ARCHANGELS MICHAEL AND ARCHAI FAITH

Archangels maintain the feeling nature of the Creator for the benefit and sustenance of humanity. They each manifest a particular attribute of God. The most well-known of the Seven Mighty Archangels, who are the Messengers of God, is the Lord of the Archangels, Prince Michael, who is the Archangel of Faith and Protection. He is the ruler of the angelic kingdom and a representative of the First Ray.

Of all the Archangels, Archangel Michael leads the largest legion of Angels. He has beautiful golden hair and blue eyes and is a magnificent embodiment of Faith and Trust in God.

Lord Michael has often responded to the needs of people on Earth who are in emotional, spiritual or physical distress. Since the beginning of humanity's incarnation on Earth, he has chosen, of his own free will, to be the protector of men in Faith in his God. He or one of his heavenly helpers rushes to Earth to bring help to anyone in distress who desires His assistance.

When the first root race came forth to inhabit the Earth, the Beloved Lord Michael accompanied them for their protection. It was Archangel Michael who first touched the Earth. The angelic kingdom was given the task of watching over the Spiritual nature of humanity, nurturing it and helping it develop the inner spark of Divinity into the flame of conscious mastery. The angelic host was chosen to assist humanity and radiate the Love, Faith and Will of the Father into the atmosphere and aura of the evolving God consciousness of each human being.

The Angelic Kingdom was placed under the leadership of the Seven Great Archangels who had come from the Central Sun of our system. The Angelic Host was promised that, through their connection with humanity and the Elemental Kingdom, they would in time develop into Archangels and become protective forces in systems of worlds not yet born from the consciousness of future Sun Gods.

The "Holy Innocents" (the first humans) first incarnated in the area of the Great Teton mountain range in Wyoming, USA. Many centuries later, after the "stragglers" from other planets had arrived, bringing with them their disharmony (karma), the Archangel Michael and His Host of Angels withdrew more and more to their place of light, the Temple of Illuminated Faith and Protection.

Lord Michael's Temple is located in the Canadian Rockies in the Banff area of Alberta. It is now an ethereal temple, although it was physically tangible long ago. The temple is circular in shape, huge in size, and has four entrances - one in each direction. It is made of a beautiful golden substance studded with magnificent blue sapphires, and its dome is adorned with a sculpture of Lord Michael.

From this focus, Lord Michael and his legions have continually served, watched over and protected humanity. Before human creations were brought forth, it was natural for man to move among the Angelic Host, to speak and serve with them, and to take their advice and that of their leaders. From all parts of the earth, men came to receive the powerful emanations of this Great Archangel, which gave them new strength to persevere in their respective ministries and filled their souls with His Faith in the ultimate realization of the Kingdom of God on Earth. Archangel Michael uses the Canadian Mounted Police as his focus on the physical plane.

He has a similar focus in southern Germany and a light site in the etheric realm over Central Europe. Archangel Michael's helpers are constantly on missions of protection, grace, salvation and redemption. The Temple of Archangel Michael continuously sends the ray of absolutely unshakable Faith in God through the emotional, mental, etheric and physical substance of the planet and its associated evolutions. At night, all those who wish to free people from illness, mental exhaustion and all kinds of human limitation come to this temple so that they can regain courage and strength to continue to exercise their chosen service to the Earth.

When students call upon Archangel Michael and His Legions of Angels, they respond and free humanity from the burden that it has placed upon itself and that is sapping its life. Some of these mass energies (mass entities that operate on the astral plane) are accumulations of energy of enormous proportions. A person who is caught in the energy of such an entity because he has come into contact with it through similar thoughts and feelings, does not have enough spiritual vitality, wisdom, strength and courage to free himself from the shadows of desires and passions. They are the chains that bind man. If such a person calls upon Archangel Michael to be freed (cut loose) from such an energy, he and his legions will come to his aid.

He is also known as the Angel of Liberation, for He liberates life streams from negative human creation with his Sword of the Blue Flame. When the stragglers came to Earth with their destructive thoughts and feelings, he invented the Sword of the Blue Flame as an aid to his centuries-long service.

Archangel Michael has been working in the Earth's atmosphere since the Fall, cleansing the atmosphere of destructive human creations, also known as "psychic substance." From 1939 onwards He served in this capacity for twenty hours a day. In the years between 1950 and 1960 the service of the Beloved Archangel Michael was increased from twenty-two hours to twenty-four.

When Archangel Michael enters the astral realm, He wears his full armor, helmet and everything else to work against the destructive forces. He will stay until the earth is freed from them. Mother Mary was able to prepare for Her mission to be the mother of Jesus with the help of His Teachings.

After the Fall of Man, Archangel Michael's Blue Flame Angels created an impassable ring around the Earth's atmosphere, surrounding the planet at a certain distance. It consists of row upon row of the living, breathing bodies of the Blue Flame Angel Legions. This was designed to prevent the Earth's deformities and chaos from polluting interstellar space. These Blue Flame Angels belong to the First Ray, and they are great beings who wield enormous light power.

Since there are no disharmonious vibrations in the entire universe except those caused by the evolution of the Earth, these angels do not need to protect the Earth from the intrusion of disharmonious conditions from interstellar space. Archangel Michael appeared again on November 15, 1938, for the first time since his service in France through Joan of Arc. That night he began his service to America. He also placed the knowledge of the use of the Sword of the Blue Flame and his Shield of Protection in the hands of the students.

When asked, Archangel Michael helps students today to distinguish between true and false channels. Serapis Bey told the students of the Bridge to Freedom: "Beloved Archangel Michael protects the serious and sincere student from receiving false messages from the invisible plane. These so-called messages can mislead trusting, non-judgmental students into accepting messages as divine that in reality come from unascended beings who enjoy having fun with the gullible. If such a 'visit' occurs, ask for the protection and guidance of Archangel Michael."

Lord Michael is one of the greatest friends humanity has ever had. He is always in the forefront trying to obtain relief for the human race. In December 1953, Saint Germain explained to the students:

"LORD MICHAEL HAS RECEIVED A DISPENSATION THAT YOUR IMMEDIATE FAMILY MEMBERS NO LONGER NEED TO INCARNATE, BUT ARE PERMITTED TO COMPLETE THEIR LIFE'S WORK IN THE OCTAVES OF LIGHT."

To make this possible, Ascension Temples have been created on the inner planes in preparation for their Teaching. These provide ways and means of atoning for destructive karma without the need for reincarnation on Earth. This dispensation applies to the relatives of those students who have begun the Bridge to Freedom Activity and have served it to the best of their ability to spread the Light as widely as possible among humanity. It applies to relatives of the students back to the fourth generation.

Persons who pass through the transition called "death" still carry with them the imperfect tendencies and habits of their thoughts and feelings. Your calls to Lord Michael to help them, will free them on the "other side" and enable them to be taught on a higher level.

It will be extremely helpful for everyone to focus their attention on the Temple of Faith and Protection at night before falling asleep. Ask Lord Michael to FREE YOU FROM THE CAUSE AND CORE OF VARIOUS NEEDS AND LIMITATIONS AND FROM ALL THAT OPPRESSES YOU.

This will allow the forces of Light to enter your world more quickly and bring you the perfection your heart desires.

Archangel Michael is usually dressed in blue and gold. His banner depicts, on a blue background, a golden sun surrounded by the figures of the Seven Archangels. September 29 is known as Archangel Michael Day. His electronic pattern represents the head of a winged cherub.

The theme song of Archangel Michael's Place of Light is included in the "Soldiers' Chorus" from the opera "Faust." In the book "The Seven Archangels Speak," students were informed of a specific melody before each Archangel spoke. In several cases, this melody was later identified in the "Bridge to Freedom Journal" as the theme song of the respective Archangel. Accordingly, it is reasonable to assume that the song "Holy, Holy, Holy" contains the personal theme song of Archangel Michael and Archai Faith. (Divine complements have the same theme song.)

Archai Faith embodies the divine quality of faith that lives in every human heart. It is said that without vision, humanity perishes. It is also true that without the divine quality of faith, it cannot survive.

Archai Faith tells us (Journal of the "Bridge to Freedom," Sept. 1955): "If man could realize the truth of Jesus' statement, 'According to your faith it shall be done unto you,' he would realize what a powerful force the quality of his faith is, and how the state of his consciousness continually determines the manifestations it produces."

Beloved Faith continued: "Attention is a mental faculty, constantly directed by the mind, and it is the channel through which the energy of God flows. Attention carries, on the beam of its own magnetic force, the emanations of the sender to the object upon which the beam is directed.

FAITH IN GOD SHOULD BE THE PERMANENT STATE OF EVERY BEING, EVERY SECOND AND FOREVER.

When the developing ego is so impregnated with the inner conviction that GOD IS THE ONLY POWER THAT CAN ACT, then the faith of such a person permanently enlivens the flow of God's power through all phenomena."

Apostle Paul said, "Faith is the substance of things hoped for and the assurance of things not seen." Faith is a quality that must be cultivated. Conscious cooperation with one's Higher Self and complete trust in its power is mastery. Jesus' power lay in his belief in his own I AM Presence.

Archangel Michael and Archai Faith work closely with Elohim Hercules, the Elohim of the First Ray.
