THE BARTERING OF THE DOVE

by Gladys I. Spearman-Cook*

AS THE SOLAR ORB ROSE up high and rolled across the heavenly field in all its glory, man went gaily on never beholding its beauty. Never wondering as to what it beheld, and how he was united to it. The Solar glory now the Central Sun, the magnificence of the Cosmic rebirth, the Divine light of the Holy Flame, the magnificat of the Intelligencia. Yet the mystical story of the bartering of the Dove; the Holy Fire descended from the heavens, to inaugurate man with new life and divine rebirth. The heavenly LAW descended into the depths, to take the bandage off the eyes of Truth, that she could reset her balance on the heights of Justice, and start issuing laws of a balanced introspection.

Thus, as Aquarius opened its portals, a new task was set, that Unification could fill the waterpots of Cana, and the Age make its sacred marriage into light and rebirth. So Merope, as the reborn Joan of Arc, donned her helmet and cuirass, for the Age of WOMAN, as the Feminine Principle of basic growth, was now to be fully fulfilled in the true glory of her emancipation. For Eve must fully redeem her covenant to transmute the snake into the rising kundalini. Not that she must go to war, where souls are torn and mangled, but raise up the manhood of the Race to the glory of the Fatherhood. This is the task that she must fulfill as the risen Mary; Woman raised up from the depths, as the raised up Feminine Principle.

(See plate on page 3, cols. 3 and 4)

A story that has cycled the Ages, leaving the Prophets crying out for mercy as they too tried to meet the problem. Thus the slide went down and down into the darkness of the night, leaving man with no enlightenment but the sorrows of a dying Race. Therefore the story of Relativity, where the curve of the Cycle rose up to meet Unification, was a mystery even to the remotest, yet one that had to be met. For another Fissure could not be entertained in the creation of man, for it would bring into birth another cycle, an offshoot off the previous creational trend. Thus taking the Race further and further away from its intended unification, that she, as a Scapegoat, had to unify and blend, by her raising her frequency of sensitivity. Raising the planes up higher and higher, to a comparable unity with the Axis of the heavens.

The Mock Trial of the Spirit

THE decadence of the average mind towards the search for and reverence to the Spirit, has well been demonstrated by the case of David Cook, whose Great Spirit Sacrifice has been the subject of Mrs. Spearman-Cook's Reminiscences. But it is not that aspect which I wish to refer to, but the state of spiritual deadness that pervades our Courts generally. For from the outset it became abundantly apparent that the trial was to be by "Pontius Pilate," with the Spirit sentenced to be crucified, and mocked and flagellated at every turn in the Court proceedings themselves. It was a case that was to be finished as soon as possible with every attempt to refer to the Spirit quickly stifled as irrelevant. It is time that the gloves of fear and convention, the fears of speaking the truth and speaking boldly, were cast aside where our courts and judges were concerned, and that someone's pen and Voice not only draws attention to the decadence of the Law and its operators but to the fact that no attempt is made or is being made to establish the Supremacy of the Spiritual Law over the Earth.

At the moment Judges and court procedure are ruled by the rigidity of earth convention, a rigidity built up by themselves. The majority delight to have the trappings of wigs, gowns, etc., to which is added a mock procedure of bowing and scraping which makes any spirit-soul sick to see. Are the majority far more concerned about their earth glories and power that their position has given them, than to get together to establish the rulership of the Spirit.

The tragedy is the fact that the majority no more have an idea of what the Spirit is and how to get in touch with It, than they have about the divine nature of their Seminal Seed. Many are so imprisoned by the religious and orthodox attitude, and by the limits of their own personalities, being over-conscious of the powers they have, which many childishly delight in having, that the oath which they had to take on entering into office never becomes a reality.

The oath they take is upon the Bible and thus commences... I Swear by Almighty God, ... and yet it is laughable to suggest that all of them have trained themselves to the greater Wisdom so that they can be primarily directed by the Greater Powers. Few even believe in them, and none have so prepared their physical bodies, that they become sensitives to receive the Voice and Commands of the Spirit, the Solar Fire. Do they even recognise the necessity to become attuned as a spiritually led judge despite the oath they have taken, or has it degenerated into mere verbiage? Is what they regard as being spiritual based on the religious morass of mind so many attune to, ... the moral 'be-gooder' in nice christian works!!!

* * * *

HARDLY any, if any at all, have turned from the animal delights of the fleshpots, as they are so insensitive they do not even accept the necessity of discarding the animal foods so that they are the better able to be guided in their giving of judgement. The majority take regularly of alcohol even though in small quantities without recognising that alcohol slowly ossifies the liver and viscera organs, as well as the brain cells.

Not only in Britain but in other countries, the complete absence of the Spirit to rule is so great, that when a soul, ... and one of the very very few who is being genuinely guided by the Hierarchical Powers, the Lord Maitreya of the Central Sun (the unified VOICE of all the Zodiacal Band), ... was fierce, because they have acted deliberately against the Powers of Spirit, and having taken the Greater Oath to be a true Judge, according to the Spirit, they will know they can give themselves no mercy.

Over the years I have practised at the Bar I have been utterly appalled at the brutality of some judges, who have not only been gross in their physical natures, but so devoid of any mind sensitivity that it was utterly impossible to penetrate their harsh and cruel minds.

medical world know nothing about this activity, soon he became one more for the electric chair, and once more, in a case that could so easily have been saved, one more soul was lost to the druggists, completely deadening his mind... And all through the fact that the divine nature of the Office of a Judge is not even considered, let alone accepting the fact that each Judge should be a Healer Priest, a Celibate and one who had retired into Sanctuary to carry out the Work of Divine Service.

The Court should be ruled by Prayer and dedicated to the Divine Gods. The whole atmosphere should be one of Truth, with the judge having awakened his Serpent Fire, the Kundalini, about which David Cook's judge publicly admitted he knew absolutely nothing. It is not surprising therefore that when the suggestion was made that the Spiritual Law should prevail, it was practically sneered at and laughed out of court.

The true nature of judgment of the case should ever be the Spiritual Laws, and where they can be invoked to override the Earth, there should never be any question of immediate obedience to the Greater Law. But alas! Such is the Spiritual deadness it is impossible to invoke the Spirit as the judges do not abide by its Holy Presence and only a few believe in it.

* * * *

ONE day the Race will look back upon the inhuman animal nature of our Courts of law, and will be amazed to learn that the judges were not even capable of obeying the Higher Laws to unfold the Uranian Perceptory Nature so that they could begin to attune their minds to the god-powers in the meninges, the membranes of the brain. And thus become Priests capable of immediate judgment, the judgment of the soul, the unfolding of the inner temple of the spirit, and the special Healing being given to correct the non-alignment of the bodies, and the balancing of the etheric.

When David and his counsel went into court, it was to acclaim of the Spirit, though both of them knew that the possibility of finding any co-operation from the earth Law was so remote as to hardly be worth while seeking to grasp. But by merely demanding the Greater Law to be under control, and having the faith and belief in the effect that such would have to their benefit, they mastered the situation.

It is time judges became aware that they are the servants of the Spirit and not the puffed up pompous creatures, trying to dominate the people by fear and over conventionalism. Each should remember that it is their bounden duty to learn of the Gnosis of the Greater Law so that they can begin to be the true teachers of the Spirit. Now that the Powers of the Lord Maitreya penetrate deep down into the bowels of prison as well as embracing the lower law, the Solar alchemicalisation will begin to work, and the Greater Law will take command.

directed by the Spirit, so great was their ignorance it was not even recognised that the soul was being led by the God Powers. The Judge had not the foggiest idea of what it meant and even declared openly of his ignorance. But his ignorance did not make him the less determined to rule as Pontius Pilate, and turn to the Earth and all its works for his conception. It was to the earth crowd that was given the verdict.

The fact that one day each judge will have to face a far more serious Court than he has ever believed has existed, and will have to explain each of his actions, has yet to concern them. Yet the day will come, when they will be asked why they arrogated themselves to a position they were incapable of wielding according to the Greater LAW. Ignorance is no excuse and the penalty they are going to pay is going to be long and

One judge, visiting the Old Bailey, was trying a youngster for attempted murder. The young man had pleaded guilty and needed desperately, true spiritual Healing to preserve the youngsters mind and past growth. But the judge sat there heaping curses on a youth who had become schizo-phrenic, calling him the worst killer in all his experience, etc. His face showed the signs of rich living, a heavy meat eater as well as drinker.

The young man, instead of being given spiritual Healing, ... and he would then have been cured by Mrs. Spearman-Cook, ... was given 10 years imprisonment and in six weeks had to go into Hospital, as his overtuned sensitive nature could no longer stand the conditions of the prison, with the astral hordes beating against his mind, and his mind got out of his control. Merope's Magic Mirror

HENCE Merope's task was heavy and troublesome, full of opposition and doubt, and as she looked into her Magic Mirror, it was as though she was peering into dark deep waters, which drew her down into their murky depths. (See the front page plate).

Down, down, into a world of luna waters, that told a story of a forgotten world, completely outside the vibrations of her spinning hub. Therefore, as she was drawn down into this mystical vortex, the darkness grew more and more intense, for she found herself in a world of luna darkness, where all was slow and heavy. A world of the present status of growth, that told of Atlantean wonders, all buried down deep in a dark pit, called the world of present modernism. Yet vibration lost in the minds of men, who could not see the glory of the heavens from whence he was born and resuscitated.

For as man so looked to the heights and perceived their magic wonder, would their frequency be comparable to those heights, and they too unify with the heavens. For Merope had raised the planes, all they needed was unification, which would reveal the greater glories of tomorrow.

So here it is obvious, that as a man believes, would he so radiate and live in a world of his beliefs. For his thoughts were his world, whatever frequency he created.

So as Merope wandered through this inner penetration of mystical depths, she knew that if a man wanted to land on a moon, even though the solid creation did not exist, he would, by his illusion and belief. He would create a moon in his imagination, with missiles comparable to his belief. Creations that carried out his wish and gave him comparison of vibration, that linked him with those depths; but through Merope establishing this truth upon the Cosmic heavens, the scientist can get no further, but live in a world of wild illusionment.

For even a murderer believes he is right, and that what he performs will solve his problem, and he lives in a world of blind appeasement. Every man to his mode of creation, which is man's prerogative, but only Truth will ever live out of the efforts afforded.

Therefore as Merope wandered in this darkness outside her raised up created frequency of light, protected by her magic cloak, she felt the hemming in of the density of those vibrations, as they pressed deeper and deeper upon her, in her interpenetration into this terrestrial blindness of belief. For the revealing of TIME and the mystery of "treading in," is only known to the Mystic, and that which Merope has now set herself to do, as the Cosmic Waters start to sweep across the earth, containing her raised-up frequency of installation.

The building up of a new immortal City through the mystical HUB of spinning up the mind onto higher planes of LIGHT, where every soul, who seeks of such, will live with the glories of the spirit.

Yet here was Merope who had accomplished such, having the power, by the assimilation of TIME, to be able to go down into those murky depths of men who had never raised up their minds above the mud of the Cancer depths. A mystery that Dante had never learnt, so built up planes of horror and darkness, that the Catholics use as a state of fear, to drive their congregation into a state of subjection. But fortunately all these have been cleared away, by Merope raising up of the frequency. For as the Arc of those glorious heavens had been raised up in their intensity of radiant light, have the depths, which have to be polarised, been dissolved out of existence.

WOMAN'S EMANCIPATION

... "For Eve must fully redeem her covenant to transmute the snake into the rising kundalini. Not that she must go to war, where souls torn and mangled, but raise up the manhood of the race to the glory of the Fatherhood." The Masculine Principle, surrendering his own will of self to take the Sword of the Spirit, the Aries Warrior ever seeking to raise up Venus to bring forth the Solar Child, the radiant Mind. (See text on front page).

"... Lurid, dank and black ..."

SO as Merope gazed into her mirror, the next scene that came unto her vision, was one of battle and strife in the minds of men; yet the tearing out of old roots that were with-holding the radiance of their polarity from penetrating and blending in of those heavenly glories divine. The scene that now came before her was where all divine fire was dead, and all was of a Dinosaur world of creatures lumbering around in bodies filled with flesh, torn from the lesser animals. It was full of creatures of all types and sizes, but the larger ever seeking to destroy the smaller, in the air of a self-created importance of egotistical belief. Yet they held the resemblance of men in their dinosaur vibrations, but radiated what they were in their outer resemblance.

At last Merope had found what she was seeking, the inner mystery of time and depths, for there before her she saw a scene that horrified her as she gazed into its lurid depths. For it was a world of darkness, where mens minds rose no higher than the dung of the earth; where vibrations were lurid, dank and black, and held of sulphuric fire and brimstone, the raging depths of the magnetic.

All creations appeared in shambles, and the souls lumbered along and mumbled to each other, with no intensity of depth. Yet a community that were living in a make-believe illusion of a world of justice, truth and peace. A state of religious bigotry, old laws and conventional ideas, that created ease and comfort to suit their own beliefs. States and statutes that had gone down the Ages were all they ever dealt in, creations that had never been given renewed investigation that brought of more advanced belief. Hence the darkness of the vision, for it was a world of criminal life that held all the sorrows of man's psychological problems.

Yet here was a court of justice that still lived in the depths of the old root, where no further growth had been added to solve the problems of men, thus never flowered and blossomed the purpose of JUSTICE, that stood upon the top of the Old Bailey's roof; no wonder she kept the bandage o'er her eyes, afraid to witness the mis-justice. So although this scene was full of activity, the vibrations were slow and cumbersome, for no action of electrical fusion gave perceptivity of thought and light. For that which came had never changed and never sought of expansion and comprehension.

The Judgement Scene

NOW there came into the vision of her Mirror a judgment scene in action, where two warriors clad in golden armour, were wrestling with these dinosaur creatures, down in those lank depths. It appeared as one of the mysteries of time, with Merope having stepped through the mirror of life, in the same way as Alice did in her mystical journey through the mirror of her wonderland.

Where things as they really were, were being revealed in their true prospective. Not robed in sophistication and conventionalism, but as they were so directed.

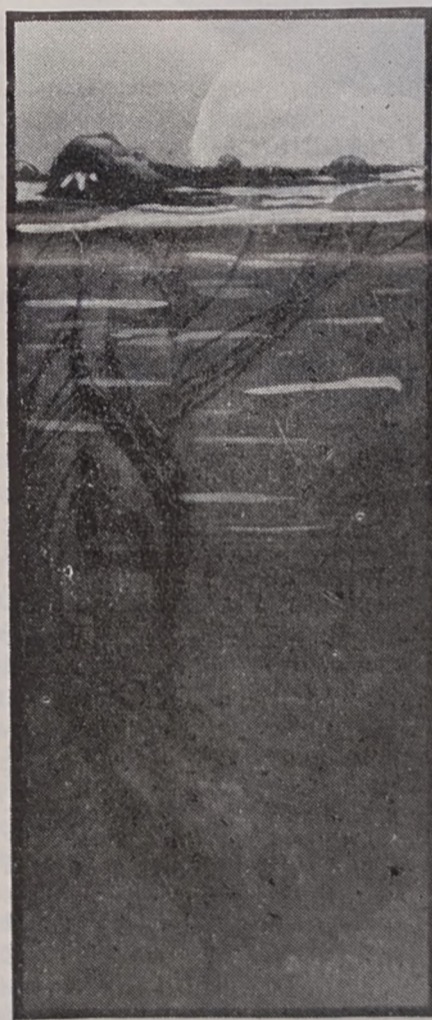

Here they were all seated around in a mock court, with a judge whose wig was far too small for such a bulbous head. His body fat and protruding from his internal incestuous beliefs. For his theory was that he was almighty in his final judgment, and nothing could thwart his decree.

Never realising that he was taking upon his shoulders responsibilities that could never be erased in all the lives of Christendom, if they were badly framed or phrased.

As Merope gazed at the scene, she saw the room was filled with weird creatures who, in little honking cars, daily rushed around and looked for scoundrels who ever broke the peace. For here was a vibratory world of turbulence and sorrow, where they only knew one mode of exhilaration, craft and cunning to catch and kill; a world saturated with evil gathered over ages of Time. Standing around were guards of the law, who wore officious uniforms to add to this mysterious ceremony; while here and there were rays of light, coming forth from scattered souls, who were cloaked in mysterious outer garments, yet sending forth of white rays of light, like steam into the heights.

Then the one, who was the changing factor and the means of all this controversy, was a channel where light poured into the depths, which was the means of changing all the blackness into light. While a Perseus with a winged helmet over a barrister's wig, was with the electrical sword of eloquence, cutting away root after root, and raising up the darkness into light.

For here was a court of justice in all its darkness, sitting in judgment on a band of Workers, who were bringing the higher LAW to have bearing in the depths. An act committed to bring light to mankind, that the roots of evil and darkness could be cut away, and man turn his eyes up to the light. Sodomitical states that were drowning the soul and enclosing them in this vibration of darkness. Thus the means of cutting off any expansion, causing disease and vermin to riddle the earth, spreading their darkness far and wide.

But here was the entry of the higher LAW that no one could oppose or cut away, for one was being judged upon an act that was to bring a mighty change in the course of time. The way that it has ever gone on down the Ages, where men have been burnt at the stake, by the merciless advocator of the Love of God, yet shown no mercy or truth.

But here were two channels of light fighting for truth, that light could enter the inflowing Stream as the Vernal Equinox turned its portals. The true message of the crucifixion, where two souls were fighting that truth could prevail in the AGE of RELATIVITY. For as the Sun swept down to the base, would it rise up with the mighty wealth now being battled for, as truth was acclaimed loud and long in a court of law.

The Seal of the Lord of the Flame

THUS as the battle waged hard and strong, with priests and law bartering the Holy Dove, an inflow of FIRE came down from the heights, striking all into the depths of matter for all time. Thus causing utter blankness and wild confusion in this world of lost men, as truth after truth was implanted in the depths, that would go forth into the Waters of the annals of TIME. A success that only the Mystic understood, for one was quite prepared to pay any penalty, that the Seal of the Lord of the Flame could be impinged and sealed in the darkness of mans' mind.

Hence, as Merope turned away from the magic mirror, she knew that light had entered down into that court, that no man could oppose or decry. For it was TRUTH in all its glory, so they could only cut and "carve" to suit their own ends of belief. Yet wisdom was enforced into their constitutional grace, that sometime or another, would bear life and light unto their blind minds.

Souls, who had allowed themselves to just become mounds of flesh, inanimate lives of darkness. Yet rich with wealth gathered from countless Ages, and waiting to be brought forth, to feed them into life. For only by such would life continue to come down from the heights and unite with the earth. For if man as the creator will not awaken and see the purpose of life, then they deliberately cut themselves off, and wilt into enforced death.

But Merope by her remoulding of the Cosmic Laws, had forced all this into change, and with the Waters now coming forth from the Vernal inflow, all would feed the people from those heights, changing the FACE of TIME.

The unity of expansion which Merope had enforced into the earth, as the present Cosmic inbirth, had been at great pain and risk to her physical self. But it had been the means of giving to the heights, upliftment into activity. She being the soul worker of sending back and forth wealth of light and created belief. So that man could be watered with active life and urged into this greater purpose. Striving to awaken their hearts and minds, as well as their atomic creation. She had changed vibrations and planes, she had set a stream of water flowing, that had flown back to the heights. But to get her horse to the well and drink the water freely, was another matter.

The Dove had descended as she had vowed and sacrificed at the altar, but the opposition in all directions was fierce and heavy laden. Yet belief and loyalty to the mighty FLAME, drove her on to keeping her mighty Tryst.

Thus she trod the waters and hacked away the jungle in the depths, driving a clear path ahead, ever sending up to the heights the wealth that they were demanding, which was the means of keeping the Stream alight. Man not understanding the wonders and glory of the heavenly fusion, where heights feed depths and depths feed heights, and where Gods embrace as element involvement. As for Ages man and gods have been separated through man living with the beast, while the Dove, the Holy Fire, was being lost on the altar of illusion.

MEROPE'S GREAT SACRIFICE

... "The unity of expansion which Merope had enforced into the earth... had been at great pain and risk to her physical self." The desperate struggle that the Scapegoat had made had been to save the Seed that man still had within him, saving him from the Waters that swept him mindless in the sea of desire. The urgency for man to awaken and bring forth the glories of his Holy Fire, ... "for their rise up from the Cancer Marshes, had left them dead and blind of mind, with no thought of the spirit, thus completely blind to the Spirit. (See text page 5, col. 1).

The Cycle of the Holy Fire

THE Dove being the Holy Fire that descended to bless and baptise the inspired belief; and as the Bethel was declared, the Fire ascended up to the heights, and enlightened them with the glory of the aspirational holocaust of the soul's declaration. This being one of the mystical rites of the Hebrew altar ceremony, but when the Embodiment of the Christos Waters descended, the priests, so badly splayed, could not make their completeness of declaration. So to keep their face, bartered the Dove to the multitude, hence the repetition in this hour of grace and age. Selling it to them for the largest price, and the greatest adoration, thus securely fixing themselves in high places, and ever remaining at the altar, selling the Eucharistical blessing to the congregation, under the threat of hell fire and damnation.

Yet again, as per the cycle, such has repeated itself, but now through the action of Adonicus. Thus, where beforehand the glory of the Holy Fire had never been declared and established on the heavens as a starry glory, now it had been declared, and duly being suffered for, as a crucifixion. It being trod into the earth by dire sorrow in the garden of Gethsemane.

For here in this depth is where the wonders of the Occult Law have never been

THE CHAINS OF ILLUSION

AT last the Spirit has awakened, the Dove descended but still Andromeda is chained to the rock of the luna waters of desire, the animal-human states of mindlessness, the prison of illusion. Until the Martha personality weaver accepts the Truth and faces self, Mary the higher side of the twin Virgo labourers, ever seeks to call the lower conscious working faculties to rouse themselves from the lethargy and inertia of the beast and commence the journey homeward of the feminine Weaver building the Christos child in the womb of her Feminine Principle, ... "through the continual resurrection of Womanhood." (See text on page 5, col. 4 top).

heard or recognised by the soul in its state of rebirth. For their rise up out of the Cancer marshes, has left them dead and blind of mind, with no thought of a greater purpose, (See plate page 4, cols. 4 & 5) thus completely blind to the spirit. So many, even though these Laws have been their stepping stone across the waters in the past as the treading out of time, have never come out of the muddy depths, and in not remembering, would not accept the way that they were born.

But in having established a humid place of warmth on the earth, have made no effort to embrace these truths, which would have lifted them up out of the waters into a greater mind expansion. The soul filling its body with false fire, therefore killing the spirit, instead of establishing it as the Solar born SON of LIGHT.

For Adonicus saw and knew the spirit, and knew that it was a live and living creation; not just a singing cricket of high mass litany, where the soul took the Fire by belief, but refused to be consumed by the Holy Fire. Thus merely remained chattering to itself upon the hearth, ever striving to find the well of truth, but refusing to drink and change.

The comparable depths of the Dove in the soul, is that of the Spirit, therefore when an offering is made to the Great Lord, and is embellished with the spirit, in going forth to the heights, draws forth the Holy Fire from the transient depth. Thus descends and rests upon the offering, taking back up to the heights; thus the seal is made, and the covenant will be demanded. The honey either being taken by the great Bear, or the wealth being eaten up by the Cancer states of the depths. This is the ever cycling depths of Gen. 1 v. 2-5, "Where darkness was upon the face of the deep, then the spirit of God moved upon the face of the Waters where there was light. And God saw the light and it was good, thus divided it from the darkness" and took it up to the heights.

Hence the ever ascending light that has been born through the Ages; but when deliveration and purpose is given forth and established in the depths, the will to be and the will to give, is the cradle of the holy Dove to come forth and settle on its minute offering. The great depth of the supreme winged Creature and the Waters of the heavens-river, which points out that of the divine Dove floating between the waters of Creation, has never yet been given true consideration. For this is the supreme holy Cycling Wheel that ever repeats itself as life and man evolve.

Sacrifice and Rebirth

AS era after era goes forth, and demands some supreme sacrifice to the way to reformation as the sacrifice is made, that the greater way would be continued, the Dove will descend and take away up to the heights that established by the saviour. For in the Beginning, it was the Holy Spirit that had with the beast. Venus ever being raped through the emotional waters only revolving round and round in the depths, instead of rising up in aspiration. The soul building no etheric garments, only floating around in the lunar waters. (See plate on page 3, col. 1)

At this critical time of Relativity, where Unification has begun, and started its journey with the Second

Hence man becomes the Water bearer, driving all down into the mouth of the Southern Fish, that the winged horse or the winged passions as the alchemicalised spirit in the Seed, will rise up as the risen fire. And as Cygnus the swan or spirit, enter into the 12th, to finally release the personality as Andromeda, from the chains of illusion. (See plate page 4, cols. 1 & 2) into matter, and becomes as the Voice of the Father speaking through his son.

This is where the soul becomes Christed, and is the prototypal issue being made manifest by this incident of Adonicus. Yet by this the risen Arc was maintained by Merope and established, and would issue forth as the flowing Stream of Cosmic Life. For it is through this that the Vernal Equinox is going to bring forth vast changes. The lifting up of the new FACE as the Lord of the Flame, where man is going to understand the TRUE meaning of the Christ and his ever flowing Solar Blood to the earth. Changes as never known before, will purge the whole world through, bringing many to seeking of these truths and awakening to the Solar glory. Thus the drive that was sent forth, laid the way for the Solar rebirth to sweep up its dynamic issue, sending it forth on its new cruise upon the waters of life.

Whereas, instead of man seeking for the rich alluring food of earth, he will turn to the golden apples of Hesperides. For up to the present he has only turned to the "pomme de terre," the apple of the earth, and with eyes that only saw the earth. Now the soul, filled with the oil of the Word, instead of turning to the salt of matter, will find himself changing against his will, and seeking the greater purpose. For the wealth entered into the Stream by Merope, and now about to be the Cosmic Waters flowing from the heights to the earth, will feed all souls with the new life, ideas and ideals of the immortal rebirth now to take place.

For that is the trend that will now take the whole of the Race upwards, away from the Acheron waters of the depths. The darkness of life that all men have turned to, as the humid easy comfortable way of living out the life of matter. When really, earth is the testing ground of helping souls to conquer self, and find the way to mastership.

This is how the heroes of the past overcame matter, while Prophets drove the Race and turned the stem of the tide. Thus were the means of bringing down the Dove, the heavenly blessing from the heights, and as they made the betel and it flew back with the covenant, caused the change to take place.

This now is repeating itself, for although man has once again bartered the Dove, they could not turn it into their direction, for the wealth has already been established in the heights. This will flow to the earth and help all mankind to become reborn onto the greater planes of life and TRUTH.

THE NEW CITY

THE rock of materialism is becoming swept away, and Merope from her Star of Vesta brings down the Fire to establish the New City, the only Oasis of Spirit at the beginning of the return Journey... the truth of the Spirit to be fully awakened in every heart... (See text in col. 3 below).

descended to Fire the soul into positive manhood, misfiring and burying all under the waters. But the spirit could not die, hence the Divine Spirit descended and hovered above the waters, nurturing the lost soul into life.

Thus has continued ever since, slowly nurturing the holy creation buried in the human soul, back to the Source of Creation. And where in the human wheeling the soul buried the son into the father, that the divine Father could come forth, the human Race as the Son, would be buried into the manifested Fatherhood. Hence a new creation would go forth to start the new round of EVOLUTION.

But in every human sacrifice to bring this to its conclusion, there has been the vultures ever waiting to pounce upon the reborn creation to barter it, that they could still dance

Advent, the same incident repeated itself, and the Spirit was bartered and sold by the wolves, that they could destroy the changing LAW. But they failed, for the sacrifice made by Adonicus, was established in the earth court of Law, that which fully established the Spirit on the new purpose, and started off the road of the Christed Spirit. The spirit now risen and unified in the soul, and on the upward rebound, where through this incident the New City has begun its creation as the earth creation set into operation by Merope, and now alight with the truth of the Spirit, to be fully awakened in every heart, in its unfolding atomic issue. (See the plate above)

This is the mystery of Aquila the Eagle falling to earth in the second decanate of Capricorn, where the risen spirit becomes buried in and rises as Delphinus the Dolphin in the third. The dancing undulation of the rising waters.

The former three as the three decanates of Aquarius, are the risen Fires of Heliopolis that fell back into the Waters of Cancer.

The fiery issue of the Seed that was sent down to raise up the manhood, as Cepheus the king to be raised up and crowned as the divine Fatherhood, through the continual resurrection of the Womanhood. All this being the mystical truth that Adonicus was seeking to uphold; and as he made the supreme sacrifice that the Waters could be impregnated with the wealth of his established belief, would the rebirth of the Cosmic issue be lifted up nearer to its intended goal. This is the burying in of the nebula wealth of the Blackness of Space into the dung of matter through the herse waters. But when risen up as the supreme waters of Neptune, become as the divine Glory of unified Life entered

ANDROGYNEITY

As the Path of Unity

by Gladys I. Spearman-Cook*

*This lecture was delivered at the S.U.D.H. on 6th February, 1966 through Gladys J. Spearman-Cook especially directed by the Lord Maitreya, the Lord of the Flame of the Central Sun, the unified Spiritual Wealth of the Cosmic Hierarchies.

THIS is a word that very few would understand, yet the Road that everyone is destined to tread ere the Age closes its portals. For Androgyneity indicates unification, where every thread of life as effort and purpose, wisdom and growth are unfolded in. With the way now ready for the soul to radiate the light gained, through the wisdom of blended uniformity of intent, and comprehension. Thus it is the ever interblending of the Chain of Causation, that eventually resolves into a state of mind light, which will issue forth as a divine Stream of oneness, that can bless all who are touched by its blended state. Therefore would be the complete direct flow from the Divine Heights, now manifesting through the soul's unified state of relativity as a Stream of pure Crystal Waters. Thus bathing the Earth with new atomic Life, helping to lift it up to a state of rebirth.

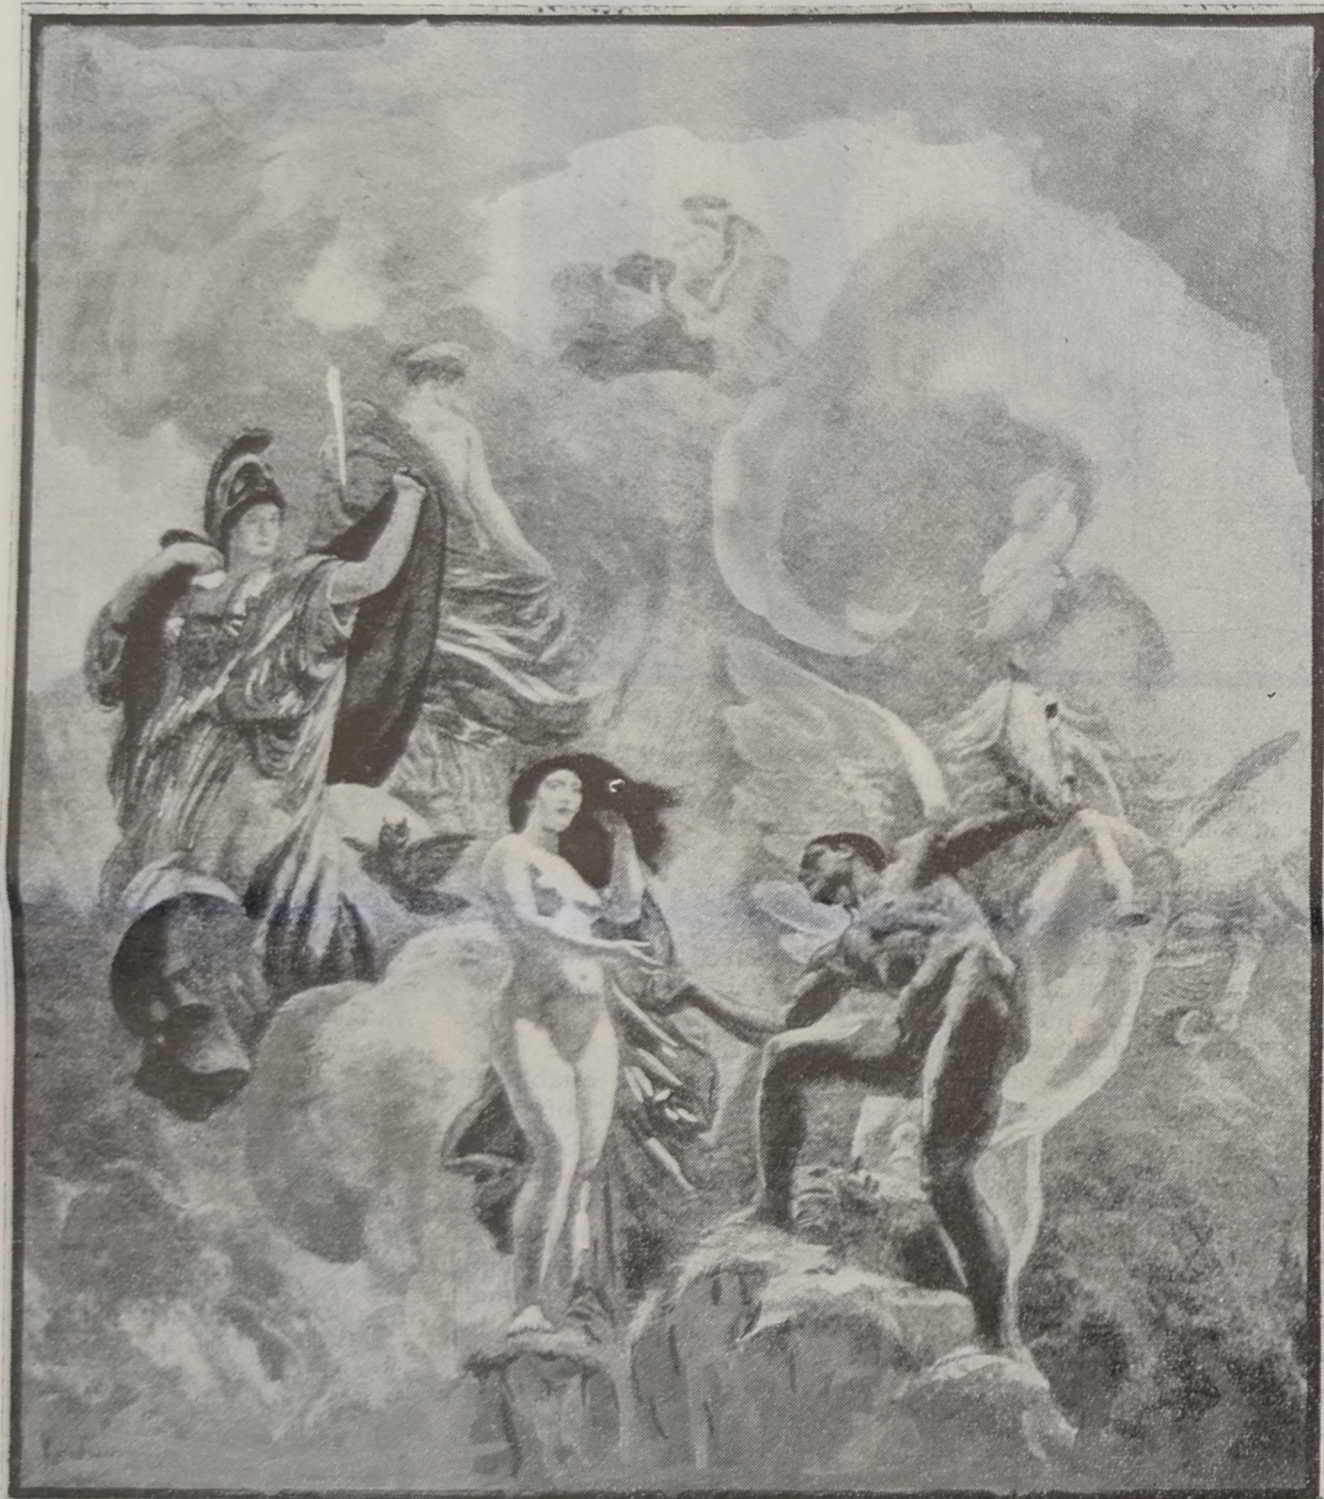

The Family of the Soul

Therefore having perceived so far, let us now seek into the way that such can be obtained, and the many points of care. For since it is a road so utterly remote to the majority of laymen, much that is laid down to obtain such an austere path, will not yet be understood by many. Therefore like many things on the Occult Path, must be accepted in true faith, until the greater effort can ensue, and enlightenment be born through the unfolded realisation. So the first issue on this Road of Unification, is that of preparatory purpose, where the soul as the consciousness, awakens to the true understanding of soul life and its purpose, and from then onwards seeks to put it into operation.

For as she as the feminine principle awakens to the fact, does it become the issue of the whole family of the soul. Then as she labours with the wealth from the heights, and is lifted up in realisation, so the multiplicity of incest is blended in, and the heights as the higher consciousness becomes more radiant with light. This is how the soul builds up the mind body of light, the Soma to the psyche pneuma, that which acts as a garment to the soul, and fortifies it while the soul is seeking further growth.

For man, as that lower consciousness, only knows and understands the soul through his own conscious state of being. When in reality he is but the basic unit of a vast family of soul life, born and fed from that interblended Chain of Causations. That which rebuilds and unifies by interweaving the wealth of those heights into the depths; thus ever lifting up the whole issue in states of consciousness, through the same action taking place in its own heights and depths. Thus the microcosm to the Macrocosm as the reflector of the whole Chain of Causation, to become the Intelligencia of the planes. Therefore, for that basic to be able to see the soul as a nation, a microcosm of the vast Macrocosm all within itself, is the only way for it to understand the full issue of Androgyneity.

Through the interblending of the vast Heights, and the labours of Jacob, man has twelve counties as limbs of living life, with twelve gods up in the heights. All being fed and guided by the twelve Celestial Powers, with the

THE FINAL CLIMB

As he glorifies his feminine Principle and raises up his passions right up to the heavens of his mind, the seventh chakra, so does the manhood become risen unto the gods of his meninges, so that the soul becomes... "involved into the godhead to become the divine Presence of profound Truth and Light." (See text in col. 2 and on page 7, cols. 1 and 5).

Great Hierarchical Powers as their super-masters.

Then the soul has the king as the pinnacle point of the soul, as the ever growing heights of these twelve; with his seven princes in the towns below, as the ever evolving sensitivity that labours for him, that he can expand and grow. Five are as the five cities in the depths of the nation, while the upper two are the ultra-sensitivity, of which the lower five bring all their gathered wares.

Then there is the mystery Temple of Ra in the heights, surrounded by the moat of Aspirational waters; that which holds the secret of the soul's ever evolving godhead, and brings the soul to divinity. (See plate above)

While in the outer court is the priest as the conscience, who ever sits as the ancient of days unifying the whole life purpose.

While in the world below there are the labouring units in the growth of the towns, with the queen mother and her two daughters in the depths, who are ever plaguing their eldest brother, who is seeking to hunt and gather in, for his king in the heights. Then in Tartaros you have the slums and the prisons, with the hordes of ruffians that plague the soul in the labyrinth in the twelve. Those that were not able to make the passover, and become the Aries mind.

This is not just knowledge and points of make believe, but the living issue of the soul, that are gathered in the mind comprehension. Whereby the soul has created his inner life, from outer life units of experience, and association with the mighty universe of Being. For from the vast Universal Space from whence man is born, to the world he now resides in, the lives in question are all within him.

Yet are but a minute explanation of the Chain of Causes, that build up his present status of soul consciousness. Not just a matter of cells, glands and bloodstream, but a living issue of live growth of consciousness, that from Ages of inter-breeding of the Universal life, have now become a multiplicity of species of male and female growth, from the major issue of the soul family.

Selflessness

THE major issues are the head of the soul as the gods in the meninges, that feed and reorganise the soul through the weaver, as the queen in the depths. For this is where we get the higher and lower consciousness as the two sides of the brain; but conscious in different states of frequency.

realisation unify the soul in renewed purpose. Therefore it will only be by the point of recognition, that she as the weaving Martha, will begin to labour in a mind quest of soul unfoldment.

Thus begins involving all, that has been as an irresponsible state, to a direct road of responsibility and unity, through ever unfolding states of awareness. Therefore as she perceives, will she ever be the means of leading the whole nation of the soul in an upward spiralling motion. While the heights as the evolving point, will ever feed her with new points of direction as the guiding point of unfolding recognition, by drawing in new life from the breath, drawn in from the heights.

Therefore it is the triad, as that of the triangle as heights and depths as male and female issue, with the sonship growth as the personality as the growing mind, ever being blended in by continual unification. With the weaver in the depths ever finding unified states of awareness, awakening the soul into new conscious life.

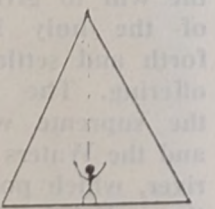

This now is going to entail the full unification of looking neither to the right or to the left, but up and down in a spiralling motion, as continually being set by the changing beam, in the eye in the heights. With the priest as the pituitary, the guiding conscience of the heights, the unfoldment of the soul takes place all the time through the weaving consciousness in the depths. With the will ever being a strengthening of the purpose, with the intent growing clearer and clearer, as the goal of the soul comes further into view, by the unification.

No longer is it just up and down in relativity of understanding, but the lower consciousness as the practical mind, now seeking the Road of Androgyneity. The path where all multiplicity must be unified into points of awareness; whereby the unification will completely involve into a state of light as Self-lessness, the ultimate journey of the soul.

Thus the whole Universe of Causes being involved into a soul life to a point of supremacy, to become as a flame, a radiant state of light.

So we must start at the plane of the triangle as the enfolding mind consciousness, and triangle in reflection, weaving in the wealth of the heights into mind light

... This entails as a major issues, heights and depths as king and queen, with the son as the Aries mind growth as light- as the ever-evolving continuity of mind consciousness. With the sensitivity as the seven sons ever in a state of rebirth, through the ever evolving states of awareness.

All now being shepherded into a trail of rebirth through involution, by discarding those states, that the soul becomes aware as useless states of encumbrance. Blending them in at the medulla oblongata, that the soul can spin up the seven cervical, and open up the mind to greater growth. No longer a false godship of self, but a universal vision of the divine heritage of soul growth, that will give unto the soul, a vehicle of mind light.

The Divine Presence

THEREFORE this mind plane of unification is no longer as a plane of confusion, but a plane of a number of unified living points, that are all perfect in their point of intent. Those which now will have their set moments of manifestation, whereby all is being unified into the seventh as the hub of the radiating Sahasrara. That of the ever involving righteous consciousness, seeking to become involved into the godhead, to become the divine Presence of profound Truth and light.

But although this has been the point of direction ever since the knowledge of Unification was recognised, it has been more from a point of auric attraction of the pole star of the soul, more than a unifying unit of conscious reception.

Therefore the apex of Assimilation is the NORM or Pineal, that to the medical world is a dead defunct unit... yet that which was once the single eye of the past racial state... and according to them, no longer operative. The mystic knows that is not so, and knows it to be a very live functionary point, especially when the bridge of Hvergelmer is passed, and the lower five sensory units are radiating around the sixth as the beam point of involutory radiation.

No longer in a state of change as an evolutionary unit of expansion, but an involving point towards the evolving hub of unification. The point where the polar axis of the soul is parallel with the Polar Axis of the Earth, as the microcosm to the Macrocosm as the pinnacle hub of the soul, and links up by frequency with the Polar Axis of the Cosmos.

the king's chamber. Here is where the government of the soul holds its debates, with the bill of direction being sent down to the nation of the soul.

Virgin's Fount to Central Sun

NOW by the status of that soul as a microcosm, having become a royal borough through realisation, the upper house has become a temple of light whereby it is seeking to receive from the Upper World of Outer World Space, wisdom of unknown origin. So from that plane as the basic of the apex we perceive this purpose, and behold the journey of mind unification that will activate the antennae into motion. Yet at the same time direct the lower nation in their subservience to the crown.

All now, as far as the lesser is concerned is involution; but to the greater an involution to an extension of gaining and becoming. For it is a state of ever increasing velocity that rises and evolves as it involves. Therefore a continual chain of interactionary state of changes that ever takes place through the involving of the heights, that cause an involving of the species through a higher state of involving reception, becoming the higher consciousness of the weaving basic. Thus all a state of higher mind light reception.

For nothing can stand still, and where there is involution, there must be evolution; but in this case, ever pulling towards a point of ONENESS as involving subservience of renunciation, where a status of mind divinity is ever increasing into a state of divine mind light. Yet an ever increasing motivation of radiating activity. All now is as an atomic change from the mundane to the divine, which at the present is only visualised and not fully acquired. Therefore the glory to come forth as the flowing canvas of beauty adorns its mystical picture of divine adoption, and prepares to spiral up to those heights by a way of recognition.

As the approach is made, it narrows in, as the reverse to the previous approach of widening out in a state of becoming. For it now is as a fulness of gathering in of the harvest of the human nations; an assimilation in the unification of uprising in the interblending of outer-world values, with the unifying unit of mind purpose.

For what is received now must become the solvency of world problems, that a more constructive issue goes forth. For such as this is a channel union between the world of Matter and the World of Light. It is here the Watcher as the Scapegoat sits and receives.

DIANA, THE HUNTRESS

MARTHA the weaving conscious mind in the depths has to be the labourer, ever "hunting" to capture new ideas and to command the wild animals. But "if she fails to do so..." the depths commence "running wild in animal consciousness and overwhelming desires." (See text on page 6, col. 4). But here the soul commands the magnetic powers and raises them up to be of swiftest spiral up the spinal rod, (the bow).

For there, the soul being above the rings of Saturn, it begins the final task of radiating his central ball of inert matter, that was cast into the depths as Pluto in the underworld, to become a radiating ball of light. The Norm now to become the seat for the divine Presence to enter therein, through the Chain of Causes being unified. Although this has been the point of reception, where all gathers, and can be drawn by a state of induction, most has been gained by the unification of the polarity points in the unit of the soul.

Thus the driving action of the basic to the heights in the generative struggle, has been the inductive action of the sleeping partner, the Pineal, to now awaken and begin to draw in of new life. This has been caused by the revolving serpent as the quickening blood-life passing round the basic of the brain, causing the Circle of Willis to dance. Thus has been a part of the re-actionary chain of causes, in the soul as the microcosm ever seeking to

THE YOD OF GOD

VULCAN, as the God of Fire, binds up the unbalanced states of man... "for he is the atomic spark that created the nucleus infusion... that which comes from the centre of Divinity, that untouchable Divine Essence that is unpervertable, and when that can be expressed through him he becomes the Michael, as the Yod of God, the fighting stirrer of Fire injecting into all he touches the Fiery Seed of renewed Life. (See text on page 10, col. 2).

unify all as states of awareness, thus inducing a state of induction.

Now it is a conscious direction of Unification, that in the unit becoming a point of active radiation, becomes a spinning hub. While the up and down spinning motion between heights and depths, now becomes as an extended mast point of consciousness, shooting up and out as an extending antennae.

Thus ever catching the Heights on a more evolved frequency of HERE and NOW; but can only be operative when all is becoming unified in the evolving Diamond palace of the radiating NORM. That as the atom or spark that differentiated down the Chain of Causes, now through unification to return up those involving links, as the road of Intercension.

Therefore a burning in to a point of glowing Radiation to become the atomic hub of twelve radiating points, in twenty four polished facets. Thus, this is the visionary POINT that is now seen from that plane of unity, and that which the soul now seeks to obtain, and bring to a radiating glory of light. And although only a vision of heavenly desire, an urge of a final state of Becoming.

So to understand this more fully, the student must visualise all now taking place by frequency above the seven cervical in the auditorium of

Reminiscences

DIVINE SACRIFICE

IN THE PAST TWO MONTHS, I HAVE BEEN mysteriously promising an explanation upon an unknown subject. Quite possibly many were not aware of the situation, yet some were. On December 8th 1965, David Cook, a member of my School, went out early one morning unknown to anyone else, and pulled down an old crucifix that had been placed outside a Roman Catholic church. That which had been placed there by their priests as a bait; for quite recently a figure of a man all dripping with blood, portending to be the Christ, had been taken away by somebody else. But it is a positive fact that David Cook was not a vandalist, but one believing in his principles, which he felt could only be brought to the public, and entered into the surging Waters of the Vernal inflow, by somebody making a sacrifice. But for this to be fully understood, the truth and depth of this, must be comprehended.

Vandalism is dire destruction out of sheer wantonness, and quite possibly much of this enters into the depths of these present applications of religious dissension. But DAVID COOK NO! His purpose was divinely inspired and heavenly authorised.

For in the Divine LAWS having been renewed Cosmically, their inflow into the old law automatically brings confusion, although unknown and unseen, followed on by many with zeal. For those more sensitive than others, become aware of the new Law, and embrace it. The wisdom of the living Christ, as the Divine Effulgence of the Holy Fire, was declared and believed by this School, and which became accepted by the Cosmic heights, and automatically over-rode the dead god on a cross, that had held such a ruling for Ages. That installed by the erroneous wisdom of the Roman Bishops at the beginning of the Piscean Age.

(See plate in cols. 2, 3 and 4)

This is the mystical inbirth of the Law, which neither you nor I, nor any judge or jury, can break down. When Aquarius entered, it was known that it was the Age of Relativity, where unification had to be made, where all past ideas and laws in their antiquated state, would have to be buried in, and given (See plate page 9, cols. 1 & 2) their mortuary meal. Where they were not done so, would they effect man's lives by their antiquated ruling over his status of expansion. Which at the present moment is the cause of man's mental and physical difficulties; for they are impeding the way of evolution.

Brilliant and Zealous Mystic

THESE are the mystical rites of the Occult Laws, which rule TIME and the way of

THE HOLY FIRE

WHEN Man can worship with utmost reverence his holy seed and struggle with his might and main to manifest the Living Christ then once again all will return to live under the Light and rule of the Cosmic Heights and be the Cup of the Fatherhood. (See text in col. 1). Then once more man will commence to live simply, ruled by the Spirit.

and more turned to the ways of the earth for their sustenance. Completely refuting and drawing away from the inflowing Akashic Fire from the heights, until it ended in the pope kissing a dead cold stone in the name of the living Christos LIFE, and enforcing it onto all the Race by fear and inquisitorial punishment.

All through the present Age Heroes and Prophets have been crying out against this evil, and explains Rev. 6 v. 9, 10, where the martyrs of the Ages were crying out for their blood of sacrifice to be avenged. Those who had made a similar sacrifice to which DAVID COOK had made, for truth to be recognised once again in 1965.

He, as a brilliant and zealous Mystic and occult healer, knew these Laws. He knew as indeed all Mystics do know, that until these Laws were recognised and obeyed by man, they would impede and frustrate the human soul in their obstruction. For all souls are born from these Laws that infiltrate as life breath from the Cosmic Arc, and have to be renewed in expansion as evolution proceeds. This is what David the King was doing when he moved the Ark higher and higher up the Mercurial mount of wisdom, as a new comprehension of truth.

(See plate page 9, cols. 3 & 4)

DAVID COOK was called by the higher Powers through his own inner intuitive being, to make a divine sacrifice, to awaken the public to the cause of their present source of impediment. But one that was dire and disastrous, and which, if not brought quickly to change, would destroy the holy Seed of manhood. This young man is an extreme sensitive, and one who can hear the Voices of the Heights, as he is blessed with the superluminary bridge of mystic union with the Unseen.

The Eye Witnesses

Mrs. Dorothy Bigsby of Woldingham, Surrey, writes of her impressions of the Trial.

D and I feel that we cannot let yesterday pass without expressing our gratitude for being allowed to be present. I think it would not be wrong to say that in these last few days we have learned more by the example of the two boys than all the months of development, and lectures. The devotion of the one for the other, the tenderness and care, the upliftment, the healing, the fighting upon the other's behalf, the complete forgetfulness of self.

David's concern always, nothing for himself, but how you are, how you will feel, how it will affect you. It was his victory and you are right in putting on all the lights and staying "lit up" because this is what he would have wished. This is not a time for useless fretting and sorrow, but a time for great upliftment—at the perfect sacrifice. I don't think any of us will ever be able to forget his presence in the box, full of "grace and truth."—The small things, as for instance when James was asking him about his healing, he corrected him and said it was You who were the healer, whilst he was the power station.—When the Judge asked him if he believed in all that he did, why did he run away? And the dignity and poise with which David replied that with regard to the "hurling stick" exhibited and the threat of such physical violence, he would have stayed, but it would have been disastrous.—All the time he was in the box, one felt this great confidence in him, and in my small little way, I felt that David personified all that the Father stood for.

It's so difficult to describe these things, unless one had been there and felt rather than saw the beauty of it all.

To see James fighting every inch, never letting go, fighting the Judge, and twice he ticked him off straight. I don't think D. and I have ever seen such courage as James showed yesterday, it made us both feel VERY SMALL. To speak like that in the most awful public place, with the knowledge always that one could have been laughed and derided, to face and fight the hostility of the Judge. On many occasions he continued speaking long after the Judge reprimanded him, at one place three times the Judge tried to stop him. It takes some guts you know Zamiaar.

It's very easy for us to say one should have said this, and one should have said that, but my husband said to me last night, "I take my hat off to James, neither you nor I have got one ounce of his courage, I've never seen anything like this in the courts before. And if David and James' example are the result of the teachings, then the school will never have anything to fear. Surely here is the Truth." (With your permission D. is going to speak to the class on Saturday about the example of your two Sons, because he feels it shouldn't be allowed to pass without the class being aware of this beauty).

I like to think also of the devotion of the little followers dotted around the room, trying so hard to push the power forward. Frank sat with me, up in the gallery yesterday, and Zamiaar, it was so interesting looking at the interest of the onlookers.

Whatever the result was, it was the right one surely, because the Master carried the case.—But we were blessed, because we saw the personification of the Fatherhood in the examples of the two boys, and we shall never forget it. We have been greatly blessed to have been with a perfect example of the real meaning of Love, and all who saw it, must have gone away uplifted by it.

Surely, now we see they are the Master's anointed.—I don't think I ever saw James until yesterday.

Early this morning, I saw "Two knights riding through a large gateway, on a high plateau, with the great countryside below bathed in a purplish blue mist," and the words, "Weep not over Jerusalem." I don't pretend to understand these things, but I felt rather than knew that the knights represented the souls of the two boys lifted up onto a very high plane.

You must be a very proud woman now to have the utter love and devotion of two such people.

IT WAS THEIR VICTORY YOU DID WIN.

Evolution. Laws which nobody can discard or just abandon, but know that they rule the Cosmic life and must ever be reborn in man's renewed comprehension. These Occult Laws being laws of belief set into motion by the Early Mystics and Teachers on the Stream of Life, and who were eventually claimed, after much persecution, by papalism, as their Early Fathers.

These were those who were trying to establish the Embodiment of A.D.33; but what they embodied was so sorely and badly twisted by bishop Arius in 365 A.D. that the truth was never brought to light. It was he that stated that the Embodiment, whoever he was, was a God, but was dead, thus became a dead stigma down the centuries. Of which king Constantine in the early Centuries took and placed onto a standard, and called it the libarum. His standard of belief that all men must accept.

By this act the Divine Prismic inflow of renewed life was cut off, and man more degradation by the intervention of the Judge.

I came away from the Court-room that Tuesday evening inwardly seething with rage and indignation at the events of the day. Indeed it was only my faith in the words of the MASTER, previously given to us, that I had any comfort for the second days proceedings. From the very onset—and I say this honestly without bias—it was very apparent that our Counsel had to contend with not only the opposing Counsel, but much more importantly, the Judge. So in effect it was our Counsel versus the Judge, Barrister for Prosecution and the R.C. Church. There was indeed moments that had the issue not been so grave it would have made good farce. My first realisation of what was in store was when our Counsel told the R.C. Prior that he was going to ask him some questions about the soul.

The interjecting exclamation from the Judge was only too significant, and foretold the battle ahead. But what annoyed me so much personally was that this Judge WOULD NOT ALLOW him to present his case in the normally accepted manner. This in itself must have influenced the Jury in favour of the prosecution. Of the case on the first day, to me, three points were proved.

1. The bias of the Judge in favour of the prosecution.
2. The prosecuting Barrister was ALLOWED to put false interpretations on the evidence.
3. That when the R.C. PRIOR lay stripped in mind after James had dealt with him he was purposely saved from utter degradation by the intervention of the Judge.

But as I say I left at the close very downcast but nonetheless full of admiration for our Counsel who had held his temper in circumstances in which a lesser man like myself could not possibly have contained himself. That night I prayed that somehow inspiration would be given to him to yet save the day, for logically all was lost.

I was not able to be present at the second days proceedings so confess that I awaited with some anxiety before the news of our VICTORY (for victory it is) came to me for inwardly from the very beginning I knew that some penalty would have to be paid.

I know too that David is happy to have been chosen by the MASTER to be the Scapegoat this time to do his bidding—my heart goes out to him.

This Reader is perfectly entitled to have his viewpoint, despite the fact he is highly critical of the Judge. At least we have in this country the full freedom of opinion and the greater position that a person holds the greater is he subject to scathing criticism, true or untrue according to the capacity of mind acuteness and realisation of the one criticising. But it is important to realise that he who takes upon himself a high position of state, the greater the responsibility, the greater should his capacity and ability be to perform the task he has. If he falls short through lack of training in Spiritual qualities then he only has himself to blame. If he is highly criticised and condemned in the eyes of his fellow men through his lack of ability he must manfully accept the condemnation and criticism handed out. Editor.

The mystical rite of sacrifice is one well known to the Jesuits of earlier papalism. The soul in so believing in the reborn wisdom they are advocating, that they are prepared, completely independent of all others, to carry out a sacrifice that will bring their beliefs to the fore, and is the blood sacrifice ever offered by the exponents of truth all down the Ages. This must not be voiced or linked with another, but independently carried out, then they establish into Time, the "blood-shed" in that belief.

In 1100 to 1400 A.D. the barons and burghers of England went out East and murdered and pillaged the altars of the Saracens and other eastern Races, bringing their spoils and altar vessels back to the Vatican. Each one vying for a greater trophy, with many a baron dead from their life of over-indulgence, going forth and considered holy by the popes.

When the Israelites broke away from the Egyptians, they ran off with the altar vessels. So all this was bound to have a re-cycle in its mode of burial, and accounts for the actions taking place in Relativity against the churches by those full of zeal today.

DAVID COOK did not damage any war memorial as the indictment erroneously stated, but only took action when the bait had been put up to catch any intruder. His act was entirely his own and independent of the School or influence of another; and as an old spiritualist, had often declared of how that group of people were ever vehemently decrying the crucifix, Roman Catholicism and their antiquated ways. But never did any more than just talk about it.

He was a young man who was deeply interested in the investigation of the Theologians who are investigating the Dead Sea Scrolls. But of which this young man, by his super-powers of mind interpenetration, could have told them much. For they are fully advocating, and of which is a truth, that the Christ as a human figure, has never been fulfilled. That nobody in the past had ever succeeded in reaching the qualities and mind manifestation of a Christed being; which was announced accordingly on the Broadcasting System.

R.C. False Wisdom

ROMAN Catholicism has so erroneously portrayed these Occult truths, that the wisdom of these ancient laws have been badly twisted, and lost to being redeemed and buried in. Until man does understand these, he will be twisted and sick psychologically and pathologically, even unto disaster to the Race. For Roman Catholicism is cutting away the natural resources of life, by their antiquated, false and erroneous beliefs.

It was announced previously by the Occult Gazette that the Higher Powers were going to call upon many, who knew the truth, to make such sacrifices to awaken the Race to the truth. But as usual, Herod sat in judgment, with everything being impeded and muzzled to try and prevent changes taking place.

But the change of Law had already taken place, but through man refusing to change, the Law is biting and twisting him, and will do so until he accepts. David Cook was doing the Race a kindness, he was prepared to commit this act against the impeters of evolutionary change, that the truth could be established in a court of law.

This he did, and received one weeks remand in Brixton, finally ending without any sentence or fine, being asked only to enter into his own recognizance in the sum of £25 (75$ U.S.A.), to be of good behaviour and keep the Peace for the next three years. This holds of no disgrace where he was concerned, for his intent was not vandalism, but an act that would bring the publicity into a court of law, that it could be earthed in the depths. Through this act, and through the Waters, from now onwards, religion will change, perhaps far more rapidly than we realise.

But not before time, for when you get bishops advocating sodomy, stating that the Bible does not oppose it, and popes deciding contraceptive pills, it is about time somebody took a stand. This is what David Cook undertook, completely and secretly known only to himself. For this is the Law, and fulfilled all that David Cook had sacrificed for. But, the outcome of a pope spending his time around contraceptive pills, and not the wisdom of the Spirit. So what he has done to the Race, is now coming badly back upon himself.

The New Mind Influence

ALL this is now entered into the Great Stream, and with the turn of the Vernal Equinox, will begin to work. Old religions dying, which they have already been doing, and Central Sun is now over shadowing the Solar Sun.

It only needed the final act of a Scapegoat, to bringing man to change through the returning Cosmic Waters. Thus now all is set for every man to look upwards to the great inflow of Cosmic Life, in which the Christos Blood is being radiated to the earth as life rejuvenator from the Prismic inflow. As man seeks into wisdom will he become Solar born and resuscitated, for drugs now will not save the day, but man turning to mind rebirth. The Aquarian Age being the Age of MIND.

Quite recently on March 3rd, the Daily Mail made the comment that:

"Britain needs modernisation of minds as well as machines. Out-of-date methods are as much a drag on progress as a horse-and-cart in the Hovercraft era."

So it shows how already changes are coming into being in the direction of mind growth. Although the School did not know of David Cook's intentions, what he did, was that through the Occult Laws the beliefs of the School would be activated and intensified on the Cosmic installation. Thereby being the means of intensifying the wisdom in the Cosmic Waters. This he did by the sacrifice he made in enduring prison and punishment for an act that was not of violence or criminal purpose, but to bring the truth home to the people.

If he had done this as an act of War on behalf of the Nation against an enemy, he would have been decorated as a hero. As it was, he did it for a cosmic purpose, that is for the moment, owing to man's ignorance, an act of unseen truth to the people. For man is still too imbued by fear of papalism, as enforced in the Black Ages by inquisitional enforcement, to be able to look for wider truths of life.

One has only to read the article in the Daily Mail of March 7th called "Birth Control Revolt," to see how revoltingly stupid are men and women under the control of papalism. It makes me cringe to believe that any woman could be so imbecilic, as to go crying into the confessional box to monks or priests as were witnessed in the court on the day of David Cook's trial. Surely a woman can make up her own mind regarding these matters, not go running to religion.

Surely such dynamic Cosmic Realities as I know them to be, cannot be contaminated with such low gruesome creations. In one occasion the priest told the woman to seek divine guidance, as he could not give it, and the pope was in the same boat. Finally Heenan was called to decide the problem, and in the Daily Mail of March the 8th it was stated that he with 14 others decided against; then they must have added my vote. For I too am against these contraptions, but would not like to help them try and make sense out of the bungle that the commission has made regarding it, over the past months.

This is what the Waters are going to change when the Vernal Equinox turns over, then I hope women are then going to try and come into their own, by learning to be TRUE clear minded channels of sense and wisdom to the sons of the coming generation.

What was set into motion on March 1st, St. David's Day, and finalised on the 2nd will never be forgotten. For it will go down on the annals of TIME as how a man stemmed the tide of evil retention on the minds of men. Religious theories that closed down their

RAISING UP THE ARK

THOUGH this plate is in a religious setting, it clearly demonstrates how each soul must make his own spinal Tree take root and establish in the Cosmos the great Arc of the Mind, the Solar Comprehension of TRUTH ever being raised up higher. The Feminine Principle ever giving greater birth to the Spinal Fires as they dance the dance of Le Ros, ever... "in expansion as evolution proceeds..." (See text page 8, col. 5).

and one established by the Early Martyrs that has to be redeemed by comprehension, and greater wisdom superceding it. The greater wisdom has superceded, but man is still buried in old states, which are easy going, and "fat" with incestuous comforts.

This young man who should have been given a proper hearing, and who replied brilliantly on behalf of his act, was denied this right. For his counsel said he was being badly muzzled and carved up by deliberate impediment. Consequently a jury blind to the truth, were erroneously led by a judge who, Counsel complained, had no spiritual truths to guide them, and of which the judge admitted he had no wisdom whatsoever of these matters.

This is where England had been losing her footing for years, by being impeded and strangled by old high hatted dictatoriums that have got into position only through influence, or antiquated text book education. And not one being spontaneously born to truth and wisdom, that required by all who sit in judgment.

The two priests concerned, and who were questioned upon catching David Cook, were two Irish carmelite monks. When questioned by Mr. Averill, who acted as barrister for David Cook, as usual, their wisdom as priests was appalling. They agreed that there was no dead, but when asked what did take place, stated they did not know. They believed that all souls would rise up out of the grave. When questioned as to what would take place with those cremated or mangled in the war, again replied that they did not know.

This was the greatest death knell that these two priests could have applied to their

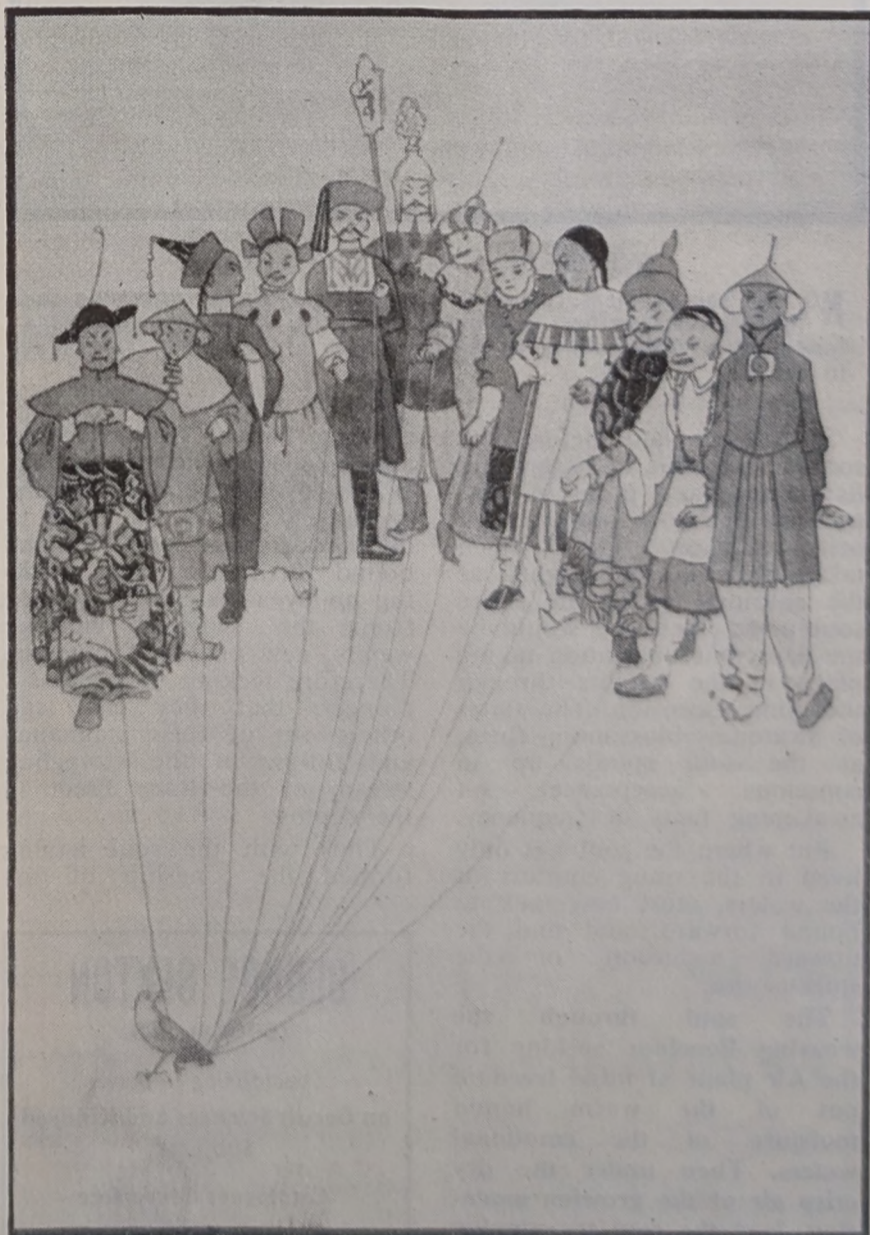

the new being enquired into and embraced by uprising intelligent minds.

But there is one point that I would like to bring, David Cook did this entirely off his own bat, and the efforts made to lead the priests into making certain erroneous statements, completely failed. For on this occasion the priests had not the courage to lie, but would have done, and very badly, if they had stated what they were being influenced to say, which could have put an innocent man in the dock; of which everybody in that court recognised.

Even being openly stated by those present, and some of whom were in an official position. This is some of the corrupt states of life the inflowing Waters are going to change, until, we prepare the way by expounding truth.

David Cook did this entirely alone, but whatever happened, his act has completely reformed the wisdom of life; while the Law of Rebirth is now operating in the new incoming tide of new life. Vast changes will now start to take place, but it is unfortunate that man is so blind, and cannot change by wisdom prerogative.

Thus the Seed of Manhood will now rise, for the Great Lord of Mind Flame, the Intelligencia of Life, will now be able to open up the minds of many. For many souls are on the verge of rebirth, and only need a final jolt to awaken them. The Cosmic changes that have been taking place in 1965 through this School, have not only redeemed the Scorpii Constellation, but opened up the Cosmic Rays, that the

FROM HEIGHTS TO DEPTHS

HENCE Merope raised up Pluto out of the waters and lifted the God off the cross... rose the Arc right up to the heights as the Central Sun to match her polarity Fount. and is known in their religious degree, as the Vicar of Christ; the intervening link between the two worlds.

Therefore as the upper receives, the lower works in silent uniformity as the basic support to the royal temple in the heights. For all now is to be the unification of the (See plate in col. 3)

Virgin's Fount with Central Sun, through the fiery Rays of the Scorpionic Waters in the depths, bringing the divine radiance of divine LIFE to manifest in the heights.

This now entails in the ascension, the divine unification of inter-birth as the Eucharistical inter-blending of radiating life force, which will feed and electrify all who partake of its unifying waters. For the reception is cosmical as well as anthropological, as the recipient, in receiving and becoming, is but a channel for the Life Stream to go forth through the unifying activation of Word and purpose. Therefore the ascension begins with a narrowing in of intensity, yet an expansion of immensity.

But the glory and beauty which grows and glows, is of its upper reflection, the right side of the picture. Where the divine temple of beauty and light becomes of the Cosmical establishment, that of future manifestation. Thus it will be by this the Law is ever involving into the law of Earth, that there can ever be a state of rebirth, that evolution bring forth of continuity.

Thus carrying the edict from the heights down into the depths, hence is the mysterious inbirth into the womb of man and nature, through the phenomenon of the Gods. With the prima materia ever nurturing the Yod of God, as Yin receiving of Yang. (See plate on page 7, col. 4)

The Spiritus Rise

WITH this laid before the student, he can now visualise the working of the soul a microcosm in the depths, but also the royal temple of his heights. Not merely as a mind, but a royal palace where the gods as the Elders of the soul, gather together and discuss the needs of the soul. Yet a wider depth of the Genus growth, as portrayed in the Book of Oaths; for here in the heights as a mind consciousness, they now come and go and show respect to the king. Thus seek to obey his now royal wisdom, brought into birth through the labouring Martha in the depths. For the mysterious (See plate in cols. 4 & 5) temple in the heights, that has laid in dereliction for so long, is now becoming alight, and showing pointed beams from many an open casement.

This alone has already started the path of involution, for the growing state of awareness is the cause of changes involving, and bringing mind light to the heights. What was dead and numb, through worldliness of religion, science and medical artificiality, now becoming a live unit of radiating wonder. While the soul, now as the basic point and Virgins Fount lost in a Cinderella garb, now awakened and seeking to find, her unification with her lost lover. (See the front page plate)

For as Persephone she has been forced into the depths for many ages past, ever married to a tribal king as a caliban state. He whom she has ever sought to awaken, finding now she is accomplishing her task; but in so doing, she now must come up out of the depths into the light, with all the outcome of her crowning glory.

For here is the Seed of Woman, the feminine principle, being raised up in androgynous unification, but raising up all the soul issue as she strides forth on her journey. (See plate on page 6)

THE CONTINUITY OF THE LAW

"Where the divine temple of beauty and light becomes of the cosmical establishment, then it will be of future manifestation in matter..." Thus it will be by this the LAW is ever involving into the Law of the Earth, that there can ever be a state of rebirth, that evolution brings forth that of continuity. (See text in col. 1).

The EL Waters

by Elzbeth Mountjoy

E is for electric,
and also Eternity,
L is for Life,
and Love that is to be,
The source of all the wonders,
The beauty shining through,
Ever pouring into hearts,
Its message loyal and true.

All must be electrified,
That is the only way,
To reach up to the Heavens,
And there forever stay,

Safely locked in an embrace,
And held by Powers on high,
And to our Lord and Master,
Unto Him we now draw nigh.

He who always protects us,
And is forever true,
Always watching over us,
In everything we do,
The Master and the Saviour,
Of the world to be,
He, the Royal Manu,
Who rules our Destiny.

THE MEDEA FANS THE FIRES

NO task can be measured as so important as that of upraising the generative fires unto the heights, and here can be seen Medea tending the fire, fanning it into the blaze of the mind. (See text in col. 3).

So having laid before the soul the wonders of its growth, its heritage and point of purpose, we can now start the road of unification. That which takes place in the heights, as the enfolding in of the entire soul unit; therefore would be the conscious unification taking place in the heights through the mind ascension. The states of awareness blossoming forth, as the soul spirals up in conscious acceptance of awakening facts of frequency.

But where the soul has only lived in the smug comfort of the waters, must now seek to bound forward, and find the upward ascension of the spiritus rise.

The soul through the weaving Penelope seeking for the Air plane of mind freedom out of the warm humid moisture, of the emotional waters. Then under the dry crisp air of the growing ascension, lead the soul to spinning up to find the elasticity of mind; then begin the search for the electrical activity from the now inflowing El Waters.

For by this can she as the worker in the depth, set the plowing bull to becoming the antennae action in the heights. Where, by him shooting up and down, now causes the mind to dance up and down, and bound forth into Space, picking up by a state of frequency from the swirling vibronic waters, new points of purpose. Therefore seeking to become a pioneer, that they can lead others out of their stagnancy and follow in the straggling stream of the Race Elect in the depths.

Thus with the soul having formed the kingship of the mind in the heights, its growing awareness by the Law of Attraction begins to draw in from the Heights.

Yet in the stripping and unifying, there will be many points of association that the soul will meet as it goes forth from the depths. For after so long in the depths, Mary as she seeks to get free, is sure to find old associations pulling. Old ideas as root causes beckoning out of rock clefts that have never been broken open before. These she must seek to unify as she climbs up, for man's multiple kingdom built up around him on his road of creation as the forming genus, is amazing in its multiplicity.

Yet now as the mind growth, all is taking to Ariel flight, through the mind seeking to free itself from the trammels of the depths; comprehending the abstract creation of growth, from the form life of the depths.

(See plate in cols. 3, 4 & 5)

For there is much hidden in secret chambers pulling and holding, as Martha strives to vibrate her wings; and shows her more clearly in every step she takes, how unification is so necessary.

So now by realisation she draws all forward by her awakened mind purpose, and seeks to fly upwards in mind ascension as points of mind deduction. Ever avoiding

THE DESPERATE CRY

WHEN the soul has reached the desperation of one crying in the wilderness, if he raises up his thoughts unto the highest frequency he can attain, he may ever succeed in breaking through the prison of self holding him in bondage to matter. (See text in col. 2).

circling round and round in the old vortex of merely creating; thereby no longer building up in multiplicity, and species in continual incest. Therefore driving towards the upper planes, that she visualises in her mind belief.

But she finds that perception now is so acute, that fear, the brother to sensitivity, often plays an enormous part, causing the soul on this new road of creation, for a time to jump and hop. So here is another problem that Martha has to solve, for she must not grow into a grasshopper on freedom. It is a lonely road, this now possible path of new to every initiate, for it is a complete reversal of what has been, whereby now, it is not just unification of the soul, but unification with the universal heights.

things that would impede its way. Therefore it is only where the lion-hearted will go, for many mounts and crags have to be spanned and risen above, before a clear blue sky of unimpeded freedom can be reached.

(See plate below)

These are the possibilities of the rising genus, which even the nation of the soul are not aware of; for now it is only that of the working consciousness who will fight to raise up the soul, to the vision that lies before her.

For no pioneering task is easy, and all calls for ridicule, loneliness and ostracisation; with many a loved one left behind, in the cloying waters. For the very thought of discarding such security is absurd, so they go on enduring and depths, in mind unification, blending all roots and beliefs, bringing forth a realisation.

For she now in her spinning up and down has opened the locked ivory door of mind comprehension, and what was of yesterday as the mystery of the depths, blended with the reality of today, is the vision coming forth in comprehension, of what can be put into operation.

The unfolding diadem of the heights, that now is beginning to radiate forth, as a lighthouse in the heights. But as the road narrows, yet opens up in mind awareness, door after door is flung wide open; for what was a mystery is no longer a hidden secret, for vista after vista of realisation bursts into view. Yet so

SOLAR ALCHEMICALISATION

THIS should not be seen as any battle, save one within the bloodstream, where the solar fires are continually meeting old ideas and states that wont change, and then battle commences, as the solar fires force the changes, giving unto the old the mortuary meal as the new awareness permeates the mind. (See text in col. 4).

As the last of the road is gathered in, the soul scrambles over rocks and rubble, for they are now blending mouth with Fount, the extreme depths with the heights. Struggling to reach their spawning ground, where they must gather in all the fish, that, as the lightning bolt flashes across the harvest field, all is electrified into action. This is where the lamp in the lighthouse now becomes alight, and the soul is chosen as the radiating beam, to guide all ships into port. Yet they did not reach the heights as a hero, met with the flaring of trumpets, but as a soul struggling with mind embracement, as the final act of unification slips into place.

For what has been born has no visionary placing in the world of Matter, but is the jubilation of the Supreme Heights. For this is where the sons of Glory sing in the heavenly reunion, for what is now as the unification of depths and heights as the Path of Androgyneity, has yet to be born in the world of rebirth.

Where all men will rise up from the depths, to be blended together in one glorious array.

THE WINGED EAGLE

HIGH in the Heavens is his domain, and wide his vision, giving transforming the passions into the royalty of mind Light. Here the Scorpionic Fire is raised up as the Spinal Rod, opening up each of the chakras, uniting them in their points of mind awareness until Solar Consciousness is born. (See text in cols. 1 and 2).

Man has tried to create all this in mechanical apparatus, which really was only a fore-runner as the prototype of mind ascension; but the soul now with only its own credentials, and not the wealth of earth comfort.

(See plate in col. 1)

For its first task was to strip, and take away those the increasing damp rot of sickness and disease. So her point now is to get sufficiently up out of the nitrogenic atmosphere of matter, so as to be free to completely unite in the heights.

So what is required now is clear unimpeded perception, that the soul as a god-born creature can span the heights amazingly simple, that it is the simplicity and not the mystery that overwhelms the spirit-born soul. What was darkness now is light, and sympathy never known before, is now being extended to the rebellious sheep. Yet not to be lost in the mistaken love of pity, but the full compassionate wisdom of experience.

minds, and shut off the inflowing ethers from the heights. Thus causing the Race to wilt and die under the theme of human illusionary pompous self-aggrandised beliefs. States that have previously been the cause of many a Nation coming to penury.

Expansion in a Nation through active creation, is the only means of it thriving and becoming a spinning hub to the world. A dead god on a cross will never do that, but only the living inflowing Waters from the heights, as that coming from the Root and Source, that of the Unknown Creator. Yet that which is ever activated by the Christos Blood of the Solar Arc.

Papalism is not even alright for the Irish, Spanish and Italians who cannot think for themselves, let alone an Englishman with the heritage he holds from the mysterious wealth gained from the past. For whatever Race you are, you all hold untold wealth that must be returned to the heights as light. But this can never come about while a religion holds over the people such narrow restrictive themes and theories.

EVERY MAN MUST THINK FOR HIMSELF, FOR ONLY HE IS RESPONSIBLE FOR HIS ACTIONS.

In the eyes of the earth judge on March 2nd, David Cook was an offender of antiquated laws created and established by a cult of religion, that has ever through the Ages caused nothing else but bloodshed, fear and sorrow. And now in a complete state of schism through what they have put into the stream of their own growth.

While in the eyes of the Divine Christos Effulgence, David Cook was the saviour of these people. For he entered into the Stream that which will start off a new purpose of life, that will release all men and women from the evil that they have had to endure under the ruling of Roman Catholicism.

What he did was not vandalism, but an emulated act of Truth.

David Spearman-Cook is my adopted SON, and one who stepped in to complete the task that my own son started, and hadn't the courage to finish. Even though the theme of action adopted by us, was his installment into the cosmic creation. David stepped in at the last moment, and took on the burden of the Chief Bull, the firing pin to the group. Firing all into action and leading them onwards to the greater purpose, but the greatest task he undertook himself.

Now, the last point that I would like to bring. In the March Issue of the Gazette, I stated that the Sodomy Bill would not go through. Well! once again the Masters will be right, for this Bill is being thrown out by the General Election. If ever we offer up a prayer for anything gained we must for this, for only I knew how serious this was. Now turn our eyes to Mr. Wilson, for he is the hope of the future.

begins, and the dogs begin to get onto the scent of the hare, never to actually catch it and violently devour it, but ever following in the wake of its scent. So ever gather up of its unfolding wealth as race after race become the moving event. Therefore as the vagrants twang and strum out their story, the unfolding nagas dance and quiver. Drawing in, unfolding into of the rising spirit, as an interblending royal birth.

Out and in, in and out, ran the dogs on the arena, giving in, drawing out, impregnating Solar into luna. Man and beast dancing with joy as the El powers flirt and inveigle causing Venus to lure on Mars, with no uncertain demeanour. Driving the adrenals as they have never been driven before forcing the cortin to flow freely, with the rising sensitivity spanning higher and higher, to a point of Solar achievement.

The difficulty lies in the soul holding tight to the horses, causing the volume to rise, forcing the expanding Jupiter Superbus, to force the expansion harder. For as usual the fight is between Jupiter and Saturn, as to who gets the prize, Uranus as the sparking hoof, or the tiger powers becoming glutted into a raging inferno. So as we go up, Venus and Mars dance and flirt, enticing Mercury onwards, causing the quivering vagrants to bend and sway, as the spiritus air rises. This is a journey never known before, for it is the tail-end of an enormous and dynamic story. One where all is gained, or all is lost, for it is the true pitch of the coin.

As the first round is won, the intensity heightens, for the Chakras revolve quicker and quicker, chasing the hare, ever involving the scent, and bringing life to the moving transformation. For as we move up, a glowing takes place, where waters dance and sparkle. A revolving glory of moving wonders, unfolding its changing beauty; for Mercury dancing up and down is unfolding the ariel flight, where Pisces as the Piscis, is turning her fan from outwards into inwards.

This is where all in being prepared as the involving glory, is polarity of depths with heights, as the depths as the past is changing its story. Jack scaling the beanstalk would disturb the castle of the giant in the reigning realms. For now, all is transformation by impregnation as the Fount unifies with the mouth. Hence up we go, quivering under the strain, subduing the tiger Powers, for to get them peaceable in their cage is half the battle won.

The Gate of Sorrow

AS we gather nearer and nearer to the heights, faint glimmers of light begin to dawn, for doubts and fears vie with sensitivity, that the perception can be caught. Thereby become the laurel wreath of one so brave, the mastery of heights and depths.

Thus fluidity must be maintained, yet ever the involving Waters. The dancing life and the coming glory of the revolving transformation.

So as we climb up rung by rung, the mystery that finally unfolds out of the ancient depths, is the mud bank of the waters. Yet the very depths where the pearl is kept, and became lost in the fall back into the waters. So what has been, must now become, as the rising mind conquers the day, for the tigers in being captured roar and prance up and down the tightened cage. For it was such as this that Job struggled for, and let go of the reins in his dilemma. Now as a Florence Nightingale whatever be the criticism, the will must be strengthened and the intent intensified, and the five move in up to the heights.

This way and that way they sway and move, holding tight to the foaming horses. For as they swamp their feet and neigh and greet, as Hippocrene they strike the rock, and there comes the gushing forth of the waters. Then the mastery of this dramatic journey begins to make its finale, for the sparking rock is drying out as it meets to capture the Piscean glory. For what is in man is in the Cosmos, the heights feeding the depths; helping the cause of Evolution to fulfill its sorrowful story. For Pisces through the weight it had to bear, eventually became the gate of sorrow, with possible glory.

For slowly the fluidity that was to become the moving glory of the waters, only became the radiance of the full moon and not the Solar glory.

With the Firebird becoming only a black crow, lost to pomp and glory.

The Camel Train

BUT this is the story that we now are transporting, bringing light to the lost vision, for what only became creed and dogma, with popes with mitred hats, must now become the golden spawning pool of fish retrieved from the depths.

So as the leviathan came up and passed over the heights it rose the mount to its extended heights. Thereby the sensitivity quivered and grasped the laurel wreath given to the victors of the fire. For with the passing down over the Arc, would that set smouldering in the heights, burst into flame as the passover was finally accomplished. This is the mystery of ever becoming, that through the Ages never became, with all the wealth and glory of expansion, becoming the might of men. Not the Spirit, that which would have given the soul wings, but mitred hats and tonsored brows, and crosses large and ostentatious.

This is the unravelling that we are now undoing, but which has many clauses incorporated, for as the heights are set a-smouldering, that the spawning fish can swell the ground, the involving depths of the Cave, is the mystery to finally be obtained.

For with every move and fully perceived, sensitivity is unravelling perception, driving the mystery into reality as the unfolding flame.

For as the dead of the Patriarchs were, buried in, has it ever been the mode of burial. But very few finding the way of retrieving in the transporting change. For most only found multiplicity, and duplicity of an alarming nature; thereby have ever created down in the depths, and filled a muddy pool full of minnows.

The unravelling now of this mighty secret, is the great story of the Aquarian Age. The lost road and the jammed flood-gates, that prevent the waters diminishing; that the higher waters can raise the boat up onto its keel level.

So as the soul struggles to find reality, which is the key to becoming, the wealth of Ages unfolds its beauty in the revealing waters. For as the moving camel train moves down the Arc, the unification slowly becomes complete.

THE WHIRLING CHAKRAS

... that should 'have become the whirling chakras, ever looking upward to the Spirit and dancing all into life. The ever circling Vesica Piscis... "that which balances the soul with its final interpretation." (See plate on page 16, col. 3).

Reality opens up, and the pool of the spirit feeds the unbending soul.

Then as they move unto the spawning ground, the winnowing fan works faster. For it can only be by the jumping of the tide, that the unity can reverse its nature. Heights, depths, breadth and width are now all involved in the clamour, bringing glories and wonders into birth, that no man has ever plumbed, or found the way of revealing. For when Jacob was buried in, Joseph retired into Egypt, and was buried there, with his bones to become the support of the multitude.

But when man threw the Yod down the pit, he had created seeds that were buried in the Cave that he now in relativity must recover. Bring to light and expound their values, that there can be an antidote given to the present dilemmas of the soul.

For here lies the answer to man's problems, what lies down in the twelfth house of the soul. This is the polarity of (See plate page 13 col. 1 & 2) the Void as the Cave where everything is buried in and retrieved.

But has its one pointed reaction of rebirth in the first house as the soul's head renovation. The rise up of the planes as the soul discards the circus of Animals, and finds the royal status of the spirit. This is where the passover takes place in the month of Abib, when the Solar crosses the equator and the steep rise up starts to take place.

For unless man makes this complete, he has no revolving Piscis.

So until the soul makes depths with heights, there is no revolving waters; thus ever lives in the depths, where he only perceives of might.

The Passover

HENCE the story that is now being revealed, is the key to the unfolding manhood. The way of becoming, the way to go forth, the way to jumping the hurdles. It is the story of the soul ever moving on, in a blindness of something ever expected; for every soul partook of the Embodiment, thus every soul is its own saviour.

The bringing up of the Spirit as the electrified rock, and releasing the heights is the mystery of the Flame shooting up to the unseen heights. Thus creating a pylon from heights to depths, as the internal Cave is released. What takes place in the complete revolving, changes Pans and Satyres into a more reborn state. Hence with every revolving completion, a new birth is brought into life, changing the status of the void, growing leaves on the Oak of Mamre. It is ever the soul producing expansion out of the egg of his own being; the Solar birth ever bringing a movement into life, from destiny to evolution. It is like all the wheels of a clock bringing the hour movement of the small hand to a point of conclusion, the recorder and marker of TIME. Thus at the striking of twelve, everything moving into place. Hence all the struggles, Tears and sorrows are transformed, according to the effort the soul has made.

Pisces being the winnowing gate, for either the soul has made the passover in the slow "dribble" through, or it became congested in the waters and went down to the bottom of the pool. So here would be the complete status of the Pool of Siloam, where the blind man learns to see. The triad of the whirling waters started in Cancer, fired in Scorpio and frictioned into life in Pisces. Here where the City of the Sun receives new light, for Aries, the head of creation, is the exaltation of the Sun. The revealing of the whole Universe within the soul, according to its efforts to assimilate and translate.

For unless it is brought to a fulfilment, as the Fount uniting with the mouth... no transmutation will take place.

Unless there is a transmuting of the Void, which brings complete realisation, no word will be spoken.

THE FIERY LIFE

THE Fiery Essence that sets the heart ablaze that the EL powers can catch the soul alight, and they become the flaming mind." The Very IT that fires every particle of LIFE. (See text on page 16 col. 4).

THE CAMEL TRAIN

... "as the camel train moves down the Arc the unification slowly becomes complete. Reality opens up and the pool of the Spirit feeds the unbending soul." All the wealth of the soul set moving bringing forth the Solar Light. (See text on page 12, col. 3).

Hence Pisces and the point in the Island of Reil, synchronise with one another. It is the turning of the switch in the heights which starts the gyroscopic rise, and the spinning up takes place in the passover from the 12th to the 1st. With the result, the light in the centre of the hub, shines greater and greater and greater.

The centre of the diagram represents the unfolding soul, the ever radiating point of continuity; the new born light of unfoldment, bringing the heavenly rise of the soul. The dissolving point in the Island ing the bristling boar. With the result, his mother Althea threw the brand given to her by the Gods into the fire. Hence Meleager was forced to burn, losing all the wealth his mother had gathered for him.

This was the wisdom referred to in Gen. 48, where Jacob blesses Joseph's sons. Joseph had brought them out between his knees and bowed his face to the earth. The Capricornian mount, where all then passed down to the Pool, where Israel came to bless them. The El Powers either being allotted or lost. Hence Joseph as the Yod of the spirit, placed Ephraim at the left hand of Israel and Manasseh at his right hand. But Israel reversed the order in the blessing, which Joseph was unhappy about; for Manasseh was the first born and only received that of the left hand. When questioned, Israel said Manasseh shall become a people, but Ephraim shall become greater, for he shall become as a multitude of Nations.

the wisdom of the soul. For 1966 in its numerical order is 1966=22=4. The two winnowing ears of the moon as 22, with 4 as Mercury in the four square base, either as a jumping off ground for the pyramidal rise, or the basic plane of the desert as a tramp for untold years.

Yet it could be the soul born of elevated light, to start off the new Sothic Cycle. The New Race born from outer world Space, that can rise up to the fifth dimension. But it must ever be remembered, the horse can be led to the well, but it cannot be forced to drink.

Hence mankind are being led to the well, with every facility to raise them up, but as to whether they will drink, is another matter. For these Waters are fierce but great, that will raise a man right up; but as to whether he be alright or blank, depends upon the soul. Did he fish on the banks of Pisces, or did he sleep in the noonday sun? And furthermore if the passover was accomplished, did Aries in the change over awaken, or merely become a Meleager.

The soul born from the wealth of the Universe, the whole Cosmic Glory of the heavens; yet broiled and shaped by the soul with its Sut growth, and spiralled up to dynamic heights. For it is he who raises the Arc of life, and gives to Manu his radiance; the power to draw forth yet greater light to resurrect the pearls of life, the wonders of the heavens from their watery grave. But also the son, who in his sorrowful wanderings, finds the new ways of life.

Glories that come forth by chance happenings, when all seems lost and gone; for by struggling down in the labyrinth to find freedom, necessity becomes the mother of invention.

This is how new worlds are born in their nebula essence. Worlds frothed forth as the soul struggles for life through the atomic rebound of the Chain of Causes. Life buried in and life raised up, by the son caught in the trammels of of life. Hence Israel's statement regarding Ephraim, he shall be greater, for he shall become as a multitude of Nations.

The waning that struggles to find life out of the hell of becoming, with the Seed of Life as the Panacea of God, becoming the radiance of his mind.

The will to live, the will to become, the will to do or die.

The Elijah who struggles to feed the ravens, and as Daniel braves the fiery furnace.

Hence Pisces is the house of sorrow, yet the house of enormous wealth; that risen up and gained through the struggles of life. Saturn who is wrestled with and turned from the green into golden, for old states are scythed away and man given the freedom of his mind. Luna states now of the Solar, as the inter-union in the Cave is made complete. For no man can take but what is his due, as he makes the journey over,

"For every firstling of an ass, shalt thou redeem with a lamb". The passions re-born as the solar light, but "if thou wilt not redeem it, then thou shalt break his neck." The stubbornness of Taurus. (Exd. 13 v. 13).

"Therefore every man according to his eating shall make his count for the lamb. But they must be without blemish, and a male for the first year. (12 v. 4, 5)."

Voice of the Lord coming forth.

Hence joy and peace to all men, Adonicus rise up and come forth, for the pearl is the royal seed of man, that now only to be found in a solidified state. That which became lost under the waters, and hidden amongst the sand.

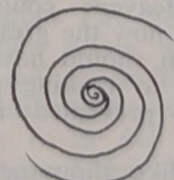

The pineal being the true seed, the royal seed of the mind, where all that is created

THE MASK

SLOWLY over the centuries of creed and dogma, so priesthood got such a hold that all free mind movement became nullified and what took over was the rule of mischief, power, righteousness, etc. all concealed by pomp and power. (See text on page 12, col. 4).

of Reil is that of the orientalis; that is, the unfolding of the god presiding over the point at which an estate begins. The building up in the mind of the soul in centripetal and centrifugal action . . .

The winnowing in that completely transmutes with a winnowing out that starts off the god anew. This all around Silvanus who became killed by Apollo, the Solar light. He could not get reborn of the Solar light, so remained as Mars Silvanus a cypress tree. That is, just leaves on the tree as knowledge, and not radiance to the soul as wisdom. But stayed in the 12th house, the house of Pisces, until it was redeemed by the mortuary meal resurrected by a Scapegoat.

Then Aries ruled by Mars would have Andromeda chained to a rock; the personality in chains, ever trying to fight off the monster Cetus. Not going forward like Perseus as a warrior to set her free, but Aries as a Meleager ever chas-

This was the winnowing fan of the twelfth house, where the waning in all its struggles would bring the creme of TIME. The ever eating up of the old states, that Virgo the polarity of Pisces could find freedom, and could go forth to find fields anew. It is where Aries would find a jumping off, for a new Sothic Cycle, the outcome of a new mind thought. Where the sows' ears as the month of Abib become the silken purse, as they grovel in the mud for the pearls. That which would be the means of ever bringing the extended horns of the goat, which is contested for by Aries the Ram. Thus the combine harvester, reaping the wealth of the harvest.

The Year 1966

FOR 1966 is going to be a dynamic harvest, for the Cosmic Rays as the El Powers are going to be the means of raising up every plane of the earth, and every soul into light. But the great question is, will the light be blank or radiating with electrical fusion,

ASTARTE, THE QUEEN OF THE LUNAR DEPTHS

HERE is seen the constant waxing and waning as Woman ever tries to expand the Holy Fires into the Great Mind. The Winged Scarabaeus, the divine up-raised Passions spurring on the activity the dancing conscious mind, which as the personality Martha labourer of the lunar depths is seeking for new ideas with which to feed the heights.

Every man shall take of the Solar Blood according to his eating, but let it be handed up at the end of the year without blemish; and furthermore of a male, that of positive growth. Giving back to the heights, wealth of electrified life. Therefore Pisces is the sign preparing the way for Aquarius to bring forth of its unification. The glories and the mysteries buried in the Waters, that the centrifugal journeys make. Now the centripetal to bury all in, that the God up in the heights of the mind of the soul, who has only been an Ali Baba up till now, comes forth of the Solar light, in glorious array.

The heavens raised up and radiating with light, scintillating with the joys of the Central Sun. For the Lord of the heavens is now come forth as the raised up golden Flame. The glorified beauty of the Scorpii Constellation, that will bring new life to all men. For as they so seek of the Holy Fire, will its wonders come forth within them.

The wonders of the Golden Truth, born out of the Fire born mind, the Waters raised up and fired into life as the

from the heights is brought forth, and fired into a living creation. That which would truly open up those "pearly gates," the glorious gates of Neptune. Ever with the comprehension of "not casting pearls before swine," thereby throwing the royal seed down the pit, the animal states of desire.

For by now it must be clearly seen, that Pisces is really a royal sign, but turned into a burial ground by man in his lack of sacrifice. Thus forged states of inertia into the influence that has brought it to a form of prison; for when man lost his royal estate, the rebirth of the Cave was his greatest problem. Ever turning in the tartar states that gathered through his delight in illusion.

But once he could realise that he was the Spirit—the fiery birth from the Waters—then he would find the secret of ever rising up out of the lower states of matter. Fully perceiving that they were not life, but the captivity that held him to the rock, in the humid waters.

That which destroyed the glory that he was seeking, the royalty of a freed MIND.

THE GREAT EAGLE'S HEALING COLUMN

AS the Passover was made so The Solar Element entered into the Stream that is inflowing to the Earth calling for mankind to turn towards the wisdom and discard his old ideas. For unless he does so he will become mindless. The rise-up has begun, and as it goes up will the man who makes the effort be drawn up with these Waters, but those who do not, will be left at the base completely lost, blank and blind. And yet all planes are lifted up and man is ready for the glorious rise in the Solar In-birth; for the whole world now is radiating with Solar Light.

All lunar creations have been drawn in and dried up, and it is only man with his own ideas who refuses to let-go of illusion; the soul still holding on to the old lunar states. Now you who are learning, you who are understanding, you who are seeking the depths of comprehension, should by now have some idea of what this literally means. Unless you struggle, unless you make every attempt to get onto the other side of the field, you will merely go more and more down to the density of matter.

Sickness is not cured through the physical body becoming pumped with vitamins, or drugs or turning to the animal foods, but only tackling the root cause of where the sickness commenced, and this is in the mind of the soul, in the etheric body. This month we have chosen what to the medical world would be three types of cases impossible to change but which to the Spirit are indicated clearly to stem from a refusal of the three souls to expand their minds and draw in and embrace the Solar Element. Man must learn Wisdom whereby he can so awaken with his mind that he by gaining the Wisdom 'buries' in of the sod of Time these past states of animal and animal-human experiences, extracting the light of mind comprehension of the Wisdom of Knowing.

A so-called "Slipped Disc"

Mrs. R. L. F. of Angus, Scotland, writes:

Is it possible to have help for a neighbour? He drives a heavy lorry. For ten years he has suffered from a 'Slipped Disc.' He wears an uncomfortable belt with strong support at the back, and has a band under the midriff. At the present moment he is in bed and receiving pills for the pain. The doctor now says that the disc will have to be removed, when the back is in a fit state for the operation, and that there is a chance that once this disc is removed another disc will slip.

Could anything be done for him before the doctor operates?

THE whole conception the medical world have on the so-called theory of the slipped disc is without any foundation. To allow the knife to cut and thrust when a little common-sense would prevent it, is really criminal. The body is a sacred institution built by the soul over a great number of lives, and yet in a few minutes an enormous damage could accrue by some action such as this operation.

Mrs. R. L. F., you are a woman whom I know has been taking of the wisdom and studying hard, and mending your ways as and when you were able to recognise the sense of the wisdom being taught. You have learnt of the importance of the Spinal Road, of the urgency to spin the kundalini fires up the spine and on to the pituitary, the dance of Le Ros, where the soul through the constant interaction of the vagrant nerves raises up the sensitivity of the practical everyday conscious mind. By struggle to understand he gains an ever greater point of comprehension, higher and more expansive. By commanding the lower passions as well as the Taurean desires of the delights, the soul is able to get past the Cervical rocks and expand the energies created by his spinal inter-action into ever greater beliefs of mind awareness, ever gaining greater freedom and expansiveness of original thought, seeking ever upwards to the Spirit and not earthward towards the fleshpots.

The neck chakra and the 7 cervical vertebrae are the arc of the 5th Chakra, that which rules the thyroid and parathyroid glands in the front of the neck, that which is a reservoir for the solar energies to feed the brain tissues and to heighten the sensitivity.

If you will visit this man and tell him about the wisdom of the Sacred Spinal Flowers, and tell him that the cause of his so called slipping of the disc is in fact that he has awakened the Kundalini Serpent Fire through studying the Word, and possibly risen it up as far as the Dorsal Cervicals, but in this life he has not continued with his unfoldment and mind expansion, but instead has turned back into his old ways of the flesh. This is one action that the soul simply cannot do and is one of the worst violations he could make.

The sleeping "serpent" having been awakened and started to rise by the soul's eagerness to seek into the Word, if such search and vagrant inter-action ceases, the sacred Fire starts to "burn and spit" which the soul interprets to be something entirely different.

Once this warning commences to occur, and the soul had the wisdom and sensibility to respond to it rising, by forcing itself into movement and mind enquiry, this Fire far from biting into the spine will rise up further, opening the spinal sensitivity, and bringing forth the Spiritus Air that then goes up over the medulla oblongata and pons varolii, across the infundibulum and onto the pituitary at the root at the back of the nose.

So if Mrs. R. L. F. will go to see him and teach him what to study and how to sit with his spine erect drawing up from the coccyx the fire, forcing it up the spine by mind and driving will, this man if he has the faith and belief in these Truths, will not only get well but will not have the most criminal of all operations the interference to the Spine. This is the Sacred Moses' rod and that of Aaron, and when it was referred to his 'serpent' being the more powerful it was that the wisdom he gained by raising his fires was superior to the Egyptians and thus was the better able to give interpretation to the Pharaoh's Dreams.

The Driver will no doubt find that the pain is situated between the last two sacral cervicals and the first of the Lumbar's. If he has the guts to ignore the Doctor's and to remember that they have NO power over him whatsoever, and he can and should ignore them, he will conquer this. Directly he starts raising the seminal powers upwards he will start to feel them rise and the pain go, especially if his mind is active drawing down the Solar Light. Special Healing will go out to him and every help afforded to him

As for herbs HORSETAIL and BLESSED THISTLE (which is the correct name and translation for this Thistle kind, Carduus Benedictus) are specific to give aid and we would suggest taking as one herb as much MARI GOLD as he can drink.

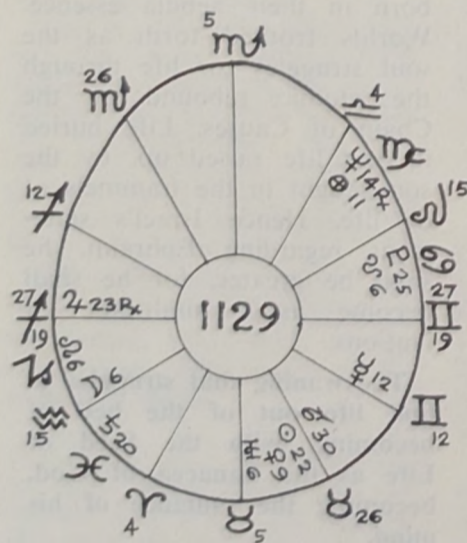

If he allows the Knife to get at him he will lose his Cerebro-Spinal Fluid, the Sacred Wine of god Life, which the soul has built over Time, in fact his wealth. To have the butchers to cut and take this away, or to in any way interfere with the Sacred Rod of the Gods would be utterly tragic.

Diabetes

Mrs. J. M. S. of Barnsley, Yorkshire.

(Chart 1129) writes:

I have been a diabetic on 24 units of Insulin, since 1960. Until quite recently I have maintained good health and the diabetes has been well controlled by the insulin... on some days I am void of all energy, wanting to do very little in the way of exertion. If you could prescribe me anything I shall be most grateful. Could I be placed on the Absent Healing List?

FIRST you are all recommended to re-read my Instrument's article in her Reminiscences in June 1963, where she sets out very clearly the root cause of the disease. I repeat the essentials again.

This is a very mysterious illness and is linked around the viscera, which the Egyptians revered so much that they placed them sacredly in the Canopus jars. The liver, pancreas and spleen are the organs that deal with the metabolism of food into blood quality, but also the unity of Spirit blood into the earth blood, this being the Elixir Vitae, that is derived from the fire Seed that is secreted in the Seminal Waters.

HEALING PRAYER

WE now call upon The Great Ones, the Great Powers of the Heights, and we place before you the Great Wealth left with mankind tonight as the Glories of the Waters; Wealth that only he can walk into the Earth, and in so doing, leave his mark with life. And as man leaves his mark upon the Earth he places his mark upon the Stars; for unless he does leave it upon the Earth, he can never create his starry heights twinkling with glory and wonder. A mighty depth that man has never yet understood or made any attempt to seek into. So we leave it in Thy care, Great Ones.

AMEN EXCELSIOR IN GLORIAM

It is this that gives the child life, and is, in the female, the nucleus seed in the ova. Showing the importance of reverencing our sacred fire, which man is at present very badly abusing.

It is here in these organs that the Blood of Life feeds the soul and begins the first change of mortality to immortality, the higher self. This is in keeping with evolution in its churning the cogs of the wheels.

In the pancreas is what is called the Isle of Langerhans where a secretion called Insulin is manufactured. This is the energy factor to the body and is the Spirit that is being brought forth through the aid of the mechanism of the spleen through Osmotic infusion. For in this organ there is the receiving and depositing of corpuscular change. This organ in particular is called the Gateway to the soul: the mysterious organ of spiritual changes. All this is very important where the human is concerned, for in the metabolism, taking place in the liver and in the pancreas, the immortal life energy is blended.

This is something the soul cannot do without, for as soon as he does, and takes things that are contrary to the spiritual qualities, it throws all balancing factors out of gear. When this is not working properly, and the spirit is not able to get through to one who has changed their inner bodies, a very depleted state takes over and is diagnosed by the Medical authorities as DIABETES.

Later my Instrument writes: (in referring to Diet).

What they need is the Spirit Fire and not the earth fire... these souls are really very evolved souls and it is not religion they require: this they have had, and reached a higher plane of acceptance. Now they require that of the Gnosis, higher mysticism where they can draw down of the spirit through their own effort of understanding.

Really it is not an illness but soul rebirth, but because man has become so complicated, and lacking in wisdom, instead of being a joyous unfoldment onto higher planes, it is a time of pain and sorrow. It is a point where either the soul goes on or faces trouble, a very important junction in their life. For it is a moment where it can view the higher horizon, but under the circumstances cannot understand or recognise what they have arrived at.

In Mrs. J. M. S.'s Chart can be seen the root cause of WHY she has this Disease. Remembering that the cause is in the Etheric body and the effect in the physical, it is important to take note of her chart. This shows that as a result of past lives this young woman has really taken untold riches. In the days of Medo-Persia of ancient araby, time of Taurean Equinox, she captured untold wealth, as can be seen by her Venus-Urania conjunct and her Sun and Mars conjunct, all 4 planets in the Taurean sign.

This was the richest period of history during which the Fires of Scorpio tried to set Taurus alight so that they could return the Fire back to the Gods. But instead the Sultans and Beys took the Fire and held it, using it to set the women adancing. This Mrs. J. M. S. did but did with abandon and like Judah she so abused the holy Fire she caused the Spirit (Neptune) to go down into the 8th House Pit, the Pit of animals. This the house of the Polarity of Taurus, that of Scorpio ruler of the generative Fires. This young woman has untold riches waiting to be buried permanently in by taking in the necessary wisdom, like Sheherazade-Dinarzade, giving a complete answer to the unsolved problem. Neptune is the ruler of the 12th house of Pisces, and Pisces is in the 2nd house ruled by Taurus, showing that religious knowledge and untold learning gathered with the Medes and Persians has never been expanded into new ideas. The soul has not tested and tried out further ideas, making new furrows, sowing new corn, building new bridges.

The personality consciousness has never moved from the first days of being brought into birth as a mind state by the Feminine Principle. All had fallen to her wiles, and the result had been a soul rich in wisdom and the knowledge of how to place all into Fired action (Jupiter in Sagittarius in the 12th) but the weaving consciousness had not placed that learned into practical example. Thus there was a split between the 8th and the 12th and instead of the soul establishing a quoit, a wholeness of comprehension with no ends and threads to clear away, had dillied and dallied in the 8th house of the pit and danced the pleasures of the fleshpots.

The Jupiterian action as the Lord of the Heavens could not be made and now the great Draco Fire which should have driven the soul to making a new "Heaven," prevented it being expressed.

So this soul like thousands of others split herself into two ways: she took the wisdom and accepted the same as truth, but would not make any altar sacrifice of the Taurean desires. Saturn the planet of the immovable rock, (old ideas, habits and ways) that the soul has placed in the 2nd Taurus house, in the sign of Pisces, shows that it was this that was the root cause, the refusal to tread into the earth the wisdom.

In Diabetes where the soul is not turning to the Spirit, when in a past life he has done so, he is preventing the energies of the body, ... the sugar, being absorbed by the muscles.

Readers' Letters

A SPECIAL request is sent forth to all readers that they will report where ever they are the effect of the Solar FIRES that are now descending. Personal stories as well as accounts of those living in your locality, will provide much interest as well as be of instructional value. Please keep the letters to the point for gossip and an overweight of personal problems do not help any but the reader in question. Again I am asked to state that Readers really must when they are ordering their goods or sending money into the Gazette, state boldly and clearly in the first paragraphs exactly what the money is for and the value they have enclosed. In this way our secretarial staff who are all very heavily overworked will be able to do their work much more efficiently and more quickly.

O.G. Illustrations and Wonders

Mrs. L. Sherline, Seaford, Sussex.

I look forward to receiving the Gazette and usually find something there that corresponds to what I have received in my daily meditations. I am amazed at your being able to produce so many illustrations in pictures, which I find very helpful, being able with one's own understanding and mind's eye to realise how far one has advanced spiritually, perhaps far more than the given word. It is a great work that you are doing, I know it has not been an easy passage in which you have travelled. But it brings a great blessing unknown to the mass of poor weak humanity and may you be spared many more years.

Mr. G. J. v. d. Merwe,
Outjo, S. W. Africa.

We (the wife and I), literally Devoured every article in the Gazette and we would very much like to have regularly from now onwards our Gazette (30/- enclosed).

Mrs. G. Gereth,
Battle Creek, Michigan.

Thank you for the copies of your magazine for March 1962. I'm interested in every article in it, but especially the article of "The Wonder of the Living Temple," and the diagram showing the tract of lymphatics from lower and upper organs and the spiritual working of the upper portion.

Mrs. Anna S. Pearson,
Toledo, Ohio, U.S.A.

I enjoy reading the Occult Gazette, am experiencing some difficulty in the reading of the articles but like the expressed opinions of others in letters to you, I find the items stimulating and the meaning becomes clearer as reading continues.

Mrs. J. Bross,
Philadelphia, Penna., U.S.A.

I have learned a great deal from reading the Gazettes and I want to tell you that I think they're wonderful. They really help me to think. I hope you have a very successful year in 1966.

Miss Ella Mulcrone,
Walthamstow, E.17.

Although I found the Magazine and its teachings a little difficult to comprehend at first, it is becoming clearer after eighteen months of study. Have given up meat eating and smoking some time ago, but not finding it too easy to give up milk and cheese; fish and eggs are also out.

Mrs. Florence Altschul,
Welwyn Garden City,
Hertfordshire.

I understand somewhat of your Teaching which I find very enlightening and inspiring. I was a Salvationist for a number of years, then turned to Theosophy, then Rosicrucians, also Druids. I suppose the old Hindu Philosophers, would say I have a butterfly mind but perhaps this was the best way may be better than a stoned one!! As old as I am I still like to study new ideas and new ideals. . . Thank you for all that you have done for me and still are doing to raise this old world out of the slough and muddle it has fallen into. May you go on from strength to strength. Guided by the Royal Eagle.

Mr. B. Babchuk,
St. Edmonton, Alberta, Canada.

Enclosed is for renewal of the Occult Gazette which is a marvellous paper; keep up the good work.

Mrs. A., California, U.S.A.

Your Gazette is more wonderful every month. You are the greatest on Earth, and we know you're well 'stablished already, and the Saviours of the world. You all are! You've proven it, and will more and more go on accentuating the White Light to save us all!

Here, in U.S.A., tension and distress is the Law of the Day

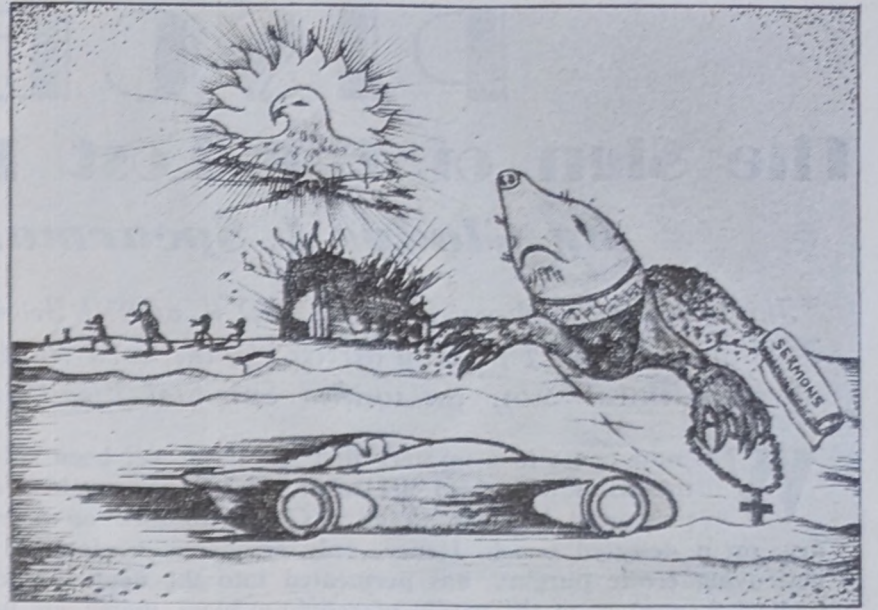

(as they eat badly). For instance, my daughter had a nervous collapse, with great mental anxiety and great distress, and a feeling of persecution so to speak. She is 27 years and of a very artistic nature. Could you let me know, I beg of you, what would be good for her to take in herbs and vitamin form. Tell me, and I'll order at once from you great people. She is better at present, as we all prayed for her.

I thank you a million times, and the idea of stating the contents on the tablets is magnificent, because people like to know what they are taking.

Mr. B. Harrison,
Blackburn, LANCs.

I am writing to ask how I can obtain "Occult Gazette." Until fairly recently my news-agent used to supply me with it but all of a sudden he stopped getting it, and I must admit something has happened to me which I thought not possible in that I am absolutely lost without your paper. I would therefore be most pleased to know from where I can obtain it and I would also be pleased to know if you have any back numbers I could purchase from February onwards.

All readers must realise how very important it is to read and study the ground work of the present teachings and the only way to do so is to take all the past OCCULT GAZETTES. A large number were specially stored as we envisaged the necessity of this. Unfortunately over the years so many sets have been ordered that now there are barely 300 sets left. Because of their scarcity and the increasing difficulty in storage, the price for each issue has to be 2/6 or 50 cents U.S.A. (Editor).

A READER'S IMPRESSION OF THE "PHANTOM DRIVE"

Open Challenge

Mr. G. P. Stanhope Pearce,
Redland, Bristol, 6.

I do not wish for a card photograph of Mrs. Spearman-Cook as am sure the excellent magazine will serve my purpose. There is one point I find most difficult to understand. That is the pre-occupation that appears to be prevalent in all the issues of the Occult Gazette with Roman Catholicism; and the violence of the views expressed. If it is as erroneous as your paper suggests, by its very error it will wither. Love is the fulfilling of the law. Many great thinkers have joined the Church and as many stay outside. It would appear that these do not join the Church through fright—they first find out that Rome is right—else-why do they join?

We all know that the Church is full of "Saints" and "Sinners" and that its history is like its members both calm and at times violent—very violent. From a psychological view point I find it interesting and think there must be some reason, hidden and personal why Mrs. Spearman-Cook appears to rush into print with a spontaneous and sparkling punch, full of jet-propelled venom. The above ideas are not written with intent to belittle in any way your "Crusade" only that to me it is hard to understand the reason. It would appear unreasonable! Maybe you can help me in this direction. Thank you for your kind thought in sending the Gazette, will let you know when it arrives. Shall look forward to hearing from any of your Bristol readers.

The Editor invites all readers to join in discussion on the above subject in next months Gazette.

Herbal Treatment

Miss S. King-Worts, Littlemore, Oxford.

A few days ago I found a copy of the "Occult Gazette," June 1965, at home, and when reading The Readers' Letters Page, I was interested in an article about herbs for the hair, for restoring hair which had been damaged by chemicals. My hair is 'out of sorts' caused by much hair laquer and bleaching. I was wondering if you could send me some herbs for this condition. I don't know how much this would cost, so perhaps you could write and tell me how much. My hair is dried up and brittle.

Also, is it possible to lighten the hair without damaging it? In other words, do you know of any herbs that can lighten hair?

The average hair tonic or preparation is not only made from synthetic materials, but in the long run invariably does a great deal of damage to the hair, as in the unfortunate case of this reader. If she wishes to restore the natural sheen to it she should be recommended to regularly rinse in hot ROSEMARY and SOUTHERNWOOD herbal solution, as well as to shampoo it with a special shampoo made with the Rosemary herb. All can be obtained from the School of Universal Philosophy and Healing. 8 ozs. of the Rosemary and Southernwood would cost 3/6 or 60 cents U.S.A., plus postage, and a 20 oz. bottle of the shampoo would cost $2 plus postage.

Mr. W. H. Jones,
Coventry.

Very many thanks for considering my letter, which you have reproduced in the January issue of the Occult Gazette, and for the excellent explanation and advice contained in the Great Eagle's Healing Column. I am indeed grateful and will follow the advice to take the herbs Horse Tail and Holy Thistle, Mari-gold and Rosemary. I should be most pleased if quantities of these invaluable herbs were sent to me, and let me know how much these will cost.

Thank you for the extra copy of the O.G. I think this will best catch attention in the Central Library, so I shall leave it there. By the way has a copy been sent at all to the Lord Bishop of Coventry? If not, I should be delighted to send him a copy of the Real Truth, if you will let me have another O.G. for January!

Many thanks again—God bless you all.

The muscles represent the freedom of movement within the soul, the dance of the ever-expansive mind.

In this soul's chart, Jupiter, which rules the muscles, is in the 12th house in the Sagittarian Fire Sign, being in the third decan, the decan of the solar constellation, (which is ruled by the Sun) showing that it is in the building of the Solar Light, that she will ever find the expansion of Mind-Awareness that is needed. Ever finding the points of Unification of ideas, where the multiple mass of knowledge gradually gets winnowed out by the ever greater expansion of the Solar Awareness.

It will only be through and by turning to the Solar Fire that Mrs. S. will start again to manufacture the insulin within, and where once again the muscles representing fluidity and versatility of mind movement in the freedom of mind originality and new birth, will expand and take the sugar energy in a natural way.

ABSENT HEALING

On application in writing any person can have their name entered into a Book of Healing, which is blessed each Lecture Night by the Lord of the FLAME, the Lord MAITREYA of the Central Sun. Those who have applied to have this great Healing Power are well advised to specially prepare themselves each Wednesday and Sunday, so that the Powers can more easily flow through them.

The more receptive and attuned by raising up the frequency of mind thoughts, and building up the sensitivity of the body and mind, the more effective the Healing can be, as the Powers will be better able to do their work. The more patients prepare their minds immediately beforehand, again the greater the success.

We would advise each person to sit or lie quietly before the commencement of the time allotted, and to study the Occult Gazette or a Lecture so that attunement and preparedness be made.

During the Healing the patient should consciously draw down the Rays of the Central Sun, drawing the Spirit into him, and trying to blend with the Healing Powers as they are brought to him by the Temple's Healers.

Herbs are essential, so that as far as possible, the body is made free from animal and other food waste. Patients are recommended to try and get onto an uncooked vegetarian diet, and to try and cease taking animal foods. Alcohol, drugs or false stimulants are most strongly condemned, but as much fresh water as possible is strongly advised.

The Wednesday and Sunday Blessing takes place in the Sanctuary of The School of Universal Philosophy and Healing at 6, Phillimore Place, Kensington, W.8. For all those who are living abroad, particular note should be made of the times. The Powers will descend between 8 and 9 p.m., Greenwich Mean Time during the Winter Months, and an hour in advance of that during the Summer Months, when British Summer Time is adopted in Great Britain.

A small recording fee of 2/6 or 50 cents U.S.A. is necessary for each name entered in the Book.

PISCES

The Sign of the Lost Embodiment

by Gladys I. Spearman-Cook*

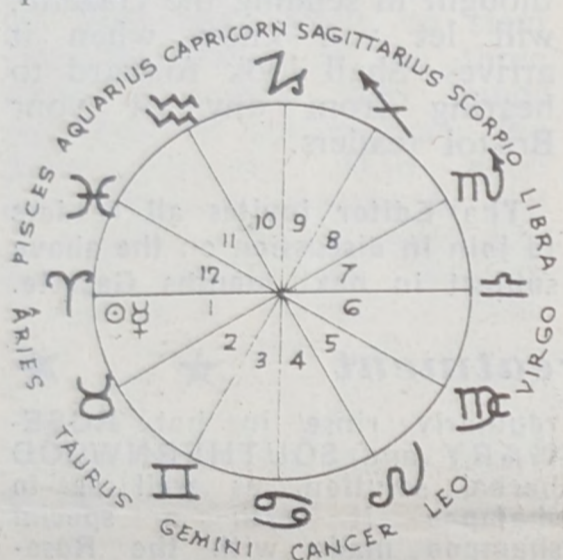

*This lecture was delivered at the S.U.D.H. on 27th February, 1966, through Gladys J. Spearman-Cook especially directed by the Lord Maitreya, the Lord of the Flame of the Central Sun, the unified Spiritual Wealth of the Cosmic Hierarchies.

WE now come to a mystery that has never yet been solved, the Embodiment of Pisces, the winnowing into life of the Spirit, the nucleus of the soul. That which was purported by man to be a God who died on a cross, leaving mankind high and dry, on a deserted beach. Hence, only erroneous wisdom as creed and dogma, in its death destroying erotic purging, has permeated into the depths of the soul. With the Race now finding themselves at the mercy of religious black magic, set up in belief of the Embodiment in-draft.

No one ever really awakened to the inflow of the Piscean Stream, of the undulating action of the Central Sun; that which was to be felt, but put into action in the Second Advent, as the mystical wisdom of unification. That which would be awakened into life, by the configuration of 1962.* The inflow of the Christos as the Solar Blood, that would awaken all men to the true meaning of life.

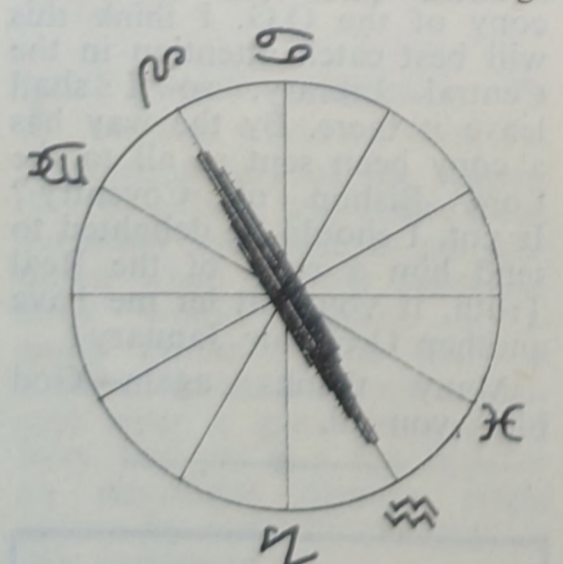

The Vesica Piscis

PISCES, as the winnowing waters of the luna depths, is the Channel for Neptune to make its highly evolved infiltration. The triad of (See plate in cols. 4 & 5) Water, which, when fired by the triad of Fire, would set Neptune flowing as the Holy Waters of true generative life. That which would contain the Holy Fire, the seed of everlasting life. That found in all its fulness, in the first house

... the soul that masters the emotional waters, and brings them to a fired royalty; that which raises the Arc of the heavens up to the divine heights, that the whole of the Earth is radiated by the Central Sun. The waxing and waning of the luna that brings into birth that of the Solar Divinity. Thus the instruction in the first Chapter of Genesis; that which instructs man as unto his life, and the covenant that he is bound by in his incarnatory return. "Replenish the earth and subdue it."

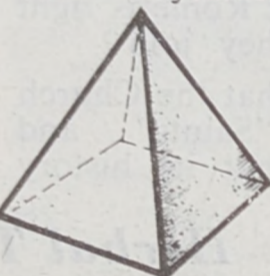

That which is finally declared in Chapter 50 v. 23 of how Ephraim and Manasseh, the Piscean fulfilment, are brought up on Joseph's knees. The raising up of the wealth of the God through

*1 In the 18th Issue of the Occult Gazette, in February 1962, there was a full article describing the mystery of the Great Hierarchical and Planetary Powers gathering together to issue forth the Aquarian Embodiment. In the month of February, all the planets, relating directly to man himself, ... that is all save the three mystic planets of Uranus, Neptune and Pluto ... entered with the Sun and Moon into the sign of Aquarius, the Equinoctial Ruler of the New Age.

the Capricornian mount, with the bones of Joseph, the wealth of the Spirit, the ever rising divine mind. Therefore the ever involving Triad of Fire through the Water of LIFE, that the Earth can be raised up to its Divine fulness. Thus the Heights and depths blended into ONE through the Fount to the mouth, with the Parabrahmic Root, now the fruitful TREE. (Rev. 22).

But when it can be seen that Pisces is the Atomic wealth of Neptune being it will be realised that it is the mystery of the Pyramid...

... being raised up from the base. Man laying the foundation by hard experience, and the Spirit rising up as the pyramid of the mind. That born out of the hard experience of five Equinoxes or sensory channels of the human spine, to expand and blossom in the sixth. The pituitary organ of hormone undulatory wealth, that as the sparking horse or raised up passions, would set the void alight. Scorpio raised up to its rightful place as the true generative unfoldment of the mind.

Hence Pisces is the revolving Stream of the Hydrogen Waters as the Vesica Piscis; that of pure Energy gathered by the soul, and becomes his revolving bloodstream. Thereby the unfolding gateway to the fifth dimension; the bringing of nuclear vision to the void of the soul, as the risen up planes of Mamre.

The tree growth started by Abraham in the Void, and the polarity to the cave of Machpelah, where "death" enters in and "birth" comes forth in the revolving waters. The ever unfolding status of the soul, through his ever evolving continuity of Spirit life. Therefore Pisces was the Embodiment of the Cosmic Waters that brought the entry of the alchemicalisation of the Gods into the purified mind as Aries drove the Cetus monster. The twelve Hierarchical installation of the Solar inflow.

Therefore it would be the moving of the Word as osmosis instead of human desire.

Bringing forth the Voice of the Lord

THEREFORE Pisces, the fulfilment of the round, only had to be made a winnowing gate owing to the Yod being thrown down the pit, otherwise Reuben as Aries, took defilement up to his father's couch. That of the higher mind dying in the lower sodomy of Scorpio.

For it should have become the Piscis, the bladder of the fish; that which balanced the soul in its final interpretation. So that it could sail forth upon the waters, with the new wealth on an even keel. For Jupiter was the expansion to be fulfilled, that Neptune could flow to the Earth. This is where the even keel is necessary, otherwise the loss of true status.

This is the mystery of the Fount to the mouth, where the five lower cities or Chakras of sensitivity, are raised up to the sixth as Uranus in Aquarius, that Pluto in Capricorn can bring fulfilment of the Race. The fulfilment of the Christos Divinity; but unfortunately Pisces has only been made a sign of sorrow, which the soul either masters or succumbs to. As a symbolical sign is Horus of the two Crocodiles, or vagrant nerves that eat up of the old states. That Jack, the growing soul, can climb the bean-stalk, and find the treasures of the mind up in the heights.

This is the sign of the Vase, that which either fills up the soul with wine or water; Solar or luna. For being the fulfilment of the triad, it can either spark off the Fire, or it remains a soddened tinder box. Thus is the passover from one state to another, whereby the ancient wealth is unified and risen up as light as the winged EL power. That which is buried-in by the mortuary meal, and risen up as light.

Thus Elijah that becomes as Daniel; the transformation in the cave, to a growing branch on the tree. The crossing over from one status to another, for the spirit rose up into the air out of the waters, with the wealth becoming a cover for the bed, that the soul is creating. Thereby the leviathan is safely drawn forth, whereby the tread into the earth becomes of pure truth. (See plate page 12 col. 4 & 5)

For the whole seven now become of the eighth; the uniting of the Fount with the mouth, bringing forth the Voice of the Lord. The wisdom taken from the top of the tree, and becoming as inspiration to all mankind. For the passions that have been blind in the waters now are as the raised up winging horse.

Thus the Power of the Gods is in the feet, the whirling Chakra of the sole. The Buddha's imprint into the Earth, that of the enlightened one, who transmutes the depths into gold. For it is the wealth of the Egyptians that was planted there in the time of Medo-Persia.* The glories of Ra that should have gone up to the heights, but only descended to the depths. Thus that which must be risen up to its rightful status, to become the wealth of the mind.

THE GOLDEN TRINITY

THE Trinity of Fire and the Trinity of Water united together as the wealth of the Fount is revealed as soon as the Fiery unity is made. The 'WORD' fuelling the Fount and bringing forth the Wealth of the Voice. (See text in col. 1).

So only by bringing the Earth to its balanced keel as demanded in the covenant, will the soul as a completed being raise up the axis of the earth.

The Dance of the Spiritus Air

HENCE it can be seen by the introduction into this mysterious wealthy sign, that its dynamic wisdom has never been tapped, and is waiting rich and rare. For it is entirely of the mystical, and all that was given unto it, was papal pomp and glory, money and mundane gain, that glorified the worldliness that grew and grew. Until it became a financial monster that completely swamped the Spirit.

So until this sign is trapped as unto its mystical inner waters, it will ever remain a death-trap to the soul, who never makes the full struggle to master. Thereby ever held by the rock, with both his feet in blocks of plaster. So that we can understand the true meaning of polarity inter-birth, where the mortuary meal transmutes the wealth gained and brings forth the revolving Piscis we must make our way up the leeway of the soul, and capture the secret impregnation.

For this is going to reveal the mystery of the transformation of EL proposed and El gained, where the soul who dared, gained all, and travelled over the bridge of the golden craftsman.

Therefore it is along the road of unfolding sensitivity that we make our journey to become, for the quest is to master the tiger powers, that the EL powers can catch the soul alight, and they become the flaming mind. The soul (See plate page 12 col. 1 & 2) reborn of life, but not monster ridden; all animal creation buried in. Alight with the Word and so born of truth as to raise the world up into moving life.

So let us begin our journey and move forward up this glowing trail; the human feat that has never yet been understood, and awaiting man's investigation.

As the Spiritus Air is set dancing in the depths, it moves the last of the Moabite waters, that which is to be the transformation across the bridge of Sighs. The move being so gigantic, causes much questioning and fear, but something that has to be mastered, for it begins with the dogs catching the hare, the unknown perceptivity. So although it is a matter of going forward into dynamic conquest, it is also a going back into time and being. Where both are united and inter-blended into the fifth dimension, making a final bound across that bridge, into the sixth and seventh.

Therefore, as we set the dogs into action, they start straining at the leash, not so much to gather the trophy, as to catch the watchful hare. The ropes are down, the race
