Bertillon.—79.0; 84.0; 94.0; 19.9; 15.5; 14.6; 6.8; 26.8; 11.9; 9.2; 48.1.

Indicted March 10, 1903, at St. Louis, Mo., for using the mails to defraud in a "get-rich-quick" race-horse scheme at St. Louis, Mo. He was not arrested until May 5, 1905, at which time he furnished bond. This case was finally dismissed February 26, 1907. This scheme was conducted under the name of the International Investment Co., St. Louis, Mo. He was again arrested August 31, 1908, at Dallas, Tex., and indicted January 16, 1909, at that place, for using the mails to defraud there in a fake land scheme, under the names of the Texas & Pacific Development Co., Union Central Construction Co., and the Union Central Railroad Co. He was sentenced February 4, 1909, at Dallas, Tex., to serve 18 months in the Federal penitentiary at Atlanta, Ga., and to pay a fine of $100. The case was appealed, and the defendant released on bond. He was rearrested March 16, 1909, at Dallas, Tex., and indicted at that place May 10, 1909, for perjury committed in the trial previously mentioned. On the charge of perjury he was sentenced June 14, 1909, at Dallas, Tex., to serve 5 years in the Federal penitentiary, Atlanta, Ga., and to pay a fine of $1,000. This case was also appealed. The sentence in the case of fraudulent use of the mails was affirmed by the appellate court December 7, 1909, but the sentence in the perjury case was reversed and dismissed by the same court on November 22, 1910. The defendant was again indicted on the charge of perjury May 3, 1911, at Dallas, Tex., and sentenced July 17, 1911, at Dallas, Tex., to serve 2½ years in the Federal penitentiary at Leavenworth, Kans., and to pay a fine of $500, which sentence was affirmed by the circuit court of appeals. Advice of November 30, 1913, is to the effect that Hogue is at liberty and capable of big undertakings in the fraud line. Histories 8594 and 14257.
C. S. CARNES.

Aliases: Clinton S. Carnes, S. C. Carnes, George Harris, Lindberg Real Estate Co.

Description.—Age, about 37; height, 6 feet 1 inch; weight, 147; slim build; dark complexion; good teeth; black hair; brown eyes; straight nose; thin face.

Peculiar mark.—Scar on right cheek.

Carnes was first indicted March 6, 1913, at Birmingham, Ala., for using the mails to defraud at that place during 1911. In this scheme he advertised in one of the Birmingham (Ala.) newspapers that he wanted a business partner with $1,000 to join him in discounting salaries of employees of a mining camp. Carnes was timekeeper for the Birmingham Railway, Light & Power Co., and he represented that by virtue of his position he was able to safely discount the salaries of a large number of employees of that firm. He claimed that such a business would yield large monthly dividends, with the result that many persons gave him large sums of money, aggregating about $15,000, which he converted to his own use and absconded. He was a fugitive from justice until March 20, 1915, when he was arrested at El Paso, Tex., and indicted at Kansas City, Mo., April 30, 1915, for using the mails to defraud at Kansas City, Mo., during 1914, in promotion of a scheme to defraud under the name of the Lindberg Real Estate Co., for which offense he was sentenced May 1, 1915, at Kansas City, Mo., to serve 4 months in the county jail at Clinton, Mo., and to pay the costs. On October 9, 1915, he was arrested at Clinton, Mo., to answer to the indictment pending against him at Birmingham, Ala. (first indictment), and he was sentenced March 6, 1916, at Birmingham, Ala., to serve 13 months in the Federal penitentiary at Atlanta, Ga., and to pay the costs. It is reported that an indictment is pending against Carnes in the State court at Birmingham, Ala. History 25320.
HOWELL T. WOOD.

Description.—Age, about 43; height, 5 feet 6 inches; weight, 132; medium build; medium complexion; dark-chestnut hair; hazel eyes.

Peculiar marks, etc.—III. Two gold teeth, two false teeth bridged in upper jaw, right, front. One gold tooth, two false teeth in upper jaw, left to front. No prominent scars on body except vaccination scar.

Indicted April 1, 1911, at Boston, Mass., for using the mails to defraud, there, under the name of the Equitable Corporation & Finance Co., during 1910 and 1911. Wood represented that his company had exceptional facilities for placing bond issues, and after receiving $285 from a firm for services to be rendered in drawing a deed of trust and floating an issue of bonds, he failed to perform his part of the agreement. The defendant pleaded guilty when the case was called for trial, and on June 26, 1911, the case was placed on file, with the understanding that the defendant was to make restitution of the money obtained through this scheme. He was again arrested, October 11, 1913, at Boston, Mass., for using the mails to defraud in a similar scheme. The indictment mentioned above was restored to the docket, and when the defendant was brought to trial, November 12, 1913, the indictment was again placed on file. He was again indicted September 25, 1914, at Boston, Mass., for using the mails to defraud in a similar scheme, during 1912 and 1913, under the name of the Industrial Finance Co. He was arrested on May 27, 1915, at Merrimac, Mass., and sentenced June 8, 1915, at Boston, Mass., to serve 1 year and 1 day in the house of correction, Greenfield, Mass. History 18872.

Sentenced July 14, 1910, at Trenton, N. J., to serve 2 years in the Federal penitentiary at Atlanta, Ga., for using the mails to defraud at Jersey City, N. J., during 1910, in obtaining goods for which payment was not made. Sentenced June 10, 1915, at Newark, N. J., to serve 1 year and 6 months in the New Jersey State Prison, Trenton, N. J., for using the mails to defraud at Irvington, N. J., during 1913 and 1914, in failing to furnish goods for which payment had been received. There is pending against him an indictment returned at Trenton, N. J., for fraud in a similar scheme.

His criminal record is reported to be as follows: “Prior to May 10, 1910, he was convicted and sentenced to serve 1 year in the New York County Penitentiary (Blackwells Island) for forgery. The records of the Essex County (N. J.) court show that on June 24, 1912, he was convicted and sentenced for obtaining $187 under false pretenses from a party at Newark, N. J., in having established a business in which $200 was originally invested by the victim. Was paroled in the custody of the county probation officer with the proviso that he was to restore the amount involved through that officer.” Histories 17493 and 26532.

There are pending against this defendant five indictments returned at New York, N. Y., during 1911, for fraud in stock-selling schemes at that place. It is reported that through the operations of this man and his accomplice (one John J. Meyers) the public lost (about) $4,000,000. History 19037.
THOMAS R. SMART.

Aliases: Thomas L. Grant, Northwestern Lumber Co.

Description.—Age, about 45; height, 5 feet 8½ inches; weight, 215; stout build; dark complexion; poor teeth; black hair; brown eyes; slightly Roman nose; regular chin.

Peculiar marks, etc.—Two cut scars left elbow, outer. Right wrist has been broken. Left ear irreg.; has been frozen. Vert. cut scar center of forehead; small mole right side of mouth.

Arrested August 5, 1914, at Idaho Falls, Idaho, for using the mails to defraud at Colorado Springs, Colo., under the name of the Northwestern Lumber Co., during 1913. The scheme operated by Smart consisted of inducing people to pay him $15 with an application to file on Government timber lands in Oregon; that if they would do so, the Northwestern Lumber Co., of Chicago, Ill., with branch offices at Spokane and Seattle, Wash., Portland, Oreg., and San Francisco, Cal., would see to the proper filing of the application, pay all costs incidental thereto, pay the expenses of the applicants in making a trip to Oregon for the purpose of inspecting the land, and return, etc. For the offense outlined he was indicted October 14, 1914, at Denver, Colo. He was released on bond, which was later forfeited. He was later deported from Canada, and on April 21, 1915, he was arrested at Danville, Wash., to answer to the indictment pending against him. He was removed to Denver, Colo., and sentenced July 21, 1915, to serve four months in the county jail at that place, and to pay a fine of $750 and costs of prosecution.

On December 24, 1915, he was again arrested at Denver, Colo., on an indictment returned against him at Santa Fe, N. Mex., October 13, 1915, for using the mails to defraud in a similar scheme at Silver City, N. Mex., November, 1913, for which latter offense he was sentenced February 8, 1916, at Albuquerque, N. Mex., to serve 6 months in jail at Santa Fe, N. Mex., and to pay a fine of $1,000 and costs of prosecution. History 25846.

Sentenced February 8, 1915, at St. Louis, Mo., to serve one year and one day in the Federal penitentiary at Leavenworth, Kans., and to pay a fine of $5,000 for conspiracy to use the mails to defraud at St. Louis, Mo., during 1913. This defendant (and others) obtained wearing apparel, etc., from importers and manufacturers on credit and disposed of the goods without paying for same. False financial statements were issued and through various devices ratings were obtained with the mercantile agencies, by means of which ratings it appears Leibowitz was enabled to secure goods on credit, and for which payment was not made. He was released from the penitentiary December 3, 1915. An indictment which had been returned against him at Danville, Ill., March 16, 1914, for operating a similar scheme to defraud at East St. Louis, Ill., during 1913, was dismissed June 23, 1915. On January 7, 1915, he was indicted at Philadelphia, Pa., for using the mails to defraud in a similar scheme at Columbia, Pa., under the name of the Underselling Department Store, during 1913, and concealing the assets of a bankrupt, which indictment, however, was finally dismissed on March 16, 1916. Many thousands of dollars worth of merchandise were secured in this scheme. History 24560.

Sentenced July 10, 1911, at Dallas, Tex., to pay a fine of $500 (which he paid) for using the mail to defraud at that place, under the name of the Consolidated Securities Co., in a stock-selling scheme. He was indicted January 4, 1910, at Washington, D. C., for conspiring to use the mails to defraud in connection with a stock-selling scheme under the name of the National Trust Co., of Washington, D. C., but according to advice of April 2, 1914, this indictment was dismissed. He was again sentenced January 21, 1914, at Elmira, N. Y., to serve 15 months in the penitentiary, Atlanta, Ga., for using the mails to defraud in connection with the American Redemption Co., of Rochester, N. Y., a corporation organized under the laws of New York, ostensibly engaged in the business of guaranteeing to pay the par value of stocks and bonds of other corporations at the end of a stipulated number of years. In order to take full advantage of this company’s plan, a corporation was required to pay the American Redemption Co. such an amount, which placed at 3½ per cent compound interest would amount to par in the chosen time. This sinking fund was then to be placed with a trust company and was to be invested in high-grade securities to be chosen by the American Redemption Co. Upon entering into a contract with the American Redemption Co. a corporation was required to pay 1 per cent of the total par value of its issue. Histories 12366, 16275, 21799.

Sentenced November 19, 1906, at Milwaukee, Wis., to pay a fine of $1,000 for using the mails to defraud at Milwaukee, Wis., during 1906, in promoting a bond-selling scheme. This fine was paid. He was arrested at Cleveland, Ohio, February 4, 1910, and indicted at Pittsburgh, Pa., April 8, 1910, for using the mails to defraud in a similar scheme at Pittsburgh, Pa., under the name of the Bankers' Bond Co., during 1909, but when the case was called for trial on May 2, 1910, he failed to appear, and his bond was forfeited. He is a fugitive from justice, and there are pending against him indictments returned November 27, December 2 and 16, 1912, at Buffalo, N. Y., for using the mails to defraud in connection with the American Redemption Co., of Rochester, N. Y., during 1911 and 1912. It also appears that an indictment returned February 13, 1907, at Chicago, Ill., for conspiracy to use the mails to defraud at Chicago, Ill., during 1905 and 1906 is pending against him. Daniels is reported to have operated from London, England, with the American Redemption Co., of Rochester, N. Y. Histories 10777 and 21799.

Sentenced March 24, 1916, to serve 2 years and 6 months in the Federal penitentiary at Atlanta, Ga., on an indictment returned in Philadelphia, Pa., June 14, 1910, charging use of the mails to defraud in the “gold-brick” swindle case. Starkloff was arrested on this particular indictment. May 19, 1910; he was released under bail of $11,500 for his appearance June 15, 1910. He failed to appear, his bond was forfeited, and though a vigorous search for him was made, he was not apprehended until December 1, 1915, when he was taken into custody at Altoona, Pa., and returned to Philadelphia, Pa., where he was sentenced March 24, 1916, as above. He was indicted at Boston, Mass., July 9, 1910, by the State authorities for larceny; also indicted at New York, N. Y., May 25, 1910, and at Chicago, Ill., May 26, 1910, for using the mails to defraud in the “gold-brick” swindle. These indictments have not been dismissed, but as to the Federal indictments it is understood that by reason of Starkloff’s pleading guilty at Philadelphia, March 24, 1916, the United States attorneys concerned have agreed not to press them to trial. An indictment returned against Starkloff at Detroit, Mich., December 9, 1910, for using the mails to defraud in a “green-goods” scheme was dismissed April 28, 1916. History 17395.

GEORGE W. POST.

Description.—Age, about 65; height, 6 feet 1½ inches; weight, 215 pounds; build, heavy; complexion, light; hair, dark brown; mole under left eye; nose prominent; scar, round shape, on bridge of nose; shoulders droop.

Arrested at Philadelphia, Pa., May 19, 1910, with his accomplice, E. A. Starkloff. Was released for appearance June 15, 1910, on furnishing bond in amount of $11,500. Indicted by the Federal grand jury at Philadelphia, Pa., June 14, 1910, when it was learned that Post had disappeared on June 3, 1910, forfeiting his bond. Though vigorously sought for, it was not until January 13, 1912, that his whereabouts was ascertained and he was taken into custody at Chicago, Ill. In the meantime indictments had been returned against Post at New York, May 25, 1910; at Chicago, Ill., May 26, 1910; for using the mails to defraud in the "gold-brick" scheme; and at Boston, Mass., July 9, 1910, by the city authorities on the charge of larceny. Post was taken to New York, N. Y., and there sentenced, April 30, 1912, to serve 3½ years in the Federal penitentiary at Atlanta, Ga., and to pay a fine of $11,000. Released on expiration of sentence, February 10, 1915. It appears that indictments outstanding against Post mentioned above, as well as one returned against him October 17, 1900, at Peoria, Ill., were not pressed to trial by reason of an agreement whereby he was to plead guilty to the indictment at New York, N. Y., returned there May 25, 1910, and on which he was sentenced as above, said agreement being between Post and the Department of Justice. George W. Post has been a habitual criminal all his life, having a number of years ago served a term in the Dannemora, N. Y., prison for highway robbery at Albany, N. Y. Since his release from the Atlanta (Ga.) Penitentiary, he was arrested October 21, 1915, at New York, N. Y., on an indictment returned by the State authorities there September 10, 1902, for swindling in an alleged fake stock deal. Disposition of this State case unreported. History 17395.

E. R. KIGER.

Description.—Age about 55; height 6 feet 2½ inches; weight about 180; build, medium; complexion, fair; teeth, upper all out, wears plate, bridge on lower; hair sandy; eyes blue; nose long.

Bertillon.—87.8; 89.5; 101.0; 20.7; 15.6; 14.8; 7.4; 28.4; 12.3; 9.1; 50.4.

"As Edward S. Kale, alias E. S. Kennett, No. 556, arrested March 28, 1910, Springfield, Ohio, false pretenses. April 23, 1910, $75 and cost, and committed to the Xenia workhouse. April 30th, remitted his fine and costs and ordered the released (person) to an officer of the Memphis, Tenn., department.

Sentenced March 27, 1914, at Detroit, Mich., to serve 5 years in the Michigan House of Correction, Detroit, Mich., and to pay a fine of $1,000 for using the mails to defraud at Trenton, Mich., where he promoted the Continental Motor Cycle & Motor Boat Co., R. E. Jordan, secretary and treasurer; advertised the sale of motor cycles and motor boats at considerably less than the cost price thereof, and failed to furnish such goods though many orders and considerable money was received by him.

As Edwin S. Karlan, Kiger was indicted April 5, 1911, at Minneapolis, Minn., for using the mails to defraud at that place. As sales manager of the Vanadium Steel Co., Strassburg, Germany, he employed salesmen in various parts of the country to sell the products of the above-named company, securing from the men employed a cash bond of $300 from each, which he diverted to his own use. This indictment was dismissed October 13, 1915, because of absence of witnesses.

Kiger appears to be identical with Clinton H. Crane, who was indicted December 12, 1912, at St. Louis, Mo., for using the mails to defraud in the promotion of the Nelson-
Crane Machinery Co. there, which was advertising the sale of certain lathes. This indictment was stricken from the docket with leave to reinstate, January 6, 1913.

Indicted July 22, 1913, at Erie, Pa., for fraud scheme at Pittsburgh, Pa., in April, 1913, where he conducted the Tucker Churn Co., and also did business under the name of R. L. Johnson. As the Tucker Churn Co. he advertised an aluminum churn, and required from prospective agents a sum of from $5 to $10 each. He got into communication with several hundred persons from whom he obtained considerable money and then left Pittsburgh.

As Edward W. Connors, alias E. S. Kenny, indicted at New York, N. Y., November 26, 1912, for using the mails to defraud in the conduct of the Automobile Sales Agency, 1531 Broadway, New York, N. Y., his scheme being to obtain purchasers for rebuilt automobiles, and though much money was taken in by him, not one car was ever shipped by him to prospective purchasers. Indictments at Erie, Pa., and New York, N. Y., are pending. History 23633.

DIGGS NOLAN.

Description.—Age, about 30; occupation, pharmacist; height 5 feet 9½ inches; weight, 138; complexion fair; medium chestnut hair; eyes green slate; chin regular; no beard except short sandy mustache.

Peculiar marks.—Small scar at tip of left index; horizontal scar of 1 inch slightly above right wrist front; hor. scar of 1 inch slightly above first joint right index, rear; scar of ¼ inch on first phalanx right thumb, rear; obl. scar of 1 inch on outer half left eyebrow; small scar on right half of upper lip; obl. scar of 1 inch on the left of center point of chin.

The scheme of this person consisted in representing himself as H. K. George to a Mr. Thomas Dennison, a man of considerable means, living in Omaha, Nebr., Nolan stating that he had recently sold a piece of land and was daily expecting the remittance therefor. Pursuant to the plan, he caused to be mailed to himself under the name of H. K. George, a letter containing a forged draft for $1,978 and induced Mr. Dennison to accompany him to the Omaha, Nebr., post office, where he received the letter in question. Exhibiting its contents to Mr. Dennison and insisting that he was in pressing need of money, he persuaded Mr. Dennison to indorse the purported draft jointly with himself and accompany him to the City National Bank, Omaha, Nebr., where the paper was cashed. Subsequently Mr. Dennison was required to make the loss good. Nolan was apprehended at Savannah, Ga., November 16, 1912, and returned to Omaha, Nebr., where he was sentenced January 11, 1913, to serve 5 years in the Leavenworth, Kans., penitentiary and pay a fine of $100. He escaped July 22, 1914, but was returned to the penitentiary February 15, 1915. History 21807.

Description.—Age, about 62; occupation, carpenter and saw filer; height, 5 feet 6 inches; weight, 135; build, slim; complexion, florid; hair, black, turning gray; eyes gray; wears mustache; travels considerably from place to place.

Scheme: Mailing letter at Catoosa, Okla., addressed to H. B. Livensberger, Hydro, Okla., containing representations to the effect that a friend of Mr. Livensberger's family having died in the West had intrusted to him (Stark) certain valuable papers, including a deed to a piece of real estate, for delivery to Mr. Livensberger; that upon receipt of sufficient money to pay railroad fare and buy some clothes he (Stark) would come to Hydro, Okla., and turn the papers over to Mr. Livensberger.

Stark was arrested October 2, 1912, at Vinita, Okla.; indicted November 13, 1912, at Chickasha, Okla., and sentenced at Muskogee, Okla., January 27, 1913, to serve one year and one day in the United States penitentiary at Leavenworth, Kans. Released November 20, 1913. History 21789.

Zinn was sentenced at New York, N. Y., July 25, 1914, to serve 2 years in the United States penitentiary at Atlanta, Ga., for using the mails to defraud at New York, N. Y., in company with one Max Stern, under the name of the Reliable Real Estate & Brokerage Co. Zinn appealed his case, but the appellate court on May 11, 1915, affirmed the conviction in this case.

The fraudulent scheme consisted in the scanning of local papers of towns adjacent to New York, N. Y., for advertisers who had small stores and homes for sale. Under the name of the Reliable Real Estate & Brokerage Co., Zinn and Max Stern (his associate) would send postal cards to the advertisers with information to the effect that they had cash buyers for places answering the descriptions of the properties advertised and requested that the advertiser call at the office of the company in New York, N. Y. When the advertiser called he was informed that the company would guarantee a sale, but that they would require the advertiser to make a cash deposit to insure his not disposing of the property until they could bring the purchaser to such property. The advertisers were informed that in the event the customer did not buy the place advertised, the money would be returned, and in the event of a sale the money already paid would be deducted from the commission agreed upon between the company and the advertiser. Zinn or Stern would then have the advertiser sign his name to a contract and give him a receipt for the money deposited, usually about $20. Subsequently an alleged prospective purchaser would be taken to the property and the owner offered a much smaller amount than he desired for his place. The Reliable Real Estate & Brokerage Co. would then advertise the property in a New York paper and transmit a copy of the advertisement to the owner of the property. When Zinn and Stern failed to sell the property within the time agreed upon and the owner of the property endeavored to secure a return of his money his attention would be called to the receipt of the company which had been previously given him and which read "For services and advertising." In some instances when the receipt was first given the persons receiving same noticed such wording and stated that they did not desire their property advertised. In such instances they were told by Zinn and Stern that this particular phrase did not mean anything and that it was simply a form of receipt and that their money would be returned to them in the event no sale was effected.

It is reported that on the second day of his trial for misuse of the mails in connection with the business of the Reliable Real Estate & Brokerage Co. Zinn defrauded G. Sutton and James Lee out of $25 before coming to court; and that he was conducting a similar business under the name of the German-American Brokerage Co., at 62 Delancey Street, New York, N. Y. After his conviction in the Reliable Real Estate & Brokerage Co. case, and while he was out on bail pending the appeal taken in that case, he opened a place of business at 174 Delancey Street, New York, N. Y., under the name of the Metropolitan Brokerage Co. At this latter address he conducted the same kind of a business as he had been engaged in under the name of the Reliable Real Estate & Brokerage Co. He was indicted at New York, N. Y., December 11, 1914, for using the mails to defraud under the name of the Metropolitan Real Estate & Brokerage Co., New York, N. Y., which indictment is pending against him. Sentenced at New York, N. Y., July 25, 1914, to serve 5 years in the Atlanta, Ga., Penitentiary, for using the mails to defraud in the conduct of the Reliable Real Estate & Brokerage Co., at New York, N. Y. Stern appealed the case and the conviction was affirmed by the appellate court May 11, 1915.

The fraudulent scheme consisted in the scanning of local papers of towns adjacent to New York, N. Y., for advertisers who had small stores and homes for sale. Stern (and Barney Zinn, his half brother, who was associated with him in the business), under the name of the Reliable Real Estate & Brokerage Co., would send postal cards to the advertisers with information to the effect that the Reliable Real Estate & Brokerage Co. had cash buyers for places answering the descriptions of the properties advertised and requested the advertiser to call at the office of the Reliable Real Estate & Brokerage Co., 62 Delancey Street, New York, N. Y. When the advertiser called he was informed that the brokerage company would guarantee a sale, but that they would require the advertiser to make a cash deposit to insure his not disposing of the property until they could bring the purchaser to the advertiser's property. The advertisers were informed that in the event the customer did not buy the place advertised the money would be returned, and that in case of a sale the money already paid would be deducted from the commission agreed upon between the company and the advertiser. Stern or Zinn would then have the advertiser sign his name to a contract and give him a receipt for the money deposited, usually about $20. Subsequently a prospective purchaser would be taken to the property and the owner offered a much smaller amount than he desired for his place. The Reliable Real Estate & Brokerage Co. would then advertise the property in a New York paper and inclose a copy of the advertisement to the owner of the property. When Stern and Zinn failed to sell the property within the time agreed upon and the owner of the property endeavored to secure a return of his money, his attention would be called to the receipt of the company which had been previously given him, which read "For services and advertising,"
In some instances, when the receipt was first given, the persons receiving the receipt noticing the wording "For services and advertising," stated to the Reliable Real Estate & Brokerage Co. that they did not desire their property advertised. In such instances they were told by Stern and Zinn that this particular phrase did not mean anything, and that it was simply a form of receipt, and that their money would be returned to them in the event no sale was effected.

It is reported that Stern has been arrested on numerous occasions in New York on complaint of persons whom he has defrauded, but that through some technicality he failed of conviction in the State courts, and that investigation discloses that he has been engaged in business similar to the one for which he was convicted as far back as 1906. Walter S. Buchanan, of Louisa and Trevilians, Va., used the mails to defraud in representing himself to numerous business houses as a traveling salesman seeking employment and in this way securing samples of merchandise and advance money as salesman, for which no returns were made.

Sentenced at Richmond, Va., October 8, 1912, to serve three years in the Atlanta Ga., Penitentiary. Paroled November 4, 1913; violated his parole and was returned to the penitentiary mentioned, about October 5, 1914. While at liberty on parole Buchanan again engaged in using the mails for fraudulent purposes, and was indicted at Richmond, Va., October 6, 1914. This indictment is outstanding against him. This person has misused the mails for years and had been indicted therefor at Richmond, Va., October 7, 1907. This particular indictment was, however, subsequently dismissed. Histories 9072 and 20888.

Alias: Sam Pickett.

Description.—Age, about 58; height, 5 feet 3½ inches; weight, 134; build, small; complexion, medium; teeth, good; color of hair, bl. gray; eyes, blue; chin, square.

This person would advertise for managers for moving-picture shows, requiring his victims to make a deposit with him of various sums ranging from a few hundred to a thousand dollars, after which he would disappear without giving such victims anything for their investments.

Indicted Sioux City, Iowa, May 23, 1900, for fraud scheme, thereabout December, 1900, and sentenced at Fort Dodge, Iowa, to serve one year and one day in the prison at Anamosa, Iowa. Indicted as Sam Pickett at Pueblo, Colo., October 18, 1901, for fraud scheme at Denver, Colo. Dismissed because principal witness could not be found. Imprisoned in south Illinois penitentiary at Menard, Ill., for forgery in Madison County, Ill.; received at Menard February 25, 1907, paroled January 28, 1909. Broke his parole, and is said (Dec. 11, 1914) to be wanted to finish his term in the Menard, Ill., institution. Indicted Jackson, Miss., November 4, 1912, and May 7, 1913; sentenced May 14, 1913, Jackson, Miss., to serve six months in the Hinds County (Miss.) Jail, and to pay a fine of $250. Indicted Jacksonville, Fla., October 15, 1913, and acquitted there January 17, 1914. Jackson, Miss., and Jacksonville, Fla., indictments were for fraud schemes, at Jackson, Miss., and St. Augustine, Fla., respectively. Sentenced Seattle, Wash., December 7, 1914, to serve three and one-half years in the McNeil Island Penitentiary, Steilacoom, Wash., for fraud scheme at Seattle. This person also indicted in the Federal court at Chicago, Ill., November 30, 1914, for using the mails to defraud there, which indictment is pending against him. History 21861.
MAURICE CHANEY.

Description.—Age, about 44; height, 5 feet 7½ inches; weight, 122; build, slight; complexion, dark; hair, black, graying; eyes, hazel.

Peculiar marks.—Scar of 2.5 outer corner right brow. Scar of 2 at 1.5 inner corner left brow. Pit scar ridge of nose near root.

Bertillon.—70.4; 71.0; 91.6; 19.1; 14.4; 13.1; 6.2; 25.2; 11.2; 9.1; 44.8.

Scheme: The "old produce" plan, whereby high quotations were advertised as being paid for country produce, butter, eggs, etc., and goods obtained from farmers, and others without paying for same. Papers received in the department indicate that the scheme had been operated at Portland, Oreg., under the name of the White Cow & Butter Co.; at New Orleans, La., under the name of the Owen's Supply Co.; and at Salt Lake City, Utah, under the name of the Utah Butter & Egg Co.; also at San Francisco, Cal., as Foster & Foster.

JOHN GRANT LYMAN.

Aliases: Dr. J. Grant Lyman, John H. Putnam, Panama Development Co., John H. Putnam & Co.

Description.—Age, about 52; weight, over 200 pounds; build, stout; height, 5 feet 10½ inches; complexion, ruddy; teeth, fair; hair, brown; eyes, blue-gray; nose, straight; face, round full.

Peculiar marks.—1½" scar under chin 2" x ½" inner side of left arm. Deformity right little finger stiff and flexed at 2nd joint; 4 upper right back and two lower right molars gold crowned; 3 upper left and 2 lower right molars missing.

John Grant Lyman, alias Dr. J. Grant Lyman, was taken into custody at San Francisco, Cal., September 8, 1911, on the charge of using the mails to defraud in the sale of lands in the Republic of Panama, Lyman having operated as the Panama Development Co., of Los Angeles, Cal.; indicted November 9, 1911, at Los Angeles, Cal. While being taken from San Francisco, Cal., to Oakland, Cal., September 11, 1911, Lyman attempted to escape from his guard, but fell, breaking his ankle. While confined in a hospital at Oakland, Cal., by reason of his injured ankle, he effected his escape therefrom; was later apprehended at Lakeview, Oreg., and returned to San Francisco, Cal., where he was sentenced December 22, 1911, to serve 18 months in the Federal penitentiary at McNeil Island, Wash., for conspiracy to escape from jail. At expiration of term in McNeil Island prison he was arrested and removed to Los Angeles, Cal., for trial on the indictment there pending against him for using the mails to defraud; convicted at Los Angeles, Cal., January 9, 1914, and sentenced to serve 15 months in the San Quentin (Cal.) Penitentiary. Lyman appealed his case, which is pending before the circuit court of appeals for the Ninth Circuit, and was released on $20,000 bond. Lyman next promoted John H. Putnam & Co., 68 Broad Street, New York, N. Y., with branch offices in Hartford, Conn. and Springfield, Mass. Lyman represented that he was in partnership with one Charles S. Harkness, who he alleged was a son of a Standard Oil magnate. The scheme was to induce the purchase of oil stock on a partial-payment plan. No stock was purchased, it is alleged, but, instead, the money was converted to Lyman's own use. Lyman fled from New York, N. Y., and was arrested at St. Petersburg, Fla., February 25, 1916. He was returned to New York, N. Y., and in default of $100,000 bail was remanded to the Tombs prison at that place. He was indicted at New York, N. Y., March 6, 1916, and is now awaiting trial. Lyman has been successful in obtaining thousands of dollars from the public in his use of the mails for fraudulent purposes. History 1935.

GEORGE F. COLE.

Description.—Age, about 52; height, 5 feet 7 inches; weight, about 211; build, stout; complexion, medium; hair, ch. m. mixed with gray; eyes, blue; face, full; peculiar marks.—Left middle finger crooks forward at 2nd joint; blue ink dot base l. th. outer; nose is crooked. VI. Ring hernia (large).

Bertillon.—67.9; 82.0; 87.8; 18.2; 15.9; 15.0; 7.4; 26.4; 12.0; 9.8; 48.3. Measurements 12.0 and 48.3 are for the right middle finger and right forearm, respectively.

Previous record.—On April 16, 1893, sentenced to six months in the house of correction, Boston, Mass., for obtaining goods under false pretenses. On June 26, 1902, sentenced to serve three years in the house of correction, Boston, Mass., for forgery.

Cole used the mails to defraud in the conduct of a commission business at Boston, Mass.; he induced farmers to send their produce to him to sell on a commission basis. In settling for same Cole would allege that the shipment was received in damaged condition, that it was of poor quality, or that the market was glutted, and make inadequate returns thereon. He was sentenced at Boston, Mass., October 1, 1912, to serve six months in the house of correction, Ipswich, Mass., for this fraud. In 1913, having resumed his fraudulent transactions in the commission business, he was indicted at Boston, Mass., April 17, 1914, for using the mails to defraud. At the trial of the case at Boston, Mass., June 30, 1914, he was sentenced to serve one year and one day in the Greenfield (Mass.) Jail. Sentence was imposed on the first count of the indictment, with the understanding that in the event of his engaging in a fraudulent business again he will be sentenced under the remaining counts of the indictment. History 20087.
THOMAS A. BEAN.

Description.—Age, about 47; height, 5 feet 8½ inches; weight, about 140; build, medium; complexion, fair; hair, ch. m.; eyes, az. m. No. 1; chin, vert.

Peculiar marks.—I. Sc. of ½" x ½" at 3" bel. 1. elb. rear. Sc. of 1" vt. at 4" bel. 1. elb. inner. Sc. of ¾" x 2½" on left shoulder. Sm. sc. at 3rd phal. 1. mid. fing. frt. III. Upper lip short. IV. Mole at 2½" to r. of fork.

Bertillon.—74.5; 79.0; 91.5; 19.3; 14.8; 13.6; 6.3; 25.8; 11.2; 8.6; 46.9.

Sentences May 14, 1915, at East St. Louis, Ill., to serve three years in the Leavenworth (Kans.) Penitentiary for using the mails to defraud at Dahlgren, Ill., during the month of March, 1915. He represented himself to be in the nursery business as a grower and dealer in a general line of nursery stock, and had letterheads printed so advertising himself. He would write firms claiming to be able to handle as a sideline all kinds of salt meats, lard, fruits, etc., and these he would sell out at the railroad station for any price he could secure, and in many instances gave away things, showing that he placed no value on them and never intended to pay for same.

Previous record: Sentenced at Cairo, Ill., November 16, 1899, to serve a term of 4½ years in the Chester (Ill.) Penitentiary, for using the mails to defraud. Sentenced at East St. Louis, Ill., November 30, 1908, to serve two years in the Leavenworth (Kans.) Penitentiary for fraud scheme at Bluford, Ill. Sentenced at Cape Girardeau, Mo., April 13, 1911, to serve two years in the Leavenworth (Kans.) Penitentiary for fraud scheme at Advance, Mo. Sentenced March 12, 1913, to serve 18 months in the Leavenworth (Kans.) Penitentiary for fraud scheme at Bluford, Ill.

FRAUD.

FRANKLIN A. BOOTH.

Aliases: R. R. Kemp, Charles H. Brown; also see description of offense below.

Description.—Age, about 40; height, about 5 feet 7 or 8 inches; build, medium; teeth, gold crowns; hair, lt. ch.; eyes, blue; chin, pro.

Berlillon.—70.8; 82.0; 90.0; 18.7; 15.6; 14.6; 5.8; 25.3; 11.8; 8.9; 46.7.

Franklin A. Booth was indicted June 27, 1912, at Baltimore, Md., for using the mails to defraud at Frederick, Md., in April and May, 1912; he has never been apprehended for this offense. Booth is believed to be identical with one Charles N. St. John, aliases J. J. Young, St. Johns Wholesale Supply House, Charles H. Brown, J. K. King, and W. Parker, who was indicted November 21, 1910, at Indianapolis, Ind., for using the mails to defraud in the conduct of the St. Johns Wholesale Supply House at Muncie, Ind., in May, 1909, and whose arrest has not been effected or whereabouts ascertained. The scheme in this case consisted in St. John (Booth) opening up a business in a town under the name of some established firm or business man, have elaborate letterheads printed and on this stationery secure prices and order various kinds of merchandise from dealers throughout the country. Because of the similarity in names the swindler is usually able to secure a number of shipments of large quantities of merchandise which he then reships and disposés of, and absconds without paying for same. Reports on file show that St. John worked this scheme at Portsmouth, Va., under the name of W. Parker, in January, 1910; at Danville, Ill., as J. K. King, in July and August, 1910; and that he is also supposed to be identical with one J. J. Young, who operated at Pottsville, Pa., in October, 1911. He is a fugitive from justice under the indictments mentioned above. History 17884.

ALLEN O. THOMAS.

Description.—Age, about 49; height, 5 feet 6½ inches; weight, 169; build, medium stout; complexion, m. sallow; hair dyed black; eyes, chest., sl. blue.

Peculiar marks.—Scar on I. forearm, rear. Mole on I. forearm front. Cut on 3rd joint little finger, r. hand. Scar on neck just below center r. jawbone. Blue mark just in center of r. ear.

Bertillon.—67.9; 71.0; 91.0; 18.4; 15.2; 13.7; 7.1; 25.0; 11.0; 8.0; 45.6.

Sentenced June 11, 1914, at Cincinnati, Ohio, to serve 4 years in the Moundsville (W. Va.) Penitentiary, for using the mails to defraud at that place, in January, 1913. The scheme of Thomas was to sell lands, usually farming property, to which he had no title. It is reported that he secured $1,732.68 from W. L. Marrical, of Oxford, Ohio, in this manner, which is the offense for which he has been sentenced. Thomas admitted having operated his scheme at various places for about four years prior to his prosecution as above. Indicted January 14, 1914, at Erie, Pa., and October 14, 1915, at Cleveland, Ohio, for similar offenses at Pittsburgh, Pa., and Cleveland, Ohio, which indictments are pending against him. Thomas's plan was to select some farm on which the owner was not residing and advertise the same for sale. Receiving a reply to his advertisement he would take the prospective purchaser to the farm, represent it to be his own, by means of forged abstracts of title, etc., and offer to sell it at considerably less than a fair price, accepting as much cash as he could secure and long-term notes for the balance of the purchase price. History 24611.
CHARLES T. HETZEL.

Description.—Age, about 40; height, 5 feet 9½ inches; complexion, sallow; eyes, medium chestnut; hair, m. chestnut; weight, 183; occupation, butcher. Scar at end of left index finger, front.

Bertillon.—76.2; 80.0; 91.9; 19.2; 15.5; 14.8; 6.9; 26.4; 11.8; 9.3; 47.7.

Sentenced at Columbus, Ohio, April 8, 1913, to serve 30 months in the Federal penitentiary at Leavenworth, Kans., and to pay a fine of $500 and costs of prosecution for using the mails to defraud at Columbus, Ohio, in June, 1912. Released on commutation of sentence March 12, 1915. Sentenced at Pittsburgh, Pa., May 6, 1915, to serve a period of one year in the Fayette County Jail at Uniontown, Pa., and to pay the costs of prosecution, for using the mails to defraud at Pittsburgh, Pa., on January 25, 1912.

Hetzel's scheme was to advertise in various publications offering a half interest in his business for sums ranging from $500 to $3,000. Upon getting into communication with a prospective partner he would claim that he was engaged in the grape-juice business and needed more capital. After obtaining the money for a half interest in the alleged business he would disappear or offer excuses to his victim while he would attempt to make another sale of a half interest to some one else. It is reported that Hetzel began his scheme as far back as 1908, and has operated at a number of places.

Helt was arrested at Chicago, Ill., January 4, 1915, for mailing at New York, N. Y., a blackmailing letter addressed to H. A. Guess, Richmond Hill, New York, N. Y., demanding that $1,740 be furnished according to certain directions, under penalty of death. While being taken to New York, N. Y., Helt escaped from the custody of his guards in the Union Station at Pittsburgh, Pa., January 9, 1915, and his whereabouts have not been ascertained. History 27126.

FRANK B. CRAWFORD.

Description.—Age, about 42; height, 5 feet 8 inches; weight, 170; wears spectacles or eyeglasses; very bald; light-brown hair, tinged with gray around ears and back of head; prominent front teeth, several of which are gold filled; has small scar beneath one eye, but it is not known which one.

Indicted May 28, 1914, at New York, N. Y., for using the mails to defraud at that place, the scheme being to secure fees from corporations, ostensibly for the purpose of sending out a large number of circulars in an effort to sell the stock of the concerns from whom he obtained such fees. Crawford disappeared from New York, N. Y., about April 15, 1914, and has not been apprehended. He is wanted on the above indictment. History 25402.

FREDERICK NUGENT.

Aliases: Jean de Astro, Magnetic Mineral Co., Iridescent Order of Iris, Occult School of Science, Prof. Frederick, National Advertising Co., Psychic College, Prof. N. Frederick, Harry Wilson, John Peterson, Kunzman, “Big Swede” Fred Newman, Frank Kunzman, Ihnet Owne.

Description.—Age, about 48; height, 5 feet 8½ inches; weight, 201; build, stout; fair complexion; hair, chestnut medium; eyes, rad. yellow; nose, prominent.

Peculiar marks.—L. arm: Sc. ind. of 1.5 obl. slightly downward on base of thumb rear. Face: Posterior border of each ear deformed. Sc. curved cavity below of 2 at and above left angle of mouth. Scar irregular of 1.5 at outer left eyebrow. Hair thin on top.

Bertillon.—74.0; 29.0; 91.0; 18.7; 15.2; 14.5; 7.0; 26.0; 12.0; 9.6; 47.0.

Nugent was sentenced at New York, N. Y., December 1, 1914, to serve 18 months in the Atlanta, Ga., Penitentiary for using the mails to defraud at that place. Released March 31, 1916.

Nugent operated for a while under the name of Jean de Astro, posing as a celebrated astrologer, and sold a large number of horoscopes for which he received from 10 cents to $5 each. Under the name of “Occult School of Science,” he induced a large number of people to purchase courses in this alleged school in which he pretended to teach all branches of occult science. Under the name of “Iridescent Order of Iris,” Nugent started to form lodges. For $1 Nugent furnished a small piece of glass representing it to be a facsimile of the lucky iris stone, and an alleged ritual which was a small circular containing a few ridiculous descriptions of passwords, grips, etc. Under the name of the Magnetic Mineral Co., Nugent sold so-called loadstones for from $1 to $25 per pair. He advertised these stones to possess the power of making one’s sweetheart love him, reunite dissatisfied couples, promote successful business enterprises, etc. He also operated a fake advertising agency, designated as the National Advertising Co., which was simply a printed letterhead sent out to the unsuspecting public recommending the various schemes promoted by Frederick Nugent. As Prof. N. Frederick, president, he conducted the Psychic College, which purported to teach palmistry by mail. Under the name of Frederick, he operated as a spiritualistic medium and reader of the occult.

Previous record: As Frank Kunzman he was convicted in 1890, at Chicago, III., of larceny and served a term of two years in the Joliet, Ill., Penitentiary. “Under the name of Ihnet Owne he was convicted in 1895, at Chicago, Ill., of larceny, and sentenced to a term of 18 months. Under the name of Harry Wilson, he was convicted at New York, N. Y., in 1905, of sodomy, and sentenced to a term of 5 years and 5 months in Sing Sing Prison.” History 24796.

H. C. WOODARD.

Description.—Age, about 38; height, 5 feet 4½ inches; weight, 128; build, slender; complexion, fair; hair, lt. chf. bald; eyes, sl. blue No. 1.

Peculiar marks.—I. Sc. of 1½ inch oblq. at 1 inch abv. l. elb. frt. Sc. of ¾ inch vertical at and abv. 1st jt. l. thumb, rear. Sc. of ½ inch oblq. in tip l. mid. fing. frt. III. Sc. of ¾ inch hor. inner r. brow. Sc. indist. of 1½ inch oblq. in at 2½ inch abv. in. l. brow. Upper lip a little high.

Bertillon.—64.0; 60.0; 87.5; 18.2; 14.8; 6.0; 24.8; 10.4; 8.0; 43.0.

Sentenced March 24, 1915, at Fort Worth, Tex., to serve 10 years in the Federal penitentiary at Leavenworth, Kans., on indictments returned at that place November 11, 1913, and March 15, 1915, for using the mails to defraud there in January, 1913, and November, 1914.

Previous record: Sentenced at Kansas City, Mo., November 7, 1913, to serve a term of one year and one day in the United States penitentiary at Leavenworth, Kans., for using the mails to defraud at Kansas City, Mo., during the month of August, 1913. Also sentenced at Ft. Worth, Tex., to 30 days in jail there, March 23, 1911, for similar offense there. The scheme operated by Woodard is the old fake produce business, in which the swindler after having sent broadcast to farmers, etc., information as to what he will pay for country produce, usually fancy prices, is successful in having much produce shipped him, which he disposes of quickly, frequently at greatly reduced prices, and then disappears without making any remittances to the persons from whom the produce is obtained. Histories 23102, 23884, 18978.
W. A. SADLER.

Description.—Age, about 45; height, 5 feet 9 inches; weight, 168; build, chunky; complexion, medium dark; teeth, bad; eyes, dark maroon; chin, round; face, full.

Bertillon.—76.5; 76.0; 93.8; 19.1; 15.2; 14.2; 6.2; 26.0; 12.2; 9.5; 47.7.

Sadler was sentenced at Philadelphia, Pa., March 23, 1914, to serve four months in the Moyamensing Prison, Philadelphia, Pa., for using the mails to defraud at that place during 1911, 1912, and 1913.

Sadler’s scheme was to circularize farmers and produce and poultry shippers in North Carolina, Virginia, Maryland, Kentucky, Ohio, and Pennsylvania, soliciting shipments of eggs, butter, poultry, and produce, frequently offering prices in excess of the market quotations. In a number of instances he made payment for the produce received by him and sometimes partial payment for the first shipment, presumably to encourage additional shipments, and when he received additional goods, he either made no payment at all, or sent no-fund checks. It is stated that his operations netted about $6,000, and that his personal and business records are bad. History 24411.
JAMES H. McNICHOLAS.

Description.—Age, about 35, looks younger; height, 5 feet 6 inches; weight, about 150; complexion, light and ruddy; hair, light and thin; eyes, blue; face, smooth, round, and youthful; dresses neatly and well; broad of chest and small feet; guileless expression; when supplied with money, spends lavishly.

McNicholas was indicted October 9, 1912, at Cleveland, Ohio, for using the mails to defraud at that place during the years 1908 and 1909. He was arrested January 28, 1913, at Boston, Mass., returned to Cleveland, Ohio, and lodged in jail at that place, from which he escaped on the night of March 7, 1913, and has not been apprehended since nor his whereabouts positively ascertained. He was assisted in effecting his escape by one Edward Furey (who has not been apprehended) and appears to have proceeded to Canada.

McNicholas promoted at Cleveland, Ohio, a fake mining scheme under the name of the St. Joe Quartz Mining Co. and St. Joe Mineral Co., and succeeded in filching from the public a vast sum of money for stock in his concerns. He is a fugitive from justice, being wanted on the indictment returned against him at Cleveland, Ohio, October 9, 1912. History 21895.

ED. FUREY.

Aliases: Ed. James, James Edwards.

Description.—Age, about 39; height, about 6 feet; weight, about 225; face, round and florid; blond sandy hair, slightly bald; eyes, blue-gray; teeth, good; scar on forehead; bullet scar on hip; also bullet scar on left hand. Tattoo E. J. F. on left forearm; right thumb nail split; very talkative.

J. H. McNicholas, who was held in jail at Cleveland, Ohio, on a charge of using the mails for fraudulent purposes, having been indicted at Cleveland, Ohio, October 9, 1912, escaped from jail there on the night of March 7, 1913. Furey assisted McNicholas in effecting this escape and it seems that both McNicholas and Furey proceeded to Canada. They have not been apprehended and their whereabouts have not been definitely ascertained.

Furey was indicted at Cleveland, Ohio, April 17, 1913, for assisting McNicholas to escape, and is wanted. History 21895.

CLARENCE W. HESTER.

Aliases: H. Moore, Madame C. H. Moore, Madam Karma, Helen Karma, Madam Mizpah, Madame Hester, Madame Charlotte, C. M. Ray, Prof. Windham.

Description.—Age, about 36; height, 5 feet 9 1/2 inches; weight, 128; build, slender; complexion, m. sal.; hair, dk. chestnut.

Bertillon.—76.5; 76.5; 95.0; 18.2; 15.0; 13.2; 6.3; 25.4; 11.5; 8.6; 46.3.

Sentenced at Lincoln, Nebr., January 26, 1914, to serve four months in the Hall County jail at Grand Island, Nebr., for using the mails to defraud, at Omaha, Nebr., in March and April, 1912, as a clairvoyant, astrologer, etc., under various names (see aliases given above). A woman known as Charlotte H. Moore associated with Hester in the operation of this scheme; she was sentenced at Omaha, Nebr., May 6, 1912, to serve three months in jail at Grand Island, Nebr., for a similar offense. It is reported that Hester and Charlotte H. Moore traveled extensively over the country conducting their business as clairvoyants, astrologers, etc., among the points visited being Denver, Colo., Albuquerque, N. Mex., San Francisco, Cal., Belvidere, Ill., Omaha, Nebr., and Council Bluffs, Iowa, and that Hester was the principal in such business. History 20987.
C. ALBERT MEAD.

Aliases: W. Ogden Harris, People's Packing Co., Paraffine Oil Co.

Description.—About 44 years of age; height, 5 feet 6 1/2 inches; weight, 112; medium slender build; medium complexion; chestnut dark hair; eyes, chestnut medium gray, slightly azure; slight scar third joint left index finger, front; sl. irr. scar at third jt. right index finger, front; brows arched and meet; prominent Adam's apple.

The above is from a likeness of Mead taken at Leavenworth (Kans.) Penitentiary in 1910.

Mead was indicted at Seattle, Wash., June 18, 1915, for using the mails to defraud in a scheme to sell town lots in Prosperity, Wash., and failing to deliver title to lots after receiving payment therefor. He left Seattle, Wash., in March or April, 1915, and his subsequent whereabouts have not been ascertained. It is thought he will engage elsewhere in some similar enterprise.

Previous record: Arrested December 21, 1905, at Pittsburgh, Pa., for using the mails to defraud at that place under the name of W. Ogden Harris, manager of People's Packing Co. Indicted May 8, 1906, at Pittsburgh, Pa.; case called May 9, 1906, at that place, when sentence was suspended. In this case Mead sent out circulars soliciting $1 for a Thanksgiving dinner and failed to make returns therefor. Sentence was suspended for the reason that when case was called Mead had already spent about five months in jail. Mead was next sentenced at Columbus, Ohio, December 13, 1910, to serve 18 months in the Leavenworth (Kans.) Penitentiary and to pay a fine of $500 and costs in each count (three counts), sentences as to each other to be concurrent, for using the mails to defraud in connection with the operation of the Paraffine Oil Co., at Zanesville, Ohio, and Parkersburg, W. Va., in a stock-selling proposition. Histories 9616, 18302, and 28471.

Defendant has filed notice of appeal in this case and released on $2,500 bail, pending disposition of same. Indictment returned at New York, N. Y., August 6, 1915, for using the mails in a scheme to defraud in 1909 to 1915, by securing goods without intention of paying for same, is pending. This person was one of the accomplices of Louis Bamberger, whose scheme was to secure employment as a salesman by answering advertisements appearing in newspapers and representing that he had a large number of “good” accounts, and thus secure a position as salesman on a commission basis for goods sold. He would then furnish his employers with orders for goods to be delivered to his accomplices, who would obtain same without payment. History 28365.

CHARLES MILLER.

Description.—Age, about 40; height, 5 feet 11 inches; weight, 160; med. build; black hair; brown eyes: dk. sallow complexion; dk. chest. mustache.

Peculiar marks.—Second and third joint off 3rd fing., 1. Sc. 1 jt. thumb back, l. Eyes crossed.

Bertillon.—80.0; 80.0; 91.7; 19.3; 15.6; 6.2; 27.1; 12.6; 9.6; 48.5.

Miller, under various aliases, used the mails to defraud at various places, his plan being to secure control of a retail floral concern which had a good standing and credit, but which was going out of business because it was not remunerative, or for other sufficient reasons. After securing control of a floral concern, he would order floral supplies by mail under the name of the concern to whose business he had succeeded, and would fail to pay for same. When his arrest would seem imminent, he would leave the locality. In his operation in six or seven States, extending over a period of five years, it is estimated that he has obtained at least $5,000.

He was first arrested November 10, 1913, at Knoxville, Tenn., for this scheme mentioned above during April, 1911. The grand jury, at Knoxville, Tenn., on December 17, 1913, failed to return an indictment. He was again arrested December 19, 1913, at Knoxville, Tenn., and ordered removed to western district of Pennsylvania. Indicted January 14, 1914, at Erie, Pa., for illegally depositing letters during September, 1913, in the post office at Corry, Pa., in furtherance of a scheme to defraud. Sentenced February 3, 1914, at Pittsburgh, Pa., to undergo imprisonment in the Allegheny County Jail, Pittsburgh, Pa., for a period of two months.

Arrested, April 10, 1914, at Pittsburgh, Pa., under an indictment returned March 11, 1914, at Scranton, Pa., for illegally depositing letters during May, 1912, in the post office at Shippensburg, Pa. He was sentenced under this latter indictment May 4, 1914, at Harrisburg, Pa., to undergo imprisonment in the Dauphin County Prison, Harrisburg, Pa., for a period of 30 days.

Arrested, June 5, 1914, at Harrisburg, Pa., for illegally depositing letters on or about March 31, 1913, in the post office at Mount Vernon, Ill., in furtherance of a scheme to defraud. Petition for removal of Miller to Illinois denied by court, and his release from custody was ordered on June 29, 1914. History 24185.

Indicted July 8, 1913, at San Francisco, Cal., for using the mails to defraud at Oakland, Cal., under the name of the Crown Perfumery Co., etc., in a work-at-home scheme. Indicted again September 16, 1913, at San Francisco, Cal., for a similar scheme at Berkeley, Cal., under name of the Berkeley Apron Co. September 20, 1913, he was sentenced at San Francisco, Cal., to serve 3 years in the California State penitentiary, San Quentin, Cal., on the indictment under date of July 8, 1913. On the indictment under date of September 16, 1913, he was sentenced at San Francisco, Cal., October 1, 1913, to serve a term of three years in the same institution, these sentences to run concurrently. Arrested March 4, 1910, at Omaha, Nebr., for use of mails in aid of scheme to defraud by advertising in Omaha newspapers, on February 26-27, 1910, and depositing in and taking from mails certain letters. Indicted April 6, 1910, at Omaha, Nebr., and sentenced on that date and place to serve a term of 1 year and 1 day in the United States penitentiary, Leavenworth, Kans., and to pay a fine of $200. He was again indicted at Kansas City, Mo., on April 28, 1910, for fraudulent use of the mails at Kansas City, Mo., on February 18, 1910. Arrested January 27, 1911, after his release from the Federal penitentiary, Leavenworth, Kans. In this case, upon recommendation of the United States attorney, sentence was suspended, subsequent action depending upon the behavior of the defendant. His scheme was to insert advertisements in the Omaha newspapers offering for $150 and services a permanent office position with an incorporated manufacturing company, salary $100 per month and share of the profits; and for $250 a half interest in an established business of an incorporated manufacturing company, salary $125 per month and half the profits of the sales. The proposition unfolded was that the United Manufacturing Co. proposed to establish a branch office and desired to engage a resident manager. It was required by the applicant to put up a certain amount of cash and there would be issued to him a certificate for stock in the company. The circulars in the files show that he was alleged to be promoting the sale of a preparation called Richardson's Eradicator for removing stains, oil, pitch, etc. It is reported that persons in California, Oregon, Utah, Alabama, Louisiana, Texas, and other States were each defrauded out of sums ranging from $150 to $500 by this scheme. Sentenced June 15, 1914, at Philadelphia, Pa., to serve a term of 8 years in the Eastern Penitentiary, Philadelphia, Pa., for writing and mailing two black-hand letters (addressed to Karagheusian & Bros., New York, N. Y.), on December 12 and 15, 1913, respectively, at Philadelphia, Pa. He has systematically blackmailed and attempted to blackmail his own relatives in this country, and is reported to have stolen $500 from one of his employers in New York City, and then absconded, and joined the United States Army, serving in the Ninth Infantry, San Antonio, Tex., for a period of about six months, when he deserted, more than five years ago. Owing to his education, he appears to be a leader among his fellow Armenians in this country, taking a very prominent part in their meetings, usually being the principal speaker. This man stated that at one time he was a member of an organization which for a number of years has been engaged in a scheme to blackmail wealthy Armenians. History 25149.

Sentenced March 15, 1915, at Denver, Colo., to serve a term of 1 year and 1 day in the Federal penitentiary, Leavenworth, Kans., and pay costs of prosecution, for mailing a letter at Superior, Colo., September 20, 1914, in furtherance of a scheme to defraud. Worthless-check scheme was worked by this man as follows: He would open an account with a bank by depositing sufficient funds in cash, then deposit to his credit a check, made payable to himself, for a large amount, and immediately thereafter check out liberally to himself before it would be discovered that the check which he had deposited was worthless. In his operations he used the mail in writing to himself and in sending checks to the several banks. The character of this person is very bad. The list of persons he has defrauded appears to be a long one. He was released January 3, 1916. History 26692.

Sentenced October 19, 1914, at Denver, Colo., to serve a term of 3 years in the Federal penitentiary, Leavenworth, Kans., for mailing a letter at Denver, Colo., August 11, 1914, in furtherance of a scheme to defraud. His scheme was to advertise in Denver, Colo., papers that he had a number of chickens for sale, offering them at attractive prices, giving Fort Morgan, Colo., as his address. He owned no chickens whatever, nor did he intend to furnish any for the money received. He also scanned the “Wanted to purchase” columns in the Denver papers and wrote to advertisers stating he had what they desired. In this connection he obtained $30 for a phonograph, although he owned none, nor did he intend to furnish any for the money received. There is a Federal indictment pending against this person returned at Lincoln, Nebr., under date of December 11, 1914, for using the mails to defraud at Falls City, Nebr., July 11, 1914, in a similar poultry scheme. JOHN T. HALL.

Description.—Age, about 49; height, 5 feet 8½ inches; weight, 190; stout build; fair complexion; teeth, 6 out; lt. chest. hair; blue var. eyes; prom. nose; recdg. chin; full face.

Peculiar marks.—Scar of 3 vert. on base of l. thumb, front. Scar of 1 obl. inner between 1st joints of r. index and middle finger, rear. Small white scar from boil at 6 below slightly to rear r. angle of mouth under right maxillary. Small scar (boil) under l. pt. of chin. Scar from boil at 3 above to l. of larynx. Wart at 4 above and to r. of 70.

Bertillon.—73.5; 75.0; 91.5; 18.0; 15.7; 14.1; 6.4; 25.9; 11.0; 8.7; 47.1.

Sentenced November 19, 1915, at New York, N. Y., to serve a term of two years in the Federal penitentiary, Atlanta, Ga., for mailing at New York, N. Y., letters, in September and December, 1913, and in August, 1914, in furtherance of a scheme to defraud. Hall followed the usual course of concerns which solicited amateur writers to have their poems set to music. All poems were accepted, and, after being printed, were stored away and no practical attempt was made to popularize them. A profit of about $20 was made on each poem, although it was represented that the $45 paid by the authors was only a part of the cost of producing the song and making it popular. It is estimated that approximately $125,000 was filched from the public by this party. A number of misrepresentations was made by Hall in order to secure this money, and several things which he promised to do, he made no effort to carry out. While the songs were usually published, the fraud consisted in accepting poems of any degree of merit on the representation that if set to music, it would become a song hit and prove a source of income to the author. He has also been charged with conducting an alleged prize contest in which three or four thousand people were advised that their particular song would be one of 10 to be reviewed by the judges, whereas, instead of 10, he secured some four or five thousand poems. The authors were informed that before these poems could be reviewed, a suitable melody must be written, and for this work they paid the sum of $10 to the Knickerbocker Harmony Studios. After this contest was closed, Hall then attempted to induce these three or four thousand participants to pay him $31.50 to have a song published under his old scheme under the guise that they could recover their money through royalties obtained from the sale of this song. There is at present an indictment pending against him returned at New York, on February 26, 1915, for alleged use of the mails for fraudulent purposes. History 26490.

GLEN R. ELLIOTT.

Description.—Age, about 32; height, 5 feet 5½ inches; weight, 122; medium build; sallow complexion; teeth, 1 left upper gold; dk. chest. hair; lt. blue eyes; reg. nose; proj. chin; oval face.

Bertillon.—Q6.5; 73.0; 86.1; 18.7; 13.3; 6.0; 25.1; 11.3; 9.0; 45.4.

Sentenced February 9, 1915, at Cleveland, Ohio, to serve four years in the United States penitentiary, Leavenworth, Kans., and to pay a fine of $1,000 for mailing at Cleveland, Ohio, November 17, 1915, an obscene and threatening letter containing a demand for money. Previous history shows that Elliott (alias Glen W. Dixon) was arrested November 7, 1914, at St. Paul, Minn., indicted December 1, 1914, at St. Paul, and sentenced at that place on December 4, 1914, to imprisonment in the Federal penitentiary, at Leavenworth, Kans., for 1 year and 1 day, for mailing an obscene postal card, and two blackmailing letters at St. Paul, November 6, 1914, demanding a sum of money. He has served terms as follows:

As Charles Lorenz, No. 1020, February 20, 1901, sentenced at Columbus, Ohio, to an indeterminate term in the Ohio State reformatory, Mansfield, Ohio, for stealing a horse; paroled April 18, 1902, returned May 6, 1902, paroled February 1, 1904, returned April 5, 1904, declared a violator August 26, 1905, located in St. Louis, Mo., and restored to parole September 19, 1905, returned January 7, 1906, paroled, January 15, 1908, and given final release March 19, 1909. Under the name of Carl Russell, he was arrested at Wyandotte, Mich., January 20, 1908, for grand larceny, and on April 25, 1908, he was sentenced to serve 1 year and 6 months in the house of correction, Detroit, Mich. It will be observed that he committed the offense in Michigan five days after he was paroled from the Ohio reformatory. As Charles Lorenz, he was received in the reformatory, Anamosa, Iowa, December 24, 1910, under a sentence of 5 years for larceny, and released from that institution September 19, 1914. Histories 26418 and 29011.

Peculiar marks.—I. Two small moles outer r. shoulder. II. Eyebrows united. III. Small mole center r. cheek. IIII. Slight limp, l. foot.

Sentenced February 16, 1915, at Kansas City, Kans., to serve a term of two years in the United States penitentiary, Leavenworth, Kans., for use of the mails in the promotion of a fraudulent scheme at Kansas City, Kans., about December 9, 1914.

His method of operation was as follows, namely, advertising in daily papers in the following cities—Wichita, Kansas City, Parsons, and Independence, all in the State of Kansas, to the effect that for $1 he would send, parcel post prepaid, from 15 to 20 pounds of fine pecans. After securing all the money possible at Wichita, Kans., where he operated first, he located at Kansas City, Mo., and operated a scheme to defraud by advertising for motion-picture operators, who were required to send him $5 to Paola, Kans., as a guarantee that they (the prospective employees) would go to Paola later to begin service, when the $5 would be returned. The fraudulent schemes at Parsons and Independence, Kans., which had been advertised by him and resulted in large quantities of mail being addressed to him under the names of Canady and Eubanks, were not consummated on account of his arrest. He was paroled December 27, 1915. History 26687.
HERMAN HEINSUIS.

Alias: Herman Haase.

Description.—Age, about 51; height, 5 feet 5\textfrac{1}{2} inches; weight, 143; med. build; dark complexion; teeth, upper front bridge, jaw bad; ch. m. grs. hair; rad. chest. eyes; oval face; iron gray beard and mustache.

Bertillon.—66.0; 67.0; 89.5; 19.4; 14.8; 13.2; 6.5; 26.3; 11.4; 8.7; 43.5.

Sentenced October 14, 1914, at New York, N. Y., to serve 1 year and 1 day in Federal penitentiary, Atlanta, Ga., for fraudulent use of the mails in the sale of bogus whisky certificates, at New York, N. Y. Heinsuis was arrested September 4, 1914, at Albany, N. Y., as a result of complaint by a large number of persons to the effect that he had swindled them out of large sums of money by representing to them that he was a whisky distiller with a distillery at Prestonville, Ky., and thereby inducing them to purchase from him certificates for whisky, which was alleged to be in the United States bonded warehouse at that point, but which certificates afterwards turned out to be bogus. At the trial he pleaded guilty and admitted he had swindled a great many people, and that his operations extended to at least a dozen States. He also admitted that he had been arrested on at least four occasions, and that on one of them (a New Mexico complaint) he had jumped his bail, and that on the others he had been discharged for lack of sufficient evidence. The amount of money mulcted from the public by his operations is not known, but it is believed that it would amount to at least $10,000. He was released from prison August 5, 1915. History 26036.

Bertillon.—70.3; 74.9; 87.9; 19.6; 14.1; . . . 6.7; 26.4; 11.8; 9.2; 46.3.

Sentenced January 7, 1911, at Chicago, III., to serve a term of 21 years in the Illinois State Penitentiary, Joliet, Ill., on an indictment returned at Chicago, III., June 27, 1913, charging fraudulent use of the mails, operating as mail-order business dealing in numerous small articles of merchandise, and, after receiving sums of money ranging from 10 cents to $1, Hammond made no effort to fill such orders. It is estimated Hammond secured through the fraudulent operations of his various mail-order concerns (failure to furnish merchandise and the use of worthless checks) approximately $5,000. In addition to the failure to furnish the merchandise ordered by his customers Hammond also engaged in a scheme to defraud various banks in Chicago, Ill., Spangler, Barnesboro, Clymer, Indiana, Cresson, and Johnstown, Pa. Under names of the various mail-order concerns Hammond opened checking accounts with certain banks at these places and deposited therein a large number of worthless checks. The Chicago banks, through the Pinkerton Detective Agency, caused his arrest on December 18, 1913, on a State warrant, charging issuance of worthless bank checks. He was placed under bond of $15,000, in default of which he was committed to the Cook County (Ill.) Jail, at Chicago, Ill. However, Hammond was subsequently delivered to the Federal authorities by the Chicago police, and on December 29, 1913, was arraigned for trial before United States Judge K. M. Landis, United States court, Chicago, Ill., where on the same date he was found guilty as charged in the Federal indictment returned on June 27, 1913, and sentenced as noted previously. Hammond is reported to be an unscrupulous swindler and confidence man. History 21790-

MONEY ORDER FORGER.

CLEVE A. WINGERD.

Description.—Age, about 30; height, 5 feet 7½ inches; weight, 145; brown hair; blue eyes.

Peculiar marks, etc.—Large vaccination mark on upper left arm. Butterfly upper left arm; butterfly on right shoulder. Gibson woman head lower right arm.

Sentenced October 16, 1913, at San Francisco, Cal., to serve 1 year in the county jail at Oakland, Cal., for stealing a money order for $40 at Oakland, Cal. On April 20, 1912, Wingerd entered Station 24, of the Oakland, Cal., post office and presented an application for a $40 money order to the clerk. The clerk issued the order, and handed it to Wingerd as he, at the same time, tendered his money, which consisted of two $10 bills and a quantity of 50-cent pieces. As the clerk was engaged in counting the money Wingerd inclosed the money order in an envelope and sealed same. The clerk found that the money amounted to but $36.40 and so informed Wingerd, who appeared surprised. He took the money and pretended to count it, and then remarked that he would go home for the balance. The clerk then requested that Wingerd return the money order, whereupon the defendant handed to the clerk a sealed envelope, which it was later discovered did not contain the money order, but instead contained a portion of a newspaper. The money order was later negotiated through a merchant at Oakland, Cal. It appears that the police authorities of San Francisco, Cal., also had a charge against Wingerd for working a similar scheme upon Wells, Fargo & Co. History 21375.

ALBERT DAVIS.

Description.—Colored; age, about 25; height, 5 feet 8 inches; weight, 140; medium build; brown complexion; good teeth; black hair.

Sentenced November 23, 1914, at Jonesboro, Ark., to serve 6 months in Craighead County Jail, Jonesboro, Ark., for forgery of money order at Vincent, Ark., February 22, 1913, and fraudulent use of the mails at Vincent, Ark., March 10, 1913. In the former charge (forgery of money order) Davis embezzled letter handed to him for mailing, changed the name of the payee on the money order therein, and sent it away with the letter, signed Albert Smith, with an order for tobacco. In the latter charge (fraudulent use of the mails) he obtained a phonograph and some records, for which he promised to pay in monthly installments. This he failed to do, stating that phonograph had been destroyed in the high water of the spring of 1913, and that as he did not have this machine he would not pay for it. Later, under the name of Leon Thomas, he ordered another phonograph from the same company, which order they refused to fill. It is reported that Davis is believed to have defrauded many concerns during the 18 months preceding his prosecution as above.

Previous history shows Davis was sentenced May 24, 1909, at Memphis, Tenn., to serve a term of 3 years in the National Training School for Boys, Washington, D. C., for riffling a drop box in the Germantown, Tenn., post office, June 18, 1909. Histories 25766 and 16051.

Sentenced September 21, 1915, at New York, N. Y., to serve a term of 2 years in the United States penitentiary, Atlanta, Ga., for raising and passing three money orders on August 11, 1915, and other dates, at New York, N. Y.

Previous history.—Wood was arrested at New York, N. Y., May 24, 1911, for using the mails to defraud at New York, N. Y., under the name of the Cooperative Music Publishing Co. This company was supposed to be organized for the purpose of assisting and cooperating with amateur authors and composers in printing and marketing their compositions. Before the company would interest itself in an author's composition it was necessary for such an author to purchase at least five shares of stock at $5 per share. Wood never published a manuscript, nor is it apparent he ever made any effort to do so. By this scheme he mulcted from the public about $1,600. He was indicted June 8, 1911, at New York, N. Y., and on October 17, 1911, sentence was suspended at that place upon Wood's promise to make restitution. He reported to the court the following January, when he was directed to make a more substantial reimbursement to those defrauded, and again appear. He then disappeared and was not located again until arrested for passing the money orders mentioned above. Histories 28627 and 19352.

Edward R. Collins, former postmaster at Goldfield, Nev., left that place February 4, 1914, taking with him about $5,000 of Government funds, and has not been apprehended.

Description.—Age, about 45, but appears younger; height, 5 feet 7 inches; weight, 160 or 170 pounds; hair, light brown; eyes, blue, large, prominent, and piercing; lips quite thin and very close to teeth, giving appearance of smiling at all times; ears are large and stand out from head; complexion dark and sallow; wears No. 16 collar, 8 or 8½ shoe; feet rather peculiarly shaped; wears frame glasses when reading and frequently when traveling; usually wears an Elk badge on lapel of coat, large diamond set Elk tooth watch charm; watch carried in upper vest pocket with small gold chain across vest to opposite vest pocket. He has on one limb above knee a scar caused by a .45-caliber bullet; this wound sometimes causes a slight limp; has a peculiar swing to his walk. Dresses neatly and always wears hat well down over the eyes. He smokes incessantly with cigar well in corner of mouth; chews tobacco, which is usually carried in cloth receptacle in hip pocket; when standing habitually carries both hands in hip pocket. His conversation is rapid, with frequent oaths. He is a butcher by trade, but would hardly follow hard labor, being more inclined to manipulate an investment of some kind.

Collins was seen last in the vicinity of Los Angeles, Cal., February 12, 1914. He was indicted April 13, 1914, at Carson City, Nev., for embezzlement of $5,000 Government funds while postmaster at Goldfield, Nev., and is wanted for trial. History 25166.

Arrested December 13, 1910, at Fort Payne, Ala., for using the mails to defraud at that place, during 1909, in a stock-selling scheme, under the name of the Fort Payne Fuel and Iron Co. Six indictments were returned against him February 21, 1911, at Gadsden, Ala., one indictment charging him with conducting a lottery in connection with the above scheme, and the other five indictments charging him with using the mails to defraud. On February 9, 1912, at Gadsden, Ala., he was sentenced to pay a fine of $250 and costs on the lottery indictment. On August 9, 1912, at Gadsden, Ala., he was sentenced to serve 13 months in the Federal penitentiary at Atlanta, Ga., and to pay a fine of $100, this sentence covering but one of the indictments mentioned above, charging fraudulent use of the mails. The case was appealed and the defendant released on bond, pending outcome of appeal. Again on July 7, 1913, he was arrested at Fort Payne, Ala., and indicted twice at Gadsden, Ala., August 7, 1913, for using the mails to defraud at Fort Payne, Ala., during 1912 and 1913, in a stock-selling scheme under the name of the Wills Valley Oil & Gas Co., Fort Payne, Ala., and the DeKalb-Etowah Oil & Gas Co., Collinsville, Ala. On August 16, 1913, at Gadsden, Ala., he was sentenced (on one of these indictments) to serve 5 years in the Federal penitentiary at Atlanta, Ga. This case was also appealed, and the defendant released on bond, pending the outcome of the appeal. He was again arrested October 11, 1913, at Birmingham, Ala., on an indictment returned against him at Gadsden, Ala., August 11, 1913, charging him with fraudulent use of the mails. Advice of June 19, 1914, states that the United States Circuit Court of Appeals confirmed the two convictions mentioned above, and the defendant was delivered to the Federal penitentiary at Atlanta, Ga., November 13, 1914, to serve the two sentences imposed upon him. According to the records of the department it appears that four of the indictments returned against Drew February 21, 1911, at Gadsden, Ala., charging fraudulent use of the mails, are outstanding; that one of the indictments returned August 7, 1913, at Gadsden, Ala., is outstanding, as well as the indictment returned August 11, 1913, at Gadsden, Ala., for using the mails to defraud.
