This is the first time that a book has been published that plainly teaches how to write a letter. It shows clearly all the blunders and mistakes apt to be made by an inexperienced writer, and makes manifest in the simplest way the proper method of avoiding and rectifying such blunders and mistakes, whether they occur in the spelling, punctuation or grammar. This book explains the details of correspondence, whether relating to the form, the penmanship, the directing, folding and sending of a note or a letter. There are in this book valuable hints about love, courtship & marriage showing what style lovers should indite epistles. There are given all the various letters that arise in the course of business: asking for money, requesting time, enclosing remittance, asking assistance, reasons for refusal, from tenants to landlords on different subjects, with landlords' replies. Then—and this is a very important feature—there is shown the legal importance of a letter; and explanations are given upon the exact meaning of expressions used in writing, that may be brought into court in litigations. It also contains the art of abbreviating writing, so that any one can, with practice, write with the rapidity of the shorthand writer. In fact, the following persons all require this book: Young ladies and young gentlemen, wives and husbands, widows and bachelors, farmers and traders, the sick and the well, soldiers and sailors, mothers and fathers, daughters and sons, givers and receivers of presents, the elevated and the illiterate. But it would take page after page to begin to enumerate all the different classes to whom "The Complete Letter Writer" would prove an invaluable companion. There is nothing worth knowing in any other letter writer not to be found here, while there are many matters of importance here not to be found in any other book. Notwithstanding

DOMINOES.

Lay them with their faces on the table and shuffle them; then draw one and see the number, which has its meaning as follows:

DOUBLE-SIX.—Receiving a handsome sum of money.

SIX-FIVE.—Going to a public amusement.

SIX-FOUR.—Law-suits.

SIX-THREE.—Ride in a coach.

SIX-TWO.—Present of clothing.

SIX-ONE.—You will soon perform a friendly action.

SIX-BLANK.—Guard against scandal, or you will suffer by your inattention.

DOUBLE-FIVE.—A new abode to your advantage.

FIVE-FOUR.—A fortunate speculation.

FIVE-THREE.—A visit from a superior.

FIVE-TWO.—A water party.

FIVE-ONE.—A love intrigue.

FIVE-BLANK.—A funeral, but not of a relation.

DOUBLE-FOUR.—Drinking liquor at a distance.

FOUR-THREE.—A false alarm at your house.

FOUR-TWO.—Beware of thieves or swindlers.

Ladies, take notice of this; it means more than it says.

FOUR-ONE.—Trouble from creditors.

FOUR-BLANK.—Receive a letter from an angry friend.

DOUBLE-THREE.—Sudden wedding, at which you will be vexed.

THREE-TWO.—Buy no lottery-tickets, nor enter into any game of chance, or you will lose.

THREE-ONE.—A great discovery at hand.

THREE-BLANK.—An illegitimate child.

DOUBLE-TWO.—You will be plagued by a jealous partner.

TWO-ONE.—You will mortgage or pledge some property very soon.

DOUBLE-ONE.—You will find something to your advantage in the street or road.

ONE-BLANK.—You are being closely watched by one whom you little expect.

DOUBLE-BLANK.—The worst presage in all the set of dominoes; you will soon meet trouble from a quarter from which you are quite unprepared.

It is useless for any person to draw more than three dominoes at one time of trial, or in one and the same month, as they will only deceive themselves; shuffle the dominoes each time of choosing; to draw the same domino twice makes the answer stronger.
AUGURY BY DICE.

This is a certain and innocent way of finding out common occurrences about to take place. Take three dice, shake them well in the box with your left hand, and then cast them out on a board or table, on which you had previously drawn a circle with chalk, but never throw on a Monday or Wednesday.

THREE.—A pleasing surprise.
FOUR.—A disagreeable one.
FIVE.—A stranger, who will prove a friend.
SIX.—Loss of property.
SEVEN.—Undeserved scandal.
EIGHT.—Merited reproach.
NINE.—A wedding.
TEN.—A christening, at which some important event will occur to you.
ELEVEN.—A death that concerns you.
TWELVE.—A letter, speedily.
THIRTEEN.—Tears and sighs.
THIRTEEN.—A letter, speedily.
FOURTEEN.—A new admirer.
FIFTEEN.—Beware that you are not drawn into some trouble or plot.
SIXTEEN.—A pleasant journey.
SEVENTEEN.—You will either be on the water, or have dealings with those belonging to it, to your advantage.
EIGHTEEN.—A great profit, rise in life, or some most desirable good will happen almost immediately; for the answers to the dice are always fulfilled within nine days. To show the same number twice at one trial shows news from abroad, or the number what it may. If the dice roll over the circle, the number thrown goes for nothing, but the occurrence shows sharp words, and, if they fall to the floor, it is blows; in throwing out the dice, if one remains on the top of the other, it is a present, of which I would have the females take care.

To Know What Fortune Your Future Husband Will Have.

Take a walnut, a hazel-nut, and nutmeg; grate them together, and mix them with butter and sugar; and make them up into small pills, of which exactly nine must be taken on going to bed; and according to her dreams, so will be the state of the person she will marry. If a gentleman, of riches; if a clergyman, of white linen; if a lawyer, of darkness; if a tradesman, of odd noises and tumults; if a soldier or sailor, of thunder and lightning; if a servant, of rain.

CURIOUS

Traditional Observations.

It is not good for a maiden to marry in colors, or a widow in white; yet let her, by all means, avoid green or yellow and the 13th of the month.

To see a flight of birds as you go to the church on your nuptial day foretells many children. To meet a funeral at the time is ominous of speedy separation.

The sun to emerge suddenly from behind a cloud and shine on the altar as the nuptials are celebrating is a sure omen of prosperity and connubial love.

It is unlucky to pick up an odd glove in the street; you had better pass it.

Never tell a dream till you have broke your fast; if you have the same dream repeated twice or thrice, attend to it; it must have more than common meaning.

To Find Out the Two First Letters of a Wife's or Husband's Name.

Take a small Bible and the key of your front street-door, and having opened to Solomon's Songs, chapter 8, verses 6 and 7, place the wards of the key on these two verses, and let the bow of the key be about an inch out of the top of the Bible; then shut the book and tie it round with your garter, so as the key will not move, and the person who wishes to know his or her future husband or wife's signature must suspend the Bible by putting the middle finger of the right hand under the bow of the key, and the other person in like manner on the other side of the bow of the key, who must repeat the following verses, after the other person's saying the alphabet, one letter to each time repeating them. It must be observed that you mention to the person who repeats the verses, before you begin, which you intend to try first, whether surname or Christian name: and take care to hold the Bible steady, and when you arrive at the appointed letter, the book will turn round under your finger, and that you will find to be the first letter of your intended's name.

SOLOMON'S SONGS, VIII. 6, 7:

"Set me as a seal upon thine heart, as a seal upon thine arm; for love is strong as death, jealousy is cruel as the grave; the coals thereof are coals of fire, which hath a most vehement flame. "

"Many waters cannot quench love, neither can the floods drown it; if a man would give all the substance of his house for love, it would utterly be consumed."

Charms, Spells,

—AND—INCANTATIONS.

TO BE RESORTED TO AT CERTAIN SEASONS OF THE YEAR, TO PROCEDE BY DREAMS AN INSIGHT INTO FUTURITY, PARTICULARLY IN REGARD TO THE ARTICLE OF MARRIAGE.

ST. AGNES' DAY.

Falls on the 21st of January; you must prepare yourself by a twenty-four hours' fast, touching nothing but pure spring water, beginning at midnight on the 20th to the same again on the 21st; then go to bed, and mind you sleep by yourself; and do not mention what you are trying to any one, or it will break the spell; go to rest on your left side, and repeat these lines three times:

St. Agnes be a friend to me
In the gift I ask of thee;
Let me this night my husband see—and you will dream of your future spouse. If you see more men than one in your dream, you will wed two or three times, but, if you sleep and dream not, you will never marry.

ST. MAGDALEN.

Let three young women assemble together on the eve of this saint in an upper apartment, where they are sure not to be disturbed, and let no one try whose age is more than twenty-one, or it breaks the charm; get rum, wine, gin, vinegar, and water, and let each have a hand in preparing the potion. Put it in a ground-glass vessel; no other will do. Then let each young woman dip a sprig of rosemary in, and fasten it in her bosom, and, taking three sips of the mixture, get into bed; and the three must sleep together, but not a word must be spoken after the ceremony begins, and you will have true dreams, and of such a nature that you cannot possibly mistake your future destiny. It is not particular as to the hour in which you retire to rest.

STRANGE BED.

Lay under your pillow a prayer-book, opened at the Matrimonial Service, bound round with the garters you wore that day and a sprig of myrtle, on the page that says, with this ring I thee wed, and your dream will be ominous, and you will have your fortune as well told as if you had paid a crown to an astrologer.

A SPELL.

(To be used at any convenient time.)

Make a nosegay of various colored flowers, one of a sort, a sprig of rue, and some yarrow off a grave, and bind all together with the hair from your head; sprinkle them with a few drops of the oil of amber, using your left hand, and bind the flowers round your head under your night-cap when you retire to rest; put on clean sheets and linen, and your future fate will appear in your dream.

PROMISE OF MARRIAGE.

If you receive a written one, or any declaration to that effect in a letter, prick the words with a sharp-pointed needle on a sheet of paper quite clear from any writing; fold in nine folds, and place it under your head when you retire to rest. If you dream of diamonds, castles, or even a clear sky, there is no deceit and you will prosper. Trees in blossom, or flowers, show children; washing, or graves, show you will lose them by death; and water shows they are faithful, but that you will go through severe poverty with the party for some time, though all may end well.

TO KNOW YOUR HUSBAND'S TRADE.

Exactly at twelve, on Midsummer-day, place a bowl of water in the sun, pour in some boiling pewter as the clock is striking, saying thus:

Here I try a potent spell,
Queen of love and Juno tell,
In kind love to me,
What my husband is to be;
This the day, and this the hour,
When it seems you have the power
For to be a maiden's friend.
So, good ladies, condescend.

A tobacco-pipe full is enough. When the pewter is cold, take it out of the water, and drain it dry in a cloth, and you will find the emblems of your future husband's trade quite plain. If more than one, you will marry twice; if confused and no emblems, you will never marry; a coach shows a gentleman for you.

A CHRISTMAS SPELL.

Steep mistletoe berries, to the number of nine, in a mixture of ale, wine, vinegar, and honey; take them on going to bed, and you will dream of your future lot; a storm in this dream is very bad; it is most likely that you will marry a sailor, who will suffer shipwreck at sea; but to see either sun, moon, or stars is an excellent presage; so are flowers; but a coffin is an index of a disappointment in love.
THE NINE KEYS.

Get nine small keys; they must all be your own by begging or purchase (borrowing will not do, nor must you tell what you want them for); plait a three-plaited band of your own hair, and tie them together, fastening the ends with nine knots; fasten them with one of your garters to your left wrist on going to bed, and bind the other garter round your head; then say:

St. Peter take it not amiss,
To try your favor I've done this;
You are the ruler of the keys,
Favor me, then, if you please;
Let me then your influence prove,
And see my dear and wedded love.

This must be done on the eve of St. Peter’s. It is an old charm used by the maidens of Rome in ancient times, who put great faith in it.

THE THREE KEYS.

Purchase three small keys, each at a different place, and, on going to bed, tie them together with your garter, and place them in your left hand glove, along with a small flat dough cake, on which you have pricked the first letters of your sweetheart’s name; put them in your bosom when you retire to rest; if you are to have that young man, you will dream of him, but not else.

To Know if a Woman with Child will have a Girl or a Boy.

Write the proper names of the father and the mother, and the month she conceived with child; count the letters in these words, and divide the amount by seven; and then, if the remainder be even, it will be a girl; if uneven, it will be a boy.

To Know if a Child New-Born Shall Live or Not.

Write the proper names of the father and mother, and of the day the child was born; count the letters in these words, and divide the amount by seven; if the remainder be even, the child shall die, but if it be uneven, the child shall live.

To Know How Soon a Person will be Married.

Get a green pea-pod, in which are exactly nine peas; hang it over the door, and then take notice of the next person who comes in, who is not of the family, nor of the same sex with yourself, and if it proves an unmarried individual, you will certainly be married within that year.

A CHARM.

(To be used on the eve of any fast directed in the calendar.)

This takes a week’s preparation, for you must abstain from meat or strong drink. Go not to bed till the clock has struck the midnight hour, and rise before seven the next morning, the whole seven days. You must neither play at cards, or any game of chance, nor enter a place of public diversion. When you go to bed on the night of trial, eat something very salty, and do not drink after it, and you may depend on having very singular dreams; and, being very thirsty, you will probably dream of liquids. Wine is excellent, and shows wealth or promotion; brandy, foreign lands; rum, that you will wed a sailor, or one that gets his living at sea; gin, but a middling life; cordials, variety of fortune; and water, if you drink it, poverty; but to see a clear stream is good. Children are not good to behold in this dream, nor cards, nor dice; they forebode the loss of reputation, or that you will never marry.

VALENTINE.

If you receive one of these love tokens, and cannot guess at the party who sent it, or are in any doubt, the following method will explain it to a certainty. Prick the fourth finger on your left hand, and, with a crow quill, write on the back of the valentine the day and hour on which you were born, and the date of the year, also of the present one, the moon’s age, and the name of the present morning-star, all of which you will find in the almanac, and the sign into which the sun has entered. Try this on the first Friday after you receive the valentine, but do not go to bed till midnight; place the paper in your left shoe, and put it under your pillow; lay on your left side, and repeat three times:

St. Valentine, pray condescend
To be this night a maiden’s friend;
Let me now my lover see,
Be he of high or low degree;
By a sign his station show,
Be it weal or be it woe;
Let him come to my bedside,
And my fortune thus decide.

The young woman will be sure to dream of the identical person who sent the valentine, and may guess, by the other particulars of the dream, if or not he is to be her spouse.

YAHLOW.

This is a weed commonly found in abundance on graves towards the close of the spring and beginning of the summer. It must be plucked exactly on the first hour of morn; place three sprigs either in your shoe or glove, saying:
Good morning, good morning, good yarrow,
And thrice a good morning to thee;
Tell me before this time to-morrow
Who my true love is to be.

Observe, a young man must pluck the weed off a young maiden's grave, and a female must select that of a bachelor's; retire home to bed without speaking a word, or it dissolves the spell; put the yarrow under your pillow, and it will procure a sure dream, on which you may depend.

To Know whether a Woman shall have the Man She Wishes.

Get two lemon peels and wear them all day, one in each pocket, and at night rub the four posts of the bedstead with them; if she is to succeed, the person will appear in her sleep, and present her with a couple of lemons; if not, there is no hope.

To Know if any one shall Enjoy their Love or not.

Take the number of the first letter of your name, the number of the planet, and the day of the week; put all these together, and divide them by thirty; if it be above, it will come to your mind, and if below, to the contrary; and mind that number which exceeds not thirty.

SIGNS TO CHOOSE

GOOD HUSBANDS AND WIVES.

1. If the party be of a ruddy complexion, high and full-nosed, his eyebrows bending archwise, his eyes standing full, of a black and lively color, it denotes him good-natured, ingenuous, and born to good fortune, and the like in a woman, if born under the planet Jupiter.

2. If the party be phlegmatic, lean, and of a dusky complexion, given much to musing and melancholy, beware of such a one, of what sex soever.

3. An indifferent wide mouth, and full cheeks, smooth forehead, little ears, dark-brown hair, and a chin proportionate to the face, is very promising.

4. An extraordinarily long chin, with the underlip larger than the upper, signifies a cross-grained person, fit for little business, yet given to folly.

5. A well-set, broad chin in a man, his face being round, and not too great, and a dimple or dent in a woman's cheek or chin, denotes they will come together and live happily.

PREDICTIONS CONCERNING

Children Born on any Day in the Week.

SUNDAY.—The child born on Sunday will obtain great riches, be long-lived, and enjoy much happiness.

MONDAY.—Children born on this day will not be very successful in most enterprises they may engage in, being irresolute, subject to be imposed upon through their good-natured disposition; they are generally willing and ready to oblige everyone who asks a favor from them.

TUESDAY.—The person born on this day will be subject to violent starts of passion, and not easily reconciled; if a man, given to illicit connections, from which conduct many serious consequences and misfortunes will arise, and he will never be safe, being in danger of suffering death by violence, if he does not put a restraint upon his vicious inclinations.

WEDNESDAY.—The child ushered into the world on this day will be of a studious and sedate turn of mind; and if circumstances will allow, fond of perusing the literary works of the most talented ancient and modern authors. Should facilities be afforded to such a one, there is every probability of his being a highly-gifted author.

THURSDAY.—Those who first see the light on this day may in general have applied to them the appellation of being "born with a silver spoon in their mouths"; for, unless they resolutely spurn from them the Plutonic deity, riches will be poured into their lap with no niggard hand.

FRIDAY.—The little stranger who first inhales the vital air on this day will be blessed with a strong constitution, and will be lucky in every enterprise through life, happy in his or her domestic relations, and finally die rich and lamented.

SATURDAY.—This is an unlucky day for being ushered into this world of sin and sorrow; but those born on this last day of the week may become good members of society, honored and respected by their fellow-creatures, and blessed by the Almighty.

To Discover a Thief by the Sieve and Shears.

Stick the points of the shears in the wood of the sieve, and let two persons support it, balanced upright, with their two fingers; then read a certain chapter in the Bible; and afterwards ask St. Peter and St. Paul if A or B is the thief, naming all the persons you suspect. On naming the real thief, the sieve will suddenly turn round about.
An itching on the right shoulder signifies that you will shortly have a large legacy bequeathed to you.

When you feel an itching sensation on your left shoulder, be sure that you are about to bear a heavy burden of sorrow and trouble.

If your right elbow joint itches, you may expect shortly to hear some intelligence that will give you extreme pleasure.

Should you be annoyed with a violent itching on your left elbow joint, you may be sure that some vexatious disappointment will be experienced by you.

If you feel an itching on the palm of your right hand, you may expect soon to receive some money which you have been long expecting.

When the palm of your left hand itches, you may expect to be called upon to pay some money for a debt which you have not personally incurred.

An itching on the spine of your back is a sign that you will shortly be called upon to bear a heavy burden of sorrow and trouble.

An itching on your loins is an indication that you will soon receive an addition to your family, if married; if single, that you are on the eve of marriage.

When you are affected with an itching on the belly, expect to be invited to feast upon a choice collection of savory meats.

When either or both of your thighs itch, be assured that you are about to change your sleeping apartment.

If you have an itching sensation in your right knee, depend upon it that you will shortly undergo a remarkable and beneficial change in your previous course of life, and become religiously inclined.

If a similar sensation prevails in your right knee, you may expect to undergo a change in your deportment of an unfavorable nature.

An itching sensation on the shins foretells that you will be visited with a painful and long-continued affliction.

When your ankle-joints itch, be sure that you are about to be united to one whom you love, if single; if married, that your domestic comforts will be largely increased.

When the sole of your right foot itches, you may feel assured that you are about to undertake a journey from which you will derive much pleasure and enjoyment.

Should you experience a similar sensation on the sole of your left foot, you may expect to be called upon to take a journey of an unpleasant and melancholy nature.

If, in taking a walk, you should see a single magpie, it is a bad omen, especially if it should fly past you to the left hand; but if it should pass you to the right hand, the good will counterbalance the bad. Should you see two magpies together, expect to hear of something to your advantage—a proposal of marriage, if single; or a legacy of money bequeathed to you. Should the magpies fly past you together to your right hand, your own marriage, or the marriage of some one nearly related to you, will occur in a short time. The seeing of several magpies together is considered a very fortunate omen.

May is considered an unlucky month to marry in, therefore avoid doing so if possible. If you can catch a snail by the horns on the first of May, and throw it over your shoulders, you will be lucky throughout the year. If you place one on a slate on that day, it will describe by its turnings the initials of your future partner's name.

If a young man or young woman, on going up a flight of stairs, should stumble in the middle of the flight, it is a sign that his or her marriage will take place in a short time. If the stumbling should be near the top of the stairs, then his or her marriage will be immediately consummated.

If a young person, when seated at the table, should observe one or more stalks of the tea-plant in the newly-poured-out cup, and if, on stirring the tea and holding the spoon in the middle of the liquid, the stalk or stalks should come close to the spoon-handle, it is a token that he or she will be soon married.

When the house-dog is unusually restless, and howls dizzingly in the night-time, it is a sign that sickness and death are about to visit the family to whom the dog belongs.

When the wick of your candle shows a bright spark in the midst of the flame, it is a sign that a long-absent friend is about to visit you.

When the ribs of your fireplace are more than usually covered with flakes of soot, it is a sign that a stranger is about to visit your habitation.

The Bannich Brauder, or "dreaming bannocks," are very much thought of by the Scotch. They contain "a little of that substance which chimney-sweeps call soot." In baking them "the bakes must be as mute as a stone—one word would destroy the whole concern." Each person has one, slips off quietly to bed, lays his or her head on the bannock, and the sweetheart of each appears in dreams during sleep.

28. The child born the twenty-eighth day will be the delight of his parents, but will not live to any great age.

30. The child that is born on the thirtieth day will be fortunate and happy, and well skilled in the arts and sciences.

THE MYSTERIOUS WATCH.

Request any person to lend you his watch, and ask him if it will go when laid on the table. He will, no doubt, answer in the affirmative; in which case, place the watch over the end of a concealed magnet, and it will presently stop. Then mark the precise spot where you placed the watch, and moving the point of the magnet, give the watch to another person, and desire him to make the experiment; in which he not succeeding, give it to a third (at the same time replacing the magnet), and he will immediately perform it to the great chagrin of the second party.

The experiment cannot be effected unless you take the precaution to use a very strongly impregnated magnetic bar, nor unless the balance-wheel of the watch be of steel, which may be ascertained by previously opening it and looking at the works.

Physiognomy.

Of Physiognomy.

OF PROGNOSTICS TO BE DRAWN FROM THE COLOR AND NATURE OF THE HAIR OF MEN AND WOMEN—AS ALSO FROM THE FOREHEAD, EYEBROWS, EYES, NOSE, MOUTH, CHIN, AND WHOLE ASSEMBLAGE OF FEATURES.

Astrology is a celestial science that treats of the doctrine of the stars, which are placed in the firmament of heaven for the use and benefit of man; and it is proved, by daily observation and experience, that the fate of every person in existence is not only written in the heavens at the time of each of their said births, but that the same is also stamped and marked out in the face and hands of every man. The one is called Physiognomy, and the other Chiromancy, or Palmistry—so that the fate of every person is written in three places, at the birth of every individual, viz.: first, in the heavens; secondly, in their faces; and thirdly, in their hands; and I shall therefore proceed to inform your judgment and understanding in the science of physiognomy. In the first place, observe the following rules:

1. The gentleman whose hair is very black and smooth, hanging far over his shoulders; and in large quantity, is mild but resolute; cool, until greatly provoked; not much inclined to excess of any kind, but he may be persuaded to it. He is constant in his attachments, and not liable to many misfortunes.

2. A lady of the same kind of hair is moderate in her desires of every kind, addicted to reflection, and though not subject to violence in love, is steady in her attachments, and no enemy to its pleasures; of a constitution neither vigorous nor feeble.

3. If the hair is very black, short, and curling, the gentleman will be much given to liquor, somewhat quarrelsome, and of an unsettled temper; more amorous, and less steady in his undertakings, but ardent at the beginning of an enterprise. He will be desirous of riches, but will often be disappointed in his wishes therein

4. The same may be said of a lady.

5. A gentleman with dark-brown, long, and smooth hair is generally of a robust constitution; obstinate in his temper, eager in his pursuits, a lover of the fair sex, fond of variety, in his ordinary pursuits exceedingly curious, and of a flexible disposition. He will live long, unless guilty of early intemperance.

6. A lady of the same kind of hair will be nearly the same as the gentleman, but more steady in her conduct and attachments, especially in love. She will be of a good constitution, have many children, enjoy good health, and a reasonable share of happiness.

7. If the hair is short and bushy, it will make very little alteration in the gentleman or lady, but that the gentleman will be more forward to strike when provoked, and the lady will be more of a scold.

8. A gentleman with light-brown, long, smooth hair is of a peaceable, even, and rather generous temper; will prevent mischief, if in his power, but when very much provoked, will strike furiously; but is afterwards sorry for his passion, and soon appeased; strongly attached to the company of ladies, and will protect them from insult. Upon the whole, he is in general an amicable character, affable and kind.

9. A lady of the same kind of hair is tender-hearted, but hasty in temper; neither obstinate nor haughty; her inclination to love never unreasonable; her constitution will be good, but she will be seldom very fortunate.

10. A gentleman with fair hair will be of a weak constitution; his mind given much to reflection, especially in religious matters. He will be assiduous in his occupation, but not given to rambling; very moderate in his amorous wishes, but not live to an old age.
11. A lady of this colored hair is in the contrary of a good constitution; never to be diverted from her purposes; passionate in love affairs, never easy unless in company, and delights in hearing herself praised, especially for beauty; delights in dancing and strong exercises, and commonly lives to a great age.

12. A gentleman with long, red hair is cunning, artful and deceitful; he is much addicted to traffic of some kind, restless in his disposition, constantly roving, and desirous of enjoying the pleasures of love. He is covetous of getting money, and spends it foolishly; he is indefatigable, and no obstacle will induce him to forsake his enterprise until he has seen the issue of it. He is inclined to timidity, but, by reflection, may correct it, and pass for a man of courage.

13. A lady of the same kind of hair is glib of tongue, talkative and vain; her temper is impatient and fiery, and will not submit to contradiction; she has a constant flow of spirits, and much given to the pleasures of love. However delicate her person may seem, however prone she may seem, her constitution is generally vigorous; but she seldom lives to see old age, for obvious reasons; her promises are seldom to be depended upon, because the next object that engrosses her attention makes her forgetful of everything that preceded it, and will always resent any disappointment she may meet with.

I will now proceed to give some few instructions concerning the hair in other particulars, by the following remarks:

14. If the hair falls off at the forepart of the head, the person will be easily led, though otherwise rational, and will often be duped when he thinks he is acting right; he will likewise frequently meet with disappointments in money matters, which will either hurt his credit, or force him to shorten his expenses.

15. If the hair falls off behind, he will be obstinate, peevish, passionate, and fond of commanding others, though he has no right, and will grow angry if his advice is not followed. However preposterous, he will be fond of hearing and telling old stories and tales of ghosts and fairies, but will be a good domestic man, and provide for his family to the utmost of his power.

16. If the hair forms an arch round the forehead, without being much indented at the temples, both the gentleman and the lady will be innocent, credulous, moderate in all their desires, and though not ardent in their pursuits, will still be persevering. They will be modest, good-natured, prosperous and happy.

17. If the hair is indented at the temples, the person will be affable, steady, good-natured, prudent, and attentive to business, of a solid constitution, and long-lived.

18. If the hair descends low upon the forehead, the person will be selfish and designing; of a surly disposition, unsociable, and given to drinking. He will also be addicted to avarice, and his mind will be always intent upon the means of carrying on his schemes, etc.

19. The forehead that is large, round and smooth announces the lady or gentleman to be frank, open, generous and free, good-natured, and a safe companion; of a good understanding, and scorns to be guilty of any mean action; faithful to his promises, just in his dealings, steadfast in his engagements, and sincere in his affections; he will enjoy a moderate state of health, etc.

20. If the forehead is flat in the middle, the gentleman (or lady) will be found to be vain-glorious, and but little disposed to generosity; very tenacious of his honor, but brave; he will be fond of prying into the secrets of others, though not with the intention of betraying them; he will be fond of reading newspapers, history, novels and plays; ardent, and very cautious of his own reputation.

21. If there be a hollow across the forehead, in the middle, with a ridge, as of flesh, above, and another below, the gentleman will be a cautious and a safe companion; of a good understanding, and much given to the pleasures of love.

22. If the forehead juts out immediately at and over the eyebrows, running flat up to the hair, the gentleman or lady will be sullen, proud, insolent, imperious and treacherous; they will be impatient when contradicted, apt to give great abuse, and to strike if they think they can do it with advantage. They will also impose upon any person, never forgiving any injury, and by their misconduct make themselves many enemies.

23. If the temples are hollow, with the bones advancing towards the forehead on either side, so that the space between must be necessarily flat, with a small channel or indenture rising from the upper part of the nose to the hair, the gentleman or lady will be of a daring and intrepid temper, introducing themselves into matters where they have no business, desirous of passing for wits, and of a subtle and enterprising nature; greedy of praise, quick in quarrel, and of a wandering disposition; very lewd, and full of resentment when they feel their pride hurt. In short, they delight in mischief, riots, etc.

24. If the eyebrows are very hairy, and that hair long and curled, with several of the hairs starting out, the gentleman or lady is of a gloomy disposition, litigious and quarrelsome, although a coward; greedy after the affairs of this world, perpetually brooding over some melancholy subject, and not an agreeable companion. He will be diffident, penurious, and weak in his understanding; never addicted to any kind of learning. He will pretend much friendship, but will make his affected passion subservient to his pecuniary designs, and also given to drinking, etc., etc.

25. If a gentleman or lady has long eyebrows, with some long hairs, they will be of a fickle disposition, weak-minded, credulous and vain, always seeking after novelties, and neglecting their own business; they will be talkative, pert and disagreeable in company; very fond of contradiction, but will not bear disappointment patiently; and also will be much addicted to drinking, etc.

26. If the eyebrows are thick and even—that is, without any or few starting hairs—the gentleman or lady will be of an agreeable temper, sound understanding and tolerable wit; moderately addicted to pleasure, fearful of giving offence; but intrepid and persevering in support of right; charitable and generous, sincere in their professions of love and friendship, and enjoy a good constitution.

27. If the eyebrow is small, thin of hair, and even, the gentleman and lady will be weak-minded, timorous, superficial, and not to be depended on; they will be desirous of knowledge, but will not have patience and assiduity enough to give it the necessary attention; but they will be desirous of praise for worthy actions, but will not have the spirit or perseverance enough to perform them in that degree of excellence that is requisite to attract the notice of wise men. They will be of a delicate constitution, etc.

28. If the eyebrow is thick of hair towards the nose, and goes off suddenly very thin, ending in a point, the gentleman or lady will be surly, capricious, jealous, fretful and easily provoked to rage; in their love they will be intemperate.

29. The eye that is large, full, prominent, and clear denotes a gentleman or lady to be of an ingenious and candid disposition, void of deceit, and of an even, agreeable and affable disposition; modest and bashful in love, though by no means an enemy to its gratification; firm, though not obstinate; of a good understanding, of an agreeable but not brilliant wit; but clear and just in argument, inclined to extravagance, and easily imposed upon.

30. The eye that is small but advanced in the head shows the gentleman or lady to be of a quick wit, sound constitution, lively genius, agreeable company and conversation, good morals, but rather inclined to jealousy; attentive to business, fond of frequently changing his place, punctual in fulfilling his engagements, warm in love, prosperous in his undertakings, and generally fortunate in most things.

31. The gentleman or lady whose eyes are sunk in the head is of a jealous, distrustful, malicious, and envious nature; deceitful in their words and actions, never to be depended upon; cunning in over-reaching others, vain-glorious, and associates with lewd and bad company, etc.

32. The gentleman or lady who have their eyes turned awry, will be of a penurious disposition, but punctual in their dealings.

33. A black eye is lively, brisk, and penetrating, and proves the person who possesses it to be of a sprightly wit, lively conversation, not easily imposed upon, of a sound understanding, but, if taken on the weak side, may be led astray for a while.

34. A hazel eye shows the person to be of a subtle, piercing, and frolicsome turn, rather inclined to be arch, and sometimes mischievous, but good-natured at the bottom. He will be strongly inclined to love, and not over delicate in the means of gratifying that propensity.

35. A blue eye shows the person to be of a meek and gentle temper, affable and good-natured, credulous, and incapable of violent attachments; ever modest, cool, and undisturbed by turbulent passions; of a strong memory; in constitution, neither robust nor delicate, subject to no violent impression from the vicissitudes of life, whether good or bad.

36. A gray eye denotes the person to be of a weak intellect, devoid of wit, but a plain, plodding, downright drudge, that will act as he is spirited up by others. He will be slow in learning anything that requires attention; he, however, will be just to the best of his understanding.

37. A wall eye denotes the person to be of a hasty, passionate, and ungovernable temper, subject to sudden and violent anger; haughty to equals and superiors, but mild and affable to his inferiors.

38. A red, or as it is vulgarly called, a saucy-eye, denotes the person to be selfish, deceitful, and proud, and furious in anger, fertile in the invention of plots, and indefatigable in his resolution to bring them to bear.

39. A nose that comes even on the ridge, flat on the sides, with little or no hollow between the eyes, declares the man to be sulky, insolent, disdainful, treacherous, and self-sufficient; if it has a point descending over the nostrils, he is avaricious and unfeeling, vain-glorious and ignorant; peevish, jealous, quick in resentment, yet a coward at the bottom.

40. A nose that rises with a sudden bulge a little below the eyes, and then falls again into a kind of hollow below, is petulant and noisy, void of science, and of a very light understanding.

41. The nose that is small, slender and peaked shows the person to be of a fearful disposition, jealous, fretful, and insidious, ever suspicious of those about him, catching at every word that he can interpret to his own advantage to ground his dispute upon, and also very curious to know what is said and done.

42. The nose that is small, tapering round in the nostrils, and cocked up, shows the person to be ingenuous, smart, of a quick and lively imagination, ardent in the pursuit of knowledge, indefatigable in labor, not too much attached to money, eager in the pursuit of love, more brave than otherwise, and tolerably happy in life.

43. The lips that are thick, soft and long announces the person to be of a weak intellect, credulous, and slightly peevish; but by a little soothing easily brought back to a good humor. He is much addicted to the pleasures of love, and scarcely moderate in his enjoyment of them; yet he is upright in his conduct, and of a timorous temper.

44. If the underlip is much thicker than the upper, and more prominent, the person is of a weak understanding, but artful, knavish, and given to chicanery to the full extent of his ability.

45. The lips that are moderately plump and even declare the person to be good-humored, humane, sensible, judicious, and just; neither giddy nor torpid, but pursuing in every particular a just medium.

46. The lips that are thin show the person to be of a quick and lively imagination, ardent in the pursuit of knowledge, indefatigable in labor, not too much attached to money, eager in the pursuit of love, more brave than otherwise, and tolerably happy in life.

47. The lips that are thin and sunk inwards denote the person to be of a subtle and persevering disposition, everlasting in hatred, and never sparing any pains to compass his revenge; in love or friendship much more moderate and uncertain.

48. The chin that is round, with a hollow between it and the lip, shows the person to be of a good-humored disposition, kind and honest; he is sincere in his friendship, and ardent in his love; his understanding is good, and his genius capacious. If he has a dimple, it makes him better.

49. The chin that comes down flat from the edge of the lip and ends in a kind of chisel-form shows the person to be silly, credulous, ill-tempered, and greedy of unmerited honors; captious, wavering, and unsteady; he will affect great modesty in the presence of others, though he will not scruple to do the vilest actions when he thinks himself secure from discovery.

50. The chin that is pointed upwards shows the person to be much given to contrivances. However fair he may speak to you, you can never depend on his friendship, as his purpose is only to make you subservient to his own designs. In love his generosity will be of the same stamp.

51. Of the face in general, I shall say that the person whose features are strong, coarse, and unpleasant to the eye is of a selfish, brutal, rough, and unsociable disposition; greedy of money, harsh in expressions, but will sometimes fawn with a bad grace to gain his ends.

52. The face that is plump, round, and ruddy denotes the person to be of an agreeable temper, a safe companion, hearty, and jovial, fond of company, of sound principles and a clear understanding, faithful in love, etc.

53. The face that is thin, smooth, and even, with well-proportioned features, shows the person to be of a good disposition, but penetrating and active; somewhat inclined to suspicion, yet of an agreeable conversation; assiduous in the pursuits of love, and strongly addicted to the delights of love.

54. A face whose cheek-bones jut out with thin jaws is of a restless and thinking disposition; fretful, etc.

55. A face that is pale by nature denotes a timorous disposition, but greatly desirous of carnal pleasures.

56. A face that is unequally red, whether streaked or appearing in spots, shows the person to be weak both in mind and body, yielding easily to affliction and sickness.

57. A face blotched shows the person to be addicted to drinking and vice, and not even free from any vice, though they have frequently the art to conceal the inclination.

58. The head that is large and round shows that the person has a tolerable understanding, but not near so good as he imagines; however, upon the whole, he is rather harmless, and not so much given to vice.
NATIVITY.

TO CAST YOUR NATIVITY.

Having ascertained the exact time of your birth, and the hour in which you entered this transitory life, procure a Moore's almanac of that year, which will direct you to the sign that then reigned, the name of the planets, and the state of the moon; particularly observe whether the sun was just entering the sign, whether it was near the end, or what was its particular progress; if at the beginning, your fate will be strongly tinctured with its properties, moderate at the meridian, and slightly if the sun is nearly going out of the sign.

Write down the day of the week; see whether it is a lucky day or not, the state of the moon, the nature of the planets, and the influence described next, and you will ascertain your future destiny with very little trouble.

JANUARY.
(Aquarius, or the Water Bearer.)

Gives a love of wandering and variety, seldom contented long in one place; soon affronted, and slow to forgive; fond of law, though they lose the day. They are unhappy. Mercury gives them slights in love. A full moon is the best, for a new moon only adds to their false fears; and Saturn gives them real trouble to content with.

FEBRUARY.
(Pisces, or the Fishes.)

Those born under the influence of this planet prosper best on the ocean, or at a distance from their native home. But those born under this sign, and not ordained to travel, will experience at times more or less distress. Mars and Jupiter are the best planets, and if the day of the week on which they were born be a fortunate one, let them begin their fresh concerns on that day, write and answer letters, or seek for money due to them according to their rule, and they have more than a chance for prosperity. The female traveller will be very fortunate, and have a contempt for danger, yet neither her disposition nor manners will be masculine; she will make an excellent wife and mother, and, if left a widow with children, will strive for their interest with a father's care and prudence; nor will she wed a second time, unless Venus rules her destiny. Mars gives her success; Jupiter, vigilance; a new moon, virtue; a full moon, some enemies; and Saturn, temptation; yet she will prosper.

MARCH.
(Aries, or the Ram.)

A very good sign to those born under it. To either sex denotes prosperity, fidelity, dutiful children, and many liberal friends, but hot-tempered; if Mercury is one of the planets, they will then be very amiable. Jupiter and Venus are also good planets to them, but Mars or Saturn causes a sad alteration to their general destiny, and gives a mixed life of pain and pleasure. Venus reigning alone as a morning star at the time of their birth, causes them many amours.

APRIL.
(Taurus, or the Bull.)

To be prosperous under this sign will require active industry and patience under misfortunes and perils; but Jupiter, Venus, or the new moon, will soften this destiny. The men will be bold and adventurous, fond of governing, and hard to please; they must be careful not to enter on any fresh concern while their sign has the ascendency, the end of April and the two first weeks in May.

MAY.
(Gemini, or the Twins.)

Very fortunate for females, particularly in the grand article of matrimony, though they will prosper well in other affairs; the full moon and Venus are good for them. They will be punctual and honest in their dealings, be much respected by their friends and neighbors, and have many children.

JUNE.
(Cancer, or the Crab.)

A prosperous but eventful sign to both sexes, but more particularly those of a fair complexion; they will be exalted in life; Jupiter and Venus are the best signs for them; but the brunettes, though fortunate, will plague themselves and others with whims, jealousies, and ill-nature, and may be very particular about mere trifles. If Mars be their planet, they will enter into lawsuits; and if Saturn, let them beware of ungovernable passions.

JULY.

(Leo, or the Lion.)

Favorable to those born in poverty, but not to the rich; for this sign always shows a great change of circumstances about the meridian of our days, sooner or later, according to the sign in which you were born. If Jupiter be the planet, the person born poor will become rich by legacies, or will probably marry their master or mistress, or his or her son or daughter, according to their sex, and lead a happy life. This has often proved true.

AUGUST.

(Virgo, or the Virgin.)

A most important sign; the men brave, generous, candid, and honest; the females amiable and prosperous, if they do not mar their own fortune by love of flattery, to which they will be prone, or else advancement awaits them. Venus is not a good planet for them, and Saturn shows seduction; but, if neither of these three planets predominate at the time of their birth, they will marry early, have good children, and enjoy the most valuable blessings of life, and have many unexpected gains.

SEPTEMBER.

(Libra, or the Balance.)

A middle course of life is promised by this sign; a smooth, even, unrippled stream, free from storms or sudden changes; in fact, an enviable destiny. The persons now born will be just in their transactions, faithful in love and wedlock, and averse to litigation and law; not many children, but those healthy.

OCTOBER.

(Scorpio, or the Scorpion.)

To the man, promises a long, active, useful life, and an intelligent mind; prosperous and very careful of what he gains; a good husband, parent and master, and a sincere friend; a little gay in his youthful days, but not vicious. Jupiter and a full moon adds to the good of his destiny; Saturn or Mercury will detract from it; Venus inclines him to the fair sex. To the woman this sign shows indolence; and, if she is well off in the world, it will not be by her own merit or industry, for she will have to thank those to whom it is her good fortune to be nearly allied; but, if she has no shining qualities that are prominent, she will be free from evil propensities, and will never bring disgrace on herself, her husband, her family, or friends, unless Venus reigned at her birth; then I fear for her; but no other planet will affect her destiny.

NOVEMBER.

(Sagittarius, or the Archer.)

Gives to both sexes an amorous disposition, and, if Venus or Mercury presides at their birth, they will love variety; but Jupiter and Mars are good for them; the new moon is excellent to the female, and full to the man. It is seldom that persons born in this sign marry, if the first-mentioned planets reign; or, if they do marry, it is late in life, or when the meridian of their days are over, and they are become wise enough to relinquish folly; they then become steady and prudent, and generally do well; they seldom have many children, but what they have will prosper, and have friends who will promote their interest.

DECEMBER.

(Capricorn, or the Goat.)

Shows you will work and toil, and others reap the benefit of your labor, unless marriage alters the destiny; but hard will be your fate if your spouse is of the same sign as yourself; but, if Jupiter be one of the planets at your birth, the end of your days will be more prosperous than the beginning, after experiencing many cares and obstructions. A woman may probably better her fate by a second marriage, especially if Venus be her planet.

Love Presents and Witching Spells.

Take three hairs from your head, roll them up in a small compact form, and anoint them with three drops of blood from the left-hand fourth finger, choosing this because the anatomists say a vein goes from that finger to the heart; wear this in your bosom (taking care that none knows the secret) for nine days and nights; then enclose the hair in the secret cavity of a ring or a brooch, and present it to your lover. While it is in his possession, it will have the effect of preserving his love, and leading his mind to dwell on you. A chain or plait of your own hair, mixed with that of a goat, and anointed with nine drops of the essence of ambergris, will have a similar effect. Flowers prepared with your own blood will have an effect on your lover’s mind; but the impression will be very transient, and fade with the flowers. If your love should be fortunate, and you are married to the object of your wishes, never reveal to him the nature of the present you made him, or it may have the fatal effect of turning love into hate.
HOW TO OBTAIN
Happiness and Affluence
IN THE MARRIAGE STATE.

"There is a tide in the affairs of men which, taken at the flood, leads on to fortune."

He that by the plow would thrive,
Himself must either hold or drive.
For age and want save while you may,
No morning's sun lasts a whole day.
Get what you can, and what you get hold;
'Tis a stone that will turn all your lead to gold.
Therefore be ruled by me, I pray—
Save something for a rainy day.

Remember that time is money; for he that can earn ten shillings a day at his labor and goes abroad or sits idle at home one-half of that day, though he spend but sixpence during his diversion or idleness, he ought not to reckon that the only expense; he hath really wasted, or, rather, thrown away, five shillings besides.

Remember that credit is money. If a man let his money lay in my hands after it is due, because he has a good opinion of my credit, gives me the interest, or so much as I can make of the money during that time. This amounts to a very considerable sum where a man hath large credit, and also makes good use of it.

Remember that money is of a prolific or multiplying nature. Money will produce and its offspring multiplying nature. Money will produce he gives me the interest, or so much as amounts to a very considerable sum and then his money goes abroad or sits idle turned again is seven Hence, keep

Remember this proverb: that the good paymaster is lord of another man's purse; for he who is known to pay punctually and exactly to the time he promises, may, at any time, and on any occasion, raise all the money his friends can spare. This is sometimes of great use, next to industry and frugality. Nothing can contribute more to the raising of a man in the world than punctuality in all his dealings.
Therefore, never keep borrowed money one single hour beyond the time promised, lest the disappointment should shut up your friend's purse forever, as the most trifling actions that affect a man's credit ought always to be avoided.

The sound of the hammer at five o'clock in the morning, or at nine at night, being heard by a creditor, makes him easy six months longer; but if he sees you at a gaming table, or hears your voice in a tavern when you should be at work, he sends for his money the very next day, and demands it before it is convenient for you to pay him.

Beware of thinking all your own that you possess, and of living accordingly. This is a mistake that many people of credit fall into;
but, in order to prevent this, always keep an exact daily account of both your expenses, and also of your daily income and profits; for, if you will only just take the trouble at first to enumerate particulars, you will discover unto you how wonderfully small, trifling expenses mount up to a large sum: by which you will discern what might have been, and also what may for the future be saved without causing any great inconvenience. In short, the way to obtain riches, if you desire it, is as plain as the way to market, which depends chiefly on two things, viz.: industry and frugality. And take care that you waste neither time nor money, but daily make the best use of both. If you take care of the hours and days, the weeks and months and years will also take care of themselves.

I have always found, by constant experience, that any business, being first well contrived, is more than half done—for a sleeping fox catches no poultry. There will be sleep enough in the grave; and, also, that lost time is but seldom found again, for that which we generally call time enough always proves little enough; for sloth makes things difficult, while industry makes them easy.

He that rises late must trot hard all day, and shall scarce overtake his business at night
—for laziness travels so slow that poverty soon overtakes him. Drive your business, but let not that drive you; for early to bed and early to rise is the way to become healthy, wealthy, and wise. Industry need not want while he who lives on a vain hope will die fasting; for we find that there is nothing to be done or accomplished under the sun without labor.

He that hath a trade hath an estate, and he that hath a profession hath an office and profit with honor, but then the trade must be worked at, and the profession well followed, or they will not enable you to pay rent and taxes; for,
at the workingman's house, hunger looks in,
but dures not enter—for industry pays debts, while despair increases them.

Diligence is the mother of good luck. As Solomon saith: "The diligent hand maketh rich, while he that dealeth with a slack hand becometh poor;" for God gives all things to industry. Then plough deep while sluggards sleep, and you shall have plenty, while others have reason to complain of hard times. Therefore, keep working while it is called to-day, for you know not how much you may be hindered to-morrow; and never leave that business to be done to-morrow which you can do to-day; for, since you are not sure of a single hour, throw not that away. How many are there who live daily by their wits, and who often break for want of a stock in hand, while industry gives comfort, plenty and respect.

Keep your shop well and then your shop will keep you. For it sometimes happens that the eye of a master will do more work than both his hands, and more especially if his head be any reasonable length; for the want of care generally doth more damage than the want of knowledge. If you do not overlook your workmen, you may just as well leave them your purse open; for the trusting too much to the care of others has completely ruined many a man. Therefore, if you would be wealthy, think of being careful and saving; for

"Women, wine, game, and deceit
Make the wealth small and the wants great."

HOW TO MAKE THE DUMB-CAKE.

In order to make the dumb-cake with perfection, it is necessary strictly to observe the following instructions:

Let any number of young women take a handful of wheaten flour (and from the moment the hand touches the flour, not a word is to be spoken by any of them during the process) and place it on a sheet of white paper; then sprinkle it over with as much salt as can be held betwixt the finger and thumb; then one of the damsels must bestow as much of her own water as will make it into dough; which being done, each of the company must roll it up, and spread it thin and broad; and each person must, at some distance from each other, make the first letters of her Christian and surname with a large, new pin towards the end of the cake (if more Christian names than one, the first letter of each must be made). The cake must then be set before the fire, and each person must sit down in a chair, as far distant from the fire as the room will admit, not speaking a single word all this while.

This must be done soon after eleven at night, and between that and twelve each person must turn the cake once; and in a few minutes after twelve the husband of her who is to be the first married will appear to lay his hand on that part of the cake which is marked with her name.

MOLES.

Time-honored predictions of a person's disposition and future lot by the aid of Moles.

Though moles are, in their substance, nothing else than excrecences, or ebullitions, which proceed from the state of the blood whilst the fetus is confined in the womb, yet, they are not given in vain, as they are generally characteristic of the disposition and temper of those that bear them; and it is also proved by daily experience that from the shape, situation, and circumstances they bear a strong analogy to the events which are to happen to a person in future life. But before I presume to give any directions to those who are to form the prognostic, who are desirous to be duly enabled to pronounce an infallible judgment, I shall, in the first place, teach you how to tell and duly inform any person whom you never saw in your life, even at a hundred or ten thousand miles distance, on what particular parts of the body they have any.

MARKS, SCARS, OR MOLES.

FROM AND BY THE FIGURE OF THE HEAVENS AT THE TIME OF THEIR BIRTH, WITHOUT ANY OTHER COMMUNICATION OR REFERENCE WHATEVER.

In the first place, you must observe what sign that is which is upon the cusp of the ascendant, and in that part of the native's body which that sign governs there will be a mole. For instance, if Aries be the sign ascending at birth, the mole will be on the head or face; if Taurus, on neck or throat; if Gemini, on the arms or shoulders; if Cancer, on the breast; and upon any other part of the body which the sign ascending shall govern. Observe next in which of the houses the lord of the ascendant is posited, and in that part of the body the sign governs which happens to fall upon the cusp of that house, the native will have another mole. Next observe the sign descending on the cusp of the sixth house, and in whatever part of the body that sign governs the native will find another mole; and upon that member also which is signified by the sign wherein the lord of the sixth house is posited will be found another. Observe also what sign the moon is posited in, and in that part of the body which is governed by it shall the native or querent find another mole. If the planet Saturn be the significator, the mole is either black or of a dark color. If Mars be the significator, and in a fiery sign, it then resembles a scar, cut, or dent in the flesh, but in any other sign it is a red mole. If Jupiter be the significator, the mole is of a purple or bluish cast. If the sun, it is of an olive or chestnut color. If Venus, it is yellow; if Mercury, of a pale lead color; if the Moon, it is whitish, or participates of the color of that planet which she happens to be in aspect. And if the planet which gives the mole be much impeded or afflicted, the mark or mole will then be larger or more visible to the eye of the beholder.

If the sign and planet which gives the mark or mole be masculine, it is then situated on the right side of the body; but, if feminine, on the left side. If the significator or planet which gives the mole be found above the horizon—that is, from the cusp of the ascendant to the cusp of the seventh, either in the twelfth, eleventh, tenth, ninth, eighth, or seventh house—the mark or mole will be on the forepart of the body; but if the significator be under the Earth—that is, in either the first, second, third, fourth, fifth, or sixth house—it will be situated on the back or hinder part of the body. If only a few degrees of the sign ascend upon the horoscope, or descend on the sixth, or if the lord of the ascendent, lord of the sixth, or the moon, be posited in the beginning of any sign, the said mole or mark will be found upon the member those signs govern. If half the degrees of a sign ascend, or the significators are posited in the middle of any sign, the mole or mark will be in the middle of the member; but if the last degrees of a sign ascend, or the significators are in the latter degrees of a sign, the said mark or mole will then be situated on the lower part of the member such sign governs.

These observations are of excellent use, in order to know whether a question be logical, fit, and proper to be judged; for if the question be found thus radical, the time rightly taken, and the querent of sufficient age, this rule will never be found to fail.

1. I shall now proceed to give you herein the common prognostications by moles found in all the various parts of the body, according to the doctrine of the ancients. And first, it is essentially necessary to know the size of the mole, its color, whether it be perfectly round, oblong, or angular; because each of these will add to or diminish the force of the indication. The larger the mole, the greater the prosperity or adversity of the person; the smaller the mole, the less will be his good or evil fate. If the mole is round, it indicates good; if oblong, a moderate share of fortunate events; if angular, it gives a mixture of good and evil; the deeper the color, the more it announces favor or disgrace; the lighter, the less of either.

If it is very hairy, much misfortune may be expected; if few long hairs grow upon it, it denotes that your undertakings will be prosperous.

2. A mole that stands on the right side of the forehead or right temple signifies that the person will arrive to sudden wealth and honor, according to their birth and situation in life; which must always be attended to with due consideration.

3. A mole on the right eye denotes the person to be of a steady, sober, and sedate disposition; but will be liable to a violent death.

4. A mole on the left side of either of those three places announces unexpected disappointment in your most sanguine wishes.

5. A mole on the outside corner of either eye denotes the person to be of a steady, sober, and sedate disposition; but will be liable to a violent death.

6. A mole on either cheek signifies that the person never shall rise above mediocrity in point of fortune, though, at the same time, he never will fall into real poverty.

7. A mole on the nose shows that the person will have good success in most of his or her undertakings.

8. A mole on the lip, either upper or lower, proves the person to be fond of delicate things, and much given to the pleasures of love, in which he or she will most commonly be successful.

9. A mole on the chin foreshows that the person will be married will possess many amiable qualities and a good fortune.

10. A mole on the side of the neck shows that the person will arrive to sudden wealth and honor, which must always be attended to with due consideration.

11. A mole on the throat denotes that the person shall become rich by marriage.

12. A mole on the right breast declares the person to be exposed to a sudden reverse from comfort to distress by unavoidable accidents. Most of his children will be girls.

13. A mole on the left breast signifies success in undertakings, and an amorous disposition. Most of his children will be boys.

15. A mole under the left breast, over the heart, foreshows that a man will be of a warm disposition, unsettled in mind, fond of rambling, and light in his conduct. In a lady it shows sincerity in love, quick conception, and easy travail in child-birth.
16. A mole on the right side, over any part of the ribs, denotes the person to be pusillanimous, and slow in understanding anything that may be attended with difficulty.

17. A mole on the belly denotes the person to be addicted to sloth and gluttony, selfish in almost everything, and seldom inclined to be nice or careful in point of dress.

18. A mole on either hip shows that the person will have many children, and that such of them as survive will be healthful, lusty, and patient in all hardships.

19. A mole on the right thigh shows that the person will become rich, and also fortunate in marriage.

20. A mole on the left thigh denotes that the person suffers much by poverty and want of friends, as also by the enmity and injustice of others.

21. A mole on the right knee signifies that the person will be fortunate in the choice of a partner for life, and meet with few disappointments in the world.

22. A mole on the left knee portends that the person will be rash, inconsiderate and hasty, but modest when in cool blood, honest, and inclined to good behavior.

23. A mole on either leg shows that the person is indolent, thoughtless, and indifferent as to whatever may happen.

24. A mole on either ankle denotes a man to be inclined to effeminacy and elegance of dress; a lady, to be courageous, active, and industrious, with some spice of the termagant.

Various are the opinions of authors respecting this art of divination by moles, but the above-mentioned definitions appear to me to come as near the truth as possible. However, the best way of giving judgment upon the fate of any native is first to duly examine the face of the heavens at the time of their birth; then, secondly, judge the same by their whole assemblage of features, contained in the never-failing and well-established rules of physiognomy; then, thirdly, by comparing your said judgment in all the above-mentioned sciences with this said prognostication of moles; you will then see how they agree in respect to their several accounts, which are thus to be derived from them, always remembering that the major number of testimonies and the most votes will always carry the day.

A LENT CHARM.

To be tried on any Friday in Lent, Good Friday excepted, when it is improper to try anything of the kind, and the mind ought to be more seriously disposed. Write twelve letters of the common alphabet on several pieces of card, also twelve figures, and the same number of blank cards; then put them in a bag and shake them well, and let each present draw one; a blank shows a single life; a figure, intrigue, or crim. con.; and a letter, a happy marriage.

CARDS.

How to Tell a Person's Fortune by Cards.

As many of those events about to happen may be easily gathered from the cards, we have here affixed the definition which each card in the pack bears separately; by combining them the reader must judge for himself, observing the following directions in laying them out:

First, the person whose fortune is to be told, if a man, must choose one of the four kings to represent himself—if a woman, she must select one of the queens; the chosen card will stand for the husband or wife, mistress or lover of the party whose fortune is to be told, and the knave of the suit for the most intimate person of their family; you must then shuffle and cut the cards, and let the person whose fortune is to be ascertained cut them three times, showing the bottom card; this must be repeated three times; then shuffle them again, let them be cut once, and display them in rows on a table, taking care always to have an odd number in each row, nine is the right number, and to place your cards exactly under each other; after this consult the situation in which the person stands by the definition we have here annexed to each card, and after having repeated it three times, form your conclusion, remember that everything is within your circle as far as you can count thirteen any way from the card that represents the person, his wife, or her husband, and their intimate friend; and also that the thirteenth card every way is of the greatest consequence, either the whole pack, or only the picked cards may be used.

Another mode with the picked cards is to shuffle and cut them, take three cards from the top—if there be two of a suit, take out the highest card; if three, take all; when you have gone through the pack, shuffle and cut the remainder, and do as before, and repeat the same a third time; then take a general view of all the cards drawn, and next couple them, a top and bottom card, then shuffle and cut them into three heaps, laying one apart in the first round to form a fourth heap; the first heap at the left hand relates to yourself entirely, the next to your family, and the third is the confirmation of the former two; you must proceed a second and third time, adding each time one to the single card, then three single cards gives the connection of the operation; observe you must add the card which represents the person whose fortune is consulted to the three, if it be not there already.

The Ace of Clubs. — Promises great wealth, much prosperity in life, and tranquility of mind.

The King of Clubs. — Announces a man who is humane, upright, affectionate, and faithful in all his engagements; he will be very happy himself, and make every one with whom he has connection so, if he can.

The Queen of Clubs. — Shows a tender, mild, and rather amorous disposition; one that will probably yield her maiden person to a generous lover before the matrimonial knot be tied; but that they will be happy, love each other, and be married.

The Knave of Clubs. — Shows a generous, sincere, and zealous friend, who will exert himself warmly for your interest and welfare.

The Ten of Clubs. — Denotes great riches to come speedily from an unexpected quarter; but it also threatens that you will at the same time lose some very dear friend.

The Nine of Clubs. — Shows that you will displease some of your friends by too steady an adherence to your own way of thinking, nor will your success in the undertaking reconcile them to you, or procure you your own approbation.

The Eight of Clubs. — Shows the person to be covetous, and extremely fond of money; that he will obtain it, but that it will rather prove a torment than a comfort to him, as he will not make proper use of it.

The Seven of Clubs. — Promises the most brilliant fortune, and the most exquisite bliss that this world can afford; but beware of the opposite sex, from them alone you can experience misfortune.

The Six of Clubs. — Shows you will engage in a very lucrative partnership, and that your children will behave well.

The Five of Clubs. — Declares that you will be shortly married to a person who will mend your circumstances.

The Four of Clubs. — Shows incontinence for the sake of money, and frequent change of object.

The Trey of Clubs. — Shows that you will be three times married, and each time to a wealthy person. This card will equally answer for a woman’s being kept by three rich men according to her station.

The Deuce of Clubs. — Shows that there will be some unfortunate opposition to your favorite inclination, which will disturb you.

The Ace of Diamonds. — Shows a person who is fond of rural sports, a great builder, and a gardener; one who delights in planting and laying out groves, woods, shrubberies, and other such amusements; but that his enterprises of this nature will have success or disappointment according to the cards that are near it; it likewise signifies a letter.

The King of Diamonds. — Shows a man of a fiery temper, preserving his anger long, seeking for opportunities of revenge, and ob­stinate in his resolutions.

The Queen of Diamonds. — Signifies that the woman will not be a steady and industrious housekeeper; that she will be fond of company, be a coquette, and not over-virtuous.

The Knave of Diamonds. — However nearly related, he will look more to his own interest than yours, he will be tenacious of his own opinion, and will fly off if contradicted.

The Ten of Diamonds. — Promises a country husband or a wife with great wealth and many children; the card next to it will tell the number of children; it also signifies a purse of gold.

The Nine of Diamonds. — Declares that the person will be of a roving disposition, never contented with his lot, and forever meeting with vexations and disappointments, and risks a shameful end.

The Eight of Diamonds. — Shows that the person, in his youth, will be an enemy to marriage, and thus run the risk of dying unmarried; but that, if he does marry, it will be late in life, and then it will be with some person whose disposition is so ill-assorted to his that it will be the cause of misfortunes.

The Seven of Diamonds. — Shows that you will spend your happiest days in the country, where, if you remain, your happiness will be uninterrupted; but if you come to town, you will be tormented by the infidelity of your conjugal partner, and the squandering of your substance.

The Six of Diamonds. — Shows an early marriage and premature widowhood; but that the second marriage will probably make you worse off.

The Five of Diamonds. — Shows you a well-assorted marriage with a mate who will punctually perform the nuptial duties, and that you will have good children, who will keep you from grief.
THE FOUR OF DIAMONDS.—Shows the incontinence of the person you will be married to, and very great vexation to yourself, through the whole course of your life.

THE TREY OF DIAMONDS.—Shows that you will be engaged in quarrels, lawsuits, and domestic disagreements; your partner for life will be of a vixen and abusive temper, fail in the performance of the nuptial duties, and make you unhappy.

THE DEUCE OF DIAMONDS.—Shows that your heart will be engaged in love, at an early period; that your parents will not approve your choice; and that if you marry without their consent, they will hardly forgive you.

THE ACE OF HEARTS.—Signifies merrymaking, feasting, and good humor; if the ace be attended by spades, it foretells quarrelling in your cups, and ill-temper to your family while you are in a state of intoxication; if by hearts, it shows cordiality and affection between the parties; if by diamonds, your feast will be from home, perhaps in the country; if by clubs, the occasion of the meeting will be upon some bargain or agreement; if your ace of hearts is in the neighborhood of face cards of both sexes, with clubs near it, it will be about a match-making; if all the face cards are kings or knaves, or both, it will concern the buying or selling of some personal property; if all queens, it will regard conciliation between parties, and if queens and knaves, it will be about the reconciliation and reunion of a married couple.

THE KING OF HEARTS.—Shows a man of a fair complexion, of an easy and good-natured disposition, but inclined to be hasty and passionate, and rash in his undertakings.

THE QUEEN OF HEARTS.—Shows a woman of a very fair complexion, or of great beauty, her temper rather fiery, verging on the tempest, one who will not make an obedient wife, nor one who will be very happy in her own reflections.

THE KNAVE OF HEARTS.—Is a person of no particular sex, but always the dearest friend, or nearest relation of the consulting party, ever active and intruding, equally jealous of doing harm or good as the whim of the moment strikes, passionate and hard to be reconciled, but always zealous and warm in the cause of the consulting party, though probably not according to their fancy, as they will be as industrious to prevent their schemes as to forward them, if they do not accord with his own disposition. You must pay great attention to the cards that stand next to the knave, as from them alone you can judge whether the person it represents will favor your inclination or not.

THE TEN OF HEARTS.—Shows good nature and many children; it is a corrective to the bad tidings of the cards, but may stand next to it, and if its neighboring cards are of good import, it ascertains and confirms their value.

THE NINE OF HEARTS.—Promises wealth, grandeur, and high esteem; if cards that are unfavorable stand near it, you must look for disappointment and a reverse; if favorable cards follow these last at a small distance, expect to retrieve your losses, whether of peace or of goods.

THE EIGHT OF HEARTS.—Points out a strong inclination to get intoxicated; this, if accompanied with unfavorable cards, will be attended with loss of property, decay of health, and falling off of friends; if by favorable cards, it indicates reformation and recovery from the bad consequences of the former.

THE SEVEN OF HEARTS.—Shows the person to be of a fickle and unfaithful disposition, addicted to vice and incontinence, and subject to the mean art of recrimination, to excuse themselves, although without foundation.

THE SIX OF HEARTS.—Shows a generous, open, and credulous disposition, easily imposed upon, and ever the dupe of flatterers, but the good-natured friends of the distressed. If this card comes before your king or queen, you will be the dupe; if after, you will have the better.

THE FIVE OF HEARTS.—Shows a wavering unsteady disposition, never attached to one object, and free from any violent passion or attachment.

THE FOUR OF HEARTS.—Shows that the person will not be married until very late in life, and that this will probably proceed from too great a delicacy in making a choice.

THE TREY OF HEARTS.—Shows that your own imprudence will greatly contribute to your experiencing the ill-will of others.

THE DEUCE OF HEARTS.—Shows that extraordinary success and good fortune will attend the person, though, if unfavorable cards attend, this will be a long time delayed.

THE ACE OF SPADES.—Totally relates to the affairs of love, without specifying whether lawful or unlawful.

THE KING OF SPADES.—Shows a man who is ambitious, and certainly successful at court, or with some great man who will have it in his power to advance him; but let him beware of reverse.

THE QUEEN OF SPADES.—Shows a person who will be corrupted by the great of both sexes; if she is handsome, great attempts will be made on her virtue.
The Knave of Spades.—Shows a person who, although they have your welfare at heart, will be too indolent to pursue it with zeal, unless you take frequent opportunities of rousing their attention.

The Ten of Spades.—Is a card of bad import, it will, in a great measure, counteract the good effect of the other cards; but unless it be seconded by other unfortunate cards, its influence may be gotten over.

The Nine of Spades.—Is the worst card in the whole pack; it portends dangerous sickness, a total loss of fortune, cruel calamity, and endless dissension in your family.

The Eight of Spades.—Shows that you will experience strong opposition from your friends, whom you imagine to be such; if this card comes close to you, abandon your enterprise and adopt another plan.

The Seven of Spades.—Shows the loss of a most valuable friend, whose death will plunge you into very great distress.

The Six of Spades.—Announces a mediocrity of fortune, and very great uncertainty in your undertakings.

The Five of Spades.—Will give very little interruption to your success; it promises you good luck in the choice of a companion for life, that you will meet with one very fond of you, and inamoratedly attached to the joys of hymen, but shows your temper to be rather sullen.

The Four of Spades.—Shows speedy sickness, and that your friends will injure your fortune.

The Trey of Spades.—Shows that you will be unfortunate in marriage, that your partner will be incontinent, and that you will be made unhappy.

The Deuce of Spades.—Always signifies a coffin, but whom it is for must depend entirely on the other cards that are near.

Miscellaneous Games with Cards.

Lovers' Hearts.

Four persons, but not more, may play at this game; or three, by making a dumb hand, or sleeping partner, as at whist. Play this game exactly the same in every game, making the queen, whom you call Venus, above the ace, the aces in this game only standing for one, and hearts must be first led off by the person next the dealer. He or she who gets most tricks this way (each taking up their own, and no partnership) will have most lovers, and the king and queen of hearts in one hand shows matrimony at hand. But woe to the unlucky one who gets no tricks at the deal, or does not hold a heart in their hand; they will be unfortunate in love, and long tarry before they marry.

Cupid and Hymen.

Three are enough for this game, the nines, the threes, and the aces; deal them equally; those who hold kings hold friends; queens are rivals; knaves, shame; knave alone, lover; three, surprises; ace, sorrow; two together, shows a child before marriage; if a king alone is in her hand with the aces, she stands a good chance; but if a queen is with him, she will never marry the father; the nine of hearts gives the wish that you have most at heart; the nine of diamonds, money; and the nine of clubs, a new gown or coat; but the nine of spades is sorrow. A queen and a knave in one hand bids fair for a secret intrigue.

Hymen's Lottery.

Let each one present deposit any sum agreed on—but, of course, some trifle; put a complete pack of cards, well shuffled, in a bag or reticule. Let the party stand in a circle, and the bag being handed round, each draw three. Pairs of any kind are favorable omens of some good fortune about to occur to the party, and gets from the pool the sum that each agreed to pay. The king of hearts is here made the god of love, and claims double, and gives a faithful swain to the fair one who has the good fortune to draw him; if Venus, the queen of hearts, is with him, it is the conquering prize, and clears the pool; fives and nines are reckoned crosses and misfortunes, and pay a forfeit of the sum agreed on to the pool, besides the usual stipend at each new game; three nines at one draw, shows the lady will be an old maid; three fives, a bad husband.

Matrimony.

Let three, five, or seven young women stand in a circle and draw a card out of a box, she who gets the highest card will be married first of the company, whether she be at the present time maid, wife, or widow; and she who has the lowest, has the longest time to stay ere the sun shines on her wedding-day; she who draws the ace of spades will never bear the name of wife; and she who has the nine of hearts in this trial will have one lover too many, to her sorrow.

Cupid's Pastime.

By this game you may amuse yourself and friends, and at the same time learn some curious particulars of your future fate; and though apparently a simple, yet it is a sure method, as several young persons have acknowledged to the sybil who first presented them with the rules.

Several may play at the game, it requiring no number, only leaving out nine on their board, not exposed to view; each person puts a half-penny in the pool, and the dealer double. The ace of diamonds is made principal, and takes all the other aces, etc., like Pam at Loo; twos and threes in your hand are luck; four a continuance in your present state; five, trouble; sixes, profit; sevens, plague; eights, disappointment; nines, surprises; tens, settlement; knaves, sweethearts; kings and queens, friends and acquaintances; ace of spades, death; ace of clubs, a letter; and the ace of diamonds, with ten of hearts, marriage.

The ace of diamonds being played first, or, if it be not cut, the dealer calls for the queen of hearts, which takes next; if the ace be not cut, and the queen conquers, the person who played her will marry that year without a doubt, though it may, perhaps, seem unlikely at the time; but, if she loses her queen, she must wait longer; the ace and queen being called, the rest go in rotation, as at whist, kings taking queens, queens taking knaves, and so on, and the more tricks you have, the more money you get off the board on the division after each game; those who hold the nine of spades will soon have trouble, and they are also to pay a penny to the board; but the fortunate fair one who holds the queen and knave of hearts in the same hand will soon be married, or, if she is already within the pale of matrimony, she will have a great rise in life by means of her husband; those who hold the ace of diamonds and queen of hearts clear the money off the board and end that game; it also betokens great prosperity.

Fortune-Telling by Court Cards.

A number of court cards is good; it tells a meeting or company—if diamonds lay next to them, it is mirth; hearts, a wedding or christening; clubs, business; and spades, a funeral. A king and queen singly together, a courtship or wedding; a queen and knave, intrigue; and if spades are near them, the result will be disgrace, and food for scandal; the knaves together, treachery, or a suit at law; but the knave of hearts stands for Cupid, and you must find out his errand by the cards round him.

TENS.—These show changes: diamonds, unexpected luck; hearts, a removal; spades, death, or a strange bed according to the next cards; clubs, a new way of life; three or four tens, a very great surprise; two together, a visit into the country.

NINES.—The nine of spades is the worst harbinger of misfortune in the whole selected pack, it foretells a great evil; the nine of clubs is good for married women, but to single ones it tells what is usually called a love child; nine of diamonds is good for traders, and the nine of hearts for lovers and widows together; they tell changes.

SEVENS.—Ill-luck. The seven of clubs in the pack with yourself shows a drunken husband; hearts, perfidy in love or friendship; diamonds, losses; spades, scandal; three sevens together, an accident; two, imprisonment; four, danger.

THE ACES.—These vary their meaning according to their situation, turned up singly on the pack. In cutting the cards, the ace of hearts is a rich lover; in the same pack with yourself, a house, if not a ship; ace of diamonds, on the pack, a ring; with yourself, a present; in any other pack or parcel, a sum of money; club is always a busy ace, telling news, letters, or new work, let it be placed as it may. The ace of spades turned up is an unlucky prognostic; with another spade, death; with clubs, a loss in trade; with diamonds, loss of money; with hearts, unhappy marriage. The four aces together, a good settlement; three, a pleasing surprise; and two, an unpleasant one. The ace of diamonds and ten of hearts together betokens marriage, and in the pack that betokens your secret wishes; to have either of the tens or aces, or the nine of hearts, tells success, and that your desires will be speedily accomplished.

To See a Future Husband.

On midsummer eve, just after sunset, three, five, or seven young women are to go into a garden in which there is no person, and each to gather a sprig of red sage, and then, going into a room by themselves, set a stool in the middle of the room, and on it a clean basin full of rose-water, in which the sprigs of sage are to be put, and, tying a line across the room and on one side of the stool, each woman is to hang on it a clean shift turned the wrong side outward; then all are to sit down in a row, on the opposite side of the stool, each woman is to hang on it a clean shift turned the wrong side outward; then all are to sit down in a row, on the opposite side of the stool, as far distant as the room will admit, not speaking a single word the whole time whatever they may see, and in a few minutes after twelve each one's future husband will take her sprig out of the rosewater, and sprinkle her shift with it.
THE ORACULUM;
—OR—
Napoleon Bonaparte’s
BOOK OF FATE.

The book of which the following is a translation was obtained from Bonaparte’s Cabinet of Curiosities at Leipsic during the confusion which reigned there after the defeat of the French Army. It was held by him as a sacred treasure; and it is said to have been a stimulus to most of his speculations, he being used to consult it on every occasion. The translator has several times consulted it for his own amusement; and, however, incredible it may appear, he found its answers to correspond with truth, as they afterwards came to pass. The other matters, besides obtaining a treasure; and it is said to have been approved of by persons of respectable literary character.

METHOD OF WORKING THE QUESTIONS.

Make marks in the following manner, either more or less, in the four lines:

This done, you will begin to reckon the number of marks in each line, from left to right; and, if the number be odd, you must mark down one dot; and if even, two dots. When the number of marks in any of the lines exceeds nine, the surplus only must be taken notice of.

The number of marks in the first line of the forgoing is odd. .......... *[1]
The number of marks in the second, even...  *[2]
The number of marks in the third, odd. ... *[3]
The number of marks in the fourth, even...  *[4]

To obtain the answer to your question you must refer to the Oraculum Table, at the top of which you will find a column of dots similar to those you have produced. Guide your eye down the same column until you come to the letter ranging with the figure of the question you are trying; refer to the column having the same letter at the top; and, even with the dots corresponding with yours, is the answer to your question.

The following are unlucky days, on which none of the questions should be worked, or any enterprise undertaken: January 1, 2, 4, 6, 10, 20, 22; February 6, 17, 28; March 24, 26; April 10, 27, 28; May 7, 8; June 27; July 17, 21; August 20, 22; September 5, 30; October 6; November 3, 29; December 6, 10, 15.

N. B.—It is not right to try a question twice on the same day.

Fortune-Telling

--BY THE-- Grounds of a Coffee or Tea Cup.

Pour the grounds of coffee or tea into a white cup; shake them well about in it, so that their particles may cover the surface of the whole cup; then reverse it into the saucer, that all the superfluous parts may be drained off, and the figures required for fortune-telling be formed.

It is not to be expected upon taking up the cup that the figures will be accurately represented as they are in the cards, but it is quite sufficient if they bear some resemblance to any of the thirty-two emblems; and the more fertile the fancy shall be of the person who inspects the cup, the more he will discover in it.

The Roads, or serpentine lines, indicate ways; if they are covered with clouds, and consequently in the thick, they are said to be infallible marks of many past or future reverses. But if they appear in the clear and serene, are the surest tokens of some fortunate change near at hand; encompassed with many points or dots, they signify an accidental gain of money; likewise some for­mer gain of money; likewise some accidental gain of money; likewise some accidental gain of money; likewise some accidental gain of money; likewise some accidental gain of money; likewise some accidental gain of money.

The Ring signifies marriage; if a letter is near it, it denotes to the person that has his fortune told the initial of the name of the party to be married. If the ring is in the clear, it portends happy and lucrative friendship. Surrounded with clouds, denotes that the party is to use precaution in the friendship he is about to contract, lest he should be insidiously deceived; but it is most inauspicious if the ring appears at the bottom of the cup, as it forebodes an entire separation from the beloved object.

The Leaf of Clover may be generally considered a lucky sign. Its different disposition in the cup alone makes the difference. When it is on the top it shows that the good fortune is not far distant, but it is subject to delay, if it is in the middle or at the bottom. Should clouds surround it, it shows that many disagreeable circumstances attend the good fortune; in the clear, it prognosticates serene and undisturbed happiness as the party wishes.

The Anchor, the emblem of hope and commerce, implies successful business carried on by water and by land, if on the bottom of the cup; at the top, and in the clear part, it shows constant love and unshaken fidelity. In thick and cloudy parts it also denotes love, but tinctured with the inconstancy of the butterfly.

The Serpent—Always the emblem of falsehood and enmity—is likewise the general sign of an enemy. On the top or in the middle of the cup, it promises to the consulting party the triumph which he desires over his enemy; but he will not obtain it so easily if the serpent be in the thick and cloudy part. By the letter which appears near the emblem the enemy may easily be guessed, as it makes the initial of his name.

The Letter.—By letters we communicate to our friends either pleasant or unpleasant news, and such is the case here; if this emblem is in the clear part, it denotes the speedy arrival of welcome news; surrounded with dots, it announces the arrival of a considerable remittance of money; but hemmed in by clouds, it is quite the contrary, and forebodes some melancholy or bad tidings, a loss, or some other sinister accident. If it be in the clear, and accompanied with a heart, lovers may expect a letter which secures to the party the possession of the beloved object; but in the thick, it denotes a refusal.

The Coffin, the emblem of death, prog­nosticates the same thing here, or at least a long and tedious illness; if it be in the thick at the top of the cup, it signifies a considerable estate left by some rich relation; in the same manner at the bottom, shows that the deceased is not so nearly related to the consulting party.

The Star denotes happiness, if in the clear and at the top of the cup; clouded, or in the thick, it signifies long life, though exposed to various troubles. If dots are about it, it fore­tells great fortune, wealth, high respectability, honors, etc. Several stars denote some good and happy children, but, surrounded with dashes, shows that the person’s children will cause him or her grief and vexation in old age, and that you ought to prevent it by giving them a good education in time.

The Dog, being at all times the emblem of faithfulness or envy, has a two-fold meaning here. At the top, in the clear, it signifies true and faithful friends; but if his image be surrounded with clouds and dashes, it shows that those whom you take for your friends are not to be depended on; but if the dog be at the bottom of the cup, you have to dread the effects of extreme envy or jealousy.

The Lily.—If this emblem be at the top, or in the middle of the cup, it signifies that the consulting party either has, or will have, a virtuous spouse; if it be at the bottom, it de­notes quite the reverse. In the clear, the lily further betokens long and happy life; if clouded, or in the thick, it portends trouble and vexation, especially on the part of one’s relations.
The Cross, be it one or more, generally predicts adversities; its position varies, and so do the circumstances. If it be at the top, and in the clear, it shows that the misfortunes of the party will soon be at an end, or that he will easily get over them; but if it appears in the middle or at the bottom of the thick, the party must expect some severe trials. If it appears with dots, either in the clear or the thick, it promises a speedy change in one’s sorrow.

The Clouds.—If they be more light than dark, the person will have a good result from wishing, but, if black, it must be given up. Surrounded with dots, they bring success in trade, and in all undertakings; but the brighter they are the greater will be the happiness.

The Sun, an emblem of the greatest luck and happiness, if in the clear; but in the thick it denotes a great deal of sadness; surrounded by dots and dashes, denotes an alteration will speedily take place.

The Moon, if it appears in the clear, denotes high honors; in the dark or thick part it implies sadness, which will, however, pass without great prejudice; but if it be at the bottom of the cup, the consulting person will be fortunate on water and land.

Mountain.—If it represent only one mountain, it indicates the favor of people of high rank, but several of them, especially in the thick, are signs of powerful enemies; if in the clear, denotes the contrary, or friends in high life, who are endeavoring to promote the consulting party.

Tree.—One tree only, if it be in the clear or thick part, points out lasting good health; several trees denote that your wish will be accomplished. If they are encompassed with dashes, it is a token that your fortune is in its blossom, and will require some time to bring it to maturity. If it is accompanied with dots, it is a sign that you will make a fortune at a distance off, where you will reside.

Child.—In the clear part it bespeaks innocent intercourse between the consulter and another person; in the thick part, excess in love affairs, attended with great expenses; at the bottom of the cup it denotes the consequences of libidinous amours.

Woman.—Signifies much joy in general. If in the clear, this emblem has a more favorable signification than in the thick; there it shows very great happiness, here a great deal of jealousy. If dots surround the image, it explains the lady’s fertility or her wealth. The different positions in the cup shows, at the top, and in the middle, that you will be in love with a virgin, but at the bottom it marks that she is a widow.

The Pedestrian denotes, in general, a merchant, good business, pleasant news, and recovery of lost things. It also signifies that the consulting party will soon enlist, or get some engagement.

The Rider denotes good news from abroad in money matters, a good situation in a foreign country, or good prospects. He that doubts his fortune is promised a lasting one by this emblem.

The Mouse.—As this animal lives by stealth, it is also an emblem here of theft or robbery; if it is in the clear, it shows you will get again what you lost in a wonderful manner; but if it appears in the thick, you must renounce this hope.

The Rose, or any other flower, the greatest success in the arts and sciences; if the consulting party be married, he will have good children, and all the fruits to be expected from their good education in his old age.

The Heart, if it be in the clear, signifies future pleasure. It promises joy at receiving some money if surrounded with dots. If a ring or two hearts be together, it signifies that the party is about to be married or betrothed; if a letter be perceptible near it, it shows the initial of a person’s name; if a letter be in the clear, the party is a virgin; if in the thick, a widow.

Garden or Wood signifies a concourse of people; in the clear it indicates good friends, of which it will consist; in the thick, or encompassed with streaks, it warns the consulting person to be cautious, and not to take for his friends those who profess themselves as such.

Birds in General.—In the clear, it signifies that the disagreeables and troubles with which the person shall have to combat will soon be over; in the thick, it is a sign of good living and of a successful journey or voyage, which, if there are dashes, will be directed to a great distance.

Fish in General denotes successful events by water, if in the clear, which will either happen to the consulter, or improve the state of his affairs beyond the water. If they are in the thick, the consulter will fish in troubled water, and place his confidence upon that which others have lost before him. Surrounded with dots, denotes that his fate calls him to some distant place.

Lion, or any other Ferocious Beast.—At the top, in the clear, it signifies all kinds of good luck with people of high rank; at the bottom, it warns the consulter to shun all such intercourse, as he will, at all events, find persons who will be envious of his fortune, and not see it with indifference.
GREEN BUSH shows the benevolence and favors of all the consulter's patrons; it gives some hopes of attaining the honor the consulter wishes for; without foliage, it is a token of the caprice of fortune; in the clear, it announces an unexpected remittance of money.

WORMS.—At the top, or in the middle of the top, it denotes good luck at gambling and in marriage; below, it warns the consulter against rivals in courtship and against enviers in trade.

House indicates, at the top of the cup, blessings and success in the consulter's enterprise; if the present situation be not the most favorable, trust that it will soon change for the better. In the middle or below, it cautions the consulter to be vigilant over servants, as vigilance alone will prevent injury.

SCYTHE, if combined with an hour-glass, denotes imminent dangers of all kinds; below, it signifies a long and prosperous life.

DREAMS, TOKENS, AND INSIGHTS INTO FUTURITY.

THE RING AND OLIVE BRANCH.

Buy a ring; it matters not if it be of gold, so as it has the semblance of a wedding ring; and it is best to try this charm on your own birthday. Pay for your ring with some small bill, for whatever change you receive you must give it to the first beggar you meet in the street; and, if no one asks alms of you, give it to some poor person—for you need not, alas! go far before you find one to whom your charity will be acceptable; carefully note what they say in return, such as “God bless you,” or wishing you luck and prosperity, as is usual. When you get home, write it down on a sheet of paper, at each of four corners, and, in the middle, put the two first letters of your name, your age, and the letters of the planets then reigning as morning and evening stars; get a branch of olive and fasten the ring on the stalk with a string of thread which has been steeped all day in a mixture of honey and vinegar, or any composition of opposite qualities, very sweet and very sour; cover your ring and stalk with the written paper, carefully wrapped round and round; wear it in your bosom till the ninth hour of the night; then repair to the next church-yard and bury the charm in the grave of a young man who died unmarried; and, while you are so doing, repeat the letters of your own Christian name three times backwards; return home, and keep as silent as possible till you go to bed, which must be before eleven; put a light in your chimney, or some safe place, and, before midnight, or just about that time, your husband that is to be will present himself at the foot of the bed, but will presently disappear. If you are not to marry, none will come; and, in that case, if you dream before morning of children, it shows that you will have them unmarried; and if you dream of crowds of men, beware of prostitution.

THE WITCHES' CHAIN.

Let three young women join together in making a long chain—about a yard will do—of Christmas, juniper, and mistletoe berries, and, at the end of every link, put an oak acorn. Exactly before midnight let them assemble in a room by themselves, where no one can disturb them; leave a window open, and take the key out of the keyhole and hang it over the chimney-piece; have a good fire, and place in the midst of it a long, thinish log of wood, well sprinkled with oil, salt, and fresh mould; then wrap the chain round it, each maiden having an equal share in the business; then sit down, and on your left knee let each fair one have a prayer-book opened at the matrimonial service. Just as the last acorn is burned, the future husband will cross the room; each one will see her own proper spouse, but he will be invisible to the rest of the wakeful virgins. Those that are not to be wed will see a coffin, or some mis-shapen form cross the room; go to bed instantly, and you will all have remarkable dreams. This must be done either on a Wednesday or Friday night, but no other.

LOVE’S CORDIAL.

(To be tried the third night of a new moon.)

Take brandy, rum, gin, wine, and the oil of amber, of each a teaspoonful; a tablespoonful of cream, and three of spring water; drink it as you get into bed; repeat:

This mixture of love I take for my potion,
That I of my destiny may have a notion;
Cupid befriended me, new moon be kind,
And show unto me that fate that's designed.

You will dream of drink, and, according to the quality or manner of it being presented, you may tell the condition to which you will rise or fall by marriage. Water is poverty; and if you dream of a drunken man, it is ominous that you will have a drunken mate. If you dream of drinking too much, you will fall, at a future period, into that sad error without great care; and what is a worse sight than an inebriated female? She cannot guard her own honor, ruins her own and family's substance, and often clothes herself with rags. Trouble is often used as an excuse for this vicious habit; but it gives more trouble than it takes away.
GOOD SYMPATHETIC INK.

How any Person can Write Secretly.

It is made by taking an ounce of common aquafortis, which you are to mix with three ounces of common water; you may use this to write on paper that is very strong and stiff; this writing becomes totally invisible in drying. In order to make it reappear, you need only wet the paper, and when it dries the writing disappears again. The effect may be repeated two or three times. With this ink lovers can communicate with each other without any fear of intrusion.

Good Sympathetic Ink.

On receiving a love-letter that has any particular declaration in it, lay it wide open; then fold it in nine folds, pin it next your heart, and thus wear it till bed-time; then place it in your left-hand glove, and lay it under your head. If you dream of gold, diamonds, or any costly gems, your lover is true, and means what he says; if of white linen, you will lose him by death; and if of flowers, he will prove false. If you dream of his saluting you, he is, at present, false, and means not what he professes, but only to draw you into a snare.

MAGIC ROSE.

Gather your rose on the 27th of June; let it be full blown, and as bright a red as you can get; pluck it between the hours of three and four in the morning, taking care to have no witness of the transaction; convey it to your chamber, and hold it over a chaffing-dish or any convenient utensil for the purpose, in which there is charcoal and sulphur of brimstone; hold your rose over the smoke about five minutes, and you will see it have a wonderful effect on the flower. Before the rose gets the least cool, clap it in a sheet of writing-paper, on which is written your own name and that of the young man you love best; also the date of the year and the name of the morning star that has the ascendency at that time; fold it up and seal it neatly with three separate seals, then run and bury the parcel at the foot of the tree from which you gathered the flower; here let it remain untouche till the 6th of July; take it up at midnight, go to bed and place it under your pillow, and you will have a singular and most eventful dream before morning, or, at least, before your usual time of rising. You may keep the rose under your head three nights without spoiling the charm; when you are done with the rose and paper be sure to burn them.

Observations Concerning

BIRDS AND BEASTS.

It hath been duly observed by the learned in all ages of the world that our all-wise and beneficent Creator originally implanted in the frame of nature a means whereby mankind may attain to the knowledge such future contingencies as concern their welfare and happiness; and more especially since we observe, even in the brute creation, that even the most inconsiderable creatures upon the earth are more or less endowed with a gift of foreknowledge. Thus the industrious bee and the laborious ant lay in their summer store, in order to supply the necessary wants of an inclement winter, which they foreknow is yet to come; yea, even of all the whole race of reptiles, the ant, the spider, and the bee, appear to be endowed with the greatest share of sagacity.

The wisdom of the ant is conspicuous in forming themselves into a kind of republic, and therein observing, as it were, their own peculiar laws and policies; but the cunning of the spider seems to exceed that of most other insects; its various artifices to ensure its prey are no less remarkable than its contrivance of a cell or retreat behind its web, where it feasts upon its game in safety, and conceals the fragments of those carcasses it has devoured, without exposing to public view the least remains of its barbarity which might tend to distinguish its place of abode, or create the least jealousy in any sect, that their enemy was near. Into what history can we look to find people who are governed by laws equal to what we observe in the republic of bees? What experience can we desire beyond that we observe in the cunning spider, to teach us to guard against the artifices of those who lay snares to catch the thoughtless and unwary? or what can exceed the indefatigable ant, in teaching us lessons of frugality and industry?

The badger, the hedge-hog, and the mole also provide themselves a magazine of plants and herbs, which they foreknow will enable them to lie concealed in their holes during the hard frosts of winter, contented with their prison, which affords them safety. Their holes are also constructed with amazing art, and have generally two apertures, that, in case one should be beset by an enemy, they may escape by the other.

The doublings of the hare, and the tricks of the fox, to escape the hounds, are also astonishing indications of foresight and sagacity. The feathered race are likewise endowed with a similar faculty, and often foretell an approaching storm a considerable time before it ap-
When you do first find a man or a bird flying, and then he rests himself before you on your right side, and you seeing it, this is also a good sign of success in your business. But when you see a man or a bird bending from your right side to the left, it is an ill sign concerning your business; when a man or a bird comes behind you, and goes faster than you, but before he cometh at you he rests, or the same before you came to him, he rests, and you seeing him on your right side, it is to you a good sign. But when this happens on the left side, it is an evil sign. When a man or a bird coming from your left side and passing to the right, goeth out of your sight without resting, it is a good sign. If a man or a bird coming from your right hand, passing behind your back to the left, and you see him resting anywhere, this is an evil sign.

All the auspicia which first happeneth in the beginning of any business ought to be taken notice of, as if in the beginning of any work you do find that rats have been gnawing your clothes, then desist from your undertakings. If at going out of your house you happen to stumble on the threshold, or if in the way you happen to dash your foot against anything, then forbear your journey; if any ill omen ever happens at the beginning of your business, then put it off for a while, lest you be completely disappointed therein.

If a crow, raven, or a jack-daw do crook over any person, it doth show much evil of a serious nature. The magpie informs you that you will soon hear news, and come into company; but whether such news be good or bad, observe whether it comes from the right hand or left. The screech owl is always without resting, it is a good sign. If a crow, raven, or a jack-daw do croak at the beginning of your business, then put it off for a while, lest you be completely disappointed therein.

Flies indicate importunity and impudent affronts; cocks meeting you, or crowing against your house, inform you of visitors coming, and success in your journeys and business. If you meet a hare, a mule, or a hog, it is an ill omene. To meet horses in a carriage is good, but if you meet an ass, expect trouble; while to meet sheep and goats is very good, and indicates prosperity in your affairs. If you either meet a dog or oxen, you may expect the same success, for it is good. Mice indicate that you will soon meet with danger; locusts making a stand in any place, hindeth a person from their wishes, and is an ill omen; on the contrary, grasshoppers promote a journey, and foretell a good event of things.

The spider weaving a line downwards signifies hope of money to come; as also the ants having a nest near your door is good, because they know how to provide for themselves, and portends security and riches. If you meet with a snake, take care of an ill-tongued enemy. A viper signifies low women and wicked children; an eel shows a man that is displeased with everybody.

But, of all the various auspicious and omens, there is none more effectual or potent than man, none that doth signify the truth more clearly. You must, therefore, diligently note, and duly observe, the condition of that man you meet, or that meeteth you; his age, profession, station, gesture, motion, exercise, complexion, habit, name, words, speech, etc., for seeing there are in all other animals so many discoveries of presages, yet those are all more efficacious and clear which are infused into the soul of man. We must also consider what animals are Saturnine, those under Jupiter, Mars, etc., and thus, according to their properties, draw forth their presages.

Fortunate Days, Weeks, Months and Years.

The day of the week in which you were born is the best for any person; it is lucky to receive a letter on the third, fifth, or ninth of the month, or on any Tuesday or Saturday. The first week in May is very fortunate for any undertaking to men; the second, to women. June is a good month in which to make any contract, or receive a promise of marriage, as it generally turns out sincere and prosperous.

It has often been recorded, and though a singular observation, experience has shown it to be true, that some event of importance is sure to happen to a woman in her thirty-first year, whether single or married; it may prove for her good, or it may be some great evil or temptation; therefore, let her be cautious and circumspect in all her actions. If she is a maiden or a widow, it is probable that she marries this year.

The same is applicable to men in their forty-second year, of which many instances have been proved that do not admit of a doubt; observe, always, to grant or take a lease for an odd number of years; even years are not prosperous. The three first days of the month are the best for signing papers, and the first five days, as well as the twenty-fourth, for any fresh undertaking.

But it must be allowed that much depends on people's own industry and perseverance; that often overcomes a bad planet, or a day marked unlucky in the book of fate.

Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays are the best for men; Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays for women. To travel by land, choose the increase of the moon, the decrease for a voyage, and about the full to write letters in which you ask a favor; to beg wafers is not lucky on this occasion. It is not good to marry on your own birthday, for a woman, but is fortunate for a man; and it is good to christen a child on the day of the week in which it was born. It is also reckoned fortunate to be born on Sunday, for either sex.

DREAMS.

How to Receive Oracles by Dreams.

He who would receive true dreams, should keep a pure, undisturbed, and imaginative spirit, and so compose it that it may be made worthy of knowledge and government by the mind; for such a spirit is most fit for prophesying, and is a most clear glass of all images which flow everywhere from all things. When, therefore, we are sound in body, not disturbed in mind, our intellect not made dull by heavy meats and strong drink, not sad through poverty, not provoked through lust, nor incited by any vice, nor stirred up by wrath or anger, not being irreligiously and profanely inclined, not given to levity nor lost in drunkenness, but, chastely going to bed, fall asleep, then our pure and divine soul being free from all the evils above recited, and separated from all hurtful thoughts—and now freed, by dreaming—is endowed with this divine spirit as an instrument, and doth receive those beams and representations which are darted down, as it were, and shine forth from the divine Mind into itself, in a defying glass.

There are four kinds of true dreams, viz., the first, matutine, i.e., between sleeping and waking; the second, that which one sees concerning another; the third, that whose interpretation is shown to the same dreamer in the nocturnal vision; and, lastly, that which is related to the same dreamer in the nocturnal vision. But natural things and their own con-mixtures do likewise belong unto wise men, and we often use such to receive oracles from a spirit by a dream, which are either by perfumes, unctions, meats, drinks, rings, seals, etc.
Now those who are desirous to receive oracles through a dream, let them make themselves a ring of the Sun or Saturn for this purpose. There are likewise images of dreams, which, being put under the head when going to sleep, doth effectually give true dreams of whatever the mind hath before determined on consulted upon, the practice of which is as follows:

Thou shalt make an image of the Sun, the figure whereof must be a man sleeping upon the bosom of an angel; which thou shalt make when Leo ascends, the Sun being in the ninth house in Aries; then you must write upon the figure the name of the effect desired, and in the hand of the angel the name and character of the intelligence of the Sun, which is Michael.

Let the same image be made in Virgo ascending—Mercury being fortunate in Aries in the ninth, or Gemini ascending, Mercury being fortunate in the ninth house in Aquarius—and let him be received by Saturn with a fortunate aspect, and let the name of the spirit (which is Raphael) be written upon it. Let the same likewise be made—Libra ascending, Venus being received from Mercury in Gemini in the ninth house—and write upon it the name of the angel of Venus (which is Anael). Again you may make the same image—Aquarius ascending, Saturn fortunately possessing the ninth in its exaltation, which is Libra—and let there be written upon it the name of the angel of Saturn (which is Cassial). The same may be made with Cancer ascending, the Moon being received by Jupiter and Venus in Pisces, and being fortunately placed in the ninth house—and write upon it the spirit of the Moon (which is Gabriel).

There are likewise made rings of dreams of wonderful efficacy, and there are rings of the Sun and Saturn—and the constellation of them is, when the Sun or Saturn ascend in their exaltation in the ninth, and when the Moon is joined to Saturn in the ninth, and in that sign which was the ninth house of the nativity, and write and engrave upon the rings the name of the spirit of the Sun or Saturn; and by these rules you may know how and by what means to constitute more of yourself.

But know this, that such images work nothing (as they are simply images), except they are vivified by spiritual and celestial virtue, and chiefly by the ardent desire and firm intent of the soul of the operator. But who can give a soul to an image, or make a stone, or metal, or clay, or wood, or wax, or paper, to live? Certainly no man whatever; for this arcanum doth not enter into an artist of a stiff neck. He only hath it who transcends the progress of angels, and comes to the very Archtype Himself. The tables of numbers likewise confer to the receiving of oracles, being duly formed under their own constellations.

Therefore, he who is desirous of receiving true oracles by dreams, let him abstain from supper, from drink, and be otherwise well disposed, so his brain will be free from turbulent vapors; let him also have his bed-chamber fair and clean, exorcised and consecrated; then let him perfume the same with some convenient fumigation, and let him anoint his temples with some unguent efficacious hereunto, and put a ring of dreams upon his finger; then let him take one of the images we have spoken of, and place the same under his head; then let him address himself to sleep, meditating upon that thing which he desires to know. So shall he receive a most certain and undoubted oracle by a dream when the Moon goes through the sign of the ninth revolution of his nativity, and when she is in the ninth sign from the sign of perfection.

This is the way whereby we may obtain all sciences and arts whatsoever, whether astrology, occult philosophy, physic, etc., or else suddenly and perfectly with a true illumination of our intellect, although all inferior familiar spirits whatsoever conduct to this effect, and sometimes also evil spirits sensibly inform us, intrinsically and extrinsically.

Charm to Cure the Headache.—If the pain be on the right side of the head, make a comb out of the right horn of a ram; and if the head be combed with it, it will take away the pain. But if the pain be on the left side of the head, then make a comb out of the left horn of a ram, and if the head be combed therewith, it will stop the pain.

Charm to Hinder the Bite of a Mad Dog.—The tooth of a mad dog which has bitten any human being, tied in leather and hung at the shoulder, will preserve and keep the wearer from being bitten by any mad dog so long as he wears it. It may be worn next to the skin, or concealed in the clothing.

Charm to Make a Tree Bear Fruit.—The seeds of roses, with mustard seed, and the root of a wasel, tied together in something, and hung among the boughs or branches of a tree which bears but little fruit, will remedy the defect, and render the tree amazingly fruitful.

Charm Against Trouble in General.—Repeat reverently, and with sincere faith, the following words, and you shall be protected in the hour of danger: “He shall deliver thee in six troubles, yea, in seven there shall no evil touch thee; in famine he shall redeem thee from death, and in war from the power of the sword; and thou shalt know that thy tabernacle shall be in peace, and thou shalt visit thy habitation and shall not err.”
Showing the various Judgments Drawn from the Hand.

I shall now say something of palmistry, which is a judgment of the conditions, inclinations, and fortunes of men and women, from the various lines and characters which nature has imprinted in the hand, which are almost as various as the hands that have them. And to render what I shall say more plain, I will, in the first place, present the scheme of figures of the hand, and explain the various lines therein:

1. Line of Life. 4. Girdle of Venus.
2. Table Line. 5. Line of Death.

By this figure the reader will see that one of these lines, and which, indeed, is reckoned the principal, is called the line of life; this line encloses the thumb, separating it from the hollow of the hand. The next to it, which is called the natural line, takes its beginning from the rising of the forefinger, near the line of life, and reaches to the table line, and generally makes a triangle. The table line, commonly called the line of fortune, begins under the little finger, and ends near the middle finger. The girdle of Venus, which is another line so called, begins near the joint of the little finger, and ends between the forefinger and the middle finger. The line of death is that which plainly appears in a contrary line to that of life, and is by some called the sister line, ending usually at the other end; for when the line of life is ending, death comes, and it can go no further. There are also lines in freshy parts, as in the ball of the thumb, which is called the mount of Venus, under each of the fingers, are called mounts, which are each one governed by a several planet: and the hollow of the hand is called the plain of Mars.

I now proceed to give judgment of these several lines. And, in the first place, take notice that in palmistry the left hand is chiefly to be regarded; because therein the lines are most visible, and have the strictest communication with the heart and brains. Now, having premised these, in the next place observe the line of life, and if it be fair, extended to its full length, and not broken with an intermixture of cross lines, it shows long life and health; and it is the same if a double line of life appears, as there sometimes does. When the stars appear in this line it is a significator of great losses and calamities; if on it there appear the figure of two Os, or a Y, it threatens the person with blindness. If it wraps itself about the table line, then does it promise wealth and honor to be attained by prudence and industry; if the line be cut or jagged at the upper end, it denotes much sickness. If this line be cut by any line coming from the mount of Venus, it declares the person to be unfortunate in love, and business also, and threatens him with sudden death.

A cross between the line of life and the table line shows the person to be very liberal and charitable, and of a noble spirit. Let us now see the signification of the table line.

The table line, when broad, and of a lovely color, shows a healthful constitution and a quiet and contented mind and courageous spirit. But if it has crosses towards the little finger, it threatens the party with much affliction by sickness. If the line be doubled, or divided in three parts, in any of the extremities, it shows the party to be of a generous temper, and of a good fortune to support it; but if this line be forked at the end, it threatens the person shall suffer by jealousies, fears, and doubts, and with the loss of riches got by deceit. If three points such as these . . . are found in it, they denote the person prudent and liberal, a lover of learning and of good temper. If it spreads itself to the fore and middle fingers, and ends blunt, it denotes preferment. Let us now see what is signified by the middle finger:

The line has in it sometimes (for there is scarce one hand in which it varies not) divers significant characters. Many small lines between this and the table line threatens the party with sickness, and also gives him hopes of recovery. A half cross branching into this line declares the person shall have honor, riches, and good success in all his undertakings. A half moon denotes cold and watery distemper, but a sun or star upon this line promises prosperity and riches. This line doubled in a woman shows she will have several husbands, but without any children by them.

The line of Venus, if it happens to be cut or divided near the forefinger, threatens ruin to the party, and that it shall befall him by means of a lascivious woman and bad company. Two crosses upon this line, one being on the forefinger, and the other bending towards the little finger, shows the party to be weak and inclined to modesty and virtue; and, indeed, it generally denotes modesty in women; and, therefore, those who desire such wives usually choose them by this standard.

The liver line, if it be straight and crossed by other lines, shows the person to be of a sound judgment and a piercing understanding; but if it be winding, crooked, and bending outward, it shows deceit and flattery, and that the person is not to be trusted. If it makes a triangle, or a quadrangle, it shows a person to be of a noble descent and ambitious.

The plain of Mars being in the hollow of the hand, or if the line passes through it, which renders it very plain, is fortunate; this plain being hollowed, and the lines crooked and distorted, threaten the party to fall by his ill-conduct. When the lines begin at the wrist, long within the plain, reaching the brown of the hand, they show the person to be one given to quarrelling, often in broils, and of a hot and fiery spirit, by which he shall suffer much damage. If deep, large crosses in the middle of the plain, it shows the party shall obtain honor by martial exploits; but if he is seldom fortunate, to do any man good.

The line of death is fatal when any crosses or broken lines appear in it; for they threaten the person with sickness and short life. A clouded moon appearing there, threatens a violent death. A star like a comet threatens ruin by war and death by pestilence; but if a bright sun appear therein, it promises long life and prosperity.

Thus much with respect to the several lines in the hand. Now as to the judgment to be made from the hand itself: if the hand be soft and long, and lean withal, it denotes a person of a good understanding, a lover of peace, and discretion, serviceable, a good nature; but if the hands and fingers do bend at the upper joint, near his fingers, is always a wretched, miserable person, covetous, obstinate, incredulous, and one that will believe nothing that contradicts his own private interest. And thus much shall suffice to be said of judgment made by palmistry.

Finger-Nail Observations.

Broad nails show the person to be bashful, fearful, but of gentle nature. When there is a certain white mark at the extremity of them, it shows that the person has more honesty than subtilty, and that his worldly substance will be impaired through negligence. White nails and long denote much sickness and infirmity, especially fevers, an indication of strength and deceit by women. If upon the white anything appears at the extremity that is pale, it denotes short life by sudden death, and the person to be given to melancholy. When there appears a certain mixed redness, of divers colors, at the beginning of the nails, it shows the person to be choleric and quarrelsome. When the extremity is black it is a sign of husbandry. Narrow nails denote the person to be inclined to mischief, and to do injury to his neighbor. Long nails show the person to be good-natured, but mischievous. When the extremity is crooked at the extremity, they show pride and fierceness. Round nails show the person to be mild in his temper, and of a certain white anything appears at the extremity of them, it signifies deceit and strength by women. Red and marked nails signify deceit and want of courage. Little and round nails denote obstinate anger and hatred. If they be crooked at the extremity, they show pride and fierceness. Round nails show a choleric person, yet soon reconciled, honest, and a lover of secret sciences. Fleshy nails denote the person to be mild in his temper, idle, and lazy. Pale and black nails show the person to be very deceitful to his neighbor, and subject to many diseases. Red and marked nails signify a choleric and martial nature, given to cruelty; and, as many little marks as there are, they speak of so many evil desires.

Several Characters or Semblances of Letters, and Lines in the Hand, as they Tend to Signify Many Things, According to the Art of Palmistry, Etc.

There are in this case divers letters, lines appearing in the hand, by which the wise in all ages have given judgment in the foregoing premises.

If the letter A be found on the Mount of Jupiter, or at the root of the middle finger, promises growing fortune, and, perhaps, considerable preferments by the favor of princes and great men.
If B be found on the Mount of the Sun, which is at the root of the finger, it signifies length of days, prosperity, and much to be beloved, as also a virtuous person.

If C, with a star over, appears on the Mount of Venus, it gives the person early and happy life.

If the letter L be on the Mount of Saturn, which is at the root of the middle finger, and cut with cross lines, it denotes the party to be under much affliction, to be given to melancholy, and short-lived.

The letter K on the Mount of Mercury, which is at the root of the little finger, denotes the party to rise to preferment by ingenuity and marriage.

The letter D on the Mount of the Moon denotes the party kind, good-natured, and much beloved.

The letter G in the Plain of Mars, near the Line of Life, speaks the party to be of a violent temper, given to anger, and threatens him or her with sudden untimely death; however, to a woman it promises a husband that grows great in military affairs; and thus much for characters of this kind.

DIVINATION.

How to obtain some Knowledge of Future Events.

Any person fasting on midsummer eve, and sitting in the church porch, will, at midnight, see the spirits of the persons of that parish, who will die that year, come and knock at the church-door in the order and succession in which they will die. One of these watchers, there being several in company, fell into a profound sleep; whilst in this state his ghost was seen by the rest of his companions knocking at the church-door. Any unmarried woman fasting on midsummer eve, and at midnight laying a clean cloth, with bread, cheese, and ale, and sitting down as if going to eat, the street-door being left open, the person whom she is afterward to marry will come into the room, and drink to her by bowing; and afterward filling the glass, will leave it on the table, and making another bow, retire. On St. Agnes's night, the 21st of January, take a row of pins, and pull out every one, one after another, saying a paternoster, on sticking a pin in your sleeve, and you will dream of him you shall marry. Another method to see a future spouse in a dream: the party inquiring must lie in a different country from that in which he commonly resides, and, on going to bed, must knit the left garter about the right-legged stocking, letting the other garter and stocking alone; and as you rehearse the following verses, at every comma knit a knot:

This knot I knit,
To know a thing I know not yet,
That I may see
The man that shall my husband be,
How he goes and what he wears,
And what he does all days and years.

Accordingly, in a dream he will appear with the insignia of his trade or profession. Another performed by charming the moon, thus: At the first appearance of the new moon, immediately after the new year's day, go out in the evening and stand over the spears of a gate or stile, and, looking on the moon, repeat the following lines:

All hail to thee, moon! all hail to thee,
I prithee, good moon, reveal to me
This night who my husband must be.

The party will then dream of their future husband. A slice of the bride-cake, thrice thrown through the wedding-ring, and laid under the head of an unmarried woman, will make them dream of their future husband. The same is practiced in the North with a piece of the groaning cheese.

TRADITIONAL WAY TO Baffle Your Enemies.

Repeat reverently, and with sincere faith, the following words, and you will be protected in the hour of danger:

"Behold, God is my salvation; I will trust, and not be afraid, for the Lord Jehovah is my strength and my song; he also is become my salvation."

"For the stars of heaven, and the constellation thereof, shall not give their light; the sun shall be darkened in his going forth, and the moon shall not cause her light to shine."

"And behold, at eventide, trouble: and before morning he is not; this is the portion of them that spoil us, and the lot of them that rob us."
