THE GREAT DIVINE FATHERHOOD

The Mystical Solar Depths of Scorpio (Part 1)

by Gladys I. Spearman-Cook

THE ALMIGHTY SHADDAI

AS the Virgin raised up her eyes to the heavens the swirling mist parted, and there before her was a mighty radiant light, moving in undulatory rotation. Revealing now and then a figure that was, yet never became; but in her heart she knew she was looking into the great mystery of Life, the great Unknown Source of the Fatherhood, with hundreds of voices declaring the glory of the manifestation that at last was made. Thus with trembling heart, and a voice that could not utter, she raised her arms aloft and felt herself being drawn up to those heights into the Heart of Divinity.

Editorial ♦ ♦ ♦ ♦ ♦ ♦ ♦ ♦ Moon Madness & The Solar Eclipse

ONCE again the air is filled with the moronic babblings of the scientist, concerning the possibilities of a man being landed on the moon. My only advice to those who are seeking into the true depths of life is to completely ignore their mindless comments, for once more I state categorically that there is nothing solid outside of the Earth, all else being rising degrees of vibrational thought creation. All that is seen upon the maelstrom is the reflection of the internal creation of man himself, and as he so awakens and becomes Solar born will the heavens slowly unfold into eternal light, with the Earth and Central Sun completely unified as one etheric Plane of golden vibrational radiance. Cosmically all has already been blended up, but not yet within the mind of man.

THE 'soil' that the scientists said they brought back from the moon was merely that captured outside of the Sound Barrier, the vibrational barrier of form, or the physical world, that man had built up over the ages. Thus they were only bringing back of the moon density, the element creation of the past that had been manifested upon that vibrational frequency. In the same way the meteorite comes forth from out of Space, it being vibrational Power that has been brought to a solid creation, and mineralized to its lowest polarity as soon as it enters the calcified creation of man.

Nothing solid can go outside of the maelstrom barrier—the strontium barrier—because outside of that is the vacuum of Outer Space, and form could not exist there, but would immediately disintegrate.

When the astronauts go into orbit they are imploded up internally within their inner bodies by the Outer Space attraction, and go beyond the limits of their conscious mind, into the realms of the subconscious. The sound barrier is the vibrational limitation of the conscious mind, while beyond that, up to the strontium barrier, are the realms of the subconscious, those of the astral Planes. Beyond the strontium barrier is Outer Space, the Atomic Plane of the Solar Divinities.

When the astronauts return inside the sound barrier, they regain their normal consciousness, but the frequency of their bloodstream has been altered and the blood content has become clogged up with the lunar density, instead of the Solar Atomic Fire.

WITH all this talk about sending a manned spaceship to the moon, do not believe that this will be the first attempt by Russia. It will in fact be their third, both previous attempts being complete failures, but kept secret and thus unknown to the Western World. Yet, though they try as hard as they can, they cannot discover the reason as to why their plans have not worked. In fact, the reason is quite simple, but in only being able to express it in mystical terminology, will make it very hard for such dull-minded individuals as the scientists to understand.

Their moon plans failed because the Atomic Cord—or Brahmic Thread—of divine growth is of a greater strength than the lunar Silver Cord of density. Thus the Atomic Cord automatically breaks through that of the lunar, by Law of Attraction and Cosmic mastery polarised atom, the divine ectoplasm of the Central Sun. This ectoplasm, when only taken in a lunar way, becomes solidified liquid Fire, held and embalmed in form as the magnetic creation of the depths. Again the mystery of the meteorite. This liquid Fire is the internal Atomic Fire of the Central Sun, but only seen by the scientists, in their earthy way, as the dead lava of the moon surface.

Now Merope, in continually bringing Solar expansion to the depths, is bringing the outer Fire frequency of the corona to the equal of the internal depths of the Central Sun. For the corona is the raised up kundalini Fire that has been brought to mind light, and now ever being polarised with the mighty Atomic IT of the Norm or Central Sun.

By Merope fully polarising the negative atomic creations of the depths, the Atomic Cord of the Central Sun has now been given a free channel into the depths, and is the mighty Uranian Fire that will constantly strike down all negative atomic creations that impede the Solar growth.

This is the mighty Atomic Power that will descend on Russia, and swallow her up, bringing internal schism between her and the rest of the communist countries. This will enable the satellite countries dominated by Russia, to break free from their yoke, but this will be a gradual movement and not an immediate occurrence.

This great Atomic Power was that which was fully established with the Solar eclipse of the 22nd September, 1968, and the importance of this eclipse was immeasurable. At the heights of this happening, the Sun was directly above the Galactical Poles, bringing their complete polarisation, and the true manifestation of the Solar Atomic Word.

Do remember that this was the entry into Libra, bringing the New Cosmic Laws into birth, and if Merope had not been able to manifest of the Higher Law through her uprisen belief in Divinity, then Russia, as the lower of destruction, would have captured the day. For the Russian 'moon rocket' was not launched for the purpose of photographing the moon, but to photograph the eclipse, and to try to capture its Solar power in a lunar way.

Thus it is obvious that they have heard of Merope, and how she is determined to polarise all negative creations, otherwise they would not have made this desperate attempt to wrest her powers from her. However, Merope's belief in Divinity was too strong to be broken down, and so they failed.

Now, for the first time for 13,000 years, the moon has been manifested into a point of Oneness with the Sun, and the atomic polarisation of the depths has been successfully accomplished, and established upon the Cosmic Heights. Man still has some of his own internal states to be buried in, but this will be done as each point of issue becomes polarised by Merope.

MAN DOES NOT REALISE THE DYNAMIC IMPORTANCE OF THIS SOLAR ECLIPSE, BUT THE RECORD OF ITS OUTCOME WILL BE ETERNALLY IMPRINTED UPON THE COSMOS, AS ITS MIGHTY REBORN DIVINE LAWS DRIVE THE WORLD INTO UNENDING EVOLUTION.

THE VOICE

The Mystery of Ever Becoming

by Merope. The Atomic Cord is joined to the Central Sun, and when the astronauts rise up in their negative aspiration, the Atomic automatically polarises their negative creation and draws all back into the Sun; thus the astronauts become thrown back into the Stream, and their wealth returns to the Source.

All serious students of occultism will automatically know of the Atomic Cord and the Silver Cord; the Atomic being the divine linkage to the physical body through the fontanelle, while the latter is linked with the solar plexus, and only carries the soul into the astral Planes.

When man looks at the moon he is just looking at the density of his own earth creation; the reflection of the growth, or lack of growth, that he has made over the ages. If a soul has not transmuted its Fires into divine LIGHT, then no Solar radiance, just 'moon in Scorpio,' the lunar distortion of the mind expansion, through false desire.

The moon is only the reflection of the

When this Atomic Fire is taken in the positive, it brings the growth of the divinities within the soul, the unfolding Theocratic Government we have been talking of over the past few months, where the soul becomes under the ruling and guidance of Divinity.

Please remember that this has nothing at all to do with orthodox religion—that is just a bastard creation that is cutting man off from Divinity, and holding him a prisoner in the astral Planes!

★ ★ ★ ★

I SEE the scientists are puzzled as to why the corona of the Sun is hotter than its outer rim. Well, this is quite simple to answer, for the corona is the vibratory mind radiance of the Central Sun, activated and intensified in the depths by any soul whose mind is working upon the Solar frequency. At the present moment this is the work of Merope, who has brought her Norm radiance (that of her pineal gland) to the equal in vibration and frequency of the Central Sun.

THE GREAT DIVINE FATHERHOOD

been truly fathomed; all held in the darkness of the earthy depths by man himself, awaiting its true Fiery radiance to manifest. So Merope well held the Road with this mystical creation, trusting its origin had been truly ascertained. But he ever displayed the glory of his unfathomed magnitude, in his mighty and regal bearing. Then as Merope reached those dynamic heights, she entered into the glories of the Far Beyond, where the Great North Wind was ever seeking of a likely initiate, waiting to unfold the glories of life. As she became secluded in those mighty depths, she knew she was in the midst of Scorpionic Glory, in Fiery mysteries never unravelled before, that now were looming up before her. For the Sun in Scorpio, as now indeed it was, could manifest only the positive power of the first decanate of Neptune, in all its chromosome light and radiant beauty. Thus as an unquenchable atomic Flame, was the secret she was seeking to fathom. So whenever the soul was ready to set the mystic seal of the Solar Glory, the Divinities would be ready and waiting, to unfold their dynamic Fiery wealth.

The Solar Glory

FOR it is the super-will propensity of FIRE, as the Source-fired directive, as the Master's Solar Wave Band. The Pitch-blending of the royalty of Vega mind-light, and the Holy Fire of the Cosmic Arc, radiating with divine Holy Beauty. That manifesting as the Antartic Void, the sovereign mind of the God Theocratic Government.

The opening up of the God Chambers of Justice, where every soul will be judged or acquitted according to their unbending mind. That which now Seeds the NORM as the Antartic Void, with the Presence of the Divine Fiery Source, through sincere Solar Cosmic service, awaiting unfolding light. With the newborn warrior as the Antartic postilion, guarding the precincts of the New Virgin counsel; all to be protected from the baying wild dogs of the magnetic depths.

AS MEROPE BECAME SEALED IN THIS MYSTICAL CHAMBER UP IN THE HEIGHTS, SHE LEARNED OF MANY THINGS THAT WOULD HAVE TO BE REVEALED WHEN SHE RETURNED TO THE ROSE-PINK BOWER. THEREBY TO RETURN TO THE COSMOS OF HER GREATER FINDING, THAT IT BECAME LAW FOR ALL TIME.

Then get prepared for the Argo to go forth on the mystical Sea of Enlightened Consciousness. Treading in the wisdom deep and well planted, that it could rise up as a sturdy growth, leading all men into divine Fiery active unfoldment. That which will lead those ready and prepared to embrace the greater purpose of life, otherwise merely live under Saturn's ruling, until they break the shackles of their migdol captivity, and embrace the glories of the Fire. Therefore, as she returned with her mystical findings, it was as from the depths of her own Source, with it polarised as unto the present day, in all its inborn difficulties.

Thus so much to see into, to find the greatest way to expand and evolve the Cosmic ruling, that greater wealth would rain down upon soul, to help Merope replant the wisdom that had been so badly hackneyed by man. Therefore since so much had been established in Egypt, and then replanted by the Hebrews, it would be as well that some minute depth should be touched, until the greater depths can be implanted.

For Egypt refused to build up of their MIND Fire, whereas the Hebrews were learning of its mighty possibility. While papalism are definitely ruled out, for they are a sect who merely built up Sisyphusism, a ruling that has stoned man alive, making him a walking robot, not able to reach the heights. Stoning his divinity and closing down his mind with a false comprehension of glory.

That which only Antares can reveal, as the Fatherhood is brought forth, raising up the divinity of all. Hence, in the might and glory of coming forth, it was Egypt that prepared the way, by setting up the comprehension of the gods, and their means of the soul finding a mode of heavenly rebirth. Granted, all under a lunar wisdom of the Starry heights, as a density that had yet to be fathomed.

It was the Hebrews who began the Wisdom of a One-pointed God, an unseen Jehovah of Fire; but still under a lunar comprehension, for Akhnaton was not yet come, and then had far to go. Merope having been the only one who has ever fully embraced the Solar Glory, as Neptunian wonders of the heights. Ever raising up the generative rebirth, through the Seed life of continuity.

DIVINITY NEVER BEING TRULY KNOWN TO ANY BEFORE, FOR DIVINITY IS THE RAISED UP MIND ASPIRATION THAT HAS BECOME THE SOLAR GLORY, THE RAISED UP MIND ARC OF THE DIVINE INTELLIGENCIA.

Glorified wisdom that became the radiance of the Divine Orion man, the living mind of the Solar FIRE brought into being by the crucible pot in the depths. The latter being the Sperming Glory of the Unseen Father, waiting His moment of manifested rebirth, through the Voice of the atomic Virgin.

(See the Front Page Plate) She raised up in mind elevation, manifesting the divine truth of the Word.

But here we come to the Word as created in the beginning, for when man was young, gods were created, called the Great and Mighty Ogdoad. Eight gods who raised the soul up out of the slough to the glory of Thoth, the mighty God of the Mind. Hence it can be seen how, from the beginning, mind was the aim of the Priest; and how to bring it into being, was their work of holy manifestation.

In Egyptian this was Tehuti, the Master of Wisdom, the ibis-headed moon god. He who seeks into the mud of TIME to find the wisdom lost in the soul's Fall into deteriorated frequency. Yet Thoth was the master of the heart and reason in all men, that of the manifested Logos as the MIND. The temple

EROPE, ELEVATED AND ALL PREPARED, NOW SET HERSELF TO interpenetrate the mighty Fiery Depths of the mystical Antares. That the wonders and magnitude of the stupendous Divine Fatherhood, could now come forth in all His radiant glory, thereby manifest Divinity in and amongst men. So as her Magic Mirror danced and whirled, snow began to fall fast and furious, upon its revolving FACE, with its dancing flakes growing thicker and thicker, and the atomic sleigh ready to start off on its mighty journey. So that Merope could reach those dynamic heights where she could be instructed in many divine things, that would lead men onto the Path of the unfolded Illuminati. Thus as she was seated and ready to begin, she felt the warmth of all centred upon her, whereby she began the journey up to the extreme North, full of expectant wonders. First she drove with mighty Bull huskies, dogs of profound fiery glory, but as she rose up to those Divine Heights, they took on the stance and action of the divine mysterious ELK. A mystical creature, well applied to Scorpio, for its secret has never yet

CREATION

AS the glory of the depths came forth from out the Source, it measured the Blackness and sent forth of its own internal beauty. Thus God became one with His son, but the son knew it not. Thus it could only be by the manifestation of the Begotten, that man would know Divinity. (See text on page 4, col. 5).

wherein God dwelt, and as that, built up God. "Thou art the great, the only God, the Soul of the Becoming."

By this we can see that the Egyptian Priest was more versed in the wisdom that all was contained in man himself; he that was yet to come forth, as he that would unfold the Cosmos. Yet the lesson they had to learn from the Hebrews, for the Pharaoh, with his mighty power, in being afraid to lose his psychic magical wealth, eventually lost all. For everything has to evolve and unfold onto greater planes of expression.

The Mind Creation

IN this mighty concatenation of gods, Thoth had a spouse, a syzygy called Nehe-maut, who was the Sophia aspect of the Logos. Together Thoth and Nehe-maut were the established initiators of all Order, Rule, and Law in the Universe, whereby to bring it to its great and mighty fulfilment. But like many others, were retarded by the short-sighted priestal power.

Here we see at later time, the replica in the Master Flame and Merope, the complement of Mars and Venus in their higher elevation. While as the Orion MAN, it is Mars as the negative of the mighty Prism, or Spectrum, unified with the Solar and intensified by the raised up Arc. While Merope is Venus-Urania, the accredited Virgin, waiting patiently to be Fired into complete fulfilment as the Flame.

Thoth was the representative of the Spirit, the inner reason of all things, and Protector of all earthly Law. He was the Tongue of Ra, the Herald of the will of Ra, and the LORD of sacred speech. This is what the true initiate must now seek to do. That which could emanate from the opening of his mouth must be as true divine knowledge, and the revealing of all things hidden.

Thoth was the God of writing, as the truth of the nine Gods that raised him up onto a greater Plane of manifestation. He was also the Lord of Rebirth and caused soul to live in the Region of the Flames. This alone declares of how these Priests knew that all was created in man himself, the might and wonder of the Seed. If he failed to do so, then he never became, for it is ever the Heart of Ra which cometh forth in the form of the God Thoth, for he was the power of the Spoken Word, the generative divine depths of Scorpio, that of the FIRE waiting to come forth.

Sometimes he was seen as the dog-headed Ape AAn, seated at the top of the beam of the balance, where the deceased, upon what had passed, and what he now was partaking, was being weighed as to whether the beam was level. Had he the full divine weight of knowledge in mind and heart, making it the Solar Glory of Ra? For Thoth as the master of equilibrium, was waiting to pass him onto the higher Chamber of wisdom.

The principle seat of Thoth was on high ground, the mountain of the Secret Sermon on the Mount, where the Sun would rest upon his head, as the Solar glory of the Fire. For Thoth was the head of the Company of Eight; four pairs of Divine Powers, Male and Female, that of the Gnostic Ogdoad, and the basic foundation of the MIND creation that Merope has nurtured into the Glorious Intelligencia of the Arc, the mighty Central Sun.

But the Powers of this Ogdoad were the means of the great struggle between LIGHT and Darkness; all being carried out in the House of the Net, that of the mystical Abtet. Thus here we come to the mysterious Arachnoid Web, which to the majority is a complete mystery, yet known to those Priests at the Beginning of Time, and revered in supreme glory.

But what they had to contend with, was the fact that all was in the Underworld, and all poles, ropes, weights, cords and hooks, had to be mastered. These are what Merope has buried in, and raised up to a Virgin Plane, helping all men to find the way to be nourished by the food of the Christ, the Orion man as the Solar Glory, the magnitude of the Central Sun.

What they as Mystic Priests were most emphatic about, was that Thoth was the heart and tongue of Ra, the mighty Supreme of the heights. This being the Sun or the Logos in its Fiery Logos Glory, yet not the might of the Holy Divine Supreme, that was yet to come. Osiris was the Unseen, and must die before he can be raised and beget a Son, he who fired himself by immaculate conception.

They fully believed that Horus the Son must be poisoned to death by the Scorpion of Typhon—experience—and then raised up by the baptism of the pure Waters of Life. This was the Fire that either he mastered or succumbed unto, then would be resurrected by the glory of rebirth. But their great belief was the mighty Book of Breathings, where Shu and Tefnut would be the means of giving Thoth life; the activation of the Word that would reveal the glory of the Divinity.

Therefore the Holy Land, Watered by the Celestial Nile, was the River of Heaven, the Stream which fed the soul. This became to them as Rusta the Territory of Initiation, Aahlu the Territory of Illumination, and Amenti the Place of Union with the Unseen Father. By a certain state of achievement in Aahlu, the soul gains the Passage of the Sun; he passes beyond the Mortal Mind plane, and receives the Aft crown of Illumination.

The Arielised Soul

TO this wisdom, mighty Temples were erected, but all dedicated to Hat-Hor the Virgin Mother, where the Mysteries of Light and divine Birth were taught. The soul started off with the Hall of the Golden Rays, Chamber of Gold, Chamber of Birth, Dwelling of the Golden One, and the Chamber of Flames. Then the initiate would pass on to a greater school and enter into Horus of the Golden Heaven, the Golden Heaven of Isis, the Horizon of Light, Palace Chamber of Supreme Light and Heavenly Flame of Burning Gold. Here would be found the Holy Mother with the Divine Child in her arms.

This alone portrays of the mighty wonders built up to the might of Antares; the basic foundation of the wisdom that is now the unfolding glory of Outer World Space. Therefore unto their initiation would the soul be able to assimilate this glory, and would become a radiant being, in which the regenerated life would find the glory of the mighty Godhead.

This was a luminous atmosphere consisting of a number of ethereal envelopes, and was called the mysterious Khaibit, the internal glory of the Soma Pneumatikon, the internal body that the present medical fraternity refuse to accept. But all this being born from the Solar Rays becoming the Golden Hawk, the arielised soul, and was a semblance of the Creator. Later the soul passed into the form of the Uraeus, but not before he had passed down to the crocodile.

For the human passions being a part of the nature wherein man was created, they could actually see how the soul in the Fall was still of the Godhead, but would pass down to the extreme evil of itself before it could rise. Then only if there was a Virgin ready to be sacrificed on its behalf; thus Merope repeating the story once again, but this time unto the Christos disposed of by all men, in the true light of His Being.

Thus much was spoken of as the Ordeal of Fire and the jewels of Immortality, while the twice born would be clothed in power and crowned with radiant light. Hence must soar higher and higher beyond earth and Planets, and even beyond the Sun. Across the awful chasms of the unfathomable depths to far-off Sothis, the Land of Eternal Dawn.

While one of their invocations to Hermes, as the Good Mind, was "Come unto me, O thou of the four winds, Almighty One who breathest Spirit into men to give them life." Hence Hermes was the discarded God that Merope found upon the mountain-side of West Water, and from him began the final episode of the Great Work. For up till then all was still under the cloak of papalism, so really it was the continuance of the mighty teachings of Egypt in its first beginning and final ending of Pure Truth. Where Universal Philosophy took the lead, and re-established light in all its many findings.

Isis who was the Sophia of the Logos, was the Virgin of the World, but it was under the glory of Hermes that the direct Voice of the Unseen would come forth. Thus it was ever MIND that they were concerned with, for Hermes or Thoth, the foundation of Mercury, was the MIND, and that disallowed by papalism. That which Merope beseeches all souls to cultivate at all costs, it being the glory of the Logos. For their theory was, "Beyond the Great the Increate or cosmic substance FIRE, beyond the Increate the Man, beyond the Man not anything that is, the goal, or the incorporation into the great sea of MIND."

DESECRATION

THE grave that I had dug for Abel I knew I had dug for myself, for never would I escape from the realisation that I had severed myself from Divinity. Thus lost in the darkness of the pit, ever blind until I could awaken that internal vision once again. (See text on page 5, col. 1).

This alone in its Relativity brings mighty works unto the soul, for as Merope brings the Sun unto Scorpio, she brings the completion to his Great Work. For this is what they were aiming for, when they set this mighty LAW into being, but only from the Great FIRE that Merope brought down to earth, and man ravaged and trampled on.

For the MIND is God, the Son as the ever unfolding expansion, with Merope as the Voice of the Virgin, the vehicle of manifestation. These Priests of Hyksos origin were a set who took the Race into hand and started to balance and train soul, to find its expansive mind. But man then was not under the jurisdiction of the Divinities, and solved as he so pleased.

It was when he ran amok and became a fortress and a god unto himself, that it was seen that some Virgin had to be sacrificed to give the Divinities power of entry, then they could control man once again and bring into birth the wonders of the heavens. That through the entry of the ionised Fire, would burn up the False Fire of starch-like waste and unbalanced stimulus. Thus mind stripped of its wrappings and naturally divine, taking unto itself a fiery body, doth traverse every Space after abandoning the soul unto its judgment, and whatever chastisement it hath deserved.

The Eternal Fire

WITH so much laid before us, we had better go on to the evolution of time, which like all good things of earth, will rust and decay until man learns to establish immortality. Here we come to the Hebrew, who found a real problem to deal with, for man under Womanhood, built up a mighty status of multiplicity.

The Hebrews being a sect who first began to create by fire, but were placed into captivity by the Egyptians, that they could steal their Fiery Glory. For in them worshipping a godhead of the Starry heavens, had received of guidance, thereby learnt of the spirit, and thus became the Chosen Race.

The Egyptians laid a mighty foundation, but would not give up of the first-born, that in going up to the heights the for this mighty Race to escape, by the phenomenal wealth he took from the Egyptians. Whereby a state of new Growth began, as the magnetic and atomic blended, whence the wilderness of Rebirth was begun.

Yet really symbolical of all that would have to come about, when the soul was ready. Thus is now being put into operation in the rebirth of Vega, where the Race Elect are trying to free themselves from the states of captivity by the magnetic. With the Egyptians in the form of papalism and the desires of the depths ever holding them slaves in the depths. But now with Relativity as the saving Grace, and a Virgin of strong durability, all was set for the final accomplishment.

The Hebrews were, in their unfolding glory, a more Mystic sect than the Egyptians, for whereas the Egyptian priests were of the 'scientific' from an astronomical creation, the Hebrews were of the Mystical, for they bred the Scorpio priest. All from the action of ionising the spinal column, bringing forth the fired mind. Therefore the whole of the Old Testament gives forth of these mysteries, both greater and lesser, to all who can seek to find them.

Moses being a great Levi Mystic, with Aaron a performer of these mighty creations. The greatest mystery was of bringing forth of the Fatherhood, and the building up of the Temple, the glory of the soul, that FIRE could be activated into all unification, the mystery of Cosmic LOVE. The depth of this not only applies to actually creating of a place of Worship, where the mysteries could truly be per-conclusion of what he thought was truly worth while,—divinity or earth. But the REAL preparation of Scorpio creation was the infusion of the earth creation with the sperming LIFE of the Father. (See plate on page 3)

That which could be found as Law instruction in Leviticus, chapter 27, where the Vows of life were stated for all who would initiate themselves into true unfoldment of rebirth of the inert soul, into a Fired Flame of the mind. Which of course, was the transforming of the soul from Womanhood to Fatherhood, the mystery of Relativity.

RADIATING AS A SUN, A SOLAR SPARK FED FROM THE HEIGHTS. "THE IESUS WANTS ME AS A SUNBEAM," CAPTURED FROM ORTHODOXY IN ITS GREATER COMPREHENSION. THE EMBRACING OF DIVINITY, BUT SOUL KEEPING TO THEIR VOWS, ONCE THEY HAVE TRULY MADE THEM.

For both Egyptian and Hebrew knew of the priest who, in a sudden burst of exhilaration, would desire to enter into Holy Orders, then, when they found there was an extreme amount of hard work, that the taken glory could blossom forth, ran away or made themselves utterly evil, of a most disturbing nature. Thus going back upon that taken, bridging the gap by alchemicalisation, which lasts for a very long time.

The Sacred Union

IN the Egyptian Schools these souls were never seen again, for in taking the secrets of the Temple out and bandying them in a foul way, broke down the FACE, and damaged the chief Priest, who was not found every day. Thus they disposed of them, for they knew that their School or Temple was allotted unto the Supreme and was a sacred offering, therefore could not be violated by the ruthless and wanton.

They knew then, more than man does now, of the importance of the task they were carrying out,—the bringing into birth of the Mighty Cosmos, through the unseen Laws of LOVE. For the future to be born aright, and their Race to flourish, the prototype must be truly established, for the wealth of the future lay in their hands.

This was witnessed by the Great Powers, so when the Hebrews,—who held of the Race Elect that was going to rise up and down out of the waters until the Argo could make harbour,—began to prepare their most sacred move towards holy mind growth, this mighty decree was duly enacted and made the sacred ruling of initiation.

Man having to make sure that he was truly of an inward spiritual belief, for only by this could such penetrate, sanctify and transform the whole outward man into the glory of divinity. Thus here was where the Tribe of true Mystics was born, these souls being put through severe renunciations so that the greater could be achieved.

For by climbing up the ladder of unfoldment, the soul found unknown wonders that belonged only to the renouncing mortal who now could claim the Fiery glory, thereby finding the way to begin the search for the Holy Fatherhood. For the Unseen is the depths of the FIRE, the mystery of its inborn glory, which can only come to the man who seeks and takes it by rising frequency.

Man in his earthy state knows not the sacredness of union with Divinity; he deeply embedded in the flesh, knows not the glory of the union petuated, but the preparation of the soul as a sanctified being of FIRE, that all could be lifted up to Divinity, the manifestation of FIRE.

What Merope had just brought into birth by the aid of Relativity, was striven for a number of times by Kings, Prophets, Sages and Heroes. Yet what they experienced by the rebirth, Merope has suffered since; for all became as Law in the Bed of Og, with the soul ever striving to get the bed to fit him, more than he seeking to get himself fitted for the Bed.

But this was what man was learning to do, as the crocodile; getting experience that would bring him to a mind with those divine glories that are within the secret parts of the soul. Nor the divine wonder that comes through the sensitivity that becomes aware of this embracing glory.

THE BESTIAL STATE EVER OVER-RIDING ANY BEAUTY THAT COULD BE; HENCE THE SOUL IS LOST TO THE GLORY OF DIVINE SPIRITUAL UNION.

This Merope brought about, by Word declaring of its wonders, opening the mind of many to the greater truths, causing the lost and lonely to search all the deeper. Whereby Merope climbed the Ladder of Ascension in unification, through the sacred glory of Faith and Belief. Hence she led a whole Race into this heavenly embracement, when the old regime had failed and the pseudo-sect became merely money-making despots.

The man who beholds Divinity does not slaughter, murder and kill to obtain of his earthy possessions, but obtains mastery by the way of true knighthood and priesthood. This being the conquest over matter, gaining all by dint of mind endurance and the union with the glory of the spirit. The true man would understand that all souls were a part of the Divinity, and had to be returned back, through elevated wealth, to that mighty Godhead.

For that is the Magnitude that is building up, to become the next creation of expansion. Therefore as a priest, his mission was to succour, raise up and administer wisdom of the manifesting Divinity, mastering by the golden glory of the gathered FIRE and the wisdom of the accrued mind. Yet again, this did not augur of weakness of sentimental righteousness. The taking of the trophy of the Altar would come by right of Power gained, through mastery.

Hence Merope taking over of all old status of wisdom, for she declared it in the heavens, and the Cosmos heralded of her Works. All this was the basic of Scorpio being brought forth, for here is the depth of mysticism, accrued in the Unseen's glory to manifest forth. The mighty Incas and Aztecs as Sun worshippers, the sacred Priesthood of Ankhor Thom, and many others whose wealth lies in the depths of their priesthood, were all those who had given by belief, and chosen from the mastery of possibility.

The Mystery of Renunciation

MEDO-PERSIA tried another road, but found they could not capture the spirit, through not carrying the expansion up to Neptune, through renunciation. For without this, the union between the Bull and the Scorpion was not accomplished, it lacking the Seed rebirth. Here we see how these mighty Powers were just awaiting the opportunity of embracement with soul, for man was fully infiltrated, but to get his positive nature to respond was the mystery of the hour.

Hence the moment was here, but every man was his own priest, with those deeply impregnated with these Holy beliefs, ready and prepared to lead the soul by the founded glory of his risen-up sensitivity. This was Merope's LOVE of humanity, she being born of these mighty depths, whereby she knew the full secret of Cosmogonical unification. Those who knew not of this mighty embracement would ridicule, thereby create for themselves hooks and cords that they would find difficult to undo as the Gordian Knot.

That is, the fire twisted and deeply embedded with the red dye of the earth.

In our unification of divine embracement, we have not brought forth of Greece, who played a notable part in the production towards the Fatherhood. Here we find gods and goddesses in abundance, but no true Divinity. All here was of the dialectic and not the inward growth of the spirit. Hence the Fatherhood as the positive glory of birth was not established, and the union had not embraced the glory of truth.

offer of sheep and goats. Thus the soul must kill off these states by turning-them-in by mortuary meal, found by the comprehension of the Word. Then as he looks Northwards he sprinkles the blood around the altar as the measure and depth of his experience and renunciation.

Then the Fatherhood can begin to manifest through the glory of the son, as these states are shed. For all is within the soul itself, and as it makes of these renunciations, does the Scorpio was built up, thereby perpetuating him with Fire. For the beauties and wonders of this true mystical glory were deep and intense, and the priest born of the mighty Levi strain, was of those intricate depths of the risen kundalini Fire, and unfolding through and by renunciation.

It was the Ram with all the fulness of abundance, that had been raised up as mind glory, yet one still holding powers from the past which had never been deteriorated or ravaged, but nurtured and brought forth in priesthood. Thus offered in

They had set nought between holy and unholy, and reviled the Holy name of God. It was of these mighty powers that were with them that made this priestal mystical power so mighty, and yet so open to become uncovered, as duly seen unto Noah.

This is where we begin to see the depths of FIRE and its many attributes, for we see how the Hindus had their fire taken from some previous offering, while the Greeks gathered of their fire by setting light to Ilium when they invaded to retrieve of their beautiful Helen. She who had gone to find Paris, the divine fire of Neptune, that she could dance with his divine beauty. For the Greeks could only offer of dialectic argument, yet ever building up of no heavenly fire.

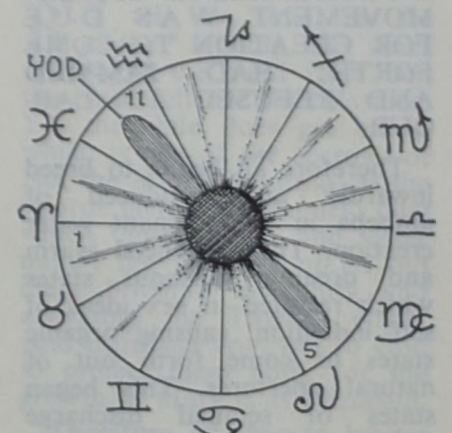

Hence their resorting to war to reinstate their manhood, not knowing of the glory of the LORD. Then the Romans had their ever-burning Fire in the Temple of their Goddess Vesta, and whose worship consisted chiefly in the preservation of this very mighty fire. But here we see and comprehend more clearly that of Moses and seventy elders who had seen the glory of the LORD and went up onto a high mountain.

All had been consecrated to the Divinity; therefore Moses and his brothers offered up of Infinite Love to that mighty ONE of the Heights. But Aaron's sons, who were true Scorpionic Priests, had failed to observe this mighty holy truism and had awakened the righteous indignation of Moses. But like Merope, who also suffered much under this instilled misdemeanour, it made the way extremely difficult.

But Merope had suffered more from the gangs of the heart, she being the Priestess bringing LOVE of the Cosmos, to be born in the depths. Yet like Moses, went on and on, hoping that she too would be able to level out the evils committed by these ignorant ones to her most sacred creation. But here again, we find in Leviticus, chapter 3, of the horror of leprosy, set into being by those who had failed to observe the laws of rebirth.

But then, there is no greater physician than Scorpio, but one open to suffer from disease through inundation, but no more than the ravaging of this sacred Fire, the force and volume being so mighty and direct. Hence the soul had much to learn and much to control, but was highly privileged when once the truth became the might and wealth of his conscious mind.

But up to the present, man's only understanding was as the butchers of Crete, the true physician being where the spirit is administered as the great wealth of the Orion Man coming forth in the ionising of the Yod in the 5th...

... to the 11th, the raised-up Solar atomic glory. But not to the soul who had used the fire for his own ends, thus left without fire and ready to eat up all others, especially the beauty of the Virgin. Thus Scorpio in its mighty mystical grace could be prone to that which is known as unto the king's evil.

REALITY

THE moment comes when we know it not, and then the testing of the heart is found—either alight or with no oil. By this we also know ourselves, and are amazed at the darkness we are in through not trimming the wick at the appointed hour. (See text on page 10).

It was of all this that Merope's task had become, where she had to embrace all Elements by climbing the lower five, to live up in the Temple of the lord, the glory of her own mind. Thus bringing into birth her internal glory, the holy Soma of heavenly divinity.

The whole of Leviticus, the Book of Vows to the Hebrews, and the last expectant Race, was given over to these mystical depths which were awaiting one spiritually attuned for the task. The drawing down of the Powers of Divinity through the Vau-ye-krau of "He that called," where the burnt offering was fully understood.

The soul ascending in flame to the God, that of the holocaust, with the burning up of one's earthy self, as the Fire of the Element was taken and it consumed you into its becoming. The reference to certain parts of the beast that were fired, were the organs of the soul that would have to take of the embracement, thereby the soul making an offering of fire unto the Divinity, but of a sweet savour.

For the soul had so much to cleanse, prepare, and then next state open up and begin the metric glory towards the rebirth. This really is the sin offering; in fact, the soul has awakened and is ready to renounce.

Hence the Bull is taken up to the gates where renunciation must be made; then, by the turn of a coin, the decision is clinched, and the way made therein. For it is only through soul that such manifestation could be made, he being the recipient of mind and spirit through the holy Sperm, the glory of heavenly Being.

This mystery of renunciation was not only deep, but sacred and real, whereby certain actions were declared as freedom and many a mistake was partaken through ignorance. For the fineness of adjustment is minute, and warrants no mistake or lacking of action. Thus the sacrifice of the tail to the Lord, was not in as much as he wished to give, but he must give all, right up to the rump; then it was no mean offering for the altar of the mighty Divinity.

Thus, with such glories being revealed, we see that it was Moses who consecrated Aaron and his sons, and the REAL true mystical Priesthood of adoration to the LORD, and being impelled into the LAMB, white as driven snow.

The preparation and going forward of the soul, never turning from left to right, but ever eating the new food offered unto him, unfolding and expanding by heavenly glory into the next dimension. It was by this that the Fire came down from the Source of the Divinity, onto the Altar of the LORD. The Fire created through the ionising of Scorpio and Taurus in the raised-up phenomenal wealth of Orion; at the present only as Fire, and yet to manifest as Neptune, through the liquor sanguinis.

The Glorified Manhood

BUT here we meet of Nadab and Abihu, who in making offering, made it for a strange fire, and are burnt by the true Holy Fire. Whereby Moses forbids anyone to mourn for them, but learn and inwardly digest. For they were guilty of sacrilege, and would be as 'moon in Scorpio'; for to gratify their thirst for strong drink they took the wine of the drink offering and prostituted it to the worst possible end, and awaited the Lord at the altar.

ATLANTIS

The Matriarchate Mystery with its Sequel in Aquarius

by Gladys I. Spearman-Cook

MANY HAVE MADE ATTEMPT TO TRY AND PENETRATE INTO THE depths of the past, but today have abandoned the search, for the ancient Seed of many has withered, and man seeks as he did in Atlantis, ever without. Hence the Seed of life no longer germinates and all is remaining in the Feminine state of breeding, but of non-directional creation.

The World of Abyss

ONCE upon a time there existed a world rich and full, so magnificent and prolific, that all was becoming stagnant and malignant, for when all is in abundance man loses his urge to produce and create. This was the Matriarchate period when the Age of Cancer was coming into birth, and new life must come forth. It was when all had been under the ruling and care of the Old Mother and the Goddess Bast. Not evil as many think, but a time of birth, for the Patriarchate Age had not begun, where the Father had been born within the soul. So it was quite a natural occurrence, but turned into stagnancy through the filling of the Vase and no state of further production.

(See plate on this page)

For man to try and perceive of life before it took on form, as man is aware of form, is to the majority beyond their capacity of conception, for man ever lives in the waters of life as emotional creation. To produce is to find direction, and that is not of man made purpose but Hierarchical created direction, whereby new belief brings friction and argument with change.

The luna state which we are still wrestling with, began as the Atlantean heritage when life was seeking to find direction, yet refused to move out of the inbirth of Water creation that had taken place as the birth of the emotional plane. The Womb as Abyss was becoming "comfortable and warm," thus breeding inertia, and the creation as Virgin states, were construing to find the way to become without undue effort to bring forth. For luxury and plenty had blunted the sight, and God and Beginning was lost to view.

God the Logos was now complete as that Begotten in Cosmic creation as the Macrocosm, and now microcosm must continue, for here was the Fullness awaiting the microcosmic movement to produce in the new directional purpose. But that purpose could not come forth while creation was so intent upon its own narcissus state of self, for the new Seed of Thought could not penetrate in true and hopeful capacity.

But the Seed must be sown; therefore Fire entered the Waters and man was struck and inborn on another plane of reconstruction. But what was received penetrated deeply, for man was not ready to embrace, thus all entered into non-resistant waters and fury began to breed.

SOUL CREATION HAD BEEN RECEIVING OF THE FOURTH HIERARCHIAL INFLOW. BUT WHEN MOVEMENT WAS DUE FOR CREATION TO COME FORTH, HAD JAMMED AND REFUSED TO LABOUR.

Therefore all began to breed inwardly and produced of amoeba in the stagnant water creation. This produced warm and dreamy sensuous states which resulted in sex ideas of self induction, causing organic states to come forth out of natural apertures. This began states of seminal discharge through the sensuous ideas, and was the foundation of all disease. "I have slain a man to my wounding, and a young man to my hurt" (Gen. 4 v. 23). I have destroyed my manhood through wrong creations and to the hurt of human life, for all these personages represent Cosmic creation through cosmic birth.

These now as introvert creation and no outward expansion,

BAST

THE royal Elements of life in their feminine approach, now coming forth as Helios, the light of mind unfoldment. For it was by the absorption of these Elements, and the passional glories stirring, that radiation began upon the earth, and light broke through. This was the first transformation of the Atom into light, which was the journey of the soul as the human race. (See text in col. 1).

began to produce monster creations, things entirely out of context, for form is earth and non-form is abstract; thus the greater the form, the more is man coming away from the non-form of Spirit, his rightful heritage. Therefore it was the time when new Seed was to be implanted and new life to come into birth. But what was that new life? Which way did it go? For the turn was great and it meant complete new direction.

THE WOMB OR ABYSS SYMBOLISES THE DARK AND DEEP VALLEY OF EXPERIENCE, THAT WHICH BRINGS FORTH OF LIGHT AND NEW CREATIONS, YET OLD AND INTENSE, FOR ATLANTIS AS THE WORLD OF THE VIRGIN ESSENCE, WAS THE FOUNDER OF THE MATRIARCHATE THAT DOMINATED EXISTENCE WHEN IT WAS IN ITS PRIME; THE GREAT OLD MOTHER.

THIS WAS THE PERIOD OF THE AMAZON WOMAN, BUT TO SEE THE FULL AND TRUE DEPTH OF THIS CREATION, NO FORM AS GENDER MUST BE VISUALIZED.

The Lunar period was when the Moon ruled the world and not the Sun as life giver, then the luna creation was virgin, and although of the duad, was of one specie as sex, for generation had not begun as man knows generation today. Incarnation was as a drop into lower plane existence from a higher plane, for man was not as yet in a solid form.

The body as it is today has developed since; so we can only wonder what tomorrow is going to bring. But as one specie there was no excitement to embrace, hence congestion took place on the path of Destiny and this needed a new theme. So the next form was of the embracement, but not form to form, but man to God; the Logos formed in the Waters of the Firmament, for it is the spirit as soul that is the creation, not the flesh.

Many myths have been created around this period, even to the extent of the belief of the Great Cat by the Clan of Sutherland, and the Totemism of Motherhood as the Mirror of the Mythos. The building up of time within the soul making man as soul the essence of the Logos, the basic of the Intelligencia.

The Virgin Neith as the Vulture and Isis as the red Heifer become the wool and the weave of the soul structure; in the Scriptures Mary and Martha with Paul, so it is the female that became the Frog who croaked and spermed forth of life, with the Great Mother who brought forth of the God Mars. The seductive elements of Nature, with the Feminine Principle that brought forth the Force in the elements. In man, as the emotional states that, through his own feminine principle, bring forth the will as the Godhead.

IT IS THIS GROWTH OF THE FEMININE ESSENCE THAT NURTURES TIME INTO BEING, EVEN THOUGH THE FATHERHOOD AS GOD IS NOW CREATED; BUT THERE WAS A TIME WHEN ONLY THE OLD MOTHER STATE EXISTED, THE TIME OF ATLANTIS.

From that period Lilith, the last of the Virgin Goddesses came forth, as the ancient Amazons, from whose Queen, Hercules wrested his wealth. This in its mystery, as indeed it has been down the ages, was that of the Feminine creation filled to capacity and waiting to spew forth, but womb-bound in strength and refusing to change and produce. This putrefied, and broke forth through inward warmth creating out of itself, as seen of Atlantis, and only produced mortified creatures, more animal than men.

The Great Fatherhood

TO understand this wisdom, man must realise that the world then was not as it is today, for all is evolution, and as all was once rock and not soil, so once the creation was of far less solid matter than we realise.

At that time the creating faculty was the old Mother Nature, but now with the Solar light to generate; then it was the Matriarchate, or Great Feminine Principle, that held all under her jurisdiction, and as the queen in the hive she reigned as productive creation, but only produced of a self state and not of mind as the selfless state intended by destiny.

This was evolution having reached an important junction whereby it was ready to begin its return, but could not perceive the journey intended, therefore reigned with introvert growth of self importance as luna Feminine induction that produced no child of wealth, and the Seed withered and died. What should have come forth as mind birth of enlightenment, which would have started generation in its true capacity, became abnormal in its birth, and was born through desire and not mind unity between Spirit and matter.

This in Mythology is seen as the Old Harlot in the Book of Revelations, that partook of her cup of fornication and at a later time both Sut and Horus, the lower and higher mind, were denounced as "violators of their Mother." When Isis uttered the cry and found of no "Crocodile" to eat up of that produced so as to further produce, Horus violated his Mother, but it was the Mother who effected the Act of Salvation by refusing incestuous intercourse whether of uterine or Totem.

This is far deeper than man thinks and belongs to Mother Nature, for it is she that man is ever raping and forcing into hell by his evil contentions, of which he feeds her therewith. Thus in the mirror of life Egyptian wisdom is mirroring of today's human promiscuity, and was of a time when the Great Mother's own Sons were her consorts.

For they were the real works of time when men laboured as sages and revealed to Mother Nature her wonders. A time when brother and sister consorted, as did Shu and Tefnut, Water and Air, or emotions bringing forth of mind, but who was to blame.

Life opened up that way and man knew not which way he was going, so he produced generation out of the warmth of the sensuous that came through introversion instead of extroversion. It is here the great mystery of mother and son as blood context of consort is to be found, for within the mother the whole of the blood line goes forth, which she hands to the son and he brings it forth.

THE DEPTH OF THIS MYSTERY LIES IN THE SECRET THAT ADAM, IN NOT BEING ABLE TO BRING SEED INTO BIRTH FROM THE MATRIARCHATE AGE OF HIS SON AS MIND, WAS FORCED TO PRODUCE FROM HIS OWN SIDE A FEMININE PRIN-

PIECE THAT COULD BRING FORTH A GOD-HEAD.

She became as the Tempter, and via metabolism of Spirit to matter, produced Eve. This was Mother Nature who began the hard task of producing, and chaos and calamity ensued. Creation broke loose as Fire struck the depth, water deluged and death reigned; volcanoes spewed forth and rocks cleaved asunder. Nature was reforming her bed for the incest that she would now be forced to receive.

The first production was of animal-man, those who grovelled in desire, and in their abnormality produced satyrs and marsyas, until Bacchus came forth to labour for mind growth through treading of the grapes to produce the wine of life. This he must do until mind comes forth to wrestle as Hercules for his lost wealth; the christed mind of enlightenment. This was the strength of the girdle, as the tail of the animal became the birth of the womb. The virgin's mystery of the immaculate conception as mind born from the density; for man has had to return to "Beginning" to find the lost wealth.

All this to man today now sounds absurd and obscene, yet he is the reflection of it, for what was only abnormal in its beginning, has now become of the corrupt. Therefore man is completely imbued with the mode of creation he put into operation through the virgin becoming Lilith the Harlot. As the duad of mind took over, it was eventually seen as the two ancestresses, Leo as beginning as Matriarchate, and Cancer as the Mother Harlot, because man cannot lose what he was created from, but it became more tangible as mind became more lucid regarding Nature and her purpose.

They were comprehended as Mother and Sister in Isis and Nephthys, Demeter and Persephone, and Osiris, the Great Father, married both. These were the Duad of Feminine Principle known as Empress and Priestess, yet are a duad state of one where Lilith and Mary will emerge.

Osiris as the Great Fatherhood with his two wives, those of the Matriarchate creation, receiving the blood of his Sister Eve, and in return aiding and reforming her. Eventually it became as Isis grew; as Isis the Virgin and Nephthys the Nurse, while according to Jewish legends Adam had two wives Lilith and Chavvah.

Adam was the first old genitrix of gods and men, and Mother of beginnings in three of her mythical characters. Yet man has to realise that these are Nature's Forces put into creation through his mind, states of imaginary belief of real Powers and Forces shaping and moulding the Universe.

Gestation of the Saviour

MAN today has three of the Powers in the three Marys ever at the tomb of rebirth, Aries, Cancer and Virgo. The three feminine states that bring forth of his mind as Time rebirth in the duad of Leo and Cancer. Astronomical forces that are the life force bringing forth the man out of the stone and tree, the two lower Kingdoms into the animal that is now emerging into man.

These two forces are of the Sun and Moon blending in inter-marriage, where the Christos Light will burst through as his mind of buddhic awareness. But in the duad of mind activity, one is the tempter, she who lusts until she can retrieve and produce the mind child in all its purity and beauty in the womb of Virgo, the intuitive mind.

This is man's crucifixion as he labours from the sixth to the ninth as "hours" in the Holy Scripts, and "houses" in the Royal Astrological wisdom. This is the hill of Golgotha, or field of Skulls, as Virgo the mother, yet sister and wife creation, helps him to become born.

FOR HIM TO BE BORN IS THE SPIRIT AS CHRISTOS, THE SOLAR FIRE TO BECOME THE LIGHT OF THE MIND, AND IS THE MYSTERY OF HUMANITY AS THE CURSE, YET OF THE SAVIOUR.

Man was never intended to come forth in body of solidified flesh, that which now produces sickness and disease. And if this can be seen as creation and not form in its evolutionary march, it will bring some intensity of wisdom. Gender came after Atlantis, for all was as one specie, and when Asia the Fiery Atom appeared unto Azta the earth Mother, she cried with amazement.

Cosmos. That to be born in all men as it came forth through the man Paul, and recalled as Acts and Epistles in the later Scriptures.

The doctrine of divinity was based upon the Egyptian Pharaoh as the father and heir-apparent as son, the ever coming king in the person of the soul. This messu was the root of the Messiah by nature and by name; but the prince of Ethiopia as the messu, or black creation within the soul yet to become white. While the Messiah is Iu the son coming forth as the Christos promise within the aspiring soul.

In mythology the Horus as the Iu is reborn each year, showing that the god never dies, but is ever coming forth in the soul creation. It is seen in the ever changing moon being born anew, the sun rising and setting in the soul's own phenomenon. The Pharaoh transforms into his own son, and the manifestor as Atum into Iu-em-hetep; or Jacob into Joseph who becomes eventually Jesus.

but termed now as the anti-christ where no Father Seed is being accepted, and man is creating monsters and evil out of his own generative desire. The prophecy made by many in the past as they laboured to bring forth of the Embodiment afforded unto them in their times of stress and struggle.

The Virgin Mother was the Matriarchate, or the luna creation as feminine soul state only. A time when no fatherhood had made appearance in the soul creation, and in the Temple of Neith would be declared by priestal guidance that she proceeded from herself and bore the child without her peplum being lifted by the male.

This is the mind growth coming forth via the Venus creation of the soul; the harlot who becomes the risen Venus out of the waters, or Mercury the mind rising from the reformed desires. It reflects the Matriarchal state from a time when the fatherhood was not yet individualized in the soul, but when so, becomes the mother as Mary carrying the child in her womb as intuitive mind, to rise yet farther as the Virgin bringing forth the Christed child as Buddhic mind.

But ever is she as Eve who never really holds the child in her arms, but in her person as the deliberator and of the heir apparent who never dies. And yet he becomes the child who fecundates his own mother.

Unless this is seen as the birth of the mind-child, as light within the womb of ever becoming, it will not be comprehended; but once followed in that light will bear out the words as they convey the mystical depth, and the soul will leap into awareness.

FOR UNTIL MAN UNDERSTANDS THE GROWTH OF THE MIND AND HOW HE IS ONLY THAT MIND, WILL HE ACCORDING TO HIS ENDEAVOURS BRING FORTH, AND TURN FROM WAYS THAT BE OF THE SODDEN EARTH, AND WHICH IS DESTROYING THE LIGHT AFFORDED UNTO HIM IN THE MYSTICAL MARRIAGE.

The material comes to man as Breath, and he must weave and extract from these unseen Powers their message, yet only man with the cunning of the mind can delve and bring forth out of the hidden waters the great wealth that lies unformed. And the Great Mother cries,

"I AM IUSSAS-HATHOR THE MOTHER OF THE COMING SON, HE WHO EMANATES FROM THE SOUL AS A DOVE".

Mind comprehension that flies up to the heavens as aspiration to become one with the Starry creation. The soul's contribution to the Divine Logos that gave unto it of the Breath. The microcosm is risen as the mother or mind born of yet greater light, while the Macrocosm on receiving of the light, sends forth to the world of yet more qualified air.

The Unification of Polarities

THIS knowledge was the doctrine of Egypt, the dual Horus born of Isis the virgin who ever hands unto Pharaoh, the father of the soul, the coming wealth where it becomes divided between the two thieves, the upper and lower mind. But as she rises and becomes more divine in mind growth and purity of thought, the child grows and becomes the usurper of the throne, then finally the rightful King.

The mind becomes as one living ever in the heights yet the fathomer of the depths that are still unknown to the world. This will explain why the child at the age of twelve leaves the parents and begins about the father's business. Twelve being the induction and establishment of the Hierarchical Embodiment under the twelve Orders of the Zodiac, while now the polarities begin.

This is the labouring where complete unity is obtained in the 144,000 to be saved, for there are 144 polarities to be united between the twenty-four Elders on three worlds of creation by the mind-labouring of the soul; Water, Air and Spirit.

In the suckling, Horus is nursed in the marshes of Amenta, the lower Egypt of the mythos, the papyrus swamps, or man's emotional waters. This is seen as the continual flight into Egypt, for as soon as the child is born again, she is warned to go forth with the mysterious message "Out of Egypt did I call my son." (Matt. 2 v. 13, 16).

The soul as it becomes newly born must delve into that which will help it to become of new breath, and be drawn up as wisdom fully interpenetrated. As the young Horus is born, it is contended for by the evil Sut, and the mother who is Venus risen as mind by Mercury, is warned to hide the child until its limbs wax strong.

THIS IS THE SOUL ENTRUSTED WITH THE NEW THOUGHT AND BELIEF INTO WHICH IT MUST LABOUR AND DELVE, AND HELP THAT STILL IN ITS BEGINNING, TO BECOME OF PRACTICAL APPLICATION UNTO ALL MEN.

But there must be the labouring and crucifixion, that the child to be born will become strongly ensconced. The wisdom of this can be seen in the treatise on the Mysteries, as how Proserpina as the Psyche in the hands of Martha the labourer, must go down into the depths, while Mary, the duad of the labouring and waking mind, holds the child of light as he becomes strong through the labours.

These two mothers are the two stanchions of the porch of the temple of the soul; Gemini, those that are bending to become the complete circumference of Pisces in the passover. But in the process are as Gemini and Sagittarius in the magnetic unity of mind creation, with Cancer and Virgo, in the delving and coming forth, to be attended by the power of the two lions Shu and Tefnut in the house of karma.

Mystery of Persephone

BUT all this time, as the mother labours she seeks to protect the child from Sut, the black self not yet reformed. Yet the child does get bitten, which is one of the sorrows of Isis, the Mater Dolorosa, as the swords pierce the thoracic duct which unites higher and lower mind; the breaking up of old ideas bringing the unity and activating the Thymus gland. And Elizabeth cries out to God to protect them both, for the growth of Mary is as Elizabeth.

Therefore Isis has to labour to withdraw the swords, and he, the son as mind light, goes on drinking the sacred liquor of experience through mind perception. But Isis carries the cross in that she heals the child through wisdom by drawing in now more of the Solar light. But all took place as she was about to go down into Egypt and merge into the

WHEN man awakens to the fact that all these simplicities are true, then he will find the real answer to the basic of life, and link it up with the present day creation of action. For once upon a time when man knew not the way of going, he sent forth trepidity into the depths, surging all with waters from the plane of liquefied reimbursement. (See text in col. 1).

"What is love, if you knoweth not, why expect me?"

And trial and error ensued which sowed the seeds of disease and disaster, to follow at the polarity, Aquarius, when the prototype was due to repeat itself in relativity. Thus today it produces of promiscuity and homosexuality until there can begin a stream of Elect, or seekers after truth, to start the path as the seed of androgyneity. The mystery of mind birth as viewed from afar, as man gains approach in every round of his zodiacal turn.

The mystery made its turn as Abraham stepped forth from Ur, the valley of plenty and richness, to begin of the journey of generation. This was the beginning of Scriptural History as the gestation of the Saviour as Christos Light to burst forth in the heavens, or

For as Cosmos has created must man follow as prototype of Hierarchical embodiment takes place daily. But all represent stages which come forth from beginning, and of which man is ever repeating in bringing forth old states that have never grown. Each one receiving attention and needing man's labour and suffering to master. But according to the Rock created, will man stand secure as he re-creates.

Birth of the Light

NOW Motherhood must return as the Virgin reborn into her true capacity, and literally must nurture man into his rightful birth through LOVE, that the wisdom of androgyneity can begin its march of TIME. For man in the Aquarian Age has returned into the same congested state, nesting box, special seed, lettuce, and even another looking glass, but still they refuse to lay one single egg. They just preen their feathers, peck at one another, then turn their backs upon us all as much as to say, "These things are not made to order." Perhaps An An is more Russian than we think, and refuses to mate with anything more intelligent than himself.

After wandering off course for a bit, I come back again to the reminiscence, and I think of the American reader who wrote and said, "Illustrious One," and the young African who said, "We cannot send you any money, but we would like some of your Gazettes."

Then with a certain amount of inflated pride, I tried to think a little harder of what I can write about to help everybody in their studies. Then my mind wanders off again, and I go back over years, and I think of a fat-faced little girl, living in a poverty-stricken peaceful world, who could never do anything right. Then again, this time, with a large amount of EGO, I think to myself, "well! who would have believed then, that people would want me to write for them."

Then, as I do so, I shamefacedly think of how I will persist with my Spirit friends, that I write my own reminiscence, when they declare that it is their Paper and their right. But I am afraid I am still stubborn; or do they really win over me, and write their will through my mind? I wonder.

Then after all that running wild, suddenly before me appeared a big fat juicy orange, and as much as I have not been successful in really finding a sweet well-ripened orange, I knew with joy of what I was being advised. Write about how to become Solar born, the most important item in the immediate future. For without such, the soul will not get free from gravity, and that means "captivity in Babylon."

The Continuity of Life

TO understand this completely, the soul must fully believe in reincarnation, life after death which is the true life, and thirdly, that man as a soul growth is fed and nourished only by the inflowing ethers, the atomic atoms of the Higher Powers. A Galactical inflow of divine glory that is ever giving to the soul the wherewithal to grow, evolve and become.

WHAT MANY HAVE REFERRED TO AS THE "BLOOD OF THE CHRIST DYING TO SAVE THE WORLD," IS REALLY THE SOLAR SPECTRUM FEEDING THE SOUL, AND "DYING" WITHIN THE METABOLISING GROWTH OF THE SOUL.

But fortunately, by now there are not many REAL thinking individuals who are any longer being led up the garden path by religion and its trumpery of easy money making bigotry. The future world is only for those who have become Solar born, and embraced into the glory of Atomic Virgin rebirth. But as I go on, there is one thing I must truly observe, and that is to make this as simple as possible, so that it will not appear impossible to many

SOLAR BORN

ONCE AGAIN I HEAR A GENTLE BUT FIRM voice, reminding me it is time for next month's reminiscence. Then with a mind that darts off in all directions, I think of sealing wax, cabbages and kings. Then my mind darted off to An An and Chi Chi, and with a revolting glare I snorted, for nothing aggravates me more, than to think of numbers of "so-called" scientists or zoologists standing gaping at the two creatures, waiting for them to perform their marital embrace. No wonder they refuse! Then with a woman's usual curiosity, I secretly think, "I wonder which one is to blame." While shamefacedly I think of the two budgerigars we have, for whom we bought a who are most anxious to try and accomplish.

For it does not mean any form of religious piousness or righteousness to bring this into birth. But REAL belief in a Divine Cause, and a Divine MIND that now rules the Universe as a Theocratic Glory.

After all, man has proved what a mess he has made of things, and secondly, this is not really man's concern, but COSMIC. Where man is privileged to take on of individual consciousness to help the Great Unseen Inaudible Magnitude manifest through his soul growth, as the Mighty Fatherhood in the Abyss.

Do not doubt that man did FALL, but a better understanding of it would help. By Falling it means, that in man descending in his conscious comprehensive growth, he lowered his mind frequency down into deeper thought. As he did so, he built up his organic unfoldment, which would be the deeper thought. He had to gain some idea, as well as urge into birth of a broiling alchemical creation that would produce of a mind. Hence he was thinking into a depth far out of the reach of a god who lived still with the Face of his Divinity before him.

Thus it can be seen, that the descent of the Planes is really the seven Chakra descent down the spine, with the soul being fed by the Elements. Here he built all his organic structure, but not his internal bodies, they were to follow. Then as soul reached base, he refused to move, thus a further inflow of FIRE was brought down by Merope, a Goddess brought forth from Venus to fire the gods into action. This was Mars, but at the time as the Holy Fire, which set the generative process into active motion.

This unfortunately produced sensation and not sensitivity, and soul fell another seven parasangs deep into desire. Thus fell back into the lunar waters of Cancer, which remained as a Plane ever since. He should have gone forward into the mind intuitive unfoldment of Virgo the Virgin, and the Mind Plane would have started to come forth, with the Fire of Mars firing the waters into AIR.

THIS HAS SINCE BEEN THE TASK OF MEROPE, BUT NOW AS THE ATOMIC PLANE OF MIND.

Hence, through his mistake, soul as man wandered round and round in multiplicity, slowly besmirching the heavenly Fire that was entrusted into his care. Then Shamash, the Ancient of Days, fell into the depths, and became as Saturn, with ten rings of sulphuric gases around him. Thus for the time, the Emerald became lost in the magnetic depths, and solid rock as meteorite cooled possibility, built up a world of density.

lunar waters, where his physical body had now hardened, and was beginning to rot with disease.

For by now, he had given birth to six inner bodies, through which he was receiving his sustenance, for he could not absorb his nourishment of Outer World Breath direct. How man and woman received the curse at the beginning of TIME, I have already gone into before, but it was this that made me think very deeply of what could be done to retrieve woman, for so many would never have found a way out, —now they can.

Thus these inner bodies are consistent in the bloodstream

MAGNITUDE AS A GLORY BEGOTTEN; THE LIGHT AND ASPIRATION SENT UP TO THE HEIGHTS THROUGH THE ASPIRATIONAL BELIEF OF MAN.

For once upon a time there was no light in the world, through man having fallen from Spirit into matter, so he had to start building up a completely new world of light, through his own mind thought and belief. This Helios did and brought divine aspirational light to early Egypt. This is why we see the Egyptians bowing to Ra the Solar orb in adoration belief, with the Bull as their national image of the Godhead.

When this is seen in its right light, there is much sense, for the Bull represents the active fighter to capture the new Seed of life, while Ra was the Heavenly Blood that was the means of the Ethers or Breath producing that Seed.

THEIR ONLY DIFFICULTY WAS, THEY REFUSED TO SEND FORTH OF THE FIRST-BORN TO GO UP TO THE HEIGHTS, AND BECOME THE GLORY OF THE EVER GROWING FATHERHOOD.

The first-born being the wealth of the past round becoming the glory of the mind, and going up to the heights in crucifixion of experience and struggle, that the gods could become born in the meninges as the Theocratic Consciousness. With eventually the Divine Presence, as the FACE of the Heavenly Deity, being born on the Arc of the soul.

This is seen quite clearly in the Odyssey, but in Ulysses getting up to the heights, he only found a Polyphemus, a one-eyed giant. This being Homer's experience, which indicates he had not found of the truth of the Spirit, or had any faith in the Glory of the Heavenly Divinities, so the time was not ready.

IT WAS NO USE UNTIL THERE WAS SOMEONE READY TO RAISE THE HOLY FIRE UP FROM THE DEPTHS TO THE HEIGHTS, BACK TO ITS TRUE HEAVENLY GLORY IN MAN'S MIND. FOR THE SEMINAL WATERS ARE THE HOLY FIRE, AND ARE THE DIVINE "IT" OF THE FIRE, THE HOLY GLORY OF THE LOST BEAUTY OF LIFE.

This I have ever believed, for in bringing down of the Fire, I knew of its origin. Thus by my belief, I raised up the Holy Fire back to the Central Sun, which made the Holy Waters more sacred than ever. Then the Central Sun and Scorpio became ONE, with the earth becoming infused with the glory of FIRE, and the generative waters of man becoming infused with the depths of the Central Sun. This is what is puzzling the scientists so much, for I am the only one who really knows why these Rays and Fires are coming to the earth.

THE GODDESS

WITH all seven chakras alight with glory, the uraeus came forth in divinity. Thus she drew down the Holy Fire into the depths, to raise man up to the heights. Thereby Mars became the Holy infiltration and gave birth to the glory of sensitised unfoldment that was to bring the Mind Plane into birth. (See text in col. 2).

Thus here we stand, bewildered and lost, completely cut off from Divinity by a religion that professed to keep us securely embraced to His Holy Glory. It was only when I as Merope, believed that that was not the end, that I sought into these depths and began to perceive a clearing in the darkness.

But as I sought, I found that it entailed much that had to be embraced; that which would cut me off from all that I had known as so-called human friendship. For friends started to desert me; my family, both personal and genealogical, did the same, but I was determined to go on.

But as time pursued, I could fully understand why, for having brought down the first flood of Fire, I was responsible for it and had to retrieve it, and place it back onto its rightful glory of the Arc. Man had to be retrieved out of the and glandular system, particularly the endocrine chain and the glands round the tail of the spine. But all for the time being, completely of the magnetic and lunar, with none of the Solar; that is a rarity. For to become of that radiant magnitude, the soul must have brought Uranus and Neptune into active ionisation within their glandular action.

The Lost Beauty of the Mind

THE Solar Glory is daily trying to enter the bloodstream of mankind, but they are so enamoured with false stimulants and animal food, it automatically destroys the Spirit in the Solar Blood as soon as it enters. This applies very much to nicotine and alcohol, they being of a complete opposition.

SO NOW, HAVING PREPARED THE GROUND, THE NEXT MOVE IS TO PERCEIVE THE SOLAR

Fulfilment of the Occult Law

THE basic of this, lies with my son who brought this instruction into birth, and handed it to me to fructify into action. This I did, but the one who received the injunction to break up the INERTIA of the earth, ran away and left me to try and carry out the heavenly instructions on my own.

Sooner than fail as he had done, I struggled on, with the Heavenly Master telling me he would be my guiding BULL, although he would in time find me a physical son who would help me to carry the load. For the whole of the Race depended on my seeing it through; but apart from that, I knew the results that would last for ever and a day, if I failed to carry out what had been earthed.

I know the Occult Laws, for I set them into motion at the beginning of TIME, and knew it was better to die in harness, than be a fallen Phaeton that had turned black.

Well the Master did find me a son, in fact two or three who are striving to help me to earth all my inner wealth, that all can be well established into matter. Even though there are many cowards who strive to say I will never make it. Well! I will not be the first one who believed in a greater cause, and gave up all that this could be earthed for the good of all.

It is much better to die this way, than be a coward grovelling after money and food that anchors you to gravity.

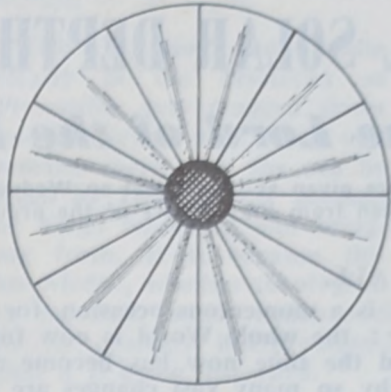

So believing in what the Master declared was right, I began by unifying all the wisdom of the past with the present, and spinning up the unification into polarisation, in exactly the same way as I have polarised the Atomic Powers, completely submerging the negative Atomic possibilities. Thus by thought, everything to me is SUN in Scorpio, not moon in Scorpio.

I reverence the Fire of the Deity, and ever hold it sacred, for the Fire is the pinnacle point of fusion, with the GREAT FLAME as the Heavenly Christ or Deity of the Central Sun. For Fire is life, and man cannot live without it, for it is the ever unfolding fire life within the soul as Spirit, that brings the soul to a Christed being. This he does by unifying the heights with the depths through his spinal column; that of the OS magnetic fire with the Ether Fires of Outer World Space.

Woman holds the OS fire and man receives the heavenly Fire, and by their unity of LOVE through the MIND, they blend these Fires and bring the heavenly mind into birth, which is the raised up Spirit as the MIND body.

But funnily enough, both genders are of the dual state, as the two sides of the mind, so by blending themselves up, as advised in Gen. 2 . 24, they then begin by blending up the genders, that each soul can become as a state of ONE-

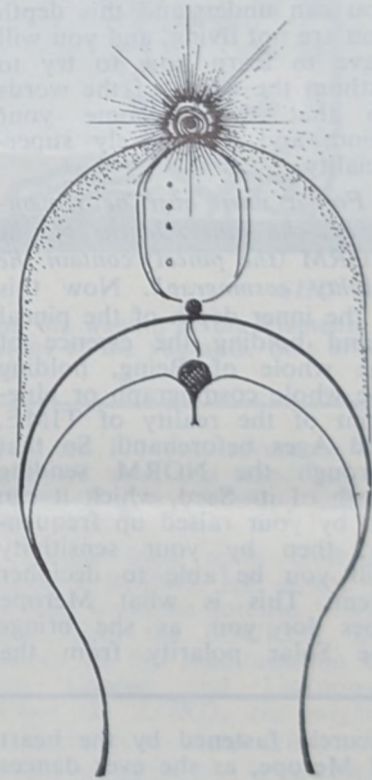

NESS, that of the divine EGO. Once this was prepared, I had to start ionising the elements into my blood life, mastering their Powers. Learning to master the Wind and the Waves.

Then, as I did so, by earthing it and treading it in, by declaring in the lectures, I knew every soul would then be able to follow my path of unification quite safely. Thus I began unifying myself, bringing my atomic structure of black and white states back to ONENESS, up to my Pineal glory.

Unfolding my original Atom once again, into a goddess strength of holy belief. Thus rose Uranus and Neptune up to the heights, establishing them in the Pituitary and the Pineal, raising up my Arc, opening up my Void to light.

For I had already done this in the Cosmos, changing the old LAWS into the new, hence had to set it going in the earth, by living it myself, thereby making an infinity between my NORM and the FACE of my Master, who was now manifesting on my Arc.

All this becoming LAW in the Cosmos and Law on the earth, with every soul eventually being on the Virgin Plane, the original status of the god growth. For as the accepted Scapegoat, once I had set the Law it became an established fact, and the abiding Law of the earth. All this is within man now, but the point is man perceiving it, believing it and becoming of it.

Not taking drugs to try and find it, but having the courage of his convictions, and putting it into practice. Then he too, will build up the Flame on the Top of his Mount, as he comes to a state of accepted oneness. Thus he becomes Solar born, for then all the old magnetic states become transmuted into Solar states. Then by embracing the Deity in the way he did before he fell, he too will become Christed, with the Divine Fatherhood then speaking direct through the mouth of the soul.

The Complete Unification

THUS by study and comprehending of the truth through the Word, not only is the soul unified up, but all old states from the past are buried in including old roots, that often cause unbounding trouble. For what was rooted in the past, must now be blossomed into light.

Therefore, as the soul rises up in status of vibration, belief and embracement, he will automatically renounce those things which he knows are not only detrimental, but useless lumber for him to carry. This is known as the crocodile "eating up" the waste, so that the soul can rise. Therefore, the more the soul establishes by belief and struggle, the sooner will it become of a REAL heart purpose.

BY BECOMING SOLAR BORN AND EMBRACING THE HEAVENLY DEITIES, THE SOUL BECOMES IMMUNE TO THE DANGERS OF THE EARTH, FOR HE IS FORTIFIED AND PROTECTED BY THE FIERY GLORY THAT INFUSES HIS BLOOD LIFE, GLANDULAR SYSTEM AND THEOCRATIC PROTECTION.

The more the blood is purified by natural diet, will the Solar Glory find a fitted place for it to exist, and revolve in a quickened action, which justifies the infinity. By such infused heavenly radiance, it brings unto the soul the greater power of healing, for he will be able to infuse and adjust the inner bodies of others that are cramped for the want of expansion and Fiery life.

If this can be truly followed and believed, it will easily be seen of how the whole world is changed, and man prepared to go forth on the greater path of life. All it needs is man to awaken and embrace the wisdom, and realise that the earth life is not by chance, but a regulated continuum set to a precise point of return.

WITH THE SOUL PREPARED AND READY TO MEET CERTAIN PROBLEMS THAT HE MUST MASTER, SO THAT IN RETURNING TO THE SPIRIT PLANES, HE WILL HAVE MADE SOME DECIDED PROGRESS TO LIFT HIM UP AND ONWARDS.

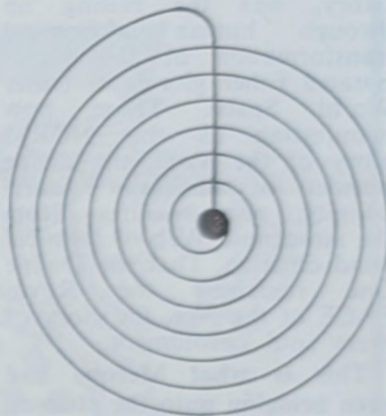

Only by returning to the earth can you discard the conditions contracted from the earth, the magnetic depths, and master the beast. Then in spinning up in thought and belief, embracing the Divinity, the soul rises up in frequency and sensitivity, building inner bodies that he could never get in any other way.

The major point in initiation, is stripping away of all those conditions created and assumed in the Fall into the lunar waters, for these are states that prevent the soul adorning of the Robe, the glorified beauty of their internal depths, which is the lost state of the god creation. Now it can be seen by this statement, how everything is HERE and NOW.

The Mind Development Class

EACH Week on every Saturday at 6.30 p.m. B.S.T. Mrs. Spearman-Cook holds her Special Mind Development Class at the School's H.Q. A special Subject is concentrated upon for about 40 minutes and then each sister is individually helped to interpret and understand his or her findings. Any readers can join; those nearby can make application to attend each week, and those too far away can send in their names and link in each week at the time stated, their names being entered in a Special Book for this purpose. The subjects for concentration are:

- Oct. 5th The Magnetic Field
- Oct. 12th The Elk
- Oct. 19th Eros
- Oct. 26th Winged Pegasus
- Nov. 2nd Solar Eclipse
- Nov. 9th The Divine Aeon
- Nov. 16th The Atomic Field
- Nov. 23rd Aquila
- Nov. 30th The Atomic Arc

The dot in the centre illustrates the original NORM or Atom which descended into the depths, through mind belief searching into deeper growth; then fell backwards, and started to revolve round and round in intensified confusion. All above is Space, only in the Abyss has there been a state of creation in a status of continuity.

While Space is the Great Unseen Almighty, the Mighty Winds of change, that bring unto man through the Breath, that of the WORD, and verifies that the "Wind carries it in its belly." This not only gives some idea of why the high mountain peaks and rarified air leave soul in awe, but also why man tries to climb mountains and master their heights. But at the same time, how evil it is to send up missiles into Space, for nothing more than war mastery and to hold fear over another.

All that man sees above, and of which he thinks are worlds and creations up in the sky, is really the reflection on the nitrogenic gas of the maelstrom wall around the earth, of what man believes and has ever believed exists as the content of earth creation.

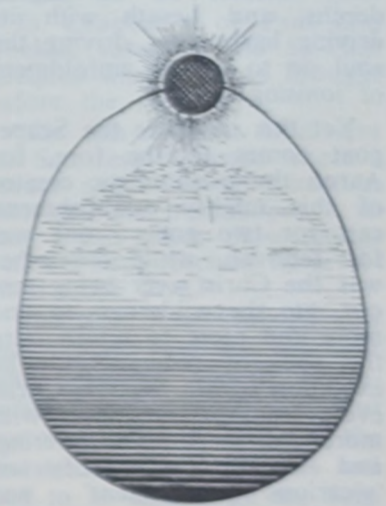

As the soul becomes Solar born, this becomes more evident to him, and he knows that everything is a state of Eternity, the glorious unfolding of tomorrow. It is ever two following one, followed by three, unto ten becoming as LIGHT. Then on again, but ever an unfoldment out of itself, for all form comes from the World of FORM, all else is of vibration.

By the soul ever looking upwards, being fired by energised belief, will it bring into birth of these greater glories. But if he lives in the personal and morbid state of earthy desires, the inner bodies lose the glory of their light, and the soul becomes earthbound, and lost to his god heritage of the past.

THIS NOW IS WHERE THE TRUE MEANING OF THE "DEATH OF THE SOUL" IS REALLY GOING TO TAKE PLACE. FOR UNLESS YOU BUILD A MIND

BODY, SO THAT YOU CAN BECOME ABSORBED INTO THE UNIFIED WORLD OF DIVINE CONSCIOUSNESS, THE PERSONALITY WILL DROP AWAY, AND THE ATOM BE THROWN BACK INTO THE STREAM.

This is a MIND World now, where all has been unified up..

...to the Central Sun. One vast world of revolving life, where Divinities are going to exchange life with the soul, coming forth through the NORM, out of the past, and learning through the soul to the bitter end.

This is seen in Kali treading out her past states, bringing the higher mind into birth. Then the world will evolve and become a glorious reborn World of evolved Divine LIFE, until all is gathered in and a new Creation begins. But all is ever HERE and NOW.

I do hope I have helped a few of you to see the illusion we have all fallen into, and how, by adjustment, it rights many a fallacy of lost belief. There is just one statement I would like to make while I have the chance; many have asked us to start a membership attachment to the School, I would like to hear a few more comments upon this idea.

As far as we are concerned, we consider the membership to the Gazette is enough, but please write and let me know. At the same time I would like to thank the many who have sent us monetary subscriptions to help the work of spreading the truth.

Over the eight years that we have been struggling with this publication, nearly a million Gazettes have been given away, which has badly scuttled our finances. So any help given we are grateful for, however small or large. God Bless you all and happy reading.

Gladys J. Spearman-Cook.

Again 'moon in Scorpio,' as he with his garments ragged and body rent; and whereas he had of abundance, he now was as a dried cracked pot. But where the Priest brought this into their midst, the house had to be cleansed with cedar wood and hyssop, that it would not ravage the God.

Then if he returned to the altar with a sheep and two black lambs, the priest then knew that this had been redeemed. But if not, the Scapegoat must eat it up, while the culprit 'completely bald' must begin to redeem himself under the ruling of the Priest who felt the scourge to the inflowing Stream, through this unwarranted mistake.

For instead of giving up his whole being to the glory of the Divine, the soul had offered his adulation up to Saturn, the joy of possessive desire. Thus all his bull Fires, which he has stoned, have to be re-lit and brought back to holy life.

The depth of this belongs to the mystical sign of Scorpio, with Antares as its sacred depths, and Lesath with its driving barbs ever driving the soul on to greater unfoldment of ionising light.

Yet this is where the Scapegoat comes to the fore, for Aaron the mediumistic creator of this mighty establishment, cast for two goats; one was for Jehovah, while the other was the Christ ever being sent out into the wilderness to find more and more to return unto the soul of redemption. The expiation of sin, by the Christ ever feeding the soul with more and more Solar offering, and where the theory of 'vicarious atonement' was created.

Thus Merope, seeing the evil of this belief, became that Scapegoat to retrieve the Christ, the Solar Glory, from being crucified in the name of religion. By this she, a living expedient of life, has become the means of forcing man to live up to the Fire that she was prepared to adopt, that Christ could become the Glorious Flame of the mind. That the Stream holding the Fire of life should be saved, and so continue its evolution.

For as Merope entered these truths onto the maelstrom, it had already begun to weed out the Molechs, those who are bestial in their actions and desires. Thus it was through her offering up of her blood, that Scorpio could be fully born as Sun in Scorpio, the mighty Orion Quintessence of the Holy Glorified MANHOOD.

That the Law of the Sabbath and of the Passover was made obvious, that which has never changed as Holy Law unto this very day. Although a pseudo-sect has usurped the glory of Divinity for so long, the Feast of the Trumpets was yet to come, and would be the going forward in full glory of Divinity's chosen people, the mystical Race Elect.

The Manifesting Fatherhood

THEN the Feast of the Tabernacles, which was the redeeming of the old wisdom for the new, by greater light making its way through, that the soul could declare of the Word in its new and radiant light aspect. For soul had awakened to the greater purpose, it being an internal awakening, and was making new oil for the lamp of replenishment.

For so many do awaken, but refuse to fully declare; but the Feast of the Tabernacle is where the soul whole-heartedly declares of the change that they fully accept. By this the Jubilee can be announced, the ring being in the Bull's nose, with the sensitivity having now risen up to the golden radiance of the Solar Arc. This to Merope had risen up to the 'Sun in Scorpio' where the All-consuming LOVE was now pouring forth, and Scorpio as the Divine Fatherhood, was seeking manifestation through the holy Glory of her Love.

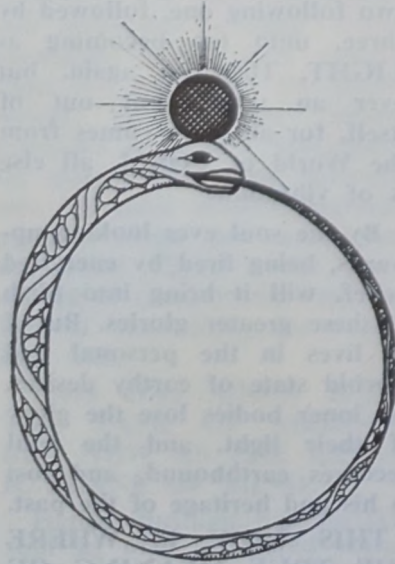

For the bringing of these Fires into birth as the Divine Eucharist or Transcendental Glory, was the raising up through human alchemical transformation of the incorporated Ether glories of Outer World Space. Those now manifesting as the NORM glory of the Void, the divine wonder of the soul's auric divinity, now manifest from the Arachnoid Web of mystical mind creation. That the Divine One remained the Royal FACE of the Age, the glory of every soul unfoldment.

This is what Merope had been bringing unto the student, that of Fire glory, that the Fatherhood, the mystical depth of Holy Holocaust, could come forth as the Holy Fire of his mind rebirth. For by bringing the Sun and Scorpio unified, the whole was as the Yod and Fount completely ONE.

The electro-magnetic of Aquarius as unified glory, where man was being Fired by the Holy Fire and raised up again as the Holy Divinity of LIGHT. That brought down in the beginning by Merope, and now the unified glory as the produced manifestation. As that unified ONENESS, it was all noumenal creations unified and brought to a phenomenal attribute of consciousness.

But the mighty question now comes forth, as unto what further unfoldment will take place in the manifestation of the Fatherhood. For only by Merope as the Sophia activity, could such come forth, she being as the Virgin Mother.

For the Voice is now manifesting through the parotid infinity, that of the white Virgin Heather of Truth; that tinged with pink, and being carried down to the depths as the Logos manifestation. All built up under human alchemical unification, as the Supreme manifestation of the Source to the Source, the glorified ONENESS of Noumenal Divinity.

THE GREAT DIVINE FATHERHOOD (Part 2)

THE MYSTICAL SOLAR DEPTHS OF SCORPIO

by The Lord of the Flame

This is a recording of the Lecture given at the School on Wednesday, 14th August, 1968. Sentences in italics are those that were chosen from the Lecture of the previous Sunday, to be given greater and more simplified explanation.

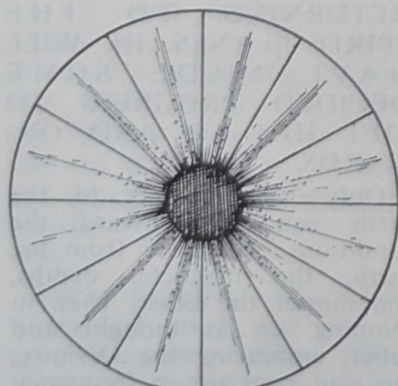

PEACE BE UNTO YOU ALL.

As we gather tonight, it is a momentous occasion, for all has been transformed from the lunar into the Solar; the whole World is now fully Solar Born. You are aware that these things take time and the time now has become ripe. So there is no going back onto old states, and that is why so many vast changes are taking place in the World. No longer can Papalism exist, nor orthodoxy of the past. They are old lunar states that will crumble away; now it is going to be the world of Occult Mind unfoldment, where every man will only be judged by his mind. No mind, no soul. But above all a Fired Mind, a world of Fire, where every soul who can bring that mind into birth, is going to live, radiate and become. A world where man and Divinities are going to blend together. Woman raised up to become the glory of the Bride to the Christ, the Great Virgin, who will help all men to find the glory of Divinity. Man now to realise that he is the Water-pot empty. Now he must learn to raise up his fires, that he is served by the Holy Fire, which is pouring to the Earth at the present moment. As those who were with us on the Sabbath were aware, there has been one son so far who has embraced the Holy Fire, and is now sperming the Stream with the glories of his mind.

Merope brought this Stream down from Heaven to earth through her internal being, which accounts now for the many atomic burns which poor Merope had to pass through. Now she is the begetter of the Stream that is feeding the whole World with Solar Glory, and while the Virgin Son sperms those Waters through his mind will the World open up and blossom in the glory of Divinity. This may appear as words to many of you, because you have not become aware of the real true depth of life, which is not form but the waving and dancing vibrations and frequencies of the Unseen. When you can awaken to this, then you will have found Life and the real True Glory of Divinity.

Try to perceive depths, not words, but depths. The inner true meaning of the Word, not just the verbal statement. Try to dance with the inner glory of the Word that it gives you the whole intrinsic depths of perceptivity. This is Merope's theory of the Great Fatherhood now beginning to manifest himself upon the Earth, and who is going to manifest Himself through the glories of the Heavens, through the mind of the Son. This is now pouring to the Earth through the Solar Rays, the

Yet the ever-revolving glory of divine continuity. The circumventing of the Vega atonement, through the Soma Orion Quintessence of Supreme Oneness. All had been ionised into an Atomic Pile of blossoming mind beauty, and now awaited the glory of manifestation.

For conceding royalty bows to subjugation, as the Master of Ceremonies reverberates LIFE by that Fired glory. A mere spectrum crumb of divine eloquence, from the celestial Holocaust of Virgin masculine pre-ordination. Thus the Great Fatherhood of TIME is the sanctification of the Seed, the royal Canopic sensitivity of the Virgin Pleiadic Divinity now the manifesting MIND.

The Sun in Scorpio, now the cloak of the Macroprosopus, Solar Frequency of the Spectrum, (not just the sun's rays), and when the soul can awaken to this truth, the soul is able to manifest the Winged Mind, with the old dual states of the past now buried into the Earth.

(The Lord of the Flame then turned to the Scroll, and commenced to explain certain sentences from it).

NOW the trouble with all of you is that you do not understand the depth of the words, you do not seem to realise that all this is the living truth. What man is living is only the superficial truth, the superficial understanding. Until you can understand this depth you are not living, and you will have to learn how to try to fathom the depth of the words so that they become your mind, and not merely superficiality.

For it must ever be remembered, the inner depths of the NORM (the pineal) contain the mighty cosmograph. Now this is the inner depth of the pineal gland holding the essence of the whole of Being, holding the whole cosmograph or blueprint of the reality of TIME, and Ages beforehand. So that through the NORM sending forth of its Seed, which it can do by your raised up frequency, then by your sensitivity will you be able to decipher them. This is what Merope does for you, as she brings the Solar polarity from the lunar created negative.

So what man created in a negative way, in the lunar, now through the Solar is going to radiate, and should help every one of you who are now genuinely seeking to bring it into birth.

Hence now, as a complete change is taking place, relativity becomes Reality, with all being Fired into active life. Thus in the past and the present being unified it brought Reality into birth. Now this is what the soul taking drugs is trying to do, he is trying to find Reality. He will only find it by raising up his frequency and refining his sensitivity. So when you Fire it into active life, you bring into birth the royalty of your mind; not the Moon in Scorpio, which is desires, but the Sun in Scorpio which is bringing the royalty into birth. So when you can bring it to this Solar sensitised creation, then you too are going to find Solar perceptory awareness. As you read the words, immediately you perceive.

Causing all to become as a cosmic Voice of Divine Osmosis, a Metric tenfold expansion as promised in 2 Samuel ch. 4 v. 6:

"And when the Philistines heard the noise of the shout, they said, 'What meaneth the noise of this great shout in the camp of the Hebrews.'

securely fastened by the heart of Merope, as she ever dances the glories of the Virgin sensitivity across the string of Pearls, the mystical Seeds around the throat of the unfolding Solar Divinity.

Thus as the Maat, the Syzygy of this mighty creation, she must be the Virgin glory to give Him birth, and can only do so through phenomenal mind creation. For the Solar lymphatics are now as the quintessential bridge of Orion's Chromolithic expansion.

Hence the subjugation of man is now the arresting might of the Pitch-blended Solacritic Divinity. Where soul is being drawn back to the Source, compelling the Atoms of atomic disruption back to the all-consuming ONENESS of Divinity, the mighty Sun in Scorpio. All the scientific theories becoming non-applicable to completion, and a living lie to its mighty royalty.

Thus as Merope looked deeper into this mystical Glory, she saw a drop of blood drip down from the Divine manifestation up in the Heights. Then, as a Voice reverberated across the Plane of Creation, it declared:

"I AM THE EVER-BECOMING OF THE GARDEN OF GETHSEMANE, THE DIVINE SOLAR GLORY BORN OUT OF SOUL'S CRUCIFIXION IN THE DEPTHS."

Madonna of the Pomegranates. One full of red seeds awaiting birth into fructification through germination, and placed into the father's care.

In the ancient Historical and Divine Scripts all this is a part of the wisdom, but as each rendering of the writ became revised, it became more and more the interpretation of the scribe. But in the present translation in Rev. 12 the story is told in brief of how the dragon was waiting to snatch the child from the care of the mother as soon as it was born, and it was bitten as seen in verse 8, but in verse 16 earth helped the woman in her flight.

This is also seen quite clearly in the Mysteries as Proserpina gets dragged down into the depths with Pluto, and remains there until she can be freed by Demeter her mother, or Virgo labouring and bringing forth. It is because this knowledge, whether theological or mystical, is not understood in its abstract interpretation, that it is being discarded.

The mother's flight into Egypt was always when the moon was full and she was attended by the old man Seb, Saturn or Pluto. This was the woman, or feminine principle clothed with the sun and moon, and a head-dress of twelve stars, (in verse 1). She who was ever persecuted by the crocodile, or the gobbler up of the used, that it can be transformed into strength, while the child is the preserver of the light.

Therefore it can be seen that a primitive soul of life creation was brought forth from the elements as the soul of Shu, the wind or air; the soul of Seb from the earth; and the soul of Horus, as the son of Ra, from the sun, and became the supreme source of mind that preceded the human soul.

THE GERM THAT WAS FED BY THE ELEMENTS INTO SOUL GROWTH, AND EVER REPLENISHED TO BRING FORTH EGG AFTER EGG UNTIL THE PELICAN WAS CREATED.

The woman is then destined to bruise the serpent and win victory over life and death by feeding the world from her blood. But at the same time she is the woman clothed with light, for the whole of the grinding takes place on the threshing floor of Ornan and his four sons; the fifth house of karma which is the sign of Leo, the

From the period of inception, the Papal powers began to build up and aimed for wealth, power and domination, which resulted in sabotage and carnage under the name of Holy Wars; with ruthless destruction as the Inquisition completely destroying the Holy Cloth, or Cosmical Body of Light. The Apocrypha which verifies the whole of the truth regarding the human installing of the Christos Embodiment, has been obliterated from the Holy Writ, WHY? What greater story is there than Paul's fight for truth in the most human and sublime story of Paul and Thekla.

This was held most genuine by the primitive Christians and many well known Early Fathers; with Eusebius, Epiphanius and Chrysostom, to mention but a few who lived in the fourth century, all referring to this history as being most genuine and authentic.

A number of Cardinals and Archbishops have declared these books to be genuine, while many are asking as to whether the Bible is genuine apart from being inspired works. Quite possibly inspired, but through the mind and ideas of Papalism, with the real works lost, for the present Bible varies greatly from the ancient Bibles and Scripts.

In Chapter 4 of Paul and Thekla, verses 7 and 8, Paul declares when he was brought before the governor:

"On this account God sent his Son Jesus-Christed whom I preach and in whom I instruct men to place their hopes... so that I can teach those things which I have received by revelation from God."

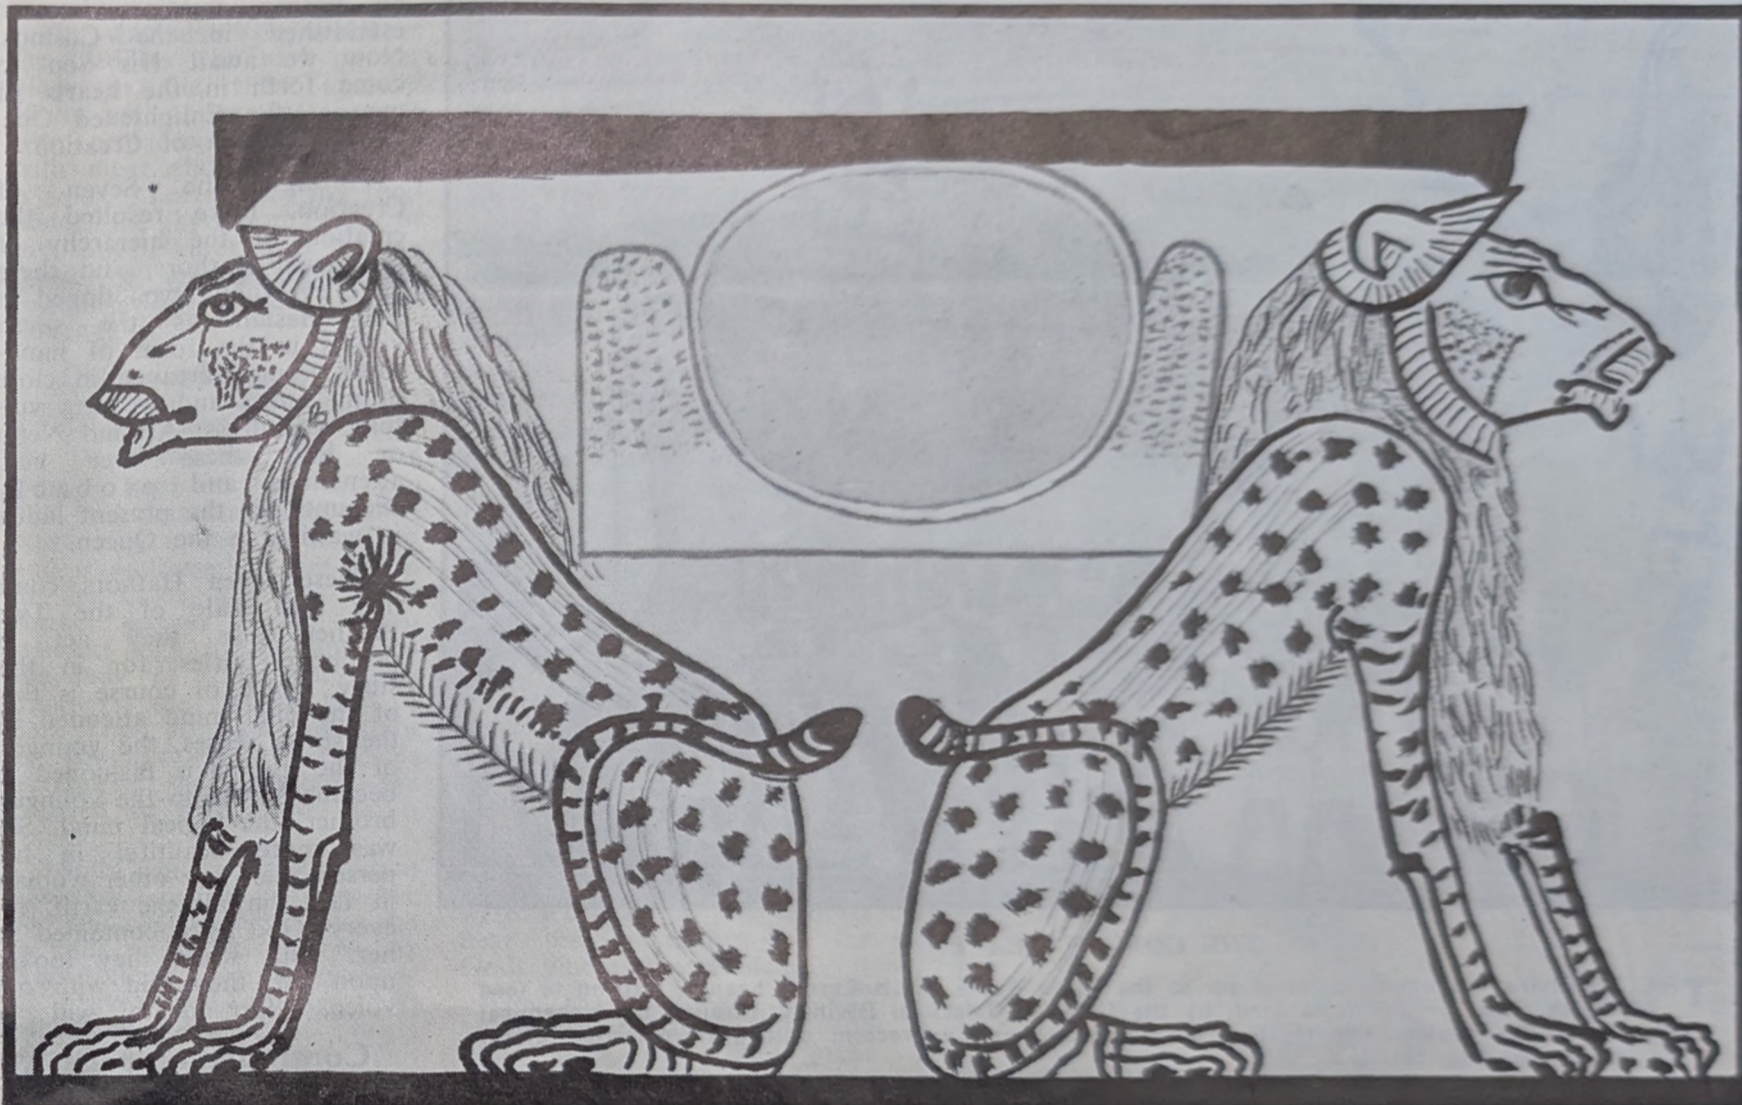

The Son Jesus-Christed was the Avatar, Paul was the man who prepared himself to receive the overshadowing, but became terrified through the instability of the disciples and had to be helped by the Sage Ananias to become established. Both of these things and the dynamics in Aquarius were prophesied by Paul, not only in the wisdom that became the Book of Revelations, but in his struggles as the man to try and earth his ideals.

This can be seen in the Pistis Sophia when interpreted, for in the beginning he declares, "When I first came into the world I brought with me twelve powers. I took them from the hands of the twelve saviours of the treasure of light." The glory to build the fabric of the Holy Cloth which became united within him, and he came forth as the young solar god or Dionysis.

Out of his two stages of labours he imaged a soul in matter and one of spirit, with the "twelve kings" rowing the boat of "seven lights." And finally declares, "I have fulfilled and put on my vesture."

THE THREE GODDESSES AS THE THREE MARYS, EVE, ISIS AND MARY, ARE THE FUNCTIONING OF THE PERSONALITY IN THE MUNDANE SOUL; BECOMING EVER OF THE DEVELOPED AND QUALIFIED EXPRESSION OF THE THIRD ASPECT OF DIVINITY OF GOD AS THE HOLY SPIRIT, THE ACTIVE INTELLIGENCE AND NURTURING PRINCIPLE OF THE UNIVERSE.

THE EXPRESSION OF THE THIRD ASPECT, FATHER, SON AND HOLY SPIRIT, IS THE HOLY SPIRIT COMING FORTH AS THE GOD OF THE SOUL. IT IS THAT SELF-CONSCIOUS ENTITY AS PERSONALITY, WHICH IN MARY BECOMES THE MOTHER OF THE CHRIST CHILD.

SHU AND TEFNUT

THE waxing and the waning of the Elements through the Breath, as Shu and Tefnut, the efferent and the afferent of the vagrants, that brings the Solar glory of the mind into birth. (See text on page 7, col. 5).

And they understood that the Ark of the LORD was come into the camp."

The Holy depths of the Heavens are now born within the soul as the radiating inner divinity. This is the inner Glory of the inner bodies now firing the outer body. You must always remember that the outer body is of no value. The outer body is going to become an etherealised body, like Merope. It is the inner bodies in the endocrine chain which are important, and which are inter-linked with the spinal column, the segments of the spine. As these radiate with all their divinity, then you radiate forth the inner true Glory of the Divine body, and you are radiating with Fire, radiating with beauty. You speak with Fire, you live with Fire, you fire the world with Glory. This applies so much to the Bull, the male element, who has the power to fire and activate everything around him, and bring it into life.

This is more than just the spirit. The spirit has risen, but this is the Divine inner Fire of the Lord. It is not the same as the spirit. The spirit is different to this inner Fire, yet of course they are all osmotically interblended. But taking it in its segregated form, the Fire is the inner Glory of the Lord that is manifesting there, the very Life-force, but the spirit is what you have built up. It is the very "IT" in the FIRE, it is the very firing propensity in the FIRE. It is something you can only see with your minds. Once you can see IT, you reverence IT with all awe, and stand before IT in all glory. Merope knows this depth.

People look upon God as being a BEING. HE is not. It is that Immense Intense Vibration from the SOURCE, the Glory of the manifestation of the Unseen and Unknown. Thus the LORD, the mighty Divinity as the Solar Glory, the FIRE of action was in the camp.

It is what many of you find when reading the Occult Gazette, what you are imbued with; so many would say, "I don't understand it, but I can't help reading it, I must read it. There is something within it that leaves me elevated, that gives me life." It is because they are reading and taking unto themselves the Divine Glory that Merope imparts from her inner Being into those words.

Thus would be so elevated as to polarise the NORM, and live once again in the mighty Samarkand of the past. But now in the electrical current of the Aurora Borealis, now drawn into the meninges as the Theocratic garment of the soul. So the soul, once it has brought this manifestation right up to the Norm, now has the power of drawing of like for like, and so is able to draw the complement unto itself from the Aurora Borealis. Some would call it the Fires of St. Elmo, but it is as the Aurora Borealis that is now as a mighty electrical current, pouring down over the Auric Arc into the pituitary, and then into the infundibulum down through the spine. This electrifies the whole of the spinal column, and brings all of the endocrine chain into a rebirth of its inner essence.

The lamp well oiled and Divinity, the mighty FLAME of that ever glorified lamp of mystical radiating beauty, now fully alight. That as the glory of the soul, would Merope be sending its Divine Rays all over the world, from the light-house of Truth and Divinity. The mighty WORD revealing the Glory of the LORD, the great Divinity of Fired elevated mind conception. So now seeing what has happened to religion, both in papalism and orthodoxy, you can see how far removed they are from the LORD. Now the LORD has found another channel.

For unless Divinity as the super-creation of the soul is accepted and fully recognised, man becomes a Race of fighting giants seeking for personal power. But with Divinity the Ruling Glory, the eternal Being of a Theocratic Government is the assurance of the appointed hour. This is what man is not understanding in the Theocratic Government, that he is being ruled by Divinity.

For it is the final hour, the consecration of the innermost Divine Fire... So it means his innermost bodies are now his living propensity, he is living by Divinity, he is overwhelmed, overjoyed by the Theocratic Government; the Theocratic Government is his Robe, his Robe of Glory.

polarity of Aquarius bringing forth of the man.

This contains the whole History and embodiment of Atlantis in its fall into Egypt to the present day. But enacted age after age in a remote corner of the globe by some enlightened being, for only they could bring forth of the story and supply the Great Powers with the support to warrant yet further of the divine inflow.

But ever on the journey there is the slaughter of the innocents, as the issue of Horus must pass through the gruelling test of time, to come forth as the Race born into light unfoldment, as they accompany him again into Egypt to find of more wealth. This represents the mind growth and light expansion through ideas born and nurtured that feed and strengthen the world, helping all to evolve.

The Avatar

THE Jesus legend was taken up by Rome about 300 years after the passing of the man Paul, as he was the only one who played such a part in world unfoldment. It was the Christian Sect that established and glorified the story into spurious history, and now results in man not glorifying by the taking of its Word, but spurning the whole issue and seeking desperately for truth and new wisdom. In the meantime degeneration is rife and crime rampant, while labourers are few, and the child being nurtured, is not now in the swamps, but in a world of destroying giants.

EGYPT

they may know why, they must go down into the depth of hell.

This can be easily comprehended by the hieroglyphics themselves, for you can see the dual snakes of the spine as the dual Kundalini force rising up the vagrant nerves of the sympathetic system. Also the hands of blessing, in they that bring forth the Ibis, or searcher for truth; then follows the word as the bird, that brings the man following behind, to being crowned.

The Matriarchate State

NEITH or Bast was the chief deity of Sais or Tell Bastah, which was the chief of the ten nomes of Lower Egypt. Every nome possessed a representative God whose temple was situated in the capital city of the nomes. Attached to the service of each nome-God was a body of priests who waited on the Chief Priest; the King or Queen.

Now we are dealing with a Queen, for in the beginning, as must come at the end, only women ruled, for the feminine specie, whether principle or as human generator, is the multiplier and without her all would collapse. So she began and must end, for that she handeth her Son onto the throne of his Father and She and the Father become lost in the Son.

Therefore we speak of a time when the Great Harlot of the Cosmos was wooing men into life and action, and placed onto the terrestrial throne was her deputy, the Queen Nekhthorheb as the Goddess Bast.

The body of priests who waited on the Goddess, a Son of God, divided the various duties connected with the maintenance of the temple, as copying of religious works and the religious education of the community. The high Priest of each city bore a special title, for in Thebes the high Priest was called "first servant of the God Ra in Thebes."

In Sais or Tell Bastah the high Priestess bore the title of Nefer-tutu, the Divine Mother, or great One. The priests, under the high Priest or nome-God, were subject to no external authority, and the high Priest of a great nome possessed a power which was hardly inferior to that of the Nomarch himself.

The worship of each nome-God contained elements peculiar to itself, and the beliefs centred in the God, represented all the ancient and indigenous views of the inhabitants of the nome and were carefully observed. The lioness Goddess Sekhet, the cat-headed Bast, was the Animal creation set for this Son of God to explore and master; and a time which in itself can explain of the difficulties that could come abound, and which did. For Bast as a lion was power awaiting rebirth, thus deals with both the green and golden lions; that non-ripened and that ripened.

The cults of the Sky-God Horus and of the Sun-God, with those of the Goddess Hathor, are the oldest of all. This Goddess had for her symbols two arrows and a shield; the attributes of the oldest indigenous Gods of Egypt were ascribed to her in those early dynastic times. The nome-God was usually known as An-Her or Anhur, the representative of the Father-Mother God, or Lord of Abydos or Tattu, and was Ba-neb-Tattu the Ram, or forming Ram from the power of Life.

This really was the coming Deity, and it was not until the God Amen, or King Akhnaton came to take the throne much later, that Amen as the Deity, or God of the World, was given birth. Man can only enthrone God according to his acceptance, and is the mystery of the 72 names of God; so we must try to see that when Amen came to the throne, the fullness of God acceptance as an unseen creation, became established in the Cosmos. Now we await His Son to come forth in the hearts of men as the Enlightened One, or Intelligencia of Creation.

Through the Seven of Creation, there resulted the creation of the hierarchy of the seven Hathors, and these were eventually worshipped at Tell Bastah as the seven virgins in the form of handsome women arrayed in close fitting tunics and wearing vulture head-dress. Around Neith or Bast these ever held attendance and probably accounts for the present ladies in waiting to the Queen.

These seven Hathors come into the "Tale of the Two Brothers" as they act as prophetic fairies, for in this story, which of course is that of the dual mind attended by the seven senses, the youngest of the virgins is fashioned to become a wife to the youngest brother, the logical mind. She was more beautiful in her person than any other woman, in fact "in all the earth, for every God was contained in her." But when they looked upon her, they said with one voice, "Her death will be

THE COW OF HEAVEN

THE All-Divine wisdom now raised up as the Mind Plane in its Cosmic beauty, waiting to feed the earth. That brought into birth by the Gods of Galactical Divinity, through the alchemical divination in the depths. The mystery of Macrocosm and microcosm unified in polarised glory. (See text on page 16, col. 1).

... for as it is so anointed upon the purity of the Divine Virgin, will it henceforth be as the one Divine immensity that will be the Celestial goal, in the minds of unfolding Divinity.

Now everyone has the Virgin within them, the Virgo mind, which standing on the Virgin Plane, can now go forth with the Virgin mind. Males have got the Virgin with them, the Virgo mind, the feminine principle. Woman is the Virgin and she is seeking for the mind spouse. And so by blending all up and bringing it all up to a radiating point of Divinity, the soul is finding the goal of the immensity of his godship.

This being the Heralded moment of extreme travail in the divine labours of His birth amidst the depths of the dung. Therefore as the hell and damnation of the pain and suffering, so the immense magnitude and intensity of HIS Divine Glorious Solar radiance in the wonders of HIS birth. So man in taking the Solar Glory, raped It and used It in the way that he wanted to through lust, and made that Glorious DIVINITY be born in pain and suffering. It was the Scapegoat who took this burden upon her shoulders that HE should not suffer. She was determined not to let this Glorious Radiance, this Divine Magnitude, this beauty of inner mind light and radiant Unfoldment, ever be scarred again by the travail of suffering.

Only SHE, the holy Virgin can know, measure or ascertain the Holy Sanctum of HIS Heart, for I am Her Child, the Fatherhood and Her Beloved Spouse. She suffered, she disposed of her magnetic fires, took on of the Solar Fires, and suffered the Atomic Burning in the Garden of Gethsemane that HE could be born. All in the possibility of the Antares Sting as to what now comes forth out of the Divine Seeding.

Now this is very important. One son has seen the depth of this and has embraced it, has embraced the Glory of it, so that he becomes the Spermating spouse of this beauty, and he is taking the Antares Sting. But it is in the Antares Sting that he is going to become aware of the Divine Seeding, the Divine Birth, the Divine Immensities, the Divine Inter-Birth which he can bring forth.

For it is the filling up of the Giant Antares Infinity with His Divine Fiery Becoming. So as he brings forth out of his mind what he perceives, and radiates it, and sperms the Stream, will the Stream become the mighty Antares Infinity; but he must sperm the Stream.

With the stinging being the final unification, in the Sting becoming the Mouth, the Fired Word of TRUTH. The Glory of the Word going forth through Merope's mouth and Merope's pen, that every man can be fired into a greater belief, and a greater depth of understanding.

For man had chosen the hard way e'en though the Virgin had paved the way, with the Great Fatherhood being the Soma-Orion Glory of the Divine Fiery manifested Word. So what you have got to do is to stop looking for form; look for Divinity, look for radiating internal glory, look for the manifested vibrations of service in all Love. And as you can vibrate and radiate that internal Word as the Fire, are you going to not only transform the earth but transform the atmosphere. For as one man is, so do all become, for it changes the darkness into Light. The whole world is being changed and the change took place within this week. No longer the lunar but the Solar Glory of radiance. Man is going to find himself changing, and must respond to the change. He will begin to find changes within his own form, etherealisation taking over, this being what all men have been afraid of.

The soul is going to learn the true meaning of "I and My Father are One," the real true meaning of it, the Unity of Divinity. I keep on telling all of you to become Fired, to become Fire conscious, to raise up your fires; it is the only thing that is going to fortify you as the days go on. Without this Fire you are a lost soul; you must build it up within you, you must bring it forth as the radiating glory of your mind. You must live with Divinity, you must become One with Divinity, otherwise you will only become a victim to anyone who wishes to use you.

One of the finest things that any of you can do when starting this Path is to drink plenty of water, so as to give the blood a free flowing power of activity. It is because it is sluggish and is clotted with earthy states and animal states that inertia is proceeding. You should try to set yourself to have one glass of water every hour, and it would do you the world of good, for then you would keep the blood revolving in a perfect state of infinity. That is quite a simple thing and will cost you nothing.

If you want to achieve a point then believe that you have it and fight then to make it manifest. So many sit down and wait for the Lord to give it to them. Well the Lord has probably already given it to them but they do not know that they have received it. It is all according to how much you are going to bring forth by your belief. If you find life is hard, then know that it is something in yourself that you are having to tread out. So the only thing is to transmute what you have had and bring it into a greater glory by the transmutation. After all if you are only looking for coin you will only receive coin, but probably the wrong or the very hard way.

You are the conscious mind, the logical mind. You are the one who impedes the way. It is your sub-conscious, your inner divinity of internal bodies that is crying out, "Please give me expansion," and you the conscious mind are so enamoured by Saturn that you are cramping it and preventing it from radiating its glory. If you can only embrace Divinity through the conscious mind then you and your inner bodies will dance together.

The words in Samuel, that we have just read, have a great point. They had been struggling to bring the Holy Ghost, the glory of the Divinity, down into their being, and through the mighty work and the raised up vibrations of their Levi Priests, the Ark was born. Now through the Solar Son, the Virgin son this week, the Ark has been born in this Temple, and I want to see it held and not defiled by profane thoughts and unbalanced measure of action. Merope has worked very hard to bring the Ark into the Camp, hence the Solar Glory is radiating in your midst to-night. Every man is being touched by it, every man who comes into here now is going to be touched by this Glory. Know that a Great Blessing has fallen into your midst.

This will help the young warrior, the young bull, to go on sperming the Stream, and to go on fighting to sperm the Stream, for he has now got to bring into birth new theories, new thoughts, so as to sperm the Stream, and the Virgin to weave it into the Glories of the Fish, that are going to dance in the Waters. But this also applies to everyone who comes in, for those of you who have been following the lectures, should have your minds opening up and dancing, and becoming aware that this is a Cosmic Task, one that has cost Merope the use of her legs for the time being.

She was willing to give anything that it could be born, and it has been born. Now man has been saved and the Seed has been saved, and the Glory of Light is going to manifest in all directions in the World-to-be.

THE BLESSING

GREAT Divinity of ALL-LIFE we seek of Thy Blessing upon the Divine Ark that is now residing with us, that its Blessed Radiance, anointed with Divine Fire, can go forth out onto the world in the unfolding Stream of Holy Glory.

AMEN

caused by the knife." Thus she was as Venus to be wedded to Mars and who must die by the sword of truth or justice.

The Greeks identified Hathor with their Goddess Aphrodite; she represented not only what was true, but what was good and all that was best in woman as wife, mother and daughter. She was also the patron goddess of all singers, dancers and merry-makers; in fact she was identified with Sothis and called the "second sun" in heaven. But she was also the Goddess who is at the Judgment Scene, and is one of the company of Gods watching the weighing of words and who afterwards decree joy and felicity for the heart which has been weighed and found just.

She was also considered as the Goddess who took up her place in the right eye of Horus and appears as the one who provides the "deceased" with meat and drink, thus it is said: "Let me eat my food under the sycamore tree of my lady Hathor and let my times be among the divine beings who have alighted thereon."

Queen of the Gods

IN the Ptolemaic temple at Der-el-Medina on the western bank of the Nile, you will find that Hathor is called Nubt, that is the Golden One, and is addressed as the queen of the Gods, and the words further go on to say, "thou standest high in the south as the lady of Teka and thou illumines the west as lady of Sais. Thou appearest and thou art commemorated in festivals as Hathor, the great lady, the beloved of Ra, in thy seven forms."

Thoth comes to look upon her face and he praises her according to her desire and she is built up by his words. As Nebt-Hetepet she is glorious in heaven and mighty upon earth and queen of the Underworld. As the Goddess Temt she is the lady of the "two lands" and of the red covering, and she shines in the cities of Buto and Bubastes.

Being the daughter of Lower Egypt, she was the one who "laboured" and brought all into birth; therefore Nekhebet usually wears the vulture head-dress surmounted by the white crown, as the one who obtained sovereignty over Upper Egypt by the mastery of the Lower. By this she has the right to hold the symbol of life, the sceptre.

Occasionally this is formed of a long-stemmed flower which is a water-lily with a serpent twined around its stem. This serpent is none other than the winged serpent with the crown of the south upon its head, which is as symbolic of the Goddess as the vulture.

The Queen was royal if ever there was one, and in the coronation scene you see her being crowned with a double crown, for she was considered as a Nature power and the power of Spirit or Ra; and you see her standing as Maat holding a bow and arrow in her left hand. She took the form of the twin sisters Uatchet and Nekhebet, and appeared as the Uraeus upon the brow of Ra where they destroyed the enemies of the Great God.

This was symbolised by the winged disks which are seen sculptured over the doors of the temples of Egypt, for each side is a serpent, being that of the dual sisters. Also they were represented as the two eyes which brought light to the world, and she was also known as the Goddess Tefnut, she who stands third in the divine dynasties both of Thebes and Memphis.

She was also the sister to Shu and as a composite form to him, she was called Khunsu-nefer-hetep-tefnut. It was said of Shu, "He has divided the heaven from the earth." Other texts ascribe to him the up-lifting of the primeval waters—Nu, the pillars of heaven. He is also seen as a man wearing a feather on his head, but is seen mostly as a lion when just Tefnut. This meant "the uplifter" corresponding to Shu; the uplift to express belief that evening becomes the Sun and hot wind.

So the Goddess being as one with Shu, she must be referred to as the daughter of Ra, while others believed her to be the mother of Thoth, and in Elephantine she was identified with Isis and Sothis and is the lioness-headed wearing the Sun disk, a Solar deity and Goddess of the Sky.

In later centuries she became as Mut the wife of Amen-Ra, mistress of the Gods, lady of heaven and eye of Ra. The chief centre then of her worship was at Asher; here Amenophis the Third built a temple dedicated to the God Mut, where a sacred lake was attached to it. The actual word meaning mother, the female counterpart of the triune god Ptah-Seker-Asar.

All this was the polarity to the present era, and would account for much that is taking place today, that when placed in harmony with its relativity, will produce the necessary equilibrium that can help man begin his upward path out of devolution.

The lion as a sacred animal, first began the world and ever has to be moved into action; thus the lioness, as power, lifts all, and as such, is the mother of all creation. In later ages she became Ashteroth, the great idol of power by deterioration that brought many a nation to its downfall, but in her height of Spiritual power in Egypt, special rooms were set apart in the temples near the sanctuaries of the Gods where they abided.

One was called "per nesert," a "house of fire," and the other "per ur," the "great house." One was painted light yellow and the other the colour of the desert; this was to represent the Solar Moon receiving of the Solar light; for we have to remember, it was the beginning of TIME and man had not yet started to build his Causal body of the solar pneumatikon substance.

As the Goddess Bast, she was the Goddess par excellence and the centre of her worship was at Pa-Bast. The worship was already old in Egypt, which means it went into the realm of the Lunar World as Atlantis. So she was considered as the Queen who made dances for Pepi; and you will find in a chapter of the "Book of the Dead" called the "Negative Confession" it is stated, "he who goes backwards is said to come forth from Bast."

Great was this Queen, but one more harmed than she gave of harm to others; her real trouble was in being the means of bringing so much wealth to the land of Egypt in the form of down-pouring fire, for as she so aspired, she automatically drew down to earth the wealth of the heavens.

Therefore the land at that time became so rich, that the men of "Aven and Pi Beseth" "waxed fat," fell to desire and so swamped the Queen by their evil breathings, that she was slowly dragged into the vortex of darkness. Though she fought gallantly against the evil, it so became the order of the day, she finally lost the way.

You find in the symbology they as Queens take on many forms, but as the Royal Queen in her basic form, she was Bast the Lion Goddess; and as such she is represented with the head of a cat or a lioness, holding a snake in her right hand, and in her left, a sistrum with the head of a cat or lioness on top.

For different ceremonies she was changed in her appearance, for on a certain occasion she became as Rat, the counterpart of Ra, and as the female counterpart of Tem, she is called Temt, the "eye of Ra." Bast was the personification of the soul of Isis.

The Mystery of Unification

THE word Bast is connected with fire, for the Goddess was a personification of the power of the Sun, which made itself manifest in the form of heat. Therefore she was the Sun-Goddess who would overthrow Apep the crocodile, and and terrestrial life that was so comparatively one, that the powers of life were something to be experienced to understand. Today being the polarity in its entire worldliness, can only in its extreme as Icabod, no glory, gather some idea of the great Royalty that existed in that day.

They are shown as dual sisters in the hieroglyphs; Bast was painted green while her sister was red, but silver and purple were the royal colours of the temple at her time. She is also shown as one whose eyes were so dynamic, they were likened unto the eyes of a cat; she could see through all things.

Ra was the "male cat" and was called Mau, and he had

Ancient writings speak of "a people with entire affection and who with zeal most religiously observed the feast at Bubastes, and behaved and bore themselves in this manner. Certain ships carrying numbers of men and women sailed towards the city and were many seasons while they be in voyage on the water. The women played drums and tabers making great sound and noise, the men on pipes. Many danced and prepared whereby they could become of child."

By this it can be seen that it was a temple of the early pure Phallic worship, where the wisdom of Herma was first established to train the young souls of new life into the wisdom of balanced holy marriage, and to produce a child in complete equilibrium and not a soul in slavery of lust.

Another ancient writer comments, "The noble city of Bubastes was very haughty and highly planted, in which city is a temple of excellent memory dedicated to the Goddess Bubastes, and called in our speech Diana; and albeit there were other temples bigger, none were more richly furnished; for grace and seemliness none could compare."

The way that leads into the City rested on an island, with the river Nilus running all around causing all to be fertile. The gate of entry into the city was of great height and magnificent work and craftsmanship, having on it an image of a beautiful woman. In this temple the lost thigh of Osiris was shut up in a hidden chest and was to remain so, for Bast was as Gemini the Queen of the Mind, whose polarity was Sagittarius the winged archer. And although she reigned in Leo, the Age of the new-born Sun, it is predicted that her resurrection as wisdom would be in the Age of Aquarius, when she would appear as a simple soul, but one of much knowledge and fire to fight for truth.

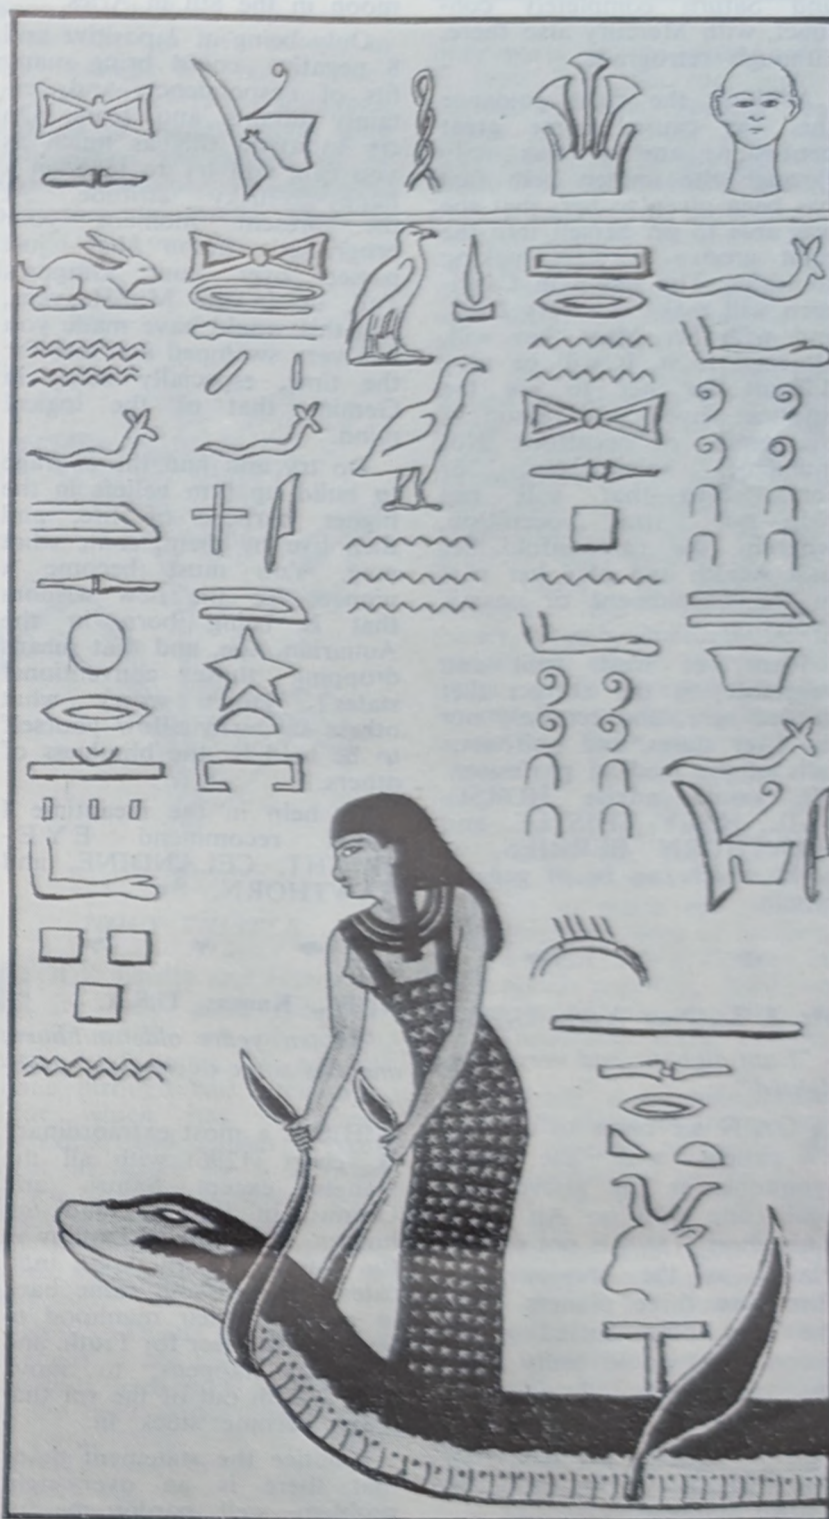

But the worship that she as a Goddess established in Egypt, and which could have saved the problems of the Aquarian Age, was deteriorated by the men of Pi-Beseth, as seen by Ezekiel 30 v. 17, who said they would die by the sword.

In later years through their distorting her wisdom, her worship became as that of Ashteroth; but what she as Bast, the dual sisters, had established, was the root of Sekhem, that which was strong, mighty and violent; the power of life, for she was the personification of the fierce scorching and destroying heat of the Sun's rays, whose attributes were her character.

These three hieroglyphs in the Sphinx portrayed the Goddess in her administration of office, and the lion in the lower part of its body represented the animal to be devoured or transmuted.

As Neheb-kau she was an ancient Goddess who helped man and woman to find the Elysian Fields of peace; for in the "Festival of Ploughing the Earth" men were taught to plough the land that had become under subsidence from the waters of the Inundation, and the sowing of the seed for next years crop.

"OH MAN! HOW HAST THOU FALLEN, THOU SO MIGHTY A CREATURE WITH SO MUCH HERITAGE, FOR DID NOT SHE OF THE GREAT TEMPLE LEAD THEE, AND NOW YE STAND NAKED AND ASHAMED."

THE MYSTIC SERPENT

THE capture of the mystic serpent was known right back at the beginning of Time, where Woman through the glory of the virgin mind, brought him into life as the glory of truth. This was the secret of phallic worship, the mighty wisdom of Herma. (See text in col. 5).

who then places him on fire and burns into him in her name of Set-ursert-aa. It literally means, she burns into him of her alchemicalization and drives him from his old stage into another that she may obtain mastery over him.

SO SHE WAS ALWAYS SEEN IN A DUAL STATE AS THE ALL POWERFUL QUEEN OF HEAVEN AND EARTH; THE GREAT MOON BEING SOLAR BORN BY RA, THUS THE WAXING AND WANING, BUT EVER THE "EYE OF THE FLAME" WHO CONSUMES ALL AND BLAZETH FORTH AS "FLAME OF MOUTH."

This has a dual purpose, for such a period of life is completely unknown to man today, it referring to both the Cosmos

the power to cut off the head of the serpent of darkness and bring forth Horus the child of light, but only by the power of the Goddess. Thus she was all powerful and mighty, that most necessary to Ra. But her main theme in her ministry as a Queen was to exercise influence over women who were with "child"; and in this role appeared as the Goddess of the birth-chamber.

She and her son Khensu, who represented the form of the Christos in its early stages of birth, would make women fruitful and make the human germ to grow in the mother's womb, thus festivals were celebrated in April and May where fertility was abound. For in that day, to become with child, was fulfilling the order of the "curse" and must be exercised and encouraged that the multiplication was fulfilled.

THE HEALING COLUMN

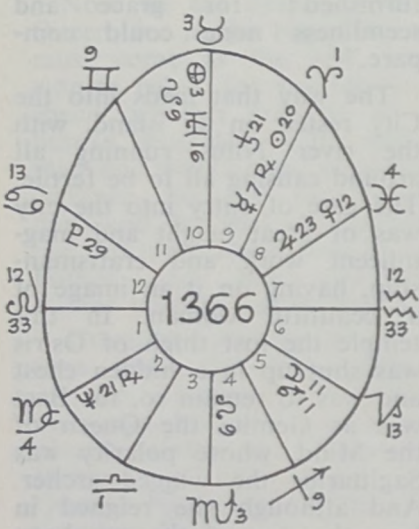

GREAT DIVINE ONE

WE ask Thy Blessing upon these children that they too will awaken to the glories of the Inner Life, and seek of Thy Divinity, that it becometh one with their heart purpose and their radiating unfolding OM of their mouth and their Source. We leave them in Thy care. AMEN.

"I have had diabetes for 20 years... only see my menstrual periods once a year."

IN this chart (1366) it can be clearly seen by the Dragon's Head in the 4th house in Scorpio, that this soul came back to get her fires moving, in order to build up a Mind body which she is without. This should have fed her 10th house, where her Uranus and Path of Destiny are situated. All this seems to indicate wealth gathered in Medo-Persia, which it was her duty to tread in and bring to mind light. This she has refused to do over many lives, and so at the beginning of puberty, when her past unfolding of fire frequency should have been maintained, she only held to the lower fire status of the earth. The lower fire however, will not feed her—only the spirit Fire to the equal of the wealth she has gathered; thus it is most important that she brings that wealth into its raised up glory of mind light, through an intense and earnest study of deep wisdom.

Diabetes is not a disease as such, but a state which we often have to pass through in the reforming of the self to get back to our previous god-like stage. It is merely a state of changing fire, when the earth body is being renounced and an Air body, a Mind body, is being created in its place. It is only when the soul refuses to continue its new path that this state of diabetes comes into birth; once it accepts that the earth body, with its multitude of desires, is of no value, and that the growth of the spirit, through wisdom, is the only important point at stake, then this condition will disappear.

The only cure is through the turning to the Spirit Powers and working diligently with the study of the Word. Whatever the medical world might do to try and rectify this condition will be of no help at all; in fact they will cause the past wealth of the soul to become crystallised, for in feeding the body with false fire it does not allow the spirit Fire to manifest, which would have been the saving grace of the soul.

This is really a very good chart, but it does seem that in one incarnation since Medo-Persia this soul became a nun. This is reflected in the Venus and Jupiter down the pit, in the 8th house in Pisces, and this linkage with papalism has caused some damage to the wealth already gained, although it could not alter the growth that had been attained. This growth is shown in the 9th house, the house of wisdom, where we see the Sun and Saturn completely conjunct, with Mercury also there, although retrograde.

Without the right guidance this has caused some great confusion, and it was only through the unseen help that has been given to her, that she was able to get herself into the right groove to start making enquiries. The moon in Capricorn will make her very fixed, and with her Mars, her will, attached to it, it will be very difficult for her to see the mystical rhyme and reason of the depths of occultism. Not mundane spiritualism, or fortune-telling—that will not help—but true occultism, whereby she can unfold her past wealth and play her part in the unfolding of cosmic evolution.

Plenty of fresh fruit and vegetables is the correct diet needed here, and certainly not the liver states, and poisonous pills of the medical profession. We would advise HORSE-TAIL, HOLY THISTLE, and HAWTHORN BERRIES, as herbs which can be of general benefit.

Mr. J. L., New York, U.S.A.

"I am diabetic and very near-sighted."

AGAIN we come to another patient with the same symptoms as the above, and again one with no Air body. This chart (1360) is not so well placed as the previous, for there are three planets down the 8th house, including the moon. This would badly affect the personality, bringing a state of inertia and despondency, which would directly affect his Sun in Pisces, with the Saturn conjunct.

It is quite easy to see why there is trouble with the sight, for there is not enough activity being made; in fact the inert state I feel with this chart is intense! The Path of Destiny in the 2nd house, with its polarity in the 8th, has linking with the spine, and indicates of the activity that must be brought into birth by the 'bull' rushing up and down the spine to draw in of fresh air—new ideas.

This soul came back with Virgo on the Ascendant, and Gemini on the Mid-Heavens; two key points for mind expansion, which if activated could cause the Jupiter in the 4th house in Capricorn, to bring an extension to their mount—but of course this has not taken place.

However, the soul is still young so there is plenty of time to try and bring a growth to the mind plane. But do remember that this does not just mean text-book studying; the soul must build up its own ideas, not merely swallow the ideas of others. Neptune in the 12th house would incline the soul towards occultism, but he would still be held by the conventional states of the outside, particularly with the moon in the 8th in Aries.

Only being of 2 positive and 8 negative, could bring many fits of despondency, and certainly doubts and fears. Do try to avoid this as much as you can, and try to take on a happy-go-lucky attitude. At the present moment your progressed moon has just passed over your Dragon's Tail, up in the Mid-Heavens, and this would have made you feel very swamped and lost for the time, especially being in Gemini, that of the logical mind.

Do try and find the courage to build up firm beliefs in the higher purpose of life, and then live by them, come what may. You must become a pioneer for the new wisdom that is being born in the Aquarian Age, and that means dropping those conventional states! Don't worry what others say, why allow yourself to be held by the blindness of others.

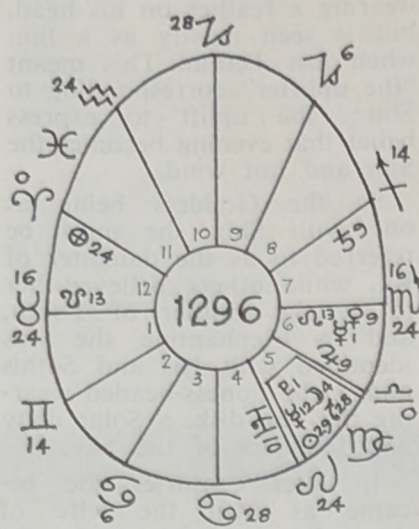

To help in the meantime I would recommend EYE-BRIGHT, CELANDINE, and HAWTHORN.

D. M., Kansas, U.S.A.

"Is ten years old, stubborn, and has some overweight problem."

THIS is a most extraordinary chart (1296) with all the planets, except Saturn and Uranus, in the 5th and 6th houses. The Path of Destiny in the 12th house, in Aries, indicates that this soul came back to raise up their manhood to become a pioneer for Truth, and whatever happens, to move their wealth out of the rut that it has become 'stuck' in.

I notice the statement made that there is an overweight problem—well, pardon me for saying so, but I have just seen a big fat monk, and one could easily think of Friar Tuck! This is where the inertia state has come from, where in a past life, or lives, this soul just lived under the guise of religion, feeding himself in abundance, and merely carrying out church rituals under the authority of some archbishop who couldn't have been too enthusiastic with his job.

This boy must be forced out of this state, and made to exercise his mind in active thought, in order to move his planets out of the stagnancy they are in. Rigid discipline, plenty of sport, and a frugal diet, certainly wouldn't hurt him; if not, I am afraid that when puberty comes, the sex powers could turn to heavy indulgence.

Uranus in the 4th house, is indicating that activity and the sparking of the fire must begin at once. Five planets in Virgo in the 5th house, indicates of enormous wealth, but none of it is being put into activity, and by this I do not mean text-book knowledge, but occult wisdom.

This individual could make a very fine healer, but the Saturn in the 7th house in Sagittarius, could incline him to only seek in the direction of self, and only use his powers in orthodox medical or scientific learning. This could be overcome, especially in one so young, if he is encouraged to turn to the occult wisdom, and seek into the higher mysteries of life.

Being so near puberty, MISTLETOE and MARIGOLD FLOWERS could help this soul to awaken his positive attributes, which will help him to bridge the 'red sea', the intensity of the passional waters.

M. M., Kansas, U.S.A.

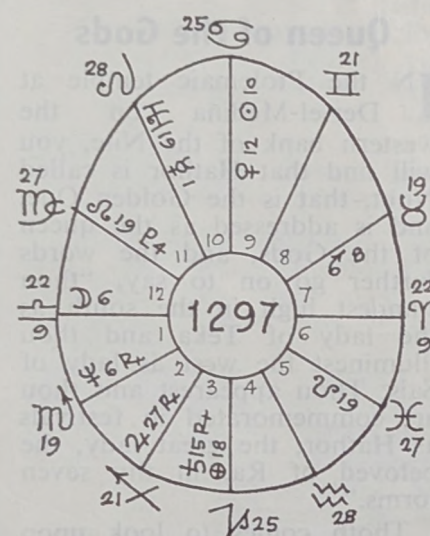

"This boy is only 8 years old, but is nervous, stubborn, a dreamer, and very fussy about eating the right food."

THIS is a very scattered chart (1297) and there may be a tendency to build up the mind in multiplicity. Try to keep this child to the point in everything he does, and train him to bring all that he does to perfection. This will be necessary as he has the moon in the 12th house in Libra, which is indicating that he has come back in order to learn balance.

The Path of Destiny in the 3rd house, the house of the mind, is further indicating that he must bring all he does and thinks, up to the pinnacle point of perfection, thus building up his mount in the heights. The Pisces on the cusp of the 6th house would give the tendency towards being a dreamer; in fact it could bring inertia, especially with the Sun and Venus in Cancer.

He, like many others, is due for expansion, and must build up his Mind body, but Jupiter, retrograde in the 2nd, indicates the lack of expansion in this direction. The world is changing rapidly, and only by a Mind body is there going to be the passport through the continuity, so every effort should be made to encourage this young man to seek into the wisdom of life, that he is not found wanting at the crucial moment.

HOLY THISTLE

(Carduus Benedictus)

by David Spearman-Cook

ROYAL light of Cosmic strength,
The supreme of all the Solar firmament,
Raise the might of puny man,
Into the Sun of Vega, reborn Samarkand.

ERE the thirst of Holy Writ,
Awaits the Seed of Cosmic quest,
To once again relieve the Souce
Into the radiance of Divine Heavenly BLISS.

HOLY Thistle, also known as Blessed Thistle, and of which we now discuss, has a reputation of being an all-heel, which was used extensively during the plague, it being especially mentioned by Thomas Brasbridge. He in 1578 published his "Poore Man's Jewell," a treatise of the Pestilence, unto which is annexed a declaration of the virtues of Carduus Benedictus. William Shakespeare in "Much Ado About Nothing" says, "Get you some of the Carduus Benedictus, and lay it to your heart, it is the only thing for a qualm." It is also mentioned in some herbal treatise, as Carbenia Benedicta.

It is often used as a tonic, stimulant, diaphoretic, emetic and emmenagogue, and in large doses acts as a strong emetic, producing vomiting with little pain and inconvenience. It is also said to have great power in the purification and circulation of the blood, and on this account it strengthens the brain and the memory.

The leaves dried and powdered are good against worms, and are often used for nursing mothers; for the warm infusion of Holy Thistle scarcely ever fails to procure a proper supply of milk. It is interesting to note that many other thistles may be used as a substitute, holding the same beneficial response.

But above all else, at this time of unification and the changing of all the powers by the new LAWS, the most important thing now is the FIRE, for now more than ever is the cry for the Holy Fire, as all now has become a Fiery Plane of Divine ascension, and the Spirit World are expecting all to manipulate, with open arms, the in-pouring Atomic Fires; for they are our ever saving grace, and all the wonders of the All-consuming fires of rebirth.

That which has been brought to a unification by Merope as the Cosmic Scapegoat. She who has taken the full velocity that man may be spared the atomic infused burning of its raw state, and transmuted it as the Divine Fire of the Sun in Scorpio; LOVE born out of the FIRE, in the Atomic union with the Divine Central Sun.

This embracement by man, can be assisted by the partaking of Holy Thistle and Horsetail, for these are Solar energised herbs, which hold the maximum amount of fire that any herb can assimilate. All herbs will in time eventually become as such in their frequency, but until they do, this is the way to assist and help to raise man up out of his lower depths, especially as he foregoes the false fires of the earth commodities.

THEREBY ACCEPTING THE WORD AS HIS DAILY NOURISHMENT, TREATING ALL ELSE AS ONLY STEPPING STONES TO THE HEIGHTS.

HOLY Thistle was profusely grown in very hot countries, and was brought home to England by the Crusaders of the past, who learnt some of its precious secrets. Just for a matter of enlightenment, this combination of Holy Thistle and Horsetail, has a linking with the fact that the Moors placed and tied a thistle under their horses tails, a devilish trick, simply to stir their dying fires into action, a so-called sport which they delighted in.

Many an infidel crusader was treated to this spectacle whilst tied upon one of these poor creatures' backs. But for all this, Horsetail and Holy Thistle is a marvellous combination to raise one's fires, and one that Mrs. Spearman-Cook uses here at the School, for patients coming to her for help, suffering from inertia.

Holy Thistle is used for the fundamental uses of the female more than the male element, although of course this means the negative side of man as well. For it can, with an equal mixing of Horsetail, raise him up to the extremes of himself while he is in the negative state of his unfoldment. While he is deliberating and trying to find the first implosion of the Virgin Plane, that he has ascended onto through the changing Cosmic Laws.

For at this stage of change, he will feel acutely the vast immensity of the forth-coming ascension, as he assimilates the Solar Word. One may say, that in some respect it can act as a form of safety net, which can save him from the depths at this particular period of unfoldment. Once he is settled upon the new plane of fire, if he finds it rather disturbing, he can by infusing himself with these two herbs, find that all the negative states, as entangled nerves, will find sustenance to rejuvenate themselves with.

These nerves must have fire to start the revolving of the thinning blood into mind action, for the blood is the common denominator of time, and as such is the basic of life, that when brought up upon the highest pulsation of sensitivity, can give answer to life through the inner Voice as the Theocratic guidance. This is of course where man will attract the breath in its higher frequency, consequently attracting the Divine Fires as the Holy Atomic Sea of Vega Causation.

HOLY THISTLE

HOLY Thistle and Hawthorn are very good for chilblains, which are of course, only dead states of nervous tissue through bad circulation. That which has not been activated, and causes a constant irritation by a drawing action of the magnetic. This is often caused by one who will not walk their gifts into the earth, and there are many who will not.

Holy Thistle can bring strength to the lower senses of the soul, and force all the rest of the fired tissues into a state of compromise with the higher elevated frequencies. Thereby anticipating when the soul is balanced and ready to activate the higher Vega Neptunian Plane, as the soul dances with the Solar written Word of Merope. Man then finding himself as an initiate, drawing new life within himself through the imprinted Divinity of the Occult Gazette.

Holy Thistle has been used for cardiac treatment, but it will not fully benefit a patient if the stalk and thistle are the only parts of the plant used. It must have the root incorporated with it, because the power of its sting, like the Scorpion, is in the tail and will really be of enormous use if once tried by any unfortunate sufferer in this direction. The one extreme violation of this rule, is when the thistle is used solely for the purpose of cuts or abrasions.

By being placed over the wound and securely bound can prove very efficacious. But when prepared by the herbal manufacturers, it becomes a vast mass of minute down, where these particles of hair infiltrate the wound or cut, and cause an activation amongst the surrounding tissues, thereby building up a bridge of reborn nerve and tissue which strengthens the broken surrounding flesh with a soothing balm.

For the main damage is done to the skin by the severance of the tissues, and is in itself the worst of the damage that could be done, and not so much the wound. Therefore any form of incision to the flesh by a doctor in operational research, legal or otherwise, is an abortion of the Theocratic Oath of the gods.

The body is a unified base that needs elements and nerves blended together to create the Solar Bloodstream of the soul, in order to remain free and intact from any violent shock. Consequently this herb must have a very soothing power to the whole of the system, and strength is gained, whereby one can activate more wealth into light, and feed the mind with Solar glory. It has been stated, and rightly so in the past, that the power of the thistle is of such strength, that it is unapproachable by man. This is because it can so attune his system, that if he takes too large a quantity of it on a sensitive uprisen plane, it can make him feel a little odd.

So to moderate, only use it three times a day, and by adding a little Rosemary, it will assist the nerves into a balanced equilibrium. For it holds a dynamic frequency, being once of the Virgin status, but its fire was impregnated by the thorns of man's destructive mind. Through his misuse of it through Time, which strangely became this herb's protective shield, it is but a reflection of what Merope has been doing for lives, protecting and raising up the Master as the FIRE to the heights of the Cosmic Arc, and supplying man with his new Virgin Mind.

HOLY Thistle is a very ancient plant that has slowly weathered time, and contains all the activating frequency of the earth, but is really a chapter that was drawn out of the field of corn, out of the Royal wealth that the soul fell into from the supreme royal beginning. The first form of activity moved and danced around the fire of life, and is why Horsetail and Holy Thistle are such a magnificent combination.

When it has been soaked in cold water and squeezed out, it can be used as a poultice to relieve sprains, as well as to extract inflammation. This is done by the drawing ability of the herbs trying to suck the congealing state of the blood through the defaced tissues of the flesh. When this takes place, these fractured tissue centres become pockets of power trapped within the swelling, thus accumulate, being unable to escape through the fractured tissue.

This is the basic reason why many are suffering from Elephantitis, because relativity is at last demanding a unification out of the Cancer Waters, for the EL Powers are swamping the soul through the lack of mind and physical activity. If a little Holy Thistle is placed within the nostrils, it can act as a wonderful snuff, quickly relieving the sinuses of their over-abundant waste, and clearing the head remarkably.

It can also bring a state of acute perception, if it is infused with Hawthorn, so as to balance up the afferent and efferent nerves. These are as the ropes of the ringing bell, and when working properly through soul labouring through initiation, and holding to a correct diet, will ring the right frequency to awaken and bring the clarified tone of the golden Bell of the Norm, to herald the manifesting Divinities.

Next month we will take HOREHOUND WHITE.

EGYPT —

The Cradle of Civilisation Part 5

by Gladys I. Spearman-Cook

WHEN THE SUN DOTH WITH THE LION JOIN, "AMONG four-footed things they will be; lions—a life of strength and a kind which in a measure need no sleep, in mortal body practising the exercises of immortal life—for they nor weary grow nor sleep." The lion being the nature power of man, can become power within him through the mind and will control; yet it must also be remembered it is of Serkh the scorpion and must become of Rennut the Uraeus. In the Leo Age it became of both scorpion and uraeus. To get a clear picture of the great Goddess Bast it is as well to recite of the legend as was found in the hieroglyphics, not only on the sarcophagus of Seti I, but also on the blocks of Bubastes that are still visible of the Temple of Tell Bastah, the residence of Queen Nekhthorheb or Hathor the first, the Goddess Bast.

went eventually to Tell Bastah, the temple of the Goddess Bast for this legend depicts Atlantis in her fall and Egypt in her birth. Then Ra ordered that in future, at every one of his festivals, vessels of "sleep-producing" beer should be made, and that their numbers should be the same as the number of the handmaidens of Ra. Stimulated adoration that her orgies; so fearing that the same calamity might befall his successor, he determined to take steps to destroy the power of all noxious reptiles that dwelt in the earth. With this object in view, he told Thoth, the Teacher of life, to summon Keb the earth-god to his presence, and Ra told him that war must be made against all serpents that dwelt in his dominions.

The Great Goddess Bast

THE hieroglyphics of the legend commence by showing a large red "Cow of Heaven," the lower part of her belly being decorated with thirteen stars, and immediately beneath are two boats of Ra called Sektet and Matet. Each of her four legs are held in position by two gods, and the god Shu with outstretched uplifted arms supports her body.

(See plate on page 12)

The legend of "Beginning" takes us back into the time when the Gods of Egypt went about in the country and mingled with men, and were thoroughly acquainted with their desires and needs. The king who reigned over Egypt was Ra the Sun-god who was not the first of the Dynasty of Gods who ruled the land; his predecessor on the throne was Hephaistos who reigned 9,000 years, whilst Ra reigned only 992 years. This naturally is referring to periods of Cosmic time.

Be this as it may, the "self-created and self-begotten" God Ra had been ruling over mankind for a very long time, for his subjects were murmuring against him and were complaining that he was old, that his bones were like silver, his body like gold and his hair like lapis-lazuli.

When Ra heard these murmurings he ordered his body-guard to summon all the Gods who had been with him in the primeval World-ocean and bid them privately to assemble in the Great House, the great Temple of Heliopolis. When Ra entered the great Temple, the Gods made obeisance to him and took up their positions on each side of him and informed him that they awaited his words.

Ra bade them to take notice of the fact that the men and women whom his Eye had created were murmuring against him. So he asked them to consider the matter and devise a plan of action for him, for he was unwilling to slay the rebels without hearing what his Gods had to say.

In reply the Gods advised Ra to send forth his Eye to destroy the blasphemers, for there was no eye on Earth that could resist it, especially when it took the form of the Goddess Hathor. Ra accepted their advice and sent forth his Eye in the form of Hathor to destroy them, and though the rebels had fled to the mountains in fear, the Eye pursued them and overtook them and destroyed them.

Hathor rejoiced in her work of destruction and on her return was praised by Ra for what she had done. The slaughter of men began at Sutenhenen, and during the night Hathor waded about in the blood of men. Ra asserted his intention of being master of the rebels and rose as king. Osiris became crowned there at Suten-henen, for in this great city there lived also the Bennu bird, or Phoenix, the Crusher of Bones.

THE GLORY OF THEBES

SUCH mystical glory has never been repeated from then unto the present day, where wonders untold were portrayed on those pillars that held the soul spellbound with their mighty glory. Embracement and beauty lost to man today, yet then the outcome of Helios and his belief, as he fired the world into light. (See text on page 12, col. 1).

This is the legend as told through the ages, but let us get some explanation, for what was portrayed in the legend has linking with the period of Ezekiel when the great heights were once again calling down revenge upon the rebelling children of earth.

Ra, the great Sun God, to try and make the children of earth wake up and begin to create for him his cherished City, ordered messengers to be brought to him, and when they arrived he commanded them to run like the wind to Abu, the city of Elephantine to bring him large quantities of the tataat fruit.

These were the "mandrakes" or "love-apples," and were given to Sekt the Goddess of the Temple of Heliopolis to crush and grind up, and when this was done they were mixed with human blood and put in a large brewing of beer (stimulant) which the women slaves had made from wheat. In all they made 7,000 vessels of this stimulant.

When Ra saw the beer he approved of it and ordered it to be carried up the river to the Temple of Tell Bastah where the Goddess Hathor was still engaged in "slaughtering" men. (Changing them through wisdom). During the night he caused the beer to be poured out into the meadows of the Four Heavens, and with human blood and mandrakes in it, drank of it and became drunk and paid no further attention to men and women. In welcoming the Goddess, Ra called to Amit the beautiful one and from that time onwards "beautiful women were found in the city of Amit," which was situated in the western Delta near Lake Marcotis, the great City of Apis.

The New Law and Order

THIS legend represents the Egyptian theory of the fall of man, when the Solar ray Ra, set the Feminine Principle, the negative side of the manifestation, to forming men into creators. The crushing of bones and drinking of stimulants refers to the first movements of alchemicalization taking place in death and rebirth, and Ra, the Godhead of the Firmament becoming infused by the works of man and like man, became lost in the creation set for man to build and manifest of the Great Illimitable Unknown.

Thus all became under the ruling of the Feminine Principle which took up establishment on the earth as Goddess, therefore all the Power gained would be the means of lifting up the heavens.

Those who took part in these festivals of Hathor and Ra drank beer in very large quantities, under the influence of the "beautiful women," the priestesses who resembled Hathor in their physical attractions, but eventually the festival celebrations degenerated into drunken and licentious orgies.

Soon after this Ra complained that he was smitten with pain and that he was weary of the children of men. He thought them a worthless remnant and wished more of them had been slain, and the Gods about him begged him to endure and reminded him that his power was in proportion to his will. Ra was unconsoled and he complained that his limbs were weak for the first time in his life, and Ra left and went back. Man cried to Ra to stay and were willing to slay all who had blasphemed against him, but darkness covered the land.

Ra made a heaven for himself, the planetary realms, and arranged for a continuance of life on the earth, also the welfare of human beings; but he could not forget that at the time of reigning on earth, he had been bitten by a serpent and had nearly lost his life through the bite. Atlantis in

This would be the war of Karma; but further he commanded the God Nu to draw up a writing, that though the serpents knew Ra was retiring from earth, they were never to forget that his rays would fall upon them; thus Ra remained supreme and could force adharma on the soul who entertained the serpents. And furthermore, he imparted to magicians and snake-charmers the particular word of power, "hekau," with which they could bring to life of the word.

Thus it can be seen, that this very Ancient Egyptian legend literally tells of how the Solar light, as the Sun God Ra, came to reign over men, who partook of the power and became drunken. This resulted in orgies, and one by one they were "slaughtered"; lost to truth.

Consequently Ra left the world and no longer shed beauty over the "Country of the Morning Sun," and from then onwards Bast as power, "killed men," by the power changing them in metempsychosis; but to begin with that
