What Strange Powers Did the Ancients Possess?

EVERY important discovery relating to mind power, sound thinking and cause and effect, as applied to self-advancement, was known centuries ago, before the masses could read and write. Much has been written about the wise men of old. A popular fallacy has it that their secrets of personal power and successful living were lost to the world. Knowledge of nature's laws, accumulated through the ages, is never lost. At times the great truths possessed by the sages were hidden from unscrupulous men in high places, but never destroyed.

Why Were Their Secrets Closely Guarded?

Only recently, as time is measured; not more than twenty generations ago, less than 1/100th of 1% of the earth's people were thought capable of receiving basic knowledge about the laws of life, for it is an elementary truism that knowledge is power and that power cannot be entrusted to the ignorant and the unworthy.

Wisdom is not readily attainable by the general public; nor recognized when right within reach. The average person absorbs a multitude of details about things, but goes through life without ever knowing where and how to acquire mastery of the fundamentals of the inner mind—that mysterious silent something which “whispers” to you from within.

Fundamental Laws of Nature

Your habits, accomplishments and weaknesses are the effects of causes. Your thoughts and actions are governed by fundamental laws. Example: The law of compensation is as fundamental as the laws of breathing, eating and sleeping. All fixed laws of nature are as fascinating to study as they are vital to understand for success in life.

You can learn to find and follow every basic law of life. You can begin at any time to discover a whole new world of interesting truths. You can start at once to awaken your inner powers of self-understanding and self-advancement. You can learn from one of the world's oldest institutions, first known in America in 1694. Enjoying the high regard of hundreds of leaders, thinkers and teachers, the order is known as the Rosicrucian Brotherhood. Its complete name is the “Ancient and Mystical Order Rosae Crucis” abbreviated by the initials “AMORC.” The teachings of the Order are not sold, for it is not a commercial organization, nor is it a religious sect. It is a non-profit fraternity, a brotherhood in the true sense.

Not For General Distribution

Sincere men and women, in search of the truth—those who wish to fit in with the ways of the world—are invited to write for complimentary copy of the sealed booklet, “The Secret Heritage.” It tells how to contact the librarian of the archives of AMORC for this rare knowledge. This booklet is not intended for general distribution; nor is it sent without request. It is therefore suggested that you write for your copy to the Scribe whose address is given in the coupon. The initial step is for you to take.

This Issue

Eight more pages in this issue! Not much in the way of additions as magazines go, but a start. We'd like to have you read the article, "Astrology or Astronomy, Which?" by Joseph J. Hall. It clears up many things which may have been worrying you about the two sciences and their relation, one to the other.

And then, Phillip R. Johnson's back again. Not content with being quite noted as a lawyer, Mr. Johnson is doing things for Astrology which many professionals are unable to do—bringing it right down to the terms that everyday folk can understand. Whether or not you agree with Mr. Johnson's predictions, you'll enjoy reading them, for his style is mighty easy to read and enjoy. Don't miss this article!

Next Issue

Christina Dahl is beginning a new series of articles on "Real Life Astrology" next issue. Miss Dahl is said to conduct more people in her astrological work than anyone since Evangeline Adams! No, she didn't tell us that about herself, a friend in Detroit told us, but anyway, you'll agree when you read the first of this new series that Miss Dahl learned quite as much of her Astrology from human contacts as from text books. This new series will thrill you. Don't miss the first installment in our October-November issue.

Next issue will be a kind of request number again, and several old contributors are quite likely to reappear in these pages. See you two months hence!

A MILESTONE IN ASTROLOGY

By THE EDITOR

Elsewhere in this publication you will read an announcement of the greatest astrological convention ever to be held in America. Astrologers and astrological writers from all over the world will be present at this meeting which will be held at the Stevens Hotel in Chicago during the first three days of September.

What this convention means to Astrology and its followers may not at once be evident to the beginning student, but to those of us who have labored to harmonize the work being done in behalf of cosmic science it means a milepost, a definite step toward the unification of astrological effort not only in American, but the entire world.

To the buyer of astrological service it eventually may mean a more dependable type of work and the opportunity to deal in confidence with any individual who advertises astrological services in a national publication. Certainly the be-turbaned faker with the star-spangled kimono will not be encouraged by this gathering of earnest and educated astrological workers.

One of the straws in the wind which tell us in what direction this convention is aiming is the lack of individual publicity which is being obtained or sought by those who are working day and night to make the meeting a success. Not one of the committee have so far sent to this office any letters or literature displaying his or her name in any capacity.

If ever a self-less service was rendered in behalf of any cause, the men and women who are behind the movement to centralize America's astrological efforts are rendering that service. These unselfish individuals deserve the loudest praise for this work in this movement, and certainly if they are praised others will do it, for they are wasting no time in praising themselves.

It is too early to predict the amount of success which will crown the efforts of astrological leaders in America and throughout the world when that earnest and enthusiastic group of people gather in Chicago in September, but we feel that some good must come of this endeavor. We believe this convention will go down in astrological history as a great success and we admire the will and the work of those who conceived it.

To the readers of this publication we heartily recommend a trip to Chicago on the 1st, 2nd and 3rd of September. You will see astrological history in the making, you will hear many inspiring talks on cosmic influences, and you will leave the convention with a new conception of what Astrology means in our lives and the lives of those about us.

A LAYMAN LOOKS AT LANDON

by PHILLIP R. JOHNSON,
BOSTON ATTORNEY

*Amateur Astrologer Tells Reasons Why
He Thinks Landon Will Win.*

Editor's Note: This article appeared in the BOSTON GLOBE on Saturday, June 13. We have picked the writings of Mr. Johnson out of some half dozen manuscripts on the same subject received by us because TODAY'S ASTROLOGY is essentially a layman's magazine, and we want to encourage the lay public to contribute their ideas. We are grateful to the Globe for permission to reprint this article, and wish to add a word of praise for their liberal attitude in allowing those of every persuasion to air their views in the Globe columns. I.R.

ASTROLOGICAL indications for the Presidential election in next November appear to me to be strongly in Landon's favor. This may be shown in four principal ways: By comparing the candidates' birth graphs; by comparing their progressed directions; by comparing their transits and by comparing Roosevelt's graphs for 1936 with his graphs for 1932.

"Now what about Roosevelt and Landon in 1936? In comparing their astrological prospects the ordinary method is to begin by plotting their birth graphs to show the positions of the planets at their moments of birth. Such graphs are called radical graphs because they provide the root or the background of the individual's experience sequence curve . . . In the accompanying illustrations the graphs are circular, consisting principally of three concentric circular areas. The radical graphs are in the innermost of those three areas. In the outermost areas are plotted the transits—where the planets are on election day. In the intermediate area are placed the secondary directions, the significance of which will be later described.

Birth Graphs Differ Widely

Looking at the birth graphs in the inner circles, the student finds that Roosevelt's and Landon's graphs are different in several important ways. In

PHILLIP R. JOHNSON

Landon's birth graph the major aspects among the planets are almost all comfortable and harmonious, indicating a fairly uniform experience through life. Roosevelt's birth graph, on the contrary, exhibits wide extremes. The Uranus-Jupiter-Neptune complex is in strong major harmonious aspect, while the Sun-Saturn-Venus-Jupiter-Neptune-Pluto complex is in major discord. This condition is consistent with a life of vicissitudes. These contrasting complexes in Roosevelt's birth graph are probably important and their significance will be mentioned again in comparing secondary directions.

The birth graphs afford another interesting comparison. Each of them shows a strong planet close to its eastern, or left-hand, horizon, the so-called ascendant, an area identified with personal welfare. A planet so placed influences a native's personality, his outlook upon life.

Rising Planets a Factor

In Roosevelt's birth graph that rising planet is the intuitive, sensitive, independent, erratic, impulsive and headstrong Uranus. In Landon's birth-graph the rising planet is generous, kindly, just, benevolent, prosperous

Fifty Centuries Ahead!

A New Theory of Astrology, and a Vindication of Occult Sciences.

By JAMES P. BASALEK

ASTROLOGY IS THE OLDEST science known to man, and because of this, many shallow and unthinking people believe that Astrology is out of date—behind the times. The reverse is true. Astrology was fifty centuries ahead of its time when it was founded and is still two hundred years ahead of its brother sciences!

Because Astrology was so very, very far ahead of the sciences of the middle ages, these scientists were afraid of it, and being afraid of it they were extremely bitter in discussing it. This fear and hatred of a thing not readily understood still exists in some "scientific" quarters, but slowly those who have hated Astrology most are forced to concede that there is "some" truth in it.

And these admissions are coming, not from the fringe of science, but from the leaders in the scientific field. In an earlier issue of this magazine, the findings of Dr. Arthur Holly Compton were discussed astrologically by the editor, and a direct connection between the effect of cosmic rays on the human mind and body and the effect of cosmic influences from out in space was clearly established.

In this connection I would like to call the reader's attention to the recent discoveries made at Harvard Medical School under the direction of Dr. Edwin J. Cohn, and presented to the American Chemical Society at Kansas City, Missouri, last April. I will take the liberty of quoting verbatim from Howard Blakeslee. Science Editor for the Associated Press:

"Discovery of billions of previously unknown electrical charges in the human body showing that the 'spark of life' is essentially something electrical was reported to the American Chemical Society here tonight on the eve of its 91st meeting. The discovery, made at Harvard medical school, fits significantly into other recent revelations of science that include thought and emotions in a network of electrical phenomena which appear to underlie body chemistry and structure of living matter.

"The newly found electrical charges are on the giant protein molecules, the body's so-called 'building blocks,' hitherto considered electrically neutral. In effect the Harvard men discovered billions of molecule-size dynamos which exist in every human being."

Mr. Blakeslee then goes on to state that "these newly found forces are of primary interest in connection with the transmission of nervous impulses. Clarification of these electrical effects removes an important barrier to the understanding necessary to the intelligent treatment of nervous disorders, of how a nerve message courses down a nerve fiber . . ."

WHAT DOES ALL THIS MEAN? It simply boils down to the fact that science is at last discovering outside forces—and what is more important, admitting their existence! Call them cosmic rays as did Dr. Compton, name them electrical charges as did Dr. Cohn and his fellow Harvard workers, or call them planetary influences as do the astrologians—in other words call them anything, and you still have forces from the outside which govern our lives.

The deeper students of the occult have always remained sufficiently open minded to admit that there is a great deal of truth in every branch of occultism. Palmistry proves that in our left hand is a recording of the astral vibrations generating from the record of our brain. In our right hands, in a similar way, is recorded the fulfillment of our destiny. You who read this are at liberty to believe or disbelieve this statement of fact, but it has been proven to the satisfaction of many of the wisest men now living.

Phrenology, also an occult science, assists in throwing further light on its allied sciences of Astrology and Palmistry. We unconsciously use Phrenology daily when we avoid certain persons with characteristics which stamp them as being deceitful, spiteful, or untrustworthy. The records of our lives and the indications of what our future will be are written plainly by the action of cosmic forces upon our brains and our bodies. If we have followed our natural channels, harmony and success shows in every part of our beings as well as in our talk, our mannerisms and our traits. If any student of Astrology, or any other occult subject is not ready to admit this, he is holding himself back and thwarting his own success by his lack of imagination. Once he has embraced the open minded attitude that truth lies beneath the surface for us to read if we will, then he has gone a long way towards solving what we call "the mystery of life."

The Carbon Theory of Astrology

THE THEORY OF ASTROLOGY which I am about to propound was evolved through a study of the chemical parts of the body, coupled with the indications of Phrenology and Palmistry. It is a harmonizing of chemistry with what we know of Astrology and other allied sciences. This theory was arrived at, not by me alone, but by relatives and friends who collaborated with me, and I am glad to present it here for your consideration.

Let me first quote from a treatise I once prepared and published on "The Cause of Disease:"

"The human body in operation is like the engine of a motorcycle; in such a machine, the motivating force is electricity. The first form of electricity known to man was lightning in the air. One of the first experiments to obtain electricity from the air is the placing of a zinc anode in a solution of sulphuric acid. Hydrogen is that force; electricity must be taken up separately.

"Just as electricity is the motivating force of the engine, that of the body is hydrogen. The eyes are dual, reversible television machines. Through the light of the hydrogen in our bodies and the hydrogen in the air, vibrations are transmitted to a delicate carbon composition film in our brain. The strength of registration on that film varies according to the amount of "juice" which we turn on the objects viewed. This film becomes dull with age and use just as the sound tracks in a phonograph record becomes smoothed out and less effective with use. In order to recall a memory we take these pictures out of our storage cells and turn the 'juice' on them again to revive the original."

Now, in Astrology, much the same thing happens at birth. When we are born cosmic rays motivating through the hydrogen in the air transmit indelible imprints in the form of vibrations on the delicate film of carbon within the brain. These vibrations, rays, forces, or whatever you care to call them, are varied according to the blending of different types of rays emanating from the various planets in their respective positions at the time of birth.

These forces, making their imprints on the carbon film, determine just what our channels in life should be—and here we make a distinction between fortune telling and Astrology; I repeat, what they should be. If we have the innate ability to practice medicine, we can take up bus driving—but we won't be happy in our vocations.

When we wander out of our proper success channels, we are as discordant as the sound from a phonograph when the needle escapes from its proper groove and jumps helter-skelter around over the record. Our place in life is ordained by the vibrations from the planets at the time of our birth, and when we fly in the face of these indications we court disaster and unhappiness.

Let me say here that I actually believe the forces themselves guide us to an extent in our lives, without our knowledge. In other words a certain amount of guidance is quite automatic. But nature is cruel in her rank indifference as to whether we wish to follow our natural channels or go off willy-nilly to other pursuits. She may furnish the success channels for us to follow, but if we ignore them, she feels it is no fault of her own.

I believe that the ancient astrologers found out a great deal of this without the aid of modern scientific equipment, and that their findings were largely due to their patience in piling up evidence from the lives and actions of those about them. They took the slow way around—the only way open at that time—but they followed for generation after generation, even century after century, transmitting their knowledge to their children, until they arrived at the same point at which our present day scientists will arrive in another century or two.

They did not know that carbon existed in their bodies, but they did know that persons born during a certain planetary aspect reacted in a given manner, and by checking this over long periods of time they arrived at their conclusions at least fifty centuries ahead of their time.

AUGUST and SEPTEMBER

*Bitter Political Feeling
Travel, Transportation Active
Foreign Complications Aggravated Internal Labor Struggles*

THE MONTH OF AUGUST WILL BE partially governed by the July 18th new Moon of 25 degrees Cancer in conjunction with Pluto near the U. S. Mercury with a tenth house influence of more than usual import.

Roosevelt and the New Deal will weather a blast of bitter criticism, and will actually gain some ground against the opposing forces during August and September.

Roosevelt will retain his power over his party in the face of almost unprecedented efforts to alienate his close political friends.

The interest of the President in public works programs will be intensified as things begin to dovetail into a more harmonious whole and cogs that have been grinding like wornout gears begin to react to the influence of a unified party spirit.

Lunation Chart, Washington, D. C., Saturday, July 18, 1936, 10:20 A.M. E.S.T., 10:12 A.M., T.L.T.

These months will show feverish activity by both political factions. Radio, the press and every form of public communication will hum with political propaganda, one thing being evident—a people who are beginning to think for themselves will not be guided by mass hysteria as in the past. Our tip to publicity leaders of both parties would be to stick to essentials and not depend too much on the proverbial smoke screen.

The last two weeks in July and the first half of August is not a good period for the Republican party to open up with its big guns, for this will mean a waste of powder and effort. What with the Republican ruler, Jupiter, at the lowest angle in the Republican third house, with Saturn and Neptune adverse above it, this period belongs to the Democrats.

The South Node in high Midheaven makes sure a more than usually vindictive effort to discredit many of the president's close political associates. Indications are that this will not be entirely unsuccessful, but although those high in New Deal circles may find their reputations somewhat soiled, Mr. Roosevelt will have little of the indiscretions of his associates and advisors reflect on him personally.

The horoscope tendencies of the president during these two months would seem to bring about a great deal of partisanship in connection with him, that is, his friends will show increasing loyalty, his enemies an accentuated dislike. In between, the great majority will continue to lean toward him rather than against him. This in spite of the public clamor prevalent at the time this is being written, which happens to be during the Republican Convention at Cleveland.

Curiosity and love of learning will characterize the nation during August and September. An awakened desire to know first hand of things which have been only hearsay or reading to them will cause a restless movement to hitherto unvisited points. This will extend far above the usual vacation level. The tourist business will in all likelihood be ABOVE that of 1929! Those who live by this business even indirectly will do well to prepare for one of the greatest seasons yet recorded.

The rift between the two national labor factions will widen during this period. Enemies of labor are now laughing up their sleeves, and their happy state of mind will not abate during these two months. But the fact that labor stands divided will in no way prevent strikes, and costly ones at that. The lunation promises, or rather threatens disturbances that will prove costly to capital, but more costly to labor. This condition is likely to continue throughout the autumn months.

PUBLIC INSTITUTIONS ARE LIABLE to scandal during August and the first part of September. Some shocking occurrence is quite likely to arise that will cause a later investigation, and the disgrace of those who are responsible for such institutions as are concerned. An outgrowth of this is likely to be government reform and a movement that will ultimately prove beneficial. Those who are connected with public institutions should be especially careful during this period.

A rift in certain religious circles is likely to develop during this time. This could be due to political differences, but will in all probability concern humanitarian principles rather than strictly political issues. Unrest over social conditions is indicated, and the peculiar thing about this is that this unrest is likely to come from the top rather than the bottom. By this we mean that well-to-do people with sympathy for the under dog may cause the trouble to those who believe in sweatshop practices and abuse of labor.

A change will be evident with the August lunation of the 16th and a feverish trend toward pleasure, excitement and speculation will make its appearance. Watch this closely and do not succumb to this fever, for many "blue sky" schemes will be offered the small investor. An attempt on the part of the authorities to stop this trimming of the lambs will come too late to save the man or woman who is subject to mass hysteria.

This is a period of adjustment, and a critical one for many, especially those who act before they think. Business indications are exceptionally good for this time of the year, and those who prepare for conservation expansion in their own lines will have an opportunity to strengthen their positions. The reservation, "conservative expansion," is made because later conditions may demand retrenchment and the ability to liquidate.

Death of a prominent legal figure is a strong likelihood due to Jupiter's position in the eighth angle, and this might well apply to someone very prominent in the religious or financial world. Strife may develop in farming districts late in September, due to a reaction from past optimism. Much loss by fire, storms and drouth is possible, even likely.

Watch your horoscope or solar guide carefully for risky travel days, as accidents may be prevalent during September.

... Born Aug. 24, 1891 ... husband, July 27, 1889 ... married 26 years ... 5 children ... had operations for removal of breast and tumors of generative organs, but in excellent health except for nervousness partly due to his drunken abuse ...

MRS. R. G., OHIO

Your situation is far from simple, Mrs. R. G., and leaving hubby would only complicate the problem further for all of you including the children. Your problem evidently became critical, with husband's drinking worse, dating from the time of your operations. Did you at that time or since let him feel by word or action that they were his fault? His craving for liquor is simply an attempt to ESCAPE FROM INHARMONIOUS REALITY. And so long as the inharmonious condition exists, all your reasoning with him, your cajoling, prayers and threats, cannot overcome his craving for intoxicants. Next time he is sober and his kinder self, have a calm, friendly, intimate talk with him. No tears, reproaches, criticisms, slurs ...

these won't solve ANYTHING in your situation at this time. What you WANT to do is to find out just EXACTLY WHAT THIS INHARMONIOUS FACTOR IN YOUR LIVES TOGETHER IS. By letting him feel that all you want is happiness and harmony for him, the children and your self, you gain his confidence and cooperation. You may find that the warping factor in your love lives is a maladjustment in the intimate marital relation, due to fears on the part of one or both resulting from lack of scientific information on the subject. Once this warping factor has been uncovered and corrected, his finer Leo-Sagittarius qualities will reward your efforts. Have this talk with him at the first opportunity, then write me again, Mrs. R. G. Meanwhile, Faith, COURAGE!

You and Mrs. D. owe me nothing. Let us give the credit to astrology and the fact that you both were willing to EARN your happiness. No, I don't believe Son has a serious fixation, as you say. He is experiencing an "emotional rebound" resulting from the infidelity and cruel thoughtlessness of his first love, and for a few months may be expected to "have it in for" all young girls, feeling that they're "all alike." His perfectly natural reaction would be to become infatuated with an older woman (where many youths would temporarily be down on ALL women,

Astrological Reasons for The Year's Market Advance

The Thirteen Percent Drop and the Planets

SATURN and URANUS

TO THOSE WHO ARE USING PLANETARY indications in their study of present-day economic conditions, the curves on the chart presented on this page, and the delineation of the planetary movements during the period touched on will be both interesting and instructive. The key is here to a new profession that is opening up for the younger students of Astrology, and we recommend a thorough reading of the following facts.

To begin with, let us quote from the Chicago Tribune in its issue of May 3 of this year. Under a headline: "STOCK PRICES 13 PCT. BELOW HIGHS OF YEAR," the TRIBUNE financial experts had this to say:

"Despite improving business conditions the stock market holds to the reactionary trend which developed about three weeks ago. . . .

"The week-end found prices on the whole above 13 per cent below their year's highs recorded on April 6, when the long sweeping advance which got under way on March 18, 1935, and which continued without a serious break for thirteen months, reached its apex. . . .

"Two previous reactions since the list began its forward move in the first weeks of the Roosevelt administration in 1933 have made worse showings in the "average" indices. The first occurred in the period of July to October, 1933, resulting in a decline of 26 points in the figures. The other ran from February, 1934, to the following July, making a dent of 23 points in the record. A third turnabout in February last year set the averages back about 11½ points.

Cause Is Uncertain

"While the current decline already has gone far enough to qualify as a major reaction, brokerage house opinion continued to reflect as much uncertainty over its causes as to its probable duration."

And we especially note sub-caption "Cause Is Uncertain!" The cause may be uncertain to market and financial statisticians but not so to those who follow the planetary angles and relationships. Again and again in Astrological articles and comments the close

LABOR DAY WEATHER

And How Long-Range Weather
Predictions are Made
By SELBY MAXWELL

TONIGHT, (this is the first of June), I stood talking to a banker, one of the really big business men of Chicago, and he said to me, "Your system of foretelling future weather events by the heavens will stand or fall upon your performance. We are not especially hostile to you. Some of the universities may be, some people whose pet idols you are inclined to overthrow may be, but we are not. If you can do what you say you can, we

These maps, drawn up on strictly mathematical lines, indicate what the influence of the moon will be on weather over the week end of Labor Day, Sept. 5, 6 and 7, 1936. These are the most daring Astrological Predictions of weather ever attempted, and are therefore, in a way, historical. If they verify, the critics of this new system of weather forecasting are going to have to do a lot of explaining.

The simpler Map shows the temperature departures from normal over the week end. The warmest portions are over the Atlantic coast, and the coolest are next adjacent, to the west. The more complex map shows rains, and is designed to give you a good picture of the setting for the storm of Labor Day. As you can see, there are two kinds of arrows. The light dotted ones show rain cloud trajectories, or paths, with the date each is to happen. Rains will fall within a hundred mile radius of these trajectories, spotted like beads on a string, within 24 hours of the date given. The heavier arrows show general storm paths, and the dates of the centers of action. It will be fairly clear over the interior of the continent over Labor Day, with scattered and general rains over the west and northwest, and what appears to be a brisk storm in the southeast and along the Atlantic coast. Some of the storm will be out to sea, but parts of it will touch land.

will not be affected by what anyone else may say or think,—we will judge you entirely upon your merits.”

“Thank you,” said I. “I am not afraid. In the last two months and more I have faced audiences totalling over three thousand, most of them men of more than usual success in life. I have stood up before all these men, and have made predictions to them, and have had my predictions printed from one end of this country to the other. If I were a fake, or were fooling myself, some of these men would have caught me before this. I have received very few complaints in all my work, and not more than a half dozen really nasty letters all told. I assume this to mean that no one can find any serious fault with my work or with the ideas behind it.”

“We have never questioned your verity, nor your sincerity. You do seem to be engaged in a serious scientific undertaking, and to have had an unusual amount of success, for something that everyone before had said could not be done. Your Decoration Day forecast, which you had printed in the American Weekly, ran with a circulation of several millions, and every one says that you were very good in it. But what we would like to see would be longer range forecasts. Have you any say, for Labor Day? Could you tell us now what the seventh of September would be like?”

“I can do that,” said I. Some of my commercial forecasts run up into September, and I can easily adapt them to a forecast of the week end weather for Labor Day. Let me go and draw up these maps for you, and I will submit them to you. Better than that, I will have them printed under my signature and given the widest publicity, and then, when the day comes, if it is at all possible, I will go out and take some photographs of the types of weather I have said would come, and I will have them printed too, so that there will not be any fair minded person in all the country who can doubt any longer the influence

Planets Behind The News

By KEY LLOYD

THE EXTRAORDINARY HARMONY of the Republican National convention in June gave forceful evidence that any organization of human beings is a living entity and as such is subject to planetary influences. The nature and probable effect of these influences can be correctly judged only by taking into account the positions of the transitting planets in relation to the organization's birth horoscope, and any prediction made without such consideration is almost sure to go wrong. One astrological writer prophesied great discord among the Republicans, for June 10th and 11th, simply because the planets would be making a number of oppositions and squares in the sky on those days. Had he consulted the birth horoscope of the Republican party (born at Jackson, Mich., July 6th, 1854, noon) he would have found that on the two days mentioned the party's natal sun position was exactly sextiled by Neptune, its natal moon closely trined by Saturn and exactly trined by Pluto, and that these two most important points (sun and moon) received no discordant aspects from any transitting planet. It is small wonder then that harmony prevailed and that those were the very days of the grand rush to get on Landon's band wagon. There was some discord, however, indicated by the transitting Uranus being in square aspect to the Republicans' 10th house Mercury. Uranus, in politics, stands for radicalism, and the party's most radical member, Senator Borah, was the only disturbing element in the selection of the party's nominee and platform (10th house Mercury).

The magnetic attraction between Gov. Landon and his party is strikingly shown by a comparison of his solar chart (born Sept. 9, 1887) with the Republican natal horoscope, and the reason for his unanimous selection as the party's nominee becomes very evident. Following is a list of the inter-chart aspects, all of them very close, seven being of one degree orb or less, one of two degrees, and one of three:

Landon's		Rep. Party's
Sun	sextile	Sun
Sun	trine	Uranus
Mercury	sextile	Sun
Mercury	trine	Uranus
Venus	trine	Venus
Jupiter	trine	Pluto
Saturn	sextile	Venus
Uranus	trine	Saturn
Pluto	conj.	Venus

Such a remarkable and harmonious tie-up between two horoscopes is just about as rare as the proverbial "hen's teeth" and it is doubtful if even the charts of the most blissfully wedded couple in America would show its equal. Yet, one other significant aspect exists—Landon's Mars (aggressive energy) conjoins the Republicans' Mercury (speech and writing)—the import of which was brought out in Landon's statement: "I propose to wage the most aggressive campaign the Republican party has seen in years."

AIMEE SEMPLE McPHERSON, founder of the Four Square Gospel church in Los Angeles, recently became the victim of a revolting blackmail plot. On June 4th the papers informed us that she had received an unsigned letter demanding $10,000 on threat of exposing "quite a few photos of a friend and yourself in the nude." Later an ex-convict confessed to sending the note. Examination of her solar chart (born Oct. 9, 1890) reveals progressed Mercury, at the time the letter was received, in her 2nd house in direct opposition to her natal Pluto and Neptune, the latter two being only one degree apart. Transitting Mercury, retrograde, and transitting

THE GEMINI CHILD

Born with the Sun in Gemini May 21 to June 21, or with the sign Gemini on the Ascendant any day of the year. Children with the Moon in Gemini have these tendencies in family life.

THE GEMINI CHILD IS SLENDER, active, nervous and often rather delicate in constitution, being predominantly mental in type. Under severe affliction he suffers from diseases of the lungs, nerves, bowels, blood stream and feet. He is alert, clever, versatile, wide-awake, ingenuous, with unusually quick sight and muscular co-ordination. He does well in sports requiring quick wit and manual skill rather than endurance or brawn. He needs plenty of sleep in a cool, quiet and airy room, exercise in the open air and more than the usual amount of interesting companionship in order to thrive. Brothers and sisters are necessary for the Gemini child; if he should in some rare instance be so unfortunate as to be an only child he must be given constant daily companionship with his young cousins or neighbors in order to develop normally. He learns to walk and talk very young; his cleverness may make him a prodigy or an "enfant terrible" depending on the good sense of his parents. His busy mind and tongue never run out of material so his elders had better take thought about the quality of the interests supplied by his environment.

Don't expect your Gemini child to be either quiet or deep in his attitude toward life. His keynote is the communication of thought. He is a talkative creature—if he can't find someone to talk to he will write, for wastebasket consumption if necessary. His love of learning should be encouraged and praised, of course, but he should not be permitted to hunch himself over a book all the time. Let him go visiting, shopping, taking in new sights and faces, cycling or hiking. Let him spend weekends with relatives or schoolmates and give him the privilege of bringing his friends home. He is a born reporter, ranging from the village scandalmonger on up the line to a place among the world's great writers. He is curious, eager, always looking up new words or facts, debating or studying something, asking people questions, getting educated or teaching someone else. Thinking, gadding about and gathering information take up so much of his energies that he is shallow emotionally. He may be coquettish, conceited, "precious", fond of demonstrative affections but rarely feels deeply enough to know what love means. Fickleness, boredom, petty malice and lack of concentration are faults which need a great deal of overcoming. Moral training needs to be very thorough, since intelligence is a talent which can be put to many uses. A Gemini child is too adaptable for his own good at times, being a Jack-of-all-trades and leaving too many of his projects in the unfinished state of confusion. He is untidy, careless and childishly irresponsible all of his life unless trained by a very patient and persistent parent.

EDUCATION IS THE POINT OF SUCCESS or failure with the Gemini child. Express interest in his school work, answer his questions (heaven helping you to endure this torment), show him how to use all the local library facilities and encourage him to write

Why Calcium and Phosphorous Are Needed for the Mental Type

By DR. WILLIS G. SHEEMAN

THE UNDUE ACTIVITY of a planet or a strongly discordant vibration from it, either in the birth chart or in the progressed chart, tends to operate through the vital glands and upsets the chemical balance of the system in a peculiar way. Thoughts play an important part in the action of the glands. A glandular disturbance stimulates a given type of thinking and the given type of thinking increases the glandular disturbance. Through the action of the law of affinity, the individual at such times tends to be attracted to foods which aggravate rather than restore the chemical balance of the body.

Foods have an influence upon the type of thinking. Supplying the system with proper foods corrects the chemical unbalance and also assists markedly in maintaining the proper states of mind. Foods supply the substances of which thoughts are made, but if you do not eat Iron, Sodium and Silicon foods, you cannot have red blood, no matter what you think. The brain for its functioning requires material substances which are found in food and as these material substances cannot be thought into the body, they must enter the body in the form of food.

Two important elements are necessary for the production of thought and the efficient functioning of the nerves, namely Calcium and Phosphorous. More Calcium is required in both the physical and mental functions of the body than any other mineral element. Phosphorous combined with Calcium and other organic elements form the bony structures of the body. Just as the liver is the reservoir of sugar which can be called upon by the other cells when they need it, so the bones are the reservoir of calcium and Phosphorous. The ability to hold Calcium and Phosphorous in the bones is regulated by the parathyroid glands, but before Calcium can be held within the bones or before it can exist in the blood in solution, it must be supplied from without. Not only must Calcium be present in the foods, but it must be in a form which can be utilized. Calcium is found in dairy products and many vegetables. For instance, fresh pasteurized milk, quickly brought to a boil, gives a retention of Calcium three times as great as the slowly heated pasteurized milk or as dried milk. Evaporated milk, which is known to be so good for babies, has its Calcium easily available. Fresh raw milk is best of all. The Calcium of sweetened condensed milk is not readily assimilated. Cereals taken with the milk have the tendency to prevent Calcium assimilation. Spinach tends to decrease the power of the system to absorb Calcium. The drinking of orange juice gives a remarkable ability to assimilate the Calcium in spinach. The acid salts of the orange do not remain as such in the digestive processes because they are burned to produce alkaline carbonates and bicarbonates which readily tend to decrease and overcome the acidity of the body.

The food you eat may contain plenty of Calcium, but your body may have little ability to utilize these elements. During the summer months, we should soak up all the sunshine we possibly can, because there are rays that are absorbed by the skin and these rays have the tendency to keep and fix Calcium in solution. The life substance known as Vitamin D is most easily obtained by exposing the skin to sunlight or artificial ultra-violet light. Many foods also contain this Vitamin D, which is absolutely necessary in the maintenance of the Phosphorous-Calcium balance of the body. We should expose the nude body during the summer months to the sun's rays because we are utilizing Vitamin D, and the Calcium and Phosphorous of the foods is more easily handled. During the winter months when the body is heavily covered, Calcium and Phosphorous assimilation is very low.

Certain foods, such as oatmeal and other cereals, prepared breakfast foods, etc., tend to decrease the power of the digestive tract rather than increase its efficiency, and prevent the absorption of Calcium from the food.

When there is an affliction in the progressed chart to either Mercury or Uranus, this tends to disturb the nervous equilibrium of the person. If the proper Calcium and Phosphorous supply is present in the food or if concentrated foods are added to the regular meals as is now being done by so many people, this Calcium and Phosphorous is made available to the bones and nerves and tends to take the strain from the nervous system and restore the parathyroids to function normally. If Vitamin D in the form of sunlight is added, the Calcium and Phosphorous are utilized better, which assists at such times in resisting the tendency to nervousness and irritability. This steadiness of muscle, nerve and brain tends to steady thinking and makes it easier to direct the thoughts into harmonious channels.

The planet Saturn rules the bones, which are the chief depositories of Calcium. Calcium has a favorable effect in stabilizing the influence of other salts in the body, similar to the influence which the planet Saturn has in stabilizing the character. Calcium combines with Silicon, Magnesium, Phosphorous. Fluorin and gelatin in the structures of bones and teeth. Between four and five pounds of Calcium enter into the structures of the human body. Without Calcium a person could not move, act, walk nor stand up. Without Calcium we would fall together like an empty bag and be as shapeless as a sponge. Calcium lactate is of value in serious operations by causing the blood to coagulate at the surface of an injury, thus preventing one from bleeding to death. Ugly scars from wounds, cuts and operations can be prevented by the addition of concentrated Calcium foods. Tendencies to all sorts of hemorrhages, weakness of the arteries and veins are the results of not enough Calcium and Iron. Calcium affects the pulsation of the heart and governs all muscular movements. The cells of the body cannot thrive long without Calcium, as it increases the life of the cell and calls out its functional properties. Calcium, if fixed in the blood and kept in solution, saves us from the ravages of many germ species and dangerous diseases. Modern concentrated Calcium foods are a boon to humanity. So necessary are Calcium foods to the system that the body will tear down its own structures in order to obtain Calcium material for the maintenance and integrity of the internal secretions. Under the influence of Calcium foods, the brain gives up its knowledge, transmission is greater, poetry grander, science more profound, genius more brilliant and concentration more efficient.

Phosphorous is used in every faculty seat of the brain. It is impossible to even develop a faculty without supplying Phosphorous food first. If you try to develop a faculty or any feeling or characteristic without supplying yourself with Phosphorous food material which is needed by your brain, it becomes erratic and instead of building it up, you weaken it. People who imagine that mind, memory, reason, emotion, prayer, concentration, etc. can be developed by mere suggestion and mental ballyhoo do not know anything about the chemistry of man. For whenever we try to develop, we should not only use that special feeling, characteristic, impulse or thought, but should also supply the Phosphorous food needed. The brain in its function uses up a tremendous amount of Phosphorous at the expense of the rest of the body. The more Phosphorous goes to the brain, the weaker that person will be in a physical sense. We cannot use our eyes, nor ears, nor tongues, nor can we exercise emotion without utilizing Phosphorous and developing the brain. If any faculty of the brain is weak, there is

LOOKING AHEAD

BORN JULY 23rd to AUGUST 22nd

YOU lucky Leos will find yourselves possessed of boundless energy this year, which you can devote to self-education, with a view to increasing your earning power and making a reputation for yourself, and to having a good time. These two interests usually conflict, but this year they go hand in hand—that's why we call you lucky.

August, up to the 25th, bids fair to be a placid month, with emphasis on good times, clothes and pleasures you have not been able to afford heretofore, and a general atmosphere of prosperity; there are apt to be unique opportunities of making money. From August 25th to September 6th guard against occurrences which could upset your plans, perhaps jeopardize your standing with your friends or fellow workers.

The period between September 3rd and 18th is favorable for planning school and professional activities for the year, awaking enthusiasm in others, organizing sports and recreational facilities. Don't let laziness keep you from having a good time this winter. The square of Jupiter and Neptune which swings into place September 20th is a sound warning to you to keep away from money trouble, don't play the market nor the races, nor take long chances when investing money, at least still after the middle of November. Your judgment will be quite good at this period, however, and you won't find it hard to hang on to your money.

Leos must prepare themselves for a critical period beginning October 4th and continuing till March 14th. Your affairs are apt to become very much involved and very complicated, one thing depending on another, with misunderstandings over money, difficulty in connection with loans or trust funds. There will be mitigating conditions, however; your health will be very good and you will have an unusual capacity for work and organization, and by being patient and cautious you can work your way through; this period promises to be annoying but not of a permanently destructive character.

Home and family affairs in relation to community and public standing are likely to become important during January, 1937. You may find your family conflicting with your work or hampering your progress politically or professionally. This can be a very delicate situation and will require utmost tact in dealing with it, but be persistent and don't act till you have figured out the right course to bring home relations into control without friction.

VIRGO

LOOKING AHEAD

BORN AUGUST 23rd to SEPTEMBER 22nd

THIS year opens with Neptune and Venus in your first solar house, indicating that adaptability and sensitivity to the whims and ideas of others will be your character keynote for the year. This ability to fit yourself in with others will make you very popular with all groups of people and should make this year a happy one for you, even though you may not have as much money as you would like.

The first two weeks of September find you prepared to deal briskly and originally with home and family problems. This is the time for Virgo housewives to redecorate for the winter, and for Virgo parents to get their children settled in school, to see that everything around the house and in connection with the property is shipshape. In attending to business pertaining to your home or property be sure that everything is as represented. Don't let yourself be misled in making purchases or improvements, and above all, consult with your wife or husband frequently.

In spite of your ease of adaptability and your talent for social doings you are apt to encounter considerable lack of cooperation in any activities you undertake with others. The burden is apt to fall on you, though others will be there to seize the credit when the enterprise is carried to a successful conclusion. Guard against misunderstandings with co-workers. Keep joint accounts in good standing, and don't stoop to unfair competitive methods, no matter what your competitors do. These dangers will lessen after the middle of next March.

Guard against trouble, perhaps scandal, in connection with the opposite sex during the last week of October and the first week of November. Curb your impulse for careless generosity during November. Keep religious and political arguments out of your home. Don't travel during this month if you can avoid it.

December, the holiday month, should be a gay time for most Virgos, as both Jupiter and Mercury enter your 5th solar house early in the month, indicating pleasure and prosperity, a quickening of the senses and a finer degree of appreciation. Activities connected with entertainment, school, travel are well aspected, though some Virgo parents may be anxious about their children at this time. Virgo love affairs should progress very satisfactorily, and there will be plenty of parties and entertainments of all kinds to help create a romantic atmosphere.

WE RECOMMEND YOU SETTLE down to hard work in January; try to curb the restless feeling that may steal

By JOSEPH J. HALL

Secretary and Historian, Florida
Archaeological Society.

Which?

IN THE JUNE-JULY issue of this publication a story appeared, giving the experience of the author during a visit to the Adler Planetarium in Chicago. My own experience while visiting the Planetarium with a friend paralleled that of the writer of that article so closely as to make setting it down here mere repetition. The attitude of those in charge of that institution is so typical of the majority of astronomical scientists, however, that I cannot refrain from using it as an example.

They overlook the real Grand Plan of the Universe behind the effect, that these suns, moons, stars and planets move in accordance with the Will of the Divine Architect, in perfect harmony and under His direction, and when rightly understood they act as a guide to man in all his actions, recording events in his own life, also in various world affairs, nations, cities, etc. In fact it can be applied to all conditions to which man must conform. It serves as a means of recording world cataclysms, past and to come, and gives the ages of history in enduring characters, where they cannot be disturbed, stolen or destroyed by thieves and vandals.

Astrology and astronomy must go hand in hand. Astrology is the soul and body of the plan, while Astronomy is the blueprint or skeleton framework, upon which the edifice is erected.

John Kepler, the great astronomer, said, "Astrology compels my unwilling belief."

Tachó Brahe, one of the greatest astronomers who ever lived, when asked why he always put on his best clothes when he went up to look through his telescope, said, "I want to look my best when in the presence of my Maker."

Professor Fox of Adler Planetarium in answer to a question on Astrology said, "Astrology may have been all right thousands of years ago, but all wrong now."

★ ALL ASTROLOGERS must be qualified to correct this misconception, and be able to answer this question as to the difference between the two sciences, and why there is 30 degrees and 45 minutes difference this year between the planets' places as given in the Ephemeris and their places in the heavens as given by astronomers for his present year. One does not need a telescope to note the difference as the planets' positions can easily be seen by anyone who knows anything about where they are at the present time, and they can be seen by the naked eye. I have asked many astrologers why this is so, and many of them, even with 20 to 30 years experience did not appear to know there was any difference between the two sciences, or anything about the precession of the Sun, or equinoxes, and they still silently allow their profession of Astrology to be ridiculed and classed as exploded, pseudo and unscientific by material astronomers and others who are ignorant of its truth and value to humanity.

We are working with Cosmic Forces, the all prevailing, imponderable omnipotent Power back of all things, invisible to our physical senses but nevertheless working continually, silently, harmoniously, without friction, moving our universe and all other universes in accordance with natural law.

Our own little earth whirling on its axis 1,000 miles an hour at its surface, and rolling on in its orbit at the rate of about 70,000 miles per hour, makes its circuit around the Sun in one year, but fails to make the same position, falling back 50 seconds each year, one degree in 72 years, one sign in 2,160 years and making a Solar cycle in 25,920 years; this is called the precession of the Sun; it is the earth's movements which cause it, and not the Sun. Astronomers tell us that they know of thirty billion suns, all with their chains of planets moving like our own, our own Sun and earth being one of the smallest of all the systems of suns and planets.

★ THIS great power, supreme Ruler of this Cosmos, being too great for finite mind to grasp as it goes into infinitude, we must turn our attention to our little speck of dust, the earth, and realize that all of above apparent movements and cycles are caused by our planet earth and its aspects to the Sun, moon, planets, constellations, and the fixed Zodiac, all of which is related as part of the great scheme of creation and evolution.

All great achievements of man on the earth, all the wonderful relics and ruins found in every continent, and beneath the sea, go to prove that Man's supreme endeavor was to build something lasting and permanent, to preserve and perpetuate his reverence for his religion, and his Creator; massive stone ruins found in all parts of the world, in America, Europe, Asia or Africa, all show this same truth, that Man's first religion was an astrological religion founded upon scientific principles, as expressed in the Starry Heavens; their religions and science were one and the same thing, and it is the same today, in spite of the ignorance of some misguided individuals, who try to separate science and religion, when they cannot be separated, because science is dealing with Universal Laws governing the universe, and religion is dealing with the same laws.

In our archaeological research into all land and continents we find these facts beyond all doubt. Our own ancestors living in Europe for thousands of years, were ignorant of the American continent's existence and civilization. The American prehistoric peoples as shown by late discoveries, and study by archaeologists and astronomers, as well as astrologers, all show a superior knowledge of the movements of the Sun, moon and planets not exceeded in accuracy by any race ancient or modern, in Peru and Bolivia their ancient temples were oriented perfectly, their most famous remaining temple at Cusco was placed directly on the meridian, as shown by the theodolite, (an instrument for measuring horizontal and vertical angles) as used by the astronomer scientist. In Guatemala and Central America, after long research and study of the ancient American Mayan Race, Dr. Henseling and Ludendorph state that they had the best and most accurate calendar of any race in the whole world, and that their civilization extended back at least 12,500 years. These ancient Mayas were proficient in Astrology, and handed their superior knowledge down to the Aztecs and other races and tribes which followed them; these stone tablets covered with astrological symbols and terms which they well knew how to use, are preserved to the present day in the Great Aztec Calendar Stone of Mexico, the Swastika and Triskelion Calendars, and on monuments and temples still in existence at this time.

★ THE ANCIENT prehistoric Americans were good astrologers and they lived close to Nature, they observed the Laws of Nature as expressed in the heavens and on the earth below; they could predict the changes, past, present and future to a degree unknown at the present day.

As man becomes more materially minded and commercialized and crowds himself into large cities, and thus loses contact with Nature, he becomes ignorant of many of the natural forces which he formerly knew and heeded, for the good of himself and his family.

Our ancient Americans were a race

Trees And The Moon

By ROBERT E. DEAN

IT IS not generally realized, but one of the important spheres within which the Moon exercises great influence is in connection with trees. A few of the older beliefs and observations are:

In ancient days, the waxing or waning condition of the moon was considered of great importance with the felling of timber. Pliny, citing Theophrastus, says that the very best time to fell trees is when the moon is in conjunction with the sun, that day being called the Interlinium, or the "silence of the moon." He says further that Tiberius Caesar took advantage of that belief to fell the larches in Rhaetia which were necessary to rebuild the bridge of the Naumechia, which had been destroyed by fire.

Felling trees at the time of the rising of Sirius, the Dog Star, was also said to be favorable, and the timber used for building the Forum of Augustus was cut at that time.

Cato, in his De Rustica, gives instructions regarding timber as follows: "When you root up the elm, the pine, the nut-tree, or indeed any other kind of tree, mind and do so when the moon is on the wane, after midday, and when there is no south wind blowing. The proper time for cutting a tree is when the seed is ripe, but be careful not to draw it away or plane it when the dew is falling."

He says further, "Never touch the timber except when the moon is on the change, or else at the end of the second quarter. At these periods you may either root up the tree, or fell it as it stands. The next seven days after the full moon are the best of all for grubbing up a tree. Be particularly careful not to rough-hew timber, or, indeed, to cut or touch it, unless it is perfectly dry, and by no means when it is covered with frost or dew.

Even in comparatively recent times the wane of the moon, or when it is wedel, was considered to be the best time for tree-felling. It was recognized that as the moon grew less in the sky, so the amount of sap in the wood decreased or flowed downwards, leaving the wood dryer, and much in the same manner that the moon affects the tides.

Jacob Grim, a compiler of Teutonic Myths, mentions that a calendar printed by Hupfuff, in Strasborg, during 1511, appears the following advice: "With the moon wedel 'tis good to be in the hewing of wood", and he adds that the same precept is still given in many books on forestry, mentioning further that the full moon is called holz-wedel.

In very early times, carpenters rejected wood which had been cut when the moon was waxing, saying that at that time it was full of moisture and could never be fully dried, and, until recently, the Forest Laws of France contained a regulation that trees were to be felled only when the moon was on the wane.

This peculiarity is taken advantage of by certain peoples who have had absolutely no opportunity to become acquainted with these influences which may have been spread by the printed word, for there are well-authenticated accounts of uncivilized tribes in East Africa who, in their hut-building, use only posts which have been cut while the moon was waxing, as they consider them more durable and lasting when felled at that time.

It is also true that in Demarara there is a tree resembling mahogany called walala, which is much influenced by the phases of the moon. If the tree be cut at new moon, it is very tough and difficult to split, but if the moon is full at the time the wood is soft and splits very easily.

Announcing America's Greatest ASTROLOGICAL CONVENTION

Chicago, September 1, 2, 3,

IT IS the pleasure of your editors to announce the most thrilling news ever released to American readers and followers of Astrology—the great free-for-all get-together of America's astrological leaders and students in the Stevens Hotel at Chicago on September 1, 2 and 3.

We believe that every sincere follower of Astrology who can possibly afford the trip to Chicago at this time will find it to his advantage spiritually, mentally and financially to join this pilgrimage to Chicago, which during the three days named above will be the Mecca of Astrology in America.

Those of you who are fortunate enough to attend this convention will have an opportunity to meet personally many of those whose writings you have followed. Invitations have gone out to all known leaders in the field, as well as to many students not so well known for their work.

It is hoped and expected that this convention will give a great impetus to the study of Astrology all over America and will be the beginning of the second great era in the rapid development of this coming science. The keynote of this meeting will be SERVICE, not profit! If you think of it as a group of practicing astrologers who are combining to get more for what they do, you are missing the spirit of this endeavor. How to give more, rather than how to get more will be the theme of the meeting.

If you desire a detailed program, send a self-addressed and stamped envelope to Secretary, Program Committee, All-American Astrological Convention, 430 S. Michigan, Room 230, Chicago, Illinois.

BOOK REVIEWS

Astrology and Romance, by Elsbeth Ebertin. For several months it has been rumored in astrological circles that this great work by Miss Ebertin would be translated from the original German and published for American readers. The rumor has at last become a realization with the announcement of the translated edition by D. G. Nelson, the American publisher.

Once in a long, long time we open a book that thrills us from the introduction to the last page, and this is literally true of this book by a woman who has been called the German Evangeline Adams. Instead of writing a dry treatise on her subject, Miss Ebertin chose the wiser course of using actual cases as a basis for her work. The effect is something approaching perfection both in entertainment and education.

Twenty-one horoscopes, many of famous people, are presented to prove to even the most skeptical reader that Astrology holds the key to happiness in love as well as in every other earthly endeavor. No one who has ever loved, or ever hopes to feel the bitter-sweet influences of romance should fail to read Astrology and Romance. Today's Astrology Book Shop. In fine cloth binding, $2.65 Postpaid, paper cover, $2.15 Postpaid.

Self Mastery and Fate with the Cycles of Life, by H. Spencer Lewis. F. R. C., Ph. D. Simplicity is the key note of this new book, written by the author of so many worth while books that space prohibits even a partial list. Dr. Spencer has grasped the fundamentals of cosmic influences on our lives, and tabulated them in a way that makes them easy to understand and, what is more, USABLE.

What this book really constitutes is a simple system by which anyone can determine the good and bad daily, monthly and yearly periods in his or her life. There is really nothing to learn. Everything is laid down in black and white. Illustrated with easily understood tables and charts, this book is written to be used, rather than studied in the abstract. A practical application is not only pos-

Star Dust..

By the Editor and the Readers

★ FROM OUR OBSERVATION POST, which is admittedly isolated and somewhat off the beaten path, we have observed the making of history during the past month, and we are struck by the uncertainty which still grips the people of a great nation. We believe that this uncertainty is aggravated by the conflicting statements of those who are seeking office, and cannot help deploring a system that necessitates such tactics on the part of those who feel they have the qualifications to govern.

It is indeed cheering to note that leaders in Astrology are effected very little by the exaggerated pessimism of those who are "out" and the studied optimism of those who seek four more years of control over the nation's destinies. For our own part, we glance over the political propaganda of both parties with an open mind without expecting to find the solution to the future of the country in the highly biased writings of our self-styled statesmen. We have much more confidence in the indications which lie in the horoscope of the United States than we have in the statements which so often "lie" in the press releases furnished by the two opposing parties. Astrological indications are that the United States will grow in strength until it is the greatest nation in the world, culturally and spiritually as well as financially. That we are not slated to become a great military power is not at all regrettable, for military power is as transient as the fame of some of our so-called statesmen. For our readers we recommend a healthy doubt when listening to the "viewing with alarm" or "pointing with pride" of our two major parties. Let us think for ourselves and look for guidance to a higher source than the publicity bureaus of either party.

JIMINY OR GEMINI?

★ THE WRAPPER ON A CANDY BAR—no less—has Mr. Bert Treble, of Chicago, doing a bit of over-time worrying, and he would like us to put him straight about what's worrying him. "I have always thought that the slang byword, by Gemini, was an oath that applied to the sign, Gemini," Mr. Treble writes us, "but I have seen it spelled both ways, that is, by Gemini, and by jiminy. Now I note that a candy company has put a candy bar on the market using the latter spelling. While I don't believe in oaths of any kind, I did rather like the idea of swearing by the zodiacal sign, Gemini, instead of the Deity. But when the word becomes corrupted it finally loses its meaning entirely."

We agree with Mr. Treble that the word must have been "by Gemini" at first, and must have originated back about the time people began to use the exclamation, "my stars!" Perhaps it is too bad that by corruption, this lusty and expressive old oath has been reduced to a meaningless bit of jibberish, but beyond passing Mr. Treble's remarks on to the company who makes the candy, we see very little we can do about it.

COINCIDENCE?

★ "IT'S A FUNNY THING, the little things that may turn skepticism into belief," writes Mr. Justin C. Wells, of Memphis, and continues, "On the morning of January 24, 1936, I was waiting for a train to pass in front of me, not realizing that my car was too close to a track behind me. A scream from an oncoming passenger train warned me too late, and this train actually touched the rear bumper of my car, without doing more than frightening me half to death. The remarkable part of all this is that I was born at 6:15 in Kansas City, Mo., just 15 minutes after the gentleman referred to by Key Lloyd in your last issue. We were both born within 15 minutes of each other, and 25 years later had a narrow escape on the same morning! I give up. You fellows must know what it's all about—unless that is the most remarkable coincidence I have ever heard of!"

We have two answers to this. First, "we fellows" don't know what it's all about—not half. Second, we do not believe there is any coincidence in the two happenings. Just another instance among the thousands which prove Astrology right.

POLLYANNA?

An old St. Louis, Missouri, neighbor is rather peeved with your editor, and for what seems to us little or no reason. "I knew you when you were the darndest pessimist alive," he writes, "and now look at yourself! Singing Hozana from month to month. What's got into you?" Astrology perhaps.

TO INQUIRING READERS

To make TODAY'S ASTROLOGY more practical and increase the application of Astrology to every day interests and problems we will answer a number of questions for our readers in this Question and Answer Section. The number will depend upon our space. We ask you in the interest of the science to send in only sensible questions that are of real importance to you. There is no charge for this service, it being just another of our special features to increase the value of our magazine to our readers.—I.R.

G. F., Portland, Oregon. How about my chances for employment, and will I win in lotteries and horse racing?

Ans. To the first question, you seem to be in line for moderate prosperity during the last four months of this year, and some indications are present that the next two years thereafter will be good years. As to the horse racing and lottery gambling, we don't wish to preach—what you do with your money is your own affair—but with the exception of a few quick transits during the next year your judgment would be unsound in horse racing, and there is no reason for you to suppose you can beat the lottery. Only those marked for outstanding good fortune at anything can beat this game. Look for any failure you might have suffered in your employment affairs to a tendency in your horoscope to use so-called short cuts. The slow way in your case is the best way.

Mrs. S. D. P., Iowa. Would a change of location be beneficial, and shall my son be successful in a venture he proposes?

Ans. We will not attempt to answer the first question by geographic Astrology, as we are not sufficiently well versed in this branch, however, a change during the year is indicated as beneficial in your chart, and your physical and mental requirements seem to be plenty of fresh air and a warm climate. For these reasons, the change in location will in all probability give you a mental outlook that will assure you several active and successful years. About your son's business venture, don't be influenced by his outdoor tendencies. He can have his outdoors out of business hours. From his chart, he should be well liked by the public, and fairly efficient in a small business. He may have some trouble with subordinates, but his judgment may very easily be improved by practice. Why not let him try?

Miss A. M., Connecticut. Shall I educate myself for a career or continue doing housework for the benefit of my family?

Ans. Your chart shows a tendency toward ambition—without the ability to make a decision and then stick to it. For this reason, it would be unwise for you to break home ties to follow any of the work you mention, or even to get a technical education in those lines. If you will adapt yourself to home study, even via the magazine route, during the next three years you will enter a more settled period in your life and your judgment will be improved. Any drastic break now would probably "go sour." As for writing, write a little and read a lot. A subscription to one of the writer's magazines will teach you much. Go slow for the present.

McDonald. My Daughter's Chart resembles that of David C. Davis, used by Key Lloyd in your March issue. Will she become a great musician?

Ans. Your daughter indeed has a fascinating and quite an outstanding chart. One aspect denoting fame extremely early in life is missing. The chart you erected is essentially correct. Talent is indicated, and enough stability to follow up this talent with real achievement.

Aries, St. Louis. Will my husband's printing business succeed, and would mail order business offer gains?

Ans. A good financial key operates in your husband's chart during the latter part of September and this may mean the upturn. He seems to be of the type who would do much better by application to his work, thinking things out slowly, than by dealing with the public. Ask him if he doesn't often let deals get away from him after he has all but closed? A mail order business, well planned, would go a long way toward solving your difficulties.

ARIES - - August

For Those Born March 21 - April 19

★ Outings with the youngsters are recommended for your mental health.

PLEASURES and health occupy the stage for Aries natives in August, and both tend to be affected by your environment and choice of activities. If you have delayed a vacation, the first week of the month would be an auspicious time to enjoy one as travel is well aspected. Get out with younger people, if possible; join the children on picnics or camping or beach parties. Participate freely in outdoors sports and games, the more strenuous the better. You will find your health benefits by these wholesome, simple pleasures. You can avoid digestive upsets if you will shun dissipation, gay companions and late hours, and refrain from all excesses in food and drink.

Commercial transactions are favored. 9: You'll probably waste money this Sunday in foolish amusement or futilely on some woman. Never mind, that was a swell dinner, wasn't it? 10: An active day. You have lots of pep and if you'll refrain from gossip you can increase your popularity. 11: The mind is vacillating and indecisive, wait until a better day to settle any matter of importance. Don't let anyone else make up your mind for you, either. 12: The urge to tidy up the living quarters possesses you, and no closet or cubbyhole escapes you. 13: A fine day to make important changes in the home, to sell, trade or invest in property. 14: Repairs and improvements about the home can be made to good advantage but look out for minor injury such as cuts and bruises. 15: Uncertain emotions and a tendency to stubbornness can make trouble between you and a loved one unless you keep

Should there be no children or young people in your circle with whom to share your leisure hours, better devote them to pursuit of some hobby—gardening, cooking, and all artistic work find favor between the 11th and 31st. Clerks, bookkeepers and nurses are well aspected between the 8th and 27th. Consult the Aspectarian for the best days, there are several good ones.

The best fields for financial gain are in connection with music, inventions, railways, and electrical things. There is also a possibility of money acquired through the federal purse: a government bounty, tax rebate, or something of the sort, not expected.

Look out for some domestic unpleasantness on the 1st, 8th and 9th. It may be damage done to the home by cloudburst, lightning or fire. Foresight and paying heed to your intuition will assist in rendering these menacing forces harmless. If at any time during the month you feel blue without cause, seek cheerful championship or amusement in crowds; don't stay by yourself.

yourself controlled and reasonable. 16: The moon is new (which rhymes with woo) and Venus, sir and lady, smiles on you. Get busy. 17: You're apt to feel nervous and irritable due to some psychic cause. Try to analyze the cause with calm mind. 18: You'll suffer some less due to dishonest employe or servant if you aren't careful. Good for dealing in food, clothing, luxuries, animals, construction and transportation matters. 21: Cooperation from others comes easily. Refined pleasures—music, art, good conversation—for your enjoyment tonight. 30: A friend may prove disappointing this a.m. You may have to go alone to a social function this p.m., but go, anyway, you'll enjoy it. 31: Success and popularity, especially with superiors. Guard against self-indulgence tonight.

ARIES - - September

For Those Born March 21 to April 19

★ Love interest may dominate Aries minds during September.

LOVE INTERESTS dominate

the scene in September for the Aries-born, whether married or single. Now don't stop reading because there are no romantic prospects on your horizon or in your immediate life — love interests may also involve children, pets, parents, many other things. Whatever is the object of your affections, take warning not to express your feelings too ardently or impulsively, especially when Mars is afflicting (watch Aspectarian). To do so would invite scandal where the opposite sex is concerned; injury to health where love of pleasure or over-indulgence in strenuous sport is concerned; grief or loss in the case of children; bodily harm through treachery from pet animals; possible breakdown from overwork if the job is the big love in your life. Facing all these grim possibilities, you'll resolve right now to curb your ardor, won't you?

Conjugal love gets a better break, due to peaceful, serene influences in your solar 7th. You should enjoy many social pleasures with you spouse and probably will have some opportunity for mutual financial gain. Even if you do have an occasional spat, it won't be important or damaging to your future relations. Overlook the small slips in conduct. Only on the morning of the 17th, and the afternoons of the 2nd, 25th and 30th, need you be especially on guard against disappointment and unhappiness caused by the marriage partner.

You will have many pleasures of the more refined sort—books, music, card parties and movies—and should profit by any connection with schools, libraries, travel or entertainment enterprises.

Aries Daily Guide for September

SEPTEMBER 1: If you have any sick friends in the hospital or in distress this is a good day to visit them with gifts or delicacies. The aspects are much better for benevolence to others than for self-seeking and material gain. 2: Creative work should be done in seclusion. If your talents don't measure up to it, better spend the day catching up on correspondence or the family sock-darning. Avoid large social affairs. 3: A day to bear in mind that "the Lord helps those who help themselves." Don't be asleep or unready when Opportunity unexpectedly knocks. 4: A dull headache may be caused by leaking gas or fouled air. Plenty of fresh air will be better for you today than medicine. 5: Don't try to increase your earnings or income through dubious methods or on the alluring promises of a stranger. Deal only with responsible people. 6: Legitimate opportunities for financial gain present themselves. Act on them, if possible, between 3 and 4 p.m. 7: Labor Day: a short trip in celebration of the holiday is likely. Keep your wits about you tonight or you'll surely suffer a loss. 8: Some member of the family may unwittingly hurt your feelings. Don't be so sorry for yourself, it's silly. 9: Domestic affairs may be somewhat disarranged this a.m. Afternoon favors dealing in lands, buildings, groceries and household supplies. 10: You should get lots accomplished around the house today. Give attention to improving the home environment. 11: Feelings and emotions are stimulated but not for good; anger and tears if you don't keep yourself in hand. 12: A good day for dealing with professional men, young people and affairs of minor commercial character. Beware of auto accidents if out late tonight. 13: Interesting and emotionally satisfying experiences with young people this a.m. (Sunday school teachers take note). Eat lightly this evening and get to bed early. 14: Dress carefully if you go out looking for a job this a.m. There is quite likely to be some change for the better in your employment. 15: Don't let a temporary rebuff or criticism of your work discourage you. 16: New connections may cause you to work harder or limit your opportunities. Think twice before joining your destinies with another. 17: Today is ever so much better for expanding your business opportunities and enlarging your field of activities. An excellent day for weddings. 18: Relations with the opposite sex are subject to sudden and violent change. 19: Fireworks on the emotional front. 20: Give strict regard to the conventions, especially in matters of sex. 21: Both mind and body incline to restlessness, you'll be happier keeping them busy and active. 22: Give your imagination and vision free rein. Get away from routine duties, leave the office early if you find it hard to concentrate. 23: You're probably still champing at the bit. Vigorous outdoor sports will help work off that feeling. 24: A change of occupation is likely to work to your advantage. Don't let trifling annoyances upset you this evening. 25: Watch out that you don't make an embarrassing social blunder this p.m. 26: A good evening for club activities. Be on guard against abrupt changes in feelings and friendships. 27: Today's companions bring gain to you in some way. 28: Rest and quiet will be more beneficial than medicines and stimulants. 29: Stay away from hospitals, jails, breweries. Take no risks of any kind, especially in or near water. 30: Make no changes whatsoever in personal habits, routine or environment.

TAURUS - - August

For Those Born April 20-May 20

★ Paint or redecorate the home during the first ten days of August.

AUGUST brings considerable activity to Taurean homes. The first ten days would be good for paint jobs and redecorating or otherwise beautifying the abode. If you are in a business that is carried on within the home, or your income derives from newspapers, hotels, libraries or real estate and rental agencies, make the most of the first seven days.

After the 10th, watch the Aspectarian closely for times when carelessness or recklessness could bring damage to the home. Don't let the children play with matches or build bonfires in the vicinity of fences or buildings. If you live in a locality where electrical storms are likely, be sure your property is amply protected by lightning rods; see that your fire insurance policies are in force. There is danger of accident befalling your home in your absence; take every precaution for protection on the 1st, 8th and 9th.

Affairs of the heart are happily aspected from the 11th to the 31st. You may safely put all your eggs in one basket where the one and only girl (or boy) is concerned. Speculative matters in general are favored but it's wise to consult the Aspectarian for the best days involving any particular matter. Keep both your health and your emotions on an even, normal keel because disturbance of either will tend to affect love affairs to your detriment.

Saturn in your solar 11th is trying to put a wet blanket on your hopes and ambitions—don't let him. If you set your mind to it, you can achieve success and public acclaim, particularly if you are in a literary, artistic or amusement enterprise. The last four days are good for employment matters.

Taurus Daily Guide For August

AUGUST 1: There's apt to be increased interest in science or religion, or long flights of fancy. Guard against accident and injury after 6 p.m. 2: Your dress and manners win favorable attention, whether at church or in Sunday pleasure-seeking. Stay closely within the conventions tonight. 3: Anxiety and uncertainty over occupational matters make you a poor companion; try not to inflict your mental state on others. 4: Deal carefully with elderly people. Don't trust anyone unless you know them well. 5: You'll suffer some financial loss if you put too much confidence in new acquaintances or dubious companions. 6: Don't worry about your health if you feel under par. Probably all you need is a simple medicine—or less beer. 7: You needn't hesitate to assert yourself today, ask for what you want and you'll be pretty sure to get it. 8: Use your best energies and make the most of a winning personality if you'd add to your material well-being. 9: Beware of a run-in with the law this Sunday, it could result in a fine. Act on your hunches. 10: Friction with friends or associates will prove costly, so strive to stay serene. Look out for financial loss through the opposite sex. 11: Beware of schemers, especially the slick salesman. Shun games of chance. 12: Attend a dance or other social affair where the feminine element is essential to the general enjoyment. 13: New mental interests should be undertaken, particularly those of an inspired or romantic nature. 14: Visit or do something pleasing to grandparents or elders. 15: Keep the children from playing with matches or firearms. Clean up rubbish and eliminate fire hazards. 16: Don't go around with a chip on your shoulder. Seek to give others a good time in your home this evening. 17: Be careful that feelings don't triumph over good judgment. Keep your reasoning faculties alert. 18: A very unfortunate aspect for risky ventures of any kind. Seek recreation tonight with the radio or a good book. 19: Mental activity is strongly stimulated late this p.m. Put it to work wherever and however it will bring you the greatest pleasure. 20: Vigorous outdoor exercise will be very beneficial to your health, particularly a competitive sport, such as tennis or golf. 21: A good day to seek employment or try for promotion. Use extra caution if motoring after 10 p.m. 22: An excellent day for forming new partnerships, which of course includes marriage. 23: Don't quarrel with your mate this a.m., lest you drive him to seek consolation elsewhere this p.m. 24: The aspects are good for all joint undertakings; also the signing of contracts and agreements. 25: Gain is likely in public affairs or in any activity dependent on the trust and confidence of others. 26: Concern over the finances or property of the partner may lead you to bitter words and recrimination. Strive for tolerance and understanding. 27: Be very careful of anything you say in public this a.m. It would be wiser to postpone a speech or public announcement until after 3 p.m. 28: Pleasing the public taste is easy for you today; you are personally popular, too. 29: Observe the customary regulations this a.m. Do nothing to invite neighborhood disapproval or enmity. You are fluent with tongue and pen tonight. 30: If you are at outs with anyone this a.m., you may expect a change of heart after 3 p.m., and should get your wish. 31: People of influence and power can be counted on to aid you, at least until 8:30 p.m.

TAURUS - - September

For Those Born April 20 - May 20

★ Exercises will benefit your health all during the month.

DISTURBING, disarranging and possibly disrupting forces enter the home life of Taurus natives in September. You are quite likely to make a change of residence, perhaps to a better section of town, or in to the city where the children will benefit by greater cultural and educational advantages. In any event, a move tends to be favorable. In the case of business men, it will result in increased earnings. The health, also, may benefit by a change of environment. You younger Taureans may find yourselves separated from home and family, but being naturally self-reliant you'll really relish your new freedom.

There are a good many days in September when Mars will do the disarranging in the home life (watch Aspetarian). At such times your dwelling is under serious threat of fire, theft or accident in violent form. These are also bad times to speculate or invest in buildings or lands. If you must invest, put your money in oil, shipping interests or brewery stock, and do it only when Neptune is favorable.

You are inclined to be surcharged with vital energy which will result in unwholesome restlessness or erratic behavior unless you give it proper outlet. Strenuous sports, gym classes and the like would help, but for the most part try to convert it into mental energy so that you may develop the original ideas that come to you. All things out of the ordinary appeal to you; if you apply your ingenuity you may invent something of great service to others or importance to industry. Take no chances, however, in handling explosive chemicals or electrical devices when Uranus is adverse.

Employment gains and social pleasures are promised.

Taurus Daily Guide For September

SEPTEMBER 1: Better for having good times with friends than seeking favors from them. Shun doubtful companions tonight. 2: Study and concentrate to increase your knowledge and advance your ambitions. The hoped-for "date" fails to materialize this noon. 3: Better eat breakfast by yourself and thereby sidestep friction. Tonight finds you expansive, jovial and full of pep. 4: Be very careful of the people and things you contact. Stay away from liquids and waters. 5: Don't trust your own judgment; consult a person of authority in whatever line you contemplate making a change. Guard against egotism tonight. 6: A good Sunday for paying off accumulated social obligations. 7: Labor Day parades, speeches and picnics will appeal to you. This evening take no risks with the authorities or your elders. 8: Not a good time to ask favors or try for financial gain. 9: Avoid making luncheon engagements. Domestic happiness is in doubt. Benefits accrue in connection with foods this p.m. 10: Deal with land; repair and improve property. Buy something to beautify the home. 11: Don't be headstrong. Father knows best. Rash words or deeds will bring regret. 12: Add a sandpile or enlarge and improve the children's playground. Good for making any minor change in the home. 13: Get an early start on the Sunday pleasure trip. Get the children to bed by 8 p.m. 14: Success in connection with public amusements, women and children. If you should do any betting or speculating, trust to your intuitions. 15: Do something for the children's pleasure; reward faithful employees. 16: You'll have to work extra hard to keep up with competitors. Don't rely on surface appearances or first impressions. 17: A day to expand employment activities and better your position.

Seek feminine favor. 18: An accident on your way to work or in the performance of early morning chores is possible. Avoid haste and carelessness. 19: Guard against an outburst of either temper or temperament this a.m. 20: Don't quarrel with your spouse tonight or force your attentions on an indifferent companion. 21: Tax problems and the political outlook engross your attention. 22: You stand to gain financially through the partner's business affairs. Don't nurse a suspicion against the mate until it becomes an obsession. 23: Chance of gain through public affairs around noon. Some disappointment involving a relative or your occupation this p.m. 24: A good time to plan ahead how to improve your credit and enhance your community standing. Unpleasant news or annoying publicity this evening. 25: Mother-in-law interference is probable this p.m. 26: The partner will probably trump your ace or give you the wrong lead at cards tonight. Control your irritation. 27: Mingle socially with people of importance this Sunday; it will redound to your advantage. 28: You'll probably have to invent excuses this a.m. to escape unwelcome companionship which would interfere with a more desirable social engagement this evening. If it's lodge night, don't miss attendance. 29: Friends prove discouraging to your hopes or give you unreliable advice which causes loss. Avoid shady companions this evening. 30: Give your mind over to reception of psychic impressions and a seemingly inspired idea may burst upon you. Don't rush to put it into execution, however. It's not a good time to start anything new unless you are sure you can keep it secret. As for old secrets, this is the aspect that will pitilessly unearth them.

GEMINI - - August

For Those Born May 21 - June 20

★ Music and the arts well aspected for Gemini this month.

THE QUICK, active Gemini

mind will find plenty to keep it busy throughout August. The first week is likely to require much writing, talking and visiting, all very enjoyable. If the native's employment has to do with these things, the week should bring accomplishment and mental development.

Editors, bandmasters, movie directors, dancing teachers, in fact all who direct the literary and artistic talents of others are apt to be very successful in the period following the 10th to the end of the month. Watch Aspectarian for the most favorable days. Also watch your tongue, for you Geminis incline to impetuous speech during this time. The letter-writing urge will be strong the first ten days of August while Venus is exerting her protective influence, so you'd better get all correspondence and social visiting out of the way then, before Mars gets on the job to make you write or say things you'd later regret.

The period from the 13th to the 24th inclusive favors real estate salesmen and dealers in household wares. There may be illness in the home to cause you worry, or difficulty with domestic employees. Home matters in general will engage your best thought and effort from the 11th to the end of the month.

Marital affairs should be happy and all cooperative deals should prosper. Though there may be a lack of business opportunities for patronage, set it down to the midsummer doldrums and keep right on plugging. There is possibility of inheritance or gain from past investment for some of you Geminis.

Gemini Daily Guide For August

AUGUST 1: Public affairs and relations bring gain. Be very careful of accident in riding streetcars, buses or trains, and especially on bicycles after dusk. 2: Share Sunday dinner with friends. Guard against expressing your views too freely tonight. Relatives-in-law are apt to prove antagonistic. 3: Avoid the opposite sex. Don't depart from routine and familiar ways. Curb the tongue against gossip. 4: Your tendency today is to overwork. If you feel unaccountably let down tonight, realize it is only because you are tired. A good detective or ghost story will help you forget your blues. 5: Take no risks in your occupation. Even if you escape loss, you are likely to meet with obstacles, confusion and disturbing conditions beyond your control. 6: Deal only with those you can trust. There is an element of trickery and delusion surrounding you. 7: Friends are disposed to assist you to social or financial gain. 8: You'll feel charitable and generous today; it's all right to give freely but don't waste money. 9: Envy of others' possessions or opportunities can spoil your Sunday if you let it. Filling stations and soda fountains have a prosperous day. 10: Be careful that your excessive energy and optimism don't lead you to over-confidence that could bring disappointment. 11: Your judgment is undependable so do nothing that demands clear thinking and sound reasoning. 12: Women incline to bestow favors on you. The wife or mother is apt to do something particularly nice for you tonight. 13: A gainful day all around but especially where home and property interests are concerned. 14: Benefits from parents or older people in the home are indicated, provided you have done nothing early in the day to antagonize them. 15: Be extremely careful not to wound the feelings of loved ones. Protect children against accident during play. 16: If you'll control a tendency to egotism and boasting you should enjoy popularity with this Sunday's companions. 17: You may have to work unusually hard today, possibly due to the illness of someone in the home, but more likely because you tackle a difficult cleaning job. Seek mental recreation tonight. 18: Too much confidence in someone's promises or character may cause you to suffer loss. Forget domestic worries in a good game of bridge tonight. 19: An excellent time to consummate any business deal relating to property. Sign papers around 4:45 p.m. 20: Pleasant emotional experiences, especially where women or children are involved. 21: You will probably be entertained by a person of influence and power. Use caution against accident between 10:30 and 11 p.m. 22: A better day for serving others than oneself. 23: Don't indulge in anger or other emotional excess this a.m. You'll benefit from a good swim or other outdoor sport this p.m. 24: Advance your employment interests; ask for whatever you feel you deserve. 25: Resourcefulness, enterprise and perseverance will advance your personal welfare. 26: Some woman is apt to place obstacles in your path or disturb harmonious relationships. 27: The morning newspaper holds unpleasant news. # GEMINI - - September ★ Geminis in educational work will prosper during September.

YOU GEMINI folk must keep yourself well in hand throughout September in your relations with others, especially those with whom you came in daily contact. There is a tendency to be too outspoken, somewhat ruthless of others' rights and desires, and impatient with children. You're apt to say and do things not intended, and thereby make trouble for yourself among your neighbors and in the family circle, or invite needless accident. Be particularly careful to keep your head when driving where traffic is heavy or in school zones. With Mercury stimulating your mind strongly, you'll do much writing, reading and talking. Your words are fired with eloquence and enthusiasm. Obviously, political orators, radio speakers, editorial writers, actors and ministers are at their best under this aspect. Teachers also are favored throughout September, with the possible exception of the 5th.

The shadow of a dubious secret stalks through your solar house of home. It may be a chronic illness you're trying to keep hidden, or irregular goings-on with your secretary which you don't want discovered, or merely that you're trying to keep Dad from learning you've begun to smoke cigarettes! Better remember deception seldom pays. The last four days of the month tend to bring trouble with servants or employees.

Unless Saturn is very favorable don't try to expand your business or change your job. Beware of self-indulgence Sept. 30.

Gemini Daily Guide For September

SEPTEMBER 1: You should be able to wipe off old debts and in other ways make yourself popular in a business way. While the aspects encourage your seeking minor changes and favors, they are not good for attempting anything important or speculative, or requiring approval of superiors. 2: Today is much better for seeking promotion or salary raise. Make the most of it. 3: Morning inclines to occupational annoyances but the day winds up profitably, with much to your credit. 4: Not good for impulsive friendships; be sure your impressions are correct. 5: Don't be duped into false philanthropy today. Be charitable but know where your money is going, be sure the cause is worthy. 6: An appeal to your generosity or sympathies will not go unrewarded. 7: Looks as if you might win some sort of prize this p.m. or possibly a gift from an uncle. Your tendency is to be over-critical tonight, and to misjudge others. 8: Much time and thought, perhaps a measure of worry, too, will be given to personal affairs. 9: There is apt to be some costly damage to household equipment this a.m. Money is willingly spent on luxuries. 10: A fine day for scrubbing, cleaning and brightening up the premises. 11: Lovers' quarrels happen under this aspect. Rely on your own push, pluck and perseverance.

24: Be dutiful in executing others' affairs and careful in handling their money. Don't compromise with principles or honor. 25: The partner may cause you a setback of some sort in your business or profession. 26: It will be safer today to go in search of new knowledge rather than new adventure. Don't ride in a friend's car; don't consort with strangers. 27: You may go on a visit to grandchildren. # CANCER - - August

For Those Born June 21-July 22

★ Good forces for financial gain operate for Cancer throughout August.

MONEY and favors come easily to Cancer people this month. People are well disposed toward you and put money-making opportunities in your path, or pay you generously for services rendered, without any effort on your part. The danger is that you are apt to take your good fortune too complacently, spending lavishly and freely in the confident belief that money will continue to flow in unchecked. The chances are 10 to 1 it won't, so better not be too prodigal with your expenditures.

The good forces for financial gain operate, however, throughout the month, affecting a great variety of employments and professions at one time or another. Not only is the public well disposed toward you but your employees also take greater interest in your financial welfare. The last three weeks of August your own energy, both physical and mental, is strongly stimulated and will still further assist you in acquiring money and material possessions.

Don't make money your only goal. Give thought to others less well situated; take an active interest in your employees' welfare; spend some of your extra money on sweetheart or children, and make substantial expenditure on improving the appearance of the home.

From the 11th to the 31st you are apt to have a strong leaning for mental culture and uplift. Social diversions will be many and pleasurable.

Cancer Daily Guide For August

AUGUST 1: Don't quarrel with wife or partner. Guard your personal belongings against loss this a. m. 9: Better stay by yourself this Sunday if you'd avoid quarrels, disappointments and unhappiness. Social and domestic affairs flourish. 14: Good for improving the appearance of property and setting the house in order. 15: The pursuit of pleasure leads you into excesses and extravagance. 16: Children and young folk bring you more happiness today than your elders. You may suffer some financial embarrassment of minor nature. 17: If you've been worrying over some relative, or awaiting important news, you'll get a message this evening that should ease the mind. 18: Be very careful what you put in writing or tell a neighbor. Look out for automobile accidents tonight. 22: A gift to the current heart interest will not do you any harm—quite the contrary! 23: Don't start the Sabbath day wrong by losing your temper with the children. # CANCER - - September

Those Born June 21 - July 22

★ Domestic interests will occupy Cancer women this month.

IF IT'S TRUE that "the pen is mightier than the sword," the September planetary forces help to prove it for Cancer destinies. All Cancer natives who wield the pen, whether as writer, advertiser, bookkeeper, teacher, or in related occupations, have good indications of financial gain through their activities. The aspects on the 29th and 30th tend to give executive power along these lines, so assert yourself and you may get promotion to a responsible post.

Even though you have nothing to do with writing activities yourself, you will probably be thrown into association with those who have—dramatists, handwriting experts, graphologists and others who are doing inspirational or peculiar things with the written word. Some of these people will bring you unexpected benefits, although you must take care not to make friends with them too quickly or ardently.

Letters and letter-writing, telephone conversations, social invitations, pleasure trips and visits with relatives are among the things which make the first three days of September enjoyable. After that, you will probably find your greatest happiness within the home, buying new things for it, giving parties, cultivating domestic interests such as cooking, sewing or homecraft. You could have success raising pedigreed pets.

The month generally promises gainful employment, particularly for Cancer people in the legal, scientific, publishing, medical or transportation fields. There could be loss, however, in these matters when Saturn is adverse. Should you suffer illness—it would come through intemperate diet—you may be assured of excellent care, and might even gain in some way through it.

Things to guard against: self-deception, quarrels over money, extravagance.

LEO - - August

For Those Born July 23-August 22

★ Children will prove a help and comfort to Leos during August.

AUGUST opens with Leos right up on their toes, full of ambition, aggressiveness and executive ability to carry through their own or their employers' big plans. The first week is especially good for artistic pursuits and for businesses requiring imagination, resourcefulness and a strong sense of responsibility. You are sociable, friendly and inspiring to those younger or dependent on you.

Make the most of your good luck between the 1st and 10th but keep your wits about you and do nothing on impulse. Watch the Aspectarian for times when Mars is adverse so that you may avoid the troubles which quick temper, rash words or reckless behavior could bring down on your head. If you should get into any sort of jam, don't fib to your parents or boss about it. When Uranus is unfriendly you could easily get into serious difficulties with your employer.

If you should get involved in slander, scandal, or suffer loss of your job, choose the 13th of the month for a searching self-inventory and then try to reconstruct your habits and ways of doing things. If necessary, seek to create an entirely new activity for yourself.

Take part in all social functions that offer and stay in crowds rather than alone. Particularly avoid staying alone in the house on the evening of the 1st and 9th. The 5th is another day when you will be safer with companions close at hand.

Children will prove a help and comfort to you and the opposite sex is likely to bring you both happiness and success, especially when Jupiter is in good aspect. Engage in no hazardous sport or activity Sunday, Aug. 30.

LEO - - September

For Those Born July 23-August 22

★ Children's affairs will prosper for you in September.

GOOD INFLUENCES throughout September (except 3rd) make Leo natives wonderfully magnetic and inspiring. You are so full of zest and verve that others will perk up, unconsciously, at your mere presence. Not because of anything you do, particularly, nor because of what you are or have done, but chiefly due to this electric force of personality, others will be drawn to you and eager to do you favors. Lose no time cashing in on this magnetism which lasts until the 26th.

The first three days of September are indicative of gifts, money, social honors, as well as financial gain through artistic pursuits and the so-called luxury trades.

Shun speculation this p.m. 3: Better for making progress on the physical rather than the mental plane. The 24th suggests that you will change your job for the better or get advancement, unsought and unexpected. Though you may have some difficulties with employers or foremen at times when Uranus is adverse (consult Aspectarian) your keen, resourceful mind should show you how to overcome them. Try not to champ at the bit too noticeably; be adaptable.

There is some danger that you will wield to over-confidence, excessive ambition and headstrong action. You create your own fate when the fiery, forceful Mars is in your solar 1st, so follow the Martian aspects closely in the Daily Aspectarian.

Children's affairs prosper in September and bring you happiness. There is also the promise of pleasure, success and gain through love affairs, social functions, places of amusement, schools, parks, churches, financial enterprises and fine raiment. # VIRGO - - August

For Those Born August 23-Sept 22

★ Seek betterment and enjoyment in reading study.

EMOTIONAL

experiences seem to be the key to whatever happiness or unhappiness the month holds for Virgo natives. You are more responsive than usual to the emotional appeal and extremely sensitive to psychic conditions. Choose your environment carefully because you are peculiarly susceptible to its influences. Cultivate a few good caluses on your sensibilities, if you can.

Like the taut string of a violin, your feelings are likely to snap if played upon too roughly. Misunderstandings with friends, family disagreements, social unpopularity and coldness of the marriage partner are all possible sources of unhappiness if you allow over-sensitive emotions to get the better of you.

Be careful, however, of where you give your trust and on whom you confer your affections. Make sure that the love offered you is honest and sincere, and that no one else has prior claims on it.

Venus and Mercury both incline you to adventure during the early part of the month. You will feel strongly attracted to whatever is risky, romantic or mysterious. Those Virgos who are accustomed to these elements, such as aviators, explorers, archeologists, detectives, and the like may profit financially by yielding to the extra-strong lure, but other Virgos had best move with caution in strange places and secret doings.

Seek satisfaction for mental interests in reading and study rather than in writing or oratory, except during the last four days of August. At this time gain is promised through correspondence, lecturing, writing, and commercial affairs generally.

Virgo Daily Guide For August

AUGUST 1: Avoid doing anything thoughtless that might injure your community standing. Hospitality and generosity will be appreciated. 2: You're in a light-hearted frame of mind this Sunday. Careful that it doesn't turn into light-headedness this evening. 3: You find it difficult to concentrate on your work today. Get out and mingle with fun-loving companions. 4: Restrain that tendency to weep on a sympathetic shoulder and don't pull that silly line that your mate doesn't understand you. 5: You'll still have to buck opposition, both at home and abroad. Be wary in whom you impose trust. 6: Do nothing of importance today; loaf and get plenty of sleep. 7: Gain is indicated through public relationships; also favors from people of influence or authority. 8: A government check is indicated or money coming to you from a distance. Guard against loss of personal belongings this a.m. 9: You'll need the spiritual aid this morning's sermon could give—it's not a very happy Sunday on the material plane. 10: You'll have to depend more on your own energy and the help of superiors rather than popularity with associates, if you want to get ahead on the job. Beware of an envious woman. 11: Over-confidence and over-credulity in others will bring disappointment. 12: Aspects are good for entertaining friends in the home. 13: An all-round good day, you are popular and due for a happy time with friends and in the home circle. 14: Friends will aid you in domestic problems or troubles. 15: Guard against being headstrong or indiscreet, especially in pleasure-seeking. Wait for a better day to take children to the circus. 16: Plan a picnic or similar excursion for this Sunday, in which the young folk may share. 17: A safe time to fire and hire, if employees are lazy and inefficient. 18: Better wait until evening to make any definite change in your personal affairs or habits. Don't scorn the aid of your wife, you Virgo benedicts. 21: Success and prosperity come to you through the influence of persons in power. Seek a raise in salary or a bigger allowance from Dad. 22: Good news in a letter, pleasant visits with neighbors and friends and gratification of your desires of the moment, all are promised. 23: Keep the emotions well in hand and don't argue at the breakfast table. Accompany the spouse to a concert or other place of refined amusement this p.m. 24: Visiting, shopping and social functions are well aspected. The afternoon is good for pleasure-seeking and participation in contests. 28: You may play your hunches with safety this p.m. The aspects are good for all kinds of speculative things. 29: Shun whatever has to do with investments; also, amusements and young people. Lectures, radio addresses, even soap-box orations, are favored tonight if you're the one who makes them. 30: The nerves are apt to be on edge today. Seek wholesome outdoor diversion of a kind that will stimulate the circulation. 31: Radiant health this a.m. Doubtful relations with opposite sex tonight.

VIRGO - - September

For Those Born August 23-Sept. 22

★ Spend extra money on things that gratify your love of beauty.

ARTISTIC pursuits and pleasures loom large on the Virgo map for September. While you will make money in appealing to the public taste for whatever is beautiful and skilfully wrought—whether it be a painting or a prize angel-food cake, a poem or a trapeze act—you will also spend money on things that gratify your love for the beautiful and luxurious. The artistic feelings are especially stimulated the first three days of the month—a time when you also get increased admiration from the opposite sex. (Is your date-book handy?)

You must be careful, however, not to yield to seductive wooing. You are in danger of being strongly attracted to the wrong people, to suffer from misplaced affection, from gossip and loss of reputation through indiscreet or reckless conduct, even though it be wholly innocent. Don't consent to any secret rendezvous, or park with your "date" on a lonely road, or participate in any risky adventure "just for the thrill."

The domestic life on the whole is serene and comfortable for Virgos in September, barring possible incompatibility for you who are married and trouble through relatives-in-law. You can sidestep these unhappy eventualities if you will refrain from forcing issues at times when either Saturn or Uranus are adverse.

Take no risks with large animals when Mars is unfriendly; don't overwork or be reckless of your health from the 27th to 30th; get plenty of sleep, also mental relaxation, throughout the month. Let your social pleasures be with old friends or those you know thoroughly and can trust.

Virgo Daily Guide For September

SEPTEMBER 1: A good day for contracts, partnerships, social affairs, cooperative ventures and reconciliations, but not good for obtaining support from superiors or those in authority. 2: Card games and similar social amusements involving partnership play are well aspected for evening. 3: Gain is indicated through a bequest, trust fund or inherited property. 4: Be very careful of tainted meats and preserved foods of all kind. 5: A day to recall the old saying: "A bird in the hand is worth two in the bush." Don't get in duteh with the law after 9 a.m. 6: Benefits are coming your way from relatives-in-law or professional people. 7: Advance intellectual interests. Seek favor from relatives at a distance. Don't make any important change of plan affecting either occupation or credit. 8: Delays and discouragement cast gloom over whatever you try to accomplish today. # LIBRA - - August

For Those Born Sept. 23-Oct 22

★ Crime solution favorably aspect-ed from 11th to 31st.

FRIENDS and associates will have an important influence on the August destinies of Libra-born folk. If you allow yourself to be too soft-hearted and credulous their influence will prove unfortunate. There will be some with an ax to grind, so don't be taken in by their flattery. Especially after the 10th, it will be wiser for you to court favors than bestow them. If Mars is adverse (watch Aspectarian) don't go bond for anyone or endorse a note for a friend.

The wise course for Librans is to keep pretty much to themselves. If you must have companionship, let it be women, younger people or those of an artistic bent. They will prove more helpful to you than older, practical people or business superiors. During the first nine days of August Mars makes you irritable, domineering and overly impetuous. Be particularly on guard against quarrels with parents or superiors on the 1st, 8th and 9th.

Rest and seclusion will benefit your health. Don't neglect any illness or ignore strange symptoms. Poor health could mean loss of employment opportunities. There is a tendency for circulation and other physical functions to slow down. Corrective medicines or exercise should be promptly taken. Horseback riding is advised where practicable.

Study, laboratory research or thinking things out alone will ultimately advance your success. Medicine, chemistry, occult sciences and crime solution are under favorable aspects from the 11th to 31st.

LIBRA - - September

For Those Born Sept. 23 - Oct. 22

★ Many of your good times will be with children or adolescents.

LIBRA friendships, particularly those of a romantic nature, are none too favorably aspected for the first 26 days of September. You must guard against the impulsive, thoughtless act that could alienate others' affections and bring you unhappiness. Your emotions are tinder, ready on slightest provocation to set the sparks flying, invoking angry words and ultimate estrangement. Though Mars can be relied on to stir things up in your Solar 11th, it will nevertheless be largely up to you whether his turbulent proclivities bring sorrow and loss or merely give wholesome stimulation.

You will probably find those who are younger than you or with literary interests the most congenial companions. Many of your good times will be with juveniles or adolescents. If you have children of your own, the aspects tend to raise your hopes and aspirations for them. When Mercury is adverse, acquaintances become pests, and friends give you wrong advice or make trouble for you, although without slightest intent.

The general public, however, as well as business associates and members of your immediate family, bring gain. You are in line for favors, money and other advantages from them. Rivals take a friendly attitude and you'll reciprocate—even though you do try to outshine them as a "good spender" and squander money needlessly on dress, appearance, and personal adornment.

Aspects are not good for employment matters except on the 10th when those in sedentary or laborious occupations may benefit. Be guided by the Aspectarian to avoid illness or accident.

Libra Daily Guide For September

SEPTEMBER 1: Be sure you present a good appearance if your employment takes you into contact with others. You'll probably find your work more successfully if you go it alone. Be careful what you drink tonight. 2: Seek to know all there is to know about your job. Don't be over-optimistic; Pollyannas often defeat themselves without knowing it. 3: Don't hesitate to seek cooperation from superiors. A little social climbing is not amiss. 4: Beware the dazzling night-club girl or gigolo. Shun companionship with those outside your natural sphere. 5: Provide against the inevitable rainy day. Shun psychic phenomena, fortune-tellers and odd characters in general. 6: Give an important social function this p.m. to discharge accumulated obligations. 7: Financial gain through past investment is possible. Place no trust in strangers of unfamiliar things tonight. 8: Don't start anything today you can't speedily finish. 9: Household worries beset you this a.m. But everything turns out lovely this p.m., especially if you're giving a party. 10: Another good day for entertaining in your home; also for dealings in property, lands and related matters. 11: Guard against outbursts of temper, broken engagements, scandal, social ostracism. 12: Financial success and happiness comes to you through the instrumentality of friend or lover. 13: Study to further your aspirations. Worry over private affairs, especially a secret affliction, will only make matters worse. 14: You'll be happier and more successful if you do your work alone and preferably in seclusion. A good aspect for those naturally so situated—research workers, scientists, writers and the like. 15: Should you feel neglected and unappreciated, don't nurse your self-pity. Seek sunny-natured friends and you'll quickly snap out of it. 16: Must we repeat it?—Stop worrying about what others think of you! 17: Your social life is apt to be important, active and satisfying. 18: You're inclined to be careless in dress and sarcastic in speech. It won't help you win out if others are also after what you seek. 19: A sudden infatuation may lead you into rash and foolish expenditures. 20: Don't let ardor tempt you into extravagance or excessive demonstration of the affections. 21: Join in a hike, mountain climbing expedition or riding party; it will do you a world of good. 22: The mind is exceptionally receptive; take care, therefore, that you come under the influence of responsible and upright persons, others will surely trick and defraud you. 23: A day to use all the push and enterprise you can command. It would profit you to be more cooperative.

SCORPIO - - August

For Those Born Oct. 23-Nov. 21

★ Those who follow the sea may cause you anxious moments.

IT'S NOT the heat (nor the humidity) but the fiery planet Mars who will disturb the peace and welfare of Scorpio natives in August, if you allow it. He operates a good share of the month in your solar house of occupation and honor, where he will tempt you to say and do things on impulse that could get you into all sorts of difficulties. You'll feel so self-confident and aggressive you may try to impose your will on your superiors—with unfortunate results. If you keep this force within bounds it can bring you promotion and a raise in salary. Follow the Aspectarian carefully to be advised when the Martian currents are good or adverse.

Your best channels for business success are in selling to the feminine buyer or catering to feminine needs, although musical and artistic pursuits also come under the favorable influences. The first week of August is good for public service and responsible position under a superior. Social success and popularity are possible whenever Venus is not adverse. (See Aspectarian.)

Friends will bring you inspiration and mental development and possibly financial gain as well. You will be attracted to literary and scientific people. Poets, musicians, mystics, night-club entertainers or those who follow the sea are likely to figure prominently in your life, not always to your ultimate advantage. Beware of unfortunate complications through your friendships; also of treachery from supposed friends.

SCORPIO - - September

For Those Born Oct. 23-Nov. 21

★ Jupiter's good rays increase Scorpio's chances in Government work.

SCORPIO energies will be expendent throughout September chiefly on occupational affairs. So great is your urge to get ahead that you may try to keep two jobs going at once, with no time out for pleasures. Your desire to get to the top, professionally or in business, in the quickest possible time, may tempt you to ruthless tactics. With impulse and emotion predominating, you are not likely to give much sober reasoning or practical planning to your vocational affairs. The same influences tend to promote turmoil and industrial strife.

Except when Mercury is adverse, the aspects favor public service and all occupations embracing writing, printing, teaching, mathematics and the handling of others' money. Jupiter's good rays increase your chances for success in government work, law, scientific and transportation concerns.

During the first three days of September friends are inclined to aid your aspirations. Favors from women as well as social success are indicated. The last four days of the month are less fortunate in these respects.

Scorpios must take no risks or chances of any kind. Under Saturn's bad aspects you'd invite disappointment in love, loss by speculation, danger from animals while pleasure-bound; when Uranus frowns, sudden and irregular unions with unhappy results, loss through strangers, the law, and in public contests. Looks as if you'd better check over the Aspectarian every day!

You'll feel an urge for romance, mystery, adventure, and at times an intense longing to be alone. Horseback riding will appeal to you and can be beneficially practiced. Under good Venus rays, all these desires may be safely indulged.

SAGITTARIUS - - August

★ Employment problems may absorb your attention in August.

EMPLOYMENT

problems will absorb the attention of Sagittarians in August. If in business for yourself it is important that you keep well, not only in order to give personal attention to management but also that you may feel equal to the heavier responsibilities and work that are apt to be your lot. On the mental plane, the influences tend to put you in fine fettle to cope with anything. If you keep your natural optimism and self-confidence uppermost, vexations will be powerless to get on your nerves.

You will probably extend the circle of your business friendships; these and others bring you inspiration and financial gain. You will have a chance to prove your merit and ability between the 11th and 31st and may receive some special honor. In any event you will be popular and should be successful in almost any occupation, provided you avoid legal complications and illness.

Your mind is stimulated to fresh activity, bringing you resourcefulness and the desire for more than one iron in the fire. Take care lest you scatter your energies. Concentration on the business immediately at hand is essential on the evening of Aug. 3.

Make the most of the first ten days for promoting your social and domestic welfare because the rest of the month inclines to trouble and quarrels with relatives-in-law. There may be difficulties and worry over property and a generally unsatisfactory home life, possibly due to the partner's extravagance. Stay out of water (swimming, boating, etc.) between the 1st and 10th. The 8th is a favorable day to start a vacation trip and the 20th to return but for the most part avoid travel that takes you any distance from home.

SAGITTARIUS - - September

For Those Born Nov. 22-Dec. 21

★ You may yearn for life in distant places during this month.

FORCES largely beyond the native's control tend to agitate the Sagittarian map in September. Lawsuits threatens; litigation over property, inheritance and mines could occur; the wife's relatives may try to make trouble; domestic developments are likely to bring heavier responsibility and harder work. Luckily, you have a variety of good traits, likewise set into activity, to help you solve your problems: courage, logic, good reasoning, daring, energy and enterprise. So keep smiling, there'll ultimately come a happy ending.

Being extremely sensitive to conditions surrounding your employment, you should not work with uncongenial associates, nor employ subordinates who irritate you in any way. You are in danger of nervous illnesses and industrial accident at times when Uranus is adverse (see Aspectarian). Never eat when tired, nervous or angry. Don't worry or yield to doubt and indecision. Don't scatter your forces, either; concentrate on one thing till completed.

You will be active in the defense of your rights, and in defending them, may bring on rather violent contention and strife. Nevertheless, you are promised considerable social popularity, the good will of companions, and favors from friends, particularly women.

You are apt to have a desire for life in, or knowledge of, distant places. Perhaps you can transmute this desire into business connected with shipping, foreign travel or trade, long-distance transit operations, or you might try conducting citizenship classes for foreigners. You have a chance to perform an exceptional service to inferiors on Sept. 24.

Sagittarius Daily Guide For September

Avoid dealing with landlords, rental agents and real estate brokers. 2: Another day better for minor activities within the home than large-scale deals affecting it from without. 3: You'll probably be the life of the party wherever you are tonight, and by the same token, the belle of the ball. You're the Big Moment in somebody's life. 4: Perhaps you put too much stock in last night's popularity? Anyway, you built up to an awful letdown this a.m. 5: Be reticent and somewhat aloof with co-workers. Don't lend them money this a.m. Financial success comes easily this p.m. 6: An important social contact made this Sunday may advance your business welfare. 7: Even though it is a holiday, write all those checks payable before the 10th. The marriage partner will probably connive to keep you from stepping out tonight. SATURN, Uranus and Mars are trying to play the role of the three Shakespearean witches chanting, "Double, double, toil and trouble," for you Capricorners this August. But it's all play-acting, because in the end you are certain to triumph over your troubles and prevail over your enemies.

Just the same, you will find it hard to avoid worry and anxiety. Letters and important messages are apt to go astray; family affairs are disturbing; children cause grave concern; the partner squanders your money; journeys are delayed or prove disappointing. Not all these things will happen to all Capricorn natives, but all are possible and can best be met or forestalled by a calm manner, clear thinking and decisive action. Keep the mind alert and don't yield to forebodings or distressing dreams.

Even more important, don't be the cause of your troubles. Rash love affairs and quarrels leading to divorce or separation could occur between the 1st and 10th. Take no risks of any sort; protect your own and other people's property against fire, accident and loss. Be cautious in traveling and don't get involved in the affairs of your wife's relatives from the 1st to 11th.

Rest in a sanatorium, camping in the woods far away from civilization, vacationing on a quiet farm or ranch, anything that brings peace and quiet and solitude will prove beneficial and will help erase your worries and troubles. If conditions are such that you can't get away, lose yourself in concentrated reading and study, spend your leisure hours attending concerts, visiting art galleries and in other soothing and uplifting diversion.

CAPRICORN - - September

For Those Born Dec. 22-Jan 19

★ Hospital and institutional affairs better aspected this month.

BUSINESS carried on within the home, or in partnership, has good aspects for success in September for Capricorn natives. Perhaps your success will be written in terms of popularity and increased patronage rather than "cash in hand" but ultimately that should come, too. Gain through the mother and through musical pursuits is also indicated.

Generally speaking, personal relationships spell trouble. You are likely to quarrel with the spouse over money, to be faithless in love, and dictatorial or unsympathetic with children. You may entertain unconventional ideas on sex and a liking for daring pleasures and queer places of amusement. Beware lest you suffer mental anguish on the 24th.

There will be several times during September when the Capricorn mind tends to gloom, misgivings and morbid fancies. Trouble, loss, disappointment, annoyance and delays in connection with writings, relatives, changes and travel do nothing to assuage your despondency. The best thing you can do is to watch the Aspectarian for times when Saturn is adverse and prepare yourself to meet your troubles bravely.

It is possible that you could find consolation in the teachings and wisdom of the ancients, or perhaps by working in quiet places away from crowds and companions. Hospital, institutional and philanthropic affairs are under good aspects, if they mean anything in your present life.

You may be quietly benefited or receive secret aid from some influential person during Jupiter's good aspects. The last two days of September promise both gain and happiness through friends.

Capricorn Daily Guide For September

AQUARIUS - - August

For Those Born Jan. 20-Feb. 18

★ Protect crops or gardens from loss through marauders, stray dogs, etc.

AUGUST dog days — and a dog's life for you Aquarians unless you resolve right now to be extraordinarily patient, forgiving and unselfish. The business partner is apt to be captious, critical and difficult to get along with; the marriage partner inclines to sarcasm, nagging and fruitless argument, and after the 10th will probably be cold to your affection and repel any demonstration of it. Consideration and an understanding attitude will pay in the end.

Relations with the public and with friends will be far more harmonious and satisfactory. Although you may feel that lack of money prevents you from taking advantage of opportunities, if you will cultivate important and powerful acquaintances their influence may help you attain your ambitions. If you must have ready money, borrow from friends; you can rely on their loyalty and devotion.

Since your health would ultimately suffer from excesses, practice stern self-discipline, particularly during the first nine days of August. Be careful of injury from animals on Aug. 9 and don't invite an accident in the home on Aug. 30. Small animals may cause trouble on the 1st and 8th; protect your crops, garden, lawn and chickenhouse against marauders, stray dogs and the like.

Don't let vexations or domestic troubles get you down; utilize the knowledge gained through experience and strive for the philosophic attitude. Shun sleeping powders and narcotics, they might solve the coroner's problem but they won't solve yours!

There are strong indications you will travel the last four days of August, if not actually and physically, at least mentally into new realms of enlightenment and delight.

AQUARIUS - - September

For Those Born Jan. 20-Feb. 18

★ Guard against family quarrels when Mars is badly aspected.

TWO HEADS may be better than one (if we believe the old saying) but two hearts are worse than one in the Aquarian chart for September, when the planets get into action. The chief afflictors are in your solar houses of marriage (or business partnership) and home. The principal instrument of affliction appears to be money—or the lack of it.

When Mars is on the rampage, look for quarrels with your spouse. Be assured it will be no nice, ladylike affair of simple argument; fists and fur will fly. It is a time when passions and emotion get the upper hand of judgment and cause you to do impetuous, often violent things. It is under this aspect that marriage bonds snap, so be warned and keep a sharp eye on the Aspectarian. Marital finances or excessively amorous conduct will be the troublemaker.

Many of the ups and downs in financial matters will be due to peculiar conditions beyond your control. (But just try to make your spouse believe it!) It may be wise for you to move to a house or apartment where rentals are lower. In any event, you are pretty sure to have to practice severe economy and thrift. It is quite within the possibilities that such commendable conduct will bring you reward from employer or father. There is also a prospect of financial gain the first three days of September, and through people of influence and power whenever Jupiter is friendly, so be sure you cultivate the highly placed among your associates and acquaintances.

Friends will be loyal and helpful; they can be instrumental in the attainment of your ambitions, if you give them a chance. Benefits from distant relatives are possible, also from employees.

Aquarius Daily Guide For September

SEPTEMBER 1: Money may be made to-day in obscure ways or through secret methods. Hidden channels of information present new financial opportunities. Shun panhandlers and confidence men. 2: Secluded and solitary work holds the best promise of pecuniary gain. 3: Don't let anything in this morning's paper or mail disrupt your plans. Be active in social and business affairs; make your presence count. 4: Your worst side keeps persistently turning up to "gum up" relations with others. Don't depend on letters of reference to prove your worth. 5: Don't do any bargain-shopping this a.m. Do your buying at reputable houses this p.m. Guard against theft in the home tonight. 6: A gift from Dad is indicated. 7: A good day to advertise rooms for rent or household goods for sale. Avoid card games, romantic ventures and amateur entertainments. 8: Children's affairs, or possibly the neighbor's youngsters, cause you worry and annoyance. 9: Clerks, secretaries, the hired girl, or maybe it's just dear old Auntie, seem obsessed to upset your apple-cart this a.m. Strive to be philosophical about it. 10: Eat a hearty breakfast so you'll feel fit and vigorous for tackling hard work ahead. 11: Marital spats this evening or quarrel with the partner at cards, wounded feelings and hurt pride. 12: Good for signing contracts, opening joint bank accounts, getting married, adopting an orphan. 13: The spouse changes his or her mind regarding Sunday's plans for pleasure. Eat lightly tonight and get to bed early. 14: Financial gain and success in handling the affairs of marriage or business. 15: Benefits from those in public service, possibly a government pension or check. 16: A traffic jam is likely to cause you delay this noon or you may find detour signs compelling you to alter your route. 17: The mind is keen, searching and ingenious. You should have no difficulty getting several jumps ahead of competitors today. 18: Don't spoil your chances by boasting about how smart you are—or were! 19: A sudden change impends, affecting your business, professional or public status. Don't force issues. 20: Indiscretion or carelessness with the conventions invite public disgrace. 21: Group activities outdoors, such as games, sports, hayrides and hiking expeditions prove pleasurable and beneficial. 22: Deal actively and confidently with business and professional people; don't let minor disappointments and discouragements deter you. 23: Canvassing, selling, soliciting as well as social activities are favorably aspected this a.m. Keep your private affairs from the prying eyes. 24: Occupations demanding investigation and quiet, intensive work are favored. Sorrowful news possible this evening. 25: Scandal is certain to follow if you indulge in liaisons and secret meetings. 26: Any change made in your personal life is likely to work for the better, provided it comes naturally and not by force. An aspect under which acquaintances become warm friends. 27: Wear new clothes and step out socially. Someone you encounter today may have an important influence on your personal life. 28: Investigate new ways for making money. Did it ever occur to you that money saved is money earned? 29: Don't risk a penny needlessly today. Neither buy nor invest since your judgment is sure to be poor and subject to dubious influences. 30: Disappointment, delays on journeys and with business appointments. # PISCES - - August

For Those Born Feb. 19 - Mar. 20

★ Pisces women may succumb to "crying spells" this month.

PISCES people should resolve to take things easy, both subjectively and objectively, during August. Your tendency is to overdo. During the first ten days you are apt to overeat and make yourself ill; during the rest of the month you incline to emotional orgies—crying spells, fits of temper, excessive ardor toward the object of your affections, needless waste of vitality and strength in the pursuit of good times and in striving to be the life of the party. You fret and fume unnecessarily over the affairs or conduct of employees. Spells of "nerves"—unless controlled—will lead you to say and do irrational things. Try to convert this excess emotional force into physical energy by working hard at something you enjoy.

You have many opportunities for social pleasures after the 11th and will be popular and successful with the public. Too much dancing or being on your feet may induce foot troubles. On the 15th guard against shock; also collapse from over-exertion.

After the 8th you are likely to be drawn into the partner's business affairs and relationships. Give him (or her) full cooperation and do nothing to hamper his progress.

Though you may encounter some trouble over taxes, licenses or the financial affairs of others the last four days of August, the month as a whole promises favors from superiors, good will of the public, help from relatives in the occupational life, and financial gain from the public or through political office. So, as was said in the beginning, take things easy; good things are more apt to come to you if you don't try too hard to get them.

PISCES - - September

For Those Born Feb. 19-March 20

★ Don't burn the candle at both ends if you value your health.

PLANETARY positions in the

Pisces map for September are far more favorable to employees than to employers. If you belong in the latter category you are likely to suffer loss, theft and other troubles through those who work for you, as well as many minor vexations. On the other hand, if an employee, you stand to gain. Promotion to higher position and assistance from those in authority are indicated under favorable aspects of Mercury and Jupiter. Financial success is within reach whether you are master or hiring.

There is some danger that you will overwork this month or otherwise impair your health. Don't burn the candle at both ends in your pursuit of fun and be careful of all excesses, especially smoking which in time would damage the heart. Restrain yourself from getting nervously excited and overwrought. While on the subject of health, it's not too early to warn you against contracting a head-cold. Also be careful of injury from animals in your employment.

The month inclines Pisces natives to sudden upheavals and changes. It suggests separation from neighbors and kin, possibly from the partner as well. Whenever you go places by automobile or other motor vehicle, be extremely cautious of the car that tries to pass you on a hill or curve; give him wide berth. Don't travel by any mode of conveyance, if you can help it, when Uranus is not well aspected.

After the 4th, influences for the most part are favorable for repair of used articles and the salvage of old things. Have the family jewels reset; buy second-hand furniture; make over old clothes; remodel inherited property.

Although not the most harmonious time of the year for Pisces, September might easily be one of the most constructive if you steer clear of mental shoals and keep in the middle of the channels that mean success for you.

Pisces Daily Guide For September

SEPTEMBER 1: Be practical, conservative, patient. Give thought to improving your appearance. 2: Study and read for self-improvement. Avoid others, you'll accomplish more working alone and will spare yourself friction. 3: Possible loss through books, papers, writings. Your best chances for gain come through your own enterprise and resourcefulness. 4: Beware of guile and flattery. Those who pretend to admire you have some ulterior purpose. 5: You are still in danger of being duped. Don't pool your funds or otherwise relax strict personal control over money and possessions. Luck is kinder this p.m. 6: Gifts, favors and social invitations are in line for you this Sunday. 7: A check in the mail or a good chance to increase your income. Don't choose tonight for entertaining your bridge club; any party is apt to be a "flop." 8: Don't grope around in dark places. Look out for spider bites. 9: Domestic arrangements and social plans are under disrupting influences. ## LONDON---

Jupiter. It would not be a fair comparison of the two gentlemen to call them respectively Uranus and Jupiter and let it go at that, because that is only part of the picture, but such a comparison is one of the straws in the wind, one circumstance to be taken into consideration with others.

It happens, too, in these birth graphs that Roosevelt's rising Uranus rules his so-called sixth house, region of the subtle subconscious mind and part of the fifth house, region of speculation and amusement. Thus, if he is inclined to play his hunches his graph provides a ready explanation for that trait. Landon's rising Jupiter, on the other hand, relates to Landon's second house, or region of money, which is consistent with his having considerable financial backing.

The two birth graphs have one factor in common, the presence of Mars in both of their zeniths indicating great executive power and authority. Roosevelt's Mars is supported by a major friendly aspect from Mercury, adding intelligent imagination to his executive ability, but is afflicted by his birth Sun. Landon's Mars is in friendly major aspect to Moon, Venus, Saturn, Uranus, Neptune and Pluto. Its conjunction with wise Saturn implies restraint against impulsive assertiveness.

Executive Ability Reflected

Without going further into detail it may be fairly stated that Landon's Mars is extraordinarily well supported and that consequently his executive ability is of like caliber. His Mars happens also to rule his ascendant, supplying a clear link between his personality and high executive position.

So much for their birth graphs. They disclose much more detail, but the points mentioned are some that seem to carry a political significance. Let us glance now at their secondary directions plotted in the middle lanes of the concentric rings. I won't attempt to explain here what those directions are beyond saying simply that they are a modification of the birth graphs in accordance with a technical measure. Ordinarily they seem to reflect recognizably in the experience sequences of individuals' lives.

Roosevelt's secondary solar and lunar directions for 1936 election time both emphasize his discordant radical Sun-Saturn complex which may be the most unfavorable factor in his birth graph. His secondary Saturn will have progressed to close unfriendly aspect to his birth Sun, and his progressed Mars ties in sharply. I am not attempting to interpret these unfavorable directions, but I will say that they are not the kind of condition that I should expect to bring a man any good luck at all.

Secondaries Favor Landon

Landon's secondary solar and lunar directions both impinge upon his strong, favorable radical Mars complex. The progressed Moon will be in favorable major aspect to his birth zenith. The progressed Sun is his birth ascendant in conjunction favorably with his birth Jupiter. His progressed Mars has formed a favorable minor aspect to birth Mars. These favorable conditions may not elect him President, but they ought not to stand in his way a bit.

So without going into the secondaries too deeply we may fairly observe that they present another distinct contrast, Roosevelt's being ominous and Landon's encouraging.

What about the transits? They are the planetary situation on election day. Thus they are the same for all candidates, but their influence depend upon when a man was born. Transits seem to affect individuals through their in-born tendencies. The transits on Nov. 3, 1936, are rather scattered. Sun and Mercury are in Scorpio, Venus and Jupiter in Sagittarius, Saturn in Pisces, Uranus in Taurus, Moon and Pluto in Cancer, and Neptune and Mars are in Virgo.

There appears no such concentration of planets as we saw two years ago when Sun-Moon-Mercury-Venus-Jupiter assembled in Scorpio and put Curley on Beacon Hill. Probably the most important transit of this election will be that of Sun at 11 Scorpio in favorable major aspects to Saturn in Pisces and to Moon in Cancer.

Emphasizes Discord Element

Let us see what the sun will stir up in the graphs of these two candidates.

In Roosevelt's graph the transiting Sun is to be in exact adverse major aspect to his birth Sun. This is like putting the thumb right on the button of his major discord complex and adverse secondary directions, and pressing the button down hard. The transiting Moon will stir up his secondary Moon-Mars to activate that same harsh birth complex, and the transiting Saturn is unfriendly to his Uranus-Ascendant. Again I say this may not harm him, but I do not see how it will do him any good.

In Landon's graph the situation is quite different. The transiting Sun on election day will be in the birth ascendant in favorable conjunction with progressed (i.e., secondary) Sun and both birth and progressed Jupiter.

Now I have not studied astrology long enough to discover that there is anything irresistibly compelling about its influence, nor have I any guaranty that my interpretation is a superior interpretation, but when I look back to what happened in 1928 and 1932, it makes me attach some importance to the inhabitants of a candidate's ascendant on election day. So when I see Sun-Mercury transiting Landon's ascendant and Mars-Neptune in Roosevelt's, why, I may be wrong, but I should hardly blame anyone for declining to bet on Roosevelt. Neptune's presence at the ascendant suggests that someone is being mistaken and that may be myself or the voters or Roosevelt.

Fine Conjunction in 1932

Those are the principal transit indications as they appear to me. There remain for comparison Roosevelt's graphs for 1932 and 1936. Both, of course, reflecting the birth of the same man, have the same radical graph, but the secondary and transits are different, representing two different pages of his life. Back in 1932, Roosevelt's Moon, was in favorable conjunction with his birth Jupiter, thus emphasizing his most harmonious complex Jupiter-Uranus-Neptune, and also at election time in 1932 Jupiter, the candidate's friend who had helped elect Hoover in 1928, was transiting Roosevelt's ascendant favorably conjoined to his birth Uranus. So then Roosevelt had the transiting Jupiter and the progressed Moon both activating the most favorable complex in his graph. How brief their help was can be seen by reviewing the perplexities that tumbled into his lap early in his administration.

If he has been prevented from fulfilling his campaign promises, if he has played his hunches and pursued his personal preferences, if he has lent a more and more impressionable ear to fanciful suggestions of his advisers, that course has been at least consistent with the unfoldment of his graphs moving away from his era of power.

And in 1936 instead of having his most favorable complex in the saddle as in 1932, he now has his most discordant one and under appreciably greater pressure.

This article is not exhaustive at all. It does not tell the whole story, it only reaches for the high spots which impress me as being likely to indicate the true outcome of the election. Then, too, my judgment is not entirely unbiased. It would be easy to be mistaken upon a political problem in which one feels a personal concern. In this alibi section I ought to suggest, too, that we are living through times of such cosmic readjustment that perhaps the rules of astrology may have been somewhat revised. I shall be watching the event as curiously as anyone else, and placing no bets. Perhaps astrology will work again this time as it has in the past, perhaps not. Next November we shall know, and if Roosevelt wins I shall be surprised.

FLARE-UP, VIRGINIA

Your Capricorn husband's nature cannot understand your ardent love of one moment and your jealous flare-up of the next, Mrs. Sagittarius. To him you seem an inconsistent extremist. So long as you keep him on pins and needles guessing whether he's going to get a clout over the head or an ardent embrace (what a lot of boloney we hear about keeping a man "guessing!") he will feel that he "can't adjust to married life." Over-possessiveness, jealous flare-ups, ANY emotional extremes that blow hot, then cold, can only drive him into another woman's arms to seek the quiet, peace, security, trust, his nature craves. Now, BALANCE your emotions so he can predict you from one minute to the next. And you use that Sagittarian intuition to sense his moods and give him A MORE EVEN EMOTIONAL TEMPERATURE.

DUTCH PAINTER, MICHIGAN

You're just a bit uncompromising, aren't you, Mr. Sagittarius? She wants to be the "boss" and so do you, which is the main trouble. One of you must give in a little, and it better be you. Why not send her a nice note with a bouquet of flowers or little gift? Don't mention the past upheavals, leave out criticism and blame . . . just let her know how much you miss her, how dearly you love her. Your past mistake was to tell her how much you loved her and how much you blamed her, all in one breath. NEVER CARRY A BRICKBAT IN ONE HAND AND A BOUQUET IN THE OTHER. You can't blame her for wanting to know what to expect from you. So now, toss away the brickbat and let her get used to bouquets.

Instead of complaining to hubby, "This place is a mad-house, I'm going crazy," tell him "With the baby coming wouldn't it be lovely to have a place of our own, and so good for the baby," and "How happy we'd be in a quiet, peaceful flat of our own, with more room for baby." Get the idea? In this way you are concentrating on the hopeful side and giving him the feeling "How easy it would be to make the change," and "What a happy change it would be." As for his fear that "Mother's feelings would be hurt," instead of telling him, "She hasn't GOT any feelings," tell him, "How much better that would be for Mother, saving her all that nervous strain and work" when baby arrives. In this POSITIVE way you arouse his DESIRE to MAKE THE CHANGE by showing him it ADVANTAGES, which will work with his particular nature far better than showing him present DISADVANTAGES. Always a bit of adjusting the first year of marriage! Time for move, August 20 to end of month.

"WILL I GO BUGS?"

... Wife born June 10, 1879 ... I, Jan. 25, 1880 ... she has been ailing for 17 years ... keeps to her bed ... son and daughter unemployed ... I work 5 nights a week ... say, the wife gets my goat ... say, I could go right up in the air and not come down ... I have to get outside somewhere and cool down ... I make slips, but I try so hard not to ... will I go bugs?

WEARY, SASKATCHEWAN, CAN.

No, you won't go "bugs," Friend. You'll curse a little, maybe cry a little. Take a walk by yourself out under the stars and GET IT OUT OF YOUR SYSTEM. Your past mistakes and the mistakes of others are packing a wallop. Life is giving it to you on the chin. You "know that." So what? So tighten your belt, clench your fists and get back some of that fightin' courage! When it comes to a showdown you don't want to welch on your responsibilities, do you, Friend? Of course you don't—you know you couldn't get any peace of mind that way, knowing how much the wife and kids need you. Sure, they have faults—but you're big enough and strong enough to cope with them. Get out by yourself under the stars more often, Friend. Let your body and spirit absorb some of that infinitude of faith and hope, strength and courage that is yours for the asking. Dare to believe that Life has yet much good to reward your striving. Fall of this year and all of next ... much better financial opportunities ... happier period for all. Write me again just before Thanksgiving.

ANTICIPATING TROUBLE

... Does hubby really love me? He's born July 27, 1874 ... I'm born March 11, 1884 ... feel I don't thoroughly understand him ... doubt that he loves me ... is there trouble this year for me?

MRS. TULIP, INDIANA

Suppose you give him more trust instead of doubt, Mrs. Pisces. You will both be so much happier. THOROUGH understanding of each other is not possible between two, no matter how dear to each other, how close their lives. There is always something in another that evades complete classification. You can best show the equivalent of understanding by BELIEVING IN HUBBY AND LETTING HIM KNOW THAT YOU DO! Trouble usually comes to those who anticipate it, I've noticed. So, turn around and swim WITH the current, Mrs. Pisces.

TRIANGLE, THIRD CORNER

... Never thought I'd be the third corner of a triangle ... I hate myself, for her husband is my best friend ... I am a paying guest in their home ... can't seem to break away ...

E. V. L., ILLINOIS

Your situation is due mostly to proximity, your loneliness and her present boredom with the routine of life. Just enough astrological attraction between you to cause a lot of trouble and regrets all around. "Hating" yourself is a poor substitute for DOING something about it. Now, take that energy you're spending on "worrying" and "hating yourself" and put it into good Scorpio determination. Good idea to get out before the 1st of September. There's a finer kind of romance for you, so GIVE YOURSELF A BREAK!

MARKET ADVANCE

friendly association of the planets Saturn and Uranus have been mentioned as indicators of improved business and market conditions; also, that this relationship would expire in April, 1936, at which time the continual up-trend of market prices could not be expected to continue was ascertained.

It can not be stated without a doubt that the planets, especially the Saturn-Uranus combination, can be used by the industrial world as BUSINESS-MARKET-PRODUCTION CYCLE INDICATORS. Research over a period of past history shows business' improvement and increase in market process during the times that Saturn formed good aspects to Uranus and adverse conditions when these planets were in unfriendly positions. This is neither strange nor uncertain to the man or woman who has given attention to the planetary scheme in which we live. There is no elaborate or intensified statical organization to match the planetary indicators particularly in this field of economics. The point at issue is not to depreciate the statistical efforts for they are, after all, highly essential, but to tie them up with the planetary positions so as to not only know the changes taken place, but also to realize the reason, astrologically, for these changes.

IN THE CHART ON THIS PAGE the market curves are compared with the planetary positions. Referring to our ephemeris on March 18, 1935, we locate Saturn 3 degrees 49 minutes in Pisces; Uranus 29 degrees 30 minutes in Aries. This is a favorable sextile angle of 56 degrees (60 degree makes an exact sextile; 10 degrees orb is permissible between these two planets.) On April 6, 1936 we find Saturn 16 degrees 52 minutes in Pisces and Uranus 4 degrees 24 minutes in Taurus. They have moved out of range of the 60 degree sextile. Market improvement began and continued up to April, 1936, as reported by the Tribune chart which shows the average price of fifty leading stocks on the New York Stock Exchange.

In the market advance that began in April, 1933 and continued to July we again find the planet Saturn in friendly relation to Uranus. Saturn and Uranus as indicators of market and industrial conditions have the basis for this, first, in their commodity rulership, second, in their good trine angle in the U. S. chart wherein we find Uranus in Gemini and Saturn in Libra 7 degrees apart, considering this a close aspect.

Uranus is particularly important to individual industries and people. Uranus rules the Automotive industry and there is always expansion when planetary hook-ups operate favorably to Uranus. Persons who have the combination of Saturn and Uranus friendly in their birth charts should watch for periods when these planets are in harmonious cooperation for it can denote an opportunity for promotion and expansion.

In checking back we have listed the years when Saturn and Uranus were in favorable association: 1857—58-59-64-66-81-82- part of 83- last part of 88-89-1905—06-11-14-27-28-35- early part of 36. These two planets will favorably connect again in 1947 and there will be a close conjunction in 1941.

In the financial section of the Tribune on June 1, 1936, appeared the following: "While industrial activity shows signs of leveling off after reaching a spring peak, this country, along with most of the world, is in the early stages of a major upward cycle, says Banking, the official publication of the American Bankers association, in its current issue."

This is the approaching association of the planet Uranus to Neptune which will be operative mildly in the middle of 1936, all of 1937 to 1946 and can be productive of wide industrial, commercial and building progress. There will be a drawing together of the classes, due to the fact that people as a whole are more social conscious than ever before in history and will unite their inspiration and originality toward an improvement in living conditions.

LABOR DAY WEATHER

of the heavenly bodies upon weather, nor of my ability to foretell what will take place."

So I went at once to my studio, and took down my charts of the movement of the moon, and looked up the weather for September 7th, and the two days, Saturday and Sunday before, that will constitute the week end holiday of Labor Day. They are set before you here, just as I will show them to the banker tomorrow.

It appears that this holiday period will be mostly fair and warm over all the plains states from Texas and Louisiana north into Canada. There will likely be some scattered showers in the Missouri valley on Saturday and Sunday, probably clear on Labor Day itself. In the region of the Great Lakes and in the Ohio valley, the whole holiday will be cool and inclined to be clear. In the west, and over the plateau states it will be cool, getting warmer, and with some rain and unsettled air. Over the northwest it will be warmer, with showers likely.

But it is over the Atlantic seaboard that we must expect the worst weather. There will be a storm down there that will be of a hurricane nature, and we must expect all this region to be warm, wet, stormy and not at all a good time for extended outings. The best I can say for the Atlantic slope is that the storminess seems to be scheduled to start in the south and work north, so that the people of New York City, especially, who may be planning a nice week end trip will probably have time to get back home by Monday night before the storm really gets up its full force. What I see here is a large mass of warm tropical air moving in along the coast from down in the Gulf of Mexico, and from near the island of Haiti, and as it works in, another huge cold mass keeps edging down from the Great Lakes toward Pennsylvania and New York state. Where these two airs meet, we can be quite sure that there will be a whirl of wind, and a storm.

Some of the visitors who happened in the studio as I was making the charts asked me why the storm on the Atlantic coast had the nature of a hurricane. You see, September is the season for tropical storms, and it was early in September last year that the violent hurricane swept over the Florida Keys, killing so many people. So I told them this storm has all the earmarks of a hurricane. It may be only a small one or only a very big rainstorm, because we can never be quite sure how big a hurricane will be until after it gets to going. If such a storm gets no salt water to feed on, it may never be much more than a strong rain, but if it passes over warm salt water, like the Gulf Stream, it may grow into a real killer of a storm. To be sure what this storm might be like, I drew up a map of its total action, and I will give you this too. It appears to start down in the Gulf of Mexico on September 3, fed by warm air in part from Haiti, as I have said. On the 4th and 5th it is taking shape in the Gulf and along the Alabama and Florida coast. From here it will swing over the land through Georgia, and this may take some of the fierce energy out of it, because hurricanes dislike to have to run over land. They much prefer the water. However, much of the land this storm will pass over is swampy, and it soon heads out to sea again, where it will meet the Gulf Stream and all the warm water any storm could want. On the 7th and 8th it is off North Carolina and Virginia and appears to be moving swiftly out to sea. But no, on the 8th a piece breaks off and swings back over the land, in Virginia, Maryland and New Jersey, then it cuts over lower New York state and New England by the 9th, and merges back into the original storm that is heading up over the Gulf of St. Lawrence. As it goes, very much colder air will come in behind it. It is this insidious creeping cold polar air that makes me suspect that the storm may have more power in it than summer thunder storms usually possess. When we have a sharp and sustained temperature gradient in a storm, we can usually look for a deep funnel-like whirl of warm air, and with that, a severe storm.

My visitors asked me what a hurricane was like inside, what we might expect this storm to look like to those who may live when it goes, or be in its path. A storm of the type of this will in all probability consist of a large revolving whirlpool of warm air, perhaps somewhat cooler to the northwest, and in the big whirl there will be many, perhaps hundreds, of little whirls each of them a lesser whirlpool, and some of them violent. When Labor Day comes, expect the air on the Atlantic coast to grow stickier and more humid, then to cloud up and be threatening, and finally to begin to rain. The rain will increase in strength, and with it the wind, and some of these gusts, which are the lesser whirlpools I just mentioned, will be severe enough to cause damage. It will look like the storm is over, when suddenly it will begin all over again, and repeat itself a second time. This will be when the part breaks off and runs back over the land. Finally on the 8th or 9th the storm will move out toward Nova Scotia, and the sky will be cool and very blue.

Right after Labor Day people begin to expect frost. Sometimes it does not come for a month or more, but anyhow, they begin to worry about it. Here are some general frost dates that you can apply. September as a whole will be a warm month, to make up for August, which will be mostly cool. Look for extra cool weather in September in the far northwest on or near the 5th, 14th, and 26th. In the Rocky Mountain and high area in the southwest, look for frost or cool weather near the 14th and 24th. In the region of the Great Lakes, Minnesota and Wisconsin, look for cool weather on the 7th, 8th and 22nd. The hot parts of August will come toward the end of the month, in the east especially. All summer long the air over the entire continent of North America has been dry, but in the fall, as soon as the sun begins its plunge into the southern hemisphere, the water vapor in the sky will increase, and heavier rains will ensue.

This is the forecast that I am going to submit to my banker friend. This is the longest range weather forecast that has ever been made in all the history of science, which makes any pretense to strut mathematical accuracy. If it fails, then I have failed, but I do not think that it is going to fail. For three months I have been out, observing storms, testing out predictions right on the ground, seeing things in the heavens that no arm chair meteorologist ever sees, and I think when Labor Day comes, it will come just as I have predicted it will. And when it does come true, then every Astrologer in the country using my methods can stand up and defy his critics, and demand that they submit proofs of error, or else hush.

PLANETS BEHIND THE NEWS

Venus exactly conjoined her natal Pluto and Neptune respectively. That such a set-up is highly indicative of what actually occurred becomes apparent from a study of the rulerships involved. Mercury rules letters and newspaper publicity, Pluto rules the underworld, Neptune rules scandal and nudity, the 2nd house has to do with one's cash, and the opposition aspect tends toward separation—in this case separation from money. The operation of the progressed aspect came to a head on the day that transiting Mercury and Venus entered the picture. In fairness to Mrs. McPherson, however, we must stress the point that scandal brought by Neptune is very often false and anyone may become its victim regardless of an exemplary character.

UNDERSTANDING YOUR CHILD

down his thoughts. Give him a comfortable place to study, a good light, some reference books including a large dictionary, pencils, pens, lots and lots of paper, if possible a portable typewriter. He often has talent for drawing, painting, piano or stringed instruments, fine needlework or other forms of manual dexterity. He should also have some vehicle to take him places and see things, beginning with a tricycle or scooter. He should be permitted to drive the family car when he is old enough to be licenced as he has a natural aptitude for vehicular traffic.

By all means, send him to college. He has the "bookish aptitude" necessary for a good record, but even more important he needs the stimulating mental contacts with other young people. His vocational bent is toward writing, public speaking, teaching, salesmanship, or clerical and artistic lines of endeavor. Instead of a silver spoon in his mouth, the Gemini baby is born with a pencil behind his ear. Don't mislay his heritage.

Questions and Answers

Q. GIRL BORN JANUARY 11, 1926, M. C. 15 Libra, Ascendant 14 Sagittarius. The mother asks whether she will overcome her present lameness and what measures should be taken to help her.

A. Her condition has been improving since the low point in January, February and March but she is likely to have some degree of premanent disability. Her chart would suggest an acute infection such as infantile paralysis rather than a tuberculous condition. In addition to such measures as her physician suggests for her care, the mother can do a great deal to keep this child happy in spite of her difficulties. With Mars conjunction Moon rising in Sagittarius, the child's energy is abundant and her courage is fully brought out by struggle with disease. She must be given plenty to do at home or she will fret and become very quarrelsome. She must not be pitied—instead she must be active and hard-working within her physical limits. Her intelligence is fully aroused by a means of asserting her individuality and ambition. She should have books, writing materials, encouragement to study and do things requiring skill with the brain and hands. Her future is not so dark as may be imagined since she can develop a strong earning power which will free her from personal limitations very successfully. She should not be permitted to feel unwanted, ugly or less important than her brothers and sisters, since she would brood over such a feeling of inferiority to the point of becoming very selfish, rebellious and miserable. The mother must strike a happy medium between patient affection and stimulation to ambitious activity. She should remember that forms alter and pass, but no good quality built up by effort is ever lost.

Q. BOY BORN MARCH 4, 1925, M. C. 1 Scorpio, Ascendant 6 Capricorn. Mother states it is hard to understand his moods and temperament, that the father has failed to assume his proper responsibilities and makes her problems of discipline much harder. The boy seems resentful, antagonistic and self-willed both at home and in school.

A. The boy is not one who can be easily molded and guided for he has a powerful personality of his own. He has the ambitious, self-reliant and efficient sign Capricorn rising, with the ruler very discordantly aspected, indicating strife as a constant factor in his life. His Sun is very powerfully configured, being conjunction Venus, Mercury and Uranus, sextile Mars, sextile Jupiter and trine Moon. You can do most for him by giving him plenty of affection and cultural stimulation. Leave him free to strike out on his own path whenever possible, for he will reject one selected for him by someone else. Barring accidents, he will make his mark in the world, especially in some financial success connected with art, music, advertising or promotion. The less his father forces him to conform with authority, the better. Your own chart indicates a powerful dominating nature which has been thwarted a great deal. Take this into consideration when dealing with your son. 1936 is a depressing and difficult year for him especially in connection with money or possessions. With the good Uranian aspects forming his home life should improve through allowing him more independence and outlets for individuality the latter half of 1936 and 1937.

YOUR HEALTH

insufficient Phosphorus and that faculty cannot understand. Do not try to develop your mind by mere suggestion, for that doesn't work. You cannot build a masonic temple out of moonshine; you must have stone, and bricks, mortar and iron columns. So also with mental development. You must supply material substances that build the structures of the brain.

As stated before, Calcium and Phosphorous always work together. When there is a lack of Phosphorous in the bones, the bone tissue becomes soft and gelatinous instead of hard, dense, compact and elastic. Phosphorous increases the number of red corpuscles. This does not mean that the red corpuscles are made of Phosphorous. It simply means that Phosphorous has an indirect effect upon the manufacture of the red corpuscles of the blood. Phosphorous improves nutrition of tissues at large. If we do not eat enough of Phosphorous foods and we run short of this valuable Phosphorous in our body, the metabolism suffers and health cannot be maintained very long.

There is a class of people in whom the Phosphorous element is excessive and while it is impossible to describe these people as a chemical type within the limited space of this article, readers of "Today's Astrology" will easily understand what particular type I refer to. Because the mental faculties at work in these people burn up Phosphorous in great amounts, they are more in need of this element than other people. As a type we know these people to be "Neurogenus" which means a pathological expression of the mental nervous temperament. These people always crave excitement. They are extravagant and spend money foolishly. They lack judgment and economics and practical reactions, and live their entire lives in the emotions. These people argue that thoughts are things. They take a greater interest in mental suggestion. Such has a remarkable effect upon their physique, ailments, symptoms and habits. They are the people is yours." "Talk success and it comes to you." "Think of diseases and they overtake you." They are greatly interested in speculative philosophies. Their imaginations are lively. They are enthusiastic idealists. They have faith in the future, but have no faith in hard work, effort, diet, etc. They have more ambition and optimism than strength and power. They imagine themselves to be under the influence of unseen forces. Their foreheads are hot, feet and hands are cold and their nerves are irritated. Their feet, eyes, arms, fingers, head and senses are restless and the tongue is the busiest member. Their minds are overactive, but their will power, power of decision, practical judgment and power of mental concentration are weak and unreliable. These people are over-excitable and their excitable moods are followed by faintness. Their mental attitudes are extreme, varying, sudden, spasmodic. Hope and expectation are also excessive.

During the months of August and September, the fiery, feverish and inflammatory planet Mars afflicts those born in Cancer and Leo.

Cancer people under this aspect aim to exercise unrestricted authority over everything and everybody within the home. This position makes the temper rather uncertain and gives a tendency and a desire for change of occupation so that the person never really settles down to one line of endeavor, but takes up this and the other occupation and drops them just as suddenly. Mars afflicted in Cancer brings domestic troubles, frequent and violent quarrels and scenes in the home, inflammatory diseases of the stomach, indigestion, dipsomania, gastric catarrh, flatulency, dropsy and sclerosis.

Mars afflicting Leo people gives them a fiery violent temper and a biting sarcasm which is often extremely embarrassing in its directness. The influence of the fiery Mars makes them deadly enemies and their arguments either for or against that which they believe or disbelieve are such that they not infrequently arouse opposition on the part of those who differ from them. The body loaded with broken down Phosphorous products produces a fiery violent temper and a liability to fever and inflammatory diseases, palpitation of the heart, hal-lucinations and biliousness.

An afflicted Mars during this time upsets all people of the mental temperament known as "Neurogenus". During this time they are greatly in need of concentrated Calcium and Phosphorous. The ordinary meals as a rule do not furnish a sufficient supply of these elements. It is not merely a case of nerves with these people. It is a question of waste and supply. Every activity, either mental or physical, uses up tremendous quantities of Calcium and Phosphorous in these people. The broken down Phosphorous products must not only be eliminated from the system, but food containing Phosphorous in concentrated form must be supplied in abundance. Otherwise a fiery Mars will make these people claw the air, making life miserable for themselves and those who are in daily contact with them.

In people of the Neurogenus type, the nerves are so active and the brain so large, that it is almost impossible for the digestive and nutritive functions to supply the excessive quantities of Calcium and Phosphorous needed by the system. Although too much broken down Phosphorous products are present in the system and although the nervous system is too active in absorbing Phosphorous, nevertheless the demand for Phosphorous and Calcium is so great that enough cannot be supplied by ordinary foods. The vital functions suffer in consequence. The wisest thing for the people of the mental types to do is to supplement their regular meals with concentrated foods and so pass over this period of mental and physical discomfort in the ideal modern way.

My readers must remember that every one of us requires Calcium and Phosphorous foods and that ordinary foods do not supply enough of these elements. We cannot think nor talk nor cultivate emotion without burning up Phosphorous and using Calcium. Phosphorous is the candle of intelligence that burns in the brain all the time. But this candle of intelligence must be renewed ever and ever. Business men, managers, executives, planners, builders and office people always speak of efficiency and system. It has never occurred to these people that Calcium and Phosphorous foods are necessary in order to increase business efficiency. We all sell goods or service. You can use your brain more vigorously, convince your prospects better and make more sales if you are under the influence of those food elements, including Calcium and Phosphorous, that give snap and vim to everything. I do not care how much self esteem and will power you have, if you lack Calcium and Phosphorous in brain and muscle, you will feel a lack of self confidence, however powerful you may be.

If you wish to know more about success and health, my free booklet "Advanced Knowledge of Nutrition" will show you the way.

GOALS

Of Health (Body)

Of Happiness (Mind)

Of Success (Spirit)

Religions and philosophies have set up countless subjective goals for the spiritual and mental lives of men. Mountains of books have been written on the THEORY OF IDEAL LIFE, and mountains of geographies and atlases have been compiled to describe PLACES TO LIVE and what they offer.

But never before have the three-fold GOALS of Health, Happiness and Success been brought together and demonstrated to be a triune process of GROWTH rooted in the SOIL OF PLACE. If that soil is not right, life be dwarfed, distorted, or perverted just as happens from the same cause in other kingdoms of nature. Biological health produces mental health (happiness) and from the two come spiritual health (the ultimate mark of success). To reverse or confuse that order of self-development is to fall short of three-fold victory.

“‘X’ MARKS MY GOAL”

By Paul Counsil

(Founder of Geographic Astrology)

is an amazingly convincing effort to show the heretofore “unknown” X-Points of all three goals. Theory and experience have rarely been so happily balanced, for Mr. Counsil has personally practiced all that he preaches in it.

This 2nd edition of the original title “‘X’ Marks My Place” is half again larger. All reader difficulties have been cleared up and three chapters added. One explains step-by-step how to find your IDEAL X-Point; another consists of detailed case examples, using President Roosevelt, ex-president Hoover, and the Author; and the third is a lesson for students on setting up the complete astrolocality chart.

In both theory and practice the book has proved correct. It is written and arranged for the general reader and the astrolological student. Both are satisfied.

LEO LOOKING AHEAD

FEBRUARY USHERS IN AN UNUSUALLY profitable month for you. Your organization ability can be used freely in your work, with resultant credit. You will have reached a stage in your development where you can be trusted with new and larger undertakings than heretofore, making it possible for you to demand and receive more money. You should see to it that all your personal affairs are in order at this time, that your health is as good as you can make it, that you have studied up on subjects relating to your job and that your mind is keyed to a tactful and agreeable plane, so that you won't have any excuse to waste the marvelous opportunities that are apt to come your way early in the spring of 1937. This is a particularly good time for those of you who are practically concerned with occult subjects, as interest in these lines will increase to fever pitch in the next few months. These excellent aspects continue through March and April.

There is a definite connection between your 5th and 9th house affairs during May; this may be evidenced by travel in connection with affairs of the heart for some of you, and for others by a rise to power or authority through dealing with affairs away from home, publishing, export trade, or any branch of work where the results are spread far and wide. Some Leo parents will not be surprised to find their children achieving prominence in scholastic work; the youngsters should be rewarded with pleasures they have been wanting.

Leo natives can look forward to harmony in business and personal relations during the summer of 1937. Your nerves can relax then, and consequently your health will be good. You will find entertaining business acquaintances at home profitable, and you may be surprised at the good suggestions regarding your work offered by your family and close friends. This will be an excellent time to attend the personal property matters, make repairs and improvements in your surroundings. Also, if you can include your family in 1937 vacation plans you will be amply repaid.

The nation's horoscope for the coming year gives promise of splendid opportunities in practically all lines of business. See to it, Leos, that you are prepared to take advantage of new enterprises.

over you. From the middle of January to the middle of March an unfavorable aspect of Saturn to Neptune is apt to cause confusion in your affairs, accompanied by an extremely unsettled state of mind. You will encounter friction when you try to get others to cooperate with you, and in general your relations with the public are apt to be rather strained. Try to keep calm and get plenty of rest, so that you can cope with these difficulties sensibly. Don't give way to nerves and morbid fancies.

Harmony between your 3rd and 5th solar houses is the keynote for February, promising pleasant family relations, perhaps visits to or from relatives, intellectual pleasures. Travel is well aspected at this time. Beginning February 21st and continuing till April 5th is a good aspect of Jupiter in your 5th solar house to Neptune in your 1st solar house, which will tend to intensify your artistic and imaginative qualities, and strengthen your emotional nature. Indulge your interest in occult research then, seek pleasure in art, nature and literature; cultivate your taste for finer things.

Another restless period is promised in March. Love or family affairs may make a long journey necessary, and there may be difficulty in connection with correspondence, accounts, contracts or publications. April brings to the front personal interests, clothes, beautifying, health, surroundings and recreation. Make it a point to be of service to others whenever possible.

During May be alert for opportunities arising through service lines, agencies, stewardships, etc. It is possible that some of you may be aided in this respect by advice or funds from your parents, which will help you cope with the dangers likely to accompany the enterprises available at this time. Late in May comes another period of harmony between your 3rd and 5th solar houses. This continues till August 4th and is an excellent aspect for a delightful summer, promising pleasure through reading, sports, romantic affairs, travel and at the same time indicating mental alertness and fairly good judgment about money matters and expenditures of all kinds. August, 1937, brings a return of favorable opportunities to increase your own fortune through service, loans, partnerships and general cooperative transactions.

Beginning August 25th, 1937, and continuing to the middle of December is a trine of Jupiter to Neptune that promises you much happiness and success, perhaps marriage, perhaps travel, and especially good fortune in sports, amusements and social activities.

ASTROLOGY or ASTRONOMY

of high culture and superior knowledge of the universe and the movements of the earth, sun, moon and planets, not exceeded by any race in the entire world, ancient or modern. They knew of the different movements of the earth, equinoxes and solstices, and precessional mathematics, and their religion and science was one and the same thing, "the religious of the stars"; they lived and died by it, and have left valuable records, found and being found continually, by archaeologists all over America, showing positive proof of these statements.

The various motions of the earth and its relation to the sun, moon, planets and constellations, as it is constantly changing, affects all life on the earth, whether mineral, vegetable, animal or man, and for anyone whether materialist, or astronomer, not to recognize these influences as proved absolutely by astrologers, for thousands of years, shows a very narrow mentality, and an ignorance and false conception, of the Will of Deity.

★ SCIENTISTS tell us that all things in this manifested universe are composed of atoms and electrons, each substance being differentiated by the number of electrons to the atom, from H<sub>2</sub>O, water, to 96 which embraces everything so far known. 79-80-81 being the only difference between mercury, gold and lead. Who has ever seen an electron? Very few have ever seen an atom, but we believe the scientists who tell us so. Electrons are like the vitamins scientists tell us are in foods, but no one has ever seen a vitamin. As there is mind and intelligence in every atom, so there is mind and intelligence in every manifested thing in the physical universe, from the smallest atoms, or universes we see in the heavens, the suns being the positive charge, which animates the body, or negative electrons, or planets as the case may be.

The smaller atoms in our own manifested objects on earth all have intelligence in them, whether in the smallest fragment or in any part of the human body; as long as any part of that thing exists, it vibrates to the same vibration that animated it in the beginning.

We know and have demonstrated these facts in thousands of instances in our archaeological research work all over America, no matter where the article is found, nor the time it has been in existence; whether an artifact is only one year old, or a million years old, it makes no difference. This proves that life continues indefinitely within the atom, and the mind which animates every atom, continues to exist; and even after the physical material substance disappears from our physical eyes, that mind still exists.

The brain of man is not the mind, it is only the physical organ through which the mind expresses itself in that body; mind always exists in the astral realm and can express itself independently of the brain, or physical body, as the mind and astral body function on the same plane of existence. Astral means pertaining to the stars, a super-sensible substance, pervading all space as all occultists and astrologers should know, as we students of Astrology are studying and dealing with astral bodies, and astral substances. We are all subject to these influences and laws. To the materialist, or most astronomers, until they recognize the unity, or relativity (as Professor Einstein calls it) of all things, and that mind and intelligence is in every atom, whether in the universes above, or in the smallest particle in the earth below, or in every part of the human body, all is the same Divine principle. We astrologers are working with astral, or divine things, and unless we recognize these basic principles of Deity, and give thanks to the Great Creator for the blessings received from that central source, we will fail to be the interpreter of these great truths; no astrologer can predict details, no matter how scientific he is, or great mathematician he may be, unless "he is inspired by the Deity," as stated by Claudius Ptolemy, that great astrological genius, who together with Placidus, has handed down to us the results and truths of ancient astrologers.

Let us be as accurate and scientific as it is possible for us to be in our work, but let us not forget we are working with the Creator's Laws and principles; we are held responsible for our predictions and the advice we give to others, and it is imperative for us to keep in touch with and have a reverence for that inspiration of Divine Truth which comes to all who work with Cosmic Laws.

★ THE ORIGIN of life and consciousness was not an unsolvable problem to the ancient sages and philosophers, nor even to modern mystics or occultists, and because they are not, and do not limit themselves, but seek cause behind the manifestation, they know, and see it showing up before them, in its true light.

Wonderful mysteries await the intrepid, explorer and student of ancient American symbolism, shown in American relics, among which the Great Cahokia Truncated Pyramid Mound, at East St. Louis, Ill., the Arkansas Astrological Calendar Stone, the Wonderful Aztec Calendar Stone of Mexico, the Swastika and Triskelion Astrological Calendars, the Great American Rosetta Stone, and others.

To give some idea of the knowledge and culture of some of our prehistoric Americans we note that a young lady stenographer of Kansas City, Mo., an astrological student, made the discovery that the Aztec Calendar Stone of Mexico, was an astrological stone, and fits in with the ancient Chaldean System of Astrology, as originated by them. The Chaldeans were also originators of the deck of playing cards. She arrived at her conclusions on the Aztec Calendar Stone by first investigating the numbers used on that stone 13, 9, 5, 1, 10, 6, 2, 11, 7, 3, 12, 8, 4. She claims that illumination will dawn on anyone who will extend the above figures and diagram in the proper manner. She has invented a deck of playing cards, an astrological deck from this stone, using astrological Characters, the Sun, Moon, planets, signs of the Zodiac, which coordinate perfectly with the stone and our common deck of playing cards, and will be when placed on the market a valuable help to the student of Astrology. Taking it for granted that the ancient seers knew more of the intricate system and movements of the planets than modern science has been willing to admit, and according to astrological lore handed down through the ages, Miss Vail has evolved a system which is a revelation of what has hitherto been considered incalculable, and establishes a foundation for Astrology which has previously been considered mere superstition. Her diagram is a mathematical one and simple to understand, and as it is on a flat piece of paper, whereas the planets are suspended in space, the outer vibrations of their globes touching each other in every direction according to the law of relativity, while at the same time all of them are traveling in their orbits.

Another instance which can be multiplied many times but space will not allow. What the Great Pyramid is to Egypt, the Great Cahokia Mound Pyramid is to America. Located at East St. Louis, Ill., it covers over 16 acres of ground (more than the Egyptian pyramid which covers 13 and 1/3 acres), it is 1080 feet in length, 108 feet in height, 720 feet in width, and was built by the ancient American Masters to record practically the same knowledge as the Gizeh Pyramid. It is built directly on the 90 degree Meridian of West Longitude, and 39 degrees of N. Latitude. It is said to have required the labor of 2,458 men two years, working every day to carry approximately 1,076,000 cubic yards of earth it contains.

Astrology and Astronomy must go hand in hand, teaching the truths of the Creator's Laws. None too large or none too small, but all fill their place and a unit in the grand scheme, and all combine in the one science of the heavens. So the two related sciences of Astrology and Astronomy must go together to fulfill an equal destiny.

SATURN FORETOLD CHRIST

After devoting many years to research and collecting of data Prof. Oswald Gerhardt, German theologian, announces that the Star of Bethlehem was really Saturn and that the actual birthdate of Christ was probably April 2, 7 B. C. According to ancient authorities, both Jewish and Christian, the Jews were judged to be ruled by Saturn so it was to be expected that Jesus would be born under the sign of that planet. Tracing the movements of Saturn, Prof. Gerhardt shows that the planet became visible and shone brightly during the first week of April 7 B. C.

On November 9 Jupiter entered his own sign, marking the beginning of a definite cycle. His conjunction with the sun is a good aspect, denoting stability of our established government.—Magus Albus.

Life appeared on the earth at a certain moment in its evolution, not by a process of spontaneous generation, but by transplantation of germs from other stars which reached the earth after long migrations through cosmic space. This was the theory of Maillet in 1749 and is now expounded by J. C. Th. Uphol.
