

$50,000 Being Raised to Bring the Majestic GOLDEN SCRIPTS to the Attention of Tormented America!

10,000 Copies of Book of 844 Pages to Be Gifts to Clergymen of Nation

Supernal Transcripts Answer Dour Mischief of Communism in Our Churches, as Real Spiritual Reformation Looms in America

NOBLESVILLE, IND.—A bombshell is due to drop in American religious circles on or about January 1st.

Ten thousand copies of an epochal agenda of sacred psychical transcripts are to be published, in $5 Bible format, bound in limp leather covers, and dispatched to an equal number of Protestant pastors, clergymen, bishops, Professors of Theology, and outstanding laymen, as a wholesale Yuletide gift.

This collection of sacred transcripts, known as the "Golden Scripts" appears to cut back through all the ritualism and hair-splitting of dogmatic theology, and expound the real Christian religion in its original and pure form again.

It is time that America's spiritual leaders had opportunity for knowing about this majestic compilation of sacred utterings and addressings, and a fund of $50,000 is being raised to defer the expense of producing and circulating them.

Giving away 10,000 books costing $5 each, is something new under the sun—in this day of cynicism and skepticism—but the donors are sincere in their campaign to combat Communism in our religious denominations with TRUTH!

Here is one of the most pretentious publicity campaigns of sacred material ever undertaken. These Scripts, compiled under the most devout auspices, over a 20-year period, present aspects and phases of Christianity to which there is no answer. The only conclusion that can be drawn from them is that certain individuals have been selected to relay the assurances and adjurations from Higher Dimensions of Consciousness to bedeviled humankind in the present tormented generation. No preposterous claims otherwise are made for them. The Age of Miracles may not yet have closed, however. If you have not done so, you would have to read the Golden Scripts and decide for yourself.

Here are life fundamentals, cosmic fundamentals, religious fundamentals, prophetic utterances of gravest tenor, the most compassionate adjurations for the successful living of life, wrapped up in the most beautiful of pronouncements for following the true Christian faith devoid of sectarianism or isms that man has had uttered since the Sermon on the Mount. To put 844 pages of such material in the hands of America's spiritual leaders can mean the beginnings of a New Reformation in the religion of the present.

"Enclosed please find check for $1,000 on the Golden Script publication fund . . ."
F. L., Georgia

"Although I pledged $500 to the Golden Script book fund in my former letter, I now find I can manage to send on the whole $1,000 in payment of my pledge. Am glad to get it to you and shall look forward to the biggest success for the plan."
D. D., Long Beach, Cal.

"We think it a very good idea, and we believe there will be fifty who will volunteer this service . . . You have our very best wishes and believe that this volume was meant for more than the mere handful who received it twenty years bygone, but is to be given to those who will broadcast it to the world . . ."
Mrs. J. R., Modesto, Cal.

"I have been traveling with my salesman husband for the past six weeks and on returning home, found your letter seeking fifty contributors to support the Grand Program. May I have the sweet privilege of being one of them? . . . We are by no means affluent in worldly goods, but I had a small account before being married, and with all my heart I wish to have the privilege of helping to make possible the spreading of the word of our Elder Brother . . ."
D. E. T., Spokane, Wash.

"The letter and reel in regard to the proposed new edition of the Golden Scripts for distribution among Protestant ministers, has been read and heard. Most expressions of opinion in the matter have been favorable, even if a lot of the volumes would fall on poor soil and be choked out by weeds . . . John and I have talked the matter over as to financing, and it is possible that the two of us together could combine our resources and undertake a unit . . ."
P. H., Everett, Wash.

A Spiritual Reformation means an Economic and Political Reformation. To revise and bring up to date our religious ideas, aligning them with Evolution, Science, and Psychology—and particularly Psychological Research—means giving the nation a new birth of soul and national idealism.

The Golden Scripts are Extra-Sensory Recordings of the gravest and most significant nature. They deserve to be brought to the attention of the nation and let those who are ready for the prodigious truths they expound accept them and live by them. Copies of the original edition, published in 1941, have brought as high as $40 each, at private sale. No one who owns a copy will part with it.

Now this stupendous book is to have 10,000 copies placed in the hands of America's spiritual leaders. From Boston to San Diego, and from Seattle to Miami, America's men of God will have a sacred text offered them that will electrify and revitalize them.

It is the people already familiar with The Golden Scripts who are going to pay for this colossal gift to the pastors of America. The book has already gone into production and first copies will begin appearing around December 1st.

(Sample: Chapter 3)

"Call Me Elder Brother"

WHEN YE go about the labors of your day, remember my love for you, and that ye will not always suffer for my sake. I do know mine own. They are the light of the world which cannot be hid. Make your lights so to shine before men that they shall perceive that ye are whom ye are, verily my beloved, and gather about you.

I say unto you, call me not Master; call me Elder Brother, for are we not like unto one another, having love and common aims?

Those who do love me and keep my commandments are no longer children; I say they are brethren, and he who is greatest among them is servant. Why then do ye not admit that I am your servant, being your lord?

We are a company for goodly works together. I have shown you the way, ye have the privilege of following in my footsteps and partaking of my joys. We are children before the Father; we are brethren amongst ourselves.

Let us glorify the Father by advancing His work and saving the unrighteous, even from themselves. In that joy shall lie our blessing.

Ye are one with me; we stand equally before the Father; although my source and experience have been different from yours, we have work that is similar. We do it arm in arm, we perform it together.

Ye have no need to call me Master, for ye too may attain to the heights of my triumphs. I cannot call you otherwise than masters in that day.

Call me Elder Brother but do not call me Master, for we are of that company wherein all are equal, one with every other. The men of earth have called me Master, knowing not otherwise, but ye whose eyes are opened have looked and seen the truth. Do not belittle me by making me vain potentate when my one and only mission is to rule by loving service.

Greater love hath no man than this, that he shall serve faithfully for love itself, unto the end, regardless of reward, because love is spirit, and Spirit is of God. Therein is a great mystery. I say the day arriveth when understanding of that mystery cometh to you. Then shall ye rejoice.

Take my yoke upon you and go forth to slay dragons of fear, and doubt, and envy and malice; rejoice and be exceeding glad, for so went forth the prophets before you. Are they not in glory?

The world will receive you now where once it stoned you. Only those of the Great Darkness will make trouble in your pathways. I say ye shall overcome them with Truth, at mine instruction.

Come, let us reason together as each day dawneth; ye shall be the stronger for my counsel. Those who have served you have done well, I have honored them with blessings; but verily have they committed errors in their judgments that have handicapped you sorely. Know that I make no errors, yet do I leave you to them for instruction as to methods by which adversity falleth behind you. But in ways of spiritual unfoldments I shall be with you always, to show you the pathways up the steep of valiant doings, verily to the tablelands of eternity, fragrant with their peace and glories. I say ye shall have enlightenment if ye do call upon patience as your armament and declare yourselves deserving . . .

Have We a Revelation of Surpassing Import in this Devout Converse?

Beauteous Words, Apparently Relayed from the Elder Brother in Sacred Psychical Discourse, Recreate Christianity

THE GOLDEN SCRIPTS were first published in Bible format ten years ago. During that decade they have astounded and confounded all to whom they have come. Any mortal would be required to possess a greater intellect and command of words than Shakespeare to originate or fabricate them. The language and text convinces any open-minded scholar or critic that something of a supernatural nature has occurred to give humankind such communications in this generation. Breathing the most beautiful piety and altruism, they point the way out of this present dilemma of the Republic and the nations—besides disclosing the real tenets on which early Christianity was based.

These sublime Scripts are a classical addition to the literature of our age. They were not received, nor are they being circulated, under the auspices of any creed, denomination or cult. They are offered on their merits as a stupendous challenge to the atheism that seems to be so lamentably on the increase in our generation, and an answer to the Communism infiltrating our churches under the guise of Christian benevolence.

The Golden Scripts consist of 257 chapters of the most awesome writings, from the text of which no other inference can be drawn but there are still methods of communication between the Divine and man.

They can be offered to anyone on their own merits, and carry their own expoundings and explainings. They are, it would seem, an epochal extension of the Sermon on the Mount—257 sermons, so to speak—and those assisting in their circulation are performing a priceless service to people of wavering faith in this bedeviled generation.

That rebirth into the earthly tenure was one of the fundamentals of early Christian belief, is attested in these sermons, together with elucidations of how this process accounts for all the mysteries and inequalities of life, the fact of instincts and intuitions, child prodigies, and the real evolution of the soul of man. Everyone reaches heaven in the end, is the assurance in these papers.

Consider, for instance, the first two verses of Chapter 7:

"My Beloved, I instruct you: When the world asketh of you, What of the Teacher, what message hath He for us that is greater than all others, thus make ye answer: 'Behold, every life, no matter how humble, no matter how tragic, no matter how broken or thwarted, hath a meaning and an inner glory, and is precious in my sight!'"

Tormented America needs the consolations and inspirations in The Golden Scripts at this particular time. It will cost $50,000 to make and deliver the volumes, establishing permanent depots, and reading rooms in one hundred American cities that can service the tremendous reaction from the public that results, as enlightenment percolates down from the pulpits to the pews.

There is no sectarianism in this gesture, no commercialism, and no politics. No ulterior interests are grinding any axes. No one is being courted to join anything. A great element of spiritually-minded people, realizing what it would mean to have the precepts of The Golden Scripts universally known, merely want America to discover them and individuals to profit from them as they have profited.

If you are acquainted with The Golden Scripts and have the disposition to assist in the financing of this altruistic but vital project, drop a line to the publishers, SOULCRAFT CHAPELS, Noblesville, Indiana, who will furnish further data on the project.

Cooperation

"The Golden Scripts is the greatest book ever printed, bar none!"
Rev. J. R. K., Cal.

"We admire you for this generous gesture and wish you all the luck possible . . ."
Mrs. C. H., South Dakota

"My partner and I will have $1,000 in your hands, as our donation to the Golden Scripts book fund, in two weeks time. Whatever you want is okay with us."
M. G., Cleveland, O.

"Enclosed please find money . . . My husband and I read the Scripts and think we find more real enlightenment in them than anything we have so far ever found."
Mrs. B. T., Columbus, O.

"I have listened to your recording of May 14th. It appears to me to be a most majestic move and plumb choked full of stupendous possibilities.

"I'm with you however to the limit of my capacities and capabilities. I should like nothing better than to be able to go back to Headquarters and be of assistance in the tremendous amount of work cut out for you, but being only an electrician, my talents would fall far short of those you would require. However, I want to get in on this plan—this wonderful plan—and help as I may, even if only in a small way. So I'm mailing a cashier's check in the amount of $300. That's a long ways I know, from a thousand, but I'm sure there are others just as anxious as myself to help in this plan, and will perhaps add to it and maybe make up a thousand."

"Thanks, Chief, for all of your wonderful sacrifices, and for your man-killing efforts you have put forth so that myself and others might share in the benefits of character enlightenment, and the positive assurance of the reality of the constant abiding love of our Elder Brother."

SOULCRAFT is about to stride ahead in America with a master distribution of Golden Scripts and a goal of 100 free Reading Rooms in 100 coast-to-coast cities! ..

TIME IS HERE TO ADVANCE

Program of Expansion for Autumn and Winter Is Charted on Shop Basis

THIS MONTH of May that has passed saw the Liberation-Soulcraft doctrine become of age—exactly 21 years old. It was in May of 1930 that the first number of the New Liberator Magazine made its appearance in New York City. Its contents, carrying one of the first Elder Brother messages ever printed anywhere, constituted the initial publishing that over two decades has influenced the lives of over 50,000 people. That's a respectable number.

October of 1931 beheld 476 assemblies in operation in 23 States, with a weekly student attendance of upwards of 20,000. Over and over the first 67 Pink Scripts had to be reprinted. In 1933 the strictly esoteric phases of the enlightenment gave way to the crusading campaign the Recorder instigated against malignant forces seeking to alter our form of free government. For nine years this crusading work continued, appraising the American people of surreptitious elements working within their government departments, until the disclosures in Liberation publications were last night's newspaper headlines.

But in 1950, undismayed by any vicissitudes of reprisals, the work resumed as Soulcraft. A fresh and timely presentation of the basic tenets of life was begun, in the printing and circulating of the weekly Soulcraft Scripts. These began to go out to a new generation of Christian Americans, who had never had access to the original printings. Steadily the work of Soulcraft has been forging to the front again. The revised and augmented Scripts have now been coming out uninterruptedly over 42 weeks—and will go approximately 84 weeks more. In other words there will be twelve bound volumes of 13 Scripts per volume before the whole doctrine is called complete.

In 1941 all the sacred Master Recordings were gathered and printed in biblical format between one pair of limp covers.

They were given the name of the Golden Scripts.

They should not be confused with the Soulcraft Weekly Scripts, which are lectures in secular language on all phases of Esoterics and Mysticism for students who subscribe for them. The 1941 edition of the book called the Golden Scripts contained Elder Brother precepts only and were swiftly absorbed by the Liberation audience. For the past half-dozen years only seven copies remained at Headquarters, until in November of 1950 a box was discovered in storage that held 75 more. So keen was the demand to obtain copies of these books that the 75 were bought up by new students in 26 days.

LOOKED at in retrospect, the entire Soulcraft spiritual enlightenment swings unquestionably about the material in the Golden Scripts. The whole authoritative doctrine in substance lies within its covers, but told in the sacred literary form.

Knowing from experience what effect these Elder Brother precepts have upon the average confused or distraught person, it suddenly becomes an irrefutable "must" that a big printing of the Golden Scripts released to this nation here on the verge of the American-Russian War means not only a regeneration of morale for the rank and file of calloused or bedeviled citizens but a great rebirth of spiritual stamina to withstand any rigors the future may hold.

People who know their Golden Scripts, know the true significance of these times, why they are being permitted and enacted, and what their outcome is to be. They know death holds no terrors—even when it comes in the individual case—because they understand the true experiences of the thinking spirit in vacating its earthly coil, and what improved conditions they are to meet, all corroborated and confirmed by the most modern findings of psychical research. Enlightened people are People Unafraid. It's the ignorant and superstitious who become crazed by panic.

And that is no time for panic.

So a great printing of the Golden Scripts is being financed, the books to go mostly to the pastors and clergymen of America, but quantities will also be presented to prominent laymen and heads of academic institutions. And in the mechanics of successfully arranging for this distribution, Soulcraft Chapels—the business sponsors for the undertaking—propose to establish a national system of literature depots and reading rooms where those who hear of the amazing and regenerating contents of the Golden Scripts from their ministers can obtain copies for themselves in the individual instance, as well as procure the dozen to fifteen auxiliary volumes that expound the principles of the Golden Scripts in the most minute details. Also, all numbers of the Soulcraft Scripts will be procurable in such reading rooms, along with weekly copies of a 16-page VALOR—the Soulcraft journal that starts regular publication July 1st.

These literature depots and reading rooms will be serviced by hostesses who on certain evenings of the week will play electronic discourses to those brought in by special invitation. In the afternoons, patrons will be encouraged to use these premises to examine the Soulcraft literature and acquire such items as they elect as it attracts them. Each reading-room-shop will be as centrally located as possible in the business sections of the accompanying list of cities, where sidewalk window displays supplied from Headquarters will offer as attractive an appeal as possible to the pedestrian public to enter and investigate. The depots will be owned and operated by Headquarters, where a special traveling executive will attend to their management. Populations of something like 35 millions of everyday Americans are represented by this key list of 100 cities—people who need Soulcraft if they could only be brought into knowledge of it!

In some of these cities, Soulcraft assemblies are already operating, but the program will be pursued until representation is completed.

IT IS a long-range and heavy-duty program that Soulcraft is proposing, but it has hundreds of zealous and enthusiastic devotees to put it over—furthermore, experience has shown that the American public needs the information and disclosures which it carries. Where people of acumen and intelligence seriously investigate and study Soulcraft, particularly the sublime material in the Elder Brother's discourses, their lives and philosophies are forthwith remade. If one man or woman is helped by it, a hundred thousand can be helped—if they hear about it and understand what it offers them.

One Los Angeles student, a man in his thirties, expressed it thus to his Chaplain recently when he said, "Every time I listen to one of the Soulcraft discourses, I go away with my shoulders straighter, joy in my heart, and hope for those new leaders to hurry and get here!" There is little joy in the hearts of the great run of harassed and distracted Americans in the cataclysmic present. But the joy that endures and counts for something, is the joy that comes from discovery that the nation and the world are not going to the dogs, that there is a Plan and a Purpose being worked out in every life, and that what the mystics of all ages have tried to relay to man, does have a sound basis in cosmic reality—in other words, there is little or no "accident" in anybody's life. The joy that comes from Knowledge must be the Joy of Tranquillity.

People become enthusiastic over Soulcraft when they stay with it long enough to know what its profounder truths "are all about." It puts pattern and design into the seemingly commonplace, and banishes all fright at experiences after death. It wraps History, Philosophy, and Religion up together, and educates academically while it enlightens. But bringing it to people's attention is the major problem.

If the pastors of this nation can be made to grasp that Soulcraft is not in competition with their sacred offices, but helps and inspires them in their spiritual vocations, a great stride may be made in starting a new reformation in religious thinking.

At any rate, the campaign for the Golden Script project is quickening into its stride. Thirteen tons of special paper needed for the edition, has been ordered and is now being made at an Ohio papermill, with deliveries beginning July 10th. Two automatic presses at the plant will be turned over to the production of these volumes from now until November 1st. It's a program that invites respect.

After 21 years this work comes of age!

The Declaration that Started the Project:

I WANT TO FIND FIFTY PERSONS . .

who will make a contribution of $1,000 each to underwrite the gift presentation of one copy of the GOLDEN SCRIPTS to each of the ten thousand Protestant pastors and clergymen throughout the cities and towns of the United States this coming Christmas.

I want to make this gift presentation as a constructive inspiration in the invaluable work these pastors and clergymen are doing at shaping the spiritual lives and thinkings of approximately 500,000 to 1,000,000 bewildered Christian people.

Ten thousand Protestant pastors and clergymen becoming acquainted with the text of the GOLDEN SCRIPTS can electrify the nation as they must inevitably relay their reactions to the Eternal Verities therein to their communicants, giving them a revitalized concept of Christ, the Elder Brother.

The work will be strictly a labor of love, and require two hundred and three full-time working days at the Headquarters plant after the roster of donors has been completed.

Nothing more is intended than to place this limp-leather volume as a Yuletide gift in the hands of these American spiritual leaders, for the effect it must have on a revitalized Christian faith.

The time is ripe for it.

I find that ample paper can be procured if I order it in a special half-car for the purpose. With ROAD INTO SUNRISE completed, the whole plant is now available for this great work.

In no other way can SOULCRAFT be brought to the attention of so many for so little, because the pastors of America, once apprised of the GOLDEN SCRIPTS, can scarcely refrain from discussing them. This must bring the superb SCRIPTS to the attention of communicants. Likewise it must have an influence on their own sermons. An entirely new concept of the Elder Brother may be flashed abroad in the land—hastening a spiritual regeneration, the same as the incomparable MacArthur's homecoming gives indication of heralding a political regeneration.

Will you help me complete the list of the Fifty Persons who will make this national gesture possible?

Let's give Christian America a new spiritual inspiration to carry it through the difficulties ahead of it!

The High Intent

THE GREAT difficulty in establishing anything new in the minds and culture of men, lies in getting them to comprehend it, in that they have nothing known to which to compare it.

It would be easy to make Soulcraft—based on the majestic disclosures of the Golden Scripts—a new form of religion, or a new denomination, or a new sect or cult. But there is neither need nor field for another of these. The prevailing forms of religion, and denominations or cults, are already established and serving mankind. The unfortunate thing that has happened is, the original and pristine message in Christianity has gone far afield from what its Progenitor intended and taught. Theological squabbles, mercenary or political influences, or in cases downright subvertings for surreptitious ends, have taken the real vitality from the Elder Brother's Message. Attention has been focused on how He died, and to what purpose, instead of on how He lived, and what He sought to impress on humankind spiritually.

What Soulcraft is proposing to do, is begin a sweet, reasonable, and constructive renovation among the competitive sects of Christendom and offer what seems to be a bona fide and startling repronouncement of the original Christian doctrine to the communicants of the nation. It refuses to aspire to any role as a new form of religion, or denomination, or sect, or cult, because it must then enter into a sort of doctrinal competition itself with those established already, and create a new wrangle as to which is right and which is wrong. Soulcraft instead offers a premise in the Scriptures of the Golden Scripts on which vitality and significance can be put back into Christian doctrine, and the Faith have something restored to it that makes practical spiritual help available to communicants right here and now, in the problems of the present, instead of leaving all the fine things of Spirit to be realized "in the Sweet Bye and Bye."

Soulcraft is a growth out of orthodoxy instead of a competition with orthodoxy! That is something different.

The general idea is held, unfortunately, that there is no bombast, intolerance, and bigotry more substantial than that found in sects and denominations, whose Progenitor inveighed most rigorously against bombast, intolerance and bigotry. The denominational religions and faiths of the world have exacted an allegiance more drastic than those inflicted on their ranks of membership by political parties or modern trade unions. But looked at in retrospect, the whole situation isn't one whit different than the Elder Brother faced, in challenging the dogmatic arrogance of the priests, elders, Sadducees and Pharisees of Jerusalem, 1900 years back in history. Actually they crucified Him for effecting to set Himself and His message up in competition with their own ecclesiastical offices and influence. It was their own arbitrary power and omnipotence that has challenged.

Soulcraft, however, isn't challenging dogmatic power or any other type of power. It is saying to the spiritual leaders of this nation, only 39 percent of the country's population, by poll, is attending church of any Sabbath morning. Something like 61 percent is ignoring any recourse to religious faith. There must be an aridity or sterility in what is being presented in the various religious creeds, that almost twice as many persons are staying apart from religion as are attending upon it. What should be done to reverse the percentages?

Soulcraft says, "Learn what is coming through sacred psychical converse out of loftier levels of Time and Space, and the missing vitalities of Christianity will be restored. If anyone doubts it, let him give an intelligent and conscientious perusal to the Golden Scripts. They are submitted on their merits as holding the answers. If, after reading the Golden Scripts, the individual communicant hasn't found the answers, then nothing is lost but the time expended in reading 844 pages. But practically 100 percent of people intelligently and conscientiously reading the Golden Scripts do grasp the answers—in a flood of balsamic comfort."

That's why it's so important to make a big circulation of the Golden Scripts right now and let them begin their curative offices. Communism, recognizing the aforesaid sterility of 90 percent of the repetitious cant preached for religion in our churches, has been clandestinely taking advantage of the vacuum of vitalizing ideas by infiltration.

ting Marxist doctrine into the minds of outstanding churchmen, claiming strategically that the fundamentals of Communism are no different than the fundamentals of life proclaimed by Jesus in the Sermon on the Mount. Susceptible moralists and muddled sentimentalists have let themselves be hoodwinked by such argument, not suspecting its utterly mischievous and godless objectives.

Soulcraft comes to these same communicants and says, "Here is an advanced form or phase of religion to live by, and achieve by, and die by, a design of spiritual faith that gives people what they are seeking, without discarding or spurning the profound and inspiring tenets that have brought the Christian religion to its present world influence. You don't have to repudiate anything in Holy Writ, to profit from it. You lift your spiritual sights on eternal matters and advance onward and upward into larger and nobler concepts of Soul Progressions."

Soulcraft, in other words, is a form of sacred philosophy that once acquired and used, lifts the whole pattern of Christianity onto a loftier and more comforting plane of spiritual realization. Being such, it applies to all denominations and all creeds, without detracting from the least of them.

Its interpretation of this current hectic period through which the nations of the earth are passing, and its delineation of what actually is due to transpire before the world sees real peace again, compensate any student for whatever time he gives to its examination.
