SPIRIT TEACHINGS BY STANTON MOSES

WILLIAM STANTON MOSES

Through his mediumship, the books, "SPIRIT TEACHINGS" ($2.50) and "MORE SPIRIT TEACHINGS" ($1.00), were published.

TRUTH -- A Chapter Taken from "SPIRIT TEACHINGS"

(As a specimen of a message written at a later period, I append the following. It is a fair sample of some of the more elevated teaching. It is written with vast rapidity, and is printed precisely as written. There was no need to alter a word. As it was being given, I was conscious of a most powerful and elevating influence which permeated my whole being.)

By STANTON MOSES

The blessing of the Blessed One rest on you. We have opportunity now which may recur of answering some of your inquiries, and of conveying to you some necessary truth. From letters which you have received of late you will be led to see that the times of trouble and distress which we have warned you of are expected by others as well as by us. Be prepared for trouble; it will assuredly come. It is necessary for the training of the soul. It is as necessary as physical discipline for the body. No deep knowledge is to be had without it. None is permitted to scale the glorious heights but after discipline or sorrow. The key of knowledge is in spirit-hands, and none may rest it to himself but the earnest soul which is disciplined by trial. Bear that in mind.

Divine Truth

Ease and luxury are the pleasant paths in which the soul lingers and dreams away the summer day. Self-denial, self-sacrifice, self-discipline are the upward tracks, thorn-vest and rocky, which lead to the heights of knowledge and power. Study the life of Jesus and be wise.

Moreover, the present is a time of hard and bitter conflict between us and our foes. We have told you that you feel the reflex of that struggle. It accompanies every great development of Divine Truth. It is, as it were, the darkness that precedes the dawn; the gloom which is the pre-requisite for growth; the period of trial wherein the earnest soul is purified. "Your hour and power of the darkness," said Jesus as He agonised in Gethsemane. It is so now; and it will not pass lightly. The cup must be drained.

As each revelation of the Supreme grows old, it is overlaid by man's errors, and loaded with his inventions. It dies gradually, and loses its hold on men. Bit by bit human error is pared away, unable to stand the shock of criticism, and men's faith is shaken.

and they ask with old Pilate: "What is truth?" Then comes the answer in the new birth of a higher revelation. The throes of its birth shake the world, and around its cradle the powers of the Spiritual world contend. Great is the dust and din of the convention.

Equality — A Dream?

As the light dawns upon the world, and the clouds lift, the watchers, whose eyes are spiritually opened to discern the signs of the times, they who stand on the watch-towers to catch the first gleams, these are ready and welcome with joy the break of day. "Joy comes in the morning." "Sorrow and sighing flee away." The terrors of the night, "the powers of darkness," are past. But not for all. Full many there will always be for whom, no ray of light is visible till the sun has gained his meridian and splendor. They slumber on, heedless of the light that is breaking on the world.

Hence the days will never come to your world when all equally will know the truth. There will always be many for whom it has no charms, for whom it would be fraught with danger to tread the upward paths of progress, and who prefer the beaten track worn by the feet of those who have trod it through the ages past. There will be such always even as there will be souls who catch the foregleams that herald the dawn. So do not hope that the open vision will ever be the same to all. No such dream of equality is possible. Nor is it more desirable than possible. To some are given powers avoid. These must be the leaders and guides among men. And those who are so-called are they on whom lies the most solemn duty of personal preparation and earnest, life-long struggle with self, until it is dominated and subdued, and the free soul soars untrammelled. We have long since told you of this. See you heed it.

Do not be discouraged that so much of what most believe as truth seems to you hollow and uncertain. It is so. There are divers

"HOW IT FEELS TO BE A MEDIUM"

ARTHUR FORD'S GRAPHIC DESCRIPTION

"Are psychics born or made? Are they to be envied or despised? May one be psychic and not be a medium, and vice versa? How does a person become aware of the capacity? Is it safe and sane to practice such things? How does a psychic feel while he is working?"

By ARTHUR FORD

I have had all the questions above and many similar ones hurled at me by all sorts of people all over the world. Well . . . I AM A PSYCHIC AND A MEDIUM.

Thousands of people declare that through my psychic powers they have proved the survival of consciousness after so-called death. Many of these people are famous and outstanding in their respective fields of endeavor. Most of them are just average men and women such as make up the bulk of our civilization. People like myself and most of those who will read this article.

Every One Psychic?

I am convinced that every intelligent person is psychic. Intuition, and what we call "hunches" play a part in lives of the most ordinary people. What are known as psychic faculties are simply extensions of the usual five senses into a higher range of consciousness.

ONE MAY BE A VERY GOOD PSYCHIC AND NOT BE A MEDIUM AT ALL.

A medium is one whose psychic faculties are developed to the point that he becomes an instrument through which discarnate intelligences are able to produce what is known as psychic phenomena and thus convey messages from the next plane of consciousness.

I do not know how other mediums may feel while they are working. On this question I can speak for myself only. Clairaudience, which I employ in my platform demonstrations, is simply a matter of assuming a certain mental attitude and then listening for the sound of a subjective voice. I sometimes hear the voice audibly; often it is purely subjective; sometimes it is simply an inner awareness.

I Appear Normal

My job is to repeat exactly what I hear, or interpret, as accurately as I can, what I feel or seem to know. I must be constantly on guard not to embellish or read into the message anything that might spring from a desire to comfort or convince the person addressed. I am told that I appear perfectly normal, but the fact is that I am so intent upon what I am doing that the audience often seems not to exist at all. It is only by an effort of the will that I force myself to become conscious of the particular person in the audience to whom I am speaking.

Occasionally the person addressed may ask a question, or even attempt to engage in an argument with me. It is usually impossible for me to hear or understand him until I have, by a definite mental effort, focused my mind on him and away from the entity purporting to speak.

In trance work which I do privately and for small groups, I simply allow myself to go into what may be called a deep sleep, a sort of self-induced hypnosis, and then a "control" speaks through me. In my case this "control" is known as Fletcher and claims to be the spirit of a Canadian chap with whom I went to school and college many years ago. Whether Fletcher is the actual spirit of my old friend, or simply a creation of my sub-conscious mind, I cannot state positively. I believe him to be what he claims. It is the most simple and logical explanation. But whatever he is, there are thousands of people all over the world who claim to have received through him evidence which neither he nor I could have known by any normal means. Trance is, in my opinion, a pleasant sort of experience. I feel myself getting drowsy and fall into what appears to be a perfectly normal sleep. I am totally unconscious of all that takes place while in this state. I awake feeling refreshed, as though I have had a restful nap.

Mediumship Varies

Mediumship is varied in its manifestations. It is mental, or subjective, when purely mental vibrations are contacted. It is physical, or objective, when tangible phenomena occur. There is a mediumship of the spirit in which only things of a spiritual nature are received; and there is a transcendental mediumship in which both time and space are non-existent.

If we accept the modern view of the universe that it is a universe of law and order and therefore a universe in which "miracles" do not occur—then all the great religious geniuses of the race become mediums of an exalted order. They knew and demonstrated psychic laws which were not understood by their contemporaries. Krishna, Buddha, Moses, Jesus, Mahomet, John Fox, and Mary Baker Eddy were all founders of great religious systems. All of them were credited with "miracles" and all of them were certainly instruments for divine revelation. Jesus was the supreme example of mediumship. He gave all honor to God, Who inspires alike both mortals and immortals, the same "I AM" dwelling in all of us. He neither sought nor was deceived by the applause of the world. His whole passion was to serve . . . to make the earth a purer and fairer place for humanity to attain the spiritual state. The modern medium cannot follow a better example than Jesus set.

In this scientific age in which we live it was inevitable that sooner or later the most sacred things should be submitted to the laboratory method. The modern mind is not content to accept authorities, however hoary and sacrosanct. This great wave of

Internationally Known
Psychic and Medium

ARTHUR FORD, Hollywood, California, Lecturer, Trance and Mental Medium.

He will fulfill numerous engagements in the East during July and August, returning to the West coast in September.

Mr. Ford, Honorary President of The International General Assembly of Spiritualists, was the principal speaker at their recent Annual Spiritualist Convention held at The Mayflower Hotel, Akron, Ohio.

In Buffalo, last month, Mr. Ford gave a public demonstration of Clairvoyance at The General Assembly of Spiritualists Annual Convention held at The Statler Hotel.

During the first week of July, (4th, 5th, 6th and 7th), Mr. Ford was featured at The Homestead Spiritualist Camp, Mansfield, Pa.

VISITS LILY DALE

In the PSYCHIC OBSERVER SEANCE ROOM at Lily Dale, a special seance was held June 19th. Arthur Ford was the medium. He gave a demonstration of Trance Mediumship in response to a special request from the Editors of PSYCHIC OBSERVER.

In the seance, definite evidential messages, not only of a personal nature but of national importance, were recorded. FLETCHER, Ford's principal spirit collaborator, spoke the entire time through his entranced instrument.

Fletcher relayed a message which he said was given him by W. J. Colville, who evidently has been keeping in close contact with world affairs. Colville discussed the war situation at great length and then expressed his desire for the increased circulation of PSYCHIC OBSERVER, even to suggestions as to just how this should be done.

Mr. Ford's California address is 2232 North New Hampshire Ave., Hollywood.

degrees of truth. From the many-sided crystal gleams are shot off in many directions. And it is not every soul that can receive even one ray unclouded. To few, very few, comes more than a stray glimpse, and even that is filtered through many a medium, until its clearness is all dimmed. It must needs be so. Hence the varied views of truth. Hence the divergent notions, the errors, the mistakes, the fallacies that pass current among you. Men think they see a momentary gleam, they grasp some view, enlarge on it, add to it, develop it, until the tiny light is quenched, and what was a ray of truth is distorted and destroyed. And so the truth is maligned, whereas it should be the imperfection of the intervening medium that is blamed.

Truth Direct From Spirit

Or, to take another view. That which came as the answer to the yearnings of some aspiring soul is deemed to be of universal application. The truth was so beautiful, so ennobling, so pure and holy in its essence, that it must surely be so to all. And the jewel is dragged out from its casket, and prepared for open exhibition. The lily is plucked from its stem, and paraded before men. And it loses its purity; its vitality diminishes! it withers and dies; and he to whom it was fair, so lovely, wonders to find that it loses its freshness in the heat and dust of the world's busy strife. He marvels that what was so pure and true to him in the heart's secluded temple should seem tame and out of place, when advertised to the world. He learns, if he is wise, that the dew of Hermon is distilled in the silence and solitude of the heart; that the dower springs up in the gloom of night, and withers beneath the noon-day beams; that truth, the holiest and purest, comes direct from spirit to spirit, and may not be proclaimed on the world's house-top.

Truth — Esoteric

Doubtless there are coarse views of truth, rude blocks which man has hewn, and which all may use alike. These are the foundations, stone which every builder must use. But the richest and purest gems must be preserved in the spirit-shrine, and be gazed upon in silence and alone. So when John the Seer told of the jewelled walls and pearly gates of the Heavenly City, he spoke of the outer truths which all must see; but in the inner temple he placed no jewel nor purest ray of light, but only the Presence and Glory of the Lord.

Marvelous it is that you do not see this. That which to you is Divine Truth is only that atom, that speck of the whole unbroken circle which has been cast off in answer to your cry. You needed it, and it came. To you it is perfection; it is God. To another it would be incomprehensible, with-

Chesterfield Mediums Lecture and Demonstrate Clairvoyance at Detroit's Book-Cadillac Hotel

One of Spiritualism's Youngest Mediums

MAUDE FOX and JAMES LAUGHTON, Pastors of the Church of Spiritual Harmony (N.S.A.), Book-Cadillac Hotel, Detroit, Michigan. Sunday, June 10th, the Editor of PSYCHIC OBSERVER attended their evening services. Rapid, concise and evidential spirit greetings were given by Mrs. Fox. Her mental mediumship is most convincing—after the service, many volunteered with statements as to the authenticity of the messages received.

The lecture delivered by Mr. Laughton was based on the most misunderstood subject "MEDIUMSHIP," which has always been difficult for the students of Psychic Science. Laughton's presentation of his views on mediumship were both interesting and understandable.

Both are Direct-Voice mediums. They will be at Chesterfield Spiritualist Camp, Chesterfield, Ind., during July and August.

out a voice to answer to his cry, without any beauty that he should desire it. You cannot parade it if you would. It would die, and its hidden charm would make no convert. It is yours and yours alone, a special creation for a special want, an answer from the great Spirit to the yearning aspiration of your soul.

This Truth will always be esoteric. It must be so; for only to the soul that is prepared can it be given. Its fragrance is too exalted for daily common use. Its subtle perfume is shed only in the inner chamber of the spirit. Remember this: and remember too that violence is done to Truth by forcing it on unprepared minds, while harm, pain and unreachability is done to those who cannot receive what is revelation to you but not to them.

Moreover, remember that the pursuit of Truth for its own sake, the altogether lovely and desirable end of life, is the highest aim of spirit on your plane of being, higher than earth's ambitions, nobler than any work that fill up human life. The struggles and ambitions that exercise mankind, born of vanity, nurtured in jealousy, and ending in disappointment—these are plain to view as Sodom apples. But there is a subtler temptation to more refined souls that doing good to their fellows and adding another stone to the cairn that the pioneers of the past have raised. To them comes the desire to proclaim in accents of enthusiasm some truth which has taken hold upon their lives. They are possessed with it; the fire burns within them, and they speak. It may be a noble word they utter, and, if it meets the needs of men, it is received and taken up by other souls like-minded and developed. All men are stirred and benefited by it. But it may be the reverse. The Truth, so true to one, is true to him alone, and his voice is the voice of one crying in the wilderness, a proclaimer of idle tales. He speaks in vain, and it had been well that he had saved his energy for the cause of Truth and the learned men before he spoke to men.

Letter To Learn

It is well to teach, but let a man's clearest words be inspired and go to home. Only remember that learning and teaching are not ends in themselves, but means to an end. Be sure that the truth is one that you need. The student who goes deep into the mysteries that define Truth will not readily violate the seclusion in which alone she dwells at ease. He will tell of her beauties, and proclaim to those who have ears to hear the words of healing which his inner sense has caught from her lips; but there will always be to him a sacred reserve, a holy silence, and esoteric revelations too pure, too dear for utterance.

(In answer to some unimportant question it was written:)

Nay; you will be informed in time. We may not save you the exercise which is part of your discipline. Be content to walk in the path. It leads direct to truth; but you must tread it in care and pain. We have directed you to it because it is well for you to garner up the wisdom of the past, and to learn of those who are gone before you. We foresaw long ago that those who should faithfully pursue the study of the intercourse between our world and yours, would receive rude shocks from the follies and falsities that cluster round the subject in its most exoteric aspect. We looked with confidence for the time when these

Conan Doyle's Widow Expires In London

Lady Conan Doyle, widow of Sir Arthur Conan Doyle, the creator of Sherlock Holmes, died in London June 27th last.

Both Sir Arthur and Lady Conan Doyle were firm believers in spiritualism.

Sir Arthur contended not only that the dead remained in communication with the earth, but also that in some cases spirits were able to materialize themselves.

Lady Doyle had claimed to be in frequent communication with the spirit of Sir Arthur since his death July 7, 1930.

Simplicity marked the details of the wedding of Mrs. Alta Shackelford formerly of Kansas City, Mo., to John H. Griffith of Jackson, Mich., which took place in the Goodfellow Spiritualist Church, Jackson, Mich., on Sunday, June 24th, at 1 P. M.

The Rev. Clifford Bies of Huntington, W. Va., newly elected Pastor of the Goodfellow Spiritualist Church, performed the ceremony.

Mr. and Mrs. Griffith had as their attendants, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Griffith and Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Johnson.

should force themselves into prominence, and we prepared for it. We would teach you that there are, and ever must be, two sides to this science, as there were in the mysteries of the ages past. Having passed the one, it is necessary that you penetrate the other.

To this end you must learn who and what are those who do communicate with men. Not otherwise can you read aright the riddle that now perplexes you. You must know and under what conditions truth can be had; and how error and deceit, and frivolity and folly may be warded off. All this man must know if he is safely to meddle with our world. And when he has learned this, or while he is learning it, he must see, too, that on himself depends most or all of the success. Let him crush self, purify his inmost spirit, driving out impurity as a plague, and elevating his aims to their highest possible; let him love Truth as his Deity, to which all else shall bow; let him follow it as his sole aim, careless whither the quest may lead him, and round him shall circle the Messengers of the Most High, and in his inmost soul he shall see light.

JULIETTE EWING PRESSING and RALPH GEORGE PRESSING, Editors of PSYCHIC OBSERVER, Lily Dale, N. Y.

They have been invited to visit a number of Spiritualist Camps during the summer months. Their itinerary is as follows: CHESTERFIELD SPIRITUALIST CAMP, Chesterfield, Indiana, August 1st to 6th, incl.; LAKE BRADY SPIRITUALIST CAMP, Brady Lake, Ohio, August 24th and 25th.

The Editors were present at the opening of WHITE EAGLE SPIRITUALIST CAMP, Lake Hopatcong, N. J., June 23rd, and the following week, they were guests of Ethel Post-Parrish at CAMP SILVER BELLE, Ephrata, Pa.

No definite date has been set, but Mr. and Mrs. Pressing expect to spend a few days this summer at SPIRITUALIST CAMP, Knoxville, N. Y., and WONEWOC SPIRITUALIST CAMP, Wonewoc, Wis.

At the city of THE SPIRITUALIST CAMP, Ephrata, Pa., the Editors were present the first few days of the opening services. Arthur Ford was the featured medium of the camp.

psychic phenomena which is sweeping through the world becomes an invaluable agent in establishing upon a scientific basis many of those beliefs which an earlier age was content to accept upon the authority of a book or a person.

Therefore, the medium, if he has a true conception of his office, becomes the ally of the Church.

Whether it is safe and sane or not depends upon one's approach. The medium deals with other personalities. All sorts of people live and die, and return through mediums, if they can. If one is mentally and spiritually balanced, honest and motivated by ordinary human decency, it is just as safe to deal with people out of the body as with people in the body. If one is weak and vacillating, with no sure direction in his life, it is unsafe for him to engage in any enterprise which requires close association and co-operation with an indiscriminate mass of humanity. That is a law which applies to both sides of the veil.

My attitude towards my work is summed up in the words of W. E. Gladstone, who, when invited to become a member of the Psychical Research Society, accepted in these words: "The work you are doing is the most important work being done in the world, by far the most important." That many people do not agree with this and that our whole movement is misrepresented in certain quarters, does not disturb me in the least. I know history too well to be upset by the popular attitude towards a new science.

PSYCHIC PHENOMENA AT THE STOTT SEANCES

Apports, Levitation, Direct-Voice, Independent Voice, Automatic Writing, Independent Writing, Psychic Lights, Partial Materialization and "Trumpet-in-the-light."

THOMAS GRIMSHAW'S
SPIRIT MESSAGE

By GRACE P. SCHAFER

Spirituality blossoms in the comfortable home of Joseph B. Stott where each member of his interesting family vibrates harmoniously together in Spiritual At-one-ment. They were not always so spiritually attuned however for almost twenty-two years Mr. Stott was skeptical of all psychic phenomena and with difficulty maintained a mild tolerance of his wife's clairvoyance and her mediumistic activities. Hannah Stott was not discouraged by her husband's attitude; she remained firm in her faith and continued her daily meditation and prayer in the privacy of a room (in her home) which she reserved for the sole purpose of spiritual communion.

In seeking to discover for what individual phase of mediumship she might be particularly qualified, Mrs. Stott equipped herself with a double slate and a trumpet. These became permanent fixtures in the sanctuary. After a time she was successful in receiving writings and drawings on the slate, but the trumpet remained stationary and was finally regarded as a useless ornament to the room.

Manifestations Begin

On October 28, 1937, Leonard, (Mr. and Mrs. Stott's son), happened to be in the sanctuary with his mother when they suddenly noticed the trumpet being independently levitated to the ceiling and remained suspended there. A little later, when Joseph Stott returned home from his day's work, he was greeted by excited voices calling from above:

"Oh, dad! . . . come here. Come upstairs, quickly!" called the family in a chorus.

"Goodness! what is all the fuss about? What is going on up there?" he asked.

"Just come and see . . . See for yourself! The trumpet has levitated," exclaimed Mrs. Stott.

"What! Do you expect me to believe that nonsense?" said Mr. Stott with disdain as he mounted the stairs but, on arriving at the entrance of the room he stood still and gazed in wonderment. Scarcely believing what his eyes actually registered. Sure enough! there it was . . . just as they had said: the trumpet levitated to the ceiling . . . in mid-air . . . without support! Joseph Stott's credulity was stretched to the limit but the test of his own eyes withstood all investigation of trickery. It was truly, an authentic psychic manifestation.

Leonard—The Medium

Soon the Stott family learned that the trumpet's levitation was dependent upon Leonard's presence. The enthusiastic family then began to sit in a dark seance circle at regular intervals. In exactly one week, from the day of the trumpet's ascent, spirit voices were distinctly heard through the trumpet. During the following two years of faithful seance attendance Leonard has developed into a splendid medium. A succession of remarkable physical phenomena has been witnessed by many who have attended their seances through public invitation.

The different phases of phenomena produced are: Independent writing, Direct-Voice, Spirit pictures, Spirit lights, Levitation, Apports and Partial-materializations.

The Stott family consists of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Stott, their son, Leonard, his wife, Edith, and their eight year old son, Joseph, who promises to be a very important member of the family since he discovered, quite by accident, that when he walked into the seance room one day, the trumpet tipped toward him.

Little Spirit Helper

The painting was copied from a faint spirit etching which appeared on a silk muffler which was taken into the seance room by Ralph Yagel, a member of the Stott "Home Circle."

The interesting spirit group of guides and teachers at the Stott seances, names and duties are as follows:

TIMEVALUVA: Hindu poet. Teacher of the spirit band that imparts his philosophy to the Stott family and their friends.

"UNCLE JIM": Mr. Stott's uncle who served twenty-one years in the British army in India with the Scottish regiment of the "Black Watch."

Opens and closes the meetings. Through his East Indian service he attracted the interest of TIMEVALUVA.

WHITE EAGLE: Great Red Indian Chief. Guards the door and keeps out undesirable spirit intruders. (He is the guide of Mr. Joseph Stott and his grandson, Joseph).

NATHAN RILEY: An old friend of Mr. Joseph Stott . . . and a friend of the Stott family.

"Master of ceremonies." Introduces other spirits and assists them to enter. Also teaches. (NATHAN has lately been succeeded by BARBARA).

BARBARA: Barbara Hutchinson of Toledo, Ohio. Present "Master of ceremonies" and special ambassador of TIMEVALUVA.

(Her rapid progress in the three years on the spirit plane has placed her first in rank).

BEATRICE: A niece of Mr.

"I pray that I may sink myself into Thy will —and through Thy will—awaken to another day, to follow Thee, my Master, closely all the way."
Lapsley C. Ewing.

(Prayer received by the author through independent writing at the home of Joseph Stott. L. C. Ewing was the father of Juliette Ewing Pressing)

Stott. Writer of messages. Acts in a secretarial capacity for the spirits.

Others: Doctors, healers, teacher and friends.

A Typical Seance

A typical seance at the Stott home is conducted as follows: Mr. Joseph Stott begins with prayer and a recitation of some beautiful poem which has been received through independent writing. Then with a few explanatory words to those who have never witnessed psychic phenomena, the lights are turned off and the room is in complete darkness. Songs are sung for a few minutes while Leonard Stott is being entranced. UNCLE JIM enters first and announces his arrival by addressing Mr. Joseph Stott and the group; he then departs and does not return until the end of the meeting.

NATHAN RILEY, who has been the "master of ceremonies" until recently, entered the spirit world three years ago. He was an old friend of Mr. Stott. He is a splendid informant, answering all questions accurately, discriminately and with profound logic. In doing his work he says that he is helping himself proportionately. He is kind and gentle as he helps other spirits in their first attempt to talk through the trumpet which is difficult to accomplish. NATHAN says that a certain amount of development is required (on the other side) to enable a spirit to contact the earth plane . . . to talk through the trumpet . . . or for a spirit to materialize. He has quite a time joking with Mr. Stott. One evening he said:

Spirit Pictures

"It's no easy matter to talk through this trumpet. I'm just waiting for the time to come when YOU enter the spirit world and attempt to talk through a trumpet . . . I'll surely have the laugh on you, Joseph Stott."

One night NATHAN gave his picture to Mr. Schafer. Mr. Stott says it is a very good likeness.

The spirit pictures are truly amazing. Often as many as six have been given to different persons at one seance. NATHAN RILEY explained how the chemicals of our bodies are used to produce the pictures. They appear to be perfect little prints and are usually wet or damp when we receive them. The work is done rapidly and just a few minutes before the meeting is closed. NATHAN says they are experimenting in this spirit photography on the spirit plane. Mr. and Mrs. Stott have a large collection of these photographs which are likenesses of historical characters as well as of their loved ones, and of strangers.

Ralph Yagel comes regularly to the Stott seances and has made great progress in his development. He can now see and hear spiritually. On New Year's day, 1940, Mr. Yagel found it urgent to clean a white silk scarf which he wished to wear that evening. Being a bachelor, he washed and pressed the scarf himself. Satisfied that it was spotless he laid it aside. That evening, when he started to put it on, he noticed dark spots on the ends, near the fringed edge. On examining it closely he found they were photographs . . . such as those which manifest at the Stott seances. One picture is of his grandfather . . . the other is of the little spirit, BARBARA. (See picture this page) who attached herself to the band about six months ago and has made such rapid advancement that she has earned first place in the spirit band. Mr. Yagel can plainly see her and easily recognized her picture that was reproduced on his scarf.

Barbara's Progression

BARBARA was only four years of age when she left this earth about three years ago. Her name was Barbara Hutchinson and she lived in Toledo, Ohio. The teacher, TIMEVALUVA, is assisting her with great expediency. We (who have witnessed her progress) would not know her to be the same little spirit who entered the seance room six months ago looking for her father. She has accomplished feats of physical phenomena hitherto unknown to the Stotts.

One of the most amazing psychic demonstrations as yet performed at the Stott home on April 23, 1940, was in the presence of nine persons, including Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Pressing, George Schafer, Ralph Yagel, the Stott family and myself, where we witnessed, with our physical eyes, the trumpet levitate in the light and remain pivoted in mid-air for at least fifteen minutes (or more) floating around, twisting and turning and darting about in a manner to convince us that there could not possibly be any of the artifices of legerdemain. On June 2, 1940, I again witnessed this unusual demonstration of phenomena. At this time the trumpet was handed to one of the witnesses who held it for awhile and it was then taken from her hands while she felt the strong tug from an invisible force, as it was pulled from her two hands and floated to the ceiling and around the center of the room . . . contrary to the laws of physics as we know them which should challenge the minds of our greatest scientists who claim to understand the laws of gravitation.

Independent Writing

At the beginning of the independent writing development, the Stotts were instructed to always have present a new, ruled tablet. The word ruled was particularly stressed to prove later, how impossible it would be for anyone to write so perfectly upon ruled lines in the complete darkness.

BEATRICE, the spirit secretary, who writes the messages at the dictation of the spirit guides, passed from earth-life forty-five years ago. She was then twelve years old. She is the niece of Mr. Stott and is present at each seance. Although she never speaks she does all of the writing in a beautiful, back-hand script. The messages are sometimes very long yet they are written with incredible rapidity. All can hear the scratching of the pencil . . . the dotting of the i's . . . the crossing of the t's. Lately, she uses a fountain pen for her messages which is placed on the floor for her. (These messages have been written with the tablet resting on my arm). As each message is finished she tears the page from the tablet, places it on the floor, at the feet . . . in someone's hand . . . or on the lap of a "sitter."

BEATRICE has been appointed as amanuensis for the group for her own progression as well as helping those who attend the seances, we were told.

GRIMSHAW'S SPIRIT MESSAGE RECEIVED AT STOTT SEANCE

FOR WHAT SPIRITUALISM STANDS

THOMAS GRIMSHAW
During his lifetime, he was one of the outstanding officials of the NATIONAL SPIRITUALIST ASSOCIATION.

"Our religion does not say, thus far shalt thou go and no farther. It reaches up to the heights until you have reached the infinite spirit."

"For this, friends, our religion stands. It stands for growth; it stands for progress; it stands for the establishment of the Kingdom of God in man, and in that Kingdom do we find wisdom. It stands for a larger and better humanity; it stands for a universal love; it stands for a divine out-pouring like a shower of light from on high to all the world, because it tells of eternal light, or an endless mortality. There is no such thing as life without an unfolding potency from within, and it stands for unfolding that force of human spirit that leads us to the higher, the better, the truer, the nobler wisdom of God."

"Friends, it stands for a larger science. It stands for a science of life. It stands for a scientific investigation of every principle, for a science that shall open the avenues of the spiritual world here as well as elsewhere. It stands for a larger and sweeter spirituality, and what does this mean? It means a closer kinship by which you are all bound together, then there is the product of a sweeter brotherhood."

"Through silent contact you receive the co-operation of definite workers on our side in the healing of your physical and mental problems."

Thomas Grimshaw.

brilliant and inimitable style, through the trumpet and by independent voice. One night, Thomas Grimshaw came through at the seance and said:

"I shall tell you for what Spiritualism stands." He then gave us a clear outline of the fundamental principles of Spiritualism in masterful oratory. After his address, Mr. Schafer remarked that he wished he had been able to write it down just as Mr. Grimshaw had rendered it . . . to which he replied:

"I will have BEATRICE write it for you before you leave. Within a few minutes the copy (printed at the bottom of page 3) was placed on Mr. Schafer's knee.

TIMEVALUVA, the Hindu poet, teacher of the spirit group comes through only occasionally. On May 21, 1940, BEATRICE wrote this message, at the teacher's dictation:

"Knowledge brings righteousness and righteousness brings eternal happiness. He who has never known the peace and joy of understanding has not yet entered into life or its reality. He who has once known the peace and joy of understanding can never be happy while violating the laws of his Creator. If we would work in the vineyard of righteousness, we must go into the field of unrighteousness, and uproot the weeds and preserve the flowers. The weeds are the thoughts of ignorant minds; the flowers are the inspiration, thoughts and revelation of truth to mankind.

"My dear friends, I would that there were those here amongst the doubters, amongst those drawn in by curiosity, who could have their spiritual eyes opened just for a moment or two. They would see that although they, in body, are in material and physical conditions, that by the dedication, by the self-sacrifice of those who have called this gathering together, they are surrounded by those not of earth at all. Indeed there are beauties of the Spirit built up in that which represents a temple for this night."

TIMEVALUVA.

Flowers Apported

Fresh flowers are frequently apported into the room and distributed to those present. Margaret Fletcher sits for development with the Stott class group. She received a sermon dictated by a spirit, Rev. J. E. C. Weldon, to BEATRICE who wrote it and gave it to her. This happened in September, 1938, and at the time she was promised the book from which the sermon was produced would be given to her. The promise was almost forgotten until January 21, 1940, when the book was apported into the room and placed on her lap. The name of the book is: SERMONS TO HARROWBOYS, in the years of 1885 and 1886, by the Rev. J. E. C. Weldon, M. A., Headmaster of the Harrow School (an English School).

Another phenomenon which manifests is the little spirit lights. Sometimes they come singly . . . and again in groups. The lights are about the size of a thumb nail . . . some larger or smaller. They float about the room or remain in front of a person. One evening we were given the privilege of contacting them. A spirit light was laid in my open hand. Most definitely, it was not as an ordinary light ray; it seemed to have weight which felt almost metallic as of a mercurial substance, although it was as lucid as a sunbeam. The spirit instructor explained that if it remained long in the hand it would gradually disseminate.

Physical Medium

The spirits usually announce their names when their lights appear. A group of the spirit guides and teachers arrange their lights to form a sunflower which is the symbol of Spiritualism, the flower that turns its face to the sun. Each light forming the sunflower petals has an elongated appearance.

The greatest lesson I have learned in attending the Stott seances is THE POWER OF THOUGHT and its magnetic attraction. Sooner or later we will attract that to which we affinitize ourselves. A writer's presence will attract writers; a linguist attracts other linguists. Mr. Schafer, who was in the U. S. Air Service (overseas in the World War) often attracts aviators. Frequently Amelia Earhart's co-pilot, Frank Noonan comes through. He claims to have been with the "Keystone Division." He demonstrates the whole dramatic scene of the fatal airplane tragedy . . . "Just as the accident happened," he said. The whirr of the plane with the motor's vibratory accompaniment . . . the engine trouble . . . just as though the plane were in the room, was perfectly recorded. It is to be classed as a most unusual phenomenon.

In some future article I shall tell of instances where help has been rendered in mysterious ways by the great LAW OF ATTRACTION.

Why do the spirits come? . . . For what purpose? It is always with a view to help - to teach - to advise. They have chosen an unselfish path of progression. Those who have a sympathetic attraction for the pitifully ignorant and helpless humanity, deign to help those who merit help by their faith and understanding. And . . . to those who

"Shall turn to truth and goodness as the plant

Turns to the sun. A thousand unseen hands

Reach down to help you to their peace-crowned heights

And all the forces of the firmament

Shall fortify your strength. Be not afraid

To thrust aside half-truth and grasp the whole."

ALL PRESENT VOUCH FOR SEANCE

During the recent convention of The Independent Spiritualist Association, 21 people crowded into a hotel room to witness a joint Direct-Voice seance conducted by Clara E. Barnett, Detroit, Michigan, and Clifford Bias, Huntington, West Virginia.

Varied phases of psychic phenomena were demonstrated—partial materialization, etherealization, independent voice, telekinesis and trance.

One voice, purporting to be that of Thomas A. Edison, spoke to Dr. George S. Foden, Detroit, Michigan. Edison advised Dr. Foden relative to some experiments.

Dr. George B. Warne voiced for about 10 minutes—directing his message to the Editor of PSYCHIC OBSERVER. Maggie Waite and Sherman Smith spoke briefly.

During the seance, lasting almost two hours, numerous spirit entities voiced to many of the sitters, who expressed themselves in such a way as to prove without a doubt that each message was evidential.

All present vouched (in writing) for the authenticity of the phenomena and the messages, they were: Charles Gulick, President of The Goodfellow Spiritualist Church, Jackson, Michigan; Mrs. Charles Gulick, Chloe Angevine, Lula Miller, Harry Beasley, Ethel Hammond, Ruth Walling, Floyd Walling Mr. and Mrs. John Griffith, Mabel Gumper, Leonard Beasley, Mrs. H. L. Beasley, Clarence Benedict, Dr. George S. Foden, Fred Felix and R. G. Pressing.

I. S. A. CONVENTION at Battle Creek

RE-ELECT SAME BOARD

The Independent Spiritualist Association closed its 16th annual convention at the Post Tavern, June 16th with the re-election of all seven members of the board. South Bend was chosen for the 1941 convention. About 100 persons, most of them leaders, many of them of the ordained clergy, in member churches attended. Mrs. Nettie J. Spykerman of Grand Rapids, association secretary, reported a paid up membership of about 250, from a score of churches in Michigan, Illinois, Indiana, Ohio, New York and West Virginia.

The convention banquet, June 15th was held in the main dining room of Post Tavern Hotel.

The program was arranged by the Rev. John Armistead of Battle Creek. About 180 attended the dinner. Muskegon Heights church won the cup for greatest paid-up membership, 125.

Sunday morning, June 16th, dedicatory services were held for the Battle Creek church at 28 West Fountain. The structure, formerly occupied by the Nazarene church, has been purchased by the local congregation, which the Rev. Armistead said numbers about 110.

Members of the board of the association reelected are: The Rev. Amanda C. Flower of Grand Rapids, president; the Rev. George Jewett of Lansing, vice president; Mrs. Nettie J. Spykerman of Grand Rapids, secretary; the Rev. Malcolm Riddell of Flint, treasurer, and these trustees, the Rev. Harry Hillborn of Chicago, the Rev. John Armistead of Battle Creek, and the Rev. Grace Kilmer of Syracuse, N. Y.

The church, according to Mrs. Flower, life president of the organization which she guided at its founding 16 years ago, supports no seminaries for the training of clergy but admits members to its clergy without specific assignment

CREMATION'S PROGRESS

Spiritualists will rejoice in the progress being made by the Cremation Society, for spirit messages praise this hygienic method of disposing of the discarded earthly body.

In the past five years the number of crematoria in this country has almost doubled, while in the same period the number of cremations has increased from 9,600 to 19,800.

The objections to cremation have come from the orthodox those who, believing in the resurrection of the body on a Day of Judgment, feared that cremation would prevent the re-assembly of the earthly fragments!

FRED FELIX

His mediumship was witnessed by the Editor of PSYCHIC OBSERVER during a Sunday afternoon service held at The Post-Tavern Hotel, Battle Creek, Mich.

Mr. Felix is a blind-fold ballot medium. The folded ballots were placed on the table — after the Editor had securely fastened the black blind-fold.

His spirit messages are short, clear and accurate—delivered by his spirit collaborator in a plain, distinct voice which could be heard by everyone in the packed lecture room of the Hotel. The ballots are not "read" by the medium at any time, the message service being conducted much the same as independent clairvoyance.

JOHN ARMISTEAD

His new church, The Church of Spiritual Truth, 28 West Fountain St., Battle Creek, Michigan, was dedicated Sunday, June 16th.

Shell Materialization, Fluidic Materialization, Astralization, Etheric Skin-Envelope, Mechanical Spirits and Psycho-Plastic Transfiguration

Most Misunderstood of All Phases of Mediumship

SHELL MATERIALIZATION

This form of materialization is commonly adopted where a limited supply of psycho-plastic matter is available, and by this method more rapid creation of forms may be produced, providing a more varied program than is commonly to be obtained in the seance for full-form phenomena. The soul of the medium is projected about a foot in front of him, and upon this is moulded the psycho-plastic matter in the likeness of the manifesting spirit. When completed, the spirit, Mr. A., enters the materialized shell, and his concentrated will power moulds the mask or shell to a more accurate reproduction of his former physical features than the spirit modeller has produced.

These masks are often very shallow, being little more than a slightly curved flat surface, similar to a theatrical mask, so that the observer, when looking behind it, views seemingly empty space. Such masks, however, often present a most excellent likeness of the individual desiring to manifest. All the illustrations in Baron von Schrenck Notzing's book on Materialization represent such shell forms, and a reference to it will help the reader to a better understanding of this particular phase.

Be Sympathetic

The spirit artist, in working up the mask, labors under several serious disadvantages, first because he is usually working between two planes of matter, that of physical and the astral world, and while thus moulding the shell he is often quite unable to see his spirit model, for if he places himself upon the astral plane, where the spirit is, he is out of touch with the physical plane, where the matter rests upon which he is operating, and so he must learn to adjust himself to both. This may partly explain why serious blunders are sometimes made, such as forgetting to place hair on the head, etc., and some of the grotesque figures which appear in the psychic laboratory at times, are the result of these difficulties of the spirit artist.

All students of this subject should learn to be sympathetic with a spirit worker, for not only has he these conditions to contend with, but further complications often arise through spirits desiring to manifest who may have considerably changed their appearance since passing from the earth, and who fail to remember their old form. These differences in a spirit may be due to the loss of deep facial lines, once caused by worry or ill-health. They may have grown considerably older or even younger in appearance, slimmer or stouter, darker or fairer though the usual tendency is for a spirit to grow more fair. Their plan of hairdressing may have altered, or beards or moustaches been discarded, and considering all these possibilities, especially with those who have been in

English Authority

J. HEWAT McKENZIE

He is the author of this article on Materialization, taken from his book "SPIRIT INTERCOURSE—Its Theory and Practice."

In England, McKenzie was recognized as an authority on life beyond death. Today, the facts clearly explained in his book remain unchallenged.

spirit-life for some years, some of the difficulties of the artist may be realized.

A spirit who has recently passed from the body can often give an excellent manifestation of himself in the seance room owing to his memory being still fresh regarding his earthly appearance, and the soul being still of a somewhat physical nature; but those who have left earth for ten or twenty years, have been busily engaged in the new world with thoughts and occupations that have been deeply interesting, find that the effect of their new thought has been almost to revolutionize their features and form through the action of the mind upon the soul, often giving them a beauty far transcending their earthly appearance. Spirits laboring under such difficulties sometimes look up an old photograph or picture of themselves on earth, and reproduce from it an astral counterpart, from which the artist may copy, modeling his shell to its appearance.

FLUIDIC MATERIALIZATION

Fluidic materialization is quite different from that of the psycho-plastic materialization, the latter being the creation of a solid body, the former of a fluidic body, somewhat more closely resembling the orthodox ghostly type and luminous in appearance. The spontaneous so-called ghost, so commonly talked about and sometimes seen, is probably in a very large number of cases of the fluidic nature now about to be described. Such forms may range from a degree of refinement so rare that only those with very keen eye-sight can perceive them, to that of a degree where a slight resistance would be felt by the hand if passed through them. In cases where the spirit apparition is clearly manifest to the ordinary eye, the substance is similar to a damp cobweb, but with a distinct phosphorescent luminosity. These have for their foundation a portion of the human soul, usually that of the medium, and it is upon this structure that the particles of matter are built by which they become visible. Such appearances are frequently called "astralization," but such a term is incorrect, for a fluidic materialization under good conditions has the power of speech, and may talk as rationally in answer to questions as any mortal, but with an astralization this is impossible.

When highly condensed, the clothing has a peculiar, heavy movement, as if loaded with moisture, and swings very much as a heavily-beaded lace garment might upon a dancing girl. The matter which goes to compose these bodies is drawn by the manifesting entity from the body, or bodies, of persons in the immediate neighborhood. As an article when electrically connected within a plating vat, draws to itself refined particles of silver from the bar deposited within the vat, so, much in the same way, does the celestial visitor draw refined particles of matter upon his soul through magnetic attraction.

ASTRALIZATION

The appearance called an "astralization" derives its name from the spirit body of discarnate man which functions upon the astral plane or lowest sphere of the spirit world. It must not be supposed that all spirits manifesting as astralizations are souls who have not yet risen above the astral plane, for those upon higher planes may also show themselves as such. The difference between souls of varying degrees of advancement, is manifested in their power to illuminate the form by which they make their presence known. The lowest or astral beings have a dull phosphorescent appearance, some of the very lowest being of a dusky hue, but the higher spirits show themselves in brighter raiment, some appearing in a glow of golden light. The latter are, unfortunately for the world, seldom met with or seen only by the clairvoyant, but where a circle of highly developed experimenters meet regularly, such will sometimes manifest, and this should become more common as the inhabitants of earth learn to develop themselves and make a study of the laws of which the phenomena rest.

Magnetic Influence

An astralization is produced by a spirit-being drawing upon itself a fine coating of earth matter, sometimes by accident, and at other times by design. In the former case a spirit may quite unconsciously, while traveling near the earth, enter into a magnetic current arising from the earth's soil, which for the moment clothes his soul with a coating of matter. The spirit may be entirely ignorant of this, until his attention is called to it by some startled mortal staring in his direction, and only then does he realize that he has become visible. Other spirits can accomplish it by intention, when conditions are suitable, but this does not often happen, and it is probably more often owing to accident rather than to design, when souls become manifest as astralizations.

ETHERIC SKIN ENVELOPE

This phase of spirit power far surpasses any other form of manifestation, for by it one is able to get a representation of the departed exactly as they live in spirit spheres, with lively movement, dress, and coloring. With most forms of materialization there is a rigidity of form and feature, and a great lack of natural coloring, but with the

31st Annual Season

KLINE, HOFFMAN AND MANY OTHERS ARE ON PROGRAM

The 31st Annual Spiritualist Camp meeting of The Sherwood Spiritualist Camp will be held at Crystal Fountain Park, Sherwood, Ohio, July 14th to September 1st, inclusive, according to the Secretary, Frank J. Renollet, Cecil, Ohio.

A lecture or message service will be held every evening at 8 except Wednesday and Saturday. There will be four services every Sunday, 10, 2, 1, and 8.

Crystal Fountain Park is located in the northwestern part of Ohio, 12 miles west of Defiance, in the village of Sherwood, at the junction of the B & O and C. N. Railroads and on U. S. Highway No. 127.

Speakers and mediums listed on the official 1940 program are:

etheric skin envelope, every line in the face, every smile that moves across it, every detail of the dress even to the buttons and the thread by which they are attached may be seen in minutest detail. These beautiful creations, though looking to the casual observer most real and solid, are just the reverse, being constructed of a skin so refined that the finest sheet of gold-leaf is a heavy armour plate compared to it.

The matter is so fine that it is useless to try to feel it, for the magnetic power issuing from the fingers causes disintegration as the hand approaches it. This etheric skin is constructed from a soul essence, by discarnate operators, who collect it and form it into a wide sheet. The spirit who wishes to manifest is subjected to magnetic treatment on the spirit side of life, which makes his soul and all attached to him attractive to this etheric skin, and he is wrapped in it as one might be in a sheet. When within this, the spirit immediately becomes visible to ordinary physical eyesight, and while he has no power of speech, an extremely free movement is possible.

After one spirit has manifested for a moment, the etheric skin is unwound and another immediately enters it. He may be succeeded by others, the change usually being made with lightning rapidity as the matter quickly disintegrates. Each manifestation may not last more than from ten to twenty seconds, but much depends upon the physical conditions and the number of spirits who wish to show themselves.

Through the etheric skin one is able to view spirits in their natural spiritual conditions, and there is no phase of spirit manifestation to be compared to it in its marvellous beauty and perfection. When a soldier from spirit spheres appears in his uniform within this etheric skin the glint of his sword hilt and polished brass buttons may be seen distinctly. These manifestations are not common, and only on a few occasions during fifteen years of close investigation has the author witnessed them. If the creation of this etheric was more common, a most marvelous advance would be made in the art of spirit intercourse, and the whole phenomena of materialization would take upon itself a DOCTOR BANKS, Spirit Collaborator of Ethel Post-Parrish.

At a seance held June 30th at Camp Silver Belle, Ephrata, Pa., Dr. Banks spoke to the Editors of Psychic Observer. He said: "Peace to all the world—this is our message to all nations."

What Does the Spirit World Think About War?

The answer to this question was received through the Direct-Voice mediumship of Ethel Post-Parrish. It was the VOICE OF DOCTOR BANKS, he said:

Anyone who has had the benefit of much communication with the Spirit World is quite sure of the fact that war is absolutely against all principles of right living. Ever since the beginning of time there have been peoples who have believed that might could dominate right and that it was fundamentally correct to kill one another because they could not come into harmony regarding some national or religious principle. Many wars have been caused by religious differences, and millions of souls have been sent into this World of Spirit because of disagreement regarding their own particular man-made creed, for man has ever been intolerant and bigotted about his God and his religion. Personal greed of the leaders of your earthly countries has been the basis of many other wars, greed for more territory and thousands of other reasons too numerous to mention. While there have been wars founded upon a desire to fight for and uphold a principle of right, yet each and every one of those victories could have been accomplished without the shedding of blood. God gave us life and God alone has the right to take that life.

Only through the processes of Natural Law should that life be ended. And we are taught by the great Teachers of the higher spheres that all men who take the lives of others, or even their own lives, are morally responsible to God and man for so doing.

This is the Mental Age and we who manifest in this Higher Phase of life are constantly striving to impress the minds of earth with the importance of the Thought Vibrations that they are sending out upon the ether. Thoughts of love and peace could dominate the world if a concentrated effort and force were placed behind them. The Peace Treaty, which many think to be so inadequate, could beauty far transcending the usual presentation.

MECHANICAL SPIRITS

These are phosphorescent bodies, constructed from the psycho-plastic matter in a particular stage of solidification, and are thought-moulds of spiritual beings trained to this work. In appearance they resemble floating cotton-wool figures. The outline is often indistinct but made to represent well-known public characters, or even a relative or friend. Such forms are endowed with a limited power to move about the room, and act as a mechanical figure might, gliding a few yards to the right or left. These are termed by some as toys and playthings of the seance room, but they demonstrate the power of mind over matter.

Spirit operators in the materializing seance room often give a representation of a departed friend through psycho-plastic transfiguration. This process consists in drawing from the medium sufficient matter to clothe the medium's face, which is then moulded into the likeness of the spirit who wishes to manifest, the hair and beard and other matter being added by the spirit operator until the medium is wholly transfigured.

Over the garments of the medium, spirit drapery is thrown, completely concealing his figure, and he is then controlled as in trance mediumship, by the spirit whose likeness has been constructed, and walks and speaks under his influence. Such a likeness is often most accurate, for the medium's face is frequently so ductile that it further lends itself to change by the strong will power of the manifesting spirit. During one such experiment for transfiguration the electric light was accidentally switched on, and the manifesting form, an Eastern spirit, with dusky skin, turban and dark bushy beard, draped in spirit garments from head to foot, stood for a moment sedately at ease under the full blaze of light. The white garment then shrivelled rapidly upwards towards the head be the means of solving all the difficulties between nations if man could bring himself to think constructively instead of destructively, but the clouds of war darkened by the jealousy, hatred and ignorance of those poor souls who live in the countries involved, still hang over your world and I am afraid they will continue to do so until your minds rise above materialism and attain greater spirituality. Pray with us that the day may come upon your plane, that the laws of God will be understood and complied with and then war, suicide and Capital Punishment will become obsolete and the earthly children will come into a full realization of the words of the Master when he said

"Peace on earth, good will to men."

MARY BUTE, Pastor of The Starlight Memorial Spiritualist Church, 5419 Grand River, Detroit, Michigan.

She will conduct seances at The White Eagle Spiritualist Camp, Nolans Point, (Kay's Hotel), Lake Hopatcong, New Jersey, during the entire 1940 summer season—closing September 15th.

The Editors of PSYCHIC OBSERVER were privileged to attend a private Direct-Voice seance at Lake Hopatcong last week. Mrs. Bute was the medium. Claude Swanson again spoke to the Editors (See TIME MAGAZINE, July 1st—Religious Section.) Mr. Swanson proved his identity by submitting positive evidence which was checked later through the Educational Department of The NEW YORK TIMES.

and shoulders, the turban and mask melting into a white, shapeless, foggy material, which chiefly congregated around the head and face, and within twenty seconds entirely evaporated, leaving the medium standing in a deep trance where the spirit had previously manifested. The psycho-plastic matter which had been used by the spirit artist to cover the body of the medium in this manner, melted under the rays of the electric light, and returned to his body as a subtle, unseen spirit essence.

Psycho-plastic transfiguration is usually adopted where the matter is insufficient for full-form materialization, and sometimes spirit controls fail to inform the experimenters that transfiguration is being given, thus causing great disappointment and annoyance, especially when an eager skeptic seizes the form of the medium, and thinks he has unmasked something.

Such carelessness, if one cannot call it something worse, on the part of spirit controls who carry on this work is most reprehensible, but it is equally unsatisfactory to allow within the materializing seance room, people so ignorant of the ordinary laws governing the subject that they will act in such a way, and endanger the life and health of one so sensitive as a materializing medium.

The world cannot afford to treat such rare instruments in this way, even though a fool in his folly may sometimes think he demonstrates a fact which is well-known to serious investigators, who have arrived at their truth without taking such drastic steps to secure it. Not until the subject is more thoroughly understood by the public are we likely to have a discontinuance of such incidents, and in the meantime no one should be allowed in the materializing seance room who has not received some conclusive evidence of spirit intercourse through trance mediumship, or has made by reading, some study of the subject and the subtle problems it presents. The phenomena in these materializing experiments is of so startling a nature and so altogether beyond the ordinary experience of a normal man that it is quite natural that skepticism should sometimes get the better of a sitter, and lead him to satisfy his doubts by any means. The day is not far off when such actions, however, will be considered criminal, for many an excellent medium has been lost to the public through such ignorant action. The subtle forces that are at play are so obscure that only competent men of occult science can be expected to investigate them wisely, or attempt an adequate explanation.

"Is Death the End?"

By JOHN HENRY REMMERS

Most of my life has been spent in the fields of civil and structural engineering; if one is not trained to think and observe Psychic Phenomena accurately in these fields, then I do not know where such training may be acquired.

I could write page after page of the most interesting conversation which I have had with personalities of the next dimension. Test after test has voluntarily been given to establish identity. But as such conversation will not assist you directly in establishing communication on your own accord, I shall leave it for a separate work. My aim is to arouse within you such a desire and confidence that you will follow these humble teachings and endeavor to establish communication without the aid of a professional medium. As I have repeatedly stated, there are many fine and honest instruments, but for the good of your own convictions, do not visit them too often. And remember no one can make a medium of you. No amount of money can speed your development. This is one phase of Life where money does not rule. No one can sell or guarantee you results. You can at best only be assisted. Basically, the entire matter will rest with you, your mental attitude, your physical condition, your patience, and your perseverance. Some phase of development, however, in this field lies within the reach of everyone. The Law is no respecter of persons. God has no favorites, be he pope or layman.

"The table is spread for all."

Chapter XI

Materialization is the highest phase of physical mediumship, and its development should not be attempted until at least three years of effort have been applied to the unfoldment of other phases. My reasons for this conclusion are as follows: A good independent voice medium is seldom, if ever, developed in less than two years. An additional year is usually required to bring the voice mediumship up to its best unfoldment, providing the medium is not harassed by financial cares or inharmoonious environment. And as materialization (when the manifesting personalities speak) surpasses in magnitude the independent voice, it seems only logical that it should follow as a natural sequence. Those who have never witnessed materialization should read the writings of Professor Crookes regarding his experiments with the medium Florence Cook and the manifesting personality Katie King; also "The Phenomena of Materialization", by Baron Schrenk Notzing, "Clairvoyance and Materialization", by Dr. Gustave Geley, and the more recent experiments of various investigators through the mediumship of Mr. Jonson, of California.

My own experience in witnessing this most marvelous phase of manifestation has been limited to five occurrences, one of which, however, was of such nature that it afforded every opportunity for the most careful observation. The seance took place in my own home and under conditions where fraud of any kind was impossible. This experience brought to me such realization of the reality of the next dimension and the survival of personality that no contrary argument of any nature could alter my convictions. And when I read or listen to the silly postulation which oppose this Truth, I cannot at time refrain from laughing aloud. Ninety-nine per cent of the opposing arguments are not only actually stupid, but highly refreshing, in that they always serve to point out clearly the critics' absolute

SPECIAL NOTICE TO OUR READERS

The PSYCHIC OBSERVER does not necessarily agree with statements made by its contributors. In this serial of the book "IS DEATH THE END," Mr. Remmers voices suggestions relative to just how and who people should sit with for development. The Editors do not agree with the author's statement relative to professional mediums. We know hundreds of professional mediums who are conducting splendid classes for Spiritual unfoldment.

ignorance regarding the subject. The seance in my home came about in the following manner: I had heard that the medium in whose presence I had witnessed the unusual demonstration of the ectoplasmic envelope was also a very fine materializing medium. I asked her if she would favor me with a seance of this kind. She replied in the negative, adding that the after-effects upon her physical organism were unpleasant, and she had given up seances entirely.

Several months passed, and the occasion arose where I could favor the lady. In appreciation she expressed a desire to repay the kindness, and I suggested a materializing seance. She agreed, and voluntarily offered to hold the seance in my own home under conditions which I might desire. A date was set. The seance took place in the evening, and on the afternoon of the same day I made such arrangements as I felt would eliminate every possibility of fraud and at the same time in no manner hinder genuine results. I had read a number of scientific books regarding materialization, thereby gaining to some extent knowledge of the rules governing the procedure. I had no intention of tricking the medium; my whole attitude was one of fairness, inspired by a desire to gain further knowledge, if possible, in this field, the most worthy of all human endeavors.

The room in which the seance took place is located on the second floor of a dwelling which was at that time our home. The house was erected under my own personal supervision; this fact at once eliminates the foolish assertions of secret trap-doors, etc., which are often proposed as an explanation for the manifestations. The room which was used for the seance measures eleven by twelve feet.

It is plastered and papered throughout. The ceiling is low, not more than eight feet, and has no opening of any sort. In the center of it there is fastened an electric light fixture. At either end of the room there is a plastered closet. The closet on the south wall is large and has but the one door opening into the seance room and a small opening, fourteen by thirty inches which serves as a vent. Both the door and the vent were locked on the afternoon of the seance. The closet on the north wall measures three by three feet and the ceiling is of such nature (due to a slope in the roof) that a person of ordinary height can just stand erect in it. After a fair-sized arm-chair is placed in the closet, very little room is left for body movements. This closet has but one opening, and this into the seance room; the opening measures two feet four inches by six feet. It is finished with a regular door frame, but had at the time no door. With the exception of this opening, the entire closet is plastered throughout, and no one or earth could enter it otherwise than through this opening. This closet I chose as the cabinet. Two curtains the length of the opening were fastened at the top of the door frame, and arranged so as to part in the center. On the west wall of the room there is a large window consisting of two stationary sash and one movable one between them. Its distance from the ground is about twenty-five feet. This window I locked and covered with a frame upon which was tacked black oil-cloth. This arrangement not only served to keep out all light rays, but also prevented any one from entering through the window. Five plain wood chairs were placed before the cabinet and within the cabinet I placed a willow armchair. This chair was selected purposely for the medium because of its peculiarity of being extremely noisy when anyone sat in it. It was impossible to move in the chair and avoid the squeaks which came from it. The floor of the cabinet was of wood, having no covering of any sort. The photographer's lamp containing a twenty-five watt electric globe was inserted in the fixture in the center of the ceiling and its distance from the cabinet was six feet. The light from this lamp was squarely upon the curtain.

Test Conditions

About seven-thirty that evening the medium and her husband arrived. After a half hour of conversation, she accompanied Mrs. Remmers to our bedroom and there, in the presence of my wife, changed her attire, putting on an ordinary house wrapper. The two again joining us, we went directly up to the seance room, where the medium, who is almost six feet tall and weighs close to two hundred pounds, crowded into the small cabinet and seated herself in the squeaky chair. The little group formed the half-circle before the cabinet, consisted of Mrs. Remmers, the medium's husband, Ellsworth, our boy, a young lady friend, and myself. After carefully locking the door which led into the hallway and placing the key in my pocket, it was impossible for any individual on earth to enter the room unobserved. Mrs. Remmers occupied chair No. 1, the medium's husband No. 2, Ellsworth No. 3, our friend No. 4, and I, No. 5. In the red light emanating from the photographer's lamp one could distinguish without difficulty the features, limbs and clothing, and observe easily all movements of every sitter. Mrs. Remmers and I purposely sat opposite each other and directly next to the curtains. Our positions gave us the advantage of having between us every manifestation, and also afforded excellent opportunity of hearing every sound caused by any movement the medium might make. Our chairs were within a foot of the curtains and not more than four feet apart. Our physical senses were keenly alert. Impossible under these conditions could not have been attempted without detection. The medium's husband is a tall man weighing more than two hundred pounds. I placed him almost directly opposite me, and no move on his part could escape my attention.

For a few minutes the medium moved about in her chair, coughed violently for a time, then all grew silent. This silence continued for five minutes or more, when I noticed slight movements at the bottom ends of the curtains. These movement continued, and finally grew to such extent that it appeared as though both curtains were blown out into the room by a strong draught.

The curtains actually stiffened out an angle greater than forty-five degrees. Gradually they dropped back into place and then proceeded to bulge in the center as though being held at either end. I have since learned that this was caused by the uncontrolled energies emanating from both sides of Life, and that heavy curtains should always be used to assist the operators in concentrating these energies within the cabinet. The curtains used on this occasion were of a very light material.

Shortly after this interesting occurrence, the curtains parted and there appeared before us the slender form of a woman. She was attired in a white robe of the most exquisite laces, and emanating from her whole being there came a radiance the like of which I have never seen. The manifestation informed us that she was one of the medium's guides, and then gave a short talk on the wondrous beauties of Life beyond the earthplane. I paid no attention to what she was saying but arose and studied her carefully. In no manner did she resemble the medium. Two people could not have been more opposite in features and physique. After a brief interval she bid us adieu, and while the curtains remained closed, vanished before our eyes. But in less than ten seconds a boy's head and shoulders appeared between the curtains and, laughing, he invited his mother and me to come close, study his countenance from all sides, so that every particle of doubt regarding his survival would be eliminated. The boy submitted to every test requested, asking me repeatedly if I could see the cap he wore. The incident of the manifestation, and also afforded every sound caused by any movement the medium might make. Our chairs were within a foot of the curtains and not more than four feet apart. Our physical senses were keenly alert. Impossible under these conditions could not have been attempted without detection. The medium's husband is a tall man weighing more than two hundred pounds. I placed him almost directly opposite me, and no move on his part could escape my attention.

I have heard critics say that under such conditions and environment people give full sway to their imagination and conjure out of nothing the image which they desire. Granting that such may be the case with some, is it not also possible that there are others with whom this does not happen, others who are just as rational and keen in their observations as the critic? Does he alone possess the power of clear and calm discernment? Most of my life has been spent in the fields of civil and structural engineering; if one is not trained to think and observe Psychic Phenomena accurately in these fields, then I do not know where such training may be acquired.

The one question addressed to a critic of this kind invariably closes the discussion, and it is this: "Have you ever witnessed a materialization?" Nine times out of ten the answer is: "No, and I don't want to!" There you have it! the old prejudice which, like the clam, enjoys only the narrowness of its own little world.

Directly following the manifestation of our boy, the first wife of the medium's husband materialized, stepped away from the cabinet and stood directly before him. Their conversation was of the most endearing nature. In the nobler Life beyond, petty grievances do not exist. There, Love is the governing factor. Jealousy is only of earth; the nearer we approach God the less of it we know.

The manifesting personality I have just mentioned had hardly reentered the cabinet when a slim masculine form appeared. The rapid appearance of each personality is worthy of attention. The most clever actor, with all sorts of assistance and trappings, could not have accomplished these lightning-like transformations.
