THE YOGI

A black and white illustration of a man in a turban and shawl, looking thoughtfully to the side, set against a background of palm trees. The man is the central figure, wearing a light-colored turban and a dark shawl. He has a contemplative expression, with his hand near his chin. The background is filled with the silhouettes of palm trees, creating a tropical or Indian setting. The overall style is reminiscent of early 20th-century pulp magazine covers.

FOR PLEASURE and FOR PROFIT LEARN INTERIOR DECORATION AT HOME

¶ Ten years ago I opened the first School of Correspondence Instruction in Art in Chicago. My methods were very successful and have been widely imitated and copied by competitors. I have had many letters from other schools who found satisfaction in my teaching. My Course of Instruction in Water-Colors, Wash-Drawing, Pen-and-Ink Work, and Commercial Art IS STILL THE BEST. If you are interested write to me for terms.

THE BEST PROFESSION TODAY

¶ For men and women who wish to be quite up-to-date, and who are ambitious to enter a paying profession I advise that they take up INTERIOR DECORATION. Expert decorators are in enormous demand and earn from $50 to $150 weekly. I have prepared a Correspondence Course that thoroughly and simply covers the ground. A fair share of application and careful reading of this Course will make you an expert in every detail of decorating and furnishing. Every woman who has a home needs this Course. Write at once and let me send you my free circular mailed.
