

BIBLICAL SPIRITUALISM

—By—

REV. EVAN SHEA

Mrs. C. B. Blain of St. Joseph, Mo., writes, "There are so many opinions around about the Theory of Reincarnation I wonder which is right. I have read the various 'arguments' about it in Psychic Observer but they seem to lead to nowhere. They offered nothing concrete. Rev. Shea what has the Bible to say about this important question? What is your personal opinion?" etc."

Mrs. Blain your question about the Theory of Reincarnation is certainly 'red hot' and could be most controversial. I would not dare pose as an authority on such a moot subject but I do believe the Bible and what it has to say pertaining to the Theory of Reincarnation and according to the Bible the people of those days believed in the theory AND SO DID OUR MASTER JESUS!! There are whole nations that base their belief and religion on the Theory of Reincarnation!! There are millions and millions of people all over the world who believe it! Who can dare to say these many, many, people are wrong?? Not I! In Matthew 11: 7, 8, 9, 10, 13, 14, we read the words of Jesus:

"And as they departed, Jesus began to speak unto the multitudes concerning John. What went ye out into the wilderness to see? A reed shaken with the wind? But what went ye out to see? A man clothed in soft raiment? Behold, they that wear soft clothing are in Kings' houses."

But what went ye out to see? A prophet? Yes, I say unto you, and more than a prophet.

FOR THIS IS HE, of whom it is written, Behold, I send my messenger before thy face, which will prepare thy way before thee.

And all the prophets and the law prophesied until John. AND IF YE WILL RECEIVE IT, THIS IS ELIAS, WHICH WAS FOR TO COME."

These are very pertinent words, Mrs. Blain, especially since Elias (Elijah) had 'passed on' about 900 years before, so, if you believe in the Bible and in the veracity of our Master Jesus you just have to accept this reference to reincarnation — as the truth.

Then again, we can read in Matthew 14:1, 2, even more confirmation of this belief in reincarnation. The record reads,

"At that time Herod the Tetrarch heard of the fame of Jesus, and said unto his servants, this is John the Baptist; he is risen from the dead; and therefore mighty works do shew forth themselves in him."

From these words it is very apparent Herod and his followers not only believed in reincarnation BUT TOOK IT FOR GRANTED JESUS WAS THE REINCARNATION OF JOHN THE BAPTIST!! Just that matter of fact!! It is also very apparent from these few words they EXPECTED marvelous work FROM SUCH A REINCARNATED PERSON!! It seems all very amazing and very confirming to me!!

In Matthew 16: 13, 14, also, we read,

"When Jesus came into the coasts of Caesarea Philippi, he asked his disciples, saying, Whom do men say that I the son of man am?"

And they said, Some say that thou art John the Baptist; some, Elias; and others, Jeremias, or one of the prophets."

These are the biblical facts, Mrs. Blain, and if you believe in the Bible these facts should certainly give you something definite to work toward. Yes, I believe in reincarnation. Not only because I believe the words of our Master Jesus and the words of the Bible BUT when I was young I had a most revealing experience that proved to me, beyond a shadow of doubt, that the theory of reincarnation is a fact — completely and absolutely. I will tell of this personal experience in my next article if I have the Editor's permission. In the meantime I am convinced a good Spiritualist can be a good reincarnationist. There is no conflict in this dual belief. One can be an introduction to the other.

prove that God is still in the midst of His people.

On every hand, we find people really hungry for the truth—dynamic inspiration — that holds the answers to prayers of trust and faith. Such truth radiates an atmosphere in which complete surrender to the higher forces is patterned.

Mysterious things happen every day — things unexplainable by the ordinary laws of nature as we are taught to understand them. Psychic minded persons for example, find no difficulty in accepting clairvoyance, telepathy, prophecy, materialization and apports.

PSYCHIC BELIEF STILL IN THE HEART

There are those who come along with a flat denial claiming that it is not possible for some people to see into the future and that the voices of buried humans are not likely to again be heard by those now in the living.

The fact of being an accomplished psychic is a power of God to use human beings as instruments to help mankind. Man is a thinking creation, but much of his thinking is keeping him in darkness of God's helping laws. What man opposes colors his thinking and feeling of the very truth which he has been seeking for years.

The path of a consecrated psychic is one strewn with uplift, faith, higher guidance, understanding and love. Thousands to-day need to walk in the light of such influence.

Briefly About ...

By William Geiger

Inspiration

Some years ago I called on an executive officer of a large corporation whom I did not know. The receptionist said she would take in my name but was sure I would not be interviewed. To the surprise of us both I was told to wait a few minutes.

Ushered into his office, he said, "I knew you were coming—sit down." Taking the side chair at his desk I remarked it was only thirty minutes ago I made up my mind to visit him; how did he know I was coming?

He told me he was inspired. In current matters he felt strongly impressed what to do and always it turned out to be the right thing to follow.

As we talked he wrote on a pad he placed between us, beginning at the bottom, backwards and upside down. After a couple of hundred words he told me to read beginning at the top. He demonstrated an amazing talent like of which I never saw.

He had written how years before he was billed as 'the man who did a hundred things at one time' in a Broadway, N.Y.C. musical show. He received a handsome weekly salary. Months later his teen age daughter manifested the same ability he performed on the stage, so he quit the show because he felt it was wrong to use any psychic talent for entertainment purposes.

RIGHT FROM WRONG
No true Spiritualist would misuse a psychic talent. Instead he will acknowledge his responsibility with dignity and solemnity. His simple formula is to determine right from wrong. He would know something as to how or why the talent. My newly found friend did not consider these conditions for he was unfamiliar with Spiritualism.

New-comers who intend to embrace our Cause take heed. Old-timers should occasionally remind them to move cautiously.

The gift of inspiration is common to all. We find it expressed in art, music or literature. Most of us have benefited from inspiration and will remember the blessings of love though we know not the inspirers.

Several years ago a friend wrote a tribute to Gershwin and I quote from the copy she gave me. I think it expresses beautiful thoughts.

"A great musician and artist has passed into spirit. This is a great loss to present day civilization as greater achievements were still to be made. Many lives are like a bright comet. A beautiful breathtaking flash on the horizon of life and then oblivion. But the spurt of beauty and light of their meteor is never lost sight of and forgotten. That is enduring."

A tribute to you Dear Reader. May the sun of each day find you stronger and more developed in your endeavors and may each setting sun fill you with a prayer of thankfulness for blessings received.

'One Minute Treatments'

Material (?) Benefits of YOUR Religion

By ALBERT E. SCHEFFLER

There has always been a friendly spirit of animation between the many churches, each denomination paving the road to salvation with generalities to make the path to a better living look like an approach to a pretty dream home with a velvety lawn, bright flower beds and a warm "welcome" patterned in the door mat.

So often we find ourselves going steady with a crowd or a BELIEF. We enjoy a wonderful time, socially — dining on promising platitudes and dancing our thoughts into favorable circumstances; covering up weaknesses which might disillusion all prospects for a glorious hereafter.

The seeds of future success or failure can be definitely determined during day-to-day living. "Look and listen," says a psychologist, "not for any signs of trouble, but for tokens to avoid becoming blind and deaf while drifting along in a fog of confusion."

WEeping FOR A LIVING TRUTH. Courage will save many seekers after heavenly bliss from the probable drifting too far away from the real facts. Weeping helplessly after years of a wild steadfastness with the tempo of holding to what is regarded as the popular opinion in regards to a religious belief is an indirect call for such people to get started quickly looking for a greater assurance that would open their eyes.

That's the way thousands have felt coming from the field of orthodox religion when they learn the bitter truth about an emptiness inside of them that nothing on this earth could fill. They are demanding a LIVING truth to

SPIRIT PHOTOGRAPHY CONTINUES! Often we are asked if spirit photography existed only in the 19th Century in the days of "flash powder" lighting.

"No" is our answer. Above we see Miss Agnes Reuther, former editor of the Observer. Above her head clearly shown is the face of her aunt who had passed to spirit.

Compare the face from spirit with that of the woman in the group lower right. The face is the same. Do you agree?

Modesty prevented the P.O.'s former editor from running this bit of "proof" concerning herself. Known as a hard-driving factual reporter for various newspapers, including the "Bradford (Pa.) Era" and the "Jamestown (N. Y.) Sun," Agnes was never one to be "taken in," but rather proudly employed the cynical newspaper reporter's "with degrees" of skepticism which all of us have encountered with the press only too well.

One fine day Agnes loaded a new film in her own camera, sat in her own living room with witnesses present, a spirit photographer clicked the shutter. The camera was then handed to Agnes, Agnes handed the camera to one of the top photographic technicians of the "Jamestown Sun"—the film was immediately processed with witnesses present. This is the picture we now print here.

MODERN PHOTOGRAPHY magazine published an article on the subject of spirit photography. We encourage you to load your camera with plain ordinary film, use standard flashbulbs and submit any photos of this nature which you capture. Remember the skeptics amongst us. Have witnesses and let your regular developing service attest that they developed the film and made the prints and nothing was contributed to make it a phony! Let us at the P.O. see the results. We'll help keep spirit photography alive.

Miss Reuther's original, unretouched negative is available in our files for your examination if you visit our office.

Spirit photography requires the cooperation of spirit. Ectoplasm is forthcoming when the power emanates from either the sitter or the photographer. It will be there if the vibrations are right. And what is ectoplasm exactly? Orthodox science won't find it, touch it or dissect it, but you can photograph it. Shouldn't all branches of science study this phenomenon?

LETTERS TO ED.

ten, write against cruelty to animals, but religionists seldom do. Atheists are generally more likely to defend the weak and the helpless than religion is.

Yours truly,

—RUSSEL AIN,
Fairfield, Iowa.

This is a call to the Spiritualists in this country to awake and arise from their lethargy, for truly we are in deep lethargy. There is something radically wrong with us. I have reached the conclusion that Kardex was right, for there truly is the "proof of the pudding," in that they have millions of Spiritualists in South America, their own schools and hospitals. Churches, naturally. All the while we continue to split, change or concepts, all to no avail. How many churches do WE have? I have attended meetings in other cities, churches NO. Either they meet in a hall, home or some other small place. We cannot hope to impress those who are against us and those who have no belief at all that we are right, as long as we have such conditions existing.

I am a newcomer to Spiritualism, but I am not ashamed to let anyone know I am one, but I have met some who would not admit their views to outsiders. I come from a religious family Great-grandfather, Maternal side, was Baptist minister in England. The other great-grandfather an Episcopalian minister.

1925 I had several clairvoyant experiences, but did not know what they were, and again in 1936, when I had clairvoyant experiences, I found orthodox religions could both School classes, for adults as not be bothered with my problems. I prayed incessantly. This was the beginning of my eyes being opened. 1949 I became rather adept in automatic writing, which some criticized, but the evidential material was amazing. It took a broken back 1952, and the healing ministrations of Rev. Hugh Burroughs of Washington to convince me that I had truly found a religion; after having studied religions over 20 years.

1957-58 was on radio eight months with Spiritualist lectures. We must not concentrate so much on courses in mediumship, unless it is particularly desired. I believe that is a factor against us. Many are not interested in that, but they desire a belief they can cling to, that will bring them the hope and peace for which they are searching. We need to have Sabbath School classes, for adults as well as children, as well as regular services. It will be tough going for a while, but I believe in time it will pay off. We need schools, hospitals. In fact, we need REAL Spiritualists.

I know of a religious belief established long after Spiritualism. They have the largest printing establishment in the country, so I was told by a Roman Catholic who went to see it. They publish their own books at the very low price of one dollar. Most people could afford that, but take a look at the high prices on Spiritualist books. We need our own seals, get-well cards, sympathy and Christmas cards, hymnals, Sabbath School lesson books, all with the Spiritualist slant.

I am still searching for the man at Beaver Dam, Virginia, who offered free, some land for the establishment of a Spiritualist camp. Recently went there, the terrain is such a camp as would be. Not just a place for phenomena, a place where our senior citizens can go, a place self-sustaining, like the above-mentioned place. People who could devote from two to four or more hours daily to making it self-supporting. Individual cottages, church, all the makings of a happy place, not only for senior citizens, but for the young as well as the young-in-heart. A sort of retreat if one desired such for a period. Perhaps this may sound like a dream of Utopia, but it could be made into a reality. Either united we stand, or divided we fall, and we surely are divided at this time. We need radio and TV programs. Thanks to you, for your efforts in attempting to make us reach an at-one-ness.

Sincerely
—(MRS.) MERLE R. BOSEY,
Richmond, Va.

In the February 25th issue of your paper there appeared an article about a seance held by me written by West Doubt. I appreciated this very much, however, there was an error in regards to my guides. Dr. Albert McDonald is my doctor, not Ronshin. Also, Red Feather who has been with me since birth is my Indian guide not Red Cloud. Ronshin is my Master Teacher. These guides have been with me for years and are known by many people.

I would appreciate it very much if you would publish a correction, as many people were a little confused. Also, the article was not completed on page 23. I am not taking any offense as I know West Doubt real well, and we are very good friends. It was merely an oversight on his part.

Everyone out on the West Coast enjoys the Observer. Wishing you much success and with kindest thoughts and blessings, I remain, as always, your sincere friend.

Yours truly,
M. R. BOSEY
