

STARCRAFT

Solar Light Retreat

VOL. 8, Nos. 2 & 3

SUMMER/FALL 1973

STARCRAFT CONTENTS — SUMMER/FALL 1973

Editorial: Flying Saucer Flap — Marianne Francis	1
Council of Seven	2
Comets: Time is Running Out — Ray-mere	5
Pray for Lucifer, Son of the Morning — Miss Francis	7
Wherein Do I Stand — Clytron	8
Art Department: Aura — Claude Charlebois	11
New Age Symbol	11
What Is Reality — Marianne Francis	12
Do Plants Respond To Thoughts — K.M. Keller, B.A.	15
I Listened But I Did Not Understand — Ray-mere	16
Easter Morn — Wah-he-na	19
The Light Wanderers of Space — Clytron	22

Director and Editor	Marianne Francis, Dr. Sp. Sc.
Assistant Editor	Lorraine Kahn
Research Director	Aryol Littet, PhD.
Guest Science Editor	Kenneth Kellar, B.A. GCE
New Age Artist	Claude Charlebois
Cover Artist	Francois Beaulieu

Published by Solar Light Retreat, a non-profit organization. (Copyright reserved. Write for permission to reprint).

Telephone first if you plan to visit. Phone: 855-1956 (Code 503).

The New Age Program is —

TO LOVE, UNDERSTAND, EDUCATE, RELIEVE SUFFERING, CREATE BEAUTY

Address all correspondence to: Solar Light Retreat
7700 Ave. of the Sun
Central Point, Ore.
97501

EDITORIAL

FLYING SAUCER FLAP

Marianne Francis, Dr. Sp. Sc.

Flying Saucers are with us once again — so say the news stories — as if they ever left! However, there are undoubtedly reports of sightings coming in from many areas, including the Governor of one state. Governors can hardly be called 'kooks' and so one more reliable witness is added to the list of those who have seen UFO's in the skies of Earth.

Something seems to be different about this 'flap'. It is being treated very seriously and a new breed of interviewers appears to be emerging whose minds are fresh and uncluttered by the prejudices of the past. Eager to know just what is happening, they ask questions a contactee yearned to be asked ten years ago.

Why do we have a plethora of sightings right now. Why now? This editor is going to theorize and present two ideas in this article.

One: A spectacular comet, named Kohoutek is appearing in the skies this Fall and is expected to cover one sixth of the sky by Christmas. A solar eclipse also takes place on the 24th of December.

Two: The Middle East has again erupted and subsided and by the time of this printing may have again erupted. This was more violent and longer lasting than the six day war of some years back.

What does all this mean? Comets were considered by the ancients to be bringers in of strange happenings — often thought of as evil. This comet may well bring in high energies yet at the same time, remembering what the Brothers have said about the double effect of such energies, these could cause physical disruptions on the planet perhaps with weather, tides, earthquakes, faults, etc.

The situation in the Middle East has long been the tinder box for World War III, or shall we call it Armageddon. "And when ye shall see Jerusalem compassed with armies, then know that the desolation thereof is nigh."* This is being quoted along with other scriptures by Bible students quite often these days. The end of what: The end of the world? This I greatly doubt, but the end of the world as we know it — war, destruction, hate, violence, greed, lust, selfishness, egotism, coldness of heart, materialism, false pride, and self glorification. The end of that world is long overdue and MUST come if we are to have a new age of Light and Love, compassion, understanding, and true sharing . . . a world of brotherhood.

The Christ of Love and compassion who has been mocked and cast aside by fools and scoffers as a weakling, an idealist and a martyr came to this planet of sick souls on a mission of Love and redemption. The world of men has yet failed to understand that true strength lies not in violence and aggression but in enduring Love: That compassion and understanding reach forth eternal arms and the suffering which endures for a day is a small price to pay for an eternity of bright reality.

Could it not be that the Brothers from other planets, knowing of these eternal verities have chosen to emerge once more in spectacular fashion, at a time of great crisis on Earth. The next few months should tell us much.

* Luke 21:20

“When the ‘self’ constantly seeks identification, it is a sense of separation from others.”

Way of Light Newsletter, Oct. ‘73

COUNCIL OF SEVEN

Greetings in the Light of the One Radiant Being. We who communicate with you at this time do so from the highest levels of Hierarchical Command. We do so in order to stabilize the vibratory conditions now in being through this, our channel, and this Center of Light.

Know ye not, our brothers, our sisters, that where Light is, there always has followed darkness? It has been so since time immemorial upon the planet Earth. Through cycle upon cycle, and aeon upon aeon, the energies of Light have ever attracted the shadowed forms who seek to steal of the Light, its essence, that they may subvert its purpose and utilize that energy for those whom they serve at this time. Ye have been warned through many many years that there would come a period of great chaos, and ye listened and ye talked of it and ye knew not. Now in sadness of heart, ye have remembered that it was stated that a period of great chaos would come, and even the Children of Light themselves would be swayed as by a mighty wind, and would be bent to the ground as a tree which bends before the storm and nearly breaks. Think ye not that some have not broken, and think ye not that the battle is yet won. But the forces of Light, the Hierarchical Forces of the Hosts of Heaven, of the Space Commands which we serve, represent, speak for, are not called in vain. Neither may their name be used, nor their power subverted to the forces of darkness, though many have tried. The battle which wages at this time upon the planet called Earth, is a battle which has long waged in the etheric realms and is lowering now in density as it was told ye that it would do. Ye have listened with your ears, but ye have not listened with your understanding or would'st ye have known of the severity of those tests, of those trials, of those tribulations.

Now we bid thee listen not with thine ears alone, nor see with thine eyes, but know with thy understanding and with thy souls! that there is only one sure foothold left upon the planet Earth for the Children of Light, and it is the link within, with the Divine Source. No longer may any reliance be placed in outer form or the appearance of things, for the appearance of things is the delusion, it is the chaos which manifests, it is the storm which wages, and the battlefield of the spirit. There is only one foothold which is strong and that is the link with Divine Source, and through that link with Divine Source, with each other. For no man standeth alone, and no man is an island unto himself, and if he thinks that he is, then he will fall in the mud and the mire of his own imaginings.

Reach upward unto the Divine God-self, the link with the Eternal Being from which thou were created, and from that point reach out each to the other, linking in love, in service, in compassion, and understanding, and from those links of Divine Energy will the lower being (which is the personality or human self) be sustained. Visualize this as a web of light above your head, the Light line reaching upward to the High, or God-self, and linking from that point, as a web of Light, with all other high selves and down again to the human self. These Light lines, these webs of Light are fed by the Hierarchical Councils and the Hosts of Heaven. The Forces of the Archangel Michael and His Golden Helmeted ones, wage the battle in the ethers now, against diabolical forces of darkness and evil, ancient beyond the knowing of man, rising from the very depths of the planet, even as steam rises before the sun, that the Earth may be fair and sweet again.

Think ye not that ye stand not in the battlefield, or that blood does not stream from the hearts of those who are pierced by the spears, and the lances of those who wield them on behalf of the dark hosts. For those points which are vulnerable within each of you are the points in which you will find the arrows and the lances and the swords have found their entrance. Not one among ye exists upon the plane of Earth without a point of vulnerability, for by that means ye are human and not Divine. And if ye cry out, "Know, my God, that I am not Divine, that I am only human”, then know that thy God cries out to thee, “Rise to thy Divinity, if thou wouldst save thyself”.

A battle wages, and ye who have pledged thyselfs, (not the masses, for they enter under a different category), but ye who have pledged thyselfs as Servers of Light, walk with the armies and the Hosts of Heaven into the field of battle, and ye cannot cry, “I am only human”. Ye can only put upon ye the armor of God, and clothe thyself with Light, and call upon the Hosts of Heaven to enclose thee with Light. For Light alone, thy Divine Self alone, is the salvation and the shield, the substance which will sustain thee. The world is now the “appearance”. It is no longer the reality, for the reality lies within. It lies within, in that that which man may say to thee is the dream or the fantasy. Yet it is not so. They live in the dream and the figment of their imagination, and the fantasy. They live in the nightmare which is the “appearance” and the delusion and the shadow, and this shadow passes away. Fast now it gathers itself in unsubstantial wraith-like form, and it moves and it writhes in its agony of death, and its shroud is dying because it no longer has life within it. And in its dying, its convulsions are agonized, and it dies hard. Yet it dies.

Pay no attention to the delusion or to the “appearance” or that which is of maya, but cling thou, Oh Children of Light, Oh Servers of the New Dawn, to the Light which is eternal, to the reality which is birthing. For ye shall see that reality and it shall be thine in joy and in love, and a sweetness and delight of the soul, and the mind, the emotions, and the flesh. All these are thine, if thou but remain true to the spirit. Nothing is denied thee, Oh Children of Light, yet thirsteth thou not for the delusion, or the “appearance”, but only for the sustenance which comes from on High.

These things which we have said to thee upon this night come with the authority of the Council of Seven, the Hierarchal Host and those Commands which work in conjunction with those agencies. Our thoughts are transmitted. The imagery which we impart to thee is to reach deep into the subconscious mind, and to assist in removing the delusion of darkness with which ye and the earth-plane are encompassed. It’s been said (and it has become trite) upon your Earth, that it is ever “darkest before the dawn”. Ye this is the truth, and know that as the darkness has come, the dawn also must break. A world of reality is birthing and ye are as midwives unto its emergence. Hold in consciousness to the banners and to the Armies of Light, link with each other, and sustain. Send forth Light to those who falter, to the one who is not here, but who fights his own battle within his own soul. And judge not that ye be not judged.

In the Light which is supernal we leave, yet have we not left, but are ever present. Call on us in need, receive of the energy and remain in the Light.

Via Telethought – 20 May, 1972 – Channel: Marianne Francis

Trippers and askers surround me,
 People I meet, the effect upon me of my early life or the ward and city I live in, or the nation,
 The latest dates, discoveries, inventions, societies,
 authors old and new,
 My dinner, dress, associates, looks, compliments, dues,
 The real or fancied indifference of some man or woman
 I love,
 The sickness of one of my folks or of myself, or ill-doing or loss or lack of money, or depressions or exaltations, Battles, the horrors of fratricidal war, the fever of doubtful news, the fitful events;
 These come to me days and nights and go from me again,
 But they are not the Me myself.

- Walt Whitman
 Leaves of Grass

COMETS: TIME IS RUNNING OUT

Ray-mere

Greetings in the Light of Our Radiant One.

We of the XY7 command greet you. In the event of cataclysmic conditions manifesting upon the planet Terra there will be a major shifting of energy patterns. (These patterns are transducers around the axis of the planet.) Focal points of Light descent or stabilization areas will, as previously stated, be acting as anchor points to hold the planet against a major swing or 'flip' of the axis as you have termed it in your vocabulary.

To digress briefly . . . we would advise that all Light centers be aware of the possibility of a major shift in the energy patterns due to the entrance of foreign bodies - namely comets - into the orbital path of the Sun. Increased solar flare activity may be expected at the time of the comet's ingress to this system. This in turn will bring about the unbalance of the magnetic field which already is reversing itself due to the reversal of the Sun's magnetic polarity which has already taken place. The reversal of magnetic fields or polar opposites on the planets most closely orbiting around the Sun will be those most disrupted in their paths. The resultant action on these will throw a new realignment into being and will put a increasing strain upon the heavier planets in the outer orbits around the Sun, the Sol of this system.

Much of what we have been transmitting through this, our channels of communication, has been to prepare many individuals for the changes which come. But the preparation is far from complete and many things which should have transpired on the surface of your planet and in the missions of those previously prepared has been disrupted by the ever engulfing negativity of the shadowed ones upon planet Earth or Terra as it is known to us of the Space Commands.

The stabilizing energies or beams which we are attempting to lower into the very soil of your planet have been interfered with and much is yet undone. Time is running out and events, as your peoples have a saying, 'wait for no man'. We of the Space Commands, the XY7 in particular, now await a major event which will affect the lives of many of your peoples. Do not doubt but that all attempts are being made to bring about a resolution of a most difficult problem and dilemma...that of the deliverance of the planet and a peoples beset with many dangers.

I, Ray-mere, who speak with you on this occasion do so with a full awareness of the tremendous difficulties which are besetting your peoples and yourselves in your attempts to remain stabilized against the approaching magnetic disruptions. The entrance of foreign bodies into and through this solar system cannot but have a very disruptive effect upon a planet already beset with old woes, an unbalanced economy, and a grave lack of spiritual values. It is our avowed intention to bring about a resolution of the conditions of which we spoke. How we may bring this about and at what point in time this may be accomplished lies still in the balance and will only be determined from a level far beyond our own understanding. Suffice it to say, we are at the mercy of a higher power and we have found that Infinite One in his most radiant Light does not fail us nor fail to send that help which is needed. I am speaking on two levels at this time, for what I have to say is not merely of an impersonal but a personal level and does not apply to the macrocosm but also to the microcosm or the individual within crisis even as the planet within crisis.

The point of decision or resolution comes only when all human efforts are exhausted and but one source remains - the Infinite One who does not fail the creations of his own fashioning. Never have we known our prayers to go unanswered or a higher wisdom fail to infuse us with new determination to overcome the problems which present themselves. These problems are indeed of a nature which might strike terror into the hearts of less souls but they are not insurmountable. They are not of a nature which gives triumph into the hands of the followers of Satanic forces. But in our determinations we have learnt that it is only when mortal man (and by mortal man we refer also to ourselves, for are we not mortal!) acknowledges his total dependance upon a higher power for the sustenance and the sustainment of his being, that such a power steps in and solves instantaneously those problems upon which the most brilliant of our minds have struggled in vain.

Our mission is indeed with man of Earth, with his struggles and his stumblings with his loves and his hates, his pride and his humbleness, his humiliations and his risings from the mud of Earth to the stars of the far galaxies. How can we, who know of that Infinite One's Light, know aught but that it is the ultimate expression of order in what may appear chaos, and salvation from what may appear to be disaster. We have observed that the men of Earth, many times, have to lose all that they thought they possessed in order to find the one pearl of inestimable price, the source of their own beingness and from that point their oneness with all that is.

Our Light, our brothers-is with you and our gratitude for the service which you render in vision and in the goodness of your own being. Do not, however, underestimate the forces which have pitted themselves against the salvation of Earth and the weight which has been thrown into such endeavors. We are fully cognizant of the weariness of the one who is our channel. We have stated that help is on the way and from that point may come the greater Light. Even as in the one so it is in the many, even as in the microcosm, so in the macrocosm. Even so is it.

Via Telethought - 14 August, 1973 - Channel: Marianne Francis

PRAY FOR LUCIFER, SON OF THE MORNING

I feel very strongly that this planet, Terra, is in grave danger of total destruction from forces of great evil. This evil is not Communism though it is a tool, nor is it Capitalism, though it too is a tool. But it is that which lies behind the facade of many "isms": The faceless, changeless force of evil which walks in many guises yet remains constant to its own malevolent motivations.

A strange impression has been coming to me, growing increasingly strong of late. It is that we must pray for Lucifer that he may return to God taking with him his legions of darkness.

It has been stated that evil cannot enter in where the Light is strong enough to act as a shield. Visualize, if you will, a planet designed to be destroyed by an evil force yet praying for the soul of the very being who plans its demise. Surely the Christ consciousness in every soul on this planet, who could so pray, would express in a blaze of Light. Could not this Light raying from the planet draw down the protective wings of great and mighty archangels of God?

“Even Lucifer, Son of the Morning must someday return to God.” So stated the Devic beings. May we not send Light and compassion to the soul of Lucifer evoking from it that lighted core which once was a great and mighty force for God?

I urge you all: FOR GOD AND MANKIND. PRAY NOW FOR LUCIFER, SON OF THE MORNING, THAT HE MAY RETURN TO GOD.

Marianne Francis

Go beyond reason to love;
It is safe. It is the only safety.

Thaddeus Golas

WHEREIN DO I STAND?

Clytron

I who am called Clytron come in consciousness with you travelling in the body of Light throughout the galaxies of God. I commune with you again on this occasion that my consciousness may be blended with thine own, that my thoughts may reach into the innermost recesses of your minds. Much time has elapsed since I spake with thee and my wanderings have led me in the body of Light far from the planet Earth. Yet I come again in consciousness to speak of new beginnings, of greener pastures that lie beyond the fields of Earth, of a planet far out in another galaxy wherein I have spent much time and have discoursed with those peoples and have told them of the small planet called Terra; the planet which stands on the brink of such mighty changes that its peoples tremble in their innermost beings knowing of the forces which stand unleashed within the bowels of the Earth. I spake with these peoples of these things and they marvelled much at my discourse for they understood little of the complexities of the Man of Earth and his dilemmas and his gropings, of his ascending and his descending and his searchings.

Few peoples indeed stand as do the peoples of Earth on the brink of a time of such mighty challenge and little understanding is evinced, concerning the nature of a planet called Terra, in a far distant galaxy among those peoples. Yet it has seemed to me in my wanderings and my searchings for new truths, that I perceived in the simplicity of their lives a lesson that I might bring as I touched again in consciousness the mind of this one who is my channel of Light. I find much change since last I discoursed with thee and I find a deepening of the shadows that lie across the face of this planet spinning so greenly in its orbit about the Sun of this system. I thought much, as I returned travelling swiftly in the body of Light and the craft of Light, of the simplicity of the ways of these peoples on a small planet not unlike thine own in that far distant galaxy, and it seemed to me that the key to much of Man's dilemma upon this planet called Earth lies in the complexities of his ways, the deviousness of his thinking and the distance he has placed between himself and the source of his being, the One Creator. It would seem to the men of Earth that those peoples with whom I spent much time live as children of nature. But in their very simplicity they are not as Earthmen would view maturity, concerning the struggles and the dilemmas of existence. Yet I have asked myself if these struggles and these dilemmas would indeed exist even on the planet Earth, a planet of much complexity, were it not that Earth man has wound about himself a cocoon of many coverings, a shroud from which he has hidden himself away from the Light. And he has told himself in his philosophies and his musings that he is indeed a highly intelligent being – crowned with a diadem of woe! And if he could but find his way back to the simplicity of his more childlike self and a trust in the One Creator, that most radiant being, and finding that pathway, hold forth his hands seeking to know of the truths which are eternal, the Love which is limitless: And in finding these things, would find an absence of strife, his complexities forgotten in a new found joy of spirit, a bursting forth of the Love which is within his being. And the pathways which are shadowed that he has created for himself, would seem as a maze constructed indeed by a child who has wandered far from his parents and lost in that maze perceives no longer the reality which lies outside of the many pathways which lead nowhere.

In my musings, I who am called Clytron in your understanding, have thought that the child which Earthman is in reality, thinking himself a man, might in becoming a child truly find that his maturity has arrived. For that which is simple in essence leads most directly to truth, and that which is complex to disaster. If Earthman would but perceive the direction of his travellings, he would find that it ends in an abyss. But if he would retrace his footsteps unto the source of his beingness, and perceive in the simplicity of a child that he was created in Love and in Light and in Beauty, he would indeed find that his world might become that radiant star it was once intended by the creator of all beings to become.

In the long shadows which fall now across the face of thy planet I perceive the end of a cycle and the rising sun has told me the new cycle which dawns will be of great magnificence. If indeed one must die in order that the other may be born, then surely so must it be.

In my discourse to thee therefore, upon this occasion if I would bid thee be anything I would bid thee be as a little child, for has not one who was great in consciousness who came to thy planet many centuries ago told thee also of this? How has thou heeded his words or his parables or those things of wisdom which he left with thee for thy greater upliftment. Man forever seeks upon the planet Earth in greater complexity for greater truths, but if he will turn within he will find in the simplicity of his oneness with the creator of all Light the greatest truths which he will ever need in his wanderings through the galaxies of God.

Wisdom lies not in that which is of the intellect, but wisdom lies in the simplicity of the heart which is filled with Light and with Love; with the outflowing of compassion, of understanding and tenderness; with the patience and the forgiveness with which that Christed being sought to teach thee, oh people of Earth, in the long ago times. And for this the peoples of Earth crucified themselves in the long centuries which have elapsed since His coming. And if He would come again to thee, wouldst thou again crucify Him even as thou hast crucified thyself, or wouldst thou turn away from the shadow and unto the Light which is dawning and welcome He who truly was the Saviour of Man, not in His dying but in His living, and in that which He sought to give that Man also might live unto the fullness of his being?

A choice awaits all men of Earth and all women of Earth. A choice between Light and dark, between a world of shadows, of complexities, of illusion, and between the dawning Light of a new age; between the truths which are eternal, immortal, and contain within them the essence of manna which uplifts and sustains, and the dying, crumbling cultures of an age which has outworn its usefulness. In this choice each man, each woman, stands at the gateway of their own consciousness and each in that aloneness meets themselves and faces the ultimate decision whether to live or to die in soul essence. This choice is for thee to make, peoples of Earth, peoples with whom I discourse, peoples to whom my words shall reach. For a day not far distant is dawning when great energy tides shall sweep over the Earth dividing the children of men into the children of Light and the children of darkness. And one will take one pathway and one another and the final division shall make itself known and the rending of the Earth between Light and dark shall take place. And the coming of He whom thou hast known as the Prince of Peace shall again manifest in the heavens of Earth and in that day shall each one ask of themselves, "wherein do I stand"?

I, Clytron, who meet with thee once more in thy consciousness of Earth and of heaven, I leave with thee this thought...Indeed, wherein dost thou stand? I leave again in a body of Light, leaving with thee the radiant Light which shines from the inner sun, and the inner sun of thy own being which dispels all shadows and is eternal. In that Light do I leave thee, my discourse finished, my farewell.

Via Telethought - 28 July, 1973 - Channel: Marianne Francis

AURA

When you are confronted with form, you view only the reflection of light upon this particular form: This is the way we look at a thing or a person, and from what our eyes perceive we form a thought which is attributed to this particular form. It is in this way that most people have been trained to perceive the outer and most of us have been content with just that.

If it is realized and accepted that man is more than just third dimensional form, that he has more than just a body, it would then be quite inadequate to conclude anything about this being on what our five limited senses tell us.

In man's, as in every existing thing's make-up, we find a certain life force. This force he has inherited when he was first created. It is that which sustains him onto physical manifestation. It is the movement, the vibrating of his entire set of particles constantly emanating patterns of a specific nature. This atomic motion is the bearer of a man's psychic make-up, of his thoughts and of his actions.

Just as a magnet has lines of force about it, so has the body but these are in colors that human sight could not see without the aid of its hidden clairvoyant abilities. The auric colors flare out from the most important centers of a body and unite to form a swirling egg shaped mass with the blunt end of the egg at the top.

The time is coming when at last the bodies that cloth us shall sink into insignificance and the true light of everyone shall manifest through the sense of higher perception. Let each and everyone make his light worthwhile to look at.

- Claude Charlebois

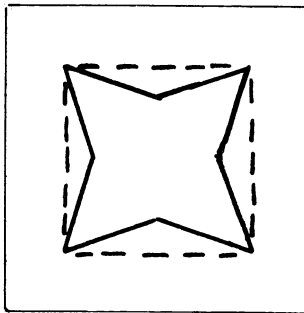

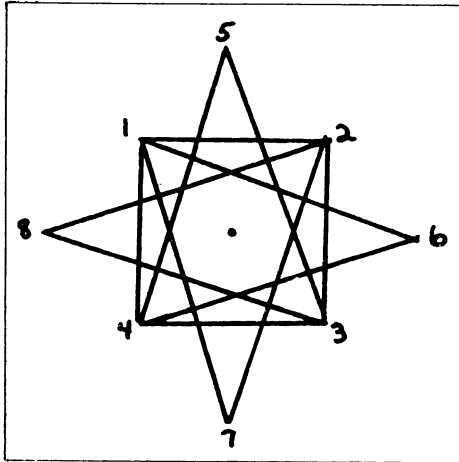

NEW AGE SYMBOL

From the Cross, the symbol of Man in the Piscean Age, this New Age Star Symbol was developed. The Piscean Age is the time for eliminating and forging past wrong action toward others, as indicated by the cross we are to bear until attainment of perfection.

The lower limb of the cross represents the body of man; the cross arm represents the arms of man; the upper limb represents the head. The central square formed by the intersection of the limbs is symbolic of the larynx. Out of this central square the New Age Symbol emerged.

The New Age Symbol is actually two 4-pointed stars. One star is entirely within the square and the other has its points extending outside. These 8 points represent regeneration from the earthly life of desire to the higher spiritual life. The symbol is drawn on a flat plane, but represents a 3-dimensional figure. Each side of the square radiates a positive and negative energy to its respective outer star point which is radiated outward as creative energy.

The square symbolizes the fourfold perfected personality. The small star represents the soul powers emitted from the personality. The essences of these soul powers transmuted to spiritual power, radiate out of the larger star.

Man must regain inner perception to attain Purification of the lower self. Thus purification of the physical senses, passions, emotions and mind, raises the consciousness and develops the soul. When man attains God-like perfection, he will know and be able to use the creative word which this star symbol represents.

For directions on making the New Age Symbol turn to page 24.

WHAT IS REALITY?

Marianne Francis

Events of the past two years have shown very clearly, almost with a crystal clarity to me, that few people have grasped the "Brother's" concepts of reality.

In this article, I propose to analyze the varied reactions, concepts and misunderstanding as to the Universal Law on which true reality is based.

First: On what do we base a concept of reality if not on Universal Law and the soul's alignment with that Law. If reality is based on Earth's Laws, Freudian psychology (and its related schools), or the child-like belief that if one thinks only positive thoughts all the bad things will go away, then it is man's reality, a transient thing at best, only good for a day in the eternity of the soul.

Let us take first the concept of reality as that based on Earth man's Laws. Man is a human animal, say these laws, and at best his nature is subject to temptations of the flesh and weakness of character. Viewed in this light, man requires police, armies and stringent laws to govern his behavior, control his animal self, and regulate his intercourse with his own kind throughout a world of many divided nations. His soul is disregarded or swallowed up in cities where no tree grows and pollution and ghettos mock the reasons for its being, and he shrivels and all but dies.

Freudian psychology likewise, and with more emphasis, views man as an animal – all divine impulses, all noble thoughts, all love and compassion, are but illusions masking lust, self-interest, and Oedipal complexes of tremendous power and depth. A generation reared on such concepts has either turned in disgust from them to a drug culture and communes to find love and another reality, or it has produced criminals, self-seekers, and lusters after the ego image in vast numbers.

The sad and appalling thing is, however, that even in the field of New Age activities and so-called enlightenment and positive thought, fools abound. The adherents of positive thought schools cling passionately to the idea that if you ignore or refuse to acknowledge negative realities, they will go away. Unfortunately, they do not go away.

The "appearance" of evil is very powerful at this time, for all dross is coming up to the surface of the planet and the individual to be cleansed. What the positive thought people do not realize is that the more Light and Love poured out on this planet and peoples at this time of a cycle's end, the more likely it is that Karmic patterns of ancient origin will arise to be cleared. The immediate picture is therefore one of chaos, darkness, and strange perverse behavior in many people who are themselves bewildered at their behavior.

Hypnotism and black witch-craft are ripe at this time. "Learn how to control others with your thoughts" say the ads. "Get what you want from Life." No one mentions that getting and giving must exist side by side and if you control others with your thoughts through hypnotism or auto-suggestion, you do so only at the risk of incurring harm and sometimes instant Karma.

Reality does not lie in disregarding the appearance of evil, sickness, selfishness or egotism, but in recognizing it for what it is and treating the individual who is soul-sick at all levels on which help is needed.

For example: Mental illness is now recognized to affect one in five persons in the U.S.A. to some degree or other. Practitioners of various schools of “positive” thought or sciences of mind would have you believe that schizophrenia, for example, is merely “a broken heart” and “needs only love” to cure it. Since recent research indicated both major psychosis of manic depressive and schizophrenic illness are caused at a physical level by a chemical imbalance in the body – an imbalance which makes it impossible for the soul to control the brain and body – how may love alone heal?

“Love, if expressed with wisdom, recognizes the four-fold nature of man . . . body, emotions, mind and soul.”

Possession is on a tremendous increase today, demonic or merely earth-bound astral possession. It occurs when emotional shock, drugs, alcohol or chemical imbalance exists in the body. The chakras do not remain protected and possession to some degree or another by an entity or entities results. Hypnotism in the hands of egotists or persons untrained in the ancient wisdom knowledge can most assuredly open the door to hovering entities seeking to possess bodies. To surrender the conscious mind to control by another is contrary to Universal Law.

Almost all mental illness, while having its physical basis in chemical imbalance, emotional shock, possible past-life traumas, drugs or alcohol, involves outside entities. Thus it may only be treated at general levels, with correct diet, emotional support, love, a clearance of past-life traumas and most important of all, removal of any and all entities invading the aura and a sealing against re-entry.

Reality in these cases is grim and requires not a refusal to face facts or idle talk of positive thought, and an ostrich-like burying of the head, but love in action at all levels of man’s four-fold self.

The greatest split on this planet is the schizophrenic split between man’s soul and his personality or earth self. True reality only becomes apparent when the soul and personality self are aligned.

The appearance of evil, which admittedly does not come from the soul or eternal self, is therefore only removed when it is recognized and treated at all levels on which it is manifesting. People advocating control by mind alone are caught up in that most ancient of all illusions, “The mind betrays the real”.

True Light-servers must be strong enough to face the fact – this is an insane planet at the present time, peopled with unstable forces and individuals. Only Light, Love and Knowledge applied and shared from above to below, from soul to soul, can heal its sickness.

What is reality? It is eternal Light, eternal Love, and eternal Hope and Compassion. It must not; cannot fail, for all true Light-servers must burn with a constant flame brightly lighting the way back home to Man’s eternal self.

DO PLANTS RESPOND TO THOUGHTS?

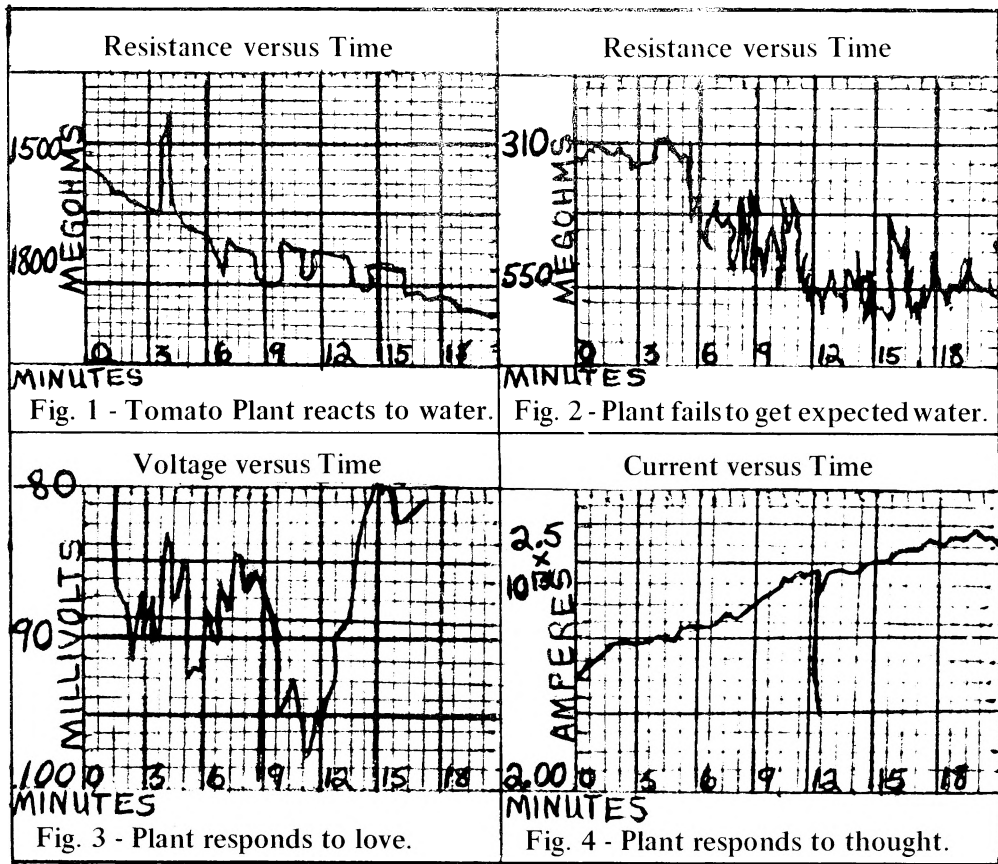

Many researchers in this country are experimenting to detect the energy fields of Aura around living objects including animals and plants. As described in "Psychic Discoveries Behind the Iron Curtain" by Ostrander and Schroeder, the Kirlians were able to photograph the energy field around a leaf and show that this energy existed even after part of the leaf was cut away. Cleve Backster's experiments indicated that plants can respond to thoughts and to forces emitted by other forms of life. (See Harper's — Nov. '72 issue.) In Scotland, work with plants by the Findhorn Bay Foundation demonstrates that excellent results can be obtained by cooperating with the forces of Nature and sending them love.

Our own experiments over the past few months in Seattle have proved quite interesting in the study of plant reactions to various types of stimulus. Using a very sensitive Electrometer and chart recorder, many measurements of plant responses have been recorded. The electrometer can measure very small voltages and currents or make resistance measurements from one part of the plant to another. The reactions can be recorded over a long period of time if necessary, however, most occur within a few minutes or even seconds. Most of the charts are too large for reproduction here but some of the smaller are illustrated.

Fig. 1 is a graph showing how a tomato plant reacted to being watered. The electrical resistance of one of its leaves changed periodically to produce "square waves" over a period of 16 minutes. One might expect the resistance to decrease smoothly with the added water in the leaf cells but actually it increased.

Fig. 2 shows how the same plant reacted when it expected to be watered but inadvertently the water intended for it spilled on the floor. The pattern changed drastically even though no water touched the plant. Was the plant frustrated?

Fig. 4 indicates a plant's response to thought at a distance. A telepathic researcher phoned from her home 6 miles from the lab and was talking to us during an experiment. While on the phone she tuned in mentally to the plant under test and suddenly felt that the plant wanted to communicate. At this point the chart recorder showed a sudden reaction as the current decreased for a moment then returned to normal. At the same instant our researcher felt a force go through her head which seemed to her as if it came from the plant.

I LISTENED BUT I DID NOT UNDERSTAND

Ray-mere

In consciousness of being we greet you. In the Light of Our Radiant One we of the XY7 transmit once more to this Light Center. Some period of time has elapsed during which changes have taken place; some of a very mundane nature, some of a more profound nature in the very stabilizing of Light Centers and Light centered individuals.

We of the XY7 who speak with you through the communicator known as Ray-mere do so on this occasion in order to acquaint you with the nature of those changes. We advise that those of you who are sensitized and who have a vision beyond the physical may tune in to that which is taking place as the beam is utilized on our channel.

At this period of time, our Brothers, our Sisters, initiations are, as you might say, the order of the day. We spoke with you some years ago of your Earth time of the third phase of manifestation – that phase we said to you we could not explain in your words until it overtook you. Our channel knows now of that of which we spoke. Many others of you are undergoing periods which are initiatory in nature, a lifting of the veils of consciousness between the higher spiritual and the Earth consciousness, a changing of the molecular structure of the body, a raising of frequency. During these periods, as in the olden days on your planet . . . old, that is, to you but recent in our cycles of time, there were those things known as the Egyptian mysteries and the mystery schools. There were the oracles of Greece and there were the older mystery schools of Atlantis and back to the time of Lemuria, the Mother continent of MU. Down through long periods of hundreds of thousands of years these mystery schools have been secret, hidden and have admitted through their portals but a few individuals who were to receive, in the inner sanctum, a spiritual truth. Now these truths, those things which were hidden, are being opened. The portals have widened to admit many in a period of lesser initiation, and a few (in the period through which you are now passing) to the greater initiation of the planet as it changes from one cycle to another.

Our Brothers, our Sisters, we who speak with you at this time are cognizant of great changes which take place on your planet. We have tried over the years in which we have communicated with you to convey in some small measure the tribulations and the trials through which you would pass. And those who are here upon this occasion (at least two) know of those communications which we gave to you, of our attempts to warn you of the difficulties of the times which were coming. Now you stand in the midst of those times, of those tribulations, of those trials, of those greater initiations and perhaps you will say, as our own channel has said, 'I listened but I did not understand, I listened with my ears but my heart did not know, I listened with my ears but my brain did not understand that it would be this way, that it would be this difficult, that the fire would burn away the dross and in burning would be painful.' Yet so it is, our Brothers, our Sisters, so it is and so it MUST be for you stand at the end of a cycle, a major cycle, a major initiation for the planet itself and those of you who would go forward into the greater Light which is Our All Knowing One's, Our Radiant One's Light, must purge away the dross, must walk through the fire, which fire is the burning of the outer shell, the burning away of the veils of maya so that the inner core of being, the essence of being of which we have so long spoken may manifest in all its beauty, in all its perfection, in all its Light. In the burning away of that dross it must first, by the very nature of its being come to the surface. For that which is buried cannot be cleansed, and only that which out-manifests in all its ugliness, in all its imperfection . . . only that can be burnt away and vanish as the mists before the morning sun, revealing the essence of being which each one of you IS, delving deeper unto the core of the Christ consciousness. For in the coming of the Christos to this planet each of His children of Light walks the pathway he trod . . . the pathway which is crucifixion of the lower self unto the resurrection of the higher being.

You, my Brothers, my Sisters for whom we have much Love, you with whom we walk in consciousness, can only reach upward at this time unto the highest things which are known to you, each one, and hold to those things beyond the mud and the mire of Earth. For not only is the individual going through initiatory experiences but, as we have said earlier, the planet itself is undergoing a major initiation as it changes its frequency from one cycle to another, from physical dense to physical etheric, so that it may attune itself to its brother and sister planets in this system and no longer be the fallen one but the planet of Light which it was originally intended by Our Creator it should be. Earth, the fallen star, the fallen one in this system is the one around whom other beings, other planets, cluster at this time, shall we say as midwives unto its emergence of a new Light, of a new cycle of creation: A birth into this system of planets and the Solar Confederation, unto a Universe, a Cosmos of teeming intelligence and Life, of eternal creation, an ever-ascending spiral of consciousness.

Many times in the past we have said to you, 'There are no limitations, our Brothers, except those which you create in your own consciousness, and as you push out the walls of those limitations, as you weed them from your minds, they no longer exist.' But so long as they exist for you, those limitations will hem you in, they will hold you to the mud of Earth, and you will not soar as the eagles in the heavens of the Creator. The future is yours, our Brothers. The initiatory period is with you. Push out the walls, the limitations. Ascend in consciousness scanning the vast horizons, azure in the sun and know that you are ONE, eternally one with all that IS: One with us who are your brothers and sisters from other planets, one with beings of Light almost beyond our own comprehension, and one with the Creator who created all that lives, all that exists, all sentient life. In that Cosmos, and in that cosmic concept we would leave you upon this occasion that your minds may soar into the eternal limitless space of Our All Knowing One of Light.

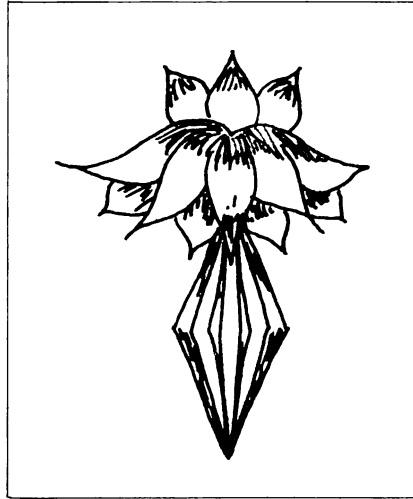

We wish to communicate again in a short period of time. We of the XY7 are once more in position in the altitudes high above your mountain locality. We of the XY7, through our spokesman, myself, Ray-mere for the 24 minds which reach you upon this occasion (twelve men, twelve women) now leave you in the Light of Our Radiant One. Adonai Vassu Baragus.

Via Telethought – 24 Feb., 1973 – Channel: Marianne Francis

There are glimpses of heaven to us in every act, or thought, or word, that raises us above ourselves.

– A.P. Stanley

EASTER MORN

Wah-he-na

“I am the resurrection and the Life and he that believeth in me shall not perish but have everlasting Life”.

I see a consciousness awakening in the many days ahead and the Light of this awakening shall be heard around the world. The resounding of the note of Christian ethics laid down by the Holy One in Bethlehem shall now start emerging and giving of its essence for the Glorification of eternal well-being.

Whose Glory knocks at the door of unrest from the strains of emotional forces, shall conquer self motivations into the labyrinth of united totalities' own special force.

The break-water of Christian endeavor has formed a peak of observation and a launching path from which the ignorant wail but the worthy spring.

The fount is weak, yet only as weak as its purpose is neglected.

Whole Beings of diverse patterns here now have kept pace with the details of world development. Better still, soul development sprang forth from this lofty height – stirring many pools of miasmatic excesses giving new life from the lowly murky depths to the very surface of boiling water.

A whole cloth has been in the weaving and the material has stunk with its dipping – yet a preparation is only a preparation and has only its incompleteness in its own incompleteness.

And the soil from the potters' wheel must then be washed away before the beauty is complete and recognizable.

There is no blame and as the resurrection occurs, the counter point of evolution shifts its pattern and forms a new thread for future shaping.

Now the Light of Divine Intervention shall start its march forward into wayward places, and it is proclaiming its advent into a new cycle of productivity.

The dropping away of the grave clothes is of necessity before the resurrection of the freedoms comes.

Whose point on the compass gives rise to the resurrection?

Daily must Light spring forth from its own tomb of death so that it shines past the door of antiquities' tomb.

Whole cloths again shall cover the alter and the invocation in a forgotten language shall perforate the Heaven Worlds, giving rise to the Immortal's Hymn.

The gathering of the Eagles under the power of the Heavenly Hosts shall now stand before the Tribunal who holds in His right hand a scepter and in His left hand a torch.

First the searing (purifying) of the old by the hand of the Ancient One. Then the sealing of the door of evil intent and then –

The scepter's grand touch and the advent of Holy Orders are sealed within the forehead of the Ancient Ones. And none shall be touched for awhile except by the robe of Glory that is draped as a mantle to cover the multitude for its sake.

And now the movement begins from the East unto the West.

AND HE SPAKE: THE MESSENGER OF ANTIQUITY

Lo, I am with you always even unto the ends of the Earth and Her resurrection, beyond unto realms not yet glimpsed . . . and yet – from afar am I glimpsed – the darkness can no longer conceal Me.

And I pour forth my fluid to cleanse a wayward nation . . . this by my love.

And now by my word, my Hosts move into position linking together the inner planes.

Line upon line the Shining Ones come at my bidding, stationing themselves at strategic points or cross currents linking fields of dimensional differences.

Whose character can withstand the fact of my coming?

I, in my being of three, shall now move forward in a glory of at-onement, and those who look shall see me and shall be Glorified by my advent as my shadow falls over their heads.

Now if you listen closely you will hear my footsteps and if you rise but even a little you will see the first glimmer of my Light and then the mountains shall be outlined by virtue of the length of days.

Then I shall stand in full glory before you on my mountain top and survey my domain for ever more.

It has been written, recorded, and proclaimed. Now let it Be. And so it is.

Aum een.

By virtue of my prophet Wah-he-na.

As one who has sailed across an unknown sea,
among this rooted folk I am alone;
the full days on their tables are their own,
to me the distant is reality.

A new world reaches to my very eyes,
a place perhaps unpeopled as the moon;
their slightest feelings they must analyze,
and all their words have not the common tune.

The things I brought with me from far away, compared with theirs, look strangely not the same:
in their great country they were living things,
but here they hold their breath, as if for shame.

– Rilke

THE LIGHT WANDERERS OF SPACE

Clytron

There is in the galaxy a race of Space beings who are called among our peoples the Light Wanderers. For long aeons these beings have traversed the star trails moving from planet to planet and system to system bringing with them the essence of the One Creator. I who have spoken with you many times and who am known to you as Clytron am one such, a Light wanderer throughout the galaxies of God. I travel in a body of Light spun from the elements which you know as spirit. The matrix pattern for the physical or fleshly vehicles which you call the body. And in this Light body or matrix, I travel freely from system to system and with me are many other such travellers . . . the Light wanderers of God. We bring with us that very essence of our beings, in the perfume of far off places, in the tellings of many stories, of strange races in space, of peoples exotic, of peoples fallen to levels beyond that which Earth has ever known, and peoples so far evolved that they would seem as creatures of spun filaments of crystal . . . beauteous beyond the knowing of mortal eyes on Earth.

I travel in the body of Light and as I come and have come again into this system and this planet called Earth, I have brought with me that which has been termed 'the goodly company'. For Light wanderers, be it known, incarnate also in fleshly bodies upon planets and imprison their iridescent splendor in a covering of flesh. And prisoned as they are and their wings for a time clipped they none the less bring with them that essence, that stamp which is undeniable of of the pure essence of being. Where-so-ere they wander on the face of a planet, a system, a galaxy, they bring with them gossamer like threads, filaments as fine as spun quartz trailing with them as clouds of glory, those energies, those radiations, those most subtle creations which are the threads of the one energy of the one force which permeates the entire Universe of One Creator.

Wander as you will upon the planet called Earth you will find that the Light wanderers of space have planted, at certain times at the uprise of a civilization, the concepts of those things which are eternal and have planted with them, in the citadels of men's souls, the desire for freedom from fleshly imprisonment, for the transcending and transmuting of the density of physical matter.

In the energies which are carried by the Light wanderers lies the matrix pattern for the step beyond that which any civilization knows at its time or incarnation of cycle. For it is that the energies must be grounded into the soil of a planet, a system, a galaxy . . . that they must be carried down from the higher to the lower and, even as you ground the energies of your electrical currents, so must these energies be grounded in the bodies of those who come in the vehicles of Light and who sometimes take upon themselves fleshly bodies and walk the surface of your planet called Terra or Earth.

Many of your great poets, many of your musicians, many of your philosophers have come in such a manner. Now at this time when your planet stands on the verge of so mighty a change, a goodly company, as we have termed it has come into incarnation, some in fleshly bodies, and some like myself only in the Light body, and have brought with them those energies from beyond, from the very central Sun around which this and many other systems revolve, that the tiny planet Earth and the system in which it exists may move inward, swirling closer to the source of energy . . . that energy flowing outward from yet another inner Sun closer to the central point of all creative energy. So great is the need upon your planet that many have come into incarnation at this period of time, grounding the energies of Light and reaching outward, some in the very crucifixion of their earthly beings releasing, through the suffering and the anguish, that plea which goes out to the furthest reaches of the Universe, that plea for the great archangel beings of Light to descend in power unto the planet which needs their ministrations. As the call or evocation goes forth and as the hands are raised upwards so must come the answer, so must descend the forces of Light and the mighty archangel beings and so will the company have fulfilled its mission.

For this reason there are many who have walked the path of Earth in deep anguish and have not known or understood the reason except that they felt themselves to be alien to the planet and that they yearned for a beauty and a peace and a harmony which was intrinsically a part of their beings. And the very alien vibratory forces of dissension and disharmony upon this planet have worn sorely upon their souls. Yet in that plea, in that evocation, as it goes forth, it MUST be answered, and can only be brought in to a planet by those who have chosen by Law, which you call the Law of Grace, to incarnate and take upon themselves fleshly vehicles and to walk the path of mortal men.

There is an energy, there is a Light which is supernal beyond that which mortal man has yet glimpsed, which is the sustainment of his inner being. If he will but reach outward unto that Light and align it with that inner spark of his own divinity, his own God source, then truly he will find that he emerges as a beauteous butterfly from his cocoon of Earth, fashioning realities which exist just beyond the vision of his physical eyes. These are waiting, even now, for his glimpsing – the reality of a life which exists all around the perimeters of his five senses. In these energies, in this reality, lies the salvation for man of Earth. In the intervention, which is from the divine kingdoms, in Man's affairs of so small mortal intent, lies his guidance and his deliverance from the machinations of darkened entities who seek to control a planet and destroy it from within.

If I who am Clytron would have an essence of my discourse to leave with you, I would say, 'From that inner core of your being, reach out in invocation and evocation and call down, from the spheres of Light the forces of almighty beings, for the deliverance of the planet Earth. For even Lucifer, Son of the Morning must someday return to the God who created him. And when that event takes place and the legions of darkness stream behind him returning unto the source of their own creation, then evil as we know it will no longer exist in the galaxies of God.

People of Earth, I who am Clytron speak with you on a momentous occasion for changes already are taking place in the structure of your planet, and the very density of matter itself is changing and is becoming of a more rarified composition and already is in a process of transmutation as are the peoples upon it. To the degree that each one who hears my words can attune themselves with this great and Cosmic plan, they, too play a part in the deliverance of Man from ignorance into Light, from Death to immortality.

I will speak with you again through this, my channel of Light, in the near future. For changes move swiftly now and energies are descending and swirling in your atmosphere. As you flow with these you become of a body of Light.

As I traverse the starry vaults of my Creator, I carry with me the memory of many hearts, of many minds whom I sense at this time, and I see and I know. In that Light and that Love which is immortal I leave you and yet I am with you still. I, Clytron, give you farewell of this your time consciousness.

Via Telethought - 25 August, 1973 - Channel: Marianne Francis

Instructions for drawing the New Age Symbol:

- A. Draw square in continuous line without lifting pen from points 1, 2, 3, 4, and back to 1.
- B. Place dot in center of square.
- C. The star points are drawn as continuous lines in the following order: 4, 5, 3; 1.7.2; 1, 6, 4; and finally 2, 8, 3.

UFO SIGHTINGS

Pascagoula, Miss. — “. . . the fact they they were here on this planet is beyond a reasonable doubt”. This is the opinion of Dr. Allen Hynek. He was one of the men who tested Charles Hickson, 42, and 18 year old Calvin Parker who were taken aboard a spacecraft by 3 creatures with wrinkled skin and claw-like hands.

Baton Rouge, La. — A multicolored UFO hovered briefly over a crowd of 67,000 at Louisiana State University football stadium during their half-time activities.

Chicago, Ill. — U.S. Air Force Chief of Staff Gen. George S. Brown says UFO's “plagued” the U.S. during the Vietnam war.

Tupelo, Miss. — UFO's have returned in force here. A number of Tupelo residents have been seeing them as well as responsible observers throughout the South. Dr. Allen Hynek, chairman of the Northwestern University astrology department, has called for the government to create a permanent scientific group to research these new sightings.

PUBLICATIONS

STARCRAFT MAGAZINE published quarterly $3.00
Foreign — 3.25, Back issues — .25, Double Back — .50

Printed Lectures:

The New Dimension and the New Age	$1.25
Starcraft Contract	1.25
Frequency Change and the Second Coming	1.25
The Call of the Phoenix	1.50
Men from Space and Prophecies of Earth Change	1.25
God-Man or Animal Man?	1.00
Manifestation	1.25

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Radio Stations Miss Francis has appeared on recently –

KGW Portland – One hour show with Chris Vandyke. Show expected to be syndicated out through Chicago early next year. This one hour special will also go out through KINK in Portland, KING in Seattle (with Bob Houghlum,) and in the Spokane area.

KLOO radio in Corvallis (Toast and Coffee call in show). One and a half hour interview which ran overtime due to interest.

KBZY Understanding program with Mary K. Hobley. One hour interview.

KGW and KROW stations also did over the phone five minute interviews with Miss Francis for their newscasts.

KYJC with Wes Kelly in Medford. Miss Francis was his guest for a two or three hour call in show.

As we go to press, local and Portland TV stations were trying to reach Miss Francis for TV shows.

As someone said: Today KGW, tomorrow the Dick Cavett Show !!!

Miss Francis has commented on the fact that the present flap of Flying Saucer sightings is being taken quite seriously at last and all interviews were conducted at a high level. None the less, she wants to keep the brakes on any overt publicity for the SLR at this time until public response to the taped special KGW program begins to come in.

L.K.
assistant editor

NOTICE

The '72 issues of STARCRAFT were not published due to circumstances beyond our control. Hence all subscriptions will automatically be extended to compensate.