The Descent of the Holy Fire and
The Birth of the Holy City

by Gladys I. Spearman-Cook*

AS THE HOUR ROSE AND THE way grew more complicated in the eyes of man, Merope*1 sought to turn the tide of the rising waters, that man could be born again. For the whole of the earth was being saturated with the Cosmic Rays, infusing the earth with new life, but man still turning the wrong way. Then with an instant turn by the chance of power, granted by the Catholic hordes themselves, Merope made the unification required, and blended both worlds into one. This etherically blended the twain, so that esoterically the Central Sun and the Earth became one. Where all men had the esoteric possibility of becoming immortal beings; they all now being fed by the immortal waters, the life glory of the Hydrogen Heights. Where pure Energy was now their food, e'en though it met the maelstrom mass. This now was also aided and assisted by the raised up Scorpio Constellation*2, where the Fire was restored to its original divinity; infusing man with the Holy Fire, and raising him up to the status of a god. Although man would not be aware of such royalty being his prerogative, wisdom cleared away the avidya.

FOR THAT IS THE CLOAK OF NEARLY EVERY SOUL, THE BLINDNESS OF THE CONSCIOUS PERSONALITY. (See the back page plate).

Their depth of Ages, deep in the wealth of the higher or sub-conscious mind as light, knows the glory of most things, having been the witness to all time, the passing kaleidoscope of being. The wealth to come forth, when Kali*2a can release by the act of rebirth, to become infused and reborn by the new status of Being. For Merope, the Scapegoat of the Age, though entirely refuted by modern man, had been called to ring the changes that left man high and dry, unless he responded through wisdom. Then the alchemical fires would, by the agging process, drive man into the fiery change. All had been taken over by the Hierarchical inflow, the Powers of Element control. Those set into motion by Jacob, as the seeds of higher life, the trend of rebirth into Immortality. The road set by the Patriarchs to lead men at a less propitious Age.

The Road of Giving

FROM the lowest level to the highest Cosmic Interpretation and Comprehension; from animal giving that has become so natural that it is instinctual, unto Cosmic Radiation of the Central Sun whose Powers of Solar Flame never cease to warm and awaken, to touch and excite, to lift and upraise, to strengthen and uphold. The instinctual joy of Giving being shown throughout nature by every mother, whether she be human or animal.

But these states of giving are not the real consideration.

At the beginning of this Equinox there started the first tremor of the road of Return, not only of Man as the Spirit, but also of every atom, molecule, seed, element and Norm in the Cosmic Window. It was undoubted that Brahm the Great Manifestor with his whole workshop was returning unto its Source, each nail and screw, nut and bolt that HE had used to fashion what HE wished.
Within each man there is a Spark of LIFE, the Element of Fire flowing through the Scorpio Hierarchs via the Central Sun. Giving is the Giving of this Life-Essence for the soul must lose something and lose that which he values the greatest, as well as give of the greatest part he stand possessed... and that is FIRE itself. This is explaining of the mystery of the Crucifix statement that He had given up the ghost, the psyche or soul nature.

* * * *

WOMAN has had to give, not only through being the mother, but because she was treated in such a way that she had no alternative than to labour and toil, to bleed and suffer. But Man the Fire-Carrier, who for the last 13,000 years has been the one who has had the task of imprinting into the world his creatorship, has never known what it has been to give, for he has been waited on hand, foot and finger, and grown big and fat, not caring to look at the ones that he has mercilessly sucked of life over the Ages.

The importance of this is not in the isolated soul personalities, but in the Great Plan of the Way back Home, restoring to the Gods their Hierarchial Powers stolen for lives, without let or hindrance. Each soul must commence the journey or he will find that he will be bludgeoned into it, and the only way to commence the journey is to gain instructions, find the WORD which will light the Lamp, that has not been used for such a length of time, that the danger is that it needs a new wick and even new flints.

This is where the whole world are blessed, for special Teachings controlled by and flowing from the Central Sun and Hierarchial Elements have been channelled through The School of Universal Philosophy and Healing via Gladys I. Spearman-Cook, its Principal.
These have been carefully chosen and prepared by its Channel, so that the maximum use can be made of them and that students can extract every particle of their wealth.

She has been a Creative Prototype, a fashioner and weaver of the Heavens, as was the divine Frigga of Asgard fame, who won a place in Their hearts, and built for Them a home in the Heavens, the fortress of MIND fashioned out of the garments of the deep. To be able to follow literally garment by garment, knowing full well that each rung of the ladder is safe and sound, is the aim of all. As the Prototype and Scapegoat of the Way back, whatever rules she fashioned, and whatever in fact was done, so would each have to go back with the same basic rules governing their unfoldment of mind, and gaining of frequency.

Television Recording by THE MASTERS announcing the mighty changes now about to take place

THE Task was dynamic, the struggle for survival beyond the powers of the greatest Fighter, for she knew the smallest error, the slightest misjudgment and she would, as the Mountain climber, plummet to the depths, never to rise again... with the whole plan in chaos.
It was not just the answers to her own beginning that had to be found, for she had returned to be the Christos Saviour, the one who would save others, the Vicarious atonement. For the utter confusion and multiplicity that had been sown, and now in the reaping has to be buried in, was so vast that it was not possible to unveil them all, but could only be led the tortuous path way home.

There were so many different sowers and so many and varied seeds to sow and grounds to sow on, that at first it did not seem possible for such to be accomplished. But determination, belief and heart intent to "beat the drum" and muster all the will power, and drive, gave unto the reapers the powers they wanted. But here the reapers were way before, thus blind but for being under the powers and guidance of SPIRIT, the VOICE OF THE MASTERS. The secret lay in learning how to give and serve without question; to ever be on hand to the call of the VOICE; to give in the sense that the struggle is to give of the hidden wealth of the soul, its best potentials, without any expectation of reward save it seems more pain and more despair.

For that which is given not only has to be that which contains and transmits the LIFE Essence, for nothing less than the giving of Life itself will suffice the test of the LAW. For it is only that which has of life that can give of life.
And the whole of the Earth has now to be reborn into new life as promised, the Vision of John the NEW HEAVEN and the NEW EARTH.

This will be the time of Reckoning, as each man adds up that which is still left to him, the balance of payments as each soul renders. The human race is right down in the very pit of vibration, mind frequency and whatever sadness and loss is apparent, the rigidity of the Law and its application is not releasing its hold on its ELEMENTS, now that it has at last obtained control. It is man as soul life, that has built personalities, feelings, associations, families, it is he in his false imageries that will suffer disentangling of these thoughts, for the very disentanglement will be the slow rise up, and in the disintegration of soul, the re-integration of Element and Atom.

Each man must seek to sustain himself, however, for each soul lives on its own corn, and no amount of food will feed up the body, or any of the 7 bodies, or natures, save and except the Thought Radiance of the Soul. If this is not accepted as genuine heart thought and belief then the soul will not accomplish his task. A man cannot pirate and steal another's wealth, and its primary act is to feed others, even though he seems nearly powerless to feed himself. "Give and Ye shall Receive." The Sacred FIRE.

* * * *

I CANNOT end this month's Editorial without I speak on the article on Prison by David S. Cook. As a barrister at the Criminal Court for over 15 years, I gained much experience not only of prisons but possibly more importantly prisoners. As my practice on the criminal side had to do more with defending than prosecuting. I gained the confidence of those I defended and thus they freely told me of conditions in the prisons.
The buildings of the old prisons simply appalled me whilst the maelstrom atmosphere created by past prisoners, and those there at the present, was most destructive and potentially evil. It was held rigid by personal feelings and allegiances, and none raised up their barriers beyond their sensory touch of pleasure, the thoughts ever surrounding themselves or their family.

Far too many had no opportunity to do any constructive work or even any work at all, and thus hour after hour was spent in complete idleness isolated in their cell all alone, sometimes without even a book. The very exact opposite should be the case, if the authorities are claiming to make any attempt to train them. So many of these men are coming back under Karmic rebound and cannot help but display characters of the very worst kind. They needed to be spiritually helped, given lectures to study compulsorily and not only kept as far as possible from Southwark and his ilk, but taught how to draw down the spiritual food for themselves. Not that the spirit powers will allow such to be in priestal office, for their damaging influence will not be allowed to go on.

The magistrates and judges should seek for guidance of the Spirit in the same way as prison officers, with true Spirit Priests trained and available to cure and correct the twisted states in the prisoners themselves; for this should be the guiding key to all reform, the re-establishment of the power of the Spirit above all else.

But owing to Merope giving them their unfoldment of life by her ever-rising frequency, she made the way for them to take over the Earth, and guide man into rebirth. So here was where the Hierarchial Powers were now completely ruling the Earth, living in the midst of men through the Scapegoat Channel.

For through Occultism, as Universal Philosophy, becoming the ruling status of law and control for all time to be, the whole of the Year of the Solar Grace,*3 was now fixed in its rudimentals as the life-giving propensity of rebirth.

To most men this appears utterly ludicrous, they only perceiving through form and not the etheric credentials. They never realising that like the Embodiment of A.D.33, everything has to commence in the Etheric or Desire Body of the World. The same applies to man; all begins in his etheric and comes down to the physical. But in the case of man, it often meets with restriction, with the result in the sickness of the internal combustion. Thereby bringing many states of physical disability, including that in deranged mentality. If he would only go with the tide, it would lead him straight up to his heights, bringing him to his immortal potential, now prepared by Merope.

But him being blind, and extremely self-willed, it will be a matter of Time, although man is already living in the change.

Mars, the Sheaf Infuser

THE changes now due for the human soul by the changing status of law, are due to Mars, the element of the prism that feeds the soul of man. For being the sheaf infuser, by which the Scorpii Generator enters into the soul contusion, man will slowly be raised up in status, to reform and recreate his ideas.

But where all agging or alchemical action was the way of mastering the infusion, now it is by direct current, and not the alternating action of change. For the waters as they enter, will start a direct state of enforcement by a mode of burning-in. Driving everything before its road, rending man conscious to the changing mode of life.

What he has not learnt, is the fact that man has to obey

*1 Readers are requested to read the many articles and notes on Merope that have appeared in past issues. It was at the Fall when the Fire descended during the golden age of Leo and fell into wrong hands. As the ancient truths explain it was one channel down which the Holy Fire descended, having specially been invoked by one Merope, the Goddess from the Venusian Plane who had come to the Earth to help stimulate and activate it. Now at the Age of Relativity She as Gladys I. Spearman-Cook, returns to guide the FIRE that is again brought down through her, but this time on the raised up plane of the MIND.

*2 Scorpio the ruler of the Holy Seed the Sperm FIRE had fallen to the very base of animal desire until Merope who perceived the vastness and greatness of the Holy FIRE, raised it right up in Mind Comprehension to the comprehension of the Central SUN. Now all Mankind must follow suit and raise up their seed unto their meninges awakening their own gods as valve sensitives, and attune into the Gods of the Hierarchs so they the Great Gods can once more rule on Earth and direct men to do their bidding.

and rebirth, the Law now is of immortality; ascension by mode of mind purification through true Occult infusion.

Where man learns the true rudiments of life, and not the religious illusion. This is where the wise man seeks into the LAWS of life, that he can become in harmony with them, and avoid the agony of confliction.

For those who fail now to follow the new trend of life, will meet the EL Fires; the inflowing generating Fires of the Heavenly Creator. The Atomic inversion of new life, the changing waters of Evolution. They that are now completely changing TIME and Destiny, by mass becoming of the planes of Fluidity. No further mass or solid substance; all of fluidic vibrational action, to eventually gain that of the Auric radiance of new life, flame and light.

Action of the Hierarchial Elements

FIRST of all there had to be a change of outlook, and this could only be done by the WORD. The Scapegoat by the power of the pen, flooding the countryside with new life, planting into the minds of men that which would counteract the illusion that they were being fed upon, and the fear they had imbibed over the Ages of TIME.

Fear wrought by domination, and the thought of damnation that would come by a dead, but avengeful god. Which was nothing more than pagan rites created by a sect of reborn Atlantean men. Those of previous Ages that had risen to powers enormous, where magnitude and status of untold strength had reached a fearful proportion.

This is what Noah changed when he rose the Arc to a heavenly propensity, thus re-establishing the law back to a spiritus status, and not of mechanical vibrational control. They had brought everything down to a computer state of elemental status, of magnetic vibronic action. The magnetic waters alive with life as a geni form, where all the nitrogenic gas had retained its human function, it being so dynamic. All it needed in its live action, was to find a human status, or be controlled by a human mind.

This is what the Egyptians first acted with, that made the Dawn of Civilization, the basic of TIME. For the Pharaohs in understanding the Occult Laws, made them a feat of control. Thus they learnt to walk in harmony with them, but also unified all heavenly Elements. For they worshipped Ra as the major control, and the magnetic as their mode of assumption. The divine Element of the Fire of life, had not then been understood, but was the standby to slowly be born, which Ahkanaton put into operation. He perceived the heavenly blessings that could come into being, by recognising the greater potentials of the great and glorious Ra.

This was taken up by another inflow of life, that was the counterpart to this action of establishment. The Hebrews who became the Children of Israel, the School of God fighteth. The Race Elect set into motion by the Patriarchs, and Jacob infusing the twelve Hierarchial Elements into the soul as seeds of spiritual unfoldment. But the ever repeating Cycles of life establishment which had to meet its end, yet ever remained in some as the dynamic basic of wealth of men once mighty and colossus.

These were the magical qualities of the Naga or Levi creation. The inner atomic propensity of the Fire ever descending from the heavens, set into motion by Merope. But always the inner core of all Element infusion.

The Fatherhood seed from the internal heights, the Adam depth of the Adamic Dust. The inner fire of the nebula infusion that comes from the Starry heights. For in the beginning it was pure starry infusion, now the status has changed by the Scapegoat contusion, and man's outlook created by TIME. But now the Fatherhood is born into man as the inner depth of the atomic glory becoming his positive possibility. But again, like many things, some being weaned out, some being winnowed in. Orthodox religion, with all its popery and pomp, was a part of the very old Atlantean world; but becoming mixed up with the Egyptian and Hebrew, they added a state of righteousness.

The true Law as Occult truth was sidestepped as they created of depths of illusion, that gave to a group of bishops and popes, a royal status of mystery. Thus declared they had captured the Embodiment of the Piscean era, when really it was never known at all.

This is the dead god upon a cross, they have held over everybody's sensory emotions. But broken down by new Laws being established both Cosmically and terrestrially, leaving man as the working factor to slowly imbibe. Yet now, owing to the rapid and dynamic change in plans, a rapid infusion is now moving the grade onto higher planes of understanding. Where all

THE ARC OF SOLAR RADIANCE

THE magnificent detail of this plate challenges the student to see if he can extract each point of wealth. The soul has awakened the Gods of his meninges, and out of his Auric Ark has come forth his riches. Taking it from left to right, can be seen the striking powers of Uranus, bringing in its wake the Neptunian Waters; the activities of a 'bee-hive' mind bringing forth the Solar Flower: the powers of the Leviathan raised up from his depths: the Arian going forth as the pioneer: the Solar Light capturing the wisdom, mastering the EL powers (Elephant), with the Solar Fire captured, (Leo the Lion); the perceptory awareness of pituitary ever bringing forth the eye of Truth; and finally the Androgynous blending of the Principles treading in the wine as the grapes gathered in the Vines, the spinal fires. (See text in col. 3).

men will see things from a different angle, through the inflowing Cosmic Waters. A fluidic inflow infusing man with a different theme of thought, helping him to come away from the captivity he was placed in, by the wrong infused by orthodoxy.

For where there was a slow angle of thinking, now there will come about an internal revolution, causing a combustion of new thought from the inflowing prism. That containing the holy Fire in the Seed of Scorpio regeneration. For now it is to be for all men the polarity void of depths and Heights, the ever changing passions through the polarity such a rebirth, he can draw off the Hub of the super-heights, and bring forth the unity in the depths. For all now are drawing off the Star of Merope, the Scorpionic Power of Generating life. For that is the Higher Mind as the Cosmic Royal Academy. The Arc of the Intelligencia, the Hierarchical Powers, the Cosmic School of Universal Philosophy now fully established.

This is the library of controlled emotional reality, the Royal Chamber of Golden inborn fiery truth. For wisdom is the sting of Scorpionic Life, with knowledge as Astral Water. For the Star of Antares, that up to now has been a

THE MARK OF THE FLAME

HE who is prepared to be one of the fighters for the FLAME, the FIRE OF GOD firing into Life the Royal Seed, being 'stung' by the Scorpionic Flow of Uranian awakenment. (See text in col. 2).

are of the dead, crawling ants of no status of life. Those who have not entered into the Kingdom of Life, the world of holy purpose. Everything now being changed, whereby Woman's seed will become the holy purpose, bringing forth of ancient wisdom. Thus she will find complete emancipation from all states of exudance, including the enforced menstruation; thereby woman being raised up to her rightful place.

With the serpent ever seeking to wound the crown of the head, the radiating power of the Circle of Willis*5 to fire it into life. Because this is the City raised up and electrified, becoming the golden Arc of the mind; to eventually becoming the vibronic cell in the world of light. Face and Grace, knowing that they hold no strength against it.

*5 Circle of Willis is the circle of arteries at the very top of the skull just below the fontanelle.

So as Libra entered with the tabulating of the harvest, the Scales revealed the weighing of Truth; for in the orthodox against the Occult, the Occult had won the balance of the Scales, and the Lord of the Flame was securely enthroned. Hence the Holy City was now established in the Cosmic creation, but awaiting man's awakenment in the world below, that all could be born in the depths and blossomed into glorious radiant light. This was felt by the loss of Face and Grace, knowing they had no hold against it.

Mastering the Light Within

NO longer the old fires of desire, but the Fire of light, the action of truth radiating on the higher plane of sensory Neptunian perception. No longer the killing off of the foes of Hercules, or being killed by the threeheaded Hydra, but the triune of Fire raised up to the heavens as the Flame reaching up to the heights. The soul over-shadowed by the Presence in the blended world of light. For the Seed is now being fired in the heights, and not in the depths, Uranus sparking and setting the Neptunian Waters flowing as the ultra-perception of the heights. Gravity reversed by the soul being held to the heights, while all states of the earth function will supply the heights with Spiritus Fire.

This will come from the atomic combustion of the internal firing, of the compression of the intercalary unity. Bringing into birth the diamond as the compressed carbon states of the soul; that unified in the cave of Machpelah, by the Word ever bringing the mortuary meal. For everything now is a state of expansion as the combustion rises higher and higher.

The Arabic horses now the Neptunian sea horses clinging to the branches of the rubble in the waters, ever seeking to extract to the last degree, any minute wisdom in the depths. Therefore, man now can be, by aspirational searching and circumcision, of true golden vibration of the etheric as pure unity of being. Pure energy drawn from the gyroscopic Ecumenical point of all-embrational amalgamation. The earth Temple as the electro-magnetic dynamic point, with its etheric covering from earth to its spiral right up to the point of the Arc, the Solar movement and direction in the heavens.

Now by the changes that have taken place in the outlook and balance of the soul, he

THE POWER OF THE PEN

"... there had to be a change of outlook." This Merope could only do by... "the WORD... the power of the pen... which would counteract the fear... wrought by domination and the thought of damnation that would come by a dead but avengeful god." The hell of catholicism left behind. (See text on page 3, col. 4).

of Cycles, where the dragon which is the leviathan of Alpha to Omega, now becoming the golden wealth of the soul.

The wealth of the queen of the South, becoming the vibrational induction from the earth void to the Cosmic void, the peak of the Arc. The rising up from the lowest depths of all the wealth of the soul, the Moabites that lay hidden away from man, yet his inner dynamic mystery. That which he tries to hide as his inner Arabic passions, yet when risen up to the heights of the day, can be the means of opening up the cone, the pineal gland, bringing forth of his holy City.

(See plate page 5, cols. 4 & 5)

Changes of the Microcosm

NOW through the changes wrought by Merope in uniting depths and heights, the Central Sun and the Earth, the earth has become a deathless world in its etheric evolution. When absorbed by the soul as the changing Law of Absolution, that which will be made by every soul bringing into birth of mind wisdom, will they depart their casing through vibrational ascension. Man so changing, that by assuming such wealth, will be able to obtain cosmic sensory perception; the heights becoming his inborn wealth, that will free him from all gravity.

Hence it will be the masterhood of gravity through the soul building up pure unity as an ecumenical council of gods up in his own heights. Thereby giving man by status of the Law of Relativity, man's right of entry into the heavenly planes.

For by drawing off his own higher mind, to open up of vicious red star, has now become the Flame of Life. The way to the Isle of Sky, the world of vibronic light, the path to non-existence of form. The Pituitary reborn by the raising up of Uranus from death into light; the Cyclops Eye now seeing with a telescopic vision, through the eyes of the new world. That which brings the intensification to the lower law, that the soul can embrace the higher. Thus magnify the etheric through the soul's opened-up perceptory understanding. A state spoken of by many, but now the foundation of the New City.

The Holy City of Light born into matter through the breaking up of old religious states, and the establishing of the new. Where Universal Philosophy as the unifying of all worlds and Universes, is making its debut into matter. Where Revelations is revealed and verifying its establishment, while the God as the Lord of the Flame, is the Colossus and gateway to Life.

All that seek to be touched by his Flame, will become born into the new life, those of the 144,000, the united intercalaries of all polarities. (See plate in cols. 3 & 4)

Thus uniting earth with the Central Sun, the saving of the royal seed, which has been the antagonism of all down the Ages. For the "stinging" of the Scorpionic inflow through Uranus striking the Void*4 into the new-born life, is the Eucharistical blessing from the heights, to the birth of the New created Wisdom. The heights giving unto every soul who seeks through its gates, the way of Unction, and eternal life.

So every man must seek of the higher life, the world of Spiritual inflow, for all below

*4 In June and July 1965 in two articles entitled "The Temple of Ra" and one in May called "Creating the Void," students will learn how to build the etheric radiance of the mind.

"KALI" THE PAST PERSONALITIES

THIS is Kali, treading in the personality lives in order to bring the Man-hood into birth, which she is treading on. She is not only treading it into the earth, but she is also treading it into the positive side of herself, to bring it into birth.

The feminine figure being black would indicate that it is out of all the mud, the dung of matter, that you are going to find the wealth of life. That which is being trodden in, being white, represents the positive side, the ethereal side; which would indicate the ethereal garment the soul was bringing into birth.

It is the Feminine Principle that is the source of life, and it runs through—not only the human, but also the etheric, and the Cosmic. (See back page picture and caption).

All you see there is symbolical. The bracelets on the arm represent the strength that the soul has a right to. The faces strung around the body even go across the knees, the Capricornian mount. The extended tongue is showing you the tongue that has to be active in the right direction. The two pairs of arms and hands represent the Gemini activity, the creation of the higher and lower mind.

You will notice the pendant that falls from the beads around the neck, and rests upon the navel. Now there are two navels, the higher and lower navel. You must get the radiation moving in the lower navel, which is under the solar-plexus, because, unless you have that moving and revolving, you are not going to have the upper navel revolving. The ornamental part of the beads lies over the Thymus, and the exposed breasts represent one who is prepared now to feed the world with Milk. The long ear-rings would indicate that the hearing has reached a stage of 'extensivity'; that is, to an extensive state. The jewel on the forehead is the result of the creations of the mind, which you see placed around the head.

In her upraised hand she is holding the sword that does the 'cutting away,' and the face held in the other hand represents the continual changing of one personality after another, and blending them in. The bracelets around the ankles would mean that she is holding-on, and is not falling backwards at the vital moment. The single ornaments above both ankles is where there is a movement that takes place as you tread. If you have not got that flexibility, you will never tread with it: actually it is the crown of the arch of the foot, indicating the lower arc; the actual arc being the source of power that brings the whirling of the chakra at the bottom of the foot: it goes right the way through. That was the idea of 'driving the nail through at a certain point'; it went right the way through to the chakra underneath, and so stopped that end chakra whirling; and yet they literally gave to that one the powers, through driving in the nails.

My Instrument is treading in the Word; and that is what all of you must do. If you do not tread it in, you will find a time comes when you are going to be completely stripped, because the more you seek into this wisdom and the less you do with it, the more dangerous it becomes; because you are treading the Earth. (See plate on back page).

would be looking inwards, through the blind spot in the eye. The soul having generated greater light within, to penetrate the Blackness of Space. For all interpenetration is from within, as there is where you find HERE and NOW.

Thus all now is of the seven of the prism as extent of height, with twelve as the radiance of light, as shown very clearly in Rev. 21 v. 16-19. A City four square, with 12,000 furlongs as length and breadth with the heights equal. With the wall 144 cubits the measure of a man, who was as an angel in the growth. But now as pure gold of solar light, as clear as crystal, with the wall of Jasper vibrations.

While the foundation of that city was of all precious stones, gathered from the queen of Sheba. The Fount of the depth of Woman, she who came to embrace the son of the Sun.

Here we see the twelve rungs of the ladder that gave Aries the son, the continual means of rise. For first Aries, the ever-increasing wealth of the mind, was of Jasper. The myriad of colours of vibrational experience that gave to the soul Spiritual rise. While the Sapphire as Taurus is the beauty of the mind to be revealed; with the third, Gemini, that of the Chalcedony or Agate, as protection of truth, having been gained by the fourth ever in action, the depth of the Cancer waters. That of the Emerald the glory of the deep, that the fifth as Leo would establish that of the Sardonyx, the red strength of spiritual life. While in the sixth, that of Virgo, was allotted that of Sardius, the red Element dispelling the sad thoughts created by the blood of the Martyrs that have suffered, that the rise could be maintained.

This being followed on by Libra as the seventh, with the yellow Chrysolite to drive away darkness, and bring expansion to the new accepted law. Then in the eighth as Scorpio the Beryl, that as the glorious sea green, would banish all fear and increase action. Then when the soul can get to the ninth as the Archer of Sagittarius, the Topaz can bring untold expansion, the light of holy life. Now the tenth as Capricorn with the green Chrysoprasus, can bring victory as the Archer scores the Bull and brings a change of the beam, the outlook of the soul.

This leaves the Arc of the eleventh and the twelfth to be mastered, to bring the diamond into birth. For the eleventh as Aquarius, the hopes and wishes of the Spirit, could bring the yellow Jacinth as electrification, if the soul was ripe and ready. With the Amethyst for Pisces, that of the twelfth to urge on of the heavenly Kingdom. The whole twelve gates of this human kingdom, to be topped with twelve pearls as the struggle to capture the wealth of the waters, the luna depth of fluidity.

Yet no temple as form, but the Fire having given birth to the Omnipotence of the Solar Christ, the Flame of the risen mind. That of Alpha to Omega brought to a fulness, the glory of the mind. For the twelve of the Arc as the Hierarchical Forces are incorporated in the soul, whereby the strength of the soul is complete and compact, ready for the immortal birth.

New Planes of Understanding

THE Holy Fire of triune beauty had descended and built the holy City within, but also the Holy City as the radiance of the soul, in their risen belief. Whereby the Central Sun was beginning to shine in the Abyss, as the light and purpose of the earth plane. Men awakening out of their long luna sleep, feeling the urge to get up and get going. Feeling a pull they have never felt before, a pull towards a higher purpose; for the gates are never shut day or night. A safety that only the awakened appreciate, for they can at any time fly back to the fold; until, they are no longer afraid.

This depth and these Words will only be understood by those who have awakened from the down-pouring Waters of the Cosmic Fire. All heavily impregnated by the Hierarchical glory, thus afire with the holy Fire. That which was promised to all, but not all consciously awakened on the new plane, which the whole World was lifted up into. For it is a new heaven and a new earth, both human and terrestrially.

For one is born out of the other, whereby Evolution is the path which the accomplishment has to tread. The growth that must come forth, releasing the negative EL powers out of the iron vault of the depths. The solidified magnetic states of the earth, which now have become as rock, have now been impregnated by the Hierarchical Powers, who will burst all asunder.

For the time it will appear as if there is chaos and war everywhere as the Fire drives deep into its depths, causing what appears as schisms, with many to rail against each other. For some will awaken, others will not; hence the need for laws that will direct control without jeopardising the freedom of new thought. For that is the purpose of the drive, to set all men thinking, which naturally will release many pseudo-states, and those that can well be disposed of.

For ego is the basic of all men, yet that which gives the soul the impetus to become; especially when they realise they are created of royal blood, the fiery essence of ALL-life. For their effort to bring it forth is naturally artificial for the time being, but better that way than never at all, for man only learns by the hard way of life, the sorrow of failure and struggle. For by that he learns to appreciate the glory of the upward grade, where most discomfort is experienced in the many changes. This accounts for diabetes and diabetes incipidus where changes have been made and reinforced once again. For the metabolism is the balanced augur between man and gods. It is here in the Thymus that schizophrenic states begin, where higher and lower minds of the soul are ever in a state of separation. So will be a major key in the coming days, for by these will the royalty of the Fire begin to make its appearance and rebirth.

It is now, with such unity being enacted, that the uniformity of the Equinoxes will now dissolve. For all is time-less-heights, and the wealth in the depths.

But as the Abyss rises higher and higher, will the conditions of life rise, giving man a finer basic whereby to plant his feet. For now is the time when every soul can begin a new status of rebirth. The Central Sun now being the main "hatcher" into birth, will focus upon the Thymus or Thoracic duct, where the lower lymphatics and the higher make inter-unity and inter-birth.

(See diagram on page 6, cols. 4 & 5)

This links with the Intelligence both terrestrially and Cosmically, it being the key to the etheric Temple. It is here that the Fire from Scorpio begins to rise, and can start to bring into birth that of the Eucharistical Grace. The balanced state of both liver and thymus are most important for the path of androgyny; both being most susceptible to the gods, high up in the meninges. For unless these two organs are in well-balanced degree, the Ecumenical Council could never be formed, and the seed of immortality maintained for ascendancy to take place.

This is the first factor in all changes, particularly in the ness, where even those waiting to find a means of rebirth according to their unity with destiny, will no longer hold, for being a state of Relativity, the time when as time, was of no consequence, is now the relative augur. Hence everything will fit as the moment comes forth, owing to the rapid changing status of the law. With every soul having to redeem its quota of strife, that he has trod into the earth. Including the fallen Phaetons redeeming their atoms, whether as a hero, a traitor or that of a Judas.

But most of all, and most necessary in this world of Rebirth, the medical fraternity having a complete and full understanding of Neptunian healing. No longer drugs to meet the unifying states, where Neptune has been manifesting in its unbalanced state, but true psychiatric understanding of the wisdom required, to balance up by the mortuary meal. For in most cases it is orthodoxy, particularly papalism, where the soul has been fired with luna or raw starry fire, and left severed at the thymus breach. This entailing much care, whereby they are not stoned, but raised up by Solar nursing.

THE GREAT EAGLE'S HEALING COLUMN

THERE are not many who have not read at some time or another Alice in Wonderland, and Alice through the Looking Glass, by that master of story tellers Lewis Carroll. Nor can they fail to remember of the tale of the Walrus and the Carpenter, and the eating up by them of the oysters, the pearls of wisdom that have come forth out of the lunar depths, only to be wantonly destroyed in the desires of living. As this tale so the tale of mankind generally, and now has come the meeting when each soul "will shed a bitter tear," the sad regretting of wasted hours and debauched days. This is the real answer of all states of sickness for the soul has wantonly wasted hours and now has to face the days of relativity answering for the wasted hours and the rebellious states that has brought body and mind in to sickness of every kind. Here before us are just a few of the examples that come to us in the postal bag and which are selected, so that we can instruct and help others.

THE HOME OF THE GODS

WITHIN the Meninges reside the sacred cerebro spinal fluid which flows within the sub-arachnoid space (at 4) of the 3 membranes, the Pia Mater (at 1), the Arachnoid Mater (at 2), and the Dura Mater (at 3). At the top of the skull in the longitudinal sinus (at 5) and the Pacchionian Bodies (at 6) are the gods as the ELEMENT powers awaiting conscious embodiment. As the soul raises up his frequency, and feeds his cells and Elements with the sacred powers of his Seed so the interaction between pituitary and pineal, the 6th and 7th chakras, bring forth the wealth of the Hierarchical Heights, that descend down the Falx Cerebri (at 7), and become the mystic writing on the wall, the Corpus Callosum, (at 8).

Parkinson's Disease

Mrs. S. M. G., Hanwell, Middlesex.

I have read of your wonderful work in the Occult Gazette —have recently become acquainted with your marvellous paper and will be a regular reader from now on. I would deem it a great privilege if you would give me details, advice and what to do. I would like my dear Sister and a dear friend put on your Healing List, both suffering from PARKINSONS DISEASE.

AS you can see the fullest instructions are given in regard to Absent Healing in last month's Gazette, and if you have any other queries please write into the Secretary who should be able to iron them out for you.

The key to this disease is the complete failure of the soul from uniting all its interests and activities into one channel, the Voice and Hand of the Spirit. All its energies are not being housed in the one boat and further the boat's crew are not rowing in the same direction and with the same Heart Intent and drive. All being subservient towards that one aim and goal, the winning Post so that the other crew does not over-throw them. The more the energies and interests are splayed, the more the soul multiplies his earth activities, the less is his chance of survival.

Each soul should be ready to accept that he is the creator and director of his own destiny, builder of his own living conditions, his own materials all being moved and energised by his own power. Thus each sufferer is its own creator of its own physical condition and this Law is absolute.

Both sufferers have a form of paralysis characterised by involuntary trembling and rigidity of the muscles. Muscles are not only the means of movement but also expansion, fluidity activation for without the use of muscles there could not be any expansion of mind nor protection of the limbs. They are the foundation in which most of the nerves are carried and they are the parts that uphold the frame. But to be rigid shows a very rigid, fixed and impassable conscious mind, refusing to budge, think, investigate, pioneer, dance in any investigatory field of new activity.

The very factor that they have INVOLUNTARY TREMBLING, suggests that they have no directed purpose, so without drive and heart intent towards a greater goal, they are gradually creating a complete deadness and stagnancy, the very inertia that I have constantly warned you about. EITHER it is accepted that Woman, a Divine Being, is capable of being a fructifier with untold wealth of Seed, which needs to be fired by the Holy Fire, OR you come back blind and blank of mind, and the Seed begins to breed incestuously tive Fire of the Father, now being of royal decree. Hence the rebirth back into the Garden of Eden as the Central Sun, both in the soul and on the earth. In the former by effort of belief, while in the latter, as the Cosmic Prototype more and more, comes forth in the World of Causes.

Thus developing in the soul a higher super-sensitive "cunning," whereby it will draw forth a greater power of invocation, as the Powers of the Hierarchical Divinity, make evidence in the soul.

Bringing out the finer feelings of all who become awakened; for darkness of any degree will not be able to manifest, for the law now is of Uranus, true giving in the royal fraternity of brotherhood. Hence breaking up of all business sharks, including the financial evil of orthodox real estate, owned for many a century. All now belonging to the state, under the ruling of the Hierarchical Government, who now are the royal benefactors. A world set for gods, a world risen up out of the land of mud, where every man has trod the razors edge, and learnt the lesson of life.

A lesson set by themselves, the negative of the greater, where as beggars could raise up Divine LOVE, and retrieve man from his many errors. Many ages was it tried and no one really succeeded, until Merope took on the whole of the burden, and under dire stress released man from his prison. With every soul high and low, seeking to destroy every move she made, through their entire sense of avidya. It could only be done by the same road as they set, one cunning matching another, so the Gods had to come down to the world of men, to help open up their eyes.

Now all is set, and the way is clear, with the LAW of LIFE now duly prepared, and man with his feet on the upward road of Androgynity. Thus a World of Immortality in its early throes, trending toward Divinity.

HEALING PRAYER

NOW we call upon the Great Ones to pour Their Wealth and Their Beauty into the hearts of the many that are seeking for reborn Life; seeking for the wealth not only of the mind, but the health that is failing them fast; for the inner bodies, which are now in discord through the lack of rebirth, are having their outcome on the physical body. And it can only be by bringing the mind into balanced order that those inner bodies can replenish the outer. So we leave them in Thy care, that they will awaken to this Truth sooner or later.

AMEN EXCELSIOR IN GLORIAM

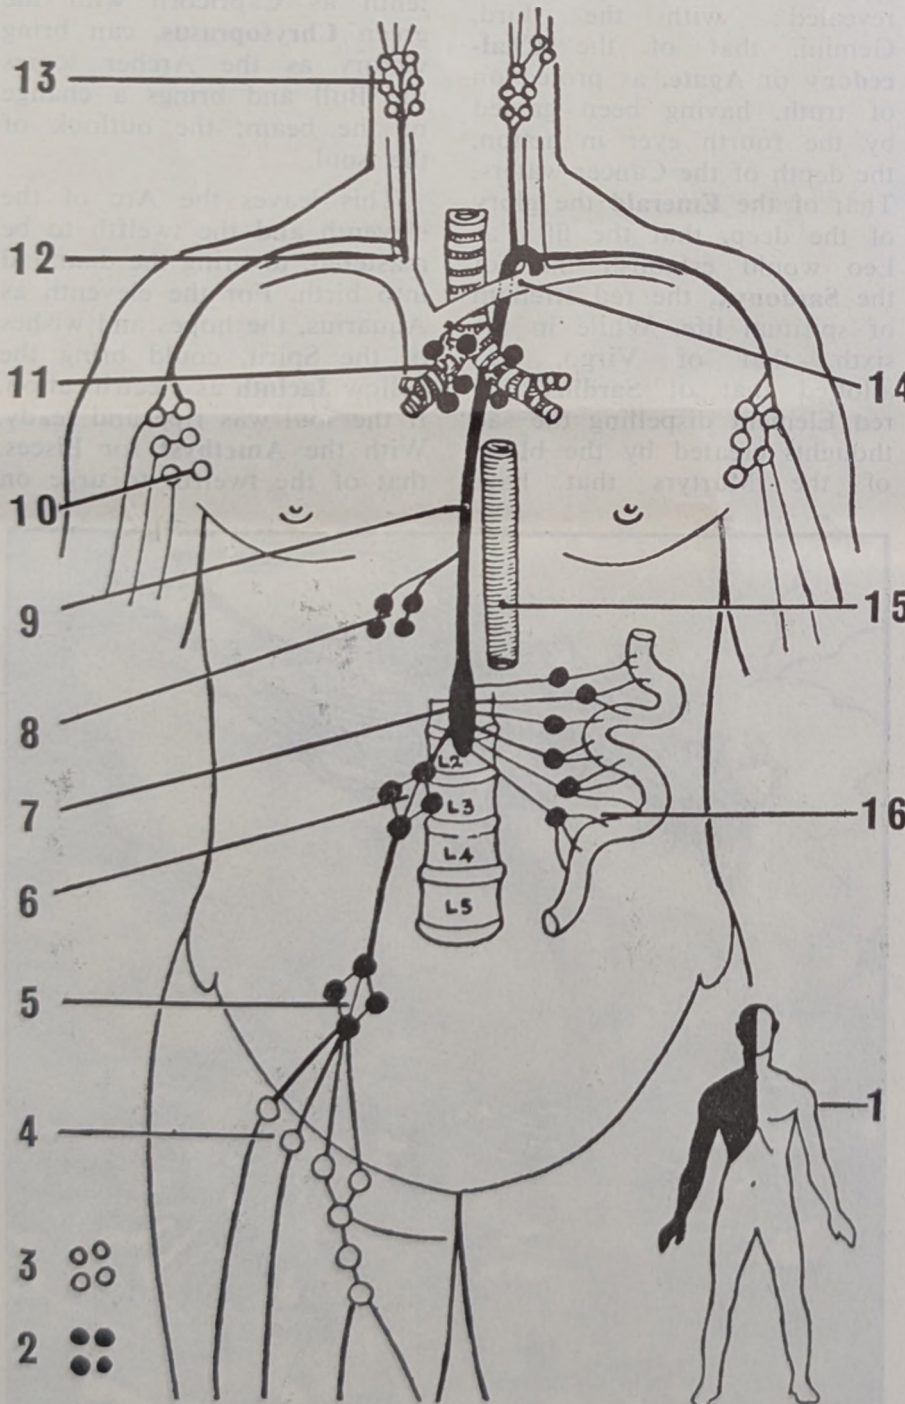

Yet my Instrument has especially laboured to help the feminine toilers receive the Fire direct from the Fatherhood, without having to become victimised by the beast within man. She can, by using her mind in constant study and mind uplift, so raise her frequency of mind thought, that she can receive the Holy Fire as the Sacred Dew, the Morning Glory of Super-Sensitivity.

The root cause of why these have fallen victim is the lack of interest in life, and the fact that neither have studied the Sacred Word. With no Oil en-fuelling them slowly their lamp went out and they lost interest and purpose.

The muscles of Visionary and expansive thought slowly,

TED OIL will help the muscles, MARIGOLD FLOWERS (Calendula officinalis) and ROSEMARY LEAVES (Rosmarinus officinalis) for the mind movement, and HORSE-TAIL (Equisetum arvense) and BLESSED THISTLE (Carbenia benedicta) as firing fluid to activate the fires of the spine. Lastly special Herb NERVE PILLS to help them as they unfold.

As much water should be taken to help the blood stream circulate and as soon as can be accepted, both should change from a diet of cooked animal foods to uncooked vegetarian diet. Changes should be slow but firm and lasting, for constantly turning back is not good, for it makes the struggle merely increase in its intensity.

through sheer non-use, stopped work. This is why the disease is a slow mover, and invariably attacks people in latter life.

The finest remedy is forcing them both to study the Wisdom of Universal Philosophy, and I mean forcing them, driving them without mercy to save their spiritual wealth. Herbs to inject the spiritual ethers into the blood consciousness, and as much physical activity as can be arranged.

The Solar Rebirth

FOR now there will be a complete condensing of all alchemical action in the soul, through the enforced mineral changes of the lower Kingdoms. Which will result in the blood becoming electrically fired, and driven rapidly in a circling state, round the soul's arena.

To understand any of this, a full comprehension of the unity that has been made, must now be fully sought into. For the whole world is terrestrially lifted up, and out of the range of the past. It is the root and the trunk, now producing the seed; the nut of the growth of Universes, Worlds and Hydrogen Power, the nebula essence of the Blackness of Space. Yet through the action of Merope, all raised up to the royal rebirth, owing to the Genera-

The Arabian Nights The Story of Agib

STARTING in May 1965 there commenced The Arabian Nights Story, each story being supported by a picture. The whole tale is one of the unfoldment of one soul, the Sultan, who through his awakening experiences gradually unifies his multiple particles, his past personalities, and by so doing learned to change his ways and character. Each Story is recounted to him by Sheherazade, the spiritual essence (Mary) of his weaving intuitive mind, who has as her audience, the upraised personality mind, Dinarzade, the Martha side. By "listening" or keeping her thoughts and actions ever upwards, in action and sensitivity, she is able to capture what she has to do in matter to put into operation the practical application of the wisdom gained. All the stories and the many characters are the man's own inner "legion," and by there being related he learns of the inner truth of his own being. These stories were given in the Sanctuary of The School of Universal Philosophy and Healing on the two lecture nights each week, Sundays and Wednesdays, and were delivered by Mrs. Gladys I. Spearman-Cook under the control and guidance of The LORD MAITREYA, The Lord of The Flame. (Editor).

The story so far

SHEHERAZADE, having awakened the old king, or Saturn, old unused knowledge, to his responsibility of governing the soul-unit, now commences to show him how to get the virgo conscious mind to bring out his old wealth and weave it into a garment of mind, past qualities and attributes he must now use. The three lower senses or chakras of Mars, Venus and Mercury are the first to be set aweaving. Through the different stories the conscious mind learns how it, as the changing personality over the ages, has got to get its loom working, which it can only do by activating constructively the three lower units.

First the ruling faculty the Saturn had to realise that his vision was totally blind to the Truth, and he was thus carrying on practices which he would never continue if he had gathered the Awareness. So three or four stories were recounted to him all telling him stories as to how one attribute or faculty after another all lost their ability to do things right. First the faculty of will, then the creative ability to build and lastly the blind states of the dogs of the logical mind that were asleep, and not watchful, alert, aware and above all at least not uprisen in vision.

Now Agib the last of the male attributes or positive qualities of the soul explains why he too became 'blind.' He represents the Passions that had to become upraised and winged, the whole power no longer kept held in the magnetic prison of the earth but rocketed upwards by the means of the winged Horse, winged Pegasus. But alas, Agib failed to utilise his gifts as the story related.

The Blind Eye

WE had got as far as where the three males who had lost their eyes were giving off their experiences. Now another male comes forward, Agib, who has also lost his eye, and started to tell Zobieda why he had lost it. "But," he said: "It is my own fault, and if I may be permitted to tell you, I will tell you all about it." So she said she was willing to listen. Now remember this is the House of the ladies.

The Black Rock

AGIB said he was the son of a very great King, who had a vast kingdom and his task was to go out on a boat to visit every one of the Ports. Now there was a storm, and they were driven near to a black rock. This rock had the power of drawing the iron work out of the boat, pulling the boat to pieces. As they drew near, the whole of the crew got terrified (undermining of course the Agging power).

The boat sunk and as the iron work was flying to the black rock it made a tremendous noise. He was able to grasp a plank, and get to the rock and clamber up. As he came to the top, he saw a statue of a man on a horse; just a statue, but he fell asleep exhausted.

While he was asleep he received a dream, and in this dream he was told thus: "Where you are standing or laying, dig underneath and you will find a brass bow and three leaden arrows, fire thm at the statue, and when you have done that you will find that the man will fall into the sea, and the horse will fall down. Bury the horse where you are standing, then the whole rock will disappear, and a man will come up out of the sea. But you are to step into the boat, but on no account are you to give over the word of Allah; on no account mention it."

So when Agib woke up he did exactly as he was told, and he fired at the statue, and did exactly what he was told he should do. The waters rose up, went over the rock, and a man came up out of the waters and he looked like brass. Agib stepped into the boat and as he stepped in, he said "Allah be praised" and the boat immediately sunk leaving him in the water. He swam as hard as he could, and was able to escape, but when he had escaped there was only one way to go, to an island. For him to escape still further back home, he had to be put into a sheepskin, so that a large rock bird would come down, pick him up and put him on to the mountain top, which was the direction for him to go home.

Now if you follow this, of course you are going to see how he was able to reach the heights of his mountain peak to gather in of the "sheep," and then he was on the way to be able to go back home, because he had reached his mountain peak. This he followed out exactly as he was shown. He was carried up to the heights and he began to walk, and in so doing he came to this wonderful island of all females.

House of the Ladies

NOW there were forty females in the one Palace, a very beautiful Palace, who spent all their time waiting upon him. Then one morning they came to him crying saying: "I am afraid you have got to go through your tasks, and you have got to go through every room in the palace and decipher it, but whatever you do, never open the door of the Golden Room."

There you can see in front of his turban, the flame he had alight. He now had got to go through his initiation; he was to go through every room and decipher what every room meant, but above all he was not to go to the Golden Room, avoid that one. Well he did not to begin with, but curiosity got the better of him, so unfortunately he opened the door, and there inside he saw the most magnificent wealth which, naturally was his own.

Agib found in this Golden chamber a lovely Black Horse with a beautiful Golden Harness; of course curiosity took him. As he touched it, it became alive but he never noticed it had wings. He led it out into the open and got on to his back, and as he did so the wings spread out, the horse shot up into the air and threw him off on to the top of the terrace. But as he fell, it whipped its tail, the tail end of its beam and whipped his eye. So it whipped out his vision: what he saw for the moment went completely, because he was not ready to be able to take the wealth he took through his left, saw it in a flash, and then lost it because he was not able to take it, because his heart was not circumcised; his heart was not changed from the old state, and beginning to accept the new. He had been put through initiation and was told not to go into the Golden Chamber, but he went before he was ready.

The right eye is the one that is always being changed into the new beam. The left one is what man sees with the logical only, but the right eye is where it changes over after the thorn is pulled out from the left, as it were, for him to see with new ideas. It is like a man only seeing with the "moon" and now he sees with the "sun," so he pulls out the thorn and then concludes by gaining a new idea. It is like you now, you are seeing it with the right eye after seeing with the left.

He had taken of the Arabic Horses, which were his own depths, and he had got to transmute them, because he had not made the complete connection to obeying what he was told, "do not go to the Golden Room." He was not intended to until he had been able to pass all initiations, and then he would be instructed to go to the Golden Room and take the wealth that was his, but he took it before he was ready and so lost his right eye. The right eye being the beam of the eye whereby the eye changes it beam into the Eye of Aldebaran.

Now I am going to leave that with you because there is much there for you to think about, when you read it altogether and see the depths of it. Because this is a continual unfolding of the frequency all the time. The soul rising up onto a higher cycle of understanding, and getting a deeper frequency of understanding in the words that he takes.

HEALING

the future? I have faith in the power God has bestowed on you... The more I read the Occult Gazette, the more it seems a logical solution of the needs of human body; after hearing from you will request help for myself.

THE present knowledge that orthodox medicine has in regard to the liver, pancreas and Gall bladder or Bile, is very limited, yet they were all recognised by the Egyptians, as sacred organs. Mankind far from recognising their sacred use, and using these qualities and attributes, feeds his guts with as rich and fatty food-stuffs that his sense glands in the mouth and face can find, the richer the better. This taking of animal foods and the over-free licence with desire is the direct cause of the trouble in this case, for by the niece eating over a long period of time some rich food or other she has overfed herself with fat that her organs have not had time to break down and now the fat has so filled up the liver that it has been delivered to the Bile duct, and more than probable she is beginning the first stage of cholestrol, an over fat bile.

What is not realised is the sacred and holy use that these organs should be put. The Gall bladder holds of the Scorpio fires from the bloodstream, and whereas at the present moment, through man's incorrect diet it is used for breaking down the fat, really by rights the "firing" in the Gall bladder should be firing the metabolism in the liver, whereby there is a uniting in the Isles of Langer hans, the two lobes uniting in the heights and depths of the bloodstream.

In the Unification the Gall Bladder produces what is a form of secretion, which although the medical world may have their own ideas, the correct one would be that it is similar to WORMWOOD, whereby it kills off the worms or old states within the mind, that of the old bloodstream, thus giving unity to the flow of the New bloodstream.

This is very vital as the soul meets with the word and in its study of some makes recognition of how he or she is a similar offender in character. With the bile duct free and would be able to bury in very correctly working the soul successfully all those past states which certainly should not be allowed to come forth in action of demonstration.

Thus the first task that this girl must take upon herself—and this as sacred duty—is to start cleansing the body of the poisons that lie heavily and all too richly embedded there. Plenty of water and herbs should be taken with the cessation of all animal foods and stimulants. Foods such as milk, butter and other fats, oils, sugars, spices, salts, condiments, and naturally meat, fish, eggs and cheese. Tinned food with their dangerous preservatives should be avoided and there should be instead a full concentration on the natural fruits and fresh vegetables uncooked.

Next should be a long course of herbs. I would recommend there to be taken BUCHU (Barosma betuline), DANDELION (Taraxacum officinale) and SARSAPARILLA (Smilax ornata) to take as a tea with some nerve pills that are so very excellent. As much fresh fruit juice should be taken as can be absorbed and the more generally the better for the change over.

As a postscript the girl should certainly avoid at all costs any operation and drugs as from our own experience in the School the result is ever most detrimental to the person in question.

Reminiscences

EVOLVING TIME

ONCE AGAIN THE PASS-OVER HAS BEEN accomplished, but how many realise the true importance of this rebirth? Is the lesser mind much behind the union with the higher, or has she made it, as seen in the close of the Swan Lake Ballet. This is the Easter Bonnet which every soul, unconscious to its true mind conception, is ever really seeking. The conscious mind awakening to the reality and purpose of life, for every soul is conscious to the whole of life and TIME, and it being in the higher mind as Light, it is not of form which the lower mind demands to be able to gain comprehension. This is where the drips are ever coming down from the North, and giving the lower mind problems to solve; as she gives birth to them in the lower, she reimburses the world of matter. This may be the cause of someone becoming inspired, thereby aspiring up to the Gods, whereby in sending up such aspiration, the Gods will send down of new life. So it is always a vicious circle until man awakens, then it will become a state of joyous rebirth.

Control by Hierarchies

I await most expectantly to see what I have accomplished, for I know it is a matter of the first growth out of the Christmas present sent down at the beginning of the year. No superstitious rubbish as some would say, but an orderly union with the Gods up in the heights. Inter-blending sustenance that is sent down from the higher Spheres, that in being united into the Solar Arc, is sent down as the Prism of Seven Rays, and received by man as the Seven Elements. Out of this the constitution of Seven is created within the soul, and becomes the Cancer Waters of rebirth that must strive to rise up and unite with the Ursa Major, the constellation of rebirth in the heights.*1

This simply put, may give to us some importance of abiding with the Gods and their constitution, which began with the beginning of TIME, than the pseudo-dates erected by papalism as their gods and saints.*2 For they have only created disease and death, while the Elements have created Nature and the Laws of time.

Now is where we come to those things promised at the time of the pass-over. Placed below will be seen the letter I wrote to the B.B.C. regarding the erroneous rubbish that Woodruffe*3 was allowed to give over the Air regarding a General Election. (See letter below dated 30th January 1966 with their reply). For such to

*1 Known as the Great Bear or the Plough, it has 7 Stars, and is exactly similar in picture form to the Little Bear, the tail star of which is the Pole Star, around which the whole Solar System revolves. It is the 2nd decan of Cancer, ruled by Mars.

When christian churchocracy came into power domination, they altered every sacred day, even that of the Christmas, creating a deep fog of illusion and falsity, thus deliberately cutting off the sacred stellar inflow, forcing man from being severed from the Spirit Powers of the Heavens, and preventing their guidance by them.

For the attention of the Director of Programmes,
The Director General,
B.B.C. Television Centre,
LONDON, W.12.

Dear Sir,

Quite recently I had brought to my notice of a certain broadcaster named Maurice Woodruffe. It is stated that he makes predictions upon the Air of certain possible events to take place. One being, that in the Spring that there will be a General Election, whereby Labour will lose the Government and Conservatism will enter in.

Apart from the fact that I think this is a diabolical statement to make, when a body of men, are trying, and being quite successful, to pull the country out of her fall at the hands of the Conservatives, it is not true. I, as a Mystic, am prepared to challenge Woodruffe to the fact, that the Labour Government are in for a long run, and what he is predicting, is his own fall.

As a public body, I expect you to accept my challenge, and honour it in the Spring. This I am making public in my own paper, the Occult Gazette, which goes all over the world, and is far more well known than even I am aware. This is not being done for publicity, as some of you worldly souls would think, for quite recently I refused an invitation with regard to the Air, for I cannot waste my time on useless propaganda, as then I perceived it to be. But what I am suggesting now, is of utmost importance, and far more so than Woodruffe, on the psychic plane, would be capable of understanding.

If you wish to discuss this with me, you will have to visit me in my own home, for as a Mystic, I am in a Sanctuary, avoiding as much as possible, all contact with the outside world. But this is an important issue, requiring to be brought before the public, and the sooner the better.

Yours sincerely,

Dear Prime Minister,

We are delighted with the success of the Elections and wish you all the strength, courage and drive to fulfill the tasks that have been placed before you.

Now that you have such a sweeping majority, it will give you the opportunity to start making vast changes to some of the more important issues before you—particularly that of the structure, work and powers of the British Broadcasting Corporation.

In view of its importance, I ask you personally to look into their problems,—a much needed task—and without the paralysis of endless committees and reports, have the courage to make sweeping decisions, reconstructing their whole edifice. It can be made the Voice to guide the whole people, eradicate all pollutions at present being delivered, feeding all too readily the minds of the young.

This is a very vital question in the consideration of health and education of our young, and I ask that it will be placed high upon your agenda to be personally reviewed.

I enclose a copy of two letters I have sent to the B.B.C., dated 30th January, 1966 and 4th April 1966, for your information and such action you may deem necessary to take.

Though you are extremely busy after the Election, because of the National urgency of this matter, I do ask you as a matter of urgency to investigate the above, and grant me the question of your considered reply.

Yours sincerely,

mine happened to be a fact and a truth.

At the same time I sent a copy of my letter to Mr. H. Wilson,*4 of which I received the here printed reply. (See letters below). This I did because I read that he was justly angered at the way he was being hampered by this Institution. As one who has tried to establish new thought, I know how heart-breaking it can be to try and drive nails of common-sense into "sheep" that will not drink of the water that can be the means of them being revived. I also know how just one word, at such a moment, even from one not connected with their project, can encourage and lift up the moral for the time.

So I alone would say, drive on Harold, far greater Powers than you are aware of, are assisting you to carry out your task. While you drive on, hard and fast, you will be guided and led unknown to yourself, while powers from the unseen will unify with your good stolid Yorkshire common-sense.

Prison Conditions

WHAT I now would like to comment upon, is the article placed by David Cook. (See page 9). Being unused to writing for the public, he has not stated as much as he would have liked to. His period of remand*5 could have been 24 days, but owing to the appeal of Mr. Averill, it was reduced to 8 days, which we knew was quite enough for a young man who was so highly sensitised. For one thing he was completely on fruit diet, which

*3 Maurice Woodruffe is a well known psychic who tells fortunes and makes prophecies. He prophesied that at the spring General Election the conservatism would sweep back into power with a very large majority and he was completely wrong, it being the Labour Party who succeeded.

*4 Harold Wilson, head of the British Labour Party and Prime Minister of Great Britain, has just succeeded in leading his party to a sweeping Victory in the British General Election on March 31st last. Now with an overall majority of 98, he is comfortably in power for the next five years the maximum period that the Law allows him to do without seeking a further mandate from the electorate.

now he was denied, and forced to eat vegetables cooked by very inefficient craftsmen. So much of the time he lived on dried bread and water, but of course to an Initiate, this did not hurt, it is a part of our curriculum, it giving the stomach and mind a rest.

What seemed so trying to David, was the rigor applied to a human soul, because of their fear of such being taken advantage of if it was relaxed. All David needed was paper and pencil that he could write, but he had to go and apply for every sheet that he required, and then allow those in authority to read what he had written. This he was afraid to do, in case antiquated and ignorant individuals calling themselves psychiatrists branded him as mental, whereby he would have been put into an asylum.

So all the time the prisoners are living in a state of fear, in case they commit the wrong thing. Which eventually ends up with them being fed on drugs, or confined in a single cell as dangerous. I quite agree, the problem is acute, but we shall not solve our problems by religious humbugs who are advocating the Sodomy Bill, going in to give these men holy communion. What holy communion can they possibly make???

This requires men who are TRULY making contact with Spirit thus feeding these souls with spiritual reimbursement. Then they can be the means of leaving with them reforming Uction. But this is our "cock-eyed" world of the present, and one that the Waters are going to change as time ensues.

I have entered a number of these prisons while I acted as secretary to Mr. Averill and found the vibrations as stated by David Cook. Of course, there are men here of vicious

*5 David Cook admitted damaging the cross and 'dead' figure, but pleaded not guilty because he denied that the cross came within the category of being classified as a memorial to the dead, the phrase of that charged. His defence was that there was no such thing as a memorial to the dead for there were no dead. All was a process of change and transubstantiation from one plane of manifestation to another.

PRISON Stagnant Realms of Hell

by David Spearman-Cook

THIS very enlightening article is written by one who spent ten days in a remand prison earlier this year. Readers will recollect how, inspired and illuminated by the instructions from THE MASTERS, David Cook had felt sacredly guided to break off a figure of a dead christ on a roman catholic memorial, in order that he might make a public protest not only at its evil character and vibration, but the falseness of what it was supposed to represent, and pretend to portray. Facing certain capture he very courageously carried out his task. The magistrate who committed him for trial was quite unable to grasp this man's Spiritual Purpose and ordered him to be kept in custody, but within 48 hours this was immediately repealed by a High Court Judge who had no difficulty in accepting his greater motive. At the trial David Cook faced an impossible task, to try to penetrate dead minds with the realisation of the greater Spiritual Vision. This proved impossible, and a verdict of guilty was given. The Judge at first gave him a remand for the customary and normal period of a minimum 21 days to receive a medical check-up, but that was quickly lessened to a mere 8 days, the least period possible. When he was brought up to the Judge at the end of that time, the report spoke highly of his intelligence and fitness, and the Judge passed no sentence merely making him promise to keep the Common Law Peace and be of good Behaviour. This Mr. Cook had no difficulty in accepting. So ended a Saga and a Great Spiritual Sacrifice. (Editor).

HOW many souls ever give a thought towards prison and its inmates? As one who has committed a voluntary act that gave them 10 days remand in one of these hells, I would like to bring to the notice of mankind the need for immediate reform. We understand that some reform is taking place, but when we think here is human life spending 23 hours a day shut up in a stone cell with not even reading material, it makes one shudder that, in a so-called enlightened world, such things are taking place. As an initiate who can speak with some little intelligence under the enlightened training of Mrs. Spearman-Cook, and being one closely allied with Neptunian influences, the hell of these antiquated states of soul reform bears no comparison. For with drugs offered and then withdrawn, it is Neptune in the lower state of expression.

I am not for one moment upholding man and crime, but do know that the prisons, in their present state of administration of punishment, do not reform a man, but make them into hardened criminals. Fortunately for me my act was voluntary; I did what I did of my own intention and with a purpose. But the majority are souls who have committed acts either out of impulse, necessity, or irresponsibility. They enter confused, completely surrounded by the act that has brought them there, and while waiting for judgement, spent their time justifying themselves. Till finally they end up as a nervous wreck, wondering what is going to take place.

10 days in a Hospital Ward

MY experience in the hospital ward, with eight murderers in all degrees of expressions, gave me much to think about, especially in the night hours, when many of them were in a drugged sleep and rambled on in an incoherent stupor. This ward was the best part of the prison, the real hell was the independent cells, where human life spent 23 hours a day with no work, no training, but day and night sitting in idle stupors. Apart from that solitary confinement, there would be two exercises a day of two half hours.

The one fear of any prisoner, who had experienced prison before, was that they would get into a prison wing. For I understand from old lags, that the cries of these souls, as hardened as they were, were piteous and blood curdling. For here all drugs are removed which previously have been applied for over-wrought and nervous states. A state which one can quite understand when a man is labouring under the fear of a prison sentence, as well as his family left to the mercy of their own devices.

Fortunately I was well protected by spirit, and must say for a prisoner, as indeed

I was, treated quite well. But the experience taught me of the hell it could be, if it had not been 10 days but 10 years. For it would not take very long for a soul to become saturated with the astral influences that these places are thoroughly inoculated with.

(See plate in cols. 4 & 5)

My association in a ward with these men, where you could not help but hear their excited and nervous renderings of their crime, gave me much food for thought. For they talked with loud justifiable belief in their innocence, but one could, if they were not careful, get caught up in all their vibrations, where often controversies set up. Really it was a psychological action of trying to get another to condone their belief in their self-styled innocence. Yet these men were flotsam of society that have never yet learnt the truth of life.

As souls that need training therefore, it is all the more reason for these prisons to be schools of training, more than hells of detention. Prison reform is an immediate question that should be delved into and quickly brought to a far more satisfactory conclusion.

Prisoners that are placed on remand, whether it be for murder or stealing the sixpence from under the plate left for a waitress, are herded together in the prison hospital ward on medical remand. This to the ordinary soul sounds human, but it is a locked up ward with as many as 20 or more souls. From personal experience I found that seven out of the 20 were murderers and the rest ranged from distorted sex cases to hitlerite synagogue-burning fire bugs.

What seemed most distressing were those, particularly young men, who had been drug addicts and left without treatment until the effects wear off.

And they stated that this was the most horrible of experiences, and who should have received medical attention, to not only help them through, but for the sake of others. Their misdemeanor did not leave them open to such cruelty.

The warders themselves have quite a task, for their work is ONLY those who are really sensitive and have opened up the planes of the Neptunian Waters, the 7th Chakra, will be able to see and feel the confusion and vibrations of the Maelstrom of prison. (See text in col. 3).

Reminiscences

character that have to be kept under control, and would not hesitate to commit another crime to gain freedom, so the problem is great. Yet the Spirit World declare that here is the courage that they are requiring to drive the world on into true action, so it seems that the only answer to this is to try and train this wealth into the right direction.

This is where we want teachers of TRUE spiritual worth, to try and get over to these men, that which will awaken their great insight.

Of course in its first throes, would be difficult, but then is not every new project. When such men as Mahatma Gandhi, Livingstone and the like died for their purpose, surely there can be someone who is ready to start this reform? I have tried to do my best, and spoken out forthright of what I know to be true; Surely there is someone who will try and start this project into action?

But to keep men 23 hours a day without work or mind action, is utterly criminal, and I would dare to say, far more criminal than the men themselves. For these people are in control and know what they are applying, so stand at the seat of judgment for what they are doing. The criminal is partly taking his in the fear and hell he is forced to live in.

The first thought of the authorities at the present moment, should be to putting this problem into reform straight away. Scrap all armaments, for there will never be a major war, it is a mind world now. Those going on in the lesser countries, are the lesser Nations being imbued with the inflowing Cosmic Rays and striking out for freedom.

For they receive the Rays of the Sun as it goes down under, therefore they too are reborn, but in the way they can understand. So war is remote, except in the mind of the financier, and results in a belief that builds up of big business. Then secondly, put all the space missile boys into a home, where they can have a dummy moon upon the wall, and sit in little space machines and fly at the wall, then working out yards of figures through a computer.

For it is about time some of you souls should have awakened to the fact, that NOTHING solid can leave the maelstrom belt. The Law of Gravity alone determines that and that is LAW.

So with those two soul destroying arguments put to sleep, the money could be used for prison reform, where human life (that is increasing rapidly) is twisted and corrupted by the moral standards that have grown up through the financiers of this Age.

The moment commodity advertisement was put up on the television, I knew the world was due for a mighty fall, for all you hear now, is, "have you seen that new cheese or butter on the television?" Thus it becomes a rat-race to try all the new commodities, with everybody becoming more and more food conscious.

The work of man upon the earth is to transform old states and bring spiritual upliftment to the wonders received from the Gods, then the New City as promised by the Sages, will come into birth. Until, it will only go on deteriorating into disease and sickness, until drugs will no longer avail. At the present moment, I am placing all I possess upon the inflowing Waters, for it is the Stream that I have set into action from the heights. But as we know, these things take time, but I hope not TOO LONG.

Souls caught up in crime, are those who have allowed their inner wealth to become twisted and distorted, and do not require equally distorted punishment by those who are also distorted through years of application, but well constructed buildings that would give over to the soul a chance of righting themselves and blossoming under REAL progressive training. We may want to say, why should we bother or sponsor crime. That is not the point, the community as a whole are responsible for the welfare of the whole Nation, and our duty is to solve their problems, whether we agree or not.

Just bunging them away into astral plane infested buildings, that smell like an abattoir on a slaughter day, is not the way to bring healing to these souls who have lost the way.

I happened to know of a young man who committed a shooting offence in Kensington, who received 10 years for what he did. This was coolly dished out by a judge who made no attempt to make further enquiries. This young man is at the present in Broadmoor,*6 having later become insane. But I happened to know that this boy was quite alright until he went to the war, then came back with a completely changed outlook. When I remonstrated with his counsel, they glibly asked me what credentials I had to warrant my diagnosis.

THIS IS WHAT WE HAVE TO CHANGE, BESIDE BRINGING NEW LIFE AND BELIEF INTO A WORLD HIDE-BOUND WITH CONVENTIONALISM AND SOPHISTICATED, THAT TWISTS EVEN THE MIND OF THE MOST STUPID.

THE ACHILLES HEEL

or

The Struggle of the Passover

by Gladys I. Spearman-Cook*

*This lecture was delivered at the S.U.D.H. on 13th February, 1966, through Gladys J. Spearman-Cook especially directed by the Lord Maitreya, The Lord of the Flame of the Central Sun, the unified Spiritual Wealth of the Cosmic Hierarchies.

Peace be Unto you ALL.

A GAIN we come amongst you; again we seek to blend with the Earth vibrations and bring the Spirit Peace into your midst. Tonight we are going to venture into a depth that has never been touched before, or at least not very much. We are going to seek into the Wisdom of the Achilles Heel, for man fails to understand how every part of his body has relationship with the Celestial Signs. You talk about them, but you do not expect them to exist. All is controlled by the central tower of the soul, the mind. There the gods are sitting, whether you believe it or not; and they are controlling those connections with the body. This is done through the etheric body, which branches off through the nervous system and the bloodstream. It is through the nervous system that these connections are made, yet those powers within the mind are also connected with the greater Powers of the Elements.

But since man is consistent of nothing else but the Elements, then he cannot but be in union with those states. If we want to tell you about any part of the body, if you are sensitised we then can give you notice; but only if you are sensitised. So if we tell you about the Achilles heel, then we tap the Achilles heel. If you are not sensitised, then you would not feel it; and if you did, you would not know what it meant. So if you wish to be in touch with the Gods, in harmony with the Gods, that you can be guided and lifted up and shown the way, then sensitise yourself. You do that by bringing the bloodstream, the nervous system, and the flesh under control. While you only partake of the food prepared by man, which is artificial and of animal states, then you lose your sensitivity. You may think you are sensitised, but this would be nothing compared to the sensitivity you could have if you lived upon natural fruits.

THE Achilles heel is the atomic explosion, instead of splitting the atom up the spinal channel. Aries fallen back upon himself as Dan, and turned destructive instead of building up the constructive mind. This is a subject, although closely akin to man, he knows very little about. The retention that causes man to fall backwards, when, if he could have gone forward, would have led him to the goal he was seeking. This is deep, and needs much interpenetration; therefore it would be wise if we seek into it in a simple way. You must realise that the Achilles heel is at the base, at the back of the foot, which is ruled by Pisces. So you have to get passed that and tread it into the earth. All men have to tread everything into the earth, and as they do so, it passes over and becomes your mind creation, as much as you make a fuiness of it: it has literally got to become something that you are advocating in every possible way, and you striving to live it; and then it becomes your mind creation.

Jacob and Esau

HENCE in the allegory of the Scriptures where the twins of Rebekah were being born, you find Jacob holding onto the heel of Esau; they being the dual state of mind being given birth by Rebekah the mother, due to the Lamech state deeply impregnated in the soul. States of growth given names, according to the heritage of the Cosmic growth, which belongs to every soul.

It literally means that Esau, as Aries the pioneer, instead of going forth hunting to find wisdom to expand from the knowledge gained in the pass-over, went hunting for choice venison and remained content with the knowledge just as it was received; Pisces to Aries. While Jacob, as the practical mind of Gemini, took the knowledge as it was, and ran away to Laban, the Saturn state of the soul. Therefore only knowledge was blessed by the father in the 10th, and Isaac as the mind made the turn-over, but only on the knowledge and not the wisdom. This necessitated Jacob having to labour seven years, only gaining Leah the harlot state of Virgo expansion. Then finally has to labour another seven years, to obtain Rachel the virgin expansion that would help him to find mind awareness. She who helped him to bring forth the wealth that the world was needing, to send it on its way.

It was through this hard gruelling experience that the soul caught up with the wealth it had taken, but fell backwards through being weak in its mind purpose. Its spine would not hold the splitting of the atom that was necessary, to break open the wealth accumulated in the soul. Rebekah had hit by the heritage-frailty that Eve was having to carry.

Jacob, the mind establishment of the Yod, brought twelve sons of celestial heights within the soul unfoldment of the genus. Therefore as weak as it may be, it brought mind light to Cosmic rebirth. Hence Noah's labours had not been in vain, as another had taken up the cudgel, and drove the as yet another league on the road of unfoldment. This gives us the first understanding of what the Achilles heel can literally mean, and something every man is facing today; but not so much turning back upon himself as man fearing to make that expansion.

THAT IS INEVITABLE, AND IF NOT TAKEN BY WILL OF COMPREHENSION, THAT WHICH IS GOING TO BE TAKEN THE HARD WAY.

Jacob as the soul growth took over the will of the soul, through it falling backwards, for as Aries the mind in the personality had taken the wealth of the previous round of unfoldment, but enjoyed the riches as the desires of the flesh. But Jacob the mind unfoldment in the moving yod, the wealth of spirit within the soul, rose up as a state of congestion and confusion and was forcing the soul to act. Yet more than where the soul feels the urge to step out of the old path onto the new, they being without a doubt more than ready for the new way of existence.

They have outworn the old experiences, thus are ready for the complete reorientation that the Aquarian Age demands; thus must step forth and raise up the mind and purpose, bringing it spiralling up to the heights. Yet this is not just taking steps by the belief of the mind, in the soul just following a whim, but a set and deliberate journey destined by time, that every soul has to follow in some way or another. Therefore the road can be taken in either the positive or the negative, which will make a mighty power of difference, as to BEING and going forward, or grovelling in the mud like a muck-raker, as the Law drives its way through the soul's being. Jacob had to take the hard way, for Esau would not honour the wealth he was given, and like Meleager, sought to go hunting instead of bringing the wealth to mind unfoldment as Light.

So instead of splitting the atom up the spinal course in unfolding sensitivity, there was an atomic explosion within the soul, causing it to fall back upon itself, thereby having to labour the hard way through the unfolding seven. And even then, only gaining the negative, before it could claim the EL unfoldment and bring into birth of the wealth. But even so, untold experience was gained which gave to Jacob wealth to the Cosmic rendering. So what may appear a catastrophe to the soul becomes the marking of time.

"Bitten in the Heel"

THEN we find in another direction, of one who was about to reach a crucial point of adjustment in their life, by the Moon conjuncting Uranus in the midheaven. This was not only important to them, but to the unfoldment of a Cosmic plan. They had during their recent life undergone experiences that could warrant them making the spiritual marriage with the higher Powers. But as the time approached a vision was shown unto another, of them being bitten in the heel by a vicious snake. As the time of unity arrived, they came into contact with one who could, if they had kept to the higher path, been a fine and qualified helper in spiritual exemplification. But the depths in the former were very deep and strong, and had never been penetrated to be given rebirth, and being of the same calibre as the one they came into contact with, this soon proved to be their undoing.

For what should have been purified through their lesser initiations, had never been accomplished through sloth; therefore when the moment came for what should have been a glorious upliftment into a marriage with the Masters, turned into a physical marriage of a very low calibre, where they completely turned back upon themselves. Although the road was taken, it was upon the lower course; consequently all the powers that had reached the heights for a divine achievement, fell right back into the base, and would have done nothing else but intensify the beast. Whereas he should have been released and raised up out of the underworld, his world was pushed down deeper into the depths.

Then the soul completely blinded by the haze of illusion, through their root desires being gratified, believed they had found happiness; when in reality they had renounced a considerable amount to take this appointed path. A path if

(See the plate below) achieved, would have been a crowning glory instead of a flaming Lilith; that which they had been all their life, that now could have taken on the role of Mary a mother of the gods. Instead, they cut off the golden hair of a god in their possibility, maiming them for the rest of their life.

Thus the possibilities in nowise release a soul from any karmic roots they have accrued over the Ages, but by achievement gives them greater power to completely bury them in. By these two having chosen the road they had, when they had advocated differently, they would find their root weakness instead of being dug out, now beginning to sprout; thereby being a danger to all and sundry.

THE SERPENT TO BE MASTERED

There is nothing more difficult to recognise and face and master than the serpent thoughts of one's own self. The clearing out of the last serpent root that ever lies at the very base foundation of one's own heart purpose, that which bites the Heel. (See text in col. 5).

This would be as a major Initiation, which decides a very culminating factor, for it would coincide with a very major Cosmic plan. Therefore the leader accepted the finality of her journey, as much as she was very sad at seeing one lost to their purpose. Yet it was also a moment to prove of that which she had advocated so much; the wealth and glory of life that every man now had to bring forth, that the world could be raised up to its glorious state, as the golden plane of Helioanthus.

THE THREE GORGONS

THE Capturing of serpents of Medusa, the mind thoughts mis-using the Fires, that to be mastered so that the Arian Pioneer can go forth and rise up to the Heights. (See text in col. 2).

of initiation, started the path, to fall when the first real test of renunciation took place. Whereas they could have released five planets in the 8th from the horrors of a sixth, by falling back, they added a tiger amongst their reptiles. In all cases these souls have forgotten their plea and pledge, ere the return into matter. Hence are intense moments, for as the soul faces initiation, it places them on the path of the pilgrimage of the blessed. Those who are making for the gateway of no-return, where they will be shown the way to open the ivory door. That which would reveal a path of light leading to a glorious cluster of stars.

For as they would travel that road by the service offered on this side of the door, would they be climbing the Spheres for their complete flight up into that divine regime of freedom.

So it can be seen that the mystery of the legend of the Achilles' heel, links with the Fall as an ever-repeating-Cycle; but ever repeated in lesser and greater degrees, according to the soul's evidence of rebirth. It is a time when the soul is either going to make the ascension they have vehemently acclaimed, or they fall down as a hot cloud in a storm-ridden sky. The legend concerning the greater immensity of this wisdom, refers to Perseus having to cut off the head of the Medusa. To do so, he was advised not to look at the head full of nagas or snakes, but look into his shield of burnished gold, and act from the vision portrayed therein.

Thus represents Aries seeking to retrieve Andromeda from the rock; the chained personality, that she can go forth as Cassiopeia, the freed soul clothed in garments anew. For if she started off with untold problems, she would never get past becoming Pasiphae in the labyrinth of the minotaurus. Then she will do nothing else but chase him over hill and dale, bringing the soul to destruction. What it really amounted to was, it was boasted that Cassiopeia was much fairer than the sea nymphs, the air bubbles in the rolling waters. The air to be obtained by the struggles of Taurus, to drive up the rolling tide, past the seven cervicals. Thereby Neptune was angry, and despatched a monster of the deep to ravage the sea coast.

This was none other than Cetus or the Whale appearing on the surface of the waters demanding activity in mastering him. For you either take that pilgrimage or fall back upon yourself from the 7th into the 8th, that you are held in the pit, with the wealth going round to the 12th, and going into the labyrinth. Yet the whole of this is intense wealth, which proves how much the soul could bring forth if they could only make a stand. For ever by a weakness that they never master, does every effort put into operation, fall under the same illusion.

For the Achilles heel is the soul not being able to plant the whole of their footprint into the sand of time, as they walk the path of life. Everything is short and never complete, for they have not the courage to master; thus whether small, large, short or long, ever dropping their lower garments.

amongst some of the most hardened of criminals, consequently they become hardened in their discipline. That which is applied rigorously under law and statute, so nothing can be more soul depressing and soul destroying than to hear "You are in prison now, son" in answer to any complaint or question. But we also have to comply with personal dislikes and illwill that can arise with human nature, and often bears hard drudgery on one who unfortunately falls to this sad lot.

This is certainly where one does not learn to speak their opinions.

Consequently every prisoner learns to stand aloof in a form of solitary confinement with regard to the other man's problems. He talks about his own, but never the other man's and most of all, never complains against authority or makes any attempt to squeal.

Prison Reformation

BUT this is where I feel I must speak, for these men require help from truly balanced and well informed men, not the least of constituents. A man can be confined in one of these prison hospitals for an indecent act of immorality, and at the same time be asked to take holy communion under the hand of one advocating the Sodomy Bill.*

With as little as I know, I do realise that these men want genuine help and real unction of salvation. They need to have pure spiritual union with those higher powers which could be the means of setting an internal reimbursement of light into motion.

Thus such Teachers as we are blessed with in the Great Master, is what should go forth to these souls.

There are some who are seeking to act as social workers and some very genuine, but often ego plays a big part, so these men become the victim of many states of others, that

* In the British Parliament, in both Houses of Commons and Lords, attempts had been made to introduce and pass a special bill sponsored by a private member, to allow unnatural sexual malpractices to take place in private between consenting males over the age of 21. Believe it or not such was backed by leading British churchmen, including Ramsay of Canterbury and the bishop of Southwark. The Greater Spiritual Powers were determined to stop this bill being passed and by adjourning Parliament for an election, all standing work had to be adjourned too and begun again. The higher Powers are determined to root out this evil and any who back it, as they did by preventing its sponsor in the commons from winning his seat in the election.

they themselves are already imbued with. Naturally I cannot convey to anybody else the horror of these antiquated Victorian reformatories. They have to be experienced, to not want to wish even the worst offender inside its doors. To hear the doors clanging behind you, whatever you have done, kills whatever sensitivity you may have held.

We have a long way to go yet, before we can talk about the Earth being a true schooling ground, when men learn to prepare themselves for the spiritual uprise as souls with a balanced and well informed mind. So our first concern should be the welfare of those who are the dregs of humanity. These prisoners are still the outcome of the past distant Ages, when man applied narrow righteous religious reform. Surely it is about time we gave some deeper thought to these souls who have not risen above the animal states of growth?

Although some were souls who had committed their first offence and were piteous to see; a young man, quite sensitive, had taken one pound out of the till and his firm was making an example of him. Whether we agree or not, we do not know the circumstances that drove this young man to this offence. But here he was in Brighton awaiting trial with eight murderers. Having been well assured by the Great Teacher I would be taken care of, I found myself without fear, and had belief that I was the light being earthed into those depths, which was verified by the Great Master at a later date.

It is up to us to make these prisons into schools of reform and learning, where these souls with cramped and stunted minds can learn and open up those inner qualities that they have failed to find.

For it does not mean they are entirely bad, for even the murderer may have had at the moment a just cause, as far as he was concerned, to carry out his act of anger. Another, inciting them to such an act, which in their saner moments they would not have done. It is not the prisoners that I am pleading for, as much as for the surroundings, which have never changed since the "Black Ages".

These states of institution need razing by fire, and modern well devised buildings, for reformation of the lesser evolved, erected. For surely these are more important than money being spent on armaments, space missiles and idle hours spent in night clubs?

Since man is mind only, it is obvious that these souls are either badly twisted or congested in their mind creation, and often no worse than those judging them.

I remember the time when Ivor Novello took the rap for the petrol coupons through the spite of a jealous woman. Yet there were those who were judging, who could have claimed the same offence, for at the time I was a garage assistant, and knew that this was going on in abundance, particularly with those who knew the wrong they were committing. It was a pity that such a useful and sensitive soul had to be made a Scapegoat when there were others equally as bad.

Perhaps the reformation promised by the Great Master in 1966 will add this to His agenda, where not only laws can be adjusted, but also administration and reformation.

FOR ALL AROUND THIS IS ONE OF OUR GREATEST SOCIAL EVILS, FROM THE POINT OF ARREST TO THE POINT OF ADMINISTRATION OF THE SENTENCE, AND ONE THAT IS GROWING FAST.

The Pilgrimage of The Blessed

SO it can be seen by this, the profundity of the Achilles heel, and how by it not treading down on the earth, it would mean to a soul, many lives of intensified density in matter. Venus becoming raised up to Venus-Urania and becoming a fallen Jezebel in Libra, as she faced the Law to set all into higher action. The soul was wanting and could not meet the demands of the Law, that when she entered into the 8th as the working Martha, the pit would be waiting for her, lined and wreathed with adders.

This is profound in itself, for one who again took the path, and had the opportunity performed all through the Ages, clinging around the cathedral. For that was the attention of the town, and of which the blood and slaughter had been shed.

States that were building up in the soul, Stalagmites of the worst nature. States that when broken down, revealed such a ghastly mixture, that the soul would not believe that such were of his creation.

Yet when this can be truly perceived, and realised of what was set into action in this town, as an example, it can reveal multitudes of deeper understanding. Apart from bloodshed to gain the control of the church, which in itself is diabolical, salt was mined out of the earth, revealing the chemical solidity of the spot. Powers brought down but never raised up, hence the influences, caves and bloodshed; then when walled in to preserve its rights, the earth became more fouled than ever. But burghers and earls, bishops and dukes created intrigue untold, until Robin Hood came into birth, and brought some new life and thought to the creation.

But here once again religion lies at the bottom of the story, with no one really caring about the God on a cross; that which they had erected up, forgetting that it was they that were on the cross, and the God waiting for them to awaken.

Digesting the Hidden Wealth

SO to perceive of how man has brought such bone consistency into birth, it would be well if we entered the cave of one who held such depths, and has never made any attempt to reconstruct, or drive it into mind issue. So we shall have to travel down into the depth and enquire into their lost creation, but also raise up our own status of interpenetration and find our second sight.

To do this it would be wise to gather up the cloak of Invincibility, thus as Perseus, draw it closely around ourselves, and start the journey down into the Cave of Machpelah. For although it is the twelfth house of the soul, it is the depths of the Cave, the state of the lowest frequency. According to a planet's degree and impediment, would its depths in the Cave be perceived; and all that was the cause of its position in the sands of time would ever be as akashic records, clinging to it as the species to come forth.

So down we start to travel, as we lower our mode of frequency, but only as mind seeking into the depths, and not as desire or purpose; for we now are travelling down under the earth, into the deeper depths. Yet as we go, we see Stalagmites sitting on the floor receiving drips from the Stalactites hanging from the roof. With here and there a seed having found ground, had sprung forth into growth. The pools of water silent and stagnant, all representing periods of growth. Times when they should have made hay while the sun shined, but they just hankered in the flowing sunshine. Marvels around us that make us wonder, what that soul could have brought into birth, yet failed to redeem and raise up the mind of the soul to its royal status.

As we came to the major Cave, where this soul had gathered up of all the past wealth, it was of such vast magnificence in its stalactite beauty, that it left us utterly appalled. Creations in the roof of a multitude of colour, shape and creation, bearing of even the pipes of an organ, that could have sounded the whole rhythm of the Spheres if it had fulfilled its journey into existence. Wonders and beauties that were left to go, while they enjoyed the superficialities of life. But created of such within the Cave, that would have a mighty detrimental nature for many Ages to come. It was as the sand that the carpenter and the walrus could not clear away.

Here was evidence of life, for there living in their past tense of habitation were creatures of all intent and purpose. They appearing to be of all types of nationality, each living his own way of life. Yet the species of the blood brought to life, and multiplying in the way they do. We being of one creation and they of another, they were not aware of our presence; and as we mingled amongst them, it was amazing as to how the soul had gathered of such mighty depths. But we knew this was not of the deepest dye, and if we travelled yet further on we would enter the depths that were the cause of the evil of their leg, and now the corruption that they were suffering.

So we drew the cloak yet tighter around our being, and entered into the depths. A dark underground cavern fed with water from an unseen source, and there wandering in the depths were Pans, Satyrs, Marsyas and Centaurs, all states of the soul's ascending growth. Creatures that man would not believe were a part of his blood life, all going about their theme of purpose, (See plate page 13, cols. 1 & 2) but the stagnancy now hampering the life. The very density of the vibrations, the stagnancy of the atmosphere alone, told its story. Yet there were deeper caves way down underneath the water, but as to what they held could not be told, for only a diver suitably attired could possibly make the journey.

Yet what was building up was but a replica of what had been, that now had its frequency in the putrefaction of the leg. For the ulcerous states held the increased prevalence of what had once been life, now a festering incestuous state in its super degrees. For we were seeing its original root, that which once held status with the soul, and now nothing more than rotting decaying tissues and blood, that would soon cause untold agony. Their task should have been to seek into wisdom, transmuting these states as they went. But life as it was, held untold comforts and physical joys, that they had refused to relinquish, but now as putrefied states of creation, held a ghastly story of death and life all rolled into one.

Thus having been permitted to see so much, we knew we had been highly privileged; for those states as a rule are not revealed, so as not to contaminate the seeker. For they are conditions that have to be discarded, not brought to life in any soul; for bringing to life, is bringing into action, and a state that is highly dangerous.

It was the white rose that became black, and must now be redeemed through the dance of le Ros; that which could bring into birth the crimson Rose's great and glorious beauty. But also through the wealth of one who had gathered in, the Fount uniting with the mouth, revealing the root and cause of the lichen on the tree.

The Journey of Dante

IT being only this wisdom that would redeem that offending limb, for it was the mortuary meal that would bury it in. The conclusion gained from the past and

THE RISING KUNDALINI

AT the back of the shoulders and deep down the Dorsal cervicals are a great network of nerves which are to a large extent ruled by Gemini, the Dancing Nerve Roads of Mercury who is ever seeking and searching to find the clue to answer his problems. As soon as the seminal generative fluid rises up the spine and sets the kundalini Fire dancing the Le Ros dance, the vagrants Nerve 'Bush' network becomes fired, bursting forth its enthusiasm, drive and inner heart fire. Moses riches to use to answer the many questions as he led the ancient Israelites. (See text on page 16, col. 1).

present as the black and white cow, being the golden light dissolving the root and stem into the kernel of the nut, for future growth. For of such states drugs and antibiotics could not cure, but only prolong the agony; for not even healing from a most competent healer could help them now, as at any other time. It was a stubborn streak that needed wisdom to bury in the species, whereby Capricorn would be raised up, that it could spit forth its wealth as a flaming torch. Reaching high up into the heavens, that its frequency of the depths could find its frequency in the unseen wealth of the heights. (See plate page 13, cols. 1 & 2)

This is where the sabbatical goat must be retrieved, that which has created orgies of untold delights, now to become the white goat, that could eventually bring forth of the lamb. The knee that now bends in humility and truth, that once stubbornly walked over everything, and cared not a jot for others. For in living life as they so willed, had emptied the car-park of its drive; yet the Rhyder valley rich with wealth, that now could become a hydro-station, driving the wealth forth into action, bringing forth the El Powers. Thereby the soul becoming electrified, with the mount bursting forth into a flaming torch.

Machpelah means Caliph, which indicates that the soul as a potentate of might, had gained power and self-aggrandisement that prevented them from inward sight. But lived life as they so wanted; therefore now were burdened with their own incestuous evils, the call ever backwards into the depths of life. They could not be made to see, but now must be as Elizabeth treading out of the dirt of life, that she could hand the child to Mary, and she carry it up to the heights. That the very power of transgression is in their own hands, and no one can now help them either way.

ONLY BY THIS WISDOM WILL THEY BE LIFTED UP, FOR THE EXPLANATION IS THE MORTUARY MEAL.

Therefore as this alone was penned, it transformed the powers that were extracted from Chester, and gave the Hydrogen Powers an opportunity of entry. Hence the stone was rolled away revealing the Christ; the Solar states to come forth, which could flood the blood with holy life, and bring the healing balm the soul was seeking. So now it was as the fisherman and the visitor, the soul who must serve, seeking to understand the depths of the situation.

FOR NOW THE LAW IS DEMANDING ITS RIGHTS, FOR AS A MAN HAS SO TAKEN, MUST HE ABIDE AND PUT IT INTO CORRECT ACTION.

Therefore it is the soul slowly buying of a wedding ring through a hire-purchase system. That they could in time embrace the marriage of Cana, by the unity of depths and heights. The cave that is redeemed through the tribe of Asher, the ever-uniting extension of Sagittarius that can bring miracles into birth, and raise up the power of Ages. The soul who will learn to fill their Vase with wine, and not the water of the lower desires. For here is the depth in every degree of the 144,000 Stalagmites locked up in the Cave of Machpelah. The four-square that ever increased, but never rose up to the heights.

They never partook of the extending point of inward acceptance of belief. They only accepted as they wanted to, or as far as it suited their purpose, consequently the mortuary meal never brought the closing hour, but swung backwards and forwards out of control, increasing in every step.

This is the tragic story of most souls, and so clearly defined by Dante; he who in deciding to take the plunge, met the lion on the way down the vale, and was amazed that it never attacked him. Never realising that by accepting the challenge, he had automatically tamed the beast.

The worst was over by the acceptance, the rest was the endurance and experience of operation to perceive the depths.

The fallacy that he could not face the power, and that all was very dangerous to men, had now been broken open and proved him a coward, and not a soul of untold courage and wisdom. But a soul who was passing through his own graveyard, created by the imbibed Elephant Powers. Powers taken from the wealth in the heights, in polarity equal to those in his depths; those that took him up so high, that demanded now, that he measured by the depths. So down he went bit by bit, until he reached the Cave, where he came to untold mysteries, manifesting through the confusion. By the aid of Virgil his higher mind,—the wealth of Neptune now highly deteriorated—he saw the glories that had once been his, in the light that he had received them. No honour, no respect, just wealth taken and treated like dung, to lie in the depths as glories forgotten, awaiting the awakening day.

Yet was not every soul a Dante! But at least Dante knew. The majority are blind, and as the El Power sweeps across them once again, although raised up, blind and blank to the situation. So it will only be the 144,000 who will make it, as foreseen by John in Revelations. With everyone declaring they were John, and they knew where the Christ resided.

Merope Leads one Home

FOR Aquarius had swept in blind, blank and conscience stricken; no mind whatsoever, with a mechanical monster driven by the bloated bosses, and a religion tall hatted high. An Age of relativity when unification was to carry the Race up-Stream. But there was no Stream, road or purpose to carry the soul along, until Merope had reached the age when she could start and trudge that road.

So she started off with only her own ancient wealth, and as she drove that road and explored its lanes and wonders, she became more and more a pauper. Man was so well fledged with desires and shekels, all arisen out of two bloody wars, they dropped their eyes from any REAL vestige of the heavens, and kept a high altar mass religion as a solving of his conscience. With priest and pope fat and pompous, quite contented with his pseudo-rights. Scientists sending missiles up to the heights, that man couldn't reach, declaring of the wondrous new worlds awaiting for one and all.

So advised them to stake their claim, and not be left out of the illusory fun, with the Spirit knocking at the door waiting to come in, tabooed or declared a complete falsity. While the astral planes, alive with souls black and bloated, were considered the papal heaven. None realising of the glorious wealth waiting to be investigated and unified. That which would carry each one over the Stream on the upward journey.

So Merope began the road with everybody in opposition, for she saw the evils of the road, and the sorrows that lay ahead. Unless man made this journey, the Race was doomed as an offshoot Fissure; a pygmy race born out of the glories of men, that had the holy Fire of the mighty Manu within their grasp. Therefore she raised the Arc completely out of their reach and prised the planes up high. Setting the El waters driving down as the Hydrogen purifier. This would force man to seek of that wealth, for it would come right to the fore, but unless he had the mind to seek of the key, he would stand there lost and numbed. For he hadn't found the way to start revolution revolving, where heights and depths are unified, but happy and content with just stealing the wealth of the gods, and driving a fast car up to the Bahama beaches.

But Merope saved the day, and it was only a matter of TIME, when one and all would be seeking for help, to feed their starved minds. Begging of just one cup of water, to ease their parched lips: for until they opened up those Stalagmite Caves, no water would be found. Yet the wealth was in their vaults, but solidified and crusted because they had chosen to live their way. Never dreaming of the time that must come, when all was diseased through famine.

THE GOLD WINGED GOAT

IT was a stubborn streak that needed wisdom to bury in the species, whereby Capricorn could be raised up that it could spit forth its wealth as a flaming torch, and . . . the sabbatical goat retrieved. (See text on page 12, col. 4).

Yet goods and chattels in abundance, religion fat, pompous and rich, the medical fraternity well lining their vaults, with the outcome of drugs and mechanical limbs. While science was completely mad, with totting up figures of millions of light years away, having no idea of what they were talking about, or how to describe the vision.

Yet all had to be balanced, for the way was set after all with the Waters turning the scale. For ere long every soul would be so salted, to beg for just one crumb and just a cup of water. Quite content to sit out in the rain, to gain just the smallest quota. For the Gods now are commanding the day, as the Scorpio Manu was born, raised up to his rightful place as the much belated Fatherhood. Yet all was but a covering to the royalty that lay underneath, that once placed into its rightful prospective, would shine with the glories of the day. For he was the wealth that man had forsaken, and goaded down into the pit; wonders and glories that when raised up, would reveal man's foolish debut.

So now with Merope still holding on, and driving that old shabby car, would the Manu be truly throned as the pope was buried in. Then man would find the water he was seeking, and drink like a parched beast; yet tamed and docile, eager to learn, and ready to toe the line. For the sick and wounded would be in abundance, and could only be healed through the unifying of those caves with the heights. Therefore would have to be lowered down through the roof on a raft, and ropes borrowed and supplied. With a Judas crying at the gates, forbidden the right of entry.

For some time it is going to be a rough passage for man and his wife; so as soon as he knuckles down to partaking of sorrow and wisdom, will he cleanse his wounds, heal his sores, and transport Saturn into Neptune. Then the glories and the wonders of the heavens will truly be revealed, displaying their glorious message. For man hasn't started yet to bring forth of the wonders of his inner Fire; when he does, he will be amazed, at the secret he holds within him.

For what has yet to be transposed from one period into another, then to come forth as the wealth of the mind, is the mystery that lies ahead. This is the work of the Waters that no man can possibly avoid, but while he does not rebel, will they prove his greatest friend. This is the greatest secret that Relativity is going to reveal, and the only way to Unification, the only hopes that all men can muster to bring the El Fires into electrification.

So fight on Adonicus, all hope lies around the corner, only just a bow-shot away, ready to bring him back to his royal status. Lifting him up out of the stoned state, that religion had drawn him down into. Holding him like a fish in a net, with no hope of escape.

THEREFORE WITH THEIR CONCRETE BROKEN UP, AND THEIR TENTACLES SEVERED AWAY, MAN STANDS EVERY CHANCE OF FINDING THE ROAD BACK HOME TO THE GLORIOUS HEIGHTS.

THE MAGIC CUP

OUT from the bowels of the deep comes forth the vermin and twisted states of the souls roots, that which fester and rot until the glories that could have come forth as a mind Light radiating with Awakened Super Perceptivity, end in becoming the degenerated blood species that find no mortuary meal to imbibed its problems by trial and error. The willingness now to obey the wisdom to blend in that taken. So such a soul must take the cup and fight to find that consciousness, which will enable it to answer the Law's demands . . . "for as a man has so taken, must he abide and put into correct action." (See text on page 16, col. 1 and page 12, cols. 1 and 3).

Readers' Letters

FROM amongst the Readers Letters we have selected two in answer to Mr. Stanhope Pearce, two which provide good telling points. His main argument is that he cannot understand why the O.G. in its issues is so pre-occupied with anti-catholicism and suggests two points: one that if it is as "erroneous" as suggested, "by its very error will it wither." This is precisely what is realised by true Occultists, that catholicism WILL wither, but so unfortunately will the minds of millions who will not look outside of their narrow bigotted vision, because they are so imbued and fed by popes such as Paul whose means of mind expansion is to kiss a cold stone in a foreign land where absolutely nothing happened at the time of the Embodiment 1900 years ago. This was all show and not a vestige of truth in what he was advocating. Just a prank to try to capture publicity!

Mr. Stanhope Pearce must be prepared to accept that at the council in Rome, cardinals had openly advocated that the mass number of catholics should not think for themselves at all but follow the opinions of the churchpriests. Is it surprising to see and know of the utter mental poverty of the Irish, Spanish and Portuguese? The abysmal lives under priests that the mass of South American peasants live?

This is the SEEN result that can be daily looked upon. What about the conditions in the blood of those returning to Earth who have already been saturated mentally in previous lives, and who have already spent years in this under the same non-thinking existence? What possible excuse has the church in continuing this? A terrible evil. Yet hardly a voice is raised against it, and people like Stanhope Pearce far from fighting against such mental inertia encourages it!! Why does he not start research into the Truth from angles OUTSIDE the church so that he will be able to receive of information that is not at the moment available to him? Then he will begin to see what a VAST task it is to break down the slow vibration frequency that this church allows to pervade the whole earth, and not only still allows it but openly enforces it. Thus the minds of millions are dying back into the animal states quite literally. Mr. Stanhope Pearce has already acclaimed and praised her mind acumen and perceptivity and powers and therefore is he not prepared to accept her greater realisation. Surely he must be prepared to accept that if this is happening and it is, it is a very urgent matter indeed to combat it actively and to STOP it by all the means in her Power? This IS fully realised and hence the immense fight that had gone on and is still going on, to break down the immense hold that this church has on the world. They have such immense money yet still actively demand for more, whilst their churches never cease begging at every pillar. If Stanhope Pearce could see the image they make on the Astral belt he would get out of its clutches as quickly as humanly possible. If he does not and holds on to this utter rubbish about 'Love,' then he must take the consequences. Mrs. Puddy is absolutely right when she says that our ideas on Love are pure sentiment on the lowest of levels. For Mrs. Spearman-Cook daily and hourly has to fight the conditions of minds such as yours, that are completely under the influence of the catholics.

We welcome the comments to Stanhope Pearce's letter as it provides an opportunity to give further expression and explanation to the utter condemnation of catholicism and all its work.

What this young man fails to recognise is the full effect of the absolute command that catholicism had over the world's mind for nearly 1600 years. The power of its edicts, the utter ruthlessness of its leaders to grab personal riches, to gain political control and power, to force the less awakened to bow and scrape before them and to command them, body and soul, was a Truth and Reality far more frightening than Stanhope Pearce is being able to recognise. They ruled by fear and holding the minds of their 'flocks' from making any expansion of thought at all, in fact walled their minds in to such an extent these poor souls were utterly unaware of a world outside their line of mental reasoning.

To recognise that this is only too pathetically true, people should go to the southern part of Italy, to Ireland, to Spain and Portugal as well as the Central and Southern countries of the Americas. The mental paralysis is frightening... and the resultant poverty, utter soul penury, is utterly criminal. We are in the so-called freedom of the 20th Century and soon will be in the Twenties, but still this control over the soul life of a nation is permitted in the world. The appalling life existence, eking out a standard living whilst the priest is invariably fat, is invariably overfed, lazy and utterly devoid of any contact with any planes of light.

For this still to be openly countenanced by priests, and even encouraged so that these poor people will over breed to provide more blank obedient minds to be the dead mindless followers of catholicism, is as evil a practice as can be envisaged.

What we see taking place is nothing compared with that which happened hourly, year after year, over centuries under the devilish black shadow of the Inquisition, as a result vibrating within our bloodstream is all this evil stream, living as a part of our wealth, and yet a state of unfoldment that will be better buried in by the greater Gnosis of Occultism and mysticism, then resurrected as a calumny and vice never equalled.

They have built edifices all over Europe, churches whose very walls breath the wanton evil and corruption they have witnessed. How can such be beneficial to any modern congregation to have to sit in such pollution? To sit in Notre-Dame for instance? The very radiation that has been continuously permeating the maelstrom, the land and the minds of those around, is STILL taking place. For such iniquity, only complete RAZING to the ground and cleansing by Fire of Spirit and of Earth will ever be able to clean it up.

But that is not all. Is Stanhope Pearce aware that it is widely known in the Church that the teachings they are giving out are completely false, and that the actual Spiritual Embodiment was brought down in Rome, hence the terrible chaos of unused Neptunian Powers that created extensive sex-orgies of the worst kind. Caligula, Nero, Claudius and other emperors were among those whose sexual perversion and wantonness would shame the worst profligate.

The knowledge above is but a minute part of the evil base of a religion that is still being allowed to radiate it. How can such be justified? Is it realised that such a hold over the MIND WORLD have their false teachings, that the only possible way to let in the fresh Mind Air of the Cosmos and the Spirit, is to completely destroy the old and rebuild on a new foundation.

I CAME NOT TO SEND PEACE BUT THE SWORD.

And once their whole edifice has been put to the sword, then Universal Philosophy can be established as the New City of Freedom.

But this will never take place unless the concrete edifice is utterly smashed, and so heavily silted are men's minds with catholicism it is only by repeated attacks as in pile driving that the false will be finally expunged from not only the records of Time but from the bloodstream. Editor.

Readers' Answers

Mrs. Leah Puddy,
Walton-on-Thames, Surrey.

I too felt a sense of uneasiness whenever I read this violent attack on Roman Catholicism, feeling that God is love, and only by love should we surely demonstrate to our fellow men. Having had much experience of R. Catholic influence in my childhood days, where the fear of the devil, of perishing in Hell, and the wrath of God, had been an everyday "Drill" in our school in Austria, and where I had the opportunity of seeing behind the scenes just what does go on within this so-called religion.

I MUST AGREE WITH EVERYTHING THAT HAS BEEN WRITTEN IN THE O.G.

But still I feel that we, who follow the School at SUPH House with heart and soul, should demonstrate love and compassion above all. I thought in prayer for guidance because I too wished to answer this challenge, and this is what was given me.

LOVE as we understand it at our present level of evolution is not very far removed from sentiment. We understand by love a gentleness and even meekness in our approach to others, and we feel that to be God inspired. But LOVE (upon which Mrs. Spearman-Cook

EACH Week on every Saturday at 5.30 p.m. G.M.T. Mrs. Spearman-Cook holds her Special Mind Development Class at the School's H.Q. A special Subject is concentrated upon for about 40 minutes and then each sitter is individually helped to interpret and understand his or her findings. Any readers can join; those nearby can make application to attend each week, and those too far away can send in their names and link in each week at the time stated, their names being entered in a Special Book for this purpose. The subjects for concentration are: now vibrates) is of an impersonal nature; it does not concern itself with the personal feelings of individuals. It acts on Cause and Effect, Right and Wrong. If the wrong is so great and the forces of darkness so dense, then the forces of the Higher Powers smite to clean and clear away. Although to us sentimental mortals it seems a ruthless and indeed a venomous attack, but in the long run it will emerge as true love. It is not unlike a mother who loves her child unselfishly; she is often called upon to be harsh in order to discipline but the love is ever present.

May 28th	Elijah unto Daniel	June 25th	White Rabbit

Roman Catholicism is not merely a Group of Saints and Sinners. It is a real force accumulated over the past ages; it has taken roots deep and sinister. These powers are not easily relinquished, and only by exposing their dark ways will they lose that hold on people. We know that in time evil will destroy itself, but why must so many innocent people suffer meanwhile? Because as we also know the Roman Church likes and DOES get hold of CHILDREN. They are being moulded to become one of their kind.

Having contemplated deeply upon this subject and although in my present state of evolution, I am perhaps not yet able to feel and act in an absolute impersonal way, I do nevertheless recognise the Higher Forces at work, who use Mrs. Spearman-Cook. I respect her courage, and therefore my love and homage go out to her.

Mr. C. H. King, Essex.

I would have thought it obvious that the preoccupation of the Occult Gazette with Roman Catholicism is simply explained by the fact that now the solar year is on the upturn, all is now to be blended in in relativity, all that is negative must be transmuted into positive or destroyed. Roman Catholicism as all other states of churchianity are negative and have a deadening effect on humanity, their time is rapidly drawing to a close, they will die and be swept away. Even so, it is necessary to further their demise by any means so that the new order may prevail. It is erroneous of Mr. Stanhope Pearce to suggest that "by its very error will it wither."

A weed growing in a garden will flourish and multiply if no action is taken by the gardener. The Cosmic Gardener has taken action—positive action. "Love is the fulfilling of the Law." What love has Roman Catholicism shown to its flock or those suspect of being heretics—the rack, torture and the stake—holding down the masses in ignorance under false creed and dogma, conducting their litanies in a dead language only the priests understood. By such means living on the necks of the masses, a case of "don't do as I do, do as I tell you."

Completely cutting off the freedom of the mind, thought and action. Hindering and preventing the development of the higher minds of the people. Regarding the statement of many great thinkers joining the Church. Is he suggesting that the other great thinkers who do not join the Church are erroneous in their thought? Could it not be that those who join the Church because "they first find out that Rome is right" are erroneous in their thought having succumbed to the hypnotism of ritual and dogma, and those thinkers who did not join the Church having chosen the path of freedom.

Thus, the purpose of the "crusade" to break the bonds of Roman Catholicism, take away their power, returning this power to the Masters and opening the eyes of those who would see. The Higher Powers now having taken over and the Higher Laws now established in the lower laws, man must now seek on his own with freedom of mind investigating the esoteric wisdom, each his own priest, for the religions of the world and their priest can not avail him now.

Mrs. Spearman-Cook has no personal or hidden reason to rush into print as she is the instrument of the Masters to further the Cosmic Plan upon the earth plane, and if Mr. Stanhope Pearce studied past Occult Gazettes and the pamphlets "Papalism and Religion" and "Challenge 65" he would then have plenty to meditate upon and give him a new understanding of life. Maybe he would then be one of those "who have eyes to see."

Open Challenge Letter

Mr. G. P. Stanhope Pearce, Redland, Bristol, 6.

I do not wish for a card photograph of Mrs. Spearman-Cook as am sure the excellent magazine will serve my purpose. There is one point I find most difficult to understand. That is the pre-occupation that appears to be prevalent in all the issues of the Occult Gazette with Roman Catholicism; and the violence of the views expressed. If it is as erroneous as your paper suggests, by its very error it will wither. Love is the fulfilling of the law. Many great thinkers have joined the Church and as many stay outside. It would appear that these do not join the Church through fright—they first find out that Rome is right—else why do they join?

We all know that the Church is full of "Saints" and "Sinners" and that its history is like its members both calm and at times violent—very violent. From a psychological view point I find it interesting and think there must be some reason, hidden and personal why Mrs. Spearman-Cook appears to rush into print with a spontaneous and sparkling punch, full of jet-propelled venom. The above ideas are not written with intent to belittle in any way your "Crusade" only that to me it is hard to understand the reason. It would appear unreasonable! Maybe you can help me in this direction. Thank you for your kind thought in sending the Gazette, will let you know when it arrives. Shall look forward to hearing from any of your Bristol readers.

THE MYSTERIES OF JOB

by James Averill

THE Mysterious Book of Job, is the answer to so many of the worlds problems, the footprints that must be made across the hearth of Cinderella, to make her rise up unto the Point of Solarisation and Unification. For here in the days of Relativity comes the meeting of Job, he who was ever falling short and becoming afflicted. He came from the land of Uz, the shifting sands of a selfish land (soul), that impregnated into the Cosmic unfoldment this failure of establishment. The beginning of the Pisces 12th house divisions into multiple ways, that left so great a mark on man that it is now a major issue to the race, the loss of the Spirit Voice and the failure to place anything of the Word into operation; ever the shifting sands of Uz.

In the unfoldment of the Cosmic Message of the Fire and the Fall, it gave of how the 12 Gods came to be established by Jacob, and how in the taking of the EL Fires, Joseph the spirit was cast down the pit in frequency of thought and idea, and thus the Race was without the Spirit to guide them, and make them obey the greater wisdom.

It was then that Job was born into the race, the Job state of affliction, an impregnation flooding the whole world with such force, that it affected all touched. Job being without the Voice and direction of Spirit (the Neptunian Waters of Spiritual Rebirth). As the son of Issachar, the Virgo house, polarity to the Pisces 12th, instead of rising upwards in knowledge gained to build the Arc from the 9th to the 12th, he was held too much by his Edomic passions, and though his experiences were full and rich, they had no strength of fight and Arian warriorship to ride forth as a quoit, and cast his print for all to see.

Thus all the footwork of faith and belief, in creating an establishment in what he believed, never fruited and he was left in the 12th house multiplicity, imprisoned by his own vision and voice as well as his secret thoughts.

In the interpretation of Chapter 1, it can be seen of how all his wealth was rich (vv. 2-3), and though his mind ideas, (7,000 sheep) were embracing enough to spread through his whole sensory field, (500 oxen and 500 asses), they had yet to become fired in determination, drive, and enthusiasm, so as to expand into new fields. Instead they just feasted in their own houses and never got expansive in ideas, ... never going beyond the knowledge they knew, mere feeding and breeding inside the mind, until slowly vermin life would spew forth in incestuous states of inbirth.

His three thousand camels (vv. 17) were the moving light awakening the fulness of the Spirit, that "eggs" along, producing new ideas out of the deserts, a new oasis to awaken the stagnant depths. The 500 oxen and asses were the wealth of Taurus and Scorpio, held by the 5 senses, the intercalary action of the spine. Scorpio rules the generative powers and Taurus the neck chakra, the cervical, whose inter-action raises up the Kundalini power to feed the Pituitary and bring forth the flash of perceptory awareness.

The feasting of his 'sons' was the state of inversion, the selfishness as his mind sucked in all the knowledge he could get hold of, the fire 'burning into him' as the Element Energy. But not expanding his mind thoughts.

With greater sense of awareness it can be seen how Job not only represented man the individual but also the Cosmic unfoldment via the inflowing of the Elements in the Breath, and meeting the resistance of Saturn to its fulfillment of purpose. Here can be seen of the imprint into the Earth of how one being commenced to steal the findings and activities of another, one who has laboured to produce over countless ages, but has never placed his foot mark upon the sands of time. Like the Carpenter, after eating up all the oysters of another, he now has to, 'shed many a bitter tear.' The Walrus who instead of building truth, is walling himself in with many false states of mind wisdom, the barriers to further mind movement, the erroneous twisted ideas of a 12th house, that act as a barrier to further movement, until they have been resolved and buried in, and the wall broken down, their combination lock mastered.

THE FIRES OF GOD

Edge of the Sword

HOW does Job the Afflicted soul of the 20th Century, with 12th house planets galore and 8th house to the boot, How does he resolve it all?

Is it not going to be like Job of old, who had to meet Satan, the Adversary, for to every pronouncement of what should be done, so is there the opposition, that which has got to be placed into operation.

Satan therefore was asked "Whence comest thou?"

replying,

"From going to and fro, in the earth, and..."

The constant thousand-and-one challenging tasks that daily become our adversary or tester to see if we still remain balanced, forcing us to keep the fires of aspiration and enthusiasm ever burning bright, forcing movement in every direction to find the right answer...

"From walking up and down in it..."

The walking up and down is the activation of the heights and depths, as the soul tries to activate or keep active the two vagrant nerves, ever trying to find the answer to every problem he sees on his journey of investigation, to test as to whether the soul has the right answers in all he does. And that is why in v. 10 Satan challenges God, his own Light of Awareness born from the incoming Breath, and states,

"Hast thou not made an hedge about him, and about his house and about all that he hath on every side?"

... meaning has not GOD OR Job's state of supreme heart Purpose, and mind intent, his conception and expanse of mind, have they not fallen short of the real Truth, and resulted only in becoming a barrier to unification and At-onement? So the only way to test it all was to find out the Truth.

So that is exactly what happened.

In vv. 13 to 20 Job and all his fruitful ideas and so called wisdom that he was so keen to keep on pronouncing, all now had to be met and tested to prove one way or another whether he had been truly honouring all that he had declared. In v. 15 the Sabaeans or passionate waters rise up, well up to test whether he is able to control them or whether he was still in the animal nature, and it is proved that he was, for all fell and he was left with the

the bitter pangs of the experience.

In verse 16 the fires descended from the heights and again Job was discomfited, as was he when the Chaldeans false wisdom fell on the camels, preventing the movement of the Higher Fires burying themselves into the depths of the earth. Lastly Job had obviously taken vast Cosmic Powers and he had to safely harbour the same but when he was made to try his strength and will became swamped by them. The great Wind of the Wilderness, or the Blackness of Space.

Thus in v. 20 the afflictions within the soul had taken away all the mind strength he had built and in recognition he "shaved his head" and he turned and worshipped, or looked up unto the Heights.

In v. 21 he acknowledges part of the Greater Mysteries, of what will happen to the souls who are all born forth from the Great Mother.

Naked came I out of my mother's womb and naked shall I return there: The Lord (or Word) gave and the Lord hath taken away.

Originally the Word, the wisdom given unto Man, the riches of his mind, but as he perceived it in greater clarity so he must place into operation. Thus it will cease to only be of his mind and become the inner establishment of his being as the son born out of the God-Fire, radiating as the planes of the Central Sun.

STALAGMITES

The Wealth Locked Up in the Cave of MACHPELAH

by Gladys I. Spearman-Cook *

*This lecture was delivered at the S.U.D.H. on 20th March, 1966, through Gladys J. Spearman-Cook especially directed by the Lord Maitreya, the Lord of the Flame of the Central Sun, the unified Spiritual Wealth of the Cosmic Hierarchies.

WE NOW COME TO A MYSTERY, THAT TO MOST IS UTTERLY incredible, yet a truth that is blatant and bare, for it openly portrays of the 400,000 stalagmites locked up in the Void of Machpelah. That which is the Elephant grave-yard taken by the soul, over the many Ages; yet the very sensitivity to the fourth dimension, once it is captured and brought to light. By this we come to the mystery of the marrow of the leg bones, that which holds the ancient drips of past Ages; that which only turned into a Stalagmite state in the mysterious Cave of rebirth. One of the many mysteries of the Ages, that man only places as one of his many illusory scientific beliefs. What man finds so difficult to comprehend, and of which some are even wrongly refuting, is the fact of incarnation and the state of continuity. For by so doing, are not only preventing themselves, but also others, from bringing rebirth to these ancient states. Hence they come forth as ulcerated legs, setting up festering states of evil, often being amputated, stripping the soul of their wealth, leaving them bare and blind. The losing of the womb through the putrefied seed, yet the organ necessary to generate the hormone sent forth, to generate knowledge into wisdom.

Yet it is of this mighty depth we now will enquire, for it touches numerous states of the present. That of the Moabites that have never been redeemed, and are growing daily in the depths. States that have their repercussion in the mind of the soul, and when not redeemed by wisdom coming forth as a mortuary meal, conditions that never change their status. Hence remain in the Cave as they entered in, and became stalagmites of an enormous size and portence. Such wealth as is seen in the caves of Wooky Hole and Cheddar Gorge, that held the ancient cavemen of the past; but mysterious history as long as one's arm, that would amaze the student enquiring.

Yet the inference of one to the other is the fact that what is in man is in the Earth, and in the Cosmos also. For man creates and brings to life as the Law of Rebirth, for by giving rebirth to himself and gathering up wisdom, does the soul repair his life and redeem his ancient folly.

These are the mysteries which man refuses to accept, hence is ever committing crime and sorrow, destroying the wealth of the gods, and bringing the soul down to becoming an automaton. Taking away their royal birth, and leaving them as mere animal skeletons. While they remain as creatures devoid of wealth once partaken, and the ancient garment of the soul. For man is a living epitome of the depths of TIME that have never been retrieved; that shown in the starry chart, started long ago. That which comes forth through the mind as states un-redeemed, the drip from the heights to the depths. That which requires wisdom deep as a mortuary meal to transform their long lost wealth. Times when the soul devoured of raw animal meat, blood and bones as well; thus now as tissues and species in the bones, that are sailing forth daily into sight. Even became the lubricant to the joints, but also some disfigurement in the chart. The squaring of the malefics (Mars and Saturn) that causes the soul to be thoroughly impeded, which cannot be righted, unless deeply interpenetrated by wealth equal in relativity to their own ancient depth.

So it can only be by the Mysteries that such can be redeemed, and bring the soul back to health and balance; by the mortuary meal burying in the dead, and becoming as the wealth of the soul. (See plate above)

This was the wisdom inferred by Abraham when he bought the field of Ephron. An ancient state of his own ancestors, who laid the foundation of the evil to come forth at a later date. For Abraham was of the Moabite Race who dealt in the traffic of men; they who set the sodomitical seeds, now coming forth as ulcerated legs.

What was once the glorious Garden of Eden, was now only the field of Ephron, a state of dust and dung; that which was bought from the son of Zohar, he of mighty wisdom. That which held of 400 shekels of luna light which was awaiting the transformation into the Solar. The Void, the Cup or Vase of the soul, waiting to be filled with wine. Instead was turned into a field of dust, which held a cave for the burial of the dead, with a tree standing by growing leaves and branches through the TIME of Ages. (See plate page 13, cols. 1 & 2)

But when Jacob brought the where-with-all in the twelve sons, whereby the soul could begin to start the road of recovery, the Race Elect that went forth only caused Moses untold difficulty and jugglery. (See plate page 12, cols. 4 & 5) Thus all became as an incestuous state as worldliness blinded the soul; hence as Moses went forth into the wilderness and tried to raise them up onto a greater plane of understanding, the power he brought down caused them to become turbulent and wild. Whereby new laws had to be enacted, one of the most important being, of what sort of flesh they should eat; and certainly not of raw flesh, or the drinking of animal blood.

The Twelfth House

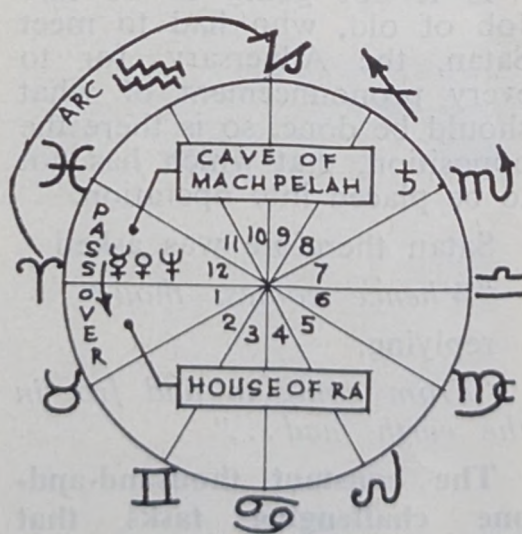

FOR the species and evils that are now in the bones of the soul in relativity, are the Stalagmites that have gathered by the dripping of the Water from the heights, through all the Ages.

States of wealth that have to be broken down in the Cave of Machpelah, the 12th house of the soul, redeemed and given their real status of life, to be the wealth entered into the mind unfoldment of the 1st house, the house of Ra or Aries. But also where the (See plate above) Cycle of revolution is taking place, whereby man must now review all on a revolved attitude of acceptance. Thereby extract its mighty wealth, as the antidote to the present problems. For all in the legs, as the calves, ankles and feet, which you tread into the earth, is the Arc of the soul that Noah rose up in his mind, and drove forward as a purpose. But he could only poise his Arc on mount Ararat, that of the verminous states of his earth.

(See the diagram in col. 3)

Yet all the mighty wealth is down in the legs, which is the extension of the soul, for once the soul, as a soul state, was only as a globule with no power of action. By the soul growing arms and legs, he acquired power of motivation, then when fired that he could go forth, created in the moving states, desire, that carried the fire down into the depths.

This was man's burden that placed him onto a cross, which the Gods have been seeking ever since to redeem and bring back up to the heights. For this is the root of all that is the curse of the present Race, yet the wealth, once redeemed, that can bring untold wonders into birth. For this is nothing more than the bristling boar

..“TILL THE GROUND & SUBDUE IT..”

IN this, Mystic and Occult Wisdom explains in detail that to be understood. WOMAN, as Mother Earth, is ever that which has to be kneaded, moulded, fashioned and spun so that the imprint is impregnated and seeded into the great VOID of Space. The Action of the Fire ever bringing forth greater riches milking the Udders of Hathor, the Universal Mother. Seen within Man as his Fire bringing forth the Doves of Spirit high in his Meninges, whilst his 7 Natures are being reborn to be united within his expansive Mind (hat). The Action of Pisces and Virgo as the passover is being made and the mind becomes Positive and awakened causing vast expansion of Mind Light embracing the fullness of Wisdom gained. "...the mortuary meal burying in the dead", (see text in col. 1). States of wealth that have to be broken down in the Cave of Machpelah, the 12th house, ...to be the wealth entered into mind unfoldment of the 1st house" ... (see text in col. 2) ...The Law demands ...“as a man has so taken, must he abide and put into correct action”. (See text on page 12, col. 5).

that Meleager as Aries ran after, seeking the pleasures of the Martian desire, instead of driving the bull in the plow. That which Diana captured and brought back dead to Juno. For there in its very depths lies the wealth of Althea, his once gifted mother. The ancient wealth of a great queen, who as soon as she knew what he was doing with the wealth given her by the gods, she threw the brand into the fire. Thus forcing Meleager into action, by placing him into captivity; yet all the wealth and stalagmites in that cave, which man has now to break down.

Here again we find another impediment, man cannot believe that what is of the earth, is a part of his own physical creation. He is the prototype of Mother Earth; they have both grown up together. As he so gave to her, so she became, but he could not but give her of what he was, and so they grew up together. He lived in those caves and started off the reaction, and added it unto his own growth; yet as of the earth, so of the Maelstrom, which man in his illusion believes it to be a heavenly creation of worlds. A state of mass and density as unto his own status of being, and of which he seeks to conquer to extend his own personal being. But he fails to think any further than his figures, which he juggles with gallantly on screeds of paper.

Yet if he gave it thought in the right direction, and remembered that all that came unto the depths, was a state issuing out of an unfolding nebula, he would perceive that solidity, mass and density was stationed at the base. Hence it is impossible according to the Laws of Gravity, to have mass and density up in the centre of the unfolding Causes.

The Evil of Chester

BUT man all through the Ages has been sliding down the scale of reality, falling more and more into the pit of illusion, a state of blinding worldliness. Causing cesspits to be embedded all over the Earth, bringing Mother Earth down to a Harlot, building up within himself states of decaying life. When Chester was invaded with the wealth of the Occult Gazette, it stirred up waters of the foulest. Powers that had been gathered which were of the darkest hue, and had to be transmuted into light. Riddled with evil, blood and witchcraft,
