THE LILY WREATH OF SPIRITUAL COMMUNICATIONS;

*Received chiefly through the Mediumship of Mrs. J. S. Adams, by
A. B. Child, M.D.*

Those who have read this work pronounce it unsurpassed in purity and elegance of diction, in beauty and simplicity of style, and in its correct and attractive presentation of truth. It is printed in a superior manner, equal to that of the finest annuals, bound in rich and durable binding, and in every way made, in typographical and mechanical appearance, in keeping with the intrinsic value of its contents. From numerous notices of the work, the following are selected as expressive of the general opinion respecting it:—

These heavenly colloquies impart truer joys, deeper convictions, and holier aspirations to the heart, than all the dry abstractions and subtle formulas of metaphysical ratiocination that have eclipsed the world. They send out nectar-draughts to the thirsty soul. The young, the aged, will drink and be inspired; and every supply will quicken and beautify the plants of truth, love, and goodness, that vegetate in the garden of the heart. These pages will speak words of progressive cheer to every saddened and earthward mind; utter great truths, with persuasive power, to myriads in error and doubt; breathe soft music over the distressed and harrassed soul; open the portals of immortality to the scorner and sceptic; impart comfort and consolation to the grieved and afflicted, and bring the evidences of angelic presence home to the credulity of our age.

The entire volume breathes the spirit of devotion to a higher life than is known to mortals, while affection and sympathy are ever knocking at the door of our better nature for fellowship and acceptance. We would say to our friends who wish to bestow a beautiful, and at the same time a pure present, let the "Lily Wreath" be your selection.

No one can have any just idea of the contents of this volume until they have perused it. The revelations consist in advice, encouragement, and admonitions, couched in language the most chaste and original. The whole book seems to be written in an earnest and truthful manner, and inculcates the purest and most exalted piety.

A correspondent of a Boston paper writes as follows: For every person it possesses a value above the ordinary publications of our time. To the mourner it imparts consolation; the weary it inspires with hope; to the troubled soul it whispers peace; to the sinful soul it speaks in tones of loving, tender earnestness, and to the religious of all classes it offers pure, unsullied Christianity. We would say to all, if you wish to be holier, happier, and nobler, by all means read and ponder the beautiful teachings of this book.

A lofty and ethereal strain of sentiment—a vein of deep, spiritual feeling—pervades the book. The style is quiet, easy, and full of pensive beauty, "winding like a river at its own sweet will;" and the contrast it presents to the hurry and vehemence visible in many publications of the day is like that which one experiences on leaving the hubbub and heat of the city in August, for the delicious quiet and coolness of a grotto.

The evidence of its spiritual origin is furnished by the angelic purity which beams forth from its pages. It will furnish the reader with many interesting and beautiful conceptions of the spirit-life, and of the office and influence of guardian spirits over mortals.

It is a remarkable production; and, as a readable, religiously inclined production, has no equal.

It contains a philosophy whose purity, rationality, and elevated, spiritual tone, cannot but commend itself to every ingenuous mind.

It is pure inspiration; a stream of beauty.

A religious gift-book of superior merit.

THE BOUQUET

OF SPIRITUAL FLOWERS:

*Received chiefly through the Mediumship of Mrs. J. S. Adams, by

The "LILY WREATH" was received with so much favor by the lovers of spiritual truth, that in compliance with the wishes of many individuals, a continuation is issued under the name of "THE BOUQUET."

The flowers that form this Bouquet have been gathered in celestial gardens. They are fragrant with angel love, and arranged in the glowing tints of angel pencillings. Delicately must we touch them, and susceptible to the purest spirituality must they be who would fully enjoy and justly appreciate their many beauties.

In each message, let each one consider himself as personally addressed, for to all those who while on earth would catch the tones of angel voices, and the soft notes of golden harps moved to melody by angel hands, this Bouquet is presented as a token of that love which is drawing us all home to peace and joys eternal.

Price of each volume, in cloth, bevelled edge, emblematically embossed, - - $0.75.
