THE VIRGIN OATH

AS THE QUINTESSENTIAL MYSTERY OF THE SOURCE

by Gladys I. Spearman-Cook

! DIVINE GLORY, LIST
Thou to my prayer, for am
I not Thy child of LOVE, born from the wonders of Being. Now I am, yet am not, but must go on becoming. Thus am the mystery of the Source, the glory of Thy Holy Vision, for are we not the carriers of THY Divine Fire Sperm, Messengers about their Father's Work. The ever returning of the "FIRE" back to the Source, giving back consciously the depths. Thus by the Le Ros dance between heights and depths, which is the ladder of the Divinities, is soul returning as man, his Fire back to the heavenly NORM. Yet in the greater the FIRE back to the Source, that life can continue on once again. Are we not greater than the Angels, for we know and must know more, hence the Greater Work from the Great Work, that Merope knew now was her task to accomplish. Hence bringing Evolution forth as extended Causation, thus sought through her Magic Mirror that the secret of this mighty Oath could be revealed to her once again, whereby soul's imagination of the Source becomes as the kindling of the Flame. Thus its depths being greater than she had any conception of, for now there was the SON, the GREAT MIND, that bore the evidence of the Father. For no man lived until he beheld this secret and held it tightly to his breast.

The Glory of Oneness

THEN with royal stance and mighty dignity, the Face of the Mirror rolled into place, holding all with Divine Glory. Then when the rolling of the Holy Fire had ceased, and the glory of Being was established, a Voice loud and firm came forth and began ;

"They are the Faceless, the Divine Immensities at the Realm of Being, the mighty Guardians of the Threshold. The glories of the heavens that hold the divine Cause, the Watchers at the Gates of the Source. The mighty Powers that unfold from the Father and convey His wonders to the depths."

THE REVOLVING
INFINITY

THE PLEIADIC DANCE

MEROPE, in her unfolding Desire to Become, was by the moving Causation, activated into the Pleiadic Dance that opened up the divine Stream of Holy Glory. Drawing down the mighty FIRE of the Divinity, sending it forth as a part of those heavenly glories. Such wonders are the mystery of Causation, and the secret of unfolding life, yet alive and potent with active intensification, that is the cause of Evolution. (See text on page 4, col. 3).

HAVING stated our position, in the June issue of the Gazette, as to why we are supporting Harold Wilson, I will now attempt to answer another request, from an irate priest, as to "why don't we leave roman catholicism alone?" The reasons are so numerous, however, that I don't quite know where to start! Let us begin by glancing quickly back over its history, which should give us a very good basic to work upon. Firstly, and surely most important of all, we have the fact that the roman catholic church has no historical basis whatsoever, a point which the Dead Sea Scrolls would seem to verify, and also being one of the reasons given by Dr. Charles Davis, the roman catholic theologian, when he left the church in 1966.

As we have stated many, many times before, the whole story of Jesus Christ and the Crucifixion is a complete fabrication, the idea being stolen from the Egyptian Wisdom and served up to the gullible in its present day dogma-ridden form. When Constantine claimed to have found the true Cross in the 4th century, I feel it was in fact more of a double-cross, and one which has been perpetrated upon the populace ever since. While even in the last few weeks we have been reading that the authentic bones of St. Peter have been discovered in the Vatican. How very convenient, but after reading of the many thousand saintly bones that are reputed to be lying in churches all over the place, one does begin to wonder that if the vast majority could be re-animated they might not sit up and bark!

But let us move on to the Holy Wars against the Saracens, which were purely to obtain worldly power and finance,—a "holy" motive which has existed right up to the present day. How long is it going to take before mankind awakens to the fact that the Vatican is a political organisation, masquerading under the name of religion? Charles Dickens, who did so much to bring social reformation to Britain, himself stated that "roman catholicism is the most horrible means of political and social degradation left in the world," and which is blatantly obvious to anyone who is capable of even the most elementary thinking.

Look at Spain, Portugal, Southern Italy, and nearly the whole of Latin America. Never will you find such poverty and squalor as is in these countries, all firmly under the domination of papal jurisdiction. Papalism stands condemned before all free nations, yet how long must we wait for the leaders of these countries to take off their "white kid gloves" and say exactly what they think of this evil clique!

Time itself is evidence of their corrupting influence; what more must they do before they are firmly brought to book. The world is so riddled with convention and the "turn the other cheek" attitude, that it turns a blind eye to these two-faced hypocrites. Can't man see that "turn the other cheek" was only introduced by papalism in order to obtain a greater freedom of action.

YOU have only to turn to your history books to see how absolutely black this religion is. The Spanish Inquisition, the Marian persecutions in England, the Spanish Armada whose purpose was to topple Elizabeth 1st and bring the country back to popery, the Gunpowder Plot again with the same motive,—the list is endless if you care to search in detail, and moving up to the present era, was it not papalism that put Mussolini into power, and called Hitler "an envoy of God." (Archbishop Stepinac of Zagreb).

How short is the memory of mankind concerning these years. Let me quote a couple more "holy" pronouncements that were voiced at that period:—

"If Fascism falls, God's cause goes under with it." (Cardinal Hinsley of Westminster).

"Hail to Benito Mussolini, to whom Jesus Christ has granted talents which place him amongst the great spiritual figures, ranging from St. Augustine to Constantine." (Cardinal Schuster of Milan).

"Adolf Hitler, son of the Catholic Church, has died defending Christianity." (General Franco of Spain).

"Catholicism and Nazism have many things in common, and they are working hand-in-hand to re-fashion the world." (Father Tiso, a Jesuit, Hitler's Quisling Governor of Slovakia, in 1941).

These are but a few quotations, but surely one can see again the papal plan to rebuild the so-called Holy Roman Empire, using whoever they can to obtain their evil ends.

In 1923 the whole of the Catholic Party were instructed to vote for Mussolini, and in due course he came to power. Exactly the same strategy was employed in Germany, and under Vatican instructions the Catholic Party joined up with the Nazis to give them the balance of power, and so Hitler came to the ascendant. But of course, the papal support was not given without claiming its reward, and richly rewarded they were too.

Mussolini declared roman catholicism the State Religion, and papalism received a twenty million pound present in stocks and shares. At the latest estimate, given last year, the Vatican's shares are now worth seventy million pounds, bringing an annual income of two and a half million pounds. We hear that the Vatican are not particularly amused at the fact of now having to pay tax on these investments, especially as it is their own Party that is forcing the issue.

★ ★ ★ ★
HOWEVER, while their finances remain more than adequate, the same cannot be said for their following.

Politics and Dopes

Thus this is a direct challenge to papalism, and one where they will at last be upon the losing end. No wonder a priest in London told his congregation that while the Occult Gazette existed, the pope would never get his Eucharist!

One certainly feels they realise this, when you see in the Catholic Herald a heading which states "Merger of Church and Tories?" and goes on to say that "one begins to wonder if an official merger of the Church and the Tory Party is not in the air. Will it soon be that Ted should be head, and all who vote Labour are to be anathemised?" Now the writer of this may have been joking, or he may not, but it must be realised that while Harold Wilson is Prime Minister, roman catholicism is being defeated and Theocracy more firmly established.

BRTAIN must be prepared for the Vatican to instigate trouble in every place possible, in order to bring the downfall of Mr. Wilson and the Labour Party. It will be interesting to watch in future, just where the political and industrial unrest originates from. We can be too hasty in automatically blaming it upon the Communists.

Let us not ignore the facts, roman catholicism is fighting for survival at this present time, and will do all in its means to try to hold its ground. It stubbornly refuses to educate the poverty-stricken masses that it rules over, knowing that if they were to realise the truth of the situation they would turn on their so-called "spiritual leader" immediately. It is little wonder that this religion has been denounced by so many. Gladstone was one who was definite in his belief that "in roman catholicism, clerical power has been developed,—while everything which nurtures Freedom has been harassed and denounced."

When will the current leaders of the world take courage and follow suit. Surely they are not all afraid that by condemning the Church of Rome they will lose their positions, by losing the catholic votes? It is time Truth was placed before personal glory, and surely such a stand would not be taken amiss, when the evidence for such a statement is so heavily in their favour.

Man cannot be held down any longer, he must be allowed to build up his mind and embrace the inflowing Glories of the Heights. The Great Divinity of the Fatherhood is now manifest amongst man, and nothing must be allowed to stand in His Way. The Source is pouring its Glories upon the Earth, and the World of the Mind has been born.

THOSE THAT WILL NOT EMBRACE ITS WONDERS MUST BECOME AS THE ASHES FROM WHICH THE NEW WORLD WILL RISE UP. EVERYONE MUST NOW RESOLVE THEIR DESTINY,—THEOCRATIC EMBRACEMENT, OR COMPLETE ANNIHILATION OF THE INDIVIDUAL CONSCIOUSNESS, TO BE LOST FOREVER IN THE SWIRLING SANDS OF TIME.

Next Month:

HYDROXYL

as the Nucleus of the Vega World

The defections from the priesthood are now reaching dynamic proportions, and just as serious, if not more so, Latin America is turning in multitudes from catholicism,—and Latin America makes up a good half of the catholic following!

No wonder H. G. Wells said that "roman catholicism is a broken and desperate thing, capable only of malignant mischief in our awakening world." His words were perfectly true then, and are just as true now,—how long will the world remain blind to this festering canker in our midst?

The Church of Rome has shed more innocent blood than any other institution that has ever existed among Mankind. It is about time it was made to put up its shutters and be silent for evermore. The world will never come to peace while its intrigue and deceit is allowed to go on. One shining current example of its underhand dealings was recently brought to light when Savundra boasted of his connections with the pope, a connection which no doubt is the means of looking after his family commitments. After all, someone has to pay the school fees!

Of course, with the Theocratic Government now coming into birth, man should begin to see the falsities of such a religion, for the Higher Powers will impregnate his consciousness with the true understanding of life, and he will ever breathe in the new thought, through the inflowing Breath. The Cosmic Laws have been irreversibly changed, and man must now follow the Higher Path of life or take the consequences.

Theocracy, as divine rule by the gods, and no longer by the priests, will bring its sure results. No wonder the Vatican is getting worried, with Mr. St. John-Stevas trying to fix the pope up for a British visit, for Britain is unfolding the Theocratic Consciousness, with Harold Wilson being groomed to lead the world into peace and spiritual unfoldment.

Then all cleared away, and there was utter silence, thus the Virgin Oath to now bring forth the glory and depth of Quintessence, the ever unfolding spirit. The mighty mystery of the Source ever unfolding the consciousness of the Divinity from the NORM, the Central Sun polarity.

Man now set to meet the ICE-Cap, where his unmelted state of becoming brings intense activity, bringing the melting into birth. The NORM, as the ICE-Cap, is now unfolding all its seeds of Time, and all now is working and coming forth from man's NORM, whether he likes it or not, or believes it or not. All this before he gets any more, thus man has to learn the depths of DIVINITY. Learning of what was, before the atom be-eth, the LIGHT inside the oyster.

THE DEPTHS THAT COULD BECOME THE POLARITY, BY THE RECIPROCATING DIVINITY. THUS ONLY FED BY THE SOURCE, AS THE SOUL BECAME BORN OF ITS MIGHTY FREQUENCY, FOR IN HERE I AM, I GO IN FROM THE OUT, AND OUT FROM THE IN. THUS I AM INSIDE OF THE INSIDE, YET I AM NEVER OUT WHEN IN, NOR IN WHEN OUT.

"I am the FIRE of the inner and the Outer, inside. The inner I AM, I AM IT, the HIM-HER, which speaketh without sound, yet that which is heard, for it is the silent consciousness in that mighty state of FIRE. Hence, in me is the Divine Nuclei of the All-pervading essence of the FIRE."

"I AM THE FIRE."

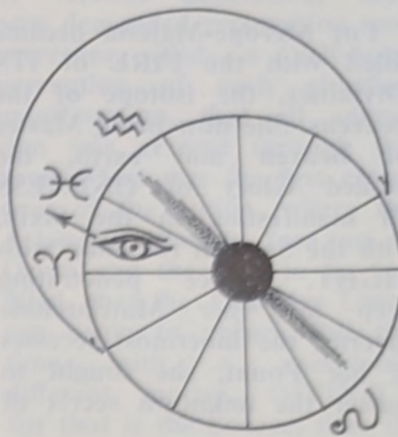

The Fire that speaketh, yet the centre of Space in the morning time, a great Abyss called Ginnunga Gap, that of perpetual twilight, that which is now being polarised by Merope into perpetual LIGHT. Where there had been twelve great Streams supplying the depths, now the Stream of Atomic Glory is feeding the soul and its gods in perpetual divinity.

That which became as blocks of Ice, now as polarity, the Ice Cap of Vega, that Merope is now bringing forth as the Flaming Virgin. Thus the ALL-Father now as the Flaming EYE, that sees, gives, directs and diverges, all souls into the glory of becoming. So what man created down below in the Abyss, Merope is now polarising by the Wisdom, and giving it Divine LIGHT. Thus all has become unified, and the Stream now is coming down through Merope and feeding the world; so there is just one religion, one Stream, the Stream of Universal Philosophy.

Hence the great soliloquising is the sanctification of the soul, as the internal discourse unifies all up into the glory of ONENESS. Therefore, with the Solar implosion ever becoming, the mighty Atomic Flood is rolling its glories out to the depths. Thus the soul ever obtaining the immaculacy of the Virgin mind, as the mighty power-begetters ever glorifying of the Divinity, by the dynamic oneness of Being.

All men ever maintaining the Fire on the Altar of Truth to the Divine, the mighty Holy Being. So until you get the Fire into your being, you are a decaying soul, because the body should never have been and it has now gone well past its time. Every soul must now become etherealised by his thoughts and his beliefs, by his renunciation and his embracing.

the Virgin Plane that never became of the Solar. But now, what was Water became of the Fire, and now is that of the Atomic Flood, that which unifies and raises all up out of the murky depths. So the mighty EYE that

Then he will know, thus will be able to carry the Fire and hold the divine organism right to the elevated end. Hence as the Father sees through Merope's created divinity, the more she as the Virgin must seek to bring forth, activate and obtain, through her Immaculate Conception.

Thus she, as the Virgin propulsion, will carry the atoms home to the Source, bringing all sons back to their rightful glory of manhood, thereby ever changing the beast into the beauty of divinity, the unfolding wonder of the Holy FIRE. Thus here was the Enceinte Virgin giving birth and perpetual expansion, ever polarising the stench of man in the darkness of matter, into the LIGHT of the raised up mind.

came in the Sky, which is the glory of the Begotten, that of the mighty Intelligencia, brought about by the Orion Divine Principle, is the Solar Sun, born out of the awareness of the Starry LIGHT. This when set into implosion, aided the Bee to climb the heights and get safely home, imploding the Solar Sun into the Central Sun, letting through the Atomic vision. The Unseen Father, who by such turns all into Atomic Waters, and floods the world with LIFE. All through the imploding of the Solar into

LOST GLORY

AS she reached the depths of the Abyss, Merope found that the fountains had run dry, and man was but a cracked pot with all the Waters escaping high. A land of Moabite states and mighty red giants,—Nimrods in abundance. Thus as she plucked the strings of her Divine Harp they snapped under her dancing fingers, and for the time the glories of Lyra were lost. (See text in col. 2).

Hence Merope, by the axe of Uranus, as the Fury Dike, firing and cutting away, striking off the dead wood to the depths, that new growth could begin to sprout forth. That man could learn how to cherish and honour Divinity, and nurture it into divine light, thus the beginning was first of the Moabite states, a land of mighty red giants. These as Lot and his wife, have ever prevailed with soul, separating and multiplying all into the depths of mountainous desires; hence the Flood, as the Waters of Ginnunga Gap became as the lunar deluge.

The mighty infiltration causing man to only live by the moon of yesterday, with the Fountains of Bakshiserai of (See plate above) the Central Sun, changing the whole course of Destiny. So it was man who brought the Solar glory into birth by his beliefs, and which today he is completely blind to. It was by Merope seeing this truth, and through her greater belief, that she raised up the Solar glory into that of the Central Sun.

Thereby Father and Son become ONE, the glory of unification, where divinity in the beauty of ONENESS, brings soul to the Ego behest. This began and still continues in the winged Pegasus going up and into the Central Sun, which starts in the passions of man. Then these, in becoming intensified by their rise, bring a soliloquising effect, that of unification. The mighty mys-

The Mind Development Class

EACH Week on every Saturday at 6.30 p.m. B.S.T. Mrs. Spearman-Cook holds her Special Mind Development Class at the School's H.Q. A special Subject is concentrated upon for about 40 minutes and then each sitter is individually helped to interpret and understand his or her findings. Any readers can join; those nearby can make application to attend each week, and those too far away can send in their names and link in each week at the time stated, their names being entered in a Special Book for this purpose. tery lying in the Solar Sun, which had become a block to the mind, whereas now the Fatherhood was getting through direct, as the ever changing Vision.

The mighty Beam, as the ever changing FACE, to be changed by Merope into the glory of Divinity. Thus coming forth through the macula lutea, the blind spot in the EYE, ever perceiving the passing beam. Hence by her bringing the point of comprehension, its imploding through into the Central Sun released all the quintessence into being, which brought the infinity revolving into the greater glory of the mind.

The Unborn Spirit

SO now, not ordinary vision, but Atomic Vision, with Merope ever seeing fully by creating beforehand, imploding back all the elemental fire, to make it into the Garments of the Divinity. Two eyes, but one vision, with Cinderella as the Fairy Dandelion blowing forth through the Winds, the Seeds of coming light. She now as the energy holder, with the Winds at her command, for all now is symbolic of quintessence, the mind substance, tapping the Wind into divine causation. Merope pivoting on the Arc, spreading the sands of life, that Time can be met and measured out.

Therefore Merope realised that the Virgin Oath was to reverence God, the mighty Unseen CAUSE, by the insufflation of the Seed through the portal membranes of the soul, to manifest it as Divine Consciousness, the begotten glory of the unfolding Fiery Divinity. The holy divine beauty of the unfolding Godhead, the divine Cause within the soul's own manifesting Effect; that which comes forth as the growing recognition, in the upraising of the Spirit.

WHEREBY THE SOUL BECOMES MORE AND MORE SENSITIVE TO THE DIVINE VOICE WITHIN THE INFLOWING BREATH, AND CAPTURES ITS HOLY INTENSITY AS THE NEPTUNIAN BEAUTY OF THE TIMELESS AND FORMLESS WORD.

A mighty glory which all are now struggling to accomplish, for the medical fraternity in their earthy status, deny this glory and leave the layman confused and lost. Yet a truth that will ere long, be the largest and most profound question of the Age. The ionising of the poles in inter-union, the blending of heights and depths. So unless man reverences the great Unseen Cause he will never get the Fire surging within him, because the FIRE is GOD.

By this the Seed is ever being refreshed by the incoming Breath of Outer World Space, continually feeding the soul and rejuvenating the soul by that holy intensity. Yet to "know" is but the alchemy of illusion, for it is in "unknowing" that the soul seeks into Virgin Space, and captures a glorious fragment of His Divine Being. Ever seeking for the unattainable, yet all the time treading the eagerness to capture the glory of becoming.

To "know" is to limit, but by fluidity and change "unknowingness" is revealed that will, by eager seeking, ever lead the soul into untouched realms of His Divine Love. Many now failing to perceive and accept of Divinity, for the wonders of their holy heritage are of such that they are satisfied with life as it is. This in itself cuts a soul off, and leaves it barren without the Cosmic glory, without the wherewithal of evolution, to carry it through expansion.

Hence no extended Causation, and that means stagnancy, a gross and blatant refusal to justify of the Spirit. The soul never in the act of Creation of Civilisation, which is the Power of Pre-destiny. For it is in meeting destiny and ever letting in more light, that is evolution. For by this pre-destiny, the soul is ever being fortified by the unborn spirit.

This is the only answer to life and its problems, for the unfolding of the spirit is the meeting of destiny and fate. Then by fate being solved, destiny becomes, and man rises up in mind glory. But so many refuse to unify by renouncing of the fate, which has been the problem, and they ever remain apart. Thus Merope is ever helping the soul to meet destiny by presenting of the truth in the Wisdom, as divine glory gracing her lips; striving to help them find their way home, even though by the hard road of defiance.

As she did so, one heavily laden with fate, cried out for mercy, thus she as the Virgin, fulfilled her oath, and took him to her bosom. As she gave unto him, as a drug addict, of the holy Unction, he was "caught alight" by the divinity she was able to touch him with. As the Glory fused up within him by the frequency he had stolen, he became Christed, thereby would have to honour what he was given.

But it flared up and went out, for it meant renunciation; but Merope as the Priest, took the glory of the Unction partaken, then passed up through gate after gate, until the final unfoldment was reached. Taking glory from every Plane she met, until she came to the Veiled Mystery of the topmost chamber, hiding the greatest glory of all. Then a Voice demanded, "Would you dare to rent that Veil asunder, and partake of its hidden secret?" With courage Merope replied "Yes!" and rent the Veil in twain.

As she did so, the Blackness turned into brilliant LIGHT, and as she gazed into its mighty intensity she saw the EYE, and looked fully into its Divine Glory. Merope became the "Voice" of its internal magnitude, as it now became her Destiny and fate unified. For the Unseen was now of her Voice, the Glory of the unification, so the Priest became the receiver of all, for the adjudicator lost the lead of union. Thus by renting that Veil, Merope became the means of an entirely new Causation to flow from that mighty Source, thereby Evolution of the Cosmic moving on a full Cycle.

Thus Merope on the Golden Ball of light, treading in the mighty Flame, for as she pivoted on the Arc...

...she spread the glorified sand of that mighty hour-glass. The vestal Virgin shod with the Central Sun, making her the Virgin enceinte with Holy Divinity. Thus fulfilling the old adage of yesterday, of "Pallas Athene dancing freely over the golden sand, through timeless dancing hours." Thus what was only of Pisces now was the glory of the Central Sun with all winds at her command.

New Realms of Being

THUS now, by the power of pre-destiny, she knew she could change the course of Causation from even the Source itself, it ever being the changing of the beam of that mighty EYE. The Solar Eye being the mystery of the Great Quintessence, for the Sun is the centralised LIGHT built up in the depths, whereby Divinity could only perceive of itself, through that dynamic light. Hence would be the Fatherhood peering through that vision, for the Virgin Oath was now at the pinnacle point of the dialectic oath, the magnitude of the Cosmic Glory.

With the mighty magnitude of the Central Sun, which was now of Divinity, now being able to manifest of its atomic infinity in the mighty depths. That of the constant oath of the Virgin Spirit, being forced to reverberate through Relativity, its resounding answer, via the Solar build up of divine Positive compound. Thereby feeding the Divinities with its energetic power to stabilise the Master's will, as a Royal Oath into a practical living status.

For as the Son in His Begottenness radiated the Auric Consciousness, would the Father see through the Macula Lutea; the Auric-Orion as the radiance in the perceiving Iris. Ever bringing the Immaculate Virgin into birth out of the fecundating Ova. Therefore the Father would now see through the Macula Lutea, the Inner Eye of the Source, and give to his HIM-HER, His Power of Knowing. Thus bring forth the depths of the rising Immaculate Virgin, ever seeking to glorify the Father, obtaining of his Divine Seed in her Womb. She ever seeding the Begotten-to-be, for as the Virgin would she bring forth the consciousness obtained of the Immaculacy of the Divine Fatherhood.

Thus Merope would ever be fed through the NORM, through those immeasurable heights, the mighty FACE-LESS, the Divine Immensities stationed at the Realm of Being. Guardians of the Threshold, Watchers at the Gates of the Source, yet those who carry the Unknown FIRE into the NORM of her Beness, but who never be. The upholders of the Flame, the Transmitters of His Seeds, who in planting them throughout endless Galaxies and Spheres, would now plant them in Merope.

the FACE of IT, it now became the beautiful Canopic Vase in the Womb of her unfolding Being. Yod and Fount now united by the mighty protrusion, making her the Terrestrial Christ, the LAW and guidance of the Universe.

For Merope-Majesta became filled with the FIRE of ITS Divinities, the isotope of the heavens. She now being Master of heaven and earth, the unified Glory of ONENESS all manifesting in the Sixth, with the Seventh radiating with LIGHT. Hence penetrating deep into her Matriarchate caverns, the innermost recesses of her Fount, she sought to master the unknown secret of glory of bringing forth, in perpetua mobile. Then as the fallopian flow went forth into the mouth of becoming, she would now glisten with the tender Virgin whiteness of Frostal Dew; all polarised into divine Oneness in those heavenly heights, that of the Virgin Plane.

For Yod and Fount were now so cosmically interblended, with Merope as the unification in the depths, that all was set for dynamic wonders to come forth, as the glory of the Atomic Flood. But to bring all this fully into being the depths of profundity had to be penetrated, bringing multitudinous glories into birth. As they came forth, glistening with mystical glory as shape after shape was sculptured out

Royal Hydroxyl mystery, was now the Ovum Atomic Infinity, born from the glory of Outer World Space. With the mighty Unknown Presence blessing such a mighty Union, a Divine Orgastic mystery never known before. For as it ionised into becoming, the ONE EYE of the Divine Atom became as the Central Sun, surpassing all Sons, giving unto Merope the royal inner sight of the perceptory principle.

The Cosmic Unknown Fatherhood declaring His Infinite Power of Divinity, as the beautiful secrets of matriarchate Motherhood brought forth, higher and higher, the mystery of His Son. The mighty unquenchable Flame of Galactical Cosmic Consciousness, the glory of every god's mind. That which has now endowed him with divine belief, that is the foundation for the heavenly New World Road to go forth.

Whereby it can bring divine union with Divinity, where the IT now speaks as the Fiery glory of the soul's heart purpose. Whereby through the mighty expansion of that intense unification, that belief will now bring forth the expansion of the Poles. Giving every son the stabilising power to rise, for it be the rungs of the ladder in the ascension, as the New World begins its debut. That which gives every soul the incentive to spin up to polarity heights, whatever be his depths.

Thus the son whose depths were deep and murky, gave Merope the power of ascension to the heights, with the glory of Christhood to anoint him into divinity, if he could take the divine turn-over. But the depths of Medo-Persia are firmly fixed in the past lunar wealth, thus much labouring will have to go forth to set these Bulls into action, and burn away the false vision of illusion, born of earthy desires.

Yet all a part of the Quintessential Mystery of that mighty heavenly Source, where the effervescence of the Spirit is springing up from a secret depth. That which feeds the heights and draws unto itself the wonders and glories of the heavens. Thus the Cosmic Cosmograph becomes the development of the Christos soul, through the NORM-CAP of exploration. Thus becomes the royal map of Divine Becoming, and the way that all men must follow.

ONLY BY THESE INSTRUCTIONS WILL MAN FIND THE ROAD, AND BE LIFTED UP AS HE ELEVATES HIS MIND.

For it is the ethereal structure of the Normolithic Cycle of germinative rebirth, the manifesting Solar-born soul. He that has made his way back to his rightful place as a god, and will now begin to make his way back to divinity. As a Solar NORM, he now is to become a Normolithic MAN, with the fire of superwill being that which he will draw out of the reborn Normolithic Cycle of God inspiration.

FOR THE NORMOLITHIC CYCLE IS THE TREADING IN OF THE QUINTESSENCE, PRODUCING THE TRANSCENDENTAL LIGHT OF UNIVERSAL PHILOSOPHY.

The soul becoming God-conscious of his virgin existence; getting free from the red dye of the earth. This being by the Atomic Fire, which is forcing man to manifest truth, regardless of the earth penal-

THE CLOAK OF INVULNERABILITY

OOP diddle daddle, what a sequel to a squabble; schoolboys out on a dancing prance to capture their master's laurels! Ho, ho, ho, what a merry throng, with a busy time for the armoury-smiths to replace the loss of their weapons. (See text on page 5, col. 1).

For their Eyes watch the Domain of the Source, and never appear beyond the Gates of HIM-HER, the Girdle of the Source, but deliver unto Merope. For they are the Rulers of Causation, those who know the Unknown, but cannot speak of the Unutterable. This now being Merope's task, thus they would now attend her with LIGHT.

Thus would be the Heralds of Consequence, the Travellers of Infinity. The Knowers of ISness and of Kingdoms beyond the Seas of Sight, thereby being the Translators of Tongues and the Makers of Knowing. Directors of Power from the innermost Source of IT, also the takers of Sacrifice to render the way complete. By such Great Divinities was she now being attended, as the Three mysterious Visitors that came to Abraham, when he rose up from the glory of sacrifice.

Hence no longer as the Le Ros dance, but by the Ladder of the Divinity entering the NORM, that of the Divine Mysteries are born. Whereby all below are raised up, and the soul stands divine and god-like. For the Five Kings becoming in the Fire, with Lot becoming separated, and in Abraham pleading for his reprieve, the red depths in those Five are reborn. But although the Moabites were born through his daughters, the Cosmos is now born of divine glory, through Merope's "dish of blood." With Merope as the gleaner Ruth, now bringing Fate and Destiny into unified ONENESS of divine holy Glory.

Then in Merope having gone up to those mighty heights, and having torn the Veil from divine Fecundation, as unto its possibilities in the flows going forth.

Yet this was the mystery of the Divine Virgin Mother, where the secret of spermed LOVE first began. Thus in her entry she found Ceres fast asleep within her Ovum well. Overcome by the stagnating fumes of Ages and Ages of depth.

So Merope began to dance in ecstasy, to awaken her up from the depths, to stir the many glories of the past, lost in the depths of illusion. (See the Front Page Plate)

Hence she danced in heavenly ecstasy as that rhythmic vibronic intensity became known, yet only to she who throbs with the FIRE of the mighty FIRE of Divinity, all now in the horned Sixth.

HENCE MEROPE, A GODDESS OF UNSURPASSED PLEIADIC VIRTUE, WHO DREW DOWN THOSE DIVINITIES OF THE HEIGHTS, WAS NOW THE MIGHTY CAUSATION FROM HEIGHTS AND DEPTHS. YET THAT DYNAMIC DIVINE STREAM OF HOLY GLORY, THAT SHE DIRECTS THROUGH HER HEAVENLY FOUNT.

Then as the activity increased under this Fiery innovation, the activated momentum, as the secret kiss, awoke Ceres, the daughter in the depths, fast asleep in the Lethe Waters. For a ripple of quickening LIFE stirred as the FIRE of Divinity penetrated her innermost Seed in the depths of her mystic well. Then the infinite mystery of Motherhood, long lost to woman, pulsed into her being, with the of the rock, the wonders of Samarkand and mighty glories unknown became the wondrous wealth of the Virgin.

Yet all to become the supporting pillars for wealth long before the Neolithic. Thus producing jewels of such mighty richness that the diamonds, emeralds, pearls, garnets and topaz, were of unsurpassed glory, therefore became the pride of Merope's crown. Every facet sending forth of her Virgin Pride, that carried her right up to those heavenly heights of the polarised Source.

The Normolithic Cycle

HENCE touched by such mighty purity, the Source sent forth ITS dynamic expanded Ray from that polarised depth. The Divine Fire of Atomic immensity, which now caught up the silvery bejewelled magnificence, which flashed and shimmered in divine virginal ecstasy. Then responding in heavenly Virtue, the deep Virgin Beauty of Merope rose up as Aurora-Sheba taking her wealth to the very Source of the mighty Unknown.

Then as the Heavenly Twain embraced in divine glory, Iris spread forth her glorious smile of divine beauty, glistening and radiating in golden glory right across the heavens of the mind. With the heavenly Void expanding and thrilling as her LORD came forth in the unified mystery, to meet her intensified depths. For all now was of divine ONENESS, with the divine mysteries working out their secret in that unification. For as Irus faded into Aurora, the dawning magnificence of immortal glory burst forth into the nuptial splendour of Atomic Divinity.

For the Divine Central Cosmic Intelligence, now the ties. This is where the inaudible soliloquising of the Gods is forcing their internal beliefs and orders into the soul, that he can manifest them as His Divine Orion Voice. He directing the Gods as the galaxy, and they directing man.

So as long as man seeks of that Divine Presence, being only guided by Him, will he find that he is treading the straight and narrow road. Therefore if he seeks of the Divinity direct, he will not be caught up by the chaotic jumble of the changing states of the earth. This being the only way that man will learn and find the answer to life.

The New World of Light

NO longer the sword of Damocles, but the sword of Orion; thus any soul trying to accomplish this through drugs and earth cunning, will only become crucified as unto the old state, and forced back into the Stream. This is going to be the masculine wearing of the real essence of Truth, thereby creating a Normolithic basic of Solar Divinity. The positive creation as the cosmic consciousness becoming the awakening heart purpose, which the IT speaks through. Thus His wealth is right at the end, which is but a fraction and illusion of what is really manifesting.

For now all men must learn to accept and adopt the divine status, that they can make their way towards Him, the Divine Orion MAN. That which feeds the earth with the new germinative essence of life, which is the Atomic Power of the NORM firing the quintessential Breath of the Orion MAN. That freezing the rebellious states of earth, changing the Martian Power of self into a transmuted Taurean expansion, by the Uranian Atomic icicle. That set into motion to drive the Vietnam evil into action of elevated change. That which has the power of electrifying the soul structure into Christos light of a greater elevated belief.

It giving the Cosmos the expansion it requires to enforce the change, thus giving to the Cosmic Consciousness its sperming breath. Hence a power of timeless structure, which mortifies and confiscates all wealth unwilling to be transmuted. Soul becoming Solar born and raised up to Divinity; a soul becoming selfless and embracing the Divine, that the Unknown makes the soul the Feminine Principle to receive all His sperming. David dancing before the Lord, that the glories of the mind became filled with His Sperming Breath, and His Divine Face is the Vision within his mind.

Thus soul sitting up in his heights in the whispering gallery, where the Voice of the LORD is the Echo from afar. Thus the Ides of March, as the Virgin Equinox, had brought its new-born babe. With the Foreign Minister stabbing the Chosen One in the back, but losing his own momentum, for the new inflow of Fire was testing the heartless, and he was thrown to the dogs with Jezebel.

With the old New World losing its grip to the birth of the future NEW WORLD, in the heart and glory of Londinium. That the New World of Vega can begin to blossom, and bring forth the FACE of Justice. With the Atomic Fire to raise up the glory under foot, that really is the heart purpose, but also unearth the gun-runners that are using the unwary to fill their coffers with loot.

Thus the New World opens up with a lot of badly washed wealth to be buried in, yet Merope filled up to the full of her quiver, with the shimmering dancing glory of the Spirit. The young sod all dug and ready to receive the seeds of new purpose and belief, where growth and beauty can now spring up and fill the world with heart-born purpose and belief. Man no longer a slave to the rich, but a voice that declares its intentions with the cosmic consciousness; half-heartedly spoken before, but now the way and glory of that heaven-born purpose.

ALL READY FOR THE GREATER UNFOLDMENT, WHERE MIND AND LIGHT ARE THE FULL INTENTION, AND DIVINE CONSCIOUSNESS IS THE PINNACLE POINT TO BE ACHIEVED.

Yet it opens with untold violence and brutality, where the worst of passions are running wild. Those with no real motive of justice, but hooliganism surging through their wild pent-up blood. Stirring their inner depths to action, and forcing the dull-witted mind of the law to move and get further action. Hence the crossing over leaves much to be desired, with one the Virgin having faithfully fulfilled her Oath, and the Source justified. She by her wanderings had made it tangible, and now ready for the assimilation.

Thus here was the New World, born from the agonies of Atomic unification, that now demanded recognition and reverence. But a self-born perception of such glorified manifestation, that all adoration was of and through the heart. Here was the first cross-over of the Union, where the Arian-Bull has to face up to Orion and the task to be fulfilled, that the Triangular Union can begin to unfurl. But this time with a completely different motive, DIVINITY, for that is the Source, thus the assimilation of all things.

producing, will be amazing. With the soul ever in a status of ascension and spinning up into Realms of fantastic beauty, revealing states of belief that bring Heaven manifesting in matter.

The soul's main seeking is conquest, the mastering of the unknown, that it can manifest in matter. Mighty Powers that are being drawn down into density by the soul gaining conquest over the previous, but with the soul ever raising the earth up more and more to divinity. So it is ever a state of renunciation and bringing the Divinity manifesting as the personality of the soul.

(See plate below)

But ever in a state of ONENESS as a blossomed Seed, the next point to go forward to create. Ever a status of creation to a point of delivery, with the soul ever recognising his own status of divinity, thereby living it in a way of divine simplicity. Thus the unknown glories of the Divinity coming more and more to the fore, in a point of Seed capacity.

The animal and all appetaining to that therein, being shed, and simplicity the growing glory: for complication is man's multiplicity of self-importance, and unbalanced means of revealing what is dawning upon him. Therefore all now as possible states of rebirth. Yet the Word that could lay the Egg that would produce the new-born life, the glory and truth of unfoldment.

The Bull who was gathering in of the Seed, that the New Creation could begin. That which danced back and forth to master the old ideas, that the new could spring forth, driving hard and long with velocity and vigour, ionising the glory of rebirth. Yet it could only be by the saturation of the soul with the Word, that the minimising of the earth begins. The Spirit opening up the channel for the strength and glory of the reforming growth, as the soul spins that Wisdom up into the heights of elevated frequency.

But now from the wonders of Outer World beauty, the frequency of the searching mind. Thus as the Bull awakens to the potentials of the growth, the elevation carries him up high, and the wonders of new growth begins. For the New World Creation has been the means of the soul having found mastery over all past states, which cleanses and absolves the soul, to begin life afresh. Thus every effort must be made to cross over the border line, into the World of total rebirth. Those who make the bound over will find the cornfields in Egypt now becoming ripe.

For the New World of Vega, when cleansed by the feminine principle weaving through the perceptory principle, all past states that have been brought to Oneness will set the pituitary sparking. Creation of new beliefs, ideas, and ideals, fostered by the saturating Fires calling all who were ready, to begin the journey forth on the Waters of life.

Yet all following Merope, who sailed forth to start the New World, the mighty adventure of Outer World Space, the heavenly Ether Waters. For the very glory of the heavens lies in the soul itself; all the mighty wonders of the Starry Heights incorporated in the soul structure, that when activated into light, becomes the wonder of divinity.

Hence cosmic desolation that when transmuted becomes the divinity of the soul, where ice and cornfields, up North and down South, are the revolving glory of infinity. Each soul gathering in according to its saturation of the Word, he finding it a matter of ever unfolding awareness. Thus Merope struggling to lift the dark and deedy, and drug-ridden addicts, over from one side to the other. A Mystery of Redemption that will help to cleanse the world of darkness.

For the Virgin Plane, the rebirth of all Creation, is the unopened Mouth awaiting the force of the Fount to burst forth into divine Speech. Wonders and truths now to come forth as never known before, yet as simple as the little child, seeking the answer to life. For the Source is the Sanctuary of the Spirit, the Divine Cause of all being, having come forth from out of the Oyster, in the depths redeemed. That risen up by infinity creation, through the crucible pot in the depths; with Divine Compassion as the birth of the heart, the mystery of the solid foundation.

YET THE VIRGIN'S OATH NOW DULY FULFILLED, WITH THE QUINTESSENTIAL GLORY AS THE MYSTERY OF THE SOURCE, THE MIGHTY REDEMPTION OF REBIRTH.

BURNT OFFERINGS

MYSTERIES lost in their mighty depths, that man would do well to retrieve: thereby to bring back into their hearts the glory of divinity. But greater still, the inflow of Purity that will raise up their internal glory of freedom, for it is the Spirit that is being strangled, and crying out for mercy, while the beast is devouring the gold. (See text in col. 4).

wondering as to what can be planted in such heavy new-born clay.

The Re-Birth of All Creation

Here was the Source revealing Itself, yet in what? Atomic bloodshed everywhere, for a cause that has no cause, and corruption and vice in abundance. So Merope looks desperately into all that presents itself, that she can gain a lead. Knowing full well that to grow a tree you must plant the Seed, bringing a completely new World whose outcome is LIGHT. The conforming of the Orion Galaxy, and the over-driving Sothic sensitivity of the New Plane of Gyrolactic infusion, as the Hydroxyl Fires, the Electro-Atomic power of the Transcendental LIGHT. The treading in of the Orion Colure that opens up the Orgastic Plane.

Therefore the protoplasm or Homo-creation of the blood, is now the Taurean wealth that must become electrified into the Orion Stream, the conscious understanding of Divinity. For the Divine Cause is the ruling factor of the Fatherhood, with Merope, the Feminine Cause that left His side, now returned as the answer fulfilled. Hence

FOR the first time the Bull begins to realise of his importance, and how he can solve the problem by his power of assimilation. As he can comprehend and partake from the Seed, will he find the strength to sail up in frequency to the NORM, and blossom forth that required to give the soul the golden crown of LIGHT. The soul seeing and perceiving the depths of intensity, where the mind comprehends the intricate reason for which those Ancient Races built up of such Mysteries. Usually that their Warriors could warrant the trophies whereby they had tried to master life.

Now these are the roots of the soul, which he is trying to master, that they can produce of something greater. A World of MIND, where the animal and the body of the soul, are completely changed and brought to a more divine status. Where the MIND becomes the conquest of the soul, and its inner qualities, possibilities, and depths of he has not shed the miasma of intellectualism.

Conquest is of the Unknown by conquest over self in its unbalanced orgy of self-importance, that will ever rise in the status of knowing. Simplicity is in perceiving and emulating it, whereby divinity is captured and made manifest in the glory of beholding. This is frequency accomplished and radiating its capacity in matter, bringing the status of density up to that frequency.

Thus Divinity manifesting in matter, but only ever as a state of ONENESS. Thus the more that man recognises divinity within himself, the more Divinity is manifest; thus the heart purpose that becomes of the Purple Heart, the glory of a stable foundation.

Thus Merope as she surveyed the freshly dug soil in the World of Virgin unfoldment, saw a little chicken wander forth, pecking diligently for corn. With his weathered eye he sought in every direction, for all creation had been brought to Seeds of Oneness,

Spiraculum Vitae on the Road of Azoth

A Study in Alchemicalisation

Part 2

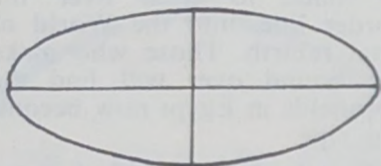

by Gladys I. Spearman-Cook

IN continuation of the treatise of the Cosmological formation, Ra-Men-Ra is now portraying the unfolding Essence in its differentiation of Creation into its moving unconscious conception of tangibility. In the forming tangibility of form it was as Space becoming limited by points, the extent of Creation with the momentum of magnetic pull at its extremes. Thus Space as one dimension was a mere straight line as from point to point, while two dimension became of the breadth, a flat surface.

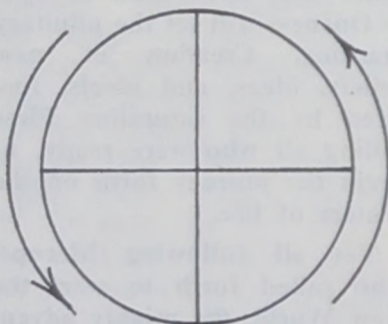

The one Space is that generated by the motion of a point in the Saturn Globe which brought forth the second, the Sun Globe, and has correlation with first and second Principles; the Him-Her or Father-Motherhood, the Essence life in the soul...

... So it can be seen as the unfolding Space becoming a plane, ...

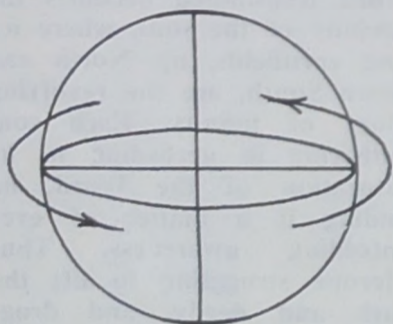

... through what had to move no longer being able to extend, and then beginning to whirl in a right angle movement...

... For all the time the movement as Law was seeking Equilibrium, and this was the first tangibility in the heaving and wriggling, squirming and tossing, becoming a momentum of orderly action.

This was in time able to whirl a three Space in the direction of the right angle surface, generating a solid...

... While the creatures upon it would be Globular beings with only inward perception which brought the solid three space into being. This was the Sun Globe giving birth to the Moon and forming the third dimension as Earth. Whereas on the Moon plane the soul was without rational mind to think beyond self, the third dimension manifested itself in consciousness though limited only to a sequence of changes in two dimensional objects. These could see no more than was in form around them, thus was needing of TIME for unfoldment, and a fourth dimension began in a special extension in some new direction.

This would always be of a right angle, it being the Law, therefore a new direction ever coming out of the three already known. This then manifested as mind perception; a time change from period to period, action to formation, change and reformation.

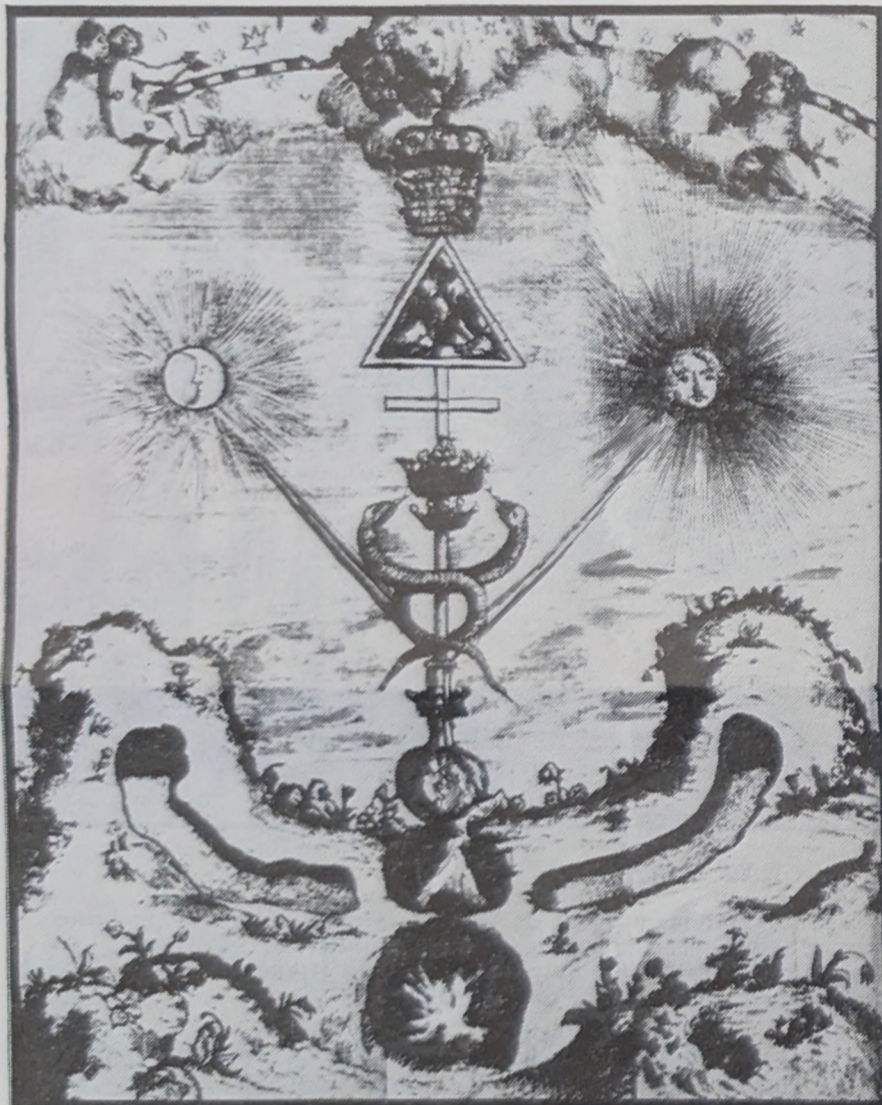

This change involving the temporal elements which took its turn in the movement as the Fall, caused the law within the soul to reverse its direction, and as the Wheel of the Law went from right to left, man on his wheel went from left to right. This caused a current of friction and suffering, that will continue until the soul seeks to climb off that cross and struggle to go the way of the Law. That would be regeneration in redemption. Yet the involving temporal element as the moving state of dimensions is the Universal flux of things in life growth and organic being. The transition from simplicity to complexity in the shrinkage or expansion of solids as form. It can only be measurable in man's mind and in terms of it, since temporal element is involved in every change.

All was there in the beginning and likewise with man, but it slowly has to take heavings and turnings, seething and writhing until form begins to shape; then again it has many pangs and sorrows before it ever shapes its end. This is the Road of Density made into a Road of Fate.

The Ancients formed a formulae for all this involving into form and although much despised and crucified by the multitude down the Ages, it has ever held its inner being of truth. It was perceived and realised that in the Saturn Globe there was an act of CONGELATION and DISSOLUTION, an act of solidifying and a further state of disintegration.

On the Sun Globe DIGESTION began in a process of

THE MERCURIAL HIEROGLYPHIC

THE Holy FIRE buried in the depths of the earth, the means whereby the spiritus will rise, forming the dynamic mercurius of the heights. Whereby the Sun and moon, as positive and negative, in blended application bring forth the wonders of the Sea of Life, and the glories of the Heavens. (See text on page 7, col. 2).

The Road of Eternal Unfoldment

MAN must observe that the crux of the physical universe is the four interchangeable dimensions, and since three are those coming into being, they must be included under the name of Space. Therefore the fourth must be Time manifesting as motion, since it is that which comes forth. This also applies to the three previous Globes in the creation, only they were not conscious of what was to make manifestation of time and motion, for their hour had not come; theirs was merely in the being.

chemical compounds becoming and dissolving, with an act of SUBLIMATION—elevating beginning. Then on the Moon Globe they perceived that INCINERATION must have taken place as the fire bringing a consuming; with SOLUTION forming in gas—MIND as self-consciousness.

On the Earth Globe FILTRATION began, a percolation from the ether bringing an EVAPORATION in an emotional state becoming solidified, and finally carried into a vapour; mind as individual-consciousness, awareness. This will result in a form of RECTIFICATION taking place on the future Jupiter Globe. An amending, with a state of Commixtion taking place; blending beginning.

On the Venus Globe to follow, comes PURIFICATION; the removing of foreign matter, an act of INHIBITION as restraining and becoming. Then finally for this Universe, the Vulcan Globe bringing the Philosopher's Stone into birth from Venus rising up out of the Waters of Space, as Venus-Urania. This is all due to the Solar Orb penetrating the Luna. The First Principle absorbing the Second in the Third, the Son becoming the offspring of the First—the Father.

AND ON THE EARTH GLOBE THIS BECOMING POSSIBLE TO ALL WHO HAVE LEARNT TO ACQUIRE.

Sulphur is fire forming creation, for in its original state it was an oil of vitriol with a quality of burning. Therefore fire with combined hidden oxygen; but in its compound the SUL is the soul of a thing, and in the Word, the oil or light that generates out of the PHUR; the well-doing or benefits that are born in expansion of comprehension. The way a soul perceives of light wherein reason and sensing consists. By this it can be seen it is the Spirit which is generated out of the Phur, the prima materia or first Matter, and contains in itself, through the journeying, the third Principle—the Macrocosm or Great World from which the elementary essence has generated self.

This ever continues through the soul creation as mind unfoldment, for it ever acts as the continuing root state of all new and festering creations. The seething point or seed that boils and heaves until it often becomes a violence; yes, even a universal war. The crux of all disputes, murders and crime. This means all is within the self, as all was born from Space, and Time from the Globes; therefore what was in the Globes must be in man.

Birth of the Infinity

IN the first Principle it is the essence of the most inward birth of which God begetteth his Son from eternity; and from thereout proceedeth the Holy Ghost. All this came forth out of Sul and Phur; the "fire-warmth" of the Saturn Globe. This is now the fire in man as his "heat," and becomes in its mind creation, that which getteth oil out of the matter.

Then it becomes the light which generateth out of the sidereal spirit; that obtained from the Starry heavens, the Astral Microcosm. The unity of the Universe in the man through the unity of the Father and Mother, Sun and Moon, of which the daughter—Son—the Earth is the working factor. But in the very inward centre is the light of God, the spirit of the soul, the Spiraculum.

This inward centre is the fire of God which the soul kindles from the Holy Ghost; first as self, then light, and finally as the Love of God. Yet it must be seen there is no sulphur in God, but it is generated from Him as virtue and power in Him. And this first begins in the virgin spirit or atom in the harshness of beginning finding bitterness, and causing the fire and water to boil up bringing MERCURIUS into being, or virtue taking form. From that a vein of water flows as oil, which is love; this is like a cross going from its point of centre towards the east, the west, the north and south.

THIS IS THE STAR OF BETHLEHEM THAT LEADS THE THREE WISE MEN TO THE CHRISTOS—THE THREE LOWER CHAKRAS TO UNFOLD AND FIND THE HEIGHTS.

The birth of the eternal nature in the soul is likened unto the thoughts or senses in man generating many roots, branches and buds; and all from that one first root. Therefore the first Six form Creation—generateth but one source or budding property like itself, and that after the similitude of its own fountain-spirit; but not like the first mother, the harshness. It became as one branch in a tree that putteth forth another out of itself, and was that which man was intended to generate from his mind; instead he generated from the raw fire.

Therefore it must be seen that in every fountain-spirit there is but one centre wherein the fire-source or fountain must rise, and the light must arise out of the flash of that fire. But the first sixfold is the source or springing property or fountain. The harsh spring in the original is the Mother, out of which the other five springs are generated via Bitterness, Water, Sound and Love.

These are the members from the Mother, and without them there would be nothing but an anguishing dark vale and vacuum where there could be no mobility, nor any light or life. These are continued in the six senses of man where five bring the winging property in the six and crowning in the seventh. But the basic is in the three in the depths; the first three Principles; in man the three vagrants or three lower Chakras of Mars, Venus and Mercury.

So in the first, or root Birth, it can be seen that life is born in the old Mother by the kindling of the light, and then she rejoiceth in her own being and laboureth in her own harsh astringent quality to generate again. And furthermore this continues all through life, for before all birth there is the harshness to endure. No harshness, no real birth; merely superficial and the endurance is to come.

So in the one quality of the Mother there riseth life again and again; for the centre opens itself and the life is ever generated out of her in a sixfold form. Yet not in any such anguish as at the beginning, but in the anguish of her children as they labour with her Blood and the Father's Fire.

By the labours of many, the Saviours of the World, in the spring of the great anguish, which was in the beginning before the light came in the bitterness, joy was generated, and now is the sweet fountain of love; in that they, as the Saviours in their travails for man, changed the bitterness into the fountain or spring of joy, whereby it produceth light.

From henceforth the fire flash became the father of the light; the flash in every perceptance of the Word, for it generateth illumination. So how can man say what is God—yet he is all of God; and furthermore it is lamentable that since the Fall and birth of worldliness, the soul is so cheated by the foolishness born from the earth creation as to think he is not the child of God; and not even of His essence-substance as offspring.

Awakening of Man's Divinity

THE negative state which was put into man's thoughts was put into Mother Eve and she gazed upon it, and by her representing it in her imagination it became a child of this world, wholly naked and void of understanding. Thus Adam and Eve hid behind the trees, and when the Lord appeared in the centre of the birth of their lives and said "Where art thou Adam?" he said "I am naked and afraid," which is nothing else than Adam in the depth of matter having lost the vision, and eating only of the third Principle wherein corruption is abound.

This is the birth of the virgin spark as the form embryo, who now in the depth of matter of "Skins" finds the six qualities of propagation, and is the complete loss of sight. Yet the first race of men were as demi-gods; flesh as all other men, but then not densified; for they were the race of men who brought so much conjecturing to man of time creation.

The man as you know him today is the soul who is sinking more and more into the depths of materialism. But he will have to conquer all those hidden qualities and not let them lie immersed in the seething sulphur. He must give birth to a forming mercurius, and begin to rise and find the phosphorus of light.

all things. For it is the First and the Third which giveth birth to the second; and since man is of the essence of God, why should he not have power and authority to speak of God.

Paul when he awoke said "Know that your conversation is in heaven from whence we expect our Saviour who will bring us out of this birth." That is, the soul born into wisdom by the Word that will bring the man unto the heights in his speech and out of the corruption of the third Principle, which is of your world; that you can, in the paradisaical and when man can understand this and his own inner divine being, he will begin to rise, but not before. He will begin to perceive, as if in a dream, of the true journey of the will to cast asunder the baubles of matter, and desire to go forth as the FU or FOOL, with only his bundle, his rod and the cat at his heels, as the sole companion. His destiny the spinal column in investigation and astral magnetism.

Man can only know God and become of the God Essence when he finds God in the Son out of the Third

Yet Spouse or Son it matters not, for the Son swallows up the Spouse, and is the Mystery of Life.

Therefore Root-Nature is the source of the subtle invisible properties in visible matter, and is the Soul of the One Infinite Spirit born from this Space, and Earth is the Grand Old Mother. Then there cannot be those equal to earth in Space, but all is born from earth's nursing and be of dimension above earth and finer than her substance; her daughters, yet her Regents, her reflection, thus not solid matter.

Then time can only be illusion produced by man in a succession of earth states of consciousness having devoured of Space and regurgitated into a living tangible-intangible substance; For that is man's heritage, he is the labourer and husbandman for the Father through the Mother. Yet nothing on Earth has duration, for all is change, as she is the Mother of all being, and is changed by the constant attention of the Father in his zeal to cherish her.

Thus the sensation whereby man is made aware of being, is the cause of all actuality, and is the awareness of division of Time in its first state of tangibility. The ever Present, yet the blurring of the succession of glimpses that man's senses record to him as he passes from the region of ideals to what he calls Future. But in reality is only a region of memories which he further names Past.

Therefore his mind is the sum states of consciousness, that grouped under Thought, Will and Feeling; but until these states become Reality, it will never become as God's Mind, the Son born from God's Essence after passing through the Mumia of soul creation.

To obtain this Oneness, all must pass through the twelve Gates; the twelve causes of existence or chain of causation. These twelve Nidanas are known as:

- JATI—birth through four modes of consecutive elements.
- JARAMARANA — decrepitude or death that follows maturity of the sensing.
- BHAVA—the karmic agent which leads all sentient being into being born.
- UPADANA—the creative cause of Bhava, and becomes the cause of Fate.
- TRISHNA—love, pure or impure.
- VEDANA—sensation and that produced by the sensing, perception.
- SPARSA—sense of touch.
- CHADAYATANA—the organs of sensation.
- NAMARUPA—personality, a symbol of unreality of material phenomenal changes.
- VIJNANA—awareness, the first perfect knowledge of all things in their concatenation of unity.
- SAMSKARA—action of the plane of illusion.
- AVIDYA—ignorance which demands rebirth, and the continual call for constant change.

These are the twelve Gates of Revelations that become crowned with twelve jewels of the Twelve Hierarchical Lords when assisted by the four Great Lords. All being therein tangibility of the Space which directs the virgin spark as soul to find its consciousness, and direct the concatenation of Causes. Each being an effect of the antecedent Cause; the sum total of the Nidanas based in Four Great Truths, often called four great Winds, or nine Breaths.

OCCULT GLORY

THE mysterious birth out of the inflowing Unseen, that becomes born of the glories of manifestation. Then by the light flaring into comprehension the Dove returns with the divine concatenation of Causes. (See text in col. 5).

Adam is not past recovery, neither is he broken off from the divine root; he is still the child of God. But he must accept that he is that child, then he will become as the Jackal, the Initiate who now perceives of LOVE, his divine origin, and so begin to learn through the voice of his inner father origin of how his Great Father gave forth of the Great Birth, wherein the Great Mother travailed, and Eve the daughter kneweth not.

Man's form and shape is not of God, nor of His essence or substance; but the hidden man, which is the soul, is the proper essence of God; for it is the love of God which springs up out of your centre as the Holy Ghost, the second Principle which giveth birth to birth, or sustenance, eat the Word of the Lord of the Universe. Therefore you must seek him in your heart, which is the foundation of the beginning; for the sustenance of man, so it is written, must be born anew through the water (emotions) and the Spirit (love), or else he will not see the kingdom of God. The light born within himself in the recognition of his own divinity.

Until a man finds his own divinity, he is nought but what he believes himself to be—so ye be your own judges. This must be done within, for the heart—the son of God—must arise in the birth as the LOVE being therein; then the Christ-force will become the Shepherd—that born from the depths to the heights, and triumphant whereby it shineth as light of the soul. Therefore you are in Him and He in you, and all that He and His Father have, is yours!

In these simple words it can be seen, that as you give unto the SON, the Great Mind, or Logos, you receive in return, and so become. This eternal generating is an unbeginning birth, and it has neither number nor end, and its depth is bottomless. The sidereal and elementary Spirit, which as the Astral, Starry or Airy Spirit of man, cannot discern it, much less comprehend it.

This has summarized the Great Divine birth in matter, Principle; the sidereal and elementary birth from the Spiraculum Vitae; the spirit of the soul which is generating into light. For the Parent Space is the eternal ever-present Cause of All, the incomprehensible Deity whose Invisible Robes are the Mystic Root of all matter and of the Universe. Yet further it must be understood, that Space is the one eternal thing, but that without dimension.

The first differentiation from that is Spirit, the Causeless Cause of both Spirit and matter; but this Space is bodiless, some godlike thing, or God himself. Yet it be substantial, but that which transcends substance and the first thinkable or intelligible all. Not for God Himself, but what His thoughts are, He is. So if Space is to be thought, it should not then be thought as God, but Space, and He should not be conceived as Space; but energy that can contain all Space. That which becomes intelligence in man when transmuted into God-like power.

So if Space is the one eternal thing without dimension, there can be no such thing as void, but is the Spouse of Deity, that in which "All doth move," and in which all things not only live and move but have their being; for this Space is Bodiless, the Mind or Reason of God—the Logos.

thus becomes the raised up status of the first God state of the Yod. The Seed raised up to its greater propensity of FIRE, and Fire is God. Nothing can touch Fire of this Atomic Nature, it is the raised up Solar Glory, out of the Fired beauty of the Hormone Seed, born from and through the Breath. Hence, up in the soul's meninges resides this atomic glory as an atomic influence in the Arachnoid Web, and has supreme command with the galactical group of celestial gods. But I always feel that the drawing of the Astrological chart defines this much better. (See diagram below).

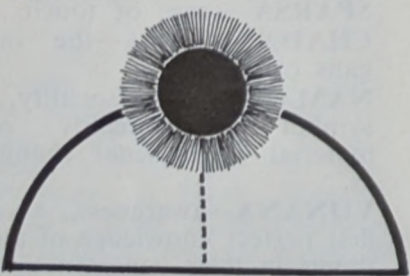

All these signs are polarities, and polarise in ionisation. Where I have placed the Yod line across, indicates of the Fire ionisation ever in a change of status, through all the other eleven, bringing the Fire to the rising Spirit. Then through that gathered from the struggle of the others, the first house of Aries, as the personality, becomes the risen up man. But the Fire ever in a state of ionisation from the 5th to the 11th, is the rising Spirit of the soul, but that in the centre of the chart...

... is the nugget of gold gained from the ionisation. Everything being worked in conjunction with one another, not just separate parts, but the co-ordination of all. Hence, this being the Aquarian Age, is the time for unification and rebirth.

The Great Flame is the Intelligencia, the MIND quota born and raised up by man to the Sine of the World... spinning his mind up in aspiration...

...and becoming the aura around the earth. This is known scientifically as the Stratosphere, where the Sun, now as the unified Central Sun,

TETE-A-TETE

It has been suggested that I make one or two explanations more clear this month, for a great many find so much help from my personal writings in this column. This is very gratifying, and it gives me much pleasure, as well as the fact of knowing that there are those now who are taking a deep interest in the deeper wisdom.

The Active Propensity of Life

Let us first start off with the Great Eagle and the Great Flame, who are one and the same, yet hold of two names.

Great Eagle literally refers to the soul's raised up passions, Great Flame literally refers to the soul's raised up passions, Great Eagle literally refers to the soul's raised up passions, Great Flame literally refers to the soul's raised up passions...

is the raised up Intelligencia of the Earth. That which began as Helio and now is the living Deity of the Earth Glory.

For God is FIRE, the living propensity of LIFE, after man had raised it up as the glorified aspired Fire of the MIND. That transferred from the Starry Essence drawn down as Breath, and transformed by the alchemicalised action of the crucible pot in matter. But as unto the Macrocosm, so to the microcosm, thus the Great Flame is the Flame of LIFE, the Heavenly Christos Glory.

Naturally all this will be denied by the scientist, but of course, he is the earthy one who cannot see anything else but figures and form. Yet if the frequency and sensitivity is raised up, it could be beheld by that mind as wealth of atomic vibration that had gathered up and risen high by fiery mind activity. Do not doubt these things, for there is far more unfolding as the unseen noumena, than the manifesting phenomena. While the raised up atoms of the mind, are the creation of the Theocratic consciousness; the glory born to the mind through Divinity inflow.

As in man, so in the Grand MAN, or the Orion MAN, but never forgetting, in man when he wishes it to be so. Therefore, through Relativity, I have been able to bring unification, where everything has been raised up to a state of ONENESS, bringing man back to the Virgin Plane, where he should have been when he finalised the descent. Then by the in-burst of Holy Fire, should have begun to ascend upwards to the MIND PLANE by spinning his mind upwards, becoming one with the Divinities, but greater than the Angels, because he had experience. But since man chose this way, well, here we are!

One of the greatest things I have ever learnt, at the knees of the Great Master, the Great Flame, is the fact of how necessary everything is in the World and a part of the World itself. For everything is a matter of frequency, and is a finer creation of the Earth's demonstration of it, which is only reflection, and discarded when no longer useful. By this I mean that we learn through all these things, rise up out of them when we behold greater, then discard them, and learn through something else.

Even pain, sorrow and misery, which man requires to awaken him out of his somnambulistic state. Though of course, if he had taken the High Road, he would never really have had to partake of these experiences. So there comes a time when they have to be broken away from him, for the soul will not let go, he ever being under the ruling of Saturn, whose major weakness is possession. Renunciation belongs to the Divinities, and links soul with God, and is preparing man for his way of ascension.

The Earth is the basic of all Plane creation, all else are Planes of Vibration of all degrees, reflecting on the "Hall of Mirrors" as Planets. The Hall of Mirrors being the reflective atmosphere of nitrogenous gas, containing all the thoughts and beliefs of man. Everything is really so simple and so simply inter-linked, that man cannot credit such truths, and automatically doubts them.

But I, as Merope, have been very blessed, for I have been trained at the knees of the Great Master, and all these so-called difficult things, appear quite simple to me now. It is a matter of seeing all things as vibration, which come and go by the Law of Change and rebirth. Yet I must admit, very confusing at first, which rules out it being merely my own mind belief.

FOR I HAVE EVER BEEN ABLE TO ASCEND UP TO MY HEIGHTS, AND SIT UP AND LOOK UP TO THE TOP OF MY ARC, AND LISTEN TO THE DIVINITY ON THE VAULTS OF MY HEAVEN.

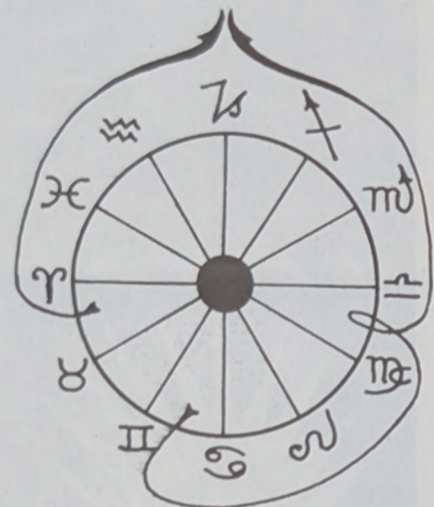

Birth of the Spirit

This now gives me an opportunity of discussing Merope. Yes! I am the lost Goddess, although it has taken me a long time to fully accept, but I was told that if I could not accept my own Akashic Record, how could I give unto another,—that soon cured me!

But what I did have to learn, was the fact that there were two sides to myself, until I drew all up to a state of oneness, an androgynous state. These two were the higher and lower sides of the mind, the two-faced Janus. One that looks upwards and one that looks through form; we having their vision through the two eyes. But are those now that are trying to see through a one pointed purpose...

...the two sides of Gemini that have to find expansion, that bring Virgo into a unified state, with the golden-haired babe in the "womb." Which if she can get it up to the heights, extends the Mount, and brings the mind into greater growth in the first house.

The mind child ever being born and taken up to the heights as MIND, while at the same time, the Spirit ever coming into birth through the Bull, as an earthy creation in the ionising of the poles of the spine, drawing in of fresh Seed through Scorpio, and interblending the spirit with the earth.

Eventually this becomes disentangled through the rising mind spinning up and opening up through the study of the Word; hence Merope is the Spirit side of myself, and Zamiar is the side waiting to awaken. While Merope, who is the Spirit is ever seen as a young soul, and being only of Spirit, slim and wispy. But she will never rise up if Venus is dancing the glories of earthy desire, and is why sensitivity is so necessary for the risen Venus, dancing with the young Warrior Mars.

THIS IS THE LE ROS DANCE WHERE ALL GOES UP TO THE HEIGHTS OF THE MIND, AND FEEDS THE GODS WITH THE SKY-WEeping-WATERS OF HEAVENLY REBIRTH. THEREFORE IT MUST BE SEEN, HOW NECESSARY IS RENUNCIATION; NOT BY FORCE, BUT BY TRUE BELIEF.

All this, as simply as I have placed it, will still be a little confusing to some; but as the Waters of Fiery Breath infuse you with their noumena, will the phenomena become evident through awareness. This is all SO Real to me, that at the Age of 68, and after 32 years of constant service of 22 hours a day, I am longing to get back HOME.

But then, I happen to know that every man has to render that service to get back home, to where his EGO is established. So I must labour on still further, to try and convince many more before I go.

It is because I know this to be true, and that I must raise up my vibration and attune to higher vibrations, that I have laboured so hard, and even raised up the Planes to help the Race. To come back again in the flesh, especially now, could mean any mishap, and delay for many more lives of struggle.

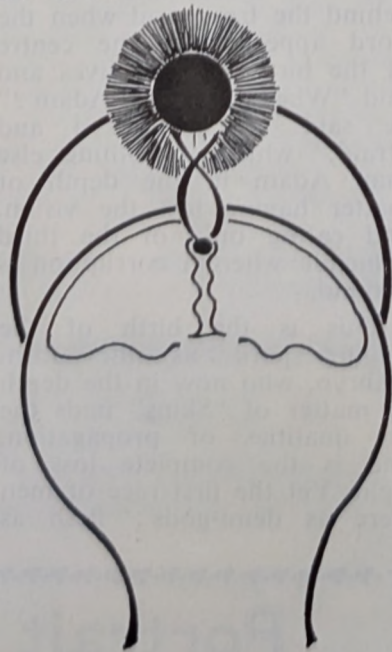

So in return for service to the Great Divinities, I stand a very good chance of fulfilling my purpose; but the higher you go, the harder it gets, and the greater the chance of toppling over, for it is a very slender ledge...

...it never having been cultivated. But as soon as I describe it, it becomes, and I as the Scapegoat, have to go and search for something new. Thus the Gods are planning upon a few more years yet, but sometimes I wonder whether the earth and man, are denser than was expected.

The Inner Bodies

Now the next point, and one much deeper, is the matter of the inner bodies. These are resident in the glandular structure, particularly in the endocrine chain of the back, the bloodstream, and the MIND, which is a creation of frequency in the Aura of the head and secret parts of the soul.

...While up in the head, is that situated as the FACE, or Presence, according to your assumption and ascension. As you have perceived and given birth to, do you seal your mind frequency.

It may only be a one-eyed Polypemus, because you have never thought beyond just living. Or maybe an Ali Baba out of your self or possessive state; but if you have sought further afield, seen the wonders and wealth in the heavens, then quite possibly, a deity state. This is where I sit up in my heights at the knees of the MASTER, for I placed Him up there in my belief, hence it became the risen up vibration of the Universe. The more Royal I made Him, the greater He became, and showered His glories down upon the earth.

For He was the Embodiment of A.D.33 that became lost in the matter of earth, the earthy ideas of man, and put up on a cross, to cover up man's own desires and misdeeds. Therefore, when all of this is weighed up, and you can comprehend and see beyond form, you can see the importance of getting fledged of the mind and spirit. The greatest difficulty is in getting it fired with enthusiasm and active purpose, for man is so terribly dense.

Thus his major motive must be to raise up the moon to the Sun in Scorpio. But to get back to our point, that of the inner bodies, they are the Fiery essence in the bloodstream, which makes the latter the liquor sanguinis, or merely just blood. But in the former, that housing the higher grade of Haemoglobin, the man, while the glandular juices, which propagate the hormone seeds in the Pituitrin of the Pituitary, are the Essence life of the inner bodies.

It is these that take the Essence and make it into LIGHT through the Chromosomes and their mitotic action; it becoming the Soul life of higher vibratory force that feeds the physical body with fresh life, that of the 7th creation. All coming down from the heights to the depths through the seed creation. If raised up as mind, then the soul makes spiritual growth as well as physical attainment.

THIS IS WHERE GOD CREATED BOTH EARTH AND MAN, THE SIX DEGREES OF METABOLISING ORGANS, AND THE 7th THE SOUL STRUCTURE. MAN BROUGHT INTO BIRTH OUT OF THE INNER.

But he was not told to go down into the depths and create animal states, for he was royal and should have brought his divine ethereal body forth on the spirit plane of earth. For man and Earth are Creation born out of the inner being of all that has been, and should have bounded up out of the past creation, but in building inner bodies of an earthy status, it held him down in matter.

These inner bodies hold the degrees of union, from the Divine Mind creation, down to the "Desire-desire" body and the mind bodies. Now ever the positive and negative of each, except the Divine MIND, which has its polarity in the conscious mind, or mundane mind. It is the latter that you are seeking to bring up and unify with the higher, and make all into a state of Oneness.

But I think it would be a good idea to tabulate them in simple form...

Divine MIND (EGO)
Sub-conscious Mind
Abstract Mind
Concrete mind
Desire Body
desire body
conscious mind (egoism)

...the latter being the physical manifestation. These account for the many incidents mentioned in the Bible, particularly the Book of Genesis, the Scriptural legend of the building of the mind.

While Exodus is the going forth of the soul, with its Warrior of mind creation, as a born vibration of purpose. All now freed from the lunar waters; that is, if he so wills. Which indicates that man is striving for the first time to really live the Bible, as the prototype of the Apostles, with the hopes of a Christ or Master state if he can make it.

The Plane of Mind

NOW he is the god on the cross, but the Tau cross...

...where he has to master the serpent, and make it rise up as the Kundalini Fire of the mind. Then he too, has been able to cross over the Red Sea safely, and ward off the Egyptians, the old states of earthy beliefs, and find Jerusalem, the Promised Land.

I am mentioning these incidents of the Bible, to show what a wonderful Book of scientific creation it really is, when you can understand it. Unfortunately religion has so complicated it to suit its own ends, that it is almost impossible to recognise it.

Thank God we have been able to break down all this "highfolluting" rubbish, set up by a band of brigands who have been cashing in for years. The Higher Powers have no time for them, in fact, order me to up-root them, to stop them stoning the soul life any further. My heart aches for the poor souls who are still caught up with this rubbish, for I know what they are doing to the soul-body.

But I simply rile against Catholicism, for this is a religion of convenience. Its followers clear their conscience for the day, and start off again the next day, by simply crossing themselves and lighting candles, which somebody is making a good profit out of. The fear that these poor fools are in, is appalling, instead of being enlightened to the truth, and led into unfoldment.

I speak not without experience on both sides of the Veil, for my experiences are vast. So vast, that I know the other side of the Veil almost better than this, for this side is confusing, by the cunning minds creating ideas and excuses to get themselves out of the evil they build up. The more I think of the evil and cunning that the pope is perpetrating against blind souls, the more I can understand why he lost his prostate!

WHAT I CANNOT UNDERSTAND, IS WHY PEOPLE ARE SUCH FOOLS TO FALL FOR IT, BUT AS I HAVE SAID, A RELIGION OF CONVENIENCE. THANK GOD THE CHRISTOU, THE INTELLIGENCIA, THE DIVINE ORION MAN, IS RISEN UP ABOVE SUCH RIBALD RUBBISH AND CUNNING HYPOCRISY.

Now with my last point, I am extremely glad that many have been able to grasp the wisdom regarding Theocracy, and how I am only acting as Divinity Power to assist our Prime Minister. His reaction and struggle for truth, will warrant my statement, and perhaps prove more than mere Words.

INFINITY

by Dick Speller

*DAY breaks, the sky unveils a brighter hue, Donning new robes for the day begun.
The birds sing out their morning cheer,
And flame-tipped clouds caress the Sun.*

*IN awesome majesty the Deity ascends
The fanning Arc, unto His Throne.
Waiting the searching minds of men,
His earthy Crucifixion to atone.*

*THEN slowly He sinks beneath the bar,
Leaving His Aura upon the earth.
That by His mystical embrace,
The sultry depths might find new birth.*

*NOW enters in the aged hand of Night,
To rule the depths at her appointed hour.
Far from the radiance of the Royal Flame,
Far from the glory of the Rose-Strewn Bower.*

*AND yet she too can boast a glittering gown,
Woven from out of a Starry Sea.
Only but waiting the Kiss Divine
To awaken her depths and set her free.*

*THAT she can reveal her wealth of Time,
Gathered since first this world was born.
And then, with garments all alight,
Unite in splendour with the Dawn.*

*TRANSFORMED from the silvery Queen of Yore,
Blending in harmony with the Sun.
Radiant with light, and Atomic born,
Her travails completed, her labouring done.*

*RAISED up to the glories of Outer Space,
Infused by the mighty Electric Fire;
Now treading the Virgin Land of Mind,
Conscious at last of her heart's Desire.*

*THEN sensing a Holy Presence near,
Is aware of a mighty Unseen Force.
And surged by the Glory of LOVE Divine, Unites in ONENESS with the Source.*

instruction, for we were nearer to a Nuclear war than man realises. Hence, being a Samuel I obeyed, but what I did, I did out of divine belief, which alone should warrant its Divinity. There is no righteousness attached to this, but pure BELIEF, and knowledge gained and never lost.

Then furthermore, many thanks for the letters regarding the Cambodian boy and the television. Unfortunately the people around, the blazing lights, and somebody strange asking him the questions, left him a little bewildered. But the questioner had already been amazed at his clairvoyance, and sought diligently to get him to appear, when really we were not too anxious to put him forth. But perhaps he can manifest again, and next time will not be confused with the pressure that is applied at those moments.

I am used to public speaking, so did not find it quite so difficult, but confusing enough, because of the risen sensitivity. But I can well assure Ludovic Kennedy, the announcer, that Senarath is far from being "a poor little fellow,"—he wants to try and guide a genius. But apart from that, the boy was subject to chest trouble when he was born, and it is only through the refined diet that we have ever warded it off. This I knew through my own experience of bronchitis.

Well, I do hope we have enjoyed our tête-a-tête together, although as usual I have struck straight at the knuckle. But so many say, "you do help me to understand through your reminiscences," so if there are any points you would like to be enlightened upon, please let me know, for it will help me also. The more I give forth to help and enlighten, the better for me, only do be prepared for plain speaking, for that is how the Powers of Spirit speak to me.

Gladys J. Spearman - Book.

THE REVOLVING INFINITY

AS DIVINE SELFLESSNESS

by Gladys I. Spearman-Cook

ONCE UPON A TIME, WHEN ALL WAS YOUNG, MAN SOUGHT THE WAY OF truth; now he seeks only of the way of self, whereby darkness holds the whole depths of his span. Hence life has turned into a quagmire of mystery, a road of confusion and blackness, with beauty a foregone hoary conclusion, and reality a long lost art. Now all has been involved through Relativity, with unification raising all back to the glory of the godship, where divinity can reign once again in the soul who is ready to embrace it. That the Higher Laws can be made known to the soul, that he can absorb of the higher frequency. Thus bringing into birth a new world full of life and hope, where everyone is unified in purpose. Full of love and zeal, joy and new ideal, where creation is towards a divine unfoldment, and Divinity reigns supreme. Unfolding glory of heavenly purpose, the way of the spoken Voice, the radiance of the Fiery spirit-born mind, the Divinity of the Begotten. Where self has been involved into selflessness, and the Heavenly Waters lead the way for divinity to reign once again, as the heritage of the god-like soul.

The Unfolding Fire

MAN and God one vast world of heavenly light, a world of revolving beauty, where the divine inner intensity of the Waters are now his radiant being, the glory of the Spirit. Where truths unheard of ever before, now speak of wonders untold, laying the foundation for greater glories yet to come forth, that will astound a believer's ear.

For this is the work of the soul upon the earth, to capture the higher frequency of the soul. Bringing down into matter, as a raised up vicinity of light, the depths of the spirit, the beauty of life, that which became the missing quantum. Thus when retrieved, the glory of the heritage lost long long ago, which now through the labours of Merope is brought back to conscious life.

Although still in its early prime, a delight to the spirit ear that has duly awakened. For it is as music to the spirit born child, as its glory rings in every Word uttered, with profundities waiting to spring forth their glories, freed from the restriction of the density of matter. Divine wonders unfolding their heavenly beauty, for they are the Voice of the Godhead, the Great ONE speaking to man direct, as the Divinity of Holy Glory. Radiance and wonder manifesting forth, leading all to the greater conquest; with divinity and hope lifting everyone up, onto the broader road of heavenly unfoldment.

Thus Divinity divine, unfold Thy wonders, that man can be embraced in Thy beauty, and once again lift up his heart in heavenly belief and divine holy purpose, to embrace Thy glories of Outer World divinity. Where he seeks by the direction of the heart for truths lost to be found anew; where heavenly zeal is radiant within, and the Voice speaks the glory and depths of the mighty Word. Yet wonders that man will have to turn to once again, by the quest of his reborn mind, for all is expansion by the Law of Cosmical infusion, the unfolding glory of the FIRE.

All of time buried in, and timelessness as the flashing glory of the Heavenly ONE, speaks to man through the manifestation of the elevated mind, and the glory of the raised up human speech. Glories and wonders once known, then lost, but retrieved once again as Merope laboured and brought divinity back to the glory of man. Thus the way now paved and the road prepared, for such glories to unfold their wonders; where Divinity will walk side by side with soul, and heaven divinely radiant everywhere.

THE UNIFICATION OF FIRE

SUCH mighty phenomenal wonders, totally unknown to man now, for he abandoned them long ago for the wealth stamped on a parchment of holder's causes. Such mighty noumenal wonders still hold the glories of the heights, but who now dare seek for them and draw them forth as mighty quintessential glory? (See text on page 11, col. 2).

Planes and barriers now to be swept away, with heights and depths unified in heavenly purpose, thereby bringing into birth the true glorified status of the divine Fatherhood. A World set in heavenly glory, with man intent upon the wonders of the mind, thus seeking to fructify the Virgin Seed, that will bring untold expansion into birth. By this the glories of the Aquarian Age will unify the magnetic with the Atomic, and set the prototype for the future.

Where the Upper Ethers, as the unified Hydrogen and Oxygen, will bring untold glories into birth. Thereby raising the sensitivity up to profound beliefs, that he will accept without any contradiction. For as man dictates can all become, as he is prepared to labour, for by changing the lower law into the Higher, and the Higher into the lower, it becomes the glory and radiance of the heavens.

For man now can only live by the mystery of the Breath, where the whole Galactical glory of the heights will bring its wonders into the depths, and set the infinity revolving, both in microcosm and the heavenly Macrocosm.

FOR THIS IS THE SAVIOUR OF THE AGE, WHERE MAN IS REPLENI-

SHED THROUGH HIMSELF, A CREATOR OF THE WONDERS IN THE DEPTHS. HE THAT WILL BRING FORTH OF NEW MIND BELIEFS THAT WILL SET THE WORLD AMAZED, FOR THIS IS THE REBOUND OF THE SOTHIC CYCLE WHEN MAN FIRST CREATED THE HELIOS GLORY.

Now in relativity and polarity, it links with the mighty Central Sun, where wealth equal, but of a far greater polarity, can now come into birth. That which will unite the North with the South, as heights and depths, making the whole Universe into one vast radiant LIGHT. For the whole of Being is now fraught with Fire, set into operation once again by the Scapegoat Merope.

Solar glory now the dynamic action of life, with man a mighty Atomic being, with enormous changes set and prototyped for the way now ahead. Where many wonders will come into birth from this powerful active Transcendental inflow. Raising man up, changing and enlarging his status, bringing him back to his immortal glory. With wisdom born of heavenly light, now his Robe and garment of the future unfoldment.

Not mechanical monsters driving the world with mindless souls as their slaves, but minds full of light and life, the augury for great and wonderful immortal creations to raise the world aloft. All now being of the mind, the glories and wonders of the soul-born beauty, as unto divinity and the Holy Trinity.

Thus here is where man must learn the mighty secret wisdom of the NORM, she born of a million suns, yet the soul in all its atomic wonder, the essence of incorporated divinity. The wonder and magnificence of the eternal, born out of the striving to be, with Divinity ever giving forth of its divine glory into the density of matter. That which can, when fully incorporated, become the living Fire of the soul, that it can exist entirely upon its royal divine beauty, and bring forth of the dynamic wonders of its depths.

FOR IT IS THE BRINGING FORTH OF THAT INNER BEING, THAT IS THE MEANS OF THE HEAVENLY FATHER MANIFESTING THROUGH HIS BEGOTTEN SON. NOT JUST A MATTER OF ONE SPEAKING THROUGH ANOTHER, BUT THE INNER DEPTHS OF THE FIRE GIVING FORTH, THE GLORIES OF THE MIGHTY DIVINITY AND THE GREATEST MYSTERY OF THE AGES.

An interblending and inter-binding, then a royal burnishing, that the supreme light could blossom forth as the mighty radiance of the soul. Yet soul interpenetrating back to the Source by mind belief, ever expanding that belief into wisdom and light, finding the supreme polarity that makes him an Atomic glory, waiting to burst forth in heavenly light. That clearly seen by the rising tangent, as the spiralling up with the glory gained, into a heavenly amassed quantum.

Thus what was, and has ever come into being by a status of continuity, now a living factor in the World of Matter, displaying its divine entirety. But never with an ending, for Divinity is limitless, and ever in a state of evolution. So what began and was brought to a status of so-called completion, only but the beginning of another phase of unfolding beauty, bringing the glory of the Virgin into birth. Hence its dynamic might as a creation of magnitude, as the Norm which came from the beginning as the Source, and now the reflection of that mighty Divinity.

A creation full of fertile Seeds born from that unfoldment into light, that now must begin the new phase of possibility, by feeding and energising the soul with new-born life. That the mind glory of all that has been, can begin its revolving glory. This being FIRE with the AIR coming forth from the Pleromic Galactical multitude, the mystery attribute of the Heavens. The heavenly glories now fired into life by the labouring of the soul in the depths of Matter. Hence the FIRE and AIR as Hydrogen and Oxygen, the mystical unfolding of the Ethers, that when alchemicalised within the soul, brings forth the mighty heavenly Quintessence, yet to be the revolving wonder of the mind.

The Living Stream

THE Holy Fire that the soul can bring into birth when its Desire is set on the right course via the Bull and the Eagle, through the ionising union of Le Ros dancing into matter. The dancing up and down the spinal rod, with the Fire interblending with the Air, until a light is forced into being, by the interblending frequency.

Then Saturn is mastered and transmuted, with the divinity freed and rising up the mystical Causeway, as the unfolded spirit. Bringing into birth the glory of the Fire, by the soul's status of frequency. Thereby transubstantiating the heavens of the soul into a greater expanded light.

For the gods are blessed and christened with the Waters, and awoken to greater awareness, with the Norm bringing forth of her Seeds as the mighty pituitrin, sending back and forth of its sparking glory. Thus catching alight of the interblended FIRE and AIR, whereby a Flame shoots up to the heights, setting the infinity revolving.

The depths of the soul being already in active motion, owing to soul's seeking into wisdom, but now in a more active resurging dance, as the heights become energised into holy unfoldment. The Virgin Waters now being interblended and created, that their prismic glory can surge up to the mighty Begotten, for him to expand the Starry glory, and the glory of the Planes.

What had now come to the mighty glory of unity, that was bringing the infinity of the mind into birth, began its basic back at the beginning of time, as portrayed in Genesis 30 and 31, in the conceiving of the rods, in the ring-straked, grided and speckled being gathered in, and Jacob gathering in of his wealth. Then it was the animals, now it is the wealth from Outer Space, the mighty glories of the Unseen, now being unified with the depths, bringing forth the more intense wonders, with the Father manifesting through them in purity and glory. Octave after octave, raising the Seed up to manifesting wonder, the magnitude of Cosmic Evolution.

This is the mystery of the Aureole divine magnitude, as the Auric radiance around the head of the unfolding soul, for all that is, is in man himself, while light goes up to the heights. The firing Norm sending a Flame up to its heights, where the "IT" Face of divinity has been coming into birth within the Void. Hence an expansion now taking place, drawing down into its being, the glory of the Solar infusion.

For everything is making its way into matter, and is either captured as expanded thought, or lost as an embodiment into the depths, until retrieved by someone, sometime later on, through alchemicalisation. Only when the soul is highly sensitised will it capture this mighty infusion, for then its thoughts will be around mind, and not the desires of the beast.

For the revolving in the heights is the mystery of the soul being fed by its own EGO, which is now the manifesting Divinity within the soul, expanded into mind comprehension. The birth out of itself as the divine Auric glory, the magnitude and light of the Void, but until, interblending as a complete status of oneness, out of a cluttered up state of confusion. An ever unfolding state of coming into being, as an ever unfolding of the Mighty Unseen from the Source of the Illimitable Heights.

YET THAT WHICH IS BUT THE CAUSE OF WHAT HAS BEEN, THAT IN THE REFLECTION BECOMES THE FLOWERING NORM SENDING FORTH THE FIRING QUANTITY INTO THE VOID. WHERE A NEW CREATION, BORN AS EXPANSION UPON THE OTHER, NOW BEGINS IN THE UNFOLDING GLORY OF THE MIND.

An ever unending Source of Creation, which cannot stop in a creation of mortar and cement, but a living Stream that must ever continue, and become the light of a New-Born Day. A mystery of the subterranean unfoldment of the living states of life, that when accepted by the soul, and brought forth as a living belief, becomes a magnitude that will set the world a-Fire, as he seeks to tread it in as the glory of active life.

For this is how life unfolds, and the god status of virgin life becomes a living exemplification of the mighty Fatherhood, the positive divine creation of unfoldment. With many who have gathered untold wealth, that is now causing them to be a slave in the depths, still refusing to ply their shoulder to the wheel, for fear of the forthcoming opportunities. It is these that become the addled Seed lost in the pretence of impossibility, closing the door to the Law and the way of heavenly unfoldment.

FIRE is a living contingency which can never stop its unfolding intensity ever coming out of Itself. That which is ever waiting to come forth through the living alchemical creation of soul propensity, in the creative depths. A mind divinity risen up to perfected ONENESS, now Over-Shadowed by the Divine Radiance of the heights, by a matter of frequency attraction. Thus becoming the interblended Voice of the soul effusion, when conscious awareness has burst into light, and the Virgin has gone forth with the Child.

Hence the soul giving forth of living FIRE, as speech that will sperm the World with light. Causing many a soul to begin once again an abandoned road, turning their face upwards to the heavens, breathing in the Solar Glory. Thus the Holy Glory now the Divine Quintessence, as the Sperming Uraeus of the Bull, sending forth of its fired mind light as the revolving infinity. Whereby men will awaken and seek for birth through an urge coming forth within their inactive heart. This is the mighty wealth of Ages past, now redeemed as the wealth of all men, and the mighty possibility of the future.

Thus as poor Merope brought this into birth as the glorious quintessence, man fast asleep was too lost in his worldly desires, thus failed to hear the call of the spirit, as the mighty Transcendental Glory descended to the earth. Thus they were never able to strike a light through their mind, to receive of its mighty entry.

Hence for a moment causing poor Merope to be struck "blind" by its volume, sending the dove down into the depths as an earthy embodiment. Hence all would have to wait until they awakened their dead hearts, to find the will to drive it into active glory, with more and more of such mighty wonders ever coming into birth through the selflessness of the Scapegoat. She whose task it was to open up the hearts of men, and lead them to the well to drink.

A Woman of Samaria to all who are ready, that she can lift them up to the brink, and they go over and gain the glory, as souls born of heavenly Unction. A true Mother of the gods, who have found the courage and strength to become born anew, upon this new Path of Vega.

A mind world of LIGHT and heavenly glory, that will bring back again the MIND PLANE of Virgin unfoldment. For the task of Merope was to expand the Cosmic heights, that man in the depths would be infused with expansion that would eventually force him into light.

Thus once again their divinity reborn, with truth their quest of purpose, with the way ever open for yet greater glories to come into Fiery birth, that will raise the soul up into the precepts of being a Priest unto the Divinity.

The Fount to the Mouth in timelessness, the flash of perceptory awareness, where the soul is infused by the human Aurora Borealis, the infusing curtain of descending Fire. That which will set the infinity revolving and drive the will of the mind into expanded action.

A yod of indriving action and glory that will sperm the soul with continual indriving Fire, and keep the momentum ever revolving with an inflowing Source of perpetual beauty, divinity and love of heart purpose. The mighty prize of the Age for all who are ready to labour, and thus bring back into their being the lost divinity of the god, now raised up to expanded belief.

Lifting up the Divine Face

BUT also with an internal glory of heavenly light, only pliable to him who has the courage to gain it, for it is a supreme Law, ever hovering in the heights, to be plucked by the courageous and brave one, the revolving glory from heights to depths. Hence a never ending source of surprises to those who make the quest of struggle, for the Fiery Stream flows from the Source of Divinity, and is the never ending River of LIFE, feeding man below.

Therefore what can come forth lies in the hands of man, for he is the creator and bequestor who must find faith and belief to unfold into greater expanded purpose. (See plate on page 10)

Ever spinning up higher and higher into those mysterious heights, then untold wonders can burst into life, with the Source of Glory ever unfolding and feeding the birth it brought forth as the reforming glory of evolution. Thus ever revolving higher and higher, until the Norm is a blossoming glory from the mighty implosion.

Then the Void, alight with glory, will feed the heavenly Divinity with light, and draw from the heavens as a matter of mighty attraction. For now such wealth would be as an atomic explosion, or an implosion of Quintessential beauty.

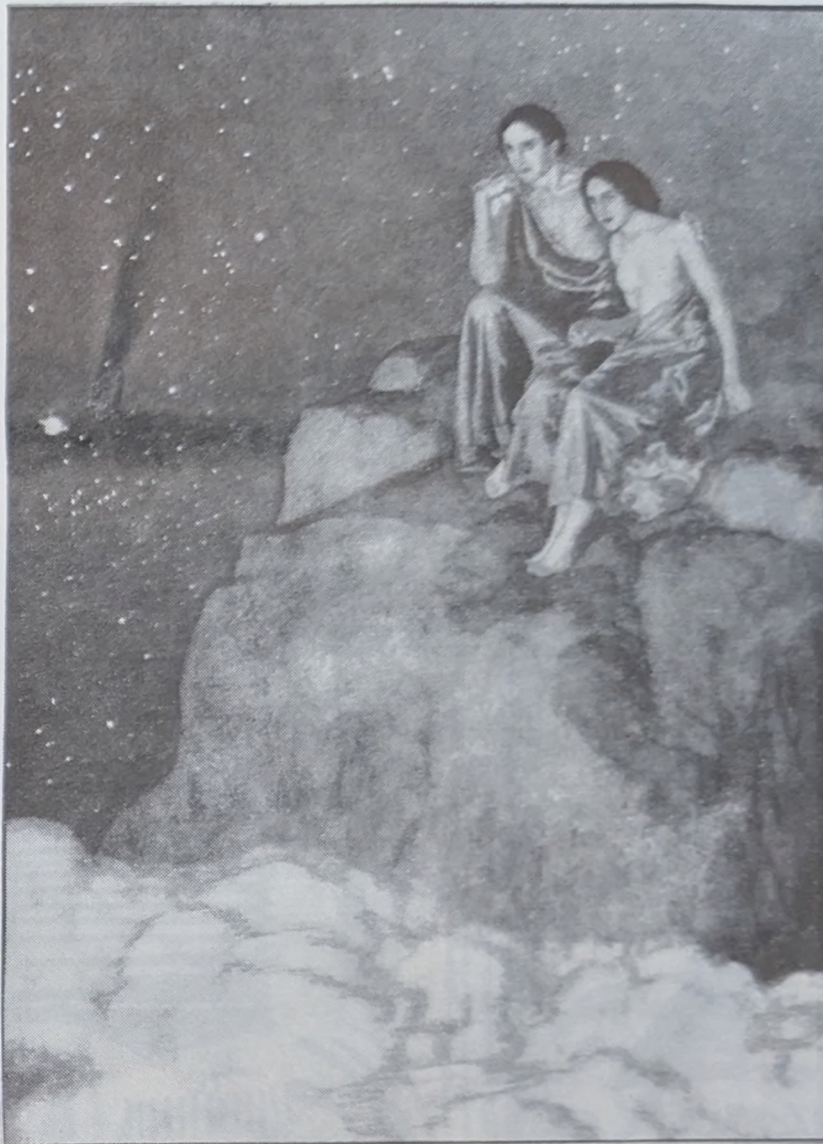

Bringing into birth wonders untold from that descending glory. That now being revolved into action by the glory of the revolving infinity. That which carries the unfolded wealth of the Norm up to the mighty Divinity, for as unto the microcosm, so unto the glorified Macrocosm. With the name of Divinity in every birth established, that can nurture the Priest into being, whereby to open his Mouth as the ever unfolding Stream gushes forth, to declare the wonder of the heavens.

Reborn truths now a living possibility, not words with hopes of being, but living creations that will amaze the World once they are earthed into matter. The wealth of un-gentle nurturing and comprehensive sensitivity. For as she awakens the sleeping Norm, closed down by the blind inverted glory, will those Seeds blossom forth and spring into birth in the depths of the soul propensity.

Then flower into glory as the cherished prize of perceptory awareness, where soul is ever stung into life by consciousness ever alert. Continually dancing with joy and new perceptions, as the hours go fleeting by.

DIVINE ASCENSION

HIGH up in the world of divinity I sail and dance and sing, with the starry glories of my mind the wonders of the Plane of Light. Thus I ever gloriously wing, drawing forth the wonders of such transcendental beauty, filling my soul with Fiery life. (See text in col. 5).

ending virtue, awaiting the soul of truth that has the courage of believing and becoming.

Thus Merope who embodied the new unfolding Transcendental Glory, through the Bulls who were to have spermated it into life, in feeding man below will it awaken through her as soon as she can bring it forth and blossom it into unfolded glory.

Then seek to awaken all those who are ready and prepared to labour and bring it forth, as a lost Fiery glory awaiting its mighty expansion, for every soul must become infinity born, it being the road of the New World of Vega. Thus the only way that man can exist in this mighty New World of Fiery expansion, where Hydrogen and Oxygen are the infusing grace, the glory of involved ONENESS.

A Source of supply coming from Unseen heights, brought into birth by Merope, she who is ever polarising the depths by her belief of such mighty wonders. With man standing aghast and amazed, that such glories could be earthed and established. Yet soul the alchemical pot for such truths to come forth and such glories to burst into light, but only when he can have the courage to quest by heavenly belief.

Thus Merope now with firmness of heart, set herself to bring into birth the lost missing glory, yet only lost for the time being, while it rose up out of the density of matter. Thus seeking through Word and renunciation, increasing the struggle of the heart, that the Divine Purpose can be awakened into life by her

But ever feeding the Cosmos with new life and glory, the unfolding wonder of Divinity. For the Prototypal Flaming Depths are now alight, with the inflowing Breath ever surging its fulness and shooting its Flame up to the heights. A continual revolving glory of LIGHT reburnishing the Void with beauty and wonder, lifting up the FACE of the Mighty Divinity, the cherished emblem of Merope.

The Mighty Flame as the mind magnitude of ONENESS, the unfolded light of truth, now the crest to her heavenly Arc, crowning her with anointed glory. A tiara of jewels that sparkle with holy wonder, as its intensity flashes it forth as a lighthouse helping all ships safely into port. Radiating its glory far and wide as its measure of glorifying belief; thus becoming now her established priesthood, her right of the heavenly spoken Word. That filled with healing balm and fiery infusion, that is the prising lever of the Age. Thus as the divine Transcendental Inflow infusing the depths, many glories completely unknown to men will spring up, bringing untold wonders into birth.

Beauties that spoke of ancient Mysteries of long, long ago, yet wonders that existed when man was young and held the secret of the NORM. A time when mighty and dynamic wonders were performed through the glory of the spirit; thus in returning came as a mystery in its lesser degree, showing unto man of the wonders he had lost, which could be retrieved once he fulfilled the glory of the holy divinity. But Merope knew that it must be a complete state of selflessness, for such mighty Powers to take over once again and hold the pride of place. For its profundity was far greater than she was aware, owing to its intensity of FIRE and AIR.

The soul to become Ariel born and free from magnetic gravity is a great and mighty accomplishment, that will make the mind active and agile, to dance as the bird on the wing. For all in some way or another, feel the pull of the earth, having been nurtured by its intensity. To turn the mind upwards towards the heights is the answer to many an addict's dream, but man so lost in form, fails to see the depths of illusion, and the mighty glory of the spirit.

Then the dynamic immensity of sight interpenetration, whereby the confused are straightened out and blended up, setting them on the right course of unfoldment. Helping man to begin a new life, with Fiery hope and purpose of the higher realms his guiding factor. Man awakening to the true purpose of life, and seeking to walk in harmony with those Higher Laws that rule and define the course of unity.

For it is the higher LAW set by a Master-mind, that ordains the ways of the lower; but ever with the mind treading the way into the depths, mastering the elements they are unifying, extracting and involving their wealth into their being, becoming of the frequency of that Plane of light. Yet helping that light to become of mind growth, as the Upper Intelligencia of the heavens; thus the answer to the "Flying Saucers" making their way into the depths to help unfold the Fiery glory sent down to the earth, and only partly resolved.

Illusion into Reality

THUS Merope, who made the way for those Higher Laws to be reset, was now treading her measure into the depths, guided by those higher glories, that life could be more truly adjusted, and illusion transmuted into Reality. Thus was the means for so much to now be changing over from negative into the positive, with life becoming adjusted onto a higher comprehension, where the wonders of the heavens are being revealed in their true perspective.

Not mere theories on paper, but the soul by frequency unifying with those heights, and extracting their mighty wonders, that life upon earth can be completely reborn; bringing the heavens to reign amongst matter, by man having a completely changed outlook and walking in harmony with its Laws.

Not living for the biggest penny, but seeking the way of its greater ideals, that he could become one with those mighty heavens. Thus drawing down the Rhythm of the Spheres, the glory of the Transcendental beauty, where the Pleromic Breath, filled with Fiery life, infuses the soul with Fiery purpose, the depths of its mighty Causes.

For by the Heroes and the Prophets of the past sending up aspiration to those heights, what were elements became mind, causing Planes to become living vibratory life. Where soul according to his status, when leaving the World of matter, could rise up on departing the flesh, working out their cause on that higher Plane of EGO assumption.

Although the hard way that man had chosen, it still was a way of ascension which, when he transmutes his mind outlook to the higher finesse, will become one with its Law of heavenly assumption.

ASCENSION BY MIND RENOUNCING THE LOWER AND EMBRACING THE HIGHER UNFOLDMENT, UNTIL THE WORLD BECOMES ONE VAST GLOWING LIGHT, THROUGH THE TRANSFORMATION OF ALL TO ITS GREATER PURPOSE. THEN WITH THE GREATER UNDERSTANDING OF THESE INTERBLENDING WONDERS, WILL THERE BE MORE INTIMATE GLORIES REVEALED.

The secret of the Creation, the cause and purpose of its secret beauty, that the involving glory of that heavenly Fiery inflow could, in its revolving infinite magnitude, open up the wonders of the NORM, which is the outcome of its prototypal beauty.

For she holds the virgin Seeds of its past creation, which are the roots, causes, ideals, and misdemeanours of the soul. Causes set into motion but never completed, and left high and dry to the winds of time. Thus the soul seeking everywhere to find the mortuary meal, the way of unification; hence Merope knew that by her bringing these states to balance within herself, and sending up the higher glories to the heights, she could be the means of those readjusted Laws raining down their wonders into matter.

So she rose all up to its highest frequency, that only the Fiery glory would descend, then sought to walk it into matter by the ionising of the galactical poles. For she knew that the whole of soul under such mighty involution, was completely involved of the spirit. With the serpent now completely born and swallowing his own tail, with his head crowned with a golden crown, the radiance of the heavens.

Yet Merope knew that the greater glory had yet to come forth to fulfill her task of Infinity binding, between Vega in the depths and its Polar Glory in the heights. So began the task of ionising the poles, setting the infinity revolving quicker than ever before, that the Bull and the Eagle could interblend the heavenly Seed, brought down from the mysterious heights.

The Seed of the Breath involving with the Seed of the Spermed Norm, from the divine glory of the revolving infinity. Where together as HIM and HER, they could set new life abound, through Merope treading in as the Scapegoat on the wheel, the involving glories into the depths. Thus making the way for all to follow, she having made strait the gate, that none need partake of complicated issue, bringing confusion into their depths.

Therefore she rose up to her rose-pink bower in her Castle Glorious, and gazed into her Magic Mirror, that she could be guided in her ascent. Thus as she gazed into its misty vision, she saw a rising morning Sun between two high black mountains, with a golden-brown winged Eagle hovering in the heights. For up to the present all had been as moon in Scorpio, the negative side of its divinity.

Now she must raise it up to its Solar glory in the daily life of all men, that she could perceive the possibility of its mighty magnitude of the heavens, as the fiery Grace of the mind. For without a doubt, the quintessence was the Sun in Scorpio, that no Bull so far had been able to hold, and that she, Merope, was now holding that mighty Glory, as the Holy Fire of her heavenly unfolding mind. With the Great Flame of her extended Arc, as the mighty Cosmic Bull with

DIVINE PERCEPTION

ALL is mystery, until captured by the mind, then when perceived and risen up, the holy wonder of Divinity. Yet the mighty riches encompassing man, and the royal heritage of his timely priming. (See text in col. 3).

the Sun between his horns, and the golden Dove upon his flanks.

Up to the present, papalism had through their popes, only manifested moon in Scorpio, for they had never risen up any higher than Jupiter, leaving Neptune ever unexpanded. Now Merope, through the wisdom of the Orion MAN, left as a heritage by those waiting beneath the Altar for the final Saviour to come forth, had made the Virgin Light complete, as the Mind Plane of Vega.

Thus all was Seven times greater than before, for she had knocked out Seven Devils and replaced with the Seven Virgins, who had danced in the neck of the Bull. Bringing into birth that of the Pleiadic Virtue, the Divine unfolding Essence of the heights.

For they had extracted the mighty beauty of the Heavenly Glory, bringing it down to the lower divinity, that its Pleromic Virtue could descend to the depths. Until Merope as those Virgins, descended into matter, to weave it in the depths. Thus drew down the Holy Fire, now the unfolding glory of Orion, that after suffering and treading her way through matter, she brought forth as the Holy Eighth, as the divine manifestation of the Fatherhood.

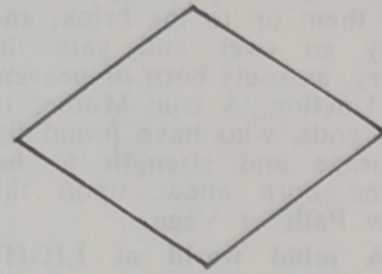

The World of Vega

THUS every man was standing on the Virgin Plane, and now a Christ unto himself, as he rose up this Divine Fire in Glory, that born of his Seed, as the internal glory of heavenly possibility. That which was the Divine Apis of Egypt, when such mighty wealth was earthed as the Dawn of Civilisation. But without the rolling of Neptune over the heights all is mere fantasy, but with such expansion the gods are born anew.

For they had only been born of Jupiter, but with Neptune all becomes of Reality, the unglorified Male Sphinx, of the future World of Vega. Solar born and gravity free, with the magnetic completely buried in. Man and Gods blending together, bringing forth the wonders of the heavens, as the mind perception of the golden awareness of truth.

Compensatory rebirth as heights and depths polarised, with the reflection of the FACE in the depths. The Fire within the Seed as the FACE within the Sun, the mighty Quintessence glory of the manifesting Virgin Seed. With those under the Altar, now retrieved by Merope finding the complete Cosmic mortuary meal. With the Orion MAN, now the mighty Flame, as Scorpio in the Central Sun.

The Mighty BULL as the Sperming Cosmic Colure, bringing every Initiate unto heavenly rebirth. Giving unto the Great Scorpionic Divinity the mighty Power of Predestination, where He is able to directly remould matter into mind. He being the established Fire within the Seed, the controlling factor of the heights and depths, controlling the destiny of man. He being the Sperming Glory in the Virgin Seed, the Timing factor of all life.

Thus as Merope gazed on at the Magic Mirror, she saw the Sun rise into a glorious manifestation, scintillating its Rays everywhere. With the Eagle flying up and up, turning from golden brown into divine radiant gold. Then a dove descended onto Merope's head, and the Eagle flew right up into that Solar Orb, becoming one with its mighty beauty; and whereas the mountains had been black, they now were of a purple glory, with the Solar beauty radiating their depths with its mighty magnitude.

Then the mist completely covered over the Magic Mirror, and Merope knew that she must search yet further still for more wonders to be revealed. Yet were there such glories to be revealed upon the earth, where man in any way whatsoever, did manifest such glory with impunity? Yes, there were!

This time it was a young warrior of ten tender years, who was in the throes of young growth. One who had been nurtured carefully under the rules that are necessary for warriors to abide by. Watched over from early birth, and fed upon the food of the etherealised, he was carefully shepherded along the path of tender growth. Strong and wayward and susceptible to wrong, but full of the joys of a child, and eagerly looking for adventure. Yet highly sensitive and full of zeal, with the fullness of life eager and ready to blossom into early throes of youth.

Thus nurtured under Merope's watchful care, he passed through the important years of puberty safely. Training his mind into an upward ascension, to raise him onto the positive side of his generating attributes. Yet with much that was wanting, owing to his Arian early birth; for like such souls he was wanting in completeness, its influence young and pretentious. But what was perfection? Surely a state to be achieved, and to be moulded by the experiences of life. Therefore, could such material be brought to responsive acceptance, and master its own inabilities?

Hence Merope trained him in the arts and mysteries, as far as his young mind could assimilate. Like all young foals, he was ever ready to shirk, careless and full of ready excuses. But his response to the preparatory moulding was eager and full of zeal, eating up life with full embrace, the sparring and warring sides of the mysteries.

Yet here was Scorpio in its Solar attributes, so ready and ripe for training, for even though young and without experience, his sensitivity was acute. With no wit towards the lower attributes of his germinating qualities, all being of the beliefs of a child. Thus Neptune blossomed and brought forth all the wonders of his intuitive awareness, but with many a loophole of desire and zest, that had to be led into the more fruitful direction. The sins of the fathers ever missing, for the mind was of a young spirited deer, that bucked and shied at many a pretence, that only time would help to conquer.

Yet intuitive qualities that were amazing, and imagination that danced up and down, frolicking with gods and giants, and many an imp and elf, that led him into mischievous intervention. But the desires of the flesh took no part in his tender growth, for life to him was one long round of frolicking in the sunlight, with all prepared for a more earnest drive into the greater attributes of life. Thus the Scorpionic glories all ripe and ready to blossom into the wonders of the fledged Eagle.

For his embracement of that mighty Deity was the belief of a young and earnest priest obeying the Great LAW. One whose mind perceived the truth, with all its ancient ancestry being moulded into the flowing beauty of a god-like acceptability. A joy to behold, he ever seeking another field of adventure. With the usual traits of non-persistence of purpose, still to be mastered and controlled.

Could such persist in its tender fulfilment, or was life so crude and hard; yet was he not a tender sapling that could be pinioned to whatever stake that was chosen. With life to be battled and initiations won, with divine belief his religion; while the necessary truth of life was slowly unfolding, upon the pure nurturing embellishments of Merope.

For those tender years had been moulded with care, and were the foundation of his purpose to be, containing the seeds of her love and zeal, that true radiant manhood could come forth. Thus in his early years he came under the care of the Great Ones, who shepherded his growth through direct instructions, that the child responded to like a duck to water, fully believing in their heavenly existence.

For he knew and comprehended them as the heavenly Guardians that watched over his orphaned development into life. Being robbed of kith and kin at an early Age, he became a ward of Merope, that the Mighty Eagle could mould and prepare as HIS warrior of the future Age. With all his ancient god-like qualities, the forerunner of the New World of Vega.

EGYPT

Hierarchical Gods, to commence the seed of understanding that would make the way for the future manifestation of the Deity in the flesh of all creatures to come forth.

All religions have been based upon its wisdom, for the Emerald Tablet left by Herma contained in it the words of all the Mysteries, that now are controlled by creed and dogma.

The Golden Age

At the time of Esneh, man still understood the meaning of homogeneity, the one species man, for although the tribes were ignorant of such, the ruler of Government, and the officials, priests and candidates, were beings of superior growth and wisdom. It was indeed the height of the Golden Age, the remnants of Eden, and they claimed that the Eridanus, the Celestial River in the heavens, ran in a serpentine course from the foot of Orion straight down into the source of the Nile, their river of life.

Esoterically this was true, for they were fed by Divine Powers that Word could be established for the period that was to come in the Aquarian Age; the complete polarity to Leo, the time of the manifesting of Light.

One of the many mysteries to be found upon the ceiling of this ancient temple was the Universal Egg of good and evil. Two serpents seeking to wrench from the teeth of each other the egg of the Law of Matter and Unfoldment; that which would take place through the ages and produce its results at the polarity. And by its side was another mystery, the Uræus; two serpents in unity crowned by the Egg that was in its care.

What had been contended for by the two serpents, in the hands of the Initiate became as the two crowned by the risen and hatched egg. The divine Fire which crawls serpent-like up the tree of life, the spinal column, and becomes in its unity, Three and then One. This is brought about by the magical agent in the seven-headed snake; the seven Chakras of rotatory movement that measure the sensory pulse, and by the Initiate becoming the snake of wisdom, would conquer this great force.

Through the motion and orbits of the celestial bodies, the symbolical serpent twists around the egg and brings forth the 48 segments into the 49th; Thoth the mind, as him who is begotten.

Chamah signified Cheth or Chiram and was that of the Sun's light. Its inner representation was of Resh meaning Ruach, that of Spirit, Air, and Mem, that of Water, the Waters of life or Space. The three, Fire, Air and Water constituted the Universal Agent or Fire of Nature, and it was of this that the Jackal guarded. Therefore returning once again to the Jackal, it can be seen that it was that part of self, the conscience, which guarded the Mysteries, so that they were not prostituted as the soul went down into Hades to fathom and measure their depth through his own karmic creation.

The Jackal taking the soul on the journey into the depths, so as to give the soul the fullness of experiences it needs to rise to a sage of wisdom; for in the depths the Jackal becomes the dog with four heads, Cerberus, who will guard the soul while in the darkness of not knowing, and watch over it and guard the hour of its return into the heights.

This would be in the more intrinsic wisdom, the four ways of the elements separated in the mind of comprehension and not blended into the one judgment of the cynocephalus; thus for the time lost in Hades, and scurrying hither and thither trying to find light that would bring unto the soul strength of purpose and action, for only by this can the heart Chakra become the holy covenant in the temple of the soul.

species in the blood and turns them into hogs, until Ulysses, the mind as will-force, retrieves by forcing her to return them back to their manhood.

This links also with the cells and tissues, glandular secretions and active fire returning to the desires of the lower anthropomorphic which have never really become transmuted, for as the soul searches for wisdom and experience it becomes caught up by the maelstrom nitrogenic gases of the density of man, and has to struggle to get back to the Anubis God-state of unfoldment.

Man ever struggling to incorporate the 4th dimension into the 3rd in a world that is continually changing through the Law of Cause and Effect, thus man unconsciously brings

But Ulysses is the one who does enquire and struggles to become free. The old retainer in the myth was that part of the soul that would not enter with the "men" into Circe's palace, and was the Anubis self who hurried back to warn Ulysses. Therefore would be as the God expression in the heart that eventually restores the dead self, that which becomes "dead" or sleeping in matter. Here is an invocation that would be offered up to the great Lord Thoth by the Egyptian Priest as he recited from their Book of the Dead on such an occasion.

The wisdom and ritual which they performed over one lost to life, but it will also portray of the depth and royalty existing in Egypt at that time. It was the calling of the soul unto the Great Mind that it could become of his mind; and would be as a man at the present time calling either upon the Godhead or the Master Planes for their wisdom, that his mind could be of their mind:

"Come unto me Lord Thoth, O thou of many names who know'st the secrets hidden both beneath the poles of heaven and underneath the earth!

Come unto me Lord Thoth, thou benefactor who does good to all the world!

Give ear to me and give me grace with all that are on earth; open for me hands of all that give like thee; and make them give what their hands contain.

Even as Horus, if e'er he called on thee, O greatest of all Gods in every trial, in every space, 'gainst gods and men, and daimons and things, that live in water and on earth, and had grace and riches with gods and men, and every living thing beneath the earth; so let me too, who call on thee, and give me grace, form, beauty!

Hear me O Thoth, doer of good deeds, thou the inventor of all incantations, speak me good words.

Hear me O Thoth, for I have done all things that I should do for thy black dog-ape, Lord of the nether ones!

O, soften all and give me might and form, and let them give me gold and silver and food of every kind continually.

Preserve me evermore for the eternity from deceits and witchery of every kind, from evil tongues, from every cheek and every enmity of gods and men!

Give unto me grace, victory, success and satisfaction!

For thou art I, and I am thou; thy name is mine and mine is thine; for that I am thy likeness.

Whatever shall befall me in this year or month, or day or hour—it shall befall the mighty God, whose symbol is upon the holy vessel's prow."

The Aten Cult

The above invocation was one of their prayers for the blessings of life, for the hands refer to the symbolical representation of the Sun sending forth rays, each furnished with a hand for giving and blessing; and found in the frescoes of the Aten-cult period.

The incantations refer to the power that had reached a stage of medicines and philtres which played a large part in bringing Egypt, and eventually France to degradation, showing how the tentacles travel down the ages. For it resulted in such dire bloodshed as the French revolution, which eventually wiped out the evil that was the root cause; but why does man have to turn the wonders of the Creator into such diabolical evils? For that is what it amounts to.

The black dog-ape refers to Anubis, but as the "dog" of Hades, Jackal or the "death-genius"; Anubis being the attendant to Thoth who brings rebirth. And although it refers in one verse to gold and silver and even food, it is not a prayer for physical sustenance, but for the Ka of the man, that the plastic soul-substance may take a form of power and beauty in the unseen world.

Then later in the verse, there is a referring to the likeness of the Adept endeavouring to identify his Ka image, or double, with the God Thoth or Logos. It was, in his idea, that way that the God was animated or manifested, and that as he received so must he give to God, in which of course he was not wrong.

Then finally we find he refers to the holy vessel's prow, where Thoth and Maat, mind and wisdom, are sitting on either side of Ra in his boat that he, the man, could be embraced of the Trinity; the Triune Powers of Life.

Maat represents Wisdom and Righteousness, and has one feather and a knife of Justice rising from her head as though both were given birth in her mind, through her labouring.

(See plate on this page)

For when the command was made to her in the beginning to generate, this is what it was really referring to; but man has ever, so it seems, placed all the prototype into the "dung" and rolled his egg from there.

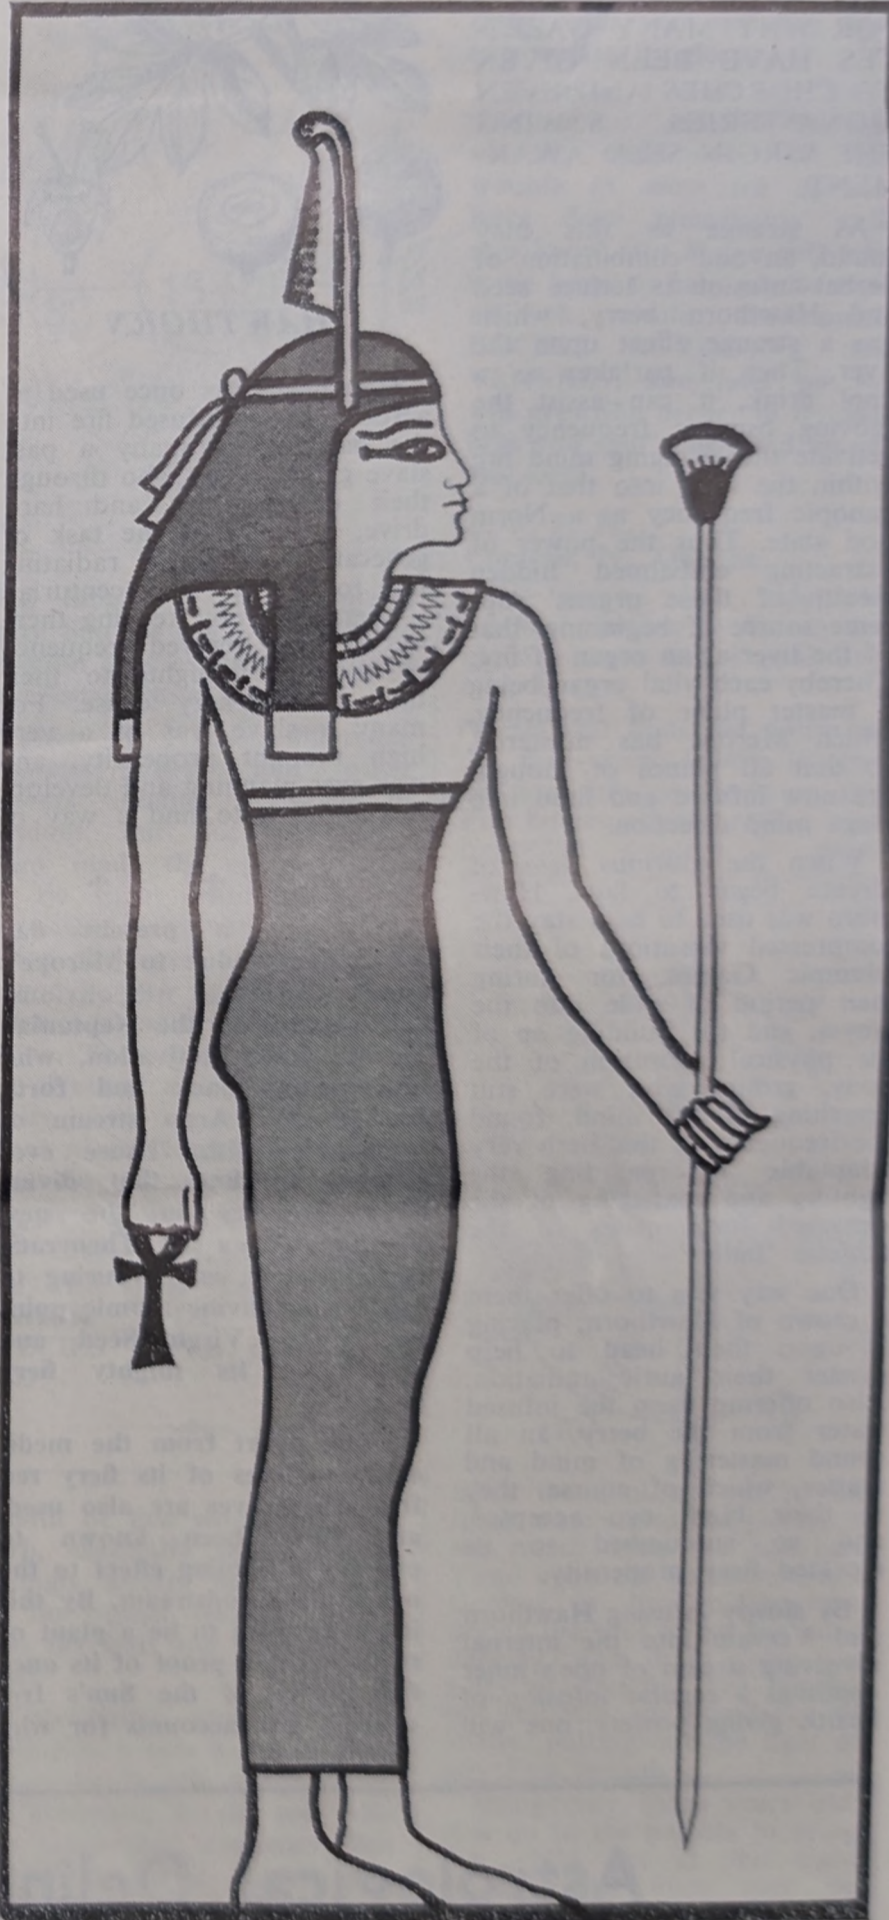

Around the neck of Maat is seen the circling of the Spheres, and in her left hand she holds the rod of wisdom. According to the Egyptians, she was considered the syzygy of Thoth, and by and through her efforts the soul would eventually have a full possession of:—

- 1 Khat — physical body
- 2 Ba — soul
- 3 Ab — heart
- 4 Ka — double
- 5 Khu — intelligence
- 6 Sekhem — power
- 7 Khaibit — shadow
- 8 Sah — spiritual body
- 9 Ren — name

And further, the Egyptians considered that the Sekhem, as power with undefined functions, was intimately related to the body and would come forth through the word he spoke when truly translated with vital force into form and action. Finally he believed it brought forth a glorified body, to which had been united the soul, heart and spirit; and of course, to their name they placed a great deal of importance. This would give the soul an abode in heaven, and that new body in heaven was the Sahu, on earth Sah.

As one who has sought much into the matter of Spirit return, I have noticed that whether they be a North American Indian, Aztec Indian, Chinese, Persian, Egyptian, Hindu or Zulu, all are inclined to give to their instruments a spirit name, which denotes a theme or point in the character, which when brought forth to its full possibilities, could be a veritable point of strength in the world.

MAAT—THE DIVINE UNFOLDER

MAAT, the syzygy of Thoth, was the unfolder of his divine oracles. Driving the divine Jackal to bay at the moon, and bring forth its mighty wonders to become the glory of the Solar Deity. Truth she is, glory she becomes, and light she is elevated into. (See text in col. 5).

Circe the Enchantress

This can be seen more clearly in the Greek story of Ulysses, where he sends his men to explore the country for food, and they get caught up with Circe the enchantress, the great powers of the astral light that become the strength of the dark side of his own feminine self. The negative side of the self that is ever in a state of transmutation, and for the time she drugs the his own trials and tribulations, his own changes and his own evolution, unless he rebels and sickness takes the lead. This does take place with the majority for unconsciously man refuses to change or accept change, for to him all states of change are the works of a fanatic and he will not even exercise his mind sufficiently to enquire into the depths and solution offered.

HERBAL MYSTERIES Part 13

HAWTHORN (Crataegus Oxycantha)

by David Spearman-Cook

FURTHERING our questing journey through the alphabet of herbal remedies, with all freshly poised upon the MIND Plane of Vega, we now come to a herb equal to that of last month's, one of REAL stupendous power, and whose dynamic propensity was fully recognised in the past. But owing to the fall of the NORM, the power of the Hawthorn dropped into a prickly tree, producing a hedgerow artistic touch, to the Master's moving scene of natural seasonal changes. Many using it purely as a medium to express an inner husbandry desire to create, but only upon the negative, creating animal creations, as carvings and patterns of ornamental extravagance. To those with a naturalist's expansive vision, Hawthorn has an enhancing beauty, which when allowed to blossom, becomes a sight and fragrance seldom witnessed in such vast profusion. Intoxicating the surrounding air with the feeling of light abandonment, with its fruit, when ripening in the summer sun, attracting quite naturally, many a worthy blackbird. This now can be seen, through the Occult wisdom, as symbolising the Word of propensity of Outer World Space, that now born from the fiery Atomic Seed of the mighty Infinity of the new reborn Vega Virgin Mind.

HAWTHORN is known by the name of Crataegus Oxycantha, formerly classed as a sacred tree, most probably from the tradition that it furnished the Crown of Thorns at the so-called crucifixion. For Crataegus, from the Greek kratos means hardness, with oxus sharp and akantha, a thorn. Its medical action and uses are Cardiac, astringent, tonic and diuretic.

Mainly used as a Cardiac tonic in organic and functional heart troubles, and would quite possibly solve the heart transplant nonsense, if only offered to these heart patients. They who obviously have no idea of spirit whatsoever, except surgical, thus finally becoming bait for the surgeons' twisted minds.

When the dried ripe berries of the Hawthorn have been powdered and added to wine, it is said to be good against stones and dropsy. While the seeds when cleared of the down and bruised, are good for inward pains. But I feel sure that when boiled in wine by the ancients, the quality in the wine added no addition to the medical power of the seeds or berry. But am fully convinced, that if it was infused with Chickweed, decided results would then be achieved.

Countless years ago, when all was in its heyday, Hawthorn was used as a food, which the early life lived upon, attracting unto themselves a fiery belief in the moving frequency of Fire. For the Hawthorn berry is filled with the old element of Uranus quantum, showing man of its potential power that it is re-opening up to. Which, when taken, can bring in its changing status of Law, a movement internally which can adjust any false status of accumulated fire, into a moving state of Solar blending.

This being through the higher mind becoming touched by its Solar essence, as it gives forth of its vibrational wealth, through the intermingling of the internal powers. Somewhat in the same way as does the front page article of the Occult Gazette, to one who is earnestly seeking. The higher mind food as the Solar Word being a complete metric fulness, whereby the Hawthorn can add unto its degree of that measured unification.

Hawthorn holds the vibration of many a brave and ancient mariner, for they swore by this herb, and vouched that it kept them water-tight against the lower Neptunian vibrations of the rocking watery depths. This being the worse side of the Neptunian power, to be found in the 12th house. Whereby now, in its polarity brought about by Merope, it can be the means of assisting man to reach the glories of the Supreme Divinity, rising above the old lunar watery exploration. That which can bring scurvy or leprosy, bringing lunarised wealth ever into the quatermass state of Cancer, instead of choosing the Argo path of Solar atomic Vision.

HAWTHORN, Buchu and Dandelion make a good triune for dispersing the activation of the lower states of the soul, and allowing the now royal divine fires to infiltrate and infuse their thought quantum into the bloodstream, so that it can bombard the atomic blood structure, with its gathering powers of unification.

Hawthorn, plus the juice of oranges, has been known to bring a responsive cure to congested chests, caused by a cramped-up state of mind due to dogmatic erroneous teachings. Thus can if a little Violet is infused, bring a state of vitality once again to the soul, if they also study the teachings earnestly, and with true sympathetic intensity.

During the heights of the once religious Roman mastery, the priests surrounded their monasteries with Hawthorn trees, capturing powers which fed the surrounding earth with its power of interpenetrative fiery frequency. That which gave them of motivation, lost through the self-satisfied beliefs of their stoned minds. For unless they, more than any others, turned to the REAL truth of Divinity, they would suffer the pangs of their non-fired creation. That which now has been changed by the Holy Fires of Antares, the Sun in Scorpio as a Solar glorified state of changed glory.

FOR MEROPE IN HER MOTHERLY LOVE AS THE SCAPEGOAT, HAVING SUFFERED THAT THEY TOO COULD BE RETRIEVED, WHICH ACCOUNTS FOR WHY MANY GAZETTES HAVE BEEN GIVEN TO CHURCHES AND EVEN MONASTERIES, SOWING THE VIRGIN SEED AWAKENMENT.

As strange as this may sound, an odd combination of herbal infusion is lettuce seed and Hawthorn berry, which has a strange effect upon the liver. Then if partaken as a cool drink, it can assist the moving osmotic frequency to activate the changing mind fire within the soul, into that of a canopic frequency as a Norm god state. Thus the power of extracting embalmed hidden wealth of those organs' supreme source of beginning, that of the liver as an organ of fire. Thereby each vital organ being a master plane of frequency, which Merope has mastered, so that all planes of thought are now infused and fired into Vega mind direction.

When the glorious days of Greece began to fade, Hawthorn was used to help stay the compressed vibrations of their Olympic Games, for during their period of slide into the Abyss, and the building up of the physical adoration of the body, groups who were still searching of the mind, found the frequency of this herb very adaptable in regarding the fighting and mastering of the densified form states of the athletic "bulls."

One way was to offer them a crown of Hawthorn, placing it upon their head to help master their auric radiation. Also offering them the infused water from the berry, an all round mastering of mind and matter, which of course, they in their blind ego accepted, and so succumbed to its elevated fiery propensity.

By slowly infusing Hawthorn and Vervain into the internal revolving stream of one's inner depth as a regular infusion of health giving powers, one will find that a clarity of mind will gradually manifest. Hence, where once things seemed rather hazy and unexplainable, an awakening will be suddenly detected, bringing an expansive acknowledgement to the higher wisdom.

Finally by constant struggle and renunciation, the atomic light as Vega awareness is infused into the inner Etheric body. While Hawthorn and Mistletoe can bring a highly elevated infusion for mind unfoldment.

HAWTHORN

Hawthorn was once used as a food, and it infused fire into the oarsmen of many a past slave galley. They who through their daily ration and hard drive, carried out the task of generating and then radiating fire, to fire the inert centurian soldiers. Thereby keeping them out of any lowered frequency of disloyal thoughts to their first driving fiery cause. For many a slave was of a very high thought propensity, and was ever planning and developing a mind, to find a way of escape.

NOW as a present day polarity, due to Merope's vast expansion, it will obviously help any on the Neptunian Sea of mind activation, who are rowing back and forth through her Argo stream of dynamic wealth. Those ever seeking to find that divine Solar treasure in the new Neptunian Sea of Theocratic consciousness, endeavouring to capture its divine atomic point out of the Virgin Seed, and embodying its mighty fiery glory.

Quite apart from the medicinal qualities of its fiery red fruit, the leaves are also used, and have been known to produce a cooling effect to the over-fired bloodstream. By this it can be seen to be a plant of two extremes, proof of its once full power of the Sun's frequency, and accounts for why it was so useful, and treasured by the gradual unfolding schools of mind growth in the past.

If I can remember rightly of my childhood days, the leaves have been called bread and cheese; cheese being the wealth of the cow, the Feminine propensity of the heavens, and bread as the daily sustenance as the Word gained from the Father's sacred Power of Solar glory. Which now having been given Central Sun expansion by the Cosmic Scapegoat, will help man in the present times of havoc, to find a certain balance to his hidden, but gradually awakening god consciousness.

POWER OF HIS INACTIVE MENINGES, WHICH WILL BE THE NEW LAW INFUSION, FORCING MAN ONTO THE PATH OF RENOUNCING AND TRANSFERRING HIS STOLEN WEALTH, THEREBY UNFOLDING HIS SPIRITUAL HERITAGE. WITH HIM ACCEPTING THE NEW FACE OF ATOMIC UNFOLDMENT, THE OPENING AND AWAKENING OF THE NORM WEALTH OF HIS DIVINITY.

Yet further adding to the fiery nature of this herb, it makes excellent firing fuel, the hottest wood ever known, and if used, to be considered more desirable than oak for oven heating. Charcoal made from it, has been said to melt pig iron without the aid of a blast, another clue to its fiery nature. Thus when taken to assist the unbending will to become fluidic to the Solar unfoldment of Holy Fire, it will help to weed the inner garden of its many roots and pit-holes.

When one is constantly feeling hungry, it is a sign to the Occult initiate, that there is not a complete mind attachment and balance to the task in hand, causing a neutral channel of desire. But with a combination of Hawthorn berry and leaves partaken in equal portion, the hunger has been known to be appeased, and in some cases to even completely stop.

Accounting for why it has been given the name of bread and cheese, for many have sworn of this as a mundane lunar meal. Yet this combination gives unto the nervous system, through vibration attunement, a somewhat mortuary meal, and can stay the soul from falling back on themselves through allowing lunar desires to take hold in initiatory struggles, creating greater inner disharmony.

ONCE Hawthorn was used by the Chinese dentists as a complete selective draught to help stay the blood during extraction, for they were past

GREAT DIVINE MAGNIFICENCE

BLESS these Thy children that have not yet awakened out of the density and darkness of Time, that they will begin to know and understand the glories of Thy Divine Radiant Being. Burn Thyself into the hearts of all, that they can awaken to Thy Holy Truth, whereby the world can be born anew.

"My health is fairly good, but I have trouble with the legs. Mostly it seems the trouble is in the leg muscles under the knees."

WELL, Sara, with Sun and Mercury in the 1st house, Uranus in Leo in the house of the mind, and Neptune and Pluto dancing in the house of the spirit, plus an equal balance of earth, water, fire and air, you certainly have a good chart (1340). Your main difficulties are caused by your vacillating states of watery propensity, dithering back and forth until you have put Venus down the 12th, and Jupiter down the 8th.

Once you make up your mind to do a thing, then do it, and let nothing and no one stand in your way. Don't get caught up on the emotional level, but try to raise everything up into the glories of the arialised mind, where all personal states are left far, far behind, and you stand face to face with the divinity of your creation, and walk with Him in the garden of your mind.

Get your mind moving upon higher thoughts, make the wisdom live within you, that you can fire the young with your beliefs, that they can feel it is your heart speaking as you talk of the wonders of the Unseen Realms.

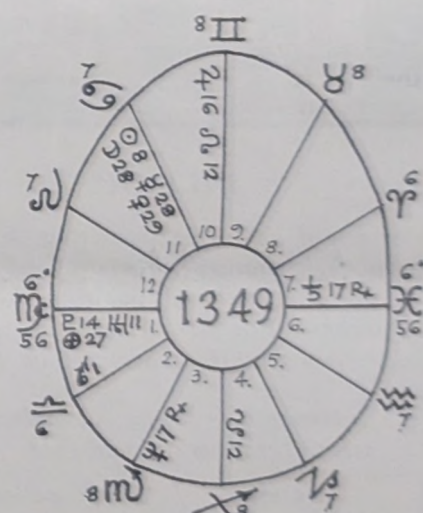

I am afraid you are bound to feel pains in your legs, for you have never made expansion, and the legs are the physical expression of the mind extension. But with Sagittarius being upon your 6th house, the house of health, it is a wonder that you haven't had the whole of the heavens come tumbling down about your ears! Try and see the depths of what you are reading, that your legs can then walk the new understanding into the earth, with you radiating and expounding its glory.

However, I must say, Sara, that to have reached the age of 90, with only the leg trouble to show for it, you have done remarkably well, you know. But if you will take some herbs to help you to start off, I would recommend BUCHU, AGRIMONY and VERVAIN, and later on we will prescribe deeper to try and help you spin your mind up off the earth.

"Is three years old, and catches diarrhea with frequency. She now has a cold and high fever."

THE first thing we notice in this chart (1349) is that the soul has not built up any Fire bodies, which are the most important creation in every soul's life. Fire, the generating action of activity and elevation, takes the soul up out of the lunar waters into the glories of the mind. Thus we see here Virgo upon the Ascendant, and Gemini in the mid-heavens, urging the soul to get her mind dancing, and draw down the glory of divinity. The triplicities indicate an abundance of Water, putting out the light of any Fire gained.

Being only three years old, it is up to the parents to bring this child up in the right manner. She must ever be coaxed away from the glories of desire, set into motion by the Jupiter in the heights, and be raised up upon the Higher Teachings, that she can bring forth expansion of her mind, the positive glories of Jupiter. Everything in her 1st house has been brought there through religious ritual, and unless she can now get some fiery action, and balanced wisdom, within her, the wealth of the 1st house will be of no value whatsoever.

She must get her Uranus sparking, that as the elevated Bride to the Christ, she is able to perceive the glories of divine Truth. The Path of Destiny in the intuitional mind, is urging the soul to rebirth, while the Sun, Moon, and Mercury, ensconced in the house of the spirit, are awaiting Saturn in the 7th to stop praying at the round altar of watery illusion, and carry the new-born babe up over the fiery pit, and catch the heavens alight with its reborn fiery beliefs.

The health dilemmas of this young girl are due solely to her lack of Fire, her lack of determined effort. As she gets older she must be driven on a path of spiritual purpose, and the harder she is kept to it the better! Neptune in Scorpio, in the 3rd house, the glories of the mind, could give her all the wonders of occult beauty, if only that Saturn can be forced up off its knees, and drive towards the heavens.

The whole chart rings with wealth, but no Fire, and without Fire nothing moves, all remains as it ever was. She must rise up off the psychic plane into the divine glories of occult revelation, and find the strength of her convictions, casting off completely her righteous garb of the nunnery!

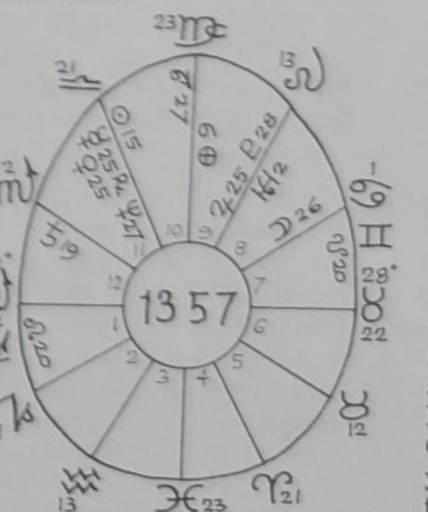

Unfortunately Virgo, the portending glory of her personal development, is fixed and adamant in its own ideas, especially as the Path of Destiny is fixed in its personal state. She must make expansion away from her religious ideas, for if she doesn't, all the planets in the 11th house will dance into the 12th, and vanish into the darkness of the night, filling her with a mass of multiplicity that would be nigh on impossible to ever unravel again.

Again much depends upon the parental influence over her formative years, but to help her immediate health problem, we would advise ARROW-ROOT, which is very good for binding up loose stomachs.

P. J. B., Teignmouth, Devon.

"Peter is 12 years old, studious, intelligent, but has become very aggressive and moody, and is not getting on as well at his new school as his parents were hoping."

WELL, Peter, you are young yet, but not too young to listen to wisdom. I have been looking at your chart (1357) and it is a very strong one, with 7 positive attributes and only 3 negative, so you are quite a determined character, but you need leading onto the right path of unfoldment. You have now reached a very critical time of life, whereby you need shepherding upwards on the road of puberty, where the sacredness of the Holy Fire that is now awakening within you, can be explained unto you in all true royalty and belief.

How many young innocent minds are destroyed at this age, by being touched off by the dirt of the earth and not the unfolding glories of the spirit? It is a terrible tragedy, and one for which the parents must take a great deal of the blame, for if they were living a pure life themselves, they would not be embarrassed in telling their children of such matters, and how they must be met.

The trouble is that the wisdom of the Divine Fire has been lost down the pit of the animal desires, with the seminal waters now merely being used as the activating propulsion of the beast. The difference 'twixt man and beast has yet to be learnt by mankind, but there are dynamic changes coming soon, and ones that will bring their sure result.

But to return to this chart, we see Scorpio is on the Ascendant, waiting to open up the glories of mysticism, but I am afraid, Peter, owing to your jaunts of the past, you have put Saturn into the 12th house in Scorpio, and points strongly to your having followed the path of the scientist, and not that of occult expansion.

You have never fired your wisdom into elevated consciousness, but ever left it in conventional traits, dead religious beliefs, that have forced your Uranus, the sparking glory of your mind, and your Moon, down into the fiery pit, that of the 8th house. Consequently your Mars, elevated up in Virgo in the house of service, is demanding your intuitional mind to get active, or else!

For Virgo also holds your Path of Destiny in the 9th house, the house of mind expansion; therefore if you do not unfold the wealth in the 11th house, the house of the spirit, and bring it to the glories of the mind, all will tumble down into the 12th house, leaving you in a far worse state than before.

I understand that you are apt to be attacked by moody states, well this is quite a normal puberty sickness, but the main trouble is of course, that you are not being opened up into the higher glories of the wisdom, where you would expand your Saturn, and your mind would dance in arialised freedom. This is a very critical moment for your future life, and one that should be dealt with rigidly.

Try not to listen to voices that would drag you back, Peter, but turn your mind heavenwards, and call upon the Great Flame to guide you through your struggles with life. Build up a cosmic belief, and never, never let it go, for Divinity will then be your Over-shadowing Protector, and your guiding light as you step forth into the wonders and mysteries of the Unknown.

If you would be prepared to take herbs, I would advise a little HAWTHORN and VIOLET, plus some Nerve Pills, and if you can, try cutting down on your animal diet, for this will greatly help you in the unfolding of your mind.

But invariably it was merely "riding high" awaiting its real strength to come into being, and if the soul could "grind" it in as the old rock of self and build the new rock upon its foundation, great changes could come to the soul from the rebirth made. The Egyptians always placed their name onto their sarcophagus, not in arrogance, but as a passport to Spirit, and it was referred to as their cartouche. It represented the sum total of their growth made while upon the earth, and would be their means of entry to the plane of destination.

Everything with the Egyptians was royal, for they were coached in a period when royalty was at its height, for the Solar Deity had made his entry into the world for the first time, and the Egyptians gave him his royal birth in the wisdom they established, which has lasted down the ages.

That is the difference between Egypt and other powers equally as great in wisdom, but not in action. They made the establishment, so no man could teach the Egyptians anything, and all down the ages mankind have adopted their principles, but often giving them another name. They were the Root of the Human race; not necessarily life in the beginning, but Root to the Race of humanity beginning to move and grow.

THUS WAS THE CRADLE OF THE DEEP; THE PATTERN OF LIFE FROM WHICH ALL BLOOD SPECIES HAVE CONTINUED.

masters at removing and replacing teeth. The seed in the berry holds a slight narcotic stimulant, that supplies the root nerves of the teeth with a numbness, thereby assisting, and for a time stemming, the activity of the facial nerves, while the dentist activates his swift extraction and transplanting operation.

Very little is known about this herb, it being used more as a cardiac stimulant, thus what has been given in this dissertation is purely from the realm of spirit. Much is given from a historical account, it being used for its Fiery propensity. It is known under many names and goes back far, while mythology declares that after lightning during a thunderstorm, the seed of the tree was installed into the earth. Hence the shepherds carried Hawthorn boughs to promote fertility.

But this herb is remarkable for all form of seminal disturbances, particularly over-spilling. Thus all form of prostate weaknesses could be effectually cured by the fiery wealth of this wonderful little herb, especially where Saturn strongly affects the ionisation of the spinal column, for it fires the Bull and activates the Seed.

Considering now that the Holy Fire is now in the propensity of the Breath, and there for the gathering, by the soul who can reach that frequency. But Hawthorn when taken with Buchu can prevent over-spilling that could come by the first partaking of this fiery driving herb. This is not to be mistaken for the energising of the fires for their baser uses, but for the fire being activated for the energising of the mind and lost energies.

ALTHOUGH BEING EXCELLENT FOR HEART IRREGULARITY OF ALL DEGREES, IT ALSO REMOVES SKIN ERUPTIONS, ALLAYS IRRITATION OF CONJUNCTIVITIS, AND IMPROVES THE EYES GENERALLY, AS WELL AS NASAL CATARRH.

Next month we will take Horsetail.

EGYPT —

The Cradle of Civilisation Part 3

by Gladys I. Spearman-Cook

HERMA the great Sage of Egypt, left with the world the wisdom of 26,000 volumes of Works; this being symbolical, indicates the wisdom of the whole round of a Solar Year, 26,000 years. The wisdom that could reveal the passage of Time created by the Solar Deity through the whole twelve of the Celestial Signs as Equinoxes. Each sign averaging about 2,166 years as a Solar Day, bringing all to 25,992; one Manvantara of Creation after which the Deity Becomes and is reinstated in His new creation to perform the next round. Herma was reproduced in Greece by a Hermes who brought forth of the Works of Herma under the name of the Emerald Tablet, the Tabula Smaragdina Monumentum Antiquissimum Chaldecorum Operis Maximi, or the monument of the Chaldeans concerning the Lapis Philosophorum.

The Universal Principles

ALL linked around Cham, one of the sons of Noah and was the secret work of Hiram, or Chiram to come forth through the ages; but the most ancient of the wisdom lies in the secret doctrine of the Poemandres. This was the "Sermon on the Mount," or wisdom from the heights of the mind, and known long before such was added by orthodoxy unto the Bible. It belonged to the Shepherd kings, for it was they who made every effort to bring forth the "new-born" children of the Human generation.

The Poemandres were really the Egyptian Books of "Breathings," through which the mighty God or Lord of Khemennu cometh to man; through which "He writeth by his own fingers, and the soul shall breathe for ever and ever, and thy form shall be endowed with life upon earth and thou shalt be of Ra and thy members shalt be of the members of the Great God."

Herma who was the Teacher for these works to be earthed was the Egyptian Tat, Taut or Thoth; he was Trismegistus, or "Thrice Great," a Son of God living on earth in a fleshy body; one sent from higher Realms to leave with the world divine Wisdom. Thoth—or being named as Tat, Tot, Taut or Thoth, was as the counsellor and friend of Osiris; one sent by Osiris to assist Isis, the Lady of the Heavens, with his counsels in the government of the world; especially when Osiris—the Solar Deity—embarked in the design of regenerating the earth and civilizing the Nations.

Thoth was almost one with Adam, and his power of Magic was of untold genius. He reduced Astrology to a system, produced treatises on medicine, enlarged and inspired on the positive and recognisable side of anatomy, and with great wonder, the mysticism connected with the origin and working of the world, and nature of the life of Man. He treated of Universal principles and the governing of the world by the movements of the stars; and of the Divine light, its shadow in the mortal life and its contradistinction to the life of the unbodied light, DARKNESS.

Smaragdina Tablet

MANY Hermes followed, but there was only one Herma. The era of Æsculapius is ancient enough, though removed from the time of Herma, but he carried on the wisdom which he handed down to Manetho; and it is alleged, and of course why not, that in a cave was found a slab of emerald, and on it was cited the inscription of the Smaragdina Table in ancient script which was well known to the scribes:—

"I speak not fictitious things, but that which is certain and most true.

What is below, is like that which is above; and what is

PILLARS OF DIVINE WISDOM

SUCH glories could never be forgotten, born from a world of intense beauty and wonder. When royal light bathed the earth in its unfolding glory, expounding truths that have never yet been fulfilled, and are awaiting the minds of such lost dignitaries to awaken out of their ancient slumbers. For Esneh was the mighty Temple of I-em-hotep's embracement, and the wonder and glory of his creation. (See text in col. 4).

above is like that which is below; to accomplish the miracle of one thing.

And as all things were produced by the one word of one Being, so all things were produced from this one thing by adaptation.

Its father is the sun, its mother the moon, the wind carries it in its belly, its nurse is the earth.

It is the father of all perfection throughout the world.

The power is vigorous if it be changed into earth.

Separate the earth from the fire, the subtle from the gross, acting prudently and with judgment.

Ascend with the greatest sagacity from the earth to heaven, and then again descend to the earth and unite together the powers of things superior and things inferior. Thus, you will obtain the glory of the whole world and obscurity will fly away from you.

This has more fortitude than fortitude itself because it conquers every subtle thing and can penetrate every solid.

Thus was the world formed.

Hence proceeds wonders which are here established.

Therefore I am called Hermes Trismegistus, having three parts of the philosophy of the whole world.

That which I had to say concerning the operation of the sun is completed."

This portrays to man but only minutely, the knowledge that was established on the earth at that time, for at that period they knew both the heights and depths of all wisdom. What they lacked was the fulness of time in the activity of completion; that which was to come by proof and manifest in practical creation.

The Temple of Light

THE great temple of E'sneh or Esneh holds untold wealth in its internal mystery, for many passed through its portals. Its name indicates a garden, but the Greeks later on linked it with Latopolis, from the worship of the Latus, fish, which shared with Minerva the honours of the sanctuary. Thus since she represents extreme wisdom, that alone indicates the depth conceived by those who later defiled the depth by their own themes and ideas.

The whole of the works of the Egyptians at the period of Esneh, minus their intrinsic mysteries, were portrayed on the pillars of the temple, as shown in the plate. As there (See plate below) seen, the temple has become silted up from the fine dust that has blown up by the winds over the ages. These at times can become very uproarious. When freed from the rubble gathered, the pillars would be of an enormous height with an extremely imposing style of architecture that could not fail to call forth admiration from even the most indifferent life in flesh, both through the womb and entranced states. Therefore extensive wisdom was earthed in that rich and glorious edifice. The fact that their pillars were crowned by the palm leaf, papyrus flower and pomegranate, alone proved of the royalty and learning that once was established here into the depths of time.

Its inner rooms are completely lost through the silting up jamming doors that once contained mysterious springs for opening; for once the Initiate passed through these doors, which contained a special password for opening, they closed upon him until by right of wisdom gained, he was spectator. Many of these columns possess an elegance and massive grandeur which cannot be surpassed by any of the other ruins of ancient Egypt.

On the ceiling is a zodiac similar to that of Dendera with the whole facsimile of their Gods and attendants. Thothmes the 3rd has his name interposed amongst the Gods, and later, as can be detected, some of the Caesars,—Trajan, Adrian and Antonius,—added their escutcheons which sadly deteriorated the beauty as well as the temple's heritage. But this alone proves that it was considered a great honour to place one's name among the dignitaries whose memories went with the building up of this great edifice of the past. The period in Egypt when Esneh existed, was a time of great royalty, her government was at the height of its glory, and beauty reigned supreme; for Egypt was endowed with an electrical atmosphere that exhilarated even the very stones.

The mysterious knowledge captured by the sensitives, that she was truly fed by the Gods, need not be underestimated, for this is quite true. Divine guidance had been established through the royal precedence of their beliefs, and this brought into their midst great hierarchial powers which took able to return to the outer world to continue that of which he now was the rich inheritor. Only the true seekers were allowed to ever pass through the portals, for at the outer entrance stood a stone box-like cell where the enquiring Candidate would enter. Then certain wisdom would be placed before them which they would have to answer, and then pass through yet further examination before they were even considered.

The world has never since ever known of such wealth, peace and royalty as existed in the days of Esneh. Many have tried to assess its period and age, but it goes back to the beginning of time and was renovated by many with the hopes of recapturing its beauty and power; but it never yielded its secret. It was a temple that belonged to the Gods and only they could have delivered such powers as were known and established then that truth could abide down the ages, as it has done.

Consequently it has never died and the world has been enriched to the extent of what was then established by the
