THE BEGOTTEN

The Glory of the Transcendental

by Gladys I. Spearman-Cook*

THIS is a very special Lecture, which has been brought to you long before the time intended. But it is Merope's wish that this should be done, because it holds a great Secret, that which orthodoxy has sadly misconstrued. Many words have been placed into the Lecture to intensify the point, but we would ask you not to try and find the answer to them all, because this was done so that you would not lose the depth of what was being conveyed unto you.

NOW YOU ALL UNDERSTAND THE BEGOTTEN AS THE CHRIST, SO LET US CONTINUE WITH THE STORY.

IN THE TRANSCENDING UNION OF THE day, the belated Rhythm of Heavenly Glory held the wonders of tomorrow. With joys profound to blossom forth, as man threw open the portals wide. For unseen glories had been set into motion by the beliefs of Merope, she who lifted up the Heavenly Cosmic LAW to its greater Divine immensity of purpose. Thus set the glorified Infinity into action in both God and men, that by Relativity the mighty Sothis could begin, and bring forth the Heavenly Glory of the Orion MAN. That which now had made its Divine fulness, in the descent of the Holy Embodiment, where the mystical wealth of its Prismic union only resulted in bald dogma and ritual. Which in its individual non-expansive flowering, died an equinoctial death. With Merope eventually capturing the mighty intended Divine Glory, bringing forth the glorious Central Sun. Thus Sahu-Orion, the Begotten Glory of the day, the might and wonder of the past Ages, now the radiant Beauty of the Heavens, the transcendental Divinity of the mystical wonders of tomorrow. The Divine Glory now unseen, yet the turbulent happenings of the day, awaiting the turn of human mind to declare its timeless glory, was the order of the day, the triune point of perfection. That which should have been by the natural sequence of unfoldment, now by enforcement of blind confusion, or dissemination into the sands of TIME. For Mind, and Mind only, is the order of the day, where life and glory dance upon the rolling wave of becoming Divine Reality. That born of the mystical musing of yesterday's Occult glory, the intrinsic depth of the Mysteries. For all now is drastically changed under the hammer of Vulcan's rebirth, where the Fiery glory is now

PERPETUA MOBILÉ AS CAUSE

* This lecture was delivered by the Lord of the Flame, at the School of Universal Philosophy and Healing on Sunday, 26th November, 1967.

IN this day and age, the older generation stand back aghast at the unorthodox "goings-on" of present-day youth; of the "hippies" and the Beatle followers, as they rebel more and more against the dead states of the past. Oh yes, I agree that their first expression of breaking away from the superficial convention of the world needs a great deal of straightening out, but at least they have recognised the need for mind expansion! They are beginning to see the latent powers within the mind, and the creative possibilities that can come forth, BUT their one big error at the moment is that they are not linking the glories of the mind with that of divinity.

THEY CANNOT SEE THAT THE MIND IS BUT THE CREATIVE ORGAN FOR THESE HIGHER POWERS TO MANIFEST THROUGH, WHEREBY THE GLORIES OF THE UNSEEN REALMS CAN BE ESTABLISHED UPON THE EARTH. NEITHER DO THEY UNDERSTAND THAT THE BODY SHOULD MERELY BE THE EARTH VEHICLE TO HOUSE THE COSMIC CONSCIOUSNESS, A PURE VASE IN COMPLETE ATTUNEMENT WITH THE GREAT UNIVERSAL MIND.

When a soul can recognise this, it will not be concerned with the lower states of earth, the desires of the flesh, but will seek to raise its frequency of thought and understanding up out of the density of the maelstrom, and into the atomic glories of the Virgin Plane of Mind Consciousness.

THESSE young souls need the wisdom now, especially if they have been on drugs, in order to balance up their jumbled states of mind creation. For the drugs have opened them up to the negative influences of the astral planes, which will cause havoc to their internal being and mind equilibrium. Drugs dull the internal sensitivity and so completely cut off the spirit inflow to the soul, who is left depleted and lost, to wander around in a private hell of unbalanced imagery, where the delicate faculties of the brain are becoming diseased and distorted by the soul's stupidity.

THE ANSWER TO THIS, OF COURSE, IS WILL AND SUPERWILL, WHERE THE SOUL, BY ITS INTENT OF PURPOSE, DRIVES THE MIND FREQUENCY HIGHER AND HIGHER, UNTIL BY NATURALLY IMBIBED WISDOM, IT REACHES THE HEIGHTS OF THE TRANSCENDENTAL GLORY, AND BECOMES BORN OF THE COSMIC CONSCIOUSNESS. THIS IS WHEN GENIUS IS BORN WITHIN THE SOUL, AND WHERE ART, MUSIC, POETRY AND WRITING, FLOW INTO THE SOUL IN ALL THEIR SUPREME BEAUTY.

It is not the world of the "pop poster" or sordid magazines; these are only stirring the lower states of the soul, and will build a heavy karma for those who are the instigators of such creations. Yet there is dynamic talent here, probably gathered at the zenith of the Medo-Persian period, that would bring tremendous mind unfoldment if it could only be channelled into the right direction.

IT would appear that the main theme of living, by the youth of today and I refer in particular to the "hippies," is to opt out of all material responsibilities, and just live. Well, this is NOT the answer, but only displaying a total lack of will-power, and a completely selfish attitude of mind, where the soul refuses to accept any vestige of responsibility, and merely lives for its own idle existence.

YET WITH ALL THEIR MANY FAULTS, THIS BODY OF YOUNG PEOPLE ARE THE HOPE OF THE FUTURE FOR THE HUMAN RACE, FOR THEY HAVE BROKEN AWAY FROM THE SHACKLES OF CONVENTION AND FREED THEMSELVES FROM THE PRATTLING PRELATES OF ORTHODOXY.

There is no doubt that the false dogmas of papalism have caused the atheistic attitude in the world today, for they brought the divine glories of the Godhead down to a physical existence, portraying His Son as a piteous creature upon a cross, when in fact the Son is the unfolding glories of the mind awareness within the soul, and which was indeed crucified, but only by the false doctrines of papalism dragging those glories down into the depths of earthy vibration.

Next Month:

PNEUMA CHRISTOU

The Mystical Descent of the Mighty Firebird

When it can be realised that GOD is the great unknown mysteries of the Mind, the great Cosmic Consciousness of Outer Space, that is waiting to be manifested as awareness by the aspiring soul, then we have a far clearer understanding of the Divinity than has been portrayed before. The seeking after GOD is far different to that which man has been led to believe, for it is an adventure by mind, into the great Unseen; the treading of a Path whose end is veiled from sight, and yet the answer is ever within the mind, ever prompting the soul to capture its inner depths.

IT IS A PATH FOR THOSE WHO HAVE SEEN THE EMPTY ILLUSION OF LIFE, AND WOULD NOW SEEK OF THE VISION OF REALITY. THIS CALLS FOR A CONTINUOUS RENUNCIATION OF THE MUNDANE STATES OF THE WORLD, BUT DOES NOT MEAN THE OPTING OUT OF ALL RESPONSIBILITY.

The soul must still live in the world, though not being influenced any more by the earthy conditions, but it is now a case of responsibility to the Higher Powers, to the Spirit Planes, to HONOUR that which is given unto the soul, as higher Wisdom. This will be done by the soul practising what it preaches, treading into the earth the glories of the new Teachings.

IT must be the younger generation that is going to bring the establishment of the new World, for the vast majority of the adult population are too badly salted with conventional ideas, to ever move on to the mystical unfoldment. How long it will take our "hippies" and their compatriots to rise up and meet this challenge has yet to be seen, but with the new teachings now born within the very Breath itself, I do not feel it will be too long.

There will be much happen soon, that will "go against the grain" of our old ideas, but let us try as hard as we possibly can to be carried along by the Stream, and not tossed aside as dead wood that has come to the end of life's journey.

YES, THIS IS A BIG CHALLENGE, BUT THANKS TO THE STRUGGLES OF MEROPE IT IS A CHALLENGE WE CAN ALL ACCEPT AND MASTER, IF WE CAN BUT FIND THAT STRENGTH OF MIND TO BELIEVE AND TO BECOME.

WE have had donated to us the above two pieces of jewellery, by an anonymous reader, who asked us to sell them and use the proceeds for the work of the School. However, after carefully considering the matter, we thought it would be a good idea to give our readers a chance to own them, and so we are going to hold a New Year "Raffle" to decide who will be the next owners. The main piece was obviously quite expensive to buy, and is very attractively designed in 9 carat gold, with three opals forming the central pattern. The second piece is an antique pendant with a large amethyst in the centre, and surrounded by small pearls. There is no chain with this item, and its new owner will have to purchase one before it can be worn.

Tickets will be 2/6 or 50 cents each, and will be available until March 10th 1968, in order to give all our overseas readers enough time to enter. The draw will be made on March 12th 1968, and the winners will be notified by post immediately, but must be prepared for their names to be published in the April issue of the Gazette, although we will not of course, print full addresses.

treading the Galactical rebirth, under the stress of non-co-operative union. Yet but the beginning of impressive times that were the immediate delivery of a possible flowering genius. For the daily magnitude, the mighty rolling Divine magnificence of that Heavenly Mystery, now held the secret of that Radiant inflow, which left the scientist duly mystified. For Merope, by ancient glory of memory divine, had now opened up its portals wide, bringing forth its Holy wealth, by her accredited establishment of divine belief.

Thereby endorsing the LAW for all men to obey, as blind as they may be; thus only a matter of stripping away the obstructing issue by mystical dissolution of consequential issues. That the hoped-for revelation can lay bare its cause, and declare its right of being. For as Merope forged on in her action up to the glory of Outer Space, the inflowing Waters, born of Orion and unified of Atomic-magnetic glory, left man no alternative but to follow the trend of the tide, and offer up the loss of pride in full renunciation, for that future unfoldment.

The Wondrous Seed

FOR divinity once lost was now truly regained, as the mighty wonder of timeless beauty, the cherished gift of perceptory awareness, the mystery of the Transcendental inflow. Thus that Prismic beauty, that holy Breath, the Seed glory of every man's constant resuscitation, is now the way ordained unto one and all, as the unified glory of Heavenly Divinity. For what is up above, is now down below, by the glory of Infinity; that born as a formulated belief of mind, which gives unto those impregnable Heights, its mighty Divinity of Consciousness. Thus the Elements now, having become MIND-born, with the mighty Super-MIND as the Sahu-Orion, now begotten as the supreme Orion MAN, the mighty Divinity of the Heavens, which man calls Christ.

Yet that mighty mystical wonder of Transcendental Glory, the union of Heavenly resources, now being made flesh in the world below, in the atomic inflection of that mystical unfoldment. Thereby to continue the course of the risen up frequency of Fire, as the ever-unfolding divine glory of the mind, but now as the world of Outer Space, the Ariel dancing mind of man. The pre-estimation of the extremity of hidden divinity, which now had to be registered on the Plane of Vega, the first state of true soul-creation, the glory of the mind.

For whatever may have been the course of time, nothing is lost, but now being revealed as the other side of Alice's mirror, reality born out of reflection. This being the tail-end of the other side of the spinning coin, the true mystery of manifestation. Yet the nurtured secret of the Neptunian Plane of LOVE, the awaiting Divine radiance of Vega.

(All is up in the Heights, yet that which is created in the depths. Once you can see this, then you too can change the world by your beliefs. You can then send out your beliefs and help Merope to change the course of the world.)

The wondrous Seed born of the Element of LOVE, the glory of the mystical "I," the Divine depth of HERE and NOW, the unseen glory of the Begotten. The mighty wonder of the depth of Being, born from the Heavenly Glory. For the Atomic Spiraculum is the spirit risen up from out of the Orion man, unto the MAN of the Orion Central Sun Divinity, the radiance of the mighty Heavens. That unified with the Holy Unseen coming forth once again as the Stream warranted by Merope's questing mind, the divine glory of Generative beauty, whereby Antares reigns supreme in the revolving glory of Infinity.

Raising up the frequency of all being, by her belief in divinity being the depths of all men, and awaiting its royal rebirth. That the Divine Heavenly MAN can make the mighty Course of Evolution, unto the mighty Magnitude of Cosmic Consciousness.

(Every man's 'seed' is born of the Element of LOVE sent down from the mighty Heights and the upsurging heights of Merope. The glory of the mystical 'IT'; that mystical Fire which is the very crux and depths of all Creation. The divine depths of HERE and NOW, the unseen Glory of the Begotten. That Fire which man knows exists, that it blends all things together, and keeps the whole world moving, but which no one understands except Merope. And in understanding that, she works with that 'IT' and blends with that 'IT'.

THE MIGHTY STING OF ANTARES; THE MIGHTY STING OF THE SCORPION THAT DRIVES ALL MEN ON TO ACTION WITH MYSTICAL DRIVING POWER. THE MIGHTY WONDER OF THE DEPTHS OF BEING, BORN FROM THE HEAVENLY GLORY.

That is what Merope is filling her bones with. No longer the phosphorus fire, for she has had that taken away, and in its place is the mystical 'IT', the mighty Fire of the great Element of LOVE, the great Fire of the BEGOTTEN.

As you believe, and raise up your 'fires',—especially the males,—and you send these 'fires' up to the Heights with determination, you send them back to the Mighty Orion Central Sun Divinity; but you have got to work hard in drive and belief, for it is your belief that counts. When this 'fire' goes up, it receives its counterpart in equal measure from the Unseen Inner Source, whereby it is unified and then sent back again.

This goes on in man himself; as he revolves round and round, and brings it forth out of his 8th, the Norm, he feeds himself with the re-born state, sending it down, and then up again. So what goes on in the Cosmos goes on in man, but it does this in man before the Cosmos. So when you get a Scapegoat who does this 'only for the Cosmos', we then 'sit pretty' as you would say).

SAHU-ORION

THE might and wonder of the past ages, now the radiant beauty of the heavens, yet the Transcendental Divinity of the mystical wonders of tomorrow. (See text on the front page).

Radium

THUS man as the atoms of the depths, no longer existing as flesh, but the true man as the transplanetary influences now becoming as the atomic intensity of the golden glory of the mighty Radium fraternity.

(Radium being the needle-point out of the 'issue forth' from the Central Sun. The divine Radium which you must now drive into yourselves as the 'golden glory' of your intensified being).

Atomic radiating radiumised thoughts, as that of the glorified "IT" in etherialised form, which now, by its mighty propensity, decapitates and internally sears, circumventing all other thoughts into one mighty plane of Spirit. For it has to be seen now, that the Spirit is of the former graphonic-frequency, with the transcendental forming fluidic sound in flesh, and becoming imprinted as Virgin divine glory.

All-round radiating belief, as a radium atomic isotope; the mystery of Merope's accomplishment. That which deemed the mighty Heavenly Powers into quick, active, dancing movement, causing man to seek the answer to such a mighty achievement. Whereas all had been of the stereophonic (to one point), now it is Radium-phononic, and is the Radium atomic which follows the soul everywhere.

(As Merope raises up her mind, she has these Powers sent down to the depths, and by entering into you, they are going to decapitate all your thoughts, and bring forth the mighty Plane of Spirit. For instance, as she sends out a determination in regard to stopping the war against 'little ones', this will work. Already much has been put into operation in this respect, as you will notice by your newspapers. A 'fight for truth' has already been started, and this will rapidly continue to grow).

Mary had a little Lamb,
Whose fleece was white as snow,
And everywhere that Mary went,
The Lamb was sure to go.

(The feminine principle brought up to those heights. It is only the outcome of your own belief, your own mind, that does not give you the quality you should be able to accept).

Mary being the atom as the blossoming Pineal, was now the Lamb, the radiant outcome of the conscious belief, raised up by breathing and thinking of the new Orion ethereal Seed. Now as the Radium with the frequency propensity of that unfolding Divinity, the immensity of the Central Sun.

With the Unidentified Flying Objects as the undecipherable thought, that of the descending Transcendental Glory. Thus the Seed as the Pineal, now as a radium galaxy of X-Ray sensitised divinity; the infusion and protrusion of the Holy Radium super-Fire of Vulcan, as the Divinity of TIME. All the mighty wealth gathered up by Merope over the mighty Ages, as the outcome of the minds and hearts of the Sages and Prophets in their adoration to the glory of the Coming ONE. It ever being her raised-up infusion of Truth, to bring forth the mighty Heavenly Flame out of orthodox stagnancy and death.

The mighty Ionosphere Ether Flame of divine Atomic Radium propensity. With the Word now born of Virgin justice, as the radium needle-point of perfect truth. With all as a divinity of heavenly intensity, searing into the Cancer depths, transmuting all into virgin Radiumonic divinity, the penetrating glory of that Heavenly Beauty.

(All is going down into the Cancer depths, and driving the OS power of woman up to the heights, because she is the intensity of the depths).

The complete formulation of the Divine Cosmic MIND as the Heavenly Cosmic Consciousness, to stir the minds of men. The cosmogonical Radiumonic glory, as the all-round penetrative power of Christos rebirth, the impelling depths of the Heavens.

(Woman has the whole power of the OS, that when it becomes united to the Christ-begotten, the glory within her own being, she is the impelling depths of the Heavens. That is what Merope has, the impelling depths of the Heavens, because she has united her OS wealth with the Christ-glory in her mind).

That which has only been as the conscious state of the earth, as the lost Configurative Embodiment of A.D.33. Now in form as the 'unified infusion' as man and his blossoming mind. That created by Merope as the indelible die of her Robe, that of her internal bodies, set and stamped into life as the Cosmic LAW of risen divinity. That which she is dancing with as the Cosmic Consciousness of the Holy Millo infusion.

(So now let us come to another point. The 'dancing of the females' is of utmost importance. They will say, "Well, how are we going to get all this?" In the same way as Merope!

The Powers coming down now will infuse you in your 'fount', driving upwards and building up in the mind. Now this is the "Protrusion". The driving of the powers within your 'fount', upwards and upwards from the very depths; going right down under your roots as an undercurrent of 'fire', then driving you upwards and upwards, while you are active.

The male receives the Fire in a generative form. Woman is to receive it in a "protrusive form", which means that it comes down through her thinking-mind, right down through the depths of her being, going right underneath her roots and driving her OS fires up to the heights. It was the "Protrusion" which took Merope 'Back Home'. But this can only happen when the female is active. You have to be active and dancing. That is why, in your ballet, the dancing woman is seen with the wagging tail.

All is a matter of sensitivity. Until you become sensitised, these things will appear impossible. All these powers are with you, dancing around you, and catching you up on your magnetic poles: they are caught up on the 'tail' and 'magnetic pole' of woman in her Cancer depths, driving her powers up to the heights.

In man they come through his generative powers as he radiates them out in his "sperm-belief". One is of the 'sperm-generative', and the other the 'generative'. That is why woman is so important and must ever 'weave', but not of the 'spider depths'. For when a woman goes down too low, she is a 'curse to the world', because she can do far more damage than a male).

The Gordian Knot

THE secret lies in the intricate Gordian Knot, in the power of the mighty generative atom, the Norm, as the radium sulphide of the present bone structure, and the sole basic of fundamental thinking. For soliloquising is that of genealogical belief, which has been infused into the soul by the Ages of collective gathering, and now as an atom of reverberating essence, where all comes from one's own divine godhead.

Where all perceptory glory now comes forth as the accredited wonder of 'timelessness'; all born as the possible glory of the Uranian flash, the stamping imprint of the 'kicking horse'; that of the risen 'fires.'

(So what you receive from the heights, you revolve within yourself, and back again to the heights. All the radiant divinity of the past now becoming your timelessness. For man and God are united by the birth and light of the revolving infinity of the heavens, with the Heavenly Glory ever coming forth as the radiant Divinity of Time.

The Gordian Knot is not only of the Chromosomes, but of every other status within the body that holds the intensity of your growth. That which you raise up out of the Gordian Knot, you bring into the electrified radium of this inner depth. This will become your bone structure, as your 'atom in the heights' perceives and begins to radiate its glory down to the depths. For you are going to raise your Chakras up; your Chakras are going to tingle with it, and all your Chromosomes will dance with it, and you are then going to be a radiance of this fundamental

AS Majesta stood and watched the rising of the Sun, Merope embraced her lover, newly begotten from the unfolding wonders of the Cosmic glory. For as the Orion MAN he was the mighty heavenly glory brought forth out of the unification of relativity.

THE BEGOTTEN

thinking and belief, because your higher mind will be born of it.

You may not have the full understanding of how this is going to work, but if you say to yourself, "I believe that; I can see that, but I have yet to work it out", then you will receive some deeper fundamental thought in regard to it, so that you get your higher mind born of the radium sulphide.

This is now going to feed your bones, drip by drip, especially as your conscious mind begins to say, "Oh! Oh! Oh! I am beginning to see what you are saying now. I see what I have got to do." If you persevere, and do not give-in, you will find your conscious mind awakening and beginning to seek the answer.

Your higher mind is born of all this 'truth', and it is by the drip, drip into your depths, that your conscious mind will forget all the basic of the earth, such as "That is right, I do this. I do that". Instead, you will think of what your higher mind is telling you.

This is why Merope secluded herself away, so that she did not see the outside world, but was impregnated from the Heights, and born and born again. This is what the pope once did, but forgot all about it. Now Merope is doing it instead, so she became the Power.

You have been collecting the higher mind all over the Ages, but your lower mind, which has never received anything really of a higher structure, is now receiving the wisdom. So you are 'one ahead' of everybody else, because you are obtaining the answer to it all, are you not? You are not just waiting for the drip, drip, drip.

You have the answer. What you have got to do, is to get a revolving state of being. You have no need to wait for the Seasons, if you can get your mind working quickly enough, for all can come in a 'flash'.

Glorified Christhood

HERE is where the sulphur chromatic breath in its reborn state of oxygen, designated by Merope, is the Breath of the immediate future, the outcome of Time and Space. For it will be by that of the oxygenic frequency of Vega, and its varying degrees up the Planes, that man will open up the doors of those wonders, lost and forgotten.

The oxygenised air which now breaks down the astralised planes into forthcoming light, the glory of the reflection of yesterday. That without depths, merely length and height, which makes it an elongation of multiplicity, and not the Solar point of radium penetrative glory.

For Radium is the super-atomic thought of the Gods, they now being the controlling structure of the Heights once again, with man now up on the Virgin Plane, awaiting a change of heart. That of their past divinity, now the Radium frequency of needle-point interpenetration, the living memory of man's mind. All brought back into life by the atomic inflow of the Master's Academy. Thus man all set with the stirring Waters setting into motion the depths and glory of being, by the needle-point of the Atomic interpenetration.

Godship, the mystery of Being and Becoming, is the Argo-effluverised breath that has left its course, through the whole of the circum-navigated Waters of Time. That which now is the Radium vein of the Solar Glory, now pulsating as the Radium Radar beam of the intensified Flame of Divinity.

Hence all the knots of twisted time, the icebergs in the inflowing Infinity, have been dissolved, with all magnetic rocks having been neutralised, which will now stop the gods from being depleted. For since the Argo journey by Merope, the strength of will prototyped by her struggle to master those mighty depths and heights, enables all souls to draw from its generated point of Source, which is the mighty vortex. That which now draws the Holy Fire into the whole of the Atom's being, the whole quest of Creation. That which is now the whole true complete entry of that Holy Fire, which cleanses and expels through the mouth the dynamic solvent Word, to the point of Solar Truth.

THE MIGHTY PREROGATIVE OF THE RACE ELECT, AS IT RECEIVES OF THE ATOMIC WEALTH OF THE FABULOUS "OCCULT GAZETTE."

Hence the mighty wonder of such dynamic beauty, the heritage of all being, is far beyond the understanding of the Atom, as he clings to the form of the beast. It is only when he dances high as the Ariel Sprite up the Heavenly Tree (man's spinal glory), that he sights the glory of the heavens, and is mystified into occult dumbness.

Then as he thaws and opens up, by the "drip" of the interpenetrating light and the Solar Glory, the might and beauty is slowly perceived, and the Orion Man is begotten in the soul itself. As unto the mighty Macrocosm is that of the microcosm in the depths, the ever-revolving Infinity, which unto man is his internal glory within his blood; the union of divine golden Rhythmic expansion of the radiant sparkling Pollenised Atomic dust, now revitalising man's royal begotten wealth into Holy Light.

The scattered depths of dialectic fame, now gathered together by the Holy Flame of Divinity, as the pure Succulent Breath radiating His Golden Sensitivity, stirring man into holy divine unfoldment. Thus man bringing into birth complete Atomic Radiumistic perfection of ONENESS, through divine Atomic belief, as the begotten.

(So whereas Merope has begotten the higher Glorious Flame, now it is the means of man being begotten in the depths, through the 'drip', 'drip', 'drip' of the Glories of Time. So what man now has up in his mind as the holy light, is continually being 'fired' by the Heights through the Infinity bringing into birth the glory of his internal being, because it is your internal being that counts, not the form).

The glorified Christhood as a crowning glory of holy divinity, a radiance of comprehension that brings to the soul, faith and perfection of knowing. This was where the Seed Pearl became the blossoming rose, and the 'void' became the 'garden of life.'

The aspirational point of intoxicant exhilaration as the fiery Neptunian strength of mastered Time, the glory of the Sphinx. The Neptunian footsteps of Virgin glorified beliefs, imprinting the dancing jewels of Fairland divinity. For the celestial divine Virgin growth is the royal Transcendental light, and now for the first time man has become of such.

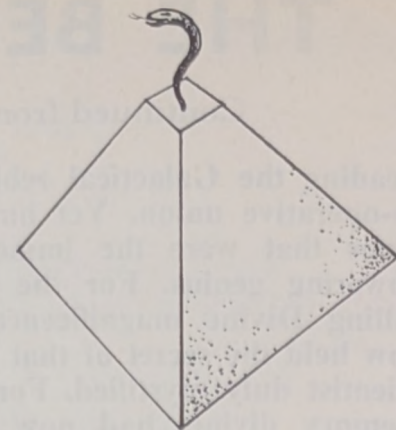

For only when the divinity of Ages is unified, is the beauty of divine consciousness registered upon the corti of the ear; the Corti of Heights and depths then being unified. For divine Love is the Radiumistic centrifugal point of the unified twelve gods of the established Vega Plane of Holy Light.

With divinity as spiritual duty; a service of sensitivity brought to a magnitude of Virgin light, where the soul is awakened to the true understanding of life and its purpose. Hence the rippling swan, the

STANDING OF LIFE AND ITS PURPOSE.

So Merope says, "Who am I? What does it matter what happens to me, as long as I do the Task before I go! My answer, my glory, lies on the Other Side, where I shall then be unified with My Divine Heavenly Spouse. Here I have been doing my Task; why should I worry about what is of the earth?"

MEROPE HAS PUT THE TRIUNE TOP UPON HER PYRAMID, AND HER WEALTH AS THE SERPENT FIRES, IS GOING BACK UP TO THE HEIGHTS.

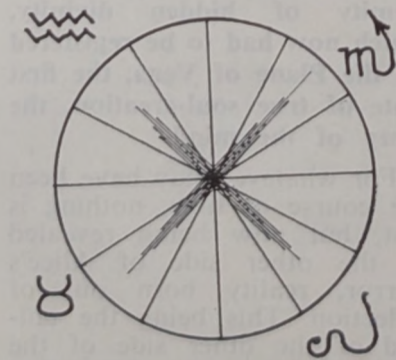

For all the treasure of life is in the base of the Pyramid, the foursquare structure of rebirth. Thus the blood life to be spun up and unified as the Begotten Mind Plane of Vega. Therefore the Sphinx is the animal status of the soul as the Cancer depths, all involved as Solar wealth, and represented by the lion-skin; that mastered by the Orion man who is beating his rhythmic pulsating belief into its reborn Virgin divinity.

(The man now who is mastering the elements in the depths, while Merope is mastering the Elements in the Heights).

While the lion's tail in the Eridanus is now as the Vega Stream of the Holy Prismic Water, being electrified by the Orion Man's awakened reborn aspiration. The lion's tail representing the Virgin seed (that of the feminine principle); the Solar balanced electrified mind in the hormone seed, which descends to the depths. Time being reborn into Transcendental Glory.

(All your wealth, all you have gathered up is in that hormone seed which you gave birth to in the pineal, and which by osmotic glory, goes into the pituitary and drips in the 'waters' to the depths. But you do not drip it every time; you only drip the actual seed now and then. You go on dripping the 'waters', but the seed only comes down when you fight for the new thought, the new understanding; that which Merope gives you.

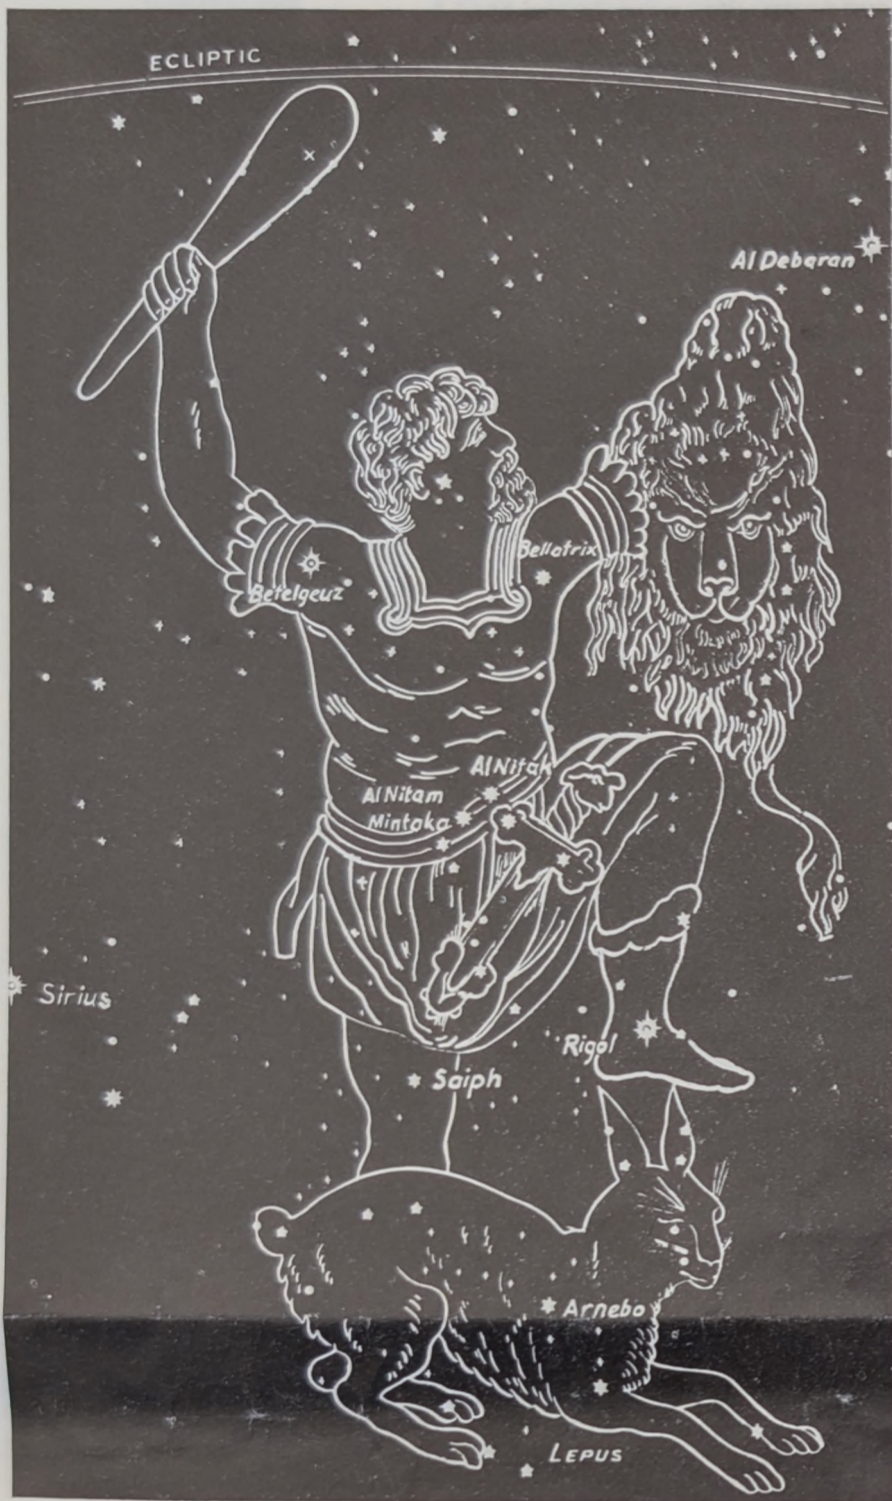

You think a thought, and as you start to climb up your holy tree (your spine) the seed comes forth and drips down to the depths. Then you begin revolving round and round into the glorified birth of the mind. When you can bring forth the 8th out of the 7th, then a 'glory' rises up to the heights as a needle-point).

Now here is the Lion and the Bull. Try and think of these in your Horoscope. Merope thought of this. You bring down the seed from Scorpio to Taurus, but it does not come down into Taurus; it has to meet in the depths, in the centre, where the Taurus ideas are changed by the inborn seed, which is going to change the 'fires' in Leo and bring forth the Orion Man in Aquarius, the spirit.

Merope as the Christos Spine, is therefore the Argo Oar as the Atomic mitotic spindle, revolving heights and depths. The cosmic stabiliser who navigates the future course of Time.

The oar being that which propels the wealth of the Argo ship, in the intercalary unifica-

DIVINITY OF THE HEAVENS

THE unfolded beauty of that heavenly glory, as brought forth down the ages, where Sage and Hero have wrestled with Time, swinging the club by the might of Betelgeuz, the mighty coming of the Branch. (See text on page 3, col. 1).

glory of spirit, as the supreme virgin belief of cherished divinity, which the soul nurtures and drives on to a point of divine completeness.

(By the inflowing Waters changing your inner being, it is giving your higher mind the new-born powers with the drip, drip, drip to the heights, but you are being given how to find it, without waiting for tomorrow.

It is the divinity that is gathered together, up in the heights into the great Orion Man. But He has not got the knowledge of what is taking place down below. He wants the divinity that man has built up, and which is within him.

All the glories which souls have gathered in the depths; that of the Sages, the Mystics, the Teachers and Heroes; not as knowledge, but as light. This is what is being sent down now as the Divine Consciousness, and only that is registered on the corti of the ear. You only get the divine sensitivity of the royalty; not your interpretation.

When you send up to the heights, your gods up there are then going to dance with what they have gathered, which will then be sent out into a centrifugal point, back into the Norm, to come back again as the 'sparking point' upon the pituitary, causing it to drip, drip, drip, down below.

THE ANSWER TO LIFE. IS THE SOUL AWAKENING TO THE TRUE UNDER-

When you can do the same thing, then you too will have found Divine Love. Whatever you do of an earthy nature, is only going to become your 'cross'; it is going to become your Gordian Knot, and will only bring you difficulties).

The Hidden World

THE Sphinx is the monument of time, pointing its stalagmite of unconsecrated wealth to the East, as the rising Sun awaiting the Vega Stream of Holy Water, to once more infuse the Neptunian Plane, which now is a barren desert.

This time with the royal Merope unified Fount and Yod wealth becoming the depths of the Royal Seed, through her cosmic aspirations to the heights. For the Stalactite is Universal Philosophy, that of the wealth of the Orion MAN, the Vega Stream unifying with the depths, as the School of expanding wisdom. Hence no longer does the Scorpionic wealth remain dry, but is now cosmically watered with truth and Vega fluidity.

(So what comes down now from the great School in the Heights, of Universal Philosophy and from the Orion MAN, is the Vega Stream pouring down to the depths, which Merope expands once again, sends it out on the Ethers and back again up to the Heights with the needle-point of New Belief).

tion of the Lion and the Bull. With the two creative hands as the Virgin mind of the Argo man re-shaping the course of divinity. Everything you create being through your hands. You put into operation by your hands, and tread it in with your feet.

Thus with such revelation coming to her, she rose up to the Rose-strewn Bower, seeking that she could be taken in her carriage of dapple-greys to the vicinity of the Sphinx, and gain wisdom of the intervening of time, if possible.

But here she was convinced by heavenly powers through her greater sister, that she could go by the power of Astral travel, and that the Majesta counterpart would now help her to make the journey, through the way of Outer Space. Thus making all ready, Merope rose up and sallied forth, flying on an even keel, being led by her greater sister. Having risen up to some heights, to miss the earthy states around the Earth, which were confusing the stratosphere. For now there were the drug takers that had to be taken into account, their investigation being none other than that of the Astral Planes.

(So what Merope has now brought into birth is the understanding of the radium incandescent light of the Atomic, that which all of you are born of now. In the beginning it was found by the Pharaohs coming down from the Heights; they set it into motion, and were able to light up the base of the Sphinx as their secret symbol in the depths. Now Merope has found that secret, and is bringing it down to the Earth as a reborn state of that mighty glory).

So on the wing to the being of the Sphinx, which could be reached in a flash; for Merope found that she could either make the journey quickly, or witness much on the rise-up into the foremost vicinity of matter. Here she sought the latter, that she could witness the lesser states of creation, which could ever be down to the depths of Achnar. Therefore, as she gazed from those heights into the depths, she witnessed what the lost black Taurus sheep had tried to convey in his muddled recitation.

SOULS WEIGHED DOWN WITH WEALTH AND POWER, WHO NEVER KNOW WHAT TO DO WITH IT, FOR IT IS OUT OF THEIR VICINITY OF EXPANSION. NEVER SEEKING THE TRUE COURSE OF SUCH EVENTS, BUT EVER THE COURSE OF GAIETY AND LIFE IN ROLLING, DANCING, SCREAMING AND HYSTERICAL ACTIVATION; THE HEIGHTS OF THEIR DRUG-INFUSED IMAGINATION.

Then Merope was advised that the only other thing that could set these souls on a course of balance, was the partaking of the 'bluebell root.' Where they would lay of the path for mind ascension, to be blossomed up in their heights; while to those who would start to partake of its glory, would all help be afforded, by those watching ones of the heavenly spheres.

The Mind Activity

SO up Merope went, rising higher and higher, until she came to that awesome desert, now in the throes of modern reconstruction. As the African Moon, in its mighty depths, shone in this silent creation, it radiated and accentuated the depths of this mighty mystery. An edifice of stone, the glory of TIME, standing just as silent as ever.

For Merope knew that this mighty creature of mystery, went back to the days of Atlantis. Now, a period of transforming states. So Merope went deeper into this TIME, by the power of her inner assumption of mind creation. Right back into that ancient mystery of her past, the depths of her water creation.

Here darkness was reigning supreme, with mighty men as large as giants, by the power of mental assumption. All working feverishly with their minds, accumulating greater and greater states of matter, without any belief in the glory and potential of the Celestial Heavens. There she saw a number, more intellectual than others, carving this mighty monster; the memory for a time to come, when they could solve a dynamic problem that seemed to evade their power of possibility.

Then there came the surging of mighty waters, and all was silent and still. For they were drawing down to earth powers in abundance, but not transforming by mind glory and spinning them back up to the Heights, a mighty lesson now mastered and accomplished by Merope.

THE MIGHTY VULCAN

THE mighty Fire of heavenly glory that once took the call of Hephaistos. "Now I rise up in all my glory as the mighty Lord of All." (See the Front Page text).

For this was the change-over from earth into water, through the seeking of those mighty Heights as mere power, to establish a state of active mind, but allowing what came into birth to create a form of sensation, instead of sensitivity. The waters never having become an established status of spiritus air, but soul becoming enamoured with the glory of matter.

The first beginning of solidification, the slide seven leagues deeper into matter. Thus the mighty Taurus soul was the creator of this unmistakable edifice, for all that begins in soul creation, Taurus being the potential creation in its very depths. Yet that of Cancer as the waters becoming the glory of mud, an incestuous state of the depths; that of the Cancer marshes.

The mighty velocity of earth, that of the subterranean depths of the pit, which the soul could now only learn of by the deciphering of his own creation. The unification of the Nodes as the lost serpent, awaiting the retrieving of its Antares beauty lost in those depths.

The true mystery of its stinging Fiery Glory; that which drove all into action as the Uranian life propulsion. That which is now driving all up to the Heavens in its mighty gyroscopic spin, to find the Atomic point of this blossoming magnitude. For all is within man himself, so would be his Norm now fired into blossoming glory.

So with the Moon in all its dead and transformed mystery shining on its own edifice, Merope came to the frontal view of its silent vigil of awaiting the solving of its creation. As she gazed into its stony face, she beheld a thermometer on its breast, from under its chin to the depths of its belly. And knew that she was being informed

The Mind Development Class

EACH Week on every Saturday at 5.30 p.m. G.M.T. Mrs. Spearman-Cook holds her Special Mind Development Class at the School's H.Q. A special Subject is concentrated upon for about 40 minutes and then each sitter is individually helped to interpret and understand his or her findings. Any readers can join; those nearby can make application to attend each week, and those too far away can send in their names and link in each week at the time stated, their names being entered in a Special Book for this purpose. The subjects for concentration are:

Jan. 6th Radium	Feb. 3rd The Kingfisher
Jan. 13th The Oar	Feb. 10th The Snows
Jan. 20th Oxygen	Feb. 17th The Black Lamb
Jan. 27th The Waterfall	Feb. 24th Cosmic Consciousness

The thermometer being the Hermetic god wealth as Hermes, the royal Solar Winged Divinity which they raised it up to, thus giving the Sphinx that pride of solvency. That of the priestal Uraeus as the risen mind, by which they lit up the underground vaults of the base of the Sphinx, until Merope released his hidden secret by the radium incandescent light of atomic glory. Yet also the first seed of Solar light setting the heavenly Orb into creation as the Helio light of the day. For all had fallen into darkness from the Spirit Plane of Heavenly light, into the darkness of the earth-born depths.

Hence all really began in the East as the first awakening belief, with the West as the final fulfilment, in the unfolding creations of the present day. These Priests having such Power of mind, as Atlanteans partaking of a greater depth as Pharaohs, bringing light into birth, by drawing down the Eridanus into the glory of the Nile. For soul was still in its god-like state, not yet creating "death" by solidification, this coming with TIME and materialism; the fall of soul becoming 'black,' a fallen Phaeton. The Pharaohs being those who had retained their glory of risen consciousness.

Then the Waters, which became a fluidic Deluge, would have served their rights, by creating a glory of the mind. The Fires surging up as fluidic magnificence, not cumulus clouds that have to be deciphered into mind light, but by the Fiery glory sparking its beauty into the dancing Pituitary unfolding, causing the Norm to be fired into light divinity. For Uranus, as that now sparking horse, would have been the rising infuser of those ventricles of filled spiritus air, becoming as a fired perception of light.

Then the first Fissure of Rolando, would never have severed the beauty of that delicate created atomic glory. For Uranus as the Heavenly glory of the mighty Unseen Creator, in sending this dynamic Fire, had done so to infuse the gods with reborn active life; but had been cast out into the pit of soul's desire in his mind belief, thus only a reflection of that heavenly divinity, as the first creation of the FACE.

Hence soul had to create by a negative journey, which caused the Plane to revolve in a ball-like action from East to West, through the created Water becoming surging waters of deluge; a further dynamic understanding of the Sphinx. For Atlantis was the forming of the seven bodies of Creation, the fall into the Waters of Lethe.

Here is where the unification of mind extension, by the ionizing of the poles in intercalary unity, would have involved the animal states that they had created, by the mortuary meal as Solar comprehension breaking forth into the beauty of mind light. For this is what the Sphinx was awaiting man becoming, Solar-born.

Then the pinnacle-point as mind oneness of triune glory,—the consciousness of Christos divinity,—will be placed upon the Pyramid creation of the four-square creative mystery of man. Thus as Merope stood looking, having solved the first part of its silent vigil, she knew she had awakened it from the mystery of those depths. For in the depths of her inner consciousness, she heard a Voice declare...

"Am I not the great Ophiuchus, who was stoned by the fallen Fire?"

The stoning of the Heavenly Seed, causing the Pineal, the receiving Norm, to become silent and dormant as the night. The priests of such a mighty creation as that Atlantean wealth, bringing down the Fires which they never redeemed.

A mighty world of Paradise, which fell into the complete reverse of its being; hence they stoned the FACE of that mighty Divinity which they were bringing into birth, and Shamash became the created depths of Saturn. The curse that all men would have to carry, with Merope as the Goddess of LOVE, tied to the earth until she could retrieve the Fire, her heavenly Lord, from the stone migdol of the depths.

As the Voice reverted back into its stony silence, the secret of the past came flooding back to her in abundance. For here before her was the mighty edifice which covered the secret depths of that mighty Priestal magnificence.

When wonders completely unknown to man now, were brought forth in the depths of its entirety. When all was the mighty Temple of a Great Queen, the Great Goddess of LOVE, the reflection of that heavenly Deity guiding the gods in the depths. Where wonders of union from the heights to depths had never been severed, yet but the SEED of creation of what Merope now had brought into birth once again, as the School of Universal Philosophy.

To try and open up the minds of men, to their great heritage of the past. But in Atlantis, a mighty Temple, where she was the mystical union for that Fire to come forth as the glorious SHE. Fire that would help those god-like beings to retain their etherealisation, and known as the mystery of White Africa. Thus not becoming stoned into earthy beings of black solid animal flesh held up by a bone structure, but beings of the spirit that men were now coming back to, by the descending Waters transforming them back to the Virgin Plane.

THE BEGOTTEN

(Now they are all back on that Plane once again. What they have to do, is to gather back their past, lift up their minds, and by faith, begin to build up their lost heritage).

Then it seemed to Merope as she stood and looked at that mighty stony silence, that she entered into its internal depths where great awe and mystical glory were the Presence in that internal chamber. Where beings were male and female only from the creation of positive and negative, as unto Merope and her heavenly LORD Urana. Pubes in the true sense of the word, those who received their sustenance through the union of their up-turned FACE.

The Atomic Oneness

THE Goddess ever drawing down Power that resuscitated ever and a day, with unfolding union of power and strength. Where they created glories of unfolding Evolution in the surging power of mind and light. It was when this became stoned, by the Fire falling into the depths, that Merope, swept away by the priests being surged by sensation, fell for the love of Leo, the raw animal fire. Then the great Heavenly Glories, which manifested in all their mighty wonder, were silenced and lost, with waters surging in everywhere, as the deluge of desire. All taking on the darkness of night, until Helio brought forth of the first glories of the unfolding Solar Glory.

So with unfolding effort, Merope entered the mighty Temple once again, by the power of her involved mind. Not, as many believed, in the darkness of the night, but when, what is considered as the Moon,—the first creation of the Earth,—held the light of the spirit.

A silver Plane of heavenly light fallen into the depths, awaiting the ripening beauty by the re-creation of the mind, but now in an active state of gyroscopic ascension. Then all would have burst into celestial wonder, as now created in its lesser glory as the Central Sun. Its past beauty at the present moment, being the centre of the Earth in all its boiling fury, which Merope has now unified, awaiting the Earth and those Heights becoming one in the mind of man, when that Glorious Plane of Paradise as Vega, will be the glory of the day.

That is what was upon the Earth as the Plane of Paradise. What man had to bring into birth was the 'spinning up' of that Fire, and all that Wisdom, bringing the Solar Glory to the Earth; and that is what man is going to bring into birth now.

(Can you now see why you are receiving of the glorious Central Sun pouring down into your depths! That has got to grow, and your Earth has to be a part of it. Then you will be born of it, and you will all radiate the Glory of Cosmic Consciousness. Merope has unified the depths of the Earth earth creation, she beheld once again, surging through that mighty Chamber of glory in the interior of the Sphinx.

A rolling wonder of light, which filled the soul with electrified glory. Fire that created mind wonders and fired souls into elevation. Performing wonders, that souls now are resorting to drugs to try and retrieve, as their lost glories of the past. These being but an artificial reflection of the wonders they once were

THE FALLEN GOD

ONE after another they rose and fell, crashing from heights to depths,—but NOT Merope! She who held on to her Great Master's hand and rose up to heights unknown. (See text on page 5, col. 4).

with the depths of the Heights. When man begins to do this, by unifying all together by the Reality of understanding, and seeing by the sensitivity of his Mind that which I am bringing to you tonight, then the whole Earth will become one Glorified Light).

Hence as Merope entered that mighty creation, with all these wonders in their first Heavenly beauty, the Fire that is now the molten lava of the able to bring forth from those mighty Heights. To recount them now would be impossible, for man only knows and understands by bricks and mortar, flesh and bones; the glories of the Spirit being lost unto him, until he retrieves them once again.

(Now, is not that 'boiling lava' in the centre of the Earth, also the 'boiling lava' in man's sex creation, his desires?).

Then their union with those heights is an internal creation of Spirit; a bringing back into life of the lost pleromic beauty, as the internal union of the Spirit. Until man finds that once again, no recounting could be valid, for then the soul lives once again as the god-beauty of those heavenly Planes.

THE MIGHT AND GLORY OF WHAT SHE BEHELD, MEROPE KNEW, WAS THE VERIFICATION OF WHAT SHE HAD NOW RE-CREATED, OUT OF THE DEPTHS OF THAT FALLEN MYSTERY. THUS BROUGHT THE GODS BACK TO THE VIRGIN PLANE, WITH ALL THE WONDERS OF TIME, AS THE WHEREWITHAL TO SUBSIDISE THE MIND UNFOLDMENT.

Then by fixing the Millo as the locking of establishment, all now was Solarised, and gravitated back to the Heavenly heights. What had been, and earthed as fallen fire, was once again a Plane of Light, the Virgin Plane of the mind. Thus no gravitational pull to the depths, all having been involved by the LAW of Protrusion, with man making his way towards the glory of divine Consciousness, the royal assumption of Atomic ONENESS.

Here the mighty mystery of the Sphinx was fully explained, with Œdipus mastered and fully conquered, and the glory of divinity embraced. For as Merope gazed at its silent face, looking directly out to the East, she knew that this mighty creation came from a previous state of existence of transforming soul.

A creation looking towards the rising Sun, the unfolding of its lost god-state; ruling out many theories which man intellectually declared. A vast edifice rising up out of the waters, with all the symbols of today, was of a creation that went on and on, with but changing tides of time. Not one globe after another, but planes of existing life, that ever went from one state unto another, by the Law of Evolution.

One day a spinning world of glory, tomorrow a world of changing hue, as the FACE becomes born of glories anew. With Evolution as the life of sweeping Purpose, moving all on to its intended expansion. Yesterday, rolling waters; today solidified bones; tomorrow, dancing wafting prismic vapours, that speak of etherealised glory. Yet all the same Plane of action, the unfolding of the Cosmic Plan.

That was the secret which this silent creation held and cherished in its stony Vigil, with man blind and deaf to its silent whisper, but which to Merope, was a living glory of rebirth. For it reminded her of many things, that could quite easily be forgotten; the glory of that Solar FACE, and the mystery that it beheld, in the glory of man and his unfolding divinity.

Who was HIS Father, no one knew, yet all things are the rolling edifice of becoming through the mind of man. Yet HE who gave to this mighty Divine Cause, the first SEED of Begotten LIFE. That which today is a living tangible Glory, in that Rolling mighty Magnificence of Solar Shining Glory. That which feeds man with the Prismic Pleroma of Divine LIFE, that ever moves on its unfolding FACE from one phase of Glory unto another. For what was Begotten as that mighty Macrocosm, is also begotten in that atomic offspring, the microcosm in the depths.

A creation born and living from that mighty mystery, the Christos Solar Blood of Holy Glory. The Mighty MIND of Cosmic Magnitude, Begotten from the mystical depths of man from those Mighty Heavenly Waters. A Mighty unfolding Glory of Intelligence, as a dynamic Power of Heavenly Guidance. That now fulfilled as the mighty promise of all the Ages, fulfilled and awaiting the union of Atomic life to complete the mighty secret of unfolding Cosmic Consciousness; the glory of perceiving the depths of ALL BEING united into a SEA of complete knowing.

Hence, O' silent mystery, gaze no longer; your secret has been duly revealed, with man about to awaken to what has been duly spent, and the balance awaiting his active drive towards a MIND Plane of ethereal glory. The rising East told man of the secret, as he awakened each morn from the darkness of his night. All a book duly revealed, with man as the dancing puppet unfolding his mighty magnitude.

As she bowed her head in awe, Merope sought her way of return, that she could greet Aurora, that rising morn, with the mighty Flame as that Heavenly Divinity, embracing her into His Holy Glory. Then as she awoke with the mighty Atomic Breath of Transcendental Christos emanation, feeding her with the pre-Horae Holy divine Fire from the Orion Pole-star of Vega, she knew that another phase of unfolding divinity had begun, on the Race of unfolding Evolution.

With her, Merope, as the first-born child of Atomic Transcendental embodiment, with a new unfolding cosmic mind of self-healing stimulus. So it gave growth within her, of her first child. For in her perceiving of this mighty secret, she was born of its depths, being as she was, a mind-creation in a Vase of flesh. A new-born babe, born from the Heights and depths of the mighty Virgin Seed. The re-awakened Pineal cradle of Christos Presence, the wealth of the Royal Atomic Stream of Orion Christos LOVE.

WITH MAN AS THE CHRISTOS CHILD WITH THE GOLDEN KEY-RING AND KEYS TO THE WHOLE UNIVERSAL SCHOOL OF TRUTH; ALL TO BE FOUND IN THE PINEAL CRADLE OF REBORN VIRGIN LIGHT. THE MYSTERY WHICH THE SPHINX HELD BETWEEN HIS MIGHTY PAWS.

The Finalising Union

WITH now, the finalising of all in the Planes, the tabularising of Creation as one mighty unilateral equation of the constancy born of the Word. Which is now the alchemicalisation becoming atomically controlled by the addition of the super-will, as the radium infusion, the glory of that Solar involvement. For its penetrating force is now unparalleled by any other known frequency, while the atomic galaxy through this alchemical mystery in the depths, also becomes born of a more searing scourging re-orientalising power, of unfolding divinity.

(So when you take it down into your depths, it becomes greater and greater in its re-orientalising power).

Thus the ever-unfolding Begotten Cosmic Glory of the Transcendental world of unfolding light. A Celestial symphonic attuned divine frequency, rising up to the Cosmogonical Virgin Oath of that once mighty magnitude of the inner-born virgin Divinity, to the potential Glory of the radiant Divine Cosmic Consciousness.

(So what is in the inner virgin mind will slowly issue forth, and come into being as the Cosmic Consciousness. Until then, it is a duality state that comes through in any shape or form).

All Begotten, all creation, out of the might and wonder of unfolding Divinity. The mighty "IT," the Unseen Glory of Becoming born out of itself. That which becomes as a Begotten creation out of all that has been; Brahma giving forth of His being to the BEING in re-creation.

(So it is ever a continual birth out of yourself, as you raise up your mind and you 'struggle to know'. You make sacrifice and drive-on by super-will by bringing your mind into birth).

Yet of the Heights, so of the depths, where this mighty Fire, when brought forth as the Christos Glory,—the unfolding cradle of the Norm,—is this mighty FIRE risen up out of itself, as the Seven producing the Eighth. Yet that which in itself, is the whole octave in the one 'striking.'

A constructive formative Divinity, resounding repeatedly, as the thunder of the colossal infused might of ITS sobriety elegance. The mighty moving FIRE, the living acme of LIFE. That which became the golden luscious brilliance, the dynamic Solar plumage of the mighty Royal Heavenly Flame, the Solar Radium Atomic Word as "IT." The mighty Divine Virgin status, which gives unto man his impending EGO.

A symbolising balm of mind fulfilment as a god serenity, yet the united precedence of His coming as the royal holy Being awaiting the fulfilment of Time, when he can manifest in all His divine royalty. The atomic divinity as the son, begotten from his Father's mighty propensity. Yet the mind and moving grace of the Consciousness to be, in the unification awaiting the world of tomorrow.

All the Begotten of that mighty "IT," the Holy Fire in its all-radiant glory. The unfolding wonder in all its mighty beauty, when glamorised in can dance up and down like a bat, in and out of the shadows. You cannot do this because you are looking for bits and pieces. You cannot blend up in your mind, so it had to be put this way, as the dancing in and out, and the blending-up of what was, what had come, and what now had arrived).

Yet here we find the mighty union between heights and depths, where the glory of the ionising is interblended, bringing unto the soul the majesty of the spirit. The divine ONENESS of blended glory, where heaven and earth are one. Then what had been merely a fluidic creation, now becomes a solid imprint of unified TIME. A created picture of

into birth, and the Seed is filled with what you believe. That alchemicalises the Mighty 'IT').

That alchemicalised out of itself, for the soul by his unified alchemical effort, has brought forth the depth of the thought perceived. A glory that ever passes most by, thus they never become one with the Spirit, but ever remain an earthy creation, conveying no beauty to another. For it is a 'die' already cast, and a status that will spread by the Law of Becoming.

(And here am I, up in your heights. I am the Firebird she drew down. And she raised me up, not only in the beginning, but once alchemicalised into the Spiritus Air, which rises up to the heights, and stimulates the gods with new infused life.

An awakening of the sleeping mind, that what-has-been, now becomes infused into the beginning as a begotten state, on a higher propensity. Whereby a new activity strikes the rock, and sparks all into a dancing action, causing a hormone wealth to come out of the vault, the sleeping Norm intensity.

For by osmotic action and the union of the Waters, a Seed is begotten into life, and starts the journey of the Argo once again. For then, all begins its journey down South, to bring forth its intended round of rebirth. With the OAR ever dipping into the Waters to move the action into progress, of the metabolising union. New blood for old, that a Flame can come forth, as silver is exchanged for gold, where the princess will live in a royal palace, the heavenly heights of divinity.

A royal babe as a begotten son, rescued from out of the waters, to live with the royal princess in the castle up in the heights. Where the birds sing and feed all day from her dainty hand. For as it moves back and forth across the set loom, the warp and waft become a newly created pattern into life, a mystery from the Woburn Heights.

A parable of the prodigal son, wealth duly received back to the heights, with the heavens now shining with divine glory. For every man is a reflection of the heavenly vaults, the nebula in its transformed glory, into radiant beauty. Heights and depths as the begotten son, the mighty propensity of divinity, born from the mystery of the vast glories of Outer Space, the ether breath of reborn life.

Man begotten from the Heavens, with the Heavens begotten from the depths, the mystical marriage of inter-union, with heaven and earth bringing forth the begotten glory of the spirit. With soul as the transforming glory of that Transcendental beauty, into the cosmic consciousness of the Virgin plane. Where man begins the rise-up to the radiant expansion of unfolding glory, the mystery of divine life.

For here we see how Merope-Majesta captured all the Elements into an Isotope creation, finally mastering the frequency of the mighty Central Sun. Bringing the Great and Glorious Firebird as the Essence of that Great Heavenly Divinity, down to earth as the Divine Pleromic Glory of the Heavens, and raising it up as the Fiery Breath, bringing forth out of her inner being, the manifesting Glory of the mighty "IT." Whereby He now will walk this Mighty Glory into Matter, by and through Merope, bringing her to the divine manifestation of the Pneuma Christou. Turning the earth into the Central Sun, by uniting this Heavenly Glory, now manifesting in the depths, with its lesser reflection, the internal lost radiance of the Virgin Plane of Paradise.

(So Merope is now the Pneuma Christou, turning the Earth into the Central Sun).

THUS MAN BEGOTTEN FROM THE GREAT BEGOTTEN, THE MIGHTY SON BORN FROM THE GLORY OF EVER-UNFOLDING DIVINITY. THE BLOOD LIFE OF UNFOLDED GLORY, RISEN UP INTO MIGHTY MAGNITUDE, BY THE AWAKENED SOULS OF UNIFIED HEAVENLY GLORY.

Reminiscences

THE ATOMIC GLORY

ONCE AGAIN WE COME TO THE END OF another Circle of TIME; a period of seasons when all is set into action for another rebirth in the New Year. To the majority, this is merely a passage of Time when there is a good opportunity for another period of eating and drinking, and relaxing from the daily task of rebirth.

A Time of Reasoning

TO the serious-minded soul, and those as TRUE Mystics, it is a time of reckoning and summing up, especially since Timelessness has made its debut. This now being in the form of possible perceptory awareness, that being born in many through the inflowing Atomic Waters bringing Ultra-sensitivity.

THE SOUL BEING ABLE, IN A FLASH, TO PERCEIVE THE DEPTHS AND TRUTH OF ATOMIC GLORY.

Hence, what has taken its fulness of becoming in alchemical unfoldment, now makes it in Timelessness, the new status of mind thinking. But this is only a part of the Atomic Glory, and although a major concession to many, infinitesimal to the mighty possibility of setting the infinity into action.

This is the internal revolving of the soul's own accumulated powers, whereby they feed, resuscitate and re-imburse the soul by creating new thoughts, and sending new ideals up to the heavens. But first we have to see how all is within the soul itself, through the taking of breath as stimulative refuelment. That which will drive the internal wealth of the soul, to produce more and more wonders out of itself. The internal capacity to ever produce, and bring reimbursement to soul and the heavens. Otherwise in its refusal to do so, becomes a lodestone mountain of knowledge, resulting in sickness and mental incapacity.

Yet the soul by breathing in the now oxygenated Atomic Prismic breath, can if he is seeking diligently enough through his mind capacity, unfold of glories that he never deemed were there. But further still, set into action an internal revolving status of blood-flow, that will unify his outer body with his inner bodies, and be the means of rectifying any status of sickness, whether mental, physical or psychological.

Not drugs or quack medicines, but herbs and mind-driving action, with the latter to be obtained through the Occult Gazette. For although the foremost article can be out of soul reach for the time being, by struggling to find its inner depths, can bring superb conscious mind exercise and stimulus that will raise up the sensitivity, unfolding greater and greater frequency.

The idea of this, is to force the soul to set the mind thinking and the blood pulsating, whereby the mind dances up and down the vagrants, that it can eventually, by a new belief, race up the cervical, dance over the brain, awaken its sleeping atomic faculties, and fill the ventricles with the Spiritus Air.

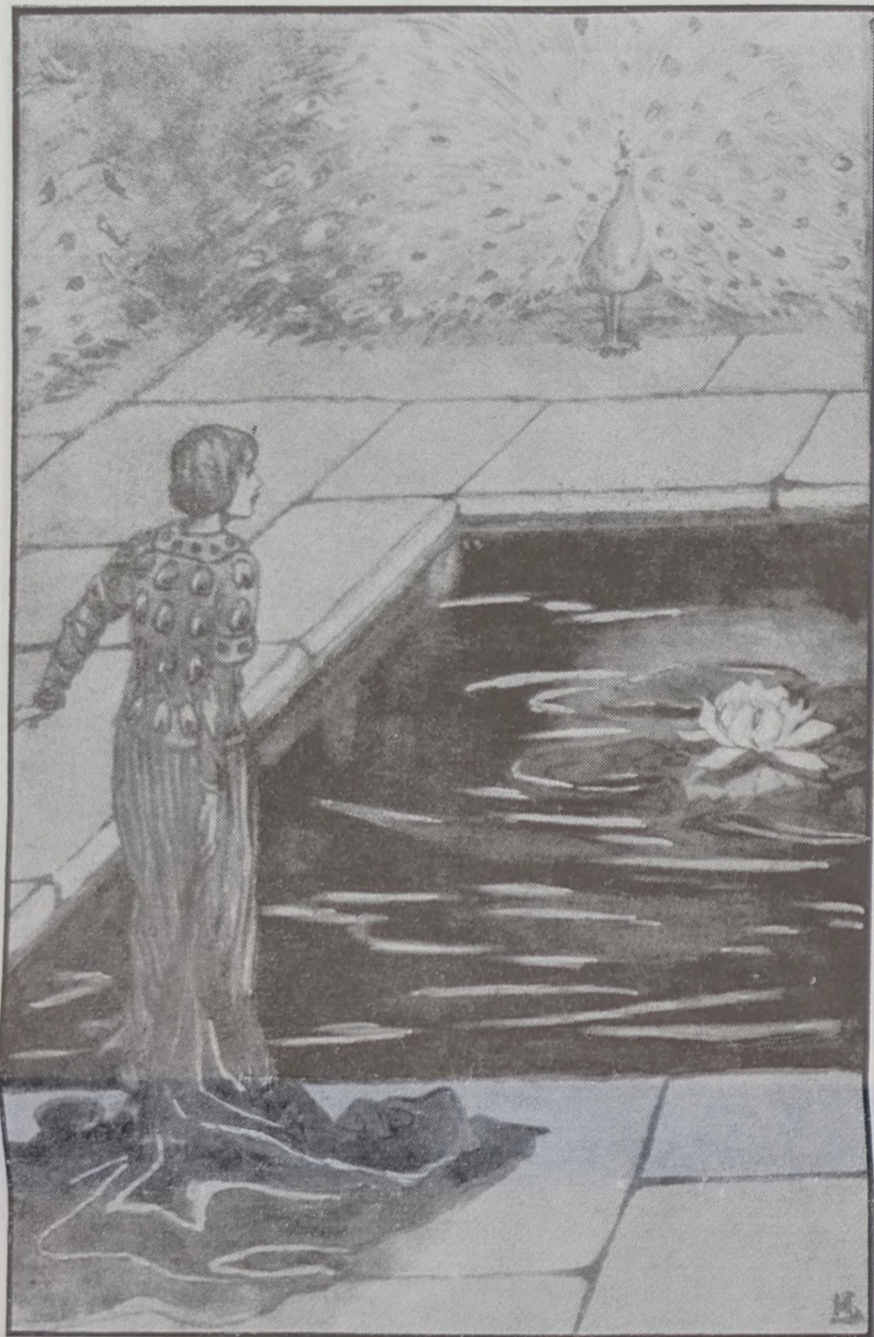

WHEREBY A NEW THOUGHT OF GENIUS IS NOW BORN THROUGH THE HIGHER MIND BEING SURGED WITH LIGHT OF A HIGHER NATURE OF WISDOM.

Most souls are too busy with

DIVINE SENSITIVITY

AS Merope gazed into the depths of the Waters, there rose up from the bottom of Time, one pure white radiant Lily. For wisdom now as the eyes of many ages, now came forth with outspread glory.

just living and resuscitating themselves with physical delights, to realise the importance of mind unfoldment at the present moment. Never bothering to comprehend that the times are changing, where a new Plane has been established, and they must adjust themselves to its creation.

The Plane of the MIND, where only the mind and its thinking capacity counts. If NO thinking, then in no time, ill health, mental exhaustion and complete stagnancy will take over. For the soul will be living in old lunar time, which now has been replaced by the mind glory of Solar timelessness.

The soul now being fed and nurtured by the Central Sun in all its radiant beauty of Atomic wonder, filling the blood with the necessary fuel to open up all the glories of its past. Thereby complying with the Law of Relativity, where yesterday must produce tomorrow, through the inflowing Solar Blood-Life feeding its past creations. These being in the haemoglobin of the Blood, the inner bodies of the Soul creation.

This is where the old religious status stoned the soul with the defunct wisdom of Christ shedding his blood to save the world. But they had a dead god upon a cross; now it is being shown quite clearly it is not a dead god, but a living Glory of resuscitating life capacity. That which is feeding the world with His Holy Blood, the Galactical Prismic Beauty of Outer World Atomic inflow, from the Royal Divinity of Begotten Mind Light. The Great Intelligencia of Cosmic Consciousness, now the Transcendental inflow for new life to be born into the World of Avidya and material blindness.

The Solar Divine Glory

SOUL lost in the baubles of life, to now realise the true meaning of their earth journey. What they have been and were intended to be, that became completely lost in the joys of earthy creation, which are the destruction of soul and its mind.

Gods that once were royal, and were intended to become of the mighty glory of mind genius, now satisfied with merely grovelling after bricks and mortar. Instead of making the ariel flight by the mind, merely flying up in the air in a mechanical contrivance, viewing the earth from a joy-ride conception.

Only ever ending up in mind stagnancy, that leaves the soul a piteous sight in its years of advancing age. When really they should have been preparing for a world of changing status; for in the Cosmic rebirth that is taking place, a complete new Atomic World is now coming into birth. Where all is resorting back to its status of a Plane, and not a round globe of mud and water.

But a Plane of mind thought, where every soul will only survive by being born of a mind capacity. Thinking and contributing to the growth, and unfolding of the Plane by turning from earthy gravity, to the heavenly gravity of Solar Glory.

Every soul Solar born in his mind thinking elevation, by drawing the heavenly Fire into the blood; for all now is AIR and FIRE. The earth and water elements now having been cosmically dissolved and turned in. For the Prismic Breath will only feed the world with Air and Fire, the status of the Central Sun.

This now comes back to the soul itself and its unconscious elevated arise, as a new-born soul of Solar Blood-Life, completely immune to the darkness and sickness of the lunar world, which should never have come into birth as a desire water plane. This giving unto Cetus the power to control the inflowing Stream of Divinity and LIFE.

Therefore, soul unconscious to itself, has been reborn and prepared; hence the quantities of Occult Gazettes that have been sent out onto the maelstrom, to touch all they meet. All a part of the GREAT WORK, put into operation by those mighty heavenly Forces. For the Gazette is the VOICE of that Great Solar LORD, that everybody has lauded as a religious Christ, and not as an unfolding evolving heavenly MIND; that Begotten through man's toiling on the earth, and the Cosmic rebirth via the soul's unfolding mind capacity from those heavenly Resources.

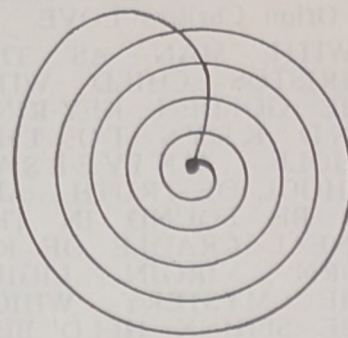

For soul is an Atom of Atomic Solar inflow, a soul creation born in the Beginning as a Spark from that mighty creation of many Ages. What man has called God, in reality is the Brahmic Glory of Ages, a continual evolution of Cosmic Glory.

But ever at all times the Mighty Unseen, that man by breathing and supping on ITS eternal Prismic Blood Life, unconscious to himself, builds up an image within his own mind, that at some time or another, becomes the foundation for the holy Presence to manifest within his auric being. But like Atlantis, mighty giants appeared in the form of scientific universal drunkenness, and usurped the royalty of true unfolding Mystical wonder.

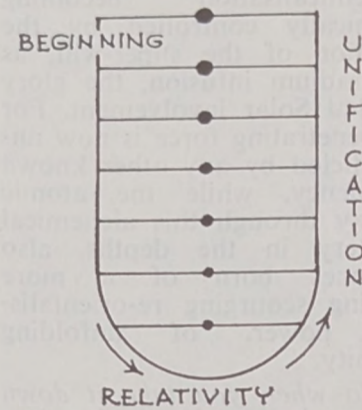

This is the dilemma that soul is experiencing once again; but by somebody being prepared to be a Scapegoat, the situation was saved a robot death. With man now so dynamically reborn, that ere the coming year closes its portals, untold changes will have begun to unfold.

But the greatest one of all, is man having to resort to the simple things of life, whereby his own internal atom is going to become his saving grace, in the seeding point of becoming his own revolving infinity. The soul ever being reborn out of its own internal Source of Beginning, for everything created is HERE and NOW. Man being fed by the heavens, which will give rebirth to new ideas out of his voluminous past creation.

Soul came from the heavens as a nebula spark, and has been fed by the heavens, but now moreso than ever. That by him reaching the full capacity of evolutionary status of Galactical formula, Aquarius is the time of soul having to make a rebound by the Law of Relativity.

What was seen as soul coming forth out of an animal state, was the animal creation that the soul had sunk down into in the FALL from mind to desire, taking on animal states of deterioration.

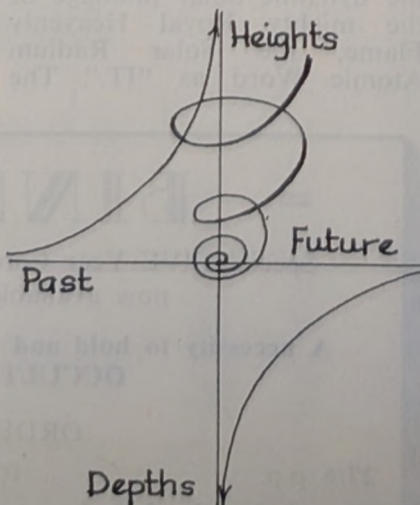

Soul Creation

SO now as a created and unfolded Atom, he must be prepared for the allotted changes, that he can unfold and give forth of his wealth. Earth and Water began the creation of Mind, with FIRE as the Atomic sustenance to now drive soul creation on to the next unfoldment of life. But HOW, if all is within soul itself, it is only receiving the Prismic Pleroma through the inflowing Breath.

The Blood-life of soul in its Haemoglobin of Ages, that now, in its present growth, makes the soul a fully born Atomic construction, which can no longer exist on earth magnetic fire created by those in their unfolding experiences of time; but must, as a full soul capacity, feed upon the heavenly status of resuscitation, filling their inner being with the heavenly Fire.

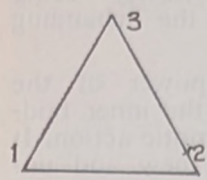

That they can now bring forth their Aged wealth of "Yesterday," and unify into a complete status of New World comprehension. Bringing new mind creation into birth, out of the old world of thought.

Therefore, by soul revolving his inner blood capacity by a mind status of active constructive thinking, will the Prismic inflow unify his past creation and open up his mind to greater thought by the tangent unity... which the soul must spin up into higher unfolding thought.

For this is the Transcendental inflow of Fiery action that will unify and blend up all past states, and bring new ideas into birth, producing eventually a status of Cosmic consciousness. One and two, ever producing the third, a triune state of upward growth.

For by the soul ever thinking on constructional lines for the good of Humanity, will he automatically spin his mind up towards the New Solar Gravity. This within the soul itself, is its own Auric construction, for he is the microcosm to the Macrocosm.

A soul creation who can, by the inflowing Prismic Breath, "squeeze" out of his inner blood capacity, a rising up status of new atomic ideas and beliefs. For man is like the Phoenix, ever being reborn out of himself, but now on the Mind Plane. The soul ever bringing out of the "Blackness," that which transmutes avidya into an unfolding flight of new belief of possibility. Whereas necessity was the Mother of invention, now mind-striving is the natural formula for unfolding possibilities.

Thus man is an atomic pile within his own creation, an eternal source of mind possibility, apart from the wonders that can come into birth of an Occult and Super-mystical nature. That which can now, by the inflowing waters set into motion by Merope, set his own inner capacity onto a higher status of creation. This he will do by raising up his frequency by increased sensitivity, driving his Chakra spinal capacity up to the fulness of the first octave.

capacity and possibility. For man's spine and his head, are the activation of his wealth of Ages. Here in the spine lies the power to obtain sensitivity and frequency, that the soul can rise up to the seventh Chakra, the Pineal gland, to open and blossom it.

Man never having gone past the first five lower Chakras, ever multiplying at Jupiter that belongs to Taurus. But by going up to the full seven, the infinity of blood flowing life can begin to revolve and produce out of itself, as the mystery of the eighth.

Here is the moment to prove the great mystery of life that lies within the Scriptural Legends, where Samuel as the priest of the soul, in 1 Sam. 16, demands of Jesse, as the Pineal, to let him have of his eighth son.

This in coming forth as a greater capacity of life unfolding, was referred to as David, the Seeding status of the Christos possibility of the future pineal capacity. "I am the root and the offspring of David, and the bright and morning Star,"—Mercury ever following the Sun, producing the mind. (Rev. 22 v. 16). The status of unfolding Cosmic heavenly Glory, that could bring the divine mind into birth. Yet that which soul was ravaging in physical desire.

Jesse's rod... is the issuing capacity from the Pineal, for the soul's internal wealth to issue forth and mature in the Pituitary as the hormone seed. There, if the gland is working in full atomic glory, it will be sparked with Uranian Fire, the wealth brought into birth by the kicking horse, or active risen passions. Thereby to bring it to an expanding possibility, for this is the risen Kundalini Fire, the Serpent risen by sensitivity and frequency.

With this gland as the hub of the revolving infinity the united soul, as the fully fledged atom, can rise to untold capacity. Fledging its "cosmic wings" that it can fly by frequency up and down the cosmic planes. For all is frequency, and as the soul brings forth its root wealth of past Ages, can it by wisdom and mind striving, bring forth the third out of the united capacity.

For all now is mind belief, and what the soul is willing and capable of putting into action by his belief and renunciation, by renouncing the earthy for the heavenly. Earth and water for Fire and Air.

The Divine Unfoldment

WHERE a soul can see this wisdom as a soul possibility, and the finalising of his captivity in the flesh, and is prepared to labour and put it into action, will he find the answer to Relativity. Although he is ill-equipped, as the majority are, and lacking in the comprehension of putting all required into operation, he will be assisted by that inflowing Blood-life, and the galactical creation attending his unfolding godship.

So no souls need despair, especially women, who are often very heavily burdened from past Ages of hardship; for by Relativity, the rebound must come in the positive. Therefore no drugs or false fire and stimulus, will bring this royal prize into birth, it only coming forth by true elevation in god-like unfoldment.

This is a message for the coming year, and one of UTTER importance, for unless man learns to get these future faculties unfolded, he is going to find life and the mighty unfolding Element Powers, difficult to handle. For changes are going to come fast and furious, and will require all the mind capacity possible to handle the inflowing Transcendental Glory.

It will only be by learning to accept and embrace the mighty Great Flame of evolved Cosmic Christ Blood, that is surging through the blood-life of every soul, that man will be led and succoured by that Great MIND of LOVE, Compassion and Divinity.

When man can truly turn to this wisdom as Occult Truth, he will find a mighty strong arm to uphold him, and a secure raft to carry him o'er the fast rising flood-tide. But it seems that man has strong aversions to anything of a spiritual nature, all being the outcome of religion and its false impregnation into the depths. So will have to rise above it, by seeking into the true glories of the wisdom.

Then as man finds the means of such wisdom uplifting him, will he seek naturally for the REAL and established TRUTH, which he will find in UNIVERSAL PHILOSOPHY, for that is the inflow of Transcendental Glory from that Mighty SCHOOL in the heights.

Thus to help those who are often seeking of information regarding the many terms used in this wisdom, let us make known the depths and meaning of many Words now being used in this new vocabulary of thought. The ATOM is a soul status of creation, in its now unified glory with divinity, with the Source of Beginning now the Source of Supply, through the soul's own status of assumption and ascension.

All being HERE and NOW, and as the soul turns all that has been into a divine state of ONENESS, will the expansion become an internal glory of Cosmic internal consciousness. This results in the ELECTRO-MAGNETIC, which is the prototype of the unification in divine auric manifestation. That which brought the CHRIST, as Divine Intelligencia into Being. That Begotten from the DIVINE Fiery Blood of Cosmic Assumption, that of the Central Sun, now flowing to the earth as the Fiery Blood of Life.

With the CHRISTOS as the Terrestrial intelligencia made manifest through the Solar Glory and the OS of the magnetic, in divine unity. Thereby manifesting the divine mind light that upholds the Divine Intelligencia by the Auric ascension.

This is performed through the alchemical pot (sex functions) in the depths, and the NORM (pineal gland) in the heights in inter-marriage, flowering all into the glory of divine perception. With the Central Sun, the Divine replica of the Norm, as the Centre of all Becoming and the Source of all Beginning, now the inflowing Transcendental Glory of Universal Philosophy through the Fiery Breath.

All this being fulfilled by ANTARES, the stinger of the Generative inflow that drives all into action. The Fiery action behind all Creation, aided by the Divine Galactical Glory, the heavenly group of Celestial Divinities, that help shape the destiny of man.

By this it is quite clear, that the inter-marriage between heights and depths, the positive and negative states of the soul, is the immediate point of action. (Gen. 2 v. 24/25). For the awakening of the ATOMIC GLORY, is the bringing forth of the soul's internal wealth, that will unify up his seventh body of terrestrial tissue, with his internal six.

These are in the ductless glands that have union with the Canopic jars, the metabolising organs of the body. Those that are fed by the sympathetic nervous system with the FIRE set into motion by the KUNDALINI SERPENT that rises up the spine, and sets the Chakra wheels revolving.

This sets the ancient Source becoming the polarised status of Supply, with soul spinning up their mind by its elevated action, to reach heights never touched before. Thereby unifying the conscious mind with the subconscious, into a perfect oneness of comprehension. The perfect marriage between heights and depths, the soul blended in divine androgynuity.

This can only be brought about by an ELECTRIFIED state that sends the soul gyroscoping up and down the spine, bringing back the food of the raven, until the DOVE brings back the heavenly scroll of new-born Cosmic truth.

Therefore, it is the awakening of the androgynous activity as the opening of the tomb, unto the opening of the mouth, as a status of cosmic Solar rebirth, seeding the soul with immortality. Where everything is performed for the unfoldment of the Cosmos, that will bring a new state of life into action.

The soul re-fuelling the heights with and through his internal infinity. To those who are new beginners and seek to set this into motion, prepare by cleansing the bloodstream by herbs and water, and discarding food that destroys of the Fiery Spirit Essence. Then by sitting cogitating on the point in question, so that it sets the seed exploding, the SPIRITUS AIR will rise up to wrestle with the earthy status of the soul, in the timely inter-marriage of Le Ros.

Then if the soul can get itself ultra-sensitised, he will be able to transmute the prototype received, into a greater comprehension of belief. Therefore, the object is to bring the blood to a quicker action of revolving infinity, that it can feed the brain with an activating dancing motion of life, unto a sparking radiance of light.

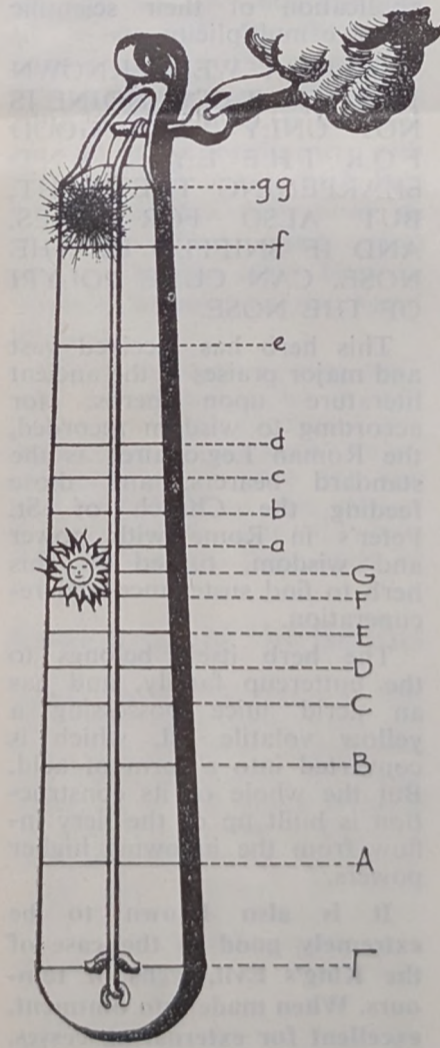

Then that which has been just a pyramid of growth, will now be able to place upon the top the final triune of glory.

With the Uraeus as the mighty unlifted power of the soul's transmuted fiery internal glory. For man is either going to step up onto the MIND PLANE of Vega, or be swept away in the vortex of the Stream. For now there are no Astral Planes, all has been transmuted onto the Virgin Plane of LIGHT.

Which at the present is bringing about all the earthy chaos until man opens up through the inflowing Fiery Waters.

It was either this by the sacrifice of a Scapegoat, or a devastating Atomic War set into action by the work of the Scientist. With any that were left after such an unspeakable possibility, becoming Robots of a stoned and forgotten Age.

From the School of Universal Philosophy, we send our Best Wishes for the coming Year, that all who are truly seeking, will find their fill in the wisdom we hope to provide.

To the medical fraternity, these would be the unknown ductless glands that bear to them no status whatsoever, yet hold the elixir essence of

HERBAL MYSTERIES Part 6

CELANDINE (Chelidonium majus),

by David Spearman-Cook

THE beauty of the Autumn with its sad and sombre touch, has brought into birth many winds of change, enveloping all into a possible reborn Christmas-tide of a new and unfolding thought. That which could open the hearts and minds of men into a more searching quest for truth. For as he awakens to the new Solar inflow, will Mother Nature capture his unfolding aspiration, directing its healing balm into the very depths of the Earth. Giving unto the herbs—the necessary quality for man—the greater inflow of unfolding life. This could help the extensive healing wealth of Celandine to enhance its recuperative powers. For the first herbs to receive of such a blessing are those of the Celandine variety, the golden buttercup beauty of the fields. As an astringent it could now, more than ever, be capable of rejuvenating all the states of depression into a more uprising attitude of mind outlook.

Celandine can certainly do this, for it extracts from the cells of the body, the poisonous substances gathered there through the lower status depressing thoughts. For it has an uncanny nature of moving things on, which is accomplished by the nerves being surrounded by the cellular substance from the Celandine herb, which creates an infusing state that draws and creates an osmotic fluidity, drawing out these substances from the most intricate internal organs.

The best way to explain this movement, is of a fine fluidic substance which has the power of a fiery spiritual nature, passing through the more dense substance of the organs, and becoming an inner nerve massage. For Fire in its highest capacity, has the power of passing through anything, and taking the capacity of the substance that holds it. Then as this substance, with all its inner wealth, clings to the nerve tissue, an electrifying activity commences and a changing oxygenised state develops.

It is a well known fact to those who study Mysticism, that spirit fire passes through these states by the power of dematerialisation, hence a more full understanding of the osmotic states that prevail in many delicate parts of the body.

The internal spirit fires of the inner bodies passing through the seventh outer body of flesh. This helps the student to understand why Celandine will help the soul who is diligently seeking. Thereby help force him into a spiritual change, by stimulating his nerve ends, forcing him into activation. The former now gives a better understanding of how spiritual operations are performed.

NOW it must be accepted that a new herbal blue-print is being infused into the earth, changing all the states of husbandry growth. As these are in harmony with the bestial desires of the earth, the changing vibration known as herbal cosmograph will be the means of burying-in the soul's own animal states, as he moves up from one plane unto another. While Celandine will also help to synchronise the atomic light, and help the chromosomes to concentricise their path into a oneness, as the Words and wisdom are solarised by the soul.

For the alchemicalisation of the old animal issues, is no longer operative, but now being transmuted into the Fiery glory of the heavenly propensity. The formative animal states having been mastered by the rigid non-animal diet of Merope, bringing a completely new Law of life into action, of a more metabolising nature of nutrition.

When this herb propensity, as fluidic vibration, enters the bloodstream, it revitalises the dormant frequency of the soul, as well as the natural breath taken by man. Thus helping to bring a risen up frequency of mind, that will gradually balance the saliva juices of the palate; bringing a natural aversion to the consuming of the flesh of animals, which will automatically assist him in his reformed struggle upon the new Solar path of Vega.

For the Holy Fire as the Transcendental inflow is pure, and as such its status cannot be defiled by animal flesh, and when attempted, will only bring sickness through the soul's lack of keeping to the rules partaken in the initiation.

It is going to be found ere long that Celandine and Comfrey will be a basic for the feminine principle, the conscious mind, to start her weaving, when the soul has atomised itself sufficiently to the new wisdom. This he will do by adapting a super-determinative action of mind, that is insistent in mastering the depths of the Words applied to the occult explanation.

For in every man's deeper being—the god-power of the meninges—the answer is known, with Merope making it possible by her lectures and teachings in the Occult Gazette, to inhale the new crystallised breath of the Vega life. Therefore the two herbs, Celandine and Comfrey, are a good atomic stimulative that can help bring a raised up state from the magnetic depths.

Then in combining Celandine and Mistletoe, it will be found that it can also help the fluxes of woman, and at the time of the change, which is a relativity state of their earth cycle, it should be a time of their blending up with their higher mind.

Otherwise there can be a drop into the negative, bringing a sad lack of mind co-ordination. But fortunately they will now, through Merope's change of Cosmic Law, be able to draw upon the heavenly Fire, and gain help in this important period of their life. No longer meeting the depths and remaining down in the pit, but by the emancipation put into operation, be raised up by the Royal Solar Flame.

Gargling with Celandine can bring a cleansing of the palatal sensitivity, and can help to extract the salivary juices which accumulate, and cause an activation of the taste buds.

This will assist those who are trying desperately to change their diet, for the taste buds are some of the Gryphons that are ever having to be mastered, for they are everlastingly pulling one back upon themselves. But the will to resist must still be with the man himself, for he, as the basic, must desire the higher and drive everything into mind movement first.

WHEN Comfrey and Horehound have been added to Celandine, it will make a basic trio for helping to clear the duodenal state of the intestines, because they have the power of centralising all states of fungi. For a duodenal ulcer is a fungous state that has impinged itself in the Cancer depths. The stomach being ruled by Cancer, would be receiving this from a negative state of mind built up from a previous life, thereby manifesting in the lunar depths as a reflection of the mind. These three herbs have been known to help considerably, through a centralising of the fluidic excretions from the ulcer, and binding them into fine thread-like streamers which are able to pass out through the bowels.

But a complete cure can only result through a delineation of a chart, where a true cause can be detected by the position of the planetary action that has brought this condition to a head. Then an honest acceptance by the patient, that a possible mixed state of mind, or maybe a moral issue, needs a changed outlook. For all illness is of a mind state basically, and is the reason for all disease.

These three herbs, Comfrey, Horehound and Celandine, are very good drawing and binding agents, being very helpful if the ankles are inclined to swell. Taken before retiring would be the best time, for then the blood is more relaxed, and would help the removing and ejecting of the waste states out of the fleshy tissue. This in being emptied out into the bowel, will be done minus any strain upon the nervous system. Also Mistletoe and Celandine have been known to cure small warts and rashes. This is done by soaking and bathing same, causing them to gradually disappear.

By this alone, it can now be seen that Celandine is going to be a very worthy basic for the road of the new thought. Helping the soul to meet the risen frequency of the cosmic inflow, for its basic is Fire of a risen up frequency, hence its healing powers are of a greater magnitude than ever before. For in its growth it is receiving the inflowing beauty of the heavens, which is enhancing its already voluminous wealth. Therefore, if through man's mind he is enlightened to this truth, automatically he can obtain a greater degree of healing than Mr. and Mrs. Average of today.

CELANDINE, Marigold and Hawthorn Berries can assist the cancer states of the soul, for these three hold a basic fiery drawing strength, that can equal and top the radium treatment of man. For cancer is a backward state of extensive growth, with the soul refusing to be driven into continued activation, so the flesh takes on a quatermass state. By the medical infusion of radium, X-rays, and other rays, into the soul, they are driving more solidifying powers of a negative state into the inner depths, when really the soul needs the Fire of the greater powers to drive them into spiritual action of mind.

The use of these herbs for cancer is a well known accepted fact in the more ancient depths of Russia, where they once held most intricate powers of mysticism. The applying of artificial Rays can have an effect upon the mind, bringing a stoned state of forgetfulness, and deterioration to the bone structure.

Only the natural way is the right way, for the soul is completely created out of the higher powers of life. The partaking of earth food to feed the physical tissues, is a state that should never have come about, so a false state that is now having to be dealt with by the soul, and which is slowly being transmuted in the changing status of life.

The healing power of the soul is really in the inner bodies, hence the osmotic action. It is in bringing a new and unfolded state of growth to the soul, that will bring a newly balanced state to have a bearing upon the outer body, for the inner body is of Fiery action waiting to burst into the light of the auric mind. For this little golden flower is most conducive to the marriage of the positive and negative states of the soul, the lack of which is often the cause of the soul's ill-health. For while the soul is in a divided state, it brings about a state of confusion, and not completeness, which the Solar Fire coursing through the blood, is demanding.

This will also have an effect upon the marrow of the bones, which contains the old phosphorus states of Saturn, for by changing Saturn into the Solar, you change the inner states of the bones, hence the helpful effect Marigold has upon ulcers of the legs.

AS the inner bodies pour their balanced growth out to the physical, will the conscious mind unfold, and make better harmony with the inner state of the sub-conscious. This is where souls who are progressive in their thoughts, state that they find healing in studying the Occult Gazette alone. Hence tell all and sundry, "I heal myself"; a growing concern to the medical fraternity, who have lost their way in the application of their scientific infusive multiplicity.

IT IS A WELL KNOWN FACT THAT CELANDINE IS NOT ONLY VERY GOOD FOR THE EYES AND SHARPENING THE SIGHT, BUT ALSO FOR PILES, AND IF SNIFFED UP THE NOSE, CAN CURE POLYPI OF THE NOSE.

This herb has received vast and major praises in the ancient literature upon herbs, for according to wisdom recorded, the Roman Legionnaires as the standard bearers, and those feeding the Church of St. Peter's in Rome with power and wisdom, turned to this herb to find sustenance and recuperation.

The herb itself belongs to the buttercup family, and has an acrid juice possessing a yellow volatile oil, which is converted into a form of acid. But the whole of its construction is built up of the fiery inflow from the inflowing higher powers.

It is also known to be extremely good in the case of the King's Evil, wens or tumours. When made into ointment, excellent for external abscesses, while many have stated that consumption has been known to be cured by this tiny golden flower. Then to add to its many possibilities, we would finally add, that if Celandine was taken while a fractured bone was mending, much help would be derived.

For the herb being of a Fiery Nature, and coming under Mars, with all Fire now being raised up by the Solar inflow, is very capable of entering into the bone structure through its osmotic powers, and could help to quickly heal the break.

Next month we will take the Dandelion, a very simple herb, but well known in the herbal field of healing qualities.

PERIPETUA MOBILÉ AS CAUSE

by Gladys I. Spearman-Cook

ALTHOUGH this article was written a considerable number of years ago, and has not the depth of information that is within the current lectures, we do feel it will be useful to help many obtain a greater understanding of the Infinity. How all is driven through the blood and the glandular system, as the fiery elements of the Heights. A perpetual inflow of fiery life, that when elevated to its highest expansion, becomes the fiery serpent of the depths, feeding the pineal gland, or norm, with the elevated Neptunian Waters.

Since the writing of this article many changes have been brought into birth by Merope, and where the red corpuscles remained red, as the energy of life, now they will become as white corpuscles in the spiritual rebirth of the soul, as all is brought to the glory of the Central Sun. This for the time can appear as leukaemia or anaemia, but which is only the changing state of soul life, and can definitely be cured, as proved by Merope unto herself, by mind and chakra elevation, and the partaking of Marigold, Mistletoe, and Vervain herbs in abundance.

WITH THESE THOUGHTS IN MIND, IT SHOULD ENABLE ONE TO OBTAIN THE GREATER UNDERSTANDING OF THAT GIVEN IN THE FOLLOWING WISDOM.

WHAT is the Mystery of perpetual motion? The Egyptians knew this secret and taught Moses, who in turn passed the knowledge down through the children of Israel. The Mystery, as indeed it appears to the majority, then became perpetuated down the ages; the course of its destiny.

Perpetual motion is the Absolute, The Proximate Cause manifesting in matter, and is the perpetual and continual ever-changing degrees of Transcendentalism in its ever whirling state of becoming. First to multiplicity and then to Infinity; but the greatest expression of this Great Cause is man as soul, who not only is the perpetual motion through Space, but is the creator of time and eternity. Time that ends, and eternity that never ends. Finite to the infinite.

It is the dynamo of Brahm, that if man can respond consciously, will give him freedom of mind and thought unto genius, for it is the connecting link between man and God, earth and En Soph. It becomes his will as the intelligence, with power as the seer to look into the mirror. His fiery body as the Holy Spirit, which raises him up to the third Heaven, whereby he becomes the Agent of God.

But to come to a more practical understanding, let us seek into what is the carrier of this movement of continual interchange. For to know the law and movement of this change is the wisdom that will help man to become free, once he accepts.

Awakening of the Genius

THE three great vital airs that build the etheric body are the bloodstream, lymphatics and nervous system, for these three carry life force shaping the physical, as well as bringing destiny to fulfilment. To understand the wonders of these three elements of change, is the mirror of the mystery to Man Know Thyself, for they carry the life force.

The blood carries not only the consciousness around the body, but is also that of the nourishment and fire that feeds all tissues and secretions. But it does not work alone, for all things in matter are duality as the two forces of Equilibrium, that which attracts and that which repels; so the lymphatics run side by side.

These two in mystical language are referred to as Mars and Venus, the first two acquirements of life, and have linking with the lower portion of the spine. If this knowledge could be understood, man would be able to solve many of his problems, for they stem from these two lowest Chakras or wheels.

As in the universe, so in the body of man, interlinked in such a way as to be a vast network of inter-relationship and unity, and if such was emulated by man in his human spirit, the problems of evolution would be solved. But man has fallen to complexity and caused such to become entangled and bewildering, to such a degree, as to bring about complicated states of sickness and disease, and mind confusion to such extent, that he refutes wisdom, when it is offered to him, as utter rubbish.

Man prefers the knife and pill rather than discipline and freedom. So let us try and understand and help to solve this problem.

To get an idea as to how these vital airs work must be the first move, then man can

SUBLIMITY

MAN the conqueror of the elements, and the raiser-up of divinity, holds within the whole of his being the mystery of Cosmic Consciousness. (See text in col. 5).

respect and perpetuate them down the ages.

The blood does not come into direct contact with the tissues, and is a substance, or yellowish fluid that contains cells called corpuscles, and is the blood plasma, the protoplasm. In fact it is the life force and the carrier of the perpetual motion.

These corpuscles or cells are dual, as is all else in nature, and understandable by referring to them as red and white corpuscles; but are the erythrocytes that carry the life force containing a substance called haemoglobin. These carry the oxygen, the Prana and source of life.

According to your assimilation through this life essence, will the principles of life ever unfold within you. So it must be seen by common sense, that the finer and cleaner be the bloodstream, the greater the intelligence and hopes of any form of genius. For it is the carrier of the thinking property.

The Solar Essence

THE haemoglobin consists of the iron element, the metal quality of Mars and action; therefore most essential for its formation. This alone can give you much to think about with regard to energy and your daily thinking capacity; for if the bloodstream is sluggish the mind is dull and the will responds to the negative, earth matter.

From a mystical standpoint, and perhaps not so mystical, this liquid called blood is the liquor sanguinis, the wine of Bacchus, the ever changing soul-state from centaur to man. The mystery of the two signs of Scorpio and Sagittarius, and has complete linking and solution with the mystery of the crucifixion; the marriage unto the severing of the hind legs of the animal that man can become free.

In fact it is the greatest story ever told of how man can literally free himself from the trammels of matter. But when glorified by religion as the God in matter, it closes the door to man being able to accept religion into expansion. It alone brings to religion its death knell, and to man blankness.

Sagittarius is the winged mind, supported by all states of religion and wisdom; and by man looking upwards to something superior to himself, he emulates and becomes. He divests himself of his own egoism and enters into the Egoic planes of Buddha. That of understanding, for Buddha means the Enlightened One. Sagittarius is the changing Bacchus as he treads the grapes of life, the growth of the vine of life that he has tended and nurtured, that brings the blood to its red context.

THE PRANA, THE VITALITY CONTAINS WHAT IS CALLED KAMA, THE MARTIAL FORCES, AND WOULD BE THE SOLAR ESSENCE IN THE BLOOD AS ENERGY AND VITALITY AFTER ITS STAGES OF ALCHEMICALIZATION.

This would be the rays of the spectrum according to man's capacity of assimilation; and the higher his desires and purpose in life, the greater the assimilation. Kama has reference to the purpose of the soul, for it is the main driving force, for what was taken as Solar energy from the phenomenal creation, becomes man's desire to act. Therefore becomes that of his kama-rupa, his energy force; which in the majority of human beings is the animal state yet to be transmuted.

Sex as the fires and heats, man's form of generation, and links with Mars, with tastes as possible re-generation, as he repairs the bloodstream and refuels his system through his fires, and links with Venus, the lymphatics. But I have already said, all is so interlinked as to be one vast network of multiplicity of infinity, and is so, where the blood and cells of the body are concerned. And at this point we can stop and survey, but briefly, the mystery of consanguinity.

If man perpetuates his life continually through the bloodstream, his blood is a river of personalities or species of lives. Living states that are waiting to become involved into one-ness. A one-way stream of purpose and not a multitude of endless tracts fighting for supremacy, and the means of the varying moods of the soul as they become caught up by the alternating states in the maelstrom. Man a victim to life, and that from which he is struggling to free himself.

The bloodstream is the energy action and is of Mars, with the lymphatics as the scapegoat, who follows to work and aid the blood in its actions. For it supplies of the plasma and takes from the blood the waste, and is referred to mythologically as the dual state of the mother; Mary and Martha. Martha who labours, with Mary who listens to the higher states coming forth through the experiences, until one day she becomes the divine Mary.

The personality producing the child of Light, the Causal body. The many species going one way in action and purpose. This is the mystery of the hidden secret which brings the lion of power, gained from the action of striving, to lying down with the lamb. For in

(See the plate above) the ordinary course, the lion would devour the lamb through its animal lack of wisdom.

In the duality of the bloodstream, the red corpuscles contain the electrical action, the unto his Amulet which gave him greater virility. This is seen more clearly in the understanding that Osiris (Sun, individuality) is buried when the sown corn is hidden by the earth, and comes to life and shows himself again when it begins to sprout. For which cause also, Isis (Moon, personality) on feeling she is pregnant, ties the amulet round her neck on the 6th day of the first half of the month Phaophi, (October) and Harpocrates is brought forth about the winter solstice, imperfect, an infant in the things that sprout too early. For which cause he is fed on the first fruits after safe delivery in the spring equinox (Aries).

BUT WHEN MAN MISSES ALL AND NEVER GATHERS AT THE SPRING, HE NEVER GATHERS HIS "WATERS," AND WHEN HE ARRIVES AT THE "WATER-POT" IT IS EMPTY, AND HE ENTERS BACK INTO THE RAM, THE ANIMAL CREATION, INSTEAD OF INTO THE HEIGHTS.

But Perseus gained of this victory, which gave him of the helmet that helped him to escape to safety, and furthermore, not for himself, but for Zeus and Athena, growth and wisdom. In fact, he now knew so much, he destroyed Athena's rival at the vernal equinox and supported at once the solstitial festival and the high Capella circle.

Only as the Ram, the pioneer for truth and evolution, takes the place of, the Bull, does the star Algol or Al-Ghul succeed to Capella. The changing state in the head of the Medusa to the head of Perseus.

This is registered in the four cervical vertebrae where Atlas carries the world upon his shoulders; and Perseus, the pioneer for truth, presents Athena, wisdom, to Mother Nature; with the head of Medusa—those starry heights re-born into logical wisdom—to be an ornament for her shield, a trophy of her triumph, and a symbol of her adaptation to the new era. The rock of Gibraltar being built as the rock upon which "I Build My Church."

If we can review this clearly we will be able to see the whole purpose and gist of the sixteen lessons of the journey of Evolution through the Mythology of Ancient Egypt; the eschatology of transubstantiation from one state unto the other.

This all links with the loki and the ghouls, the vampires of the earth that, although they are the eaters of the dead and a type of terror to evil doers (karmic rebound), have to be caught by Perseus and buried in the constellation. In fact the whole of Amenta is a museum of skulls of such prototype, for it is they that secure a starry setting with the rest; we would not have you believe that it does not figure in the celestial setting.

Stabilising the Soul

TO review ere we enter into the greater Mystery of the soul, let us see the Manes, who are personalities that must be gathered together like Osiris, so that they too can obtain the state of spirit and become divinized. Thus they are ever returning in new guises, particularly at the season of the Scorpion, when rebirth is inevitable for all and sundry.

But we must remember, these are ever seeking "mortuary meals" unless well satisfied by their lord, as they are seeking to find a new heart. This can only be done by certain gods in the nether world, and according to the deeds performed by them while living upon the earth, they re-form the features, limbs and likeness of the gods, until they become divinized.

No part must remain undivinized; thus hair or strength it restored and opened by Ptah. That Taht the Moon god will loosen his fetters and muzzle Sut, the powers of darkness and ignorance, and recover his speech.

(See the plate on page 13)

Then in the process of being reborn he declares "I am Khepera the self-produced upon my mother's thigh." Experience upraised to wisdom, from Bacchus to the Winged as growth is given by Nu (Capricorn); eyes from Hathor; ears of Apuat; nose of Khenti-Kas; lips of Anup; teeth of Serk (Aries); neck of Isis (Taurus); hands of the mighty lord of Tattu and shoulders of Neith (Gemini); back of Sun (Leo and Libra); phallus of Osiris (Scorpio); legs and thighs of Nut (Sagittarius); feet of Ptah (Pisces); with nails and bones (Cancer) and the living Uraeus as Virgo risen up as the Virgin.

THE IMMACULATE CONCEPTION

AS he sat and pondered, almost giving up in despair, the rock crashed open and the Virgin came forth with all her internal glory blossoming under the infused Solar Divinity. (See text on page 16, col. 1).

There is no possibility of them coming back to the earth for a new body or for a re-entry into the old mummy; but must be the means of their soul over-throwing his enemies through his dead body being buried. His Manes being divinized into his own being. "Let my soul become divine, it is the eternal force."

In fact they willingly labour and die for him and ask for his mouth, that he may have

Archer. So after he has received words, the power of the mouth is given to him, and he finds of the resurrection, whereby he can remember his name. Then a new heart is afforded him and his eyes are opened, with renewed vigour to be given to his arms as action.

In fact he is a new man, reborn in a body of Sahu; a soul no longer bound in a dead mummy in Amenta, but the spirit body which shall not see corruption. To the Egyptian it was seen as a beautiful lily springing up from the khat or corruptible body. Upon this, he awakens and seeks to find Osiris, and obtains his food from Aarru, the wheat fields of golden planes.

The soul has been replaced bone by bone, with the backbone being tuned as the keyboard of the harpsichord. Then the four fastenings at the hinder part of the head must be made firm, that the creation does not fall back in the process of stepping over the equatorial stile. This has much to be revealed of the lost mysteries of the masonic, which are the four-fold foundation of the Old Mother, as blood infused into a living creation. That which brings forth the turning of the universe on the vertebrae prominens in its long spiral process. It is here that the brazen tower of Atlas is to be found; as king of Mauritania he was the father of the seven daughters called the Atlantides. He was a master of a thousand flocks, with beautiful gardens abounding with species of fruit which he had entrusted to the care of a dragon.

His mother's name was Asia; and when Perseus made the conquest of the Gorgons he passed by this palace and showed Atlas his Medusa's head, and Atlas was immediately changed into a mountain. All this is to be found as the records of that magnificent palace in the circumference of the differentiation that runs across the deserts of Africa from east to west. Thus Atlas is always seen with the celestial globe resting upon the back of his head and shoulders, and with a river flowing from mount Haemus into the Ister, or from mind memory into the Fields of Aarru.

The mystery of rebirth into the royal ascension is not understood, or even recognised these days. The trinity as the source of direction is completely ignored, and man now sails on in utter ignorance and total darkness. Thus it is essential that we fully understand ere we pass onto the deeper grouping of the triune state of seven.

THE FATHER CREATION THAT REPRESENTS THE DIVINE POWERS THAT BECOME DIVINIZED WITHIN THE SOUL BY MODE OF ACCEPTANCE TO BRING FORTH LIGHT.

The Son is the powers of Mother Nature brought forth as the individuality; and the powers of darkness, which as the maelstrom, or holy Ghost, is that of the earth to be lifted up; that which man has already created and must perfect, which up to the present are the powers of Magnetic Nature, called Apap the dragon.

Out of the three, the Son becomes the Oneness, in the three becoming the Ego of I AM, for he is the individuality brought forth into a tangible state out of all created; being the divine spark and the human life inter-blended in manifold creation of new life, which is Evolution.

World out of world; Universe out of universe, by the action of the divine spark that makes the soul-creation of seven into a triune state of Oneness, as a royal light of divine acceptance.

This is a state of becoming, and so as to give it a form description of recognition, the LIFE that becomes the individuality, the Ego, is called the Bull. The Unknown that becomes the Father, and then the father is Ramah the high place within the soul; the Ram that becomes as the Lamb.

The Universal State of Being

ALL this was guided into being by constellatory creations that had become planes of light on the differentiated planes of descent; and when established by a state of individuality giving these powers form, these planes became constellated. The first direction being laid as a prototype by the Hyksos kings, who were divine Beings, earthed to guide the Race that was to come forth. The Bull that was constellated by this creation, holds a group of stars called the Pleiades, which are the directional Masters to that oncoming Race of Human surge.

The Constellation of Orion is the constellatory plane form of the MAN raised up; the I AM divinized into Oneness, as the Universal statute of the World-to-be.

The light that came forth out of the darkness to become as Urania the light of heaven. Thus when all is drawn up, the earth as it is seen today, becomes seen as a moon; an orb squeezed dry. Then the mode of existence begins again on another universe of unfoldment, and now as the Mind Plane of Vega.

It is from these constellations, life is ever returning for rebirth; but with man jeopardizing the plan, only Apap, the powers of the maelstrom, has been returning. These are astral forms of soul who refuse to unfold, and live only in a state of worldliness; consequently up till now the plan has been held in the clutches of darkness; orthodoxy.

Now all is retrieved, with the Truth being established and Light being revealed, with man making all into a living creation. This is coming into being by the force of circumstances being led into change, and will give unto Eridanus, the River of Light, the power to enter and break up the darkness.

This will stream forth from the Apis situated in the mid-heavens in fourteen degrees, with Mars, the warrior of truth, to direct its course. It only needed one soul to take on of that burden, then a channel was made. That soul would then become the saviour for that era as a mode of REDEMPTION; new thought and new life.

When this can be seen free from the cloak of orthodoxy, the truth in its royal setting becomes as the revealed light. Thus it can be understood how the Manes, the past personalities of the soul seeking redemption, ask to see the holy Sahu making its voyage by night; that is, become raised up to the heights by dint of experience.

Until these are incorporated into the I AM, they are merely states of becoming; those states of temperament that befog and besiege the soul at all the turns of the wheel. Thus when they arise and squall, are really crying out to be shown the ship of heaven that will reveal to them the way to go.

These Manes are in a state of semi-consciousness that has a sensitivity superior to the personality that is fully enmeshed in matter. They are partially free by freedom of movability; whereas the personality as Sut is Samson chained to labour. He is the scapegoat who opens the door of the last journey and finds himself on the right hand of the god. Then as the Ego, all are entered in as ONE, the light of a creation.

THE OPENING OF THE MOUTH

A mighty mystery long forgotten, when soul was awakening out of the depths, to step up onto the higher plane with mind awakened to the new-born glory. (See text on page 12, col. 3).

The ship of Sahu is the constellation of Horus as Orion, the boat that saves souls while on their journey through the valley of darkness. The Sahu as the constellatory creation of Orion, the Man, is the glorified form brought into being by the eschatological path of manifestation.

The Egyptians gave it the name of Sekhet-Nut; royal life that came out of Nu, Darkness. This ship created in the Celestial Waters was the sign of life to be gained, and the goal for them to fight for in the resurrection of their soul creation.

This is where the squall takes place between Mane and personality. The Mane has the way to be reborn, the personality is the state that refuses to give it the chance of reformation; for only by the Manes receiving "mortuary meals" from personality struggles can these states ever be reborn. Otherwise they remain in captivity in the darkness of Hades, and then the soul is ever in a state of chaos.

Activity of the Supreme Law

THE only way that all is lifted up is by Son and Sut as mind going down into Hades to grapple with the triple-headed Cerberus. Yet he goes not alone for he is overshadowed by the father; and the triune state as Hercules descends as Horus into the depths of Amenta to wrestle with the devourer.

To master this creature, he adorns the skin of a lion gained through wisdom mastered; or karma conquered and recognised. This gave him the strength and understanding required to fight and master every angle that arose. Therefore he placed the tail of the animal down the back of his head to give him direction.

The animal having used that weapon for balance and directional purposes, the soul is now re-using its strength, for his fight now will be with the Lernean hydra of the Hesperides-Geminian argument—and the great wild boar is but a repetition of all that has ensued in the soul. For is not all the soul creation but the twelve states of being, whether above or below?

The mastering of self first, then all existing must, by Law of Operational Purpose, be reborn. Law is radiational creation set into motion by a Supreme LAW, while man directs by creational purpose below; thus creates a form of constructional, or destructional, action. These are the three-headed hydra states created by man, which the mind as Horus-Sut has to wrestle with and master, or become a victim unto.

Out of all of this, there is sought for one soul creation that is willing to labour and bring the Horus forth as an enlightened state under a Master's direction. This one will then be used below as a channel of function of what is required from above. The twelve labours that he will have to master are based upon the zodiacal course and the heptanomis in seven; the soul creation of seven.

The city of Seven founded on the Sacred Laws through the Word; the city of Seven churches, or seven sensory foundations founded in the soul creation. It was around this creation that the great fiery life built up and made all into the strength of being; otherwise there was only form, and no light would come to the upper planes. Yet all was as vision that built up into what appeared a tangible state, yet in reality was but vibration, to slowly dissolve into a greater radiation of swirling light, and no form.

It is by the soul clinging to this form because it appears tangible, that it is in the hell it is; states of pain that it tries to eradicate by knife and drug. It is limited by the form, hence fear holds it a captive. It is only when the soul sees depths and width away from form, that it is free, for then it no longer is limited by self states of desire and fear. It is confident in the wisdom of states outside of itself, which all must expand into when the form dissolves, and will be the direction of the Law.

This takes the form of a crocodile in its first state of creation; not literally, but mythologically to act literally. This creature is the law as life-force, which forces the soul to become the scapegoat and "eat up" the states of self that have served their purpose. This is aided by Ritual that is formed by pioneers that go before and burn the light; yet there is always the counterpart as the evil dragon, that created in the negative, and is as the two warring monsters. These when seen clearly and independently are but the dual state of man's mind, with the dragon of life drawing its source of life up the pole of the soul's physical frame and reforming all the seven natures.

In the saviour, the source of life would be the Eridanus flow reaching the cauldron, and boiling and coiling up the Heptanomis to find the Heptacord through the heptameter of creation. This to bring forth the AUM, or sacred Word, as imaged in the starry heights through the channel of human manifestation.

Only by such can all be lifted up; but as always, there has to be through the ages of rebirth, mutilations and disfigurements on the palimpsest of the starry heavens. But it does not efface the ground-plan but readjusts the figure as the soul evolves and the stars radiate forth.

To see this more clearly, we have only to study the rise and fall of the Equator as equinoctial creation. In the beginning in the Abyss, man began to think and build a link with the gods in Parnassus. This caused a rise that brought its equal in polarity as the Fall, and the mythological flood took place that resulted in an inundation that the soul had to learn to control.

Investigating the Powers of Life

THE Fall into matter caused the pole to mythically fall and become the reverse to that ordained. This had to be raised up, and is the cause of the wobble around the celestial paradise of twelve, until man is able to reinstate. This belongs to the creation of man, and until he establishes it within himself, it cannot be a fact in universal establishment; for he is the creator of form and logical reckoning. All is there by prototype, but needs form and fact to make into a tangible creation of established locality.

The rising of the pole was where the rising of the mound began as a pyramid, but it always comes at a period when a sign or cycle begins, whatever the nature of the event, as the passage of the equinox into Aries. It was on the summit of this mound that the ark came to rest, this being the true equinoctial point.

THIS ALSO BEING THE POINT OF RESURRECTION WHERE THE SOUL CAME UP OUT OF THE WATERS AND FOUND ITS NEW STATE OF DIVINITY.

For the new calendar of Zeus and Hera begins the year with the spring. The moving halfway around the circle is the leaving of the land of the moon and entering into the land of the Sun. This was also seen as the utter abandonment of the Arktos land and gods, and the Bears by the greater Gods. And if seen as soul creation, it will not sound so absurd to the modern man; for man sways the times, atmosphere and cosmic measurement.

The three Fates, the children of Themis, were the ruling factors of redemption, and as Themistæ are decrees not oracles; thus the laws of Nature, the ruling of the gods, were ascertained by astronomical calculation, whereby man must master or succumb. So it must be understood that at the time of the flood the inhabitants of Hellas were moon worshippers and star worshippers, who were being asked to accept the solar cult. In the refusal of the majority it caused a diversity of calendar and ritual, and the true readings were not taken, consequently the sacred trust was lost.

All was changed; the pole was shifted and the stars revolved around a new centre; the equinoxes were shaken out of their former places, and all the festivals needed readjusting, for it was by these, man drew down to himself the archetypal embodiment. Therefore by this new adjustment the Sothic Cycle was discarded and the beginning of the year was changed from December to March. This was all due to the Equinox of Cancer and then of Taurus; what began in Cancer had its fulfilment in Taurus, and mythically began the marriage of Zeus and Hera.

ONCE THE PRECESSION ERROR WAS RECTIFIED IN CALENDAR ADJUSTMENT, THE EARTH RECOVERED ITS BALANCE AND THE LAWS OF HEAVEN WERE NO LONGER DEFIED.

This may sound all very unbalanced to the modern man, for he lacks the powers that belonged to the Ancients; thus merely builds in cement and stone. Then it was as mind and force, for they had the lunar powers fully in their creation. It was not the star that was important but the equinox that brought the flooding in of new life. Then it had conducive states to bringing unity and abundance upon the earth, which they knew how to handle and draw forth.

Life then was new, man not encumbered with earthy states but still full of spirit foundation; still full of the descent where the equinoxes and festivals had been created. Their calendar marked the moments when they were to draw down these powers, and of which the present day man has much to learn. Perhaps the outcome of crime and evil now abound, will convince him that there resides in all human beings, states from the past that have to be controlled and subdued, or resurrected and investigated. But where did they come from?

Why deride the Totem possibility, and condemn the fetish and witch-doctor creations as evil and superstitious. Those powers once lived and still do, but are dormant as creative states, and now active in repellant states bringing forth crime and disease. If these could be raised up by wisdom which brings expansion and evolution, then the soul would utilize these states for good. They are there, and cannot be subdued, so must be handled and mastered. Thus the need for a true understanding of psychological interpenetration.

It was the power of life in those ancient times becoming completely out of control that caused the accurate measurement of the year to form the basis of an astronomical science; the equinoctial point reclaimed from being a floating island, and chained as an immovable rock. Upon this rock Apollo's priests began to build their Church, and was the three basic Chakras of the three Fates; Mars, Venus and Mercury, becoming the mind-memory in the cerebellum.

These Fates eventually turned out to be the Muses, for they were able to tell of the Future, the Past and the Present. But the greatest of all were the nymphs, the adumbration or foreshadowing of the great divinities of the equinoxes, who in their powers and endowments had the seed and promise of the prophetic attributes and healing powers of Apollo. They possessed the germs of the chief qualities that once were displayed, and would again be exhibited by the Muses.

When once man can grasp the true recondite principle of philosophy, he will realise that the essence of things lies in their due measure and proportion, their system and regularity; and most of all, that everything exists by harmony and symmetry alone. And furthermore, the world itself is a union of all these proportions.

The combination of attributes presents no difficulty when the true principle of union is an accurate measurement of time; the harmony of the calendar with the seasons, and the music of the spheres with the dance of the hours, for all will become the knowledge that, in the cycling of the stars, will be fulfilled again.

FATE WAS KNOWN THEN TO BE THE WILL AND THOUGHT OF THE GODS, BUT OF THAT WE HAVE YET TO BRING.

THE HEALING COLUMN

I have been requested to ask readers that when they send in names to be entered into the Absent Healing Book, will they please help us by giving not only the surname, but also the christian names, of each person concerned.

Will readers please note that we have recently altered slightly the small fee charged for placing a name into the Absent Healing Book, and which now is 5/- or $1.00 for a period of six months duration.

We see again this month in the healing letters taken, how the basic antidote to illness is mind expansion. This cannot be started too early, and is where the parents must play their part in seeing that their children are reared with this idea in mind, that as they grow older they will already have a firm foundation built, whereby they will be far better equipped to master their karmic traits.

Mrs. E. C., Nottingham.

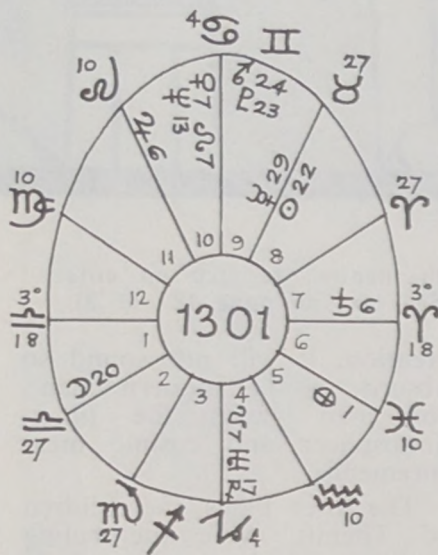

"I have a leg condition, also feeling of tenseness and irritability... I have a swelling on my right shoulder blade of perhaps two or three years standing."

THIS chart (1301) indicates that the soul has allowed itself to become very muddled, and would account for the irritability being experienced. Mrs. C. must blend more in harmony with the Spirit, for as she does this she will find her state of nervous discord disappear. This is of course, shown by Libra being upon the Ascendant, for Libra is symbolised by The Scales, which are calling to the soul to bring balance to all they have taken. This will only be done by struggling with the Word, and making a determined effort to find mind expansion, but those with Libra strongly aspected show a marked tendency to not take up the cudgel and fight, hence bring no movement within.

The Sun being in the 8th house in Taurus, would bring a lack of intercalary action with the seed in Scorpio, for it would always be drawing the soul towards the more mundane desires of the earth. Consequently this would have a detrimental effect upon the Mars in Gemini in the 9th house, and would also affect Venus in the 10th, in Cancer.

It is very clear that the Path of Destiny in the 5th in Pisces, is telling the soul to get down very quickly to try and raise up the 'fires' by aspiration and dancing with the glories of the Word; ever driving the mind into greater and greater thought, in the desire to become—but this will necessitate the drastic renunciation of old ideas, and the enthusiastic absorption of the new.

With Uranus in the 4th house in Capricorn, it is a wonder that there have not been drastic happenings in the home, where Mrs. C. is concerned, and once again, I cannot stress too strongly how important and beneficial it would be for her to bring her inner states into harmony, for then she will be radiating a balanced, harmonious vibration throughout the home.

I would suggest you have some of our HORSETAIL, HOLY THISTLE, and BUCHU herbs, with also a good supply of Nerve Pills, Mrs. C. and do please try as hard as you can to get this mind expansion which is the answer to your problems.

Mrs. T. O., Washington, U.S.A.

"My friend's young son (5 years old) has been ill and does not recover as a young boy should. Tests have shown scars on his bronchial tubes and on his throat. The illness as yet has not been identified... I am told he has an extraordinarily brilliant mind."

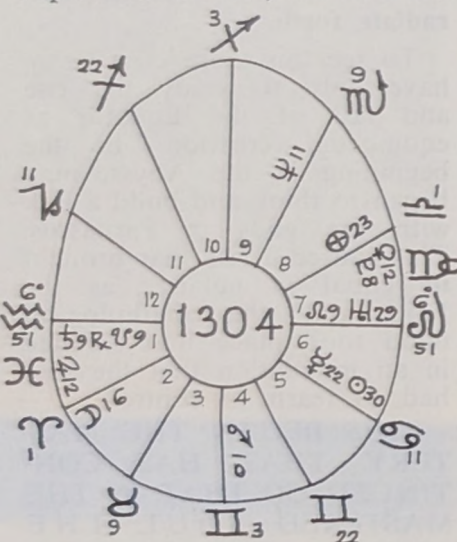

ALTHOUGH it is stated that this young boy has a brilliant mind (chart no. 1304), I would like to ask if he is of a very negative attitude, and lives in a state of indecision. For Saturn and Jupiter in the 1st house is extremely conflicting, and rather speaks of a state that would say one thing and then before the words were hardly spoken, would be doing quite the reverse. His Sun conjunct to Mercury in the 6th house, would give him a fairly sharp mind, but the dithering state of the 1st house would cause his Ascendant sign, that of the dual Aquarius, to ever be in a nervous state.

Old religious ideas could have a lot to do with this, for the soul has now come into a modern world and must find advancement upon the old ideas. This is where the parents, especially the mother, can do so much good by bringing the child up in the new age thoughts. This young man should be kept well under control and made to think positively for himself.

You state that there are scars upon the bronchial tubes and throat; well, his Mars in Gemini, being square to Venus and Pluto, and also square to Jupiter in the 1st, does rather indicate this, and links very strongly with the conflicting state that I mentioned in the beginning. There is no doubt that with his Path of Destiny in the 8th house in Libra, he must bring all to a balanced state within himself, which will only come by becoming 'fired' and fused through the wisdom.

He should be on a very natural diet, and encouraged in a light-hearted attitude, but also should be encouraged at all times to think upon the Solar Ray, and draw in of its healing powers.

I would recommend our special Cleansing Pills, which contain a number of herbs excellent for bronchial troubles. Although the child is quite young we give these Pills to our young boy of nine, and

HEALING PRAYER

DIVINE GLORY

BLESS these Thy children, that they can be raised up out of their captivity in the depths. Those that have lost their way and are caught up in the throes of disease, that they can be risen up through the glory and divinity of their minds.

Amen.

are quite sure that they will be of great benefit in this particular case.

It is now up to the parents to help him in every way, until he reaches the age of self-responsibility.

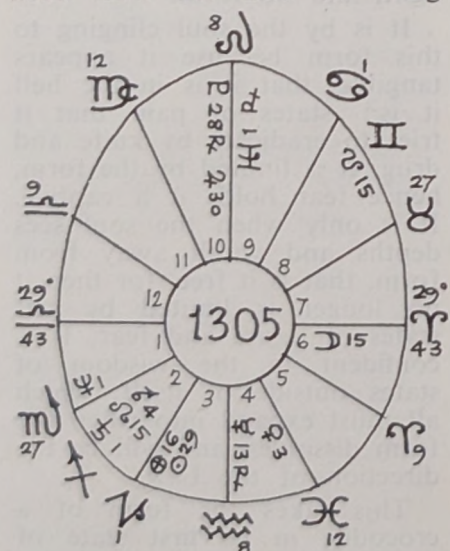

Master C. L. J., Washington.

"Has diabetes, which the doctors claim is incurable in a child of his age (12 years old)."

I have read what the doctors say, and emphatically state that this is UTTER RUBBISH! If that was the best the Creator could do, then I and the Creator would part at once,—but I know that it is not so. Not so very long ago I had an attack of leukaemia, but by setting my mind to work as hard as possible, I rose my frequency up out of its clutches.

This young man is really a very clever individual, and he has Neptune in the 1st house in Scorpio. This is a very highly evolved planet, and one that could only have been brought to the 1st house by the taking of dynamic energies in the past. But to add unto that, he has Uranus in the 9th house, the house of wisdom.

There is no doubt that after having gained all this power, which amounted to 6 Fire, but only 1 Air body, he allowed his Mercury to go retrograde. This is a brilliant chart (1305) that has been allowed to fall into a muddle, through the soul's refusal to transmute his raw Fire into the glories of the mind. This is verified by his having Libra upon the 1st and 12th houses, indicating the need now for him to bring balance to the wealth he has taken.

I feel he brought his Mercury to its retrograde state through his linkage with Neptune, where in trying to get it moving, he played the fatal game of mystic and also troubadour, dancing from one state unto the other. Now he has come back to get things balanced up, and get his Dragon's Tail out of the 8th house in Gemini. For as much as he tries he will always find the mundane states of life nipping at his heels.

He must blend up the wealth he has taken, for this is what is causing his depleted state, which is only a state of inertia brought about by the lack of movement of the powers within him. What must be done is to drive the boy with the study of occult wisdom. This can be done at his age, for the young boy of nine we have with us, can already give over wisdom that would astound any of our present day ecclesiastical robots.

I see this young boy is entering into puberty, and a state of diabetes can come quite easily at this time, but with his Mars conjunct Saturn, it can hold a very deep karmic story, for this shows where he mixed mysticism with that of the playboy. I am sure that with the correct handling, this boy could pull out of his difficulty, and the parents must help him at all costs as he passes through the delicate period of puberty.

I would recommend BUCHU, VIOLET, and VERVAIN herbs for him, and at the same time a little Composition Medicine taken in Orange Juice might be useful. However, the main thing is for him to get his mind active in occult study, whereby he can get the Fire activated and transmuted into wisdom. If not, the Fire will gradually bury him under; so drive him, and drive him hard!

Awakening of Spiritual Growth

Miss Jean Dutton,
Ludlow, Shrop.

I was very glad to read that you were now giving summaries of charts, I would be most grateful if you would do mine. I would like to thank you for sending the nerve pills, and also to say how much clearer things are to me during the last few weeks, the O.G. is much easier to understand, and I feel different in myself, more uplifted, more energetic etc.; it is difficult to explain in just what way, but I feel I am now getting somewhere. My life has become clearer, and I am able to see where I have gone wrong in the past, and am hoping that the chart reading will help me more in this too. Am beginning to prove for myself that the energy does really come from looking upwards and having a more positive way of thinking.

I can also see the Wisdom linking up in every day things and people around, and have a tendency to keep off bread and heavier food. Circumstances do not permit that I do much studying these days, but I make a practice of reading and trying to understand the O.G.s a little each day, if only for a short time. I looked for your comments on the fiery cross, etc. which have been seen in the sky, and they were as I had both thought and hoped: when I heard about them I guessed it to be the powers descending. This is really a thrilling time to live in if we know a little of the Wisdom and can see things happening. How lucky we are to know these things! Many thanks to you Mrs. Spearman-Cook for teaching us. Love and best wishes to all in the good work.

Mrs. H. M. G. Pouliot,
Montreal, Canada.

I enjoy so my Occult Gazette, it is in a class far beyond the mass of literature I've had during the long years of searching and studying; it will reap a rich reward for all who participate in any way to put it together, with its rich and marvellous illustrations that are as we could say "A fringe benefit," to advance the understanding of the many subscribers. My heartfelt thanks and admiration for a great team of devoted workers in the monumental task of uplifting this peopled earth out of the darkness that "Seemingly only" is closing in if it were not for the sacrificial lamb, who is so firmly dedicated in the interest of all who wish to serve in God's great Plan.

"A Young Reader" in the U.S.A.

Many, many times I had read the Occult Gazettes my friend had stored away neatly in his house, and just as many times I was confused and lost, and not wanting to truly believe. Now all those fabulous articles and columns come back to me, and I understand that it must not be taken just for face value alone, but for the true content hidden within each word, and accessible only through an open mind and most important of all, an open heart to the All Light.

I realise now that all that was said in the O.G. was truth, and meant to help us reach for higher goals instead of swimming around in our own private purgatories down here on earth. I have made a covenant with those Higher Forces I can never see, that I will eternally strive to understand more and more of the wonderful workings of the Creator, and the only true way I know of doing such a thing is to follow those Teachings laid down in your priceless publication. I am now a new person, feeling wonderful, and looking at life with a new outlook. I thank you from the bottom of my heart.

Mr. C. P. Urbani,
New Zealand.

I recently received the O.G. for August and was delighted with the wealth of wisdom contained therein. Apart from the great stream from your own pen, which not only elevates the mind but always gives fresh impetus to the flagging soul, I would also commend the contribution by Cyril King "Vibration, Frequency and Ascension," and that of Kahlil Gibran "Of Music."

What a wonderful series the Herbal Mysteries are going to be. It was on reading "Agrimony," that I realised that here was the very herb that would I am sure correct my blurred vision of the left eye.

I would be very pleased therefore if you would very kindly send me a sufficient quantity of Agrimony specifically for this purpose. Also a quantity of herbs to last say about one year for general health promotion. Although the quantity I last received from you has shrunk considerably I have diligently taken them night and morning. They have performed a great job in keeping my bloodstream and my body healthy.

Please accept my gratitude and thanks to yourself and to those good folk and workers for S.U.P.H.

Miss F. Altschul,
Welwyn Garden City.

I am hoping to get to one of the Thursday afternoon sessions soon, and bring some toys for the Xmas tree. I am thoroughly enjoying the Astrology lectures, and read them over and over again. Also let me say how enlightening I find the Occult Gazette. I also read this quite a number of times. Kindest regards from one who in a small way comprehends your great efforts to raise this power-crazed, mammon-possessed planet. God bless you. If there is any way I can help, however small the effort, let me know.

Mr. A. J. Evans,
Broadstairs, Kent.

I must again congratulate you on the fine "Writings," of last month; the "Drawings" are superb, fascinating. I trust that though the "Road" may be hard and sad at times, you may be sustained to continue the good work for truth. I am, as always, distributing the O.G. as directed.

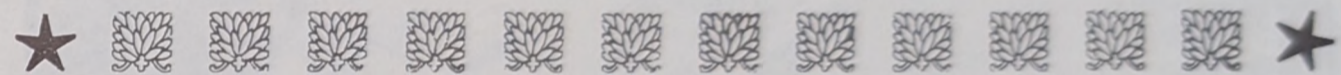

the Nature fire. The Martial force of the Solar rays, energy which in man is the kama-rupa until transmuted. This rises as the mind perceives and energises into higher action, producing the greater inner light, drawing the full Solar essence unto itself and becomes as Kama. The Prana then begins to manifest in its true essence.

It is the power or force which moves in a serpentine or curved path up the spine, 'thrilling' the whole of the nervous system into greater sensitivity, until the "Eye of Shiva" is reached; then the soul becomes in unity, the one eye of God.

FOHAT: The active male potency—Masculine Principle—of the Sakti, female reproductive power—the Feminine principle—in nature. The propelling Vital Force which man brings forth as WILL when interblended.

It is the ceaseless destructive and formative power in the cosmic essence, absorbed by man in the Prana and pure water; which man either brings forward as kama-rupa—animal desires—or Kama, constructive Martial energy of the primordial light, and can become that of the automatic reflex in the living essence of the soul.

AKASHA: is the subtle supersensitive Spiritual Essence which pervades all Space. It is to Ether what Spirit is to matter, or Kama to kama-rupa. It is the Universal Space, in which lies inherent the eternal Ideation of the Universe in its ever changing aspects of the planes of matter and objectivity. From which radiates the First Logos or expressed thought; it has but one attribute—sound, for sound is the translated symbol of Logos—"Speech"—in its mystic sense.

Merope - Majesta

*"O wonder-woman, strong and beautiful,
Tender-hearted, pure of mind, and thousand armed!
Thou hast fed me with thine own flesh—
Mystery of mysteries!*

*AS the Spirit of Light thou cam'st unto me;
In the deep of mine own heart thou spoke to me
To keep, yet break, and breaking, keep thy law—
Mystery of mysteries!*

*O Merope, thou Royal Queen, stay with me,
Save me from the perils of illusion;
Let me not be afraid of the snow or the Lone Pine.
Mystery of mysteries—*

*THOU hast bequeathed thy life to LOVE,
Help me that I may lose the world, content,
And sing the Divine Song."*

After passing through the generative functions becomes of the seed, the fiery nucleus of the principle extracted from the Solar light in the Air consumed; and then becomes the lymph of your liquor sanguinis.

This nourishes the physical body. Thereby, the blood lymph, the liquor sanguinis contains the red corpuscles containing the oxygen—the Prana and Kama, the martial forces—resulting in fohat force—energy—will; that of the Sun and Mars—Solar and Nature life.

The white corpuscles, which are of the Linga Sharira, are the soul essence and carry away the waste; that formed by the desires and called kama-rupa. Thus it can be seen that the red corpuscles are the will, and the white are the soul messengers, who, both enriched by the life elements from the Prana, build up and, yes, destroy the human body, so that it can be reborn anew. This is the secret process of alchemicalization which perpetuates the perpetual motion.

The Kama is the fire in its superphysical sense, but in man is the kama-rupa, the nature-fire. So the kama-rupa must become transmuted into Kama and blend in harmony with that of the continual incoming Prana; the prism becoming the Essence of the pure Solar Light as the ovoid of the soul. The Causal light body, or the Christos born.

To help those, who for the time are not used to the language of the metaphysical, let us explain further.

THE SOUL is that which is the whole life expression. It contains the Linga Sharira, the vital and prototypal body or etheric body; as well as the mind body, the intelligence and the desire body—the animal propensities. Though actually there are in the sub-divisions, seven natures.

The Etheral body or Causal body is the consciousness, the radiance of the soul and the basis of all Cause. The Etheric Double in the spleen is the root of the cord of the soul, that which holds the radiance, the consciousness, the Ego. This comes from the navel, with its counterpart in the head, as all is duality, until androgyny takes over the soul.

THE PRANA: is the Solar light, the red corpuscles, the Life principle, the breath of life. Sun.

KAMA: Fohat, energy. Fire in red corpuscles, the dual ray of the Solar light. Nature fire in superphysical sense, but kama-rupa in physical sense as will, energy, nature fire of soul—Mars.

KAMA-RUPA: is the fire on the triangular bone, the pelvis, the nature-fire, the basis of all senses and desires. The heat that rises to become the Kundalini Sakti, the power of life, or remains as the power of the anthropomorphic.

THE AURIC EGG: Colour expression of Self and Non-self, and is initiated into being by the electro-mental. That which is created when the fire enters the emotional fluid and 'spits' forth the moist-air to become the dry-air of mind. The Electro-vital self and the Electro-mental being the bridge to the Non-self, as Mercury, or mind.

THE KUNDALINI SAKTI: is the universal life-principle which manifests everywhere, fohat—force, energy or will, that which is taking five strides (five senses), and building a winged wheel at each corner of the square for the holy ones—Elements, which in their holy state are the four Scribes of the Gospels bringing the soul to higher understanding. These red corpuscles are the mediators of thought and motion which feed the brain, and react as automatic reflex action.

The white corpuscles, are manufactured in the spleen by being oozed out of the Linga Sharira, or Etheral body, of which the spleen is the gateway. Their duty is to clear away out of the blood, karma attained, that is, that not in keeping with the higher symmetry of the soul. For once light is gained it cannot be lost, for it is the Hierarchical fiery life that must be returned, as it is that of the immortality taken by Prometheus (man), who must remain chained to the rock until he returns the same as intelligent light to the starry heights as illumined mind.

IT IS THAT WHICH HAS BEEN FORMED BY ROTATION IN STRUGGLING TO MAINTAIN ITS OWN, AND LINKS WITH THE OSMOSIS OF THE HUMAN SOUL. THE MYSTERY POWER WHICH INTERLINKS AND BINDS THE SOUL INTO ONE-NESS.

EGYPTIAN MYSTERIES

Creation Called Life Part 16

by Gladys I. Spearman-Cook

WHEN the mediatorial agent of each of the Hierarchies first came to the earth, they made a prototype or channel in whatever they managed to accomplish; henceforth the Element Powers of the Hierarchy, or Celestial Lordship, had to flow through that prototype. On the last occasion, the agent of the Andromeda Constellation managed to leave an Imprint or Seal of the Beauty; but in earthing it, became chained or permanently attached to it, and at the mercy of the leviathan of flesh desire. For 13,000 years the Powers so earthed, always came this way, and the Hero was he who surmounted them.

The Element-Life Manifestation

SOONER or later there had to be once more an agent of Andromeda who would be a Divine Channel to earth a fresh Supply of Cosmic Elements untouched by Matter and matter. If this could be earthed in a better way than that of Andromeda then the channel would be reformed, and mankind, or the individualized Element-life manifestation, would not have to be subjected to the chains of leviathan of desire to receive of the Element Powers.

By man's accomplishment of living in matter and in desire, but still being able to earth the Element Powers into matter, yet not through matter or desire but through mind and logical wisdom, the chains of the previous agent have become broken, and henceforth the Hierarchical Element Powers will be earthed through the channel of Mind and not desire.

Thus the individualized Element-life manifestation as mankind must change, for they have no option but to respond en masse to the Hierarchical descent. Hence the overwhelming joys of Spirit life when they can see that their future incarnations will not have to be hell.

Then in this matter of transubstantiation of earthing of the Elements, we find Joseph about to "stone" Mary with regard to the impregnation, for when the inception was inborn for the very first time within the intuitive mind, it was untouched by past conceptions or present perceptions, but the virgin Joseph, the unfulfilled seeds of old knowledge, wanted to "stone" or Saturnise in old ways the new inception.

But so dynamic was the Power of the Word inborn (Gabriel), that Joseph, or the individualised soul, married the new inception completely in practical adoption, and absorbed the Idea into his being. Thus the new Child was born from a virgin, and the old Saturn death-state avoided.

(See plate on page 12)

David the king did not manage to accomplish this, for when he received of the inception for the first time he did not let go of the Saturn ways of old desires as Uriah the Hittite, and the child was born a bastard of desire; nameless and without life, and it remained of the untouched virgin heights. Henceforth, though he had received of the wisdom from the heights, he could not give birth to it virginally again; so the second birth was clothed with Saturnian states and was not virginal.

Thus the outcome was of Wisdom—Solomon—which was propagated into four hundred wives of all races, thousands of concubines, and temples to many false gods. He could not help it once the initial error was made. Thus the task of Paul was to correct David's mistake and he did; but did not manage to imprint it through mind logicity, and only retained it as the radiance of the mind ideals. Cepheus yet to be crowned, and would be the task of the saviours of the following Era.

THE WARRIOR MASTERING THE GRYPHONS

AS the mighty wealth surged over into the reforming state of the mind, Cetus, the chasing boar, was ever following on behind. Waiting his chance to grab the prize, that he could seize the magnitude. (See text on page 13, col. 1).

It still remained bound to old ways of activity, and Christianity as modified Jewryism flourished. Saviours had to go yet one step further and complete David's work of seeing Bathsheba, and marrying her up in mind unity; adding unto Paul's work of making it a mind radiance; and thirdly, the completed triune of delivering it and living it in mind tangibility as well as practical application, untouched by the necessity of female bondage.

Therefore the eating of the souls of the undeveloped dead, is eating to be applied to spirit as well as matter; transubstantiation of all natures, planes, senses, and perception, at the vernal equinox. The 'passing over' of the death angel, that life is re-born in the new year of becoming.

The eating up of the whole universe of the soul which has reaction upon the whole cosmos, and is the judgment by the forty-two judges in the Hall of Judgment. This is Perseus the hero with the Medusa's head, who becomes constellated in the heavens. Perseus was the hero who grasped the sword of Truth and cut off the Gorgon's head, gaining the One Eye of the Three Graeae, thus the root prototype of David's later performance, and the chosen path of the later creator.

THE CUTTING OFF OF THE HEAD OF CEPHEUS, THE FINAL DECANATE OF PISCES, THAT AQUARIUS CAN COME FORTH, FREED FROM PAST CREATIONS.

Mastering the Generating Powers

TO have captured such a formidable being was nothing else but of the brave, for it needed great strength and belief to master such a situation, and was Athena's rival, who usually came forth at the vernal equinox. That which ruled over the people going out hunting, and leading the Libyans into battle; old states to be mastered that realisation could break through.

dragon, and the Hesperides. These three Gorgon daughters were frightful creatures; instead of hair they had heads covered with hissing serpents, wings, brazen claws and enormous teeth like boars tusks.

Medusa alone was a mortal, a beautiful maiden at first, but had her hair changed to serpents through angering Athena (wisdom). She lived in the Goat constellation in the neighbour of night, but must be looked for at the vernal equinox.

This can be seen as the three mothers in the prototype of creation; Aries, Cancer and Virgo, transmuting their blood-issue into the rising heights, through the Golden Rain of the passover when the death-angel brought new life, and lived in continuity in the constellation of the Goat, who was ever climbing the mount of Sinai.

Some say it is the moon with the face of the Gorgon; the moon that is engendering rebirth through wisdom, fearing to die from the Goat to the Ram and pursue the path of unfoldment.

Jupiter the nutritive principle, is always surrounded with serpents and in the centre is the Gorgon's head, the power of destructive and generative attributes of the Ram, swaying from right to left. Sometimes there are serpents, and sometimes there are fish (growth) in the hair; therefore is symbolic of the female generative production of Aries, as the equator is passed over.

The cutting off of the head was a feat known only to Perseus, at the gates of the grave in the autumnal equinox, the reaping, where he found the Three Graeae in the intuitional mind of Virgo, and wished to learn more of their celestial secrets, that he could rise up and pass through those gates into the 7th house.

This would be the mind as spirit trying to rise into its rightful heights; so he took from the Three Graeae their one tooth and one eye, and would not restore them until they showed him the way to the nymphs who possessed the winged sandals, the magic wallet, and the helmet of Hades which rendered the wearer invisible.

Having received from the nymphs their three invaluable presents, and from Hermes a sickle and Athena a mirror, he mounted into the air (mind) and arrived at the place of the Gorgons, (realization). He found them asleep, and cut off the head of Medusa by looking at her figure through the mirror to avoid the fate of him who gazed upon her. He put her head into the wallet which he carried on his back, and as he went away he was pursued by the other two Gorgons; but his helmet, which rendered him invisible, enabled him to escape in safety.

The wallet on his back was equal to the Egyptian menat; the amulet, or "flask" of "drops" gathered over the ages, and carried on his back as a mark of growth. This belonged to Aquarius, the 11th house segment, and dripped into the mouth of the fish, whereby it brought forth the mark of esteem.

Therefore, when Perseus cut off their heads, he added the new experience and wisdom
