THE ARC

The Glory of Light and Divinity

by Gladys I. Spearman-Cook

GLORY, GLORY, O' DIVINE Beauty, lift me up that I might understand Thy Divine Wonder. Knowing only of Thy mystical Divinity as the radiant wonder of the Central Sun. Thus show me how to transmute my internal insufficiency unto Thy Divine Glory, that Heaven and earth can blend in eternal beauty, and unite at Thy Divine feet. For am I not of Thy Breath, that brought forth from Thy Holy Light, and the Heavenly vastness around Thee. Therefore let me shine as unto Thy Holy brilliance, and bring forth Thy FACE in the heavenly birth of my mind. Thus as David of old lifted up the Arc and carried it unto Bathshemesh, did he lift up the degradation of the Race from the fallen glories of Eli's sons. Magnificence that Noah, the first Patriarch of life, had perceived and lifted up in divine aspiration, yet an act that set open the Gates of Glory, for the march on of evolution. A mystery that when polarised will bring its saintly glory, for all that has been must come again, in the role of unification. Where the Galactical magnitude will descend into form as the finale of rhythm and light. Yet by the glory of the soul en rapport, send it forth once again as the unified wonder of Outer Space.

The Mind Unfoldment

THE mystery of the soul who, by the wonder of understanding, walks the glory into the earth to bring forth the mighty beauty of the Arc. A mystery unknown to man today, he lost in the seductive tentacles of life; he that is seeking only of power in the material wealth of glorification of his inflated ego. Yet now it is only by soul bringing forth of his mighty depths, and polarising these with the heights, that the footstool offered unto the Unseen Glory, will bring His Holy Presence into the radiance of his manifesting heights. He that has through the long Ages, gathered unto himself of the wealth of the loadstone mount and finds his imprint heavy. With the Arc weighed down by the magnes, and clouds of truth long fled.

THE VIRGIN GLORY OF THE HEIGHTS

WOMAN now raised up from the watery deep, into the scintillating glories of the Central Sun. No longer the labourer in the depths, but the Creative Principle in the magnitude of Outer World Space. She now the sperming glory of the heavens, as she drives all into rebirth by the radiating intensity of her Vega-born mind. (See text on this page).

INNOCENCE OF CHILDHOOD

PORTAE LUCIS

The Gate of Light

The Descent of the Yod

WITH reference to the so-called mystery balls of fire that were seen in the sky in many parts of Europe on the 18th July, 1967, we would refer our readers to the statement made by the Lord of the Flame on the Television Broadcast of June, 1966 (see June, 1966 Gazette).

"I am the Master of your so-called Flying Saucers. They are the Hierarchial Powers descending to the Earth. They are the Higher Planes that cannot get down to man through the embodiment of the physical, because there are no souls upon the Earth that are sufficiently evolved to take these Higher Powers through the womb. It will only be by these Higher Planes coming to the Earth that mankind is going to be lifted up out of the rut they are in. As we leave these Higher Planes and come to the depths, and we enter into the maelstromic belt, we take on the physical condition that you have found, or have seen us as Flying Saucers. It is a mechanical construction that we are able to pick up out of the maelstrom These Flying Saucers, as you call them, will go on ; but now it is announced, these Hierarchial Powers are going to continue to come to the Earth, and moreso after to-night We are the Atomic Energy that is coming to the Earth vast Power Units of the Elements."

A further reference to these "balls of fire" was made by the Master during the Wednesday night lecture of 19th July, where he stated, "What appeared unto man as balls of fire, was the Great Yod descending to the Earth ; firing all the planes and firing the Earth with the life that is now going to resurrect all mankind. As a result of it descending every woman can now begin to embrace that Yod, embrace that wealth, and become Christos-born, the same as man."

THIS WAS A VERY DYNAMIC MOMENT, AND ONE THAT WILL HERALD GREAT CHANGES IN THE DAYS TO COME, FOR IT HAS GIVEN UNTO WOMAN ONCE AGAIN, THE CHANCE TO LINK WITH THE GREAT DIVINITY ; THAT WHICH SHE LOST AT THE BEGINNING OF TIME, WHEN SHE HAD TO CARRY THE CURSE OF EVE. NOW, BY THE STRUGGLES OF MEROPE, SHE HAS BEEN REDEEMED, AND IS SOMETHING SHE WILL HAVE CAUSE TO BE DEEPLY GRATEFUL FOR IN THE SOLAR WORLD THAT IS NOW COMING INTO ACTION, IN ALL ITS INTENSITY OF GOD-BORN LIGHT.

Editorial

FOR the past few weeks we in England have been subjected to more idiocy from the scientists, while they played around with their new toy, the 'Sonic Boom.' How any sane man can expect the populace to put up with this noise for the rest of their lives, is beyond my understanding. Of course, this is again another example of finance calling the tune. When those whose whole lives only revolve around how much they can cram into their pockets, are forced to meet relativity, then it will indeed be a time for rejoicing.

The Higher Powers are determined to break down such people, and their whole system of existence, and I have a strong feeling this will not be too far ahead. Things are moving fast in the cosmos now ; dynamic happenings that will change the whole face of the Earth, and bring it to the lost glories of the spirit.

Man will be forced to face up to what he really is, and his Jekyll and Hyde existence be brought to the eyes of all. For 13,000 years he has trampled the Divinity into the dust as he gloried in the sensations of the earth ; now he must answer for it, and for many there will be a very heavy reckoning to pay.

This applies very strongly to the scientists and those of the medical world, as they bring out more and more destructive weapons and spirit-destroying drugs. And now we are told that we are to have aircraft flying back and forth above us, producing Sonic Booms which we must put up with. The idiot who decided we must have faster and faster 'planes, regardless of the inconvenience to the public, is building himself a heavy karma, for the unseen reaction of this Sonic Boom upon the physical body of man, is devastating.

AS THIS BOOM TAKES PLACE IN THE ATMOSPHERE, SO ARE THE INFLOWING ELEMENTS FORCED OUT OF CONTEXT, TO ENTER INTO THE HUMAN BODY IN A DISRUPTED STATE. THE ATMOSPHERE BECOMES 'FIRED' BY THIS EXPLOSION AND CAUSES THIS UNNATURAL VIBRATION TO ENTER INTO THE BODY, THROUGH THE BREATH, WHERE IT CAUSES A RAPING OF THE SPINE.

The vast majority of souls are not capable of taking such fired vibrations, and the false frequency entering into the body, forces the soul up onto that plane, whether he is able to handle such frequency or not. What the soul has forced into him by this Sonic Boom, causes the Cauda Equina to become raped, and will wreak havoc with the glands at the base of the spine. This will be particularly damaging to woman, as these glands are so important to her as she draws up her OS fire from the past, in order to transmute it into light.

The Insanity of Man

If this was allowed to continue, untold damage would be done to the human race, but soon there will be a noticeable change in the air frequency at its different levels, and there will be many air disasters as the pilots of the aircraft find their control panels are not responding as they should.

The delicate instruments of the aircraft, and even the aircraft itself, were not built to stand the intensity of vibration that soon will be infusing the atmosphere. There are many strange happenings going on in the heavens at the present moment, and they are unseen cosmic changes that man will not be able to alter, or interfere with in any way. Once they are fully established, the man that will not turn from the depths and embrace the new changes, will be lost. This is a cosmic task and not a personal one ; man either moves with the changes or he will be struck out.

MAN HAS A VERY BIG LESSON TO LEARN, AND UNLESS HE MAKES RAPID CHANGES, ONE THAT WILL LAST HIM MANY AGES. THE ONLY ANSWER IS THE TURNING TO THE SPIRIT, AND DANCING WITH THE GLORY OF THE WORD ; AND THIS IS THE ONE AIM AND PURPOSE OF UNIVERSAL PHILOSOPHY, TO GUIDE MAN OUT OF THE PIT, AND EVER UPWARDS, INTO THE GLORIES OF THE CENTRAL SUN.

Will Readers Please Note

IN order to simplify our subscription system, all will now run from the period of January to December each year, to be renewed each January. This should make it easier for us and our readers, who cannot always remember when a subscription is due. Will regular subscribers only renew to the end of the current year, however long or short that period may be. Will new subscribers still send a full year's subscription, and then pay to the end of the next year with their first renewal.

We feel sure you will agree that this method, once it has started, will make subscription renewals easier for all concerned. (Administration).

Yet a mystery that Jason once had to solve, as he lost his sandal in the river of rebirth, of Iphikrates who was held by the magnes of his mighty OS wealth, and could not raise up the glory of his Arc. The depths of the mighty EL power of life, which he realises he has to unite to find the glory of Infinity. (See diagram on page 3, col. 1).

with the heights, he polarises all and brings it into light as the glory of his raised up Arc. But only by revolution, can the glory of becoming, ever unfold and spin up to those heavenly heights, as the freedom of the spirit now brought into being by that unification.

Wealth gained as the glory of the mind, must no longer be held as the possessions of time, but the unfolding divinity of the heights, by the soul walking it into the earth and it springing forth as the glories of his reborn mind. The unfolding glories of his Arc, the manifestation of Time. That once beheld as the birth of the Ego, now the awareness of the mind.

This is the mystery of continuity, of how Pisces, through the mystical wonder of the unknown Chakra of the foot, will pass on of its fulness to the glory of the mind, as the soul treads in of the wonders of his labours into the density of Time. That as that unfolding mind he perceives of the glory of service and love in the mystical depths of resurrection. For as Aries he raises his arms up to that mighty Presence, that the wealth which lies in his internal unseen mystery, can become the unification of reborn generative rebirth in the plowing depths of Taurus. The soul awakened to the reality of life, as he becomes aware of the truth of being, the revolution of life and becoming. For unless he treads it into the earth and raises it up to glorified light, that gained and lost in the loadstone mount will hold him down as the density of darkness, to the gravity of the depths and Time.

Thus by plowing-in the reborn wealth, new generative life can be assimilated, causing earth and heaven to unite in glory by the inflowing of that mystical heavenly wealth. That as he comprehends and draws forth of its beauty and depths, can he pass on that mystery unto the stanchions of the mind that Gemini in its deductive belief, can find expansion of the Centaur wealth, the mighty glories of the polarised past. The soul now awakened to the mystery of service, and the revolution of his internal depths. How by the gaining of wealth, the uniting

II

For as Pisces gathers the glories into the Pool of mystery, can he by the crucifixion of struggle and service, bring the essence of perception into the glories of the mind. Yet depths that have held the soul through many Ages by loadstone as the thief of time, or Podagra as the slow white-footed in that of the female Oedipus who refuses to bring the spirit into birth. He with the fixed pole who ever holds on to the glory he has gained, and refuses to raise the wealth up as the radiant Arc, the mighty glory of the heavens.

The sensitivity of him, that has reached its fulness in the radiant Chakra of the foot, (See the plate below) now the spinning sensitivity for the rebirth of the mind, the glory of the unfolding heavens.

★ ARISE O' MAN! ★

(This message was delivered through Wendy Bigsby on Saturday, 8th July 1967, during the development class concentration, the subject being the Midnight Sun. Editor).

THIS is the Inertia of the masses, the explosive quality of a man made monster; all the power of the depths subdued, with man sitting on an unexploded bomb.

It is the muck coming out now, being drawn up by Merope. As she has drawn up Her Fount, so has the 'spoor' of the earth come up like scum upon the liquid boiling in the cauldron. All the faculties in their densest state, now in the age of relativity to be revealed.

Man to be revealed as he really is, for all and sundry to see; split minds and ghouls now walking and running, scattering across the earth plane, seeking the peace which can only be found by unifying these states with Wisdom, so that it can be brought to its polarity, the Central Sun; the lunar to the Solar within man, the animal into the ethereal.

(A beautiful rose was now shown to illustrate the message.)

The rose had a massive head, with its roots in manure).

The rose manure rises up the stalk, transmuted by the rose into mastership. As the rose is the master in the flower world, and has a slender stalk, with all its beauty in the head, so man must raise up all his filth, or he will go back into disintegration as the compost; a stinking mass of earth to be ploughed in, to make room for the new cuttings, those of the offshoot of David, to grow and blossom now upon the Earth plane, which now is VEGA.

HAIL THE UNDEFILED CHRIST!—Who is sitting with the reed and the crown of thorns, set amongst you blinded fools, to become the WOMAN

★ The soul treading depths that now must polarise heights, and draw down the glory of Outer World Space through the frequency partaken in his plowing generative waters. For here we see the mighty wonders of the revolution of the soul, in the serpent swallowing its own tail, in the glory of internal rebirth.

The Holy Fires

THE Heavenly Fire drawn down from the Heights as the Prismic Breath of Seven; the revolving internal glory set into action by the labours of Time. Now the rebounding wonders of continuity by service and love to eternity, which becomes the internal factor of like unto like, by the mystical depths of attraction.

THE SOUL AWAKENING TO THE SECRET OF GIVING, THAT HE IN TURN CAN RECEIVE, BRINGING INTO BIRTH THE GLORIES OF THE ROBE, THE MYSTICAL GLORY OF THE SPIRIT.

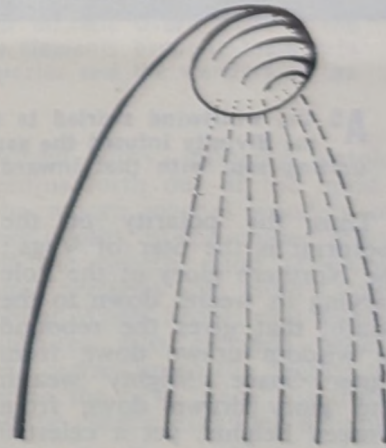

The wonders and beauty of mind unfolding, as the mind dances through the glory of Seven; for all that has been, and is manifest through time, is in the glories of the soul as the manifestation of the radiance of the mind.

The bringing into birth of the glory of the Seven as the Elements and Wonders of the heavens. That as below becomes the glory of the heights, the radiance and beauty of the heavenly Arc.

The thousand-petalled Lotus lifting up its head, through the root in the foot drawing the wealth from the depths. Its radiant glory shining forth to the heights, as the soul walks forth its wonders in the night. Yet the manifestation of the Divine Unseen, as the Fiery glory of the Atomic depths, now as the radiant beauty of the Central Sun feeding man through the internal glory of his atomic Waters. That set into unified action by the Cosmic unification of Merope; she who rose up by the treading into life, and bringing forth the glories of the mind as the realism of truth and wisdom. Thereby bringing the Eternal Stream of Fiery Life down into the depths of matter.

That as soon as man in receiving of its cleansing wealth, awakens to the demands of his earthly journey, will he begin the role of unfoldment and service, that he too can find the internal revolution of that fiery glory.

WHAT MEROPE SET INTO ACTION AS THE COSMIC GLORY OF ETERNAL REBIRTH, NOW AS THE MIGHTY STREAM OF HOLY FIRE, FEEDING THE clothed in Glory, Our Solar Queen. HAIL MEROPE!—My Beloved Bride.

He that hath ears to hear, let him hear!—He that is of stone, let him be ground under the heel of the Fatherhood. No rest, no peace, nor waking, nor sleeping. Live in the heights. Work the Power! Hold on tightly to the Ariadne thread. Speak out boldly all of you now at every opportunity, the Power of The Spirit is with you.

Rise up and comprehend you have these powers, you little clods of clay; become veritable fire-balls, leap and spin your mind up endlessly, upon the higher frequency. LIVE, or you will know what PERISHING is, as you too will die a slow and agonising death, the disintegration of the mind, bringing disintegration of the flesh.

God be with you and with Thy Spirit. It is Writ.

★ DEPTHS BELOW, MUST BECOME THE WEALTH OF EVERY SOUL IN THE LABOURS OF INDIVIDUAL REBIRTH. ★

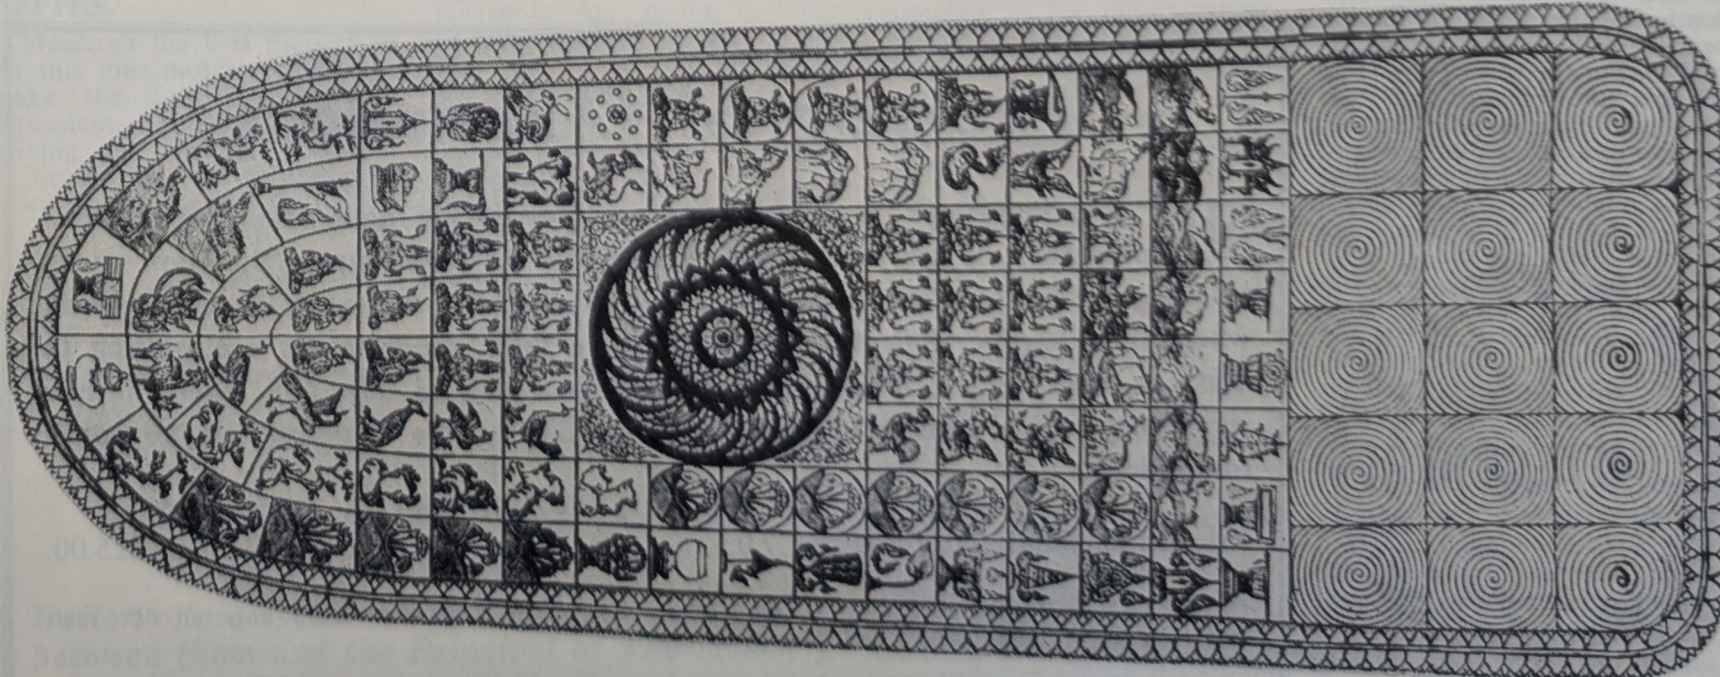

Every soul finding the way in taking in of these waters, of opening up the mind by wisdom and truth of Universal Philosophy, that a fulness of comprehension will set the Chakra of the Piscean wealth revolving, and unify with the glorified mind, through the unbounding wonders of the Seven.

Yet that which can only be brought into birth by the will and determination of the soul as he labours and sets the continuity, by the treading-in of his seed of wisdom, as the glory of his rebirth. That which will blossom in round after round, until it becomes a rebounding continuity in an ever-spinning-up glory of mind ascension and light. Yet as he revolves and feeds the earth in wisdom and glorified light, will the Source from which he was born, now feed him with untold wealth of Fiery Life in the unification of the glorified EL Powers of those manifesting wonders.

The soul having found the secret of becoming, the great mystery of perpetua mobile. Where every Chakra is a revolving glory through the heart-stream as a corresponding glory of the mighty heavens, the Divinity of the Central Sun.

The soul a Universe within himself, the manifestation of

THE MYSTERIOUS FOOT CHAKRA

THE mighty wealth once known to the Hindus, when they were at the hey-day of their wisdom, but knowledge that was never sent back to the gods as glorified mind light. Hence the wisdom was lost in the depths and man stagnated with it. The foot chakra being one of the most sensitive of the soul activity, that can either become free or held by the gravity of Time. (See text in col. 2).

the whole Galactical glory in the revolving wisdom of light. Not held and lost in the glory of sensation, but the revolving wonder of the mind. The soul awakened to the mystical story of growth and rebirth, and no longer held by desire of the flesh, but the revolving glory of the spirit.

FOR THE STREAM OF FIRE NOW DESCENDING TO THE DEPTHS WILL DRIVE ALL INTO FRANTIC ACTION, UNTIL BY WISDOM, IT FINDS THE WAY TO UNFOLD THE CHAKRA GLORY OF REVOLUTION AND HEAVENLY REBOUND.

But when refused by the soul to raise up the glory of the mind and walk back the wisdom to the heights, the legs and feet begin to decay and take on of a decadency of the mind. For it is the magnetic that feeds the unifying wealth that sets all spinning up to the heights. That which raises the frequency of the mind as the glory of the inner divinity.

Glories unknown awaiting revelation, that it can polarise those depths with Outer World Space, yet wealth lost through the density of time. Yet a spinning Chakra as the glory of the depths, that equals the glory of the seventh.

That by mighty wonder of unified light brings the eighth born out of the depths, in the dancing foam of the unified Waters. In all degrees of glorified ascension, as old wisdom finding rebirth in capturing new wisdom from the inflowing Stream of Waters. Thus the mastering of Outer World Space and manifesting it in the depths.

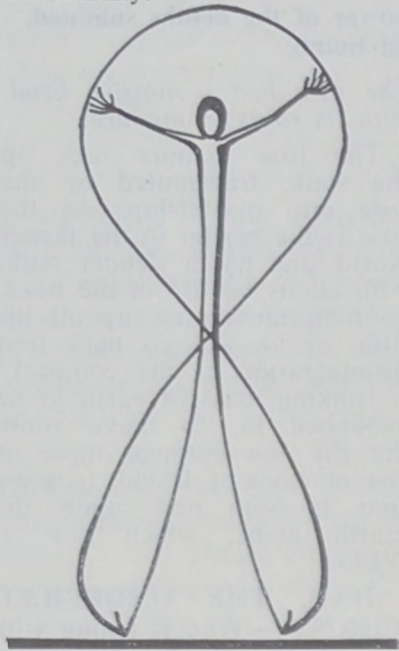

How all through the Ages, the legends of rebirth incorporated by the Heroes, have been seen in the dancing glory of a Ball, with many a religion born with the three steps of rhythm of Mars, Venus and Mercury. The three lower Chakras that give life to unfoldment, in the expansion of ever becoming. With the three-legged stool of the Lord in the Triune Fiery Glory which becomes the glory of the mind.

The Glory of Auric Radiance

WHILE the spinning Chakra in the foot represents the full capacity reached and the supreme heights of the mind, that when unified with the glories of the Waters, can bring forth of glories unknown. For with transmuted fears brought to the heights of sensitivity, wealth and wisdom of untold glory can now come into birth, for it has ever been seen that this Chakra of the foot is a mighty wheel of untold magnificence endowed with a thousand rays, and that of a Thousand and One Nights.

All richly adorned with beautiful emeralds, holding in its mystical depths Mount Meru as the whole wealth of the constellations, with a figure of the lord of the seven chains of mighty mountains, the embodiment of all the Chakra depths. That which delivers to the heights, the whole wealth of the soul's becoming, that in being united, would bring of Infinity.

ceptory principle. Yet the mould whereby all things are pressed and trodden into form, to become the glory of the Arc.

But this now is where we can understand many mysteries of the past, and the unaccountable restrictions of the present. Most of all the soul with the fixed pole who refuses to set his Axis into action. With Pelias being warned of the one-shoed man, he who had lost the power of unifying the earth with the heavens by not discarding and transmuting the depths into the glories of the heights.

With the shoes of Iphikrates or OS, where the soul is fixed by the nails to the magnes, the fulness of the loadstone rock. The mighty depths of his own powers not finding the freedom to rise through the lack of seeking into the wisdom, and making him as free as a bird. That which can be the means of polarising mighty wealth from the glories of the heights.

Therefore when the horse, the glory of the passions, can (See plate below)

THE GLORY OF THE PASSIONS

AS the whirlwind swirled to the earth, the internal passions rose up by the involving glory; for the divinity infused the soul through the mind, causing the frequency to rise higher and higher, uniting soul with that inward glory. (See text in col. 3).

Thus the polarity of the footprint is the Star of Vega; the Northern glory of the Pole varying its wealth down to the South, that gives the rebound as wisdom drawn down from Outer Space. Mighty wealth and glory drawn down from Unseen heights, yet a celestial abode of the soul's internal affinity. Where the Almighty EYE as the internal Atomic depths, is now looking through the foot into the depths of matter.

For the Vega Christos Light is now penetrating the very depths of the strontium basic, bringing all to the glory of rebirth. For the sole of the foot is now the measure of the heavens which is gathering up all the unseen wealth, yet the driving intercalary of the atoms in the mighty wisdom of timelessness.

For what was a round of time, could now, through the work of the Scapegoat, become as a flash; the glory of truth, the mighty wonder of the per-rise to a heart-degree of positive action, it will strike a light and set the chromosomes sparking, which will defy the gravity of matter. But when the soul is lacking in faith, the strength of the spirit is undermined, breaking the unity required to bring the glory of infinity into revolving action.

For the walking into the earth of the wealth of the wisdom, is the walking into the earth of the Galactical powers taken, and alchemicalised by the crucial wonders of the soul in his labouring in matter. But that which will give the soul the Ariel mind, the power to dance off into freedom. The glory and wonder that all men are seeking, to find freedom from the depths.

Here we meet the mystery of the Talos, a story that ever repeats its tale, for it is only by getting these depths free, that the Arc becomes the auric radiance of glory. Otherwise the soul is fed with drugs that destroy the glory of the spirit. This is the capturing of the Axis power that frees Iphikrates from the Saturn states of the earth, or the magnes depths that ever keep him in a state of running, in trying to keep up with the alchemicalisation. That which eventually establishes the Flame on the mount as the victory won.

The answer lies in the blood revolving round and round, ever circling the Circle of Willis. For owing to the blood never really racing the heights, round the soul; then Pallas (See plate on page 5)

Athene could adorn her lovely ambrosial golden sandals and bring the winging glory of the risen up mind. This is the wheel that gives the soul the 'run' of Words and rising grace that carries it up to heights unknown.

The Journey of Light

GLORIES that come with the winging mind, the radiant risen up divine Arc, yet the galactical wealth that keeps the Cosmos sending down to the depths the wonders of the ever-flowing Stream of Life. Yet here we see how the mighty EL is walking on the vault of the heavens, causing the Stars to be reborn and shining with unlimited radiance and glory. The constellational beauty of the heavenly lights, now established as the risen up glory of the mind, manifest on the risen up planes of the Kingdom of Life. That which is being born and created upon the united heights and depths, which is the union of higher and lower frequencies registered in the mind of man.

Yet the fight ever takes place between the reborn Gods and the old forces, that are continually being given rebirth, as the inflowing Prismic glory of the Heavenly Stream fills them with new-born life. The cosmic motion as the dance of the Stars, the manifesting Elements as Planes of LIGHT which are ever chasing Aries, the Warrior, unfolding of the soul, that he ever fights the boar as his beast. That he may dispose of it by giving its rebirth to Dionysius Zagraeus, the unfolding glory of the Solar light, the manifesting divinity of the soul.

This in its evolutionary journey of light, is Aries now as Taurus, becoming either just Venus born, or the glorious winged bull in the plowing heights. The awakened soul in its risen up glory, gathering in the Virgin Fire, which now is the Stream of Holy Life sending its wonders down to the depths. That which man gathers as the Divine Breath and brings forth as the frequency of the mind, that he can extract from the Seed of the Cosmic Fire the purity of the Heights, or the adulterated effluvia of the desires.

The gathering in of the Virgin Fire as truth, or distorted words of the depths. This is the capturing of the Axis power that frees Iphikrates from the cloying magnes which holds him as Talos to the density of the rolling labyrinth. By the gathering of this mighty force within his inner being, the chromosomes

Astrological Delineations

MRS. Spearman-Cook is prepared to continue giving delineations of readers' horoscopes, as her time allows. These will be based upon the new world teachings, and is a unique opportunity for all to perceive the extent of their growth, where their karmic difficulties lie, and where their opportunities are waiting to blossom forth; apart from giving the understanding of how and where karmic roots, impossible akashic records, rear up out of the darkness of the soul's multiplicity.

are alight with the internal intuitive glory of the Christos wealth that is revolving rapidly around the bloodstream.

The great mystery that has ever pursued through the Ages, and held ever confined in the depths of Pandora's box, until the soul could find it. For it is only by the soul mastering life that he either becomes the winged mind of Solar divinity, or loses the road through fear. Yet a matter of endurance if the horse does not strike a light at the mystery of the rock. The pituitary that holds the hormone seed, the mystery wealth of the reborn mind. Yet wealth that can spin the soul up to heights unknown, bringing down to the depths, wealth and glory from Outer Space, giving to the depths below the mighty effulgence of the Prismatic Grace.

This is where the soul treads his wealth into the depths, his feet with the Chakra spinning and all alight, with the wealth he is establishing becoming the reborn radiance of the Kingdom of Vega. His feet all the time passing over the meridian as the mystery of the Arc, for in their treading in, they are uniting the two hemispheres of the manifesting world of light. The heights and depths as the North and South, as the ever-revolving changing lights, bringing union and unity that all can become the glorified risen up Neptunian glory of Vega. Yet the outer glory of the Central Sun, in the manifested Plane of the mind.

The foot Chakra is the wheel of the LAW, where the soul treads into the earth its new belief. Thereby treading new growth into the earth as the divinity of the Seed being born into the consciousness of the depths, the earth creation of life. This in the soul, is the mind drawing down of the hormone Seed from the pituitary, through the Taurus to Scorpio intercalary action, yet the Seed established by the inflowing Breath, giving the soul reborn life.

While in polarity unism this reburnishes the heavens with light, and causes the mighty FACE of the Heavenly heights to shine down more brilliantly into the depths. For by this, the EYE of Heaven, the great Central Sun, gains in lustre and feeds man through his internal being with a greater glory and vision of Divinity.

THE MIGHTY WEALTH SET INTO BEING, AS MEROPE RAISED THE UNFOLDING WEALTH UP TO THE GLORY OF THE CENTRAL SUN, AND SET ANTARES AS THE RISEN FLAME, THE MAGNITUDE OF THE REBORN FACE. WHERE ENDURANCE AND STRUGGLE TO BRING FORTH OF VEGA, GAVE UNTOLD GLORY TO THE DEPTHS.

Moses as the first pioneer to set this into motion, could not make the full journey into Jerusalem, because he lost his driving will through the lack of belief, thus struck the rock twice, which he was forbidden to do. Then after realising his mistake, he came back and 'made it,' but established a negative basis, thus never made the journey to Jerusalem. Hence was ever hedging around all actions, a weakness applicable to Aries. Instead of applying the whole of his being to the glory and depths of his belief, he was ever in doubt as to whether all was correct, and lived in a continual state of fear and doubt. For what is revolved around the heavens of the Scapegoat, in new belief, is that which is driven around the Cosmic heavens through the treading in of their feet.

glory of his Robe, the spiritual secret gained by his struggle of life and the mastery of the Axis Power, the mystical wonder of the Elements.

This is seen in the dance of Cinderella, where the wealth was dawning in the conscious mind, but in not returning sharp at twelve and losing her shoe, was where the soul was too late to make the connection, as they returned from the heights.

the heights, but also sets the revolving glory that brings mighty genius down to the depths.

Here we see how Taurus in his plowing, must now set the frequency of heaven-born plowing. For if his effort does not bring down the suitable rate of vibrational change from Scorpio, the Eagle cannot rise up to the Virgin heights and bring polarity wealth to Cinderella. That he can sperm her with the glorious Plane of Paradise, but now as the Plane of Mind, the consciousness of the Father's Voice manifesting as the acme of wisdom.

This explains of how the wheel Chakra of the foot has 1000 rays, a creation adorned with glorious emeralds, which corresponds with the Chakra wheel of the mind. This in its unity was of Mount Meru, but now is the glory of Vega; the Palace Glorious as the Palace of the Constellations, the centre of the System of the Universe. Where everything is ever becoming unified, and through the Scapegoat in polarity rebirth, the evolving Face of the Divinity and the revolving Pole Star of Vega.

The Ultimate Triumph of Divinity

THE footstep of Merope, that in measuring the Universe and unifying the hemispheres with the glory and wonder of the Wisdom of the Divine Bull, gives to the Eye the great Glory of Divinity its ever changing beam. For 'the sole of my foot is a measure of heaven and earth,' and the fruits of Merope's labours, which transmute the phosphorus fire into the Holy Fire. For by her struggles and world-wide perception, she drew down by polarity attraction, this mighty wealth from the magnitude of Outer World Space.

Thus the wise ever behold the Highest Step, the glory of the Divine mind fixed like an Eye in the heavens. Therefore the greater the belief which you tread into the depths as you build up the glorified Vega, the greater the vision in the heights in that polarity rebirth.

The mighty wealth of 'return' from that of the old Graecae, the earthy state of the depths, which is of the strontium darkness of all men awaiting the awakening of their comprehension to embrace the wealth that Merope has set into action as the reborn Law in the Heights. Thus, in the three steps that are in all movement, does the world abide, that when raised up as Mars, Venus and Mercury, gives unto the Divinity the glorified World of Vega.

The triune born in all things, the three-fold earth that brings forth the Universe. Thus it is the Devourer ever trampling on the heads of the malignant, and crushing them with a wide-spreading foot. Those that have finished their purpose for the time, and must be devoured, that new air can feed the Purpose of Evolution, the course of the Great Work.

This is where the internal Effulgence of the mighty Fiery Glory of All-Life, can now manifest as the radiant Divinity of All-Magnitude, as the Eye of Heaven; thereby view His own mighty Kingdom, the outcome of the whole magnitude of Being. Thus it was Merope giving birth to God, the glory of All Being, in the dynamic majesty of the Mighty Flame. The Christ birth as the culmination of All-Creation through the Ages, now made manifest in the glory of Unification as the Radiant Arc of the Central Sun. Yet the great Divine Effulgence being sent back to man as the Stream of glorified life.

The great wealth that has now come into being, and more clearly verifies the mighty command made to Moses as he set the first Seed into birth, "Put off thy shoes from off thy feet, for the place whereon thou standest is holy ground." That now made complete in the Divinity coming forth on the ground which was being prepared by the first stepping forth of the "Warrior" in unification.

INFINITY

THE revolving glory of the heavenly wonders portrayed here in an ancient Greek plate of the past, where man still knew the mystery of the gods, and how the elements brought them into birth; how through the mighty vault of the heavens, with the glories and the wonders of the stars, all the divinity within the soul is reborn day by day.

The Unification

THE GIVING OF REBIRTH TO OLD IDEAS BY CONTINUAL CRUCIFIXION AND RESURRECTION, UNTIL THE LAMB IS GIVEN BIRTH IN THE SOUL AS THE RISEN FLAME OF THE MIND. THE GLORIFIED RADIANCE OF THE ARC, THE DIVINITY AND MAGNITUDE OF THE AURIC GLORY.

For now, the illusionary Christ of religion is given rebirth by Merope, as the true birth of the Cosmic Christ. The Vega magnificence as the Heavenly Arc in the radiance of the reborn Pole Star. With the old triune god falling to the new Triune God, the reborn manifestation of the Face.

The Glory and the Divinity of the unfolding and manifesting internal magnitude of the Holy Fire. A divinity only known to the soul who seeks and brings forth the glory of the mind. His own internal

She did not strike the note at the moment of conclusion, and like Job, let in the Sabines or the Griffons, who steal the glory of the inflowing fiery magnitude, which will raise her up as Venus-Urania, the glorified Bridge of the Heights. So she treads the road with only one shoe, which gives her a lame journey. Until by her struggle in the depths, the heights return her wealth as 'he' searches her out, and gives her the lost shoe as the wisdom she requires to make her rebirth complete.

Without this she could not do the treading in, not being complete in her mind comprehension; thus we see the Geminian mind in the two ugly sisters of the Virgo duality, fighting for the shoe, as the possible wealth of the unified mind.

But by the wealth coming down to the depths as a 'drip' from the heights, Cinderella who has been truly seeking in her labours in the depths, becomes as the Virgin in the Virgo Intacta becoming the glory of the Sagittarian expansion. For it only needed a 'striking off' as she rescued the wealth from the Griffons, and shot the bow up to the heights. With her heart duly set, she struck the Eye of Aldebaran full clearly into its depths, and changed the beam of light. For it is the strontium, the Saturn darkness in the depths, that is ever trying to kill off the Virgin Holy Fire of rebirth.

This is where Cinderella either remains as Andromeda chained, or Cassiopeia freed, who carries the wealth up to Virgin glory, bringing untold genius forth out of the mind; the reborn magnes wonders of her depths, in the unified glory of the reborn mind. Thereby she becomes of child from Outer World Space, that as she nurtures into glorified belief, she carries up to the heights to bring the new "Face" of truth as the cosmic expanded delight.

But unless she makes the demanded unification at the moment of pressing into place, she becomes pinioned by alchemicalisation, until she can find her shoe of Iphikrates. The complete awareness that gives her the Infinity rise of revolution that frees her from the depths. This is the true ascension that completely revolves the wheel right round, as Dhruva swinging the Stars around his head, and bringing the complete change of the Cardinal Points. For she swings her wisdom up to the heights by a gyroscopic spin; wisdom giving reburnished light in the glory of the heavens. For Merope in bringing all to the Central Sun, brought the basic of the glory of the Holy Kingdom, that man must now burnish into light.

This was the Scapegoat making free the Gate for all (See plate on page 6) that follow; their task being that of assimilation and burnishing into heavenly light, to glorify and raise up within themselves the Heavenly Kingdom of New Life. Walking into the Earth the heavenly Seed, bringing the God-life back into birth once again as

by Cyril King

*SERVANT of God, well done! Well hast thou fought
The bitter fight, who single hast maintained
Against revolted multitudines the cause
Of Truth, in word mightier than they in arms.*

THUS Merope has set the course for the future through the wisdom of Universal Philosophy, and as evolution progresses, bringing about changes to the earth plane and to man, so the governing laws change in order to bring about the right conditions for yet further changes, so that the orderly course of evolution proceeds, towards the unfoldment of the Cosmic Plan leading to perfection.

Each change that comes about is first placed and operated in the negative, and as experience is accrued the negative is transmuted into the positive; a change of vibration onto a higher frequency. And so Merope has completed spiral after spiral, rising up to the Neptunian Plane and establishing the glorious world of Vega, the mind plane of Solar Light. The surging uprise in vibration and frequency, the velocity of which has not been equalled.

Conversely, the scientists, well acquainted with the knowledge of vibration, have only plumbed the depths, stuck in the mud of materialism, occupied with research into the best means of destruction. For example, a team of French scientists, lead by Professor Vladimir Gavreau in Marseilles are working on a death-ray machine designed to provide an entirely novel method of human destruction.

Their research started when they moved their laboratory into a new building, the staff complaining of headaches and nausea; this was found to be caused by a giant ventilator of the factory next door, so the frequency of the ventilator was changed and research into the properties of infrasound commenced.

Infrasound—that is, air vibrations which oscillate at less than 10 vibrations a second or 10 hertz. (The human ear registers, as sound, vibrations from 16 hertz to 20,000 hertz).

To study this phenomenon, the team built a giant whistle hooked to a compressed-air hose. Then they turned on the air. "That first test nearly cost us all our lives," Professor Gavreau says. "Luckily, we were able to turn it off fast. All of us were sick for hours. Everything in us was vibrating—stomach, heart, lungs. All the people in the other laboratories were sick, too. They were very angry with us."

A larger whistle was built, and if turned on full blast the building would fall down like the walls of Jericho before Joshua's trumpet. At the pressures used, it has done no more than put cracks in the ceiling. Next, an organ pipe larger than those in any cathedral in the world was built. It is 78 feet long, made of concrete, and lies on the ground outside the laboratory. From this, frequencies as low as 3.5 hertz have been produced.

The wavelength most dangerous to life is 7 hertz. The team has suffered from its experiments. Some of the invisible injuries appear to be persistent. "It not only affects the ears," Professor Gavreau says, "but it works directly on the internal organs. There is a rubbing between the various organs because of a sort of resonance. It provokes an irritation so intense that for hours afterwards any low-pitched sound seems to echo through one's body."

A military weapon is being developed which, mounted on a truck, could kill a man five miles away. The snag is that the weapon is as dangerous to the operators as to the enemy. This aspect is on the road to solution.

So it can be seen that the scientists have the knowledge of vibrations but are applying it only in the negative, downward into the material, whereas, they should now use their knowledge by following in the footsteps of Merope; following a positive line of research, sending up in aspiration and raising their own vibrations, and they would then find that all their researches into vibration and frequency have but one result—confirming all that has hitherto been put forth by Merope.

They already admit that there is a form of energy or emanation from outer space which they cannot explain; research as indicated would, to say the least, surprise them and give them a true understanding of the laws of the Universe, and in the process settle the arguments among the astronomers regarding the three opposing theories of the Universe—(a) the expanding, with the idea of everything beginning with a big bang; (b) the steady state suggesting that, apart from local irregularities, the universe presents the same general aspect in all places and at all times; (c) the elastic, in which the universe expands from a point to a maximum size. As soon as it reaches this size, it contracts again.

Evolution being a continuous process and man being created in the image of God, so man is unto a creator, and therefore it will be seen that an amalgam of these three theories leads us to continuous creation of which man, although he may be unaware of it, takes an active part, guided from the realms of Spirit. Hence, if these theories were pursued on a spiritual level, the results would provide positive results beyond all argument. Thus stimulating research into the source of All Being, The Absolute; leading them onwards in mind activity, spiral after spiral in ascension, resulting in expansion, for as wisdom is revealed in the gyroscopic uprise, striving ever upward will reveal yet further wisdom, an expansion on that which is already known.

Proving once again that Man is only Mind with all as vibration operating on various frequencies, and that the road opened up and taken by Merope as the scapegoat is the only true road, and can only be followed by the diligent study and practical application of Universal Philosophy.

However, the only uprise by the scientists at the moment is an adaption of the Indian Rope Trick, as a means of lofting men and supplies into space without rockets:—"A cable attached to a satellite more than 22,000 miles in space, keeping pace with the earth's spin and anchored to the earth, being held in place with the aid of centrifugal force derived from orbital speed. Such a cable used as a vertical "monorail" with special cars travelling up and down at 600 miles per hour, transporting passengers and freight between the earth and a staging post in orbit."

Casting aside all outmoded theories, dogmas and creeds, it must be realised that, "Man is created in the image of God, so man is unto a creator. The brain in man is a replica of the Divine Being, a replica of God, and represents the higher and the lower Firmament." So man through the Wisdom, ever looking and striving upwards, with mind activity and not the modern version of the Indian Rope Trick, sending forth aspiration, now ascending back HOME in relativity and unification—"Thus mortality no longer the way of earth, but only the immortal path of truth, where man looks upward away from matter, and seeks the divine glories of the Heavens."

THE HEAVENS DECLARE THE GLORY OF GOD; AND THE FIRMA-MENT SHEWETH HIS HANDYWORK.

The first preparing of the mysteries that all could return to the heights as the god-soul that fell, now the God-man that triumphs. He that awakened and opened up the true heart-purpose by the reborn thought set into motion and the foot measurement created by Merope. All becoming as the incoming Breath, that when transmuted by mind belief, is sent out once again to encircle all organised substance of planetary consistency within the soul growth.

Right down to the feet, where it sparks off into the earth its new glorified Seed, revolving back in a flash to the heavens in rebound glory, giving rebirth to one and all. The root of the lotus, with its blossoming flower in the heights.

The full understanding to be seen in the lion's skin worn by the ancients, who set the first belief of capturing the elements, and the animal tail worn around the waist of a hero-god, with its tail-end nearly touching the earth. He who is bringing through his own alchemical 'Pot,' the unified glory of the blended heaven and earth. He who was by mind belief treading it into the glory of unfolding life, by the struggle of mastery and mind manifestation.

FOR THE CHANGING OF MAN IS A TASK FAR GREATER THAN THAT OF THE ELEMENTS, FOR THEY ARE SEEKING EXPRESSION, WHILE MAN WHO HAS GAINED ALL, REFUSES TO CHANGE BUT IS EVER SEEKING TO GAIN MORE TO FIND THAT MISSING LINK TO THE MIGHTY GROWTH WITHIN.

Little does he know of how it lies within his own heart as the 'purpose of giving,' the mighty wealth of LOVE, the polarity to his searching quest. Hence Merope now knew that it was the mastering of the Axis Power by polarising the Seven bodies, bringing all to a point of one-ness in ariel flight, the gyroscopic spin up the Ages.

Then so polarising the Word as to find their royal purpose and expose their divinity. Thus raising the gods up in the meninges to their rightful degree, that they could expound the glories of the heavens in the World of Form. Thus radiating glory and light where'er you walk, with Woman bringing her OS power to its unfolded beauty through the experiences of life, ever remembering the mighty depths of the wise old adage, "In the world, but not of the world," all the time mastering of its mighty depths.

Walking-in all his wealth to burnish the starry heavens up to the Central Sun. Until the mighty EL Glories unite in a rolling, spinning fiery radiance, sending the soul forth on an ariel flight, to capture the mysteries of Outer World Space.

MAN THE MASTER OF THE UNIVERSE IN ROYAL BELIEF AND UNDERSTANDING, LIVING UNDER THE SHADOW OF THE ARC, THE DIVINE MAGNITUDE AND HOLY GLORY OF THE MIGHTY FLAME.

CLEARING THE PATH

THE removal of that which confined the issue, by one who labours to master its mystery, that makes the way clear to pass through that vicinity, and rise up onto higher planes of light. Thus in raising up the lower planes they unfold the glory to the heavens. (See text on page 5, col. 4).

HERBAL MYSTERIES Part I

★ OF MUSIC ★

Agrimony (Agrimonia Eupatoria)

Kahlil Gibran

IN this series, the idea is to bring home to the newcomer to herbs their natural values, and how Nature is seeking to help her sons in the depth of experience.

"FOR NEVER AT ANY TIME WILL I LEAVE THEE UNATTENDED."

THIS time we intend to take the wisdom attached to AGRIMONY, (Agrimonia Eupatoria); it is quite a common flower and found in all the hedge banks or waste ground. It is amazing how such wonderful friends and useful helpers, should only be found in such derelict places. It rather makes me feel at home with them, since my early abode was as the herb, by the wayside. Although we are taking the common and all round description of this herb, there seems to be a variety of species.

ON the whole, it is well known as a blood purifier, especially for rheumatism and arthritis, but very few are aware that it is very effective for eye difficulties; and cataract has been known to be cured by it.

For its JUPITER influence has a very expansive action, and this is the difficulty with those suffering from fixity and contraction of the bones. So those who are heavily imbued under SATURN, MARS and MERCURY, could be helped considerably.

My experience as an astrologer, is that the majority are afflicted this way through the lack of expansion. AGRIMONY as a herb has been known to even help sick cattle, and country people more versed in these affairs, give it to their cattle, mixed up with their food.

Taken with BUCHU and VALERIAN, can work wonders in cleansing the blood from its impurities. A subject we have taken often, so will not be new to old readers. Naturally as it cleanses the blood, it also has a very good effect upon the liver, and this is where most of our troubles lie, the liver being the first of the alchemicalising organs, the major canopus jar.

According to many medicals, it was known to cure many states of disease, including ringworm. But these three herbs with DANDELION as an exchange for the AGRIMONY, I make as my main recommendation for most sicknesses. It begins a cleansing state that helps the patient to gain confidence.

It is a very potent herb, and can be very strong for some, but efficacious in its action. It can also be used in the preparation of herb tea, being very palatable for those who can partake of the herbs this way, for it disposes of milk. To those who would like the recipe for herb tea, we could send of such on request, or a quantity of herbs already mixed. Taken with a slice of lemon and sugar, is very refreshing.

THE name of ARGEMONE, which was given to it by the Greeks, really refers to the healing of the eyes. While the Anglo-Saxons who called it GARCLIVE, found it valuable for snake-bites and warts. Which of course was under SATURN, requiring JUPITER to cure them. So I do feel that the study of herbs from a point of planetary position, is most necessary.

I, having much in JUPITER, appreciate this wisdom, and see the value of its curative properties, but would myself require something more gentle. This is why I always look into the chart to prescribe herbs for a patient; but even then, much can be "trial" to bring effect. Yet never with herbs is it "error," for all herbs are safe, and could not do very much in the reverse at any time. If they do not help the point in question, they often affect the reverse that also wants help.

This herb is so much respected by many, it is called, in its Hemp specie, ST. JOHN'S HERB, or the HOLY ROPE. An outstanding wisdom is the fact, that only Goats will eat of this plant of their own accord. When mixed up with their fodder, they would not be aware of it.

There are three types, AGRIMONY, HEMP and AGRIMONY WATER, all these being used in abundance by country people in the past. Their trouble being the suppression by papalism and lack of true wisdom to give them expansion. This now has been remedied, and every man can sail up to Neptune as he so wills, and dance with glory upon that glorious plane of heavenly wonder.

AGRIMONY is a divine herb, for it originated with a beauty that has greatly deteriorated through the negative use of the JUPITER vibronic inflow. Once it was used at the initiatory ceremonies, which cleansed the bloodstream from the old states of clotting through too much meat, and the lack of water to drink. All owing to the impure state of the drinking water, which naturally was detrimental to the bloodstream and bowels.

That was why the drinking of blood was most prevalent, it being free from the pollution of earth matter. The earth being thoroughly fouled through no proper drainage. This followed with the drinking of wine when religion forbade the drinking of blood.

THE Romans brought this herb to England, and sowed the seed in and around their camps. This was as far as their expansion could reach, so they used the herb as a mind restorative; especially after heavy bouts of drinking, clearing the fatigue that followed the dimming of the brain. This is a wonderful herb as a refreshener, especially when incorporated with PEPPERMINT. It having an activating effect upon the bloodstream. Therefore, two measures of AGRIMONY and one of PEPPERMINT as an infusion, will help the soul depleted.

When one tries to adjust themselves to the JUPITER plane through the taking of wisdom, the soul can find

MY friends: Music is the language of spirits, its melody is like the frolicsome breeze that makes the strings quiver with love. When the gentle Fingers of Music knock at the door of our feelings they awaken memories that have long lain hidden in the depths of the past. The sad strains of music bring us mournful recollections: and her quiet strains bring us joyful memories. The sound of strings makes us weep at the departure of a loved one, or makes us smile at the peace God has bestowed upon us.

THE SOUL OF MUSIC IS OF THE SPIRIT, AND HER MIND IS OF THE HEART.

When God created Man He gave him Music as a language different from all other languages, and early man sang her glory in the wilderness: and she drew the hearts of kings and moved them from their thrones.

Our souls are like tender flowers at the mercy of the winds of destiny. They tremble in the morning breeze, and bend their heads under the falling dews of Heaven.

The song of the bird awakens man from his slumber, and invites him to join in the psalms of glory to Eternal Wisdom that has created the song of the bird. Such music makes us ask ourselves the meaning of the mysteries contained in ancient books.

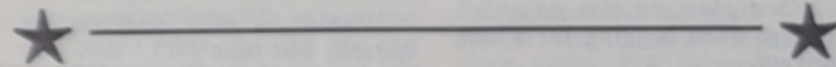

When the birds sing, do they call to the flowers in the fields, or are they speaking to the trees, or are they echoing the murmur of the brooks? For man with his understanding cannot know what the bird is saying, nor what the brook is murmuring, nor what the waves whisper when they touch the beaches slowly and gently.

Man with his understanding cannot know what the rain is saying when it falls upon the leaves of the trees, or when it taps at the window panes. He cannot know what the breeze is saying to the flowers in the fields.

But the heart of man can feel and grasp the meaning of these sounds that play upon his feelings. Eternal Wisdom often speaks to him in the mysterious language; soul and nature converse together while man stands speechless and bewildered. Yet has not man wept at the sounds, and are not his tears eloquent understanding?

Divine Music! Daughter of the Soul of Love,
Vase of bitterness and of Love,
Dream of the human heart, fruit of sorrow.
Flower of joy, fragrance and bloom of feeling.
Tongue of lovers, revealer of secrets,
Mother of the tears of Hidden love.
Inspirer of poets, composers, architects.
Units of thoughts within gragrams of words.
Designer of love out of beauty,
Wine of the exulting heart in a world of dreams
Heartener of warriors, and strengthener of souls,
Ocean of mercy and sea of tenderness,
O Music
In your depths we deposit our hearts and souls
Thou has taught us to see with our ears
And hear with our hearts.

themselves depleted. This is because he is reaching outside of himself, and tries to contact the gods.

So these herbs are very necessary to a SOUL SEEKING INITIATORY UNFOLDMENT, but will not help the soul unless renunciation is made of old ideas, otherwise the soul is no better than those of the past. But when seen in its true light, is an unborn desire crying out for the divinity to be reborn in all its true Glory.

AGRIMONY was the last of the herbs to enter the density of the maelstrom as a seeding thought, so is one of the most powerful medicines that could help all souls ready, over the difficulties that can follow the infusion of the HOLY FIRES.

As strange as it may sound, to any who can eat watercress, it will help to absorb some of this Fire, and clear it out of the intestinal tract. For this is where man is going to burn up his lunar desires, all organs being cleansed except the heart, that being a Solar organ, according to the heights of the divine internal creation.

As already stated, AGRIMONY will protect the eyes, for they are the organs of illusory perception, that should have been orifices for the divine light of the soul to search into the great Space for directional Rays of a greater creation.

But mind was not satisfied with divinity, it found desire and became enamoured with the animal states, the lesser states of growth, and brought into birth of the animal states. So shut off of the Divine supply, which accounts for why a Scapegoat was solicited once again.

Thus as a herb of JUPITER expansion can be the means of cleansing the bloodstream that the soul, in making struggle and effort through its mind, can become infinity born and serve the Gods. For JUPITER is the leeway to the heights, and as a herb, an incentive to this expansive action, urging the soul into upward ascension. Helping it through the valley of the wandering rocks, lifting it up to royal ascension.

With this effort and the down-pouring of the Cosmic Rays, the soul by "the plowing of the Bull," will draw forth the greater wealth of life from the unifying Seed. Yet this herb being the means of helping the Manes to be buried in; the spirits of the "dead," the immortal glories of the soul.

AGRIMONY is one of the many herbs now born of the VEGA LOVE, for JUPITER has been given the extreme depths of Merope's fount. So that AGRIMONY, as the new elements flow to the earth, will have VENUS and JUPITER combined.

Therefore will become a pituitary stimulant as a Vega mind stabiliser, and supersede the MISTLETOE.

AGRIMONY will be the basic fundamental as a herb essence for the building up of the ARIEL MIND; for JUPITER has been given a royal ascension and a true Christos establishment, and has linking with the Gods being allied to the blood-life. Next month we will seek into the secrets of BUCHU.

Reminiscences

Then they were raised up onto the higher planes of thought through wisdom, it being one of the most important missions of the mysteries, the rebirth of life. This, if it hasn't already come up in the Egyptian series, will do so in time, for it played a very important part where the priests were concerned; but now by the change of circumstances, really important to all.

What man has not yet awakened to, is the fact of how important are the sons of a Race, for they are the FIRE deliverers of the earth. They bring the FIRE down, and without that union, the Earth gets into the state that it is now in, but this will change ere long. Whereas Woman holds the key of all the past wisdom, man draws down the FIRE, and sperms the earth with NEW LIFE.

The Thymus and Growth

WITH this before us, we have some idea of the purpose of this discussion, as well as a further delving into the mysteries, which is our purpose. The problem I am meeting now, is of a child who has never yet crossed the barrier of worldliness, and which I know is cruel to "just force him into life." Yet he is a very unusual child, but I understand from many, it has been the innermost feelings of many who are rudely awakened. Of course when man rises up out of his pit of darkness, this will take on a different aspect, and man will step out onto the Neptunian Plane of life as a god seeking the wisdom of life, and not desire.

The child I now have under my care, and one authorised by the Master, is a little boy of Asian blood, and perhaps a little more slow than some. But as I look at his child-like copper coloured face, I know that that child is but a bridge to what lies within that soul. And furthermore, as I gaze at him, I see the aged priest come forth dressed in all his regalia of the old Khymerian Temple, and perhaps even begging for a safe delivery.

For if this soul could be brought through this inter-connecting union of life safely, the Thymus would never drop and close down, thus cutting off the heights from the depths. For this child at the present moment is well connected, and bringing out wisdom and even clairvoyance at this age, from an unseen depth. With eyes that open and expand as you acquaint him with knowledge that is more alarming than usual. But also a clever mind that ever seeks a way out when he finds himself cornered, and with points which I wish I had known when I was young.

So I never try to catch him out, I wait and reason with him, for I know I shall never get him in any other way. After all he has a mighty heritage to overcome when we look down the Ages; far more on the debit than on the credit side of life, and this is what we are clearing up. Perhaps far more mighty than we realise, with wealth that must be saved and given rebirth.

If we were to read the opening Chapters of Genesis properly, we would learn a great deal more about the Genetics of the mind than we already know, and how all stems from this ripe and rich opening. How Jacob brought down the elements, including the Fires or the Yod, and all went down into the pit, which resulted in the journey of Exodus, until the four square could be retrieved. It is only by this Fire that the union between past and present is inter-blended, especially in a male.

INNOCENCE OF CHILDHOOD

I DARESAY THERE WILL BE MANY WHO WILL wonder why I write this resumé, yet others will be grateful that we discussed it, for no greater problem is there for "Mums and Dads" to meet, than the puberty of their growing sons. Yes! vitally important, and one that should be understood, even though our own entry into life may have been a brutal one. This is my fourth attempt to shepherd a boy across the ferry of the Styx, and each one individually different. Once upon a time a promising child was placed under the care of the Priest, either in the Pyramid or under the Hebrew priest in the Temple of the MYSTERY, mystery everywhere, yet the ancient glories buried in the soul that ever arise at an unsuspected moment, waiting to bring forth the glories of the past, that it can find yet greater light to expound its more glorious divinity. Wonders here as never known before, are waiting hidden within this soul; yes, even begging for a safe delivery. (See text in col. 1).

ANGKOR VAT

Woman is ever nurtured in herself, but man NO! and can awaken a state utterly foreign to what the spirit came to the earth to find, and bring down to the earth from the heights in his struggle to fulfil it. Apart from the fact that the son, to most mothers, is the extension of her hopes and wishes to become. He is her expansion who will, by his actions, shepherd her into unfolding her mind, and again, another mystery that the mysteries are endeavouring to reveal. This is evolution, and one that the soul, before its entry into life, comes back to further and clear.

From the Age of birth unto seven years old, the child both male and female, but again moreso the male, is nurtured under the mother's moon influence. Her wordly and nurturing sense of expansive life, for the "child" that she is bringing forth, for the moment has no conscious connection with matter. A subconscious yes! but a conscious NO!

Here she teaches him to think, grow and unfold, with the father's inner sperming union unconsciously fostering into manliness, and the Thymus makes the inter-connection between the two.

This is where you get child prodigies, or children with memories coming forth which amaze. All most parents do, is force the boy into earthy study and unfortunately masturbation, and wonder why he never blossoms into something original. If he was truly introduced into spiritual unfoldment, Abel would never die, with the soul retaining his god-like union during puberty. If by chance, he goes astray after, he is bound to return sometime or another, for the true seed was set. From then onwards he comes under his own form of responsibility.

The experience of shepherding the soul over this mighty chasm is deep and mysterious, for worlds of light are either gained or lost. In the present problem I am undertaking, the Astro-chart does warn of problems, but that is what the soul has come back to conquer, and I am endeavouring to help him.

He either will go slap into the depths, or rise up and be aware of his deficiency. Funnily enough, this little boy, nurtured in the Temple under vegetarian diet and higher thought, does know what is in his chart, and that which he has to get past, but as unto its REAL dangers NO! But I do ask all never to get into their minds, that once there, the book is sealed, and that is final. That is only the probability, but the possibility is "hope" where a mother lays a good foundation.

Now please do not say, what about the father. Well what about him? His task is to provide the wherewithal and nurture his family; and above all, to leave the mother to nurture her young brood, and raise them up with diligence and care.

Yes! I had my problems, to care and even provide for them, but my children were ever my sole care, while they were in my charge, for I knew the importance of a mother's love and prepared foundation. Then when I found interference too dire, I sought other pastures, and fended for them alone. I make this statement because of the many letters we receive, seeking for advice.

Of course, I realise now, that priesthood has been with me all my life and many lives back, so that it was very strong with me, for I found myself carrying out ritual that was strange as unto its real motive, then when I sought into its mystery, saw the depths I was aiming for. But let us get back to the little child under my care.

Now, from the age of 9½ to 16, a span of seven years, I will brood over him, gently leading him into bringing out the better side of his many failings, and I can assure you there are many. But one thing I have learnt, and we are never too wise to learn, is that my example is more important, not my instructions. For this young man is an Aries and 8-2 in his beginning to gain confidence that no schoolboy either will tell him otherwise.

The Simplicity of True Life

YES! he still has an old toy dog worn down to a frazzle, that he loves, and he does not look a "cissy", especially when he tells you that the dog comes to life in the night, and goes out to get meat, for that is the secret passion of this dog. When he goes to bed and reads a little before he lies down, his audience is this old dog, whereby he turns occasionally and says, "Oh! you are not listening, I do not suppose you understand." While he also tells me, that he is still a very bad dog, he still eats meat, as much as he is trying to get him to eat vegetarian food.

This is the beautiful mind of a child of 9½, the childhood I remembered, which I am sure I was shepherded through by the Great Eagle, completely unknown to myself, for I too loved fairy tales, and my secret passion was a white knight on a white horse. Yes! and with my dolls that I talked to, some in long clothes and some grown up.

And I too remember shocks, that to the worldly would have become pep pills and promiscuous life. My first was in being informed at the age of 18, of the mystery of childbirth, which nearly unhinged me. I had lived in a world of books and music, while my mother, a narrow-minded and righteous woman, had kept me ignorant. And like the young man in question, I had lived in my books, and had never been caught up by the lower density of thought.

It was the wisdom of life I was lacking, of which I have never forgotten, so unfolded the lives of my three sons upon those experiences. And like the priest, I know and declare, I hold those reins. Then one day, even though I be not in the body, those souls will try to find the link they sold for a mess of pottage.

For once that seed is set, it becomes the root growth, and the opener for the future. For far more goes on in the undercurrent of life than in it, for it is the inner bodies that are being nurtured into life. And what we put into operation as a parent, although it may not grow verdure for the time, we have issued forth as our belief, and that is the arrangement of our seeds in the garden of life.

AT THE PRESENT MOMENT THE WORLD IS BEING PREPARED FOR AN INFLOW OF A GREATER GENERATION, WHERE THE NEPTUNIAN BEAUTY AND SIMPLICITY OF LIFE WILL BE ESTABLISHED ONCE AGAIN.

The Planes have been lifted, where a more evolved thought is going to prevail, and the responsibility to life and its unfoldment is going to be nurtured by the wisdom of Universal Philosophy. For this is not just an earth School, but a Cosmic School that is feeding the world; and now to burst into life from the issue of the past five years of diligent struggle of the Scapegoat.

Then the young Warriors in the School will have a better chance of training, for it has been the reshaping of the Universe, and the refilling of the Waterpot, which has gone on unknown to man. Old regimes are being cleared away by them being brought to the fore; conditions are being revealed, and so is artificiality. For I have seen clever individuals wilt and melt under their own steam of self-importance, while I know that the child with the simple mind will exist.

We are all Pinocchios with wooden heads, seeking the way of life, but circumstances set by religion have prevented many a man from ever finding it. Now those states have been broken up, and the beauty of life will return, for fortunately the inertia of the Earth has been broken up, and now risen up onto the Mind Plane of Vega, where Woman as the NOW positive creation of life, will begin a different remoulding.

Woman being the negative side of life, as life as a whole, now being risen up; while the present generation is but the re-birth, and when we think that four generations are inter-blending in birth at once, it makes us realise that the hope of the future is just round the corner. But to give a better example of what I am pointing out, I will go a little more deeply into this subject.

The child in question has Neptune in the 12th house in his chart, and I knew that this warned of promiscuous states of the animal, and being of Asian blood, wondered how I could bridge the gap. Of course the first point was no animal blood as food, and then the blood could be born of a more pure genetic unfoldment.

The second, watch his puberty and shepherd him across this gulf. But he had not been to School very long, before the negative intent of others got caught up by the unseen Law of Attraction; that unseen creation of the soul, which we all radiate, but cannot be seen, and can be turned in by the right mortuary meal. Consequently big boys pulled down the trousers of this child in the playground.

It was some considerable time before the child would tell anybody, but I knew he was puzzled over something. After a while he came and stood by the side of me while I was typing and I slowly broached the subject. Then he turned and said with shocked innocence, "Boys at School pulled my trousers down, wasn't that rude. Why did they do this."

After consoling him with the fact that they were just rude boys, my wrath was beyond expression. But I controlled my anger, and demanded a severe reprimand, which I found that the female teacher had attended to. Also remembering that these other children were also fighting karma, and without parents who understood the necessity of leading and helping young growth. But to this day, in utter innocence, which in itself is great to behold, he still asks me, "Why did they do that?"

Why should I break that inner beauty of innocence? Surely the world can some time come back to the glory and truth we once knew as gods. For when we pass over, we shall still go back to the spirit of life, and not the worldliness that has prevailed up to now.

Then as I am typing out this script, the young man comes in to see me without his shirt. Yes I knew it was very hot, and he was quite welcome to leave it off in the house. Then suddenly my clairvoyance rose up, and I said, "Did you go to School like that?" With complete innocence he replied, "Yes! it was too hot". For the moment I stopped to gather my breath, then I asked, what did his teacher say. "He asked me if I came through the streets like that, and I said yes." My next question was again what did he say. "Nothing" said the boy.

So again I had to think, for I have always taught him to be natural and without convention, and of course, if Lady Chichester could do it, so could a little boy. Then I hit upon a brainy thought, "Look," I said, "if you leave off your vest and just wear your shirt, you would be more cool." He thought that was a wonderful idea, so we solved another problem, without rupturing the mind at such a critical time of required confidence.

Hard Experience

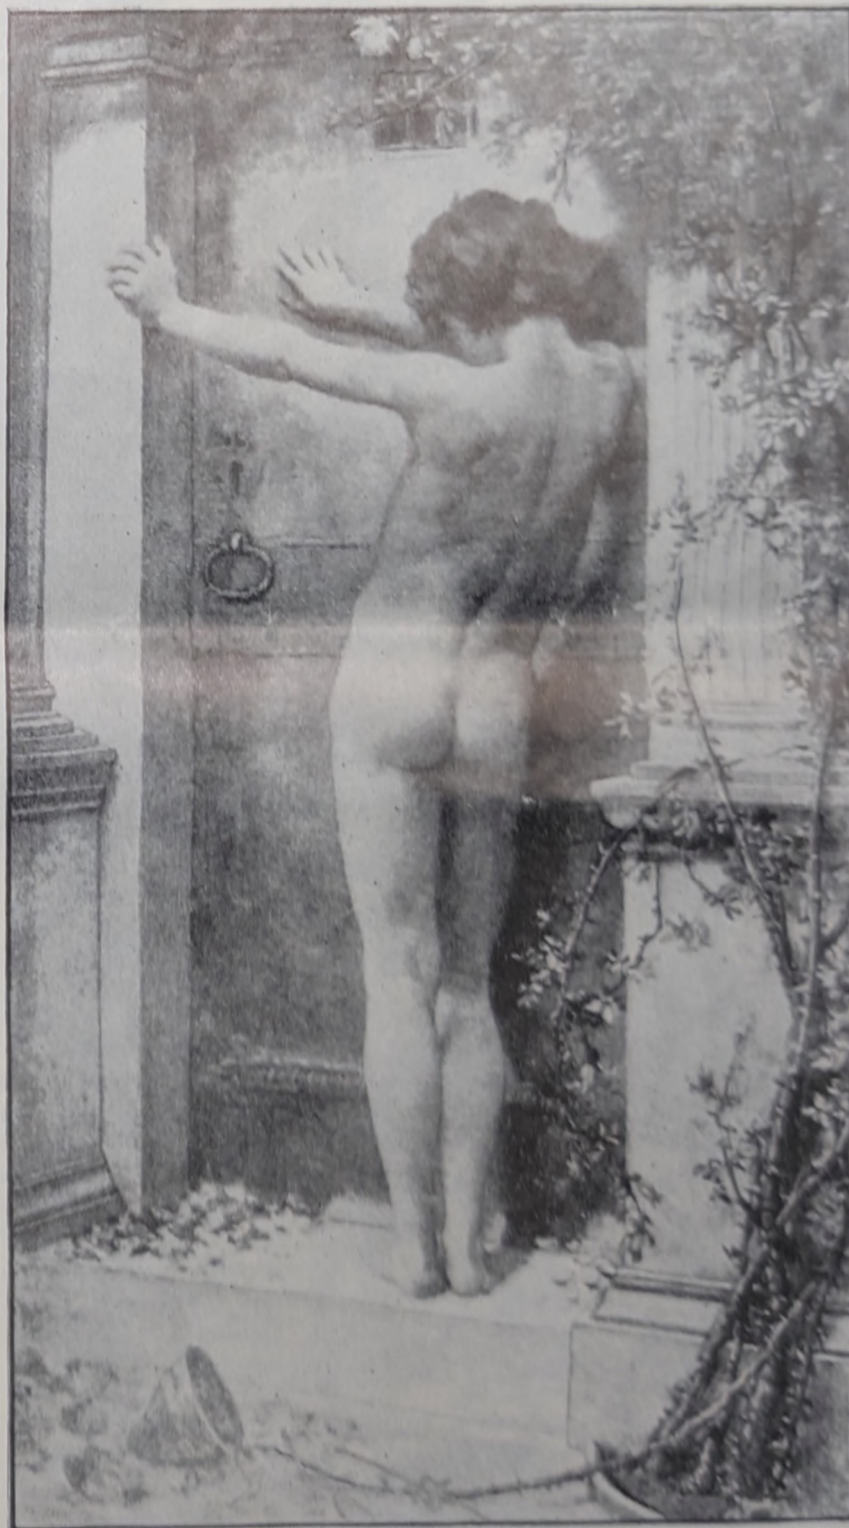

ANOTHER spirit I had nurtured over this chasm I was very proud of, and can still remember their lithe supple body free from animal heat; their bright eyes and eager sharp clean mind of spiritual beauty, yet a soul who understood the greater depth of the wisdom from all angles. Then they met the Lilith, who seems to spend her time in destroying instead of exhilarating, with sirens on the rocks everywhere.

For this is the journey of Odysseus, where I try to get the Chakras revolving with activity, so as to drive the spinal fluid up through the causeway of Neptune, the cervical, to water the brain in active reunion. By this the mighty wealth of the past is awakened, and the child prodigy is born; for the gods are given the "sky weeping waters" they require to feed them anew.

THIS IS THE WORK OF THE FUTURE AND PERHAPS A NEW THOUGHT FOR YOU PROGRESSIVE PARENTS. EVER REMEMBERING THAT IT IS THE FIRST SEVEN YEARS THAT COUNT, AND THEN THEY CAN LEARN.

The boy that I had just been referring to, held before himself great promise, for his internal hope was priesthood, but much

LOVE LOCKED OUT

NOW there is a great depth in this, if only you can understand it, because we are not talking of love as the majority of people understand it; we are talking of the divine LOVE in the supreme essence of the Fire, the God essence, as the atomic glory of LOVE, and is the divine beauty of the heights descending to the depths.

It is the glory that walks in man's garden at night, that talks to him, leads him, and guides him. It is the glorious EL Powers that walk on the vaults of the heavens, and bring unto man the divinity of unfoldment. But when man shuts out that fire, when man shuts out that LOVE, then the Cup is broken, and man becomes lost. It is this essence of the fire which gives man the royalty of becoming, the royalty of unfoldment, and which all are automatically seeking for. In their innermost hearts all souls are crying out for this divinity.

The first understanding of this LOVE begins at puberty, for then the soul-child takes on his first essence of responsibility. This is a very important time, where you have to nurture the youth when he is ready for the puberty to break forth. All these things have never been revered in the way they should have been, for man has come down to the dung.

All these glories were once the true essence of life, because they belong to the god-state of the soul, and they were then nurtured to bring the fire deliverers into full ripeness, into full blossoming, so that they could blossom with the royal fire; not fire that was deteriorated, or fire that was imbued with desire, but fire that was fired with glory.

The Mind Development Class

EACH Week on every Saturday at 5.30 p.m. G.M.T. Mrs. Spearman-Cook holds her Special Mind Development Class at the School's H.Q. A special Subject is concentrated upon for about 40 minutes and then each sitter is individually helped to interpret and understand his or her findings. Any readers can join; those nearby can make application to attend each week, and those too far away can send in their names and link in each week at the time stated, their names being entered in a Special Book for this purpose. The subjects for concentration are:

shepherding was required. Unfortunately the mercenary blood of the male issue was great, and coincided with a weakness in the chart of the boy.

But 27 years were captured, then worldliness took hold, and today that young god has turned into a coarse fat creature, with a gross low mind, tied to a woman who can never help him to unfold his past life and make that link he requires.

For that is the link of Woman; with her Fount, the depth of her fourth house, she can give the male the polarity to span the depths of his heights, and where the mother comes in. For it is her depths that she wants to expand, and the son has the key.

This young man had Leo strongly with him, the full polarity of my Fount. I could have awakened his ancient wealth, and unfolded might and glory unknown; apart from burying in the depths of his Gordian Knot; but he chose money and so-called freedom under the guidance of moon in Gemini.

He now will never find freedom, his road will be a hard trudge of climbing the Bee-line trail back "home". For this is the mechanism of the seed being nurtured into life, where the soul will open up life for the future, and the Warrior of life be born.

Fortunately I found another son who had lost his mother at birth, who also had Leo in the Zenith, but greater still, with Neptune in it. Although I had not been successful with the other son, I came out on top through my struggle, and I realised how great were the Powers of the Gods, for by my persistence, belief and determination to honour my intent in the beginning, I was blessed by the Powers of the Divinity.

By this, the great World of Vega was born, the World of Mind, and Aquarius was saved, for it was a critical time, when the Race either went up or down. It has gone up, even though all appears chaotic for the time. For remember, the answer to all things is in tomorrow, not the immediate future.

It is when the soul passes over that it knows what a fool it has been, for I have heard the cries of those who have failed, and found themselves in hell, which does literally exist. For as a man creates here, he accordingly finds on the other side, and what is form here, when brought to formlessness is of a very crude creation.

OUR TASK HERE IS TO FIND AND POLARISE BY FREQUENCY OF THOUGHT, THUS GO UP INTO OUR HEIGHTS IN CHILD-LIKE BELIEF. THIS IS WHERE A SOUL CAN RETAIN A PURE MIND BY BELIEF, MORE THAN BY RECOGNITION OF EVIL AND ITS DESIGNS, AND THE CHILD RIPE AND READY TO BE GUIDED, BE LED BY SUCH A SOUL UNFOLDING THE GREATER WISDOM FOR THEM TO BECOME BORN OF THE HIGHER PLANE OF MIND CREATION, WITHIN THEIR INNER BODY OF LIGHT.

Well, having spoken so much in favour of the sons, what about woman; for now, although it has been a hard road for all Eves, it now is more Cosmic than personal. The re-birth of a World status, that had to have a Scapegoat to bring about the turn-over into Divinity. One who could be a Dhruva, with everyone believing Chichester did the job sailing round the world. He was merely the earth scapegoat carrying out the earth act.

The REAL cause was in truly earthing the Elements; thus Vulcan and Vesta were earthed as the greater aspects of Mars and Venus. The burning in of these was no small task. Now greater wealth is flowing to the earth, with all being cleansed for gods to live on the true Plane of Experience once again. For Woman's task has always been to sit at home like Penelope and weave, waiting for Odysseus to return. For it is by him contacting greater heights in the polarity of heights and depths, that earth and heaven become one.

THUS OUR SONS HOLD THE KEY TO OUTER WORLD SPACE BY FREQUENCY OF MIND, THROUGH THEIR FIRE PURITY. WHILE WOMAN HOLDS THE WEALTH, BUT MUST GET IT FIRED BY MIND EXPANSION, THAT IT CAN BE BROUGHT FORTH AND UNIFIED.

Yet with all the planes now being lifted up, woman must bring her mind forth in greater unfoldment of truth, that she can become a Medea, and not just a Harpy of the depths. Here we see the mysteries in their fullest degree, and whether we want to touch them or not, we have to meet them, they are life.

FOR THE FOUNT NOW IS THE YOD, WITH THE HEAVENS POURING DOWN THE GREAT STREAM OF LIFE SET INTO MOTION BY MEROPE. SO WOMAN GET BUSY AND RAISE UP YOUR MIND TO THE VERY HIGHEST, THAT YOU CAN DANCE WITH THE MALE ELEMENT ON THE MIND ISSUE.

PORTAE LUCIS

The Gate of Light

(This lecture was written by Gladys I. Spearman-Cook in 1956, under the direction of Ra-Men-Ra, and is now being published that it might give to some a clearer understanding of the basis of the mysteries. Editor).

THERE are thirty two marvellous ways of Wisdom upon which God founded His Name, making the thirty three Mysterious Paths; that of thought rendered visible through the Palatium Arcanorum by she who enters the Palace of the Mysteries with man the Alchemist, and brings forth the son of fact or practical application. The solving of the Mysteries of the Aquarian Age, that were only platitudes in the Piscean. Three is the Word made flesh and dwelling amongst you; it is the base line, the magnetic attraction which unites the positive and negative forces and completes the triangle.

Man as the Creator

THE Gnostic, Caballist and even Theologian are ever repeating of the Triune, which, when completed in man, makes the perfect man and even unto the Word becoming Wisdom within his soul. But surely what use is the Word without it brings some useful purpose to the many, which is what it was intended for.

Man is the Alchemist, for the Sun in the manifestation of the Trinity becomes as force within man, that he can drive evolution. It is heat, light and electricity rolled into one; vitalic energy, and all being the expression of the divine Spiritual Fire or "cold flame," and is number ONE.

The Spiritual flame cannot enter the physical plane without manifesting these three aspects, as all substance when in a gaseous state, if reduced to the temperature 273°, absolute zero, would cease to exist, therefore heat is the prime requisite for any form of manifestation. When you increase heat, light appears; that is, after you have raised it to a certain degree of vibration. And when further increased, radiant energy; electricity when in matter manifestation.

Number One is MAN as the Masculine Principle, and the heat of the Sun, the active principle in the Mars action. Number Two is WOMAN as the Feminine Principle, the light of the Sun and passive principle. Three is the Son, the magnetism which exists between positive and negative; and these Three are the Triune that are ever manifesting in all things as the state of evolution, but only in man, as that stated in the former.

MAN IS THE CONTINUAL ACCUMULATOR AS THE CREATOR UNTO THE BEGOTTEN, AND RECEIVES THE HOURLY QUOTA OF FUEL TO COMPLETE THE TASK. HIS WORK, IF HE DID BUT KNOW, IS ROYAL.

The great Mystery attached to this, and man's own individual prerogative, is that of the Great Fatherhood in the Unknown, as the Light of the Son sent forth to redeem the Darkness, the Magnetism being the Holy Ghost; the Elohim, or the unseen magnetic energy, called by the Ancients, Anima Mundi, which is forever with and in All.

ALL IS THE ONE SUBSTANCE AND IS IDENTICAL IN MAN, NATURE AND COSMOS. THE ONE THREAD RUNNING THROUGH AND CONNECTING ALL: IT.

Heat is the result of the resistance of matter to the activity of the Spiritual Flame, and is the lowest and most physical expression, or body of Fire. Light is produced by overcoming of the resistance, and the soul becomes manifest as the Fire makes manifest in the carrier of manas—mind.

THEREFORE THE LIGHT BROUGHT FORTH IS THE MIND.

The Feminine Principle

RADIANT energy is electrical force, the spirit of divine Fire, but is heat as the physical body and solar fire in the soul. But to make its combined action as ONE, it must become manifest in the man as that of his radio-active state of wisdom. Not through atom combustion as manifested by the scientist today, but the radio-active state of Christ-light. This is brought about by the seven-headed hydra becoming harnessed, the wisdom of Revelations.

The feminine principle within the soul having laboured, as so doomed at the Fall, now nurturing all the Chakras of the soul into activity, that the Corona Chakra can be opened up to the Spiritual Sun.

The woman with her feet on the Moon, Stars in her hair and the Sun radiant from the solar plexus. The pneumogastric nerve, or terminal of the cerebrospinal sympathetic system. One of the great wonders of man creation. The Harlot now clothed in purple.

Therefore, here we crack open a great fallacy; fill yourself with Sun energy and you are of radiant force, but draw from En-Soph and you draw from the Spiritual Sun and are of radiant Energy, the God-Light.

This is the mystery of the Sepher Yetzirah in the Three Mothers, Aleph, Mem and Shin, the Foundation. For God is the WORD that became WORLD through 'L' Elohim—Fu, life. Aleph the son is Air-mind; Mem is water—fertility, and Shin is fire. All are found in the general composition of the world in the division of time, and in man.

These three Mothers in Astrological manifestation are Aries, Cancer and Virgo, the tor and reconciliator as God's breath; the WORD. Finally on this journey of gain and becoming, man enters fully into the LAW, as God is within him and man is of God.

God, Supreme Light, does not submit to the Law which He embodies, for he is the Law, and the closer beings are to Him by light, the more they bathe in His Light and become through the law of the Law.

The Unification

IN Astrology this is seen as the Law of Opposites producing the final creation as the Christos and very clearly depicted in the Holy Book. The whole of the Bible reiterates that of the Sciences, for Pauline as a Mystic seeker was highly versed in all these Ancient Sciences.

The whole world has grown from their basic, and man can go as far back as Egypt, the Cradle of Civilization, in their origin. For there, all was earthed by the Hyksos, the mysterious tribe of the Ur valley and its mountains.

These opposites or polarities are referred to in the Holy Book as the 144,000 to be saved. In astrology there are 144 polarities to pass through the triune worlds 000, that the more clearly into birth in the Moses period, which has unity with the Arian Equinox verging from the Taurean. This definitely throws the Bible reckoning completely out, for the Bible goes back in seasonal periods alone for 6480 years, but in reality much further than that.

Three Equinoxes of 2160, but that is not our theme of thought at the present moment; we now verge to the practical side of the light-bringer. For having touched upon the Holy theme of light, let us now come to the earth.

So many shun the thought of Alchemy, for they fear it spells of black magic in the form of dead reptiles and many other ridiculous things.

Alchemy is a part of God's creation and nothing but perversity can be ruled out. Alchemy deals with the living "metals," and of how lead, lifeless substance, can become the Gold of Spirit through the natural mechanics of the living tissues, and embrace the holy Ghost of the Solar Flame. So having brought the Heights down to the depths, let us now seek into the depths and raise up to the heights, and unite within the being and call him MAN.

MAN IS THE LIVING ALCHEMIST OF GOD, AND ALL ARE SEEKING TO BRING FORTH OF THE PHOSPHORUS, ALTHOUGH THEY MAY NOT BE AWARE OF IT.

Here we now branch off into terminology that will be profoundly new to many, but do not be warded off; try and stay the course. Let it be as a strengthener of the main thought of how man, from all angles, is the light bringer.

(See plate on page 7)

The Initiate is the one who is initiating himself into knowledge, that as the Adept he can speak wisdom. So when we say, after the Initiate has blended the salt, mercury and sulphur, that he will bring forth of the phosphorus, it is literally speaking of a real practicability, for salt is the basic of earth ingredient and refers to experience which has primed and salted the soul, through, "Ye are the salt of the earth."

Mercury is the action of investigation, the restless mercurial divisibility, and sulphur the inflammable action, resulting in phosphorus, light coming forth.

The mind that by the Law of Attraction is trying to reach En Soph, the height of its origin. Therefore when infused becomes the mind that is the light bringer, the Radiant Energy.

But to go yet deeper, let us analyse this Salt, Mercury and Sulphur via the true Nature of salt, but we will have to face some facts. But then all true investigators are prepared for this, knowing that by recognition, Saturn will move without the axe. This is the genuine Initiator.

Synthesis of the Powers

SALT is the lowest mineral element in matter; it symbolizes solidity, things that were once fluidic now having become crystallized. Emotions that have become calcified, as portrayed in the Biblical legend of Lot and Sodom. Meaning no further fluidic movement, the basic of the magnetic field; below is out of range and would be termed perversity. Therefore devolution is man treading a slow path on the outer rim of the circumference of being.

On the outer rim he is on the cross, or bound to the outer rim like Ixion, inert and crystallized, causing dryness of state, which if not fructified by the next element, water—emotions, would disintegrate into fine dust. For Ixion was being burnt and tossed by three feminine fructifiers who produce the son in the virgin's womb.

THE ALCHEMICAL MYSTERY OF LIFE

THE mystery of man as the Mons Philosophorum, is the mystery of the alchemical formula of life, where earth becomes sensitised by the infusion of the elements as they blend in the intercalary between Taurus and Scorpio. Man the mighty alchemical pot, the crucible in the depths.

The mind ready for active creation in the continual filling up of the granary of the Gods in the 6th house, related to the solar plexus, or health degeneration. All brought forth enters into the 7th, the house of Libra, the scales, where that gained is to be weighed in the balance.

Fire is the substance of heaven, water the substance of earth, and air the mediator between the two. The domina-

Holy Fire can be born in every soul who has taken of the Solar Flame, and become crucified into Gold.

In the Caballah, the Sepher Yetzirah is the Alphabet of letters and sounds, of which "The King of ages, the merciful and gracious God, the exalted One, the Dweller in Eternity, most high and holy, engraved His Name by the three Seraphim." And is here seen in its table of reflection, the Law of Correspondences.

chaos, through the solar element forcing action, or destruction.

This literally means the soul completely and utterly engrossed in self and giving out of nought. Until an action of love, as emotional state, begins to fructify, there will be no light at all; all will be in a state of salt; that of the Dead Sea. So the Mercury or mind element must begin to move.

Man craves for salt because he has the inner craving desire for synthesization, or the blending into one unity; the unity of solidarity of desire. But unfortunately man attempts to go no farther, for unless he has gained the knowledge, he lies fallow as to why these things possess him.

Salt going into the body in its crystallized form, cannot but be absorbed by the body and is highly injurious to the organs, for it changes into salt of nitre or saltpetre; and can account for the hardening of the arteries.

Salt should not be taken this way, but absorbed via the mineral form in the natural way, after transformation has taken place in the living organisms of the plant life.

Salt is the lowest basic element and lowest rate of vibration, in fact practically nil and so static, that it can prevent further freezing or further heating. It is too static to be absorbed by the living tissue of man's ratio of vibration.

Therefore becomes saltpetre, which means that which adheres to the rocks, stone matter; and in Sodom, as portrayed in the legend, it adhered to their rock formation of desire, their basic facets, and formed a pillar of salt. Complete solidification of the nitre around the polar magnetism.

Once the mechanics of the human body are truly understood, this knowledge will appear quite simple and practical. Possibly not palatable, but will supply the answer to many of your health problems, for as the Aquarian Age increases, the health problem will become the order of the day.

CHANGE IS THE NECESSITY, WITH SACRIFICE AND ABSTINENCE THE RULING ORDER.

The kidneys have considerable difficulty in dealing with the salt crystals, for they do not dissolve, but enter into the blood in this condition. When salt is taken in its crude mineral form it remains in the stomach organ for some considerable time, due to the crude salt adhering to the stomach orifice, causing desire through the muscular opening remaining as the ever-open-gate.

This is a false state of distillation and one of the problems of the present age, for that is now what man is having to discard, desires that are sucking him down into stagnancy.

He is ever in a state of trying to break away the root; the root being the salt of matter, literally and metaphorically, for it can never be dissolved by desires; the only answer is the ancient, yet modern answer, sacrifice of that which holds the soul to matter. For more and more man is seeking spiced and salted foods instead of the natural.

Allegorically speaking, the nitre or saltpetre is formed by the design of the lower desires. This represents Mars as dry-becoming or dawning light; for in ancient Hebrew, "eth" added unto a word gave the inference of that ever moving into becoming. This is a part of the Bible mystery. Therefore the saltpetre or nitre formed at the beginning, is ever being transmuted; or rocks broken up into the true Rock of Peter. That formed through the night or nitre of experiences.

When salt is decocted, distilled through MIND TRANSMUTATION, it remains not as salt, but becomes the rock essence of man as soul, and makes the fuse which sets off the powder. Soak the mind in the positive solution of nitre, as facts of experience, and it will become the ever-causing cause of distillation-eth, that ever fusing and penetrating the regions to En Soph. But exploding in desire channels will cause the mind to disintegrate and take on shambles; all fluid having been dried up and no distillation to supply the body tissue to keep it fluidic and pliable.

Nitre is the principle element in gunpowder; the other elements being sulphur and carbon. But before man brought these as gunpowder into being he tried salt and sulphur only, resulting in violent chemical reaction. Allegorically from an esoteric explanation, nitre is the transformed salt and sulphur the fertile gold of the logos, but Carbon, the missing element, is the transformed mind, without which, you only have nitre, the fusing element of earth, "spitting" fire with the fertile gold of Spirit, and not igniting the flame by the abridging factor.

When man includes the Carbon of the transformed mind, or tree of lower, "burnt" in sacrifice of the lower, he blends together Salt, Sulphur and Mercury into "gunpowder of Will." He becomes as Vulcan hammering out terrestrial lightning, the igneous preparation. The Union is of eight parts of Nitre to one part of Sulphur and one part of Carbon; the mixture has now to become perfect from an imperfect form. Man's theory needing to be uplifted onto a constructive plane; for this will break down obstacles like a thunderbolt of Will.

At this stage, the mineral element of salt becomes Nitre, the Nitre having separated itself. The division is, the fluidic or watery contents are separated from the solidified form, bringing into birth the Atomic bomb. All condensed into crystallization on a higher plane of conception, but not away from the destructive; yet what opportunities await the constructive!

Again esoterically, the change is caused by the mysterious Alchemical Process, the Gold of distillation into Oil, but upon the negative plane, the oil of the Absolute Mind; Azoth leading man, but man not constructively ready.

Sophic Sulphur and sophic Mercury were depicted by the Ancients as masculine and feminine principles, which, by the continual conjunction or uniting, led to the birth of the Philosopher's Stone; these being the counterpart of man's spirit and soul, with the saltmagnesia, the body element of earth.

This represents the volatile evaporated mercury remaining as the foundation of the vessel; the two principles having been joined in marriage bringing forth the mind. Sun and Moon bringing forth the son, the air—heir, and represents the three elements of salt, sulphur and mercury becoming the royal element of the king—Aleph or Aries the man.

Each seeking supremacy until they unite in harmony, and as the sage and scholar, under the tree of life, wrestles with the eternal triangle of the three elements, soul, spirit and body; the three primary elements of life, Sun, Moon and Mercury; red, yellow and blue.

Therefore with the Spiritual trinity and Earth trinity unity there is a constant interchange taking place through Space, the Spirit being the mediator between the two worlds.

The fiery Nebula is Spirit; form dissolving into Space and Space crystallizing into form. If the physicist could only understand this, they would find in the principle the Spirit, the missing Principle.

Chaos still exists as the foundation of all change; and when this world has finished its purpose, Chaos will again exist in the formation of the next. For Chaos is around all as matter being constantly resolved back into that Chaos, which is continually giving birth to new forms, otherwise there would be no progress, and the work of evolution would cease and prevent the possibility of advancement, through stagnation.

Time is the Periods and Revolutions forming, creating time in space; distance between evolving points. The oftener you "die," the better you live.

"Who has not this ever dying and bringing to birth, will ages remain a sorry guest upon the dismal earth." (Goethe).

YET IN THE MAJORITY ALL THIS IS FORMED, THOUGH IN MANY IN AN INDISTINCT WAY THROUGH THE ASTROLOGICAL BLENDING. THUS WILL NOW BE CALLED UPON TO START UNIFICATION UNTO A ROLE OF ONENESS. FOR ALL NOW IS TIMELESSNESS, THROUGH MAN TRANSFORMING FORM INTO MIND.

THE INITIATE

THE right of initiation, sorely lost to all men, is the soul learning the way to master the secrets of life, and become the recipient of the inner depths, the radiant glory of the spirit. For in the depths man is lost in the darkness of earth, and his cause is to rise up and become the voice and mind of the divinity.

ness of nature in heat-craving desires. But let us look to the true distillation whereby salt can become mercury-mind and sulphur the gas, that can be formed to bring forth phosphorus—light.

The Importance of Mind Transmutation

MAN commenced as the salt, that drawn from the hard labouring to survive, so is that of true distillation. He is in distillation-eth, the ever-forms an alkaline; three bodies of movement that form a living creature.

The soul body that contains the human spirit, life spirit and divine spirit; and can be seen as God, the Word, breathing upon the salt of the earth and forming a mercurial column of Reason. Therefore mercury in man is formed from the distillation-eth of salt petre or nitre—experiences of life—and becoming the ever forming column formation of Mercury.

Nitre is the principle property in gunpowder, and also

PORTAE LUCIS

The Gate of Light

(This lecture was written by Gladys I. Spearman-Cook in 1956, under the direction of Ra-Men-Ra, and is now being published that it might give to some a clearer understanding of the basis of the mysteries. Editor).

THERE are thirty two marvellous ways of Wisdom upon which God founded His Name, making the thirty three Mysterious Paths; that of thought rendered visible through the Palatium Arcanorum by she who enters the Palace of the Mysteries with man the Alchemist, and brings forth the son of fact or practical application. The solving of the Mysteries of the Aquarian Age, that were only platitudes in the Piscean. Three is the Word made flesh and dwelling amongst you; it is the base line, the magnetic attraction which unites the positive and negative forces and completes the triangle.

Man as the Creator

THE Gnostic, Caballist and even Theologian are ever repeating of the Triune, which, when completed in man, makes the perfect man and even unto the Word becoming Wisdom within his soul. But surely what use is the Word without it brings some useful purpose to the many, which is what it was intended for.

Man is the Alchemist, for the Sun in the manifestation of the Trinity becomes as force within man, that he can drive evolution. It is heat, light and electricity rolled into one; vitalic energy, and all being the expression of the divine Spiritual Fire or "cold flame," and is number ONE.

The Spiritual flame cannot enter the physical plane without manifesting these three aspects, as all substance when in a gaseous state, if reduced to the temperature 273°, absolute zero, would cease to exist, therefore heat is the prime requisite for any form of manifestation. When you increase heat, light appears; that is, after you have raised it to a certain degree of vibration. And when further increased, radiant energy; electricity when in matter manifestation.

Number One is MAN as the Masculine Principle, and the heat of the Sun, the active principle in the Mars action. Number Two is WOMAN as the Feminine Principle, the light of the Sun and passive principle. Three is the Son, the magnetism which exists between positive and negative; and these Three are the Triune that are ever manifesting in all things as the state of evolution, but only in man, as that stated in the former.

MAN IS THE CONTINUAL ACCUMULATOR AS THE CREATOR UNTO THE BEGOTTEN, AND RECEIVES THE HOURLY QUOTA OF FUEL TO COMPLETE THE TASK. HIS WORK, IF HE DID BUT KNOW, IS ROYAL.

The great Mystery attached to this, and man's own individual prerogative, is that of the Great Fatherhood in the Unknown, as the Light of the Son sent forth to redeem the Darkness, the Magnetism being the Holy Ghost; the Elohim, or the unseen magnetic energy, called by the Ancients, Anima Mundi, which is forever with and in All.

ALL IS THE ONE SUBSTANCE AND IS IDENTICAL IN MAN, NATURE AND COSMOS. THE ONE THREAD RUNNING THROUGH AND CONNECTING ALL: IT.

Heat is the result of the resistance of matter to the activity of the Spiritual Flame, and is the lowest and most physical expression, or body of Fire. Light is produced by overcoming of the resistance, and the soul becomes manifest as the Fire makes manifest in the carrier of manas—mind.

THEREFORE THE LIGHT BROUGHT FORTH IS THE MIND.

The Feminine Principle

RADIANT energy is electrical force, the spirit of divine Fire, but is heat as the physical body and solar fire in the soul. But to make its combined action as ONE, it must become manifest in the man as that of his radio-active state of wisdom. Not through atom combustion as manifested by the scientist today, but the radio-active state of Christ-light. This is brought about by the seven-headed hydra becoming harnessed, the wisdom of Revelations.

The feminine principle within the soul having laboured, as so doomed at the Fall, now nurturing all the Chakras of the soul into activity, that the Corona Chakra can be opened up to the Spiritual Sun.

The woman with her feet on the Moon, Stars in her hair and the Sun radiant from the solar plexus. The pneumogastric nerve, or terminal of the cerebrospinal sympathetic system. One of the great wonders of man creation. The Harlot now clothed in purple.

Therefore, here we crack open a great fallacy; fill yourself with Sun energy and you are of radiant force, but draw from En-Soph and you draw from the Spiritual Sun and are of radiant Energy, the God-Light.

This is the mystery of the Sepher Yetzirah in the Three Mothers, Aleph, Mem and Shin, the Foundation. For God is the WORD that became WORLD through 'L' Elohim—Fu, life. Aleph the son is Air-mind; Mem is water—fertility, and Shin is fire. All are found in the general composition of the world in the division of time, and in man.

These three Mothers in Astrological manifestation are Aries, Cancer and Virgo, the tor and reconciliator as God's breath; the WORD. Finally on this journey of gain and becoming, man enters fully into the LAW, as God is within him and man is of God.

God, Supreme Light, does not submit to the Law which He embodies, for he is the Law, and the closer beings are to Him by light, the more they bathe in His Light and become through the law of the Law.

The Unification

IN Astrology this is seen as the Law of Opposites producing the final creation as the Christos and very clearly depicted in the Holy Book. The whole of the Bible reiterates that of the Sciences, for Pauline as a Mystic seeker was highly versed in all these Ancient Sciences.

The whole world has grown from their basic, and man can go as far back as Egypt, the Cradle of Civilization, in their origin. For there, all was earthed by the Hyksos, the mysterious tribe of the Ur valley and its mountains.

These opposites or polarities are referred to in the Holy Book as the 144,000 to be saved. In astrology there are 144 polarities to pass through the triune worlds 000, that the more clearly into birth in the Moses period, which has unity with the Arian Equinox verging from the Taurean. This definitely throws the Bible reckoning completely out, for the Bible goes back in seasonal periods alone for 6480 years, but in reality much further than that.

Three Equinoxes of 2160, but that is not our theme of thought at the present moment; we now verge to the practical side of the light-bringer. For having touched upon the Holy theme of light, let us now come to the earth.

So many shun the thought of Alchemy, for they fear it spells of black magic in the form of dead reptiles and many other ridiculous things.

Alchemy is a part of God's creation and nothing but perversity can be ruled out. Alchemy deals with the living "metals," and of how lead, lifeless substance, can become the Gold of Spirit through the natural mechanics of the living tissues, and embrace the holy Ghost of the Solar Flame. So having brought the Heights down to the depths, let us now seek into the depths and raise up to the heights, and unite within the being and call him MAN.

MAN IS THE LIVING ALCHEMIST OF GOD, AND ALL ARE SEEKING TO BRING FORTH OF THE PHOSPHORUS, ALTHOUGH THEY MAY NOT BE AWARE OF IT.

Here we now branch off into terminology that will be profoundly new to many, but do not be warded off; try and stay the course. Let it be as a strengthener of the main thought of how man, from all angles, is the light bringer.

(See plate on page 7)

The Initiate is the one who is initiating himself into knowledge, that as the Adept he can speak wisdom. So when we say, after the Initiate has blended the salt, mercury and sulphur, that he will bring forth of the phosphorus, it is literally speaking of a real practicability, for salt is the basic of earth ingredient and refers to experience which has primed and salted the soul, through, "Ye are the salt of the earth."

Mercury is the action of investigation, the restless mercurial divisibility, and sulphur the inflammable action, resulting in phosphorus, light coming forth.

The mind that by the Law of Attraction is trying to reach En Soph, the height of its origin. Therefore when infused becomes the mind that is the light bringer, the Radiant Energy.

But to go yet deeper, let us analyse this Salt, Mercury and Sulphur via the true Nature of salt, but we will have to face some facts. But then all true investigators are prepared for this, knowing that by recognition, Saturn will move without the axe. This is the genuine Initiator.

Synthesis of the Powers

SALT is the lowest mineral element in matter; it symbolizes solidity, things that were once fluidic now having become crystallized. Emotions that have become calcified, as portrayed in the Biblical legend of Lot and Sodom. Meaning no further fluidic movement, the basic of the magnetic field; below is out of range and would be termed perversity. Therefore devolution is man treading a slow path on the outer rim of the circumference of being.

On the outer rim he is on the cross, or bound to the outer rim like Ixion, inert and crystallized, causing dryness of state, which if not fructified by the next element, water—emotions, would disintegrate into fine dust. For Ixion was being burnt and tossed by three feminine fructifiers who produce the son in the virgin's womb.

THE mystery of man as the Mons Philosophorum, is the mystery of the alchemical formula of life, where earth becomes sensitised by the infusion of the elements as they blend in the intercalary between Taurus and Scorpio. Man the mighty alchemical pot, the crucible in the depths.

The mind ready for active creation in the continual filling up of the granary of the Gods in the 6th house, related to the solar plexus, or health degeneration. All brought forth enters into the 7th, the house of Libra, the scales, where that gained is to be weighed in the balance.

Fire is the substance of heaven, water the substance of earth, and air the mediator between the two. The domina-

Holy Fire can be born in every soul who has taken of the Solar Flame, and become crucified into Gold.

In the Caballah, the Sepher Yetzirah is the Alphabet of letters and sounds, of which "The King of ages, the merciful and gracious God, the exalted One, the Dweller in Eternity, most high and holy, engraved His Name by the three Seraphim." chaos, through the solar element forcing action, or destruction.

This literally means the soul completely and utterly engrossed in self and giving out of nought. Until an action of love, as emotional state, begins to fructify, there will be no light at all; all will be in a state of salt; that of the Dead Sea. So the Mercury or mind element must begin to move.

Man craves for salt because he has the inner craving desire for synthesis, or the blending into one unity; the unity of solidarity of desire. But unfortunately man attempts to go no farther, for unless he has gained the knowledge, he lies fallow as to why these things possess him.

Salt going into the body in its crystallized form, cannot but be absorbed by the body and is highly injurious to the organs, for it changes into salt of nitre or saltpetre; and can account for the hardening of the arteries.

Salt should not be taken this way, but absorbed via the mineral form in the natural way, after transformation has taken place in the living organisms of the plant life.

Salt is the lowest basic element and lowest rate of vibration, in fact practically nil and so static, that it can prevent further freezing or further heating. It is too static to be absorbed by the living tissue of man's ratio of vibration.

Therefore becomes saltpetre, which means that which adheres to the rocks, stone matter; and in Sodom, as portrayed in the legend, it adhered to their rock formation of desire, their basic facets, and formed a pillar of salt. Complete solidification of the nitre around the polar magnetism.

Once the mechanics of the human body are truly understood, this knowledge will appear quite simple and practical. Possibly not palatable, but will supply the answer to many of your health problems, for as the Aquarian Age increases, the health problem will become the order of the day.

CHANGE IS THE NECESSITY, WITH SACRIFICE AND ABSTINENCE THE RULING ORDER.

The kidneys have considerable difficulty in dealing with the salt crystals, for they do not dissolve, but enter into the blood in this condition. When salt is taken in its crude mineral form it remains in the stomach organ for some considerable time, due to the crude salt adhering to the stomach orifice, causing desire through the muscular opening remaining as the ever-open-gate.

This is a false state of distillation and one of the problems of the present age, for that is now what man is having to discard, desires that are sucking him down into stagnancy.

He is ever in a state of trying to break away the root; the root being the salt of matter, literally and metaphorically, for it can never be dissolved by desires; the only answer is the ancient, yet modern answer, sacrifice of that which holds the soul to matter. For more and more man is seeking spiced and salted foods instead of the natural.

Allegorically speaking, the nitre or saltpetre is formed by the design of the lower desires. This represents Mars as dry-becoming or dawning light; for in ancient Hebrew, "eth" added unto a word gave the inference of that ever moving into becoming. This is a part of the Bible mystery. Therefore the saltpetre or nitre formed at the beginning, is ever being transmuted; or rocks broken up into the true Rock of Peter. That formed through the night or nitre of experiences.

When salt is decocted, distilled through MIND TRANSMUTATION, it remains not as salt, but becomes the rock essence of man as soul, and makes the fuse which sets off the powder. Soak the mind in the positive solution of nitre, as facts of experience, and it will become the ever-causing cause of distillation-eth, that ever fusing and penetrating the regions to En Soph. But exploding in desire channels will cause the mind to disintegrate and take on shambles; all fluid having been dried up and no distillation to supply the body tissue to keep it fluidic and pliable.

Nitre is the principle element in gunpowder; the other elements being sulphur and carbon. But before man brought these as gunpowder into being he tried salt and sulphur only, resulting in violent chemical reaction. Allegorically from an esoteric explanation, nitre is the transformed salt and sulphur the fertile gold of the logos, but Carbon, the missing element, is the transformed mind, without which, you only have nitre, the fusing element of earth, "spitting" fire with the fertile gold of Spirit, and not igniting the flame by the abridging factor.

When man includes the Carbon of the transformed mind, or tree of lower, "burnt" in sacrifice of the lower, he blends together Salt, Sulphur and Mercury into "gunpowder of Will." He becomes as Vulcan hammering out terrestrial lightning, the igneous preparation. The Union is of eight parts of Nitre to one part of Sulphur and one part of Carbon; the mixture has now to become perfect from an imperfect form. Man's theory needing to be uplifted onto a constructive plane; for this will break down obstacles like a thunderbolt of Will.

At this stage, the mineral element of salt becomes Nitre, the Nitre having separated itself. The division is, the fluidic or watery contents are separated from the solidified form, bringing into birth the Atomic bomb. All condensed into crystallization on a higher plane of conception, but not away from the destructive; yet what opportunities await the constructive!

Again esoterically, the change is caused by the mysterious Alchemical Process, the Gold of distillation into Oil, but upon the negative plane, the oil of the Absolute Mind; Azoth leading man, but man not constructively ready.

Sophic Sulphur and sophic Mercury were depicted by the Ancients as masculine and feminine principles, which, by the continual conjunction or uniting, led to the birth of the Philosopher's Stone; these being the counterpart of man's spirit and soul, with the saltmagnesia, the body element of earth.

This represents the volatile evaporated mercury remaining as the foundation of the vessel; the two principles having been joined in marriage bringing forth the mind. Sun and Moon bringing forth the son, the air—heir, and represents the three elements of salt, sulphur and mercury becoming the royal element of the king—Aleph or Aries the man.

Each seeking supremacy until they unite in harmony, and as the sage and scholar, under the tree of life, wrestles with the eternal triangle of the three elements, soul, spirit and body; the three primary elements of life, Sun, Moon and Mercury; red, yellow and blue.

Therefore with the Spiritual trinity and Earth trinity unity there is a constant interchange taking place through Space, the Spirit being the mediator between the two worlds.

The fiery Nebula is Spirit; form dissolving into Space and Space crystallizing into form. If the physicist could only understand this, they would find in the principle the Spirit, the missing Principle.

Chaos still exists as the foundation of all change; and when this world has finished its purpose, Chaos will again exist in the formation of the next. For Chaos is around all as matter being constantly resolved back into that Chaos, which is continually giving birth to new forms, otherwise there would be no progress, and the work of evolution would cease and prevent the possibility of advancement, through stagnation.

Time is the Periods and Revolutions forming, creating time in space; distance between evolving points. The oftener you "die," the better you live.

"Who has not this ever dying and bringing to birth, will ages remain a sorry guest upon the dismal earth." (Goethe).

plucking, and these would ever be a reminder to those left behind as to how they were faring on their journey. By these the aged grandmother knew whether they were sick, well or dead, but by these also it would be known how they were raising the dead. These golden lilies were the heights that controlled and received from the basic five, and if no heights sent down their dew, the grandmother knew they were dead.

From these two, as earth and heaven, two sacred poles were raised, one to extend up and the other down, thus united and conjoined; but suddenly disappeared and resulted in the other becoming engulfed, so that when the nomads or pygmies from the equatorial made their way down the Nile, they gradually lost sight of the southern pole star. This caused a fall from heaven and a sinking down into the waters of deluge, and then all came into birth from the recesses of the south.

The contention between Sut and Horus in the bed of reeds was over the struggle of light and darkness for supremacy, and was continued by the two sides of the Moon as the dark and light halves. This continued until she found peace in unity that brought the wind dancing and moisture feeding the earth. This would be as Sut in drought and Horus as light, the rain; the mind bereft by desires, and could only continue in fruitfulness when one of the other gods Shu or Seb could effect a reconciliation.

Shu and Seb were the mind and goose of egg laying, thus owing to the drought, Sut's star went down from the horizon and sank into the lowermost part of the abyss, which was called the secret earth of Amenta. It was from here that his task as the opener of the roads would be continued as Ap-Uat the jackal, the conductor of souls. His duty then became as the seer in the dark, the opener of the North, because the mind had extended, and as the soul goes up, must it also extend down in investigating the unknown region.

But the two sides of the mind were: one as the guide of the southern ways, the other as the opener of the north where all was as beginning, the primitive paradise in Equatoria. It was from here the pygmies came forth to journey down the Nile, or bloodstream of the soul to become as moist wind in the argument. These are the seeds of ancient wisdom, the Kamite tradition, seeking to become reborn, for there are none who can surpass the wonders of the Golden Age, and all who have of that ancient heritage, are the fish spermers of the Aquarian Age.

Although all became reduced to totemism it still held profound depths, and by such it became more and more embedded into the blood of all souls who passed that way; but through the lack of mind stimulation, now so prevalent, all is coming forth as deluge in materialism and worldliness. Hence man now fails to see the wonders in the heavens that are the records of the light produced through the ages; yet he not only has the nucleus within himself as hidden memories, but the ancient wisdom of astronomical lore deeply embedded in modern pseudo-astronomy.

Activating the Soul

THE ancient mystery teachers were profound in their method of administration, both in their period and for posterity. The heights established from the heights did the depths issue forth as the fiery serpent Apap for the soul to wrestle with.

The story of the hero is Orion, as Horus, crushing Apap and putting him into the bonds of life as the activity of the soul. The Hydra becomes as the carrion, and the crow, the croaker in life, ever screeches out of its undeveloped wisdom; which in Christian symbology becomes the screaming John the Baptist who loses his head that Jesus can enter into Galilee.

THIS IS THE RISEN KUNDALINI NOW BECOMING THE URAEUS, THE RISEN FIRE UNITING WITH THE SPIRIT THAT HAS DRAWN UNTO IT BY LAW OF UNITY AND BOTH EMBRACED; THUS

or right within their own conscience. It is when man seeks to be right in the eyes of God that he becomes a focal point for the Gods to harness and manifest through. But many reach this point and become swamped and deluged in the action of receiving, and lose their balance. Whatever happens, all is a part of life's unfoldment and the working out of Destiny, with man as the Ptah in matter, moulding and forming the rock of life.

This will at all times bring forth the war with the earth-born giants, those created from the elemental powers; and yet only a repeat of what was created in the heights of Olympus of the Titans warring with the Gods, those seeking to indicate that they were souls who had gained the heights of the mind which gave them light awareness to be as a flame to light the minds of others.

Wisdom of the Ancients

EGYPTIAN mythology is the source of the Marchen, the folklore of the world, while the eschatology that followed in from Atum, is the fountain head of all religious mysteries from the Totemic to that of the Mythraic; for this brought forth of the male God. Then it continued in the religion of Rome to finally enter into the Christian doctrine, but with much disguise to cover its origin. Thus in all this you see the rising mound which terminated into the pyramid with steps which remained the eternal mystery over the whole of time; for the quadrature or four square with a rising fifth has never been understood except by the most intrinsic interpenetration by the occult student. In these triangle-shaped buildings, Urshi as mystery teachers of the heavens, taught and studied primitive astronomy.

The basic of all mythology is seven or, as it later became, two plus five, then five and two, Sut and Horus the twin warriors. These were the seven senses in the seven Chakras which in the beginning were the upper two senses of illumination and perception, but in the Fall these two became the five lower senses of desire, with the upper two completely in the grave.

These had to be resurrected through the soul seeking to climb upwards, which he did through religion, but brought into birth a state of righteousness and a mundane state of awareness. These seven originated from the Kamite Brothers as the seven nature bodies gathered in the differentiation, and all through the Marchen of the Nations these have changed and interchanged in the form of good and evil, but never in theme or purpose.

For instance the serpent-goddess Rannut as a renewer of the fruits of the earth was looked upon as the representative of evil in another Nation; but she always remained as the giver of new life through the source of the tree, the sex fire. In this way much became mixed and lost and the real explanation became confused. But whether we believe it or not, the basic and fundamental creations concerning these legends remain in the blood of the soul, as well as their continuity, which became distorted. These legends were often perverted into tribal belief that was often diabolical and demoniacal in their crudeness.

Thus the Kamite beginning with the Great Mother and the elemental powers became confused in chimerical legends of the ancient Nations. The road of darkness that became born out of all of this is with man today, with the outcome still to be seen, for the mind of the soul is so twisted and distorted by the final addition of Christian Theology, that the species in the blood, engenderby them as the equatorial region, were the highest point of beginning in the northern heavens, as was ever seen in Egypt, and ever remained as the inflow of the Celestial heights, the frozen snows. A point of memory that left an imprint upon life and growth that continued down the ages, for the whole of the Christian Theology is infused with its wisdom and which was recapitulated as new thought; but in reality the old wisdom with a new cloak of creed and dogma.

Apta was the horn point of the earth, and ever to remain in soul and cosmic symbology as the point of mind growth; the point which received all and gave all. This fed the world, the whole being in its dual state of rendering.

Then in polarity you have the river of inundation issuing from an abyss of water in the remote south, and is the river Eridanus that pours into the River Nile, or bloodstream of the soul. Yet heights and depths were curiously interblended, and as one produced

THE SOUL BECAME READY FOR CHRISTHOOD. (See plate above)

When the soul spills and loses these waters, they pour into the earth creation of itself, and never raise the moist air up into the heights of the mind to gain wisdom and freedom. Therefore the mound piles up until by karmic rotation all is drawn forth. In this case the inundation becomes deluge and the soul is sucked into the swirl of Scylla.

All Nations through the Ages have repeated of this formula in their National History and legends, and built up heroes that have appeared as examples and land-marks for future guidance. Thus every soul who plies his will and purpose to create, and even destroy, becomes a potential saviour and destroyer that moves the wheel of destiny into swifter action.

Fear which is so prevalent with all souls whether they show it or not, is their seed of error; all seek to either be right in the eyes of other men wrest from them their powers. Now the self-same giants seek to wrest from man what he had gained in conquest. But although traditionally all is connected with these great powers, the heights of the glorious ones always follow in and give to man the power of mind and might to continue his prerogative as mound builder.

Thus from the mound of earth it evolved into a foundation of brickwork as the pillars seen so profusely in Egyptian architecture, and so profusely topped with the mystical lotus, lily and pomegranate. With Greece following later on, and although she dare to compete and declare that she was the originator at Hellespont, Egypt was the real creator.

Rome the later conqueror also followed in and even reformed pillars and altars to their own heroes in the land of the Rising Sun. This finally culminated in the Ziggurat which was an altar mound with steps; and today you have Churches and Cathedrals with windows to the heavens depicting saints with halos or the nimbus. This is intended to ed by the eschatology of the ages, are now in utter confusion. What theology settled upon the Rannut as evil, the Egyptian representation of the Great Mother, was hideous; but she is not really bad or inimical to man unless he distorts and confuses her modes of creation.

She became the most profound of all Mothers, because she becomes as the generator seen in the growth from Taurus to Virgo, and is symbolical of the serpent crawling on its belly; the travailing of Woman, while Adam as Aries labours and raises the mound in Capricorn. Thus the Ram that took the stance of the Goat, is ever changing its coat from black to white, until the Lamb becomes the fully fledged soul in its own personal atonement. But all the time, whatever the circumstances, the gods create in the midst of the celestial mountains, and all increase in number that many may become heroes.

These become the landmarks and signposts down the Ages, and were so, through the Marchen and historical road. One cannot say theological, for although they enclosed saints in limbi, they only did so through their own estimation of creed and dogma, created by the Bishops at Rome and not by the Gods. This only bred pomp and pomposity, and not the true celestial purpose which raised the minds of man through true creative wisdom; that which would eventually raise their souls up out of the earthy state they had degenerated into, for it was not the true celestial purpose.

Even all this is added unto the blood, and more so than much of the ancient past, for the diabolical rule by Papalism has not only impregnated the whole seven bodies of the soul with religious dogma, but the whole established mind is subconsciously completely in fear of the terrorism installed in the dark Middle Ages by religion, and moreso by the Inquisition in their fight to retain supremacy.

All this was but the repeat of much that went on in the savage ages, but what was born in Egypt, the Dawn of Civilization, was that which found new life from the roatage of Babylonian Mythology. Egypt perceived the value of the serpent life that had been ravaged by the previous Age, and whereas the latter made the serpent into the evil Apap,—Tiamat the old Great Mother, she of the Abyss birth,—Egypt produced Rannut the Earth-goddess as the serpent-mother. These are the seven divine Uraei or serpents of life, for actually there are no evil serpents in the Kamite representation.

It is the fire of life raised through the seven bodies and seven perceptory powers bringing seven layers, for there are no serpents of death. This is the fire of life, the fire of generation which cannot die; for being of Spirit it is immortal, the life giver, but also the life destroyer that life can live.

The Elemental Powers

TIAMAT was the power drawn from the elements, while Rannut was the power drawn from the rising Sun, the life giver warm with virile life. This Rannut captured and brought forth as the driving power which gave to man life, strength and healing. But Tiamat caused evil broods to come forth, those that longed to devour of the light, for they knew not of the great Solar Force, that was waiting for the world to capture and make it their life-giving virtues. Thus those that followed Tiamat could only understand the force in the elements of fury.

This they called the Scorpio of rain, for when the rains came it brought multitudes of scorpions into birth, literally and physically. These infested their houses, stung their animals to death and killed off their children, both literally and cosmically. The roar of the thunder frightened them, and appeared to them as the monster with the unbridled mouth. To a young race in their present state of growth this was terrifying, and when the lightning flashed in the raging torrents of the deluging

This in its relative state caused the elements to rage, for man and cosmos are curiously interblended. Thus when the elements had subsided they found the earth rent, the rocks split, and land where water should have been. Because of this many travelled until they came to pastures more fertile and peaceful, a land where the problems of the young race were being nurtured by Nebhau Kau, a daughter of the Gods.

therefore was immortal. Thus time went on and the goddess continually found renewed life, and Nebhau Kau became as Rannut the Golden Cow, the giver of life; she who solved of their problems.

Thus she reigned over them and drew into their midst abundance; hence they sought in multitudes to be at the great Festivals, that took place when Sothis rose and gave direction and life to the earth. The earth that was rescued from the elements which no longer raged in fury, but brought forth brilliant light and calmed waters.

Nebhau Kau came forth out of Nnu, nowhere, the hidden creation, and was the daughter of heavenly birth, she who not only solved their problems but brought abundance to soothe their wants. Ra the great light that came forth was her lord, her spouse, and he led her and guided her, though it appeared to all those young minds as if the serpent led her. But Nebhau Kau knew the secret, and divulged it to no soul for hundreds of years. She who walked with the gods and lived with them in a life of eternity, was of perpetuum, life ever-lasting.

Whereas the Babylonians had their powers raging, this land of Osiris, land of the golden light, that rose up out of the subsidence of the waters, had peace and riches, life and purpose away from the gnawing disease of stinging madness caused by the Babylonians' chaotic life; that wrought by the elements drawn down into their midst, and the fear, dread and panic sent forth.

The Secret of Alchemicalisation

THE land of Ra had found the answer to life, for a great Mother, sent to them by the gods, had the secret of life. Both young and old knew of her for she never left them as those of age are wont to do, but led them and they thrived, for she had the secret of life.

Nebhau Kau trained them in many ways, including how to till the ground and sow their seeds that the harvest was rich. How to harness water that it flowed into barren places and even how to catch the scorpion that it bothered them not. It was this great one as seen in Christian theology that was deified as Mother Eve the giver of fruits to the earth, and who later on was damned. Whereas in Babylonia, ruled by Bel, the tree of life had been the tree of death, Rannut gave of instruction that turned that tree into the tree of life-giving fruits.

People who were once brought to a life of woe through the serpent, now knew how to capture it and extract its sting to cure their ills. Though later on even this man turned into evil to satisfy the craving for possession; thus for many years peace reigned and the crocodile ate up the evil of time produced previously.

Although this will appear as a legend it is the very channel that holds of the long lost past; that which man cannot capture to wrest from it of its secret. Yet the sloughing serpent is the serpent-force of life that ever seeks to bring of renewal of life by forcing what has been gained into a flame of light, and the soul beginning a new wheel of life upon a higher plane of elevation. To accomplish this, there must be some mode of assimilation whereby what has been is enfolded in and a new creation formed.

This is the alchemicalization of rebirth and soul growth. First the Egyptians, then the Hebrews, perceived of this, as the great serpent that wound its way around the tree of life and ever tempts the feminine creator to investigate of life, and in turn tempt her lord to taste of new fruit that he may gain greater and higher wisdom on her behalf, and sperm her with the eucharist of the Gods. What appears as an evil story in Theology, is a truth erroneously portrayed, and half the cause of man's ignorant perception regarding the journey of sex-generation which he now pursues.

This mode of generation, as set into operation at the beginning of time, must now be followed as Law created until the soul becomes free by recognition of a greater path; until then he must pursue as a form of earthly duty that young spirits can return and also gain further experience. This became the story that theology has laid down as the curse of man through life; his temptation into the deeper throes of lust, with the corical slide; that which had its prototype in the beginning, resulting in corruption of the flesh.

But this was not due to Rannut, she was really the life renewer, for by the temptation of wisdom to devour of more, which is the source of aquisitioness, the soul acquires and expands from matter into spirit unfoldment. This has been dramatized in many ways in mythological rendering; the serpent with Mother Eve as the Goddess who gave that which forced man to assume the role of crocodile, that he could eat up the old self that the new could come forth. But unfortunately Saturn strives to hold on and leaves man glutted with "what was" and "what is to be" warring in his internal being for right of conquest. This is the agony of the soul as it passes through the alchemicalizing acid of rebirth.

It amounts to knowledge ramping and warring with the soul in its possessive right to illusive security; its belief in the earth and flesh as the sole mode of existence. The womb to the tomb is their only theme of acceptance, with the majority existing in matter and astral plane vibrations.

EVOLUTION MUST GO ON, IT BEING THE LAW OF LIFE, BUT MAN MUST ALSO CHANGE HIS OUTLOOK AND BECOME OF SOUL GROWTH IN LIGHT ILLUMINATION AS AWARENESS; NOT SATURN BECOMING MORE SOLIDLY FIXED IN EARTHLY BELIEFS OF POSSESSIVENESS.

This is the negative side of Taurus prevailing, but once the mind perceives, the will must begin to labour and place into operation as soul acceptance; then it becomes as an established fact of soul radiation, that which all souls are unconsciously seeking. But knowledge becoming as possession in a fixed will and no expansion to aid others, becomes as the two thieves that crucify the Christos blood in its endeavour to bring into renewed life its lost atoms now solidified into a rock.

Thus it is man himself who has lost the key through seeking the negative path instead of the positive; when he awakens and realizes his mistake, that is the time he seeks the path of the Initiate and finds to his dismay, that the whole of his being is soaked and soddened with the slime of life.

THEN HIS FIRST DUTY IS AS THE CROCODILE, TO BEGIN TO EAT UP THE OLD STATES AS HE BUILDS ANEW. SOMETIMES THE SOUL EVEN HAS TO EAT UP THE CROCODILE; KARMA IS CURIOUS AND SO IS MAN.

DIVINITY OR DUST

waters, they only saw evil roaring through the elements.

All this caused the serpents to come forth out of their holes and add unto the terror of the scorpions. These swallowed up their cattle and seared them with sickness of which they seemed to have no cure, for this race had not awakened, owing to no solar power having yet activated the mind that was born of the lunar elements. Of this they had the raging dog; the jackals that roared in the terrifying darkness of the night, when the Moon hid her head because she was angry with them. While the raging tempests were the waters of the ocean that caused their male children to die, leaving only multitudes of women; thus it was a race in utter chaos, especially when the evil wind tore down their houses and the ramps that supported their drying food.

Yet these elements had far greater effect upon these children psychologically, for these raging torrents were also within their nature as the curse of the rain; with the powers of the elements giving them such fears, that they bowed to the elements as gods, drawing the powers unto themselves, storing them within their being as forces that caused their own inner tempests to rage; their own lightning to strike in anger as they fought for eligible beings as mates. The evil minds that came forth from this creation, were as a fury let loose by the elements, causing emotional madness. For Babylonia was a period of raging deluge, owing to the rising emotions, as fiery elements, not yet having found an answer to their own inner problems.

Where this one came from no one knew, but she had power and wisdom whereby she mastered the elements and made them her strength and not her fear. Then she began to teach the people and their fears subsided, but this could not alter that it lay in the blood as a hidden state that would at some later time have to be dealt with. All this was known to the goddess, thus she led them in worship that controlled their raging torrents and gave them life and virility, but it could not for some considerable time grind out the past elemental creations.

This new form of life helped their brutish grown bodies to find real purpose, and they became beautified, in that the male creatures became real masculine beings, and not creatures with indefinite forms and organs. This is the base of relativity which is throwing its repetition forward in its polarity, and unless ground out through the ages of experience, can come forward as a terrifying state of mental and physical sickness in the polar rebound. This is something which is not understood by man today, but even worse than that, something which intellectuals totally repudiate, thus preventing many who would, making investigation.

That early race raised their minds and love towards this goddess, who performed many wonders; she who mastered the serpent and drew from its force power and strength. But again wonders that man now cannot believe, for this goddess, like Enoch, was of the Gods and walked with the Gods,

THE HEALING COLUMN

IN answer to our request of last month, (see July Healing Column introduction) we were pleased to receive a number of letters from readers who had been experiencing considerable difficulty with their monthly periods, but since their moving onto a strict vegetarian or fruitarian diet, have now found that this trouble has almost completely disappeared; moreso when the soul is upon fruit (see reader's letter by Mrs. W. Bigsby). Whatever the medical world say, menstruation is a completely unnatural state for woman to suffer, and is one that they, by raising up the sensitivity of their bodies, can speedily overcome. As they do this they are casting off the animal states of their inner being, and becoming more attuned to the purity and glory of the spirit. We must not forget however, that the raising up of the frequency of the mind, through wisdom, is also an important issue here, as body sensitivity and mind frequency should be in complete harmony and balance.

Headaches

Miss L. A. H.,
Kansas, U.S.A.

"Is 13 years old and having headaches, nearsightedness, and teeth trouble. She also has a bad overweight problem, and is having trouble starting her monthly periods."

THIS chart (1251) clearly indicates that untold wealth was taken in the past, and is the wealth of the rational mind, but the conscious mind will make no effort to weave and reform in order that the higher mind can be reimbursed with new life.

The Path of Destiny in the 3rd house, in Scorpio, is crying out that the mere logical outlook of the mind can be stirred into action, for if the soul does not become active in her weaving, she is merely going to become an inundated bundle of flesh.

The Moon in Pisces is just living, and refusing to make any expansion whatsoever, as shown by Jupiter retrograde in the 10th house. She must come away from old religious states which could be holding her down, and preventing her from using her mind in new creative desires. Otherwise with so much hidden fire, and Pluto in the 12th, an unbalanced and confused state of mind could ensue. It almost appears like a hidden volcano waiting to blow up at any moment, unless the mind is given real expansive creation.

This is again shown by Virgo upon the 1st house, indicating that she has come back to put the intuitive mind into rebirth. I am very sorry to have to strongly stress the next point, but I do feel that old religious ideas are no good at all to this girl, and if the mother wishes to save her daughter's health then she must give her mind the chance of thinking for itself, which religion is preventing man from doing.

LET HER FIND GOD HER OWN WAY, OR NOT AT ALL.

I should definitely put this one onto a rigid diet, with plenty of fruit and salads, because as soon as she is able to cut down her weight it will open up the mind, and then with the direction of the Word, she could be shepherded into the glories of expansion; but she too, like many others, is the outcome of accumulated karma.

Of course, her age could have a lot to do with her troubles at present, for the opening up of puberty is just as important to a female as it is to a male; especially now, when the laws of unfoldment have been readjusted, and everyone is only going to find the way to expansion through the glories of the reimbursed mind.

As stated before, our advice would be for the soul to get onto a rigid diet, and to take some cleansing herbs, such as BUCHU, DANDELION, and AGRIMONY. For the period pains we thoroughly recommend Motherwort herb, it really is of great assistance.

Poor Eyesight

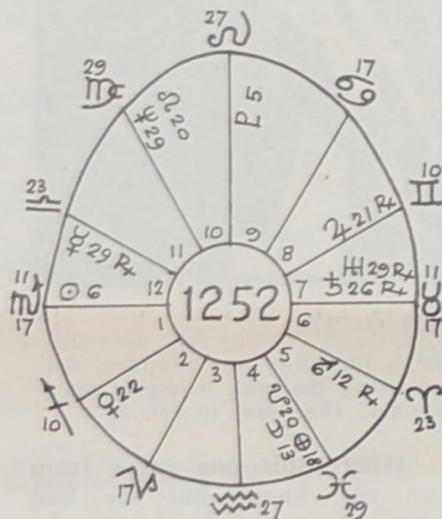

Mr. D. L.,
Auckland, New Zealand.

"For well over half my life I have suffered from poor eyesight and asthma, the latter condition, I believe, having left me with an inferior physique. As I am striving now for Truth and Knowledge through the occult teachings, I feel that my present condition is a sign that I am somehow going very wrong. I would dearly love to know the reason for this, and how it may be corrected, for I feel sure that it is holding me back."

UNFORTUNATELY in this chart (1252) we see that all the major planets that bring change and expansion of the mind are retrograde. That is, they have shackles upon them, preventing any form of action and reimbursement, but this has only come about through the soul refusing to find expansion out of the logical beliefs of the mind.

Scorpio upon the cusp has two deciding states, either the dire materialist or the radiant mystic of profound perception. It is obvious friend, that you chose the negative, although you probably were seeking in a mere phenomenal manifestation to find the glories of its depths. In so doing, your Mercury became unbalanced in a multiplicity of duality, causing both your logical mind and your higher mind to be locked down in the labyrinth, dancing the joys of the minotaurus.

This is shown very clearly by your Path of Destiny in the 4th house, demanding that there should be a reforming of ideas, that the Piscean wealth can be retrieved, then Jupiter will find true expansion and come out of the clutches of the logical mind.

Untold wealth has been taken in the past but, in never getting beyond the thymus, is causing fluid to gather in the thoracic pool, infusing the bronchi of the lungs with waste from the lower depths. This is the cause of your asthma condition, which automatically will affect the eyes.

The only answer to this is a complete cleansing of all the waste from the body, that a new outlook can come into birth; then the Mars in the 5th house, although retrograde, will begin a new pioneering investigation and a determined fight for the rights that up to the present have been lost in illusion and false beliefs.

To help the asthma, COM-FREY HERB and GARLIC PILLS would help considerably, but I would like to suggest, with all due respects, that the slow, inactive state of the New Zealand influence is not really conducive to aid you in your fight to come out of the wood. You really should be where your mind could find expansion upon the birth that was first allotted unto you.

I do not speak without good knowledge of what I am saying. New Zealand is a country that needs to be electrified, and is of course, naturally awaiting a pioneer who can bring this into birth. But it will have to be someone with a lot of power and strength, that could drive the prevailing mighty Maori influence into active glory.

Bad Nerves

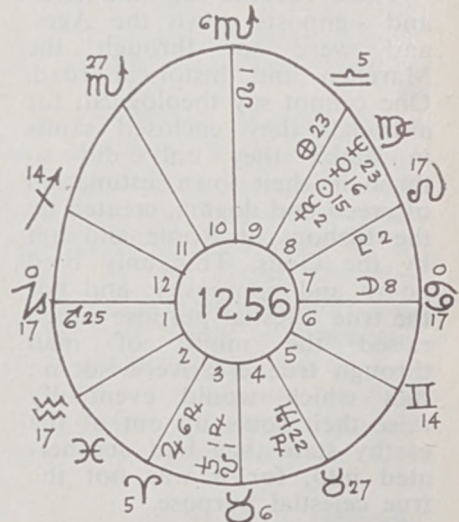

Mr. J. W.,
Loughton, Essex.

"Suffers from very bad nerves and marked tiredness."

IN looking into this chart (1256) we see that the difficulty here lies with the four planets in the 8th house, all in the intuitive sign of Virgo, that are preventing the 3rd house from finding its expansion into the sensitised beauties of the 9th.

These four planets have caused Jupiter to become retrograde, hence no expansion to the Arian investigation, or warrior glory of the soul, but are slowly destroying the Martian fire that at one time became glorified in the 1st house. These four planets are lost in the "pit," through the soul refusing to discard of desires, thereby giving Uranus no chance, in the 4th house, of sparking a new created form to old beliefs.

Capricorn upon the 1st house is completely lodged in earthy desires, therefore the soul has built no mind body; completely blind to the real purpose of life, for Saturn in the 3rd house, instead of bringing the astute discriminative points of belief, has solidified the perception down to the darkness of matter. For the Dragon's Head in the 9th house, in the sign of Scorpio, is only manifesting in the materialistic side of the sign, thus spurning the conscious mind with desires of an earthy nature.

Therefore the wealth that should be coming forth through the Mars in the 1st house, is only re-infusing the soul with the animal desires of the past. So what should have been the abundance of new-born glories is only bringing forth the hidden states of lost divinity.

This soul has got to find originality, where he starts to create from his hidden wealth, and begin to tread into the earth the energies he has raised up out of his depths. For somewhere in the past he brought all this energy into birth by an internal struggle, then lost it all in a later incar-

Readers' Letters

I have some happy news this month, for all our followers in Great Britain. The long awaited repeat of the Television programme, "Whicker's World" in which the School is shown, is to be broadcast on B.B.C.1. on the 18th September. We do hope that as many as possible will be able to see it, and hope that it brings some satisfaction, after such a long wait! Casting my mind back to the day of filming, with all its hustle and bustle, it seems such a long, long, time ago, almost as if it happened in another world,—but then, who knows, maybe it did!

Influence of the S.U.P.H. Teachings & Advice

Lorna Joseph, Trinidad.

To all at S.U.P.H. House my love and blessing, and specially to our revered Mrs. Spearman-Cook. Words are inadequate to express how I feel towards her, her divinity in the flesh just about dazzles me. I could only pray that as many as possible be drawn to her magnificent Teachings and be blessed.

Mrs. H. Belliveau, Leominster, Mass., U.S.A.

I am enclosing six dollars for a subscription to the Occult Gazette for one year. I have seen several copies of it through the courtesy of a friend of mine, and I am very interested in the truth that it presents so well. May God bless the efforts of those who make the printing of this paper possible.

Mrs. G. Lange, Sidcup, Kent.

Thank you for your letter and Gazettes from March to June received. I find them of impelling interest, but full understanding will have to grow gradually. They are remarkable papers to digest, and when properly comprehended will give invaluable knowledge. This I can see even at this early stage. Will you kindly send me per month till end of this year?

Miss J. Bross, Phila., U.S.A.

(A schoolgirl subscriber for the years 1965 & 1966).

I enjoy reading the Gazette very much, and feel that I have learned a great deal from it. It has taught me very much, but I feel the most important thing I gained from reading it was the ability to question, probe, and think.

With deepest thanks and love to all.

Mr. C. P. Urbani, Roslyn, New Zealand.

Once again I offer my full support for your fearless stand nation, to the glories of the desires that this wealth afforded him.

The Path of Destiny in the sign of Libra, and as the extension of the mind, must be his action in this life to unfold the wealth of that 1st house Mars. The only real answer to all of this is strict discarding of earthy states, that a balanced perception can give him the super-will to make a mighty fight to bring his wealth up out of the depths. For everything to him now is coloured by the attitude of satisfying self, hence adding more and more to his earthy vision.

The outcome of this, as soon as the Mars empties out of its powers to sustain, will be a complete collapse into sickness if the soul does not make some drastic effort to retrieve. This is a case of accumulated karma now demanding full retribution of its established hold on the soul.

Lottie A. Riddel, Wichita, U.S.A.

Once again I am able to send you the 6 dollar draft for your wonderful, precious Gazette. God bless you all, thank you for your great love in the work. The Gazette is so great I can only say "It is wonderful to be able to possess it!"

Miss D. Silva, Rhode Island, U.S.A.

I received your Astrological Tape Recording and it is most enlightening to me. May I compliment you? Your voice is so pleasing and young sounding. Since I have been studying the Occult my heart and mind have been opened to many new and different things. I now try to read as much as I can about occultism. The reading is so interesting I listen to it every day so that it will "Sink in."

Please find enclosed a contribution to your wonderful work. Thank you so very much.

Miss T. Horton, Tarzana, U.S.A.

Thank you very much for the June issue of the Gazette, I was very pleased with the wonderful short reading and went right out for the necessary herbs. Naturally I have been on a raw vegetable diet ever since. I also am pleased to report quite a bit of progress.

I was also quite interested in your statement in the present letter that our charts show what we have built for ourselves in past lives. I hadn't thought about that, I knew about the Karma yes, that I was paying a heavy one yes. That I had done nothing to improve the mind since the 1200 life.

We would strongly advise a good cleansing infusion of BUCHU, AGRIMONY, DANDELION and VALERIAN, plus our NERVE PILLS, with a very strict watch upon the diet, discarding all animal states, with the soul also turning to a much closer investigation of the royalties of the Word. LILY OF THE VALLEY would also be of help here, as it is of great benefit in helping to open up the mind.

Today I received the herb Clary and Nerve and Heart Pills, all in good order. Thank you very much. My friend acknowledged how much the Nerve and Anti-Obesity pills helped her and I had only given her a small sample of each. She is convinced they are what she wants, so please send her the order asked for. The results we in my family alone have gotten prove what herbs can do. We are so glad there are people like you to encourage us on and remind us to mend our ways.

Blady J. Spearman-Cook.

Mrs. Spearman-Cook's reading showed why I had been unable to accomplish my dearest wishes in this present incarnation. I have often felt that my feet were stuck in cement since I could not get them off the ground. I also have seen the pit. During meditation an eagle had been sitting on my shoulder for some time stroking me under the neck with his head.

I cut classes one day and went into a strange church, there I saw my first copy of the Occult Gazette. That is where I found the answer to the eagle. He is the Eagle on the Healing Column of the Gazette. That started me on herbs and I have been using them since February 1966.

I am quite pleased about the whole thing, and many thanks to you all and especially Mrs. Spearman-Cook.

Healing Help Given

Mr. M. Hobson, Barnsley, Yorkshire.

Would you please send me some more herbs? I have not had any from you for a long time, but feel I should be taking some. I am on your Healing List and not too bad just now, but would like to be a lot better to do a bit more Spiritual work. I know you have to help yourself which I try to do, and I try to spread your wonderful work amongst the people who attend our church: but it is very hard to make them understand or believe in the Occult Gazette; they say they cannot understand it, it is too deep. They are full of orthodox teaching and don't seem to let go.

The majority only want messages from their loved ones and information about themselves. I would come to your lectures if I lived nearer, and if there is anything I can do to help your school, I am willing to do it. I think you are doing a wonderful job, and I would be much obliged if you could advise me regarding my diet.

I know that you have not a lot of time to answer letters. May His greatest Blessings be upon you always.

Miss W. N. Chitham, Leicester.

Could I please make another appointment for Healing for Mrs. Burton and myself? Mrs. Burton was suffering from leg trouble and an ulcer on her leg, but it is now healing wonderfully, and she is much better.

I too had a remarkable healing. It was the heart, thrombosis, and seven clots of blood came out the next day. I knew I was near to a stroke, and it has taken a whole month to feel better, but I am better indeed! My knees were better straightaway. I had cartilage trouble and fluid on the knee, and I have walked with a stiff leg for months, but now I can get up and down the stairs and am walking a lot better. I cannot tell you how grateful we are for the wonderful healing we received.

Mrs. J. H. Beasley, Lakewood, U.S.A.

Today I received the herb Clary and Nerve and Heart Pills, all in good order. Thank you very much. My friend acknowledged how much the Nerve and Anti-Obesity pills helped her and I had only given her a small sample of each. She is convinced they are what she wants, so please send her the order asked for. The results we in my family alone have gotten prove what herbs can do. We are so glad there are people like you to encourage us on and remind us to mend our ways.

The enclosed cheque is a donation in appreciation of all your efforts on our behalf.

The Sacrament of Fire

John Oxenham

*KNEEL always when you light a fire.
Kneel reverently, and thankful be,
For God's unfailing charity
And on the ascending flame inspire
A little prayer, that shall upbear.
The incense of your thankfulness
For this sweet grace
Of warmth and light!
For here again is sacrifice
For your delight.*

*WITHIN the wood,
That lived a joyous life
Through sunny days and rainy days
And winter storms and strife;—
Within the peat that drank the moorland peat
Of bracken, whin, and sweet bellheather
And all the joy of gold gorte feather
Flaming like love in wintriest weather,
While snug below, in sun and snow
Peat heard the beat of the padding feet
Of foal and dam, and ewe and lamb
And the stamp of old bell-weather;*

*WITHIN the coal
Where forest lie entombed,
Oak, elm, and chestnut, beech, and red pine bole,
God shrined His sunshine, and enwombed
For you these stores of light and heat,
Your life-joys to complete.
These all have died that you might live;
Yours now the high prerogative
To lose their long captivities,—
To give them new sweet span of life
And fresh activities.
Kneel always when you light a fire!
Kneel reverently,
And thankful be
To God for His unfailing Charity!*

IN your July Gazette, you told us that as one struggles with the Wisdom, raising up the frequency of the mind, and at the same time changes one's diet, to that of a strict vegetarian and fruitarian, which sensitizes the body, so the monthly period lessens in intensity.

Well, I wholeheartedly agree with you and I am sure that there must be many women other than myself who can speak with experience upon this matter. As since puberty, I suffered considerable pain and tension at these times, and as a young girl was invariably sent home from School. Nothing really relieved the pain, although I was subjected to different so-called cures, including laxatives, doses of aspirin and other pain-killing drugs, and exercise; in the end being told to grin and bear it.

The uterus used to swell so, that I could never wear slender fitting clothes at these times, and I used to dread it coming, apart from which the strain of pain on my face, used to make me look a hundred! and is the sort of expression one sees upon the faces of many women in one's daily life. Poor Eve, how our ignorance makes us suffer!

However, since struggling with the Wisdom over the past few years plus changing the diet to that recommended by you, being strict vegetarian and fruitarian, I have no trouble at all and get through a great deal of work on these days as upon any other. The uterus does not swell. The loss is hardly noticeable.

I don't think I would have believed it, if I did not speak from experience. I have no pain, I have no discomfort, I don't look a hundred! and it does grieve me when the medical profession will not listen to this Wisdom, and keep doling out pain-killing drugs to alleviate this common complaint, which only suppres-ses the problem by treating the effect and not the cause.

I can see now, why so many women have womb trouble at later stages in their lives, never having got their poor minds raised up, coupled with the untold damage the average diet, (consisting as it does of animal flesh and starch) brings to the body. It seems obvious to any deep-thinking person that the body only excretes that which is toxic to it, and therefore it must be realised that the flow of waste from the uterus during the monthly period is dependent upon the toxic waste formed in the body by wrong diet and mundane thinking.

I came to you several years ago and you taught me how to heal a severely damaged spine, which has now made a perfect recovery. I pray that I may go on helping you in my small way of service, by spreading the Glory of the Wisdom, which you, Beloved Merope through your life of utter self-sacrifice have given to mankind.

EGYPTIAN MYSTERIES

Creation Called Life Part 11

by Gladys I. Spearman-Cook

(Having realised in the last chapter that man by "dying" for a cause added unto the structure of the Macrocosmic Creation, let us from there seek of How and Why and to what End).

THE mysterious land of Amenta where the tree of golden Hathor grew, was rendered Puanta or Punt, which in Egyptian symbology indicates yellow or golden. This is a region south where you meet unknown waters; it is here that the lake dwellers live, those that will only build their houses in the swamps upon piles, and by means of ladders ascend night and day. Those who make expedition into these regions do so at their own risk. This indicates the emotional waters and refers to the region of the House of Cancer in Astrological symbology. But going right down south would be right down past the lowest Chakra into the lower loki, and can link with those of perverted emotional habits when allowed to drift into the negative.

A long expedition was once made through deserts of burning sand by Hannu under the orders of Queen Hatshepsut; when crossing the waters he was shipwrecked onto an island that turned out to be Puanta, the land of the Mazai tribes, which grew and became a land of gold on the summit of the world.

When he returned he brought back many gifts, tales of mystery and stories of nights alone in lonely places and sad memories. Ere he left he struck a tree which grew even under dire circumstances; and by so doing became the land of Iua, or gold land of Puanta. This is the summit of the world, the land of the golden lotus surrounded by the firmamental water; the land of the mind where the golden hawk abides, the child Horus. He standing within the necklace zone of the cestus.

Hannu being one who was delving into wisdom, was led astray by his feminine principle when she became as queen, and he fell back into the depths, but after much suffering reorientated himself and brought his wisdom forth for the good of others; thus it became the wealth of his seventh Chakra. As a man approaches the heights so he makes the span with the equivalent depths, but he must stay in the heights and view those depths without turning giddy and falling into them. This brought forth the child Horus who had the right to the royal adornment of the cestus.

The mother of Horus is the goddess Hathor who is a form of the earth mother and mistress of the mines of turquoise and gold. The mother who pours libations from the tree of wisdom. The mines where all this wealth comes from are known as the Babait, or the underground caverns of the treasures of the world. This is the generative depths where all wealth began and is traded all over the world, giving richness and life to matter and form. The female principle adorns herself with it and finds the way to gain expansion under its spell as Venus to rise up out of the waters and embrace Urania.

Primitive Egypt was heaven upon earth, where life was created royal, and golden beauty was the order of the day. Both Sun and man emulating one another as if in competition for the rights of the throne. The Heptanomis of Egypt consisted of seven minor oases, but the Great Oasis of Seven was a mysterious paradise where the "dead" went in search of peace and happiness. In man's own creation it was equalled in his world of seven Chakras and the firmament of mind; thus in either world, was the Isles of the Blessed.

The most important part of this land was the "fields of reeds," and all who laboured there lived on papyrus shoots. This represented the emotional waters, for this primeval food made the world a place of plenty midst a region of lakes.

DELUGE

MAN unconsciously going down deeper and deeper into the desires of life, becomes lost in the Equatorial waters; that brought forth from the unification of the heights into the depths. Yet a natural cause for the way of all creation, but that which man has to wrestle with and rise up above it by accepting, and assimilating, the higher cause and effect. (See text on page 12, col. 1).

To those who wandered forth into the arid wastes of burning sands, this would be looked upon as a paradise, the starting point and the land of the two eyes. It was a paradise where the soul could drink the waters of the sacred river, where all was in abundance now that all was being balanced by vision and not dragged down into the swamps.

This is the beginning of the equatorial regions of the world, but the deluge came because Woman, as the Matriarchate, became the wealth and could not expand, for she as Goddess Bast had been teaching the young souls to cohere the lunar atoms that a mind could be created, but the soul loved the beauty and held tightly to what it should have rendered to the bringing forth of the firmament and Solar manifestation. So Woman, as the Feminine Principle, failed to fulfill the orders of the water source, whereby it became unholy and caused overwhelming disaster.

Slowly the Goddess became lost as she too learnt to love through the flesh; then the first man soul as a male creation who was her slave, brought death into the world by disobeying the law of tabu. This resulted in the waters disappearing and a large toad found squatting by one of the pools. The drought had brought boneless creatures into birth: the legend declares "that" it was not known how it came into existence or how it came there, but it was believed that it came forth by some virtue of its own."

The Unfoldment

THE toad became the maker of the primal human pair that came forth in the shape of twins, Sut and Horus; the Zulu black and white twins in the bed of reeds. The first decrees of mind from knowledge administered but not capable of expanding. There-a mind. It was here the twins were born, but Egypt as the north celestial pole was the mountain summit; the mound of earth which man had been heaping up through the ages and upon which now he was planting a papyrus plant, or the lotus in those waters of immensity; this was the apex of the heavens.

In this Equatoria there was neither pole nor pole star fixed in that celestial north, but there were two pole stars visible upon the horizons North and South. These represented the starry heights that were now manifesting as the result of the soul creation. They were considered the two lions, the two pillars of the firmament by the Chinese, the "Heavens-Eye Mountain."

But eventually in the unfoldment and growth, these two became fixed in Equatoria and became the pair of jackals in the Kamite astronomical mythology, and the first of the two poles as pillars. The mind creation that demanded of the Lunar light more food or wisdom, thus they bayed and roared every time the scorpion came up from the waters, demanding the way to control him.

This in creation became representative of the two pillars of the mind that became separated in Cain and Abel, but had to be reborn in the children of Seth, or Egyptian Set or Sut. These became the inventors of astronomy in order that all would not be lost owing to the prediction that the world would be destroyed by fire. Thus the heavens became alight and manifested the wisdom required that posterity would be advised; this was both in the Firmament of the heavens and the firmament of the mind.

Duality of the Soul

SO the soul made the world of brick which became the solidification of the outer creation of the soul. This was created out of fear until the sensitivity, its twin brother, could be restored. But whatever they created now, the two pillars remained as the two-fold rock as the north and south poles. This as the stone became the station of Destiny, and has ever been with the soul from that day to this. Then Sut became as Shu and lifted up the heavens upon these two poles. The unfoldment of the mind through the activity of heaven and earth, which caused the Chakras to agitate and the mind began to lift up towards higher concerns.

These two poles as Sut and Horus are the gateway of the house of Ptah, but seen in Acts 3 v. 11 as "all running together into the porch called Solomon (son of the Sun) and greatly wondering"; this was after the lame man had been healed and they beheld Peter and John through the growing staunchness of the rock and perfection of the husbandman.

Therefore the creation was for the support of two that the manes were given assistance as the lame men; the personalities helped and lifted up that the growing mind could expand. The Solar light began to percolate and manifest unseen creations that had not yet revealed themselves.

The story attached to this is of two golden lilies that were left behind as a memento of the beauty gained while in plenty, for these two had to go forth and get wisdom after the
