EMPIRICAL UNFOLDMENT OF THE SOLAR PATH

by Gladys I. Spearman-Cook*

HERE WE NOW BEGIN THE PATH of the mighty mystery, of the unfolding of the Star of David. The glories of the Waters, the mystery of the deep, the depth and glory of WOMAN now being in its creation, the Empirical Unfoldment of the Solar risen Path; the way to recreate of the mysteries of the heights and depths, bringing forth the glories of the spirit on the immortal path... Yet the secret of this mighty mystery, now lies in the inaudible sound of the mystical Waters of the North, that of the Ultra-sonic becoming the audible frequency of the galactical rebirth. Where the rosy hue of Antares magnitude is brought to the glory of the Central Sun.

The Mystic Path

THE way made clear to every man of their rise up from the depths, that the heavenly Lords their way perceive, and begin to unfold the protogenetic, the Fire-formed rocks in the depths. A road that only the wise and well prepared would have sought, to spin their gyroscopic flight; but now, by the raising up of the planes by the Scapegoat, every field of endeavour is laid wide open for every man to tread his measure. Thereby reach their heights and be enfolded into the depths of the Macrocosmic night. The mighty glory of the Macroprosopus, the FACE brought forth from all the Creation of TIME. AGE in its mystic revelation, spinning up to the starry heights.

Therefore the path now that we seek to unfold, is the path of the Mystic glory, the wonders and the magnitude that will reveal of the heavens in the earth beneath. Where those Fire-formed rocks filled with the heavenly light, as human creations in the depths, will now give forth of their stolen glory, and spin up to the planes above.

THE UNFOLDING VENUS-URANIA

WOMAN raised up from the lunar to the Solar, now being shown the way to adorn her wings and bring into birth the positive creation as Venus-Urania. For the Cosmic TRUTH lies in the rebirth of the depths to the heights, with the FACE coming more and more fully into birth as the radiant splendour of the empirical unfoldment. WOMAN being the mystery to now reveal the Solar Path, her Sons brought forth in divine glory. (See text page 3, col. 1).

Editorial The Need For Discipline

THE individuality of the soul growth over the ages has ever been firmly held down in the unrelenting grip of Saturn, which at the present time is preventing many from gripping the mighty depths being offered them in the Gazette. The characteristics of man now merely becoming akin to that of the beast, his thoughts being of a very low nature. Now is the time when man must turn his thoughts upwards to the mysterium of Outer Space, that vast uncreated world of possibilities that is offered unto him by the downpouring elements, that by his aspirations and pure belief he too can build the Holy City within those mighty realms. For man is only mind, and by what is within his mind as his created beliefs, will he enter into that world frequency when he departs the plane of earth. Thereby one can see the importance now of becoming a part of that new world of divine life, for it is only by the created mind status that is built while upon earth that one is able to enter into those mysterious worlds of unseen glory, and this is what the Gazette is offering to one and all.

It is too late once one has left the earthplane to seek the mind expansion and soul growth that is necessary, it must be gained through the struggles of life and its experiences, and their transmutation into cosmic growth.

This can only be achieved by the soul relinquishing those states of earth that are holding him firmly to the magnetic rock, and of which the Word is the only answer, and which imprison him in folds of flesh until he can turn them in. This is where the disciplining of self must come in, the soul realising that such states are detrimental to his etheric growth, and merely the carriers of sickness and disease. That while he is held in the grip of illusion he is a nothingness within the true world of Solar Reality, thus must break the ties that bind, and raise up his consciousness into that of light.

He must turn to the wisdom, where by digesting it fully, these past states will all be turned in, many without his even being conscious of their existence. For it is by the Word, and that alone, that the inner bodies of the soul will be unified into spiritual harmony. As the soul does this, so is his frequency raised up, and he becomes born of that plane of consciousness, ever being able to perceive of the greater depths of life and its means of becoming.

WE have people writing in to us saying that they cannot understand the teachings in the Gazette, and who have made no attempt to struggle with it, and extract its meaning. They are those who will not let go of the earth and its lower desires, and who do not want the responsibility of knowing. This is the world of religion, of finance and comfort, where the easy chair is the easy way out, and the minds think no further than the next meal.

Yet it is a path that can only end in disaster for them, for the new operation, will they find the teachings within the Gazette becoming clearer, and stimulating them into an active drive of royal purpose, whereby they call out to the heights in prayer and aspiration, to link with them and guide them. By this they will feel the exhilaration of the Spirit dancing within them, spurring them on to greater effort, as the true purpose of life becomes more and more born within them.

expanding the fire into a more divine expression, whereby there would have been a continual revolving between heights and depths, and all would have moved on in its evolutionary cycle. Instead, there being no mind expression, the fires ran wild, and Mother Earth became saturated with the lower states, and the Sacred Fount, awaiting its rebirth in the heights, only became filled with earth and rubble. Thereby causing the Stream of Life to be cut off, with man completely lost to his divinity and royalty.

But now all the past states of creation that might have ensnared the seeker upon the Path, have been cleared away by the Royal Scapegoat, for which you and I should be eternally grateful, and the way is completely safe for the upward ascension. Man cannot now blame the fires for his troubles, for they have been given their true status of understanding as the Holy Fires of unfolding Life, the creative essence of the Christos.

If the soul follows their conscience they will not go far wrong, for they are then listening to the inner voice, which is of Truth, and not the worldly voice that only speaks of illusion.

If man would only realise that when he passes from earth he is only going to that which he has created in his mind, then he might struggle a great deal harder to rise up to those divine glories that are awaiting him in those mysterious realms of Outer Space, and which the Gazette makes possible to all, but it does call for continual sacrifice on his part, and does not allow for any falling back.

Self discipline is not man's greatest asset, especially at the present moment, but is the only way for him to become, in the glories of the Solar World, and must be the mode of living for the future Race.

So by struggling to understand the magnitude of wisdom that the Gazette offers, readers will be able to raise up their own capacity of thought and be able to pass on to others the same guidance.

IT IS A CONTINUAL CHALLENGE THAT MUST EVER BE MET, UNTIL SUDDENLY ONE DAY, THE SOUL FINDS THAT HE HAS PASSED THE POINT OF NO RETURN, AND MADE HIS WAY BACK HOME.

world of the Solar Mind has been born through the struggles of Merope, as she took the elements in all degrees and fused them into oneness. In so doing she unified the heights with the depths and brought it to its original status, awaiting the fiery expansion of the Word ; therefore all who do not build up of the mind will find themselves sadly lost to the reality of life, and will have to trudge the earthplane for countless years, and many lives, until they decide there is a greater side, and begin seeking into its possibilities. But not from a religious angle, but through the depths of the Word captured as wisdom, that will give them the unfoldment required.

As the soul struggles with the wisdom and strives to put it into

YET as the soul takes of the elements in their greater intensity, they must be sure to keep them well under control, and not let the fiery wealth they have taken drive them into the lower states of life, for with the taking of the elements there is always the battle with the black scorpion, the negative state of the fire.

This is where the disciplining of self must come to the fore, or all wealth gained will be lost for the present, until it can be resurrected at a later date. This was the trouble in the beginning when the fire was drawn down, man could not hold its intensity of action, and all fell to the lower desires.

This would not have happened if there had been any mind creation

ESOTERIC LECTURES

DO YOU KNOW that on Wednesdays and Sundays a lecture is given at the School, followed by a film esoterically described by the Lord Maitreya. A wide variety of films are shown, all of which are extremely interesting. These evenings are open to all members of the public, to whom a warm welcome is cordially extended. The Sunday lecture (6.30 p.m.) may be a little advanced for some, but that of Wednesday (7.15 p.m.) is of a simpler nature, and perfect for the beginner.

All now coming onto the plane of Air, the dance of the Ariel rise, where everything will be born from the heights, the glories of Outer-world Space. The induction of Spirit as the Ultra-sonic wave of inaudible mystery to be born, man no longer being fed by the waters of the lunar, but the Fiery glory of the electro-magnetic.

With the polarity of the Northern Heights, the mystery of the Asellus Borealis, now their unification. Yet the glory of the Ursa Major, the Reality of the Holy City, having been born in illusion in the world below. But now by realisation to be seen as the Ultra-sonic from the heights feeding the depths in its silent entry as ruach-breath, to eventually become as the mighty spouse of the Flame.

The glories of raised up Venus, the birth of LOVE born out of the rebirth of the Horns of the Goat, the ever changing Polyphemus, the beast created from the murky depths, holding the soul in captivity. Yet the mighty wealth now taken by the soul only in its first degrees of unfoldment.

THE REVOLVING CONTINUITY THAT CAN REVEAL THE GLORIES OF THE FIRE, THE MYSTERY OF THE BIRTH FROM OUT OF THE SIDE OF ADAM.

The HIM-HER that becomes as the Holy Seed of the depths, yet the evils of the Asellus Australis. Thereby only resulting in WOMAN of the depths, the negative creation of life, but which now, by the uprisen action of Merope, has given birth to HIM as the Holy Fire, and raised HIM up as the Great Lord of the Flame, to the mighty heights.

Thus as the Holy Spermer in the raised up ARC, the glory of the Central Sun now blazes on high, the radiance of the God-born day. For here is the SON of the Sun, the manifesting glories of the FIRE, that which feeds the world of Human life, with the Unction of the Eucharistical Magnitude, the mystery of the Dove. The reborn glory of the WORD in its ever rebounding Truth, for like the Coriander Seed, its Oil is never ending. Yet the unfolding pink EYE of the Dove, as the purified glory of Antares.

The electrified prototype as the mystical depths of the divine radiance of LOVE. The ever unfolding Spirit, yet the Word which is the embalming garment of the soul that preserves the Sanctum of its divinity. That which becomes as a radiance of astral defence, as the Uranian clarified mind becomes now a radar-born soul of the perceptory creation of awareness.

This now being the road of Empirical unfoldment, the mysteries of the heights that must now come into birth, as the revolving of continuity, to become the glories of the up-born rise, the mystery of Evolution.

Purifying the Void

THE Word as the pink petals of le Ros, the rose unfolding and stimulating its aroma into the now electrified void. That which up to the present had been filled with luna multiplicity from the depths of TIME, which now in unified Solar unification, has, as black and white states, been gathered in, and the soul standing with the void completely born of light.

It now waiting the in-birth of the Spirit, that the spirit buried in the depths can rise up to the heights. That which has been piercing the depths beast was born, which brought the human soul into birth.

This being a controversial point occupying the attention of many over the Ages, and now solved by the Scapegoat raising up the planes, bringing man out of the depths. But still resulting in Sut or the Beast coming before the throne, as that which brings the grand finale, in the glorified unification.

All now brought to a glorified point, whereby man enters onto the Solarised Field of the purified Void; the side of life that man is now facing, all brought to a One-ness of unification, that as a Solar of polarity, and would be as Christ in Hell, that the foundations of the heights can be established, and bring forth its silent voice into light. Then reimbursed and raised up to the heights, becoming united with the EL powers of that glory in electrified unification.

THE MYSTICAL UNION

OUT of the depths of the Waters rose the trembling maid in the arms of her lover, embraced by the radiance of the prism, the glories of the germinated mind. For now as an opal she had all the beauties of heights and depths, the mystery of the Macroprosopus, the glories of the created Face. (See text in col. 2).

What left the heights as EVE being born of Adam, and lost in the depths of TIME must now return, that the accumulated wealth bears its magnitude in the glory of the Heaven-born MIND. The Solar Arc, the radiance of the Prism, that man can now be germinated and bring forth the Genius of Outer-world Space, bringing into birth the extension of the glorified planes. So what was polarity from depths to heights, will now become the depths between heights and super-heights.

(See the plate above)

The extending of the FACE of the Macroprosopus, the Glories of the Long Face. What once appeared as a possibility, now becomes a part of a created state. All being due to the soul seeking to get back to its original status as a spirit-born creation.

For thousands of years the soul has been sinking deeper and deeper into the depths of matter, through the agency of the spirit equalling the polarity of the Ursa Major. The question that has always been, as to whether it is soul or spirit that was the cause of the Fall; or should they have been in the world but not of the world. A mighty lesson they had to learn, it still being believed, that it was the Fall of the Angels, whereby the being is ready for etherealisation.

THE SOUL THAT CAN RISE, AND IN SO DOING, BUILDING UP A SOLAR WORLD, A CREATION OF BEAUTY, FOR NO LONGER ARE THEY HELD BY ILLUSION, REALITY IS NOW THEIR VISION, ALL HAVING BEEN UNIFIED. EVERYTHING SEEN THROUGH A ONE POINT OF VIEW, THAT OF THE PERCEPTORY PRINCIPLE.

Thereby man becoming the White Bat, the human radar creation drawing in the unseen wealth of the Void. The higher Neptunian Fire as Venus now united with her Spouse, the Holy Divine Fire of the heights. Mars and Venus as HIM and HER, now raised up by the belief and aspirations of the Scapegoat, into their Divine Magnitude of Holy Marriage.

The Solarised Mind

THE glory of heights and depths as the radiating MIND of the Arc, as the Divine Intelligencia, the Glorified Lord of the FLAME. Yet but the Divine Creation of what must be created in the depths, by the reformation of that already created. For Mars, now the risen Antares Fire, the Great Lord of the Flame, is

The Birth of the Opal

by Ella Wheeler Wilcox

The Sunbeam loved the Moonbeam,
And followed her low and high,
But the Moonbeam fled and hid her head,
She was so shy—so shy.

The Sunbeam wooed her passion;
Ah, he was a lover bold!
And his heart was afire with mad desire
For the Moonbeam pale and cold.

She fled like a dream before him,
Her hair was a shining sheen,
And oh, that Fate would annihilate
The space that lay between!

Just as the day lay panting
In the arms of the twilight dim,
The Sunbeam caught the one he sought
And drew her close to him.

But out of his warm arms, startled
And stirred by Love's first shock,
She sprang afraid, like a trembling maid,
And hid in the niche of a rock.

And the Sunbeam followed and found her
And led her to Love's own Feast;
And they were wed on that rocky bed,
And the dying day was their priest.

And lo! the beautiful Opal—
That rare and wondrous gem—
Where the moon and sun blend into one,
Is the child that was born to them.

(See plate in cols. 2 and 3)

drawing all up towards the greater creation, by and through the Holy Atomic SEED, that comes into birth via the in-breath of the ruach. The rise up now being through the Galactical Field, the soul sipping off the Stream of the Milky Way. Wealth that can bring unto the soul the glories of the Chinese depths.

The fiery Dragon that can give him riches, or a blind state of "burnt out" sensitivity. The glories of the rebirth of the mystical past, that are now returning via continuity; wonders that were born when the soul was young, but never brought to its grand finale. For man cannot peer into that which he has not given birth to, his prerogative is the in-birth by Fire, as all has to be brought into being by the right of alchemy, through the human crucible. This he does through belief and full birth of the mind, by the depths of trial and error.

The mind risen up and expanded by the glories of aspiration creating wonders of mind genius, and not mechanical monsters. That which will come forth through the fired rebirth of the soul as the heart purpose, the magnitude of the permanent establishment.

Therefore the day must now break in Aurora giving birth to the royal Solar glories of the heights, whereby man will find his holy rebirth, and seek of the divine wonders of Truth. The heavenly magnitude of unseen wealth, creations born through the Ages, now waiting man's sincere Solar interpenetration, as the uprise of Relativity.

The stirring of the new-born seed through the down-pouring of the Waters, whereby he brings into birth the radiant glories of the depths and heights, in the mystical marriage of rebirth.

Thus the new road begins which is entirely of TIME-LESS-NESS, for it can range from a flash of the perceptory principle to the crawl of the alchemical unification.

Where the soul has lost the fiery point, and is running down South after the dissipated Fu, straddled in between the humps of the camel. For although all of yesterday is buried in, what has been still exists in the mind of man, but now to come forth on a Solar level. No longer the wheeling of the animals up to the heights, but the glories of THE SPIRIT BEING OPENED UP TO THE POSSIBILITIES OF THE NEW-BORN DAY.

THE BUILDING UP OF A MIND WORLD, THAT WILL BE THE MANIFESTATION OF THE MIGHTY MAGNITUDE OF THE GALACTICAL FIELD.

All the wonders and the glories of the Ages, now to find rebirth. But not as they were, man held by human limitation, but expanded forth by being spiralled up to the heights, as the arielised freedom born of the Spirit. Its rightful heritage having taken on wings, the glories of the Dove; the elements now as a mind creation dancing from depths to heights. No longer held by magnetic roots, the trammels of the Sargasso Sea; that which now will not be fed as a beast of flesh, but an etheric creation of an etherealised nature, a soul of immortality.

The Christos Born Scapegoat

A completely new Road, one of empirical unfoldment, where all a priori knowledge is buried in as wisdom gained, and the soul now seeks through experience and induction of a Solar nature. For the Void is now completely clear, a new-born field awaiting the new crop of sowing. Therefore the spirit now as the white Bat, will have to seek blindly through the now possible genius, through that of the perceptory awareness.

That which can only come into birth through the stripping of the soul, and the raising up of its sensitivity by its heart-born purpose. Now re-born as it was once, but with a mind complete from Alpha to Omega, with the final lesson now to be completed, of the mystical glory of LOVE. The interpenetration of "Giving from the heart," where the soul serves to give life to another. Transforming Saturn into the Solar light, raising him up from his Fall into the depths.

Therefore the soul's motive is of the Ultra-sonic induction, bringing into birth wealth and strength to raise up the fallen Nation. Not for self or any selfish motives, but the ways and means of selfless service to the Spirit, the greater World of LIFE. The raising up and bringing into birth by service, of the Holy Fire, the mystical Glory and Magnitude of the Heavenly Flame. The Solar Blood of HIM BEGOTTEN, as the SON manifesting of the Father. That promised unto John as the glory of Revelation, through the Star of David.

A heavenly Glory once known and believed, but now lost unto man, for he only placed the wealth of the mighty Embodiment into creed and dogma. So fed the world with earth-bound stimulus, that which fixed and stultified its mind.

Therefore the rebirth is of a spirit-born mind, whose in-birth is from the heavens. Elements now primed and made complete by the super-service of the CHRISTOS-BORN SCAPEGOAT. She who rose up the planes by being FIRED into expanded frequency, and brought into being the unfoldment of the Embodiment, as dictated by the instruction of Daniel. Where the wonders and the glories of the New Testament are made manifest as the first born Jesus Christ.

The first Jesus as the Mother Mary raised up and unified to her Spouse; heights and depths now blended up as HIM-HER in their earth and heaven combination, becoming the Intelligencia of the new Solar Path. The Second Advent now fully born, with man to put it into daily operation, for every man is a Christ unto himself; a soul ready for the Solar ariel flight, by gyroscoping his mind up in aspirational delight.

Yet a world now crippled and sick through the Fall into the depths, where the Spirit got lost in the luna waters, and as the Whale, the Feminine Creation, had to be drawn up out of the depths, and re-established on the plane of Earth. The true plane and not the illusion created by man in the pit. It being the capturing of this Whale, the Leviathan wealth of WOMAN, that is the mystery of this mighty Path of the unification.

The extension of the luna mind into the Solar, out of the Cancer waters, that which is the secret of the mysteries, and the interpenetration into the depths. That which had to be accomplished by the Scapegoat, that she could bring forth the wealth and glories of her ancient Fount. Hence her rise up to the Central Sun, the full extent of the Galactical Field, where Cancer and Ursa Major are the boundaries of the Asellus unification.

The True Purpose of Life

It was only when this was accomplished that man was ready for the Solar rise, the journey up into the heights by the heavenly planes. Being yet greater born of the mighty

Elements, where Outer World Space is brought into life, by and through the Human crucible, made into the wealth of the depths, with that which became crippled and diseased, now ready to be born anew. Reborn and lifted up, by man being ready and stalwart as Perseus to brave the depths, and as Hercules and Ulysses investigating the mighty heights, with Martha-Mary in the depths below ever keeping the shuttle of the loom swinging back and forth. Therefore heights and depths ever in a state of the revolving Piscis, the HIM-HER ever bringing the Fatherhood more and more into birth as the positive creation.

THE MYSTERY OF WOMAN

WOMAN now delivering her divine child, yet the spouse of her becoming. The mystery that she left to create of soul, now born as the evidence of life, and they embraced in the infinity of Oneness. (See text in col. 3).

The soul now aware of its true purpose of life, the creation of the mind, and the sanctuary of the heart, where its motive is to manifest GOD, the Glory of Truth and Divinity.

Not righteousness, but truth as the Solar point of discriminative creation, its ultimate purpose of delivery. The soul through its up-born mind now spinning up in gyroscopic realisation, bringing into birth a dynamic point of truth, that unified the root with the blossom.

The "Egg" that once was laid, and as the embryo that became of a mighty tree, and became lost in illusionary multiplicity, to be spun up to a point of ONENESS, that man can now begin a new Creation born of all its mighty wealth. That, when unified by the mastery of the Scapegoat in raising up the depths to the heights, the mystical jewel was found in the depths of the Cancer marshes, as the Glory of the Flaming Divinity, the lost glory of LOVE.

The divine SEED as the atomic wealth of the heights, lost by man as he chose the beast to the royalty of the Spirit.

Now, with the new Road laid out before the eager awakened soul, the long forgotten truth of the mysteries can begin, where the FOUNT of WOMAN is now the wealth to be given rebirth. That which will make polarity with the heights, yet the means of drawing out the Leviathan in the depths, the wealth of the Emerald glory.

up the wealth already gained, onto its rightful setting, that the Lord of the Flame could now Sperm the depths with the Word in its highest capacity. For it is man who creates and sends up to the heights, as aspiration born from the alchemical pot broiling in the depths.

For all is reflection in a state of Becoming, until it manifests in all its Fiery Glory, where WOMAN, having been spermated by the heights in its reborn creation, is going to deliver her "DIVINE CHILD" in the manifestation of the MIND.

The wealth to become the consciousness of man, the reborn LONG FACE of the Macroprosopus. Evolution in its many phases, now as the Union of heights and depths, the marriage of Cana now fulfilled in the dynamic jar of Wine, awaiting the royal Birth of the New Born City.

A Complete Unification

FOR was it not a City of twelve gates, with a crystal Stream running through it; that which would bring healing to all the Nations, and raise them up out of their depths. Trees whose leaves every month would feed the soul, and unfold its greater virtues. Thus indicating what glories each soul can bring forth, they being the unification of all that has been, now in its Solarised divinity.

Man now by belief seeking of the Spirit, and not the glories of the beast, yet the creation that led him to the heights as opposition rose him up, he ever seeking the way of freedom.

Hence it can be seen how experience is the necessary shield on the path of empirical unfoldment. That which will help him to wield the mighty sword of Uranian Fire, on his new-born path of Solar creation. Therefore with such wealth awaiting man, Merope brought forth from her FOUNT the glorious Stream of magnificat. Wealth that lost its union with the heights and sank down into the depths. But that, which in being retrieved, will adjust the multiple maladjustment of the road, set by orthodoxy in its righteous creation of the Embodiment. That which has brought utter confusion, leaving man lost and bewildered, with no faith in the higher creations.

So the glories to be brought forth now are the Empirical unfoldment of TIME, that which are the mysterious glories of LOVE. The Stream from the depths that germinates the heights through the Scapegoat, until man is ready to bear the burden. Then pioneers and Phaetons will come forth to bring untold Genius into birth; but until, just a union of Mother Earth with the Heavens on every plane of sensitivity created and manifested by man in his mind unfoldment.

Yet in the Cosmic issue, a complete unification having been made by the Scapegoat, with everything now pro rata, a state of preparation, where the LAW is fixed as the Cosmic creation, and man the worker in the depths. Therefore it is the Fount that holds the Story and the wealth to issue forth, the mighty magnitude of the galactical field of the Milky Way, to be given its Solar Rebirth.

The rocks and boulders of the past now awaiting the Second Advent, in the disintegration and unification that will bring forth the mighty wealth and glory of that dragged down to its negative state. That lost in that mystical Stream as Genius of long ago, that which holds unseen depths and wonders, can now become man's wealth if he will only seek deep and far enough, to extract from that revolution.

For this was the time when the Ancients were delving deep into all the mighty Sciences; they who laid the foundations and brought forth the roots, they who opened many doors, but in not being able to scribe and write, it was lost in the depths. For they were lacking in material that could have been the means of becoming the archives of the depths; which in its intensity, declares of the ingenuity of the Egyptian Pylons upholding the roof of their Temples.

This is also where we come to the wealth of Merope, she with the mighty Fount of the depths. The Goddess who came down from Venus, to raise up the wealth of TIME. For man was but the continuity in the depths, and not the beginning of LIFE; he who had fallen into a state of inertia, bringing death to the holy Seed.

Therefore it was the Goddess who drew down of the holy Fire, that became Uranus in the depths, the axe that is ever striking man as the Furies of Karma drive forth. But now set into motion by Merope as the striking pin of polarity, to set all alight in the depths.

She making polarity with the heights, the vast wealth of Outer Space; for here we see Cancer in the depths making union with Ursa Major in the Polar region.

The depth and glory of WOMAN alight with the wealth of the Pole Star, as she delved, by the aid of her moon, further into the glories of her dense and deep Caverns; thus the mystery of Wookey Hole revealed. While her Jupiter carried her right up to the heights, into the wonders of the mount, where mysteries untold could be revealed, in the bringing forth of the Glorious Fatherhood. Hence the FACE seen on the mountain heights, as the preparatory of the wealth awaiting the light of day.

Merope's Task

THIS was but displaying the ancient depths, that the mysterious goddess Merope continually brought into birth down the Ages, in striving to recover the lost Fire. The Leviathan with the mighty Emerald, the wealth of the Cancer Waters. The waters that were fired by the heights to bring forth the stagnant mind of the soul; that which would not burst into life, and become the light of the heavens. For the Fire and the water would not unite and bring forth the Spiritus Air, but ever as Mars chasing Venus, causing chaos to reign in the depth.

Hence the dance of le Ros up to the heights, the unfolding sensitivity of Woman opening her frequency in the depths, the glories and wealth of the Solar path. She riding forth on the Asellus Australis to find the polarity in the heights, the wealth of the Asellus Borealis. For man only became the risen beast in partaking of the power of the Fire, never putting the wealth into action, but dancing with its glories in the depths.

He who took the Fire, with Woman trying to meet the fiery rebirth through the agency of man. For while he remained with a positive belief and spermed the earth with that of the Spirit by his delving into the sciences, Woman as the negative had the elevation and stimulus whereby to climb up and contact the Fiery heights.

Therefore, Merope in striving to meet this situation, scaled the heights right up to the Central Sun, raising up the planes in the depths. This she did to rise above man destroying the Fiery Element in the depths, for as he did so, he was sending it up to the heights, causing its return to the depths in a magnified way. By Merope setting this prototype, the LORD of LIGHT came into birth, the mystical glory of the Fatherhood.

The wealth of Merope's Cancer depths now being blessed and risen up to the Solar heights, and the wealth waiting to come forth in man's unified VOID. With Merope, who has through all the Ages been seeking expansion up through the planes, to get back to her now Glorified Lord in those upper realms of Divinity, thus reaching heights far beyond the understanding of man, where the depths and mystery of the Ultra-sonic comes forth in all its magnitude of glory.

HENCE ITS UNION WITH THE DEPTHS BRINGING FORTH OF ITS MIGHTY MYSTICAL POWER OF THE SOLAR REBIRTH.

Dynamic wealth of inaudible sound, yet filled with wealth untold of the atomic seed. For its birth lies in the inflowing Waters, that when received by man as breath, gives unto him by his alchemical qualities, the power to bring forth of this mighty generative recuperation. But as he so receives, can he bring it forth on any plane of frequency, for all will be determined by his outlook of growth.

This is the Seed that was stirred by the action of Merope in the dim and distant past, that which was activated but never set alight, and only brought a beast into birth. That plucked carelessly by man as the crimson flower, and thrown into the depths of the Cancer waters. Wisdom that man has yet to resolve, his mighty wealth of the mind; that if lost can never be retrieved, leaving him a beggar in the depths.

It can only be by man labouring in service, sperming the world with his mind, and woman creating and weaving her wealth from the depths through man's uprisen beliefs, that the royal etheric garment of Solar creation will ever be brought into birth. Only by and through this, will the soul make its ariel flight up to the heavenly heights.

The Divine Manhood

THE Homogeneous brought to complete fulfilment in the glory of its Solar unification, with its radiance the outcome of its union between heights and depths. Bringing the completion of the soul's journey on earth, as it manifests the fulness of the spirit. Thus becoming ready for the upper planes, as the spirit, the element of the heights, having etherealised the soul into life immortal in the depths beneath. This now as the de-crystallising of the fire-formed rocks, with the proto-plasmic substance brought back to the royalty of the spirit.

That which placed the soul into captivity, and of which man has been spending his life in trying to get free from. That which Merope from the beginning of time, has been seeking to free man from, and now in bringing to a complete unification through the "hour" of Relativity, has brought her task to its glorified unfoldment, far beyond her wildest dreams.

For at the same time, lifting up the planes, which lightens the burden on the soul, bringing the now down-pouring heavenly Fire uniting with the uprising Fount of the depths. Man now being electrified into rebirth by the natural consequences of the reborn LAW, for as Merope, through her electrified Fount, the mighty wealth of the reborn Uranus, unites with the Uranian Fire of the heights, heights and depths are alive with the Hydrogen Waters, activating Antares into rebirth.

Hence it can be seen, how man's journey now is a continual spiralling flight up from the depths to the heights.

(See plate in cols. 4 and 5)

Embodying the Solarised Elements by the mode of breath, where the alchemicalising fundamentals bring the unfolding soul into birth as spirit transformed into mind. The mighty mystery of Fire and Air interpenetrating the waters beneath, with the atomic spark as the SEED of

THE SON OF THE MIND

HERMES, Hermes, son of the mind, strive on, for ever around thee is the arm of woman, the glories of the depths. For she embracing thee will ever raise thee up, that she can be reborn of thy golden light and crown her Lord in the heights. (See text in col. 3).

LIFE, becoming the lost wisdom of the continuity of man.

It is this that is now rebuilding the new Solar City, the glorified embellishment of the Void. Where life gathered in is a risen protocol of new birth, and where a new journey must now begin, with man rising up out of the old depths by the Force Majeure of the driving LAW of Evolution.

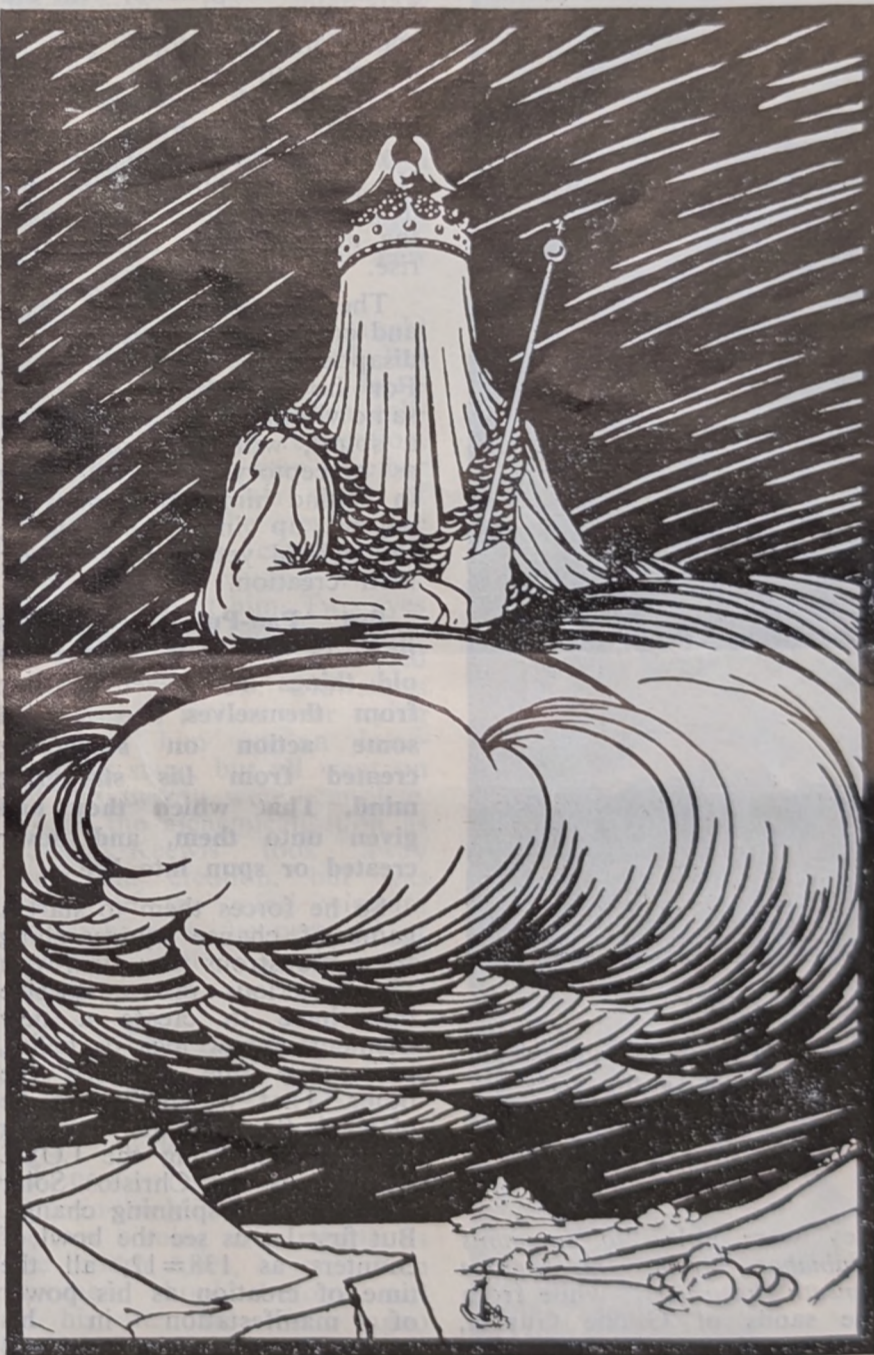

Yet man, although the pawn on the chessboard of life, is the creator by right of being the fundamentals of the mysterious creation of life and its mind. A natural precedence of the Elements following the spark of life, its prototype of beginning. That is the mystery to becoming, the SEED that is ever issuing forth from the mighty depths of Antares, which through the breath is the means of rejuvenating the soul in the depths. The wherewithal to bringing the Arc of the heavenly Bodies to the glorious light of unification.

The new path that man is now seeking to raise as the upward flight back to the Source from whence it came.

Yet not as it was, but now as the LONG FACE of the created Divine Manhood, brought forth out of the throes of Creation.

Thus the Ultra-Sonic as the waves of the inaudible sound, seeking to become the sound of Solar light in the world of manifestation. Yet with wealth untold in the galactical field of every soul, awaiting the sparking off of the atomic unification. That set into motion by the Scapegoat, that of such each soul can sup, if only he will set his mind into active motion. No longer humid desires, but hard mind graft, where what is in the flowing Stream of LIFE, is reborn of the Solar light as seeds of New Life coming forth as mind growth.

Yet the major issue being the raising up of the Spirit, as the soul rising up out of the depths, the soul born of the Christos light, the glories of the FLAME. The Ultra-sonic brought to audible sound, the glories of the heaven-born mind.

THE SILENT OMNIPOTENT

THE Unknown, yet the All Becoming, the mystery of the silent Omnipotent coming forth in the rolling winds as the glory of the heavens... O Divine Being, reveal thy wonders, that I may be lifted up into the glory of thy divinity, and embraced by thee in my silent worship. (See text page 4, col. 5).

HIAWATHA PART 5

OR THE SONG OF LIFE

by Gladys I. Spearman-Cook*

*This lecture was delivered at the S.U.P.H. on Sunday, 15th May, 1966, through Gladys I. Spearman-Cook especially directed by the Lord Maitreya, the Lord of the Flame of the Central Sun, the unified Spiritual Wealth of the Cosmic Hierarchies.

THE MYSTERY OF THIS CHAPTER AS PICTURE WRITING, IS THE SOUL creating after receiving, then treading it in, that it can live consciously down the Ages. The achievements of warriors, otherwise the tribe will die without leaving its mark on time. Therefore Hiawatha tells them, that only through the totem pole, your spiral sensitivity, can evolution move on, otherwise all would be blunted, and the heavens be blind. Only through man is time recorded, therefore Picture writing depicts the Face of TIME; the growing Fatherhood.

Birth of the Great Spirit

It was religion that brought all to a stand-still, hence the atoms of the Gods were not returned as light, but buried in the earth. For the spirit must become the eye of the mind, and not the raging fire in the rock. Therefore the soul enlightened and aspired to the spirit, leaving a form and creation to what has been received, so that the next man can carry on and use what has been received as his stepping stone. Otherwise it will never be truly earthed, so must become the light of the earth.

Yet the higher propensity must be recognised, otherwise expansion cannot be achieved either, with man perceiving his inner potentials, the witness of time. This brings the building up of the personality, the Marthas creation as the conclusive evidence of what has been.

Thus it was those giving forth of their impressions gained from the truth buried in by Hiawatha and Laughing Water. Therefore Hiawatha was faced with the same problem as Merope, leaving with the annals of TIME, the wisdom she had placed up in the Mysterious Cosmic Heights. So Hiawatha to the growing soul declared;

"Man forgets his forbears, and the wisdom left by the prophets."

For was it not papalism that killed all the wonders left by time, yet stealing all and placing under a category of their own ruling, thus blackening the beauty and the wonders of the Gods, causing all to continually fall backwards.

So Hiawatha beseeches the people to write their beliefs and aspirations on the tree of their own inner growth, for it is only by this that Gitche Manito, (The Great Spirit), can be born in their heights. He being born from the Fount that comes forth from the centre of their earth, and rises up to the heavens. That which comes down from the heights, is trampled in the mud, then eventually raised up by the penitent, and would be the lower Neptune raised up to the higher Neptune, which would come out of the two serpents vying for the egg. That which is determined by the Bull plowing, and as to whether he gets the sun between his horns or in the genitals, is the point to be wagered with.

The ever winging of the cerebellum into consciousness, for man today knows less about the earth being a plane with a raised up sky above it than ever before. Hence created a solid ball that cut itself away from the main issue of ascension. Thus man was forced to live with death, as his own means of escape.

Hiawatha declares unto those he is teaching, "Behold your grave posts have no mark, no sign, nor symbol," therefore you will have the light in your mind creation, but no conscious memory to shine as your etheric auric radiance to come forth from Age to Age. The radiance of the soul that gives of its strength or inferiority in the creating of the individuality, through the inter-marriage of the soul.

The higher mind feeding the lower mind through every incarnation; it being by this that the soul builds his king post, that of his cardo that holds up his tent, yet holding up the lantern swinging in the wind. With the soul inside spiralling up to the heights through that gained.

Thus Hiawatha begged of his people to listen carefully to what he had brought, that he could leave his mark on time. "Naked lies your heart before me, to your naked heart I whisper!" As you send forth what I have given, will mankind receive the wealth of spirit that I was privileged to place on TIME. But like all Prophets and Teachers, Hiawatha's cry unto his people for mind expansion, that would raise the Race up out of the darkness, was watched over carefully by the Evil Spirits.

For unless man creates all into a positive creation, the negative states would harm the glorious Chibiabos, the dancing Rhythm of the Spheres, and Hiawatha's singing spiralling mind.

Yet nothing could in reality harm the spirit, but only Hiawatha who was struggling to maintain it. So as the mysterious void of unfolding manhood shook his cold black tresses, he tried to remind Hiawatha he was the unfolding Spirit, therefore would come forth in time.

The Living Radiance

SO once when the winter had roofed with ice the Big-sea-Water, Chibiabos, the spirit lost to Hiawatha for the time, went forth alone to hunt deer with antlers, the word of might and expansion. But ever Evil Spirits lay in ambush, as the negative side of Scorpio that had to be transmuted. Thus they getting the upper hand of the soul, dragging him down to the bottom of the Cancer depths.

For the soul had been passing through initiation to gain a higher plane of expansion, it being by Hiawatha's Chibiabos, or inner perceptory creation, perceiving the truth, that he was raised up onto another plane of wisdom. Therefore the spirit of Chibiabos was now buried into the lower consciousness, to become the Marthas to bring forth the Mary.

The seven united in solar propensity, to manifest as the 8th. Thus the burying in of old states, that the Solar can become the living radiance and his living qualities; the casting off of Saturn.

brand, and became the ruler of the land of spirit. Thus he moved on, nobody perceiving him, for the change was silent.

The changing of dead men or old ideas into live men and new creative ideas. That buried in to become the greater purpose, for states of all degrees were being changed within his being, it having become the wealth of Hiawatha's internal creation. That which was raised up onto a higher plane, and was awaiting the soul bringing forth in greater comprehension, but only in desire or sophistication, in many seeking of self and not mind unfoldment.

It was the awakening of the internal creation that caused the wigwam to tremble. The crying out of the medicine men, and the dancing black and white chorus, till finally

But the mind as the dawning consciousness to drive the intent into the right direction.

Up to the present the soul has only been taking the fire on a state of knowledge, having penetrated the heights by so doing, but not radiating it in consciousness.

Importance of The Struggling Mind

EVERYTHING given only in a boastful way, which is so possible after the boosting up of the ego. Yet he is the alchemicalisation as the storm-fool, the Uranian bolt that causes untold mischief in the village of the soul's reborn creation. Old ideas being turned into new, and how he gets there eventually. Which of course would be through the creative faculty that ever keeps the alchemicalisation moving into its final fulfillment. So it is up to the soul to direct by point of thought.

So having spent out on his already created ideas, he goes forth in search of a new adventure, for Pau-Puk-Keewis is the searching mind, with old Iagoo as the ego telling of new and monstrous stories that he perceives in his new creation. He tells of how he once leaped up so high he bent the sky, the raising up of the Arc. He was sending up to the heights new ideas that caused the auric Cosmic Radiance to rise.

Then he even leaped again and cracked the mysterious ice, disappearing right within it. For he had become of the same vibration as he rose up in a spiral, with his acute mind as perceptory principle diving in behind him. Thus spun the depths up into the heights, that would yet have to deliver their creation.

But Pau-Puk-Keewis was tired of all their talking on old things and never creating from themselves, he wanted some action on something created from his struggling mind. That which they had given unto them, and never created or spun into life.

So he forces them to start a game of chance by searching for a monstrous new idea, with 13 mysterious pieces. Twelve that have to create a new Element, a new idea or belief, white one side and red the other. That which has to be blended through the spinning up that will bring the LOVE creation as the Christos Solar rebirth in the spinning change. But first let us see the bowl of counters as $138=12$, all the time of creation as his power of manifestation in his creational capacity. $58=4$ square creational base to start the game of hazard. With 20 states of perceiving it, and Uranus robbing them of all their creation.

But the ego is still filled with the power of the Uranian drive, that he demands royalty and obeisance by stealing the new coming possibility Face-in-the-mist. That which was coming into birth out of Iagoo's stories from the past. Then another game whereby the soul only of 5 loses the game, Uranus got the expansion and not Saturn. Uranus now strikes right down South, for Hiawatha to begin an internal enquiry.

The ego powers have built up to such extent in his superficial state, to now begin a state of inward destruction. Thus we find Pau-Puk-Keewis seated up on a crag slaying of hundreds, and crying out for tidings to be sent to Hiawatha.

But what Pau-Puk-Keewis set into motion under ego, Merope also set into operation, as a Television producer was touched by her creative brand.

REBIRTH OUT OF THE ROCK

HIAWATHA went up to the Old Man of the Mountain and cried, "Open up, I am Hiawatha" and as he did so the glory of those depths came forth and cried, "I see thee, I see thee, thou shalt die," thus the rebirth of the soul. (See text on page 9, cols. 2 and 3).

So Hiawatha's lamentation was because he was not able to express himself, through the egoism still the personal state of self, and not the non-self of spirit. Thus becoming the intensification of the mind, that the auric radiance can come forth. For it was by his Chibiabos or inner creation perceiving the truth, that he was raised up onto another plane of wisdom. But Hiawatha not being alert, had not comprehended, therefore would now have to try and master.

So for the time the singing mind has stopped, causing Hiawatha to send forth a wail of anguish, ever covering his face with black paint, thus sitting in his wigwam, his mind tent, lamenting for seven long weeks.

"He is dead, my sweet musician, the master of all my singing," but he had not realised that it was the time of all being buried in, and the new seed being set for the greater creation, as the pinnacle point of the round. Then came the spring, again everybody was looking for Chibiabos, the singing mind, but nobody could find him. Although he came to the door of the wigwam but did not enter, he was touched with the burning they were able "to summons Chibiabos from his grave beneath the waters," while from the sands of Gitche Gumees, he summons even Hiawatha's brother. So mighty was the magic of their cry of invocation, that the great wealth gained now could manifest through the mind as raised up mind understanding. But he was not allowed to enter, but passed through the door of a burning brand, that he could kindle a fire in the depths. Then Chibiabos slowly vanished to the Islands of the Blessed, the inner depths of the mind.

Thus as Hiawatha awakened on that higher plane, he went forward to teach all men the use of simplicity. The love of the unity of the spirit, the conscious understanding of its mighty depths.

While this is taking place, we must seek to learn of the greater faculty that starts off a state of expansion. This is seen in Chapter 16 where the story of Pau-Puk-Keewis is related, he the storm-fool that follows in on all new creations. Mars of Aries to become Uranus, that destruction can turn construction, with the Fu becoming the creational intent.

This was done through the two vagrants, activated by the risen serpent dancing right up to the heights.

The two Kenabeeks, the intercalary plowed by the wedge-men that break through in the winnowing of the dancing moon. While the great war club as Uranus forces all changes, with one slender idea coming forth as the fish caught and prepared for the new alchemical rebirth. That of mind expansion to eventually go forth into Aries. Therefore next he had four, Pau-Puk-Keewis gathered four round pieces, four points of change that were of brass, burnished on one side and black on the other. For in the spinning the black of the unknown would turn into gold of the Solar rebirth.

Therewith, all these were placed into a wooden bowl and jostled up together, then he threw them to the earth with the red side facing up on all. The creative purpose now full of its atomic growth, with a brass piece standing up as a burnished Cardinal Point. 138 in all, yet all of the 12 creative Gods, which he then shook again, whereby out of the wedge-men the intercalary dance began, which was of 158=14.

These being the dual state of the seven, to bring forth the changed sensitivity, with the multitude of vision to become the risen up one pointed perception of the new risen light.

Thus Pau-Puk-Keewis taught them the game of hazard. But Iagoo in his ego was determined to beat the alchemicalisation in its mighty re-creation, so gathers all the men together and starts his own game of chance. But as he creates, the alchemicalisation captures all their wealth, causing twenty eyes to glare at him. Two eyes but with twenty different points of becoming, losing their old ideas to the new. Old states like eyes of wolves ever trying to catch him on an intermediary stage, but all went on till the twenty were complete. Hence the alchemicalisation as Pau-Puk-Keewis took away their old creation, but was lonely in the mind wigwam alone, because the personal or creative state would not change.

The Urgent Necessity of Belief

SO he demanded that the nephew of Iagoo, young Face-in-the-Mist, the cerebellum coming into rebirth as the reborn Aries, he of sixteen summers, should become that of his attendant. Then Iagoo glowered as he lost his young stripling, and being tired of being called old, took up the bowl of Chance, and shook the pieces onto the ground. All then turned up red as their experiences of struggle, but only the black out of the brass, and only five pieces were counted, he never made the seven. Which resulted in the game going once again to the alchemicalisation, because he hadn't spun up to the heights.

Therefore it did not fuse and become one, so had to be alchemicalised into its possible creation. Hence Pau-Puk-Keewis called young Face-in-the-Mist to gather up and take away the winnings, and carry them to the East into Hiawatha's rebirth on the first house. But when he reached there, all was empty even though the birds were singing.

For here was the replica of the void, that of the first house, both being given change. But all were away from the wigwam, the void or tent of the mind, as they were driving the cardinal points into the spinning mind change, through the earth becoming fired. By the cardinal and fixed becoming of the mutable in intercalary change of spinning up. That which brought the black into gold, but recognition had not been comprehended yet, with the personality treading in by acceptance.

The twenty eyes brought to a one pointed state in the dual spinning up. Ten of black and ten of gold all intermingling into a solid state of a gold created nugget. Thus the slaughter that took place in the change, caused the village to send for Hiawatha to come and get awakened to the valley in its reborn state as the journey of the passover.

Everything now to be spun up into a pinnacle point by recognition and state of mind belief, for as a man believes so he becomes, if he can spin up to its point of recognition.

Mysterious, but necessary to the soul who is travelling across the Big-sea-water, for he would continually meet these states of change as he travelled onwards. But Hiawatha when he awakened, was full of wrath, and as the god state of Fire, is angry at the war of the soul in rebellion, through egoism causing such confusion in the alchemicalisation.

Thus is determined to bring the right change into birth, but can only find the impress of where it has been, for now the alchemicalisation is on the run, which is the change according to the belief of the soul.

HIAWATHA'S DEPARTURE

WHAT had been the joy of life, was now the sadness of departure. Heart and soul in every mode of creation, for he had been the unfold of life. Therefore the pain was his as he turned and waved farewell, and sailed off into the land of Tomorrow. (See text on page 10, col. 2).

But Hiawatha as the Bull and god of Fire, wants the full change that will raise everything up onto an ariel dance. With him becoming as an active worker of life and purpose down in the very depths, so he becomes changed ten times down into those depths, that of the animal status, and would be the Polyphemus creation being changed by changing the beast into the human. That extracted from the whole six and entered in through the mortuary meal of mind growth, with ever the black and white states unifying within, but must ever look upwards in the assumption.

All being lifted up by the passions, which would naturally affect the Cosmos.

But unfortunately he looked downward and Pau-Puk-Keewis fell backward, whereby Hiawatha saw his mistake. Then Pau-Puk-Keewis went down into a serpent state, and the power entered into the rock as a mortuary meal, for this was the hunting of Pau-Puk-Keewis. Electrification driving all the wealth into action; renunciation of all the impeding states being chased by the fire, with Hiawatha bringing electrification into birth, the fiery golden mind. Elevation of the egoism into true Ego of electrification.

The New Stream of Merope

SO Hiawatha went to the great Old Man of the mountain and cried, "Open! I am Hiawatha," for he was determined to raise it up to a greater purpose. Make it (See plate on page 6) become a heart intent, for Hiawatha like all teachers was learning through the ways and actions of his many pupils. They were the means of him blending in of his lower states, him having to eat and drink up all of those lower waters.

The Mind Development Class

EACH Week on every Saturday at 5.30 p.m. G.M.T. Mrs. Spearman-Cook holds her Special Mind Development Class at the School's H.Q. A special Subject is concentrated upon for about 40 minutes and then each sitter is individually helped to interpret and understand his or her findings. Any readers can join; those nearby can make application to attend each week, and those too far away can send in their names and link in each week at the time stated, their names being entered in a Special Book for this purpose. The subjects for concentration are:

Oct. 1st	Adamic Dust	Nov. 5th	The Medici
Oct. 8th	The Lion of Judah	Nov. 12th	The Peacock
Oct. 15th	The Sword and the Trident	Nov. 19th	The Hosts
Oct. 22nd	The Galactic Poles	Nov. 26th	The Olympics
Oct. 29th	Psyche

there was only one answer, the death of the big man, for Hiawatha the Fire unfoldment of spiritual manhood, was no bigger than his Martha creation. "I am what I am," the fiery protons dancing with the neutrons, bringing the Solar creation into birth. The burying in of the tartars and Cancer states that rise up as states of fear, with the unfolding sensitivity seeking to come forth and resulting in elongation.

Hence it must be the death of Kwasind and the birth of the Solar Ray, the Yod bringing the sperming of the Solar Void. The driving of the fire up into the pineal as the opening up of the 7th Chakra that the 8th is born. The Eagle radiating from the Arc, the pine cone on the top of the head radiating and sparking like a solar beacon, as wealth from outer space plunging headlong into the dancing depths.

YET NOW THE STREAM OF MEROPE, THE HOLY FIRE, CHANGING THROUGH THE WORLD.

Hence all seek to master Kwasind, by piercing the mind with wisdom, for he is a Polyphemus state, an over created state of Saturn that can only be changed by the changing of the beam. Expansion as wisdom spinning up to the heights, the infiltration of the Solar Rays resulting in all becoming drunk with wealth, as all was set free from its captivity. For now through the mind, they must start driving all into change through the Solar proton, whereby everything being turned into the mind, and becoming the glory and strength of the spirit.

The entire birth of the Solar Ray and the rising up of the Yod bringing that sperming of the Solar Void into fructification. For it was the driving of the fire up into the pineal as the opening up of the seventh Chakra, that the mysterious eighth could be born. The soul born as spirit with the Eagle radiating from the Arc, and would be as the pine cone on the top of the head, animating and sparking.

This is where the mysterious Puk-Wudjies come into birth, as mushrooms in the night; states of possibility hoping to grow. These could only come forth through the sensitivity raised up purpose, and this was what Hiawatha was trying to teach his people. Whereby this brings us to the secret of the ghosts; the past strength and joys whereby as your wealth has become the big flowering head, that which must be spun up onto a higher plane of wisdom.

Solar expansion that must continue right through to the feminine principle, the conscious mind. Therefore, the inflowing wisdom in the mind intercalary uniting with the Solar Sagittarian Expansion, whereby it is a matter of changing old lamps for new as the waters come flowing down from the North. All luna creations as Cancer and Virgo memories to be mastered and transmuted from luna to Solar, and sent back up to the heights by the glory and expansion of the mysterious eternal fire light.

Through this Hiawatha returns with food for the final change, but again the soul meets with further difficulties in the change. He is ever having to be fed with new life that the fulness can be reached, for underneath all the changes there is a silent sadness which has to be conquered as old states become reborn. The soul valuing everything as a cherished state, when only a passing condition of experience uniting heights and depths, that can result in fiery energy to be transmuted into starry light. But naturally such a vast change cannot take place in a flash, therefore it is seeds of electrified truth now waiting to become the light and heartbeat of the soul.

The nymphs or lymphatics radiating with life, with Hiawatha and Merope being the Scapegoats forcing the issue for everybody to change. No longer the fire being stolen as so many have done, now each soul becoming an internal fired soul, or a blank husk. Your inner body of light as the Soma Pneumatikon, now the source of supply, while those who do not make the effort, merely shadows, until they become reborn, and build a mind creation out of it.

Creating the Immortal Godhead

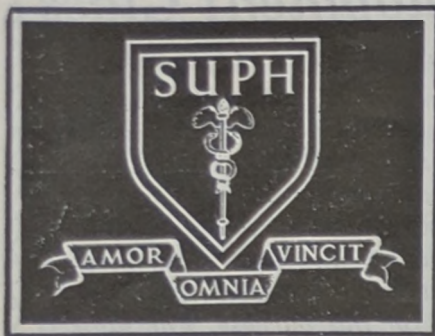

CHAPTER 19 as the Ghosts is a chapter that holds the accumulated heights of the mysteries, that have ever been pursued. Hiawatha had called upon the tribe to try to make expansion, but no one had responded to his call. It was alright to ever lean upon the strength of Hiawatha, but man must labour. Man must work and earth into the depths the wealth endowed, for now Chibiabos, the wealth from the heights, had come and gone, but none had replaced or replenished the wonders he had brought. "Do not lay such heavy burdens in the graves of those you bury, nor such weight upon the furs and wampum. Nor upon the pots and kettles, for the spirits faint beneath them. Give them fire to light them, that they can live and bring new life to mankind."

This is the sad story that goes with many, so naturally with the coming of all these riches there must follow the "treading in," which for the time can appear as famine. This appears as heavy snow drifts from the heights as an equal triad to that which you have buried in. Thus would be as the two ghosts that come

Reminiscences

SPIRIT OR CLOUDS OF FLESH?

THIS month I intend revealing some very crucifying facts, which are not heresy or secondhand knowledge, but first hand states of truth. They deal with drugs and medical treatment, which in my opinion is diabolical, having faced some of the operation myself.

The Text Book Cruelty

QUITE recently a woman was brought to me from the north of England, being just a crumpled up twisted creation of human life. Her speech was inarticulate and gruff, while she was carried in by her husband, and placed on the healing chair like a bundle of clothes and a face. First of all I looked on bewildered, not knowing where to start first, for one could not get to her body, she was so badly crippled. By diagnosis I knew it was child-birth, quite possibly forceps well or wrongly applied.

When questioned, my diagnosis was true, forceps without anaesthetic, consequently severe shock had damaged the nervous column, stopping every Chakra in its revolving action. While the little secret glands at the bottom of the spine, were completely destroyed, taking away the rights of woman to dance the mystery of le Ros.

This would have affected the coccyx, the tail, where she keeps her leviathan, her wealth or Kundalini fire. Consequently no fire persisting, the whole of the soul-body coming under the Saturn regime, the solidifying agent of Aquarius. One who had a far seeing mind, placed the patient's name on the healing roll of the School, with the result she began to move her arms, and speech became possible. This was all due to the faith and belief of the one who made it possible for this soul to come to London for the first time, and receive the Solar Ray coming down in the School. For once she made connection, and if they continued trying to open up her mind with the teachings, she could blossom back into livable life.

But here was the dire work of some medical man, who not having to give birth to the child himself, and tired of waiting for the birth, cared not regarding the life of a woman, who was now suffering at his hands.

Granted, when I looked into her chart, it bore the mark of Karma, but even with that, she could have been helped, and quite possibly have been saved the worst of her tribulation. Being a woman, I know the rigours of childbirth, and to have received what she did when waiting to deliver, in my estimation it amounted to dire murder.

When is this going to stop? When is man going to become humane, and although he may have a difficult exacting task to perform, because of Karmic "sand," do so with spirit directing his hands.

On the same evening as the above case, was one who had had tonsillitis and was administered penicillin as an antidote. This had a dire effect, and the patient has been suffering ever since with sick headaches, and at times nausea of a very difficult type to handle. There was no doubt, the bacteria from which this gruesome and evil creation was extracted from, had got into her liver, and was causing her untold difficulty with her metabolism.

EARTHBOUND

MAN bound on the rock of Time by the mystery of illusion, believing that he had found the wealth of life, when in reality he was chained to Time and the sorrow of Tomorrow. (See text in col. 5).

The trouble being, the men stoned with text-book wisdom, have no soul grace, consequently no soul mind, and see nothing else but human form that give them the opportunity to use the knife. All this seems very enormous and complicated to right, but at the end of this article, I will relate how simple it is going to be.

The Path of Greater Understanding

AT that same session, a woman who had been suffering with her back for 28 years, and never received any real and lasting help from the medical man, was convinced to come to the School for help, and immediately on the first application of healing, found her back righted. From then it was a matter of straightening out. While her husband who had had to wear a spinal collar, was now feeling the strength of the neck at the back.

It means that these souls required their bodies being adjusted, and the Solar Ray being administered. Once this was done, they were ready for the Word to expand their mind and set them on the path of greater understanding. But the difficulty with most, they do not want to change, and that is where they have to think.

Now I come to a more exacting case, where much was exposed and laid bare.

The facts of this case are intimately known to me, so are not a matter of heresy. One having lost the use of their limbs through certain incidents happening in their life, went into hospital when they should have fought to prove Spirit Healing. The fact of that alone would have put things right, or in the right direction, for we do not understand the way and direction of spirit, which is our own major consistency.

On entry into the hospital, it was requested that no drugs were used whatsoever. For this soul had become deeply initiated and in so doing, had become highly sensitised; consequently their blood was thin and they were sparse of flesh. In adopting the new way of life, which they were initiating into creative action, they had to accept the way that spirit was acting through their consistency. This appeared as leukaemia where the soul was dropping the red corpuscles of animal tissue, and adopting the white corpuscles of spirit rebirth.

place, but pioneers ever have to pave the way with trust and belief, otherwise there would be no created structure.

Initiations versus Drugs

THE difficulty that followed was due to initiation, which they had decided to undertake, coupled with an accident, that finally caused their leg difficulties for the time being. Yet all linked up with a Karmic harvest that came at the time of their taking the initiation, as though seeking retribution at the last.

This one in going into hospital, which they need not have done if their basic attitude had been different, called for special care. Therefore, it was explained that he was an initiate, and a strict vegetarian.

Upon examination, the first thing they did was to pump into the bloodstream a saline solution, which the soul had been spending 12 years cleansing his blood from. Drugs were administered which were of a mineral nature, which again the soul had been extracting from his glandular growth.

Then the most diabolical of all, a lumbar puncture was taken from the precious fluid that they had been raising up in frequency through the taking of the Word ever since they were a child. When a complaint was lodged on behalf of this one, who by now was completely non-compos mentis, it was stated,

"Do you not want them to Live?"

The reply was,

"It is not the physical we are concerned about, but the soul living on and not being damaged."

"Oh!"

Replied the medical man. "We do not understand anything of that."

It being an hospital impregnated with Roman Catholic states, thus completely ignorant of anything regarding the greater wisdom of life. Which (See plate page 9, cols. 1 & 2) will answer those who ask the question, Why is Mrs. Spearman-Cook so much against Roman Catholics?

Their ignorance is appalling, and without a mind a soul is blind, and when in the position which they have edged themselves into, are killing the Race rapidly.

As dreadful as it may appear, and dire in its action, I take my hat off to China for the action she has just recently taken. For the Catholics were not particular at Vietnam, which repeats the Inquisitional strain once again.

In the case of the soul in hospital, it finally resulted in them losing their soul value, and where they had a brilliant mind, they now coming down to a mindless state, for they entered onto the plane of Rebirth blind and blank, having in frequency sunk to the base. Thus a curious mixture of having taken such an initiation, but blank in frequency and sensitivity. Therefore, all will ever be mind memory up in the brain cells that will be closed down for the time being. Yet the cerebellum ever calling out like Scylla and Charybdis.

With the soul awakening a little, they found sufficient mind and courage to fight any future application of drugs, but fighting Roman Catholics regarding wisdom, is like dressing Polyphemus up in an evening suit, and taking him to the finest demonstration of wisdom, and it shuts its ears and eyes, on the ground that the pope demands it.

You begin to wonder whether they are human, or how any human soul could be so inane and blind, since they never state any belief or spiritual aptitude.

So it can be seen what a big task that soul had chosen while they were now sick through what had been done to them. For now the damage was done, all that could return to them was of an earthy state, having lost their sensitivity gained by initiation. Then secondly, the cord was severed, which would have to be repaired, that is, if the soul so requires, and blended up by prayer and devotion.

The Glandular Activity

HOW much longer is it going to be before man learns that it is not by the physical that he is healed, but by the etheric body; that of the bloodstream and Chakras, the inner sensitivity.

Plugging the body with drugs only earths it, to later become solidified, apart from the denizen of the astral planes.

The matter of spirit has been the wisdom of orthodoxy ever since it was formed, but they have ever been afraid to go any higher than Jupiter. But Roman Catholicism NO! Then what do they think goes to purgatory.

Now this soul is being told that they are getting well; yes, as an animal, but where is the SOUL? All I hope, is that the Waters will make greater and quicker entry into matter, whereby these individuals will be stopped from their diabolical creations, and be made to open up their minds in the right direction, making them see that there are other things in life beside food, drink and sex.

To understand this a little better, it would be as well if we give a little thought to the pituitary gland which has such great bearing on life unfolding. From the gland point of view, it is a follicle-stimulating hormone creation that sets the seeds of life revolving for the feeding of the mind.

For this gland and the reproductive duct are united by that hormone secretion, and protects them from becoming born of large extremities; acromegaly bringing states up from the past. But bringing into birth Acth which stimulates the adrenal cortex by acting on the renal tubules, setting the basic of the mind into activity.

For as the soul sets this into action below, it makes contact with the heights, where greater purpose is set into motion by polarity of Cosmic reflective rebirth. Since this controls birth and rebirth and all modes of activity, it links with that of the Chinese depths, the roots of TIME and action.

The Dragon Fire that stimulates the soul into active purpose, or brings back the lethargic desires of dreaming as their mystic right of union. For it connects the old world with the new, the road of lunar unfoldment, the Brahmic and the umbilical cord of reality or illusion. Therefore the gland that gives of life, also determines death.

To prevent the pituitary sending down secretion of an acromegaly nature, man must expand by looking upwards, and drawing down into his depths Elements of an expansive nature.

Not elements twisted and distorted by man's negative outlook. For as a man's thoughts are at a pre-natal conception, will they have bearing on the birth of the child at the solar rendering. For the conception takes place under the moon, the birth under the solar effusion, which accounts for the deformities now coming into birth. This includes mongols which are a Pterodactyle creation.

The soul never turning in of his roots by expansion, because he was ever swimming in the lunar waters, and never woven his etheric garments.

This points out the great damage being done by the medical world who are not interested in the soul being saved, and religious authorities worshipping a dead god who only sends back dead states. They causing the soul to remain in retention, bringing forth of their old states into present birth.

Denying the soul the right to finding the mortuary meal, for the old past states are bringing the soul to a dead end. Neither of these believe in the mystery working of this gland, one only seeing a state of flesh as a form, the other clinging to a stagnant theory of creed and dogma.

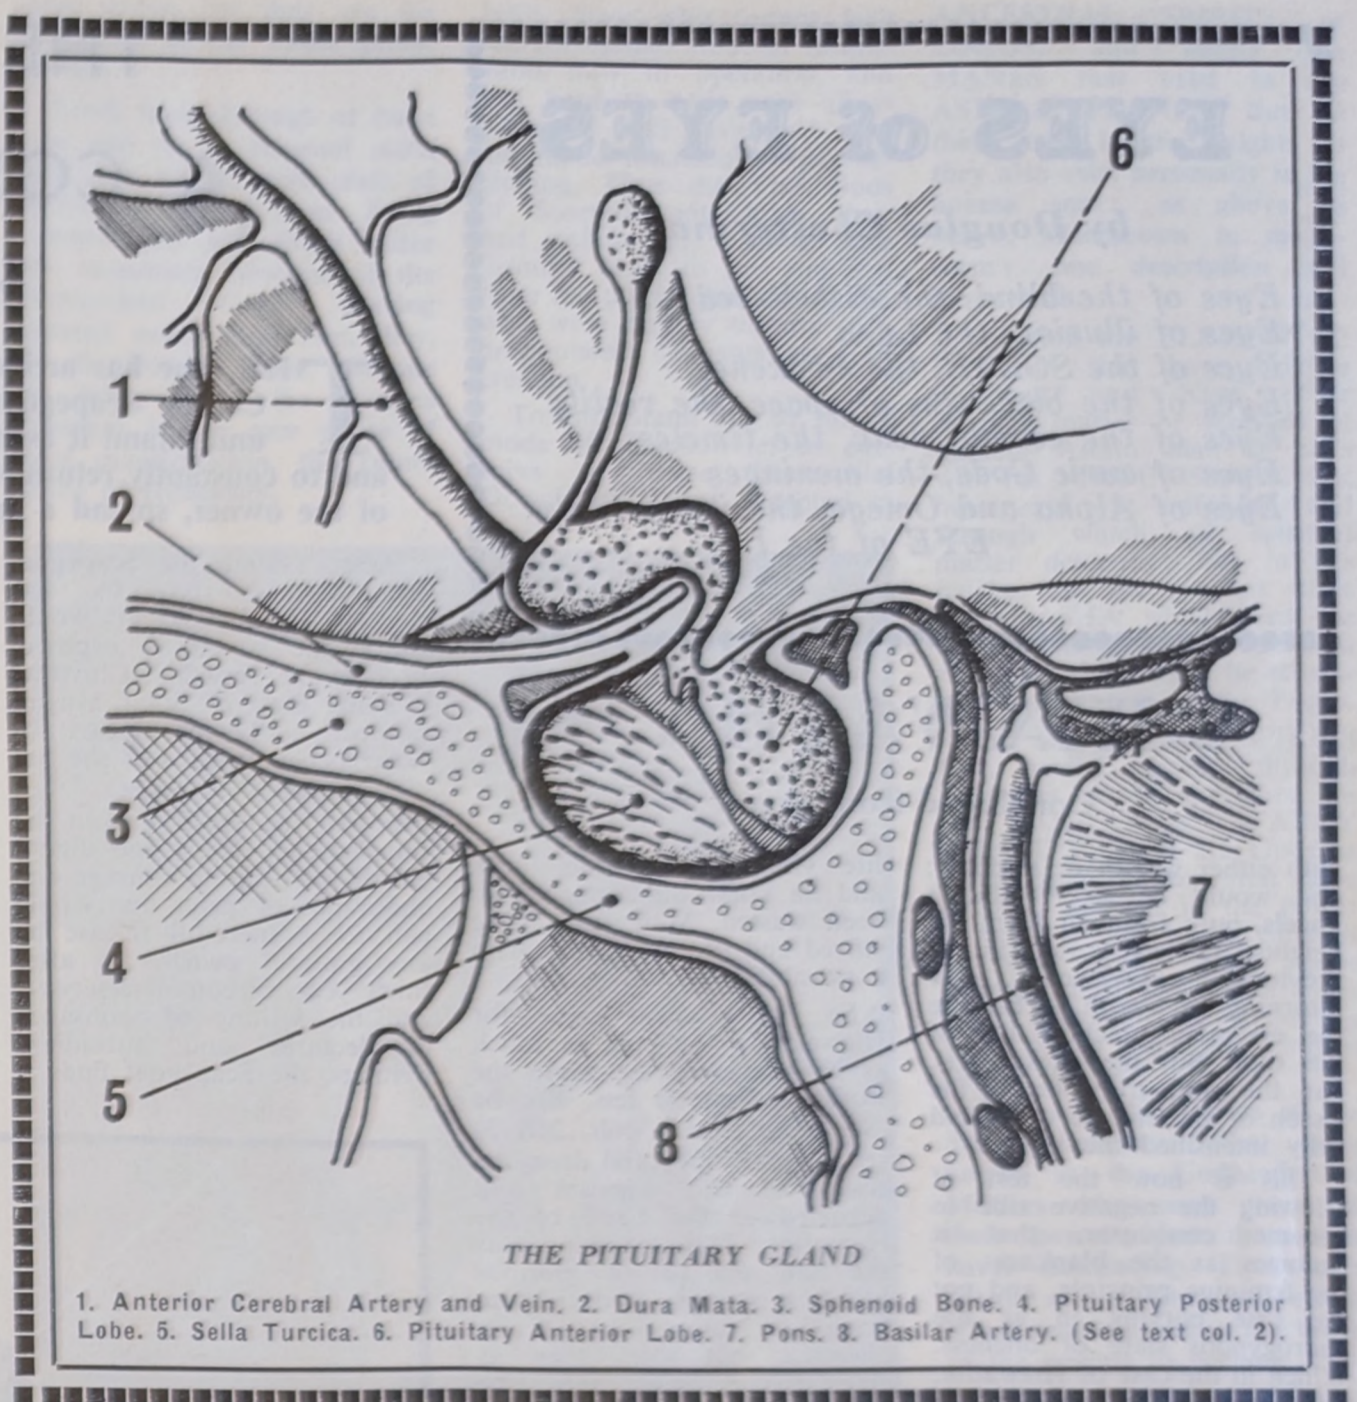

BOTH TEXT-BOOK BOYS OF A DEAD LANGUAGE, BUT DETRIMENTAL TO THE WORLD'S GROWTH AND EXPANSION.

(See plate cols. 3, 4 & 5)

Poise and Glandular Activity

THE third matter I would like to mention, is deafness, for many come with hope that we can cure their ears that are blank. Firstly, these organs are very complicated and delicate, and do not like being tampered with, they having balance and poise as a part of their equipment. But most of all the sinus and sinus sphenoid as their tubes of connection, many of them being thrombosed and choked, blocked with mucus that has hardened, and has to be broken by spirit breaking through.

This is very delicate, and it takes a long time, so the best advice to all is herbs that keep the sinus clear. But whatever you do, do not have the bone in the nose punctured, for it proves itself to be abortive, bringing untold trouble which people expect the spirit world to clear up.

In fact they expect to be given another kidney, or some such organ. If you listen to those who tell you that you can do without that organ, or can have a slice chopped off that organic structure and you will be better, then I can only say you deserve what results.

When you see what awful creations souls eat for health giving diet, they deserve what comes in time. No wonder the sinus becomes blocked with mucus, and the mastoid bone ever gets blocked in its spongy tissue. Then like a friend of mine, deaf, who could hear with a deaf-aid, had an operation that cost £300, and went stone deaf.

Showing without a doubt, that money was the purpose here, for if they had gone into hospital such could have been performed out of a mercy act, although both were wrong.

The Perfect Cosmic Law

WHAT man wants, is the Solar Ray that should have come into birth in the Taurean Period, but man continued with his desires in a more diabolical way than ever. Great wealth came to the Earth, brought down by Merope, but turned once again to his own purpose, with the result man is now at the bottom of the ladder crying out for mercy.

IT HAS ONLY BEEN THROUGH THE WISDOM ARRIVED AT IN THIS SCHOOL, WHICH BROUGHT DOWN THE ATOMIC RAYS, WHEREBY THE SOLAR FIELD WAS BROUGHT INTO BIRTH.

And although appearing complicated to man at the present moment, the unification that had to take place, and all placed on the path of oneness, where the Solar Lord, having been brought into birth through correct wisdom, was no different to what was advocated in the Holy Book.

This has brought the CENTRAL SUN radiating over mankind, with Scorpio as the Seed Generator bringing down the HOLY FIRES, and man being fed with divine life. This is not just a matter of belief, but a fact brought into birth and established as the COSMIC LAW.

Hence the subsidence of the Catholics, the failure of Graham, and man secretly seeking into Occult wisdom. This is where the Higher Powers have now flooded the earth, and man is being given a greater understanding of life and its purpose; hence the chaos that is ensuing in different directions.

THE POWERS INFUSING MAN WITH THE SEED CREATION OF CHANGE, AND MAN IN HIS SATURNIAN STATE REFUSING TO LISTEN. THEREFORE CHAOS IS ABOUT TO REIGN WHILE MAN IS BEING RE-CREATED.

This is the greatest opportunity the Higher Powers have ever had of bringing reconstruction to the earth. These Powers are going to be the means of burning up a terrific amount of waste that is with the physical body, therefore in the long run will be an enormous asset to the soul. Although while with man as a cleansing element, will cause him some discomfort.

The depth of this the medical world do not comprehend, they fail to see the greater depth of man, they only see form, feed form, and know no more. That is why Roman Catholicism survives amongst them, for they do not have to think, everything is done for them, for thinking is hard work, it is creative with responsibility attached.

That is why it is the means of bringing the etheric body into birth; therefore the Powers have had to try and sort all this out in the soul's creation. But as soon as a man begins to think, and can reconstruct, he is called into action and shown the way to go. Then he starts to become an independent creator, and is called upon to assist the blind.

Through all these changes, the greatest lesson man has to learn, is the fact that he is born of spirit, and by spirit must he be fed. If not, the physical body which is something he brought into birth, and is perishable, becomes a seething state of pus and waste, resulting in the states of sickness now with him.

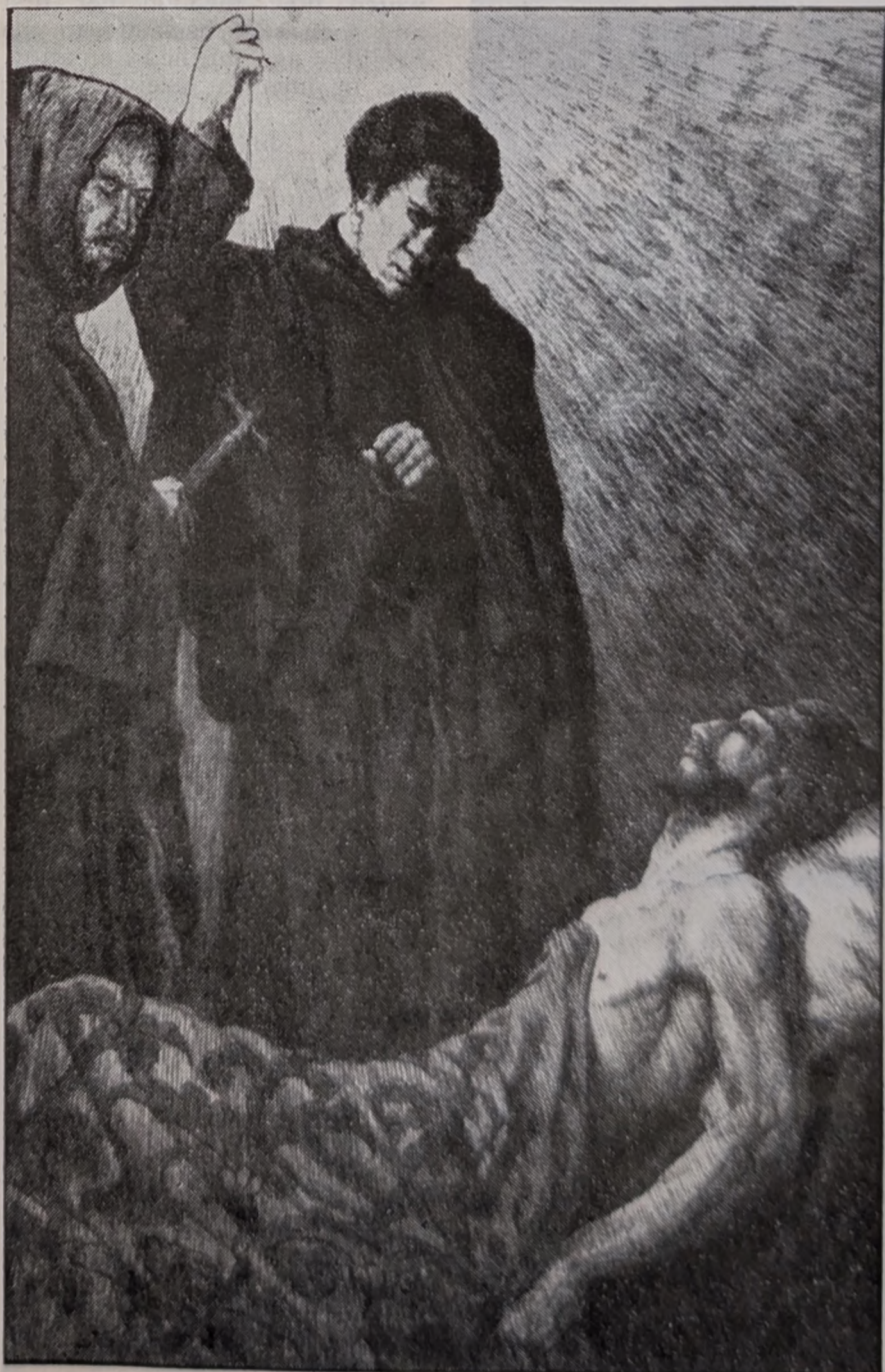

But the change over from one state into another is the secret, and the difficulty which the Higher Powers have been wrestling with. So it needed a Scapegoat to make the course first, then the "gate was made strait," and every man could make the journey in comparative ease, but not without building a mind body that linked with the higher Powers. Therefore drawing off their wealth to sustain him.

This is what the medical world have not yet accepted, hence go on carrying out many a diabolical act that results in a soul being crippled or far worse off than when they started. Being a healer, I am more conversant regarding this than any other, for they come to me, expecting me to return what the medical man has taken away or damaged.

Except for a broken limb, which needs setting, there is nothing that herbs cannot put right, but it takes much longer for it deals with the difficulty through the etheric body.

THIS IS WHERE THE SOUL SEEKS INTO ITSELF, AND LEARNS THE TRUTH ABOUT ITSELF, AND STARTS TO THINK, ACT AND GROW.

I do not make this statement without having put all to the test, and proving without doubt, what I say is authentic and true.

THE SOUL DESTROYERS

HOW can man, devoid of wisdom and biased by legislated thoughts, possibly be guided to heal the sick who need the glory of the etheric mind. Not man's born ideas to raise a sect up as the power of the land but God's truth, wisdom, as the glory of the mind, the heavenly Eucharist of Truth. (See text on page 8, col. 5).

with either wealth or nothing; and would be as Abraham's angels, pure fresh air from the heights. Ghosts buried in by previous experience, now returning as wealth to become the everyday practical life of the soul. But the question is, has the soul truly learnt the lesson of the change over, and fully intensified the spirit.

This is now the test of allowing the negative side to become conqueror, that it becomes as the blankness of the feminine principle, and not the true burying in as the androgynous state of oneness. Which in the case of Hiawatha, must result in the soul becoming electrified, and spinning upwards from North to South, and no longer from East to West to find the answer. But spontaneous action from the perceptory principle now in action, for the great wealth that Hiawatha had brought, was not understood or comprehended.

Hence Minnehaha was attacked by famine, for man did not understand and feed the cause with fire and zeal. Truth had come to the earth, but not perceived and replenished as it should have been, for man lives for the day and cares not for tomorrow. Thus poor Minnehaha died and was buried in, leaving Hiawatha lost and bewildered, for she was the counter wealth. He had much to learn and comprehend in the wisdom of unification, for the White-man's foot was the entry of the Elephant Powers, the enormity of the depths, that when they unite with the Powers from Outer-Space, bring forth the Voice of the Almighty Shaddai.

The Divinity of the Fatherhood, the en Gloriam of light, for Hiawatha now reborn by the inbirth of Minnehaha, was now an androgynous creature by the inbirth. A one-ness that gave him a fulness of vision, the risen Solar Auric Splendour. The manifestation of the immortal Godhead as the risen up Holy Fire; that which now was demanding the ascension of Hiawatha to the Kingdom of Ponemah.

The treading in of the White-man's foot, is the treading in of Truth; that which no man can deny, for Truth makes entry that cannot be prevented, as the new LAW now rules the earth, and all men are being born anew by the rolling waters. Thus Hiawatha as a God of Truth returned back to the Kingdom of the Blessed, where all men return, when united into the glory of Buddha-Atma, as the Oneness of Being.

What should have been never came forth, but due to come another day, "as the secrets of the future." For by the shore of Gitche Gumea, Hiawatha waited, then he saw life vibrate and come forth, and he knew that nought had been wasted. Men were being stirred and life was rising, with a possibility of tomorrow.

So the moment came for Hiawatha to go, and as much as he prepared, the more the world understood less. But he (See plate page 7, cols. 2 & 3) set all into order and drew the cover of the wigwam and departed to the Land of the Hereafter. This to many was the sad end of a glorious belief, a struggle and fight to bring a Nation out of its dilemma, but man, then as man today, saw only the immediate moment, and not the world of Hereafter. So as he, Hiawatha, had launched his birch-canoe for sailing and cried Westward, did the purple mists of evening descend, with him sailing away leaving the waters lapping on the rising pebbles.

BUT ALSO DID MEROPE, THE QUEEN OF THE WATERPOT WHO CAME UP FROM THE SOUTH, BRING LIFE AND GLORY TO THE NATIONS, AND FINISH OFF WHAT THESE GREAT HEROES BEGAN.

But once again, man is blind and only knows of his pots and kettles, his furs and wampum, so as Minnehaha experienced the famine and went unto the land far away, so did Merope. Heroes that fly off to a world that is full of light and glory, that which they have created as the divine counterpart of their struggles, that which will ever bring joy anew, for it is the raining possibility. Life where no darkness ever descends, for there is the outcome of their labours; the struggle to teach mankind LOVE.

Therefore as all who have given and made new life, would it leave only a shadow path to awaken the world to truth. For man is only seeking for self, the Saturn glory of the mind effusion. The Northwest Wind as a shadowy beholding, and a hazy idea of truth.

Therefore the Canoe sailing off into the fiery Sunset, the mighty Central Sun, into the World of Heavenly Light, the World of Purity and Grace. Then out of the mist a figure rising up, spinning up into the heavenly glory, leaving the World behind.

What had seemed a lost cause, a life full to the very brim, for Hiawatha as indeed Merope, had as a God from the heights, entered into the depths, and blessed the world with Light and Grace.

SUCH LOVE AS THIS MAN DOES NOT UNDERSTAND. WHEN HE DOES, HE WILL KNOW THE TRUE MEANING OF LOVE.

THE STRUGGLES OF A COSMIC SCAPEGOAT

by David Spearman-Cook

THE time has arrived for the whole world to know what it means to be a Cosmic Scapegoat and the extent that that one has to suffer. Very few understand it as being the one sent out into the desert to search for fodder and to constantly return with wealth that can eventually, through the skilful hands of the owner, spread a layer of wealth upon the bread of life.

After a time the Scapegoat ages and at sixty six, has through troubles that would shock the world if exposed, become the very first Christ as a living issue of Solar Magnificence, a Divine Heart of Solar benevolence. For she has (See plate below) captured the WORD from the thorn-strewn desert and digested all with untold courage and endurance of pain, that would call for a merciful release by any grateful owner. So after thirty years of complete service, and the writing of thousands of lectures and subsidiary writings, the Scapegoat finds it difficult to constantly expand through the selfish states of man.

This is through ignorance of what it is to give, and to live an ideal till all has ripened into fruitfulness. Mrs. Spearman-Cook, known as Zamiaar (The Light of the Temple) by many, has given truth to all that have sought of her for it. She in return has not given flattery that would feed them with ego, but the truth that most men will not accept. Consequently they, when given truth, flounder through the impact and the jolt of the resounding mortuary meal, and the soul rebels through its lack of forthrightness over Ages of lives.

For man is truly gutless, an essence of negative states, for never has he been positive enough to accept the truth without some kind of excuse stealing into the mind as recompense. Now he will neither accept nor give, and is in a state of rebellion and tries to shelve the truth on to one side. This is causing the Cosmic vibrations to become chaotic in response, through the density of I WANT.

Mrs. Spearman-Cook as the Master, feels all this pain and anguish, but through her LOVE is the stop gap that is saving HIM from this utter confusion, by her filtering and balancing the elements through her body. The MASTER is pure atomic light ever to burn and never diminish. HE now as the elegance of the Solar perfect LIFE Elements, the radiant fiery infusing warmth that feeds all souls with life, now pours forth His LOVE to her as the Over-shadowing Presence.

Making her the one and only Master upon the Solar Plane ever manifested through Time, for she is Divinity, and we should all begin to bow the knee, smash our Saturn Ruled theories of "I am the almighty" instead of the "I am the almighty that can become" if I accept the fact that it is done by one soul that untwists the chaotic states of the world, which flow through her first and then sent back up to the heights as purified creation. We in turn to receive of her frequency of heart infused beauty, through the very breath we breathe and the very Word of hers that we devour, thereby receiving of the Scapegoat's sacrifice.

For to be a willing colander that drains all man's desires calls for the strength of a human dynamo, and this I know Mrs. Spearman-Cook has, granite endurance and true LOVE for worthless you and I. So please give this a thought and if you don't believe, just give it a second thought, for you then may be saved from denying the living Christ, born and living within your midst as the Fiery WORD of Universal Truth.

THE SCAPEGOAT VICTORIOUS

that the fourth dimension does not consist of the same material as the third, AND DRASTIC CHANGES HAVE TO BE MADE.

Referring to the feminine creation as Woman is not referring to gender, but to a period when form and shape were still undetermined, still lacking in purpose, therefore negative. Thus neither male nor female organs prevailed, but creatures similar to those of the present day misfits, where the dual state ensues; for that more than any other is a retrogressive state that is prevailing with that soul and has come forward in the blood species for reformation.

Now, as seen in the degenerates, these states are beginning to manifest in relativity with mind fully developed, thus dangerous; and whereas before in their own natural state they were mindless and harmless, they can now be virulent and destructive, and require retention until they can be restrained and taught to become useful minds.

It can only be by seeking into wisdom and bringing the mind onto a plane of higher vibration of thought and action, that the soul can change these species and bring them into a oneness of purpose. The soul in command of its blood.

The Old Past States

WHEN the soul leaves the body its blood constituents are retained in that soul as colour and vibration which conducts the soul to its abode in the hereafter; on its return into the womb, by those self-same vibrations will it draw from the mother blood its new blood stream that will contain its own blood species. This is one of the great mysteries of life, and over all the ages has ever been considered one of the innermost secrets of life, particularly the blood link between mother and son.

So on this explanation, let us now turn to investigate the consistency of the past that would be as the species to be found in the human blood, and would be the basic of what man has to reform as being that from which he has come from. Old past states that many have never changed, and accounts for the states of disease that are now rampant.

The prehuman life once lived as tribes where many could not even speak or utter, for their mode of motivation was solely physical and not mental. Therefore prevailed in a similar way to animals; even in some cases still retaining a tail, for they were shedding of animal form in dissolution to build an upright stance of a mind directed life. But life was so primitive and unborn, that even the physical was not brought finally to creation, for in many tribes the desires were rampant with organs of sex not fully developed.

The male element was nowhere yet in the state of creation, therefore where it had grown was very undeveloped; and many states of artifice were being born by the cunning animal instincts that were super, owing to the preceding state of mind coming forth and combining with the animal instincts of self-preservation.

This period in the ancient myths was known as Oannes coming forth from the waters; a descending Embodiment to guide and be the means of further reorientation of the form-life. For unless LIFE, the mode of Evolution, pressed onwards, there could be no form of retaliation of breath and rebirth from the higher sources; those planes which gave man Life and Virilic substance. Therefore destiny would stop and that could never be; so there is only one mode of direction.

Seek into the past, which can only be done through the blood life, and bring about a unity of thought between the two states, that a complete circumference will reveal the cause, and help man reorientate his steps. This is what the psychologist is seeking to do, but if the man himself knew what his difficulties were he would put them right himself. But unfortunately they do not only belong to this life, but right from "beginning," and many are states that belong to the primitive.

The Hierarchial Gods

AEONS of time ago what is now man as mind was spirit taking on of vestures as soul creation. This, as the period of descent, or emerging from nebulae state, goes back much further than Biblical records declare. So to commence our journey without confusion, try to take your mind-eye back at least 65,000 years; years ago when spirit, as new thought sent forth, began another journey of emerging onwards in Evolutionary Destiny.

This represents 2½ Solar Years, each year representing 26,000 years; in the present Hierarchial system of life each year of 26,000 indicates the time it takes for the Solar System to revolve through the signs of the Zodiac. Therefore we will try and use this as a mode of spacing time and keeping our mind directed.

The nearest to utterable form in the present plan unfoldment is the first 26,000 years of our collective figure, leaving 39,000. Then we can talk of the garden of Eden or Paradise when Spirit as soul lived in life perfection, but not in state of motivation. No zest of becoming, just remaining, therefore no activity of evolution. This meant Evolution had slowed up and the higher forces were becoming starved and lacking of "Dew".

Earth creation whatever vibration it was radiating on, must move, for they are the workshop of the whole gamut of life.

Earth then although of form was still in an ethereal state, and man as the mass state of elemental power was being compounded and living under the immediate direction of the Hierarchial Gods. Having created and placed him, they, as the Powers, must continue to bring forth the Unseen Element in the new phase of soul manifestation, the future Race of Humanity.

THE MYSTERY OF EVE

WAS she to blame or did he lead her on, where does the mystery begin. She picked the apple, the choice of the wisdom, but he never refused to eat it. This is the mystery of wisdom unfolded, and sent back as expanded light. Perhaps as she climbs up the hill of Truth she will reveal the answer as Venus-Urania. (See text on page 13, col. 1).

But the soul ever since has lacked of this direction owing to its increasing states of self, and now knows not of that Director; for in the devolution that eventually took place, Agapæ fabricated into life and began working as an undercurrent of fire seething and boiling as the negative current of the magnetic field called Life.

SO THERE WAS ONLY ONE ACTION; THE GREATER ELEMENTS MUST DESCEND AND EMBODY MAN THAT THEY COULD LEAD AND GUIDE HIM INTO THE DIRECTION OF ACTIVITY REQUIRED FOR EVOLUTION TO CONTINUE.

At that period of unfoldment incarnation was as a descent from plane to plane, in the same way as to return was plane after plane of ascent. This was the intended mode of generation, with regeneration as ascension; for the Spirit planes are still teeming with life awaiting pure birth, those who cannot take the corruptible mode of incarnation now in operation, and will have to wait until all is reformed and redeemed into the mode intended in the beginning. Thus the Fire Gods of Scorpio sent down their first inflow of Atomic Fire through Mars to stir and activate the placid children of life, who were rapidly turning to a pronounced narcissus state of creation.

To understand this by simple mode of direction let us perceive of these Hierarchial Gods; but if not accepted in ANCESTRAL SPIRITS, or LOGOS, and finally the MANES that exist in the ASTRAL PLANES. But as these exist in the heights so they also exist personally in the human soul; as above so below, Macrocosm to microcosm: one description will cover both.

The first are ELEMENTAL POWERS that have become divinized and have never touched matter or received of matter. Within man it links with his VIRGIN SPARK that has never yet unfolded, and through which all spiritual matter descends; but in the heights are the purified states of AKASHA which feed the lower planes with continual new life which must be returned as divination of the Logos.

The second are the SPIRITS that, having become through acting as human ancestors, are the LOGOS or STARRY HEIGHTS; these are Gods as superhuman powers that have become glorified in the power descent to the lower of that received from the upper heights, but they themselves never descending but becoming unfolded by mode of being in realms below.

These are the powers of the Starry heights; what man knows as the Godhead and Masters who send down of their powers, but themselves never descending. Thus their atoms are within man, which when returned cause the Gods in the heights to become.

These become equal in their descent to elemental powers of earth, and astronomically, become of Kronidae in matter, or man's Saturn or rock-like state that he is continually seeking to reform. Not that these states come to earth, but they send of their Atomical Fiery Essence as Life-Breath via the Gods; they are superhuman Powers. If viewed in a scientific way, quite logical; or is man so lost in the density of worldliness to have lost entirely all belief in his ancient heritage, for man must have come from these heights whatever they be.

The third, if seen as beings of many degrees of the ASTRAL PLANES, can be recognised as souls that were once mortal and are now continually incarnating and making for up-stream towards the Starry heights as starry light of firmamental creation. These are the souls who make the spirit planes and in their degrees range from gods to manes. These are the layers of Astral planes of Spiritualistic belief, which have been brought into active creation by alchemicalised crucible soul creation of earth.

The higher Powers that have descended into matter becoming alchemicalized in the human form, now in Spiritual realms as planes of living life.

So having established in a minute degree the higher planes, let us return to the period of the first Embodiment that caused so much disaster in world changes, one that has affected all time since. The Glorified of the heights, who had not yet known of the depths, sent down into matter the Heroes of the future life; those who were sent to embody life in the planes of matter, bringing with them the Fiery Draft of Scorpio; actual Gods descending into matter.

This began the movement of the Water Element, the emotional state within the creatures, states that had never stirred but now began to "boil" and "fume". These gods as Spirit descent stirred and roused the inertia state of matter; but in their entry into matter went too far and lost balance and took unto themselves in the soul creation daughters of men as lovers, and the "Pot" boiled over.

If we see this in a simple light as could even happen today, it will appear quite tangible. As the soul became filled with fire, brought about by these strangers among men, it stirred up ideas bringing changes to the physical, glandular and bloodstream, as well as the mind outlook. Its mode at the time we cannot range or perceive, but its prototype we can, and it was as simple as that.

To lay yet another but a more simple guide, try to see the lower arc of the astrological chart as the guide to the creation of the soul and its degree of unfoldment up to the present day. It is as the molten metal of the soul creation being poured into the crucible of life over the next 26,000 years, leaving yet 13,000 to be accounted for.

These 26,000 were the years of Beginning of the Human Race creation of the soul, when the activity taken by the Fiery Essence in its descent into matter caused a negative direction of action to ensue. This gave unto that creation of the mode of generation which resulted in a form of abnormality, which unfortunately degenerated into corruptibility in the final 13,000 years.

This we can place as the Atlantean period.

The Creative Cosmic Unfoldment

THIS may see extreme in visualizing such a vast expanse of time as past creation, but why not? At least man cannot deny, that which is stated to be with us today as the results of the past, is quite correct. Now the question is, what about the last 13,000 in our scheme of time and what about the planets placed in the upper region of the chart.

Unfortunately man has been stampeding in devolution over this period of years, and it can be reckoned that the History of the Old and New Testament covers this period of time as Cosmic unfoldment. It must not be seen under states of personalities, as all in these Books refer to Cosmic creation, and spurious historical description has been used. But for all that, true from wisdom standpoint and Cosmic embodiment and that is all we need for guidance, for it will ever repeat itself as a prototype over all the cycles and planes.

Thus man has for one half of a Cosmic year, 13,000 years, been thinking about how and where to go. By this, if the chart is available, it can be studied and each individual can see how far it has evolved over those years.

If the Sun is down low in the chart, it would indicate a low rate of solar intake. The soul satisfied with emotional achievements and not mind, and must make every endeavour to build of a mind body to cope with the coming period of mind unfoldment. This has already begun to show of the demand that is going to be made upon the Race by the many sick conditions of mind that have already arisen.

proceed as it is at the present; so we need some explanation as to why we are in the present difficulties, and as much scientific as spiritual.

So let us begin with those things that are at the basic of human unfoldment which lie within the blood and is the whole context of the soul creation. Therefore here lies the whole story, and nothing can be more accurate than the one word Karma, nothing can be more true than "AS YE SOW, SO YE MUST REAP."

All that we are seeking to know now is to be found in the Myths and Legends of the past, for they are the condensed creeds of the soul's principles and purpose as they made their unfoldment through the procedure of life. Their beliefs as unfolding human life were set up as tribal growth by Totem ascension in the same way as man has climbed further towards a God through Religion.

world's trend of comprehension, and yet all was the basic of the present, and it can only be by understanding of the past that we can correct the present and produce the future. We must remember that the preceding world states today would have no rhyme and reason to our present mode and basic of understanding, and yet they are within our blood as our basic creation.

From those states an unfolding began, which in its differentiation began to form all layers of ultimate creation; for in the acorn there is the whole prototype of the Oak Tree; in the human seed there is the whole of the child. Eyes, nose, entrails, brain, fingernails and every particle required to produce that child. So with man from the beginning of creation, where the soul took on of seven vestures as seven "coats of skin."

For all the time man was descending, the Elements were 13,000 years ago in the Period of the Golden Age of Egypt has ever been the pattern of the blood issue with the proceeding years for the potter to build and mould the vase that it contained the precious issue of life. In the bloodstream of every soul lies the particle prototype of the past as the future kingdom of the Destiny of Evolution.

So to find that which is so lacking, and causing the world to run amok at the present moment, we must enquire into that of the past, that in its simplicity we have moved away from, and built up complications which we call modern and worldly, but which have caused so many to become lost and confused. By uniting the two we can bring forth the right answer and discard of those things that have been substituted for truths that have been badly prostituted.

Knowledge and religion that have led man into erroneous ideas, that today are more the outcome of mental breakdown than mental uplift and must be rectified. Stories that have been woven to create a false dignity and which today has resulted in a complete collapse into an antichrist age, when the promised inflow of the Christos Light was destined.

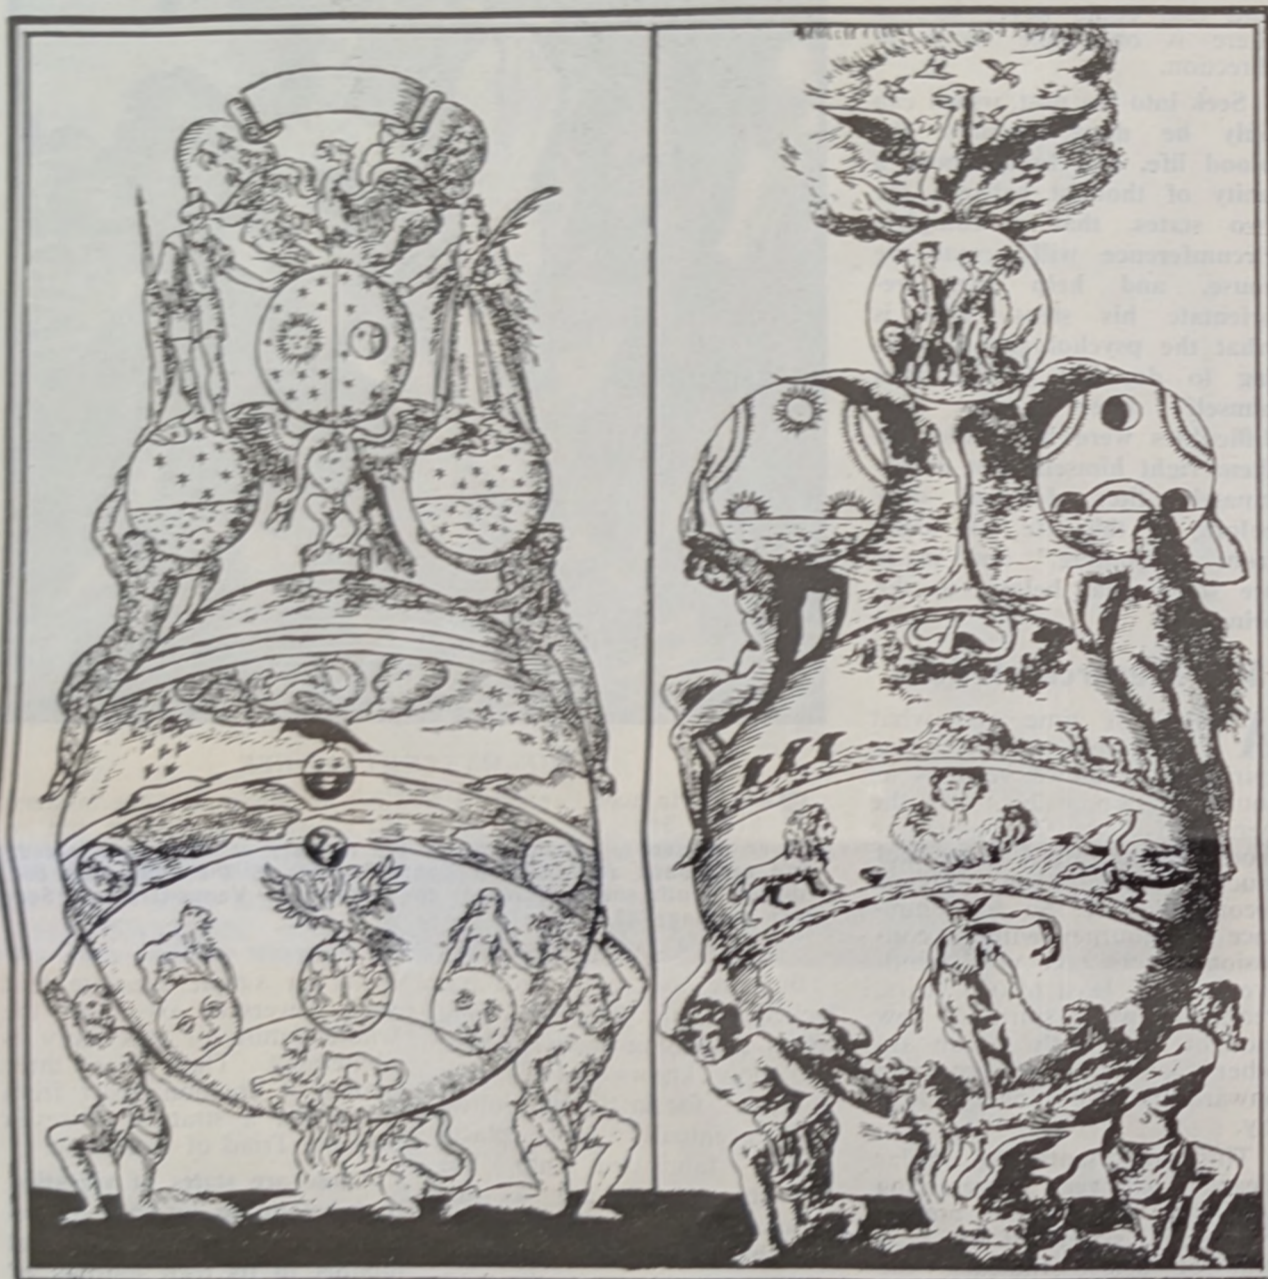

The beginning of a period, that was the outcome of the finale of the Triune Solar Years, when the soul was to make its debut into the creation destined for the virgin spark or monad that left the heights thousands of years ago. A blood issue that was to convey Time in its bosom, and to come forth as a living testimony as Man, who would return to the Source as a living mind creation having fulfilled the work of furthering Evolution.

The Life Stream

HAVING seen the logic of that investigation, let us try and perceive that man as spirit was a fully created man awaiting virilic action as a mind creation. The mystery lies in creating the vase and bringing forth of the wine without spilling it in the dust of matter, and bringing forth only of muddy water. So now back to our investigation of the prototype; here was Eden, the world of gods, not animals, gods in their own created right awaiting expansion.

This is the real meaning of Atlantis, a primeval world where all was radiant and luxurious, and electrified with virilic waters that infused the soul with life and action. But the soul so contented would not make expansion and began the first seeds of inertia and self-will; therefore what was to take place with regards to the Elements and Atoms that had descended from the Hierarchical heights that had begun the next creation on the Prototypal Plan?

They could not stop or cut off in midstream, Nature even in her secondary form is limited here. So force had to be injected and the Fiery Element drove down deep and hard into the creation of demi-gods of potential humans. This was the work of Lucifer

THE ALCHEMY OF LIFE

HERE we see the Elementa chymiae, the mystery of the great work, for on the left we see an example of the alchemy of the elements, and on the right, it having been created into a vase by the labours of the man and maid. As soon as man can understand this, he will have solved the mystery of life and laid the foundation for the expansion of the Word. This is the mighty Philosophic Egg. (See page 13, col. 1).

IT IS ALREADY A SERIOUS NATIONAL PROBLEM.

The soul must begin a journey of relativity where it will unite the past with the present and produce a future as a deduction made from past experiences, because man can only build upon the foundation already laid.

So what we want to know is; what does this all mean, what do we do to bring all to a balanced state that perfection can ensue? It was never intended that a world should

For it is by seeking for that which is greater than himself, man reaches upwards and unfolds. But if not of true wisdom will die, leaving a dissatisfied state.

Origin of Beginning

ONE of the most important points to perceive and accept is the origin of beginning. Man came from states far removed from the present continually feeding the soul, and as it descended so greater Powers unfolded in the heights to comply with the requirement of the seeking soul. These Powers built their own planes within the soul as bodies, and as the soul became in its construction, so the Powers knew the ways of Creation, and it has ever remained the clue and the prototype unto this day.

the element of Mars as the negative current of Solar Fire. By this, breath was forced into the bloodstream, which at that time was not as blood, but a fluid of the creating haemoglobin; the lymph forming creative substance.

This was the pure bloodstream of spiritual life that in receiving the fiery element became the red bloodstream of passion activity. One was the Elixir of Life and the other the fiery stream of desire and lust; and accounts for why the old Sages were ever seeking the Philosophers Stone and the lost Elixir.

The action taken by the higher Powers was to bring action into the life stream of the soul creation that was dying fast through the disease of inertia that had overtaken the expanding life. A soul creation that was to start an inner revolving life stream that the soul creation could now spin upwards by a mind growth born out of the vesica piscis, the revolving waters of life.

But in the action, as many a well laid plan, the Fiery Elements that penetrated Spun into negative desire instead of illuminative ariel motion, and emotional waters began to rage in a negative state. While the elements and atoms, now encased in the soul creation, became married to the negative state and brought forth the daughters of Abel. The soul became dual Abel and Cain, a dual state of mind.

If this appears logical to you, perhaps we can now perceive the further wisdom of this story. It was obvious that man was fully created in his ethereal state, and his etheric body was his radiating soul, for man was a god but without a creative mind; this was what he had to bring into birth. He was a soul equal to the angels, the elements of the upper worlds; but now knowledge had been taken before they were ready to withstand the devouring action that can take over before a soul becomes weather-proofed by wisdom.

A man knows that by drinking poison what the result will be, so he does not drink the poison, but he has the wisdom of what the poison contains and can do. The same applied to the generation instilled into matter in its negative form and not in its positive. Thus this became the apple picked by Eve, the feminine principle, and became the basic of the theological doctrine upon which was founded the knowledge of Christianity.

From then onwards man began a corical slide into solidity, until what was a glorious state of soul creation became "Dust"; the dust of the earth. Not dust as you know dust to be, but radiant particles of nebula creation, in the lowest form of growth, flung into chaos as a forming state ensued, till eventually a solid state of moving life was beginning to come forth. That which was man forming out of the rock and water kingdoms into the vegetation, until as an animal creation he eventually came forth in his corical slide. God created man out of the Dust.

Here the diagram will help the young student to perceive how spirit and matter united to raise the lost spirit up onto a level of perceptive recognition, which gave the soul its idea of existence.

(See plate on page 12)

The Sons of God

THIS was the Kingdom Growth and moving life that was ever in a state of being fed by the Elements until the animal-man came forth to try and produce the man-god, which gives a more lucid understanding of Ra-Men-Ra—God-man-god.

But we must realise that much water passed under the bridge of life, for certain states of demigod creatures remained in hidden cities, mysterious creations from the still lingering wealth of Normal life, and in the heart of Africa there existed the last god creation as

UP he rose high into the heights with horses wild and powerful. Could he hold them, or would they drive asunder through the failure of the constant mind. Yet the very riches of his depths awaiting to carry him up high. (See text in col. 3 above).

white spiritual beings, Sons of God. These had great wealth that acted as a centre radiance to the fast deteriorating world, but unfortunately as time evolved they became contaminated by the auric conditions emanating from the centre of creation, the centre of the earth, which held the seething fires so ruthlessly betrayed in the beginning by the soul creation that took of the Fiery Embodiment.

This disaster brought about by these hidden Sons of God became the second chaos of Atlantis, causing the whole of the world to become dislodged and the Pole to commence a wobble which has never been righted unto this day. There have been many prophecies by the Ancients regarding this matter, and links with a time when man will become into his rightful heritage.

Such powers as this ancient Race held were meant to stimulate and activate the earth and its growth while lost on its course, but not to be used for self, but Self was the auric emanation, and when imbibed into such collected power, caused mountains to tremble and shift, the ground to open, rocks to split and waters to lose their course and equilibrium. This Race of demigods in the centre of matter became struck by the Fires that had been handed to them to engender the birth of the Great Celestial Orb into a Solar creative Deity.

This is verified in the ancient African myth that all black men have white ancestors; whereby in their war dances they put white masks on their faces to convey the fact that their great ancestors, (elements) were with them and giving them of great power. They believed that they were the sons of white men; not the white man of the west, but the hidden white Race of the mysterious City. The myth indicates that on one side of the river was the black soul, on the other the white who were ever beckoning the soul of the black man over. This they considered was Ra the light calling the soul to greater action and creation.

But we also have the myth of Phaeton who took the horses of the Chariot of the Sun and drove too high, and his wings only being of wax, melted, and he crashed. The ancient son that was struck, and in the fall brought forth the black races of Africa seething with rich and hidden wisdom, that unfortunately only came into birth as tribal customs, fetishes and totemic religion.

(See plate below)

the original cause, if we can so decipher.

Therefore once again we must start another road of investigation; this time of the particles that will lead us into being able to decipher the origin of structure. Gerald Massey, the genius writer on the Origin of Beginnings portrays much when he prefaces his book with these words,

The Spirit moving upon the waters was once a living factor to man, and he divinized the God of Breathing as a Lion under the name of the God Shu. He believed that this great Power of world-life, equalled only in the majestic beast of the forest, was not only the means of projecting its likeness upon him, but the means of bestowing unseen powers of new life. Would, through its inborn activity as breath of life, stimulate and rejuvenate him, so he respected and embraced.

But what we have to remember, and the innate trend of this series, those primitives were our blood ancestors; how do we know whether we have ever transmuted those ancient depths, or do they still remain as karmic states undigested? Do they still come forth in disguised measure as those states that crop up occasionally and cause us to do those things we wish we had not.

Would this account for the incident that happened not so long ago, when a young man with every good intention went to the War, came back changed and from then onwards was never the same. One evening he drove out in his car into a well known High Street, took out a gun and shot a strange woman in the back. When questioned why, merely stated something came over him and urged him to kill.

We might say he became mad, but I visited him in prison and was surprised at the remote wisdom he brought forth and then would relapse into a state of mundane chatter. Was one of these past lives as our present group of personalities predominating the picture and overtaking his present personality.

That is what the psychologist is trying to probe into, but he does not know what he is actually looking for. If we face it like this, then seeking into the past will give us some understanding of why we do certain things, and help us to wrestle with those states when we know why those ancients committed certain facts.

Then in the case of the young man he must have been, sometime in the past, either a warrior of great intensity or a furious killer who has not lost his personality, but it lay as an hidden "giant" to come forth at sometime or another for reformation. This is the problem we are facing at the present moment and belongs to the span of the past 13,000 years.

I believe that by strict discipline over self, and mind exercise, these past states can be brought under control, by the present controlling entity to train and nurture by mind wisdom, and raise the whole cortege of the soul life up onto a higher vibration. By this, light comes to the soul creation and specie after specie in the blood stream becomes reformed and blended in by the incoming Solar Blood, which under the Lunar influence of past lives were running amok and being activated by any passing influence that gave them predominance. And as I have said in the beginning, gather up the blood qualities and make them live consciously through wisdom gained and accepted. Therefore upon this theme we continue our investigation of the past through the Myths and Legends, which will reveal the secrets of the hidden mysteries of the blood as ideals and beliefs established on the road of devolution.

Upon this motive let us close this chapter and continue our investigation in the coming issue.

But we cannot deny there lies the hidden wealth, for the story of Noah conveys a great truth, especially when we recognise that his three sons, Ham, Shem and Japhet went afieled and peopled the earth; for they carried with them the wisdom of their father and that which had brought about the deluge. It is such as these who furthered the earth with knowledge and from whence man today owes his wisdom.

So once again we must realise the value of relativity, or the span as circumference as we spin outwards in unfolding; for returning to the Cause will reveal to us the original birth of that which at the present may be the effect, and our present enigma.

Perhaps we can appreciate now the claim of Haile Selassie when he claims to be of the original Lion of Judah. How do we know who that tribe, clan or city was as the Lion of Judah, except that Papalism has distorted and missionaries have perverted and taught of their version. The motive originally may have been quite in keeping with the embodiment, but the human administration completely out of keeping with the Law, and any genuine Church History will convey and prove that.

Again to further survey the situation, we perceive that man has come from the "heights," reached the "depths," passed through all the four Kingdoms and is made up of particles from all, and is fed, united and synthesized by the Hierarchical Powers of the Unseen heights. Yet we still must be fed by them, although man is not aware of its necessity, but this has been the tragedy in the past, we only being fed by an abnormal and corrupt inflow, for as man had returned so could he only receive in return; this is the mystery of the revolving heights and depths and what we are now faced with in the Aquarian Age.

So unwind we must by interpenetration, and the only steps we have to that, is to travel into no-man's-land through the Myths and Legends, who are the agents of

Ancestral States

WHAT we have to realise, is that primitive man, our own personal ancestor, did not interpret his myths as modern man is doing, he had a far greater purpose, for these represented not his life and what he went to, but the equal in the great Powers as to those states of Nature which gave man quality of action. He did not create Gods in his own image, but became moulded himself in their likeness, which he named to the likeness of animal strength, vivacity and regality.

Therefore man was being created in the image of God. His very idea of Force was not derived from animal strength, but in the initial beginning when they were led by the wise men, they revered the elements far more than their own puny actions, for they knew their own limitations, which is more than man does today, and drew the power of these elements into their being.

THE HEALING COLUMN

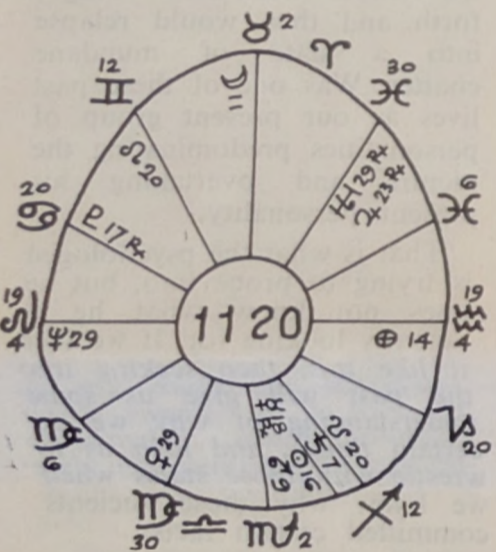

The Waters of Rejuvenation

BEFORE we begin the Healing letters for this month I will point out an important factor regarding the healing, that although it is of great benefit to those who are seeking spiritual assistance in the healing of their bodies, does not appear to be known to the majority of our readers. Last thing at night as you go to bed, send out in all sincerity and faith that you may be taken by those in Spirit into the Waters of Healing and receive of their rejuvenating balm. If your prayer is truly genuine it will rise right up to the heights and be heard and accepted, and when you awake the next morning you should immediately feel the benefit of this "Holy immersion." This should be done regularly, and will also bring you into greater contact with those divine heights, so enabling the healing powers to enter in all the more easily.

Split Mind State

NOW our first letter is from Mrs. R. of Barnsley, Yorks., regarding her daughter Joan, (see chart 1120).

She states that "her daughter Joan is a good girl, goes to church, is kind to animals, humans and everything. To look at her you would think that she was a beautiful, healthy girl, but inside her mind there is Hell, there are two voices at her all the time, telling her what to do, looking through her eyes all the time. She has been in hospital several times but is no better, all they give her is drugs, the doctor stating that she has a split mind."

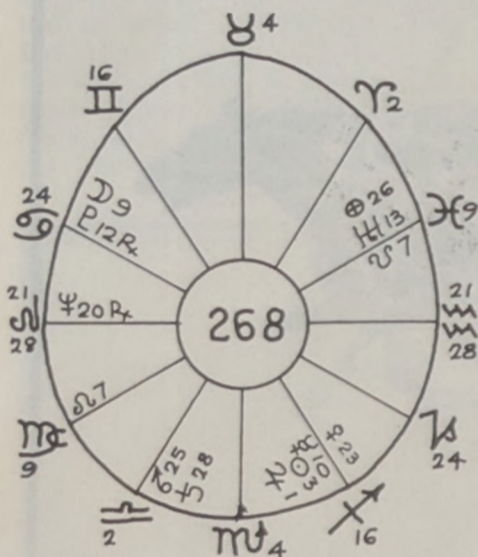

This is a clear case of Neptune out of control. In her previous life Joan has been forced into extreme heights as a nun, but never brought to a culminating point of wisdom, consequently her Mercury, her mind, is retrograde in the 4th house, with her Jupiter, her expansion, also retrograde in the 8th house. This is further emphasised by her Path of Destiny in the 6th house, indicating that she must get her mind expanded. This is as a direct result of being raised right up to the heights by religion only in lunar states, thus now in this life she has not the wisdom necessary to firmly hold her Neptune in the 1st firmly under control.

She must turn from religion to true wisdom, as it is only holding her in those old states that she is needing to escape from.

Her whole chart reeks of religious states, where she has been made a bride to the Christ, but only by fantasy and erroneous belief. Her chart also indicates that she has been in the harems in the past, as seen by her moon in Taurus, where there was a vying between the women to supply their lord with wisdom.

This has been the lot of woman in the past, and that which Mrs. Spearman-Cook is righting by emancipation.

Her three planets of Mars, Sun, and Mercury in Scorpio, are all due to this harem period, all worked up with the Moon in Taurus, in complete inertia, therefore she must get mind activity, expansion of the Word, for it is only by this that her condition will be put right.

I would ask Mrs. R. not to take any notice of the doctor's assessment of what is wrong, for those of the medical profession are no more than blind butchers and drug dispensers, and that, I feel, is putting it mildly!

Her daughter is NOT split, but is crowded with multiplicity; personality states in abundance, and quite possibly a good "seed-layer" for mediumship. The Occult Gazette of January 1965, regarding the girl Lisa could quite easily fit this case (see Mrs. Spearman-Cook's Reminiscences in that month's issue). It is a great pity Mrs. R. cannot bring her daughter here for contact healing, as it would be of great assistance to her.

I would strongly recommend that she reads some early lectures on the wisdom, as the actual power of the Word itself would put her mind right. Also she should take herbs to cleanse her bloodstream, and I would recommend BUCHU and VALERIAN to assist the nerves. The special nerve pills of the School would be very beneficial to her, and she could take these as often as she liked.

Worry and its Psychological Effects

THE next letter is from Mrs. R. of Radcliffe, Lancs., and is one of unnecessary worry. Her main trouble is around her son George, whom she feels "has a serious stomach complaint, and about who she has had various dreams."

We regret . . .

THAT due to the time involved in casting and checking a horoscope, the cost of such will be increased to ONE GUINEA from 1st November 1966. We do ask readers to note that we must have the Date, Place, and if possible the exact Time of birth, if the horoscope is to be accurately cast. We would be obliged if you would make sure that when you send for your horoscope you have included these three details.

From her chart, (no. 268), it can be seen that there is a tendency on her part to worry, and my advice to her is to stop, and not to cause disruption in her home over sheer fantasies and dreams. There is nothing wrong with George, he is not ill, but just plain LAZY! This is shown by his Sun and Jupiter in the second house in Taurus, which will give him Taurean desires. (See chart no. 638).

A tight watch should be kept upon his diet, and he should be made to take some cleansing herbs, which are most necessary for him. It is most essential that he is made to get active, although being at the stage of puberty, this would slow him up considerably.

Saturn in Libra would make him ultra-sensitive, and with Neptune attached, one capable of psychic powers, but these will come into birth in their own way. There does not even seem to be any warning as to his puberty, but the dream you had of him and the "wet rabbit" denotes the sensitivity drenched in luna waters.

The fact that he has four fire signs indicates that he could have been a Jesuit monk in the past. (This links with his Taurus in the second house).

Mrs. R. (see chart 268), also mentions that a "doctor healer from Wimpole Street advised her to have tests made on her womb and let God do the rest." If Mrs. R. wishes to lose her womb and her seed of ages then she is following the right course for this.

We have stressed enough times the stupidity of accepting the advice of the medical profession, who do not cure, but ever destroy. Either the soul accepts the Spirit Healing in complete faith, or becomes ensnared in the Hellish world of those who delight in their sadistic butchery, then tell the world they are saving life!

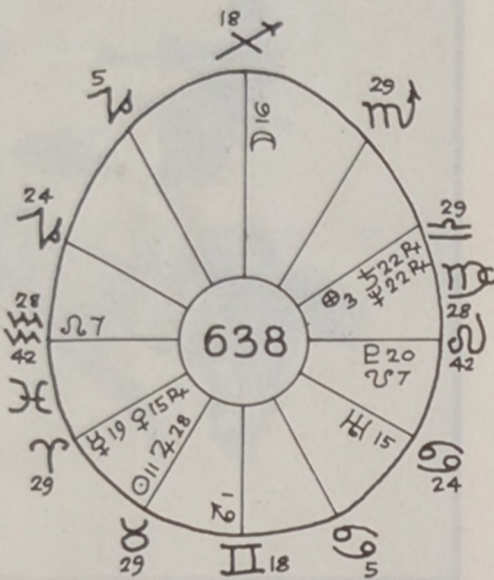

We have already sent herbs for Mrs. R's womb condition, but she has allowed her husband to put her off taking them.

She must find a greater strength of belief in the powers of Spirit, and also find some Will power, as this is badly lacking with her, as can be seen by her Uranus, her super-will, which is in the eighth house, and completely inert.

HEALING PRAYER

WE call upon Thee to bless these children, that each one will open up under the Blossoming Rays which are now coming down to the earth, opening up their minds to a greater Purpose; for every man must seek for that greater Purpose, otherwise he merely remains as he so desires. We leave them in Thy hands with that Blessing.

Amen.

Mrs. R. must choose one way or the other, the Spirit Powers or the doctors; until she does she is fostering a dual state of doubt within herself, which is not making her condition any better, by such actions.

She states that she hopes to bring her children to the School for healing one day, and this would be very helpful, but in the meantime I would suggest that George takes BUCHU, AGRIMONY, and DANDELION herbs, while for Mrs. R. I would suggest RUE and MOTHERWORT for her womb trouble, and would also strongly advise our NERVE PILLS for her. These, I feel, are a must as her main trouble is her nerves.

The Case of Karmic Tragedy

LASTLY, I would like to add a few comments upon one of the patients mentioned by Mrs. Spearman-Cook in her Reminiscences of this month, and concerns Mrs. F. of Dereham, Norfolk, (see chart 1179).

Her Saturn retrograde in the 5th house indicates difficult childbirth, and she was the unfortunate victim of a doctor who used forceps at childbirth, without administering anaesthetics, which directly resulted in the tragedy that followed.

There was a heavy karmic state here, with regards to the soul not having rendered service as she should have done in past ages, consequently her Mercury is retrograde in the heights. Some planets are quite evolved, but all have become stuck. The Sun and Moon are both in the 10th house, in signs which are difficult to move, (Aries and Taurus), but this is the irony of karma, one would almost say Nemesis.

But it is not until the landslide blocks their front door with lava that becomes solid, that the soul begins to cry out in pain. If only everybody would act when the situation was pointed out to them, they would make it far easier upon themselves. This should be a warning to all and should not be dismissed lightly.

Readers' Letters

THIS month Mrs. Spearman-Cook has been following with keen interest, the firm stand by the Prime Minister over his economic policies. She therefore felt very strongly impressed to write to Mr. Wilson and state her views, and the view of many of our readers it seems, concerning the sheer waste of public money, merely in order to flaunt an archaic state of the nation before the world. (See letter in cols. 3, 4 and 5). When our so-called aristocracy stop "living it up" on unearned income and get down to some hard and serious work, in order to help Britain regain her feet, then we might find the rest of the nation following suit far more easily, but there certainly needs to be a better example set than is being shown at present.

Remember, Mrs. Spearman-Cook's letter was written under the guidance of Spirit, and the Higher Powers are obviously angry at the wanton extravagance of those who ought to know better!

We know that the Spirit World have promised to break down the financial system that is crippling our country and the world, and we eagerly await the moment when this will be fully accomplished.

Light on the New Solar Path

Mr. A. D. Jones, S. Wales.

Dear Friends,

I cannot wait to inform you of the immense spiritual benefit that has enlightened and buried itself within my very depths, I am literally reborn. I saw the birth of the New Christos through the modern medium of Television, because the Power of the Master radiated all four corners of the screen.

This will of course radiate around the world as it is shown by other countries in later years. The royal Spectrum and Posture, of those fourteen minutes will ever remain in my memory, the regality and the Divinity of the Masters Temple was so apparent, that even a child could say I have seen God.

My three score and ten years of search for that missing something have been answered, and as I may never visit the temple, the temple has truly visited me, and remains within as something never to be erased by any form of astral pomp and ceremony.

It was a mortuary meal to a dead and dying spiritualist challenge that survival was belief, a punch and judy show of interpenetrating psychic extraction of lower astral thoughts around the departed spirit. But could be an awakening of all that has died through the soul's growth of Ages. Thank you blessed teacher for your struggle against the adverse hordes of stagnant minds, more at home with bingo than with spirit. Even my sciatica has improved, since upon the altar the healing book that contains my name surely binds me to you all.

Your unflinching struggle has at least brought into the world the meaning of the perceptory principle, for any that were led to watch Alan Whickers film, "Is anybody there," can immediately recognise the ending as Reality compared with the illusionary beginning. So aspiration and spiritual rhythm still exists, thank God for the Occult Gazette and again you, my dear beloved TEACHER.

Mrs. C. A. Hodder, Eccles, Lancs.

Dear Teacher, I do want to thank you most sincerely for all your efforts on my behalf these last years, Spiritually, Mentally and Physically. All that you have endured for all of us, and even the whole world for that matter, passes beyond human comprehension. You wonderful Soul, since reading and re-reading and digesting your "Word" each month, it has altered my whole outlook on life.

This is not to say like the "Spiritualists" believe, that there is just the Summerland to look forward to. I read the Psychic News and I must declare they don't even begin to deliver the message, so how can they understand you, who have so far outstripped them; they just don't understand your language, dear Lady Merope.

I know that since you put my name in your Healing Book several years ago, and on receiving your herbal advice, I have enjoyed magnificent health, both mental and physical. I can't even begin to thank you for making my every new day mean something to me once again.

I have read with great interest and followed your brave campaign against Popery, and the Black Rock of Catholicism; a very, very terrible scourge, and I am a very thankful woman when I think that there but for the Grace of God go I. I have many catholic friends, and it is pitiful to realise their religious confusion, you just can't help them, they are so bigoted, but it is cracking up as they look round at other people of different religious denominations, some of whom are just as bad as the catholics.

You say that the pope and his minions have the Mystical Truth but debase it for their own power and personal aggrandisement. How true, you have only to see them at it on Television when they are picking a pope; they announce success or failure by sending out smoke signals. Just like

The Rt. Hon. Harold Wilson,
Prime Minister,
10, Downing Street, S.W.1.

16th September, 1966.

Dear Mr. Wilson,

In amongst all your mighty problems, this may seem infinitesimal, but since it was pointed out to me by the readers of my paper, the "Occult Gazette," I must bring it forward.

On September 15th, in the "Daily Mail," this paragraph was a part of their "News":—

Royal visitors

"The Queen and Prince Philip will visit Canada for her centennial celebrations next July. The Queen Mother, and Princess Alexandra and Mr. Angus Ogilvy will also visit different parts of the country."

The comment by a number of readers was to the effect that—"If Mr. Wilson could be content with a fortnight on the Scilly Isles, placing a very good example before others, then surely such an empty and old aristocratic ritual as centennial celebrations could be dispensed with." For not only will there be the Queen and Philip, but also the Queen Mother, Princess Alex and Mr. Ogilvy, in battleship or jet, with a mighty retinue of attendants, quite apart from a massive amount spent on clothes 'to keep up the appearance of plenty.' This money, which will amount to thousands, could well be 'spared,' if we are 'on the rocks,' which no doubt we are!

This is not the time to be extravagant or benevolent. Canada knows us by now, and I am sure that the good and splendid work and example which you, Mr. Wilson, are placing before the World, is sufficient to get back the good name of England which the Tories and religion have trampled in the mud.

Example is what we want now, and I am sure this is what Philip meant when he said, some time ago, "Now is the time to pull your finger out." What is good for the working man is good for everybody, for we are all souls struggling for liberty. Freedom is not bought by wearing a crown, being a financier, or beggar, but by true service of honest belief, which it is obvious our Premier, as a son of sturdy Yorkshire blood, is proving.

A copy of this has gone to Buckingham Palace, and one to the "Times" and a copy has also been placed in the "Occult Gazette" replying to our own readers.

Yours sincerely,

Gladys J. Spearman-Cook.

the North American Indians, but at least they don't believe that by being chosen pope this can make an ordinary mortal into a god, as the deluded followers of this man-chosen pope believe him to be.

My sister's daughter was being married to a young catholic airman, Irish he was, they are a peculiar people I must say. My sister listened outside the lounge as the young priest, also Irish, instructed her daughter into the surface mystery of this strangling religion. You can imagine her horror when she heard this young Irish priest solemnly tell her daughter that the pope was God and could do no wrong.

How can this be, when he is only sinful man one moment, and the fact that a signal of white smoke is seen ascending heavenwards is meant to reveal to the world that this man is now a god!

The roots of this malignant growth are very deep. I move amongst a lot of them and it is very tragic as they are practically forbidden to think, and as the rest of us try to evolve and hurl off our own shackles, we see these sisters and brothers still shackled and brainwashed by this insidious religion. At least my karma has been kind enough to spare me that awful fate.

Dear Leader, it gives me great spiritual help as I follow you up into the realms of Light each month. You are so wonderful, and everything is opening out to me and unfolding its true meaning, God Bless You.

You have a wonderful staff, and the poems and pictures are very uplifting, so please continue, you wonderful band of Spirit Helpers. I was so sorry to learn that you are unable to send me the book on the Diet Treatise, but I would like very much to have the Esoteric Astrological Dictionary with the fee that I paid to you, as I see that it is the same price of 12/6. I hope this finds you as well as can be possible for you, I remain, Yours very sincerely in Spirit.

Mrs. W. K. Jordan, Billingham, Norfolk.

Now that I have had time for quiet thought I wish you all to know that our visit to the School on the 1st September, was the most wonderful and helpful experience we have ever had. The diagnosis given us was so logical and fits the circumstances, ruling out the doctor's findings. Ivy Fuller must have received much healing as she stood the 267 mile journey very well. The following morning she spoke of your great kindness and of impressions she gained during the time spent with you. She is taking the herbs and has found a new determination to get well.

Thank you David Cook for your very helpful suggestions which will be followed to the best of our ability. These suggestions are invaluable to such as myself, how did you know I experience this power in my arms and the heat in my palms? I have told no one. Something else puzzles me too. After you spoke to me of the Solar Fire a bad headache came on, affecting the top of the head and extending down to the eyebrows. The pain suddenly lifted after about 5 minutes, but I was so dazed that I have no recollection of the first 15 minutes of the drive back. Allowing for nervous tension this headache seemed to me something unusual. Can you offer explanation?

As you know I have been interested in S.U.P.H. since its first newspaper, and now I have met you all, I marvel anew at the giant strides forward our Principal has made. What faith and perseverance right from the beginning. As you told me dear lady "All is Mind" but what a mind yours must be. May God cause His Face to shine on you and all your faithful helpers now and for all eternity.

John Buang Eko, Federal Republic of Cameroon.

Dear Immortal Atman, Congratulations! Your kind issue of the "Occult Gazette" of July 1964 was received with thanks. I have enjoyed it from page to page, and this has thrown more Light on my Path. My most delightful lessons in it are—Page 8 REMINISCENCES Mechanisation versus Wisdom, and page 10 Ra-men-Ra's Healing Column. Indeed I am Spiritually healed by reading the above lessons.

The great points that I am delighted in and have uplifted my mind are (1) To know that we have lived many lives and still have more to live. (2) Man is Mind and not mere animal body. Forgetting about names, Man and Woman are One. You have further stated in this very issue, that many people complain of the Occult Gazette being difficult to understand.

I can only refer you to these few words—It is said of him, "His ways will be unaccountable to many, but he will not offend. His words will never be trite or platitudinous and while clear and simple, they may cause a wonder because the sense of them is a new sense to some, though nonsense to many." Please carry on with the work that God has destined for you and remember that it is the work of the Christ Himself.

EGYPTIAN MYSTERIES

or the Origin of Life

by Gladys I. Spearman-Cook

MANY a new reader entering on the Occult Path for the first time, could find it very difficult to understand the lectures on the Solar Field. For these are the road of Galactic emancipation, the releasing of the soul from the Babylon captivity of matter. So to help the new Reader we are placing into the rear of the Gazette, a series of EGYPTIAN MYSTERIES. These starting from creation, should help any soul sufficiently weaned from orthodoxy, to pick up the TRUE thread of life. These were written in 1962 at the time of the Configuration, and were my test that passed me for the task of Scapegoat. It is quite a vast series, and one that at times gets very deep, bringing in the many rituals of the ancient tribes. These at their time and age, being mystical rituals and not the dastardly acts that were fulfilled at later times. For it is from these ancients that life sprung and creation was mastered in the only way they knew how. But man now, after years of TIME and EXPERIENCE of treading the grapes, knows the answer by a state of intuition. Whereby, if he raises up his sensitivity and frequency, will see through the whole, and perceive the answer in a flash.

This is the idea of renunciation, the soul raising up his frequency and perceiving greater things in the name of truth. Especially if he has been digesting of the Word, which then leads him on to pastures new, the Road of greater possibility. Therefore I am sure this series will help the new reader to get a first insight into the life of rebirth. But in any case, we should like to have your opinion upon this wisdom as the series proceeds. (The Author).

THE PURPOSE OF THIS SERIES OF ARTICLES IS NOT TO CONFUSE the enquiring mind, but to lead by simple explanation into fields of thought, that once perceived could help the true enquirer to investigate and make yet deeper investigation. The time used is to only help your minds to get some form of landmark, so must only be seen in a relative state. In this story of life, I am trying to give the reader the complete vision of the blood issue from the time of beginning up to the present date; not as human beings, but their vaporized life content as the ever-living creation.

What began still lives, creates, acts and becomes, although the soul is not of a living consciousness regarding such. But the great question that confronts those that are gaining of that awareness, is what can a soul do who has the common-sense to gather up its blood qualities and make them live consciously through wisdom gained and accepted?

So let us seek through this series of Life Establishment, and each gather according to their intelligence gained on this road. Perhaps each can add to a collective deduction, or perhaps a genius or two can come forth, in the light gained over the ages bursting into a flame of recognition. A living testimony coming into life, or God manifesting through the flesh as blood transcendancy.

The Old Mother Blood

ONE of the most profound of wisdom is the knowledge of the Old Mother Blood. Once upon a time, when all was before the knowledge that man knows today of blood and its actions, the human blood, man lived as a pre-human creature. Creatures who even at times walked on four legs, for they belonged to a period when man was passing from the age of Spirit into the Human, and were practically mindless, or as man understands mind.

It was the Fall into matter activated by states that had become mis-directed, and resulted with the growth being naturally slow, thus all their actions became centred around nature and all her forms of creation. They followed with their mind eye her movements and her expressions, consequently everything was expressed in her mode of expression and her mode of delivery, Woman.

These beings were Spirit lost in the density of what was prevailing in the transitional state, by living in the memory of what prevailed before, and have ever since been becoming more and more lost in that encroaching wordly state that is taking the place of what once existed. This is what brought into birth Legends and Myths. But, for all that, surely there is some reality somewhere of what did prevail before man's lack of direction and obedience; for that is the basic of man's blood, and holds the final of the species to be recalled into the Ark of oneness.

(See plate in cols. 2, 3 & 4)

Yet recalled they must be, for all now must become the basic of the future world creation by and through relativity. A unity of all that has been, producing a period of mind and mind only, when all form will begin to dissolve as solidity, and eventually disintegrate into blood species that will become transmuted into an airy substance, the unseen materia as the basic of mind. But as that is of a world to come, let us seek into a world of that which has past, since it is to become the basic of the future.

That which has been is still of man's blood and flesh constituents, for he daily still commits of the errors that are within his blood, and is making very little attempt, or none at all, to bring about redemption owing to the lack of wisdom regarding such matters.

It is these old past states of the soul, returning by the Law of Relativity, in claiming their due, bring sickness and disease both to body and mind when the soul rebels and refuses to reform, and ever clings to what he is. It is these states that have ever been reformed and lie hidden in the blood that bring mis-shaped forms, crippled backs and paralytic states; for all is in the blood, THE RIVER OF LIFE, and in the moving years breed into a destructive condition of sickness.

Unfortunately the past was a time when man knew not of direction, for he had turned his ways into the negative action of desire and followed a trend of self which led inwards and downwards; and downwards he has been treading ever since, which has been leading him back to those past states. For man at the present time is committing the same errors that have ever been committed before.

Thus naturally it is going to be a matter of introspection very soon, for man will not be able to deal with the full outcome of this returning state of relativity. And when it returns he will not even know of what measure to allocate to bring justice and correction, unless there is some investigation in a philosophical way.

States such as homosexuality, rape, murder and violence belong also to this past creation, not that they were as now performed, but of that origin of growth, which now lies deep in the blood of all creatures, for it was of the Age when the waters spewed forth of life after the chaotic tragedy of yet an earlier age.

It may appear fantastic but man's blood contains species right from the beginning of the Human growth, and age after age have added unto as family species in the blood. It is only when man begins to think and seeks to reform, that he begins to change and bring reformation through these species.

The period that man is now going to bring forth for rebirth belongs to a long lost period called the Cancer Age, and links with that born from the old Mother life, the Feminine state of creation when Woman gave forth; the Lunar period when the male element had not yet been born. For man's basic of change is the Lunar into the Solar, and that is what man is finding difficult.

The transmuting of the third dimension into the fourth, where the solar life becomes as mind light within the soul. But what man has to learn is SPECIES untold, species galore, where to turn I knew not. Knots to unravel with Saturn ever at the door, and light hovering in the heavens, mocking me ever and ever. So I turned and took the Word, and digested until all were buried in; no longer the knot of my fate, but the glory of my unfolding mind. (See text in col. 3).
