THE DAWN OF TRUTH.

Elizabeth M. Campbell.

The haze of creeds and dogmas, long Had wrapped the earth in awful gloom: No mirth nor joy nor gladsome song,

- Gave echo from the silent tomb; All, all was full of mystery, And tear dimmed eyes no light could see
- For longing hearts craved .something more
- Than funeral shrouds, for all their dead;
- And so upon life's darkest hour, When faith and hope had well-nigh fled,
- There dawned a light, whose brilliancy Illuminated earth from land to sea.
- The tiny rappings on the wall, Told that the loved had never died, That patiently they waited all, Some means by which to reach our side. A sweeter knowledge this by far Than brought to earth by Bethlehem's 🛸 star.

The pearly gates stood just ajar, Love's messengers all waiting there; from the spirit world, but had no real mediumship. Others again attached such imaginary importance to their mediumship as to become laughing stocks of all who kn.w them.

The advice given was that in the first place it was well to be sure that true mediumship was present before proclaiming it to the world; next to develop it gradually in the home circle; but, above all, to refuse to give anything but the truth. It is unfortunate that a chain is no stronger than its weakest link, that constitutes the capacity of the chain, and judged by that standard, Spiritualism is indeed weak, for on every side we see mediums comè before the public with great pre tensions but small legitimate power to back them up.

The priests and ministers of all religions go through a course of preparation before being permitted to enter the ministry. It may be urged that a course of study is not essential to mediumship, neither is it, but it would be much better for the cause of Spiritualism if its public workers proved their ability in their particular phases of mediumship before advertising themselves in high-sounding phrases so common to the advocates of our philosophy.

We have no desire to establish a creed or to give any particular body of men or women the sole power to qualify workers.

That has been abused enough. But what is needed is that those who are ignorant of what constitutes Spiritualism should not teach their peculiar brand of ignorance and label it Spiritualism.

It is unnecessary to state that all the vagaries which are taught do not come from well informed spirits any more than they come from well informed mortals.

Because a sensitive person is favored with more or less candidness is no reason why they should be in. flicted on a long-suffering people under the name of Spiritualism.

It should be understood that the majority of spirits who pass over to the other side are just as ignorant as when they were in the body.

Bearing the tidings from afar, That vanished every doubt and fear-And gave the light that set us free, For which we hold our jubilee.

At early morn, at dewy night, With all love's yearning in there eyes, Effulgent in their raiment white, They trod the pathway to the skies; They brought to earth a song of joy, The pains of death, cannot destroy.

And with their advent has been sung, The song of the immortal soul, While liberated thought has sung From sea to sea, from pole to pole. Freedom of thought! we know thou art, Of life's great victory a part.

COMMON SENSE.

BY GNOMON.

It was our privilege to listen to Mrs. Jennie Hagan Brown recently, and the thoughts which she voiced could be put in practice with benefit to ourselves.

In speaking of mediumship, she spoke of some who are self-hypnotized into believing themselves inspired by the spirits of those who have been prominent in the past, but who have chosen some particular person (the medium in question) as their mouth piece.

Others were spoken of who preto give communications

MRS. M. J. HENDEE-ROGERS.

Mrs. Hendee Rogers the subject of this sketch is a native of Maine, during her early years, and prior to the advent of Modern Spiritualism, she was an ardent Methodist, while engaged in warning others against the wiles of Spiritualism, she heard a voice say to her; "are you sure that you have all the truth?" In 1847 while bitterly bewailing the loss of a baby girl of four years, while alone and in great distress her little girl came to her and said: "Mamma don't cry any more; I am happy." This was one of the many experiences which finally convinced her to the truth of the spiritual philosophy. Her work as a Medium and Healer extends over a period of thirity years, and thousands of people call her blessed.

They have had no special opportunities to obtain technical or any other kind of knowledge, and the strong probabilities are that they are unable to communicate with those they left by reason of their ignorance of the necessary laws. then why should "mediums" claim so often that they can put them in communication with their loved ones?

It is largely through the ignorance of such mediums and equally the ignorance of those who are willing to believe it.

No absolute guide can be given, but when a spirit has passed over after a long and wasting sickness, it is hardly probable that spirit can come back in a short time and give a truthful statement as to the beauties of their home.

Neither does a person who was notoriously ignorant of business conditions while in the body become a safe guide in speculation or other business when ushered into the realms of spirit.

Let Spiritualists use a little common sense in dealing with all communications, and let the mediums also use common sense in giving communications.

It is better to suppress a lie than

It is safe to use judgement in dealing with spirits and not to lmagine that all spirits are transformed into angels.

DR. PEEBLES IS COMING AND GOING.

We take pleasure in announcing that Dr. Peebles, the world wide missionary, who has been spending the winter in Srn Diego, California will reach San Francisco early Monday morning, about 8 o'clock, April 4. His headquarters will be at the PHILOSOPHICAL JOURNAL office, 1429 Market street, for the day, where he will be pleased to see his old friends and acquantances.

He will leave this city at 8 o'clock the same evening, April 4th, for Portland. He will be in Portland during the day of April 6, Wednesday and will be pleased to meet some of the Spiritualists and Liberalists of that city, as they may arrange. He leaves Portland at 11:45 the same day Wednesday the 6th.

He will arrive in Seattle Thursday, (7th of April) at 9 o'clock a.m. and leaves Friday the 8th at 9:45 a.m. He hopes to meet the Seattle Spiritualists and Liberalists.

He will be in Spokane at 11:45 p. m. Friday, April 8th and leave Saturday, April 9th at 12:55 p.m. He expects to reach Butte Sunday the 10th at 1:45 a. m., to fill an afternoon and evening engagement.

He will reach Minneapolis on Wednesday the 13th 1:50 a.m. and leave there at 6:45 the 14th. He

REVIEW OF DR. NELLIE BEIGHLE'S BOOK.

When the Greek Philosopher and poet "Esope" was asked how a book should be judged, it is related that he gave this answer:

"Ascertain whether the author says what be ought, whether he says only what he ought, and if he says it as he ought."

Dr. Nellie Beighle's recent publication of the "Book of Knowledge" comes within the requirements of the Sage.

Besides a very interesting biography of the writer, the work is teeming with information regarding psychic facts, proofs of immortality, and the overflowing stream of revelation recieved by all sorts and conditions of men and women, many of whom were, or are, famous in this world's history.

Numerous testimonies of her remarkable cures, signed by leading citizens in the land, are embodied in the book, which terminates by a series of beautiful lessons drawn from gospel texts, and which are a veritable illumination to the truthseeker.

The "Book of Knowledge" is beautifully bound in gray cloth and contains over 500 pages of good printed matter, is published by the Alliance Publishing Company, price $2.00 and we prophesy for it a long life and a large circulation.

WHAT IS LOVE.

ARTHUR F. MILTON.

It is God, says the church. But what is God? that is beyond discovery. Then why try to define love, if it be one and the same!

It is life, says the philosopher, and what is life, pray? Oh, that is love, consciousness, sensation!

Then love and sensation are an-

Be ready to receive it with a true spirit of love, no one can hope to walk and talk with the Angels, unless they live pure and holy lives—Spiritual lives.

With every thought that comes to thee in the balance of reason and go deep into the silence and listen to the God within thee. Whether the thought be truth or not and be careful how you go about sitting.

Try the spirits sit for fifteen minutes in the silence with the mind concentrated upon that, which you so desire, you must also pay strict attention to diet-eat no meat, drink no coffee, tea or wine, take a daily bath, and after each bath anoint yourself thoroughly with oil and you will get that which you are most anxious for. Try this and you will see for yourself.

SAN JOSE NEWS.

Again the angel of life has borne away to spirit realms one of our most esteemed sisters-Sister Brook's was a model Spiritualist beloved by all who knew her. She passed away March 8, and the mortal remains were looked on, for the last time on Friday, after which they were conveyed to Cypress Lawn Cemetary to be cremated.

The president of our society Brother Hambly conducted the funeral exercises, Sister Elsey was controlled and gave a short but beautiful address, the friends sang some of our sweet spiritual songs and we all felt that with the loved one, we could say-"'It is well." B. F. Sliter of Alameda was with us February 28, and answered written questions on spiritual subjects. John Slater was with us on the morning and evening of the 6th inst he gave some wonderful tests. We are making arrangements for our Anniversary meeting and expect to have an enjoyable time, to that end Committees were appointed today. Our morning conference meetings continue to be of interest many subjects being discussed to the edification of those present. In the future we intend having a meeting every Sunday evening, speakers if possible, if not, local talent.

Of course! What we experience in childhood is love's primitive impulse—known as sensation or feeling—a compromise between the an. imal and the spirit.

As this feeling partakes of a higher range or vibration than for mere self gratification it becomes love as a spiritual impulse, or briefly stated love is sensation spiritualized.

"ALICE" MESSAGE CORNER"

Mrs. Anna L. Gillespie, Medium.

Edward Fair-A slender, wornlooking gentleman comes to the table asking me to send a message to his wife. As I look, I-see something is wrong with one arm, and a feeling of great pain comes to me; then, that passes and I hear this: 'No pain now.' Tell my dear wife that the only pain I know, is when she is not happy. Tell her again and again how much I bless her for her tender care and how I pray that she may not have the same long drawn out suffering, when she comes to me. Tell her that she will have such a loving welcome and that all the way from life in the body to life in this new condition, I will walk with her and try to assist in every way. Frank is with me; we send greeting to all friends, but most of all to my déar one who was so good to me, and to whom I will always try to help. It is all true; we can come; we can make ourselves known. We are still living. I knew this before death and have proven it to many since passing away from the body.

I thank you, Alice, for the kindness shown me, a stranger, in sending this to my wife.

Jimmie Johnson-Just a word to my mother to let her know that I want to take every opportunity to let her know how lovely this life is. I did not want to die when I went away, but it is all right now and I don't want to live in the body. I also hear the word, "tell her that Father Sanford is here," and we both send love, mother is with me. I know how Mother misses me, and want to send her my love, says the one named Jimmie, her. Tell her that her old friends have not forgotten her. I have bought many a book, many a paper of her, and tell that Mr. Robinson is with them. I guess she will remember me, I wish I could reach my daughter Mary, but feel sure she would not believe it is her father, but it is, and with me are Henry and Samuel. All send love.

"HEREDITY."

MADAME FLORENCE MONTAGUE

What do we inherit? Science and religion, which parted company, when man lost the key to the higher spiritual revelation, and daily coming into closer rapport in their verdicts on life's manifestations.

No where do we see their understanding so clearly demonstrated, as in their statements on Heredity. The Decalogue, Exodus XX, contains some remarkable information, interpolated between prohibitions or commands, and a striking one is found at the 5th yerse, where we read, that the "Iniquity of the Fathers will be visited upon the children unto the third and fourth generation."

The Jews thoroughly understood the transmission of tainted blood, and other physical deficiencies, or deformities, therefore they often went through special preparation, and purification, before entering the state of matrimony, in order to avoid the deterioration of their progeny.

After centuries of observation, science proclaims the Biblical declaration perfectly correct, but, with an additional discovery, upon which we must base the hope of final restoration to a perfect type of humanity, as the rightful heritage of every member of the human family.

The modern view of evolution in Biology, rests upon the fact, that hereditary transmission, though escaping one or more generations, will reappear with a tendency to

Mr. Grumbine has clearly and logically presented his subject in a permanence, but that variation, constantly works for the elimination of same, and that in time accomplishes its final extinction, creating in accordance and in harmony with the new environment, and mode of living.

Therefore reversion to old types, (which would mean eternal death,) is not the working of the natural law, as some of us have interpreted in the past, but conformity to the Prototype, (that is eternal life,) is according to the latest discoveries, man's line of progression; it is the evolving of his spiritual nature. man's natural inheritance which must and does consume the imperfect material transmitted or acquired, as soon as the individual has reached that point in evolution. when originality versus Spirituality asserts its Dominion.

Right thinking, and right living, are necessary steps towards this recognition of a higher inheritance. as children of the most high, and the great master proclaimed the truth of Universal and Everlasting Heredity, when He said: "Be ye perfect as your Father, who is in Heaven is perfect."

PERSONAL EXPERIENCE.

BY J. M. MATHEWS

Life with us all is to a certain extent what we make it, still as I look back upon my own life, and also that of others, I cannot help believing that heredity and early environment have laid the foundation for all our later development of character.

As I view the past I seem to be indeed a creature of circumstances. Success as well as failure, joy and sorrow alternating, all along the journey of life. I have a thousand times found fault with myself because I did not take the other road. but now 1 am disposed to think that the roughest places in the road traveled are the most valuable, and that every experience was for the best, it is mine, I would not part with it, and could not if I would. The houses and homes that I have builded and worked so hard to beautify, are no longer mine, but are remembered with pleasure. Speaking of homes reminds me of a dream or vision which I dimly remember. I seemed to be in a strange country and accompanied by an attendant, and as we journeved along we approached a beautiful house surrounded with trees and flowers and singing birds, and everything that could add charm to the landscape, no language could describe the beauty and grandure of the place.

said was mine. Very many lived in shanties and then many had no dwellings of any description, and as I beheld this vast multitude of poor ignorant humanity, my sympathies went out to them and I said to my guide; "these are my fellow travelers-our brothers and sisters of earth life, and I am but one of them I cannot occupy this beautiful residence, while so many have no home at all, well-but my guide said: "I cannot belp that-it is yours—you built it yourself, its just what you made it, then I seemed to realize, that it was indeed mine.

Then I was impressed to say, how many there are that have not built for the future. Yes said my attendant, "it is sad to see them thus, but do you not see they are being educated, and there is time enough in spirit life, in the boundless yet to be for them to progress eternally." Here my vision ended and I at once thought of such stuff are dreams made of, but I konw well that we are all preparing the way for our future, and are building our future homes now.

We are either planting flowers and hanging beautiful pictures upon the walls of our chambers, or we may be sowing weeds and thistles in our gardens, or daubing mud and dirt upon our parlor walls.

It seems to me that my future dwelling will have some dark spots upon it, and if I should have a garden that many ugly looking weeds will be growing there, and perhaps I shall be rather ashamed of it.

I know that we will be compelled to accept of that which we have built, be it good and beutiful or debasing and low. I rejoice that we all have opportunities to beautify a shanty. My friends let us not forget that we are all building our future homes now, and let us ask ourselves often, what kind of a future am I making, towards a higher and better life, not alone for myself but for any and all.

CHRIST A GOD, NOT THE GREAT ALMIGHTY GOD.

BY JOHN MURPHY

The leading article in the Journal of March 5th by W. J. Cowen, on the nature of Christ, seems to lack careful thinking and research.

Mr. Cowen tries to prove that Jesus Christ was a mere man, but credits him with being a remarkable medium. He treats the account of his life recorded in the Gospels, as doubtful, posibly the life of Apollonius of Tyana, changed to suit the needs of the fabricated story, by the writers of the early Christian church.

I submit and maintain, that the life of the Christ given in the Gospels is as authentic historically as the life of any celebrities, and that there was in his day, probably as much or more known about mediumship, as there is now. The New Testament abounds with it. Christ was certainly a medium of the most exalted type, a perfect link between heaven and earth, He was also a man, but the most perfect man that ever lived in this world, as Mr. Cowen has quoted Napoleon's sayings about Jesus of Flame)" to greet and worship the Great Deliverer, whose coming had been predicted and long looked for by the Chaldean, the Hindoo and the Persian Sages.

Hafed gives an account of his being summoned afterwards to Egypt, when Jesus was a young boy, to take charge of him and to finish his education in Eastern learning, because the Egyptian priest who had the charge of Jesus was very old and near his death.

Hafed came to Egypt and assumed the task of instructor, and both Hafed and Jesus traveled through parts of India and other countries together before reaching Persia; afterwards going to Judea for a time, until Jesus was over 12 years old, then they returned to Persia, where Jesus remained until he was about 18 years of age, after which he returned to Judea to prepare by retirement and meditations for his great mission, as the World's Redeemer.

Hafed witnessed many instances of the boy's divine nature and wonder working power, before he left for his native country. He mentions one instance of raising a dead, man to life, and several other manifestations of divine power by him.

So beautiful and attractive was the life of Jesus, in those early years, that Hafed renounced his Persian religion, and his position as chief of the Magi and became a Christian missionary. He afterwards suffered martyrdom on account of his zeal and ardent labors in preaching the Gospel to his fel-

After admiring the scenery for a time, my guide said: "this is your home," oh, no I said, that cannot be, "yes he said again this is all yours." No, no it cannot be, I am not worthy of such a beautiful place.

My attention was then called to the vast extended view before us of valleys and hills for hundreds of miles, it seemed in all directions, and I seemed to see millions of human beings—men, women, and children, dwelling all over this vast world before us. I observed that some of the people occupied beautiful mansions, some very much more magnificent than the one my gr' If we sow the seeds of kind deeds now, we may gather the harvest of love later on, then in joy and gladness we will meet our loved ones, and dwell in the beautiful life of the soul.

"Alexander, Caesar, Charlemagne and I have conquered kingdoms and made them tributary to us, but one rule has rested upon force. Jesus Christ has founded a kingdom which rests upon love, and today there are millions of men who would die for him. I tell you Jesus Christ is not a man, He is more than a man."

Apart from the testimony of Napoleon, whose authority on spiritual subjects was simply that of mere intellectualism, there are abundant and numerous testimonies from the highest and the purest spirit that ever left the Fathers presence, or messages of love, His pre existence is distinctly taught by them as well as stated by himself in the gospel of John.

One remarkable spirit testimony is given by Hafed a prince of Persia, a spirit medium, who lived at the time of Christ, and who was his instructor in the wisdom of the east, for several years. This Hafed was the principal of the three "wise men, who came from the East to Jerusalem, saying, where is He that is born King of the Jews," being sent to Judea by a spirit ouide low countrymen.

Hafed's narrative does not stop with his earth life, but continues on after his awakening to immortality in the Summer Land; where he sees the Nazarene (who had in the mean time been crucified) clothed with divine glory and majesty, and adored by innumerable hosts of happy spirits, and acknowledged as the Son of God, the Lord and King of our Solar system.

OCCULTISM.

This is the only way I have of introducing myself to the many sincere and worthy occult students. 1 will say I was born in Egypt in 1801, educated in Europe (University of Barcelonia) and sixteen years of my life were spent in the Orient, including Turkey, Per-sia, India and Thibet. I say in plain, honest words that I am the only man in America towords that 1 am the only man in America to-day that has his crelentials from the Hindoo Priest and the Dalai-Lama of Thibet. I have just printed a next little pamphletwhich fully explains the unforbidden secrets of this strange country. 1 will send one copy FREE: to sincere occult students only. Opinions of those who have read it

The fact that Mrs. Underwood was an agnostic when the revelations began, the ϵ vident candor which pervades the volume, make it a work which no student of psychic science can afford to overlook.-B. O. Flower.

The most valuable, as it is the most unique and remarkable contribution to the literature of spiritual phenomena.-Lilian Whiting.

Mrs. Underwood has given facts of inesti mable importance, presented in a careful, critical way.-Lyman C. Howe.

The evidence presented is of the most unqualified kind and character. Only per sonal perusal of the volume will do it justice. —Banner of Light.

Mrs. Underwood's experience will afford valuable aid toward the definite solution of the psychic problem.-Progressive Thinker.

The wise answers from some invisible intelligence which knows facts and principles unknown to either party present, make the volume unique.—Christian Metaphysician. I am poor, but if I had $100 would willingly part with it, sooner than have missed the reading of the book.-B. B. Marshall.

The Watseka Wonder.

v Lurancy Vennum, a child about 9 ears old, had been out of health for some time. Mary Roff was a daughter of an old couple, and had passed to spirit-life many years before Lurancy was born. The child was entranced by Mary, who stated that Lurancy could be cured by the spirits. The spirit of Lurancy was to be taken to the spiritworld for development, and during its absence, Mary was to hold control of the body, which was to be taken to the home of her parents, some distance away. The plan was agreed to by all parties concerned.

Lurancy had never been in the Roff home, but when her body was taken possession of by Mary, the latter took it through the home and managed it alMarch 26, 1904

HUMAN NATURE

Is a monthly magazine, now in its eleventh year of publication. It is unique, eclectic and scientific. It treats of Phrenology, Physiognomy, Psychology, Health, Sociology, and all subjects which pertain to the welfare of humanity.

The character of men and animals is in ac-Sordance with their physical organization. This is determined by size of body and brain, shape of head, texture, temperament and facial expression. HUMAN NATURE illustrates these principles by picture and pen, and teaches its readers how to read character. Its ethics are ennobling; its style, while strong, is sprightly, and its literary standard high. You need HUMAN NATURE. Send 5 cents for sample copy, or 50 cents for a year's subscription to

The Ladies First Spiritual Aid Soclety, on Wednesday March 2, voted to hold a Rummage Sale, about April 1st. Friends having articles of clothing or any household goods to donate please notify the secretary, Mrs. A. E. Wads-worth, 1429 Market st., by Postal Card and they will be called for.

Dr. N. F. Ravlin, is open for engagements with camp meetings and societies for the coming season. His labors in Baltimore as pastor of the First Spiritual church, close the last Sunday in May. His address is 308 North Green street, Baltimore.

Election Notice-The Ladies' First Spiritual Aid Society will hold the annual election of officers on Wednesday, April 6, 1904, at Sunflower Hall 305 Larkin St.

The Ladies Aid held its regular meeting on Wednesday afternoon and made further arrangements for the coming Rummage Sale to be held in April.

56th Anniversary - All arrangements for the Anniversary celebration in Steinway Hall, 223 Sutter street, tomorrow afternoon and evening are complete. The several committees having attended to every detail which ensures success and day of rejoicing to all who attend. A conference will be held at 10 a. m. in Sunflower hall, 305 Larkin St., conducted by Mrs. Sarah Seal. These meetings are always interesting and instructive.

The Peoples' Church-On Sunday evening the 19th, "Spiritual Financier-ing" was the subject of Mrs. Anna L. Gillespie's lecture, which was replete with gems of practical thoughts and illustrations to thoughtful, inquiring minds after something more realistic and enduring to build character upon. She showed how futile and unsatisfac tory many investments in the old the-ologies of the past have been. But that in the light of the new dispensation and spiritual teaching, there is no good excuse for intelligent men and women making bad investments. Mrs. J. J. Whitney, being present, addressed the audience relative to the cause of Spiritual-ism in Los Angeles. No services tomorrow. All go to Steinway Hall. 56th Anniversary.

Mar. and Mars. J. J. Whitney are in the city for a few days only.

A Profitable meeting-A few friends were invited to meet MrStitt J Wilson on on Wednesday evening at the home of Dr. Oora Morse, 621 O'Farrell street. Mr. Wilson filled most of the time answering questions and defining many perflexing problems that are confronting us today. As a reformer and as and advocate of a reconstruction of our social and industrial system, Mr. Wilson has no superior. He is sincere, inspired, and truly one of the 20th century savior of men. It was good to be there.-Ed.

Just How to Wake Solar Plexus BY E. TOWNE.

Price, 25c. For sale at this office.

It teaches that as the sun is the center of the solar system, so the Solar Plexus is the center of the physical body. As the sun radiates life and warmth to its system of worlds, so the Solar Plexus, when awakened, radiates life and health to the physical body. The book gives original breathing exercises of great value, tells how to KILL FEAR, control the emotions, develop courage and strength.

J.F. Willis, Breckinridge, Colo., writes: ''I received more special benefit from one reading of 'Just How to Wake the Solar Plexus' than I have during a period of over ten years with medicine chests and doctors' bills of over $800.00, aside from much time lost."

Milan Doane, Creswell, Ore., says: "The knowledge derived from the Solar Plexus Book is renewing my youth."

Dr. Franz Hartmann, the celebrated German occultist, says of this book: "I regard it worth more than a whole library of books on occuluism and metaphysics."

The JOURNAL office received a pleasant call from Mr. E. W. Sanderson, treasurer of the Wisconsin State Spiritualist Association last week. Brother Sander-son will remain in San Francisco two weeks.

Mr. Harry Crindle has gone to San Diego to remain three or four months.

A good change—Elsewhere will be found the announcement that Dr. J. M. Peebles will be in this city on April 4th. We proffered him the use of the Jour-NAL office as stated. But upon second thought would suggest that Sunflower hall be secured on that day from 2 to 4 p. m. for the purpose of giving our good Brother such a warm and cordial reception as our people are capable of doing. The ball has been set in motion, let the friends unite in carrying out the suggestion to a success.

Benefit Meetings-These meetings conducted by Mrs. R. S. Lillie, assisted Mrs. Johnson and Mrs. Howe, are full of interest and should be sustained. The object is a worthy one and may serve as a nucleus to something better and greater, Perhaps a Home for indigent me-diums. Who knows! Think about it.

Progressive Spiritualists Society, A large audience was in attendance at Covenant hall, Odd Fellow building, Sun-day evening, March 20. The usual song service was followed by a well rendered trio by Miss Severance, Mr. Koch and Mr. Wadsworth. The subject of Mrs. Lillie's discourse was: First Cause or Creative Energy, and was ably han-dled. Following the address Mrs. Lillie a poem. On account of the anni-ry exercises held by the State Asso-10n. There will be no services torrow in Covenant hall, but will be reamed Sunday evening, April 3.

Please notice—All persons having books left at the Occult Book Store 1429 Market street, on sale, please call for them. A change having been made in the management.

A WONDERFUL INVENTION.

It is interesting to note that fortunes are frequently made by the invention of articles of minor importance. Many of the more popular devices are those designed to benefit people and meet popu-lar conditions, and one of the most interesting of these that has ever been invented is the Dr. White Electric Comb, patented Jan. 1 '99. These wonderful Combs positively cure dandruff, thair falling out, sick and nervous headaches, and when used with Dr. White's Elec-tric Hair Brush are positively guaran-teed to make straight hair curley in 25 days' time. Thousands of these electric combs have been sold in the various cities of the Union, and the demand is constantly increasing. Our agents are rapidly becoming rich selling these combs. They positively sell on sight. Send for sample. Men's size 35c., ladies 50c.—(half price while we are introduc-ing them.) The Dr. White Electric Comb Co., Decatur, Ill.

WANTED-Agents, Hustlers, Salesmen Clerks and everybody who wants to enjoy a good hearty laugh to send 50c for "Tips to Agents." Worth $50 to any person who sells goods for a living. If not satisfactory your money back. Cir-cular for stamp. The Dr. White Elec-toic Cemb Co., Decatur, Ill.

Intensely interesting, highly instructive and practical truths. which will aid all in mastering themselves, in controlling circumstances, environment, and people.
