SOLAR AND PERSONAL MAGNETISM
1897, BY F. E. ORMSBY

Chicago

The Pyramid-Cube University is the outgrowth—an evolution—resulting from long years of research in the study of Natural Law—the finer forces that relate the varied manifestations of life to each other and to the primal cause that underlies each and every phenomenon in this vast realm of being.

Make your city a university center.

Have a university in your midst.

Here is your opportunity.

Offers every child a university training.

Gives every person a university association.

Brings every branch of learning to your door.

Opens up a new life in your community.

Makes you equal with other university centers.

Enables your boys and your girls to compete with the world in matters of education and culture.

Benjamin Franklin said: "If a man empties his purse into his head, no man can take it away from him. An investment in knowledge always pays the best interest."

Every child should have the advantages of a University education. It is due every person, young and old, to have the opportunity to frequently visit a University.

This University differs from all other institutions of learning in that the basis of its work rests upon the law of causation, an unchangeable and eternal principle, that connects phenomena to Infinite Energy—Force, Life.

The condition of the world is such that there appears to be no fixed basis for thought. Every department of learning is burdened with theoretical speculation that conveys no definite information to one in search of truth, and which tends to mold the mentality of man in a cast of indecision, doubt, fear and irreverence for truth.

To meet the demand for a short, quick method of character reading at sight, the Pyramid-Cube University issues for its students this volume, containing the text of a simple and comprehensive study of human nature—traits, tendencies, capabilities, vocational adaptation, co-ordinations, auric colors and gems; with numerous sidelights on the development of the higher faculties of being leading to truth, knowledge of self, understanding of human nature, and the attainment of Wisdom and Success.

The book is furnished with or without the extra test lessons given by correspondence. University Degree S. C. D. (Sight Character Delineator) conferred on those who take the complete course and pass the final examination. Terms for complete course on request.

KNOWLEDGE ENNOBLES PERSONALITY.

The Science of Magnetism Reveals the Truths
of Nature

Human Nature Study Is a Revelation
Every Person's Life Is a Mystery Without
This Revelation

Knowledge of self is the highest attainment. To know the nature, temperament, physical and mental characteristics and adaptability of a child the moment it is born is one of the greatest achievements of man.

No other knowledge thus far evolved sheds so much light along the pathway of human endeavor.

It inspires confidence, promotes health, banishes fear and eliminates disease.

It solves the mystery of the new born babe and places its life clearly under the intelligent guidance of its parents.

It tells what to do with the boys.

It tells what to do with the girls.

It forewarns and forearms at every step in life.

It saves time, money, worry, adult and infantile suffering.

It makes for harmony, peace, pleasure and greater prosperity.

---

GET RIGHT * * *

"Know Thyself."

"Get Knowledge and Understanding."

"With Understanding comes Wisdom."

"And Greatest of all is Wisdom."

In ancient time from mouth to ear,
The early Sages, old and wise,
Imparted truths—the way made clear—
To secrets of the earth and skies.

Today the world's constructive thot,
By genius of advancing light,
Thru pen and press is clearly brot,
To all who seek the truth aright.

When Truth is known, Mystery becomes transparent.
When Truth is lived, Falsehood becomes transparent.
When Truth Analizes, Theories become transparent.
When Truth is the basis, All things become transparent.

THE SAGE'S KEY TO CHARACTER AT SIGHT

The Solar Symbol. Diagram 1

Carved in the stone floor of the Great Pyramid of Giza, the ancients made an enduring record of the Zodiac, the only carvings within and without this wonderful structure, discovered and decipherable by man at the present time. This fact should arrest the attention of every thinker and reasoner seeking the truths of nature.

So accurate, scientific and far-reaching in its scope and application in the attainment of knowledge, it may, without fear of contradiction, be claimed as the Sages' Key to the secrets of nature's finer forces and the relation of man thereto.

In the study of human nature therefore, this symbol is necessarily basic to the correct analysis and comprehension of personal attributes, character, qualifications, adaptations, and all that personality means in the manifestation of individual being.

Expressing in symbolic form the operation of nature in the clustering of organized matter-protoplasm—in the causation and evolution of forms—it is divided into twelve sections or fields, showing the principle and action of radiant energy emanating from the sun, the center of our solar system.

These twelve fields being constantly charged with solar magnetic vibrations from this center, and stimulated by the ever moving and changing radio-activity of the several planets within the solar circle; which movements and changes from field to field produce varying activities and effects, brings us to the logical conclusion that the phenomena of life must in some way be linked and affected by such an array of magnetic power.

Studious minds, thru ages of time, discovered certain qualities and effects upon life and character; and these findings were recorded and handed down from generation to generation, evolving the while the deeper knowledge and understanding which finally led to the discovery of the science of Solar Magnetism.

The truths given in this course—the system employed—is a result which untold thousands of years of patient research and demonstration made possible. Therefore, the author and discoverer of the principle and science of Solar Magnetism has reconstructed the system and study of life and character, simplified the method of procedure and application, and brot within the grasp and comprehension of the average mind this sublime science.

NOTE: Honest criticism is sometimes in order, to correct erroneous ideas in the study of things scientific; and without reflection on those who have attempted to fathom the science of life and character and present a system for the elucidation of the subject, the author desires that the science as herein presented shall be compared and tested with the view to bringing more clearly to mind the fact that many works are in circulation which are erroneously constructed. Chief among the errors are the readings given relative to the sign of birth and the elemental character thereof. To say that one born in the sign Aries is ruled by the sign Libra, is erroneous. To say that such a one is born in the element air is contrary to the fact. Therefore, with the zodiacal chart and the delineations in accord with science as herewith presented, one may see at a glance that this work, tho contrary to others, is scientifically correct. By this system one is in a position to get right.

The zodiac shows the twelve divisions or magnetic fields and the main points of the figure: fire, earth, air, water, as to their elemental character; and mental, vital and neutral physiological designations; as well as the division into quarters:—quarter of love, quarter of knowledge, quarter of wealth, and quarter of labor; thus giving to the zodiac three distinct divisions representing the figure in its specific aspects as a symbol of solar functions, conditions, influence and general bearing as a key to the mysteries of life and character.

When the earth is passing thru one of these twelve signs, all births that occur during this period of about thirty days, must of necessity be related to this particular field, element, quarter and physiological nature of said section of the circle. The sun, moon and planets, and all the forces of nature stimulate the elemental quality of the sign or field. Therefore, those born while the earth is in the sign Aries are born in the element Fire, the function of the head, a Mental division, and in the quarter of social life, called the quarter of love.

The time of the earth's entry into the several signs varies somewhat from year to year; sometimes a little later and sometimes a little earlier, owing to variations in the degrees of a circle and the number of days, hours and minutes constituting the year.

Approximate dates of entry and leaving the signs is given to show the movement of the earth thru the twelve solar fields during the year:

Birth Signs

Aries—Sept. 22 to Oct. 23. Mental, Fire, Qr. of Love.

Taurus—Oct. 23 to Nov. 22. Vital, Earth, Qr. of Love.

Gemini—Nov. 22 to Dec. 21. Neutral, Air, Qr. of Love.

Cancer—Dec. 21 to Jan. 20. Mental, Water, Qr. of Wisdom.

Leo—Jan. 20 to Feb. 19. Vital, Fire, Qr. of Wisdom.

Virgo—Feb. 19 to Mar. 21. Neutral, Earth, Qr. of Wisdom.

Libra—Mar. 21 to Apr. 21. Mental, Air, Qr. of Wealth.

Scorpio—Apr. 21 to May 21. Vital, Water, Qr. of Wealth.

Sagittarius—May 21 to June 21. Neutral, Fire, Qr. of Wealth.

Capricornus—June 21 to July 22. Mental, Earth, Qr. of Labor.

Aquarius—July 22 to Aug. 22. Vital, Air, Qr. of Labor.

Pisces—Aug. 22 to Sept. 22. Neutral, Water, Qr. of Labor.

With the foregoing explanation of the signs, quarters and natures of each field, the correct positions and relatedness of births are scientifically established.

Individuality and Personality Duality of Being

Every person is Dual in character and manifestation. Each one possesses an inner being, comprising hidden qualities, resources, tendencies, capabilities and many distinct characteristics, which a complete horoscopic study alone brings to light. Each one also has a Personality dominated by environment, education, training and habits, built up to a state of activity which may readily be discerned and analyzed thru observation of form, features, carriage, head, hands, and movements, in the expression—the manifestation—of being.

The sign of birth relates to Individuality; but the Personality, the appearance, the expression, the way Individuality will be surcharged by the mighty powers of the solar field and urged on in its evolutionary development and manifestation in Personality, is determined by the sign of the East, the Rising sign at the time of day the birth occurs. Therefore, a simple diagram (See No 1), is given that makes it easy for one to locate the rising sign. Thus the sign of birth determines feeling, emotion, desire—the things contemplated and hoped for, while the Rising sign determines the form, features, mental poise and expression—the Personality manifestation; and from the latter, that which is of the surface and observable, the art of sight reading takes its cue.

Locating the Rising Sign

To find the Rising sign, and approximately the degree of the sign rising at any given time of the day of birth, refer to diagram The Solar Symbol and note the following points and application. The figure illustrates the Rising sign of one born on the first day of January. The earth is at ten degrees of the sign Cancer. A line from the date in circle, January first, extends thru the center of the earth and sun to the opposite side ending with a diamond point. A diamond point is also shown at the other end inside the day circle, and these diamonds point to the divisions in black and white denoting five degrees each, which divide each sign consisting of thirty degrees into five degree units, or units of the three hundred and sixty degrees of the complete circle. The date point also shows the beginning of the day at Midnight.

The second line is drawn at square angle or ninety degrees with an arrow point. Now suppose the time of day on January first at which the birth occurred to be midnight, or the first minute of the first hour of the day January first. As midnight is always opposite the sun point and in direct line from the center of the earth to date of birth, the diamond at January first shows the zenith or overhead point at the time, midnight. The Eastern angle by reason of the earth turning on its axis always toward the east (see dart), figuring from centers, would be ninety degrees to the east. The diamond near the midnight point shows ten degrees of the sign Cancer, hence ninety degrees east brings the Arrow point to ten degrees of Libra, the Rising sign and degree of the sign for the day, hour and, practically, the minute of birth, midnight.

As the signs of the zodiac each represent two hours of time, it will be seen that if the birth occurs February first, the earth would be about ten degrees in the sign Leo and the diamond point would be in line with February first and thus throw the Arrow point to about ten degrees of the sign Scorpio, the Rising sign and degree of midnight on that date.

Thus the principle applies around the circle. But suppose the time of birth on January first to be two A. M. The midnight point would still remain the same and all that is required is to count fifteen degrees for each hour past midnight, which in this instance would be thirty degrees for two hours, and take the degree then overhead, which would be ten degrees of Leo. This shows the zenith or overhead point for two A. M., and by counting ninety degrees or three signs in the direction of the Arrow point, it would place the Rising degree ten of the sign Scorpio.

By simply drawing a line thru the center of the sun and earth to the day of birth for any day of the year a definite scientific basis is formed which enables one to locate the Rising sign any day, hour and approximately the minute.

NOTE—For convenience, after one becomes familiar with the principle and application, one may count from the Midnight point forward until noon, thus covering the A. M. division of the day. After noon or beginning at noon, the opposite diamond point may be taken for the degree count, and thus save one-half in time of reaching the Rising sign and degree.

For example: If on January first the birth time was four P. M. begin the degree count at the diamond point shown in Capricornus, ten degrees, and fifteen degrees for each four hours after noon would bring the zenith, the point overhead, at sixty degrees on from the diamond point or to ten degrees of the sign Pisces. Ten degrees of Pisces would be the time point of the birth. Now counting ninety degrees farther gives the Rising point for four P. M. which would be ten degrees of the sign Gemini.

Remember that four minutes of time equals one degree of space; a birth point or any point on the surface moving forward one degree every four minutes; this being the speed of the axial rotation of the earth.

The lines shown in this system represent Concentric Angles of the Zenith, Nadir and rising sign—a feature of the Heliocentric principle in the science of solar magnetics.

NOTE—What is known and used as the Geocentric point rising at any given time varies a few degrees from the Heliocentric showing; and to determine this variation it is necessary to consider Latitude in connection with the time of birth, which requires more technical study and mathematical knowledge. It may be stated in a general way, however, that the Geocentric point rising is a few degrees farther along than is shown by the arrow from June 22 to December 22, and correspondingly farther back toward the zenith from December 22, to June 22. The variations extend from the equator to the poles. They are too technical for this simple course.

TO SUMMARIZE.

The foregoing explanations show:

1. The solar symbol—the Zodiac.
2. The twelve solar magnetic fields.
3. The elemental character of the several fields.
4. The Physiological and mental qualities.
5. The four quarters of the solar circle.
6. The Concentric angles—the zenith and the east.
7. Illustrations of the Rising sign.
8. Concentric and Geocentric variations.

With these essential points relative to the zodiac we come to the consideration of man, the human race, and his relation to this solar configuration.

Like the zodiac, man is composed of twelve functional divisions or departments of being. Each function is magnetically related to one of the signs, and this relationship is fixed in the eternal law of causation—cause and effect—and has come to us in this symbolic figure from the ancients and is always found to be correct.

Relation of Signs and Functions.

Refer to Diagram 1.

Aries, Mental, Fire, Function of the Brain.

Taurus, Vital, Earth, Nerves and back brain.

Gemini, Neutral, Air, Lungs.

Cancer, Mental, Water, Chest.

Leo, Vital, Fire, Heart.

Virgo, Neutral, Earth, Stomach.

Libra, Mental, Air, Bowels.

Scorpio, Vital, Water, Sexual organs.

Sagittarius, Neutral, Fire, Thighs.

Capricornus, Mental, Earth, Knees—Cords—Joints—Bones.

Aquarius, Vital, Air, Calves—Shins.

Pisces, Neutral, Water, Feet.

Each function being circumscribed by one of the solar magnetic fields partakes of the magnetic quality and character of the field; and the place or sign of birth, the sign or field in which the earth is moving on any given date of birth, is the physiological magnetic center and function of being. Around and upon this birth functional center all of the forces of the solar field and all other forces universal, act and produce effects. From this function the radiations, and manifestations of being emanate and express the life currents of nature in Personality.

Therefore, man is an epitomy, a finite manifestation, of Infinite life; an image of the vibrations and forces of the Infinite. Thus, "In his own image," and in this manner "God," Nature, in the universal laboratory, spontaneously created life, and man evolved as the Master mind.

Reading Character.

The foregoing fundamentals are essential to the correct understanding of the science of life and to the Art of reading character at sight. Errors are unavoidable without this basic foundation upon which to form an analysis and judgment.

When the day and time of birth is known a very interesting and comprehensive study of the signs and elemental influences may be made relating to character and the general attributes of being.

The Birth sign delineations are condensed in simple form to show the leading points to be found in the application of the system or art of reading character from the Birth sign—the day of birth.

NOTE—Many persons do not know their hour or minute of birth, in which case, the Birth Sign alone may be used to delineate the general nature and leading traits of character.

Individuality.

ARIES—September 22 to October 23.

If born any time from September 22 to October 23, your Birth Sign is Aries, the positive, mental, fiery sign and field of the social quarter of the solar circle, relating to the front brain, and symbolized by the Ram. This shows that you are a deep thinker and reasoner; independent in thought and action; with a strong will; intense feeling; imaginative; idealistic; intuitive, penetrating, analytical, zealous, intellectual, courageous, self-reliant; voluble; brilliant in conversation, and endowed with the gift of vision or clairvoyance, which makes you an apt student of human nature, quick in penetrating the surface appearances of things and drawing pointed decisions, indicative of unusual ability to read character at sight. You delight in change and new sensations; you are persistent and progressive; possess much self-esteem and love admiration; you admire the beautiful in all that pertains to the higher manifestation of life.

Aries relates to the function of the front brain; hence, this function is the magnetic center of your being; this shows that you dwell much and long upon all important matters that attract your attention; therefore, you are ever seeking relief, an outlet, for the mind, which is overly stimulated by a constant rush of ideas, impressions, that lead you here and there in many and varied undertakings. Being rangy in thought and inclined to venture, gives you a wide experience and general education in many lines, making you an apt scholar with ability to lead and direct others in various occupational departments of business and finance. You resent dictation. You can be led by logic, but seldom driven.

VOCATIONAL ADAPTATION. You belong in the lines of promotion, traveling, soliciting, advertising, architecture, engineering, surveying, the profession of law, drugless healing, teaching, lecturing, and such vocations as are termed mental occupations. Your complete personal horoscope must be consulted to learn which of these vocations is the most promising for success. Opportunity in mentioned lines should arrest your attention.

HEALTH. The function of the brain being extremely sensitive and high-strung, subjects you to afflictions such as headaches, brain fever, neuralgia, and ailments that come from undue mental excitement and strain. The constitution is strong, and with no severe planetary interferences, longevity is assured. Care in diet, exercise and elimination will usually overcome these afflictions and insure good health.

CO-ORDINATIONS. In business, marriage and social life, you harmonize best with those born in the signs Gemini, Leo, Libra, Sagittarius and Aquarius.

Your Astral gem or birth-stone is the opal, which suggests personal decorations in harmony therewith—jewelry, ties, colors and figurings in apparel—that make for focalization of the magnetic aura of being and a more tidy and dressy appearance.

Birth Sign Delineation

Individuality.

TAURUS. October 23 to November 22.

If born any time from October 23 to November 22 your birth sign is Taurus, the vital, earthy sign of the quarter of love, relating to the function of the nerves, the back brain and seat of the nervous system; symbolized by the bull. This shows that you possess a highly nervous and vital temperament, which makes you keen and sensitive; physically intense and high-strung; with a somewhat rigid and set mentality; holding stubbornly to your theories and opinions; unswerving in your course of action; contemplative and fixed in purpose; argumentative when opposed; but easily softened and led by sympathy, kindness and, especially, affection. The mind dwells much on the physical things of life—property, wealth, accumulation, good things to eat, and such things as bring pleasure and gratification to the senses. You take life quite seriously. Everything is vital and important. You possess much daring and tend to rush blindly into schemes rather than waiting to work out a well conceived plan. You are inclined to be somewhat slow in expression and action, but when aroused you are highly excitable, vehement and pugnacious. Pride and ambition are leading traits of character. Your nerve and daring often lead to unusual experiences.

VOCATIONAL ADAPTATION. You belong in the larger, heavier lines of commercial enterprise, such as manufacturing, jobbing, building, shipping, and allied business interests. You co-ordinate with large undertakings in the capacity of carrying out plans and producing results. Positions with such interests and investments in such lines are favorable for success.

HEALTH. As the sign Taurus relates to the function of the nervous system, the back of the head and neck is the chief point of attack when afflictions come that tend to upset the circulation. Chills, and nervous ailments, which sometimes extend thruout the system, are the main things to guard against. Pains in the back of the head and neck are the danger signals. Magnetic and osteopathic treatments are the safest and most beneficial as a means of quick relief. The appetite being keen should be curbed. Rich foods and overeating is the usual aggravation that endangers health.

CO-ORDINATIONS. In business, marriage and social life, you co-ordinate best with those born in the signs Cancer, Virgo, Scorpio, Capricornus and Pisces. Success in business is enhanced by proper co-ordination.

Your Astral gem or birthstone is the topaz. Focalize your magnetic currents with this gem and you will make a better impression on every one you meet. All decorations should harmonize with this stone.

Birth Sign Delineation

Individuality.

GEMINI—November 22 to December 21.

If born any time from November 22 to December 21, your birth sign is Gemini; the neutral, airy division of the social quarter relating to the lungs, and symbolized by the twins, the union of life, the home. This sign of birth shows that you are negative, impressional, intuitive, keenly psychic, sensitive and quick; impulsive, excitable, changeable; and you take on the condition round about you in a way that enables you to feel and analyze the hidden meanings and states of people and things you contact. You take on and throw off conditions rapidly; thus you become one with your surroundings, and every change and variation in magnetic effects is productive of sensations, good or otherwise, in sympathetic accord therewith. You are dual in nature in that you are overly credulous at times and at other times quite the reverse. Your keen psychic qualities keep you in a highly keyed and responsive state, that enables you to analyze and read character and diagnose mental and physical ailments at sight. You are versatile, optimistic and capable to give advice and relief to those in distress. Your psychic powers are far above the average, and by careful development such gifts may be turned to a useful purpose in the demonstration of the finer forces—the soul consciousness.

VOCATIONAL ADAPTATION. Being endowed with such highly psychic qualities, you belong in some occupation of the lighter and finer sort, in which detail and delicacy constitute the essential features—jewelry, laces, toilet articles, notions, pictures, pottery, painting, sculpture, fine and delicate machinery and appliances, art goods, literature, books, needle work, arts and crafts goods, and similar lines. Bookkeeping, journalism, public speaking, stenography, millinery, decorations and music, are also among the vocations in harmony with your natural talents. A selection, according to environment and opportunity, from this list of adaptations, will bring desirable results.

HEALTH. Delicate in constitution, changeable, yielding, receptive and impressional, the tendency is to take on all manner of ills of the lesser sort that affect the nerves and produce lassitude and depression. However, conditions are rapidly thrown off, hence, there is seldom any danger from such experiences. Neurasthenia and lung affections are the chief severe afflictions to guard against. Only when the planets, shown in the complete horoscope, form extreme combinations, is there any serious trouble.

CO-ORDINATIONS. In business, marriage and social life, you co-ordinate and harmonize best with those born in Leo, Libra, Sagittarius, Aquarius and Aries.

Your Astral gem or birth stone is the turquoise. Personal adornments—pins, ties, rings, designs, colors and fabrics, in harmony with the turquoise, amplify your powers.

Birth Sign Delineation

Individuality.

CANCER—December 21 to January 20.

If born any time from December 21 to January 20, your birth sign is Cancer; the strong, mental, watery sign of the quarter of knowledge; relating to the chest, the arterial system and framework of the body, symbolized by the crab. This shows that you possess a strong mental nature, somewhat aggressive, resourceful, expressive and voluminous in speech. You have a strong will and a persevering intellectual bent. You are easily irritated and you naturally express freely your likes and dislikes relative to persons and things in general. You readily become interested in cults and isms—something new for the mind to feast upon. You have a strong constitution conducive to longevity. You enjoy debate, and all intellectual controversies attract your attention. Being active and rangy in that you are an apt student of up-to-date developments in the business and educational fields. Your strong mentality makes you somewhat domineering and stubbornly opinionative. You seek knowledge relative to your interests with the view to becoming master of its details and possibilities. You are philosophical, analytical, technical, persistent and unyielding except under the good graces of the opposite sex. You desire to be at the top in all matters relative to business and social life.

VOCATIONAL ADAPTATION. Your mentality suggests intellectual pursuits—teaching, law, medicine, speculation, brokerage, commission, insurance, buying and shipping, the managerial position in corporate institutions, in government, banking and such lines as call for rangy intellectual ability. Some of the lesser lines of trade may be entered into safely, but unless the planets of your birth are favorable, large enterprises involving financial responsibility, should be considered with caution and reserve. Continuity is not especially marked, hence, accumulation in the business sphere comes only by persistent and continuous effort along some adaptable line. Deals that turn quickly are more in keeping with your business qualifications.

HEALTH. Your sign of birth denotes a strong physical as well as mental constitution; therefore, you are not easily cut down by physical ailments of the ordinary kind. Your chest being your magnetic center, this section is more readily affected when the stars line up for cross-current irritations with which you specifically co-ordinate. Congestion, pneumonia, arterial and cancerous accumulations are the things to guard against; which may be minimized by simple diet and abstemious living.

CO-ORDINATIONS. In business, marriage and social life, you harmonize best with those born in the signs Virgo, Scorpio, Capricornus, Pisces and Taurus.

Your Astral gem or birth-stone is the garnet. Red is a desirable decorative color as it tends to sharpen the auric attraction and enhance your welfare and general appearance.

Birth Sign Delineation

Individuality.

LEO—January 20 to February 19.

If born any time from January 20 to February 19, your birth sign is Leo; the vital, fiery, magnetic field of the quarter of wisdom; symbolized by the lion; and relating to the function of the heart. This shows that you possess a deep, emotional, humanitarian and loving individuality; kind and considerate of others; charitable, free-hearted and keenly sensitive; intellectual, inventive, literary, artistic; gifted in oratorical power and dramatic impersonations; forceful in debate; honorable and trustworthy; warm-hearted, cheerful and sociable; possessing sterling qualities which command attention and respect; naturally accomplished in doing things out of the ordinary; overly credulous; kind when in authority, and capable in planning and directing in most any line of trade or business. Your will-power and executive, as well as professional genius is very high; you are gifted in research and the deeper studies of the phenomena of nature; and, because of the intensity of this functional magnetic center of being, you are a powerful opponent, yet a sympathetic and forgiving peacemaker. Disappointments and reverses spur you on to greater endeavor. You are subject to spells of intense grief which may be brot about from observation of people in general—the states of being.

VOCATIONAL ADAPTATION—You belong in professional rather than commercial lines, but you possess ability of the nobler sort as an organizer, leader and manager in large undertakings; especially such as are conducive to the betterment of people in general and to those who are dependent. You put your heart into all that you do, hence, you are efficient and determined in carrying out your aims and purposes. Being very free-hearted, liberal and sympathetic, you are not strong in matters of finance. You readily adjust and fit yourself into whatever position calls for your services. Teaching, law, medicine, lecturing, preaching, scientific research, art, music, drama, are suitable vocations.

HEALTH—You are endowed with a strong constitution, but your magnetic center being the heart, you are subject to affections round and about this function; such as pleurisy, excess fire or heat, affections of the diaphragm, ribs, back and sides. Extreme planetary configurations at birth tend to make such ailments more or less severe. Heart failure is the main thing to guard against. Hot baths and massage, with simple diet, is the way to relief.

CO-ORDINATIONS—In business, marriage and social life, you harmonize best with those born in the signs Libra, Sagittarius, Aquarius, Aries and Gemini.

Your Astral gem or birth-stone is the amethyst. Purples, lavenders, blues, and sharp points of red are co-ordinate colors. They add to the magnetic radiations of your aura of being.

Birth Sign Delineation

Individuality.

VIRGO—February 19 to March 21.

If born any time from February 19 to March 21, your sign of birth is Virgo; the neutral, earthy division of the quarter of knowledge and wisdom; symbolized by the Virgin. This sign being the function of the stomach, calls for knowledge and understanding of self. It is the function of absorption, assimilation; the building function of being. This shows that you naturally absorb knowledge and your progress thru life is dominated by desire. You are reserved, discriminating, quietly active, negatively nervous, imaginative, and inclined to base your judgment on feeling rather than analytical reasoning. Your nature is somewhat hidden and your talents are not readily brot into action; but when they are, you display many excellent, constructive and efficient mental and physical qualities. You are somewhat exacting when in authority, yet diplomatic, tactful and keen in observation and directness of purpose. You have an inventive turn of mind, and being intuitive and desirous of attaining success in your aims and purposes, you seek ideas from others, from books, from any source that enables you to gain information without too much experience and speculation with tryouts and expense. You are a reaper.

VOCATIONAL ADAPTATION—Being quiet and reserved naturally, you belong in some occupational field where your hidden powers may be urged to the front, into action; and this is best accomplished in some intellectual pursuit requiring skill in execution of the details connected with the work. You are in good co-ordination with foods, drugs, chemistry, domestic science; materials and requirements for the promotion of such enterprises. In the mechanical lines you are well suited to the printing, publishing, binding, tabulating, and recording vocations. You possess managerial tact and diplomacy; and may develop such skill to a practical and efficient service. If especially favored by planetary influences you would make a literary critic.

Your stomach, therefore, is the chief function to guard and protect against this craving manifestation of your inner being. You are subject to nervous stomach derangements, which reflect to the brain and nerve center and produce general flatulency and irritations in this part of the system. Dieting above all else is the important thing to consider as a means of relief.

CO-ORDINATIONS—In business, marriage and social life, you harmonize more favorably with those born in the signs Scorpio, Capricornus, Pisces, Taurus, and Cancer.

Your Astral gem or birthstone is the blood-stone. Jewelry and decorations in harmony therewith enhance the appearance.

PISCES—August 22 to September 22.

If born any time from August 22 to September 22, your sign of birth is Pisces; the neutral, watery sign of the quarter of labor; relating to the feet; and symbolized by the fishes. This shows that your functional magnetic center is the feet, and this being the extreme negative section of the solar field, you are naturally a very negative, highly impressional, intuitive, responsive and spasmodic being. You are highly surcharged and endowed with the gifts of the medium and psychic. You catch the vibrations of animate nature more readily and deeply than those born in other signs, and the effect is such that you reflect conditions thus brot into your auric field in a very clear and definable interpretation of their meanings, natures, qualities and sources. This extreme sensitiveness tends to hold you back and keep you from forging ahead in the competitive life of the world. You are naturally timid and need urging to bring you out and into the more prominent fields of personal promise. When once you are located and understand your duties, you show marked ability in many directions. You are a natural caterer, loving to serve where kindness and appreciation is evidenced by those to whom you render service.

VOCATIONAL ADAPTATION—Living largely on your feet you are an active mover in matters of labor and business interests, whatever they may be. Liquids, fish, fowl, game, produce; agricultural pursuits; catering and hotel lines; and cattle, wool, mining, coal, cotton and crude products; navigation, irrigation, transportation, and such positions as come within range or connection with them. These show the larger field for such as are favored by strong horoscopical aspects. Your position in life determines which is the most desirable in the list. You have good qualities for the position of book-keeper, librarian, literary and stenographic work; teaching, nursing, demonstrating special products; soliciting and introducing various utilities in homes, shops and offices. Activity on the feet makes for a restless life, and for this reason the employment should be changeable.

HEALTH—Your feet are the sensitive region of your being, and these require careful attention to keep them free from some one or other aggravation. Soap, water and oil and a good barefoot romp in the wet mud, dewy grass and in the hot sands, is the best in the way of simple treatment. The tissues should be kept soft.

Rising Sign

After considering the INDIVIDUALITY, as shown by the sign of birth, take the hour or the time of day and locate the sign of the East, the Rising Sign and incorporate its meaning in the continuation of the delineation. For example: take the figure and date January first. Cancer is the sign of birth, of Individuality, and the rising sign being Libra, it shows the form, height, weight, complexion, color of hair and eyes, general appearance, and tendencies of the mind toward vocational endeavor. The following delineations of the Rising signs relate to PERSONALITY, the surface appearance and expression of Individuality.

To illustrate the composition and connection of the two features of the reading, suppose one is born in the sign Aries, between September 22 and October 23, and the sign rising is found to be Leo. First read the Individuality from Aries and add the Personality reading Leo. This would show a character with the head and heart, the mental and emotional qualities blended together; a combination harmonious in the manifestation of being.

It will be seen by reference to the birth sign Aries, that the sign Leo is harmonious therewith; therefore, birth signs and rising signs that are in harmony show like conditions in the nature as a whole. Birth signs and Rising signs when not in harmonic relatedness, produce corresponding inharmonic tendencies. To know one's self these points must be located and their effects studied. The application of such knowledge and understanding leads to the position of the Master—the attainment of wisdom. In this way one may become master of self through knowledge, understanding, wisdom. One then becomes the possessor of the Sages Key to Character.

Rising Sign

Delineation—Personality.

Aries.—When Aries is rising in the East at birth it denotes an average stature, somewhat lean and spare, with fairly large bones; head broad at the upper part, narrowing toward the chin to quite a perceptible degree; ruddy complexion, firm skin, neck rather long, plump shoulders, hair medium to light, inclined to reddish; ears, nose, and mouth medium size; erect figure, head carried a little forward; eyes bluish grey, positive quick sight; talkative, neat, tidy and orderly. (See Aries types in diagrams.)

Aries rising shows the manifestation will be positive, active, forceful, courageous, determined and forward; with power and ability to lead, guide, direct in important movements and undertakings in philanthropic and business associations. Aries denotes a pioneer in thought and action with a mind tending toward idealism and extremes in aims and purposes; optimistic, philosophical and self-reliant. The positive, penetrating mentality shows ability to get at the deeper meanings of things usually hidden to the average mind. Independence and love of freedom leads to ventures in many and varied lines of action—many fields of thought. This shows ranginess in plans and undertakings.

Taurus.—Taurus rising at birth denotes a short stature, heavy thick set, strong body; broad full forehead; fleshy cheeks and jaw; thick lips, showing a keen appetite; darkish blue eyes; medium to dark hair, somewhat wavy; usually broad and prominent nose, inclined to aquiline; straight, stiff figure and carriage; inclined to boldness, which shows a strong front and stubborn personality. (Refer to diagrams for extreme types and variations.)

Taurus is indicative of a vital, mental and physical nature throughout; vehement and defiant, venturesome and daring, which shows power and ability in dealing with the material things of life and business. Manufacturing, building, engineering—carrying out plans as contractors, jobbers, financial promoters and executives of the larger undertakings of the business world, gives the taurean nature an opportunity to utilize his talent to the best advantage. Methodical, somewhat plodding, reserved, secretive and fixed in aim and purpose, they are competent to handle the more pretentious propositions in the business field with assurance of attaining satisfactory results. They are practical mathematicians, adverse to change, hence their knowledge and skill comes largely through experience. Love of music and possible development of vocal powers in this direction, brings out the finer qualities and deeper feeling relating to the social side of life. This is the normal manifestation of the Personality.

Rising Sign

Delineation—Personality.

Gemini.—Gemini rising at birth denotes a tall to medium, thin, upright body, somewhat hollow chest, medium long face; warm, sanguine to medium dark complexion; beautiful bluish hazel eyes; hair light brown tending toward a darker shade with age; long arms and hand; quick and active in movement and expression. (See diagrams for variations.)

Gemini rising gives one a dual nature—a double manifestation. The highly sensitive and psychic tendency, brings more vitality and clearly to view the qualities of the inner being—the Individuality—which blends with the Personality, thus giving to the manifestation a perceptible duality in thought and action. The mind is brilliant, versatile, intellectual, clever, highly imaginative, inspirational, and contradictory in its rapid flights and reactions. The mentality reflects every phase and every change of environment. Literary genius is one of the leading traits, which prompts thought and action. Seldom at ease, evasive, acute, cunning, the nature is seldom understood. All things to all people is a phase of the Gemini nature. Though capable in high degree, the tendency to change, to seek new and different sensations, interferes with concentration and continuity in business operations—the doing—and usually minimizes results. Specially favorable planetary rulings are necessary to success in undertakings of the more pretentious sort.

Cancer.—When Cancer is rising at birth it denotes an average to small stature; somewhat fleshy upper body; round and full face; forehead prominent; wide at temples; light palish complexion; medium to small bluish gray eyes; brown hair; short nose and usually turned a little upward at the point; carriage a little irregular; nervously active throughout.

Cancer indicates a high-strung mentality; resourceful in all that pertains to domesticity; agriculture, gardening and general labor; they desire manifestation in lines dealing in liquids; operating canning and bottling plants; milk routes, soda fountains and bars. They love the water, and make good sailors. They are good hotelkeepers and caterers. They love curios and antiques and lean toward such merchandising. They are suited to business pursuits, such as real estate, building materials, paints, oils and decorations. They love excitement and recreation, romance, political agitation and demonstrations. Such a nature feels keenly, and follows the theme and lives the part in reading a story or seeing a drama or picture on the screen. Spasmodic in action, they often lack in logic and self-control in times of excitement. They act a part somewhat dramatic in whatever they do. When Cancer rises look for these manifestations of Personality.

Delineation—Personality.

Leo.—When Leo is rising at birth it denotes an average to tall stature; medium large bones; inclining to fullness as the years advance; narrow hips; medium fine blond to darkish hair; inclined to baldness; sanguine to florid complexion; medium large and well formed normal head; greyish to brown eyes; sharp, keen and quick sight; active and somewhat dramatic carriage, and an attractive magnetic personality.

This sign shows concentration, the power to direct thought and action with persistency and enthusiastic interest. The mind is readily interested in everything new, scientific, progressive, beneficial to humanity, and productive of something worth while in the way of improvement over previous accomplishments. This denotes ability to plan, promote and manage, direct and produce results in the more pretentious enterprises of the business and professional order. The social adaptation is quite a marked characteristic. The artistic tastes lead to pleasures of the finer sort, and to such lines and professions in co-ordination therewith. Amusements, the stage, sculptor, hangings, decorations, the grand and beautiful in nature and in the arts and crafts, bring pleasure, comfort, reflection and the larger joys of daily life. The universe, in all its magnificence, appeals to the heart, touches the emotional center, and broadens the mind and range of the Personality.

Virgo.—When Virgo is rising at birth it denotes an average to tall stature; close built and somewhat plump body; ruddy and darkish complexion; hair dark; eyes dark; ears medium; nose with prominent curves at the sides of the nostrils, inclined to stand out well from the face, and angular in shape; head round at the top; cheek bones clearly in view, though not large; more sharp than bulging; the face of angles; upright carriage; somewhat wavy and swinging walk. Virgo shows a nature that is inclined to be contemplative, reserved; somewhat timid or bashful; keenly intuitive; depending largely on impressions for guidance, and inclined to absorb and turn to good account information gleaned from others, from books, and from sources of observation which tend to stimulate the intuitive faculties. The leadings, therefore, are toward lines in business and professional life, which deal with the works of original thinkers and reasoners, writers and scientists, inventors and others, who pave the way for productive results. They fit into positions of trust in conservative, staple and safe lines of trade and finance. They prefer quiet inside positions, where the mind is centered principally upon details. While they are deep and their talents are hidden, they possess executive ability to a marked degree.

Delineation—Personality.

They are good and just critics; interested in live issues, entertainments, show and display in all that makes for amusement and the joy of living. Their personality leadings are toward commercial lines of the more delicate classes, and as promoters of business interests they are apt in advertising, publishing, fashions, designing, art, music, the stage; and in social life they adjust readily and are influenced to a large extent by their associations and environment. Lofty in aim and purpose they soar high in imagination and grasp readily and enthusiastically new ideas and demonstrations in all fields of scientific thought, invention and accomplishment. They make good merchants in the retail trades, and they possess much power to draw business and render efficient and satisfactory service to the general public. They make good judges, because they love justice above all else in life.

The chemistry of life and things in general attract the attention and stimulate thought and action in commercial fields in which the arts and crafts are prominent. The more technical professions along the avenues of research and science, medicine, surgery, dissection and analysis, tend to absorb the mind and make for concentration and constructive endeavor. Mines, minerals, metals in transformation, and products of the heavier kind, afford agreeable vocations in harmony with the talent and genius of the scorpio mentality. They make good government officials, detectives, promoters along political and representative lines. While not especially strong for accumulation, they possess much ability to look out for their own welfare, and are usually successful in their undertakings,

Rising Sign

Delineation—Personality.

Sagittarius.—When Sagittarius is rising at birth, it denotes an average to tall stature; well formed and agile body; high forehead, and lower over ears; oval face; light tan brown complexion; hair light brown to dark chestnut, and fine; inclined to baldness; bright, soulful and expressive medium hazel to brown eyes; teeth usually somewhat peculiar and pointed; appearance dignified and commanding, and a good all around nature in looks and general magnetic qualities of being.

This sign leads the mind to dwell much on distant climes, the open way to the pleasures of native living. It denotes the commercial pioneer, the advance agent in new and untried fields. The traveler, guide, adventurer, researcher, promoter, creator of new business prospects, and pioneer mover in large ventures is favored by this fiery and explosive manifestation of solar magnetic influence. A vocation in harmony with such gifts and tendencies gives range of action that brings into play the best of skill and executive ability for such a position in life. College professors, scenic free-hand artists, clergymen, and those who change from one position or locality to another, meeting new faces and surroundings, make a favorable impression on those they meet and gain much in knowledge and understanding that adds to their pleasures and enhances their general welfare. Also government officials, military and otherwise, develop favorably when this sign is in the east at birth.

Capricornus.—When Capricornus is rising at birth it denotes an average to short stature; bony body and inclined to dryness; face long and angular; nose long; chin long and somewhat irregular; neck small and long; narrow chest; medium shade, long, straight hair, males having thin or sparse beards; with a peculiar action of seemingly weak knees, noticeable in the walk and carriage, and a slight stoop or twist in the neck and shoulders; eyes hazel to dark grey.

The personal leadings are toward positions of authority. Being willing to begin at the bottom, they forge ahead rapidly in attaining their objective. The heavier physical, mechanical and industrial projects, involving much time and labor, offer the best outlet for their natural genius. As foremen, managers, directors and all around inside producers, as well as outside leaders, they are among the most reliable natures for efficient service. A good and forceful and efficient lawyer for the larger corporate interests, is favored when born in this sign. These interests being large and rangy, they are in harmony with the birth sign forces. Cattle ranches, the wool and fiber industry, raw materials in general, are suitable lines for independent business undertakings in accord with the Personality.

Delineation—Personality.

Aquarius.—When Aquarius is rising at birth, it denotes an average stature, usually heavy set, plump and well formed physique; pinkish sanguine complexion; beautiful bluish hazel eyes; hair flaxen to medium brown; face quite large, with features well rounded and full; a firm, active, care free and jolly nature, expressive of real joy and gladness in living. Aquarius competes with Libra in the endowment of good looks, well formed body and charming qualities in the manifestation of personality.

The mind is attracted in the direction of technical lines that call for specific gifts in matters of detail—printing, stenography, correspondence, mechanical technique—art, music, literature, research, analysis, composition, transformation and reconstruction. The gift of genius is one of the prominent characteristics of the Aquarian mind. Such a nature is entertained by the passing show, whatever it may be. The vital issue is the thing that is in evidence. Do it now, is the dominant idea in matters of interest at the moment. Thus the mind responds quickly in all things exciting, urgent and attractive. The nature is immovable, however, when no interest is aroused in the subject or phenomena involved. They make good surveyors, government officials, secretaries, researchers, astronomers, poets, publicists, and reformers in all that makes for higher progress and development.

Pisces.—When Pisces is rising at birth it denotes an average to short stature; lymphatic and fleshy body; short, full limbs; face medium large and fleshy; pale complexion; eyes prominent, but weak, dull or sleepy in appearance; hair medium brown to dark; feet large and movements quite noticeable when in conversation, owing to centralization of animation to this section.

The tendency of the mind is to take life easy and not bother about the way things are coming or going. Slow to act and somewhat indifferent, the mind is reflective, negative, impressional, and more difficult to arouse and enthuse, than the mind of either of the other signs. The resources of the mind are in the depths of being, even as the resources of the ocean are in the ocean depths. Occasions, baits, frights and hunger tend to stir the soul at its depths, and then it is that the Pisces nature reveals its hidden resources. Such lines and occupations as call for feet action, rather than head action, are usually the more attractive positions. The mentality is negatived, hence, the brain does not act so freely and quickly as the average. This appears to the observer and also to the Pisces mind to be a lack of something, but it is merely the manifestation of a universally negatived mentality that requires a little more time to get to the surface and express itself. However, the mind is unusually resourceful when stirred to its depths.

Rising Sign Profileology

Character at Sight

The figures shown in Diagrams 2-3-4-5, are drawn to approximately outline the Normal Rising Sign types in stature, body build, featural markings in profile, hands and general poise. The idea is to present a view of the normal, well balanced personality development and appearance that may be caught with a sweeping glance. A little study of these types and their variations as heretofore explained, will enable one to quickly determine the Rising Sign delineation in harmony therewith.

Our Presidents

Our Presidents afford a facial study showing the twelve Rising sign types, together with dates of birth that give the Birth Sign as well. This is a very interesting lesson, as the figures present variations and combinations that differentiate heads and feature lines of interest to the more technical student. It will be observed that in the first group of twelve faces the Rising sign given in each figure is more or less expressive of the points shown in the outline profile illustrations. The others, which completes the list of our Presidents from Washington to Hayes, are put in as a test lesson to students. The Date of birth is the only information upon which to base the judgment. From this find the Rising Sign and note the application of the delineation.

These points and others of a similar character constitute the more technical work of the complete course in character delineation at sight. Final examinations show the proficiency of students and determine their qualifications for the university degree—S. C. D.—Sight Character Delineator.

Zodiacal Variable Calculus

As no two things in nature are exactly the same, no two things of a species identical, the student of human nature must deal extensively with variables in character analysis. The following rules show how birth sign and rising sign variables in the solar field may be determined.

1. Signs denoting height combine their effects in extenuation of height. Mediums intensify solidity and add to the weight. Short signs reduce height and increase weight and corpulency.

2. Tall and short indicators combine to normalize and produce medium stature. Tall and medium produce a corresponding balance between the two, and in like manner the medium and short reduce height and increase weight and solidity.

3. Rising signs combine in like manner and vary the features, mental tendencies, capabilities and form of body. For example: Aries 15 degrees rising would include 15 degrees of Taurus in featuring the lines of the face, and also add weight and reduce height. Taurus 15 degrees rising would include 15 degrees of Gemini and thus add height and weight. In like manner all of the signs thus combine their effects in form of body, feature markings and throughout the mental and physical manifestation of Personality.

4. Fifteen degrees of a sign is the turning point in the variable calculus relating to sign differentials. The sign showing the greater number of degrees in the field covered by the thirty degrees following the rising point, dominates in form and feature effects. For instance: 5 degrees of Aries rising would make Aries the dominant indicator according to its percentage of degrees over Taurus; the latter showing but 5 degrees, while Aries would hold 25 degrees. If 25 degrees of Aries was rising at birth, 25 degrees of Taurus would be in the field, and thus carry the balance of power accordingly.

5. As these variations cover the 360 degrees of the zodiacal circle it is clear that variability is a far-reaching study in connection with human nature. However, practice makes perfect, and as one becomes proficient in observation one develops an intuitive sense that enables him to catch and feel the Auric vibrations, the personal magnetic emanation of being, which is an interesting factor in determining the location of the rising sign and degree as well as the sign of birth. This leads one into the realm of the occult and makes for keenness of vision and the exercise of those inner powers which are seldom awakened to any high degree of efficiency in the great majority of humankind.

Diagram 6.

Extreme Featural Variations

A few illustrations (Diagram No. 6) will suffice to show the extreme variations in zodiacal types.

The balanced head and normal features are nearly straight from crown to chin. Note No. 1.

Combinations of the protruding and receding features are common.

Variations in character effects resulting therefrom may be approximated. The protruding center formation (Fig. 2) indicates force, penetration, impulsiveness, fearlessness, quickness in thought and action, and the tendency to venture where others fear to tread. Optimism runs high. The tendency is to overdo things, take chances and risks out of the ordinary. Such a nature needs the counsel and backing of the normal mind—the mind that possesses the conservative, calculating and reasoning mentality, that insures safety and success.

The receding center (Fig. 3) denotes the slow thinker, the more studious nature, the reserved and secretive mentality that is dominated largely by conservatism bordering on pessimism. The more extreme the variation from the normal the more pronounced the variations in mental tendencies. The sign of birth and the rising sign will show the mental leadings, vocational adaptability and general characteristics affected by such variation.

Note—Planets vary all hands, all faces, all body formations, all mental and physical states and manifestations. Some planets darken and sharpen while others lighten and smooth out and round out the lines and features, form and hands. Heights and weights are likewise affected. Combinations of planets produce corresponding variations according to the positions, and aspects at birth. The science of Solar Magnetism, taught by the Pyramid-Cube University system of education, carries students to the heights in the study of life and its manifold differentiations. It traces life from the primordial atom to the dome of the intellect, from the soul force of nature to the exalted evolutions in personified manifestation.

Combinations

When the upper half, the forehead and nose extend forward, with prominence of the nose, and the mouth recedes, is drawn in (Fig. 4) the mind dominates action and shows keenness in observation and cleverness in speech and diplomacy. It shows talent for promoting and driving things to a finish. The receding mouth shows caution in speech, careful expression and tact and genius in presenting ideas and conclusions.

Reversing the illustration, one having the receding upper and protruding and full lower formation (No. 5) is just the opposite in mental traits, think but little, acting on the impulse of the moment and chattering recklessly, carelessly, with scarcely any logic or forethought. Extreme illustration No. 6 suggests abnormal brain and mentality. Lacking in balance.

These manifestations, like all others, vary according to the variableness of the lines either way and however they are combined. The principle is the same. A prominent brain thinks, reasons, calculates and systematizes thought and action; is positive, forceful, consistent and logical. Note, therefore, first of all, the front brain, the forehead. This is the cue to the character and the manifestation. The mouth is the implement of construction or destruction, according to its formation, position and direction from above.

The foregoing rules apply to all signs rising and to their variations. They constitute the six outward indicators in the extremes of featural combinations, as shown in profile observation.

The Trace Line

Note the profile, hair, complexion, eyes, nose, neck, form of body and stature, and from these observations the art of locating the rising sign is a matter of a little study and practice. Further observation and study will enable one to determine the sign of birth; and when one becomes very expert and sensitive to auric emanations, the day of the month and the year may be closely stated. The study of the solar magnetic system, including the effects of the planets, carries one farther along and into deeper lines of reasoning; and it should be remembered that the planets, as shown in a complete horoscope, must be reckoned with to give a complete reading of the many and interesting features and co-ordinations relating to and involving each individual life. For this reason it is important that the exact time be recorded of the birth of every child. A correct diagnosis may then be made bearing upon any condition, or interest throughout one's entire career. The medical profession, the educational system, the commercial, mechanical and other fields of industry is calling for such a system.

Diagram 7.

The Hands

In reading character at sight, observation of the hand furnishes a lead to certain points of character that cannot well be overlooked. As there are six featural combinations showing the extremes in formation of the head and face, so there are six distinctive types of hands. Diagram No. 7 outlines the general shape of each. The back of the hand, as shown, is readily observed.

The Square Hand, No. 1.—It denotes method, order, honesty, determination, punctuality, progress; a well balanced mind; practicality and harmony. Leaders in the industrial life and competent executives, courageous and dependable natures, usually possess this type. Neatness, shrewdness, diplomacy, being leading characteristics, the position in life is in keeping with such admirable qualities of being.

The Artistic Hand, No. 2.—Shows the pointed fingers, indicative of refinement, frankness, impulsiveness, love of ease, beauty, colors, art, music, entertainment, the stage, elocution, literary, and all of the finer arts connected with the tone, color and manifestation of keen, sensitive, delicate human nature. Their vocational adaptation is in line with these personal evidences of character.

The Knotty Hand, No. 3.—Denotes a hard working, self-denying humanitarian. The thought is high, though the aim for place and power is nil. Such natures love science, philosophy, literature, the quiet life that brings comfort to the mind and heart, free from the rush and bustle of the clamor for wealth. Original in thought, such characters arrive at conclusions by their own sound judgment. They co-ordinate with rural life, and should be thus situated to attain their highest aims and fully enjoy their environment.

The Spatulate Hand, No. 4.—Shows managerial ability, constructive powers, persistency, movement, action in things of magnitude. They are logical, forcible, a little rough in manner and language, but sincere and honorable as a class, demanding justice and rendering service in full measure. They have inventive and mechanical ability, and fit in well in the general development and conduct of the practical doings of the times.

The Slim Hand, No. 5.—Suggests weakness in initiative and the tendency to live a somewhat languid and selfish existence. Such natures are inclined to be anemic; the nervous system is under a tension that brings on spells of lassitude and indifference, even toward their own blood and kindred. They are keen in psychic as well as mental perception and possess gifts of the spirit rather than physical power. They do best in mental pursuits, literary, scientific, philosophical and reportorial lines. They make good detectives and delvers in things hidden and mysterious.

The Short Hand, No. 6.—The stubby type, denotes stubbornness, broodiness, passion, materiality and spasmodic rashness. The nature is somewhat slow and plodding, calm and quiet, preferring to live much within self rather than associating freely with either kin or neighbors. These are the extreme manifestations. Being generally mild in manner and peaceful the position in life is found in occupations that call for service rather than responsibility of the financial or managerial sort. Mining, ranching, farming, trucking, cobbling, and similar calls for helpful labor appeal to this type of character.

This completes the list of leading points that readily come under observation and which may be caught at a glance. After the first glance the follow-up may be carried on indefinitely as opportunity is afforded for closer study. The object of this course of study is to simplify the art of reading character at sight.

So we find that men of power may spring from any of the signs, which brings up the question: how and why? The answer is found in the horoscope of birth which takes cognizance of the whole solar field of signs, angles, planets, positions and aspects as revealed in the science of Solar Magnetism—the complete science of life.

A Word to Young and Old

Workers and Employers.

Male and Female.

GET RIGHT WITH SELF.

GET IN RIGHT WITH OTHERS.

If you are a young man or young woman, seeking a position in life, study yourself by the foregoing rules and find where you belong, what you are best adapted for in the commercial, professional, agricultural or domestic field of endeavor; and then strike out in that direction with a firm determination to make good. You will then realize the value and importance of the information given in this simple course in character analysis.

If you are of more advanced years, along toward middle life, the time is not passed for you to take an inventory of self and proceed to find the place most befitting to your nature.

If you are a business man, an employer of men and women, the most valuable asset you can possess is a knowledge of character. Therefore, this course of study is beyond price as one of the prime essentials in the conduct of your business. The author's experience over a period of some thirty years, in placing individuals in their proper positions, often changing the positions of the entire personnel of an organization, has demonstrated that no information is so applicable and profitable in shaping up the working energy of a combination of men and women.

The science of Solar Magnetism has brot a new inspiration, a new stimulus to thot and action; a new view of life in all that pertains to the welfare and advancement of the race. Those cast down with seeming failure and discouragement, have been raised and given a new start, some of which have risen from a menial clerkship to the presidency of a corporation. Some have risen from the common walks and become leaders in special lines, in business, the professions, in education and in many departments of our national life. Knowledge of Solar Magnetism fortifies and insures character and paves the way to higher attainment—the accomplishment of one's aims and purpose in reaching the cherished goal, Success.

A Utah Family Group

This picture was made from an old postal card and it furnishes an exhaustive study of juvenile character, showing many if not all of the twelve characteristic types. Students compete in finding the largest number of Rising signs possible to locate in the many and varied types. Children may be read as readily as the fully developed character. This will be noticed relative to the sign Taurus shown so prominently in this group of faces. Others are quite as well marked if one observes closely the resemblances to the normal illustrations and types outlined in the foregoing figures.

POPULAR RESORTS.

The Beaches afford the most prolific field for the study of character at sight. The form and features in all their native glory are clearly within the grasp of the observing artist in sight delineation. Void of camouflage the nature stands out in bold relief and Personality runs riot o'er the sands. Study them. Every face becomes interesting; even tho one's admiration for some may, now and then, become excessive.

Conventions

The group of heads shown in Diagram 8, is typical of the usual display of features and poses seen in a Chicago convention—men from all points of the compass. A convention is an interesting meeting to the student of character at sight. It furnishes an excellent opportunity for close observation and study. Pick their signs and note comparisons with the profiles of the East.

Parables

Thought Punctuation

"As ye sow so shall ye reap."

"Not one jot or tittle of the law can be set aside; all must be fulfilled."

"I create the good and I create the evil; I, the Lord God, do these things."

"Some possess one talent, some ten talents."

"To him that hath much, much shall be given; to him that hath little, that little that he hath shall be taken from him."

"God created man in his own image."

"Seek ye the kingdom of heaven and all else shall be added unto you." "The kingdom of heaven is within."

Therefore, the science of solar magnetics shows that all things are perfect. Every human being is a perfect human being. The law admits of no error in any manifestation of life. Variation, differentiation, and, these times as in all times, the "Camouflage" of the "makeup" make for an exhaustive study in all that pertains to Individuality and its manifestation in Personality.

Featural markings, and the so-called disfigurements and impediments in functional centers that upset the normal activities of the mind and heart, indicate the minor and major inequalities and aspects of character.

Thieves and "Saviors" are brothers of the line in the scheme of life. The circumstances of birth, environment, education, training and opportunity, enhance either good or evil in human nature in accord with the principle of magnetic co-ordination. "As the twig is bent so shall it grow."

The most prepossessing appearance is often but a sheath that veils a deep dyed crook; and as often do we find within the most grossly hideous and irregular exterior, the manifestation of a noble soul.

JUDGING CHARACTER

In the study of human nature the student should follow the lines of constructive thinking and reasoning; he should be broad gauge, liberal, charitable, unbiased, kind, forgiving, helpful, and, above all, moderate and considerate in forming and pronouncing judgment on Individuality and Personality.

To the average reader the course would appear philosophical, but to the real student of Natural Law the work opens up as something capable of scientific demonstration, and to such it becomes a revelation. Terms for the complete course, including correspondence to answer all questions that arise in the study, $25.00.

SCIENCE OF TEACHING.

This course is designed to convey some very important facts relative to the art of teaching, which it appears very few teachers understand. Every child, every student, whatever the age, is so differently constituted that a comprehensive understanding of underlying causes for these differences is essential to the art or science of teaching. A few simple rules for determining by observation the nature of each student and how it may be trained in the most effective and harmonious way will add much to one's efficiency as a teacher. This is the aim of this course. Terms, $10.00.

Speed Up a Bit

These are times when young men should take an account of themselves; young women as well; and find just where they can fit in to the best advantage in vocational endeavor. Sharp, shrewd and efficient leaders are in great demand. Positions are open and more are opening to those who are capable to meet requirements. The opportunity is now for the ambitious mind, and a little knowledge, such as a personal vocational certificate of the law of being affords, means a larger grasp of the problem. What am I fitted for, best adapted for, and how shall I proceed to get in right and make good? This is the problem that confronts every young man and woman today. Thirty years of study and demonstration of the science of being enables us to impart the kind of information that means a better position, a larger salary and many other advantages that make for a larger field of activity and a much larger measure of success.

Now is the time to take account of yourself and locate yourself for a career that will place you to the fore in business or professional occupation, wherein you can make the most of yourself socially, financially and intellectually. Why remain at your present salary when you can, with a better understanding of your powers and possibilities, command a higher position and a larger income? To do so is to become dwarfed in business diplomacy—even fall back in the race. Our system of vocational selection stands without a rival for accuracy and as an inspiration to greater endeavor. One needs more money, must have it, to meet growing expenses. Why not begin now to make a better showing for your genius. You may have undeveloped power that can be made to serve you well, and, besides, you may have an element called Luck that will enable you to take hold in a much larger way than you are in the habit of doing, with assurance that you can win out. Think this over and write now for a personal certificate telling you what you can do and how to go about it to obtain a larger income for your time and talent.

It costs but ten dollars to know these important points about yourself. You can make a large profit on such information—on such an investment. Every person, old or young, seeking a position should have this personal knowledge. It means hundreds, thousands, even hundreds of thousands in some instances to the one who is thus equipped. Now is the time when the demand is calling—calling for more efficient help and service.

The Pyramid and Cube University offers the most far-reaching line of study bearing upon human life of any educational institution in existence; Truths that the old Colleges in their hundreds of years of research have never discovered.

Solar Magnetics

Solar Magnetics deals with the special dynamic centers or bodies within our solar system. It includes all that pertains to the operation of Nature's finer magnetic forces and their specific effects upon mundane life and phenomena. The subject is treated under four separate heads or grades of study, exemplifying the principles involved in the occult or hidden manifestation of Astronomy, termed Astrology. As Emerson put it:

"Astrology is Astronomy brought down to earth and applied to the affairs of man."

Those who wish to become proficient in the science of Solar Magnetics—Astronomy plus—will find all they are looking for in our system of study.

Primary Course, including Book, Chart, Tables, the basic rules of procedure, the reading of character, making out horoscopes, etc., with many illustrations, together with six lessons by correspondence, giving one a firm foundation and an insight into the science that enables many to proceed without further instruction. Terms, $10.00.

Advanced Course, including Ormsby's Law and the Prophets' text book, Sign, Time and Aspect Chart, and twelve lessons by correspondence, advancing one to the position of a professional practitioner and teacher. Terms, $25.00. Degree conferred.

Commercial Special, a course designed to place one in a position to direct or advise in matters of financial magnitude and importance, and impart information such as no other system or science affords. Terms, $50.00.

Physicians and Surgeons course, showing the application of the science in Medicine and Surgery, which is considered by some physicians the Greatest Revelation of the century to the medical world. As one physician puts it:

"I consider your work to be of greater importance in connection with the practice of Medicine and Surgery than anything that has ever been accomplished upon the earth."

Every physician should understand this science. It is basic to all that pertains to the practice of both Medicine and Surgery. There is an ancient saying, "Beware of the Doctor who does not understand Astrology." The Doctor has lost this science, and we are restoring it to him thru this line of study. Terms, $100.00. Degree conferred.

WHAT THE DOCTOR SAYS

"I consider your work to be of greater importance in connection with the practice of Medicine and Surgery than anything that has ever been accomplished upon the earth."

P. S. REPLOGLE, M. D.

---

"If I could not get another copy of The Law and The Prophets I would not take One Hundred Dollars for my copy. It is the grandest work ever published, and I hope to see the day when it will be appreciated by the great mass of mankind, for whose benefit it is so admirably adapted."

Something New in VIBRATIONS OF HEALTH

A neat, simple, effective, clarifying system for the restoration and promotion of Health, is presented in a new work by Ormsby, entitled "Vibrations of Health."

"Better than my college course," says one man who has bought 19 copies of this great book on Health, Physical Exercise, Diet, Clothing and other things to insure a Free and Easy Circulation and DEFECATION, the two greatest comforts in living.

On reading this book a practicing physician of the Rush Medical College quit his business, discarded the entire system of that school of medicine and adopted this new system, by which he cured himself of serious complications their methods failed to conquer. He is now making a great success healing the sick.

The nature of all diseases explained and the proper course to pursue in each case to bring about complete restoration to health.

Send today for this Simple Method for the Renewal of Young, Fresh, Live Currents within your system. It works like magic. It costs but $1.00. No further expense.

TO MEET THE CALL ORMSBY'S NEW BOOK

Alchemy vs. Chemistry in Agriculture and Animal Industry.

For some years past Agriculturists who have been readers of Ormsby's works have urged him to get out a book dealing with Agriculture and Animal Industry from the standpoint of the PYRAMID AND CUBE UNIVERSITY System of education.

It is a University Agricultural and Animal Industry Course in a nutshell, surpassing all other information dealing with the many and varied interests of farm life.

Every farmer will profit much, even into the hundreds and possibly into the thousands of dollars, by reading and observing the truths enunciated in this book. It places the farmer in a position to reap more abundantly for his time and labor.

We know every farmer will prize this work. It comes at a time when Knowledge is the important factor in dealing with the situation. Theories and speculations at Government expense, which is Farmers' expense in the final accounting, should be met with knowledge. Price $1.00.

To Whom It May Concern:

To those who make inquiry concerning the PHYSICIANS' AND SURGEONS' COURSE in the PYRAMID-CUBE UNIVERSITY of Chicago, I desire to say: I have just finished this course under the guidance of the MASTER, F. E. Ormsby, and I find the English language inadequate in words to express my appreciation of this deep, far-reaching occult, Solar-magnetic Course.

In these courses put out by the PYRAMID-CUBE UNIVERSITY, the whole universe is simplified and man's relation thereto thoroughly explained and readily understood. The Book of Life is opened and the knowledge therein contained dispels ignorance as the sunlight of the day dispels the darkness of the night.

The Occult student should be the first to know of this storehouse of Wisdom, for on him is placed the burden of proof in making out his case in establishing truth.

What I say here I mean, and I stake my reputation and honor upon these remarks. I am in no danger, however, for the learned only can take issue with me, but their knowledge precludes any disagreement between us.

Study these courses and see your little world expand until you will wonder where our smart men (?) have been all the time.

Sincerely yours,

W. G. FAIRCHILD.

Good Definition

ASTROLOGY postulates that life is continuous—that the present life is but one life added to many past lives and that there will likewise be many more lives for every human being.

ASTROLOGY presumes the object of all earthly lives is to acquire further experience, knowledge and wisdom. Therefore, to neglect to absorb and make use of all possible knowledge is neglecting the ONE object of earthly existence.

The life we are now living is an improvement on the last, and the next will be an improvement on this. But, it should be well noted that, as the basis of human EVOLUTION is knowledge, the position we are given in each life is gauged by our accumulated store of knowledge and the use we have made of that knowledge for the betterment of self and humanity.

As at school, so throughout life. By good or bad work, deeds and actions, we acquire experience and knowledge which makes for us a character or condition that puts us above or below the average of humanity on earth as well as in the long spiritual life that intervenes earth lives. It, therefore, behooves us to know as much as we can about ourselves and the universe—to be broad-minded, to look up and out, and not take ourselves too seriously.

When ships like fishes swim below the sea,
When men outstripping birds can scour the sky,

Letters of Appreciation of the Course Entitled THE PATH OF ATTAINMENT

Houseman Bldg., Grand Rapids, Mich., 7-1-13.

My Dear Ormsby:—

I have received and almost finished reading the first six lessons.

They are without question, the MOST intensely interesting and inspiring of anything I have EVER read. They are certainly illuminating to a degree almost beyond conception, and perfectly clear and easily understood.

You certainly have more right to claim Divine inspiration in this work, than others to whom such power has been conceded thru the ages.

Every one who reads will be profoundly impressed with the truth of the disclosures you have thus given to the world. You have built a monument to your name that should prove to be imperishable.

Wishing that your Great work will meet with the appreciation it deserves, I remain,

Very sincerely yours,

C. C. COZAD.

Mt. Washington, Ohio, June 29, 1913.

Dear Mr. Ormsby:—

Books, The Path of Attainment received last week. I am reading and re-reading all the books. They are a true and simple explanation of the Bible. Who but you could have studied out and condensed these wonderful and beautiful truths?

All Nature is exact science. In these books so many seeming mysteries are only simple truths,—Knowledge. They are books one can read, study and refer to for many years,—for all time. It is The School of Natural Science. Jesus taught and lived these truths, yet few understand, and you are putting them within reach of the masses—clearly and simply. Will they accept them? Yes. Some now and some later. You are at least a hundred years in advance. How wonderful are His works both in Nature and human-nature!

Very truly yours,

ELIZABETH SUTTON.

Baroda, Michigan, November 14, '12.

Dear Mr. Ormsby:—

I beg to acknowledge receipt of books, The Path of Attainment. Permit me to say: I have read many books and several Courses on "Occult Phenomena," "Force," "Matter," "Laws of Nature," etc., but I have read nothing that approaches your wonderful course of reasoning. In my opinion a thorough understanding of these wonderful truths would remove the veil of superstition and ignorance from the minds of people and establish a basis for Universal belief, Growth and Attainment. May your good work progress is the wish of yours truly,

C. E. ORMSBY.

In the operation of this University the plan includes, not only the extension of its educational features thru correspondence, but the extension of the system as a whole, including the placing of a University Building, after the original design, in every county thruout the United States. The aim is to create a University Center in every county, thus making it possible for every member of every family to attend lectures, take courses of study and become affiliated with this new and unusual system and movement in the educational field.

Extracts from a letter received from Mr. W. G. Fairchild, Atty., Long Beach, California:

"I have traveled very extensively in my short time on earth and met and associated with many of the brightest minds (and some of the lowest and meanest) and I must say you are undoubtedly the peer of them all. It has been a common matter for me to meet men and women who have climbed to exalted heights in certain definite lines, but there are few indeed who have such a broad and comprehensive view of all that pertains to life. You will have left your work on this planet long ere you are recognized for your true worth and merit to humanity."

Thanks to Mr. Fairchild.

A Few Words of Appreciation from Among Thousands of Like Communications

Mr. Ormsby:—

I cannot tell you how much I enjoyed your talk the other evening. I consider it the very highest class of entertainment, and you must be heard to be appreciated, as you lead one into such realms of rapturous delight in telling us just what we ought and want to know. I appreciate it so much.

EMORY FRANKLIN,

Mr. Ormsby:—

Your work is a go! It cannot help but succeed and be the means of stirring up the widest discussion of life from an entirely new standpoint. I have gone far enough into the subject to convince me that you have the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth to give to the world. You have my best wishes and support.

Sincerely yours,

ELSIE HEDRICK,
Cincinnati, Ohio.

F. E. Ormsby:—

Dear Sir:—I believe you have either a great work to do or you are a very much mistaken man. The facts laid down in "The Law and the Prophets" is the Greatest Revelation that has been given to a man—of his relation to the Universe. It is the key to the Mystery of the ages. May the spirit of Wisdom guide you in this great work.

Fraternally yours,

MATTHEW HADDOCK,
Grand Rapids, Mich.

My Dear Mr. Ormsby:—

Your work far exceeds my expectations. It answers so many questions. You are so lavish with this knowledge which must have been very hard to obtain. Surely the world will appreciate your work if it can be brought to their notice. To me it is very precious and I want every scrap that ever falls from your pen, cost what it may.

O. O. ADAMS,

F. E. Ormsby:—

My Dear Sir:—There is so much I want to know, I desire daily communication with you that I may drink great draughts of knowledge. I am greatly impressed with your position—the stand you take—the sacrifice you have made to bring the true knowledge of life, the one and only law of being before the needful world. You will surely be compensated for the time and money expended for the good of mankind.

With hearty good wishes,

L. P. McLEAN.

"Words fail to express the value of this volume. Its value is incalculable, as well as all your other publications. I believe the future will prove you to be one of the greatest benefactors of mankind."

E. J. REID,
Long Beach, Cal.

"The simplicity of your method of illustrating and teaching the Science of Astronomy and the very clear manner in which you present the facts, from both the Geocentric and Heliocentric stand-points, has enabled me to see in your work a great future. I believe it is the knowledge and the Science that will reconstruct the thought of the world. You have my best wishes.

H. E. BROWN.

F. E. Ormsby:—

Dear Sir:—It is with pleasure I write to tell you that from my studies of your system for the past year I find it the best of all that has come to my notice in the past twenty years, and have been enabled to put some very remarkable things before the public during the past six months. Your "Planets and People" is the finest work that has ever been put in print. Your book "The Law of Prophets" is far ahead of anything yet seen by man.

You may use this in any way you see fit over my name, wishing you much success in the good work.

WM. ROBERTS,
Brooklyn, N. Y.

Logan, Utah, April 2, 1901.

Dear Mr. Ormsby:—

It is a pleasure for me to express my sentiments of the results attained at the conclusion of this course of twelve lessons in Universal Law. I am proud to be one of your students because I have received much benefit from the study. I feel a happier and better man as I am now able to look upon life as "The Law" teaches us. I hope to live in accordance with "The Law" so that I may look upon my life as one of success and not of failure, and to help others to enjoy like blessings.

I sincerely thank you for the pleasant experiences and wish you success in your great, noble labor.

Sincerely yours,

JOHN H. ROSENGREEN.

Indianapolis, Ind., March 4, 1900.

My Dear Brother Ormsby:—

I hope you will pardon me for not writing sooner. How delighted I was with the wonderful law and the way its high priests expound it I shall not try to say, and I am sure that you know my thanks come from my heart. What is a man? What can he know and comprehend? What and where is his religion, his understanding of all in all, without this sublime knowledge? Brother, to me it is the most sacred and highest treasure I ever shall aspire to possess—the source of the keenest delight my heart shall feel.

What a wonderful help it shall be for me when I shall enter the field of the healing art. * * * The more one penetrates the more there must be, for how can we limit the unlimited? When vacation comes I shall exchange the books and scalpel with the anvil hammer in order to make my tuition for next year. I shall then remember you. With my sincerest regards, I am yours as ever.

ALFRED F. M. TITZE.

The world is burdened with gossip and criticism, and people are being condemned and punished because human nature is such a mystery to the average mind. Children are being shackled and dwarfed, many of them for life, by proceedings that are criminally outrageous, because there is no rational basis in the minds of educators for thought. The gifted student is given glory and position at the expense of the less favored ones to the discouragement and depression of the latter. The child mind is being crammed with all manner of theories regarding everything that enters into the curriculum of education.
