PROSPECTUS
OF THE
FOURTH VOLUME OF
THE UNIVERCELUM AND SPIRITUAL PHILOSOPHER.

This weekly Journal is devoted to unrestricted inquiry into natural and Divine truth, and to an application of the same to individual and social life in all its departments. It is not arbitrarily pledged to any theory, or to the advocacy of any sectarian dogma, but receives its character and tone from the progressive unfolding of light upon all subjects deemed of importance—the elevation of Man physically, morally, intellectually and socially, being its grand object.

So far as it may be consistent with these broad principles of progress to give any pledge touching specific points in the future conduct of the paper, we may say that the Univercelum will hereafter be characterized by a similar mode of philosophizing upon the nature of man, and his relations to the Universe and to the Deity, and finally upon the relations of all things to each other, to that which has distinguished it in the past. Psychological and spiritual subjects in general will, as heretofore, receive particular attention, efforts being constantly made to discover, illustrate, and apply, the laws which govern the human soul, and determine all social relations. The only conspicuous change, perhaps, that will be visible, will be in the increased attention that will be bestowed upon reformatory subjects in general, and especially those which relate to a

NEW ORDER OF SOCIETY.

For a more definite pledge, for the future, we refer to the examples of the past, to be viewed in connection with what is said above, the idea of progress to be always borne conspicuously in mind.

THE "UNIVERCELUM AND SPIRITUAL PHILOSOPHER," is edited by an Association, and numbers among its correspondents writers of the first order of talent. It is published every Saturday, at 131 Nassau-Street, New-York; being neatly printed on a super-royal sheet folded into sixteen pages. Price of subscription $2, payable in all cases in advance. For a remittance of $10, six copies will be forwarded. Address, post paid "UNIVERCELUM," No. 131 Nassau-Street New York.
