AND

SIMULTANEOUSLY WITNESSED BY THE AUTHOR AND OTHER OBSERVERS IN LONDON.

BY WILLIAM H. HARRISON.

Limp cloth, red edges, price 1s. ; post-free, 1s. 1d.

OPINIONS OF THE PRESS.

"As a dispassionate scientific man, he appears to have investigated the subject without preconceived ideas, and the result of his examination has been to identify his opinions with those of Messrs. Varley, Crookes, and Wallace, in favour not only of the absolute reality of the phenomena, but also of the genuineness of the communications alleged to be given by the spirits of the departed."—Public Opinion.

"At the outset of his booklet Mr. Harrison disclaims any intention of proselytising or forcing his opinion down non-Spiritualistic throats, and it is only fair to admit that the succeeding pages are remarkably free from argument and deduction, albeit bristling with assertions of the most dumbfounding nature."—London Figaro.

"He neither theorises nor dogmatises, nor attempts to make converts to his views. He states occurrences and events, or what he believes did really happen, in a remarkably clear and narrative style, without any attempt at advocacy or argument."—South Wales Daily News.

OPINIONS OF THE PRESS.

From the Morning Post.

The Morning Post, which strongly recommends the book in a review nearly a column long, says:—"Comic literature which honestly deserves the epithet seems to be rapidly becoming a thing of the past; consequently any writer who, like Mr. Harrison, exhibits a genuine vein of humour, deserves the praise of all who are not too stupid to enjoy an innocent laugh. Not that his muse restricts herself only to such lighter utterances; on the contrary, some of his poems touch on the deepest and most sacred feelings of our common humanity. . . . The unfortunate Hadji's narrative of his adventures amongst the magicians of Whitechapel is quite one of the funniest things that has been published for years. . . . The book contains quite enough to insure it a welcome from which its tasteful appearance will not detract." The Morning Post says of the "Wobblejaw Ballads":—"No one can help laughing at them."

From the Court Journal.

"All are of marked ability. . . . Occasionally we find verse of great beauty, showing that the author possesses the pure poetic gift."

From the Graphic.

"Those who can appreciate genuine, unforced humour should not fail to read 'The Lazy Lays and Prose Imaginings.' Written, printed, published, and reviewed by William H. Harrison (38 Great Russell Street). Both the verses and the short essays are really funny, and in some of the latter there is a vein of genial satire which adds piquancy to the fun."

From Public Opinion.

"A volume of remarkably good verse. . . . Some of the metrical legends remind us of the wild chants that used to be sung at the meetings of the Cannibal Club, some ten or fifteen years ago. Mr. Harrison, however, knows where to plant his fun; and an accurate scientific mind like his can make jokes with success. . . . To all who wish to read a pleasant volume magnificently got up as a gift-book, we commend 'The Lazy Lays.'"

From the Bookseller.

"An odd but most entertaining assortment of quaint and humorous fancies, some in verse and others in prose, and all written with a fluent and not ungraceful pen. The vein of humour which permeates them is genuine, rich, and original, and not at all ill-natured."

From Nature.

"Scientific men and matters are in one or two cases alluded to, and the impression bears that the work is published 'A.D. 1877 (popular chronology); A.M. 5877 (Torquemada); A.H. 50,800,077 (Huxley).' We believe that our readers may derive a little amusement from a perusal of the volume."

From the British Journal of Photography.

"'The Lazy Lays' include many admirable pieces, some of which are in verse and others in prose, some scientific, others social, but all of them excellent. . . . 'The Lazy Lays' will make excellent and amusing reading for an occasional spare half-hour. . . . They contain nothing unrefined or in bad taste."

From the Dublin University Magazine.

"How Hadji Al Shacabac, an amiable Turk, was photographed, is well done. . . . Bound in a cover of somewhat powerful design."

From the Photographic News.

"Mr. W. H. Harrison, a gentleman whose name is familiar in connection with photographic and other scientific literature, has considerable facility of versification, and deals, in pleasant and humorous mood, with many scientific follies which are better laughed down than gravely disputed."

From the Scotsman.

"In Mr. W. H. Harrison's 'Lazy Lays and Prose Imaginings' there is a good deal of broad humour and satiric power, with a due foundation of solid sense."

[ADVERTISEMENTS.]
W. H. HARRISON'S PUBLICATIONS.

From the Bradford Daily Chronicle.

"Good poetical diction is displayed. Mr. Harrison has produced a most welcome book. . . . 'How Hadji Al Shacabac was Photographed' will be sure to make every reader roar with laughter."

From the Dundee Daily Advertiser.

"With such a free and easy author it is naturally to be expected that his subjects should bear some trace of this peculiar idiosyncrasy; and indeed they are as free and easy as himself. . . . The poems are all characterised by smoothness and rhythmical swing. . . . The work is very elaborately bound in cloth and gilt. . . . A gorgeous design upon the cover. . . . If our readers wish to encourage laziness, they have a most deserving object in a very clever and versatile member of the order."

From the Liverpool Daily Courier.

"In his handsomely-bound and griffin-guarded 'Lazy Lays,' Mr. William H. Harrison provides a gift-book elegant in its appearance and entertaining in its contents. . . . The author is imbued with the true spirit of humour, and amuses all while offending none."

From the Western Daily Press (Bristol).

"A volume from the versatile pen of Mr. W. H. Harrison, a well-known contributor to the London and provincial press, and editor of the Spiritualist. . . . Many of the humorous poems remind us of the 'Ingoldsby Legends,' 'The Lay of the Photographer,' 'The Lay of the Macebearers,' and some of 'The Wobblejaw Ballads' would not have been unworthy of Barham himself. Some of the shorter poems are exquisite, and there pervade the whole a religious sentiment and poetic feeling which will make them acceptable to most readers."

From the daily Northern Whig (Belfast).

"The finest thing in the book is 'How Hadji Al Shacabac was Photographed.' It is an admirable addition to our not too extensive comic literature. The story is one of which extracts could not give an adequate idea; it is intensely humorous. . . . Those who wish to obtain a handsome gift-book of an amusing nature will find what they want in 'The Lazy Lays.'"

From the Kensington News.

"It is after the manner of Barham, Hood, Mark Twain, or any of those merry souls who do quite as much good in their day and generation as the authors of the most serious works."

From the Malvern News.

"It is in itself a work of itself—original, and a cast of its author's mind. It is a work of great power and beauty; full of lively imaginings and bold outspoken thoughts, abounding in tenderness and pathos; sparkling with wit and humour; and one that may be read many times over. . . . The get-up of the book is very handsome."

From the Folkstone News.

"A number of clever sketches and poems, among the latter being a series of papers entitled 'The Wobblejaw Ballads,' which appeared in the columns of this paper a short time ago, and which created such a furor at the time." [N.B.—An irate member of the Town Council officially called the attention of the Mayor and Corporation of Folkestone to the burlesques in the "Wobblejaw Ballads;" but the members assembled laughed at the matter, and proceeded to the next business. The Mayor said that he did not mind them.] . . . "It contains some very choice poems and prose essays, is bound in cloth richly gilt, and has an original design of no ordinary merit on the cover."
