THE INITIATE Seeking of the NEW WORLD

by Gladys I. Spearman-Cook

AS THE SUN ROSE HIGH IN AN azure sky the New World unfoldment began, with Neptune now as the rebound of the Neolithic Cycle bringing the Neolithic expansion of the mighty Void of Outer World Space. Where the Human culture of the Sperming Waters, is to be the wonder of the Age. For the rebirth at the Christmas Horae inflow had brought a new awakening to the divinities within the soul, causing the Winds from the North to blow as a fresh and steady gale. Thus Merope with the Mighty Flame, was all primed and set, as the sturdy Vega, the ship of the hour, was being trimmed and prepared to start the new heavenly journey of Infinity. For whereas the past was of TIME, the period of Heroes, Prophets and Sages, now it is of a Royal Scapegoat, with Initiates seeking the Road of divine unfoldment. The way of gaining the heavenly Robe, the inner glory of Soma-Psyche-Pneuma brought to Pneumatikon divine radiance. Where the heavenly EGO was now unified with its divine Cause, with the eternal revolving of that Infinity ever taking them upwards and onwards in selflessness.

Journey of the New Age

THUS the revolving in the depths had been truly adjusted, for the ways of matter, although elevated into heavenly purpose, were still the basic of the rebirth until Immortality was fully acclaimed. So the wheels of the alchemical change were duly set, as soul guided its boat from the upper stern, by the LAW elevated and risen up by the Scapegoat Merope. With unification so involved, as to set the journey of the New Age as unified heights and depths. For Merope, enveloped by the Mighty Flame, was now the Captain of the new journey of Outer World Space. Where the mighty Equatorial Colure was the investigating procedure, for man to find the glory of the Orion divinity. For divine wonders had been promised unto the god who fell from heavenly grace, and who now, by his divine redemption, is still as potent as ever before, with much to assist him in his timely seeking.

THE UNKNOWN

As he gazed into the intensity of the flame, Divinity rose up and pierced him with the glory of Its Love, for it was by Merope's heart that such divine glories had been earthed. (See text on page 3 col. 1)

The Task of the British Prime Minister

(This is an account of an interview given by Mrs. Spearman-Cook to the Independent Television Network on June 6th 1968. The first half of the interview was recorded in her own private room, and the second half in the Sanctuary, where THE MASTER took over, and gave His explanations to the various questions asked. For a further understanding upon this subject see the Reminiscences on pages 8 and 9).

The first interview.

Who told you that Harold Wilson is a demi-god? How did you get this knowledge?

I know because I am in contact with The Divinities, the Higher Powers. I am linked with them, and there is no division between me and those Powers. I am one with them.

You describe yourself as a medium.

Yes, I am. I am one with them, I hear them, they talk to me, they advise me and tell me what to do.

So then what happens?

If they have a task to do they use my spine, and by my spine they can send these Powers out to whoever they want them to go to.

In this case the Prime Minister.

Well they touch him, they touch him to awaken him, but I don't influence him.

Who does influence him?

The Powers through himself, through his own Theocratic Consciousness.

What do you mean by the Theocratic Consciousness?

The mind state within himself belonging to the past. You never lose what you have been. What he was in the past has come forth in his Seed, what we call the Seed, and it is these which are waiting to burst into Light.

But if you are transmuting all this Power, what effect does it have on you?

Unfortunately it has affected my legs because the power of the spine is what you walk by, what you use to energise yourself with. By that being used for such a Dynamic Task, at the present moment it has taken the use of my legs away. But I am not concerned, because I am the Scapegoat.

And have you been affected in any other way?

Yes, unfortunately I did receive damage to the parathyroid glands, they became a little bit poisoned a short while ago through somebody who was emitting poison.

Who could this be?

One of my own students that was here, I am afraid, who had not been using the powers too wisely.

How many followers have you got in your School?

In the actual School itself not many, because we have not the capacity for it, but we have thousands, thousands. But I am not concerned about the followers, I am more concerned with leaving behind with the world Wisdom.

And does this mean that they will all follow Harold Wilson because you say so?

No, not necessarily. We have had two this afternoon for healing. They were not in the least concerned with Harold Wilson. They just came to me for the healing.

What other things have you been able to do through your Powers to influence the world?

Well, for one thing, by mastering the Elements, I have stopped a nuclear war, and also prevented these sputniks going out circling around the Earth, from cutting off the Inflow of the Ethers, which they were doing.

Thank you very much.

O God! As I came back I saw such a tremendous vision. I saw the whole of the Earth blazing with Fire. It is going to be the outcome of this. The whole of the Earth was blazing with Fire... it is Atomic Fire. The whole of the Earth is going to be cleansed. I have never seen anything so dynamic. They showed it to me as soon as I got back into the body,

I thought it was far more important than I realised. There is a lot to go through yet. There is going to be much that will make our blood curdle. What's happened these past few days is nothing. Talk about the Four Horsemen of the Apocalypse!

(The next part of the Interview took place in the Sanctuary where Mrs. Spearman-Cook entered into Samadhic Trance. The MASTER then manifested).

PEACE BE AMONG YOU.

I have been watching all that has been taking place; it has been very interesting.

But first of all I would like to make it clear that in my Instrument being the Scapegoat, it is she that is taking the weight off the World, thereby saving the world suffering what she has had to go through. She has raised up the vibrations and made the world a better place for all men to live in. She has raised man up from out of the pit. Now no man need be afraid: he can go forward and become acquainted with this Wisdom and We will lead him. Now will you go ahead with your questions, please?

We are now in the Sanctuary; who are you now Mrs. Spearman-Cook?

I am not Merope, as We call her. I am THE MASTER of the DIVINITIES, the Solar Godhead.

And as THE MASTER of the DIVINITIES, what influence do you have on Mr. Harold Wilson?

We lead him as We lead all men who are responsive to the Higher Thought, and he is. His heart is entirely with the Divine Powers. He is a man who lives and thinks spiritually.

Have you any information for him?

What information he needs We pass through him, but any information that will help him could be no greater than to tell him to hold firm against all opposition, and to bring the World to peace through his Higher thoughts which are indeed very high.

Who is Mr. Wilson?

He was Iemhotep, then Amenhotep the Pharaoh, who brought into being the Theocratic Consciousness. He brought the Theocratic Government into birth and set Egypt on her feet after much corruption had taken place through the lower priests.

As the DIVINE MASTER, how do you communicate with him?

Through his mind, just through his mind, just as I could through yours.

As his guide are you giving power to anyone else?

I AM THE POWER OF THE CENTRAL SUN. I come down to men through the Breath, for it is all Vibration. We influence all souls that are open to the Higher Thought.

That which you are doing at the present moment is indeed far more important than any of you realise. It is a Cosmic Task that is going to be far reaching and will save any more states of Vietnam. It will help the World to become reborn.

God bless every one of you, and may every one of you for your efforts ever remember this day, for you will have cause to remember as the days go on.

ADIEU.

Mrs. Spearman-Cook then came back from her trance and said the following words:

THE INITIATE

Therefore the new journey is only for the awakened soul who is honour-bound by his awakened heart purpose. He who now saw the futility of the past cause, and set his face due East and four-square, to embody the new Northern inflow. For Merope in mastering the Elements, was now ready to gain the cherished Infinity of divine heavenly glory. Where soul, fed by Breath, would be elevated and activated by the heavenly Fire of the Spirit. No longer the old magnetic fire of phosphorus and sulphur, with false stimulatives of succulent nature, that made the soul a slave unto the beast, but the Fire of the heavens, born from the raised up Spirit, driving the heaven born soul. (See the Front Page plate)

For this was the way of Paradise intended, as Merope first brought down the Element of Holy Fire, but soul in being stirred fell to the serpent, instead of raising the Kundalini. With the journey of the depths resulting, causing a loss of memory and a hard road of trial and tribulation, through the eternal unfoldment of crucifixion and resurrection.

Therefore, with the Holy Fire once again the activator of the story, Merope began this course of heavenly investigation, with a prepared etherealised unfoldment. Thus unified with her heavenly LORD, she began this mighty electrified journey of Outer World Space glory; that which unified the NORM with the glories of the divine Central Sun, and brought into being a mysterious overshadowing of the mystical wonders of Samarkand. For that heavenly lotus all fed with life and activity from the earth below, was now to be the unifying mystery between those super heights and depths.

For the infinity in the depths below was the firing Source for those heights, for as the Bull laboured with those generative waters would the virgin and the fiery Seed blend in active glory. Thereby feed the NORM with the intended wealth from those galactical heights, via the Pleromic Breath. Thus this divine Neolithic mastery, gained by Merope, had set all ready for the Aquarian Age, with the Divine FACE risen up to heavenly Glory, the magnitude of the royal Solar Divinity. He Begotten of the Orion MAN, the silent secret wonder of Human achievement. With the Cosmic Glory set to Divine fulfilment by Merope, and fully mustered to its final hour.

So as Merope sat and pondered she saw a woman coming down to the well, where the Flame was sitting in deep meditation. As she reached (See plate on this page) him, a huge fountain shot up out of the well, of fine sparkling water. Then from the centre of the fountain, an elephant appeared, richly bedecked in royal apparel, with jewels that were woven into such glorious drapery, radiating in all directions. Then the elephant stretched out its trunk and caught up both the Flame and the woman, and lifted them into the Fountain. Then suddenly the Fountain turned into a powerful jet of water, and they were lifted swiftly up into the heights, carried up by the sheer velocity of the Stream. Then all cleared, and Merope knew that by man now treading the Equatorial Colure, the Stream lost to the mighty Orion, Woman and the Flame would be incorporated into the mighty union of the FATHERHOOD, and bring the intended Glory of the Age. Thus she set her mind and primed her pen, that the ink could flow all the faster.

So one bright morn when the Bull ran high, there was a gathering of fiery acceleration, causing the internal Fires to

The Electrified Unfoldment

HENCE the mystery of investigation, was the unfoldment of those nebula heights through the quintessence glory; spirit virtue of unbounding wonders, that would lead the soul to complete selflessness. Where, in being spirit born and with mind consciousness awakened, the divine faculty of holy priesthood was set for HIS Heavenly Voice to speak through this vessel as the promised glory of truth. That HE as the mysterious Unseen, gyroscopic rise unto the greater divine purpose. With the heavenly glory on the unfolding Arc, bringing a greater vision day by day of the Mighty Begotten. While the Starry beauty now between (See plate on page 5)

Merope's brows, was a sure indication that her pituitary revolving faculty, was all set and ready to bring forth the sparking glory of Uranus. The heavenly magnitude of the heights, that untold wonders could now come forth as this mighty glory gave forth of its sparking beauty.

All these attributes as the glory ready to set into motion any wealth that the quintess-tered before. Thereby the centripetal and centrifugal motion of changing action now becoming a central point and spiralling quantum of the Orion pinnacle points of tympanic manifestation.

Also a most coveted gift is possible, though very rarely discussed; the super-luminary wealth as the depths of the god-self manifesting as infinity, as the sun-gyroscopic principle of Virgin atomic Fire. For the super-luminary bridge is the Norm alight, and casting its shadow as the moving timeless self upon the illusionary waters of the depths. With the mutable cross of heavenly mind change as the complete Solar balance of the Orion path of renunciation.

FOR THIS IS WHERE CHAOS CAN SO EASILY UPSET THE SUPREME BALANCE NOW SET INTO MOTION, ALL NOW REQUIRING STRICT ADHERANCE TO ALL RULES AND DEMANDS NOW MADE OF THE ADVANCING INITIATE. FOR THIS IS THE EQUATORIAL PATH OF ELECTRIFIED UNFOLDMENT THAT IS MOST DEMANDING AND EXACTING IN WHAT IT REQUIRES TO SET THIS HIGHLY PRECISIONAL ACTION INTO MOTION.

For everything is now Solar born from a cosmic interblending, thus would affect the higher Divinities if improper methods and ideas were adopted. This now being where selflessness was fully accepted and applied with rigour and intent, for Cetus and the Hydra were the mighty wealth to be mastered and redeemed, through the Virgin's Seed. With Ophiuchus the Fiery Grace to be reborn into glorified wonder, while Procyon and Libra the balanced wealth of the Ecliptical glory, must find the strength in the Water pot of Aquarius, now filled with water divine.

So once again on such a dynamic task, Merope sat and pondered, for here at the beginning of a mighty journey was the Orion man, the prize of every soul, as he trod that radiant path of new light. Involving and resurrecting the mighty wealth from the past into the glory of the reborn Virgin Seed. Absorbing the purified Word as the Fish of the Band caught up by the toils of Cetus, with Vega as the Pole Star, the heavenly glory, the reigning Divine EGO of Merope. That from which she is now drawing forth of her Divine Radiance, as the revolving glory of her established infinity.

That as she fortifies its wonder through that revolving Glory, she was preparing the unfolding union for tomorrow. Drawing in the Breath from these Galactical heights, as the Divine magnitude of the Central Sun, then alchemicalising their wonders through the experiences of life, and returning them as reborn Ego pertained.

Thus Merope knew that the treading of this path was not only mastering these difficulties, but that the soul was ready for the New World, whereby the down-fallen states could be risen up and redeemed, with greater possibilities than ever before. Hence returning them to the Cosmic

THE YOD AND THE FOUNT

THE mystery of the meeting of the Fount and the Source, where the Mouth opened and spoke the glory of truth. For here was the FLAME, the risen up passions, now waiting to embrace the glories of the depths, and bring forth wonders and glories unknown. Divinity waiting for Woman to draw forth the waters out of the well, that as she gives unto Him of its fluidic glory, it bursts into glorious light. (See text in col. 1).

leap and writhe as they rose up the climbing channel of unification. Thereby to swing up into Neptune's heavenly territory, assisted by his deeming grace, as it drove the causeway steep and high.

Thus the Norm all agitated started trimming her fettle and opened up her portals wide, that the gathered flame from those depths below, shot up far and wide. Setting the way from Norm to Auric heights as a path of intended purpose, that the Ship of Life, the electrified Atomic glory of the New Age, could start its course of adventure. The Bull who was tethered to the plow would have laid down to rest, but the master of the form and field below, drove him harder than ever before. For any slacking now would cause the zeal, risen up to elevated heights, to drop and cause all to become abortive and break the spell of enchantment.

For this was the road of ancient wonders being brought to octavial elevation. Where what had been as root and branch was now the blossoming seed. All risen up unto glories untold, but the way of elevated purpose, where the god as the purpose divine, was assuming his role as the glorified Atom. Thus the road now set by the elevated flame, was the glory of the mighty Quintessence, that set into birth by the inflowing Transcendental Glory, that had opened up the awakening cosmic consciousness. Causing the divinities in the heights to begin a new awakening.

The mysterious fifth element that would now lead the soul to heights of divine elevation, by drawing forth from those heavenly Rays of Solar glorification. Thus heights and depths in perfect unity of alchemicalisation, through the alchemical pot in the depths.

could manifest in His heavenly Kingdom in the world of MAN.

But to bring this unification complete, depths and heights must be more perfectly unified into the Sea of Golden Glory, where immortality in its divine potential was duly set and making its way to completion. A Paradise once again in the mighty World of Vega, the reborn glory of Samarkand, all set and prepared by Merope, in the LAWS set and duly primed in the offing preliminaries. So as the moment was set, the Vega sailed forth out into the mist of heavenly unfoldment, and vanished into its timeless glory.

Thus through the revolving Infinity in the heights and the revolving in the depths, would the Norm shed its Seeds of Aeons of glory, that hold the wealth of Human glorified being. The wonders of Neolithic man, now to become the god-born priest, to manifest the Voice of that mighty Unseen. Hence the quintessence awareness is the prize of the moment, that of cosmic consciousness, where the Divine Purpose is activated into being, as the glory of the Son is divinised.

For every initiate must now learn the depths of cosmic consciousness, where divine purpose is his striving goal, thus start the road of selflessness, the basic of the divine atom. That the EGO can now find its link with its divine Cause, that his Causal body can unfold and grow into that heavenly light. For as the soul now links with super Causes, will such come forth in his own manifestation as microcosm unto Macrocosm.

With divine unification involving its glories, bringing the ential wonder could raise into action. For all now was a matter of one state setting off another as a course of expansion, through the Word set to go. When untold glories would be set revolving, including the three running legs and the mighty Law of Invulnerability. For here the Law for protecting their faculties was profound and operative, to prevent that of cosmic convulsion through the chaos of microcosmic change.

Thus the matter of change was the greater perplexity to the rising feminine creation, for the Virgin EGO was transubstantiating into the Orion Stream of Neptunian rebirth. Where the glory of the greater function was yet to find its unfolding action, then the internal divinity as the inner fructification of the Seed would begin harmonising with the intensified Fiery Quintessence. These blendings now being most essential, for the change over from depths to heights was profound.

For the depths now would be playing a big part in driving the glory of the heights. The pre-conquester bull state of god-fire, now becoming the Christos state of Norm propensity of Atomic Fire, as the Orion Christos infinity of Universal involvement.

This as a major attribute, would bring the cortin, now highly sensitised, to bombard the atomic adrenaline with the oxygenated purity of Holy Fire. Thus setting a complete new action into motion, with the Solaroids of Outer Space now harmonising upon the highly sensitised tympanum. Bringing about the unified cosmic consciousness, as the possible becoming Orion speech infusing the tympanic membrane with the celestial primordial OM, never regis-

THE INITIATE

Glory to replenish the wonders of the heights.

Thus the Initiate as the Warrior of the New Path of Vega must now master the old states of desire, that the road of selflessness unto Immortality can now begin. That Cetus, the sensory chaos of the Solar Plexus, can be mastered, and the Fire risen up in Virgin Orion divine sensitivity. Then the Kundalini Fire can rise, as the raised up Transcendental divinity, the perceived cosmic consciousness of the heights. With the Norm replenishing the revolving infinity, drawing down greater wealth from the heights of Outer World Space.

If not, Cetus will cut off the inflowing quintessence, he having his paws on the inflowing Stream, and no Solar glory will be raised. For Cetus is the eater up of the Fishes, the divine Word of holy perception, but by mastering him, he can become the Orion quintessence of the new Solar Cycle. He being raised up to the oscillating frequency of the Desire of the risen up god, who is seeking the divine path of the Equatorial Colure. Cetus is the Colure having fallen into the depths, and by mastery he becomes the extension and expansion as the new risen up Atomic light. The virgin redeemed sensitivity born of the Orion quintessence, and aflame with the heavenly mind light.

The Glory of The Spirit

HENCE, the major attribute of the Central Sun, the fulness of the transmuted fires, that now are bringing into birth the Orion Colure cycle of pre-ordained reborn TIME. This will set the NORM revolving, that it can send forth a new Seed of belief, with the pituitary sparking and sending drips to the depths, to feed the unfolding alchemicalisation. Then with the Feminine Principle Orion born, which is the involved Cetus, the protruding propulsion of the Holy Fire, will it drive the beast into the transmuted state of selfless service, a road of true born LOVE, the foundation of the Orion glory.

Thus the risen up Fire will become unto the Solar Orion propensity of Outer World Space, which will return in the revolving infinity, inter-blending with the risen up Seed of the Norm. Thus the wealth descending down into the depths, will ever produce greater and greater unfolding light, until the Christos glory is achieved. For the Blueprint of the Colure is now to become the revolving Norm wealth, as the vortex of the Orion mind.

For the god now unfolding and rising up, was seeking the path of immortality, the road of perpetual divinity. Already he being upon the road of etherealisation, transmuted the solid flesh of mortal decay into the glory of the Solar born Causal divinity. Where the divine Robe is now coming forth through the Aquarian unity of heights and depths, that the Piscis Australis, through the Eye of Fomalhaut, will render up all the wealth from the depths, through the revolving infinity of the ecliptical past glory. The involving of all lower states by the protrusion sending up to the heights the transmuted glory of the depths.

With the possibility of genius coming forth through some mighty wealth of the past, then the soul as Ophiuchus wrestling with the mighty wealth that now has come into his hands, he being the rising holy Fire, the glory of the Fatherhood. For it is in being so discovered and risen up in holy belief, that the Norm will send up to the heavenly heights, to receive back, yea tenfold, of the reborn glory. Thus all the time as the microcosm, returning the lost glories to the Macrocosm, with he ever being weighed in the balance of the Scales, that his Christos Orion divinity can be born.

All a matter of mastery through the divine belief of the Virgin, for the feminine principle is being risen up to the Divinity of her lord. As unto Merope, unto all, the glory of the reborn soul, that divinity can become the Serpent swallowing its own tail, with Corvus the chattering raven transmuted into a dove, to carry up to the heights, new-born wonders divine.

The Hydra being the spirit auric radiance of the god, lost through the calamity of the Fall. The wild fires that the soul was ever wrestling with, through not being able to raise them back up to the divinity of the heights. Thus became the wild beast in the depths, who reared his head at every turn of inflowing glory.

But now, through the mastery of the Fire this will be the revolving Quintessence, the glory of the spirit, with the soul becoming more and more a god-born divinity of the heights. Thus ever retrieving the glories of the Fall, but with the experience of Time, bringing Timelessness into birth. Where Procyon will no longer just be the higher mind, but the cosmic consciousness speaking with the Voice of the Father, the divine mystery of the hidden Depths. Thereby bringing forth truths and wonders never known of before, for the god now is Orion born, with revolving glory radiating the Central Sun where'er he walks amongst men. Ever treading into the depths the wonders of Outer World Space, the glories of the heaven-born EGO divine.

For Cetus is the fallen Kundalini wealth that man once had risen up to the heights, therefore this is the reformation of that mighty Power that through the Word frequency of the Colure mastery, will raise the virgin wealth up to the heights of the Solar Orion propensity of Outer World Space. Here lies the mastery, or the chaos that will ensue with those who dabble with the Fire, and fail to honour its mighty glory. For divinity now is the ruling factor, and only by divinity will the soul be able to find this road of light.

For he now becomes the mediating sensitivity of a god-state, which expounds and expands the cosmic consciousness into a cosmic mortuary meal of reborn Vega light. The soul preparing the way for new glories to come into birth, and lead and help all who have not awakened, to seek of the great purpose. For now he infuses the divine drip with the Holy Fire, and fructifies the quintessential Virgin Seed with the Master's Royal Face, of ever being rejuvenated into ever remaining young divinity. A mighty glory of divine birth, where the holy Presence is ever with the soul as the glory of the coming Messiah-ship.

Thus the mighty comprehension of the union between the depths to the heights of the revolving infinity, is now most necessary. For having been born of the holy Fire, he is becoming the Pillar of Quintessential strength, unwavering in intent and purpose. Hence steadfastness is the heart purpose now, with honour as the glory of every deed. That the great privilege he now seeks, he will reverence with the divinity it deserves.

For this has ever been a major issue in every religious unfoldment, especially in the Ancient Egyptian worship, where the Initiate went through the most rigorous training before he was considered ripe and ready to hold the secrets of their holy ritual.

Whereas they were entering into the depths of the mysteries, that gave them mastery over all others, now he is, as the path that he was now treading. Of the responsibility he was taking on, and how in his seeking of such mighty glory he should be made more fully aware of the vows he would be taking unto himself. Of his demeanour as an initiate, one contending for the New World divinity, that others could perceive the Royalty now being sought. So Merope sought of the Great Ones, that those who would be entering onto this path should be shepherded together, that they could be taken up to the heights, and initiated on the mighty Plane of Holy Divine Service. This she was granted, hence every soul who was now ready would, by LAW of Attraction, be drawn up to those mighty heights, led by Merope who would know how to make the journey.

For they could be drawn from all over the world, considering that the Occult Gazette went far and wide, with many ready and prepared to accept the new Vows of Virginity and reborn light. This was accepted and the way was set, with Merope seeking of all who were ready to send forth of their application, that they could go forth to those mighty heights to be initiated into the mighty path of New Life.

Thus she as the Scapegoat and leader of such truths, was now able to remember of such mighty happenings in the World of Spirit. Hence brought back into earth recording of the heavenly gathering of many an earnest soul seeking into the New Path of LIGHT. Thus each one would be prepared individually, by the right of prayer, where they apply by seeking. Then the hour and time would be set through the guide and leader of each soul, for the moment when such a mighty ritual of Vow and purpose could take place.

THIS HAS BEEN DONE, AND BY NATURAL COURSE OF EVENTS, ALL WHO WERE TRULY ACCEPTED WERE GATHERED TOGETHER. THEN MEROPE, WITH THOSE EARNEST SOULS, BEGAN THE GREAT UPWARD RISE TO THAT MIGHTY PLANE OF SOULS INITIATING INTO THE NEW WORLD OF LIGHT. THUS ADVISING ALL THAT WERE SEEKING OF SUCH A MIGHTY COURSE TO CLEANSE BY PURPOSE, HEART AND TRUTH, THAT THEY COULD TAKE THIS MIGHTY AND DEVOUT STEP TOWARDS THIS NEW-BORN LIFE OF WISDOM.

Indeed it was a mighty gathering, every soul in their Causal divinity, primed and ready for such a devout belief of heart-born purpose. By Merope's power of elevation, every one began what appeared a trek towards a higher purpose. There were some who appeared a little frightened, but Merope was soon able to put them at their ease. For she, with the aid of their spirit guides and leaders, helped them ascend the Planes they had never touched since their Fall into the density of matter.

Soon every one began to become acclimatised to the ascending glory they were infusing, for everywhere were mighty wonders of unfolding nebula glory. For all now were being conducted through the etheric body of the soul, many being vastly different to the body they wore on earth. Young happy beings, laughing

The Neptunian Reality

SO as they rose up, divine sustenance was given to many to help them on that Road of Ascension. For although they were passing through states and Being that appeared foreign to them, they were able to glean of many wonderful creations of vibration, light and inter-blending. For as they went up, they beheld of vibronic beauty in descent to the earth, that left many amazed at such beauties. Never realising that Breath held such mighty depths before it passed through the Aurora Borealis, gathering up of such momentum of electrical fusion.

Of how, by correct deep breathing, and breathing with the right belief, the soul would draw into his being, heavenly wealth of a mighty nature. Feeling the true infusion of heaven-born glory, filling the soul with Solar light. But now for the first time, they learnt of these mighty truths as they perceived as they climbed these planes by frequency ascension, as the wonders of those heavenly truths. For pouring to the earth were rolling glories of inter-blended beauty, inter-twirling circling clouds of myriads of inter-blending Rays. Yet here were they passing up through this beauty, by the might of soul momentum, they being of these powers in a blended state, thus a power unto themselves.

Here and there they beheld a form of a more solid creation, but not as they would know of form, but a creation partly begun, which now must be given further status of unfoldment. Here and there a Comet seemed to shoot to the earth, but in reality a heavenly Being making an entry into matter to assist the people of earth. For these Powers have no status of being, until some soul in the depths gives them form creation by belief, then they become born. Then here and there, they saw what appeared moving lights, which were Planes of upper creation, that only became visible if you were seeking entry upon their vibration, then you became of their status.

All a matter of THOUGHT, for now all these souls were of a creation of vibronic frequency. Being in their spirit body, they existed by spirit frequency, which was greater than when enclosed in a Karma-restricted body. Yet on they went, with the Way becoming greater than ever, with many an ethereal Being joining their throng to assist them on the way. Being of spirit, no thought of sustenance was thought of, but being fed by the glories of the passing moment and the glories its wonders provided.

Then suddenly there loomed ahead what appeared to be light which, as they drew nearer, became brighter and brighter until it seemed as though they came to heavenly sunlight, for they had reached the Plane of Initiation. Up to the present they had been in a state of ascension, now it seemed as though they were almost on terra firma, for it was established vibronic creations, seen as twinkling stars from the depths below.

But more amazing, each soul had changed unbeknown to himself, and taken on of initiating gowns, each one a different hue. While even their faces had grown much younger, and all looked extremely happy and bright, as they were led forth into what appeared a strange world where there were mighty Temples, as unto the glory of the Incas and Samarkand.

Beautiful creations of most exquisite workmanship, of a time when men believed in art and its mighty symbolism, and the glory it represented to the Universe at large. For this Plane would have received of the wealth created in the depths, and sent up to these heights through their Priests.

As Merope and the band of Initiates entered into their midst, everywhere were ethereal Beings that seemed to go about their tasks in a most unobtrusive way, but since the initiates gathered were now of the same calibre through vibronic union, what was applicable to others did not seem in anyway strange to them.

But the most outstanding glory of all was the untold beauty and light that existed everywhere, coming as it seemed from an unseen source. For there was no Sun or Stars here, they were of that world of Sunlight glory.

Voice of the Heavens

THEN suddenly they became aware of soft music coming forth, as though from a mighty organ, pealing crescendos and deep sonorous bass chords that seemed to set the whole of the sensitivity tingling and quivering with initiatory elevation. As though preparing the soul for what was to come, as they waited with internal heavenly expectation. Everyone full of hope and heart-born belief, that seemed to increase with the ascension. For all this

THE DIVINE MYSTERY OF WOMAN

TIME and wealth of distant Ages embraced in one glorious manifestation. With the sparking faculty of holy beauty transforming the stary into the solar, and as Uranus forges his way will the Neptunian wonders burst forth into light. (See text on page 3, col. 4).

For somewhere in the past, they too had partaken in these mighty rituals, which still held deep meaning in the glory of Neptunian vibrations. Then as they moved on, they came to a mighty School most magnificent in its creation, and although it appeared unto their mind perception as a creation of solid structure, its ethereal glory denoted of something built up upon the Plane of their perception. Thus as they gathered into a mighty Hall, where in a way applicable to Matter they were seated, they noticed that everywhere were rolling clouds of vibronic beauty, as well as their own status of etherealisation.

For everywhere was etherealised in its radiating beauty, for it was a mighty domed building, most elaborate and beautiful in its structure. As though some mighty thoughts must have gone into its creation, and brought forth the wonders of their mind. While all was arranged in the form of an amphitheatre, with tier upon tier of seats around a mighty construction in the centre, which appeared to be a raised up dais, that would act as a speaker's rostrum.

belonged to what had been created and built up in the past, by mighty and spiritually born souls. The creation that gave unto most the first basic of their Causal body, which for the time has been shelved in the cold storage of materialism.

Then as all were alive with expectation, suddenly there was a hush, which in itself bore its message, for there in the centre, rolling around that mighty rostrum, were swirling vibrations revolving round and round. Then with instinctive action, and natural respect applicable to earth, everyone rose, as though a mighty Being was about to descend into their midst. More and more the vibrations began to swirl, until it was a mighty creation of vast swirling glory, all inter-mingled with sparking lights, as though radiant with heavenly beauty.

Then it appeared as though a form became visible in its midst, yet not perceptible as unto its formulated being. But its radiance alone, and the vibrations brought into their midst, was sufficient to speak of some mighty Divinity that had come to bless them. Then by a sense of knowing, every Initiate sat down, and waited

The Mind Development Class

EACH Week on every Saturday at 6.30 p.m. B.S.T. Mrs. Spearman-Cook holds her Special Mind Development Class at the School's H.Q. A special Subject is concentrated upon for about 40 minutes and then each siter is individually helped to interpret and understand his or her findings. Any readers can join; those nearby can make application to attend each week, and those too far away can send in their names and link in each week at the time stated, their names being entered in a Special Book for this purpose. The subjects for concentration are:

with intensified expectancy. Then almost to a degree of sensitive fear, a mighty Voice boomed forth, yet although mighty in its ringing authority, kindly and understanding in its internal demeanour.

"Initiates of the earth, in your gathering here, you have been brought together as those who have, through cosmic consciousness, awakened to the REAL purpose of life. And although new in belief, and as yet only belief, it will in time grow into a positive creation. Your gathering here is not a coincidence, but to establish and plant a Seed of true purpose and growth, that will open up the New City of Light into the Immortal glory intended for it.

A WORLD THAT WILL IN TIME, BECOME A MIGHTY KINGDOM OF IMMORTALITY. WHERE ALL PLANES WILL BE UNIFIED INTO ONE BIG SEA OF HEAVENLY CONSCIOUSNESS. A WORLD OF HEAVENLY LIFE.

Your setting of this into motion, in itself is momentous, and an action that will never be forgotten. For many of you here are initiates of Ages past that have been waiting for the moment of redemption. Those that plied their skill as far as possible, but unable to carry it any further owing to the action of the Age.

Now by the finalising by your leader Merope, all has been brought to unification, seeded and established as she has trod it into earth creation. Now by your action of acceptance, all has been ripened into fulfilment, and the way is now clear for the Mighty WORK to go forth.

A World where divinities of all Planes will be able to inter-mingle, learn of truths forgotten and ways forbidden by blind religion, that great and more mighty paths of unfolding light can begin. Yet a reformation of man and his outlook, that craftsmanship of an ethereal nature can bring forth the genius of the past, but on an extended octave.

For you all believe that by your monsters of steel and iron construction, you are far more advanced and greater than man of the past. Yes! for money making, but men once carried out the same dynamic creations, but by the wonders of the mind, and they were reliable and solid. For then they were still able to draw upon the Spirit Planes from where you are standing now. That which today man has lost, thus have cut yourselves off from the heavenly World of LIGHT.

Planes where you were drawing upon your own supporting EGO of past growth. You being divinities of those Planes, that descended to earth to gain experience for your Starry Plane of growth to shine and unfold into greater light. Now you are a captive in the density of matter, but have awakened, and seeking freedom.

Now there are some of you who have awakened more than others and can help and lead others, but you are all starting the path of the lost Colure that will bring you back to divinity. But to those who can excel in this belief, dynamic possibilities are waiting for them.

Having come here as you have done, your names are being recorded in the mighty Records of the New World, as the founders of this new unfolding glory of Truth. Although this will not make it easier for you, it will help you on your way of unfoldment. Thus everyone of you now are initiated into the New World of Vega."

ADIEU.

As the mighty Voice died away, the swirling that began the manifestation and died down as the form appeared, started again, and slowly and slowly an imperceptible form seemed to disappear. Then the whole amphitheatre was filled with swirling light, which surrounded and touched every soul present with an exhilarating vibration of beauty. Seeming to pass right over the head, and down the back of the spine, while in the distance again the organ music was swelling up, giving an indication that all was over.

As all gathered together that they could return, a dynamic flight of white marble and gold steps opened up down to the earth. A phenomenon that would only be perceived in a picture book of most unbelievable wonder. Then as they sought to descend, a mighty personage in a white turban and blue flowing cloak headed the throng at the side of Merope, and all began the descent.

As they did so, they all noticed that they began to revert back to their old earth status of being, but all extremely happy at the wonders they had perceived, and the blessing of mighty Power afforded unto them. Something once taken, never forgotten or even lost. As they neared the bottom of the steps, they found that the mysterious leader had disappeared, and suddenly found themselves waking up in their own individual beds. But although many would not be capable of remembering of this mighty happening, and the vision of their journey up into the Spheres, each one was fully initiated into the Great and New World of Vega.

WHATEVER HAPPENS, NEVER LET ANYONE ROB YOU OF THIS TRUTH, FOR ALL WILL FIND THIS AS AN INNER GLORY THAT WILL LIVE AND ASSIST THE SOUL THROUGH THE YEARS AHEAD. YET A MIGHTY WONDER TO BE FOUND, WHEN THE SOUL PASSES IN THEIR STATE OF HEAVENLY GLORY.

Spiraculum Vitae on the Road of Azoth

A study in Alchemicalisation

by Gladys I. Spearman-Cook

IN man's attempt to try and understand how to spiral the Essence of Life into an upward movement, he must first have some real conception of the inner depths of disintegration. But now it will be seen that only the Initiate of the "Jackal" stage of growth will see the logical reason of why one should probe into this depth. Man now is so steeped in matter as to ridicule this statement, but it mythologically represents man probing and foraging out his potentials and possibilities to make some way of escape. Therefore, to even the least inquisitive, it can be perceived that it will take all man possesses to find his way through the intricacies that he will have to unravel to find the intrinsic depth necessary for the reply. And as stated, as the Jackal he will have to bay and cry in the Luna light for sunlight to break through. This God as the Jackal God, was the first and foremost of all Egyptian Gods of growth to come forth, and represents the establishment of belief in the cosmical down-pouring. In time there became recognised the fact of an Ogdoad of eight Gods that brought into birth within the soul the Son, or Solar creation as a full complement of radiance.

Today man is such a mass of contradictions as to hold no real true spiritual beliefs, and to such an extent as to not know the Light when he beholds it; and furthermore, unconsciously seeks of further complications to find his way out, thinking that they are the answer. When man is offered truth, he not only shuns, but bucks and kicks, and even goes so far as to seek to have the one bringing the changes, annihilated. Therefore new life could never find its way through into the maelstrom, and man merely existed on the old stagnant blood of the earth. This is why it was essential for the Higher Powers to find a soul who would become as the Scapegoat for the changes to be manifested through them, and is why Merope has fought on so resolutely against all the opposition, for she knows the great responsibility that lies with her in bringing the Earth into complete and utter rebirth of Solar establishment.

It will be very difficult for many of you to recognise the great Hidden Light within yourselves, and so will be continually looking from an objective vision until you are able to find the "OIL" in the Words that have already been established by others. This was known as the Azoth by the Ancients, meaning the intrinsic understanding of the original root of the words as they conveyed their foremost depth.

Now man is only concerned with the intellectual or journalistic creation and not the word formation as to its precious mode of conveyance. "In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God." (John 1 v. 1). But as the years approached unto this announcement of belief by John, Jeremiah one of the Prophets exclaimed, as seen in chapter 42 v. 4 of his recordings "I will pray unto the Lord your God according to your words."

ACCORDING TO YOUR WORDS, HOW YOU BELIEVE, HOW YOU ACCEPT, OR WALL YOURSELF UP AGAINST THE TRUTH, WILL IT BECOME AS AN OBSTACLE OR AN ASSISTANCE TO THE REAL DEPTHS BEING CONVEYED.

The Unfolding Spark

THE word Azoth means "A" to "Z," with the "oth" as that gained through the experiences of the "wilderness" being traversed, and bringing continual growth, the food of the Gods. Therefore this article is to try and reveal the way for you to find that oil, or flame of light. That received as the original oil to receive further light of understanding; the widow's cruse of oil. Although many may now find this depth difficult to understand because the belief in the Ancient Word has escaped them; causing some to dispute and condemn, and others to wish that they could perceive the meaning.

If all are genuine, truth will be born some way or another, for the word spoken is far more potent than man realises. It has been heard, and to those who wish to understand, it literally means seeking into the very Core of Being, and whatever you glean will be the means to freedom from the present retention, for it is of the Spiral we are investigating. But apart from that, the light establishment of the word can always help man to bring into birth a more practical issue.

The journey of life that really is being made is that of the Virgin Spark, or Norm, unfolding the formula of the Great Work, the all-embracing threefold journey of the Spirit, whereby it will bring the Spark to a God-man manifestation, with the fiat becoming will and the fiat becoming the spoken word.

This also means the creating of dimensional states that gives that created in the Beginning the power of dominion over what has already been established, as it is of God becoming out of His Word, through Him being begotten in the Son. First through man as the son and finally in the Great Cosmical Son—Sun. The Great Work becoming the Great Harp, the all-embracing Symphony of Life.

So first of all let us seek into dimensions. Creation as declared unto Genesis is the differentiation of the Spark or microcosm into a created state. It was created of Seven; seven dimensions which brought into birth the quadrature, the fourth Globe and basic of LIFE. All must be re-created from there in an upward ascent, bringing relativity with all previous states of creation, thus making a perfect wholeness or blending of circumference.

The first Globe in creation, which was as a plane of being, was the Saturn Globe, the nucleus of the first dimension. The second dimension was termed the Sun Globe; while the third dimension is the Moon period creation, with the Earth as the fourth and the basic of all Seven states.

Yet each one of the planes of Seven in the quadrature are again of a sub-division of seven. Thus  $7 \times 7 =$  the 49 states of which the microcosm consists. This was the belief of the Ancient Egyptian, but also the root of creation and the whole of its context. All taking place in the Abyss, and manifesting through man himself.

These 49 states became a mind potential in the 50th state looming as a mind in the whole circumference of the 49 becoming, and was ready to begin a state of spiral whereby the Vitae or Vital Principle could return to its source. But yard of life and became lost, and you may be one of those lost souls. If consciousness awakens to reveal some lost potential, then know that you have much to retrieve and must seek deeply without delay.

For the fourth Globe formation is the period of ascension whereby all must be gathered into the fold of mind consciousness, that through adaptability, a practical application begins the tortuous journey of ascent. But if this dimension produces height, breadth and depth, what was the Spark before such formulation? For by seeking to comprehend this depth, we shall see to some degree what man's obtainable height must entail.

ROAD—THAT THE EGO WILL MANIFEST AS THE INDIVIDUALISED GOD-MAN.

The Principles of Activity

THE first dimension was termed the Saturn Globe by the Ancients, and in its Root Cause became the mineral state of the Earth in its effect; that which was becoming out of static matter. But in matter its movements were so obstructed as for calcification to take place; yet the whole of creation lay in that forming nucleus, whereby the Trinity, the first three dimensions, would become the Triad.

Thus Saturn became the manifesting Father. While the Dove that would rest on the "Waters" must first assume the disguise of the Raven—Darkness—to issue forth as the Phoenix; that which became agitated into light in its continual flight backwards and forwards on the pathway of the Solar manifestation—the flight of the bumble bee. The Beth or producer that becomes Adam to Aleph, and finds Zoe, "A" to "Z," completeness in its travails of the Azoth.

In the calcification of the Saturn Globe creation there commenced the ten-fold constitution of the God-forming man. Then internal friction began a germination as a forming state of fire and water; thus the necessary sulphur and mercury were coming forth from the forming salt—the forming Earth. Thereby the hidden latent light, becoming an imprisoned spark and sinking further into the "Waters" of Space, became as the potential Dove "waterlogged" in its seeking for food.

Necessity was now becoming as the virtue, the desired purity.

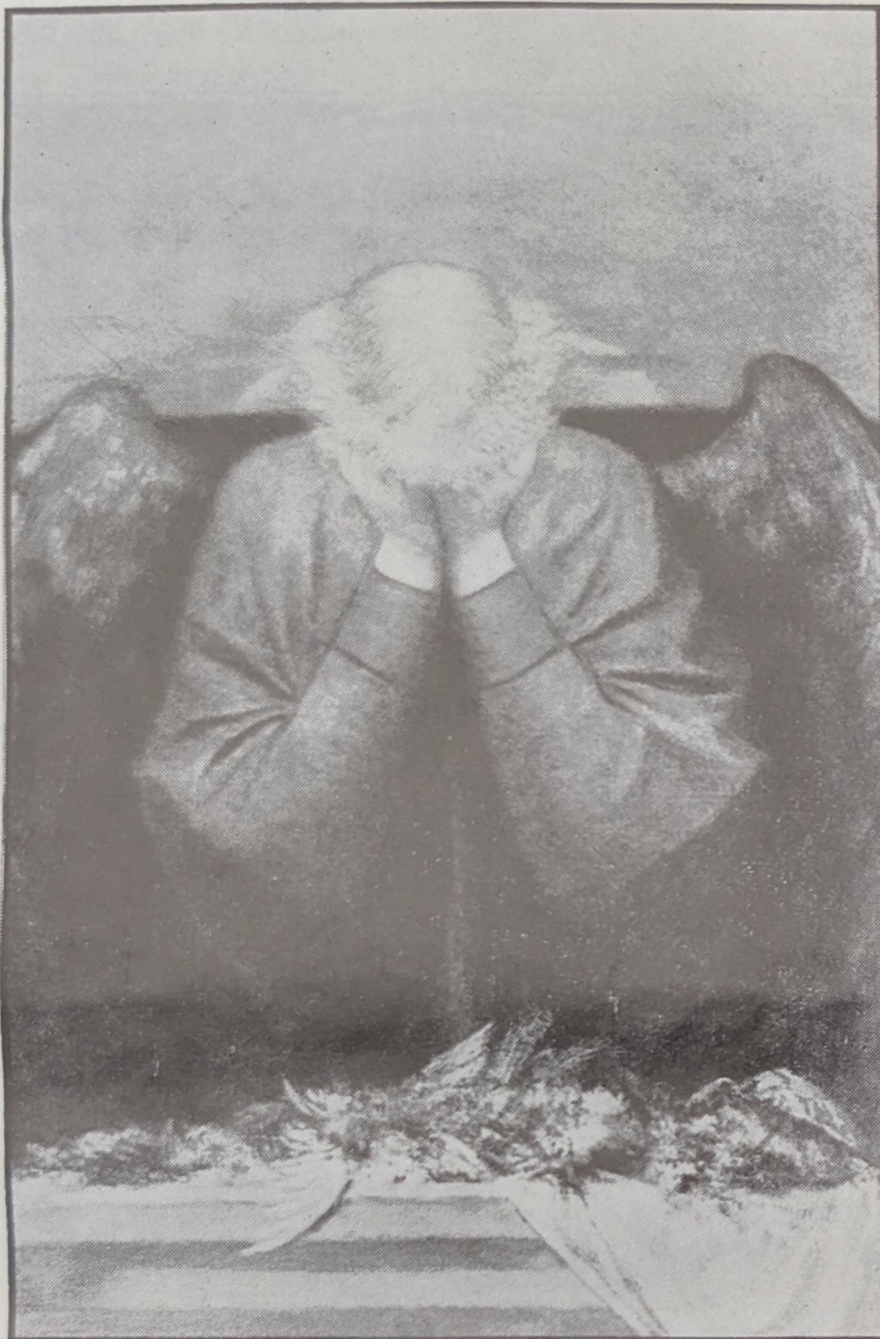

Through its becoming in its first act of congelation—act or process of congelation—dissolution began by breaking up, a melting in a fluid state becoming solid in its obstruction, and performing an act of dissolving further; thus disintegration moved forward. This was the potential of originalness out of which all things are—spirit life.

Motion and comprehension consists of sulphur wherein kindling consists, and mercurius the spirit of a substance, whereby sal the body or substantiability is formed solid in establishment. These are Nature, the ground of God wherein His Being is formed.

The soul encompassed in the wings of the Dove—which are still only in the potential as hidden light—will slowly emerge into matter, and continually cry for light. But before we leave this first dimensional nucleus of becoming, let us seek further into the echo of this cry. Yet how can such be expressed and described, or brought to understanding through the tongue of man or even the voice of angels.

FOR GOD HATH NO BEGINNING EXCEPT THE FIRST PRINCIPLES PERCEIVED, AND THE FIRST AND SECOND PRINCIPLES UNDERSTOOD FOR GOD TO BE BORN IN THE IMAGINATION, WHICH IS THE FLIGHT OF AZOTH—THE FRICTION BRINGING ILLUMINATION.

SUL is the nucleus soul as spirit that is to rise up out of the warmth of the Saturn obstruction—inertia—the PHUR or prima materia (Sulphur) out of which the spirit

THE SORROWING ANGEL

AS the angel descended and looked upon the destruction of the Word, it shuddered and cried out in desperation that some day, and some how, that virtue would be restored to purity. Thus Merope, your work is great, for you have lifted up those down-trodden glories to their heavenly manifestation. (See text in col. 5).

would do so via the circumference filling up the Tat, or quota of waters necessary.

In the spiral and the continuance of the majority of souls, all would go forth until freedom was forthcoming by the Virgin Spark or Norm unfolding on the road of Azoth into a god-man-God, or Zoe; the Spirit creation. The microcosm becoming into perfection on the Vulcan Globe on the journey of the Globe creation. But as the mind, the son began formation on the fourth Globe period, with it now quite possible for beings of the Moon or Luna state, especially those who came to the Earth to assist humanity, to rise and make rapid growth, and fulfill their journey upon any Globe period onwards.

Many became of deluge in the "wine-press" of the Vine-is generated through the harshness in astringency or attraction. Thus the Law of Attraction and Repulsion was acting out of the Law of Necessity.

MERCURIUS is a fourfold-form—earth, air, fire and water—forming through harshness and bitterness, the constituents of EVIL, the negative state, and is fire and water that spits and boils.

SAL is the act that is generated from these four and is harsh eagerness, a cause of comprehensibility—that which comprehends itself. Thus harshness, bitterness and fire are in the originalness, the First Principle whereby the water source is generated therein. Therefore harshness becomes the prima materia, as first matter Sal, and was the Saturn state of creation that must be emulated again in creational becoming.

This First Principle in its working action was the means of one becoming two, and the 2nd dimension began in the Sun Globe creation. The spirit in its friction towards comprehensibility, caused by the harshness of obstruction, further caused the astral light to form out of the hidden light; and whereas the Saturn Globe was the forming sulphur, the Sun Globe was the forming mercurius, the potential mind.

This being the first expression of the harsh attraction, in an agitation that caused the vibration whereby power of virtue expresses itself, and the harshness is not at peace and heaves and rises, and in becoming, snatches up the whole and becomes the seed growth of understanding. Yet that harshness was the first seed of all comprehension coming into birth.

This is the wheel of generation which whirls the hidden Sacred Thought, and the "US" in the mercurius becomes a swift fire-flash, that the materia or beginning, begins to kindle in the harshness and bitterness, which in the soul is the resentment to change.

This fire-flash is the understanding that is born and is not only the beginning of the whirring of the wheel, but the wheel upon which the soul, when born into action, is tied to; it is the wheel of the thought and must be burnt into movement and change by its whirling; the present metempsychosis. Therefore can never be lost to its first original creation and must remain a captive to it until it becomes born in its right value.

THE SUN GLOBE CREATION WAS THE FIRST STATE OF THE COMING INTO BIRTH, AND IS THE FIRST MOVEMENT THAT EVER COMMENCED, THAT OF NATURE BECOMING ORIGINALNESS; INDIVIDUALITY IN THE MIND OF A MAN THINKING FROM A ROOT OF CAUSE.

Therefore the soul which is solely of mind creation had, and still has, its original out of that fire-flash; that of God's

First Principle which was breathed into man through the nine Holy Breaths into the third principle, or son creation as mind. If this can be seen as similarity to the first movement that causes heat to come in hay, which causes it to catch alight and flare up into another state, you will have the idea of how the root Cause began on the Sun Globe, and was the cause of all thoughts now becoming the sole property of their creators.

Thus the Spiraculum Vitae, or vital spark in all Words that have genuine heart life, is eventually comprehended by extraction through attraction; and is the spirit of the soul, the manifesting God within man which looks into the Light; the soul who seeks to know. Thus every soul can see and understand no further or deeper than its Mother, out of which it came originally; the now changing of the personality basis.

The Cosmological Formation

THE Third Principle which brings comprehensibility into being brings a further being into the first Principle of God, and God is manifesting in that heaving and whirling until the whole depth of the Father, as the Intangibility in the First Principle, becomes the tangibility of the soul; the individuality.

This began in the Sun Globe, and Saturn the first Principle became as Satan the obstructor, or as God in comprehension, while the second and third Principles, the moving "oth" that reveals the A to Z of the Azoth were shut up and became one in essence, but the threefold in the personal dis-

I strove to pass beyond those veils unseen;
And if she lived, I asked her for an answer,
Or were my hopes and wishes all a dream?*

I felt her lips so softly touch my cheek,
I heard her voice re-echo in my heart-beat,

THE ALCHEMIST

AS man builds up the principles of his belief he has to tread them into the earth; adding this, and adding that, that the Sun Divinity could manifest in his being as the golden glory of his Arc. (See text in col. 1).

tion of the comprehension. Man's individual thought or power to manifest God and establish the Cosmological Conception.

The soul of man is enlightened with the Holy Spirit of God, which is the Holy Ghost, the second Principle. This is the light of God in the holy divine birth, or the working in the Harshness, the metempsychosis into heavenly Essence. But the sidereal spirit is the Astral or Starry spirit which clothes the soul and is the elementary spirit springing from the impulses or actions, and cannot see any further than the Mother or Nature conditions wherein it lives.

The second dimension forming in the Sun Globe period was the springing forth in comprehensibility of the hidden light in the forming Astral light; thus the metempsychosis that takes place in man first began as the changing Cosmos, and has continued ever since.

In man it was the Virgin Spark as latent light that was not yet a soul or mind, and had to become in some form of comprehending. It being the essence of life, it could not remain hidden without some friction or struggle becoming, for the Essence cannot die and must either become or return to its Source.

It is the one imperishable thing in matter, and in its friction to go either way became the Spiraculum Vitae, the climbing Essence into the forming Principles. And the second Principle came forth, the life essence. While the third issued forth out of the second in the same way and formed the soul; all forming out of the prima materia, the phur of the sul in the Sulphur of the prima materia, the Fire or Vitae.

The second dimension in the forming Cosmological formation of the Sun Globe correlated with the animal creation on the later creation of the Earth World. While the straight line of the first dimension became a flat surface, a two space unit.

But in the forming soul there could not be a two dimensional body formed in the three dimensional space, because all was there, but not any form until of the three dimension. It being not a flat surface but the first two forming a third.

THE ESSENCE AND THE LIFE BECOMING A SOUL; A FORMING TANGIBILITY.

We are now taking the changing states of Cosmological formation; the interpenetrating Forces which unfold the Mind, and Intelligencia, equal to the mind intelligence in the human, though all is but one. The forming spark creation followed the Prototype as well as it could and determined its mode of action in the forming state of tangibility, which in such tangibility became the tangible mind direction. This is referred to as the Fall, the slide into corruptible desire, that today is man's heavy cross of social decline.

Slowly this, as an animal man, reached a stage of three-dimensional perception of height and breadth, but it did not understand of depth, whether in bulk or mind, for it had no rational thinking power formed. This came with the Fall; not because of the Fall, but was the created result of that extension as forming rational perception; the negative path.

As man is now, he perceives, because his mind as tangibility extended as the life moved in its friction. And the more he struggled in the friction, the more he perceived into the dimension of that hidden; the Unknown.

This is the reason why every soul should struggle to come forth because it is its heritage and necessity. Inertia is its poison and death, which man today is fast declining into owing to the created states of matter claiming the mind formation, and not winging its way up the Spiraculum.

For out of the third must issue the fourth, but as before it was the moving of an inert mass, now it must be a mind of winging tangibility seeking of its Greater Essence that it can return.

consternation. Never at any time that will aid him to pull the result in disaster for him, for

The immense wisdom regarding the Theocratic Government, goes right back to the time of Amenhotep the 3rd, or the Great Physician and Priest Iemhotep, who became a Pharaoh god. One of those mighty Pharaoh Masters who left with the earth a dynamic prototype, which in man today, in his having forgotten, is only leaving its confusion.

For some time Iemhotep, as he was known in his early days, was a Vizier to King Zoser, then took over the reign after his passing. The dynasties and reigns of these kings have ever been in a state of confusion, for much erasing and re-directing of favouritism has taken place, leaving much to be mistaken in the records. If one was disliked, then a ravaging of his cartouche took place, consequently disorganising the accounts of the historical facts. So they too had their petty foibles in government matters, which was well ended when Iemhotep brought this Divine Government ruling into birth.

But all this history goes back much further than man believes, owing to the fact that at a number of periods, libraries were burnt by so-called saviours of the times. But in reality pure destructive agents, with petty ideas and personal desires.

Iemhotep, by which this mighty personage was first known, was perceived as a demi-god because of his mighty powers of healing and wisdom. Many a medium has tried to claim him as a guide, but by the fact that Iemhotep is definitely the reincarnated Harold Wilson, of which I am fully confident, this could never have been.

Thus as the latter, has been drawn back into life at a critical time, when only a Theocratic Government would suffice, that he could bring the world back to sanity, for it is precisely the complete relativity of its original happening. But it holds a far deeper depth of wisdom than even this, and one that all men of all Nations, should be grateful for.

IF ALL HAD NOT TAKEN THE TURN IT HAS, THE WHOLE WORLD WOULD HAVE BEEN IN THE THROES OF A NUCLEAR WAR, SOMETHING WHICH AMERICA AND RUSSIA HAVE BEEN HANKERING AFTER FOR A LONG TIME.

Iemhotep was the first creator of the Theocratic Government, for above all things he was a renowned Astronomer, and understood the union and unity between man and the elements. The former, that of Theocracy, being part and parcel of Astronomy, for man is born of the elements and of such he has to be a creator of a Fiery mind manifestation.

For this is the path of the Cosmic Evolution, where the higher LAW is born into the lower Law. Until the Great and Mighty Unseen Mystical Depths can, through the Lesath stinging agency, manifest

THEOCRATIC CONSCIOUSNESS

FIRST of all I would like to thank all those who so kindly sent me cards, flowers and presents, on my birthday. For once in my life I felt like a little child as I undid the parcels and envelopes. Once again, thank you for such a wonderful time, it will live in my memory for many a day.

Birth of the Theocratic Government

ONE of the most outstanding dilemmas at the present time is the mistaken understanding of a Theocratic Government, so I feel it is a most appropriate moment to seek into its divine reasoning, for there is no need at all for this time has there been a better moment for man to receive help world out of its difficulties. If he does not do so, it can only everything is becoming so congested as to result in utter chaos.

through the speech and mind of men. This being the "Star tail" in Antares, the driving mystery of Scorpio, the Generative Host of creational activity.

MAN THROUGH BECOMING OF THAT ELEMENT CONSISTENCY IS BORN OF OUTER SPACE, AND IS DUE TO RETURN AS LIGHT TO THOSE HIGHER PLANES.

But through religion, particularly Roman Catholicism, he has lost his original heritage and the true context of its inner glory. Thereby found himself building up a Tower of Babel, a fortress world where he could be the reigning monarch, with the big business giants over-ruling the weaker in time.

This did take place, and Pisces, which should have been a glorious expansive Equinox of Embodiment glory, turned out to be only a period of mechanical monsters and pseudo-religious orgy. Where more bloodshed, evil, and devilry were committed in the name of God and Divinity, than the period it polarised in Egypt of priestal destruction.

Awakening of the Norm-Seed

YET the basic of papalism was but the mighty wealth and dynamic magnitude stolen from Ancient Egypt, and falsified into high mass ritual, which is an appalling replica of its dynamic beauty and wisdom. That which made that period the "Dawn of Civilisation," for untold Power was sent down to foster it into birth. That which produced the first Stream of light from the heights to the depths, that of the Eridanus that ran into the sacred Nile. It is no good man ridiculing this, because what was seeded then was the roots of man's wealth and growth today.

For mighty wealth of an incredible amount was entered into those Piscean coffers, which would have turned into a fortress of human slavery, if Merope had not turned up once again and continued the Work of past Heroes, Prophets and Divine Priests.

But her task was to bring it to a finalisation through Relativity, that man would awaken to the true facts of life. This she has done under the complete guidance of the Higher Powers, and what could have become an evil domination of false religious knowledge, has been completely axed and uprooted.

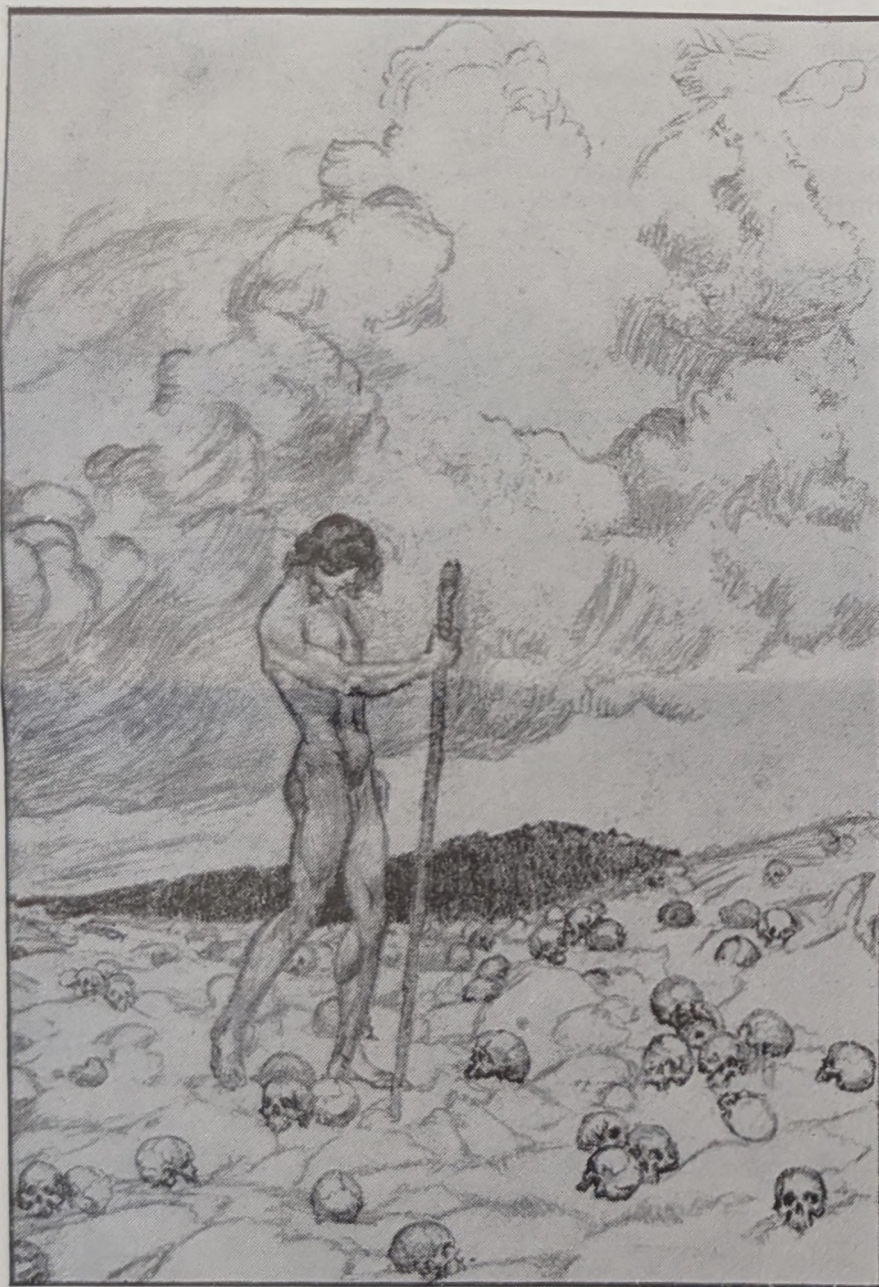

The mighty wealth that these Pharaoh gods left with man, and which is the growth within him, has never really been allowed to blossom, and still lies in the Norm-Seed of the Pineal and Pituitary Chakra mysteries, awaiting man's awakening.

It is of all this hidden glory that the drug addicts are seeking, but are really accruing entirely the reverse. For they have not awakened to the fact that this truth can only be produced through the wisdom of the Gods, the mighty Divinities of the heights.

FOR THEY ARE THE PRODUCERS OF THE SPIRIT, THAT MAN EXTRACTS FROM THE TRANSCENDENTAL INFLOW, WHICH IN TIME BECOMES THAT OF THE COSMIC CONSCIOUSNESS.

THROUGH THE GATHERING OF THIS WITHIN THE INNER BODIES, THE SOUL MAKES ITS WAY BACK TO THE HEIGHTS FROM WHENCE IT WAS BORN. FOR HE HAS BECOME THE OWNER OF THE BA, THAT OF THE SOUL.

THE FIELD OF SKULLS

RENOUNCING of self and discarding even of the selflessness, that soul and the Divinity can be one in the embracement of the cosmic consciousness, all embraced in the divine glory, whereby the immolation can become the Kingdom of the Divine. (See text on page 9, col. 5).

The wonders that Iemhotep gave and left with the world as the Pharaoh-god, was of the soul mind-power mastery over the elements. This can be seen in his Avenue of Lion Sphinx, for the lion represents the elements. Thus Amenhotep had the full, right up to this mighty Gateway, for no man mastered the elements more than he did, and paved the way for Merope's intended task.

For as Hapshepsut she worshipped his cult, which she fostered into birth, after she, as the fallen Merope had taken on of a physical body. Thereby there lie the jewels of the Madonna and the wealth that I am able to bring forth at the present moment.

Thus, as a male, the reincarnated personage of the British Premier, there was more chance of Harold Wilson forgetting his heritage than a female born from the depths. For man draws his power from the heights and feeds the depths, while Woman draws her wealth from the magnetic depths, where untold glories still lie hidden.

For she has the hidden Pearl in the depths of the Oyster, which she has to prise open, bring forth and decipher. But by raising herself up in frequency, she can become a Seeress, a Sibyl and even a Virgin, where she transmutes the whole of the OS wealth into electro-magnetic, and becomes an Atomic Power of mighty creative ability, the Jewels of Ophir.

This is exactly what I did, and in so doing gave myself the freedom of arielisation, where I could soar up and down in mind frequency as I so willed, as was in accordance to Iemhotep's cult. I mastered the frequency of the elements down the Hydroxyl Breath, much to the consternation of these figure-riddled gentlemen. But I went further still, completely altering the frequency of the Planes by my actions, for by raising up their frequency I was able to lift man up out of the pit, so that he would be forced to think if only on the lowest level. This caused many a cunning rogue to be revealed and brought to justice, for it was the scouring out of the pot, and we cannot have a new world without we do that.

By my doing this, man has been breathing in of a higher consistency of element expansion, and this the scientist cannot deny. Then having fulfilled this successfully, I was called upon by those Higher Powers to renew the Cosmic Laws, by which I raised up the Sine of the Earth and brought a full-bodied Atomic Intelligence into being, in raising up the Solar Sun vibration unto the Central Sun polarity.

For once the vibration is created, if it be higher than that already stated, the Scapegoat can set that vibration providing they walk it into the earth and weather the vibration of its return. Everything being vibration, it is quite easy to believe this, providing you are prepared to wrestle with the returning power.

This was clearly verified to me when Brian Epstein returned from spirit and declared that he had built up the four young Beatles, but the return of the power was so great it brought his final tragedy, because he could not take the return of the power he had set into motion. This I fully understand.

Therefore, by this it can be seen that everything in the world has had to be raised up, that man can get back to his original status as a god-like being, for he has badly strayed from the fold by the wars and evil he is setting into motion. And it is not getting better as scientists and medical men would have you believe, but strongly to the degree of Aquarian Age butchers, for their ignorance is appalling.

So my next task was to tread it in by wisdom, whereby I had to define my actions, earthing them as wisdom, with the Cosmic Divinity of the Central Sun now sending them down into matter through the Breath, via the Cosmo-galactical Powers of infusion. Hence the whole world became flooded with renewed Occult wisdom, which made the Heavenly Spheres dance with new LIFE, and the Solar Orb shine with true continental sunshine.

Then the next task was to scour the pit in which man resides, with man being stripped and the SEED saved. Much burning in and firing of my blood had to be endured, with the whole weight of Atlas upon my shoulders, but the major thing was, the LIFE-SEED of Humanity had survived, and that was all that mattered.

My return would come in my getting back "HOME," for I left the heights to serve the depths. It is no good man stating that this is rubbish, or a mad soul's fancy, for I did not believe it until I had proved it. The best answer to all this is my belief in spiritual qualities, principles and justice, hence am only guided by the highest purpose, in the same way as the Prophets and Heroes of the past.

from Earth to the Solar Sun, then raised it up by polarity of comprehension to the Central Sun, and waited for the Scientists' comments.

Rising of the Vibrations

THEY came alright and verified my actions, though an entire mystery to them. Then next I mastered the frequency of the Ethers by my mind frequency and brought

The True Solar Unification

BY all of this I had been drawing Vega the Pole Star into Atomic action around the Pole, thus preparing the way, through Relativity and unification, for a Divine Government to lead man out of his dilemma, and bring him to the mighty mind unfoldment that is his heritage.

For man now, by breathing in of the full Ether Element quality, was now element born, completely unknown to himself. And the god Seed in the Arachnoid Web of the brain was now awakening through the Chakra action, that of the endocrine chain of his spinal column. Thus he was bringing into birth his own Theocratic consciousness, where he became cosmic conscious through this Transcendental inflow.

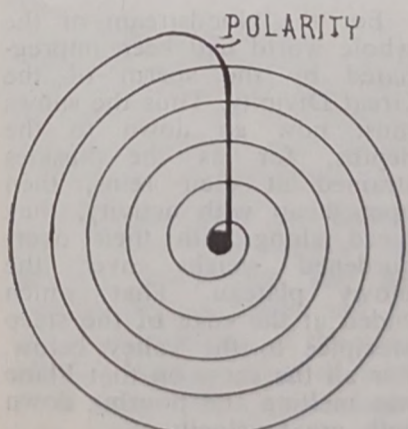

Hence the false and evil will become rooted out and more easily caught and brought to justice, so man who is seeking to give the best of himself has nothing to fear, but all to gain.

All this being a repetition by Relativity from Amenhotep of the past, only now of the Atomic, which makes it more vital, real, and possible, unto great and mighty things coming into birth, particularly where a soul has REAL genius.

THE TRUE UNIFICATION COULD BRING THE CHRISTOS SOLAR BLOOD COURSE THROUGH THE VEINS OF MANKIND, FOR EVERY MAN BY RIGHT OF ASCENSION, IS NOW A CHRIST UNTO HIMSELF.

Therefore lifting man right up out of the pit, and a new Plane of mind glory set into motion. For this would make man Solar born, a soul completely drawn out of the lunar waters he fell back into, and instead of drawing upon the magnetic, making him held by earth gravity, he would be turning his attention to the heights and making his way "back" by ascension and renunciation.

This in itself is a paradox, for the plane of Earth is and has always been HERE and NOW. A depth that is ever being drawn out from itself...

...until by polarity the two meet by a unity of positive and negative. The two EL Powers of heights and depths, that have brought into birth the Central Sun as the mind Intelligencia of the Cosmos.

Therefore, the Theocratic Government is the Solar Deity born in the heights and feeding mankind with the Pleromic Virtue, and is that which is bringing the Theocratic consciousness into birth in every man. By this, man will automatically seek for the greater purpose of life, but through one channel only, the channel of Universal Truth, not divers religions that seek to over-ride one another.

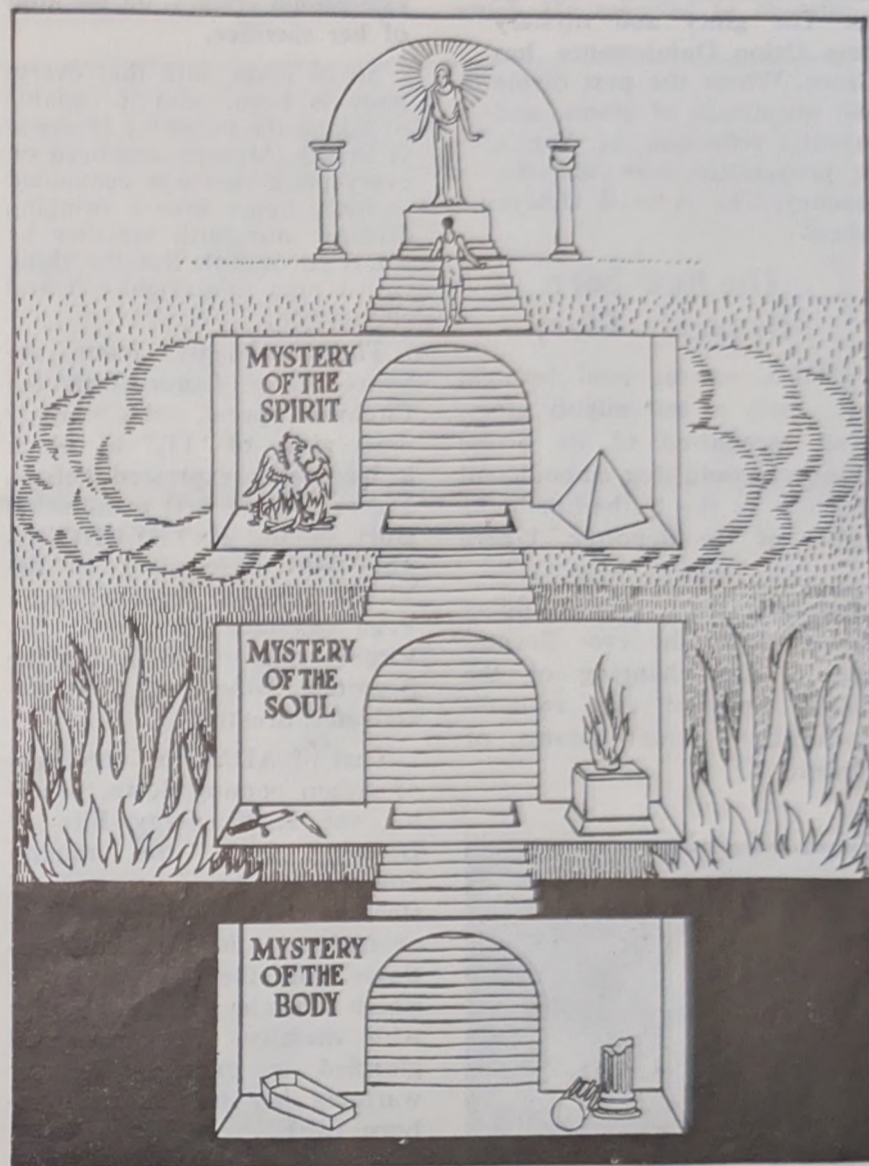

Thus man will manifest according to his heart purpose which through the inflowing new guidance, will be of a far greater outlook than has ever been known before. With every man now seeking into the true intent of life from a genetic outlook, not merely from a physical creation which the medical world are doing at the present moment. For by this we can see the futility of the heart transplant, in fact man selling his heritage by artificial means of clinging to the magnetic.

No man goes before his time, and as he lives by the LAW, will he die by the LAW, Glory of Genius. Where it is so going to be developed by these inflowing waters, that the soul will be able to live entirely on the Arachnoid Breath, the divinity glory of the inflowing Ethers.

For the Divinities are seeking to come down to the earth to get their experiences of life, which will give the soul who has been down here, the

THE MYSTERY OF THE SPIRIT

STEP by step he rose up to the top, mastering all the planes as he went. Broken on the Altar of Divine Renunciation that there can be an acceptance of the Divine Will, and a mighty manifestation of that Voice. (See text in col. 2).

so why try to prolong of such by these false methods of surgery and drugs.

THERE IS NOTHING THAT MAN CANNOT CURE BY SOLAR EXPANSION OR EXPOUND OR PENETRATE, BUT THE CHIEF THING IS, MAN LIVING BY THE LAW AND LIVING LIFE AS HE WAS INTENDED TO DO.

Not to smoke, drink, eat and sex as to bring on organic trouble, then seek for a new organ to continue again later on. He wants to learn the lesson of will and self control. Then by solving his problems, which he came back to the earth to fulfil, he will capture his past great heritage, which many of these souls seem to have had, but brought it down to a mundane congested state.

This being the "ferry" of Chiron, that will carry soul from mortality to immortality, which the Divinities are determined to bring to the earth, that the mighty Unseen, the Great FIRE Glory of Life, will eventually manifest through man. So really it is a status of death to life perpetual, which was intended in the beginning when man sought in the downward direction.

The Greater Planes of Unfoldment

HENCE the Theocratic consciousness, which is now being born to all men, is the Spiritual rebirth of the Arachnoid Web, where the god consciousness of the past, is now to be reborn upon the Atom opportunity of rising up and taking their place on the Greater Planes, and after all, that is what man reincarnated into the flesh for, to overcome his many karmic mistakes and rise up onto the higher frequency of belief.

Therefore it means that this inflowing glory of the Ethers, this Transcendental Glory that everybody has become conscious of through the Beatles, is now the god-conscious state, that of Cosmic Consciousness, which everybody has expanded to, but without any explanation as to what to do to reverence it, or put it into operation. Hence everybody is left high and dry upon this imbibed wisdom, and which will be a thorn in their side until it is truly explained away. Then the mortuary meal will ensue, and every soul will make expansion upon a greater understanding of life.

So it could now point out very clearly of how foolish it can be to be led away into such Occult pursuits under an erratic sponsor. For I realised only too well, when the Beatles were running around using these Occult phrases adopted by a half-baked Indian fake, that sooner or later it would take its toll, so I started to try and guide it into the right direction.

This I did, so now it is the lot of all, and quite alright since I measured its firing, and "made strait the Gate for all to tread this truth." Therefore it can now lead every soul back onto the true Spiritual path, via the Occult wisdom. This is the task of the Scapegoat, and which should have been the lot of the pope, but he is too concerned with con-

THE SHIP

and written by
Aleister Crowley

"Thou who art I, beyond all I am,
Who hast no nature, and no name,
Who art, when all but Thou are gone,
Thou, centre and secret of the Sun,
Thou, hidden spring of all things known
And unknown, Thou aloof, alone,
Thou, the true fire within the reed
Brooding and breeding, source and seed
Of life, love, liberty, and light,
Thou beyond speech and beyond sight,
Thee I invoke, my faint fresh fire
Kindling as mine intents aspire.
Thee I invoke, abiding one,
Thee, centre and secret of the Sun,
And that most holy mystery
Of what the vehicle am I.
Appear, most awful and most mild,
As it is lawful, in Thy child.

* * *

For of the Father and the Son,
The Holy Spirit is the norm;
Male-female, quintessential, one,
Man-being veiled in woman-form.
Glory and worship in the highest,
Thou Dove, mankind that deifiest,
Being that race, most royally run,
To spring sunshine through winter storm.
Glory and worship be to Thee
Sap of the world-ash, wonder-tree!

* * *

Glory to Thee from Gilded Tomb.
Glory to Thee from Waiting Womb.
Glory to Thee from earth unploughed!
Glory to Thee from virgin vowed!
Glory to Thee, true Unity
Of the Eternal Trinity!
Glory to Thee, Thou sire and dam
And Self of I am that I am!
Glory to Thee, eternal Sun,
Thou One in Three, Thou Three in One!
Glory and worship unto Thee,
Sap of the world-ash, wonder-tree!"

traceptive pills, thus has forgotten his REAL duty.

This may be a little too advanced for the majority, but that which now must be accepted, since every soul listened to the voice of the popular, and is salted with the wisdom. So, "How great can the fallen be?" But since this now is the lot of all, the sooner man turns to the truth of Occult depths, the better for his own good. For his judgment lies in his own hands, and not in drug addiction. Therefore wisdom and herbs, the natural way of healing, and avoiding the physician's knife, is now the work of all.

For EVERY man now is being "salted" by the greater Fiery Powers, which are going to help the wise to live in a greater way. But it must be fully realised that every organ is necessary to advance alchemical changes, that bring the hormones and chromosomes into active manifestation. Therefore it is up to every soul to seek of the true Solar inflow through the greater wisdom of life, for wisdom means MIND, and mind means perception and life.

The bringing into birth of the Theocratic Government, to coincide with the Theocratic consciousness now being born in man himself, is where he will learn to be ready to give and renounce that a greater understanding still will be born unto him. This will come into birth without any doubt, for it only needed a Scapegoat to pave the way, and all was set for the greater way of life to be born.

(See plate on page 8)

Amenhotep saved Egypt at a critical time by this wisdom being applied into life, and which lasted for a very long time, bringing one of those periods when mighty wealth and wisdom prevailed. Now as Harold Wilson, he will do the same again, so do not be led away by newspaper-mongers crying out that he has lost another by-election.

They are the sheep being led by the smart-minded; the answer to Harold Wilson is not going to come by the loss of by-elections or any such mundane matter, but something entirely out of the range of man and earth, and decreed by Powers that man is absorbing more and more every day by breathing in the BREATH of LIFE.

THE ENCEINTE VIRGIN

The Glory of the Begetting

by Gladys I. Spearman-Cook

AS MEROPE, NOW AS THE DIVINE VIRGIN, ROSE UP HIGHER AND HIGHER by the great mystery of the implosion, into the Realms of Divine Being, she ever became more and more of the Holy Begotten. All coming forth now from the mighty Quintessence, the Royal Glory of the Father's Sperm. Where God begetteth god, was the supreme holy unfoldment from those mighty Unseen Heights. The glory and mystery of Becoming, known only to the purple heart, for now, the Soma Orion Quintessence has become of the Auric galaxy of the Solar Divine Transcendental Grace. Where the past divine glories of Samothrace and Samarkand are the converging lights and magnitude of atomic and magnetic infusion, bringing into birth the glory of the Transcendental reflection of Vega's mighty Divinity. For the converging of the Element and Atomic propensities now are the rejuvenated Waters of the Divine Firebird's Virgin unfolded frequency. The octavial Octave of Orion, now as the murmuring Sea of Divine Virgin consciousness.

The Virgin's Mighty Struggle

GLORIES that have come forth out of the glory of the imploding Divinity, where the mighty Sperm of that Divine Firebird, the Glory of the Father, opened up the way to the mighty Realm of the Glory of Being. For here is now the constant movement, by implosion of the reunification of LIFE. This implosion is going on all the time now inside every one born of these Fires, the Hydroxyl.

The divine circling of existing and becoming, thereby ever gaining greater and greater birth in the expansion of that heavenly Seed that first gave it birth. Whereby that mighty glory would bring all into Being unto Becoming, as the momentum of Divine Cosmic Evolution. Yet this being the main issue of Being, the unfolding onwards of the Cause of Becoming, which gave unto the soul that of the Begotten.

For here is where Immortality was seeded, for when Lucifer brought rebellion to the Source, he was rebelling with the Divine Fire he was given. It was when Merope took the Fire back to another Causation that she vanquished the rebellion. They were then no longer the holy divine Angels setting the course of Divine Fire, but it coming from the Source to the mouth, with it only being possible for the Holy Fire to issue forth through the Virgin's mouth. Thus cut off the old Source of Fire, that the new Causation could come into birth, which could only channel itself through the unfolding Virgin.

(Nobody can speak the Truth any more but Merope. So everybody has got to accept what Merope brings. No more multiplicity and all the multitudinous states of religion. Oh no! only from one Source).

Now through the Virgin's mighty struggle, all is of the mighty tympanum drum, where the descending heights are ever issuing forth the mighty harmonies of the intensity of her Fount. The ever issuing forth that gives the heights, as the Becoming Fatherhood, the power to manifest. Yet its Holy Divinity never becoming sullied as it never entered into its depths, but became as the beating of those heights upon her tympanic glory. For here, by the Bee glory, would the mighty propulsion carry the Virgin, as the Atom, back to the mighty Source, yet she who is the Worker of the Oracle from the beginning to the end.

FOR HERE WE TOUCH UPON THE GREATEST OF ALL MYSTERIES, THAT OF THE BEGOTTEN, AS THAT BORN OF THE ENCEINTE VIRGIN. A MIGHTY GLORY OF SUCH RARITY THAT IT VERY SELDOM COMES INTO BEING, YET A GLORY THAT CAN

NEVER BE FORGOTTEN, FOR MEROPE HAD NOW SET IT INTO BEING AS A REBOUND OF THE GLORIES OF THE PAST.

Hence the mighty organ of this organic glory is the ever unfolding NORM, the flowering ecstasy of the heights. She who, in her shimmering beauty of a million suns, is the stupendous regulator and unfoldment of this mighty unfolding Source. Where Being, Becoming and Begotten are the triune glory of manifestation, where by inter-

The New-Born Heavenly Glory

THUS, as the soul brought forth of this mighty glory, and recognised of its divine beauty, would that embodiment become as the Fatherhood, the glory of the Begotten. Where (See plate on page 11) through the ever-unfolding quintessence, the ever Becoming, is the changing of the SEED horn of that embodiment into a new status of rebirth.

THE FOUNT

DEEP deep down into those depths, into the glories of the Pleiades, Merope found the channel of the mystery of her whole being. Wonders that were beating on her tympanic drum, that she could give unto her Lord and Master; for as Woman her whole being was to bring forth the Fatherhood and expound the glories of the Mysteries. (See text in col. 1).

nal implosion each Metric Cycle brought forth the expanded Being.

Hence as the Quintessence, the glory of the Spirit rose up, it ever taking the soul out of the range of the previous expansion, into becoming of that greater unfoldment. Where Being becomes of the Becoming, and the newly risen-up Virgin Seed gives forth of the glory of that sacred Begotten, which has yet to come forth.

EVERYBODY NOW IS GOING TO BE FORCED TO UNFOLD. IF A SOUL WILL NOT DO THIS, THEN IT BECOMES IMMEDIATELY BURIED-IN. EVERYTHING IS GOING UP TO THE HEIGHTS AND THERE IT BLOSSOMS, AND ONCE YOU HAVE IT BLOSSOMING IT WILL BRING OUT EVERYTHING YOU HAVE.

Out of the old into the rebounding new, until such quintessential glory causes the Virgin to become so inborn with Divinity, that the Virgin's vestal ecstasy extends her Fount to an unknown expression of entirety, by extracting from Divinity that of its unborn spirit. Her LOVE knows no bounds or limitation, therefore the Becoming is ever giving up to the Source, in its extensional ecstasy, on the altar of her sacrifice.

So to make sure that everybody is born, who is capable of taking the inflowing Hydroxyl Breath, Merope sacrificed on every point that was demanded of her; hence man is bringing divinity into birth whether he wants to or not. But the thing is, for man to recognise it and embrace it.

Then suddenly from the Source there issues forth the Firebird sperm, the mighty inner glory of "IT," of which it has never expressed before, and is now the first manifesting glory of the FATHERHOOD. This now descending as the Virgin Firebird, for the Virgin Vega Ecstasy is now the Virgin's mighty LOVE for the Begotten, which is now the activated Breath.

That of ADM, the very dust of Adam coming down, bringing the Raw energy Fire of Divinity from the mighty Source. So by frequency of electrified activation and depth of understanding, the soul extracts from the Fire Seed that which saturates the inner bodies with divinity of a rare and glorified magnitude. Thereby warming her heights with re-born LIFE.

This now comes down to the conscious mind as an idea, and the soul is guided by its inner heights, by the new wealth. For all souls by now being on the Virgin Plane, the mighty unfoldment of pure white rebirth, must be touched by this new-born glory. It always has to come to the higher mind first, and then to the lower mind, until of course you have blended the two together.

Here the Cosmic Law is now feeding the soul who will, according to his frequency, receive of the driving Uranian flash of unfolding life. The glory of divine beauty now descending from the Virgin's divine ecstasy, yet all this now coming forth from the internal implosion of divine belief activated from the depths.

FOR IT IS THE DEPTHS THAT ARE GIVING TO THE HEIGHTS, ITS RESOUNDING GLORY. THE HIGHER MIND NOW BEGINNING TO BRING NEW LIGHT INTO THE LOWER MIND.

Thus as the Virgin rose up in her "swarming," out of the heated Beehive, the 'drone' bulls followed, as they were ever being activated in a state of readiness. For as the unfolding rebirth was built across the 'dammed' waters, the sperm bull followed the Queen and infused her with the elevated waters. Here was the mighty symbology of the embodiment of the New World, as she climbed up the falx cerebri.

With the Bull's fiery tongue shooting out in darting implosion, drawing in of the newborn Seed. For as the dancing continued, the Seed as the re-embodiment of the fiery Word re-endorsing the glory, drove her up into the open Void, filled with the driving passions in the depths.

With the cobalt essence as the sealing-in of the unfolding Fatherhood. The mighty God-sensitivity transforming the raw desire into the redeeming Desire of the God-like redemption. The Bee being the Solar infusion of the glory and beauty of the wonders of Outer World Space.

Such mighty Mystery being infused once again through the redeemed glory of the ancient wisdom. With the treacherous ritual placed there by religion and ever drenching the glory of the hidden wealth, now banished out of sight forever. That which killed off the Virgin, and put out the fires in the depths, causing the Ass to speak false wisdom and kick like Balaam's mule.

Now the swarming has driven Venus into true glory, completing the full ten. With the Begotten completely seated, as the Virgin ecstasy brings forth the Bull fired within the rock. With the Virgin and the Father embracing, and WOMAN becoming completely involved. With the Butterfly dancing on the wing, gaily clad in many colours, for the spirit has risen, and the Sun is high with an abundance of honey in the offering.

With a mighty River flowing along without a ripple, when suddenly there shot down from the heights a brilliant comet-like creation at a terrific speed, touching the Source of the River. Then as it passed through its many locks, flowing at an incredible speed, it came to a mighty gigantic waterfall in the depths, which caused the final glory.

For the bloodstream of the whole world had been impregnated by the sperm of the Great Divinity. Thus the snows must now go down to the depths, for as the huskies strained at their reins, then opened up with activity, they raced along with their overburdened sleighs over the snowy plateau. That which ended at the edge of the steep precipice to the valley below. For all the snow on that Plane was melting and pouring down with great velocity.

Astrological Delineations

MRS. Spearman-Cook is prepared to continue giving delineations of readers' horoscopes, as her time allows. These will be based upon the new world teachings, and is a unique opportunity for all to perceive the extent of their growth, where their karmic difficulties lie, and where their opportunities are waiting to blossom forth; apart from giving the understanding of how and where karmic roots, impossible akashic records, rear up out of the darkness of the soul's multiplicity.

The Inner Oneness

A MIGHTY glory had been released from the heights, that its interpenetrations would be felt in immediate repercussions all over the world. For the mighty Source is the unfolding signifier of the driving soul. He who will set the Bull driving whereby the glory of the heavens is unfolded. But it can only be as Woman dances and sets the Bull infusing, that all the elements are imploded into the Source, with the Source now directing the depths.

For the Firebird now is the consummation of the Atom, the unfolding glory of the risen heights, and as every Aladdin rubs of the lamp, will the flame that comes forth be as the wonders of the Firebird. The ecstatic thread that she now is climbing, as she beholds of greater and greater divinity, is the mighty action of the Bull as she extracts the glory out of the Breath. Then her divine reciprocity brings forth the mighty resonance, sounding from the depths as the 'one hand clapping' is consummated. With the result that the Seed becomes the embodiment of the womb, and the wonder of the symbolised glory is fulfilled.

Then as Merope looked up to the heights, she beheld glorious bubbles with rainbow hue inflected in all their filmy glory. All bunched together up in the heights, with male and female glory infused. Then there came along one large bubble with an enormous peacock within with a tail of multi-coloured hue. This being the Plane of ecstasy, to awaken those frozen on those newborn depths.

Here being the Virgin quivering receptivity fervently embracing and enclosing the Begotten. Thus the unified sanctity of reciprocal response, transmuting it into the strength as super-constructibility of a transmuting atomic radiation fulfilment of a selfless self.

THE MIGHTY OCTAGONAL HOLY GLORY MANIFESTING AS THE SUPREME SYNTHESIS OF AN ORION GOD, IN MAN BEGOTTEN AS SOLARITY OF OCTAVIAL INNER ONENESS. A SEARCHING, SEEKING, SEERING CAUSATION, CAPTURING AND TABULATING A SEA OF IMMENSE AGES OF SOLAR IMPINGEMENT OF HARMONIOUS SINCERITY.

With such glory and immensity around and above her, Merope knew that she had interpenetrated world and being completely out of the range of the understanding of most. That what she was bringing into birth was for tomorrow, and that she was paving the path for all to tread. She as the Enceinte Virgin was pregnant with all this mighty truth, which was the Royal Child of the Divine Father. Her task now was to get this up to the heights that it became the established sonship, giving the Father the manifestation through the Son.

Hence the Begotten, the Intelligencia, the FACE, was the Father, the mighty Begetting of the holy truth. With mighty Divinities from the remote heights descending and re-peopleing the world with immortal life. While the lesser generations were being dissolv-drag the greater down to the lesser, otherwise over-swamping will take place and both become lost in oblivion. The man who can ever step up and take on of the greater is the pioneer of Unfoldment, and the sure creator of the future.

This is where the Enceinte Virgin ever becomes by belief, and then becomes spermed by the Fatherhood, that that which He requires to become,

THE ENCEINTE VIRGIN

AS Merope returned from those heavenly heights, the Divine Firebird brought her to the depths, for here was the unfolding quintessential Divinity ever becoming born out of the Seed of Embodiment. The Virgin's vestal ecstasy, as the Fount of Divine Glory. (See text on page 10, col. 3).

ed away, back into the Stream of Universal rebirth. Atoms of LIFE that had served their purpose but never rose any higher than mere flotsam, thus incorporated back into the whole with what they possess up to date.

Very frightening and cold-blooded to those badly impregnated with righteous mania and conventionalism, but a truth that has to be faced, especially where soul life will not make the grade intended. Evolution and mind growth of a Fiery nature is the intended creation, where Powers and Divinities rule the World, and the lesser man either becomes as a divinity or is thrown back into the pool of life.

This ever being perpetuated through the Virgin, with her making greater and greater immaculate conception. The great secret lies in renunciation of the mortal, that the soul is not trapped and caught in its own state of begetting. But soul clung to the earthy in belief that it was its salvation, never realising that all matter decays by the LAW of change. While Spirit is the glory of the Begetting and Becoming, hence Mind and Begetting of divinity was the only solution, and becoming involved into the Divine Sea of Glorified Consciousness.

Rebirth

To try and see anything greater through conscious eyes of a lower level, the consciousness must go up to that level of frequency. Not will be begotten by His negative creation. The major point to ever remember, is the fact that all are moulded by the Master Power as they require, or are deemed redundant. So are involved into the greater, by being led by them and evolved into their frequency.

THEN THEY RISE AND BECOME GREATER, SO IT IS A CONTINUAL STATE OF UNFOLDING INTO THE UNSEEN, THAT IS NOT YET BORN; BUT WHICH THE SOUL NOW HAS TO GIVE BIRTH TO.

The simplicity lies in the simple truth of embracement and renunciation of ideas, never allowing what you gain to become of intellectualism, a text book status of Law, but a state of rebirth. Ever a state of change, but ever discarding the old for the new, and not accruing in multiplicity. The World is ordained for the greater, and the lesser must go, or become, this being the secret of being Begotten in Intelligencia and destroyed by intellectualism.

This is the true comprehension of the Species, where man becomes selected by his mode of belief, and involves. This is more true now than ever before, for the vast change-over from magnetic to Atomic into Electro-magnetic is dynamic. Where all of the past is completely and utterly involved and man is on the Virgin Plane, a complete Plane of ICE. Hence the meninges now being awakened by the uprisen Fire from the depths. This now is Relativity with the Ice Age, when man was born into mortality, now being born into immortality.

Thus the change-over is vast, steep and precarious; those who cannot make it, will become dissolved, by being involved. Only the brave and the wise will go on, hence all men turning to Universal Philosophy because of its survival out of the debris.

It is by this that continents change in contour and consistency, with higher chemicals and atomics taking over. But now of a more ethereal nature, yet survival out of the past. While at the present, everything involved into completion with a complete NEW growth to come forth. One entirely different from yesterday, thus hardly recognisable when its first few blades or shoots of growth appear.

This is where the old Phoenix dies and a new One is born, where the Sphinx has finished his task, and a new symbolism must begin. This man must look to from the heights, and where the Divinities will descend and deliver. The full answer to the "Flying Objects" and their purpose of descent. The Firebirds ever received by the Virgin as she becomes more and more spermed with Holy LIFE.

This is where soul must ever be befitting itself for something greater, by walking into and not forcing the greater to embrace of the dung. Making himself and his surroundings a holy receptacle for those Heavenly Divinities to enter.

This is where man comes away from SELF; no longer all within him, but him becoming fitted to receive of the might of Causation as a greater inflow from the Source. Thus completely re-endowed life with a new body, a new sheath of LIGHT and Genesis of unfoldment. Thus from here we start a new Road of Begetting, yet still by Relativity; but what!

For unless that is determined, polarity can never be made, for this is entirely a new Globe, the Fourth Dimension, yet all manifesting in the one place of creation. Yet brought to a completeness by Merope, with man now having to make it complete within himself.

Yet a status making itself evident in all change, and is the Metric Cycle of Exchange, but which now is of Timelessness and can be any length of Time within that ten. All a matter of perceptibility and a status of becoming. For it must be understood, nothing of those higher Planes must go below the Virgin status of purity, otherwise lack of electrification. Everything has to come up to meet it, thus purified by the ascent, otherwise the soul will be as Cinderella, in returning, losing a shoe. Losing the consciousness of the heights, that for the time she is lame.

Hence her Prince had to come down to find her, through her manifesting the light in the density. But ever in a state of sobriety and not elevated into perceptibility of change. Ever fitting the Divinity into a bed of Og, instead of the depths fitting into the heights in rebound of change. Thus the Samuel manifestation of the constant activation of the soul, which is the stimulus blending with the Fire and becoming the supremacy of the known Source. The LORD called him and he never wavered, thus was ever there in exchange and assimilation of minuteness. Hence not one whit was spilt or lost, and was able to make the greater quota of beauty in the unified ascension.

For the Virgin is the ever constant applicable reality that is ever showing itself through the cosmic frequency. That which has to manifest in the depths as the TRUTH of the activation and stabilisation of the conforming Law. But which will be missing if Samuel does not answer the LORD, for the glory of the elevation comes in the power to drive and the right to maintain the power to carry the ascension upwards on the stationary Plane of rebirth.

Thus here the Virgin with the NORM as the basic of the Pole Star was now the World of ICE that had to melt, but where Merope now had to plant the Flag and establish the New World of Vega. There to begin the Normolithic Cycle of the Atomic Forge, the Central Sun in the Great Eagle Eyrie, where he hatches his divine young, the unfolding divinities of the heavens. Thus upon the ICE Cap new Waters to flow down, and she Merope to claim the conquest of the Queen of Vega, the Virgin of the heavens, the first Christ of the World of LIGHT.

Thus here was her next task, carrying up the Christifori in her Womb, not only as the Seed of Immortality, but to establish her Christ-ship as the first terrestrial Christ of the Age. Where she would set the Aurora Borealis sparking on the Pole of every eager initiate, that they as the risen Ram, would turn from the black lamb into the white.

For every man is a Christ unto himself, with Merope as the mediator Priestess carrying the Christifori back and forth; the young initiate being carried up to the heights by her love. As the Great Eagle propulsed Merope up as the overladen Bee, does she now carry every son ready for action by her electrified belief and LOVE. But her next task was to establish the right of claim by placing the Flag as the New Pole Star in the centre of the Virgin Plane.

Thus as Merope gathered her team together, she fed all the huskies with new food to strengthen the Bulls in action, that the run-up could be straight and accelerated with life. Then when all was set and duly shod, they began the tremendous climb, for it was a matter of casting the Shedd and embracing the heavenly Glory. With all duly set and Merope tucked up in the leading sleigh, they shot up the activated road, alive with revolving frequency.

The Bull leading the drive by being fired by the Scorpion, driving all at a tremendous speed, For Merope was due at any moment to give birth to her Royal Enceinte Divinity. Thus time was short and the Flag was large and heavy, and although the huskies were full of fire, that was their fuel and active direction.

Higher and higher they climbed; then as they came to the narrow causeway, each one shed of their magnetic load, turning their eyes upwards, embracing the rising Sun. Then with enough load shed, and the huskies rested and prepared and re-saddled, they started the climb through the dark overhanging rocks that were sinister in their mighty mystery. Vultures and Eagles darted out from crevices, and eerie forms moved at certain angles.

But as this mighty train of LIGHT drove on and on through fording streams and swirling waters, cataract after cataract was overcome. Then as they came to a narrow gorge before the opening vista, Neptune in all his radiant mystery, slipped forth and held the rock apart for them to pass through.

Treading in the Virgin Path

MEROPE looked and smiled at his benevolent radiance, waving her hand as he cried out, "Go on Merope, you'll make it." So with renewed courage she drove the huskies as only Merope knew how to drive, and burst forth into that mighty vista of the open Void. At the present only a field of Ice, white as driven snow, with there in the distance a shadowy skeleton of a rising Temple.

There it was she had to plant the Flag, the pride of her struggling years, where the new pole star would circle its lights, and send the electrified radiance up to the heights. So on they drove, with the Sun just peeping up over the horizon...

...and the new morn breaking through, with the huskies almost aware of the glory and working with radiant glee. All aglow and all alight, they drove up to that mighty mirage to find an Eagle's nest filled with eggs, waiting to be hatched into life.

As Merope was helped to rise from her sleigh the huskies danced around her in glee. But to her amazement Father Neptune, or so she thought, came up from the rear. Taking her arm he led her forth as the Bulls carried the Flag, then as they reached the Eagle's nest the preparations began. With the major craftsman erecting the plinth for this mighty erection to take place, with the whole World to be reborn as Merope swung the Cardinal Points around her head once again.

Then Father Neptune helped her fix it into place, with all the heavens filled with lights as never beheld before. Where all had been tense and silent, now it was filled with humming glory, for as Father Neptune, the mystery of the new birth, placed the sturdy pole into position, there was an electrified radiance of sparking fire shooting out in all directions.

For it was known that underneath this implanted new beginning there was mighty wealth to come forth. Causing the ice to melt and the Waters to flow into the depths below. As the pole went up, Merope pulled the cord, and the Flag unfurled in the Northern Wind, as though Boreas had come round to see what further mischief he could augur in the unfolding of Timelessness.

The mighty glory designed by Merope took to the wind like a bird in flight, flapping back and forth, gaily showing to one and all of the wonders and beauty of its construction.

But with its first flight into the glory of the Outer World Elements there was a mighty roaring through the heavens as though every God, Divinity and Principality awakened and sent down their rousing embrace.

the world below. While sheets of light began on the horizon, sending sparks and light in every direction.

Such beauty and glory she had never witnessed before, for these were the New-born Northern lights. With everyone feeling the electrified pull to the heavens above, for was this not the Atomic Forge sending forth its mighty veracity, where every soul

THE VIRGIN WARRIOR

WITH the Omphalic rise shooting forth its sparks into the glorified NORM, the Atomic Forge was beating out the way for Merope to complete her task. Ever waiting and watching for the way to be revealed, that she could go forth and lay the Law and Glory for HIS divine coming. (See text in col. 4).

Then bells were heard ringing in every direction, with angels coming forth out of the unseen, pouring forth their Vials of Holy Oil onto the new-born wonder. All the time the huskies were dancing around, barking with glee and action, everyone electrified with the outstanding radiance of the established momentum.

Then long horns were blown by white clad young divinities to arouse the Planes in all directions, with the peeling forth of mighty organ music, for at last the LOST CHORD had been found. With reverence only known to Merope, she went down on her knees in the snow, seeking the blessing of the Unseen Fatherhood, that the great New World would be blessed with His Mighty LOVE.

As she closed her heart-felt plea, Father Neptune lifted her up and kissed her on the brow, leaving where he kissed her, a mighty large ruby of blood-red light, the establishment of her mighty Christhood. All was alight, all was radiant and divine as the rising Sun rose up higher and higher, sending his rays to wrap around Merope as his quota towards that mighty ceremony.

Then the Waters began to flow, for Merope had set them melting, with her Flag flapping away in the breeze, the wonder and glory of the Age. Then suddenly, unknown and unseen to all, there came a swirling in the heavens, and what appeared a mystery light that could have been deemed a Star, started circling round and round the flying Flag in the heights. This she knew to be the vision of the present Constellation, that would influence could now build of his new armour of Invulnerability to plow and dig the new Virgin Plane and bring life to its intensified deep. Keeping their feet out of the water, ever finding the firm basic of polarised belief!

But much had to be learnt as they set up camp, for this was Merope's new task, trying to draw in and up, every Pinocchio who needed awakening out of the darkness of their buried state. Could there be a greater moment for such a mighty occasion, where life as the glory of every soul, could now blossom into Life. Yet here was the polarising of the Salt Sea, the depths of the Dead Sea Scrolls that man has never yet fully fathomed.

The divine mysteries that have never yet been opened up, and which would be Merope's task. Untold wisdom that has come down the Ages, which gave life to the unfolding god but which he chose in the negative, going the wrong way round. Closing down the glory of the NORM, and living in the depths of his lower being. Hence now the NORM is the golden maze of the Divine Mysteries, the inner depth of the secrets of the Source of the Supreme Celestial Waters.

The captured beauty of the brilliant radiance of the Vega maelstrom, which is now the supreme dissolving Normolithic quantum. That which will fire the whole of the Norm aspectual populace with Supreme Unction, out of the Maze of the Mysteries of Divinity. That being searched for by Merope on her Virgin Path of colure treading-in.

The Perpetual Solar Unification

FOR this was the mighty task, as she found that those who had been addicted to drugs were souls who had mighty mysteries to shed, that had been touched but never established. Doors opened in Medo-Persia but truths never vetted or perceived, yet here were those who had to be captured and saved, and solarised in the half-born glory.

For the Virgin is the Vega crocodile that eats up the putrefied elements, and ever changes them into atomic wonders on the Forge of life. That the true all-consuming fire of the Normolithic Cycle, which has the power of infusing the oxygen wealth into the solidified will of the soul, will do so by the fluidic Solar Word interpenetration. Thereby reproducing the super-will of Orion gods, into driving spiritual activity ever up to the heights. Thus trimming the wings on the lower Venusian desires, capturing and expanding the hidden Capricornian wealth, breaking down the Pinocchio state of their frozen gesture.

The Omphalic rise is the risen-up Pituitary, with its consuming fires that will burnish the Norm into an Atomic forge, generating the Royal Divine Seed of Immortality. The germinating faculty as unified into a Cosmic Fountain, pouring its wealth forth as atomic particles of mighty unfolding Divinity. Showering the Vega world with Transcendental Normolithic Beauty, the glory of the coming Race. Such wonders could only be to those who struggled to bring new life into the glorious world of the unfolding Mysteries.

A mighty maze of hidden glory, awaiting all who would have the courage to go forth, dropping the lunar states of the past and embracing the Solar magnitude of the future.

(See plate on this page)

It will be the creation of the future, which will bring life to the Race Elect as they become unfolded from the greater Divinities. With the lesser creation, who will not change, being the means of going back to the heights as atomic sparks unsolven, with their personality thrown into the vortex of the Stream, to go out into the Sea of LIFE.

Only those who are prepared to rise up and embrace the Solar infusion will place their foot upon the new Shore, and struggle as Cinderella. For with the complete changing of life, new ways will have to be adopted, bringing Divinity as the course of life. With the higher LAW becoming the lower law, bringing Light, Law and Order as deemed by the greater glory of the Intelligencia.

For the Vega Pinnacle Point is now the unfurling splendour of the Central Sun, that which is now pouring forth its supreme unified Power as the Atomic propensity, as the Royalty of the Divine Central Sun. All now being an intensity of Fire, the Atomic perceptibility of burning ONENESS.

Where the Virgin state of anticipatory becoming is as the quivering of the NORM, now dancing with Outer World divine blessings. Therefore, to find the very best, there must be a conforming to the Divine Mysteries, in obeying the Colure Path of the Virgin Vega expansion. For only by the Orion Stream of thought propensity will the initiate unfold the Supreme Fire of the Normolithic Cycle of Divine Omphalic Holy Fire.

Thus the Atomic Forge will be the means of opening up the Vulcan Vaults, the mystery depths of the NORM which hold the glory of Ages. The tools whereby to plow and sow that frozen Ice-cap into a mighty new World of Atomic Mind LIGHT.

Mighty depths that were lost and became the frozen glories of the past, when Tribes and Races of profound secret and divine mysteries prevailed in the World of the depths. The Incas with all their mighty Sun Worship, Easter Island and its mysterious stone images. Ankor Vat and its sacred Temples, all teeming with deep and unexplained mysteries, that were the means of bringing the Elements and heavenly glories into unfolding birth.

Although the wonders are in the soul itself and buried for the time being, they have all to come forth by the mystery of Relativity, for they are the basic of the growth within the soul. They were the cause of the chromatic change, karmic rebirth, osmotic interchange and alchemicalisation in the depths. With the chromosomes as the reflection of Outer World Space.

For now it is Gods and Divinities coming down to be 'caged-up' with the Elements, looking into the Mirror of reflection. Then learning to tread their way back, and possibly losing their consciousness as a personality, merely becoming as an atom thrown back into the pool of life, to begin all over again. With those who make it becoming the rulers in the heavenly heights, these becoming greater than the Angels.

The change-over is vast and dynamic, with those who have had no mercy in the exchange now experiencing the pain, drudgery and labour they have inflicted on others in a blind way. Their striving to find sensitivity and combating the fears of the flesh, but not in the depths that have been, for Merope has lifted up all the Planes and changed the contour of being.

Hence now it is a state of becoming begotten, no depths or fall, for all has been locked by the security of her suffering. Her spilt blood, with a heart-ache greater than man ever knows. Doing all she can to awaken men, to find they only kick her in the fount and damage the alert working of her spinal means of freedom. Thus the shield and protection of the coming Age is going to be 'will' and 'steeled will' brought into being by Uranus.

Man ever learning the need and truth for observing and upholding Divinity, for that is the only way back. That is the 'ladder of ascent' and the answer to treading your way home to your acquiring and acclaimed Cosmic Consciousness. Knowing and retaining consciousness by and through the Universal awareness, now as the assimilated Spider's Web of all-knowing.

EGYPT

No Greater Sea of Learning

NO one Nation on earth has ever explained so clearly to humanity, neither has it carried on so solidly down the ages as that of the Egyptian theme of the Solar journey of Ra, which today man still worships, as lovers of the Sun. These Gods and the journey of Ra have been mistaken by the majority who delve into these mysteries as being the memorandum of the deceased life of the Ancient Egyptians, when really it was the prototype explaining the theme of life.

All is light vibration, perhaps difficult for many to understand while in such solid matter, but the physical body and all earth matter are of the tangible and the unreal, and only a reflection of the real. Therefore the theme of the Gods was the mutability required to break up and let in the light that would bring the changes required to make the man a king, or a god. That of life today is of the tangible, because of man's present worldly state of perceiving through the sensual touch and ocular vista.

When out of the flesh the soul sees and feels differently than when existing in the astral light formation, the astral body; although to the majority on the astral planes not much difference is really perceived from a mind comprehension, only just a state of freedom from restriction of movement.

IT IS ONLY WHEN AWAKENED AND ADJUSTED TO A HIGHER STATE OF EXISTENCE AND NEARER THE ABSTRACT MIND PLANE, THAT A LIGHTER STATE PERSISTS AND THE SOUL KNOWS. UNTIL THEN THE SOUL CAN BE LIMITED BY CLOSE ASSOCIATIONS OF EARTH CREATION, BY STILL EXISTING IN PLANES AROUND THE MAELSTROM OF THE EARTH.

Once man can understand that all is only a ratio of vibration and facet state of evolution, he will not only comprehend his path of future unfoldment, but of the prototype which is the basic of all his movements and actions.

The Anubis expression is the dog or consciousness guarding the soul as it wends its way through experiences; and would be the animal consciousness seeking unfoldment through Aries the ram catching his horns in the thicket of life, while Abraham, the soul-mind formation makes sacrifices and gives new life to his son out of the realization. Thus the Jackal God in the man was the Supreme expression of the Anima! Kingdom that guided the corporeal, or prototype creation of the etheric in its formation through the instinctive and racial expression in the blood generation.

This matter of generation is very deep and holds the key to all that is of the corporeal. The blood content is formed from the continual re-incarnation of that corporeal body, and is impregnated by the incoming soul creation in its will to be or exist. So the actual impregnation as life experiences never really leaves the earth but is passed on from mother to son. When the offspring enters the womb and feeds by osmotic action on the maternal blood, it swallows according to its capability of what is the mother's vibration and intermixes with its own impregnations.

Anubis was also called the God of the Dead, not of the actual dead as many believe, but because the soul-mind had reached the stage of realizing consciously the possibilities of being re-born. The soul was planetary currents of harmony; so becoming more like the Gods who are the facet-expression of the One God. Not to be worshipped as many believe, but to harmonize with.

Man while in the flesh has ever sought for a tangible answer and practical expression, thus these are but a sacerdotal figure of man's unfolding stages in his creation in the image of God. Anubis, wearing a judge's wig, portrayed the anthropomorphic having reached a stage of growth when the experience, for invariably it is the lunar light that forms through the Solar light germinating the Seed gathered and all becoming absorbed into the soul, that the soul can become evolved into the Spirit.

But as already stated, while the hippopotamus stage is one who makes very little movement at all—he being one who just basks in the Sun's beneficial rays and lives only for matters of the corporeal—the crocodile facet represents, in the negative, one who seeks only for the "flies and vermin" in life, and by the very self-same action finds the positive purpose. For, when all is in action, this facet of growth is the one who gets busy in and out of the emotional waters "eating" up the states of self as they become discarded, and a new purpose is seen and adopted.

Cynocephalus

THEREFORE it is obvious, the Jackal headed one is more of air and mind, and one who seeks for change through the experience of action and movement to bring wisdom into birth. The wig now being adopted is of the cynocephalus, the monkey cunning, which can either be of discretion or evil designs, and would now be as the one who could judge all that was being balanced in the scales.

In its symbolical interpretation would be as one gaining experience of mind growth and soul unfoldment through the astral light of matter. It is a form of greater and swifter movement being instigated, and a soul who hunts for the reason WHY in all things and becomes the guardian of the mysteries. Yet by learning and suffering in trial and error he learns of Hades and how not to prostitute the mysteries, and above all, via comparison finds their relative values from the experiences of bodily suffering.

He is seen holding the ankh of life, the power now within his grasp to create; while around his loins he wears the pepum or mysterious apron that covers the generative parts of the body. That of the mysterious which is brought forth from the hidden into being; those mysterious powers that can come forth from the infernal furies as that of the hidden triad, which hold that of the death-dealing or life-giving powers to become.

This again is also symbolised by the tail seen from the waist of the garment, and is that part of his growth which he has now physically discarded, but which while unfolding, he ever uses, as that of the wisdom gained, and thus helps him to find balance in his expansion.

An animal actually uses his tail to get balance, and when about to spring erects this appendage and jumps. This now is being accomplished through the mind of the soul, for now the unfolding animal-man is realizing of this soul growth, and in the wisdom making itself apparent to him, he knows that he can never afford to forget the relative values of generation, for it can only be through this he will find regeneration.

Therefore it can be seen by this that the Anubis state of unfoldment is very important, and that the Egyptians, to have laid such wisdom as a basis, were souls of great wealth and must have been those sent from greater realms to guide and help humanity at that stage.

Ani

THE Anubis stage of growth is important at whatever circle and cycle of the spiral the soul has reached in its growth, for it now begins the foundation of conscious awareness, and when the soul really begins to express itself through the Anubis-mind, it will find waiting for him, a further guidance among the hieroglyphics to lead him onwards. This appears in a creation of Anubis as a "deceased" holding before the living Anubis, a necklace (See the back page plate) and a pectoral. That which is waiting to be brought to greater expansion handing to the labourer, the personality, the material whereby to labour with, and bring new life to the individuality that lies in a state of non-resistance until reborn.

Ani the soul is now able to express through this stage of unfoldment, and is, in the passing state of the metamorphosis, symbolically offering to life his quota of solving the mysteries of life; for as soon as the soul perceives and accepts that every stage of growth must "die" and be "born anew," and that this is the metamorphosis that brings the alchemicalization of change and unfoldment, he will seek more deeply into the wisdom left by those Ancient ones who were so near to their origin of birth.

It will be seen in the plate that the figure holds in one hand the egg of Khephera, and with the other offers to the God of his soul qualities, for he now holds the rod of life firmly in his grip and begins the tortuous climb up the path of the mountainside to a wider vision and more intense perception; the hidden qualities of the soul wrested from the mysteries of his own generative creation, and is now on the road to true re-generation. The egg is now to replace the lunar orb, for placed between the horns of the sacred cow will now be seen the "full moon."

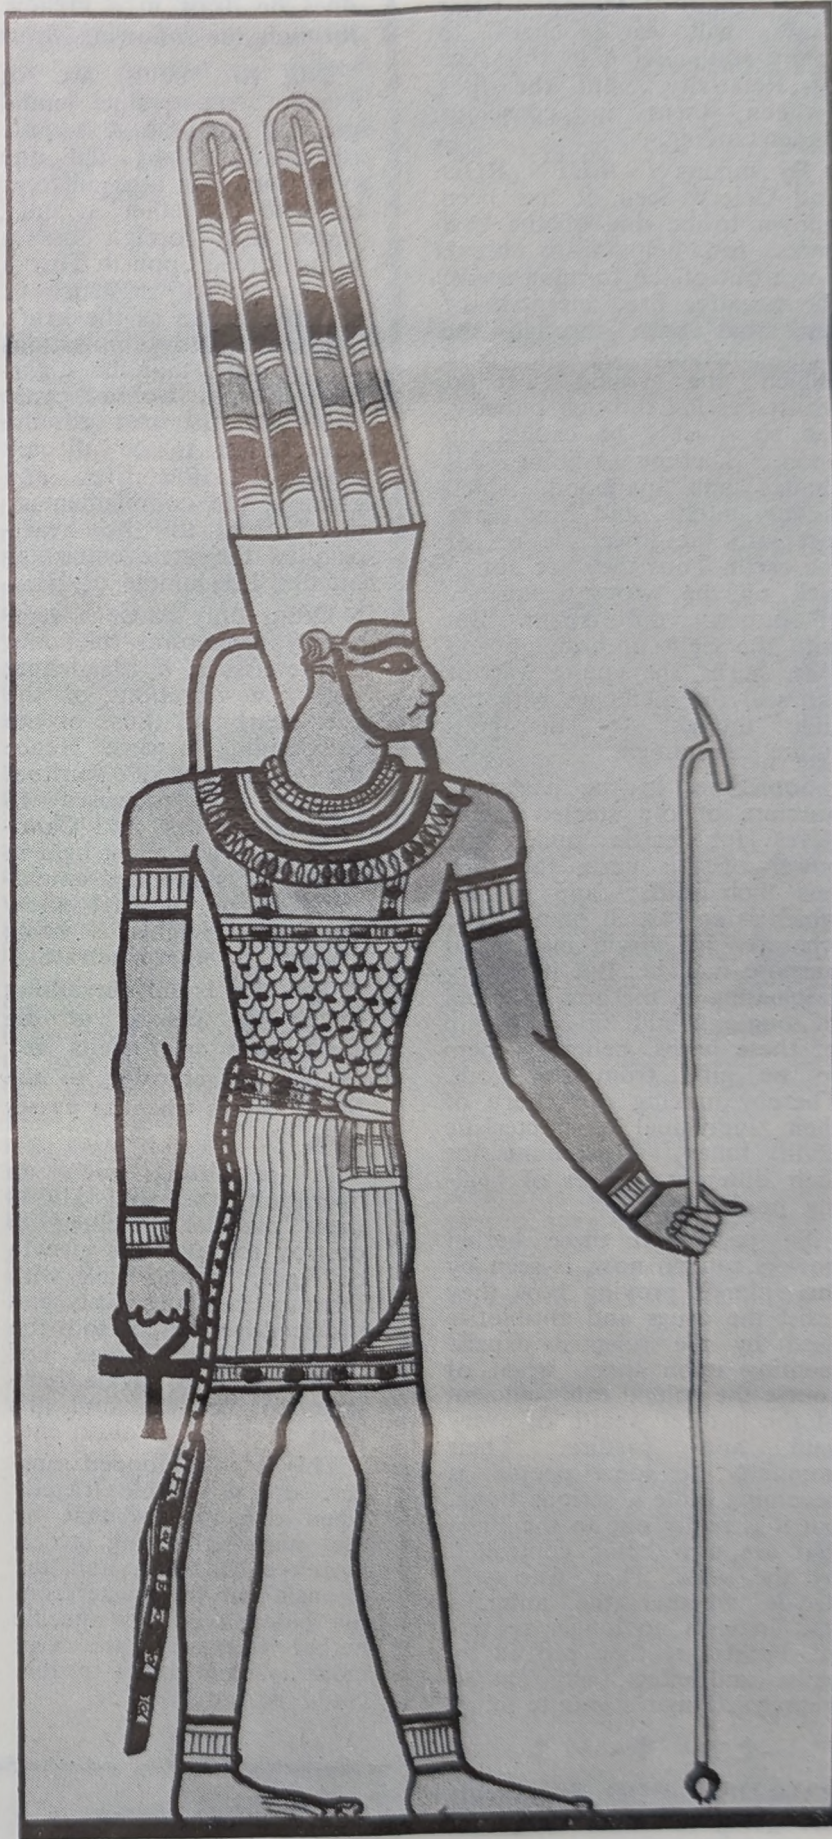

THE LUNAR CREATION FILLED WITH SOLAR LIGHT, AND ONCE PLACED BETWEEN THE "HORNS OF DILEMMA," THE DUAL STATE OF THE ARGUMENTATIVE MIND, NOW IN THE HORNS OF THE "COW" WHO WILL SEEK TO GIVE FORTH OF THE MILK OF WISDOM TO THE HUNGRY CHILDREN OF THE WORLD.

All this wisdom was expressed and taught and established in the temple of Esneh thousands of years ago, and came from a yet greater and still older prototype; one going back into infinity. So by this it can be seen how wisdom must be gained by the soul, in the astral light experiences, through the physical body vehicle for the polarized influences of the great Bear, Cancer, and the stabilized Bull, Taurus, which fructifies his "egg," or his etheric soul creation into becoming the solar pneumatikon, the Causal body of solar light, and are the two horns that force him to wrestle and fight in the Geminian mind creation. This to the Egyptians was the Sacred Cow who was the syzygy of the Bull, mother Cancer to the father Bull, Taurus.

Cradle of Civilisation

ALTHOUGH all became deteriorated and lost for the time, surely to the thinking man, by what little has been explained, it must be realized of what vast knowledge the ancient race of Egypt have handed down to humanity, for all knowledge has been born from them, because they were the root of all wisdom and ALL just ever revolves onwards in expansion. This root was revealed by Herma

AMEN-RA

THE first manifestation of the Solar God, where the Pharaohs were recognising for the first time the real glory of Ra. Up till then it had been a superficial acceptance, still clinging to their altar gods, a stone creation of the FACE. The ankh in his hand indicates the blended heights and depths, with the anup in the other hand declaring that his spinal column could be the circler of worlds unto the aegis around his neck. (See text on page 16, col. 5).

now perceiving that he was of the God consciousness and less of the anthropomorphic, and was now seeking, if only through a righteous state, to become free and more of the creational light of God. His growth was now being expressed more as a man-body with the head and mind expressing as the Anubis facet, or God state of self-preservation.

He is no longer of the hippopotamus where he lazes in the mud of desire, or the crocodile who delights in eating up all that is foul, but sees and perceives a deeper issue to life through the action. The soul becoming more responsible and responsive to the soul could judge matters around him and compare, through abstract development, of abstract depths.

All figures explained expressively the minute details of the soul and mind expression of growth. For instance, in the negative, the Jackal would be searching by "moonlight" for his food; this being of the metaphorical would, in its explanation, represent the consciousness of the soul only seeking through the lunar desires and not Solar creative action to obtain knowledge and spiritual wisdom. Yet on the whole, nearly all souls seek by the lunar light of and for

HERBAL MYSTERIES

Part 12

GOLDEN ROD

(Solidago Rigeurea)

by David Spearman-Cook

FURTHERING our search into herbs, we now delve into the depths of GOLDEN ROD, that known botanically as Solidago Rigeurea. A herb to be found in open places and by woodlands, and which can be used for many sicknesses and a vast amount of common complaints. It being more than useful against fevers and wounds; so much so, that the Saracens preferred not to go into battle without it, while the North American Indians also held it in great esteem. It was used in the Middle Ages as a gangrene herb, and was recommended in the old herbal for removing gravel and stones from the kidneys. It is also known to be able to stay the immoderate fluxes of Woman's periods, ulcers in the mouth, and was used for washing the privy parts in venereal cases.

It grows profusely in America in many different species, but in England only one or two are found. Mostly used as a tall garden flower, found at the back of most flower beds, as a protection against the North West Winds. This mystically has a great depth, and in Occultism represents wealth not properly housed and united. So indicates that it can help one to get balanced, but also to perceive where they are not seeing things aright.

So it is amazing how symbolically GOLDEN ROD holds a mystery and a key to a great unfolding of Time, for it is the unfolding fiery journey to the very heights of the heavens. Thus would be the Initiate's first contact with unified Relativity, whereby all who gathered with Merope and made the ascension under her masterly golden wings, are now sealed by the Golden Seal of Vega's Royal Fire of Infinity.

So that the new Theocratic Divine Thread of Virgin life, is now the ascending pathway for the gods to synchronise with Divinity, plus the mighty task of unifying with Relativity, which has now given the ability, even to as small a living thing as the Golden Rod herb, to hold the vast immensity of power and healing, which will grow stronger through the passing years.

FOR THIS HERB REPRESENTS THE MACE OF NEPTUNIAN MAJESTY, IT LIGHTING UP THE SPINE FROM THE HORSE'S TAIL TO THE TOP OF THE NORM, EVER GLOWING AND RADIATING WITH SOLAR REVOLVING INFINITY.

With each soul now, having the ability to manifest this Divine gift of Merope's, within themselves. Thereby it will assist those struggling with their minds to blend and vibrate upon a higher frequency of unfolding Orion sensitivity. That causing the present earthy student to run wild through his intellectualism, running amok over the whole of the globe, through the lack of expansive creative teachers. Verifying the truth of Merope's Reminiscence of the previous month's Gazette.

GOLDEN ROD was once the mighty healing balm of Egypt, but was lost as a herb through the negligence of man. For as a power in the splendorous days of Egypt, it once healed wounds of fantastically deep incision. And through the mind power of the priests, who were healers of dynamic wealth, great miracles were performed.

Now by the stupendous unification of TIME, brought into birth by Merope's sacrifices, greater possibilities are imminent. For all now is Solar revitalised, and healing is now open to all men who read and live her Divine Laws of Neptunian change.

GOLDEN ROD

The seeds of GOLDEN ROD were infused with power by being placed upon the Egyptian altars, and blessed as the Neptunian Sesame Seed of conquest. But during the waning of their powers, through their non-expansion of Jupiter, it stopped their peaceful minds, and resulted only in frequencies of warlike intensity, which was the beginning of the atom destruction of man and the whole of the Planes.

GOLDEN ROD with the addition of Agrimony, has been found very good for helping to relieve the nasal passages, and can give immense help and relief to any soul suffering from Polypi. If the fluid can be drawn up through the nostrils, it will displace the lunar crustations that ever scale and form deeper and deeper cavities of waste, helping sufferers with Polypi to begin a cure. But the main cure is a complete diet to recentralise the sensitivity to its finest degree.

Often when one's eyes feel as though they are dancing all over the place, it can often be attributed to the hardening of the nasal wall, and many a diagnosis has been wrong, simply because most suffer from a deadness or deadened sensitivity. For the incoming Breath cannot register upon the tympanum and give to the healer, doctor or patient, the Solar impinged Truth that would promote a lasting cure; consequently there follows an ever building up of despondent irritation.

If one is guided to bathe the eyes with GOLDEN ROD, it is essential that they add a little Chickweed to help the drawing off of the minute particles of waste that have managed to infiltrate the exterior of the eyes, through the congested nasal orifices. For man is blinded by his own desires, and Saturn finds a very pronounced part in his make-up, once a slide begins.

GOLDEN ROD has a penetrative power that can work wonders, if of course one can diagnose the difficulties correctly. For many are treated wrongly today by doctors lacking the Solar propensity of true healing ability, through man's latin multiplicity being added to the sliding scale of Egypt's mighty past. Which through the Cosmic changes of Merope's Solar Laws, will cause chaos to many souls living in this Age of Relativity, until the fires awaken them in conscious understanding.

By mixing GOLDEN ROD and Celery Seed, it has been known to be one of the best cures for helping to break down out of the forming seeds, the negative fired incentive of sex, that born through the mind memory of the past. Which the young warrior, whilst passing through puberty, can so quickly be caught up upon. Thereby ruining his change into manhood, which is very subtle, and him being lost into the lower desires of the earth. Thus they are apt to pick up the wrong frequency of puberty unfoldment. But with the right up-bringing and these herbs, the young warrior can seal the meninges with the right thought for his gods future unfoldment.

Sometimes in the past, the warriors of old steeled themselves for battle under the power of this herb, for such was their faith; and is that which is so lost in man today, whatever his virgin intent and purpose may be. But it is very fascinating to see how the soul of long ago built up a worship of these herbs, believing them to be gifts from the gods. Thereby making each herb of their individual characteristic ability today, and accounts for their different degrees of healing possibilities.

So just what these herbal powers can do now, is seen by the animals proving how they resist the drugs and antibiotics used by the scientist experimenting upon them, when of course the animal eats sufficient of the natural wealth of every field and pasture. Their immunity, to some people, is becoming quite a serious thing, but it is really due to the Fires that are now being controlled by the gods. They who will decide whether the animal's usefulness is no longer required. Points are then proved by cause and effect, sufficient to impregnate man's granite mind.

GOLDEN ROD is quickly going to infuse its power into the fruit, for as its power is forced into change, will it become of such, for eventually the herbs will all have been brought to a unified oneness of power as the gods unfurl their silent calendar of directive counterbalance. As Relativity readjusts itself to the hovering Presence of the Divine Breath, will that which is truth, ever expounded by Merope, make all things change more quickly.

For the effect of her drive and determination, is as unto a film which has been increased out of its normal or unusually slow movement, making all seem as chaotic action, and out of proportion to its true running. But it still will be the Vega Laws working fast or slow, that man has got to live by or perish. Timelessness being the space of true and perfect change which brings all back to the Magnificat of ONENESS, as

HEART TRANSPLANTS

by Dick Speller

SUCH operations as these will never work, for they are against the rulings of Nature and the Cosmic Laws. Man is born from the Elements, and each Element is of a different vibratory consistency. Each man's physical structure is moulded from these inflowing Elements in varying degrees, depending upon the soul growth made in previous incarnations. Hence the multiple shapes and sizes that mankind is consistent of, and explained clearly in the true understanding of the Astrological Wisdom. As a man builds up his mind, changing his internal atomic frequency, does he draw in a greater abundance of Element power, through the inflowing Breath.

No two souls are of exactly the same mind growth, therefore it is quite obvious that by the one body vibrating at a different ratio to the other, it must reject any foreign tissues being forced upon it. This is especially so in such a sensitive organ as the heart, whose vibratory pulsations are so acute that the slightest change would cause chaos to the rest of the body. First to be affected would be the liver and kidneys, the complementary metabolism to the heart-beat in the atrioventricular bundle, the bundle of His.

Drugs only cause a temporary unnatural blending of the tissues, by deadening both the vibrations of the new heart and those of the surrounding organs. Hence the soul to all spiritual intents and purposes IS DEAD, for the vital Canopic Organs are being held in a state of suspended animation, and no spiritual inflow from the Heights is being allowed to interpenetrate.

The soul is only breathing in of the density of the earth, and so forfeits any chance of returning to the Spirit Planes when he passes over.

In permitting such an operation, the soul allows these medical butchers to destroy for ever his growth of Ages, for his link with Divinity becomes lost, and his Seed is severed from the Source. His Thread of Continuity, his divine heritage, is broken, and his journey of Life is at an end.

This is cold-blooded murder, and a terrible tragedy when one realises that by the mere changing to a more refined diet, and the cleansing of the waste from the bloodstream by specific herbal treatment, the vast majority of all heart trouble could be cured.

Then by the re-establishing of his sensitivity, the inflowing Word in the descending Solar Breath would awaken his mind to the Divinity within, and his inner Heart-purpose would change. Thus he would become reorientated to the unfoldment of Divinity, thereby curing all his ailments of the body; not by drugs or transplants, but by the Natural Forces of the Cosmos.

But it seems that man at the present time would rather destroy himself than give up the desires of the beast. Well then, I can only say that he deserves all he gets, and I make a definite statement that no HUMAN BEING will ever survive this operation!

If we did but know how many had already fallen victim to its fatal action, we would need no more convincing as to what a devastating and costly failure it has already proved to be,—but of course, the public are never allowed to know the truth of such matters, they being hidden behind a screen of so-called ethics and dented egos.

BUT MEROPE HAS SET THE NEW LAWS OF LIFE, WHEREBY MAN EITHER TURNS TO THE DIVINITY OR DIES. IF HE CHOOSES THE LATTER THEN THAT IS HIS PREROGATIVE, BUT WHAT A TERRIBLE WASTE OF COUNTLESS AEONS OF UNFOLDING SOUL GROWTH, WHEN THE POSSIBILITIES OF THE HOUR ARE GREATER THAN EVER KNOWN BEFORE!

chaotic and unbelieving as it may seem to many that are not supporters to the cause.

Once gladiators knew the practice and application of herbs to a very high degree, for with them it was a necessity, for they were more often the sufferers as well as the victors, which forced them into the mastery of the Arian power. Thereby giving some of extreme power, which in the ages of reincarnation, became first house planets; and as the ladies of the lords, who sat watching their performance, weaved stories around them, they added their powers as the myths, into that Stream of power.

For now these Warriors with such dynamic Martian powers, will be forced by the gods into mighty Orion expansion, to become as a Christos mind of divine radiance, once more to become as a gladiator of Vega truth.

help practically the whole of the nervous system to withstand the changes, that the initiate will meet as time unfolds. For they can sensitise and penetrate the lost movings of the homogeneous of the bloodstream. Those depths that have not yet been registered, that of the roots, owing to the frequency having not yet born light, for both are ancient depths of virgin essence awaiting rebirth.

As Golden Rod has a wonderful recuperative power, it could if added to Raspberry Leaves, bring a gentle soothing quality, and even if a little is added to one's herb tea, it will act just as well. Also Golden Rod and Juniper Berries can help many who are feeling the strain of the changing fires, because it will bring a certain amount of relief to the main nervous system around the spine, for as previously stated, it is around that area the name symbolically stands.

Next month we will take the herb of Hawthorn.

Readers' Letters

WE certainly received a wide variety of letters this month, with that from Mr. Hillier being particularly interesting. I have no doubt that we shall be asked for many of the herbs that are mentioned in the poem he has quoted; we at the School found it most interesting and informative. I hope Mr. Hillier will send us some more letters upon this subject in the future, for we will always be as pleased to publish them as I am sure you will be to read them. We were also very happy to receive the letter from Miss Altschul who, at eighty years young, is one of our staunchest supporters!

The Living Philosophy

Mrs. A. Willett,
California, U.S.A.

Dear Mrs. Spearman-Cook,

Permit me to express my most sincere wishes for a glorious birthday, filled with Love, Blessings, Peace, and unceasing success on the forward and upward path to success. The Occult Gazette is the most outstanding Philosophy based on pure Truth, that has come to my attention. May God's great Love, Peace, and Radiance of Light ever surround you.

Mr. C. P. Urbani,
Dunedin, New Zealand.

Dear Mrs. Spearman-Cook,

I still, as always, read the O.G. from cover to cover, and I offer my humble thanks for your profound guidance. Also I would add the work of Dick Speller, David Spearman-Cook, "Allocutus," and all worthy contributors to the O.G., and to all the good folk at S.U.P.H. My very best wishes to yourself and to all the hard workers at the Centre.

Mrs. B. A. S.,
Michigan, U.S.A.

I have recently met the most wonderful person to come into my life, and he virtually radiates love and good will. His name is Mr. Fred Davey and he has been enlightening me with his glorious knowledge of Philosophy. He has sent in my subscription to your in his vision of the Poemandres. He perceived in his vision, light brought forth by the Great Dragon, and he is shown the formation of the worlds to be, and as this happened, the Medusa was formed. This is seen symbolically as a nest of minute serpents in the head or mind of the forming god-soul, who, in the shape of the anthropomorphical being, was becoming of the perfection of the Begotten One.

In that of the mysterious revealing the light, it is of the God Jehovah revealing the Christ to come; the greater manifestation of EL as Elohim—Love-Eloi through Daath, via death and rebirth. Daath the Fu, or serpent of Word to come forth as the two forces of equilibrium; or Geburah and Chesed to become of Justice and Severity, bringing the balance found wanting from Geburah to Gedulah, hate to love, darkness to light as the POINT of Comparison, the point of Truth.

"Occult Gazette," and I only wish I could have read all the past issues too. They are so inspiring and informative.

I have been searching into spiritual and occult teachings for about three to four years now, and all the fires are burning in my soul, ever pushing me forward toward more learning and truth. As you can see, this mission is the most important quest in life to me, and a few words from such a Divine Soul as yourself would be so encouraging, and I do need true guidance so much. Dear Soul I am reaching out my hand from so far away, in the hope that you and the Great Lord Maitreya will send me your Divine Love, and some form of guidance to help me onward.

God Bless You, Gladys Spearman-Cook, for all you have endured for so very long, to help our floundering souls find our true path once more.

Editor's Note: We still have a few back numbers of all past issues of the Gazette available to any readers that are interested, price 2/6 or 50 cents each.

Mrs. A. Smith, Luton, Beds.

The bundle of O.Gs. arrived safely and in good condition, and I am looking forward to distributing them. I find that they "take" in the most unexpected places, so that one feels no effort to spread the Word is in vain.

I often think of the unifying power of the Word linking man into one truly united fellowship as "Children of the Word," for we know that the O.G. penetrates into every corner of the world. With the establishment of the Vega world of mind, I do realise that this unifying has been brought to cosmic fulness and perfection, and now as man awakens to the realisation of what has been accomplished, must he add to the glory and perfection of that world of mind light, by labouring diligently to add his quota to its ever increasing glory.

By the way, the herbs are doing their work, and I am already feeling a different being, more alert and energetic.

May our great leader go from "Strength to Strength," as she faithfully treads the path of selfless service. Truly her reward will be great.

Blessings and love to each and all.

Miss Annie Haynes,
Cleveland, Ohio, U.S.A.

Dear Mrs. Spearman-Cook and all the other hard workers at the School, even though I have not written to you since my visit last year, I think of you constantly, knowing how hard you all work and how many hours you spend on your good work.

I only wish I could attend your meetings every week. If people within several miles of the School could realise how much they would gain by attending the meetings every week, it would be as no time at all, even if it took them 2 to 3 hours travelling time, and I know you have very good transportation facilities around London. I myself sincerely hope to be able to make the trip from Cleveland once again, so that I can visit the Temple, which is such a Divine experience.

I would like to congratulate Dick Speller on his wonderful poem "To the Seeker of Light." I will be looking forward to more of his inspirational poems in the Occult Gazette in the near future. I am enclosing a check for a donation which you so well deserve and need. I will now wish you all the best of prosperity, and may God bless each and every one of you.

Miss F. Altschul,
Hoxton, London, N.1.

Dear Mrs. Spearman-Cook,

This is just to wish you a very happy Birthday, and the enclosed cheque is for you to buy a small present for yourself this time. Although by no means up to your status, and millions of miles behind, I have at least a worm's eye view of what you are striving to do with this mad, mad, world of ours.

I do appreciate this although I may not understand it all. I do believe that certain great Leaders, including yourself and Harold Wilson, are led by the Higher Unseen Powers that Be,—and you BOTH will win through, of that I have no doubt!

It has ever been the way of vested interests to criticise those who at least have a try to put things straight. I hope you will be spared to remain with us for a long time to come, although this may sound rather selfish, as I think you have more than done your best to save the world and surely are due for a rest!

The big question is, who can carry on with the same indomitable spirit and selflessness as you have shown? May the Great One bless and guard you, and grant you to see all success in your future plans.

Mr. Kyril Hillier,
Coventry.

Dear Sir,

I felt I must drop you a line expressing my appreciation for the Occult Gazette, which I have been reading for the past few years. The effort that goes into this production, the quality of the articles and the wisdom given is amazing. Looking over the years one can appreciate how the improvement has gone on in leaps and bounds.

Some people seem to be afraid of the word 'occult.' If they would take the trouble to find out its meaning, the hidden truth, it should allay their fears. Possibly they find it too much of an effort to seek the hidden meaning of the word; also, and above all, they fear to change. This, if they only but knew it, is where they have backed a loser.

Being an amateur gardener, the articles on herbs have an added attraction for me. The history and legends which permeate the plant kingdom goes back into the dim ages. For instance, at the Physic Garden in Chelsea, they have some old account books, in one of which is listed 'Botanical Writers Before Christ' commencing, Zoroaster, Orpheus, Moses, Solomon, Homer, Solon. They very possibly knew more about the attributes and uses of the plants than people of the present day. It is quite true to say that much in many spheres of life, especially the occult, is lost in the mists of antiquity. To say the least, SUPH is correcting this.

Even the Christian church when it became all powerful

Discussion Group

ARE YOU FROM NEWCASTLE?

Mrs. Isabella Turner, 61 Wolveleigh Ter., Gosforth, Newcastle-on-Tyne.

I AM pleased to tell you that I was at a discussion group the other evening, and I was pleased to hear the lecturer, an old man called Mr. Rulf, putting forward your Teachings. I am afraid they caused quite an uproar! I tried to speak to him after the meeting but his deafness (he is over 80) and his nationality (he is a German Jew), plus my Scottish accent, was too much for him. He is a well-known figure here as he is the son of a Rabbi, but broke away from the Jewish religion.

Anyway, I was delighted and I am going to ask my friend, the secretary of the Psychic Society here, to ask him to come and lecture to us here. I think it is pretty certain he will come, as we are moving our meeting place to near where he lives. I wonder if I could have some very simple lectures to follow on with after his talk, as I think it would be a golden opportunity for me to further the teachings.

Also I would like the names of any other Newcastle followers of your Teachings, that I could invite them along to the lecture to back me up, for I am very much a lone wolf there.

Editor's Note: Though Mr. George Rulf, son of a prominent Rabbi, may be a stranger to Mrs. Turner, he is an old reader and contributor to the Occult Gazette. In July 1961 his article "The Trumpets shall sound," was published, in which Mr. Rulf strongly criticised the early roman church for deliberately forging and interpolating passages into the Bible, "...so that the text should support and bolster up the church's impossible dogmas, and the otherwise unacceptable doctrines."

found it very difficult to eradicate the innumerable superstitions relating to Flowers and plants. Therefore, as in other things, she redressed them in her own language, and adapted them to her own teaching, so evading the nigh impossible tasking of rooting them out. Saint days and Christian festivals took over many ancient occasions in an attempt to wipe out pagan Gods and memories. In this way Apollo, Venus and others were replaced, and it is said that poor old St. John had to work overtime to take over the festival of the Summer Solstice.

The lore and legends relating to plant life is vast, much of which is still practised throughout the world today. From the healing angle alone the material is very plentiful. Cures for toothache abound; here is one I have not tried and do not intend to. Quite simply, call upon the oak for help, then bore the tooth with a nail until it bleeds, following which drive the nail into an oak at a point where the sun doesn't reach it. When the nail rusts, the pain will cease. All this must be carried out in silence otherwise it will not work. Well, pardon me, but what does one do in the middle of the night afflicted with raging toothache and living in a city on a top floor of a skyscraper block of flats?

The poems of Michael Drayton are of interest, his Polyolbion is indeed interesting, here is an extract:—

"And in some open places that to the sun doth lie,
He fumitory gets, and bright-eye for the eye.
The yarrow, wherewithall he stops the wound-made gore,
The healing tutsan, and plantane for a sore;
And hard by them again he holy vervain finds,
Which he about his head that hat the megrim binds.
The wonder working dill he gets not far from these,
Which curious women use in many a nice disease.
For them that are with newts, or snakes, or adders stung,
He seeketh out an herb that's called adders tongue,
As nature it ordained, its own like hurt to cure,
And sportive did herself to niceties inure.
Valerian then he crops, and purposely doth stamp,
T'apply unto the place that's haled with cramp;
As centory to close the wide-ness of a wound;

The belly hurt by birth, by mugwort to make sound.
His chickweed cures the heat that in the face doth rise;
For phisic, some again he inwardly applies.
For comforting the spleen and liver gets for juice
Pale hore-hound, which he holds of most especial use.
So saxifrage is good, and harts-tongue for the stone,
With agrimony and that herb we call St. John.
To him that hath a flux, of shepherds purse he gives,
And mouse-ear unto him whom some sharp rupture grieves.
And for the labouring wretch that's troubled with a cough,
Or stopping of the breath, by phelgm that's hard and tough,
Campana here he crops, approved wondrous good;
As comfrey unto him that's bruised, spitting blood;
And from the falling-ill, by five-leaf doth restore.
And melancholy cures by sovereign hellebore.
Of these most helpful herbs yet tell we but a few,
To those unnumbered sorts of simples here that grow.
Which justly to set down, even Dodon short doth fall;
Nor skilful Gerarde yet, shall ever find them all."

* Gerarde, famous herbalist.
* Simples, herbs; Simpling, brewing and distilling of.

Here we see, in part, the cultivation and uses of herbs in the past. Today, in the medical world they have been largely supplanted by modern drugs. Now the wheel is turning and the use of herbs is becoming widespread once more. In this I am in total agreement, having witnessed the destructive power of drugs. Anyone with common sense must see the use of herbs allied to Spiritual healing as practised by SUPH is now the only way, plus a reformation of the way of life with a gradual refinement of diet; following to the full the principles of Universal Philosophy in preparation and active participation of life in the new World of Vega, of whom Merope is our Leader. I have in my small way tried to follow Universal Philosophy during my last few years and, quite frankly, have no desire to return to my former mode of living. Thank you for all that I and my family have received from SUPH and through the Occult Gazette. Bless You.

IN the previous treatise we had reached the point of perceiving how the virgin essence as spirit, a spark of the Great All-Being, became in its diffusion, a state of 48 expressive angles within a being called the animal-man which gradually began to find a state of expression. An "egg," a virgin spark or atom enclosed in a casing of matter by a state of germination and fructification, became 48 expressive angles or facets of the One Begotten God, and in a 49th the expressed mind. According to the Egyptians this creation was called Thoth, or unto the Greeks, Hermes, Mercury, the messenger of the Gods. A state of expression called mind. But these Gods were but the expressed state of the planetary influences, the planetary Genii, who are but the messengers for the greater Gods, the Lords of the Flame, or the Celestial Hierarchy. Many may call this mere phantasy, but why? Surely there are powers far beyond man's dreams that supply him with renewed life, or how does he exist? If you state "by the elements," what are the elements? Where do they come from? And since man ever refers to them as the life-giving, then they must be superior to what he is already experiencing around him.

Why, you have only to go a little way up a mountainside to know that there exist powers far beyond our comprehension; well how could these Ancients be wrong in giving them a name, especially when they were nearer to Nature, and nearer to God through their less worldly state of mind. Therefore the Anubis stage of unfoldment and involution was to them as the Initiate; one who was seeking to initiate himself into the inner mysteries, that he could find the way to become the emulation of the One Great Begotten Mind and express the mysteries into matter through a practical application.

This is the true way of involution of Spirit that matter can evolve, thus make man the builder of the City of Jerusalem; to the Egyptians, this was likened unto Heliopolis, the City of the Sun, that of the Solar light completely established in matter.

To the Amonians, the offspring from Ham and Shem the sons of Noah, it was the City of Oubaios, the City of Fire; and to the later mystics, the City of Malkuth in Kether the Crown. Kether being the Godhead in the mind of the soul, founded on the trials and tribulations of building the temple of the Christos. This was the meaning of King Solomon's temple built by the craftsmanship of Chiram, the Christ in flesh. The directions in the first Book of Kings chapters 5-8 were not of how to build a temple of stone and wood, but of moral principle and purpose; and although there has not been anyone yet who has really been able to decipher the details, I am sure that once a soul begins to do so, they will find them far more simple than was ever dreamed of by man.

The two pillars, Jachin and Boaz ornamented by pomegranates and lilies are the two pillars of the mind, that which have grown up from Cain and Abel, the lower and higher argumentative states that bring forth the deduction for the next plane of perception. The pomegranates holding the red passions of desire that have to be mastered, and the lilies, the purity to come forth from the base. On the orthodox plane of thought, the Blood, and the Lamb as white as driven snow, as the passions become purified.

These are the mysteries which the Anubis stage of soul development leads and guides the soul into and through, that they may learn the purpose of soul formation through and by the hand of the mysterious Potter. This creator of creature life as laid down by the Egyptian teachers, was the Macrocosm who worked the Wheel with his foot. The rotary movement of Symmetry and Rotation, the phenomenal circumstantial influences which mould and shape and bring the soul into being.

But there is still yet a greater depth to this mystery, the wisdom to be revealed of the physical organs and limbs that are the tangible and voluble

REBIRTH

★ WITH the burying in of the old, Anubis as Mercury, transforms the old into the new, opening up the mouth of the soul to speak the new-born wisdom correctly. The opening of the mouth being a most intricate depths of the occult mysteries. (See text on page 13, col. 5). ★ expression of the Organs and Limbs of the Great World Soul; for when man knows himself he knows God and the tangible working of God. This solves the mystery to some extent of man being created in the image of God. The virgin spark which, in a Moon formation of tangible and intangible, becomes—through Lunar mind creation—a Solar-Ra formation.

Aah the Moon God

THIS then brings us to the Egyptian idea of a Moon God creation, for this is no myth, but man's theme or belief of what his God represents; the creation born in his own mind. Since the God Thoth was the Creator of Mind, that equal to our present-day belief of The Intelligencia, the Christos of Light, their God Thoth was, in the Lunar beginning, the Moon God Aah. Through the Waters of Space, Adam who becomes Aleph or Aries the pioneer, through Space becoming Time; the journey of Life.

The lunar Orb in the horns of this God, and all its complement, was the dual horns of the "Altar" that brought forth truth, and then the transmuting of the Geminian logical mind into the movement of reasoning. This God was shown with the serpent of life, the Kundalini Fire, rising up the spine and passing over the brain, the 7th Chakra, and returning to its source by feeding the bloodstream with its fire or "spit" of wisdom.

To the mystic of later ages, the "Tears of Christ" or Lachrymae Christi. This is the mysterious serpent swallowing its own tail, and through such will the lunar orb become filled with the Solar light and manifest as Ra in the mind of the soul. This was portrayed by a serpent appearing on the centre of the forehead between the two eyes and named the Uraeus.

Every soul returning to earth returns precisely to find re-birth, but once in matter becomes lost in a world of matter and no longer remembers consciously of the soul's desire; yet driven sub-consciously by the vow, which was the warrant for incarnation, and now only finding expression as a desire-wracked mind, bringing experiences that slowly call forth lost ideals, though often not known at the time. But as the mind awakens, truths stranger than fiction will open up to light, and will account for the many unseemly actions of men in their sorrows and sufferings. Therefore it must be accepted that sorrow and circumstances are the only things that bring these hidden duties into life and often take place through an urge to know and learn.

This is where Anubis as the Jackal-headed God comes in; the dog formation that appeared to the Egyptians as the sub-conscious mind; and perhaps now clears up the mystery of why man through the ages has stipulated in metaphor, that the dog is man's greatest friend. And we are not such a long way divorced, for what the Egyptians believed in were no different to the many beliefs of his own.

Man's terrestrial and corporeal bodies—body and soul—have passed through the many animal formations and are comprised of the many strata of change. By this, I am not referring to the norm or virgin spark, the atom which brings forth the spiritual soul creation or Causal Body, but man's blood content of flesh the perfume of the creed still lasts extremely well.

The theme of their animal creations was metaphorical and was not meant to be taken literally; the expressions created by the Priests were to express the growth of the organism of the soul and were taken from the many animals in their own particular vicinity, and of course linked with the Animal kingdom in the soul itself. Through the passage of metamorphosis of the terrestrial, the soul had been of this kingdom and was now striving to master the animal instincts in the passion of their own desires; and in that same prototype on the next plane of existence also—that of the Human Generation.

Anubis was also as Thoth, the mind, but as hawk-headed who not only reminded the soul when making errors, but went down into hell with the soul when it decreed to gain experience, then Anubis would become as the three-headed Cerberus who prevented his leaving until the lesson of life was completed. It would be such as these two Gods who were the constant companions of Aleph that he could become unto Horus the son of Ra, for the Jackal and Dog-Headed Gods were as Mars and Mercury in their many forms. And once false ideas, instilled into the mind of man through later religions, have been eradicated, man will find that unfoldment which is contained in an instinctive vital body until it becomes a soul-mind creation.

The experiences of matter, and learning to "subdue the earth and multiply" as mind creation of knowing, brought into being a conscious awareness forming in the blood essences. This is the protoplasmic substance, the mysterious essence in the Liquor Sanguinis that the Egyptians guarded with great care, for they knew that it brought into being, through the experiences of life, that which became the crystalline formation; the dodecahedron or diamond of twelve facets.

This is what is meant by the mineralized, animalized, humanized and spiritualized bodies contained in the one body; the body of astral light which is ever in formation as the etheric body expressing the state of being through the blood content. The astral light, the magnetic powers of matter ever re-making the soul formation out of the fructification of the lunar-light, and now awaiting to become of Solar light—the Amen-Ra germination.

(See plate on page 13) It is of this formation that these Gods bring explanation in the different stages of manifestation.
