VOL. I, NO. 13

MOSCOW, IDAHO, SATURDAY, MARCH 30, 1940.

10 CENTS A COPY.

THIS week I want to ask a pertinent question, and perhaps, find the answer. World conditions are steadily getting worse. Today the news dispatches stated that a "secret" agreement existed between England and Japan, which agreement, if it does exist, seriously threatens the peace of the United States. Russia has warned the Finns that, if Finland is not careful, she will "declare war" on her. What difference that could make in the light of the cowardly and brutally inhumane attack on Finland by Russia, I do not know. But that's what Russia says she will do. And she warns "all other nations" that if they interfere, they will do so at their own peril.

Britain is ruthlessly searching and opening U. S. Mail carried on U. S. steamers, and the prospect for peace at any price seems remotely dim. Those of us who are able to think, right here at home in the grandest land God ever made, cannot view with serenity such a condition as exists in the world today. We don't know at what moment we may be drawn into the struggle, or forced into it.

Here at home, Communism is on the increase. Strikes are on the increase. Disregard for law and order, among some classes is on the increase. And in spite of every honest effort made by those who have made such efforts to eliminate "unemployment," there are more people unemployed today than there were when the New Deal was born. And this in spite of every effort to get at the root of the trouble. And I am convinced that President Roosevelt and his cabinet are really and truly in earnest. I am convinced that strides have been made. But the fact remains that the world at large is an unsafe place in which to live. If there exists an answer and a remedy for these ungodly conditions which exist in Europe and Asia, then for

What Is The Answer?

God's sake and the sake of suffering humanity let's see if we cannot find that answer.

For there is an answer. There must be an answer. And the honest man and the thinking man will never deny anyone the right to try to find the heart of the trouble and to suggest the answer. That is what I am trying as honestly as I know how to try, to do. Of course, what I write makes religious organizations literally "see red." But I am quite sure that I am correct in my theories. I am sure that proven facts bear me out. So then, what sort of a coward would I be if, because certain religious organizations "see red" when I write—I were to stop writing? That would not be American, would it? Surely that would not be honorable, would it?

If I know what the answer to world conditions is, and if I know what has brought those world conditions about, and if I know what will remedy these ungodly conditions, should I not, with all my might and main, strive to bring these facts to the attention of all? Of course I should. Of course I will. The fact that certain religious "faiths" do "see red" when I write, will, to the initiate in world affairs, tend to prove that I might know what I am talking about. At any rate, none can charge me with being dishonest in my writings. None can charge me with not knowing what I am talking about. None can deny that more people are finding God as a result of what I teach, than are finding God through all the other religious organizations combined. Therefore, in asking the questions I shall ask in this article, those who read aright may see the answer to the staggeringly appalling conditions under which this old world of ours labors tonight.

If I am governed by honest motives, and I am, then the world should assist me in whatever intelligent efforts I make to get at the root of the trouble, and it should do this in spite of what any religious organization thinks, acts, or feels towards me. If they were in earnest themselves, they would investigate what I say, and, if it is true, they would guide themselves accordingly. For what I write as the weeks and months go by, is not going to soften any. I shall never retract one step I have taken. I think too long before taking these steps. And you may depend upon it, if I were not absolutely sure of my ground, I should not be heading this Movement and carrying around on one pair of shoulders all the responsibility this job entails. No—I don't believe any who read what I write will accuse me of dishonesty, nor will they accuse me of "trying to destroy religion."

I will grant you that if what masquerades as "true religion" is nothing of the sort, and if I can prove it is nothing of the sort, I certainly shall bring to this world as rapidly and as conscientiously as I possibly can, what has been revealed to me by the Spirit of God, as true religion. Nothing can stop me there. And you would do likewise if you are a true man or woman. If you had the vision of God and from God which I have, you would do exactly as I am doing. And unless you had the intestinal fortitude to do it, you would not have been given that vision. For when God calls a man or woman to bring to the earth some new truth, God invariably equips that man or that woman for the task.

And while we are on the subject, let none envy the man or woman to

Life In Death

WE are living in an age which will tell on all future ages. Never in known history were the stupendous events soon to happen ever recorded. For the exchange of a false God for a True God is of such staggering import that history is being made under our very eyes. Not all see it yet. But all will see it soon. For the rapid pace which is attending this Movement is such that it must, ere long, focus the attention of the whole world on this little city of Moscow, Idaho. Not, of course, on account of anyone unusual who lives here. But on account of the immensity of the Movement which is bringing to men and women, for the first time in history, the True God which, of course, will replace the false just as soon as it can.

As the world exists today, it is a world of death. It is a world of illness. It is a hopeless world, and the only solace anyone can find in it lies in the fact that sometime, somewhere, in some other land and beyond the tomb, the human race, or that part of it which believed certain religious teachings, shall find God. It is a world of death, both physical death and spiritual death. And if there is not enough natural death in the world, wars are started and additional death is manufactured. All the sciences are aimed at the gruesome task of finding out new ways to destroy human life. Death reigns supreme, and the sad part of it all is that there is no organization on the face of the earth that can do anything about it. None can offer the possibility of a solution. None can suggest the way in which this frightful carnage of human bodies and souls can be stemmed.

It is a mad world, too, and getting madder and madder with every passing hour. Yet, in this world of death, there exists Life. Life in death. Abundant life, right here in the middle of death, and the forces of death do not recognize it. Each warring nation says "God Almighty is with us." Every one of them claims that. All of which proves that they cannot know anything about God Almighty.

Which, in turn, proves that what they think to be God must be nothing of the kind. For the Creator—that Spirit of Infinite Life, never is on the side of death, and never is to be found assisting those who, for whatever cause, bring death to others. For war, unless it be defensive war, is never justified. They show their utter ignorance who link the name of God with any war, anywhere, in any shape or form. Yet, they all do this, not knowing that Life, Eternal Life, exists here and now in the midst of an era of death.

Those of us who, happily, have received the true conception of God and are beginning to recognize the Power which lies in the Realm of the Spirit of God, are fortunate indeed. For we are the ones through whom the first faint gleams of the Realm of God are shining over this dark horizon. It is happy indeed that we have been so blessed as to be able to be the forerunners of the New Day which "Psychiana" is bringing in, through the truths of God it is teaching. There is joy through the gloom in me tonight. It is Thanksgiving night. I should say it is one week ahead of the Thanksgiving night this country has celebrated for decades. It seems a pity to mar the beauty of such a day by "proclaiming" some other day. Our American traditions are priceless. We should keep them.

So it is the new Thanksgiving night. And sad though I usually feel, I feel strangely happy tonight. For if ever the consciousness of the dawning of the New Day was in me, it is there now. I see sad things abroad. I listen to horrible stories of ruthless murder over the radio. I hear charges and counter-charges hurled by the one against the other. And the gruesome wholesale murderings continue. But these happenings are but the forerunner of the Great Day of God, which Day will come in just as soon as the True Spirit of God is known to the people. The old religious traditions, the old pagan superstitions which have masqueraded as representing God, are on their way out. Life is beginning to shine in a world of Death. And I am an indescribably happy man this evening in spite of the burden of human souls which is always upon me. I am happy that I have been chosen to bring to this world, the Power of the Spirit of God, which Power can liberate man from the passions and hates which today seem to rule the whole world, with the exception of our beloved United States. It is the only sane nation of any size left. And it is quite fitting that the greatest Spiritual Awakening this world has ever known should originate here in this land of the freeborn.

It is passing strange how, in the infinitude of a great God, man is being drawn to God. The means have had to be devious and many. For man has made unto himself many graven images, and these images must needs disappear before the true day of man's redemption can come. And that day is here. This nation and this religion has its god. Another nation has its god. And still another nation has another and different god. All of them taking the form of god in a man, crucified on a cross, to save a dying world. And all the while, in spite of a score of these "gods" the world has gone closer to perdition than it ever was before. But the dawn is at hand, and it is this fact which makes me so very happy this evening. For Life is being manifested in an age of Death. And we, here in Moscow, Idaho, are the instrument in the hands of a good God through which this Life is being brought to men.

What a pity these "idol gods" ever had to be. But when man attempts to speak for God, and when any organization sets itself up as the sole representative of God, such days as these must naturally follow. However, in the evolution of man, it was a foregone conclusion that these "crucified gods" must pass away. It was a foregone conclusion that when they had brought humanity to the brink of ruin, which they could not help but do, the True Spirit of God should be made known to all mankind. So it is

Questions and Answers

Ques: Why do you hate the Catholics so bitterly?

Ans: Who told you I hated the Catholics? I think this question has come up in this dept. before. I do NOT hate any human being alive. I love them all. I HATE any system of theology which attempts to take over what God alone should be doing, and I will fight such a system to a fare-thee-well. Just this afternoon, the two Catholic sisters from the local Academy spent almost one hour in my down-town study. We had a good time. Not too long ago I was sitting on the porch of the Catholic rectory or whatever you call it, eating watermelon with three Catholic priests. I carry on a correspondence with a prominent Catholic priest in the San Francisco University. If I ever hate anyone, which I don't, I won't be eating watermelon with them. A few months ago in Boise, Idaho, a Catholic priest and I sat in a restaurant eating together. It was Friday and we ate fish. Had it been Tuesday we would have eaten ham and eggs. No—I shall fight for the truths of God as I see them. I believe the Roman Catholic church to be a relic of pagan barbarism. And that church knows just exactly what I feel about it. But I don't hate a Catholic, never did, never shall.

Ques: Why did sin enter the world?

Ans: I wish I knew. But I don't.

Ques: Where did the idea of Satan originate?

Ans: The first record of that is about 7000 years ago. The farther back you get into the dark night of religious superstition, the more ridiculous were the stories told. When man has progressed to normalcy, he will recognize the presence of God in his everyday life and affairs, then eternal peace, joy, happiness will exist and that will really be normal life. God and man, man and God, which actually means man, living up to the highest possibilities of his Creator—God.

Ques: How do you account for the fact of the many cripples in the world if God is so good?

Ans: Anything connected with the physical body is purely physical. These diseases and "cripplings" whether born with them or developed later, have their origin in the physical bodily structure of man. Heredity speaks loud here. The Spirit of God, which is the important part of a man, can be used by all these cripples if they believe God exists in structure, as it exists through the ages, is purely material. Therefore, not perfect.

When you allow religion to be so real to you that you eat it, drink it, live it, and bathe your soul in it, you will be a very religious man. A normal man in other words.

Thousands of Students see the name Hazel Erickson at the bottom of their business letters. This is Hazel. She has the official position here of "trouble-shooter" and believe me, she's a good shot, too. With us many years, she is a very valuable assistant and fits into any place we put her. From time to time we shall print the pictures of our complete staff, as we believe it will be interesting to know and see those with whom you correspond.

Life In Death

natural that this Day of God come. For 'twill be a glorious day. Life instead of death. Love instead of hate. Peace instead of war. Health instead of illness. An abundance instead of poverty. Justice instead of injustice. Cooperation instead of strikes. The True God living amongst men where He belongs, instead of a false "god" sitting in "heaven" at the right hand of the True God, making intercession for the human race with groanings which cannot be uttered.

Let those of us in whom the Spirit of God is beginning to manifest Its Power, be true to our trust. Let us be found honest in our desires. Let us be found willing to step out in and through the Power of God, to the very limit. For great will be the effects of this revelation when the world begins to grasp the full significance of what is happening here in this little city of Moscow, Idaho. No show whatsoever. No blare of trumpets, the Day of Life, the Day of God is coming "as a thief in the night."

Slowly, noiselessly, unexpectedly to many, and especially to those who are looking for the "heavens" to open and the "crucified god" Jesus to come to the earth to the sound of Gabriel's trumpet, borne to earth on a cloud. It will be quite a surprise and shock to those "believers." But to the great multitudes who long to know the Power of the True God, it will be no surprise at all. They suspect that this day of justice is nearly here. They have done their part towards bringing it into existence. So they will not be surprised.

Life in Death. What a thought. And to think that you, here and now, may know the fullness of the Spirit of God in your everyday life and affairs. And as the days go by, and as you learn to depend more and more upon the invisible Spirit of God in you, you will grow in that grace and knowledge and power. Then, when the time is fully ripe, this great Movement will sweep through this and other lands, and there will be demonstrated on this earth for the very first time—God and man dwelling together in complete accord and harmony. What a day. What a priceless privilege to have your part in such a Movement. What a God-given opportunity has come to you. So, until the time is ripe for the international manifestation of the Power of the Spirit of God—keep quiet. Keep fully charged with divine Power. Get better acquainted with God in you. Use the Power of the Spirit of God. Do good. Support me in this Movement to the very full. Let God know that He can depend on you. Talk to others about God. Send us their names and addresses. And above all, talk often with God. Make God the very closest thing in your life. Let no idol ever enter. If one sneaks around the corner, shoo it away. "Enter into your closet," and when you have shut the door, then talk literally with the Great Spirit of God. This is all I shall ask of every one of you for the time being. When the Great Day is at hand, you will know it as I shall.

Join with me in the happiness I now feel. For this happiness and complete assurance of complete victory, is meant for you too as well as me.

"Psychiana" is a Movement of the Spirit of God on the earth, and the aim of this Magazine is to assist "Psychiana" in making the Spirit of God a vital living Power in the lives of our fellow-men. The Movement is non-denominational. Its Members comprise adherents to every faith in the world. It wants to help them all. We have no "articles of faith" nor do we have creeds or rituals. We know man exists, and we know the Spirit of God exists. We know man can know the Power of the Spirit of God while on this earth, and through this Movement God is being made a Living Reality to men and women of every race and creed all over the world.

Whenever it is necessary, this Magazine speaks very plainly. Many traditions of "orthodoxy" are shown for what they really are. Whenever we find ancient myth and superstition masquerading as being of the Spirit of God, we bring the facts to the world, kindly but forcefully. We believe the Power of the Spirit of God is abundantly able to step into this desperate and discouraging world picture, and bring a permanent peace. To this end we are striving, and as the Spirit of God reveals Itself to us, we reveal It to others without fear.

Members of every church are cordially invited to come and find and use the Power of the Spirit of God with us. An infinite love for all is the motivating Power of this entire Movement. Through this Movement the Spirit of God is making Its presence known on earth.

The Editors.

What Is the Answer?

whom is given the responsibility of bringing to this earth the truths of God. Let none, unless spiritually strong, covet what someone else is doing in the realm religious. For you may depend upon it, no stone will be left unturned to upset such a one. Nothing will be deemed too bad to do against such a one. There are people on this earth today, and religious (?) people too, who would go to any lengths to stop this Movement, and the only reason they could give, is the false theory they hold that what they have been taught religiously is true, while what I teach is false. That is no reason at all, yet it is the only reason anyone can give for the persecutions which have been thrown my way. There does not exist, nor has there ever existed, one legitimate reason why either "Psychiana" or its Founder should be made to suffer as I was made to suffer. Not that the suffering worried me very much, for it did not. Indeed, I glория in those persecutions, and should glory in them again, for the sake of the Kingdom of God, if called upon to do so.

However, let us hope that those who disagree with me will see the Light as I see it, and as God has given that Light to me. For when that happens, this old world will change, and those who will be the happiest over the change will be the very ones who are now saying "can any good thing come out of Moscow, Idaho?" But to get back to the question I want to ask, and here it is: "Why is it, with so many millions in the world who claim their religion is the only true religion, why is it, I repeat, that, in spite of all these religions, the world is in the sad condition in which we find it today?"

That is the question I want answered. And if no religious organization can provide the answer, perhaps I can. The great Roman Catholic church tells us it has about 250 million followers. I don't know how many the Protestant church has, about the same number, I assume. Then, in India, we have 500 million people who believe in another sort of God. And if we go to Japan or China, we find there some more millions. No matter where on this earth we may roam, we find millions of people, all who tell us that their individual system of religion is true, and from God. Now they may all be. I don't know. But what I am wondering about is—why is it, with all these millions, and all these differing religious organizations, there is none of the Spirit of God on the earth today? Certainly there is none of that Spirit on the earth, for if there were, such men as Hitler, Stalin, and a few others could not do the dastardly things they are doing today, could they?

You know as well as I know that the Spirit of God is an absolutely unknown factor on the face of this man's earth, in spite of the claims of these differing religious organizations that they, and they alone, represent God on the earth. Think of it. Two hundred and fifty million Catholics on the earth. It is presumed, of course, that every one of these Catholics knows the fullness of the Power of the Spirit of God. For surely the Roman Catholic church, when it accepts them as members, discloses that Power to them, does it not? Or does it?

And the same thing applies to all the other religious organizations operating on the earth, too. They will tell you their sins are washed away by the "blood of the Lamb," and they will tell you that their names are written in the "Lamb's Book of Life." Therefore, they must all know God. They must be part and parcel of the Great Realm of the Spirit of God, must they not? Surely these great religious organizations would not exist if they knew not God, would they? Or would they?

The fact remains though, that in spite of them all, and in spite of their claims, this world is in the worst, the saddest, the most heart-rending condition it has ever been in, and it's going to get a great deal worse before it gets better. Now what I want to know, is—Why? And millions of my fellow-Americans want to know "why" too. Personally, I am convinced that if the Power of the Spirit of God was known, in any degree at all on this earth, it could not be in the condition in which it is to

The darker things grow on this earth, the brighter glows the Power of the Spirit of God. Soon—the dazzling brightness of the fullness of the knowledge of God in us, will dawn upon the world. Then, it will be safe to live in.

WHAT GOD REALLY IS

By Dr. Robinson

A condensed and very concise treatise which you will enjoy reading. It will clearly reveal to you something of the dynamic Power which is God. This book is one of our very best sellers. Send your order direct to us in Moscow, Idaho.

PRICE ONE DOLLAR

night. For the Power of God is great. It is mighty. It made this world and the men in it. Then why, this being the case, is there no one, in all these religious organizations, who knows enough of the Power of the Spirit of God to use that Power against these deplorable world-conditions?

If all of these teeming millions know the Power of God—if they are all "saved" by that Power, why is it that Bishop Magee of the Methodist Church has to state that in one year, his Methodist church lost three quarters of a million Sunday School students, and closed up 3000 Sunday Schools? Why is it that the Primate Tucker, of the Protestant Episcopal Church stated that "the Christian religion may very easily fail and pass away out of the picture"? Why is every religious organization in existence singing the same song, if they all know God? That is the question, and while many may know the answer, few will give it. Well, I will, and here it is.

I do not believe that any system of religion on the face of the earth today knows the slightest thing about God. I do not believe the stories they are founded on are of God. I believe the whole pack of these stories are nothing more nor less than man-made, church-made traditions which never had the slightest iota of truth in them. And I think I can prove that too. But whether I can or not, it makes one think. For two great facts stand out, and these two facts face each other. And in the facing of these two great facts, lies the answer to the problem of the peace and security of the world in which we live. And it's certainly a long way from peaceful now.

The first of these two facts is that God Lives. This universe, and man, did not "just grow." They had a Creator, and an intelligent Creator. Then, this being a fact, the Creator must be far bigger than the thing It created, must it not? All right. No one will be fool enough to say that after creating this amazing universe, the Great Intelligence which is God cast it aside, and left it to its own imaginations. If God did, he made a terrific mistake, for we see on the earth today the result of God's doing that. But God never did that. God lives in this creation today as God has ever lived in it—but—because religious organizations have never known God, and because they have offered men a man-made, church-made tradition—this world has never had the chance to find God because of the false picture of God these varying religious organizations have presented to the world.

Now the second fact, if you please. And that is this: If the Power of the Spirit which is God were known on this earth tonight, it would be great enough to stop these horrible murderring with their sufferings, etc., and it would be big enough and powerful enough to do that in rapid-fire order. That is common sense. The created thing never can be bigger than the creator. And so man, created by God, and regardless of how big a man he may be, can never be other than under the control of the Power of the Creator. For the Power that created can also destroy. It certainly can speak on the earth in some manner or other, to the end that all wars shall forever cease and peace, beautiful peace be restored to earth in a greater measure than ever before.

Now in spite of the fact of all these teeming millions, each having his own church affiliations, this world knows not God. And in spite of the rites, the rituals, the ordinances of all religious organizations, this world still knows not God. And there's something wrong somewhere certainly. And I'm going to tell you what it is. Then, think it over, and you will come to the same conclusion I have. You will be driven to it by the force of logic and reason. The sight of the ghastly world conditions tonight, if you have any faith in God at all, will drive you to this same conclusion. And the conclusion is very simple. Here it is: The Truths nor the Power of the Spirit of God have never been brought to this world by any religious organization on the face of the earth.

I do not care how many millions of followers the Catholic or the Protestant or the Buddhist church has—I repeat that challenge and that statement. What they have given to the world as "truths of God" must be nothing of the sort. For had they been Truths of a Living Power, do you think men would be brutally murdering each other tonight? Beloved, whether you realize it or not, this world is in a dangerous condition tonight, for us here in grand old America. In a war as big as this one is, no one knows who is going to win it. Every sane and right-thinking man wants the Allies to win. But no man alive can predict that they will win. And if they don't—then what? How would you like to see Red Russia destroying every religious institution in the United States and driving the very name of God from off the face of the earth? How would you like to see your home destroyed, and the sanctity of womanhood violated by a bunch of beasts, who, in their insane efforts to destroy God, have become mad. Well, I don't believe you will ever see it here, but, I repeat, no one knows who is going to win this war.

If the religious organizations of this country had any brains at all, they would see the handwriting on the wall, and would be quick to put their houses in order. For you mark my words, the day is coming when those who say they believe in God are going to be called upon to prove that belief. They may be butchered on account of it, but if they have any belief in God at all, and are not ashamed to say so, they are going to have to go on record. Just simply

"SHALL WE KNOW EACH OTHER BEYOND THE TOMB?"

By Dr. Robinson

Would you like to know the answer to this question? Dr. Robinson in this book gives you the answer as he sees it. It is a very beautiful piece of writing on this subject of our loved ones who have gone on before to a far better world than this one is. This book costs $1.00 and may be had from our International Headquarters in Moscow, Idaho.

Listening

A certain amount of "listening" for the voice of God may be done, and if you don't overdo it, it's all right. Of course, the best way to know the Power of the Spirit of God in you is to go to work, and let the Spirit of God work through you. You start something, and the whole forces of God in you are at once thrown into action to accomplish for you that which you need to have accomplished. For God manifests best in action. God loves to be active, and if you don't keep God active, pretty soon you will forget that you have such a great Power in you. So then, keep active. Make a dynamo out of yourselves. Let God show you what he can do if you will keep active enough to allow God to do it. I suggest a quiet, listening period several times daily. But, after the "quiet" period, get into action. For it is only action which counts. Passive religion is not worth powder enough to blow it to kingdom come, so don't you have any of that sort of religion. Make it active.

Florence - -

Many letters are coming in asking how little Florence is getting along. She is doing fine. The two operations on her knees were very successful and we do not look for any more trouble along that line. The two Drs. LeCocq in Seattle are probably the finest surgeons, with their assistants, the two Drs. Leavitt, in the northwest. These men are demonstrating the Power of the Spirit of God in their chosen profession—surgery. They are a credit to the city of Seattle and the entire country. They don't need additional business, for they have more than they can take care of now, but if any of our Students need surgical or bone work, go to the Seattle Orthopedic and Surgical Clinic in Seattle, Wash.

Faith is God in you. A blind faith is a God—no one knows where. The faith of "PSYCHIANA" knows where its God is and what its God can do. It is never a "blind" faith. If your faith is "blind," if you do not KNOW God, you do not know God.

With Our... Students

Now, we receive a letter from a preacher in Lakeland, Florida. Ever so often we find a letter like this in the mail, so let me reproduce it here:

"Gentlemen:

Some time ago I wrote you regarding your literature and you sent me some for which I thank you.

As a minister of the gospel, I am sorry for you dear people. You have rejected the right way of Truth and have gone about to establish another way. Just remember this—all this error you are teaching will have to be met in the Judgment. Remember, gentlemen, there is power in God.

Jesus said, 'Ye must be born again.' I fail to see that teaching in your literature. Of course, you will profit in the delusion of poor human beings, but remember you will meet it in the Judgment."

My reply to the Reverend Horton is that we of "Psychiana" were born again a long time ago when we first saw the actual Truths of God. We feel just as sorry for this good brother as he feels for us and trust that the day soon comes when he too is "born again" into the true Light of God, leaving behind once and for all the idolatry and superstitions of the theories he now unsuccessfully preaches.

From St. Mary's River in Nova Scotia from a Mr. Cole came this letter:

"A short time ago a friend gave me your Lessons in 'Psychiana' to read. Merely for pastime, I accepted them for just that purpose. But before I had the first Lesson finished I began to see the light. I discovered that what you were teaching in this Lesson was what I had tried to put together in my thought-realm many times, but just never seemed to be able to do it. Now you can imagine what a glorious discovery these Lessons were for me. Do I believe it? I'll tell the world I do and momentarily I am putting my life in tune with the God-Law, and believe me, it's working wonders."

Now this letter was from an outsider who is not a Student at all and who probably never will be because he received the Lessons from a friend. The objective however, was accomplished, and some day I hope to be able to give the Teaching away to every one who wants it.

Now we go to East 130th St., New York City, and we find there Mildred George, a Student. Shall we see what her experience with the Spirit of God was? Let her speak to us.

Mildred George, E. 130th St., New York, N. Y.

"Doctor, I wrote to you some time back, telling you of my sick daughter, Evelyn Anthony, suffering with diabetes, high blood pressure, and very weak heart. I was waiting for her to get the diagnosis from her chart before writing, as she has been taking treatments from the hospital for years with no results. Well, since writing to you a miracle has been performed. The doctor cannot find any trace of sugar. They are puzzled and want to take her in the hospital to try and find out what it is all about. My gratitude to you cannot be expressed. My studying and belief have not been in vain. My only regret is I did not know of 'PSYCHIANA' long ago. Your teachings are wonderful. I love them, for they are such a comfort. God grant that the good work shall continue to spread."

Thank you, Mrs. George—that was a "miracle" case if ever there was one. But we, here in this little city of Moscow, Idaho, see so many "miracle" cases they are the rule, and not the exception. But don't give us any credit, for of all men, Tenney and I are the most useless, I believe. However, if God works through any vessel, what does the vessel have to do with it? It's the Spirit of God which is responsible. Nevertheless, we appreciate your thanks, and we want you to keep in touch with us. Please do.

England and Japan

There is a rumor around today that England and Japan have made a secret treaty against the U. S. That is exactly the sort of a thing which might be expected of either side. Honor seems to mean nothing at all. And the political diplomacy of any of these nations is the thing to guard against. I wouldn't trust any of them. There is just one play for this country, and that's to get prepared, and then let them come—over here. Never over there, though. We did that once. Never should we do it again.

Nature is not corrupt. Man is not corrupt only as he has been made corrupt by false religions. Therefore man never needed a crucified "god" to redeem him from corruption. What he needs is to get rid of the false religions which have corrupted him—then he will find God.

A Fraudulent Effigy

Earl Browder, convicted of passport fraud, says he considers his sentence an honor, evidently hoping to appear in the role of a political martyr. But it is difficult to attain the status of martyrdom on the strength of fraud and mendacity.

His defense was not a denial of the crime with which he was charged and for which he was tried, but was an attempt to show that he was being prosecuted, not for perjury, but for the cause of "liberalism" of the Kremlin brand for which he stands.

The strangely twisted concept of liberalism which he and his followers hold was portrayed by banners in Madison Square Garden, where he addressed a mass meeting after the trial, which denounced the Finns and referred to "the butcher Mannerheim," who built the fortifications that have stopped the Russian attack on Finland.

Nothing could more clearly show the cynical insincerity of the Communism Browder and his fellows profess and the hollow mockery of their pretended devotion to democracy and humanitarian principles. It fairly shouts the betrayal of all liberal ideals which he, with bland effrontery, charged to others who, he claims, had sought and gladly used Communist support in the past.

His party may canonize him when he goes to prison, but the aura of a lie to which he swore will make of him a cheap and fraudulent effigy instead of a haloed saint in the eyes of the American public.—Spokesman Review.

What Is the Answer?

holding church membership is not going to be enough. For the forces which believe in, and know the Power of God, even if these forces consist of only one man, are going to have to stand face to face against those who deny God and are trying to drive the name of God off the face of the earth.

This war is not child's play. It's real. It's a fight, or it will be a fight against the forces which believe in God and the forces which do not believe in God. And if that fight were to come today, the forces which say they believe in God, if they depend upon what they have today, would be completely annihilated. For the "confession box" won't drive the forces of hell back. The "mass" won't avail one jot or one tittle when it comes to facing those hell-begotten hordes who are out to usurp the place of God. The "prayer-meeting," "the baptismal pool," "the Lord's supper," those things mean nothing at all when the force of arms is used. It's going to take more than that to stop these hell-born madmen.

There is but one thing which can stop them, and the church hasn't got that one thing. If it did have, these bishops and prelates would not be predicting the death of the structure. The one thing which can stop these madmen, and the one thing the churches should have—they haven't got. That one thing is the Power of the Spirit of God in them. They never had it. And the reason they do not have it is because they do not know the True Spirit of God. They can tell you all about Jesus Christ. They know all about the Virgin Mary. They can reel off sermons by the yard about the Apostle Paul. But they know nothing whatsoever about the Power of the Spirit of God. And it's going to take that Power, and that Power alone, to bring to this earth—Peace.

Religion, or what has palmed itself off as religion, is a man-made thing. It originated in the days of the Emperor Constantine. It is man-made in its entirety, and it is a complete copy of a religion which was in existence 1400 years before the Christian religion was ever heard of. And that is the reason for its failure. It is not of God. It is of man. Now these are the things which bring down so much trouble on my head for writing them. Yet they are true. What hope has this world, outside of a true and new revelation of God? Do you know of any religion on the face of the earth today which can step into this troubled world picture and, through the Spirit of God, bring peace to it? You know you don't. Neither does any one else. For that type of religion does not exist. The Truths of God as these Truths exist have been made of no effect by and through the traditions of these differing churches and religious organizations.

Now let me say here that I am either a complete fool, or I am bringing to this world, a conception of God which is so profound, that it is the greatest revelation of God the world has ever had brought to it. Either one. Now which is it? Listen—ten years ago, with a new conception of God, and with $42 in my pocket, I gave to this world what had been revealed to me as the true conception of God. Just about ten years ago. Now what has happened since that day? And the answer lies in what did happen.

Well, in a nutshell here's what happened. Men and women, right and left, began to find the Power of the Spirit of God. Their lives changed completely. They discarded the old pagan ideas of God taught them in their childhood, which ideas they are that are so completely incapable of doing anything to stop this war, and, in the place of those old ideas, which a score of religions called "pagan" and "heathen," they found the Power of the Spirit of God. And there can be no question about that. Authentic records in our offices prove

The War

Things in Europe will get worse and worse. The real war hasn't started yet. Soon, Hitler and Stalin will release the full fury of their insane desire to rule the world without God. England will suffer a-plenty. I should not be surprised to see the seat of government moved to Canada. Let me issue a word of warning to all my Students and others. We are approaching a period in Time which will be the focal point of a new civilization. This new civilization will be one in which God—the Great Spirit of God, will rule supreme on the earth. Peace will be here. True peace. And that peace will come because men and women will, for the first time in history, know not only Who God is, but Where God is. Instead of man being a "guilty, lost, hell-deserving sinner" as religious organizations have taught us, and instead of needing a "savior," which savior, of course, they supply, the human race will see that the Spirit of God, in them, is the answer to all of life's questions. This world has never yet known that. What has masqueraded as "true religion" will be shown to be as false as hell itself is false. This war is the natural result of a world without God. The existing religious organizations have not been able to reveal the Power of the Spirit of God to the world, because they knew not that Power. But as the "Psychiana" Movement grows and multiplies, the truths of the existing Spirit of God will be made known to all men. Then, when the Hitlers and other murderers are convinced they are on the wrong side of the road, will God speak through those of us who know the Power of the Spirit of God. May God hasten that day. I don't like to see so much blood spilled.

True religion always brings peace. It always prevents crime. False religions are responsible for conditions as they exist on this earth today. Religions have much to be sorry for—that is—false religions. And all man-made religions are false as hell itself is false.

What Is the Answer?

that statement. Now what does that all mean?

It means that we are bringing to men and women, through the grace and Power of the Spirit of God—the Truths of God which can save humanity from complete annihilation. I don't believe that is the work of a fool. If it is, then may God give us a lot more fools like I am. No church in existence can duplicate the works of "Psychiana" in the few years in which it has been in existence. They have not the vision, nor do they have the Power of the true God in them. This is a revolutionary statement to make. Yet it's a true statement. And no matter how cherished the story of Jesus Christ may be, if it is not sufficient to bring peace to this world and to save humanity complete annihilation, it had better be discarded and the truths of God found. For God is not going to leave this world completely alone. Somewhere, in some out-of-the-way place, God is going to raise up a man who will speak plainly, and who will bring those truths to the earth, if the organizations which profess to know God cannot do it.

That is exactly what is happening today. Under church theologies, the world is morally bankrupt. Forces are at the controls which, unless checked by the Spirit of God, will make a slaughterhouse of the whole world. And God, in infinite wisdom and strength, has given to one man, here in Moscow, Idaho, not only the true vision of God, but the power to bring that vision into a complete reality. For, greater is the Spirit of God in any man or in any organization, than all the powers of hell which can be thrown against it. The pity is that it is the church people themselves who are attempting to stop the only vision of God which comes from God, and which can save the church. That's the irony of the whole thing. Not that I care personally what they do. The truths I am coming to the world with, are the Truths of God. And posterity will prove them to be just that. I cannot help it if the church chooses to stick with the doctrines and formulas which have made it the colossal failure it is today—that's its business.

But if they saw a suffering, dying world as I see it, they would make speed to discard all things which can be proved to be man-made, and they would break their necks to find the Power of the Spirit of God—in them. But just as long as they choose to hang on to these old "crucified god" traditions which the Hindoo had 1400 years before Christ was ever heard of, then just so long will their complete organizations exist for their own gratification, and just so long will they be as helpless and as hopeless as they are today. And that is plenty, both helpless and hopeless. Wake up you churchmen. Wake up you priests and preachers. For the hour is at hand in which you will either stand to the death for God, or you will go out in outer darkness where, according to your own language, there will be weeping, and wailing, and gnashing of teeth. May the Spirit of the Infinite God bring you to see the truths of an Infinite God, and may you, once and forever, cast to one side the theology which has made of you the complete failure you are, insofar as being able to save this world goes.

Please let none misunderstand why I write so plainly. I do not care what you think of me nor do I care what you say about me. But please understand that I see the seriousness of the situation. You should be saving this world at this very moment, but you are not. You have a false conception of God, and you don't even know that. God has given to me the task of showing to the church, and the world, what the truths of God are. So then do not blame me for such plain speaking. I must be true to Him that sent me. I must do what is my duty, regardless of what you, Catholic or Protestant think about it. For I know in whom I am believing and I am persuaded that the Spirit of God is able to keep my whole life until such time as my work is done. If you are wise—you will listen to me. And, listening, you will find the True Spirit of the True God.

Frank Robinson
