WORKS BY JOHN S. FARMER.

A New Basis of Belief in Immortality. This book was specially mentioned by Canon B. Wilberforce at the Church Congress. He said :— "The exact position claimed at this moment by the warmest advocates of Spiritualism is set forth ably and eloquently in a work by Mr. J. S. Farmer, published by E. W. Allen, and called 'A New Basis of Belief,' which, without necessarily endorsing, I commend to the perusal of my brethren." Mr. S. C. Hall, F.S.A., and Editor of the Art Journal, says :—"Your book is both useful and interesting; a very serviceable addition to the literature of Spiritualism." "One of the calmest and weightiest arguments, from the Spiritualist's side, ever issued. . . . Those desirous of knowing what can be said on this present-day question, by one of its ablest advocates, cannot do better than procure this volume."—Christian World. "This is an exceedingly thoughtful book; temperate, earnest, and bright with vivid and intelligent love of truth. Mr. Farmer is no fanatic, if we may judge of him by his book, but a brave seeker after the truth. . . . We commend his book to the attention of all who are prepared to give serious attention to a very serious subject."—Truthseeker. "Mr. Farmer writes clearly and forcibly."—Literary World. Printed on Superior Paper, Cloth, Bevelled Edges, with Portrait of Author. Price Three Shillings. Paper, One Shilling.

Hafed Prince of Persia: His Experiences in Earth-Life and Spirit-Life. being Spirit Communications received through Mr. DAVID DUGUID, the Glasgow Trance-Painting Medium. With an Appendix containing Communications from the Spirit Artists, Ruisdal and Steen. Illustrated by many fac-similes of Drawings and Writings, the Direct Work of the Spirits. "'Hafed' is a book that will excite severe criticism and receive great praise. It furnishes intensely interesting reading, and at the same time requires patient and cultured study for its complete understanding. The sceptic will find it a weird and strange story; the Spiritualist will be charmed with its facts and philosophy."—HUDSON TUTTLE in Religio-Philosophical Journal. "We know something of the subjects treated of in this volume, and we know personally David Duguid; and of this fact we are certain, that, unaided by any power outside his own mind, he could no more have answered the questions put to him in the form in which they are answered in this volume than he could have written Bacon's Organon, Newton's Principia, or Shakespeare's Plays. . . . Every Spiritualist who can afford it ought certainly to purchase a copy."—Spiritual Magazine. The evening oration was entitled "What is Death?" given by Mrs. Nosworthy in that literary, poetical, and dramatic style which has long made her one of the most famous elocutionists in the kingdom; and the various quotations from "Hafed" on that important subject, proved a source of intense delight to the audience, as well as demonstrating that beautiful and charming work to be one of the greatest treasures yet vouchsafed to humanity. The subject-matter of Mrs. Nosworthy's lectures on Spiritualism is both original and select. Especially attractive are the quotations from "Hafed." In fact she has done much to make this truly charming book a universal favourite in Liverpool, Birkenhead, Rochdale, Southport, and other towns, from whence visitors have come to hear its beautiful teaching, elegant composition, and spiritual dignity publicly set forth with historical grace and dramatic splendour.—Medium.

Genesis: The Miracles and Predictions according to Spiritism. By ALLAN KARDEC, author of "The Spirits' Book," "Book on Mediums," and "Heaven and Hell." The object of this book is the study of three subjects—Genesis, Miracles, and Prophecies—and the work presents the highest teachings thereon received during a period of several years by its eminent author through the mediumship of a large number of the very best French and other mediums. The books of ALLAN KARDEC upon Spiritualism attained an immense circulation throughout France, and were received with great favour by all classes. In this work, here for the first time presented in English, it is conceded by everyone he has far surpassed all his previous efforts, and effectually cleared up the mystery which has long enshrouded the history of the progress of the human spirit. The ground taken throughout is consistent, logical, and sublime; the ideas of Deity, human free agency, instinct, spirit-communion, and many other equally profound and perplexing subjects incomparably grand. The iconoclasm of KARDEC is reverential; his radicalism constructive, and his idea of the divine plan of nature a perfect reconciliation of scientific with religious truth; while his explanation of miracles and prophecy in harmony with the immutable laws of nature carries with it the unmistakable impress of an unusually exalted inspiration. Whatever view may be taken of the author's conclusions, no one can deny the force of his arguments, or fail to admire the sublimity of a mind devoting itself through the best years of an earthly existence to intercourse with the denizens of the spirit-world, and to the presentation of the teachings thus received to the comprehensions of all classes of readers. The book will be hailed by all Spiritualists, and by those as well who, having no belief in Spiritualism, are willing to consider its claims and to read what may be said in support of their truth, as a valuable addition to a literature that embraces the philosophies of two worlds, and recognises the continuity of this life in another and higher form of existence. It would be an excellent text-book for societies to read at meetings gathered for mutual instruction. I have always regretted that such meetings are not more widely held, that there is not an attempt to study the philosophy of the subject, more mutual counsel and interchange of thought among us. A suggestive work of this kind read aloud, and criticised by those who are capable of so doing, or commented on by those who can confirm and elucidate its statements from personal experience, would be extremely useful."—Opinion of "M. A. (Oxon.)" in "Human Nature" for April, 1877.

Scientific Basis of Spiritualism. The author takes the ground that since natural science is concerned with a knowledge of real phenomena, appealing to our sense-perceptions, and which are not only historically imparted, but are directly presented in the irresistible form of daily demonstration to any faithful investigator, therefore Spiritualism is a natural science, and all opposition to it, under the ignorant pretence that it is outside of nature, is unscientific and unphilosophical. All this is clearly shown; and the objections from "scientific," clerical, and literary denouncers of Spiritualism, ever since 1847, are answered with that penetrating force which only arguments, winged with incisive facts, can impart. Startling Facts in Modern Spiritualism, being a Graphic Account of Witches, Wizards, and Witchcraft; Table Tipping, Spirit Rapping, Spirit Speaking, Spirit Telegraphing, and Spirit Materialisations of Spirit Hands, Spirit Heads, Spirit Faces, Spirit Flowers, and every other Spirit Phenomenon that has occurred in Europe and America since the Advent of Modern Spiritualism, March 31st, 1848, to the present time. By Dr. N. B. WOLFE, Cincinnati, Ohio. Revised, enlarged, and appropriately illustrated. The "Startling Facts" recorded in this book are:—I. That there is a Spirit World as real and substantial as the Earth we live on, to which all go who die.—II. That Spiritual Science has discovered elementary laws which enable the inhabitants of the Spirit World to return to earth, to visit, and talk audibly to their friends, and tell of their experiences while dying—their awakening and realisations in the "Summer Land."—III. That the Inhabitants of the Spirit World build cities and beautify residences to please their varied tastes, and, in their spirit homes, remember and speak of their friends still on the earth just as we think and speak of them as they were known to us before they passed away.—IV. That families separated by death are reunited in the Spirit World, where the different members of the "Home Circle," still united in love, manifest the same diversified tastes and inclinations they exhibited while on earth.—V. That earthly riches do not necessarily add to the happiness of the individual in Spirit Life, but on the contrary, if not wisely employed, retard the development of the spirit, and mar its happiness more than abject poverty.—VI. That we are surrounded by spirit friends who are always striving to impress and guide us, that we may avert impending danger and premature death.—VII. That death is an ordinance written in the constitution of all things, and that instead of it being the "King of Terrors" it is an Angel of Peace, an event that ushers us into a higher and happier life than this. With these avowals of its teachings the book stands before the world, asking no favour but a reading—no consideration but the fair judgment of enlightened men and women. As Death is a heritage common alike to King, Pope, Priest, and People, all should be interested in knowing what it portends—of what becomes of us after we die. Those who have tasted death, our spirit friends, answer this great problem in this book of 600 pages. Cloth, 12mo, tinted paper, pp. 488, price 6s. 6d., postage free.
