MOLES

THE SCIENCE OF FORETELLING FUTURE EVENTS BY MOLES

These little marks on the skin, although they appear to be the effect of chance or accident, and might easily pass with the unthinking for things of no moment are nevertheless of the utmost consequence, since from their color, situation, size, and figure, may be accurately gathered the temper of, and the events that will happen to, the person bearing them. As our philosopher, who was a most excellent anatomist, made these signs form a very particular branch of his studies, the result of his great labors and long experience will, we doubt not, be found very agreeable to our readers, and we shall accordingly proceed to give them a faithful translation of his observations. To enable them to turn more easily to the definitions, we have arranged them under heads in the same manner as we have before observed in the expounding of dreams.

ON THE WRIST OR BETWEEN THAT AND THE FINGER ENDS

IMPORTANT FACTS

We shall remark to our readers, that it is of much importance to be particular in ascertaining the exact situation of the mole, its form, whether it be round, angular, or oblong; also its size and color, because these variations add or diminish the degree of those qualities and events which our author's explanation has attached to each; for example if the mole be perfectly round, then it denotes much good fortune; if of an angular form, a mixture of good and bad fortune; if oblong, then a moderate portion of good, a kind of happy medium; the deeper the color, the more powerful will be either the good or bad fortune indicated; the lighter in color, either will be in a less degree, as our author has uniformly spoken of a mediate color neither dark nor light; if it be very hairy, it denotes many misfortunes, but not so if only a few long hairs grow upon it, then it shows prosperity in your undertakings; again the larger the mole is, the more serious will be either the prosperity or adversity predicted; and the smaller it is, the less of either will fall to your share; our author has taken the middling size.

Persons who wish to avail themselves fully of our author's information, should not suffer an overstrained bashfulness to prevent their obtaining accurate information with respect to the situation, size, form, and color; especially as in woman, a mole is frequently so situated, in those recesses which modesty conceals from view, as not to admit of being discovered but by another; and yet to have a mole so placed is the most fortunate for them.

FORTUNE TELLING BY CARDS

As many of those events about to happen may be easily gathered from cards, we have here affixed the definition which each card in the pack bears separately; by the combining them the reader must judge for himself, observing the following directions in laying them out: First, the person whose fortune is to be told, if a man, must choose one of the four kings to represent himself; if a woman, she must select one of the queens; the chosen card will stand for the husband or wife, mistress or lover of the party whose fortune is to be told, and the knave of the suit for the most intimate person of their family; you must then shuffle and cut the cards well, and let the person whose fortune is to be ascertained cut them three times, showing the bottom cards; this must be repeated three times; then shuffle them again, let them be cut once, and display them in rows on a table, taking care always to have an odd number in each row, nine is the right number, and to place your cards exactly under each other; after this consult the situation in which the person stands by the definition we have here annexed to each card, and after having repeated it three times, form your conclusion; remember that everything is within your circle as far as you can count thirteen any way from the card that represents the person, his wife, or her husband, and their intimate friends; and also that the thirteenth card every way is of the greatest consequence; either the whole pack, or only the picked cards may be used.

Another mode with the picked cards is to shuffle and cut them, take three cards from the top— if there be two of a suit, take out the highest card; if three, take all; when you have gone through the pack, shuffle and cut the remainder, and do as before, and repeat the same a third time; then take a general view of all the cards drawn, and next couple them, a top and bottom card, then shuffle and cut them into three heaps, laying one apart in the first round to form a fourth heap; the first heap at the left hand relates to yourself entirely, the next to your family, and the third is the confirmation of the former two; you must proceed a second and third time, adding each time one to the single card, then three single cards gives the connection of the operation; observe you must add the card which represents the person whose fortune is consulted to the three, if it be not there already.

A BRIEF PROGNOSTICATION CONCERNING CHILDREN BORN ANY DAY OF THE WEEK
Sunday, the child shall be long life, and obtain riches.
Monday, weak, and of an effeminate temper, which seldom brings a man to honor.
Tuesday, worse: though he may, with extraordinary vigilance, conquer the inordinate desires to which he will be subject, still he will be in danger of dying by violence, if he uses not great precaution.

Wednesday, he shall be given to the study of learning, and shall profit thereby.

Thursday, he shall arrive to great honor and dignity.

Friday, he shall be of a strong constitution, yet perhaps, lacheryous.

Saturday is another bad day; notwithstanding, the child may come to good, though it be seldom; but most children born on this day are of a heavy, dull, and dogged disposition.

SIGNS OF SPEEDY MARRIAGE, AND GOOD SUCCESS ATTENDING IT, BY SUNDRY SIGNS

1. For a woman to have the first and last letters of her Christian name the same with the man’s surname, that makes love to her, denotes a great union and a generous love.

2. For a man to have the first and last letters of his Christian name the same with the woman’s surname, denotes the same.

3. To think of a party on a sudden awakening, without any meditation, on a Friday morning, that before had a place in the affection of a man or woman, is a demonstration of love or extraordinary friendship.

4. If a ring falls accidentally off a man’s finger, that is under no obligation of marriage, and runs directly to the feet of a maid or widow, it denotes that he is not only in love with the widow, but that a sudden marriage will ensue.

5. The singing of a robin-redbreast at your window, in the time of courtship, on a Wednesday, is a sign that you shall have the party desired.

6. If walking abroad with your sweetheart you perceive a pair of pigeons circle you round, it is a sign of marriage and happiness to ensue, with much content.

7. If a hare cross you on a Sunday morning, it promises happy days, riches, and pleasure.

CHARMS, SPELLS, AND INCANTATIONS

The Three Keys. — Purchase three small keys, each at a different place, and going to bed, tie them together with your garter, and place them in your left-hand glove, along with a small flat dough cake, on which you have pricked the first letters of your sweetheart’s name; put them in your bosom when you retire to rest; if you are to have that young man you will dream of him, but not else. This charm is the most effectual on the first or third of a new moon.

The Magic Ring. — Borrow a wedding-ring, concealing the purpose for which you borrow it; but no widow’s or pretended marriage ring will do, it spoils the charm; wear it for three hours at least before you retire to rest, and then suspend it by a hair of your head over your pillow; write within a circle resembling a ring, the sentence from the matrimonial service, beginning with, with this ring I thee, wed, and round the circle write your own name at full length, and the figures that stand for your age, place it under your pillow, and your dream will fully explain whom you are to marry; and what kind of a fate you will have with them. If your dream is too confused to remember it, or you do not dream at all, it is a certain sign you will never be married.

To know if a Woman with Child will have a Girl or Boy. — Write the proper names of the father and the mother, and the month she conceived with child; count the letters in these words, and divide the amount by seven; and then if the remainder be even, it will be a girl, if uneven, it will be a boy.

To know if a Child new-born shall live or not. — Write the proper names of the father and the mother, and of the day the child was born; count the letters in these words, and to the amount add twenty-five, and then divide the whole by seven; if the remainder be even, the child shall die, but if it be uneven, the child shall live.

To know how soon a Person will be married. — Get a green pea-pod, in which are exactly nine peas; hang it over the door, and then take notice of the next person who comes in, who is not of the family, nor of the same sex with yourself, and if it proves an unmarried individual, you will certainly be married within that year.
