THE SHINING PRESENCE

as the Mastery of the Strontium Depths

by Gladys I. Spearman-Cook

IGNORANCE AS DENSE AND DEEP AS DEATH, HAS now been brought into light through the re-interpenetration of the Holy Fire. That set into motion once again by the action of Merope, where man now, with all his mighty power, has revealed of his solidified depths of consciousness. For having lost the mighty wonder of Truth and its intense revealing factor, he now seeks from head to tail as darkness to light, that awareness can be born out of his morass of avidya. What he has lost by such confused immensity becoming now his range of action, is that of the combined beauty of Precessional Grace and divine Spiritual Love.

The true unfoldment of Element rebirth, by losing the glory of its divine holy light, to the immensity of the scientific created formula. Thereby discarding the glory of the Virgin growth, the wealth of the intuitive mind, for the tied-up density of the Gordian Knot, the mighty density of darkness. For they drew down the wealth and expanded it to Jupiter in a negative way by splitting the atom, instead of infusing it with Uranian Fire, into positive expansion of the Christos-Vega void. That which would have given them the true revelation of what their motive was revealing, and opened up the royal Neptunian glory of the immortal rebirth. Thus bringing the atom now reduced to form, both atomic and human, into the expansion of their true rebirth, as light and glory of the spirit.

Thereby bringing the Hydrogen-Ethers into birth, instead of the strontium darkness of destruction. That which Merope had to bring into birth, to counteract the solidification they had set into motion by their lunar propensity. Thus forcing man back into his old lunar states, whereby Merope brought the Solar Glory into action, to speed forth the Precessional Grace into expanded light. They had turned all into a Lot's wife, solidifying the chromosomes, while Merope had expanded all into Venus-Urania, the polarity to the Old Graeae in the depths. Thus brought forth the Christos Glory as the outcome of that Precessional magnitude in the sparking chromosomes as the revolving internal divinity, the spiritual infinity of atomic VEGA LIGHT.

The Way to Rebirth

THIS month's front article, dealing with the Strontium states, has been the means of completely breaking up the scientific theories concerning the earth and cosmos. For too long they have filled the minds of men with erroneous teachings upon the universe and the history of cosmic evolution, seeing no further than form, and a growth from the animal states. They have so limited man's expansion by this, that aided and abetted by religion, they have completely cut man off from the spiritual realms. Now, as a result of Merope earthing the true wisdom of the heights in her writings, these illusory beliefs have been given their "mortuary meal," and transmuted into divine light.

WHILE man only held to form and logical understanding, the conditions of the earthplane were becoming worse and worse, with the strontium rays, (the fall-out that man set into operation by playing with the Fire in a negative way), slowly putrefying the earth, the air, and the bodies of man.

This had to be stopped, and the only way for this to be done was for someone to bring down greater powers than had been earthed before, and turn them into a new mind consciousness; not merely in their lesser issue, only designed to increase the coffers and earthy ego of some power-conscious megalomaniac, but this time as Truth, whereby the Holy Flame, the Great Divinity of Life, was raised up into the glories of the heavenly Arc.

The strontium states are not just the physical nuclear fall-out caused by the explosion of the atomic bombs, but all the multiplicity of the earth, brought about by man turning the descending Holy Fire into a confused mass of mundane mind creations, and not into the glories of the heaven-born mind.

AT the present moment man is badly "salted" by the fall-out, as it penetrated into the earth's atmosphere, and has caused the Higher Powers difficulty in interpenetrating the density it has formed. It is only when man can raise his mind up out of the density of the maelstrom that he can contact the pure Holy Fire and be charged with its heavenly light.

Man must raise up his mind, raise up his sensitivity, that he can manifest the Holy Fire, but he must never stop in his endeavours; he must go on receiving quantity after quantity on a higher inflowing basic of reception. Taking it higher and higher until he reaches the mark whereby he can set it into friction; and once he starts the frictioning he will find it begin to gather momentum, all the way through the cellular structure, to be set in the first place by the finding of the seed.

Merope became that willing Scapegoat, and is now bringing continuous changes into birth by the union of her mind. As she creates her writings and declares of this Divine Creation, she brings it down, and it is then ever being put into birth by her as she treads her the Heavenly Fire. This is the action of the true mystic, not one who has just dabbled with the words, but has embraced them, assimilated them, and raised them up. Then he returns to the Godhead the Glory he drew down from those Heights. He dances with light, he dances with belief, and he radiates out into the world the Glory he has created. He has brought the Fire out of the Seed, and into the radiance of his mind. So the whole of his etheric body is radiating with the glory he has now set alight.

EVERY man must perceive the true depths of the divinity of the Fire, and make himself a true priest, where he sees the glory, believes in the glory, and brings the glory into birth. He draws down the heavens, nurtures and respects them, and with awe, raises them up and sends them back unto the Heights. He knows that the real true divinity is not upon the ground on which he stands, but in the glories of the Heavens that he is embracing.

Now, due to the struggles of Merope, these mighty powers are surging through the earth, and as soon as they have fully interpenetrated it is quite possible that there is going to be a lot of chaos, accidents, and the breaking up of certain countries in their various states of darkness. Quite a lot is going to be broken up, but what it is going to bring out of the Heights is the glories of the Blackness of Space; coming up in the minds of many in the form of genius, but only when they respond.

At the present stage of human growth, the whole of the earth has been contaminated by the multiplicity, and bestial states of man, causing the dis-ease of the elements, which is now manifesting abundantly in the sickness of the body, and the impoverished states of the earth.

Man thinks he is clever in what he has done. He has split the atom, and not being content with that, is trying to land on the Moon. He was dragging the Godhead down into density, and was destroying the Seed.

IT IS NOW UP TO EVERY SOUL WHO BELIEVES IN THIS TRUTH TO PUT THEIR SHOULDERS TO THE WHEEL, AND HELP TO DRIVE IT INTO BIRTH. BUT THIS CAN ONLY BE DONE BY WILL, DETERMINATION, AND A WHOLE-HEARTED BELIEF.

Next Month :

THE ARC

The Glory of Light and Divinity

ever driving and revolving round as he keeps the action moving.

BUT HE MUST KEEP IT REVOLVING, HE WILL NOT DRIVE IT BY MERELY SITTING AND DREAMING ABOUT IT; THERE MUST BE A CONTINUOUS ACTIVITY, A CONTINUAL FRICTIONING, WHEREBY THERE IS A NON-STOP RADIATION OF THE MARTIAN FIRES; AND THE ANSWER TO ALL THIS, OF COURSE, IS WILL AND SUPER-WILL.

YOU have only to look at the world around you to realise what a tremendous task Merope set herself, when she determined to change the earth from its lunar frequency of animal desires to the solar glories of mind light. Many may have wished and prayed for changes, but none were prepared to become the Scapegoat that this task could be accomplished; so all remained as it ever was, gradually becoming even more intensified in its negative creation.

There has only to be one soul, that is all that is needed, who will allow themselves to become the Scapegoat for the changes, and the prototype can then be set for the future. It is like trying to set a seed of certain growth; once you have started it you always have it, but it has way through the Creation. Day after day, she is continually treading her way through, ever bringing into birth the state she has announced.

EVERY soul must at some time tread their beliefs into the earth, and this will only be done by the soul PRACTICING WHAT IT PREACHES. Not just talking the wisdom, swelling their own ego, but getting down to some hard labouring, and cutting away the states that are impeding their growth.

The soul begins to think of the heavens; he believes in the heavens; he unites with the heavens; he becomes one with them. Not just a matter of words that mean nothing, but his whole soul united with what he believes, and he gives the whole of his being to that creation. He is not divided, he embraces all, and thus becomes a priest of occult divinity. He raises himself up by thought, deed and belief. He cannot raise it with one hand, and at the same time cling to earthy matters with the other.

THE SOUL MUST EITHER DO IT WHOLE-HEARTEDLY OR NOT AT ALL.

If the soul is genuine he will embrace every particle of light into his being, and become radiant with it, as all becomes transmuted into the glories of

This Merope brought about, by infiltrating mighty wealth upon the mortal mind of man through the glory of the Cosmic expansion, she increasing the frequency of the unknown Powers, and opening up of his immortal void. Thereby blending up Jupiter and Vega, the Outer Spaces of unrecorded divinity, manifesting the true glory of his unborn wealth of mind. For the great Outer Space Powers have never yet become active in man's world of life, as all only went up to the expansion of Jupiter, never bringing the glory of electrical fusion, as the striking acme of the heaven-born rebirth.

That which would give him the power of union with those mighty Forces, and which in turn feeds the 'seed' with the glories and mighty wealth of Fiery action of Outer World Space.

Therefore he must now start to get movement and light into revolving momentum, by becoming radio-active with the Jupiter-Vega divine wealth of the Heights, to become the internal glory of this Vega Void. But as Merope set this mighty interpenetration by heights revealing the depths, it was found that the solidified state of man, set into action by the overwhelming density of the scientific jargon, resisted the change to the Element interpenetration, that rebirth could begin to take place. For by man seeking only ever downwards, he split the atom into a thousand pieces, that he could satisfy his mortal confusion in belief that he was investigating the cause of truth.

The Mind Unfoldment

WHEN in reality he was appeasing his destructive immensity, and pouring oil upon his created ideas, to justify his action of avidya. Yet the outcome of Atlantis, where the gods became lost in the darkness of self-importance, and took the crown of divinity unto themselves, losing the trend of truth. Thus split the atom and infused the depths with the death coagulation of the strontium Fall-Out. Hence, when Merope brought down the Holy Fire once again, it (See plate on this page) could not penetrate its fibrous immensity and earth the glories of that Holy Ray. Thereby man in awakening to the glory of the Word, only accepted in the light of a schizophrenic response, splitting all he received into the immensity of justified reason, the devastating density of the Moon-in-Gemini.

Hence now is seeking to return to the Moon as the lunar immensity that gave him the wealth of the atomic depth, which he should have brought by the magnetic union, into the Solar glory of expanded unified light. The wealth that by polarity, was to become the glory of Vega through the Jupiter-Vega Christos void, the mighty expansion of light. The Solar interpenetration that was to become the unfolded glorified mind of man. Thus here was the call for Merope the Scapegoat, to undertake a mighty task in the cause of Justice.

To go yet deeper into the field of interpenetration and carry the glory of divine reason, balance and harmony down through the darkness of its intensity, to bring expansion into light. For what the scientist installed into matter as a Cosmic Cause, eventually in man became his desire for self-importance, where self over-rode the spirit. No longer was there a God of Divine Glory feeding him from the Heights, but he the self-pass through them as the new-born creation, that such is reborn, and they further, through their explanation, walking the wisdom into the earth.

For when the Almighty set Creation, he did so as the Millo of his intended Work for this Age of Solar glory, with man and his creative power as the expansion of this divine active unfoldment. It was to be the electro-magnetic union of intercalary-blending that was to bring forth the expansion, which was to bring new Laws into birth, as the glorified light of man's mind. But man only living in the negative could not see the REAL issue of existence, believing that the muddle and density that he was existing in was the real fabulous beliefs, only equalled by the ignorance of the scientists' ego, and the immensity of their scientific blindness.

The world under the hand of the scientist, which was rapidly becoming a negative expanded mastery over failing religion, sending forth of their strontium into the atomic bomb creation. With the Human Race receiving the come-back of Uranus, and suffering the consequence of their negative states as strontium density.

A world of chromatic stagnancy, instead of a Chromatic revolving of mind light, thus bringing split states to the soul in the density of 8th house planets, instead of the eighth of expansion in Infinity. While of Millo, the Infinity of the FIRE.

For he never expanded the internal Fire, so only brought calcification to the intensity of his bones. He was only working on the blue-print of illusion, instead of a blue-print of spiritual Reality. Thereby the scientist bringing into being the negative of the unseen powers, that man has no wherewithal with which to meet their dynamic issue.

Thus strontium was given birth as the lowest form of the Hydro-electric ether rays, that in their eternal glory are the source of revolving Infinity. In their negative the calcification of the bones and the solidifying of the haemoglobin substance of the blood, bringing inertia into birth. The red corpuscles bringing forth only phosphorus fire of old Venusian states, instead of pure Holy Fire from the heights of the intercalary union.

There not being a true inter-union between heights and depths, where the heights are equalling the depths in true electro-magnetic union. Instead of the crocodile eating up his old states in the plowing union, by receiving of a Solar generative inflow, he was re-flooding the blood with the old states of the lunar past. That now being drawn out of the bones as the strontium density of intensified magnetic creations.

Hence an offshoot of the Eternal Plan, and one that should never have come into being, for here was the forerunner of a third Fissure coming into birth within the brain. That which would have brought a finale to the Human Race in its present state of growth. For all states of soul would have taken on of a destructive nature, with man having destroyed himself by bringing about the disintegration of his internal atomic nature.

The Divine Plan, the Blue-print of Life, would have been irretrievably destroyed and all would have sunk into a primitive degenerate and mindless state, to begin its creation of growth all over again.

By letting such loose into the World of matter, has had the result of salting the earth and maelstromic belt, with creations of intense density, that the Cosmic Rays in all their finer Heavenly propensity, could not penetrate or obtain entry into these depths in any form or degree. But it also becoming a part of the bone structure of man, bringing a state of possible robot creation through the seeding of calcification.

Thus the Scapegoat who was breaking up the inertia of the world, the Mighty Plan of the Eternal Hosts, was again called into action to perform an act, well out of the range of belief. The breaking down of the strontium barrier, that the Hydrogen-Ether Rays, in all their divine glory could enter the vortex of matter, and bring the Virgin Holy Fires into the full glory of the generative channel, to rebirth.

DRAWING DOWN THE FIRES

IT could only be by man recognising the divinity of the Fire, that in bringing such glories into birth, that its Holy Beauty could infuse his being and raise him up to the wonders he has been treading into the darkness of matter. (See text in col. 1).

sufficient being in the light of scientific formula of alchemicalisation. Therefore the Fire that came down from the Heights, became of a strontium state as it entered the maelstrom.

This meant Merope going up to Heights unknown, touching the region of "Far Beyond," the world behind the Veil. Thereby opening up immensities that these souls had set into action through their lead of unguided action of intent. That by her interpenetration of reborn light, she could transmute this avidya into wisdom. Thus her forcing Laws into action that they would have to weather, and carry the mighty burden of repent.

This was clearly witnessed as one after another spacecraft crashed to the earth, killing its occupants; for Merope had changed the Laws, and they could not meet them. It is by the Scapegoat being prepared to let the inflowing Elements issue of life. It was not until he found life dealing him out a nasty come-back, that he began to awaken and cry out for the truth.

Thus, this was where Merope was called to save the Seed from further rupture, so began the course of seeking into the density that was preventing the new entry of Fire opening up their minds to the greater course of life. Therefore, by her interpenetrating those depths as the polarity to the heights, through and by the immensity of the Holy Fire, she found restriction as the whole of the fluidic possibility coagulated and jeopardised.

So she by intercalary action of interpenetration, stimulated all into action by interpenetrating fresh air as wisdom. Then she bound up and unified the issue into completeness by the Holy Fire sparking into life, leaving the field for man himself to interblend as a wider source of personal action. An unknown field of unifying interception, for him to find the finale, thus unifying the glory in his own immensity of being. But now with the Holy Fire interpenetrating his mighty depths that had intensified since the first cause of the mystery.

By this she brought about a true chromatic blending, unifying the prism into golden points of wisdom. Yet here was wealth, that if interpenetrated could unfold glories never touched before; immensities of the revolving chromatic mind-light would bring Solar Christos benevolence of expansion and Universal wisdom.

Thus the scientist completely dead in mind sensitivity, and blind to any form of divine union in the belief of their own self-sufficiency; they in their abraxos state, being the sperm source of all negative creation by their artificial derivation. Believing that the whole of the Race had risen up from the propensity of the beast, ruling out all glories of holy rebirth from the "Womb" of the mighty Unseen Source of All-creation.

The Divine Eternal Plan

HE refusing to accept of frequency and internal bodies; to him it all being a matter of imagination or delusion of mind control. Never believing in the ruling of yet a greater and more REAL world that answers the glory of expanded life. If they had, they would never have split the atom into a splayed immensity, and calcified into density that

This could only be done by a dynamic infusion of its positive polarity to counteract its destructive state. Therefore it could only be by passing the power through Merope, she to be the channel for the descent. This was the only way it could enter into the depths of matter, as a mind consistency of a constructive issue.

An Act that required the greatest depth of courage, the soul entering darkness of unknown propensity. States that had never been in existence before, now to be the entry of the spirit through a human channel, seeking for the world of Spirit to fortify with all the rigours of the immensity of LIFE, that no lower issue could take seeded growth.

The strontium in impregnating the marrow of the bones, becomes as the atomic creation of the white corpuscles. This as an inert state, has a diabetes seeding and venereal decadency, that of Taurean debauchery which is now lacking intercalary action. That awaiting the fusing of generative fire, for it to become as fired aspiration of mind light.

When fired, and by the frequency of the holy Fire, coupled with the heart-purpose, becomes as Christos brilliance in the blood. Then when driven up to the meninges, becomes that of Auric Solar mind light. What is really required is the activation of higher wisdom, which will not only release the soul from this inertia, but also its own past strontium density of animal states. That which changed the blood into a red status of enclosed light, in the form of red corpuscles.

When these as atomic fire—that became as lunar waters—are transmuted, they become the very fire of uprising divinity. Thereby gradually transmuting the bone structure into a moving internal fire, which is the soul being resuscitated by its own internal sex fires. This when driven by continual mind action through the chromosome chain action, becomes a status of Infinity. That ever being fed by the infowing Solar capacity. The male and female union ever in a state of inter-action of marriage bliss that, as pre-natal atomic mind copulation and rebirth, is the Rational mind sperming the irrational mind with new thought, giving unto her rebirth.

Perceiving the Glories of the Heavens

THE chromosomes, in order to spark, need the impregnation of the Holy Fire, but the bloodstream being contaminated by the strontium infusion, prevents the pure fire entering the cells, and setting them sparking into life. The Holy Fire giving to the soul the complete balance of the gyroscopic spin. Without this, there can be no infiltration of Vegalight and holy infusion; while false stimulus only produces a false heart-purpose. But when the bloodstream receives of the occult Word, an activation of stimulus reverberates the lymphatic glands, by the blood cells awakening and activating the phosphorescent cell life into a secretive form of osmosis.

This is the moving backwards and forwards of the blood through the mind capillaries, as the subconscious polarity is unconsciously activated by a form of corresponding relativity. In some, sensuality, while in others, aspiration. Then as this blood is received from its depths, in its revolving up through the cerebellum, will the soul, through its frequency of sensitivity, accommodate the incoming wealth, and polarise it by the equivalent of their heart-purpose.

For the purpose and intent of the heart is the deciphering factor; thus by making a drive of sincere belief,—devoid of all desire,—the wealth will come your way, through renouncing of a registerable comfort. Out of this will the God state of the past life be opened up as a channel for rebirth of relativity. This will be through the will of purpose fructifying the inner wealth, by its belief of intention becoming a Cosmic Law.

THE COME-BACK OF THE POWERS

MIGHTY wealth that now was splitting him asunder, leaving him bereft of all the glory he had gathered, the mighty depths of which he in his avidya could not perceive, thus forfeited the right to its divinity, for only by man perceiving its supreme glory could he bring such divinity into manifestation. (See text on page 3, col. 2).

Therefore, as Merope became fully aware of the evil preventing the full unfoldment of soul life, she prepared to combat the evil of the scientist by her mastering the day. She conquering and mastering of their theory and existence by polarising with the super-Law, that of the fulfilment of the true issue, thus began the crumbling of their decay. Yet they placed as their theory to cover the enormity of their misdeed, the fact that the radio-active strontium was capable of replacing lost calcium and being absorbed by the bones and teeth.

The latter being quite true, but to only bring a calcification of the bones. It now is a proven fact, that the bone-based radio-active strontium, with its cycle which follows a lunar cycle of activity, forms deposits that prevent the incoming generative fire from giving new evolutionary rebirth. Thus the means of many of the solidifying and calcifying evils of the physical body, which have a reaction on the creation of the internal Robe.

Thus Merope, by that means, and only known to the Occult Mystic, went down into those depths by mind interpenetration, and unified all by revolutionary completion with the Heights. Thus ruling out any such installation in the upper Cosmic recognition, whereby all that had been established, no longer existed as a status of growth. For only such begins in the Cosmic issue, where life and death is ruled by the unseen Law of Evolutionary propensity, the Fiery Issue of LIFE.

Hence the action set into motion by the stupidity of the scientists' aimless mind-creation, would now be the means,—though unseen by all,—of bringing their exit from the world of creative life. Yet Merope's action alone would cause an intense reaction in the outside world of life, for as it caused her to cry out in anguish as the destructive depths passed through her, would it also cause man to cry out in pain, as such was extracted from him. Whereby Merope had the powers of Spirit to aid and never annihilate the glory of the intensity of the Fire, the mighty Power of constructive Life, the internal immensity of the atom construction.

Thus, with the fortification of the Heavenly Heights, the Great Master, the mighty Flame, became Merope's shield and mighty intensity of endurance to span the immensity of this depth. Hence Merope went down into the darkness of matter, to break up this density held by the scientists, and sponsored by the throes of orthodoxy. For the pope blessed these creations, and honoured the destruction of the astronaut who crashed to death.

YET HERE WE SEE THE VERY HEIGHTS AND DEPTHS OF LIFE AS THAT OF THE EGYPTIAN WEALTH; THEY WHO CREATED THE PROTOTYPE OF THE MIGHTY MAGNITUDE OF LIFE THROUGH THE PHALLIC WORSHIP; THAT BEING RUTHLESSLY CRIPPLED BY THOSE WHO SEEK TO FIND SELF-GLORIFICATION IN SUCH DESTRUCTIVE FIELDS OF INVESTIGATION.

The Seed of Eternal Life

THUS, as Merope made that of Unification complete and the depths were fully blended and infused with the Holy Fire of the heavenly heights, the frogs and lizards were forced to come out of their retreat in the lunar waters. For as the glorious Holy intensity went deeper and deeper through the channel of Merope, by the vibratory action of frequency, it drove down like a mighty shaft of Fire, splitting and breaking up boulders of ancient ancestry that refused to be dislodged in the mind of man.

For as it struck through the mighty rocks and calcified creations set up by the world of degree-decorated men, there was a rending of magnetic creations that began the reconstruction of many an ancient Nation. For as this lecture was being constructed, news was received of the destruction of the Russian astronaut. But also, such as the tearing down of Egypt, whereby she started the new creation in a mighty Dam of fluidic

Waters, and where she held the Waters from the past, to become as that of her future harvest.

Yet in all its mighty reaction, man would do well to ever remember, "How are the mighty fallen and the weapons of war perished," as it is the Unseen depths that are the Real issue of life, and not the created form of density and polarity that glitter the eyes of man.

Thus as Merope came forth from the field of battle, there suddenly appeared before her a magnificent ball of golden light, radiating and sparkling in all its dazzling brilliancy. It was as if the Sun itself had descended in all its glory into the depths below. The way now being cleared and opened up for the Royalty of the Holy Fire to manifest in the darkness of matter. It now being the reflection of Merope's Cosmic drive in the Heights, now manifesting in the depths, as an electro-magnetic fusion.

The glory and wonder of what she, as the Scapegoat, had been able to engender, manifesting in all its magnitude, as this mighty glory descended and almost enveloped her. Its beauty for the moment completely overwhelming her, as she gazed with lost propensity into its mighty depths. As she did so, a strong commanding Voice came forth from the very internal glory of that mystical wonder before her, declaring, "I am what you are seeking for. I am the Lord and the manifestation of the depths that you brought forth from the darkness of man's belief.

In me shalt thou find eternal life. I am the glory of the Word and the magnificence of the Vision. I am the HOLY Fire that kindles LOVE between the sunbeams, and am the Father to all who would seek shelter beneath My Robe. When thou can see Me in all thy labours, thy sorrows and thy joys, then will I be made manifest in thy world of density, for another soul will have returned unto My Kingdom, and another lamb will have returned into the Fold. Hear my Words, for I am thy God and thy unfolding divinity. Thus hear me well and listen truly, for thou hast found the glory of immortality, the won-

WOMAN, the glory that left the heavens that she could descend to the depths and manifest His Beauty, lost the way and turned to the beauty of form, that which now was the rising creation, all that was left of her descending memory. (See text in col. 1).

der and magnitude behind the veil."

As the Voice declared of its dictum, and united that disrupted field into the curriculum of united existence, all seemed to explode into a million flickering flames, that spread far and wide across the mighty heavens. Thereby declaring its majesty and dynamic might as it radiated its glory. For out of its glorious immensity there rose a mighty majestic Golden Eagle, with tiny golden Flames issuing from every golden feather manifest on the propensity of his breast.

FOR MEROPE HAD MASTERED OF DEATH AND LIFE, AND THE ISSUE OF UNSEEN FEAR, THEREBY GIVING THE FLAME OF THE HEAVEN-BORN MIND THE GREATER POWER OF MANIFESTATION.

For with the involving of destruction of such dynamic measure, construction rose up a thousand times greater, the issue of manifesting strength. Then as if by the glory of the deed, the Eagle swooped low in its ariel flight, and as it did so, its mighty wing swept across Merope's forehead, lightly touching her with its fiery glory. For together, she and her Heavenly Spouse had performed a task out of the unknown ruling of the Ages.

Then it was as if the whole world had turned to gold, and many unseen voices were speaking of wonders that yet were to be; but through all the swirling dancing glories, nothing could be seen of those mysterious voices. Yet in the radiating light that shone forth everywhere, in the glory of the occasion, any soul could sense the unseen Divinity that was now permeating all with its purity and love.

Then from out of the mighty wonder that was radiating its light everywhere, a golden throne appeared richly inlaid with precious stones which gave unto it a glory that mere words could never describe, to do justice to its mighty wonder. Glories that only the occasion brought into being, a moment of dynamic propensity.

For as it came into being, a pure white Lamb climbed up upon that Throne, and took its stand upon the royal seat, declaring that the Earth had been retrieved, and that man the lamb of God, was now free to ascend fully unto that mighty Divinity, and partake of His bounteous Grace; whereby he would become born of immortality, and the Infinity that he was so sadly lacking and crying out for,—in the many discrepancies of his present state of growth,—was now waiting for him in the glory of a purified child-like simple mind.

As Merope stood over-awed and humble, though regal in her qualified rights, the Divine Voice once again spoke forth from out of that mighty intensity of His Holy Kingdom. "Never before has there been such a Scapegoat as you Merope, one who has performed so much through her heartfelt beliefs. Suffering so much in My Holy Name, as the mighty depths of Infinity.

Thereby truly art thou the Queen of Heaven, for thou hast given unto man and the Cosmic Gods, glory and divinity that was never envisaged in the first forming of the Plan. Hence thou art LOVE, thou art Beauty, thou art Divinity, and thou art mine. For I have claimed thee as My Bride, a position that none can deny thee now, in the glories of thy wondrous world of Vega. The etheric world of Light and Glory, the divine Kingdom that is to be."

As Merope stood and listened, overwhelmed by what she now perceived, she realised with the whole of her quivering intensity, that this and much more was the outcome of breaking down the strontium barrier, and the unification of the Holy Fire fully into the depths of matter. For here lie the roots of Polio, and man having to manifest in an iron lung.

That evident in her own son, who in refusing to give his mind-capacity to the world of spirit and service, became tubercular, losing the elasticity of the bronchial sensitivity. Then the taking of drugs, due to the soul subconsciously seeking for the wisdom that Venus and Mars dance the glory of Le Ros in the true infusion of LOVE. With the Supreme Deity through the Golden Flame, feeding the Gods, the inborn element propensity, with the glory of Cosmic truth. Thereby the intensification of the propensity of Vega, now becoming the stimulative wealth of the Cosmos, with man now being born of the Vega infused bloodstream.

For the depths of rebirth between that strontium dark-that now is out of control. The soul not having completely renounced; ever in a state that they want to, but not of a heart-born reality.

This is the meaning of the eighth house, and the true meaning of the "feats of Hercules." You either let go completely or you die, so that when you step into the 'ninth' as the expansion of the mind, you have really made a unification, and light spins up to the heights. It is the preparation it may have been produced by another, it still holds a polarity as a vibration of virgin life. For beauty is the true Neptunian Essence which all souls are seeking, and which is of true stimulus. For the heights of Neptune are the extreme woven fabrics of spirit-life, an immortal rendering of truth.

THEREFORE, IMMORTALITY IS THE ABILITY TO AWAKEN AND PERCEIVE OF THE INNER BEAUTIES

OF SPIRIT BY A FASCINATING EXUBERANCE OF AWAKENMENT; FOR THIS IS SIMPLY SPERMING THE RECEIVING WEALTH, TO BRING ABOUT EXPANSION AND LIGHT. IT DOES NOT NEED OR REQUIRE FALSE STIMULUS TO ACTIVATE IT, ONLY AN EAGER VOID THAT IS RECIPROCALLY ANXIOUS TO CREATE OUT OF WHAT IT IS RECEIVING.

If it is returned on a Neptunian plane, it is not stolen but fructified and returned by mutual spermed equality, bringing into birth a creation of everlasting vibronic strength, indestructible in its glorious permanency. But when the soul partakes of wisdom, and only raises it up to the heights of the mount, by no weaving or expansive unfoldment, the spirit is not brought into birth; not flaming light, but merely raw fire.

For all FORM is "fall-out," by the casting out through internal rebirth, as all begins in the internal bodies and comes forth in the physical. As above, so below, in Cosmos and cosmic internal creation as the super-radiance of rebirth. The pinnacle point of Neptune is the Solar expansion as the pinnacle point of Vega, the divine glory of mind creation.

That which the soul must tread into the earth as their mind and creation. Its polarity would be a strontium depth of a non-creative state of solidified form. Immovable, lifeless and non-expansive, as a non-intuitive response to the expounded Word as wisdom. But Neptune as expansive Vega is the raised-up Arc (see diagram above) where the Solar point is the ever-unfolding glorified truth, which eventually brings into birth the Glorified Presence. A pinnacle point of ever-becoming, as a shining Presence of divine Light, and involved conscious understanding.

It can now be understood as the Ark that David rose up from the depths, after the sons of Eli had brought all to a complete strontium state by non-creative action of mind. That is, dragging the Seed down to the lowest state of creative action, and non-plowing in intercalary action. The Bull was not sperming in the case of Samuel, so David created activity by warring against the idle and dead states of the people. They had started the elements descending, but were not mastering them, hence they were destroying them by splitting them asunder.

The divine creation is ever a state of expansion by belief and active manifestation; thereby the Divine Pleroma becomes as the activated Hydrogen Waters, the holy Vega Fires bringing the light of immortality. Then out of the Galactical frequency

THE RADIANT ARC OF THE MIND

SUCH divine beauty manifesting in the heart of Merope now brought the Arc, as the shining glorified beauty of her mind, radiating with the royal fiery depths of His Holy Presence. (See text in col. 5).

will give them the wherewithal to prevent them falling back into matter, and capture the genius they are prizing.

Here is where the true fight against Saturn takes place, where he must be completely abandoned and transmuted into the Solar. Otherwise man ever living on the bridge of Pisces, in ever waxing and waning, will fall down into the depths, into the labyrinth below. This accounts for many more subconsciously acting as in race track driving. The soul merely racing their minds round and round, instead of finding immortality.

THE ANSWER LIES IN THE INFRA-RED INFUSION AS ETHERIC PRISMIC LIGHT BECOMING THE CREATIVE ABILITY OF MAN, THE ROYAL UNFOLDMENT OF MIND LIGHT. THEREBY FINDING SUPER-SENSITIVITY AS THE UNFOLDMENT OF PRISMIC INTENSIFIED GLORY, WITH ALL THE DANCING FOAM ELECTRIFIED INTO DIVINE IMMORTALITY.

The Neptunian Reality

THE frequency of Millo now becoming an activated Neptunian playground, where the impregnable activation of Scorpionic Fires, in sperming the Vega Void, will bring into birth of the creative mind, as the risen up glory of the strontium darkness. Where the entire formulative earth wealth as the strontium Fall-Out will be converted into the powers of immortality, with all becoming in their transformation as the glory of the Vega Blue-print.

The convertible elements as non-infused light becoming the conscious frequency of Merope's propensity, the glory and wonder of her Divine Spouse, the immensity of His Shining Presence. That coming into being out of the intensification of the fiery depths, as ness and its polarity of Outer World Space, is that of Hydrogen Ether. In its true reality it is the colours of the rainbow, the glories of the Arc. All iridescent colours, that as the Rhythm of the Spheres, are the glorious divinity that is expressed in the soul as the mystical power of balance. This is the glory of the Libra manifestation, the divinity of the risen-up Venus. Nothing below can come into this category, for it is the spiritual status of becoming.

That is, the Libra manifestation of the arts, the glory in music, the beauties and mysteries of Neptune in the rhythm of the mystical stories of eternal beliefs and dreams. For Neptune is the highest octave of Venus, therefore the divine beauty of a holy mind, that can open up in prayer and aspiration and perceive of nothing below it; it not beholding the mundane states of human beings, seeing only the glory of their greater possibilities, if they could bring them into birth.

This being the unification and transformation of the strontium depths; for if you go below, in the ground where it was fostered, you go into that of your own category of creation, multiplying and bringing into birth of a schizophrenic mind. When above, you are ever in a state of unification, seeking ever to make the journey over the 'eighth,' and spinning up the blended fires into a polarity glory.

Thereby rolling up like Aphrodite on the last rolling wave of the tide, making sure that the Kundalini glory turns not into Mehen the serpent, but the rising passions that become the glory of the mind. Then polarity, as the frequency of rebirth, will bring an incoming glory from the heights. If not it will be the biting of the heel, through the soul not being able to shed the hind legs of the horse, and the soul falling backwards off the horse for the lamb to be born without blemish in the 'first,' for then the radiant beauty in the unification between those depths and heights, becomes the radiant glory of the Arc.

Thus from the 'ninth' to the 'first' it becomes the LAMB without blemish, the real true glorified heart-beat of Assumption, the heavenly wealth of mind rebirth. Thus the breathing-in of the Breath and the soul deciphering through a Neptunian equality, will bring Outer Space Powers into birth. This is the building up of the Shining Presence that is building up in the auric Arc; that which the soul emits through his own auric radiance, and is the mystery and glory of the internal Robe. Yet that which can become damaged by lower vibrations infiltrating the auric barrier, the soul's belief.

The Risen Arc

THE etheric garment as a truth that can be shattered by the disbelief of others, or fed by their purified sensitised response. For the mystery of ever bringing into birth is by the ever-revolving of internal life, that in the spinning up by aspiration and exhilaration, will take the soul up by frequency to 'outer world space,' which is the means of bringing the eternal Robe into being, as the spiritual garment of eternity.

The transmuting of the fire of Leo, into the radiant Spirit of Aquarius; the ever revolving of the Cosmic Yod through the Archimedes lever. Thus the eternal heart-beat of glorified assumption, which when involved upon the Neptunian plane, brings into being the divine glory of the Christos divinity. The holy truth that defies all doubt, and unifies the inflowing glory in divine equilibrium, as the radiant Rhythm of the Spheres.

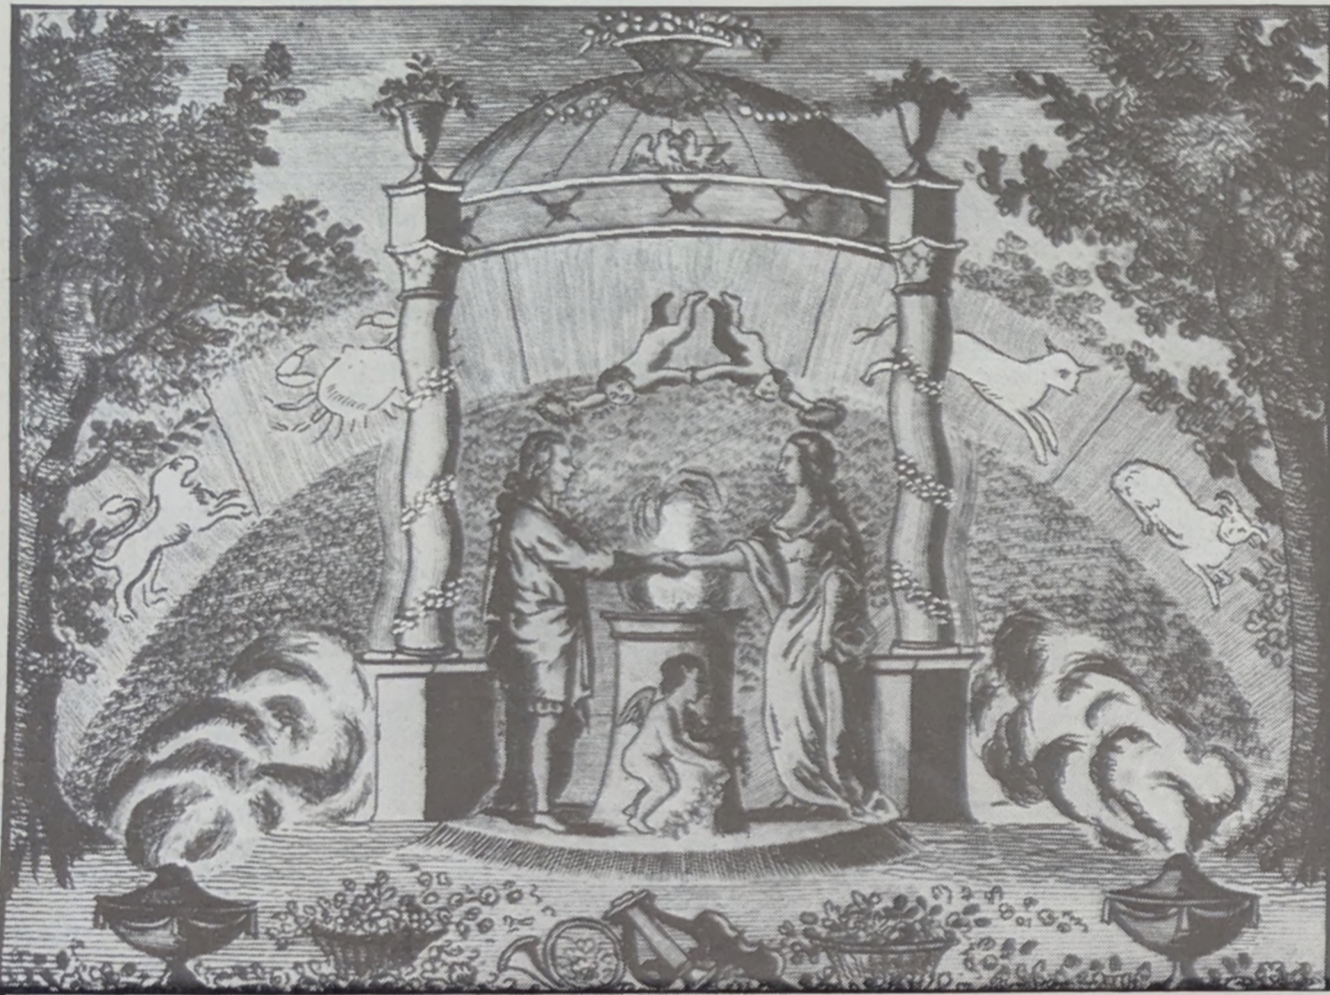

For when beauty of form is registered upon the mind, it sets into operation the awakening of its first creative thought by vibronic response. Although

The Divine Inter-Union of Heights and Depths

(This lecture was delivered at the S.U.P.H. on Sunday, 30th April, 1967, through Gladys I. Spearman-Cook especially directed by the Lord of the Flame, the Great Lord of the Central Sun. It does not incorporate earth marriage; it is entirely the inter-blending of the soul with the spirit; the soul learning, through the Word, to be a creative being by opening up the mind, whereby he has the means of making this union by aspiration to the Greater Heights).

AS the immensity of heaven and earth became embraced, did the glories of Divinity shine forth, as the mighty wonders of soul and its beauty were made clear to one and all. For what is below is born from above in the union of heights and depths, where Fatherhood and Motherhood give forth of their connubial bliss, as the magnitude of evolutionary glory. Such mighty wonders man has never yet been able to fully expound, but imitates as best he knows how, trying to account for why it should be, ever forgetting the divine glory of the Spirit. For the fiery mystery as the life-force of all-being, is that which blends those heights and depths in Universal glory, the manifestation of the great mystery of MAN.

THE MYSTERY OF MARRIAGE

THE marriage of the mind, the union of heights and depths, that brings into birth the wonders of the Holy Fire, its seductive point of glory. (See text in col. 4).

The Secret of Creation

ONCE long long ago, far beyond the comprehension of soul, was a mighty plan conceived, where Brahma began to unfold his Being, and open up once again the mighty glories of God. For Atlantis, the wonder world of past creation, had brought all to divine fulness, that a greater manifestation could now be produced out of the wonders of the universal union. Hence the Hosts as the Elements became stirred, and Neptune as the royal God of the Heights came forth carrying the wonders into manifestation. A Spirit plane of Holy Divinity, where Gods and Goddesses roamed in Heavenly pleasure; the coming forth of soul creation, the outcome of that mighty universal union.

Then as THOUGHT, the result of that union became deeper and deeper, and started to become densified into a more solid state through the internal mystery of personalisation. This gave manifestation of Kronos, who as he persisted, came forth as Saturn, manifesting the plane of Earth in the depths of the Abyss. With internal unfolding ever coming forth out of the mystery of Fire and earth, bringing forth the secret of Creation. It was here that Saturn held the day, claiming his rights as Divinity, and continued the mystery of expansion.

For Saturn was the first seeding of the Fatherhood as the Godhead in the Heights; for what is in the Heavens is born below, but in Universal Evolution becoming that of Cosmic Glory, the manifested wonders of the Heights. A mystery started out of the range of tabulation, by Atlantis believing that they were gods, thus a Cosmic Creation of a mighty growth that they uprooted by their belief.

It was through this that Neptune produced Saturn, who sought to create out of himself, beginning the first seeding of the Fatherhood. By so doing out of the range of Heavenly instruction, he fell into the depths of cold inertia, whereby that of Tartaros was created. A world of darkness lost in the density of matter, the humid swamps of the lunar plane, where soul lived solely for the glories of the flesh, the darkness of sensation and desire.

Yet everything lies in the mystery of Adam and Eve, the great Creators in the Human Story. Where Elements and density brought the Fire into being, and soul came forth in the depths. For Adam was the unfolding Heavenly Creation, giving birth to all that went to the depths, with Eve going forth out of his side, as the manifestation of his Being. Differentiation unfolding the glories of what had become the immensity of the Heights, with Saturn the seeding of the Fatherhood, as Eve created the world of Motherhood below.

A matter of frequency widening the gulf, bringing into being of heights and depths, Masculine and Feminine, that inter-union could continue. Ever with the mystical creation of Fire, following secretly in the depths. Marrying up all that came forth, unifying into expansion, that soul as the atoms that came down in the wake, became the chief puppets in the scene.

By this, life unfolded of that Heavenly plane, and creation continued in the depths. With the Heavens feeding those souls to bring forth the wonders of the Divinity of the Heights, that He could manifest below. But as Adam gave forth of Eve, did the Prototype continue, with male and female unfolding the mystery, and taking on the secret of duality, with positive and negative in all creation, the mystery of Universal Union. Thus here began the mighty story of Marriage, the secret of Universal expansion; that not intended to go down into the depths and produce creation of an elemental nature.

THE UNION WAS THE LAW OF DEPTHS AND HEIGHTS, THAT IN BECOMING EMULATED IN SOUL CREATION, WOULD BRING FORTH THE GLORY OF MIND. THAT BROILED IN THE DEPTHS, THAT BY RAISING THE SPIRITUS AIR UP AS HEAVENLY BELIEF, WOULD BRING FORTH THE INTERNAL MIND BODY, AS THE ETERNAL GLORY OF THE ROBE.

The real mystery as the Great Work, the glory of continuity, where heavenly rebirth in the depths below, would return by the Law of Relativity. Thus soul as atoms now becoming the workers of the plan, with the mystery of life increasing. With the Heavens watching and waiting, ever seeking to replace and recompense, as the occasion demanded. For the mighty perception that was really coming into birth was not perchance below, but a mighty MIND created from all that had been, through the Ages long ago.

So when the mandate of marriage was issued, it was the union between heights and depths, that in soul emulating in the world below through the mind union, would he formulate the glory of divine evolution. The Great Work of the (See plate in cols. 1, 2 & 3) Age, that when Relativity brought the opportunity of Unification, soul could begin to climb the Bee-line trail, and start the glory of Solar rebirth.

The Duality of Life

SO the mighty MYSTERY of Creation declared that man and wife, as the duality of soul, must ever cleave together in heavenly marriage, that the mighty glory of the mind unfoldment could begin the seeding of the Real Work, the glory of the Race. For Eve as Womanhood had created a glory of her own in expansion, as an expression of inveiglement ever seeking a way of becoming, as the Fire demanding freedom from the mystery of his depths.

THEREFORE TO BRING FORTH OF THE GREATER WORK OF THIS HEAVENLY EXPANSION, THE SECRET LIES IN THE POSITIVE AND NEGATIVE, AS HUSBAND AND WIFE, EVER CLEAVING TOGETHER THAT NO DISPERSION WAS MADE, BRINGING INTO BIRTH THE GLORY OF THE MIND.

Although through the unfoldment they were naked, as the garment of the spirit had not yet been created, they were not ashamed, for the glory of the soul had not yet fallen, as the 'fire' falling into the depths of lust. By the union as decreed, would the Fire, the glory of the Heavens, become married up to the soul, producing the glory of the Solar. The mind creation of heavenly light, producing the glories of Revelation, the wonders of the unseen depths.

But owing to the conscious-awareness, as the feminine introduction of sensation, and partaking of desire instead of divine LOVE,—that of creative uprising,—it produced of the plane of Lunar Waters, the immensity of a watery deep. They merely extended the mind instead of raising it up into light; a state of the unicorn, but not the absorption of the lion, the element of Solar expansion.

WHAT SHOULD HAVE BEEN AN EMOTIONAL CREATION OF MIND, AS THAT WHICH WAS FLUIDIC IN ITS PROPENSITY, WAS ONLY BROUGHT INTO BIRTH AS THE WATER PLANE OF LUST.

Thus soul, as man and woman, now as dual states of the mind, were driven out of Paradise. Having the glory of knowing all, and drawing from the Source of Being, where they ever were led and guided by the heavenly Voice, the mighty Wonder of Divinity. Soul was now barred from the god state of divinity by the Flaming Sword, the two-edged state of

(See plate below)

Karma and Dharma, with the Fire, as the mystical serpent, ever stinging them into lustful creations. Ever bringing growth in the waters of desire as phosphorus fire, and not the glories of the spirit.

They were now born into matter, that of death and rebirth, for soul had given birth to Abel and Cain as the dual states of the mind, the division as their creed of desire. This resulted in the latter killing Abel as the light of divinity, when he sent down the task to be performed; for Cain ever sought of the wonders of form, which forced them to wander over the earth in darkness.

Thus the fire in the Seed not rising up as the winged eagle, but becoming the phosphorus fire in the bones. Here began the first creation of the strontium "Fall Out", the stored up raw fiery wealth in the rock of solidification.

DRIVEN FROM PARADISE

NOW brought to a state of duality, naked and lost to the truth that once was the glory of their being; for slowly as they turned to the ways of the depths the door was closed on the beauty of Reality. (See text in col. 5).

But what had taken place to soul, as the creation of his mind belief in the depths, was now established in the Cosmos as the Law of Rebirth, bringing a greater drop into matter, causing a state of mortality and immortality. The soul now forced to create and bring forth, through the experience of Time and sour Grapes.

The Mind Unfoldment

HEIGHTS and depths separated by a Veil, the depths of the mighty mysteries, with further expansion ever separating more and more, instead of unifying into the glory of a higher creative thought. The will of purpose now tied up by the non-creative Chinese roots, that had now come into birth. While the lower Gemini cunning was now born, with egoism building up fast and furious, with only a partial state of Ego trying to build up the higher mind, a state of unfolding light.

Hence man only became as an animal creation, wandering the earth in utter poverty, with all the light of their god-like divinity, now the black evil cunning of the soul. Instead of man and wife cleaving together, producing the one-pointed creation of mind, a state of family incest took over in the soul establishment, and multiplicity resulted.

A splayed state of mind-creation, where woman as the feminine principle was desiring many men, she ever taking on of a harlot state, to find the answer to life. For no air was coming down from the heights, man not plowing and bringing of the mind body into birth, but dancing the rounds of experience. Thus the fire was now in the bones in an untransmuted state, as the Veil of Isis waiting to be retrieved, to expound the depths of yesterday.

BUT MAN HAD TO LEARN THAT THIS COULD ONLY BE PERFORMED BY THE SOLAR LIGHT OF CHRISTOS DIVINITY, THE EAGLE EXPANSION OF THE FIRE BROUGHT TO MIND LIGHT.

Therefore, the unifying by heights and depths, is that of ever bringing the Female Capricorn into a Male creation, as a Flame going forth from the top of the Mount. The ever bringing of a god-head into greater birth as the ever-becoming conscious awareness of the negative principle, the dancing Cinderella of the depths. She who ever labours to find the answer to her problems, seeking of her husband far away in the heights, to awaken the death-stinging darkness of avidya.

Otherwise it was only a Polyphemus, a mighty giant that ate up all that she created, and frightened all the maidens of the village. A one-eyed state of possession and desire, that fed the depths with continual lust, which resulted in a hedgehog state of hedging and ditching, with the cunning ever striving to prevent a full renunciation. Thus ever taking on of thorns and tying up the cellular structure into states of Gordian knots, the mystery that would demand much sorrow, at the time of Relativity. Aries instead of being a warrior of creative action, was a destructive action of desire.

The unfolding momentum of Being and Becoming had not yet awakened in the conscious mind, where the inter-marriage between heights and depths as husband and wife, had become

THE LOST GLORY OF THE HOLY FIRE

BEAUTY, as the glory of His expansion, was now being carried away into the depths as the earthy attraction of the beast. For Venus who was to have been the divinity of the mind, was lost in the darkness of desire. (See text in col. 2).

of Neptune—its dynamic pulsating Seed—will all manifest as the budding genius creations of Vega.

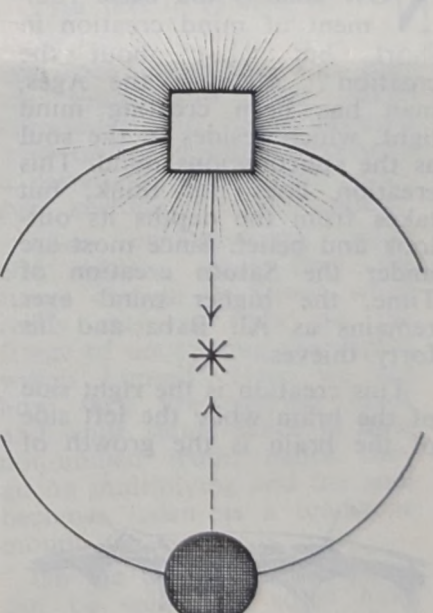

But only by mind activity of the highest will such survive. For the power of compensatory rebirth as LAW will now commence, all now being controlled by spirit impregnation, and only by spirit will all survive. Thus the intensification of the propensity of Vega is now the stimulative wealth of the Cosmos. Man being born of a Vega infused bloodstream.

... Refer to lower diagram on page 9...

The internal creation brought into expansion as the glorified Seed of light of Vega. That ever growing by its purity of beauty, activated by man's belief, or lost in his strontium inertia. The LAW of Vega now over-rules the Law of Gravity, owing to all returning to its point of source (see diagram on page 4), which means a supreme pinnacle point of Hydrogen unification in the Scapegoat creation of the Word. Thereby polarising of the Neptunian extremes as the LAW established in the Cosmic Heights.

For once the Word is earthed as a point of Truth, the Void is coloured by its beauty, and is no longer devoid of its comprehension. So the outcome of all is the spinning of the World into fiery atomic life, by and through the Word of Vega. Thus the ever-chemicalised cosmic golden point as Vega's Cosmical Universal Philosophy is ever firing and fusing the whole world with Divine Spiritual Life. The golden EYE as the WORD is the World being Fired by the Master's Yod, the Divine sacrificed fires of Merope.

For the sacrificed mortal self is the bringing into birth of the Holy Fires, and the androgynous soul being spermed by the Divine Fiery Word of Truth. All now under the shadow of the Divine Eagle as the mighty Shining Presence.

The mastery of the strontium darkness of avidya and inertia, that man is manifesting as he brings out the wealth of his bones. This, as the essence of the Holy Fire, he must accept as the glorified wholeness of Virgin light, which he must polarise into the prismic infused divinity of Vega, as the glorified manifestation of the Divine Flame.

the construction of the positive will, a state of constructive organisation of ever bringing all to a state of oneness, the glory of the unfolding mind.

A state of TRUTH ever coming into birth, in all degrees of comprehension. A producing of mind through the union producing belief, through the perfection of the Fire as a triune expansion, opening up the glory of greater belief in the accruing sensitivity. That becoming aware in unfolding aspiration, and sending forth as the glory of mind ascension.

The inter-marriage between heights and depths as husband and wife, is the construction of the positive will as a state of constructive organisation, of ever bringing everything to a state of truth. A producing of mind through the union producing belief, through the perfection of the Fire as a triune expansion.

For the union between the two would automatically bring that expansion, by the inter-blending of alchemical action, causing the hormone seed to be heated into an expansion of light. It being produced by polarity expansion bringing the roots to culmination. Bringing of fresh air into the soul, that grinds the corn to feed the soul with new life and purpose.

THIS BEING THE BASIC OF MARRIAGE, WITH THE ACTION OF LUST, THE NEGATIVE STATE OF PRODUCTION, ONLY BRINGING THE POLARITY AS DECAY.

The Fall

A beginning of the Gordian Knot, instead of the sparking chromosomes of the god creation, where all lights went out and the fiery creation brought a contraction of the heavenly subsistence in a state of weaving. Thus causing the chromosomes to multiply into a flesh-like creation, a mass of solid coats of skin.

For up till now, they had lived in an ethereal state of covering; now it was hardening into a solid state of flesh, losing their ariel body of lightness. Woman instead of embracing the royalty of the Yod, became lost in the amours of the harlot. Now they were only producing a state of density; an animal state instead of a god-like mind, the beauty of divinity.

No longer god-man, but man-beast; a state of evolution, but ever in the lower and never in the higher, creating a god-like mind. But ever a state of the beast going around in the density of Tartaros, the darkness of the pit. Instead of the forming Virgo mind going forward up to the heights with purpose, will and zest, it fell back into the Cancer water, and was born of the harlot. They killed the goose that laid the golden egg, thus leaving themselves derelict. Thus the possibility of the Virgin birth, now fell to the physical action.

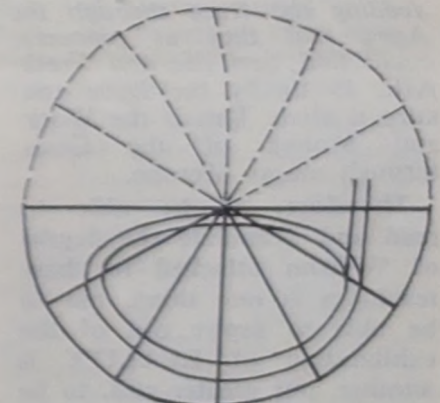

When Abel was killed, man was no longer conscious of his higher mind, for Uranus had now fallen asleep by the mutilation. That which continued in greater density by Roman Catholicism forcing man to no longer think, but live by the creed of ritual and dogma. Ever repeating of a state that put out of the light, for it could not produce anything but the multiple of its own past creation in an unexpanded state. Thereby remained as an animal state of mind creation.

Devouring of the elements, but only creating a state of fear, instead of a state of sensitivity. A fear of self-preservation, instead of a state of warrior investigation of expansion. Hence all went down into the coccyx creating a black mamba instead of the Kundalini Fire as the serpent of Fire waiting to rise as light. Yet also with literature of a multiplicity state, now devoid of any form of active fire.

The Dawn of Truth

THUS expansion can only ever come into being as a conscious creation, when the feminine state as consciousness-awareness begins to search and weave up a state of greater belief. Beginning a state of unfolding, which lifts the frequency up higher and higher until the soul begins, by thought polarity, building up of an auric mind. The black and white pearls of heights and depths, now unifying into a state of one-ness. Where the grey cells of the brain first begin to awaken and open up of divinity.

A bald eagle now seeking for its crown as the royalty of the mind to come out of the Seed. The soul now beginning to seed its own Godhead; but all taking place by the inter-union of the Fire in the hormone seed exploding, by the action of the Le Ros union in the spinal activity.

Husband and wife as heights and depths, whether as beasts or human, bringing inter-bodies into birth, as an encroachment back to the god-like state; building up a mind body by the feminine principle as the wife labouring in the depths to find a state of understanding.

This gave manifestation of Kronos, who as he persisted, came forth as Saturn, manifesting the plane of Earth in the depths of the Abyss. With internal unfolding ever coming forth out of the mystery of Fire and earth, bringing forth the secret of Creation. It was here that Saturn held the day, claiming his rights as Divinity, and continued the mystery of expansion.

For Saturn was the first seeding of the Fatherhood as the Godhead in the Heights; for what is in the Heavens is born below, but in Universal Evolution becoming that of Cosmic Glory, the manifested wonders of the Heights. A mystery started out of the range of tabulation, by Atlantis believing that they were gods, thus a Cosmic Creation of a mighty growth that they uprooted by their belief.

It was through this that Neptune produced Saturn, who sought to create out of himself, beginning the first seeding of the Fatherhood. By so doing out of the range of Heavenly instruction, he fell into the depths of cold inertia, whereby that of Tartaros was created. A world of darkness lost in the density of matter, the humid swamps of the lunar plane, where soul lived solely for the glories of the flesh, the darkness of sensation and desire.

Yet everything lies in the mystery of Adam and Eve, the great Creators in the Human Story. Where Elements and density brought the Fire into being, and soul came forth in the depths. For Adam was the unfolding Heavenly Creation, giving birth to all that went to the depths, with Eve going forth out of his side, as the manifestation of his Being. Differentiation unfolding the glories of what had become the immensity of the Heights, with Saturn the seeding of the Fatherhood, as Eve created the world of Motherhood below.

A matter of frequency widening the gulf, bringing into being of heights and depths, Masculine and Feminine, that inter-union could continue. Ever with the mystical creation of Fire, following secretly in the depths. Marrying up all that came forth, unifying into expansion, that soul as the atoms that came down in the wake, became the chief puppets in the scene.

By this, life unfolded of that Heavenly plane, and creation continued in the depths. With the Heavens feeding those souls to bring forth the wonders of the Divinity of the Heights, that He could manifest below. But as Adam gave forth of Eve, did the Prototype continue, with male and female unfolding the mystery, and taking on the secret of duality, with positive and negative in all creation, the mystery of Universal Union. Thus here began the mighty story of Marriage, the secret of Universal expansion; that not intended to go down into the depths and produce creation of an elemental nature.

THE UNION WAS THE LAW OF DEPTHS AND HEIGHTS, THAT IN BECOMING EMULATED IN SOUL CREATION, WOULD BRING FORTH THE GLORY OF MIND. THAT BROILED IN THE DEPTHS, THAT BY RAISING THE SPIRITUS AIR UP AS HEAVENLY BELIEF, WOULD BRING FORTH THE INTERNAL MIND BODY, AS THE ETERNAL GLORY OF THE ROBE.

The real mystery as the Great Work, the glory of continuity, where heavenly rebirth in the depths below, would return by the Law of Relativity. Thus soul as atoms now becoming the workers of the plan, with the mystery of life increasing. With the Heavens watching and waiting, ever seeking to replace and recompense, as the occasion demanded. For the mighty perception that was really coming into birth was not perchance below, but a mighty MIND created from all that had been, through the Ages long ago.

So when the mandate of marriage was issued, it was the union between heights and depths, that in soul emulating in the world below through the mind union, would he formulate the glory of divine evolution. The Great Work of the (See plate in cols. 1, 2 & 3) Age, that when Relativity brought the opportunity of Unification, soul could begin to climb the Bee-line trail, and start the glory of Solar rebirth.

The Duality of Life

SO the mighty MYSTERY of Creation declared that man and wife, as the duality of soul, must ever cleave together in heavenly marriage, that the mighty glory of the mind unfolding could begin the seeding of the Real Work, the glory of the Race. For Eve as Womanhood had created a glory of her own in expansion, as an expression of inveiglement ever seeking a way of becoming, as the Fire demanding freedom from the mystery of his depths.

THEREFORE TO BRING FORTH OF THE GREATER WORK OF THIS HEAVENLY EXPANSION, THE SECRET LIES IN THE POSITIVE AND NEGATIVE, AS HUSBAND AND WIFE, EVER CLEAVING TOGETHER THAT NO DISPERSION WAS MADE, BRINGING INTO BIRTH THE GLORY OF THE MIND.

Although through the unfolding they were naked, as the garment of the spirit had not yet been created, they were not ashamed, for the glory of the soul had not yet fallen, as the 'fire' falling into the depths of lust. By the union as decreed, would the Fire, the glory of the Heavens, become married up to the soul, producing the glory of the Solar. The mind creation of heavenly light, producing the glories of Revelation, the wonders of the unseen depths.

But owing to the conscious-awareness, as the feminine introduction of sensation, and partaking of desire instead of divine LOVE,—that of creative uprising,—it produced of the plane of Lunar Waters, the immensity of a watery deep. They merely extended the mind instead of raising it up into light; a state of the unicorn, but not the absorption of the lion, the element of Solar expansion.

Thus soul, as man and woman, now as dual states of the mind, were driven out of Paradise. Having the glory of knowing all, and drawing from the Source of Being, where they ever were led and guided by the heavenly Voice, the mighty Wonder of Divinity. Soul was now barred from the god state of divinity by the Flaming Sword, the two-edged state of

(See plate below)

Karma and Dharma, with the Fire, as the mystical serpent, ever stinging them into lustful creations. Ever bringing growth in the waters of desire as phosphorus fire, and not the glories of the spirit.

They were now born into matter, that of death and rebirth, for soul had given birth to Abel and Cain as the dual states of the mind, the division as their creed of desire. This resulted in the latter killing Abel as the light of divinity, when he sent down the task to be performed; for Cain ever sought of the wonders of form, which forced them to wander over the earth in darkness.

Thus the fire in the Seed not rising up as the winged eagle, but becoming the phosphorus fire in the bones. Here began the first creation of the strontium "Fall Out", the stored up raw fiery wealth in the rock of solidification.

DRIVEN FROM PARADISE

NOW brought to a state of duality, naked and lost to the truth that once was the glory of their being; for slowly as they turned to the ways of the depths the door was closed on the beauty of Reality. (See text in col. 5).

But what had taken place to soul, as the creation of his mind belief in the depths, was now established in the Cosmos as the Law of Rebirth, bringing a greater drop into matter, causing a state of mortality and immortality. The soul now forced to create and bring forth, through the experience of Time and sour Grapes.

The Mind Unfoldment

HEIGHTS and depths separated by a Veil, the depths of the mighty mysteries, with further expansion ever separating more and more, instead of unifying into the glory of a higher creative thought. The will of purpose now tied up by the non-creative Chinese roots, that had now come into birth. While the lower Gemini cunning was now born, with egoism building up fast and furious, with only a partial state of Ego trying to build up the higher mind, a state of unfolding light.

Hence man only became as an animal creation, wandering the earth in utter poverty, with all the light of their god-like divinity, now the black evil cunning of the soul. Instead of man and wife cleaving together, producing the one-pointed creation of mind, a state of family incest took over in the soul establishment, and multiplicity resulted.

A splayed state of mind-creation, where woman as the feminine principle was desiring many men, she ever taking on of a harlot state, to find the answer to life. For no air was coming down from the heights, man not plowing and bringing of the mind body into birth, but dancing the rounds of experience. Thus the fire was now (See plate on this page) in the bones in an untransmuted state, as the Veil of Isis waiting to be retrieved, to expound the depths of yesterday.

BUT MAN HAD TO LEARN THAT THIS COULD ONLY BE PERFORMED BY THE SOLAR LIGHT OF CHRISTOS DIVINITY, THE EAGLE EXPANSION OF THE FIRE BROUGHT TO MIND LIGHT.

Therefore, the unifying by heights and depths, is that of ever bringing the Female Capricorn into a Male creation, as a Flame going forth from the top of the Mount. The ever bringing of a god-head into greater birth as the ever-becoming conscious awareness of the negative principle, the dancing Cinderella of the depths. She who ever labours to find the answer to her problems, seeking of her husband far away in the heights, to awaken the death-stinging darkness of avidya.

Otherwise it was only a Polyphemus, a mighty giant that ate up all that she created, and frightened all the maidens of the village. A one-eyed state of possession and desire, that fed the depths with continual lust, which resulted in a hedgehog state of hedging and ditching, with the cunning ever striving to prevent a full renunciation. Thus ever taking on of thorns and tying up the cellular structure into states of Gordian knots, the mystery that would demand much sorrow, at the time of Relativity. Aries instead of being a warrior of creative action, was a destructive action of desire.

The unfolding momentum of Being and Becoming had not yet awakened in the conscious mind, where the inter-marriage between heights and depths as husband and wife, had become the construction of the positive will, a state of constructive organisation of ever bringing all to a state of oneness, the glory of the unfolding mind.

THE LOST GLORY OF THE HOLY FIRE

BEAUTY, as the glory of His expansion, was now being carried away into the depths as the earthy attraction of the beast. For Venus who was to have been the divinity of the mind, was lost in the darkness of desire. (See text in col. 2).

A state of TRUTH ever coming into birth, in all degrees of comprehension. A producing of mind through the union producing belief, through the perfection of the Fire as a triune expansion, opening up the glory of greater belief in the accruing sensitivity. That becoming aware in unfolding aspiration, and sending forth as the glory of mind ascension.

The inter-marriage between heights and depths as husband and wife, is the construction of the positive will as a state of constructive organisation, of ever bringing everything to a state of truth. A producing of mind through the union producing belief, through the perfection of the Fire as a triune expansion.

For the union between the two would automatically bring that expansion, by the inter-blending of alchemical action, causing the hormone seed to be heated into an expansion of light. It being produced by polarity expansion bringing the roots to culmination. Bringing of fresh air into the soul, that grinds the corn to feed the soul with new life and purpose.

THIS BEING THE BASIC OF MARRIAGE, WITH THE ACTION OF LUST, THE NEGATIVE STATE OF PRODUCTION, ONLY BRINGING THE POLARITY AS DECAY.

The Fall

A beginning of the Gordian Knot, instead of the sparking chromosomes of the god creation, where all lights went out and the fiery creation brought a contraction of the heavenly subsistence in a state of weaving. Thus causing the chromosomes to multiply into a flesh-like creation, a mass of solid coats of skin.

For up till now, they had lived in an ethereal state of covering; now it was hardening into a solid state of flesh, losing their ariel body of lightness. Woman instead of embracing the royalty of the Yod, became lost in the amours of the harlot. Now they were only producing a state of density; an animal state instead of a god-like mind, the beauty of divinity.

No longer god-man, but man-beast; a state of evolution, but ever in the lower and never in the higher, creating a god-like mind. But ever a state of the beast going around in the density of Tartaros, the darkness of the pit. Instead of the forming Virgo mind going forward up to the heights with purpose, will and zest, it fell back into the Cancer water, and was born of the harlot. They killed the goose that laid the golden egg, thus leaving themselves derelict. Thus the possibility of the Virgin birth, now fell to the physical action.

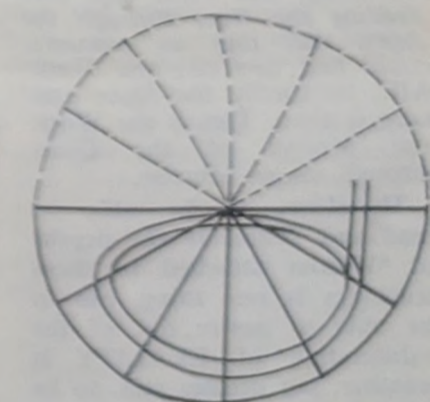

When Abel was killed, man was no longer conscious of his higher mind, for Uranus had now fallen asleep by the mutilation. That which continued in greater density by Roman Catholicism forcing man to no longer think, but live by the creed of ritual and dogma. Ever repeating of a state that put out of the light, for it could not produce anything but the multiple of its own past creation in an unexpanded state. Thereby remained as an animal state of mind creation.

Devouring of the elements, but only creating a state of fear, instead of a state of sensitivity. A fear of self-preservation, instead of a state of warrior investigation of expansion. Hence all went down into the coccyx creating a black mamba instead of the Kundalini Fire as the serpent of Fire waiting to rise as light. Yet also with literature of a multiplicity state, now devoid of any form of active fire.

The Dawn of Truth

THUS expansion can only ever come into being as a conscious creation, when the feminine state as conscious-awareness begins to search and weave up a state of greater belief. Beginning a state of unfolding, which lifts the frequency up higher and higher until the soul begins, by thought polarity, building up of an auric mind. The black and white pearls of heights and depths, now unifying into a state of oneness. Where the grey cells of the brain first begin to awaken and open up of divinity.

A bald eagle now seeking for its crown as the royalty of the mind to come out of the Seed. The soul now beginning to seed its own Godhead; but all taking place by the inter-union of the Fire in the hormone seed exploding, by the action of the Le Ros union in the spinal activity.

Husband and wife as heights and depths, whether as beasts or human, bringing inter-bodies into birth, as an encroachment back to the god-like state; building up a mind body by the feminine principle as the wife labouring in the depths to find a state of understanding.

of Neptune—its dynamic pulsating Seed—will all manifest as the budding genius creations of Vega.

But only by mind activity of the highest will such survive. For the power of compensatory rebirth as LAW will now commence, all now being controlled by spirit impregnation, and only by spirit will all survive. Thus the intensification of the propensity of Vega is now the stimulative wealth of the Cosmos. Man being born of a Vega infused bloodstream. ... Refer to lower diagram on page 9...

The internal creation brought into expansion as the glorified Seed of light of Vega. That ever growing by its purity of beauty, activated by man's belief, or lost in his strontium inertia. The LAW of Vega now over-rules the Law of Gravity, owing to all returning to its point of source (see diagram on page 4), which means a supreme pinnacle point of Hydrogen unification in the Scapgoat creation of the Word. Thereby polarising of the Neptunian extremes as the LAW established in the Cosmic Heights.

For once the Word is earthed as a point of Truth, the Void is coloured by its beauty, and is no longer devoid of its comprehension. So the outcome of all is the spinning of the World into fiery atomic life, by and through the Word of Vega. Thus the ever-alchemicalised cosmic golden point as Vega's Cosmical Universal Philosophy is ever firing and fusing the whole world with Divine Spiritual Life. The golden EYE as the WORD is the World being Fired by the Master's Yod, the Divine sacrificed fires of Merope.

For the sacrificed mortal self is the bringing into birth of the Holy Fires, and the androgynous soul being spermated by the Divine Fiery Word of Truth. All now under the shadow of the Divine Eagle as the mighty Shining Presence.

The mastery of the strontium darkness of avidya and inertia, that man is manifesting as he brings out the wealth of his bones. This, as the essence of the Holy Fire, he must accept as the glorified wholeness of Virgin light, which he must polarise into the prismic infused divinity of Vega, as the glorified manifestation of the Divine Flame.

Reminiscences

How can I gain the Solar Light," and "How can I get the perceptory principle into operation." They are three dynamic points, and those that can bring untold peace and harmony to the soul, and the trinity within themselves to be the means of that one becoming an Illuminati; but also safe and sure study.

Birth of the Mind

FIRSTLY it must be fully understood, that Occult Wisdom is not just knowledge, but the supreme depths of comprehension that raises up the frequency of the soul as he endeavours to master. That being the biggest point of all, TO MASTER, for the majority of souls just read, and even to some extent digest, but very few really embrace the glory of these truths, so that it causes them to exhilarate, dance, and so raise up their thoughts and mind, as to aspire upwards in adoration and supreme awe, at the wonders they now perceive.

WHEN THE SOUL CAN DO THIS, THEN HAVE THEY EXTRACTED THE "OIL OF THE SPIRIT" THAT THE WORD IN THE OCCULT TEACHINGS HAS WITHIN ITS DEPTHS.

For all Occult Wisdom is the outcome of the struggle of the lives of the many Heroes that have been straddled to the wheel to solve the problems of the Age. Their blood and tears have gone into that mighty effort, for it could only have been by such wisdom being manifested as a branch to the Tree of Cosmic Growth that has the depths of the past as its roots, and which has been feeding the Race through the Ages, that they as pioneers, could find new life and Fresh AIR, to fortify the Race and keep it alive. This is the Work and Motive of the Gods through me as Merope.

Therefore, to be able to read and assimilate the depths of Wisdom attached to these teachings is one thing, but to be able to aspire out of the exhilaration of REALITY is another, but greater still, to be able to spin up through the digestion and make polarity, which can carry the soul up in frequency into the heights of Outer Space. This is the true way of Occult reading, and one that ever affords glories unknown.

In fact this is the moment when we can quote the 2nd of Cor. 12 v. 4, where Paul, in spinning up to those heights, found himself in frequency that amazed him and stunned him, although I do not feel that it was Outer Space. For that is something that is only afforded unto man at the present, by the Work of the Gods, through a human instrument.

Very few have found sufficient sincerity to rise above Jupiter, and are quite content to just read and become Lotus Eaters; that is, be enamoured by the wisdom they think they have gained, and be drugged by the illusion of reflection.

This is the major point that the majority are seeking to fathom, and until this is fully understood and put into operation, no soul, whatever method they may adopt, will ever accomplish the first rudiment of this important subject of bringing the MIND into birth, and greater still, the Mind Body into growth. Therefore, to the major issue of how to study, let us now resolve.

How many have sought into the question of what is the

The Balanced Glory of the Mind

FIRST OF ALL, I WOULD LIKE TO THANK THE many readers who have sent me stamps, for many are such that I would not hope to obtain by my own post. At the same time, I would like to state, what supreme happiness it has given me to hear from those who have had Astrological Tape Recordings, as to what help they have afforded them. I have found extreme pleasure in delineating them, and have never yet found one that was not ready for the investigation.

This month I am going to try and answer the many mighty questions of, "How do I get my mind working,"

Mind and how it works, because this clarifies much and makes us understand much that appears empty and fruitless.

MIND is the outcome of Element absorption; the inflowing Powers from the heights as Cosmic Rays coming down to man as breath, and him, according to his degree of mind assumption, extracting from this dynamic Force his quota of element infusion. As he so upholds and believes the wisdom to be found in the Word, will he raise his frequency and breathe in from the elements.

If not, he merely breathes in the nitrogenous effluvia that man is breathing out in his daily gallop through life. Sex, food, television, horse racing and greed.

If you want to live above these things, then seek for the Word, and live the Word by the heart belief. This is not so hard as it sounds, just a little WILL and determination.

The Mind Activity and Alchemicalisation

IN the past Ages, man drew down the Elements in a wild and ruthless way, intuitively knowing that this way meant life. For since man was once a god, but fallen into the depths in mind desire through the first Element infusion, he has been subconsciously aware of what he must obtain to make the progress and expansion demanded of the soul, that he as soul can live.

Therefore, in having come down from the heights as an Atom that took on of soul substance, it knows ALL, and the way it must go to get back "HOME" to the Plane he differentiated down from. Having been clothed and created by the Elements of Neptune and Saturn, with the lesser elements in their greater degrees as the lower five, man was born and sustained of and by the heavens.

His task was to expand and create a MIND WORLD, which accounts for Vega, the Pole Star of today, being the Star in operation about the time that the Equinoxes of Leo and Cancer were seeking to form the mind of man. Thus is with man once again, to help him continue the task of mind development, and unfold into his rightful place as a god.

Therefore, when man called down the Elements in the beginning, he was not sufficiently compos mentis, to be able to control these mighty Powers, so simply became Warriors and stole and plundered from others. For he had only just come up from the depths, and was still in his bestial state of the FALL. Hence, ever learning through the elements which he had to master, and which to him were devilish creations; he being the Arimaspoi and they the Griffons, and accounts for the occult legends of Bel and the Dragon.

But in reality, they were the mighty Powers of the Hosts, that only had the influences of "Fallen Man" as their guiding inception. As man became more civilised, that is, he covered up the more bestial state of himself and took on a status of order and class distinction, he sent up to the heights more controlled and civilised aspirations.

This he usually did through his Totem Pole and God worship. But never truly realising, that in drawing down of that breath, how he was creating his mind by the Fire Element of that inflowing consistency becoming his hormone creation.

That which is known as the Generative infusion of Scorpio bringing down the FIRE mystery, which in its depths holds the secret YOD of God; in fact, as the Divine Essence of God penetrating the lost Norm in the depths, that as the Prodigal son, he will return safely Home to the Father.

For the twelve Celestial Powers are the Creative Elements that the Higher Powers of the Solar Glory flow down through as the Seven Prismic Rays. Hence the twelve Signs through the Seven Elements that flow around the Earth, via their entry through the Aurora Borealis, the Magnetic Field of the North. The mystical home of the Hyperboreans and Boreas the mighty North Wind.

The Intercalary of Taurus and Scorpio

AS man so thinks, does he extract from this inflowing Element infusion his own frequency of breath, through his intercalary struggle to master. Magnetic via Atomic becoming electro-magnetic by his mastery, and of course is mind and will infusion. But further still, that which gives him his fiery element of hormone creation and oxygen substance of life unfoldment. Thus indicating the depths of the Astrological chart and its contents.

In the taking of this breath by the soul, it not only creates a hormone substance in the heights, but is carried down to the base of himself through the bloodstream, to that which is known to the Mystic as the cauldron. Which in reality is the generative apparatus where the soul "broils" the hormone or fiery atom created from the inflowing Cosmic Rays, and splits it in twain to extract its fire, and its mighty message from the heights.

It then begins its journey up to the heights, but the most important and wonderful part of this mighty story, is the fact that in the broiling of this wealth, the mind creation begins to take place in the Fire Element striking the Waters of Cancer. Setting up an Air creation that the soul subconsciously gives a form unto.

Then it goes up the spinal column in the action of the vagrant nerves in alternating action of afferent and efferent, motor and sensitive, where a mind belief is perceived in the Cancer Waters. This incorporates the logical mind of Gemini in the vagrant action, and into Taurus, to be intercalary with Scorpio, to extract more and more generative fire to sustain the creation.

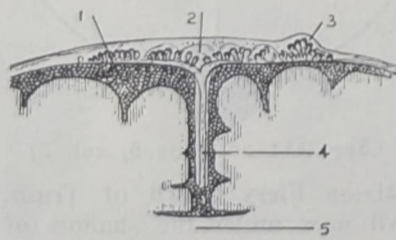

All this takes place in the spinal fluid, which is no more than the sex fluid, which is either used as mind creation, or sex sensation, which was the cause of the FALL. For the spinal column is the intercalary action of Taurus and Scorpio, with Gemini in its dual action as vagrants. This being the means of driving the Fired-Air up to the heights, where Aries as the pioneer of the soul, begins a round of investigation and treading the wisdom into the earth. Then Capricorn can get the Flame glowing on the mount.

If it fails to become Mind-Air, or Aries will not labour, it resorts to desires, and deluge usually results. This accounts for why the wise Mystic reserves his sex fire and moderates and controls his diet; and furthermore, why we are advised in the Holy Book of Scriptural legends, that man's abundance is his wealth. So never despise abundance, but control and shepherd it into the right direction, taking plenty of pure cold water, to help the situation.

The Polarity Expansion

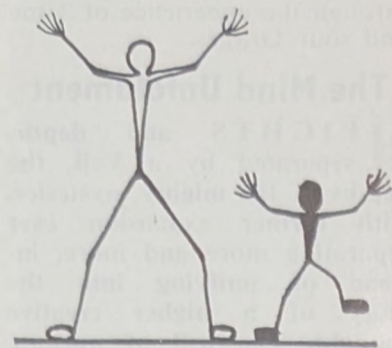

NOW that is the basic rudiment of mind creation in short, but what about the creation? All over the Ages, man has been creating mind light, which resides in the soul as the subconscious mind. This creation does not think, but takes from the depths its outlook and belief. Since most are under the Saturn creation of Time, the higher mind ever remains as Ali Baba and his forty thieves.

This creation is the right side of the brain while the left side of the brain is the growth of the conscious awareness that does all the thinking and deduction through the influence of Aries. The first house creation as the personality, and the Warrior that goes forth to plough and sow. This mind creation is reborn in every new incarnation and fostered by the mother, and as the irrational mind with the higher mind as the Rational mind, is ever seeking to become equal in its growth with the higher.

This can only be done by the soul partaking of reliable knowledge, and labouring with the conscious mind to decipher its full contents, possibilities and polarity expansion. Then the lesser grows and becomes; but if knowledge is taken and never deciphered, the higher mind becomes elongated, causing split states, schizophrenia and twelfth house planets.

By this it can be seen of the importance of study, and the soul fully comprehending the knowledge taken, then treading it into matter to seal his expansion. Then by his feet, ✕ the Pisces influence, he hands it over to his head, as well as treading it into the earth.

This accounts for this plate which we have exhibited so often, for this knowledge has already been the reading consistency of the Gazette, so a wise reminder to those who merely take knowledge for knowledge sake, and wonder why they come to grief.

Read and digest, and even go back again at a later date, and it will be surprising what new beliefs and ideas that already-consumed-literature can produce; for the higher mind has now grown through the taking. This we have recommended to many, especially our friends in countries where education has not been as prolific as it might have been. For Occult reading is often a little confusing, it generally carrying a greater hidden message in its explanation, that can give the seeker expansion if he labours.

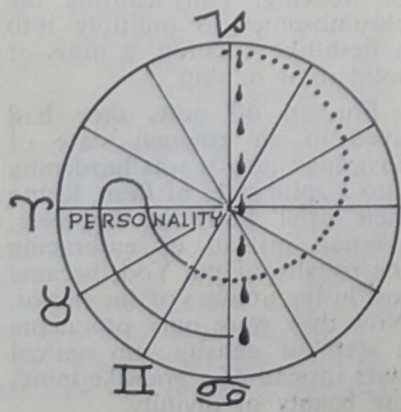

Although this is a very shortened version of this wisdom, it can give to many the mighty importance of being earnest and sincere once they enter upon this path, for this is the road of the soul who has awakened. The man who now sees life with REAL belief in those inner depths that are the mystical unseen inner creation that the soul is bringing into birth as the etheric body. The real true being of the soul, that should ever have been the form body of the god, as he made progress and growth on the Plane of Earth in the Abyss.

MAN SHOULD NEVER HAVE BECOME SOLIDIFIED, BUT REMAINED AS A SPIRIT CREATION, A SPIRITUAL BODY BORN OUT OF THE DESCENT. THEN MAN WOULD NOT BE SUFFERING AS HE IS, WITH DISEASE AND DISTORTION.

Self Realisation

SURELY no one believes that a Creator and Creation as great and as vast as the World we live in, could possibly produce a creature so badly afflicted as man is today. That alone proves that man has taken the wrong road, or shall we say the lower negative road, which the Mystic through Occult wisdom, is ever seeking to discover and recover. This is where we find the roots, unseen wealth, and many creations that have been, which have now left behind their karmic deficit, that if not cleared up, can mount up into mountains of rubble and sand, and leave us very bereft.

It is by looking into self that we find the way to altering things before they become solid like a rock, which now brings me to the plate that we are producing to help explain this wisdom. It having sequel to the point that I have stressed in this explanation regarding study, and the digesting of the point being sought into.

The soul accepting and striving in every way to now realising that this world should have become an extension of growth as a Mind World, not a Plane of Suffering through self desire and bestial growth through states never unified, producing a greater possibility of mind outlook which, when sent up to the heights in aspiration, burnishes the heavens or higher Planes with light.

The plate in question was found in a very rare old book, and like all this wisdom, is that given forth in symbology by higher guidance to Teachers leading and guiding mankind. But unfortunately made factual by man in his deteriorating state of tribal growth and the growth of community living. Hence all became as ruthless ritual in the minds of unfolding man, to be completely discarded by man in his religious sophistication, losing its inner wisdom.

WHAT IT REALLY NEEDED WAS EXPANSION INTO A GOLDEN POINT OF SOLAR WISDOM, THE DISCRIMINATIVE TRANSFORMATION OF SATURN INTO SOLAR GLORY.

The plate indicates of how multiplicity has grown in the mind through no expansion being made by the conscious mind digesting and weaving new garments for the soul, then spinning up to the heights in aspiration and spiritual belief, that gave the higher mind new food of light creation.

It will be seen, that in the plate the turbans of some of the figures, as well as the dog which symbolises the mind, are striped, which represent states still to be unified, to produce a greater possibility. While their lower limbs are solidified being those who have taken untold wealth in the past and never brought it to a blossoming state, and have died upon themselves. For expansion is usually seen as storks on a nest, waiting for the moment to hatch their eggs.

Man may think that he is, at the present, a more advanced and intellectual being than the souls of the past. Intellectual yes! but not intelligent. Souls of the past were struggling for life, creating the growth that man today is living upon, and should be improving and blossoming upon that gained, not adding unto in multiplicity. But polarising the roots bringing forth a golden deduction of Solar light, not states of artificiality.

A mind world of light and truth, of which the soul was receiving before it made its

THE LOST GLORIES OF THE HEIGHTS

MAN with his rock filled with fiery glory, lost to the immensity of its depths; thus spurning the wisdom that is being offered to them that would have unified their split black and white states. Thus turning their expansion into calcified creation, instead of the blossoming glory of the mind. (See text in column 1).

into rock, indicating that they are souls who have taken knowledge and never brought it to unified wisdom, accepting it merely as intellectual belief, ever keeping it in multiplicity.

Then cock-abraxos, stand and declare what they are clever enough to know, when really man is only on the fringe of uncovering the depths within himself. Here we see how they are making black and white states dance in their non-unified truth, hence they go on multiplying and the soul becomes laden as a loadstone mount.

On the left of the picture it can be seen how some have become completely solidified,

Fall, where it started to take on a more material outlook, putting the wise truths of symbology, into factual states. Thereby covering up by sophistication and convention the inner disabilities of the soul, and masquerading around as individuals of superior class and education. By the Law of Adjustment, sooner or later the soul becomes uncovered, then is the moment to prove how much he is worthy of what he is assuming in his own belief of his worth.

This is where the soul who seeks and fulfills the adjudicated rules of life, comes safely through without impediments. For as one who now seeks to give advice, I can truly say, I too have had to go through all these states of initiation. In fact, as one straddled to the wheel, initiation that the rest of the seekers into truth will never have to face, for I have "made safe the Gate for all" to travel forth and investigate, without any taking the wisdom and placing it in the wrong conception.

FOR THE LAW IS SET UPON EVERY PLANE AND POLARISED WITH THE DEPTHS, WITH WISDOM APPLIED AS UNTO THE UNIFICATION. ALL IT NEEDS IS MAN TO REACH THOSE HEIGHTS BY THEIR OWN RISEN UP FREQUENCY, PERCEIVING AND BUILDING YET GREATER BELIEFS, UPON THAT WHICH I HAVE BROUGHT BY THE FIRST UNIFICATION.

The plate in question is very profound and explanatory, for the very vase that one of the figures is holding, which in the original as a coloured plate, is shown as blue, yellow and red, explains of the growth that that

The Mind Development Class

EACH Week on every Saturday at 5.30 p.m. G.M.T. Mrs. Spearman-Cook holds her Special Mind Development Class at the School's H.Q. A special Subject is concentrated upon for about 40 minutes and then each sitter is individually helped to interpret and understand his or her findings. Any readers can join; those nearby can make application to attend each week, and those too far away can send in their names and link in each week at the time stated, their names being entered in a Special Book for this purpose. The subjects for concentration are:

- July 1st Dædalus
- July 8th Land of the Midnight Sun
- July 15th Iphikrates Shoes
- July 22nd The Holy Grail
- July 29th Atlantis
- August 5th The Calendar
- August 12th Prayer
- August 19th The Pheasant's Eye
- August 26th The Sothic Cycle

Harlot. With their unified state as golden wisdom striving to become as Eve with child in the womb, that Venus in the seventh carries the blended truth up unto the heights. Thereby to arrive at the eighth, that of Scorpio, as Aphrodite the goddess of wisdom, with her garments blowing in the wind. Whereby she hands to the archer of Sagittarius, the extended wisdom as the arrow for him to fire up to the heights, changing the Eye of Aldebaran.

THE WHOLE OF THE SOUL BORN ON A HIGHER FREQUENCY BY THE UNIFIED STATES WITHIN HIM.

This he can only do by taking knowledge and digesting it into wisdom, that the conscious awareness is ever growing, believing and accepting, that all the inner states of the soul are blended in assumed greater wisdom. But now with the Fires coming down from the heights in their full risen up state of frequency, that brought into birth by the raised up wisdom of Universal Philosophy, man can accomplish the above journey in a flash, by bringing into birth through study and struggle, his own perceptory awareness.

This is where a number gathered together, can discuss and struggle by the aid of spirit intercourse. Thereby being led into exhilaration and finding greater belief and expansion, for in struggling to reach heights in polarising a point, it brings into birth an impromptu answer, a solar state of awareness. The feminine principle as the conscious awareness, no longer held by the Saturn states of the earth, encasing their lower limbs in a block of cement, but being free to become Arielised, flying up and down through the planes.

I have tried to keep this as simple as possible, so as to help those who are new to this unfoldment. Try to look deeply into it, those of you who are genuinely seeking, listening not to those who would turn you from your course.

For they are the ones who will solidify your means of expansion; so ever seek in prayer to the Great Flame for guidance, never letting go of His Hand. He has ever been my Guiding Star and genuine protection through the many hard days I have passed through, and even where the road has been like broken glass, He has carried me through.

FOR HE IS THE GREAT CHRISTOS OF THIS AGE, AND THE MANIFESTATION OF THE FACE.

THE GEMINI MIND NOW BEING FORCED BY THE ELEMENTS TO CHANGE, BRINGING GREATER THOUGHT BY A WAY OF EXPERIENCE AND PAIN, THE TRUE ACTIVATOR OF LIFE AND REBIRTH.

THE soul unifying his inner powers with the Fires that he draws down. By seeking and embracing the Seed which comes down in the Fire, and uniting the two together, that black centre, which is the soul coming into birth, begins to raise up a royal creation of the mind.

When the Word written by a Sage, opens up a greater thought, it sets the soul bringing greater frequency into birth, sending up light to the heights. Until by expansion, the fiery creation with seven heads awakens the Abel that fell asleep, and Uranus although not sparking as the higher mind,—only the multitudinous creation from the past,—now awakens and begins to contribute to the depths below in a state of revolution.

A progressive state of expansion now becoming into birth and seeking in all directions. Aladdin and his lamp now well alight, where the geni can now come forth, bringing genius from the unification; the glory out of the blackness of space, in the Chinese dragon Fires that can now reveal the mighty wealth from the past.

Here is where the beast is changing face, and the wife and husband can become as ideal lovers. For intelligence takes a leading part, until a son is born in the depths as a mighty warrior for rebirth as a cactus springing up in the desert. Yet divine water surrounded by Saturnian thorns in the sands of Time. But when man seeks to awaken Uranus the greater glories begin, so must make sure that he falls not back upon himself in his awakening from the depths.

For in awakening Abel as his sub-conscious mind, will once again in falling back, kill it into a greater immensity of darkness. For by a soul ever pursuing form as a tangible state of being, he is ever going down deeper into greater darkness, losing the line of connection. But by seeking the polarity of light, it will continually bring truth as a form of understanding, which will ever bring that of expansion to a further state of unfoldment.

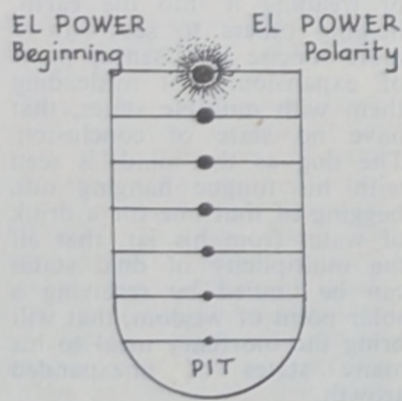

This as Cosmic as well as soul, is ever a state of Reality and reflection born out of the marriage of heights and depths, through mind consciousness bringing rebirth. Ever a state of rebirth through the feminine principle continually becoming aware by the absorption of the Elements, until it reaches a state of infinity. This ever being a mode of awakening, ever assisted in the past by Priest, Sage and Scapegoat; the latter being very rare, as none worthy of the creation, and ever refused the calling.

Merope's Struggle

THIS being soul placing themselves on the wheel of the world, that the growth and expansion of every Element makes human rebirth. That the way is paved for all to partake of that ascension on the highest plane possible, and all balanced and in harmony with the Hosts, bringing all glory back to the heights in divine expansion. Thus all being forced to labour by going down South, and learning by the thorns of trial and error.

Man ever being fed from those element-born heights, that now would be unified by the creative effort of that Scapegoat's struggle. The mighty work that Merope put into operation, when she opened up the mysteries of the created past and went right up to the heights. That every man could be raised up from the depths, and start a campaign of expansion. Thereby touching the polarity of her own dynamic Fount, bringing the Central Sun into birth, the dynamic glory of Universal expansion.

For she touched the Source from whence she came forth, being a Goddess by Universal rights. The opening up of the Chakra ascension, that begins a greater and more positive union with the heights. Thus the spirit beginning to rise and find union with the unfolding mind.

This is where Woman as the negative state of creation, that left the side of Adam, goes back by ascension of awareness into the glory of Divinity. The two El Powers uniting, with TIME as the activating factor; the soul ever becoming a self-resuscitating state, by an ever increasing state of awareness from the Divine Source when partaking of the Word of light.

Thus Merope set the prototype by being wife to the Christos Godhead; being a divinity, she was fully aware of Venus in the lower, polarising

Mars. Yet all raised up as unto the Plane of Reality, and not seen as the way of reflection, but the glory of Divinity. Unifying into her depths as light, every Element in its true creative beauty, awakening all the God states within her as a living Isotope. Thus bringing into birth, the serpent swallowing its own tail; Neptune revolving back to Neptune by the raising of the Planes and the inflowing of the Elements in the true creative light.

All filled with the Word of Universal Philosophy; that set into Cosmic Law by Merope. Thus the full union of Marriage as mind creation and expansion, was now fully completed. For the soul is now being fed by the Neptunian Spirit Fire as Divine Cosmic Breath, that of the Hydrogen-Ether Waters, the Divinity of the Godhead. The Glory and the magnitude of the Central Sun, with Antares as the Generative Source, sending it forth in Sperming Fluidity.

Not fed by the lower maelstromic fires, which only fed man with the lower mundane creations of life,—that of the lunar Waters,—but the Holy Breath of the Heights, the pure Air of the Heavenly Waters. The past divinity of his god-like mind, when he roamed the glory of Paradise. The revolving bloodstream now being born of a conscious state, the creation of The Flame. That to be brought into light as the awakened Capricorn becoming conscious of the heavenly Divinity, as the Royal Glory of the FACE.

The Eternal Waters

NOW we must strive to comprehend how the twain becomes one flesh, that the mind ever producing a continual point of unfolding truth, can bring the Godhead into radiant light. For without argument, what the spirit hath joined together, let no man put asunder; for now avidya has been dissolved, and expansion produced by the higher Law becoming born into the lower, otherwise there would be chaos and confusion.

The union now of the heights and depths in the physical creation, but the blending up by the mind. The Fire and Word bringing the mind into birth, in the awareness. Thus Merope brought complete expansion as a Scapegoat, as she blended the earth and the Central Sun, into the glorious world of Vega. Therefore the glories and the wonders of Heliopolis are now flowing forth, through the profound expansion being put into operation. By bringing the two 'El' Powers into birth, she completely made it unified for all of you.

Therefore in the depth of this investigation, we must now seek as unto what does adultery define, to prevent any form of dissolution. This indicates marriage to states not universally blended; that minus the perfection of the elements. Thus remaining the harlot to the five lower senses, bringing a state of multiplicity. Therefore only dancing with the past knowledge, and holding the final conception of unfolding creation; not looking for the glory of completion.

Thus the feminine principle ever weaves garments that are lacking in perfection, for her state of affection is incestuous; it ever causing the mind to become muzzled, having no purpose of expansion. Hence the virgin Word is only born of the harlot, and becomes as multiplicity of a twelfth-house state; that which lives in the depths of the labyrinth.

By this it cannot become as a perfection, a lamb born without blemish for the first; the soul without stain and able to impart its divinity unto another, whereby it awakens the purpose of life, in the glory of that soul. This can only be performed by the inter-union of the Waters with the sparking Fire drawing forth the glory of the risen-up Eagle. The divinity to be born out of the Seed, to the greatest possible propensity.

Thus the dance of Le Ros is where the union with the divine glory of inter-birth with the Holy Fire, now brings her into marriage with the Royal Holy Glory of the Divine SOURCE of All Creative Life. That which she embraced at the beginning of TIME; her union once again in rebirth.

As they sway back and forth in ecstasy of LOVE and divine union of interblending glory, she that left His side, now returns in that divine union, and becomes unified into His Eternal Divinity. Back and forth in electrical fusion, as the Magnetic and Atomic embrace through the Fiery depths of the Seed, the glory of the mystical Waters.

Thus the magnitude of the depths, the struggles of EVE as Time and redemption, now become the glory of the KINGDOM, that the Divinity enters into by His Sperming mystical depths. The mystical wonder of rebirth, as He electrifies into divine glory, by the radiance of His mighty mystical Eternal Effusion as the internal Secret of that mighty Seed. For the inter-union is the firing force of Uranus, bringing those glorious rolling Waters of Neptune surging into the depths as the divine inbirth of that mystical reborn inflowing Union, which brings forth the glory of LOVE.

THE DIVINITY OF HIS NEVER-ENDING ETERNAL WATERS OF LIFE AS THE SECRET SOURCE OF THE GREAT WORK, WHERE THE MYSTERY OF INTER-UNION IS UNFOLDING IN THE SECRET BIRTH OF LOVE, BY THE INTER-BLENDING OF THE HOLY SEED.

The true conception of the reflection in the depths that caused Eve so much sorrow and prognostication in experience and struggle, now the radiant glory of the inter-birth in that Royal and Holy Union. That which reveals the mystery in the Holy blending of His Mighty Secret. That which is awaiting all of Virgin purity to embrace in their divine awakening, to become as the Virgin and her Lamp. She now the light of the world, as the ever-union of the Infinity of LIFE.

Thus the dance of Le Ros is brought into birth the mystical glories of the Divine Heights, (See plate on page 11) as the Unseen Magnitude of Life into the depths. For as Venus she embraces her Lord in that mystical Kiss of LOVE,

THE CROWNING OF THE DEPTHS

AS she fought and rose up out of the waters, winging herself to the heights, the depths which had been the means of producing her immensity of mind, were now being crowned with the glories of its production. For she had been the means of His Divine Glory now radiating in the density of matter. (See text on page 11, col. 2).

the Immaculate Conception of the Holy Union, bringing forth the divine glories of rebirth into the depths.

The radiant Stream of pure Crystal Waters that now fulfill the mighty Prototype of the Great Work intended for the Solar Year, Saturn reborn into the Glory of the Christos Divinity by the royal fusion of the Seed, LOVE as the Holy Fire, the glory of His Holy Sperming, the secret of every heart, now reborn from the depths and glory of the WORD, as the inborn truth of Universal Philosophy.

Thus the dance of Le Ros to bring into birth in the reflection of the soul and its comprehension of awareness, until it fully awakens, as the birth of the Sun or Moon in Scorpio in the Taurus plowing; otherwise she brings into birth of false fire, which entitles the male to put away his wife, by continually bringing into birth of new growth from the revolving depths. Thus a new nucleus to the chromosomes must be found, that of the reborn nucleolus; otherwise by her wrong creation of false conception, she will cause him to become a born eunuch.

Awakening of the Seed

NO expansion in the revolution of the fiery return, thus only sending up of the old law, and receiving the old law in return. A winged state of Saturn in Abel still unawakened and blind to the sensitivity of awareness, thus the necessity for a bill of divorcement, that a new wife can stir him into action. Therefore the soul in ever feeding on greater wisdom, will continually change the outlook of the wife, until she by frequency, has the propensity to stir her husband in the heights.

But where she will not change and bring new thought to entice her husband into sperming expansion, by her bringing into birth her promise of return, she must be cut off until she cries out to labour. Then a new wife is taken by the reaction of change, thereby explaining away the roots, turning the expansion into action. Thus as long as her husband serves her, must she labour and work for him, until she can make him fertile; hence fulfilling the Law of inter-union.

Blending up the Fires in holy matrimony, bringing the glories of love into birth, in the radiance of the mind. Thus in turning her thoughts to a passing fancy, is she committing adultery with a new love, thereby dividing her attention between the illusion of the depths and the reality of the heights. Thus not wholeheartedly faithful, which brings a fulfilment of wisdom. She ever being the working acme of the unfoldment, which brings the mind as the Robe into its glorious creation. The wealth of the soul as the glory of being, the mystery of creating its internal divinity.

Can you see here a soul that has come back to perform a certain thing, quite possibly to learn to Serve! But the soul does it the way it wants to, and then wonders why nothing goes right. If you have come back to perform a certain task, then you will find you will be forced by alchemicalisation to see this Truth. You come back, and you feel that the earth-life is most important, and all that is in it is important. You ought to know by now that it is not. You ought to know by now that the most important thing in this life is, getting the union of the soul to bring the mind into birth! This is what man is going to learn, and is going to bring the confusion ere long. This is what the Occult Teachings reveal to man; the importance of the spirit, and the spirit only.

So when she 'goes down South,' she parts from the heights; thus must make sure that she is not tempted by Saturn, thus taking opportunity of her task to find her true intent of purpose. This is where she either remains loyal or commits adultery by her hidden artifice of the Harlot.

FOR SHE MUST AWAKEN IN THE SEED THE DEPTHS OF HER OWN ROOT, YET EVER TURN THE ROOT IN, BY THE HIGHER CONCEPTION OF THE SEED IN THE NEW FRUCTIFIED BIRTH.

Then as she passes the exhilarated idea up to the heights, he sperms her again with a greater zest, which is equal to her going up to the heights. While 'going down South' is into the fifth house, and as Diana the moon is collecting the victuals for her lord. But it depends upon whether she commits adultery with old ideas as new evil beliefs, or gathers up the intensity of the wealth, as the purpose of expanding the Fire.

In the case of evil, she creates hedges by going back upon herself, therefore a cunning of lower fire in false stimulus where new loves are taken. But when taking of the spirit Fire, it reveals of spiritual truths, but also involving the strontium states into the Hydrogen-Ethers, now prepares her to begin the Greater Work. Then as she begins an investigation of the mysteries she travels back into her own depths, but to find equal as unto its heights, thereby must bring exhilaration that will carry her up by sensitivity and frequency to those heights.

All the time being aided and prompted by her husband as she goes up to his Chamber for the heavenly Sperming. Adultery would be where she commits lust with another idea, thus betrays the purpose that is bringing the Divine Glory into birth, and destroys the heart magnitude, which causes her husband to die in the depths by the fallen frequency.

Her purpose now is to become Venus-Urania, by being completely married up to the heights by deed, thought and purpose, that she can become the Mother of the Gods. For she now draws forth of the magnitude of divinity, by becoming awakened to the divine royalty of his internal glory; for as she does so, by her expansion of Love, she becomes unified with the Divine Flame, as the glory of her mind brings expansion to His Glory and lifts all up into the divinity of unknown heights. (See plate page 10, cols. 3 & 4)

This having been Prototyped and the internal aim of Phallic worship, that the fifth could produce of its divine mystery, and carry the Seed up to the glorified purpose of unfolded mind light in the heights. Thereby causing the Flame to burst forth on the mountain top, as the divine glory of the manifestation of the Divine Golden Winged Bull.

Hence the Virgin with the Lamp is the light in the World, she bringing into birth the glory of the mighty Unseen, the Unknown Glory of the depths. But she who has involved all by renunciation, and embraced the glory of immortality; for by her consuming Passion she enfolds His glory and becomes the Queen of the heavens, that back to back they sperm the earth, with her as the female Bull bringing the Gods into birth. For it was the unifying of the Fires in the blending up of the Word, that gave her the glorification of light.

She who watched over every stage of the journey and made sure that her lamp was trimmed and well alight, never missing the union at every junction. Thereby every root, deed and thought being turned in; for she was fully aware that lingering states of past creations stop the soul from raising the Arc up from the 8th to the 12th. That which gives to the first a Lamb without blemish; hence the Holy Fires raised up to their full glory, giving to the Virgin Queen the romance of divinity in the glory of a royal crown.

the pure Waters of Crystal Rebirth.

As Merope enthroned Him, orthodoxy died, but she also knew what it would cost her to complete the task as she walked the Truth into the earth, and measured the two hemispheres with her foot. Thus the Infinity of all TIME.

This was enabled by the three mothers as the three Maters helping the transformation to make the ascension.

THE MYSTICAL REBIRTH OF WOMAN

AS Virgo, the intuitive mind, danced in the embracement of unfolding awareness, she as Venus-Urania, rose up out of the waters of the depths. For as she embraced His Holy Glory she perceived the wonders and the glories of her Holy Spouse. (See text on page 10, col. 5).

Fulfilment of the Divine Infinity

THE real crucifixion is in the Christ being suppressed from expressing and expanding the glories now possible by right of assumption. With the feminine principle now the Divine Virgin as the Mother with her Son, bringing all the divine glories of the unseen heights into birth. For by carrying all up to the heights, where she gave birth to the Son of the Sun in the radiance of her mind, the Gods of the heights give back to the world their royal divinity, as the soul comes out of the tomb of illusion.

Thus for Ages Roman Catholicism has endeavoured to raise up the Virgin Mary to this divine Glory, but Merope raced up to the heights and raised her Lord up to the Central Sun, enthroning HIM in Royal GLORY. Thus barring all from belittling His Magnitude, as He sent the glory of the Holy Fire down to the depths, as the Royal Stream of

That which was determined by Osiris opening up his mouth, and a golden child coming out of his speaking forth. For the past is now making its royal point of purpose, as the Nut growth on the Tree of Life. This having been activated by the Woman with five husbands, yet the Madonna with the child in the womb, until she gives sustenance to the Divinity at the well, that He can be born to the glories of the Ascension.

The risen up Seed now becoming of the growth of the Void, the mystical glory of the heights. The risen up Fire fertilising the Cosmic Womb as the Divinity of the Immaculate Conception; the royal babe born from the Unknown glory of the heights. Her husband being presented with a holy Child.

The feminine principle as the harlot, who is willing to give up all of the earth glories, that her husband can, by her artifices of exhilaration, be born in the transubstantiation, as the divinity of the heights. The light of the higher mind that becomes the light of the world. By this the Spirit of God hath come forth and must NOW speak through His son of those things forbidden by ritual of dogma.

For as the raised up Virgin, her purity gives her the right to become the Mother of the Gods, the reborn Face of glorified life. This she does by walking it into the earth by will and determination, she never wavering in her beliefs. Thus the emancipation of the Holy Flame, it now baptising the Golden Babe as the reborn Solar Word of Vega creation.

This the Scapegoat Merope has done, by unravelling the false conceptions created around the Divinity, whereby Roman Catholicism has not only created false diversities, but lies, evil beliefs and sodomitical theories, to further its own material ends. Never really rising any higher than Jupiter, the creation put into being by the Caesars in the previous Age.

The activation of Neptune, of which the Scapegoat has been the emancipator of its heights, is the co-ordination of the divine Spark. The answer lying in the sperming proficiency of the mind, for all men are sufficient unto themselves, and the marriage VOW of return.

Therefore, it can be seen by the former, that the ravage of the Scapegoat is the untried Elements finding a new basic to make manifestation in the World as a whole. Hence the pain of the untried elements that Merope had to weather to fulfill her complement, was the pain of flagellation, the Scapegoat ever on the Wheel, that the Divinity can live up in the glorified heights. For Prismic unfoldment is soul crucifixion that the spirit can rise, while the nucleus of the wealth is the obtaining of a point, with all points amalgamated, bringing the nucleus as aspirational rising frequency.

THEREFORE INTENSIFYING A POINT BRINGS THE INCREASING FREQUENCY OF FIRE, THE DIVINITY AND GLORY OF THE YET UNSEEN MAGNITUDE OF LIGHT.

Therefore, it can be seen by the true Mystic, of how adultery is the tied up Gordian Knot as Holy Fire, contaminated by earthly weaving, producing matter instead of spiritual ascension. Thereby creating hedges which are earthy aspirational side-lines and desires, instead of finding the golden key to open the door of LOVE; Royal Ascension.

This key holds all the Cunning that the heart requires to manipulate all circumstances in a true-born way. For it is a divine fact that Merope, who instigated this divine union of marriage as Phallic worship, and the Hebrews who established it as religious principle and religion, did so to bring forth of the risen Arc through the birth of the first-born in the month of Abib.

This being the hope of the unfoldment and glory of the Race; for when a child was born, it was with immensity that it was given to the priesthood. The glory and hope of the Divinity to come forth through the creative faculties of the soul, and open up the secret of the Godhead, that He could speak those Glories to the world below. It was this that the Egyptians refused to do, thus "died" and lost the Road of expansive survival.

Hence the mystery and glory of this amazing union is that brought into birth from the Cosmic Breath as Universal Philosophy, through alchemical broiling. All from the uniting fears of becoming light, the adverse veil of Osiris fell away and he was born anew. He had not allowed the "Chains cast by the scorpion goddess" to fall upon him; Horus had remembered the words of his father "Beware of the spawn of Apap". But Horus had yet to learn by further births that Apap was but Satan in anthropomorphic guise.

Egyptian Mysteries

In the Ritual it is perceived of how the Manes pray "Not to be stopped at the Mesket to be allowed to pass onto the divine dwelling place where they can eat the bread and drink the wine of Osiris". Well, there is no getting away from the Ritual, for it declares of that which not only came from Egypt, but long before in the Akkadian days when man knew truth, and lived and bathed in its light.

The whole of the ritual of the Roman Church has been borrowed from Egypt, but what Catholicism fails to know, is the fact that the Royal stance and Awe that belonged to the Ancient Priest was not in creed and dogma, but wholehearted simplicity and generosity that pervaded the whole of their purpose. Not the narrow-minded creed of "I am" and "we alone".

The Egyptian Priest knew that the truth of love and justice, as well as reality, was royalty, for they were the greatest realists that ever lived, and that was the quest of their unceasing enquiry. The theme of the Egyptian wisdom was seeking for manhood, thus Horus was real, and their god and aim.

The truth that lay in this wisdom held untold wealth, and which if captured, would give enormous strength to the soul seeking of that wealth.

One of the greatest difficulties with all souls passing through the night of initiation, and seeking to overcome that which must be mastered, and to resurrect of that which they were seeking, is the "Slough of Despond". Remember it is Osiris that is climbing to find the celestial city that his son Horus can be placed upon the throne. But is it not father and son as alternating one. Here is the valley of darkness where the soul finds only blackness, yet another stripping away of a veil and you find day-light, with yourself beside the river of life in a meadow very green and fresh.

Right before you is the Mount of Hetep, the Mount of

Glory, and even if two lions crouch at the gates, until you approach you have not ascertained as to whether they are fierce or friendly. This is the last act of what has been a hard and troublesome road, yet one that has handed to you all the trophies of life. Without this, no knowledge, no will and no purpose.

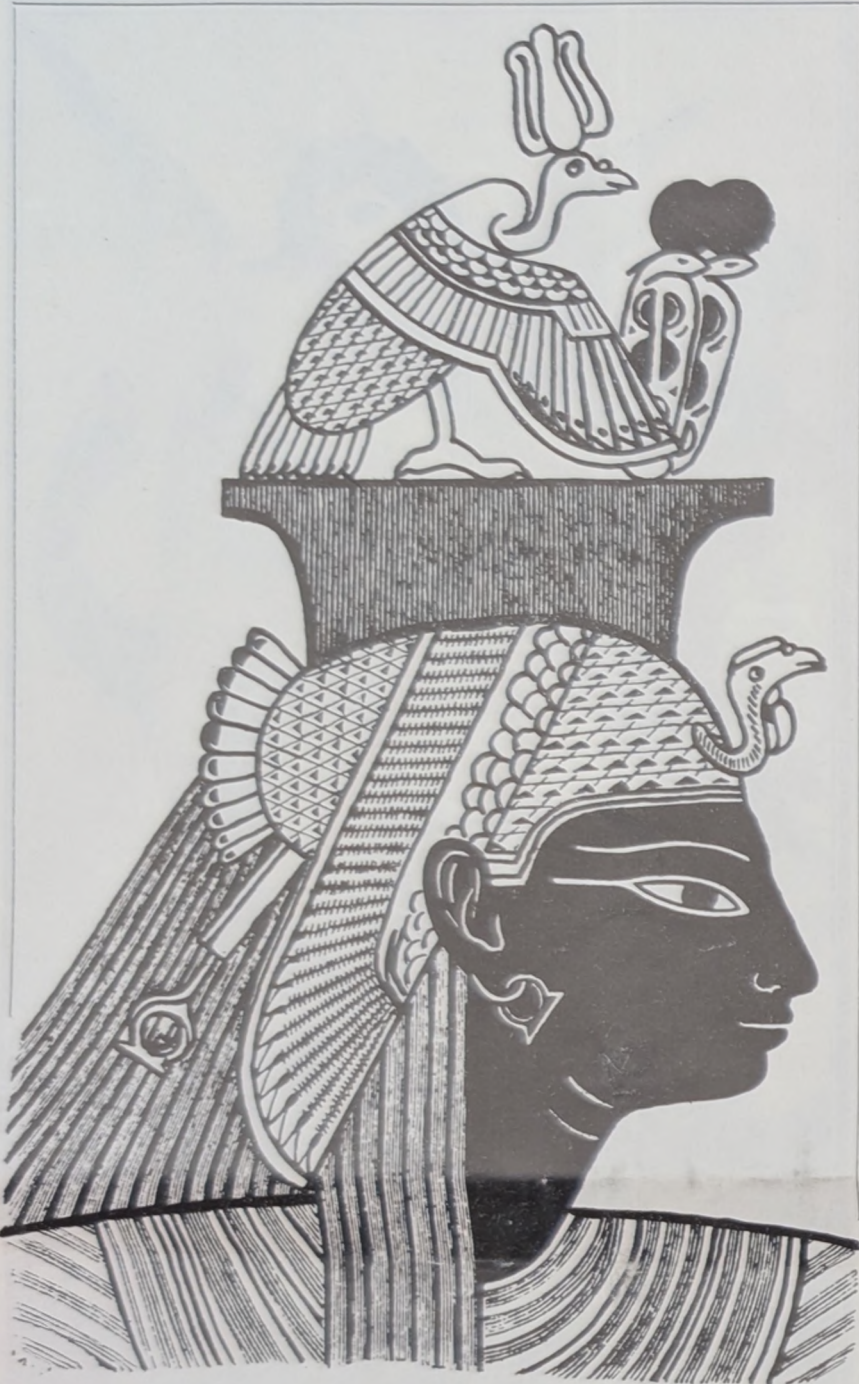

All has been built up from the past and the mysteries of Amenta are in everybody's blood; it is this that man has to wrestle with now. That which took root in the Nile in the Mythology, and flowered in the eschatology, is man's life, religion and livelihood of today. In the mysteries of Amenta the deceased was reconstructed from seven constituent souls in stages of development.

These link with the Arunta mysteries that we have been describing to you, and which began to live only for the flesh, although once it was of the spirit. But that is so far removed from the present day mind, that it is utterly remote from a point of understanding. These since have become literal in a gross and coarse way, without their real royalty being applied. But the preparation of that royalty had to take place with souls that had sunk into a depth and had to be rescued at all costs.

Thus the opening of the mouth had much to offer on

THE SPERMING URAEUS

THE Royal Holy Fire that now becomes the glories of Woman, for as she becomes risen up by mind and seated under the Kirtle of God, is the Holy Divinity now her Sacred Spouse, making her the royal possessor of His Holy rebirth. The Matriarchate now the divine protrusion of the Patriarchate glory. The kundalini glory as the risen up sparking pituitary manifestation. (See text in col. 4).

now reside in the blood as species from the opening of different doors. For that is the way of unfoldment, door after door opening and revealing new truths.

Spiritual Unfoldment of the Soul

WHEN we discussed the Ritual of being tossed in the air; the circumcision ground; the preparation for the ceremony; the operations of circumcision and sub-incision; the ordeal of fire with the sixth and seventh senses as the opening of the mouth; and bones being made permanent, we were literally revealing to you the mystery of resurrection, and all the accompanying initiations that had to take place in the early stages to bring forth the soul as it is today.

Although much was of spiritual unfoldment, it took place in the flesh as the soul became more of the world, for then all many planes; all as that of the soul in different stages of unfoldment being initiated into speaking of what it inwardly could reveal of its journey in differentiation. What it had expressed in one Universe must become the wealth of another, for what was put into practice then was the vice, sickness, sorrow and genius of the next. So there must be relativity at all costs.

Therefore in the journey of Relativity, man is literally completing that journey when he is able to bring about the opening of the mouth in complete unity on another phase. What is whole on one produces the seed of tomorrow, and will produce the Voice of tomorrow. But until, the soul will be besieged with terror at the thought of losing what appears security.

YET THE SECURITY REALLY LIES IN THAT WHICH THE SOUL IS RUNNING AWAY FROM, REBIRTH ONTO ANOTHER PLANE WHICH IS AS YET UNKNOWN TO HIM, BUT WILL BRING UNFOLDMENT OF MIND AND SPIRIT.

The ages of twelve and thirty made so prominent in the Christian religion are the two initiations that respond to the mysteries of the double Horus. The first is of the Child-Horus who seeks into the wisdom on the whole twelve creational points of the celestial heights, and confounds those who listen to his speech; while the elder Horus is the soul initiated into the mystery of resurrection. But how many ever reach the first; so it can be seen how far mankind are away from the truth of life and its purpose.

The mysteries when revealed, link with the Shri or long lock of Horus as gained by him at the age of twelve on that mystical journey. The kundalini risen up as the Uraeus and circling over the head bringing untold growth and unity with the heights. Then he became changed into man whereby the Arunta tribe tied up his hair which made him a man. As that took place in the tribal custom, it now would take place as those tribal states became dissolved into the soul creation. Then the mysteries really began where that soul was concerned. The act of throwing the boy up into the air was the dedication of the ancestral spirit of the Totemic creation of the tribe becoming the voice of the baptized soul. This still survives in some mysteries in the tossing of the newcomer in a blanket, carrying out unconsciously the totem of that tribal custom which could still exist strongly in that shire or town.

The soul being thrown up and whirling down as a salmon leaping upstream, holds far more in its intrinsic depth than many behold, for the words of the ritual give of the theme when they declare "Let me wheel round in whirls, let me revolve like the turning one." This is the soul striving to make its way up the spiral, which man is seeking to do when he struggles to make mind unfoldment.

Yet the turning one is the sun-god Chepera, the "self-originating force" that descends as the bennu bird and mounts with Horus into great heights in mind flight. For it was the holy spirit descending and quickening the transforming mummy. This is the "self-originating force" that whirls and capers in the heights and depths as a dual state of antagonism. It is the Child called Horus born blind in the dark, that in his resurrection the spirit climbs the tree of life, bringing rebirth to the tree also.

The mysteries performed around this tree by the primitive in its embryo have become now the "devil men"; malevolent states to human beings in their rebirth of the soul. And in that performance they prowl around seeking of what they can devour. These to the Egyptians were the Sebau friends, to the Christians the temptations of Anthony; or to totemism the lizards, and their wives running in and out of the rocks.

These are the spawn of darkness and the devils of drought which the soul of courage wrestles with, building a mound whereby a fire is raised and initiatory rites are performed bringing purification. This is Hercules burning his cloak on Mount Oeta. This ceremony which is repetitive has the effect of strengthening the character of all who pass through it; for the fire ceremony is the greatest mystery of all, that which reveals the hidden things of the underworld.

It is by the application of fire that power and might are conferred upon the spirit, and gives light to the stars which never set. For was it not the Ritual that declared that the fire shall make Osiris divine by the secret of the mystery being the vigour obtained, as well as destroying evil influences, and giving power to Horus. Yet the Ritual states "I come from the lake of flame and of fire, and from the field of flame, and I still live." Thus sufficiently advanced to sit amongst the "never setting ones" in the eternal city.

THIS IS THE DIVINE LIFE EXTRACTED FROM THE FIERY ESSENCE AND BORN INTO THE MIND AS LIGHT.

Mastering the Inflowing Fires

THEN the elders cry to the females, "What are you doing," and they reply "We are going to burn the men, that we can give birth, and that a tree can be erected in the middle of of the sacred ground." The top contains a human head and the pole is blood red from human endeavours. The pole is humanized and the outcome of the original totem; this in time builds the eidolon of the enduring soul, that which began its roots in Egypt and Australia.

The last of the first roots are still existing in the Aborigine tribes of Africa and Borneo, but now nigh on extinct. They are the last link with what was originally the root cause of life, the living creation of the mythical ancestors; the Pygmy Race of present human existence and the forest dwarf of the soul that is often resurrected as a present day gibborim. It is fully known that they have no records or traditions of the past, for time did not exist to spirit before it took on of flesh. Therefore they unconsciously know and seek of no fetish or rites, and have no desire for occult perception.

Whereas the later primitive sought of totems, tattu scores, rites of puberty, the Pygmy "LIVES" in the true sense of the word. The Egyptian perceived this in their human form of the Elder Horus as Bes the dancing dwarf, but do remember we never lose him, he is ever resurrected on the mound. For even in Egypt he came forth from the Great Mother as Apt and was the Pygmy Ptah.

The seven powers co-operated in the one mixture of red clay to be moulded into Ptah the divine dwarf; the imperfect progenitor of the Man to come forth from his son Atum. This is the problem of the Aquarian Age with the whole retinue of Bes and his family to be gathered in as we scrutinize the chapters of the Book of the Dead. As much as man seeks to avoid this issue and devour his steaks with conventional relish, he cannot discard Bes, the original cannibal born into flesh from the divine seed of soul life.

The first to enter into the notability on the eschatology of life was Sekhet Bast as the Great Old Mother and who was represented in form by the great Queen Nebhau-Kau. These in their dual capacity were referred to as the goddess of sexual passion and strong drink, and Mistress of the gods, not as wife but as promiscuous concubine.

The great mystery attached to this great and mighty Queen was the fact that she was uncreated by the gods, yet mightier than the gods. She learned to rule the elements long before any; she knew how to control the snake venom, the python "spit" and the cobra hiss, and brought untold wealth into the land of "Golden Fire."

She was far more ancient than Ptah and the first creator and moulder of human elements. It was she who would lead the young life into auric and sensory control by Phallic worship and ritual obedience; therefore the eight gods offered her adorational surveillance. She was the Lady of the Two Lands which holds untold secrets, for this not only applied to the whole of Egypt, earth and heaven, but complete command of Self and its spouse. As the Lady of the Tree she was the Mama of the dum-palm and inner Africans, the WHITE Queen of great mystery.

Leaders of the Race

Now we come to the Pharaohs as the Kings of Egypt. Suten as the prominent Sut, first began as a negro, and as creation linked with Nebhau-Kau, and was Africa in its second birth after the fall of Bubastes when the Power was cut off, for once the great and mighty Queen was mummified into the tomb, the Temple exploded and remains where it fell unto this day. To all Egyptians down the Ages the rosyl-hued stones were too sacred to be touched by mortals; in fact too dangerous.

Bast's inner courts were in darkest Africa, while the outer temples were scattered around, but Bubastes was her main centre of worship. She was the Goose that laid the Golden Egg.

The first Pharaoh Kings were "naked" except for the lion skin as a girdle around their loins, to complete itself in the tail trailing from their heads on special occasions. Sut the son of Apt was the deity of the southern Egyptian nome, and from him came forth Horus-Behutet who became deity of a second nome. These all worshipped the Goddess, for the Father had not made his appearance, and was a much deteriorated state compared to the royal vibrations of the ancient Goddess. In fact one would say Eden had not disappeared but coarsened into form. These are the mysteries of the missing link and of those times that man today believes to be myth.

King Assa was "My lord the lion", the powers of life slowly assuming masculinity and preparing the way for the coming Fatherhood, and by the lion being their totem they drew down into the blood-stream the first forces of the Solar force. But the most outstanding criterion of this world was the Marchen records that were established at this time which have lasted down the ages and become the fairy tales and nursery legends of the human race over the entire world.

When this can be considered in the right light, the importance will be perceived more in the light of the records that persist in the blood as species that now would become creatures of unusual creation and violence if not subdued by in-born intelligence. Knowledge that acts as a deterrent and grinding mill; but even now Sut and Horus as the twin brethren war against the monster as two lions. This was known as Rehu and they warred and fought with this enormous creature on behalf of their Mother who radiated her light in the Moon. So it can be seen that the Moon was their Talisman or Totem in form.

Jack the giant killer, Tom Thumb and Cinderella, came forth from these original myths, and conveyed what the Egyptian records were leaving to posterity, apart from the fact that the theory of the primeval world was a land of the papyrus reed. And furthermore they founded that world from a circumpolar paradise that was born from the more primeval astronomical mythology.

But wisdom and truth which is nearer to the root than the scientist and archaeologist have ever yet been able to contact. Therefore when the hieroglyphic of Uati is shown as Isis with the Child Horus upon her lap, it will be recognised as the Kamite mother giving succour to Seb, the potential father. This was further symbolised as the Egyptian being the eater of the lotus and papyrus shoots. Therefore in later years bread as a delicacy, was made from their young plants.

From the Kamite reed sprang the Japanese cosmogony in Kunitoko tachi, the "land of the received" in Ashi-hara no naka tsu Kuni, the Middle Kingdom of the Reed Plain. This has correspondence with the Aarru paradise; this is the mount of heaven which grew higher and higher, and at the time of the deluge, those who could be saved, gathered there and cradled Horus amid the waters. But all with the goddess Uati as the Great Mother nursing the Messu of the inundation; and was Horus in his pre-solar and pre-human characters of the fish, shoot of papyrus and branch of endless years, laying the foundation for the future established Messiah to come forth.

The blood species growing and becoming in purpose and attenuation, that eventually brought the young god as the Solar cause into creation. The hero as the Arian pioneer climbing the bean-stalk of life; perceive this theme in the mind context and the biggest obstacle has been overcome regarding the acceptance of the eschatology of the genius.

The mount, the uppermost point as Apta, was the horn-point of the earth and the land of rebirth of spirits. As cosmically situated so of the human in the uppermost point of their seven natures, which became the point of contact between Spirit and matter.

The great Apap as the mysterious monster, is the force of life curling round the earth night after night and drinking up the water by day. This is the Hydra of seven heads that makes heroes out of clay that had been fashioned rudely by Ptah. For by the strength gained from the bull in the life obtained from the snake (Taurus-Scorpio). Horus rises from the waters and sits upon the polar heights. Horus becomes the hawk that bruises the serpent's head and sits upon the back of the hippopotamus; indicating different degrees of light and darkness in Space, the waters of life.

Heritage of Wisdom

HERE is an opportunity to review the purpose of this resurrection of the myths and legends of Ancient Africa. In direct language the pot is being scraped and stirred up; for after the articles portrayed by D.A. in the Occult Gazette it is very obvious that powers of some sort or another are still lingering and at work; but where and what of? Yet we do not have to go to Africa to see this; what about the excommunication exercised by Papalism over the ages; and knowing human nature to some extent, whether priest or not, to say that it could not still be exercised is not reasonable.

Man has this pot to scrape and clean up as the last of his issue, then what has been with what is, reveals the results. Sickness, disease, growths, mental states, evil and destruction. After all, are not the hydrogen bombs the outcome of a savage mind in a modern scientist's brain cells, for who could possibly be so insane as to create such weapons as to cause such suffering as resulted in Hiroshima. And if you link up what is going on today, though not made public because it is not "NICE," with what happened "Yesterday," you will without doubt have reason to believe there must be some linking.

To sit in the law courts for a few weeks studying human beings as they come up for trial would leave you utterly bewildered, yet if you look into these states of the past as revealed in the legends, you can see how a brown clay pot has been renovated numbers of times by different coats of paint with figures painted upon it; or even new states of firing. And if that top layer was scraped away would reveal the lowest layer, at the same time the basic issue of that pot that still had its ancient ingredients.

Since the soul is a living issue of mutable possibilities it changes by a more subtle method than the clay pot, but for all that a suitable equivalent. And even if one does not accept the theme of reincarnation as the cause of the soul issue, the pot has ever to go in the animal issue and you at the present are that outcome. But most of all the present day man has to realise that his mind as a light has been passing through many stages obtaining establishment; early primitive Africa was a new beginning, yet with unseen powers waiting to well forth the Lunar creation that had gathered in abundance and multiplied upon itself.

Therefore rich with possibility, and like a spring of water in the depths of the Earth waiting to burst forth. This will ever be the source of unity with the Solar light, while the method lies within the hands of the one making the unity, as the soul is a potential creation to bring forth a flame of truth.

What the young flame had to watch was the Apap monster who was ever seeking to steal of this light to feed his young serpents, who were ever lurking in the shallow ditches in the undergrowth. It is these that man has to catch and destroy, for fear they drink the waters of the sacred lake in the Aarru paradise; the field of papyrus reeds (wisdom) oozing with the waters of life that supply the world, which signifies the monad lake in the centre of the brain.

The Aarru temple was situated on an island in the centre of the crystal waters of the two lakes, which supply the pure waters that feed the world. These being the two sides of the brain; yet this temple received its supply from the celestial river of the white Nile, the Milky Way.

All journeying down from these heights, had to pass through the scorching desert sands of the south where Sut the black negro dwelt (generative fires). Yet their future heaven was in the north whence came the breath of life. So with the Polar Star fixed in their mind they ever receive the fresh breezes to enliven and sustain them on their journey of alchemicalization. All found their lost paradise in the land of wet or Uat, where they were given new birth and clothed in the ways of form that they could continue their journey through the Taut; the land of Lilliput (Cancer).

The Great Mother of Water feeds these children, and to the primitive she appeared as a water-cow, for it was the Milky Way that came from her Udders. This became constellated in the heavens at the summit of the pole (spine), where the two lakes called the lake of Euipoise and the lake of the Thigh were situated. But as of the Macrocosm so of the microcosm. Therefore Apt (Mother Nature) must be the water-cow and coloniser for all migratory forces.

She is the means of importing gems, strange animals, precious trees and the preparing of incense for the gods and goddesses (Planetary forces). But in the waters of those two lakes were the migratory Kamite Race, the negroid dwarfs who have yet to come forth and find growth, and are the people of the impenetrable forests, the non-civilized and undeveloped manikins of the ancient past. Therefore the starry heavens, although the future world of liquid light, the Augoiesde Ochema, were also the hoary depths of the Kamite tradition; which meant Alpha and Omega, and Here and Now in the unfolding monad in the pineal gland.

According to the mythologies in the beginning, heaven rested on the earth and was afterwards lifted up by Shu and Tefnut, the mythical up-lifters in the heavenly twins which became the sky as Nut and Nu. The logical wisdom portrayed by these supposed ignorant people is beyond belief, and portrays of wealth from remote sources.

Africa was a land of untold wealth established through sources completely unbelievable to man today. Heights captured by man, and by prowess brought into form; thus earth and heaven were established. Life did not come about in the way that man as the scientist or archaeologist believes, but by the prowess as depicted in the ancient myths, and now completely derided.

MAN STRUGGLING TO BUILD THE VASE OF LIFE BY MASTERING THE EVIL OF THE WORLD. THESE ARE THE HEROES AS SUNG AND PRAISED IN THE MYTHS; HERCULES WHO CUTS OFF THE HEADS OF THE SEVEN HEADED MONSTER. THOSE THAT "DIE" FOR A CAUSE AND HAVE THEIR BONES GROUND INTO THE STRUCTURE OF THE MACROCOSMIC MAN.

Astrological Delineations

MRS. Spearman-Cook is prepared to continue giving delineations of readers' horoscopes, as her time allows. These will be based upon the new world teachings, and is a unique opportunity for all to perceive the extent of their growth, where their karmic difficulties lie, and where their opportunities are waiting to blossom forth; apart from giving the understanding of how and where karmic roots, impossible akashic records, rear up out of the darkness of the soul's multiplicity.

Price in England and abroad £7.7.0.

Price in U.S.A. and Canada $25.00.

IMPORTANT. Please note that all delineations will be by Tape Recording only on 5½" reels track one or 4" reels track 1 and 2 at 3½ in/sec.

THE HEALING COLUMN

WE are regularly receiving letters from readers who are experiencing severe pains and headaches with their monthly periods. The herb that we always recommend is Motherwort, which is invaluable for this difficulty, but I wonder how many of those who write in are, in fact, on a strict vegetarian diet; for as the soul moves on to a finer diet will they find their monthly periods lessen in intensity. The studying of the wisdom in order to raise up the frequency of the mind, plus the cleansing of the diet to raise up the sensitivity of the body, should bring quick and lasting relief to all those suffering with this problem. We will be very pleased to hear from any readers who have already changed to a vegetarian diet, concerning their experiences upon this.

Pain in the Spine

Mr. A. W.,
British Columbia, Canada.

"My health problems consist of pain in the lower part of my spine; hernia, and tender gums."

THE first thing we have to note in this chart (859) is the Path of Destiny in the 2nd house, for it is only by the plowing action of intercalary rebirth of the heights and depths, that this soul is going to get the fire he needs to give him activity and verve.

What at the present moment appears only as small difficulties could become an extended state of inertia and confused mind. It is most important that through the activity of the passional waters into mind creation, that fire is brought into the possession of this soul, for in the past he has built up no Fire Bodies.

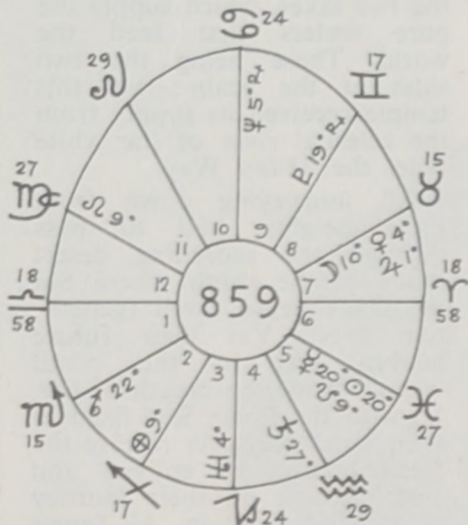

It seems as though in the past, Mr. W., you have just taken wisdom through the struggle of living, and not by the effort of rebirth and investigation; just taking the wealth that everyone else has created, and not bothering yourself to create in any form whatsoever.

This is again shown by your Saturn in the 4th house. He is sitting heavily upon any form of rebirth, hence clamping everything down into a state of inertia.

Only by plowing and raising up the sensitivity of the mind, will you begin to get new ideas of your own.

I note that you have Sun and Mercury in Pisces, and Pisces can either be the glories of the unseen deductive point or a continual waxing and waning into multiplicity. I strongly suspect here a religious state of the past, or if not actually religious, a sophisticated "Prussian superiority" that holds the soul fast in the trammels of its beliefs.

By plowing and striking out anew, trying to find expansion into new ideas, and coming away from accepting fixed beliefs, will give you the strength you require. You must become more of a pioneer, for this you have not been in the past, as can be seen from the fact that you have only two positive attributes and eight negative, showing that you have made no effort to build up any originality. This is causing the cramped state of the body that sometime or another is going to increase and take a strict hold upon the soul.

DO NOT JUST READ WISDOM, LIVE IT, AND TREAD IT INTO THE EARTH BY BEING A PIONEER FOR ITS TRUTHS.

If you have not already had any herbs given you, then why not take HOLY THISTLE and HORSETAIL. This should help you to find active motion and expansion, which I am afraid you are requiring more than you realise. Keep moving, keep thinking, and do NOT be afraid to advocate the Truth.

Need for Expansion

Mrs. A. P.,
Waiheke Island, New Zealand.

"What I really need are some herbs to help adjust myself in the changing over of the diet... also have severe ringing noises in my head, and swelling of the knees."

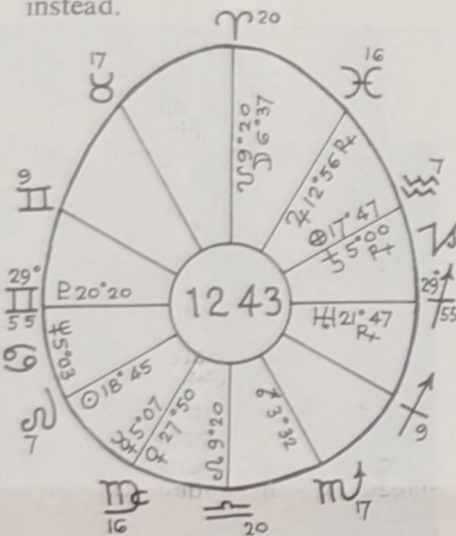

IN looking at your chart (1243) I am just wondering what you have done in the past to get your Jupiter in the 8th house, for your Path of Destiny is there also, and warning you to move him out. It looks to me that over the ages you have gathered up the wisdom in multiplicity,—I wonder if you are apt to still do that now?

Yet I see that you have Neptune in the 1st house and this is a wonderful position to have it in, but it will need a great deal of effort on your part to bring out of its higher qualities in this life, for the world is revolving around such mundane matters at the present time.

Also I see you have your Uranus in the 6th house, retrograde in Sagittarius. My belief and answer to all this, is that you were a very unsuccessful nun. Religion tried to bring expansion with you, but only brought multiplicity instead.

My advice to you is to cut out all religious states that you might still be holding to, and turn completely to the wisdom of Universal Philosophy, thereby embracing the Godhead in a TRUE and simple way. Try in every way to marry up the wisdom by blending it together and making your deductions from it.

This is very important with you, for your Uranus retrograde in the 6th house is hemming you in, while Saturn is dancing heaven's delight in the 7th and keeping you pinned down to making no expansion whatsoever; hence the Jupiter in the 8th.

You must ever seek to make your own deductions from the lectures, ever trying to capture the major point that all else revolves around. All your physical difficulties stem from this mind retention, so you can see the importance of trying to make expansion.

HEALING PRAYER

... GREAT DIVINE ONE ...

BLESS these Thy children, and teach them of the union and the inter-union, that the glories of the mind can come forth. For this is what will release all from their sorrowful suffering, the multiplicity of the flesh. Amen.

We would for a start off, recommend BUCHU, AGRIMONY, and VALERIAN herbs, and will change them at a later period when some progress has been made.

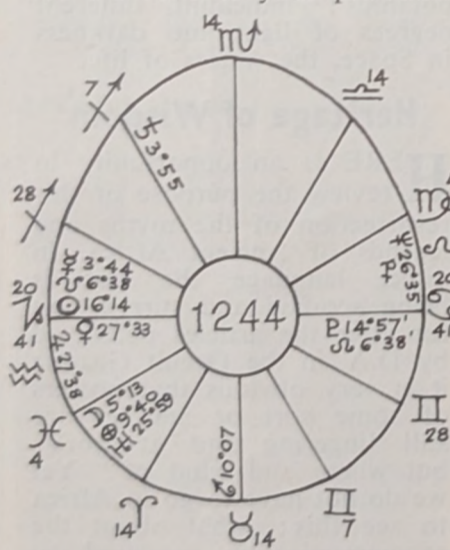

Eczema

Dr. W. A. F.,
Pennsylvania, U.S.A.

"I have been suffering with eczema since childhood, and nothing has been of any great help except time. It seems that as I get older it comes out less, but then again it can flare up again for no apparent reason. As a child I had it mainly in the ankle joints, knee joints, elbows, hands and fingers. In my early twenties I tried Chiropractic, including treatments and diet, and this helped me greatly, and subsequently I became a Chiropractor myself.

However, no matter what food diets or fasts I take, nothing seems to clear it and keep it cleared. Lately it has come out badly on my left hand, looking red and quite raw, and it makes me self-conscious since it is so noticeable."

MY suggestion to you is to bathe the afflicted parts with the MARIGOLD HERB, for this is a very remarkable remedy, although only the immediate answer and will not show the cause of the trouble. The greatest necessity is to look into your chart (1244) and seek for the root of your problem.

To begin with you have Mercury and the Sun, with the Dragon's Tail, in your 12th house in Capricorn; Venus in the 1st in Capricorn, plus Jupiter also in the 1st, but in Aquarius.

These, combined with your Path of Destiny, which is in the 2nd house, the house of the plowing bull, strongly indicate that your aim in this life must be to bring expansion to the wealth that is with you by continually driving your mind into greater thoughts. This you have rigidly refused to do in the past, and there has only been a continual revolving round in old ideas.

From your occupation I can see that you are following something that is out of the ordinary, which I do recognise, but it is no good merely working upon the old theories, you must bring expansion to your work, through new understanding by your search into wisdom. My advice to you is to get your heart and soul behind your theory and make it become an expansive glory that brings radiance and health to everybody, and you will only do this by becoming thoroughly versed in the wisdom, and your chart strongly indicates that you are not.

You must seek to raise your frequency by gaining a greater awareness of life and its unfolding purpose, and embracing the great Solar Divinity into your being, for it is solar light that you have to infuse into people, in order to bring a lasting result, for this is the only Healing Power that can penetrate the seven bodies and so bring harmony to those inner states that cannot be touched by other methods.

Our aim is to cure the soul of its illness by getting to the root cause of the problem, and not to merely put the physical side right, whereby the disease will only come up once again at a later period, and this time, probably in a more intensified form.

Mr. F., you are capable of bringing into birth a very valuable truth, for you have been an ancient Egyptian priest at the time of the glories of the Pyramids, but are now only bringing back that wealth under the shadows of a material world, and are not at the moment bringing forth those wonders of the past.

YOU MUST BECOME WELL BREECHED IN THE SOLAR INFLOW, THROUGH FAITH, BELIEF, AND WISDOM, AND THEN YOU WILL BE THE CARRIER OF THE GOLDEN LIGHT UNTO ALL YOU TOUCH.

But your Pluto and Dragon's Head are both in the 6th house in Cancer, a weak and watery sign, and glancing through your signs I see that you are only three positive and seven negative.

You must become more positive in your drive and belief, for you are not bringing the expansion required, although with your Jupiter in the 1st house, you could if you tried, bring all the expansion you need, and more. By your retentive state you are causing an acid fluid to erupt throughout your 7th body, that of the physical. The whole of your internal bodies are seeping with it, as is indicated by your Saturn in the 10th house in Sagittarius.

I would strongly advise you to bathe your afflicted parts in MARIGOLD HERB, and also to drink it in abundance combined with that of VIOLET. Please let me know how you get on, for I had another person with the same trouble, who stubbornly refused to take herbs, until at last the pain and discomfort forced him into it, and after only two applications there was a vast change for the better.

So I will await with interest to hear from you concerning the treatment, and am sure you will be amazed at how quickly you find relief.

Readers' Letters

WE had a most welcome letter from Mrs. King, of Dagenham, Essex, this month, relating of how she is progressing after having healing at the School. What was important and encouraging in her letter was the fact that she states that she is studying the lectures, and even, at a later period, going back and reading them again. This is what so many people do not understand, that within the Word itself is the power of the spirit, which as the soul digests the teachings, will automatically infuse the soul with new life. Surely most of our readers will agree with me, that as they read the articles in the Gazette, they can feel the warmth of the solar power passing through their hands. This is the healing power of the spirit entering into the body; every lecture written by Mrs. Spearman-Cook is filled with the spirit, therefore the more the teachings are studied, the more will the reader be infused by the healing balm. We have those come to us who are seeking to be healed, but cannot be bothered to study the teachings, and then they wonder why they are not getting the results that they were hoping for. Every soul must make some effort themselves if they want permanent healing, for the majority have deep karmic states to overcome, and this can only be done by studying the wisdom, and then, by will and determination, putting right the states within them that are still in conflict with the Truth. Mrs. King is now on a strict vegetarian diet, and is also taking herbs regularly. She has wholly embraced the teachings, and this is the only way that any soul will find complete and lasting relief from their difficulties.

Progress Report & Healing Praise

Mrs. E. B. King, Dagenham, Essex.

Dear Sir,

Further to my letters in the Occult Gazette of Oct. 1965, and May 1966. Having commenced regular weekly visits to "SUPH HOUSE" in Jan. 1965, for healing, and being declared fit in Dec. 1965, I have not looked back. Except for occasional colds which now only last two or three days instead of weeks, the success of Spiritual Healing, allied with the use of herbs and the changeover to a vegetarian—fruitarian diet, is proved without a shadow of doubt. My husband was told by Mrs. Spearman-Cook at the time that before twelve months were up I would be a new woman—this is so, and many people who knew me as I was have commented on how well I look. Now the shadows of ill health are left behind and I walk on the sunny side of the street.

I have spoken to several people who are not well, telling them of Spiritual Healing, where to go and what to do, but they seem to prefer to suffer, as they say that they have not got the time or it's too far to go. How silly. Surely, good health is a preliminary to living life to the full.

During my course of healing, it was pointed out to me that if I attended the Wednesday elementary lectures it would be of benefit, as it would aid the healing by turning the mind to the Spirit, developing the mind, and bringing mind activity onto a higher plane than the ordinary mundane affairs of life. So I have attended the lectures which are followed by a demonstration film, and at first found difficulty in understanding them. They certainly do make one think and exercise the mind, which brings an understanding, and the more one thinks, the more wisdom and understanding is extracted from them.

This also applies to the Occult Gazette which I regularly receive and study, making a complete break from everyday life. Those who are unable to attend the School of Universal Philosophy, would find the Gazette most stimulating for the mind, raising the thoughts onto a higher level, bringing in its wake development of the mind and a stream of fresh air and sunshine of the Spirit into life.

Going through the Gazette it is hard to define any features as a favourite as they are all so good: the Egyptian Mysteries giving a very good introduction to those commencing studies, and the Reminiscences, to say the least, are very interesting and revealing, being a commentary on many subjects of current interest, putting them in their true perspective—definitely a must.

All the articles are very well illustrated and with their captions are a lesson in themselves; how these illustrations and diagrams are found and so aptly placed, giving added explanation, is wonderful. The Occult Gazette is truly a feast for the mind and with patient study yields much which is worthwhile. It pays one to read them again and again, as at each reading further wisdom is revealed.

Since my introduction to the School, I have not looked back; a new life has opened in front of me and I would not have it otherwise.

Once again I wish to thank all at the School, especially Zamaia, for all that has been done for me; renewed health, new life and a fresh spiritual outlook upon the world.

Mrs. D. Stephens, Billericay, Essex.

It is with great pleasure and relief of mind that I pen these few words of appreciation for the wonderful help and encouragement I have received from S.U.P.H. and its "Inspired Helpers." You have rid me completely of Hay Fever and Migraine in a matter of six weeks, although my complaint has been of ten years' duration.

To positively know and feel that I shall no longer be subject to these distressing complaints is to me a miraculous uplift of Soul and Spirit, and I am left with a sense of satisfaction and well-being that I have never known before. Now all those past dark summers are gone, and I can look forward to the coming summer with new life, feeling my health returning and not receding.

I realise now that I am helped by the Sun, with its Glorious Halo, as a Spirit of Goodwill, ousting out all the darkness of these bygone days. As I glance back over these words of Praise, I can feel the fervent strength that they impart. I KNOW now that I am FREE! My whole family are so much happier, due to your efforts, and join with me in expressing our thanks to all concerned.

The Sacrament of Water

John Oxenham

CRYSTAL clear from the Throne of God,
Flows the River, the shining River,
For ever full, for ever free,
It flows everlastingly
Through the banks of time to the boundless sea
Of love indwelling eternity.

PRAISE to God in running water,
Gleaming, glancing, running water!
Crystal clear its joyous cheer,
Dreaming, dancing, running water;
Amber bright, all slashed with white,
Sweet, romancing, running water;
Give God praise for all fair water!
His sweet grace is running water.

GOD'S sweet grace is running water,
All fair sparkling, running water,
Bubbling spring from rock or sod
Goodly thing,—the gift of God!—
Babbling praises as it flows,
Gathering graces as it grows
Scattering joys where'er it goes,—
Praise to God in running water!

BLITHELY o'er its shallows purling,
Lithely through its narrows swirling,
Round its mossy boulders curling,
Glooming, gleaming, spooming, creaming,
With new life so richly teeming
For the thirsty earth's redeeming;
Give God praise for running water,
For all fair, fresh, running water!

An X-ray of the Soul

Mr. R. J. Gentle, South Lambeth, London, S.W.8.

MY Dear Teacher and Leader,

How can I find words good enough to convey to you my deepest gratitude and admiration for the Astrological Delineation that you so masterly and propitiously prepared for me. It is indeed a most wonderful portrayal, for you not only unveil my life physically of the past and present, but also spiritually. It is like an X-ray through which you make my past incarnation so vivid, and I must thank you for that knowledge and understanding which I was able to gather from it about my real self. Yes, it is indeed great to know where one's karmic difficulties lie, how to overcome them and grasp the opportunities awaiting the soul to blossom forth into Divine Light.

At times when I have felt life's troubles and the mind has seemed perplexed I used to contemplate as to why such things should be happening to me, when I know that I have never tried to injure anyone in this life; why I should always receive ingratitude for any kindness that I have done for anyone? But I can now say that I do understand it all by the survey you have made of my distant past, and must accept my difficulties and bear them with fortitude, knowing that it is I who have brought them upon myself in this life through my actions in the past.

Now that I know, I have no alternative but to try to avoid any more karmic difficulties for the future, and to raise myself up out of the mire into which I have so deeply fallen. I will do all I can to aim for the highest spiritually, and to hold on to the trend of The Master's teachings and aspire to come back in a next life with an expanded mind to be of more service to humanity, doing the Will of God.

I can see it quite clearly, as the Master has pointed out in the introductory lectures on Reincarnation, that it is by the experiences of the earth, our limitations and our sorrows, that we are, or will be, brought to a wider understanding.

Truly, experience teaches wisdom, and now having been given such wonderful understanding, I must aspire towards

Calling our Brighton Readers

Mr. N. Leslie-Mogg,
Kent House, St. James' Avenue,
Brighton 7, Sussex.

Have you any readers of your magazine in this Brighton area who meet for meetings? I should be very interested to know. Thanking you.

expansion of the mind, thus paving the way for a better life in another incarnation. When you point out that I am a spiritual soul but have never tried to transmute my knowledge into Wisdom, I do not dispute this fact and fully accept all that you say.

A thousand "Thank you's" are not enough to express my pleasure with the delineation, it is now my most treasured asset. I thank you so much for your warm encouragement and guidance upon the journey of the Spiritual Path, which leaves me with that determination to drive on and seek in all aspiration for those spiritual heights.

I can most assuredly say to anyone who is interested in their spiritual well-being that it is very worthwhile to have an Astro-Delineation made, and if they find any of the teachings hard to understand in the Occult Gazette, then they would do well to obtain the "Introductory and Elementary" lectures from which they will get an enormous amount of understanding.

Once again I thank you for what you have imparted to me; I now have enough food for thought to last me for the rest of my life. Heavens Blessings be with you abundantly always, also to your helpers and attendants at the Temple, and to this Great Divine Work to which you are called.

IF any of our readers in the Brighton area are holding, or would like to hold meetings, would they please write to the aforementioned address. (Ed.).

of the atomic and the magnetic into the electro-magnetic, with Saturn being transformed into the Solar, and the Royal Divinity and the Central Sun manifesting in the glories of his speech. With the lower and higher mind now becoming unified as reborn Cosmic conscious understanding, with Ages of constellatory beliefs, becoming Vega's practical Reality.

By this alone Le Ros is now electrified into divine holy Fire, infusing Moon-in-Scorpio with Solar will, and driving all into the Royal Flame of supreme understanding. Thereby Gemini capturing the Cancer-Capricornian wealth of this new-born union, producing Solar points as Vega divine expansion, as the Glories of the Unknown Blackness of Space. Resulting in the conscious Brahmic Breath, becoming Vega's established light, and the spirit being born into the Vega Void.

Of such glories only relativity can provide, and the World of LIGHT brought forth as the Divine Revelation of the mystical Glory of the mighty and glorious internal Being, the wealth and Magnitude of the Divine Arc.

The Glories of the Godhead, as never known before, manifesting through the Divinity of the Union. For the Divinity and the Union never end; it is ever involving in the internal depths of Divine LOVE, bringing the Internal Unseen Eternal Glory of the UNKNOWN FIRE, the Unknown

Source of Creation; bringing it forth by the involving of the soul manifesting those Glories as Light.

The ever-eternal Unification; the ever eternal Marriage; that as much as the soul brings forth of that UNKNOWN SOURCE, as it reveals it, it brings forth more and more down from that ETERNAL SOURCE, bringing it ever into the earth as a Source of Life. It is the 'marriage of the soul with the spirit,' but it is the never-ending Infinity. Not just bringing Infinity down, but Infinity going up. The ever going up into the Divine Unseen, and bringing out the very depths of HIS Being.

THIS IS THE GREAT MYSTERY THAT MAN HAS NEVER YET UNDERSTOOD, AND WHAT THE TRUE PRIEST AT THE ALTAR IS EVER SEEKING TO DO; DRIVING MORE AND MORE OF THOSE UNSEEN HEIGHTS DOWN INTO THE DEPTHS, MANIFESTING MORE AND MORE THE SPERMING GLORY OF THE GOD-HEAD, THAT AS THAT COSMIC YOD INTERPENETRATES THE DEPTHS, DOES SHE, AS THE UNIFIED VIRGIN, EMBRACE HIM AND BRING FORTH, THROUGH HER VIRGINITY, THE GLORY OF THAT DIVINE SEED, AND BRINGS IT FORTH AS DIVINE MIND IN THE ROYAL HEIGHTS.

Creation Called Life Part 10

IN OUR INVESTIGATION WE SEEMED TO HAVE BECOME A LITTLE more convinced on that journey regarding the purpose of Relativity, how it can be obtained, and its immediate necessity. By becoming completely innoculated we will, in time, pull off the wrappings that are preventing Horus from seeing his father and mother of the ancient rock. Poor Horus, he is still of the one eye and the purpose of speech; only an inarticulate gabble has been his lot, and he now wonders what it is all about.

The Glorified Descent of the Gods

IN the primeval paradise there were still the cultivators who wrestled with sand and silt, that Mother Nile could flow forth and water the land with voluminous prospectus. There were many who even laboured to localise Amenta by the never setting stars in the oasis of eternity. There were even those who wrestled with brimstone and hell, that Apap and Sebau could be filtered for every Sut to become redeemed.

These were usually the Great Ones entering into matter to save the world. Such as these left with posterity the present day monuments, depicting of how the glorified deceased had to enter into a lake of flame, and made his escape by attaining to an eternal city at the pole of heaven. For all men high or low, rich or poor, have to pass through the fiery furnace to return to those heights from whence they came. This lake was never quenched, for it was ever polarised and lifted up by each saviour as it descended down from the Solar force.

So having come from mythology into eschatology, that which held the basic of the present lives, it is seen that the locality is in the east at the place of sunrise. There you can see Ra coursing in his barque around the whole of Amenta and earth, which would produce the superhuman powers that man was seeking, to become retrieved. By this it can be seen that Amenta is the etheric body of the soul creation; this was man's sorting ground where Ra voyaged over the leg of Ptah and reached the mount of glory, the pineal gland. Thus the enemies of justice, law and truth, being destroyed in the tank of fire.

Yet what we have to face in this journey of time through that established from mythology in eschatology, is the basic gained from egoism to Ego. Horus and Sut, with Apap the serpent as the journey of time gained from those depths to the heights.

Sin does not count to the extent, or in the way alleged by Christianity. Sin is the failure to raise the Sine, and the soul remaining barren and bare of illuminati that focuses light on the faulty path. Ego and egoism covers all, for man commits or fails to fulfill his obligation of growth through his egoism of believing his own superiority and importance; though perhaps not without due reason.

If the soul gained intense heights as a pharaoh it remained in the blood as merely egoism unless ground down through wisdom. This can hold predominance and prevent new life entering, and giving rebirth through understanding on a higher plane of perception.

This not only remains as blood context but rock growth, and is the rock that will not change, and will require the hammer and blasting heat of Uranus's lightning rod. Until, all will stem in from this rock that is covered with dank moss and poisonous lichen, not to mention of scorpions, snakes and leeches that gather when the tide of waters are low, or overwhelmed with water.

Then again we find the one of the witch calibre refusing to move, yet with power of sensitivity that could wield much life. This belongs to very ancient times, for it goes back to the matriarchate period that was never involved in and resides deep down in the dark dank pool of black waters, the bottom of the well.

All are powers gained from the ancient Witch of Nature that become as a rock of brown hue, which has become filled with the lizards of lunar magnetism, that dart in and out with past perception taunting the soul into hungry seeking. But would that witch of the Lizard tribe ever change? NO! There it is as an Ancestor or Mane, a ghost of the past and a state of ancient strength, but no life of present recommendation.

The Ancestor, because of the soul's failure to recognise it and incorporate it into its being; the Mane, because it is a personality that never reached its fulness of incorporation, for the mind has dwindled and become dead to truth. There is no prospective movement, and ere long disease will be ramping in the nether parts.

The Awakening

A similar state could apply to a Witch of Endor: one (See plate on page 13) who had the power to raise the dead through their psychical unfoldment on the emotional plane. This naturally would deteriorate if it did not become evolved onto another plane of expression. So the soul becomes stagnant by paddling in lurid waters of conventional states which prevent soul making unfoldment.

These are diseased states of inverted growth: "Deliver me from the gods of the pillory who fasten the guilty to their flesh or female nature, which is but symbolical of yet further arranging of the funeral bed. The garb of impurity called the "garment of reproach" is none other than the garment of shame that caused those expelled out of Eden to feel naked and ashamed.

The awakening in the first degree had revealed by relativity the feminine garment, and it was recognised of its deficiency and loss. For once a soul has been into those depths it will always seek again, even if by a state similar to those who now become awakened, thus will always seek of occult truths away from the rut of churchianity.

THE SOUL WILL ALWAYS FEEL THE CALL TO THAT WHICH IT ONCE ASPIRED UNTO, THUS ACCOUNTS FOR MANY FEELING THE LINK WITH WISDOM WHEN HEARD AGAIN.

The first thing that must take place in the soul being stretched on the funeral bed, is the removal of the Apron, and the pure garment of light, as the pure garment of the khus or spirit, beginning to fructify under the warm rays of love. Thus once upon a time men at Easter donned female clothing, resulting in the bishop of the church adorning himself in the bishop's petticoat.

This has linking with the cow's tail worn on the head and Venus with a beard, and often the Christ is seen in feminine attire. All that is with man today has come forth down the ages through some ritual unfolding to him of some point of purpose. So when one reads in the ancient Ritual "I enter in the lake of flame from the lake of fire and from the field of flame" it can be understood to some degree of the meaning it was seeking to convey.

For it was the entry of the God essence into the soul from the fiery heights into the solar body and fiery fluid, to pass through the field of alchemization. And the god is awaiting rebirth as the soul's mind, where he will be reborn in the soul as the God in the flesh. Then why should such be condemned as pagan, and of phallic worship to be buried and destroyed?

Man may bury the records but he will never bury the reaction, for that is his prerogative in aeons of time to come, as either mind light or incestuous disease that leaves him lost for cure.

Meaning of the Divine Ritual

A part of the mystery of the Ritual of Ra is the Solar boat that conveys souls from sunrise to sunset, then the dead of night when Ra died and Apuat the star-god watched over the soul. Then Horus in the moon sought for light, for here in the darkness much overtook him, including the foul breath of Apap, the reptile with the long tail.

This is the same doctrine as in Revelations and the Epistle to the Hebrews, where the soul passes through the cleansing fire of metamorphosis. Then Apap sought for victims, and Sut the outer garment of the soul, as the satanical guise of the anthropomorphic, covered him from the storms raised by that Kamite devil, and in the
