

THE LAST WORD

By

THOMAS SAWYER SPIVEY

PUBLISHED BY THE AUTHOR

Pool Hill Farm

Shawneetown, Illinois

OTHER PUBLICATIONS BY THE AUTHOR

The Last of the Gnostic Masters

— By —

THOMAS SAWYER SPIVEY

A THRILLING NOVEL—A CHALLENGE TO CHRISTIANITY

Price $2.50

Lavius Egyptus (2 vol.)
Jane and I
Dr. Paul McKim
The Hoosier Widow
The Seven Sons of Ballyhack
The Caverns of Crail
The End of Human Endeavor
Is This a Dying World?
Speculative Anthropology
The Light of the Nation

THE REVELATION (660 pages), Price .....$4.00

Dealing with the Translation of the Bible

THE RESURRECTION (illustrated), Price ..... 2.50

Gnostic Origin of Christianity

VISIBLE EVOLUTION (520 illustrations), Price ..... .50

CHRISTIANITY AND MYTHOLOGY (illustrated), Price..... 1.50

ECCLESIASTICAL VOCABULARY AND CODE, Price ..... 1.50

All Prices Postpaid

Published and Distributed by THOMAS SAWYER SPIVEY

Pool Hill Farm, Shawneetown, Illinois

Copyrighted 1935

Opp
Thomas S. Spivey
4-12-1935

The Bible
Must Be Suppressed
Because of Its Immoral Influences.

The Church
Must Be Eliminated
As the Greatest Burden of Mankind.

Science and Reason
Must Be Reinstated
As Essential to National Integrity.

Honest Government,
By Honest Men,
Must Be Restored
Or Crime and Insanity Will Rule, And This Nation Must Perish.

— By —
THOMAS SAWYER SPIVEY
Pool Hill Farm,
SHAWNEETOWN, ILLINOIS
1935

FOREWORD

This publication requires no preface, explanation or apology.

The evidences set forth in these pages are amply sufficient to meet all criticism by prejudiced minds, and the righteous indignation of those who live, thrive and fatten upon the evils we expose, and inspired credulity.

Crime, poverty and insanity are settled down upon this nation like a cloud of locusts, as the curse of cultivated ignorance, inspired fear and endless inquisitional laws.

Those directly responsible for the degradation and shame of this nation, pose as Gods on earth, Lords and masters of common mankind, while they, and their sycophant followers, sit in luxury and ease, or strut in pomp and splendor.

The end of this great usurpation is near and inevitable.

Starving humanity, impoverished in mind and body, is awakening to the truth, the blasphemous churches must be eradicated, that their treacherous influences upon civil government may be wholly suppressed.

—The Author.

THE CHURCH

Never before in our national history has the church so openly and defiantly posed as being superior to our civil government. Its secret organizations have undermined the foundation of this nation of people as none other.

Never before has a people been so misled and betrayed, as have the people of the United States. The nation is now a patch-quilt, composed of fragments from the peoples of all nations, with no civilizing purpose in common.

Mean advantage has been taken of the mixture and confusion of nations, languages and customs of the conglomerate mass of which the nation is now composed, enabling the church to practically seize control of this government through collusion with evil political powers and our uncensored voting franchise.

If the church produces nothing, pays no taxes and lives off charity, why should its followers be permitted to practically stand as a balance of power in the voting booth?

A new form of ignorance is being cautiously cast over the people, to attract the attention of the people away from the encroachment of both church and state upon the true individual rights and privileges "guaranteed" by our constitution.

The loud blare and trumpetry of so-called athletics and hysterical games, trivial in character, is placing the younger generation in physical condition for the next war.

Many church structures are well-armed fortresses.

The country is dotted with newly constructed army barracks and thousands of young men are there being trained for some emergency.

The universities and colleges of the nation are now quarreling over the question of military training of students. Young men opposed to such an abnormal conception of education are promptly suppressed.

The colleges are one with the usurpative church and they are boldly moulding political parties to their ends and purposes. Every motion of these secretly united powers is a brazen false-pretense, carrying or concealing some ulterior purpose to further humiliate the gaping, unthinking, slaving masses, who have little or no voice in the conduct of our government.

The people are already smothered beneath a blanket of irritating laws, so numerous not even the government can name their limit, while federal, state and municipal mills continue to grind them out by thousands.

It may not be disputed, each new law creates a new class of criminals, making endless offices for political job-hunters, and yields unknown sums in licenses, fines, penalties and taxes.

These laws tease and torment the people, generating hatred for all law instead of respect. The evil results are so palpable they may not be concealed—the constitution is wholly abandoned—the federal government is smothering state rights, as the inspired state legislators smother the people.

Taxation, in every conceivable form, has so impoverished the people, business stability is beyond recovery. A legalized system of graft, in the name of taxation, is throttling the nation, to support endless thousands of political strap-hangers.

Crime is openly commercialized for the tremendous profit it yields.

Poverty is commercialized and made a source of revenue for thousands of so-called charity rackets, by permissible, coercive-suasion and fear, taking from the people unknown millions in addition to abnormal taxes. These forces hide behind the skirts of the church and are not challenged or investigated by the law. The church is immune against legal intrusion.

The churches openly demand they be supported by the nation, even to the point of attempting to inspire laws for the support of their schools.

Chicago and New York are examples of church-ridden cities and they are classed among the most criminal cities in the world.

The awful cost of maintaining this senseless burden is independent of ordinary taxation, with not one item of evidence to prove benefit, moral or physical. The taxless churches have impoverished this nation.

The increase in crime and poverty is not disputed. Why carry this senseless church burden if it accomplishes nothing beneficial to the people?

Even crime is utilized for political purposes during political campaigns. It fell under our observation that during the campaign of 1934 more than three hundred prisoners were released from the prisons in southern Illinois to go home and vote by the side of decent, self-respecting men.

This is identical with the contemptible, brutish proposition that every man, woman and child in the United States be branded as potential criminals, along with real criminals by universal finger-printing.

The whole purpose of the Catholic scheme is to overawe the masses with the pomp and splendor of its usurpative power, and to compel the government to acknowledge and proclaim the church superiority.

The Vatican at Rome maintains twenty-three Jesuit colleges for the training of special priests for secret work in all the countries.

Up to 1917 there had been 260 "gods on earth," called popes—each pope is named "god on earth." This proves conclusively that men are posing as gods, and that gods must die.

Necessarily they must all go to their own hell, for in their own secret code, hell means the grave.

Our indifferent voting franchise is handing over to the Catholic church the controlling voting power of this nation and this means civil control of the people. This is made possible by connivance with evil political influences, easily purchased by bloc voting.

We shall reveal, beyond all possibility of refutation, that the church is founded upon evil and lives upon commercialized poverty. It has deliberately destroyed the natural trend and purposes of civilization for mean selfish ends, and has appropriated to itself practically all the wisdom, science and benefits of the world's meritorious institutions.

It should bring a blush of shame to the face of every decent, self-respecting citizen that the association of the church and political bodies are brazenly open, regardless of the respect due our constitution.

Pious false-hood and fraud, for the promotion of the church, are not regarded as sinful. This was secretly taught by the so-called "church-fathers," the founders of church law, and promoters of church mysteries, which are concealed even from the congregation.

The popes of Rome, through the centuries, have posed as gods upon earth, to cover cowardly kings and awe the ignorant masses, hence their constant secret connivance with dishonest political powers to seize and maintain control of governments.

The political power and secret influence of the church is always concealed behind the most influential party, as its connivance in wars was always covered by its association with the stronger side when nations were at war.

It is our purpose to reveal the truth that so-called christianity is a gross false-pretense, to conceal an undercover organization, which, from its origin, sought to confiscate from all other forms of religion and education their essential merits by plagiarization, to claim them as being of its alleged universal origin.

This is truly a revelation which must, of necessity, remove all pretense of religion from this organization which has made of human governments on this earth a farce, and a false-pretense, to cover and conceal commercialized evil.

The evil elements must be rudely suppressed, and mankind must be enlightened regarding the promotion of a true and national civilization, based upon natural philosophy and reason. Human gods and strutting lords must be eliminated. The glorification of human christs by elevation to high office, must cease; class distinction must be wholly destroyed from our educational system. Equal opportunity must be made a basic law to rule the promotion of the people.

Equal participation in education and enlightenment, alone, may lift humanity out of the degradation into which it has been cast by cruel, heartless, senseless brutes, not yet raised to the level of logic and reason, but who live only to promote a false and frivolous self-glorification.

The classing of the greater producing masses as cattle and sheep, and capital of the non-producers, must be given the iron-fist, with no uncertain purpose.

Vanity, conceit and big-I-amism, must be slapped out of the faces of those who are placed in public office, as public servants of the people, to honestly administer the affairs of the nation.

Favoritism must be wholly suppressed.

THE SUPPRESSION OF TRADITIONAL GNOSTICISM AND THE CONFISCATION OF ITS WISDOM BY ECCLESIASTICISM

And now, we shall prove, beyond all doubt, that so-called christianity did suppress and confiscate gnosticism and conceal its wisdom in code, symbolism, imitation, and personification, and wilfully leads mankind away from the natural truth, in its attitude toward evolution, because natural evolution betrays it.

In its every motion, creative nature records a progressive evolution in its visible works.

Evolution is the basic purpose of revealed physical nature.

True gnosticism is based upon the traditional enlightenment, education, knowledge, science and wisdom, brought down through the generations, hence the name gnosis means to know.

That knowledge was always true to nature.

In its every motion creative nature records a progressive evolution in its visible works. Evolution is the basic revelation of physical processes.

The progressive steps in a well-defined physical and mental evolution of living creatures upon this earth are recorded in a consecutive set of waves which may well be named the primary creative waves.

The gnostics adopted the serpent, in its four motive attitudes, as the only living creature which can record, in a single series of motion waves, the four basic creative motions of nature.

These creative waves are active and reactive, positive and negative, and they reveal themselves in a single creative act, and manifest in living material and physical bodies, by visible waves or equivalent masses or consistency.

No living, physical being can come into existence without following this set of waves, and manifesting them in consecutive order, in their visible aspect.

Ecclesiasticism wholly suppressed this truly wonderful gnostic wisdom, and has antagonized the theory of evolution which reveals it.

GNOSTIC CREATIVE PROCESSES OF NATURE, CREATIVE WAVES

Positive Waves

Molecule

Negative Waves

Electron Nitrogen Oxygen Carbon Hydrogen Carbon Oxygen Nitrogen Atom

All material, physical nature is a reflection of this system. These waves reflect the signature of creative nature. They represent every motion that can be made in the creation and revelation of visible material things. They manifest in waves, masses and consistency.

The positive motion forms a path from the universal pabulum to the molecular spiral, which is the primary living molecule, the first embodiment of life, resulting from the exhaustion of the first positive motion.

The negative waves are backed out of the spiral to form material, physical and organic bodies, giving visibility to the creative process, revealing the potential, never-dying, life-spark in every form and attitude.

Each wave manifests its own natural and specific functions.

The creative process is always a forward motion. The creative waves cannot regurgitate back through each other.

The Positive Waves

Electron.	Nitrogen.	Oxygen.	Carbon.	Hydrogen.
Potentiality.	Vibratory.	Gaseous.	Solid.	Fluid.
Stability.	Cold.	Warm.	Dry.	Moist.

These are the natural primary creative states and attitudes.

In this consecutive procession, evolution leaves its indelible foot-prints.

It is at once recognized that this is the spiritual attitude of four primary forces, which culminate in the revelation of these same forces in material forms, hence, we may know that this revelation is a premeditated act, therefore it must have a primary mentation back of it.

This is the universal mentation. It is not an individuality, but is a permanent and unchanging source of creative forces, which, when released, may not directly return to their original source, as demonstrated by non-regurgitation, in one universal act.

The primary basic elements are four, as we have illustrated as the positive waves, terminating in the spiral, as the first spark of life clothed in a material body, the molecule, hence the first grain of matter is born with this act.

We quickly recognize this as the birth of the male and female principles in one body and from this body will spring all subsequent creations.

It is in the separation of these two principles that we find the birth of the negative set of waves.

It is at once seen that each of these elements receives as its nourishment the excrement of the preceding body and we shall later find this to be an amazing truth.

The original electron was the primary unit of universal substance residing in absolute vacuum. It represents universal potentiality.

Potential in the electron are the four basic creative forces, nitrogen, oxygen, carbon and hydrogen, having attractive and repulsive instincts.

This is one original force, one energy, passing through four attitudes to create the first atom of embodied consciousness, the first material molecule of matter.

Carbon represents exhaustion and becomes the material body of the hydrogen spiral, the first embodiment of life. The living spark never dies.

The first great act of universal creation is to send forth the vast spiral body, the sun.

This represents the casting off of the body which becomes the earth and its waters. We at once recognize the hydrogen spiral in water, and the carbon in the earth, the oxygen in the atmosphere and the nitrogen in our moon cast off the side of this planet.

This brings us down to earth for our future studies. Life is no longer a universal mystery.

Between the axial motion of our planet and its orbital motion about the sun, we have a full revelation of the whole universal scheme.

Symbolism becomes the language of this process.

The Dual Earth

The Sun, axial motion

The Moon, orbital motion

This now becomes a creative trinity for the development of physical material beings upon this earth. The sun and the moon are agents of planetary and universal contact.

The spiral and the ring are opposing elements, hence our mechanical atmosphere.

No creative act or process can be executed without following the system of primary creative waves. Nature has provided against regurgitation of life through these waves. Therefore we may expect to find this system revealed in the created living things upon this earth—a substantial evolution.

It is a self-evident truth that we absorb our life from the atmosphere which surrounds the earth. Axial motion distributes this atmospheric life, which is oxygen, and planetary.

Orbital motion gathers into this atmosphere the nitrogen, which constitutes four-fifths of our atmosphere and is of a universal character.

We receive our oxygen from the sun principle and our nitrogen from the moon principle, in this planetary system.

Nitrogen is not life, but is essential in mentation in living bodies.

The process is extremely simple. This earth receives in its atmosphere oxygen from the sun directly, and from the moon indirectly it receives nitrogen.

Thus, the sun, a burning vortex, drawing its sustenance from the universal pabulum, sends oxygen into our atmosphere, which cannot directly unite with the earth, because of carbon and hydrogen having concealed their points of contact in forming the original spiral.

Oxygen coils into a spiral, retaining its potential atom of hydrogen, making it the equivalent of ammonia— $\text{OH} = 17$  which later forms contact with the earthy hydrogen to form water— $\text{H}_2\text{O} = 18$ , hence the vast bodies of water associated with the land.

The moon is a cold, inactive body, therefore naturally reflective. It reflects the nitrogen wave into the earth's atmosphere, and, like the oxygen, it can form no direct contact with the earth, hence it coils into the orbital ring as a potential atmospheric element to be later absorbed by the living products of the earth.

It is only by reaction, therefore, that this earth receives the potential universal contact.

These two elements forming our mechanical atmosphere inspire both the axial and the orbital motion of this planet. It is the nitrogen ring by which we form a direct contact with the universal mentation. Nitrogen is always an agent of mentation. It is especially absorbed by our senses of seeing and hearing, as shown in our illustration of man as a reproduction of the universal scheme. It is by respiration we receive the same elements into our physical system, proving conclusively, that these atmospheric elements sustain life in physical bodies, for when we cease breathing our physical body dies.

The earth is merely suspended in a state of mechanical balance in its atmosphere as is proven by the atmosphere being identical on land and sea.

Vegetation precedes animal life upon this planet as a sustaining food for the physical, organic development, therefore, vegetation, although living matter, is an excrement of the planet, and an essential link in evolution.

The excrements of every living system are of two kinds, one a living, reproductive fruit and the other a lifeless eliminant, having surrendered its life in the evolution of living bodies.

The living excrement of every system becomes the sustaining nourishment of subsequent living creations, whereas, the dead excrements pass back to the earth to be renewed

An examination of the "Tree of Good and Evil" reveals its negative nature.

The heads of the serpents representing the limbs are all pointed toward and are attached to the body or trunk of the tree, which symbolizes the land, showing that the limbs receive their material nourishment from the earth direct, and this means carbon and hydrogen.

The leaves of the tree, symbolizing the respiratory atmosphere, inhale nitrogen and oxygen from the atmosphere, and receive carbon and hydrogen from the circulation of the tree from the limbs.

The fruit of the tree is attached directly to the limbs.

It is a self-evident fact that nitrogen is not directly involved in the production of this fruit.

We are now going to reveal a marvelous thing in nature, and at the same time, we shall vindicate Lavoisier and convict Ecclesiasticism of premeditated, cold-blooded murder.

The leaves of the tree surrender the oxygen they absorb from the atmosphere to the limbs, which represent the oxygen wave.

The law forbidding regurgitation prevents the absorption of the nitrogen.

It is a scientific truth that nitrogen is the most potent decomposer of dead matter, and wherever possible it separates life and matter.

The leaves yield up oxygen, life, then die and fall to the earth to be devoured by nitrogen.

Therefore, Lavoisier was right when he named nitrogen Azote, meaning "no life." Nitrogen is the element which the church chose as its god.

This awful revelation had to be suppressed or the church would be disgraced for teaching the worship of a lifeless god, therefore they promptly cut off the head of Lavoisier.

There is a final revelation which further vindicates this gnostic wisdom. The fruit of this tree, the apple, symbolizing the respiratory animals, in its essential acid, named malic acid,  $C_4H_6O_5$ , contains no nitrogen. This is also true of pears and many other fruits.

We at once realize that the respiratory animal life is the next step in a well-defined natural evolution of embodied life upon this planet, with man as the most advanced creature of the organic and physical progression.

Only superior mentation marks the man as superior to the lower animal kinds.

Physically, man is inferior to many of the lower animal kinds. Therefore, to declare him as a special dispensation in nature, as a whole, is pure bunk, to eliminate natural evolution of physical life upon this planet.

Evolution is the basic principle in the promotion of universal, planetary and earthy systems.

In the same verse mentioning the birth of Enos—mortal man—it is said that this was the beginning of men to call upon the name of the Lord. Analyzed by the secret ecclesiastic code, this becomes of vital interest.

En means to make.

Os means many openings to god.

Hence, mouths of the people calling upon the Lord, meaning the Loafwarden, bread giver.

The god is to be acknowledged as the source of all nourishment by the prayers of the hungry.

The same thing applies also to the name Abel.

Ab means the high-priest.

El means the first-cause. Abel means the breath.

Therefore god and the priesthood reside in the atmosphere. We at once recognize the first cause as Nitrogen, God and the priest as oxygen, the Christ, hence the people cannot come in direct contact with God.

Thus this usurpative thing, called the church, assumes to be in control of even the breath we breathe.

The Seth man is the special dispensation, therefore it was essential for God to form a man out of the dust of the ground to raise up the common, producing mankind.

"The Lord God formed man of the dust of the ground and breathed into his nostrils the breath of life and man became a living soul." (Gen. 2:7.)

"The soul is the life of man" (Ps. 33:19).

Therefore, the soul in man is a transient thing.

It is a self-evident fact that the breath we breathe is our life, because when we cease breathing we die. Moreover, no external power is responsible for inhalation. Our organic breathing is an internal process. Therefore the pushing of the air into human nostrils by an external being was a crude joke.

We should dwell upon this creative period because it is the constructive period of the church and its usurpative forces.

Naturally, man, who supports the church, had to be created and organized before the church could be introduced. This, doubtless, is the Seth man, evolving out of the earthy trend.

God does not manifest on earth in physical form, but sends his Adamic man as his representative, and as the Ecclesiasts try in vain to create a special dispensation to pose as a master-man, and the priesthood, Nature emphatically repudiates this blasphemous intrusion by usurpative elements, by making it clear that all men born under normal conditions, are born equal, and are led into good or evil ways afterwards, by good or evil influences.

The Biblical theme attempts to create a nitrogen and oxygen man and a carbon man associated with hydrogen, woman—the church.

This creation of man is a revelation. The first man was created by God, "in his own image."

This was the Earth and the Sea.

This was the productive man.

Earth means the producer.

Life begins in the waters.

The second man was formed from the dust of the ground.

This was the earthy products of low estate, the vegetation, as evidenced by the word Lord, meaning Loafwarden, the distributor of food.

The third man was begotten by Seth.

This was Enos, meaning mortal man, evolved out of the lower animals and subject to temptation and fall.

En means many. Os means openings, mouths, to call upon the Lord, Loafwarden, for food.

God supplies the spiritual nourishment, indirectly, and the Lord God supplies the material nourishment directly.

The analysis of the physical man reveals the truth beyond dispute. He is the living image and likeness of the universal creative system.

MAN THE TRUE REVELATION

The Image and Likeness of the Planetary System

THE ORGANIC MAN

The head is the censor—everything passing into the body is first passed to the head.

The heart is the distributor of life.

The stomach is the selector and digester of material foods.

The pelvic organs are the eliminators.

This revelation reveals the impossibility of an individual God, such as is described by the church, hence the Pope of Rome, posing as God on Earth, is a base impostor, for an analysis proves him to be a normal human being, attempting to usurp powers which belong to all men alike.

The church theme is:

The nitrogen man is God—the pope.

The oxygen man is Christ—the priesthood.

The carbon man is Jesus—the producer.

The hydrogen woman is the church.

The electron is the invisible source of all power, hence we find the pope concealed in the vatican.

Their own secret code exposes this false-pretense. Christianity is concealed sun-worship, the sun being worshipped as the Lord God.

“For the Lord God is a sun and shield” (Ps. 84:11).

Christ is from Chur, meaning guardian of the sun.

Jesus is Je, ever-existent. Sus means sustainer, supporter.

The church is always female, Mer, Mary, the sea.

Church, also is Chur, guardian of the sun.

Jesus is Joshua, brought over into the new testament, this being the Greek form.

Joshua is Jo, meaning increased, and Shua meaning wealth, the savior of the Jews. This increased wealth was made possible by giving to the Jews, Canaan, meaning merchandising and trading.

To this day the Jews are wholly occupied in the same calling.

Jesus symbolizes the body of producing mankind, laboring to support the church, and maintain the priesthood in ease and luxury.

It is this body of greater humanity that is sacrificed, therefore Christ and Jesus cannot be one and the same. Christ means authority.

Later we shall reveal that Jesus is the outer, physical man and Christ is the inner, organic man.

Now, you poor simps, who coddle and pet your fat-jowled, pig-bellied priests, do you realize that your promised heavenly home merely means that you will be made a permanent member of the church militant mob, to continue to labor for the support of the priesthood?

Now, examine our illustration of the physical man, representing a reflection of the universal, creative scheme and ask your priest if this is not the "image" mentioned in Genesis. Then ask him to point out one single evidence which will prove his superiority over you, and all other men, that is not given him by the sweat and labor of those who produce—this is truly the sacrifice of the muscular Jesus, hanging upon the bony cross from "calvary," the base of the skull. This is the meaning of calvary in their own secret code.

What a pitiful thing is the ignorant man, who looks up to his priest as a superior being. They both must die and both must go to hell, for hell in their secret code means the grave.

THE REVELATION

We shall now go deeper into the mysteries of Nature to reveal man as the true revelation—every man. All men are born equal.

No greater curse ever fell upon this earth than the introduction of the fabulous false-pretense, named the Christian religion, because it deliberately and wilfully swindled the greater humanity out of its natural inheritance and classified it as cattle, meaning capital.

In the Bible this is revealed in the story of Jacob and Esau—the church and producing mankind.

Jacob means usurpation by deceit and falsehood.

Esau means earthy—producing mankind.

Esau, the earthy producer, inherits the sunlight and the atmospheric conditions which cause the earth to produce food for man and beast.

Jacob, by lies, steals from Esau his inheritance. Jacob's

mother, who aids him in this crime, is named Rebekah, meaning snare, trickery.

This has especial reference to the stealing of the Gnostic wisdom from the people by the Ecclesiastic priesthood. It required five hundred years for the church to suppress Gnosticism.

THE PLANETARY SYSTEM—POSITIVE

Each element in the universal creative system has its specific functions, and is a symbol of a principle in a positive process, seeking to reveal itself in a preconceived and perfected creation—the true revelation. To attempt to defeat the object of a single essential element means to stunt or defeat the whole process.

This illustration will especially deal with our planetary system.

Our moon  reflects from its surface nitrogen rings which it cannot absorb, and this form of nitrogen constitutes four-fifths of the atmosphere of the earth.

This element in our atmosphere is the interplanetary mental contact and the source or exchange of planetary wisdom essential to understanding, therefore the element nitrogen, also unites our atmosphere with universal contact.

There are twenty moons directly involved in our planetary exchange system and this may well be named our interplanetary television and telephonic system.

These moons receive and reflect from and to each other, the forces which give intelligence to the planets, in proportion to their advancement in the creative processes and their positions in relation to each other and the whole system.

This intelligent wisdom is reflected into the planetary atmospheres, hence we may know, by the creative waves, the state or condition of planets by the number of moons each has.

Mercury—no moon.

Venus—a partially developed moon, later to be cast off her side.

Earth—one moon.

Mars—two moons.

Jupiter—five moons.

Saturn—eight moons.

Uranus—four moons.

Therefore, twenty moons constitute this interplanetary telegraphic exchange.

This will reveal a marvelous similitude in our perfected man.

This system may be recognized in the human body as the brain and the spinal nervous system, as the receiver of this universal intelligence, and the sympathetic nervous system as the distributor—a dual process.

Nitrogen, therefore, is the creative principle involved and always guarding against being permanently confined in matter.

The sun radiates heat and light only to the planets of its own system, in the form of oxygen, which cannot directly form a contact with the planet, but eliminates the carbon and coils into the atmospheric spiral, which may well be named the seed of the sun, giving light and life to this planet.

This, in the human image, is symbolized by the heart and dual circulation of the blood, which carries the life principle into the lymphatic system for distribution to the whole body.

Lymph means water, therefore we may understand why living matter upon this planet begins in the waters.

This especially has reference to the organic system which is the normal course of the spirit.

Respiration is the mechanical source of the supporting elements, with the lungs associated with the heart.

The third essential organic center is the abdomen, with its digestive organs, symbolizing carbon and hydrogen—a dual receptive body. A reflection of the dual earth and sea, dependent upon the sun for its physical support, and upon the moon for mental support.

This dual male and female body reproduces in material, physical, organic bodies, our living systems which becomes the true revelation of the universal creative scheme—embodied vegetable and animal life.

The true revelation is perfected man, male and female.

The dual male and female principles are inseparable in living creative nature.

Simultaneously the land and the sea bring forth their living products—vegetation on the land and living animal life in the sea to come forth and people the land.

The visible living animals upon the land creep out of the waters and attempt to rise into the atmosphere, intimating a desire for universal contact. Each element has a distinctive mark for its own. Sea scales. Earth hair. Air feathers.

The greater physical and mental evolution is manifested in the animal life upon the land.

All nature feeds upon and is nourished by the excrements and fruits of the preceding system which produces it, as the mother suckles her young.

Animal life feeds upon vegetation.

The earth preceded vegetation, hence it brings forth nourishment and reproduces the tree.

The dual nature of the earth produces a reciprocity which is truly a material respiration: the tree returning to the earth, its leaves to fertilize the soil, and its living fruits, containing the seeds of reproduction, to promote the evolution.

The following example will reveal the promotion of animal evolution in no uncertain manner.

Man is the highest type of animal production.

The Biblical story in Genesis, which tells of the “tree of life, the “tree of good and evil” and the temptation and fall of Adam and Eve, is made to look like a bed-time story, under the light of Gnostic philosophy. It is all such a palpable confiscation, it necessarily puts the stamps of false-pretense and plagiarization upon the whole Bible.

Let us study the Gnostic revelation and see to what extent the church has wilfully plagiarized from this natural and logical system, covering the traditional enlightenment by nature of centuries before the Ecclesiastic usurpation was dreamed of.

The Gnostic system does not attempt to conceal wisdom as a mystery, as does the church. Full revelation is its sole intent and purpose. On the contrary, it is absolutely essential for the church to smother in ignorance the greater masses of people, else it would be exposed as a contemptible upstart, and imitator, with only evil purposes.

The church condemns itself by concealing its true character in a secret code, which attempts to personify Nature, and the natural traditional Gnostic science and philosophy, that it may commercialize all education.

The Gnostic man rises up like a ghost and points his accusing finger at the usurpative church.

As we previously said, there are twenty active moons censoring the mentation of this planetary system, this planet having a single moon, hence we find each vital organ with a protecting moon attached to it—the fore brain, the lungs, the liver and the kidneys. In this system the planet Mars is reflected by the kidneys and curious to observe, the kidneys come nearest to being separated as two moons. Mars has two moons.

But, as we previously promised, the truly great manifestation of universal contact by virtue of the moon principle, is found in the arms, hands, legs and feet of man.

These are the go-getters for our body.

The legs and feet carry us to our food, and our hands reach forth and grasp it and carry it to the head to be censored before it is assimilated into our being.

There are attached to the fingers and toes twenty well-defined crescent moons, and like unto the moons of the planets, although they are a part of the bones which represent the earth, yet they are not materially attached to the bones.

This is clearly a material and physical symbolism of the functions of the moons in this planetary system.

These moons cannot absorb the universal waves, therefore they reflect them to their planetary atmospheres and to each other, thus creating an inter-planetary mentation and agreement and forming a universal contact.

The seemingly most trivial aspects of the organs and their parts, must not be treated lightly, for each has its own revealing powers.

The external facial sense organs especially emphasize this.

The eye is globular,  revealing an electronic or direct universal contact by vision.

This reveals the eye as the absorber of the original source of all the subsequent waves entering into our own intricate organization, there to be digested and distributed to the nervous system.

The electron is the primary unit out of which all the creative waves are projected, therefore the eye supplies the brain with undigested electrons to give birth to the waves of mentation, proving the brain to be the seat of mentation and thought.

The first form assumed by these absorbed electrons is globular. Out of these are reflected the waves which create the pictures of vision, therefore the eye is but a photographic instrument to absorb the materials to be later developed into mental reflections to be interpreted by thought and reason, and revealed as material facts in our own material bodies.

This gives us positive evidence that the material pictures of physical things about us are the real living parts of the universal body, appealing to us through all of our sense organs for recognition. Physically they are no part of us, until we have absorbed and digested their fruits as mental nourishment.

The human ear, even in a more specific manner, reflects an absolute mental contact with the universal creative thought.

Following the electron or rather, cast out of the electron, is the first creative motion, the wave of nitrogen. This vibratory wave carries potentially within it, for future revelation, the gaseous wave of oxygen,  the straight or exhausted wave of carbon  and the spiral of hydrogen.  This spiral is the first molecule of living matter.

We have a remarkable revelation in the sense of hearing.

As the eye converts electronic elements into visible, understandable pictures, the ear converts the vibratory waves into understandable sounds, out of which mentation coins words.

Each of these senses leaves a signature which may not be misunderstood.

The globular electron reveals that it is an absorbed element, whereas the nitrogen wave of sound is a projected element which must unfold until the force involved in the projective power is exhausted and its revealed, material result must be at the end of the wave series, because these creative waves cannot regurgitate back through each other. This is the positive set of waves, terminating in the spiral, symbolizing the waters or sea.

What do we find associated with the ear, the organ of the sense of hearing?

First the outer ear, resembling the cup-like shells of certain products of the sea—oyster, clam.

Second, within the ear structure is the spiral cochlea, resembling the spiral shells of sea-life.

While light, in a high degree, does interpret sound, it is not always essential to understanding.

The organ of the sense of smell is more essential as the agent of respiration, having two openings, revealing the of smell to be dependent upon the gaseous atmosphere, nitrogen and oxygen, as the carriers.

The sense of smell, as also the sense of taste, with the mouth as the facial organ, is mechanical.

All these senses and their organs are the censors of the elements which nourish the organic man, who by mechanical processes, constructs the outer physical human body, making of this gross body the servant and go-getter for the thinking being, everything contributing to the nourishing and maintenance of the body, being first censored by the head, then passed to well defined centers for proper assimilation.

The brain is the seat of mentation, with the spinal nerves, and the sympathetic nerves as distributing agents.

The heart is the seat of physical life with its circulatory system as its distributing agent. The stomach is the seat of digestion and preparation of nourishing and constructive elements for the physical body, with the lymphatics as its distributing agent.

The pelvic organs are agents of elimination.

And we vision all coming out of the unlimited universal pabulum with the electron as the living unit of the universe.

We may well be shocked to realize that the four essential departments of our body also are images of our planetary system, with the inner, or organic man even carrying this resemblance to the universal system.

Later we shall show that the so-called Christian system attempted to confiscate this natural Gnostic revelation.

The Bible is prolific in Gnostic plagiarisms in a vulgar attempt to imitate Nature.

THE CREATIVE RESEMBLANCE

Electron	Nitrogen	Oxygen	Carbon	Hydrogen
	Vibratory	Gaseous	Solid	Fluid
	Head	Thorax	Abdomen	Pelvis
	Brain	Heart	Stomach	Bladder
	Nerves	Blood	Matter	Lymph
	Flesh	Muscle	Bone	Marrow
	Moon	Sun	Earth	Sea

This cannot possibly be a mere coincidence. Every system in nature adjusts itself to this formula.

The act of walking is a revelation.

The following is probably the origin of the caduceus of Greek mythology:

The up-and-down motion executes the nitrogen wave,
The forward motion, making the foot-prints, is the oxygen wave,

The straight line, marking the distance, the carbon wave,
The spiral the turning point or termination.

The outer man—the physical body, is of necessity, the greater visible revelation, but is secondary to the organic man, who constructs and maintains him.

Nevertheless, the physical man is an essential servant of the organic man. The latter could not exist without this service.

This suggests a Biblical similitude.

“Japheth shall dwell in the tent of Shem, and Ham shall be their servant.” (Gen. 9-27).

Noah	Shem	Japheth	Ham
Brain	Flesh	Muscle	Bones

The tent of Shem is the skin.

Ham is the skeleton, the bones, hence Ham carries all the burdens of the physical body.

The skeleton assumes many important functions, assuming suggestive forms corresponding with these functions.

The rounded skull protects the electronic brain.

The spinal column protects the nitrogenous spinal cord.

The curved ribs protect the thoracic, oxygenic organs.

The large bones protect the hydrogenous marrow.

A special school should be established for the education of all humanity in a revelation of the purpose of his creation.

It is the most simple and appealing contact with true wisdom to be found.

A full revelation of the truth would bring all men to a realization that, it is an essential part of the great creative scheme that they perfect themselves as Nature intended they should be, and stand as perfect units of the whole.

We are not exceeding our rights of free-speech, when we declare as our opinion, from long study of the problem, that greater humanity has been deliberately led into a wilderness of beastly ignorance and confusion, to blind it to the true purposes of life, by a mean, designing, contemptible, selfish force, in order to swindle it as Jacob robbed his brother Esau of joy, prosperity, intelligence, and understanding, for its own glorification and luxurious support.

Jacob's reward was, he became Israel.

In the code, today, Israel means the Church of Christ, and Esau means the producing humanity supporting the church.

TO KNOW MAN IS TO KNOW ALL

There are four distinct personalities in the ensemble of the perfected human being, which must be recognized as individual, because of the definite functions assigned to each in the construction and maintenance of the whole body.

But, in their co-operative duties they blend into the composite man, in such strict relations to a controlling mentation, every thought and action of the whole being is a culminating fruit of a preconceived impulse, arising in a controlling center.

If any one of these well-defined personalities fails to function in unison with the whole system, they all fail, and the system dies.

Each resides in its own physical structure and receives its impulse from its own organic center which gives it its aspect of individuality, but back of this impulse is a potentiality which binds them all together as one composite being.

We may quickly recognize the physical body as the visible culmination of the series of creative waves revealed by the gnostic philosophy.

The four departments of this body have been previously described as seats of inspiration, execution, and control, in the acquirement of mental and physical nourishment, and their dispensation, giving to these sense centres an aspect of individual personality.

THE FOUR PERSONALITIES

The Flesh Man, with the brain as his executive head, and the head as his protecting walls. Here the brain sits as the supreme ruler of all. It broadcasts its powers through a well-defined nervous system which reaches every tissue of the human body, in their minutest detail. The spinal nerves, and the sympathetic nerves, are the carriers of mentation, therefore they represent the nitrogenous wave, coming out of the electronic brain,

The Muscular Man, with the heart as his executive head, and the thorax as his seat of power. Here he sits as the director of the distribution of the breath of life. An equally elaborate system of circulation, the arteries and veins, reaching every living tissue, holding them under control for physical activities. Its intricate system of circulation of the blood, represents the oxygen wave,

It is at once seen that the master-power, with his electronic seat in the head and brain, has projected these two waves to perform the most vital and essential functions in the human body, therefore they are constructive agents.

The Bone Man, the skeleton, the servant to both the Flesh Man, and the Muscle Man, carrying all the burdens of the whole physical and organic structure, taking direct orders from the Muscle Man. The bones represent the carbon wave,  symbolizing a state of exhaustion.

The stomach especially deals with the solids and fluids, therefore the Bone Man is the earthy, abdominal agent. The motion of digestion in the stomach is spiral, therefore the abdomen and its organs symbolize the land and the sea; this reveals the hydrogen spiral at the end of the process,

The Lymphatic Woman, with the pelvis as her seat, is the female principle in nature, giving birth to the prepared living elements for the maintenance of the physical tissues.

Lymph means water, therefore this properly symbolizes the Hydrogen spiral which is the true first living molecule of matter.

The marrow is involved in this, but its participation is wholly concealed. It becomes the reconstructive food for mentation, hence it represents the completion of the creative cycle,  and symbolizes orbital motion.

Naturally, the seat of the female principle is the pelvis, and the active functions are excrementitious—the excretion of both dead matter and reproductive matter.

Now we may vision the wonderful symbolism of creative nature as revealed by this composite man.

A true “image and likeness.”

It is observable that the three essential elements — the electron, the molecule, and the corpuscle, which traverse the whole system do not directly attach themselves to the trinity of constructive tissues, due to the fact they are in a state of constant change.

The electron contains all of the positive waves.

The corpuscle contains, by absorption, all of the negative waves.

The molecule is a state of balance between the positive and negative.

We may now vision the secret, inner processes of all nature:

The electron is the unit of mentation in the brain.

The molecule is the unit of living tissues in stomach.

The corpuscle is the unit of life in the heart.

We have here living symbols of vital planetary attitudes.

The reflective moon principle.

The axial motion of our planet.

The orbital motion of our planet.

This reveals the basic sources of all the basic creative principles in nature.

We previously said, the spiral, originally, was a motion of the sun, before the completion of the planetary body about it, but now the sun, in its relations to these bodies, is in a fixed state, and the planets revolve about the sun in fixed orbits.

The moons, in their orbital motions about the planets, symbolize orbital motion, hence the moon is a perfected body of its system, therefore is a unit of planetary mentation, corroborating our former deductions regarding the moon principle as a reflecting force.

As perfected mankind assumes an independent tendency to wander at will upon the earth's surface, doubtless, untold numbers of planetary systems, in like manner wander through the limitless universal space.

The stars which we see in the heavens are the suns of similar systems.

As the heart of man is limited in its functions in the body of which it is the living centre, so are the suns limited in their powers to the planetary systems of which they are the pulsating hearts sending forth life.

As men upon our planet associate themselves together, to exchange wisdom, and absorb, one from another, the benefits of the living state, doubtless, planetary systems, in like manner, make similar exchanges, as we recognize the exchanges between our own planets, through the reflective powers of their moons, as representing the symbol of electronic mentation, which is the universal mentation.

As we recognize the nitrogen ring, and the oxygen spiral, as symbols of the moon and sun in our atmosphere, we may know, beyond doubt, the source of our mentation and life.

These are universal forces, therefore, it is most essential that the atmosphere which we breathe should be pure and unadulterated, and the material nourishment to sustain our physical bodies equally so.

A single verse in the Bible reveals the pilfering plagiarism of this gnostic wisdom.

Noah	Shem	Japheth	Ham	Canaan
Brain	Flesh	Muscle	Bone

“God shall enlarge Japheth and he shall dwell in the tents of Shem; and Canaan (Ham) shall be his servant.” (Gen. 9:27.)

Noah means the place or seat of God, the brain. Shem means the flesh. The tent of Shem is the skin. Japheth means the muscles. Ham means the bones, the servant, carrying all the burdens of the body. Canaan, the offspring of this servitude, means merchandising and trading—mental and physical exchanges.

THE CONFISCATION AND SUPPRESSION OF THE GNOSTIC WISDOM

Our brief revelation of the traditional gnostic wisdom now becomes a witness against the most vicious usurpation of the natural rights of humanity recorded in history.

Through all ages mankind had sought to pay tribute to the great power in universal nature, which had chosen to select him as the highest product of this earth, giving to him power to think and reason above all other animal kinds. His gratitude was based upon the truth, that he, of all living creatures, could recognize a logical purpose in his creation; he was the visible “image and likeness” of his invisible creator, and he had access to the concealed mysteries of the inner man—the living contact. Hence, practically all religions have worshiped invisible nature as a God.

Over endless centuries, tradition substantially recorded the enlightenment of mankind to the truth, they were the revealed images of the mysterious power which had created them. It was not an individuality until the revelation of the unit man. All fully developed men are equal until deprived of their normal, natural rights.

Gnosticism, meaning to know, was the first and only true religion of those in whom the truth and understanding were awakened, and the earnest search after enlightenment was an inspiration, until a usurpative Ecclesia intruded upon the world a fake religion, based upon the gnostic system, disguised by symbols, figures and personifications, in order to steal and commercialize the true gnostic wisdom, philosophy and science.

The christian religion is a rank imposter, seeking to destroy the rights of all men to acquire enlightenment, that it might erect an imperialistic authority over the world. This is fully exposed by its own secret code.

It required five hundred years for the ecclesiastic plotters against nature and mankind to confiscate and absorb gnosticism as its own, and to degrade the greater humanity in a thousand years of abject ignorance (486 to 1495).

This is authentic history which not even the church disputes.

This horrible condition was maintained by murderous popes, inspired, so-called crusades, in which unknown millions of innocent men, women and children were sacrificed to clean-cut church fraud and false pretense.

And the horrible so-named inquisition, also inspired by the catholics, which murdered, maimed, mutilated and burned, it is estimated, fifty million innocent people.

No wars ever waged by armies could approach these church crimes in cruelty.

The vile human skunks insulted nature, by assuming that she did not know how to perfect her own creations designed to reflect her purposes.

Now, the day of vengeance shall arise, and the resurrected gnostic wisdom shall smite these thieving usurpers with blindness, and expose to the world their plagiarizations from all previous forms of religion.

Their fake Jesus will rise up and laugh them to scorn.

Their appointed Christs shall be kicked from office, and decent, honest men will take bewildered humanity by the hand and lead it out of the wilderness.

Before we close this story of confiscation, we feel it our duty to expose some of its trickery. We have said that the nitrogen wave symbolizes God, and the oxygen wave the Christ.

"God is the father of Christ" (John 9:69).

Christ declares:

"I and my father are one" (John 10:30).

The oxygen wave is born out of the nitrogen wave. Nitrogen and oxygen constitute our atmosphere. We inhale these as our breath which becomes the agent of our speech.

"In the beginning was the word, and the word was with God, and the word was God" (Jno. 1:1).

Hence Christ is made to say: "My father and I are one."

"No one hath seen God at any time, save the son who is in the bosom of the father. He hath declared him." (Jno. 1:18.)

"Christ is the son of the living God" (1 Cor. 3:23). Light.

"Christ gives light" (Eph. 5:15)—the sun.

"The same was in the beginning with God" (Jno. 1:2) in the electron.

"All things were made by him" (Jno. 1:3).

"In him was life, and the life was the light of all men" (Jno. 1:4).

"God is all and in all. Christ is all and in all" (Col. 3:11).

 Nitrogen—God, revealed through  oxygen, Christ.

Nitrogen, the first wave coming out of the electron, contains oxygen, carbon and hydrogen, hence, God is all and in all, merely assuming different forms.

In the creation of planetary systems the spiral represents the suns as creative centers, and subsequent creative systems assume the spiral as a life centre.

"I am alpha and omega, the beginning and the end" (Rev. 21:6).

The Gnostic God of Christianity

"God is Jehovah" (Isa. 12:2), meaning ever-existent.

"John baptized with water" (Jno. 1:26); water means the multitudes.

"Jesus baptized with the holy-ghost," meaning the breath, words.

"The woman is of the man, also the man is of the woman" (1 Cor. 11:12).

Could anything be made plainer?

"And when all things shall be subdued unto him, then shall the son also, himself, be subject unto him that put all things under him, that God may be all in all" (1 Cor. 15:28).

"Jesus comes from God and returneth to God" (Jno. 13:3).

THE USURPATION

In adopting the word Catholic, meaning universal, as the name of their concealing church, the ecclesiasts had planned a scheme of empire of far greater proportions than the mere uniting of all the more important religions into one composite body.

The walls of the Pantheon, in Rome, that gloomy structure of unknown origin, covered with the gods of all religions, is a key to a vastly greater enterprise than the control or suppression of religious bodies.

The adoption of the name Ecclesia is quite sufficient to brand the organization as a thing of plunder.

The legislative body of ancient Athens was named the Ecclesia. It confiscated all private property by a vicious form of taxation, and smothered the people under a blanket of murderous laws.

The Greek system of mythology was founded upon universal principles, covering earth and sky, with its innumerable gods and goddesses. It was more of an educational science than a system of religion. Wisdom was the goal of the Greek system, therefore it was closely allied with the traditional gnosticism.

The greed, and selfish determination to hog it all, has always been the weakest trait of the ecclesiastical - church scheme.

All bodies attempting to organize an independent system, must, of necessity, adopt the positive, creative waves, before they may develop material bodies of their own conception, independent of previously organized systems.

In the plagiarization of the Greek mythology, ecclesiasticism could not conceal its own secret code. It boldly gave to this planetary system names which were a descriptive part of the Greek gnostic system, and then attempted to construct a universal source for its own classification of humanity.

We here apply the universal waves to our planetary system to illustrate this.

It is at once recognized that this positive, creative motion was the source of our planet, therefore it could not be tampered with.

It is the negative system which gives the opportunity for trickery.

The carbon wave coming out of Mars is the asteroidal belt, having no organized body. It is the refuse or excrement of the positive system, cast out of it. Only constant toil and cultivation can revive it, therefore it is abandoned to fate in the imitation.

The spiral, as we have previously shown, symbolizes the pelvis and its excreting organs.

The appearance of the surface of Mars is, that it is practically all water, which is symbolized by the spiral. Doubtless this condition is due to the casting out of the asteroidal fragments. The small size of Mars also intimates this.

The asteroidal belt may well be called the bones of this planetary system, separating the outer planets from the inner.

Jupiter, true to the oxygen wave, is a vast gaseous body of oxygen.

Let us now examine how the ecclesiasts made use of a knowledge of the gnostic astronomy, by trying to give to the Greek mythology, which it had plagiarized for its own usurpative ends, an aspect of originality, by applying the names of Greek gods to the planets, in a consecutive manner, to tell the most vulgar story in the christian system.

In the positive series of waves, the spiral always follows carbon, and symbolizes water, the sea.

Mer—mere, means the sea.

Mary is derived from mere, the sea.

Mary is the alleged mother of Jesus.

Mary also symbolizes the church.

Jesus symbolizes the humblest class of people, producing mankind.

Je means ever-existent, sus means sustainer, supporter.

The name Jesus is the Greek form of Joshua, brought over from the old testament.

Jo means increased, shua means wealth.

Increased wealth, the savior of the Jews.

It is an evident fact that, in order to create an exclusive body to be later known as the universal church the humble, earthy masses must be eliminated, hence the sacrifice of Jesus, the producing masses, and the adoption of Christ, authority, as the head of the church.

In the classifying of the people, under the jurisdiction of the Ecclesia, this is the romantic procedure :

"In the beginning God created the heaven and the earth" (Gen. 1:1).

"And the earth was without form and void" (Gen. 1:2).

This clears it up. The secret ecclesiastic code speaks.

Heaven means ecclesiastical government.

Earth means the rabble, the producing mankind.

There are many accusing evidences exposed. In the original manuscripts, from which the first ten words of the Bible were taken, the words God and Heaven were in the plural, giving to the verse a wholly different significance.

All men were gods, and their governments were their heavens.

By their abuse of translation they convert the people into an ignorant, unorganized rabble, which must be removed from between God and the church. Nevertheless, this rabble is the producing masses, therefore it may not be destroyed. In the further play with the gnostic waves, they assimilate, devour and digest this surplus. It becomes the sustainer of the church. See how perfectly the negative waves reveal this.

According to the natural creative trend, only the negative waves may be applied in the development of this human enterprise. As we have previously shown, each element born out of the spiral, feeds upon the excrements of the preceding wave. This would make the rabble an excrement of the sea, or the church, Christ, would be supported by the excrement of the rabble, and God would be sustained by Christ, authority.

It is at once seen that this is the beginning of the struggle of the church to seize control of the people and their governments.

To destroy civil governments, it was essential for the church to absorb the producing masses upon which civil governments depended for support. This could not be done to adjust the act to the negative set of waves.

To give to the church earthy supremacy, it was essential to base the ecclesiastic government, and its church, upon the positive waves.

Therefore, "God made man in his image."

"And God said, Let us make man in our image, after our likeness."

"And God created man in his own image, in the image of God created he him, male and female created he them" (Gen. 1:26, 27).

This necessarily implies that God is both male and female. Moreover it means civil government and the church.

This godly creation now assumes a positive process, placing the church in a position to control the masses of people, as represented by the carbon line backing out of the spiral.

This is the birth of Jesus out of Mary. Mere—the sea, Jesus is the earthy producing mankind, to be sacrificed, crucified and resurrected.

Je means ever-existent, sus means sustain, support.

The ecclesia has now taken man as the image and likeness of the universal creative process.

Jesus symbolizes the muscular system.

The cross is the human skeleton with arms outstretched.

The muscular Jesus is hanged upon the skeleton, being suspended from Calvary, which in the code means the base of the skull.

This fake sacrifice is but the sacrifice of human muscular energy to support the ecclesiastic government, and the church, man being merely used as a symbol.

In making this sacrifice, which removes the masses of people as an obstacle between the church and God, the promoters of the scheme show an utter contempt for the common, producing people, by figuratively converting them into the waste excrement of the planetary system, by using our planets, giving them names expressly to tell the vulgar story.

We have previously shown, that in the negative set of creative waves the heads of the serpents point toward the spiral, revealing that each element in the series is nourished and sustained by the excrements of the preceding wave.

The normal position of the negative carbon wave follows the spiral.

The spiral symbolizes the sea, the waters.

Waters means the multitudes of people.

And here is the vulgar manner in which the church disposed of the troublesome masses.

The Jews and Peter (Jupiter) sat (upon an) urn (saturn) and discharged the refuse of the body with ur-ine from the anus (Uranus) the excremental orifice.

It is a curious thing that the urine is an excrement of the kidneys, and is here united with the excretions of the anus.

The planet Neptune was not discovered until 1846, hence it is not included in this fake planetary scheme.

Neptune is alleged to be a dual planet, resembling a pair of kidneys. Little more is known or said about this planet.

It is peculiar, too, that the substance discharged from the anus is inclined to assume a spiral form, again intimating the symbol of the multitudes.

It will be observed that, in order to accomplish this transfer of position of the producing class, necessitated an adverse attitude of the negative waves which ordinarily begin with negative carbon and end with negative nitrogen.

This proves that they used the physical body of man, the "image of God" as its model instead of the planetary system.

Before illustrating this we shall examine the mythological names they selected for this purpose.

Jesus is said to have been the son of one Pan-ther, or Pan-theos, meaning "all the gods."

Jesus was named Rabbi-Ben-Pantheos.

Therefore, it was the offspring of all previous gods which they sought to eliminate, proving, beyond all doubt, that they were suppressing all previous religions, and plagiarizing such of their rites as suited their purposes, as they had suppressed the traditional gnosticism and confiscated its wisdom to exploit as its own.

Their first attempt was to combine all religions, with their gods, into one universal body, hence, they adopted the name catholic which means universal.

Pan means all. Theon means gods.

The most eloquent evidence of this brazen attempt to suppress all the previous religions of the world, to enable them to assume universal control of all mankind, stands as a tottering old bone-shed for saints, in Rome.

The Pan-theon, with its walls smeared with the gods of all previous religions, and bins filled with the rotting bones of alleged saints.

No one can positively name the time when this structure was erected.

To the writer, who visited it, it was the most disgusting thing in Rome.

Now for the names we were to analyze.

Jupiter, the Jews, and Peter, papa, pope.

Right at once he identifies himself in the spot where we had placed him in the elimination of the masses.

Jupiter is Merodach, the rooter out of all the evil ones.

He shepherds the stars.

He pastures the gods like sheep.

He rules the night.

He is the deity of wind, rain, and thunder.

Wind means war.

Rain means doctrines.

Thunder means god's anger.

Je the ever-existent is Ju in Jupiter.

Piter is peter, papa, pope.

Jupiter is credited as having three eyes, the third, the inner eye of reason.

Saturn, the reign of Saturn called the golden age. He is Cronus, time.

Kronos = ak. Ur = the great fire. On-us = the one light.

Set-ur-cn, the fiery one.

Set = et = light and heat.

Uranus. Ur = fire. Anus = excremental orifice.

The Scotch Ure = the Hebrew Ur = fire.

Anu = a long flowing beard.

S = the spiral.

This at once identifies Uranus as the terminating pelvis of the planetary man.

In the adoption of the human body, as the image and likeness of the planetary scheme, we are brought into close contact with the real truth.

They assumed control over the inner, organic man.

The First Adam, Negative Read from spiral upward

The Second Adam, Positive Read downward

The first man Adam was a living soul, of the earth earthy.

The last Adam was made a quickening spirit, the Lord from heaven.

Noah means seat of God. Lord means loaf-warden — bread giver.

The Moon—reproduces the electron with an orbit.

The Sun, the first physical product of this system inhales its sustaining elements from the universal pabulum.

The Earth is the exhaust of the first universal positive motion, depositing its waste as the asteroids.

The Sea is the first molecule of living matter, hence life begins in the waters.

There are twenty moons attached to the planets of this system.

There are twenty imitations on the human fingers and toes, by which we may recognize the functions of the moons—the nails.

As the moons belong to their planets, yet are not directly attached, so do the nails belong to the bony structure but are not directly attached.

The moons are sent forth to gather planetary mentation for their planets.

The hands, arms, legs and feet are sent forth to find and seize physical nourishment for the physical body, all of which must first be sent to the head to be censored before being absorbed.

Food for the brain is universal. Food for the heart is atmospheric. Food for the stomach is from land and sea.

The pelvic organs discharge the wastes of the bodily activities, and living, reproductive bodies.

In the christian scheme this excretion is classed as the productive mankind, the lowest type of humanity, based upon the fact that the animal excretions cultivate the soil. Men are called cattle, meaning capital.

We may now indulge in some Biblical quotations which will emphasize the church plagiarization of the gnostic wisdom.

"The woman is of the man and the man is of the woman" (1 Cor. 11:12).

Could anything be plainer?

"God is one" (Gal. 3:20).

Christ is called the son of man eighty times in the Bible.

The total number of names and titles given to Jesus Christ in the Bible are one hundred ninety-nine.

God declares:

"I am alpha and omega, the beginning and the end" (Rev. 21:6).

"And when all things shall be subdued unto him, then shall the son also, himself, be subject unto him that put all things under him that God may be all in all" (1 Cor. 15:28).

Christ is the Hebrew messiah, brought over from the old testament, as Jesus is Joshua brought over.

"God enters our hearts by the holy ghost, which is given unto us" (Rom. 5:6).

Holy Ghost means breath—the atmosphere (N<sup>4</sup>O).

This definitely identifies the nitrogen we breathe from our atmosphere as the God principle.

In the negative waves the wave of nitrogen, representing the god principle, is converted into a negative electron assuming an orbital attitude. This is the perfected moon of our planetary system, and it is through its functions, previously described, that we are put in contact with planetary wisdom.

"God is the father of our Lord Jesus Christ" (Eph. 1:3).

Therefore, when the name Lord is mentioned it means the Christ, high official authority.

This is merely a formality in which authority is personified into a personality.

In the first verse of the new testament is the following absurd statement:

"Jesus Christ, the son of David."

"Jesus Christ, the son of Abraham" (Matt. 1:1).

This at once identifies God, David and Abraham as one, for this Christ character could not possibly be the offspring of three different fathers.

These are serious discrepancies which put the stamp of romance and false-pretense upon the whole Biblical story.

"One God and father of all" (Eph. 4:6).

"Abraham who is father of us all" (Rom. 4:16).

Again we are reminded that Abraham and God are one.

"Call no man your father upon the earth" (Matt. 23:9).

Now we know the fabulous character of these Biblical personalities.

Every catholic priest is called "father" on this earth.

Christianity practically begins with Abram, Abraham and Isaac.

Abram came out of Ur, meaning fire.

He was the high-priest of fire-worship.

Ab means father, ram means high.

The name was changed to Abraham.

Ab means father. Ra means the sun. Ham means hot.

The high-priest of the hot sun—sun-worship.

Isaac, son of Abraham, means joy, light, laughter, enlightenment. He is the first Christ.

"Christ gives light" (Eph. 5:15).

"In him was life and life was the light of all men" (Jno. 1-4).

"Christ is our life" (Col. 3:4)  oxygen.

"Christ is all and in all" (Col. 3:11). Hence man is the manifested God.

"Jesus Christ is in you" (Gal. 13:5). An attempt to identify these as one.

"Jesus said: Is it not written in your law, I said ye are gods?" (Jno. 10:34).

"Christ Jesus is wisdom" (1 Cor. 1:30).

This is another raw attempt to identify Jesus and Christ as one, whereas Jesus is but the Greek name for Joshua, meaning increased wealth. But the christian Jesus merely means the ever-existent producer, and supporter of the church, the laboring masses.

"The gift of God is eternal life through Jesus Christ" (Rom. 6:23).

Through hard physical labor and church authority.

It is Peter, the church, that said:

"Jesus is the Christ" (Mark 8:29).

Whereas Jesus declares he is but an ordinary man.

The head of every man is Christ, the head of every woman is the man, and the head of Christ is God. This reverses the negative waves into the positive for church purposes.

God, the head of Christ, the head of Man, the head of Woman

"Jesus is the light of the world" (Jno. 1:12). Mankind.

"God is light" (Jno. 1:5). Light is intellect.

"Ye are the temple of God, the spirit of God dwelleth in you" (1 Cor. 3:16).

Oxygen, the spirit or life principle, comes first out of the nitrogen wave, the god principle.

"Jesus Christ, the son of God is the word" (Jno. 1:1). Human speech.

"In the beginning was the word, and the word was with God, and the word was God" (Jno. 1:1).

"Our words are the images of our thoughts" (Col. 1:15).

This wholly clears up this mysterious juggling of words. The brain is the seat of mentation.

The heart is the seat of expression.

It all has reference to the organic and physical man.

"God reveals his will through Jesus Christ" (Jno. 3:34).

God  is the first force manifesting in the creative system. He manifests through light, the original Christ principle,  oxygen, intelligence, knowledge, therefore intelligent understanding and reason is the God principle in man.

This especially refers to the inner or organic man, and they are revealed through the outer, physical man.

The female principle in nature, as symbolized by the hydrogen spiral, is the virgin Mary.

Mary is from Mer, the sea.

Animal life originates in the sea, the waters.

This revelation is demonstrated by the unfolding of the secondary or negative set of creative waves.

The ecclesiasts attempt to make of man a special dispensation in Enos, the son of Seth, who represents the respiratory animals. The spiral reveals the axial motion, and the circle the orbital motion of our earth.

There is endless evidence that these similarities are but the clumsy adjustments of the ecclesiastical enterprise to the traditional gnostic system. It needs no discussion. The single fact that gnosticism existed ages before christianity was conceived, and it required five hundred years for the ecclesia to throttle it, and confiscate its wisdom as it own, is sufficient.

This outrageous thing was a premeditated assault upon progressive civilization and, as we have repeatedly declared, the horrible state of imbecilic ignorance was its shield.

This suppression of intellect in the greater masses was the true crucifixion of the imaginary Jesus.

To this day, this beastly assault upon common sense and reason is reflected in a determination, on the part of the catholic church, to prevent the use of the Bible in the public schools, and to suppress the teaching in the public schools of science and philosophy.

Secret attempts have been made to seize secret control of and censorship of text books used in our schools.

This is a part of the original scheme. Following the crucifixion, the alleged resurrection was to be an educated church following, superior to the common producing herd.

Perhaps the most impudent attitude of the catholic church today, is the determined effort to compel state treasuries to support parochial schools.

A brief survey of this situation reveals a treacherous indifference, on the part of political powers in control of our governments, toward the suppression of this manifest encroachment upon the national educational prerogatives, strongly suggestive of collusion.

As originally intended, education will be made a mere bribe.

Today, inspired governmental cruelties are intended to drive humanity into the church.

"The law is our schoolmaster to bring us unto Christ" (Gal. 3:24).

The United States is smothered beneath a blanket of laws.

THE USURPATIVE CHURCH PLAGIARIZATIONS

It is to emphasize its vast importance to humanity, and to normal, logical, reasonable human advancement, that we dwell upon the gnostic theme.

The negative half of the creative wave system speaks loudest in the story of christian plagiarizations.

Readjustment of waves to meet church imitation.

Thus they adopt the first motion of the sun, the spiral beginning, as the origin of all natural religions, and the beginning of the systems of nature-worship which they confiscate and conceal behind a church-wall of figure, symbolism, and personification.

The word church is from Chur — the guardian of the sun. Ur means fire.

Abram came out of Ur fire, of Chaldee, devils and robbers.

Isaac comes out of Abram, fire, high-priest of fire-worship.

Isaac means light, joy, prosperity, intelligence.

This has a secret reference to the origin of the gnostic system, which is based upon the revelations of light and selective reason.

“God did tempt Abraham” (Gen. 22:1).

To sacrifice his “only son,” Isaac, by burning with fire.

Fire-worship had been displaced by sun-worship, Abram, the high-priest of fire-worship becoming Ab-ra-ham, the high-priest of sun-worship.

Ab means father, ram means high.

The modern catholic priests are called “fathers.”

This is the ram which God found to be sacrificed instead of Isaac.

And Abram became Ab—the father, Ra—the sun, Ham—hot. The high-priest of the hot sun, and Isaac, light, joy, prosperity, and enlightenment, was spared. A simple scheme was devised to absorb the gnostic wisdom.

Esau and Jacob are the sons of Isaac.

Esau means the earthy, producing masses.

Jacob means to usurp by trickery.

Jacob’s mother is Rebekah, meaning snare, trap.

Ja means Jehovah. Cob = Cobus, the insidious supplanter.

Jacob also is Ja-ztak, meaning the supreme ensnarer.

“Thy word is the supreme ensnarer of heaven and earth” (The Book of Souls).

The soul is the breath.

The Ecclesia, plagiarized by the christian scheme, was the name of the legislative body of ancient Athens, which confiscated all the property of the common people by taxation, as the United States is doing today by the influence of the modern ecclesiasticism.

Where a thousand years of abject ignorance under ecclesiasticism held the producing classes under control, and another thousand years of murderous crusades, inquisitions, and bloody wars frightened them into a state of submission, a new form of mental and physical slavery has seized control; taxation and poverty have subdued the "rabble."

Carbon is the product of heat-exhaustion.

Nitrogen and oxygen ride on the back of carbon, as the flesh and muscles ride the bones of the body. Truly Ham is the servant of Shem and Japheth.

Thus does the mythological caduceus reveal the modern ecclesiastical treachery.

The producing class carries both the church and state, as God declared that Ham should bear the burdens of his brothers, and that means that human toil is feeding and clothing, and supporting in luxury and ease, the indolent official classes and the confiscatory, usurpative priesthood.

God manifests in the flesh. Dictator.

Christ manifests in the muscles. Executioner.

Man manifests in the bones. Producer.

Woman manifests in the marrow. Reproducer.

These are the four primary elements which manifest in the human physical body.

Hydrogen symbolizes water.

Waters symbolize the multitude of people and laws.

Hence we are again in the midst of a flood in the United States.

The muscles direct the labors of the bones.

It is the flesh which absorbs the surplus elements, hence the pot-bellied priesthood, who neither toil nor pay taxes, absorb the excess human energy.

"God manifests in the flesh" (1 Tim. 3:16).

Thus the gross physical body reveals the mysteries forbidden the ignorant masses, because a knowledge of the secrets of the organic man would reveal ecclesiastic duplicity.

The God, Christ, male and female principles are the four essential elements in the construction of this fake christian system, and these are confiscated from the gnostic philosophy—the wisdom belonging to all humanity alike.

"God comes as a thief in the night" (Rev. 3:3).

These four principles are as manifest in other animals as in man, and even in the vegetation, but man is the last word in physical creation. Man is the manifested god—every man.

Angels find no place to rest their weary wings upon this earth, therefore we do not find them prowling about looking for "soup-lines" and "bean-tickets." They are quickly concealed in convents and nunneries, to entertain the priesthood.

But to go to the Vatican, at Rome, and you may be permitted to kiss the dirty feet of God—the pope.

Or slip into the confessional, and you may embrace the fat-bellied Jesus—the priest.

If civilization is to continue, this brazen false-pretense must be rudely suppressed.

THE BIBLE

What power maintains the circulation of this textbook of evil?

The church, associated with Jesuitic, political influences over civil governments.

Humanity at large has been the victim of this collusive influence since the introduction of so-called christianity.

The very fact that the ulterior church exploiters conceal themselves, and their true character, behind a screen of symbolisms, and false-pretense, by the use of a secret code, is quite sufficient to prove they are not dealing honestly with the ignorant masses. Honest purpose requires no secrecy or concealment. Wild beasts and treachery always conceal themselves in ambush to pounce upon their prey.

The Bible, without which the church could not exist, is the most profane, untruthful, inconsistent, selfish and criminal piece of literature ever permitted to circulate among the people. Its contradictions are endless.

It originally was forbidden to circulate, by the church itself. Many people were burned when found with a Bible in their possession.

This horrid thing teaches lying, stealing, false-pretense and crime in every degree, when done with the knowledge and consent of the church, or for its benefit.

The leading characters in the book, from its fake god down, are openly charged with every crime known to the calendar of crimes of the present day.

Let those capable of thinking and reasoning draw their own conclusions regarding why this vile text-book of the church is permitted to remain in circulation, rather than accuse our government of wilful collusion. Search out those who disgrace our government by secret connivance with this usurpative power.

The constitution of the United States declares, in its first amendment, that no law shall be passed having reference to religion.

Our early presidents construed this to mean that the laws should not recognize the church and religion as an element to influence civil government. They sharply vetoed every bill presented for their approval having any reference to the church and many attempts were made to defeat this constitutional provision.

Our early treaties with foreign nations declared: "This government was, in no sense, founded upon religion."

Nowhere, in the declaration or constitution, does the name

God appear, with the single exception: the "God of nature," and the "laws of nature" are mentioned once in the declaration.

The constitution specifically declares: "No religious test shall ever be required as a qualification to any office or public trust."

Yet we see the presidents of this nation, and other officials, with their hands upon this Bible, taking their oath of office.

If a proper construction be placed upon the 18th amendment to our constitution, and its subsequent repeal, it would reveal a raw attempt to overcome the attitude of the constitution, in its first amendment, to force a recognition of the church, by exempting the Jews and the christian church.

It reflects no credit upon the government responsible for this deal, that it commercialized it to the limit, by developing an outrageous system of taxation, disgusting to common sense and reason.

It is only too true, that this system of abnormal taxation applies to every luxury, and every vital necessity, naturally belonging to the people, reflecting a clean-cut, ecclesiastical usurpation.

Necessity, luxury, crime and poverty are now openly commercialized to the extreme of confiscation, betraying the spirit of the ravenous ecclesia back of the church.

Returning to our story of the Bible:

Because it conceals much plagiarized gnostic wisdom, much of which may be traced back to the Hindoo age of reason and philosophy, does not excuse making of the Bible a text book to exploit evil and crime, as an excuse for the maintenance of the elaborate church exploitation.

In the United States, today, we are being smothered in criminal laws, to foster a modern form of the murderous inquisition, which terrorized all Europe in the middle ages, murdering more than fifty millions of innocent people, because they refused to recognize and support a fictitious religion.

If the government permits the free circulation of the Bible, it is an endorsement of its treacherous teachings. Then, why does it openly violate its tenets?

“Where there is no law there is no transgression” (Rom. 4:15).

“Sin is the transgression of the law” (1 John 3:4).

Then it is clear that a multitude of vicious, irritating laws are made to promote evil.

There can be but one legitimate purpose, and that is to commercialize evil for the profit it yields. The Bible teaches this.

“Either make the tree (man) good, and his fruit good, or else make the tree (man) corrupt, and his fruit corrupt; for the tree (man) is known by his fruit” (Matt. 12:33).

If this is not the cultivation of corruption for the profit it yields, then name it.

If there remains any doubt, the following will remove it.

“Now we know that what things soever the law saith, it saith to them who are under the law; that every mouth may be stopped, and all the world may become guilty” (Rom. 3:19).

Thus free speech is suppressed, and all mankind is legislated into crime.

A multitude of laws is not for the good of mankind, they are for the promotion of evil.

“By the deeds of the law there shall no flesh be justified; for by the law is the knowledge of sin” (Rom. 3:20).

The purpose of this vicious and unnecessary system is made clear.

“Because the law worketh wrath” (Rom. 4:15).

“A wrathful man stirreth up strife” (Prov. 15:18).

“The wrath of man worketh not righteousness” (James 1:20).

Does that make clear the purpose of a multitude of vicious, irritating laws?

It is admitted that each new criminal law creates a new class of criminals, giving the opportunity to increase offences, and reap a new crop of fines, penalties, and other sources of profits.

That is sufficient to demonstrate that the law-making bodies are being guided and instructed by the Bible and the church.

We name that the worst form of collusion.

We shall now expose the evils, wilful false-pretenses, contradictions, fraudulent misrepresentations, inconsistencies, and crimes of the Bible.

It is practically impossible to reveal all. Practically every important character in the Bible is, in some degree, evil-minded or criminal.

God killed the two sons of Aaron for teaching a new form of fire-worship (Num. 3:4).

God tried to kill Moses, in an ordinary tavern brawl (Ex. 4:24).

God said unto the Israelites:

"Thou shalt not go empty handed" (Ex. 3:21).

"But every woman shall borrow of her neighbor, and of her that sojourneth in her house, jewels of silver and jewels of gold, and raiment; and ye shall put them upon your sons, and upon your daughters; and ye shall spoil the Egyptians" (Ex. 3:22).

These were clean-cut instructions in thievery, as taught by God himself, in the very beginning.

This instruction was given prior to the alleged going out into the wilderness of sin of the Israelites. Inasmuch as it has been demonstrated that no such people as the Israelites ever existed in fact, and no such exodus ever occurred, this is a first lesson in thievery as taught by the Bible.

The purpose is made clear.

What benefit would gold, silver and rich clothing be to poverty-stricken people going into a wilderness of confusion, tribulations, and sin?

"To try them, to see whether they would obey the law or not" (Deut. 8:2).

God said:

"Israel is my son, even my first born" (Ex. 4:22).

This not only convicts God of teaching crime to these innocent people, but convicts him as a liar, for Israel is a name he gave to Jacob, who made a bargain with him by which he was to receive ten percent of all his graft. (Gen. 28:22).

And now we shall see why God, the father, taught his own offspring to steal.

God ordered the Israelites to build him a tabernacle in the wilderness, where a blade of green grass could not grow, as demonstrated by an examination of the territory where all this bunk was allegedly pulled off.

"And thou shalt overlay the boards with gold and make their rings of gold, and thou shalt overlay the bars with gold" (Ex. 26:29).

"And thou shalt make a vail of blue, and purple and scarlet, and fine trimmed linen of cunning work" (Ex. 26:31).

The word cunning means crafty, sly, deceit, designing; rather a strange word to use in this connection.

"And thou shalt hang it upon four pillars of shittim-wood overlaid with gold. Their hooks shall be of gold, upon the four sockets of silver" (Ex. 26:32).

Do you now believe that God's instructions to the Israelites was on the square, and in the interest of morality?

Aaron took the gold away from the Israelites and made a golden calf of it, so God could condemn it and confiscate the gold (Ex. 32:24).

This period was the beginning of the union of the church and civil government, against the producing masses.

Aaron means the teacher.

Moses, his brother, means a multitude of laws.

All this is to glorify the church.

Aaron had also confiscated the clothing which the people had stolen from the Egyptians, before going into the wilderness (Ex. 32:25).

Moses, the sustaining law and authority, was the first Christ. And God's servant.

He commanded the people:

"Whosoever is of willing heart, let him bring gold and silver, and brass to the Lord" (Ex. 35:5).

"And blue, and purple, and scarlet and fine linen" (Ex. 33:6). All of which had been stolen at God's command.

"Golden chains on breast-plates."

"Gold rings."

"Sapphires, diamonds, topaz, carbuncles, onyx, jasper."

The "willing heart" gag is readily recognized as the modern coercive—persuasion of church workers, and alleged charity organizations.

Now, do you understand God's purpose in teaching his people to steal?

He wanted to hijack them in the wilderness.

First, the people are enriched by dishonest methods. Then they are cast down into a state of abject poverty, to coerce them to surrender their wealth.

The people of the United States, today, would better awaken from their lethargy, and demand a show-down. They are now in the same wilderness of sin, poverty and crime, and being coercively denuded of their wealth, and all their personal property is being confiscated by an accursed system of taxation, exactly as the original Ecclesia of ancient Athens absorbed the property of its people.

There is purpose in what is being pulled off in the United States today.

God fleeced the Israelites with the aid of his Christ—Moses, the law, who was a cold-blooded murderer.

"And he looked this way, and that way, and when he saw that there was no man, he slew the Egyptian, and hid him in the sand" (Ex. 2:12).

This was premeditated murder.

Then Moses fled to the protection of the high-priest of Midian, meaning hiding behind strife and confusion.

Thus does the law conceal its own evil deeds by confusing judgments. Hence, Christ, although a murderer, as Moses, is named a refuge (Isa. 25:4). A refuge is a place of safety and protection.

God stablished six refuge cities (Num. 35:13).

These were refuge cities for the "manslayers to take refuge in," and were typical of Christ, authority, who is appointed as a refuge for sinners to "flee to and find safety." This meant the church.

Today, the earth is covered with monasteries, convents, and nunneries, which are the vilest places on earth, and which are exempt from the intrusion of the law, in the United States, notwithstanding they were suppressed in Europe, and their properties confiscated.

Today, in the United States, the law does not intrude upon catholic refuges.

Will some one explain this mystery?

The priests are not under the law.

We may now briefly go down the line of major Biblical crimes, committed by the leading Biblical characters of God and the church.

Abraham was willing to murder his own son at the suggestion of God, but found an easier way out of it, by burning the ram in Abram to convert fire-worship into sun-worship. Ab-ra-ham.

This has reference to the suppression of the traditional, gnostic wisdom.

Isaac means light, intelligence, wisdom.

Abraham fornicated with his maid servant and she bore him a bastard child. He was mean enough to turn both mother and child out into the wilderness to starve (Gen. 16).

This is to smirch sun-worship which preceded christianity. He denied his wife while traveling in Egypt" (Gen. 20:12).

"Abraham's nephew, Lot, while drunk, fornicated with his two daughters who bore him bastard children" (Gen. 19:36).

Abraham's son, Isaac, was the father of Esau and Jacob.

Jacob was a liar and a thief, nevertheless, he is made the church of Christ by God.

We here have two of the most important steps in the christian exploitation revealed.

The thieving manner by which ecclesiasticism confiscated and suppressed the gnostic system.

The beginning of the christian church as its concealing cloak.

Esau, being the elder son, was the legitimate heir to all that Isaac symbolized.

Is = light. A = the primal cause. Ac = the great sun.

The light of the great sun the primal cause.

Isaac means light, joy, prosperity, intelligence, and all the enlightenment nature can give us.

Gnosticism, over ages of time, assembled all these into wisdom, science, and philosophy.

God's temptation to Abraham to destroy his own son, Isaac, by burning, reveals the original ecclesiastical intent to destroy gnosticism by burning its accumulated wisdom, that it might be the only source of learning and education.

Finding it could not wholly eradicate the teachings of nature, it suppressed its high priest, gnosticism, to know, by burning the ram in the name Ab-ram meaning high priest, and converting his name into Ab-ra-ham, priest of the hot sun. Sun-worship.

Ecclesiasticism was determined to seize light-worship, confiscate all knowledge and pose as the God-given power on earth.

This necessitated the suppression of the living, traditional gnosticism, and the casting down of humanity into a thousand years of abject ignorance, that it might shine forth as the sole dispenser of joy, prosperity, light, and knowledge, as formerly symbolized by Isaac.

Isaac, old and blind, asked of his treacherous son, Jacob:

"Art thou my very son Esau? And Jacob said I am" (Gen. 27:24).

Then this contemptible thief, with the assistance of his equally dishonest mother, Rebekah, proceeded to rob Esau, and all humanity, of the natural gifts of nature.

Ja = ever-existant; cobus, usurpation by treachery. Same as Akkub, meaning insidious.

Rebekah means snare, trap.

Esau means earthy producing mankind.

Now we may again convict the christian God of dishonesty, and treachery toward struggling humanity. All this contemptible deceit and trickery was pulled off with his secret influence and collusion.

Did he punish Jacob for his criminal acts?

On the contrary, he made a bargain with him to make him the guardian of the Ecclesia, and to pay to him ten percent of all his graft.

"Thy name shall be called no more Jacob but Israel" (Gen. 32:28).

Is = the light — of Ra = the sun — is El = the first cause of all. The light of the sun is the first cause of all.

Israel is the church of Christ.

Pharaoh was the sun-king of Egypt.

God instructed Moses, authority, the law, to say to Pharaoh:

"Thus saith the Lord, Israel is my son even my first born" (Ex. 4:22).

God then whipped into line Moses, the law, and Aaron, the teacher, intelligence, and they bowed their heads in submission.

Israel, enlightenment, became the church of Christ. Light-worship.

Christ is made a title of Jesus—Jesus Christ. This becomes another evidence of treachery.

Je = ever-existent, sus = sustainer, supporter.

The name is the Greek form of Joshua.

Jo = increased — shua = wealth.

Increased wealth, savior of the Jews.

Jesus, therefore, symbolizes the supporting, producing people.

Christ is the Greek Kristna, the Greek form of Messiah, meaning anointed as a priest, or initiation in high office. The character is Moses brought over from the old testament, in disguise.

Mo = multitude of laws, ses is sus = to sustain, support.

Today, in the United States, one of the strongest evidences of connivance between church and government, is the multitude of laws under which the people are being smothered.

If there is no such collusion, then there is a secret influence, or political intrigue, directing the conduct of our law-making powers.

The same favoritism is shown by God, toward the most important characters in the Bible.

Speaking of David, Paul said:

"Of this man's seed hath God, according to his promise, raised unto Israel a savior Jesus" (Acts. 13:23).

In the first verse of the new testament we have this: "Abraham the father of Jesus Christ" (Matt. 1:1).

This hooks up Israel as the church of Christ; therefore the Christians of today are worshiping the thief, liar, and usurper, Jacob, in this disguise, as well as worshiping Joshua as Jesus.

David is another of God's beloved.

"Jesus Christ, the son of David" (Matt. 1:1).

"Christ is the son of David" (Mark 12:35).

"All Israel loved David" (1 Sam. 18:16).

"The Lord was with David" (1 Sam. 18:28).

David while walking on top of his house saw a woman bathing and she was beautiful. He sent and had her brought to him. He outraged her and she bore him a bastard child. God destroyed the child and forgave David to save the face of the church.

Then David killed Uriah the husband of Bathsheba and took her as his concubine (2 Sam. 12:9).

"David danced before the Lord with all his might" (2 Sam. 6:14).

David's two sons were Absalom and Ammon.

Ammon enticed his sister Tamar to his room, outraged her and kicked her out, for which act Absalom killed his brother.

Tamar played the street harlot and enticed her blind father-in-law to her house and fornicated with him.

God raised up a Savior for Israel, Ehud, a left-handed man. He was sent to Eglon, the king of Moab, with a message from God.

Ehud made himself a two-edged dagger and concealed it under his raiment.

He brought the present unto Eglon, and Eglon was a very fat man, and when Ehud had made an end to offer the present, he sent away the people that bore the present.

Ehud said, I have a message from God unto thee. And he arose out of his seat, and Ehud put forth his left hand, and took the dagger from his right thigh and thrust it into his belly, and the haft also went in after the blade. Then Ehud went forth from the porch and shut the doors of the parlor upon him and locked them.

This was a clean-cut, premeditated, godly murder.

Abner's stabbing of Asahel under the fifth rib, and murdering him, was another specimen of godly moral-suasion.

Here is another pretty one.

"When Abner was returned to Hebron, Joab took him aside in the gate to speak with him quietly, and smote him there under the fifth rib that he died" (2 Sam. 3:27).

This is a perfect lesson of the justification of retaliative murder.

These are all premeditated murders and justified in the sight of God.

Again we have evidence of secret connivance in crime for church promotion and protection.

Ab = priest, ner = enlightenment.

Jo = increased, ab = priesthood.

The increased priesthood suppressed the high-priest of intelligence.

Now we may see the play following these murders.

First an attempt is made to identify Jesus and Christ as one.

"Son Jesus Christ our Lord, of the seed of David" (Rom. 1:3).

Solomon was the bastard son of David by Bathsheba, the widow of Uriah whom David slew.

The secret code reveals this as another sly reference to the confiscated gnosticism.

Uriah means light, intelligence, knowledge.

Bathsheba is Bathshua (1 Ch. 3:5).

The meaning of Bathshua is a measure of wealth. Therefore the suppression of knowledge was a measure to concentrate the producing masses upon the production of wealth.

Solomon, God's alleged wise man, the most immoral character in the Bible, having a thousand prostitutes.

Solomon's songs are the most vulgar things in the Bible, having reference to sex-worship.

This is quite sufficient to prove that the origin of the Christian religion and its church wrecks with evil and crime.

Why should struggling humanity be required to respect and support this awful character named God, and his indolent priesthood, in ease and luxury?

"Neither doth God respect any person" (2 Sam. 14:14).

All these old testament characters are fabulous. Their own code betrays them. That was why the Bible was forbidden to common people for several centuries, until the church was saddled upon them for support.

God — Aaron — Moses — Abraham — Isaac — Esau — Jacob — Israel — David — Solomon — Joshua — Jesus — Christ.

Not one of these characters ever existed in fact, as we shall prove by their code:

God = the Sanskrit word good, worshipped by the Hindus.

"God is a spirit" (Jno. 4:24).

"God is light" (1 Jno. 1:5).

"Our God is a consuming fire" (Heb. 12:29).

"The Lord God is a sun" (Ps. 84:11).

Aaron = the teacher, enlightener.

A = the primal cause.

Ar = fire.

On = the sun.

The fire of the sun is the primal cause of all.

He was the first Hebrew high priest, therefore was the high priest of Fire-worship.

Moses = Mo, a multitude of laws.

Ses is sus, to support, sustain.

A multitude of laws to sustain the church.

Abraham = Father of the multitude. Sun-worship.

Ab = father, priest. Ra = the sun. Ham = hot.

The priest of the hot sun. Father of light.

Isaac = light, joy, prosperity.

Is = light.

A = the primal cause.

Ac = great.

Light the great primal cause. Light-worship.

Esau = hairy, finishing, producing, earthy mankind.

Jacob = supplanter, usurper by trickery.

Ja = ever-existent; cobus = treachery, insidious.

The usurper of intelligence, light and understanding.

Israel = Jacob in disguise. The church of Christ.

Is = the light — of Ra = the sun, is El = the first cause.

Fire-worship, Sun-worship, and Light-worship personified into Man-worship.

David = carnal love. "Father of Jesus Christ" (Matt.
1:1).

David went to Paran — a place of caves (1 Sam.
25:1).

Jesus was born in a cave.

The caves of Paran were in the "Desert of Wandering" and surrounded by:

On the north, Canaan = merchandising and trading.

On the south by the desert of Sinai = enmity and ambush.

On the west by Etham = the sea, the multitudes, producers.

On the east by Arabah = sedition, multiplying.

David was sent to Nabal. A fool, madness.

Nabal refused David food, and God sent Nabal's wife Abigail, meaning joy, and David took her away, adding her to his harem of several hundred other female joys.

"David arose from his couch and walked upon the top of his house, and from the roof he saw a woman washing herself; and the woman was very beautiful to look upon" (2 Sam 11:2).

"David sent and took her, and he lay with her and she returned unto her house" (2 Sam. 11:4).

This godly David simply outraged this woman to appease his brutish desire.

She bore him a bastard child which God had killed, to save the face of the church, but he did nothing to punish his beloved David.

This is one of the most criminal pictures in the Bible and was all done with God's connivance.

This woman was Bathsheba = daughter of God's people.

The wife of Uriah = light, same as Urjah, meaning the ever-existent fire — the sun. Uriah was descendant of Heth = fear.

David took Uriah's wife and killed Uriah.

"Thou hast killed Uriah and hast taken his wife" (2 Sam. 12:9).

Let us now squeeze the juice out of this lemon.

Bathsheba became Bath-shua, meaning daughter of wealth, and she bore unto David Solomon (1 Ch. 3:5).

Sheba means an oath.

Shua means wealth.

Solomon means recompense.

Sol = the soul.

O = the disc or eye, watchfulness.

M = the sea, the multitudes, producers.

On = the sun, light, enlightenment.

Now we may feel sure that compensation is the secret intent in the distribution of wisdom.

It is wealth they seek, hence they change Sheba to Shua, daughter of wealth.

We have another real joke to uncover.

This theme of wealth was from the very beginning.

See how the following fits into the scheme.

The first son of Noah is Shem = name, fame.

The first son of Shem is Elam.

Elam means a young priest, a virgin, and an epoch.

This is the first plain intimation of the "Immaculate Conception."

El means the primal cause.

Am means a female principle.

Mary is from Mer, Mere, the sea. Production begins in the sea.

Sea means the producing multitudes.

Jesus is born of the virgin Mary.

Je = ever-existent. Sus = sustainer, supporter.

Therefore, Jesus means the producing people, the source of wealth.

Jesus is the Greek form of Joshua.

Joshua means increased wealth, savior of the Jews.

In the concealed apocrypha is hidden the true story of Mary. Apocrypha means hidden.

It tells us that Mary was raised in a convent, where she was fed by a young priest.

At the age of twelve years she was found with child and one Joseph was forced to marry her, notwithstanding he was declared innocent of her condition. The conception was charged to the Holy-ghost.

Now this is all a funny joke.

Jo = increasing. Seph means numbers, people.

The secret code reveals that the holy-ghost is the breath.

Therefore the story of the fabulous birth of Jesus is all wind.

To protect their murderous scheme, it was essential to submerge the producing masses, as represented by Jesus, in a state to render them innocuous, therefore :

Mary means rebellion, tribulations, turbulent commotions. She carries Jesus into Egypt.

Egypt means oppression, misery, afflictions. Jesus comes out of oppression and goes into Galilee, meaning revolution, and then goes into Capernaum, the hamlet of Nahum.

Nahum means the comforter, consolation. This means the church.

Who do we find sitting at the church door? Levi, the tax gatherer, disguised as Matthew, meaning giving gifts to God.

We warn the people of the United States. This identical scheme is being pulled off right now, and a showdown must be made. Why are we being mulct to the limit by taxation? Why are we being smothered beneath a multitude of laws? Why has poverty placed millions in bread-lines? To bring down those who have struggled to accumulate sufficient for comfort and rest, to a level with the lowest masses.

Crime in every form has been commercialized.

Poverty is made an excuse for coercive charity.

And all attempts to guide the multitudes toward the church, not as a matter of religion, but to support and give power to that hateful thing back of the church, which names the people, cattle, meaning capital.

There is not visible one motion which suggests the promotion of natural, normal, civilizing, national advancement under the guidance of our constitution.

We are now struggling in the midst of that identical "wilderness of sin," evil and poverty, described in the old testament. This is the putting into actual practice of that horrible test.

"And thou shalt remember all the way which the Lord thy God led thee these forty years in the wilderness, to humble thee, and to prove thee, to know what was in thine heart, whether thou wouldst keep his commandments, or no.

“And he humbled thee, and suffered thee to hunger”
(Deut. 8:2, 3).

Let us do a little speculative reasoning.

If the foregoing were actually true, the same God is leading the church today, why then could he not apply this same test to the people in the United States today?

Would our people willingly submit to such idiotic conduct on the part of our government?

Then why are we submerged in the same identical conditions, with millions standing in line begging for a can of manna, in the shape of beans?

The story in Deuteronomy is so manifestly a fake, no attempt has ever been made to prove it true.

Leading Bible dictionaries and concordances make no attempt to analyze the word Deu-ter-on-om-y.

Deu means the conversions. (Rain means doctrines.)

Ter = Terah, to breathe, the earth and atmosphere.

On = strength, light.

Om = the disc of the sun, and the sea.

Y = the three in one, the great unit.

If the Bible is true, there is every reason to believe the church is now attempting to drag humanity in the same net, by the same processes.

Moses was the alleged author of Deuteronomy.

Mo = a multitude of laws. Ses, Sus = to sustain.

“The law is our schoolmaster to bring us unto Christ.

“But after faith is come we are no longer under a schoolmaster” (Gal. 24:25).

“Christ hath redeemed us from the curse of the law” (Gal. 3:13).

Now we may know why we are cursed by a multitude of laws. All men must be legislated either into crime or into the church.

If the old testament is a fake play, to be staged in the new, then the Bible should be suppressed.

We have revealed quite sufficient to prove that the origin of the christian church reeks with evil and crime, with the connivance of the fabulous christian God, who is none other than the head of the system.

Why should the world be required to respect this awful character named God, and support his church?

"Neither does God respect any person" (2 Sam. 14:14).

All these characters are God's helpers. Many of them, in disguise, are brought over into the new testament, to put the big play in action as the christian religion.

Jehovah is God, the pope is named "God on earth."

Joshua is Jesus, increased wealth support.

Moses is Christ. Authority. A multitude of laws.

Jacob is brought over as James. Usurpation.

Israel is brought over as the church of Christ.

Miriam is brought over as Mary. Rebellion.

Levi, the tax collector, is Matthew. Giving gifts to God.

We know this revelation deeply chagrins those who adhere to the church for the profits it yields, but we shall now spread a poultice of funny things upon their wounded pride to alleviate their righteous indignation.

This same poultice will be a feast of "manna" to those who have a conscience and self-respect, and want to know the truth.

We have previously identified God and Christ as symbols of the gnostic creative waves. We shall now reveal the duplicity and treachery concealed in the secret ecclesiastic code.

1. God = the word "good," worshipped by the Hindoos, abbreviated. "The supreme, eternal, universal, creative power."

2. "God is not the God of the dead, but of the living" (Matt. 22:32).

3. "In the beginning was the word, and the word was with God and the word was God" (Jno. 1:1).

4. "The same was in the beginning with God" (Jno. 1:2).

5. "God is with us" (Isa. 8:10). Therefore, the word is with us. The code makes plain that this is all a puny attempt to adjust the ecclesiastic scheme to the gnostic system of nature.

"The scripture is the word of God" (James 1:22).

"Jesus Christ the son of God, who is called the word because he is the image of the invisible God, as our words are images of our thoughts" (Jno. 1:1; Col. 1:15).

"God has revealed his will to us by Jesus Christ" (Jno. 3:34).

Now we have the truth—a clean-cut false-pretense.

Je = ever-existent. Sus = sustenance, support.

Jesus is Joshua.

Jo = increased. Shua = wealth.

Christ is as Moses. A multitude of laws and authority.

Let us go deeper into this fake thing:

"All things were made by God; and without was not anything made" (Jno. 1:3).

"In him was life, and the life was the light of men" (Jno. 1:4).

"Surely God is in thee, and there is none other God. There is no God" (Isa. 45:14).

Therefore, the God principle is expressed by the words which we speak, which are the images of our own thoughts, formed by our own mentation.

"God formed the earth to be inhabited" (Isa. 45:18).

"God is the God and savior of Israel" (Isa. 45:15).

Israel, in the old testament, is the worship of sun-light.

Is = the light — of Ra = the sun — is the El = first cause of all.

Israel in the new testament is the church of Christ.

Church is from Chur = guardian of the sun.

Christ is derived from the same root as the cross.

Cross = Ak-ur-os, meaning the great fire, the sun.

Christ is the Greek Kristna, the Greek form of the Hebrew Messiah, meaning anointed as priest, king, or to high office.

"God is a spirit, and they that worship him must worship him in the spirit" (Jno. 4:24).

"No man hath seen God at any time" (1 Jno. 4:12).

"God spoke to Moses face to face" (Ex. 33:11).

"No one hath heard God's voice at any time nor seen his shape" (Jno. 5:37).

"God spoke unto Moses, Abraham, Isaac and David." This proves that these characters never existed as men.

"God judgeth no man, but hath committed all judgments unto the son" (Jno. 5:22).

Jesus, the son, declared:

"I judge no man" (Jno. 8:15).

"My kingdom is not of this world" (Jno. 18:36).

"God sent Jesus—I proceed forth from God" (Jno. 8:42).

"Except a man be born again he cannot see the kingdom of God" (Jno. 3:3).

"Jesus comes from God, and returneth to God" (Jno. 13:3).

"Jesus said, now is the son of man glorified, and God is glorified in him" (Jno. 13:31).

Here Jesus declares himself as the son of man, proving beyond debate that both Jesus and Christ are personifications of the oxygen wave in the gnostic system of creative waves. This is why they are united in name.

The difference is, however, Christ is the positive wave and Jesus is the negative wave, hence Jesus is the son of man, the negative carbon wave.

"Jesus, through the father, gives life eternal" (Jno. 17:3).

As we have previously shown, the negative oxygen wave is absorbed by the negative nitrogen wave, which coils into the orbital ring which symbolizes universal life.

This is all concealed gnosticism.

"The only true God, and Jesus Christ whom thou hast sent" (Jno. 17:3).

"God is Jehovah" (Isa. 12:2).

"I am God and not man" (Hos. 11:9).

"There is but one God, the Father, of whom are all things, and one Lord, Jesus Christ, by whom are all things" (1 Cor. 8:6). What kind of chatter is this?

"And when all things shall be subdued unto him, then shall the son also himself be subject unto him that put all things under him, that God may be all and in all" (1 Cor. 15:28).

This is another direct reference to the gnostic system.

"The Lord is God" (Ps. 18:31).

"The woman is of the man and the man of the woman" (1 Cor. 11:12). We have previously explained this.

"God is one" (Gal. 3:20).

"Our God is a consuming fire" (Heb. 12:29). The sun.

"God is light and in him is no darkness" (1 Jno. 1:5).

"God giveth to men, wisdom, and knowledge, and joy" (Ecc. 2:26). This makes of God light.

"I am alpha and omega, the beginning and the end" (Rev. 21:6). Specifically gnostic, as we have shown.

Christ is called the son of man, in the Bible, about eighty times. He is given about two hundred titles.

To add further impudence to the false pretense of palming off on a gullible humanity of these fake characters as actual beings, we find them listed in the "Emblems of the Saints."

St. Aaron—censer, rod.

St. Abraham—sword near at hand.

St. Cherubim—Guard of Paradise. Hands lifted in adoration.

St. David—dove on his shoulder, holding harp.

St. Mary—the blessed virgin, carrying two fishes and a loaf.

St. Moses—stabbed with a knife; holding tables of the law.

St. Peter—two golden keys in hand.

St. Joseph—spouse of the blessed virgin; carrying a rod.

St. Noah—in ark with dove.

And endless other fake characters.

All references to God, coupled with Christ Jesus, man and woman, are bound together with the gnostic system of creative waves.

CHRIST

1. "The same as the messiah = initiation into high office.
2. "Equal to God, the father, and over all—authority, law.
3. "By Christ alone life and salvation are procured.
4. "The express image of God. Therefore God is authority.
5. "The brightness of his father's glory; the glory of the sun.
6. "The glory of all worlds and the refulgent luminary of the universe. Bible concordance—sun-worship.
7. "Christ the son of the living God" (Matt. 16:16). Light. This is a contradiction. Christ means authority of law.
8. "Christ died for the ungodly" (Rom. 5:6). This puts Christ as Jesus.
9. "Therefore we are buried with him by baptism into death" (Rom. 6:4).
10. "Christ is the power of God and the wisdom of God" (1 Cor. 1:24).
11. "God is shed abroad in our hearts by the holy-ghost which is given to us" (Rom. 5:6). The holy-ghost is our breath. This identifies Christ as oxygen.
12. "Ye are Christs and Christ is God's" (1 Cor. 32:3). This refers to the priesthood. In the confessional the priest poses as Christ.
13. "Christ has redeemed us from the curse of the law" (Gal. 3:13). "The law is our school-master to bring us to Christ" (Gal. 3:24).
14. "Jew, Greek, bond or free, male and female are all one in Christ" (Gal. 3:28).
15. "God the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ" (Eph. 1:3).
16. "Christ gives light" (Eph. 5:15). This intimates the sun as Christ. Whereas, "Christ is our life" (Col. 3:4). "Jesus declares, I am the light of the world" (Jno. 8:12).
17. "In the beginning was the word, and the word was with God, and the word was God" (Jno. 1:1).

18. "The same was in the beginning with God" (Jno. 1:2).

19. "All things were made by him" (Jno. 1:3).

20. "In him was life, and the life was the light of all men" (Jno. 1:4).

21. "No man hath seen God at any time, the only begotten son, which is in the bosom of the father, he hath declared him" (Jno. 1:18).

Inasmuch as this alleged son is a myth, there is no evidence that a christian God exists.

But God himself declared in Exodus 4:22, that, "Israel is my son, even my first born."

22. "Christ is our life" (Col. 3:4).

23. "Christ is all and in all" (Col. 3:11).

Such expressions, with the statement that God created all, makes it plain that God created evil in the world.

24. "Jesus is wisdom" (1 Cor. 1:30).

Then why did God sacrifice wisdom?

This has reference to the suppression of the gnostic wisdom.

25. "Jesus Christ is in you" (Gal. 13:5). When did you come off the cross.

26. "The gift of God is eternal life through Jesus Christ" (Rom. 6:23). Then why worry?

27. "Christ is the son of David" (Mark 12:35; Luke 20:41).

28. "Jesus is the Christ" (Mark 8:29; Acts 17:3).

29. "Christ is the son of the living God" (Jno. 6:69). This makes David the living God. Wait a moment!

30. "Jesus Christ the son of Abraham" (Matt. 1:1).

Now, who is this over-fathered individual?

31. "The head of every man is Christ, the head of every woman is the man, and the head of Christ is God" (1 Cor. 11:3). Then, after all, God is not all, he is merely the head of something.

32. "In Adam all die, in Christ all shall be made alive" (1 Cor. 15:22).

It is clear, this contradictory tommyrot gives no light whatever, and this is due to a desire to bind humanity in a state of mystery and mental confusion, until ecclesiasticism may acquire absolute control over all the governing powers of the world, when humanity will be controlled by force.

For five hundred years the popes of Rome ruled Europe by their so-called "temporal power." They appointed kings, and controlled wars.

Now, that word temporal rises up to accuse them.

In 1870, when the catholic church felt secure in the United States, and the political control of America, it surrendered the "temporal power," and, today, this conglomerate mass of nationalities and tongues has become, in fact, the Babylon of the Earth.

Babylon means, in the code, mixture and confusion.

Elsewhere we have commented on this well-designed trap for ignorant humanity. Crime and poverty are commercialized. Crime is coined out of a multitude of laws. "Where there is no law there is no crime."

Poverty is the fruit of taxation.

The church lives, thrives and fattens on evil and poverty. So-called charity is a business.

Were there no evil there would be no necessity for a church.

We have shown the utter contempt for truth and reason in their attempted exploitation of Christ. We shall now submit Jesus, and attempt to unite the two, for examination.

Jesus is especially exploited in America through the secret catholic order of Jesuitry.

This suggests an analysis of this name America, which stole the honors of discovery from Columbus.

Am means a female deity—the church of Christ.

Er = fire of the great era. Eros, a ship, also hero.

Ic = Iesus Christos.

A = the primal cause.

Erica is Latin for country.

This all has a significant suggestion of the newly discovered America as the future land for ecclesiastical exploitation.

1. Jesus—"A savior; the god-man mediator."

2. The same with Joshua, "a type of Christ." Increased wealth.

3. Ac—era—zy. Crazy.

Jesus was charged by his contemporaries with being "crazy" and they said, he hath a devil and is mad.

Mythology relates that the goddess Hera = era struck Dionysos "crazy," and that in this state he wandered through the world teaching its inhabitants the elements of civilization and the arts of cultivation.

4. "Jesus conceived in Mary by the holy-ghost" (Matt. 1:20). The holy-ghost is the breath.

5. "Shall call his name Emmanuel, which, being interpreted, is God with us" (Matt. 1:23).

Then why all the worry about God?

"No one hath seen God at any time," therefore, the crucifixion was a myth

6. "Thou shalt call his name Jesus" (Luke 1:31).

Je = ever-existent. Sus = supporter.

7. His name was called Jesus which was so named of the angel before he was conceived in the womb" (Luke 2:31). Angel means a priest.

A young priest attended Mary while she was in the convent, and at the age of twelve years she was found with child.

8. "Jesus being full of the holy-ghost returned from Jordan, and was led by the spirit into the wilderness" (Luke 4:1).

Jordan means abundance.

Wilderness means the gentile nations; place of wild beasts.

9. "Jesus thou son of God" (Matt. 8:29).

"God sent his only begotten son into the world" (1 Jno. 4:9).

"This Jesus whom I preach unto you is Christ" (Acts 17:3).

10. "Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ" (Eph. 1:3).

11. "Jesus is light" (Jno. 1:8).
12. "Christ gives light" (Eph. 5:15).
13. "God is light" (Jno. 1:5).

This clearly attempts to make Jesus and Christ as one, which, by the creative waves, is impossible. This doubtless is to cover the error of God having but one only begotten son.

14. "God reveals his will through Jesus" (Jno. 3:34).

God as symbolized by the gnostic nitrogen wave can have no direct contact with Jesus, the carbon wave born out of the virgin spiral.

Now, will some wise-cracker tell us who is running this world?

Who is God? Who is Christ? Who is Jesus?

The Bible gives two hundred different titles to Jesus Christ.

When we sift it down, and measure it by the gnostic science, we find all of it refers to the double nature of man.

"There is a natural body and there is a spiritual body.

"The first man Adam was made a living soul; the last Adam was made a quickening spirit" (1 Cor. 15:44, 45).

Jesus is the character and Christ is but a name.

"Jacob begat Joseph the husband of Mary, of whom was born Jesus, who is called Christ" (Matt. 1:16).

This explains the duality of Jesus Christ.

In the list of titles the following characters are listed as Jesus Christs:

Adam.

David.

God.

Jacob.

Israel.

Judah.

Man.

Moses.

Solomon.

After having classified humanity, the question arose; from which class should be taken support and sustenance for the church?

Jesus symbolizes the earthy producing masses.

Je = ever-existent. Sus = sustainer, supporter.

Jesus was born in Bethlehem of Judaea.

Bethlehem means the house of bread.

Judaea means confession and praise (Acts. 5:31).

Immediately after this selection, Jesus was carried into Egypt by Joseph and Mary.

Egypt means oppression, trouble, misery.

Jo = increased. Seph = numbers. Mary means rebellion.

15. "Thou art Christ, son of the living God" (Matt. 16:16).

16. "Jesus Christ, the son of David" (Matt. 1:1).

17. "Jesus Christ, the son of Abraham" (Matt. 1:1).

18. "Jesus, the son of Man" (Luke 19:10).

19. "The son quickeneth whom he will" (Jno. 5:21).

Quicken means to awaken, enlighten.

This proves, in the very beginning, that favoritism was to prevail in education and enlightenment.

The Bible is filled with endless contradictions.

Jesus is named the prince of peace (Isa. 9:6).

20. "Think not that I am come to send peace on earth. I came not to send peace but a sword.

"For I am come to set a man at variance against his father, and the daughter against her mother, and the daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law.

"And a man's foes shall be they of his own household" (Matt. 10).

"He that loveth father or mother more than me is not worthy of me; and he that loveth son and daughter more than me is not worthy of me" (Matt. 10:37).

This is the priest speaking.

In the confessional the priest poses as Jesus Christ.

Could more egotistical, selfish and contemptible words be uttered by God or man than this vulgar declaration that this fake character was sent by God to teach men to violate the most sacred duties of nature and mankind?

This is wholly in keeping with the vicious pamphlet issued by a catholic archbishop, in which he declared that every child born of a mother not of the catholic church is a bastard, and the mother a prostitute.

The same treasonable pamphlet declares the church independent of and superior to the civil government of the United States.

Yet, this government permitted this pamphlet to pass freely through the mails without challenge, to insult decent, self-respecting citizens.

21. "Know ye not that ye are the temple of God, and that the spirit of God dwelleth in you?" (1 Cor. 3:16).

22. "There is none good but one, that is God" (Matt. 19:17).

23. "God is light" (1 Jno. 1:5).

24. "No man hath seen God at any time" (1 Jno. 4:12).

25. Jacob declared: "I have seen God face to face" (Gen. 32:30). But we know Jacob lied to his father.

26. Jesus said: "Ye are Gods" (Jno. 10:34). To see Good, look at yourself in the mirror.

27. "God is one" (Gal. 3:20). Above, Jesus speaks in the plural.

28. "Our God is a consuming fire" (Heb. 12:29; Deu. 4:24).

29. "The Lord God is a sun and shield" (Ps. 84:11).

30. "The Lord thy God is a jealous God" (Deut. 4:24).

31. "Jesus is a Jewish Rabbi" (Jno. 3:2).

Of course, because he is Joshua in disguise.

32. "God cannot be tempted, neither tempteth he any man" (Jas. 1:13).

"God did tempt Abraham" (Gen. 22:1).

Therefore, Abraham is not a man.

Now, in view of all this ludicrous stuff, why give credence to anything found in the Bible?

When this idiotic blather is analyzed under the gnostic microscope, concealed in the secret ecclesiastical code, quite a different interpretation of names, and their purpose, is revealed.

Not one of these characters, God, Jesus and Christ, ever existed as living beings. They merely impersonate certain powers, essential for the promotion of an imperialistic human enterprise, a usurpative political intrigue.

Through inspired ignorance, superstitions—fear has removed from the unthinking masses all sense of self-protection, and placed them at the mercy of coercive-suasion which both leads them astray, and fleeces them. In the code the producing masses are classed as cattle and cattle mean capital.

Producing humanity is the capital of ecclesiasticism and its fake church. Civil government is now the Christ to exercise his authority to smother the nation in a blanket of criminal laws, and impoverish the people by endless taxation.

The iron fists of common sense and reason should be smashed into the faces of the human skunks responsible for this, and the cringing hounds who live, thrive and fatten off it.

The first ten words in the Bible reveal the secret intent and purpose of ecclesiasticism. There is not one breath of true religion in the thing. The church is merely a cover.

“In the beginning God created the heaven and the earth” (Gen. 1:1).

Nothing in the Bible betrays cleaner-cut false-pretense than this first utterance. In the original gnostic manuscripts, the words God and heaven are in the plural — Gods and heavens, signifying the leaders, and chiefs, organized tribes, and nations of people. In the singular, as used in this verse, the code reveals:

God as a supreme being.

Heaven as the ecclesiastical government.

Earth as producing mankind.

We shall now mention a few of the contradictions and inconsistencies found in the Bible, which reveal themselves when we read the book in the light of the code.

"In the same day God shall shave with a borrowed razor" (Isa. 7:20).

Now what kind of fool stuff is this?

"God is a spirit."

Why! You crazy bat, this was to put into the human mentation the invention of safety-razors.

God declares:

"I am full of the burnt offerings of rams, and the fat of fed beasts. I delight not in the blood of bullocks, lambs and goats" (Isa. 1:11).

Yet, when he had tempted Abraham to sacrifice his son Isaac, he found a stray ram to take his place.

The firstlings of every flock were roasted upon the altar for God.

"And God smelled a sweet savour of burning flesh" (Gen. 8:21).

Has a spirit a nose and a sense of smell? Does this not sound like the ravings of a drunken, fat-bellied priest?

"Of the tree of knowledge of good and evil, thou shalt not partake of it, for the day thou eatest thereof thou shalt surely die" (Gen. 11:17).

The wise serpent of gnosticism said to Eve:

"God doth know that in the day ye eat thereof ye shall not surely die, your eyes shall be opened, and ye shall be as gods" (Gen. 3:5).

This fruit was knowledge.

The gods were priests.

They did partake and they did not die.

Thus God was made a wilful liar.

Moreover, God had previously said:

"Every tree bearing fruit I give to you for food" (Gen. 1:29).

The evidence that God was a meat eater is shown by his having turned down the vegetable offerings of Cain for the sheep offering of Abel (Gen. 4:5).

Cain in the code means vegetation.

Abel means breath, the respiratory animals.

Ab = the high-priest. El = the first cause—the breath.

How does it occur that God was so modest that he tried to cover Adam and Eve with “fig-leaves,” and later, turned tailor and made them “coats of skins,” and did not do so for other animals? Instead, he sacrificed a part of his creations to favor others (Gen. 3:21).

“Let us go down and there confound their language” (Gen. 11:7).

“Us” again. How many gods were there in the gang?

IMAGES

“Thou shalt make two cherubims of gold” (Ex. 25:18).

“Thou shalt not make thee any graven image, or any likeness of anything” (Ex. 20:4).

The christian church could not exist without the worship of an imaginary Mary with a fat baby in her lap, Jesus on the cross, and many pagan images. Not overlooking the little wooden Jesus in Rome, the S. Bambino, the most profitable image in the world to the catholic church, and having a half million of jewels hanging upon its body—blessed and crowned by the pope.

“And there went up Moses, and Aaron, and Nadab, Abihu, and seventy of the elders of Israel, and they saw God, and they did eat and drink” (Ex. 24:9, 10).

“No man hath seen God at any time” (1 Jno. 4:12).

Does this not declare these characters to be myths?

This was merely a party of rollicking priests, a bunch of fat-bellied priests, having a bat with the pope, “God on earth.”

In modern times these are called councils, conclaves, conferences.

“Whosoever doeth any work on the sabbath day he shall surely be put to death” (Ex. 31:15).

Untold millions have paid no attention to this murderous threat, therefore the human slaughter-house had to be closed

—be careful, the United States government has taken to killing “cattle.”

“God said to Moses: Write thou these words” (Ex. 34:27).

“God wrote on the tablets” (Deut. 10:4).

“Ye shall kindle no fire throughout your habitation upon the sabbath day” (Ex. 35:3).

How many catholics obey this fool command, with the mercury at zero? Merely a sop for catholic doctors and hospitals and graveyards. There is a profit in every motion. But this graft does not stop at the grave. Purgatory must be supported.

We do not hesitate to declare that every cent gathered in by this false-pretense is a clean-cut theft. It is merely a church invention.

“Ye shall eat no manner of fat of ox, sheep or goat” (Lev. 7:23). Why?

Because the fat is the best. Rich, fruitful, prosperous, cheerful.

One cannot have respect for the teachings of the Bible with such nonsensical contradictions everywhere, proving selfish motives.

“And Abel, he also brought the firstlings of his flock and of the fat thereof. And the Lord had respect unto Abel and his offering” (Gen. 4:4).

“All the fat is the Lord’s” (Lev. 3:16).

If fat is so objectionable, why raise up a lot of lazy, pig-jowled, fat-bellied priests to hog all the fat things?

The choice parts of all animals were always brought to the altar to feed the faces of fat priests posing as gods on earth.

The hare and the swine, their flesh shall ye not eat” (Lev).

Is that the reason why the United States government has killed and destroyed millions of hogs?

“And all the meat offering that is baked in the oven, and all that is dressed in the frying pan, shall be the priests that offereth it” (Lev. 7:9).

Can you beat that for a skin-game?

The idiotic fools bring to the Lord their choicest offerings; the priest goes through his hocus-pocus, then sneaks into seclusion and has a hearty meal.

The priest even confiscated the skin of the animal offered (Lev. 7:8).

“Do ye not know that they which minister about holy things live of the things of the temple? And they that wait at the altar are partakers with the altar?” (1 Cor. 9:13).

What would the Chicago stock market do, or what would the farmers do if hogs were wholly suppressed?

Now, here no doubt, is the origin of bank moratoriums, such as recently locked up all the normal money used for business exchanges, and skinned thousands of people out of interest due them by legitimate agreements with the banks. Nothing can ever explain or justify this awful act.

“At the end of every seven years thou shalt make a release.

“And this is the manner of release: Every creditor that lendeth ought unto his neighbor shall release it; he shall not exact of his neighbor, or of his brother, because it is called the Lord’s release” (Deut. 15:1,2).

On its face this is a fraudulent procedure.

It is most peculiar that, during the same period our government was enforcing its mysterious moratorium, closing all the banks, notwithstanding there were millions of hungry people standing in bread and bean lines, it was destroying millions of cattle, sheep and hogs, not even permitting the people to use the fresh meat off the carcasses.

“All fowls that creep upon all four shall be an abomination unto you” (Lev. 11:20).

Now what kind of a bird was this?

“Thou shalt not sow thy field with mingled seed” (Lev. 29:19).

That sends about every modern farmer to hell.

“Neither shall a garment of mingled linen and wool come upon thee” (Lev. 19:19).

God surely was sticking his nose into the private, personal affairs of the people; but not much more than the government is doing today.

"Ye shall not round the corners of your heads" (Lev. 19:27).

God is a practical joker to thus remind mankind that he is a square, wooden-headed thing.

This is not only disgusting, it is also funny.

"If a man take his brother's wife, they shall be childless" (Lev. 20:21).

What rot!

"If brethren dwell together, and one of them die, and have no child, the wife of the dead shall not marry without unto a stranger; her husband's brother shall go in unto her, and take her to him to wife" (Deut. 25:5).

Now which is true?

Num. 21:31-33 is too absurd to put in print.

"The Lord said unto Moses, make thee a firey-serpent, and set it upon a pole and every one that is bitten, when he looketh upon it shall live" (Num. 21:8).

Suppose this pole was in New Jersey, and a man was bitten in California?

Huh! If God was all powerful, why did he not destroy all serpents and protect all men alike?

Such rot is disgusting, not funny.

"The Lord's anger was kindled and he sware" (Num. 32:10).

"Thou shalt not swear."

This proves this alleged God is human. He does all the things men are tempted to do.

"The Lord your God proveth you to know whether ye love the Lord" (Deut. 13:3).

This is coercive affection, that is the secret theory of love for the law. Coercion always begets secret contempt and hatred.

Who could love or respect a fabulous freak?

How could anybody respect a thing like this, allegedly all and in all, and controls all, yet is eternally accusing mankind of disobedience?

No one has ever seen him or heard his voice.

"Thou shalt not eat of them that chew the cud" (Deut. 24:7).

Is this why the United States government is killing millions of cattle?

What is to become of our stock-yards, our canneries, our butchers? What about the fatted calves of the Bible?

"Of all that are in the waters; all that have fins and scales shall ye eat, and whatsoever hath not fins and scales ye shall not eat" (Deut. 14:9, 10).

Goodbye catfish, eels, and good old turtle soup; and oysters, clams, lobsters and others things.

Doesn't that wake you up?

If that was consistent then, why not now?

"Thou shall not eat of anything that dieth of itself, thou shalt give it unto the stranger that is in thy gates, that he may eat it, or thou mayest sell it unto an alien" (Deut. 14:21).

This is identical with the teaching of thievery to the Israelites—clean-cut teaching of crime.

Can you have any respect for so contemptible a God? Does it not prove that the Biblical God is a fabulous fake?

If, after you have had these revelations placed before you, you continue to help support the church, and pretend a belief in its fabulous characters, you are either a dummy, with no mind of your own, or else you are reaping a material benefit by your false-pretense of religious belief.

"The woman shall not wear that which pertaineth unto a man, neither shall a man put on a woman's garment" (Deut. 22:5).

This condemns untold thousands of young women wearing men's clothing.

Deut. 21:18-21 is a murderous commandment:

"He that is hanged is accursed of God" (Deut. 21:23).

How about Jesus, son of God, hanged upon the cross?

"When a man hath taken a wife, he shall not go out to war, neither shall he be charged with any business, but he shall be free at home for one year, and shall cheer up his wife which he hath taken" (Deut. 24:5).

Ha! Ha! What folly. Poor girls, most of them need cheering up later. But this implies war as a necessity.

Here is an example for murderously inclined persons:

"Then Jael took a nail of the tent, and a hammer, and went softly unto him, and smote the nail into his temple, and fastened it into the ground, for he was asleep and weary" (Judges 4:21).

No ordinary, conscientious, human being would sanction such a treacherous murder.

"God is not a man that he should lie, nor the son of man that he should repent" (Num. 23:19).

"God said, it repenteth me that I have set up Saul to be king. The Lord repented that he had made Saul king over Israel" (Sam. 11:35).

"And it repented the Lord that he had made man on the earth" (Gen. 6:6).

These contradictions are contemptible, because they are so human, and associated with a fake godly piety.

"The Lord drove out the inhabitants of the mountains but could not drive out the inhabitants of the valley, because they had chariots of iron" (Judges 1:19).

Ah! The invention of iron chariots by men put an end to godly raids, taking from him his all-powerful character, proving he was but a man after all.

"An evil spirit from the Lord troubled him" (Sam. 16:14-23).

So evil was a part of God's armament.

"Wickedness proceeded from the wicked" (Sam. 24:13).

It is evident that, if God sends forth evil spirits he himself is evil.

Samuel makes clear that this holy book teaches a belief in ghosts, witches, spirits, wizards and hobgoblins, as a part of divine revelation.

"And David danced before God with all his might" (2 Sam. 6:14). Isn't that funny?

He danced naked before his female servants and his wife left him.

These things are too disgusting to notice.

Was God displeased with the vulgar things David was doing?

"Go tell my servant David, saith God, thou shalt build me an house for me to dwell in" (2 Sam. 6:5).

Now wouldn't that shock you? God owning all had to ask a human being to build him a house in which to live? Where? And he a spirit.

"Uzzah put forth his hand to the ark of God, and took hold of it, for the oxen shook it, and God smote him and he died" (2 Sam. 6:6, 7).

You crazy fools, who are closing your eyes against truth and justice, will you see no injustice in such an act?

"Solomon loved the Lord. God said to him, there was none like thee before thee, neither after thee shall any arise like unto thee" (1 Kings 3:3-12).

One man, of all the billions of humanity, selected to be superior to all others, notwithstanding he is the most vulgar character in the Bible.

Even so, God repented having made Solomon head of Israel.

God said: "I will be a lying spirit in the mouth of all prophets" (1 Kings 22:22). What next?

Who can respect such a God?

"His anger endureth but a moment" (Ps. 30:5).

"The Lord's anger was kindled against Israel, and he made them wander into the wilderness forty years" (Num. 32:13).

Compare these two periods and try to get the truth.

What was the purpose of this fabulous wandering?

"And thou shalt remember all the way which the Lord thy God led thee these forty years in the wilderness, to humble thee, and to prove thee, to know what was in thine heart, whether thou wouldest keep his commandments or no.

"And he humbled thee and suffered thee to hunger" (Deu. 8:2, 3).

This is one of the most contemptible things in the whole Bible. It is but a picture of what was to be a fact later.

This modern wilderness is right here in the United States, today, and the people are being tried, and tested beyond endurance. Ignorance, poverty, and crime are commercialized, to impoverish and incriminate the nation to vindicate the church, and the legislative powers.

"The days of our years are three score and ten" (Ps. 90:10).

"His days shall be a hundred and twenty years" (Gen. 6:3). Why this favoritism?

Here is a bit of truth which appeals to common sense.

"That which befalleth the sons of men befalleth beasts, as one dieth so dieth the other, yea, they have all one breath; man hath no pre-eminence above a beast, all go unto one place, all are of the dust, and all turn to dust again.

"Who knoweth the spirit of man that goeth upward, and the spirit of the beast that goeth downward to the earth?" (Eccl. 3:19-22).

They dare not teach this gnostic truth from pulpit; to do so would destroy God, heaven, hell, devils and angels, and the churches would no longer be able to fleece their flocks, and live off the fat of the land.

"The living know they must die, but the dead know not anything, neither have they any more reward, for the memory of them is forgotten" (Ecc. 9:4-6).

Thus the Bible tells us that the immortal life it promises, as a bribe, is a fake and a false-pretense.

God himself grows impatient at the foolishness of the church.

"Your new moons, and your appointed feasts my soul hateth; they are a trouble unto me. I am weary to bear them" (Isa. 1:14).

What a farce that an almighty power could become weary of the false-pretenses of the church of its own creation.

This is a repetition, yet it is worth while.

"In the same day shall the Lord shave with a razor that is hired" (Isa. 6:20).

Well! Well! God, a spirit, with whiskers, shaving himself, and with a borrowed razor! With the earth covered with competent barbers.

Draw your own conclusion.

"The moon shall be confounded, and the sun ashamed" (Isa. 24:23).

This is an astounding confession.

In the code the moon is the church, and the sun is civil government.

Are these normal things of nature to blush for shame at some trivial thing?

Well! they should, just now.

"The light of the moon shall be as the light of the sun, and the light of the sun shall be seven fold as the light of seven days" (Isa. 30:26).

Such folly should condemn and suppress the whole Bible, but this chatter means more than appears on its face; it means that the church will assume the powers of super-government.

"The ends of the earth were afraid, drew near and came" (Isa. 41:5).

When that was first written they did not know the earth was a globe.

"I make peace and create evil, I the Lord do all these things" (Isa. 45:7).

"God saw everything that he had made and it was very good" (Gen. 1:31). Thus evil is declared good.

What started him in the business of making evil?

"I will dash them one against another, even the fathers and sons together, saith the Lord, I will not pity nor spare, nor have mercy" (Jer. 13:14).

Would a true God of "Mercy, love, charity, forbearance, and long suffering" be guilty of this criminal act?

No, it is a hound priest giving vent to his hatred for the common herd.

"I am weary with repenting" (Jer. 15:6).

"God is not the son of man that he should repent" (Num. 23:19).

"The Lord is not weary" (Isa. 40:28).

"I will fan them with a fan" (Jer. 15:7).

Wouldn't that be funny? God sitting there with a great big fan, fanning the people. Hollywood surely missed something.

The following should awaken the United States:

"Mine anger which shall burn forever" (Jer. 17:4).

"If they will not obey, I will utterly destroy that nation" (Jer. 22:17).

"If that nation against whom I have pronounced will turn from their evil, I will repent of the evil I thought to do unto them; if it do evil I will repent of the good wherewith I said I would benefit them" (Jer. 18:8-10).

Both bribery and blackmail are involved in the verse. Has the all-powered God no other means of making his own creations normal?

To thus threaten repentance on his part, God must have changed his mind about not being the son of man that he should repent.

This is too much like Bible prophecy. If it happens, it is true; if it doesn't happen, it is not true prophecy, "And the prophet must surely die."

"I will cause them to eat the flesh of their sons and the flesh of their daughters" (Jer. 19:9).

What kind of cannibalistic brute is this God?

He teaches the people to eat of the flesh and blood of "his only begotten son," then compels human beings to eat each other.

"O Lord, thou hast deceived me; thou hast prevailed" (Jer. 20:7).

Is there no coercion revealed here?

"If ye will not hear these words, I swear by myself that this house shall become a desolation" (Jer. 22:5).

"Thou shalt not swear."

"Thou shalt not take the name of the Lord in vain."

Think of God standing around cussin' and swearing about some trivial thing. Suppose some poor devil was deaf.

"The Lord shall roar from on high, he shall mightily roar upon his habitation. He shall give a shout" (Jer. 25:30).

Turrible! Turrible! An invisible spirit roaring and shouting! Such an experience would make one feel they were attending a Negro camp-meeting.

They could have given some dignity to God's rampage by adding "prancing and snorting."

"If the prophet be deceived when he hath spoken, I, the Lord, have deceived that prophet" (Ez. 14:9).

Isn't that shocking? God confessing that he must lie to his prophets that they may deceive trusting humanity for the benefit of the church?

That is not all of this treacherous thing.

"—and I will stretch out my hand upon him, and I will destroy him from the midst of the people Israel" (Ez. 14:9).

If that is not clean-cut treachery, betrayal, and murder, name it.

Now contemplate the following:

"God hath spoken by the mouth of all his holy-prophets since the world began" (Acts 3:21).

He has, above, confessed that he places lies in their mouths.

"And it shall come to pass, that every soul, which will not hear that prophet, shall be destroyed from among the people" (Acts 3:23).

"The prophet, which shall presume to speak a word in my name, which I have not commanded him to speak, or that shall speak in the name of other gods, even that prophet shall die" (Deu. 18:20).

"When a prophet speaketh in the name of the Lord, if the thing follow not, nor come to pass, that is the thing which the Lord hath not spoken, but the prophet hath spoken it presumptuously; thou shalt not be afraid of him" (Deut. 18:22).

Now, isn't that a sure-thing game?

Enforced prophecy is the big game.

The story of the virgin Mary and the birth of Jesus, is such an enforcement, and is the rankest fraud in the whole Bible.

"Now all this was done, that it might be fulfilled which was spoken of the Lord by the prophet" (Matt. 1:22).

To learn that Ezekiel is a false prophet read the following jokes:

"The son shall not bear the iniquity of the father" (Ez. 18:20).

"I will visit the iniquity of the fathers upon the children unto the third and fourth generation" (Ez. 20:5).

Isn't that a clean reversal?

"I gave them statutes that were not good, and judgments whereby they should not live" (Ez. 20:25).

Isn't that truly a godly act?

"With fury poured out I will rule over you" (Ez. 20:33).

And "God is love."

One more fake:

"God comes from teman" (Hab. 3:3).

A whole story might be written about this.

Teman means the southern desert.

He is the eldest son of

Elephaz, meaning God his strength.

Grandson of Esau, the red earth.

This is suggestive. In the Libyan desert west of Egypt were the caves of Nitrea, in which, it is alleged, the monks first conceived the idea of the christian religion.

Teman is cognate with Temenos, meaning an enclosed circle.

Like the suppression of gnosticism, it was essential for the ecclesiastical enterprise to absorb these moth-eaten monks, with their fabulous scriptures.

Let us continue our Biblical stuff.

"Resist not evil" (Matt. 5:39).

What kind of a come-on is this?

"If a man sue thee at the law and take away thy coat, let him have thy cloak also" (Matt. 5:40).

And why not his pants so he would get pinched when he left the court-room?

"Whosoever shall compel thee to go a mile, go with him twain" (Matt. 5:41).

Ha! Ha! Why not take my dear old sponsor, Mark Twain, as a pilot—he is now out of an earthly job?

On this idiotic principle where would a man stop?

"Give to him that asketh thee, and from him that would borrow of thee turn not away" (Matt. 5:42).

Suppose one should bump into a modern bread-line?

This demonstrates that there is no intention on the part of the church to eliminate poverty and human distress.

"Love your enemies; bless them that curse you" (Matt. 5:44).

Why does God not practice what he preaches?

"When thou prayest, enter into thy closet" (Matt. 6:6).

Why do not the christian churches practice this?

Why do the blaa-blaa priests and preachers pray in public?

"Take no thought what ye shall eat, or what ye shall drink, or what ye shall put on" (Matt. 6:25).

Do the sleek, fat-bellied priests practice this?

Have the millions in bread- and bean-lines any choice of foods or clothing?

"Himself took our infirmities, and bore our sickness" (Matt. 8:17). But we had to pay the doctor, just the same.

Why, then, are thousands of hospitals filled with sick people, scattered over the world?

"Let the dead bury the dead" (Matt. 8:22).

Wouldn't that be funny, to see dead men putting another dead one in hell?

Hell means the grave.

"Whosoever speaketh against the holy-ghost, it shall not be forgiven him, neither in this world, nor in the world to come" (Matt. 12:32).

This is a hot one. In the secret code the holy-ghost means the breath, respiration.

Evidently the writer of that had never experienced a Kansas dust-storm.

At no place or time has "the world to come" been identified.

"While yet he talked to the people, behold his mother and his brethren stood without desiring to speak with him. He said unto him that told him: Who is my mother? Who are my brethren?

"And he stretched forth his hands towards his disciples and said: Behold my mother and my brethren" (Matt. 12: 46-49).

This is absolute proof of the mean false-pretense of it all.

Jesus who is accused of thus denying his own mother, never existed as a living being. He is the Greek form of Joshua, meaning increased wealth, the savior of the Jews.

Mary, his alleged mother, means rebellion, and is Miriam, the alleged sister of Moses and Aaron.

Their own secret code specifically reveals this rank fraud, which is, today, preached as literal truth, to multitudes of human dummies, too ignorant to understand it.

Here is another evidence verifying the preceding:

"Why speaketh thou unto them in parables? He answered: Because it is given unto you to know the mysteries of the kingdom of heaven, but to them it is not given" (Matt. 13:11).

He was speaking to his followers, when he made this confession:

Heaven means ecclesiastical government.

"If thou wilt be perfect, sell all that thou hast and give to the poor" (Matt. 19:21).

That is, impoverish oneself to enrich the church.

In Matt. 19:17 it says: "There is none good but one, and that is God."

The name God is an abbreviation of the Sanskrit word good.

Then why make oneself a pauper for the benefit of others if no personal benefits come from it? If we sell what we have, and give the proceeds away, we merely join the ranks of beggary, while some one else enjoys our property.

This "giving to the poor" is one of the greatest sources of income to the church.

So-called charity is one of the greatest frauds permitted to thrive by government protection. About sixty-five per cent of all collections are absorbed by the collecting bodies.

It is amazing to what extent mankind has been led into imbecile beliefs.

They should study Matt. 13:11, then extend this study to verse 14 of the same chapter, to learn the purpose of it.

"And in them is fulfilled the prophecy of Esaias, which saith, By hearing ye shall hear and not understand; and seeing ye shall see and shall not perceive" (Matt. 13:14).

Esaias is Isaiah brought over.

Isaiah means the salvation or deliverance of John, meaning giving gifts to God.

This binds the ignorant masses to enforced fake prophecy, an insult which should be rudely resented.

The true purpose of binding the people in ignorance is told in Mark.

"That seeing they may see, and not perceive; and hearing they may hear and not understand; lest at any time they should be converted, and their sins should be forgiven them" (Mark 4:12).

Now, which is it, to fulfill fake prophecy, or to bind the people in ignorance and sin, or both?

This confession is criminal on its face.

Sin and evil are commercialized by the church. It is a self-evident truth, if there were no evil in the world there would be no reason for supporting a ravenous church.

Here is something to make the "brain trust," and the new deal thing, and the N. R. A.'s, and the B. I. G.'s and numerous other wow-wows sit up and take notice.

"These last have wrought but one hour, and thou hast made them equal unto us, which have borne the burden and heat of the day. But he answered and said, Friend, I did thee no wrong; didst thou not agree with me for a penny?" (Matt. 20:12, 13).

Is the disgraceful pretense of correcting our inspired state of national depression paying attention to this right to bargain?

Jesus wanted to ride, although he had always told his disciples to walk.

So, they stole an ass and a colt for him.

"And they brought the ass and colt, and put on them their clothes and they sat him thereon" (Matt. 21:7).

This must have been an act in a circus if he rode both the animals at the same time.

Could they pull off this thing today, on the plea that it was for Jesus?

"Man born like a wild ass's colt" (Job 11:12).

This Jesus character was a savage, if half of what is said about him may be believed.

Read Matt. 21:12-19.

"All the devils besought him, saying, send us into the swine, and Jesus gave them leave" (Mark 5:12, 13).

It is quite definitely established that there were no swine at all kept in that country at that time.

We are again confronted by a curious coincidence. Why did Jesus not send the devils into the sea and spare the hogs for food? Could these devils talk. We wonder what language they spoke. How many devils were running about, loose.

It is more important to ask: Why has our own Federal government been killing hundreds of thousands of hogs and cattle, burning their carcasses, or casting them into rivers while 23,000,000 starving people waited in the bread and soup lines for a morsel of food?

Did they put a devil into each animal slaughtered?

It came directly under our observation, that several thousand head of cattle had been thus slaughtered, on a single occasion, and when the poor, hungry people attempted to take and use the fresh meat, they were threatened with arrest and prosecution.

This horrible thing will surely have an equally horrible reaction in due time.

Let us continue the funny stuff.

"Commanded that they should take nothing for their journey save a staff only, but be shod with sandals" (Mark 6:8, 9).

Would we tolerate, today, prowling men with only a stick and slippers?

In Matt. 10:10, they are forbidden to take even staffs and shoes. Now which story is right?

In like manner Matthew and Mark again differ.

Matt. 27:34 says they gave to Jesus to drink vinegar mingled with gall.

Mark 15:23 says they gave him wine mingled with myrrh.

In the code gall means sin. Wine means consolation.

Nevertheless:

"He that believeth not shall be damned" (Mark 16:16).

Now, who can escape being damned, with all these contradictions set before him? Coercion by threats is a mean but potent weapon of the church.

Threats of "hell," and of "eternal damnation" are heard in practically every sermon. Hell means the grave.

"And Jesus increased in wisdom" (Luke 2:52) and he "one with the father" and "equal with God."

Does not that disgust you?

Perhaps he was going to a parochial school, or maybe a Jesuit college.

"Being forty days tempted of the devil and in those days he did eat nothing, and when they were ended he was afterward hungered" (Luke 4:2).

Which one of the endless devils tempted him?

If he were equal with God, he needed no food. If he were a mere man, he would have hungered, in fact starved.

The following is simple-minded by their own code:

"And the devil taking him up into a high mountain, showed unto him all the kingdoms of the world in a moment of time" (Luke 4:5).

Not even the sun could have accomplished such a vision; but the code will clear this up.

Devil means a slanderer, an adversary.

Mountain means:

"Place of power and authority" (Amos 4:1).

"Kingdoms" (Isa. 2:1).

"The visible Church" (Isa. 2:1, 2).

"Joy shall be in heaven over one sinner that repenteth, more than ninety and nine just persons which need no repentance" (Luke 15:7).

In simple, one stray dog, filled with the corruption and diseases of mingling with other curs, if he returns home is worth ninety-nine dogs which have remained at home and conducted themselves properly.

This is contemptible. It sets a premium on sin. If God cannot prevent sin, he certainly cannot know, positively, that a man's repentance is honest and sincere.

It is perfectly safe to estimate there are ninety-nine hypocrits in the church following to one who is ignorant enough to be sincere.

If all this is true gospel, then the Bible should be rudely suppressed for teaching it.

Heaven means ecclesiastical government.

"He that hath no sword let him sell his garment and buy one" (Luke 22:36).

Huh! Go naked to carry a sword.

On the contrary, Matthew says:

"All they that take the sword shall perish with the sword."

But, "God is a God of war, a terrible and avenging God."

Matthew was wrong.

Jesus declares that he came purposely to bring his sword.

"Think not that I am come to send peace on earth. I came not to send peace but a sword.

"For I am come to set a man at variance against his father, and the daughter against her mother.

"And a man's foes shall be they of his own household" (Matt. 10:34).

And this is your sweet Jesus—"the prince of peace." Did he die by the sword?

Let some hypocritical church prelate explain this church attitude toward humanity.

Here is another shock for the modern church smoozler.

"And Pilate asked Jesus, saying, Art thou the king of the Jews? And he answered him and said, Thou sayest it" (Luke 23:3).

Jesus is the Greek form of Joshua.

Joshua means increased wealth, savior of the Jews.

God gave to the Jews Canaan, meaning merchandising and trading, to increase their wealth.

"A spirit hath not flesh and bones as you see me have" (Luke 24:39).

"There shall no flesh be saved" (Mark 13:20).

"They that are in the flesh cannot please God" (Rom. 8:8).

"Therefore by the deeds of the law there shall no flesh be justified; for by the law is the knowledge of sin" (Rom. 3:20).

"For sin is the transgression of the law" (1 Jno. 3:4).

"For the law worketh wrath; for where no law is there is no transgression" (Rom. 4:15).

Here is the capsheaf of this tommyrot:

"God manifests in the flesh" (1 Tim. 3:16).

God cannot please himself.

God cannot be saved after he manifests in the flesh.

"Jesus is the word."

"And the word was made flesh" (Jno. 1:14).

"Flesh and blood cannot inherit the kingdom of God" (1 Cor. 15:50).

Now, how did Jesus and the two thieves hanged with him slip into paradise?

"No man hath ascended up to heaven but he that came down from heaven" (Jno. 3:13).

Did these thieves come down from heaven?

What about Elijah going up to heaven by a whirlwind? (2 Kings 2:11).

How about the translation of Enoch, and of Mary?

Here is a slice of juicy cannibalism:

"Except ye eat the flesh of the son of man, and drink his blood, ye have no life in you" (Jno. 5:16).

"Ye shall eat no manner of blood whether it be of fowl or of beast" (Lev. 7:26).

"And whatsoever man there be of the house of Israel or of the strangers that sojourn among you, that eateth any manner of blood, I will even set my face against that soul that eateth blood" (Lev. 17:10).

"Neither did his brethren believe in Jesus" (Jno. 6:5).

Christ says: "I judge no man" (Jno. 8:15).

"The father judgeth no man but hath committed all judgments unto his son" (Jno. 5:22).

Read the following, you poor, deluded church supporters and feel ashamed because of your timidity, and your superstitious fear:

"My father is greater than I" (Jno. 14:28).

"I and my father are one" (Matt. 10:30).

"They put on him a purple robe" (Jno. 19:2).

"They put on him a scarlet robe" (Matt. 27:28).

"And he bearing his cross went forth" (Jno. 19:17).

"They compelled a man of Cyrene, Simon by name, to bear his cross" (Matt. 17:32).

"Now this man (Judas) purchased a field with the reward of iniquity and falling headlong he burst asunder in the midst, and all his bowels gushed out" (Acts 1:18).

"And he (Judas) cast down the pieces of silver in the temple, and departed, and went and hanged himself, and the chief priests took the silver pieces and bought with them the potters' field" (Matt. 15:57).

The potters' field is Aceldama, meaning a field of blood.

An analysis of this word is a revelation. It means: The mighty power of the sunlight and the female principle were the beginning, and this secretly signifies educational enlightenment, and the church was the beginning of civilization.

"For the invisible things of him from the creation of the world are clearly seen, being understood by the things that are made; even his eternal power and God head" (Rom. 1:20).

Under gnosticism we reveal this as an evidence of plagiarism of the gnostic wisdom.

Then they dispute themselves:

"Canst thou by searching find out God? Canst thou find out the almighty unto perfection?" (Job. 11:7).

"There is no searching of his understanding" (Isa. 11:28).

"There is righteous, no not one" (Rom. 3:10).

"The righteous perisheth, and no man layeth it to heart" (Isa. 47:1).

"The righteous shall flourish like the palm tree" (Ps. 92:12).

If there are none righteous, why this blather?

"The poor shall never cease out of the land" (Deut. 15:11).

"Thus saith the Lord, Behold I will raise up evil" (2 Sam. 12:11).

"I the Lord create evil" (Isa. 45:7).

"Evil shall come upon them saith the Lord" (Jer. 2:3).

"Bring upon them evil and destroy them" (Jer. 17:18).

"Where no law is there is no evil" (Rom. 4:15).

In brief, the laws are made to create evil to support church and state, and humiliate and destroy the common people.

This system produced the outrageous English law called the "Benefit of Clergy." A criminal appearing in the courts with his priest, no matter what his crime, upon repeating the "neck-verse," the first verse of the 51st Psalm, was turned over to his priest without trial.

It is clear, those who contemplated committing crime kept their magic verse at the end of their tongues.

"The creature was made subject to vanity" (Rom. 8:20).

The creature is he who is satisfied to exist by the advice of his priest.

"The Lord hath put a lying spirit in the mouth of all these prophets, and the Lord hath spoken evil concerning thee" (1 Kings 22:23).

Doesn't that shock you. Do you still have confidence?

"God said unto Moses, I will have mercy on whom I will have mercy."

So, after all, it is God doing all this nasty stuff, and this is godly justice.

"There is nothing unclean of itself, but to him that esteemeth anything unclean, to him it is unclean" (Rom. 14:15).

That settles it. A man may do as he pleases and it is all right if he thinks so.

"Knoweth the God of peace be with you all" (Rom. 15:33).

"The Lord is a man of war" (Exodus 16:22).

Now, are there two gods, one of peace and one of war?

"Dare any of you having a matter against another, go to law before the unjust, and not before the saints" (1 Cor. 6:1). Ha! Ha! "Benefit of Clergy."

A saint means a pious Jew (Ps. 16:3) or a christian believer (Rom. 1:7, 8:27; Heb. 6:10).

"The saints shall judge the world" (1 Cor. 5:3).

"There is utterly a fault among you because ye go to law one with another. Why do ye not rather take wrong? Why do ye not rather suffer yourselves to be defrauded?" (1 Cor. 6:7).

Why then corrective laws? Why government at all?

Why take your case before the saints?

Let every man protect himself.

Why condemn the vigilantes?

"If a man have long hair, it is a shame unto him" (1 Cor. 11:14).

"If a woman have long hair, it is a glory to her" (1 Cor. 11:15).

Now what do you think of the God that produced both?
 What do the bobbed-haired women of today think of this?
 How about the length of the finger and toe nails?
 This is the limit of impudence.

"Take eat, this is my body, this cup is the new testament in my blood" (1 Cor. 11:24, 25).

The so-called Lord's supper is nothing but the revival of cannibalistic rites, a proof that christianity is but heathenism—absorbing all religions by plagiarism.

"If the woman will learn something, let her ask her husband at home" (1 Cor. 14:35).

Ha! Ha! Suppose the husband is an ignoramus?

Suppose the woman has no husband?

"If any man be ignorant, let him be ignorant" (1 Cor. 14:38).

What the heck does the church care? Why school taxes?

"I knew a man in Christ caught up to the third heaven" (2 Cor. 12:2).

How many heavens are there?

"Being crafty I caught you with guile" (2 Cor. 12:16).

Yes, being a criminal myself, I caught you with crime.

Craft means cunning, fraud.

Guile means deceit, duplicity, fraud.

"If ye be circumcised Christ shall profit you nothing" (Gal. 5:2).

Why the difference?

"And ye shall circumcise the flesh of your foreskin; and it shall be a token of the covenant betwixt me and you" (Gen. 17:11).

Both Moses and Abraham were circumcised. What about God's command to the Jews? Abraham is the father of all.

Here is a hot one:

"Jesus Christ being in the form of God, thought it not robbery to be equal with God" (Phil. 2:6-11).

Can you beat that? God a spirit, no one ever having seen his form, yet here it is admitted he has a form.

Jesus Christ is posed as a man on earth. Then why not every man declare himself as God and beat hell into, or out of, every other man who does not worship him?

"Servants obey in all things your masters" (Col. 3:22).

Where is the line of human equality in the church?

"Greet all the brethren with an holy kiss" (Thes. 5:26).

Such vulgarity!

"Suffer not a woman to teach nor to usurp authority over the man but to be in silence" (2 Tim. 2:12).

Ha! Ha! She put it over God when she got the female voting franchise across in the United States. She even sits as a judge, and in legislative assemblies, and as state governors. Keep it up, old gal.

"Drink no longer water, but use a little wine for the stomach's sake and thine often infirmities" (2 Tim. 5:23).

Fine advice during the time the 18th Amendment was swinging its hellish club—but the priests had theirs.

"All who will live godly in Christ Jesus shall suffer persecution" (2 Tim. 3:12).

If this godly life is so urgent, why does not God protect his own? No better evidence exists to prove that the whole thing is a rank fake. An all-powerful God capable of preventing such abuses, and fails to do so, is unworthy of even common respect. The following is in keeping with the idea of persecutions:

"Whom the Lord loveth he chasteneth" (Heb. 12:6).

If a man loves his wife and goes home and gives her a beating he lands in jail.

"He that spareth his rod hateth his son" (Prov. 13:24).

How utterly inhuman.

"Count it all joy when ye fall into diverse temptations" (James 1:2).

Why then do they teach people to pray to the Lord, "Lead us not into temptation"?

It is essential that these inconsistencies be explained.

James was on a jag when he said:

"Let no man say when he is tempted, I am tempted of God, for God cannot be tempted with evil and neither tempteth he any man" (James 1:13).

"God did tempt Abraham" (Gen. 22:1).

Either James is wrong or Abraham was not a man.

If "God is in us, and a part of us," why cannot he properly guide us?

Is sin an essential thing in the development of humanity, that all must be legislated into it?

"Hath not God chosen the poor of this world?" (James 2:5).

This is hypocrisy on its face. It would be a criminal God who would discriminate between his creations. Nature is not based upon such vulgar selfishness.

Why, with his all prevailing powers, should God bind any part of humanity in grief, pain and sorrow?

We may now recognize those responsible for our bread and soup lines.

"If any man offend not in words, the same is a perfect man" (James 3:2).

Offend whom? Why, the priesthood, of course.

Sorrow and poverty are the punishments of those who do not cringe to and pay tribute to the church.

"The earth also and the works that are therein shall be burnt up" (2 Peter 3:10). Then why worry?

Why, then, all this foolish prattle about God. Man is to live all his life in misery, then be burned up. The whole world is to go to hell.

"The earth and the heaven fled away, and there was found no place for them" (Rev. 20:11).

Now, does that clear up the mystery?

The whole thing was a fake.

Should the Bible be suppressed?

If not, why not?

There is a final reason far more urgent than what we have shown.

Which heaven do they mean?

Heaven means government.

Earth means producing mankind.

These are to be destroyed to make way for the "King of Kings" and the "Lord of Lords."

There is ample evidence to prove this.

The one great purpose of the ecclesiastical exploitation in the United States, is to convert this republic into an earthy kingdom, that the pope of Rome may remove his seat here and become this "King of Kings" of his own world.

This eternal preaching of a kingdom here in the United States is rank treason against this republic.

Already we have about scrapped our constitution.

Any intelligent student of this subject may take a Bible and find ample evidence of a great conspiracy against this nation.

"The kingdoms of this world are become the kingdoms of our Lord and of his Christ, and he shall reign forever and ever" (Rev. 11:15).

If there is any doubt about this meaning our established nations and forms of government, the following clears it up:

"And having spoiled principalities and powers, he made a shew of them openly triumphing over them in it" (Col. 2:15).

The following specifically proves premeditation in bringing about this insulting humiliation of previous rulers:

"We wrestle not against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of this world" (Eph. 6:12).

"And the kings of the earth, and the great men, and the rich men, and the chief captains, and the mighty men, and every bondman, and every freeman, hid themselves in dens of the rocks" (Rev. 6:15).

Then what?

"And he causeth all, both small and great, rich and poor, free and bond to receive a mark in their right hand, or in their foreheads;

"And that no man might buy or sell, save he that hath this mark" (Rev. 13:16, 17).

Again we warn the people of the United States, if there is no truth in these things, the Bible should not be permitted to remain in circulation, to frighten the ignorant masses.

These threats are examples for dishonest men to use in coercing the people to surrender their original national rights and independence.

At this time the people are confronted with a possibility of these threats being put into actual practice.

The national government is branding the nation with similar code marks of the most irritating character.

At the time of the origin of the so-called scriptures, finger-printing was unknown, but now a threat goes forth to brand every man, woman and child as potential criminals, along with identified criminals, with universal finger-printing—the most contemptible insult ever offered to mankind.

THE BOOK OF REVELATION

The so-called Book of Revelation was not added to the scriptures until sixteen hundred years of the christian scheme had tormented the world. It is the boldest part of the Bible, revealing, as it does, a brazen attempt to seize control of the world through a connivance with strong political influences, and sycophant powers, by which it seeks to reduce greater humanity to a state of helpless slavery.

The United States is the only substantial nation on earth which may be recognized as the true Biblical Babylon.

In the code Babylon means mixture and confusion of peoples and tongues.

Here we have that conglomerate mass and mixture of peoples drawn from every other nation.

The usurpative church originally, before the discovery of America, united its efforts and ambition in an attempt to blend all the established nations in Europe into one composite nation, hence it assumed the name catholic, meaning universal.

In all history this was the most brazen attempt at usurpative power and control every attempted by men.

By assuming an attitude of pomp and splendor, it gradually enticed the rulers of European nations into its own ranks, then by creating jealousies and quarrels between civil rulers, it assumed a position as mediator which gradually developed into a dictatorship, to such a degree that popes crowned and deposed kings at their will, even placing the crown upon the head of a kneeling king, then kicking it off to show his contempt for civil rulers.

Such human skunks who would thus permit such disrespect were unfit to hold any kind of office.

The popes of Rome maintained this so-called temporal power over the rulers of Europe for five hundred years.

A thousand years of degrading ignorance, and the ulterior training by the church, made of the common, ignorant people a plastic, militant mob, to do the bidding of the priesthood.

The terrors of this situation were revealed when popes desired to dethrone kings. They excommunicated kings, and at the same time declared the people released from their oath of allegiance to their kings, which at once set up a condition of rebellion and revolution, frequently leading to destructive wars to further embarrass the nations.

This was manifestly a part of the great secret scheme to drive the European peoples into one universal nation, with the catholic church as a dictatorship, with the pope as the supreme head of all, fulfilling the revelation of a "King of Kings" and "Lord of Lords."

It was this situation in Europe which kept the nations in constant quarrels and warfare, with the church of Rome concealed behind the skirts of the stronger side. There was not one year of peace in Europe covering a period of about six hundred years.

This was a dangerous period for the church also, because this constant state of irritation occasionally aroused some strong man's ire and he resented the encroachments of the church, and this encouraged other rulers to do likewise, and usurpative popes were suppressed, which proved conclusively they were not all-powerful gods upon earth, and that only by deceit and treachery had they acquired their ruling powers.

With the discovery of America a new and real wilderness was opened, and the church promptly seized upon this opportunity to escape from its precarious position in Europe, where nature had refused to blend nations and tongues into one universal body. It promptly began to lay the foundation for the new Babylon, so essential to its purposes, in the United States. Even this name seemed to intimate that Europe had refused to comply with God's scheme of universalism, and God had provided a way out of the provoking dilemma.

The church quickly recognized that here they could assemble all nations in one, with even more confusion than in Europe.

It was a diplomatic thing that they decided, in due time, to surrender the temporal power of the pope over Europe, and bargain with Europe to make the new country a dumping ground for all the undesirable classes of the nations.

The church lived, thrived and fattened off the superstitious, evil classes. Without evil there would be no excuse for the church.

The first colonists were shiploads of convicts out of England's overcrowded prisons, wreaking with vermin and contagious diseases.

Oglethorpe and Hudson were pioneers in this wholesale deportation. Georgia, and the Hudson Bay country, being the depositories for shiploads brought over.

The monastic orders were the pioneer church founders. Their early trails are strewn with the ruins of their ugly monastic dens.

The building of these monasteries ceased when the church became established.

From the very beginning the church guided, controlled, and fostered the elements for its new Babylon, bringing over and distributing whole colonies of people of all the nations of Europe, in a manner to develop a succeeding voting power to control elections.

Today the catholic vote is cast en bloc, manipulated by their secret Jesuitry, which have been deported from every large nation in Europe, to nestle in the soft arms of the United States.

At last the church felt secure in its new world, and in the year 1870, the vatican made peace with Europe by withdrawing the long enjoyed "temporal power."

The United States was recognized as the new Babylon secretly controlled by the vatican, a realization of the earliest ambitions of the church to establish a universal nation to rule the earth, with the pope as "King of Kings" and "Lord of Lords."

It is in the United States the fulfillment is to occur.

If what we quote from the Bible is not true it should be suppressed as an evil influence.

If they are truth then we must accept as truth the following declarations:

This revelation was given to Jesus Christ, the head of the church, as things which were to come to pass:

"He hath made us kings and priests" (Rev. 1:5).

"He shall come with clouds, and all kindreds of the earth shall wail because of him" (Rev. 1:7).

In the code, clouds mean great numbers of afflictions, and hypocrits.

Earth means the producing masses of people.

"I will come on thee as a thief" (Rev. 3:3).

Not like a thief, but as a thief, is very significant.

"We shall reign on the earth" (Rev. 5:10).

Those who labor and slave to support this villainous thing would better awaken.

"Right now this nation has ample evidence that treacherous encroachment is being pulled off.

Just read the following and do some thinking:

"There went out a horse that was red; and power was given to him that sat thereon to take peace from the earth and that they should kill one another" (Rev. 6:4).

Is it a godly virtue to thus inspire war?

Horse means an instrument of war.

Red always symbolizes bloodshed.

Take a view of the world situation today, and see if the trend is not to execute this threat.

"I beheld a black horse and he that sat on him had a pair of scales, and I heard a voice say: A measure of wheat for a penny, and a measure of barley for a penny" (Rev. 6:6).

This was the instruction this government attempted to fulfill that sent our corn price down to the previously unknown price of 11 cents a bushel, a short time ago. Overproduction had nothing to do with it. This was very evident by the advance of corn to 90 cents per bushel when the speculators had absorbed the supply.

This nation was marked for all these cruelties from the beginning.

"I beheld a pale horse, and the name that sat on him was death, and hell followed with him. And power was given unto them over the fourth part of the earth, to kill with the sword and with hunger, and with death and with the beasts of the earth" (Rev. 6:8).

Listen, you unthinking, unreasoning masses, who slave to support the ravenous church and priesthood in addition to your government. This threat is made to you.

Horse means war.

Death here, means the slaughter of war.

Hell means the grave.

Sword means bloodshed.

Earth means the humble producers.

Beasts mean cruel government officials.

Now this is all called the vengeance of God—"holy and true."

Does any man deserve to live who will sanction such hellish deeds, and still worship anything responsible for them as an all-powerful God?

Is there no evidence of a previous attempt to execute this murderous scheme?

How about the murderous crusades?

Popes stood in open fields preaching these awful things which sacrificed the lives of unknown millions of innocent men, women and children.

They enthused their victims by filling them with a desire to go somewhere to "rescue the tomb" of the "sweet Jesus," who admitted he came with a sword to kill all who would not kneel and kiss the dirty feet of popes.

These popes knew they were putting all these people in hell by preaching false pretense.

Jesus never existed as a human being.

Je means ever-existing, and sus means supporter, sustenance.

Symbolizing the very class of people being sacrificed.

It was but a new form of the crucifixion.

The purpose was a political intrigue.

Jesus also is the Greek form of Joshua, another fake.

Joshua means increased wealth, savior of the Jews.

But the "crusades" were picnic excursions compared with the hellish inquisition.

Nothing in human history compares with this premeditated outrage on civilization.

It is estimated that exceeding fifty millions of innocent people were sacrificed and tortured to death by fiends and devils in the direct service of the catholic church.

As a curse for permitting this awful crime, Europe should now be a withering desert.

These things, committed in the name of the church, and the christian God, were, secretly, but means to an ungodly end—the ridding of Europe of its over-population of unreligious and non-productive people, to keep down revolutions.

Subsequently, inspired wars have served the same purpose.

The late world war, in which the United States was involved, it is estimated, cost the world more than forty million lives.

Another such war is now imminent. The United States cannot avoid participating in this carnage, because it now is an international institution. Examine closely the nations most persistent that war should occur, and you will uncover and expose the secret clique guilty of such crimes against nature and humanity.

Let us now continue the revelation.

“Under the altar were the souls of them that were slain for the word of God for the testimony which they held” (Rev. 6:9).

If the whole world knew the ulterior significance of this, every church in christendom would be destroyed. It was for the protection of the secrecy regarding the gnostic system of philosophy, and science, which the originators of the ecclesiastic scheme had confiscated and utilized to construct the catholic church, that untold thousands had been deliberately murdered for delving into the subject. This included many priests, who were named saints to distinguish them from the common herd. Perhaps the most conspicuous case was that of the Jesuit, Lavoisier, who discovered the true character of nitrogen, naming it azote, meaning no life. The church cut off his head for this exposure that the element standing for God was lifeless.

In Rome there is a gruesome imitation of this fake, merely to give importance to this verse, Rev. 6:9. In the rusty old Pantheon is a bin filled with the rotting bones of the so-called saints.

Also in New Orleans may be found a similar pile, in the old grave-yard.

These are not placed in graves because God promised to keep the saints out of hell. Hell means the grave.

Now, here is an acknowledgment that all this hellish cruelty is church vengeance:

“How long O Lord dost thou not judge and avenge our blood on them that dwell on the earth?” Now, who made this squawk?

Rev. 6:12-17 proves, beyond all doubt, the savage determination of the church to fill ignorant humanity with hysterical superstitious fears, because, it is a lie on its face.

Now listen to the following declaration and ponder your future:

"The kingdoms of this world are become the kingdoms of our Lord, and his Christ, and he shall reign forever and ever" (Rev. 11:15).

This is the voice of the catholic church speaking. Our Lord is the pope, and his Christ is his authority exercised through the control of civil government.

This is one of the most brazen utterances to be found in the Bible. The head of the church, a secondary institution of the world, has seized control of all forms of government, through a fake character, merely symbolizing a church fiction.

This Christ is the Greek Kristos, the Greek form of the Hebrew Messiah, which merely means authority.

Again we are warned:

"I come as a thief" (Rev. 16:15).

We may now understand the trickery.

"Babylon came in remembrance, before God, to give unto her the cup of wine of the fierceness of his wrath" (Rev. 16:19).

"In remembrance" is suggestive of the previous fictitious Babylon, before the book of Revelation was written.

"And he cried mightily with a strong voice saying: Babylon the great is fallen, and is become the habitation of devils, and the hold of every foul spirit.

"For all nations have drunk of the wine of the wrath of her fornications, and the kings of the earth have committed fornication with her, and the merchants of the earth are waxed rich through the abundance of her delicacies.

"Come out of her, my people, that ye be not partakers of her sins" (Rev. 18:2, 3, 4).

"Babylon is fallen, that great city, because she made all nations drunk of the wine of her fornication.

"Babylon is suddenly fallen and destroyed.

"Forsake her and let us go every one into his own country" (Jer. 51:7, 8).

Now, there is but one nation to which this may be applied, and that is the United States.

Let us see if we can uncover the methods by which this conglomerate mass of peoples is being plundered and brought into a state of universal poverty, ignorance, crime and insanity.

It is a palpable fact, that this nation is being systematically smothered, to destroy its prosperity. Confusion is everywhere.

The bold evidence that these conditions do exist is seen in the bread-lines, with unknown millions pleading for a crust, and a spoonful of musty bean-soup.

Armies of shame-faced men, with shovels, pretending to be engaged upon public works, to cut down the real beggar elements, and the disgusting false-pretense of giving employment to thousands by the governments, as a dispensation of charity. The government should not be made an employment bureau.

Unknown millions who have not sufficient intelligence to perceive what is being done to them are being brought down into the dust of national shame.

"From the dust thou art and unto the dust shalt thou return" is no idle joke. Ask the men who are piddling mud along the public highways for bean-tickets.

The prisons will not hold the people being jammed into them. Thousands seek to be sent to prison to avoid starvation.

For the most trivial offenses thousands are sent to prisons for life, or are electrocuted. Yet there is not one visible evidence that cruel and unnatural punishments have reduced the awful volume of crime. On the contrary, there are so many laws on the statute books, no man can escape accusation if he has an enemy to prefer the charge and take him before ill-natured and prejudiced judges.

Our public hospitals loom like great cities, and their walls bulge with inmates.

There are not sufficient asylums to house the increasing imbecilic and insane people.

And now comes the crown of this horrid structure—taxation.

If all the crimes in the United States were rolled into one, the mass would be trivial compared with the endless forms of taxation.

Whether true or not, it was published and not disputed that, when the loaf of bread has reached the family table, the finger-prints of fifty-three different forms of direct and indirect taxes will be found upon it.

Taxation to the point of confiscation is throttling the people, and this reveals the underlying enemy.

The word ecclesia was the legislative body which ruled ancient Athens.

The ecclesia taxed the people until all private property was confiscated, and it smothered the people under vicious, murderous laws, which permitted petty officers to kill persons for the most trivial things.

The exploiters of the catholic church adopted the name ecclesia, as its higher authoritative name, and named its church catholic, meaning universal.

Now, examine the conditions in the United States:

Taxation is impoverishing the masses of people.

Farm lands have practically been confiscated by mortgages.

The only reason a direct tax is not placed upon the head of each and every individual is due to the fact that it is being reserved for the last motion in this great human tragedy.

"And every man shall give a ransom for his soul to the Lord when thou numberest them" (Ex. 30:12).

"The rich shall not give more than the poor" (Ex. 30:15).

Now compare the above with our constitution.

Sec. IX. Powers denied to the United States.

Clause 4. "No capitation or other direct tax shall be laid unless in proportion to the census or enumeration hereinbefore directed to be taken."

Our immigrations were so numerous this census could not be uniform, therefore a per capita tax of ten dollars was placed upon the heads of all persons coming into the United States.

It has been left to the states to overcome this weak spot in taxation, by one of the most contemptible forms of taxation—the so-called sales-tax.

It is at once seen that the "rich and poor pay alike."

This is in keeping with the following:

"And he causeth all, both small and great, rich and poor, free and bond, to receive a mark in their right hand.

"And that no man might buy or sell save he that had the mark" (Rev. 13:16, 17).

When this was written, finger-printing was unknown.

This government has already branded all lines of business, and has proposed the passage of a law making potential criminals, along with real criminals, of every man, woman and child in the United States by compulsory finger-printing.

If the people ever submit to this traitorous outrage, then they are not fit to participate in a decent, respectable, national life.

There is no name in the English language too vile and vulgar to paste onto those who propose such an insult to decent citizenship, as a code to identify them.

Today, the people of the United States are victims of a craze for making laws.

Despite the palpable fact that each new law creates a new set of criminals, adding to the burden of national expenses, the mills of the political gods, and their legislative lords, grind out thousands of new laws annually to further mulct the people. Thousands of these laws are mere traps for use in emergencies.

Therefore, it is urgent to identify and locate the underlying cause for such insane methods.

Ah! Here is the great secret:

"Now we know that what things soever the law saith, it saith to them who are under the law: that every mouth may be stopped, and all the world may become guilty" (Rom. 3:19).

This is a raw and impudent proposition.

All free speech shall be muzzled.

All people shall be legislated into criminals.

"By the deeds of the law there shall no flesh be justified—for by the law is the knowledge of sin" (Rom. 3:20).

The hell-hounds who uttered these treasonable things unfortunately are dead, and burning in their own hell—the grave, else they should be burned in public places.

There is every reason to believe that the crazy, legislative disease in the United States, today, is based upon these treacherous Bible suggestions. The theory of legislating all into crime, and branding all as potential criminals by fingerprinting, and taking all dignity and respectability out of the business of the nation by tagging, labeling, coding and the other fool stuff now being done, could come from no other source.

Romans 3:20 plainly declares, that men shall not be justified in using initiative common sense, and reason, as individuals, in their acts.

Therefore, we may safely draw the conclusion that the laws are created for the protection and vindication of public officials in their acts.

“Where there is no law there is no crime” (Rom. 4:15).

“Sin is the transgression of the law” (1 Jno. 3:4).

“Crime is not imputed where there is no law” (Rom. 5:13).

Why, then, are we deluged with a multitude of vicious, provoking, accusing laws?

To commercialize crime for the profit it yields.

Men are purposely provoked into crime.

“The law worketh wrath” (Rom. 4:15).

“Surely the churning of milk bringeth forth butter, and the wringing of the nose bringeth forth blood; so the forcing of wrath bringeth forth strife” (Prov. 30:33). Could anything be made plainer by words?

“A wrathful man stirreth up strife” (Prov. 15:18).

“Pour out thine indignation upon them, and let thy wrathful anger take hold of them” (Ps. 69:24).

“The law is our schoolmaster to bring us unto Christ, but after that faith is come we are no longer under a schoolmaster” (Gal. 3:24, 25).

There you have a clean-cut declaration that laws are made to arouse wrath in men that they may create strife to vindicate the necessity for laws, with the priesthood exempted, as they were under the 18th amendment.

The law does not accuse a priest, no matter what crime he may commit, because he takes refuge in the church, sacred against intrusion of the law.

The cold-blooded murderer, Moses, is a good example of this church protection.

"And of these cities which ye shall give, six cities shall ye have for refuge" (Num. 35:13).

These refuge cities were for "mankillers" of Israel.

Israel means the church of Christ.

Christ means the law, authority.

Christ redeems the church from the "curse of the law."

Now read the following and make up your mind whether or not the legislative powers are cultivating crime by smothering the people in a multitude of needless laws for the profit they yield.

"Either make the tree (man) good, and his fruit good; or else make the tree (man) corrupt, and his fruit corrupt; for the tree (man) is known by his fruit" (Matt. 12:33).

This commercializes human evil as well as normal human production.

Every new law put upon the statute books sows the seeds for new crime to give employment to political straphangers, and yields a new return of profits, by fines, penalties, and taxation.

There is no way of estimating, or revealing, the vast volumes of money milked from the helpless people under cover of endless laws, or the purposes for which these monies are expended. Therefore it is safe and reasonable to declare that this abnormal diversion of monies from legitimate channels is a direct cause for our state of financial depression at this time, because the cultivation of corruption and crime by law, makes money its yield of fruits. Thus money is diverted from its legitimate functions, as a measure, and circulating medium, in the exchanges of legitimate human products.

The horrible confusion of this modern Babylon, today, is identical with the fabulous Babylon in Genesis.

“There is the name called Babel; because the Lord did there confound the language of all the earth; and from thence did the Lord scatter them abroad upon the face of all the earth” (Gen. 11:9).

Now let the people of the United States see and understand the truth. That was the Babylon of yesterday. Today, the Babel of the new testament is the United States, the only great nation with the same mixture and confusion of peoples and languages. It is about to meet with the same fate.

If this is not true the Bible is a pack of lies, and should be suppressed.

To emphasize we repeat:

“Babylon is fallen, that great city, because she made all nations drunk of the wine of her fornications.

“Babylon is suddenly fallen and destroyed.

“Forsake her and let us go every one into his own country” (Jer. 51:7, 8).

This may be addressed to no other nation on earth. The United States is doomed.

“MAN KNOW THYSELF”

To Know Man Is to Know All that We Live For Man Is a Living World

The Image and Likeness of the Greater World
The Soul Man, Like the Creative Impulse of Nature, Is Invisible

The Soul and Spirit
Of the Visible Material Image

What a wonderful thing to contemplate: this seemingly living, animated creature, standing before us, or moving from point to point, is but a past-perfect mechanical body, wholly under control of an invisible conscious power, concealed behind its walls, which dictates its every motion and act. Moreover, that inner power is an organized aggregation of vital forces, each being clothed with a material body of which it is the spirit. All of which is invisible and concealed beneath the composite, visible external body. A human city surrounded by living walls.

If discretion dictates caution in approaching this well-armed protecting wall, how much more alert should we be in attempting to pass within and get acquainted with the walled city, and its active subjects.

The first impression is a tremendous shock.

Why, this is a living community, each organ being the seat of a ruling spirit having definite functions, and all these functions operate in unison, for the perfect control of the whole, including the external protecting and supporting wall.

The silent though ever active life.

Now we may recognize the significance of the saying: Every man may think without fear of the law. It is the man who expresses his thoughts aloud, or puts his thoughts into physical action, who is responsible for his words and acts. Therefore, the real man is a subjective being.

The gnostic beliefs that a subjective mental power, capable of projection, was one of man's superior faculties, was carefully concealed by the ecclesiastic exploiters who smothered the gnostic system, even to the point of suppressing mesmerism, as a concealed magnetic power, as fully demonstrated by hypnotism. They held the greatest fear for this great mental power, which definitely disputed their own claims to divine powers.

As we approach the study of the physical body it reveals two very remarkable characteristics, which prove it to be a visible reflection of the inner organism.

A gross division—the head, the thorax, the abdomen and the pelvis, each having its own special organs seated therein.

The more important, visible division, with close and intimate association with the inner organism, is recognized in the flesh, muscle, bone and marrow.

We quickly perceive, by their mechanical parts, that the four greater divisions are the external agents of the whole body, and the four secondary divisions are the mediums between the inner organization and the outer executive body.

The inner organization dictates, and the outer executes, each department having its own specific functions.

The head is the seat of mentation and judgment.

The thorax is the seat of respiration and circulation.

The abdomen is the seat of digestion and distribution.

The pelvis is the seat of excretion and reproduction.

Each has its visible external agents.

The face, and its special sense organs, exercise a censorship over all that enters into the body.

The head, the senses of seeing and hearing—the eyes and ears.

The thorax, the sense of smell and breathing—the nostrils.

The abdomen, the sense of taste—the mouth.

The pelvic organs, the sense of feeling—the flesh.

Let us now step inside this substantial outer structure and see who is in charge.

Sure enough, the “I am” is seated in the brain, having a supervision over all the living processes which erect the outer protecting structures. This is the seat of mentation and reason.

The telephonic and telegraphic lines of the brain, are the cerebro-spinal and the sympathetic nerves, reaching every portion of the physical structure.

The external agents of the brain are the eyes and the ears, giving the brain direct contact with the universal world—the nervous ganglia are the stations.

The inner thoracic agents are the heart and lungs, and their mediums of circulation and respiration, the blood-vessels, with equal ramifications.

The inner abdominal agents are the stomach and liver, and their distributive mediums, the lymphatics and small intestines.

Lymph means water, and true to the saying, that animal life begins in the waters, the first forms of living elements for the nourishment of the tissues are found in the lymph.

The inner pelvic agents are the bladder and the kidneys, which expel the waste waters of the system; the skin, with its sweat glands, assisting by the excreting tubes of the skin, which resemble those of the kidneys, ending in a spiral.

This clearly defines four organic centers, out of which come the essential streams of life, each stream carrying a vital element for the construction and maintenance of the outer, physical man, who provides the raw materials for the nourishment of all.

This brings us to the real problem.

THE VITAL PURPOSE

We must recognize four essential, substantial elements in this revelation of man, each with its own seat of action.

The brain, the seat of mentation—with the face and external sense organs as its external agents.

The heart, the seat of circulation—the arms and hands as its external agents.

The stomach, the seat of digestion—with legs and feet as external agents.

The bladder, the seat of excretion—with visible external agents.

It would seem, by this classification, that we are dealing with several individualities, which are striving to accomplish some common purpose or end. Nevertheless, if one of these vital centres ceases to function, they all cease, and the body dies.

The evidence is so manifest, that this thing which we call man, is but a unit in a creative system, compels us to compare him with a higher suggestion and impulse, and this carries us into nature itself.

Man is but a revealed reflection of a universal unit, developed to a living, thinking part of a greater being.

To demonstrate this requires that we compare this remarkable human symbol with original universal forms.

Nature has revealed a logical system of recording her spiritual and physical revelations by the creation of man.

Let us now return to nature and compare her with this so-called human reflection.

The head reflects the universal.

The thorax reflects the planetary.

The abdomen and pelvic, the earth and sea.

⊙ The electronic.

~~~~~ The vibratory.

~~~~~ The gaseous.

~~~~~ The solid.

⊙ The fluid.

Here we have the basic characteristics of all the states of planetary existence.

They demonstrate their primary positions beyond dispute.

Every visible, living thing in nature must adjust itself to these primary, creative waves.

The Positive Motion

These are the positive spirits which create the first molecule of living, visible, material forms.

Out of this molecule, symbolized by the hydrogen spiral, is born the composite "image and likeness."

We have visible reminder of this—living matter first manifest in the waters, the sea.

The Negative Motion

It must be observed that this secondary series of similar waves are reversed and negative to the previous position as positive life waves, the heads of the serpents pointing toward the spiral, as though being backed or pushed out. This makes each negative element an excrement of the preceding element, and each wave must nourish the succeeding wave as its offspring.

This is of the utmost importance, illustrating, as it does, the origin of growth, the multiplying of the original molecule to construct creative bodies with the power of reproduction.

The demonstration of this process is a revelation in visible facts. Nothing having visible form, and having life, can escape from the original system of waves. They must manifest in consecutive waves, consistency, or masses.

Even ecclesiasticism, in its fabulous system based upon the confiscated gnostic wisdom, has acknowledged this.

The spiral, symbolizing the sea, is mere or mer.

Mary is derived from mere, meaning the sea.

Mary is the virgin attitude of creative nature and gives birth to Jesus.

Je means ever-existent, sus means sustenance.

The English word sow, who suckles her pigs, is derived from sus.

Therefore, the name Jesus as applied to the church scheme means the producing masses which support the church.

In all the early philosophies the tree, preferably the apple tree, has been adopted to symbolize the creative process to the productive state.

We recognize this as the identical process by which man is created; he also is a respiratory animal, evolved out of the lower animal kinds. It is only a theory of vain conceit that poses mankind as a special dispensation. Such rank misuse of the confiscated gnostic wisdom condemns the church.

By the use of the same philosophic tree the origin of the theory of man being a special dispensation, by the church, is exposed.

Eve, as the spiral root, means life—the waters.

Read from the spiral upward

Adam, as the supporting trunk means the earth, production.

Cain, as the branches, means the spreading vegetation.

Abel, as the leaves, means breath, respiration.

Seth, as the reproductive fruit, means the respiratory animals.

Now see what follows this symbolism.

"And to Seth, to him also there was born a son; and he called his name Enos; then began men to call upon the name of the Lord" (Gen. 4:26).

Thus, following all other creations, a special dispensation was born for the convenience of the ecclesiastical exploitations.

Enos, in the secret code, means mortal man.

En means to make, os means many, open mouths.

The first three names in Chronicles tell a great story.

Adam, the earth.

Seth, the respiratory animals, meaning tumult, the commotion of numbers, noise, confusion, riot.

Enos, mortal man, subject to death, punishable with death, subject to temptation and fall.

By their own Bible this special dispensation is condemned:

"For that which befalleth the sons of men befalleth beasts ; even one thing befalleth them ; as the one dieth, so dieth the other ; yea, they have all one breath ; so that man hath no pre-eminence above a beast : for all is vanity.

"All go unto one place ; all are of the dust, and all turn to dust again.

Who knoweth the spirit of man that goeth upward, and the spirit of the beast that goeth downward to the earth?" (Ecc. 3:19, 20, 21).

That quickly disposes of the special dispensation, absolutely essential to the fabulous ecclesiastical false-pretense.

While man is, as far as we may now sense, the highest evolved being in this creative system, he is but the last product of a preconceived process which is clearly measured by the system of creative waves.

To classify mankind into inferior and higher divisions is criminal beyond all reason, and the institution which attempts to measure humanity by classifying men as beasts, thus thrusting them back into lower forms, should be burned in view of the whole world.

The church classifies the producing masses as cattle, meaning capital, and even its own congregation as sheep, with its priests as shepherds.

It is equality of contact with educational opportunities which should equalize all mankind.

The muddle-brained king, and his servile creature, and the sodden-minded pope, and his sycophant fool who licks his dirty feet, are all of identical organic and physical origin and structure.

It is pitiful to observe how men, whose minds have been deflected from the purposes of unprejudiced nature, have misguided humanity into paths, which it was not intended they should follow, to attain ends and purposes wholly evil and selfish, merely for their own earthy glorification and profit.

Necessarily, nations of peoples, with their own conception of governments and religions, preceded the aggressive and usurpative christian exploitation, with its false-pretense of religion, to conceal its ravenous political aspirations, and which strive to suppress and supplant all other forms of government and religion, and to merge them in a universal control of both body and soul of humanity, that one human being, the head of the structure, might pose as a god upon earth, and the supreme, controlling spirit of all. Hence it chose to name its pretended religious organization catholic, meaning universal.

In the light of gnostic reason and enlightenment, it is contemptible to see to what extent the christian pretense attempted to forestall nature, and assume, by confiscation, her prerogatives, by suppressing the wisdom of the ages, and smothering the masses of people in abject ignorance for a thousand years (486-1495).

Authentic history is witness to this.

As christianity grew in power, it developed its rank impudence.

Nature had a purpose to enlighten humanity, its highest production, in a manner to establish universal mental contact, and understanding, therefore, gnosticism—meaning to know—was the natural religion.

This was a traditional record of creative processes, which promoted man as the highest evolved being, and attempted to place all mankind in mental contact with the universal wisdom. This may be demonstrated through a knowledge and understanding of the natural system of creative waves established by the basic elements in their active state.

The so-called christian religion associated with itself the most vicious type of human government—named the ecclesia, taken from the legislative body of ancient Athens.

This vicious ecclesia confiscated all the private property of the people by taxation, and smothered them beneath a multitude of criminal laws, which authorized arresting officers to strike down their victims in the public streets.

An astounding reflection of this vicious attitude toward the masses of people is seen in the United States, today. Never before in our history have the federal and state governments shown so vicious an attitude toward the people. Our constitution is practically abandoned and a savage despotism has seized control. There is no possible means for ascertaining the number of unemployed people actually suffering for want of food. It is equally impossible to enumerate the endless methods of taxation, and the purposes to which this legalized graft are put.

Not even the government can estimate the number of laws being ground out by law-crazed legislative bodies.

But, two glaring facts may be visioned by all who seek the truth.

First, each new law placed upon the statute books either mulcts the people in some form, or creates a new class of criminals.

Second, a vast political following is being constructed by the endless new offices required to execute endless laws.

It is equally impossible to enumerate the sycophants who are thus supported by the powers which control this rampant system. No attempt has ever been made to estimate and make public the modes of expenditure for the vast sums collected.

In keeping with the outrageous taxation is the crazy-quilt experimentations in so-called finances. There is no means by which the outcome of this horrid thing may even be guessed. There are but two elements which form the foundation for this wild-eyed experiment—production and taxation, both squeezing the life-blood out of slaving humanity.

Not one evidence of sorrow or pity is visible in this fanatical national experiment. Nevertheless those who are wise to the usurpative purposes understand the grave dangers involved.

Vanity and egotism are diseases which destroy in men common sense and reason, causing them to lose sight of the simplest laws of nature. These laws may not be insulted and abused with impunity. The body that abuses itself in one part weakens the whole, and this reaction is inevitable in the present situation in the United States.

Let us see if we may find a precedent for our national experimentations.

The church has always sought to first control nations, that it might usurp control of visible nature. Invisible nature resents this usurpation, and in due time will slam the contemptible thing against its own lifeless imitation, church walls, and the evil dens called monasteries, convents, and nunneries, which conceal from public view its defaults, as the human body conceals the operations of its inner organic system.

In like manner, political powers attempt to erect outer protecting walls of productive people to maintain and support them, while they maintain their secret methods and purposes behind this wall of trusting ignorance.

If the original church believed it would strengthen itself by casting humanity down into a state of ignorance, it is reasonable to conclude that, equally selfish political parties believe that they can have the same protection by casting the producing people into a state of abject poverty by taxation.

Thus the church deprived humanity of its intellectual strength, and the political powers deprived it of its material strength.

This exactly corresponds with the present attitudes of church and state.

If direct collusion may not be proven, a passive agreement may not be denied.

A species of bribery may always be found associated with this usurpative system.

The church coaxes its priesthood with education.

It coaxes its congregation by promising the people protection against the "curse of the law" (Gal. 3:13).

"The law is our schoolmaster to bring us to Christ" (Gal. 3:24).

"But after that faith is come we are no longer under the schoolmaster" (Gal. 3:25).

Political parties coax their influential following by official positions with liberal salaries. "Job funds to be used for campaign purposes" (T. S. Apl. 30:35).

This civilization has been led away from normal, natural progression by the most contemptible influences.

Mankind is divided against its own natural development by selfish elements. But the creative waves cannot be suppressed.

Creative nature intended that all mankind should be brought into direct contact with universal wisdom, instead of being suppressed, to permit only a favored priesthood to monopolize this wonderful privilege.

We shall now call upon divine nature to join us in a drastic exposure of the misuse, and vicious abuse, of her wonderful gifts to mankind, her highest creation.

It is the series of creative waves which convict ecclesiasticism, and so-called christianity, of a brazen attempt to usurp the powers of nature, that a sordid priesthood might control the greater masses of mankind as herds of cattle and sheep.

It is well for us to know the origin of the name man, because this name helps to convict the so-called christian religion of wilful plagiarism.

Ancient peoples recognized the sun as the great central power of our planetary system, and through its warmth, light and beneficial influences were developed the living things upon our planet. But, they gave credit to a higher universal creative power for the original impulse directing the spiritual development of these creations, with man as the culminating type. Therefore, the first great spiral body was our planetary sun, worshiped as the divine agent of that greater power.

It was man who worshiped the sun, which was to be placed under control.

The ancients considered man as the soul or spirit emerging from the great light—the sun.

The original Hindoo name for man was Aum, having reference to the sun, as, later, the Latin homo, man, was om, the sun.

The ancient Egyptian Pan meaning universal, was recognized as min = man, the male principle in creative nature.

Thus, man is recognized as the highest created being on this earth, and that means all mankind.

In Scotland man is mon, which is equivalent to the English word mind, the Sanskrit manas, and the Greek monos, all of which mean single, solitary, alone, Omon — “the one sun,” or maon—the one mother—the moon, the symbol of magna mater.

Thus, man and woman symbolize the reproductive male and female principles—the sun and the moon. The Anglo-Saxon for moon is mo-na.

This all identifies man—male and female—as the crowning production of this planet; hence the ecclesiastic-christian form of usurped government attempts to bring nature itself under control upon this earth, by binding the greater humanity in abject, imbecilic ignorance.

This may be demonstrated, beyond dispute, by the use of nature’s own signature, the original creative waves, from which no organized or progressive system can escape.

GNOSTIC CHART OF UNIVERSAL LIFE

UNIVERSAL SYSTEM OF CREATIVE WAVES

PRIMARY ELEMENTS

Positive Action

Negative Reaction

REFLECTED CREATIONS

First Planetary Revelation—Positive

The sun is a burning vortex continually nourished from the universal source.

Second Planetary Revelation—Negative

Thus the sun creates the conditions for living beings upon this planet, our earth.

Living material things originate in the waters, after the earth has cast off its moon to become its helpmeet, after the earth has assumed orbital motion — the story of Adam, the rib, and Eve.

The original life creeps out of the waters onto the earth and aspires to rise into the atmosphere.

The vegetation precedes animal life, upon the land, as the prepared food for higher creations. Nevertheless, it exhibits all the elemental senses corresponding with its position in the creative scale.

We are compelled to understand that it is all one development of the essential parts for the final revelation of the

"Image and Likeness"
of
The Great Unknown Mentation
The Earthy Creations and Formations

It will be noted that these are positive waves trending downward, with all heads pointing toward the sea-level.

All waves pointed toward the earth are positive and those trending away from the earth are negative, the sea-level being the point of neutrality.

Even the vegetation begins in the waters of the earth and aspires upward, expanding in similar proportion to animal development, the bodies of both being controlled by the same set of creative waves. The distinct difference, however, is in the attachment of the vegetation to the earth, while the animals have freedom of bodily motion. Hence the vegetation is at the mercy of the animals which consume it as nourishing food.

Thus animals feed upon the excrements of the earth.

Vegetation depends upon the external planetary and universal influences to maintain it. Whereas the animals are possessed of internal organs, and a system of mentation, giving them the benefit of selectivity.

The vegetation means spiral motion, whereas the animals may partake of the benefits of both spiral and independent orbital motion, giving them access to greater mental nourishment.

We may now view with wonderment, and edification, the culmination of this dual system. Step by step it reveals itself by the eloquent system of creative waves, which, by their very nature, cannot regurgitate back through each other, nor bound, one over the other. They must reveal their natural functions and purpose in the wonderful, preconceived, creative scheme, by a reproduction of consecutive waves, or in material masses or consistency.

The gnostic philosophy selected, and adopted, the serpent as the only living creature which could reveal, by its motions, the system of creative waves. It also adopted the apple tree, as the most perfect demonstration in the vegetable kingdom.

DEMONSTRATION OF PURPOSE IN THE VEGETATION

Read from the bottom upward

Thus we have the gross physical symbol in the tree.

The leaves are the atmospheric nitrogen waves, feeding upon the oxygen waves, which feed upon the carbon, which feeds upon the hydrogen.

This fully demonstrates that each element in this system feeds upon the preceding element as an excrement.

In every system there is a dead excrement, and a living excrement having the power of reproduction.

Naturally, the evolution, from the beginning of physical life upon the earth to the perfected man, now becomes our most important study, but let it be understood, from the beginning, man is not a special dispensation, and nature is no respecter of individual units. The unit must be mentally and physically nourished by his own instructive efforts. His failure and death mean nothing to the creative forces of nature. Nothing is lost to the universal system, and consciousness of individuality ceases when the unit ceases to function in the great creative scheme.

Therefore, man being the highest evolved being, should be mentally and physically nourished to attain the highest con-

ANIMAL EVOLUTION

Read from the bottom upward

Here are three visible steps in evolution. They involve our wave system and suggest the origin of the caduceus.

ception and realization of his purpose on this earth. Any deprivation of these normal necessities, while life is in the human body, is crime against nature.

The greatest crime in history was the suppression of the traditional gnostic wisdom, by the ecclesiastical exploitation, and the smothering of humanity in ignorance. This necessitated its antagonism toward natural evolution, and the teaching of science and philosophy.

In his pursuit of and acquirement of food, man becomes a living symbol of the wave system.

The first motion is to raise, up and down, the leg, which symbolizes the highest expenditure of energy the nitrogen wave

The second motion is the forward trend which records, by the footprints, the oxygen wave.

The third motion is the measure of the distance traversed, the straight line of carbon.

The fourth motion records the end of the journey, and the attainment of the object, the hydrogen spiral

Therefore, this is a positive process, with initiative impulse arising in a mental centre, proving that all muscular action has a mental origin.

We shall attempt to produce a comparative chart which will broadly illustrate these mental and physical activities.

| UNIVERSALELEMENTAL SYSTEM                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       | PLANETARY REFLECTION                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               | ORGANIC MANTHE "IMAGE AND LIKENESS"                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        | PHYSICAL MANTHE REVELATION                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              | IMITATIONS                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |
|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Electron  Potential Nitrogen  Vibratory Oxygen  Gaseous Carbon  Solid Hydrogen  Fluid These are the positive primary elements in their first active creative motion. The spiral is the first living molecule of matter, a life spark surrounded by carbon. | Moon Principle Reflection  Sun Principle Radiation  Earth Principle Absorption Land and Sea  Mechanical Atmosphere Nitrogen-Oxygen  The atom is the first material body produced by the creative cycle consisting of the positive and negative set of waves. The serpent swallows his tail. | HEAD—Face and Brain Universal Mentation THE CENSOR  Everything entering this system is first censored by the sense organs of the head. THE IMAGE Head—the Moon.Thorax—the Sun.Dual Earth the abdomen and pelvis. | FLESHNervesSuggestion  MUSCLESBloodAction  BONELymphDistribution  Marrow.Excretion  The legs and feet carry the body to its prey, and the arms and hands seize it and transfer it to the head for censorship. | THE CHURCHSuperstitionPersuasion  GodPope  GOVERNMENTAuthorityCoercion  ChristKing  PEOPLEProductionNourishment  JesusSustainer  EXCREMENTSCrimeInsanity  MaryChurch  |

THE LAST WORD

This is the final message to determine if you are Jew or Gentile, and whether you are a sane, self-reliant man, or a cringing, superstitious fanatic.

It is an unanswerable test.

There is nothing wrong in being a sane, sensible Jew in this conglomerate mass of nationalities, if religious fanaticism is eliminated. The Jew has always been used as a tool by the most deceitful clan that ever trod this earth.

The Jewish type of people was selected and figuratively bargained with, to assume the parts they are alleged to have taken in the foisting upon humanity of the treacherous, usurpative, so-called christian religion which, beneath its cowl, has no religious significance whatever, it being but a secret, oath-bound order bent upon seizing control of the world, and enslaving the greater humanity, for its own selfish ends.

If, after studying the following evidences of brazen fraud, you still adhere to, and help support, the christian church, you can be classed as one of but two things; either you are a blind, fanatical fool, or you are one of the sycophant tools of the church. In either case, you should be eliminated from further respect, and confidence, by sane, sensible, thinking men, who hold a high regard for logical, human development toward a perfected civilization, with a final purpose of equalizing all men in a state of justice, intelligence, and human comforts and happiness.

Our declaration of independence declares this to be the purpose of this nation.

In other chapters we have exposed endless evidences of deceit, hypocrisy, and false pretense, in the promotion of the christian scheme to permanently fasten itself upon mankind.

We shall now uncover the fraud perpetrated upon humanity in the introduction of the Bible, with its two parts, the old testament and the new.

The origin of the old testament was in the louse-ridden, filthy dens of so-called monks, and was intended as a romantic play.

To put it in practical use, as a modern institution in fact, necessitated the writing of the so-called new testament, to eliminate the Jews, who, as portrayed in the first story, never existed.

It requires but a limited number of the Biblical characters to prove our statements.

It is by its own secret ecclesiastical code we convict it of wilful misrepresentation.

Fire-worship, sun-worship, and light-worship, are the three elemental types in the old testament.

The positive evidence of false-pretense, revealed by its secret code of symbolisms, figures, and bold personifications, brings the scheme down to man-worship, under the new testament.

In the old testament, the true beginning of the church is in Abraham, "who is the father of us all" (Rom. 4:16) and "The father of Jesus Christ" (Matt. 1:1).

Thus, in the beginning of the new testament, this fabulous character is named the father of the head of the christian church. It is therefore important to identify this Abraham.

It is essential to repeat some previous references to this fabulous character.

He was first named Abram, which had to be corrected, for the name only signified a high-priest, whereas the character had to assume to be the father or high-priest of all.

The simplicity of this foolish play is pathetic.

Ab-ram came out of ur, meaning fire, hence he was the priest of fire-worship.

His first born is Isaac, meaning light, joy, prosperity, intellect.

This made the light of fire the first Christ.

To mend this error, God commanded Abram to sacrifice his son Isaac on an altar of fire.

This had especial reference to the suppression of the wisdom of the confiscated gnosticism.

They found it was impossible to suppress the gnostic wisdom by burning of its records, therefore God provided a "ram" to be thus sacrificed, and Ab-ram became Ab-ra-ham, which eliminated the ram and substituted ham.

Ab means high-priest.

Ra means the sun.

Ham means hot.

High-priest of the hot sun.

Thus fire-worship was changed into sun-worship.

The sun made a much more universal and stable God.

Isaac, the son of Abraham, becomes the light of sun-worship, and the Christ.

There is an effort made to identify Jesus as this Christ.

Jesus declares he is the "light of the world."

They couple the names in the first verse in the new testament as Jesus Christ the son of Abraham (Matt. 1:1).

Then they sacrifice and crucify the gnostic light, Jesus.

This is most significant, for Joshua is the Jesus of the old testament, Jesus being but the Greek form of the name Joshua.

This alleged sacrifice was the withholding of education and enlightenment from the producing classes.

There is a clear difference between this Jesus and the name Christ.

Christ means authority.

Joshua means increased wealth.

Jo = increased, shua = wealth.

Jesus means sustenance, support.

Je = ever-existent, sus = sustenance.

This is further confused by the following:

"David is the father of Jesus Christ" (Matt. 1:1).

"Of this man's (David's) seed hath God according to his promise raised unto Israel a savior, Jesus Christ" (Acts 13:23).

This brings Israeal over into the new testament with no uncertain purpose, making it important to step back to Abraham's time to learn something of the original Israel.

Abraham was the high-priest of sun-worship.

Isaac, his offspring, is the light of the sun.

Jacob is the son of Isaac.

Is = the light, a = first cause, ac = great.

Light the first great cause.

Ja = Jehovah, the ever-existent.

Cob = cobus, meaning insidious, treacherous, crafty.

Jacob means the supplanter, usurper by trickery.

Rebekah, Jacob's mother, means snare, trap.

Esau means earthy, producing mankind.

Jacob and Rebekah swindled his brother Esau out of his inheritance, light, joy, prosperity, intelligence.

Yet God made a bargain with Jacob to become the priesthood, God to receive ten percent of all Jacob's graft (Gen. 28). God rewarded Jacob by naming him Israel, meaning the church of Christ.

And now, you fanatical supporters of the so-called christian church, are you worshiping fake Jewish gods, or fake christian gods?

The name Christ is not a proper name at all. It means initiation into high office and given authority. The name Christ is from the Greek kristos, the Hebrew messiah.

Jesus, in like manner, is but the Greek form of Joshua—the source of increased wealth, human production.

You try to name the true origin of this Jesus:

He is named the son of man.

He is named the son of God.

He is named the son of Abraham.

He is named the son of David.

He is named the son of Mary by the Holy Ghost.

Mary means rebellion.

Holy Ghost means the breath.

Don't hesitate—tell us who this character is.

Now let us scrutinize some of the other fabulous characters brought over from the old testament.

Aaron is brought over as the teacher, the parochial school.

Moses came over as a multitude of laws, Christ, authority.

Elijah comes over as Elias, meaning God is God.

Jacob comes over as the usurpative church of Christ.

Levi comes over as the tax collector Matthew, giving gifts to God.

Miriam comes over as Mary, rebellion, the mother of Jesus.

Israel is Jacob in disguise—the church of Christ.

And, after all, what are you asked to worship?

Is = the light.

Ra = of the sun.

El = is the first cause of all.

Away back in Deuteronomy we find:

“The Lord thy God is a consuming fire” (Deut. 4:24).

In the new testament we find:

“Our God is a consuming fire” (Heb. 12:29).

“For the Lord God is a sun” (Ps. 84:11).

Therefore, all who are sincere in their church adherence are but deceived sun-worshippers.

The sun rises each morning over the eastern horizon for all human beings alike. Neither pope, priest nor prelate can influence the distribution of its warmth and light in the slightest degree. Yet, in the belief that they have such power and influence the ignorant people maintain unknown thousands of these false-pretenders in luxury and ease, while they themselves hunger.

The churches have amassed billions in grand church structures and elegant homes, for which they receive in return not even thanks, but more often are roundly scolded for not contributing more.

Now, go to your fat-jowled, pot-bellied priests, and your smooth, soft-handed preachers, and demand that they refund all the money you ever contributed to the church, on the ground that it was obtained under false-pretenses.

Then demand of your legislative bodies to suppress this awful burden upon credulous, struggling humanity.

The priesthood and church organization live, thrive and fatten in idleness, upon human vanity, ignorance, and greed. It cultivates evil and poverty for the fruits they yield. Everything they control which humanity requires it uses as a bribe.

"Buy the truth, and sell it not; also wisdom and instruction, and understanding" (Prov. 23:23).

In the code, tree symbolizes man, good or bad.

The following is eloquent of the methods employed by the church to mulct humanity:

"Either make the tree (man) good, and his fruit good; or else make the tree (man) corrupt, and his fruit corrupt; for the tree (man) is known by his fruit" (Matt. 12:33).

This advice to cultivate evil for the profits it yields has created a horrible situation in the United States.

Crime is highly commercialized, yielding hundreds of millions from taxes, penalties, and fines.

The people are literally smothered in so many criminal laws the government cannot enumerate them, and the mills of the legislative gods never cease grinding out new ones, knowing, as they do, that each new criminal law creates a new class of criminals to be mulct, and increases the expensive machinery for the execution of the laws. The Bible advocates this.

"Now we know that what things soever the law saith, it saith to them who are under the law; that every mouth may be stopped, and all the world may become guilty" (Rom. 3:19).

"Where no law is there is no transgression" (Rom. 4:15).

Before we close this warning to deceived humanity, we must repeat the evidence of the purposeful intrusion of a fake, so-called religious body, upon established human progression, to seize control of the world, to enrich and glorify a designing priesthood, at the mental and physical expense of the struggling, slaving, producing masses of people.

This brief story is the essence of the whole Biblical church scheme:

Isaac means light, joy, prosperity, intelligence, belonging to all the people alike, the inheritance from nature to the whole world.

Jacob means usurpation by treachery. He symbolizes the priesthood, which seizes control of all access to enlightenment.

Rebekah means the protecting church, which sustains this usurpation—a snare, trap. Church is from chur, guardian of the sun.

Esau means the producing masses of people, from whom is confiscated all the natural sources of knowledge and enlightenment, called light.

We shall now make clear, to all who desire to know the truth, this treacherous conspiracy to rob greater humanity of its natural rights, to be peddled back to it as a bribe to support and maintain the church.

Abraham, Isaac, Jacob, Esau and Rebekah are the essential characters.

Not one of these ever existed in fact. They are but figurative personifications of the secret forces involved. We have previously revealed the code significance of these names, out of which is evolved Israel—the church of Christ.

Rebekah—snare, trap, instructed Jacob, the usurper, to prepare the flesh of goats to imitate the venison of his elder brother Esau, to be given to their blind father, Isaac, for food. Goat means man.

Here, now, is positive evidence of criminal purpose and intent, wholly in keeping with the training of the Israelites in Egypt as thieves, by God himself.

“Rebekah took goodly raiment of her eldest son Esau, and put them upon Jacob, her youngest son.

“And she put the skins of the kids of the goats upon his hands and upon the smooth of his neck.

“And she gave the savory meat and the bread, which she had prepared, into the hand of her son Jacob.

“And he came unto his father, and said, My father; and he said, Here am I, who art thou, my son?

“And Jacob said unto his father, I am Esau thy first born; I have done according as thou badest me; arise, I pray thee, sit and eat of my venison, that thy soul may bless me.

“And he said, Art thou my very son Esau? and he said, I am” (Gen. 27).

Did God condemn Jacob and Rebekah for this treacherous, thieving act?

No, on the contrary, he bargained with Jacob to pay to God ten percent of all his future graft, and, to express his satisfaction, he declared to Jacob that his name should, in future, be Israel, the church of Christ.

Thus, having usurped the light, joy, prosperity, and enlightenment, which belonged to the people, in the name of the church he was to peddle these to the people for a profit, ten percent of which was to go to the head of the system.

This was the play as it was written in the old testament.

In the new testament, that other murderous skunk, and blessed of God, David, is credited with giving to this Israel, the church of Christ, a savior, Jesus Christ (Matt. 1:1).

Which also makes David the father of Joshua, for the name Jesus is the Greek for Joshua, meaning increased wealth.

Christ is not a proper name, but is from kristos, the Greek name of the messiah, meaning authority.

Now, while righteous indignation may start something, this revelation will not be disputed by the present day christian church, no matter what its political pull.

In view of this contemptible deceit, are you going to continue to burden yourself with the support of this thing called the church, which laughs at you, knowing there is not one breath of true religion in the vicious scheme?

Are you going to permit bla! bla! priests to continue their interference in the business, professional and educational duties of this nation to give to the church dictatorial powers?

The freedom of speech guaranteed by the first article of amendments to our constitution, which also repudiates legislation favoring the church, does not give a right to priests to slander and criticise our national institutional practices. The nosing into business affairs of the nation by the church must be throttled. Political intrigues by the church must be rudely exposed and condemned.

The church, and every antiquated form of moral education, hiding behind so-called religion, should be suppressed.

The manufacture of crime by endless laws must cease, and this nation of people must shake itself loose from the influences of false-pretense and commercialized evil.

The floors of civil governments must be swept clean of odoriferous intrigues and influences.

This we believe is sufficient to sweep the cobwebs out of the minds of self-respecting, thinking persons who do not practice with the church for the fruits it yields, good or evil.

We rest our work in a sincere belief that we have done our duty toward our fellow men, especially those who have been deprived of the opportunity of learning the truth.

If we are sent to hell for thus exposing these treacherous things, the only regret will be that we must associate with the fiends responsible for all human suffering, for

Hell means the grave.

re

of it

ot

l.

e

e

i

e

UNIVERSITY OF MICHIGAN

3 9015 06354 4194

