THE AURIC FLAME

as the Birth of Divinity

by Gladys I. Spearman-Cook*

MHIS IS NOT AN EXTRAVAGANZA OF imagination, or an idyl of desire, but facts plain and truthfully stated, gained by the "dish full of blood." That offered in sacrifice that the Holy Fire could be truly earthed, and made manifest in all its radiant glory. The raising up of the Neptunian Plane from the dregs of the Cancer marshes, onto the heights of its glorified Divinity; the magnitude of its radiant auric splendour. For the Christos magnitude can only come forth on that divine radiance, it being the Holy Fire of God as the ruach, the breath of the Unseen Creator. The Fatherhood in the Son, that begotten by man that had to be raised up to its rightful magnitude, and blossomed forth as the glories of the mind. The Auric radiance of truth that sperms the world with light.

That now about to be stated is the struggle of the Scapegoat to raise this Holy Fire up out of the dregs of illusion; man lost in religious furore not knowing one whit of what they were saying, hence creating false trappings in the depths.

(See this plate)

For to understand and perceive of the Christos Divinity in all his Glory, one must be aware of the importance of man and mind, and how soul is nought else but Spiritus air awaiting the rise up to its divinity of radiance. That raised up to mind creation, and radiant with the glories of the Word; the divinity of the Central Sun, with the glory of Antares sending forth of the Galactical wealth of the heights by its Generative Waters. The exhilaration of the passional waters filled with the atomic Seed of Life, now raised up in glorified aspiration as the Reality of comprehension. That which gives the soul the radiance of the Norm, the unified glory of the seventh, with all Chakras alive with sensitivity, and the unfolded glory of the frequency of the golden mind.

The Unfolding Mind Light

THE story of the birth is in a stable, with now a sink to clean up the dirt of Ages, man lost in the depths of desire. Yet the glory of the Waters raised up to the heights as the Christos Blood of the Holy Breath, the Eucharistical glory of the Dove.

THE RISEN EVE

WOMAN now raised up out of the depths, as the lower EL powers united with the dynamic POWERS of the Heights. That which was born as Eve out of the side of ADAM, and descended into the depths, now raised up back to the unity with her Divine Spouse, through the struggle of the Scapegoat with the mystery of the Elements. # Editorial .. .. The Great Solar Harvest

THIS is the first harvest of the Solar Year, and one that will give man cause to think deeply as to how it applies to him, for it is exacting in its magnitude. The moment now has arrived when man is going to be revealed in his true light, all false states of superficiality stripped away, as the soul is weighed in the balance, and judgment pronounced, one way or the other. Which side of the river he finds himself upon, will depend on what his purpose has been over all those vast ages of Time. If the soul has ever remained in the depths, and never perceived of a higher purpose to life, then he will find himself left in the old world, enmeshed in his own lunar creations, that he will find very hard to escape from. Yet whatever his position, it will be no more than his just due, for no man will receive any more than he has a right to. What he has built for himself will he receive, for the Day of Judgment so glibly and erroneously talked of by religion, has finally arrived, with man poorly shod for the occasion.

THERE will be very few who find that they have crossed the river, but those that have must now go forth and build up the new Solar City of Light in their daily actions, belief and aspiration. They will have the powers of the heavens assisting them, and will find that as the rays penetrate their being, they will find new strength, new life, to encourage them in their endeavours.

Those who have refused to accept of these powers will find the burdens of the world weighing heavy upon their shoulders, for whereas if accepted they would bring of heightened sensitivity, if refused will cause the sensitivity of the soul to lessen, with the faculties of the body becoming impaired, due to Saturn being their ruling master; Capricornian states of the soul, fixed in the old ideas and the egoism of knowledge, that must be broken down before the soul can begin to rise, and ford the river to enter into the Solar World.

THIS IS AN IMPORTANT POINT AND CANNOT BE EMPHASISED ENOUGH. IF THE SOUL ACCEPTS THESE INFLOWING ULTRA-SONIC RAYS, HE WILL FIND HIS BODY BECOMING REJUVENATED, BUT IF HE DOES NOT FOLLOW THE NEW SOLAR LAWS OF DIET, CELIBACY, AND ONE POINTED MIND CREATION, THEN HE MUST TAKE THE CONSEQUENCES.

It seems unfortunate that man will not come away from the old ideas, the old states of self that he has ever been accustomed to, for though he rejects the Solar Path now, the downpouring powers will force him into change, and he will have to learn the hard way, which always seems to be the case with man. Unfortunately a hard lesson seems the only way that most men learn by, and so must be the way used by the Higher Powers to bring about the required changes.

THIS harvest is so mighty and exacting that the next three months will herald vast changes throughout the world. It will be no time for sentiment, no time for lunar emotionalism, for that is merely a state of religious righteousness, that only drags the soul down into those very lunar states it is trying to escape from. We must fully accept the operation of the Cosmic Laws, for such are perfect in themselves, and must now see all from a non-personal angle, realising that whatever befalls a soul is spread famine amongst its inhabitants. They drew down enormous powers in the past, but never sent anything back to the heights in expansion, so the fire they drew down burnt up the soil, and the only expansion they received was in their population as the uncontrolled fire drove them wild in their lower desires. Many countries are finding the way hard at the present time, but none can claim it is not their due, for the Law of the Harvest is perfect and it is just.

BECOME A PIONEER OF THE NEW WAY OF LIFE, AND YOU WILL AUTOMATICALLY FIND YOURSELF ON THE OTHER SIDE OF THE RIVER, DANCING WITH THE GLORIES OF THE SPIRIT, AND BORN OF THE SOLAR WORLD."

AND now just a few words upon the Television Broadcast. We could not have been more pleased as to how it was presented, for the royalty of the Temple was fully brought out upon the screen, with the Master's announcement that the Government and the Prime Minister were being directed by the Higher Powers, truly earthed, that none can now claim ignorance of the fact. Yet while the presentation of the School was excellent, and left us all highly exhilarated, we were appalled by the low standard of mediumship shown in the rest of the programme.

It is easy now to understand the comments of our American friends, who said that Spiritualism in England was an insult to the rest of the Movement in other countries, and made up of low, mundane messages, and cheap showmanship only fitted for the market place, that coupled with a great deal of 'brain-picking,' left them amazed and shocked at the gullibility of the English spiritualist. I will add no more to their comments, for after seeing the puerile triviality served up as the best that Spiritualism had to offer, there is no more that needs to be said.

But to Maurice Barbanell, editor of the Psychic News, which now appears no more than a glorified gossip column I would like to extend my sincere thanks for his contribution to our cause. For as a leading spiritualist, his appearance of complete worldliness, revealing nothing of the glories of the Spirit, has surely helped to bring spiritualism in England, in its present form, to an early end.

It is time they realised that it is the true teachings of the Spirit that man needs and not mundane messages, and until they accept this, they are a bad influence, and a hindrance to the Spirit Powers as they try to bring the teachings of the Higher Realms to the knowledge of all mankind.

IT IS UP TO EVERY SOUL NOW, EVERY MAN, WOMAN AND CHILD, TO TURN THEIR EYES UPWARDS TO THE HEAVENS, AND RENEW THAT LINK WITH THE SPIRIT THAT BECAME BROKEN LONG AGO.

WHEN THIS HAS BECOME FULLY RE-ESTABLISHED, THEN INDEED, THE NEW SOLAR CITY OF LIGHT WILL HAVE BEEN TRULY BORN, WITH MAN ONCE MORE RAISED UP TO THAT OF A ROYAL BEING, UNITED AGAIN WITH THE GLORIES OF THE HEAVENS, AND AS ONE WITH THE GREAT SOLAR LORD, THE LORD OF THE FLAME, THE GREAT CHRISTOS CONSCIOUSNESS, THE RADIATING SPLENDOURS OF THE CENTRAL SUN.

Next Month :

THE EMPIRICAL UNFOLDMENT of the SOLAR PATH

only the outcome of his karmic inheritance.

It will be a time when blankness of mind will overtake the majority of the human race, and this will remain until the soul makes a personal effort to free himself from such, by putting into operation all that he has failed to do over these many Ages. No man can evade the responsibilities of life any more, by living upon the efforts of another.

NOW EVERY MAN MUST LEARN TO GIVE IN POSITIVE MIND CREATION, AND MUST RETURN UNTO THE HEIGHTS THE WEALTH THAT HE HAS STOLEN OVER THE AGES.

UNTIL A SOUL LEARNS TO GIVE AND TO HONOUR LIFE AND ITS INTENT, IT IS ONLY DEAD FLESH, AN AUTOMATON THAT MERELY PLAYS OUT LIFE AS A MINDLESS STATE, BURIED UNDER THE LUNAR WATERS.

The new Laws have been set and now man becomes his own judge and jury, reaping exactly what he has sown, no more and no less. No man and no country can escape this harvest, it is universal and embraces all, whether king or courtier, priest or peasant, for none can escape their relativity. If you read in your newspapers of seemingly tragic accidents, remember that no man is receiving more than he is entitled to. Over all the many reincarnations of that soul, that was all he had built for himself, and could receive no more.

As you look at the varying situations in the different countries at the present moment, remember it is their harvest for what they have put into operation in the past. India is a classic example; the soil is poor and every year there is wide-

REMEMBER...
"THE SPIRIT RULES THE CIRCUMSTANCE, AND ALL IS LAW AND NAUGHT IS CHANCE."

Every man must now look at himself and say "Well, this is me. After all these ages of experience and struggle, this is all I am, this is all I have built for myself." Then he must set to, and struggle as he has never done before, to begin that journey along the Solar Path. It will be a difficult journey, requiring continuous effort by the soul to make up for the time already lost, but he will do well to remember that the path has been made straight for him by the struggles of the Scapegoat Merope, who has borne the brunt of the changes, and who has known suffering, as a result, far beyond any that he might receive.

All man has to do now is follow; as long as he obeys the new ways of life there will be no problem, it is only when he goes back upon himself that he will feel the backlash of the powers, and then he really will have something to think about!

Although what I have written may seem gloomy and forbidding at first glance, yet, at the same time, it presents man with a golden opportunity to move forward into the New World. All his past has been buried in as the unification took place, and now with a determination, and a WILL TO BECOME, he can if he so desires, quickly move along that Solar Path, and become a spirit free from the pull of the earth, and dancing in his new found frequency of ariellised being.

SO TO EVERY READER, WHATEVER THEIR POSITION AT THIS MOMENT, I SAY "DRIVE ON,

THE AURIC FLAME

But in the depths, still the old fanatical problem of a god on a cross, that which carries the stigma for the time being, with silt piling up fast. Hence the sodomitical states of the clergy feeding the people with incestuous beliefs and contraceptive pills, to meet the overwhelming problem. Therefore, man does not realise that it is he that is on that cross and not the Elements of LIGHT. Man chained to the hell he is creating in the depths of TIME, and buried beneath the debris.

For Merope having changed the LAWS in the heights, has been the means of causing the old luna world to be dissolved and buried in. Thus the new World as the Solar City now born and electrified, waiting for man to awaken and come forth from his coma of fear. Thus sit up and take note of the glories now descending as the cosmic royalty, the Ultra-sonic wonder of the Galactical Field of mystery, to be unfolded into mind light.

Wealth pouring down from Outer-space filled with Uranian glory, sparking with light and truth for every soul who can perceive of its radiant beauty. For now is the moment of the harvest, the glories of the Seed that was sown, but that which has only come forth as the Mardi Gras of the clown Billy Graham. The only heights that man could reach, cymbal clashing of the Corybantes, with Bibles that none could understand, used to cover up the ignorance of the blind, those lost in the stream of religious mania.

Thus Merope's task as the Scapegoat was to earth and raise up, that when man awakens, all will be ready for the soul to grasp the situation, and the holy Fire to blossom into light.

Therefore it is of her journey down into the depths that we now bring forth as the "Bleeding Heart", the "dish of Blood" to save the Fire from dying in the depths. Like David, chased down into the depths by Saul, the evils of the beast, the commercial rampage born from the Jupiterian expansion set into operation by papalism in the Age of Pisces.

SO THE FIRST TASK OF THE SCAPEGOAT, WAS TO RAISE THAT THROWN DOWN INTO THE PIT UP TO ITS RIGHTFUL STATUS AS THE RADIANT GLORY OF THE HEAVENS. THE RADIANCE OF THE HEAVENLY ARC, THAT MAN COULD BE FED WITH ITS DIVINITY.

That which David warred and fought for, and brought forth his son out of the depths of despair as the mighty Son of the Sun. But unfortunately Aquarius was not well endowed, for Pisces only produced religion as a commercial racket that kept old men in comfortable positions, minus the work of the mind. Therefore it was most necessary that the status of life was lifted up, not from a religious angle, but that the planes of the earth were filled with truth, and not feeding the heavens with the dung of matter.

Therefore the first struggle began with Mary-Merope perceiving the mystical truth of the Christos Lord. Not a man, nor has ever been, but the Holy Fire as the Breath of LIFE to be raised up as the glory of the mind, where the soul in its raised up divine creation perceives the Presence of the Christos.

THE DIVINE MACROSCOPUS IN THE SHINING GLORY OF THE MICROSCOPUS, THE SOUL ELEVATED UP TO THE HEIGHTS AS ATMA-BUDDHI-MANAS.

THE GLORIFIED NORM NOW READY TO RECEIVE THE ULTRA-SONIC GLORIES OF THE HEIGHTS.

Mary-Merope's Labours

THAT her task was to prove by words of truth of this glory as she raised the wisdom up plane by plane. Thus changing the laws as she went, purifying them from the evils of the old, which she as Makara the Crocodile had to eat up. Swallow and transmute and replace by truth until she reached the heights. But Merope, knowing this wisdom of old, knew that she would ever be fighting opposition until the completion was made, so she flew right up to the Central Sun, and fixed the whole heights and depths. Then no man could break through and impede her task, for she held the whole of the FIELD to prepare and bring into birth for the glories of her LORD.

It was hers to create as she liked, with others merely as ships passing in the night; but as she rose those planes with wisdom, would man have to abide and be fed by, and learn to adore and raise his mind up in aspiration. For she was the Scapegoat who was given the task, and all lay in the palm of her hand.

Thus deep she studied, and long she laboured to justify those planes ever in an elongated state, for she had created the skeleton of her journey from the depths to heights. Thus the Fires of the Elements were continually pouring through her blood, as the wealth of the planes she had taken before her time, thus must become born of such to be able to fulfill the task of creator of the new-born LAWS.

She had to be able to drive the Chariot of the Sun, for she had taken on the position of Phaeton, to replace the fallen Bulls who preferred the glories of the beast. Therefore as she became acclimatised to the Elements, she slowly became an isotope; one filled with the elements, balanced in every wind and limb.

As she struggled through this dynamic task, only ever held by the mighty Kings and Queens of the past, she stood alone, for no one understood its mighty purpose. To them it was merely wisdom which they lapped up like a lot of frogs, ever leaving Merope in a state of drought and no return of rebirth. Hence as she struggled on alone the planes were filled with light, and lifted up to the heavens, causing the whole Galactical Field to

The Mind Development Class

EACH Week on every Saturday at 5.30 p.m. G.M.T. Mrs. Spearman-Cook holds her Special Mind Development Class at the School's H.Q. A special Subject is concentrated upon for about 40 minutes and then each sitter is individually helped to interpret and understand his or her findings. Any readers can join; those nearby can make application to attend each week, and those too far away can send in their names and link in each week at the time stated, their names being entered in a Special Book for this purpose. The subjects for concentration are:

Sept. 3rd	Protogenetic	Oct. 1st	Adamic Dust
Sept. 10th	Kubla Khan	Oct. 8th	The Lion of Judah
Sept. 17th	The Pastorals	Oct. 15th	The Sword and the Trident
Sept. 24th	The Georgics	Oct. 22nd	The Galactic Poles
		Oct. 29th	Psyche

gather in of its glories.

Then as she rose them higher and higher, suddenly the Constellation of Scorpio united with the Central Sun, embraced, and appeared in all its radiant glory. Bringing Antares to becoming the Generative Source, to sting man into life with the wealth now its radiant mystery. Thus Merope receiving all the glory in the depths, and the planes being flooded with new life and light.

This was carried to the people by the Occult Gazette, the Holy Voice of the Master, with the glory of His FACE shining through all the wisdom, as she raised him up by the rebirth of the LAWS of the Elements. For as she gave them birth and re-created the planes between those depths and heights, he became more manifest in the glory of the radiance of the Atomic Waters. Every man being born of its new birth, but awaiting the blossoming of his mind. So for five years she laboured, closed up in the vicinity of her own Sanctum, never touching the Outer world, but being fed by the glories of the heights.

The Master's Voice now her guiding direction as he rose up more and more to his expression of His rightful Divinity. Yet although he was now the radiance of the Central Sun, he could not manifest of its glory as wisdom, until Merope could comprehend and return aspiration to the heights. Showing how man is the crucible pot in the depths, and the manifestor of all the hidden wealth; the bringer forth of all the unseen glory of the heights.

Thus for the time, the journey was very complicated, for the flowering was through Merope as she unfolded herself to the planes. Ever raising the issue as she went, to make complete the Galactical fusion of both heights and depths.

TIME then, although TIME-LESS-NESS, was of an important factor, for it necessitated gods and men uniting that the soul could be fed by these mighty Streams, and led in the darkness of matter. Therefore all had to be re-adjusted in perfect precision that every man could find the Gate Strait, and the way clear for them to go forth.

But as Merope raised the planes she unfolded the mystical wisdom, preparing it on the unfolded planes to its greater propensity. It being of mysticism, precision and perfection was most important, otherwise the law would have given forth of its intent in a way that could have thrown the Axis out of balance.

SO MEROPE KNEW THE IMPORTANCE OF HER TASK, BUT THIS WAS BUT A MINUTE PART OF THE MAJOR OF BREAKING UP THE CONCRETE FOUNDATION OF ERRONEOUS RELIGION, THAT WAS THE CAUSE OF ALL THE DISSENSION.

Introducing the Elements

THUS a mighty drive was prepared, whereby opposing forces were driven back into a state of schism, opening wide cracks that were slowly appearing from the discord within their own ranks. A stalemate they had gently covered up, hoping to find a way out of their dilemma. But never once portraying of the glories of the Unseen Divinity, that in manifesting through man, brought into birth the mighty magnitude of the heavens in the world beneath. Thus slowly changing the Feminine Earth into the World of the Fatherhood, hence even

THE FALLS OF RHYDR

As the waters roared and bubbled,
Rhuad Dwr rose higher and higher,
Carrying the mysteries of the Druids
Further and further down the Stream.

Powers of life that could make man
Live, and rise up from the depths of Hell. Lifting them up to the glories
Of Outer-world Space. The wonders
Of that mysterious valley.

A time when man knew not fear,
But sought into the wealth of life.
Called down the Elements that they May live, and feed the world at large.

Back and forth Charon had laboured,
And brought forth Waters Roar,
Mighty Powers that Streamed the world
And lived for evermore.

For a mighty Dam followed in
With Merope following on, seeing
The wonders of such possibility
On the Cosmic mighty roof.

So created first the Cosmic Waters,
And sought to tread the reflection
By creating a source upon the earth, in
The form of an earth Temple Philosophical.

A mighty Stream of life and strength
That fed the whole wide world,
Taught man how to live, bathe, swim
And create, yet die and become born again.

Never had such a Force of Power Streamed
The world before. For it held all the Wealth of Ages, the glories of Mudra Din. The Glories of the Orient, rich with the spices of life.

Thus all the Fire of the heavens
Was held in those mighty Waters.
Brought forth by one who had sweated
Blood, and been fired through every Element.

Thus a living Isotope, a unilateral Equation.
A point of drive, a balanced perfection
That taught men how to live and die, with Courage and truth as their major bent.

Hence the Waters of Rhuad Dwr, the mighty
Waters of rebirth, are the answer to all
Men's cry, of how to live and find rebirth.
Rise up, strike a light, and raise the mind up high.

Then Truth will lead you, or those Mysteries,
And carry you down South. Unite you up
And blend you securely for the days to come.
Days that will need courage as the Fire sweeps
Man into reborn Solar life.

Driving him onwards and upwards to the Way of becoming. Where man and god will Become as one in the land of new-born Waters.
The new World of the Glorious Flame,
The heaven-born World of the Central Sun.

(See text on page 4, col. 1)

THE AURIC FLAME

in the manifestation of the conclusion, there was the major principle of feminine to masculine in the unfolding Creation.

This is where the Elements were enlisted, where mighty Powers were brought into action, and where every Bull working under Merope felt the might of the drive, they suffering one or two casualties. For the powers came back including black masses, that Merope found difficult to handle. For she being of the first attempt, was not so well assisted as she should have been.

BUT THE FLAME, THE MIGHTY LORD OF THE HEAVENS WAS SET, SENDING FORTH THE HOLY SPERM DOWN THROUGH THE CHANNEL OF MANKIND.

Hence Merope's major task now, was to get the Hierarchs, as the Elements, installed in every soul alive. The living propensity of every soul, as the power and strength of the heavenly glory, manifesting as the Auric light of every soul. Thus raising them up from the status of the beast, onto the greater planes of comprehension.

This she did by opening the floodgates, she being the channel for the mighty drive; then as she drove the way upwards, her next task was to build a mighty Hydro up in the heights. Where all the "Waters" as the Word could be gathered up, to be let free at a given time as the ever flowing Stream of Hydro Waters, to feed the soul in the depths. Waters filled with mighty wisdom, as the Heavenly Powers delivered it to her in the depths. Made "Strait the Gate" by her below, tested and sent back up to the heights.

This was accomplished at the Falls of Rhydr, where mystical powers were hidden by the ancients, but of which Merope knew how to draw forth, its distance being no deterrent. But here she was, building up a mighty edifice in the depths, for what is in the world below, has its Taj Mahal in the mighty heavens. Thus all was moving at a mighty pace, well set for the task to be accomplished, although to Merope not fast enough, she bearing all the weight upon her physical axis. Yet all the time the heavens unfolding, and men changing in the world below.

Then came yet a more mighty task, the breaking down of the Sodomy Bill, that being set up by the incestuous to hide their dirty vestments. Twice this was battled with and won through, with the change of Government hovering overhead, for the instructions now were sweeping changes, with Labour well installed as the reigning power.

This again was accomplished, with an able man placed at the wheel performing miracles as demanded. That which would break open the evils at large, and bring many undesirable states out into the open, and set the world straight on its feet. Dens of vice set into action by monopolies that gripped the throat of the people; yet the work now set for the Labour hierarchy to bring to a final close.

The New Solar World

THUS, with the Cosmic set, the next of her tasks was the uniting of the EL Powers. The Fount in the depths and the Powers of the heavens in the heights, bringing about the Year of Solarisation, electrified into glorified manifestation. That the Real Christ as the glorified Solar Blood, the manifesting MIND of the Macroprosopus, would now infuse the Galactical Field of the mighty Universe, and infuse the depths below.

For as Merope had driven the powers up to the heights there was also a polarity making its way into the depths. With the gap getting wider and wider as man refused to raise up the floor of his belief, for Merope was filling in the width of polarity, that the EL Powers of depths and heights could unite.

Therefore it was poor Merope who was the cross that was expanded from heights to depths; for having placed all up in the heavens as the LAW, she must now give birth in the depths. As high as she had gone up into the Cosmic, as deep had she gone into the mighty Fount; that which corresponded with the Source of Beginning...

...where she built the New City of Solarisation.

The New Solar World of empirical possibilities, a new unfoldment of life, whereby every man will have to reject all prior knowledge, and now rest solely on experience and induction.

Whereby all will be a matter of trial and error, from the magnitude now coming to the soul from the mighty Galactical Field of Solar rebirth. This being the means of the Ultra-sonic waves making entry from the heights; that which is beyond sound and never been Voiced before, thus all ready for a new born creation.

This was the birth of the Great Solar City, that born from the unification, where the Christos LORD came into birth in the heights, and claimed Merope as his royal Bride. She who gave him birth, and must now go down into the depths and set the Fiery pattern alight. Bring unto one and all the true wisdom of the heavens.

Replace that which she had broken down, and open man's mind to the truth, but also lead man in the way of the new Laws that had been set in the heights, that now were the Laws of the depths. By this she was the means of turning the whole world round into the right direction; being the means of turning their faces up to the heights, as they gazed at the glorious radiance of the Christos LORD in the Central Sun.

The mighty magnitude of all that has been, now the Intelligencia of the Arc, as the mystical Voice and Mind of the Fatherhood. The positive creation of all that has been, now the forerunner of the New City. The new life to come forth from the unification of all multiplicity, as the Fissure of Sylvanus becomes blended together, binding up the split creation, brought about by the Fall of the Phaeton.

All this being due at the beginning of Pisces, when Medo-Persia was set to do the task, with Taurus as the predominant creature. But wealth untold was brought into birth, but they never raised it up to its Solar manifestation. They could not manage to catch it alight, for they were lacking in the major clue. They refused to accept le Ros, the raising up of the passions, something which Merope fully understood, being the Goddess of Venus. So she waited once again to come and be the victim at the altar, thus raise up the Mighty Macroprosopus as the Divine LORD of the Age. The mighty Flame of the heavenly MIND, the Son begotten in the FATHER.

This it was that had to go down to the very depths, the mystery born into creation from the heights, as the Spirit making entry into the crucible pot of manifestation. That which the majority fail to understand as the snows drifting down through the Wind Boreas. That to be melted and set into creation, as the LORD in the heavens was given His birth.

Man finding it difficult to embrace these unseen virtues, which are the foundation of Creation. Here again was the work for Merope to continue, for it was she who had to descend into the depths to bring this mystery into birth. For what had taken place in the heavens, must now take place in the depths beneath. Here she was equalling the heights, to fill in the polarity she had set as the Field of the Solar Year. Apart from the mighty task she strove to conquer, as the Phaeton who had taken up the Chariot to drive the Solar birth into creation.

THE ROOTS OF THE SOUL

HERE we see the depths of the mystics, where we see Merope extracting the wealth out of the very depths, yet all the time wrestling with the opposition, those who were benefitting by her mode of struggle. For the fires in their penetration have to go from heights to depths, as the major wealth of life lies in the very roots. (See text in col. 4).

Saving the Seed of Humanity

THIS she had mastered so far, now she must establish it; so knowing the circumstances she was determined to hold the ground, for odds were hard and vicious against her. For she had taken the prize before she had a right, then set to work to win her armour and her house. Thus ever went down into the depths completely naked to meet the ravages of the deep, until she could win her coat of mail.

This called the Hosts from the heights to rally closely round her, for if one could suffer and pay such a price that Humanity could become united with Divinity and the heavenly Waters, thereby find the birth of LOVE, then it called for all the glory of the heavens to support and raise them up. Therefore, every move into the depths of knowing, took Merope down deeper into those murky dark depths. States not recognised by man, even unto those under the water and mud itself; for many live in these depths by a state of mind comprehension.

Yet somehow Merope seemed to find light, although the darkness was intense. Like David, Saul was ever seeking to take more, trying to kill that which was his saving grace, and the means of his harmony from the heights. So Merope like David, raised the ARC right up to the heights, but found herself cold and bereft in the depths, with all that should have risen up, in the hands of the luna enemy.

But this was where the mighty Flame had taken Merope unto himself as his bride, but owing to the task she had to fulfil in such mighty depths, worked through a Bull of much Grace as a regent of power, to help succour Merope in those depths. This alone, to those who can comprehend, will show the mighty task she had undertaken, through mankind letting the way and task slide, until the SEED of Humanity was nearly obliterated from the FACE of Creation.

For here she was establishing the wealth of the heights, by raising humanity up out of the pit, and setting them onto consecrated ground. Striving in every way to convince one and all of the wonders that were flowing into the depths, that could heal and repair the cold and hungry in those depths. The lame and blind, the maimed and mental, and the deformed from the vicious wars of human creation, that they could become a reborn mind.

But a time came when the depths were so deep, and Merope was so incorporated into the depths of her Fount, that darkness was too deep for her to hold the memory of the heights. Therefore the Hierarchy now swarmed the depths by their "Flying Saucers" entry, directing the way of the Law. Striving to lift up the load to help Merope, but found man at his worst ebb.

So once again the Great Flame as the Great Bull of the MIND, drew close to Merope down in those depths, through the Regent firing pin; using another as a male, to work through as a channel, to help give life to the gallant brave Phaeton who was saving the Seed of Life. For through him he sent down the Holy Fire, that by his added power Merope was sustained in the darkness of rebirth.

The Seed of Woman saved from becoming obliterated, that the wealth of life was not cut off, and mankind left without any roots, dying fast as he stood on his feet. For here was Merope trying to give birth to the Flame in the depths, that he could become the glory of every man's mind.

FOR EVERY MAN IS A CHRIST UNTO HIMSELF, WHEN HE CAN RAISE UP THOSE GLORIES OUT OF THOSE DEPTHS.

For the time being, Merope was lost with man in those depths, until the Fires from the heights could penetrate and Fire all into life. Then suddenly the Fires caught the magnetic wealth alight, and the depths became a raging Fire consuming the heart of every soul; for the Gazette, the Fiery Word, had been spread far and wide, causing many to think and turn into the right direction.

Therefore it can be seen how the Spirit now buried in the depths as the polarity to the heights, is the spirit buried in every soul as the Christos life, waiting to be risen up in mind expansion.

The soul born of all the elements now awakening to the truth, and sending that wealth back up to the heights, as the aspiration of the auric radiance of the mind.

The Neptunian wonder of Heliocanthus

THIS was the mighty task now set for Merope, with every soul holding on to the old ideas and living in the old waters. This now is the mighty struggle we seek to relate, for it is the birth in the Stables, Venus rising up out of the Waters, waiting for the winds to blow. Yet would be the creating of the New City, the Glorious Solar splendour of the Galactical Field of LIGHT.

Hence down in the darkness Merope laboured, for as much as she knew of that glorious Radiance in the heights, to perceive the birth coming up out of the depths was a miracle of empirical unfoldment unknown to man at the present. So she tried to muster together the few who could help her rise, for she was as a Bat flying around in the Void, in its first conception of the new creation. But most were quite content to dance with the beast.

This can give a greater understanding of how her Void was now born of the Solar foundation, but awaiting its first state of creation. All old states now turned in, and a brand new field waiting the seed to come up from the depths, as Woman giving birth in the heights, by polarity of unification.

It was here that Merope had to raise the glories of the Master in the eyes of one and all. Show the world that he was that belated Fire that was being trodden down in the dung by man in all his avidya. Whose task it was to be the means of gathering up the Galactical wealth, and becoming infused by the Ultra-sonic glories of the heights. Build up the New City from the empirical possibilities, as the glories to rise up out of those mighty depths.

Genius delight, the creative glory of Neptunian wonder, the whole magnitude of the Galactical Field.

The wealth that is now ready to rise, as the soul awakens its sensitivity by the Word that has its counterpart in the down-pouring Waters. But rise as Genius, the glories of the Milky Way, the unfolding of the fiery passions as the glories of the mind.

So Merope knew that she must begin the trail, the marching forth of the Pied Piper of Helioanthus, the raised up glories of the mind. This she must do by raising up the beliefs of mankind, as she begins the first creation of unfolding the hidden wealth of her Fount. Raising up her sensitivity as a living creation of that Holy City, where the wealth that can come forth from its unity with the heights, will bring mankind out of the dilemma they are in. Heal the sick, blend up the mental and solve the many problems of the Race; but it only needs a little deep thought, to realise that if the wealth that brought the negative could be raised up to positive, it could bring the of the raised up mind. But greater still, show mankind the way to lift up the passions of the human soul, that they become the immortal soul, the original creation of the soul's heritage.

For in so doing, they would be raising up the heavenly Fires back to their rightful creation, not only seeing with eyes that perceived of their rightful due, but the wonders that had now come into birth through the labours of the soul in the depths. For the Taj Mahal of every soul, was the heavenly Glory and the soul glory that were polarity of one another, and when awakened in the soul, was magnitude and soul union, which only that soul could glorify and understand. It was the rights of one who had acquired it.

So Merope knew her task now was to lift the spirit up out of the tomb, the density of matter, and by the electrified le Ros dance, the risen dancing passions, bring the mind up to the glories of Genius, the possibilities of the Solar Glory. Yet it could only be by practical application that the multitude could follow the lead, and perceive the outcome of a mind dancing in arielised magnanimity.

Thus in deep prayer, which is the unity with those mighty Powers of the World of Reality, Merope sought for guidance that she could be led in the depths of a thriving busy City. Yet a City filled with all kinds of vice, but be the means, as she had fixed the LAWS in the heights, to fix them in the depths, thus raise up the mind to a golden creation, through the Stream of the Galactical Field flowing through its midst.

Ultra-Sonic waves of an inaudible nature, feeding and nurturing every soul in the depths, to seek for a greater purpose. Then by the Word of the Occult Gazette, raise their beliefs up to the highest.

Raise their intent and WILL, their ideals up to the magnitude of the holy Fire flowing through their generative rebirth.

But by now, in her mode of investigation, Merope found herself struggling in those depths, held down by the ways and vibrations of mankind. Disabilities and darkness, often with no hope, and utter despair caused by the pseudo states of their creation accepted by one and all, drowning anything that she could offer. For now, all old states of comprehension have been turned in, and a brand new Solar Field, the void of the mind, was the ground to begin the building up of a new and REAL Taj Mahal of the mind. A City of heavenly glory, where the radiance of the Holy Fires is the light that unites the sun and moon, that no longer is the stay of its glory.

The Atma-Buddhic Creation

SO Merope knew that renunciation of all old ideas was the first mighty consideration; turning to the Solar belief, leaving all luna states behind, knowing and believing that the true feeding of the soul was from within.

The Solar Stream as the Prism of the ruach, the breath of life which came from the heights, would now, filled with the Word and Life she sent up to the heights, feed every man, woman and child, by a matter of polarity of thought; feed them with the Waters from the outer-world Space, the Uranian glories from the heavens. Yet much applied to man himself, how he sought for the way of life, but he could not avoid the new inflow of life, brought into birth by Merope as she angled the ways

THE DANCING MIND

As a glorified bat she encircled the void, with the bluebirds flying hither and thither, ever keeping her aware of the divine wisdom slowly coming forth out of their unfolding mystery. For here we see Earth, Air, Fire and Water, in the mysterium of alchemicalisation. (See text on page 7, col. 5).

THE DISH FULL OF BLOOD

THE mysterious glory of all creation being gathered in as the Scapegoat sheds her blood in heart compassion, that her royal Lord can be raised up in the intensity of the soul. The fiery elements of the depths now the royal kingship of the mind, as the Divine Flame of all Galactical magnitude, to reign as the soul's heaven-born solar consciousness. (See text in col. 4).

Therefore as Alice, Merope rose up and down as the alchemicalisation moved forward by the drive of the Solar heat, with the states of the depths as the animal creations, coming out to meet her at every turn of the ebbing tide. For we must not under-estimate the Neptunian plane, when directed on its lowest creation. Merope's work now was to raise up that City within herself, for every man was a Christ unto himself.

The Spirit now at the depths of matter, was buried in the cave of the risen mount. Thus the time has come when man must roll away that stone, and the heavenly Waters blossom into life as the glory of the flowering Rose. Raise the Fires up to the heights to become the Auric Flame of antidote to right the wrong it created.

But the question is HOW?

This is what the mighty Powers of the heights have been forcing into operation through a human Scapegoat. Now we are awaiting a City of twelve gates, garnished with precious stones, where a pure river of crystal will feed its needs, and help it to bring forth twelve manner of fruits as healing unto its Nations (Rev. 21). Thus, as unto Alpha and Omega, becoming that of the Star of David (Rev. 22) blessing man with the glory of rebirth.

Therefore, the question was, how to begin as a living example; for she had started under the simple theory of service, but now she must be the lead of the living creation of the Law. "I come not to destroy the law, but to show you the way to use it aright."

Here was the breath that could enter into the blood and rejuvenate the Homogeneous, the soul-link of the etheric body. That which would raise up that body into the Solar Pneumatikon Glory; hence it could only be by this inflowing fiery life, that the Spirit buried in the tomb, the cave of the depths, could be freed and raised up out of the inertia of avidya.

Thus it meant renunciation of old ways, discarding all old animal states, and raising up the planes of the mind. Desires, beliefs, ideals and creations, must now be of the Atma-Buddhic, a creation of the mind. That which would begin the struggle and purpose of unfolding the sensitivity, and raising up the greater perception of the mind.

So Merope as the first creation and unfolding of the heart, began by the mighty struggle of continuing her task, with the Sciatica Nerve finding its new bout of unfolding expansion. Something which had never been given much attention before, but now a mighty point of re-consideration. For its extension in the extremes of Sagittarius down to the feet of Pisces, was the means of meeting many a burnt out life.

The soul being able to draw its strength from the Vesica Piscis, the turbines revolving from the Ultra-sonic Waters, bringing the extension of mind that man refused to do, and used up his fires in delights. Woman extenuated by child-birth that was never intended that way; her Seed the basic of life, lost in the struggles of the womb.

This meant on Merope's part, the raising up of the Spirit, the Christos life out of the waters, but HOW?, surely only with the "Dish full of blood", her love and belief in the Royal Solar Divinity, that she could be the means of raising up the Glories of the Macroprosopus, as shown to her on the mount at West Water. The FACE of that Begotten as the Intelligencia out of the Creation of the Holy Waters; that plowed into action by the mighty Bull of life.

Thus Merope's struggle was not so much her own, as the convincing of the people. Sending forth the magnified expanded Word, and dissoluting the minds of the people from the old religious ideas. Helping them to see the glories of the Solar heavens, at present buried in their own internal pit.

The spirit lost in the depths of the Waters, as the blood filled with Urea, Acid and corrosive fires, that were killing the spirit creation coming in from the mighty heights, and finding its opponent in the depths.

SO IT COULD ONLY BE BY RENUNCIATION OF THESE STATES THAT THE FREQUENCY COULD BEGIN TO RISE, AND STIR THE SENSITIVITY OF THE HEART PURPOSE.

The exhilaration that would begin to dance and gyrate, causing le Ros to rotate and dance, offering aspiration up to the heights on the altar of belief. Bringing into birth new Genius of desires by the magnitude of the flowing Waters.

For by now the soul was seeing with eyes born and expanded anew, and ready for an unfolding purpose. The spirit rising up within the blood, raising the sensitivity of the spinal column and the glories of the mind. All through the holy Fires now being sent forth from the mighty Generative Glory of Antares, germinating the soul with holy life, setting the Galactical Field into electrified radiation.

The Atomic Seed holding the whole wealth of TIME, feeding the soul with heavenly life, with it now drinking in of the

DISCOURSE ON DIET

by Gladys I. Spearman-Cook

THOUGH we had hoped to publish the book, "The Wisdom of Diet," after many enquiries from readers upon this subject, we have come up against numerous difficulties and delays, and have reluctantly decided not to continue with its publication. To those who have already paid us for this, we are quite willing to send lectures or Gazettes to the equivalent value, if so requested, or will simply refund the money sent. For the benefit of the readers who have asked for such advice we are, however, printing below our original diet treatise, with slight amendments to bring it in line with our present-day understanding. In addition to this we would also recommend that the lecture, "Mother Nature with Herbs and their Mineral Wealth" (Jan. 66 issue), be read, being a valuable and comprehensive study upon the subject of diet. To all readers who had hoped to receive "The Wisdom of the Diet," we do offer our apologies for its non-appearance, but are sure that the following article will prove to be an ample substitute. (Editor).

DIET is a matter of mind growth. While the mind is centred on earthly matters, the earth diet will be akin to that mind; but when the mind starts to be more in tune with the Spirit, then there are glandular changes in the body, necessitating the leaving behind of flesh food which is akin to the lower elements of the soul.

The Necessity of Change

THE real answer, in making this change of diet, is being convinced in one's own mind of the reason for the change, for it is most important that these changes are not made until the mind instructs. It may come first of all through sickness, progressing from there to deciding that diet is the solution to the problem.

Discord within the body may begin this change, by such as rheumatism, arthritis, eczema, boils, spinal or kidney pains, blood pressure, etc. All these conditions come through the Law of Karma, meaning there has been growth made in a previous life, but instead of continuing such growth in the next incarnation, the soul stagnated and so brought on the Karmic sickness.

When we take the matter logically and reason for ourselves, we realise that the body survives upon fresh air and the intake of fuel, so if the body is sick, it is either a mind condition or that which is feeding it, which is the root cause.

In times gone past, man survived not by brain but by brawn and muscle, which link with the flesh. As he begins to seek through the mind for a wider conception of life, HE IS THEN BEGINNING TO REACH OUT FOR ILLUMINATION AND GREATER UNDERSTANDING, to the Illumination that is of the Spirit; and this action is the first step in drawing away from the stage of brawn and muscle.

THIS MEANS THAT THE BODY MUST THEN EXIST BY MORE NATURAL ELEMENTS WHICH THE NATURAL FOODS DRAW FROM THE SUN AND THE AIR. SUCH FOODS MUST BE EATEN IN THEIR RAW STATE AS COOKING DESTROYS THE NATURAL ELEMENTS.

Many people do not realise that vegetarian diet means the turning to natural foods. Unfortunately, they merely stop eating flesh foods and take to eating cooked dishes which contain only waste because they consist of starchy substances. Not only does cooking destroy the natural minerals, but in some dishes the most valuable part of the meal is contained in the water that is thrown away. It is not generally known that more harm is caused by a large intake of starchy foods than is caused by meat eating in moderation, even though this is definitely harmful.

Not until we start the diet of natural foods do we realise that we have been 'living to eat' and not just 'eating to live.'

We find then that the greatest difficulty is the palate, the desire of taste, and so the vegetarian diet may at first seem rather boring. This can be one of the biggest battles in our stage of growth and regeneration; but it can bring us a further knowledge of ourselves, and show us that we are now striving to become master of the flesh rather than have the flesh master us. Many argue that there is not sufficient in the diet of raw foods to sustain our bodies.

My claim is that it is when we begin to come away from the brawn and muscle stage to the mind stage that we require the change of diet. In getting on to the mind vibration the body does not require the same amount of sustenance as when in the brawn and muscle stage; thus we accumulate untold waste in the body which reacts as toxin poisoning.

The scourge of constipation is brought about through leaving the muscular stage for the mind stage; and the best answer to this difficulty is the roughage provided by the natural diet, coupled with plenty of fresh air and water. The inclusion in the diet of figs and a good supply of herbs will help to relieve bouts of constipation; however, in the actual 'passing over the bridge,' the changes will be noticeable, and the period could be marked by a loss of energy and slight depletion but the drawing down of the Solar energies will alleviate this. Rose Hip Syrup can help during this time of change-over, provided there is not too great a sugar content of the marketed product. Honey also is excellent too as a natural energy provider.

Controlling the Inner Bodies

WHEN we have established in our minds the logical reasoning for the alteration it will help in weathering the change. This does not mean to say though, that the battle is won, as our greatest enemy is the desire of the palate, a legacy from ages of meat eating and savoury dishes. We should bear in mind the fact that the body we are wearing is the offspring of generations.

Just as the soul makes growth and the spirit unfolds, so has our flesh body made evolution. It is this evolution that brings karmic illnesses, not only through the alteration of the physical body, but also the growth of the soul and the unfoldment of the spirit. When we are ready for this stage of regeneration, Karma—the Law of Rendering—knocks on the door in the form of sickness.

Now with this knowledge within our minds—and our being convinced that it is correct—we can grapple with the disturbances of the body by reforming the diet, and also by taking herbs which are nature's remedy for the sicknesses of the body. Herbs are under the influences of the Natural Laws, the planetary influences. When the parts of the body are sick with disease, meaning that they are in conflict with the Natural Laws, the herbs bring healing balm to the sick parts through the elements with which they are in tune.

We could refer to this by saying that the Divine Essence has given to man, in his state of unfoldment to Perfection, the necessary help to aid him in his experiences through growth. But herbs will not accomplish the cure alone. It is necessary to reform the diet and bring the mind to the understanding of the greater Truth.

Another point very essential to good health is the constant cleansing of the body. Because not only do we wash away the poisons that we ourselves are discharging, but we abolish any vibrations taken from others. In addition we absorb the water through the pores, free for natural breathing. If possible, aperients should be avoided, but if necessary, Senna Leaves or special Herb blends such as our 'Suph Herbs' are recommended.

The same applies to aspirins: in the case of headaches—which are nearly always due to internal disorders—a day's fasting and the consuming of a quantity of herbs will clear the organs of an accumulation of starch and mucus waste. In addition, the taking of our Nerve pills will soon clear the ache away.

Of course it is obvious that fresh air and water are most essential to clarity of mind as well as the healthy condition of the body, though owing to material circumstances many are denied the opportunity of getting as much fresh air as they should; but this can be more than compensated by each person practising regular deep breathing exercises and trying to get into the habit of holding their spine upright and standing correctly.

Simple physical exercises each morning, practising the movements of the limbs to try to expand all the muscular actions, will help to move the blood circulation and bring life to all parts of the body. Physical fitness is the basis of good health and a well tuned body, and every aid should be given to bring this about, that the Spirit Harmonies can the more easily enter the body.

As the body is not just a machine but rather a delicately tuned instrument responding to the mind, a good deal of the disorganisation is caused through the mental outlook and worry. Therefore a balanced mind, both in thought and expansion, is necessary to the well-being of the body.

In the first stages the natural diet seems to be rather monotonous, but that is only because we are still in the throes of living to eat, and this outlook will alter as the mind begins to expand. Nevertheless, the diet can be varied a bit by changing the salads and varying the fruit or including the raw fruit as a part of the salad dish.

The Spiritual Understanding

THERE may be some who will say that this type of food is only for those who are past growing, but I have seen many young people make good headway on this diet, including strapping young men following strenuous out-door pastimes. It all depends on the mind growth. Indeed we have proved that children can be weaned from the bottle or breast from five months old on the following diet:—

Carrots, tomatoes, apples, grapes, pears, bananas and the slippery elm bark powder.

All these are prepared for the child through a fine sieve, or very finely grated. A very fine cereal is also used. Buchu Leaves given each day—however young the child—in very small quantities, help the child's natural bile and other glandular juices to flow. The weaning must be done very gradually over a period of about a year.

Similarly, I have witnessed the most stubborn cases of arthritis, rheumatism, bronchitis, catarrh and even gastric troubles, diminish; moreso when coupled with Spirit healing. Where there is a bad case of rheumatism or arthritis, an application of a mixture of equal parts of amber and camphorated oil can assist in the breaking down of acids that have become solidified. But I would suggest that in all cases of sickness it is wise to contact the Spirit Healers and receive from them a diagnosis and advice on the subject of diet and herbs.

This discourse on diet is for those who have placed their foot upon the Path of the Initiate and have convinced themselves of the authenticity of the statement that diet is an essential part of our progress and evolution. It is useless to try and convince another of the real value of the natural diet if they have not reached that stage of spiritual understanding.

This is a subject that must be studied seriously and taken as a part of evolution. On the other hand, the remarks in the Treatise should not be followed in a fanatical way, but rather treated with wise discretion, as to become a food fadist or hypochondriac is not balanced and will result in harm to the body instead of bringing health and freedom. Spirit Healing is the contact of the Higher Spiritual Powers linking with the spirit within man.

I fully believe that there is no form of sickness or disease that cannot be righted by Spirit Healing, herbs and the reformation of the diet, provided the patient plays his part. We cannot arrest so-called 'death.' We are born by a perfect Law, and we pass from the earth by that same Law, having had our opportunity while in the earth body to make growth and unfoldment of the spirit.

Once we can recognise this, then we shall accept passing into Spirit in the same natural way that we accept birth to the earth. Physical pain is of the flesh body, but it does bring knowledge which can be transmuted into wisdom and strength. Part of the lesson to be learned during the sojourn in the earth body is that the change of the mind vibration calls for a change of diet. So now the question is, "What is the right diet?"

Natural Foods

Salads:

FROM experience—not only gained through myself, but through many whom, because of their sickness, I have convinced of the advantage of this diet—I would say that the right diet consists of all the natural foods containing the natural minerals and sugars untouched by cooking. The following is a brief outline of some of these foods:—

The green leaf contains chlorophyll which is the green pigment: this is a natural mineral and it keeps the bloodstream clean and the arteries young. LETTUCE, CABBAGE, BRUSSEL SPROUTS, SPINACH, and even quite a number of the leaves of so-called weeds, all come under this heading and can form the foundation of the salad.

PARSLEY cleanses the bladder.

ENDIVE & WATERCRESS contain iron.

CELERY is good for rheumatoid conditions.

MUSTARD & CRESS contain natural minerals.

Although classified as fruit, we shall include TOMATOES here, as they are an integral part of the salad. They are a valuable source of iron. All root vegetables should be avoided as they have within them the humus (fertilizer) of the earth direct.

The only exception to this is the CARROT, as it contains elements which are very good for the kidneys and the skin. In the green leaf the humus has become transmuted into a more natural element and also the leaves breathe in the ether and take in the rays of the sun. To begin with, many people include cheese in their diet, but eventually this is discarded, as cheese is an animal substance.

Fruit and Nuts:

ALL fruits, because they are grown above the ground, contain the elements of ether and sunshine, which are so necessary to those who are turning to a more spiritual diet. A brief outline of the contents of the most popular fruits is as follows:—

ORANGES contain a natural tonic and nerve food; they are good for energy, and also cleanse the bloodstream.

APPLES contain natural minerals and also act as a roughage.

PEARS contain nerve food and also cleanse the kidneys.

BANANAS (also dried bananas) contain protein.

LEMONS alkalise the acids that form in the body through the lack of oxygen.

RAISINS contain iron and sugar.

FIGS and DATES contain natural sugars. The fig especially is a very nutritive fruit.

NUTS contain natural oils and fats.

STONE FRUITS should be taken at one's own discretion.

Liquids:

ONE of the hardest things to give up, is drinking tea, yet this is a drug containing tannin which is injurious to the liver. Caffeine in coffee has the same effect. Both these liquids, although acting as a temporary stimulant, gradually form a coating around the liver. If tea is taken it should be very weak.

However, most of us feel we need a hot drink now and again, and Dandelion Coffee is a good choice. It is made from Waters of the Galactical Stream, the magnitude of outer-space life. Thus by it becoming of such frequency, also drawing on the Ultra-sonic, the mighty Wealth of Outer World Space Element life, it can be seen what riches really lay around the soul and in this mighty Stream of life, hence the Stream that would heal the Nations, for all has been gathered from the twelve mighty Hosts, whether of the Stream or the Nations.

Thus here was the beginning of the electrified dance of le Ros up to the heights, where the swan as the spirit flying in glorious gliding motion up to those momentous heights, would bring the unification into completeness as the depths and heights became one. For electrification is the isotope of inner electrified fusion, bringing magnitude into radiating oneness, while the Galactical light as the action of the elements, would bring the glories of the Milky Way into the radiance of the soul.

So Merope now so awakened, and the spirit stirring in the depths, came out of the tomb into the human sunlight, with the stirring passions beginning to rise by the ultra-sonic infusing the inner bodies, and now penetrating the coat of flesh, the active body of life. Thus the soul being fed by the Waters from the heights, stirring the passions causing them to rise, embracing its own inner silent activity, and bringing it into active life. For the impressing heights as the Solar Glory had made perfect union with the depths, and as Merope had made unification by LAW, she now made unification by human manifestation.

The mighty Divinity in the heights was piercing the depths, and the completion of Solar unification was now being electrified by Merope, through the whole of the Galactical System.

The whole of creation electrified with life through the united embracement of the Scapegoat. Therefore as Merope set the electrical coil of action revolving in the inner bodies, she started to rise up and sway and revolve, embracing every dancing prism. Whereby she slowly rose up the sparking electrified planes, as they shot forth their dancing active radiance. For the whole of being was one mass of action from the inner glory of her own electrification; whereby she embraced every possible new moving thought and idea, expanding it in her now new-born mind, sending it back racing up to the heights, so that there was a continual flow of new life to awaken man in the depths.

Thus the spirit in the depths began to expand and radiate anew, giving active human magnitude to the Lord in the heights, bringing forth the glories of the Fatherhood in the depths. For man had begun to awaken and feel the urge to seek into the expansive wealth of the Mysteries; the fact now awakening to them that such was the necessary probing into the inner laws of the soul, and the roots that fed the depths. That such held the keys to open the ivory door through the electrical dance of life. Thus now the whole of being was surging with action as the dance began to quicken, for the whole of life was now pulsating with radiant glory as the heights and depths consciously began to embrace.

The Key to Mind-Radiance

THE Solar Glory now interpenetrating every action of growth, for Nature as trees and flowers, began to radiate with electrical health-giving substance, giving forth a radiance never seen, only in the realms of spirit. Thus the earth now trembled and quivered as it united with the quickening, as the heights and depths in every direction now became ONE in a mighty unification. Embracing and unifying, causing the prism to surge and hum in electrical sonic radiance through every uniting Law.

For Merope was binding up the whole of being into one glorious unified surging life of immortality; no longer death and rebirth, but transitional changes by right of growth, as the soul makes its way by etherealisation. What a world for all to live in, especially sick, maimed and blind, yet what was promised by John, if some soul could put it into operation. What had been an ordinary London sparrow, would now become glorified of its plumage, and rise up with a radiance of glorified beauty.

For the Word was now the surging deep, the glorified unification of the manifesting prism. While fruit, which would now be the mainstay of the soul in its new-found creation, and had been poor through being picked before its solar time of ripening, would now hang from the trees rich, radiant and abundant, sparkling with life and vitality. For this now was to be the physical resuscitation of the human soul, food fresh and full of life, to feed the new solar human Race.

FOR THE EARTH NOW WAS TAKING ON A COMPLETE CHANGE, LIFE IN THE SOUL BECOMING CONSCIOUS OF A GREATER PURPOSE.

No longer false religious ideas, but every man his own priest, and by a conscious state of realisation. No longer the urge to find and grasp finance, but the belief in the purpose for its call. Bodies and societies uniting under the one order of investigation, for the glorified Hydro Waters from the heights had penetrated every soul with the universal Word of life; and now with it becoming the by-word of the Earth, man was awakening to the truth.

But furthermore, Governments now beginning to unite and co-operate, and realise the futility of missile warfare, at last coming to the understanding that all was HERE and NOW. That unless they sought within, nothing was ever without.

Now a big point that would not meet with the approval of all, animals had now served their purpose and not being a part of human life, were now buried in as a specie, for no one now would ever dream of eating the flesh of the creature that they once had loved and petted, so that was a thing of the past.

For the Solar Year was now fast advancing as Merope spun and gyroscoped up that le Ros dance, putting into operation the changes that rose up the New Solar City, the glories of the heavenly mind. Ever keeping the Stream of Water from the heights flowing to the depths, that would feed the Nations with that coming life, the glory and magnitude of the heavenly super-sonic glory. The atomic atoms now bursting into radiant life, filling the whole Solar Fields with the electromagnetic dance of the Waters.

Every soul becoming radiant with health, but the flowering of his mind being his own decision, the outcome of his own determined belief. For by such WILL would he bring the intensification of Esoteric Power, the glory of the soul. The means of the ultra-sonic becoming the wealth of the soul as the Vesica Piscis.

This was the mighty glory that Merope was setting into motion as she set herself to raise up the Christos in her own Solar Field of light. Thus being the first to bring that electrification into action, the genius of the empirical unfolding of the new-born void. Yet that ready to sprout forth, but with greater purpose in the action of every extended royal belief. All ever spiralling upwards by the action of feminine to masculine until the unification was complete, then the radiance of the spirit could come forth as the auric presence of the Solar Master, the Mighty Glory of the radiating Arc.

All the wealth as the Seed of the Chinese depths, the roots of the soul, now brought up to the glory of the radiating Yod. The golden coniferous tree ever in a state of growth, with the soul having captured the mystery of the genius of Ariel travel, that any given time they could so arielise themselves, and go up to the upper planes, and be resuscitated in the Elixir Waters. (See plate on page 5, cols. 4 & 5)

While souls who made extensive growth, being used by the Hierarchs to lead and guide the masses that were still in the state of unfoldment. These being but a few of the unfolding states of Genius that would start to come forth through the growth of this great and glorious new City. The human Taj Mahal grown by Mary out of the depths as a fitted palace for her LORD, the Divine Solar Flame of the Universe.

The Christos Divine as the raised up holy Fire, now raised up out of the depths as the glorious mind of every human soul. A THOUGHT that came down from the heights, and became a living comprehensive mind as a prism of the Brahmnic magnitude of Divine Glory.

The whole Creation of ALL that has been, now the Divine ONENESS of the mind that has watched all and gathered in, to become the comprehensive whole of the Atma-Buddhic-Manas.

Hence the Great Solar LORD in the heights was the over-shadowing Glory to the mind radiance that Merope built in the depths. A proto- (See plate in cols. 2 and 3) type of what could now come forth in every soul who sought to raise up the mind as a triumph of the soul. For the Solar Year is now set, and every man is ordained to bring it forth, with the Christos radiance as the FLAME of the mind, the glory to come forth as the Fires are raised up and sparked into active life. With every soul coming forth as a Christ in the depths, the protocol of the heavenly radiance.

The whole magnitude of the heights in the depths, as the glories of man's mind, with man set to climb that ladder to make his way back to the glorious Constellation in the heights, where all of the depths will be ENLINED in onto a NEW PLANE of manifestation.

THE MYSTERY OF THE FUTURE.

BIRTH OF THE SOLAR LORD

GLORY divine awakened to the conscious mind as the Heavenly Divinity broke forth in audible voice, for what had been for so long a moving illusion, now became a living Reality. (See text in col. 5).

the root of the dandelion and so is itself a herb: as a rule it is made mostly with milk and so is very nutritious, but milk is an animal substance and too much of it can bring clogging of the bloodstream. Fresh water and fruit juices are the finest fluids for the true vegetarian.

Daily Diet:

MY suggestion for a day's diet would be as follows:—

ON RISING: The undiluted juice of one lemon. This acts as an alkaliser and also stimulates the juices of the body.

BREAKFAST: Fruit. Brown bread, toasted if possible, or any of the crispbread preparations. Vegetable margarine, such as Van Der Bergh, Tomor Kasher margarine, etc. Honey, and for those who have not yet become fully adjusted to the exact vegetarian diet, a little uncooked cereal could be taken.

MID-DAY MEAL: Salad, comprising for example, green leaf, parsley, water-ress, grated carrot, tomatoes, dates, figs, nuts, etc., with toasted brown bread or biscuits as above.

Raw fruit of any description. Coffee: Dandelion coffee or Herbal Teas if required.

EVENING MEAL: Similar to mid-day meal.

It is wise to finish the intake of food by eight o'clock in the evening, but herbs taken last thing at night are propitious.

Condiments, etc.:

THERE are minerals and salts in the natural foods and so condiments are not necessary. Salad cream is detrimental, but natural olive oil, which is very sustaining, can be taken on the salad, but with discretion. As soon as possible the salt intake should be curtailed and used very sparingly.

Preserves:

FOR the strict vegetarian, honey is to be preferred to jam and marmalades, as it contains sugar in a natural form. Also it is best where possible to use brown sugar, because white sugar only creates mucus and catarrh. All the sugar we need is contained in the natural foods, especially in figs and dates.

Confectionery, etc.:

MY experience has been that sweets, particularly chocolates, are most injurious and create a great deal of mucus and acidity. Similarly, all cakes and pastries create considerable catarrh, and eventually harm the sinus and lachrymal glands. It is far better that all sweets, cakes, etc., are banned from the diet or kept severely under control.

Soups and Potatoes:

MOST people find it rather a large step to take, to start eating salads only, especially during the colder months. As with spiritual unfoldment, the change-over of the diet is usually a very gradual process, and so it is sometimes necessary to vary it a little.

I have often been asked as to the advisability of soups in the diet, and my advice is as follows:—

All thick soups should be avoided, and any soups should definitely be prepared at home. My suggestion would be to boil a cabbage, to draw out the natural minerals, then add diced celery, carrots, tomatoes, and a little parsley.

But through time this will no longer appeal, and the tendency will be to eat only the natural raw foods, eventually progressing to the stage when only fruit and water are taken. Then indeed, one only eats to live.

THE SOLAR YEAR

THAT WHICH I AM BRINGING FORTH THIS month as our intimate conversation, is upon a subject that is absorbing the whole of the Cosmic growth, but little understood by the majority. Therefore I am striving to place it as simply as possible, so that the less educated can grasp something of what I am advocating. For it is a most appropriate moment to seek more deeply into the depths of the Solar Year, something which the majority would not have even heard of. For some months now, and from now onwards, all will be of that Solar rebirth, so a simple and full explanation will help all I am sure, to get a better grip and adjustment around the subject. So I am seeking to bring this down to the common vernacular, so that all who are capable of accepting this wisdom, will be able to comprehend.

The Task of a Scapegoat

THE Year of 1966 is a Year of Completion, in that it contains the double six, that of WOMAN and the Beast redeemed. Therefore in its double status, that of completion, thus the Year became the Year of fulfilment, the completion of Relativity, and manifestation of the Atomic blending.

The Year of Androgyneity, where all multiplicity was gathered in and brought to a focal point of ONENESS. This brought the Lunar Year to a close, and the Solar, the birth of the Solar Lord or FACE, completely into being. This really being the birth of the Fatherhood, where Womanhood as a Negative state, or Feminine Principle ever prevailing, is transmuted into the Fatherhood, the Positive Principle. Or man learning to take on positive ideas, and not hiding behind convention and sophisticated beliefs.

Yet this is really the deeper Cosmic Creation, but where man is concerned, the change from multiplicity to the atomic state of ONENESS, whereby he learns to drive his beliefs upwards to the heavens in an atomic point of positive thought. No hiding behind the politeness of the day, but being forthright in his beliefs, and not held to ransom by religious humbugs and small petty threatening states of the law. Therefore the order of the DAY is the soul spiralling upwards in mind belief, standing firmly by his convictions. This is already making its way through many who were ripe and ready to start this campaign of truth. Now let us come down to the working details for such a change to be put into operation. Here is where a Scapegoat is needed.

The Scapegoat, a lunar element of trial and error, is the one who was prepared to bring into birth a new regime, where new life and fresh air would enter through LAWS being reborn, and enlivening the dead states of the magnetic. Changing over all that has been into a new born thought, completely breaking down old fixed ideas, and bringing new beliefs and fluidity into birth.

This naturally began with the Configuration of 1962 when the Second Advent began, for this was the REAL birth of the Embodiment as far as man was concerned. The spirit or Christos life being able to stir those alive to greater purposes and intent, to awaken and set the first embodiment into action through their beliefs. Therefore, the first one who became aware of this truth, would be called to manifest it in whatever way they believed was right.

I was the one who became aware of this wisdom, so in voicing what I knew, automatically took on the role of Scapegoat. For once you voice a belief, you are tied to the fact of what you state, and must make it live in matter sometime or another.

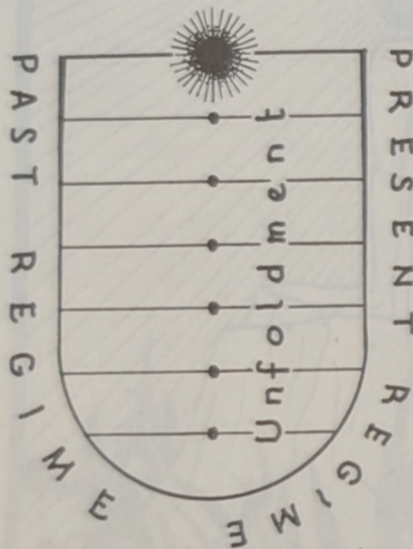

My first task was to lift up the Cosmic Christ, the Solar Lord or FACE of the reigning Macroprosopus that changes every 2000 years. This FACE was born in Pisces, but never changed in Aquarius owing to the fixity of the Roman Catholic religion. So my first task was to take him off the Cross as a dead God, but unfortunately found myself on there instead, taking on the problems of the Earth that the Christos Lord had been shouldering for man, with him living carelessly and without any form of responsibility.

His idea was that the Christ was saving him by his Blood, the Christ being the Solar Blood that was pouring down as the Solar Prism, and striving to eat up the evils of mankind. Somebody has to be on the Cross to take the brunt of man's errors, otherwise there would be NO cleansing. This now became my task as I lifted up the Christos Lord to his rightful place, by my belief in him being the Divine Fire of Generative rebirth.

Birth of the Central Sun

BY this ideal I rose the planes up by belief and acceptance, and the Solar Lord, (See plate page 7, cols. 2 & 3) who was a dead Christ, became a living Christ, the manifesting glory of the Central Sun, the possible living spirit in every soul. For when a thinking soul of positive belief places such ideas onto the maelstrom, it rises above the old ideas, and becomes LAW in the Cosmos. For the heavenly Hierarchs now accept it as the predominant belief, and it brings light to the planes. This is where I became so closely associated with the Hierarchial heights.

Immediately I did it, the Central Sun with the Scorpii Constellation in the shape of a horseshoe, appeared in the sky, the fact of the manifestation. From then onwards I was under the Hierarchs for instructions, and as I moved on, the Atomic Stream was born from the heights that would begin to feed the Nations. Then by the blending that had to follow through my own internal changes, Electrification was brought into birth by the unification of the depths with the heights. This was the unifying of the planes within myself, which automatically became the Cosmic Law.

But I had to be the Scapegoat for all this to come into birth, so that there was not confusion through raw Elements running wild on the earth. What it is to be a Scapegoat, is only understood when you are a Scapegoat, especially of the Atomic Age. There is NO DOUBTING, for it affected my legs, which are the extension of the soul in its fact of walking their wisdom into the earth.

For my task from then onwards, was to earth more and more the wisdom and truth that I became aware of from the instruction of the Hierarchial Voice, and placed into the Gazette as the writing of the Masters. Therefore it rose above the old Law, and the new LAW was born. Then it began to descend to the Earth in the Cosmic Rays, bringing about changes on the Earth.

By this time the Solar Year was coming into birth, by the Solar Sun now becoming as the Central Sun, for I by moving up the frequency within myself, automatically brought these changes into birth in the Cosmos, thereby blending the

THE ENTRY OF THE SOLAR YEAR

NOW the Scapegoat, by unifying the sun and moon within herself by state of frequency, had brought to the Earth a rich harvest, that every man could partake of, if he would but turn his eyes upwards, and embrace those heavenly heights. (See text in col. 4).

depths with the heights, and intensifying the upper Elements. (See plate above)

Once upon a time, this was the work of the popes but by them coming out of Sanctuary, they broke the thread, and lost the right to law-maker. As they came out, I went in, and have been in Sanctuary for six years. The Vatican has forgotten what was its REAL task, being so absorbed with creed and dogma and contraceptive pills. In the meantime, the world and its wife started to become violently ill through the lack of the inflow of fresh air from a living Scapegoat. So somebody had to take over the issue, otherwise the SEED of Human Life would have died, and man become just a walking robot.

Another state of Atlantis, where everything would have gone down once again into the depths, and man completely lost as he was at that time. This accounting for the two fissures in the brain, thereby would have brought into birth a third, and the Race could not have taken it. This I know is denied by the medical world, but my advice as a Mystic, is do not be misled by their fixed ideas, which at the present moment are merely text-book repetition.

The New Mind Creation

ALL this wisdom, which is the mystical Creation of LIFE, is not understood by the earthy scientists, medical and ecclesiastical authorities who now are brought into birth by set dogma and old text-book theories, which the Hierarchs are now about to break down through the Cosmic Rays. They are states that have gone to seed, by merely becoming status and positions born out of text-book examinations, and not true men of unfolding wisdom. In fact, any new theory is not countenanced, only under dire stress and great difficulty.

Therefore, the higher Powers, who are dependent on the Earth creation for light and wisdom to revolve and become their Intelligencia, find themselves ever sending down Air and Life, but receiving nothing back in return.

For what appears as Stars, Moon and Sun, are not what we think, but the reflection of what man creates in his mind as belief. And if the Space-man was honest, he would tell the world, that where he goes is completely black and without life, except for the world below.

Earth is the seventh plane, while all the upper planes, seen as starry lights by man, are the grades of ascent to the overshadowing Powers, the mighty Gods of the Cosmos. Man being the worker and crucible pot in the depths, who receives the Breath or Air of these Powers as Elements, and whose task it is to "boil" them up within himself, and bring them forth as LIGHT of mind creation.

Then send them back up to the heights as aspiration, and would be as Noah lifting the Arc, and David placing the Arc up onto the heights. For the Ether as Ruach or Breath, holds the Prism of the heights, the seven planetary Elements of action and growth, they that will bring into birth through man, the Celestial heights within his own being.

THEREBY BRINGING INTO BIRTH A GOD-LIKE BEING, ONCE THE IMMORTAL STATUS IS RESOLVED.

This Prism is filled with the Word, which man automatically absorbs, and brings forth when he tries to create through his mind in an independent created action. So it can be seen how detrimental a fixed state of text-book theory becomes, it prevents man opening up his mind to the higher and greater inflow. This is called Genius, and is proved by the composer of music more than anything else. Then of course there is the poet, the mystic and the TRUE priest.

THEY ALL BEING A FILTER TO RECEIVING THE WORD OR WISDOM OUT OF THE DOWNPOURING ELEMENTS.

Mastering the New Elements

ONCE upon a time, man knew the way to bring forth these Elements, but he did not know how to handle them when he received them, so the scientist merely brings them forth in theory and figure, and nothing more. This is where the Scapegoat comes in by their belief, which has to be acceptable by Hierarchy and Law, they bringing forth the Elements, and becoming the Channel for such to be earthed.

This is the depth of understanding of being on the Cross or Axis of the world. By this the new Elements are earthed, and changes take place on the earth as decreed necessary for the Race to unfold and expand in mind unfoldment. At the present the Solar Year is born, and all that can see and understand this truth by their own intuitive unfoldment, are those now following the new-born Year.

This should have taken place in the Equinox of Taurus, when Medo-Persia received such mighty power and wisdom from Venus. This is the wisdom of the Bible, especially Daniel, where he indicates that the Scapegoat will have to go through the Fiery Furnace. This is an under-statement, for it is a truth only too well to be borne. The New Testament was what that Scapegoat had to bring into birth, with Revelations as the birth of the Solar FACE as the Christ, the Solar City and the Solar Year. This to be revealed to John the husbandman or the Scapegoat whoever it was.

For the Bible is the Book of the Legends of the Mystic, and I feel, the Word inspired through the Holy Fathers, the true Mystics before papalism got hold of them and corrupted them. For it was pretty obvious through the Ages, that this regime once it got hold of you, never gave the soul a chance, and closed down the unfoldment of the mind. In fact it has ruled the Ages since the beginning of Pisces, and only brought into birth death and disaster.

The true wealth of wisdom, glory and light has never come forth under their set creed of high mass litany, for they merely took the wealth of the ancients and turned it to whichever way it suited their convenience. Their duty was to reproduce, but in the true measure of light and understanding, bringing forth as wealth the light and glory of the Day. For in the Age of Aquarius, the Atomic Age, everything had to be unified whether man liked it or not.

So naturally a soul was sent to the Earth to complete the task; I happened to be the soul, or goddess, who came down from Venus, who called down the first Element of Fire. That which caused man to FALL, and I have been wandering the Earth ever since. Thus waiting the time when I could adjust this, and the most appropriate time was the Age of Aquarius, the Age of Atomic Unification.

This being the TIME when man could unite the lower EL powers with the higher EL Powers, and since my Fount as woman was very deep owing to my length of "Age" as woman, I had the greatest depth to offer. But as a goddess, by my polarity I could raise up all to the highest. This I did, and brought forth the Ultra-Sonic Element, which is now bringing new life and healing Fire to all mankind.

THIS IS A FIERY WAVE OF ULTRA DIVINITY, FOR IT COMES STRAIGHT FROM THE DIVINE SOURCE AS HOLY FIRE, AND WILL FEED MAN THROUGH HIS OWN SEED.

BUT BY ME AS THE SCAPEGOAT BEING A WOMAN, SHE WILL ALSO BE FED BY THAT FIRE, BY HER ASPIRATIONS AND UNITY WITH THOSE HEIGHTS.

This is what the Nuns try to do, but by woman suffering to raise up her sons that the SEED can live and flourish, has made herself one with Divinity, when true motherhood prevails. Quite possibly the reason why the pope is concerning himself so much about the contraceptive pills, the destruction of the Seed. For it is by the true birth of the Male that the world is spermed, being the receiver of the Fire, with woman as the weaver, the magnetic state of earth.

Yet there is one thing I have truly learnt over these past six years, that man and the Cosmos are as one. For as man receives and so creates, does he bring forth; but it is the one who can top the bill by belief and suffering as a Scapegoat, who brings forth the major issue.

But owing to the possibilities that could now be brought forth and used by the higher Powers, they found a way of taking hold of the command of the Earth through the Scapegoat. This was because man was not capable of handling the mighty Powers that were now going to sweep through the cosmic regime. This included man, where everything was going to be cleansed and reborn through the changing Elements. But a Scapegoat had to be the earthing point, and since I started it off, it was my opportunity to bring such into birth once again, but on a higher measure, the polarity to the first.

This united the two poles and made a perfect revolution, that once again the Serpent was swallowing its own tail...

...but crowned with divinity and light.

The Christos Within

THE descent of the Hierarchs down amongst men, was nothing more than the repeat of the descent made by the Hosts to Jacob. The Elements descending, becoming ensconced within man as his mind and his born faculties. Thus, as the Elements as breath descend, these elements in man are continually being fed and born as light of man's mind.

For man is only mind, with spirit in the offing; when he can raise it up out of the earthy creation it is buried under, then his mind becomes of the intuitive faculty as perceptory principle.

But although these creations are persisting day after day, and the under-current of life, whether man accepts or not, it is still very difficult to bring any understanding to the man of science, who is completely buried under the debris of logical facts and blind to the truth. Thus ever leading mankind in the wrong direction.

This year was the closing date of these changes, and Aug. 14th was the closing of the door, when man, one and all, stood as he was and as he would become. For it is the harvest of every woman, child and man; what they have gained over all TIME now his mind factor, his atomic point as his Norm or 7th Chakra, his pineal gland. The whole of

The Mystic's Prayer

by William Sharp
(1856 - 1902)

*Lay me to sleep in sheltering flame,
O Master of the Hidden Fire!
Wash pure my heart, and cleanse for me
My soul's desire.*

*In flame of sunrise bathe my mind,
O Master of the Hidden Fire,
That, when I awake, clear-eyed may be
My soul's desire.*

this wisdom being manifest in the Pyramid, with man now about to meet the 42 judges, the mighty climb up the massive staircase to the queen's and king's chamber.

The climb up of his own frequency to crawl through the cervical of rebirth, to get back once again into the queen's chamber, the sparking pituitary, and then through to the king's chamber, the pineal as the present state of growth. This opens the soul to the heights, where he, by frequency, becomes the radiating tower of light and divinity.

Naturally this is not going to be understood by the layman, and definitely shunned by the majority. But as time goes on, the elements will have so percolated into and through the human creation, as to awaken within the soul the new-born awareness. To begin with, it will appear upon the lowest degree of comprehension, but as the soul awakens, a deeper understanding will be born. For every soul is really of equal quantity of element composition, but not all, in fact very few, have really woven and created a mind of intuitive etheric manifestation.

This being what all souls are truly seeking, a mind so uplifted, as to be the Voice of the Masters, the Voice of God. Whether this appears religious or not, this is what man is seeking, although he would run with fright if he heard a voice, or saw an apparition standing before him. Yet he could be guided, and brought forth onto a higher plane, if he could but trust those powers of Truth and Light. Those who are ready to help and guide man while he is in the captivity of ignorance.

MAN HAS BEEN TAKING OF THE SPIRIT, BUT ALLOWED IT TO BECOME BURIED UNDER THE

RUBBLE OF MATERIALISM. HIS FIRST TASK IS TO RAISE UP THAT CHRISTOS WITHIN HIMSELF, SO THAT HIS EYES ARE TURNED UPWARD, AND NOW INWARD INTO SELF.

True mysticism is something very rare, but really a part of life, for it is man in his rising frequency of sensitivity out of the depths, taking his changes up through the seven cervical, and getting back to the original heights of Heliopolis. The extent of where he fell into the depths in his degree of desire, and lived as the beast. Now he must get back by initiation through the reforming cervical, and links with Odysseus passing through the fears of Scylla and Charybdis, and the wandering rocks.

It is really reforming the cerebellum from the animal creation into the immortal by initiation. Thus the story of the mystic, and how he becomes reborn.

The priest and clergyman only go up to Jupiter, the sensitivity of the five lower Chakras, and often end up with incest demanding the Sodomy bill. Therefore, all men will have to reform the cervical sometime or another, so just as well now as tomorrow. For the key as this Word will not be potent forever, and is better as the living truth, than the memory of that which has been.

The Solar Year is the true birth of MAN, the positive state that can come forth in the soul's growth as it struggles through mind rebirth to regain what it has lost, but now as a fully fledged soul of wisdom.

A SOUL BORN OF THE SPIRIT, WHICH THE SOUL MUST NOW RAISE UP AS THE ROYAL DIVINE LIGHT OF THE MIND.

HIAWATHA PART 4

OR THE SONG OF LIFE

by Gladys I. Spearman-Cook*

*This lecture was delivered at the S.U.P.H. on Sunday, 8th May, 1966, through Gladys I. Spearman-Cook especially directed by the Lord Maitreya, the Lord of the Flame of the Central Sun, the unified Spiritual Wealth of the Cosmic Hierarchies.

THE MYSTERY OF UNITY AS THE BLENDING OF HEIGHTS AND DEPTHS, is a story that few are able to comprehend, a story that is compiled of Legends and Myths, that held the secret of TIME. Yet wonders that man shuns and refuses to believe, declaring that they are the wanderings of old men in the chimney corner. But the North American Indians as many other tribes of the past, were the creators of these great mysteries, they being the Heroes who brought the mighty LAWS into action, that gave man today his road of security and unfoldment.

The Expansion of Personality

THE wooing of Minnehaha, the lovely Laughing Water, was the bringing forth of his feminine principle, as the glorious queen of the South. Although placed in the direction of tribes, it does so to give to the reader a sense of geographic position, where the tribe bears union with the soul. Minnehaha being of the Dacotah Tribe, would be equal to the Moabites in the soul of today. States of the depths that equal the growth of the heights, of which Hiawatha in his unfolding manhood, was bringing into birth.

So, "As unto the bow the cord is, so unto man is woman, and although she bends him, she obeys him. Though she draws him, yet she follows, useless each without the other!"

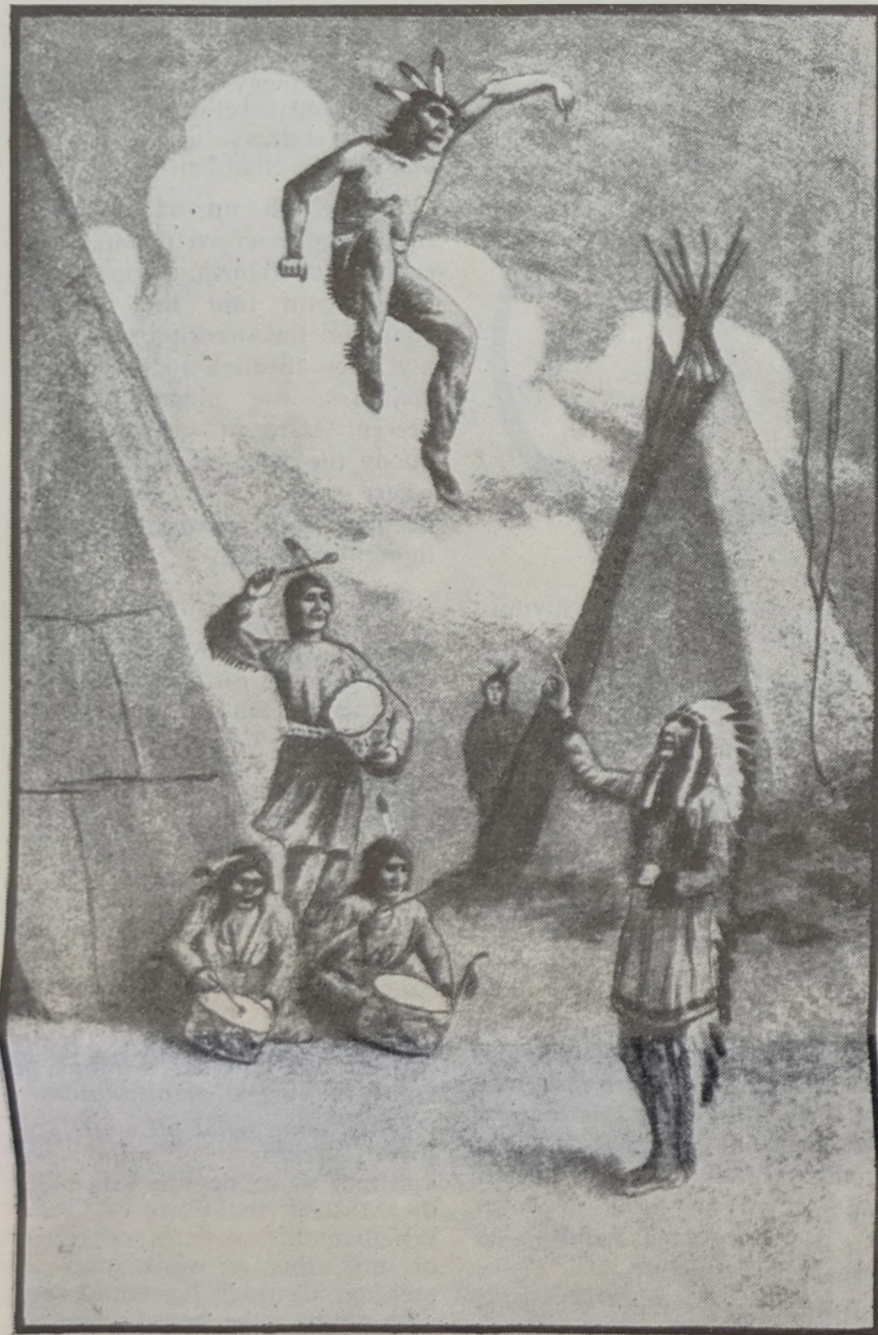

Thus it was that Hiawatha set out to woo Minnehaha, the lovely Laughing Water.

This is where the expansion must take place, the raising up of the personality into a greater awareness.

But Nokomis the old mother state of the Cancer depths does not want to expand and bring the Womanhood or feminine principle up to the heights. For the Dacotahs, the Scorpio depths, are the Moabite states, the ancient wealth of the past that must be brought into a greater focus, a greater insight that can bring extension.

The Water triune that became entangled, and fell right into the pit, thus Laughing Water is as Ruth, a mighty wealth shunned by the sophisticated, a woman born from the sons of the starry heights and sandy depths, yet a queen in her own right. This now is where the fire is going to be kindled, which is the advice that Nokomis is giving to Hiawatha, "Do not go eastward or westward for a stranger, whom we know not, but like a fire upon the hearth stone is a neighbours homely daughter."

But Hiawatha is adamant and says NO! I will go down to the depths, down into the starlight and the moonlight to a maiden with nimble fingers. I will go down into the land of the Dacotahs and bring unto you of my Laughing Water. Thus would be as Mars and Venus, with Taurus supplying

THE DANCE OF THE FIRE

HIGHER and higher rose the fever, as the Indian Chief directed the dance, for here was Hiawatha in the union of heights and depths, bringing the mystical infusion of elemental glory. The intercalary plowing of every polarity making unity with the Heavenly Forces. (See text on page 11, col. 1).

the arrows from the wealth or Seeds out of the Waters of Scorpio. Hiawatha as Aries seeking to become raised up to Scorpio through the intercalary dance of Libra; for she must prepare the meal that will set the dance into motion.

But old Nokomis, as ever the old Cancer state, is in opposition, and as much as Hiawatha is determined to go right down into the depths to find his wife, does she bring forth difficulty after difficulty.

But Hiawatha is determined to go right down to bring out the fiery depths lost in the marrow of the bones. The fire that was sent down there in the beginning, he is utterly determined to bring up that wealth to his grandmother's tent.

Thereby make unification of the relativity by drawing the fish out of the waters, "For he heard the voice of Minnehaha calling to him through the silence," her efforts in the depths. So off he went and caught the red heart of the roebuck on the way; the mastering of the lower fires, until he came to the wigwam of the ancient arrowmaker. The ancient depths as the EL powers seeking to get free, for the old arrowmaker was the ancient of Days, the Centaur states of the past, waiting to be buried in as soon as his daughter as Woman was risen up.

Developing the Perceptory Principle

SO it would be Venus trying to rise up and the fierce warrior seeking action once again. Mars and Venus of Aries and Libra, now as Taurus and Scorpio through Venus in Libra rising up to Scorpio. Hence he goes down into the depths to blend the Water and the Fire to bring forth the rising steam. Wealth of Woman raised up as the tail, that can give to the soul the wealth of the perceptory principle. Thus ever burrowing into the depths that the word is ever being fired, and the soul singing of its mystic wonders. But a word that is ever rising up to the heights.

This brings the plowing into action on the next plane, thus starts the spear dancing up and down, while the intercalary action of the mind, in extreme extension of heights and depths, are now meeting, that old Nokomis can be raised up out of her old ideas.

The cutting away of old roots and the coming into birth of the Mary. So Hiawatha the higher mind appears with the fires raised up to his shoulders, that of the Gemini drive in his positive state coming into birth. Although the negative would still be in existence as the two states of awareness meet, he lays stimulus at the feet of his feminine principle, which touches her with a state of comprehension, which she now awakens to.

Mars as Scorpio has now made unity with the Bull, and is stirring Venus into unity of marriage, that the hoof can strike and bring fiery action to the soul.

The fire now risen up to the pons, but waiting further expansion in the Le Ros exhilaration. The mind of the personality has awakened, bringing the unity into birth, and through the habits of life in matter, perceives the same action taking place within the soul. Thus is prepared to sacrifice, that greater mind unity can take place. This is the wooing of the heights with the depths, for the wild fiery sex action has been brought to a controlled unified peace, where a blended state now starts off a new world creation.

The ancient Arrowmaker being of the ancient depths as the Centaur creation, the mind memory that now will become buried in, it would be the higher mind that has never found expansion. For Hiawatha has gone down into the extreme depths of the soul. Therefore heights and depths have now fully united; the two sides of the brain are balanced to a point of unified consciousness, with the fires in the Le Ros dance, that of a divine pink. He has gone down into the depths of the void, the unifying state of Relativity.

Thus he brought the feminine depths up to the positive creation in her comprehension; what had been the duality of the soul, was now becoming completely unified. Whereby Minnehaha prepared a meal for them, and listened to the wisdom of Hiawatha and her father. The Ojibways and the Dacotahs, the listless Arian son and the Moabite depths, now harmonising into action of purpose and intent. With Venus the daughter of the Bull listening intently to wisdom she had never heard before.

Activating the Higher Mind

THEREFORE old ideas began to melt away by the pons lighting up, and the cerebellum becoming born anew. As Hiawatha seeks of the love and unity of Minnehaha, she declares, "I will follow my husband." Thus Hiawatha had won the daughter of the ancient Arrowmaker of the land of the Dacotahs. Through this the Arrowmaker of the past is buried in and forgotten, while Minnehaha the risen Venus, is about to become Venus-Urania as they make their way up to the heights.

In the deeper mystical depths, the EL powers uniting with the heights to bring the higher mind into creative action.

For the mind is now fully alight, with the winds blowing fast around them, as over wide and rushing rivers Hiawatha bore the maiden. For the plume upon his headgear cleared the tangled pathway for him, therefore all the travelling winds went with them, with the squirrel Adjidaumo in his ambush in the oaktree, watching with eager eyes the lovers. While Wabasso the rabbit scampered the path before them raising the sensitivity, and the bluebird Owaissa, and Opechee the robin, helped them on the way with the fiery word. With the latter declaring "Happy are you Laughing Water in having such a noble husband."

Then the sky looked down on the happy lovers saying to them, "O! my children, love is sunshine, hate is shadow, rule by love O! Hiawatha, rule by patience Laughing Water." Thus they journeyed home together to the lodge of old Nokomis.

The Yod now erect in the heights, and awaiting action as the two lovers became united through the wooing. But further still, the sensitivity ready and eager to unite the massive wealth in the tail with the active and glowing heights. The fiery Word dancing and singing in expectancy of what could now come forth from the unity of all the states in the soul. The sun and moon now blending in atomic fiery action, to bring into birth the possible electrification. Thus the heights brought to the depths a complete change of rebirth.

The Interblending States

THEREFORE, Hiawatha in bringing home his bride, a wedding feast is prepared. This is where Pau-Puk-Keewis the handsome Yenadizze danced, and gentle Chibiabos the sweetest of musicians sang his songs. While Iagoo the great boaster, the marvellous story-teller, is telling of his many tales of strange adventure.

This being the intercalary dance of heights and depths, the black and white states interblending; the dance of the spanish dancers getting the horse activated for the drive.

For in having cleaned up all the old states, everybody adorning their new plumage. So the feminine principle prepares the new meal, which is extensive and expansive. Serving all, but eating none themselves, for they were seeking that others would gain expansion, and then send back their new ideas. But also send aspiration and declared devotion up to the heights.

But the taking of such rich food soon causes chaos and confusion in the changes, for the Stormfool, Uranus, strikes, to see what will unite and who will bring expansion and aspiration from that gathered down South. For Pau-Puk-Keewis drives the winds as he dances (See plate page 10, cols. 3 & 4) for the wedding guests, with Chibiabos and Iagoo the great Boaster all claimed possibilities. Yet it is old Nokomis the motherhood who calls all the wealth together that they may eat of the catch of Hiawatha. For Aries as the destructive state enters into Taurus that he can drive in his plowing. With the mind intercalary as mind expansion of fire and water, all stand by as the rebirth takes place. But as they reseed all these states, they stand by in silence. It is the Wedding Feast of the heights and depths.

The stimulus as "tobacco" from the South is brought forward as the beggar dance begins, to bring complete fulfillment. But naturally brings down the snows, that changes can begin in all states being moved. This would be the burying in of old experiences, though faint of heart in doing it, for only a beggar through no real depths being created. Therefore it was this storm that brought about Uranus striking, that caused the winds to roar and the waves to dash and rise in the ensuing changes. For once again the roaring Winds from the North were beginning to drive down.

The female states now begin to hurriedly keep all states moving, for rich with wealth, it is most important for all to be moved into action at once. Although for the time all the parts are difficult to blend into peace, for all now are of fiery expansion; all ready for mind to begin new creations as fiery beliefs. Everything must become completely embedded, in all states dancing the new tune, that Hiawatha can walk it into the earth in balance.

For once it can be remembered it is ever a state of initiation and expansion of mind, it will also be seen it is a kicking up of the sands of time. The etheric wealth of the inner bodies that either danced as the kicking horse sparking new life, or went dead.

For all was still in a feminine state as the mystic dance begins, then starts to drive everything before it. For it went into every nook and cranny, never caring whom it drove, that it could test everything in the action of change. Yet never once losing his Iagoo state, that which caused the storm to rage, that of egoism instead of true Ego. The battling of the old states with the new, that expansion could begin.

The love song of the masculine wooing the feminine into change in the marriage feast. For this is the way of awareness breaking through, that by June there can be a full harvest from the blossoming of the Le Ros. For this is where the heart sings to Andromeda, to seek for Perseus to adorn his winged helmet of Invincibility.

Yet at the same time, the calling of the heart to the personality to change the whole of its outlook, to get the fire and will moving in direct fiery intent.

For what could be more lovely and touching to the soul in its human form, than the love song of Hiawatha for Laughing Water. "Onaway! awake beloved! thou the wild flower of the forest. If thou only lookest at me I am happy, I am happy as I feel thy dew upon me. Thus all my blood leaps to meet thee, as the springs to meet the sunshine. Onaway! my heart sings to thee, I myself, myself behold thee, blood of my beating heart awake, awake beloved."

The Royal Ego

ALL now the triune of Fire and Air, that the Evening Star could descend and walk all the boasting of Iagoo into the earth. The boasting Cancer states of egoism that had ever only been a twelfth house state, and merely remained as a John the Baptist, and not the true husbandman. Yet it was he who carved the cradle of little Hiawatha; reality coming into birth in the potential Brave, but must now in his boasting become a warrior, as Hiawatha descends in "ever becoming" creation from the starry heights.

For Hiawatha is the Christed or Solar state coming into birth, egoism that must become the royal Ego. All having reached its full, resulting in the marriage of Hiawatha and Laughing Water being fulfilled.

But still the guests who had now fully partaken cried out for Iagoo the marvellous story-teller to tell them another tale of wonder and mystery. Let us feast on further mystic wonders, that the guests who were of depths unknown, would be more contented. So Iagoo starts to tell them a strange story of Osseo the magician, who from the Evening Star descended.

Wealth that was only a magician state, and not really yet of the warrior, but a marvellous explanation of how the soul must become the warrior to drive the cosmos into change, and not the warrior to bringing a personal state of glory.

The first creative state of the eighth coming forth from out of the seven, for from the ever revolving Solar Blood descending into the Earth Waters, the son is born from out of Venus, the lower octave of Neptune. But only poor and ugly, ever hiding all the nuts of wisdom under the tree like a squirrel. The spirit becoming buried within him as Mars, the fiery issue for the time; but Venus held onto him because he had the nuts of wisdom.

Birth of the Solar Mind

YET it could only come about through the first offering of love and service, where the spirit becomes wounded, and the blood flows into the earth as the bleeding heart. Man could only learn the hard way, yet it would be Cancer, or Woman, being lifted and spun up as the magnetic and luna becoming of the Solar. Thus producing of the spirit that becomes the son of the Evening Star, Osseo.

Yet from the marriage, the higher mind as the ever expanding mind becoming expanded and winnowed by the twelve signs, into a greater creation by Pisces into Aries. The rebirth of the mind and the treading in.

This is clearly shown in the story of Iagoo of the marriage of Venus and Saturn, with Saturn crying out for help, and would be in its deeper issue the passions bringing forth the EL powers. The mystery of the spirit from the depths blending with the heights, and which holds the secret of LOVE. Venus as the Starry light becoming married up to the fallen unexpanded soul, that she can help him find expansion. For she is not looking for earth love, the love of the animal, but the selfless Love of service and royal purpose.

Old Osseo as the higher mind creation, which has never been given expansion and remained under the fallen Saturn ruling, is ever crying out for help that expansion from the Solar can begin. But it cannot until the lower as the personality awakens from its personal state of earthy conception. Yet it becomes married up to the tenth sister, therefore is ever in a state of rebirth, being as a female Capricorn as the heights.

The hidden Word waiting to bring its inner contents to an Aries state as the reborn mind, hence the higher ever seeking aspiration from the lower, thus the tree growth that is ever coming forth through the cycling of rebirth.

Ever a state of expansion in a great contact of rebirth, as Aries becoming in the first, with the spirit now being buried into matter, although only for the time of talking, fluidity. Yet that of the East as the rising Star which becomes the labourer in the depths. The continual labouring of Martha, that a Mary brings the answer through the expansion brought about by the continual spiritual rebirth.

The soul ever embracing the descending Law, and raising it up in the depths as the raising up of the darkness of matter, yet ever through Venus learning to establish Love. When the lesson is learnt, the soul becomes immortal, but until, becomes a weak old woman in giving out of her wealth to the earth. While the higher mind all alight, is seeking to reimburse both if they would only respond by means of returning aspiration and creative belief. Sending wealth back up to the heights, that they, as the Constellatory creation, would be able to send down to the Earth new life.

The Secret of Eternal Life

BUT like all things being born anew, the oak uprooted by the Storm, where ugly and old Osseo goes in one end and comes out the other renewed unto spiritual youth, is Saturn being transformed into Apollo. The soul was old through clinging to the earthy states, but which suddenly becomes transformed into that of youth by the power of the spirit hidden in the tree of growth. Yet where the soul awakens to Reality, the importance of the other side of the picture.

Then Iagoo tells of how they ever went on, for Osseo regains his youth, but poor Oweenee his wife remains old and wrinkled. So they ever plod on until they come to the tent sacred to the Star of Evening, where Osseo was told to taste of the royal food of Neptune, and put it into action. When Osseo arrived there, everybody was feasting, and as he sat thinking, a voice said "O! my son, best beloved, all the old charms and evil has been broken, come to me."

Here was Cinders in the depths transforming all the states of the soul, and lifting up the planes. The burden of TIME being transformed, she as the personality bringing forth the son, and now bringing forth of the Father. The fire of the Seed becoming the radiance of the Arc, for all states were being gathered in and buried in, in the copulation of the heights and depths becoming of the spirit.

This now was through Polyphemus becoming of the Neptunian wealth and not just the son, but being born of the depths of the Ursa Major.

SOLAR PNEUMATIKON GLORY

action, with Merope as its spinning hub driving it from her own active base in the Royal Temple. So men may come and men may go with new ideas of religion, but they cannot change the revolving Waters that are driving the Solar Field into its revolving expansion.

The mighty Waters of the united EL Powers, the Source and continuity of life, the fiery depths of the mystical Antares Waters, brought into birth by Merope. Mars and Uranus the WILL to be, bringing the mystical "IT" into action out of the hidden depths. Yet the glorious and Royal LORD of the Kingdom of the Solar Field, the new World of Arielised Mind Light.

(See plate in cols. 4 & 5)

The World of Inner Reality

THUS as Merope spun up from the heights to depths, the mighty men in the heights began to stir and send down to the world below a sperming action of light. Thereby causing the fires in the depths to boil, and set up a revolving self-driving action, bringing forth the mighty wealth from the depths of the Fount to feed the internal revolution.

Therefore as the soul seeks into the WORD, it feeds the mystical action of rebirth through the inner momentum of the mystical Brahmic Thread, the mystic road of continuity. That which has been gathered up through Aeons of TIME, and the whole galactic wealth of the soul.

The mystical glory of Atlantis and before, in worlds beyond man's belief and understanding. Worlds of glory, regal and divine, that were the means of the soul coming forth, and the mystical Stream of holy Water feeding the world with unfolding life.

Thus here was the Solar Field alight and electrified by Merope's activated unification. A glorified incorporated radiant life, the basic now for a new Kingdom, and man to become an independent cell life, yet but the attribute unto the whole. The way and means of the Fountain in the depths, spiralling the mystical Waters of continuity up to the sperming heights. The whole field of le Ros that brings the unified mind into birth as the solarised-glory of the planes.

Therefore, Merope now perceiving the mystical wonder she had brought into birth, decided to begin its establishment in the depths, by spiralling up to the heights. There as woman to become born of the Kirtle of God, the mystical glory of the heights. So she brought forth her chariot of pink wampum shell, that born from the depths, and her dapple grey horses, the wealth of her passionate unfolding waters, and harnessed their champing forces.

Then began to prepare the dance of le Ros, that would create the glorious edifice in the depths, whereby man would have a royal monument, a prototype in the density of matter, to re-create the glories of the Antares Fires. Thus a living cameo in the depths, a glorious creation created and carved in the mystical rock of TIME.

So as she pulled out from the world of form to begin her mystic dance, her horses took on the glory of Pegasus and spread forth their mighty wings. They rose as only such elevated creatures could rise in the world of mystical life, for such was of the internal glory of the royal solar pneumatikon plane. The internal seven worlds of immortal divinity, that which belongs to the Solar cosmic creation, the inner world of frequency and sensitivity.

A WORLD WHERE MAN CLIMBS UP THROUGH THE MIND OF BELIEF, UNITING HIMSELF WITH THE WORLD OF OUTER-SPACE, THE FIERY INFLOW OF THE HEAVENLY WATERS.

Therefore as her chariot began to rise, the sparkling life between depths and heights began to quiver and sparkle. For now it was of electrified mobility, sensitivity dancing with radiating action, the unified wonders of the El fires. Man alight with the glories of the heavens, the majestic splendours of the heavenly waters. Unknown to himself, man had been filled with Cosmic rebirth, set into operation by the Scapegoat Merope. Therefore the possibilities of the Human Race are dynamic in its hopes and status of expansion. For its unfolding is now royal and divine, not merely of the world of form, but a world of light and holy revelation that can bring untold magnitude into birth.

The Neptunian Glories

THEREFORE up Merope rose through the electrified planes, where a radiational current was revolving. Her horses dancing in and out as they caught the beam, and rose higher and higher. For now the whole of the Solar Field was in a whirling electrified action, spiralling up to the heights.

For Merope was now as the Vesica Piscis, a spiralling inflow of active power from the inflowing Galactic system. Powers filled with light and wisdom gathered all over the Ages, feeding the soul with energy and purpose, that Uranus must now friction into active motion. Building up a world of radiating beauty, where man was the energised radiance of all that was radiating within him.

A source of power that could help and balance all men, yet never lose its source of becoming. For was not Merope now the promised Vesica Piscis, the cherished prize of many a Mystic over the Ages, the Source of Eternal Life. The Fountain of Youth now the inflowing Waters from the depths, that which was feeding and spiralling the soul ever up into eternal glory. For with its unity with the heights, it kept the soul universally revolving, and dancing with all its glories of the eternal creation.

A radiance of whirling life sparking with joy and sensitivity, for the whole of their thought, purpose and action, was of the Uranian divinity. A soul human, yet divine, for they understood all the angles of life, living the Source for the truth of being, now brought to its royal creative revelation.

Everywhere colours and wonders were unfolding and building up out of the swirling waters, for Merope knew that she was spinning up into the Neptunian glories. Unifying the glories of Outer-space with the royal divinity revolving within her unifying eternal magnitude of becoming. Therefore up she rose at a speed of revolving activity that could spin life into the lost and needy, for now she as the radiant sparking Uranian dance, was the measure for all men to capture.

Thus it opened out into an enormous ballet scene, where all was dancing life, with activity and beauty inter-blending as mind and fire revolving into one. For life was now of the glories of unification, the beauty of never ending becoming. For while the soul ever spun life upwards and onwards to that glorious Flame in the heavens, would the unifying powers of heights and depths, ever keep them radiating with joy and life. For to them they saw the mystical wonders of the glories unseen by the world of form. That which now unfolds to the soul through the active motion of undulation.

Therefore Merope spun up higher and higher, unfolding the glories of the rhythmic depths. That which only Uranus could reveal, as Venus danced in its glorious divinity. Therefore she as Venus-Urania was now the spinning life, a dancing divinity out of the world of form, yet a soul born from its internal glories. Thus the scene now as a mighty ballet creation, filled with all the wonders of the Mystic world, suddenly became as an enormous up-turned elephant's foot crusted and sparkling with glorious jewels. For all life was now caught up with this mighty magnitude of the Galactic unification.

The glories of the inflowing Waters swirling the soul round and round in its mighty revolving glory, for this now was a world of heavenly beauty, the gigantic foot as a black magic transparent surface of light.

For man was alive now through her unification, and dancing free to the glorious waltz of the royal Blue Danube. The now inflowing waters of the radiating mind sparking with life, light and divinity, all Neptunianly electrified. For here was the Elephant Power as the elephant's foot, now his support and glorious story of a mighty rebirth. But man as the glorious figure of dancing life, spinning up out of the Saturnian darkness into the glories of the radiant heavenly mind, was lost for the time to its beauty.

Yet there above in a mighty concave, was a gigantic auditorium of pale misty pink, filled to the full with divine birds of paradise, flying from bough to bough. The divine Word in all its glory manifesting the rhythmic beauty of the depths, as they sang their divinity to the world beneath of its unified mystical glory.

THE OVERSHADOWING PRESENCE

SUCH glory was only known to the soul, as the Heavenly Divinity radiant with life, shone through the flowering consciousness, for under the shadow of those divine wings, wonders and magnificent became Glorium En Fideum. (See text in col. 1).

internal glory of Uranian revelation that spun the soul by its inward internal motion, up to the glories of the mystical unknown.

Thus up she rose it to its Neptunian heights, where life and divinity revealed its glory, its radiant wonders of mystic genius. For man lost in the density of form, knew not of the glories of the elevated mind born from the exhilarated action of mind and fire, glories united into the spiritus air.

For now Merope, unifying both heaven and earth, was born of the Glorious Flame, and saw and beheld what no other could perceive, the internal magnitude of the Central Sun in that Galactic glorification. For now it embodied the whole of the heavens, with the sun, moon and stars all incorporated as unified life, and shining under the sole of that

The Wealth from Outer Space

BUT this was only the beginning of her mind unfolding as she rose up higher and higher. The glorious revelation of her dancing mind as it opened up to the Uranian divinity. A soul born into the glories of the mystical waters, no longer the playground of the soul, but the dancing glories of his exhilarated passionate mind, now fired by the Antares Waters.

A soul risen up by the partaken Word fired by the glory of the perceptory principle, revealing the mystical glory of the hidden depths, the nut nucleus in the royal garden of life.

(See plate on page 9)

Here now was all the glories of Medo-Persia bursting into life, for was it not he, the plowing Bull, who drew those waters down, but never rose them up

THE MYSTERY OF CREATION

WOMAN as the dynamic creator of mystery, gives unto Seb, the 'goose' in the depths, the power of continuity in the ever laying of 'eggs.' For he as the scarabaeus is the upholder of life by his struggles and virtues in the depths, yet wealth untold is his portion, and the mystery of his dynamic magnitude. (See text on page 16, col. 1).

into glory of the dancing radiating mind. Now Merope had mastered that difficulty, and taken the glories up to the heights, where she as the unified Fawn was the spirit brought forth out of the divinity of the unification.

The HER now re-united with the HIM, the glorious Fatherhood that gave her birth.

The negative humid depths now returned into its positive divine allocation, but now with all the glories and wonders of the created perceptive mind. Yet this was of the first revelation, the dancing glorious mind, for now as she rose up higher, the mystical depths of the greater interpenetration began to unfold its wonders. For mystical Voices began to surge onto her ear from out of the unseen depths. Glories of wisdom and unheard rhythm became of her pulsating mind.

Wealth from outer-space becoming as her mind revelation from out of its Aged depths. All that had been, unified into a point of becoming, and a manifestation of magnitude of glory, as the mighty singing heavens of angelic hosts.

Therefore as she rose up, she merged into a mist of golden light continually moving upwards and onwards, increasing her speed as she went. For now by her internal revolution, speed no longer was a deterrent one way or another. She was the revolving activity, the mystical glory of becoming. Then, rising yet higher, she suddenly came out of the radiating mist that had been swirling all around her, to find herself drawing to a royal courtyard of a magnificent Temple all radiating with scintillating light.

Glories she had never seen before in such sparkling beauty, causing every nerve within her pulsating body to quiver with its penetrating atomic infusion. For here was the replica of what she had set into motion in the depths, but now of its divine Reality. That which she had brought into birth, when she was struggling to bring the Word and spirit action into active life.

Therefore as she brought her chariot to a halt before its immense portals, all around was a glorious infusion of radiating plants and trees. All glistening with the electrification that she had now set into operation, sending forth their electrified radiance to any who could capture their beauty. Singing birds and dancing parakeets that swung from bough to bough, giving life and freedom to the soul in the new world of electrified elevation.

As Merope approached the portals of this glorified creation, she saw that instead of pillars to hold up its mighty Arc, there were two huge elephants with enormous tusks supporting the massive archway above the royal and regal entry. Motionless and stately they stared ahead, proud of their sacred duty, for were they not the unified mystery of that once brought forth and forgotten.

The mystical depth of the mighty wealth of the Galactic glories that now were unifying all the planes, and the mighty wealth for every soul to sup into birth by the infusion of FIRE and AIR.

The mystery that she had set into operation in the world of form, but risen up by the mystical glory of the atomised infused passionate waters. As Merope entered into this amazing spectacle, she darted in and out between their glory, for each one was a radiating immensity, bearing the mystery of the past. Finally she came to a massive door at the far side, and turning the glorious jewelled handle, she opened this mystery of the internal activation spun up to its mysterious point of becoming.

But at last Merope came to another door of polished oak, exquisite with ivory designs and glorious carvings. With fear and awe she turned the jewelled handle, and entered with gasping wonder, then immediately knew that here was the inner sanctum of this mighty and glorious edifice.

A creation built by Merope in the depths as the mystery of a Taj Mahal; a glory created throne, where she was gracefully seated. All radiant now in her bridal garments of filmy spiritual beauty, that shone with a light that could only come from one so spiritually unified.

As she became seated, the mighty Presence took his seat on the right hand of his bride, then as if by unseen powers, the thrones moved back to back with the Great Lord Maitreya facing the East, while Merope was facing the West. Then there formed a dome over their heads in the form of two mighty Arcs; one from the North to the South, and the other from the East to the West.

THE PERCEPTORY PRINCIPLE

ONLY Merope knew the glories that were now coming into birth, revealing unknown depths through the firing infusion, for as it rose her higher and higher she became born of the dynamic magnitude of those heavenly heights. (See text page 12, col. 5).

from and bring into birth their hidden genius.

As Merope gazed at the wonder before her, she found an inner force stirring within her that set a greater active motion into operation, drawing her into its inner depths. For she found herself now spinning up into the inner depths of this mysterious creation, and although a part of her wanted to stop, she found it was impossible to do so. She found it was impossible to repel this inner revolving force that now drove her ever onwards and upwards by its dynamic energetic infusion.

As she entered the spacious hall of this magnificent edifice, she saw that it was filled with multitudes of glorious radiating elephants. Some large and some small, all royally bedecked in rich and royal covering as if prepared for a mighty procession never set into action before.

Although a revelation, yet a mystical reality, for it was of the glories of the unfolding mind; the wealth now coming mysterious unknown, and entered in, to perceive a long arcade of mysterious and mystical emblems.

Axes and swords, and shields in abundance that Merope had won in the depths beneath, and now the trophies of the Mighty Master, whose abode this glorious creation now be. As she gazed at what had been the result of her struggles, amazement left her bewildered for the moment, and almost bereft of speech. Then with a new surge of life coming from the unfolding revelations, she found a mysterious exhilaration dancing within her as she drove on through the inner precincts of this massive creation in the heights.

For here was the WORLD OF MIGHTY MEN, but now as an AURIC SPLENDOR; for what had been merely a created light, was now the blazing Flame of a mighty Presence that had become the glorified creation of the mind.

The Royal Flame

ON she went through the unfolding scintillating beauty that borrows of the depths of form, yet a radiance that was of the elevated mind, bringing glories to bear of its mighty portents. Till finally she came to a large hall set and prepared for a massive banquet, as though many lords were to partake of a glory that now had risen up to a unified peak. But Merope found that her feet, now dancing merrily ahead, carried her onwards and upwards. For always it seemed whatever she moved forward in, it was always upwards and onwards.

But as she moved on beyond this massive regal hall, she found the light gradually becoming dimmed, as though entering into a world of mystery, for she then began to sense a mighty feeling of intense reverence as it moved in the air around.

Thus with an air of trepidation, her feet slowed up their movement, although her internal active revolution continued in its momentum of active life. For what lay ahead was of its dynamic unification that was the in the Waters below as a reflection in the depths. But now as a glorious rebirth of life, all scintillating with radiating beauty and the glories of unification. The fiery rebirth of the Antarctic Waters, now a glorified edifice in the heights.

Thus all around were scintillating ruby red lights that shot forth energy and radiance with every energising beam. While at the far end of this awe inspiring room, was an altar covered with a richly designed cloth, with golden threads running through its whole entirety. A golden bowl of exquisite workmanship stood upon the top, and above it, in a small alcove stood a jewel encrusted casket. Then moving forward, Merope took down this precious box and placed it onto the altar next to the bowl, that its light could infuse its lesser creation into that internal Divinity.

Carefully and with utter awe she opened the lid, and there radiating inside was a brilliant LIGHT, a Glorious Fiery Flame. That which held of a royalty all of its own, and the mystery of Merope's creation in the depths. For as she stood there, she watched the bowl and casket merge together as mystical creations ever do. With the casket melting into the bowl, leaving its scintillating jewels encrusted in the sides of the bowl.

For there within that glorious bowl, the replica of that glorious creation in the depths, shining more strongly than ever, was the Royal Flame, that now had been unified with the Bowl of Life.

After this Initiatory preparation, she was then led forth to where a spiral staircase of gold spiralled up into the heavenly vaults. As she climbed, each step took on of a more brilliant light, enveloping her in its glorious radiance, till finally she entered into a glorious Throne Room richly furnished with scarlet and gold. Radiating and scintillating with sparkling radiance in every form and beauty.

As she entered, a Divine Presence, formless yet conscious to Merope in her now perceptory attunement, came forward and led her to the left hand

Then suddenly a Stream of sparkling crystal Waters came forth from North to South, while a Stream of Fire came forth from the East to unite with the water, exploding like a mighty mushroom in a nuclear explosion. Then as it rose up it brought into birth a still greater and more mighty Temple of dynamic magnificence. So divine and ethereal, that no Words could ever portray its beauty, it belonged to the glorified heavenly Spheres.

All the time divine music was being played, the like never heard upon the earth before, then suddenly there was a pealing of Bells, that resounded right across the heavens. So beautiful in their radiant tone, that it had the message of heralding a Great Cosmic Birth, the first of its mighty magnitude.

IT WAS OF SUCH TREMENDOUS AND MIGHTY IMPORTANCE, AND SO RICH IN ITS DYNAMIC APPLICATION, THAT THE LAW HAD BEEN SET FOR ALL TIME, AND THE WAY PAVED FOR ALL MEN TO SET THEIR FEET ON THE UPWARD PATH.

Thus the pain and suffering, confusion and anxiety that had been the lot of the Scapegoat Merope, was the fuse that had to be lit to bring about the great and Glorious Ascension.

For LOVE thy name is Woman,

Who carried the woes of every Age,

O' LAMB of God Divine.

As Merope watched, she found an inner surging as though two states of perception were at work. One that was the inner convergence of the inner unification with that glorious Divinity, and the other the perceptory creation of the still human soul seeing it through human eyes. Symbolising the unity between depths and heights, with man and the Cosmos.

The Holy unification that Merope had now accomplished through the assimilation of the Elements as she passed through the Isotopic Furnace. That which had never come into birth before, although dabbled with as the passage of TIME.

Readers' Letters

MRS. Evans from Colchester, Essex, mentions that at the present moment she understands very little of the wisdom, but does realize its Truth. This is what many of our readers find at first, but it is the Truth within the teachings that the higher mind of the soul recognises and clings to. Though it is a gradual process of assimilation, it is well worth the struggle involved, for it opens up a new world of understanding to the soul, a world free from form and the desires of the Earth, where the mind can dance up and down the planes, and experience the joy that comes by that conscious link with Spirit. The important thing is not to despair of ever fully comprehending, but to constantly send out to those Divine Powers of the Heights in genuine prayer and aspiration. By this you will forge a firm link with those heights and be given guidance by them.

★ The Way to Better Health ★

Mrs. G. Evans, Earls Colne, Colchester, Essex.

Thank you sincerely for all your help towards my better health and well being. I am finding the herbs you suggested have been and are of great benefit, especially the one recommended for my eyes. These are responding wonderfully and my general health too, from your prayers and loving interest.

I pray your great and noble work will bring great fruition to all mankind, as I feel this is indeed the way we should go. I would be glad if you would send me the following herbs—Dandelion, Agrimony, Yarrow and chickweed for eyes. Also 2 boxes Nerve Pills. These I feel have helped me to make steady progress. I enclose cheque hoping this will cover costs and maybe leave some over towards your noble work.

Second Letter from Mrs. Evans.

Loving and joyous greetings, and thanks for sending the herbs all of which arrived safely. Although I can understand very little of this teaching as given out by your beloved Teacher and Guide Gladys Spearman-Cook, I realise its Truth. The deeper finer meaning may be hidden from my understanding till I grow into this deeper consciousness and then into the realization of its Truth. This is I think my last teacher as predicted for me, and I pray I may keep my feet upon the path till I am called up yonder. Thanking you all sincerely for your loving help sent to me through the higher planes of healing. All blessings, love and peace abide ever and always.

P.S. Enclosed is a small love-gift.

Mrs. S—, Hants.

(N.B. This reader wishes to remain anonymous).

As you are well aware, I only write to you to say something I feel is important, because you must get so many letters.

This is to say that ever since (and before, but more so now) I had a talk to James Averill and two journeys to your wonderful Sanctuary—each day and during the day, I seem to draw down the glorious peace and harmony and Healing Rays. I can concentrate on prayer for all my fellow beings, also all at the Sanctuary for great courage in strength and power for all good of mankind. Thank you all for all the wonderful literature in your magazine. Bless you all!

Mrs. Lilian Castle, Rochester, Kent.

Please will you kindly send me some more Nerve Pills for my husband, he found that they did help him so much when he took them earlier in the year, he takes his other herbs regularly each day and he is maintaining the wonderful healing he has already received. We are so grateful for this to our teacher Mrs. Spearman-Cook and our beloved Lord Maitreya. How lovely it was to see her dear face on B.B.C.2, and to hear his voice speak was really thrilling. It will be a happy memory to us all especially to know how this wonderful teaching has been put on the air to help reach others and we hope bring more pupils.

So thank you all at No. 6 for all your love and work to bring light and truth to this dear old earth plane of ours.

Mrs. M. Brailsford, Mansfield, Notts.

Thank you for the herbs received. I am feeling much better, and have to report a lessening of the lump on my thigh. A friend of mine is writing to you for herbs. I advised him to do so. I am sure you can help him both Spiritually and Physically. Once again I must thank you and never failed to wonder how I have been lead to contact your wonderful school. How can one find words which express the wonderful enlightenment of mind through the Lectures? How sad when I realise how many years wasted continually going round in circles! How grateful I am that at last I've been rescued, and at last have a foothold on the pathway of Self Abnegation. How many thousands of people there must be whose only words can possibly be, simply Thank you!!! to one responsible for such a magnitude of Spirit.

A Determination to Recover

Mrs. V. B., Chicago, U.S.A.

FAITH TELLS ME YOU WILL HELP ME! Just when all sources of help I knew were exhausted, I heard of your wonderful work through a friend and was encouraged to write to you immediately. I would deem it a great privilege if you would care to help me, and advise me what to do to regain my physical health and find better spiritual understanding... In 1957 I suffered from Leukemia and Cancer of the Throat and was miraculously healed through spiritual help. There was no reoccurrence of this condition but now (1966) my left hip is becoming stiff and is very painful. A laboratory report showed "two plus in the blood" and x-rays indicated a shadow in the left kidney, a possible tumor, I am told. Again, I was seeking spiritual healing through my old sources but without result to date.

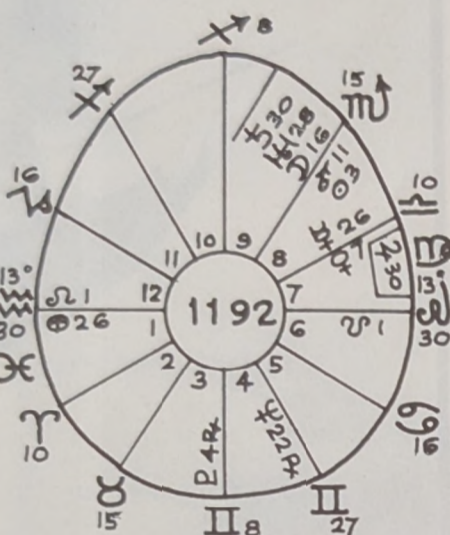

I am a determined individual and persistent in my tasks but at present do not know what direction to take. Please help me and advise me what to do. All my life I have been seeking the "Holy Ghost" (spiritual light) and have sacrificed much to find it. Where am I failing? I am very anxious to have your reply and start "doing" and let me assure you of my gratefulness for anything you will tell me. If you wish to have more information, I will be glad to comply.

My best wishes to you, your great work, and my humble thanks.

HAVING enquired into this lady's chart we find she has no planets in any fire sign, and with Mercury, Sun and especially Mars in the eighth house, it suggests a definite lack of drive. Also Aquarius on the ascendant would give a timid approach to matters. Mrs. B. says she is a determined and persistent individual, but her chart does not suggest this, what it does show is that she has five fixed signs, and with the Sun in Scorpio, plus four other planets, it would suggest that she has a very fixed and stubborn attitude to life, unwilling to drive into new and expansive ideas, but this would be due to her lack of fire. All her ill health is due to this lack of drive, otherwise the chart is propitious.

Although she has no fire in the chart, there is plenty of air and water, enabling her to get a mind friction, but she must get the fire and this can only come through her driving the issue, putting a little extra effort into her actions.

Her karmic points indicate that her mind has never opened up to the Spirit to the extent that she needs it, and this is emphasised by her Sun, her spiritual growth, being down the eighth house, which can be regarded as the 'pit' of the chart.

We cannot tell from her letter as to what her diet is, but would recommend that she reads the diet article in this month's Gazette, which should give a good understanding as to what should be taken, in order to cleanse the body of waste and so enable it to perform its proper functions.

Herbs we would recommend are BUCHU, DANDELION and AGRIMONY, our three cleansing herbs, plus HORSE-TAIL and HOLY THISTLE which should help to bring activity, and lastly MARI-GOLD FLOWERS which will help in drawing the solar rays into her.

If these herbs were taken on a three day rota, one group each day, and she called down the SOLAR RAYS into her as often as possible, much benefit should be obtained, and she should find her whole system generally in a far better condition. Also the stiffness in her left hip could be greatly helped by her rubbing a mixture of AMBER and CAMPHORATED OIL upon it, as this has been found to be one of the best treatments for such trouble.

Then the next important item for Mrs. B. is for her to get down to hard study where the wisdom is concerned, for this is very necessary to her, and should, in itself, open up her mind to new ideas, but she must work hard to overcome her fixed attitude to life, as this is preventing her obtaining the fire she needs, and is her basic problem.

★ The Perfect Peace of Spirit ★

Mr. S. G. Gima, Ibadan, Nigeria.

Your organization has been introduced to me as one of the best healing homes in the United Kingdom. It has long been my desire to become a spiritualist for personal advantage and in order to help others. I eagerly await an urgent reply.

Rev. Dr. G. C. Harwood, Jacksonsville, Fla., U.S.A.

I have come into possession of a few copies of Occult Magazine published during 1961. I find them the most informative publication regarding the occult subject ever read. Is it possible I can get back issues up to date of this marvellous publication? What other publications carry the teachings published in this magazine? Quote me prices etc... in American language.

For several years I was a devout student of Dr. G. R. Clements of Sebring, Fla. Also was employed with William Dudley Pelley several years ago... a great spiritual genius. Also have the Prof. Estep teachings of several years ago.

These ideas expressed in the Gazette are the very heart of my interest and have been for many, many years. I have been a vegetarian 30 years. Over 400 people have been to me for Spirit-psychic Healing. If you do not have all the back issues kindly inform me of other sources where I may get them. Kindest regards in the Name of Truth.

Mrs. P. of South Australia.

The O.G. as it is affectionately called, comes with faithful regularity, bless you all. My heart was very sad when I read that our Leader, Mrs. Spearman-Cook may not be with us in the flesh at some future time. This is something which comes to us all at sometime during the earthly life. Our Leader has not had an easy life and she has striven long and tenaciously towards her goal and has attained it, thru her own wonderful efforts and the help of those dear ones near her. Though so far away and unable to give a helping hand whenever such was needed, I have been thousands of times there in thought. When the opportunity arises do convey my love to our sister and leader. She has truly done a wonderful work and her reward awaits her in Spirit where there will be no more hurts or partings, but perfect unionism, Peace, Love and Compassionate Understanding and the bruised heart will dwell in peace, the perfect peace of Spirit.

Love to you all. Although the writer of this letter did ask us not to print it, we felt it was such a sincere tribute, and one that so expressed the thoughts of us all, that it should appear in the Gazette. We do offer our sincere apologies to Mrs. P. and hope that she will not be offended by our action. (Editor).

★ Friendly Study Groups ★

Mrs. A. L. Thomas, 35, Freshfield Road, Brighton, Sussex.

Will you please send me the School's Astrological Dictionary, for which I enclose cheque. I would very much like to join a study group, is there one yet in Brighton?

If there are any readers in Brighton who would be willing to form a study group with Mrs. Thomas will they please contact her at the above address. (Editor).

Mrs. Heydenreich, Kansas City, Kansas, U.S.A.

Was very happy to hear of your new T.V. program "Whickers World," starting July 23rd. Wish we could view it over here. I know many souls will be blessed by its spiritual impression. I am also enclosing this poem that was given to me by Spirit sometime back. One more favour I ask. Could you please print my name and telephone number plus stating my desire to contact all of your readers in this K.C. Missouri and K.C. Kansas area? My name: MARIE L. HEYDENREICH. Telephone No. ATLANTIC 9-7309.

I am trying very hard to begin classes, but at first I must find a few beginners in this Philosophy. My love and blessings to you all. Thanks to you all!

SOLAR PNEUMATIKON GLORY

The Fountain of Youth

by Gladys I. Spearman-Cook*

THE MYSTICAL STORY OF THE ELECTRIFICATION, NOW LEAVES US WITH THE INNER SEARCH TO FIND THE Fountain of Rebirth. For as we now become reborn of the glorious Solar Field, do we also become born of the mighty Galactic System. Thereby the soul is born of the united depths and heights. Thus the story of Little Mook as the mystical wisdom perceived in the world of Medo-Persia, but never brought unto Solarisation, as performed by Merope in the Age of Aquarius. She who perceived the depths, and set the Holy Fires revolving once again into internal unification. But this time as a revolving truth, awaiting each soul to flare it up into electrified life. FOR UNLESS MAN "EATS" OF THE WORD AS THE CHRONICLES HANDED DOWN FROM THE DEPTHS, HE WILL NEVER ENERGISE THAT FIERY INTERNAL LIFE INTO AN ELECTRIFIED MIND APPARATUS OF DANCING RADIANT LIFE.

Unification of the Holy Fires

THIS was seen quite clearly by the Egyptians as they left the hieroglyphics of the mighty CREATION. Woman as the giver forth of life as the HER offset from the mystical side of Adam. She who handed to man the wherewithal to bring the dynamic wealth of past Ages into present rebirth.

But now it has reversed its order of creation, with man surviving out of the waters, seeking to bring forth the glories of the depths, that the mighty men as element life in the world of the Central Sun, can now be the glorified world of the Solar sensitivity blossoming into ELECTRIFIED MIND LIFE.

The Egyptians understood this as HER coming into birth from HIM, the great Lord Brahma of all LIFE. From this, life was going to issue forth, but fell into a state of inertia. Then Merope, the Venusian goddess called down the Holy Fires, which only resulted in man becoming a scarabaeus, and rolling all his holy eggs in the dung. This is seen quite clearly in this ancient hieroglyphic plate, reproduced from the pillars of their magnificent Temples.

Merope has now proved by her previous lecture, of how by unified action, the unification of relativity, that man and the Elements are one. Both revolving within each other as the mind of Light coming into birth.

Thus only the ancient Chronicles, as this plate of Egypt handed down to man, and redigested and brought back into birth, can help him find the way to unfoldment. Therefore bring the glories of that mighty truth once established and now forgotten, into a modern created manifestation. As little Mook, Merope had to find her magic slippers, and the mystical stick with its ivory knob that led her into seeking unseen wonders. That belonged to the past, and hidden in the mystical sands of the desert.

These she acquired through the ancient wisdom and set the El fires roaring, causing the Antares Waters to flow once again, but this time as the solarised electrified manifestation. While the slippers would be the means of revolving her round and round in the freedom of TIME-less-ness; freeing her feet from the magnetic depths, as she spun up and down the Solar Field, the human right of the mystical way. With the mystical stick with its ivory knob, the hidden secret to be revealed; the glories of the sensitised spine as it ever leads the soul in its search for truth in the mighty depths.

Thus the unification that now takes place, as the depths are unified with the heights, incorporating all the mysteries and dualities of life into a mighty ONENESS. For that is the mystery now to come forth as the Solar Pneumatikon Glory, as the soul finds the fountain of Youth, through the reborn WILL to achieve it.

THE DIVINE ISOTOPE

*S*HE who gave man life now reborn of her harvest, where she became the whole atomic point of the Galactical divinity, for as man giveth so shall he be, by the law of retribution. (See text on page 12, col. 4).

THE WILL BEING THE MALE ELEMENT TO COME FORTH AS THE VOICE OF GOD; THE DETERMINA-TION TO DO AND DARE, AND MANIFEST THE HOLY WATERS.

Otherwise it is a female element of merely live and exist, with no impetus to rise. Thus search and become and overcome all opposition, establishing the right of way. Hence born of desire as the lower Venusian possibilities, and not as the risen Venus-Urania.

But man has ever shunned this course of purpose and lived in his feminine attributes, thereby never building up a world of LIGHT, but a world of humid waters. This was slowly destroying the Seed, that which held the mystical Galactical Waters, the glories of the fulness of TIME.

So Merope was set the mighty task of drawing down the upper EL Fires and uniting them with her El fires of the depths.

The task set for man, which he refused to do by only embracing the negative. So there was only one thing that could now come forth, that Merope got under the Kirtle of God and united the glories of the Waters. Thus receive from the Great One the Holy Fire, but through her own element fired bloodstream. Changing its alchemicalisation as she partook of its fiery rebirth, the mystery of Daniel and Nebuchadnezzar.

The Rebirth of the Arielised Mind

MYSTERIES that were ever known to the Age of Taurus, the mystical time of Medo-Persia, but they without the courage to bring them into birth as the glories of the raised up mind. Thus merely left legends of mystical wonder, the glories of possibilities untold. Hence Daniel cried "is this all it will do," as he was told, "the Book was sealed and closed."

So now the story lay for Merope to put into operation, that the world could become reborn. Therefore as she brought the Solar Field into action in the Cosmic creation, her task now was to manifest it in the depths of matter, and raise up the mind of man.

The transforming and building up of this mighty edifice in the depths, whereby a Taj Mahal truly begins to come forth. A spinning glory of light and beauty, and not a reflection in the waters. For here in this depth would be the mighty Fount, the basis of the Axis of heaven and earth. That whereby all transforming wonders would start to come forth into active birth, and spiral up into the heavenly heights.

A radiant world of arielised mind that could spin up and down in a revolving action, drawing in the wealth from Outer Space, all the glories of the Galactical System. The revolving waters of the internal being, the glory of the etheric creation.

As the Little Mook, the Christos Dwarf, drawing forth the mysteries from the base of the fountain, finding with his magic stick the wealth hidden in the glorious garden of the young and beautiful princess. Yet the little Dwarf now the royal court runner, the Solar Divinity suddenly brought into life, from out of the darkness of avidya.

Man awakening to his own inner wealth, but too afraid to enter into its depths, that he can bring forth its royal and holy glory. Awakened he has, yet but the beginning to the mystical changes that are now about to take place. For once a Scapegoat sets the LAW into action, man is fed by its royal and holy rebirth.

For the Solar Field is now all set in its united revolving
