NAPOLEON'S ORACULUM

AND

DREAM BOOK.

NAPOLEON'S ORACULUM; or, BOOK OF FATE

THE ORACULUM IS GIFTED WITH EVERY REQUISITE VARIETY OF RESPONSE TO THE FOLLOWING QUESTIONS:

1. Shall I obtain my wish? 10. Will the marriage be prosperous?
2. Shall I have success in my undertakings? 11. What sort of a wife or husband, shall I have?
3. Shall I gain or lose in my cause? 12. Will she have a son or daughter?
4. Shall I have to live in foreign parts? 13. Will the patient recover?
5. Will the stranger return? 14. Will the prisoner be released?
6. Shall I recover my property? 15. Shall I be lucky or unlucky?
7. Will my friend be true? 16. What does my dream signify?
8. Shall I have to travel? 9. Does the person love and regard me?
HOW TO WORK THE ORACULUM.

Make marks in four lines, one under another, in the following manner, making more or less in each line, according to your fancy:

\begin{align*}
** & ** & ** & ** & ** & ** & ** & ** & ** & ** \\
** & ** & ** & ** & ** & ** & ** & ** & ** & ** \\
* & * & * & * & * & * & * & * & * & * \\
* & * & * & * & * & * & * & * & * & * \\
\end{align*}

Then reckon the number of marks in each line, and, if it be odd, mark down one dot; if even, two dots. If there be more than nine marks, reckon the surplus ones over that number only, viz.:

The number of marks in the first line of the foregoing are odd; therefore make one mark, thus

In the second, even, so make two, thus

In the third, odd again, make one mark only

In the fourth, even again, two marks

TO OBTAIN THE ANSWER.

You must refer to The Oraculum, at the top of which you will find a row of dots similar to those you have produced, and a column of figures corresponding with those prefixed to the questions; guide your eye down the column at the top of which you find the dots resembling your own, till you come to the letter on a line with the number of the question you are trying, then refer to the page having that letter at the top, and, on a line with the dots which are similar to your own, you will find your answer.

The following are unlucky days, on which none of the questions should be worked, or any enterprise undertaken: Jan. 1, 2, 4, 6, 10, 20, 22; Feb. 6, 17, 28; March 24, 26; April 10, 27, 28; May 7, 8; June 27; July 17, 21; Aug. 20, 22; Sept. 5, 30; Oct. 6; Nov. 3, 29; Dec. 6, 10, 15.

* * It is not right to try a question twice in one day.

</table>
THE TRUE MEANING OF DREAMS.

ACQUAINTANCE. To dream that you fight with them, signifies distraction, especially if the person so dreaming be sick.

ADULTERY. To dream of the commission of this sin forebodes great troubles and misfortunes—if you are in love, you will certainly fail in marrying the object of your wishes—if you have a law-suit, it will certainly go against you, by the treachery of those who pretended to be your friends—if you are in business, some heavy loss will happen to you. Such a dream announces that you are in great danger of losing your liberty—and if you are about to take a voyage by sea, omit it for the present, for you will never reach the destined port. To dream you were tempted to commit this crime, and that you resisted it, is a happy omen—everything will flourish with you—be sure it is a good time to begin trade after such a dream. If you have a law-suit all will go in your favor, with credit to yourself and confusion in your opponents; if you are about to undertake a long journey, it will be pleasant and successful to your object; if you are going to sea you will have an agreeable voyage, fine weather, and a quick arrival at the port of destination; if you are in love, press the object of your wishes, for they will be gratified.

ALMS. To dream that they are begged of you, and you deny to give them, shows want and misery to the dreamer; but to dream that you give them freely, is a sign of great joy, and of long life to the dreamer.

ALTAR. To dream you see an altar, signifies consolation and joy. To adorn an altar is a sign of a speedy marriage.

ANCHOR. To dream you see one, signifies great assurance and certain hope.

ANGER. To dream that you have been provoked to anger, shows that you have many powerful enemies.

ANTS. To dream of them, betokens an earthly, covetous mind; and, as they live under the earth, to dream often of them, shows the dreamer not to be long lived. To see ants with wings, shows a dangerous voyage, or other ill accident. To dream you see common ants, which are diligent and industrious in providing their food, is good for farmers, because they signify fertility; for where there is no grain, you will find no ants. To such as live upon the public, and reap profits by many, they are very good; and to such as are sick, if they dream they come near the body; for they are industrious, and cease not to labor, which is proper to such as live; but if they dream that ants range about their bodies, it is a token of death; because they are inhabitants of earth, and are cold and black.

Angels. To dream you see angels in your sleep, is a sure sign that some one is near you; therefore be mindful of the rest of your dream, for it will come to pass pretty accurately; should you only dream you see nothing but an angel, or angels, then it denotes health, prosperity, and much happiness, with many children, who will all turn out good. If a woman with child dreams of them, she will have a good time, and perhaps twins; if you are in love, nothing can be more favorable, and all your undertakings will prosper, and be advantageous to you.

Apparitions. To dream you see a ghost, hobgoblin, specter, and such kind of things, is of a very unfortunate nature:
they denote vexation and disappointment; if you are in love, it is a certain sign of your not being beloved in return, that the object of your affections either hates you or despises you;
depend upon it some one is about to deceive you, and that you are in the habit of friendship with one who is your most inveterate enemy; do not undertake a journey just at this time, for it will be unfortunate to you; and be careful of contracting debts, for such a dream forebodes great trouble through some one to whom you shall owe money.

Apples. To dream you see apple-trees, and eat sweet and ripe apples, denotes joy, pleasure, and recreation, es­ specially to virgins: but sour apples signify contention and sedition.

Artichokes. (See Vegetables.)

Asparagus. (See Vegetables.)

Ashes. Foretell a great misfortune is at hand.

Asps. To dream of asps, denotes that you will become extremely rich, and have great quantities of money by you:
if you are in love, it imports that your love will be returned,
and that your sweetheart will become through your means extremely wealthy.

Ass. The ass in dreams denotes a good servant or slave, that is profitable to his master; it also indicates a foolish and ignorant person. To dream you see an ass, is a sign of malice.
To see an ass sitting on his crupper, denotes laboriousness.
To dream you hear an ass bray, shows you shall meet with some loss. To dream of asses bearing charge, strong and obedient, is good for friendship and company, and signifies the wife's companion or friend, being not proud above their estate, or fierce, but gentle and very obedient; they are also good in affairs and enterprises. To see an ass run, denotes misfortune, especially to a man that is sick.

Awakening. To dream you awake from a sleep signifies you will inspire love with the one you wish. To awaken another person, shows that you will have a happy end to all sorrow.

Authority. It is good always for a rich man to think or dream he is in authority.

Back. To dream you see your back, betokens some unhappiness; for the back and all the hinder parts signify old age. To dream a man’s back is broken, hurt, or scabby, shows his enemies will get the better of him, and that he will be scoffed at. To dream of the back-bone, indicates health and joy, and that he will take delight in his wife and children.

Bagpipes. (See Plays.) To dream that you play upon them, denotes trouble, contention, and being overthrown at law.

Ball. To dream you go to a ball signifies you will be unfortunate in all your undertakings. Do not go into any speculations after such a dream. To dream you are playing at ball, denotes success in business.

Banquets. To dream of banquets is very good and prosperous, and promises great preferment.

Barn. To dream you see a barn stored with corn, shows that you shall marry a rich wife, overthrow your adversary at law, inherit land, or grow rich by trading. To see an empty barn betokens disappointment. On fire, a sudden gain.

Bat. (See Owl.)

Baking. (See Brewing.)

Bath. To dream one sees a bath, is a sign of affliction or grief. If a person dreams he goes into or sees himself in a bath, and that he finds it too hot, he will be troubled and afflicted by those that belong to his family. If one dreams he has only pulled off his clothes, without going into the bath, he will have some disturbance, but of no long continuance. If one dreams he goes into an extremely cold bath, the same signification is to be given of it as when it is too hot. But if it be temperate, and as it ought to be, it is a good dream, presaging prosperity, joy and health.

Bay-tree. To dream of the bay-tree, denotes a rich and fair wife; and also ill success of affairs, because it is bitter; but it is good for physicians, poets and divines to dream of it.

Beautiful Face. (See Countenance.)

Beans. To dream you are eating beans, always betokens trouble and dissensions. (See Vegetables.)

Bear. To dream that you have seen a bear denotes you have a rich, puissant, inexpert, but cruel and audacious enemy.
Beard. To dream you have one, is a sign of good fortune in love.

Bed. (See Fire.)

Bees. To dream of bees is good and bad: good, if they sting not, but bad, if they sting the party dreaming, for then the bees do signify enemies; and therefore to dream that bees fly about your ears, shows your being beset with many enemies; but if you beat them off, without being stung by them, it is a sign of victory, and of your overcoming them. To dream of seeing bees, indicates profit to country people, and trouble to the rich; yet to dream that they make honey in any part of the house or tenement, is a sign of dignity, eloquence, and good success in business. To take bees, shows profit and gain, by reason of their honey and wax.

Beggars. To dream you see a beggar, foretells you will be surrounded with lovers. (See Alms.)

Beheading. To dream that one is beheaded, and that the head is separated from the body, denotes liberty to prisoners, health to the sick, comfort to those in distress; to creditors, payment of debts. To parents, good fortune, and that their cares and fears will be turned into joy and confidence in their children. If one dreams that a person of his acquaintance beheads him, he will share with him in his pleasures and honors. If any one dreams that a young child, who has not yet attained the age of his youth, hath cut off his head, if the dreamer be sick, he will not live long; if in health, he will get honor. (See Head.)

Birds. To dream you see many birds, denotes assemblies and suits at law. To dream of catching birds with nests, shows the entrapping or ensnaring of enemies by deceitful means. To dream of great birds is better for the rich than the poor. To dream of little birds the contrary. To dream that you hear little birds chirp is a good sign. To see birds fighting betokens adversity. To see birds fly over your head, shows prejudice by enemies. To see black-birds, denotes trouble. To hear birds sing, is joy and delight.

Birds' nests. To dream you find one is a good sign. To dream you find one without either eggs or birds, shows you will meet with a great disappointment.

Birding. To dream you catch birds, is a sign of profit and pleasure.

Bite. To dream you are bitten signifies you will suffer the pangs of jealousy.

Blind. To dream of being blind, shows a man shall be admonished to foresee his errors and avoid them, especially in love affairs. This dream also threatens the dreamer with want of money—when a man at noonday cannot see a penny in his purse, which is a common kind of blindness.

Blood. To dream you vomit much blood, and of a good color, is good for him that is poor, for he shall get store of money. It is also very good for him who hath no children, and whose kindred are in a strange country: the first shall see a child of his own; the other his kindred returning home. To dream of carrying blood, is not good for them that desire to be hidden. To dream you vomit corrupt blood, is sickness to all. To cast a little blood in spitting, foretells sedition, as some have known by experience.

Blowing the Fire. To dream of blowing the fire, denotes, to the rich, servitude; to the poor, profit. To dream of stirring up and blowing the fire, denotes also the stirring up of wrath, and that old quarrels, that have long lain dormant, shall be revived.

Blows. To dream you give blows is a sign of a law-suit. To dream you receive them—reconciliation with enemies.

Boat. To dream you are in a boat upon a river, lake, or pond of clear water, is very good, and indicates joy, prosperity, and good success in affairs. If a man dream that he is walking in a boat, and recreating himself without fear, he will have comfort and success in his affairs; but if the water be rough and tempestuous, it falleth out contrary.

Books. (See Reading.)

Bouquet. To carry one, marriage; to destroy one, separation; to throw one away, displeasure. (See Flowers.)

Brass. (See Metals.)

Bread. To dream of eating such bread as is usual, or as the person dreaming is accustomed to, is good; but to dream of eating unusual bread is bad, and therefore for the poor to dream they eat white bread, denotes sickness; and for the rich to dream they eat brown bread, shows they shall meet with some obstructions in their affairs. To dream of rye bread is good for all, for it signifies health and content.

Brewing and Baking. To dream of brewing and baking, is a sign of an ill housewife, who lies dreaming in bed when she should be at work and doing her business.

Broth. To dream of eating broth, is a good sign, and indicates profit or gain.

Brethren. To dream that you discourse with your brethren, betokens vexations; because our brethren bring us nothing when they are born, but diminish our inheritance and succession, and are the cause that those things which would be all our own are divided into many parts between them and us. Timocrates dreamed that he buried, or caused to be interred, one of his brothers, departed, and a little while after, one of his chief adversaries died. To dream of the death of our brethren, signifieth, not only the loss of our enemies, but also deliverance or acquittance from some loss or hurt which attended us, and whereby we stood in fear; as it happened to Diocles, the grammarian, who sustained no loss of money, whereby he stood in doubt, and was afraid because he dreamed before that he saw his brother dead.

Bull. To dream you own a bull is a sign of gain. To dream you see a bull killed is a sign of affliction. To drive a bull signifies gayety. A black bull signifies deception and cheating; running, a secret divulged; at work, a fortune; drinking, a theft; without horns, peculation; fighting with another, fraternal affection. (See Cattle.)

When one dreams he sees a shining lighted candle, it is a good sign to the sick, denoting recovery and health; and if he that dreams be unmarried, it shows he will speedily marry, have success, and prosper in his undertakings. To dream that you make candles, is a sign of rejoicing. To dream that you see candles not lighted, shows you shall have a reward for something you have done.

Capon. To dream that a capon crows, indicates sadness and trouble.

Caravan. (See Camel.)

Cards. Playing at cards, tables, or any other game in a dream, shows the party shall be very fortunate; and tables allude unto love, for love is the table, fancy the point that stands open; and he that dreams much of table playing shall be a great gamester, as well with Joan as my lady.

Carrots. To dream of carrots denotes profit and strength to them who are at law for an inheritance; for we pluck them out of the ground with their heads, branches, strings and veins.

Cart. To dream of being tied in a cart, to draw like a horse or an ox, denotes servitude and pain to everybody, how rich and mighty soever they be. To dream that you are carried in your cart or coach, to be drawn by men, signifies to have might and authority over many, and to have children of good behavior. As for travelers, it is to go slowly, but surely, when they have such a dream.

Children. To dream that a man sees two or three children, shows he shall have cause of joy, and meet with good success in his business. When one dreams that he hath many small children, and that they seem to him to run about the house, and yet notwithstanding he hath none, it signifies it will be very difficult for him ever to have any, besides which, he that so dreams will have many cares and obstructions in his affairs. And here note that, among little children, it is better to dream that you see boys than girls. To dream of anything to befall little children, which is not proper to their age, is not good; as to dream that boys have beards and gray hairs, and that little girls should be married and have children, which betokens to them death.

To dream your clothes are embroidered all over with gold, or any other kind of embroidery, signifies joy and honor.

DEAD MAN. To dream that you see a dead man, signifieth that he that dreams will be subject to the same passions and fortune as the party deceased had when alive, if he knew him.

DEAD. To dream of talking with dead folks, is a good auspicious dream; it shows great courage, and a very clear conscience. To dream a man is dead, who is alive and in health, denotes great trouble and being overthrown at law.

DEATH. To dream of death, signifies a wedding; for death and marriage represent one another. For the sick to dream they are married, or that they celebrate their weddings, is a sign of death, and signifies separation from her or his companions, friends, or parents; for the dead keep not company with the living. (See Marriage.)

To dream that a dog barks and tears our garments, betokens some enemy of mean condition slanders us, or endeavors to deprive us of our livelihood. To play with a dog, denotes you will suffer for former extravagance; to hunt with one, hope; one running, loss of a law-suit; to hear one howling, great danger; to lose one, want of success; one frisking about, loss of a friend; two fighting, a warning to beware of false friends.

thy doing good, under a show of devotion, shows thou wilt be obstructed in thy affairs by a hypocrite. And if thou dreamest that thou seest hideous physiognomies, things more than common shall be revealed to thee.

EYES. If any one dream he hath lost his eyes, it shows he will violate his word, or else that he or some of his children are in danger of death, or that he will never more see his friends again.

EYEBROWS. Dreaming the eyebrows are hairy, and of a good grace, is good, especially to women. But the eyebrows naked and without hair implies she will be afraid to marry. To enable our readers to more readily discover the meaning of their dreams, we subjoin a list of the metals with their explanations. Brass. To dream you see a brass ornament, is a sign your sweetheart will be false to you. To see any one working in brass, or cleaning that metal, is a sign you will hear of the death of a distant relative who will leave you a legacy. Copper. To dream of copper, signifies that your sweetheart is deceitful and loves another, it also shows secret enemies. Gold. To dream of receiving gold is a good sign, and shows you will be successful in all your undertakings. To dream you pay gold betokens increase of friends. Iron. For one to dream that he is hurt with iron, signifies that he shall receive some damage. Lead. To dream of lead denotes sickness, but to dream of leaden bullets, good news. If you dream you are wounded by a leaden bullet it is a sign you will be successful in love. Quicksilver. To dream of this metal is a sign your friends will all be false to you, it is also a sign of losses in property. Silver. To dream that you are presented with spoons, or any silver plate for household use, foretells that you, or some near relative, will shortly marry, but not happily; if you dream of buying these articles, it is a sign of poverty; to dream of silver dollars, or bars of silver used in commerce, is a sign that you will lose money by speculation.
Steel. To break a piece in a dream, shows that you will overcome your enemies; if you only touch it, your position in life is secure; if you try to bend it, and cannot, you will meet with many serious accidents.

Moon. If any one dream that he sees the moon shine, it shows that his wife loves him extremely well; it also implies the getting of silver; for, as the sun represents gold, so the moon doth silver. Dreaming you see the moon darkened, denotes the death or sickness of your wife, mother, sister, or daughter; loss of money, or danger in a voyage or journey, especially if it be by water; or else it denotes a distemper in the brain or eyes. To dream you see the moon darkened, and grow clear and bright again, implies gain to the woman that dreams, and to the man joy and prosperity; but to dream that you see the moon clear, and afterwards cloudy, presageth the contrary. To dream you see the moon in the form of a full white face, implies to the virgin speedy marriage; to the married woman, that she will have a handsome daughter. If the husband dream it, it implies that his wife will have a son. To dream you see the moon at full, is a good sign to handsome women, of their being beloved by those who view them; but it is bad for such as conceal themselves, as thieves and murderers, for they will certainly be discovered; but it signifies death to those that are sick, and to seafaring men. To dream the moon shines about your bed, implies grace, pardon, and deliverance by some woman. To dream you see the new moon, is a sign of expedition in business. Dreaming you see the moon fall from the firmament, is a sign of sickness. To dream you see two moons appear, betokens increase of sorrow. Eclipse of the moon signifies gain in business. (See Eclipse.)

Money. To dream of losing money denotes losses in business. To find money, if gold, or large bank bills, is a good omen, and signifies success in all your undertakings; but to dream you find small silver or copper coin foretells a discovery made too late to be of any benefit to you. To dream you are melting or see money melted or bank bills burned, presages disappointment in some cherished design. To dream you throw money away foretells chagrin and want. To dream you change money foretells inconstancy in a lover or sweetheart. To dream you have money given or paid to you, implies success in love affairs, and much domestic happiness. To dream of counterfeit money is a bad omen, and foretells quarrels, sickness, and secret enemies; it also presages domestic unhappiness. To dream of money in bags or boxes, also denotes misfortune of some kind. Thus Shylock, in the "Merchant of Venice," says:

"There is some ill a brewing towards my rest,
For I did dream of money-bags to-night."

MOTHER-IN-LAW. Dreaming you see a mother-in-law, dead or alive, is ill; especially if you dream she uses violence or threatening. To dream she uses gentle speech, and gives good entertainment, implies vain hope and deceit.

If, therefore, one dreams that his mouth is wider than ordinary, his family will be enriched, and he will become more opulent than formerly. To dream of being in a ship or boat, in danger of oversetting and shipwreck, is a sign of danger, unless the party be a prisoner or captive; and in that case it denotes liberty and freedom. NETTLES. Dreaming of nettles, and that you sting yourself with them, shows that you will venture hard for what you de-

But to dream one has no nose, means the contrary; and to a sick man, death; for dead man's heads have no nose. If any one dreams his nose is larger than ordinary, he will become rich and powerful, provident and subtle, and be well received among grandees. Dreaming one has two noses, implies discord and quarrels. If one dreams that his nose is grown so big that it is deformed and hideous to the sight, he will live in prosperity and abundance, but never gain the love of the people. Dreaming you see a pit full of fair water in a field, where there is none at all, is a good dream; for he who dreams this is a thriving man and will suddenly be married, if he be not so already, and will have good and obedient children. To dream you see a pit whose water overflows the banks, implies loss of substance, or the death of wife and children; and if the wife have the same dream, it shows her death or the loss of her substance. To dream you see a friend fall into a pit, shows that such a person is then near his end; and if it be a parent, aunt or child, that you dream falls, expect to see the death of such a relation very suddenly.

PLANT. To dream that any plant cometh out of one's body, is death. To dream of plants quick in growth, as the vine and the peach tree, implies that the good or evil portended us shall quickly happen; but to dream of trees and plants that are slow in growing, as the oak, olive, cypress, &c., shows that the good or evil that shall happen to us shall be long in coming. (See Trees.)

Dreaming of plowing is good, but if the horses seem to sink into the ground, it portends loss of labor, dearth of corn, and ill-harvest weather; but to plow on a hill, and on a sudden to be loosening the team, and setting them up in a stable, doth show a lazy disposition in the plowman, and also that the horses shall not stand, but fall sick in the stable. CHARMS AND CEREMONIES.

THE CHARMS OF ST. CATHERINE.

This day falls on the 25th of November, and must be thus celebrated. Let any number of young women, not exceeding seven or less than three, assemble in a room, where they are sure to be safe from interlopers; just as the clock strikes eleven at night, take from your bosom a sprig of myrtle, which you must have worn there all day, and fold it up in a bit of tissue paper, then light up a small chafing dish of charcoal, and on it let each maiden throw nine hairs from her head, and a paring of her toe and finger nails, then let each sprinkle a small quantity of myrtle and frankincense in the charcoal, and while the odoriferous vapor rises, fumigate your myrtle (this plant or tree is consecrated to Venus) with it. Go to bed while the clock is striking twelve, and you will be sure to dream of your future husband, and place the myrtle exactly under your head. Observe, it is no manner of use trying this charm, if you are not a real virgin, and the myrtle hour of performance must be passed in strict silence.

HOW TO MAKE YOUR LOVER OR SWEETHEART COME.

If a maid wishes to see her lover, let her take the following method. Prick the third or wedding finger of your left hand with a sharp needle (beware a pin), and with the blood write your own and lover's name on a piece of clean writing paper, in as small a compass as you can, and encircle it with three round rings of the same crimson stream, fold it up, and exactly at the ninth hour of the evening, bury it with your own hand in the earth, and tell no one. Your lover will hasten to you as soon as possible, and he will not be able to rest until he sees you, and if you have quarreled, to make it up. A young man may also try this charm, only instead of the wedding finger, let him pierce his left thumb.

APPLE PARINGS.

On the 28th of October, which is a double Saint's day, take an apple, pare it whole, and take the paring in your right hand, and standing in the middle of the room, say the following verse:

St. Simon and Jude
On you I intrude,
By this paring I hold to discover,
Without any delay,
To tell me this day,
The first letter of my own true lover.

Turn round three times, and cast the paring over your left shoulder, and it will form the first letter of your future husband’s surname; but if the paring breaks into many pieces, so that no letter is discernible, you will never marry; take the pips of the same apple, put them in spring water, and drink them.

TO KNOW HOW SOON A PERSON WILL BE MARRIED.

Get a green pea-pod, in which are exactly nine peas, hang it over the door, and then take notice of the next person who comes in, who is not of the family, and if it proves a bachelor, you will certainly be married within that year.
On any Friday throughout the year—Take rosemary flowers, bay leaves, thyme, and sweet marjoram, of each a handful; dry these, and make them into a fine powder; then take a teaspoonful of each sort, mix the powders together; then take twice the quantity of barley flour and make the whole into cake with the milk of a red cow. This cake is not to be baked, but wrapped in clean writing paper, and laid under your head any Friday night. If the person dreams of music, she will wed those she desires, and that shortly; if of fire, she will be crossed in love; if of a church, she will die single. If anything is written or the least spot of ink is on the paper, it will not do.

TO KNOW WHAT FORTUNE YOUR FUTURE HUSBAND WILL BE.

Take a walnut, a hazel-nut, and nutmeg; grate them together, and mix them with butter and sugar, and make them up into small pills, of which exactly nine must be taken on going to bed; and according to her dreams, so will be the state of the person she will marry. If a gentleman, of riches; if a clergyman, of white linen; if a lawyer, of darkness; if a tradesman, of odd noises and tumults; if a soldier or sailor, of thunder and lightning; if a servant, of rain.

TO KNOW IF A WOMAN WITH CHILD WILL HAVE A GIRL OR BOY.

Write the proper names of the father and the mother, and of the month she conceived with child, and likewise adding all the numbers of those letters together, divide them by seven; and then if the remainder be even, it will be a girl; if uneven, it will be a boy.

TO KNOW IF A CHILD NEW-BORN SHALL LIVE OR NOT.

Write the proper names of the father and mother, and of the day the child was born, and put to each letter its number, as you did before, and unto the total sum, being collected together, put twenty-five, and then divide the whole by seven; and then, if it be even, the child shall die; but if it be uneven, the child shall live.

TO KNOW IF ANY ONE SHALL ENJOY THEIR LOVE OR NOT.

Take the number of the first letter of your name, the number of the planet, and the day of the week; put all these together, and divide them by thirty; if it be above, it will come to your mind, and if below to the contrary; and mind that number which exceeds not thirty.
MIDSUMMER-DAY CHARM, TO KNOW YOUR HUSBAND'S TRADE.

Exactly at twelve, on Midsummer-day, place a bowl of water in the sun, pour in some boiling pewter as the clock is striking, saying thus:

Here I try a potent spell,
Queen of love, and Juno tell,
In kind union unto me,
What my husband is to be,
This the day, and this the hour,
When it seems you have the power
For to be a maiden's friend,
So, good ladies, condescend.

A tobacco-pipe full is enough. When the pewter is cold, take it out of the water, and drain it dry in a cloth, and you will find the emblems of your future husband's trade quite plain. If more than one, you will marry twice; if confused and no emblems, you will never marry; a coach shows a gentleman for you.

A CHARM FOR DREAMING.

When you go to bed, place under your pillow a Common Prayer Book, open at the part of the Matrimonial service, in which is printed, "With this ring I thee wed," etc., place on it a key, a ring, a flower and a sprig of willow, a small heart cake, a crust of bread, and the following cards, the ten of clubs, nine of hearts, ace of spades, and the ace of diamonds; wrap all these round in a handkerchief of thin gauze or muslin; on getting into bed cross your hands and say:

Luna ever woman's friend,
To me they goodness condescend;
Let me this night in visions see,
Emblems of my destiny.

If you dream of storms, trouble will betide you; if the storm ends in a fine calm, so will your fate; if of a ring, or of the ace of diamonds, marriage; bread, an industrious life; cake, a prosperous life; flowers, joy; willow, treachery in love; spades, death; diamonds, money; clubs, a foreign land; hearts, illegitimate children; keys, that you will rise to great trust and power, and never know want; birds, that you will have many children; geese, that you will marry more than once.

THE FLOWER AUGURY.

If a young man or woman receives a present of flowers, or a nosegay from their sweetheart, unsolicited, for if asked for, it destroys the influence of the spell; let them keep them in the usual manner in cold water four-and-twenty hours, then shift the water, and let them stand another twenty four hours, then take them, and immerse the stalks in water nearly boiling, leave them to perish for three hours, then look at them; if they are perished, or drooping, your lover is false; if revived and blooming, you will be happy in your choice.

HOW TO TELL BY A SCREW, WHETHER YOUR SWEETHEART LOVES YOU OR NOT.

Get a small screw, such as the carpenters use for hanging closet-doors, and after making a hole in a plank with a gimlet of a proper size, put the screw in, being careful to oil the end with a little sweet oil. After having done this, take a screw-driver and drive the screw home, but you must be sure and observe how many turns it takes to get the screw in so far that it will go no farther. If it requires an odd number of turns you can rest assured that your sweetheart does not love you yet, and perhaps is enamored of some other person; but if the number of turns is an even number, be happy, for your sweetheart adores you, and lives only in the sunshine of your presence.

EVENTS FORETOLD BY PLANETS.

JANUARY.—Aquarius, or the Water-bearer

About the twentieth of the month the sun enters this sign: a man born at this period will be of an unruly, restless, fickle, and boisterous disposition; will be given to all whims and strange fancies; will undertake anything, however difficult, to accomplish any object he may have in view; not contented long in one place; soon affronted—slow to forgive; suspicious and always imagining danger, and, instead of endeavoring to subdue trouble, meeting it half way. In life he will be moderately successful, and enjoy a portion of happiness. In love he will display an amorous disposition, and be passionately attached to his mistress, until she yields to his wishes, or marries him; he will then grow indifferent, and rove until some other object fixes his attention.

A woman born at this time will be of a rash, imperious, intriguing, and designing disposition, of an unsteady and disagreeable temper, and inclined to liquor. In life her schemes will generally miscarry through her own folly and want of conduct. marriage-bed, to the pleasures of which she will be immoderaately attached; she will love her children but be negligent of them; she will be fond of her husband whilst he gives her her own way, and strictly performs the marriage rites; but if they unfaithful.

manners. In life he will be unhappy and unfortunate, owing to his own rashness and want of consideration. In love he will be exceedingly amorous, much attached to the female sex, rather fickle in his affections, but kind and loving to his wife, punctual in the discharge of the nuptial duties; he will make a bad father, but a good husband.

amiable disposition, a good neighbor and a sincere friend, fearful and timorous, but of engaging manners. In life she from doing wrong. In love she will be of a warm constitution, and yield easily to the solicitations of her lovers; in the married state she will be faithful and kind, strongly attached to the nymenial duties, and forward in exacting them of her husband; she will be a tender mother and a good wife, though extremely credulous of everything she hears.

CURIOUS GAMES WITH CARDS.

By which fortunes are told in a singular and most diverting manner.

LOVERS' HEARTS.

Four young persons, but not more, may play at this game; or three, by making a dumb hand, or sleeping partner, as at whist. Play this game exactly the same in every game, making the queen, whom you call Venus, above ace, the aces in this game only standing for one, and hearts must be first led off by the person next the dealer. He or she who gets most tricks this way (each taking up their own, and no partnership) will have most lovers, and the king and queen of hearts in one hand shows matrimony at hand; but woe to the unlucky one that gets no tricks at the deal, or does not hold a heart in their hand, they will be unfortunate in love, and long tarry before they marry.
CUPID AND HYMEN.

Three are enough for this game, the nines, the threes, and the aces; deal them equally; those who hold kings, hold friends; queens are rivals; knaves, shame; knave alone, lover; three, surprises; ace, sorrow; two together, shows a child before marriage; if a king alone is in her hand with the aces, she stands a good chance; but if a queen is with him, she will never marry the father; the nine of hearts gives the wish that you have most at heart; the nine of diamonds, money; and the nine of clubs, a new gown or coat; but the nine of spades is sorrow. A queen and a knave in one hand, bids fair for a secret intrigue.

HYMEN'S LOTTERY.

Let each one present deposit any sum agreed on, but of course some trifle; put a complete pack of cards, well shuffled, in a bag or reticule. Let the party stand in a circle, and the bag being handed around, each draw three. Pairs of any are favorable omens of some good fortune about to occur to the party, and gets from the pool the sum back each agreed to pay. The king of hearts is here made the god of love, and claims double, and gives a faithful swain to the fair one who has the good fortune to draw him; if Venus, the queen of hearts, is with him, it is the conquering prize, and clears the pool; fives and nines are reckoned crosses and misfortunes, and pay a forfeit of the sum agreed on to the pool, besides the usual stipend at each new game; three nines at one draw shows the lady will be an old maid; three fives a bad husband.

MATRIMONY.

Let three, five or seven young women stand in a circle, and draw a card out of a bag; she who gets the highest card out, will be married first of the company, whether she be at the present time maid, wife, or widow; and she who has the lowest has the longest time to stay ere the sun shines on her wedding-day; she who draws the ace of spades will never bear the name of wife; and she who has the nine of hearts in this trial will have one lover too many to her sorrow.

CUPID'S PASTIME.

By this game you may amuse yourself and friends, and at the same time learn some curious particulars of your future fate; and though apparently a simple, yet it is a sure method, as several young persons have acknowledged to the sibyl who first presented them with the rules.

Several may play at the game, it requiring no number, on leaving out nine on their board, not exposed to view; each person puts a half-penny in the pool, and the dealer double. The ace of diamonds is made principal, and takes all the other aces, etc., like Pam at Loo; twos and threes in your hand are luck; four, a continuance in your present state; fives, trouble; sixes, profit; sevens, plague; eights, disappointments; nines, surprises; tens, settlement; knaves, sweethearts; kings and queens, friends and acquaintances; ace of spades, death; ace of clubs, a letter; and the ace of diamonds, with the ten of hearts, marriage.

The ace of diamonds being played first, or if it be not cut, the dealer calls for the queen of hearts, which takes next; if the ace be not cut, and the queen conquers, the person who played her will marry that year without a doubt, though it may perhaps seem unluckily at the time; but if she loses her queen, she must wait longer; the ace and queen being called, the rest go in rotation, as at whist, kings taking queens, queens knaves, and so on, and the more tricks you have, the more money you get off the board on the division of each game; those who hold the nine of spades will soon have some trouble, and they are also to pay a penny to the board; but the fortunate fair one who holds the queen and knave of hearts in the same hand will soon be married; or, if she is already within the pale of matrimony, she will have a great rise in life by means of her husband; those who hold the ace of diamonds and queen of hearts, clear the money off the board, and end that game; it also betokens great prosperity.

DICE.

This is a certain and innocent way of finding out common occurrences about to take place. Take three dice, shake them well in the box with your left hand, and then cast them out on a board or table, on which you had previously drawn a circle with chalk, but never throw on Monday or Wednesday.

Three—a pleasing surprise.
Four—a disagreeable one.
Five—a stranger who will prove a friend.
Six—loss of property.
Seven—undeserved scandal.
Eight—merited reproach.
Nine—a wedding.
Ten—a christening, at which some important event will occur to you.
Eleven—a death that concerns you.
Twelve—a letter speedily.
Thirteen—tears and sighs.
Fourteen—a new admirer.
Fifteen—beware that you are not drawn into some trouble or plot.

Sixteen—a pleasant journey.

Seventeen—you will either be on the water, or have dealing with those belonging to it, to your advantage.

Eighteen—a great profit, rise in life, or some most desirable good will happen almost immediately; for the answers to the dice are always fulfilled within nine days. To show the same number twice at one trial, shows news from abroad, be the number what they may. If the dice roll over the circle, the number thrown goes for nothing, but the occurrence shows sharp words, and if they fall to the floor it is blows, in throwing out the dice, if one remains on the top of the other. it is a present, of which I would have the females beware.

DOMINOES.

Lay them with their faces on the table, and shuffle them; then draw one, and see the number. N. B.—Never play on a Friday.

Double-six—receiving a handsome sum of money.

Six-five—going to a public amusement.

Six-four—lawsuits.

Six-three—ride in a coach.

Six-two—present of clothing.

Six-one—you will soon perform a friendly action.

Six-blank—guard against scandal, or you will suffer by your inattention.

Double-five—a new abode to your advantage.

Five-four—a fortunate speculation.

Five-three—a visit from a superior.

Five-two—a water-party.

Five-one—a love intrigue.

Five-blank—a funeral, but not of a relation.

Double-four—drinking liquor at a distance.

Four-three—a false alarm at your house.

Four-two—beware of thieves or swindlers.—Ladies, take notice of this; it means more than it says.

Four-one—trouble from creditors.

Four-blank—receive a letter from an angry friend.

Double-three—sudden wedding, at which you will be vexed.

Three-two—buy no lottery tickets, nor enter into any game of chance, or you will lose.

Three-one—a great discovery at hand.

Three-blank—an illegitimate child.

Double-two—you will be plagued by a jealous partner.
Two-one—you will mortgage or pledge some property very soon.

Double-one—you will soon find something to your advantage in the street or road.

Double-blank—the worst presage in all the set of dominoes: you will soon meet trouble from a quarter for which you are quite unprepared.

It is useless for any person to draw more than three dominoes at one time of trial, or in one and the same month, as they will only deceive themselves; shuffle the dominoes each time of choosing; to draw the same domino twice makes the answer stronger.

THE ART OF FORETELLING FUTURE EVENTS BY CHARMS, SPELLS, AND INCANTATIONS.

Magic Laurel.

Rise between three and four in the morning of your birthday, with cautious secrecy, so as to be observed by no one, and pluck a sprig of laurel; convey it to your chamber, and hold it over some lighted brimstone for five minutes, which you must carefully note by a watch or dial; wrap it in a white linen cloth or napkin, together with your own name written on writing-paper, and that of the young man who addresses you (or if there is more than one, write all the names down); write also the day of the week, the date of the year, and the age of the moon; then haste and bury it in the ground, where you will be sure it will not be disturbed for three days and three nights; then take it up and place the parcel under your pillow for three nights, and your dreams will be truly prophetic as to your destiny.

The Three Keys.

Purchase three small keys, each at a different place, and going to bed tie them together with your garter, and place them in your left-hand glove, along with a small flat doughcake, on which you have pricked the first letters of your sweetheart's name; put them in your bosom when you retire to rest; if you are to have that young man you will dream of him, but not else.

This charm is the most effectual on the first or third of a new moon.

The Card Charm.

Select all the hearts and diamonds from the pack, put them in one of your stockings, and place them under your pillow any Friday night; as soon as you wake on Saturday morning, provided the fourth hour has struck, not else, draw a card: according to the number of pips, so many years will elapse before you appear at the altar of Hymen. Hearts show a loving husband, diamonds the richest husband or wife; the kings show that you will never marry; the queen, a troublesome rival; the knave of diamonds, a fatal seduction; and the knave of hearts, early widowhood.

The Magic Ring.

Borrow a wedding-ring concealing the purpose for which you borrow it; but no widow's or pretended marriage will do; it spoils the charm; wear it for three hours at least before you retire to rest, and then suspend it by a hair off your head over your pillow; write within a circle resembling a ring, the sentence from the matrimonial service, beginning with, with this ring I thee wed, and over the circle write your own name in full length, and the figures that stand for your age; place it under your pillow, and your dream will fully explain who you are to marry, and what kind of a fate you will have with them. If your dream is too confused to remember it, or you do not dream at all, it is a certain sign you will never be a bride.

The Witches' Chain.

Let three young women join in making a long chain, about a yard will do, of Christmas juniper and mistletoe berries, and at the end of every link put an oak acorn. Exactly before midnight let them assemble in a room by themselves, where no one can disturb them; leave a window open, and take the key out of the key-hole and hang it over the chimney-piece; have a good fire and place in the midst of it a long, thinnish log of wood, well sprinkled with oil, salt and fresh mold, then wrap the chain around it, each maiden having an equal share in the business; then sit down, and on your left knee let each fair one have a prayer-book opened at the matrimonial service. Just as the last acorn is burnt, the future husband will cross the room; each one will see her own proper spouse; but he will be invisible to the rest of the wakeful virgins. Those that are not to wed will see a coffin, or some misshapen form, cross the room; go to bed instantly and you will have remarkable dreams. This must be done either on a Wednesday or Friday night, but no other.

The Nine Keys.

Get nine small keys, they must all be your own by begging or purchase (borrowing will not do, nor must you tell what you want them for); plait a three-plaited band of your own hair, and tie them together, fastening the ends with nine knots: fasten them with one of your garters to your left wrist.
on going to bed, and bind the other garter round your head; then say:

St. Peter take it not amiss,
To try your favor I've done this;
You are the ruler of the keys,
Favor me then, if you please;
Let me then your influence prove,
And see my dear and wedded love!

This must be done on the eve of St. Peter's, and is an old charm used by the maidens of Rome in ancient time, who put great faith in it.

The Mysterious Watch.

Request any person to lend you his watch, and ask him if it will go when laid on the table. He will, no doubt, answer in the affirmative; in which case place it over the end of the concealed magnet, and it will presently stop. Then mark the precise spot where you placed the watch, and moving the point of the magnet, give the watch to another person, and desire him to make the experiment; in which he, not succeeding, gives it to a third (at the same time replacing the magnet), and he will immediately perform it, to the great chagrin of the second party.

This experiment cannot be effected unless you take the precaution to use a very strongly impregnated magnetic bar, and that the balance-wheel of the watch be of steel, which may be ascertained by previously opening it, and looking at the works.

St. Agnes' Day—Charm to know who your husband shall be.

Falls on the 21st of January; you must prepare yourself by a twenty-four hour fast, touching nothing but pure spring water, beginning at midnight on the 20th to the same again on the 21st; then go to bed, and mind you sleep by yourself, and do not mention what you are trying to any one, or it will break the spell; go to rest on your left side, and repeat these lines three times—

St. Agnes be a friend to me,
In the gift I ask of thee;
Let me this night my husband see—and you will dream of your future spouse; if you see more than one in your dream, you will wed two or three times, but if you sleep and dream not, you will never marry.
