MINISTER-GENERAL
N. C. E.

HORNHOME PUBLICATIONS:
PHILADELPHIA.
1879.
TO My Church! My Valentine! TWO BOOKS!

GO FORTH!
Ye Twin Sons of Joseph,
To do the Work of Your Father HERMES,
And without any other Preface than
"OF HARAN ARE WE!"

Or any other Apology for Your Existence than to Teach the Law as it was taught to Moses,
In whose Son You Live as GERSHON, "a Stranger here,"
But whose Higher Lineage is From SALEM'S PROPHET KING!
And if the World call you "Mysterious," or a Subtle Agent, tell them that Mercury was ever thus,
And that You seek "A Peculiar People!"
That You may Lead a SECOND Restoration, as SALATHIEL did the FIRST!

Who gives a Sceptre to a "Sister's Son!"
He'll take it when he's need of one!
—New Salic Law.

Canterbury Hall,
Feb. 14th, 1879.

Entered According to Act of Congress, by the Author, in the Year 1878, being the Five Thousand Six Hundred and Thirty-Eighth of the Jewish Era, and of the Restoration of Israel the First.

INTRODUCTION.

THE TRANSIT SCALE.

A VIEW OF THE PRINCIPAL PLANETARY CONJUNCTIONS, AND REVOLUTIONS IN THE CELESTIAL WORLD AFFECTING THE DESTINIES OF ISRAEL.

Calculated by the Chaldæan Saros, or the conjunction of Solar and Lunar Measures of Time.

As also from the Earth’s shifting Magnetic Centre as the Lode-Star of Israel’s Migrations, and its present position as determined by the Star Regulus and its relation to the Earth in the great planetary Re-union of 1881.

The Interior Planets or those of particular interest and importance in all Historico-Chronological Calculations, as also in the fuller Prophetie or Metronomic Scale, may be correlated as follows:—

Transits of Mercury at intervals of 3, 7, 11, and 46 years.

Transits of Venus at intervals of 8, and 235 years.

Seven principal Transits of Mercury equal to one of Venus.

Multiples of these according to a Method unused since the building of the Great Pyramid, and too minute and comprehensive for insertion here will in due time startle the Scientific world with a Revelation of some things in regard to the Antiquity of Civilization upon this planet which they as yet have scarcely dreamed her to be in possession of! But to the end that the Church and the World may be edified a little, even now, before the 8-fold chord of the New Eon of 1881 is struck, the following “Hint” may be deemed as not without its value.

The Moon passes through the 12 Terrestrial Signs once every month.

The Sun is posited in each of the Celestial Signs (or divisions of the heavens) once every year.
INTRODUCTION.

12 Revolutions of the Moon concentric, ("wheel within wheel") are equal to one of the Sun. The Unit of Measure.

12 Revolutions of the Sun equal to 144 of the Moon.

1000 Revolutions of the Sun, or Earth, equals 12,000 of the Moon; or 12,000 Lunations in 1000 years,—the Cyclic Node,—and in 12,000 years or 144,000 Lunations, the Cyclic-Encyclic Are, the 12 times 12,000 of the "dispersed of Israel" still journeying in the flesh, are Restored by Hypostatic Union with the New Church Episcopal, which though localized by the Magnetic Meridian to the Prophetic site of the

"CHURCH IN PHILADELPHIA"

(St. John's, Rev. 3:7),

Yet is present to the thought of its Minister-General (Thoth, or Hermes) wherever the name of God is spoken!

—If I go to the Mountains the "Hornograph" (Aaron'sograph) will reveal her doings; If I encamp by the Sea her cry for the Word of Life will not be unheard! If I journey beyond the Great Waters, or if in the hour of peril from her enemies she call unto me from the uttermost parts of the earth, there shall the Mercurial messenger be present with his aid, and to chain the lightnings of heaven as the ministers of his wrath!

The Noviciate in this the beginning of mysteries is cautioned not to confound the New Church Episcopal with the so-called Reformed Episcopal travesty, "or the deeds of the Nichol-sons, which I hate!" (Rev. 2:15)

"Ebal and Gerizim" O Israel! are now to thee instead of the Law and the Prophets: the son of Gershon (Jeshurun), Gozan, or Goshen, is still among you,—but what of the Scribes and Pharisees which sit in Moses' seat! I do not know that in measuring out the "curses of Ebal" I do justice to the expectation of that "V. D. M." who at his coming was to "curse and swear, and stamp with his feet!" but I mouth it as well as I can,—and I am shod with brass!

THE "BACK-SLIDE" TRANSIT SCALE.

Babylon the Great, Is Fallen! Is Fallen!"

Rev. 14:8.

Collateral with the line of Israel's development towards her predestined glory in the latter day, is the line of the Dragon, or the "man of 66," or of six-hundred three-score and six, and the continuation of whose empire is calculated both by Daniel and John the Revelator, and in exact accordance with the secret or Hermetic nexus of the Saronic Cycle; and which may be stated for future explanation somewhat as follows:

ADAM is schooled by Atlas (Adon) 375 years before he was constituted or created "head" of the race, as Abraham through Melchizedek, the second Adon (Ich Dien!) was for a like period indoctrinated into all the mysteries of Egyptian servitude before in the Children of Jacob his eyes should behold the land of Canaan, that blessed offspring of Noah’s younger son, the inventor of Letters, the originator of Arts and Sciences, and whose claim to the respect of all the Caucasian race is fitly described on Page 65, of the Hornbook.

This 1875 years period then, contains the connecting link of all the historic and pre-historic Ages of the World, and may be divided and sub-divided until is found the measuring-line of the Prophets and the fate of the world’s overshadowing Babel stands disclosed!

\[11,250 \text{ A. M. (initial), } 9,375 - 7,500 - 5625 - 3750 - 1875.\]
\[1875 - 750 \times 2 - 375 \times 2 - 750 \times 2 = 1875.\]

By Fractions, 1881.

Which to him who hath understanding Rev. (13:18) contains the secret of the “time, times, and the dividing of times” (Dan. 12:7.) and while sounding the Great Jubilee Call of the Restoration of Israel wields the iconoclastic blow of Time at the feet of Daniel’s Colossal Image of Empire!

As the North Pole of the Earth now inclines toward the first degree of Cancer we complete one great cycle of the celestial sphere, and begin to go backward for a new round upon the dial of the Ages! and as the Hermetic links are caught up in the “warp and woof” of History Babel grows weak, her speech incoherent, her knees begin to totter! and Rome prepares to fall!

Israel was planted, or the Holy Seed scattered abroad by their several captivities, about the year 625 B. C., when the Kingdom of Babylon was in its glory, and the Children of the Promise were seeing their darkest days. This was that Head of Gold.

625 years more, and Babylon was still powerful enough as Rome to foster the greatest superstition of Reformed heathenism that the world ever witnessed, and by force of arms to cherish the Line of the Keys (burglarious) for 600 years longer, when the sword of Mahomet put an end to their power in the East.
and drove her aspiring and relentless hordes Westward to perish in the path of Civilization! This was her Arms and Breast of Silver.

625 years more, and the Haranian Crest of King John of Bohemia bowed beneath the stroke of Edward the Black Prince, and the secret lineage of the "Horn-Child" (Corsican, Kynnois, or Caranus) was transferred to England, and the motto of that Alexandrian Crest three ostrich-feathers, with the inscription in German "Ich Dien!" (Adon) Ich Service! became the possession of the Prince of Wales—about the same time that the curse of Conquest or the Crusades had filled the throat of an "open" Sepulchre at Jerusalem with the bodies of about 600,000 fools—and the Great Plague had infected and carried off about "a third part" of the inhabitants of Europe and the East,—while about the same time the Ancient stream of Learning was beginning to rise from its submergement under the Babylon rubbish of the Ages, and the foundations of English Literature, English Church, and Anglo-Saxon Israelish Penn-Charter American Liberty were being laid! This was that "belly and thighs of brass" badly damn-aged!

Six hundred and twenty-five years more and the work of Papal (Babel?) disintegration has reached the "feet" of the image, already but an adulteration of iron with clay, and as the Head of the New Church Episcopal rises above that latest development of religious sensationalism, the Reformed Episcopal Tail of the Dragon methinks I hear a Voice from out the dim Prophetic Past reminding them (if they would but hear!) that they cannot reform an Ethiopian, or a leopard, but to leave the Restoration of Israel to him "who maketh all things New" even to the triple crown, or the NEW TIARA, of which the heir to the Principality of "New Wales" may in his next Volume deign to speak!

Now Cain was the natural, Abel the spiritual son. Abel personated the higher moral and intellectual life of the race, as the creator, originator, Cain was the imitator or fabricator who followed in his footsteps. So that when the evil principle of the superiority of matter over its essential life principle insinuated itself into the heart of Cain it caused a separation or antagonism between the creative and the imitative in the constitution of man, in consequence of which the material rose above the spiritual, or Cain rose and killed his brother.

Cain was the first-born, of coarser make, and physically superior (by the help of a club) to his younger brother, as the spiritual is ever more refined than the material. The design of the All-Wise Creator was by His breath infused through Abel to raise and spiritualize the natural man, or Cain, but physical force triumphed, the old and crude material refused to be so transmuted, and transfigured, and the life of Abel was crushed. Did it leave the human race then? no, for Seth was put in the place of Abel as a factor of humanity more physically able to cope with the line of Cain, while the line of Abel thus strengthened by this bond of union with the intermediate race not only sustained a physical status in the line of physical progress of that mediate race but preserved the line of its spiritual genealogy unbroken through sixty centuries of conflict with the incarnate powers of darkness, or the inherent malignity of matter, and is now infinitely stronger and more enduring at this the beginning of a new Era of Light than in any of the all but immeasurable cycles of the Past.

Now we propose to trace the course of these inharmonious factors or elements of the human race from their first separation into antagonistic principles in the sons of the first representative human pair, and by genealogical and racial embodiment and development all the way down the line of the ages until the present time; believing that herein is the solution of that gigantic problem of human existence and destiny, the misunderstanding of which lies at the bottom of all our National difficulties, as well as of all the other nations of the world which are now in that state of general fermentation that precedes all great political, to say nothing of social and ecclesiastical revolutions.

Who then is the wise man but he who listens to the teachings of Nature, buried deep in whose varied forms and manifestations is the living God, that divine essence or substratum of things external and material which remains unchanged and unchangeable from the dimness of the remotest ages down through all the cycles of eternity; the emanations of whose breath or essence is Abel, or the spirit of man and that which it animates is Cain, or the adversary, that which was but is not when man is once more transformed into a spiritually developed being more than at the first and the crude elements of his body return to the dust of chaos, ere the spirit of creation brooded upon, or in it, to mould it into the uses of the higher life!

Or Life from a Star! (pseudonym for Jesurun), who took to himself Scintilla, daughter of Aldebaran, his 'Uncle,' and reproduced himself in all the starry worlds which compose the body of the All or Universal Father, until he reached the Heart, where re-celebrating his Millennial nuptials with Scintilla, the radiant Daughter of Aldebaran, or the Hyades he begat another self,
or Son,
And sailed through Æther till he reached the Hand, where as Mercurial or Odyllic Light he began to create the world in which we live, ten thousand times ten thousand years from his own birth in th Æther All, and its central sun, till when a crystal Zoe, shot from that heart of hearts to meet Scintilla in the depths of chaos where he

And Lux begat Ephemesis of Etherialis, and Ephemesis begat Chronos or Time on the Third Day of Creation,
Or, 33,000 years from "Fiat lux!"
And Chronos begat Jeud, who was sacrificed to the relentless Saturn on that ever memorable
Fourth Day of Creation,
When Jupiter came to Venus, and the influence of these two planets were united for the development of the Earth.

And Jupiter and Venus begot the Atlantides

At the middle of the Jupiterian and the beginning of the Mars stage of earth’s evolution or the Fifth Day of Creation:

and Atlas and Atlantis begat Adam and Eve

on the Sixth Day of Creation,

When Koh-i-nor is reproduced in Abel, in the 60,000th year from 'Yohi yior!' or the fiat of Volis, Let there be light! though Day for our planet was yet unconstituted, its evolving mass of incandescent matter not having made the transit of the timeless void to have her future progress marked and pointed by the Dial of the Ages!

Now if you will consider that Man, as man, existed on this planet at least 66,000 years before the present or 60,000 years before the time of the last-mentioned Adam, or last point of re-incarnation, we will go on: and say that

As in the last six thousand years the entire history of our planet has been repeated in epitome, we shall consider this period the Cycle within Cycle or "wheel within a wheel" understanding which we may radiate to the outermost bounds of the everlasting Kosmos: So true it is that that which was is that which shall be, and there is no new thing under the sun!

Now as we do not propose at present to write a New Genesis, provided the Old can be plausibly interpreted, we proceed at once to a development of the Hindian or Brahminic Ages, or Cycles of Time, upon their later Jewish basis, as being of more immediate interest, and resting upon historic data more accessible to the general reader.

That the Jewish National Church, or Theocracy, was developed from the older Hindian, and after its culminating, or centralization, became the source from which the later Hindian renewed the vigour of its youthful priority is one of the mysteries of re-incarnation on the larger or national scale which few modern theologians will have sagacity enough to discern, or when discerned, have honesty enough to admit. But until they do admit it they might as well hang their harps upon the willows, and be content with their Captivity in the meshes and superstitions of Babylon, while the ransomed believers in the spiritually and physically regenerate New Heavens and New Earth will heed the Millennial Call to the Sabbath of Rest, and go up to Zion with their harps strung to new songs from Lyra and the Pleiades on this the Fiftieth Jubilee (50 times 50 yrs.) from the Captivity, and from the Exodus the 66th Jubilee Return, and from the translation of Enoch, with his hosts of redeemed Atlantides, or Ancient Brahminic Spirits, the 99th,—counting backwards from this the end of the Sixth, and beginning of the Seventh of the World's millenary stages, or the grand re-commencement of the Great Equinoxial Precession Year, or cycle of 25,000 common, or Solar years, the order and rationale of which we are now about to develop by the application of the Transit Scale.

Note.—In order to preserve as clearly as possible the orderly and consecutive arrangement of the several subjects and chapters of this work we cannot pause here for the purpose of conducting the reader through the full development and application of the TRANSIT SCALE, but in this, and all subsequent allusions thereto, he will consider that reference is had to the Chapter, or Chapters especially devoted to the elucidation of that subject; leaving him in the majority of cases to make his own applications and draw his own conclusions, which is about all that could be expected in a series of "Hints,"—but if at any time more is given than a hint requires or the data seem to justify, let him possess his soul in patience until the further unrolling of the prophetic scroll justifies all the allusions of the Horograph, and a good many more which the weak hearts and perverted judgments of the Babylonians in our midst would at present hardly be able to bear!
Chapter III.

The Fall Which Was a Rise.

At the first beginning of this last of the Six Thousand Year Cycles the line of separation between the descendants of Cain and of Abel, or the natural and spiritual elements of the human race, was so slightly marked that they named their offspring by almost the same identical names from one generation to another, until the time of Lamech, the father of Noah, who had two wives, in which the two races were again united in his children, and Ham, the grandson of Lamech was made to bear the curse inflicted upon Cain to purify him from the evil principle which in the family of Noah survived the Deluge, and again became prevalent as an indirect consequence of the great Solar heats which devastated all the East about the time that the Pentateuch records the Fall of Man.

dation, and his right to deification by Humanity was about as good as that of any person that ever lived.

GOD is the Lord and the Son-of-Man was His Prophet: Let him hear and understand who will!

Ham, or "the Hot," then, prevailed as the grand-son of Noah, out of whom came Nimrod the Hunter, Mizraim father of the Egyptians; Phut and the Caphtorim, the Philistines and all the host of the Canaanites, or Cana"ites, who held possession of the Land of Promise, not by right but by conquest and oppression of the line of Abel or Seth, who were as yet pilgrims and strangers in Chaldea and Egypt until the time that they should have strength to claim their own, and make a servant of servants the Cain-ites as was foretold by Noah to Canaan the unfortunately aspiring son of Ham.

This brings us to the inevitable conclusion that God allows the existence of Evil for a wise and beneficent purpose, and suffers it to prevail within certain fixed and definite limits for the fuller development of the higher factors of human progress, and when these have reached a self-sustaining status, the principle of evil recoils upon itself like its symbol the serpent, and is its own destruction, while the spiritual nature of man released from its coil goes on progressing toward perfection, never again to return to the chrysalis from which it has been developed.
It is the Psyche of the Greeks, the "Butter-fly" freed from the case in which it was matured, and hence the symbolical name and character of Butter-fly the symbol of the Soul and emblem of Immortality.

Thus Adam, the man of earth, was the case or chrysalis from which was evolved Abel the spiritual factor of the Race in its upward development; in which case or under whose care Abel had been nurtured until he was able to cope with the world for a physical and spiritual existence. But the strength of the Adversary, who was the first-born and held supreme sway, crushed the bud of his spiritual existence, so that he was destined to remain another 6,000 years before he should have sufficient strength again to burst the chrysalis and manifest himself to the world a glorified and transfigured spirit, the winged Mercury, messenger of the gods, which all the powers of darkness could not chain, nor the cerements which bound him prevail to keep him longer enclosed. The ship Argo has reached the end of the Milky-way, the Churning of the Deep is over, the butter is made, the serum or whey is left, which eating and drinking ye eat and drink the body and blood of righteous Abel, while his beautiful and released spirit is the butter-fly which has flown from its earthly tabernacle to other spheres, "And as often as ye do this" saith the Spirit "do it in remembrance of Me!"
Chapter IV.

CHRONOLOGICAL.

Now if I choose to count time by commencing in the middle and radiating both ways, or by commencing at both ends and arriving in the middle, and thereby attain more satisfactory, and in every way more reliable results than by the ordinary method of selecting some point or other at random, and in spite of the cries and remonstrances of the outraged historians and sages of Antiquity, making that the "beginning of authentic history" I do not see but that my system of computation in cycles is its own justification, and in need of no apology for sweeping all other methods out of existence!

The fallacy of reckoning time in a straight line rather than in the orderly development of progressive cycles is particularly fascinating to the partially educated historians of modern times, who, even supposing that they had at times, and during more lucid intervals of thought, dreamed of a better method, yet crushed the waking fancy of an immortal truth, lest perchance it might displease some crowned head or captious duke, or to subserve their own private aims at popularity and preference at the expense of a reputation for veracity and sound judgment, if not with contemporaries, at least to the more candid mind of an enlightened posterity.

Shades of Usher, Lloyd, and Stillingfleet! What a Herculean task ye have left for somebody to do in after times, if only to reconcile your clashing and confused systems! Being compilers of incidents, names and dates, rather than historians, you failed to recognize the philosophy of history, and though you have thereby escaped the opposite fault of theorizing, and perhaps the temptation of spinning yarns for the distorted warp and woof of modern history manufacturers, yet do your skeletonian compilations of names and dates but exhale the fragrance of the dry-bones in the Valley of Jehoshaphat!

Wind then, O Gabriel, a Melchizedekian Cohorn resurrection blast! And as the myriads of the buried Past spring to new life in the persons of their Western-world descendants, let the "dry-bones" of Israel's History shuffle together with the restored notes of a lost harmony, and the now agitated plain of Armageddon's spiritual conflict teem with the waking millions of Israel's re-incarnate sons! And all those grand and noble pages of their all but Celestial history be read in the shifting hosts of the Stars of God, which from their Eastern vigils o'er Chaldaean plains have come to rest sublimely in the Zenith of the Fore-shadowed Land! the Canaan of their hopes—the Western Land of Promise!

Before entering upon the long periods of history as developed by the Transit Scale, we will do what we can with the History of the World as it at present stands, or in other words endeavor to synchronize the different systems of chronology as relating to that history, which we have already termed in a previous chapter as simply the latest of the world's 6,000-year cycles or stages of development; and as that has also been termed in the same connection an epitome or microcosm of all antecedent and subsequent cycles, so it must have a middle, or radiating point, and a circumference, and we in accordance with the proposition already laid down at the opening of this chapter, will now select that centre or radiating-point and unfold the historic scroll both ways until it reaches the Eastern and Western bounds of civilization, as embracing the entirety of human destiny within its limits.

Wake, O Israel to the sublime truth of thy re-incarnation, or spiritual New-birth! All Nations are represented in thee: the Persians, and Medes, and Elamites of this great Fifty-times-Fifty Pentecostal Jubilee of the "dispersed of Israel" now camped upon American shores! And even the 'dwellers beyond the sea'—Kelts, Cambrians, Scotch-Irish, and English-Saxons, Hebrews of the Hebrides, and the Japhetic races of Iona and the Isle of Man! Greeks, Romans, and Hellenistic Jews! Orange-Nassaurenian, Vaudois, Kathari and Waldensian sleepers in the Alpine martyr-vales!—List to the bugle-blast of the Horn of Kyrnois, for the Lion of Judah sleeps no longer in the dust of St. Helena, and the Marsellaise is leading on his myrmidons to conscious victory!

Wake to the “Sun-burst of Erin,” and to the now Æolian strains of Tara’s forgotten Harp! which once upon the plains of Troy assembled the hosts of Hiram for the building of the Temple!—and LYRA is our Zenith-star to-day!

England now declines from her pristine glory, For “the sceptre has departed from Judah, and a law-giver from between his feet!”

Shiloh has come!

From Cycle to Cycle, or from Israel’s Call to Israel’s Restoration, three thousand seven hundred and fifty years!

From Cycle to Cycle, or from Adam’s Fall to Esau’s End, eighteen hundred and seventy-odd years!

From Adam “made” to Eden lost, three thousand seven hundred and fifty years!

At the end of the Old and the beginning of the New, “when Esau took hold upon the heel of Jacob” (Esdras.) was the dividing or “parting asunder of the times;” Memorialize that, O World! until we come to the “times and dividing of time” of the Prophet Daniel, and Saint John the Divine’s most precisely calculated Astrological Revelations!

With this Hint, then, REST, O Historia’s parti-colored Shades! The Stars are the Chroniclers of God!
Chapter V.

HISTOROLOGICAL.

The History of the Lost Tribes of Israel is the World's History in miniature. That proposition stated is that proposition proved. But the question may arise, Who are “the Israelites,” and what is meant by the Restoration?

Mistaken notions exist with regard to the people called Israel, and the authenticity even of their Ancient history has not unfrequently been doubted.

There is a reason for this different from that “there is a reason for all things under the Sun!”

Israel has suffered both from her friends and her enemies. That has been the fate of all great principles and divinely inspired springs of human action.

It might have been ordered otherwise, but it was not.

It might naturally have been supposed then that at some time such a condition of things should cease to exist, and be replaced by a better. This is what the Prophets came to tell us and now they are vindicated.

The Prophets did not tell us all that they knew, nor are we to presume that they have told us much that they did not know; it is natural to suppose that they acted as other wise men would have done in like case: did the best they could according to the light that was given them.

“This is the Light that lighteth all the World” except the denizens of Theological Seminaries.

We might have more light from the Prophets if these latter did not stand in the way.

They will not go in themselves, neither will they let others enter in to the New Jerusalem, that City of “Many Mansions.”

When you find men inclined to look upon the light and not see it, you may conclude that blindness is their normal condition and that any undue anxiety after their spiritual welfare on the part of others might as well be postponed until the final judgment.

Let not this digression concerning Edom divert your thought from the line of Israel's unfolding destiny.

Edom is not confined to Theological Seminaries, nor is Israel all outside the Clerical profession.

Speaking of the Prophets, if we had even as much light as they we would have much clearer ideas of Inspiration than we have at present.

And when we get more light let us give them credit for what they have done in helping us thereto.

But since we are to have the substance of which they had only the shadow, let us feel doubly assured of the grounds of the Faith, in that as "others (they) have labored so we have entered into their labors."

WE are they because of their spirit which is in us. Hence they enjoy the fruits of their own labors, and we are those fruits. Man for man is the ancient Israel represented in the living souls of this Age and generation: They were the beginning of a Cycle of re-incarnation of which we are the End.

The seed had to be planted before it could grow, and after all its days and seasons of development is it the same, or "some other kind of grain!"

Paul asked that question once but the conclusion was so evident that he did not stop to answer it.

His conclusion however might have been clarified by the contingent result of either an improved or bebased product, but the same species.

Nature's organic forms and entities are Eternal but the types or moulds thereof are constantly changing.

"That which has been is that which shall be, and there is no new thing under the Sun."

A sensible History has a beginning, a middle, and an end.
A cause, an agent, and an effect.
A line, a point, and a circle.
A Nation has a beginning a centralization, and a decline.
A death, a beginning, and a culmination.
A Star has its rising, its meridian, and its setting.
And will repeat that cycle till rolling ages cease to move!
Just so many nations ever have or ever can exist upon this planet. They are parts of one organic whole and if these do not return the Earth must needs mourn the loss of the human race.
If more should come she would not have room to contain them.
If even the Eastern Nations should come West our Sun-set-Land would not be able to contain them.
All things have their due proportion and of this we have had enough.
Turkey must stay where she is or be whipped.
And ere long must retreat to the high lands of Tartary or be trodden to dust in the Valley of Jehoshaphat and be sunken in the slime-pits of the Vale of Siddim.
She will not retreat.

ISRAEL MUST RETURN!
Chapter VI.

LOOK ON THESE STONES!

The Jews were a "peculiar people," and so were the Quakers who founded Philadelphia.

They did not found it but they prevented William Penn from doing so.

Philadelphia never was founded.

And if it was not founded then it is not a fit place to live in until it is.

It will be a fit place to live in.

When it is so William Penn will return.

That game of "Fox-and-Goose" has been nearly played.

Look on any Map of the Heavens for illustration while I proceed to deal with earthly things.

The Goose looks as if it had been Penn-ed, pawned, or trepanned like the Three Balls on the Penn "Coat-of-Arms," but what of the Fox!

The Goose is out of the Penn.

And had "Horns coming out of his hand."

Penn is no longer a Goose.

And will redeem that pawn!

"His horn has been exalted" at least above the measure of a goose.

"Go tell that Fox" (George) that he will be but a mouthful in the maw of the Unicorn!

That Herod must suffer for the Slaughter of the Innocents.

"My heart is inditing a good matter." And

With a quill of that plucking I will write the Fate of the City.

Which is that the Son of Penn shall return to his patrimony, or that his patrimony shall return to "him of the manor-born,"
Restore him Penn-Square and you may keep the Manor.
Otherwise "not one stone shall be left upon another that shall not be thrown down."
Unless the City should become richer they are not likely even to be built up!
The City is in moderate circumstances.
The "Market-Place" has been thrown down!
If you build it up it will be thrown down again.
It is too near the Temple precincts.
Some spires and steeples were also thrown down, or twisted into their place, but that will not be noticed when we have a Church.
That was a stiff breeze when the "Sun-god" entered Scorpio on the 23rd. of October and flourished his "knotted cord" in that "Den of Thieves!"
Philadelphia will be more healthy.
That was a spiritual breeze,—fit precursor of the cleansing of the Temple courts.
The New Jerusalem will descend as soon as there is a place for it to light.
St. John the Divine promised Philadelphia a Church.—Rev. 3: 7. And it would be a shame if she should be cheated out of it.
We will do what we can to cheat her into it.
Mercury was the "Lord of Thieves," otherwise he could not have out-witted them.
Some one tried to be Mercury and was crucified between two of his fellows.
He would have been crucified between "a dozen" but the rest "forsook him and fled."
The gods never die.
There is too much need of them to live.
Nor would their dying do you any good.
Your funeral expenses would not be any lighter.
Look on these stones!

† † † † † † † † † † † † †

And then look up the title-deeds of the Penn property.
The Quakers are some of them good and some of them bad,
in this respect they are like other people.
In some respects they are not like other people.
Their god is a "shad-belly" and their delight is in the rim of a hat.
Hat, Walk, and Conversation have a regard to that "cleanli-ess which is next to godliness" and that is about as near as they ever get to godliness.
And their front door-step is about as near as they ever get to cleanliness.
Eliakim Hicks did much to restore them to the wisdom of the righteous Penn, but they would none of him and cast him out of their synagogue.
Some few followed him and escaped from the falling timbers.
Philadelphia is becoming more healthy.
Death has become bond-holder to the possessors of ancient removed landmarks, but the spirit of Fox still inhabits their children.

But is not yet a fit place to live in.
"Lord, how long?"
Till the streets are cleaned and its walking carcasses buried.
"Hark from the tombs a doleful sound!"
Like the Penn heirs they want what belongs to them and they are bound to have it!
Fear not, O Zadok-ee! "for there is no Resurrection."
The spirits of dead men live in us both to judge and to be judged.
Here endeth the Iron Age and the breaking in pieces of the "iron-and-clay" in the feet of Daniel's Vision of Empire.
The stone that was "cut out of the Mountain without hands" has descended to become the Corner!
Which for the present is near the North-west Corner of Thirteenth and Market Streets.
Philadelphia is a fit place to live in.
And she is to have a Church, too! at least it was so written by John, Revelations 3, 7.

That "Church in Philadelphia" was a beautiful conception of John's and worthy of a great prophet!

His Astrological Foresight was unparalleled in the history of human ken, except perhaps the Ancients who were the models of his studies.

Newton and Kepler might have borrowed from him had not his system been too vast for their comprehension.

They had about as much idea of his Celestial Discourses as modern astronomers have of a Prophetic Church!

They reason to the end of their "knows" and pronounce the rest unknowable.

Their noses are of the Celestial turn, but brief.

When will ye learn wisdom O ye Star-gazers, and Microscopists? and when will ye have sufficient reflection to get understanding!

Perhaps that question might also be refered to the unknowable.

Philadelphia is lived in.
And she has her Church.

That bud in the wilderness shall blossom as the rose!

The Lillic of the Wol-leys has not yet got out of her d'ab d'ess!

But she is as vain of her new-found glories as her High Cock-o-Lorum Lord-of-the-Walk! See Canticles, Book of

"And that glory she will not give to another!" See Heart Revelations in her private letters when you find them.

"My beloved is a garden enclosed, a spring shut up, a fountain sealed" the Daughter of Elizabeth, the Child of the Tudors, the Rose of Lancaster, the "Virgin Daughter of My People" re-born to an imperishable Crown when he that loveth mercy and executeth judgment shall appear by the other door of the Two-Door Line to declare that this stupendous joke of Creation is finished by the Lion of Judah carrying off his all-too-willing Bride! while those who in their pride, vain-glory and hypocrisy have been heedless of that Midnight Cry which was to herald... the rising morn of the redemption of the world will be left an out-door standing comment on that no longer disputed reason why Jack didn’t eat his supper!

Will the Lily of Israel now heed this, or is some mangy old Churchman still pouring into her ears, or rather those of her mother which are considerably larger and more receptive, his serpentine venom that the Son of Light is out at the elbows, that he can’t pay his debts, or wouldn’t if he could, that he is a gay deceiver, that he is a Lion in a lamb’s skin, a Hercules in the garb of Adonis, an Adventist, a Millerite, a Ritualist, a Royalist, a Revolutionary, a believer in immortality and the final rectification of all things; a Jew, an Ephraimite, a strenuous advocate of Apostolic Succession in the line of Aaron but still more so as in the line of Salem’s ancient Haran Kings, a belieer that that which is is not that which always shall be, and various other things which in the eyes of the Devil would hardly be considered orthodox, and that consequently he is crazy and if allowed to run loose will make every sensible person think and act just as bad as himself!

A long story may be cut short when it has but one ending.

I want those “golden apples!”

Then LOOK ON THESE STONES! while I fling them at the head of the Old Dragon in the Garden of the Hesperides!

Philadelphia is a fit place to die in.

* * * * *

The Graves of Greenwood are not so beautiful as the Laurel Hill Mansions of the Dead. They have not yet risen, but here their ghostly tenants walk about the streets.

They ask why William Penn was not buried among them that they might have rested more quietly till the final call.

He gave them the ground and they feel under obligations to him for providing for their temporal rest.

And seeing that they cannot find an inscription to him in all the winding mazes of the Schuylkill’s white-flecked shores they have decamped to a less miasmatic region and live in the Celestial worlds around us.
They who have stones to their memories need no resurrection. They are not obliged to walk the earth to keep alive the memory of their deeds.

LOOK ON THESE STONES!

And when the widow cries for bread will ye give them to—her husband!

Is there any taste in a block of marble, or will it say to the fatherless, Be fed and clothed!

Have you enough marble in Penn Square to finish that mighty structure?

Or would it pay en masse the City Debt!

Having furnished some poor men with work has it not done all the good that may be expected of it, or is it to stand a perpetual warning to the Nations!

In either case its destiny is fulfilled.

Then slip the halter of Judea's fate, and on the Lord's ground build a temple to the Lord.

And be sure first that the spiritual temple is complete before the natural is commenced.

LOOK ON THESE STONES!
And take them off that ground!

ISRAEL was composed of the Twelve Tribes of the Human Race, and in close conjunction yet distinct from these were twelve others, which might be called barbarous or inhuman.

One Tribe for every Constellation (Zodiacal) and then a Double, or devil.

That “double” was their Shadow of Darkness to each, and these also were Tribes and Nations.

To those Doubles or Devils the Constellated Twelve were the Shadow of Light, and they hated them without a cause.

In an evil hour they drove them from their midst and were themselves swallowed up in Darkness.

Pharaoh and his hosts never forgot that lesson but are trying it again on the spiritual plane.

They would make you believe with Job’s Friends that they are the people and that wisdom will die with them.

They would make you believe that there is no key to the Many Mansions, or that the writer of these Hints hasn’t got it.

Either horn of the dilemma will answer their purpose of mystification provided one or the other be accepted.

They would make you believe that Israel was one narrow-minded, half-barbarous, one-ideal “peculiar people,” and not the acme of human civilization as the twelve representative tribes or nations of the Human Race.

They would make you believe that the stars do not shine, or if they do, that they cannot possibly have any influence upon man destiny.
They do not believe that 'one Star should differ from another Star in glory' unless the difference should be in favor of themselves.

What have we to say that the sentence of death should not be passed upon them!

Their Destiny has been made for them according to what they chose for themselves in the beginning, and if it is not now just what they would like to have it they have nobody to blame but themselves.

If they go to their devil it will be but in ratification of a previous contract.

It is not the principles involved but the consequences that they so much dread.

Many doubtless would not have so contracted had they not like Faust intended to cheat the devil in the end.

He is not so short-sighted in that which pertains to the perpetuity of his kingdom.

To blame God for what they have thus imposed upon themselves would be the height of absurdity.

Nevertheless some of them will persist in being very absurd.

"Who is this that cometh from Edom, with dyed garments from Bozrah" if it is not he whose coat of many colors had been dyed a deeper red in the blood of a "kid of the goats" by his cruel and perfidious brethren!

If Joseph had not been a better Brahmin than they were Christians he would have cremated every mother's son of them as soon as they had arrived in Egypt.

But they had not yet filled up the measure of their iniquity and that of their fathers.

Until they had so done the pleasure of treading the winepress of the wrath of Almighty God would scarcely have been a sufficient inducement for leaving even for a time the honors and dignities of Pharaoh's Court.

He left them till the latter day that he might forgive them, and that those who would not accept forgiveness at his hands might be destroyed.
Now these make-believes want to forgive Joseph and write him the sinner instead of themselves.

This was a natural consequence of their belief in the doctrine of Vicarious Atonement.

Not even satisfied with the idea of vicarious atonement, they would fain make him a vicarious sinner in their stead.

So, doubtless, reasoned they who thought to make Joseph to die for their sins.

It is an ancient and much approved Doctrine for even Job's Friends had it.

And still, though the Book of Job is very ancient yet it is not as old as they concerning whom it was written.

"Fill up then the immeasurable iniquity of your fathers."

"He that hath an ear to hear let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the Churches."

INTRODUCTORY HINTS.

Would'st thou hear the Music of the spheres when the morning stars sang together, Approach, O thou who Canst, Lift the heart and withdraw the Veil!

Would'st thou know the Wisdom of the Egyptians, the secrets of Nirvana, and the Depths of the Magian Theosophy? Approach, O thou who Canst, Lift the heart and withdraw the Veil!

Look not for the Thunders of Sinai, nor the earthquakes in the path of Jeshurun, nor yet for the sword of the wrathful Mahmoud! for surely these things are of the Past, and unfit for the ushering in of the Reign of Peace!

Nevertheless, "Give a portion to Seven and also to Eight for thou knowest not what evil may be under the Sun."

Look not for the "end of the world" in the din and confusion of Yesterday and the still more blank uncertainty of Today,—These are but the beginnings of time, and To-morrow but "a consummation of the Age."

Leave the Wrecks of the Past in the dust of Egypt, while we ascend to the New Zion "City of our God"—Approach O thou who Canst! Cover thy head, and withdraw the Veil!

Look at the worlds as they are evolved from Chaos, and roll majestically towards their Central Sun, and say if it is not that a new chord has been struck in the Harmony of the Universe, that the "times and dividing of times" has expired, and that the New Heavens and the New Earth have suddenly been revealed to man!

—Six stages of Earth are passed, and behold the Seventh! — "Let him that hath understanding count the number of the times, for it is the number of a man, and his number is Six hundred three score and Six."

Look at that Scale of the Shifting Worlds, and say if aught but the SOUL of Nature is imperishable! Forms are but the clay of the potter,—Types alone are Eternal!

Then say it thus with the Nations, in whom the Breath of the Deity has embodied the marching hosts of re-incarnate souls for Armageddon's Conflict! — Let Truth survive, and dust return to dust!

KNOW THEN, O Man! that the time of that bloodless conflict is past, as the Israel of God returns from the Conquest of the Nations, bringing the fruits of victory and peace,—For the time for the "scattering of the Holy Seed" has been accomplished, and the "fulness of times" for their Return complete.

We are in the Last Cycle of Earth's whirling vortex of Waldensian Revolutions, O World, World, World!—the "wheel within wheel," the Gilgal of the Nations is at an end—Mars is out—Venus half-way through—and Mercury begun!

PROPHETIC RETROSPECT for the Year of Light, 11,250.

I stood upon the Earth in that latter day, and lo! a great noise as of a mighty earthquake! and a magnetic shudder thrilled through the Universe from centre to circumference, earth rose imponderable from her decayed and crumbling forms, sloughed her watery crust upon the surface of the Moon, took Venus as her satellite and thus equipped followed Mercury in his everlasting flight towards the centre of the Universe!!!

Given in the Spirit, on the Eve of the Transit of Venus, Dec. 8, 1874, and confided as a secret to Mr. Bp. Nickelson, D. D. of the R. E. C., who has been gently breaking it to his Congregation, and others, recently, under the head of the "Gathering of Israel," now nearly four years since his enlightenment! Alas, poor Old Nick! if you had been Qu- C— Quick you would have divulged it sooner!

P. S.—As this goes to Press we are informed that the other factor of the P. E. C. Trinity "goes over" to see if the landing is all safe on the other side! Nov. 20, '78.

Bishop Cummins had failed to report.

How Quick they go! lest somebody might be ahead of them in the resurrection.

PEN or Penn, Penn, (Horn or Peak) same as Pekah, "son of Remaliah" (Bible), Leader of the Ten Tribes, or Samaritan Piets or Ancient Scotch.

PENN, William of Pembroke, Earl Jasper, from Pennel, "vision, or face of God" (see Jacob), Phineas, of the line of Aaron, Phenicians or Penn-icians.

Scots, Scutii, "shields" Scythian, Cuthian or Goths, branches of the Samaritan or more latterly Cuthian Tribes.
BOOK II. BABES IN JESHERIN.

Hebrides of the Heeb-rews, Heeb, "Hub" H'op, or Hope, Ancient Welsh or Norse Discoverer of America and founder of the colony of Rhode Island. Mt. Hope.

JOB, Heeb or Hope, as in the hieroglyphics of Egypt a panegyric for the dead, "a hymn." Book of Job, an interesting relic of the Ancient Penn-ician Bible.

AZTECS, Aziatics:— Ah, A-az or Ahaz, Itz, Atz, Itzlan, Atlantic or Atlantea, the ancient submerged Atlantic or Fortunate Isles. Itz-Ra-El, or ISRAEL, "Soldier of God."

Æth, Ith, (see, Milesians in Spain) Athor or Æther, Venus or Isis, from Ath or Ith, the Moon.

Eth-i-ope, (white) Man of the Moon, or Man of Hope.

Ethiopia, "land of Uz" the Ethiopic, or Basie Kingdom of Job, Iob, Heeb or Hope, the Adamic or Edom-ic basic kingdom of the Hebrews incorporated through patience and suffering into the Hierarchy of Salem or Jeshurun, Melchizedekian.

MAN, from "men" "to establish" — Menes, King of Upper Egypt (Ethiopia) Manes, Manx-man, (Isle of Man) Mohogan or Mexican, Magian (Gk. Magnus or Ma-ke) Macedonian.

Salem, Shiloh, Silon, Sahal, S1am, Cahun (heaven or haven) Selah, or Sabus, Solace, Salmon, Shalum, Shulamite, (in Canticles), REST, Peace, or Restoration, or Shiloh, Union of the Church or the New Jerusalem with the Kingdom of Jeshurun. —(Solomon,—Basie imitation.)

Sheba, Queen of Arabia, or Seb, wife of Saturn, basic or imitative of Jeshurum or Israel. "Not all Israel that are of Israel."

ZODIACK,—Zadok, Zedek or Sadoe, "King Shaddai," or Melchi-Zadok, King of Righteousness, or of Peace, Celestial, or Zodiakal. Coelo-Syrians, Seleucidæ, and Sadducees.

Kadesh, "strife" Zadok, Zedek, Peace,—spelt backwards, or the Spirit of Strife as manifested at the "waters of Kadesh."

Angle-terre, Angel-land, Ingle-land, England or Corner-land, New Troy, Angle-three, and as triangular in shape as ever!

HORN-BOOK, Old English for Primer.
“Tohu-and-Bohu,”—Order and Chaos, Light and Darkness, “creating and uncreating,” Upper and Lower (Egypt), creative and created dynasties, according to the Book of Ganesa, (Hindoo), Hebrew, or Greek, Genesis. (Deduced mainly from Egyptian Hieroglyphics, and more fully treated in another place.

Gansa, Gazu, Ghizeh, Gannet, “Goose,” (the Sun), hieroglyphic. Canute, the Dane, Kenneth II, King of Scotland, 838 A. D., 69th in the direct line from Alexander the Great, of Macedon. Gaunt, John of Lancaster, later.

Goshe, Jeshe, Jesse, Jesus or Joshua, “the Sun,” Jah or Jeshurunn, or ’Arun “son of Jesse” or Son of the Sun, and from which as a patronymic was derived the Indo-Persian, Iranian or Haranian Kingdom of Salem, or that of Melchizedek, in the perpetual line of the Brahminic Priesthood, and which through the Covenant of Melchizedek with Abraham secures to the latter and to his seed forever the protection and favor of the King of Kings, and Lord of Lords, until they should be called home at the “consummation of the Age” as the New Israel to a kingdom “incorruptible, undefiled, and that fadeth not away.”

Gershon, or Gershom, “a stranger here” at the beginning of the Aeon, or Age, was an appropriate designation for the son of Amram’s (or, Amun-Ra) great grandsire, until his priestly line should in the “latter day” a second time lead up the hosts of Israel from the Ramesses of Egyptian Bondage to a Celestial Canaan, and though still strangers here “Of Haran are we!” and will leave this Land of Goshen which we do not want after the expiration of our two hundred year pilgrimage, and journey with the hosts of the New Israel towards our Haran home, or the ancient Hornhome, Land of the Orient.

Hornhome, Haran, ’Arun or Aaron home, the Aaronia, Harania, Irania or the Persian Airy’u’ne or the Lost Eden of the Arums, or Aryans or Arians or Karens of India, who under Canopus, “the Gannet” or, MaRabah Ganapata Goshain, son of the Sun, was the first leader of the Canopian, Ganaphtian or Celestial host of Aryan world civilizers from the table lands of India through Egypt to the plains of Iran or Haran, and the ancient Tyre or Troy. Selah!

Selaii (City?) City of Love, from Salus “safety” salacious vigor of Adonai, or “Ich diene” “I serve” his Crest three ostrich feathers, and his ancestry from John of Bohemia, and Horn of Mount-Moriah-ney, (Montmorency) and William of Valentia (Pembroke or Penn).

Now Prince of “Wails”
Thou Prince of Tails!
It’s HEADS I’ll play tomorrow—
For Horn means “Crown”
Of London-town—
Then make your bed in sorrow.

That “crown of pride” is Ephraim’s still,
By George! he will not borrow—
But with his Wallace Broad-sword skill
He’ll crack your pow tomorrow!

Then cease to trouble Israel’s Rest
With vain pretention’s clamour:
We’ve a Victoria in the West—
C. Woodhull’s awful glamour!

This is the Dragon on our shores,
From England’s slimy bottoms,—
And when we get some datums more
We’ll finish up these thought-em’s!

FOWLER,— Phaula (Ger.) fol’wer or imitator, fallacious, or False Gemini, or Phallus, the pated virile member.

In Genealogy, the teacher of false and corrupt principles from a degenerate virility; in Religion, a mile away (from Canterbury Hall) imitator of the Celestial Hornograph; in practice a sneak, or snake,—Infinitesimal attenuation of the Tail of the Dragon!
Origin, Pul or Phul, "a bean" a notoriously sickening vegetable coming up bottom first to the infinite disgust of all its respectable surrounding neighbors.

Ancestral and Phonetic, Phul, or "Fool, or "Free-knowledge-ist" Free-lust, Phul-ist, from "phulla" (Grk.) "a leaf" first used in the Garden of Eden to cover the "shame" of some people's First Parents.

O my Tudor Princess, my Dove, my Church, my N. C. E.! my Lancastrian Gaunt, or Gannet, my own Petronilla Xandrina Lanfranc of Rhineland! how in times long past have I prayed with the Psalmist that the soul of my darling might be delivered from the "snare of the fowler!" and now that the late Transit of Mercury has given new power to the Son of the Sun, it becomes his unsavory duty to handle the "muck-rake" until from under the surface slums of this fair (?) City are disclosed the golden streets and pearly gates of the New Jerusalem! But you need not follow, O Xandrina! Let not curiosity, woman's besetting sin, tempt you to follow, but as you too with thy "sister" the Shulamite have sat under the ministrations, or otherwise been under the influence of the degenerate Shade of a degenerate sire, that Netherland curse of the House of Orange, Vigilius de Quichem, now more commonly known as the Vigilant Old Quick of R. E. C. notoriety, so I would have you put on your robes new-washed and sit a queen, and as fast as the New-born souls are delivered from "Quick and Death" I will send them in quiet pilgrimages to thy Canterbury shrine; and if there are those who say, Why does not the risen Lord cast off his erring and idolatrous (adulterous) "Church" Let him that is without sin among you cast the first stone at her!

For Enoch Gershon has returned
To be "a stranger here,"
To find his long lost Arden home
Foul cursed at Windermere.
He halted not at Eden’s Gate
This sorrowing Son of Man,
But o’er the Sea at once he sped
And this New World began!

* * *

Her heart still torn with grief and woe
No consolation found,
Deceived, betrayed,
She cursed the “spade”
Her widowhood had found!

“I’ll seek my lord and master still,
Beyond the Sea’ she said—
“Mayhap ’tis but an ugly dream,
And Enoch is not dead!”

Translated! yes, O Father God,
Thy sufferings now I see!
And those who “know” thy suffering Son Must find that One in—

John, 10: 30.

Hast thou never heard of HORNHOME, O thou dweller on this sin-cursed Earth! then hast thou yet to learn thy soul’s First Lesson in the Book of Life! the very name and meaning of the HORNBOOK, not for “babes in Jesus” now, but for Babes in Jeshurun or the Son of Jesus (John) who again becomes the Father, as the Son of the Sun, and Sun of the Son, at this his “second coming” to draw his Latiala to him, and say “We’ll have “a son” and we’ll hide him in Hornhome till the wrath of Ahriman (Arrow-man) be past! And we’ll call him Ormuzd or Hermes, and endow him with the Word of Life, and he shall be called in Heaven the Wonderful, the Counsellor, the Prince of Peace, the Everlasting Father, to millions yet unborn, throughout all the starry worlds that tasted Adam’s woe! My Lailla, my Heart, my Love! that Child is born! We sent him, from Hornhome, but not from Christian street; ’twas there we met ’tis true, but our anointed was not to be a Christian, for he was born of no carnal thought, and no flesh and blood retards the winged Mercury in his flight of Light and Love through Fallen Worlds!

This is “Hornhome” O World, Aaronhome, Arnheim, Haran-on-the-Rhine, where Cohorn Magi lit the fires of fading Orient to preserve the line of Salem’s Seventh Son throughout its mighty conflict with Mediæval Darkness and Ahriman’s direst hate. And they said, We’ll “hide him” through the mighty mysteries of our Ancestral Religion, that when the sword of Herod Rome shall seek his blood lest he appear at the head of Israel’s Armies in the latter day, the Horn of Kyrnois (Corsica) shall wind the Marsellaise from the mountain fastnesses of a New Hornhome, where the Orange-Nassau-renian “Kings of Holland” have for generations five nourished the soul of the Lion of Judah now glaring defiance from his Bohemian exile in Penn-Land to the wearer of his three ostrich feathers across the Sea!

FIRST PRIMER-LESSON.

“SHALL WE KNOW EACH OTHER THERE!”

Yes,— why not, when we pass over “Jordan!” Who wants a “mansion in the skies” when England’s palatial residences are being emptied, swept and garnished in momentary prospect of their newly-found occupants, and Royal House of Hornhome (H. R. H.), H. B. M., S. S. S., IHS, I N R I, MM, WW, Etc., Etc., Etc.,!!! When the New Jerusalem “descends to Earth” shall we not be still more on terra firma than ever! and if we do not then meet our friends who have gone before woe to those who harp upon the words of the above song! they have no meaning! how can we come into our inheritance if we do not return to the homes whither our ancestral shades do call us?
BOOK II  BABES IN JESHURUN.

“For here we have no abiding City but we seek one to come!”

Even Philadelphia is but the Goshen (“drawing near”) of our hopes, the “Beulah” of our wanderings! the last camping-place west of the Jordan, that rolling, heaving, twisting, recoiling and threatening Gulf Stream which represents the slimy coil of the Zodiacal Dragon from under whose trail the “sweet influences of the Pleiades” and the tightening Bands of Orion are drawing the submerged remains of the ancient continent of Atlanta, the England of to-day, the long-lost Aryan-home of our pre-diluvian Ancestry! Our Ancestors! and where are they? Just where they fell,—awaiting their re-entering into new and imperishable bodies that like Job they may stand in their place at the latter day “in their flesh to see God” and the redemption of Israel!

Then let the quartered remains of Sir William Wallace come together on Tower Hill from the four united Kingdoms of Great Britain, and with the blast of the Urus-horn assemble the multitudes of Israel for the crowning of his son. Let another Sir William (Penn) from the Burying-ground at Jordan’s bring his Tudor princess Lilla and say, Here is your “spirit-bride” but of substantial flesh and blood, the only kind of spirits by the way that this New Age will admit of, or are calculated to do credit to the Resurrection of the Body. Take her for she has waited long, and bears a Virgin name. ’Tis well; I’ll take her, for I know! It’s Rachel, this time, isn’t it? Leah is loving, too, but you know you “promised” Rachel! Shall not the Lion and the Lamb “lie down together” and be so docile that “a little child” may lead them! if it is not so then I must be mistaken in my Millennial reckonings, the world’s Horoscope will have to be re-cast and the two Celestial Signs, Aries and Leo, which the Little Gemini now proclaims to be in harmony, must be left out of the calculations altogether. Well, leave them out then, O ye dull of understanding! and let this rocking and reeling, and wrecking old world go all to the bad, for if the Millennium is not here NOW when seven majestic planets roll within conjunction limits before the next Transit of Venus in 1832 then will the writer of these "Hints" give up the Science of his forefathers, and say that That which has been is no longer that which shall be: for such Signs as the Heavens now unfold have never been seen without such certain results since the world assumed its present shape!

KNOW THEN! that

"OF HARAN ARE WE!"

And WE—are as follows:

From William the Silent to the younger son of the first of nine children—ten generations, five in the Westphalian provinces and five in Pennsylvania, bring a Golden Wedding in the Mountains of Pennland on the veritable antipodal spot where Jacob set up the stone of Peniel, and in that "vision of God" climbed the ladder which connected Earth and Heaven. Jacob or Israel, son of Rebekah of Haran marries Leah and Rachel, also of Haran, 1753 B. C., Jacob Gershon is born 1751 the following year, A. D.—twice fifty-two weeks of years or one hundred and four generations afterwards, involving one great cycle of time as to Jacob's Line.

Do you begin to get an inkling of a "Mystery" here, more profound than Babylon, O World! Then take out your "ear-cotton" and we will go on, and say, that from 'Arun, or Haran, son of Surya or Osiris, founder of the kingdom of Asher, 1771 B. C. (marriage), to Napoleon Bonaparte in the following year, 1769 A. D., twice fifty-four generations, or one hundred and eight in the line of the elementary principles, which brings us the Horn of Ganesa, "son of Siva," king-dethroner and annihilator of Papal bulls to say nothing of Dragons and other Apocalyptic monsters!

Colateral with this Line is the most ancient of all, the Chaldean, Waldensian, Valentian, Gaulatian, Goliah-lan, Gaulonite, or Wallace-line, beginning far beyond the records of his history and culminating only in Scotland's champion broad-sword swinger, or if you choose his lineal descendent of just fourteen generations in the maternal line, and could blow a resurrection blast that would make the Prince (?) of Wales wait for the loss of a kingdom he never had and has about as much claim to as the little finger of the last of the descendents of the Tudors of York and Lancaster! — But I am writing History now, not raising the Dead,— unless he considers the Collateral of William and Mary as dead which all his Jesuitical counsellors will hardly be able to reason into him! He's not a very bright youth, he ain't! But perhaps he is hard of hearin' or heard of Haron! and the proposed Transit of Hermes!

Is "Ancestry" my "hobby" think you? Well then, I'll ride it across the sea! and when I wear my Ancestral Crown on some bright Millennial morning I will begin to complete this "Gilpin's ride" through the confusion of names and "tongues" with which the Speech of the Earth is infected to the corruption of morals, of doctrines, of history, of genealogy, of race, of caste, of blood, of ANCESTRY, and in consequence of everything that pertains to the welfare and harmonious development of the Human Race!

Hi! there! my Pegasus! (pege') Grk., or "Peggy" or Mare, "sea" or Mary, and hence the whole story of the Roman Mother and the Doge of Venice, or Venus, "marrying the Sea," and of other still more venerable customs of which the Winged-Horse is but the Celestial prototype and the personation of a principle in Nature and Man which ceases not to act but with the end of Time!

What a wonderful Language we have anyway! exactly correspondent to the Celestial Signs and Constellations under which it was developed, permeating like the liquid ether of Inspiration through Nature's thousand-stringed and tuneful voice by which as a creative power all things on earth are made according to their pattern in the heavens, and no chord or syllable is lost to all Eternity, but swells on in its fulness and grandeur as the "Word" of God until the "fulness of times" when Heaven, and Earth, and Sea are filled with the wonders of his name and the glories of his power.

Hi! there! my Pegasus! my "hobby!" Speed on! Celestial "White-horse" until the clattering of thy iron hoof on England's shores strikes terror and dismay even where the pall of Death has so lately cast a foreshadowing gloom,—within "Win-ner's!" trembling walls! and the prince of Walks be compelled to nail a horse-shoe over his door as a talisman of safety and to propitiate—not the Horse and his Rider, O no! but the Wrathful Lamb! or Aries, England's "ruling Sign."

ISRAEL MUST RETURN!

If thou understandest not what thou readest then ask thy Neighbor, and if he cannot tell the meaning thereof let him ask his Minister, and let the minister tell it to the Church, and then let the Church invite the Author of the HORNBOOK to tell it to the ministers that the Ministers may tell it to the Congregation and the Congregation tell it to their neighbors, and thus the inquiring mind be satisfied.

THE NATIVITY.

Did I understand you to say that you had never heard of "Hornhome?" O World! Well, perhaps it is because of thy limited education! and will charitably lay it to the account of Mother Earth! But, Come, now! You have lost time enough! Open your "Hornbook" on First Page, and follow the Pointer!

"CHURCH IN PHILADELPHIA"

Rev. 3:7.
“CANTERBURY PILGRIMS.”

THIS way! O thou Traveler over Life's dusty Road! This is the Way to the Eternal City! and at one or the other of these “Two-doors” must thou enter, if thou enter at all, into Israel's Rest! “Jachin” and “Boaz” those Pillars of the Ancient Temple now support the Right and Left “wings” of the “Church in Philadelphia” first and principal of all the Seven, and flourishing now into a glorious immortality! Gather here, O Israel, at this the advent of thy Fiftieth Jubilee, fifty-times-fifty years from the Captivity! That is a long time to wait for thy redemption from spiritual bondage! but it has come at last! Return ye now to a New Jerusalem, O ye Dispersed of Israel! Are Judea's arid plains and sun-scorched hills a more inviting prospect than the undulating vales of green Old England! Has not Palestine itself shifted westward with the Precession of the Equinoxes, and the Star which guided the Magi two thousand years ago to the secluded Nativity of the “Horn-Child” now rests serenely in the Zenith of our Western World! Be quiet Wester-veldt, I am not ready yet to deal with the awful mystery of thy incarceration: but one would think the blood of the Ross-horn would not only “wash away” the guilt of the parents, and all those concerned in the secret propagation of the Red-Line Stuart Pretendership which by some strange fatality has had seven heads cut off in as many hundred years since Baliol or Balliol, foe of Bruce and Wallace, from being the King's scullion was made a Chief Stuard of the realm of Scotland, but would throw open the prison-doors of Moyamensing and set free the unfortunate partner in a perfidious plot! It is but fitting that the Reign of Mystery and the Scarlet Woman should close its career of blood and Superstition and Sorcery by another Mystery (?) of a Bethlehem Baby-lon concocted full five years too soon to mark the birth of the New Era in 1881, just as that other grandest farce ever produced on this stage of action was enacted precisely the same length of time before the beginning of a former New Era when John the Nazarene “began to be about thirty years of age” and mighty works began to show forth them-
Now that the time has come for the Christ and the Anti-Christ to contend again for the throne of their ancestors, God and the Devil, the Minister-General will just call out a few detachments of Hornhome troops who may be reconnoitering the Field of Armageddon while the idolizers of the "Stuart Preten-der" and his bastard issue throng in babbling crowds to the cry of "Wha'll be King but Charlie?" only to be swept from the field by the truer hearts and stronger arms which rally to the border-slogan of "Scots wha hae wi' Wallace bled!"

Napoleon to the RIGHT! Bear up the Charlemagne Crown of Orange! Wallace to the LEFT! Support the Son of David, and Scotia's Ancestral Kingly Line! There! The Crown of England, the Great Koh-i Nor Diamond in London Tower, (or the "white-stone" of Revelations) and the Redemption of Israel is the Prize!

PREPARE FOR THE ONSET!

"The Kings of the Earth set themselves, and the Rulers take counsel together against the Lord, and against his Anointed!"

Then sound the Marsellaise until that great intervening Jordan shall hiss with the blood of Israel's accursed foes; for more Kings have been dethroned at that Battle Hymn of the martial hosts of Heaven than by any other cry that ever rent the em-pyrean vault since the "Uu-la-la! la-la!" Vi-cu-la, or Wallace! war-whoop of the Spartans strewed many a Marathon with the trophies of Victory and Death!

But halt—STAND!

THE ARGUMENT!

"Peradventure there be but one righteous person among all these faithless Stuarts! wilt thou destroy the City for lack of more?" (Gen. 18:32.) The Father of Nations pleads.

Angry Son.—"I am not come to send Peace on earth but a Sword!"

The Father.—"But the Heathen are thine inheritance, and the uttermost parts of the Earth thy possession."

52
Son. But their cry is "This is the heir, Come, let us kill him and the Vineyard shall be ours!"

The Spirit. (Admonitory,) "Kiss the Son lest he be angry and ye perish from the way when his anger is kindled but a little.")

Father. "Behold the Tabernacle of God is with men." And as for this "Eleazar of Damascus" called "mine heir" he shall no longer be Steward of mine house!

Son. Ah! the doom of the Stewart Line so long ago as that! Surely, Creation must be a stupendous joke! Let us return to Pre-Adamite principles? Creation is much older than is commonly supposed! Is it not?

Father. Not so old by half since in Abraham was created a "world from nothing" and Isaac or "laughter" was the promise that by this "stupendous joke" "all the Nations of the Earth should be blessed!"

Son. And Esau or "anger" or Adam was an afterthought of God's, and no part of the original Divine Plan?

Father. It need not to have been but was.

Son. Then we had need to go still farther back than Adam, or than "Father Abraham" for the cause of Sin or the origin of Evil in the world?

Father. You need go no farther than your own individual life to solve the "Mystery" that has draped the world with sin and woe.

Son. I had nothing to do with the Ross-Mystery.

Father. You founded the line of the Pretender by an illicit connection with the Daughters of Men.

Son. As whom?

Father. As Joseph—when in Egypt you married Aseaath, a daughter of Potiphera, priest of On, instead of seeking for thy ancestral spirit among thy Haran kindred.

Joseph. As Egypt still represents the "world" and I the spirit of Man in bondage thereto,— Father. —You would perpetuate that bondage by another marriage with a daughter of the King's Stuart!

Joseph. But I am still in Egypt—or in bondage to the flesh!

Father. "Out of Egypt have I called my Son!"

Joseph. That saying is applied by the Babylonians to Joseph the Carpenter's son!

Melchizedek. But was rather intended for you as the Carpenter's son Joseph at his final appearing.

John. That is still my father's profession though by birthright Lord of the Isles of Bute and Ha-ran.

Melchizedek. And would have been King of Free Scotland in the right of his wife had it not been for an illicit blending of the rising line of Wallace with that of Stuart through the Earls of Ross and Mar.

Angry SON.—Then Hel-en Mar has marred my genealogy like HELL!?

"Maleom-of-Zadok." Patience! My Son! the Curse is out!

Earl David's-Son of Huntingdon.—Yes "out" on dress parade! in the vain confidence of an Armageddon Victory!

Maleom. That is Apollyon's way—a blustering braggadocio to frighten tender-hearted saints into the idea that the sword of Amalek still guards the exit from the Wilderness, and that their promised inheritance is about to be trodden under foot!

Crown Prince of Goshen. Is that the language of the Prince of Wales!

Maleom-Zedek. If he were capable of speaking it.

Shiloh. But "it would be a pity" to dethrone Hohenzollern?

St. George. Not if you will exalt Hesse-Casshel!

Shiloh. Ah! My Rhineland Princess! Wohl-geborn?

George I. Yes!—well-born but not — Wolbert!

Poor Artist. Not my 'ittie 'illie 'olbie! with the Auburn hair and German lisp?
George II. Not your "little" Lillie Wolbert—you made her so proud of her expected Coronet that she wouldn't speak to you till you should be King of England!

Crown Prince. That didn't hurry me any! for I only took a three years vacation and then didn't return to her!

George III. You always had exalted ideas of retributive justice, but what will you do if Rachel should be restored to you after you have espoused Leah?

Jacob. I shall take both! as formerly and thus fulfill my destiny as the Father of Israel!

George the Last. Then you are no longer the Son when all crowns and kingdoms are subject to the one Central throne of England, as a thousand years ago prefigured in the Saxon Heptarchy when the Seven kingdoms of Salem’s Seventh Son were united under the sceptre of the Ephraimite, that around that standard of the Son of Joseph might gather for a thousand years longer the Dispersed of Israel in anticipation of the "fulness of times" when the prophetic Shiloh should break the bonds of his long imprisonment in kingly genealogies and speak the Word as one having authority and not as the Scribes!

Then Disperse! Ye Rebels against the Divine Law of Love and Harmony! we'll have no Armageddon!—but will inaugurate Earth’s Great Peace Jubilee, or the Seventh Millennial nuptials of Har-anos and Geesh ('ouranos and ges) or the New Heavens and the New Earth in Jeshurun, by one of Nature’s touches "which makes the whole world kin" on the Fourteenth Day of the First Month (February) still presided over by the patron saint of Valentia or Wales, or David’s Son St. Wallace, since now “the child is father of the man" in a different sense from what is commonly understood, and from being Crown Prince of Wallace now becomes Regent of the dominions of his father David, and with his chosen one is his own Father and his own Son, For

OF HEAVEN (Hauran) ARE WE!

O Earth! (Gos)

And this
Marriage of Earth and Heaven once solemnized by the Sun and Moon at the Old Old Mohegan Home at Goshen in the Connecticut Valley in the days of the Pre-Diluvian Israel now manifests the perpetual re-generation of the Son-of-the-Sun, Creation's ever-recurring New-Birth in the two-fold unity of the Divine Humanity of the Son of Man!

Note, O World! that in our voyaging through space we have struck the Arc of Cephas and the boundaries of Taurus, or Terra (Earth) or the "House of Joseph" from whence is the Shepherd the New White Stone of Israel." Gen. 49:24, Rev. 2:17.

Study Astronomy and your Bibles will be more serviceable.

But here comes my Steward Princess, the Elect Xandrina (Alexandrina) Scotia's Russian Princess! hidden near the later ancestral home of the Horn-child at Arnheim on the Rhine, and without preadventure that only one for whose sake I will not destroy the whole Stuard line, but all their crimes shall be remitted to them for her sake and only at the cost of a pilgrimage to her Canterbury Shrine! Enough of the Stuart blood has been shed in the oft-repeated but vain attempt to place the Pretender upon the throne to wash away their own sins, and that category is as long as the Line itself and as varied as the multitudinous family names that would still rally at the elevation of the standard of that heir-less Cause now mute forever in the inglorious dust! The head of the "Chief-Baker" has again been lifted from the shoulders of his son! and the "Chief-Butler" is again restored to his Steward-ship of the King's household in the person of his Elizabethan daughter,—and the divining-cup of Joseph is as reliable as ever!

I'm through! O World! Never mind how I got here, or if curious consult Pythagoras on re-incarnation, or Plato on the New-Birth of the Soul, or John on the Resurrection of the Body and the Advent of Rabbi Ben Israel. HERE I AM! "in the clouds?" as the Babylonians are probably asking,—yes, in the clouds! Oh ye Christianized Worldlings, unless you see me a great deal more plainly than I think you do! What matters it whether I come down from Hell, or UP from Heaven! I've been through BOTH! "Out of Egypt have I called my Son," that is, my inner or spiritual self. Joseph is his own father, and when you solve the Sphynx Riddle of how

I and my Father are my brother's Son,

Then will you know how we three are one!

Brother David, you're a "brick!" I believe that is what they called Laban, according to the Bible Dictionaries at all events! Then, since thou art my son! ("this day have I begotten thee") ("For if thou call'st me Lord, how then am I thy son?") then will "I give thee England for thine inheritance, and the uttermost parts of the Earth for thy possession!" Am I not still the younger son, from everlasting to everlasting the Immortal Youth, without father or mother in the spiritual sense, and him whose genealogy is not counted from Abraham, nor yet from Adam, and of what avail to me are all the honors and titles of this world which now as in the beginning I have only made out for the encouragement of my earth-born son or older brother, whether as Cain, or King, or Esau, Earth, or David, still improving at every new incarnation as the earth-man into a better disposition towards thy younger or spiritual brother, who now as the latest born and more enduring as Joseph the fruitful bough becomes the Lord and Giver of Life to new scions and their parent stem! and as from him was to come forth "the Shepherd the Stone of Israel" it is easy to be seen how I might still deprive Edom of his birth-right by a marriage with the two Princesses, daughters of Laban or Haran, offshoots of my ancient elder-brother's line, and again become my brother's father, with the three crowns of England all my own! And Jacob will probably marry!

Are we verging on mysteries, O World? Well then perhaps I had better stop! lest I may be misunderstood! and take more time and leisure as King of England to interpret the meaning of those Six Books which I wrote while in Egypt, and only stopped short because the world's Seventh Millenary, or the time for the breaking of the Seventh Seal by the Seventh Son of David who was the Seventh Son of Jesse, or Geshe, of Haran, had not yet arrived, and the consequent difficulty of the Son of the Sun's explaining how as Horan of Geshe or the Horn of David he came to be his own and elder-brother's father was doubly enhanced!

But I was going to England with my three crowns! Shall I go? Sir Thomas Carlyle, you have been awaiting me long, and you are the only man in England fitted either by birth or education to confer the Crown: Like Samuel of old prepare for the anointing of my little David, first-born because the last-born and at present attending his pastoral flocks in the fertile meadow lands of Western Virginia, all unconscious of the crown of Charlemagne now a thousand years maturing for his brow, and Carl-isle, the prophetic man, shall be his Lord-Keeper of the Privy Seal! Never mind the ignoble "Nobility" of England, their titles won't wash! and they are sadly in need of it! O that the Gulf-Stream, that silent Minister of the Almighty Will, would vicariously atone for England's regicidal sins, and, from creeping gently around her sinking shores, heed the Galactic Jordan-swell and give that old Atlantean Isle another gentle "swash!"

But, Brother! you have come to see me go! That's nobly done, and like a noble brother! You wait the parting word, the last Adieu! The "All-aboard!" has sounded from the Zion Ship. I go! What! Thou David-born, and named, and thus resign a crown? Ay, worthy thou of son-ship now: "This day have I begotten thee!"

My Son or brother David! was it not written: Ephraim shall not envy Judah, and Judah shall not vex Ephraim? then is that this day fulfilled. "King Orion's" Starry Realms should be enough for me,—but what does Jacob say! "The Sceptre shall not depart from Judah nor a Law-Giver from between his feet, till Shiloh come!" Shiloh has come! but I'll improve on Jacob and will not supplant my brother! Earth's sceptre's Judah's still! Here! Take it! brother, for to rule is weariness to me! But since the Gulf-Stream's old-time Atlantean swell now Eastward rolls we'll just stay on this side of the water and let Old England take another plunge! * * *
THE NEW HEAVENS AND THE NEW EARTH!

THE NEW ATLANTIS.

Submerged 8000—4000, A. M. Restored—at the same rate of speed that England is sinking year by year!

Discovered by the Northmen (Returning Atlantides) about 800, A. D. Re-discovered by Columbus 1492.

Its Central Province Chartered by Penn, March 4th 1681. Bi-Centenary, or Penn-Jubilee Inauguration, March 4th, 1881.

Behold! "I am ready to be offered," but not to the Presidency! I'll improve on Dr. Watts:

Judah shall reign where'er the Son
Does his successful journey run,
His kingdom stretch from shore to shore
Till Norman brats* shall vex no more!

To Ephraim let your prayers be made!
Let "Fox-tail" trophies crown his head,—
'Tis Joseph's son that dies for thee!
And hunts the dam Norway rat from sea to sea!

There! O World! Shall I "punch him" now! Or what is the use of "plugging" the Old Ship of Zion for another voyage if that dam "varmint" is to be left inside? Paul him out there, that corrupter of New Testament Theology and still alive in the descendants of that "queer" old bachelor! What a "funny" world this is anyway when a P(a)ul-in-e "ubiqui-tress" enters one of the very largest mercantile establishments in Our City,

* For more complete understanding of these allusions, See further "Hints," etc.
armed with "Inhalers" (in-hell-ers) for both ends, and acts as procurress (for a certain nameless physician) among the many unsuspecting damsels domiciliated there! and with the purpose (as fast as they are successfully treated and demoralized by these two twin-medical vampires) of replenishing therewith the depleted ranks of Shakerism! There! O World! Ephraim is a little out of breath with that hunt but he'll shake her for all that, "the varmint!" until her "spirit-children" will still more than usual hardly recognize their quon-dam mother!

But since we have very little time to deal with the Paul Prys of Society, and the work of "the Ephraimites" among the "small fry" of Paul the "little," or Saul (sheol) "hell" draws near its close I would simply remark to those who may as yet be unacquainted with the origin and fatal significance of certain family-names, the family traits of those who perpetuate their name in the world by what they choose to term "spiritual-children" are as ineradicable now in certain characters who continue to call forth that cry from Heaven of the vilified and outraged Nazarene: "Paul! Fool! Why persecutest thou Me?

'Tis hard to kick against the pricks!

Because you have no prong!

Then let Adonai alone, with his loves! He knows your infirmity, and when you submit yourself to the great Soul-Physician he will cure it and then at some future time it may find a body more suitable through which to perform its functions. But do not attempt to pass from the Gentile division of the Benjamite family to the right-hand inheritance of that other branch, whose name and deeds of course show them, wherever found, as worthy their inheritance among the other members of the great Family of Israel. There is the bar sinister and it is impassible, and all the Jeshurun blood shed by Paul the Benjamite and his great prototype Saul the Benjamite, the persecutor of David, cannot wash out the guilt of those "left-handed slingers of Benjamin" who to this day persecute because they cannot rule the "children of light," nor use the "divining-cup" of Joseph the Hebrew which was found in "Benjamin's sack" without in their ignorance and spiritual witch-craftiness degenerating into all the Fox-y delusions of Modern-Quake-Shakerism!

Then do not think to pass that left bar to the Kingdom of Light and Honor without submitting like the original Paul to be purged by lightning from moral and physical impurity as the laws of regeneration require before you can even be considered immortal much less as fit to take your seat at the right hand or among the Nobility of the New Israel. And such regeneration would require an Age at least to accomplish!

Speaking of Shakers reminds me of Shak-spear, and Shakspeare reminds me of a fool, and a Fool reminds me of Solomon! another Benjamine Franklin who stole “fire from Heaven” in the wisdom of Haran King of Tyre, as Shakspeare bottled Lord Bacon’s Wisdom of the Ancients, or as Granny Franklin ketch’t lightnin’ to every school-boy’s eulogistic astonishment ever since, an innocent pastime of the Great Juggler compared with his jug-ging the Wisdom of Mother Goose, or scribbling libels on William Penn, or fielching away the property of his heirs, or even “coming back” as the Father of Modern Spiritualism and whispering through the white lips of the Fox-Girls that rallying name of hope for all the Luciferians in Hell, Charles B. Ross-ma! the very name of Captain Kid-nab’s Philadelphia Prince—the last lorn hope of the Belial Pretender—the last wailing note of the Dead March in Saul!

Now Judah, if you think you can keep the “little Foxes” and other “varmint” “which spoil the vines” out of your dominions, Ephraim will put up his shootin’-stick for awhile, nor will the little Sham-son tie any more of their tails together as he did those twin-physicians’ (male and female tied he them) and set them loose to spread consternation among the Paulists whose goings forth are from Vindant to the uttermost parts of the earth!

And thou, too, O world, when thou wouldst be reminded of how long and faithfully the Eternal Fool has reigned under the Son, and been considered wise, read the proverbs of Solomon, the puerilities of Socrates, the twaddling rhymes of Lord Bacon’s footman, the insipid plagiarisms of Benjamin Franklin, and then to conclude all, turn to that last effort of his even from Limbo to “reform the world” the result of which is feelingly expressed in the following

After a lingering illness contracted from EXPOSURE of “Kat- tic King” at the “funeral” of that hope of the Lewis-fers, Chas. B. Ross-ester, in that dreary winter (for fraudulent practices) of ’74.

And though ceaselessly prating of Immortality, now to be buried beyond the hope of a Resurrection!

Friends, Relatives, and Dupes, to the extent of one-third of the human race (Rev. 12:4) are requested to meet at the late residence of the deceased (so-called “Washington Family”) 15th and Oxford—whereto the astonishment of all “ginooinsinternational investigators” it will be buried secretly in here ends the Tail of the Dragon which "drew down the third part of the stars of heaven and cast them to the earth," whose Body is in England, whose Heart is in Rome, and whose Head is in Babylon, where by the "Confusion of Tongues" or the corrupting of language, it gained an ascendancy over the pure principles of the Hermetic Philosophy, which from the time of Joseph the Hebrew until the Decline in Solomon had filled Egypt with its Monuments, Tyre or Troy with its Splendors, and Jerusalem with the dying effulgence of PERSIA's Ancestral, Celestial, Har- arian Fires! which were kindled by "Adon" ere Adam had a name, whose Fall is now redeemed by this "wounding" of the Head of the dragon which the Unsealing of the NEXT of the Hermetic Books will knock all to damn smash!

I, the Shiloh-Man, was King of Israel in the Ancient City of Phylae, before there was any King of the Jews at Jebus, and instead of penning "wise sayings" or Proverbs that no sensible person can understand, or that a Fool might understand without being told, I set myself vigorously to work to solve the mystery of Human existence, and then afterwards to destroy the mischief-makers of Society which undermine the peace and prosperity of the New Salem, by a prolonged siege of "hunting-and-trapping" that with the exception of the Labors of Hercules, has perhaps been unparalleled in the History of Man!

And I said to my Heart, Behold I have already seen many days in which there has been naught but vanity and vexation of spirit: for thou seest that "but one thing happeneth to the wise man and the fool" except that the days of the fool are prolonged to an unreasonable length, while the wise man is as often "taken from the evil that is to be" much sooner than he cares to be relieved from that gloomy prospect.

And my Heart said, Get wisdom and seek after understanding, and that which thou now considerest as a gross perversion of justice will in the end be deemed by you to be the sublimest "joke" ever perpetrated by the Creator upon suffering Humanity.

And I did so, and we explained it together in this way, that the worst and the best of Life consisted in this,

"That the fools and wicked, with their master Satan, do confidently hope that in the End of the conflict for the dominion of the world that they will be successful, and at the last to find themselves overthrown with an everlasting and inglorious defeat.

"While on the other hand, the wise and good of all times and ages have been in constant dread of annihilation by the Powers of Darkness, yet in reality have been victorious at every point, and in the End have worsted the Devil beyond their most sanguinary expectations."
And I said, As this is so, and I have lived to see it! I will say no more about "vanity and vexation of spirit" unless forsooth it is to be made out that "there is no Hell" for those wolfish Benjamites and others to go to, and then will the Heart of the "poor Ephraimitic" Preacher be oppressed indeed! For though Beecher, the Bachrite, another son of Benjamin may be excused for declaring when he touched bottom that there was no hell there! yet the afterclap might have revealed even to one of his experience that stolen lightning burns at last!

And I said to my Heart of this Great Preacher, or Son of Solomon, that I did not think he was such a fool! For as the "son of the right hand" I had built great expectations upon him. But as the "son of" the right hand according to the system of Hermes always goes to the left, so Beecher has been true to his destiny as the Bacch-ite, the King's Chief-Butler, Cup-bearer or Steward, and who has this one redeeming quality above all the other Benjamites herein alluded to, that he does his own thinking and does not live by filching other peoples' brains!

Then, be a faithful steward of the mysteries which are shortly to be revealed unto thee, but to which thou wast not born, or you never would have cursed your little Ham-son (by calling him a "Boston-mulatto" or something,) just because he was white enough to expose the miscegenation practices in the tent of Noah, which Shem and Jap. tried to cover with a blanket. I appeal from Bacchus drunk to Bacchus sober: which was the most worthy of your indiscriminate vituperation?

Then we will dispense with the drinking-cup, and with the butler of course, lest the "spiritual manifestations" which it produces among congregations sacramentally as well as in private circles may beget another spawn of the Lernean Hydra like that which so recently begrimed the waters of regeneration that the Stuard Princess Xandro-medea could scarcely pass the T. Benjamin Wat(ch)ford with her Persens deliverer without being besmirched with his maudlin—clash!

And moreover, I said to my heart, the Harp of Troy, or Tara, has long been mute, since in the Halls of Terah, before Abraham was, we touched its chords of a thousand songs to the Eolian strains of a far-off Celestial Harmony: can we not together from our mutual consciousness restore a few of these lost notes of the world’s forgotten melodies, and have them lispèd to the Transit Scale wherever the English Language is spoken, while the walls of that Temple which was made without hands again shall rise with the submerged Atlanta, and from this Sunset Land evolve the New-World of Letters and of Song! And my Heart said, Yes! your head is for thought, and your heart is for song and now that Aries and Leo approach their final and harmonious conjunction the key-note of the New Song of Moses (?) and the Lamb has been struck to-day (St. Valentine’s) for the first time since “the morning stars sang together and all the Sons of God shouted for joy!” Yes, said I, and the “bones of Joseph,” with the buried Wisdom of Hermes, shall be together “carried up out of Egypt” at this the 99th 33 year Transit of Mercury since the Exodus, and the 70 years till 1879, and from the elevation under Alexander 333 B.C. the 66th (Transit) and from the first opening up of the Foreshadowed Land of Joseph’s Dream by the Norse discoverers of this Western Land of Promise, the 33rd! that last turn of the “wheel” of human destiny, the loosening of the “silver cord” and the breaking of the “golden bowl,” when all life shall return to him who gave it, as one Transit of Mercury as the Lord and Giver of Life just precisely compasses one generation of men, and as one generation cometh another goeth, and as Israel returns to her pre-diluvian habitation the lips of the Preacher pronounce that watchword of the New Era which was death for a Roman Citizen to utter:

“VALENTIA!”

For the conclusion of this work refer to the Introduction, and from the introduction again to the Conclusion: For the NEW TIARA is the Tarot solved, and “Truth’s” beginning is the end of MYSTERY!

RETURN! RETURN! RETURN!
O ISRAEL, RETURN!
