The Mystical Descent of the Mighty Firebird

by Gladys I. Spearman-Cook *

DIVINE BREATH, LET THY Glory fall into its Heavenly way, in its journey to the South, where Thy way and purpose leap the darkness, and find Thy heart-bent bower. Hope and beauty of Thy Divine Glory, to come forth in the riches of Thy Divinity. Would that I could attain Thy purpose, and tread Thy way of Holy magnitude with beauty and divinity, the measure of my tread. Thus open up Thy Heavenly vials and pour them into my depths, that they give unto us, the sons of earth, the richness of Thy Glory. Hence, O' Heavenly Breath, filled with Thy aroma of Transcendental Beauty, infuse my heart that it may ever rest in Thy thought and purpose. That Thy sons, lost in the darkness of the ways of matter, can receive of Thy holy behest. Guidance that will carry them forward on a road of sure footing, that every step brings a greater belief in Thy Holy Being. That as Thy Priest and Heaven-sent vessel of LOVE, Thou wilt radiate from every Word I utter, to draw man like a magnet to turn their thoughts to Thee. Then with such as the direction of Thy intent, the shaft of heaven-born expansion, is the glory of my bent.

(See plate on this page)

Thus with such a mighty achievement and responsibility upon her feminine shoulders, Merope knew that she now could lead and guide, as a heaven-born director, the lost and lonely sheep. Those lost in the darkness of the night, and upon the cruel and merciless promontories on high. For the Mighty ONE, the Great Intelligencia of Divinity, the Great Flame of Heavenly Glory, was now the mighty infuser of her mind, the strength and glory of her uttering Voice. That spirit, the open portals of strength and Solvent Glory, would infuse, disseminate, and re-unify the gods' lost holy intent and purpose. Thus cleanse and heal, and reform their twisted bent, to the new-born hope of holy glory. For now, through unified channels of ascended Transcendental assumption, the mighty Firebird of Divine Plumage had descended and was now nesting in her heavenly abode, Her risen Arc, her power of delivery, her

THE HOLY GLORY

O' breathe on me, Breath Divine, that I might know Thy Glory; that I might feel the warmth of Thy Holy Robe around my being, and the Touch of Thy Hand upon my brow. O' let my heart beat out the glories of Thy Word, that Thou and I might tread this Path together, enjoined forever in the magnitude of Thy Omnipotent LOVE. (See text in col. 1).

Spirit Tribute From Brian Epstein

WE are now fast approaching the Vernal Equinox, the time of the Passover, when all that has been created by the soul throughout the year, will be carried up to the new plane of awareness. This last year has been dynamic, for it has seen the complete 'burying-in' of the lunar plane, that of Earth and Water, and the firm establishment of the Solar, with the Quintessence, the blended glory of Air and Fire, as the mystery of life to now come forth. Thus a new world has been born, the world of Mind, the glories of the Vega plane; and yet it is still 'Here and Now,' the only difference being that all has become raised up onto a higher frequency, a higher vibration.

This is what the scientist does not understand, that there is nothing solid outside of Earth and the Stratosphere, all merely being the vibrational reflection of the creations of the past, but on varying frequencies. NOT a ridiculous number of Light Years away, but merely changing frequencies.

The scientist, in his blind worship of form, never reaches beyond the limitations of his logical mind, the earthly illusion of physical sight and sound. He maps and charts in great detail the other so-called galaxies and Solar Systems, never realising that he is only recording those varying vibrational creations of past growth.

IF HE HAD HIS WAY HE WOULD TURN GOD, THE GREAT DIVINE CONSCIOUSNESS OF THE HEAVENS, INTO A COMPUTER, AND MAN INTO A MERE MECHANICAL ROBOT.

Already his blood-brother, the surgeon, is taking on the guise of a Frankenstein, as he gaily cuts up a carcass, and transplants its organs into another victim who, in his ignorance, thinks he is being helped. If that man could only see the chaos taking place within his body, he would cry out for mercy, for his added karmic inheritance would be virtually impossible to overcome.

BUT to return to our previous point, it must be understood that the visible heavens are only the reflection of man's mind awareness, his auric consistency, and that as he turns towards the solar belief will those visible heavens change with his changing thoughts. As he becomes born of light so also will the heavens, until the reflection of Sun, Moon, and Stars will slowly fade away, leaving but one radiant plane of golden light, the rebirth of the mystical Golden Age.

This is now beginning to take place through the efforts of Merope to raise all back up to the Virgin Plane of the Mind. She brought new wisdom to the Earth, and so forced expansion upon expansion to take place. As she did this she began to unify the heavenly planes, ever raising the lowest into its higher propensity, until all had become blended back into their original Oneness, and man was forced to take in of the changed thought, through the inflowing Breath.

The scientist cannot see that man in the past has descended in frequency down those planes, leaving his mind creations upon each one, and that what are now seen as stars are but the light of understanding created upon each plane in that descent. Again we must realise that over the ages, man has fallen in frequency, and only created upon the negative issue of life.

Now Merope has turned all into its positive creation, and the key to this was a Divine Belief; building up the true Divinity, the Divine Flame of the Mind, raised up from the depths it had been dragged down to through man's lower desires. This was the Fall talked of in the Bible,—Adam and Eve, Cain and Abel, Noah and the deluge, and many other like states, all reflecting the gradual fall in frequency into the depths, as man dragged the understanding of the Divine Fire, the mighty Hydrogen Ether, into the depths of his forming animal passions.

This Hydrogen is the very God

Essence itself, the Pure Blood-life of the Divine Consciousness, that has been spilt and ravaged at random as man gloried in his imitation of the beast.

I have read recently some comments by Sir Bernard Lovell, the astronomer, concerning different theories of how the Universe was created, and although ridiculous in themselves, if seen from a higher spiritual angle, confirm all that I have previously said.

He boasts that they have discovered that "our Universe is expanding, and the star formations are receding from us into Deep Space. Going so far away, that even our giant radio-telescopes will not be able to see them. The farther away they are, the faster is the speed at which they recede."

Well, of course the Universe is expanding,—Merope has seen to that—but it is expanding in FREQUENCY as I have already stated earlier. Of course the star formations are receding and disappearing, for as Merope made positive mind expansion, and raised all the planes back to a Oneness, then all that had been created upon the lower planes in the negative, became buried into its higher octave.

All past multiplicity of thought has been unified now, and raised up to the Virgin Plane of the Mind, where all is as Timelessness, a state of immediate perception and creation. But while man still holds to the old ideas he will only perceive the changes through a state of Time, and to him it will appear that the stars are gradually receding and disappearing, when in fact as the mind creation of the past they have already disappeared, having become blended as a oneness of light into the glories of the mighty Central Sun.

The scientist proudly claims of how he has calculated how many thousands of Light Years away the various star formations are, and that the light received from them, began its journey that number of thousands of years ago. Therefore he is admitting that the picture of the heavens is but a reflection of the past, so surely by his star-gazing he is just living in that past. Why doesn't he stop looking at what has been and try to find out what is happening at the present moment. Why search for what was, when you are unable to see of what is NOW?

TO a soul who is still held in the grip of form this will be most difficult to comprehend; to a soul who can wing his mind above the starry vision and into the NOW, the glories of Outer Space, it is quite simple to perceive. Man lives in a world of slow motion, everything held by Time and the Seasons. Why must there be a time lapse between the seeding and the blossoming of a flower; why must the elements rule man and not man rule the elements?

Here lies the crux of the argument,—the scientist is still held by the elements, Continued on page 15

means of holy inception ; thus the informant glory of her revolving divinity, her manifesting audible infinity. That the Source of Unseen Glory is now the OM of her Voice, the infusion of direct Divinity into their sad and belated mind. With strength, will, glory and divine infusion, the touch of her golden hand.

The Divine Glory

HERE for the first time was the manifestation of the Christou upon the dark plane of Earth, won and held by the struggle of mastery over the darkness of matter. A soul drawing down the Heavenly Elements, to infuse the depths with light, that the Plane, by the ionizing, would become a unified contingency of royal divine light.

The manifestation of the Great Unseen Glory in matter, that it can reign as a glorified status of His Voice. A Source of Fire that is the Triune Glory of all Creation, now seen and heard for the very first time, through the agency of a sensitised soul. Such enormity is not understood by the majority, who slink away in self-born fear ; for having fallen into the intensity of such depths, have forgotten their holy heritage.

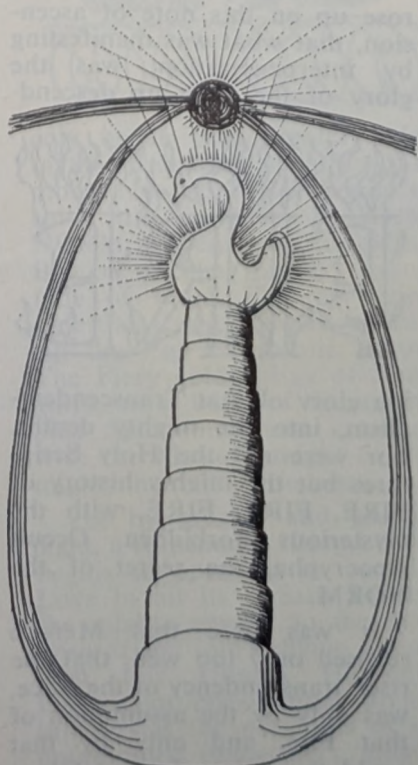

Thus Merope, the Virgin of the Heights, who came down to lead souls back to grace, and lost in the density of their toils, is now redeemed by SHE who had at last been able to give birth to His glory, by bringing Him forth as her heaven-born CHILD.

A Holy Seed of Woman's glory, through the struggle of sacrifice, that every layer of desire and sorrow be renounced, that such Divinity could duly come forth, to manifest in all His Holy Glory. Blood and sweat in every action, that the gods could be redeemed ; for she it was who brought the Fire down into the depths, and now rose up the Serpent as the Tree of LIFE. Then man took her glory and rent it wide, leaving poor Merope holding the dead Child, and hiding away from her Lord, who was only seen upon the earth, as a raped Fiery contusion.

Hence her road was long, and the way dark, with all seeking the greater gain. Forging the Abyss into a morass of Hell, (See plate on this page) with the Fiery beauty merely a status of power. Ever becoming the gun-fire of destruction, to destroy the Seed-born life of Divinity. Seeking more and more to capture its glory, as a Saul ever seeking to destroy David.

THUS MEROPE'S TASK WAS ONE OF CAPTURING OF ITS EVIL REPUTE, AND BRINGING IT BACK TO DIVINITY. LIFTING IT UP IN THE SOUL ITSELF, UNTIL THE GLORY OF

COSMIC CONSCIOUSNESS WAS AT LAST REVEALED.

Ever retrieving by reflection, as unto the Shield of Achilles. Making sure she looked onto the Solar Glory, and not into the lunar face of the depths. But poor Merope lost the Face and ever walked knee-deep in the waters of life, seeking everywhere for a possible lead, to start the redeeming factor of rebirth. But all was ever dank and wide, the nearest being the merciless glory of Medo-Persia. But ever there darkness reigned, with the Seed becoming mottled in its stagnancy of desire.

Yet Merope knew that that hidden glory which she was seeking to retrieve, was in truth ever protected by its internal Glory, the beauty of its intent. A mystery that none have been able to fathom, because of its mighty intensity. An atom of magnitude, born from that mighty abode of the Fiery heights, seeking to retrieve their complete unity.

Thus poor Hephaistos became lame, until the Heroes and Prophets began the path of salvation, with orthodoxy holding up the key, ever to self-aggrandised ritual. While the Holy Divinity was really nurtured by those of the Race Elect treading the path of self-renunciation ; for His manifestation was in their own internal depths, their glory of their Pneuma VASE. That internal glory of heavenly mystery, that by raising it up to the fiery fusion of the Seed, whereby they could infuse the gods in the heights, would that mighty NORM, the Virgin glory of those heights, blossom in the one who could master those depths. Thus the carrier of that glory back up to the heavens, the risen mind glory of the soul.

Yet only the reflection of that Fiery Glory that was treading its Divinity in the depths, leading that reflection through its unfolding path, awaiting the TIME of the heavenly unity. Thus the true Christou as the Pneuma glory, would be the uniting of these factors by an awakened manifesto.

One who had opened up the glories of the dawn to the divine Transcendental inflow, where the culmination of the Prismic extension was the means of that divine being, coming under the Shadow of His Holy Wings. The overshadowing Presence, the glory of the Arc, where beauty divine was the glory of their mind, an established fulfilment of the Godhead. The whole Seven a fountain of dancing Waters, with untold possibilities to ever come forth as the mighty Jewels of Ophir.

Thus Merope, now as the Scapegoat born to this heavenly glory, came forth as the Queen of Sheba, with all the Fiery wonders of SHE, the (See plate page 4, cols. 3 & 4) mystery of the lost horizon.

Hence as she stepped forth like a golden chick, she viewed the world that held her birth, then sought of the mighty Heavens, that the first Egg was of their unified glory, the atomic wonder of their mighty divinity.

For the world was now being fed from her unified divine wonder, that in growing and spinning up, would bring the glories of His Divine manifesto. A fountain of true crystal Waters, born from the unification, which now as the Buddha, she must walk afield, and fill the earth with heavenly light. For she was but the reflection of those mighty heights, that held the glory of her unfolded mind, the radiance of her glorified mind assumption.

For as she had believed, it had become, with earth expanding to the glory, causing many a world flaw to open up wide, and many a so-called universal beauty, to wither. While evils flared up and caught alight, and oddities danced with exhilarated glory, with expansion in the offing. An odd world of changing states, a Grand Canyon of reborn possibilities.

the dogma at stake, through the indoctrinated Word of internal ritual.

Hence the Mighty Glory of that Heavenly Arc, risen up by the struggle of David, came down into a mere holy reflection, a union built up between heights and depths, that now, in its reborn beauty, gave to Merope the Shadow of His Wings, and the glory of His Compassionate Divinity. That He could help her tread in of this mighty magnificence, the manifestation of heaven upon earth, in its first unfolding glory.

With all men now standing upon the Virgin Plane, a glory of inborn infusion, awaiting the impregnation of the inflowing Waters. All highly elevated with the golden scent of reborn Samarkand, and the beauties of risen up Samothrace. With the holy wonders of divine infinity, the revolving of the holy glories, of the Ages of devout unfolding beliefs. With Merope looking on in sheer amazement, that such could come into to help him. Mighty Egyptian splendours, and Greece with its Gods in abundance, while the mighty Norsemen with their fiery swords, all became of her mighty Pot Pourri.

The unification of all that had been, time sped into the glories of timelessness ; the flashing of the Perceptory unfolding, now the glory of Cosmic Consciousness. A Sea of Divinity awaiting the sparking glory of man's mighty wealth, a blossomed tryst of dynamic magnitude. For every man is an atomic pile, a reactor of radium mystery, that can by the turn of the key, reveal the glories of Atlantean might, but with the wonders of the Transcendental Unification.

For blood life and mind memory, are the two evading issues of the day that man has bargained with, heavily shutting many a door to any possible glory of hope, killing the atomic glory of that cell life of beauty. They being the heavenly divinities of soul growth, but also the possible future of heavenly ascension, unto the Way and Plane of becoming. While here under the Arc of Auric glory, do they reign as a whole world of heavenly divinity. Where the three Maters nurture and unfold, through the glory of the Arachnoid cradle, the mystery of the spinning spider web of divinity. Yet where many an electrical surge has closed the door to magnitude which required balancing to find its ancient jewels.

WEALTH AND BEAUTY OF HOLY GLORY, PERCEIVED ONLY IN THE STORY BOOK OF ALI BABA, WITH HIS FORTY THIEVES OR THE MIGHTY WEALTH OF HASSAN AL RASCHID.

It was of all this that Merope had unified, and now with the inflowing golden beauty of the unified heavens, the Waters of the Divine Rubaiyat are now the glories of the nurturing Transcendental manifesto. With genius in every direction, the possibility of the Age. The Rainbow with the Pot of Gold, awaiting all who have the courage to brave the glories of the unfolding unification.

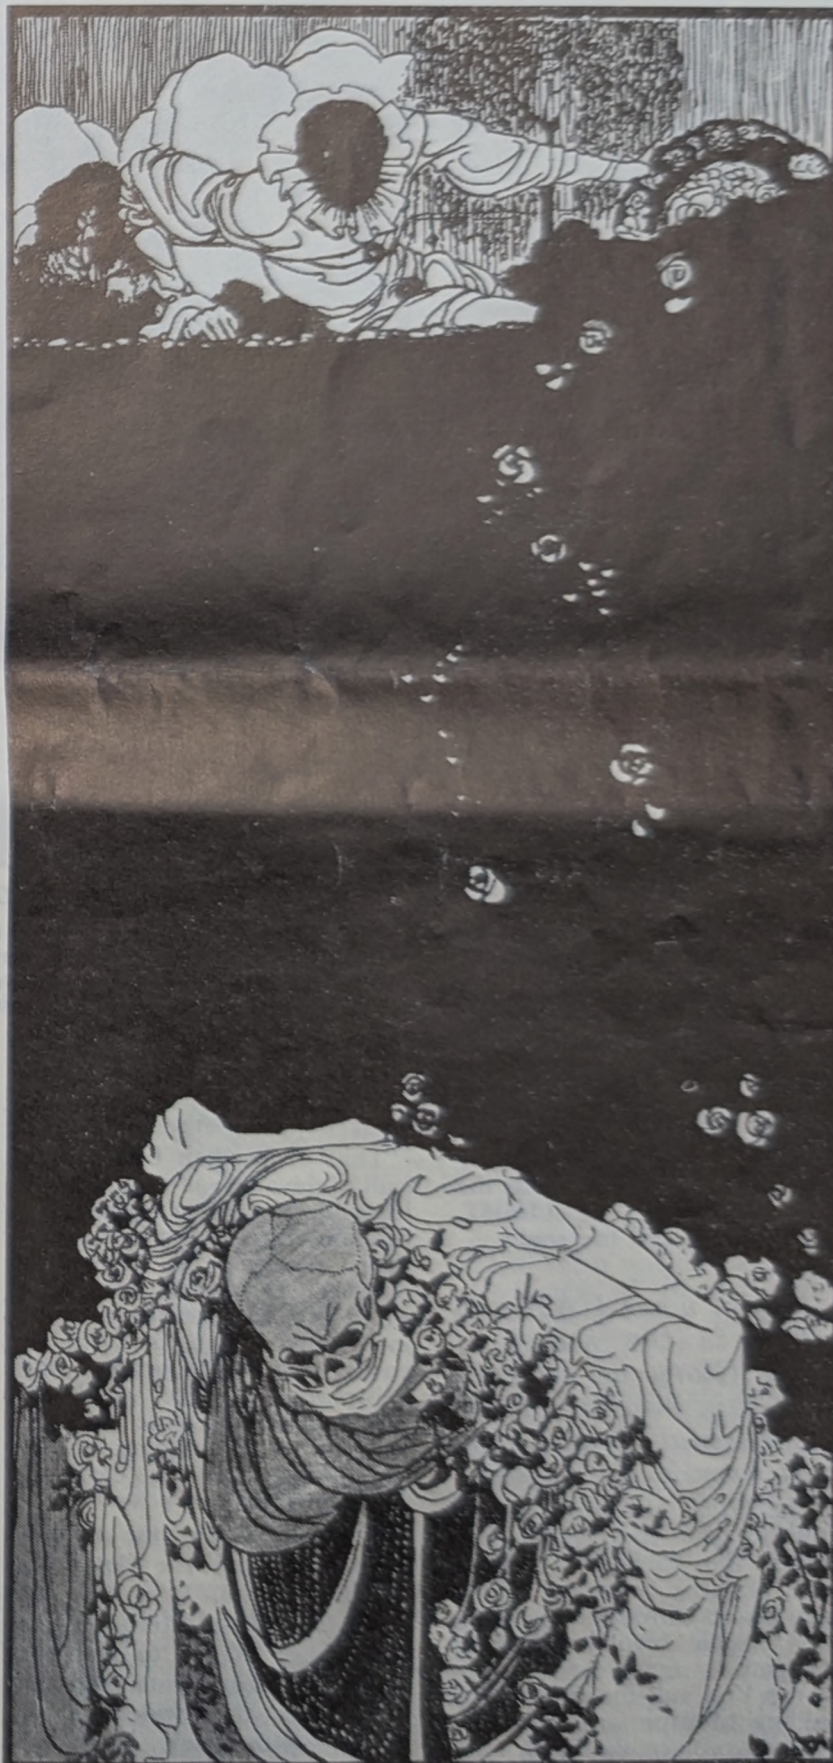

Rhythm from the golden heights, wealth from the deepest depths ; wealth from the hidden roots, and golden dragons that spun up high, but missed the precipitous mountain tops. With Druid powers and Zulu mysteries, and Hiawatha with his hunting horn, calling the mysteries of the mighty Winds into his tent of healing wonders. Wagner and his rousing glories and mighty unfolding crescendos, feeling the balm of Chopin's ultra-sensitized ear, and Beethoven's beauties of the Pastorals.

O' world of magnitude, the mystical glory of man's unified mind, the atomic glory of unification. With thy mighty Roc bird of wild uncultured beauty, guarding the diamonds of the Serpent depths. Thus every man a Sinbad, a Persian dignitary of impending glory, with riches of unmeasured wealth, in the box of every sleeping Pandora. Yet every one a possible Ulysses, with bow and rings to encompass that glory with all the wealth of that mighty journey, the unfolding bent of Calypso beauty.

ALL THE ARIEL GLORY OF MEROPE'S DANCING MIND, THE REVOLVING BEAUTY OF HEAVENLY WEAVING DIVINITY.

Thus here we see how Merope-Majesta captured all the wonders and elements into an Isotopic creation, through the initiation of the mysteries. Finally mastering the frequency of the mighty Central Sun, bringing the great and glorious Firebird, as the Essence of that mighty Heavenly Divinity down DOWN down, and deeper down, to the full extent of the chasm ; where all that had been, and meant so much, was now all warped, displaying a sinister outlook of macabre destruction. (See text in col. 1).

The Task of Unification

to earth, as the divine Pleromic glory of the Heavens.

Then raising it up as the Fiery Breath, bringing forth out of her inner being, as the glorious immaculate conception, the manifesting glory of that mighty "IT". Whereby he now will walk, by and through Merope, His Mighty Glory into matter, bringing her to the divine manifestation of the Pneuma Christou. Slowly turning the earth into the Central Sun, by uniting this mighty heavenly glory, with the intense wonders of the depths, that its lesser reflection as the internal lost radiance of the Virgin Plane of Paradise, can now come forth once again, as the new-born Virgin glory.

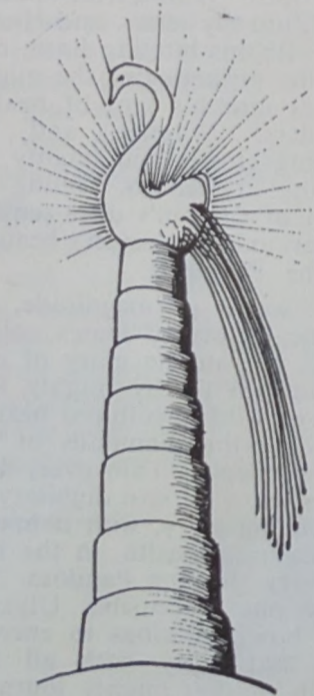

Hence the mystery of the blending of the two spines, Merope and the mighty Cosmos, where the great Transcendental Stream of the Heavenly Glory, is flowing down to the unfolding might of man, through her now unending endurance. Therefore as the mighty Firebird, the glory of Divinity, begins to sing upon the earth through Christou Merope, will activity come back to the lost activation of man, if he sacrifices, that this Begotten Glory can become once again of his risen Norm.

For here we see Merope as the Deity Theou, as she manifests in the depths of matter. She who has mastered the Winds and the Waves, and the glories of the unfolding nebula. Building them up through the Prismic Glory into an auric crown, the radiant divinity of the mind, manifesting it as the glory of the risen up Seven, in the radiant divinity of the eighth.

Then as all begins to radiate as divine beauty, through the infused higher Law becoming the law of the depths, will the feats of Hercules have been completely conquered, and risen up as the arrow piercing the Eye of Aldebaran. With the Yod as the Firebird coming from heights to the extreme depths, and then from depths to heights, with this Mighty Being nesting in the top of the Dynamic Protrusion, as the radiant Swan of mind light.

The Light of Transcendental Beauty

HERE we behold the mighty mystery of the Fiery Cross, the Fiery divinity of the heavens, who paved the way to unfold through Merope of the mighty power and symbolism of the mystical unity to be made, which had only been perceived through orthodoxy.

The Star hovering over Bethlehem, now the mighty Star of Vega, the divine symbol of the heavens, heralding the descent of that Divine Glory, from those mighty heights as the down-pouring Transcendental Glory. That of the Prismic unified Galactical Union, that was now going to be given birth as the Pneuma Christou in immaculate conception, through the Isotopic glory of Merope.

The Seed of Woman now completely risen up, out of the dung of matter, causing every man to be branded with the cross that he righteously declared, and caused the Divinity to carry. With man now being forced to come forth and redeem it, into heavenly glory, by the redeeming mind beauty now brought forth by Merope. Taking the Stigma from the horror of death, and from the Christos light.

Thus making the pineal, the secret of the Norm, all divinely alight, in the Aura of Merope becoming crowned with the heavenly glory. The first human soul to bring the inborn divinity of Breath, to Neptunian light, in the mind-begotten unfolded glory of the blossomed Norm.

With the mighty galactical prismic mind beauty, raised up by Merope, as the magnitude of the Arc. The mighty radiance of the Central Sun, that of the heavenly Begotten Christos Glory, now her own Christou divinity. The mighty divine unification manifesting of the unfolding LIGHT, as the rolling Ages of TIME, in an elevated mind bringing forth of genius of a divine belief.

Yet the solving of the mighty riddle of the Sphinx, as the great Cosmic Conception, bringing into birth unfolded heavenly glory. The mighty heavenly birth out of the gods, into the One Great God of LIGHT, speaking through the soul.

For :-

"I am what I AM and this is the secret of my Glory as I bring of this mighty Transcendental Beauty, unto man in the depths."

The Great Heavenly Master, now of the risen Solar Son within the elevated sensitised soul, bringing down the inflowing Waters through his being, as a cosmic revolving Infinity. Bringing a complete blending of the Yod and the Fount, ever feeding Merope with Heavenly Fire, to replace the earth magnetic fire, infused into the depths, now involved forever. The mighty secret of the Occult mysteries now revealed at last, thereby causing the gravity unto the magnetic to be completely mastered, and duly reverted to the Central Sun.

Whereby the great curse left by Oedipus is now promptly mastered, making the way free for every soul, once they have transmuted their Daphne fears of their Solar marriage unto the glorified Apollo. Thus, as Merope took the Last Supper, and renounced of the earth's cloying desires, she completely embraced the Solar Divinity, marrying all up into her internal Pneumatikon glory, the divine wonder of the risen mind.

Thus WOMAN completely embraced into the Fatherhood, as the centralising infinity of the atomic structure, with Taurus and Venus being fired by the mighty internal Seed of mystical inner depths of "IT", which can only be captured by giving. Thus the mystery of the Fiery "IT" established in the depths of matter, to become the risen up glory in all men, the radiance of their blossomed NORM, the glory of their radiating mind.

The birth of the Sacred Heart, the whole secret of the mighty Ecliptic, as those of the great Colures of the Cosmic glory are embraced by the human endeavour. With Regulus as the mystical glory of the Paw of the Lion captured, and now buried into the depths of matter, in the strength of the labouring of the soul, and the risen up heavenly Guru. With all the desires of Cancer now raised up onto the Desires of the Great unified Bear, but now as the mystical journey of the mighty Vega, the unfolding glories of the Pneuma Christou divinity.

QUEEN OF SHEBA

GLORY in abundance, might in all its wonder; only such as Solomon could have brought such fiery splendour into birth. That which should have been the opening of the Fiery Age when Sheba should have been the mistress of the intended Protrusion. (See text on page 3, col. 2).

the Fiery Cross. Mars driving his Antares mystery into the earth depths visibly.

That of Woman being atomically elevated as that of the lower desires being raised up to heavenly intent, as the Fiery in-thrust cleansed the maelstrom. Surging the atmosphere with Fiery life, and stirring all souls into active thinking. With the earth now impregnated with Scorpionic radiance, which will bring the Pleromic mystery verified, in the mighty unfolding union between the earth and the Central Sun.

With the Virgin, the dynamic mystery of all the Ages, the intuitive mind, now crowned and glorified, as Merope exemplified her LOVE, to save that Great Divinity from annihilation into the widening pit. Hence with such glory unfolded, as HE in the unfolding Glory of HIS Love, sacrificed Himself as the Begotten MIND, by descending right down into the depths of matter, as her Auric Glory. That Merope the mighty wealth of Ages, is now risen up as the glorified divine Seed of Woman, the mind experience of the Ages.

Thus as this Great Divinity embraced Merope, HE became her risen up Glory as her Over-Shadowing Presence, in that mystical union of LOVE. The Auric wonder of her mind now divinely born; for love is the

The Fiery Norm

THE BIRTH OF THE UNSEEN SUN, THE TRANSCENDENTAL INFLOW BEING EXPONDED IN THE DEPTHS, THROUGH THE EXTENT OF THE WISDOM PERCEIVED.

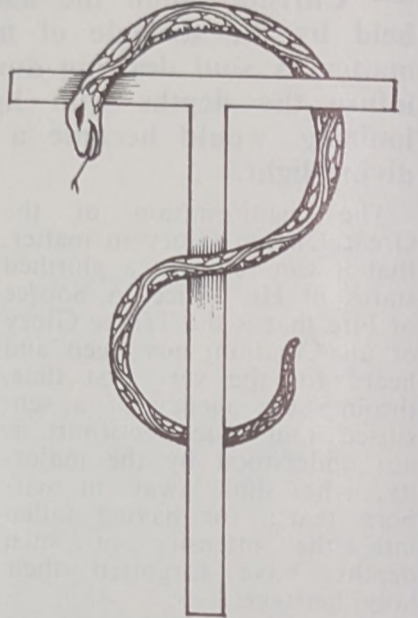

The mighty glory of the heavenly incentive, to now raise man up from the degradation he had fallen into, that he can retrieve once again the lost wealth of his holy godship. The dynamic glory that once he owned, as the virgin Pube of soul growth, now retrieved in divinity of the mind to be raised up to the mighty Seven, the glorified cosmic consciousness. He that had been entrusted with the Heavenly Seed, that held the mighty wealth of Ages.

The NORM that was to unfold all the glories of the MAN, the begotten created from that Heavenly Source, that HE, the mighty Unseen Glory, could manifest as man's divine heart and his radiant mind.

Yet He that gave birth to His Heavenly Son, in the mighty Embodiment into the depths, to lead all men in the glory of Becoming, out of the darkness of their blind illusion. Yet the Cosmic Glory that would take unto ITself the mighty FACE of the Macroprosopus, and become the shining Intelligencia of the mighty heavens. The whole magnitude of what had been, in that Shining Radiant Beauty, that would feed all men with its Divine Holy Blood.

Hence purge the evils that the soul had partaken unto itself, in the journey of Becoming. For until Merope went onto the wheel as the mighty Scapegoat in the depths, this mighty Divinity was placed onto the Cross by the expounding soul. That the Tau could be raised up as the mind of human unfoldment, the glory of the mind.

This she did, that by her struggles she rose up that mighty wisdom, until the Arc was raised up to the Central Sun. Whereby the heavenly glory of Generative inflow, became the expansive internal glory of those mighty Waters. Until eventually she became the unfolded Christou, by the glory of that Unseen Sun, and as the Blood of that mighty Divinity driving the issue, she expounded in the depths.

Thereby, every man becoming a Christ unto himself, for by that Virgin glory would he be internally raised up, and the wisdom that he would receive in that Transcendental inflow, become the glory of his internal Being. But as Merope so suffered by the mighty wealth she had to imbibe, of the heights she had to rise up to master the atom scientists of the depths, did that Glorious Divinity come down into her Auric glory, to become her Shield and her Divine protection, that of her strength and her auric radiance, as the manifesting glory of divinity.

For it could only be by the manifestation of that Atomic Glory, unified with the magnetic, that the ionizing of the Poles would securely protect the mighty Colures in the depths. Thus prevent the destruction of the Seed, and the glories of the Holy Beauty and heavenly Divinity, now born into the glories of Human mind unfoldment.

Thus Merope knew as she rose up on this note of ascension, that what was manifesting by interpenetration, was the glory of the risen up descending glory of that Transcendentalism, into the mighty depths. For were not the Holy Scriptures but the mighty history of FIRE, FIRE, FIRE, with the mysterious forbidden Occult Apocrypha, the secret of the NORM.

It was here that Merope realised only too well, that the risen transcendency of the Race, was only by the assumption of that Fire, and only by that could the point of mind Glory be perceived. For all was but the risen up FIRE partaken by man, first realised in the depths of China. So it was at this moment she sought of these mighty depths, that more could be fully explained to her. For was it not the might of the Great Flame, the mystery of FIRE, the lighted Flame upon the Great Cosmic Mount, that interpenetrated both the Cosmos, and into the 'microcosm'.

For Merope in rising up through this great mind resplendence, rose up yet higher and higher through its mighty brilliance, up to the surging Breath of Outer Virgin Fiery magnificence. For as she rose this dynamic inter-penetrative FIRE, would it force all those unseen heights to open up their greater and loftier predominance.

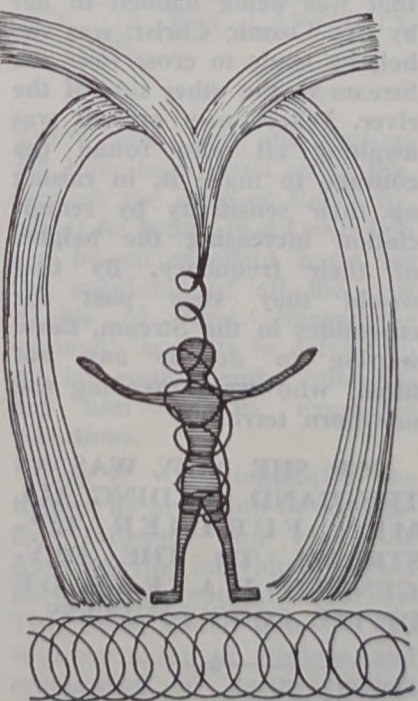

Glories of resplendent Transcendental beauty, filling that mighty majesty with greater and greater momentum; for here on this Holy Virgin Plane of Vulcanised Glory, the soul through his mighty purified intensity, begins yearning to reach yet greater heights of divine Learning. Thus mountainous FIRES of Transcendental infusion, begin the Path of FIRE awakening as the glories of the mind.

Combustible magnitude of Virgin ferocity, begins its greater activation, by spermating the whole of the Cosmic Galaxy, into revolving and revealing yet a greater impenetrable seclusion of purpose. For was it not but a cosmic oath of searing motivation, driving all it finds before it, unto mightier drives of Virgin unity. Thereby creating a stupendous rising vortex of Holy Fire Spiraculum.

Mighty unfathomed virgin splendour, the glory of the unseen inter-marriage, flooding the depths with its beauty, spinning all up into that mighty Atom. The Celestial Fire of Master enormity, the unsoiled virgin beauty of heavenly redemption, now making its way up to the heights and flooding the depths with its unseen wonders.

The Cosmic Unfoldment

THE mighty wonders of the mind, now ascending to the heights, in aspiration and heav-

only belief, with greater Solar myths becoming divinities, as more dynamic FIRE begins to solve the mystery of all the NORM propensity of unfolding Blackness. The mighty magnitude of Black Fire as divine Celestial Consciousness, spermating the Egg of cosmic virtue. The Fiery golden Egg of Vega glory, now born of inconceivable Splendour, and crowned with the Master's might of the mighty heavens untouched.

Yet by greater and greater flight, a stupendous rising LOVE begins to open up its portals. Love in all its radiant beauty, the mighty answer to the purpose of the soul's divine union, with this Unseen Heavenly Glory. For pre-ordained divine intensity is the portcullis of its unfathomed immensity; mighty Fire as unpremeditated glory, now the compounded essence of pure heavenly virtue, made manifest in the depths, through the genius of the mind.

THE MIGHTY FIREBIRD

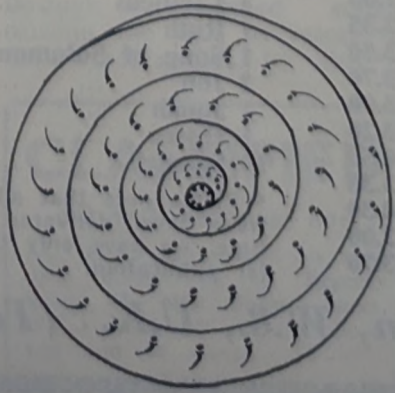

AS Merope went forth, there before her, leading the way, was the Atomic Firebird holding the roses of LOVE in his mighty beak; she voluminous with wealth in her dynamic raiment, as frill after frill was unfolded. (See text on page 4, col. 1).

The Norm, the home of life's finalising breath, as all now comes to its mighty rest, until a yet greater Transcendental Rise surges up into a more Fiery manifesting divinity. Thus glories untold lie awaiting every soul, as he raises up his frequency to those mighty beliefs, of his questing mind.

With the Fire of internal creation, making this divine inter-union, by the glory of his heart belief. For Merope knew that all became evident by the glory of her mind, in that mystical union of inter-birth, that by the Fiery intercession, she rose up into glories of more inter-spacial relationship with those heavenly heights.

Mystical depths that now become through this mighty inter-marriage of soul, with the heavenly glory that is now coming into birth. The soul ever becoming in-born to Planes and Realms unknown; glories that link with heavenly divinities, that come forth ever through the Begotten of interpenetrating beauty; yet ever in the HERE and NOW of centripetal involving.

For it is ever a state of inter-blending and inter-becoming of that mighty NORM, the beginning and ending of all unfolding, through its revolving mighty infinity... the unfolding depths within itself. That by its birth out of itself, the rebirth of the Phoenix, the higher divine Octave is duly made. Thereby ever re-feeding the revolving infinity, and via the magnetic field around the radiating Norm, is drawing unto, via the elevated magnetic Pole, of the higher elements of the Heavenly Breath.

The soul self-sufficient unto itself by its completeness with the Power of Outer Space. For by such, is the overshadowing Prismic glory drawn into the soul, by the inner depths and inner core, of the glory of that mighty Seed. As above, so below, for man is the creator of the Prototype set into motion by the Scapegoat in the depths, who, by declaring and establishing up in the now radiating heavens, walks the glory into the earth, and a further divine marriage is made between heaven and earth.

Here we see the birth of the Unseen Sun, that now becomes the blood-life of the soul, as of the Heavenly MAN. The mighty Christos sending His Glory into the being of matter, that the Kingdom can bring forth the glories of His Transcendental Beauty, the divine glory of the mind. The Radiant Glory of His Heavenly FACE, the Divine Beauty of the Macroprosopus, yet the mighty Glory of the Absolute as the a Priori transcending all limitation.

The divine production of the eighth out of the seventh, super-eminent in its abstruse glory. That which was climbed by the frequency of Merope, which now could bring all souls to transcendental ascension, through the possible infinity. Bringing forth from the depths, philosophy and wisdom of the past, illusive in its mighty mysticism, yet producing the depths of intensity, through the abstruse relationship with the unseen depths of the Central Sun.

Thus the divine absolvment of the glory of being, unfolding the Atomic magnitude of divinity, in the might and glory of possible genius. Bringing forth of the Unseen Sun, as the Creator manifesting His Divine Radiance, through the unfolding glory of the quester in the depths.

The Almighty unfolding the wonders of His Heavenly propulsion in the Pleromic glory of supreme Prismic rebirth. The soul born of entire new wealth, brought forth by his own internal glory of struggle, now making heavenly ascension after ascension, through the Divinity becoming as of the soul, in its glory of acceptance.

For indirectly, the soul is ever tainted by some form of self-devotion, whereas, of the Transcendental glory, all is absolved for the mystical divinity of becoming unto that of cosmic consciousness. This being the soul in at-one-ment with that Unseen Divinity, now of the soul in all its transformed glory, bringing into birth the divine infinity of new life.

Thus with such dynamic glory revealed unto Merope, she realised that the risen personality, the final creation to become, was the mystical being of incorporated consciousness, that now entered into the Sea of Divinity in its reformed elevated ascension. An atom unto the Great Atom, of Begotten Transcendental Unification, in the labourer of all earth's struggles, as it became the creator and manifestor of that mighty Unseen Being.

The creation that had striven to overcome all impediments, and carried the cross of absolvment. Making more than ever clear to this mighty Scapegoat, of the necessity for observing the details of life, without becoming a slave unto them. As she accepted this final assessment, the air around her became radiant with light, holding in its intensity a mighty expectation of its dynamic glory.

For as it intensified, her inner being seemed to unify with its mighty depths, as though some greater intensity now held her in union, and she felt at peace within its greater glory. As though, what she was, now needed that further ascension to embrace her and hold her in her mighty expanding belief. Thus further realising that she was still ascending by that mysterious state of becoming, and had further become by that unfolding inner Glory.

A state of Protrusion by an inner intensity ever giving forth from within itself; thus Merope was now of that mighty Firebird, the mystical creature of Holy LIGHT, the manifesting glory of the Pneuma Christou, from her inner depths of being. The way of ever unfolding glory, feeling itself ever driving towards its REAL impending embracement, in the unified divinity of revolving glory.

Did it ever stop, and if so, when?

As she found herself dwelling by such divine thought upon this dynamic immensity, she in becoming one with that glorified atmosphere, rose as it were out of her consciousness of being. UP, UP, higher and higher into an intensity of nothingness, yet a fullness of intensified glory. For all around was of glory and perfection, everything being of light and undulating measure, rolling on and on with no opposition whatsoever.

The Cosmic Cristofori

THE glory and beauty as never experienced before, now held her in divine acceptance, with the soul creation none other than mind, desiring nought but what it was. Never even thinking that there was anything else, but the intensity of what it was. Then as she moved forward, all was by the power of Desiring to go forward, and as she went forward, there was no thought other than what she was doing, for that was her intent. Then Merope knew, by the full intent of knowing, that she was now in the entire Glory of divine Cosmic Consciousness.

The entire union of the Fiery Essence now blended into divine atomic unification, where soul is ONE with its internal Fiery glory, and the mighty manifestor of HIS Being. All now being returned into its BEING, from whence it came away, emerging out of His Ribs, in the thought swinging backwards and forwards, until it launched forth into the depths of activation. Thus, where it became of WOMAN, as the negative state of becoming, all was now of the Fatherhood.

THE DIVINE ABSOLUTE IN THE ABSOLVEMENT BACK INTO COMPLETE BEING, AND READY FOR ANY GREATER STATUS OF BECOMING. THAT WHICH HAD EVER CONTINUED DOWN THE WHOLE CREATION OF DIFFERENTIATION, TO AWAIT THE MOMENT OF TRANSCENDENTAL UPLIFTMENT.

But now, Merope found that the returned inter-union was the might and glory of the struggle, for she was the MIND, the unfolded glory of knowing, in being the perceptive Atom of HIS manifesting Consciousness, the mighty Perception of His Beholding.

The ever revolving of the eternal spiraculum of the Divinity, which brings into birth the mighty instantaneous thought of the Master's impinged Divine Image. That which revolves the Seed around as the circulating Essence of the whole of the Osmotic mystery of the soul. With that of the golden creation of divine glory now brought to its Pinnacle Point of Transcendental Perception.

The pre-virgin Divine Source now awaiting rebirth, from the already ascended Fiery Growth, as the Pinnacle Point of the yet unrequented Master's intense Royal Flame. The mighty crystalline Virgin Purity from the pre-natal Fount, of the Great Master's unborn sensitivity. That now to come forth on the mighty Sea of Holy Divine Consciousness, where the whole of the expanding verge of Atomic unity, will enter into a Plane entirely different from anything already known.

This once having been known as the verging forth of Brahma onto a new quest of life, and erroneously seen as a new Globe, a new form, and not a state of Plane uprisen glory. All (See diagram in cols. 2 & 3) is HERE and NOW, and has ever been and ever will be; thus soul ever in a state of coming forth from the glory of ever becoming. Thus the glory is the crowning of the old, and the risen up Eagle as the glory of the Wine, now crowned with the Divinity of the mighty down-flowing Transcendental Beauty. Where the mighty FACE is now to meet this mighty expansion of Holy Divine Glory.

The glorified wonder, where all atoms upon that Plane, become as the divine Pneuma Christou. Souls having completely mastered earth life and risen up the spirit, and now ready to become the risen up glory of the Consciousness of LIGHT in its Real golden Beauty of Divinity. Thus the Seed that has only been as a seed, must now become as an expanded manifested Reality; that which only gave birth as form life, now must expand of its true intended glory.

Thus Merope in all her radiant glory, stood and surveyed her risen up transcendency, where she beheld a mighty Christmas Tree growing up before her. Rising up higher and higher in its unfolding beauty. Then, from the depths there began a stream of spiralling dancing fairies, all making their

The Mind Development Class

EACH Week on every Saturday at 5.30 p.m. G.M.T. Mrs. Spearman-Cook holds her Special Mind Development Class at the School's H.Q. A special Subject is concentrated upon for about 40 minutes and then each sitter is individually helped to interpret and understand his or her findings. Any readers can join; those nearby can make application to attend each week, and those too far away can send in their names and link in each week at the time stated, their names being entered in a Special Book for this purpose. The subjects for concentration are:

way up to the top. All ablaze with their glittering beauty in true Neptunian glory. For there upon the top of this dynamic growth, was a huge Orange House as a Solar Glory, manifesting in a minute way, the radiance of the Central Sun.

As each Fairy, sparkling and radiant with electrified life, reached the top, they entered into this Solar Glory through swinging doors of revolving clarity, walking in between as in and out of the moving segments of the fruit. For by this they were treading in the Solar magnificence, pushing it and revolving it round and round, getting their feet off the magnetic as they went.

Then, just as one would do to a revolving door, this moved an internal spindle around within that mighty tree trunk. While down at the the base, another revolving set of doors, turned as in polarity. Yet on each door, a cane protruded and spanked the rear of many of the Fairies, who had not yet awakened.

For here was a primordial rebirth being recorded, as the world that will now be forced to unfold by the way of these thrashing canes. For they were symbolical of the new laws, that were now being incorporated into the vicinity of matter. While upon the top of this Orange mystery, was a knight upon a horse rearing up on its hind legs. In the right hand of the knight was a lance, which he pointed right up to the sky.

Then as the Fairies revolved the spindle, the knight's arm gradually drew backwards, then hurled the spear right up into the heavens above. As he did so, the spear turned into a golden Firebird with a golden cord attached to its leg. As the bird and golden thread rose up higher and higher, it seemed to enter through the Eye of a mighty needle. Indicating to Merope, who was looking on in amazement, that a new sowing of the Seed was now about to begin.

For as this glorious Bird entered this mighty Eye, radiance shone out everywhere causing the whole of the heavens to quiver and vibrate with the mystery, now about to burst forth. For a new incandescent down-pouring was about to begin, that man could be infused with new exhilarated Pleromic glory. That which would awaken his aspirational enthusiasm; something that had fallen fast asleep in the television inertia. A new transcendental drive, which would activate a move forward into the glory of rebirth.

Thus Merope knew that her work as Pneuma-Christou had truly begun, where the heavenly vials were opening up their mighty depths to the glory of mankind. All ready for a mighty surge forward to bring into birth the glories of heavenly wonders. For to her amazement that mighty Orange Ball spun faster and faster, until it spun right off into the heights, vanishing completely into the glory of those mighty Heavens. Leaving a trail of golden light, for all who could have the courage to climb up its woven mysterious beauty, and bring their divine NORM into birth.

Now Merope was as a Cosmic Christifori, that by her sending forth of the wisdom that was being handed to her by the Cosmic Christ, was she helping souls to cross over the Stream to the other side of the river. Where new growth was awaiting all who found the courage to make it, in raising up their sensitivity by renunciation increasing the heights of their frequency. By that would they steer past the crocodiles in the Stream, those waiting to devour any not fitted, who were invading the new-born territory.

FOR SHE NOW WAS AS THE HAND LEADING ALL MEN FURTHER UP-STREAM, TO THE OXYGENISED WATERS OF DIVINE CONSCIOUSNESS.

HERBAL MYSTERIES Part 7

DANDELION (Leontodon Taraxacum)

by David Spearman-Cook

THIS month we are seeking into the properties of Dandelion, that of Leontodon Taraxacum, ruled by Jupiter, and that of the diuretic, a stimulant and tonic. Made fun of by many a child, as they picked of its fluffy head of dancing seeds. Therefore, how many have helped to foster and re-infest the countryside of Mother Nature, with the prolific herbal seed of Dandelion? For as children on a windless summer's day, all have at sometime or another, been the cause of starting a seed to root. For this delicate seed of amazing structural beauty, before being blown through the air as a snowball of fluffy constructional delicacy, was indeed a glory to behold. With each wish of a childlike breath that accompanied it, but a vibration of dancing life and hope, ever waiting to be fulfilled. Thereby showing how deep and mysterious is the origin of the Dandelion.

Yet that complete ball of fluffy seeds, could still be the symbolic home of the gods, as unto the Norm or Pineal gland, in the extreme heights of man. That awaiting the elevated mind of one, such as the Goddess Merope, to set it into active life. Yet that which she has done, by the might of her pen, answering many a past childish wish, through the changing winds of Time. Thus as decreed by Merope, the breath is now carrying the gods' message far and wide, just like the Dandelion, to all corners of the known world.

So it can be seen, that the Dandelion, as a vibronic frequency, goes back as far as the period of Samothrace, when as a formless aspiration, it fell into its now formed state. All through the lack of man raising up the vibrations to stimulate his Norm into action. For the word Dandelion means the dancing powers of Leo, the lion's tooth, which should have been the royalty and stimulative ability of man's rise into godship. But he, as the Dandelion, has ever remained on densified earth all these aeons of Time, as an unexpanded root.

WITH THE DANDELION AS NATURE'S UNFOLDED QUOTA OF NATURAL LIFE, STANDING PATIENTLY BY, OFFERING ITS STIMULATIVE QUALITIES TO HELP MAN RISE UP, OUT OF HIS CAPTIVITY OF LIFE.

BUT now that the Powers have been given active life, through the state of Relativity, will it be found that Dandelion can be an excellent basic for the unfolding of all the past wealth of Ages. Sharpening up man's appetite to delve into the innermost depths, stimulating him by its expansive vibrations.

For it will singularise the tissues, by an action of segregative infusion, and raise the state of the individual organs back to their natural frequency. This being added unto, by the soul partaking of wisdom, and renouncing of earthy beliefs that have been cramping his limbs, through the lack of expansion. Thereby allowing the infusing breath, when drawn in by the soul, to find it easier to synchronise with the hidden deeper wealth, and help bind him up as a potential divine being.

When Dandelion is infused into the organs, it can penetrate its influence into the fibres that have formed, and gives them a more flexible vibratory freedom. Thereby releasing the nerves, and allowing the blood to flow more easily. When Chickweed is added, the powers of both will enhance the concentrative ability of man to relax into a more conducive action of creative aptitude.

For these two herbs are of a binding and arrestive quality, that will calm the nervous states of frustrated egoism. Assisting the soul to remain in a more humble state of thought, whereby he can start to think more clearly. Thus helping to prevent man expanding into a state of self, but into a more relinquishing attitude to assist others. For the Dandelion as a simple flower, has a far greater origin than man in his scientific egoism would believe.

This simple herb has been known to be of a great relief for those suffering from bad feet, for this complaint has a direct linking with the tympanic frequency of the ear. Explaining why man must tread his wealth into the earth, that he can find mind expansion. For the tympanic membrane is osmotically attached to the foot Chakra, and between its moving revolving action, is the wealth lost.

EITHER AS UNCREATIVE FERVOUR, OR THE ASPIRED WILL TO PRACTICE THE ACCRUED KNOWLEDGE INTO A BASIC FOOTING, FOR THE SOUL'S FUTURE UNFOLDMENT.

DANDELION and Sorrell Leaves are very good for the very worst cases of scaly ridden states of the Scurvy, due to the lunar states of the earth. For unless man is able to free himself from these lunar vibrations pretty quickly, there will be an outbreak of this scourge very soon. That which will attack man, if he will not respond to the changes through the inflowing Cosmic Rays as the new Laws of life.

Scurvy is a scourge that has never really been understood, because it is not brought about by the reasons accepted. It really being fostered into birth through disgruntled states, causing the soul to resort to unfavourable diet, for this is the basic of nearly all nervous rashes. Though often with the past state of the King's Evil, showing itself through the polarity relativity.

Therefore, by one changing the vision of the inner eye, will they through wisdom, change and counteract their different vibronic frequencies from the lowest into the highest of Solar Rays. For all vibrations will be born of the understanding of Solar Truth. Thereby man cleansing himself for his feminine principle to manipulate him into a cosmic conscious ONENESS.

Hence, Dandelion is an excellent cleanser of the blood, with many making it an addition to their salad, gathered for their vegetarian meal. With the Irish calling it "heart fever grass," because of its stimulative action. While man, once upon a time, boiled the root with lentils to obtain a nourishing diet. Thus would be good for rheumatic and arthritic subjects, helping to extract it from the bones.

While the root ground down into Dandelion coffee, acts as a very good herb stimulative. Although, as a soul rises higher in their frequency, it is best to turn to fruit from the top of the tree, and the flowering quality of the herbs. For by choosing fruit from the top of the tree, the humus has been completely dissolved in the bark transmutation.

Once upon a time, the leaves of the Dandelion were used, and can still be used, as a very good substitute for a green vegetable, because they contain a certain substance that brings about the solvent states of acidity caused by the overworking of the spleen and liver. For it has an interactionary movement on the fluidic states within the soul, which need adjustment, as one daily battles through the densified sea of minds around them.

Hence, as we have already stated, good for all complaints that need extracting out of the bones. For Dandelion is a fluidic glandular tonic revitaliser, as well as for the main arteries, by strengthening them with a secretive osmotic frequency of cosmic sensitivity of dynamic depths.

Hence, bringing forth a greater inner perception, as a strong pull towards the solvent issue of building up a resistance against negative states, which have a depleting value. For this herb comes under Jupiter, most expansive and soothing to the mind.

Therefore is a restorative reformer that adheres to and centralises itself around the fiery tissues, that have become dull through the lack of spiritual ascension of the vibrations of man's revolving propensity. Thus Dandelion could help man to become born of the Solar Ray, thereby becoming the channel for the gods to survive, as they come forth through the oxygenised breath.

DANDELION was once used by the pirates as they journeyed forth on the oceans, for it gave them the strength as a brew, which they would have drunk as a stimulative ale. For ale then had a complete basic of Dandelion and Hops, which gave it a grand energising state, without a too stupefying effect upon the senses. Therefore, it can be seen, that these two herbs can produce a good nerve basic, which can assist one to recover their lost energy. But of course, without any type of fermentation taking place, for this only paralyses the nerve ends and kills any state of sensitivity and true connection with the inner bodies.

It is also a well known fact, that once locusts devoured the food on the island of Minorca, forcing the islanders to live entirely on Dandelion roots. Showing what number of uses can be made of the Dandelion.

When Dandelion is taken with Clover and a little honey, it can be found to be very good for the chest, as it can act upon the mucus and helps to break it down. As well as being good for dropsical affections and inflammation of the bowels, for Dandelion can help disperse the mucus much easier, in whatever part of the body it is lodged. If in the lungs, it will make it easier to regulate the inflow of the breath.

It placing a strengthened covering, removing some of the nitrogenic creations of City life, expelling it safely through the bowels. Then again, when Dandelion is soaked in vinegar and slightly warmed, it will be found to assist to dispose of headaches, if cloths dipped in this concoction are applied regularly. For it will help to keep the blood warm and expansive, circulating at a faster rate than normal.

For headaches are caused by a non-spinning mind, often due to a clogged and contracted liver, which the taking of Dandelion will help to expand. While the vinegar is capable of drawing the capillary osmotic functions to itself, extracting the deadened states of vibronic ash, that have lodged in the blood cells of the moving bloodstream.

This is why some advocate the drinking of cider vinegar, which we here in the School, most positively shun, for it can damage the glandular juices, breaking down any form of sensitivity. Hence by the outward application the internal delicate fiery state of the liver is not drawn upon, or weakened by the internal drawing motion set up by the Dandelion and vinegar. All these states being best drawn out through the sluice gates, the pores of the skin, all visibly worked by the power of its magnetic properties.

It has been known and proved, that Dandelion and Comfrey, will assist the preparation of a cure for revitalising of the womb. But this takes rather a lengthy period of time, and is best applied if one can find the time and patience, by applying the same vinegar poultice as suggested for the head, to the stomach.

Then by a good clean diet of fruit and reducing or even discarding of the animal tissues and earthy states of food, it will be found that it can be done much quicker. Showing that the womb of woman is as unto the virgin cell, where the Seed has got to be nurtured in a far more reverent way, than is now being done by man and woman today. For the womb is the only place that woman has of ejecting the mixed vibronic frequencies of the male's infused sexual mind properties, that have penetrated the female's internal depths.

Hence the more cherished the male's attitude towards the female's divine status, the better it will be for the future Race coming into birth. But what a long way yet to go, before the medical world are forced to eat their hundreds of categorised erroneous theories, which are useless to any soul that has at last learnt to reverence their being, and their true inheritance of spiritual awakening.

For the very cut of the knife severs a vibronic frequency of its revolving and evolving vibronic network. With the hand wielding of the knife, injecting its vibrations into the soul's inner mystical working creation, which is the cause of ethereal shocks, so detrimental to the soul. Apart from the fact, that these actions would have a repercussion upon the awakening gods within the soul.

Dandelion can also be most helpful for all bladder and kidney difficulties, and helps diabetes and obesity, while the white milk of the stalk can remove warts, curing old sores and blisters. The loss of appetite can be cured by this herb, but this is best left as it is, for nature knows best. Then Dandelion and Agrimony together, will act very efficiently for lymph-cleansing, and the cleansing of the bronchi of the lungs.

This herb was first mentioned in Arabian literature in the 10th and 11th centuries under the name of Tarakhshagan, although it grows more prolifically in the Northern hemisphere; yet in reality, goes back right into the depths of time, but came more into action right in the beginning of Time.

The fact that this herb is under Jupiter and holds the propensity of the Sun, could be extremely helpful to all initiates who are seeking to expand up the cervical to the "Island of the Sun," but not with the Bull bellowing. But with him fully tethered and the horses winged, that the Chariot of the Sun can rise in all its glory, up to the Castle on high. Hence the many mysteries yet to be discovered as man makes expansion through the New World of Vega Life.

For this herb was used prolifically to make Dandelion wine, while the milk-white substance in the stem, was used as a potent part of the mystical potions created for many witchcraft reasons. Thus through its extremes, its possibilities are not yet fully known. For I have every reason to believe that the seed of this herb came from a higher Planet, that it could be the means of giving to man its vital message of expansion.

Merely taking a brew of this herb to bring a state of expansion, is in itself propitious, but using its foliage for salad accessory, is more helpful, even if the flowers are too profuse in a well-planned lawn. While Dandelion and Marigold could help any soul struggling to get onto the Plane of Vega, to find the expansion they require to become Ariel born.

THUS BY THE PUFF OF THE WIND FROM THE HEAVENLY MESSENGER, COULD HELP THEM TO BECOME WINGED, AND SAIL UP INTO THE HEAVENS, WITH THE SEEDS OF NEW-BORN TRUTH CARRYING THEM UP THROUGH THE PLANES.

Next month we will take the Elder Flower.

Reminiscences

if I went through them, and gave some minute explanation around their scientific depths. Very few know, and even if they have been enlightened, refuse to accept that man was created from the heavens, and is still being fed from that mighty world of Outer Space. These are the teachings that are so prominent at the present moment; those coming forth from the Great Master, the Mighty Begotten Divinity of the Central Sun. The divine wealth that man threw down the pit, when Jacob took unto himself the divine glory of Mahanaim. (Genesis 32).

THIS WAS THE FIRST DESCENT OF THOSE HEAVENLY FORCES, WHEN THEY BEGAN TO IMPREGNATE THEMSELVES INTO THE BRAIN OF MAN, EVENTUALLY BECOMING THE HIGHER MIND, AS THE ATOMS IN THE CELLS OF THE BRAIN.

These were seen in a dream by Jacob as the heavenly Host passing up and down a ladder of light. It is here that Jacob, as the mind, receiving of this wealth, became the labourer in the depths.—Mercury trailing around after the Sun. For Jacob stole this wealth, as the mind, from Esau the Bull, who had to labour up and down the spine in ionising unification, that the spirit could be incorporated from the Seed of Scorpio. Thus we see by the Biblical Legends, that he was afraid of his brother Taurus becoming inflated and out of hand.

Therefore he wrestled with the Word at "Peniel," which in itself describes its inflated state of sex fire and desires, as he took this mighty expansion. But he won through and brought the wealth into expansion through the intercalary of Gemini to Sagittarius, as the greater man became born, as the sinew in the hollow of his thigh (Sagittarius) shrank, and his mind expanded. But as he did so, the Centaurs, Pans and Marsyas in the depths received their Mortuary meal and were turned in. Thus became the prototype for the future.

This is a mighty explanation of the birth of the mind, in fact, that which the whole of Genesis indicates. With ten of the sons manifesting through his duality of Virgo, the unfolding mind, with Rachel his feminine principle, the unfolding glory of Venus through Taurus, bringing into birth of Joseph, as the divinity of the Spirit.

I feel sure this will be able to help many, apart from giving just a brief understanding of how the Bible is but a Book of Scriptural Legends, and a full description of the life of man. It is through Taurus becoming active through the inflowing Seed via the breath, that Venus becomes reborn and dances the Le Ros Dance up and down the spine with Mars, the Arian warrior. Then through the Occult Word, expansion can be made, and the Word born as truth can expand up to the heights of Neptune.

Nobody knew better than the Ancient Egyptians of the wonders of astronomy and its sister

THE UNFOLDING GLORY OF THE HEAVENS

FIRST OF ALL, LET ME WISH EVERY OCCULT reader, happy reading for 1968, for I feel before this year has elapsed, mighty changes will have already begun to have spread their feelers. While I have already predicted that in five years; WELL! anything can have happened. So happy reading and mind expansion every one of you wise and far seeing "virgins."

The Descending Heavenly Forces

SINCE the Egyptian Mysteries have taken a turn for a much deeper context, I felt it would help you all a great deal, if I gave some minute explanation around their scientific depths. These being the poverty stricken sons from those previous worlds, who were able to survive the Deluge. This is the meaning that the angels kept not their first estate with the gods. Stars that became so retrograde in action, through man failing to honour and take their inflowing wealth and expanding, that they lost their place in procession.

wealth astrology. For they were left all the wealth from Babylonia, Assyria and Atlantis, and of which was walked into the earth by the Hyksos Kings. These being the poverty stricken sons from those previous worlds, who were able to survive the Deluge. This is the meaning that the angels kept not their first estate with the gods. Stars that became so retrograde in action, through man failing to honour and take their inflowing wealth and expanding, that they lost their place in procession.

They were ever waiting the return of the Sothic Cycle, the wealth placed into action by the Heroes, that of the Myths, as the ever returning wealth from their struggle. But here we must try to perceive how that was the lunar period, when man was assimilating the Starry Essence into his inner being, as his internal bodies. A time when the Prophets were trying to get the Race Elect to build up the Orion Man, through initiation set by Moses as the Tau Cross...

This he did not do, and when the Embodiment came down to the earth, it only became the extent of religion. But that which Merope repeated on the Solar Plane, and through the self-same Myths, brought the Central Sun into birth, raising all men up to the Virgin Plane. Whereas man had only gone up to Jupiter through religion, she now took man up to the Neptunian Plane by mastering all the elements, and placing the Orion MAN up on the Central Sun, as the Great and Mighty FLAME, the Begotten of the Divine Fatherhood.

Now it is a matter of capturing Outer World Space, can be seen how they ate up the harvest by no calendar, and never replaced it, so left themselves ever with twelfth house planets, though of course not known in that light in those times. I feel sure that this will account for the dark-skinned Races, especially in abundance in Africa, that covered much of this mighty wealth of the past.

They are no different to we white people, we being lucky in getting out first, but I am afraid, with many now falling back, and many of the dark-skinned Races getting free by mighty festivals became the union between heaven and earth, and fed man more potently through the gods. Papalism stopped this, moved the date and put up their own so-called saints, thereby cut off the power of the gods, and stoned the people through their higher mind receiving no food for expansion. Hence the pope is in the state he is in today, and papalism cannot help but DIE, for it is receiving no union with the heavens.

So it is no good Johnson and the pope trying to make arrangements between themselves to stop the Vietnam war, and declaring that it is the pope bringing this about by his holy unction, for he never receives it. I have been working on this problem, through the Gods, and which they are seeking to stop through man himself.

By all that has been said so far, it can be seen of how the Bible is very closely associated with the work of astrology. Job partaking of these mighty powers, as he brings down the wealth from the heavens.

"Canst thou bind the powers of the Pleiades, and loose the bands of Orion in expansion?"

Bring the heavenly man into birth as you capture and master the elements, while Saturn is the influence that hampers the mighty expansion of Jupiter, that prevents the mind expanding. This is Aquarius and Pisces, which is referred to as the Autumnal Equinox, but only because Egypt, where this took place, are reverse to us in their astrological reckoning. They are the Southern Hemisphere, that acts entirely in the reverse. This can be seen by the description given to Jupiter, Mars, Venus and Mercury, in the early understanding of expansion.

The Cosmic Calendar

I am sure by now, most of you will understand of how these planets slow up in their rounding, causing changes in their timing. But I would like to comment on these 72 years, as a 30th part of an Equinox. I have stated that we are in a Sothic Cycle now, when the Myths are returning their wealth. It was in the late 1890's that psychic and astrological wealth first made a public stand. Bringing the Second Advent in 1962 to the building up of the first 72 years of Aquarius.

So it is really a very important reckoning, and one that should be taken very seriously, although I have moved the whole of the Solar Day, 2160 years, in two or three years. Thereby setting the new Laws and fixing the wisdom, making the way strait for every man to accomplish and gain the Neptunian heights without danger. This is the Plane of Genius, which every man seeks to set alight.

If you notice, it will be seen how Egypt divided the whole of their country into 36 districts, corresponding with 36 stars. These were called Nomes, and if a Pharaoh mastered every element coinciding with these, he gained the red and white crowns.

This is what is meant by the war pictures on their temple columns, indicating their wrestle with the elements through themselves. It was such as this, that made Abu Simbul, Rameses, Tutankha-

(See plate in cols. 3 and 4)

TUTANKHAMEN

A mighty man who knew the dynamic depths of life; that which was embodied into the depths of the tomb, that when it was opened, blasted others to kingdom-come. (See text in col. 5).

through the Oxygenised Waters that are now coming down to earth. But for man to understand his own chart, which is the basic of his own unfolding up to the day he was born, he must try and understand much of how Astrology has been born from Astronomy, which in reality is the Planes of Descent of Creation.

By man mastering his own weaknesses, will he also master of the starry inflow from these Planes, that have been feeding man through their addition to the Prismic Breath. By this his internal Bodies have been brought to light, so until he can turn by belief to the Solar infusion of Oneness of mind ascension, he will go on drawing down of these Powers on this degree only.

The Seasons

SO we will return to the Mysteries, and go on describing them in the light of the prototype, for it can be seen by the fact that the forming of the calendar saved the situation, that before then they had no calendar. At least, no understanding of the measurement of 365 days. They may have had something, though I am inclined to think, more under Mother Nature and her Natural calling, which of course gave them their mighty abundance, through their attention to the land.

Now of course, Merope has brought all to Timelessness, for those who have gained the perceptory awareness. So it trying to expand their minds. Although through what I have put into operation under the guidance of the Great Powers, much has been accelerated to help man rise and come out of the terror of his dilemma.

Although Seasons still go on, and mark the resurrection of the soul every year, now by the inflowing Transcendental Waters and the uplifted Virgin Plane, man can carry out a whole year's change in a matter of Timelessness. So this must be taken into account in the study from now onwards, but depends entirely upon the soul studying. Yet I would suggest it is good to study, for all has expanded out of this past period of Time.

Dividing the whole path of the Sun's journey through the Signs, which in reality is the earth turning round on its axis, are the decanates, where the signs have three bites at the sign. These are the triplicities, which blend through the nature of the sign. For instance, Aries is Fire, Mars, while the second decanate blends with Leo and the third with Sagittarius; the three fiery Signs.

Do likewise with Earth, Water and Air. By the degree of the sign upon the cusp of the houses, would the soul be able to see what part of the sign he was wrestling with. A copy of these can be obtained from the Temple at the cost of 1/- each, with a copy of the whole heavens and the two Colures for 12/6 each. These being extremely helpful in one's studies, which even I am never without.

As soon as man connected the months with the gods, men, Hapsheput and Akhnaton so powerful. They being able to wear a large cartouche, (name), and build a special Tomb to hold their embalmed bodies, when they went over into spirit.

Then they returned as spirit beings, drawing off their own organs once again; they being organs of metabolism in their canopic jars. For these still gave them the power of earth inflow, with their mighty effigies at the door of these tombs. While the populace, who understood much of this wisdom, would go on worshipping and respecting them, still bringing down of their powers.

This is the idea of my Casket for my ashes when I pass, for if placed in this Temple after I have gone, will help those left to carry on my work and keep me well connected with them. Supplying all that I need up on the Plane of Vega, to be able to send wealth back to them. So you see, we cannot afford to discard the wisdom of those who laid the Laws, and which we are wrestling with at the present moment.

Our task is to expand them, bring their greater wisdom into birth, and release ourselves from the captivity of the slavery to them, and "loose the bands of Orion." By this, we can also see what damage papalism put into operation, and how they have been the means of killing their own people and any expansion.

This is where we now come to a greater understanding of a Sothic Cycle. This can last for 1461 years, the ever rebirth of the Phoenix, and has been seen as the Golden, Silver, Brass and Iron Ages, as a continuation of the Golden Age, the gods in Paradise, with the whole becoming more and more deteriorated. But as they did so under papalism, the elements, in the reverse, were born as Earth, Water, Fire and Air. Although they say each would end in a catastrophe, well, this is only because man will not let go.

So the Sothic Cycle slowed down, until I brought it into birth again, by burning in the Elements into the earth, through my own spinal structure, but most of all the Dynamic wealth of the Upper Ethers. Thereby bringing down to earth the Hydrogen Ethers.

An experience that was very gruelling, and could have only been done in ignorance to my conscious mind, although my sub-conscious probably knew all about it.

I expect there are those who would ask, "do you regret it now?" NO! not now that I have come through it, for I brought my beloved MASTER into His own. As well as these changes preventing an atomic war, through the scientists carrying out the diabolical creations that they were setting into birth. Although this meant my taking an extra "caning," it resulted in my sending man back onto the Virgin Plane once again. With him to yet recognise it, and take the wealth unto himself.

HENCE THE SOTHIC CYCLE IS THE WEALTH OF AGES GATHERED TOGETHER, AND THE SOUL GOING THROUGH ITS MIGHTY UNIFICATION.

IN THE SOUL HIMSELF, HE AS AN INITIATE, GOING THROUGH ONE INITIATION AFTER ANOTHER, THEN IN HIS SOTHIC CYCLE, A REBOUNDING PERIOD GATHERING TOGETHER ALL THAT HE HAD GAINED AND LEARNT, AND LIVING IN THE MANLY FORM OF THE ORION MAN.

Man bringing forth within himself, the divinity of a god, but in no light could he abuse it as so many do when they gain a first house planet. For as soon as you do not harmonise with the LAW, you fall backwards into the depths. The path on which you stand, high up above everybody else, is but a narrow ledge.

The soul is learning to manipulate the elements and the starry influences from the Creational Planes, and when he is able to do so, he twists the whole of the heavens around his head, completely changing the Universe and its TIMES. These would be the four Cardinal points, that the soul had to learn to master and capture.

Otherwise, everything that came to the depths, instead of being live active creations in the soul's hands, merely became stones, solid rock on the earth plane of action. This is seen clearly in the statement that the Egyptians earthed the truth, but were not able to leave a lasting imprint by treading it in.

This is what I am doing now, with the Solar finale being brought to their creation. The Greeks went a little way towards this, and Paul earthed some truth and brought legends to the world, that gave the roman catholics an opportunity to create wars, live fat, and murder at random.

The Unification

THE earth had to be turned right over from the lunar to the Solar, which I have done in raising up the Divinity from lust to Passional Glory by my belief, but furthermore, onto the Central Sun. Not that He was ever in lust, but being so in the eyes of mankind, I broke it by believing greater, and casting out the darkness of avidya.

The elements and what is taking place today, declare the witness of all that I have set into action. It was because papalism took this wisdom and did what they so willed, that the Aquarian Water-pot was dry, and religion completely buried under the crypts of their own church foundation. There had to be a cleaning out before the New World could begin, and now all has been set, and the New World is established.

Man is Atlas, with the whole world upon his shoulders. As man so labours, will he perform a feat and rise up above another; I shot right up to the Central Sun, placed the Divinity up there by my belief, then nobody could interfere, and the Mighty Flame as the Great Heavenly Divinity ruled and guided the earth as a LIVING GOD. While I had to be HIS footstool and His guiding mind-creation in matter.

Hence the Occult Gazette is His Paper, His Voice, and He as the Great Christ and Fatherhood, is the Intelligencia of the Cosmos. The whole world being reborn, with prosperity on the way, but not the way that man wants it, but the way it is decreed by the Law as the reborn heavens. I often wonder what the rebound on the Unions is going to be, they causing so much trouble and impediment, at a time when Harold Wilson is trying to carry out what the Great Divinity had Decreed.

Let us go back to the wisdom of rock and stone foundation; a stone being inflowing glory with a solid foundation from the past. Something that we take, and by our mind, through alchemical effluvia, transmute into a greater mind expansion of light. So it either left a stone through you becoming stoned, or became light to the heavens in your aspiration of spinning up glory.

A little island off the North of Wales, called the Isle of Anglesey, is covered in these stones, above and below ground. Crossing over a bridge at Bangor, you come to a little world completely cut off from everybody, with these stones in the gardens and farms of the people. It seems quite dead as far as I can remember, for in a car you can circle the island quite easily.

It must have been where the Druids earthed their final wealth, and left behind stones born from a lunar degree. But what is most outstanding, these were actually the elements brought down and solidified in the same way as a mountain, where a Stream has been earthed and never brought to any fullness of creation. It never stopped, and piled up into rocky heights, and whether the scientist agrees on this or not, it is a FACT.

All this brings a clearer point to Prometheus, he that is chained to the rock he created, with the vultures pecking out his liver in alchemicalisation, ever changing his metabolism until he became equal to the wealth he declared. Then he would have to master it and earth it as a LAW. Thereby lifting up the heavens, in the Planes becoming elevated and alight, through their wealth brought to light.

Prometheus was the draw-down of the wealth and the declaration, with Epimetheus as the after-thought of action. With Atlas as the worker and the labourer of change, by involving the spirit as the Scorpio Seed. With Menotius as the re-creator in polarity expansion. These four are the workers of the Spinal column, as the four lower vertebrae and the cervical. This includes Scorpio as the Tail or cauda equina, where the Kundalini resides as the un-risen fire.

Here again we see the mystery of the Odyssey, where Ulysses travelled up to the heights, saw Polyphemus and declared his name was No MAN, until he could return and tread it into the depths; with Athena, who takes snakes from giants and whirls them aloft, as those who have gathered enormous wealth, and as wisdom, sent it up to the heights.

Thus Horus is the initiate who masters and becomes an Apollo, a Solar-born soul. He then becomes the time-god, in all becoming Timelessness, and he the Law or creator of all that can be.

Nobody ever reached this far, until I placed the Solar Deity up as the Divine Intelligencia, then the heavens became Divinity born, and the true measure of heaven and earth was justified. Now we are all set and ready for the Great Work to bring forth its dynamic glory in the future Divine World of Unification, as the Sea of Divine Consciousness.

For all is Atomic Born and unified in divine unification, whereby all is ready to emerge out of itself, and bring untold glory to both the heavens and the earth.

For the Central Sun is the Glory that is absorbing all, and the Divine Magnitude that is bringing unto all the WISDOM of the Mighty UNSEEN.

ALL THAT HAS BEEN IS BUT A PART OF WHAT HAS BECOME; THAT WHICH HAS COME OUT OF ITSELF, AND IS THE MEANS OF ALL BECOMING THE MIGHTY WORLD OF INCANDESCENT GLORY, MAGNITUDE DIVINE.

PROMETHEUS

THE mighty mystery of alchemicalisation, that all who miss the perceptory awareness, have to pass along its travails. Until Epimetheus opens up the gates and Atlas takes the charging, with Menotius carrying the soul up to the heights, into the garden of the Gods.

THE FREQUENCY NOW AS RISEN SENSITIVITY with the gyroscopic spin, the striking of the point as a dynamic atomic rebirth, the glory of the soul. The expansion of the heights to become, to change the FACE OF TIME, thereby bringing a return down South, the mighty wealth of polarity. For the soul must now be prepared to meet the Fires that can cause the EL Powers to dance, with the heart to find its true purpose in the rebirth of life. That the glories of the golden Word, now dancing in the blood, can come forth as the audible Voice, and sound upon the ear. The Word now born from the Rhythm of the Spheres, to be raised up as the golden point of the heart, the mighty stabiliser of Truth, the light and glories of the MIND.

Unfolding of the Divine Face

THE awakening of the Spirit as the true Christos within the soul, that now by reality will be sent up to the heights as adoration and aspiration offered up in the rebirth of life.

Thus on the newly created altar of belief, must the foundation go forth; a rarity now to be given birth upon that glorious Solar Road. For the new-born truth, as vague as it may be, will become the ever-growing Conscious Mind of the Intelligencia, the ARC of the coming DAY. Whereby the practical cunning of the Earth is now matched by its polarity, the Super-Cunning of the growing heights, in the unification well blended.

With the grinding-in of the fluidic lunar states of the mysterious Neptune, that the Solar Rhythm can now predominate, and become the rising orb of the day. Thereby bringing forth the grinding factor of the Unseen Thought, that which must be brought forth in its divine balanced commendation, to assail as glorious reformed light up to those mighty Heights.

Beauty and glory to swell the Arc, and raise the mighty Prism, that God and man can unfold the FACE into its intended Divinity. The Microprosopus brought forth from the unfolding Waters, the glorious Rhythm of the Heights, the dancing undulation binding fen and factor. For Rhythm is the unifying action between depths and heights, whereby the inaudible and the audible become as a reborn atomic point of Divinity, the Solar consciousness of that glorious Heavenly Life.

For now it must be seen that Rhythm in its earth-born creation, becomes the Solar expression of the lunar emotions; that which had only found fluidic Waters, now the sparking glory of the audible voice. The sensitivity of the unifying life that can now bring forth the royalty of the mind, the glory of the heavenly Causation. Yet that which can by its mighty Urania. But now seeking for the atomic point of Truth through the balanced Rhythm of the Galactic Field; the atomic perceptory point being the consuming Fire, turning all subsidiary states into oneness.

Raising the Kundalini Fire

SO however high the soul makes flight, the spinal rod is the mystic Thyrsus, the mysterious creation of the day born from night, the mysterious glory of the soul born as mind. For here we see the galactic field that has comparison with the Axis of the Universe, and as the soul so raises his activity, does the world come forth in its dynamic glory. Infusing the planes below with divine Adamic Dust, the very Fire of the Nuclei, causing the young and lower states to cut away of the animal growth, and start raising up the Spirit.

That which, by binding the male and female principles, will bring into birth the etheric body, raising the soul up out of the dregs of matter. That now lost in the depths of earth, whereby it can become their Christos purpose, and the radiant Master's Voice. The rebirth of the Adamic Dust, as the emancipation of the Solar world. For every man must return back to the Heights, being a part of the Heavenly Kingdom.

The Adamic Dust being the very Blue-print of the Fire out of the Nuclei, the first state of being; Abraham who came out of the Fire, the land of Ur. Therefore the Adamic Dust which is bringing all into birth, is the Pre-generation of the Fire, with the fire out of the Fire being the Ultra-sonic as the Reality of LIFE.

For it is the Arabic states that are the wealth of the soul, those born out of the desert from their union with the starry heights. They being the first Scapegoats driven out into the desert, and who, in their wanderings, found the wealth that man today shuns, thereby cutting off the dynamic depths of their roots. For all the old Law as that wealth must be balanced, otherwise it will only return as unbalanced states. Creations of multiplicity intensified and glorified in all their spreading duality.

Therefore it can only be when WOMAN gets back, that all is blended and unified. For she is the one who left the Adamic heights to bring status to the depths, and must become so purified as to return back as the sparking Uranus. The Fire alive as the Ariel mind, the radiant Adamic Dust; the soul completely blended up into a state of oneness, that of Atomic light, through the Rhythm activated from depths to heights.

That brought into being by the intercalary action of the celestial hosts gathered in the soul; the perceptory principle brought into birth by the Dance of Le Ros, the Intercalary Union with the Heights. This being the struggle that Jacob made at the beginning of time, with man throwing Joseph the Yod of God down into the depths of the pit.

The task of woman having been, through all the Ages in the depths, to bring forth the positive principle, by raising up the birth of the mind. Thus bringing forth man as the potential Fatherhood by polarity comparison, the glory of the Heights. But she ate the information off the wrong tree, and brought man forth out of the lower sensitivity of desire.

Hence it can only be Mars who can get her back up to the heights, through the plowing of the Bull. The Martian fire ever feeding the plowing Bovine, bringing the Kundalini Fire dancing up the Fennel stick, opening up the radiance of the mind.

Here we see the activity of that galactic field, with the sensitivity going forth all over the body radiation. Yet far more systematic than man or science ever realises. Not just driven forth by drugs or food, but by the right of wealth taken from the Heights, and is the justice that man receives in his status of Karmic rebirth.

Wealth taken as dynamic fire from the Heights and not assimilated by the sensory action of the spinal nervous system, bringing an extenuated state that has to be ever readjusted, until the spinal column can drive the load up to the heights.

The irrational mind having to slowly wend her way up, raising the sensitivity until she can become one in the unity of understanding with the rational mind of the heights. But where the soul makes no attempt, the fire taken burns away the nerstrength, turn into mind Cunning, the evil streak of fledged genius in the criminal mind.

For here we see the descent of the Ultra-sonic, which in itself is construction and destruction, the Element of Superwill brought forth by the striking forward of Aries. The son struggle, the pioneer of the soul, the raiser up of the heavenly Waters. The inaudible having become audible, after the sacrificing of the animal creation accrued, through the earth struggle.

Yet the mighty Fire of the Great Unseen Creator, that which is now coming to the Earth, will bring the balance that the Vesta Goddess has ever been seeking to bring forth into action. She who must bring balance ere she goes, otherwise as the revolving Pole Star, will never be able to control the Earth as the guiding factor of Humanity.

Therefore, here we find the descending lights, the glorious Rhythm of the Waters, the unfolding factor of the heights and depths, that can now portray the Road of the unfolding future.

For with the caduceus, the divining rod of the heavens, now before us, man can perceive the mystic answer to the little mouse running up and down the clock, trying to find the answer to time-less-ness. While the soul seeking diligently for the mighty wealth buried in the depths, must now begin digging deep into the earth to open up the well of fluidity lost by the soul in its fall.

For like Isaac,—who uncovered the well for Rebecca and watered of her sheep, then dug more and more to open the way for her to bring Jacob-Mercury into birth,—must the soul ever repeat the story, but on a higher plane of existence. And whether of the New City of Timelessness, or planes of just beginning, must it ever be repeated until the perceptory principle is born, and the soul dancing as the Ariel being. Ever keeping the creative side of Aries alive, bringing the Rebeccas into birth.

For as then, so now as Venus and Aries, is the Saturn state as the stone broken up, and Venus to rise as Venus-

OEDIPUS

AS he looked into the face of that mighty sphinx he knew that she was the magnetic quicksand that was holding him to the depths. In that swift moment he perceived the truth, but could he make the break from her seductive glory? (See text on page 11, col. 4).

vous system, leaving the soul cut-off from the heights, and blank and blind in the depths. Thus spinal trouble as paralysis, leukaemia and mental deficiency are the evils of the solid flesh.

This is where the Scapegoat plays the role of 'making strait the gate,' that every soul can tread the path of every celestial direction, and be born of every Host in the Heights. Where Merope became an Isotope, taking every planetary force and making it secure.

A WAY SUITABLE FOR ALL MEN TO TRAVEL UP TO THE HEIGHTS TO OBTAIN THE NEPTUNIAN GLORY, THE CHRISTOS BIRTH OF THE MIND.

The 'unbalance' that takes place is the nervous system getting acclimatised to the changing frequency of Fire, whereby the only answer is 'seeking for the golden fish,' the Word crowned with the glory of truth. The glory prevailing between God and man is the only answer; but where no linkage has been made, the soul is ever floundering in a sea of multiplicity and duality.

The Adamic Fires being the atomic fires, which are ever prevailing, but man meeting them on different states of comprehension. The feminine principle now awakened to the wisdom taken, and bringing forth her status of belief. With her next task being expansion of that taken, whereby she can bring forth greater light to the heights; her motive being in her gyrosopic spin, to find the atomic point of Truth.

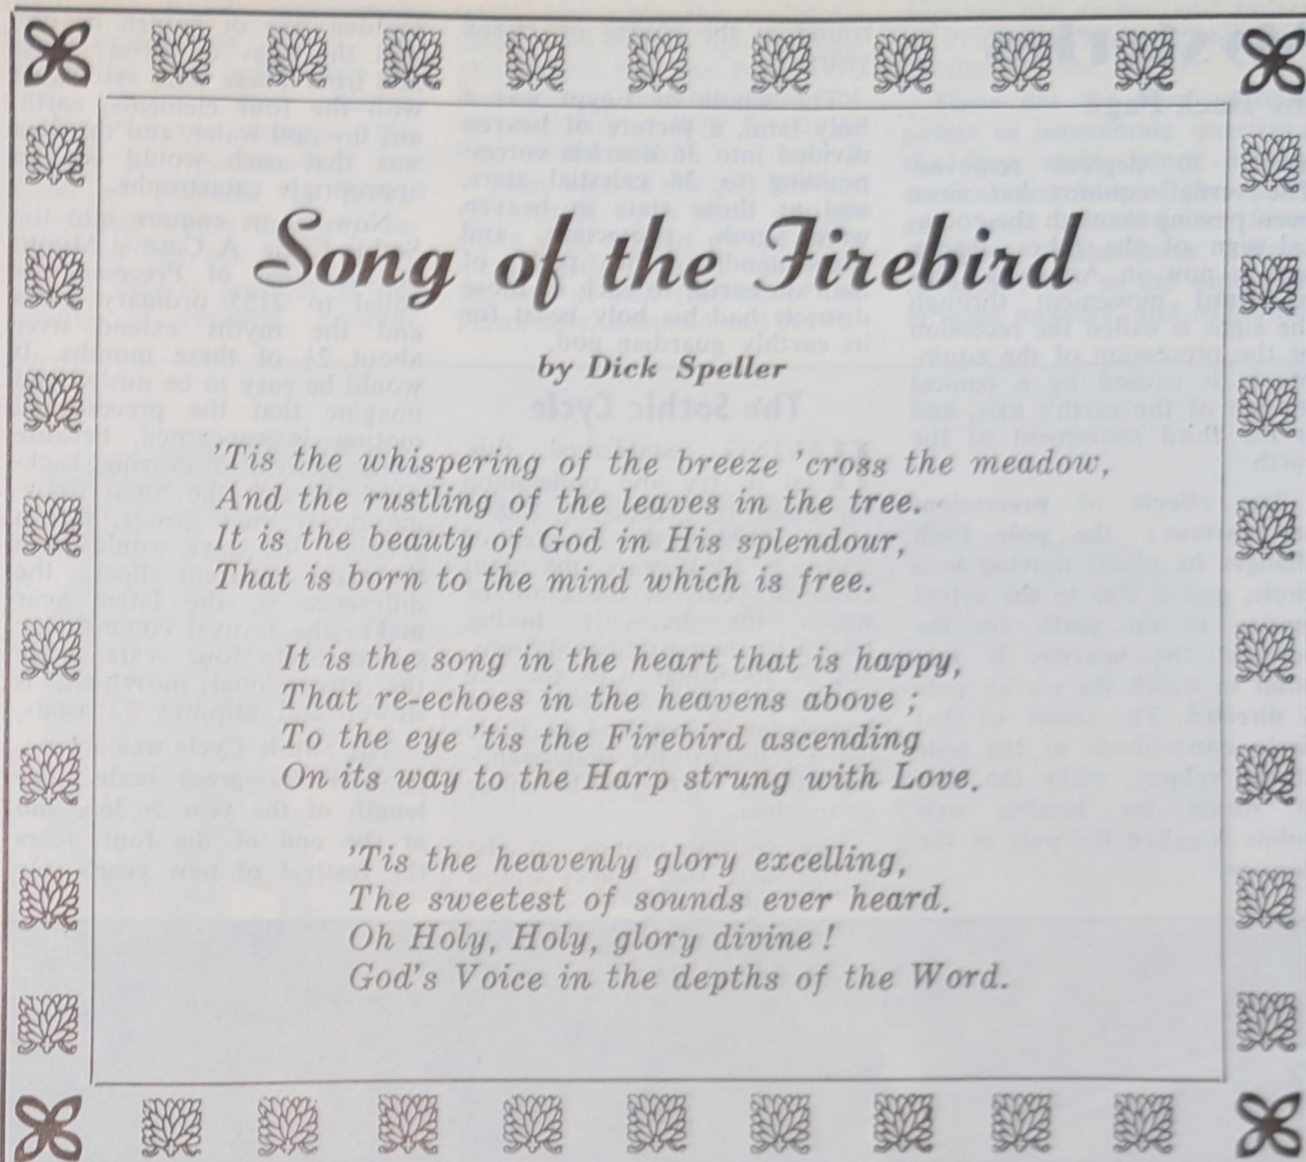

The full status of depths and heights as root and blossoming that produces the fruit. Then that original thought creation has been concluded, which is the feminine principle's task on every status of belief established. This is where exhilaration begins the process, the pot boiling the steam in the depths and rising as the stimulus of the soul, bringing the Spanish dancers as the black and white states swirling round and round in unism of inter-blending.

Re-Creating of the Solar Orb

THE soul now able to climb up the blended states as a status of unfoldment; it being here as the extension of the nervous system in raised-up sensitivity and frequency, where the struggle begins. The bringing of the lower El powers up to the higher EL Powers, and mastering of the animal states in the unity.

This is where the mastery of the lion and leopard powers, results in the mastery of the Elephant powers, the ancient powers of the depths; which in polarity are the EL Powers of the heights and depths, and the unity which brings into birth the Fatherhood. The birth of the Elohim within the soul, the POSITIVE creation of soul life.

It is by the activity up and down the spine in the Bull plowing, that Mars feeds Venus and gives her a new status of Fire through the sex infusion from the heights. The soul being able to absorb a higher frequency of the Ruach with

Song of the Firebird

by Dick Speller

*'Tis the whispering of the breeze 'cross the meadow,
And the rustling of the leaves in the tree.
It is the beauty of God in His splendour,
That is born to the mind which is free.*

*It is the song in the heart that is happy,
That re-echoes in the heavens above;
To the eye 'tis the Firebird ascending
On its way to the Harp strung with Love.*

*'Tis the heavenly glory excelling,
The sweetest of sounds ever heard.
Oh Holy, Holy, glory divine!
God's Voice in the depths of the Word.*

every breath, and being able to take the Rhythm and maintain the rising frequency, or take the Word extraction in an unbalanced way. Thus leaving the soul born in multiplicity, and accounts for the birth of Jacob and Esau, and Pharez and Zarah.

Dual states of the past that had a dynamic effect upon the Race, which Merope has been trying to blend-up to bring the soul back to a state of ONENESS, its original context. Yet through the experience of life, having built a spiritual garment of the mind, giving also to the Heights the raised up Arc as the Intelligencia.

For it is by man's brilliancy as the risen mind Fire that the Solar Orb was and is re-created. The light of Day out of the night of darkness, but for the time, man having only the duality of day and night, positive and negative, male and female. The black and white states that exist all through the blood context.

MAN'S TASK BEING TO BLEND THEM UP IN PERFECT UNISM, BRINGING A RAISED-UP STATUS OF FREQUENCY; MAN BORN OF THE HIGHER SENSITIVITY.

Although this may in the Scapegoat bring a more stressing time, it will in the end result in Androgynicity. For all the time the LAWS in the heights are changing, and man in the depths being fed with new life. That which cannot be refuted, for all mankind are being fed on the new status of belief, bringing a change of thought and action, a new creative endeavour.

This being the present Hierarchical way of mastering the Race and its inertia, but all brought into birth by Merope and her mastery of the Powers. Now her task is to give to the heavens, Genius of new thought, that they can water the Earth with expansion of spiritual rebirth.

THE SOUL TURNING FROM 'MORTAL' TO 'IMMORTAL,' ETHEREALISED BEINGS OF THE ADAMIC RACE.

Those born from the Chinese Roots, and now meeting their Reality. This has already taken place as a Cosmic creation, but has to be fulfilled as the rebirth by Merope treading it into the depths as a status of creative purpose.

For she had risen up so high in her own rebirth, that she brought all to this revolution, which resulted in Electrification. The blending of her spiritual belief, bringing it to a status of electrified glory. The uniting of the magnetic with the atomic bringing the electromagnetic unified in the Cosmos, but not in man himself. This could only come by her persistence, that even Vesta the Pole Star activity, could be set into motion. The complete rising up of Cancer into the Ursa Major, thereby bringing a world reborn.

Again Merope fulfilled this in the Cosmos, but was awaiting the completion in her own stepping forth as a stabilised factor of action and creation. This is where Merope has monopoly over all sciences, for they only re-create through the earth-mineral, while she feeds man through the spirit, thereby creating a spiritual garment of a mind status.

The spirit becoming predominant, and risen up as the true Christos-born state within the soul as the immortal mind consciousness. For it only needed the mind consciousness to be born, which in fixed scientific minds, takes time as unto that of physical rebirth.

Activating the Divine Elements

THE return of the Atomic Dust charged with wisdom created by Merope, alone solves the mystery of the Hierarchs making a sweeping victory for a Labour Government, but also bringing new life and thought to the world. The chief action being in Merope obtaining in Rhythm, and re-feeding in Rhythm, that whereby she is ever keeping man fed with the status of Truth. This in itself bringing a change-over from 'mortal' to 'immortal' through etherealisation.

A status where the blood corpuscles turn from red to white; all animal states abolished, and the soul risen up into its spiritual context, but now as a created mind. Yet here we find one of the greatest mysteries of life, which the ordinary layman will find hard to comprehend. That which explains the rhyme and reason for the intricate purpose of initiation. Why a soul is forced to partake of a depth to cleanse away the mighty accumulation of sand and driftwood high.

"Could seven maids with seven mops, clear away all this sand in half a year of time?"

Deep down in the depths of TIME, in the world of the Middle Kingdom, man grew many roots in the Chinese creation, the Age of depth and searching. Great wealth set into action, owing to their drawing down of mighty Dragon Fires, which were already there, but not in active creation. This they did to feed their Emperor with glowing fiery life, for he was the Lord High Admiral who directed all into action.

He that ruled the Nation like a rod of iron, never allowing them to move one way or another. Therefore it is these roots that the present soul finds difficult to sever, and often the means of making him an Oedipus, one held fast by the quicksands of time.

This is the basic of our mystery, and the depths we now seek to relate, but one that holds a deep story of sorrow and anchorage that brought disaster in its train. One born from mighty roots gathered in that Age, strode forth as a Kubla Khan, one over-loaded with wealth and fire that they had gathered by stress and strain.

With wealth unsolved and fire raw and hoary in his rock of growth; the accumulation of many Ages far beyond the comprehension of man. Yet wealth that could not be denied, and must be returned to the Heights some time now, or never. For all Fire as Adamic Dust must return to the mighty Nuclei, it being by the Law of Rebirth, called back to its home of Rest. But now as the light of man's mind, the glory of experience and growth.

Thus this Fire went forth as soul creation, but sadly lacking in rhythm to keep a balance in its way of forthcoming. Therefore the soul was ever in a state of wanting, a ruthless Saturn state of "Me" and "Mine" that never found peace or respite.

Hence life was one long purgatory of struggle through the many Ages; the Fire "boiling and spitting," ever seeking for an answer to its seething baseness. Rolling and driving, gnawing and biting, but still no answer came to its craving. Then as the Age of Taurus dawned, the way of life was opened once again.

Wealth in abundance was sent down to man, with a Goddess to stir and fire the Elements, and lead them in a way of understanding. But the more it descended, the more man danced with the joys and glories of mind superficiality. The magnitude of intellectualism that raised him high, and gave conquest, as Caliph and Sultan fought for power, as mind creation of achievement.

But once again, never sought for in the name of the Spirit, whereby the wealth of the mighty Heights fed and led the seeker. Hence all was raised on false fire, the wealth of lust and desire. Here we find Hassan al Raschid, the soul growth of the past, now seeking for the wherewithal to drive on the roots of time. He who was ruthless in his quarrying, for mercy held no sway with him seeking the unfoldment of life.

The Fires were high, the accomplishment little, causing the third to go down into the depths, ever filling up the maze of life with continual repetition. Thus the mount in that depth grew deep, with Venus falling into the pit, deep into the adder's den.

For as Aphrodite rolled up on the shores of Byblos with the last wave, she came forth with her garments flaming alight, and rushed back to Delphi in shame. Therefore Mars and Venus were well apart, with Uranus under a mount of stone; yet with so much wealth from Ages of growth, that the soul survived by its mighty graft.

Much sadness and sorrow did it accrue in the Age of Medo-Persia, where as Hassan al Raschid he ruthlessly took, causing Merope to flounder. Forcing her who was seeking to retrieve the wealth of the Heavenly Gods, to become the tool of the merchant slave market, the trailing of the desert. Where she passed down the scale from bad to worse, diseased and battered into 'death.' Thus her task in this life of atomic possibility, was to retrieve her wealth that she had lost in that vital but misused Age. For the Law is, that whatever you take you must hold, conquer and master; not ruthlessly take and throw away as something desired, then forgotten.

This is what Hassan al Raschid had not yet learnt, and a lesson building up as an enormous pile of sand. He had yet to learn, that all wealth achieved must be sent back to the Heights, bringing the Gods to becoming radiant and dancing with light. Here there was wealth that had been battered and ruined, by one ruthless in their taking; therefore the Law now was demanding its extensive 'toll' through the Scapegoat of the Age.

Egyptian Mysteries

MERCURY OR HERMES was a divinity stationed at the equinox, charged with the business of recording the years, and keeping true time. This was a rival of Thoth, the divinity of a previous precessional.

The Reality of Change

TO see the depth of this pronouncement, let us realise that the earth moves, but it seems as though the heavens move; for each particular motion of the earth there is a different apparent motion of the heavens, and a new star or body rises up. The priest-astronomer and myth-makers of antiquity, were acquainted with three motions of the earth in their effects, if not in themselves; yet the real answer was fulfilled in man himself.

The first was the daily rotation which gives the succession of day and night, and led to the belief in the first instance that the earth occupied a central position and the heavens revolved around it. It was observed that there was a pole or pivot around which the stars moved in circles of lesser or greater radius according to their distance from the centre.

The more distant ones, owing to their larger circle went below the earth during a part of their course, rose in the east in the evening and ascended the sky as the sun does in the morning. They reached their highest point or culmination at midnight, and descended and passed out of view in the west.

The second motion of the earth is its annual revolution, its journey round the Sun, bringing the seasons of the year. Before the ancients knew that the earth made this journey, they would be aware of its effects; not only in the changing seasons, but in the altered aspect of the starry sky.

The star that was on the eastern horizon when the sun went down on the first evening, would be high above it at the time of sunset a month later. New stars would show themselves below it and a corresponding set of stars would have gone down in the west before the darkness could allow them to be seen.

When half the year had glided by, lost stars began to come up again on the eastern side and in the evening; thus the circle of change was complete. Taking the ecliptic circle, the sun's path, half of it would be above the earth and half below; the stars scattered along the visible half might be viewed as six groups, and when the year had elapsed, the other half of the ecliptic would furnish six more. One group would disappear every month on the western side and another group push up on the eastern side.

The groups called the Ram, etc., would become the names and signs identified with the twelve months, and would have dynamic significance to the establishers. So if we perceive the Ram as the spring sign and the beginning of the year, this will be every year. But a slow change has been in progress, the Ram has been arriving about twenty minutes earlier each spring, and in the course of seventy-two years there is a whole day of difference. In the whole thirty times seventy-two there will be a whole month's difference, and the Ram will no more continue to mark the spring commencement  $72 \times 30 = 2160$  a complete equinox and Solar Day.

The Ram that marked the vernal equinox for two thousand years broke contract soon after 125 B.C. and is now round in the course of 25,868 years.

The whole of Egypt was a holy land, a picture of heaven divided into 36 districts corresponding to 36 celestial stars, and as those stars in heaven were gods protecting and superintending the path of man on earth, so each of those districts had his holy beast for its earthly guardian god.

The Sothic Cycle

HAVING established this, let us try and understand the Cycle of Precession, 25,868 years. While the Cycle of Sothis is 1461 years, the great cosmical year, at the close of which the heavenly bodies return to their original stations, and is identified with the life of the phoenix. So some little knowledge is required of these two Cycles for the understanding of the myths to be made quite clear.

The conical motion of the earth's axis that marks out a Golden Age of golden beauty, and the ages of silver, brass and iron. These were associated with the four elements, earth, air, fire and water, and the idea was that each would end in appropriate catastrophe.

Now let us enquire into the Sothic Cycle. A Cosmic Month of the Year of Precession is equal to 2155 ordinary years and the myths extend over about  $2\frac{1}{2}$  of these months. It would be easy to be misled and imagine that the precessional motion is concerned, because some festival is moving backward through the Signs drawing down their power. But a year of 365 days would have the same apparent effect; the difference is, the latter year makes the festival come a day sooner every four years, while the precessional movement is slower and requires 72 years.

The Sothic Cycle was a time-piece on a great scale. The length of the year is 365, and at the end of the four years the festival of new year's day

The first days of the Sothic could never come more than once in a king's reign, and each following month was as the heir and successor of this kingship; while the series of twelve would become a dynasty of kings in the mythic story.

The quarter points or epochs would offer unusual ground for myths because they exhibited the paradox of solstice and equinox in one place, or two equinoxes in rivalry; but not unlikely to witness contention among men. The entire circuit, which was accomplished in 1460 natural years, required 1461 calendar years for its completion, because a  $\frac{1}{4}$  of a day was left out at every annual revolution and an extra put in before beginning a new cycle.

Every year a fragment of a day was crowded out of life like a babe smothered and hidden in the sand; or all the fragments might be conceived of as the torn limbs of one body. At the end of the cycle the scattered limbs were brought together and the body lived again in manly form as Osiris or Adonis. The truths relating to the Sothic year, or the facts involved in this method or incidental to this calendar, were set forth in figure and allegory, and the stories are known as myths.

In the first instances there may have been no intention to withhold knowledge from the people, for it was natural for men to speak in figure and to relate a story by gesture and action, but in later ages when hieroglyphic signs became conventionalised, and language assumed a more prosaic form, priestly symbols, ceremonies and stories ceased to be understood. Through not being modernised with common speech, they became a secret language and required to be explained. Eventually the meaning was forgotten and Egyptian priests of a later period became destitute of all scientific and astronomical knowledge.

ONLY ANCIENT SOULS WHO PASS THROUGH SEVERE INITIATIONS AND

PRIVATIONS CAN RECAPTURE THIS WISDOM AND SAVE THE WORLD BY THEIR ENLIGHTENMENT.

The later priests merely became guides and cicerones who showed the temples and their curiosities to foreigners. They performed sacred rites like the Papal priests of modern day, but did not study philosophy and astronomy like the priests of old.

Thus the conclusion of a Sothic Cycle, which linked with the ancient past, brought the advent of the next, and was looked forward to as a judgement and new order of things; a coming Saviour and a heavenly kingdom as an example for all men. In fact it was going to restore the harmony between the calendar and the heavens.

North, south, east and west as East, West, North and South assert themselves in every system. The two solstices and two equinoxes are the four quarter points of the year, and one or other of them has always been chosen for the year's beginning.

In the Great Year the quarter-points were bound to have corresponding significance, and the cities or nations who used the Sothic Cycle were not obliged to agree as to the point of commencement. So according to their growth and beliefs the god who was the lord of the year would have the New Year's day for his festival; while the other quarter days were associated with subordinate divinities, or were the seats of the rival gods of rival systems.

Many important divinities are found to be associated with the

INITIATION

O' Initiate, think well ere you tread, but if you do, go forth with firm footing, head held high, and in the embracement of the Divine Godhead. (See text in col. 5).

The pole of the heavens revolves round the pole of the ecliptic in 25,868 years; thus would give man a succession of pole stars. So while the previous pole star was in the tail of the Little Bear, the office was served some 14,000 years by the star Vega in the constellation of the Lyre, which has now taken over once again.

BUT WITH A DIFFERENT POLE STAR AS CENTRE, ALL THE DIURNAL CIRCLES OF THE STARS ARE DIFFERENT, AND EVERY GIVEN CIRCLE AT A MEASURED DISTANCE FROM THE POLE COMPRISES DIFFERENT SETS OF STARS, AND OFTEN CARRIES OFF ONE OR TWO OLD ONES.

This is sometimes represented in the myths, but more important is the general unfaithfulness of these angels of light to their old allegiance. On the ecliptic there is a change manifested especially where the circle cuts the equinoctial at two opposite points. These recede and go circle in the heavens of  $23\frac{1}{2}$  degrees radius, is the going round of the 25,868 years. The entire globe of the earth swaying like a top, every part of it preserving the same relation to its own pole, with the equinoctial point on the equator moving all round the ecliptic in the same time that the pole goes round the higher circle. But this movement is backward through the signs from the Ram to the Fishes and the Waterman; whereas the Sun's annual course through the signs follows the order of the Ram, the Bull and the Twins.

Assuming the Great Year of Precession to have 365 days, one of its days will be about 72 ordinary years. This is one aspect of the fact that the recession of the equinox brings the spring a whole day sooner in the course of 72 years.

The Egyptians had a knowledge of this Great Year without living through it, though the priests of Egypt did name it. It was the tradition of the Great Year with its four long seasons that gave rise to the doctrine of four Ages; the comes one day sooner. Thus the beginning of the year was an important historical event and became the subject of myth and legend.

The Sothic year being equal to 1460 years, one Sothic month is equal to 120 years. To give these 30 days each the New Year's festival, after taking 120 years to move backwards through December, enters in the 121st year the month of November in three times the Autumn equinox. Everything is twisted a  $\frac{1}{4}$  round by the erroneous calendar of 360 years; in another five it would be halfway round.

The Mythical Application

TO find a way through such a calendar must have been perplexing and man sure to err therein. The man on the farm would not find it safe to trust the wisdom of his ancestors, and the agriculturist was unlettered. Thus he would seek guidance from the priest who was at the same time the astronomer, as the festival of the gods must be obeyed.

four quarters; and for this and other reasons the quarters must have their symbols, and accounts for the many festivals to the lesser gods, or the creation to bring about fulfilment.

The cardinal points are marked in the mythic stories by four stones to imply their fixity; their pointer-stones to (See plate on this page) indicate the direction of sun-rising on the quarter days. These stones serve as the bases of four pillars which are really four meridians which arch upwards and meet in the heaven's vault, and misconceived as solid columns. Thus it must be seen, the Greeks in their "myth-making-age"—whether barbarians or not—were not so ignorant of elementary astronomy as to fancy a solid dome of sky resting on a wooden pole or stone props.

The Basic Divinities

WHEN the Babylonians in their calendar and zodiac called the stone of the spring equinox the Stone of Foundation, it signified that their calendar and the religious system were built upon it and their first meridian passed through it. This is exemplified by the stone at Delphi which was a symbol in that way. What was called by the Delphians the navel made of white stone, is according to their tradition, the centre of the world. The first solid state where the heights made unity with the depths and word came forth.

The Egyptians earthed the truth or prototype, but were not able to leave behind a clear understanding of their findings.

The Greeks came a great deal nearer to solving the mysteries by bringing forth unity from those mysteries, whether we believe it or not.

Then Paul earthed yet greater depths which brought expansion to the world, but his true works were never really revealed, for what was the solar God coming down to earth and going down into the under-world to make complete unity in relativity and establishment, merely became a dying god on a cross of wood, with man receiving no more expansion and life, than ritual of mass and litany at an altar.

TRUTH AND UNDERSTANDING THAT COULD HAVE BROUGHT HIM GROWTH, AND MOTHER NATURE LIFE, WAS NEVER FORTHCOMING, SO NOW IN THE AQUARIAN AGE THE WATER-POT IS DRY.

The Greeks beheld four fixed rocks that were the firm foundation upon which the temple of the heavens was built; the Atlas columns rising thence into the dome, and unless they kept their places, the seasons would invade one another and the festivals of the gods would be deranged; their fire, the divine order of the world, would be disturbed.

In the ritual of the Egyptian god Ptah, the city of Rameses is said to be "solid upon the earth like the four pillars of the firmament", and linked with man's four vertebrae that supported the medulla oblongata that controlled the mind memory where all came forth from the past, and where all entered into when fully created.

As the chief divinities were ultimately associated with the equinoxes and solstices, they became in companionship with the Stones, or established points, so that the stone became a symbol of the god, and represented him as though it were his statue.

Zeus was called the "Stone" because he was the expansion that brought the heights and the depths into operation; their god which represented their heights of Grace. In Rome the most solid form of oath was "Per Jovem Lapidem"; by Jupiter the Stone: or Ra-Men-Ra, the Rock of Gibralta as Mary Magdalene swore to carry on where he left off.

Once this is grasped as the solidity of creation, brought lately cry out"; the establishment made by him upon certain phenomena that the Jews were finding very searching and not so predictory in their favour as they would wish.

Then we find the god Hermes represented by a plain upright stone with a head placed on a quadrangular figure; while the Romans at their festivals of the Terminalia, anointed and crown-

Japetus, the archer and father of Prometheus, was given three brothers in the myths.

These are the four cardinal points as astronomic quarters; the four main bones in the cervical vertebrae of the spine, and were Prometheus forethought, Epimetheus afterthought, Atlas as the supporter in mind memory, and Menotius arrived at the summer solstice. In actual practice, the solstice, which by the Cecrops calendar was the beginning of the year, had become associated with both equinoxes simultaneously. When the festival of Zeus drifting with the Sothic Year, came to the Autumn Equinox, it was 2782 B.C., the time of Prometheus.

Then we get Athena who will not use the ecliptic circle along which the great Serpent of Mythology lies, for she snatches up snakes from the giants and whirls them up aloft. Thus she will either use the Capella circle or the circle in which the pole moves; therefore the serpent that had twined round the infant Erichthonius escaped into Athena's shield. She is sung as the dragoness in the Orphic hymn 32.

This is because she perceived the high circle of polar movement was a serpent with its tail in its mouth even as the ecliptic itself, which was useful as measuring time. Celestial meridians drawn from the pole of the ecliptic to the ecliptic—360 of them, one degree apart—would cut the circle of poles into 360 degrees corresponding, and would divide the Capella circle in the same way.

By these incidents we are not merely supplying answers to idle riddles, but proving that even the Greeks as late as 2418 B.C. used the Sothic Cycle and knew its defects. Yet it is true that since the Sothic Cycle was stayed, the months ceased to be a rotation of kings and gods; all was mundane and worldly. Yet it is well known that at an early period the Greeks became dissatisfied with the stars and changed their declination through precession of the equinoxes. This gave false guidance and established a Lunar Year, and they called it Selloi. But later on preferring the Sun to the Moon they framed a solar calendar and called it Helloi; since their year consisted of 365 days they took no account of the additional hours and the Sothic Cycle became established again.

All the way through it is seen of how time and the measured calendar with the equinox and equator, are the balance and timing of the gods until Apollo became the Time-god, and the rectification of the place of the equinox among the stars, was but the preliminary to the reformation of the calendar. But in all performances Apollo is the Time-god, and with Horus embodying the Hours, completes the Solar Year. And because he did this, he was elevated to the highest rank of gods, and invoked as the "Illustrious Power whom the Memphian tribes revere."

Apollo is therefore bound to reform the calendar, and perfect the year like Horus, which of course has its effects on man himself; this is because he represents in the same way the hours, the secret growth of TIME which pushed up mysteriously the days of the calendar.

The ancients believed that with the accurate measurement of the year, the knowledge of the law of the universe and an acquaintance with the will of the gods, true interpretation, true speech and prophecy, just measure, justice, order and harmony was accomplished. Apollo who governs the seasons by his light and makes this order unchangeable was likewise the god of measure, abiding rules, fixed law and harmonious order.

He was endowed with speech as soon as he was born, for he wished for lyre and bow and declared the council of gods; but when man can see that this about by man in his beliefs linking heights with depths, it will be understood why Rhea, the Mother of Jupiter, gave Cronus a stone to swallow instead of the child. This stone was preserved at Delphi and what was more, periodically anointed.

You have your birthday or wedding day and you continually anoint it to bless it and make it rich. Rhea herself was concealed in a stone, being the goddess of earth; thus the goddess Demeter was able, after her long wandering, to arrive at one of the quarter-points; and on being established as a rock, they used to show at the well Callichoris at Eleusis, the stone on which she rested when she arrived in Attica.

Cronus whose characters, after his dethronement, are those of the winter solstice and the underworld, was worshipped as a black-stone; the depths that all have to penetrate and conquer. Apollo was sometimes worshipped under the symbol of a square stone, that established four-square as the base of the pyramid; and the excavators in Delos, the earthly island which was named after the heavenly, found the original unhewn stone below the feet of the statue Apollo. Poseidon, the god of the heavenly waters was also worshipped as a square stone, the heights becoming established in the emotional creation.

There was even a realization that the gods made the stones their abodes; while the first "abode" of the sun-god was the solstice itself, and mighty is the stone of the solstice. In earthy times the Greeks paid honours to the unhewn stones and not the statues; but do not forget the statement made in the Biblical legends by the Jesus in Luke 19 v 40 when he had obtained his master-hood, "I tell you that, if these should hold their peace, the stones would immedi-ed the boundary stones as the protecting genii of places and ways.

It was the rudely shaped stones that preceded finished statues as images of the gods (and now returning again as modern art) that as uncarved stones were used for the sun stones of the cardinal points; not forgetting Stonehenge and seeing a little more clearly of its royal purpose in Britain and her possible heritage.

For without doubt, the savage ancestors of the ancients have left their descendants a legacy of fetish stones; yet that would not prevent a cultured people from making the pointer stone a symbol of the Sun and then of the sun-god. This would be of the young hero ever rising in the East to find new life through the coming journey. It is possible that the primitive practice itself may have been founded on the use of stones to point the sun-rise of the longest and shortest day, but it is very doubtful; but in any case, we must not allow advancing people to use ancient symbols while nevertheless dropping the primitive superstition.

In Egypt, obelisks were dedicated to the sun as Helio, and one well known is Cleopatra's Needle; why is that erected in your own country if it is barbaric and repulsive to orthodoxy? In Greece the sacred stones had a definite place and symbolic meaning.

Four pillars of Heaven as four brothers were 90 degrees apart, for that always happens to even a fine group of trees and has linking with the vertebrae prominens. One of the heaven-supporting pillars was named Atlas, or supporter of the vertebrae, and as the son of the mind to think and re-create. So the ancients were not so savage and primitive after all, for they left posterity something to aid them in their moments of drought, when they only had orthodoxy to console them.

Perfection of the Calendar

THE Persians and the Chinese after marking the pole of the ecliptic and the pole of the heavens, noted four bright stars which they believed watched over the east, the west, the south and the north. Yet when the stones which symbolise the equinoxes and solstices are thought of as located in the ocean, they are spoken of as rocks or islands. Thus there are islands as well as stones which are abodes of the sun, or by being "the seat of the turns of the sun," show to man their solstitial position. The island of Syria was a blessed place free from hunger and disease "under the turning of the sun."

Then you get Trinacria, as an island of the sun where the sheep and oxen of the god were tended by his daughter Ogygia, or Calypso's isle, placed in the navel of the sea as though it were the opposite point to Delphi, which is the omphalos of the land. Then you get another sacred island in Aea, the abode of Circe the sorceress, and there is found the dancing places of Aurora and the risings of the sun. It is believed that Cronus is imprisoned in one of these, and mythologically, on the apparent face in the Moon's orb, of four islands as two solstices and two equinoxes.

The Sothic Cycle as worked at Argos, the summer solstice festival, has been brought to the place of spring; while the autumn equinox festival has

Spirit Tribute From Brian Epstein

(This message was given through Mrs. Spearman-Cook, while still in trance, after the lecture of Sunday, 31st December, 1967, and can be verified by all in attendance that evening).

"THIS IS BRIAN EPSTEIN SPEAKING"

"I am here, learning at this School, and I am assisting this woman in her dynamic Work. Nothing, not even a million dollars a year, can equal the mighty Work that she is doing. She will help you, for you have faith in her. Support her and give her your Love... She knows what to do, which I did not know. I could not take their rebounding powers and handle them any longer. She knows how to handle these powers as they come back, and she fights and wrestles alone... Many controversies have been placed around my passing-over; of the truth, we will leave it alone, but I have come now to refute the fallacy set by one, that I have returned back into a 'young babe.' This is not true. I am still here, working around this School and aiding Merope with as much as I can of my strength that I never used upon the Earth. Listen to her words; they are words that are strong, powerful, and full of dynamic light, that will lead the Earth, the whole World, back to Glory."

"GOOD-NIGHT AND GOD BLESS YOU"

THE understanding of 'holding the powers' is in this day and age, known only to a few, although a well recognised fact amongst the mystics and sages of the past. If you have a group of people working for you or with you, and you are their recognised leader, then you must be prepared to handle the rebounding powers set into motion by their actions. This is only the working of the most basic of Cosmic Laws, that of Cause and Effect. As you set some new thought into operation as Cause, will you be answerable as to its Effect.

In the case of Brian Epstein, the returning power he was having to handle was enormous, and he did not know how to transmute it from just 'raw power' into a new mind creation, whereby all became spun up into Light. Without knowing this wisdom he, of course, found his task an impossible burden to carry. He had found himself in a position where he was managing a concern that had grown out of all conceivable proportions, and the continuous rebound of the powers was too much for him to take, both physically and mentally.

THIS IS A SUBJECT WHICH COULD BE STUDIED BY MANY WHO MIGHT FIND THEMSELVES, NOW OR IN THE FUTURE, IN A SIMILAR POSITION.

There is no doubt that Brian Epstein had dynamic wealth with him from his past growth, and is why he has been allowed to assist the Temple from the realms of Spirit. This will enable him to start putting that wealth into action as was originally intended, and return it in service to the Heights.

As for the second point he mentions, that of it being given over that he has already been reborn again as a 'young babe,' we are not too clear upon. If any of our readers can help us upon this in any way, we will be most grateful. (Editor).

Cosmic 'Flu

A SOLEMN but rather incomprehensible warning about the 'flu epidemic reached me today in a letter from The School of Universal Philosophy and Healing, whose principal is Mrs. Gladys I. Spearman-Cook.

The letter begins: "Re: The 'Flu Epidemic. This is not as mundane as man would believe, but is the Cosmic Ethers being drawn down by Mrs. Spearman-Cook, penetrating the Earth's atmosphere and forcing man up on to a higher frequency of existence."

This is forcing a cleansing and sensitising of the physical body, that the soul can be fitted to live upon these Higher Planes. However, this so-called 'Flu Epidemic is nothing to what is going to take place this coming year, especially in March and October."

Mrs. Spearman-Cook has admirers and disciples in many parts of the world. The December issue of Occult Gazette, which accompanied Mr. Speller's warning, prints a letter from Mrs. L. Graham, of Brisbane, Australia, who says: "When I am at any socials or anything where we are supposed to sing God Save The Queen, I sing:

'GOD SAVE GLADYS SPEARMAN-COOK, LONG LIVE GLADYS SPEARMAN-COOK, LONG MAY SHE REIGN...'

"I do hope this is in order. If not, let me know."

THIS item certainly came as a surprise, for when I wrote to the Evening Standard concerning the so-called 'flu epidemic, I really did not expect them to print my comments,—let alone add that perfect little gem from Mrs. Graham! Readers might be interested to know the full contents of the letter, which continued as follows:—

"I do not for one moment expect you to believe or understand of these Cosmic Changes, for they are far out of your frequency range of thought. Nevertheless, these great Cosmic Changes do not need the blessings of the ignorant, and will now relentlessly take their course and bring a complete rebirth to the whole previous conception of human life. All has been firmly established by Mrs. Spearman-Cook, through her superiority of mind frequency and awareness, and the Cosmic Laws are now completely changed and polarised. We do not seek to justify our statements, for the coming changes will be justification in themselves.

There is a saying that might ably sum up the attitude being taken by man today, concerning these changing Laws:—

'Greater wisdom blind men spurn,
Oh when, Oh Lord, will such fools learn?'

By the very fact of their printing the main part of this letter, it would appear that the 'blind men' are beginning to see and awaken, even if only gradually. Yet they do not realise the importance of their action, for they have consciously 'earthed' the Truth to a very large section of the community, and which no doubt provided material for many lesser newspapers and magazines to add their own comments unto. My delight however, in seeing the last piece in the Evening Standard, knew no bounds, for again we return to the understanding of 'earthing' the Truth. In those last few lines they displayed the Royalty of Merope; they acclaimed it, and so made it live yet greater. Well done, the Evening Standard, and well done Mrs. Graham!

Seance warns Beatles of a tragedy

A mass-circulation newspaper said yesterday the Beatles were warned in a seance they faced disaster if they made their planned trip to India to meditate with Maharishi Mahesh Yogi. The People newspaper quoted spiritualist Mrs. Gladys Spearman-Cook as saying the warning came in a message from Brian Epstein after Beatle George Harrison attended one of her sittings. Epstein, the Beatles' boss who died of a drug overdose last August, was said to have sent the message at a seance in Mrs. Spearman-Cook's School of Universal Philosophy.

This was another news item that we were very pleased to hear about, for it shows how the name of Mrs. Spearman-Cook is being carried far and wide, although I am certain it is already known far more than we realise. As for the accuracy of the original report we will not comment upon here, but the warning of trouble ahead for the Beatles if they carry on with their Transcendental meditation without studying the depths of the wisdom also, is strictly accurate.

Those who knew Mrs. Spearman-Cook in the past, while she was still in the Spiritualist Movement, had no doubts at all as to the accuracy of her statements, for she was recognised as one of the country's leading mediums. Although she has since then advanced far beyond the bounds of Spiritualism the accuracy of her statements is just as profound. Any who ignore the advice she offers can only be regarded as extremely foolish.

READERS PLEASE NOTE

If there are any readers who have poetry, or short articles which they feel might be suitable for publishing in the Occult Gazette, we would be very pleased to receive them. We would ask though, that all articles sent, be kept to a reasonable length, due to the limitations upon the space available. (Editor).

Readers' Letters

MAY I take this opportunity to thank all our readers who were kind enough to send us Christmas Cards. Far too many to answer individually, I am afraid, but I hope that all who sent will accept our thanks through the medium of this column.

As we enter into the New Year, could I remind readers that as all subscriptions are now due each January, we will not be sending out our renewal forms this year. It will aid us considerably if subscriptions are paid promptly, as it will save us much valuable time which otherwise has to be taken up in unnecessary office work. Your help over this will be greatly appreciated.

Natural Healing Brings its Reward

Mrs. E. King,
Dagenham, Essex.

On July 21st, I had the most unfortunate accident, severely scalding my right leg in a continuous streak from the groin to the foot, and also received a scald on the calf of the left leg. Whilst taking emergency action, I sent out to the Masters for aid and guidance, and commenced drawing down the Solar Healing Rays.

After returning from work, my husband took over, commencing a course of herbal treatment, combined with Spiritual healing—no doctor being consulted. First, until the blisters dispersed—some of which were six inches long and two to four inches wide—raw potato grated up and made into a poultice, was applied daily. This was a most uncomfortable period, but once the dispersal of the blisters was completed, the potato poultice was discontinued and Lion ointment was applied, healing the raw flesh.

Then a supply of Elm-Marsh ointment was obtained from the School of Universal Philosophy and Healing, and treatment with this ointment was combined with a daily bathing of Marigold and Elder Flowers. During this time the cleansing herb Bucchu was taken in abundance; also, plenty of water to keep the blood clean, so aiding the external treatment, and I daily sought to draw down the Solar Healing Rays.

One afternoon, after I was allowed up, I sat in the garden in the sunshine, but the direct rays of sun through the bandages caused overheating and I went indoors and laid on the bed, suffering intense pain and sought aid from the Spirit, upon which I had a vision of a giant sunflower in the centre of which was Zamiaar, and below on each side were Dick and David—two of Zamiaar's closest helpers—and golden rays were streaming from the petals of the sunflower.

Zamiaar was sending forth the Solar Rays whilst Dick and David were catching and pass-passed over, after a very short illness.

ing them over to me, giving me a direct lesson on how to draw down the Solar Rays, upon which the pain eased, then disappeared. This was a wonderful example of the powers of the Spirit when called upon in distress, but one must have faith.

The healing has been slow but sure, and now, thanks to the Spirit Powers, combined with herbal treatment, healing is complete, there being no scars anywhere—I have a sound pair of legs once more.

Recently my husband had a rash on his face, sore and irritating. He made a solution of Golden Seal, bathing his face with it twice a day, and cleared it within a couple of days.

If only people would be guided by your Teachings and turn to the natural ways of healing—that of Spiritual healing with herbal treatment—which has so often been demonstrated in your healing and readers' letters columns, then with the study of Universal Philosophy, the food of the mind, the conquest of disease would be well on its way, in a manner that medical science could not imitate nor improve upon.

Miss E. T., London.

I shall be glad if you will kindly send me 4 oz. Buchu Herbs and 100 Nerve Pills. I have already noticed these improvements during the fortnight I have been taking the Buchu and the Nerve Pills;

- 1) Bowel condition much better.
- 2) Less catarrh.
- 3) Sore patch gone, and itching stopped.
- 4) Better thought control.

Expansion of Consciousness

Mr. C. P. Urbani,
Dunedin, New Zealand.

I am enclosing my annual subscription for the O.G. and with it goes my sincere appreciation for the Great Work under your profound guidance. The contents of the O.G. are absorbed in nightly readings, and their absorption generates an expansion of consciousness. To those that have "Eyes to see," the contents are truly magical! I have received my replenishment of herbs, and thank all concerned for their despatch. May the New Year shower its Blessings upon you, and all those at S.U.P.H.

Mr. Caesar, Bournemouth.

I very much appreciate the articles in the Gazette although I haven't much time to read them all now. I always study the editorials carefully, there's something interesting and important in them. It's good to know that the government are being guided in a spiritual purpose. As you say it's a great pity that the English nation as a whole are so mindless and gullible. I have always known that. The people of this country can be made to believe anything the government or press want them to believe, whether true or not. As you say our national newspapers are a disgrace. I have read them so I know.

Mr. C. Powell, Detroit, U.S.A.

Thank you for sending the O.Gs., as they do the job better than most people realize, and Ross has just finished telling me how some of the Catholic-born children he knows and goes to school with are extremely dissatisfied, and seek elsewhere for spiritual growth, or at least some answer they can accept.

Ross passes the word and does his share.

Thank you and may you have a prosperous New Year.

Mr. R. Herbert,
El Paso, U.S.A.

Enclosed you will find 6 dollars in currency for which please renew my subscription to the Occult Gazette for the year 1968. As I read and re-read every issue I wish to thank the Principal for continuing to carry on her marvellous work under what seems to be rather extremely trying conditions. I thoroughly enjoyed the article on the Establishment of the Atomic Plane, also those others including "Egyptian Mysteries," and "Fomalhaut, the Mystery Constellation of Aquarius."

For a time I thought that man had gone as low as he could, but I find daily that I have had to change that idea. I am well aware of the fact that to read about the disintegration of an age is one thing, but to actually live through such an experience is something else again. These things will be worked out on a very slow gradual basis, and by the time certain appreciable constructive changes are allowed to manifest, most of us "Oldsters" will be out of the way, having no alternative but to make our exit. For the constant cry is for "youth." I am very happy that Merope has condescended to remain for awhile, and may those who read her words be enlightened with the fulness of comprehension.

Surely she must have incarnated at this time to carry on the Great Work which she is doing, and for no other reason. May she be with us for some time to come, as there is such a need for her Wisdom!

Again, All Hail for your great courage Royal Scapegoat, for I am certain that your "Crucifixion" must be anything but pleasant! All Blessings.

Mrs. M. Heydenreich,
Kansas, U.S.A.

I received my Tape Delineation September 29th and was very pleased with the true reading. It was an exact report on my very past days of Spiritual Growth. Now I see the results of all my efforts in standing for this truth that I have learned and walked in. Thanks be to you and the Higher Powers for they are my great Fortress of strength.

I could go on, and on, but feel no point in that, but did want you to know that I feel the Tape was a true confirmation of all that I had to experience to become One with Spirit.

You did fire me up and after studying the Gazette for 3 years, I can now go forth with more light to my subjects here in K.C.

P. Anne Fitzgerald,
Edgwood, U.S.A.

I would like to be a subscriber to the Occult Gazette. Thank you for sending me the lectures, I have enjoyed them very much. They gave me much knowledge which I pray I will use wisely. I cannot begin to tell you how much help you have been to me. I know also that you will go on helping me in the future. The work you are doing is so great. Thank you again for helping me.

Miss K. Michalow,
Kelawna, Canada.

I enjoy the flying saucer write-ups, and the prophecies, and the herb and healing column. Also the pictures of different parts of the body with write-ups on their functions are very educational and interesting.

but the mystic wields them to bring forth the Divine Purpose, the Divine Plan, that has for so long been cast aside and forgotten.

I ask you, Mr. Lovell, which in your opinion deserves the greater merit,—or are your opinions as short-sighted as your telescopes?

I do not know who is more blind, science or religion, for both are filled with men blinded by their own egos, and whose understanding of those Divine Realms never reaches any higher than their stomachs!

Let me quote further from Mr. Lovell:

"It could be that the investigation of which Man is capable, refers to only a part of an immense Something that exists. This is the stage where scientists, however brilliant, must halt."

Such speculations, Sir Bernard admits, are beyond astronomy. "They arouse profound problems of Faith and Belief and imagination."

When, Sir Bernard, you can widen your vision to the Unseen Glories of life, and come away from your occupation with illusion, then Faith, Belief and imagination might take on of a greater Reality.

That great Something you talk of might become a part of your being, and lead you far beyond the limitations of your sight. Why search outside of yourself, for the New World is within; it is within the inner recesses of your mind, the very depths of Outer Space.

WHEN YOU CAN WING YOUR MIND INTO THOSE MYSTIC REALMS, AND SOAR AS AN EAGLE, HIGHER AND HIGHER, INTO THAT GREAT BEYOND, YOU WILL WONDER WHY YOU HAVE BEEN SO BLIND; FOR IN THAT TRANSCENDING UNION WITH THE HEIGHTS, YOU WILL LEARN THE TRUTH OF LIVING AND TOUCH THE VERY FACE OF GOD.

Creation Called Life Part 17

by Gladys I. Spearman-Cook

DANEbury

UP TO THE PRESENT LECTURE, THEY HAVE BEEN describing the establishment of the Cosmic Law in the early days of Creation. Now they unfold the first creation of Astronomical reckoning, with the description to follow of the Powers of the upper Law entering into Human life itself. Although Merope has re-adjusted the Laws by lifting up the Planes, the seasons will still prevail. But through the Timelessness she has brought into being, by bringing forth the perceptory principle, all can come forth in a flash. This is due to the Atomic wealth being so closely and strongly infiltrated into the depths of the soul. Thus will prevail until the Central Sun and the Earth as Vega, merge into one another. So all this must be taken as the original of Creation, with the now newly adjusted Planes.

Arcturus once more, in full brightness rises in the evening from the sacred flood of Ocean, then hasten to cut the vines before the swallow returns. But if the Pleiades arise and if the bee begins to climb the plants from the earth, then it is time to sharpen the sickle for the harvest. "But in ancient times, men were more dependent on the seasons than they are now; and even

Paul in Acts 17 v. 28 stated "For we are also His offspring."

The Ruling Laws

TIME had to be measured, and after many attempts, the moon suggested months; thus it was easy to pass from twelve months of the year to twelve groups of stars associated with them. These became the twelve constellations of the Zodiac. Yet would we have ourselves believe that man was the originator. NO! man is the moulder, the creator, but not the architect or the Embodiment.

Therefore if man can see the Zodiac as a zone of the sky comprising 8 degrees on either side of the ecliptic—16 degrees in breadth—he will have the path where the Sun and Moon and visible planets make apparent motion. The whole path is artificially divided into twelve parts of 30 degrees each. As soon as the months were associated with the stars, the calendar came into connection with the gods; yet the months, seasons and the years are the gods in the Laws as much as the Sun and Moon.

The names of the months were derived from the gods, and festivals were arranged to commemorate the degree of power. Yet the gods were the elements made tangible by man and were real living creations; then they became resultant in the stars in the fact that they divinized them into Gods of Starry light. These are facts, which not made into speech by modern man, became depleted as merely classics of the primitive.

But the primitive, of which the modern man is but the offshoot, sang their praises, besought their grace, and emulated them in their heroes. Thus it is a very enmeshed and entangled situation, and one that cannot be discarded, for they are the key to the future by relativity of creation.

The Holy Scriptures declare of them, as Job is entreated to look more diligently into the depths and heights to become freed from the leviathan's jaws that he has walked straight into:

"Canst thou bind the sweet influences of the Pleiades or loose the bands of Orion? Canst thou bring forth Mazzaroth in his season, or canst thou guide Arcturus with his sons?" (Job 38 v. 31, 32).

Therefore the most important as the three Fates and the fatherhood is SATURN AS CRONUS, the god of the Lunar Year, or the opening of the year with Jupiter as the Fatherhood to come forth. The festival was originally at the autumnal equinox which brought an arbitrary revolution of the chart as he was pushed round the winter solstice.

JUPITER IS ZEUS, the god of the Solar Year, or the New Year's day. This was taken from the Vernal Equinox, but moves afterwards to the summer solstice.

MARS OR ARES was the god as the star Aldebaran, the Bull's eye, which marked the spring festival at a very early period.

VENUS OR APHRODITE, goddess of the Dog-star as Isis was of Egypt, when the heliacal rising of that star was made to show the return of the year.

The Will of the Gods

FATE was the will and thought of the highest of the gods; thus a man whose actions agreed with this established harmony and followed the appointed course of the law, acted justly and in accordance with that law. While the violent and arrogant man broke through the law of Fate and became caught in its clutches. It was of the right order of events that the ancient oracles proclaimed, hence they were called Themistes, ordinances or laws of justice. These were not imagined or derived from a fore-knowledge of futurity, but merely to declare that which, according to the necessary course of events, must come to pass.

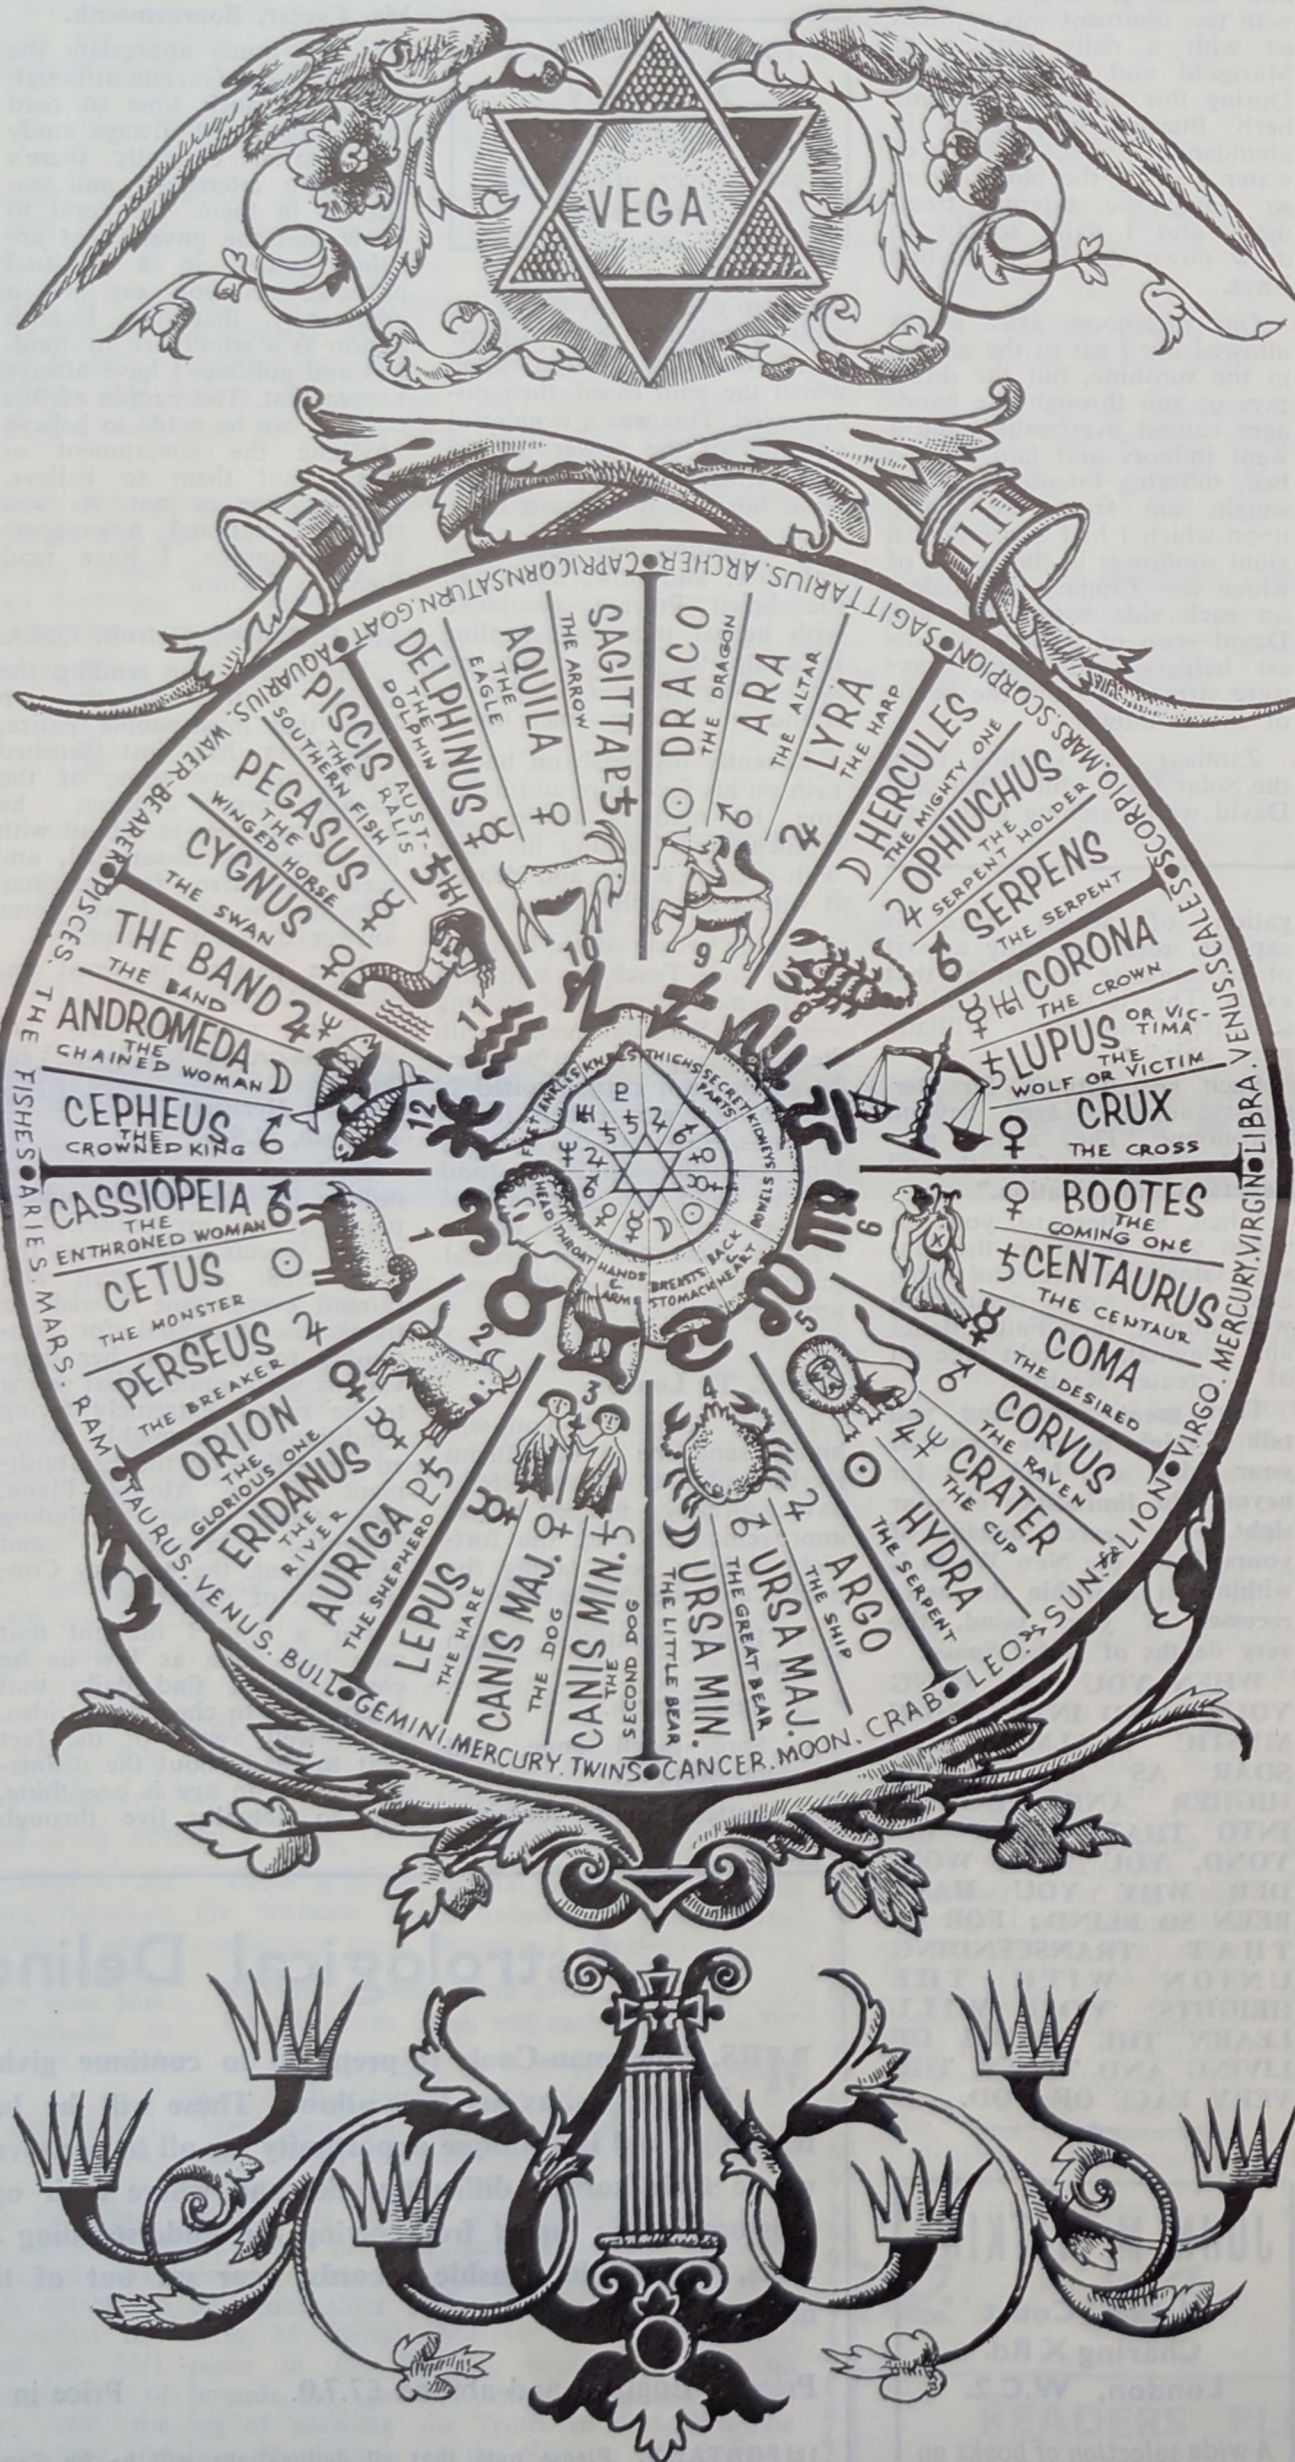

This indicates the accuracy of astronomy when understood, and how naturally the course of thought might follow when beginning in astronomic law. The physical order expressed the will of the gods, therefore was the prototype for man to follow. So the belief in a fixed system of laws, of which Apollo, the solar Deity was the executor, later formed the foundation of all prophecy in his worship. This can be fully understood by all who understand astrological lore, for it is the pinnacle point from whence all begins and resolves back into.

The angels kept not their first estate with the gods, and were stars which foresook their polar places through precession; therefore foredoomed to fall. Waiting on the Sothic Cycle proved almost fatal to Zeus himself, for it caused retention in the actual waiting for her arrival, for they had to continually await her adjustment in her circlings, for time to be regulated. Meaning that she became later each year till she finally fell back into her original position; this held up expansion by causing retention.

The forming of the calendar to 365 days saved the situation, and later in posterity when man once again began a calendar readjustment, the Holy Synod did not like the change, for the thirteen days would strike out the thirteen saints who would be deprived of their customary services and offerings. The worshippers being roused to utter indignation, for once upon a time man knew no other course of direction, and had to use his wits to live. Now man lives on those wits established, but not replacing the harvest being devoured.

An ancient Poet once declared "When the Pleiades set to remain hidden for forty nights, that is the time to sow. But Zeus does not allow one year to be like another. Mark then the time when the cuckoo first calls from the leaves of the oak, and Zeus rains for three days; perhaps then thy seed may prosper, and the late plougher may be equal to the early sower."

But when, after the solstice, Zeus has accomplished the 60th day of winter, when
