First American Pronunziamento

Issued by the Charter Members of the Supreme Grand Lodge as Founders of the Order in America.

The Ancient and Mystical Order Rosae Crucis in the United States of America its Territories and Dependencies, shall be an independent organization operating under its own Constitution.

Its purposes shall be the same as those of the "Order Rosae Crucis" throughout the world, and its Constitution shall be identical in spirit with that which guides and directs this Order in other lands. The Order in America, shall, however, retain its fraternal and spiritual relation with this Order in other countries, regardless of its independent jurisdiction and shall maintain its adherence to the traditional principles and laws of the ancient Rosae-crucians.

Since both the ancient and modern form of government of the Order is autocratic in nature, the government of the Order in America shall adopt strictly autocratic principles of government, but because of the necessary division of America into many jurisdictions operating under one American Constitution, the said Constitution shall embody such changes or modifications as will properly meet the requirements of this jurisdiction.

Therefore it is declared that the attached Constitution of which this Pronunziamento is a part was prepared after consultation of all possible authorities and with proper discussion by all the Founders of the Order in America, and was finally approved and adopted by the Charter Members of the Supreme Grand Lodge in America and shall be adopted and ratified by all Lodges now organized or hereafter to be organized and Chartered by the Supreme Grand Lodge or the Imperator of the Order in America.

Decreed and Issued June, 1915, at a meeting of the First American Supreme Council held in the City of New York, N. Y.

The Official Symbols shall be the same as those used by Lodges of this identical Order in other lands and in accordance with the dictates of the American Supreme Council. All such seals or symbols shall be distinctly different in some essential so as to make separate registration possible with the Supreme Grand Lodge.

(The Official Symbol of the Order in its exoteric form in America, as adopted by the Supreme Grand Lodge, consists of an equilateral triangle with its point downward. In the centre of this triangle shall be a cross formed of one perpendicular line rising from the lower point and rising to the horizontal line of the top of the triangle, and meeting it to form right angles therewith. This upright line shall be crossed, about two-thirds above the point of the triangle with a horizontal line touching the two sides of the triangle.)

NOTE.—The names and symbols thus adopted and given in the above paragraphs were absolutely new in America at the time they were adopted by the American Supreme Council and were not in use by any similar or other organization group or Lodge in America, and were not a simulation of any other secret order symbols.

Full regalia and insignia must be worn by all officers and members.
