REPORT ON THE NEW ZEALAND TOUR.

This remarkable event in the life and work of the Editor is so filled with many outstanding incidents that he at loss to know where to begin, what to report and further cautious that he should not leave out anything that went to make this tour such a remarkable one.

However so that no one shall feel slighted he shall avoid all names for he feel that each one played their part in the way that it all went into making the event one of great blessing to all concerned.

Firstly Praise must go to God for the wonderful way in which this means of blessing others was made possible. for as late as July the Editor had no idea he was about to make this trip. although he was conscious that such was a possibility for eighteen months before in Western Australia. he recieved a telepathic communication from the Brothers that they would send him to this country.

At the time such a thing seemed very remotely possible , and as time went by financial conditions seemed to make this more than ever out of the question but God moves in a mysterious way. His wonders to perform , and this was truly such a fulfillment of this saying .

Space does not permit him to relate how all this came about except through the death of a relative , he was asked to accompany his sister on a holiday trip as she, being elderly could not attempt such without careful watch over her.

From this moment the whole matter moved swiftly forward. The contact with the various groups in New Zealand when told of his homing made a very quick response to his offer to make it a lecture tour and a means of fellowship with them.

From all parts of the two islands very open welcome arms were outstretched to receive him. many groups then unknown to the Editor asking that they not be left out. in fact it is to his regret that there were still others later. he found that time made it impossible for him to visit.

The opening meetings at Auckland with the Borderland Science Group, followed by a crowded meeting at the Herolds of the New Ageso cheered the Editor that he knew that despite some who felt he may find interest lagging, that it was to the contrary. for all through the both islands the enthusiasm was very evident. some of course more so than others. and he was amazed to find that in the North Island alone there were many more groups and keener interest , than in the whole of Australia. this did not take into account the likewise interest in the South Island.

The thing which stood out above all was the deep spiritual tone which was so evident among 98 per cent of the groups. and even the few who were more material in their approach, among these were those who too perceived the greater purpose behind the coming of the space brothers at this time.

However all seemed agree that we were now approaching a great crisis which had some connection with the visits from outer space.

The country to the Editor was something which words cannot describe. its scenery its floral display in every place and in natural conditions, was most pleasing to the eye. for it was very evident that Civic pride left no stone unturned to beautify their cities . even in the smaller ones. The lushness of the pastures all was very pleasing to the eye of one used to the drier Australian conditions.

The People.. well of course they were so much like Australians that we felt so much at home. their tastes and habits. the mode of life. their different types of personality all were exactly as we ourselves are. but as stated above. one could feel generally a deep throbbing spiritual reaching out. for here were a people who were given to thinking. and pondering not on the shallow things of life. but the greater meaning of what we are here for.

The public meetings and slide lectures showed an interest, even from the general public which evidenced this also. the questions being on a very high level and one cannot forget the group meetings. some which power could be really felt two or three being outstanding in this case.

The hosts. who gave so lavishly of their time to show us around. their lavish and bounteous supply of nourishment made it impossible for the Editor to make any attempt at reducing his portly figure. The various guest homes in which we found accommodation from time to time. spoke high of the countrys service for with the exception of one all were so well conducted and reasonable in cost that this too made the way so easy to enjoy.

The T.V. and PRESS and the Radio. interviews. we must not leave out. for never has the Editor received such gentlemanly and courteous assistance. and not once was he ridiculed or any attempt made to belittle him or the message he came to deliver we want to here thank those responsible for this great service and very helpful assistance.

It was evident from the beginning that we were being guided by unseen hands, this occurred in so many ways that nothing seemed to surprise us. the change of residence, or the timing of a sight seeing tour. all showed we were being moved along not only to bless others . but often some event would occur which made a visit more enjoyable. the timing was uncanny at times.

Two events stood out which despite any desire not to remain impartial. must be mentioned. i.e. from a flying saucer angle. these were The interview with Mrs. Moreland who had had a saucer land on her farm property. this profoundly impressed the Editor. for there was no doubt that this lady had witnessed a very remarkable sighting. and one would brought her a great deal of inconvenience and unkind handling by official people. but we give her credit that after three days grilling she came forth still affirming her original statements. No wonder she said as like so many others have done. " I'll never report anything more , to officials, if it ever happened again ". Is it any wonder that people are apprehensive of telling all they know , when they get such a treatment .

The second incident. was the meeting and personal chats with Mr X. who claimed to have been visited ~~from~~ by space people. as reported in the magazine of Fred and Phyllis Dickeson of 33 Dee St. Timaru. ( suggest you write for these accounts. if you have not got them.

The Editor had read much of the events and the writing left from time to time by the brothers, some folk scorned the idea. others looked on and withheld their opinion. and in this case the Editor himself felt that he too would like to know more before forming his conclusions.

Prior to his visit he had been in communication with Mr.X. by tape. and had formed the conclusion that at least the man was honest and sincere. and really had had some experience . but wondered if Mr.X. had not been deceived by his visitors. i.e. ?r .X. was quite honest . but were his visitors. ?.

In this attitude therefor the Editor met Mr.X. but it was very evident that such latent misgivings the Editor may have had were unfounded. for he found that Mr. X had received almost word for word the same information that the Editor had in another means ( telepathic) and so to answer the question that so many put to him as he progressed along the tour." What do you think of the Mr.X. case?" even this from the press. or " Do you think he is genuine? .

My reply to t is is YES. and further to deny he is genuine and the messages received were also genuine. would be denying my own case of communication received from the space brothers. for they were unknown to each other and impossible for either party to know until this personal contact, identical. in detail especially in regard to coming events. and those already given and passed.

The more we met together the greater the affinity we found with each other. and it seemed that this was to be blessed by an unction. before we parted. for on the night before we parted. we met together with others at his home. Mr X. is a great musician and a composer. and half way during the evening. he said he felt moved to improvise a piece of music, a simple new composition which had just come floating through his mind. He went to the piano. and began playing. and suddenly the Editor felt himself being also moved. for as each note was played he knew what was coming and began to hum the tune as though he had known it all the while. at the end he said to Mr X. " Do you know the name of that tune?" who replied " No, what is it"? . " Dedication" quickly replied and there are verses to it. Play it again ". he returned to the piano. and then as he replayed the theme the verses came into the mind telepathically from the space brothers. who were unseen yet present. they were taken down of tape as was the whole incident by Fred Dickeson. and witnessed by others present. Surely this was an evidence that we two men were being moved together in unison to be instruments of service. Here are the words.

Maybe you may not be impressed by this account or feel it was a proof of the genuineness of either party. but one had to be present to know what was felt and had transpired in that room to know that, we were not being moved by our own powers but from those of a much higher source.

We left New Zealand with a deep longing to stay further . for there seemed so much to do . so many left untouched. but it was unanimous by all and everywhere that the Editor went. " You will come again. " They seemed so certain of this and somehow a prayer went up. to the Father. Lord grant that this may beso. Gpong over on the " Arcadia" t e Editor felt humbly moved to pray that he may prove a blessing to those whom he was to contact. A commission was laid on him, it was that he should declare it in every meeting. it was this.

 " I AM? the VOICE, of one crying in the wilderness, PREPARE YE THE WAY OF THE LORD. "He knew he was the Voice, the wilderness the world, and the Message to New Zealand was. "PREPARE YE THE WAY OF THE LORD". and in this humble frame of mind on board this ship moving to his destination he prayed this prayer .

"Dear God, Make me courageous to speak the Truth, fearlessly, yet give me wisdom , and above all love like Thine, to never wound a struggling fellow soul who seeks for Truth .

In declaring Truth, help me to remember my own faults, and struggles for Light and Truth.

Yea send out Thy Light and Truth, and lead us all to Thy Holy Hill of Calvary were Love and Truth were crucified that TRUTH might prevail.

Is it any wonder that a final unction was placed on this visit. and I can only hope and pray that those who came under the message felt that this prayer was indeed fulfilled among them .

Here is the little inspired prayer of DEDICATION recived as Mr X. played the music.

DEDICATION

Oh take my hands, and move them Lord today,
 To help some soul, upon Life's weary Way,
 Oh take my hands, and with gentleness Divine,
 To make them heal. some wounded child of Thine.

Oh take my heart, and move it with Thy power,
 That in this way, I'll live for Thee each hour,
 Oh take my heart, and filled with love Divine,
 Thus I would be as Thour art. Lord: Divine.

Oh tale my Love, and fill me with Thyself.
 That I may be. inflamed with all Thy wealth.
 That I shall be immersed into thy Love,
 Till Thou dost call me to Thy realms above.

Later the following words came and seems to be a challenge. to service.

THIS DAY IS MINE.

This day is mine , to do as Thou would'st will,
 That in each hour Thyservant shall fulfill,
 Each humble task, Each kindly word and deed,
 To hungry souls, Thy heavenly manna feed.
 This day is mine, O let it then be blest,
 With Radiant sunshine, that I may do my best,
 Tp help the lowly ones Thy face to see,
 That Thou doest Love them , as Thou lovest me.

This day is mine, and if it clouded be,
 Give me the Faith, that never doubteth Thee,
 Knowing full well, Thy Hand can never err,
 That all be well, nor harm befall.

This day is mine, to lift Thy banner high,
 Ce'r evil powers, in Hell or Earth or sky
 Undaunted thus, then let me conqueror be,
 As Thou my Lord, shall thus my Leader be.

This day is mine, O glorious gift from Thee,
 To seize and use each opportunity,
 To serve and aid. Thy children lost and lone,
 Each wandering soul for whom Thou didst atone.
 This day is mine, each moment and each hour,
 To walk with Thee and know Thy cleansing power,
 Till at its eve, with Thee I find my rest,
 And thank Thee Lord, that Thou this day hath blest .

THE ALBUQUERQUE NEW MEXICO SIGHTING.

During the New Zealand Tour. much interest was shown on the public Lecture of slides. and especially in those of the above sighting. These slides very fortu- nately just came into the Editors hands a few weeks before sailing, through the great courtesy and co-operation of our associate Herb. Clark of Vancouver. who especially mailed them to assist in this venture.

Because of this interest we here tell the story as given in Flying Saucer News of Jan 1965.

There were seven photographs in all of which we showed four of the main ones. They were taken by Mr A.A. Villa Jr. on a Kodacolor 120 film with a Japanese make "Rokuoh-Sha" camera having a 4.6 . 75mm. focal lens. The shot was made about 15 miles south of Albuquerque between 2.00 and 4.00p.m.

Mr. Villa states. that his contacts requested him telepathically to drive to the rendezvous area alone. There he met the nine members of the crew, consisting of five women and four men , as they disembarked from their landed spacecraft through a hermetically sealed door. They were all beautiful beings ranging from 7 to 9 feet in height, with hair of blonde ( fiery golden) red, (like polished copper) and black. They said they were from the galaxy of Coma Berenices.

The truck appearing in some of the photographs is Mr. Villa's. who states that he had made contact with these same people on several occasions prior to and after these photographs were taken and that he has taken other saucer photographs which he hopes the space people will give him permission to release for publication soon , along with a full account of his experiences.

These photographs now make it obvious to any rational person that spacecraft of the type in these pictures are not figments of the imagination , hallucinations , wild geese, spots before the eyes, weather balloons, light reflections, mirages, or natural phenomena, etc, but instead are tangible hardware demonstrating a technology far superior to any yet developed on Earth .

Full color sets of 7 photos are available from AFSCA 3 dol per set of 7 x 3 1/2" x 5" color prints Address AFSCA 2004 N. Hoover St. Los Angeles. Calif 90027 USA.

WHAT WAS IT?

NEW ZEALAND. Nov. 1st 1964.

The Place, a Government establishment in Auckland, Time about 11-30 a.m.

An employee whilst passing a new building noticed a strange substance drifting down from the sky, he described it as like a huge mass of soap suds at an altitude of approximately 80ft. Despite strong southerly winds it descended in a perpendicular course as though it had substantial weight and mass.

About forty feet from the ground it split into two sections which landed about fourteen feet apart on opposite sides of the road.

The employee put through an urgent phone call to me asking if I would come at once to see it and evaluate the phenomena.

On arrival I studied a section of the mass which gave off a luminescence or halo of pale shimmering light.

The substance itself was gossamer light and looked like a bundle of very fine threads, which vibrated continuously.

The color was a shade of pale violet, tinged with purple.

Securing a piece of wood, I broke off a section and it immediately "jumped" off the wood and bounced about six feet along the road, upon landing it vibrated violently and suddenly vanished leaving a deposit of fine grey powder where it had been, much to the startled amazement of the onlookers.

Returning to the main mass I ventured to insert my hand in it and found that it felt warm and sticky, when I withdrew my hand it vibrated violently then vanished leaving the grey powder. as the previous portion had done.

Retrieving the powder and placing it in a piece of cloth, I took it to a nearby laboratory for testing, where it was subjected to a Geiger counter test, but results were negative, it was quite apparently non radio active.

The second mass when probed by onlookers also vibrated and vanished, again leaving the powder deposit.

What was this strange substance,?. Where did it come from?.

Was it "Angels Hair"?. or living organism? or something science cannot explain? Who knows?.

I have given you the actual details and you may form your own conclusions or form whatever ideas may occur to you. One thing certain it was alien to our present knowledge.

D.S.

Editorial Comment. The writer of the above is a well known Saucerer. and the whole incident was related to the Editor the next day, when he had returned to Auckland after his tour of New Zealand. and prior to his departure.

The people involved due to security reasons are not allowed to use their names but the Editor can vouch for their integrity and of the actual incident.

The Editor feels that this was not the usual form of "angels hair" as generally known and accepted by Ufologists, having seen and observed and tested many samples of this strange substance at various times. he has never known it to have color or to react as this mass did. particular vibrating as though breathing at times

What was it....?

Also a feature which was not normal to angels hair. was the fact that it left a powdery substance. all known cases before have " melted" and left a stain but not a powder.

It will be interesting to hear from our readers is any previous case has had any similar behaviour and reactions. for it may be possible that such has been the case are we here in the southern hemisphere are not aware of such. In our experience of many years we cannot recall any similar behaviour of colour and vibration. or jumping and therfor feel it certainly was not the usual form of angels hair known to most of us. we therefor fall back on the writers query WHAT WAS IT ?. and ask our readers to send in their theories for our readers comparison and evaluation .

NEWS FROM AUSTRIA.

Re our sighting of Aug. 24th at the Arzmauer Caves , this was really very intriguing for us, and our investigations found no traces or signs in the caves bar a slight radioactivity which may be natural. We have in the Alps caves many as large as a cathedral, full of salt, with lakes inside or streams.

In the case of 24th August, four objects stood high up in the sky and the disks darted in and out of the cave until the signal came from the lowest object and then up they went in a line, as described before.

An eerie sight. An inner earth origin is out of the question in this case, as this cave is well known and has been repeatedly investigated by the Cave Searcher Organisation.

UFOs circle Satellites.

Dipl. Ing. Elias. had a very interesting experience on May 27th 1964 while he stayed at St. Andreae- Worden. When he , laying in a deck-chair, looked at about 20. 45 hrs at the stars, he noticed a light looking like a star, but was moving towards the east.

That is nothing remarkable since "Echo I" circles the earth . but then he noticed that two illuminated objects, not quite a big as the satellite. were circling around it, like moths around a light .

This was peculiar and he called his wife to ask her if she saw the same phenomenon. She did see the " wandering Star" and now he asked her, " Do you see something else around thsi moving star?" " Yes" said his wife, " there are some lighted balls circling around it."

Thereby the engineers observation was confirmed. As we know that the "Echo I+ has a diameter of 30 meters. those objects should have one about 15 fo 20 meters Such a diamenter is observed with UFOs.

DID FLYING SAUCERS BUILD THE PYRAMIDS ?.

BY

MAURICE. K. JESSUP.

It is my contention that a long time ago there existed on this earth a very advanced culture, which could and almost did invent a means of levitation and space mobility.

I further believe that this wide-world culture was cataclysmically and instantly wiped out all over the world.

Remnants of humanity escaped and my suggestion is that at least one space ship was afloat at the time and escaped disaster. It sired a race of space dwellers.

This ancient or first civilization covered this planet some ten of thousands years ago- perhaps hundreds of thousands.

Despite the objections of conventional modern science, archeology and anthropology, I think perhaps we can see traces of its culture in India, Tibet, Egypt, and Central America. These traces are mostly in the form of stone works and some glyphs (carved characters of symbolic nature in figures) with a very few written records existing mostly in the Orient and southern Asia.

Certain characteristics of the gigantic stone masonry which remains in almost all parts of the world bespeak origin in a single widespread civilization. That civilization was highly developed in some ways, but not mechanical in the same sense as ours today.

But despite this, it can be confidently said, that the First Civilization had simple and effective methods of working and moving stone which were more effective than anything we of the Second Civilization have developed. What was it ?/ .

We find evidence of stone blocks of unbelievable weight being quarried, moved considerable distances, and then lifted into place. This common factor connects pre-Inca Peru with Easter Island and seems to tie in the Middle east, the Orient Africa, and maybe Polynesia.

Many investigators have proposed theories about how these blocks were quarried, dressed and moved, but their proposals are based on application of such simple present day engineering equipment as block-and-tackle or sand ramps.

The great pyramids, consisting of hundreds of thousands of huge stone blocks, are thought by some to have been erected by thousands of slaves toiling up long ramps of sand to bring these gigantic masses from the Nile, but no suggestions have been made which fit all cases.

Examination of the Sacsahuaman Fortress, in the Andes of Peru above the ancient Inca and pre-Inca city of Cusco, shows that to put the largest corner stones in place so that others could be worked to fit them must have required tremendous force. It is unimaginable that sufficient hand labour and crude tackle could have been massed around them so that they could be moved and handled.

These stones-- some of them weighing 10, 20 and 40 tons or more- had to be picked up, put approximately into place and pushed back and forth until they ground themselves into their individually fitting contours.

Did Flying Saucers Build the Pyramids ? Cont (12)

Such power would tax any modern machine or power plant and require installation of generating equipment sufficient to run a city. It seems plainly obvious that some other source of power existed.

On Easter Island there exists a great and ancient stone stature which still lies in the quarry where it was being sculptured . It is in a depression from which great power and manipulation would be required to move it. Work on it stopped suddenly , and apparently the force lift for the 1,200-ton stones was lost somehow. So we must conclude that while massive stonework was in progress all over the world - including India, Tobet and Polynesia- sources of power were limited in number, and available only to a few important projects. It seems that such levitators disappeared suddenly and unexpectedly. Where to ?.

It is further possible that there was only one machine available which could lift the greatest of weights , and that it was mobile and used first in one part of the world and then another .

What kind of power was this levitating agency?. How did it work?. If through our crude mechanical principles of ropes, cables, blocks and tackles, how did the ancients get enough ropes on a 1,200 ton block to take the strain of lifting it, and how shift the position of the prime mover ?.

I believe that flying saucers used some means of reacting with the gravitational field . In this way they could apply lifting forces to all particles of a body, inside and outside, simultaneously , and not through external force applied by pressure of harness to the surface only .

I believe the source of this lifting or levitating power was lost suddenly .

In short, I think that this lifting engine was a space -ship, probably of vast proportions : that it brought colonists to various parts of the earth, probably from other terrestrial areas; and that it supplied the heavy-lift power for erecting great stone works; and that it was suddenly destroyed or taken away .

Such a hypothesis would underwrite all of the movements of stone over which archeologists and engineers have puzzled.

" could not be either satellites or weather balloons ".

Just prior to this , two day light sightings were reported from the same area. The same UFOs, the viewers said were bright silvery objects with a " greenish-blue halo ", flying at jet height. Like the Coleville Object. they were noiseless during manoeuvres.

When the object passed in flight , 10-power binoculars revealed details of a " strange undercarriage" the witnesses said.

Another UFO sighting was reported by Mr and Mrs Fred. Steckling, of Washington. They had just left a department store, at 11th and F-sts nw. on March 28, at 3.20. p.m. when they saw a silvery object with a "three ball landing gear" plainly visible. The Stecklings estimated the UFO was at a height of about 12,000 feet. They said it was flying very rapidly, and darted out of sight in seconds.

The sightings , originally reported by " The Little Listening Post". a Washington UFO publication , were checked by The News .

QUESTIONS RAISED IN PARLIAMENT.

CANBERRA. A.C.T. aug. 11th 1964.

" Advertiser " 12/8/64

The Minister for Air admitted in Parliament today that Australia's northern radar warning system was not manned all the time.

He said that the RAAF could not state positively whether recent flying objects unidentified were "enemy" aircraft or not.

Referring to sightings of unidentified flying objects he said on y 3 p.c. were thought to be anything other than birds or meteors.

Investigation of the recent sighting of objects in the sky near Longreach in Western Queensland. , showed that a D.C. 8 jet had been flying over at the exact time. Showers of meteors had been reported at the same time in similar circumstances.

Editorial Note. The above sightings are not to be confused with those reported on previous page at Townsville in Queensland. Also the Minister does not say that the D.C. 8 was the objects seen which were more than one. and either they were the D.C. 8 or meteors or according to his confused answer . Which were the answer to the objects sighted MR Minister . ??

MYSTERIOUS OBJECT CAUSES SPECULATION TO LOCAL ASTRONOMERS.

Advertiser 9/10/64. A mysterious object in the sky overhead about 11.p.m. is causing some speculation among Adelaide's amateur astronomers.

Attempts are being made to photograph the object which is too faint to be seen by the naked eye. Most think the object must be a minor planet, or lump of rock which is flying past the earth near enough to be seen through telescopes.

Clearer weather should enable them to plot the orbit of the mysterious object.

EVIDENCE OF ANCIENT BLAST IN FREE STATE

SOUTH AFRICA

From South African Digest May 15th .64

The Little Orange Free State town of Vredefort appears to have been the central point of a terrific explosion 250 million years ago when a meteorite bombarded the earth at a speed of 10 miles a second—36,000 m.p.h.

The Johannesburg "Star" reports that Mr William I. Manton, a 27 year old research geologist at the University of the Witwatersrand, will deliver a paper on the Vredefort blast at a lunar conference in New York next month.

Space scientists believe that the Vredefort crater may hold a secret to the craters of the moon. It was recently suggested by Dr. Robert Dietz, the American scientist, that Vredefort's unique dome of ancient rock was not the result of volcanic disturbance but of violent impact.

Mr. Manton hopes to meet Dr. Dietz while in the U.S.A. As suggested by the American "shatter cones" were found in the area. They are the conically shaped rock fragments associated with meteor craters and even A-bomb blasts. Local geologists found plenty of them in the area.

METEORITE..

‡ It is almost certain that a meteorite, coming in from the north-west, struck the earth at Vredefort and completely changed the geological structure for 60 miles around the point of impact.

"The apex of each "shatter cone" provides the clue to the point of impact."

The crater left by the meteor explosion is 30 miles across and 10 miles deep. It was 1,000,000 times more violent than the biggest eruption known to man (The Krak. volcanic explosion) and was the equivalent of a 1,500,000 megaton bomb.

Scientists believe that Vredefort's dome is identical to some of the larger craters on the moon's surface.

Erosion and chemical changes have disguised the crater so that only the hard central core - the dome - is left.

On the moon there is no erosion, so craters are preserved. )

 Comment Ed. The same theories have been often discussed as to many of the very large monoliths and other huge stone relics in Australia especially this is so regarding the largest, and one of the largest in the world (The Ayers Rock of Central Australia) of which we have written various items from time to time. Some aboriginal legends seem to confirm this but of course cannot be used as scientific evidence.

Another thing of interest was the reference above to the similarity of an A-bomb blast and the explosion being the equivalent to a megaton bomb. All these facts are of interest to our readers some of whom find the comparative study of them as valuable. Recently the announcement of the Russian scientist concerning the large crater etc in Siberia. seems to indicate that there may also be other answers associated with these huge eruptions of ~~the~~ nature whether of this earth or from elsewhere...

 AN ASTOUNDING DREAM .

Some time ago we gave an account in a very condensed form of a strange and yet prophetically true in details up to the present time, which was experienced by a young married man living near Adelaide.

This dream was related to the Editor and also the account of the "sauder" sighting, long before the actual thing became to be fulfilled in a series of events that are almost incredible to believe, and yet, they Editor is a witness, as are many others of this society to the facts and the fulfillment of them as time progressed. and it is without question that every detail of the dream except that of the final acts have now to date come exactly true as seen by the young man .

Recently the Editor visited him again and saw for himself that everything in detail was now in place as told him years ago. for instance, when the young man had the dream . he saw in it a number a houses which surrounded the place from which he was viewing the dramatic events, these houses were not all there when first the dream sequence began to unfold. this the Editor, and others witnessed but the young man detailed out the places where they were to be and what type of house and even described the roofs in their various types. Now at the recent visit those houses and roofs are there in exactly the places described to us some 8 years back . The people are there. the voices he heard are those of people whom he heard in his dream . in tone and type. The vocations of the people are those he saw. living in the exact places as he saw them. in truth then all is set so it appears for the finality of the dream to be fulfilled. This is the first occasion this dream has been published in full, and to put it into the words of the visionary. he feels compelled now to give it in detail for publication. he knows not why. except that it seems that the rest of the dream could well be soon taking place.
 Here is his letter sent to the Editor. for your own evaluation .

Dear Fred ,

Several times in the past you have asked me to give you a fairly detailed report of the astounding "dream" I had back in 1953 for publication. and I had always refused, Because firstly. I had no wish to be classed by some as a sensationalist, nor did I want to be looked upon as some sort of fanatic or screwball, as the saying goes. Secondly, although many parts of it have come true, I had no desire to panic the timorous regarding the rest of the dream, which is awesome to say in the least. Thirdly, as I've often pointed out, it is so very difficult to put into words for others to appreciate, any experience which one has had. . Lastly, I'm aware that there are some who would have a "rational" explanation to account for the whole thing, which would mean that any attempt to put anything down of paper would be wasted effort on my part, thereby I'd become the central figure for much speculation, rejection, or ridicule. This would infuriate me to some extent, as being a person with both feet implanted firmly on the ground, I consider myself rational as the next fellow, even more so. As a matter of fact in these days of crisis' all over the world it strikes me the other fellow is not so rational as he would have us believe.

It is because of recent happenings throughout the world which are affecting people now, and I feel will affect us more strongly in the days ahead, that I am compelled to sit down and set myself the task which by no means is a pleasant one. For after such sober and intensive thought that with all that had happened of late, it appears more feasible that the rest of the dream could come to pass. However here is the dream for anyone to speculate over, to deride, or ridicule if they desire, for I no longer care what others think.

As before mentioned, this dream occurred sometime in 1953, and had such clarity, such vividness as to be not much different from an actual occurrence, for during the whole episode my thinking, reactions and conjectures were similar to those when witnessing anything when fully awake. I know full well I shall not be able to describe adequately these feelings and thoughts etc; but will do my best in this account of the dream, as here described.

I was standing at the bottom of a garden which is on the side of a hill overlooking a paddock which slopes down away from us where an adjoining paddock rises up to form another hill which slopes down away from us where an adjoining paddock rises up to form another hill which also slopes down to a sort of valley on the left where a road winds its way past another hill on the other side. Between these hills we can see in the distance a larger range of hills forming the horizon. Here and there houses are dotted along either side of the road. It is a pleasant view for miles to our eyes.

This was the scene as I saw it, and I was aware that something had brought us out to look at this panoramic view. Although today I cannot remember exactly what it was that caused us to take up this position.

We were standing there for a while when I noticed to our right, high in the sky a round reddish-cum-orange object which was moving slowly in towards us.

We watched fascinated as this thing came closer, ever so slowly, but most assuredly coming closer. At first it was the size of a two shilling piece, and I was wondering what it could possibly be. When it moved in forward a closer it became the size of the moon, and it was quite apparent that it was some sort of planet as geographical features were discernable through the reddish haze which seemingly emanated from it.

I was aware of a tingling type of warmth as it moved closer slowly. Not the kind of warmth one feels standing in front of a fire but yet somehow different. I remember thinking that the planet was not on fire in spite of this reddish haze, but that the red glow was brought about by the effect our atmosphere was having upon it, and the warmth, which can only be described as an infra-red heat, which I was feeling, was caused by some form of subtle energy coming from this planet. It was revolving erratically, that is, slowly then quickly but not jerkily.

Then along the horizon, fires were breaking out and soon there was a great mass of fire way out there in the distance. Then small fires began spurting up from the side of the hill facing us. I say spurting up, because that's just what was happening. Small fissures were opening up in the ground and the jets of fire were coming out from under the ground through the fissures and then began to burn the vegetation etc; above the ground.

" The Astonishing Dream " (3)

I was thinking , these rays or this form of energy somehow coming from this incoming planet which was the cause of this queer type of tingling warmth in my body. were due to a kind of interaction between our Earth and this planet and was igniting some mineral or substance under the ground, the existence of which I felt our sceinotists were ignorant .

By now of course all the folk from the houses below were aware of what was going on, and most were running around in a confused panic. Children were crying, women hysterical, Dogs barking, chickens werecrowing in a weird fashion, men were shouting advice to all and sundry, whether it was safer to remain in the valley or go up to the top of the hill nearest them.

I could see them running around quite clearly and hear what some were shouting quite distinctly. That is, I knew who was doing the shouting, what house he had come from , and to whom he was shouting, and the house they too had come from and so forth . Why I stress this to you we learn when I come to the finality of this report.

As we were watching all this I was conscious of feeling very apprehensive, but not strangely enough terrified, like those people running down below in their wild panic. Rather there was some overwhelming feeling of sadness tinged with anger, for I was thinking somehow, somewhere, someone or other was responsible for what was happening, that what was done had caused our Earth to veer off course to meet up with this planet, and I felt terribly helpless.

My wife was clutching my arm asked what should we do. I replied, " theres nothing we can do dear, this looks like the end of everything", and as soon as those words were uttered , thousands of round shaped objects began appearing in the sky. Hundreds of these things were coming down passing others returning, some were silver coloured , some gold , and they were swooping down to land on points near and far then rise ever so rapidly into the sky again. It was a fantastic sight to see them coming and going up to larger craft awaiting them .

Excitedly I said to my wife, " Do you know, I'm sure those things , whatever they are, are rescuing people from this inferno , and taking t em up to those much larger craft up there" pointing to those craft which just appeared on the scene. The small craft would be making contact with the large ones, then after a while the large ones would shoot off quickly away out of sight. My guess about picking up people proved correct , for some of the small craft began alighting onto the hill on our left whereupon small groups of people would leave a much larger group waiting near the top of the hill and come down a short way to where the craft awaited, they would climb aboard to be whisked off to the large craft waiting high in the sky. As the last of them were about to climb aboard I said to my wife " I do hope they come for us" With that remark on my lips I awoke.

But the word awoke seems out of place, for I WAS awake, as these scenes were fading out, and I was already sitting up in bed, as the vision faded , for now I knew it was no ordinary dream , for the familiar bedroom surroundings came into focus as it were, This part was and still is most difficult to describe. Only those who have had similar experiences will understand what I am trying to say. It was like being absorbed in a watching of T.V. and the set is switched off before the film has finished.

As the bedroom scene replaced the one I was watching and participating in, I found myself covered from head to toe in profuse perspiration, so much so that my pyjamas were absolutely ringing wet, so much so that I had to change them for a dry set. This puzzled me for in spite of several terrifying episodes during the war, in the R.A.F. they had never left me in such a state in which I now found myself, and as I said my feelings throughout the dream were of apprehension and sadness, not terror. I checked to see if the moon had been shining on my face, as I had been sleeping, and that it could have been that which had triggered of this kind of dream. But there was no moon at all only a bright starry sky. Furthermore, it was quite chilly, which again could not be responsible for this great profusion of perspiration.

For weeks this thing haunted me I could not make head nor tail of it. I would probe my mind in an effort to analyse it, and being familiar with the writings of Freud, Jung and others, I thought I would come up with a solution. But no, it was as though I'd been privileged to partake of some awesome secret, and I did not like it one bit. However I learned to live with and carried on as usual. However I heard of you Fred, and came down as you know and related it to you. for it was good to share it with someone who it least did not ridicule the whole thing as a hoax.

But let us return to a certain night in February of 1954. My wife and I were reading in bed. Time nearing 11.30 p.m. I had the urge to go outside. Then it seems as if I'm having a dizzy spell, for there are shadows thrown onto the ground and they are moving. As I'm puzzling this out I chance to look up and am amazed to see what appears to be a great bowl of very bright light moving silently overhead in the direction of the hills, for at this period we were living on the plains and had not yet come to the place of the vision. which was to be fulfilled at least in part so dramatically and unbelievably. My feelings were those of disbelief, amazement, and wonderment at this object, yet also I was aware of a feeling of peace. Something was radiating from this object, and I felt sort of holy, yet why should I a professed agnostic feel this way?. I couldn't account for it, but I was convinced that this object whatever it was, was the essence of goodness, purity and the like. After it disappeared I rushed in to tell my wife, but I could see she did not believe me. Gosh, it's infuriating, I thought, when your own wife thinks you've "gone round the bend", to use an old Air Force saying.

For days after I searched the newspapers for an account of this mysterious object. But not a word. This is fantastic I thought, surely others must have seen it. However just as I am beginning to think perhaps my wife was right after all, I met someone else who had seen the same thing at the same time as myself. I can assure you, I was most relieved. I would point out to you, that up to the time of this sighting, I'd always rejected all stories of "saucers" as they called them, and even accused the newspapers of concocting the whole thing to boost sales. How wrong can you be?.

It was not long after this that looking through the businesses for sale column in the paper I was drawn to an advertisement for a small country store offered for sale, situated at a place I had never heard of before, about 16 miles from Adelaide. Up to this time of the sighting, life had been going pretty well but afterwards everything seemed to go haywire. so much so that I was forced to throw in a very well paid job as a sales representative, and in fact bemoaned the fact that I had ever set eyes on the "saucer" as it seemed to be the turning point of my good fortune.

Hence this led me to look for a new way of life and thus the "add" attracted me so I contacted the agent who informed me that this store and dwelling with stock, is in the hills , and he drew me a map so that I could find the place. When I arrived there it is misty and drizzling with rain, certainly not a cheerful outlook when visiting a strange and new place. After going over the store and dwelling with the owner I was not the least impressed as far as the business is concerned , as it was obvious even to a child. that this was not a paying proposition. Yet I was strangely drawn to it. compelling so and felt I HAD to buy it. and all the way back to town this urge to buy the place become strong-erand this contrary to all my business knowledge and reasoning.

When I next saw the agent he of course continued painting a glowing picture of the place , and although I knew he was obviously lying good and hard, I went straight ahead with the purchase. I did not even bother about going back to the store to familiarise myself with the business as is usual prior to taking over in fact I did everything contrary to the book, but I could not help it. Nevertheless with evrything finalised we moved in on the first Saturday of December of 1954. Then the realisation dawned on me that I'd done something rather stupid in putting our savings into such a hopeless venture. Remember up till now I had no idea of any connection or inkling of idea that this place was connected with my dream .

My wife was terribly upset and was in tears as we began unpacking, and I felt exceedingly soory for her full well knowing I was to blame, so to cheer her up a little I called to her to come outside and that there at least was a fine view from the garden , such solace as that could be. and then walked down the garden path to appreciate more fully the view from that area.and it was quite delightful. And then it hit me as I stood there. This was the scene from my dream , there was not a shadow of doubt, this was how it looked as I stood at the bottom of the garden. It was incredible. yet here before me lay the whole panorama in exact detail. true there had been houses in the dream that were not there now as I stood and gazed for the first time on it in reality. but those that were there were exactly in position as I had seen them . I could even hear a voice calling to the cows from one of the places. and that voice was one that I had heard in my dream , the very intonation the very quality was all the same. I felt shaken. Later I was to meet people of the other houses who were the same as I had seen in the dream. their very voices too were the same. How could it be that I should know and recognise them whom I had never seen or known before.?. It was uncanny for I knew what type of voice they would have before they spoke to me. I anticipated their expressions. it was though I had known them for many years. I even know which houses they had come from I know because I had not and heard them in my dream .

We have now approached the year 1964 , a decade after the arrival at this place the business is no more. it could not be. but we live in the dwelling and wonder as we did over the years in between , as we saw the houses going up which were not there when we came to this place. houses which we knew would be there and in what site and what sort of house, its construction . its colour. its roof, everyone of them exactly as I had seen it. They are ALL there now not one missing. Will the rest of the dream find fulfillment. ?. All I know is I dreamed it, every part of it. So Help Me God.

HUGE SPACE STATION CIRCLING MARS.

From Journal Borderland Research . July- August 1964

By David Lever .

U.S. Government scientists are working on a fantastic round-the-clock investigation as you read this— trying to confirm that a huge space platform with living creatures aboard is orbiting the planet Mars.

Consensus of opinion among scientists is that Phobos , one of the moons of the mysterious Red Planet, Mars, probably is a huge space platform, approximately 5 miles in diameter. The confirmation of their theories would shake our world, because the space platform would not have been made by man— but by living creatures from Mars or some other planet .

A crazy theory?— No, say such world authorities as physicist Dr. Fred Hoyle, astronomer S. Fred Singer, and the Russian planetary physicist, I.S. Shklovsky. In the next 18 months the U.S. Govt. is going to spend over $55 million to find out if the satellite circling Mars is an artificially created space platform.

" Space probes are now being prepared to determine if Phobos is actually a huge orbiting space station or base," said Raymond E. Wilson, Chief of Applied Mathematics for the National Aeronautics and Space Administration . Last Jan 23, when Wilson first made this startling statement, The ENQUIRER began an investigation behind the doors of official secrecy to bring the facts about this space project to our readers. We discovered that the next Mariner space rocket, scheduled for launching late this fall or early next spring, will be aimed to pass close to Mars and will contain special equipment capable of analysing the light reflected from Phobos.

Scientists say that if the moon reflects light the way aluminum does, it will prove Phobos is a space station, not a natural moon. Even if this Mariner probe misses its target— and three in a row have missed it so far— following the rocket will try again. This time with additional instruments designed to detect the existence of life on the planet or its moons.

Why do scientists believe that Phobos might be an artificial space platform and not a natural moon?. The ENQUIRER interviewed astronomers and physicists. Here is what we found out.

Phobos and the other moon, Deimos, were discovered by a U.S. astronomer, Asaph Hall in 1877. For over 80 years, nobody paid too much attention to them, because they were so small— about 5 miles in dia. There haven't been any good photographs taken of Phobos or Deimos. The earth's atmosphere interferes with cameras and the reflected light of Mars blanks out Phobos . Then in 1959, Russia's leading planetary physicist , I.S. Shklovsky, published the results of observations he had made. He came to the conclusion that Phobos is an artificial satellite, probably made of aluminum.

" We have to assume that Phobos is hollow inside, something like a tin can from which the contents have been removed," he said. " It is an artificial satellite of Mars." Shklovsky based his statement on four peculiar properties of Phobos.

I. No other planet has moons that are as small as Phobos.

Space Platform on Mars (2)

2. Both Martian moons, Phobos and Deimos , are extremely close to the planet, Mars, Phobos is only 5,000 miles from the planets surface.

3. Unlike all natural moons, Phobos moves in its orbit over three times as fast as Mars. This is impossible for a natural moon, according to astronomical theories. No natural satellite can move faster than the planet it circles , because both planet and satellite were originally made from the same substance , travelling at the same speed.

4. Phobos is slowing down and falling toward Mars. This duplicates of all man-made satellites put into orbit by the U.S. and Russia. Scientists all over the world greeted Shklovsky's theory with mixed emotions. Dr. H.M. Sinton, an astronomer at Yerkes Observatory, Williams Bay, Wis. , agreed with Shklovsky in a statement before the National Academy of Science. U.S.

Phobos may be a huge orbiting city filled with men , women and children, " He said " The other moon, Deimos, might be one too." Agreement also came from one of the world's leading astronomical experts, Dr. Fred Hoyle, astrophysicist , a professor of astronomy at Cambridge University, Eng. and one-time staff member of both Mt. Wilson and the Palomar observatories in California.

" This is the only theory I have heard that covers the mystery of these two moons" he said. Dr. S. Fred Singer, professor of astronomy at the University of Maryland and a key figure in the NASA Mars Probe project, added his agreement .

" If Shklovsky's figures are accurate, then Phobos could be an artificial. hollow and therefore made by living creatures, He said. Other scientists disagreed with Shklovsky and his theory . Dr. E.C. Slipher, director emeritus of the Lowell Observatory, near Flagstaff. Ariz., thought it would be physically impossible to orbit such a satellite. Astronomer Clyde. W Tombaugh, associate Professor of earth sciences at the Research Center of New Mexico University in Las Cruces, said.

" Putting up such a satellite would severely strain the capabilities of even a world rich in resources. The extreme poverty of mineral resources on Mars would have deprived them of the necessary materials. "

" That's no argument, " retorted Dr. Singer. " That's like saying the Egyptians couldn't have built the pyramids." Then he added his own opinion as to why the satellite was placed in orbit--- as a vacuum cleaner for radiation. " Their purpose naturally would be to sweep up the radiation belts around Mars to enable Martians to operate without radiation hazards in the vicinity of their planet," he said.

Until the scheduled probe rockets are fired from Cape Kennedy and accomplish their missions of investigation of Phobos, nobody will know for sure whether the moon is Martian - made. It could be inhabited by intelligent creatures who have lived inside it for centuries.

SAUCER SEEN AFTER TREMOR. Adelaide Nov 4th 1964. ~~Advertiser~~ "NEWS"

Two Richmond Primary school teachers today reported seeing " A flying saucer object" over Henley Beach Road. Brooklyn Park , 20 minutes after the mysterious "earth tremor" on Oct 27th.

They are Mrs. M.P. Tavender, of Tennyson, and Mrs.K.M. Lewis of Largs Bay.

Mrs, Tavender said today " Wethought at the time what we saw was a flying saucer but my younger brother scoffed when I told him about it, he said " it must have been a weather balloon ."

She said after hearing of an official statement made by a Flying Saucer Society that similar earth disturbances were often accompanied by reports of flying objects , prompted her to report the sighting .

Mrs, Tavender said she and Mrs Lewis were driving along Henley Beach Road in separate cars when the object was first seen .

She said , " At first it looked loke a 1 ft. wide gleam of light from an air-craft. but it was not moving.

We stopped our cars and the n we both saw that the object had suddenly moved sideways - a long way from its original position and was again stationary ."

" It then started moving fast to the side again , and finally gaded from sight"

Mrs. Tavender siad her father was a Civilian Aviation Department officer . She had seen many aircraft in different parts of Australia, and was sure the sighting had nothing to do with an aeroplane.

She added " It could not have been a balloon because when it moved , it travelled far too fast "

The sighting was at 3.40. p.m. and the earthquake was felt along the sea coast , not far from Brooklyn Park at 3.15. p.m.
