May they speak in reverence to the Inner Recesses of the Soul: There arousing desire to know through awakened God-Hood more of the new day dawning.

He who Knows, and Knows he Knows,
He is wise—follow him.
He who Knows Not, and Knows not he Knows Not,
He is a fool—shun him.—Arabian Proverb.

You'll never write your name
Upon the walls of fame,
Nor on the sands of time
Unless you possess the sand
And the magic wand of eternal
Truth and inspiration.

WHEREIN I WAS BLIND I NOW SEE
—Saul of Tarsus.

Inspiration

Summarizing its Qualifications and Precepts.

Herein lies the requirements for inspiration, summarizing of its qualifications.

A soul pure and free from transgressions of divine law.

A character spotless and undefiled—with charity and justice for all. Untainted by prejudice, jealousy or malice. Then a soul is free to travel out into space, there to contact master minds in the universal and to gather the fruits of Divine Inspiration, and illumination.

Thy feet will be planted upon the rock of Gibraltar and Thy soul free to glean knowledge and wisdom from the Seers and Sages of all ages.

Becoming Thy own preceptor, to glean, to inspire, to shout the glad Hosanna and place Thy arms of love around the world; this is living as the angels live. Then the light that shines from Thy face, will be as no earthly light of the sun; but the light of righteousness, through a Christ developed consciousness, the great white light of God. Supreme then is Thy joy, and Divine is this awakening.

HOPE

Anticipation is cherishing a desire for good and inciting into action, the Divine inflow of inspiration, for it lures one onward to fuller realization of the great source of supply that lies within, waiting for expression. It requires this dynamic force, to keep inspired to hope on and keep the ardor of the mind keen for the desire to live, be and do, for when hope is dead, life is a shallow mockery.

Should the fires of hope burn low, the vibrations are necessarily lowered also. It cannot be otherwise, for life energy is at a low ebb.

Keep faith with your God and the finer forces surrounding you.

Trust and obey, this unlocks the reservoir of spiritual activities and permits the flood-gates of wisdom to flow. This is spiritual reality. It keeps hope and courage fanned into a bright yellow glow. It inspires one onward in daily life; to vision the beauties that are theirs. Then does one vision as through glasses clear and sparkling, all nature with its secrets revealed, keeping a soul IN-AT-ONE-MENT with the cosmic life forces of energizing and utilizing power.

Cosmic energy acts according to the quality and power in which one is conscious. We cannot deny this simplification of TRUTH in God's divine power, for its elevating, harmonizing and strengthening vibrations keeps the mind clarified. Then one can receive inspiration from higher intelligences from out the great realms of souls in the universal. For this power manifests and inspires to the exact proportion and quality of ones mental pattern, or power to conceive truth. Guiding the disciple's steps on nature's path through soul culture and the esoteric laws of life.

When a mind is renewed and lifted to the realms of the spiritual and true, the outer affairs and relations with others will adjust themselves accordingly.

Emerson says great men are they, who see that spiritual is stronger than any material force, that thought rules the world. . . .

WHAT IS INSPIRATION?

Inspiration may mean high or low, good or evil, the ascending or decending in rates of vibration.

Inspiration comes from the latin "inspiro," meaning to inbreathe, or draw in. It is the faculty of being able to do great things in life and to speak, or write inspirationally.

One draws inspiration from the great all pervading cosmic power by trust and faith. Being keyed to plains of vibratory activity in quality to ones own great soul development and becoming absolutely receptive to God's great light that never faileth, those who are willing to walk in this light forever.

Jesus said seek ye first the Kingdom of Heaven and its righteousness and all things will be added unto you. The author in a previous volume (ON THE PATH) has explained to you, where you discover this Heaven, and what you are obliged to do to keep it constantly near. For all the way to Heaven is Heaven, when we manifest God in our outer life, for then we are in tune and in touch with universal supply which means success.

In this affirmation Jesus said all things will be added, He places no side issues—stipulations nor limitations upon the supply.

BECOMING CONSCIOUS OF POWER

First become conscious of Thy own great power; this must act in harmony with Divine law. Recognize the soul center that lies within. Awaken it to greater consciousness. Enter a sacred shrine of silence, for silence is the gate way to divine consciousness. For meditation, concentrate upon peace and power, drawing through the magnetic law of attraction, a greater supply of energy and force. Building a more masterful and holy sanctuary for Thy great spirit, for through meditation a student of truth is able to form higher ideals on all three planes of life, physically, mentally and spiritually. Then does one recognize the inspiration and touch of the higher forces of power, infilling them with INSPIRATION and faith. For Divine power is then acting in co-operation and harmony with the power within. For as we seek we find—knock and the door shall be opened unto you revealing to the mystic student the Kingdom of Heaven.

Make practical demonstrations of this principle by assisting humanity, praying constantly for still deeper enlightenment and greater truth to surround them. Keeping in this attitude of mind one can touch the universal wellspring of power and your own will come to you.

This great hidden power, and force can be compared to a great ocean liner, it's motion is slow, steady and rhythmic, Gradually it gathers force and power, as it gets farther away from shallow water, out into deeper waters of the great ocean, until it reaches the outer harbor, then it sails forth under its own power, in its majestic grandeur over bounding billows and swelling tides undisturbed. Conquered by the mighty power and force within the hull yet all unseen, does the hidden power carry it on its journey. Just as an awakened soul when working in conformity with divine law can master conditions and circumstances. Sailing out on life's stormy sea, with their own safe pilot; their own great developed soul attuned to God's love and wisdom.

How true then these lines of Ella Wheeler Wilcox, where one can trace different modes and grades of inspiration.

"One ship sails east, and one sails west, by the self-same wind that blows."

"It's the set of the sail and not the gale, that determines the way it goes."

"Like the winds of the sea, are the ways of life, as we journey on through life. It's the set of the soul, that determines the goal and not the stress nor the strife."

It depends upon the vibrations surrounding the soul; how deep and Pure the Inspiration, how marvelous the revelations of light. If buffeted about by seeming fate (but is only the workings of Divine Law) the inspiration is at a low ebb. If the Watchman is in the tower room, nothing can enter but enobling thoughts and high ideals. In Divine consciousness listen, for God is speaking the Kingdom of Heaven is within. This is the Golden Key that opens Freedom's Door.

SET OF THE SAILS

The set of the sails will guide the destiny of each soul into pastures green, where verdure fruitage of the spirit will be their Divine heritage.

When one finally determines to follow through calm placid waters, the soul's higher and by far richer ideals of communication, then they with versatility sense the ever growing fruits of Divine Inspiration bubbling forth from their developed soul, well attuned and equipped with implements of service. Thus prepared with sails firmly set, careing not which way the wind of fate may blow. To go forth into God's illustrious vineyard, to enjoy the fruitage of the spirit, lead and guided by His loving messengers of service, into the temple of Divine Wisdom.

SEEKING THE KINGDOM

For he that would love life, and see good days, let him refrain his tongue from evil, and his lips that they speak no guile, and let him turn away from evil—and do good. Let him seek peace and pursue it, for the all-seeing eye of God, is upon the righteous.—1 Peter 3:10-11.

When seeking this Kingdom of Heaven within, you touch the artists of the spiritual spheres, in music, song, art, speaking, writing and act, but to contact this force, remember to first prepare thy self, by going into silent meditation for inner introspection of the mental, closing out all material thoughts, there to look within, asking for strength and Divine Power to guide you. For there are many pitfalls and temptations, it is for the soul to learn to discriminate, as they evolve on the path. They will know when developed in Divine consciousness.

Go alone into thy closet for the power within, to contact the power without, be not conceited with the idea that you and you alone are doing all the work, for you alone do nothing. There is always some force, may we call it a good angel with you to help and to inspire you onward for good and the reverse, if one's vibration is low enough for the reverse to contact you. This is where one needs to pray for Divine Light, wisdom and self mastery, constantly and for strength to be over-comers.

Ask and ye shall receive. Seek for the highest, live your life thoroughly and well, if desirous of obtaining best results, with success on all planes of life. Sail on nothing daunted with mental house-cleaning, often useing the Christ vacuum of power and you will keep happy and sweet. Here you can demonstrate God's Divine healing power, when the mental is sailing on a smooth sea, with poise and rhythm of body and mind.

God then is in the watch tower and the vibrations are filled with chemicalized thoughts of purity with mental color waves, becoming impervious to mental attacks of outside forces, then our thoughts can create noble aspirations and be inspired and clothed in divine love with Him who gives us life.

STEPPING STONES TO THE CHRIST

The soul's vague longings are gratified when touched by Divine Inspiration. There is no finality known in Inspiration for it is manifested through all forms of conscious life. Through music, poetry, religions, sciences of moral justice and through all forms of art, there is inter-woven the Inspiration of seers and sages of the ages past.

When one is touched by Divine Inspiration, it takes the inspired soul up to the Mount of Transfiguration.

In this state of realization the windows of the soul are clarified, then it is a natural consequence that Inspiration becomes obedient through the law of attraction.

ALONE WITH GOD

Jesus gained his greatest power and Inspiration alone with God. Sometimes upon Mount Olive, or in a beautiful valley. As all great thinkers of today, realize the need of solitude, when in need of all their mental powers. Although they may be ignorant of nature's laws, yet are they conscious of receiving inspiration and strength through this stilling of the storms of the outer life.

In hours of abstraction and contemplation, one is filled with gracious and beautiful thoughts, that take one from the world of sense, into the Heavenly kingdom of peace and at-one-ment of the Divine Father.

Only those who have touched this well-spring of inspiration, have witnessed the exhilaration that comes from this Divine contact.

Under this inspired consciousness one is able to observe the defects in their own character, likewise define it in the lives of other mortals. The faculties are keyed or attuned, to the higher and immortalized forces of nature. Touching these divine forces it arouses and kindles into greater action the hidden powers of our being. Thus one feels in these exalted moments of thought, a calm inward hallowedness and in-breathing from the magnanimous and rhythmic beatings of the soul of nature.

ONENESS WITH GOD

This is where one comes into the realization of their oneness with God. For then all nature is so hallowed and sacred, one catches glimpses of immortal truth. This is illumination where we touch the power behind the throne realizing that God is everywhere present and I am one with this all omnipresent consciousness of God and cosmic life.

One cannot at all times receive the highest inspiration for they are not always in tune with the infinite, though there are certain times, when one is attuned to spiritual things. Then they vibrate upward in celestial sphere where one sees, thinks and feels in the vibration of harmonious at-one-ment with God and man.

Here the inflow of Divine thoughts reach the soul and one can then receive the arts of the Heavenly spheres as they rise into the atmosphere of Christ consciousness, where virture, love and faith become largely significant and magnified. Where one speaks in the language of angels and the breezes of their love are wafted forth, in exchange to the outer world.

What comfort and consolation, to forget in these moments the atmosphere and vibration of our present earthly surroundings and live for even a short space of time in the glory of Divine and Heavenly bliss, of etheric vibration that needs no verbal utterance; yet at times the great overflow of the soul's clarified vision commands the words of knowledge and wisdom to flow.

INSPIRED ARTISTS

Beethoven and Mozart, these great musical geniuses poured forth their strains of music without effort or previous thought, through inspiration.

In speaking of the great painter of wisdom—like Raphael and his wonderful paintings, we discover he was fully conscious of his power of inspiration in his gifted work for he tells us his "whole work is accomplished as if he were in a pleasant dream."

Then others failing to realize their great ambition in their waking moments, oft-times obtain their greatest ideals and inspirations through impressions in sleep or in dreams.

Mozart told of his great gifts and how he received in inspirational moments, tells us when the melodies fell unbidden upon his soul, "That all his feelings and compositions would go on with-in him as a lively and delightful dream."

Then Beethoven, who is claimed the greatest of all musicians, whose soul was tuned to musical ecstasy, confessed "to an over-mastering power" the rhythmic harmonies of angels. In his inspired language, he says, "I must live with myself alone. I well know God and the angels are nearer to me in my art than the others. I commune with them without dread."

TRUTH INSPIRES

Today people are beginning to realize more forcibly than ever before where their inspiration comes from. For God constantly inspires in various forms, souls who are attuned to the highest standard of Divine Living in the material world, for one is constantly sensing either high or low vibrations, for the latter can bring a very low grade of inspiration; this is a deplorable fact but let our conjecture be only of the Diviner sort.

It is a true saying—no star continually courses in the same orbit. A soul is constantly changing. As the vibrations change up or down the scale, the soul is drawn by the currents of harmony or inharmony. In moments when one is touched by deep and pure inspiration, at this time one is filled with love for the world, we care not where it comes from, we only care to know it is renewing our being and causing night to turn into day and Heaven to shine in our midst.

Jesus scourged the money changers "compared them to swine, to thieves and robbers." Was it not the gentle Jesus who blessed the little ones and said to the woman, "Neither do I condemn Thee, go and sin no more." His vibrations were entirely changed.

The Diviner nature was quickened. Feeling the oneness with the Father in Heaven.

When seeing the money changers, corrupting the holy temple, His soul was torn asunder. For a moment He rebelled at the injustice of man, against the laws of God and His precepts.

"When desiring to receive the higher form of inspiration, it is necessary to raise the consciousness upon higher plains of thought. The scales of our being must be brought up into perfect balance, aspiring to attain the highest in spiritual vibrations. This is reached only through discarding all negative thinking, closing out material conditions, then shut the door of the mind, then with love in the soul and Divine at-onement with the Father, the well-spring of power is touched. Where one can sense the great spirit of truth, the source of all wisdom, love and illumination."

SILENT SHRINE

Take time, at least a few seconds daily to visit the silene shrine. For there is found the strength to master difficult problems and daily trials. Here the height of power is reached with strength and courage to wrestle with life's daily battles, The force of the lower spheres, cannot reach one whose feet are planted on this higher plane of life.

When one permits himself to drop in vibration, on a level with discontent and inharmony, he is no longer master. For here discord, sickness and various inharmonies can disturb one's peace of mind. Thus manifesting on different planes, in agreement as one vibrates in soul consciousness.

MASTER CIRCUMSTANCES

In a moment one can either touch a high or low vibration. Depending upon the mode of soul growth. For when one can master self, then he can master circumstances. Otherwise earth trials master him. Dropping into a slough, where apparently he is swamped by conditions, and on a level with the trials and sorrows of earth. "Don't do it." Arise above it, say positively, "I am master of this and every condition and every other vibration that tries to down me." For nothing can hurt you unless you permit it to do so.

Hold fast to the master consciousness, this keeps you in touch constantly with the great source of supply and universal power that means success; which all possess when becoming conscious of its source. It leads one through the depths out into the sunlight of God's rich promises. Thus becoming the captain of thy ship, the master of thy soul.

HISTORY TELLS OF CHRIST

History tells us of Christ and how he demonstrated supply and his marvelous success as a teacher and healer in His day! Where did He get His divine inspiration? He was also successful in inspiring others; for each good soul when filled with God's love and universal power is constantly inspiring others on the path.

History also tells of how He was tempted and would go away to get into greater at-one-ment with the Father—this was in the silence—for here is the safety value—the channel of power for every one. Then go into thy closet the (silent shrine) and shut the door, He that heareth in secret shall reward Thee openly.

Inspirational speakers and writers, and all arts that take concentration, shut this door of the mind, barring out all material conditions; dwelling for the time in spirit; inhibiting all lower thought, where the forces and master minds who are attuned to the finer vibrations, and understand the laws of life eternal, and in all probability have had centuries of development, can touch the minds of the dwellers here. Thus do they ascend upward in vibration, contacting these higher developed minds and universal power of God.

Prayer is a great furtherance and source of power towards keeping this safety valve on tap. Although prayer without works is dead.

Through the darkness of night as the cold winds and icy blasts of dissappointments, discouragements and apparent failures, blow upon us use the safety valve, the silent shrine for comfort, poise and strength. Here one touches the well-spring of Divine wisdom. You hear the voice of the silence speak, with that soundless word like symphonies from the spheres above. sounding its enchanting music on angels harps.

RATES OF VIBRATIONS

There has been no limit found to rates of vibrations; although observation teaches that one vibrates many degrees higher and faster rates when receiving inspiration; for the power from the spiritual planes of consciousness is poured upon the mind at such a fast rate of speed, it is almost impossible at times to retain all of the inspired message .

Many have discovered it very true that inspiration is not wholly divine by any means; for it comes through a lower source many times. When this occurs, pity those who are in reach of this lower vibrations; for it can cause great injury and deep sorrow through its bitter fangs.

Keep thy soul swinging high in thy Heaven, there in you discover lofty rates of vibrations.

Study good books, think pure wholesome thoughts. Psychology teaches there is good in all souls even the lowest criminal has that spark of the divine smouldering within; although many would contradict this statement, it is never-the-less true. -

Through this discovery, one knows there is work to be done on all planes of life. There is no excuse for idleness. Begin to manifest thy own God power. Fan it into greater work by usage; then the inspiration from the great universal mind in this glorious universe and teachers beyond our sphere of vision can impress your consciousness with their awakened wisdom and knowledge of a greater life yet to come.

Live the Christ life, that you may keep in harmonious relationship with this power continually; for constancy reaps a rich harvest.

Thus is the mind prepared for the imprint upon its sensitive plate of the picture or message to be conveyed. Here is the great open avenue of light, whereby one gathers his energy and power.

Here is called forth the best that is within self, thus calling forth the best in others. For no one should ever try to live by self alone; if he attempts the experiment he will discover himself bankrupt. Thus many poor miserable souls are without friends or companions.

WHERE DOES INSPIRATION COME FROM?

There are many conceptions as to where inspiration really comes from. Some contend it comes from the universal—or from God—others will say from unseen forces—while others say it comes from the super-conscious or sub-conscious mind.

If all are a part of the divine mind and power of God (and we know this is true) then one need not bother whether it comes from minds in spirit in the universal—or divine mind; providing one lives to be an inspiration and help to others and to inspire and spur them onward to do the best that within them lies. These efforts for others are stepping-stones to the Christ. The pattern He left to trace out and conscientiously follow.

Every one is a part of God's universe and its wondrous plan. It takes the whole of the universe to make up the great final; you, I, all others. Then live—let live—and help others to live. Constantly pray for daily guidance, heed that intuitive voice; it may be the Master speaking; this all leads to the Ascension.

Take no detour from the uneducated in divine truths, but rather pray to be directed to instructors of highly developed power; these are able to plant thy feet upon the path of light; but you are obliged to walk thereon alone.

Those who have been long in the service of truth are those who can guide thy footsteps from the pitfalls. If they have ascended the spiritual ladder successfully themselves; unless they have done this, they are not leaders in the service of the Christ.

Remember though you are shown the light and the way, you must do your own climbing, no one else can possibly do it for you. The illumination and Christ unfoldment comes through polishing Thy own soul's window; the burnisher used is service.

KEEP IN AT-ONE-MENT

By living in at-one-ment with the spiritual forces of nature one is constantly prepared to touch the well-spring of inspired minds of spirit, who know our every need, for there is always some one near. Our prayer is known before uttered. Out on the ether waves of thought coming and going are messengers from the spheres. So live that the Masters of light will be your inspiration, coming more powerful at times, owing to conditions.

If one is not entirely in tune with the Infinite, there will be trouble in getting the direct message across. A very good definition to call this failure is static. The vibrations are distributed. Static not caused from out the spirit spheres, but rather some cause or condition of the mediator between the two worlds.

The instrument may be properly attuned. or keyed to catch over the etheric waves the thoughts of those outside. One who is sensitive to etheric or spiritual vibrations, should constantly be on the watch and constantly prayerful that their souls may be keyed to receive only the best from out the etheric vibrations such as impressions or spirit messages photographed upon the sensitive plate of the mind. You ask, can all receive these messages? The majority can if they prepare themselves. Then ask or invite the spirit vision or listen in silencing the outer world of sense, becoming keyed to the soul sense, and if one is in high rate vibrations, he is in tune with the spirit station or spirit radio and the message comes clearer and direct. If something disturbs the vibrations around the mediator, it is then the message cannot so readily reach the receiver. Then the loved one waiting outside the door (of the mind) so impatient for a word, to convey through this avenue, the truth of their presence and the fact of communication between the seen and unseen worlds is disappointed, even a tiny rap is many times heard, to inform one of a presence near.

Dr. J. M. Peebles "In Immortality" says a tiny rap is a wave of love from the sea of eternal life, and a throb of the physical form they once inhabited to take up their life, where they left off here.

PREPARE THY SELF ALSO THE ROOM OF SACRED SILENCE

Prepare thy sanctuary, by prayer and fasting is the best method, previous to communion for best results. This lifts the consciousness above the sordid conditions and vibrations of earth, thus one is then in rapport with higher forces and in tune with the infinit. This is conducive to peace and harmony, also a protection from any undesirable force who may chance to be near.

How can another direct you along a road they have never traveled? Those who can guide your feet safely through the rough places are those who's own feet have been torn and bleeding from the sharp boulders and cutting blasts of earthly conditions and experiences. These can best steer your ship of life into safer channels, around the sand bars and seaweeds of life's entanglements.

The great inspired minds of spirit who in turn inspire us with such splendid service and proclaiming the truth, have years ago in life, gone through their Gethsemane and carried their cross to Calvary.

Now they come to inspire others with the thoughts to build for the future, and to direct their feet to the safest resting place, that all may have a solid foundation, with love of truth for their altar.

When the opportunity comes take it and light another's path. Keep it aglow (by a purified soul) in readiness, for every emergency.

A DOUBTING THOMAS

A doubting Thomas gets no where. Do not question if the seeds of truth appear to fall on barren soil. The Father of all will take care of that. It is for you to sow, the reaping time will come later. You may not see the results now in this life's existence, but in the final summing up, you will see the golden harvested result of the seeds sown and the reward of your labor. In this manner one is constantly sending forth material that goes toward building one's house in the real City of the Angels.

SEARCH FOR KERNELS OF TRUTH

Knowledge is something which no earthly thing can take away after once possessed. Unless willing to give to another. Read and study the wisdom of the masters. Then permit others to light their torch by

it. One will soon develop discernment, then their own intuitive soul will be their guide, to know when and how to give.

Take down the bars of fear and trembling: place up the bars of courage. "I can and I will." Doubt not nor falter; know thy pathway leads to the safety zone, "The Father of Light." The Heaven of peace and glories of everlasting life.

Thy way henceforth will be glorified. Know you are capable of doing great and noble things, through your own magnetic power of perception. Thus you grope no longer in the dark. For you have found the rich Kernels of truth "the many purposes of God's wisdom."

Be not content to have some one person tell you how to get the best results. Live your life well. Learn your lessons with fortitude. Go out on your own observation train with a brave heart and sunny smile, searching out for every angle God's universal truths. Upon this journey of introspection is found "all the way to Heaven is Heaven" or the reverse, just as one lives in agreement to the law.

On this journey one is given their various lessons. It depends entirely upon themselves, how much they receive or what profit gained therefrom, or what they do with the harvested results. One will gain greater benefit from knowledge of truth when passing it on to others for the give and take plan is the growing plan.

Then Thy kingdom is come, Thy will is done. Send out from this holy sanctury, joy and healing peace vibrations to the world. Touching and inspiring those who seem yet asleep to the real truth. There are worlds and worlds of knowledge waiting in the esoteric room of their being if they will invite its perusal. Never forget your safety valve (the silence) this is your place of non attachment in other words—let-go—this is spiritual freedom.

THE COMFORTABLE MEDITATION HOUR

On this occasion one collects energy and power. Let there be light and there was light; for the true mystic must know the secret of opening his own mystic door of light and wisdom. Here is discovered the kingdom of Heaven—Here is the power behind the great throne—The foundation of divine supply—The inspiration of seers and sages.

One is obliged to arise out from the earthly conditions and seek the touch of the masters of light who are attuned in the finer etheric vibrations, who have learned the laws of life through centuries of thought and who now reach out to you with their great unfoldment of power. Meet them half way, by cultivating the silence, by opening the door and inviting their assistance. They are ready and willing to help direct your feet on the path of safety toward the diviner things of life. This means liberation where inspiration flows in Christ understanding.

To always keep in this place of safety would indeed be Heaven. Try it—if one never tries how can one know what they can do or how much they can receive.

PRAYER A SAFETY VALVE

With Mental Exercise

For healing affirmations and prayer are an aid and power toward keeping this safety valve on tap, for like a blacksmiths bellows, it keeps fanned into flame by its force, for prayerful thoughts and concentration of forces, draw to one numerous heart desires. A visualization as it were, though prayer without works amounts to nothing—God helps those who help themselves, use the great law of visualization, for through this process of thinking, the law works almost miraculously, for it gradually draws ones desired possession closer and closer through the power of thought until it materializes.

The deeper, finer truths are found through high and lofty vibrations, keyed and attuned to the Divine order of life.

The vibration one is daily living in, is usually that of coarser and more material, impregnated with earthly conditions. In reaching finer vibrations the door of the mind must be closed to the outer world; that means enter the silence "the world within." "Relax the physical, close out earthly thoughts, and seek in conscious realization to touch the great universal reservoir of power, the God power within. Concentration and the silence assists nature in her work.

THE HOLY GRAIL

Love and desire must constantly fill the heart for humanity, praying for wisdom and Divine guidance, if hoping to successfully aid others to clear the cup of all dregs; then hope to touch thy own lips to the holy grail.

Christ was successful in demonstrating and inspiring others through his own great soul unfoldment and knowledge of truth. He said these things I do ye can do, and greater, for I go to the Father.

Many have a marvelous gift of healing, if they will but permit love to enter their soul as well as other wonderful things, God has permitted us to have. It is for us to explore and find these dormant possibilities then use them.

History tells us, Jesus studied and received inspiration from others in spirit, before he went forth in the vineyard to gather and glean. He also was tempted and would go alone in the silence to get into greater at-one-ment with the loving Father and there to gather strength and power from God's Universal world of souls.

If only attempting this experiment once, one will discover a wonderful feeling of upliftment and peace.

It gives one greater strength to go forth and battle with life's various problems, calming and soothing the tired care-worn soul.

THE DIVINE WELL-SPRING

Through this Divine well-spring of inspiring silence, one contacts the power where they realize the omniscient, omnipotent, and omnipresent One. This is the remedy that heals the discouraged souls with heart longings; they can sense the inspired minds of spirit agencies, transmitting down through the chain of spheres, the message of unspoken comfort and peace. This is the meaning of the words, "He speaks though he were silent."

Those who are filled with this divine inspiration, know the truth and live it, can be with the sorrowful and discouraged, and without a spoken word, strengthen and heal their souls. Some more readily than others, yes—for some are more responsive or already nearer the throne of safety, and can more readily be touched, needing only the warmth of love from a master consciousness to awaken in them a responsive cord.

LOOK WITHIN

Keep looking within: there is the central fountain of life. Nestle close to the divine Father, be in constant at-one-ment with Him—at all times have the master key ready to turn in the lock, barring out the undesirable thought forces of others. The golden key to thy own observation car is—I am master of self.

In-breathe deeply and slowly from the solar plexus to the rhythmic count of seven. Hold breath—and mentally repeat—I am being reborn into a new kingdom, I am the child of the living God. Then slowly exhale to the slow count of seven. Permitting the thought and breath to follow from top of head down through the body to the feet.

This may seem complicated at first, but a little practice is all that is needed. Carry any thought for your own needs, in the exercise, and repeat seven times if possible. Then let go of every atom of the physical body. Then let go mentally. This will be hard to do at first, but practise until it becomes easy; it will be the most profitable medicine ever taken, for the nervous system. For when nature is not burdened with your mind, it can do the work, can re-construct which means to heal.

The inhibiting of thought is the hardest for the unruly children of the brain are hard to master. Practice until you are able to breathe with ease from the solar plexus. This will relax and ease the muscles—for lack of ease is disease.

This exercise will not only give body freedom, but the mind also will sense a clearness and freedom. The inspiration will flow to you and never mind where it comes from, so it is that something that helps you to live and be a better man or woman. Just be grateful for it. “This is where one discovers the kingdom of Heaven and all things added unto you.”

What a haven for a tired weary soul, to find this inner sanctuary of soul to soul communion, in the still soundless sound.

BE A TORCH BEARER OF DIVINE TRUTHS

Go forth in the Father's vineyard uplifting human souls everywhere. Carry your torch light of love and understanding to the hearts of humanity, teaching them to draw the curtain on malice, hatred and envy, and that whatever one throws out in vibration it returns.

Do not fail to turn your search light into the darkened places of the earth, send thoughts and prayers there daily. There are those who are constantly seeking your rays of light, give it ungrudgingly.

The desire is what is needed and it comes—when the soul is flooded with God's love then the opportunity is plentiful enough. Where're you go in the crowded cities or where tropic breezes blow, they are there waiting, for the harvest is ripe waiting for you to garner and glean.

GIVE

Place not a cynic band around Thy heart,
Nor blind Thy eyes to all that is beautiful,
Nor doubt the honored and the true.
Keep a song in Thy heart for those who Brave the storms of life to Make it better, safer for you.

If inspired with truths received, pass it on that others may receive benefit as well. For inspiration is not alone for self, the supposition is Divine truth is not to either be bought or sold for material gain.

When one can grow in knowledge and wisdom of love and giving, where Jesus the Christ stood in truth, giving without the thought of always receiving, these will truly grow in Divine wisdom. It will flow to them freely, for they become an open channel for Divine law in giving. "The law of compensation is the law of justice."

Nature speaks daily of this law. If observing on every hand nature will be found a bounteous giver—giving everything so freely to all. Live for a time in God's great out-of-doors, study it, one will return if observing at all filled with the thought of God's manifold goodness all so freely bestowed upon His children.

Yet it is sad to say, but is nevertheless true, if it were possible some would harness the very air we breathe and compel one to pay a price for it.

Do not permit this mercenary spirit of "get as get can" take possession of you. Shun it as a viper for it is as poisonous and deadly as a serpent.

Many will preach from their platforms the spirit of giving, yet will be wondering how much is in the collection plate for them. Do not be blind to these teachers, sift the wheat from the chaff. This is not the real Christ method but a mercenary spirit only.

THE TRUTH BEAUTIFUL

"Keep the windows of the soul polished through justice and loving service, this aids purification and lights thy pathway on to supernal heights, where the truth sets you free."

Long has the real truth been too much commercialized. Try the Christ plan of giving for a time; then watch the beautiful truth of God's inspiration flow. This is bound to come, if one has the real metal within him. With your feet planted upon wisdom's mountain and face Heavenward, Christ walketh by thy side to guide thee on.

Cast thy bread upon the waters, it will return unto you. Watch this law work, it will come not just when you expect perhaps, but more likely when needing it most.

A servant is worthy of his hire; the Bible tells one this. Yet not more than he is worth. One is obliged to live this is true. There will be other ways and means to provide for one when in constant rapport with Divine law.

THY CUP RUNNETH OVER

When one learns to give, as Christ has planned, their cup will run over in good returns. One is obliged to empty the cup often by the law of giving, which is the law of service.

In this manner they ascend the steps to the holy fountain and drink of the all-wise inspiration. Then give from this cup of knowledge, for the world is grievously needing it, to quiet the troubled waters and storms of life, permitting the sun to shine upon other souls. From the seed of truth sown, thousands may reap a rich and fruitful harvest.

In its fruitfulness, the ripe luxurious substance will penetrate the atmosphere and vibrate the truth and its wisdom outward to the external confines of the earth. Reaching those who are searching for the real truth and like the kernel of wheat in its mission, is the staff of life for physical man. The laws of eternal life are God's great precepts giving spiritual food.

LAW OF ATTRACTION

Seek for Divine inspiration. (Ask and ye shall receive.) One must be desirous and also deserving of these good things of life if they hope to attract them.

There is a law of attraction (as a magnet attracts the steel) so humanity is a magnet of power. Like attracts like.

One cannot help attracting their friends to them any more than they can prevent day and night. When sensing this magnet attraction, give to them of your friendship and love, you will soon know why they are attracted to you and what is best for them. When they have received their lesson from you and apparently drift away be not grieved. Just know the obligation has been met and watch for other souls to help. Send forth a blessing with them. This is the Christ principle of truth and the psychology of divine attraction.

GIVING INSPIRES

Joy is gained by giving,
The best your life contains.
Happiness is not in getting,
It is in the privilege of giving
What you've gained.

The truth you have given, or some joy you have shared, bring its own reward of merit, inspiration to do the will of God. When a soul is pure and holy, one can easily tap the fountain of at-one-ment, that springs forth as sparkling waters of Divine Truth. These are the messengers of God to those who are seeking to know something more than what has been previously taught from orthodox platforms for centuries.

These many hundreds of years they have heard, to walk in the straight and narrow path, that leads them to salvation through the Vicarious atonement of Jesus Christ.

Listen, Oh Children, of the all wise Providence, and remember—never can one hope to be saved so easily from sin, through the crucifixion of Jesus the shedding of His blood.

All are required to work out their own salvation, through service, through righteousness, living unselfishly, sharing with those less fortunate than themselves—and as the light of wisdom is revealed, pass it along, that there may be an unbroken chain of good deeds and loving service, all along the path the soul is obliged to travel. Thus will the spiritual lamp be kept continually filled with the purified oil of loving service. That alone pays the price for each soul. Stepping out from error to truth—from ignorance to knowledge—from superstition to hope and faith in your own ability to work out your own salvation. Becoming illumined through Divine Inspiration given through the great forces of nature.

BROADCAST THE TRUTH

One forgets self and his own trials when constantly busy uplifting others for one becomes a sacred channel of power. It becomes a joy helping souls less fortunate and who are down lower on the ladder of spiritual progress. When one becomes purified and holy he becomes a disciple for righteousness, for all souls are constantly climbing, some above you, some below. The fruitage of the soul only gives forth its radiant beauty and sweetness through cultivation and growth.

Have no fear in trying to lift others up that they may break away your own grasp or present standing, for it gives one a firmer grip—a greater lease—a stronger hold. Your soul window will reflect your hidden light. This is the psychology of life, you must empty your pitcher to have it refilled. Then lift and boost, “look up and lift up” is the motto, when one has gained a substantial footing himself. It then opens the gates to the mystic path of light, the holy city of the New Jerusalem.

An understanding of the climbing process belongs to those souls who gave as they received of nature’s laws. Unless they follow this law they will necessarily slip back from where they feel so secure.

STEPPING STONES TO CHRIST
CONSCIOUSNESS

The give and take plan is the only sure stepping stone toward a firm foundation to safely build Thy future upon and one’s soul must be awakened through readjustment before they can give their greatest light. Then know as Emerson tells us—“We are escorted on every hand through life by spiritual agencies, and a beneficent purpose lies in wait for us.”

Begin to do broadcasting of the truths, silently but surely will it find a lodgment place, although seemingly sown on barren ground, keep it up. Each day and many times a day, for if one is in a vibration of peace and harmony, desiring to send out a telepathic message to some country or place—to a body of people—or one individual soul, that thought is on its way safely journeying onward and will reach its destination.

On every hand one is discovering this great law of vibratory thought waves or telepathy. They follow the great law of the universe, for they bring back in kind to you and in proportion of good or evil, whatever you sent forth on the vibration.

Psychologists having the truth awaken, you know thoughts are living things. Get busy with your inspiration, use the radio activity of power, broadcast it over the earth. To those who have been asleep at the switch so long, tell them of their essential duty they owe to God and man, of the service they must render.

Remember nothing is impossible, perfectly applied psychology is the fulfilling of the great and stupendous laws of God.

ALIVE TO TRUTH

When alive to the great psychology of life, the things that now annoy, will become seeming trivial and commonplace compared to the greater things discovered, for when a soul becomes awake to the universal laws of God they find their thoughts have been the principle cause of the past effect received and the cause for their present daily material grind. Obeying the natural laws of life with constantcy and by proper thoughts in eating, breathing, exercises, concentration and meditation, poise and etc., etc., they thus build a new consciousness. The whole of the little world you live in, which previously seemed such confusion will all pass, bringing a new psychology of power, a new world will be your possession. A new day will be born for you. Why? because by living in obedience to Divine Law, you get in rhythm and in tune with the universe, thus in harmony with all life. Universal light and higher soul consciousness, constantly reflecting through the soul mirror, the unfolding Christ power.

This thought I wish to leave with those new in the realms of scientific investigation of truth. First find your self—or as the old philosopher said, “Man know thy self.” Get yourself centered, become poised, at ease, in harmony with your own soul first. Then can one see with a clearer, broader vision; with a clearer insight into the things needing readjustment in your own and in the lives of others.

KEEPING YOUR TROLLEY ON THE WIRE

Do not forget the safety valve I’ve been telling you of, the silence, where the storms of life are calmed. Here is the inner sanctuary of poise and power where one finds his real self and his ability to do.

Then when for some reason their trolley gets off the line of union with its great source of supply, it is hoisted again into place. The power you so much need to keep your mental machinery going will be supplied through the contact with the universal power—God.

Keep your trolley where it belongs, by going into this sanctuary of the most high—the silence. I hear some say I have no time. Oh, yes you have! When you begin to demand things for your own good or the good of others, the ways and means through divine law will find you the time and place.

THE FINDING

In searching in strange path-ways and windings,
For truths that would lead me to God,
But farther away seemed the finding
With every new path-way I trod.

I searched for wisdom and knowledge
They fled me the farther I sought,
For teacher and text books and college
Gave only confusion of thought.

I sat while the silence was speaking,
And chanced to look into my soul
I found there all things I was seeking,
My spirit encompassed the whole.

—Ella Wheeler-Wilcok.

Through practice of deep inner silence one becomes conscious they are their own great star.

One can enter into the silence, although in crowded places. Can be with the crowd but not of them, by concentration of thought force. Look within—here is your power-house. Here is the silence—here is where you hear Him speak though He were silent. This means to let go. It unlocks the door to the inner sacred silence.

If you never fail to take care of this safety valve, you will be on the high road toward success and mastership where inspiration will come floating in on the etheric waves as music from the higher spheres of Heaven. Here is discovered the meridian of a new day, a new consciousness is born. This is the new birth. The growing pains of this new child may have been many and severe, but through this concentration of thought forces you become a conceiver of the truth, you have gained the final victory of conscious life, all through first learning the fundamental principles of the law, then living in union with the universal law of life and of God. For life is law. When this is discovered, the inner side of every cloud will be bright and shining.

THROUGH INSPIRATION AND VISUALIZATION IS FOUND THE ROAD TO SUCCESS

We often meditate and also speak of doing things worth while, but if one observes closely, he will discover that the inspiration to do these things, must first be aroused through the inner awakening or marshalling of the seemingly dormant inner consciousness into greater action. This is accomplished by concentration and visualization.

This alone gives one the incentive to go forward blazing the trail for greater achievement and successful ventures all through life.

“Go first within, if you hope to Go Out and get what You Want.”

HOW TO DRAMATIZE FUTURE

Begin to dramatize the future. Mentally see in the coming tomorrow all you hope to be.

Use your intelligence and try to measure up to all you ought to be. Visualize and use imagination, understand natural laws. Through this comes a realization of your ability to adjust yourself to Divine Principles.

Image the great things you want to be, then ask yourself the question, can I measure up to my idealism?

You gradually become inspired to go on dramatizing your vocational life. If you have been following your weakest moral self, it is time to begin studying self-mastery.

Keep before the vision beautiful pictures of moral achievements, through the relation of proper scientific thought.

Jesus did not proclaim any supernatural religion or personal power, although it is very true his life was exemplification of Divine Truth. Only through following in His Steps can one reach the acme of spiritual perfection and success through loving service, righteous living, and seeking evermore to be Christ like.

LEARN TO DO YOUR OWN THINKING

Have an open mind, become interested in the race, for selfishness contains the germs of dissolution.

Jesus said, “Believe—when you ask for a thing, know it is your's already." That is dramatizing the thing. Believe you shall receive and Ye shall receive.

Pray to create mental desire, then thank God you can visualize and put into realization the great things of life. This inspires one on to success on all planes of life. It helps to keep one on the job, to go forth to do and to be.

Hold your ideals—your realisms and make them come true, this is a sure road to success. Then you will discover greater opportunities in your world and that you have become a creator of power, and are needed in larger fields of endeavor.

You have drawn to your self that measure of magnetic force and power whereby you become a charged dynamo, daily creating worth-while things.

KEEP IN TOUCH WITH THE RESERVOIR OF POWER

It is very necessary to learn of, and keep in close touch with, not only this great force and foundation of power within self but it is indispensable to your growth and development, to keep in touch with others also, for through other minds of power, one gathers fresh inspiration and strength. All this is an aid toward advancement in all great endeavors, for it is well known one cannot grow by self alone. Keep the scales of thought well balanced where the fires of love from high and lofty spheres can broadcast to you revelations from the infinite store-house of wisdom.

THE SUB-CONSCIOUS MIND—THE STORE HOUSE

Many wonder why this sub-conscious mind is able to recall for us so forceably things that transpired in years past. While things thought and enacted in later years slip by often forgotten, or perhaps unnoticed.

It is these past experiences stored away in the subjective mind to be tapped at a moment's notice that becomes our greatest subservient teacher, assisting one in our present daily activities. For these experiences and impressions are so indelibly planted upon the inner sensitive plate of our brain that their recurrence is not necessary, for these lessons (for such they are) once acquired and thoroughly imbedded through past experiences—and many times harrowing experiences and impressions, are never forgotten, therefore need no repeating.

Thus do we get the inspiration to press forward into greater ventures that gradually builds for larger and better things of life, gradually rounding out the soul, building a concrete and noble character that is to carry one onward into successful ventures through endless eternity.

Is this not worth more than all the silver or gold? Yet we all know it, too, is very necessary for material needs and pleasures, not alone for self but the good that may be done to help others. Yet does this satisfy only temporal needs and passing fancies. The former everlasting.

HIDDEN RESERVOIR

Those who have not already become conscious of the great hidden reservoir of force and power within, can by concentration and will-power discover it is never too late to attach themselves to this fountain of at-one-ment that produces eternal supply.

This is the key that opens the great padlock of that indwelling mind that opens the door to inspiration and success and closes it to adversities, bringing to one success on all planes of life, for it builds a sound mind, a healthy body, surrounds one with desirable friends and business associates, inspires one with a greater desire to do, not only for self but fills one with inspiration to be of service to other human souls less fortunate.

With this incentive paramount, does one ever live on the threshold of this great knowledge of "the give and take plan;" knowing that their greatest ambition and the things they anticipate coming to pass will be some-time realized. "One should never forget they are forever being weighed on the scales through divine justice."

HOLD THIS MODEL OF SUCCESS

God wants every one to succeed and be happy. Hold the model before you of success. Think constantly that your undertakings are being more and more prosperous. Have faith in your own power to create a better condition; for your thoughts are the machinery, make them do the work. Shakespeare in Hamlet says, "There is nothing good or bad in life, but thinking makes it so." The dominating power is thought, this scientifically applied will bring all things into submission. Never think you cannot succeed, for success depends upon the right application of thought.

Emerson once said, "Thoughts takes man out of servitude into freedom." They can certainly take one upon the mountain-top of success, or drag down into the depths of poverty and shame. Then is it not very necessary to live constantly in the vibration where harmony and peace are our daily companions? Then it becomes much easier to have love and consideration toward others less fortunate, giving assistance to them by lifting them out of their servitude into freedom, for service is power and power is freedom.

MAKE OF MAN THE STATUE

Make of MAN the statue, the priceless piece of art;
All that Greece has given,
All that time has striven for ages to impart;
Weld it in his sinews, mold it in his thought,
Till the humblest scavenger is gloriously wrought.

Shame upon the galleries, filled with treasures fine,
 While the work of Heaven—MAN, who is divine,
 Shivers in the hallway, shuffles through the street,
 Shambles down the ally, with weak and ragged feet.

Make of MAN the statue, make of MAN the building.
 What avails the guilding, of altar or of dome?
 What the gorgeous tapestries blooming in the home?
 What avails the splendor where stately mansions stand,
 If men who make the mansions are homeless in the land?
 Shame upon the church spires towering to the sky,
 While the drudging millions suffer, starve and die.

—Angela Morgan in "Hearst's."

And God said, "Let us make man in our image after our likeness, and let them have dominion."—Genesis 1:26.

Every one has implanted within him that spark of spiritual power. But like the fire that is covered for future use, when stirred up it becomes fanned into a bright glow of warmth and beauty. When this power is applied to, it is possible for it to give light and supreme dominion over every thought, action, desire or sensation in mind and body. Neither will they lack strength, nor lack will to do, nor to carry their burdens, thus working out their own salvation, their own destiny.

CONCENTRATION

When burdens may seem to press, go into Thy sacred silent sanctuary and lay them all on the altar at the Master's feet. There to be ciphered out with no characterizing by haste but in God's own time find all things according to truth adjusted through divine law, then with renewed strength can Thy shoulders take them up one by one and carry them onward and across the seeming abyss. For each soul is given strength for its various burdens. Thy destiny must be carried through with nobility and power attending it and one must learn how to prepare himself to discover the many points relative to the soul's voyage.

Silent meditation and concentration of thought forces draw to one deeper inspiration and power. Power, the great magnet that draws from God's great universal supply, strength to forge ahead to success and final victory. Thus does a student of truth realize and discover through applied psychology that he is a world within himself; where the thought forces can be harnessed to work for him, through this same law of concentration, visualization, plus realization. Here is found success—then why stay in bondage when you can unlock the chains that bind and evolve, answering to freedom's call.

DO YOUR OWN THINKING

Many may try to do your thinking for you; when they themselves are an absolute failure. Unless you do think for yourself, you will be a failure in all lines of endeavor. Dwell in the true Christ consciousness, this is the wonderful key to those who are path-finders on evolutions train.

Develope your own great God-given power, He intended you to make use of it. This will bring mental independence and freedom whereby you become a creator and a success both material and spiritually. This is all yours for the taking. The universe is governed by law. You are forever reaping the effect of cause. Learn to reap a golden harvest.

APPLY THE KEY

This will be because you have applied the magic key that unlocks the reservoir to success, happiness, health and wealth. Then on rendering an account of your assets at the final, your conscience will be free and your soul can bear the light of divine inspection, this magic key is only found through attainment and applicable through Christ understanding. All this will be the reward of merit, of a life lived well; through believing in yourself and your own power to create.

WILL POWER

When your will becomes thoroughly developed, it is then one becomes in a comparative degree a master of circumstances, a power in the world, you discover the method by which happiness, prosperity and success are obtained.

The uneducated in the science of psychology are the ones who usually stumble through life unsuccessful; for those who are blind to the immutable laws of God, discover all the stumbling blocks, for they have failed to grasp the basic principles of the laws of life. Therefore are slaves to circumstances, while the former press forward toward a successful goal, discovering inspiration, poise, power and self-confidence.

Cultivate the will, then you discover what you are really made of; for mental culture is gained from the experiences gleaned from the past, although it may have been largely filled with trials. (Which is the karma that all are obliged to work out and from which none ever escapes).

THY THOUGHTS BUILD YOUR FUTURE

"Live that thy thoughts will build for you a promising future, one that will be intermingled with success and happiness along the path of progression, which means a little bit of heaven here, as well as at some future time."

A very grave mistake that the majority of humanity and so-called Christians make is the fact that they become so absorbed in preparing for a future heaven they hope to find, they lose sight entirely of their present capacity for enjoyment, or of making their own home surroundings a heavenly place of present abode.

God wishes all to enjoy themselves and get the most out of life while they are here; so long as it is done in a good wholesome and honorable way. Then all the way to heaven is heaven when lived to enjoy and to help others find the Aladdian lamp.

“This is to discover their own power to conceive and create, to get a firm grip upon self, to compel ultimately the best to come to the front, through a determined will.” And know always that trials and failures are only stepping-stones to greater achievements, and when barriers are burned away, the reflected light of thy soul’s evolution will shine in lucid transparency for thee, accordingly to rates of vibration thy soul’s consciousness, in evolution has made.

Always keep the old maxim before you “If at first you don’t succeed, try, try again” never acknowledge failure, keeping a firm grip upon all adversities and circumstances through developed will.

Through experience, the greatest of teachers, one gradually is taught his lessons. Then one goes forth in the Father’s vineyard, holding the torch of divine truth that proclaims the dawn of a new day. The morning dawns and the golden glow of the Son of Glory shines upon the earth.

From God’s great lighthouse is constantly flashed rays of divine truth. Out of the fog comes the distress signals from the great sea of humanity.

These Rays of truth are yours to give, toss to them their life-saver. There is nothing belongs to yourself alone. You are co-partner with God in every thing. It is His wish, you divide and sub-divide with others.

This Emerson meant when he wrote, “The things I keep are the things I lose. The things I give are the things I hold.”

SIGNIFICANCE OF LIFE

The fatherhood of God is living in loving service, this is the pathway that leads toward the true brotherhood of man.

Permit Thy constant prayer and every inspirational thought to be an aspiration that leads gradually to the great threshold of Divine light—God-ward.

“The greatest study of all mankind is man. Loving service is the fulfillment of the law according to the real work done, the real life lived, to the thoughts evolved. Real service given is the achievement of the Christ consciousness.

The future is before you yet unborn and humanity is daily creating it. It can be molded into happiness and success by thought creation becoming related to the Universal mind which is the great life principle of every atom in existence, all of which is obtained through corrective thought forces.

We are sowing today for a future harvest. It takes time for seeds sown to root and send up their hidden, shoots. All comes in due season, as in due time through hidden desire, accompanied with will power, comes the manifestation of life's manifold achievements.

The true significance of life is hidden, waiting to be brought into full expression by cultivation, thus bringing harmonious and desirable conditions through the laws of growth—into the objective world comes your desired possessions.

Go slow, study, think, the ability to think is ability to act, develop your mentality and gradually the seeds of knowledge will bring into manifestation a rich harvest. “You will say it is not I that doeth the works but the Father that dwelleth in me, he doeth the work.”

“There is a universal law of increase, and when you work in harmony with it, every needed thing is abundantly supplied you. It is not through hard labor that you finally realize permanent prosperity, it is through the creative force of mind and upon spiritual power—its use determines its existence.

AFFIRMATION FOR SUCCESS, HEALTH AND WEALTH

Through awakened soul intuition I AM a self-centered Generator. Through this I AM flows INFINITE HEALING POWER and wisdom.

I now have DOMINION over every state of BODY AND MIND.

Through which I demonstrate SELF MASTERY, POISE AND POWER.

DIVINE LOVE is the key that unlocks the swinging door to MY OWN great consciousness—the source of power the WORLD WITHIN. It adjusts my affairs and solves my every problem, bringing into my life the manifestation of FREEDOM AND SUCCESS through the great LAW OF ATTRACTION.

Why, Oh why, when God's earth is so wide, with so much service needed, so much constructive thought going to waste; that many are as if asleep in prison? "My business is not to remake myself, but make the absolute best of what God made"—Robert Browning.

Avoid thoughts that entangle and snares that bind. Live near God's great light-house. That His inspired wisdom may be yours. Thus knowing the revelations of paradise.

Through added knowledge we gain added power.

The shining summits of the mountains are glorified,
Their foundation is their hidden power.

With every fresh experience, we add to our knowledge.

The hidden power of God within—

Is manifested through DIVINE INSPIRATION.

"What shall it profit a man if he gain the whole world and lose his soul."

Eternal vigilance is the road to victory.
