TAKES IT BACK.

The Illustrated American Macazine of St. Louis, Mo. takes back the charge made in its columns by a Mr. Odell that Col. Ingersoll plagairized his famous "temperance peech." It says: Robert G. Ingersoll, which appeared in our October number, was written and published in perfect good faith. The writer bears a name well known in Primitive Methodist circles in England, and was well acquainted with the personality of John Stamp. The latter's magnificent paragraph on the evils of drunkenness early found its way into the American press, and was reproduced in the "Family Doctor." When Robert G. Ingersoll delivered his fa-mous address in the Munn trial in Chicago in 1876, the paragraph he devoted to the evils of alcohol extended to less than half the length of Stamp's. An enterprising purnalist, reminded of the other piece of eloquence, impudently inserted the longer paragraph in Ingersoll's address, and it vas actually reprinted in Rhodes & Mc-Clure's book as Ingersoll's giving his master pieces. Hence all the misunderstanding, and the deplorable, and seemingly malicious detraction of the great orator. With this explanation we express hearty regrets for the derogatory remarks contained in our October issue, and trust that all of our readers will do their best to dissipate the unpleasant misconception.

Like a great many other slanders, this one, as well as others, has been going the nature, and in this line a knowledge of the rounds of the religious press and is found emanating from the mouths of pulpit orators in every direction. Spiritualism is the religion of religions.

It is the guiding light; a beacon of A friend of THE SUNFLOWER wants to mortal; that the death of the physical the real man. Through the phenomena of Spiritualism, we receive direct evidence of a life beyond the grave.

Spiritualism is the philosophy of life; it takes the sting from death and destroys the terrors of the grave. Spiritualism teaches us that we will, after death, enter into a condition of conscious life, which will be eternal. We will take up, or con tinue the thread of life, broken during the short time of transition; and after expiating our sins by prayer, and unselfish labor for other struggling ones; we will progress for ever, receiving knowledge and truth continually, from the fountain of life; the The article by J. H. Odell dealing with grand, mighty creator of the universe; the incomprehensible God or Great Spirit.

Spiritualism teaches us that we will receive rewards and punishments for deeds done in the body. Our punishment will will not proceed from a lake of fire, but form our remorse, when once we see, in their true light, the sins we may have committed. Our rewards will be in beautiful surroundings, and in the companionship of blessed beings who are free from evil.

When conditions are right, the spirit friends are able to communicate with those still in the physical form. This is where Spiritnalism gives more comfort than any other religion; for where we have the knowledge; they have but faith. Faith is good but knowledge is better. Spiritualism teaches us the Patherhood of God, and the brotherhood of man; the immortality of the soul; spirit intercourse; ministry of angels; rewards and penalties for deeds done in the body; eternal progression and eternal happiness for all.

We cannot die: For death is life, The grave has no more terrors, But frees us from all earthly strife. LEWIS R. HILLIER.

Marry Dalton, 6955 State Street, Chicago, said, after having Psyche one week: "I would not take 825 for my Cabinet if I could not get another."

"Psyche arrived ton days ago. It has helped me wonderfully in development. I more than appreciate the instrument and its aid."—Chas. J. Britz, Jacksonville, Fia.

"Payche arrived two weeks ago and to say I was pleased does not express my appreciation. My boy, twelve years old, is developing most all the physical phenomena of Spiritualism with it. Independent writing came first sitting. We now get rapping, ringing of hells, trumper speaking, moving of bodies without contact, etc. He has also developed Clairvoyance and Clairaudience."—M. Y. DIRECTIONS FOR USE. The Cabinet can be placed on a table or held in the lap as most convenient. more people can sit with it as desired.

TO GET THE BEST RESULTS: Sit at a regular specified time twice or three times a week, from one half to one hour at a time.

FOR SPELLING MESSAGES: Place the pointer on the Cabinet with the finger pointing toward the Alpuabet; rest the tips of the fingers of the right hand lightly on the body of the pointer and place the left hand inside the Cabinet. After a few trials the pointer will move and spell out messages and names by pointing to the letters.

FOR TABLE TIPPINGS: Place the two V-shaped rests under the C-binet in the slots prepared for them, and rest the hands lightly on top, soon it will commence to vibrate and rock from side to side, and by using the signals ONS TIP for NO. TWO TIPS for DOUBTPUT, OR DON'T KNOW, and THREE FOR YES, COMMUNICATION IS established.

FOR AUTOMATIC WRITING: Place slate or paper on top of the Cabinet, take pencil and sit prepared to write; if you are sensitive, the hand will begin to tremb e and vibrate more and more rap dly, inally moving across the paper in an irregular way. Continue, and letters will be formed spelling names and messages.

spelling names and messages.

FOR INDEPENDENT WRITING: Take a wooden frame school state and scrape penell cust ever the face of it; break off a small piece of penell and put it on the state, after which place inside and against the top of the Cabinet, bodding it with throw a piece of black cateen ever the Cabinet to enclose it and lay the left hand on top of the Cabinet. The slate will be moved, marks appeared july in the penell dust and finally writing. This development requires great patience and perseverence, but is the most desirable of all psychic phases.

SING A SONG.

If you'll sing a song as you go along,
In the face of a real or fancied wrong;
In spite of the doubt, if you'll fight it out,
And show a heart that is brave and stout,
If you'll laugh at the jeers and refuse the tears
You'll force the ever relentant cheers
That the world denies when the crowd cries,
To give to the man who bravely tries;
And you'll win success with a little song—
If you'll sing the song as you go along.

If you'll sing a song as you plod along, You'll find that the busy, rushing throng Will eath the strain of the glad refrain; That the sun will follow the blinding rain; That the clouds will fly from the blackened sky;

That the stars will come out by and by;
And you'll make new friends, till hope descends
From where the placid rainbow bends;
And all because of a little song—
If you'll sing the song as you plod along.

Prom Adam to Chrit was a heathenish gloom;
The skies are too sma, to record the names;

This one shines forth as most absurd
Friends, Jesus paid it all.
The simple folks within this fold
Reflect the pastor's thought,
With faith sublime in fables old,
Reason availeth naught.

The blood atosement is a dream
Of some fanatic brain,
Reason rejects so vile a scheme
Immortal life to gain.
The man so basely crucified
Was not God's only son;
To truth alone he testified
The human race is one.

That man has fallen, is a myth That man has fallen, is a myth
As old as priestly rule;
The present is man's greatest height
Tested in reason's school;
Man has ascended from the mire
And won his present state
He does not fear that hell of fire,
'Tis long gone out of date.

Accept salvation, it is free Accept salvation, it is free
The devil dodgers shout,
Cast all the sins on Jesus, He

READING OF THE EMBLEM.

The center of the design represents a human face, the highest type of intelligence; the face is encircled by the band of darkness symbolising the ignorance and superstition of humanity; this is broken by the rays of light from the center of intelligence which pierce the darkness and Join the light of the golden leaves beyond. Bach leaf symbolises one of the principles of nature on which progression is based. This design is set in the center of a pure white field, symbolising purity, while its position in the exter of the square is a symbol of justice. The whole is enclosed by the solid band representing the unity of humanity, while the ornamentation of the band symbolizes the kindnesses extended to others.

As the Sunflower turns its face towards the sun, so Spiritualism turns the faces of humanity from darkness and superstition towards the Sunlight of Truth and Progression.

For many years she conducted a high class school for young ladies, in Minneapolis, Minn., under the name of "The Judson Institute." About 1889 she became interested in Spiritualism and in the winter of 1889-90 she attended some meetings and a series of materializing seances at the home of Dr. S. N. Aspinwall, Mrs. Bessie Aspinwall being the medium. There she secured the necessary evidence and became an ardent Spiritualist. The writer was present at the first seance she ever attended.

At this time she was an active member and worker in one of the finest churches in Minneapolis. When she discovered that the "Bridge Between Two Worlds" was built and all that was necessary was to go across it, she came out boldy and announced the fact. It So?

We want every reader of the Paper to send One New Subscriber to aid the project. Will you?

We want to make THE SUNFLOWER a weekly, beginning January 1, 1903. To do this requires a great deal of additional machinery, necessitating expending a large sum of money. We want our Readers to aid us to do this by sending us 1000 NEW SUBSCRIBERS before that time.

After it is issued weekly the subscription will be $1.00 per year. All New Subscribers and all whose subscriptions expire before No. 92 will receive the paper one year for 50 cents, Provided the money is in this office before Christmas, 1902.

After that it will be $1.00 per year.

We want every one of the Sunflower Readers to consider the effort we are making and send at least one new name. If you can not get it among your neighbors, why not make some friend a Christmas present of it? Your friend would have reason to bless you fifty-two times in the next year. Don't wait till Christmas, send the halfdollars now as we need the money now to make necessary changes in the office and to pay for machinery. When Christmas comes we will send the paper to your friend saying it is a Christmas present from you.

Remember that in giving you a weekly paper we are giving you twice what we agreed to and this will be liberal pay for securing a new subscriber; then think what a position it would place us in if each of our present patrons would send an additional subscriber, and how small an effort would be required to get one new subscriber.

Now, friends, all take hold. You are interested in this Campland THE SUNFLOWER is an important part of it. Give a long pull, a strong pull, and a pull altogether and let us have the Best Spiritualist Paper in the World located right on the Lily Dale Camp Grounds.

Mrs. Susan Stratton, Concord, N. The following quaint account of an and dinner was published by Geoffrey Williston Christian, from a letter written in 1714, by the Rev. Laurance Conant, of the old South parish in Danvers, Mass., and still preserved as a most precious heirloom:

> Ye governor was in ye house and Her Majesty's commissioners of ye customs, and they sat togeather in a high seat by ye pulpit stairs. Ye governor appears very devout and attentive, although he favors Episcopacy and tolerates ye Quakers and Baptists. He was dressed in a black velvit coat bordered with gold lace and buff breeches with gold buckles at ye knees, and white silk stockings. There was a disturbance in ye galleries, where it was filled with divers Negros, Mulattoes, and Indians; and a negro, called Pomp Shorter, bes longing to Mr. Gardner, was called forth and put in ye broad aisle, where he was reproved with great firmness solemnity. He was then put in ye deacon's seat, between two deacons, in view of ye whole congregation; but ye sexton was ordered by Mr. Prescott to take him out, because of his levity and strange contortion of countenance (giving grave scandal to ye grave deacons,) and put him in ye lobby under ye stairs, Some children and a mullato woman were reprimanded for laughing at Pomp Shorter.

When ye services at ye meeting house were ended ye council and other dignitaries were entertained at ye house of Mr. Epes, on ye hill near by, and we had a bountiful Thanksgiving dinner, with bear's meat and vension, the last of which was a fine buck shot in ye woods near by. Ye bear was killed in Lynn woods, near Reading.

Mrs. S. E. DeLong has been serving the West Side Spiritualist Society in Columbus as test and mes-sage medium during the month of November. She was assisted by Dr. A. P. Conant, Mrs. Hattie G. Webster and Mr. H. E. Boestler, who preceded her with lectures that were both entertaining and instructive. Mrs. Webster recited some of beautiful inspirational poems. Mrs. DeLong's tests and messages were very much appreciated, and were always recognized. The meetings were all well attended, some evenings there was not standing room, and quite a number turned away, which showed that the home way, which showed that the home workers are appreciated, and as one gentleman, who is just becoming interested in Spiritualism remarked, "I would have more confidence in a home medium that was been as home medium that was known for her integrity than strange mediums that are unknown to the people."

This also shows that the skeptics are not so much opposed to the home workers as some of the leaders and societies so often imagine. I have heard some say, "That it did not do to employ home talent, as they had a chance to know of men are at peace which is man's THE LAWS OF NATURE all the deaths," then would turn sweetest boon.

Music was furnished the past month by the Misses Jennie and Blanche DeLong and Miss Florence Spears of Pittsburg, Pa. The Society is very desirous that Mrs. DeLong should serve them through this month, but she has been suffering from a severe cold, and fears she will not be able to comply with their request. She is open for camp their request. She is open for camp meeting engagements for the season of 1903. Address her at 973 Hunter Ave., Columbus, O.

SUNFLOWER DAY.

day. The world has always sought a sign or symbol; in fact we com-prehend only by comparison. Jeho-vah, Jove and Lord; Brahm, Allah and God are mental images of Deity, formed by man. The Messiahs and Saviors that are called the sons of God originated with the impression made by the life energy of the sun and the completeness of man when he has produced his kind. You will note that the birth-day of the Christs are, and always have been, in the neighborhood of the mid-winter equinox when the sun is by the movement of the earth caused to appear to start on its return from the south to the north. So each and all of the forms and cereeach and all of the forms and cere-monies of religion might be explained as only symbolical. It is well to have these signs and symbols to teach us by illustration, but men are inclined to worship and thus take the symbol literally. Let us take the symbol literally. Let us endeavor to recieve the lesson taught but leave the illustration in its place. Now wonderous inspiration is found in the sunflower which we are studying today, "as the sunflower turns its face to the light of the sun so Spiritualism turns the face of humanity to the light of face of humanity to the light of truth." So naturally and gracefully the head of the sunflower turns from the east to the west, following the light of the sun, equally as natural Buffalo Spiritual Society took adshould be the unfolding of human-vantage of the occasion of the 50th ity into knowledge of the law of anniversary of the birthday of Prespense.

Did you ever notice how the great round face of the sunflower turns from the east to the west as the sun goes on his journey of the day? Well, this is what we want to talk about today. How natural it is for this flower to thus follow the light, and we wish to draw from the illus-By light of truth we mean law of love or usefulness, the key to happy success. A man's property is worth just what he gets from it, our clothing is worth what use we make of them, and so our life is worth just what use we make of it. Let us always keep our face to the light, that is, always be pleasant and agreeable to each and all, for as you have learned, "kindness is better and dearer than gold." The principle fact to learn today is that it is no effort to live this way, on the contrary, when we remember that the same Creative Energy formed each and all, it is natural for us to live this way. Those who live in a consideration of the best in their fellow-

INSPIRATIONAL.

May our aspirations at this hour reach out to our loved ones who have left our hearth-stone and fireside, and have risen into the realms of light, joy and beauty. May the aspirations of our inmost souls be touched by the inspirations from the realms of spirit, thus giving us spiritual illumination, and a true conception of the Divine in nature, and a stranger, desire to unfold the spiritual in our being. We ask for light and guidance from spiritual realms; we ask for knowledge and wisdom that we may live truer and nobler lives; give us strength that we may perform our daily duties wisely and well.
