THE GOLDEN LEGION

*The Good King sat upon His throne -
The mighty throne of man,
And all His court was gathered
As the Law of Justice began.*

*He did not place Himself
Any higher than the rest
For He knew that all were equal
And each in himself was blest.*

*The search for the Holy Grail
Continues on today -
The knights have gathered once again,
Each from a different ray.*

*Once more their spirits are linked
In a magnificent Spiral of Power,
Drawing all to the new Camelot
Beaming from the Lighthouse Tower.*

LESSON II
PART II

LEARN TO LOVE THE GIFT THAT IS YOURSELF

THESE THREE

These three: self respect, self worth, and self love unite to create a new GOD-MAN. In the search for self respect and/or self love, many avenues may have to be explored. There will need to be a process of elimination to accurately indicate to the seeker which is the right road for him or her to walk in finding their true worth. There will be much exploring in the realms of the mind, of new thought, of dogmas and there will be much experiencing. The seeker will be led into paths filled with another's ideas, on other's way of life and on other's opinions. The seeker will find himself walking down these by-ways of life, listening, absorbing and rejecting. There is so much mass confusion as to what is the real truth that those who wish to sort out the truth for themselves must separate the wheat from the chaff. Tests, trials, opportunities and delays may come to the one who searches for understanding. All these are necessary for the revelation to come forth in all purity. Often times it becomes necessary to first experience that which is erroneous before one can determine what is right for him. The darkness often propels one into the Light. Out of an age of darkness humanity is now propelled into the age of Golden Light. Mankind can receive this Light of Understanding now, for he has lived through many centuries of darkness. In experiencing what has been wrong, he can now build that which is right and of the Light.

Mass society or race consciousness had been taught for so long and has taught others for so long that the human was a degraded creature. With this thought prevalent in the consciousness of all peoples, it was no wonder that individually the human thought very little of himself. Included here also is the person with an oversized ego who often, with his fear of being of little importance, has built and puffed himself up out of proportion. In all reality, the person with the expanded ego was and is punishing himself for being so far removed from GOD that he must put on a front so that others will not know of this and will not see his failure to make contact with GOD or with the Greater Mind.

In the early days, life was so cheap that slavery and human bondage of all sorts was considered normal. Other races, other classes of people, women and children were sold in the market place as tools of the wealthy or of those presently in power. Also in an early era the flesh, itself, was considered evil and men enacted all manner of torture upon themselves and upon others in their attempts to punish the flesh as the aggressor.

Slowly through the ages and the preceding centuries philosophical thought of a very enlightened nature has been given to man from the many wise ones who have incarnated for just this purpose. Marcus Aurelius, Socrates, Plato, Aristotle, Epicurus, Confucius, Emerson and many others have played their role in the enlightenment of men. The goal for each of these incarnating ones was to bring to man the knowledge of the GOD-MAN that he could and would become. No less in importance was the Bible, even with its many translation errors. Each loving thought, word or deed done for all of mankind has been offered to alleviate the troubled waters of humanity. Slowly, step by step, humanity has begun to realize their GOD-NATURE. As doubting Thomases decrease and as mounting evidence of the Divinity of man increases, there comes to all a wonderment, a curiosity and a seeking.

Many are now searching for the manner in which they can fully express the attributes of the human self and yet begin to express the GOD-MAN. For those who yet do not believe this is possible, the ethers are being fed with the NEW THOUGHT by hundreds of thousands of incarnated souls who came for just that reason. This is the age of awakening to the True Reality of the GOD-SELF. In the process of this awakening, man will learn to love himself and to respect what he is.

The inventions and advancements of science are equally as instrumental in man's enlightenment as is the philosophy. As man sees in the workings of nature, the hidden and yet orderly forces at work, he will finally come to the realization of the Grand and Glorious Being that GOD is. The mythical personal GOD will fade away and the reality of our existence within the body of GOD will emerge. As man realizes that he is truly a portion of the HIGHEST OF THE MOST HIGH, he will take on a new respect for himself.

In his new respect for himself, man will desire and will strive to perform each duty to the best of his ability. No more will he complain about his woes and hapless circumstances. He will begin to change his mold and in the process learn to control and to create circumstances rather than becoming the victims of them.

Humanity singly and collectively will begin to succeed in one endeavor after the other. As this occurs, the body will become permeated with a warmth and a glow, radiating self worth and exhilarated by the accomplishment. Success is a heady wine. There will come a moment of exaltation when one knows beyond a shadow of a doubt that he has achieved a victory through hard won efforts. The FATHER-MOTHER signals each one in this manner when we have been triumphant.

With this dawning realization that all are part of the WHOLE, there comes an acceptance of self and of a sharing in this ONENESS. With the advent of this realization, comes the comfort and warmth of unity. There is a mental joining of hands with the great and the near great alike. For there is a realization and an inner knowing that each is a member of the WHOLE, and as a part of the WHOLE, has equal importance in the function of the WHOLE, although each individual endeavor may be easy, difficult, or seem to be of itself little in importance. As each one of us reaches into this GREAT COSMIC BOWL of Life and begins to extract from it his true worth, he will begin to relate to the WHOLE and to affiliate with the SOURCE.

The observant person looks about himself to see all others who also suffer from the frailty of human endeavor. He sees that mistakes are everywhere present. Rather than suffering from great energy consuming guilt because of the mistakes, he should begin to see that many use them as stepping stones to perfection. Wisdom now joins with his knowledge to tell him that perhaps his greatest crime is in the misuse of the energy by using it to dwell on the failures rather than using it to find his true worth. The era of the Reformation, the creative arts that have come to the hands of man, the Glorious Music as well as the Great enlightenments should give to man a self confidence, self acceptance and self love as he begins to seek for self worth. To reach out and up in one's thoughts for answers is the beginning of learning self love. A deep need to know of one's purpose for being is the beginning of revelation. Desire is the deepest form of prayer. Desire today to find your own self worth. Desire to know of your part in the WHOLE family picture. Knowledge will bring self worth and self love. This, then, is followed by the WISDOM to use the knowledge. Without respect for yourself, knowledge is an empty possession. It takes the love of self and others to bind knowledge to WISDOM. Through this Joining of Forces progress begins. Self respect, self love and self worth have united to make a WHOLE GOD-BEING.

AWAKENING

*I look at this body.
I see a shell surrounding me.
It causes a weird feeling within.
Suddenly, I feel I'm all eyes and senses.*

*There's a stirring, restlessness within.
Something has awakened inside.
Could it have been germinating these years;
The spirit within my physical being?*

*Has it been resting and evolving,
Each illumination giving it growth?
I feel I'm breaking chains of bondage;
Overcoming limitation and mass hypnosis.*

THE SCHOOL OF LIFE

Think of your life as a school in which you are being trained to become a Divine Emissary of God. You must attend all of the classes, learn all of the lessons and pass all of the tests before you can be qualified to graduate.

Each experience has some lesson to teach you, and unpleasant situations are the tests which reveal how well you have learned your lessons. In school you were faced with your knowledge or your lack of it at examination time. This is also true of your spiritual life. If your reactions to trials and circumstances reveal that you are lacking in understanding, you must face that lack within yourself and resolve to rectify it.

All of this processing is according to God's Plan to refine His children. The fire of His Divine Love may seem to be destroying you at times, but it is only burning away the dross in your life and will leave you purified and ready to be used in the building of His Kingdom.

So learn your lessons well and welcome the tests that come to you.
May you graduate Summa Cum Laude!

MIND POWER

Let the body show what the mind and spirit know.

IXUTEL and DR. ZOSER: Good morning! Life is full when the joy and expectancy of life is keen. We greet you this morning with great expectancy in your ability to be a light bearer. You may go forward and carry the torch high. Hear the birds chirping a good morning to all life and singing praises to God, the Creator.

Be cheerful and happy like the birds are in their habitat. Each morning when you greet a new day, thank God for the all encompassing Oneness of which you are a part. Get your mind in gear and attune yourself, within yourself. Use your mind to lock into the Universal mind, being one link in the chain of minds which create. The mind is the builder. Build a beautiful world with the mind power at your command. Share the essence of the mind power with your brothers by bestowing love upon them.

Each cell within your being is kept alive and active through the power of the mind. Build a beautiful body through attunement to the highest vibration. If you have a few strands of white hair, don't reach for a chemical to hide the strands of white hair. Take the time to pull out a strand of hair and decree that a brown or black or blond hair will grow in it's place. Do this with each strand. Visualize your hair as you wish to see it reflected in a mirror and it will be. The powers of the mind have not yet begun to be tapped.

If you are unhappy with your appearance, with unwanted hair, extra bulges, not enough bulges in the proper places; do something about it. Instead of going off on a tangent and studying food and becoming a health buff; use the power of your mind. Let it be the builder it was meant to be. Implant thoughts of what you desire to be and discipline yourself to become what you desire to be. Let the body show what the mind and spirit know.

The mind will build from the materials with which it is given to build. Be disciplined, devoted and dedicated to the task of changing whatever does not appeal to you.

If you are obese and unhappy about it, stop feeding your mind the fact that you are fat. The mind will react and provide you with what you continuously tell it to be the Truth. It isn't so much what you eat as it is the attitude and beliefs you have when you eat. The mind is the builder of all exterior forces.

When you were a child someone may have been in control of your appearance. By that we mean that you may have been browbeaten about one of your unattractive qualities unmercifully. As a result of this browbeating, your mind has been programmed to believe that there is no chance for you to turn these unattractive qualities into assets. Example: A parent or a friend, "You're chicken breasted; you have an ugly nose; you'll be a hunchback when you grow up if you don't stand straight, etc." There are many ways to make a person feel unattractive; these are just a few of the examples. This is to help you understand that your mind has been programmed to believe that you have liabilities galore. Begin to change the liabilities into assets through a reprogramming process.

You could benefit from reprogramming yourself. The patterns and habits which have become a part of your daily existence need not continue. Stand before a mirror and see yourself surrounded by a golden aura extending outward about four feet from your body. Now visualize within that aura all that you desire to be. State positively all the assets which you desire to have in your life. State these desires firmly each day and let the power of the mind do it's work as a builder.

You, with discipline, dedication, and devotion can change your physical appearance, starting now. Pave the way for the mind to build anew. As the new you begins to surface, the fruits of your labors will be a shining example to others.

You may decide that this is vanity and somewhere in your early training the seed thought has been planted that to pay so much attention to the physical body is vain and unGOD-like. You have a physical body to live and move and have your being on the earth plane. Why shouldn't it be the best body in appearance and in function? Should you settle for anything less than the best? Why? Is it because you were trained to believe that way since youth? Then begin to examine your early beliefs and start the reprogramming process. You are happiest when you look pretty and feel pretty. You have beauty, though it may be hidden. Uncover the beauty and display it. Let the body show what the mind and spirit know.

While you are reprogramming yourself in this manner; your life will take on a new meaning. You will feel better, look better, function better and be happier than you have ever been. Others will notice the change and desire to know your secret. This is being a true light bearer; for joy and happiness attracts it's likeness and you will discover a new world opening up to you.

There are many examples of how you can change your life by using the power of the mind. You have been given just a few to whet your appetite. You will receive many more in your daily thoughts as you begin to use the power of your mind as it was intended to be used.

The Universal mind can only function in accordance with each link in the chain of the Universal mind. Help to build a better body, a better home, a better community, a better city, a better state, a better country, and a better world through the power of your mind. It all begins with one tiny step and once a person sees that the mind truly operates in the manner in which it is commanded to operate, those small steps may take on giant proportions in building a better world.

The visualization of what you desire is the most important phase of using mind power or prayer. Without a strong vision being held in your consciousness, the affirmations will not represent the desired change. If the desired change is not accomplished, know that it is because the visualization has been weak and hazy. Do not be discouraged but do begin anew with a stronger visualization.

Let the body show what the mind and spirit know. Have a happy day!

INCARNATION

Infinite spirit descends into matter
Weaving a birth pattern, setting the dye,
Relinquishing the freedom to wonder,
Converging with others in earth to lie.

The sun shall rise and the golden sun shall set
Traveling the Cosmos, combining the rays;
Each spoke of the wheel deciding the karat,
Gathering color and essences from the maze.

The moon reflects the light of the sun
Blending hues of different qualities,
Giving rise to adventure for everyone,
Bestowing more talents and abilities.

Mercury rides high in the spacious sky
Near the ruler of this solar domain;
From this planet in the Zodiacal pie,
Facts, equations and deductions doth rain.

Creative Venus, a beauty and a delight,
Blazes forth rays of shimmering hot pinks,
Enveloping all in harmonious light,
Forging peace and love as connecting links.

Strength is recorded in the history of man
To lie on a roadway directed by Mars,
Pebbled with affirmations of "I CAN, I CAN"
Flung to the four winds, the sea, and the stars.

Affluence and abundance come from this bubble
Of a benefice, the greatest in size.
Jupiter also can bring much trouble
To the unwary, unsure and unwise.

Solar taskmaster, beloved friend, -by far,
Saturn's trek yields problems and adversity,
Re-evaluating is this wandering star
And fearlessness brings early maturity.

Uranus, eccentric, a blessing in disguise.
Give to me more of these variables in life,
For living would be dull and without surprise
If the planet of change did not cause some strife.

Neptune, the greatest of planets on high;
The lowest the sinner, traveling to the depths
But wedded to Uranus, the all seeing-eye -
The highest the saint, rising to the heights.

*Regeneration is Pluto's glorious gift,
Rising from the ashes, a rebirth for man.
This slow powerhouse will divide and shift,
Annihilating earthlings well-ordered plan.*

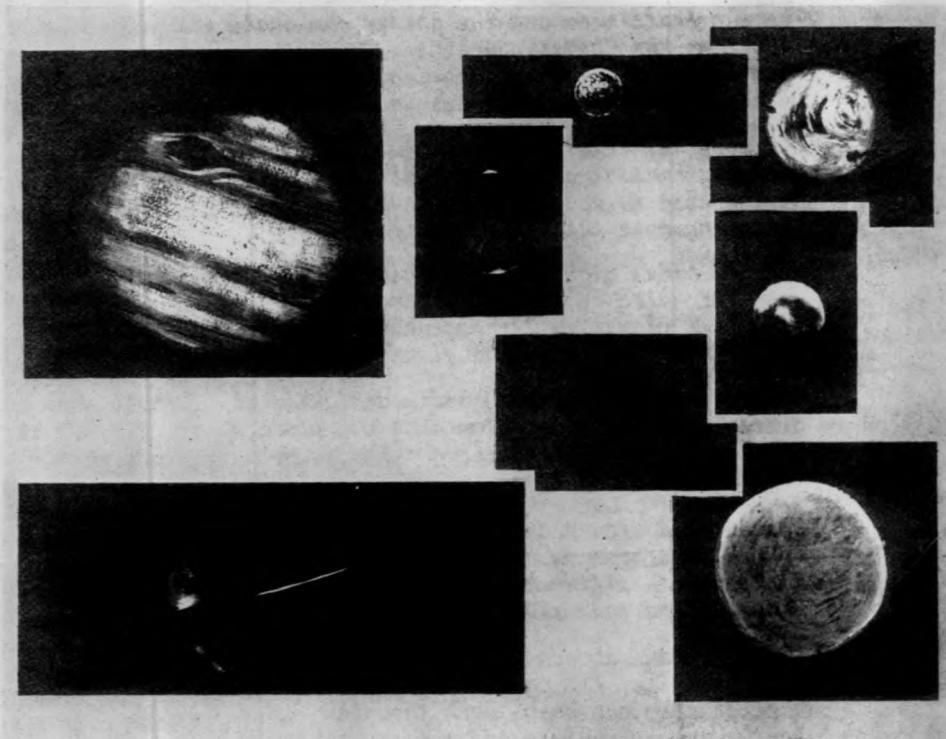

Illustration by Benny F

*The mysterious Lilith comes into view -
"The dark and foreboding moon," so many say.
Malfunction is her vibration and her hue
Strengthening all to subdue this ray.*

*Out of matter spirit again rises
To fly the Omniverse All Seeing,
Finished with sunsets and sunrises,
Free to merge with the Source of All Being.*

NEW PIONEERING SPIRIT

GAMALIEL: Greetings! I am known as Jamal to you. I was a teacher of the law when Jesus walked the face of the earth. I taught Saint Paul the law and wish to impart knowledge of the law to you.

Experience is the best teacher and you are each a student of experience. Of what those experiences consist depends on the individual student and his needs. Each student reveals his true light after many experiences, some of which have been of a negative nature. The negative nature manifests itself as a negative force. This force has been the motivating force for centuries. There is a new pioneering spirit within the very young and they may become students of a positive motivating force if they are trained in that manner from childhood. Society's rules and norms for today need not be society's rules and norms for the future. Each group of people who have made the decision to be pioneers have, indeed, helped change the norms in a given society.

Changes take place slowly and one must stand the test of time in order to go forward. Pioneering is not for the weak and feeble-minded student. It takes strength and a definite purpose to forge the way into a new era. The foundation must be strong and sturdy to withstand the elements of time. The groundwork is laid and each step is as a building block, one placed upon another to form a complete building. If one block is missing, the building is incomplete.

The pioneering spirit perseveres and remains disciplined, dedicated and devoted to the goals which have been set. By this action heshe shows, by example, that pioneering is worthwhile; thereby encouraging others who are of like mind to join forces.

Many students lack the fortitude to put into action their beliefs or philosophies. They are pioneers in spirit only. Once the plan has been set in motion, they are ready, willing and able to join forces with the pioneers.

When a pioneering venture is begun, the groundwork must be carefully planned and the wholeness of the plan must be definite. When a hazy plan is set into motion, the student discovers there are many set-backs through problems of one nature or another. The problems arise from hiser inability to see the wholeness and know precisely what steps must be taken to accomplish the goals.

When a plan is formed in haste, it allows problems to arise which may appear insurmountable and only through regrouping hiser resources and once again formulating a plan of a more precise nature can the pioneer succeed in hiser endeavor to change the norms and rules of a given society. A total commitment to a precise goal will allow a concentration which is unwavering to pave the road with a smooth rather than a bumpy surface.

The preciseness of the plan with the devotion, dedication and discipline to concentrate all of the energies in the student's life to persevere with patience and persistence will pave the way for the pioneering spirit to reach hiser goal within a lifetime.

GOLDEN TONE

Remove suffering and fighting from your consciousness.

THE LEGEND OF THE PROPHET

(As told to me by a very old Quichua Indian in Peru)

Long ago, about two thousand of your years, The Prophet came to Peru. He was a tall man, dressed in a white mantle with crosses all around the hem which came almost to His ankles. His hair and beard were as white as the snow on the highest mountain; his eyes were gray/green and held a look of great wisdom.

He stood on a hillside facing the Bay of Paracas, looking down on the surging thousands of my ancestors who had gathered from many miles to see him and hear him speak. He held his arm aloft in the Sign of Peace waiting for the crowd to become silent. As the people became still, the earth began to shake and a terrible rumble was heard. The people, fearing greatly, stared at one another while trying to still the crying children. In their eyes was a terrible fear and question.

The Prophet spoke saying: "Fear not my children. My Father, who rules all will not let harm come to you if you follow His law." All was still. Then The Prophet began a strange story, telling it with such clarity that all the people could almost see the events He told. His voice, though soft, carried so that the farthest could clearly hear every word. He told of a land across the ocean where all men were bearded even as he was. He told of their houses, their flocks, clothes, ships, and temples; even of their armies clad in metal.

He told of a man who had lived there who healed the sick, taught them and loved them. He spoke of the power of wicked people who bowed down before many idols. He told of how the priests hated and feared this man and planned to kill Him.

The priests finally had this man put in prison where he was tortured and beaten. Then of His being made to carry a heavy cross to the top of a hill where He was nailed to it, with a thief nailed to a smaller cross on either side of Him. He told of how knives had been driven through the palm of each hand to fasten Him to the cross and how the thieves cried out to Him for benediction.

Then He asked for a drink as the pain became too much to bear, and finally His head fell forward; He asked for forgiveness for all who had wronged Him.

No sooner had this happened than the day became as night and people ran screaming. The three figures swung back and forth in the fierce wind which swept the area.

Seeing this, the soldiers took Him from the great cross and a man who had been His friend came forth to claim Him.

The man had bought a tomb and to this He was carried. A huge stone was placed in front of the entrance so that none could disturb Him. Yet, when the women came weeping, behold, the stone had been rolled away and the tomb was empty. For a few days some said that they had seen Him and then He was seen no more.

So too, it is with me. When the earth began shaking just now, my Father bade it to become still. Thus does The Almighty protect His children. For you see, My Father had taken Him so that no more would He suffer from the ignorant ones who had failed to listen.

It was told that when He had finished speaking, the people could see the shadow of the three crosses on the hillside behind Him.

After He had gone, the people still saw the shadows of the three crosses so stone-masons carved them deeper onto the hillside. This was so that their children and their children's children would not forget.

If you go today, to the Bay of Paracus and look across to the hillside, you may still see the three crosses. The center cross is 600 feet tall and scientists stare at them in amazement, admitting their antiquity. But their meaning? Where did they come from? They can only wonder.

The strangest thing was yet to be told to me. Just before The Prophet left, He held up His hands in a benediction for all. There was a silence which could be felt as the people looked.

For on the palm of each hand, there was a cross.

So ended The Legend of The Prophet Who Came to Peru. Who was He? How did He get to far away Peru? Not even the legends can answer this. Perhaps you, in meditation, can fill in the blanks; perhaps you can provide the finish to the Legend of the Prophet.

GOD WALKS UPON EARTH

ST. GERMAIN: When you can see the GOOD of GOD evident in all things, you are well on the road back to a uniting with the WHOLE.

It is only through a deep and steady attunement that this greater understanding comes.

The necessary ingredients for this feast of life is to seek and search continually for answers to the problems and opportunities of earth existence that come your way.

In the seeking is the "Letting go and letting GOD". It is only when man himself decides that he must solve all things, build all things, and do all things that he cuts himself off from the GREATER CONSTRUCTIVE LIGHT.

When you say, "I AM a portion of thee, Father-Mother, allow your LIGHT to come through to help me in this situation", you open the door to Divine Solutions which are far superior to the 'solve', 'build' and 'do' of man-power. All of the Power of the Universe is at your 'fingertips' when you seek there for Greater Solutions than your human mind can supply.

I repeat, in the seeking and the asking Dynamos begin to generate magnetic lines of force, increasing the flow of the current and the voltage, bringing great surges of electrical power into your being for the running of your affairs.

As you plug into the Great Power Source of the Omniverse in this fashion, you build your own tolerance for Greater and Greater step-ups in voltage. Where once a few volts would have destroyed your physical vehicle, now you can tolerate amperage of great magnitude.

Realign yourselves with the Good of GOD and the Perfection of the Omniverse. Seek to be ONE in Consciousness with all who have gone before you. Seek attunement with the ALL-CONSCIOUSNESS. With this attunement, comes balance, harmony, stability, the blessedness of understanding and forgiveness, and the added bonus of learning to love all others as yourself. Sologa!

GOLDEN TONE: If I respect myself, others will respect me.

One cold winter night I sat within the circle of Light with eight companions. This night as usual we had spread on the prayer rug in the center of our circle the seven large quartz crystals we used for our power broadcast. All had been charged with solar radiation three times that week.

The big twenty-pound smoky crystal, impregnated with hundreds of fine hair-like rutile needles, sat upright in the center with the other six around it forming the nodes or points in a ring oriented with the compass. The massive rose quartz crystal was at the north, counter-balanced at the south by the amethyst. The golden citrine lay at the northeast; the clear quartz crystal with long thick rutile needles in it lay on the southwest point. On the northwest point lay the roundish clear quartz crystal with its massive optical twinning, balanced at the southeast point by the slightly-smoky, doubled-ended twin cluster.

Shortly after we had unified ourselves with the Christ Light, I saw the deep purple on my screen of vision change to a scene in a vast cavern of crystalline Light. I recognized it as the Cave of crystals, for I had been there many times before.

As I sat deep inside this crystalline palace of the Mountain of Truth, meditating on the dire necessity for man to learn the Cosmic facts of Life, the colors from the crystals and gems in the walls and dome of the cavern played like searchlights on the west wall. The twelve brilliant, sacred colors merged into a soul-exciting symphony of harmony on the wall, and the Light of Christ's White Radiance pulsed from every atom ("As It should from every Adam," I heard a Voice say.)

Then in a sudden flare up of blinding Light, the wall became crystal clear - a viewing screen of Life on Earth! It was a divine closed-circuit TV screen for monitoring the activities of mankind - everywhere!

I could see the homes of men - some the humble huts with dirt floors and cook-fires in the center, the smoke obscuring everything a man's height above the floor. Others were the mansions of the rich and proud or the varied but unpretentious dwellings of the average man, whatever his race or nation.

There were two startling and significant characteristics about every home, rich or poor. First, mankind one and all were busy with the dull mundane affairs of materialism. Second, every home - yes, every dwelling - was on fire and smoking! The flames were purple, tinged with other colors, but the smoke was not visible to physical sight!

On many occasions, I saw a thoughtful individual steal aside without fanfare and sit in quiet meditation. When this happened a ray of intense white Light came down from Above and enveloped the meditating one, whose aura then filled with the clean, beautiful colors of the rainbow.

The noisiest people were the pleasure-seekers, of course. And all of them, strange to say, were cross-eyed! Their self interest was so intense that they could not see beyond their own noses, let alone develop vision and perspective.

Next in noise-making and just as blind (these had no eyeballs in their sockets) were the war lords and money-changers. Their homes had something in common besides the ugly colors of the auras. Behind each dwelling was a large pen filled with "little people" who were used to satisfy the appetites of the war lords and money-changers.

A third type of human caught my eye because of their great numbers - men and women in religious attire (both the primitive and the more sophisticated types) who were preaching and teaching from a big red book, called Truth. The strangest thing, however, about this book was that it was torn in half! So I assume these people were only aware of half-Truth. These preachers and teachers had neither eyes nor ears and were talking continuously. Many were surrounded by people who had tape-recorders for heads. Consequently, no one could get the attention of these blind shepherds, and I noticed that their homes were being consumed by flames of purple, red and yellow.

Although each home was aflame with the purple fire, there were other colors in each individual fire. It was clear that the color of the flames in every home reflected the emotions in the hearts of the inmates - red for hate and lust, green for greed and envy, a dirty brown for filth, etc. The sacred transmuting fire of the Purple Ray was only present in direct proportion to the time and effort the home-dweller devoted to prayer and meditation.

It didn't take me long to see that the Purple Cosmic Fire consumed and transmuted the other colors. Peace, harmony and understanding seemed to predominate in those homes which only glowed in the Purple! How clear the lesson!

Peace was the child of individual effort and is to be found only in the heart of man! If there, it will be reflected in the outer affairs of the individual and his society! The outer world is but the mirror image of the inner nature of mankind.

A sense of urgency overcame me. I wanted to cry out, to awaken the 'walking-talking-dead' and to warn them their homes were on fire! The message was inside pressing to get out. So I relaxed and listened. Then, I heard It! - that one and only Voice from the depths of the Inner Sanctum, the Temple of the Living God! His Love flooded me. His Light restored my sight and added to my wisdom. I share His words with those who have eyes and ears:

"Beloved, hear thou My call! The days of burnt offering and sacrifice are behind us in the pagan past, but thou dost continue to prepare the sacrifices and burnt offerings each day in the fading twilight of this unique century! Know ye not that ye are the sacrifices, that ye and thy loved ones are to be the burnt offerings? Thy blindness to the Light of Truth, to our Father's Love and to the voice of anguish in thy souls has trussed thee like faggots for the fires on the altars of Amon and burn ye shall!

"In the crucibles of thy karmic stew shall ye cook and cook and cook, until all the dross of negation is burned away and the pure gold of thy Being stands forth in all Its radiance! Thou hast had this My message countless times in countless incarnations, but the noise of the world hath stopped thy ears. The tom-toms of pleasure beating in the market places and in the inner sanctums of the war lords of the black dragon have drugged thy intelligence into the sleep of death! Arise! Proclaim the Truth ye know, and ye shall be given more! Speak first to thine own soul! Trouble not thy brother with thy opinions! He has his own need, and I AM here to serve all!

"The times of Revelation are upon thee! The signs about thee proclaim the swift approach of the Day of Illumination, the Day of Purification, that Great and Terrible Day of the Lord - these being but a few of the names of thy momentous date with destiny foretold in all Scriptures and the legends of all peoples. And verily, I say unto ye with sorrow in My Heart, there be not enough harvesters to help Me reap the Golden Harvest, to bring My sheep into our Father's fold.

"Have mercy, O My Beloveds, on My sheep who browse in the wayward meadows and sleep the sleep of ignorance. Do not abandon them. Arouse them to the dangers of indifference and lukewarmness, for soon it shall be too late for anything but the fires of experience. If man of Earth could but see the glorious future that the Father hath planned for the children who love Him with all their heart, mind and soul, there would be such a rush of devotion to the path of Light and Truth that the hordes of the black dragon would reel with reverses.

"These are times for mighty actions. Pray without ceasing! Go feed My sheep! Be the Light for all who depend on thee, as I AM to thee! Light the way for others! Lift up those who fall, even as ye were once lifted when ye fell - for be not deceived, Beloved, there be none on Earth who hath never fallen at some time in some lifetime. Be thou therefore, about our Father's business. Sleep not in thy awareness, lest ye become a burnt offering on the altar of fools and a slave to Amon. Peace. I AM with thee night and day! SOLOGA!"

DISCOVERY

*Amid the whirling forces I stand confused,
Blinded, unaware, unknown and unused.
Combining or separating I know them not,
Pulling and repelling and yet move I will not.*

*In all my past they swept me up and down the land,
From place to place they drove me up and down the land,
From point to point they drove me up and down the land,
And nowhere was there rest or berth for mind or hand.*

*Combining or separating I know them now,
Pulling and repelling and so I will not bow,
In knowing the Law that governs this flux and flow
I will find the rhyme and reason to mix and grow.
Anchor deeply this great Law, put in my hand,
I will direct the movement up and down the land,
I need to revolve, turning with the force of the rays,
I will stand and face the Cosmic Sea and it's ways.*

*I will determine for myself the way to go.
I will upward move evolving through the sea and so
I will not travel over or up and down the land,
Nor turn in space, but onward I will move my band.*

PURIFICATION

LORD MICHAEL: Beloved Ones: I have given you some of the things that you are to do in order to purify yourselves and your Love, and tonight I would go into a more subtle phase of this purification. This phase has been presented to you in times past and has been rejected and misunderstood by many. At this stage of man's development when he is emerging into a higher consciousness it is necessary that you have a better understanding of this more subtle step in your growth.

This is the concept of sex. Humanity has become so engrossed and enamored with this phase of his life that he has misused it to the degree that it has become a stumbling block instead of the stepping stone which it was originally intended to be. Mankind had sunk so deeply into the lower digressions of hate, resentment, jealousy, egoism, etcetera, that sex was given to him to serve as an attraction to draw him back into a love for his fellow beings. Then he became so confused with sex that he even began to call sex Love. My dear ones, it is not as if sex were a sin but it is of the lower nature. I would have you to so Love that you can make no division among your fellow beings in the Love that you project. For if your Love is pure you cannot Love one of God's children more than another and you cannot but Love ALL life. My Channel is learning these lessons by experience, thereby making it possible for her to make these observations. She can give forth only as she watches the situations that present the lessons and grows by them.

And so it is with each of you. You must watch your experiences and try to fathom the meanings of them and why they were attracted to you. These experiences may seem trite or unimportant but if you will watch your feelings you will find little threads of resentment or other qualities of hate hovering around watching for the opportunity to take hold of you.

As your Love becomes more purified and intensified you will notice the need for sex diminishing. Have you noticed in children who were denied the Love that was so necessary to them, how they turned to sex as an antidote or substitute? Oh, my dear ones, how much understanding you need in these situations. It has been noted that when a little one was enamored with sex, that instead of understanding, he was given scorn and criticism. When, if only he had received Love, he could have been spared the agony that so many have had to endure because of ignorance and lack of Love in the adults around this little one.

Now, beloveds, I have not said that you must suddenly give up sex, more especially with your own mate. Growth does not come suddenly or by forcing yourselves to do something that you are not ready or prepared to do. Growth comes by constant watching and plucking the lower characteristics from your consciousness. You can always put yourselves in the place of another and see what kind of treatment you, yourself, would like to receive. Note the saying that "Light does not come by driving out the darkness but by merely lighting a candle". So dear ones, try to UNDERSTAND all situations, understand the need, the absolute necessity for LOVE. Observe the results when Love is missing. See the soothing and balm of Love when it is aptly applied to ANY situation. Soon you will notice that the need for sex is diminishing and your happiness and Love for your mate will be far more satisfying and life will be such a joy that you will wonder why sex was so important to you in the first place.

This is not a lesson or phase that you are expected to grasp and master in one big gulp. That is the way that confusion enters in. But be patient with others and soon you will begin to see progress. When you see this progress in yourselves taking place then you have cause for rejoicing. But to Love yourselves is also necessary; so be lenient with yourselves without being lax and always, ALWAYS ask your I AM Presence for help in these things and if you do not even have the desire to do or achieve something that you know you should, you can even ask for the DESIRE and then proceed with ANY good and worthy accomplishment. I leave you in PERFECT Love. I AM Lord Michael.

RESURRECTION

"Awake! Awake!" The SOFT VOICE CALLS,
"Oh, little seed within this heart,
A new day dawns! Awake and grow!
Now burst your shell and make your start!

"Arise! Arise from sleep within!
Come forth into this plane of sight!
The GOD-Self stirs! Oh, let it shine!
Let GOD-IN-YOU unfold in Light!

"Expand! Expand your consciousness!
Unite in brilliant company
With Hosts of Light who now express
On Earth a Higher Harmony!"

Oh glory - glory in the Light
That calls to us from pole to pole!
Oh, radiant Resurrection Way,
The outward blossoming of the Soul!

R.O.M.

The seed, of course, is the seed-atom. Its shell is the limitations imposed by the delusion of separation in material existence. "From pole to pole" refers to the whole being held in form between the positive and negative poles of our individuality.

JOY

JOY brings LAUGHTER. LAUGHTER evokes LOVE. LOVE unfolds the petals of the heart so that LIGHT may enter in - illumining the body - bringing new LIFE to the earth being - and perfect BALANCE. BALANCE is HARMONY, and where there's HARMONY, there is PEACE. So you can see how important JOY is.

(Excerpt from CAPTIVATING CLOWN)

by Christine Elana, S.L.A.

I AM IT'S MEASURE

Beloved, when great power is released, when you are strongly affected by something and your heart seems to burst with love, relax, know that I AM here and let our Oneness be. This is not a waste of force that could be consciously directed to some specific end (although at times such direction may be required) but is a strong transmuting force which is a joy to you and to Me and to the world. You can say it hastens evolution. As the rapture of our Oneness is experienced by even one, it is easier for all. Just as when one man ran the four-minute mile, he was followed by many. This has always been so, but never more than now when humanity is at the point of a break-through in consciousness.

The human mind would like to understand and regulate all that happens to you. Realize that its day is done and it no longer rules. The wiser ruler takes over as you and I blend and the wisdom of the ages flows through you without thought. Shrink not from this as an over-powering thought; it is fact but fact that has to be accepted before it can function freely. It is fact which you know is true when you are in the heights but which you discard in the depths. Accept it and you leave the depths and move to greater heights.

Why should you not glory in My Presence without finding reasons? The age of reason must follow all others and flow into the past and you can put it away as a childish thing. The age of Oneness, of Wholeness, comes into a greater measure of expression in the new Golden Age. I AM its measure. I contain it and yet I AM its enlarging goal. In your consciousness of Me you become not just love but you blend with the essence of all things. Therefore it is vital that you be conscious of Me, to unite all warring elements in yourself and out. The greater the power of our Love, the greater the unity; the more steadfast its quality, the more far reaching will be its effect.

Therefore welcome and turn to Me in all that happens, and seek Me in the silence to cement and be more conscious of this union. Above all, rejoice and so spread the force of Oneness.

PREJUDICE

Prejudice against groups, types, etc., is based on the error of thinking to treat a person as if he were the image you have projected onto him. Something happens to me; suddenly I find myself projecting internal dis gusts upon a person. Seemingly unable to shake this illusion which interferes with my ability to see him, I think to myself that maybe the solution is to treat him as if he actually were what this illusion presents to me. Every prejudice against persons comes about in this way. Every prejudiced individual has gone through precisely this erroneous train of thought at some point in his experience.

CHANNELING

BETELGEUSE: Tonight the idea is coming thru as we were discussing the Timelessness and Spacelessness of reality as it is known where I am now.

Some think that only thru the thought processes can one operate but this is too limited in thinking. Many species operate thru other forms as well. I'll get to the explanation later.

In this area of Timelessness, as it is known both now and later, in the after-life, we hear where there are those who can spend more hours in the sleep state than others can. Whether in the sleep state or in the wakeful state, all time is now.

There are, in various areas, systems which operate also on weightlessness; as in areas where gravity does not operate. In these areas, the forms are different than your forms are.

In the area of weightlessness, one would naturally think of heaviness, as an opposite condition but this does not exist.

It is difficult when first beginning to think in these terms on absence of Time, Space and Weight.

It is equally difficult to get ideas thru to a channel which hasn't experienced these conditions, or lack of conditions.

Yes, in astral traveling or out of body experience is weightlessness. It is also true of Spacelessness and Timelessness.

It is only the physical body that experiences weight, gravity and space. The mind and senses interplay with space, time and weight.

You are not the body or the mind! You use the mind and the body as vehicles for expression of consciousness!

In the world as it is now, it is most imperative that we all increase our awareness of our senses and our minds. We must make them worthy and workable instruments.

A well trained mind is essential for survival in any plane of thought. Well disciplined mind and senses are essential for daily living - for now and for always.

A mind that is allowed full sway, in it's way, is a mind run amuk. Only confusion and mayhem can result.

Look around you. It is not difficult to separate the disciplined from the undisciplined. One cannot have a disciplined mind and behave in a disorderly way. As you think, so you are.

We must stress this at all times, to keep tabs on our thoughts. Once you loose control of your mind, the way back to the state of "in control" is a difficult climb.

We must stress this point with all the force we can muster, for it is so very important that you know what you are doing; what ideas you are accepting and what thoughts you are producing and sending out. Remember - thoughts you send and thoughts you receive are real things. Make sure you get information correctly before you accept it as true. Question the source if it is new material.

Enter into the Chamber within daily to clear your mind of rubbish you have collected. Start again and try to keep to the Path of Clear Thinking.

OPEN LETTER #4 TO ALL MEMBERS OF SOLOGA

Blessed ones who are one in the ONENESS OF THE ONE, members of that Great Host of Light known as the Golden Legion of LIOLIA, we greet you in the Love and Companionship of THE ALL-HIGHEST and in the joy of our service together within our beloved Planet, the Christ Earth.

We are so happy over the reports that come from you concerning your joy and progress as individual groups working under the direction of those Great Ones who are our Sponsors and Teachers in this mission. Some who are seemingly isolated and work quite alone in the visible relate experiences of power and grandeur as they meditate or hold a solitary Vesper Service in their own homes. Do not doubt or be frightened or startled should you see or hear these great Beings of Light. Do not watch for them too intently for then you will tighten yourself within and they will find the communication harder. Ixutel, a great scientist of Light, often says his name over and over very forcefully in your mind. It is well to sit with pencil and paper and write down anything that comes into your mind at these times. As you write what comes the true message will begin to flow. At first it may be short and personal. It may be very loving since most of us need love so badly. Kut Humi and the Angel Gabriel often come. Jesus-Mary as one or in either aspect will make themselves known to you if you will receive them. Others who have addressed you through the SOLOGRAPHS or who are your own personal helpers will come as you develop when you need them or call especially for them. If you read the writings of some great Teacher you are apt to perceive the personal influence of the author. This is a matter of growth over a period of time but it is the right of every member of SOLOGA and will become manifest if you so desire. More will be given to help you in later letters.

We have been told again and again that our first and main reason for incarnating here at this time is to be open channels for the broadcast of higher vibrations of Light from the Higher Etheric Realms. In our "Good Morning" meditation before we ever get out of bed when we say our first words of Love and Gratitude to our beloved FATHER-MOTHER GOD MOST HIGH, THE ALLNESS OF THE ALL, we should always declare, "WE ARE the pure and unobstructed channel for the Life, Love, Light and Law of GOD to flow through us on all levels to properly modify and expand all units of consciousness within the Earth's aura." Then during the day we must try to stay as calm and relaxed as possible so that the flow may not be hindered by tensions in the body. Sometimes if we are highly developed channels for this outpouring, if we can be spared from our daily tasks and there is great need, we may be overcome with drowsiness and sleep for awhile so that our bodies may be completely relaxed and of use for the outpouring of greater power. During these times the Inner Total Self draws into deep meditation to help direct the power being sent to the area of crisis. We note that often we are used most strongly the day before the Prayer Peak given in the current SOLOGRAPH. No matter how unworthy, unlearned or undeveloped you may think yourself to be in this activity, put all hesitations aside and right now do your level best. If you do no more than think, "Light, Light, Light! Love, Love, Love! Peace, Peace, Peace!" you will be of great service, your efforts will be blest and you will find other things coming to your mind to say and do. The oftener you turn your attention to this the greater your service and development and the larger the company of Beings of Light who will work through you and with you.

No one ever works alone for the Hosts of Light have converged upon this area to assist in the expansion of consciousness needed throughout the whole Solar System. IMMANUEL-IMMANUELA, GOD-WITH-US, or GOD-IN-ACTION through us is our goal of manifestation. Know that all of SOLOGA, visible and invisible, enfolds you constantly in loving thought and assistance. Together WE ARE the Light of GOD for this area! ALLELUIA! SOLOGA!

WATERS OF SPIRIT

Our soul is a fountain sealed within an iron coverlet; when we tire of living within this shell and come to the realization that something greater than ourselves exists; when we begin to unseal the seams binding us ---- so Divine Mind can penetrate and fill us with the Truth. It is the truth to set us free, leeting the beautiful waters of our fountain unleash their knowledge and spill out to flow so that others may grow from our wellspring of Truth.

That which you desire and then seek, will come to you, when you have taken authority over self.
