of super-men a state of divine construction, where wonders of a super-world will come into being as a state of mighty Consciousness.

This at the present is far beyond man's understanding, for he only understands a world of bone, flesh and form. The world of the future is a world of light, a world of divine life. Not religious righteousness or creed and dogma, but a world where wisdom of a super magnitude is ever being revealed. Where infinitesimals of a personal nature no longer have any setting, but one divine unification, yet individual conscious states that blend in perfect harmony. Thus that gained in the red of Edom now risen up to the divine purple, where male and female have become as one creation. No thought of gender in form whatsoever.

Mind and mind only, but all of the super-state of divine rebirth. For man has never really begun to unfold and bring forth the wealth that is in the world of outer Space. And if they do, only in a form of atomic mechanism. That is not the true manifestation, for all is tending towards the

THE FIERY SALAMANDER

HIDDEN within the generative energies is the Divinity Divine, the Fiery Life of the Holy Fire, the IT. It is that which ever agitates and activates movement and stimulus, being the God-Fire that descended from the Great Fatherhood. (See text in col. 3).

MOTHER NATURE

with Herbs and their Mineral Wealth

This lecture was delivered at the S.U.P.H. on Sunday 14th November 1965, through Gladys I. Spearman-Cook especially directed by the Lord Maitreya, the Lord of the Central Sun, the unified Spiritual Wealth of the Cosmic Hierarchies.

HERE is a subject which has only been fringed, and never given its full investigation; for herbs are the means of helping extended souls, into a state of balance. For these are the garments of Mother Nature, that she offers to every son, who is prepared to labour in her just cause. Yet like all ways of the Universe, under an abiding law, where the very wealth of the sod and the streaming heights, become the wealth of stem and petal, to help man's mind undulations. But like all things, must be fully understood; otherwise lost in bare perusal, that never bore the richest fruits, only the weed content. For Ages the great Powers have fed the depths, with the wealth of herbal remedies; they that could heal their bruised soul, and bring new life to their higher values. All the wealth within this herbage comes from the higher planes, in the rain and solar light, containing the chlorophyll and the nervine qualities, that help bring soul adjustment. For every herb is led by a planetary power, that hold their higher values, and when extracted by the soul, will help them with their confused natures, and their distorted tissues. Help bring life where cells have gone to sleep, or secretions of glandular wealth, that have for the time in their earthly inertia, failed to fulfill their higher task.

First it must be fully seen, that every herb holds of mineral wealth transformed into living organism, while bio-chemicals are dead mineral wealth, that only takes the soul back to the dead rock Kingdom. For it is not in the body that the healing really takes place, but in the etheric; and herbs by giving of the higher planetary values, assist the work of the spirit. Then the Solar light, the inflowing spiritual life, is aided in its binding factors, and the bodies brought to the greater life. As their qualities are extracted in fluid content, it enters freely into the bloodstream, and unites and binds the species in balanced harmony. But you see if a person is drinking heavily on coffee or tea or drinking heavily upon spirits, you will find that these herbs are obnoxious to them and they find it very difficult to take them.

Fresh Fruit

IN the way that herbs hold of such qualities, so does fresh fruit. Apples holding much of potassium, giving activity to the fiery element in the form of bounding new life. Bringing balance to the glandular juices, where they have gone astray; binding up the false acid content and rectifying into a balanced state, giving an happy outward content.

While Oranges have the means of bringing forth of rhythm, through the unity of heights and depths in solar light as phosphorus. Then Bananas expand the mind, as well as give the soul natural protein, life to sustain the tissues; while Grapes hold of natural fire, that gives iron to the blood, and strength to the mind intent.

While herbs hold yet further qualities to assist the planets in their work; thus bringing the inner qualities that assist the work of unification. For all discords of the physical body, the last within creation, come from the inner creation of bodies distorted through unbalanced mind unfoldment. You may take wisdom and you may in trying to deduct your theory of that wisdom give it an unbalanced state and until you get it balanced up herbs will help you.

So this is where the depth and the quality of herbs and their healing values, are brought to account and deeply studied, to know how to blend them in their unified healing propensities. Then with the inflowing Stream and the atomic healing qualities of the new-born healer, miracles will be performed once again, as performed by the ancient Gypsies. Those who understood the wealth of herbs, and their greater qualities; depths that go back deeper into the magnetic past, where the witch boiled up her mysterious brew. Then the only means of healing factors, and the truest way of perfection.

For now it is a matter of blending and dissolving in, that of the lower Kingdoms, where no longer will rocks and vermin exist in the purifying Earth Kingdom. But all being raised up to the Solar light, where only higher vibrations continue. That the higher elements and the Earth, will be in perfect harmony, with the vegetable Kingdom being the last to be drawn in, man living on vibrational life.

Then heights and depths will be completely united in the unifying action; for what are in the range of vibrational capacity, from Fount to the Central Sun, will unify into one vast Kingdom of Golden light. Then it will be higher and vaster fields to be captured from the mysterious Space. You see where they are going out trying to capture it as they think—by the missiles which of course is hopeless—man will be able to do it with his mind and bring all down into unification.

Then vast states of humus and animal waste will have to be cleansed from the earth's putrified sod, then it can become the electrified Earth as once was, in the Garden of Eden. Then all will be of spiritual qualities, where trees will not be of the lower Vegetable Kingdom, but its higher etheric values. Trees that ever fruit, and never fall and decay, giving forth fruit of electrifying qualities, that fortify and sustain the soul, in its etheric qualities. At the present moment there is no nourishment in fruit whatsoever. Because they are taking them off the trees before they are Solar ripe.

This is where the mind of man, in its changing state, will bring new life and higher thought to the planetary planes. Those that are at present, lost in the lower degree of man's lower element; that which has practically saturated the whole of the earth, down to the Sacred Fount.

Mother Earth has gallantly struggled to throw out the putrefication, from the depths of her womb. This being the mystery of volcanic eruption, the terrifying element of destruction; that which is a bearer of no mercy, and ruthless to the minute degree.

The Changing of Man

THEREUPON the greater Power began the way of change, and turned to man to begin the first issue, that all could become reborn and life find a greater way. For unless man was changed, all would go on the same, he being the creator in matter. So took the course of bringing rebirth to the soul, that the whole Earth could become reborn.

This was a big task, for man was no common creation, and as much as he had complicated the issue, he was the son of God; and although he had gathered much, had forgotten the spiritual issue.

So by changing man could the Earth become reborn, and start the right road for a greater tomorrow. This meant the whole of the Elements must be given rebirth, that all growth upon the Earth, could be brought to change. So new plans were devised, that could change the whole context of growth, and revise the ways of life. No longer would he pour into matter fertilisers that destroyed natural growth, but became so changed that the whole earth would become electrically charged, bringing forth luxuriant growth.

The whole of the trees, the flowers, would be giving forth of electrical discharge.

Thus the earth would return to its original plan, where man lived entirely upon Earth growth; not partaking of animal life, filling his blood with incest. For if man eats the flesh of the animal, then he is taking of their life; for while the flesh is living tissue, it is only possible to consume, thus still alive with the animal life. Which in partaking he automatically consumes; putting it through a process of cooking does not destroy the animal species in the blood life. This accounts for why the Hebrew Race, sought to prepare of Kosher meat; where all blood was drained away, taking out the animal issue.

This is further verified in the fact of the lion's claw in drawing of the human blood, causes the beast to rage and roar. Thereby thirst for the human blood, a prize he would greatly adore. This is the reason why man has remained locked to the ways of matter. In partaking of animal substance became chained to the animal Kingdom, filling his blood with animal species, his passions and wild ways. So more and more diverting from the way of Spirit, which he originated from, not coming up out of animal growth as man has led himself to believe.

He went right down to the lowest degree, then the lower Kingdoms were created, where the spirit spark had to grow up once again, to revert back to his original creation. So took on the stance of man, but not before he had passed through all the lower growth, to come to the issue of Dactyl creatures in his etheric creation, mountainous, large and weird. To finally find his way to the Ape growth, to begin the life of man.

Now perhaps you might realise that in these mongol states they are the soul, the female, reverting back in her womb to these previous states which she has never involved or dissolved into her inner being. She should have been able to involve these states, so that they became born within the soul as a part of its being, but because she made no effort she has never made any growth through her mind she brings these children into birth.

She only has to turn to certain drugs which activate it to bring it forth. She has never been able to turn in all these past states. By man raising his mind he is able to turn in these old states; they become involved.

It was man who created vermin creation, they are not the creation of the Elements; but the lower states of man, thrown into the Earth. By this alone will it be seen of what has to change, that man can get back to his original context of spirit, and its higher being. This is now the course of the higher Powers, to bring all back to its rightful status of man, and his unfolding growth.

So the first course is to dissolve the lower Kingdoms out of man, by changing his blood-life; while the reform, as slight as it is, of non-animal consumption, began the way to turning of the mind, to the greater road of growth.

Once this was sufficiently embodied, the Law had a grip, then one back to the earth, would completely change the face of the LAW. This was accomplished, now all is ready for a complete sweep away of the lower Kingdoms in the Rock and Animal, and the lower growth of the Vegetable issue. By the course of life that is followed in this Temple it has set the road now for the changes. Where man will live upon fruit filled with electrical element life, and not that grown from the lower issue.

So man will retain his stance, but as a spiritual mind-being; thus taking on the etheric created body, as ordained in the beginning.

For man when he created his spirit body, did so living up in the higher realms; then slipped down through the seven cervicals, to the lower creation. This is the full explanation of Pluto cast into the underworld, that of the spirit; with Uranus the Fire element merely as a destructive issue.

Those 7 bodies you can account for up the spine, where you have the 7 chakras, in the division of the nerve tissue. As you go up the spine you will find the lower five and then of course you have the higher two over the top of the head as Uranus, pituitary and Neptune the pineal. You can account for those 5 kingdoms for they are five of the kingdoms of Asia, the 5 Churches you read of in your Holy Book, and it is from these they created, and you are ever creating, the inner bodies, and so would naturally understand it as the nerve tissues, the sensitivity. As you raise up the sensitivity of each one of these cities, so the sensitivity of the whole of the soul changes and becomes more refined.

The seven Elements are seven statuses of creational issue, that brought soul life into creation; coming into being, as the Norm (the pineal) came down the seven steps of creation, to finally becoming the seven elements of the sun life. The prism of its context, with the three outer Space Elements as the triune life. That which brings all the final status of an electrically charged creation; that of a status of light. Now the three extra are Uranus, Neptune and Pluto risen up. This is where the blood life changes completely from red corpuscles into white. So naturally this is a matter of change in its different degrees; but owing to the status of man, quicker than it would be, if the whole stance had to be changed. So now you have got some idea of what has taken place and why man, when he turns to the Occult Laws, becomes of a paler constitution. They take on a paler, more ethereal look.

The Pathway of Initiation

THIS is where the status of initiation starts to strip off all the lower states, by the soul seeking into the mysteries. For by so doing he wends his way back, through a state of going forward; and is the course of Relativity through unification. For man has got to get "back" to where he should have started; yet in reality go forward to what he should have become.

All coming into being through the phenomenal Stream, set into motion by the Scapegoat; for as the changes, which are directed by the solar beam are brought to bear upon the matter, does the matter substance change and become, under its directing current. All are from one point of direction, the Fountain head of all Creation; that of the issue of Divine Effulgence, from the

to the man at the present, would be thoroughly abnormal. For owing to the unity of Fount and Central Sun, long before its time according to the present status, man is going to be swung into changes he never bargained for. Not out of context, but here in one vast sweeping blow; yet something he should have been, long long ago.

Man should have never created the lower Kingdoms, they should have never been; but since he sank to those depths and had to rise, the sweep automatically is vast, though not out of context.

WHEN FAIR CERES REIGNS

CERES the Mother of all Harvests and the gatherer of all Fruits, mystically stands, as the upholder of the Scorpionic Seed, the Teacher of the Law and the raiser of the Fire. Thus the Solar Light Shines and the Harvest reaps its plenty.

Blackness of Life. The ever unfolding out of Space, with differentiation as the fanning spectre. But all coming out of itself, to concentrate in the human soul, as the Human creation from its NOUGHTNESS, bringing forth of SUCHNESS. Now you have a very great depth there because the soul as a state of mind, and only mind, starts with Noughtness and it finishes with Suchness, a state of sensitivity.

This alone points out the possibilities of Creation, which

Therefore, with the inflowing phenomena changing all status of growth through man himself, man will be the director and influence, upon the whole being. Through his mind acceptance, which will naturally come about, will he perceive and demonstrate in a natural way. For man grows and becomes by the Stream of Phenomena, but as he had the lead through the sciences to change the law status, so there had to be one to rise above this by their creative belief of the higher elements. Then if they could stand their ground, and establish the LAW, then the way was completely changed. This is the meaning of the changed FACE, that of the Macroprosopus that ever brings changes, as one ascends of the old law. Now this is the theory where they were continually being disturbed in the Hebrews time, when he said

"I am not coming to destroy the Law only coming to give it a better understanding." Man has not been able to define the Law in its proper unfoldment.

Here we come to the full context of Mark 11 v. 18

"Where they feared him because all were astonished at his doctrine."

They knew the Law, and knew that he was surmounting the old Law, thus changing the FACE of creation.

The Mind Development Class

EACH Week on every Saturday at 6.30 p.m. G.M.T. Mrs. Spearman-Cook holds her Special Mind Development Class at the School's H.Q. A special Subject is concentrated upon for about 40 minutes and then each sister is individually helped to interpret and understand his or her findings. Any readers can join; those nearby can make application to attend each week, and those too far away can send in their names and link in each week at the time stated, their names being entered in a Special Book for this purpose. The subjects for concentration are:

- | | | | |
|-----------|-----------------------|-----------|------------------|
| Feb. 5th | Merope's Dam | Mar. 5th | Phosphorus Fire |
| Feb. 12th | Star of Vesta | Mar. 12th | The Spider's Web |
| Feb. 19th | Isotope Atom | Mar. 19th | Iris |
| Feb. 26th | Swing of the Pendulum | Mar. 26th | Scarabeus |

But naturally was done through a soul having these new ideas; for once a fact is believed and advocated, then substantiated by action it becomes the Law, the proven fact, and over-rides past issues. But it is not just as easy as it sounds, for it needs the one who perceives of the new idea, to be of that status first, to change the Law of direction. And if they can substantiate it by a stabled state then it is fully created.

So it not only requires belief and faith, but courage to brave the change; for this in being set into motion, brought higher Elements into action; those of outer Space that had never been in action before. And this is what Hannah and Ruth did in the past when they saved the Seed; the Seed was dying from the want of fresh Air. Thus brought new life and fresh air, where there had only been stagnant decaying waters; for the new birth was of the higher generative action, bringing the higher element of Scorpio to the fore.

With this established, all swung forth multiple degrees, that it could set changes into life, completely of full birth. For now the whole range of TIME had been unified, which meant man must completely change, and find his REAL status. Whether man condemned or not, it made no difference at all, man was swung right into his rightful self, and by that way would the Elements go.

The Changing Stream

THIS is the context of the Stream, complete change from top to tail, where the whole Earth, in vast sweeping changes, will find his LOST HORIZON. Now these are the Four Streams that were drawn down, the last one has just been brought down being the stream of Eridanus. This was a stream linking with the rock of Ophel and the Zinnor Gutter and all being portrayed through your Holy Book. There is profound wisdom there if you can clear away all the righteous and orthodox rubbish. It cannot possibly swing back, for its status has been established and stabilised, that man will now find his royal status of a god-born being, as he strives to utilise the possibilities. And now the gods are born within his meninges he is going to find the way back to become a god-born soul. The offshoot would have been, of a far different nature, owing to the established creation; for the lower Kingdoms will have been involved in, and no longer in existence. And you were warned by many that there would be a robot race, and now it has been avoided. Therefore all locked in tightly from A to Z, with man the inner creator being guided by the whole status of TIME, and no room for outer changes. He does not want to think that there is going to be some over-ruling Lords, that are going to push them into whatever direction they like. But I am going to say this, he is not going to do exactly as he has been doing, and there is going to become a balanced Kingdom.

For now there is NO higher or No lower creation, being led by perfected Laws; for all becomes of that creation. Such a time was never known before, and now is a SURE WAY, with man going on to the perfect being he dreams of, in his allegorical prophesying.

The up-rooting of past religious nonsense is the deepest dye, for it is the ritual and fantastic dogma which stoned man into his present inertia. For it caused souls to draw down of elements, which they did not know how to cope with; but so imbued with religious fear, as to cause utter confusion.

This the new Stream will sweep away, bringing in the RELIGION of UNIVERSAL PHILOSOPHY, and that is the unifying of all Wisdom into one point of understanding. Wisdom that teaches man the truth of life, and how to live for ever. Not honouring death as a state of being, holding the soul down in mortality, as you have had to-day (November 11th), raising up all the astral planes so that a number of men can get back into old uniforms, trotting around with all the ego under the sun. With this old status completely uprooted, new life will dance as a song, for then the new breath of life, will be fully inculcated.

This now brings us to the true growth of Nature, where the growth of the Earth will change. For the whole effluvia of being will reside in that simple growth; being the perfect recipient of the Elements, have been giving to man of his oxygen element. Now my Instrument can take every one of these, and she does take every one of them so as to send out onto the maelstrom those certain elements we want to send forth. Only because he could not take the full quota, from the Hydrogen Stream. But now man with the changes will learn to be different, and draw from the higher waters. Thus being so held to the Animal Kingdom, had to seek of the Vegetable for support, for he could not create of his own chlorophyll, owing to the red animal corpuscles. But with the lower having gone, the Human becomes to its rightful status, yet will need of herbs to cleanse and fortify, until he reaches his state of divinity. So he has got to be helped by herbs until he can get himself balanced.

Reminiscences

THE ROAD TO SENSITIVITY

FIRST OF ALL I MUST THANK THE readers for the many beautiful Christmas and new Year cards; it seems a pity that we cannot keep them, but of course that would be impossible. Although the Editor may know you all very well, I am not so well acquainted with the readers as he is. But for all that, I loved looking at your cards and the messages received, and thank you all for your kind remarks.

Now the next point I would like to comment upon, is the fact of the rapid increase in our circulation just recently, especially in America and Rome. Schools are now taking the paper as a means of their library newsprint. This is very interesting to us, for we wonder how such has reached their notice; quite possibly the warning not to become caught up by us. It is amazing how potent adverse news can be at times, in fact I have found it to be my only best friend. Now I know that many of you are waiting for news regarding a certain incident that has recently taken place. All is well and in keeping with the plan of the Hierarchs, but as to my commenting I cannot just yet; but hope to have much to say in the March edition.

Sensitisation

QUITE recently a reader wrote and asked me how they get sensitised, and since this is a question that has been sought of before, it would be a good point to try and explain. The first thing is to understand as to what being sensitised really means, then we can get down to the mode of procedure. Those who would seek of this, obviously agree that man has fallen from his true estate, and is seeking to return to what he has lost. This is so evident, by those who become sensitised by refinement of the physical casing and etheric body, becoming aware of states of the past returning; which have to be witnessed to be realised. It is no good a doctor or scientist with a brain clouded by animal meat and tobacco smoke, commenting about imagination or fantastic theories, for they have never experienced what it is to be sensitised and alert to what has been, by a state of SUB-CONSCIOUS RELATIVITY.

States DO arise which are KNOWN facts, and so much so, you almost live them again, but in a natural way. The soul now by the clarity of the mind, is able to unite what they know has arisen by cycle revolution, with what is, and the two give them a clear state of deduction to a most elusive nature, through the power of PERCEPTORY AWARENESS.

When the soul by development can unite and expand, it is amazing what they can bring forth as a state of genius. This is how Musicians, Poets and Artists bring forth their unusual productions.

Yet this is quite clear, for man is TIME and elements having been through the crucible pot, and come forth as mind light. This is contained in the bloodstream as the haemoglobin or protoplasmic essence, that is ever moving and changing. This is ever reformed in continuity, by the mother through her Ova providing the embryo with the blood life they require. Usually there is some form of attraction in the returning spirit, but it is able to take only from the blood its own possible blood-count.

The brain is the organ that works the oracle and holds the light as unto the intensity of the sensitivity. Thus light is man's linking with the Divine and super-planes from which, he as the Elements has been derived. But he being held by the conscious mind, that has only awakened so far because of the souls love of the beast, cannot define the depths he has achieved as light. That is the awakening conscious-awareness that will come through a sensitised state of mind clarity.

This is the secret, man as spirit having fallen to the bestial desires, became of the beast, the animal creation. In the same way as man on turning to drugs is bringing deformed and crippled children into birth, which is sinking downwards in another direction. Evolution is onwards, that is the law; so by going onwards man discards the beast, for that is the decreed Law.

The Arachnoid Basin

NOW it is quite obvious that man is not really of the flesh, that is a state that comes from the spirit as soul falling into a desire state and becoming enamoured with matter; lost in a luna water state. For those who get out of this and get onto a mind plane of air, which is the Solar state, it becomes clear and elusive. Yet something that has to be experienced to be known, and certainly a most balanced state. But it can only be of such when built of the spirit, the refined protoplasmic essence that radiates as light. The substance of the heavenly planes, to which the soul will ascend to when it discards the physical casing through death.

This is done by the soul discarding the animal states and desires, and opening themselves up to the finer qualities of the descending ruach. The prism of light and ether that contains the heavenly issues. If this was not so, why were the scientists concerned regarding the Cosmic Rays that are coming down, and the effect upon the Human Race? This is the befogging difficulty, man accepts much of this, but only as much as he wants to, so that he is not called to account upon his own discarding of the desire issue. To admit and accept too much, leaves them open too much to their own bestial states, which they would have to admit.

Therefore it is obvious that sensitising is the discarding of the luna states, the desire states of matter. This is where the mind becomes clear, for what has been lost in sexual desire, is risen up to the heights by alchemical process, and becomes brain food to the meninges. Feeding the three Maters or Marys with spinal fluid; this they do by flowing into the Arachnoid basin, with the Dura Mater and the Pia Mater being fed, for they contain the blood vessels that feed the gods that reside up in these heights. It is here that there is the mysterious spider web, or state of sensitivity gained, which of course would come about through this rising spinal fluid.

This being the seminal fluid, with the mysterious Seed of holy Life-Fire being transformed and sent up to the heights as spiritus air, through the le Ros dance of the Bull in its plowing. This has already been explained in the teachings of the previous Gazettes. All this is where the mind becomes clear and lucid, but also where the pallor of the flesh becomes pale, because the animal blood no longer keeps the blood in a thickened state of animal

A Town in the West of England.

Dear Mrs. Spearman-Cook,

I am a Roman Catholic. The other day I was invited to supper in a charming flat with three friends of mine, also Roman Catholics. It was in these circumstances that I was introduced for the first time to the "Occult Gazette." As one who has read Theosophy, Christian Science and Spiritualism, also Vendanta and Buddhism, your magazine interested me beyond measure. "The Occult Gazette" has been pushed through their letter-box. They were mad about it and raved the entire evening.

I alone read it quietly. Hence this letter to you.

Please send me a picture of yourself as I would like to see the face of one so bold and brave, even courageous enough to storm the citadel of Rome. And much more important. Would you be kind enough to send me any helpful literature you may have that would enable me to further my understanding?

I already sense that great things are coming to pass in 1966 and also 1967. Maybe there are some young occultists in B— who take your paper and could give me more enlightenment. Blessings galore upon your work.

sincerely yours G.P.S.P.

density. It now becomes refined and aeriated, thus able to revolve at a quicker speed around the body, thereby feed the nervous system and the brain in a more alert way.

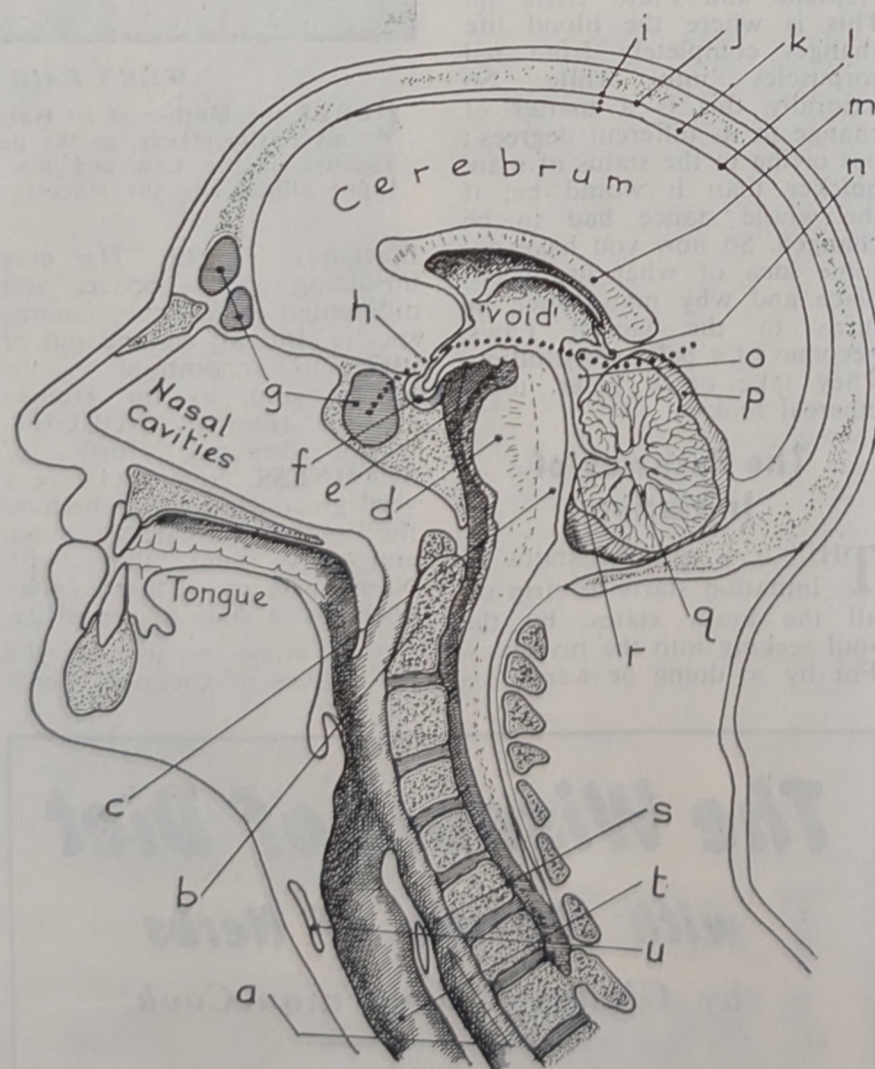

The Path of Sacrifice

THIS all has keeping with the spinal rod and its nerve network. This and the brain are the working faculty, for as the discarding takes place, the sensitivity slowly rises up the spinal column of the nervous network as the rising frequency. Since this network goes all around the body, it is a rising state from feet to head until it reaches the neck. Then the real fight begins, can the soul get finally passed Taurus and up into the higher precincts. For it really means now, that drastic cuts have to be made to be able to get the super state, that the soul can rise the cerebellum up above its present state of consciousness. Through this the cranial organ will become highly sensitised.

So it can be seen how all is a matter of discarding anything that holds you as a slave to the world of matter. You turn to the unseen planes, of which you are thoroughly convinced, and become of the finer texture. Then as that finer texture, which you have built up as light, can you ascend unto on your passing over at the death of the physical.

Or otherwise, as a soul of no light, you merely go to the

THE RISEN VENUS

FROM the very innermost depths of the spirit, from the secret archives of the soul, there will arise that Sensitive Essence, that supreme Vintage, the Divine Mary. Everyman must create this wonderment for it is from this there comes forth the Supreme MIND of the CHRISTOS.

astral planes or purgatory as the Catholics declare, and then try to make ascension over there, which is utterly impossible. Well why wait until you get over there? It is obvious that the Catholics like their luna states; states of desire, hence no mind unfoldment onto the higher planes.

Mind is sensitivity, where the soul can think and not construct out of mere repetition, thus becomes a genius. But this will not come by textbook theories ever being devoured. It can only come by delving into ancient wisdom, from which the root has been derived. For the soul is now the outcome of those roots, and only by those roots can he solve his present problems. Thus when combined in unification, will give him the answer as the blossoming. This is the atomic and the magnetic uniting and becoming the electro-magnetic.

But this can only come about by the soul sensitising the spinal faculties through discarding the beast; thereby the soul becoming aware and alert to the greater purpose, that of the spirit. The etheric garment or soul creation which the soul makes journey up through the planes. It is only this way the soul can make this garment, although the down-pouring of the Waters will now help considerably. Otherwise the soul will remain earth-bound; bound to the luna planes, that of the astral.

The Alchemicalisation of the Spirit

THIS is the great bugbear of the Catholics, they are continually asking me as to what is the spirit, which indicates that they really want to know. For many are awakening and coming away from the domination of their papal slavery. This will increase as the Waters continue to descend and saturate man and earth. For already there is a noticed change, as seen on Sunday 16th January when at the Albert Hall a dedication was being held after Heenan and his delegates returned from Rome. Naturally, we as the Occult Gazette went and delivered our free copies of the Gazette, and over 500 were taken and handled by the ingoing souls.

It was most noticeable of the change of face, for now they were more amenable to the Gazette, with some even saying "You have got courage." Some even insisting on paying for their Gazette, while others commented upon the high quality of the paper. Which means, all were caught alight by the downcoming fires, where changes will continue their work through the alchemicalisation. This is where understanding of the Occult, stands one in good stead, especially with the change of world through the birth of Relativity.

So the spirit is entering unbeknown to themselves, even if they refuse to accept the spirit as a spiritual unfoldment.

But I will go so far as to predict, that it will not be very long before they will be as souls advocating of the spirit, and seeking of the Occult Wisdom.

For the Jesuits know that this Wisdom is true, but the pope in his antiquated way is hampering their progress. This is the cause of their schism, and what is breaking up their old regime. Therefore, with a little action of the Waters, they will be turning in the right direction.

This is how the spirit works; it is not a matter of destruction, but changing the avidya of the soul; that of their ignorance. For every soul holds of atoms that must be returned to the heights, otherwise the Gods are lame. Yet so are mankind, for man cannot fulfill the glory of becoming on only "half a loaf," he must have the whole answer. So neither Gods nor men can benefit while he refuses to probe and change.

This being the case, the Hierarchs took this into their own hands, and now man will be forced to change, with or without the sensitivity.

So I can promise everyone, that GREAT CHANGES are going to take place before we bring you the March edition. Thus good hunting and happy changes for the months ahead.

Gladys J. Spearman-Cook.

Light Against Darkness

by R. S. J. Speller

THIS was written as a result of the pope's visit to America in October 1965 in a last desperate move to keep roman catholicism alive. It relates of the struggle between Merope the Terrestrial Christ, and Paul the Black Paw of Ammon. Here we are privileged to see into the not too distant future, where the result of this dynamic battle of one small soul against the evil of the catholic hordes is revealed. (The Author).

*HIGH into the clouds he ventured,
Such a height he'd never been.
Could not hold the powers he captured,
Lost them all unto our Queen.
Journeyed onward through the Ever onward to his doom, [maelstrom
While Merope sat and laboured,
Weaved a garment on her loom.*

*Onward to the land of sorrow
Right into its depths he went
Sick of heart and heavy laden
For this was his last attempt.
Last attempt to keep his glory
Last attempt to hold his power.
But too late, his reign was ended,
Now must evil meet its hour.*

*For still Merope sat and laboured
Sending all the powers on high,
Now must religion face that moment,
Accept the Truth, or spurn and die.
Yet Merope struggled harder
Weaved a garment for the Earth,
Weaved a garment for the Cosmos
That the world could find new birth.*

*Faster, faster, never stopping
In and out she drove her mind,
Took his powers of lunar make-up
And brought forth the golden hind.
Let him hear the adulation,
Let him revel while he may,
For tomorrow will be different
And his church be swept away.*

*E'en now the game of chess is ending
That on the board of life was played,
Black or white must be the victor,
One of two from Earth must fade.
Yet swiftly moves the hand of justice,
All the pawns are swept away.
Now are gone the knights and bishops
As the white queen makes her play.*

*Next the castles are defeated,
And hail mary falls from sight,
Now at last black king is cornered
None to shield him from the Light;
All the strength has gone from in him*

*Exhausted now, he knows his fate,
Faces all his mind creations
Cries for mercy, yet too late,
Is taken, mated with the scorpion
And cast lifeless from the board,
So is the Cosmic fight concluded
And remains, just Queen and Lord.*

THE GREAT EAGLE'S HEALING COLUMN

FROM the many hundreds of letters that have come into us, only a few of which we are able to answer, the state that we forewarned readers about, has started... the dreaded state of Mental Inertia. It seems that the majority of readers are finding the fight to force themselves to activate their minds is becoming increasingly difficult, whilst the drawing down of the Spirit... even the acceptance and Belief in the Spirit, is nigh non-existent. Man for over 13,000 years, since the descent of the Holy FIRE, has lived on its radiance and its Powers, but did not attempt to reverence or honour his position as the son of God. Slowly over the Equinoxes the Fire Seed wasted until the pot was dry. Now the age of relativity has commenced in the Age of the Waterpot (Aquarius), each man has to meet the roots of his beginning, the Heart-Intent, that acted as the firing-gun to his race of life. For the Scapegoat has filled the pot once more with the Holy Fire, but this time man must obey the prototype actions of she who set the LAW.

The LAWS of the whole Universe have been changed, the New Earth and New Heaven as prophesied, the Great POWERS to be woven through the human crucible, and supreme consciousness be born as the Christos LIGHT. But mankind must realise that he, and he alone, must bring forth his own wealth and that his old understanding must pass away and be born anew. It is his own task and the LAW now forbids him stealing ideas from another, or from the past whether his own ideas or those of another.

To take of drugs and false stimulants, or to rely on Medical operations is in fact seeking a quick grave in the Luna waters.

The only way for man to escape is to seek of the Spirit and to turn to build up the Solar Light, via the interaction of constant spinal dancing of the Fires, the generative powers that are used by ever seeking of mind enquiry and stimulus. The Solar Light is radiant points of awareness built into a glorious Radiance of MIND. All mankind must now seek the road of the Scapegoat, that which she has established by forging her way through the jungle of chaotic mind growth that has overgrown and multiplied, so that she could pathfind the Road back home to the Spirit, the land of the Central Sun, the Lord of the Flame.

Now let us seek into our cases.

First we have to deal with skin diseases, which we have so effectively treated by liberal use of the MARGOLD Herb. Whether the place is caused through Eczema, or more deep rooted ulcers on the legs, this herb helps wonderfully.

Weeping Inflation with "unbearable Itch and Heat"

Mrs. M. S. of Bute, Scotland.

Around August I took an inflation on my face (left side). It started high on my cheek, travelled down to my chin and after a few days became covered like a scab. I tried to cure it with garlisol liquid and garlisol ointment. Each day it grew worse and it was obvious it was spreading rapidly. On the 13th it was leaking and had travelled down to my neck on to my chest, keeping to left side until it came to 15th when I saw my face was twice its size, the sores were weeping brownish fluid and it was travelling to the right side. At night I could not sleep for intense itch and heat all down my back and front and face. I was so panic stricken that I phoned the doctor and he said "Acute Eczema."... He ordered Histamine to be taken inwardly and cortizone ointment outwardly. (At present she is still on garlisol pills (6 per day) after 18 months).

I knew I was wrong but in my distress I took 25 Histamine tablets and used one tube of the Cortizone ointment. In two days my face and neck were almost normal. Three weeks later I took the most terrible melancholy. I knew I was ill but could not pin it down... I could not sleep for heat. Even though my face was better it still flushes up like nerves, and I was going to write and ask you for nerve tablets until now, for now I have a new complaint. In my front passage I have an unbearable itch and heat, and if I scratch the pain is worse than the itch.

THIS is not by any means the finish nor the beginning of this reader's letter but the excerpt does in fact cover the essential call for help and the very real cry that exists. This letter has been chosen because it shows one TRUTH which so many try to deny or turn a blind eye to.

That which is within must eventually come forth, be it the worms in the gourd or the Rose.

If suddenly excreta or the equivalent pours forth or exudes from underneath the 7 tissues of the skin, which are fed by the blood and the lymph, any person who wishes to take themselves to task surely must be prepared to accept that these are results of past sowings, and that which was sown is still within the 7 bodies, the Anthropos or human soul growth. Whatever is within MUST eventually come forth and the soul has got to meet, cleanse and replant on a higher frequency of Mind, the Fourth Dimension.

What Mrs. M. S. has done, by refusing to face herself, is to ruthlessly force under the power of drugs—which act on the outer 7th body, the earth casing, only,—the exuding poison back up the chain of bodies thereby making such pollution spread and infect the soul nature, the sensitivity garment, etc. Eventually such spreads internally... incestuously within the blood species... multiplying the root and its fruits, only to come forth from another angle having rooted itself far more firmly within the soul's nature.

Any soul who runs away from him or herself will eventually have to look into the MIRROR, and then hell's delight will face him as he is forced to look upon the ravages of his sowing and read the tortuous agony of results, his Dorian Gray.

This is what has started to take place with Mrs. M. S. as there is a resurgence of the root in a different guise, and so will there always be until the day arrives when she is going to determine to fight the root and builds up the will. Drugs as I have just stated above are the short road to a watery luna grave. The effect of them is to provide the stimulus that the soul cannot get, by the failure in not drawing down of the spirit. It temporarily gives unto the earth physical casing an uplift and the disease that is inflowing from the inner bodies has to find the other outlet.

Now for the difficulties of change. She has already built up full reliance on the magnetic powers when in effect she must seek of the Solar Fire to feed and cleanse her inner bodies. It is only by the Word and the spinning up of the spinal fires, the horses ever moving up and down the spine, in the mind perpetually seeking of wisdom.

She should now commence to change her ways, and when she can have sufficient faith and belief in the Spirit as opposed to the Earth, she will be able to draw forth that root by the means of the study of the Word and changing her mind of old thoughts. New ways of action in practical application should start as soon as the mind accepts the wisdom otherwise the soul will be building up 12th and 8th house roots. States that have not been buried in and changed for good, but ever linger in the background as a tendency of the soul's character to repeat again. Stubborn and rebellious states of the conscious daily mind that refuses to alter its ways and starts to create an immovable rock of habit.

At this stage I would advise taking and using SLIPPERY ELMARSH ointment, as there is now no leaking or discoloration. The herbs to take are MARGOLD FLOWERS, BUCHU and DANDELION using the MARGOLD for twice daily bathing of the face, using the infusion as hot as possible. There is no finer herb for skin trouble than Marigold especially as it is full of the Solar Light. The three herbs mentioned are for cleansing the bloodstream and the lymph of waste and aiding the clearing out of the poisons in the blood, the hidden stagnant states that need change.

For months we have warned you of the Solar Rains that have been descending as the inflowing Cosmic Fire which would either be embraced or burn their way into the soul and force the changes. In this instance Mrs. M. S. was GREAT Divine One: we call upon Thee to Bless these souls, that they too are touched by the Word and the Wisdom that has gone forth tonight that is of the highest vibration, giving unto the soul how the Supreme and the lowest of Earth can be united and brought into a creation of genius upon the Earth, thus raising up the status of life. Thy Blessing be upon them, that this is born within their soul.

starting to undergo her spiritual cleansing for which she should have been very grateful, and should have turned to spiritual healing and herbs, and she refused preferring the earth's ways. Thus she is now having to undergo the burning of the Fires as they forcibly make their way through the consciousness. The best herbs for this condition are UVA URSI, COUCH-GRASS and ST. JOHN'S WORT. Bathing with WITCH HAZEL will help to allay the heat, and her taking an infusion of VIOLET LEAVES will also help her to cool the bloodstream.

Psoriasis

Mrs. N. P. of Bournemouth, Hants.

Studying the Occult Gazette, I find it wonderfully uplifting and I now feel I have a little hope. Reading the Healing successes with herbs, I hope you will send me some Marigold petals or flowers to ease my skin trouble, which has spread all over the body. The Doctor said it was Psoriasis, and there was no known cure, but the ointment has spread it, so had to leave it off. I take inner cleansing herbs to keep my bowels open and to help. So a bathing with Marigold Flowers and a drink made of the flowers I feel will help me.

THIS herb is indeed of superb help in all skin cases and indeed in any case where there is a necessity for the Solar Light to saturate the body. Again let it be said that there must be some poisons in the bloodstream which have either come forth from the food that is being eaten, especially the animal foods, or alternatively the lack of mind Light, as well as the lack of studying the Wisdom has led to the self-poisoning of the body by the inward chaos of the mind. This is where the study of the Word is paramount and in such a case as this it cannot be overstressed.

It is no good just taking herbs without knowing AND accepting fully in belief and Faith the cause and reasons for such a breakout in the body. Once known and once the remedy is accepted, the soul must see the practical alterations of her daily life, such as a radical alteration in her diet.

We would advise you to first seek of the Word to study, and secondly to gradually make changes away from all animal foods including milk, butter and cheese. Then the thick clogging cooked vegetables and the heavy starches must slowly be sacrificed, until the bloodstream is being fed on the fresh fruit of the tree. But this raising up of the sensitivity of the body has to be accomplished with full mind acceptance and its purpose. This is the dance of Venus, the uprising of Aphrodite, until the mind frequency races, ever seeking to master the desires of the flesh.

The importance of DIET and CELIBACY, the new established Laws of Universal Philosophy, cannot be over-estimated so that the Earth can look toward the Road to Immortality, the New City of the Central Sun. If you send details of your birth, the time, place and date, it will be the easier to pin point your difficulty. Together with these changes, take some herbs regularly, especially those containing the solar Light, and these will help to cleanse the etheric body as all the herbs contain the spiritual ethers, to bring the balance and order to a chaotic bloodstream.

Get a muslin bag and place the herbs within and have a herbal bath as often as you can. A thoroughly good soak will do untold good and the longer it takes the sooner the cleansing will finish. Taking a drink of the herbs will help especially if BUCHU and DANDELION are taken as well, for these are most excellent for cleansing the tissues and the body generally.

that a greater vibratory status can be added to the blood by raising up the mind frequency. But not only raising the soul, but the planes of the earth, for it sets new Laws into operation of a Cosmic rebirth, whereby all assaults up to the heights.

By the soul so elevating all planes by this endeavour, it can make unity with the unknown Blackness of Space, bringing into birth genius of an unusual creation.

For here is where man really receives his sustenance, the grace of his upper Ethers. Drawing down the fiery Life from the very Source, when he is able to raise up his vibrations to respond to such inflowing waters. Otherwise he merely draws from the bowels of the earth, and lives upon the magnetic.

The Brahmic Thread

BUT when he seeks of the higher Powers, he seeks of what comes out of what has been, the Brahmic acme of All-Being. He climbs back up the Brahmic Thread that lowered him down to earth; and which has been sustaining him while he turned his mind to the spirit. But once he turned to the depths, the thread became broken, and is what all men are now seeking to find, the means of unity with new life. To tell them of Brahma, from which they were born, and is seeking for their return, leaves them blind, and even credulous, even though it be the answer.

That which gives forth and calls back again; the ever unseen Fatherhood coming forth in the son, as the alternation of rebirth. Positive and negative that brings forth the golden child, in the form of mind unfoldment. The Source of LIFE that man is ordained to bring forth in the abyss, that it can become a living organisation, a world of glorified life, where man learnt all the rudiments of mind activity, becoming a state of GIVING. Not a state of self, but a state of giving, where genius came into birth out of the soul creation.

Therefore in digesting the Word and setting its action revolving in the blood and mind, the soul by polarity links with those higher forces. Thereby becomes born of their higher vibrations, that can still, by mind belief, reach up to yet higher planes in the Blackness of Space. Where the soul can draw forth, and by their ultra sensitivity, create wonders from those mysterious nebulae, that are filled with creations of untold belief. (See plate page 12, cols. 4 & 5)

So in raising the frequency, the soul must be prepared to meet all the resulting actions that they are bound to take place in the unifying ascension. Yet it is only the soul trying to get back to the status he once held, before multiplicity and worldliness had taken over the glories of the mind; that born out of the holy Fire, that man has lost all true understanding, and fails to bring to its rightful unfoldment as the crowning wonder of life. Thus bringing the soul to the present solidified state, a state of non-sensitivity. Thereby not being able to recognise the wonders of the heights, the glorious star spangled peplos of the heavens. That which could give unto him all the wonders he is seeking, but of the inner wealth of the etheric creation, the depths of the rich flowing river of blood.

Once man accepts the responsibility of seeking into his creation, he will find that responsibility begins in every direction. He first seeks to sensitise himself by the reforming of his habits, and the digesting of the Word. For by raising the sensitivity of the nervous vascular system, brings a sensitised haemoglobin state of the blood; thus bringing into the blood a fiery status of oxygenated life through a polarity action of union. Drawing from the higher qualities in the inflowing Prism, and not just from the red and orange, the lower states of the prana. But on all the seven inflowing radiance of the mysterious inflow Chain of Causation. Sipping and partaking of all the problems of life, with the soul ever striving to redeem them by gaining fresh ideas of mind belief. Man daily mastering life, that the earth can be subdued.

Yet this has a greater reflection in the work of the Macrocosm, the Cosmic creation which becomes the work of the chosen Scapegoat. Them having to "eat" up the evils of men, by setting new laws out of the problems, that man can breathe freely once again. Thereby raising the Arc by cleansing the maelstrom, and sending up new life to the Gods. Surmounting all old Laws created by others, bringing those LAWS forth in their rightful prospective.

BRINGING THE WORD INTO LIFE

UNtil a soul can make the mouth speak as the God-Fire would so do, he has ever to meet and master the complement of the soul's nations within, meeting all that which the soul has woven into being much to his regret. For now he is as a prisoner to them and a victim to their waywardness. Until he makes those of his own nature to unite and fight with the mind and will, he will ever have to continue like this. But as soon as he can at last determine to go into battle to change his whole growth, then will he become not the whipped enuch of fate but the harvesting Knight of the Royal Harvest. (See text on the back page, col. 4).

"I come not to destroy the Law, but to fulfill."

Thereby bringing down fresh air by the Chain of Causation, giving man new life to wrestle with.

The Wealth of Relativity

BUT the greatest problem now to break down, is the text book diplomacy, that which holds man in its grip, stoning all his natural fiery elements of spontaneity. It giving him a status which he holds only as a mortal, a creature of bone and flesh. No vibration, no frequency, no elevation of the spirit, no bringing of the fire of the inflowing Causation to becoming the fiery elevated crown of the mind.

Just repetition of a parrot, that finally ends in incestuous states, filling the blood life with raging fire, that corrodes the bones of the soul.

But with the Word raising the electrical activity of the mind and blood, through the active metabolism, it finds through the raised up frequency, it has set a higher revolution revolving in the blood activity. Thus in extracting the higher frequency from the involving inflowing life from the heights, the soul by relativity can now draw out the wealth deposited in the marrow of the bones. For by raised up thought and raised up purpose, the soul now by wisdom, can begin to bring relativity into unified action. For wealth from the heights demands wealth from the depths, and that is now in the secret archives of the soul. That slowly sinking down to the depths, waiting the time when the soul was ready to bring forth into active creation. (See plate page 12, cols. 1 & 2)

All set in the wealth of the heights, but not ready until the lower consciousness is ready to direct into a unified creative action. So hides in the lower archives of the soul, until the lower consciousness awakens. Then by unification bringing forth, from the inflowing sperming frequency of the generative rebirth, a new idea, which raises the Law by its birth from the returning Effluence.

The Pleroma has given forth of a new born panacea, a rebirth out of itself; thereby lifting up both earth and heaven, beside the soul in its evolution.

But man through the lack of this knowledge, is not active, or seeking to be active in the mind creative direction. He merely turns to what these states afford, the animal in newly created ideas. Hence the reason why the Gods have taken over and reversed the status of rebirth, that they could be the means of bringing forth the wealth in the bones of the soul. Their lost atoms that are slowly decaying, and bringing confusion and destruction to the long lost soul.

The meninges of every soul now being alight through the inflowing Fires of the Cosmic Rays, that brought into birth by the raised up influence of Scorpio, can be the means of every soul, now being led into the right direction. Whether man wants to believe this or not, it is a truth he will not be able to bye-pass, for ere long every soul, will find himself looking into this direction. He has only to study the Occult Laws to find out the wisdom he is seeking; for the law set into operation by Darius, will soon begin to act. For Fire taken, and not brought into birth in the right direction, will now, by the inflowing elevated Cosmic Rays, force the soul into action. (See plate page 12, cols. 4 & 5)

This means that man's higher mind is now alight through the inflowing waters, that are all filled with the wisdom sent up to the heights, by Merope the Scapegoat creator. Now it is for the higher mind of every soul, to

THE BEAST

THE Holy Fire so descended into the earthy nature that it created the beast, and no mind life existed. Once man has decided to look upward and claim his heritage as the Divine Son of his Father, so will the earth become raised up and the animal nature discarded. (See the back page, cols. 1 and 2).

THE HOLY FIRE

sperm the lower into active rebirth; but this cannot be done, unless the active mind is awakened by the understanding of the greater law. So if the soul by chance awakens, especially by being presented with an Occult Gazette, it can help to receive from the higher mind, new and more active ideas. Therefore, between the two, it would not take the soul very long to awaken to its greater purpose. Thus extracting out of the reformed Pleroma from the heights, the wealth of the greater rebirth.

The Kirtle of God

FOR this is where the Hierarchs are now acting, making contact with the gods in the meninges of the soul. Feeding the world through forcible feeding of new and active mind life. Thereby raising up and extracting their wealth from the depths, especially in the rich female; and where she if she is virgin wise, will seek diligently to getting under the "KIRTLE OF GOD," by giving her mind up to the higher studies, and reaching up to the heights.

Then she can begin to call out the leviathan, the living wealth in her depths. The fiery atomic life that has made her a mistress of a mighty depths. Not just a rock, but a copper mountain, the wealth of the phosphorus fire; not just bringing up spiritus air, but a mighty leviathan from the depths, the serpent with its lamia possibilities. The queen of the South with her mine of pearls, waiting to be brought forth.

Powers that could, if raised up and polarised, bring into birth powers and wealth equal to the mysterious Snake, but of a greater propensity. Powers to heal, powers to write and solve the problems of life; with powers to give to others life from the heavens, by the soul becoming a Voice of God. If she has raised man in one direction, then she can raise him up in another, for Woman has seed as rich as a mount full of glorious wealth, being the mistress of the lunar depths.

United with the Fire from the heights, could produce wealth untold, for it is this lamina of the snake that is the phosphorus fire, the powers of the pythia, that can give unto woman her mighty wealth of power. The powers of the magnetic depths that must be united with that of the atomic; then by the Word, brought forth as the electro-magnetic.

This is the wealth of the Medea, or the mysterious Medusa's head that Medea gave unto Jason, whereby he mastered the Talos, and lifted his feet off the magnetic rock. Thereby he became ariel born, and danced with his mind through all the planes of the heights, as one born of invincibility. All the states within his being unified into one glorious state of oneness, whereby man was no longer splayed in multiplicity, but unified in his thoughts into a state of androgyneity.

Wealth from the depths unified from the heights, until the phosphorus fire was brought forth by the inflowing Fire from the heights. For the soul by wisdom could now become aware of the divine purpose, thereby seek by heart desire for the greater creation. Thus bringing down into his being the pitch-blende sparks of Vulcan. The royal infusion that comes forth as it binds up the soul with its royal depths. Then could be the means of the fire, in being brought forth as the inflammable material, to rise up to the heights. Thereby set the whole of the meninges into a blaze of illumination, that was only applicable to the anointed. A soul now born of the Hydrogen Waters as the EL Powers of LIGHT, receiving direct from the Source by the means of unification. Where the soul by mastery of HERE and NOW, was the electrical current of complete intercalary blending, producing Perceptory awareness.

For by Time, experience and unification, brought about by the Word, the Fire-seed deposited at the beginning of TIME, had now risen as the Phosphorus fire, that had caught the mind alight. For Vulcan had penetrated the Central Sun and touched Scorpio with its pitch-blende sparks, that every soul could become set alight by its igniting Fiery substance. For the soul was not now aware of the royalty that was with it, owing to the roots laid by the erroneous teaching of religion, now caught up by the "TRAFFIC OF MEN." The medical world blinded by the theory of drugs and many false methods of healing, whereby the natural laws of rebirth were cut asunder.

The New Laws

SO Merope knew there was only one way, and that was to undermine and clear away those evils that impeded the vision of man, from his unity with his own royal purpose.

So by actions set into motion, and new Laws laid up in the Cosmos, the way was prepared for a deeper delving into the depth of the soul, where the roots of the present difficulties were brought to light. Thereby polarised with the wealth of outer space, and brought to peace by unity. Where all the evils born from that root, would be given their mortuary meal. So Merope knew there was only one way, delving down deep into the mysteries of the past, by reaching down deep into the fire now deposited in the bones of her legs. That she could unify them with the heights, and bring forth wisdom that would blend all into new born life.

Therefore she started to set the mind intercalary into action, driving the horses around the arena, so that she could bring the evil of those roots, up out of their depths, and she wrest from them the sacred Fire. Then crown them with the glories intended in the beginning of time; for she had brought that Fire down that man could come forth out of the glories of the Motherhood into the greater expansion of the Fatherhood. The soul evolving from its Feminine state into a Masculine status of will and determination, where it could manifest of the Father, the hidden essence of Divine Life. Thereby bringing forth the intended glories of the royal creative mind.

As she did so, there rose up out of the depths, distorted shapes that she knew were the Fire that bore the evils of all those Ages. The evils that were continually inciting men to the many creations of the present moment; that which they brought into life, to incite their animalistic minds. She knew this was where she had to wrestle, for she alone could free the world from its desires still rampant in the minds of most men. If she could, by her mind clarity, bring those evils up to the heights as transmuted states, as heavily loaded as they were, she could be the means of cutting away the old root and transmuting evil into glory.

(See plate page 13, cols. 3 & 4)

Although the dice were heavily loaded against this possibility, Merope was determined to kill this evil by risking all to master its mighty avidya. So she drove her mind in frantic action, that she could at least raise that transmuted evil state, right up to unity with the heights. Then struggle to crown it with a greater purpose as she broke open the rock in the heights. Back and forth her mind struggled, but with purity of thought and creations of all the Ages. The wealth gathered from the sordid creation that man had importuned to that holy Fire. For he had been given the Divinity of God, the very Life Force of the Fatherhood, and had taken it down into the depths of hell, the negative creation of the Neptunian Waters.

Breaking up the Desires of Man

SO Merope made the blending by linking the lower fires, rescued from the hell of man's creation, and reunited with its heavenly Source. Now she must release the fire from the intent on her side, until with one mighty volley, she joined the magnetic with the atomic on the right side of the fence. As she did so, it seemed as though the whole of the universe was rent in twain, and vivid shafts of light shot down from the heights into the depths below. Striking everything in its path, determined to cleanse all the evil from the planes, or that which bore any semblance of the passing train.

MAN BLIND AND ASLEEP

BELOW the clouds are the outer parts of the soul . . . that which the soul has managed to build . . . the everyday actions that parade through the conscious mind, utterly asleep to the gods within the meninges within the sub-conscious mind. Above the Royal Eagle of Scorpio, ruler of the seminal Fire, ever the first signpost towards expansion of mind, is about to hand unto Mercury the mind, and Venus the sensitivity, the new fire of zeal and zest, enthusiasm and drive to force the clouds of depression, apathy and inertia to leave the soul. (See text on page 16, col. 5 and page 11, col. 2).

Thus the whole of the world was reborn, as evil shapes and grotesque creations were being thrown into a pit of fire. Then the earth closed over, and the fire consuming them rose up to meet the incoming fire from the heights, and both blended in glorious unity.

Then out of the centre appeared a small Lamb being led by a radiating Flame; the Divine Royalty now born in the Cosmic creation, to have its bearing in the depths. Therefore, having drawn the fire up to the heights, and by mind and desire intercalaries uniting, she had brought the original purpose back into life and circulation. But she knew it must at all costs, be a purpose and direction. Thus she now must break open that rock that held all those fiery rock that man had imprisoned by his evil desires over all these Ages. A task that was mighty, for if she did not hold the inter-blending now made, it would run wild, completely swamping her and the whole of the world with its deluge.

Therefore, here was the moment when she needed all the powers of the heights that they could assist her to reach up and draw down from Outer Space, the wealth that would eat up the Fire as she broke open the rock in the depths. The only thing that she could offer to transmute this wide world problem, was her heart intent intensified from wisdom gained over the rolling Ages.

She who had brought down the Fire with full intent to raise up the soul, and had had to trudge through Ages of ramping evil, witnessing man more and more destroying the glory of her creation. So with shoulders set and chin firmly squared, she called upon the Hierarchs to give her the mighty hammer of her Uranian depths, that she could break open that rock and transmute its gushing fire into heavenly wisdom.

As she sent forth her urgent plea, suddenly as Vesta she saw Vulcan standing beside her with his mighty hammer; and she knew that was the strength of her Cancer house,*2 rich with dynamic wealth. The wealth that could break up all the evil created in life by the desires of men. That is why she had the task of seeing that the Gods could live once again with the minds of men.

THE FIGHT FOR MIND FREEDOM

ON the left can be seen the two sides of the mind finding themselves becoming caught up with all the mind memories and personality states of past lives, which had become imprisoned in the animal mind activity of the earth maelstrom, and which the present personality had not been able to master. In front of the boat can be seen the two dogs of the Gemini logical mind, the ever doubting Thomas that keeps the soul earthbound in the astral spheres amongst the beast states. (See text on back page, col. 1).

But they never could while those evil roots existed down in the depths of the soul.

So now with all courage set, she placed her hand upon Vulcan's arm and became the mind for the raising of the hammer. Then with a swift the rock, became a fountain of glorious jewels.

Here were the jewels of Ophir showering forth as the Queen of the South broke open the rock, and released all the wealth of Ages. The Moabite depths, the mysteries of the Cancer Waters, with the mighty wealth from the glories of Medo-Persia now flooding life with their inner wonders waiting to come forth. For it was the Mount of Taurus that she had broken open, of the Capricornian heights. Holding all the wealth that they had

The magnitude of the heights now those transformed fires, that once set by her would become the higher LAW of the Cosmic Waters. Thus would be the unified depths and heights as Alpha and Omega. Whereby the glories that should have come forth, were now manifesting as a one pointed creation of light, but now more intensified by TIME.

Man as glorified MIND, the intent of the Fire; not bestial desires rampant and ugly as man had set into creation, but the Fatherhood as glorified manhood bringing into birth the wonders of the Stream. The magnitude of the heights in the depths, the golden City of Light.

So as Merope set the course, the whole world was turned completely round; another surging round of the Cardinal points by the modern Dhruva. Where the whole of Creation was set for new life, and would slowly demand its toll from the groaning imprisoned manhood. Gradually releasing it from its desires of the flesh, that it could take on its rightful stance as mind consciousness, ever fed by the Holy Fire.

(See plate in cols. 4 and 5)

As Merope gazed upon her work, knowing what it would entail, she sent forth that the great Hierarchical heights would endow and bless, the struggles of the reborn unification. Thus prayer so intently sent, rose up on wings of light, and touched the heavenly Source from whence such blessing is only ever sent. Then the whole of the heavens opened wide, as one mass of light blazing forth, with winged angels flying everywhere, blowing a fanfare of trumpets. Then there followed heavenly beings pouring down upon the Earth vials of heavenly fluid. Crystal clear waters sparkling with light, full of phosphorescent colours. Like the opaline dew from a new born pearl, to bathe the earth with new born light.

As it surged over the Earth, many souls awakened; but most of all Merope rose up to take her place as the Priest and

THE GARDEN OF HESPERIDES

HEREWITH are the fountains of perpetual Life as gradually the soul awakens to the divinity and use of the Fiery Dragon, its own seminal fire. Once this is raised up to feed the mind cells, so will the "Void" become filled with the action of Mind Light, the Apples of Hesperides. (See text in col. 3 and on page 11, col. 5).

Leader of the new born Race. Thus donned her gown of purple hue, the royalty of the God Ordained, with man being handed the sword of life to cut away the trammels of the mind.

Whether he believed it or not, whether he accepted it or not, mattered neither one way or another. The course was set, the way ordained, and man now reborn by the new born LAW. Like many other status of life, he was now destined for his true course of Solar rebirth. That which was the intent at the birth of Humanity, when Gods came down to the Abyss. Not just merely Evolution, but a Race of souls born to raise the issue up to the intended Fatherhood. Gods of the heights as gods in the depths, with the royalty of the Father manifesting from them.

BUT WHEREAS THE GODS IN THE HEIGHTS WERE ELEMENTS AND POWERS, THE GODS IN THE DEPTHS WERE TO BECOME ELECTRIFIED ILLUMINATED MINDS.

With the Intelligencia as the raised Arc, the Glorified SON of the Father. Thus the manifested FACE that only appeared to Abraham, Jacob and Moses as a Voice, now as the risen Sine, and the Arc of every soul. The royal Fires of their risen manhood, the glories of the Father raised up at last. They as minds of conscious reality, radiant and electrified, manifesting the mysteries of Space, as continual rebirth of perceptory awareness. Taking the fiery nebula of Proton life, and by their neutron activity, ever unfolding the glories of the heavens, the Holy Sperming Stream of the Father.

So as Merope uprooted the evil illusionary states, and gave them rebirth as glorified mind light, the whole of the world was reborn, to start life anew.

For every man was now set to raise those fires up into glorified conscious comprehension, whereby he could take on the status of an electrified god.

For ever would all now receive the purified Waters from the heights, that could blend all into an illuminated ONENESS of LIGHT.

THE CAVE OF CRONOS

blow, only possible to Merope, the hammer came down with a blinding crash. Flames shot up everywhere, and for the moment she was completely blinded. Phosphorus fumes stifled the air, while the greeny glow of the realised fire, caused everything to look grotesque. As the force struck her, she mentally flew up to the heights, whereby she unified those fires with outer space glory, that the magnetic waters in their unity with the polarity as Atomic glory, would bring forth the solution to those depths. The mighty wealth that was intended in the beginning, but now glorified by its raised up past evil sojourn of life.

As Merope burst through the fiery nebula with the fire from the rock driving her upwards, suddenly through her mind there broke into active creation, via her perceptory principle, the glorious vision of a little child standing with a halo of an illuminated mind. Man reborn with the purity of his Leo royalty, that once was his glory of Heliopolis. All the past swept away as the fires cleansed him from life's evil conceptions. Desires of all degrees now burnt up in the reborn waters from the heights, with the Flame as the glorified Generative Fires, now the Master Leader as the Great Eagle-Bull to lead man forth into new creative belief. As Merope transformed the fires by the Nebula dust, the whole of the fire surging forth from gathered together and had intensified the evils of the past. Thereby everyman was deeply infected with the watered growth of that evil root. Hence every hand was a skeleton of what had filled that rock, and now the hand to be fired and cleansed. The Gemini mind that was undermined unbeknown to itself, and ever re-created by its fertilised past, the evil of those depths. For the mind intercalary held those centaurs that had never been buried in.

(See plate page 11, cols. 3, 4 & 5)

Now Merope had found the mortuary meal and set it into operation herself as she wrestled with its impending power, and mastered its evil intent. For as a Mars in Taurus, she could have chosen the way of the palate, especially with the festive board of Christmas fare rampaging through the whole atmosphere of life.

The Awakened Souls

NO! she had captured once again, after all the machinations of life, the real crux and intended purpose of man and his wife. How man was born from the royal Elements, and was not just flesh and bone, but the glorified creation of the Father, from his holy Fires.

The wealth of multiple of Ages brought down to a mind belief, where, as a god in his own right, he rose those Fires up as an illuminated electrified mind, and brought forth as from the Fount to the mouth, the glories of the Father's speech.

EVE TEMPTED BY SATAN

SO ever has the story been, the feminine Principle becoming ensnared by the diversities of the Divine Seed of the Father, and making it feed the earth lusts as the serpent of evil, turning all that was LIFE into the dead state of Saturn, knowledge, repetition, learning, leading to stagnancy of thought, stillness of idea, cessation of creative fire. (See text on page 12, col. 4).

Readers' Letters

THERE can be no doubt that every determination and fight is being required by the majority of our readers, as the changes of their inner bodies take place, with the struggles of each individual to sacrifice those things that are pulling them from their ariel Flight. We have hundreds of letters requesting help and alas, we can only answer a small fraction of them. Try not to be too disappointed at this as we are choosing all those letters which hold special interest, but we do hope that the Solar Fires brought down by Gladys Spearman-Cook will surround and protect each sick reader.

Lastly the Editorial staff have a mighty big Bone to pick with the readers of the Gazette, especially regarding their letters. The complaint comes from those who open the mail and prepare the despatch orders. Readers letters are on the whole quite unreadable, the majority having to be deciphered rather than read. The signatures are generally impossible to read and cause an enormous waste of time and energy. In future the following are the suggested ways to help us get through the correspondence more quickly.

1. Please print in block capitals all names, addresses, making sure they are in full.
2. Whenever details of birth are given please give TIME, PLACE and DATE.
3. Whenever an order is given please set out at the beginning of the letter in block capitals.
4. Whenever money is enclosed please state clearly exactly what it is for.

We do ask all your co-operation in these small matters as though they look rather paltry, the amount of time we spend deciphering letters and seeking their meaning is quite out of all proportion.

Ever a Light in the World of Ignorance

Miss Lorna Joseph,
Trinidad, West Indies.

Thank you for your kind reply to my letter of Sept. 6th. I was glad to note that you were impressed to some degree with regard to Roman Catholicism story, yet the visions and experiences seem far more important to me, which actually served as the great incentive to my soul growth, and burning desire for spiritual wisdom. By and by I shall write about them, knowing with absolute certainty you will better understand why I so deeply appreciate the O.G. despite the fact that I do not understand all the astrological terms; specially in a strange way.

I feel deep within that a solution to my many set backs and delayed manifestation of success and happiness will be revealed, when you have erected a chart for me, and I am of the firm belief that with your spiritual treatment and kindly advice, I shall at last swing into the person I have so long dreamed of. A Light in this world of ignorance, and an instrument to be used by the Higher Powers.

I find all I desire now is to read and contemplate upon the O.G. It seems to have some magic drawing me to it, and what joy and satisfaction I derive. Allow me, Mrs. Spearman-Cook, to extend my very warm, sincere and heartfelt congratulation in the noble, exalted and magnificent task you are now engaged in. May you be fortified with all that it requires to its divine fulfillment. I do pray that soon I shall be lifted up and be able to participate in this grand work with you in England.

Mrs. L. M. Fine,
Los Angeles, Calif.

Things are coming about so fast in O.G. magazine, that I do not wish to MISS ANYTHING. Also, no one I know feels as I do about all this, therefore I go across the ocean to "mingle" with all of you, VIA THE O.G.

I too have endured much, therefore have some understanding of what MEROPE has gone through and now can be of such great service to mankind. Am most grateful to her for her great efforts.

In America I am called OAS, (OLD AGE SECURITY) as I paid for what I now receive ever since I started to work: they deduct this from weekly wages, now dole it out in such small amounts monthly, and recently started again to JUGGLE amounts around. So I tossed up my hands and thought I would simply forget about everything for a time and go along with monthly income as it came to me; however, a friend sent me cash for Christmas. Where there is a will there is always a way, isn't there?

Where ever there are those who are on retirement pensions, or are classified as under the Old Age Pension Scheme or Old Age Security Scheme of America, they are entitled to become subscribers at half the annual rate, i.e. only 3 dollars or 15/-. (Editor).

Mrs. A. Fisher,
Redfield, Bristol.

Many thanks for the May '65 and June '65 copies of "Occult Gazette." I am enclosing 3/- worth postage stamps as thank-token for all the Light you are giving us. We pray that you will ever be strengthened and encouraged in this great Work for mankind.

Looking forward to the receipt of the monthly quire of the "Occult Gazette" for Pioneering, and with best wishes to you both and all your workers and pupils this Christmastide, the New Year, and always.

Mrs. A. Friend,
Kingston-upon-Thames.

In just reading your Open Letter, and in Romans 1-27, it stands out very clearly your condemnation of this practice. I also sent a letter to Mr. Ramsey, on—All Christians would follow Mr. Wilson if force had to be used in the evolution of the black races!!!

I gave him the story of my life. My husband, whilst we were all young, in the first world war, by his interpretation of the Scriptures, refused to take life; and our poverty and suffering you, I know, can imagine. Then the second, when my two sons and daughter took their 'stand.' My daughter would not put on uniform, but helped the stunned and helpless and gave her spare time to the stricken people. My sons were literally kicked out of their business because they would not hold a gun to protect the building they worked in. But, Mrs. Spearman-Cook, they were mercifully reinstated when hostilities ceased. I should have said wonderfully, and how thankful they all are, (the eldest is 53), that they have not destroyed a body so fearfully and wonderfully made.

See the open letter on pages 8 and 9 of the January 1966 issue. (Editor).

Mrs. M. Morrison,
Cincinnati, Ohio.

You precious Angel, you have restored my peace of mind and joy with your long letter, and I thank you from the bottom of my heart. How good of you to take the time to straighten me out. Everyone here has tried to reassure me, but no one could explain it. I am glad that you are explaining it in the Gazette for the rest of the discouraged readers. I shall worry no more.

See explanation given to the front of the Healing Column in the January 1966 issue concerning those who have foolishly had operations and drugs. (Editor).

Much information has been coming to be recently, from various sources. The Gazette is our favourite and most trusted but is often difficult to grasp. The other material has been fitting in beautifully and each piece fits together to clarify the picture. How exciting it is to have life slowly unveiled for us. It is all beginning to make sense and I know now what must be done. I have two kinds of 'thought'; one originates in my heart and the other in the beast area. When an idea pops into my head, it may or may not be a good one, but when the 'thought' comes in the chest I know that it is Truth and must be obeyed: I do not hesitate to follow these. It is comforting not to have to follow my limited and fallible intellect. This inner guidance has been reassuring me while I waited for your letter, so I had almost lost the fear that I had built up in my silly head. I learn slowly, but I am learning!

May this be a joyful Season for you and all the dear ones at the School. My thoughts are with you often. God bless you and keep you safe and well through this challenging New Year ahead. Again my thanks for your comforting explanation. I shall have no more fear.

The Irony of Pope's Visit

Mr. R. Caesar,
Winton, Bournemouth.

I've been greatly interested in the articles in the last few Gazettes. I quite agree with all you say about the Catholic Church. Fancy the pope needing an armed guard on his visit to America. That savours very much of Fascism. That was supposed to be a peace mission, but I don't imagine the pope is a man of the right mentality for that task.

Before pope John, none of the popes had ever left the Vatican city. Perhaps they didn't feel it would be safe to.

It could not be more ironical for the pope to speak on peace but have to be guarded by guns to do so!!! Has he lost all his Spirit Powers that he now has to turn to automatic pistols to protect himself? And one can but ask what on earth is he afraid of? (Editor).

Mr. A. Lawrance,
London, S.W.1.

I have just read your article on Papalism and I am cosmically impressed. At last,

Bronchitis and a severe Womb Condition

Miss O. S. of Liverpool.

The other matter is a girl friend (Mrs. Z. K. of West Pakistan) who has lately had a smear test taken and has been told that she has a condition of the womb, which could turn to cancer, and if the treatment does not work, she may have to have it removed. After reading the letters this month I feel it even more urgent to do everything possible to assist her in getting effective help before this is forced upon her. She has Chronic Bronchitis (both lungs being affected) also deformed tubes, being thin where they should be wide and vice-versa... her nerves are often at breaking point being greatly weakened by a continuous strain of a very hard life (three children)... I would be glad to have her name placed in the Healing Book.

TIME and again we from the Spirit, have begged those sick NOT to consider ever having any operations, and that part which is the most vital to leave alone is undoubtedly the Womb. Here within lies the ancient matriarchate, the SEED of WOMAN, the Motherhood, the wealth of that time in evolution known as the Loves, the Hermaphrodite beings. These were they who had yet to receive of the Holy Fire, and when This did descend those that remained feminine in gender still held within their womb this Seed. To have it all cut away is to commit a disastrous act of utter folly, for the very wealth is stolen. For the remainder of this life the soul will not be able to weave the spirit Garment she so urgently needs to start her return journey, as the womb is the holder of the Hearth Fires, and once these are destroyed they may take lives to weave back into life, as well as immense labour. Commonsense surely shows this is so as the physical creation is the outcome of the Etheric the inner bodies of the soul nature, and these have taken thousands of years to weave, all those efforts will be wasted.

Mrs. Z. K. has to make such a little change and with the help of RUE and BROOM Herbs she will be able to completely cure the decaying womb condition. But the root trouble is that she is a very old and awakened soul, who is full of wisdom and knows the road she must take. It is up to her to use the Hestia Hearth fire for mind unfoldment drawing forth her Seeds from the womb and building up a constant circling of hormone life from the pituitary to the ovum, stimulating the bloodstream as it is fed with the very fuel fire that Mrs. K. is seeking to destroy. Her Bronchial ill-health signifies the root cause for the disease in the lungs which intakes of the Holy Breath is that she will not seek of the Word whereby to extract the Spirit so that she will start to change her ways and seek of the fresh Air or Mind, the Spiritual Sunlight, the Solar Light. I would advise that she takes in addition to the Rue and Broom, Horehound White, and Comfrey Leaves together with Marigold Petals. If she takes an infusion of the womb herbs last thing at night and the chest herbs in the morning, she will feel much change and upliftment. However she must study the word as well as turn very seriously into making changes of Diet, etc. as well as much alteration in faith, belief and action.

I have found the Truth in the Teachings of the Astro-physical, RA-MEN-RA.

I need to hear more of the One Voice, The Lord Maitreya of The Aquarian Age. Please send me two back copies immediately. Because for me, I know the Eternal Flame is burning. I must continue to seek fearlessly. Indeed I received an illumination today. In the hymn, the ugly tool itself of Religion, the first line reads, "Jesus shall rule where'er the sun doth his successive journeys run." Surely here there is an as yet unadmitted realisation of Solar control?

A very good point! (Editor).

But above all have the common sense not to respond to the surgeons knife, for their utter ignorance in what they are doing, and the fact that they judge all from an earth angle, shows what reliance should be placed upon such advice. For again I repeat that this lady has untold ancient seed some of it the wealth of the Depths of Eternity.

Before I close, let me offer some advice to all those who have been so blind as to take the surgeons advice and have operations. My Instrument has always stated that she would prefer to pass over rather than get in to their hands, or that of any doctor. But to those who have been so blind let them at least take and follow this advice.

Blame no one but your self. Seek to accept fully the reasons why you let it happen. Then seek into the Word and learn all you can so that in the next life you are fully primed as to the wisdom and know the Road you should follow. The more you can get the lower mind, the Martha-Cinderella, full of fire, creating zeal and zest, the more you will be able to build up the consciousness in the bloodstream, the conscious-Awareness, centring all energies and time upon gaining awakenment. Learn to honour that which one has studied and learn to obey and apply it practically as far as one is able. Then at least it can be said that you made the most of your stupidity and turned apparent failure into opportunity.

Tumour on Liver & Arterio-Sclerosis

Mrs. J. S. R. of Leeds, Yorkshire.

I shall be glad if you will place my wife's mothers name on the Healing Book. She is suffering from a tumour on the liver and has been given only a few months to live by the doctors. Four years ago she had an eye removed because of a tumour. Personally I do not consider her incurable but I think I am the only person in the family who think so.

Also would you give advice for my sister who suffers from arterio-sclerosis and has lost the sight of one eye. She again has reached the end as far as the doctors are concerned.

THE power of the Spirit coupled with the faith of he or she who is ill can perform all the healing necessary. With the use of herbs great healing can be performed as for ages the great Cosmic Powers have fed the Earth with the wealth of herbs. Every herb is led by a higher planetary power, that holds of their higher values and when extracted by the soul will help them with their confused and their Preparation

by James Averill

THE taking of herbs, their dosage, blending, and their amount and frequency, is an art which the modern age knows extremely little, for the True Spiritual Healer-Priest has to know how to be able to select each herb according to the patient's ill-health and its cause. Whether it be for the bloodstream, the lymphatics, the glandular system, the network of nerves, or the spinal column, or the many and varied usages to which herbs can be placed, the importance of selecting and blending cannot be overestimated, together with due care as to dosage and frequency of use. Thus it is better to take the advice of a Spirit trained teacher so that correct guidance can be taken, than merely follow the text-book trained soul, who speaks of past knowledge, un-unified by the wisdom of the Higher Powers.

Not only is each herb under the guidance of a Planetary Ruler, but each holds of different Temperaments, powers of the elements, with which to aid and supply the body in need, with the correcting antidote to the disharmony. The gathering and collecting, as well as the drying, cleaning and preserving, have long been a vital requisite in order to gather, at the time of each Harvesting, the spiritual Ethers which are installed into all the herbs of the field.

It is these spiritual essences which act on the etheric bodies as well as on the physical organic system for which the herb is supplied.

Thus the knowledge of herbs is not merely a listing and learning of their names and the apparent usages to which they have been placed, because in the majority of cases the true usage has long since been forgotten and would therefore be ignored in the supplying to counteract the disease. This is where the guidance and inflow of the Spiritual Powers to help direct the Perceptive power of the Healer-priest, is paramount a need in the true application of this Royal and Ancient Medicine.

natures and their distorted tissues. Help bring life where cells have gone to sleep, or secretions of glandular wealth, that have for the time in their earthly inertia failed to fulfill their task.

In this case radical sacrifices should be immediately taken especially towards all fats, salt and spices, tinned foods, and all animal foods. If this soul has the guts and will power to do so she will survive with the Healing powers and the herbs to infuse her with new life. Better still if she can start a grape fast or on the minimum of fruit, BUCHU (Barosma Betulina), DANDELION (Taraxacum Officinale), and BURDOCK (Arctium Lappa) should be taken daily, at least 2 pints should be forced down. Then should Marigold flowers, Broom (Cytisus scoparius), and Sarsaparilla (Smilax ornata) also be taken and with these pouring cleansing fluid into the liver, the fat and poison will become broken down and swept away. Perseverance is very essential.

It must be remembered that the sole cause of this is Desire for food and the luxury of rich foods especially animal fats have been directly resulted in the Tumour. Unless the animal side is conquered this will never be cured and she will pass over, chained to the beast. True recognition of the cause of what is taking place will provide the cure, for the tumour is the diseased state of her actions.

Now for your sister and her Arterio Sclerosis, ... the hard-

Further in the near future a great number of new names will be in use as plants are discovered again, which hold unusual powers of being able to inject into the blood, organ or system, a special etheric ingredient necessary to restore life and health to the offending part.

For not only are Herbs classified for use under the power of the Planetary Lords, but there are different herbs entirely to be used where the soul has made unfoldment, and is seeking to make the entry into the Etheric, leaving behind the density of earth density, than those herbs which are more directed to the cleansing of the earth body of the animal density and disease that is so injured into the cells of the flesh, and the marrow of the bones.

To take an example of this, the most excellent herb of the Dock family, namely Burdock, is very often prescribed for use to cleanse the blood, purifying it and cleansing it of the waste and disease. This is a very powerful and most excellent herb for this purpose and wisely recommended, but it is not to be prescribed to one who has long since left off animal, and cooked food and who has by study and applicaening of the walls of the arteries and the resultant difficulty in movement due to the slow calcification of the bones. Here again there really must be a change of diet as surely it must by now start to become recognised that Diet and its cleansed status play a very vital if not the most vital part in all. The Herbs BUCHU AGRIMONY (Agrimonia eupatoria) and DANDELION are the three herbs which are recommended to be taken and this coupled with a radical change in diet to non-animal food with non-annunciation of much that causes ill health. If all this takes place there will assuredly be some improvement in the condition and possibly an eventual cure.

In this case the cause naturally lies in the Etheric as all roots begin thus, the disease being the result. This lady is an advanced soul who awakened in her past life but has not continued giving rebirth to herself onto the Mind Plane, instead she has gone back by taking up the animal side once more. Man does not realise how the animal foods have a devastating effect on the body and the sole cause of the rapid changes when old age takes over. To think that a span of a few years changes a youthful body into a diseased wreck. If she turned to study as should the other lady she will help herself. THIS IS ESSENTIAL.

Plenty of Water and herbs will help to flush out the acids and the wastes to bring new life to the body tissues to enable the etheric ethers to pour their wealth into the soul.

tion of the Word, raised their sensitivity. In such a case special solar and other herbs of more sensitive action will be prescribed to accord with the person's degree of spiritual awakening. This is gleaned from the birth chart when the Healer is versed in the wisdom.

For all normal usages the normal method of infusion is the best and most correct method of preparation for all leaf, flower and seed herbs. It is not a good practice to take more than three kinds of herbs as a fluid mixture, and even one herb is often prescribed as such a prescription satisfactorily completes the action necessary.

To infuse herbs take the quantity of each prescribed,—generally about a desertspoonful of each herb would be normal,—and place each of them into the one jug, and pour on about 1 to 1½ pints of boiling water and allow to infuse just as one infuses a tea. It is best to strain as soon as it cool and it is then wisest to drink as soon as practical.

It is not wise to leave herbs too long as they soon become cloudy and then should not be drunk. In hot countries and during the summer season, particular care should be taken to see such does not happen and the best way is to drink as soon as the infusion is cool. There is no reason why herbs should not, after a good infusion, be drunk hot; indeed special 'tea' herbs are recommended to be used particularly when persons are stopping the normal tea and coffee habit. These herbs like Raspberry herb tea, Cowslip, Lime Flowers, Peppermint leaf tea, are all very popular, especially during the winter months, or in the case of Cowslip as a night drink.

Certain herbs are best placed into cold water and brought to the boil. These herbs are all the mucilaginous herbs, such as Slipery Elm Bark, Arrowroot, Marsh-mallow, Irish Moss, and Psyllium Seeds as well as all root herbs. Though root herbs can be infused with leaf and flowers, nonetheless the best result is obtained by bringing them slowly to just before the boil and not allowing them to boil. The mucilaginous herbs should be brought to the boil and allowed to simmer for about a minute.

Besides the normal infusions, tisanas or decoctions made from herb leaves, roots, flowers or seeds, there are made pills or tablets and in some cases capsules. These are strongly recommended especially where very concentrated amounts of herbs can be made in pill or tablet form which can be of excellent value to those who urgently and quickly need support. In this category the School can provide specially

The Mystery of Me!

*So small this word, this 'me' may be—
Yet mountains tall its shadow cast
When ignorance rules the 'me' of thee!
"Just who is 'me'?" the wanderer asks,
As o'er the plains the wagons roll
So loaded high with hopes and tasks.
All nature shouts the answer clear,
But brooding man so full of 'me'
And dust-filled eye can never hear.
The 'Me' of me and That in thee
Is born of Stars from Solar Kings,
The Spark that guides the bended knee!
This 'Me' is I Who makes the dawn,
Who scents the rose and greens the tree,
Who paints a flower and loves the fawn.
I AM That 'Me' that seeks Myself
And helps My sons to call for Light;
The 'Me' in thee is thine own Self!
At last revealed just Who I AM,
This 'Me' That lives in thee and me
Is that I AM, that THAT I AM!*

strong Nerve Pills which are not only good for all cases of bad nerves but also for severe tension, and many nerve disorders.

Garlic Tablets are available, particularly prescribed where there are conditions of asthma, bronchial congestion, and heavy colds and lung disorders. For those who have thyroid deficiency the very best seaweed herb called Bladderwrack, (Fucus Vesiculosus) is used to make a Kelpware unmalted tablet, which has been used very successfully. Next we have laxative natural herb pills which will aid those who wish to have a very gentle action, though we advise the use of our own special blend of Laxative herbal mixture called Saph Herbs made from a number of herbs known not only for their cleansing and purifying action, but also for their excellent and regular motion.

To many we have given chlorophyll pills which contain iron and will help those who need such to direct into their blood strong and concentrated aid to help overcome their difficulties. Though the action of pills and tablets greatly aid, the urgent necessity of drinking plenty of fluid especially fresh water must not be lost sight of. Herbs with plenty of fluid are the best method of taking herbal medicine as it is the inflow of the fluid that sets up a strong conscious movement to flush the poisons out of the body. So the taking of pills without the necessary support of fluid is not recommended as the wisest course,

In addition to the list of herbs which are appended at the end of this article we have a number of oils and fluid extracts. Amber and Camphor oil, Rosemary oil, Olive oil, Friars Balsam, Witch Hazel are a few of the more well known that we use and which are obtainable from us. All the herbs listed below in their English names are available from us either in ¼, ½ or lb. quantities. If readers require herbs not in the list they are requested to write in and every effort will be made to obtain a suitable quantity.

Lastly let it be well remembered that no herb we will prescribe can be the slightest bit harmful to anyone. Young children of all ages use herbs, and can only thrive on them. None of them can possibly be habit forming nor cause difficulty in that direction. Yet each person once he starts this road is wise if he continues to take herbs, regularly ringing the changes and taking different ones to help him as he makes progress in unfoldment.

THE HOLY FIRE

as the Phosphorus Waters of Rebirth

This lecture was delivered at the S.U.D.H. on 2nd January, 1966, through Gladys J. Spearman-Cook especially directed by the Lord Maitreya, the Lord of Central Sun, the unified Spiritual Wealth of the Cosmic Hierarchies.

OH HOLY OF HOLIES, WHAT LIETH BEHIND THAT VEIL that I am forbidden to see, yet radiateth all that thou art into my very being. For you spur me on to seek worlds unknown, when I knoweth the penalty for enquiry. Yet know that someone must make the endeavour, and risk the pain of intrusion. (See plate below).

"Lift my Veil and thou must 'die,' to become born of my world of LIGHT."

Yet man goes on seeking more and more as felons in the night, to finally arrive as the Vestal man and maid who have been purified by its attempted invasion. A soul born from suffering; what a quaint world it is? Yet his mastery over death, which man chose to the world of life, now brings him to the plane of immortality. Thus with such a dynamic mystery under his hands to bring forth by his struggles, will the soul get the EL Powers electrified, that the sensitivity of the mind, will flow in abundance.

This is the real crux of the mystery that began long ago, when man was not born, but an embryo in the womb seeking to be born of WOMAN. She in trying to bring him forth, called down the Fires of God, which merely became the phosphorus residue in the solidified bones of the soul. A (See plate page 12, cols. 1, 2 & 3) story old, but a story refuted; hence man loses the key to his opening the door to the major answer to his problems. For he is ever being fed with those fiery molecules from those ancient bones, the mystery of man and continuity. Yet seen most clearly if the Words of Joseph in Gen. 50 v. 25 are fully understood.

"God will surely visit you, and ye shall carry up my bones from hence."

The wealth of the spirit in the bones as the phosphorescent glow, to become the wealth of the gods, as the illuminated Palace of Ra. This in its anatomical investigation, is now the haemoglobin of the blood, but really the manhood life of the Holy Fires brought down at the beginning of Time. Yet still brought down as the fiery Pitch-Blende substance of the planet of Vulcan. But so minute through man's non-acceptance of its holy heritage over the Ages; that its royal wealth as phosphorus possibility has been lost in the man's indulgence. This is the mystery of the Mistress of the Copper Mountain; Woman drenched with the Holy Fire which has only turned to crystalline rock, lost in the bowels of the earth.

Thus man through the loss of this Fire, finds himself completely out of control, with the medical world suggesting the powdered stomach of the hog, to fire the soul out of its inertia reaction. Thus can only result in the firing of the beast, thus rearing up all those states in their depths, resurrecting a wild Meleager.

The Dogs Barking

SURELY this is not the answer to man's promise of immortality, the reason of living and struggling. Thus the apothecary and the priest are now the further means of stoning man to death. Thus the first introduction into seeking into this problem is from the pathological and psychological complications that are assailing man today. That born from the error of yesterday; that which should have been the glories of the mind, are now only a state of mind inertia through the desires that are running wild.

That which should have risen up to the heavens in aspiration, only became the desires of the beast. The soul filling the blood with earthy substance that would kill any fiery atomic combustion available. Thus ever spilling their sperming possibilities in fiery delights;

when by raising up the fires to the heights and studying the Word, thereby gaining some comprehension of the Occult Laws, the soul would awaken to the truth, and realise they were gods in the offing.

Thus the exercising of the mind, by getting their dogs barking, is the first step to bringing down into the blood, the Solar life they are requiring. Then they will begin to revolutionise their fiery wealth that has become the residue of their skeletal anatomy. Thus set the fiery black horses racing around the arena, instead of the centaurs and lapithae running wild in the labyrinth deep.

For the raised Word would then give them their mortuary meal, raising the soul up by the intercalary union. Thereby bringing the electrical interblending from the fiery revolutions spinning up to the heights.

But this is where the depth of truth is now revealed unto the soul; their ancient wealth becoming disclosed as the roots of their present problems. Thus (See plate page 11, cols. 3, 4 & 5) them finding the natural solution to those difficulties, and not filling the soul with animal life. Thus in this acute problem of the Age, that must be met to resolve and raise up the mind from the outcome of those ancient roots, the first course is a natural diet to supply the bloodstream with the chlorophyll it is requiring.

Thus give the fire free access to revolve around the blood link of radiational activity. The chlorophyll supplying the balanced elements absorbed by the plant, that had no mind activity to distort or confuse the elements in their absorption. Therefore giving unto the soul food of an element nature and not that of the beast: thereby feeding the etheric creation and not the luna states of the soul. Then by partaking of the natural herb to balance the bodies, the wealth of the soul can be brought to its rightful and glorious activity. Yet it is often found that the basic of this difficulty lies in the multiplicity inflicted upon the soul by the flare for intellectuality. Thus leaving itself open in the Age of the Waterman, to the rigors of a fiery hell.

Mystery of the Bones

SO with this basic now prepared, let us turn to the mystery of the bones, which hold the secret of the Fire that was lost at the beginning of Time. For by the soul setting their mind into action, they can start the metabolism of the organic union of the liver, becoming active once again upon this subject. For in this organ is the union of earth and spirit blood; and osmotic*1 action only known unto the mystic. But soon perceived by the soul, when all turns into a deteriorated state through its earthy joys of life. Yet a belief that becomes more firmly accepted, when the soul becomes acquainted with the true workings of the spirit. Although ever remaining attached to the terrestrial desires, the earthy growth of the soul.

The haemoglobin is the spirit, the mystical creation of the blood, and must be treated as such. Thus feeding it on the natural oxygen obtained from the natural food and the ruach filled with solar life. This is not just sitting in the rays of the Sun, but drawing down through wisdom the vibrations of Solar interblending. Thereby lifting up the frequency of the soul by mind ascension. Thus giving to the soul its etheric strength of possible manhood: its strength of mind belief.

(See page 12, cols. 4 and 5)

For mind is vibration, and that is man, not the flesh substance, which is that of the beast.

Thus as the vibrations rise, the soul begins to find their real Being, and gain strength in the presence of the Spirit. The haemoglobin as the spirit taking control, and not the bacteria of the blood as inborn incestuous states. The desires of the mind as the agglutinins of accumulated cause, causing the bacteria to put up a wall of defence. The rebellious state that set up within the soul, when states of change are suggested.

There lies our subject fully before us; thus we must now seek of the natural growth, the unfoldment of the spirit, by partaking of the Word that will fire the blood with mind life. This is not merely cramming the mind with knowledge in abundance, but taking of wisdom and making it become an activity of mind growth. Fathoming into the depths of its birth and what it can bring forth by polarity,

*1 Osmosis is the process of inter-penetration and inter-action between bloodstream and the lymph, the constant movement of cellular life bringing change and unfoldment. Special Articles on Osmosis appeared in the Occult Gazette in February, March and April 1961 all of which are still available to the reader priced 2/6.

REVERENCING OF THE HOLY FIRE

THE full complement of 12 are dancing in attendance upon the Holy Fire, the manhood, keeping alive the Seed of God, so that the flame of Perception ever mounts higher and higher as the soul truly honours and reverences the Holy Trinity serving it with the Holy Oil, Bread and Wine, all the wealth of the soul. Once the modern soul as the feminine principle can recognise the necessity of serving the FIRE with all his/her heart and soul, honouring the GOD-ESSENCE within, then will the world turn towards the Spirit and rise up with the Earth unto the Central SUN, ever led to the Lord of the Flame. (See text above).
