SPIRITUAL MAGAZINE

OF PHENOMENA

SPIRITUAL—ETHEREAL—PHYSICAL.

EDITED BY

J. ENMORE JONES.

Who are Spiritualists? They who affirm:—

1st.—God is a Spirit.

2nd.—Angels “are Spirits sent forth to minister,” visibly and invisibly.

The joint action of those intelligent powers produce the family and national incidents called Special Providences.

3rd.—A knowledge that Man passes out of his body a living intelligent substance.

4th.—A knowledge that under certain conditions many such can and do visit, and also as “Ministering Spirits” assist the families they are connected with by ties of affection.

SPIRITUALISTS in great numbers are connected with all the Churches of the Empire. Their knowledge vitalizes their perceptions of the Deity.

PREFACE.

1877.

SPIRIT-LIFE AND POWER.

FACTS and arguments are in this volume. The faith of many in verities of spirit-life and power, as registered in the New Testament, is confirmed by the modern facts that so aptly prove that the Lord God Almighty is the same yesterday—to-day and to-morrow. His mannerism of action is unchanged.

Let us, through the phenomena, perceive that communion with ministering spirits is our privilege, and enjoy it. Let it be only with the pure, as hereditary instinct to criminality is the birth-curse of many around us. Let us by careful earnestness avoid that division of personal minds, and seek for and enjoy and absorb hereditary goodness, whether in or out of the physical body; so that those hereditary instincts within us may be strengthened.
