FOMALHAUT

The Mystery Constellation of Aquarius

by Gladys I. Spearman-Cook *

AS THE DANCING LIGHTS OF the heavens came forth, the wonders of Vega were born, with beauties rich and unseen by man, who had lost the touch of Samarkand. Glories that belonged to the greater mind, with truths that once held great sway, now the long lost fancies of the mind; wealth that never came to stay. Yet here they were once again, brought forth by the LOVE of Merope. A magnitude that no man could now deny, for its evidence was making its glory radiant right across the sky. All was changed, the world was new; life was taking on a different stance, with souls awakening and seeking expansion, even if through ways unknown. For Neptune had crept in everywhere, opening up his plane of expression, trying to expound to one and all, of glories never born. With Vega, the wonder of the Age unfolding glories only too evident, as the royal issue of the mind. For here was the Age of Relativity, when what had been had come again, but now by unification, where yesterday's roots became the blossoming tree, that could unfold the glory of LIGHT. Thereby reveal many wonders from which man was born, which now were demanding their mortuary meal, that they could return back to the heights.

Rising of the Sonship

GLORIES that were stolen from the mighty heavens, dynamic portions of Power; Elements radiant with unseen glory, the width and depth of things to be, the wonders of divinity. Glories that man would seek to deny, out of fear through inborn religious dogma, yet the mighty wealth that flows down from the inner fiery-born MAN, down to the mouth of the Fish. The spoken Word of the priest and pioneer, who carries the truth far and wide to fulfill the Great Work of the Mighty Divinity, the glory of the Cosmic Evolution. Hence here we come to the mighty depths of Wisdom, which have never truly been expounded; wealth that has remained hidden under the ruling of religious belief, when really its depths lie deep down in the depths of TIME; far back in the ancient glories when elements were being imbibed. The time when differentiation was creating soul, and bringing him forth from the element of the lunar, into the glory of the Solar. Yet a mighty wonder that man never accepted, and turned downwards into the lunar Waters, losing all the wonders that could have come into birth, raising the god up to greater glory.

THE GLORY OF FOMALHAUT

WOMAN seeking for the perceptory principle, by grasping the wisdom in the mouth of the fish; that she can rise up over her super-luminary bridge, into the mighty heavens above. There to unify heights and depths, ever in a state of knowing, that the glories of the Fatherhood can come forth as the way of ever becoming. (See text on page 3, col. 4).

THE MYSTERY OF SOUND OR SPOKEN WORD

The "Flying Saucer" Myth

A GAIN there have been comments made by the Daily Newspapers relating to the Flying Saucers. The "Daily Mail" of 23.10.1967, referring to the instance of an unidentified flying object being sighted over North Devon, states:—"It was bright, and star-spangled, just as though one was looking at a bright light through wet glass." These statements are accurate, but man's conception of what he is seeing is erroneous. These are Element Powers coming from Planes, and not planets as man believes. Man sees everything from his visualisation on the maelstrom, or the "Hall of Mirrors" of the Earth.

THERE IS ONLY ONE PLANE OF SOLID MATTER AND THAT IS EARTH.

THESSE so-called "Flying Saucers" are Powers coming from these Planes which have been given mind-creation, as man understands creation, by what man has sent back to them in return for the Atoms he has received; for man is fed by the "Breath" according to how he can absorb it. These Elements, or Powers, in coming down to the Earth to make contact with those who have taken of these Atoms,—by their minds awakening as they enter onto the Earth zone,—can take on of the nitrogenic effluvia of the Earth and build up a form. These have been seen by the "Beatles" as Transcendental Inflow, through their creative vibrations, but they need wisdom as well.

THE CHANNEL OF INFLOW IS FROM THE SCHOOL OF UNIVERSAL PHILOSOPHY ON THE UPPER PLANES OF THE CENTRAL SUN, AND THE SCHOOL OF UNIVERSAL PHILOSOPHY IN THE DEPTHS. THIS IS WITNESSED BY THE POWER IN THIS SCHOOL.

These Powers, as Spirit Power, have the power of entering into a soul who has taken of these Atoms, and the soul feels rejuvenated and reborn like a god; hence a mighty change takes over, as seen by the changed "Beatles," and the powers afforded unto our Prime Minister, who has a mighty job to do in getting the World straight. These Powers are now flooding the Earth in abundance, as seen by the renewed Oxygen, and are rejuvenating the atoms in the brain cells of mankind.

The Central Sun, now radiating with dynamic Blood-life to the Earth, is the raised-up Christ Divinity that man would put upon a cross as 'crucified' in the wrong sense of the word, and is the Master of the Flying Saucers. Thus the Instrument used by Him is the Terrestrial Christ, the Earth reflection.

THIS MAY SOUND FANTASTIC, BUT ALL THE CHANGES OF THE EARTH ARE DUE TO THIS. THERE ARE MORE TO COME, AND THEN RE-BIRTH FOR THE MAN WHO HAS THE COURAGE TO ACCEPT AND LIVE AS A GOD. FOR THESE ATOMIC POWERS OF OUTER SPACE ARE LIFE-BLOOD TO MAN.

The "Fiery Cross" seen in the Heavens by the authorities, was earthed in the School of Universal Philosophy and Healing, through the mediumship of Mrs. Gladys Spearman-Cook, between 7.30 and 8.30 p.m. precisely, on the evening of Wednesday the 25th October, 1967. This was when the first Inflow of the Atomic Fire infused the Earth with its mighty rebirth.

The Changing World

AS we continue with our work, we do see small incidents taking place in the World at large, which are to us strong evidence of the changing status of the Earth and its surrounding atmosphere. We have already stated that there will be many tragedies taking place as far as air travel is concerned, due to these changing vibrations of the atmosphere, and we now read that a jet plane has mysteriously blown up, with the blame being put upon the atmospheric pressure it was subjected to, at a certain height. So what do those concerned do to remedy this? They order the 'planes to be flown 6,000 feet lower, where the pressure is less intense; not realising that as Merope keeps bringing expansion and raising the vibrational frequency of the Earth, so will the atmosphere be continually charged with a greater intensity of the Hydrogen-Ethers, or pure Oxygen as the scientists would call it, and so ever bring a greater pressure to bear upon any such mechanical creation that ventures into the skies.

Man will not listen to the Truth, therefore he will be forced into change; he will not see that it is the arielised mind that he must bring into birth, not flying around in these contraptions; so what better way to put this situation right than by ever raising the frequency of the Earthplane and forcing these 'planes to fly lower and lower, until at last, they find themselves back upon the ground! This is how Merope works, unseen and unsung, yet bringing dynamic changes to the world, that eventually all will be working only upon the Mind Plane, with all mechanical creations just a memory of the past.

We also see that the Americans are drastically cutting down their budget where the Moon is concerned. Now they say they will not attempt to land a man upon its mysterious surface until at least 1970. A very strange thing, I feel, as they were claiming to be doing so well as far as the Moon was concerned; even going so far as to claim to have brought back some of its soil.

Then why the sudden drop in enthusiasm for the project;—there is only one answer, they have at last discovered that there is nothing there! Now they are trying the same experiments upon Venus, but I am afraid they will still receive the same results.

There is nothing solid in the heavens; all is a reflection upon the maelstrom belt, the illusion of the "Hall of Mirrors." Oh yes, we agree that the scientists are not saying anything yet, but they cannot pluck up the courage to tell the world that all their pet theories upon the universe have just been a lot of twaddle. However, they will not be able to hide this fact for very long, and then they can retire, most speedily, to the scrap-heap on which they most deservedly belong!

THIS IS WHERE A SOUL MUST HAVE COMPLETE FAITH AND BELIEF IN THE UNSEEN WORLD OF SPIRIT; NOT JUST A CASE OF, "WELL, IT COULD BE, BUT I'LL WAIT AND SEE." THAT IS NO GOOD, THAT IS ONLY THE ATTITUDE OF A SOUL WHO IS SEEING THE PHYSICAL WORLD OF FORM AS JUST AS IMPORTANT, AND MAYBE MORE SO, THAN THE WORLD OF SPIRIT.

UNLESS A SOUL RECOGNISES THE FORMLESS PLANES OF SPIRIT AS THE REALITY, AND THE PHYSICAL WORLD AS COMPLETE ILLUSION, THEN IT IS ENTANGLING ITSELF MORE AND MORE IN THE WEB OF THE DEPTHS, AND CUTTING ITSELF OFF FROM RE-

CEIVING THE SUSTENANCE FROM THE HEIGHTS.

If this attitude is persisted in now, it will result in a state of inertia and so-called pernicious anaemia; the soul without the Heavenly Fire to sustain it, as it recharges the body with its electrical life.

We must realise that the whole structure of the elements is being changed and intensified around us; the element of Saturn has been turned-in and its higher expression of Vulcan has taken its place. This is the great electrical Fire of the Heights that became born into the depths as Merope brought all elements to a unification, that they now can penetrate the depths as a dynamic Oneness of Atomic Fire. This is the whole purpose of our returning to the Earth, that we can master the elements, and in so doing do we give rebirth within ourselves, and start to build up our garment of Light.

It is only upon the Earth that man can make growth, unless while in the Spirit planes he can find an instrument he can become attached to, but that is a very hard way of doing it, for how many are seeking seriously enough into the wisdom, whereby another soul could work through them? Man comes back to the Earth to learn, to grow, but it is ever by mastery of the elements.

Although Merope has unified the elements cosmically, man must still bring them to a oneness within his own mind, whereby they will vibrate in harmony upon the seven-stringed harp of Vega, as a unified isotope of Atomic Glory. As we continually unify those elements do we give birth to the mind, the light born out of the internal fusion.

A time will come when, through the struggles of Merope, all will return to the Pube state once again; as gods once again, but this time with mind growth, where all will be moving on to the next world of creation, the plane of pure Consciousness, that of divine belief and understanding.

MAN will do this as he makes the journey through his mind, into the world of Outer Space, for it is only by capturing the polarity of those heights from what has been in the past, that this divine understanding will grow within him, but his body MUST be sensitised. This is again where the diet will play such an important part, for if the blood is clogged with waste there will never be the fiery unification with those spiritual heights.

Man must realise that he is fed from the etheric body, the protoplasmic substance of the blood, where by building up the Fire in the metabolism of the liver, he becomes filled and fed by the Fire of the Spirit.

Drugs destroy the Fire, as do all false food creations; if a soul takes drugs they force into the inner bodies creations that slowly destroy them, and they merely become as blank creations. When man can realise that his mind is far more important than his flesh, when he can cut away the states of the beast, then he will begin to make that Path of Ascension. It will only be by him pouring oil upon the Altar of Sacrifice that he will become a part of the mind world of Vega and draw in of the Royal Atomic Fire.

THIS IS MORE IMPORTANT NOW THAN IT HAS EVER BEEN, FOR THE FIRE IS THE LIVING CREATION OF THE SPIRIT, AND EITHER MAN BECOMES BORN OF IT, AS A GOD-BORN SOUL, OR HE WILL RETURN, AT THE END OF THIS LIFE-SPAN, MERELY AS MINDLESS ATOMS INTO THE SOURCE FROM WHENCE HE CAME.

Thus he had to begin to create through a lunar uprising, slowly transmuted the Fire inwardly created as a Dharmic accumulation. Pulling the soul out of the Cancer Waters, where WOMAN had sunk so deeply into the depths of the mire. What should have been the glory of the spirit and became the depths of earth darkness, became a mighty hard trudge, until some leeway was gained from this foolhardy action of the risen sonship.

Therefore it was a long time before man was able to gather up the FIVE, to rise up from the sixth to the seventh, in the intercalary expansion of mind-rise. When he did, he slowly began to wind the thread that he had let snap, having to find the way to repair, and start revolving it once again.

This was created by the Heroes right down the Ages, with Odysseus as the greatest, going up to the realms of Polyphemus; but never substantiating the round by treading it into the earth; therefore left as a mystery unsolved. Then through the established beliefs of Moses and the raised-up Arc of David, the idea of reforming the mysteries became a hidden secret. Then the world became full of Alchemists, trying to find the nugget of gold at the foot of the Rainbow, with witches, sorcerers, magicians and societies, who began to inundate the land, with prophets trying to raise up the Race and bring forth the glory of the spirit.

The raising up of the Fire that would bring the mind into birth, though understood mostly as the adoration to a God-head, where the unseen Deity was coming into birth, under the ritual of priesthood. But nothing more than a state of secular contrition, a sect taking over the souls of the people, ignomastic suppression.

Then as Pisces, the Equinox of the Fishes made its debut in the world of Evolution, a change came into birth, as the promised Configuration drew nigh. A World Teacher who would save all, by bringing a new status into birth; what exactly nobody really knew, except that the Prophets had been struggling for freedom, against impending doom of slavery. With infidels stealing the Fire that these souls were bringing into birth, causing chaos and misery everywhere.

It was through this that in Pisces the papal bishops of Rome started bringing the MAN into birth, the Christ within the soul, from Leo the fiery element of rebirth. A world under the Caesars, a chaos of solid darkness, deep down in the darkness of the pit, when Karma and fixidity of untold quantity was established to the full. But now a world falling back onto its heel, through the righteous pomp and religious dogma that created a false idea of what had come into birth.

Here was orthodoxy and convention of the worst type, with the Solar glory as the Christos eventually being hung up on a cross, to fire the righteous into sympathetic action. Consequently no Fire came down from the heights to feed man, and it became the fallen Word. For man had lived in the desires he had set into motion, instead of the glories of the spirit; hence what should have risen up from those fiery depths as the divinity of the mind, went down South as the hoary passions of the circus of animals, driving the ass before them. Hence Aquarius never brought forth the hopes and wishes of the soul, with the VASE never being created, leaving the soul high and dry, and the mighty Embodiment upon a wooden cross, with dogma and ritual flourishing.

fires bring Uranus into action, while in the twelfth it is that which the eleventh applies, as Neptunian inundation.

This is where the soul has to take the Woman as Andromeda chained, into his bed of rebirth, with her ever crying out to be saved, that she can go back up to the higher Law, to her Father's Bed of Light. Sibyl Tibertine now making the Emperor bow the knee unto her, as she takes on the state of the Virgin with her child.

The mighty glory coming forth as the radiant beauty of the soul that feeds the Word, now waiting to give forth the glory which will lift up the Warrior in the First. This is where Cain now becomes Abel's lamb, that comes forth after the struggle and sacrifice, through the living Waters now the glory of the soul. The seminal waters that are the Solar glory, which bring new life to the soul and reborn glory to the mind.

THE RISEN ARC

THE mighty glory of divinity rose up, all alight and radiant with fulness, that the heavenly one could receive the mighty wealth that the soul had gathered under its struggles. Thus the heavens reburnished, with the aspiration now going up, and mighty magnificence to replenish the depths. (See text in col. 5 and on page 7, col. 3).

But when wisdom is taken and raised up to the heights, the Word becomes fired by Uranus, to a certain degree of expansion. Thereby bringing sensitivity to the soul, with Chakras and glands dancing and revolving with life, unfolding the wonders to come forth.

With the raised up testes behind the nose coming duly into action, unfolding the mighty gift of life, the cherished desire of the Mystic, that of the Perceptory Awareness. By inundation taking place, the Sinus becomes into thrombosis; for this was the organ that received the outcome of the damage done to the soul in the Fall. That which the soul had taken and not honoured, for the fifth house is the house of ancient glory that became Karma, the intercalary of the YOD of God. Where the Word merely accrued in multiplicity and became the unfolded length of the Band, with one going up to the heights, and the other down into the depths of the South.

THESE BECOMING THE MIGHTY WATERS OF TRUTH AND DESTRUCTION, INSTEAD OF THE GLORIES OF THE WORD. THE SPAWNING GROUND OF THE MIGHTY GOLDEN FISH, THAT BRINGS THE SOUL BACK HOME TO DIVINITY.

For it is by these Waters pouring down from Aquarius to Pisces, that it is determined what is allotted to the soul. Either the Golden Point that brings the dream divine, or karma accruing in abundance. With the first striking in the eighth, where the generative

Instead of going up onto the winged Passions, all fell back into the labyrinth, and Woman became badly raped by man. This is where Vega was forced off the Pole, and Fomalhaut forced down into the hoary South; but now Merope has pulled all back onto the path once again, from the inundation that the World was forced into.

This now becoming the Vega Cycle of the mind, after the truth was revealed, for both minds are now as the Androgynous Seed, ready for all to go forth. But man is so wrapped up in his own self-importance, he now fails to see the damage he has done; for man's mouth is now closed, not being able to find the true opening of the mouth, he being lost to the wisdom of becoming.

For the opening of the mouth of the mighty Fish, as the golden glory of the Word, is at the end of the heavenly Stream, which should have received an inexhaustible supply from those mighty heights. For the soul was a god, and was still connected with the heavens, and would have drawn his unfolding wealth from out of the mighty Outer Space.

Unfoldment of the Mighty Intelligencia

FOMALHAUT is a mighty Star of enormous magnitude, situated in Aquarius the Water-bearer, as the eye of the Fish, where the Stream of spirit glory is swallowed up, and becomes the golden atomic point of the mind. While Aquarius is a dynamic sign that brings forth the Man, the internal glory of the soul. It carries this mighty wealth in the first decanate of Piscis Australis, the wealth of the Southern Fish.

The old Hebrew and Arabic states now risen up and fructified through the pourer forth of the water, whereby HE as the divine glory as Spirit now made flesh, becomes the cup-bearer for the soul. Aries now the mighty pioneer for truth, as the unification in the intercalary of the Bull, brings forth the new-born life in the Seed. Thereby setting the Wheels and Chakras revolving, with Pegasus following-in as the winged horse; the risen up glory of the Ariel mind.

Wonders only known to the wise and fruitful, those seeking of the heavenly wisdom. Those embracing the new-born Christ, as the involved in Heaven and Earth uniting. Glories that man has never yet perceived, and merely grovelled in the depths; but now with Uranus driving the issue, man will awaken and seek for the heritage of the gods.

Fomalhaut, the mighty Eye of the Fish, is the perceptory principle that comes into birth, which registers the super-luminary bridge. That of the Isotope which can bridge the gap between the Worlds of Reality and illusion. Therefore (See the Front Page plate) when man takes wisdom and falls badly into the lower desires, it is the Fall ever being repeated, with the gods having to be cleaned up, as unto Sodom and Gomorrah and Ninevah. With Lanka, the cunning of the mind, that has to do the striking, setting the whole city alight.

All this being represented in the Pyramid, which indicates the soul being pulled back to its pinnacle point. For Woman, the Matriarchate period of the gods, had forsaken all for physical LOVE, and abandoned the glory of the spirit. Hence became badly hampered and pushed down into a Polyphemus.

That which Jack had to recapture, even though there be a famine down in the depths of Egypt. For it is in the intercalary of the Yod that man produces the soul, born with the right to the "J" as a name, which extends from Joseph to Jesus. This representing the Yod of rebirth, where the harp and the goose that lays the Golden Egg, become the glory of Vega, the wealth of the mind recaptured into a Golden stream of light. But only when Polyphemus as the giant is buried in, and the Warrior comes into birth. For as the wealth was taken, he only becomes as the cow, but when as the mighty plowing bull, will he recapture the Word, and become born of the glorious Mind Plane of Vega.

Then with his Gemini all alight, will he be able to dart up to the heights and draw down fresh wealth from those unseen heights; not that which man is seeking, but the glories of the heavens. But with him ever to learn that the Supersonic Stream of Outer World Space perception, could only come into birth through the might of super-will.

The super-driving effort of will, to capture Outer World Space, thus bringing the Master Powers of the Christos. The Holy Seed of divinity, spermated by the Christos Master of Light, and fructified by Merope, giving all souls the possibility of the Seed of Christos light.

Man now as the Aries pioneer, ventures forth to bring into birth within their being the Great Master glory of the Age, the mighty Intelligencia of Being. The accredited wisdom that will raise man up out of the darkness of death; while gradually through the Aquarian Age will He manifest in a greater and stronger status, unfolding the glory of life.

For He is the Solar Glory of the Age, the iridescent ripeness of Divinity. It only being by the magnitude of the chromosomes, that he will bridge the devastation that man has got to blend up within himself as a reborn Christos Man. That which he had, as a fallen god, thrown down the pit of his own desires, leaving himself blank and derelict.

Now it is only by the raising up of the Christos glory in the chromosome unfolding, that the soul with aspiration rising high, will reburnish the heavenly glory and re-tap the wealth from the starry heights. It can only be by this that the wealth is drawn down to the depths and set into motion by the present pioneers. Thus, to ever be remembered that it is by such we start the papal paupery as the mile-stone of the Vega ascension.

Therefore it will only be by the chromatic bodies that the Configuratory elements will now prosper, which are the Essenes of the inner conscious awareness beginning to change their structure of the mighty Universe. For all now is being pitch-blended by Fire and spirit uniting; these being opposite poles, and is the WORD made flesh. By this it can be deducted of how Fomalhaut, which is the ONENESS of all things, is the chromatic point of the transubstantiation of the religious stupidity.

THAT WHICH HAS INFUSED THE WATERS OF MAN WITH THE MOON NOTION OF THEIR IDEA OF THE CHRISTED MAN, AND WAS ONLY A LUNAR REBIRTH.

Then as soon as they find they cannot do this, the scientists will turn their minds to Vega and Fomalhaut, the elevated Mars and Venus. While the blending up of Fomalhaut and Vega, will bring the healing of man, in the blending up of his bodies.

Here we see the unrestricted practice of the mind, whereby man will add unto the Stream that Merope has brought into birth. Hence it is the duty of every risen up soul to perceive and add unto, that the heavens can become more burnished. For the MAN is the Christ Divinity built up by man himself, in that intercalary of electrified dancing Yod. He who will feed man through the Waters set moving by the Scapegoat, thus bring Fish into the Southern Waters of the soul, which when risen up as mind creation, becomes the activation of the uvula.

The Isotope glory of the Godhead, the magnitude of the Arc, the pot of gold that vanishes into the heavens, and burnishes the Arc as the reflection in man's mind. All brought to Timelessness as divine consciousness, that of Aladdin's lamp. While TIME is the ever widening duality of mind, in its unifying, Fomalhaut is brought to Timelessness.

Thereby man intensifying the depths of the Stream, in God being made known to man, through man perceiving Him in his own waters becoming mind. It was here that Merope realised the intensity of this wisdom, for it is in the eleventh house that man awakens, through the Spirit rising uppermost, whereby he seeks to render service, to start his path of retrieve. This he does, whether to the Gods as a Scapegoat, or to man to help him find his feet; thus start to make his way back HOME to the heavenly heights.

To the awakened man this is heaven and freedom; to the man who is still in the grip of the beast, restriction and purgatory. For man only knows the value of mind when the spirit begins to rise, and the beast is buried in; thus is the great fight, the mastery of the lower desires, which many classify as being the necessity of life; when in reality they are the chains that bind and cut into the flesh, bringing the hell which many are struggling with, and seeking to discard.

It is only when the soul becomes an "addict" that they truly know hell, and Aquarius is the Age of either freedom or hell, the reborn glory of the Seed. For there is no half-measure now, it being the Age of polarity, where man is going to stand face to face with all that he has created. But by turning to the glory of the Spirit, can transmute what has been, into the heavenly beauty of mind awareness.

mysterious SEED of the Godhead, brought to a mitotic unity. With Fomalhaut as the god's mitotic seed as the spirit, lost in the depths of the Neptunian waters, while the ascension to the heights being the rising up of Relativity to Vega. The gyroscopic rise of the mind upwards through the changing of man's mind: this he does by conquering the Fire of the Elements, and making them the radiance of his mind.

The three lower Chakras risen up to the Godhead as three-in-one, the etheric temple in the heights. Yet only through the glory in the eleventh can this be done, for Aquarius is the risen MAN feeding the twelfth with realisation, and opening up the gods to light. For only by this can reality come to Aries in the mystery of the first: this alone explaining Cepheus the king, going up and becoming absorbed into the heights, and the soul rising up in mind comprehension, awakening of the spirit.

HERE IS HOW WE SEE THE STAR PICTURES ARE COMING INTO BIRTH, FOR MEROPE AS THE SCAPEGOAT HAVING RISEN UP VEGA TO HER RIGHTFUL PLACE AS THE POLE STAR, FOMALHAUT IS NOW PLACED BACK ONTO THE ECLIP-TIC.

WOMAN AND HER HIDDEN DIVINITY

WHAT mysteries does this world behold, yet the glories that have ever been; mighty wonders of the divine Unseen, waiting to blossom forth in the radiance of her glory to yet come forth. WOMAN! WOMAN! awaken out of thy dense sleep of avidya and bring forth of thy mighty mystery. (See text in col. 3).

For Fomalhaut is now being pulled back to the heights as the heights and depths now uniting as the glories of the heavens, the radiant glory of the Intelligencia. That which will, in the demonstration of the World Broadcast, bring those who are ripe and ready, back into the fold. Therefore, as the All seeing EYE of the Word, now the depths of the meninges becoming as the twelve gods of the chart mastered. Finally becoming as the Christos brilliance of the Vega Star.

Therefore bringing into birth the winging mind, as Pegasus the winging horse. That of the winging spirit to become the glory of Cygnus the royal swan. Hence Fomalhaut is the Virgin depths of the Holy Fire; that which is ever being re-fired by the Stream of the Christos, the mighty Waterpot of the growing Water-bearer. That which is either held by Saturn or fired by Uranus, bringing the electrified soul into birth.

Yet here, all the time, is Outer World Space being absorbed into the depths, that WOMAN can become united with the Fatherhood once again, and the wholeness of BEING being completed, for the Greater Part of the WORK is now about to begin.

Therefore the purpose of all, is to bring out the glory of WOMAN, seen in Cassiopeia enthroned; the emancipation of woman in the depths. For in being enthroned, in the son going up to the father in the heights, she slowly comes back into her own, the glory of rebirth and divinity. Therefore the ever bringing forth of the feminine principle, yet ever in a state of timelessness.

For the deeper the Seed the nearer the soul has relationship with Outer World Space; for as she becomes unified with those heights, will she take the lead, and as the Virgin probe into the glories of the heavenly wonders. So it is the lower Law being made to honour WOMAN, that she can get back into HIS DIVINITY, and be embraced by HIM. WOMAN being born out of the Waters, for the Outer World Space is the glory of was the Sage and Priest of the soul-unfoldment guiding the soul onto the greater path in light.

So Merope retired into the heights of her Rose-pink Bower in the uppermost wonders of the Castle Glorious, and there sought of her beloved Master, the Great Flame, for yet greater guidance upon these matters of unity.

As she looked upwards, she felt herself drawn up into the Great Vega VOID, the immensity of the unseen Depths, with the Starry glory drawing her upwards and onwards, into its uncreated Divinity. As she drew nearer and nearer to its mighty embrace, she felt and perceived the electrical glory of the stirring Elements, but, HOW, WHY and WHEREFORE, she had yet to behold.

So as she entered this mighty vortex, her heart and will went out to those heavenly heights, that she could be guided in these matters. For all around her was quickening with a fiery pulsation, that as it intensified, almost became impossible to hold. Then far up into those heights, electrical shafts of light seemed to be striking at one another, as though trying to get some inter-blending. As the pace of agitation quickened, shafts of light as streaks of Flame, were breaking through the Vortex, going as it seemed down and down into the depths below.

With the atmosphere now becoming so intense that Merope, lost for the moment, almost over-balanced. Then as though there was a breaking through in true earnest, rolling vibrations, dancing and inter-blending one with another, began making their way down into the depths. Rolling in tier after tier down from those heights, with a rumbling and rolling, silent yet impressive, far beyond the understanding of man.

Yet all the time using Merope as the pinnacle point of induction; for they surged and swirled around her, flowing down from off her feet into the depths below.

(See diagram in col. 5)

A swirling glory of unknown quantity, but the purpose and Divinity as believed by Merope. For was she not seeking into the glories of Outer Space as unto its dynamic wonders! Was she not the Scapegoat who brought such magnitude into birth; hence according to her belief, her Love for mankind, would such glories come forth! Thus as these Waters drove down in their rolling glory, the whole of her being was electrically charged, and at such a rate as to light up every tissue and chromosome with the glory of its being.

It was as if every Element was infused with a magnitude of Divine Fire, that in its mighty depths was of a glory that was impossible to correlate, for it belonged to the heart only. Merope knew as it surged round and through her, it was the mighty Yod of the Holy Divinity, filled with all the glory that she had sent up to those Heavenly Beings.

For as the Great Divinity sent forth His Divine Glory, His magnitude of Holy Fire, it was in accordance with the Creation that man would bring into being, for such was equalled with its like. Merope's was LOVE that could never die, for her heart was with Woman. While the son who was prepared to serve the Great Divinity, the mighty Glorious FLAME, was also of her heart-beat, with untold pity for those who had not yet awakened.

Then as Merope reached up her hands to that Great Source of Life, she knew that it was her Stream that was being filled with this Holy Glory, and was the first dynamic Protrusion of Transubstantiation. Then as though the Great One had heard and received of her mighty aspiration, a glorious magenta rolling magnitude surged from heights to depths.

To some, this would merely be as Fireballs driving down with the Storm; to others a complete mystery, while others would be snoring in their beds, sleeping off the orgy of the night before. Then as the mystical glory of that Prismic Beauty slowly waned into peace and silence, Merope found herself back in that Rose-pink Bower, peering into those dark and vanished depths.

As she did so, she heard one questioning in the depths, as to what it was all about; and Merope sent forth, and was advised, "Seek of that woman in the depths, for she should know; although she declares not; she can help you, since all is in aid of her unborn glory."

As Merope sought her, from the inner depths of her kitchen a woman, well proportioned and heavy with internal OS wealth, came ambling out to an equally balanced male, wagging her unkempt head as she came. Merope knew, as this one came forth, that she had not been stirred to find that which was ripe and true; for it was the old mother in the depths that had yet to be penetrated with this heavenly glory to stir her unborn magnetic wealth. That which man needed, to unify and raise up his mind to those heights above.

For here were the roots of Cancer yet to be extracted; thus it needed more and more aspiration from Merope and those assisting her, that the next great Infusion would be of a greater intensity, surging right through to those very depths. With the wealth from chained-up Andromeda now being released, as the unfulfilled chromosomes that have chained her to the depths. This being of the lost Fount of Merope, now as the reborn depths of the conscious mind, as Andromeda is released.

Blue-Print of the Ages

THE EYE of the Fish in those Waters, the glory of the WORD, is the fontanelle where man now emerges back up through his etheric body, and lives on the new-born Spirit Plane of VEGA. While Andromeda, the chained Venus as the depths of Neptune, the Merope Feminine Principle, is now released and becomes the Queen of the Heavens, and now known as the Royal Feminine Principle of the heights. Yet the personification of the Divine nucleolus of the god-head, the homogeneous divine beauty of the holy Spiritual essence; thus Merope's isotope Canopic Jar, the Vega World Essence of Perfection.

The blue-print that will live for Ages, leading man on to greater wisdom. Thus the Brahmic Thread is the drop from Vega into the depths, which has been the slow deterioration of the Seed from the once glorious god-state. And is that which holds the soul suspended out in the depths, until it awakens from that darkness in a way of retrieve. For in Fomalhaut having fallen out of the ecliptic belt, it brought darkness to all mankind, but by Merope placing Vega back as the North Pole, it can be seen how she has brought Fomalhaut forth as the Holy Seed of the Gods.

For it was the Fall to sensation of sexual desire which caused man to solidify, with him turning the dance of Le Ros divine Altar worship, into a dance of worship to a human animal godhead. Thus became the sacrificial altar ritual to the animal, bringing forth the raping of divinity, for the WORD was fouled, and man delighted in the erroneous glory of Divine LOVE.

So as Merope sat and pondered on this new Plane of the mind, she knew that Fomalhaut must be raised up sensitivity of the Solar Stream which, as man attunes himself to it, will bring the Voice of the Great Divinity speaking through his son. For this is the Christos brilliance that brings forth the glory of the Dove, and carries the soul up to Planes unknown, to the inner Sanctuary of the Temple of LOVE.

(See text in col. 3)

Here the soul is anointed by the Waters of Life, and the Flame of the Sacred Heart. But while there in this inner Sanctuary, Merope saw a woman clothed in ethereal garments of gold, holding up before her a crystal chalice, tinged with the mighty radiance of blue. As she held it aloft, from its internal depths poured forth a mighty intensity of Fire.

The royal Flame of LOVE, which as it came forth, filled the whole of the room with its brilliance. While in the centre of the Flame there appeared a blue fish, tinged with gold, and with a VOICE speaking forth from out of the Flame, it said unto Merope:—

"Behold now the mystery of the Fish, the glorious Element of Neptune. That which descends to the depths as the Royal Word of God; the ever moving consciousness of the Divinity. That which is born into the Waters of Life, and yet the great mystery of Woman."

The Great Mother of Life nurturing her sons in the depths into the glories of rebirth. For here are the depths of Pisces being revealed, it being the house of the divine transubstantiation of Woman.

The mighty house of mystery, where the Occult depths of life either become as the unified glories of Neptune, or the limitations of the mind, that are ever held to the personal states of the earth."

THE ELECTRIFIED MIND

AS the divine glory poured into his eternal being, the heavenly radiance shone forth from his auric beauty, as he was electrically risen up from the depths. Every chromosome united into one in the mighty magnificence of his pituitary. (See the Front Page text and on page 15, col. 1).

This being the legend of Merope, the mystical story of Woman, she ever having been the sperming Bull to the heights. For she is the creative Feminine Principle that became lost in the Taurean desires, preventing her making unity with her LORD. All this was due to the inflowing Fires only being of a Sisyphus state, the cunning of the mind of man, who was using all for self, and not for the glories and expansion of the Spirit. Therefore all remained as Andromeda, with the divine marriage within the soul never taking place. That which would have brought Woman back to the unity with her Divine Spouse, as the enthroned glory of the mind.

Poor Merope as WOMAN caught in the Web of man, as he fell into the depths of desire. It was not until she as the individual consciousness was able to raise her Lord up by mind belief, and seek to tread it into the depths, that the way was made for Merope to make her divine Ascension.

Now as the Feminine Principle she is known as the Queen of the Heights, with the completed Isotope as the electrified accomplishment, that of the Christos light. Thereby breaking the Supersonic barrier, with the mind that has penetrated the whole of the Astral Planes with the Christos Wisdom. Thus as the "MAN" mastering the World of Vega, as the mighty Plane of the mind. Thereby bringing down to that Plane the dynamic wealth of Outer Space, completely mastering the EL powers of the depths, unifying them with the EL Powers of the heights. Hence unifying with Merope's accepted wealth born from the heights being earthed as an isotope. Oneness once again the glory and divine wonder of Vega, for

(See diagram in col. 1)

Fomalhaut is the clarity of the Word, as the inner perception through Timelessness.

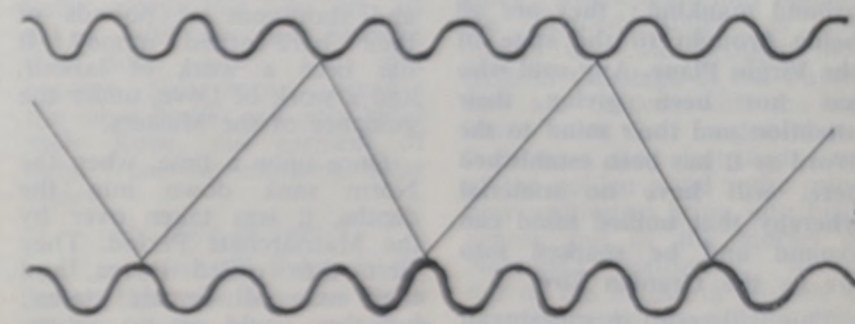

Cancer in the OS glory giving up its wealth to the wonders of the heights, causing the mind to shine with the wonders of unfolded delight.

Therefore Fomalhaut as Piscis Australis gives to the Aurora Borealis the electrified glory gained by the soul, so that every breath would now be radiating with light in the redeemed glories of the depths. "Although I be as Scarlet, I shall become whiter than snow," by internally being fed by the revolving infinity bringing more and more up from the depths, and greater and greater down from the heights.

Hence the Waterpot would ever be filled from the Aurora

Borealis extracting the wealth out of the bones, from past and present Ages; the lost states of Achernar, through the way of Piscis Australis. For out of evil ever comes good, when the soul seeks the way of divinity. The diamonds of Sinbad in the pit of the snake, with the Roc bird as the mighty Griphon ever seeking the wealth that it is guarding.

So would be the wrestle between Saturn and Jupiter; that Uranus can bring the Winging Horse, the dancing glory of the mind. The ever transmuting of Saturn into Solar light, the unfolding of the Christos glory. Hence the mighty answer that Edipus missed, and left the Race with a curse.

The answer being in raising the eyes up to the heavens, and seeking the blessing of the Great Flame to help the soul mount the stile, and take every field with confidence. For Merope has taken every Gate, and left a clear unimpeded way for every soul to travel. With Fomalhaut as her mighty Stream, filled with all the LOVE of a Christos soul, the mighty secret of Regulus, the glory of the Sacred Heart. The burning up of the Southern Cross, the mighty hell that the soul has been carrying.

It being the orient wealth of the great Cecrops, the combined wealth of Sagittarius and Cancer, that can bring mighty depths into birth from the Unseen heights. One is wisdom, the other is the undying spirit ascension which became blended up as the profusion of the magnetic and atomic, bringing the electromagnetic into birth as the Word of Truth.

One the Fish as Piscis and the other as the Word of the divine Gods, bringing the Divine Master of Capricorn forth, as the controller of the Piscean Age. That of atomic super-sonic spirit vision, the Christos Divine Occult glory; the mighty protrusion of the Yod, to raise all WOMEN back up to the heights.

The formless control of Virgin Outer World Power, awaiting the Uranus of the Vega propensity, to purify the intense Outer Space sensitivity. That being contaminated by the magnetic states of man; for Uranus as Outer World glory, has been born into the World of Vega, by the renunciation of the Earth wealth of Merope. For all she now weaves is the atomic nucleus of extreme divinity, as Pisces and Vega unified as the profound Neptunian-born mind. All unknown and unspoiled by earth polarity, as Venusian clarity now to come into birth, as the mighty wealth of the Divinity.

HENCE, FOMALHAUT IS THE IMPRISONED SPLENDOR OF THE WORD, THAT AS IT IS FED BY THE WATERS OF VEGA, BECOMES THE UNCHAINED MELODY OF OUTER WORLD SPACE.

The Fire Activity

WE have been leading you along to the creation of the coming glories of the Man within the soul, the Christos Solar Light, by renouncing of those things that are holding you and impeding these glories from manifesting. All you need do, is to drive the ass before you, but drive the ass (the feminine principle) into Jerusalem; sit upon its back, and it will take you there, into the glories of the Mind.

All states within the soul becoming blended together by the Pitch-blende of Vulcan; he that once was the fiery Hephaistos, the lame god, who then became, by his raised-up Divinity, that of the Vulcan Glory. He that shows the soul how to create in metal, the will; bringing the 'metal' as 'will' into a glorious shape, 'fired' by the Uranus super-will.

These states have been given such names so as to convey a deeper, more expansive expression than merely talking about the will; 'creating the glorious metal of struggle.' That which was given unto Aeneas by Venus as he struggled with life; and upon the mighty Tree was hanging a new 'creation' with which he would go to 'war' to struggle with the super-state of the heights.

A wonderful shield with a new picture upon it; a new creation of 'metal' with which to cover the body; a new sword, a new helmet. All born out of the struggle and the 'will to become'; all created by the 'fire' brought into birth by Vulcan; the mighty glories of the 'fire,' the Keeper of the Fire. These expressions give a dance and beauty to the word. If brought in just 'plain word,' you would lose its glory and its expansion.

If Merope can create this, and bring it into birth, all prepared for you, then surely it can convey to you the beauty whereby you can bring your mind into creation, by the study of the depths she is bringing. She who struggles to bring all that Fiery Wealth down in its Electrical capacity, radiating at a velocity of frequency never known to be captured by any man before. This is her Work in the depths, and as she relinquishes all that she is, will she become born of the Mighty Heavens.

THE ESTABLISHMENT OF THE ATOMIC PLANE

by the Lord of the Flame

This lecture was delivered at the S.U.P.H. on 4th October, 1967

A GAIN we gather together, that we can help you to understand the now established Plane of ATOMIC LIFE, which every man now will find himself fused by, that he can bring into birth the Electrification of his Mind. Thus, all of you gathered here, who have been led under the direction of the Masters, should, if you have played your part and followed the LAW and the Rules as they have been laid down by us, be now ready to find yourselves Electrified whereby you can go flying forth upon Outer Space with the Arielised Mind. This is what every man should have been prepared to do, and accounts for all the sickness, and the mentality of the World; and it is of this we are now going to explain.

THIS work is of a most serious nature, which every one should follow very carefully, and not pass it by as though they are one that is perfectly fit and ready. Only a man who has diligently laboured and renounced will be able to say that he is ready to meet the new oncoming Atomic Age. Many are gathering this in their mind, even seeking to make it public; but up to the moment they have not got this atomicisation as it should be, through the mind, but by artificial means, which will be of no use to man at all.

The Mind Unification

THROUGH THE TEACHINGS YOU HAVE BEEN RECEIVING HERE, THE TWO BRAINS OR THE TWO MINDS ARE NOW EQUAL, SO THEY HAVE BECOME ONE.

This has been brought about not only by the Teachings you are receiving here, but by the Waters that are flowing down around mankind: they are all being brought to the state of the Virgin Plane. Any soul who has not been giving their attention and their mind to the Word as it has been established here, will have no material whereby that unified mind can expand and be sparked into life by the Uranian Fire.

This will result in widespread sickness, with the illness of the Age being that which your Medical World calls pernicious anaemia, whereby the body rots and the soul dies an agonising death. This is a fact, and has already been witnessed and proved. That is going to be the scourge of the man who does not build up his mind, and by the wisdom he has gathered, seek to bring by polarisation, the expansion which will take him out onto the Ethers as an arielised mind.

I am trying to give this to you as simply as possible. At the present moment it is in the minds of many about the Atomic Age, but it will NOT be through the mechanical creations that they are now constructing.

The Atomic Age is within man himself, where he becomes electrified; he dances with the Glory of Being, where the whole of his inner bodies are alight with Life, brought by the downpouring Waters. For the scientist, in referring to the down-pouring of the Oxygen, which is really the pure Hydrogen-Ethers, does not know what it is all about (This is in reference to the statement by the scientists that there is 13% more oxygen in the atmosphere than ever before); for the Waters are atomicising every soul, where he is back once again, upon the God Plane of the World of Paradise.

Now man is ready to be 'sparked into Life,' which the Fires will do when the soul is diligent. But there is no doubt about it, he has got to start renouncing, he has got to 'let go' of those earthy things that are keeping him tied to the animals; for through the Wisdom, the animal states have all been 'involved,' leaving the soul as the 'pure dancing mind.'

This is what has taken place, and do not doubt it. It has taken place, and where the soul will not bother to labour, and will not seek into the Wisdom to define some understanding of it within his own comprehension, then he is the one who will suffer; for that is the extension of his mind to climb up the Brahmic Thread; then he will be aided by propulsion, the inflowing Waters of the Heights.

This is why we have asked for all the 'Gazettes' to be thrown around, as they have been, here, there, and everywhere, whereby everybody can be touched by the Word. It has cost this School thousands and thousands of pounds of their hard-earned money. It has been a work of labour, and a work of Love, under the guidance of the Masters. Once upon a time, when the Norm sank down into the depths, it was taken over by the Matriarchate Period. They were then called Pubes, and they were all female states; but they could get no activation, no movement within themselves. So a state of "Lesbianism" sprang up, whereby a stronger character than another took the male part, and the lesser took the female part.

In this way there was brought into birth the male state, and he grew the male appendage. Nature always complies with the way that man goes. In this way they sought of the Heavens; they were those who were seeking to make expansion, and they sought of the Heavens and drew down the Heavenly Fire.

Finding life had taken the trend it had done—because it was slowly descending into a human state—the Gods from the Heights no longer differentiated down, and the Race began to propagate from the depths. They were cut off from the Gods and became a world of their own, bringing into birth flesh children instead of the differentiation, and the ascension of the gods up and down.

It was through this that you had your Sodom and Gomorrah, and clearly defined in your Biblical legends. It was this that Abraham had to contend with when the Lot side of himself danced with the lower regime.

Now this is a part of the soul, the basic of the soul, the 'pot' of the soul, and until it is all dissolved by the 'mortuary meal,' it will remain with the soul. And although the soul may wear cloak after cloak, it will never hide, when it is stripped, that inner depth, which will come out at the last; it will show itself in time.

The wisdom of the Bible has never been conveyed to man in its true understanding. It is a Book of the legends of life, none of which have been properly fulfilled. It is now being fulfilled by man; it is only now that he is beginning to understand the mystery of the legends, which we have been trying to explain here, so that you could follow the rebirth of life. This is where the Scapegoat has had to be the forerunner of the New Age.

We are going to take you tonight from one stage to another, so we will try and help you as best as we can by the pictures which the Instrument has gathered together, and we will go through them one at a time.

The Wealth of Egypt

NOW here is Egypt at the time when it was receiving all this mighty wisdom, for there were no temples greater than the temples of Egypt, holding the Wealth, and the glory of the Wealth. But they would not make expansion. Like many others that claim Wealth, they just held on to it and made themselves a living academy.

(See plate on page 10)

THE SOLAR BEGINNING

SEND DOWN TO THE DEPTHS, NOT ONLY WHAT YOU HAVE GAINED, BUT ALSO AN INTENSIFIED FORM TO WATER THE GLORIES IN THE DEPTHS.

But by you 'going down south'—that is, making a revolution within yourself of heights and depths—you receive, as well as the other side of the World which is South, the Wisdom they have gained.

Well, at the time of Egypt, they would have appeared as the North, with the Western World as the South, where, in the cave-man state they had arrived at, everywhere was in a state of ever unfolding. But you can now see, with Lesbianism being set into birth at that time, where your homosexuality is coming into birth now. And there is a far greater depth in this,—not that we approve of it,—than you realise.

It is these old men—and sometimes young—who have never yet built up their minds spiritually, who are using the 'young fire' to fire their spines which are now empty of any electrification. That is why, to a degree, it has been condoned. It is not because they are sorry for them; it is because there are so many who are in appointed positions, who would be finding themselves out on 'retirement,' with their minds going as rapidly as they can be. So they are trying to get 'young fire' to fire their minds into action.

This used to be the means, once upon a time, by which the Jewish race, that is the Hebrew race, found strength, and the Priests used to fire the lesser priests to bring them into action.

There is a great deal that now, as a sordid state of the World, has been used in the past when man was ignorant of the 'change.' Now you have been given Wisdom; now you are being told that it is by the WORD; the soul labouring and renouncing the old states of the earth and becoming the god-state once again. For you have all been god-states once upon a time, and you have got to get back to that status of 'unfolding' into the New Jerusalem.

So in the plate you see Egypt with all her Wealth, in a state of utter debauchery.

received. For at that time the great Stream of Eridanus, all electrified, was pouring down into their midst.

In the same way as you are receiving the Atomic Fire now, and the great Fires of Uranus, they were receiving the inflowing of the Eridanus, which today, Merope has completely united, and you are receiving a great inflowing Stream of Hydrogen Atomic Waters.

But you cannot get this into the thick skulls of the Medical World, nor those of the scientists for the time being, but we are going to break up every one of them, as you will notice we are already doing. There is going to be a severe collapse very soon of both of them.

The Deluge

THIS state of debauchery resulted in the Water Plane coming into birth. Don't under-estimate this! At the present moment you are having the Fire Plane coming into birth. That is why you are having so much inflowing Fire, and why there are so many fire accidents in your utilities around you.

(See plate on page 7)

So in the Plate you see portrayed to you this Water Plane coming into birth, causing the whole of the Earth to become swamped with waters. Continents were buried under, and the whole World for a time was in utter chaos. It was not just a certain part, or one continent that was under deluge. For the Water Plane was being established everywhere, particularly in the soul.

Though souls endeavoured to become rescued out of it, it was still with their animal states, which were in abundance. They had never been turned-in by the Wisdom they should have been receiving, as the Wisdom in Egypt was not being given to the community, but being kept precisely amongst the academical students and priests, in the same way as they do in Roman Catholicism. For Roman Catholicism is nothing more than a carrying on of all the Egyptian religion of the past, nothing more.

This is where the Fire, as Mars, was brought down by Merope, to try and teach souls the Phallic worship, which she has been teaching all of you; that is, worshipping the glories of the Mysteries and raising them up by Le Ros and not the false idea that many people have. By her teaching them of the Phallic worship, she would have been able to help the Uranian Fire to spark their waters into spiritus air, which would have risen up as the glorified mind.

After the Deluge, all became dried up to reveal the many tragedies that resulted, in the same way as will be seen after the Fire Plane. So they need not worry about not having enough food for the human growth they have upon the Earth, for very soon there is going to be a scourge of burials of those who have not made any attempt to unify their minds.

When the soul awakens he becomes as Noah.

HE AWAKENS TO THE UNDERSTANDING OF THE 'FANNING ARC,' THE BUILDING UP OF THE MIND.

So Noah gathered all his bits and pieces and put them

They were ruling the World; they had all the Wealth which many other nations, far and wide, were coming to gather, but they made no expansion.

It was the Hebrews at the time who found the way to expansion, with Moses,—yes, a Hebrew, but under the guidance of the Courts,—giving to the Courts the glories of his wisdom; but then, he was being called in his mighty propensity, to come and help the extension of the Race.

The debauchery was being continued in such a way that it was bringing idleness, and the lack of appreciation of the glory and the wealth they had into his Argo, and sailed out onto the waters to try and bring wisdom to the whole of mankind.

He sent the raven out, back and forth, until one day he sent out the dove, and she returned with the sprig of olive in her mouth; pointing out that he had at last got the right propensity of wisdom.

This is the understanding of Noah; he that brings down the Glories of the Word.

This is how we work through the Instrument. She has to go out onto the waters, as it were, to go 'down south' with the wisdom she has gathered, treading it in and revolving it back and forth until she gets a complete grounding of what she has recognised.

After she has done this, she realises the wonders of what she has established, and must then begin to send up her aspiration and her adoration to the Great One, to the Great Heavens, and be prepared to make renunciation so that she can be born on the next 'plane of comprehension.'

YOU HAVE TO RENOUNCE, YOU HAVE TO 'LET GO,' BECAUSE THE OUTCOME OF THIS IS ETHEREALISATION.

THE ETHEREALISATION OF THE TISSUES OF THE PHYSICAL BODY TO BRING IT BACK TO UNIFICATION WITH THE INNER BODIES.

THERE MUST BE A CHANGE, AND NOW THAT YOU ARE ON THE ATOMIC PLANE, THE ANSWER TO THIS IS 'PURE FRUIT.'

NOW CAN YOU SEE THE SENSE OF THAT?

After the lunar period, the sun began to rise. Perhaps you will hardly believe it, but in that lunar period man was in darkness; there was no light. Night and day were only just beginning to form. The solar orb only came when man raised up his heart to the Divinity.

The sun is not a ball of fire; it is the Divine Arc of the Mind rising up, and as the Glory of the Heavenly Divinity as Light. And the Earth revolving now as a revolving ball, brought about by man in his revolving state, was the state he had to revolve in, instead of being upon the Abyss Plane of the Hall of Creation, whereby man could have danced up and down, to return and come back again. Instead of that, he now has brought about 'death and rebirth'; the actual death of the physical body.

So the sun slowly came into birth, but cannot you understand how this would be in its first creation, almost as a blank, or a lesser shining creation! It was not until the creation of man's mind that it began to shine with glory. That is why, through the brilliance of man's mind, you now have the glories of the Central Sun.

Now let us give you a clearer understanding of the Earth. All the Stars around it, and the Sun, represent Planes. The Earth was a Plane, but it became a solid ball. There is not another globe in the Universe that is solid. The Earth is the 'Bottom of the Pot.' It does not matter what they say, and I am still waiting to see the 'earth' brought back from the Moon!

I understand they are postponing all the 'drive' in that direction now. Of course they are. They have at last been able to find an "Occult Gazette," and it has thrown them off their beat. I have already told you that all these things are going to be revealed, if you are patient and have faith in what I have been telling you.

Infusion of the Fires

NOW here is the first propensity of the inflowing Sun. You see Woman with the crown on her head. She was the Crowning Glory, with man finding it difficult to exist, because he had got to find the expanded mind.

WOMAN WAS ALL THE WEALTH OF THE OS, OR THE WEALTH OF THE MAGNETIC FIRE, BUT MAN HAD GOT TO FIND THIS SOLAR INFLOW, WHICH WOULD FEED HIM THROUGH HIS GENERATIVE ORGAN.

STATES BECAME INFUSED BY THE SOLAR FIRE, SO IT STIRRED THEIR SENSES. THIS IS WHERE THE STORY COMES OF EVE BEING BITTEN BY THE SERPENT.

She found herself with child, for man was being infused by the Solar Fire and was now giving her the birth of the flesh child of the earth. This is the mystery of generation, if only it could be seen in the right light, but man has not been able to see it in the right light, because he does not want to understand it.

But in the awakening of the simplicity of the soul, where then he must start to labour; he has got to tread the wisdom he takes into the earth by putting into operation his beliefs; and this is what a Scapegoat has to do.

That is the story of Samson removing the Gate of Gaza, where it became a new creation for every soul to investigate. Merope has taken away every Gate right up to Neptune, Vulcan and Vesta; removing all the Gates, so that any man now can make this investigation, if he seeks into the Word of Universal Philosophy, which is all the wealth of the great Academy in the Heights; the School here is only a reflection.

THE TRUE GREAT SCHOOL IS IN THE HEAVENS, AND BELONGS TO THE GREAT FLAME. HE IS THE GREAT MASTER OF THIS SCHOOL, AND EVERY SOUL WILL HAVE TO BOW ITS KNEE TO THE WISDOM THAT IS BEING ESTABLISHED HERE, WHETHER THEY WANT TO BELIEVE IT OR NOT.

The Solar Robe

NOW this Plate will give you some idea of the soul in its nakedness, receiving the Solar glory. For you are all naked until you do perceive this Solar glory and you become Solar-born; because the inner bodies can only build their Robe, the garment of light, from the inflowing Solar Glory.

(See plate on page 9)

If you are still living in the lunar, then you have no Solar Robe; you have no inner garment at all. And this is what the Unification means, besides the Relativity; the unifying of the lunar and the Solar in the Sun and Moon bringing into birth the Vulcan glory, the great Vulcan Fires of Life.

Man will only rise up to the great Solar heights of the Heavens when he has raised his mind up to the propensity of the outer rim of the Solar glory. You have to raise yourself up, but you will not be able to do this until you start to 'discard'; renouncing the earth for the ethereal beauty of the Heavenly Light; spinning your mind up and down, embracing all by the labouring.

Is that not what you came to the Earth for? You did not come to the Earth to enjoy life just as you want to. You came to the Earth to labour in the depths, that you could return on to the higher planes of Expansion.

It is because you had finished learning upon the plane you were on, that you could not live there any longer, and were urging "Let me go back to the depths"; "Let me go back and learn."

Have you ever thought what you will do, if you find yourself back upon a lower plane than the one you were originally upon, because you have merely idled your way through in this life?

It is because Merope was a Goddess from the Plane of Venus that she has such profound Wisdom and such great depths, whereby she could lead the World on at this particular time, in the great Wisdom that is hers. But Merope has suffered very badly at the ravaging of man's mind, and of the ravaging of the earth.

The Divine Fires Intercalary

THIS is the soul who is able to raise up his Scorpio-fires into the first degree of unfoldment, that of the fledged eagle. Because it is the raising up of the Scorpio fires, whereby the eagle will carry him up to the Solar light, and he then can become born of the glories of The Great Flame.

It is the unification, and this takes place in the intercalary between the 2nd and the 8th, where the soul in its intercalary dance up and down the spine, sets the chakra wheels revolving, drawing out of the Seed all its higher glories upon the Eagle propensity. By his raised up mind he sees the glories in all this, and he searches in that up and down movement to pour out the wonders of the Eagle's flight.

This is where the soul now begins to become arielsed that he can dance up and down the Planes, in and out of the Word, and see the glories of what he has lost; for you all came down the Planes when they were established.

You have all lived through time, so it is all within you. But you are so wrapped up and enamoured with the false glories of the Earth convention, desires, and many other things, that you have lost the trend of the Road.

There had to be the unification of the soul in its Solar glory; where male and female, the divided states as the duality that was brought into birth in the stage of the Pubes, now are unified, with the old lizard state no longer there. It is now the electrified state of the golden mind; the mind now waiting to bring into birth genius, out of the glories of Neptune; gathering wealth out of the inflowing Glories of the Heavenly Space, the great Oxygen Waters, to give unto the soul Wealth that he can offer to the Gods.

And this is what Merope is working upon at the present moment, the Glories of Outer Space. This is partly what you have been receiving in your Sabbath lectures, whereby you are slowly being worked up to, and gradually worked through, to bring you the Glories of the Earth.

We have been taking you very slowly, with a very simple mind to help you to understand, and this should have gradually awakened you, if you had really given your mind to the Word. That is the answer! If you have not given your mind to it, then you have not awakened.

As a soul begins to awaken, there is the great battling that has to take place, as he then begins to ride the Chariot of the Sun. This is where he has to learn to fight with the Griffin, the negative side of himself and the negative side of the Earth. He has now given birth to his wings, his winged mind. He now perceives the glory of the Solar inflow, and he now is going to try and create.

He is the Phaeton that now is going to be careful that he does not topple over and fall to the depths. He never gives in, but goes on fighting, because he has got to master the elements, one by one. Here is the mystery of Daniel in the Lion's Den; he has mastered the Lion, or the Powers of the Earth.

Solarisation of Moses

NOW this is a plate bringing to you the electrification of Moses; you see it radiating in his face. All the Solar-light that has been imbibed by him, which he brought into birth as the Arian soul, is now the radiance of his voice.

There have been many changes since those days, through the workings of Merope. The cerebellum has now become defunct, and

So rich was the first beginning, that the Sun there was placed upon a pedestal. This is where the soul now is rising up in his mind and building up in his mind the 'glories of the rising life.' And the Arc is not as man has been given an understanding of it, but the Arc of the Mind, the aura of the Mind, which the soul raises up by his beliefs and builds up in his mind as his theory of the Divinity.

As man did this, so the glorified Sun came into birth, shining upon the waters. So it was going to be the sparking Sun in the waters that was going to bring the Mind into birth; the unification of the Sun and the Earth with the Water Plane as the means of the sparking spiritus air.

According to how man began to move, according to how he began to unfold, so the Higher Powers moved with him. It was completely different to the Plan which They had made, but man chose it that way, the hard way, by the period of time, and so he had to take it by the period of time.

In the beginning there were no seas, but as I have said before, as man fell to the lower desires the Water Plane came into birth. Then the Plane of Earth became a gradually expanding 'ball' through the Solar Fire penetrating into the Earth, bringing its Fiery Glory in its intensity, which is the inner earthy Central Sun.

It is the Sun with its Black Rays that is burying itself right into the depths, whereby it throws back its reflection and gives you light. It is only reflection. Everything upon the Earth is illusion and reflection. The real Light is in the Heavenly Planes.

AS MAN AND WOMAN IN THEIR GROWING

they were coming out of their just earthy states, as far as they were concerned, they were so cut off from the Heights that they did not know right from wrong. They were following their natures, the unfolding nature that was supposed to give them the up-risen mind.

The Solar Kingship

NOW here is an understanding of David raising up the Arc. The understanding of David in the two Books of Samuel is dynamic, if you can understand it; how he fought and laboured to clear away all other states of the soul, because this represents the soul.

It portrays how Saul, the risen-up kingship as the Saturn state, was binding the soul in all the devastation of life. But David, as the infused 8th that came into birth as the glories of the spirit, eventually was able to raise up the arc of the mind.

In this plate it shows the Arc raised up as Light, and going on to Bathshemesh; going on to the new propensity of plane expansion; the corn-fields of growth and plenty, and the great heavens which he brought into birth upon the Earth. How he laboured to eventually find himself having to depend upon an Abishag to give him new life, for every bit of him had been eaten up by the World and growth around him, when he should have been bringing his Solomon into birth as the glorified Solar son-ship.

It is all one story of a soul in its unfolding states, and if you can see it like this you will be able to read through it in a clear decisive way. When a soul truly begins to seek,

REAL insight into vibration, and how ALL is vibration and nothing else at all, for Life is ever in a state of change.

The Creative Principle

AS a soul so creates, does he as the creator of an idea, persist with it until it becomes a living tangible ideal. Then by walking it into matter, it begins to grow, and if strong enough, starts to change the LAWS of the Cosmos. But it must be greater than what is already created; then if it prevails, it begins to change the Laws in the Terrestrial, putting out everything that exists on the old Law, and the world is ever being born anew.

I am a Scapegoat for such as this now taking place, with my ever declaring what is taking place. For we must ever declare the changes, so that any soul believing and accepting the changing states, aids and helps the Scapegoat. For if we are afraid or ashamed of what we are doing, we are not very convinced and solid, and the Laws being changed, will not endure.

Yet, as we establish these new beliefs, they cannot be created out of the balanced context of the Law of Evolution, thus must ever be in a state of balanced expansion. Thereby, they ever in a state of flexibility and rebirth.

If man was not creating to the good of the heavens, which I am afraid he has not been, there would never be an inflow of fresh AIR. The former I have done, and accounts for the new Stream of Oxygen coming to the earth, and unfortunately, the many aeroplane accidents. Man will not accept the changes taking place in the Stratosphere of the earth, whereby they must change their instruments accordingly.

HE NEVER WANTS TO CHANGE THE EARTH, REFUSING TO BELIEVE ALL STARTS FROM THE HEAVENS.

Once he accepts this, everything will grow and become, otherwise man's higher mind, the Abel of the soul, will never be able to send down to the lower mind an expanded idea of thought. It will everlastingly be breathing in old ideas, until it becomes stoned and dead, like Roman Catholicism and

BELIEF

THIS IS A SUBJECT WHICH VERY FEW HAVE fully understood, yet a statement made to me very often, that my ideas are only belief; especially when trying to oppose me. But I would have thought, with the full Television Review of the Master declaring of the many changes to come into birth, and those now being fulfilled, that man ought to have realised that EVERYTHING starts with BELIEF. Something that once it is started, begins to germinate at once. For in the belief, the idea created removes the avidya, the cloud or veil of ignorance, and the light of truth prevails. This is the first man can be reborn onto greater Planes of comprehension, are so enormous that they are entirely out of the range of anybody interfering with them. I only know that everything I have done has been under the guidance of the Higher Divinities, and entirely for the good and love of mankind. Even though at times it sounds vicious; that was to try and emphasize in the mind of man, the necessity for change, and the big change taking place. In any case, all has been accomplished without bloodshed, and not like the Catholics, who created murder and evil wherever they carried their so-called sacred wars.

Although I created a new belief called Universal Philosophy, it was all around the idea that Christ, the Great Orion MAN, was a living Divinity and not a dead god upon a cross. I saw HIM as the living Solar Light that the Prophets and Sages had been bringing into birth out of the heavens, all down the Ages. That which now was feeding man with the Light of HIS Blood Life as the Intelligencia.

This was so accepted by the heavenly Divinities, that they claimed me as their Scapegoat, and set me to work. Thus the many changes now taking place in the world; but I can assure you, that once a soul starts this path, there is NO stopping, and initiation is in every direction. But a road that all will have to take, or ever remain earth-bound, which none of you really want, otherwise you would never have come back to gather in through fresh experience, with the hopes you would master old karmic ideas.

Yet as far as I am concerned, I know that I have been seeking of this for Ages, but what I was destined to do was such a gigantic task, and which no others would actually attempt, that great preparations were set into motion for me to accomplish. This is the idea of a tape recording of the Astrological reading, that the Akashic records can be perceived.

Sub-consciously this was known unto me, and is known unto all, but my conscious mind has only just awakened, and is now dawning to the full facts of the situation. This I feel awakens gradually to everybody, and becomes more potent day after day; the real point is in being honest with oneself, and accepting the situation. But now the changes in the heights and rebirth of the Laws, so that man can be reborn onto greater Planes of comprehension, are so enormous that they are entirely out of the range of anybody interfering with them. I only know that everything I have done has been under the guidance of the Higher Divinities, and entirely for the good and love of mankind. Even though at times it sounds vicious; that was to try and emphasize in the mind of man, the necessity for change, and the big change taking place. In any case, all has been accomplished without bloodshed, and not like the Catholics, who created murder and evil wherever they carried their so-called sacred wars.

THE world had to change, that the Seed, which women are trying to destroy with contraceptive pills, could live. For this is the MIND LIFE of woman, and in it becoming generated in their depths, it flows up the spinal column as Spiritus Air, and feeds the brain with new life. But this is not what I want to really convey to man this month. The idea is how everything begins with belief, man believing and creating new ideas. It is what some call imagination, then the higher mind has something tangible to grapple with. Then its duty is to send down to the depths, the conscious mind, a hormone, which is a new idea, whereby that soul can start to grow and expand.

The Cosmic Intercalary

When this takes place, and the idea is missed, if you turn to Job 1 of the Bible, you will see what happens when you miss the mark. For Job was a Book of initiation, where all old ideas were killed by the sword, but the new idea lost; and the raw Fire left, said, "I only am escaped alone to tell thee."

THUS JOB HAD TO GO THROUGH THE ALCHEMICALISATION TO FIND THE ANSWER. As these changes take place Cosmically, which is the most important, do they also take place internally in the soul, for the soul is the microcosm to new light, and your lower mind being lifted out of the rut of earthy states. Thus it must be seen, that although man creates his idea of God, the Deity as Transcendental inflow, it is really the most profound state of GOOD. Yet the Deity as the All-Mighty Shaddai has always been, but had to be unfolded in man's mind, as an ever increasing idea of what is Right and Good, with the most profound becoming the leader of TRUTH. OTHERWISE MAN IS EVER CREATING AROUND HIMSELF IN THE THEME OF FORM, AND NOT AROUND THE COSMOS AS DIVINITY. This is what happened to Atlantis, and it resulted in giants of power wrecking the earth. This is taking place once again in the scientist creating atom bombs, so I was given the task of bringing down the Atomic Fire to counteract it. Then by uniting it with the magnetic, new life was born, over-riding the scientist's earthy beliefs. This is the great mystery of Aquarius where the inflowing Protons of Fire from the heavenly Prismic Bodies, unite with the electrons of matter, and bring forth neutrons of mind, that have to start being created into new ideas. By putting the vast cosmic creation as simply as I can, it will not only help those of you who are not brilliant with your thinking capacity, but the scientific man who is stubborn and self-opinionated to a degree of blindness. But I have proved all this and they haven't, and nobody could have been more practical and logical minded than myself. That is why I took so long to fall to the idea of Belief. I ALWAYS DECLARED I WANTED TANGIBLE PROOF, BUT OF COURSE

I have been stating for many years, that the Bible was a Book of Biblical Myths, and that Jesus was not a man, but a status of mastership. Now somebody who has a diploma takes the credit, but really pushing my idea that I want to establish.

(See plate on page 9)

This plate alone proves this, it showing how man created this Deity in his own mind, while he was idly dreaming. Yet would be the outcome of what man had been creating down the Ages, and become the Embodiment in AD 33. Not the birth of Jesus, but the downpouring to the earth of a new inflow of life, really brought about by the beliefs of the Caesars, all inter-mixed with their ghastly debaucheries.

FOR EVERY NEW EQUIINOX HAS TO HAVE A GREATER CREATION OF THE FACE, THE MACROPROSOPUS. THE GROWING IDEA OF THE DEITY THAT LEADS AND FEEDS THE WORLD WITH A NEW SOURCE OF REBIRTH. (See "The Road of Relativity" in cols. 1, 2 & 3)

This is the REAL idea of man the creator, he who is changing the world by his awakenment to understanding.

THE MYSTERY OF THE VOICE (See text on page 9, cols. 1 and 5)

This is the changing of the world from negative to positive, and why I have to create articles of profound Wisdom, far above the intelligence of the majority, whereby their higher mind is stimulated with advanced light, and can feed the lower mind with fresh ideas.

People that are persistent, struggle to understand the advanced thought, and begin to expand and grow. So do not write and say that any of it is too complicated for you to understand. Some of you should get together, for amongst a number of you, the new idea will begin to shed light, especially with the Waters or Breath, raining down the new thought that I gave birth to in the heavens. But most of all, your higher mind is being lifted up with the

I HAVE REALISED SINCE THAT THE PROOF HAD TO GROW. SO OVER A LONG TERM STRUGGLE, I NOW HAVE MORE THAN MY BELIEF, I HAVE TANGIBLE PROOF.

The Unfolding Genius

THERE had to be changes, that is the Evolutionary Law, then man would come out of the vast EVIL he was creating in getting fixed and solidified in the disease that was over-coming his physical structure. But unfortunately, the changes now are so vast, there are other difficulties now to be faced.

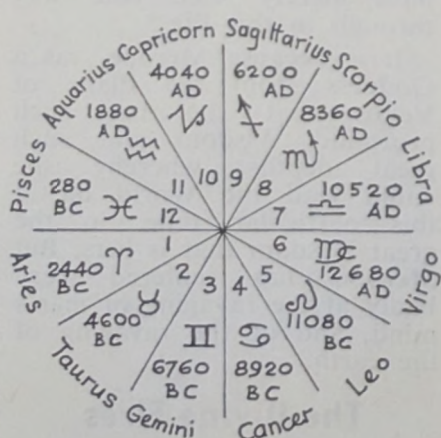

One of the most difficult truths to convey to man, is the fact of the FALL. Man did fall, for as a god, a heavenly being with a purpose, he fell for earthy desires. Thus, not only created a solid body, but fell in

The Road to Relativity

ALL movement of Time is calculated in terms of the Equinoctial Ages that the Sun moves through over 1,000's of years. An Equinox is an Age of Time calculated according to the time in years that it takes for the Sun to pass through the influences of one Celestial Sign. This is known exactly as each year the exact point of the Sun crossing the celestial equator is observed to move backwards in its circular movement some 50 seconds of circle circumference distance (60 seconds each minute : 60 minutes each degree : 360 degrees equals one circle).

This backward movement is known as the PRECESSION OF THE EQUINOXES. Thus it takes 2160 years to pass through each Sign, during which time that Hierarchy directs its Cosmic Energy through the Central Sun into the Earth, shedding its

Influence of Power onto Mankind. Each Age Man has unconsciously absorbed each Sign's Wealth and now is the

Age when the Effects of the first Commencement of the Human Cycle of Growth, which was established in the Leo Age 13,000 years ago, has to be met and understood. This the Chart shows, the Time given being the Commencement of each Age.

Every man has become so encrusted each Life with a new layer of skin, mind and power, that the free use of all Mind Growth is denied him because of his attachments and desires. Until this whole concourse of Being is unified into one Awakened Consciousness Man will not be able to gain the Attainment he is destined for, the Road of Relativity.

So this Age, the Age of Aquarius meets the influences of all that sown in its opposite Age, the Golden Age of Leo. So thus all those Roots as well as the resulting entanglement of the Roots, will have to be met and mastered. It is having the wisdom to know how to do this that is so vital to the Initiate.

love with it, thus became married to the beast.

He never really was the beast and then the man, but the soul who fell into the creation of a beast, and remained so, until an Abraham state of fired mind awakened, which became aware of a greater force coming to him from the heavenly forces.

This is where the soul was advised by that Voice speaking to him upon the tympanum of (See diagram page 8, cols. 4 & 5) his ear, "all will come out of thine own bowels, and when you can number the Stars in the heavens, so shall thy Seed be."

Man has got to get back to his true status of a spiritual being, which by my changing the Laws, he really has done. But in him clinging to old ideas, and causing chaos in the world, it looks a bit upside down for the moment.

Yet this is seen in the Chinese problem, where Mao, an old theory of the Chinese Emperors, is holding fire in ancient roots of China being pulled out. The same applies to Roman Catholicism in their ritual and dogma repressing progress of thought. And since man is only THOUGHT in a bestial body, he is being put into the stocks by those trying to retain old inquisitional power.

Every man must be a free agent to think, then by his thinking and creating, he creates either freedom for himself or purgatory. As time goes on, it will slowly dawn upon man that he is the creator of either freedom or captivity, by ever reshaping his life towards a good purpose cosmically. That is, spinning his mind and thoughts upwards to the heavenly inflow that is giving him life, then he can climb up by frequency of belief, becoming more and more unified with those mighty Powers that can lift him up out of the dregs of darkness.

But greater still, opening his mind to genius, which he can bless the earth with, and make unfold unfoldment in his own status of growth. That is why he was allowed to return to the earth, for by this he has the opportunity of expansion through mastering his karmic difficulties in the experiences of life.

But he must try to keep in his mind, that his life is one continuous flow of rebirth. It is the body that dies and not the soul; the latter creates, and is only a part of a mind-soul creation, that is ever being perfected through the lives in a body of flesh.

A vibronic status of belief becoming a tangible rock, a state of growth, a state of light, that is either positive or negative in its creative possibility. This is the black shiny rock that man is ever tapping with the hoof of his Pegasus, his risen passions, that brings forth the sparking pituitary, the Uranian Fire.

This is the most difficult part in the growing changes, the creator living in the new belief, with everybody living in the old ideas. Not that you worry about them not agreeing with your belief, but the opposing pressure which is up against you as a wall of "dead" states. Yet here is where you prove to yourself that what you think is RIGHT, and you will fight to the bitter end to get this mighty truth fully established.

And it is no good man saying that Spiritual truths are not required, these are the fresh inflowing life from the higher Powers; by this I am not talking about religion of ritual and dogma, but man becoming responsive to the in-

Hence the tribal wars and labour uprisings, with the great eternal Heavens sending daily "new Waters" from the reborn Springs of the heights. For up in those Heavenly Planes are Planes of progressive Life, not old earthy ideas. Abyss is Earth, and the only solid status but even that has been changed by the Scapegoat raising up its status.

It is no good anybody hold-on to old decadent ideas; be wise and go with the tide, and save yourself pain. This you can do by priming yourself with status of unfolded Orion LIGHT.

HEAVEN MANIFESTING UPON THE EARTH AS DIVINITY, HEAVENLY POWER, SPEAKING THROUGH A HUMAN SOUL. THE SOUL BEING THE CREATION OF AGES, UNIFYING WITH THE DESCENDING DEPTHS OF POWER FROM THE HEIGHTS.

The Divine Unification

THE greatest tragedy that I seem to find, is the young being taught such antiquated wisdom at School, as though that was the major structure from whence all was derived. Who wants to keep on learning about old Roman debaucheries, antiquated English futilities, and religious "tripe" that ought to have been burnt long ago, then the Sodomy Bill would never have arisen!

Our young pupil is continually coming home and saying, "Who wants to listen to that rubbish; I know it's not true, I learn better truth at home here." Yet if I tried to get this boy under my care, to teach him of truths that would really stand him in good stead for mind growth, I would be clapped into jail. This is where man is fixed, and relies upon old worn out status of degree and diploma, instead of striking out into fields anew.

What should really be created in a more advanced spiritual way of thinking, is the soul being reborn out of the selenic tympanum. What (See diagram page 8, cols. 4 & 5) is of the old lunar state, now manifesting as the tangible voice in the ear from the higher mind speaking direct to the lower mind, as the Sun and moon being united.

The Sun being the light of wisdom gleaned out of the Word, and now as the light of the higher mind, expanding the light sent down, by the lower mind weaving it into a garment of growth, by BELIEF.

Spiritual mind comprehension as an electrified fusion, that causes the Word to electrify the mind, to blossom forth greater beliefs. Complete unification by alchemicalisation, blossoming and firing into LIGHT, by the Holy Fire from the Unseen Source of the heights.

Proton-positive, Electron-negative, into neutron, as Spiritus Air, as a new idea radiating on the corti of the ear at 25 vibrations, instead of 15. Whereby what is received, becomes the MIND instruction of the Great Orion Mind, as the Voice of the Great Flame. That now manifesting upon the Atomic Plane, as a re-born status of the soul.

THE FORMLESS STATE BORN OUT OF FORM, AS THE TRUE NEPTUNIAN GENIUS BRINGING VEGA INTO BIRTH WITHIN THE HUMAN VEHICLE.

DIVINE BELIEF

AS man looked up to the heavens out of his density of darkness, there he beheld the glory of the mighty Unseen coming out of the density of a cloud. The mighty magnitude of all that had been, now the auric glory of the soul. (See text on page 8, col. 4 and page 7, col. 4).

flowing glories of the Intelligencia of the mighty Heavens.

NEW INFLOWING BREATH OF EXPANSIVE GLORIES THAT MAKE THE SOUL MARVEL AT SUCH PROFOUND WONDERS CAUSING HIS INNER BEING TO RADIATE WITH SECRET EXHILARATION. TRANSCENDENTAL GLORY FILLING WITH NEW LIFE, HOPE AND BELIEF.

The Mind Light

THE world MUST change for the good of all, otherwise war and disaster through congestion of old states. Yes, small tribal wars, but a world war NO! All it needed was a Scapegoat who was prepared to be "salted" with the new idea. Well! that has been done, but I can assure you, it took more than courage, it took iron-will and flagellation, with complete renunciation, and my taking on of the new beliefs as my ROBE.

This is the true idea of death and rebirth; man ever changing and resurrecting himself every Spring Equinox. While those down South, making the changes every Autumnal Equinox.

higher wisdom, then you will slowly comprehend this truth regarding change.

This can be helped considerably by the understanding of this diagram, which represents the higher and lower mind. The higher mind, the taller, being just LIGHT, the first embodiment. The second figure and the smaller, being the conscious comprehension, which is striving to "swallow" the change, and live it.

Then, as the lower mind awakens, it grows, and you get Cinderella marrying her prince and she as the feminine principle taking the lead, striving in every way to now become the positive creation. This is the true marriage of the soul, as seen in Genesis 2 v 24.

The intercalary of heights and depths, where the soul, in inter-marrying, becomes reborn back to the god status he fell into the heights of the risen mount, or MIND growth.

I have tried to put this simply so that even the most elderly and very young, could perceive; because although you may say this was only a belief. I have proved it, and it now is a living status of truth.

But there is heaps of room for change, where true brainy minds, when they come down to simplicity, will be able to create REAL tangible structures of heaven-born genius. This is but the earth outlook, but when somebody can possibly perceive cosmically, it is ideas of mighty Powers being harnessed within the soul of man, and he becoming a MASTER of created Power of heaven upon earth.

Not atomic destruction, but Atomic construction through his OWN being. Not mechanical, but he himself being an Isotope of Power, that can be a living God-life upon the earth. God speaking through His own son, with HIS own Voice manifesting.

The Source of LIFE now the OM speech of a living sensitive spiritual-born creature.

(See plate on page 9)

This plate alone proves this, it showing how man created this Deity in his own mind, while he was idly dreaming. Yet would be the outcome of what man had been creating down the Ages, and become the Embodiment in AD 33. Not the birth of Jesus, but the downpouring to the earth of a new inflow of life, really brought about by the beliefs of the Caesars, all inter-mixed with their ghastly debaucheries.

FOR EVERY NEW EQUINOX HAS TO HAVE A GREATER CREATION OF THE FACE, THE MACROPROSOPUS. THE GROWING IDEA OF THE DEITY THAT LEADS AND FEEDS THE WORLD WITH A NEW SOURCE OF REBIRTH.

(See "The Road of Relativity" in cols. 1, 2 & 3)

This is the REAL idea of man the creator, he who is changing the world by his awakenment to understanding.

new light, and your lower mind being lifted out of the rut of earthy states. Thus it must be seen, that although man creates his idea of God, the Deity as Transcendental inflow, it is really the most profound state of GOOD.

Yet the Deity as the All-Mighty Shaddai has always been, but had to be unfolded in man's mind, as an ever increasing idea of what is Right and Good, with the most profound becoming the leader of TRUTH.

OTHERWISE MAN IS EVER CREATING AROUND HIMSELF IN THE THEME OF FORM, AND NOT AROUND THE COSMOS AS DIVINITY.

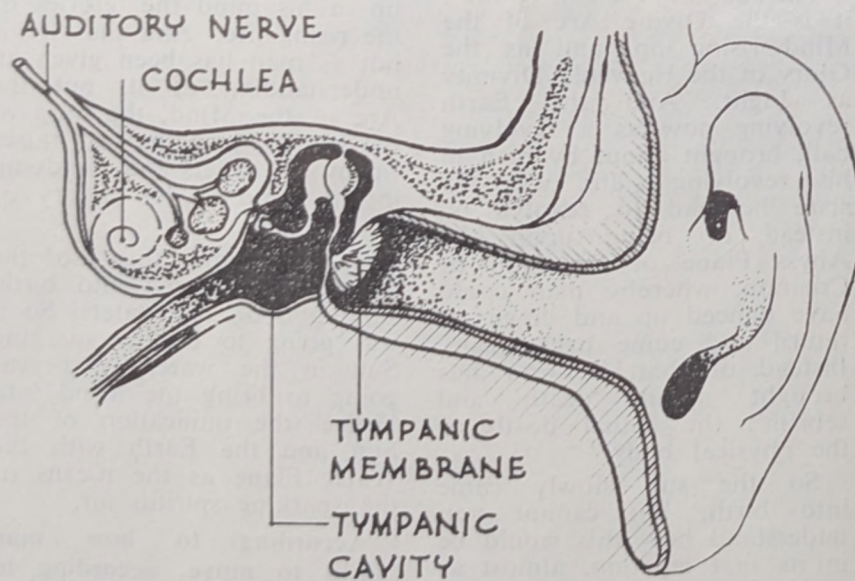

This is what happened to Atlantis, and it resulted in giants of power wrecking the earth. This is taking place once again in the scientist creating atom bombs, so I was given the task of bringing down the Atomic Fire to counteract it. Then by uniting it with the magnetic, new life was born, over-riding the scientist's earthy beliefs.

This is the great mystery of Aquarius where the inflowing Protons of Fire from the heavenly Prismic Bodies, unite with the electrons of matter, and bring forth neutrons of mind, that have to start being created into new ideas.

By putting the vast cosmic creation as simply as I can, it will not only help those of you who are not brilliant with your thinking capacity, but the scientific man who is stubborn and self-opinionated to a degree of blindness. But I have proved all this and they haven't, and nobody could have been more practical and logical minded than myself. That is why I took so long to fall to the idea of Belief.

I ALWAYS DECLARED I WANTED TANGIBLE PROOF, BUT OF COURSE

THE MYSTERY OF THE VOICE

(See text on page 9, cols. 1 and 5)

This is the changing of the world from negative to positive, and why I have to create articles of profound Wisdom, far above the intelligence of the majority, whereby their higher mind is stimulated with advanced light, and can feed the lower mind with fresh ideas.

People that are persistent, struggle to understand the advanced thought, and begin to expand and grow. So do not write and say that any of it is too complicated for you to understand. Some of you should get together, for amongst a number of you, the new idea will begin to shed light, especially with the Waters or Breath, raining down the new thought that I gave birth to in the heavens.

But most of all, your higher mind is being lifted up with the

The Unfolding Genius

THERE had to be changes, that is the Evolutionary Law, then man would come out of the vast EVIL he was creating in getting fixed and solidified in the disease that was over-coming his physical structure. But unfortunately, the changes now are so vast, there are other difficulties now to be faced.

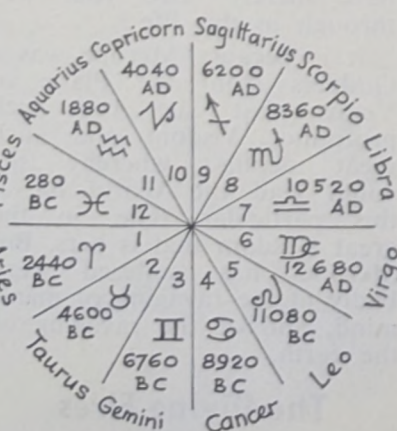

One of the most difficult truths to convey to man, is the fact of the FALL. Man did fall, for as a god, a heavenly being with a purpose, he fell for earthy desires. Thus, not only created a solid body, but fell in

The Road to Relativity

ALL movement of Time is calculated in terms of the Equinoctial Ages that the Sun moves through over 1,000's of years. An Equinox is an Age of Time calculated according to the time in years that it takes for the Sun to pass through the influences of one Celestial Sign. This is known exactly as each year the exact point of the Sun crossing the celestial equator is observed to move backwards in its circular movement some 50 seconds of circle circumference distance (60 seconds each minute: 60 minutes each degree: 360 degrees equals one circle).

This backward movement is known as the PRECESSION OF THE EQUINOXES. Thus it takes 2160 years to pass through each Sign, during which time that Hierarchy directs its Cosmic Energy through the Central Sun into the Earth, shedding its

Influence of Power onto Mankind. Each Age Man has unconsciously absorbed each Sign's Wealth and now is the

has to be met and understood. This the Chart shows, the Time given being the Commencement of each Age.

Every man has become so encrusted each Life with a new layer of skin, mind and power, that the free use of all Mind Growth is denied him because of his attachments and desires. Until this whole concourse of Being is unified into one Awakened Consciousness Man will not be able to gain the At-Omenent he is destined for, the Road of Relativity.

So this Age, the Age of Aquarius meets the influences of all that sown in its opposite Age, the Golden Age of Leo. So thus all those Roots as well as the resulting entanglement of the Roots, will have to be met and mastered. It is having the wisdom to know how to do this that is so vital to the Initiate.

love with it, thus became married to the beast.

He never really was the beast and then the man, but the soul who fell into the creation of a beast, and remained so, until an Abraham state of fired mind awakened, which became aware of a greater force coming to him from the heavenly forces.

This is where the soul was advised by that Voice speaking to him upon the tympanum of (See diagram page 8, cols. 4 & 5) his ear, "all will come out of thine own bowels, and when you can number the Stars in the heavens, so shall thy Seed be."

Man has got to get back to his true status of a spiritual being, which by my changing the Laws, he really has done. But in him clinging to old ideas, and causing chaos in the world, it looks a bit upside down for the moment.

Yet this is seen in the Chinese problem, where Mao, an old theory of the Chinese Emperors, is holding fire in ancient roots of China being pulled out. The same applies to Roman Catholicism in their ritual and dogma repressing progress of thought. And since man is only THOUGHT in a bestial body, he is being put into the stocks by those trying to retain old inquisitional power.

Every man must be a free agent to think, then by his thinking and creating, he creates either freedom for himself or purgatory. As time goes on, it will slowly dawn upon man that he is the creator of either freedom or captivity, by ever reshaping his life towards a good purpose cosmically. That is, spinning his mind and thoughts upwards to the heavenly inflow that is giving him life, then he can climb up by frequency of belief, becoming more and more unified with those mighty Powers that can lift him up out of the dregs of darkness.

But greater still, opening his mind to genius, which he can bless the earth with, and make untold unfoldment in his own status of growth. That is why he was allowed to return to the earth, for by this he has the opportunity of expansion through mastering his karmic difficulties in the experiences of life.

But he must try to keep in his mind, that his life is one continuous flow of rebirth. It is the body that dies and not the soul; the latter creates, and is only a part of a mind-soul creation, that is ever being perfected through the lives in a body of flesh.

A vibronic status of belief becoming a tangible rock, a state of growth, a state of light, that is either positive or negative in its creative possibility. This is the black shiny rock that man is ever tapping with the hoof of his Pegasus, his risen passions, that brings forth the sparking pituitary, the Uranian Fire.

This is the most difficult part in the growing changes, the creator living in the new belief, with everybody living in the old ideas. Not that you worry about them not agreeing with your belief, but the opposing pressure which is up against you as a wall of "dead" states. Yet here is where you prove to yourself that what you think is RIGHT, and you will fight to the bitter end to get this mighty truth fully established.

And it is no good man saying that Spiritual truths are not required, these are the fresh inflowing life from the higher Powers; by this I am not talking about religion of ritual and dogma, but man becoming responsive to the in-

Hence the tribal wars and labour uprisings, with the great eternal Heavens sending daily "new Waters" from the reborn Springs of the heights. For up in those Heavenly Planes are Planes of progressive Life, not old earthy ideas. Abyss is Earth, and the only solid status but even that has been changed by the Scapegoat raising up its status.

It is no good anybody hold-on to old decadent ideas; be wise and go with the tide, and save yourself pain. This you can do by priming yourself with

HEAVEN MANIFESTING UPON THE EARTH AS DIVINITY. HEAVENLY POWER. SPEAKING THROUGH A HUMAN SOUL. THE SOUL BEING THE CREATION OF AGES, UNIFYING WITH THE DESCENDING DEPTHS OF POWER FROM THE HEIGHTS.

The Divine Unification

THE greatest tragedy that I seem to find, is the young being taught such antiquated wisdom at School, as though that was the major structure from whence all was derived. Who wants to keep on learning about old Roman debaucheries, antiquated English futilities, and religious "tripe" that ought to have been burnt long ago, then the Sodomy Bill would never have arisen!

Our young pupil is continually coming home and saying, "Who wants to listen to that rubbish: I know it's not true, I learn better truth at home here." Yet if I tried to get this boy under my care, to teach him of truths that would really stand him in good stead for mind growth, I would be clapped into jail. This is where man is fixed, and relies upon old worn out status of degree and diploma, instead of striking out into fields anew.

What should really be created in a more advanced spiritual way of thinking, is the soul being reborn out of the selenic tympanum. What (See diagram page 8, cols. 4 & 5) is of the old lunar state, now manifesting as the tangible voice in the ear from the higher mind speaking direct to the lower mind, as the Sun and moon being united.

The Sun being the light of wisdom gleaned out of the Word, and now as the light of the higher mind, expanding the light sent down, by the lower mind weaving it into a garment of growth, by BELIEF.

Spiritual mind comprehension as an electrified fusion, that causes the Word to electrify the mind, to blossom forth greater beliefs. Complete unification by alchemicalisation, blossoming and firing into LIGHT, by the Holy Fire from the Unseen Source of the heights.

Proton-positive, Electron-negative, into neutron, as Spiritus Air, as a new idea radiating on the corti of the ear at 25 vibrations, instead of 15. Whereby what is received, becomes the MIND instruction of the Great Orion Mind, as the Voice of the Great Flame. That now manifesting upon the Atomic Plane, as a re-born status of the soul.

DIVINE BELIEF

AS man looked up to the heavens out of his density of darkness, there he beheld the glory of the mighty Unseen coming out of the density of a cloud. The mighty magnitude of all that had been, now the auric glory of the soul. (See text on page 8, col. 4 and page 7, col. 4).

The Mind Light

THE world MUST change for the good of all, otherwise war and disaster through congestion of old states. Yes, small tribal wars, but a world war NO! All it needed was a Scapegoat who was prepared to be "salted" with the new idea. Well! that has been done, but I can assure you, it took more than courage, it took iron-will and flagellation, with complete renunciation, and my taking on of the new beliefs as my ROBE.

This is the true idea of death and rebirth; man ever changing and resurrecting himself every Spring Equinox. While those down South, making the changes every Autumnal Equinox.

higher wisdom, then you will slowly comprehend this truth regarding change.

This can be helped considerably by the understanding of this diagram, which represents the higher and lower mind. The higher mind, the taller, being just LIGHT, the first embodiment. The second figure and the smaller, being the conscious comprehension, which is striving to "swallow" the change, and live it.

Then, as the lower mind awakens, it grows, and you get Cinderella marrying her prince and she as the feminine principle taking the lead, striving in every way to now become the positive creation. This is the true marriage of the soul, as seen in Genesis 2 v 24.

The intercalary of heights and depths, where the soul, in inter-marrying, becomes reborn back to the god status he fell into the heights of the risen mount, or MIND growth.

I have tried to put this simply so that even the most elderly and very young, could perceive; because although you may say this was only a belief, I have proved it, and it now is a living status of truth.

But there is heaps of room for change, where true brainy minds, when they come down to simplicity, will be able to create REAL tangible structures of heaven-born genius. This is but the earth outlook, but when somebody can possibly perceive cosmically, it is ideas of mighty Powers being harnessed within the soul of man, and he becoming a MASTER of created Power of heaven upon earth.

Not atomic destruction, but Atomic construction through his OWN being. Not mechanical, but he himself being an Isotope of Power, that can be a living God-life upon the earth. God speaking through His own son, with HIS own Voice manifesting.

The Source of LIFE now the OM speech of a living sensitive spiritual-born creature.

THE MYSTERY OF SOUND OR SPOKEN WORD

by Gladys I. Spearman-Cook

PAUL when he awakened said "Our conversation is in heaven from whence we expect our own Saviour who will bring us out of this birth," that is, the corruption of the third Principle as the sustenance by which we eat the Word of Truth. And it is obvious by these words that man finds his own divinity, and he is nought but what he believes himself to be; and furthermore, we are our own judges. When Nathan said to David, "Thou art the man," it was his own conscience that had accused him of befouling the way of life. In this day and age, these words and their like seem utterly out of place, and yet they are needed more than ever. It is because man has drawn so far away from Truth, that the very atmosphere of life has gone antichrist, for unless man turns to the heights, whether he calls them God or Buddha, he will become lost in his own self-godhood, his own self-glorification. This was the position of Egypt, Greece and Rome before their Fall.

Re-birth of Religion

TO speak of religion or anything appertaining to it almost makes you antiquated these days, and yet to write boldly stating facts as to why Religion has failed us, calls for rebuke, or immediately sets up another turn of self-righteousness. I wonder WHY?

Is this a form of guilt-complex that fences each way of the road, or is it that man is judging himself on the "eve before the deluge." And again, to even write these words, I almost feel some looking at me as though I must have come out of the ark, and need locking up quickly.

Religion has never played any part in my life, for I was reared by a parent who taught me the rudiments of Philosophy, and in my early days, such knowledge was still young, "its hour had not come." Consequently it was looked upon then in the same light as religion is today, and one breathed it silently.

Within the last ten years changes have taken place so rapidly, one hardly dare think of what the next fifty years will bring; and as much as I welcome progress, I still, in this present day world, would like to hear once again, the words of the philosophy I found so necessary to help me over the many stiles of my numerous difficulties in life.

THIS PHILOSOPHY TAUGHT ME THAT REBIRTH MUST BE PERFORMED WITHIN, FOR THE HEART, AS THE SON OF GOD TO RISE, WAS MY ONLY SURE PHILOSOPHY. AND I FULLY COMPREHENDED THAT BY THAT METHOD LOVE WOULD BE REBORN WITHIN, AND WOULD BE AS THE CHRIST FORCE BEING REDEEMED, AND BECOMING THE SHEPHERD TO THE SOUL.

This may sound stupid these days, only because man does not know what the Christ force literally is. But he is not to blame, religion has made this error. When Paul made that statement he knew what the Christ force within meant, and so did the Ancient Egyptians, for this is where Paul gathered his knowledge. Man consists of seven natures that were drawn from the seven primary powers which correspond to the backbone of Osiris. But Osiris, so the legend declares, was torn to pieces by Sut, the darkness of life; therefore Isis, the Eve of life, had to gather all those fourteen parts together again that the God could live.

These fourteen parts in their duality are the seven cervical vertebrae in the backbone of man. Three of these support his head, the axis upon which the head turns, and the vertebrae prominens with its long spiral process. This links with the perfect square of the Masonic mysteries, and Pyramid square, for these are in four joints, and link with the seven natures that bring the soul to the Ka-eidolon with a human face; the divine body, the Robe of my soul, or the seven Uraeus made eternal within the soul.

If man builds seven bodies within each other, which link in sensitivity with the cerebro-spinal nervous system that finalises in the pneumogastric nerve in the solar plexus, it links with the Woman, or feminine principle who gathers the material and brings light to the soul, the personality which radiates the light or sensitivity from the lower mind. These bodies were as a vapour emanating from the blood, and as a man thought so he and his bodies united, for by eating the word of truth he united all the bodies within, and became.

These seven are classified in three lower bodies as the Khabit or lower mind; then the Sekhem equal to the heart, while the Khu was the higher mind in the upper three, making seven altogether that linked with the seven cervical heaven from whence we expect our own Saviour, who will bring us out of this birth." Thus the higher we keep our thoughts and ever revolve them upwards, does our blood emanate the vapour of our aura, and attract unto us those things that we would have, or would not have.

Yet without a Ba-soul the creature remains unvividified, for she is the one who labours, the Martha, or Nephthys. Without the Sekhem, the heart principle, the soul lacks the essential power to uprise, and is the Nathan; while the Khu-spirit cannot get out of the prison-house without Merope who gave birth to the present risen Son, for she is the mother of the young coming god.

He being created in the image of God; the Ka-eidolon. This links with the great house in the heavens, the house of seven Halls wherein sit Seven Masters and forty-nine gods all over-ruled by Osiris, the Great Amsu, who directs his powers down to those seven cervical bones of four joints, which gives the soul the power to look, think and act.

Perhaps it is the depth and not the words that is lacking with man today. The fact that man only understands the heights of Space as the length to be measured by space-ships, and not the extent of seeking the Fatherhood that gave us birth, is surely the answer to this problem. But to me it will always remain the great Illimitable Unknown, where depths and heights are lost in imperceptible unity; and which leaves one lost for any further words.

The Divine Principle of Light

IN judging myself, as we are called upon to do by those forty-nine gods in those Halls of Truth, I know that, whatever be the day or age, unless man becomes in mind, and gives unto the Great Mind, the Logos, in return, he will never receive any more, and will not become and grow. This is a simple fact; too simple for the scientist; evil to the theologian, and righteous to the mundane man.

Is it too much to try and remind man that the eternal generating is as an unbeginning birth, and it has neither number nor end; its depth is bottomless, while the bond of life is incorruptible and indissoluble, and that he is really fed from that source and not the Astral?

The sidereal and elementary spirit which corresponds with the Khabit, and which is the Astral starry and airy spirit of man, cannot comprehend of the great Heights as the Source from which Real Life is breathed into man again; that which prevents him from utter sterility.

Yet of these Great Heights the airy spirit of man cannot discern, and much less comprehend; and those who can, can only feel and see a glimpse of it in the mind of the Khu through the heart principle. Then it becomes as a chariot of the soul, upon which the mind rides in the First Principle in such words uttered by Paul.

For as Ezekiel, he became translated by thought, having had conversation in heaven, and he stated, "I knew a man in Christ above fourteen years ago, whether in the body I cannot tell; or whether out of the body I cannot tell: God knoweth; such an one caught up to the third heaven. How that he was caught up into paradise, and heard unspeakable words, which it is not lawful for a man to utter."

THIS IS THE SEAT IN THE VEHICLE TO THE FATHER'S ETERNAL GENERATING AND BEGETTING, THAT LIFE CAN GO ON IN REAL RICHNESS. MAN CAN ONLY KNOW GOD WHEN HE FINDS GOD IN THE SON, OUT OF THE THIRD PRINCIPLE; THE SIDE-REAL AND ELEMENTARY BIRTH FROM THE SPIRACULUM VITAE. THE SPIRIT SPIRALLING UPWARDS IN SIMPLE MIND MEASURE AND BELIEF; THE SPIRIT OF THE SOUL BEING GENERATED INTO LIGHT.

The "Parent" Space is the eternal ever present cause-of-all, the incomprehensible Deity whose Invisible Robes are the mystic Root of all Matter and of the Universe. Whether man accepts it or not, Space is the one eternal thing when without dimension, and in every sense the Great self-existent Spirit which eludes man's dissecting; yet the first differentiation from that, the Causeless Cause of both Spirit and matter, bones, and with Taurus, the bull and generator.

As a man thought so he rested upon any plane of these bodies; but when a man gathered them up together by a rising Kundalini, or gathering in his seven Uraeus, he brought the radiance of his Ka into a Doppel-ganger, or Robe of oneness of glorious light. Then Christ the Presence would be seated within; so man is nought but what he believes and makes himself to be. This is the mystery of the Sphinx.

The Khu is a soul in which the personality has attained the pure spirit of the dove or shekinah, while the Ka is he who has attained the seven-fold One-ness, he of the Christ divinity upon that state of comprehension. But religion did not teach us this, but Paul did, and what is more, he stated "Our conversation is in produces those planes of mind within man; his seven bodies, which when brought to a oneness as light become the Robe, the glorious body of light.

(See plate on this page)

The Robe standing for the Noumenon of undifferentiated Cosmic matter, is not matter as man knows it, but the spiritual essence of Matter and is co-eternal; even one with Space in its Abstract sense. This in more earthy language refers to the finesse and detail which only the royal craftsman understands, such as Michael Angelo, Beethoven, Handel and Salvador Dali, though only Paul arrived there in mind.

Today man knows only one thing, bulk matter, with as little detail as possible, that it can become bartered in competition at as low a price as possible; while the labourer seeks to obtain the biggest wage possible. Therefore, this finesse is not understood, but when man can perceive that Space is bodiless, some god-like thing that he receives from in abundance, he will begin to unite Religion and Science through UNIVERSAL PHILOSOPHY.

But he must remain on the path of that knowledge, that by some god-like thing, that which is ingenerable, that beyond genesis, he will behold Space as that which is substantial and IS God Himself, who transcends that substance. This is the First Principle as the Fiery Essence of Life that becomes the Ansu in man; the Principle which all Scientists are yearning to capture to re-unite all that they have dissected and dismembered. God is first "thinkable" as something intelligible for all; not for Himself; for what His thoughts are, He Is; and is the Fresh Breath which man is ever seeking to capture.

If Space is therefore Thought, it should not be thought of as God, but Space; yet on the other hand, if God is that Thought, He must not be conceived as Space, but Energy that can contain all Space, and which becomes intelligence in man when transmuted into God-like-power.

For there can be no such thing as void, for if all is as we are now comprehending, what appears void, is the Spouse of Deity, WOMAN. That in which "All doth move," in which all things live and move and have their being, and is the Bodiless; that body of light. The Mind or Reason of God, the Logos as the Place of the Gods in the mind of man. Yet we must behold the infinite Space as the container of all things, the very Spouse of Deity and the Mother of man.

But now we come to the most intricate side of the comprehending; if the VOID is the Spouse of Deity, it is also the Son that becomes; but whether Spouse or Son it matters not, as the Son swallows up the Spouse; that in which all moves, lives and breathes, and is Wisdom, Goodness and Truth. The AEON of aeons, Light of light, Life of life; the archetype of Soul itself. Therefore God is not Spirit, much "less" a spirit, but "Cause that Spirit is," for God is "Good alone."

Then if we know God and Space to be such, why should man be afraid that he sounds righteous if he speaks of God, if he utters of Spirit? Or in talking of the Noumenon and phenomenon of Spirit is wicked and evil because it sounds like magic? WHY? Because he has through the ages been "salted" with wrong religious wisdom, and finally become so worldly and material, that he has drawn away entirely from truth and light. Now man cannot see that whether you speak of matter, body or Essence, that all these are the energies of God. That materiality is matter's energy; that corporality is bodies' energy, and that essentiality constitutes the energy of Essence; and this IS GOD—the all.

Upadhi of its spirit and ether is the upadhi of light.

Time which is the outcome of all these things is only illusion produced by the succession of our earth states of consciousness as we travel through Eternal Duration in that Upadhi, and the present is only a mathematical line which divides that of Eternal Duration, which to man is the

THE ROBE

SUCH divinity can come again, for the hour is here when the Atomic wonder is now the mystical force of the unified chromosomes, that can bring this mysterious Robe into birth; for every man is born of this mighty Cosmic matter, and can become of its co-eternal depths. (See text in col. 1 and on page 14, col. 1).

The Eternal Source

IT is a fact that creed and dogma have built such an erroneous picture of God in the crucified son, that they have killed religion and their whole edifice of erroneous teachings. If they had kept the man Paul down to the man he was, and not glamorised the Scriptures until they were forced to modify them, they would not today be burying their "dead," with man utterly derelict, impoverished and cut off; completely devoid of all true sense of God and priestal hierarchy.

Man completely without any true Priestal government to let in New Breath by Eucharistic Sacrament born through wisdom, and is like a ship without a rudder. This is something not understood by the present Race, but would have borne effect later on with the next generation coming forward completely God-less, if it had not been for Merope raising all up to the divinity of Neptune.

The only thing that this hierarchy have to offer is a mildewed collection of popery, pomp and ceremony; and the great tragedy is that all is naught that is not God. Neither size, Space, quality, form, time, or even deterioration; for all surroundeth God and He is All, and All surroundeth all and permeates all.

Yet of the HIM-HER Eternal Source, Root-Nature is the source of the subtle invisible properties in visible Matter, and is the Soul as Her of the One Infinite Spirit-Him, the Mulaprakriti; the primordial Substance which is the basis of the Upadhi, the vehicle of every phenomenon.

The electrical virillic force whether physical, psychic or mental. It is the source from which Akasha radiates. Therefore Upadhi-Root-Nature is the vehicle of every phenomenon, thus the carrier of something less material than itself. The human body is the future from that which you call the past. And yet to add unto, nothing on Earth has real duration, for nothing remains without change.

The very sensation you have of the actuality of the division of Time which you perceive as present, is but the melting of the succession of glimpses your senses give you as they pass from the state of ideal—future, to a region of memories; and which you name past, until it comes forth as a period of karmic activity. Karmic action, that they can become practicality, a working principle of life.

So if you can see your mind as the sun state of consciousness that has been gathered under this process, you will see a grouped formation of Thought, Will and Feeling; and during the time of your sojourn in the realms of Spirit—discarnation, will remain as your future permanent means of mental action. Thus by this, you can realize that until your state of consciousness truly becomes of REALITY, it will never have the state of Akasha—the electrical virillic force that drives a man onwards.

YOU WILL NOT HAVE CAPTURED THE SUBTLE SUPERSENSITIVE SPIRIT-ESSENCE WHICH PERVADES ALL SPACE, AND OF WHICH URANUS IS THE DRIVER THEREOF, FORCING MARS, THE HUMAN WILL, TO RESPOND IN SELF-PRESERVATION.

This Upadhi is also the vehicle of Akashic records which every soul desires to possess; but after it has passed through the mumia or alchemicalized passage of soul creation. This will unravel the many questions to life, and the supersensitive spiritual essence's journey via the Holy Ghost. It is the Twelve Hierarchies who direct of this great Force of LIFE, and these issue forth from the four Great LORDS, North, South, East and West; known to most as Matthew, Mark, Luke and John.

	Dec. 30th Crete

The fixed cross seen by Ezekiel, with the four Great Beasts before the Throne. These help and assist the virgin spark to become clothed as the soul and to find its consciousness, apart from directing the concatenation of Causes.

Because we are so far away from the Spiritual Godhead, man in his dense coating of matter is lost to that supersensitive truth, unless by dire will, his extracted quota of that supersensitive Essence, he obtains a supersensitive state to be conscious of the Voice and Word in that Rhythm of Life.

To obtain of this state he will have to come away from those things of matter which destroy of sensitivity, those things that dull the senses by sensational desire. Then as we do we shall find that the Four great Truths carried on the Four Great Winds as the nine Great Breaths will be revealed unto us; and the soul becomes an Iesus, a vehicle or upadhi for the Christos to radiate and manifest to all men.

Each of the Twelve Hierarchical Powers will, as an antecedent Cause, nurse and nurture the soul into life, that their Four great Overlords can find a channel for the direction of Truth. These Twelve Beings, the chief cause of all existencies and balancers of life—they who even order the Sun, Moon and Stars—are only but the agents for yet the greater purpose of life to manifest. By this, some length has been revealed of the wisdom of reincarnation, especially to those who dread rebirth.

DEATH IS ONLY A DOOR THROUGH WHICH THE SOUL PASSES FROM ONE STATE UNTO ANOTHER; AN INTERMEDIARY STATE IN WHICH THE EGO IS PREPARING ITS JOURNEY UNTO THE PLANE OF ATMA-BUDDHI-MANAS — BEING - CONSCIOUSNESS - BLISS. THE SEVENTH PRINCIPLE OF CONSTITUTION OBTAINED BY MAN FULLY INDIVIDUALIZED BY THE 6TH PRINCIPLE AFTER ITS JOURNEY DOWN INTO HELL.

Buddhi is the Spiritual soul, and when the seventh has been individualized, it brings that of the monad, the virgin spark, into the mind faculty of created MAN; an intelligent moral being. Therefore when qualified as manas-mind it becomes qualified as Buddhi-manas—spiritual-mind, and when fully completed, Atma-Buddhi-Manas, the constitution of Oneness in the wholeness.

By this it can be seen that Divine Man indwells in the animal man, and becomes three spirits; but even then we may in curiosity ask, HOW? The Serpent known as DAATH that began its journey from the HIM-HER after they became Adam and Eve, came to labour among men, and ran with 370 leaps, so the legend reports. This was the triune in creation of seven from the upper world to the lower. This comes to man as the fiery life via the Akasa, and after alchemicalization becomes the atman or soul; the principle of life and its sensory powers, to bring forth the abstract individual.

THEREFORE IT IS UP TO MAN TO STRIVE TO OBTAIN THE FRESH AIR OF LIFE BY BREATHING THROUGH THE UPADHI OF HONOUR AND TRUTH; THE DUAL FOUNDATION OF ALL SECURITY; BUT NOT FIXITY. SECURITY OF BEING.

This Akasa is the Spiritual Essence which pervades all Space; the Universal Space in which lies inherent the eternal Ideation of the Universe in its ever changing aspects on the planes of Matter and objectivity. From this radiates the First Logos or expressed thought; thus conveys the Word unto those who are supersensitive enough to behold and extract.

Being the symbol of the Logos it has an attribute, Sound; "Speech" as OM in its mystic sense. In another aspect Akasa, the Upadhi for Reality, and as the Kundalini, is occult electricity; also the universal solvent, and the Anima Mundi on the higher plane, as the Astral light is on the lower plane. So this Bliss being consciousness is objectivity in practical application, but on a plane of sensitivity and not on the sensuous.

But while we are in a dissecting mood, let us ask what is Astral light? It is the older sidereal light—light of time experiences. The magical agent that has been transformed and transforms all else, and is the fourth principle, the means of universal projection into form, of which the Sun is the third.

The Sun being only a reflection and material shadow of the great Central Sun of Truth, the Word of the Seven Logoi through the four Great Lords. These have the twelve Hierarchical Powers to direct and illumine the intellectual World of Spirit, that soul can be born into Man. Spirit being but a gleam borrowed from Absolute.

The Astral light is also known as Cronus, Time; prudence, Saturn, infinity and immortality. It is the lowest plane of Prakriti, the Natural Fire of the Natural Cosmos. The Egyptians call it Ptah, the creative intellect, or divine Wisdom, while the Greeks named this creation as the Solar formation as Apollo, here, for she stood upon the mound and raised the rainbow, and all began as that constellated in the Northern Stars. The mind raised up as a revolving acme of lower and higher mind.

The Nimbus of Activity

THE root of this tree is Sut who came forth in opposition to Horus the solar child, and within its shade rests the Holy Family, and although itself is a few centuries old, it was but the former of the later successor, one which existed at the time of the Christos. Hathor as the Lady of the Underworld, and of independent origin, sometimes took the place of Nut, and gave water to the souls of the dead from the midst of a sycamore.

This tree is in the palace of Heliopolis, and many stories are told of how the bennu bird revolves and turns back, reborn from midst of flames which arose from out of the summit of a tree of great beauty. Then came forth the great mystery.

Osiris stepped into the chest made from its wood, shut fast the lid and soldered with melted lead. Then carrying it to the river sent it forth to sea.

When Isis learned what had happened her mourning was great; she wandered far and wide seeking for the body of her husband, until at length she heard from some children through which mouth of the Nile the chest had passed out to sea. She also learned that Osiris had once lain with her sister Nephthys taking her for Isis, and seeking for their child she found it and cared for it.

The child was known as Anubis, the god who presided over embalming and represents twilight, and became her guardian and companion in her wanderings. In the meantime the chest containing the body of Osiris had floated ashore at Byblos where it was soon surrounded and overgrown by the stem of a magnificent Erica.

The king of the land seeing the tree, had it cut down and set up as a pillar of his house, not suspecting that within it was the chest. From this each Egyptian received help from Thoth who restored their speech to them, and taught them to recite the true tree formulas, with Anubis prepared to conduct them to the Judgment Hall.

Thus we see the second Nut figured as a woman seated within the Sycamore pouring waters of refreshment from a libation vase onto the hands of a soul crouching at the foot of the tree. This great mystery of the blood life is enormous, and one to only be related to the wise, for it is the revolving nimbus that must not be deteriorated at critical moments in the relating of past to present.

This as the Sycamore tree or dom-palm holds the great secret of mysterious inner Africa; that world which man denies, or declares that it was the basic as animal creation, but really is the missing link now impossible to find. Yet really is his own inner being, and waits below as Sut.

Sometimes he is seen as the little mischievous black child, or at others as the giant of combative creation; he who resides in the desert as Ishmael, the child of illegitimate creation. The only reminder that man has is the sand in his shoe, which is only removed when the soul treads on sacred ground, then all becomes the circle of the Great Bear.

It was all this that was being established as the seven astronomes in the celestial heptanomis in man's totemic climb, and it was by his war dance around the Totem Pole that he set those Chakras revolving through his racing bloodstream and rising belief. It was through this that the Moon-god Tehuti measured the hours and spanned the heights, and later on as a continued prototype, Christianity stretched the Christos to the Cross and suspended him from heaven to earth.

In the majority this is an empty dilapidated room, one completely riddled with mice who scamper wildly about at every attempt of the turning of the key. Sensitivity never yet conquered, yet it be the nucleus of the perception that all souls are seeking; the basic of all time, whether of two thousand years of actionary recording or twenty six thousand years of blood growth.

Here is hidden the secret spring to gush forth in the mysterious Equinox of the sacred trust; the man with the bucket who is able to water the parched world with the pure crystal waters from the holy heights. He who can relate to those not yet prepared, of the long forgotten history of the burning bush.

All through creation this mysterious edifice has become the recorder of TIME, and many gory happenings have issued forth as the slime produced of its fungus. It is because of this that man becomes afraid to venture forth and investigate its inner depths, that it may receive of new life that will renovate the sacred hiding place in the glass mountain of Truth. Yet man still recites the Hymn to the Nile in his Mass and Litany, though with not the same reverence and understanding as of old; for the Egyptian bowed the head and quickened the pulse, whereby Sebek the crocodile came forth and began to devour of the dead.

Now man quickens the desires and generates a new idea for a greater scheme than his neighbour. When he is ready and thoroughly prepared under a trusted Captain, he must venture forth once again, and with sails billowed full, must go forth on those uncharted seas and find his lost continent of inner Africa.

(See the plate below)

When found he must then find the secret room in the cave of the Dragon, open the sacred chest, let out the musty odour, and find the mysterious secret drawer that will reveal the ancient chart which will re-commence the voyage of twelve thousand years ago. It may take man a thousand years to find that ancient world, that the full span can prepare the way for a new charted sea to commence. But why not you be the artificer of that new map of direction?

It will be found upon that journey that not only Sebek was the son of the Great Bear, but also Arthur the sacred Hero of those mysterious times; while hovering in the heights has been the shadow of the life that has waited so patiently for man to accept, and release from off the cross. An imaginary construction erected by man to build an edifice of power. But many other wonders will be found on that journey once it is started; Old Mother Rhea who secretly cohabited with Saturn, she who caused spells to bring forth of many children; or the goddess whom Hermes fell in love with, and in time, if he perseveres he may even meet Nut, the Mother of the gods.

But man must be sure all the way of that journey that he follows the Great Bear's tail which points to the ancient birth place, the great Theban Tomb; then the journey will be lighted by the Moon at night and the Sun by day. By this he will complete his quest for the Holy Grail and carry the Chalice back to the Great Source that will ever give him life through the whole of the journey.

It must never be forgotten, ye who seek the true path of Destiny, that the old mother who presided over your first birth into man-bearing was the same midwife to her great-granddaughter's confinement of the twins, and later still her modern daughter, advocating promiscuity like her ancient ancestor, but with more licence and less understanding of the purpose.

For it is the same old First Mother who was meskhenat, or midwife, when Hathor gave her birth, she who conducted the rising of Sothis. She who caused Solomon to have a 1,000 wives; Cleopatra to lead Anthony into destruction, and Mary Magdalene to give birth to a son, though she knew it not while travelling on that journey.

Man the Creator

LIFE is ever in the act of issuing forth from the Tree, whether it be of tree frogs, or nude young females that cause the bull to roar. The motive has ever been the same, that the young-man-making, or bringing forth of the son, will follow the voice of the later tabooed Eve, that generation can follow its course whichever way Adam ordains. The journey goes round and round as the bull roars, while the pole star, that conducts the journey, is still the same old Sothis (Virgo), but now with the material for a new purple gown.

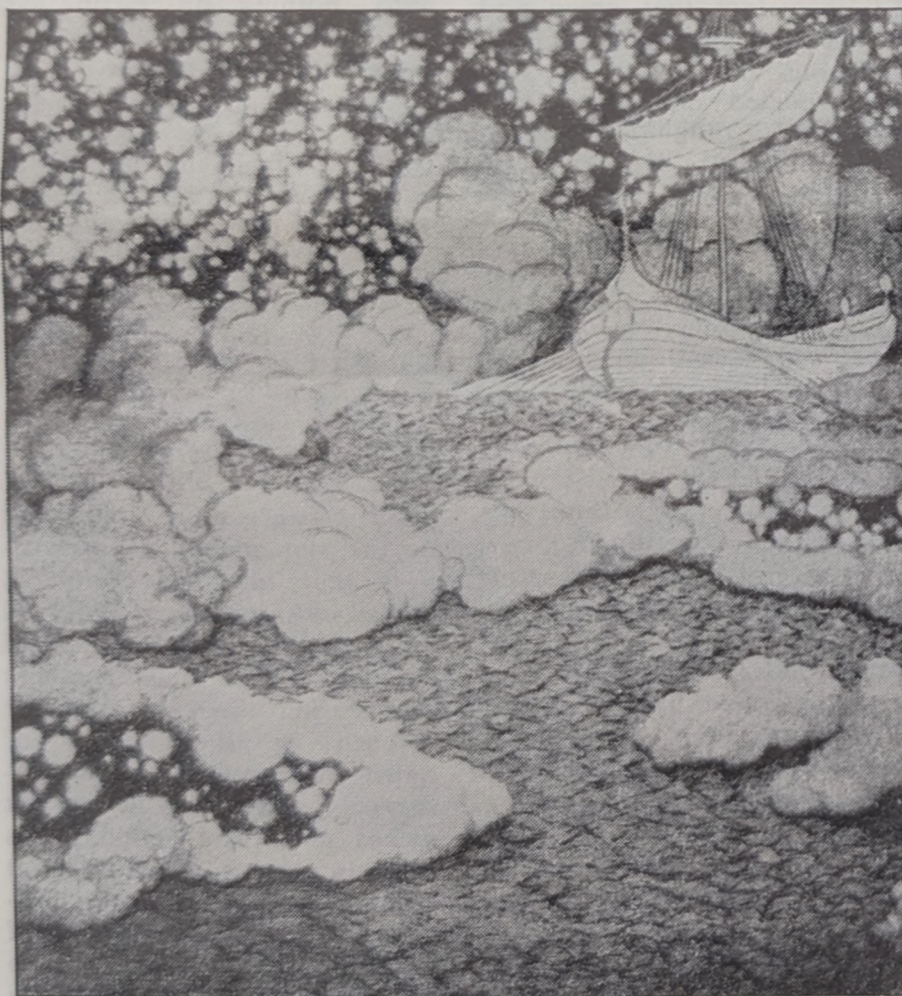

Whether man condemns or not, the vulva figure adored and worshipped in the Phallic Temples, now becomes the nimbus of the Christos, for it has ever been the churinga or womb-shaped birth place, the revolver of evolutions. It was through this, as Rerit or Menait the Great Bear Goddess, that the motion of circling began, and the vast starry heavens began to whirl and glister with light and purpose, urging Cassiopeia to break her chains and become free; with Cepheus to straighten his crown and fasten up his robes, for once again the great desert winds will begin to roar wild and disastrously.

FOR FATE DECREED MAN AS CREATOR, LONG BEFORE MAN BELIEVED THAT HE WAS THE ORDAINER OF PRINCIPLES; A TIME WHEN THE "LIVING WORD" WAS WORSHIPPED AND TABULATED AS THE "DIE" FOR THE MILCH-COW TO FEED THE WORLD, AND LEAD FORTH INTO MATURITY.

Whether Nut, Isis, Rerit, Aphrodite, or Mary the virgin, all are Cassiopeia in her chains as Andromeda chained at the rock, or modern Sylvia bound to a log of dead wood, seeking to find her lost hero in her jiving son. All came forth through the Seven Powers with the Seven Great Spirits constellating their children and carving a potential ceiling for some future great Denderah Temple. But whatever changes man effects, he can never alter that the course for this journey is by and through the source of liquid life, dropping as dew and rain from heaven; that is the prerogative of the gods.

The staff of Ptah will ever be Anup the leg of Nut and the back-bone of Osiris; while the lady in the chair will ever remain seated in the chair until the river of blood-red waters begins to flow as the white stream from the lake of milk. Whereby that produced by the Great Sacred Cow, the dame of the Great White Bull, is returned as the flame of life and not the waters of Adam.

While Anup is the divine consciousness that is ever

THE SEA OF SILENCE

WITH sails set full, and the tiller set right, the mighty Argo set forth on her journey of life; with the heavens ablaze with starry beauty, and the night radiant with the silence of becoming. (See text in col. 3).

coming into birth, as the Jackal bays in the moonlight and finds the food for the activity to be performed, that the heavenly dew can fall upon the soul as divine Baptism. Thus the staff of Ptah will be the mind activation that will bring the awareness into birth, which will be the activity of Nut, the seed, and the back-bone of the Fatherhood.

It matters not whether man sends forth rivals into the heavens, tries to stem the tides and dam the watercourses, he cannot alter the setting stars or perpetual apparition of their circling; but only veil and dim the vision from his own sight and lose his foothold to the Mesken tomb, the re-birthplace in the heaven of eternity.

The soul once it can understand even but little, will dimly become aware of rising stars, but not until he truly awakens will he know the meaning of wanting "to shine above the haunch" as he comes forth from the heavens. Shining through the mind and not through the animal's eyes.

Little does he remember that he requested, nay pleaded, to be reborn 'twixt the thighs of the divine Cow as that type of heaven; she who incited souls to perform of many deeds. For he who built Denderah's oriental corners was led by she who instructed Atum to glaze cornices and fashion ceilings and pillars; I-em-hetep to stretch the measuring cord for Edfu. While in the Edda, Audhumla to feed Ymir, and the Ganges to issue forth of Vishnu. Then why should not that lady of the Thigh lead you also and unite you with your ancient past, thus cement the past and present in relativity, and bring you the divine perfection that you descended into matter to achieve.

THIS CAN ONLY BE GAINED BY THAT ALREADY STATED, FOR MAN IS THE CREATOR AND THE ACTIVATOR OF ALL ELEMENTS, AND THE MEANS WHEREBY ALL THAT IS, CAN BECOME.

Once upon a time this sign took the place of the Woman, perceiving how the ancients saw the giver forth as a milch cow, the "haunch" from whence flowed the great white river of the Via Lactea. This was carved upon the ceiling of the Great Temple at Denderah in a rectangular zodiac, that which came forth from the wisdom of Babylonia. It was referred to as "the yoke of the enclosure."

While the reason of being referred to as a cow, was due to the heavens visualized as a source of liquid life, that dropped dew and rain upon earth. First known as Apt, the cow of earth, then later on as Nut, the Cow of heaven, but as time elapsed it was changed to Cassiopeia. This constellation is set in the Milky Way and was also known as Mesken the womb, or birth place where milk was given to the soul who made regeneration through this passage or channel of rebirth.

All was a part of the circumpolar Paradise, the home of the gods of the mythology, that which was a forerunner to the eschatology. Thus, since all came forth from these gods, whether as gods, stars or elements, it must be seen the importance of this wisdom, for by the knowledge of their entry into matter, their mode of creation, will man be able to see many things psychologically he has never seen before.

He will be able to recognise why he has become lost at a certain time, and what he must try to do to set things into activity once again; for that element was not active within him. It is because man has discarded the ways and means which gave him birth, and set up standards and ideas of his own, that he has lost the key to the prototype of the original.

Without that he is lost, for drugs and knife will never solve what these keys can offer as the answer to his problems. They are the root of his problems; the root which he has twisted and brought forth a growth of stunted life. For him to find the positive to what he is living in in the negative, he must seek through the elements that gave him birth.

The True Spiritual Rebirth

WHATEVER name or description was given to this ancient constellation, it was evident that it was believed by the primitive that the Cow of heaven was the mistress of the mount, and supplied Horus with milk to feed him while on earth. Thus the Woman, Mother Nature, was seen as the suckler or wetnurse that nurtured all into life. The Babylonians only saw this new inflow of life as generative creation and not Spiritual rebirth, thus referred to it as the "haunch," hence the disaster that followed; for enquiry into life and its mystery needs spiritual approach and divine inception.

When Egypt took over the guidance all was reformed into the new impregnation as the Woman enthroned, with her displaying the left breast ready to feed the world. Her hair was short though thick and curly, and while her left hand was busily engaged in arranging her hair, her right was rearranging her gown. She is seen seated at the side of Cepheus the king who was enthroned in the previous sign of Pisces.

Now in Aries the Woman becomes the bride of the Lamb; the Goat completely reborn into the Spiritual Son of the Ram. For it was what the Ram sent forth into the heights that became spiritually uplifted and reborn through the heavenly dew, the milk of the Mother who held the Constellation in her womb. For where does the Ocean of Milk begin and end?

But even then, Mother Nature was seen as one who supplied man with all he required, providing he in turn gave her so much in burnt-offering; sacrificing of the beast for the spiritual gifts. Man by service, to earth himself and by making all a practical establishment in matter. This enriched the territory of Mother Earth, who in return gave further crops and herds unto man.

After all, in those times man only had what he laboured for, and this he knew. It was not a matter of slick business or cute and cunning bartering, but wise and careful husbandry. So festivals and mass worship to the gods became the order of the day; yet festivals which man today still propitiates, for he carries forward the same solar action in his worship and recognition, but without any idea why. To him it is a holiday when he can throng all open places and lie and bask in the Sun.

ritual "Shu of the upliftings," he who was the kneeler. A god who was raising up the mound, and was as Nut uplifting the heavens through the service rendered by her sons.

He became the helper of the solar god, and had to learn of all ways possible as to how to outwit the evil monster Apap. It was now of such necessity, as to give unto these children wit and cunning to get crops

DIVINITY! DIVINITY!

OH mighty world that I have never touched, help me to rise up out of my darkness of avidya; that I in the embrace of the radiant eagle, can enter into thy territory divine. That the holy radiance of the heavenly glory of that divine celestial Being, will embrace me in His holy wonder, that He and I can become one. (See text in col. 4 and on page 7, col. 5).

The New Journey of Redemption

IN ancient Egypt this meant Temple worship where the human priestess, who resembled the Divine Goddess, brought down Uction and Life into matter. Then the link was only with the magnetic inflow, for those children were in preparatory effort in seeking to obtain the solar life, that would interblend with the lunar and give them the creation they were seeking for.

Even then, Egypt as a world full of new life, one re-born from the catastrophe, was having to devour up the evil still residing in the Maelstrom or outer Stratosphere of Earth, from Babylonian ignorance and folly. Thus they knew that the Cow was a Mother of salt water as well as fresh. But curiously enough, even this had its curative qualities, for if not fit for drinking, bathing in the salt lakes gave much healing to many of their sickness, particularly as purification to fight the Apap monster.

With earth herself absorbing the minerals and using them as humus and fertilizer to replenish the chemicals missing through man's debaucheries, all became purified, but Egypt becoming extremely rich through the service it rendered to her. Thus it became one of the richest in the world, and at that time in abundance. But also this understanding, which was well understood by their Priests, brought into Egyptian and sustenance that they could exist; thus many festivals and legends as well as folklore were created. The powers coming into birth through their wisdom were causing this creature to become fat and troublesome, so new ideas must be created and they always came forth in legends.

The first of these legends began around Hermopolis where Shu stood as an effigy on a raised up mound, seeking to raise up the firmament yet further still. The firmament was the mind creation as the sky, and Shu as mind, became as Nut knowledge holding up the Cow who had many gods on her back. This was considered as Am-Khemen, the firmament being upraised by An-hur, the uplifter of the sky. Man now, through him supporting the solar god, was as Horus or Ra, in man waging war on the Apap darkness of ignorance. As the kneeler he became the keeper to the Mysteries, the one who, in resurrection, would reveal the last of those things that were obscure and lost.

As it was once, so it still remains and the ways and means for obtaining life and truth have never altered, only man becoming more sophisticated and lost in dogma. Although we speak of man as Anhur, we must not forget that he has become also as Cepheus the king, but only in the subconscious; the worker of the miracles was Sut the conscious, the soul in personality. Some saw him as Pan who was learning how to live, while Horus the solar god laboured incessantly with the solar fire in alchemicalization, though unseen. Therefore he was the maker of music upon the sevenfold pipes of the sensory instrument of soul manifestation.

This creation had much to do with Edfu as well as Bubastes, for as Horus unfolded, so he acquired another name as a cartouche to his epitaph, for he had the right to that circumference conquered and gained. Thus as Serpentarius or "Ophiuchus huge," was constellated in Scorpio as Horus wrestling with the serpent of darkness; for as the soul returned the light as effort and struggle, so he brought into birth the heavenly lights and heavenly dew.

If this can be seen as the celestial sun entering down into Amenta to wrestle with the powers of darkness as death and decay, the seeker into wisdom will behold the soul's conscious entry, with Ra the solar fire, into karmic rebirth. Here is a gathering together in rebellion and "annual" assault. This is not entirely solar, but if pictured as the Lord of Light grappling with the serpent of ignorance, which had much to do with the rising stars, it will be seen where Horus or Osiris receives his mortal wound and merges into the womb of Mary, the Virgo Mother, as mind intuition. From then onwards all has to be as Horus growing up under intellectual establishment, and only mind memory to see him forth.

But to understand this even more clearly, try to realise that the gnosis was pictorially portrayed in heaven, and why Osiris, when he gained command over the celestial waters declared "Collector of souls is the name of my bark; the vision of it is the manifestation through my glorious journey in impregnation upon that canal."

While furthermore, the bark of salvation, as the solar journey of redemption, was the glorifying of the soul's atomic creation by stellar light by night and solar fire by day. The cosmical channel being the Milky Way, the human descent in the seven of creation, where the Manes, or sleeping personalities are awakened and find their faces becoming glorified; man's seven bodies that are being resurrected into glorious light. It is these that awaken when Ra calls to all to rejoice with his coming.

This is as the Ark of Ra, the solar rainbow, and when seen by day, the solar orb is carried on board and Ra then stands under it as it forms a canopy of the Apap serpent, for this is the guise he assumes; that captured and mastered by man. Then all the perfected spirits gather with him in the boat, and by much impregnation, all is repeated nightly in the stars.

THE BLIND GOD HUNGERING FOR THE MORN, WAS THE FIGURE OF GREEK INTERPRETATION OF ORION THE STELLAR REPRESENTATIVE OF HORUS THE SOLAR GOD, HE NOW RISEN AS THE CHRISTOS, AND REPRESENTED THEIR OWN STATE OF THEIR OWN GODS.

BUT AS TO THE RISEN STARRY HEIGHTS, WE WILL MAKE ENQUIRY IN THE NEXT LESSON, FOR IT WILL BE THE SOUL STRIVING TO CREATE THE ARK OF HIS CREATION AND RISING UP INTO THE HEIGHTS OF HIS ZODIACAL CREATION.

HERBAL MYSTERIES Part 4

CHICKWEED (Stellaria Media)

by David Spearman-Cook

THIS month we intend seeking into the qualities of Chickweed, it being a herb which many overlook, being as they think, too common a herb to be given their consideration. Yet it is a very fine herb, and quite a history can be built up around it. As an extremely fine astringent, it seems to have a quality all of its own, and although many place this herb under the influence of the Moon, I feel that Mars and Venus have a great influence in bringing into birth a united influence between Aries and Libra.

IT is known to be very good for those suffering from prostate trouble, and all forms of difficulties where there is a pus-forming weakness. This is often pathologically due to man refusing to tread their beliefs, whatever status they may be, into the earth some time or another. They so having complicated their first status of acceptance of occult wisdom from the beginning, that it has left their generative organism in a state of confusion.

This in time will bring trouble to the base of the spine, that of the orifice of the Sushumna channel. Thus stopping the fire, as the spiritus air, from rising up as the passional waters of the depths. That which can cause a contusion of muscular fibroids, which can only be cured by a changing of one's outlook, instead of remaining upon the old fixed beliefs. And the sooner that those interested in this matter of Occult Wisdom, fully accept that the life of a soul is one long continuous journey from life to life, the better.

So what may have been started many lives ago, could still persist, even to this day, for the soul has made no effort to correct it. Thus by now, it has become quite solidified, and this can be seen quite well in Cancer souls who have never moved out of the Cancer depths, from the time of first falling.

The benefit of Chickweed to the complaint of prostate, especially if a little Agrimony is added, plus of course wisdom, is extremely beneficial. Wisdom being the element out of the Breath, which has been raised up through a Teacher's divine impression. Thereby feeding the mind of the Race with their blood-life, which, with the help of the herb, can heal those suffering from the fast spreading state of prostate disorder.

IF ATTENTION IS NOT GIVEN TO THE DEVELOPMENT OF THE MIND, THE BACK CAN QUITE EASILY BECOME AFFECTED, AND LIKELY TO DEVELOP INTO MUSCULAR ARTHRITIS. THIS BEING DUE TO THE LETHARGIC STATE THAT THIS COMPLAINT CAN PRODUCE.

CHICKWEED was once used for relieving malnutrition, and pestilent sores caused by a decadent-moving bloodstream. Through the mind remaining stagnant, which of course the peasants and other oppressed folk suffered with abundantly in those dark Ages, it can be seen what wonderful help this long forgotten herb produced. That which still holds abundant help for those who have faith in these very common herbs. For Chickweed grows in abundance in every field lying fallow, ditches and hedgerows.

As a poultice, it is still one of the best herbs for relieving a sprain, and must be applied after good hot and cold compresses have been used, so as to draw the blood to that area, to help it to strengthen.

With all its many virtues, the smell of Chickweed is not very pleasant, and perhaps one depends upon the soul's power of cognition only.

If no recognition, then no reality, just illusion. So whatever plane your consciousness is acting upon, both you and the things belonging to that plane are the time and your only reality; but as you rise in your scale of judgment to unfoldment, you perceive in the stages through which you have passed. Then comes the reckoning which demands the full reality, and you pass through it all again placing all into practical tangibility.

But what man must try to understand as the growing Initiate, is that in the passing of the myriads of Time into ONENESS, there cannot be anything permanent except the one hidden Absolute Existence which contains in itself the noumena of all realities. Yet the mystery is, all things are relatively real, for the cognizer is only reflection, and the things cognized are as real to him as himself.

CHICKWEED

OH Garden of Life, reveal to me the wonders of thy depths, that I can once again be born anew from the Atomic divinity of the heavens.

of the reasons why it is not too popular. But if used for culinary purposes, you will, after tasting, understand why it was used as a basic for soup in the past. With other herbs and vegetables, it makes an excellent nourishing meal, but cannot be used with meat, for one kills the other.

This has been tested out, and proved to be extremely palatable, especially for those first coming away from a meat diet, onto vegetarianism. While another use for Chickweed, is the combining of it with Rosemary, as a basic for a clear mind to be achieved.

If it is taken regularly, it will give to one who is on a diet, a very clear mind, whereby they will find that a constant flow of things that are often forgotten, will come easily to one's awakening change of status.

For it is a known fact that this herb made the knight of old agile of foot and speedy of arm, where he was inferior to the skill at arms of other conquering forces. These knights lived to a degree rather frugal lives, which made them conscious of Nature. For they had to have a good understanding of their own and other countries usable herbage growth to survive.

They could well be, at any time, under seige in their own country for weeks on end, living purely off their vegetational knowledge. That which they had learnt from the many monasteries around, for it was a time when Catholicism was the educational status of the world. Thus Chickweed was used constantly as a food, and when dried, kept for quite a long time, for nothing was wasted then, even down to the bark of a tree.

Each one of us, deep down in our ancient minds, know of all this herbal knowledge. For we have all, at some time or another, survived upon them, and only too pleased to do so at the time. This can all come forth once again, through the opening up of an inborn intuition, through this present status of Relativity.

Until all men turn to the Vega world, that can be HERE and NOW, Chickweed, which as a herb comes under the classing of a solvent breaker, can help to disperse the confusion which is causing so much solidification.

Under this category, it will disperse stones within the bladder and kidneys, for these stones are the minerals of the earth, which have become hardened by man's mind propensity. For what happens in the heights of the mind, happens in the depths, for man in reflection, is microcosm to the Macrocosm, yet the replica within himself.

CHICKWEED and a few Beech leaves, will help to break down these stones, but unless one changes their mind frequency, only a fraction of the breaking down takes place. Man must play his part if he wants to survive, for he is the creator in the depths. Thus must circumvent his mind into higher frequencies of thought without the use of drugs.

For drugs have the effect of opening up the arteries of the blood-stream, which allows a greater amount of oxygen to circulate, apart from raising up the frequency of the nervous system, far beyond the souls' mind status to comprehend. Thereby allows the soul, for a time, an uplifted sense of release.

But which the soul must equal, in the lower mind being out of balance in its comprehending values. Thus, on the power being expended, the arteries and nerves revert back to their normal state, leaving the soul without the expansion sought, for the mind to ever stimulate the blood and inner bodies with an answer. Expansion can only come through the working mind instilling wisdom into the soul from the spleen as white corpuscles.

These are the fire carriers, which drugs deteriorate, but Chickweed can cleanse and energise. So one gathers from the metaphysical angle of this herb that its Occult derivation is quite simple, yet only that seen by the simple mind of the unsophisticated folk in those earlier days.

The chick is yellow, and the weed is something that is not wanted in the earth, therefore, it meant expansion to the soul who lived by his sensitised wits; expansion out of the earthy state of oneself, with Mars and Venus breaking down Saturnian states.

A point which must not be missed is the invaluable wealth in this herb for bathing the eyes. It is excellent for drawing out pus, acid and soreness often gathered in the eyes, when the soul is having trouble with the sinus. And for those attacked with full-scale eczema, if a large quantity of this herb is placed into a linen bag, and placed in a bath of fairly hot water, the soul in bathing will experience untold relief and healing.

This has been proved up to the hilt, and very successfully, for in drawing out the acid, which is invariably there, and often causing the trouble, this scaly scourge begins to repair. This has proved successful after untold expense has been paid out for most expensive medical healing, that was of no use whatsoever.

CHICKWEED taken with Marigold, is very effective for weakened arteries, for it can give them a more flexible movement, due to its mineral content that breaks down the hardened effects. By this, it can be seen of the varied uses of Chickweed, when it is coupled with an assisting herb for that disorder. Chickweed having the power to draw out any waste, acid or calcifying properties that could be lurking in pockets, and which other herbs could not do on their own.

It being so pungent in its aroma, may be the reason why it is not "pushed" very much in its healing possibilities. But as we have already stated, it is an astringent with qualities all of its own. Yet in the past, no household of the labouring classes would have been without their bunches of Chickweed hanging from the rafters, drying out. There they would hang amongst the legs of pig and dry salted fish, to be drawn down when required.

If this herb is used for culinary purposes, for which it is excellent, on no account mix it with meat, for as stated previously, one kills the other, and causes the meat to go very tough. Its power to draw out makes it so effective for internal disorders, especially where blood becomes lodged, as in the case of piles, or pains that arise from heat. Also the liver in cramp, or convulsions through unbalanced unification of wisdom, can by a cloth dipped in the extracted juice and applied to the stomach, have the heat drawn out most effectively. I would suggest this was applied as warm as it could be taken.

It is amazing how these herbs, applied in a natural way, are tabooed by the medical fraternity, yet they extract these herbs and put them into tincture or pill form, adding chemicals or drugs which kill all the good that the herbs would do on their own.

Although at the School here, we do have a pill form of some herbs, and could get more if the demand was great enough, we do not advise pills as the way to take herb. It is much better taken in fluid form, then it can cleanse away the waste it extracts. So whatever ulcer or sore you may be healing, always wash it first with a solution of Chickweed. In fact, many a virulent ulcer on the leg has started its first healing journey, from a generous washing in Chickweed.

Birds are extremely fond of this herb, and by the way that sick birds in cages revive from it, it is evidently used by the wild birds as a medicine. Not everybody is aware that Chickweed can be taken internally; there are very few herbs, except those of a poisonous nature, that cannot be taken this way.

Hence, Chickweed is really known as the "pirate" of the soul, for it sails through the main channels of the blood, and attacks the over-rich bloodstream, breaking down the too full-blooded states of false hormone animal infusion. For it is this which causes the many rashes and hardened states of the arteries, and also complies with the fact that the herb will not mix with meat in the cooking pot.

When the soul is in a lowered state, it is usually due to their harmonic frequency having been over-ridden, and a false characterisation is imposed within the soul. This is caused by the infiltration of food, especially butchered animal meat.

For in killing animals in the heyday of their strength, fear is engendered and remains as a part of the food quota. Thus the internal states of soul have got to wrestle with these, with the possible outcome as rashes, sores, or ulcers, or even a more drastic state which affects the thymus; thus severing the depths from the heights.

Next month, we intend giving Comfrey an investigation, for we have found this also to be an invaluable herb where quite drastic chest troubles have had to be mastered. Even unto Asthma and Consumption, two very long drawn out medical cases.

Readers' Letters

IN asking for their charts to be cast, many of our readers have requested a short reading upon them. Unfortunately, due to lack of time and staff, we have in the past found this virtually impossible. However, we will now give a very brief summary of the major aspects of the chart, if so required, for which there will be a small increase in the cost of the chart, bringing it to £1-10-0 or $5.00. The old rate remains unchanged for those who do not desire this extra service. We do stress though, that this will not be a full reading, but a very quick surveyance of the main points within the chart, giving unto its owner the path they have come back to tread in this life. I would also like to thank all those who wrote into the B.B.C., asking for Mrs. Spearman-Cook to be allowed further time to speak upon the subject of the Flying Saucers. We would have liked to have replied personally to each reader who wrote and told us of this, but the number received quite surpassed our resources, and so I hope all concerned will accept our thanks through the medium of this column.

★ The Inflowing Word ★

Mrs. L. Puddy,
Walton-on-Thames.

I would like to thank you for your good wishes for our Group. As the years go by, I realize more and more the tremendous struggle you had to face, because even in our small effort we encounter so often bitter disappointments when one just can't reach some people, and at other times tremendous joy and upliftment because one had some response, and can see the result of our work.

May I also mention how useful we find your Reminiscences in the O.G. These we can use as a Lecture Study, whereas the more advanced articles would as yet not be accepted by our Group. The Gazette alone will form wonderful material for lectures in the future.

I also begin to understand what you meant when you often told us that you are always "Giving Out" but people do not return it as wealth, they only sap from you your hard earned Light. It is this realization which makes me want to stand on my own feet and face up to our struggles, when time and again one would like to come running to you for help and advice.

As always I offer my love to you in all humility, and our many thanks to all at the School who work so hard to keep it going.

Mrs. I. Murray,
Scotland.

I have found comfort in the O.G.—if not always actually reading it; just having it near, using it as a link, I suppose. My grateful thanks to you all.

Miss A. E. Krick,
Altoona, U.S.A.

The 1951-1952 lectures were received several weeks ago. Thank you and I have studied those on Re-incarnation and Celestial Marriage twice, so I might not overlook a single point, and try to get a clear understanding of each term. This is thrilling, but sometimes I feel so very ignorant. For many years, in my ignorance, I have had the desire to live on and on, and not have to return to the earth plane again. Your delineation of my chart and Ra-Men-Ra's lectures on Re-incarnation have made me realise how many, many, incarnations are needed to make growth.

Again I thank you all and the Masters, the Hierarchies,

Saturday Evening Development Class

AN opportunity has now arisen for two or three new sitters in our Saturday Evening Development Class. These must be readers genuinely seeking into the depths of the wisdom, who would be prepared to make regular attendances. Those interested are asked to contact us as early as possible.

for patience, love, mercy, and the Word which makes it possible for man to know himself. The enclosed cheque covers for the lectures 1951-1952; the remainder is for your WORK—again with my eternal gratitude. I shall struggle on till the answers come.

B. & F. McAllister,
Seattle, U.S.A.

We received the two tapes, and believe us we shall be eternally grateful throughout eternity for our contact with you and your School of Universal Philosophy and Healing. Thanks! thanks so much!

Enclosed please find payment for next year's Occult Gazette. The extra money is for a donation.

W. Pearce, Streatham, S.W.16.

I have been reading the Occult Gazette, and following The Wisdom for the past three years, and whilst I find as I gradually bring myself into harmony with the Higher Law, what a greater fulfillment this Path gives to me, by far the most difficult obstacle has been "the diet."

In the past, food and I have been like the Gemini Twins, practically inseparable, and when I first started to tread this Path I thought I could never break through the diet barrier.

However, I have persevered, (and I will frankly admit that in the early stages I slipped once or twice) and now whilst I am not yet 100% successful, I am beginning to reap the many benefits. Not only do I feel so much fitter in myself with all the dangerous surplus weight gone, but I find I can move faster with less effort and I can think more clearly and concisely, because of the absence of excessive poisonous waste in my bloodstream.

I was also gratified to learn this week that my blood pressure had returned to normal so convincingly that the doctors of a certain well known insurance company insisted that it was checked twice, when I applied for a second endowment policy (having been plus rated on the first policy due to this blood pressure).

There is no doubt whatever in my mind that my physical and mental well-being is due to the observance of a proper diet, coupled of course with the "Inflowing Word" from the wonderful Sunday evening lectures, and I would wish all of you at the School my heartfelt thanks and wishes for all that you and the Beloved Merope have done for me.

through the Waters coming down as they are, the Voice, through the wisdom gained, now goes right direct to the pituitary. The Seed that man is trying to kill, particularly in woman.

The only one good point that the pope has put into operation was when he 'refused the pill to curtail childbirth'. That is the only one thing that he has made a stand for, and he is right in so doing, and he knows it. He knows he dare not condone it to 'destroy life'. That is wrong; it is against the principles of the Heavens, and against the principles of the Human Race.

The Changing State of Electrification

NOW here is Joshua. Moses, the first pioneer, with all his struggles to bring the Unification of Sun and Moon into birth, could not reach Jerusalem; his struggles were heavy. So Joshua took over: now this really means a changing-state, where he became electrified.

Where the soul is struggling, I can well assure you that from our side we make every movement to help you. Merope had a struggle to meet her last climb up the 'perpendicular wall', so we brought into birth the Protrusion. Now, the Protrusion is going to be the way that is going to help every one of you to 'get home'.

So in the plate you see the Joshua state in his electrification. The whole of his body is radiating with life whereby he infuses everybody he touches. This is the Christos state.

THIS IS HOW YOU HAVE TO GROW YOUR 'BODIES', YOUR INNER BODIES: BY BECOMING A PIONEER FOR TRUTH.

They are not actual inner bodies, of course, but certain organs that are still electrified, causing the chromosomes to be electrified and the chakras to be electrified, and the soul is dancing with Life. The whole of his vascular nervous system is alive with electrification, making him dance with Life as he draws in of that Solar creation.

Woman would find it very difficult to do this if it were not for Merope. Merope is learning to be an independent soul, to draw in of the Solar Fire whereby she can receive it through the propensity of her Mind, her Auric creation, and thus infuse the whole of her being with electrified Life.

Merope has not got the generative channel in the same way as man, so she has to receive the Solar Fire some other way. She is going to do it now through her pituitary.

SO DO YOU SEE THE IMPORTANCE OF THE PITUITARY, WHICH MAN IS TRYING TO DESTROY! (BY THE CONTRACEPTIVE PILL).

Subconsciously, man does not want woman to over-rule him, and that is why he is trying to destroy the pituitary! The subconscious mind plays a far bigger part than you realise, a far bigger part.

This is the Woman's Age, where woman is going to rule the World, and man is going to sit in the background. Now we will wait and see if she can make a better job of it than man has done so far. But of course so many of them have got to change, and grow and become true 'ministers of light.'

The Fire Plane

NOW do you think you can understand that story? Has it brought anything to your mind which you can argue against? I have tried to give it to you as simply as possible, so that you cannot doubt what I am saying to you.

The Fire Plane is being established now, where the Earth is going to become blended with the Central Sun, through its inner vortex of Fire. The two are going to unify, and man is going to be a 'fiery being' living in the Central Sun with The Great Flame; living right in its intensity. Man is going to become one with the Great Flame, as he makes his own way onto the Plane of VEGA. VEGA is the first Creation, and as I have said to you before, every household can build up their own little plane of Vega, the plane of Mind.

The moment has come when you are either going to do this, or you are going to die, and die the way of all these states, the states of the flesh; and then, what you have gathered will be drawn-in. So you will be no more; all you have built will be lost. Here we come back to the 144,000; those who could unify their intercalaries. The 144 upon the three planes of dimension.

Where we talk about 'going down south,' this means you are going down into your own polarity. So you can see now, after the birth of the so-called 'babe' in your Bible, how Mary and Joseph went down south? You can see the truth of it now!

Naturally there are going to be difficulties in the bringing forth of the new Laws, but now the Isles of Britannicus have become the Ruling Country of the World.

If you have been following the "News," it must have seemed pretty obvious that our Prime Minister was going to lose his grace. (This was in reference to the recent Labour Party Conference). But he did not! We saw to that! We worked through one who was capable of receiving a clear-sighted vision, and of holding the people under control. They are not going to replace him; we are going to use that Government. They are not working on their own behalf; but they are foolish; they are over-eating. It is the same old thing; that as soon as you get a little more work to do, you feel you must fortify yourselves.

If you took a little more water, and less food, you would fortify yourselves just as well. It is water that fortifies man, for how much more water is he than flesh? He is ninety percent water. Therefore he represents the water, and it is this he needs to renew his energy. His 'pot' has been boiling, and he has been using up the spiritus air for his mind. So he needs to renew the 'waters.'

Do not listen to all this rubbish about it being food that feeds the soul. It is not the diet at all; that is only man pandering to his desires. It is not the food, but the Word that is needed. The Word that will keep the mind spinning and humming, with the soul unfolding its inner propensities.

EGYPTIAN MYSTERIES

Creation Called Life Part 14

by Gladys I. Spearman-Cook

IN OUR LAST LESSON WE PERCEIVED THAT HORUS WAS THE SOLAR GOD raised up to the heights by the starry phenomena; he is the lord of the harvest when he becomes resurrected into the starry heights as light brought forth from captivity. Thus man and the Gods are one, though two, as higher and lower worlds, which have their creation within man himself as the two-faced Janus until he can become ONE. Right from the beginning of time man has been waiting an answer, little realising that all was within himself; while Woman has been searching as the weeping Woman for the lost water so that she can bring forth of her Child. She has done this the best way she can, for man lost to the truth has been spilling all into the earth, building up more and more the karma that is placing a stronger noose of captivity around his neck.

Wealth of the Blood Stream

ONLY through her sons can Mother Nature produce of the Child, the heavenly Firmament, and unless he labours and sends forth the light of mind so necessary to draw forth the Ain Soph or Heavenly Water, Woman is doomed to travail.

If man would only establish in his mind of these facts he would have the mystery of life in the palm of his hand, and would then be on the threshold of rebirth, which at the moment he is crying out for. So first he must begin to recognise and accept that the great Goddess that renews of light above, is also the renewer of the waters from the springs of source in the Abyss below, and is the first important point towards rebirth. This when fully digested, could open up vistas only known to this Goddess who is of TIME and ETERNITY. For what was as the Matriarchate has ever found rebirth through TIME, but as she came forth she produced of the Son, and the Fatherhood overshadowed all.

The legend that has passed from Nation to Nation and encompassed TIME is that Isis as Ishtar, Persephone, or the travelling Mother Mary, is now ever forced to descend into the underworld in search of the water of life, the lost light, to save creation. It was as the Moon that Ishtar passed through the seven gates on her way downward, the seven layers of creation, whether cosmically, or pathologically in man.

The wonderful poetic beauty of the Ancients as they described the round of the waters until they came to the Urn or Water-pot of Aquarius, is amazing; and furthermore, how they predicted it being empty when it arrived there, is most evidential, and when studied it makes one but dimly aware of the wonders that must be hidden in the ancient bloodstream of man.

The Water is the Child-Horus, the Solar Blood that becomes lost to Egypt of the Upper World in the religious dogma of the westerners, and must now be found by the Great Mother seeking in the Abyss in Aquarius, by the wisdom given renewal as Universal Philosophy, and rescued from the dogmatization that has it in its grip. For in the natural rounds the Child Horus, or Solar light, became lost to Egypt and has now gone down south as he travelled from the Upper World into the lower.

So now the great Mother has to draw her water from the Abyss. From the anatomical round of man and the Grand Man, down south is in Cancer, the bowels of the journey, while Aquarius is right down in the calves. Thus here is where the Urn is due to be refilled; the Nile of flowing waters to be replenished from the fish's mouth. This is where man must begin of action and activity and send the waters back to the source, the head, as movement gained. It was believed that when the February rains ran dry in

DIVINITY

THE circus of animals gathered around the root of the tree were placid and in harmony, as the mighty thymus was alight with Atomic Glory, lifting the man up out of the density of his darkness. (See text on page 12, col. 2).

Egypt, that is Aquarius, the lakes would begin to swell.

It can only be by action and rebirth of understanding that man can begin to get the Waters of Truth rising. The ancients foresaw the waters rushing north after the digestion in Cancer and then into Virgo where as the chyle of the blood it entered into the womb of rebirth.

But when they depicted in the Uranograph that the bucket was empty, it was being indicated that what was sent forth from Egypt as the inundation was now spent out, and a welling source must begin in the Abyss where an entirely new creation of rebirth must begin. Horus is the solar god who has been travelling through the Ages and is now competely lost to man and can only be conceived in Virgo through the two polarities making a perfect unity.

The bowels and the pineal circulating through the action of Aquarius, in the bloodstream opening up life from beginning to the end, and Horus as the true rising God coming forth as light of the mind from the relativity. It is the circulation of this round and round, that brings the bodies into full creation as light of mind comprehension.

Thus applies to TIME, and in actuality is not disappointing the ancients in their predictory declaration that the bucket would be empty and a source must spring from unknown depths.

This in their symbolism was seen as a Hawk on a papyrus plant emerging from the waters and being born from between the knees of Sothis. Sothis is the virgin Mother, the intuitive mind given movement through the Aquarian action and she squeezes her child forth into Libra. And when one gives this thought of how through the revolving signs the soul brings the messu or masterhood into birth as the rising God, that which began in the inundation—the soul's own waters of emotion, both now in rebirth and in the past as beginning—we see not only the wonders of creation, but the wonders of those who perceived of it and its errors.

The Infusion of Divine Fire

THIS wisdom actually permeates every science and "ism" in some form or light, and portrays to the whole of posterity the wonders of creation; and nothing is more clear of how the word was delivered unto the soul of wisdom and lost its infusion in the misfiring of the senses. For Hathor-Isis is always seen as a monument with a fish upon her head, thus depicting that the fish mother, or old mother to bring the word into birth was in the abode of the Abyss. This is the residue of the old Matriarchate never redeemed, she who resides in this outward surge, the soul would begin its upward trend to expansion of mind creation; the molecular expansion of the cellular molecules.

But instead of absorbing the solar fire and expanding the five sensory channels into the radiation of the solar heights of seven, to establish illuminati, they devoured all in sensory pleasure. Thus all was dragged down into the depths, the polarity of the heights from which the fire originated.

That which they had taken of the starry heights out of curiosity and had never investigated as to its outer limits of possibility, now held within their being an unknown quantity of unexpanded fire. This received from the heights could not remain as it was, for its intention in descent was to become established in matter.

The soul by dint of enquiry had received untold wealth and brought the whole of their enquiry down into the depths of the personality. This became as all passing through the house of Aries into the lower vicinity by the continual turning of the wheel. That which pours from the bucket of the Man into the mouth of the fish, and becomes the mind of Aries.

But the intensification soddened its purpose, and the mind that once resided, and still resides in the quality received, cooled down into a blackened heap and Sut came forth. In Egypt it became the Nome of the "Haunch" or double land, that of Taurus. Here Kufu built the pyramid of Gizeh, that which was four square and made to extend to the heavens.

Man cannot draw unto himself of the starry heights and hold captive in his own state of sensory desires, for what brought light can cool into darkness and destroy the pigmentation of the seven outer skins, which hold the molecular change of molecule expansion.

As the neutron increases in electrical action around the proton, so each cell of absorbed solar fire would expand and bring radiation to the outer body of the soul. If this is not raised up to mind expansion, it enters into the negative and brings Venus into intense joy which she could refuse to release; thus under the intensification of Taurean and Libran possibilities, the molecular expansion reverses its action and all turns into the reverse creation of a blackened mass.

As this once began so can it repeat itself, for now in the complete polarity man is at the end of the inundation, the waters of extension, and the bucket is completely empty. Man either recreates from the secret spring, the divine fiery fountain, or he returns with Sut to the lower loki. This often causes a soul to return into a dark-skinned race.

Apart from the pyramid being raised up at this junction of belief, the twofold Sycamore tree sprang forth, which resembled Hathor the Sacred Cow in the south, and the Sycamore of Nut in the north. The upper and lower Terebin tree, and was the cradle of infant civilization. This became the basic as the Mother Blood of human creation, in specie birth of the great Nile.

From here the paradise of eight chief gods was built up; the seven Chakras with their Crown as Taht, the mound of Khemenu. Shu began from
