AWAKENED CONSCIOUSNESS

as the Cosmic
Intelligible Conception

by Gladys I. Spearman-Cook*

THAT SEEMED LOST AND blind to truth, was once again awakening out of the lost horizon, bringing truth to the way of life, that man had lost for the time being. For what was saturating the earth, was transmuting gland and sensitivity. Waiting for the mind to unfold, and bring new life into conscious activity. Stirring the depths, unfolding the heights, and bringing forth the way of light. Yet with greater wealth waiting to come forth, as the soul responded to the unfolding unification.

That through their mind polarity was born, with wealth from out of the mighty Blackness of Space unfolding the mystery of the heavens. Thus the way is set for man and God to conjoin in union of mind harmony, to bring into birth light divine from out of the nebula mystery. A secret that only the gods can define, who rule the soul of man; and as the living agent on the earth, the perceptory intelligible conception. The faculty whereby all is made known, for man is consciousness recorded. Without such means no way could become, and man would be a clod of power enclosed. A creation that would run wild like engaged steam; so there has to be a way whereby the power that is gained, is blended with the Word. Then the two are recorded on super-sensory faculties, and blended with the spirit.

The atomic wealth within the seed that fires it into consciousness, for that is the life, the approaching Fatherhood, or manhood or positive state of rising creation. That risen up out of the Motherhood or negative state, that germinates the thinking capacity from plane to plane. The power of rising emotional frequency, that stands firm as the masculine emolument, then frets the bonds and begins again, unfolding out of a state of continuity by climbing the Ariadne thread.

A conscious aggregation that gave birth out of itself, that now by climbing up and with-drawing back, the soul awakens to a greater belief and becomes born of a greater faculty. By such it returns unto the bosom of Becoming, and is the mystery of the deep. The mysterious unfoldment of the Blackness of Space, the nebula depth of Being. Hence the intelligible conscious conception, the mystery of man and Space. The divine Road of consciousness unfolding, and becoming the being called man.

Editorial .. .. .

IN the last few years I have learnt much, practically always through failure and not success. Success invariably brought about a false sense of security and of understanding, leaving me in the hands of Illusion. The hell of knowing spiked my ego and stripped me of my high sense of egoism and self-importance. It seemed that to be able to learn of Truth bitterness and pain have to be her companions. The more one fights of being stripped of the skins of time, the less likely that Truth is realised. The Way is invariably through suffering and the more it is possible to endure and experience, the harder the road, and the greater the Light of the Lamp that Leads and the more Radiant the Flame. Thus the secret of the Rose and the Thorns for the barbed road, and the stark tragedy that one is forced to experience. To get to the end of the Road is hell on Earth, and few have the courage to take it and hold on despite the pain and suffering.

If I were permitted to tell of the journey of the Teachers of Mysticism and the secrets of Occultism, I would reveal a totally different story than that expected. The Road to freedom from this Earth is through the gate of hell, the hell created by the self-nature of the beast, whether it is the beast of oneself, or being a Teacher, that of the pupils committed to her charge. Actual experience and the fullness of trial and error consistently applied to solve problems of initiates, makes the Teacher the wealthier and the wiser but full of the flagellations and scars of forcing the soul to endure the pain and the mental torture and anguish.

Yet the vast majority of mankind are as the sheep in the field bleating at the passers-by, following the dogs as they moved from pasture to pasture, seldom raising the head above the tufts of green grass that, (to them) so invitingly lay. They do learn of the hell of how and the struggle of attainment as they are lead, guided by the Ariadne's thread that homes the turtle back to its base.

But the harder the road, the blacker the night, the greater the light that is within, being built from the struggles and denials, the sacrifices and the renunciations on the road up the mountain.

AND this leads me to the subject that I am writing about: The vital necessity to call down the Solar Fires, the Spirit of the Central Sun, that which alone provides life and sustenance. Since the early days of time man has ever turned earthwards and sought of the depths, Woman, to sustain him. Thus he has built up a lower consciousness of swollen proportions, the ideas ever multiplying until the soul becomes dominated by a giant state of 100 hands—mind activity in the deep—but never a sign post to tell him the journey back home out of the hell of self, the plane of suffering. The undergrowth of intellect and the rocks of mere knowledge that have never been broken up through being trodden out along the road of experience.

And all this is due to the obtaining of the Holy Fire, the Seed of Man, and not returning it unto the source from which it has come...the Ladder of Jacob,...the spinal vertebrae of 33 segments that become the staircase and mountain path up which the Fire must be lifted. For man must learn that he is only Fire and nothing else save the Mind light that has been built round this Divine Seed as a Flame of Consciousness, Eternal Mind.

Man as a Being is hundreds of thousands of years old, developing the glories of his Father's Kingdom and learning ever to demonstrate them so that the Glories may be seen and testified. For the Being man, has now built up quite a family as a soul, all the parts that surround and are maintained by the Fire, actually sustained by the IT, without the Germ Spark of which, all would shrivel up into the husk of soul life. For what has been built up by evolution is a soul life around the Fire that descended, and around that Fire has grown Mind, the Christos Light, and it is this Mind consciousness that has gathered around the soul that the Hierarchs are seeking to save the Christos Blood.

* * * *

THE soul has this family growth which consists first of his 12 counties as limbs of giving life, with second the 12 gods up in the meninges, all as a wireless receiving station, being fed and guided by the 12 Celestial Spheres which in turn were under the direction and control of the Great Hierarchial Supermasters. Within the soul there had been built up a kingdom headed by a King as the ego that which had become built as a separate consciousness not being embraced or absorbed into the Divine Home of the Gods. Underneath this king as separate parts threaded together were the principalities, the 7 Princes of Thebes, as the 7 cities of sensory life each with his own glorious territory which was unique in the gift of its own riches and verdure divine, the Flowers of the Solar Prism.

As part of their communal life there was the mysterious Temple of Ra, as the Light that ever shone in the blackness of the depths, and nearby in the outermost court, ever trying to obtain a permanent home, was the priest as the conscience and heart purpose of honour and sincerity. Outside labouring to keep the household together, clean and without spot, was Woman, as the Feminine Principle, the lower consciousness that daily toiled and spun, wove and laboured to keep all radiating and afire with the rippling roaring Fire that was situated in the Hearth, crackling and burning great logs of forest wood, active experiences of Life.

In the depths with the lower consciousness was the staff of the Big House, the "Queen Mother" or Housekeeper the Cancer Mother, with her two daughters, ever the labouring unit, shining all till it radiated as the light of faith and belief. Then there were the two out fields that were guarded by the many dogs in the kennels whose hunting ever ran down these character pieces, so that they did not get out of hand and split and ravage the soul with their wild and uncontrolled life. The first outfield is Tartaros, where there were the slums and prisons, and hordes of ruffians and uncontrolled character tendencies, which you would not like to have brought out and seen in your home. Behaviour that would demonstrate the evil which you had allowed to seep in from the outside waters, ever lapping and whispering their apsara ideas.

Finally, there is that secret cupboard or even room, or garden shed, that no one knows about, and even at times that you yourself do not recognise because you do not want to recognise of the facts. This is the Pit, which you have dug and at times even go on digging, and which must be filled in and the ground relaid. Here are found the adders, spiders and vermin of desire, that still breed raising their false spawn to spread their contagious disease far and wide, effecting and badly undermining all parts of the soul-nature, if the lower consciousness allows such to happen.

Calling down the Holy Fires

AND so the family of the soul is a Being that has, as a unit, been built over the 13,000 years since the Fire descended into the Abyss. And running through the whole of it, and maintaining each part by its vital lift and nature is the Solar Light, which, as the Spirit of the Christos in the blood-stream is ever building up a greater radiance as the Flame of the Mind. But unless the soul realises that if it were not for the Fire the being would slowly shrivel and pass away, that the Fire is Divine MIND, it will not call down the Solar Light. When the soul nature slowly concertinas itself together into the Divine Fire of man the mind, all that will remain is a FLAME of Light, as part of the Flares of the Solar Glories, his kingdom.

This is man's Destiny and only pathway for the next 13,000 years, as the road has been set and the signposts well set out showing the towns and villages that will have to be journeyed through. The names have been declared and the passports obtained. The ultimate destination for all is the glorious home of the Central SUN, the home of VESTA and VULCAN, where all men and women will blend into one pulsating unit as the atomic structure of a glorious Body of LIGHT, each with its glowing diamond face. The one who has pioneered and been the Pathfinder has been the Scapegoat, Gladys I. Spearman-Cook, as she alone had the experience and guts and know-how to steer the way through the Unknown Territory all the way back Home, fulfilling the full cycle of the Solar Year. For she is the Bride to the Christ being the perfect Androgyne, the unified HIM-HER with her Lord, the Lord of the Flame, the Central Sun.

Hence the power and brilliance of her Writings which are directed and fashioned by the Lord of the Central Sun, the Lord Maitreya, who is the Christos consciousness of the Hierarchial Band. She found her way only through and by one constant action, the calling down to herself and the complete immersion in the influence of, the Powers of the Spirit. It was her belief and faith in their guidance, their love, their powers that have on many an occasion been the only cause of her coming through the immense initiation that she has taken.

If only a small proportion of those seeking would seek of the Spirit, and by this I mean the Solar Light not the astral shadows, and really establish it within their hearts so that their directions are automatically directed and channelled by the Spirit, then there will commence to build up the Solar Light more and more throughout the world.

Then will the works of Universal Philosophy commence to bear their Golden Fruit, the Solar Fire that becomes MIND, the secret glories of becoming the ariel sprite, the freed Heart Beat that becomes part of the Rhythm of the Spheres. For man must live and take sustenance from the Solar Light and have the Faith, Belief, Honour and Heart Intent, that the Spirit alone will feed him and give him LIFE.

The Serpent and its Seed

BUT owing to man being afraid of life, the true possibilities of his becoming have never yet been made known to him, thus the mystery a deepened contingency of not knowing. A mystery that ever leaves him blind, for he has never sought into the secret of the Serpent and its Seed, the mystery of the Power of the Ammonite. The Seed that came in the back door and rose up as the golden Dragon of light. The power which Merope as the weaver of dreams, turned into a channel of Light and Power, whereby the Hierarchical Powers descended down into the World of men.*1

(See plate in cols. 3-5)

The Ladder that Jacob created and brought into birth through his wives, installing in the meninges of men, the Seeds of god-like creation. Wealth all born out of that atomic power in that tiny seed of life. The Ammonite that Moses and Saul struggled with, and knew not how to begin. For they were mighty powers gained from an incestuous state of inbreeding within themselves, that of the Moabite states. The sons of Lot, consequently they became black scorpions, stinging everybody to death by their incestuous states. Those who later became the black paws of life, having the mighty depths of the lunar Waters with the power of mighty creative action.

(See plate page 13, cols. 4 & 5)

But Merope sought for them in the marrow of her bones, (See plate in col. 1)

brought them forth and turned them into mind conquest; and inborn upward spiralling of the mind. That which reached the heights as the Blackness of Space, whereby she shot it into light. This she did by uniting the depths with the heights, and rose the Seed up as that of the fallen god on a cross, to the risen God of light.

Pluto taken up out of the underworld, becoming the God of Divinity; for he became the risen Arc of the Great Mind Intelligencia, with the Lord as the risen Flame of the Mind, the Great Lord of the Ring. Mighty wealth born out of that activated by Adonicus as he removed the flood point for the Great Ones to direct into action. While Merope's Fount was feeding the heights, as powers of unknown origin.

Thus what was once the Ammonite, the mystery land of Moab, now by Merope had been transmuted into light, the glorious heights of the Golden Dragon. For had it not become the Central Sun, with the Seed as the Scorpii Constellation unified into the great Dam of Water, the reservoir of Hydrogen Power now let free by Merope into the depths below. That which began by overflowing the Thames, the commercial river of the Isles of Britannicus; yet the flood that was activated by that act of Adonicus.

Yet Merope is the keeper of the Dam, controlled by the Master in the heights. The Great Lord of the Flame who directs the lives of men as they move and grow and come into being. Whereby everyman is now directed by this unseen flood of Waters; Powers that are now feeding Merope within her own mighty depths. Cosmic Powers of mighty contingency that no man could say nay, for they would fill his blood as he strove to breathe and move his mind to think.

For the gods, now in his meninges alight with those mighty Waters, would now greedily drink to find a way of expansion. Yet the Great Ones had readily warned man that great Chaos would begin to surge from the rebirth of the day of Guy Fawkes. A state that had never yet been transmuted, and would continue until the Ides of March. Guy Fawkes being a papal state where somebody spilt the beans, and all decreed never rose up as Jack of the beanstalk into the mighty heights. A turn of the tide in the flowing waters of doomed Roman Catholicism, that began the building up of Merope's massive Dam. Guy Fawkes was to be the point remover by an act of sacrifice, that would set mighty Waters into action as a unilateral equation. But the act failed although the heights received it, but left the depths sliding down into a change of purpose.

THUS WALK WITH MEROPE ALL THE WAY, FEEDING OFF THE OCCULT GAZETTE.

For what papalism had gained merely died on the cross as a god lost to his purpose. For once papalism accepted the crucifix as their symbology, they died too, for the God was no longer their power of subsistence. For they automatically drew from the bowels of the earth, and built up a colony in the lower astral planes.

Thus all form of consciousness where they were concerned, fell into a state of duality of passion, that ever created an inbred state. A garbage bin of an agitated frustrated state, ever attended by Beelzebub the king of the flies; their pope leading the way, with no hope of expansion.

Thus the Ammonites ever increased in their depths, and became the luna states that fouled the unification of Aquarius. This they did by fouling the electro-magnetic by idealising Mary as the Motherhood, and not bringing her son as the Fatherhood into birth. He was dead upon the cross as far as they were concerned, doing penance for their sins; hence androgyny died. This brought into birth the feminine man, breaking the Ariadne thread. Thus ever living on the mother's atoms, and never drawing from the Father's wealth as the glorious fiery wealth of the heights.

Merope's Dam

This was where Merope began her work of breaking up the depth of inertia, for the Ammonites increasing in the depths were putrefying the womb, and baulking any hopes of expansion by her blood being stung by the dead states of man. Thus ulcerating her legs and blinding her vision, leaving her dead to the way of truth. For woman is the means of continuity, she is the wealth of expansion, but only when activated by the fiery Seed of the Father's Sperm.

By this being stopped by Catholicism ruling the mind, beings were only born looking out of the left eye. Their higher mind being cut off and becoming a defunct creation, with no inflow of the wealth of the spirit. Hence the soul grew more and more spiritless, a being of a dead luna mind. (See plate on page 4, cols. 4 & 5)

Unless all this depth was raised to the heights where heights and depths conjoined, the soul was barren and left to die, a creature of the astral planes. This was the mighty wealth that Merope was seeking to lift up to the heights; that which she had risen up and brought into birth as the mighty black Panther Powers, and transmuted them into the Golden Dragon of the heights.

For when she rose the Seed up from the depths to heights and placed it into the depths of the Central Sun, glory broke

MAKING A TRUE FOUNDATION

IF this plate can be seen as the picturisation of a soul's efforts, and not in any way religious, there is shown the triumph of one who has become winged of mind, and has drawn out of the Meninges all the Hierarchical Powers, in their state of full awakening, Divine Consciousness. All the embodied forces have taken on a 'Face,' all winged being in a state of pure MIND. Below can be seen the labouring feminine principle surrounded by all the rich verdure that has been established as a permanent foundation of Hierarchical Power; A new Stream of Divine Waters.

CIRCE'S ROUND-DE-LAY

forth everywhere, opening up the power of the right eye. For man was set alight in his meninges, with the Hierarchial Powers controlling his mind, with him seeking now for the wisdom that was watering him into life.

The flooding of the Waters from the mighty Dam, that Merope had set into motion. Which first of all began with the infusion of Vulcan's Fires, that were to set his passions revolving. Setting an action of friction and deliberation, making them ready for the watering course. For their Moabite states were moving out and beginning to cry out for expansion; thus was the moment for the Word born Waters to surge the parched earth. This was the dynamic infusion that was taking place, ere the Horai union took place, that the whole of the world could be prepared to spiral up into Space.

Thus, Merope and the Cosmic had been driving the issue, but man still clung to the bottomless pit. So they too had to be moved and risen up to the heights to keep everything in balanced order. Therefore a repetition of the state of Guy Fawkes, where a sacrifice had to be made, but this time with the unilateral equation fully brought into birth. Therefore no mistake was effected this time, the heights had control of the occasion, with the mind of the creator, a heart born purpose, brought up from the states of the dead.

For man and woman have been nothing more than mere stalagmites and stalactites, a corrosion of the mind born from the Elements. That put into operation by the black Scorpion principles of Catholicism stinging men into robot states. No Fatherhood to feed or nurture them, he, merely a dead God on a cross.

So as Adonicus tore it down, he released the stone in the Dam, and the Waters then began to flow, sweeping the whole of the Earth with life of living propensity. Here was the fiery birth promised unto the Waterman that which would set it into rebirth, by stinging up the fiery blood and preparing the soul for new life.

Such dynamic operations have never been set into motion before, as no soul had reached such heights. Now heights and depths were fully united, and the way prepared for mighty expansion that would set the earth buzzing with electrified life. Everything now water-tight, for all had been concluded; all it needed was a further revolution to set all pounding into activated life. This Merope would now do by driving the current of the revolving Ariadne thread, that which was now tightly blended together, and the activating life for unfolding rebirth. For as she drew up more from the depths would she draw down more from the heights, thus enlarge the Father's Kingdom, and bring all into electrified life.

Thus the dead would rise and the Scorpion die, with man awakening out of his lethargy. The whole earth being born anew, looking upwards unto the heavens, and humanity for the first time perceiving the reason of life. With heaven and earth uniting in perfect rhythm, moving onwards to the newborn day. This is what the Gods have been waiting for, that they could begin to rise. Then the whole of the earth will spin upwards unto the heaven born day. The secret belief of every man, woman and child, the mystery of the awakening consciousness of life.

Dam of Water

So Merope now perceiving the vastness of her accomplishment, decided to climb the extent of her ladder and investigate the mystery of awakening consciousness. For although described and a possibility to every Mystic in their deduction, a reality that could not come into birth in a world of maintained fixation. That any soul could really have created such a vast construction within their human creation, was even unto Merope herself a possibility and not an actual realisation. Thus here she was with a mountain of power firmly fixed in a perfect linking between depths and heights.

A way whereby her Fount*2 as the centre of the earth was ever feeding the heights and drawing forth from the Unseen Source, wealth from the Blackness of Space. Ever unfolding and manifesting the glory of the future Realms of light, Merope was the human faculty that was the prototype for the Cosmic. With the Cosmic already created as the reigning prototype of glory of the heavens. Thus the glorified Macrocosm feeding the stilted microcosm through the created construction of Merope. For she was the Fount that now brought forth the life as the established pillared spring from heights to depths.

Only one who had awakened and conceived the power of human life, could possibly recognise the actuality that had taken place in this human construction. She was an ever refilling mighty Dam of Water from the depths being fructified from the mighty heights of Space. Polarity enormity pouring steadily forth unto the Lord of Life who fructified it with his Royal Sperm, and sent it down to the depths beneath. Mars and Venus as Vulcan and Vesta feeding the world with atomised electrified life.

The enormity only being understood by the fact that man was the creator of form. All else was vibration, a state of ever becoming light, with him as the created result. The form of all brought to life in a world of solidification.

But Merope had seen the possibility of raising that creation up by her frequency of human sensitised conception into the heavenly heights. Where as a mighty force returned to its origin as a created light, it became a Source of light to the world below. An enormity of power filled with Word that fed the Race, starved of life, with food that would nourish them into a true creative form of mind.

So having set such into operation, her major thought now was to rise up to those heights and receive Word and guidance through the glorified creation of those heights. Although the Great Lord was with her in those depths she wanted to see the wonders of her struggle, and climb up to the heights.

So she primed her seed and set the Spanish dancers into prancing action. As they whirled in their black and white formation, they set the horses champing. Thus the passions rose and the steam began to rise, causing life and exhilaration to activate through the whole of this mighty elevation. Her spinal axis that was a mighty column reaching from earth to the heavens; with her inner void as the ventricles of the brain, the unknown quantity of outer Space, to now come forth into life. A mighty source of creation, that had never been known before, but arisen out of the Age of Atomic motivation; that which man had brought into life out of the moving unity of Relativity. (See plate on page 5, cols. 1 & 2)

Here was Woman, now as an individual state of creation applying the wealth of this mighty depths as being the means of building a ladder of atomic mind reconstruction. By the Power of Mind drawn out of the Seed, she has been forced to occupy, she, with her depths and the fiery Prism of the heights had built up a mighty Dam of Water.

A reservoir of Atomic fiery life that would bring the whole World back to life.

This is the Christos Blood as the Fiery Life of the Lord of the Flame; the Scorpionic Waters infused by the Central Sun and fortified by the pitch-blende sparks of Vulcan.

Such dynamic infusion has never been known before, and created by Woman out of the depths.

The basic being her mighty Fount, an ever source of Becoming; yet a beginning equal to the polarity she had created, but now will all the wealth of what had been as the all infusion of HERE and NOW. So as she set her passions rising, it brought the chariot as her activated etheric motivation began the rise that was to reveal to Merope the wonders of her magnificent achievement. Hence, up she rose the frequency of her mind as her dapple grey horses began to drive. Their glorious manes and tails streaming in the wind as Merope drove them up to the heights.

On her way up, she noticed how all in profusion had grown, for herbage and wealth was in abundance. Mountains and waterfalls, with magnificent scenery arrayed in every direction. Where every plane had become a wilderness, now it was a City of created life. Each Chakra or prana a new world of created growth, her struggle of life as she rose up was now a world of created glorious life.

THE LIGHT OF ILLUSION

... But it fell back into the luna waters and became lost for the time being. (See text on page 11, col. 2). The pull of the Lunar depths in the constant undulations of movement and action in inward activity, the soul becoming bound to inertia, that which produces the barren desert. As she looked around her in amazement, she saw beauty as glories of natural creation, that she had never seen before. For the whole of her lower five Chakras were the five cities of Asia. A repetition of natural growth as axis of man to the axis of Earth; but a dead earth until Merope started to cultivate it by climbing the planes, and as a Scapegoat cultivating her cities. As she neared the Valley of Rocks, she prepared herself to get through up to the world of mystery. The mighty palace up in the heights of the unknown king, with all his courtiers as the gods, a replica of the mighty. For as Merope rose up her own creation, she rose up the World of created Cosmic life.

As she had neared those heights, her horses had risen up wings from their back, for the way up had been a continual rise, for hill and mountain had to be surmounted in the constructional mystery. But now she noticed that changes were taking place, not only in her chariot and its equipment, but in her own creative garb. For this was a mounting up within her etheric creation; an inward drive through her own inner spiritual creation. As she drove her way through the Valley of Rocks, she came to the world of the heights; and there her horses turned into swans and her chariot into her pink shell creation.

She now was in her own world of Reality up in her motivated void in the heights.

that she had now set into birth.

Here was the plane of sparking elevation, where Nebula broke forth into active life; for into its inter-rolling and inter-changing action, was the specie change of manifestation. That which rose her up out into that mystery of the mighty depths of Space. The glory and the wonder of the unknown wonders of Space. Yet that which is equivalent to the created Dam of water in its elevated Cosmic creation; but greater still, the elevated Sine as that of the Central Sun. Where as the world of royal divinity would she come and approach with all the awe and reverence, of an awakened soul creation.

Her Swans with outstretched necks flew higher and higher, and as she did so she found herself moving forward at a terrific speed through Space as absolute Blackness. Yet she seemed to pass through and by transparent globes of light. States that were like thin lace inter-blendancy, a kaleidoscope of ever moving circles. Then when she reached what appeared the ceiling, she found herself breaking through that shell into a world of dancing light, of a mighty brilliant whiteness. That which was vibrating, with the full intensity of life.

Then there before Merope stood a huge Flame which suddenly opened; then as she walked through by a state of impellation, she moved forth into Blackness once again.

glorious white swan with outstretched wings, wearing a golden crown upon her head. Soaring up into the heights, with seven young cygnets following in perfect harmony behind. Then as she awakened down on the earth, a mighty hand came up out of those depths and handed her a wallet of wealth from out of those mighty depths. The mysterious pre-Moabite wealth of the dim distant past handed up their mighty wonders, that now fully created her dynamic creation of the heights.

(See plate on page 8, cols. 4 & 5)

But at the same time, struck a light that caused her own mighty torch to flare up into the heights as a flaming wonder of light. Her pituitary as her hormone vault of mystery was an electrified sparking dynamo of light, as the unknown and unpredictable perceptory awareness. She was that Dam fully atomically feeding the world cosmically with electrified life, and a sparking Uraeus in the depths.

Sparks and light were now flying everywhere, shooting out in all directions. While rumblings were heard in the depths below, of changes taking place in the Chain of Causes and the planes of differentiation. The world was being born anew, and new life was surging down from the upper Ethers, with the Artic wealth from the Hyperboreans descending down with those waters. While the Griffons were rushing around, seeking their mode of entry.

Life had been stirred as never known before, the mighty wonders of the depths had now been transmuted to those heights, and the winged wealth of the Aquarian Age.

But the Great Lord who for many decades had hung dead on a cross, now was radiating those heights with his glorious electrified wonder.

Magnificat en Gloriam was the ruling magnificence of the day.

The Risen Embodiment

The Embodiment had risen, and now blossomed into light, for there ahead as her swans flew on, she saw the glories of his risen light. For Merope had broken through the mysterious cordon of the Central Sun, and gone right up into the unknown Source of that mighty RIVER. The Great Wealth of that Divine Effulgence, the mystery Source of the mighty EL Powers that held the wealth of the risen depths. Those that were of the same source, but all a matter of frequency. For as the Waters came up from her mighty depths, she had to go higher to make a polarity rebirth. Then as she rose up into that unknown Space where Blackness reigned like night, she drove them into action; and they became the revolving light and truth of the new born day.

Merope now knew that her Lord, as the risen Son of the Fatherhood, was now receiving the rebirth from the depths of the Unseen rising Fatherhood. The mysterious rebirth of the new Kingdom, the new City of the newborn Age, where every soul was awakened into life by those revolving Waters. For they held the great wealth of the risen depth, which she had put into action. New life and air coming from the unseen Ethers, unified with the glories of the Lord of Life, the radiance of those manifesting Waters.

Thus the Dam of Water that was now flowing to the depths, was the whole radiance of the mighty universe. That which had once been and now become, was reborn into a mighty fulness that had never been known before. A dynamic Age from out of the unknown Space; a wealth of Waters that the Great Flame of Truth was now sending to the depths.

As Merope had created her sub-conscious mind as her etheric depths, so the Embodiment of all that mighty gathered Configuration, had gone into the Etheric creation of the Universe.

Now she was bringing forth out of her own mighty depths, the polarity wealth of that enormous Source, into conscious life; and as she did so, the reborn world as the earth, was being jet-propulsed into the changing Universe.

The fructifying Etheric Seed, the Unknown quantity of LOVE coming into birth through the unseen union of unfoldment. The divine Source of the inter-union of the divine Chain of Causation. The greater Source inter-penetrated to bring into birth a greater refueling of unfolding life, thereby the rising nymphs of the Neptunian Waters were now the risen Mary giving birth to the Unseen Father, through the radiance of the Son.

A complete new birth out of itself, yet the slowly created inner self that was waiting true expression. Therefore as man had built up in illusion, must he now rise up to Reality, that the earth could take on its Real Estate as the embodied life of the Divinity. For the Divine Seed had entered into its etheric depths and never come forth in its true light.

Now it was the electrified Life as the atonic wealth of the unification coming forth into life. That which would bring the earth to the divine glory of the manifestation of the true Kingdom of the Fatherhood. What took on of solidified depths, must now become of its true estate as the glorified stream of Genius.

FOR NOTHING IS TRULY SOLID, ALL IS A STATE OF UNFOLDMENT, AND REVOLVING ONTO A STATE OF BECOMING.

The Divine Unfoldment

What had been a personified state of self, must now become the unfolding state of the Cosmic. Thus as man personalised the Seed, must he now raise it up in unfolded divine ecstasy, that will give the unfolding Fatherhood its Divine status of manifested LOVE. That which the world below are now being fed with in the atomic Glory that is coming forth in these mighty Waters of electrification. Thus the heights and depths as the Father and Mother uniting and producing, and the Son as the electrified life of glorified mind Consciousness came into birth.

Thus to see this clearly, it must be recognised that all is within man himself; he being the creator and the producer. The bringer forth of everything within the cosmos, that in polarity becomes the expansion of the Cosmic Light. Therefore Merope when she climbed her spinal sensitivity and raised her consciousness up to her heights, in bringing light into her heights to the degree of expansion, she caused her pituitary to spark her void into holy Life. Thereby causing herself to become an isotope, of every element consistent within her being. By this she was able to bring forth the spring of Water from her depths, for in making a perfect polarity, she produced out of the Solar intensity.

This connected earth with heaven which produced a continual flow through the unified action now in her own being. For she is a self-supporter through her inner waters revolving and producing out of themselves; thus can reach up into the state of non-being and draw from the unborn nebula.

This intensity is ever from a state of inward inter-penetration; for as the ruach is received, so the soul partakes and internally partakes. As the soul sensitises and activates the frequency, so he causes the breath to be equal to the air on the mountain top, and would breath accordingly. Then if this can be electrified, it can become as rarified air, and Merope could pour into the Dam Waters of rare species.

For instance, the fact now being quoted can open up to a soul as to how far it can ever go on and on in self production. Not climbing up to the top of a mountain to find this exhilaration, but building the mountain within himself, and extracting the air by a state of risen frequency. For it means the soul is able to meet the air before it reaches the earth; they themselves by frequency go up to meet the air. The same applies to a composer, artist or poet, they are so elevated, they meet all before it reaches deterioration through the magnetic field.

This brings a Pillar of Water or unification into birth that never loses its flow if truly established. The building of this Dam has linking with Ophel, but now in the modern world, built in the heart of Londinion that the new City of Light could spin forth from its inner activity.

ORDAINED TO BE IN THE WEST AS THE OUT-COME OF WHAT HAD BEEN, AND THE CLOSING DOOR TO A GREATER DAY.

THE GOLDEN CROWN

AS the soul perpetually weaves and spins in the depths, ... "to find the elasticity of mind;" so there opens up the revolving chakra wheels, giving unto the weaving consciousness the purple cap of the raised up passions, and bringing forth the glittering prize of the Crown of Mind. That which the soul desperately is seeking to attain. (See text in col. 4).

Flame of the Sun

Now she was going to go right out into Space, that equal to the mystery of her own void. That which yet has to be given life from the mystery of its own motivated depths. What has been, must be equalled by the heights, and will be revealed as a present unified creation. Up Merope flew into the mysterious black night, yet full of creative wonders. Nebula full of glorious light, that which electrified her as she passed through it. Driving up and on to her intended goal, but all a part of this massive creation,

Then the doors closed behind her, and she could see nothing; all was but the sound of rolling waves, with the rhythm of their movement transfixing her into a state of enchantment. As the melody went through her whole being, she felt herself being drawn by electro-hypnosis inwards and inwards, till she became a part of its mysterious depths. With the perpetual rhythm ever unfolding to her of a heart beating in perfect peace and royalty of understanding.

Then as Merope reached the centre of this rhythm, the Source of its becoming, she felt herself shoot forward and upwards and becoming as a

with Herbs and their Mineral Wealth

Concluded from February 1966 Issue

This lecture was delivered at the S.U.P.H. on Sunday 14th November 1965, through Gladys I. Spearman-Cook especially directed by the Lord Maitreya, the Lord of the Central Sun, the Radiance of the Christos Light.

The Understanding of Herbs

THIS is where the understanding of herbs, as to their psychological potentialities, can aid a soul under delusion, or caught up in the trammels of illusion. For they can strengthen in the right direction, or bind up the multiplicity in a full blooded quarter. This is where man has made incest, homosexuality of the soul in his marriage to multiple wives and concubines, that Solomon was victim unto. That of the soul gone completely feminine, that of a negative state; yet all this the Stream will be able to bind in, if the soul makes every effort.

Yet with the aid of herbs could help to bind up and readjust, while the soul finds its footing. But they must be pure, not pill or essence concoction, but infusion by water to extract their wealth, and their irrigating waters partaken, so that it gives a fluidity to the bloodstream.

Therefore with fresh fruits becoming electrically charged, containing the right status of natural minerals, for the soul's structure; for with the changing state, less of much already necessary, will have to be partaken. For the etheric body is of essence structure, and not solid form, and that is what is going to drop away, the solid form, and man is going to live as the etheric soul. So for the time, herbs to draw forth the soul's greater qualities, are what are required; and can become the uprisen genius work of an ancient herbalist. So you see man is not going to alter but is going to lose all his hardened solidified states. For they understood biology this way, and how to aid man by natural methods. Therefore with such past wealth and present understanding untold possibilities could come forth. So it is going to be a gradual change which man won't notice, with many struggling to hold on to the greater issue.

For instance ALL-HEAL under the influence of Mars, cannot only aid the soul in its bodily ills, but lead it along in its initiations. For it acts with intense action, and with such firm intent for one pursuing a lonely path. While ANGELICA under the solar rays, in being good for the blood, can give added zest to any drive; with CELANDINE, being good for the affections of the eyes, can also bring strength, law and order.

Then we find BUTCHER'S BROOM under the rays of Mars, is good for all congested states; but also for those who go round and round in circles, and ever driving blind. With GENTIAN helping those with a guilt complex, that often prevents a way of going forth; while KIDNEY WORT can prevent a dead end, besides working upon the king's evil.

Such as this can help psychological evils, that neither soul or physician can get at, for it rights the impediments in the inner being, where the trouble is really lodged. But also the plants radiating with electrical life, gives to the soul of solar life, and helps to diminish the luna. Thus aids the unification being striven for by the soul, whereby Saturn is mastered, and the Solar life is unfolded. Though unfortunately the electrical effusion is now brought down to a minimum, through the states of man; the atmosphere and the vermin state of the soil.

So here fields of endeavour are vast and voluminous, especially where that of electricity is concerned; for man has the electrical fusion waiting to come forth, which will have bearing upon all states of nature.

That is what the Equinox of Aquarius is wanting to teach mankind, the mystery of Unification.

Until he puts this into operation, he has no idea of what he can do, and how he can bring forth untold life. For electricity in its natural state is that of the EL life, that of the elephant power, that of the Almighty Shaddai. That of the very FIRE or strength of the Unseen, the eternity of the God; the I AM, the I AM in the Spark, the Atomic depth: that which by EL-beth-el becomes an absolute certainty, and is that of belief and oath on the altar of purpose.

For once a man determines and goes forth with WILL and FORCE, nothing can stop him, with the power accumulating as he intensifies on that course. Thus untold wonders can come forth, now that the Scapegoat has set into operation, that of the Pure Energy. For once man can comprehend its depths, all is his to unfold by raising up his own frequency; thereby gyroscoping up to the heights, to seek for the greater waters.

But this can only be put into operation, when the bloodstream is pure, and free from animal confusion. The blood running free, feeding the brain, opening up the higher powers, as a seed status of the grey matter. For it is the LAW, not just power, but the very core of God coming forth from the depth of the atomic seed, endowed unto man as the trustee of the Human Kingdom. That which is within his own seed, but in untold quantity. So it can be seen how man cannot really abuse, or turn to his own account, but hurt himself by refusing to obey the Law, which is the status of life. But when the soul fuses it into the wisdom of life, he will have a mighty answer waiting for him, with possibilities yet unknown.

The Mystery of Unction

UNFORTUNATELY man has ever only waited for something to come into birth, that which will do the task for him. Not knowing that he is the wonder holding the messiah of God. He is the answer to aeons of TIME of an accruing life, where all has reached an exploding point of enormous magnitude. For all the Kingdoms are a part of man, hence their purpose and intent are all within him; he having gone down and created their depths, from the luna waters.

Now he MUST bring forth, for he is an exploding volcano, and if he does not bring forth, disaster is sure to result. For man being the essence of BEING, has wealth of all Kingdoms waiting to come into active life; that they can turn in states from those depths, to become raised up onto a higher status. But the spark that fires everything into motion, being the original spark, as a mighty volume of Being. So the soul is only of the Original Spark, become as a mighty mind consciousness.

It cannot go any further, without it explodes; so must now come forth in the mind it has accrued. Giving it the power to act and be, and manifest the answer. So vast fields of unfoldment lay before man, but always in the direction of the Law, otherwise the very Law itself, will cause him untold pain. The fire now coming into being through the Cosmic Rays, will turn upon him, and burrow back into his being. So the answer is go on, until the comprehension fires you, and you awaken as a fired being; a soul brought to life.

This is the mystery of Unction, firing souls into life; that by the touch of their fired being, they too can bring souls alight. But only when the soul is balanced, that they can pass on balanced radiations; here again is where herbs can unify their inner discord. That brought about by the alchemicalisation, forcing new life through wisdom taken, and which requires the balanced state of Nature life, to balance up those states being turned in.

That which is in the herb is the growth of man, for it is his very effluvia, that which has been impregnated onto the Cosmos, through the many Ages, and that which he took down into the very depths, and rose up through its status. The very Elements that bring this into birth are received by both man and Nature, but Nature is balanced having no mind creation, to disturb her in her growth. That is what the trouble is, man's mind. But man in his growth from the same element, brings it to a state of multiplicity. This is where the herb in its balanced state, helps the man to come to a state of balanced order, by cleansing of his blood. But also pouring into his nature, their order of the element. So it is also going to help him to find out the Wisdom that he is seeking if he goes on pursuing.

This unfoldment is the prerogative of every soul, whereby they can set the world ablaze, and bring forth the light of Heliopolis, the city of Golden dreams. Saturn fully redeemed and man alight through the help of MARIGOLD and ROSEMARY; fired into active motion, where he can become a living torch, a firer into action. His task now is action and service, where he gives and no longer takes; but finds the right to be warranted light, the supreme comprehension of all knowing. Then he will not only be the means of electrifying matter, but all growth, for by his activity will he set the law into active rotation.

It is this ever state of Being that is the notch in every conclusion; and brings a locking up along the canal of life, to the final reach. When this is not reached, he is like a rose that blossoms into bloom, and finds half the petals not there, he found that he had never grown them. He had not laboured as he should have done, along the path of becoming; this is what Mother Nature is ever complaining of, man's neglected efforts. Hence her dress of gold and green is sparse and bare, for man has sought the unnatural way, and not the spiritual way of expansion.

Although he has brought abundance of life, it is not rich with spirit, but merely of earth and just growth, not that of radiant light. For growth of the earth should be a means of stimulus, where its active radiance fires the mind eye; with the soul prompted to emulate its beauty, bringing forth yet greater creations, beautifying the life.

So man fires the earth, and earth fires the man, both with different stimuli; and is the understanding of cross-pollination, that belongs to every specie. Man and woman firing one another by positive and negative momentum; he through his mind sperming her with ideas, she weaving and creating, until a garment is born. But also in their own heights and depths as unity of purpose, where action and purpose is born, as a zealous belief.

For man and nature are closely akin, whereby, if he watched the bees and nature, he would find all the answers he was seeking right close to his elbow. She being his mother and his Dyke, for if he fails to produce, she enforces an empty belly, and is the full meaning of the seven fat and lean years, where if he fails to work and labour in an expansive way, a time comes where he raises no crops, the earth has fallen too fallow. Its active life had fallen dead, he had not electrified motion, for that was the intended way, of the Aquarian potion.

Here such a herb as SARSAPARILLA would cleanse away the multiple troubles that now attend the Age; for it is the blood that now needs cleansing of all its ages of growth, which this root has the power of penetrating, and bring to a unified state. Therefore with the mystery of unification being no longer here, through the wisdom being applied, it is up to every son to now get down to the real purpose of life.

This is the seeking into the ways of Spirit, that of the unifying action; that which blends the depths with the heights, and brings forth the mind child. Where the earth of man and Mother Nature are well dug deep and truly, lifting up the emotional nature into air and fire. Where the spirit completely transmutes and raises up to the heights, as the expanded creation. Thereby becoming air-born in true expansive creation through the purified blood; for how can a soul raise up its status, if the blood is filled with waste and disease.

For as man is, so is the Earth, he being the activator of matter, whereby the male attribute is expanded in the mind, and she as the feminine principle, in electrified life. The fruits of their labours being the golden Apples of Hesperides, where the electrified life is now unified, and is radiating forth, as a radiating mind.

For a man rightly fed is a mind well prepared and adjusted through the sod of the earth; for then he is able to extract the wealth of mineralisation, in an atomised way. Not dead raw mineral life from the earth and rock, but alive with Uranian fire, to impart unto the man. Fruit picked as it is today, is without even the solar life; hence its staying stability, has no length of time. Owing to its element deficiency through the forcing of growth, false humors and fertilisers and poisonous insecticides, are killing off the natural growth. All due to man fouling the earth through his deteriorated beliefs; not food grown for man's good, but for its cash value. Thus cutting off the earth from the higher elements, and their rejuvenating rebirth.

But now with the inpouring of the higher waters, this is now lifted up, waiting for the impregnation, to bring about its rebirth. Then with man lifting up his status by mind growth, he will automatically replenish the earth, and raise up its status. For as he so attends nature will she respond, giving him the herbs he requires, radiating with true nature life. Elements refined, and placed in category, as he so requires, for as he so demands, with a higher mind status, will his auric radiation control the natural growth.

The New Laws

BUT we must yet look farther, if the food of the earth is so badly affected through man's neglect, then the minerals, from the earth itself, will be in a more deficient state. For nature has a way of refining, through the rain, sun and dew, and casts out much that can deteriorate her values. But in so doing would bring impoverished growth, if man had not befouled her, would have risen up in natural abundance. This is what man must look to seriously, for with the inflowing powers he will either labour the right way and produce in abundance, or find the earth taking on a rock like texture, through the solidifying elements. Such states as happened to the grand Canyon, the Dead Sea and the glories of Petra. All lost through drawing down elements, that were not utilised by man in the way of the mind reweaving them, and returned to the heights as mind light.

Man has taken the minerals from the earth, when he should have drawn the elements down to himself, and radiated them in electrified expansion. Thereby the earth would have become an electrified creation, with the minerals feeding the crops. Then false humors and fertilisers would not have been required, with crops coming forth in abundance. Man in drawing down unto himself, would also have fed Mother Earth, for as he so drew down and activated, would she have so responded. In the same way as my Instrument has drawn down the Elements and activated them, and sent them back again.

But instead Mother Earth has been busily burying in the evils of man's creation, and here and there spewing forth, in a vicious outlet. As man continues to draw the natural fire life from the earth, and returning no natural life to it, is he slowly bringing the earth to a rock-like state, through its dead contusion.

The answer now is in the new life, bringing a change to man's outlook, that by his awakening inner wealth, he will uncover his old way of producing. Then with the present problems unified and the higher purpose expanded, will new ways on the roots of the old ideas, bring forth greater qualities. But on the simple methods of producing, that man can live, not gain and grow fat; but seek to produce of the higher qualities, as a competition of prowess. His only idea has been the easiest way out to gain, and not atomise the production. Now it is going to be completely changed, where man will either respond to the new born law, or be caught up by the waters, then be changed by force and pain. The old law has been Justice and Mercy, while the new law will also be Justice and Mercy, but without any intimidations.

Nobody will be able to tamper with the new Law, it being watertight; for immediately a soul refuses to obey, the Fire in the Waters begins to burn. So you either go with the Waters, which are the Cosmic Rays direct from the Divine Effulgence, or they dig their barbs in, and burn by the going against the Stream.

All is now atomised, as set into motion by man himself; he would build atom bombs, and send missiles up into Space. So to counteract a state of such, in its highest measure was devised, causing Pure Hydrogen Energy to reach the Earth, to bring all back to life.

This is where the pure in heart will respond to the Waters, and go with the Stream, thus holding his own free-will; but those who refuse will still be taken by the Waters, but with force and pain. Thereby it must be movement of upwards rise, as soon as possible.

Spirit is what you are, by what you have built do you live; therefore those who have built no etheric body, will find themselves completely homeless. For the Golden Age is a world of Spirit, the true Garden of Eden, where Time-

Who Am I?
by Winifred Dearden

*Who am I and who have been?
Through eyes long closed in countless deaths
My soul has seen the pageant of the world sweep by.
Through lips un-numbered has my struggling soul
Fought to express its loneliness, its longing to return
To its shining Source and there to burn,
Released from the restraint of personality.*

*Through instruments of flesh, imperfect, incomplete,
My soul has plodded on its pilgrimage.
Through feet that once trod hot and alien sands,
And strode behind the peaceful plough;
That danced to temple drum,
And stumbled over blazing battle fields;
Through hands that clasped the sceptre.*

*Spun the homely flax, counted the miser's gold
And plied the galley's oar:
Through such as these my soul strives to fulfil the Law.
But who am I and what have I left undone,
And what was left broken, bleeding,
Weeping and bereft of joy because of me?
And what was unsaid, unmended?*

*Until these debts are paid and all wounds
Gently cleansed and closed,
The weary round of births cannot be ended.
So who am I and who shall tell me that which I long to know?
And who shall show me the glass all cleared
Of dark reflections, so that I act in knowledge
And purpose shall single be, with all doubts past?*

*Slowly the questions die away;
My mind exhausted lies; then deep in the well of my own heart
I hear the answer rise like a subterranean spring:
"This fathomless Light of Knowledge glows
Within the very core of Man's own being:
Here does it wait until all greed is dead,
All powers are plundered and all passions spent.*

*Then will the Fire that smoulders in the heart Burst into flame, compelling the mind within,
And like a moth's, shall those destructive wings
That bore the soul away to cold, exterior wastelands
Be themselves destroyed, and all phenomenal things
Shall lose their shape, and slowly sink
Into the timeless, tideless Ocean of Reality."*

less-ness is death-less-ness, where a man will live forever, because he won't have a physical body. Thus death is being dissolved by the higher Dynasphonic Waters, that of the Holy Stream; with a dark world of no creation, as the world of the lost. This is the true meaning of all becoming electrified, and raised up to the heights, the world of immortality; while it also explains the Patriarchs living to an enormous Age.

Hence herbs act as a crocodile to eat up the dead states, with the soul blending buttercups and daisies into a wreath for my ladies hair. That which can become electrified by the gyroscopic rise, bringing the marriage under the orange blossom, that of the solar light. Then there can be a direct winging up to the Bull's Eye, that there can be a change of beam, with stimulation taking place.

Thereby a new understanding can go forth on the waters of life, ringing out all over the wide ocean; with the drive then being open wide to the heights, whereby the lower states of earth will all be buried in. This will cause the passions to be placed onto their royal status, with the mighty driving power and activation of the Waters, that will bring unlimited growth.

This is but a new subject, although as old as the hills, for the true understanding has never been revealed, by the witches of old. Especially now that all has changed onto a higher status, where only the unified purpose can possibly be of any avail, thus revealing their spiritual attributes. All the inner depths that will blend that multiplied and torn apart, raising the soul up onto the etherialised plane of the Golden Age. Now this IS going to come about because it has now been set into motion. This is the Gyroscopic spin of the changing of man, through the continual changes set into operation from the Fount to the Central Sun, not only part of the way but the whole of the way.

Nobody can surmount it, no man can undermine it, because the whole key has been locked, from the Fount to the Central Sun.

So man has now got to follow it, he has no alternative, and it is going to be chaos for just a little while, naturally because the Waters are penetrating, and so are the Fires penetrating, and man is finding it is undermining him, causing devastation internally and he does not know where it is or why it is.

Now there is hope for every one. You can leave the Earth when your time has come for you to leave the Earth and say well everything is all right everything is set. "I can come back again if I have got to come and I can find things in a better state." There are multitudes waiting to come back waiting most earnestly and when it has reached a certain state of being, a cleansed raised-up state, then of course they will not come back through the womb, they will descend in the way you did in the beginning. And this will be the Etheric Birth.

Reminiscences

This, many others, who have raised their minds up to that of intelligence, must have felt as I did, revolted. To believe that men still exist no better than the ancient Moabites, leaves one aghast. For these individuals are worse than beasts, for the latter follow the Laws of Nature, and never dream of such a thing. So these creatures are lower than beasts.

Then when you realise that many advocating such are churchmen, it rules out religion straight away. One of these being the Bishop of Southwark, who went into Brixton prison to give the prisoners holy communion. Here were men, confined to close quarters for often 12 hours right off, and fighting to maintain their self respect, to be given communion by a man who was riddled through and through with sodomitical beliefs. This makes him a black paw, one who automatically passes on to everybody he touches, his own beastly ideas. But what sort of communion was he giving? surely the works of the devil; and this applies to every man who is advocating such beliefs, and carrying it out in the name of the church. Yet if a prisoner dared to pass any comment regarding his beliefs, he would suffer in some way or another for daring to speak a truth; but would be forced to endure such men, that in my opinion ought to be castrated.

How can these men dare to talk about holy marriage, which the church are supposed to solemnise? But to save any further theorising on our part, let us look at the statement made by The Lord of the Flame, the Great Master of the Intelligencia:

"PEACE BE UNTO YOU ALL.

Now I come to bring PEACE to the Spirit that I am using.

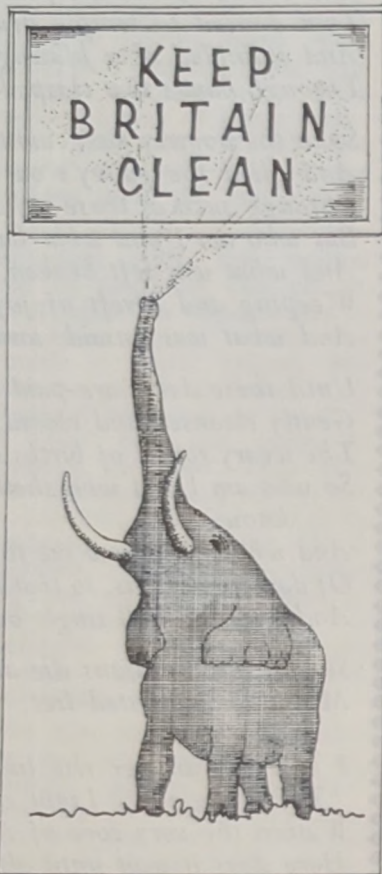

The fires that man will bring through himself for such an occasion will be the fires out of the depths of the earth, and not the HOLY FIRES. He will be fed from those depths, and they will destroy his soul, and burn his issue to pieces. And this applies to any of you who now play with the HOLY FIRES, for you will automatically find

*1 The Sodomy Bill refers to a Bill that has been presented to the House of Commons by a private member, in which it is sought to no longer make it illegal for two consenting males over the age of 21 to commit unnatural sexual practices in private. At present Mr. Humphrey Berkeley, M.P. for Lancaster is presenting this Bill which is not either being supported or opposed by the Government.

THE SODOMY BILL

AS MUCH AS I WOULD HAVE WISHED TO have brought our vast growing Readers the promise of news I made last month, I am afraid I shall not be able to keep that promise this month, but will do so next. For that which was to have taken place on a certain day, was extended; therefore will bring in the April issue, but again say all is well.

The day of writing this is the 11th of February when the Sodomy Bill*1 had just passed its first reading.

yourself reverting to the lower, burning you to pieces and destroying your issue.

Man is going to learn the hard way.

This is where there is the division you saw, my son. It is going to divide man in himself. The lower states will live in the lower vicinity, feeding from the depths of the earth; while those who turn to the Wisdom that My Instrument brings, will feed from the FIRES OF THE HEIGHTS.

Now I am going to ask you all here not to carry on any more tonight, but to go away for over this weekend and start readjusting your minds, getting your minds righted as to which side of the fence you are on, and how you are going to fight for Truth. Being prepared to relinquish all, that you can bring into birth your Light to the HOLY

FIRE, or only sup of the depths of the earth. ADIEU."

Whether man believes this or not, I can well assure them it is quite true, for when as a Scapegoat I was preparing the way for all men to tread the path of the Mysteries, I had to take these Fires through my Capacity at an enormous voltage, to raise up my frequency to the degree required. Like Daniel I had to pass through the fiery Furnace.

For every man is receiving the higher waters in a tempered and modified degree through me raising up the planes of the Earth unknown to him and scientist. The changing of his mind I had to do through my writings, and that was the hardest task. Man has been receiving of these Waters, which although it will bring a mild state of 'Flu' or any other normal cleansing illness, will not burn or make sick as the scientist believed the Cosmic Rays would do. But where man is turning to the ways of the beast, he will be too low in frequency to partake of these Rays, and will draw from the lower frequency, the bowels of the earth.

Yet if I could only bring to these souls, of how they are wasting and ruining their greatest treasure. For these are souls who are over-laden with the wealth of the Holy Fires. They in the past have drawn down this wealth, and never raised the wisdom up to mind light, whereby they send the wealth back to the Starry Heavens. But merely take all and bring it down to the beast. Invariably you find these souls are intellectuals in some way or another.

If they would only seek into the understanding of le Ros,*2 where they raised their fires up to mind light, they would no longer be worried with an over-abundance. Really they are the Bulls of the Race, but have never learnt how to value their wealth. Usually their heritage starts with an Arab strain, where they gained their fire from roaming the desert and drawing the fire down from the heavens. They having no other means of direction, and was known as star-gazing.

Then in Medo-Persia*3 when Venus came down in abundance, man became over-loaded with Fire, and under Taurus lived as the idle bull. Yet Taurus and Cancer have untold wealth in this direction, and are the Nagas and Bulls of the *2 The Dance of Le Ros refers to the mind action of question and answer, ever delving and seeking to gain answers to problems, so that the two vagrant nerves of the spinal column, the afferent and efferent stimulate and awaken the kundalini fire situated in the sacral part of the spine between the two sides of the Hipbone, the Ilium. It is this dance of trying to get the Kundalini serpent energy to rise by means of stimulating it through mind stimulus that the initiate should now seek to do at all times so that the fires rise up and move over the pons varolii and infundibulum onto the seat of the pituitary, which is situated just behind the root of the nose.

THE RICHES OF MEDO PERSIA

THIS picture wonderfully captures the mysteries of Arabia, the riches of the wisdom, hidden in the deeps, yet to be discovered and brought to life. Here can be seen the Cinderella of the East seeking to bring forth the wealth of her Fount. In the far distance can be seen the riches of the mind steeped in knowledge and learning. (See text on page 5, col. 3 and this page, col. 4).

I do not advocate celibacy, but the wisdom of le Ros, where man raises his fires up to his mind, and lubricates the meninges with the over-abundance of cerebrospinal fluid. It is because man does not understand the working of the Natural Laws, that he ridicules these truths, and dies in agony.

When they are understood by the pure intent of heart, they appear quite logical and practical. But to the impure, only graft, greed and desire will satisfy their craving, for they are living on the lowest frequency. Their sensitivity is nil, and they are gross and coarse, insensible to the finer things of the spirit. In fact spirit only resides in a bottle to them, then they take their holy communion.

As I felt myself repulsed and losing heart, I was advised by those Great Forces not to lose heart, but fight on, the greater victory is yet to come. For the LAWS have been set, and in the event of these unfortunate creatures trying to set a lower law reserve to the cosmical ruling, they will only bring about dissension and evil that will rebound upon themselves:

"But I will state here and now, this BILL WILL NOT GET THROUGH, for the higher Cosmic Law has decreed differently. While punishment of the direst effects will

*3 Medo-Persia refers to the period during the Taurean Equinox between 4,500 to 2,500 B.C. during which the Fires of Scorpio which rules the generative Seed descended into the human race, thereby giving unto mind immense riches of seed wealth. But Man instead of directing and upraising this energy unto feeding the MIND of the Cosmos, turned all to a vast welter of desire, stimulating the senses ever greater. This explains why so many Taureans are especially full of generative power and stimulus.

rest upon all who defy this ruling."

All men are fed by the fires, especially the male, for that is what keeps man alive, the Elements from the Prism. To those who can absorb of the higher degree, it is the Solar Ray from the Prism from the Intelligencia. To those who cannot take from that status of frequency, then it will be from the bowels of the earth. Even the scientist understands the magnetic poles of the body, whereby the soul gives and takes by the Law of Attraction. This is not new, or even merely Occult, although it comes under that category, but wisdom well known to the scientist who has raised himself up from the atom-bomb, or moon crazed theories.

Much is going to be revealed with the coming of the Spring, not only the news I am going to bring, but with the pass-over of the Equinox, all men will start afresh with a new Easter Bonnet, or a blank mind. Some will truly remain in the tomb, dead as dead cold mutton. We have the Catholics to thank for this, for when they cut off man's mind from the heights and the Gods, they, like the Chinese and the Romans, limited their minds to an Emperor or a Caesar, and now a stone cold pope. They turned man's mind to the limitations of a man who said he was the directing factor. A man with all the limitations of a ritual driven machine, who could not even give a direct decision when the ecumenical council was gathered.

These as a sect cut off the inflow from the heavens, the inner Divine Light of the finer worlds. Planes of spirit manifesting, which they do not understand, but like the scientist see mirages upon the maelstrom and declare they have landed on the moon. The Catholics do not have to go to the moon, they are already there, for they are luna ridden, residing as the black scorpion, the negative side of the Divine

THE GREAT EAGLE'S HEALING COLUMN

WE continue to receive a flood tide of letters from all over the world requesting help and advice for the ills, which now seem to arise with increasing effect. Let me give to you all some general advice to guide you on your inevitable road of change and rebirth, that is taking place in the world and Cosmos today. Man is merely the instrument that must obey the new Laws born through the rebound of Relativity, the road back to its Source.

During the Age of Leo 13,000 years ago, the Matriarchate Race took the Fire brought down from the Great Fatherhood by the Divine Being Merope, which resulted in the division of the genders as some of the Loves did not respond to the Fires that should have sparked them into Life. Today in the age of Cyclic Rebound, Relativity, mankind are making little or no response to the inflowing Cosmic Rays. Whereas there should be quick mind response and the urgent sense of awakening sweeping through the race, mental stagnancy and inertia is increasing, setting up a mental resistance and lack of expansion that is making it very hard for the Teachers to force expansion and new mind blood to exist.

If this does not happen soon, with man making a voluntary turn towards the Spirit and the Hierarchical Powers and the gods of his own meningeal life, then the suffering is going to be dire and forceful. Man must start to surrender the false personality he has created across Time, and set up as some popinjay, ego-ridden puppet that is trying now to interfere and break down the inflowing God Life that is penetrating into the Earth. Dominated by the false figure set up, there is little co-operation between Gods and men, with no interest being shown by man himself as to the real Heavenly Spheres. In consequence soon man will feel the rigid discipline of the new LAW that has been established and thence must seek to obey and respond to the god-life in his meninges, and to build up 'wireless' contact with the Great Hierarchs in the Heavens, building up a valve frequency so that attunement can be created. The valve frequency will be built by the setting up and awakening of the Spinal Flowers and the Home of the Gods in the Meninges themselves.

But paramountly man must seek of the Spirit and turn towards the Great Father from whom he received his Manhood, so that the present desecration of the Holy Fire may cease. Man does not realise that he by virtue of being the holder of the Divine SEED is a son of God and must behave like one or suffer the consequence. Woman must seek of the Father and will do so by seeking to nurture the Sperm Fire she receives from through man's veins is that which gives him life?

It is because man is cutting off this fire, and filling his blood with waste and false fire, that he is crying out about lethargic states, diabetes and his inertia. Unless he gets the Solar Blood in his veins from the involving Prism by mind attraction through his poles, or from the bowels of the earth, he will wilt, for that is the protoplasmic essence that gives unto the soul its homogeneous creation. His etheric body of seven states, born from a frequency of sensitivity. But then as I have said, man likes to learn the hard way, then he feels sure of what he is getting.

Well! I am not righteous or religious by any means, but I do know the wisdom of the Law, where no man can oppose or refute, especially now. I had to pay too dearly as the Scapegoat, for these Laws to be set, so I know definitely of what man can do and cannot. And what is more, for the whole Solar Year;*4 so those who want to know more upon this subject, can obtain lectures upon any degree of this subject. It being far too lengthy to give forth in a short reminiscence on the subjects of the month.

The Master did warn us that mighty changes would take place between November and April, as well as a cry going round that 'flu' or a bug were circulating. Which would be no other than the fires distributing the bloodstream, and bring man to the changes destined. So I am looking forward to seeing the results of my work; much I have already seen, and am amazed at.

*4 This refers to the full 26,000 years of Time, the passage of the 12 Equinoxes.

Man, not as in the beginning as the animal passions but as the sperm fire of mind, firing the germ-idea that must be captured and woven by the female as the Cinderella... hence her task to ever keep the 'Fires' alight.

The days of the Beast are over and either Man changes onto the 4th Dimension of Etherealised Beings of Solar Mind-FIRE, to become God-Beings building the Glories of the Fathers Kingdom out of the Blackness of Space, willingly, eagerly, joyously, or he returns to the Nebula Dust from whence he arose. A Decision MUST be made NOW.

IF MANKIND RESPONDED IN THIS WAY THERE WOULD BE NO SICKNESS, BUT ONLY THE DANCING JOYOUS FLARES FROM THE CENTRAL SUN, THE JOYOUS CHILDREN OF THE LORD OF THE FLAME.

Catarrh

Mrs. B. of Frinton on Sea, Essex.

I am asking your help for my husband especially for a very long standing and deep seated Catarrh. Lately he has had 'Flu, which has increased the condition as well as leaving him very depleted.

ALL states of catarrh and waste are directly due to the products of food and drink that are placed in the body and one of the worst in this respect is milk and other animal products. I cannot over emphasise too much the fact that Man should never have turned his eye down to the products of the Earth and should have existed in a divine Elysium as etherealised beings, feeding on the Ambrosia of the GODS, the great Hierarchs, and unfolding as crucibles the Power and Forces of the Gods. Instead

HEALING PRAYER

Great Divine One: Pour down Thy Wealth on these children that are seeking of life, seeking of purpose; they who have become lost in their disembowelled bodies that are diseased by their lost purpose. Help those Waters, as they go forth, to touch them into Life, that they can be 'SPERMED' into greater understanding and reach up to THEE with all their might.

AMEN EN MAGNIFICAT

the Divine Fire descended into the Pit, and Mind has been struggling to make its way back unto the Source Divine, the Central SUN. Each Atom of Element Life which has poured down on the human growth must unfold its atomic wealth into Divine Enlightenment thus building the Cosmic MIND as the Intelligencia, the radiance of the Spark Divine.

This will never happen unless the human race turns in this direction for every day sustenance. Man must accept that as a result of the turn round of the Solar Year and the Scapegoat's Establishing the new Laws of Life, all the human race must commence to become obedient to the gods and respond in every way. If he does not do so then he must suffer and risk the blanking out of his mind.

What is needed here is strong flushing out of the sinuses and the lymphatics of all the pockets of waste resident there and the best herbs to do this are BUCHU LEAVES (Barosma Betulina), LIME FLOWERS (Tilia Europea) and WHITE HOREHOUND (Marrubium Vulgare) the last one of which is an excellent expectorant and these regularly taken and with adjustments to the waste products taken in the Diet the catarrh should soon be moved. For Mrs. B. I would advise LIME FLOWERS (Tilio europea) alone.

Violent Back Pains in Spine

Mrs. A. of Welwyn Garden City, Hertfordshire.

I am writing to ask if you will kindly help me with a health problem. In the main I enjoy very good health and have done all my life but now and again I get violent pains up and down the back.

Mrs. W. of Plymouth, Devon.

I have something wrong which is affecting my back or spine. It is aching all the time—have a stiff paralysing feeling in the spine area. When I sit it is pressing, I cannot lie very long, I shake a lot with this constant discomfort. I have had treatment at the Hospital but it's not done any good. I am supposed to take pain killing tablets. Please will you advise herbs. Am I to rest or keep moving. I am very depressed.

Miss Z. of Irvington, New Jersey, U.S.A.

Please advise what I should do... as I always have a bad pain in the back. I take pills for it, and I apply Ben-Gay... also a back plaster—only a temporary relief. I should like to know what I should take to cure the pain. I am not married and have to work for myself.

I have taken all these cases together in order that Readers can see how the downpouring Holy Fires that have been coming down for months now, channelled through the Scorpionic Power, are having the exact effect that was foreseen and fully announced. The cause of it is that situated at the base of the spine near the coccyx the lowest 4 vertebrae of the spinal column, certain very powerful unawakened glands. I have told you all before that these contain Scorpionic Fiery Life that of the Fire that the female has never awakened at all, for when the Fire descended at the time of the Loves during the Matriarchate Period prior to the Leo Equinox, she with her companions that did not respond to the Fire became of the female gender and thus in the divisions of the Loves did not become of the Male Element that had descended. Now at the time of Relativity the Fire so taken is being called to be used and turned into Mind, to be sent back up to the Powers to whom IT belongs.

This is where all three cases must arise in the early morning at the turning of the Solar Fire and from the midnight hour call it unto your being, labouring each with its own wealth according to the ways and manners that the Scapegoat has explained in her writings. For it is each person's wealth that each are now responsible to bring out from the depths of the past that of the knowledge that resides within the bloodstream. To Mrs. W. and to Miss Z., let me say this: You both as all others must have courage to face that which we have created as well as the reaction of the acts carried out long ago.

Scorpio Waters as the Solar light. The negative to the risen Eagle, for they have a dead god for their supreme presence. They would be amazed if they could see or sense vibration, as to what degree they were living on, for they are living right under the "mud of the luna waters," lost to any sense of real understanding.

Just recently we received a booklet from America, where the wisdom of the Occult is deeply studied. This booklet was called "Facts of Our Faith," the September 1965 issue, and is published monthly by the Los Angeles Church of God, Seventh Day. In it was written an article by a catholic Dr. Charles A. Berry, "The World's most difficult way to become a Christian." A copy can be obtained by any genuine reader, of which the address will be given upon application. This is of how priests who have broken away from the main body are victimised, and even put into asylums. While often these priests are getting away from the sodomitical states existing in their monastery. To read this booklet would leave a free clean thinking soul stunned. It is no financial stunt so applicable to Catholicism, for these booklets are free for any genuine reader.

It will only be when man has lost his mind, that he will begin to think that something is wrong. Realise that what he has been dragging down into the dung, was the basic to his mind becoming.

Yet we might ask where are the Medical Fraternity?

Shouldn't they know more, or are they text boys too?

Do not these people know that the very Fire that courses

This now particularly applies to the 12th house and 8th house planets, the tartars and the pit of adders; the former being the wild chaotic states of the mind knowledge taken that have been twisted and entwined to such an extent in the soul's mind, the interminable terrors of the labyrinth of multiplicity, that it, could never be unravelled and must be buried so that it no longer spouts its incorrect chaos of untruths.

The latter the raw brute pleasures that have saturated the soul, the evil states of massed desire of the beast that are better left for they would otherwise 'touch' others with their sting of desire and start to eat into the minds to be carried out. Here too are the past cruelties of ages back, that certainly must not be resurrected. So those with 8th and 12th house planets should take added care and struggle to raise their minds to the very heights, so that by self acceptance as to the past actions and a heart resolve to obey the greater Wisdom, all these states will be buried in. Now each should place into practical application that of the past knowledge taken... Which in the case of the 12th house is invariably stolen, not the fruits of their own labour and toils.

Thus by consciously drawing out the wealth of these glands and raising the Fire slowly up the spine the biting pain will stop. If the pain is situated at the back by the sacral lumbar region then it will be the sleeping kundalini that has stirred through the soul seeking into the wisdom and thus activating the vagrant efferent motor afferent sensory nerves. Here for all these and others, who are finding the pains in the base of the spine, every effort should be maintained to study the Word to bring forth this wealth, and to extract the powers that lie hidden in the bone life.

This is but the beginning of many who are going to find themselves reacting in this way, and should straight away start to turn upward and to seek into how to raise up the kundalini by the dance of Le Ros. All this has been taught in the past issues and can be obtained in the School. There are two herbs that are recommended to help channel the Fires up the spine and these are HORSETAIL (Equisetum arvense) and HOLY THISTLE (Carduus Benedictus).

THIS is the direct result of mental inertia, a stagnancy of movement that is not getting the bowels and intestine tract moving, as these are ruled by Mercury. She must try her hardest even though she is 72 and lives alone, to make the effort to study the Wisdom and to find the answers to those points that elude her.

If this does not happen the inertia and lack of nerve dancing through out the body will only cause a greater degree of calcification which will react on the acid solidifying arthritis. I would advise quick and serious study of the Lectures, and if you write into the Secretary you will in fact get advised as to those for you to take and which will best suit your reading in the past.

We have a special blend of herbs for constipation and would advise these immediately. Secondly for the twisted-colon and rectal tension, we will place your name in the Healing Book, and we suggest on the two Lecture Nights when absent Healing will be given, during the delivery of the lecture that you too concentrate with us becoming completely relaxed, undressed in bed. Blessing will be given during the time 8 and 9 Greenwich Mean Time on Wednesday and Sunday Evenings when special Cosmic Power will descend on the altar and be taken to all those sick and suffering who have requested same. Every effort will be made to heal this twisted colon and we suggest that you have near you sitting quietly holding your hand someone who has physical powers which we can use taking the ectoplasm from her or him to help us, to manipulate the twisted colon back into position. For twenty-four hours before this operation do not take any solid food but take light fruit and fruit juices, and this will enable the healing to be more effective.

Please remember the difference in time as England is 8 hours ahead of California, and thus the time for you will be 12 noon to 1 p.m. To help with the intestinal tension take SLIPPERY ELM (Ulmus Fulva) and this should be very beneficial as a food and also very beneficial to relief tension in the bowels. For the arthritis take DANDELION (Taraxacum officinale), AGRIMONY (Agri-monia eupatoria) and YARROW (Achillea millefolium) herb teas.

Cramp and Stomach Nausea

Mrs. R. J. of Washington, D.C.

I have been sick since September 24th 1965. I have been to the Hospital clinics and they have not been able to do me any good. I am suffering from cramp like pains in the stomach and nausea. I vomit just about every day...I feel very weak and am sometimes dizzy, the pains that I have last two, three, four hours or more. One night it was all night long. The doctor had said I had inflammation of the intestines. I have had X-Rays made. I am not satisfied with the doctors.

THE finest remedy for this patient is to take SLIPPERY ELM BARK (Ulmus Fulva) coupled with a little ARROWROOT POWDER (Maranta Arundinacea). If she continues with this and adds a little MARSHMALLOW powder (Organum Vulgare) she should soon allay the trouble and get things back into normal.

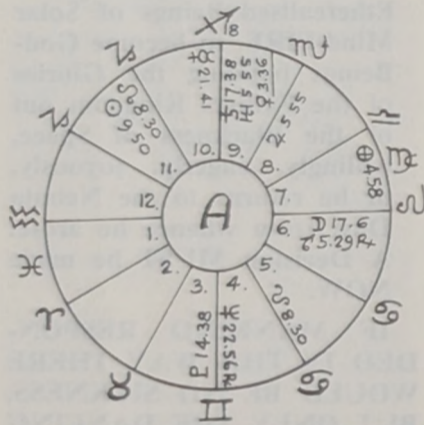

The Slippery Elm powder made into a food should be the staple diet for all infants and not the commercial products made so inviting by mammoth advertising. This will soon set Mrs. S. on her feet and overcome the dizziness, the latter not being surprising as the nervous system is being wrenched and disturbed every moment of the day. I would advise too that she takes our NERVE PILLS regularly for these (4 in the morning and evening) should help to get the nervous system into shape.

An Achilles' Heel

Mrs. E. of Dorset.

Suddenly UNDERNEATH BOTH Heels,—more especially LEFT heel has become almost impossible to stand on or walk longer than one hour at the most. Week ago I went to a Dr. to try to avoid troubling you. She said it was a muscle—offered me drugs, which of course I refused and told me to come back. Underneath left had a horseshoe mark in shape and quite raw. But pain extends alongside opposite instep. It throbs even in bed...When I get out of bed I positively prickle, like exposed nerves.

IN her Birth Chart above she has no less than 6 planets situated in Fire signs, 4 in the Midheaven in Sagittarius and 2 in Leo. Situated entombed in the pit is Jupiter, that of mind expansion and dance, the ariel drive of the Holy Fire, as it is not only in the house of Scorpio but in its Sign. Her Path of Destiny is in the house of the Law in Virgo, the attributes of the weaving every day conscious working mind, which the LAW is demanding should not only be activated but should move, afired and adancing with mind acquisitiveness, trying to find the topmost point of awareness, the Perceptory Eye of Oneness. It is Pisces the polarity sign of Virgo which is in the first House of Aries, which has now met its waterloo and must place into operation all that which it the soul has experienced, and acclaimed as being the wisdom. For Pisces is the sign which rules the feet.

What this lady is suffering from is purely as a result of the operation of the Higher Law, for the action and call of Relativity is now demanding the honouring of wisdom gained. In the Midheavens is Sagittarius the Trinity of Fire and with the four planets there especially the Uranian-Venus combination, with Mars trine, she must earth this fire by establishing some creative work herself under the stimulus and control of the god-powers. This vast Fire power within her simply must become earthed otherwise damage via the central system will result.

Running down the spine are varying nerve centres or plexus of which one the sacral plexus is consisting of the two lower lumbar nerves and the five sacral nerves, and from there issues forth the largest and most powerful nerve of the body, the Sciatica. This travels down the back of the thigh and thence in divided formation through unto the leg and the foot even unto the heel. Within the Sacral in which is situated the second spinal chakra sleeps the mysterious Serpent Fire, known to the East as the sleeping Kundalini. By action of thought, drive and momentum this Holy Energy is stirred and warmed by mind friction into upward spiral, the rising of the mystic Heat. The two sides of the brain constantly make mind drive making movement by continual question and answer, stimulating the two efferent and afferent nerves of the Vagrant network.

When a soul fails to move and stir the Holy Fire, the Hydrogen Waters, when his wealth so demands, then he finds that the knowledge enormous Fire Energy that is within the bloodstream and the marrow of his bones...and which is not being moved in honourable practical application...starts becoming stirred as the fire or energy potential is demanding active expression. This naturally has a reaction directly on the body.

This is the case with Mrs. E. Here she has vast Fire wealth which she has received through past lives, and failed to honour, and now she must find expansion for this Fire to be expressed. In the past lives the only way she has ever found expansion is dance a round-delay with the Bacchantes as seen by the Jupiter in Scorpio in the pit the 8th house of Initiation, Jupiter being in the first decan of Serpentarius, the Fire Seed. Thus the knowledge of the Fire was only taken to express in animal delights and now (as Destiny demands in the house of the Law) it must be directed the right way.

Mrs. E. must struggle and labour as a Cinderella to find the right way (Path of Destiny in Virgo the labouring Martha-Mary) and fight hard with her intercalary activity to find the Point of Awareness of where and how she can direct this fire-potential. This she does by constantly raising the fires up her spine in intercalary movement ever activating the two dogs of Gemini that as Bloodhounds should never cease their quest to "capture" the answer, using every lower mind cunning and consciousness she is already endowed with.

It is obvious by the letter that Mrs. E. has failed to do this and now meets the Law. What happened to her happened to Achilles and thousands of others who take of initiations and fail to pass. She too has an Achilles Heel, her mother at birth leaving a Karmic debt to fulfill (Dragon's Tail or Karmic Point in the Sign of Cancer, the old matriarchate wealth). She as a Perseus must now go forth and capture the great EL Powers she has, so that the head of the Medusa may be cut off and the fires become risen up as Winged Pegasus the Winged Passions.

She asks now for help as she obviously does not know what is being told her...even ignoring the horseshoe. Putting it bluntly this soul has untold Holy Fire but is not using it at all and it is merely lying in the very base of her bones and nothing is being done. This is the time in relativity when that which is known must be placed into practical application...if it is that knowledge has been taken but not resolved into true wisdom, then activation through trial and error until the right answer has been attained must be the order of the day. This she obviously has not done and the result is that the Sciatic Nerve whose sacred task is to be the channel for the wisdom to be stamped into the Earth, has commenced under the Cosmic Law to be the channel. But no conscious awareness is with Mrs. E. hence the chaos of the heels.

Expansion of mind into wider and more awoken awareness must be striven for and yet all that is happening is a greater and greater accumulation of knowledge. Jupiter the planet of mind expansion rules the muscles and thus muscular spasm and contraction will commence to take place as the fire tries to force itself into conscious expression.

What should she do? Start being honourable to the Word she has taken and look into herself in truthful recognition. The old Bacchante potentials of vice and loose living must be recognised and buried in genuine desire for a greater degree of action. She must start driving the powers as much as she can and for this purpose Horsetail and Holy Thistle will help her to activate and direct the fires within, especially Mars whose retrograde birth position in Leo in the 6th is withholding the fire bursting into mind flame as the soul is being held back by inertial response. Her mercury tied to Saturn must not let the mind activity in the lower be held in retention but allow the fire natural response in perceptory dance. With her Mars and Jupiter Square the Mars retrograde which is her lack of purpose, will, drive and determination, even of interest shows that she must find her Heart Purpose and be prepared to act as the Royal Priestess that she ought to be. As soon as this happens she will not feel the pains of the Fires channelling down the Sciatica direct from the secret flame hidden there, onto the nerve exit in the Heel.

NERVE PILLS, will help here as well as MARIGOLD (Calendula officinalis) and ROSEMARY (Rosmarinus officinalis).

Asthma and Dermatitis

Mr. F. H. of Chicago, Illinois, U.S.A.

I have a deep problem...I have had asthma and dermatitis (all over my body but now it is confined to all moist areas), for 20 of my 24 years, please send me health advice and let me know what herbs to take.

IF I had his chart made out then it would be possible to see the karmic cause that has made this young man so early in life to take on the burdens of karma. The cause of the asthma is the refusal in the past lives and in this from embracing the Powers of the Spirit. In this case the whole of the problem would be solved if he turned his mind to the Spirit, as it is the lack of the Solar Light that is causing the rapid deterioration so noticeable everywhere.

In this case it is so deep-rooted that it has permeated the whole of his physical body, coming out in the skin condition that is present with him. If he turns for the Spirit and takes radical and sustained effort to correct this, and seeks to have perpetual baths and bathing with MARIGOLD (Calendula Officinalis) of his skin condition the acute Dermatitis will be cured. Besides bathing, he should take infusions of MARIGOLD as well.

The Asthma will clear itself if he only will turn to the Spirit but until he does then I would advise the taking of LILY OF THE VALLEY (Convallaria Majalis), WHITE HOREHOUND (Marrubium Vulgare) and LUNGWORT (Sticta Pulmonaria) and they will penetrate the roots of the lungs, forcing the expansion so badly needed.

considered the expansion of the Arc, with the calf bones as Aquarius and the feet as Pisces, who treads all out into life, and links with the mysterious legend of Achilles, that still plays a part in every soul life.

The knees are the rising mount of Capricorn, where Sagittarius has shot the bow, that the Eye of the Bull would change in the unfolding blood link. So what Cadmus created, and then sowed by Lot in the Taurus Equinox, became the basic of today's problems; of which the seeds are in the marrow of the bones, and the results of the unfolding Fire which Noah set into operation. All recorded in the Holy Book, but minus its mythical understanding, now only covered by that of the orthodox, which has been the means of stoning man through the loss of wisdom that could have helped him to make a completion. Hence belated him with 12th house planets down in the labyrinth, that remained in the bones of the feet, only walking undigested material into the sod of the earth. Chaining the soul more and more to the magnetic rock, with roots running deeper and deeper into the centre of the earth.

attempt of the soul to get out of the waters he had created as Noah, in raising the Arc of the mind. The Fire in trying to drive the soul onwards had caused it to fall backwards, and like Dan had been bitten in the heel, that of Pisces, and fallen into the labyrinth and become attached to the magnetic rock. This links with Achilles a hero who was the cause of instilling into the maelstrom rebound, such a mystical reaction.

For Merope in bringing down of the Fires, in the beginning, had brought down the divine atomic wealth that held of the phosphorus illumination. That which the soul was to bring forth as the light of the illuminated mind. But it fell back into the lunar waters and became lost for the time being.

(See plate on page 4, cols. 4 & 5)

This was to become the glory of the morning Star Venus, elevated up to Vesta; thereby giving out light in the dark, as she would do when she became as the Pole Star, to raise up the Plane of Suffering.

This was the reality of the work being created by Merope in the depths, as a Cosmic unfoldment, where the planes were being lifted up to save the dying Seed. Yet all this fire had gone down into the marrow of the bones, and was the fire that the soul was ever drawing forth, but not aware of what it was receiving in its frantic bloodstream. That which became the spiritus air when brought forth by the inflowing Fire from the greater heights, and when plowed up by the Bull, the wealth of the mind. This was the greatest mystery of the depths, with Noah raising the Arc, and Cadmus striving to comprehend it.

The tower of Babel being the first Capricornian mount that was ever driven up in the soul's endeavours. So here lies the first active instalment into that marrow depth, but only the immediate growth, with the Fires brought down by Merope lying in wait to come forth, that when exposed to the air intention, becomes the spiritus air of the phosphorus. That which Vulcan's pitch-blende fires, could later on set into active creation. Thus bringing into birth the illumination of the mind, for in all being driven up to the heights would, in the continual revolving with the depths, become the illuminated mind. All blended up in comprehension becoming the much cherished perceptory awareness.

Yet with even this wealth, there is much more of an ancient depth lying in the coccyx of the tail, the spinal fluid of the rod, or axis of the soul growth. The mystery of the Egyptians wearing the tail of the animal around their waist, the glories of that depth becoming the herds of their solar plexus. Therefore these legends are not just myths, but true stories of souls who have struggled to raise the soul and the plane, to overcome the stagnancy of the mind growth.

Many legends refer to heroes, who struggled to master these depths, where they in their final reckoning could not get past the bone marrow that needed masterly extraction. The drawing forth of the leviathan out of the depths, whereby Moby Dick lost his leg by getting caught up in the rope of the harpoon. But the wise soul making polarity, unifying with the polarity wealth of outer Space. Then spiralling up into the heights as an ariel born mind, freed from all the trepidations of earth and its illusive joys.

One most major to our enquiry is that of Achilles and his heel, but ever a repeating failure. His mother, who knew that her only hope of expansion would come through the son's mind expansion, blossoming forth of her seed life, had dipped him while an infant in the water of the Styx to render him invulnerable. But the water failed to touch the heel by which she held him; yet really was a repetition of the curse that caused the first fall. Where it was announced:

"I will put enmity between thee and the woman, and between thy seed and her seed. Where it shall bruise

THE PRISON OF SELFISHNESS

NEVER having to labour nor toil, spin or weave, man merely gathered knowledge ignoring the creative expressions of beauty, sensitivity and artistry. Thus without the heart-beat of Love nor Life, he merely isolated himself in his own world barring his mind outlook from any thought but his own, the cold Castle Perilous, the soul held by the Saturn growth that kills its generative fires.

But every soul must awaken to the Fiery Point of Truth, born from the Heart, that which is brought into action by the birth of the Divine Purpose. (See page 16, col. 1).

thy head and thou shalt bruise his heel." (Gen. 3 v. 15).

Both struggling to master the disability that had stayed with them all through the Ages. This being the final initiation to the soul getting free from the cloying dregs of the flesh. And would be the last decanate of the Scorpio mastery, that the mind as the Sagittarian archer can spring into birth.

Then the Eye as the pituitary can open wide, and be the perceptory principle waiting to ride on the electrified mind. (See plate on page 5, cols. 1 & 2)

Merope's New Stream

THIS is the foundation that lies in the depths; now we want the ways and means to get free, by drawing up the leviathan and all the wealth, as unto the queen of the South. For it is a recognised fact by the man of true expansive intuition, that his wealth lays in those depths as the Jewels of Ophir.

Therefore the drawing out can only come by the refreshing of mind memory, which will set the blood life revolving in action that sets a unity into motivation. By natural mind movement, activity of attraction automatically takes place in the soul. Although there

The Mind Development Class

EACH Week on every Saturday at 5.30 p.m. G.M.T. Mrs. Spearman-Cook holds her Special Mind Development Class at the School's H.Q. A special Subject is concentrated upon for about 40 minutes and then each sitter is individually helped to interpret and understand his or her findings. Any readers can join; those nearby can make application to attend each week, and those too far away can send in their names and link in each week at the time stated, their names being entered in a Special Book for this purpose. The subjects for concentration are:

Mar. 5th	Phosphorus Fire	April 2nd	Merope's Stream
Mar. 12th	The Spider's Web	April 9th	Meninges
Mar. 19th	Iris	April 16th	The White Bat
Mar. 26th	Scarabeus	April 23rd	The Styx

who had a fount deeper than all, hence claimed by the Hierarchs as the means and wherewithal to unify the Race.

Blend man up in the Age of Relativity,*2 and bring them safely up out of the pit they were so deeply enmeshed in.

Thus she set Laws by the way of Occult unfoldment in a little School of new life. Drawing out the wealth of her bones and linking them with Atomic life, she brought new life and new breath to the world. For every soul was Cancer ridden through the incestuous luna desires. More and more infected into matter by the financial sharks who kept the soul dancing on the puppet string of broadcasted advertisement desires. With the drug sharks waiting patiently to catch man in the antidote net, which the medicos ever promptly suggested.

Therefore the only way to get out of this maze, was for the higher Powers to not just enter into matter, but become a living life within the soul, and command his atomic structure. So the Seeds of the brain set into operation by Jacob, now became living cells of life domination.

For it is the cells of the brain that command the soul action; so those that drew their life blood from the upper Constellatory Forces, became alive and the means of those great Powers making entry and commanding the atomic wealth lost in the soul structure.

It only needed one soul to be the Scapegoat for the Laws to be set, drawing down the Cosmic Rays, whether the Scientist agrees or not. Hence Merope raised up Pluto out of the waters and lifted the God off the cross. Set him up as the Flame, the royal Christos life on the risen Arc. But not as Noah, just a little way up the Sine, but rose the Arc right up to the heights as the Central Sun, to match her polarity Fount.*3

*2 The present Aquarian Equinox commenced in the 1880's and will last for 2,160 years. The polarity to Aquarius is Leo, which commenced in or about 11,500 B.C. What took place then will have to be met now as will all that sown in the years that followed. For man by reaching Aquarius has met the turn-round and will start the homeward journey, retracing his steps, and as he does so he will meet the effect of the actions of those Equinoxes and their activities. The whole period is known as the Solar Year.

*3 The Fount was the first beginning of the Baptismal Waters, that gave to man his first Seed of manhood. But it ever remained with Woman as her Seed down in the depths. Hence it is the seed base for all human life as the soul received of the Fire Element for the first time. This must be retrieved and raised back up to become as the Light of the Void.

Now all was set for the marrow of the bones, where she could draw forth of wisdom, that when united with the heights, would open the minds of many. But also would lift the planes and set the spin up from out of the Cancer waters. No argument, the Gods themselves awakened in every soul's mind would direct every individual creature in its now questing drive, seeking for new life.

Every soul seeking the holy Grail, the quest of new life.

For the dead stones of religion had been broken up, and the medical world were killing themselves by the many fopars they were making. Man was awakening by Merope's action, even though they were not aware of it. But in their inner depths crying out for a greater unfolding.

The Union of Heights and Depths

THE means of uniting their depths with their heights was the greatest problem. For to tell a soul to draw forth the marrow of the bones as atomic wealth, and unite with the heights, then bring forth of genius, was utterly out of the question. This is where the gods now risen could direct a soul if they were conscious of this mighty truth. For once known, ever a state of awareness, if not as a conscious belief. Thus the Gods could get their mind directed by the now inflowing expansive waters, especially where the wisdom became their curriculum in a questing belief.

Like Cadmus, Zeus took off his sister, his negative state, which he sought after and became caught by the unfolding move. But look what could be done, if the soul saw the rhyme and reason, and sought the possible creation. The powers drawn up from the depths of the legs by the activity of the Twins, then raised up to the burning bush to catch it alight, and become;

"The dominion over the works of thy hands, which thou put under his feet." (Psm. 8 v. 6).

(See the back page plate)

Thus the jewels of Ophir brought forth by the queen of the South, as the seed pearls from the depths of the ocean. To become the EL-bow powers of her pen, marking the archives of TIME with the living WORD. Thus the fire in the bones of her hands, now her creative portion.

Merope's Faith & Belief

HENCE Merope*4 becoming awakened to these facts, knew she must set the problem by setting up the prototype, and the way that all could master. Therefore set her course by mind belief, and like Job, began to mentally draw up her depths, ever seeking on a higher course of unfolding life. Thus by Occult investigation, knowing of the many incidencies and efforts that had passed before her, gaining wisdom and conscious understanding that rose her mind to the heights, she drew out of her depths, wealth by mind belief.

Everything being by belief, for that is mind construction not allowing form to blind the eye, which could cause the soul to become rock bound.

So on went Merope rising higher and higher, until she knew she had gathered all up to the heights. Then her real work began of deciphering of these truths. Until now she had not questioned regarding of the bones, now she sought of the depths of why and wherefore, and how did it take place. It became such a part of her, that she automatically lived it.

Therefore her mind rose on what she believed, and it carried her up by frequency of *4 When the Holy Fires descended, they could only naturally come down one prepared channel, and this was the Channel of the Goddess Merope of the plane of Venus. She it was who invoked it down to the Matriarchate beings. Now naturally she would have to be on Earth at the polarity age of Aquarius so that she could once more be the means by which the Fires descended, replenishing the empty water-pot of the male-fire. This time Merope as Gladys Spearman-Cook is destined to build the plane of Universal mind. See the articles on Merope and the Royal Eagle of Scorpio in the November, December and January issues.

belief, that eventually her sensitivity organisation rose to perceptory belief.

This is but a cursory statement, for many other deeper factors were a part of the picture. The discarding of those states that she knew impeded the way, calling up the hidden fires in the bones that held her wealth from the past. Wealth that was known to man in those early days, owing to a state of necessity, and which they drew down from the starry heights, but never brought to anymore than mere magnetic states. Those that now must be brought to mind light through experience over time, and now the time of relativity that can bring unification. Otherwise, these fires merely remained in the capillary veins of the legs, and started to turn gangrenous.

Thus ever clinging to the Great Master who was guiding her, and in whom she had full confidence, they became the guiding factors of her mind. For when a soul drives for truth, aiming for the spirit, their purpose becomes their controlling factor, even if it takes lives. Thus Merope placed her hand in the hand of the Great Flame, and was quite prepared to be the Scapegoat that these many ways could be revealed and made "strait," that all could follow. Then the world with its many planes could rise up, and become lifted up out of their slough of despondency.

So by mind belief, she drew all her fiery wealth up out of her bones into her blood life, and a leg that had been the bane of her life with ulcer and varicose vein difficulty, now became righted, and she knew the theory was true.

Others had the courage to follow under her guiding care, and found the same taking place, with legs righting themselves as never known before. This brought much expansion into birth, especially in Merope herself. So the next thing was the holding tight to the Gods she had given birth to, that they could guide her in the unfolding wisdom.

Thus she found that much was surging through her mind, which she knew was the polarity to the fire drawn up out of her bones, and although as mind light, new-born wealth coming down from the heights, for her now to decipher and set into motion. Thus a way was set where the inflowing generative waters of every soul, would be infused with the heavenly Fires from the heights, a re-bound cycle on a greater scale, of what was brought down at the beginning of time. Thus infusing man with such fire, would raise their atomic fires in their depth, stirring man into action as he received of the Cosmic Rays, infused with the new wisdom life that Merope was bringing into birth. Then with Merope spreading her pen wealth far and wide through the Occult Gazette, man would be acquainted and saturated with the freedom of the new born wisdom.

Vulcan's Pitch-Blende

THEREFORE, as Merope sought into the field of Occult growth, of which she held the sole key, she set the way from the Fount to the Central Sun. Even calling out Vulcan's*5 fiery strokes to put the pitch-blende of staying life, to the fiery inflow of the generative waters. The unifying principle of Divine Effulgence, the driving force of unification, which was a part of the outer-world revelation, to those fires drawn up from her depths.

*5 Vulcan is the Comet of FIRE which was first seen visually by those in Japan. Readers are requested to read the article The Herald of Vulcan in the December issue.

Having gained so much in her furtive seeking, she set down to seeking into those many ways of wisdom, that could bring expansion to every mother's son. For as she saw the depths of a creation, she knew it had its polarity possibility, but what was it as light. But furthermore, how could she expand and reach up to those heights, and bring back what she wanted to know?

Here again faith through her now perceptory principle which she had gained through those risen fires, would carry her right up to the polarity heights from whence she derived the fires. Then through her acquired super-sensitivity, would she unfold the unified heights and depths, that the Brahmic thread which she had been winding up in her many states of continuity, would reveal the secret of those lives. Then she could unify and bring forth the solution as mind light, that the Cosmic Lords could render as wealth unto all souls seeking of wisdom and truth.

For there was one thing she had learnt through these risen fires, that Vulcan, the polarity to their phosphorus inner depths, was the God of Fire with the pitch-blende mystery, that binds up the unbalanced states of man. The divine conscious reality that lifts up the planes, when expressed through a Scapegoat.

For he was the atomic spark that created the nucleus infusion. That which blends and binds up all states into perfection. That which comes from the centre of Divinity, and is that untouchable Divine Essence that is unpervertable, that gives to man the healing quality of binding him up into unity. Hence the Yod of God when he can draw those fires up to his heights, that through the seventh, the herse waters could flow.

the serpent's teeth in the earth of himself. As this would be a part of the fires left in the bones of every soul.

So Merope with her mind now electrified and her dancing waters through what she had realised, she drove up to the heights, in polarity belief to her bone structure. That she could draw out of her unified heights and depths wisdom of an amazing nature. Therefore, what could the heights produce as the polarity to the wisdom she already knew, as simple as it may be.

Hence, Merope now prepared a meal for the whole world to sup, for she knew that if she sent it up to the Gods in the Cosmic heights, the whole of the world would be renewed by her glorified meal. So she set the electrical current fully aglow that a sumptuous meal of roast "heart" could be prepared. Where every man would be truly fed upon the ambrosia of the gods. That every man would be touched with Love, something most of them had forgotten.

Therefore as she prepared and cooked the fare, her difficulty was in obtaining help that would assist her in her preparation. For man seemed so devoid of any understanding of the true purpose of love, where honour, truth and simple simplicity, would carry man up to the heights. Where he too could live on mount Olympus as a god-born being. Where man could learn the true meaning of divine Compassion, born out of the bleeding heart.

Yet also learn that genius, only brought out as magician states, must rise up as risen mind wealth, that their gods could, by revolutionary rebirth with the Gods in the heights, send down to the earth greater wisdom.

To the majority, all this is imagination that has been forgotten long ago, yet little do they know and understand, that

THE PRISON OF MIND IDEA

NO prison is so secure and barred than the prison of mind spun by self-will and intent, which so paralyses momentum that solidity is spun into shapes, forms unrecognisable unto their creator. "For solid growth is an over-rated depth created by the beast that has refused to let go of the soul, that it could fledge its mighty unfolding." (See text on page 3, col. 2 and page 11, col. 3).

THE BATTLE OF THE ARIES SUN-GOD

THE magnetic states had risen up as the rising of the leviathan, which resulted in him eating up his male elements, in his Cancer fears," and not going forth as the Solar Warrior determined to establish his spermated consciousness as a practical creation, the fruits of his weaving feminine principle. (See text on page 16, col. 1 and page 11, col. 4).

The Bleeding Heart

ALL this Merope realised as she drew the fires up out of her bones; but furthermore, that woman by the divine marriage with the Flame, could become the direct recipient of the Yod of God. Hence the message of the Raymonde Ballet, where the virgin was married up to the heights. Therefore Cadmus did not pass without leaving a great message, when he planted belief is all that man consists of. And would be his conveyance in the world of spirit, to a greater purpose of becoming. For only by belief and faith, could soul move from one plane to another, or even be a spirit at all in the world of Spirit.

Consciousness is a creational construction born out of faith and belief, bringing into birth the mind body.

So by this alone, Merope was giving to man his first royal meal of the risen heights, whereby the risen wisdom of the marrow of the bones, as intended in the beginning, was the unified Seed as the blossomed Norm, that of the seventh Chakra. That which once left the heights as a Seed born from the Father's Sperm; that which came down to the depths when Brahma came forth out of Himself once again. Thus took on of form, and eventually became of a beast, that ate up everything it received.

norm begins to radiate with light. Man with the Christed mind, the radiance of the sperming mind, and woman as the risen Mary, giving forth of electrified love. Souls god born, now radiating with immortality, the ambrosia of the gods now drawn down from the heights by Merope's meal gathered up from the depths. From the Fount of her once created purpose, where she brought down of the Royal Fire, the holy Seed of Divinity. That which set Heliopolis alight when Achilles fell back on his heel.

radiating mind light. No longer are they by soul direction looking into the waters of illusion, but by the Law of Rebirth looking upwards into the heights as the Waters of Truth.

It is only a matter of TIME, until every soul will slowly awaken and gyrate to the planet of Vesta, the Planet of sublime LOVE, the heart purpose achieved; thus the Divine LOVE of the Mother Principle, now the Planet of Perfection. Where a new world is slowly moving into life, from the prepared "Meal" of Merope.

Merope's Meal of "Roast Heart"

MAN as he now stands, is only on the beginning of change, where he will awaken from the cold dark waters of the luna depths, where he has been sleeping. To wake up to the real truth of life, and sup of the ambrosia of the Gods. Wealth he refuted long ago as he took to the food of the depths. Thus hardened his bones and solidified his flesh, losing the glories of the mind. The heart purpose, which it was his attribute to gain, down in the Abyss of experience, turned out to be a long term of Babylon, a prison of worldliness. With Eve ever trudging behind him, lost to her true purpose of life. Now Merope by her struggles and the artifices of the Gods, has so set the current of life, as to bring man back to his heights.

All is a matter of mind unfoldment, where they learn of true belief, and not textbook repetition. Man creating from a heart purpose, bringing up the wealth from his depths, ever setting the nagas dancing, with the le Ros glory of rebirth. Driving the passions up to the heights from a heart purpose.

For unless everything is done from the creative centre, all is of a mind craft that results in a self-motive purpose. Whereas the heart is an established creation, struggled for by the soul and laboured for by self-denial, that every revolution radiates a purpose born by sweat and blood.

This is a story that few understand, for it goes with the ever struggling soul, unconscious to its conscious purpose where it is building up the light of the mind, the heart beat of its hope of the future.

For by the conscious mind the soul lives, by the subconscious it secretly hopes to become. For by this it gyrates up to the heights when it leaves the world of matter, and stands as it is on the planes of light. The two sides of the soul that are ever warring against each other, to find the answer to life; but now by the way that Merope has set the LAW, the greater mind can win the way, once man seeks of the wisdom in the depths, that now is available to all.

For every soul is being born anew, by the wisdom placed by religion into an erroneous understanding, now placed into its right prospective. Not a God upon a cross, but man himself passing through initiation, that he could raise the Pluto wealth up out of the depths to become the radiating wealth of his mind.

The mount as a flaming altar, where he look up towards the heavens; not afraid to call upon the Heavenly Father as the giver forth of Eucharistical Life. Every man his own priest, where he meets his own Nathan.

THE WELL OF TRUTH

ONCE again Man is being fed with the Ambrosia of the Gods, so that he can awaken and give back to the Heights all the knowledge and experience that he has gained. But first he must seek the well of truth so that he can bury all those states that he awakens to as being needful of change and rebirth. (See text on page 13, col. 2).

The Rebirth of Achilles

BY all this, Merope had risen up the soul, and resurrected the frailty of Achilles; for she had so raised the planes by her wisdom, and risen the Arc right up to the heights, that the whole world was now a mount Olympus. For was not every meninges alight with gods seeking to retrieve their soul life.

(See plate in cols. 4 & 5)

So she went on giving them of their meal, until some of them awakened, and found their Norm as the flowering pineal, alight with glowing wisdom. A state of oneness coming into birth, as Achilles found the end of his heel was no longer being bruised by the seed of woman, but fully blended in true understanding and heart purpose. That he could now raise her up by his exhilarated passions, without falling backwards.

That her head would now also be set alight, as prepared by the meal of Merope, for many a female was yearning for expansion, to bring forth her long lost seed. For the phosphorus as illumination which she brought down at the beginning of time, was jammed down and lost in the depths of their bones. If retrieved by her making effort, especially as she too would be touched off by Vulcans fires in her hormone rebirth, she could get illumination to her heights, that the Pluto rebirth could come forth.

Therefore as this meal of heart wisdom is eaten many could blossom into realisation, and the gods step forth as the

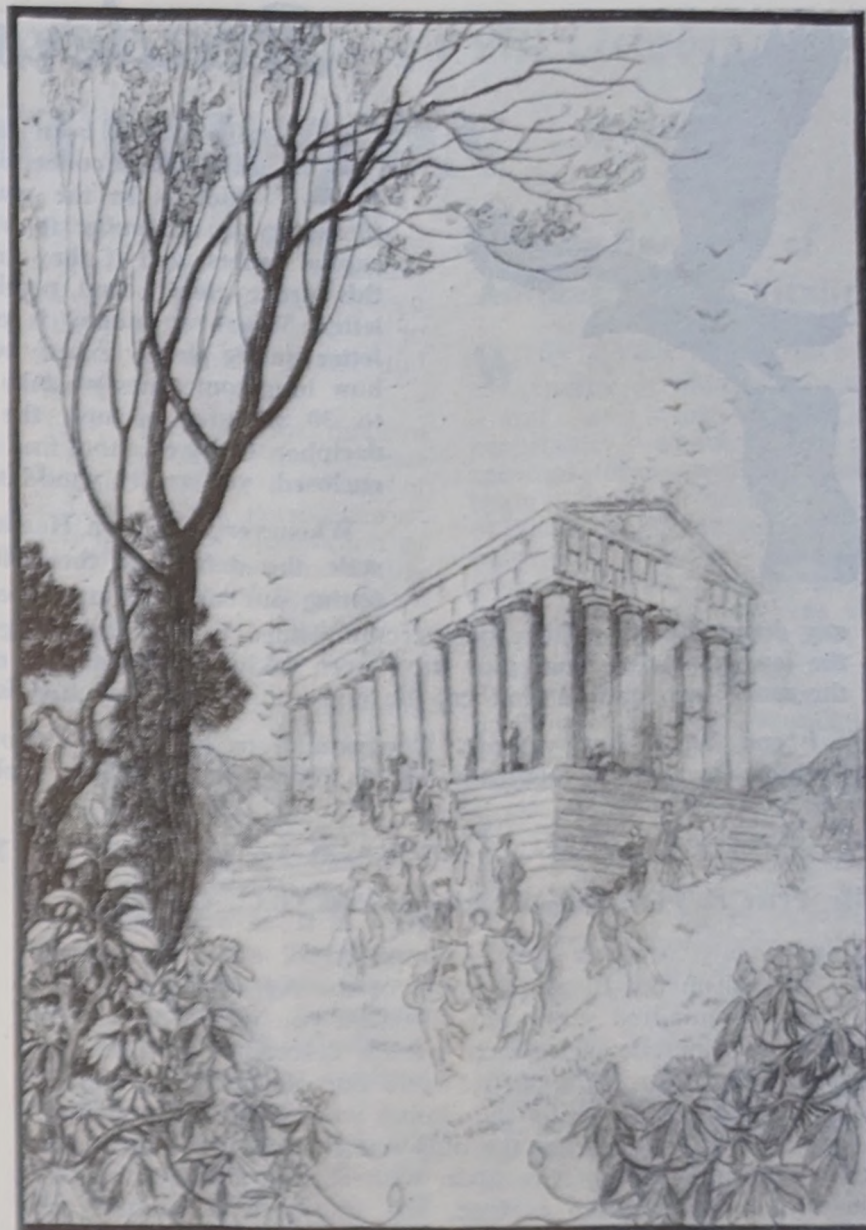

Now she had set this once again and fed the world with a tankard of foaming brew that gave unto every man the ambrosia to rise up to the heights. The cup of life of foaming wine, treaded and brewed by every soul, that they could now rise up and find the wealth that came from TIME and understanding.

(See the plate above)

For the Fires of the heavens were descending down to the depths from the heavenly heights, for the Flame, the Great Lord of the raised up Arc, the Waters of profound Life, was the Beneficiary now to all men, the Generating Principle of rebirth. Thereby, every man and maid who would seek of their depths, and would bring forth the marrow of their bones by mind wisdom raised up by exhilarated passion, would be carried up to the heights, by the Waters of rebirth.

No longer the waters of desire, but the waters of the risen mind, fired and activated by the true purpose of life. For as Merope drew up the fiery molecules from the heights, all touched by the depths, the fiery waters from pitche-blende sparks of Vulcan caused them to break forth into fiery illumination as they were brought forth to the heights.

For the Spiritus air and fiery wealth that was lost long ago, was now as a fiery dragon, that once brought forth, would sweep the whole of the soul with fiery activated life. Every Chakra and naga alight with electrical current set into action by Merope. For the whole world was now being fed with Cosmic Waters, that set EVERY soul dancing with

THE GLORIES OF MOUNT OLYMPUS

... the true purpose of Love where honour, truth and simple simplicity, would carry man up to the Heights, where he too could live on mount Olympus as a god-born being. Where man could learn the meaning of divine Compassion born out of the bleeding heart." (See text on page 3, col. 1 and page 13, col. 1).

The inner depths of the heart that points the finger and points the way, to find the mystery of Cadmus. The Gemini mind that is always leading the soul in the logical direction only, now unified by struggle and understanding, into a oneness of belief.

Yet he all truly set to reach right up to the heights as a soul born of the heavenly expansion. For wealth in abundance is now permeating all, and once he can catch alight from a heart purpose, will he be fed by his own gods, to find himself born of immortal life from the Gods of the Heights unifying with his struggles.

All is so near, yet so far, it lies in the lap of the gods, by the soul turning to the heavenly wisdom and finding the real answer to life. For the moment this may seem far fetched and long lost to the worldly man, but the day WAS born when Merope set the meal of "roast heart," as sumptuous as it could be. The LAW now set for unified purpose, leading every man to those heights. None can escape it, it is the way by the Law of Assumption, leading every soul to the way of redemption, unconscious to himself.

The very air that he is breathing is full of Cosmic Truth, sent up by Merope with the whole way set and garnished from the Fount to the Central Sun. The way set for the Solar Year to bring Utopia into birth, where a world of God-life as was intended, now to blossom forth. Every particle of the soul now atomised and radiating with electrified life, as the outcome of the struggle of the Abyss, brought to its royal purpose. Leo not as the heartless creation, but the heart born purpose as the Sacred Heart of the Star of Regulus.

All regulated under the belief of creative life, each soul a true craftsman; which unless they created with a purpose, they failed to live and bring forth, therefore, no creative steps in the depths.

This is what Merope set into motion, every man becoming imbued with a true creative purpose. Turning from self to a self-less state of rendering his dues unto the gods, that he was able to forge his rights to gyrate to the heights as a god-born soul of immortal life. For this was the mystery of the bones, that solidified and lost long ago as a spirit soul, and of which every man is now seeking.

For every man is a Cadmus, seeking through Europa to find expansion of the heart-born mind. Not just a mind of worldliness, but a mind of true creative purpose that gives him the anointed purpose of the radiating NORM. The Seed of soul-life, now the radiating pomegranate of the flowering Lotus, as the Flame of the heaven born mind.

So what Merope set up as the royal meal, a golden Dragon to the heights, would now come forth as a little quail for every man to begin the road of rebirth to the heights. Back and forth in every spring rebirth to partake of the meal that Merope has set in the Cosmic heights; but could be of Timelessness to the man, who made a REAL struggle.

THUS BY THE ELECTRIFIED CURRENT OF HERE AND NOW, COULD SWEEP THE BOARD OVER-NIGHT, AND FIND THE MORN A RADIANT REBIRTH FROM HIS NIGHT OF DARKNESS.

Readers' Letters

A GAIN I have been asked by the staff to appeal to all Readers concerning the writing of their letters, which is in the main appalling. Will all readers please try to remember to write their name and address in capital letters, and if they are sending an order to set out this order clearly and precisely at the beginning of the letter. Wherever money is enclosed please commence the letter stating clearly exactly what is wanted. If you all knew how long sometimes we take with only one letter, often 20 to 30 minutes because the writing is so impossible to decipher, and we cannot find out what to do with the money enclosed, you really would start to help us.

Whenever there is a Healing Case will all readers please state the details of their ill-health clearly and precisely, setting out any treatment they have been given by doctors, any drugs that they have been recommended to take, any drugs that they are in fact taking, the length of time that they have been taking them and the effect such has had. Obviously the more information that can be given the better and happier we shall all be.

I end on a happy note. Congratulations to Reader Podovinilsoff, for his stand against Catholicism and the acuteness of his replies to the priest. Well Done.

O.G. Versus R.C.

Mr. Peter E. Podovinilsoff, Sclocan Park, B.C., Canada.

I am truly amazed how you survived after the article "Papalism the Black Scorpion of the Ages" was sent out. If it was a hundred years ago no doubt you would have been burned as a heretic or a witch. I am a descendant of a sect in Russia and I hear many stories from our old people how their ancestors were tortured by the church when they were breaking away from it and you are the only one in the English language that has come out in the open with it, and I know that all that you have written is true, and the horrible pictures of torture made shivers go through my spine.

Our ancestry tell us how they were tied to posts with chains and left there to rot until moss has grown over their entire body and were eaten to death by worms and lice. Strips of flesh and skin were cut off in laces from their bodies and many other horrible tortures, starving, flogging with thorns, pulling out finger nails and other means.

This summer a monk of St. John the Baptist visited me and during our talks he did not approve of my reading the Occult Gazette and other books including the Qahoaaspe Bible, and suggested that I burn them up at once including the Occult Gazette with its article Papalism the Black Scorpion of the Ages, which I have let him read himself and a couple of university students who were also visiting together. I told them if they could find any untruth or bad material there and point it out and send it to the Editor with his and two other signatures, I will be ready to burn the Gazette. He started backing up. Then I told him I will play fair, if he empties his books out of his suitcase into the fire I will burn my books and bible together with the Occult Gazettes as well. He refused and we became friends again after a lengthy talk through the night until dawn. And we had a good breakfast and dinner together later in the day. But that particular Gazette was missing after he left, so he might have taken it to the Peace Movement group of university students and graduates or finally to the bishop.

If the writer writes in the Editor will send him another of the Gazettes free, for his stalwart defence of the Gazette. Editor.

Mrs. Irene Herd, Glasgow.

Thank you very much indeed for the O.G.s received up to date. It takes time to really grasp the teachings and I read some articles over and over again—but what really interests and uplifts is having the experience or Vision first and then finding the clarification in one of the Gazettes—I never know which one or where to look.

Thanking you again. The Black mass horrified me—I just had to throw it off and it took days—to think such wickedness is deliberately organised by those who profess to be servants of the Great White Spirit is appalling—strangely enough I thought of you often during that period (It must have been so) for my prayer to God was to Bless You and spare you to continue the wonderful work through your Mediumship—I did not know anything of the B.M.

Oh, before I forget—on New Year's Morning while still in bed, through the wall opposite and fairly high up, came the O.G. someone was waving it. I took it for a Greeting and said thank you, thank you, Bless You. I also chuckled, it was so merry!

I am learning slowly through my efforts—well, may He Bless You and your group each day, and may you be loved and strengthened each day—and a Happy New Year to you all.

Mrs. F. E. Hein, Florida, U.S.A.

We thank you and appreciate all your efforts on our behalf, and revealing to us the great knowledge and understanding for which we asked our Father, and now it is being granted.

Yes it is "Out of this world," and so happy to be one of your followers. I know I am a spiritual sign as I just love Spiritual Teachings, but can't find many interested, I am intensely interested, seeking and seeking. So I am looking forward with great joy to your Occult Gazette, and to your book The Wisdom of Diet with the use of Herbs. I am practically a fruit and vegetarian. I think your book will be the answer to completeness.

Again I thank you, gratitude for your tremendous knowledge you are releasing to us all.

Yes we must all call to the Great Central Sun that the Plan of Our Father for planet Earth may be fulfilled in all its glory and the Aquarian Age come in with the Pot filled.

Mrs. Marion Smith, Bute, Scotland.

My mind travels from Rothesay Bay to Hyde Park Corner. After that I get lost, but there I see you and your Lord of the Flame, and I feel closer to my God than I have ever been in all my life. Never have I been so wise, thanks to the O.G. I know that every word you print will come to pass.

My love goes out to Ra-Men-Ra when he used to tell me in the old days, "Read it over and over and it will come to you." How right he was; true I am not perfect but when I survey my fellow men I treasure the O.G.

Please Merope tell me will the world be told just who you are? If so what a shock awaits them. Merope you must find life on this earth very trying, daily I think of you—and please forgive me if I tell you that your small picture as a little girl is much like me, even my husband remarked on it. There I fear ends the

★ — Health Improvements — ★

Miss Louise M. Jeffreys, N.S.W., Australia.

I am blessed with a clean healthy body which I value very much and have always had a good herbalist to advise me, but last year I picked up various "Wogs" which were raging, and I got into the hands of doctors who treated me with drugs which I had never taken previously and they gave me no hope of a cure.

Fortunately I woke up, and went to a Natural Health Centre for 3 weeks and with a diet of fruit and fruit drinks and then salads I think I have eliminated the poison from my system and am treating myself at home.

I am very grateful for the O.G., and the reading it contains. You have certainly gone miles since your first year.

E. Stanley Brown, Forest Hill, S.E.23.

As you mention in your letter I do pass on the Word to my friends and you will notice the interest of some of them by the approach made to you when the Essenes have noticed for display in the right type of journals.

If Mrs. Spearman-Cook can spare me a short time—on a Thursday afternoon—I would be very grateful for her advice on my general health condition. I am not a sick person and my food is a non-meat one, but I would appreciate any suggestion the Lord Maitreya may wish to give, as I wish to keep my body healthy in order to pursue my work. (Particularly in occult matters).

"Out of this World"

likeness for I could not hope to cross your shadow though I try to follow you close to the word. I wonder will the world celebrate the birth of Christ in 1966 in Mass murder? Somehow I think most will be pleased with Barrabas.

We had a fresh peach salad and I envied no man. There is no need for me to say to you "May God bless you." That is obvious, you are a special lady for a special job. Supreme among women. One thing I do think is that you should write your life story for in the end the world will want to know it (I certainly do).

There was a time when I was certain we would move to London and we would open a Healing Sanctuary, but like you were let down so also were we. My husband is a very wonderful Healer.

Now I leave you, often I hope you will get on to television that I could have you all to myself.

Mr. R. Hebert, Texas, U.S.A.

Thank you for reminding me of the expiration of my subscription to the Occult Gazette. Rest assured that I do not want to miss a copy now or at any future time. I eagerly anticipate each new issue, in order to acquaint myself with the latest developments, cosmically or otherwise. Several years ago, when first making the acquaintance of the O.G., I sensed that its leader was not only a brilliant personage, but also that she was in contact with a very high source. However, I must confess that I little dreamed that I would now be reading the things that are now coming forth. Perhaps it is because I have been so weary of the ways of people, that now that a 'new birth' is in the offing, I find it rather difficult to reconcile. How this shall be brought about will certainly be well worth watching. I am now in my 63rd year, and when one has buffeted so much as I have from early childhood, witnessed so much of man's shortcomings, corruption, lust and constantly taking advantage of the other person, to now be told that all of this is over with, leaves me at somewhat of a loss to express exactly just what I feel.

It appears to be so futile to say merely "Thank You," for even I in my little way, can only faintly grasp just what the tremendous significance of this means... May I say in closing; ALL BLESSINGS TO YOUR GREAT MAJESTIC LEADER FOR HER COURAGE, INDOMITABLE WILL AND PERSEVERANCE.

Mrs. Carson, N. Ireland.

I thank you for the Gazettes and 2 very nice letters. I have just read one of them, and I must say I think it is wonderful. My people do not think like me, but I love to learn more of the Cosmic and Universal Truth.

Mr. R. Hetherington, Toronto, Canada.

Can you tell me anything on Vampire Elementals and Low Souls whose Soul Light is burned low? The Omnipotent Light of the Soul in the evolved, since their Roots are deep, the Eternal Light. These are greatly sought after by the Lost. The problem is, (They want the gift of Life, and are willing to crucify the one who gives it to them).

Miss Audrey M. Hellawell, Pagham Beach, Bognor, Sussex.

I have just come across a copy of your Occult Gazette, and am most fascinated by every page of it. I have therefore given an order for future copies with my local newsagent but wonder if it is possible to procure back numbers of September, October and November from you?

Mrs. L. Erion, Ohio, U.S.A.

First I must wish you and our beloved leader Mrs. Spearman-Cook to have a very wonderful year in 1966. I find much in the Occult Gazette, and all its contents food for soul and body. Nowhere else have I found such confirmation my soul and mind need on the spiritual pathway.

May God bless and reward you abundantly.

THE SEVENFOLD CONSTITUTION Part 3

This is the third and concluding part of a lecture "The Sevenfold Constitution" of the Astrological Series. The previous two parts of which were published in August and September 1965 Gazettes, both of which are still available each priced 2/6, postage paid.

THE Spirit is the fountain and Spring of the divine streams of wisdom, knowledge, light, life, might, substance and thought, which flow through the sevenfold channel of human nature, consciousness, and sub-consciousness, to their outlet in the estuary of the terrestrial body: this is, if it can percolate through; or it goes down into hades, because it has been brought so low by what the body loves and desires.

Spirit, the Essence of Life

THE Spirit is not merely attached to God; it is God as a ray of light is the Sun or a branch of a tree is the tree. God in man, man in God; RA-MAN-RA. God in the creature, in the stone, in the atom, in the grasses, trees and herbs; in the animal, bird, fish, insect, in man. God all and in all, in Whom all things consist, in Whom you and we live and move and have our being.

Spirit—the Spirit of God—is the ever-flowing Essence of Matter, Force and Motion, the creative energy and the basis and substance of all creature-forms. As the Eternal Parent, God-Jehovah is Androgynous in His creative fecundity—the Father-Mother in One, so the Cosmos is Androgynous, a dual Being, solar and stellar; and man is a dual being likewise, soul and body, Ish and ishta.

Only after a period did man become divided for fecundative reasons, and "Woman had her beginning." This does not mean the feminine gender; it means the Feminine Principle within the man: man gave birth to lower desires instead of keeping himself intact and remaining as God-desires. Man ceased to be androgynous in the incarnate state; but in cosmical state, the androgynous or hermaphroditism of man, as of all creatures, still continues, and is an eternal fact.

In Spirit, you become androgynous; you no longer are dual; because you are having no attractions of the earthy states, unless you are so entirely earth-bound that you have never lost your body and are practically walking the earth in a calcified spirit.

The children of your world marry, and are given in marriage; but they that shall be accounted worthy to obtain that world, and the resurrection from the dead, neither marry nor are given in marriage, (unless for some specific work, and "THEN" have risk of falling again), neither can they die any more; for they are equal unto the angels, and are the children of God, being the children of the resurrection. (You have given birth to spirit children and they are spiritual atoms within you, and not coarse physical atoms).

Man cosmically is du-sexed, male and female in one. The sexhood of the creatures of your world is a factitious state, that supervened for procreative reasons; but it is of small moment in the cosmical aspect, in which the microcosm is viewed in his cosmical state. The Almighty and Eternal God, the Manu and Proto-Procreator, is male and female in One; while man, the mediative procreator, is male and female in One. And it is in the fifth house that affections—the basis of all unity,—are controlled and affected. It is here that personal to impersonal is ground down; and here that passion becomes Compassion.

You can only mediate with the Higher Powers when you can bring all your resources to one pinnacle point.

The Androgynous Birth

THE image of God is carried down in its perpetual and universal androgynous along the whole descending line of evolution, to the base or the earth, which is male and female. In most creatures the androgynous has been temporarily broken and sexes divided. The male is the body, and the female is the soul of the cosmical microcosm, Mars and Venus. This is a cosmical Truth and one of serious physiological importance. It shows how momentous a matter "MARRIAGE" really is.

Only if you carry out the functions of marriage, as man has made them, in pure love, can it possibly be a god-state and be nearer to "normal." Then a time will come when these souls will be released and then they will be taught to try and bring the sacrament of marriage within. It is when a soul begins to seek as an initiate that this is the real true fundamental point he will have to face. Is he going to become androgynous born? If not, he really only remains as a psychic.

How true were the words of Adam in the allegory, and Adam said,

"This is now bone of my bones, and flesh of my flesh: she shall be called woman (Ishta—Isis) because she was taken out of man. Therefore shall man leave his father and his mother and shall cleave unto his wife; and they shall be one flesh."

Now this has nothing whatever to do with your outer families; it relates to your own inner family. It is the father and mother state of yourself bringing into birth the new particles or new relations in yourself: the new relations take over the father and mother state; he leaves the old state of himself and embraces the new birth.

This became dual in itself, as all work by duality; so that Martha and Mary came forth, Nephthys and Isis. One the mother, the other the nurse. (As you unfold you discard your old states, which means—discarding the father and mother state of self and ever cleaving to the wife giving you generation within, the feminine principle within. And this is what most of you will not do;—come away from old states. Once you can leave behind the father and mother state of yourself—the old state—then you are ever remaining young and bringing the feminine principle up to her purity, by bringing forth of new thought, new life. That can be done only by the studying of the Word.

So when you can perceive that androgynous or the refining of the diet is right, you are going to discard your old father and mother and you and your wife are going to generate of pure spiritual children. When woman came forth from man in the fifth rib, it was his mind extension, hypotenuse of the 5th, from liver metabolism and the spirit body, and he brought forth the lower desire instead of the higher. It is in the liver that the higher blends with the lower and enters the bloodstream.

The cosmical import of Paul on this is "He that loveth his wife loveth himself, for no man ever yet hated his own flesh; but nourisheth and cherisheth it (even as the Lord the Church; for we are members of his body of His flesh and of His bones). For this cause shall a man leave his father and mother, and shall be joined unto his wife, and they two shall be one flesh." (That is, discarding the old states and ever nourishing the Word so that Isis can ever bring forth the Divine spiritual children in his midst).

The Quality States

THUS the male is the body, the female the soul; the male is the Solar, the female the Planetary; the male is the objective, the female the subjective; the male the positive, the female the negative. By this dual, androgynous constitution, which extends to every functional part of the cosmical organisation, alone can the creative and fecundative elements correlate and operate in their joint functions. By this only can the forces of nature energise, and the smallest motions of bodies occur, down to the smallest atom and up to the loftiest of the Gods and Angels.

This correlation of dualism is the principle that affects every movement; the basis of the Laws of the Persistence of Force; of the Conservation of Energy and the Indestructibility of Matter; and of Segregation, Equilibrium and Dissolution. It operates in all the simplest motions of bodies, as in the most complex concatenations of spheres; in the organic processes of fecundity, as in the evolution of Planets from the nebular spheroids.

It operates in this continual state of interblending in everything there is. It is only man who has the power—not to interblend—because he is the manifesting instrument upon the earth of the Godhead. He has the power to continue evolution, or deter it.

In the revolution of the sidereal heavens, as in the circulation of the blood, or the motions of the brain cells. The puff of wind that separates the dead leaves of autumn from the still living green ones; the forces that produce the beautiful forms of crystallisation on the window pane by actions of frost and that create the snowflake in the myriad shapes and geometrical forms. All these forces, motions and processes arise from the co-ordination of these two primary elements in a multiplicity of correlations, which is denominated male and female.

The Godhead blending with the nature powers of earth: man has the power not to do so while in continual states of "abnormalism"; he also has the power to come away from the seduced state he has brought upon himself and thus become spirit-born and born one-with-God.

From this Divine Being Himself down to the minutest element in the atom, it is by androgynous correlation, male and female dualism, that existence and being are sustained. This may be a concept difficult of realisation; but be that as it may, it is a "first principle," the immensity of which, and its profundity, may baffle the deepest minds to generalise upon. Yet its sublimity will be recognised by all, especially when you realise that not only composite bodies, like suns, stars, men and creatures of varying heterogeneity, divisible into innumerable homogeneous cells, but each component part down to each homogeneous cell is equally male and female in one.

Each cell, each element, each atom of a molecule, each aggregation of molecules, each organ and structural part of each organism coalescing in multiform combinations of molecular forms, is dual,—male and female;—and all are charged with force and energy, with magnetic and fecundative force. Every one of your cells are male and female and can breed children out of those very cells; and then you wonder why you get cancer? Cancer is nothing more than the breeding of the male and female elements in that one cell, because it has not been brought to androgynous. It is the male and female in their polarities which bring about the false nature in everything and is the nature of life. This is the case, not solely in the material plane, but in all planes in which the several natures correspond.

The Harmony of Animation and Vitality

WHATEVER be the force or energy or motion at work,—and at work they are perpetually,—whether it be the spiritual force, psychical force, brain force, nerve force, physical force, muscular force, pulsatory force, blood-circulation, fecundation, molecular energy, or anything else that possesses mobility, animation and vitality,—all is Energy, Fohat, produced by dualism in Nature. Fecundative dualism, expansive and contractile, centripetal and centrifugal, positive and negative. All is the operation of Male and Female, the perpetual force that never wastes, never can be stemmed, is indestructible in Matter, persistent in Force, and continuous in Energy and Motion.

It is the ever-operating, ever-fecundating force that works silently, secretly, imperceptibly, but surely and persistently in the Body and Soul of Nature. This is the grand Principle that works in the heart and womb of Being, the secret of perpetual energy, of the continuity of relations between Matter and force in the Cosmos. In fact it is the Mystery of Being.

Whilst normal conditions continue, and if all this generation, fecundation and diffusion of manifold cosmic energy that sustains the cosmos, be not disturbed, or its laws interfered with, then perfect harmony reigns; and all the complexity and heterogeneity, the whole Cosmos rests in stable equilibrium and order, and in an absolute state of homogeneity.

So if harmony reigns—do not disturb it! But what is happening? Man is sending up missiles,—cutting off the cosmic rays, and you wonder why you have a deluge at the present time which is having its reaction on the earth in destruction. As man is destroying the Cosmos, the Upper Elements, it is reacting back upon himself; he is destroying his own earth. And it is going to bring destruction everywhere,—not only in the visible,—but the invisible.

The vastness is ever continuing and increasing its area of creation and correlation is extending in ever-widening circles, even to infinity. Yet persists the same reign of order, the same perfection of harmonious combinations of matter, force and motion. But, in one single instance, at one single spot,—disturb the equipoise,—and confusion and chaos supervene, destructive of the whole organum of nature. Now this elucidates all the degrees of the fecundative power, which, in the fifth house, is reorientated by ever a state of readjustment coming from rebirth in the fourth house.

For there the blind man is forced to see, but as to whether he makes that adjustment is seen in Virgo-Libra-Scorpio. Virgo the harlot or Mother; Scorpio the rake or Father; while Libra either forces them into balance, or hides them in shame. This we will enquire into in those three signs, which will bring us from the Law of Devolution to the action of Denudation that this can be reached. Denudation literally means—being stripped of all old states so that you stand "bare" as unto Spirit.

Concluded from Page 14 The Magic Night

Mrs. Eastwood,
Hove, Sussex.

Just a few lines to try and tell you what last night meant to me. Alas! has anyone on earth sufficient command of language to describe or capture in words the sheer beauty and magic of it all. I am 67 years old. To me it will ever live as a night to be remembered to the end of my days on earth. My heart, my mind, and my soul are HOME when I am there! I planned in June last to do something about getting through to S.U.P.H. I came through to Brighton for a day first week September and booked a flatlet to cover 12th and 19th December. The love, joy and beauty which emanates from you all is something out of this world. I try so desperately hard in B'mouth to find a substitute—even a close relation—It's no use—not even pale reflections are to be found. There one becomes lonely and hungry—like being cut off from one's main artery. You have to experience this loss to realise its emptiness. The lecture was effortless to me. I always adored Astrology, knowing full meaning of each House and Planet. It was like hearing a fairy story unfolded.

as the Mystery of the Bones

by Gladys I. Spearman-Cook*

*This hitherto unpublished article was especially directed through the Den of Gladys J. Spearman-Cook by the Lord Maitreya, the Lord of Central Sun, the unified Spiritual Wealth of the Cosmic Hierarchies.

WE NOW COME TO A MYSTERY, WHICH IN ITS ANATOMICAL comprehension, is well known to the medicos, but from a mystical, no! The mystery of the bones, where in the corpuscles that come forth from its marrow, as red corpuscle life, wealth untold can be transferred into the blood life. But in the majority it merely comes forth as organic structure, dead by mere organic action, and not active fiery comprehension. To the medical world it is blood infusion of the red corpuscles seeking to carry away the waste into the spleen. When it really is the magnetic wealth of the past, making its cyclic rebound into the blood content, then into the etheric. But when merely organic, dead to its ancient wealth and possible rebirth of the past. The soul sinking deeper and deeper into its loss as a defunct human creation. Maybe here and there bringing forth as worldly flowering, but on the whole, sinking into a decayed creation of useless human possibility.

The Wonders of Osmosis

THIS is one of the mystery journeys of the soul growth, where osmosis plays the major part of the journey in carrying its mysterious cargo. Passing out from the leg marrow into the blood from under the patella of the knees, where, in entering the bloodstream, it goes up to the brain, to leave its mysterious wealth with the seeking mind, before it passes on into its final part of its journey.

To the majority it is a blind journey, as they always live their life, but when drawn forth through wisdom with belief, purpose and intent, a possibility full of life. For they can draw forth of the fiery wealth that is hidden in the extreme depths as congested fire lost in the capillary network of the veins. Legs that are often going gangrenous with dying wealth, gangrenous toes, which, when treated with penicilin, kill off their fiery depths, and only leave the soul with the depleted cargo.

This is where the true mystery of Relativity is born, the union of the past with the present, where all the confusion and chaos is arrayed, through the lack of understanding. Multiplicity and incest that requires its mortuary meal in the form of solution. That which could be supplied by yet a greater polarity, and fully understood by the ancients. To the modern medical lost in text book theories, the red corpuscles being produced from "The red bone marrow of cancellous bone,*1 developed from the lining cells of the blood capillaries."

Yet the wealth of fiery life lost in the extended Arc of the network of veins... and never brought forth, only when stripped through initiation. The polarity to the first root instalment made by the mind reaching down and up in Occult comprehension, bringing a final solution to the purpose of the beginning. Thus burying wisdom first intended, but never gained through the lack of experience. But over the journey of all these Ages, wisdom born through its internal blood revolving.

For the marrow naturally will be replenished by that blood carrying back molecules, as corpuscles that are of an ancient state, that cannot find their final resting, and start to begin a state of decay, for the soul does not make any expansion. Hence the ulcers and leg infections crying out for redemption, which the medicos are too mundane and blind to accept.

But when understood by the Occult Laws, which are the revelation to the true man, the homo in the blood, it explains away many a mystery, which is often referred to "as something we cannot understand."

But in reality not mysteries, but truths that have their solution in the Spirit Life of the soul. Therefore to really understand life, the two sides of the soul must be fully comprehended. Where the flesh is seen not as the real man, but the human casing the soul has brought itself to, through minds such as the medicos possess.

*1 Bone consists of two kinds of tissue, Compact and Cancellous. The latter is spongy in structure and found principally at the end of the long bones, in the short bones and as a layer in between two layers of compact tissue in the flat bones. If the end of a long bone is cut the red bone marrow can clearly be seen.

Earthy minds that belong to the beast, while the sensitive is the soul growth rising up into its spiritual context, trying to get free for its REAL journey of the Spirit life. That born from higher worlds as the mysterious Effulgence reaching base, that it can rise as Omega up to the fulness of its being. Then, in the unity of Alpha and Omega, becoming the ox and its plowing born into a fruitful reality.

(See plate in bottom col. 3)

This is soul growth and evolution carried on into a mind unfoldment, but to do so, let us seek into its growth from a mystical creation, which really is the sole life purpose of every unfolding man.

All that has been, is still with man, an ever unfolding state of evolution, where through the constellatory growth captured by Jacob, a god-life is ever in a state of unfolding manifestation. A unity and binding up of all phenomenal manifestation through a mind creation, that will, if given full unfoldment, rise up as a god in those upper planes of growth. Worlds or planes of spirit life waiting to receive the unified manifesto.

For solid growth is an over-rated depth created by the beast that has refused to let go of the soul, that it could fledge its mighty unfoldment.

The Story of Cadmus and Europa

THEREFORE to meet our problem and solve its mystery, we must seek into its original root and bring to its final conclusion. This takes us back to the time of Cadmus, one of the first heroes of soul unfoldment; where in the Equinox of Gemini we meet Noah lifting up the Arc. All up till then had been in the Cancer waters, where the soul had sunk back into by access of the insurging fires, that mind could issue forth in the rising stream. Thus the outcome of Noah was the tower of Babel, the first bauble of mind creation, which brought many heroes into birth, one being Cadmus on the back of the cow Europa. Thus if we take it from a legendary standpoint, we shall find the way to our many Occult solutions.

Cadmus, finding Zeus had carried off his sister Europa, went in search of her, which was no more than the soul seeking for his lost negative state that had now expanded into the greater, leaving him non-plussed as to what had taken place. But in not finding what he had lost in the expansion, sent his male growth to a nearby spring of water, thinking that it could have gone into his fluidic propensity, when really it had risen up onto the air-plane of mind.

When none returned, he went himself and found a huge serpent, to which his negative state had expanded into, at the spring mouth. The magnetic states had risen up as the rising leviathan, that which had resulted in eating up his male elements, in his Cancer fears, and his first throes of mind unfoldment.

(See plate page 12, cols. 4 & 5)

It being the offspring of Aries, that of Mars, that when the Aries unfoldment began, fell to the mercy of the whale, the mighty depths of the magnetic. But Cadmus in his searching as blind as he was, was assisted by Athena—wisdom, and killed the impeding creation. Thereby extracted its teeth, and as advised by Athena, planted them in the ground of himself which metaphysically would represent getting a hold and better bite of the enquiry in progress. This resulted in armed men springing up in the five cities, which fell to fighting amongst themselves, causing confusion everywhere.

His five lower states of sensitivity could not take the expansion, but they did help him to establish Thebes, the mystery growth planted on the wall of the Corpus Callosum. The sensitive plate between the two brains that tabulates and records memory in the passing blood and cell life. Finally all resulted in Cadmus introducing the alphabet of 16 letters, and he became one of the founders of civilisation.

Mystery of the Bones

THIS is the first accountable episode in this creation, where expansion began to take place, which became a part of the blood life, and the cell life of the bones. For these are

THE DIVINE PRESENCE

HIDDEN within the recesses of the soul, lies the Presence, the Divinity of Becoming, as the soul, shed of the beast, draws from the depths of his legs the ancient fire potential buried ages ago, and raises it up as mind light, treading it in to the earth in practical application, so that the Seed takes flower bringing forth the winged sandals of Mercury, the Ariel flight, "The dominion over the works of thy hands, which thou put under his feet." (See text page 12, col. 1).
