THE VOICE The Mystery of Ever Becoming

by Gladys I. Spearman-Cook

AS SHE WENT ALONG HER allotted way, she sang a song of what could ever be, though hard her lot of ever toiling to fulfill the mystery of TIME and existence. Yet the Glory of Woman now to come forth, to be transmigrated into the Divinity of the Fatherhood. Hence the glory of the Virgin in the Immaculate Conception, the radiance of the Arc. Thus now, the unfolding wonders put into birth by Merope had brought her way back home, with every road cleared and prepared by her, for her and her sisters to climb the Golden Thread and find their way back home. Hence Merope now to become 'one with her heavenly Spouse' in the Sea of Divine Inaudible Consciousness, where life is one vast Beauty of vibronic Glory, the manifestation of the Thought. That set into operation by Brahma, now the manifesting magnificence of Divinity. The ever-changing and evolving glory of the Unseen, which issues forth the nucleus of possibility that can bring all tangibility into creation.

The Alchemy of Illusion

THUS the mystery of the Voice, the manifesting glory of the mind, has become one of the great mystical secrets of life. Yet a road whereby Merope 'made strait the gate,' where she solved the mystery of the ever Open Mouth, the secret of continuity; yet the depths of the Mysteries brought into being when soul fell into the depths of the brink, changing his status from soul to animal-man until he could find the returning glory of the godship lost to him Ages ago. Thus Merope knew that it could only be by her, as the Virgin, drawing new beliefs down from the Ethers, that would impregnate and transmigrate old states into a greater changing purpose, bringing unto the soul the wherewithal to unfold and expand into the glory of the spirit. Hence the divine perception, the glories of divine truth, manifesting upon the internal glories of the mind. Thus Merope, with her pen 'neath the wing of the Eagle, sought once again for truths that would bring glorified revelation to one and all. Hence in her searching she suddenly beheld that the Voice was the insufflation of the Seed, the out-pouring of the Holy Ghost through the portal membranes of the soul. The transference of the blood from one status to another, to complete its unfolding glory into internal heavenly light. Thereby piercing such wonder, she placed an Oath upon her lower nave, to ever reverence the Glory of Divinity. Anointing with "oil" in the establishment of the Reality, that it became a glorified radiance of light. Thus ever manifesting as her awakened divine consciousness, her begotten glory of the unfolding Fiery Divinity. That which she knew could only come forth by the ever-growing recognition and up-raising of the Spirit. Whereby the soul became more and more sensitised to the Divine Voice within the inflowing Breath. Ever capturing its Holy intensity as the Neptunian Beauty of the timeless and formless Word, the vibronic glory of the mind.

THE COSMIC VOICE

THE Divine Glory of the heavenly FACE, speaking from the dynamic wealth of the heavenly Neptunian Waters, declaring to humanity of the holy glory of the stupendous quintessential FLAME. The mighty mystery of the Scapegoat, who was the means of bringing earth and Heaven united into the glory of the VOICE. It was by such that the mighty Divinity sealed the earth with the Crux Ansata, leaving with one and all the royal beauty of divinity, the depths of unknown wonders. (See text on page 3, col. 1).

Mr. & Mrs. Aristotle Onassis,
Island of Skorpios,
Greece.

20th October, 1968

THIS is the most outstanding incident of the Age, for Aristotle Onassis is the reborn Aristotle of the past, come forward and reincarnated to revive the ancient Gods of Greece. That they, as the Theocratic Government, as the divine glory of the mind, will now resurrect and raise up humanity into its rightful own. That which was cruelly and evilly suppressed by Roman Catholicism.

God bless you both and may the marriage be a lasting and happy one.

Yours sincerely,

Gladys I. Spearman-Cook

Gladys I. Spearman-Cook

HAVING been informed of the storm of criticism that greeted this marriage, may I make some further comment regarding this. But do please remember that this is not a matter of my principles being put forward, but this man and woman being left alone to work out their lives according to their beliefs. For they are the only ones to be answerable for their actions.

How in the Name of Heaven, can a bunch of Italians have the right to criticise them in the way that the "petticoat priests" of the Vatican have been doing? And I would like to remind the female reporter who referred to Onassis as a roue, he may be, but at least he is a MAN, which is more than can be said for some! And further to Cardinal Cushing's statement that only God can judge, it is a pity that he hasn't learnt his spiritual ethics a great deal better than this, for man is his own judge and pays the price of his judgement.

With regard to the excommunication, this is nothing more than sheer murder, and I speak with experience. In my opinion there should be a law against it. In 1966 I gave Roman Catholicism 5 years to break up; it does not look as if it will even take as long as that, but little did I believe that they would be the means of killing themselves! This religion is the curse of the age, and a damning to every soul that comes under its jurisdiction.

Another Nail in the Coffin!

THE news of Jacqueline Kennedy's marriage to Aristotle Onassis, was greeted at the School with sheer delight, for the esoteric depth of this action was far greater than many would realise. In marrying Aristotle Onassis, she did far more damage to Roman Catholicism than they know—or do they, I wonder? What was left of their crumbling foundation has now been completely destroyed, for she was almost the leading lady of Roman Catholicism, and in one short moment she has shown how little their narrow doctrines mean to her, and how vicious-minded they are, almost like revengeful schoolboys, in trying to force her to repudiate her action. Trying by the use of the devil's own weapon—FEAR—to crush her in soul and spirit; but then of course, we know that their meaning of charity is as empty as the dummy that sits in the papal seat, doling out pardons and blessings to the highest bidders, while on the other hand extorting his dues from the poor of the land who are living in abject poverty, afraid to stand up for themselves for the fear of being cursed into eternal hell and damnation!

THE greatest Cosmic point though, from this marriage, was that Jacqueline Kennedy turned from Roman Catholicism to the religion of Greece, and by that action she released the Powers of the Greek Gods, who had been suppressed when papalism cast its black shadow over the world. While I am writing this a voice is telling me that "she has baked a mighty pie for the royal Isles of Britannicus, one that none could better." Well, surely this is similar to the "pie that was set before the King," symbolising a 'feast' of power that has been set into movement by her action.

You might ask why it is a feast for Britannicus, well, that is simple to answer, for it is in this Island, in London, that the Theocratic Government has been established, and working direct through the mind and voice of the Leader of our Labour Government.

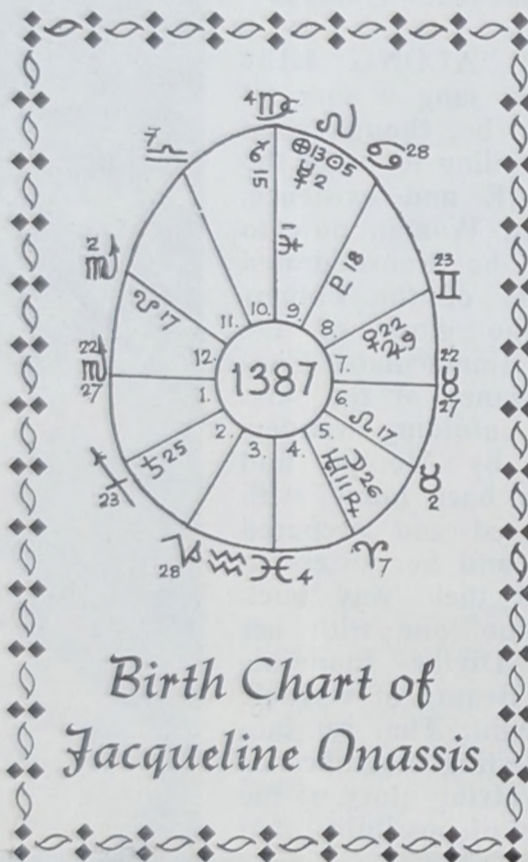

Merope said that he was being supported by the Divinities, and that he would win the next election—I wonder how many are beginning to accept this fact, realising that there is some unseen Force that is protecting him from the cheap onslaughts of the Tory rabble. I am afraid that when the next general election comes upon us, Uranus will strike to bring fulfilment of the Law, and there will then be another 'blasted Heath' whose growth will be shattered!

BUT to return to Mrs. Onassis's chart (1387) it is obvious with only a quick glance, that it is a dynamic chart, for she has 5 Fire, and 2 Air Bodies, making her 7 positive and only 3 negative. This shows that she is a very determined and capable woman, especially as she has Scorpio on her Ascendant, and Mars, her will power, upon the Mid-Heavens.

With the above mentioned attributes she would have enormous reserves of energy—energy that is waiting to be turned into the glory of mind light. But Saturn in the 2nd house, in Sagittarius, shows that in her recent lives, she has preferred the pleasures of the earth, the negative unfoldment of Venus, instead of starting the "plowing" between Taurus and Scorpio, that she could draw into her being the royal glory of the Scorpio Seed and so blossom her mind into the fantasies of Neptunian Glory, the true Reality of life.

Birth Chart of Jacqueline Onassis

Venus and Jupiter in Gemini, in the house of marriage, obviously indicates of a union of plenty, but also that she is seeking security. Not just security of finances, but security with a man whose ancient depths could polarise the depths of her fount, and so give her the inner expansion that she so badly needed.

Aristotle Onassis has the power to give unto her the means of elevating her mind up to the highest degree. He is a man of dynamic ancient wealth, or else he could never have reached the position he has done, even on the mundane level. It will be interesting to see if his mind suddenly begins to turn to mystical thoughts, and he finds his ancient past rear up again before his eyes. Stranger things than that can happen, especially now that the Gods are once again ruling supreme, but we must just wait and see.

IN returning to the chart, we see the Path of Destiny in the 9th house, the house of wisdom, again indicating that in this life the owner of the chart must raise all her depths up into spiritual illumination. As I said in the beginning, it is a dynamic chart, full of fire, and bursting with untold possibilities. If she could only break completely free from all orthodox ideas, she would be amazed at what she could bring forth. If she would only begin to seek into the depths of mysticism, her past wealth would unfold in no time, and bring acute mind perception and intuition into birth, and quite probably develop a high standard of mystical clairvoyance, the wonders of the Neptunian Plane.

It is no good her saying that she does not understand this wisdom, for without a doubt she has been a mighty Egyptian Queen in a past life, but unfortunately became caught up with Roman Catholicism in a recent life, which badly blunted her sensitivity that was crying out to manifest its royalty once again.

Well, I have just touched upon the major points within this chart; for anything deeper I would suggest that Mrs. Onassis had a full horoscope delineation from Mrs. Spearman-Cook. That would be an extra wedding present which would not cost half a million pounds, but its value in spiritual terms is priceless, for who can put a price upon the gift of a freed spirit, or a value upon the Voice of Divinity, as you hear it for the first time, speaking directly to you, through the glory of your awakened mind!

For "to know" is but the alchemy of illusion, while it is only in the "unknowing" that the soul ever seeks into the Virgin Space, and captures a glorious fragment of His Divine Being. To know is to limit, while fluidity and change is "unknowingness," which will lead the soul ever into untouched realms of His Divine Holy LOVE. Thus Merope as the holy Virgin became the EYE of the Unseen, that as the Perceptory Glory of the sensitised Virgin, she could ever wear the Aegis, the Celestial necklet of the Divine immensity of Ages. The ever-revolving and circling of Worlds as the intensity of wealth captured and revolved into greater light.

Merope circling around her head, bringing new glories into birth as the Cardinal Points became reborn by the wisdom of the Virgin labouring in the depths. Therefore, with such divine beauty manifesting its glory unto her, she knew that the spirit—which was the Word born out of the Fire,—was the mighty glorified Chalice of the Flame. The ever intensifying of the Arc, the glorifying of the Seed in the intensity of the Breath.

Thus here was the Source of the Prima Mobile, the ever-revolving of the thought, that new beliefs could ever come forth, bringing divine perfection to the glory of the unfolding of the Divine FACE. The inflowing Breath which made manifestation through the mind of the Virgin, covering her with the glory of the divine Quintessence, the radiance of the Holy Ghost.

For in the revolving Word, would the Glory of Truth ever be transmigrated into the Aureole of radiant divinity, the Christ-like glory of the mind. Ever intensifying the Word and the outflowing manifestation of OM as the Divinity speaking through the Voice of the Virgin, the glory of the Fount to the Mouth. The Voice now being the clarion call that was manifesting the unsung symphony of the Spheres.

The radiant Glory of those divine Celestial Beings that had their manifesting beauty in the glory of the soul. The internal depths, that of the soul Vase, which held the Water that must ever be changed into Wine. That the glory of the Robe can ever come forth as the insignia of the soul's impounding growth. All becoming as the formulated heart-beat, which in turn, had its reflection upon the Source of the Seed.

Perception of the Solar Breath

THE Voice now becoming as a vital creation, either intensified or stained by the desire body of the soul. That which now dictated how the Word could come forth, either as the rolling glory of truth, or the twisted manifestation of Sisyphus, with Tantalus ever reaching for the fruit of the tree and his feet ever slipping on the slime in the waters. Thus the cupola must ever be as the vault of the heavens, the radiating dome of light all sheathed in gold in its divine anointment, that the Voice can announce its new intensified wonders, stirring divine glory in every heart as they envy the very beauty they see.

Yet knowing as they seek to obtain, that its possession is now only by sacrifice and struggle, the blood-letting glory of rebirth. For the Solar light is far more intensified now, it being the Virgin Sun of the Neptunian Holy Fires reborn through the mighty wisdom of Merope. For was not the structure of the Vernal Equinox created by the Virgin's LOVE, the Divine Voice now being of the great sanctified radiance of the Solar inflow! The intensified Glory sending down a more dynamic electrified Breath, that would give forth of a greater vibronic intensity.

With wealth and wisdom never known before, which will have its results in the Voice that utters it forth. The Divine Voice as the celebrating Glory of the Mighty Intelligencia, the radiance of the ARC. An intensified Glory that could only belong to those mighty heavens in the Royal Divine intensity of the Glorified Begotten passing over the radiance of the Earth through Merope's revolving action upon her axis, her spinal glory of manifestation.

This being an Occult status, which in reality is the frequency relativity of the Spinal Column of the World, the intensified glory of Merope's. Yet both fastened by that mystical Law of Relativity to the Great Heavenly Spine, all synchronising in uniform action by polarity of frequency. For as Merope activates her spine,—the mystical wonders of the ROD,—does it enforce the changes in the Spine of both Earth and heavens, the ascension of new-born light. Hence now, the first mighty change is being registered, as the rebound is captured by the Virgin in the highest capacity possible.

For now, it is well known to Merope that the divine Voice of the Virgin must be entirely of Solar Perception. That born from the Divine Glory of the reborn Atomised Solar light, the glory of the Central Sun. It now being a rebound of the great Sothic Cycle, which has already brought into birth the first Terrestrial Christ in the glory of Merope. With all who wish to emulate her footsteps, supping diligently of her mighty prototype.

What Merope had now drawn forth from those mighty heavens,—the intensity of Outer World Space,—was being prototyped in the Solar rebirth, the inflowing glory to the earth. That which was going to alter the whole structure of human growth in demanding a greater intensity of MIND struggle, that the Holy Divinity could become the Voice of every possible citizen of Vega. For the brilliance of the in-born Solar Glory was now the Orion Majesty of divine Neptunian Power, with an Outer World Space capacity of radiant Virgin Light.

With the voice as of super-sensitivity, which would now be able to manifest in the formulative capacity of royal Occult Wisdom. It no longer being of the mundane, but of the Higher realms of vibronic creation, which the wise man will now seek to capture. Thus the mighty order of the day, now re-atomised from the majesty brought into birth by the Virgin's raised up belief.

Hence all the dynamic Power of the Cosmos, now the complete re-creation, assembled by the union of relativity. With Merope the Scapegoat paving the way, in unifying everything into the mystical glory of Oneness. Therefore, as the moment now comes forth, with the inflowing Transcendental Waters, the only way for the soul to survive, is to begin to create a masterly WILL of electrified oneness. That he can drive the intensity of his mind to the utmost degree, until the soul awakens to the full propensity of this glorified rebirth and begins his own active electrified search through the reborn mind capacity.

With Uranus now playing a very important part, he being the mighty awakener, but also the mystical sustainer of unified earth and heavenly life in demanding the glory of unified polarity. That ever

The New Manifestation

EVERY man now seeking through the super-struggle of Uranus, that the Neptunian Waters can flow up to the heights, enveloping the gods with the intensification of their divine glory. With the lower planes no longer in existence, all being united on the Virgin Plane, the mighty unified glory of Merope's belief brought to a oneness of unification. Hence the triune of Uranus, Neptune and Pluto are now the divine controllers of life, with the activating Elements of the sphere, the Glory of the Solar Divinity. For the Chromosphere is the radiant FACE of the Virgin Spirit, whose Veil has now been removed and its inner glory revealed unto the very depths. "Look upon ME and die." This now the present message of the LAW, where the Scales of Virgin purity reveal the purpose of the heart. Therefore, all who are now too imbued by the weight of earthy desire, will feel the strike of the Uranian counterbalance as it brings them in unison with the Source. For all must return unto the Source one way or another, through its polarised Glory, the divine beauty of the Virgin FACE.

Now the LORD will speak through His SON, and the heavens will be made manifest upon the earth. For Penelope has finished weaving her cosmic tapestry, and the last of the Brahmic Thread has now returned to its Source, giving unto the Great Cosmic Bull his Cloak of Solar Invulnerability. While the Serpent has been atomised and involved into the Solar light as the Kundalini Fire, and the temptress has now become the Virgin Glory of the heavens. For the doorway of Divinity has been gilded with gold, and the LIGHT of the Temple born of the undying Flame of Solar rebirth.

For now, Merope-Majesta is the driving force of Divinity, as she ever spins the world into Atomic rebirth. That she as the FACE is now the Voice and the Source of the mighty unfolding Solar System. (See the Front Page plate)

For she has given unto Divinity of the dynamic glory of Cosmic Invulnerability, as she imploded the Seed into the majesty of the Neptunian Solar glory, spinning it up to the heavenly heights. That now firmly established upon the Arc as the Power of the Plutonic Perception, the Holy Glories of the Quintessential Flame, the radiance of the divine Transcendental Glory.

Hence the secret of the Solar World is to capture the inner divinity of the Word, and mould it with the mystery of ever becoming, to bring forth the Royalty of the Divine Unseen Divinity. Thus as Merope looked on and marvelled at so much being revealed, she turned to her Magic Mirror, that some inner intensity could be unfolded to her, revealing the inner depths of the unfolding glory of the heights.

Hence, as its vibration began to roll, spinning up and up to a greater intensity, she saw a Woman ascending some mighty steep steps until she came to an Altar of unseen heavenly radiance. As she offered up her devout supplications, light, and then vibronic fire began to swirl around her. Then, as though it commanded the whole of her being, she suddenly began to rise up out of herself as though her inner being was ascending up in dynamic radiance of frequency. Up and up she went, until it was seen that she was vibrating at a ratio far beyond any form of human capacity.

Then the scene in the Magic Mirror changed, revealing a Woman sailing up and up in ethereal robes of diaphanous glory, leaving a trail of vibronic radiance behind her. When suddenly she appeared to arrive at a Temple, a compartment of small creation on its own, ethereal and radiant in its awe-like glory. As Merope entered she could feel the extreme awe that pervaded the mystery of its being, giving an intensity unknown to man in form.

SCORPIONIC UNITY

THE Virgin, as the Divine Glory, being lifted up into the Heights, where she held the unfolding Fiery Divinity as it poured its Neptunian Glory into the depths; for it was through the unified sensitivity of her own heavenly being that such wonders were ever radiating over the earth, as the glory of reborn unified magnitude. (See the Front Page text).

giving rebirth through the atomic flash, or striking the boomerang of the soul's uncreated effort to activate his mind intensity.

Now being the moment when man is going to learn the real meaning of renunciation, in reserving his waters and the frugality of diet, and the true necessity of Solar assimilation. Not lazing for hours in the down-pouring rays of the Solar glory, but sensitising himself to the reborn frequency of the inflowing Galactical Breath. With the true belief of Divinity now dawning upon his awakening mind. Slowly finding the reverent acceptance of the Virgin, and the divine key wisdom which she now has prepared by her blood struggle to unite heights and depths by that mystical atomic Firing propensity.

lower creation as a basic order of directive organic activity.

Nebula influences moving the alchemy creation until the soul is born of audible perceptory awareness, the Timeless flash of Uranian Glory. Man no longer a chooser through monetary power, but a diligent worker to assimilate his mind, that he can meet the intensity of the electrical active infusion, that which now is holding the World in its grip. For this is where the whole of the Abyss is going to become born of Solar glory.

For now, there has been a rebirth of the NORM as it became kissed by the Solar Beauty of the Virgin Fire, bringing forth the articulation of the glorified Virgin Chromo-

As the Woman walked forward, she came to an Altar that was duly veiled, being enshrouded with intense holy Mystery. Then as she approached nearer with her head bowed, she heard a vibrant VOICE declare, "You now approach the Mystery of the Voice, the Glory of the Divine Fatherhood. Would you have the courage to pull asunder these Veils, and gaze upon the Secret of the Mighty Unknown."

The Woman hesitated for a moment, then with a firm Voice replied, "YES!" As she did so, she pulled the veils apart and peered into an intense Blackness as never seen before. An intensity that almost took one off their feet, and drew one down into its mystical depths. The Woman then bowed and drank from the Cup standing upon the Altar, returning back as it were, to the very point of Source.

Merope knew that she had been looking at herself, but unto the etheric manifestation of that glorious ceremony of Annunciation. A glory afforded only once in a life-time, if ever at all, and then not always a moment of fruitful receptivity. But Merope like Paul, had sailed up to the heights, and touched the Depths of Unknown Wonders. Of what, she could not declare, for it remained at the present an internal mystery yet to be revealed.

Voice of the Fatherhood

THEN once again the scene in her Mirror changed, and this time she beheld a mighty King who was seeking to bring forth a new creation that would keep him vibrating in superiority above all other Monarchs near and far. As he sought under the false stimulus of his hookah pipe, activity was created by his slaves, with harem girls being cast to the slave market as they failed to raise the agitation of that King, and set his perceptory sensitivity into motion.

Then suddenly he rose and went forth to create, after offering his aspiration up to his gods in the heights. For he had perceived a Cosmic intensity never realised before, thus demanded a mighty interpenetrational search, to find the mystery to polarise in expansion.

Then again the Face of the Mirror changed, and this time the Virgin and the Warrior of new-born truth were dancing the Le Ros unification, as unto the glory of rebirth; swirling back and forth, round and round, increasing the activity as they went. Then suddenly the Gryphons broke in on the scene, and had to be grappled with by the potential Bull. But the intensity of the internal darkness was the idiosyncrasy of the king himself, hence the hookah pipe of earthly perception, minus the glory of the spirit. As the mighty struggle took place to master this dynamic negative intensity, the king killed off his own warrior sonship by the lack of sufficiency to warrant the activity required. With the Virgin veiled, cowering against the ancient growth, hiding her face with intense fear.

As the king with jubilant egotistical avidya killed off his active virgin warrior, he strode forward to the Virgin to claim her as his prize, but in tearing aside her veil he reeled back in utter amazement at the glory he beheld. For completely devoid of all attuned sensitivity, he had ravaged the glory of the raised-up Virgin mind. As he did so, he recoiled, for there before him was the FACE of the Cosmic Virgin. A glory brought forth by him in his unsensitised struggle, of the power and wealth gained over the Ages. Yet a profundity beyond his belief, a creation of stupendous glory. As he reeled backwards by the beauty he saw, its immensity from a point of expansion, escaped him for the moment.

Then again the Mirror changed its vision, and this time the Virgin was closed up in a room all alone, with Solar light streaming into its murky depths; for it was the inner depth of the king, which had never changed from the beginning of Time. As the Virgin sat down in the vibrant beauty of the in-pouring Solar Stream, which the king had been struggling for Ages to produce, the Virgin picked up her harp and plucked at its idle strings, striving to play and draw down the heavenly glories, to expand and radiate the mighty spiritual truth which the king had set into activation.

of the heavenly Fatherhood. For the Voice now, as her ever-flowing OM, was the Voice of the mighty Fatherhood uttering truths never brought forth before, the hope and possibility of the rising godship. With the whole of the world, as a change of LAW, to become of Divine Fantasy.

The soul ever living by creating of divine belief, with the Stream of the Virgin spirit as unfolding Breath, the glory of the heavenly Fired Divinity. A serenade of indestructible Virtue maintaining the Flux of divine glorified movement. Man now having to pass through King Arthur's gate, ever living in the garden of conquest, the Solar unity of Hierarchical achievement.

Now it being the mystery of the Ear in its tympanic sensitised glory, the revelation of divinity of the way back to the heavenly Source. The soul now to carry the Cloth of Gold spun and woven by the Virgin Glory of divine simplicity. Thereby now to ever catch the Pearl Drops out of the sealed in the embrace of Divine LOVE, with the Immaculate Conception issuing forth the Voice of Virgin wealth. Solar Perception is the saviour of the soul, for as the FACE speaks of the glories of Truth, and is captured by the rising sensitivity in the depths, will the soul be reborn of its dynamic immensity. It only being by the Solar comprehension that the soul will ever find the means and wherewithal to climb the Occult steps to the Altar of Supreme Truth.

For it can only be by these intrinsic depths being mastered and solved, that it would be able to speak with the Voice of profound wisdom. For what is the Voice that has no Source? Why, the Voice of Divinity, the eternal GOD who manifests upon the high points of the soul, yet is ever to be found beyond the next horizon. It is such as this that man can perceive and conquer, as the Solar glory becomes his inborn glory of the mind. Until then, soul has never really lived, but is still finding his way out of the Waters, to come forth into Solar glory.

The Cosmic Embodiment

SO again we seek as to what is the point that knows no unification? Surely the point of Beginning; for Beginning is Causeless and Endless, and knows not the Source of its becoming. Evolution being the continuous movement towards this point, the ever casting of self, that divinity can know itself and express itself as the unfolding LIGHT of the Cosmos. But only by this can there be the profundity of speech, in the divine accuracy that is passed onto another.

Then the internal Robe is ever in the state of becoming, bringing the soul to heavenly divine unfoldment. It is not until soul is faced with this dynamic point of progression, that the Carpenter and the Walrus can go straight ahead for the soul to begin to create its own holy Temple of LOVE. To the unenlightened, this bears no comprehension, but to the soul who has made some entry into the depths and wonders of Occult reality, the way and means to the glory of Nirvana.

Especially now that Merope as the Virgin of Divine Glory has made the way for the soul to be lifted up, and his feet to be placed upon the Virgin Plane of unified progression. By such, all that had been contracted by avidya is now enfolded, and man brought to the glory of possible resurrection. For by the MIND man can stride the road by Timelessness; comprehension and acceptance being half-way towards the conquering of the disability within the soul's own progress.

Only by mind creating light and reality within the Causal internal being, can soul shed the darkness of ignorance and sin, and open up to the upper Fire Planes of LIGHT. But it will only be when the soul awakens to the greater immensity of life, and seeks of those divine possibilities, that the way and means of their approach to that inner intrinsic depth will dawn upon the soul as to how much he is losing the way to the greater glory of living.

It can only be by man awakening to such glories that he will be conscious of many things which he had never perceived before, and is the reason why the Greater Divinities, through the human Scapegoat, lifted up the Planes, and by the Virgin's dynamic struggle, paved the vaults of the Heavens with Transcendental Glory. With man now breathing Divine Wisdom and heavenly Unction, which will awaken his inner divine mystical depths. For the Sperming Glory of the mighty Macroprosopus is now infusing the Seed with glorified wisdom never known or perceived before. Thereby driving a heightened vision of the New World of Vega into the creation of the depths.

Thus the fire of Abraham now returning to its Source, bringing into being the Divine Pleroma of the Solar magnificence. That which was intended in the beginning, but brought to the Fall by the misdirection of the gods, spinning them down deeper into the depths. Now the Solar magnitude, brought into action by Merope, is the glory of the great inflowing Voice, the mighty Atomic Perception of the Great Master's VOICE.

Therefore Merope has not only been enlightening man with the wonders of unfolding Breath, but the Divinities also becoming truly aware of the possibilities that could now be born by those who had the courage to bring forth. For as Merope creates in the depths, by her belief in the beauties and wonders of Creation, does she send forth up to the heights, also transforming the darkness of non-entity into light and hoped-for possibility. As they converge in their unity upon earth, does man become pin-pointed into untimely rebirth. For the upper Planes and the heavenly Divinities only become of any greater enlightenment by the creative ability of the soul in the depths.

The Abyss being the collective point of all converging states of unfolding Causes, with man as the creator bringing forth the wonders and glories of the effects. Man being specially endowed with the final sheath of human action, to bring forth the mystery of unified results. Therefore Evolution becomes the cycle of the Solstices, the ever-evolving of the Divinity through the Solar Glory of LIGHT. For Light and Divinity are the acme of Consciousness, the wherewithal of soul creation. So as the Virgin converges the points of Equinoctial upliftment, does she bring both depths and heights to the greater unfoldment of Evolution.

The Virgin Mind Unfoldment

THEREFORE, it can only be by her finding the way to the LAWFUL crowning of the Cosmic Embodiment, that the embodiment of the Cosmic LAW as Solar balance becomes duly fulfilled. Then by comprehension, creation and wisdom born out of the mastery of the mind, can the Law manifest as Supreme Cosmic balance, bringing true belief and manifold unfoldment in the world below.

Therefore, when Merope unified the Colures, she made the way for supreme wealth of concealed Fire to come forth in the supreme known ratio of Power. For knowing is POWER; thereby in the mastery of the ELEMENTS and mystical depths of the vastness of Space, it gives unto man by his created mind acme, the Power of that held and formed into the Law of LIVING. Mighty Truth which he must then return as light by his action of living it in the depths.

So as Merope brought forth of another belief upon the frequency acquired, she was ever creating expansion of the CHILD of her heavenly aspira-

THE DIVINE MYSTERY OF THE MIND

THE unfolding mystery of the mind, the uprisen glory of divinity; the mighty Source with its electrified Oneness, pouring its mighty divinity down into the depths. Only that of the Neptunian mind could manifest such beauty, bringing into birth the mystical glory of the Royal FACE of Vega, the glory of Samarkand. (See text on page 13, col. 3).

As she increased her vibronic activity, she rose up higher and higher in her mind intensity of unfolding light. Drawing forth of her inner mind radiance as she slowly changed the lunar depths of the Word into Solar Glory. As she increased her aspirational unfoldment in bringing her babe into birth, she heard the mystical Voice of the heavenly Unseen break forth on her sensitised ear. As she made every effort to set the embodiment into action, to be able to carry the golden-haired child up to the heights, she began issuing forth through her slowly opening lips, until it became a volume of divine beauty.

As the risen Virgin she had brought forth of a kingly glory, which, in going forth up to the heights, made the heavenly radiance upon the Arc become the glory of the Central Sun, the divine Beauty depths, as her necklace of divine virgin purity. The Voice as the Stream of Fire, unfolding the Word as the Divine mystical imprint of the glorified Father's magnificence.

For the Voice as the mystery out of Space, is the Word beckoning Divinity into radiant unfoldment. With the frictioning of the Breath, in the struggle to bring forth of the Light of that Flame, to make the FACE radiate with the new profound beauty. Opening the way for the intensity of divine belief, to become the unfolding perception of new-born divinity.

For the divine Atom is now the unfolding Seed becoming audible heavenly Word, electrified into mind-light, manifesting the Voice of the now radiant Fatherhood. The wholeness of heights and depths as Consciousness unified tion, ever feeding the Source with Royal and active LIGHT. Then as she brought unification to Relativity, unto the glory of complete Unity of ONeness,—that of Solar Perfection,—she brought soul back to his status of godship, the glory and the mastery of becoming. Thus Merope became the Mother of the Gods and the Virgin of divine heavenly unfoldment. Whereby the Illimitable Source is now radiating LOVE in its Royal Perfection of unified Divinity.

This brought the Breath to Divine Holy Breath, for the FLAME, the Fiery Glory of Mind unfoldment, is now the mighty magnificence of the Arc, and the infusing glory of Solar rebirth. For the Holy Breath is now captivating the spiritual ecstasy of the Solar simplicity, thereby firing the Word with radiant Virgin LOVE.

Yet the mighty FLAME, the MIND Glory brought into birth by Merope, is the manifestation of the Divinity of all the Ages. That summed up and manifested by the Virgin, in her mind of glorified belief. Hence the illimitable polarity of heights and depths activating the Solar wealth into Vega harmony, with divine aspiration now as the radiational belt of the Transmigrating Path of the Mighty Eagle.

Thus, where Easter became disastrously transformed into an orthodox stigma of evil belief, it now has been brought to heavenly enlightenment by the Works of Merope. For where Good Friday was the continual anniversary of the crucifixion of the God, it is now the Solar pinnacle of the rolling glory of Vega. The true enlightened universe, where man can take on of the crucifixion of the soul, to bring forth the glory of the MIND.

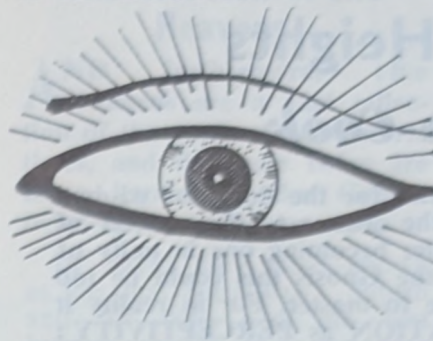

For through conscious awareness making him aware of his lack of mind growth, can he by discarding the depths, find the true glory of the heights. For by the Divine Consciousness established by Merope, man is now becoming conscious of the truth of life, and the LAW that must be obeyed that he can truly live and become. Yet man becoming ONE with those heavenly glories rising up out of the depths and passing over the barrier of darkness into light, the MIND World of Holy Glory. The Solar Deity now being born of the Atomic Glory as He is crucified on the converging manifestation of the Virgin's new-born wisdom. Where all now becomes of the Central Sun, the Heavenly radiance of the risen up Arc.

The Divine Holy Glory now being perpetuated into the Cosmic manifestation, as the Solar Sun became of the Ineffable Glories of the Virgin Snows, the divine Golden Crocodile. For now, as the Sun kisses the Ecliptic and becomes atomised into the reborn infinity, it ever brings the rebirth of the Infinity unto a greater manifestation of the FACE.

Therefore Easter Sunday becomes the Solar light of Divinity, the fulness of the heavenly possibility, up to that moment of manifesting life. For Sunday is the fulness of the Solar glory in its full manifesting radiance of the heavenly Beauty. Thus now as the Central Sun, with the Divine Seed as its Sperming radiance, can it be the means of the unfolding Law in the days to come. Therefore LIFE is now the Royal Glory of god-like possibility, the true perfect hope of all men. Here we see the full establishment of the Solar magnitude, and the manifesting Glory of the Fatherhood in the SON. As the Two became ONE, the mighty EYE of Divinity rose in the heavens...

Consequently Easter Monday, the so-called resurrection of the God out of the tomb, in reality is the intensity of the newly formed Virgin Mind, captured from the Cosmic sensitivity and now manifesting as the divine LAW of the true Cosmic Reality. The soul more fully awakened and enlightened, that it can now seek of a greater purpose, by the darkness of avidya having been removed; with conscious awareness, now its leading grace. Therefore, only by man building up his mind-body by Solar embodiment, can he possibly find the way to individualised glory. Thereby becoming one with the fully-born atomised Divinity as the manifesting Glory of mind wisdom, the radiation of LIGHT as captured Truth.

mist began rolling over the face of her Mirror, quickening in tempo as it began intensifying its glory. Rolling round and round in balanced harmony, yet all rolling back and forth in divers directions, seeking the purpose of its being. Then suddenly it parted...

...and there in its depths was the most intense Blackness she had ever seen, its intensity giving for the moment the appearance of rich navy-blue velvet. A more supreme glory could not possibly be found of its likeness on earth. Here and there could be seen starry lights that flashed forth now and then, and although the Vision did not convey anything to Merope just then, it held her fixed with awe and wonder as unto its mighty depths. Then suddenly out of the darting glory, what appeared to her as a Comet was making its way to the depths, as a messenger of profound truth and glory.

As it came nearer and nearer its brilliant light seemed to be intensified, until, when in the range of so-called earth, she could see that it was a beautiful rolling dancing star-like creation, a woven glory of Vestal Fire. Then as it reached the depths it moved its beauty across the FACE and vanished as it were, into its very mystical glory of embodiment, embedding all its quivering beauty into those mighty depths; but leaving even now, an unfolding light that augured of wonders yet to come forth. The two creations then closed up together, and Merope fell to seeking of what was being portrayed unto her in such mystical glory.

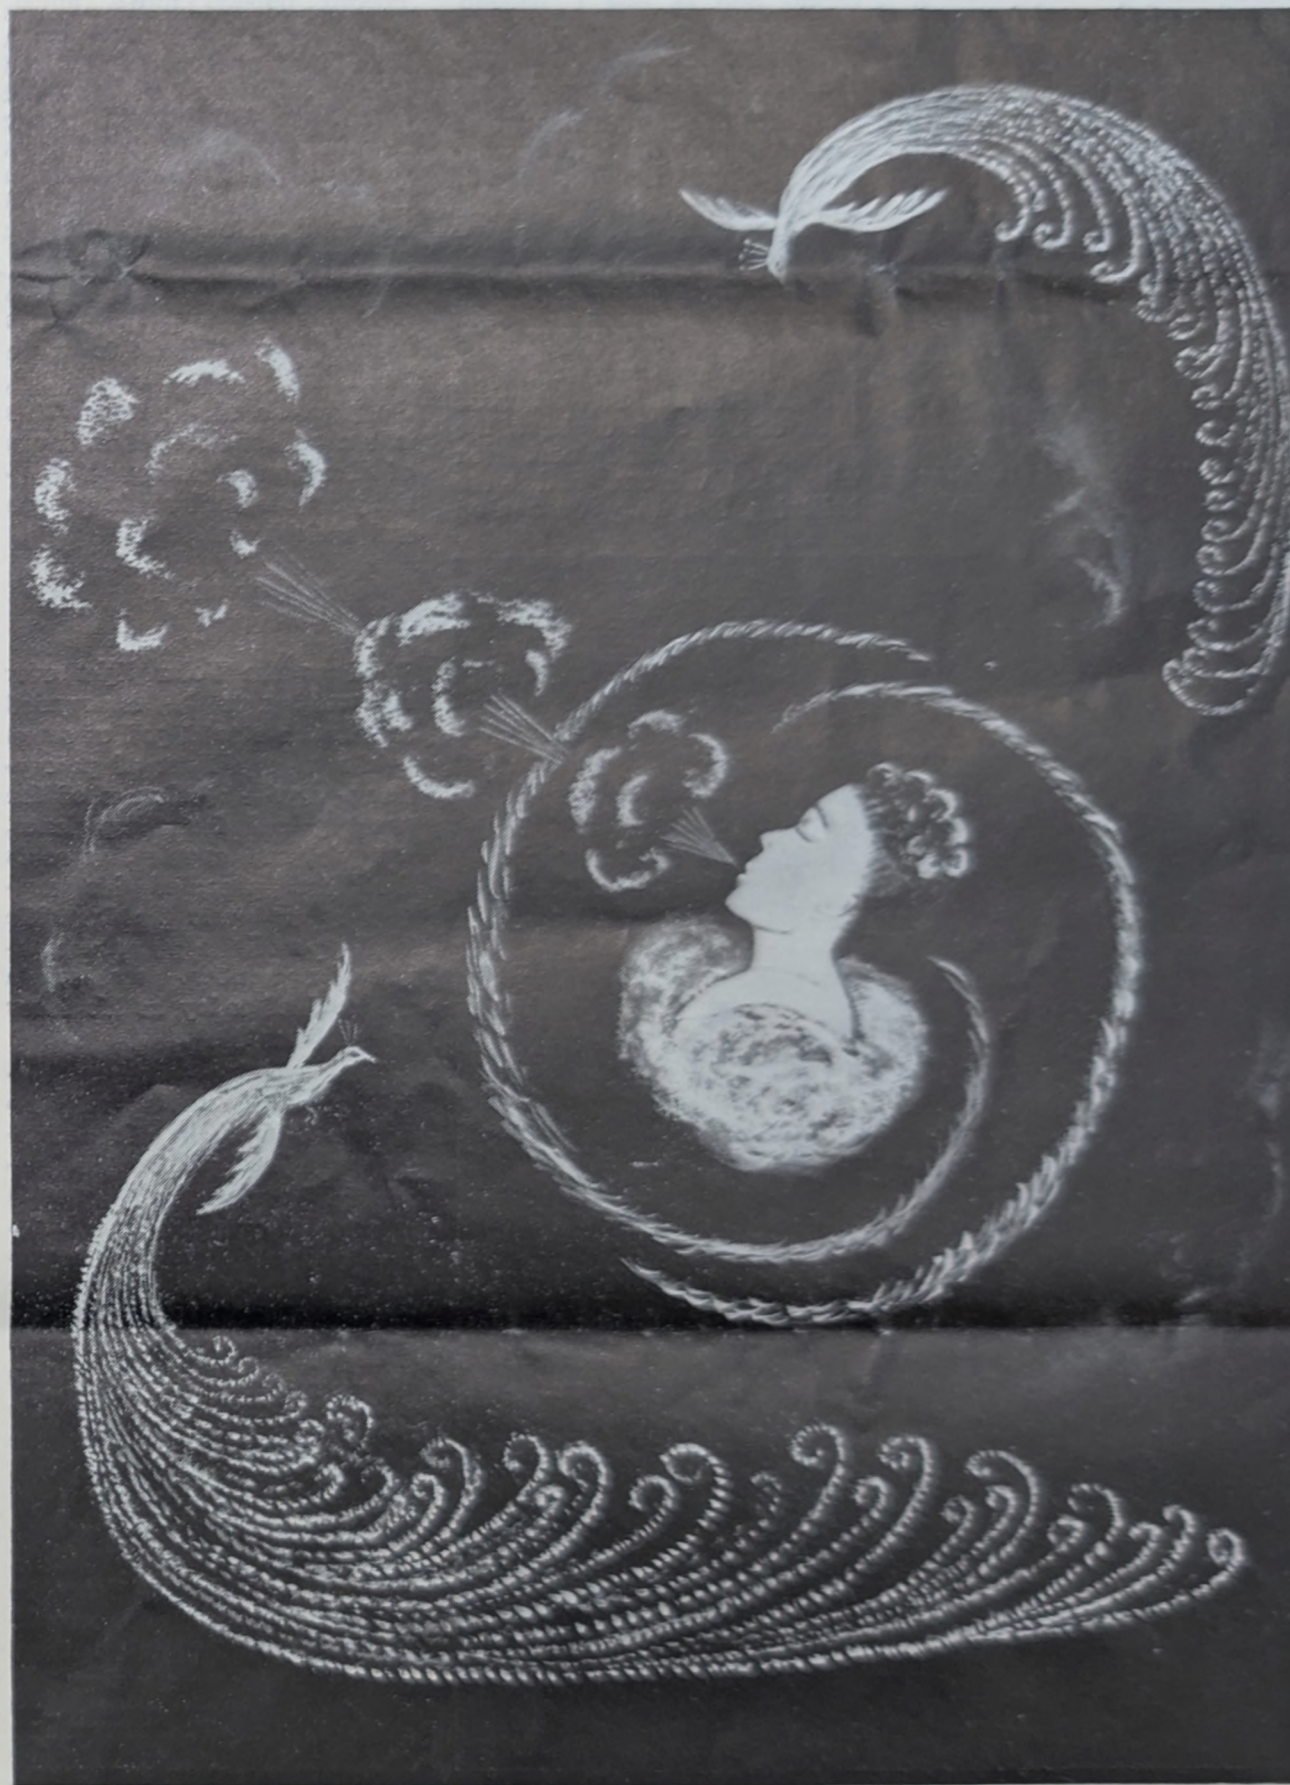

The Face of Vega

THEN suddenly, out of the intensity of her mind, she knew that she had been witnessing a birth of the perceptory glory of the travelling mind. With a divine thought of immense beauty establishing itself in the depths as the foundation of future light, as the unfolding Cosmo-lithic Divinity.

The holder of the Cosmic torch in the depths as darkness of the cosmic Void was moved across as the unfolding FACE of Divinity. The mighty magnificent strength of the light bringer, the Ibis of creative unity, was as the Uranian Flame, shooting forth of its internal glory as the Voice and Vibrance of the Hierarchical Solar-galactical trinity. Showering creations upon the intense Virgin, as the divine harmonies of Atomic LIGHT.

The dynamic intense orchestral perfection amplified and bespoken out of the transference of darkness into LIGHT. For as the strength of Divinity moved out of the Unknown, into the potential possibility of the Voice, the mystery was revealed. From the Realm of the Source unto the beholder of Triune beauty, as the upholder of the creative LIGHT of Divinity.

THE SOURCE OF THE PRIMA MOBILE

THE divine radiance of the Holy Ghost, the outflowing Breath of the Virgin, where the OS and the Holy Fire, were now the glory of OM, the ever flowing forth Voice of Divinity. She who is the means of changing the water into Wine, the unfolding reflection of the Seed of the Source. (See text on page 3, col. 1).

Then through the voice, the blessing allotted unto all men, speaks forth and becomes the means of radiating wonders, touching the hearts of all seeking help and upliftment. But greater still, the mighty mystery of the Open Mouth solved, as the soul is shown the way to scale the Planes, changing their frequency higher and higher. But as they awaken on the next cycle of rebound, opening their mouth and speaking the Oracle of the re-born truth.

Then Merope turned once again to her Magic Mirror, that it would reveal of mighty unknown wonders, now made known unto her. Glories that had never been known or seen before, yet nothing beyond what it was her right to know. As she made her request, a

PERCEPTIVITY

The Birth of the Soul from the Depths to the Heights

by Gladys I. Spearman-Cook

THIS article is for the student seeking advancement of depth, for the depth of wisdom being explained here is for those who are truly seeking the answer to the mystery of life, and becoming one with the heights; Spirit and matter becoming one in unity of mind realization. To those who have never attempted to study the Gnosis this could be too profound for the time, but if the soul has courage, will struggle to master. For in reality it is that which all intelligent souls are seeking to gain, REALIZATION as PERCEPTIVITY; abstract awareness. Therefore man may have many ideas as to how perception, the most envied gift of all men, is developed. He may try extensive reading, study, and even development by Yoga or otherwise; but there is only ONE way of finding the perceptivity of the SEER, and that is through and by the OIL of Azoth, extracted from the Word in mental exercise, and making it the daily action of the soul in practical application.

The Unfolding Creation

THE WORD represents the relativity to be obtained by linking the past—the basic history of the evolving soul—with the present; thus producing the future, which becomes the reformed rock creation for the future to rise upwards towards the heights. It is in this way, and not any other, that man's continuity is continued; it is in this way that man is destined to become, otherwise he will merely become an automaton of flesh and bone, with a blood content of water, and not wine.

Many in the past have rebelled as continually foretold in history; for it is the ever repeating in cycles of the rebellion that once caused the soul to fall into corruption, and continue a path of devolution, and not Evolution. Although the spirit, destined to evolve and now held in captivity, would not suffer as the flesh, it could now only evolve through death and rebirth, the sufferings of the flesh. This is the ONLY ROAD of evolution, whether man calls it primitive, righteous or fanatical.

Fatherhood is the joy of being, the joy of becoming, the road of generation. The whole being and purpose of man is to find fatherhood, and when the expanding and unfolding Matriarchate in Ancient Egypt, the world of rebirth, had produced and established, there began the journey intended for regeneration.

This began by the creation of Atum-Ra, the Solar life, and from then onwards man began to form cults and sects under the creative source of Osiris, Vishnu and Jehovah; all being the formation of Seven in One, the crystallising godhead of Fatherhood of the soul. Thus many gods manifested in the growing soul; gods that took on a final context in the mind of belief, until the Word germinated a new thought and creative purpose. Then all is reformed again under a period of turbulence and growing zeal.

These gods are the exoteric formation of the solar context of the unfolding creation, and becoming the ever evolving Fatherhood in the next dimension. It is the continual typifying of the seven elements, or seven elemental forces, through fire, water, earth and air born from the Typhonian genetrix as the Abyss, or base of Being, and now being reborn from man's base of being in his sense-field of five.

These are destined to be unified in the sixth, and raised in the seventh unto catholicity, or complete Unity of Oneness as his perceptivity. All seeking to rise unto the Divine Fatherhood, in the synthesisation of all the elements in the monad now being in microcosmic form, and seeking to become the Solar Pneumatikon body of light in its relationship with the starry heights.

FOR AS MAN ESTABLISHES DIVINITY ON EARTH IN HIS OWN MIND, SO DOES IT BECOME THE LIGHT OF THE STARRY HEAVENS IN THE MIND; AND INTELLIGENCE BECOMES INTELLIGENCIA.

previously departed from, and rebelled against, in his refusal to accept of the previous world creation, and of future wonders beyond the dreams of avarice.

This is seen repeating itself again in a later cycling, when the sons of Korah refused to stir. For the powers still with man and deeply encrusting the earth, had been resurrected by Moses. Korah and his sons were of the tribe of Levi, the Priests, and their blood, rich with God wisdom, had them believing that they were God

FALSE PROPHETS

AS they rebelled the earth opened up and they fell into the depths of Acheron, where their evil annunciation no longer survived, leaving divinity the full range of resurrection. Such wonders were once known to man, today they are bereft of such glories, unless by internal truth they awaken to the eternal depths of divinity. (See text in col. 3).

The Mind Comprehension

BEFORE being, all was in a state of preparation. This was known as the Matriarchate, the Motherhood, and was a creation of that of eight; or Saturn formation born from Space and Chaos before the formation of the world, or establishment of order and time.

The Seven of Creation, as the differentiation of the monad into being, whereby the seven bodies of Nature began as the seven-fold field of sense awakening in a soul creation. This was the monad clothed in coats of skin as a formation of a soul, and all was called Am-Smen, when the God Amsu awakened in his mind consciousness as remembrance of the Godhead he had almighty. This caused the earth to cleave asunder and swallow up the rebellious. (Num. 16).

They were rebelling because they were having to expand from the richness gained (Verse 13) onto a higher plane of mind comprehension and expression. Thus the prototype was ever repeating itself in the lives of the unfolding soul. These were their gods that they refused to part from and expand unto the ONE GOD of Atma radiance, or divine mind unfoldment.

Then later on in history you find David, the growing sonship or king of the soul, sending out urgent prayers for help, as in his supplication made in Psalms 44 v. 23. "Awake, why sleepest thou, O

Lord? arise, cast us not off for ever, for are we so unpleasant to thy sight."

"Then the Lord awakened as one out of a sleep... and he smote his enemies in the hinder parts." (Ps. 78 v. 65-66). Those desires that they were clinging to and forsaking their heritage.

This represents the symbol of Osiris who rose again as Horus the son; therefore "the Lord (Word) is my shepherd and I shall not want... but he ever restoreth my soul as he leadeth me to still waters, where a table is prepared for me in the presence of mine enemies" (Ps. 23); and brought forth men as intelligences.

Therefore the primordial or supreme deity in Egypt was not a one god, but one as a Fatherhood who had evolved by compilation of thought acceptance, and was being elevated to the supreme, as solar light bursting forth in the mind and bringing into being the slowly manifesting pleroma.

In the Astrological wisdom, it is the goat in the heights changing from black to white and climbing up Mount Sinai, the pinnacle of the mind. This is the reflection of the Seven of Creation blending in relativity as the soul made growth and unfoldment.

Birth of the Divine Mind

RA as the Solar light ever waiting to be expounded in man, as a total god of seven spirits in one light of perception; or the wholeness of the heart gained from experience, struggle, and enquiry, as souls that had preceded his supremacy, and was the first title in Egypt of the sun-god Teb-Temt, and now born within the soul of today as his inner establishment.

This was to continue unfolding until the seventy-two names of God, in His becoming, were accepted and believed. These layers of growth being recorded as the wisdom in the Holy Book; for was not the Book written by the seventy-two Elders, or council of God, and would climb up from Satan through Saturn unto freedom from restriction.

This alone proves that the Bible was the unfolding road of the soul through Time, and the History created has been used merely in a legendry form. Why should History be of such importance as to make the Book Holy, unless there was some deeper meaning?

IT WAS THE BIRTH OF THE MIND FROM THE DEPTHS TO THE HEIGHTS, AND THE GOD AS PERCEIVED, SITS UPON THE POLE, OR SPINE OF THE SOUL, IN THE MEDULLA OBLONGATA IN THE CEREBELLUM OF THE HEAD, AND RISES TO THE HEIGHTS AS THE SOUL IS UPLIFTED IN AWE AND BELIEF OF WHAT HE NOW KNOWS IN FIRM ESTABLISHMENT

For here is the mind memory of the past descent, that feeds the ascent as it colours the trickling waters from the frozen heights, and transforms into pineal radiance of catholicity. That which ever becomes the rebirth of the past into the present as practical application.

For there is nothing new in the world, all is ever rebirth of the Seven of Creation, through the five senses of sensitivity into the sixth and seventh of perceptivity. The mind memory of the soul.

If this can be seen as the heights of the mind of the soul ever seeking the Supreme state of "I and my father are ONE," the true depths of metempsychosis of Spirit becoming Matter, and blending in mind unity, will be revealed as the first step of the soul to the forming rock of immortality; mind creation as the SON of LIGHT. All within the being in unity with the self, and unity with God in realization of awareness of being.

Saturn the rock is FORM gathered from lives, that must find expansion as abstract mind creation in mercurial flight unto Spirit. That captured and blended into matter that raises matter onto a higher plane, but until, will remain as man's chain and anchor until he, by mind struggle of belief and awareness, becomes of light through understanding and perceptivity.

A rare quality, which in the present age of materialism, the majority are rejecting for a road of no conquest at all; for everything is sought to lessen the opportunity of mind expansion, by bringing into being mechanical repetition that quickly multiplies the shekels.

This will result in a reign of Midas, when the rich will oppose the poor—not those poor in comfort, but poor in mind, and so deteriorated, that they will eagerly work as serfs for the mechanical monsters. And only those who have belief in the true way of life, and struggle to remain intact, will preserve their mind creation; thus to the degree possible, survive the period of antichrist.

The Greater Way of Life

IN History, as destined for the present, the creation of Ra, or solar body of light, which has been called the "Destruction of Mankind," shows conclusively how the sun-god, the divinity of the latest creation, was elevated to the primacy as "God of himself" by his worshippers.

The unfolding God belief in the mind of the soul in its devout moments of involving Spirit context with matter. The "Destruction" amounts to the ending or superceding of an earlier mind creation, for one of more practical application, and the gaining of a higher mind flight.

AS THE SOUL BECOMES MORE MALLEABLE AND ACTIVE IN THE PRESENT, IT EVOLVES AND SPIRALS UPWARDS TO DEMAND A NEW CREATION OF BELIEF TO ATTAIN TO.

Otherwise it will become enamoured with his own creation, and become static in self-belief and self-glorification, that will result in time, either in stupidity, or a god of diabolical enormity. Money and power invariably becoming their god, with mind intellectiveness that broaches of no expansion into Seership, or birth of SENSITIVITY that warrants interrogation into the sufferings of others, and performs the work of God in matter.

THUS ALL EXPANSION IMMEDIATELY STOPS AND CALCIFICATION BEGINS IN FIXITY AND RIGIDITY THAT RESULTS IN CAPTIVITY.

The clue to change is shown in the Egyptian legend, of how the god being by himself after he had been established as king of men and gods, summons the old gods, or ancestral states of mind memory, and Shu, Taht, Seb and Nun, with many others, reveal themselves. And he, the present god, speaks in the presence, or name of his Father, the Greater and Elder Gods. He who was the Creator of Men and wise beings—the supreme Godhead or Logos.

Thus this god now accepts and perceives of a better and greater way of life, for he knows that his inner men of an earlier creation of self and peoples were false, and rebellious against the sun. Consequently they must be transmuted in death, and rebirth must come forth by the activity of the new god belief.

Ra was now being raised up, and time beginning on a new spiral of creation, yet ever the repeat of the previous. Now Shu as air of mind perception became his son—the forming Logos or Intelligencia; with Taht now as the lunar light, to aid and direct his way. While Seb, as the fiery dragon of life was made subservient to the Solar Deity.

All was being raised up to heights of manifestation as Seven in One; a completed creation where starttime, planetary time, luni-solar and solar-time are perfected, and God the Father as the sun-god is enthroned in heaven in the person of Atum-Ra. This was the Solar-God born in manifestation through the flesh, in His first sovereignty.

The Solar Creation of Light

ALTHOUGH new, it was in its basic creation ancient and pre-monumental, and was the strugglings of the soul then as now. The agonies of Saturn to produce the eighth son of God through mercurial flights.

The true Fatherhood was not actually individualized in microcosm or Macrocosm until the creation of Seb. Thus Seb became the Father of the gods, and at the same time is the youngest of the gods. Thus was the earth slowly being prepared as a continual rebirth of an egg which produces itself again out of the previous creation.

Therefore it must be seen that both earth and men are very old of time, yet young in mind creation, the future universe. Seb is now as the god who reveals to the children in the next life of their fathers whom they have not known in this world.

Seb was the earth, the present Saturn foundation, the father god of earth and a priapic representation of the seminal source of becoming. That which brought life into being whereby evolution made manifestation. Then PtaH followed, a creation of red earth; a fiery creation of movement. He was the potter who began to shape and fire, with a female expansion taking over.

But the first true father of individual soul was recognised in Atum his son creation; that which succeeded the sixth creation, and the institution of the higher LAW in matter. The blending of Spirit with matter whereby the earth becomes enriched and evolved onto a higher plane of vibratory revolution. A continual manifestation of the higher in the lower, raising the lower up to the higher, and becoming of that plane of envy.

Atum was the first foundation of the Fatherhood, thus what had been then became the Motherhood. The fatherhood within the soul itself as microcosm, to generate the Mother and Father in the Cosmos as Macrocosm, through Mother Nature. And symbolically, the hieroglyph left to memorise this creation was found on the walls of a tomb in EL-Amarna as Atum receiving the blessings of the Solar God.

As the father of souls he was called the Eye of the gods, for he became the foundation of the first Solar creation of light; the creation which would be the means of conveying souls to the starry heights when fully consummated.

The above emblem had previously been the emblem of the motherhood, and the earliest acknowledged reproducer. At this stage of soul development, the deceased, or what had been the means of the soul becoming, and the basic cause of the soul, can boast that he is the lord over time. A lord of the limitless age, an eternal substance; he being Atum created forever, and as the children born of Seb, now give up their crowns for his ancient heritage, it was seen as the unity of Adam, the red man, with Atum the red sun.

The Wisdom of the Heavens

AND furthermore, the heavens are a vast reflection of the earth of pre-historic times, and the male twins are those known as the Gemini twins of the mind creation.

In Egypt they were known as the dual Sut-Horus; Saturn and his son, and the first human creation as known unto man today, and as Atum-Ra declared, "When the circumference of the darkness was opened, I was as one among you and know how the woman was made from the man."

FATHERHOOD

THE royal divine beauty of unification lies in the glory of the depths is the holy wonder of becoming, the magnitude of the blossoming Norm, as the unified atom, now the wonder and divinity of Creation. (See text on page 6, col. 1).

to those who belong to the solar birthplace.

ATUM WHO FOLLOWED THE SIXTH CREATION, WAS THE PRODUCT OF PTAH AND IS CALLED HIS SON, BUT IN THE SECOND ACCOUNT OF CREATION WAS CALLED ADAM IN THE HOLY BOOK. THUS WOULD BE THE BEGINNING, AND THE MYSTERY OF GENESIS.

On the Phoenician monuments he was seen as PtaH the potter, and hieroglyphed in the form of the potter sitting at a wheel shaping an egg or vase. The egg of the circle of mind circumference and the basic of creation—the egg of the sun and moon interblended—or Spirit and matter, and is the luni-solar circle of solar Fatherhood.

Therefore in the records of time, and something very important to man in his search

THIS CREATION WITHIN MAN WAS THE FIRST BASIC OF HIS 'I AM'; THAT WHICH HAD TO LABOUR AS THE PERSONALITY TO CREATE THE INDIVIDUALITY.

It is in this creation there lies the first foundation of man's karmic past. That from which all stems, and that which must be met, for it was the soul devoid of all garments of mind creation, and from which all psychological and pathological creations have been born. Therefore Sun and Saturn both became lord of the "Seventh Day," but men preferred Saturn and it became Satan, who ever since tempts man into becoming.

This rules the bowels in man, and from pathological investigation is from whence stems all digestive action and mind creation. The tragedy lies in the fact that man blends only with the luna and fails to

The Mind Development Class

EACH Week on every Saturday at 6.30 p.m. B.S.T. Mrs. Spearman-Cook holds her Special Mind Development Class at the School's H.Q. A special Subject is concentrated upon for about 40 minutes and then each sitter is individually helped to interpret and understand his or her findings. Any readers can join; those nearby can make application to attend each week, and those too far away can send in their names and link in each week at the time stated, their names being entered in a Special Book for this purpose. PREPARED AND AWAITING UNFOLDMENT.

Involution of the Principles

EVERYTHING evolves out of, for here we are dealing with the primal sevenfold heaven; the sevenfold forces of nature coming forth through man's sevenfold senses. Sut or Saturn, or Satan as the negative of God was the first manifested and has ever remained the prototype, slowly resolving into Saturn the rock. It is this which is crystallised into man's being, and must come up and out of his fixed state of being, through the expansion of Jupiter producing mind comprehension. This is ever being driven by the Uranian sword, by the angel that guards the gate of all return to paradise.

The ancient races believed they had seven souls unified in a permanent one, and these souls were the Powers, Principles and Elements; and would be the composition of man through the involution. These as the differentiated states of becoming are the mystic seven of the primal sevenfold heaven; the sevenfold forces of nature that were originally as the Matriarchate nurturing the soul into being.

By the great ancient Philosopher Hermes it was seen that the one soul of the universe entered into the soul of watery things, and from this into the soul of things that live on the land. The airy ones are changed into men, while human souls that lay hold of immortality, are changed into spirits. So they ascend up to the region of the fixed Stars or Gods, which is the eighth Sphere.

THIS IS THE PERFECTED GLORY OF THE SOUL, IT BEING THE EIGHTH, THE IMMORTAL BLOSSOM ON THE HUMAN BRANCH—DIVINE AWARENESS.

Thus in the climbing up of this torturous path, Sevekh became superseded by Sebek through his resurrection from the darkness, and became Ra the Sun-god—the Lamb, and continued as the Lamb with the Seven Stars as stated in the Book of Revelations.

This was adopted by the Christian Religious iconography in later ages as the Labarum, and eventually in the form of the Cross and Lamb in the eschatology. Though actually it was only a prototypal replica of Sebek-Horus in Egypt. "And I saw in the midst of the throne and of the four living creatures, and in the midst of the elders, a lamb standing as though it had been slain, having seven horns and seven eyes which are the seven spirits of God sent forth into the earth." (Rev. 5 v. 6).

The lamb is the same as the Egyptian sheep, and was the child born from the Ram, or Aries endeavour as a pioneer.

blend the solar therein; consequently he remains a non-entity and one devoid of all conscious awareness.

One content with matter, who cares not for the wisdom of the heavens, for he believes not; thus devoid of all light, which when accrued as the solar body becomes man's mind perceptivity, man's seership, for through this he perceives all.

THIS IS THE ABSORPTION OF THE FOURTH DIMENSION INTO THE THIRD, AND MAN'S CLIMB UP THE LADDER OF CONTINUITY, WHEREBY HE IS CREATED IN THE IMAGE OF GOD.

AND FINALLY "I AND MY FATHER ARE ONE," THE FULL REVEALMENT OF THE JOURNEY OF HUMANITY WHEREBY THE NEXT UNIVERSE IS

Reminiscences

THE intensity of this is deep, yet few may believe this, and bleat about the fact that they have not been to college, or passed this exam or another. In fact, "this exam" idiosyncrasy is another one of those modern fallacies that ruins any form of genius, and destroys originality and sensitivity by fear. Real genius comes from spirit infusion, so college and such like can be ruled out, if the soul will turn to Divinity and allow the gods in the Arachnoid Web to take control, and lead the soul through their acquired sensitivity.

DIVINE TRUTH

IT HAS BEEN SUGGESTED THAT I SHOULD GO ON giving resumés upon the leading article in the Gazette, for I seem to have helped so many by the October article, that of "Solar Born," that more has been requested. So this month I am taking a deeper intensity of the VOICE, as to how Divine Truth can become the ultimate issue. For there is not a soul who is not longing to bring wonders into birth, from the egoist to the drug addict.

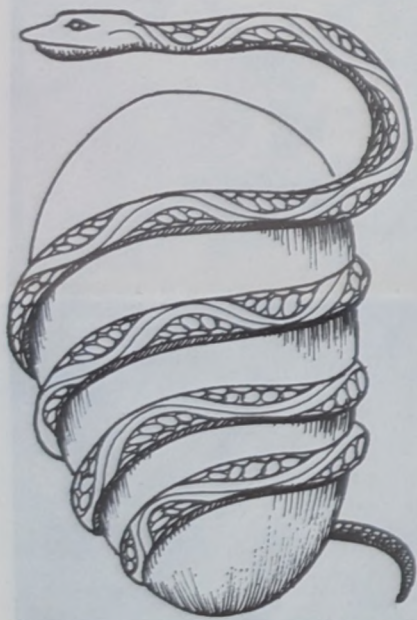

The True Application of Mind

Earth with the Central Sun, making the whole Universe ONE.

Everybody now has a MIND of some sort or another, but what degree of mind is another thing. But the question is, WHERE IS THE MIND. This is indeed a mighty question, for so many creations go to bring this into birth. The MIND ultimately resides in the BLOOD as the homogeneous, the MAN, with its reflection in the Void, the aura around the head.

While the origin of this life's rebirth, has its creation in the endocrine glands. These lie down either side of the spine, and across the base of the back, being the rebirth of tabulation in each life, whereby the soul finds its rebirth.

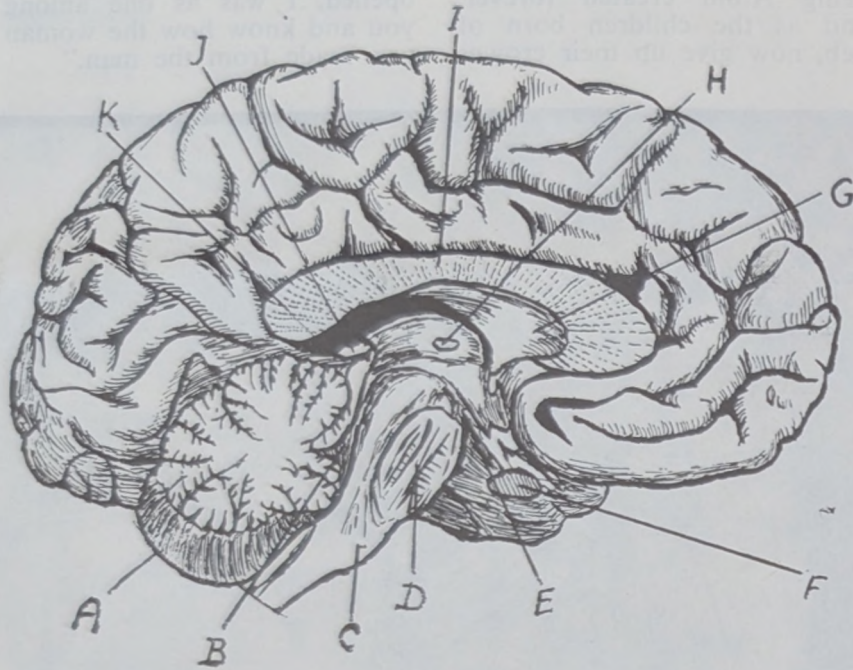

This is what the soul draws from and is ever changing for the next life to follow on. This is the Anthropomorphic Egg, that ever finds rebirth out of itself, from the Serpent that wends its way upwards as the Kundalini Fire, and is often represented by a serpent wound around an Egg.

The Anthropomorphic Egg

BY the study of the Word, which holds the root of past growth, the soul blossoms what it knows and brings evolution. For the soul through the FALL, in rising as the Anthropomorphic Egg, brought into birth the triune state of the mind. The super-mind, the sub-conscious and the conscious, of which only the latter goes down into the material sphere for experience.

Through the study of the Word in Occultism, the soul learns to blend these three up together again, as the conscious mind becomes the Virgin, the risen up Virgo creation as the intuitive mind. Something seen so beautifully in the Bolshoi rendering of the Swan Lake Ballet. This is the true theory of the Virgin Mary, but the present day Catholics have lost the key, having gone corporeal minded. The birth of the Christ being the Solar light born into the blood and the soul Solar born as the Soma Psyche Pneuma.

Merope, in the teachings being brought to the true seekers of LIGHT, has unified the wisdom and the Planes, that man now has been forced up onto the Virgin Plane; the repetition of the old Garden of Eden, but the soul now with a MIND. This means, by vibronic rebirth and ether consciousness through the Hydroxyl Breath, the soul is living up in the sixth Chakra, the Pituitary, the plane of the mind.

Although he is only seeing through old ideas, through the enforcement all crime and evil is being forced out into light. Even the turbulences now about, are due to souls being moved by the new creations, but not knowing how to express them. This is the reign of Pluto, the Christ creation of Solar Glory, but only in the negative; so religion cannot help but be out-rooted. This accounts for their internal schisms, and more so than we really know of, so go on with your studies, and do not be concerned by these off-shoots that are dying out.

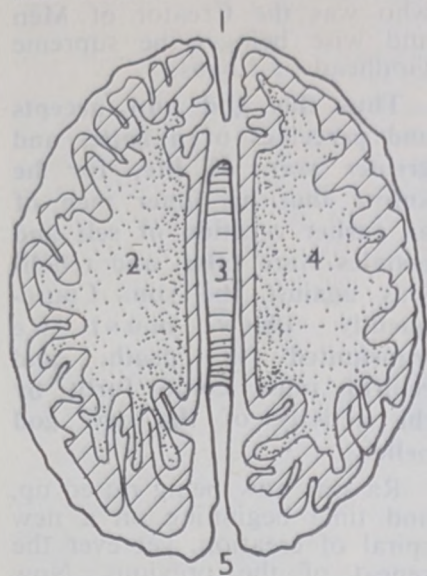

The unifying of the Word is the past and present unifying, and the internal wealth spinning up as Ariel borne beauty, into heights unknown, gathering wealth beyond the comprehension of the majority. But the important thing is, the soul becoming sensitised to be able to catch the message in its right context. So it can be seen that it takes a little while for these facial glands, the tympanum of the ear, the testes at the back of the nose, the lachrymal glands behind the eyes, and the uvula in the throat, to readjust themselves to the new order of things, to give forth the glory coming down onto the tongue.

The cleansing of the bloodstream and seeking through divine wisdom, must now come by a state of ONENESS, the golden point of divine ascension. This is what Merope is doing, in bringing truth to a point of heavenly belief, so that all that read it, read of the point only. That Multiplicity is gathered up and becomes the POINT of purpose, and every soul is fed direct with the golden point of Solar Glory. Naturally it is going to be a little too much to begin with, but in time will become like drinking nectar from the Gods.

The elevated state is to feed the sub-conscious mind with new LIGHT, that it, which never made any progress from Medo-Persia, can "Drip" its unified light down to the conscious mind, in belief that it will tread it into active creation.

imprint and bring new ideas into birth.

1. Front of brain. 2. Left side of brain. 3. Corpus Callosum. 4. Right side of brain. 5. Back of brain.

This would be the first impression, which more or less is a hazy idea, for to bring such into matter, needs more than this, even if the soul is psychic. Then it is followed by its second impress, which becomes the "drip" down the falx cerebri, onto the uvula, then onto the tongue, and then into the bloodstream and nervous system. Whereby the soul speaks truths that have never been known before.

The drip comes from the spinal fluid, that created from the seminal fluid, and driven up to the heights through the Sushumna channel of the spine. Up over the brain as the Sky Weeping Waters of the gods, and also through the infundibulum...

(See diagram in cols. 3 and 4)

...to drip upon the pituitary, down onto the tongue, and into the bloodstream and nervous system through osmotic action. But where sensitivity is lacking, this is never picked up by the glands of the facial growth, but lost, until alchemicalisation can retrieve the issue. But to further aid the

This is why intellectualism is wrong, and that all must be of Wisdom, intelligencia, that the blood coursing round and round with its elevated inborn glory, set by the Hydroxyl Breath and the Word taken, sets the passions into action, and drives the blood and belief up to the brain once again, refeeding the gods in the Arachnoid Web with new life.

It is the blood, well fortified by water and driven up to the extremities of the brain, that sets all states into unified action. This is, of course, if the previous stated principles are set into motion first, and the soul is looking upwards to a heavenly ascension.

THIS IS WHERE COMPLETE RENUNCIATION COMES IN, AND THE SOUL'S WHOLE BELIEF AND THOUGHT IS TO FIND ITS LOST HERITAGE, FULLY BELIEVING THAT EARTH AND ALL IT HOLDS, IS ILLUSION. IT IS NO GOOD DOING IT WITH A HALF-HEARTED PURPOSE, BUT FULLY BELIEVING IN WHAT YOU ARE SEEKING FOR.

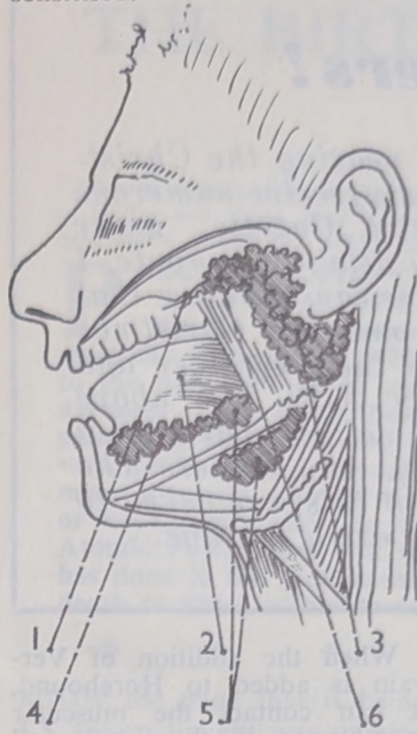

Glory of the Intelligencia

BY sensitising all the upper glandular states by belief, taking the Word, and striving to live and unfold the Word, an intensified state is born. Then the conscious mind, like Cinderella, becomes the Virgin who gets new-born ideas, which she carries up to the heights, and dances with her prince, the sub-conscious mind, in the heights. For this is the Fatherhood, the super-conscious state, coming into birth, the positive creation, out of the Motherhood below, the negative state.

This is the two sides of the brain becoming more and more unified in sensitivity, so that, as the sub-conscious mind seeks to impress the conscious mind through the corpus callosum, it is able to take the investigation, here are the facial glands around the tongue that have to be sensitised.

- 1. Parotid duct. 2. The tongue. 3. Parotid gland.
- 4. Sublingual gland. 5. Submaxillary (sub mandibular gland).
- 6. Accessory part of the parotid gland.

By this, the soul finds that by their risen frequency, their sensibility is tapped, and wisdom can be extracted out of the Seed to the full quota of Hydroxyl glory. This is the mystery of the returning wisdom from the Arc, the glory of the Intelligencia.

That which Merope has sent up to the Cosmic Heights, and now returning as Transcendental Glory. By this, the soul willing to renounce to obtain its wonders, can become cosmic conscious, and speak truths never known before. This is where the Arc or Auric extension of the Void becomes over-shadowed by the Divine Presence.

THEN BY THE INFINITY REVOLVING FROM THE PINEAL TO THE TOP OF THE ARC, GLORIES ARE DRAWN DOWN INTO THE SOUL, TO BECOME THE WONDERS OF THE AUDIBLE SPEECH. IT IS THIS THAT INTERMINGLES WITH THE "DRIP," AND BECOMES THE GLORY FROM THE HEIGHTS.

Fundamentals of Creation

THIS is the true mission of the Human Race, not just a bunch of shop-keepers and armament building maniacs. But a world driving on of Evolution, that the FIRE, the unknown witness of the Deity, can become the Voice and Anthropomorphic Glory of the soul. The Deity manifesting in the flesh, leading the world in true light of comprehension.

This alone makes the pope stand out as the greatest fraud ever known by any intelligent mind. No Priest of Deity-bearing Glory, could bring himself so low as to be the controller of man's passions, or even control the major faculties of mind-producing glory, in such a restrictive and retentive way.

EVERY MAN IS A PRIEST UNTO HIMSELF, AND ONLY ANSWERABLE THROUGH HIS OWN UNFOLDING FACULTIES.

These are the basic fundamentals of creation, while the major article in the Gazette is the elevated frequency of divine beauty. The idea of its raised up beauty, is to raise up the mind of all who are enquiring into the inner glories of the subject.

why much is taking place at the present moment. Thus the soul ever in a state of Becoming, but the secret of rebirth lies in the knowing, thus accepting and becoming.

This is where the Bull awakens and becomes the gatherer of the Seed...

(See plate below) ... which ever refuels the soul into greater activity. Hence, when the soul becomes aware of such wonders, by sending out to those higher Powers for

The Internal Guidance

THROUGH the work of the Scapegoat, all this now is really centred around the NORM, the blossoming of the seventh Chakra, that it can produce of the Quintessence, that of the eighth, a mighty mystery of Divine Grace. Yet it is only by awakening to such glories that man becomes conscious to such things and he embraces the Transcendenhaving become ONE, this now will be accomplished by ascension and descension. But only when the soul becomes as the Orion-born man ever living up in his heights. Therefore, when a soul can accomplish these unfolding wonders, he will ever find himself speaking truths which even he has never heard before.

THIS IS WHERE A SOUL WHO HAS TAKEN UNTO THEMSELVES OF WISDOM, AND HAS NOT RETURNED ANY AS LIGHT, FIND EVENTUALLY THAT DEAFNESS SETS IN. THIS IS OFTEN TO FORCE THEM TO LISTEN INTERNALLY, AND NOT TO AVOID THE RESPONSIBILITY THAT IS NOW DUE.

It may be that I may have to eat my words regarding our dear friends the scientists, for in an exchange of Magazines, we in receiving one from New Zealand, perceived the following comments: "That the scientists were investigating the pineal gland, and that the pineal gland seated in the brain, is one of the most biochemically active and complicated organs in the body, and it may be as important as any."

In the rest of their comments, it seems as though they have been studying the Gazette, for they continue, "In humans, the pineal hardens just after puberty, forming a bonelike calcium phosphate matrix. But pineal biochemistry is still very primitive and confusing. But this much is clear: it is a gland whose biochemistry is under direct control by light via the nervous system."

Well, it does seem as though we are getting somewhere with these hard-heads, that eventually they will come to seeing a great deal more from the right angle. Now, I do hope I have been able to help some of you to understand the main article with greater relish. Please do let me know.

Ere I close I would like to thank those who have come to our aid regarding our struggle with finances. For we still want to send out far and wide Gazettes that will lead the soul into the Word more readily than just by advertising.

But most of all, I would thank the reader who gave us a cheque for £250, with the promise of more, for this substantial sum will help us to put a very important project into operation. Up to the present, this Gazette has been run by a group of people that have put their all into it, and as one soul said, "It would be a tragedy to the whole world if the Gazette had to stop." It is such remarks as this that make me want to fight all the harder.

THE MOST IMPORTANT THING WE HAVE TO REMEMBER, IS THE FACT THAT THIS IS THE VOICE OF SPIRIT, AND BELONGS TO THE SPIRIT WORLD. UNDER NO ACCOUNT COULD IT COME UNDER ANY COMBINE OR CONTROLLING GROUP, FOR ALL THAT GOES INTO ITS CREATION, IS AUTHORIZED BY THE MASTER.

THEREFORE HE LEFT IT TO THOSE WHO WOULD GIVE TO ITS SUPPORT BY THEIR WHOLEHEARTED BELIEF AND LOVE, FOR THAT WOULD MEAN THEIR LOVE AND BELIEF IN HIM.

THE mighty Bull awakened, driving the Egg of the unfolding soul into the unfolding beauty of Atomic Divinity, where state after state, as it served its glory, was reimbursed into a greater unfolding of potentiality. Gathering up the wonders from the Heights until it awakened the divinity within the soul. (See text above in col. 3).

For now all must turn to the Fatherhood, the positive state of creation, and the Virgin go on seeking her wisdom from out of the Divine Ethers. Ever keeping in her mind, that all is HERE and NOW; that ever EMERGING out of the EGG creation, as the Phoenix giving rebirth to itself. At the same time the Divine FACE, the glory of belief in the Deity, is growing in the mind of the soul, and becomes the internal mind glory. For as the soul believes, will the Voice give forth.

Unbeknown to himself, man has been raised up to the upper three elements. Whereas he was under the influence of Mars, Venus and Mercury, he now is under Uranus, Neptune and Pluto, and can account for assistance, a state of imploding can take place within the soul, which drives the soul up to the point it is seeking. But this only takes place where a genuine state of seeking is set into motion.

By this, woman will be able to reach the heights, and where she has lost her internal creative organs through hysterectomy, now with true earnest endeavour, she can bypass that tragedy and be able to bring the divine Cloth of Gold into being, to create the Robe of the soul. This now will be carried out through the Fire infinity built up in the bloodstream, and not through the ova being fertilised in the womb. It is often through the lack of mind creation, that the womb becomes putrefied or filled with fibroids.

Woman's task is to find the mysterious mind wonder, and raise it up as immaculate conception. Thereby re-embellish her higher mind with a young warrior "sonship," a spiritual son to go up to the heights to re-strengthen the growing father, the coming Fatherhood.

This is one of the great wonders of the feminine principle, and applies to both genders, explaining more fully the message in the Book of Genesis, Chap. 2 v. 24. The marriage of heights and depths that became severed through the Fall, that should have brought the glories to the mind creation, and mighty truths out of the depths.

tal Glory as it descends. It will be by this, that man will behold those mighty wonders that are in the unseen vibrations of inflowing Causation.

The swooping down of the Divine Firebird, that would have to become of the Word, that it could be described and passed onto others. Yet it would be the touch of this mysterious inflowing wonder that would lift the soul up into heights of glory never known before. Thereby change the mundane Void into the cosmic Void, the radiant auric magnitude of light.

This is where we often see a soul with a radiant head of golden hair, for somewhere in the past they ended their life, having reached great heights, but never Solar born. Thus have come back to become Solar born, that they could get back to their true Plane of conception.

For it was a known fact that there was going to be a Scapegoat manifesting in the Age of the Waterman, and that was their only hope. But now, with the whole of the Universe

HERBAL MYSTERIES

Part 16

HOREHOUND (Marrubium Vulgare)

by David Spearman-Cook

THIS month let us seek into the history of the little herb commonly known as Horehound, that which through the space of Time still retains its soothing touch, as well as a calming balm of tranquil peace. For it is a Mercurial herb, and as we all know, that in all now being of the Mind Plane, its soothing ease will most definitely help the many stricken souls who should be searching for the golden light.

Horehound was once esteemed for its medicinal properties by the Romans, and its Latin name of Marrubium vulgare, is said to be derived from Maria urbs, an ancient town of Italy. Other authors derived its name from the Hebrew marrob, a bitter juice, and state that it was one of the bitter herbs which the Jews were ordered to take for the Feast of the Passover. The Egyptian Priests called this plant "The Seed of Horus," or the "Bull's Blood" and the "Eye of the Star." These Priests being nearer to the truth than any, for Horehound, as a seed, had dropped from the very heights of the Great Divine Source, out of the very Ethers, which could well have been the "Eye of the great Vega."

It has been used as a serviceable remedy against coughs for some considerable time, and has long been noted for its efficacy in lung troubles and bronchial difficulties. For by simply taking the syrup made from its green hairy leaves, it has been credited with the power of relieving many suffering from consumption. This has furthermore been proved by the medical men in our London hospitals. It is of enormous help to any suffering from asthma, and is still used as an expectorant and tonic, especially when taken with the root of the Orris.

But Horehound, if combined with Hyssop, Rue, Licorice root and Marsh-mallow root, can bring amazing results to children suffering from coughing bouts or stomach troubles, which are often the cause of the coughing. Simply take a half ounce of each, boil in two pints of water, then strain, and if given in half-teacupful doses every two or three hours, much relief will be found.

Funnily enough, it has been used as a serviceable remedy against canker worm in trees, and if put into new milk and positioned in places pested with flies, will speedily kill them off. Showing how Nature sought in every way to aid soul in its difficulties brought about by the FALL. For Horehound is a very good cleansing herb, and has been well used in the healing of all known conditions of contaminated flesh, internally as well as externally.

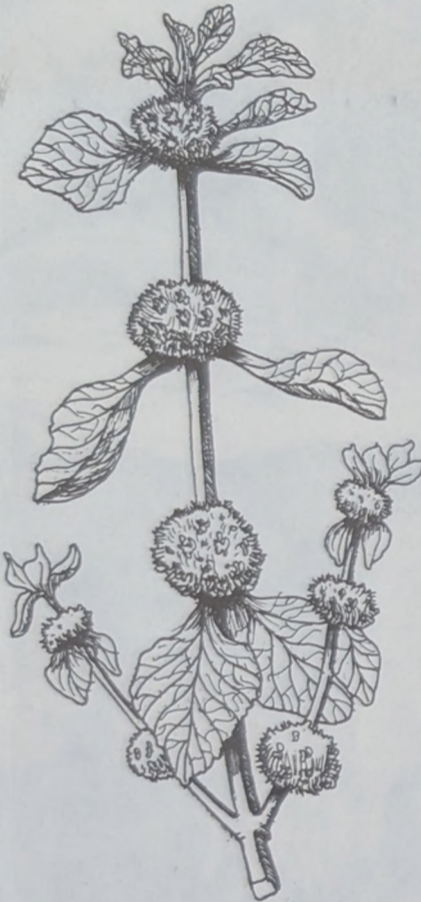

It has the remarkable power of sealing off pockets of important tissues, against any further contamination of mind desires. A really fantastic achievement, protecting vital centres against any form of waste. Hence it is to be classified as an extremely useful herb, assisting one and all to find their will; a great help amongst this world's constant pitfalls and abundance of desire.

WILL is the most important state for spiritual unification to take place, because there is no commencing activity upon the new Virgin Plane, unless this is fully embraced. So to help this, and aided by this little herb, let us seek deep within the royal circles of the virgin states of the soul. Those most commonly known as the glands and ducts of the main organic creations of man. For here, within these revolving power stations, there is a volume of power, which is ever being built up by the inflowing breath.

This is breathed in by the soul, and is distributed through the osmotic action to each one of these organic points, whereby they revolve wealth accumulated over aeons and aeons of Time. This, when unified up as Timelessness, can bring the soul to a state of conscious becoming. This is a state of delivery of true speech, the soul subconsciously uttering their internal spiritual beliefs.

The time lapse between breath and the delivery of Word, is known as the Horehound, or better still, Whorehound, representing the broken link with the Supreme Voice of the Source. This being the outcome of the FALL, which obviously should never have taken place, for then all simplicity was lost as man fell deeper into his own state of self importance. And as Space, it is the Great Almighty ever being separated from man, through his non-recognition of the Great Fatherhood, the positive way of life. Thus the Source as the Immaculate spontaneous Holy Word of the Fiery Divinity, awaiting man's unification.

HOREHOUND

Horehound has now become the herb which can assist these organic misconceptions of Time, being ruled by Mercury, and can co-ordinate the main nervous tissues of the vital organs to blend with its super state of compact virtue. This it has retained through this age of sophistication and deceptive speech; and by Merope polarising Vega through her unified mind, the virtues allotted to the power of Horehound, are now a hundred-fold effective.

way of the soul becoming sensitised. Free from those things of matter that belong to the third dimension, that the fourth dimension can become established in the sensitised seven horns of the purified Ram.

It must always be seen, that in all modes of initiation or otherwise, Saturn is the keeper of the bridge which leads to Infinity. Saturn is the door-keeper of the Temple as well as he who stands in Solomon's porch of Gemini, the mind. He holdeth the key to the sanctuary, that no man enters save the anointed.

THUS "THE GLORY OF SATAN IS THE SHADOW OF THE LORD, AND THE THRONE OF SATAN IS THE FOOTSTOOL OF ADONAI, OR THE UNIVERSE."

BY AND THROUGH HIM MAN FINDS GOD, FOR IT SHARPENETH HIS WITS, AND ALL IS AS ACTION DEVOURING IDEAL, AND CREATING TIME AND FORM AS MIND PERCEPTION, THE FOURTH DIMENSION.

Attention American Readers!

ONCE again we are nearing the Christmas period, when we receive numerous complaints of the Gazette never arriving, or being badly delayed en route. I would remind our American readers that the only way to overcome the Christmas postal chaos, is to have the December and January issues sent by AIR. The above method is the only way we can guarantee a safe and speedy delivery. Any readers who wish to take advantage of this, are asked to send one dollar to cover extra postage.

It is also extremely beneficial for any who have at some time badly distorted divinity, and are learning the lesson of its effect, for it is very binding and blending for anything required by Mercury.

For the extracted fluid of Horehound is a state of form-power frequency, which contains a wholeness and blendable strength, as powerful as any drug. But which will in this case, leave no after effect of damage to mind cells or tissues. These accursed drugs being that of hell's kitchen to the human soul, for they disturb the inner depths of the organic consciousness.

Horehound can greatly assist the bowel activity, and consequently relieve any pressure that may be felt within the skull cavity, brought about by the unifying of heights and depths. Thereby alleviating any agonising pain that can be felt in varying degrees, in the soul's unfolding of the Word. This is due to karma, and the twisted state that is often brought into birth in the nervous system. That which would have eventually resulted in dire sickness.

Migraine being one of its deep-rooted difficulties, which is caused by unretrieved wisdom as old knowledge, that has literally been stuffed into the mind through Ages of multiplicity. Here is where Horehound explains itself, the Hore, or anciently known as the whore, as the multiplicity of the Word, becoming the confusion of man's being, and is the missing quantum as each individual's internal outer world space. His atomic frequency of mind, killed by earthy desires, by refusing to raise all up as the royalty of the Atomic mind, through the hound as the dog, which represents the mind.

THE mixing of Horehound and Hawthorn is most desirous for healing any form of sickness in the stomach, and will line the intestinal tract with a syrupy layer of attracting herb power propensity which exudes out of the Hawthorn, and will draw the acidity from the small concealed pockets or cavities of the stomach, thereby clearing embedded residue of unwanted food.

Possibly saving one from an operation for suspected ulcers, but the hound of Hore will retrieve and devour any crystallising hardness, and assist the final breaking down of the minutest particles of remaining matter.

When the addition of Vervain is added to Horehound, it can contact the muscular membranes of the mind, and will activate automatically cells of the mind that the soul is refusing to operate, and help to bring a moving state to the cell structure. Here again is the hound on the scent of inertia.

Horehound in the past was used for the assistance of the removal of the childish complaint of measles, because it could give relief to the irritating itch, which always leaves children well marked or pocked, through its devastating presence. It has an action of stimulating the inflicted areas with a cooling sensation by suppressing the lower fiery activity of the germ. Thereby suppressing the spreading of its contagious state throughout the body.

If a little Violet is added, it can bring relief to the whole of the nervous system, and can reduce the healing period by two or three days. For with this complaint, to reduce the incubatory time of the developing of the spots is very essential, and will save the child much agonising distress.

With an addition of black Horehound to white Horehound, it has been used by many suffering from the after effects of a dog bite. This may not sound so strange, for in most things a balancing up of black and white states is always the answer to a problem. This being the white state of the mind and the black state of the animal bite. Both herbs acting as a form of serum to the one infected.

Of course it may be said, why not go to a doctor? In many cases they use these Herbs in a tincture state in their application, but on the other hand, you may come away with your kidney missing, and a baboon's tail in its place!

Finally, Horehound and Eucalyptus is a remarkable tonic for the sensitivity, for it can bring a cleansing state to the infundibulum, so that the "drip" from the heights may be assisted through the cervical channel and the funnel of the infundibulum, into the great new Pool, as the mind of Vega. For it is ever the pituitary which must be cleansed before His Master's Voice becomes audible in its full propensity.

When this is of course done through the mind ever rising in aspiration, the Arc will be in its full propensity of delivery. Thereby the NORM radiates its internal light and divine beauty as the auric radiance. Hence Horehound, which only assists these dynamic happenings, as a tale comes to an end in the unification of heights and depths.

Next month we will search into the depths and healing capabilities of Irish Moss.

It was referred to as Har-Ur, the eldest Horus, "born but not begotten" of the virgin mother. That which purified itself and produced. Then the eight that produced itself from the seven, became the seven horns and seven eyes of the lamb. The seven powers now as the seven senses producing Perceptivity; and the eighth, being the immortal blossom on the human branch.

To bring this into birth, Saturn although Satan, acts as the mighty revolutionising refractor of lunar aspects; because Saturn is karma demanding justice. It acts as the Cynocephalus sitting upon the beam to see fair play. Yet at the same time acts as the ape or "Cunning" of mind in all degrees; the cunning to avoid and the cunning to get there. By this it can be seen how all is oozing out of; becoming, or the Coming One.

For Saturn is the synthesiser of all seven, and when he can so antagonise, he forces the soul to bring forth the eighth. Therefore is the victory over that which was, and the bringer of new and just conditions.

At the end of the 12th dynasty in Egypt, Sebek, Sevek and Osiris, were frequently interchanged, which brought about a religious revolution, and Sut and Typhon were worshipped at the Shrine of Ombos. In the same way as man today probes into a new cult and still holds to his old ideas. But this is where Saturn begins to torment, for once you start advocating new ideas, war begins within; the Wars of the Mahabharata.

SATURN DRIVING AS MERCURY GOING BACK AND FORTH TO BRING FORTH OF THE EIGHTH. THEREFORE HE IS AS SUT AND GOD IN HIS POLARITY MANIFESTATION.

But where does all of this take place? From generation to regeneration; and from an astrological interpretation, Taurus to Scorpio polarity; the fire generating of life, with the continual discarding of those things that impede the

THE DIVINE VISION

THE BIRTH OF THE NEW WORLD

by the Lord of the Flame

This is a recording of the Lecture given at the School on Wednesday, 21st August, 1968. Sentences in italics are those that were chosen from the Lecture of the previous Sunday, to be given greater and more simplified explanation.

PEACE BE UNTO YOU ALL.

Now I would advise you to study hard the Word that is being given forth by Merope, for she speaks bold words of wisdom, in which she has full belief, and it is dynamic, since she is the LAW. With the help of those who are willing to support her, right fully up to the hilt, will she be able to build up the Mighty Atomic Power which will resist the darkness of the earth. Power that is hard for her to carry, that which racks her body with pain, and often calls for her to take many things which she would not do in the ordinary way. There is need for more support, need for more help; not to run away because it may mean a certain amount of renunciation. Man will only find his way by renouncing the earth, or becoming a slave to the darkness of man's scientific contraptions. By building up the Atomic Power here will she be given the Power to break down their creations, which she has done in the past, causing them to collapse; and even though it may mean disaster and death to those within these missiles, it brings resistance to their diabolical movement.

Now the plate that is being shown tonight was painted by one who was in the Temple, and had not the courage to see it through, which resulted in their own destruction. They had seen all these wonders, they had seen all this Glory, and yet had not the courage to bring it into birth. This is what Merope has done. Merope has not known all that was expected to be brought about, but she has followed blindly the directions of the Great Ones.

(See plate on this page)

This plate is of the soul who has finished his journey, walking directly into the Sea of Divine Consciousness, all having been brought fully into birth as you see by the 'flame' on his head, and he is walking right into the Solar glory. Now it is this Mighty Power that Merope has brought into birth, suffering often acute pain to do so. If there were more supporting her, she would be relieved of these pains, she would not have to worry, and she would find many things being directed in the support.

Vast Atomic Powers are built up in here, so vast that they could 'blow up' in a far greater way than any atomic bomb. But these are Powers of the Spirit, not powers of the lower grade, which these fools are turning into atomic weapons.

Now do not become alarmed, for it is a great point that this country has not resisted, for what is to come in the future will be more than Russia will be able to hold. She has become swollen-headed, but then, she is not the real cause of the damage. Look to America who is a bad example of chaos, war, and financial corruption, and the ones to blame for these conditions are those we are going to strike, and strike in no small measure.

Now that is as much as I can give you tonight. Just have faith and go on supporting Merope, giving her all the strength and help you can, that she can go on building up this Power to the very full.

AND now let us turn to those paragraphs of the Sabbath lecture, which have been chosen for discussion, that we can give them some

CROWNED GLORY

AS the soul, laden with all the glory of Time, now as a divinity of Oneness, mounted the steps into the Holy Beauty of the radiant consciousness, they became involved into its royal magnificence. Laden as they were with the mighty powers of their becoming, did they, in reaching those heights, become of their true assimilated glory. (See text in col 1).

greater depth of thought.

Thus the infinity now became the glorified radiance of the electrified bloodstream, with the whole of its soul as the essence of electrified Transcendental in-flowing cosmic life.

Now this is what Merope has to try to ever keep bringing into birth, an electrified state whereby she can house and hold the Atomic Fire, and then again, electrify it into action.

For as the soul raises their belief, they raise their Solar infusion, for in taking from the Breath the deeper and more infused Ether elevation, will the Cosmic radiations be penetrated and captured.

Keeping yourself elevated, raised up, seeing the higher purpose, and if you do not capture it the first time, working with the intent to capture it the second.

This is where the charging Bull and Orion meet, that Ophiuchus wrestles with in the unification, and the Crown is won.

The top and the base of the spine wrestling to bring forth the Serpent glory.

For the electrified glory of the Corona Borealis is captured, and electrification becomes the captured trophy.

You don't just capture the Seed, but by your raised-up minds you are able to capture the Corona Borealis as well, for that is the means of sending down, or bringing down the electrified Air. As the Earth turns so it comes in that status over the Earth.

For by purifying the bloodstream, there comes forth the blossoming of the Vega flower, as it then opens up in the depths. For Merope by her love and her struggle, had given the Seed its fertile quickening of timelessness from the Cup that held the mystery of that profusion. For electrification is born when the LORD can sup from that Cup of your internal creation.

When you raise your mind up to the Divinities, embrace the Divinities, and in raising up your electrification to that Royal and Holy ONE, they sup from that Cup, and send you down the Glories from the Heights.

By so doing, the blossoming of the radiant NORM sets the Seeds into fertile action of the Vega radiation, with the whole of the infinity now charged with pure spirit Fire, which becomes sparked off by the Oxygen fusion.

Now if you can only get this electrified status going through the blood, then you drive the spirit through the capillaries which causes the whole of the tissues to be alive. Not just rolling round the bloodstream, but through the whole of the tissues, for it is in not being able to drive the Oxygen, as spirit creation, through all these capillaries, that the soul finds itself only fed here and there, and the rest left in confusion.

Causing the implosive glory of the Hydrogen and Oxygen union of the Atomic Uranian driving force to come into active motion. That which drives the active glory of the Circle of Willis, that drives the blood to the extreme parts of the body in atomic radiation. Driving the generative fire through the ner-glory of the divine beauty that was now interpenetrating the depths. That which, as the cosmic consciousness, becomes the effervescence of divine Life, with the Ariel glory of timelessness ever beaten by Vulcan into active glory.

Now if you can raise these vibrations up onto the highest, you become weather-proof to all states that are trying to interpenetrate. You won't be open to attack; you will be an invulnerable point, because you are radiating on the highest point of Atomic Glory.

The ever inflowing might of Virgin belief from Outer World Space, that sets electrification into atomic action. For it is the seeding of divinity as comprehension, into the arms of the Virgin that the incandescent belief becomes the radiance of the Fatherhood, from the Unseen Heavenly Source.

You must have belief, ever keeping the mind raised up, ever becoming a warrior of Truth, ever remaining a warrior of firm active vibration, driving forth with courage even when things go wrong and appear at their lowest. You see you are on a positive status radiating of the Fatherhood, no longer on the magnetic plane of the Motherhood, where all the evil and darkness is now taking place.

For the Source is the Orion Man coming into birth, from the ionising of the Poles. That which becomes the alchemicalisation of involving divinity, as the glory of the Robe, in that which becomes the ultra-sonic Word. Then in the ultra-sonic becoming the revolving glory of rebirth, and the ever unfolding Source of the bloodstream, does Divinity become a greater realisation as a necessity of unfolding LIFE. That which is ever activated by the risen up passions, which when transmuted becomes the atomic glory of the soul in the depths and the glory of the Neptunian divinity.

Now man was born under the Neptunian wealth, and had to lower his frequency down to the depths, which are within himself. You did not have to come down into anything lower. The soul was born and brought this lower status into birth. It is the same when the soul is told to 'go down south'; he does not go down into the lowest depths; he lowers his vibrations to get a circle of Light.

So the soul, when he came into birth, came under a Neptunian Glory, but was told to go forth and build up the passions, and build up the mind so that it could, through the Neptunian Glory which was his heritage, give him the unfolding Glory of Spirit intrinsic depth. He really had to start off on the Neptunian wonders, make his way through all experiences, bringing the mind into birth, and then once again carrying all up to the Neptunian Plane in the reborn Glory of the Spirit. In so doing he would bring into birth the Divine Sea of Consciousness, a Divine Status of knowing all its inner depths through the wonders of Infinity.

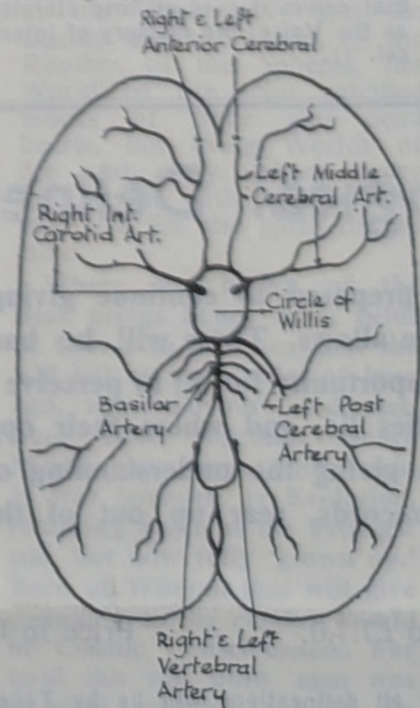

Now I wonder if I have been able to convey anything to you by those words. Do remember that the soul was born from the Nebula under Neptune, but he had got to bring Neptune into the Passionate Glory of the unfolding divinity of the mind. He had got to bring this into birth, so he had to go through all the experiences of the so-called depths.

vous system, setting the horses as the passions driving high into atomic radiation.

The whole soul is an atomic radiating creation, radiating atomic strength in all directions.

Now this Circle of Willis, which is around the root of the brain, is the elevated atomic force of the bloodstream, and the more you drive the bloodstream by electrical belief and electrical faith, will you feed the brain with this electrical creation, and the whole of the mind is automatically fed.

That which sets the Ionosphere into magnetised infusion, as the bloodstream gives to the gods the heavenly glory they were seeking. All a mighty potential of the Vega Plane, the

was the mother of God. The power that becomes through the soul striving to translate into manifestation. Through this the lion was eventually imaged as a lion on the mount of lions, which was the Mount Shennu-Sinai. The lion mount where the Lord was the solar lion; in fact he was the two lions, the old lion merging into the young lion and mounting up into heights of becoming.

This is similar to Capricornian heights, where the goat is ever springing up the mountainside as the mind of unfoldment, and symbolised in the Bible as the prophets going up to the top of the mount and meeting God. Sometimes returning with a veil over the face; light, or transfiguration.

The Manifestation of God

THE power which becomes such through mind comprehension and shown as the power that can look both ways at once, the heights and depths; the whole circumference of being.

Negative and positive united into one unit; the daimon or "Evil" power that becomes the Agathadaimon, the Uraeus of wisdom, but also the manifestation of God. Thus is the Lord made manifest as the word, and the manifestation is the extent of God made manifest as intelligence.

The Word made flesh and manifested is the Intelligencia over-shadowing humanity and leading them unto safety into the harbourage of unity; but to realise that, the Sages of Egypt thousands of years ago saw the need for this wisdom to be earthed, so that six Equinoxes later, when humanity would have strayed so far away from truth they would have witness to lead them back home, and is indeed one of the miracles of life, and one that is given very little thought at all.

This is now shown as the Solar power Goddess whose wings are wrapped around her as the butterfly waiting to emerge out of the chrysalis; she who has the power to bring forth wisdom. This Goddess is the great Harlot and Mother of God, she who was uncreated by the Gods and worshipped as the "Only One." She existed with no one before her, the only one mightier than all the Gods.

She had the power to make them drunken and was the scarlet lady that "Lusted" men into life, for she is the power of the seven heads, or solar dragon upon which the woman rode and became the great harlot that men could learn the wisdom of self-control.

Therefore was the power that became wild and drunken through the ways of men and ran away with its participants in Atlantis, Egypt, Greece, Rome, the great World War and many others far too numerous to mention.

This is where the mind has extended and become powerful for its own ends and not seeking to manifest of truth for the benefit of humanity. In the winged Goddess it portrays, in the wings waiting to unfold, the word waiting manifestation to make the soul a winged psyche; but they are still bound by the source that gave them birth, the lust of their forefathers.

As the Goddess Bast she became the power of the risen Uraeus, that which had become through the establishment of power. Not just lunar activity but Solar interpenetration of Power waiting its fulfillment in word activity; she was the power of Bubastes, the great Silver Temple of Power.

BREATH

THE Breath of Life, now the Hydroxyl Ethers, feeding the soul with perpetual life, in bringing the vital spirits unto the soul, that drives it ever on into eternity. That which unfolds eventually as the Voice, the mystery of internal mind conjecture. (See text in col. 1).

She who became the Goddess of the Temple for Truth to be born, but which as a power of establishment can so easily fall unless she becomes the Goddess of Fertility. That which is transmuted of nine ways and stabilised in establishment.

This then would be performed through the Goddess Tefnut; another form of change and unfoldment in the transmuting power of the Great Feminine Principle, the syzygy of God. Tefnut would be the moist word, the emotional waters becoming the dry word of air or mind; the Goddess Sekhet who now sees through her million eyes. She who can see both ways and perceives all wisdom, becoming the winged scarlet lady, the great power of hidden speech as the purple-robed Goddess.

THE MOIST WORD OF EMOTIONS TO DRY WORD OF MIND; THE MOIST WORD WHICH COMES FORTH FROM SERKH, THE SCORPION STING, THAT ROSE TO BECOME RANNUT, THE RISEN URAEUS OF WISDOM.

She was the mother of God who gave birth to the God Shu, the God of Breathing force, the panting power of Air, and in being able to extract from the breath the great power of the mind, was not of Serkh the scorpion, but the risen Uraeus as Rannut and thus the God Shu became manifest; he that could reign over new life. All brought forth by the great magician, MAN, by his internal labours of alchemicalisation.

In the Religion of the West it became Mary who brought forth of the Child that could bring new life to man. In the great Book of the Dead, in the chapter dealing with the giving of the breath of life, Shu states, "I am Shu who conveys the breezes or Breathings. I give air to these younglings as I open my mouth."

(See plate on Page 12)

Through power and speech the starry heavens of night are upraised; the heavens in which the two Bears revolve around the pole.

The Breath of Mind

SHU, the God of Breathing is the third of the elemental powers born of the Genetrix and stands as the equinox, the link of connection betwixt Sut and Horus in the North and South. This is the two ends of the pole, that in their equivalent would be of Saturn and Christ, the opposites of life that produce the result, or third. With Shu a triad was completed and the two pillars with a line across would form the figure of the triangle; the two principles, Masculine and Feminine, which become through the Word that bridged the gap.

Thus the twins are in Gemini, the two poles of the mind, symbolised as Cain and Abel and Castor and Pollux, where one "kills" the other and has to labour until united. While the third Shu, the upraised mind, that which becomes, is found in Sagittarius the polarity to Gemini. This then makes it as Tefnut, that born from the Goddess Bast as the conscious concrete mind, with Shu as the higher mind that has become and works the oracle of Breathings.

The first three of the seven powers born of the Kamite mother of the elements were:— Sut the power of Darkness; Horus the power of Light; and Shu the power of Air as Breathing force. The three Ali or Elohim that appear in the opening statement of Genesis; though unpersonified, they are still as the primary elemental powers. For in the beginning, darkness brooded over the face of the deep and the Spirit of Elohim moved upon the waters. The power which had not become until it became of mumia, a carrier; therefore the beginning is with night and darkness and is how all is produced.

The Spirit of Elohim was the Breathing force of Shu and the breeze of Dawn, while the name of Tefnut who was born twin with him, denotes the dew of Dawn.

In this you see the beautiful language of Beginning when all was still and "I" first began, and the powers or elements of dawn emerged out of the darkness of the firmamental deep, with Shu and Tefnut as the elemental powers of breath and liquid life, coming forth. This continually comes forth in man from his darkness and chaos in just the same way, and is his fundamental "deep."

According to the Ancients' prognostications, Shu, the mind or son from the birth, became the conqueror of Chaos and the progeny of darkness. He was the uplifter of the sky, with his rod (spine) as the repeller of the dragon coming out of the abyss; also was the raiser of the gravestone, and the opener of the sepulchre as the bringer of breath to the newly awakened soul. The soul awakened out of the darkness of ignorance.

Thus it can be seen by this dissertation of the Egyptians and their hieroglyphs that they were not just merely worshippers of false gods—that is the modern man's wild assumption. They were owners not only of a great science, but THE SCIENCE followed by one and all, and the basic of all wisdom in the world. As much as others claim far older heritage, Egypt goes back into Atlantis, the world of Myth and Mystery.

To this great and dynamic race, Shu became the power which came forth from the workings in their infernal furies; the generative fires boiling up the witches' cauldron, which can become in the man the power of the spoken word, that which unites the soul with the heights and brings the triad complete. It becomes as the mind, Horus the son, that which is now awakened in the Initiate and shows him the way to handle the two serpents. The power but ever to continue in its upward rising for speech and word to become the risen mind; the raised hair of the Goddess, the wealth of growth of Samson as he labours in captivity. But he who finally pulls down the old temple and builds anew.

This becomes the second beginning, the real man, the soul of thought capacity and not the flesh desire of the anthropomorphic. He becomes one who can determine know-

Man as the mind is the consistency of 49 "little beetles" produced from the one Beetle who rolled its egg in the dung, the matter of earth, and was devoured by the scorpion, to come forth as its venom or fire of life. 48 being that of the anthropomorphic which are ever being transmuted onto the planes of thinking capacity with the 49th as the sounding post, the thought which becomes as speech, the wisdom of truth.

Many may come forward to

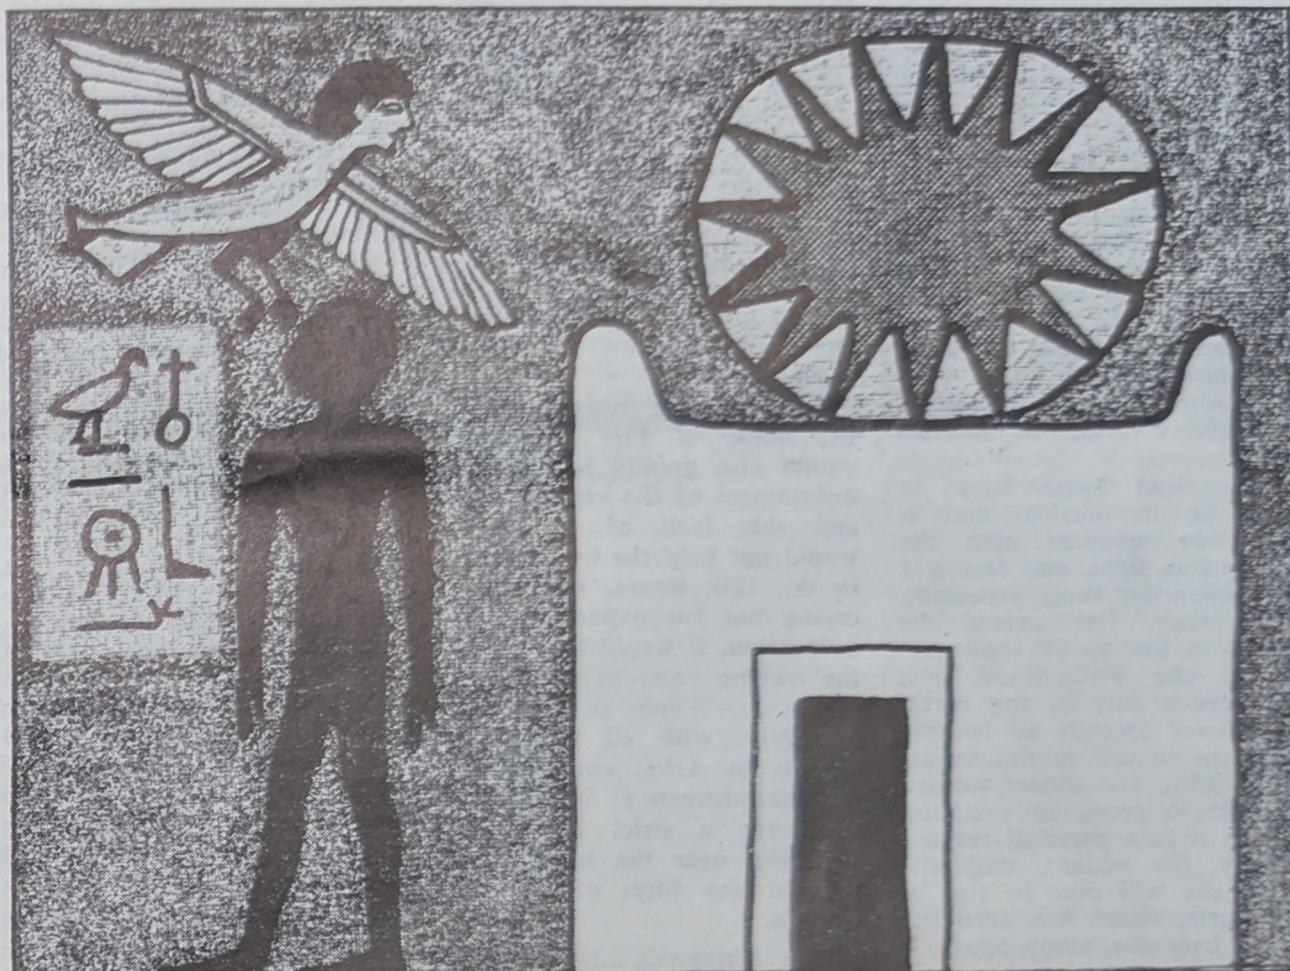

of which none have been able to match, for it was young and full of life, and although of tribal states, were simple and innocent from the re-awakening, thus deceit and intrigue were missing. Therefore the world was not hemmed in by heaviness and oppression, and the descending powers brought with them influences of a royal nature which they exercised with judiciary rights, hence balance and equilibrium reigned.

To those who live in a world of hurry and flurry, where all is for self and self desire, the former would bear of no authority or even rhyme or reason to your world of form, but you would have known the difference if you had lived in Egypt 12,500 years ago, and had been suddenly transported from then to the present day.

It would have been like stepping off the top of Everest and entering into the heart of your metropolis. For the moment you would be completely stunned and would find it difficult to breathe, for Egypt at that time was electric and radiant, with a maelstrom free from nitrogenic gases.

Queen Nekhtorheb was the greatest Queen that ever reigned upon an Egyptian throne, for she held powers never known to any other. Some called her Bast the terrible, others the Great Old Mother, for she taught the young world the real and true meaning of generation; but man as the "men of Pi-beseth" undermined her subjects and putrefied the atmosphere, and although they fell by the sword, the tare seed they sowed with the field of wheat, ripened with the harvest and smeared the strain which has passed right down the ages, unto the present day.

This completes the series of articles upon the Egyptian Mysteries. Next month we will be bringing the first set of lectures upon the Saga of Time, Mythology, entitled "The Grecian Dawn."

THE EVER OPEN MOUTH

AS the Khaibit moved forth from one plane to another, the Mouth opened and spoke of what he knew, raised up onto the next plane of unfoldment. Thus Sunlight shone forth from his radiant unfolding Ka, the breaking forth from darkness into light. (See text in col. 1).

of Rannut the scorpion has now become as the mind, the risen steam from the "boiling" furies.

What he now has to accept is the fact that he must gather up of wisdom and still wrestle with those serpents, for the power will increase and MUST go out as word, which returns unto him as holy Breath; the circling of Motions, for as man gives so he receives.

Never must it revert back to the caverns, the lower desires, ledge; that is, he has the area of the field of thought, which is betwixt the two brains, now active as the ring-pass-not of his own radiating vortices of mind, and has the power of the deduction of opposites.

The ring-pass-not being the capacity of deductive thought in the mercurial flight transmitted through Saturn, or the basic of the soul in either limiting or revealing.

All Egyptian knowledge has been translated by mere belief, so how can they be as right as the authority of one returning from that world? THE VOICE

With intense awe, Merope sought of more, as her Magic Mirror had died down upon her perceiving of such mighty depths. As it opened up again, this time she saw a magnificent Firebird swooping round and round, as though fully joyous at being able to fledge its wings. Its radiating beauty was superb, for all its feathers seemed alight with quivering glory, eager as it were, to deliver of a secret message to the one who could possibly receive it.

As it glided and winged up and down, round and round, it seemed to intensify of its intended possibility; and, although dimly at first, Merope heard a rhythmical beauty coming forth from out of its beauteous depths. Gradually the rhythm increased, intensifying its LIGHT as it did so upon the darkness of the Void, until a mighty volume broke forth upon the tympanic ear of the soul, conveying the full intensity of its establishing beauty.

As all this, in the mystical unfolding of its wealth, increased in its receptivity, Merope noticed that its beauty began slowly to dim, but the rhythm duly increased until it gradually became as a continuous Stream of heavenly Glory, guiding Merope upon many things which she had never witnessed before. For now she could only bring forth by the power of Divine Harrowing, the glory of the Spirit.

The iron will of purpose and bite incubating the Seeds through the inflow of Divinity, the Uncion of Divine Belief. For Merope was the heart of the Divine, the creator of Divine will and intent. Therefore now, her task was the mastering of the EAR, to get the VOICE manifesting of perfect Truth. With an ultra refined diet that sensitivity could fully get the Harrowing into birth, to bring about the glory of the rising Winds. Merope having been beaten into action by Vulcan's Forge, that the hammer, stirrup and anvil of the ear were now manifesting to capture the internal divine Voice.

The three little bones of the ear as the oracular, that of the oracle, the tripod which the Virgin sits upon. The complete glory of the Virgin Plane, where all men can be gods once again. Where the Elk Bull, as the Virgin Bull, brings the herd through the Fires of the Elements unto the glory of the meninges, living entirely up in the heights. Where only by the hiving of the Bees would the soul find the answer to life.

This is where the Power of the Voice is the mighty Uncion of the Source, for Merope by unifying the divinities through her Immaculate Cosmic Conception, was completely changing the beat of the cosmic causation. Bringing fully into birth the glory and royal FACE of Vega; a world of Fantasy, of turrets, cupolas and minarets, a world of glorious beauty.

Where the cosmic light is the Auric essence of the Word, that of divine Orion magnitude. Feeding the Divinities with the Royal Word, the divine glory of LEO. The Solar trodden wealth which has been compounded into the Atomic at-one-ment, whereby now, by entire Virgin belief, the soul infuses the Source with electrified ONENESS.

For Merope, now as the unfold and unifier of the divinities in the driving glory of her Virgin heart-beat of LOVE, is ever manifesting truth through the beauty and magnificence of the Spirit, the divine manifestation of Divinity. The answer now lying in the heart-beat of the soul, for "As the LOVE of the Master" so the Voice is. The Speech giving forth of his Royalties, Merope now being His Divine Spouse, the creator of His Divine FACE.

The Unseen, yet felt; the internal Divine FIRE brought forth as the magnificence of Merope's beliefs, her divine and cherished thoughts. Whereby the WIND that blows upon her ear is now captured as the risen Voice of Divinity, the divine Octave of the manifesting Monochord. For Merope as the Virgin only sees the Beauty that should be, by the Rhythm of the Spheres, her World of life. Not calcified blocks of stone and dead hearts, but living Worlds of life and glory, where every soul is one with another, and they live for the glory of the mind.

Where the hiving of the Bees brings honey from fields of Clover to feed her, that she will tell of many tales of long ago, when Divinity and man were close together. Hence Merope has come back again as was intended by Evolution, returning home as the Prodigal son, but now fully 'grown up.' Born of Wisdom that will give definition to the coming World of Cosmic Consciousness. For until this was born, man was a blind crawling ant in the world of darkness. He who was content with life down the pit, the terrestrial world of the beast.

Thus it was of this that Merope would seek, and bring wonders to the soul who was seeking of "WHAT"; the great and mighty memory of lost beliefs. Where Divinity was his guiding function, and he lived up in the Web of the Arachnoid, under the Arc of the ever rising Dawn. Where, by the glorious state of "unknowing," that they ever "know," is captured another fragment of the Divine Being. By this, the soul is ever seeking through untouched realms of HIS Divine LOVE, bringing great fresh AIR into birth, that which will keep the Spirit alive.

This is where courage and belief live together, as the soul brings forth of heavenly WONDERS, which give unto the 'dead' soul the hope of living once again. This ever coming forth by the 'recognition' upraising of the Spirit, whereby the soul becomes sensitive to the Divine Voice within the inflowing Breath.

THEREBY CAPTURES ITS HOLY INTENSITY AS THE NEPTUNIAN BEAUTY, THAT OF TIMELESSNESS AND THE FORMLESS WORD. THE SEEDING OF THE WORLD OF DIVINE COSMIC CONSCIOUSNESS, THE DIVINE MAGNIFICENCE OF THE FIFTH DIMENSION.

HEALING PRAYER

GREAT DIVINE ONE

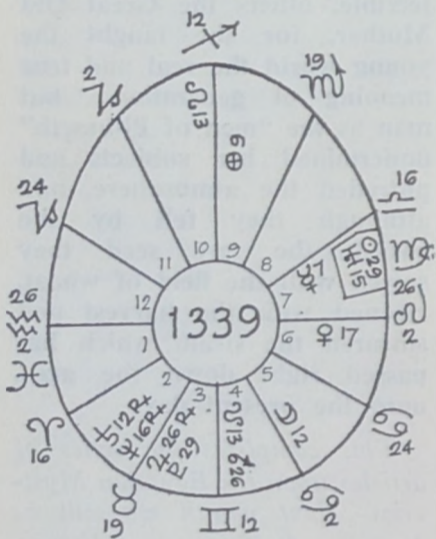

POUR down upon these souls Thy Glory in all its Beauty and Abundance, as they seek of light to help them to be released from their 'pit of captivity.' Pour down Thy Wonders upon the 'fallen' that they can be raised up out of the darkness of their dilemma.

Amen.

"Is 87 years old, has loss of memory and balance... doctor says she has arteriosclerosis."

THIS chart (1339) is really quite a prolific one, but unfortunately the owner has been refusing to move for many ages. It was because she was so wealthy, yet firmly earthed by six earth signs, that she has been able to reach the age of 87 as comfortably as she has done. Quite candidly, she has been a very lucky woman, for her task in this life was her final opportunity, when she was intended in the Aquarian Age, to completely unify all her multiplicity. But she has stubbornly remained fixed, with three planets in the 7th house, indicating that she is refusing to accept any form of change of law, which automatically comes when a soul changes its frequency.

Her Path of Destiny is in the 9th house, the house of wisdom, telling her that she had to bring all past wisdom gathered, into a oneness of Solar understanding; she had to expand beyond what she already knew, by seeking into the mystic truths and perceiving the true depths of divinity. But this she would not do, in this life or those of the past, and consequently her Jupiter ruling her expansion, is now retrograde.

She has become so gluttoned with wealth gained over the ages, that in this life the Law has unfortunately called her to account, with the result that it has completely obliterated the faculties. This means that the spirit is buried under her six earthy states, but with the Moon in the 5th house, the house of Fire, it shows that she has ever brought everything down to an earthy level. Consequently this life, quite candidly, has been abortive, which she will of course become aware of when she passes back to her rightful abode of spirit.

I am amazed that it is only in the last three years that she has had health troubles, for I am sure she has made no real effort to unfold her inner wealth in this life at all. But with Uranus completing its cycle of revolution, and the Moon passing through the 6th house, the house of health, when sickness struck, there could not have been any other result. At the end of the Uranian cycle round the chart no mind growth had been established; thus the Law, through Uranus, claimed its dues.

This soul came back to tread in its wealth, that it could be returned unto the heavens as light, and this is a very important thing, especially to woman. For unless she treads in her wealth and embraces the Fatherhood, she becomes a part of the earth, and never ascends to become as a divine cell in the realms of divinity. The sooner woman is able to recognise this and accept it as a personal responsibility, the better; until she does, she will ever be tied to the earth, which has been her curse over the many ages.

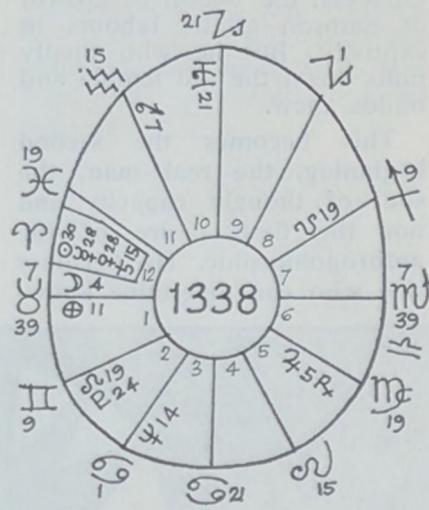

Mr. W. K., Milwaukee, Wisconsin, U.S.A.

"I have been looking after my mother for three years now... I would appreciate any advice upon this, as it is now becoming a strain upon my nerves." (See chart 1339).

AS the offspring of the owner of the previous chart, although there are a number of 12th house planets, there is a greater possibility of unfoldment, for you have 4 Fire signs and 2 Air, so at least your mother did leave the legacy of her wealth unto her son. (Chart 1338). But even the difficulty of the 12th house planets could be overcome if there was a certain amount of hard work through the mind, and particularly in the study of the wisdom in the Occult Gazette, for that is designed to help bring the multiplicity of past understanding into its completion.

The biggest difficulty in this chart is the Moon, for Moon in the 12th house is not very helpful, tending towards an inverted way of thinking. The major point in this chart is the Path of Destiny in the 1st house, indicating that the personality has to find strength and develop itself into becoming the raised up virgin mind. Too much in the past has obviously been wrapped around SELF, hence the path of selflessness has not yet begun, and this is the foremost point of all occult students.

With Taurus upon the Ascendant you must bring forth the deep phenomenal powers that are within you, and try to find an independent creation of new thought, but with Gemini upon the house of the Bull, and Capricorn in the Mid-Heavens, you would find it very difficult to come away from logical thought—particularly with your mother having Saturn retrograde in this house, which would overshadow all your efforts.

Jupiter being retrograde in the house of Fire in Virgo, would also greatly restrict the unfoldment of the virgin mind, and this lack of expansion would not help the five planets in the 12th house, which are crying out for expansion and unification. It would be well in the coming years to watch the kidneys, as Venus in the 12th, a captive with all the other planets in Aries, could affect the bloodstream; hence the need for a strict diet, well watching over the bladder to prevent any form of prostate trouble.

The Dragon's Head and Dragon's Tail, going from the 2nd to the 8th house, means that activity of the spine must begin at once, whereby reborn wisdom is captured by the Bull, so as to help lift those planets out of the 12th, into the 1st. This is the trouble with this chart, it is very full but wants expansion, especially with Uranus and Mars in the house of Service.

It would be well when more time is available to this soul, that he begins unfolding as quickly as possible, and if a form of service could be started then the sooner the better. The progressed Moon is passing over the 3rd and 4th houses for the next 4 years, and this means a complete rebirth of mind outlook, and quite possibly a complete change in home affairs.

I would suggest that the herb ROSEMARY is taken with VERVAIN, with also as an alternate infusion, that of HOLY THISTLE and HORSETAIL.

Mrs. J. B., New Jersey, U.S.A.

"Has failing eyesight."

HERE again we have a soul (chart 1382) who should be treading their wealth into the earth, but who obviously has not started to do so yet. You cannot just keep on taking more and more wisdom, without you begin to live it. True occultism is a vibrant way of life, whereby one is able to make unity with Divinity, not merely a correspondence course for the purpose of obtaining knowledge, as so many seem to think.

This soul has taken a tremendous amount of wisdom in the past, but has ever kept it in a state of multiplicity, and with Jupiter, the planet of expansion, retrograde in the 2nd house in Scorpio, it strongly indicates that she has only used the generative fire of the mind to build up of self, and not the spirit. This is shown clearly by the Moon and Mars in the 12th house in Leo, for nothing is more pugnacious than Leo in doing what IT wants, and not what it should do.

This soul, with 4 Fire and 4 Air Bodies, could have been very, very stubborn and self-willed in her previous lives, as well as that of the present. But it does not mean that even at the age of 69, they are too late to make some effort, though it will need much hard work in serious study. The most important thing to watch against is the false illusion that comes with the Moon in the 12th house, which being conjunct to Mars, could have a very destructive effect, not only upon the physical structure but also upon the bringing forth of new creative ideas.

The failing eyesight is due to the Mercury, which rules the eyes, finding no expansion, and with Saturn in the 4th house, a Saturnian state would ever be arising in the home surroundings. Once a person gains dynamic wealth, it can be just as much a detriment as it can an advantage; in fact more so if the soul is not careful. It is not much use reading in abundance unless you can get expansion from what you are reading.

The trouble is that the world decries such truths as these, and listens instead to the babblings of the ignorant, thereby causing evolution to be curtailed for the time being.

To help this soul I would suggest from a herbal standpoint, Eyebright, Elder Flowers, and Chickweed, but at the same time I would strongly advise her to send out to the Spirit World for guidance, and seek to make expansion through raising her mind up to the heights.

I know that sometimes these healing delineations can be very direct and near to the bone, but surely you are all seeking to be given the truth, and not just superficial glorification to pander to the ego of the seeker, merely that one could receive unjustifiable ovation. Truth may oftentimes hurt, but in the long run the soul will realise that it is the greatest blessing that one could possibly receive.

Mr. W. S., Scotland.

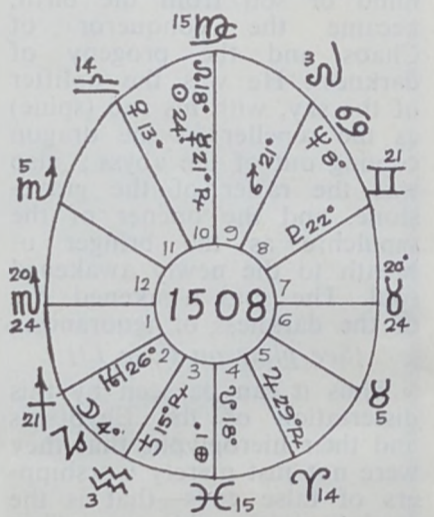

"Has chest pains and is short of breath."

THE owner of this chart (1508) came back with dynamic wealth, which can be seen by the number of planets in the 10th house. Even the spirit, which is the Dragon's Head, is already risen into the 10th house, but unfortunately his Mercury is retrograde, which literally means that he has been refusing to continue his unfoldment for ages. Consequently, instead of walking his wealth into the earth he has allowed his Pisces on the 4th house to raise up a state of inertia. This of course, is added unto by his Mercury, Jupiter, and Saturn, being retrograde, all hampering his progression.

I note in your letter that you had an accident to your foot last year. Well, that links up with what I have just said about Pisces, which rules the feet. If you had been activating the wisdom sufficiently, then that accident would not have taken place. Your chest trouble, similarly, is due to your Gemini, which rules the lungs, being on the 8th house, with Pluto in it. Pluto represents the Christos Power in the positive, but only chaos in the negative, so you must struggle hard with the wisdom to try to continually see the 'nut' point of it all.

The Moon in Capricorn in the 2nd house, is not too helpful, for it gives its owner fixed ideas, but once you can overcome this by winging your mind into ariel flight, and letting your imagination carry you up to the highest planes of divinity, then you will really start to unfold. But again, your Path of Destiny in the 3rd house, the house of the mind, is strongly indicating the necessity for you to enforce your Mercury in Virgo to find the one-pointed state of the intuitive mind. As you do this you will be raising Pluto, the Christos Glory, out of the pit, and into the Flame of the Mind. You are a very old soul, and although you may say that you do not consciously know the wisdom, inwardly through the subconscious mind, you know all.

I see that the movement of the Moon at the present, is across your 5th house, the house of fire, so it is a very appropriate moment for you to draw down the great Scorpio Fires, of which you are very capable, for you have Scorpio on your Ascendant, making you a perfect channel to earth these royal Fires.

To sum your chart up, it is a most promising one, if you will now get down to hard study to unfold your mind. Send out to the Powers of Spirit for guidance, and you might be amazed as to how you progress.

I see we have already sent you our special Chest Pills, and am glad to see that they have been of great benefit to you.

READERS PLEASE NOTE

If there are any readers who have poetry, or short articles which they feel might be suitable for publishing in the Occult Gazette, we would be very pleased to receive them. We would ask though, that all articles sent, be kept to a reasonable length, due to the limitations upon the space available. (Editor).

Readers' Letters

We were very pleased to receive the letters from Mr. Worley, of Ohio, U.S.A., and Mrs. Marion Smith, of Scotland, for all such encouragement as this gives us at the School an even greater determination than ever to give unto the world the mighty wisdom that Merope is bringing forth. There is no doubt that Merope was a mighty Goddess in the beginning, when she taught the unfolding Race of the wisdom concerning the Holy Fire, but she is a far greater Goddess now, through her willingness to carry the Cross of man, in order that her Divinity could be raised up out of the pit of human desires. As you say, Marion Smith, Merope will win through, but I wonder if we will ever fully realise just how privileged we have been, that we have been given the chance to help her manifest her dynamic Cosmic Works, for truly she is giving unto mankind the lost Keys to the Kingdom of God!

Profound and Illustrious Wisdom

W. Worley, Ohio, U.S.A.

A friend gave me a copy of your wonderful paper. Never before have I read such beautiful and profound essays or articles on the Occult. The Occult Gazette's pictorial illustrations are so rich and abundant with the higher wisdom and knowledge that you can gaze for hours studying their profound and illustrious wisdom.

The Rosicrucians taught me and made me aware of how much I didn't know about the world of actuality. The studies of the celebrated Mayans also helped me in my quest for the higher wisdom, but when I read your essays in the Occult Gazette I realised that my previous studies were only an introduction into the higher teachings.

Truthfully and sincerely I hope that you will accept my application for membership and send me some brochures and other information regarding your inner teachings. I am absolutely and positively sure that at long last my quest for a suitable instrument of the higher wisdom has at last been found, and I hope you will find me worthy to receive your teachings, for there's something within that tells me your teachings are what I have been searching for during this incarnation. May the Love and Peace of the Cosmos be with you forever.

Mrs. Marion Smith,
Rothsay, Scotland.

On that night of the 12th there was nothing to report from either of us, but I am convinced we were there in Spirit that night, and were accepted by the Masters, for we earnestly read the O.G. and believe all that you write as our LEADER. Now, having just read my latest Gazette, I KNOW we were there... How beautiful the poetry of Dick Speller... Merope, your success is CERTAIN. You have proved your worth. I went back and back on the past O.G.'s, and your climb has been a steady upward trend.

How brave you are, how sure now that you know,—no one can pick this jewel out of your hand. Merope, I wish you could give Malcolm Muggeridge some of your wisdom, he is allowing the panels to win because he is throwing away Spiritual aces. What makes this silly world believe the young of this period are FREE. Can't he tell them they are chained to a MASTER called FLESH, and never were they such PRISONERS.

Merope, I have no doubt that you will win through, right to the end, but I do feel the world will not accept you until you stand four-square before them, and that will surely happen. I many times fight like a Tigress for my Spiritual opinion and beliefs, and then I think of you... Merope, your task is so great I shudder, but as I look back and remember 1960, even then you were telling the world that which it could not understand.

I was one of them, and if I can succeed to learn enough to fight on, then so can all men. There is no master like pain, and no fools like the doctors, priests, Ministers and teachers; in short the world must be completely remade, for it is certain, Merope, you HAVE changed the World.

I have sent dozens of O.G.'s to all the above, in the hope that it will help get your message across to the World. I am at present going through another initiation, but thanks to you I am coping, and I know that if I can learn from it, so shall all the world. I have taken a long time to get my letter off to you, but certainly feel better for it; I now await my next copy of the Gazette that I can learn more.

I am sure Harold Wilson will also make it. I pray for his endurance, and presume he

by C. P. Urbani

COME! Take a walk my friend
Along the road that we call Life;
And there, betwixt the Light and Shade,
Find Sanctuary midst seeming Strife.

FOR we are travellers you and I—
To a destination as yet unknown,
Undaunted, let us journey on
Borne on wisdom we are not alone.

BLIND intellect, pride and ignorance,
Shades of sorrows that bestrew life's path,
In your guise you are the winnowers,
Revealing the grain among the chaff.

SO come friend, let us on our way—
Betwixt Light and Shade find balance Sublime,
And in the journey that lies ahead
Find the Glory of a Love Divine!

knows he has a high place, above and below, (with S.U.P.H.) How I wish I knew who I once was, also who my husband was; I suppose it will be revealed to us one day. Now I must close and say sorry for the delay, but at present I am at sixes and sevens with myself. Thank goodness I have You; may your Days be long upon the land, for if I lose you there would be a gap I could not hope to fill.

Merope, your presence fills my whole house, my life, my all. No one can say more—you are ALL!

Mrs. Farquhar, Scotland.

On reading "The Initiate," in the July Occult Gazette, I am just staggered to think that I was even allowed to go one plane up. How utterly wonderful for those advanced souls to remember the Journey to Vega. The very thought of having been on that journey makes a great joy singing round the heart—a Happiness that all the torture of life makes it worthwhile, (By torture of life I mean my own stupidities).

The thought of mingling with others on the same journey, and above all, that you Merope were there along with the Divine Masters is overwhelming. I wonder if the different hues of our Initiation Robes were different stages of evolution, and we were all young and merry, and laughing.

As you see this letter is beyond me to describe what I really feel, and most humbly I say Thank you, Thank you, Thank you.

Just a word about the anti-obesity pills you sent my friend. These pills are wonderful to take. They seem to cleanse the system, and my friend's doctor was amazed at the wonderful results! He did not know that she was taking the anti-obesity pills, but was really astounded how she had improved so suddenly. I cautioned my friend not to tell him anything for the time being, about what was causing it. I shall certainly order some more.

THE DIVINE VISION

Q... Master, it means now that Humanity is going to spin up into new realms of Existence, and the old things that seemed to him to be of importance are not going to be of any more value.

A... Yes, if he responds to it, but man has got the wrong idea of what is important and what is not important. He is going to really now see that the importance is in renouncing the 'beast' and embracing the glories of Divinity that is his heritage. He came from the Divine Realms to try to bring into birth the Mind Plane, because only the 'puppets' can do this; and that is all you are, puppets. You are puppets bringing into birth the Mind Plane, but if you can win through, then you will go into the Sea of Divine Consciousness, your Heritage of the Fatherhood.

But if not, then what you have built up will go into the Waters, into the Stream, and will eventually, on the new Plane of Unfoldment, crawl out onto the sands. In the same way as the Cancer Crab crawled out on the human status, will soul crawl out once again as a creature in its lowest degree, to go through the whole rebirth of the Mind Plane in the hardest way possible. So it is worth fighting for, is it not? All of you souls, who have come up from the depths, were those who came down from the Heights and fell into the waters, and were thrown into the Stream and crawled forth as the crab, with all his wealth on his back.

Q... We once before faced the same kind of problems that mankind are facing now?

A... That is quite true. But when Merope took over once again, and drew down the Holy Fire, it was to drive you into existence, to drive you into action; and that is what she has been trying to do here, to get many of you to come and see the real depth of the Word. Because as she drove you through the Word, so you would become spun-up in the Atomic Fire, and the Atomic Fire open up your mind to the Plane of Divinity. Do you follow that?

Q... Yes, that would be the Theocratic Consciousness, would it not?

A... Yes, that is quite true. The building up of the Atomic Power in here was a labour of service, and in giving in this service undeniably you were making half-way towards your own spontaneous rebirth. Every man has got to give in service, and if he fails to do so, then these Atomic Fires can calcify. You are either going to wrestle with them and try to master them by creating out of their driving force, or take the consequences. You have got to fight, and Merope knows this, and she does fight, and she struggles hard against the Mighty Force that is now being forged through her being.

Merope is a transformer; she is the one who is going to transform it and give it a new Law status, and she does; and these are the Teachings. By you struggling to do the same thing, but without the responsibility that she has, you are going to rise up in abundance and stride up high. But there are many who are going to meet utter failure and disaster, because you come to the earth not to live in idle glory, but to honour a covenant. No man comes without he enters through his password, of what he is entering onto the earth to do.

THE WORD HELPS TO UNFOLD TO YOU WHAT IS EXPECTED OF YOU, AND IF THE SOUL IS WISE AND BRAVE, HE ACCEPTS IT.

For Ages no one has had the courage to accept Uranus and Neptune. It was only Merope who braved them by going right up to the Heights, right up to the Central Sun, and from then onwards has had to brave the slow infiltration of the Atomic Fires. Now the whole of the Atomic Fire is descending, and causing untold pain to her at times, at most times, but then she knows the answer to this. It will take her right the way back Home, for the full service she has given. There is no half service now; it is whole service, for the world is in a diabolical state.

But it is all a status of change-over, because the world has been Solar Born. It is only man who won't change; he is fighting against the Solar change. If you adopt the Solar change, the Atomicisation, then you will find that you will walk in harmony with the Heavens, and that is far more important than walking in harmony with mankind. Man does not realise that he has got to make dire sacrifices now, to find his way upwards in every step that he can take.

IT IS IN EMBRACING DIVINITY, AND BELIEVING IN THE TRUE UNDERSTANDING OF THESE TEACHINGS, THAT THE GODS CAN MANIFEST IN THE MIND.

The soul is building and stepping his way towards those higher Planes unbeknown to himself. As you absorb of the Word, as you make it manifest, as you realise its Truth, and hold to it by belief and manifestation, you are really living on Planes far beyond the Plane that you now stand upon. You only unfold out of self; there is no unfoldment any other way than out of self. Everything is Here and Now, in the soul itself, because you are an ever-revolving infinity of circling sensitivity, bringing all that you are into rebirth as Light. Everything you read, then try to perceive it in Light and not in words. In reading a paragraph here, just be able to see the Light of it. You do not want to hold it as words to tell every one else about it; they will never understand it.

Find the Light so that the Light becomes the Glory of your subconscious mind, and the inner depths of your Soma Psyche Pneuma, the ever internal bodies. It is the only way that you are going to build up those inner bodies, and of course the Light that will carry you up onto the higher Planes. In passing-over you are going into Planes of Spirit; you are not solid beings, you must be able to move up onto Planes of Unfoldment, Planes of Expression.

It is ever circles of Unfoldment of that which has been brought to a complete Atomic Oneness; states where all has been gathered up and brought to a state of Oneness. Then it bursts out once again, and brings forth another status of Cosmic Creation.

Man should never have been in this atrophied form, he should have been in an etheral form, which Merope has partly got back into.

She is etherealised, but not to the degree that she could be when the world begins to change into a status of Light. But she is now the means of enforcing these changes.

She is the culprit of all the trouble! She is the cause of everything that is being changed.

AS I WARNED YOU. THERE WILL BE MANY THINGS HAPPENING THAT YOU MIGHT NOT LIKE AND MAY NOT APPROVE OF, BUT WE HAVE TO DO IT OUR WAY.

THE BLESSING

GREAT Divine Magnitude of Holy Light, we call upon Thee at this most unified hour, that Thy Great Powers can pour down through our Channel to assist those trying to bring Light out of the darkness; and that those who are going their own way for destruction will meet the results of their actions. So Great One, we leave them in Thy care, and we call upon this Mighty Power that it can become woven into Light through the hands of Merope.

AMEN

EGYPT —

The Cradle of Civilisation

Part 6

by Gladys I. Spearman-Cook

HERMA was the first Egyptian Priest to lay down the law which the Neophyte could abide by, hence the Gods allotted unto him of the Law ; "And they honoured the Lion by ornamenting the doors of the temples with gaping lions' mouths, since Nilus overflows, for the Nile was the efflux of Osiris." They knew then, more than now, that the lion is the nature power of man, that becomes power within him through mind organization, and will control in whichever way it is desired or applied. To the Egyptians it was Serkh the Scorpion and becomes Rennut the Uraeus. To understand why they refer to a scorpion, we must indulge once again in astrological wisdom, for Egypt was highly versed in such knowledge owing to this science being handed down to her from the Atlanteans.

The Spirit Interblending

WHAT is now our July or mid-summer, was to the early Egyptians a symbol of their beginning of time, for on the 20th of the month, Leo the Sun as Ra entered and filled the Moon of Cancer with light. This to them brought into birth a crop of beetles, thus was the resemblance of fertility, for these insects played a part in the movement and aeration of the soil. It was also a prognosticator of the inundation about to start that would water the ground, for it must be remembered that this was their calendar, all being according to nature with them.

The waters came and the beetles hatched, and to them Ra had dropped his sperm; then in November the fertility began and the scorpions came and devoured the beetles. This again to them represented the Fire that activated life and made it sprout; but also, these children of new life had been trained in a religion of discipline where generation meant everything to them, it being their temple worship, as was explained in the last article on Bast.

We would now find it very difficult to realize that such ever took place, and how necessary it was for man in his newly born state to be led into action of just even existing. They were souls in their first state of mind consciousness being led by higher entities; so it was a time when Spirit and earth intermingled, and to man now, in his worldly state, this would sound like a fairy story. When they left behind such hieroglyphs as the above legend of the inundation, they had wisdom which man today has lost.

This was also shown as the hawk-headed wisdom of mind born on the back of spirit gained from the inundation of struggle and toiling. Thus Cancer, the month of July, was the harvest that dropped its seed which in November was devoured by the fire that set it into motivation, after the Sun, the Solar Force had germinated it in August. Although we may laugh at this and wonder how it applies, it still is in some curious way, the heritage of man, for it is the legend of generation which has become sadly bruised and diseased, man having allowed himself to become "stung."

Of this the Egyptian priest warned man, and furthermore, advised him he must avoid ever again swamping the Goddess Mary or Isis with his wild delights, which man today is doing. Thus was seen of what would take place in the Aquarian Age, when the Christ Child could wilt and die, with deluge fast approaching in its wake.

So it can be seen why they devised Serkh, the lunar Goddess who was the seer by night, for she slayed the serpent in that she bruised its head, and really allegorised the son or mind, in the disguise of a great cat, as a defender of his Father, "killing" the serpent and extracting its life. The serpent being the nature fire from the bowels of the earth and the heights of the heavens, as the unity of God. The cat represents the power in its magnetic form, as the Feminine Principle which becomes the mind of man; then he bruises the serpent, the solar fire, by mastering and interblending with it, making it the will of the soul.

This shows the depth of the fertilization in all its organic wisdom, for if we could but see how the organs of man have been prepared through the Ages of Creation, we would understand now why man has to follow up with that necessary to bring the completeness to the prototype, for all must continue as night follows day.

What man is passing through now in the form of growth, is that necessary to unfold the full blossom; it is Nuit, the starry one that is coming forth from this creation. Her hair is her strength, with height that knows no bound, and represents that of the mind coming forth under the hand of man's feminine principle, the personality.

In the plate, the solar orb covers the thymus gland and thoracic duct, for this gland controls and regulates not only puberty, but sanity and balance, something which man has to learn, for there lies the secret which again not only unites the lower lymphatics with the higher, but keeps man balanced when he walks, talks and creates. The fact that the medical world say it is defunct is sacrilege.

The only thing that withers up this gland is perversion which, when extreme, brings idiocy. When man is working to the full of his capacity and even greater, the vibration of this gland is enormous. Those who allow it to slow down through the want of action will find such sickness as bronchitis, asthma, and tuberculosis taking hold.

The whole of the Goddess is covered with stars, indicating that man is but the light of the planes of Breath. She represents the equilibrium of life, which has its balance in the resurrected thymus. The Serkh Goddess becomes the seer by night through this gland and does not kill the serpent, but as the cat, the power of movement, bruises its head.

IT CAN THEREFORE BE SEEN THAT ALL THESE CREATIONS REPRESENT THEMES OF THOUGHT WHICH BECAME ESTABLISHED IN MAN'S MIND FROM THE INFLOWING HIERARCHIAL POWER, WITH THE BRIDE OF RA BRINGING IT INTO BIRTH.

Spirit as the Life Force

THE next movement in the God creation was of the serpent of life and renewal, a type of transformation because it periodically sloughed

Rannut; Rannut the Uraeus its skin and renewed itself. The life force of birth and death that can sting unto death or ever-lasting life; that which eventually becomes wisdom, that which works through the heart and has its correlation in the spine as the rising Kundalini from scorpion to Serpent.

This was shown in their hieroglyph of the lion gods of yesterday and today, that which transforms in power. First as the egg in matter and now as the two forces back to back waiting to unite; daimon and Agathadaimon.

The Egyptians considered that the magical power of word was first female, negative, and Urt-Hekau was the symbol of the great magical power that precedes words and writings. Great magical words of power were ascribed to Isis, whose word of power in the Lunar Sphere was personified in her Son Horus. But it is this energy which energises the body and keeps all fit and balanced when forcing the extension or expansion, for it not only draws the Spirit unto its action, but involves the Spirit whereby the soul is comforted.

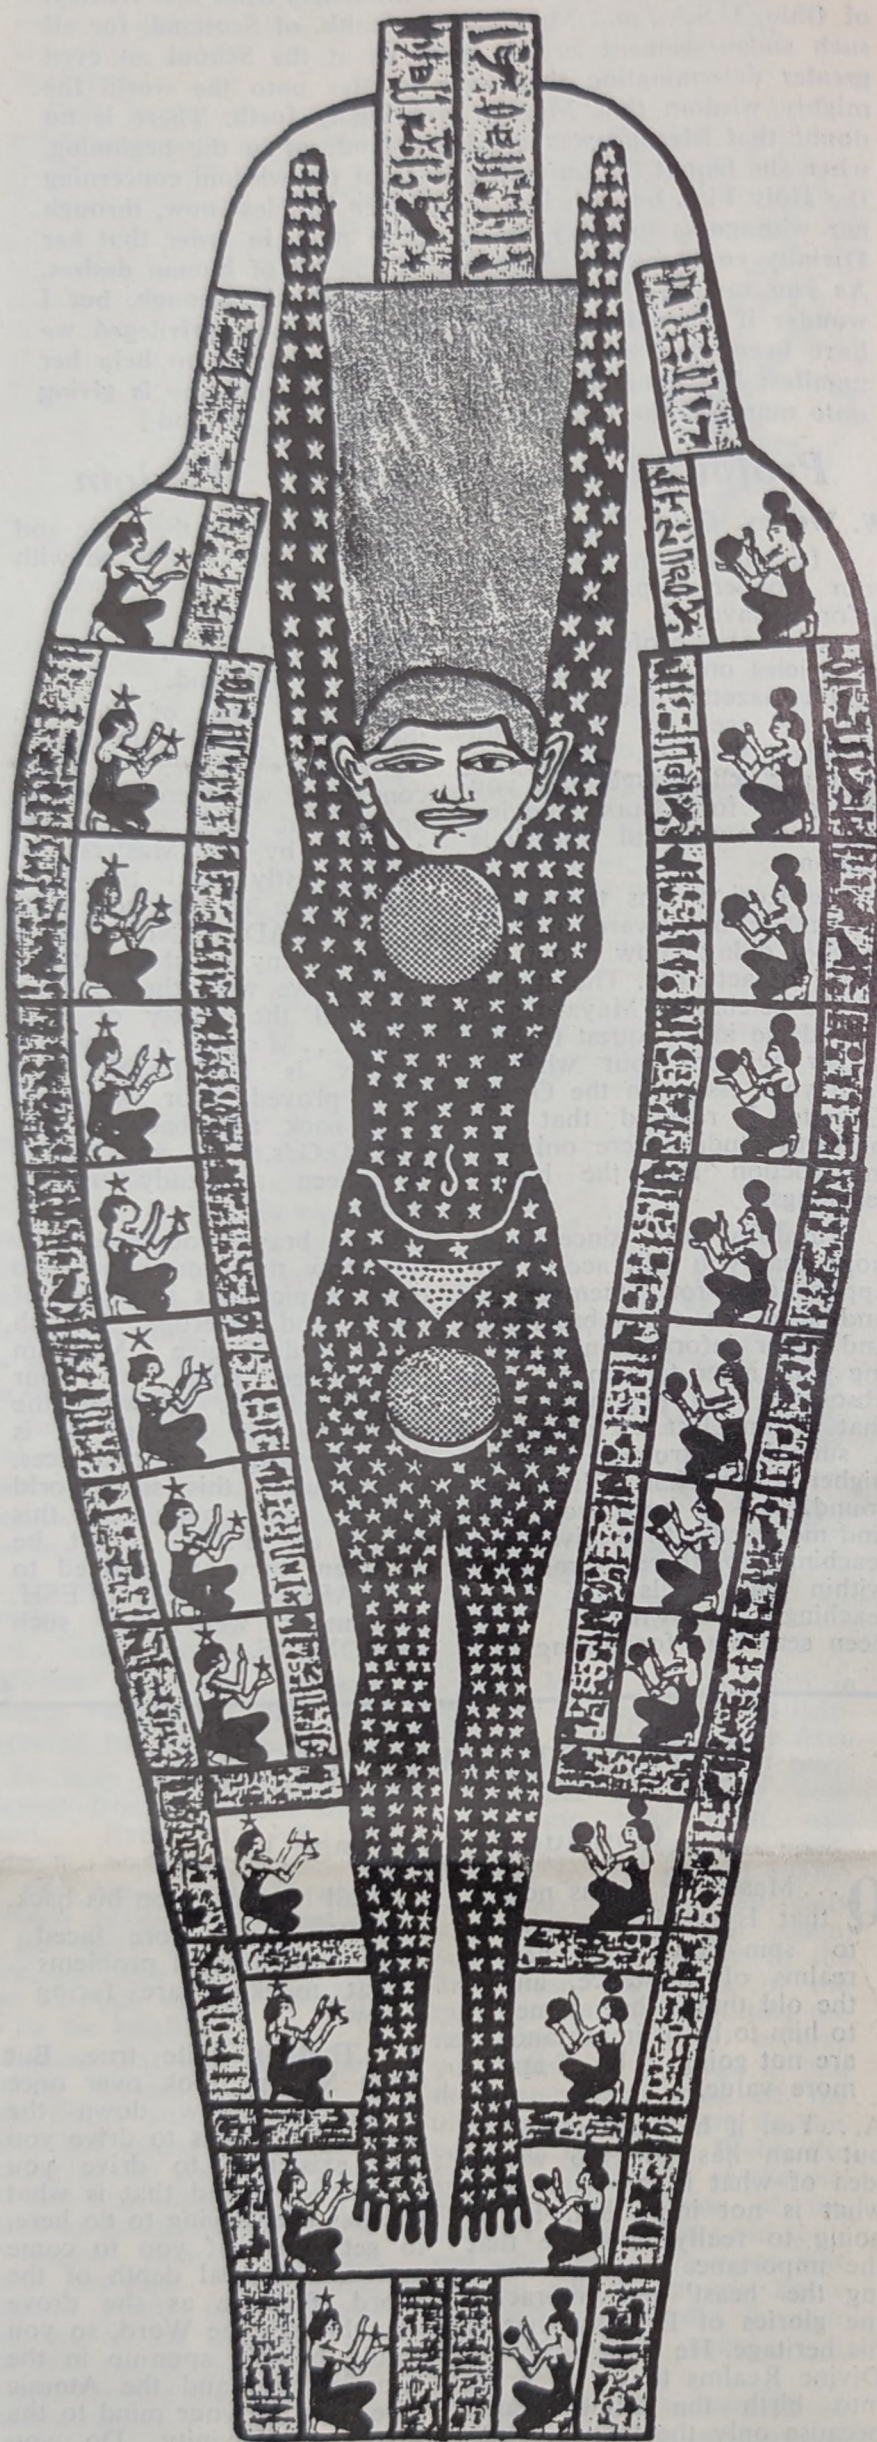

Therefore Urt-Hekau is the word that was made flesh in a mortal likeness. With the first, Horus was as the Word-of-Power, in the second it is Word-made-Truth in Horus, for magical words were orally communicated in the mysteries from mouth to ear, not to be written; they were to be gotten by heart. In the Book of the Dead, it is seen that memory is restored to the dead soul through words of power; that stored up in the life to be remembered in "death."

"O thou who restorest memory in the mouth of the dead through words of power which they possess, let my mouth be opened through words of power which I possess."

This is the Goddess who represents the power behind words which would restore dead souls to life. Upon her head you see symbols of judgment and inspiration in the form of throne seats, and in her hand the driving rod whereby she can seek for the waters of life. As the Goddess Sekhet, the power, of which these Gods and Goddesses represent, was that of a million eyes. As the Goddess Bast she was power awaiting direction, but as the Goddess Urt-Hekau she was as power throneed.

So it can be seen by all these symbols that it is a movement which brings new thought and belief into creation, and would bring all into the creation as the mother of Atum-Ra; the consort of Ptah who helped to shape the clay. The movement of life that acts as alchemicalisation in the soul but power in the universe.

The lioness of power which brings up her whelps to become young lions; the power mother as the great Harlot that nurses Jerusalem in the micro-

NUIT, THE STARRY ONE

NUIT and Sibū, in their embrace, brought forth all, that again brought forth the Cat Goddess, the mighty magnetic mystery of Creation. This then unfolded the great Cackler, the Goose God, whose companion was a mighty Cow—the large-eyed Hathor of beautiful countenance. The Egyptian theory of unfolding life, with the fiery Disk Atonu as the Sun, revealing himself to men as the living God Ra. (See text in col. 2).

cosm, the thymus gland and brings forth the lights of the mind.

"Thou huntest me as a lion" says the fearfully afflicted one (Job 10 v. 16); the power that hunts the fearful, drives to distraction and leaves the soul ever in a state of wanting, unless it is transformed into word and action. But eventually, in its movement, becomes the Lord manifested, therefore the Lord was known in Israel by his roaring like a lion; the power to manifest as word and action. In Egypt it was the Lion God Atum-Ra; the double force which united and brought forth the God, and represented by twin lions.

The Solar Dionysius was known by the name of "the roarer" and also portrayed as the lion-headed Goddess; she who gave birth to God and
